EXCURSIONS :- On Saturday next the Andover is to make a down river excursion and she will make two excursion trips next week one on Wednesday and an other on Saturday - going down river each time, as per advertisement. These trips are very enjoyable and no better way of spending a special self-appointed holiday can be devised. REV. MR. STEEL:-The Advocate says

-The Rev. George Steel arrived in England on the 26th ult., having been on board the steamer eight and a half days. Had a fine passage, not having experienced one rough day. The many friends of the Rev. gentleman will be pleased to hear that when last heard from he was in good health. Mr. Steel will be absent for about three months. We, with many others extend to him our best wishes for pleasant sojonrn in his native land, and a safe return to his adopted country.

FLOWERS :- We received a splendid lot of cut flowers in perfect order, on Tuesday morning, from the conservatories of Mr. Wm. Jones at Torryburn, whose depot is in St. John city, at No. 18. Germain Street. Mr. Jones' stock must be a very fine one flushed It was a grilling day in the July of 1876, as I sauntered into the office of the the dock. Western Union Telegraph Company, on Broadway, for the purpose of sending a despatch to my friend, George Moyers, the artist, who implored me to join him instanter at West Point, where he had a deadly aversion. This man instantly pitched his tent for the purpose of doing a picture or two of the scenes enacted in the glorious war of Independence.

I am a lawyer and in '76 was a " rising junior." I had been fagging cruelly, sparing myself no amount of labor, and when on that July day my longed-for vacation was at hand, I felt like a schooldock. boy about to get away for the real and genuine holidays.

As I approached the grating and awaited my turn to pop in the message, I became interested in a young lady richly but plainly attired, whose svelle figure was simply perfection and whose of her graceful head in massive and form-it is but nature's tribute to the I sent it spinning back to him.
