A Diamond Never Depreciates

Part of the satisfaction in having a diamond is that no matter how long you have it, or how much you wear it, its value never depreciates. Should it happen that you ever want to dispose of it, it is just as good a diamond as it ever was—and while you have been enjoying it, its value has been increasing. We are showing a good assortment of carefully selected stones of highly desirable brilliance, color and cutting. The price range is from $25 to $1,000.

Brayley, red; McCavour, white; Belyea, blue. Mr. Belyea wishes to explain that at the time it was proposed holding the races he sent an invitation to Halifax and was advised that a crew could not come here on that date. He then wired to J. W. Ryan of the Internal Revenue Service in Boston, Mass., and asked him if he could send a crew to compete in the sports. In the meanwhile he has been instructed them to come. Now he has received a letter from Mr. Ryan saying that he may be able to get the Century Four of St. Louis or a four from the champion eight oared crew of New England, which is his own club. If either of these crews accepts the invitation Mr. Belyea points out that provision must be made to meet the necessary expense. He says it will be a great boost to Boston, one from Halifax and one from St. John meet in these sports.

CRITICISM OF AWARDS FOR SERVICES IN WAR

Friends of Admiral Jellicoe and General Robertson Are Not Pleased—Sir Reginald Bacon Attacks Sir Eric Geddes

London, Aug. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—The awards for services have provoked warm discussion, not only by those who think them unwarranted in view of the country's financial condition, but among the admirers of certain officers whose supporters think they have been slighted. Admiral Viscount Jellicoe, former sea lord, has a strong following in the navy who criticize the government for giving a higher title and larger grant to Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, commander of the grand fleet. The friends of General Sir William Robertson, former chief of the general staff, argue that he held that position longer than Major-General Sir Henry Wilson, who succeeded him, and did important work. They feel that it is unjust that General Wilson has been made a field marshal while General Robertson has been passed over.

Vice-Admiral Sir Reginald Bacon has begun publication of his memoirs, which bid fair to excite as much controversy as did those of Viscount French. He expresses strong resentment against Sir Eric Geddes, who as first lord of the admiralty, was blamed for Bacon's "brutal dismissal" from the Dover Command, which embraced direction of operations in the English Channel. Admiral Bacon criticizes Sir Eric Geddes for failing to defend him against "false criticisms and attacks." "When Admiral Bacon was on the active list he could not reply to these attacks, which he says was the sea lord's duty.

AN EXPLANATION. In connection with the plans for feeding visiting soldiers here on next Thursday and Friday, which Miss Amelia Haley reported to yesterday's meeting was not correctly chronicled. The Catholic Army Huts also will furnish the sandwiches and coffee to be given the men on those two days.

Some thought that the stores should be opened as soon as the prince had left for Rothesay on Friday. It was said that the prince might not leave here until Saturday morning. W. H. Golding said it would add to the general gaiety of the occasion if the shops were opened on Friday evening, while Geo. E. Day was of the opinion that the cutting in on Soldiers' Day and already about forty floats have been reported. An effort is being made to secure the use of the military emergency hospital in St. James street for the accommodation of the delegation from the Yarmouth fire department.

Arrangements are being made by Mr. Golding and James Connolly to have the children from the various orphanages in the city form a line on the south side of King square and sing to the accompaniment of the juvenile band.

Other committees reported excellent progress and the celebration is now certain to be the best yet.

THE LIBERAL LEADER

When Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King was Minister of Labor in the Laurier ministry he introduced a bill to strike at the combines which even then were putting prices in the home market up to an unreasonable level by preventing competition and taking advantage of tariff privileges. It was a stiff measure, and one that was strongly demanded in the public interest. In spite of his protests, the House greatly weakened the proposed law before adopting it, and in that way both the country and the Liberal party suffered loss. His course then gave noteworthy proof of his desire and determination to guard the welfare of the people even though his proposals were certain to incur for himself the wrath and settled hostility of the circle of special privilege interests to which high protection meant the chance to combine and squeeze the average consumer.

Hon. Mr. King is only forty-five, but he was early at work and accomplished much by hard study and vigorous industry, making every year tell. He was born in Berlin, Ontario, in December, 1874, his parents being John King, K. C., and Isabel Grace (Mackenzie) King. The family is Presbyterian and Liberal. After he was graduated from Toronto University he pursued his studies further at Harvard and the University of Chicago, and abroad. He was appointed Deputy Minister of Labor in 1890 and held that post until 1898, after which he was employed as government conciliator in many serious labor disputes and as the government's representative in investigating immigration matters in Great Britain and elsewhere. He was elected to the Commons for North Waterloo in 1908, and in the following summer became Canada's first Minister of Labor, a post in which he served with distinction until the administration's defeat in 1911. He is the author of several valuable books on public questions and his work respecting industrial disputes and combinations in restraint of trade has furnished material and guidance for others after he left the House to which his early return is now predicted. His record is clean and his character admirable. The Liberal party, following the plan commonly agreed upon after the death of Sir Wilfrid, has named as the Old Chieftan's successor an English-speaking Protestant, and he may rightfully expect strong and general support in every province, the staunch support which Sir Wilfrid had from Liberals of the two great races. Hon. Mr. King is a man whose training well prepares him for the task he now assumes. His opportunity and that of a reunited Liberal party is at hand. May both prove worthy of the country's confidence and equal to its needs. To courage, vision and sincere and aggressive purpose in public affairs this country is ready to respond eagerly.

THE COST WAS HIGH.

While those who follow with some interest the activities of Mr. Henry Ford—an authority on certain types of motor cars, but not equipped to make a very careful discrimination between Benedict Arnold and Arnold-Bennett—are waiting for the verdict in his libel suit against the Chicago Tribune, the public is informed that the cost of the trial was nearly a quarter of a million dollars. And the end is not yet in sight. The Tribune entered the fight with decks cleared for action—and so did Mr. Ford. The result was that the newspaper had dozens of witnesses, including thirty from Texas and the Mexican border. During their stay in Mount Clemens, Michigan, where the case was heard, they lived at the best hotels, rode in motor cars to different points of interest and had a good time generally—all at the expense of the Tribune. And Mr. Ford's witnesses, many of them from a distance, were not more modest. Some of the Tribune's supporters swore they were being paid ten dollars a day and expenses. The railroad fares alone amounted to a large sum and court officials declare that the total expense for witnesses was upwards of $90,000.

Then there were the lawyers. The Tribune employed ten of them, Mr. Ford seven. At least five of the attorneys were men with nation-wide reputations as pleaders, while the others enjoyed a high legal standing. None was paid less than fifty dollars a day, and some got much more than that. The expense for jurors and court costs ran into the thousands, but, of course, it is not known yet which side will have to pay it. That will be announced along with the verdict.

Settlement of the Adriatic question as affecting Italy and Jugo-Slavia is reported imminent. This matter once nearly caused a serious disruption in the peace conference.

It is significant of the status of daylight saving in the United States that, among those who have communicated with President Wilson, asking him not to allow the "new time" to be legislated out of use is James Duncan, first vice-president of the American Federation of Labor and president of the Granite Cutters International Union. Mr. Duncan told the president that his veto of the first attempt to repeal the law had been highly appreciated by industrial workers. Labor urging the continuance of the light saving system means powerful advocacy.

The Boston Globe says:—"The Prince of Wales, now on the battle cruiser Renown steaming for America, is bringing his personal baggage with him in the service kit bag which he used on the French front—86 pounds, including his pig and his favorite cigarettes. Of course he has with him trunks containing the Royal fancy clothes for dress-up occasions, but he is coming with his personal belongings, along with his troubles, packed in the old kit-bag, prepared to smile, smile, smile."

While Britain honors her war leaders who have come safely home from scenes of strife, Lloyd George does well to remind us that there were others who should not be forgotten—men who gave their lives, like Earl Kitchener; men who bore the burden of management at home but, through stress of circumstance, were not so prominent when the war clouds were scattered.

Roumania stands on her own feet in the matter of her ultimatum to Hungary. The Allied Supreme Council positively refuses to recognize Roumania's right to take that action. The terms of the armistice must be adhered to.

Eugene N. Foss again would be governor of the state of Massachusetts. He announces his candidature for the Democratic nomination and his platform public ownership of public utilities and five cent fares on the street railway lines.

RESOLUTION ON RAILWAYS BY LIBERALS
Present Government Criticized for Various Things
Liberal Purpose Declared Thwarted by Studied Hostility of Borden Administration—The $10,000,000 to C.N.R.—Lack of Foresight in Providing for After War Period

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—The railway resolution adopted by the Liberal national convention yesterday was as follows: Whereas, the construction of the National Transcontinental Railway wholly upon Canadian soil, including terminal facilities, and in the completion of the projected steamship connection with Europe and the Far East, thus affording the best possible transportation between the Orient and the mother country and opening up a large portion of Canada not before developed, and providing for lowering of the freight rates was undertaken by the Liberal government and parliament of Canada; and

Whereas, the accomplishment of the purpose for which this transportation system was designed has been thwarted by the studied hostility of the Borden administration, this convention expresses its opinion that only by the defeat of the present government can the beneficial results which should accrue from the construction of this great national transcontinental route be secured; and

Whereas, the government, by its policy in dealing with the Canadian Northern Railway system, which, in addition to granting of subsidies and guaranteeing of bonds, also made large loans of the public monies and thus involved the Dominion of Canada in financial obligations which resulted in the government assuming the ownership of the said system; and

Whereas, in addition to assuming the enormous liabilities incurred by the purchase of the Canadian Northern Railway system, the Borden government forced through parliament in contravention of legislation already on the statute book an act under which $10,000,000 was paid to C. N. R. interests, the identity of whom has never been disclosed, this convention condemns with all possible vigor this entire unbusinesslike transaction and demands full investigation into the conditions surrounding the purchase of the C. N. R. and the destination of the monies paid. The government now owns and operates some 16,000 miles of railway. We believe that the present system of management by a board, the majority of the members of which devote but a small portion of their time to this work, is unwieldy, inefficient and extravagant, and that under it and the present administration public ownership and operation will not receive a fair trial. Adequate facilities and tonnage for ocean traffic are a vital concern of the commerce of Canada and the utter lack of foresight on the part of the government in neglecting to see that such facilities and tonnage were provided for the immediate after-the-war period is not only humiliating to the Canadian people but is materially impairing our export trade.

At this time when the country should be in a position to take full advantage of the opportunities to secure its proper share of the export business on which the financial, industrial and agricultural future of Canada depends, we are confronted with the lamentable situation that no adequate provision has been made for the transportation of the products of the farm, the factory and the forest to the markets of the world. With the knowledge of the enormous destruction of tonnage by the havoc of war in its possession, the failure of the government to protect the trade of Canada against the condition that now confronts it shows an absence of business ability which merits the severest condemnation of the people of Canada.

This convention declares its fullest confidence in the future of Canada, believing that a wise and economical development of our natural resources and a judicious and vigorous immigration and colonization policy coupled with stringent economy and efficient management in every department of government will solve the transportation and other difficult problems now confronting the country.

FAILS TO GET HIS KNIGHTHOOD; PUTS CASE BEFORE PUBLIC

Charles Hannan Says He Was First to Propose Plan of Smoke Screens in War

London, July 12.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Charles Hannan, novelist and playwright, has demanded knightship and a pension from the government for himself and his wife on the ground that he suggested to the British admiralty the advisability of using smoke boxes or smoke screens which were extensively used for the protection of British naval and merchant vessels during the latter part of the war. He claims that he proposed this plan to Winston Churchill and the admiralty on Feb. 6, 1915, on condition that he was to receive knightship and a pension. Mr. Hannan says the admiralty informed him it was not prepared to adopt his proposals.

Six months later, says Mr. Hannan, he joined the admiralty and for the first time discovered that experiments on the line suggested by him had been secretly conducted in the Mediterranean. Mr. Hannan asserts that the first use of smoke boxes in naval warfare occurred in the Battle of Jutland, May 31, 1916.

For nearly two years Mr. Hannan has been writing to Premier Lloyd George and Sir Eric Geddes, formerly first lord of the admiralty, claiming his reward. Failing, he has made his claims public through London newspapers.

Three simultaneous conversations over one wire are common on a telephone line running into a Brazilian newspaper office.

REPUDIATES CONFESSION.
Girl Says She Gave Baby Poison by Mistake.

New York, Aug. 8.—Frances Sulinski, a thirteen-year-old girl, who, the police say, confessed to poisoning the four-months old son of Abraham Kramer, by whom she was employed as maid, has repudiated her confession, and asserted that she gave the baby the poison which caused his death in mistake for a cough remedy.

Only an hour before, District Attorney Lewis declared, the child had repeated her confession of murder, reiterating that she had killed the infant in the hope of getting revenge on the nurse who had offended her, and whom she expected, according to the district attorney, to be arrested for the murder.

The little girl went through the ordeal of a prolonged cross-examination without losing for a moment her self-possession or showing any emotion over the charge hanging over her. After being arraigned in the Children's Court she was remanded in care of the Children's Society until August 12.

of justice. I must do what little I could to pay the debt of the world to this small, unnoticed citizen—with his way to make, with no chance in sight, with no appreciable assets, not even a pair of shoes for the flinty glare of the world's highway. I hunted in my pockets, and—lo! I found a quarter of a dollar. I gave the coin to the lad; he turned his face from me, and for a moment I thought he did not know the tender grace of a thank you for a gift. But then he looked at me again, and I knew that I was wrong. His eyes were filled with tears. He faltered: "There's a thrush's nest over in the woods yonder that I can show you, with four eggs in it." And I knew then that the pauper was a prince indiguisse.

HARVARD FRESHMEN WILL BE

COMPELLED TO BE ATHLETIC

Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 7—Every young man entering the freshman class at Harvard University this fall must participate in some form of athletics.

This compulsory "rule" just announced, is declared to be in harmony with the new military service plans of the government. The university, quick to recognize the trend of the times, has installed a new system of freshman athletics to begin in October. William H. Greer of Albany, N. Y., will be director of the work. Mr. Greer has been director of athletics with the New York Military Training Commission.

"The basis of the system of compelling freshman athletics will be the holding of outdoor sports, which will be competitive and at the same time good fun, and can be kept up after graduation," said Mr. Greer today. "At Harvard we believe that physical training in its best sense should be part of the college requirements. We are going to emphasize rowing and sports such as swimming, tennis, and that kind of thing rather than football, though the game will be accepted as a definite participation in exercises."

WANTS THE NATION TO OWN THE RAILWAYS

Counsel for Brotherhoods Gives Warning in Washington

Says Something Will Have to Be Done About Cost of Living—Outlines Plan Relative to Railways

Washington, Aug. 8—Warning that the laboring man has reached that point where his activities may cease because he cannot much longer stand the diminishing return for his work was expressed yesterday by Glenn E. Plumb, counsel for railway brotherhoods, in urging enactment by congress of a bill drawn by him for public ownership of railroads.

"This gloomy view of conditions was given by Mr. Plumb on the witness stand before the House Interstate Commerce Committee. He charged systematic plundering of the transportation highways of the country, and denied that he had come forward with the Plumb plan in order to link it up with the high cost of living, on which the nation's interest has turned. It was while speaking through the country in behalf of the Plumb plan, he declared, that he found an overwhelming sentiment for radical change from the old system of railroad control. There was no doubt of the mounting cost of living, due to the mounting cost of living.

Pressed for an explanation of his statement that he would not be surprised if anything happened, he said this did not mean halting of business activities, great destruction of industry or a cataclysm, but the feeling in the minds of millions of workers was that something had to be done quickly in their behalf.

Mr. Plumb said in answer to inquiries that under his plan the railroads would be liquidated and holders of securities would get sixty-six and two-thirds per cent of their value. Six billion dollars in fictitious values, he said, would be squeezed out, which he described as the "elimination of that which had already vanished." Even then, he contended, holders of stock would get exactly what they would if their holdings were put on the market today.

U. S. TO SELL FLOUR AT $10 A BARREL IN CARLOAD LOTS

Washington, Aug. 6—In announcing last night that he would maintain the present guaranteed price of wheat at $2.26 a bushel for the present, Director Julius H. Barnes of the United States Grain Corporation gave out a lengthy statement showing why the price of wheat would rise but for the government guarantee, and promised a readjustment of floor prices at the expense of the national treasury, as authorized by congress, if later developments indicated a world price for wheat lower than the guaranteed basic price.

Immediate steps will be taken by the Grain Corporation to set standard export flour in every community of the country to a certain lot at a price not greater than $10 a barrel, Mr. Barnes announced. This price, he added, is lower by $1 a barrel than any price ruling during the last five years.

Using figures described as coming from the Grain Corporation's own private sources, Mr. Barnes predicted a shrinkage of "probably 400,000,000 bushels" in the wheat production for North America, 250,000,000 bushels of which are in the United States, from the June forecast, and a further shrinkage of 300,000,000 bushels outside Russia.

Average of 1,000,000,000 Bushels Assured.

Director Barnes said that the wheat crop in the United States is not short, and that 1,000,000,000 bushels was assured. There was no warrant, he said, however, for statements that the price has been inflated. He announced definitely that as far as he could see there was no hope for a reduction in the near future, and that he would not sell wheat at a price below the guarantee.

Figures were given by Mr. Barnes on the world price as follows: Argentine average farm price to American farmer under guarantee, $2.05 a bushel. Average farm price in the United Kingdom during the last calendar year, $2.28.

Average farm price for four big producing countries, United States, Canada, Argentina and Australia, producing 1,000,000,000 bushels, $1.94.

Average grower price (largely guaranteed) of Europe's 15 consuming countries, producing 800,000,000 bushels, $3.75.

Average price of wheat growers, according to the size of their contribution to the total crop of the world, works out an average world grower price of $2.46.

Argentine wheat, with longer voyage and higher freight rates, the Barnes statement said, costs delivered in Europe fully fifty cents more than the American wheat delivered in Europe.

There is no support for "the theory of intimate relation and influence between wheat price and other foods," the statement said. Figures were presented to bear out Mr. Barnes' contention.

European Prices Artificial.

"Britain, France and Italy," the statement continued, "all have artificial reduced flour and bread prices, buying their raw material at the world's price and absorbing the loss by national taxes. Any sale of wheat or flour by us at reduced prices to them would only save their national treasuries, and depriving ours, without any possible reflection in the bread price to their people, which is already fixed."

Mr. Barnes also gave figures to show the relation of the price of wheat to the price of bread and contended that bread now was the cheapest item in the diet. If all other things were at the same rate as wheat, the annual cost of food for each person would be about $50, or a total national food bill of $3,000,000,000, instead of $100,000,000,000.

"This, of course, is impracticable," the statement continued, "but let us spend a few millions in teaching housewives and through our schools, how and what to buy to get food value at reduced expenditure and without sacrifice of taste and palatability."

METAL AND MACHINERY

In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for week ended Aug. 7, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment:

The Markets at a Glance.

There is a steady improvement in machine tools and supplies, and there is more general buying of steel and kindred lines. All through the summer season business has been showing a betterment, and there are indications that it is going to continue.

One thing seems to be quite certain, and that is that the lines represented that are buying now are well distributed, indicating a much more general activity than has been noted for some time. Several very good inquiries are in from the mines this week, while the railroads, automobile and agricultural industries are also buying.

Price lists for the most part remain the same. There can be no denying the fact that the tendency is upward, and that a new list for certain kinds of steel products will likely be out before long.

Warehouse interests in several instances have been advised to protect themselves against any outstanding quotations they have on present figures, and to close the business or cancel, as new lists are on the way.

It is becoming more evident daily that those who have stayed out of the market, hoping for better prices on machinery, or on raw material if such material came from the steel market—are in for disappointment. The lower price has not arrived, nor is there any indication that it can for a long time to come. The fact that prices are stronger during the last few days of the month, but that they will be brisk for some time to come, fearing that further advances may be coming.

The scrap market shows even greater strength than it did a week ago. The scarcity of heavy melting is becoming more marked, and it may be that better prices will have to be offered to bring out any of this material. This same condition is developing to a marked degree in United States, where it is recorded that heavy melting is selling for more than pig iron, certainly an unusual situation, due, no doubt, to local conditions.

SEIZE 600 GALS. OF WHISKEY; WAS IN TEA CHESTS

(Toronto Globe.)
Six hundred quarts of whiskey, packed in tea chests, and shipped from Montreal as empty bottles, were seized by the police of No. 4 division yesterday afternoon, and three men, who, it is alleged, were unloading the liquor from a freight car, were arrested on charges of committing breaches of the Ontario Temperance Act. When Acting Inspector Hinds of No. 4 Division and Acting Detectives Ewing, Black and Donaldson reached the C. P. R. yards at the foot of Cherry street they saw the three men engaged in unloading the car, which was a siding. As they approached the men ran away, but after a short chase they were caught and taken to the station, while their horse and wagon, with which they had intended to remove the liquor, was taken to the city pond. At East Dundas station it was found on examination that the tea chests, which were labeled "empty bottles," contained two rows of "empties" while the underneath rows were full quart bottles. The shipment label, which was removed from the side of the car, was made out from Place Viger, Montreal, and consigned to Toronto.

TOOK HER LITTLE ONES WITH HER INTO THE VALLEY OF DEATH

Boston Mother Killed Two Children and Herself by Use of Gas

Boston, Aug. 8.—Pretty Mrs. Betty L. McAskill of 86 East Canton street, South End, was found dead in bed, and in the room there were also found the bodies of her two babies. Helen Frances, aged three years, and Jordan Russell, aged two. Illuminating gas was still pouring from cracks in the bedroom door when Mrs. Wilbur, the dead woman's mother, arose.

That the young woman had committed suicide was obvious and it was equally evident that she wanted to take her two little ones with her into the next world. That the babies did not want to die was shown by the location of their bodies. The little girl had evidently tried to escape, for she was lying on the floor near the door. There was also evidence that the little boy had made some feeble attempts to leave his mother.

It was said that Mrs. McAskill last fall suffered a severe attack of influenza, from which she did not fully recover, and that she has not been herself since. Her health had been falling steadily since that time, and, according to her parents, she had of late been morose and melancholy.

Besides her parents, Mrs. McAskill leaves two other children, Edna May, fourteen years old, and Frances Wilbur, ten.

It was said at the house that the woman's husband died some time ago, but the police reported that they had information that he was hopelessly insane and confined in an institution.

Alfred Wilbur, Mrs. McAskill's father, is a machinist employed by the Boston Elevated Railway Company. He brought his family here from Newport, R. I. His daughter had been acting as housekeeper, besides caring for her children.

Of late it was said Mrs. McAskill had been talking of what joy death would bring, but her parents did not treat her talk seriously. Investigation in the death room showed that the woman had stuffed the cracks around the window with newspaper before turning on the gas. She was lying in the bed on her back, her arms folded across her breast.

Medical Examiner Timothy O'Leary pronounced death due to suicide. The bodies of the three victims were taken to the City Hospital Mortuary.

EASTMAN FOUNDS MUSIC SCHOOL

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Announcement of a gift by George Eastman, head of the Eastman Kodak Company, of $3,500,000 for the establishment of a school of music in connection with the University of Rochester which will aim to aid the development of an appreciation of the highest type of motion pictures as an ally of the highest type of music, was made at a dinner given in the Genesee Valley Club by Mr. Eastman for members of the National Association of the Motion Picture Industry who held their third annual convention here.

The institution, to be known as the Eastman School of Music, has been endowed by Mr. Eastman for $2,810,000. He has purchased a site near the centre of the city at a cost of $381,000 and provided $1,000,000 for construction. The building will comprise the school of music and an auditorium capable of seating 3,000, where motion pictures of the highest type will be shown, accompanied by the music of a symphony orchestra for the maintenance of which from the exhibitions will go toward the maintenance of the institution.

"Yes, grandma," said the fair young thing, "I am to be married during the bright and glad days of spring."

"But, my dear," said the old lady, earnestly, "you are very young. Do you feel that you are fitted for married life?" "I am being fitted now, grandma, explained the prospective bride, sweetly. "Seventeen gowns and three costumes!"

CHILD OVERBOARD, IS SAVED, BUT TWO YOUNG MEN ARE DROWNED

George Edward Fenton and Earl Pock, both of Toronto, were drowned the other day at Oakville when they jumped out of their canoe to save a young child who had fallen from the canoe into the water. The young men, with the child's father and the child, were paddling up River "16," near the outskirts of the town, when the little tot fell overboard. The father immediately jumped from the canoe and the two lads followed. Both could swim a little.

The father with little difficulty got his little one safe on shore and turned to come back to aid the two young men. When he had almost reached them he heard a cry behind. The father immediately jumped into the water and was again in trouble.

When he looked around after making the second rescue nothing could be seen of his two companions.

Pock was a returned soldier and was spending the day with his friend, Fenton. Fenton's father, within the last few weeks, moved to Oakville from Toronto and opened a cleaning and pressing establishment. His son intended to follow him and go into business as a painter and decorator.

FAIRY WAND BEATS SUN BRIAR BY NOSE

Cochran's Mare Equals American Mile Record in Winning the Delaware Handicap

Saratoga, Aug. 5—Gifford A. Cochran's fleet but fractious Fairy Wand ran one of the best races of her career here today. She captured the Delaware Handicap from a field which contained some of the best handicap horses in training and, in doing so, equalled the track and American record for a mile in competition, 1:36 1-8, which was set by W. S. Kilmer's Sun Briar in this same event last year.

Fairy Wand, which had run second to Purchase in the Saratoga Handicap on the opening day of the meeting, just managed to keep her nose in front as she passed the judges' stand, and it was probably fortunate for her that there was no more distance to go. She was forced to make record time to beat Sun Briar, which had been trained especially for this race and was about to make another attempt to equal or lower the mark. Sun Briar finished second, only a nose out of winning position, and in a few more strides would surely have been the winner. His stable mate, Exterminator, winner of the Kentucky Derby a year ago, was third.

Fairy Wand, which is usually a bad actor at the post, was on her good behavior today, and was ready when the barrier was sprung. She made it a winning race at every post. Kummer sent her to the front at the very start, and making the first turn into the back stretch, she opened up a gap of three lengths on the others. Sun Briar was in second position, and Knapp was content to let him trail and follow the pace. But he was not prepared for the pace that Fairy Wand set. She raced through the back stretch and into the far turn without yielding any of her advantage. Knapp then saw that it was a real race and moved up with Sun Briar.

Reaching the turn into the stretch Sun Briar was brought up to within a length of the fleeing mare, and Knapp attempted to take the lead. But Fairy Wand, though tiring from the speed she had displayed throughout the race, was game and stuck it out to the finish. As the two neared the wire it was just a question whether Fairy Wand could last another stride or two. Sun Briar was apparently fresh and gaining slowly but surely. Fairy Wand must have felt relieved when she reached the wire, for she did not have much left.

While the Delaware Handicap was the only real feature on the card the other contests brought out the masses and provided spirited competition. This was particularly true of the two-year-old events.

AUSTRALIAN SWIMMERS TO COMPETE IN NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 7—The Australian women swimmers, Misses Fannie Durack and Mina Wylie, holders of several world's records, will open their United States tour in Chicago on Sunday. It was announced yesterday at local A. A. U. headquarters. Word was received from San Francisco that the women swimmers had left the California city for Chicago, where they would arrive some time Saturday. They will compete against Central A. A. U. rivals in the closing event of the two-day carnival which is to be held in Chicago beginning Saturday.

Following their appearance in Chicago the visiting mermaids will journey to this city, where they will appear in competitive and exhibition events at Manhattan Beach Aug. 16. The addition of the Misses Durack and Wylie to this programme will make it one of the most extensive of the local season. The card will be conducted under the auspices of the Women's Swimming Association, the membership of which includes many of the country's leading women swimmers. The principal event will be the women's national quarter-mile swim championship.

The visiting swimmers will remain in this vicinity thereafter until Sept. 8. In the interim they will appear in a number of events especially arranged for them, in which some of America's leading women swimmers will match strokes with them. On Aug. 23 the touring pair are scheduled to swim at Belmar, N. J., and three days later they will appear in a carnival in Philadelphia. Aug. 30 will find the Misses Durack and Wylie at Rye Beach, Rye N. Y., where two national title swimmers for men, and the other for women, will be decided. The stars will swim in Bridgeport, Conn., on Labor Day, making their farewell appearance in the States. Then they will journey to the south, swimming in Atlanta Aug. 8, and at New Orleans Aug. 12. After these events the Australian mermaids will strike a trail for the west stopping off en route for races at St. Louis, Omaha, and Salt Lake City.

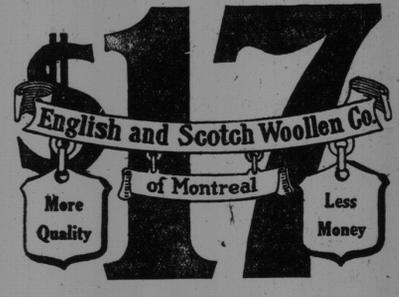

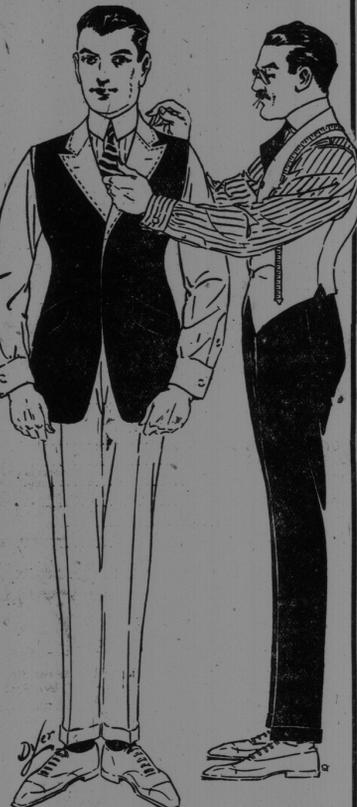

PRINCE MAY VISIT SARATOGA RACE TRACK

Toronto, Aug. 7—There is a possibility of the Prince of Wales visiting Saratoga race track in order to see the progeny of his father's gift horse, Ammer, run. King George's stable this year includes some very useful horses, such as Viceroy, which has won three races; Pesaro and Jutland. In the Duke of Cambridge Handicap, at Newmarket, Jutland was beaten by two noses in a finish that he should have won. The reason for his defeat was held to be the fact that the rider of the winning Quadrille, hit the King's horse across the nose with his whip.

Jack Barry, former manager and second baseman of the Red Sox is still out of the game and does not expect to play again this season. He is conducting an automobile and garage business in Worcester, Mass.

STEAMER SERVICE ON ST. JOHN RIVER

A Well Founded Reply to Criticism—What Lightning Did—A Box Social

Between thirty and forty people from the city motored to the Landing on Wednesday evening to attend the box social and dance in the pavilion. One party of twelve young people went up in a motor bus. There were also parties from Ingleside, Belyca, and Brown's Flats, and a group of young men in a yacht from Renforth. The pavilion was filled with dancers who enjoyed themselves till nearly midnight.

The frame of the new pavilion at Ononette stands out attractively, as seen from the river steamers. It will soon be completed. A large number of passengers went up river on the Ononette on Wednesday. Indeed that is a daily experience as the more traffic than for a number of summers past. Many city people are scattered along the Reach greatly enjoying the summer days. No steamer on the river ever had a better working team than Captains Flewelling and Taylor of the Ononette. Not only are they careful navigators, but so personally obliging that they will go out of their way to do a kindness for any patron of the service, which is a great boon to the people between the city and Wickham.

Captain Taylor, referring to some published criticisms of the general inadequacy of the river steamer service, readily assented that there was room for improvement, but pointed out that in the first place the war had reduced traffic for more than four years; and in the second place that neither the critics nor anybody else seemed eager to invest money in such a service as was desired. There was an opportunity to put money into steamers and hotels, but it would mean a large initial expenditure. If instead of knocking, everybody would boost something might be accomplished.

There is a great birch tree on a hillside behind Public Landing many of whose leaves show the yellow of autumn against an otherwise unbroken sweep of green in field and foliage. This tree was struck by lightning in a recent terrible storm, and strips of the bark were found more than 170 feet away. The same stroke caused the death of a calf near Charles Parker's barn. It was tethered in the grass. It showed signs of illness for two days and then Allan and investigation showed that the hair had been burned off one side of one of its fore legs and the flesh seared as by fire. Mr. Parker himself, in an adjoining field, felt dazed for a moment after the blinding flash.

POLICE COURT

Several Cases Gone Into—Evidence About Break in Lunch Wagon

In the police court this morning a case against James Devlin and Arthur Perry, who are charged with breaking into Coleman's lunch wagon in North Market street, was resumed. Detective Saunders said that on last Saturday morning, about 5.30 he heard a noise near the lunch wagon. It sounded like a cash register bell. On approaching he saw the shadow of two people inside. He said he went in, but the two ran to the other end of the wagon to an open window. The detective said that he told them to stop or he would shoot. On hearing that they halted and they were arrested. The detective also told of making his rounds at 4.30 and finding the door and a trap door securely fastened, but investigating after the break, he found both open and the locks broken. He said that his place was broken into a short time ago and $5 stolen, so the police were keeping a close watch on it. Ernest Weldon, an employee in the lunch wagon, told of fastening the doors the night before and of finding them broken as Detective Saunders described. He also told of a break a short time ago when the money was taken, but said that no money was stolen this time, as the cash register was left empty.

Isaac Ross, another employee gave corroborative evidence. The case was postponed until Tuesday morning.

A case against William Sharkey, J. Collins and Tony Mavarakos, charged with assaulting Policeman Keirstead, July 28, was resumed.

Dr. R. J. Dolan told of Policeman Keirstead being brought to the General Public Hospital and of his condition. By request of E. S. Ritchie, counsel for William Sharkey, the doctor examined Sharkey in court and said he found a scar on his nose and one over his eye, but could not tell how long ago the injury had been inflicted. The case was postponed until Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock. Thomas Sweeney and E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defendants.

A case against James Moore, William Moore and a youth charged with breaking and entering a box car in the C. N. R. yards and stealing goods was resumed. William Ward, Sergeant Detective Power gave evidence and the case was postponed until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

A case against five boys charged with stealing an automobile owned by Humphrey Sheehan and driving it to St. Stephen's was resumed. The boys were allowed to go on suspended sentence, but a deposit of $800 was forfeited and given to Mr. Sheehan as he was willing to accept that amount although his expense in the matter amounted to much more.

A case against George Rusonoff, who is charged with obtaining money under false pretences from Rosa Maglied, was resumed, but again postponed until Monday morning. Daniel Mullin, K. C., and M. B. Innes were the counsel in the case.

Two men charged with drunkenness were remanded.

ALLAN-TOTTEN

A wedding of interest took place on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, when Rev. W. W. Howe united in marriage William Allan and Miss Marjorie Totten. The bride looked charming in blue silk trimmed with white and white hat. She was attended by Miss Elsie Farris, who wore blue silk with pink hat trimmed with grey. The groom was attended by his brother, William Allan. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the groom, where a sumptuous supper was served. Only immediate friends and relatives were present. The wedding presents, which were both costly and numerous, consisted of cut glass, silver, china and furniture. The bride's gift from her parents was in money. The groom, who is a returned soldier, served several months in France with the 26th Battalion, later being transferred to the 25th. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Allan wish them many years of happy married life.
