Mems of the Merry War.

Is it to be Laurier and Hyman, or Tupper and Beattie? Who wants to go back to the days of dark depression before 1896?

Keep the bull out of the national china shop.

"Canada has won honor and fame from that preferential tariff, and she won dollars and cents as well."-Mr. Fielding.

"I believe in letting well enough alone. I am now getting good wages and steady work," said Thomas Mundy, a Hamilton workman, who has announced his intention of voting Liberal for the first time. That is the feeling all over. Let well enough alone.

Is Laurier "too British" for you, reader?

"Spoiled ballots" in London in 1891 numbered 20; in 1896 they numbered 233. What they would have totaled up in the present election contest, had the election machinery remained in the same hands, puzzles the imagination to guess.

Dr. Montague is being allowed to emerge a little. He is the candidate in whose interest a bogus proclamation was issued, saying that her Majesty asked all her loyal Indian subjects in Haldimand to vote for Dr. Montague.

The Free Press is busy discussing with much appearance of earnestness the unimportant question as to how the vote is taken in Ontario and in Quebec. The F. P.'s object is to divert attention from the general prosperity of the country under the Laurier Government.

Mr. Tarte is a splendid speaker, and makes friends wherever he goes. Those who think they are slandering him down, may find that they have only slandered him up.

Our local Conservative contemporary tries to rebuke The Advertiser for asserting that large sums of money were at last election spent on Mr. Beattie's behalf. The Advertiser's belief is similar to that of Mr. A. B. Cox, a prominent Conservative barrister of this city, who, in his recent letter, made no bones over it, and even went so far as to say that until he had some guarantee that improper practices were to be abandoned, he would take no further part in elections in this city. Is the Free Press hitting at Mr. Cox over The Advertiser's shoulders?

As conditions now are, the country is prosperous and progressive. An unsettling of affairs such as the Opposition promise, would bring back depression in trade. Who will vote to aid that?

Laurier is the rising sun, Tupper the setting star.

Some articles of commerce are dearer today in Canada because they are dearer all the world over. That is a matter which no Government can control. But they would be much dearer in Canada but for the preferential tariff of 33½ per cent in favor of Great Britain established by the present Administration. This preference works this way: An article that costs $1 in the markets of the world, if im-

was often interrupted by applause. He thanked the Academics for their complimentary remarks in their address, and said that he accepted with pleasure the tribute rendered him on account of the settlement of the Manitoba school question. This question was a most difficult one, and it had been settled to the satisfaction of all parties interested. Sir Wilfrid also spoke in English a few minutes, and was tremendously applauded. Mr. Blair also made an address.

AT MONCTON.

Moncton, N. B., Oct. 24.-Moncton was tonight the scene of one of the most sincerely enthusiastic demonstrations ever witnessed in this section. The whole town was ablaze with excitement. Laurier's name was in everyone's mouth. There were seven bands from Sussex, Amherst, Truro, Sackville, etc., with special delegations, who took part in the procession. Torch-lights in great number, preceded by the mounted escort, led the march. The streets were profusely decorated with inscriptions and mottoes of all kinds. The principal private residences were gaily illuminated with Chinese lanterns and Bengal fires, and at the rink people were packed in like sardines. From a very early hour. It is estimated there were about 1,000 people present. An overflow meeting had to be held in the opera house.

Sir Wilfrid arose to speak amidst the cheers and applause of the thousands of people present, and stated that if he was to judge from the enthusiasm shown, his presence here passed he would feel certain that the Liberals would sweep completely the entire provinces of the Dominion.

ONTARIO LABOR BUREAU.

Toronto, Oct. 25.-The secretary of the Ontario bureau of labor is engaged in getting information regarding all strikes and lockouts in Ontario during the last two years. He will prepare a report on the causes leading to the labor troubles and on suggested proposals for their prevention.

SEALS SCARCER.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 25.-During the season just closed 34 sealing schooners took 16,000 seals in Bering Sea, which is 8,000 less than taken by 25 schooners during the previous season. Last spring schooners took 16,517 seals on the coast, bringing the total for the season up to 32,517. Only 55 branded seals were killed in Bering Sea.

CAPTAIN AND CREW SAVED.

Queensland, Oct. 25.-The steamer Commonwealth, which arrived here yesterday, had on board Capt. Dorr and the crew of the American schooner Leaning Breeze, who were taken off their vessel a few miles from Boston. The Leaning Breeze, when she was abandoned, was in a sinking condition. She had sprung a leak during a gale. The crew proceeded to Liverpool.

IN DANGER OF LYNCHING.

New York, Oct. 25.-Crowds surrounded the Passaic county jail in Paterson, N. J., last evening, and threats were made against Walter C. McAllister, George J. Kerr, William A. Death, and Andrew Campbell, confined there on the charge of having murdered Jennie Roschlietter, the mill hand, whose body was found on the outskirts of the city last week. So menacing were they that extra guards were put on duty. The officials feared that if a leader appeared at any time to inspire the crowd an assault might be made. There has been fully 300 persons present during the afternoon, but when the mills and the factories closed probably 3,000 gathered and the excitement was intense for a time.

THE PREMIER

Enthusiastically Welcomed at Shediac and Moncton.

Sir Wilfrid Thrills the Enthusiastic Thousands Who Flocked From All Quarters to Hear Him.

Shediac, N. B., Oct. 24.-Sir Wilfrid Laurier was most enthusiastically welcomed at Shediac, where he arrived at 12:30 o'clock this morning, accompanied by Hon. A. G. Blair, minister of railways and canals, and Hon. H. R. Emerson, ex-premier of New Brunswick and Liberal candidate in the county of Westmorland. This constituency, which was represented for a good many years by Sir Herbert Smith, has remained Conservative since 1882. Mr. Emmerson is in the field now as the standard-bearer of the Liberal party, and he means to redeem the county. Judging by today's demonstration it can be said without doubt that Mr. Emmerson's chances are decidedly good.

Numerous delegations came down from all parts of the country to join in the celebration. The train was met by the local political leaders, and the visitors were received with loud cheers. Flags were hoisted on every building, and inscriptions of all kinds welcoming Sir Wilfrid and recalling the good work of his administration were to be seen everywhere. At the station had been erected a large arch of honor, profusely decorated with flags and mottoes. Prominent was the flag of the Acadicians, red, white and blue, with a yellow star. As is known, the Acadicians are very numerous in Westmorland county, there being some 4,000 of them in the very district of Shediac out of a population of 12,000. They displayed great enthusiasm in the presence of the great chief.

Sir Wilfrid spent part of the forenoon in receiving the citizens of the place. At 12 o'clock he took his dinner at the Weldon House, in company with his colleague, Hon. Mr. Blair, and Senator McSweeney and Hon. Mr. Emmerson. The meeting was advertised to take place in the open air near the railway station, a large platform having been constructed and gaily decorated for the occasion. However, the weather became threatening and it was decided to hold the mass meeting in the skating rink, which was passed up to its utmost capacity. The crowd, headed by a brass band, accompanied the premier from the hotel to the meeting place, and on the way it was one grand ovation.

Mr. James McQueen, barrister, of Shediac, acted as chair man, and first introduced Mr. Emmerson to the audience. The candidate was well received by his hearers.

The chairman then presented the speaker of the day. He had no sooner announced Sir Wilfrid's name than his voice was buried in a thunder of cheers and applause. The premier stepped forward, and was met by Mr. J. H. Hebert, a prominent delegate of the Acadicians of this city, who, in their name, presented him with a handsome address of welcome and of good wishes, beseeching him to stay the premier upon his patriotism towards all creeds and nations in Canada. There was also flattering mention made of the principal acts of his government.

Sir Wilfrid spoke in French, and

Why? Why? Why?

It is a sign of intelligence to ask the reason why of a thing, especially of a thing that is to some extent under our control. If we are called upon to make a change, a really important change, we naturally ask why this is to be done. If it is not an important thing that there should be a change of government, then it is not worth fighting, for things may as well remain as they are; but if it is important, and there is going to be a struggle, then we are justified in asking the reason why. Why at this important juncture, when the Liberals have had only four years in which to lay down the lines of their policy, and to show the nature of their programme, should they be dismissed to make way for Sir Charles Tupper and his friends? We are told because this is an absolute necessity, as the country is on the verge of ruin, and if Sir Charles Tupper is not allowed to save it now, it may be too late. When we remember that the country had the strength to stand eighteen years of Tory rule, and was even then not quite ruined, we may well smile at this statement. All independent men who take a wide view maintain that things have taken a turn, and that a new era of prosperity has dawned. It is evident, then, that the "blue ruin" cry is only an election scare, got up to frighten timid people, but in these days people are not so easily frightened; they have been too long accustomed to cries of that kind.

Again, we are told that the Liberals should be turned out because they have increased the expenses of the country. In this case that would be like dismissing a manager because he had increased your business. The revenue is large, and the internal development is greater; a young, growing country must carry on its affairs in a spirit of enterprise, and this means increase in every way; increase of expense, but also large increase of revenue. If it can be proved that money spent is unwisely spent, or dishonestly handled, that is another matter, but this our Conservative friends have failed to do. With all their talk about "fags," they have had to admit that the great enterprises undertaken by the present Government in east and west are for the good of the country as a whole. Every day admissions are made in the Conservative press, to the effect that the trade of the country has vastly increased in volume during the last two or three years. They try to diminish the credit of the Government, but the fact is there, and they, being in opposition, can scarcely take credit for the enlarged trade and improved revenue, though they are competent to make startling claims.

Why, then, should a change be made? Is it because the leaders of the Conservative party have somehow acquired the right to rule the country, and that an injustice is done to them and to the constitution so long as they are kept out? From the tone adopted by some of these gentlemen, one might imagine that this was the case, but in this democratic age the idea would be scouted by all sensible men. There is something of that feeling among a certain class of Conservatives in England, and that can be easily understood, as they are descendants of those who did for a long time rule the land by virtue of their position and possessions. In Canada, however, we feel that the appeal to the people is not a mere form, but a living reality. The people are sometimes carried away in a flurry of excitement. The present, however, is a quiet time, and the election will, we believe, be largely an appeal to reason, and to facts and figures which can be reasonably interpreted. The people, then, want to know why they should listen to the request of the Conservative party for place and power at this time. Echo answers, Why? We, at any rate, cannot hear any more intelligible sound. There is plenty of noise in the Conservative camp, but the wisest men seem to be unable to make any such sense out of it as will lead to a real policy and definite programme. It is, it seems, to be a matter of faith—an affair of open your mouth and shut your eyes and see what the Conservatives will give you. Well, this is not the age of faith in that sense, and the people are not prepared to follow blindly in hope that Sir Charles Tupper will turn out to be a great magician who can make everything bright and beautiful by his mere presence and touch. We do not think that there is hope of a Conservative victory until they can give a better answer to the question why they should be allowed at this particular juncture in the life of the country and the affairs of the empire to assume responsibility and grasp the reins of power.

The Toronto World speaks of Sir Charles Tupper as "the veteran ex-chief." Who's on the top then? Haggart, Montague, McLean, Foster, Caron, or the gentleman from Manitoba who promises to smash the agricultural implement industry because the manufacturers won't subscribe to the Opposition campaign funds?

Electoral Corruption.

We published a letter the other day from Mr. A. B. Cox, on electoral corruption. It dealt mainly with electoral corruption in this city.

The corruption in any particular riding is local, and affects that riding only, but there is a description of corruption far worse in its effects than local corruption.

Major Beattie claims to be very loyal, and denies that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is loyal, in fact, claims that he is a rebel. The major would do well to remember the motto from Junius: "The subject who is truly loyal to the chief magistrate will neither advise nor submit to arbitrary measures."

The corruption of which Major Beattie and his party have been guilty is the worst kind of corruption and disloyalty. Leaving out of consideration for the moment any local corruption that may have existed on either side, how much more damaging and far-reaching is that corruption and disloyalty of which Major Beattie and his party have been guilty! Major Beattie is trying to make his followers believe that French-Canadians are disloyal, and that they are endeavoring to establish a French republic on the banks of the St. Lawrence. Could any accusation be more unjust, unfounded or vicious in its tendency? He who expects Canada to become a great nation must surely expect it to become so by the blending of all the various nationalities that seek a home within its borders. Will this ever be accomplished by casting slurs upon those who have on more than one occasion been under fire protecting the British flag? With all our boasted loyalty, can any other nationality point to one of its race who has accomplished as much for the honor of the British flag as the French-Canadians can claim has been accomplished for it by Sir Wilfrid Laurier? Major Beattie's professions of loyalty are weak and faint compared with the accomplishments of such a man; but when he has the audacity in the teeth of the knowledge of the people, in the teeth of the rebuke of his leader, to repeat his slander, his utterances become the most vicious kind of disloyalty—a disloyalty that would carry hatred and discord into the happy homes of Canada.

Another equally corrupt and dishonorable act was that passed by the late Conservative Government, known as the gerrymander act. What corruptionists in a single constituency may do by the purchase of votes, this was designed to do for the whole country. The corruptionist in a constituency is a retail dealer, but the Conservative party, by that act, became wholesale dealers in corruption. And as long as the Senate remains as it is with a Conservative majority there is not likely to be any sign of repentance.

By all means, we say, do all that can be done to make the elections in each constituency pure, but let not reformers expect too much from a party that refuses to repeal an act of usurpation, designed to govern the majority by the will of the minority, and to kill, politically, every prominent member on the Reform side in the House of Commons. It is not to be wondered at that individual Conservatives resort to unfair means at an election when the party leaders design, carry and insist upon maintaining so villainously fraudulent a measure as the gerrymander act.

Canada is well satisfied with Laurier.

Says the Montreal Herald: The two biggest men in Canada today are Lord Strachan and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. This will draw some comment from the Conservative press, but it's the truth.

So popular are Canadian products in Britain, since our tariff has been fixed to favor the Motherland, that an enormous demand has sprung up for them, and some dealers have been selling United States hams as Canadian. They have been heavily fined for false pretences. The experience is a fine object lesson to the people of the Dominion.

Forging a copy of the Toronto Globe, and issuing many thousands of it from the office of the leading Opposition Journal in Montreal, is the latest attempt to mislead the public resorted to by the Smart Aliens who are managing the Opposition campaign. First, Pamphlet No. 6, with its condemnation of Sir Wilfrid Laurier for sending a contingent to South Africa to aid the Motherland; now this clumsy forgery. What next?

The London Economist (a non-political paper) administers a signal rebuke to those ill-balanced partisans who continually assert that those who do not agree with them politically are disloyal and rebels. Says our contemporary: "To tell you that you are a traitor and an enemy of the country because you differ from them as to what is good for the country is to falsify issues and to raise a most dangerous kind of feeling." The editors should frown down all such unfair methods.

Sir Charles Tupper is billed to speak in Hamilton on Oct. 31, which is nomination day. If he were wise he would be in his own constituency on that day, for his absence may lead to his defeat. But perhaps he is not anxious on that account, for he gave a pretty strong hint in Toronto last Saturday night that he would retire from public life as soon as he found that the elections had gone against him. That will be Foster's opportunity to lead the Opposition, for Hugh John does not count.—Hamilton Times.

Soldiers and Their Votes.

The Toronto Star points out that the Canadian soldiers who return from South Africa before election day will be able to poll their votes. A special clause in the Dominion Elections Act provides that the soldiers may vote upon taking the usual oath, even if they are not registered.

Here is a further significant fact: If the old Dominion Franchise Act were now in force, not only would these soldiers be deprived of their votes, but every man who was not from 24 to 25 years of age would be disfranchised, while thousands of persons who have taken up their residence in a foreign country would be brought back to vote, along with other non-residents and occupants of graveyards.

All this took place last election. The fact that it could be done, and was done, in the election of 1896, gave the Conservatives a victory in West Toronto and in East York at last election which otherwise they could not have scored. In at least half a dozen other constituencies in Ontario, similar unfair conditions, worked for all they were worth, pulled the Tupper candidates through. Without them the Opposition nominees are doomed to defeat. No wonder they denounce the law that renders such a state of affairs impossible.

Never Believe Me Again.

At Sydney just before the last general election, Sir Charles Tupper became very impressive and oracular, saying:

"I am neither the prophet nor the son of a prophet, but I make the statement here and now, and I want to be judged for all future time by it, and never believed again, unless it turns out to be true. The great Liberal-Conservative party will be returned triumphantly with a greater majority than they have now."

So we are entitled never to believe Sir Charles again, as a prophet, according to his own declaration.

Less than two weeks to election day. The friends of the best Government Canada has had for 20 years ought to arrange to have every vote polled.

The election of Dan. Donohue, the big cheesehead, will do more to advertise Brockville than any agency that could be devised. Brockville promises to embrace this splendid advantage on Nov. 7.

The London Economist, the principal financial journal, says: "The finances of Canada are at present in a very flourishing condition." Yes, the era of deficits ended with the defeat of the Tupper Government in 1896.

Says the London (England) Saturday Review: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier sent men to South Africa because Canadian sentiment demanded it, and the Canadian contingent will return in time to strengthen his hand in meeting the misrepresentations of the reactionists."

In the last four years Canadians have done well and have prospered as they never did before. Why change our tactics and permit ourselves to be switched on to the backward track mapped out by those who have declared that they will repeal the British preferential tariff the moment they get the opportunity?

There were three bye-elections in New Brunswick last month, and the result was as follows:
Kings, Liberal majority.....829
Queens, Liberal majority.....337
Albert, Liberal majority.....242
This is a year in which the Opposition have no hope of success, though their leaders are boasting to keep the courage of the downcast above zero.

With a shift and unsettled tariff there will be fluctuations and uncertainty of employment and permanency is impossible.—Montreal Star.

The unsettlement of the tariff is Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, who promises, if elected, to see that the revenue tariff of 20 per cent on agricultural implements is thrown off, thereby blotting out this large Canadian industry. What we need is to keep the Opposition leader and his candidates from acting like bulls in a china shop.

The agents of American implement companies are supporting Opposition candidates. They approve of Hugh John Macdonald's pledge to smash the agricultural implement factories of Canada, because their owners are satisfied with a revenue tariff of 20 per cent. They want the whole Canadian market, though Canadian manufacturers are debarrd from selling in the United States by a tariff of 50 per cent. With the Opposition leader it is, "Support me, or when I get the chance I will smash you." Canadians generally will resent with their votes an attitude so vindictive and unstatesmanlike.

The RUNIANS, GRAY, CARRIE CO

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Surprised Canada.

"The Conservative party in Canada is almost as leaderless, though not so divided, as the Liberal party in England; the one party has not recovered from the loss of its inspiring leader, Sir John Macdonald, as the other has not recovered from the loss of Mr. Gladstone. Then Sir Wilfrid Laurier has shown himself a statesman of noteworthy ability, as well as great personal charm; he surprised Canada; and the reflected glory which the Dominion enjoyed from Sir Wilfrid's success in London at the diamond jubilee can hardly have been forgotten"—London, Eng., Financial News, Oct. 6, 1900.

A morning contemporary says that Ontario is Conservative by tradition. Judging by the fact that the Province has had a Liberal Government for 30 years, that is the only way in which it is Conservative.—Montreal Herald.

That Ontario is Liberal and will vote that it is Liberal on Nov. 7 is testified to by so disinterested an authority as the editor of La Presse, the Montreal Independent Conservative Journal. Trust not to Ontario giving a Conservative majority in the ensuing election, he plainly warns his friends; Ontario is Liberal, and you must look for a majority in Quebec, if you are to succeed. In Quebec, so sanguine are they of Liberal success that among the shrewd dealers on the Montreal Exchange 2 to 1 is offered that the Government will be sustained.

In Ottawa, Hon. Clifford Sifton is denounced, along with other Ministers, because they do not spend enough money. In outside constituencies, unscrupulous Opposition speakers are insinuating, what they dare not assert, that Mr. Sifton and other members get money corruptly because they live well and spend freely. This double-faced game is as contemptible as that played with Pamphlet No. 6 in Quebec, where the Premier is campaigned against by the Opposition on the score that he is too British, while in Ontario race and creed hatreds are fomented by Opposition speakers and papers with the cry that "Laurier is not British enough."

THE NEW PALACE HOTEL.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—Aemilius Jarvis, of the Toronto Palace Hotel, has sent out notices stating that the requisite $450,000 of hotel bonds have been underwritten, and that the first call for 25 per cent will be made in a few days. This means that the new hotel will be built at once. Boston capitalists will furnish $500,000 of the $7,250,000 required for the enterprise.

PEACE-MAKER KILLED.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—A serious row occurred in Rockland yesterday morning, resulting in the death of Joseph Rochon, an employee of Edwards' mill. Two men employees of the mill had a quarrel over some wood which they had piled up to take to their respective homes. In the midst of the dispute a brother of Rochon's stepped in between them to prevent the row going further, and was knocked down by Guidon and pummeled to death. Guidon is under arrest.

REWARD OF MERIT.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less Than One Year.

Throughout a great nation of eighty million it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article to say nothing of achieving popular favor, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure,
has met with such success that today
it can be found in every drug store
throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure, a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, to everyone familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit,
and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians, who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or ointments now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, Guaiac, Eucalyptol, and Sanguinaria.

They contain no cocaine nor opiate,
and are given to little children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Eager, of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in the head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat, affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing discomfort. I bought a five-cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my drugstore, and used them faithfully,
and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring, and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Wilcox, of Wheeling, W.
Va., writes: "I suffered from catarrh
nearly my whole life, and last winter
my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throat so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother, who was cured of catarrhal deafness
by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, urged me to try them so much that I did so, and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house, and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."
Full-sized packages of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold for fifty cents
at all druggists.

BOTH LEGS BROKEN.
St. Thomas, Oct. 24.—Arthur Luton, a farmer living near Mapleton, son of Daniel Luton, J.P., St. Thomas, was driving down a hill with a load of wood today, when part of the load slid from the wagon on to the horses, carrying Mr. Luton with it. Both of his legs were broken below the knee, and the wrist badly crushed.

MILLIONAIRE
STRUCK LUCK

Secured King Leopold as a Partner.

ing—The New Cup Challenger.

A ROYAL PARTNER.

Paris, Oct. 25.—A business partnership
has been entered into between Thomas Walsh, the Colorado millionaire, and Leopold, king of the Belgians. King Leopold, who owns enormous private wealth and is a keen money-maker, on hearing Walsh de-scant on the possibilities of the operations
that are familiar to American millionaires, inquired where a king who had some little available money could come in on the American field. Walsh, fearful of the whims of such a lofty partner, at first did not answer the query. His royal highness, however, overwhelmed Walsh with such attentions that the latter finally realized the advantages of such a partnership, which, in addition to bringing him high social distinction, would also provide him with unlimited capital for the execution of some of his vast business projects. After a few weeks' consideration Walsh finally consented to become Leopold's financial adviser and partner. It is believed that the operations contemplated will be confined mostly to mining, with some incidental stirring up of the stock markets.

TURKEY IN A FLUTTER.

London, Oct. 25.—Great uneasiness has been created in palace circles, says the Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Mail,
by a report that an American squadron was approaching, and the censor was instructed to prohibit the press from mentioning the subject.

CALLED UNITED STATES "A ROB-BER NATION."

At a banquet given by the Filipinos in Paris to Romero y Robledo, the Spanish
ex-minister of justice, says a Paris dispatch to the New York Times, the latter made a warm speech encouraging the Filipinos.
He said that they had the sympathy of Spain and called the United States "a robber nation." Senor Robledo said help would come to the Filipinos if they kept up the struggle.

TWO STEAMERS LOST.

Liverpool, Oct. 25.—The Leyland line
reports that the steamer Amby, bound for Valparaiso, was gutted by fire and abandoned off Montevideo. One boat's crew was picked up, but the fate of the others
has not been ascertained.

The French ministry of marine confirms a report from Kobe, Japan, of the sinking of the French transport Caravane in the Inland Sea, after being in collision with the Japanese liner Yamaguchi Maru. An ensign and two sailors were drowned.

A POPULAR MINISTER.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Baron Von Richthofen's appointment as minister of foreign affairs in succession to Count Von Buelow, the new imperial chancellor, has been hailed with satisfaction by the entire diplomatic corps.
He is now 55 years of age. He is very accessible, straightforward and thoroughly businesslike in his methods. He is considered Anglophile in his tendencies, and on this account, the Agrarian press expresses distrust concerning the results of his policy.

THE NEW CUP CHALLENGER.

London, Oct. 25.—The Glasgow Citizen announces that Shamrock II, to be built on the Clyde by Henry Bros., of Dumbarton. The hull of the new boat will be of nickel steel, and a quantity of that material is already on the builders' premises.

SIR WILFRID'S VIEW SUSTAINED.

Sir Michael Hicks Beach, in the course of an address before the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, advocated closer commercial union between the different countries of the empire and great organization for the empire's common interests. He said, with regard to the former, that it was impossible for Great Britain to be other than a free trade country, and that he sympathized
with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Dominion premier, in his opinion that an imperial Zollverein was unattainable without free trade within the empire. So far as imperial organization was concerned, he said he did not think there was any immediate danger of war, and he expressed a hope that the principles of the Anglo-German agreement
would be universally accepted.
