London, March 10.—New York Sun Cable.—There is doubt no longer that Germany and the Allies both are counting on the food situation quite as much as military developments to bring the end of the war nearer this year.

The Allies have information that the morale of the German people is fast breaking under the depression of hunger. They are unable to prform their wonted and their confidence in victory is wanning.

Paris, March 10.-Noon.-Violent fighting occurred in the Champagne last night in consequence of a German attempt to recapture the ground won by the French between Butte-du-Mesnil and Maisons-du-Champagne. Today's official statement says that after several desperate charges had been made, with alternate advances and retreats, the French succeeded in holding all the ground they had gained, and in making fresh progress. On the Verdun front, the Germans attacked the trenches recaptured by the French north of Caurieres Wood. The German children are not growing normally, and adults of working age are persistently sacrificing themselves to give the children and the aged more food. The result is a great diminution of the producing power of labor.

The Prussian land-owing classes are accused by the country of selfishness and unwillingness to divide their food with the people. The Prussians retort that the maladministration of the imperial authorities is to blame. Declares Whole Affair Is Plot of a Spy of the British Government.

London. March 10.—In the course of an eloquent and vigorous speech today in summing up the case of the four prisoners on trial charged with conspiring to murder Lloyd George and Arthur Henderson, member of the war council, S. H. Riza, the Mohammedan lawyer who is acting as attorney for the defendants, startled the courtroom by suggesting a trial by ordeal. He referred to the medieval form of judical trial in which, in place of evidence, supernatural aid is invoked, as in a test by fire, water, poison or Where is Gordon?

Attorney Riza had been endeavoring to impress the jury with the alleged sinister significance of the failure of the crown to produce a certain witness against the four defendants, Mrs. Alice Wheeldon, her two daughters, and Alfred George Mason, husband of one of the daughters. This person, he said, was a "man who should have been its principal witness, namely, the mysterious secret Government agent known as Gordon."

Calls It Spy Plot. Where Is Gordon? Calls It Spy Plot.

The attorney declared Gordon was a police spy, who had started the whole plot, who had lured the defendants on, and then when he had got them well within his net, had handed them over to another agent named Booth, so that his own connection with the case would not be so flagrantly Involved in Destruction of Italian Battleships.

Germany's Expressed Intention To Carry On Ruthless Sub Warfare, Regardless of American Action, Is Considered at Washington To Mean War Is Certain, Unless Starvation Brings Germany To Time at

BY ROBERT K. BENDER.

Washington, March 10. - The United States Government is preparing for the worst. Warned by Germany that she has spoken with finality as to her submarine intents, the Government today looked out upon the prospect of actual war, following the order to arm American merchantmen. Some officials fear Germany will be as ruthless toward armed American ships as she has been toward the enemy merchant

PEACE AROUND CORNER.

Looming out and above the war cloud, however, is the tremendous possibility that peace may be just around the corner. Germany is hard pressed for food. That fact is admitted by her leaders. THE FAMINE SPECTRE.

It appears to be a race between war engulfing the two nations and starvation swallowing Germany. The spectre of famine, as authorities here see it, has in it the potentialities of a speedy peace.

Meantime, work on the armament of American ships proceeds.

CAN FIRE ON SUBMARINE THE MOMENT IT IS SIGHTED

Washington, D. C., March 10.—The mere appearance of a German submarine or its periscope in the presence of an American armed merchant vessel would entitle that ship, according to state department opinion today, to take all measures of protection on the presumption that the U-boat's purpose was hostile. Under this fulling all moment it is sighted, chantman could fire on a German submarine the moment it is sighted, without being considered as taking aggressive action. This view is based on Germany's declared intention to sink on sight within certain zones all vessels, neutral or well as belligerent, and whether passenger vessels freighters or contraband carriers.

ALL U-BOATS HOSTILE. The United States was said to stand flatly on its armed merchantmen warning of March 27 last, in which it definitely recognized the "right to prevent capture", as part of the "right of self protection," which could exercised either by flight or resistance. The mere presence of a German submarine is declared ground for assuming hostile intent, because of the deliberate statement by Germany that all vessels are to be sunk on Denial by Germany of the old rule of visit and search makes all its U-boats actually hostile. Whether the Government will issue any general rules for the guidance of American armed ship commanders, is uncertain at present. Opposition to such action has been expressed on the ground that the situation is now entirely clear, that in all events the action of the commander must depend on his judgment, and the actual conditions prevailing, and that the Government does not wish to take any steps which might be astile act by Germany. construed as a deliberately h

NO WHITE BOOK. Reports that the state department was preparing a white book of Germany's plots and intrigues in this country for presentation shortly, were flatly denied by Secretary Lansing today. He said that no such step was in contemplation, and that no present end could be served

The consensus of opinion in diplomatic quarters here today was that the action of the United States in arming its merchant ships would in no way serve to change the policies of the several European neutral nations. Virtually all agreed that in their opinion the United States today was nearer to war with Germany than at any time within its

Textiles and Their Characteristics Form Home Economics Lecture Topic

Mrs. Blair gave a most instructive lecture on "Textiles and Shopping," in the Smallman & Ingram store yesterday afternoon. This was the fifth lecture in her home economics series. Saturday will be a review of the whole week, Mrs. Blair has promised to again set the table for a formal dinner and also a supper table. Any questions which have been handed in during the week will be answered, and the health exercises are to be repeated. Those who missed any of the lectures will have a fine opportunity to obtain information on any particular subject today.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Blair opened her talk with a description of the cotton as the one most universally used in Japan, China and India, where it is made by the wild stilk worms, which feed on the scrub oak. Wood silk is also very beautiful, but it costs as much to produce as the real silk, and is not starch, should be used for nightgowrs and underwear, while cambr which readily hold starch, should be used for garments which need starch. Take Charge of Shows.

In order to help along the work of the order, the Horticultural Society has asked any of the chapters which desire to do so to take charge of the coming flower shows. The 7th Regiment Chapter will take charge of the first, when tulips and other spring flowers will be shown, serving tea. The Isabel Hampton Chapter will take charge of the June roses show.

In the course of the business, a hearty vote of thanks was moved to Mrs. A. E. Miller, Mrs. Dillon, Mrs. Robert Red and Miss Dillon for the service rendered in connection with the luncheon of a week ago for the returned soldiers. A letter of thanks on behalf of the Returned Soldiers' Association was read from Sergt. Struad, the secretary.

helped by Rovri

DAY by day proof after proof appears to show how Bovril "gives strength to win." A Rifleman of the ____Inf Brigade, after speaking of the valuable quality of Bovril, "which has once again proved its worth," writes as follows:-

" In the recent strenuous fighting of September 15th, I remember the case of my battalion. After spending two wet and miserable nights in the firing line, we were ordered to attack at break of day. We were feeling very cold, but cheerful and confident, because we were told that the Tanks were to accompany us. To add to our satisfaction we were given a good issue of Bovril, which I know enabled the chaps to withstand the many hardships, for rations failed to turn up that day, and the chaps would have felt very hungry. As it was, the issue of Bovril made my chums feel very confident, the result being that they attained a glorious success. This issue of Bovril no doubt saved the lives of many of the wounded, as some had to lay hours before they could be removed."

Not only on the Battlefield, but in the Munition Shops, inthe Factory, in the Home, Bovril "gives strength to win." Send Bovril to your friends-they deserve the best. Take Bovril yourself. Take it to defend you against winter ills, and to give you that added vigour and energy which mean

STRAIGHT PARTY VOTE

Warning Voiced That This Lead of Liberals, Too, Must Be Honored.

TORONTO, March 9 .- The Ontario Government in the Legislature this afternoon rejected a bill introduced by Joseph H. Ham, Liberal member for South Brant, to permit municipalities by a two-thirds vote of their council by a majority vote of the elector o raise a larger revenue from land values and a lesser amount from the improvements on the land.

The member for South Brant said

there was no reason why the present system should be permitted to go on to the great detriment of the city and the people. It was too bad that the work-ingmen of this province had increased ingmen of this province had increased burdens and that other people who have not created the value in any shape or form should not pay their full share. It was time the Government was beginning to consider reform in the taxation laws of this province.

Labor Member's Views.

Allan Studholme (East Hamilton) said a great deal was heard these Jays about conserving resources and increased production, and at the same time the strange sight was presented between cities of miles and miles of idle land, taxed as farm lands, while held by speculators.

Mr. Hurdman (Ottawa), remarked that his city was vitally concerned in a bill of this nature. The matter had been before the people there in the shape of a referendum and the people spoke in no uncertain tones as to their desire for what was contained in a bill of that kind. He urged upon the Government to allow a second reading to the measure.

reading to the measure.

Mr. Mageau (Sturgeon Falls) also spoke in favor of the bill.

spoke in favor of the bill.

Minister Opposes It.
Hon. W. D. McPherson, provincial secretary, opposed the measure on the ground that it was proposing a wide departure from the assessment system now in vogue, and the present time was no time to pass a law that would interfere so seriously with existing conditions.

"The law as it now stands provides an adequate remedy for the disease complained of by my honorable friend, (Mr. Ham) and all one has to do is to call upon the local assessor to perform his duty in connection with the proper taxation of vacant lands," said Mr. McPherson.

Unfair Discrimination.

Thomas Marshall (Lincoin) contended the law, as it now stands, discriminates against the working classrs and claws the owners of castles and claws the on, comparatively. He could not see adopted. Newfoundland is Canada's missing link. She belongs to Canada geographically and strategically, but not politically. Since 1867 there has been a number of attempts to bring about closer relations, and if Canada had been seized by the importance of the issue, the union would have been consum-mated ere now. # How the President Plans to Meet the German Menace

Germany's supreme affront to the United States is contained in the amazing document of the German foreign minister, Dr. Zimmermann, addressed through Count von Bernstorff to German Minister von Eckhardt in Mexico City. In this communication Germany proposes that Mexico shall join with Japan in Arizona. In the San Antonio Light, published in Texas, one of the states to be "reconquered" by Mexico, we read that "the people of Texas view with complacency the cold-blooded proposition by Germany that the state should become Mexican territory provided Mexico joins Germany and Japan in a war against the United States. They have no fear that such a thing will happen to them. They know that even though left entirely to their own resources, they will be able to avoid compulsory Mexican citizenship. It is conceivable that enormous Japanese and German armies advancing through Mexico might, for a time, occupy Texas, but Mexico would gain no population thereby. It can be asserted with quiet modesty and simple truth that when Texas had been overrun such Texans as were still living would be beyond or on the border fighting their

Enemies of Tea

If tea is left open near oranges, soap, spices, matches, etc., the tea will take on the flavor of any of these articles.

In fact, tea absorbs odors as readily as does butter. This is because of the high temperature at which it is "fired" during the drying process, which makes the tea very sensitive. It thus quickly loses flavor and strength, and goes "flat" if left exposed to odors, dust or air.

To Protect the Consumer

When you buy a package of Red Rose Tea at your grocer's you get the benefit of the great care we take to protect the consumer, as the sealed package is an armor that keeps out odors, dust and air. It keeps the tea pure, clean, fresh and full strength.

The price printed on the package protects you against overcharge. It is the lowest price for which a tea of Red Rose quality can be sold—a price which allows the grocer only a fair profit.

You will enjoy the distinctive flavor, rich strength and splendid economy of Red Rose Tea. TRY A PACKAGE.

I am writing you these few lines to thank you so much for the box lunch you gave me when I left London last week. I am very sorry I left London as this is a very quiet place here. We have no soldiers' club to go to here like you have there. We boys appreciate very much what the I. O. D. E. did for us while we were in London, and only wish you were up here to do the same for us, for we always enjoyed ourselves when being entertained by the I. O. D. E. at London. With ery best wishes to the Overseas Chap-

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in your column the other day an inquiry as to the meaning of Aidine, and its derivation. Your answer that it was probably an abbreviation of Geraldine was scarcely correct, though it is probable that some such abbreviation may be used occasionally. The word is old English, and came with the Angles from sisterly sympathy may not be so your case, but I state truly that in many. I have a brother, but stead of saying I am not needed.

QUESTION CLUB

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.

(All Rights Reserved.)

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International S. S. Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions: "Jesus, the Bread of Life." John, Vi., Golden Text-"Jesus said unto them, I m the bread of life." John, vi., 35.

Golden Text—"Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life." John, vi., 35.

17. All who feed on bread from heaven have spiritual life, and all who do not, are spiritually dead; but what is spiritual life?

18. Verses 36-29—How is it that there are so many who know that Christ is the bread-of life, and also know they are spiritually dead, and yet do not eat of that bread?

19. Who does God want to come to Jesus, and what assurance have they that Jesus will save them eternally?

20. Verse 40—What has God done, or said, that sinners may be sure that he wants them to come to Jesus for eternal life?

Lesson for Sunday, March 18, 1917.
"Jesus Saves From Sin." (Temperance Lesson), John, viii., 12, 28-37, 56-59, you know why? Simply because I stand by him in everything. I help him with his chores when he is in a hurry to get away, but if he comes in and I don't happen to have his meal: ready and if he says anything, he gets them himself just the best way he knows how, and if he doesn't complain I get them for him. I always blacken his shoes and put them beside his bed. I also put his shirt and suit on the bed and hunt up his collar and cuff buttons, especially when he is in a hurry.

My brother takes me to church every My brother takes me to church every other Sunday night, and in summer he takes me to every nearby fair to which I wish to go. Could I ask for any more? No, certainly not. nor could any other girl. Don't think I am taking the brother's part altogether, but I do blame the girls more than the boys for that cold and indifferent feeling between a brother and sister. Is it so in your case, "J. O. G."? If you do all these things and still your brother has that feeling toward you, he is not human. I could point out two or three pairs of brothers and sisters where there is that chilly feeling. These girls are my nearest friends, and they have often asked me how I got along so well with my brother, and I have told them in just the same way I have told you, but they say they will not be a slave for any boy. Whose fault is it? You can see plainly that it is the girl's fault. There now. I hope you will not be angry with me. Will you correspond with me, "J. O. G."?

A SIMPLE, BECOMING MODEL.

Referee Calls Game in Commencement of the Third Period Because of Rough Stuff by Players.

OWEN SOUND, March 9.—The knals between Owen Sound and Dunnville in the Intermediate Northern Hockey League did not finish satisfactorily by any means. Dunnville won by a score of 7 to 2. Referee Rhodes called the game shortly after the commencement of the third period, owing to rough still being handed out, and the Dunnville scored two goals, the locals none. The play was evenly divided, however, and the fact that Green of the Dunnville swas invincible, kept the score as it was.

In the second period Dunnville Owen Sound got one into the net. The play and rooting of the large crowd became hoisterous, protesting against the referee's ruling.

In the third period, Mercer went in goal for the locals, and Young went out on the ice, and in less than a minute

Owen Sound scored a second goal. 20 to 25 miles to a gallon of gasoline is a frequent occurrence with the Ford car. One man (name on request) reports an average of 33 miles per gallon for 20,000 miles. Surely this is a record that few, if any other makes of cars ever equaled.

It demonstrates the economy of owning and driving a Ford. You can average 1000 miles more travel on Ford-size tires. The saving on oil and repairs is proportionately large. The name "FORD" stands for lowest cost and greatest service.

As a chauffeur the man had been earning $20 a week, but in factory he had advanced rapidly until now he was averaging but $10 a day.

Hay was plentiful and cheaper at $12 to $12.50 a ton, but straw was unchanged at $9.50 to $10 a ton. Oats brought $2.18 to $2.27 a cwt., and wheat $1.70 a bushel. Live hogs sold for $14.25 to $14.50 a cwt., but fat sows were firmer at $11.50 at $12 a cwt. Dressed hogs climbed still higher, selling for $18.50 to $19 a cwt. The present abnormal times cannot continue forever. Some Butter. day there must be a readjustment and when it comes wages will be cut along with other expenses. The manufacturer can only continue high wages as long as he receives high prices for his products; so when competition arrives once more the manufacturer must meet it or shut down.

This day may be a long way off, but on the other hand, it may come sooner than expected, so in either case it behooves the pros-Old fowl, per lb..... perous wage earner to give the future a thought and to put aside Old low, per lb.... 20 to Old fowl, per lb.... 20 to Old fowl, per lb.... 18 to a small portion of his earnings for the inevitable rainy day.

town in Ohio. He told of shop girls that were now earning as high as $30 to $35 weekly, whereas they formerly received from $6 to $10. Nearly every shop girl in the town had got into the habit of expensive adornment and the ordinary shop girl thought nothing of paying $10, $12, $15 and even $18 for a pair of whitetopped fancy shoes.

Some of the girls have different shoes for every day in the week, while others have different colored gowns to match the fancy shoes.

To me this seems a crime, because when the hard times do come nobody can eat these shoes and that is about all some of the shop girls will have to show for the adnormal wages they have received.

The United States is about to go to war and this means that Uncle Sam with his well-filled purse will add one more cash cus tomer to the list.

Uncle Sam will, no doubt, spend more than a billion dollars with these same manufacturers that are now paying such high wages, so it is safe to assume that present conditions will endure for some months, if not for some years.

This being established, I believe it is not only necessary, but that it is a sacred duty for every well-paid wage earner to save and invest at least half of his weekly earnings.

There never was a more opportune time than the present for investing money, and I will gladly give any wage earner full and complete information as to the best securities for his surplus funds.

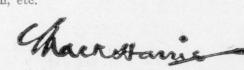

The Canadian wage earner should put his funds into the Canadian War Loan, which is absolutely safe and which returns him more than he can secure from the savings bank.

These War Loans can be purchased in small amounts and arrangements can be made to pay for them on the instalment plan.

I want to also call American investors' attention to this War Loan and to say that in my opinion it represents an ideal invesment for widows, orphans and trust funds.

As an investment there is nothing safer in this world, for it is backed by Canada's wonderful resources, and these, as we all know, are practically inexhaustible.

Upon request I will gladly send full information regarding the various Canadian war loans, including market price, terms of payment, interest return, etc.

P. S .- Butte-Detroit, the stock that I called attention to several weeks ago, has consistently advanced, until today it is selling around $1.25. In view of the market conditions this is a remarkable exhibition of underlying strength and, in my opinion, presages a big upward movement in the near future. Buy Butte-

No army could fight very long on an empty stomach. Plentiful supplies of food must reach our heroes in France every day.

Besides, there is all Canada to feed, and Great Britain depends largely upon us too. There exists a world shortage of food. Hundreds of thousands of Canadian soldiers are now conevery bit of help in growing extra food supplies is of colossal importance. Every home should

The president's action sent a thrill through the Senate, meeting in special session and through the Government departments. Still hoping that war with Germany will be avoided, officials and senators declared that the Issue rests entirely with Germany.

Formal announcement of the Government's policy was given in the follow-Formal announcement of the Govern-ment's policy was given in the follow-ing announcement issued from the White House:

"Whereas public interests require that the Congress of the United States should be convened in extra session at 12 o'clock, noon, on the sixteenth day of April, 1917, to receive such communications as may be made by the executive; "Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the Congress of the United States to convene in extra session at the Capitol in the city of Washington, on the sixteenth day 'Whereas public interests require can ports and place the issue of eventual war squarely on Germany. An attack upon an armed American vessel will precipitate a fight if the ship gets sight of the submarine, and an unwarned attack would be regarded by the United States as an act of war. Germany and Austria-Hungary both have declared armed merchantmen war vessels. These declarations were based largely, however, upon the charge that British merchant ships used their armament offensively, and remains to be seen whether Ger-craft with defensive arms. The whole of the German press comment and unofficial utterances since the question was raised in this country has indicated the conviction that any armed vessel should be considered hostile and sunk in the same way as a belligerent war vessel. There has a belligerent war vessel. There here been no official expression on the sub-

Germany's exact policy towards American vessels sailing through the war zone since its proclamation February 1 has not been quite clear, owing to the fact that less than a dozen such voyages have been made, and it is possible that all the vessels that escaped succeeded in avoiding the submarines entirely. It has been suggested that Germany probably issued instructions to her commanders not to Will See Where Subs Stand. American ships without precaution for those on board, as a last hope of keeping America out of the war. The ruthless destruction of passenger liners like the California and the Laconic the Laconia, however, is felt here to render this belief improbable. The effect of America's action upon other neutral nations other neutral nations will be awaited with keen interest. Vessels of those countries, too, have been holding to port through terror of the German menace.

The throttling of neutral shipping, both British and French experts have stated to be the most serious result of the German campaign to date and to have exceeded in effects the actual amount of tonnage destroyed. Several German authorities have indicated that so long as they could terrorize neutral vessels and continue their attrition on British shipping the eventual starvation of England was certain.

Guns Ready for Shins. Guns Ready for Ships.

The president decided to arm ships after getting formal opinions from Attorney-General Gregory and Secretary of State Lansing that he had such authority, in spite of old statutes, which some believed forbade it. The name of the ships which will be armed will not be made public by the Government, and are not expected to be published in the newspapers.

Mr. Wilson has the backing of the entire cabinet in taking the step. Guns for arming merchantmen have been assembled at the navy yards along the Atlantic coast, and everything is ready to carry out the policy announced to Because of the passage by the House of the armed neutrality bill and the signing of the manifesto approving such step by a majority of the Senate durhas Congress and the country behind him. As soon as Congress con-venes additional legislation on the question will be asked for. Munitions Ships Not Insured. Under a bill passed near the end of at the disposal of the Government war risk bureau for insuring ships was increased to $15,000,000. Under the present rule of the bureau the Government does not insure ships carrying arms or munitions.

Men's Shoes Of Dependability!

For years this store has been known as one place in town where a man could get a dependable shoe. Men. as a rule, don't want to spend much time or thinking on what they need for themselves. If buying something for somebody else they would be most painstaking, but for themselves they will rush right into the store they know, and buy because of the confidence they have in the store and its management. We were educated in the shoe manufacturing business. We know what must be put into a shoe to make it up to standard efficiency and durability, and we see to it that the manufacturers ship us shoes of that quality. We carry reliable shoes. You can't make a mistake when you buy your Men's Shoes at

ast evening. A large audience was resent, and the subject, "Milton as he Greatest Englishman," was one of at in choosing this theme perhaps he oke as one prejudiced, for he had attended the same university and college as Milton, or, to speak in American

"I speak of Milton as the greatest of Englishmen because in six different fields of human greatness, no two of which are often combined in one man, he has reached the realm of the immortals. In the sphere of politics, to speak in modern language, Milton was he secretary of state of the strongest Parliament in England, that of Cromwell. It is true he had very little actual influence in that parliament, but it was because he was so far above them. This is brought out in the removal of all restrictions on the press, which that parliament brought about almost eident. Milton took up the idea and ublished the Areopagitica, that ovan on license printing. Another simple est of his greatness in the field of politics is the fact that no man was so much feared by the opposite, or Royalist, party as John Milton, not man greatness, in the political field, Milton was one of the immortals. Great Journalist.

"He was one of the greatest newspapermen of his age. Do you realize that newspaper controversy of today was preceded by similar controversies pamphlets, and that was preceded by nother controversy in ponderous volimes. It was Milton who brought Eng- "BUY MEAT THE SANITARY WAY." land to the attention of Europe in the world of literary controversy by writing his magnificent defence of the English people, which won all Europe, and he was acknowledged the greatest of all be examined, and, if necessary been outside the controvery of ponder-ous volumes, and it was Milton who joined this great controversy. This ous volumes, and it was Milton who joined this great controversy. This means that Milton was the greatest newspaperman of his age."

"He was undoubtedly great in the sphere of the poets.

"He was among the world's greatest inventors. The name inventor today suggests Edison or the man who turned out the aeroplane. Yet when you come to think it all out, all these inventions are but extensions of earlier inventions. You would say that wireless telegraphy was the greatest invention of this age. Yet wireless telegraphy is only a small extension of a yet greater invention, the invention of writing, the expression of thought in wisable symbols. But this is only a small extension of a still greater invention, language or the expression of thought in words. Now Milton was an inventor in the field of language. Europe was one in the middle ages and its language was Latin, which came very naturally to be corrupted by various dialects, and there were evolved the romance languages with their predominance of Latin and the Teutonic languages, in which there was more of the local element. Latin had the adminance of Latin and the Teutonic languages, in which there was more of the local element. Latin had the adminance of Latin and the adminance of Latin and the English language will be the dominant language in the world because it the balance of these two elements of feeling and warmth. I believe that has language in the world because it the balance of these two elements of feeling and wilton stands ahead of all individual writers in the degree of which he has domesticated the English language. If language is the language. If language is the language in that sphere."

"Milton is great among the founders of schools of thought. He is the ounder of Protestantism, not theelors."

Milton's interpretation of the Bible. Isn't this a fitting field of greatness to which he has found immortal rank?"

"There are great men of the past, such as Samuel Jonson, whose greatness is not to be found in what they have left behind them, but in the fact that they are perfect types of the age in which they lived. We see the whole age when we look at Dr. Jonson. In Milton we have a man who sums up not only one age but two, and not only two ages but two ages in absolute conflict with one another. I refer to the Renaissance and later, what we call, puritanism. The most perfect type of the Renaissance you can find is Milton, and the most perfect type of puritanism that you can find is Milton, and the two ideas in Paradise Lost. It is a Greek epic on Puritan theology. There is no Greek epic which is such a perfect type of the Greek epic as it is. There is no conception of Puritanism like Milton's Paradise Lost. In "L'Allegro" and "Il Penseroso" poises brightness, the spirit of the Renaissance, and the beauty of the sombre, the spirit of Puritanism. In "Comas" there is the clash between the thought of beauty and the thought of duty, again the ideas of the Renaissance and Puritanism."

"Thus is Milton the man of immortal rank in six different spheres."

The Hydro Shop

palatable loaf, raises on high the standard of quality in bread-making.

'Snowdrift' "Quality" Bread

Our aim has always been to make bread of a superior quality.

That's why we made "Snowdrift," the lightest and most appetizing bread that's baked Mixed only from the purest and best ingredients. Baked by expert breadmen in special ovens that bake it "just right." And then our factory is a model of cleanliness and purity. "Snowdrift" is wrapped by electricity in waxed paper-not even touched by hands. Purer than the driven snow—that's "Snowdrift."

Best for the Growing Child

Nothing causes you greater concern than your child's health. Food experts say: "The bread eaten is worth more to the growing child than the meat, if it is pure, wholesome bread. "Snowdrift is the purest and most wholesome loaf you can buy. Its light-brown, crisp crust seems to melt in their tiny mouths-full of the nourishment necessary to every growing child. It's a body-builder, and it's delicious. That's why the children like it. We insure their health by observing absolute cleanliness in its manufacture.
