British Coast Bombed by Six German Planes

British Aviators
Continue Raids,
Delivering Suc-

Near Bruges in Belgium

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Sept. 4.—Continuing their raids over Belgium, British aviators on Sunday night made attacks in the vicinity of Bruges. The following official account was given out today: "Naval aircraft made a bombing raid at midnight Sunday on the docks, submarine shelters and railway sidings at Bruges. Bombs were observed to explode over the objectives, and fire was caused adjacent to the lock gates of the Scheldt Canal. "A raid also was made early Monday morning on the air-drome at Varsenaere, (4 1/2 miles southwest of Bruges). Bombs were seen to explode among the sheds. One of our machines was attacked by six hostile aircraft, and succeeded in shooting down one, completely out of control. In an engagement between one of our aircraft patrols and enemy machines there were three decisive combats. One of our machines failed to return.

London, Sept. 4.—The enemy's strategy showed great ingenuity in their present move-ment east of Ypres, says today's official statement. "We advanced our lines slightly northeast of St. Julien.

"We carried out a successful raid last night directly north of Lens. Our troops killed a number of Germans and captured several prisoners.

A hostile raiding party was driven off south of La Bassée."

Officers Wounded
Paris, Sept. 4.—Major Philippe Bunau-Varilla was seriously wounded yesterday morning while on duty.

Philippe Bunau-Varilla was director general of the old French Panama canal company, and served as Panama minister to Washington. He is a brother of Maurice Bunau-Varilla, editor of the Matin.

BRITISH CASUALTIES
London, Sept. 4.—British casualties reported in the last week are 15,614. They are divided as follows:

Killed or died of wounds; Officers 364; men, 3,880.
Wounded or missing; Officers 816; men, 10,524.

TRAINING SAMMIES.
American training camp in France, Sept. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—It is announced that a number of British army officers will soon be attached to the United States expeditionary force to assist in training the Americans, who will thus get the advantage of the best points of both the French and British tactics.

FRENCH OFFICIAL
Paris, Sept. 4.—Attacks were made by the Germans last night on the French lines in the Hartebise region on the Aisne front, and east of the Meuse in the Verdun sector, the war office announced today, that both were checked by the French fire.

Raid by French troops at Sapignol, between Souain and Somme Py in the Champagne and in the Argeonne region, resulted in the capture of prisoners and material.

WEATHER BULLETIN
Toronto, Sept. 4.—There is a pronounced area of high pressure covering the Great Lakes and middle states, while in the west and along the Atlantic coast pressure is relatively low. A tropical storm is centred south of Bermuda. Its course is yet unknown. The weather is fine from Manitoba to Nova Scotia.
Forecast:
Light to moderate winds, fine and comparatively cool to-day and on Wednesday.

ARMY RE-ORGANIZED
Austrian Chief of Staff
Hastens to Scene To Rally Soldiers

By Courier Leased Wire
Udine, Sept. 4.—Field Marshal von Arz, chief of staff of the Austrian army, is reported to be inspecting the Italian front, for the purpose of re-organizing his troops. Meanwhile the Italians continued their steady advance and are spreading over a larger tract of the country, especially along the Brestovizza valley and over the Bainsizza plateau, capturing trench after trench, and in some cases finding contingents of Austrian troops literally exhausted and suffering from thirst and hunger, their means of communication having been cut off by the well directed Italian fire.

Monte San Gabriele still is making desperate efforts at resistance, but Italian pickets are gradually creeping up the slopes, making its fall only a matter of time when, as officers laughingly say here, "the Austrians execute another strategical retreat."

Austrian officers and others, who have read the Austrian war bulletins, are much amused over the statements that the Italians are fleeing, when, as a matter of fact, the Austrians are losing territory. Since the beginning of the present advance, the Italians have gained ground every day, while all Austrian efforts to recapture lost positions have been shattered by the energetic resistance of Cadorna's army.

Polk Raided.
Rome, Sept. 4.—Thirty Italian airplanes have dropped nine tons of bombs on the Austrian naval base at Pola, causing destruction and large conflagrations, it is announced officially.

The bombs were dropped on the Austrian fleet at Anchor, and also on military works.

All the Italian machines although determinedly attacked, returned safely. The artillery fire has grown heavier on the Julian front, says the official announcement which reads:

"From St. Elvio to Monte Rombon there were the usual patrol actions.

"On the Julian front there were more intense artillery duels and considerable activity by our airplanes.

"Last night, under favorable atmospheric conditions, thirty of our airplanes flew over Pola and bombarded the military works of this naval port and the enemy fleet at Anchor in the harbor and in the Fasana canal. Nine tons of bombs were dropped on the targets, causing destruction and great conflagrations. Our machines, although attacked by seaplanes and shelled by anti-aircraft batteries, returned safely to their bases.

"Saturday night enemy aircraft made a bombing raid on some localities in the plain between the lower Sonzo and the Tagliamento causing casualties among the civil population and soldiers in hospitals."

CASUALTIES VERY HEAVY

By Courier Leased Wire.
Ottawa, Sept. 4.—With the proportion of killed and died of wounds on the increase, the lists of casualties among Canadian troops at the front have been growing heavier every day during the past week. Between Saturday noon and Sunday midnight, 1,718 names were given out from the records' office. Last night's list contained 665 names. Since Saturday, August 25, a total of 6,998 casualties have been given out. The artillery and field services have suffered heavily from gas poisoning. The list of "gassed" among all services is unusually long. Indications are that the casualty lists will continue to be very heavy for some time.

Victims of Raid Were Seamen at Chatham, Where a Large Number Were Wounded in Addition to Those Killed; Material Damage Slight

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Sept. 4.—In an air raid last night on Chatham, 107 persons were killed and 86 wounded, it is announced officially. The victims were naval ratings. Six air-planes took part in the raid. The term naval ratings applies to the grade of men on board ship, usually those before the mast.

In addition to the naval casualties one civilian was killed and six were injured. The announcement follows:

"Lord French, (commander of the British home forces) reports that last night's raid was carried out by about six enemy air-planes, which proceeded up the south bank of the Thames estuary to Chatham. Bombs were dropped in the Isle of Thanet and in the Sheerness-Chatham area between 10.40 and 11.30 p.m. There were no army casualties. Civilian casualties reported at present are: Killed, 1; injured, 6.

"The material damage was slight. Our machines went up and anti-aircraft guns came into action, but without result.

"The secretary of the Admiralty reports that in the course of the air raid last night the following casualties were caused to naval ratings: Killed, 107; wounded, 86.

Suspects In Atholstan
Dynamite Case

ELEVEN MEN HELD
Police Have Located Entire
Supply of Stolen Dynamite

By Courier Leased Wire.
Montreal, Sept. 4.—During last night the police rounded up five men here in connection with the recent attempt to murder Lord Atholstan and other anti-conscription disturbances. The police now have eleven men in custody, including participants in street parades accused of carrying concealed weapons.

The men placed under detention for examination are:

Nere Assanault, laborer, Masson street; Joseph Tremblay, laborer, Chateau Briand street; Joseph Paquette, steamfitter, Henri Julien street; Louis Bolduc, plumber, Bonbonais street; and Arthur Blackwell, toolmaker, Bonbonais street.

The police during yesterday and today, as a result of confessions of men under detention, have now located all of the dynamite stolen by the terrorists in connection with their anti-conscription, except fifty pounds.

In one instance a suspect drew a revolver, but the officers disarmed him before he could use it.

Most of the men suspected of complicity in the Cartierville dynamiting outrage here under lock and key, the police today gave details of the anti-conscription plots that have been uncovered here and frustrated.

The anti-conscription dynamites had mapped out the following programme:

First, the murder of Lord Atholstan as he drove from his country house to Montreal; next, the dynamiting of his lordship's home and offices of the Montreal Star; then, Solicitor General Arthur Meighen to be assassinated in Ottawa; the Prime Minister, Sir Robert Borden to be murdered and the parliament buildings at Ottawa were to be dynamited.

The anarchists had everything prepared to put this programme into execution when the police authorities began to get suspicious of certain of the ticks of leave element connected with the organization—that is Joseph Leduc, rounded up and forced to commit suicide yesterday at Lachute and Henri Monette, now being chased in the Laurentian mountains near Sainte Agathe, by the police in automobiles.

The police believe that the clues they have dug up in connection with the plots point to their having been hatched primarily by a prominent man with strong German affiliations. The police further announced that men in clerical garb had been shadowed after they had visited the home of one of the suspects, and that information in reference to guns and ammunition said to be an institution in the city was being investigated.

Enemy Air Raids
on British Coast
Believed to be by Way of Experiment For The Enemy

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Sept. 4.—Reports received here from southeast coast towns say that during Monday night's raid, the air along the coast and for some miles inland resounded with the noise of aircraft engines. One of the raiders passed over a coast town headed seaward, its engine making the loudest ever heard from an aircraft. The sound resembled the noise of a Zeppelin and came from a great height.

The raids over the southeast coast on Sunday and Monday nights seem to have been more for the purpose of testing the ability of attack by moonlight than by the hope of doing any considerable damage. Like the aviator who dropped bombs on Sunday, those who came last night kept at very high altitude and while their machines could be heard, they could not be seen. Nevertheless, British air-planes went up in pursuit.

After dropping bombs over a wide area, many of them falling into fields or the sea, the raiders departed as quickly as they came. Despatches thus far received say very little damage was done. No casualties have been reported.

Despatches from towns on the southeast coast say that many inhabitants believed last night's raiders were Zeppelins as they made much more noise than is usual for airplanes. There was heavy firing, first at one point and then at another and finally very heavy explosions occurred.

Shortly before nine o'clock explosions and heavy firing could be heard in the direction of Dun-kirk and Calais and it was thought a raid on a large scale was taking place along the French coast. This lasted until nearly midnight.

BORDEN FACES THE ISSUE

Montreal, Sept. 4.—Rumors that the military service act would not be introduced are described by Sir Robert Borden in a letter to a correspondent there as baseless. The Prime Minister also says:

"I am unable to share apprehensions as to the effect of this law in this country.

"We have sent the Canadian Expeditionary Force to the battle front in the name of Canada; it is idle and shameful hypocrisy to pretend as the chief faction opposed to this law do, that because these men went voluntarily, we at home have no obligation to support them. We encouraged them to go, we organized, trained and equipped them. They have offered themselves for the supreme sacrifice on our behalf. More than thirty thousand of them are under the sod, having died that we may live and that our inheritance may be preserved. To desert them now on the ground of a quibble that they are merely volunteers, would be as ignoble an evasion of moral responsibility as any country in all history was ever guilty of. It would be a far worse fate for our country than any that has yet been seriously suggested as possible."

DEPRIVE SLACKERS OF A VOTE DURING WAR-TIME

War Time Election Act, Before Commons Tomorrow, Will Disfranchise "Conscientious Objectors" to Service; Aliens Also Disfranchised, And Women Granted Vote.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Ottawa, Sept. 4.—A bill entitled "A War Time Elections Act" appears on the order paper of the House of Commons in the name of Sir Robert Borden, and will be proceeded with Wednesday. This is the title given the measure, better known as the franchise bill. It is practically the only remaining piece of the session's program in the Commons, and were it of a non-controversial character, the session would conclude in short order. As far as can be learned, the bill is likely to be more contentious than otherwise, and unless changed from its present form, the act seems likely to give rise to opposition.

It is understood that it will have three principal provisions—the disfranchisement of the German and Austrian born who have been naturalized in Canada, particularly in more recent years, their Canadian-born sons would not be debarred from voting if qualified. Another provision will be to extend the franchise to the wives and relatives of soldiers, and a third provision to eliminate from the vote the "conscientious objectors" to military service.

As the title of the Act implies, there is to be a war time franchise for a war time election. The essential issue of the campaign will be the war, and the underlying principle invoked by the government is to extend the franchise to soldiers and their female relatives, but to deny to naturalized alien enemies the right in war time to vote on war issues.

Heretofore, in federal elections provincial lists have been used. The new act will provide for Dominion lists prepared under Dominion auspices. The act in whatever form it is finally passed will apply only to elections during war time.

It is not designed to be a permanent affair, either in regard to the enlargements or restriction of the franchise.

Any radical bill—as now seems likely—will have to be put through by the process of closure.
Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The Minister of Justice and the Solicitor General are still working on the details of the war time elections act, news of which appeared for the first time on the order paper of the House yesterday. With the bill still undergoing revision statements as to its provisions are necessarily speculative in their nature. As the title of the bill would indicate, however, it is a war time measure and any restriction of the franchise which it covers will be for the war period only. It is generally accepted that the bill will debar naturalized citizens of alien birth from voting at the approaching elections, and that in the various provinces the right to vote will be extended to women who are relatives of members of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces.

To what degree the bill will be regarded as controversial by the opposition cannot be stated until its provisions are explained in the Commons by the Prime Minister in whose name it stands on the order paper. Should the opposition take strong exception to the explanation the closure will in all likelihood be invoked to secure its adoption in the Commons. That would mean a considerable prolongation of the session which apart from the war time elections act, would terminate next week.

RUSSIANS STILL IN RETREAT

By Courier Leased Wire.
Petrograd, Sept. 4.—The Russian retreat in the Riga region is being continued along the coast in a northeasterly direction, the war office announced today.

In the Kull district, the Russians are retreating northward, having been dislodged by the Germans in the great Jaegel River region.

Hostile ships are shelling Riga coast, the announcement adds.

In the region of Kranzem (22 miles southeast of Riga), Milph and Bybusk, the Russian retreatment is to the northward. Considerable artillery fire has developed in the neighborhood of Drinsk.

GOOD WORK FOR SICK WOMEN

The Woman's Medicine Has Proved Its Worth.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies were first introduced, their curative powers were doubted and had to be proved. But the proof came, and gradually the use of them spread over the whole country. Now that hundreds of thousands of women have experienced the most beneficial effects from the use of these medicines, their value has become generally recognized, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard medicine for women.

The following letter is only one of the thousands on file in the Pinkham office, at Lynn, Mass., proving that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an article of great merit as shown by the result it produced:

Anamosa, Iowa.—"When I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered with a displacement, and my system was in a general run-down condition. I would have the headache for a week and my back would ache so bad when I would bend down I could hardly straighten up. My sister was sick in bed for two months and doctored, but did not get any relief. She saw an advertisement of your medicine and tried it and got better. She told me what it had done for her, and when I had taken only two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my head began to feel better. I continued its use and now I don't have any of those troubles."—Mrs. L. J. HANNAH, R.F.D. 1, Anamosa, Iowa.

BURFORD RESIDENT WAS LAID TO REST

Funeral of Late Mrs. Chas. Palmer Took Place Sunday at Paris

BAD ELECTRIC STORM

Wm. H. Kipp Accidentally Killed By Machine Near Princeton

(From our own Correspondent)
Paris, Sept. 4.—The funeral took place at Paris cemetery on Sunday afternoon of Elizabeth L., the widow of the late Chas. Palmer of Burford Tp. Deceased, who was aged 69th year, was known to many in this section.

An unusual fierce electrical storm passed over Paris during the early hours of Sunday morning, accompanied by heavy rains, and east of the town quite a little hail storm lasted for a few minutes. In town a large double chimney on ex-Mayor H. Stronell's residence was struck and shattered, some of the bricks being thrown about fifty feet away. The valuable head of cattle on the farm of Mr. John P. Barker, Keg Lane, were killed, and a barn on R. Greenwood's farm in Brantford Tp., was burned to the ground, with some 30 loads of hay and several hundred bushels of grain.

The death took place on Saturday morning of Mrs. E. Anderson of Dumfries St. Deceased came to Paris with her husband and daughter last year from Glenora. She was almost totally blind, and had been ailing for some time. The funeral took place yesterday morning at her home in some of the services being conducted by the officers of the local Salvation Army.

The unfortunate man, Mr. H. Kipp, of the Governor's Road, who was accidentally killed in a threshing accident near Princeton on Saturday, was well known Paris. His widow was a Miss Reading, who with a family of five children, survives. The eldest, twin boys, are 18 years, and the youngest a baby only three months old.

There is freely general complaint of the quantity of raw weed, sweet clover and golden rod, allowed by the authorities to grow on the streets. Parties suffering from hay fever can barely go outside their doors in some portions of the town at Clarksville, along Willow street, as also Dundas and portions of River St., the raw weed is running wild.

In connection with the very mysterious death of Dr. McRobbie, of Hamilton, which is giving the police much concern in that city, a Paris man has now been involved, Herbert Asselline, who while living here with his family, was largely maintained by charity, was car-taken from the building where the doctor was found in a dying condition, by him self. His ansying has been very unsatisfactory that frequently he had been

HOOD'S PILLS

Silos in Western Canada

Up-to-date Silo and Barn in the West.

FOR many years Western Canada has not been thought of as a silo country. The enormous areas of unoccupied land, on which cattle roamed at will, or the settler cut his year's supply of native hay, to a large extent met the fodder problems of the country. With closer settlement and more intensified agriculture, however, a change is coming about. Particularly on account of the rapid advance of the dairy industry the farmers are becoming more interested in the various means of caring for their herds, especially during the winter months. The silo has been found to solve one problem, and is making its appearance in many parts of the country.

From experiments that have been undertaken at the various experimental farms it would appear that the silo method of feeding dairy stock is one of the very best. Superintendent G. H. Hutton, of the Dominion Experimental Farm at Lacombe Alberta, claims that winter silage is one of the best means of keeping the farm stock well fed during the winter and has solved the problem of securing succulent feed for the dairy cattle.

In his report Mr. Hutton says that the growing of roots has met with many objections among them being the high cost of labor and the difficulty of storing. Where these difficulties can be overcome roots add very materially to the rations for the dairy cow and are a means whereby the best production can be increased to the "best" or "fruition" stage and maintained at a higher daily

THE SITUATION

Matters are going from bad to worse as far as the Russians are concerned. The abandonment of Riga gives to the enemy the most important port on the Baltic and makes the way that more easy to Petrograd. The place stands mainly on the right bank of the Dwina, about five miles from the mouth of that river and is the second trading town of importance. In some quarters this occupation of Riga and possibly that of Petrograd, seems to be regarded as having a possibly good effect in awakening the people, and particularly the soldiers, to a realization of the desperate future which confronts the new Republic because of lack of unity. That may be the case, but all history shows that a country so deplorably out of hand is very slow, indeed, to respond again to any sort of attempted rudder.

As far as the Rumanian front is concerned, the Russo-Rumanian armies still continue to do well. They are not only resisting Teuton attacks, but also making vigorous counter attacks.

Despite the heavy German reinforcements rushed to the Italian front Cardona's forces continue to successfully push their way towards Trieste. The Austrian forces are stated thus far to have suffered losses totalling 130,000 and Emperor Charles has deemed it expedient to go to the front in an effort to help hearten his forces.

There was another air raid on the Old Country on Monday night with the important Channel port of Dover as the objective. The results are reported to have been negligible with one killed and a few injured. Last night a much more serious attack took place on Chatham, a river port and Naval Arsenal at Kent.

President Wilson has written a letter to Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, bristling with patriotism and rebuking those pacifists, those citizens of foreign birth, leaders of certain groups who "have sought to ignore our grievances against the men who have equally misled the German people." In the epistle he heartily congratulates Mr. Gompers and his "fellow patriots" upon the loyal course they are pursuing.

There was a Mosquito engagement off Jutland when four German mine sweepers were destroyed by British light forces. Some submarines are also stated to have been caught.

The French continue to hold all their Aisne gains and all efforts of the Germans to retake the Hurbise lines have been repulsed.

A NATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

After seven years of effort the Canadian National News Service has become an accomplished fact. The great gaps which existed between St. John and Montreal, Ottawa and Winnipeg and Calgary and Winnipeg have now been bridged, or more correctly speaking, wired, and the achievement has been very properly made the subject of congratulatory messages from Premier Borden and the Provincial Premiers. It was financial aid on the part of the Dominion Government which finally made the thing possible and the outcome of the knitting together of all portions of Canada in an unrivalled news service which connects every paper with the same with every other paper the Dominion over. In this regard Mr. Slack, President of the Canadian Press, Limited, to whose untiring efforts so much of the credit is due, points out in illustration, that should for instance a German "U" boat shell the harbor at Sydney, N. S., that fact would "be known in every Canadian Press Newspaper office from Halifax to Victoria, B.C., inside of two minutes. Mr. Slack now looks forward to a press union of the British Empire, and he regards the inauguration of the new service in its present form as "one of the conspicuous milestones in the history of Canada."

It will certainly serve to weld the interests of the people together from a news standpoint as never before.

A charge of criminal libel against Louis Joseph Tarte president of Montreal La Liberté Publishing Co. and Charles Robillard editor brought by M. Snyker, was dismissed at the preliminary hearing before Judge Lacombe.

NOTES AND COMMENT

The fashion order has gone forth that dresses are to be worn longer. If the edict had been to have them any shorter the bottoms of the skirts would have had to be secured to the hair with hatpins.

Hamilton is facing the necessity for enlarged water mains. The circumference was ample there before Sept. 16th last.

By a strange anomaly yesterday, a day of rest for the majority, was known as "Labor Day." Come to think of it this old world is largely one contradiction after another.

The Mayor of Montreal, who is also a member of the Dominion House, exclaimed in the chamber in question, "You cannot put that law (conscription) into force." Did his worship never hear of the story of King Canute and the waves?

News Notes

Ten more suffragette "pickets" of the White House have been seized by the police.

Police Commissioner Woods, of New York, is asking for 1,200 more men.

The price of airplane engines in America has dropped by a thousand dollars in the past year.

Governor Burnquist, of Minnesota has forbidden the holding of a peace convention in Minneapolis.

Nineteen years in the "pen" was meted out to Albert Johnson, who held up a party of theatrical men in a Broadway hotel last May, relieving them of their currency.

A new York firm of "detectives" is accused of having forcibly detained American soldiers on leave in order that they might claim the $50 reward offered for deserters.

The first prize for a Liberty Loan poster has been won by P. Hoyt of New York city, for a picture entitled "Your Gold is Liberty's Armor."

From present indications the attendance at the Ontario Agricultural College the coming term will be the smallest in its history.

Owing to pressure brought to bear upon Food Controller Hanna, threatening crews in Alberta are to be permitted canned vegetables.

Some Hamilton coal merchants are already starting to charge severe prices for coal, instances of where $11.50 and $12 was charged, being common.

A million dollars damage was done when fire swept the building of the Bi-Products Manufacturing Co., at Barren Island, Jamaica Bay.

An appeal has been made to the States to assist the Assyrians in establishing an independent state under British and Russian protection.

The "family slacker" is the latest arrival in the States. He is the man who has a large family and enlists so that the State may take care of them.

A Philadelphia firm has been awarded a contract for over a million gas masks for the U. S. army.

The Senate has adopted a bill providing free postal privileges for Americans serving in Europe.

President Wilson will ride at the head of a parade of drafted men from the District of Columbia.

Dr. Frank T. Hastings, formerly of Kingston, who has been practising at Barton, Vermont, and Dr. F. M. Locker, of Kingston, have been appointed officers of the Army Medical Corps.

Two German prisoners escaped from the internment camp at Amherst, N.S. They are A. Peters and T. Reans. Both speak good English. All exits from the country are now closely guarded.

Miss MacLachlan, superintendent of the Neglected and Dependent Children's Branch, has been appointed magistrate for Regina under the new Juvenile Courts Act.

At the meeting of the Brockville Cheese Board to-day Secretary Wilson, supported by some of the leading members, made a plea for an increased price for cheese in Canada.

Action for damages arising from the explosion in the Curtis and Harvey (Canada) Limited powder plant at Dragon, Quebec, was entered by George Boyce, who claims $7,695 for the destruction of his house and furniture.

Samuel Shepard, one of the oldest and best known residents of St. Thomas and Elgin County, died, aged 82.

Assistant Commissioner McGibbon, of the R.N.W.M.P., received word that his son, Lieut. Hugh Maxwell McGibbon, had been killed in action.

Miss Maud Holson, a Parkhill school teacher, was drowned in Lake Huron, off Ipperwash Beach, when her boat capsized.

EVERY WOMEN'S RIGHT

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active, happy life, yet nine out of every ten suffer years of agony, usually from some form of bloodlessness. That is why one sees on every side pale thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs of headaches, weak backs, aching limbs and uncertain health. All weak, suffering women should win the right to be well by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body. Through the use of these pills thousands of women have found a prompt cure when suffering from anemia, indigestion, heart palpitation, rheumatism, general weakness, and those ailments from which women alone suffer. There is no part of this broad Dominion in which you will not find some former sufferer who has regained health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and this is the reason why these pills have been a favorite household remedy for more than a generation. If you are ailing and will give the pills a fair trial you will find renewed health and happiness in their use.

AUSTRIAN LOSSES

Washington, Sep. 4.—Austrian losses in the fighting on the road to Trieste are 125,000 men and 3,500 officers according to dispatches received yesterday at the Italian embassy.

General Borovic is reported to have been removed, being blamed for much of the failure of the Austrians and General Koevess named as his successor.

OPPOSE CONFERENCE
By Courier Leased Wire.
Blackpool, Eng., Sept. 4.—The Trades Union Congress to-day placed itself on record as opposed to participating in the international Socialist conference at Stockholm, abandoning the idea of sending British delegates. By a vote of 2,894,000 against 91,000 the congress adopted the recommendation of the parliamentary committee, which is to the effect that although an international conference is desirable in principle, it would be useless in practice until an agreement as to war aims is reached among the workers of the allied nations.

KIDNEY TROUBLE AND BACKACHE
Dr. Cassell's Tablets Strengthen the Kidneys and Restore Their Natural Activity
Kidney trouble means Kidney weakness. Dr. Cassell's Tablets strengthen the kidneys through the kidney nerves, and thus effect cures where ordinary means fail. The average kidney pill or mixture is designed to relieve symptoms which are really due to imperfect kidney action. Dr. Cassell's Tablets on the other hand, go to the root of the trouble, and by supplying vital power and strength enable the kidneys to act properly. A moment's thought will show which is the right method, and why Dr. Cassell's Tablets cure so thoroughly.
A free sample of Dr. Cassell's Tablets will be sent to you on receipt of 5 cents for mailing and packing. Address Harold F. Ritchie and Co., Limited, 10 McCaul street, Toronto.
Dr. Cassell's Tablets are the supreme remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney Troubles, Sleeplessness, Anaemia, Nervous ailments, and Nerve Paralysis, and for weakness in children. Speedily valuable for aching mouths and during the critical periods of life. Price 50 cents per tube, six tubes for the price of five, from Druggists and Storekeepers throughout Canada. Do not waste your money on imitations; get the genuine Dr. Cassell's Tablets.

WAR VETERANS' LABOR DAY CELEBRATION GREAT SUCCESS

Splendid Weather Favored Returned Soldiers' Field Day, To Furnish Club House—Splendid Program of Sports, Music and Fireworks

Seven thousand Brantfordites and many hundred of visitors from out of town witnessed the Labor Day celebration on Monday morning, afternoon and evening at Agricultural Park, by the Great War Veterans Association. The day's programme was admirably arranged so that there was some feature that would appeal to every class.

The grounds were thronged throughout the day and the booths operated by the various patriotic organizations of the city and by private individuals, enjoyed a splendid day.

The afternoon programme was given over to the sports, and there were entries open for father, mother, brother and sister, and for every item there was a sufficient number of contestants to ensure a lively contest for the valuable prizes that were offered.

As in the morning, the festivities in the afternoon were commenced with a parade, headed by the Dufferin Rifles and the Galt Killies Band, and consisting of the Dufferin Rifles, the 32nd Battery, the Boys' Brigade, Boy Scouts, G. W. V. A. and A. R. Club. The parade was preceded, and accompanied by a large number of spectators and by the time the parade had entered the grounds, the stands were fairly well filled.

All the sporting events were well contested and in the senior contests the wearers of khaki were prominent among the winners. Mrs. W. C. Livingston, president of the Women's Patriotic League presented the prizes to the successful contestants.

The bicycle and motor cycle races that concluded the programme for the afternoon attracted much interest and the crowd thronged the track when these two events were being run off. In the bicycle race, of two miles, Bruce led for three laps but was passed by both Walker and Bonny in the last round and finished third after a hard ride.

The five mile motor cycle race was a treat of speed. J. Fraser, on a Harley Davidson demonstrated his ability as a speed fiend by nearly lapping his opponent, F. Alford, who was riding an Excelsior. There was considerable difficulty in keeping the spectators back from the track in view of this, and the muddy conditions of the course, it was indeed lucky that no accidents resulted. The winner was presented with a handsome silver cup and his opponent received a pair of leggings.

The Harmony Quartette, of London, consisting of Messrs. B. Haggart, 1st tenor; C. J. King, 2nd tenor; P. King, baritone, and F. H. Dowling, basso, sang three pleasing selections, "O Canada," "Way Down Yonder in the Cornfield" and "Honey I want You Now." The last two were humorous numbers and took well with the crowd.

Harmon was also provided in the chase of the greasy pig. When liberated from his cage, piggy started right in training for the hundred yard dash, and soon a dozen men were in hot pursuit of the hundred pounds of forbidden meat. The much sought after and slippery porker was finally cornered, after many unsuccessful attempts, between this pursuer and the fence. He stopped to reconnoitre for a moment, when three or four of the big game hunters threw themselves on him simultaneously, and he collapsed. It was difficult for the judges to decide to what victor belonged the spoils, and after a rest in his private box the pig was again turned loose. This time it chose a different direction and galloped around the field. One pursuer, harder than the others, made a flying tackle, grasped the greasy prize lovingly around the neck and dropped gracefully like a jockey on its back. The race was over and the victor was the richer by 100 times the market price of a pound of pork.

Four little Scotch lassies danced very entertainingly to the skill of the bag-pipes and were heartily cheered for their efforts.

Prize List. The prize list in full follows:— 1.—Boys Race—A. Gould, Arthur Mallard and P. Beckett; sweater, running shoes and fountain pen. 2.—Sack Race—Elmer Davis, Harvey Rowe, and B. Casey; leather bag, cuff links and shirt. 3.—Relay Race—Team: Frank Usher, A. LIGHTNING DID SOME DAMAGE

Dufferin School Struck In Electrical Storm Sunday Morning

BARN WAS DESTROYED Large Quantity Of Grain Lost on Farm of Mr. R. Greenwood

The thunderstorm which visited the city and county early on Sunday morning did not last long, but it was full of business during the short stay. The hail was also heavy. The Dufferin School, at the corner of Spring and Chestnut Ave. was hit, and three holes made in the slate roof. Principal Rowe had temporary repairs made. The structure shows evidences of having received a severe jolt which cracked plaster and ceilings.

The barn of Mr. Robinson Greenwood, on the River Road, just beyond Judge Harty's place was hit and burned to the ground. Mr. Greenwood, with the help of neighbors, saved the animals and implements, but lost 27 loads of hay and all of this season's threshed grain just housed. He carried some insurance on the Brant Mutual.

Four cows and a calf were killed by a bolt on the farm of J. Kenny, Tranquility.

one of the best that has been witnessed in the Telephone City. The ascension of two toy balloons, the reproduction of His Majesty the King, and the Union Jack, and the exploding bombs were the features of the display.

GERMAN FASHIONS

Associated Press. Amsterdam, Sept. 5.—In response to the old demand throughout Germany for a new mode of women's clothing that shall be entirely women's and absolutely independent of Paris, the Munich Wieland has brought out, after long preparation, a special supplement, entirely "German Fashions," ception the criticism is adverse. The Berlin Tageblatt says: "The illustration containing a series of colored designs 'absolutely German in inspiration and elaboration.' The supplement has attracted wide attention in the German newspapers, but almost without exceptions might well be taken for caricatures. The body from the waist upwards appears far too short and humpy, the lower part is padded to appear as an enormity. Bulging pockets; hats too small or too large, falling over one ear; wide outstanding collars and other absurdities complete a figure which any rational man would spurn with loathing." The Tageszeitung and other papers declare that if this is a fair specimen

SCOTCH DOUBLES BOWLING TOURNAMENT SUCCESSFUL

Ideal Weather Again Favored Local Labor Day Tourney—Four Rinks in Running For First Trophy—The Day's Results

The Brant County Lawn Bowling Association has always been singularly and exceptionally fortunate in the matter of obtaining fine weather for their tournaments, and never was this illustrated to better effect than in the third annual Scotch doubles tourney, which got underway yesterday, under ideal weather conditions, and with an entry list of seventy-six rinks. Bowling commenced on all greens of the city at an early hour in the morning, and continued throughout the day, a busy scene of activity being presented at the Brantford Club, where F. S. Blain, the genial and affable secretary of the association, labored painstakingly and indefatigably the entire day and late into the night, engaged in the thankless task of tabulating the results and directing the bowlers to their next field of combat. Four rinks remain in the running in the Expositor Trophy, the semi-finals and finals of which will be played off this afternoon, while the El Fair Trophy is yet another's prize, nearly twenty rinks remaining in the running at the completion of the third round. The consolation tourney has passed its initial stage, and is as yet in its infancy. The detailed results:

DOMINION STEEL TEAM CITY LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Took Two Straight From Cordage in Deciding Series For Trophy—Both Games Were Hard Hitting Encounters Throughout—Armstrong's Work as Umpire Unsatisfactory

The Dominion Steels yesterday clinched their hold on the city league trophy, annexing the second game of the series in a decisive manner, and administering to the Cordage a 12 to 7 defeat. The game, though favored with ideal weather, was played on a very sloppy diamond, and was featured by heavy hitting and ragged fielding by both sides alike. McKelvey, returned like the prodigal to the fold of the Dominion Steel, was the hero of the game with the bat. Smoky Joe Allen aided in the winning his own game by a brace of timely two sack clouts, while Vanning and Johnson each connected safely three times. Allen twirled good ball for the majority of the game, fanning 11 men, but the game was a hard hitting, ding dong encounter, and might have been anybody's win until the eighth inning, when McKelvey sewed it up and took the heart out of the Cordage by lifting the pill over the fence with two men on base.

The Dominion took an early lead, netting four tallies in the first frame, adding another brace in the third and single runs in the fourth and fifth. The Cordage staged a battling rally in the fifth, and brought four runs across, adding another in the sixth, and two more in the ninth, when for a time they threatened to prolong the game into extra innings. In the absence of Cancellia and Wagner, Armstrong umpired to general dissatisfaction, both teams getting some poor decisions. The scores:

"But—after I've stolen—"
"Don't say it!" Savage cut in.
"You stole nothing, if you please, merely anticipated a reward for a service not yet rendered."

"But—Oh, it's kind of you, but don't you see it's impossible?"
"Nothing is impossible except your refusal," said Mrs. Standish. "Do be sensible, my dear, and realize that we—that I intend you shall have this chance. What can you possibly find to object to? The deed! Surely an innocent deception, practised upon a dear old lady for her own good!"

"Deceit," Mr. Savage pronounced very sagely, "is like any other sin, it's only sinful when it is. That's elementary sophistry, but I invented it, and I'm strong for it. Besides, we've got just twenty minutes now to get aboard the Owl—and I've got to beg, borrow, or buy transportation on it, because there wasn't room left for the two I bought for you and me—and now Adele will have to have one of the rooms—"

"But I've nothing to wear but these things!"
"Don't worry about that," Mrs. Standish reassured her. "I've got nine trunks on the way—and you unquestionably fill my things out like a woman with a perfect figure."

"But how will you explain? Who am I to be? You can't introduce me as a shop-girl out of work whom you caught stealing your clothes!"
"La nuit porte conseil," Mr. Savage announced sagely, and with what was no doubt an excellent accent. "Let Adele sleep on it, and if she doesn't come through in the morning with a good, old-fashioned, all wool, yard-wide flannel that will blanket every possible contingency, I don't know my little sister."

"An elder brother, let me tell you, Miss Manvers, is the best possible preceptor in preparation."
"Elder!" exclaimed the outraged young man. "Well, of all—! He turned appealingly to Sally. "What did I tell you?"

CHAPTER VI.

Miss Manvers favored Mr. Savage's belated application for additional sleeping-car accommodation; somebody turned back a reservation only ten minutes or so before train-time, in consequence of which Mrs. Standish and Miss Manvers enjoyed adjoining compartments of luxury, while Mr. Savage contented himself with less pretentious quarters farther aft.

Thus it was that at one minute past one o'clock, when a preternaturally self-respecting porter dispassionately ascertained that nothing more would be required of him till morning and shut himself out of her presence, the girl subsided upon the edge of a bed of such sylvan character as amply to warrant the designation de luxe, and, flushed and trembling with excitement (now that she dared once again to be her natural self) and with all incredulity appropriate to the circumstances, stared at the young woman who stared blankly back from a long mirror framed in the door.

It was truly a bit difficult to identify that modestly dressed and brightly animated young person with S. Manvers of the hardware notions in Hucker's Bargain Basement, while reason tottered and common sense flittered when invited to credit the chain of accidents responsible for the transformation.

Strange world of magic romance, this, into which she had stumbled over the threshold of a venial misdemeanor! Who now would dare contend that life was ever so grim, and cruel, and indigestible from soup to savory? Who would have the hardihood to uphold such contentment when made acquainted with the case of Sarah Manvers, yesterday's drudge, unlovely and unloved, to-day's child of fortune, chosen of a golden destiny.

Sally's jubilation was shadowed by a pensive moment; dare she assume that the winters of her discontent had been forever banished by the wave of chance's wand?

She shook a confounded head, smiled an uncertain smile, sighed a little, broken sigh, and with determination bade adieu to misgivings, turning a deaf ear to the dull growls of mother-wit arguing that the board of health ought to be advised about the state of Denmark. Suffice it unto the night its robes de luxe; she found her couch no less comfortable for the sword that conceivably swayed above it, suspended by a thread of casual favor.

For a time she rested serenely in the dark—only half undressed in view of the ever-possible accident—cheek to pillow, face turned to the window that endlessly screened the sweeping mysteries of that dark, glimmering countryside, quite resigned so to while away the night, turning a deaf ear to the dull growls of mother-wit arguing that the board of health ought to be advised about the state of Denmark. Suffice it unto the night its robes de luxe; she found her couch no less comfortable for the sword that conceivably swayed above it, suspended by a thread of casual favor.

And immediately opened them to broad daylight, revealing, through that magic casement, the outskirts of a considerable city, street after suburban street wheeling away like spokes from a restless hub.

A simultaneous pounding on the door warned her she had but ten minutes in which to dress; no time to grasp the substance of a dream spoken from a restless hub.

LADIES' WAIST.

By Anabel Worthington.

No woman ever feels that she has all the waists that she needs for all occasions, and so a charmingly simple, semi-tailored waist like No. 8370 is always a useful acquisition. The original of this was made of ricton taffeta and trimmed with ruffles of self-material and fancy buttons. Crepe de Chine, hemstitched and with ruffles of finely plaited and white possibility. The centre of attraction is the large cape-like collar and the revers, which are formed by rolling back the fronts of the waist. These revers may be attached to the collar or left free. One may choose either style of sleeves, as both the long ones with cuffs and the short ones are offered.

SIDE TALKS

By RUTH CAMERON

There are a great many ways a yet there are women who need it, who can help her husband.

Frugality and thrift are two of the most press-agented. And yet there are times when too much thrift, too much of the Martha spirith, that anxiousness over many things—are a let and hindrance.

"I think his wife is partly to blame," said the Authorman. "Hoy can you say that?" said the Authorman's wife, "why she works terribly hard and she is so economical."

A Wife Who Had to Have Money Might Have Helped

"She could work less hard and have a larger vision," said the Authorman. "I think it's her thrift and her habit of counting pennies that has helped hold him back. He fits her too small on the work he does. He doesn't ever dare take chances. He's somewhat that way and she makes him more so. If he had married a wife who was used to having money and thinking in big figures he might be forced to succeed."

The Authorman's wife looked entirely unconvinced. It is a dangerous philosophy to put up to women and yawning delicately.

UNVEILING OF HONOR ROLL

Took Place Sunday Evening At Shenstone Memorial Church

The Shenstone Memorial Church was crowded to its capacity on Sunday evening when a special service was held for the unveiling of the Honor Roll. Mr. George McKay, who has sent practically all his S. S. class to the front, unveiled the roll, which contains 27 names (church members and adherents). Two of those enrolled have paid the "supreme price" and another has been decorated with a Military Medal. The Pastor, Rev. J. H. Stinson, gave an excellent sermon from the text: "The Lord is a Man of War, Jehovah is His Name." The choir excelled themselves in two anthems "Faithful and True" and "In God is Our Trust."

"One Meatless Meal a Day" is a good food slogan for war time, or any time—better make it two meatless meals a day—it would mean health and strength for the nation. But be sure and get the right substitute for meat in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the ideal substitute for meat. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Two or three of these little loaves of baked whole wheat make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of only a few cents. Delicious with milk or cream or fruits of any kind.

Good Night Stories

SOLOMON AND BOSSY Solomon was an ugly white goat. He was tired of being beaten and half starved.

A boat's silly to be content tied in a vacant lot all day long, and I'm tired of eating refuse instead of real food. I'm going to find a real home. Surely there's some one who's kind in this world," Solomon confided to old Bossy, the brown cow.

"Well, if I wasn't so big and clumsy, I'd run away with you, but our master would be sure to find me then both of us would be whipped," sighed Bossy.

"I suppose so," sighed Solomon. "But when night came and Bossy saw Solomon disappear out of the barnyard gate she threw her head in the air and trotted after him down the road, through the meadows and past the village without even looking back."

Morning found the two wanderers a long, long way from their old home. They were very tired and hungry. Bossy ate the sweet green grass while Solomon lay down in the shade of a tree.

"When winter comes what shall we do?" said Bossy. "We'd best find some good, kind folks and live with them. I'd give them plenty of lovely sweet milk to pay for our board and you can perhaps help in some way."

"That's the trouble! What can a goat do to help, I'd like to know?" replied Solomon.

"Sh—," exclaimed Bossy, who saw something moving in the grasses behind them. "Maybe it's our master."

A little elfin jumped out of the grasses and came running towards the two friends.

"It's I, Happy Giggles," cried the elfin. "I heard your wish, and I know just the home for you," and Happy Giggles straddled Solomon's back and the three went across the meadows until they reached a broken-down hut.

"Mother Grundy and Johnny live here. They're very poor but good and kind," Happy explained.

Mother Grundy and Johnny came running down the path to greet Happy Giggles.

"See what I've brought you. A lovely cow that will give you plenty of good milk, so you can sell it to the folks who buy your eggs," Happy Giggles said. "And Solomon's willing to pay for his board, so Johnny can make a wagon from an old box and the goat will pull it filled with milk and eggs into the village for him."

Mother Grundy was so happy she cried with joy.

Paint acts as a wood preservative because it closes openings in the wood and prevents the entrance of decay producing organisms. A thoroughly well seasoned piece of wood will last indefinitely if well painted.

To get results from painting it is essential that good paint be used, that is, paint that is made from pure linseed oil and white lead, and scientifically mixed.

Moore's Paint

fulfills all these requirements; that's why it pays to use Moore's—it preserves.

ORCHARDS IN NOVA SCOTIA

GRANDMOTHERS of all orchards on this continent are those of Nova Scotia, between two great rolls of mountains that used to be lava when the world was young, and now play at windbreaking for the hundred-mile long Annapolis Valley with the bright blue Annapolis River flowing through the centre of it. The Acadian French planted the first trees back in 1605, from seeds brought from Normandie in little sailing vessels we'd be afraid to trust out of sight of the pier-head.

Who doesn't love apple-blossoms—miles of 'em, with a salt ocean breeze seeking out the sweetness, and a June sun flirting with every perfect tree at the same time? Who doesn't love a baked apple, too—a big, red, juicy, baked apple like a melting island in a sea of cream? The Nova Scotians assert that there are no apples to compare with theirs, because the salt air gives them a taste that no inland-grown fruit can boast of.

Apple growing is a good proposition in Nova Scotia, for the trees live from 60 to 100 years in the valley as compared with 20 to 60 years in more trying climates. Cranberries, raspberries, strawberries and all other small fruits do well, to say nothing of the Dibley cherries which make the most wonderful pies you ever tasted.

A motor trip through Nova Scotia is an ideal September holiday. The little towns nestle into their orchards like a violet under its leaves; the sparkling basin is an infinitely extended, sun-warmed bathing beach; all the farm-houses are painted white, and, as there are no factories, they stay that way, looking like stage scenery against the vivid green country. And finally, there is all the game and fishing you'd want in the rough country over South Mountain, where the hunting camps lure their September guests with a promise of moose.

FOR SALE—General store stock in town valued at $20,000 in progress of liquidation. 1 found in a home near where I stayed in Boston last Sunday, children of a Belgian physician, whose hands were cut off by the enemy, while the father was killed and the mother sold into slavery. One of two things must happen. Either the triumphant manhood of the allied nations must rise up and crush this, or the desperate Hun will repeat on Canadian soil what he has already done in other lands. The Pope has recently moved for peace, but his move evidently will have little accomplished by it. A Hun will look towards a permanent peace to read it over you would think that all involved in this struggle were equally to blame. We can not see it that way. The only good as far as I can see that will come from the Pope's proposal, is that it gives the allies another opportunity to lay down the 10 conditions upon which they are ready to make peace and it gives our enemies another affirmation of the fact that upon no other conditions can peace be considered. We are in this war because we could not honorably keep out of it. We are in this war as a protest against the barbarian and pagan principle that might makes right. We are in this war for our own self defence. The Hun is at our own gate and he is ready to make peace as well as in defence of the Empire and of our allied nations. Germany's doom is sealed because she has broken the moral law. Griefously sinned against God. "Be sure your sin will find you out," says the Good Book, and so it is with the individual, so it is with the nation. Time is fighting with us for victory and against the Central Powers. Wellington took out his watch at Waterloo and cried "Come Blucher or night." He was then fighting against time. The opposite of this is our situation today. We fight with time against our enemies. Every day our prospect of victory brightens, while their darkens. France has one million more men in battle line. Italy is pressing on to victory. The United States is swinging grandly into the line and will help to deliver the final knock-out blow to Prussianism, so that it will never come back again. Thus we have no just ground for being "downhearted." Deliverance may be delayed longer than we desire, but its advent is sure. Other enemies face us besides the Germans and these are the principle of sin within us, the flesh, the world, the devil and death. All were urged by the pastor to seek the sacrament of Holy Communion and to find salvation there. Mr. J. T. Schofield, the popular organizer of the church, contributed a number of patriotic selections during the prelude, during the offertory

EXPOSURE OF CANADIAN HOME WEST LAND REGULATIONS

The sole head of a family, or any male over 25 years of age, who was at the commencement of the present war, and has since continued to be an alien or subject of an allied or neutral country, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion Land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for District. Entry by proxy may be made on certain conditions. Entry—Six months residence upon and cultivation of land in each of three years. In certain districts a homesteader may secure an adjoining quarter-section as pre-emption. Price $100 per acre. Duties—reside six months in each of three years after settling homestead patent and cultivate 50 acres extra. May obtain patent on certain conditions. A settler after obtaining homestead patent, if he cannot secure a pre-emption, may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $500 per acre. Must reside six months in each of three years. Settlers 50 acres and erect a house worth $2000.00. Holders of entries may count time of employment as farm labourers in Canada during 1917, as residence duties under contract. Unsubstantiated publications of the Dominion Lands are advertised or posted for entry, returned soldiers who have served overseas and have been honourably discharged, receive one day priority in applying for entry at local agents' Office (but not Sub-Agency). Discharge papers must be in possession of agent. Deputy Minister of the Interior. N.B.—Unsubstantiated publications of this advertisement will not be said to.

CHURCH PARADE AT FIRST BAPTIST

War Veterans and Dufferin Rifles Attended Divine Services

INSPIRING ADDRESS

Returned Soldiers and Their Friends Right Royally Received

The members of the W. V. A. and their friends turned out in large numbers for a Sunday evening and with the usual congregation, filled the church to overflowing. Many were unable to obtain a seat and went away while others stood through the entire service. Captain Boddy, President of the Association, occupied a place by the pastor on the platform.

The hymns used for the service were selected by the committee in charge of the service and were all favorites of the men at the front. These were sung with great zest by the men in uniform as well as by the great congregation. Three delightful solos brightened the service by the four members of the Glee Club, Nichol and Mrs. Secord, all of which were appreciated and materially helped the service.

The pastor spoke on Luke 1:74-75, "That we being delivered from the hand of our enemies." He said in part as follows:

"I am glad to be back in my pulpit tonight for several weeks absence and while it is a pleasure to meet with and speak to other congregations, there are after all no pleasures like our own. I have preached to many different congregations, and I have yet failed to find one quite like our evening audience here for numbers for enthusiasm and for good fellowship. On this opening service of my 8th year as pastor here, I am pleased to welcome back to my pulpit, the members of the War Veterans Association and their friends. I feel that we are all helplessly in debt to you and your presence here tonight, makes this place doubly holy ground. Your wounds are honorable and will be a source of pride to you and to your friends as long as you live. I feel like taking off my hat to every one of you."

Touching reference was made at this point by the pastor to Harry Landwehr's visit to the grave of his son in Flanders, to the British veteran soldiers, and to the Canadian veterans, and to the American veterans. He continued: "There is a common desire for deliverance from the hand of our enemies. The Pope has recently moved for peace. When we think of our enemies and of their dark record, it is hard to restrain our overflow of righteous indignation. I found in a home near where I stayed in Boston last Sunday, children of a Belgian physician, whose hands were cut off by the enemy, while the father was killed and the mother sold into slavery. ANOTHER BOWLING TOURNAMENT

TO ALL PARTS OF PROVINCE

One Day Meet In City Open

Another one day bowling tournament is to be held in the city on Wednesday, September 12th, by the Bowlers of the city. Invitations have been extended to rinks in all parts of Ontario and to clubs in Buffalo, and a most successful tourney is expected.

Four games will be played during the day, two in the morning, commencing at nine o'clock and two in the afternoon. The four rinks who win the most games and who have the highest score will play off the finals at seven o'clock in the evening, and will be awarded the sixteen prizes that have been offered.

Refreshments will be served at the Elks Club, the Ladies' Auxiliary, in aid of the Red Cross, and the net proceeds will be turned over to this cause.

A committee consisting of I. Newcome, F. S. Blain, R. C. Burns, E. C. Tench, A. B. Burnley, G. D. Watt and H. Hagey are in charge of the undertaking.
