EARTH TREMBLED SATURDAY NIGHT

Western Country Had First Experience With Earthquakes—No Damage of Consequence.

Winnipeg, May 17.—That it was safe at least from earthquakes has been the fixed idea of the Canadian prairie West until Saturday evening last, when seismic disturbances were recorded over practically one thousand miles of territory, from the foot of Lake Winnipeg in the east, to the ranching country of Southern Alberta, lying under the shadow of the Rockies, and running from the heart of the state of Montana up north so far as telegraphic wires have been most severe along the main line of the Canadian Pacific between Brandon and Medicine Hat, but without recording instruments available the comparative severity is at best but guess work and a noteworthy feature is that the larger centres report the worst disturbance, apparently because these were more fully felt in high buildings. In Brandon temporary damage was done to the lighting plant, and the same occurred at Wolsley, where the well of the electric light works caved in just before the shock plunging the town in darkness. At Grenfell the shock was so severe that horses travelling on the road had difficulty in keeping their feet. At Saskatoon, at Regina, at Moose Jaw, Medicine Hat and many other points people rushed wildly out of their houses expecting worse to follow and it is reported in at least one case that they expected the end of the world had come. Curious too is the report from Regina that the building most shaken there was the best constructed, being of steel and reinforced concrete, while flimsier buildings with perhaps more give and take withstood the shock well.

Ranchmen in the neighbourhood of Medicine Hat thought the quake due to a fearful explosion of gun cotton stored there, while in several cases there was immediately reported to have immediately preceded the shocks, which generally lasted twenty seconds. These shocks on Saturday night and occurred at twenty-two scattered centres, though one at midnight. It is not too much to say that the event has "astounded" the west. Nothing else is talked about. Prof. Allen, of the University, encourages the belief that it has never happened before and may never again. Winnipeg, May 18.—Earthquake shocks varying in intensity were felt all through the Canadian prairie west about 10:20 central time. Saturday evening, in most districts rattling dishes, banging doors, and shaking windows while at several points people were driven in alarm out of doors. At Wolsley the wall of the electric light plant caved in just before the shock was felt, and the town was plunged in darkness. Other places which cracked plaster, and that appears to be the sum of the damage done. The shock was very light in this city but was distinctly felt at several points in Winnipeg and from there the disturbance was noted at scattered points for a thousand miles west across the prairie. The shock appeared to have been most severe in the heavy "gun-belt" country of Saskatchewan, along the main line of the Canadian Pacific, but they were felt as far north as Prince Albert. It is the first time in known history that earthquake shocks have visited the Red River or Saskatchewan valleys, and Professor Frank Allen, Ph. D., of Manitoba University said tonight that he might never remember the disturbance to a wave or echo of serious earthquakes in Southern America or the Central Pacific and holds that the vibration thus caused had followed the chord of a circle coming out in the Canadian prairie. He points out that the last earthquake in record was noticed at first in the observatory of Western Europe and it was some weeks before it became known that the disturbance actually took place in the barbarous region of Northern India and Persia. He thus thinks that presently information will come to hand of very considerable upheavals in the southern part of the continent or in the waters of the Pacific.

The Points Affected.

Regina, May 16.—The sole topic of conversation in the city today is the earthquake shock of last night. The shock occurred about 9:15 when the stores were crowded with Saturday night shoppers. Every building in the most modern fire-proof constructed office block appears to have been shaken. The shock was sufficiently severe to set pictures rattling and crockery rattling and court light pieces of furniture, while in not a few instances it is reported that walls were cracked. The strange feature of the quake was that it seems to have been unnoticed by people in the streets and out in the open.

Grenfell, Sask. May 16.—The people of this town and district for miles around were thrown into great excitement last night by two distinct shocks preceded by a rattling noise. Houses of all kinds were violently shaken, tables and chairs moved, dishes and lamps rattled and many people fled from their houses fearing worse would come.

At Present Rate—Total of Three Million Acres Will be Occupied by End of Season—Contract for Extension of C.P.R. Irrigation System

Winnipeg, May 18.—"One million acres of Alberta irrigated land will be sold this year by the Canadian Pacific railway," said T. Heaney, general manager of that department of the company's work last night. "Half a million acres were disposed of last year, but there has been an immense influx of Americans from the irrigated lands of the United States and by the end of the season we anticipate having three million acres of irrigated land occupied." Mr. Heaney declared that farmers who had enjoyed the experience of irrigated land appreciate the fact that it is more reliable than ordinary soil. The land in Alberta that was being irrigated had previous to irrigation produced forty and fifty bushels per acre. The aim was not to increase the yield but to insure a regular independent of droughts. Mr. Heaney said a contract had already been signed for the extension of the C.P.R. irrigation system to the extent of a million acres. He said the prospects had never been better. Mr. Heaney was in Montreal to the head office of the C. P. R. and returned to Calgary last night.

The position to be taken in the fight by Mrs. Wm. A. C. Ferris, wife of John Ferris and beneficiary under the Trust clause of her father's will, attacked by John D. Spreckels and Adolph Spreckels by demurrer, is still unknown, although the signs today seemed to point in the direction of the opponents, Rudolph Spreckels and Claus A. Spreckels. Mrs. Anna Spreckels, mother of the contending brothers, is in her position, like her daughter's, is problematic. The fight so far has been marked by statements from John D. Spreckels and absolute silence from Rudolph Spreckels and Claus A. Spreckels. Rudolph Spreckels sent word today, in answer to a request for a statement, that he had nothing to say. Claus A. Spreckels refused to discuss the situation. CONVICT BARRETT TO HANG JULY 14

Accused Took Stand in His Own Defence Monday Afternoon— Jury Out Only Few Minutes

At the Supreme Court Monday Garry R. Barrett, a life convict at the Alberta penitentiary, was arraigned before His Lordship Mr. Justice Harvey, charged with the murder of Richard H. Stedman, deputy warden, on April 15th, in the carpenter shop of the penitentiary. The case was tried before a jury of six men. E. B. Cogswell conducting the case for the crown and Wilfrid Garriety appearing for the defence.

The whole of the morning was occupied with hearing the evidence for the crown as to the way in which the deed was committed. Warden McCauley, Carpenter, Instructor Pope and four of the convicts who were present when the deputy warden was killed, gave evidence.

The four convicts from the penitentiary who gave evidence were closely guarded by penitentiary officials and police. They for the most part rather good looking fellows and just the sort of men who would rush to the assistance of the deputy rather than attempt to escape.

The jury empaneled to try the case was composed of Walter G. Ross (foreman), J. F. Findlay, E. Hoover, Stephen Eker, Frank Pollard and John Murchison.

Crown Prosecutor Cogswell outlined briefly the evidence in connection with the case leading up to the death of Deputy Warden Stedman. He stated that on the morning of April 15th in the carpenter shop at the penitentiary Convict Garry R. Barrett struck Deputy Warden Richard R. Stedman on the head with an ax, which caused the death of the deputy. The other convicts in the shop rushed to the assistance of the deputy but he had in a few minutes been killed.

Barrett dissatisfied. Before the trial commenced the accused gave an indication that he was not satisfied with his counsel. "You haven't any lawyer," he asked rising in the prisoner's dock. "You have counsel to represent you," replied Cogswell. "I have no counsel," replied Barrett. "He misrepresented himself to me. I've not got the witnesses I called for."

Mr. Garriety explained that the accused was evidently laboring under a misapprehension of the facts of the case coming down from the penitentiary this morning there were only the crown's witnesses. He proposed to ask for an order for the penitentiary guards and convicts required to give evidence for the defence to be allowed to be present when required. He stated that he intended to have six other convicts give evidence in defence.

Barrett again rose when his counsel had concluded and said, "Give me permission to speak, your honor." "No, I don't think I shall," replied Mr. Justice Harvey. "I'm ready for trial," said the accused.

Mr. Garriety then asked for a two-minute adjournment of the court until he could confer with the accused. The request was granted and everything was evidently satisfactorily explained to the accused as he allowed the trial to go forward without further interruption.

IN THE FEDERAL HOUSE

PARLIAMENT PROROGUED.

Ottawa, May 19.—Parliament was formally prorogued by His Excellency Earl Grey this afternoon.

Saturday Session.

Ottawa, Ont., May 17.—Rapid speed was made with the insurance bill this morning. Prior to taking it up, Mr. Fielding introduced a resolution declaring it expedient in the case of insurance on property in Canada, the company effecting it shall pay to the government a sum equal to fifteen per cent. of the total net cost of the insurance so effected.

Still Quaking.

Ottawa, Ont., May 17.—Dr. Klotz of the Dominion Observatory, states that the seismograph records an earthquake shock 2,600 kilometers distant from Ottawa at 18 minutes 22 seconds after eleven o'clock on Saturday night. It lasted half an hour. Another was recorded this morning, seven thousand kilometers distant from Ottawa at 3:47 o'clock, which lasted two hours.

Industrial Accidents.

Ottawa, May 17.—During April industrial accidents occurred to 250 persons in Canada, of which 164 were fatal and 186 serious. The railway service headed the list with thirteen killed and twenty injured.

Soldiers' War Recognition.

Ottawa, Ont., May 17.—A deputation representing members of the 3rd
Special Battalion, which Garrisoned Halifax during the South African war, waited on Sir Frederick Borden today, asking for recognition in the way for their services. The men joined the battalion with the intention of going to South Africa, but instead went to Halifax. Sir Fredrick Borden promised all he could in response to their request. He would lay the matter before the British office this summer with the object of securing medals for the members of the regiment.

Much Work in Sight.

Ottawa, May 17.—According to the May Labor Gazette, there was a marked increase in the general industrial activity throughout Canada during the past month, with the opening of navigation and the resumption of outside employment. Building was very active and the season promises to be exceptionally busy, the number of permits issued in most of the large centers being greatly in excess of the returns for April, 1908.

Wednesday's Session.

Ottawa, May 19.—It was three this morning when the House adjourned after a strenuous sitting. On the item of $50,000 for the expense of Canada's representatives to the Hague tribunal the minister of justice, Mr. Borden, announced that the Dominion government had retained the services of Sir Robert Enlay, and another lawyer of eminence would be associated with him. Mr. Borden said that it is not expected that that point will be raised.

Tombstone, Ariz., May 15.—The prosecu-

Marshall and Rivera trial today.
The letters were in elaborate detail for attacks on several Mexican towns near the border to gain a foothold for the United States. The letters were dated at the end of the year and were sent to the United States.
The original intention was to build the new road from Ochoa to Allix.
but as this necessitated the construcmiles of each other, the terminus was changed to Langdon.

C.N.R. CONTRACTS LET.

Steel Will be Laid by the Contractors as Soon as Possible.

Winnipeg, May 17.—Large contracts have been let by Mackenzie & Mann for the construction of extensions of the approach to the Canadian Northern Railway.
What the amount of work done this year will be it is difficult to determine, as the total to be undertaken has not yet been definitely fixed. It is believed, however, that there will be added to the system 500 miles of completed track, of which steel will be laid either this year or next. There is little probability that all this steel will be laid this season, but the steel-laying gangs will follow the grading cuts closely and a considerable amount of millage will be under way operation this far construction the following lines:

The contracts were let by the Mackenzie & Mann Construction Company to the Northern Construction Company and the Cowan Construction Company jointly, the division of the work to be agreed upon by the two companies by mutual consent.

Maple Creek, Sask., May 16.—A slight earthquake shock was felt here about 10:15 last night, which affected the whole town. Station Agent Tremouth, who was in bed at the time, stated that he felt the bed move and noticed the buildings shake. It was distinctly felt in the hotels. Dishes rattled and chairs were set swinging, particularly in the upper stories. Considerable consternation prevailed.

Langham, Sask., May 16.—The earthquake shock was felt here about 9:30 last night. It lasted only a few seconds but was felt with some force all over town, people rushing out into the streets to learn the cause.

Estevan, May 16.—The shock was felt by several here about 22:02 last night. Crookery rattled and some early sleepers started out of their slumbers.

Weyburn, Sask., May 16.—A slight shock was felt here, being noticed by everyone.

Lemberg, May 16.—Two distinct shocks were felt last night shaking buildings.

Theodore, Sask., May 16.—A slight but distinct shock was felt here about 10:15, rattling dishes and doors.

Qu'Appelle, Sask., May 16.—An earthquake shock occurred last night about 10:20. While no damage is reported the shock was sufficient to open doors, rattle dishes and in some cases crack plaster.

Indian Head, Sask., May 16.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt about 9:18 last night. The first shock was felt in the town but the second was sufficiently severe to move the contents of houses and stores and other buildings were perceptibly shaken.

Creelman, Sask., May 16.—The shock last night occurred at 9:30, lasting 30 seconds. In the night about some articles were thrown down.

Virden, Man., May 16.—Slight earthquake shock was felt here about 10:20.
The vibration was easily felt. It shook houses and lamps, but did not damage anything.

CONVICT BARRETT TO HANG JULY 14

of blood. We got a mattress and placed the deputy on it. The deputy said "Warden" and I said "Up here, deputy." He then said "Gertie," weakly and that was the last word he spoke. He died a few minutes later in the carpenter shop.

When I entered the carpenter shop convicts 44 and 101 were by the deputy warden.

"Had the prisoner ever made any complaints?" asked Mr. Cogswell. "Shortly after he was brought to the penitentiary in April 1917 he complained that he had not had a fair trial at Prince Albert and that he should not be there.

I never knew him to have any trouble with Deputy Stedman."

In cross-examination by Mr. Gariepy Warden McCauley explained the location of the carpenter shop. He stated that the convicts were awakened on April 15 by a bell ringing at 6.30. They had a breakfast and proceeded to their work. He was rather uncertain as to the exact movements in the penitentiary stating that the routine was left in the hands of the deputy and the guards.

About two weeks prior to April 15th there had been a break in the penitentiary. One of the guards had been hit in the head by a weight by one of the convicts. Orders were issued to search all the prisoners very carefully.

Barrett was a Mason. In cross-examination Warden McCauley stated that Deputy Warden Stedman had told him that Barrett had complained to him that the Masons had not used him right. The deputy had told him that any man who acted as he did, could not expect better treatment.

He had lived with a woman who was not his wife," explained the warden.

"Was the late deputy a Mason?" "He was." "Is the accused a Mason?" "He is."

The warden stated that when he entered the carpenter shop the accused was standing by the end of the work bench. He had nothing in his hand and looked as usual.

Asked as to his opinion of the accused the warden stated that he seemed to be a quiet, rather morose man, but there had never been a complaint against Barrett since he had been in the penitentiary.

In connection with sick convicts in the penitentiary, the witness stated that the keeper every morning took a list of those who were ill and wished to see a doctor. They were paraded before the doctor when he arrived or if very sick were left in their cell.

The warden stated that he had heard of no complaints having been made regarding the lack of medical attention for the late Mr. Harbottle.

"The chain lay in the front of me," said the witness, "and the warden bent slightly to look at it. I said 'I have been able to repair this chain Mr. Deputy.' He replied 'Oh, I won't hurt you Mr. Pope. I answered 'Well I'll take care you don't hurt anyone else.' I saw a bad gash in the deputy's head and said to the other convicts, 'Do what you can for him I'll get help.'"

The witness stated that he went to the warden and reported the occurrence and returned with him and Guard Schell to the carpenter shop. They came for anything in the way stated by Warden McCauley.

Cross examined by Mr. Gariepy the witness stated that Barrett was given the lightest work in the shop because he was an older man than the others. It was not because he was not well. On the morning of April 15th the witness stated that he noticed Convict Barrett was rather short of breath when he entered the shop.

"Did Barrett tell you that he couldn't light the fire that morning and that he was sick?" "No, I don't remember that he said that to me. I don't think that Barrett lit the fire that morning. One of the other convicts probably did. I don't remember very clearly."

"Well why is it that your answers are different now than they were on the preliminary?" "I haven't very good memory." "No I notice that you haven't."

Convict Neil's Evidence. Edward P. Neil, convict No. 44, stated that he was employed in the carpenter shop on April 15th. There were present Instructor Pope and convicts 135, 101, 104 and 103. He stated that the deputy entered the shop about 10.25 on the morning of April 15th. He went over to where Instructor Pope was sitting.

"I heard the dull thud of a blow," said the witness, "and turning around I saw the deputy leaning over a bench. I saw the accused standing near the deputy with an axe in his hand. I rushed to the assistance of the deputy and helped 103 to support him. The deputy asked for the warden several times and for Instructor Pope. He also asked for the time. I took out my watch and saw that it was 25 minutes past ten o'clock."

In cross-examination, the witness stated that he supposed the accused took the axe from the (witness) bench shortly before the deputy came in. He had been using the same axe himself half an hour before.

"What kind of a man was Barrett?" "Well, he seemed to be a pleasant man. He was rather quiet, grasping the accused up the stairway to the carpenter shop that morning. He seemed to be rather short of breath. Barrett had spoken on several occasions about being sick and had said he would have to see a doctor. The witness stated that on the morning of April 15th, 176 lit the fire in the carpenter shop. Barrett had lit the fire a couple of mornings but that day he was short of breath.

The witness stated that the accused said, after striking the blow, that if the deputy warden had used him right it would not have happened. Barrett moved over to the witness' bench after striking the blow. He laid the axe down on the bench.

Used Shit to Staunch Blood. Roseco Nye, convict No. 163, told of the occurrence in the carpenter shop on the morning of April 15th. He stated that the first thing that attracted his attention was the deputy reeling by Instructor Pope's bench. He ran to his assistance and grasped him as he fell. In catching him he put one hand on his head and felt a gash in his hair. He turned around and saw 135 standing by 44's bench. Pope came out and 135 said "Don't bother me, Mr. Pope. I won't hurt you."

"Deputy Warden Stedman asked for the warden and for Mr. Pope. I tried to stop the flow of blood with my hand, but it spurted out between my fingers. I then started to get the warden and met Guard Schell at the doorway. I then went back and tried to stop the flow of blood with my shirt, but I couldn't do it."

In cross-examination, the witness stated that Barrett did not seem to be vicious at all. He had noticed that Barrett was short of breath, but had not noticed anything else.

Niel McEneaney, convict No. 107, gave evidence as to the occurrence in the carpenter shop on the morning of April 15th. He saw the deputy fall forward and saw the accused strike the deputy with an axe in his hand. The convicts all rushed to his assistance. Convicts 103 and 44 held the head of the wounded deputy.

In cross-examination, the witness stated that he had had conversation with the accused previously. Barrett had stated that he didn't get a fair trial. He had noticed that the accused was rather short of breath.

Convict Samuel Whitehead was the last witness. He corroborated the evidence of the other witnesses as to the occurrence in the carpenter shop. The hearing of the evidence in the case was concluded at 5 o'clock, after which both counsel and the judge adjourned the jury at length. The six jurors then filed out of the court room and after five minutes' deliberation returned with a verdict.

"So, whether you examine 1 or 25 you get the same salary?" "I got the same salary for 1, 25 or 50 patients."

"When you examined Barrett what symptoms did you find?" "I found the symptoms for which I treated him."

"Now, Dr. Forin, you are a medical practitioner and the jurors are not. Tell the jury in plain language what were the symptoms?" "Well, in plain language," said the witness, turning to the jury, "I found a little cold and gave him a cough mixture."

May Die if You Wish. The examination, similar to the above, was conducted at considerable length, the witness asked for the defence working at cross-purposes. Dr. Forin stated that when he examined Barrett a week ago he found a little trouble with the heart, but nothing serious. Asked if it were necessary for convicts to make a complaint before receiving medical attention, Dr. Forin said:

"It is the privilege of any convict, the privilege of you, Mr. Gariepy, if you don't want medical attention, to be down and out."

This concluded the case for the crown. Evidence for Defence. The first six witnesses for the defence were convicts from the penitentiary. Number 75, Robert Loughran, said he never saw anything wrong with Barrett, and was quickly retired from the stand.

James McMillan, convict No. 150, who occupied the next cell to Barrett, stated that during the night he could hear Barrett's loud breathing and frequent coughing. He heard the deputy warden come into the cell in the night. Numbers 127, Henry McDonald, 103, George Brown, and 120 also gave unimportant evidence.

Thomas May, who has been chief watchman at the Alberta penitentiary for some time, stated that Barrett had told him on different occasions he was not well. He had given him hot drinks and poultices when he asked for them. This would be probably two weeks prior to April 15th. He reported these occurrences every morning to the deputy warden. He had also reported having seen Barrett at night sitting on his bed and resting his head on the table, apparently sleeping. Prisoners, he said, were expected to ask for anything they wanted.

Was Barrett Insane? Dr. Ferris stated that he had examined Barrett thoroughly. He found his arteries corroded and his heart abnormally large for a man of his age. To outward appearance he was calm and collected but could be made angry by getting him talking. Tetralosis of the heart or arteriosclerosis of the heart and arteries tend to precipitate disorders of the mind?" asked Mr. Gariepy.

"It would be a factor." "Taking the physical condition of Barrett into consideration, could you express any opinion as to the condition of his mind at that time?" "Should such a man hit another with an axe on the head, what would be the condition of the mind of the man doing so?"

"I would not be in a normal state." "What would you say as to the sanity or insanity of that man at that moment?" "Well, I couldn't say he was absolutely a sane person. I would say that his mental condition was not normal. Whether it would be a clear case of insanity I am not prepared to say. It might be a condition of frenzy."

"Would it be possible for such a man to be insane?" "Do you mean would he be cognizant of the nature of his act?" "Yes."

"If he were sane, would he be cognizant of the nature of his act. If he were sane, would he be cognizant of the nature of his act. If he were sane, would he be cognizant of the nature of his act."

In reply to questions of Mr. Cogswell, Dr. Ferris stated that had the accused been sane, he would have been cognizant of the nature of his act. He was not sane, he was insane.

Mr. Gariepy asked what was the probability as to his mental condition. "Well, I would say he wasn't in a normal condition."

"Did you find that he had been brooding?" "Well, I found that he invariably referred to his previous trial and said that he had been persecuted and not treated properly."

In reply to Mr. Cogswell the witness stated that he would not consider side men who committed crimes to have perfectly normal minds. Dr. Blais stated that he had examined the accused since April 15th and found the heart and arteries affected. He had complained of having colds and of insomnia. The accused had also made complaints about his last trial. He had said that he thought the Free Masons were after him. He expressed the opinion that brooding over this matter might cause a frenzy of the mind. This would tend to diminish his mental faculty.

"Is there a possibility of such a man losing the power to distinguish between right and wrong?" "Yes there is that possibility."

"Would sclerosis of the heart and arteries tend to create mental disorders?" "Yes there is that possibility."

Accused Takes the Stand. There was a hush of expectancy in the court room when the accused Garry R. Barrett took the stand. He gave evidence in his own behalf. He appeared perfectly composed and told the story of his life freely.

He stated that he came to the Alberta penitentiary in August 22nd, 1908. The first morning of his residence at the penitentiary he took Mr. Stedman that he was not treated well in his trial at Prince Albert. He thought the Masons were down on him. He had written to the secretary of his lodge, to his wife's father and to the American consul at Medicine Hat, asking them to help him, but had received no replies.

Barrett told the story of his previous trial at Prince Albert and blamed the counsel for deserting him. He said he shot his stepson accidentally and that he died of heart failure. His wife, he complained, was unfaithful to him.

Barrett is 57 years of age. He was born in Detroit, Michigan, on June 16, 1862. He lived in Michigan for a number of years, and married there. He left his wife because he thought her unfaithful. He went to Chicago and later to Utah, where he married a Mormon, whom he claimed was a loose character. After residing there a time he moved to Lehighville and later to Prince Albert, where he lived on a homestead.

Evidence was that he had been unjustly convicted at his trial in Prince Albert and that when he came to the penitentiary here, Deputy Warden Stedman had ill-used him because he was a disgrace to the Masonic order. He had called him names and showed him no consideration. On the morning of April 15th, the deputy came into the carpenter shop and sneered at Barrett. The accused had an axe in his hand which he was sharpening and he struck the deputy. He did not know where or how he struck him. He said he was very sick that morning and had to be helped up the stairs to the carpenter shop.

Mr. Gariepy addressed the jury for about forty-five minutes asking for an acquittal on the grounds of insanity. He was followed by a twenty-minute address and His Lordship then carefully instructed the jury in their case.

After being out for only five minutes the jury returned a verdict of "guilty" and Barrett was sentenced by Mr. Justice Harvey to be hanged on July 14th.

PROGRESS ESTIMATES OF ALBERTA CROPS

Brief Despatches Tell the Story of Seeding Operations and Crop Conditions up to Friday Last—Seeding Well Advanced.

Medicine Hat, Alta., May 14.—All wheat has been seeded in this district and the acreage is estimated at 2,500 or 30 per cent. increase over last year. The ground was nice and moist, so the seed bed and the seed went in about the same time as last year. No land intended for wheat had to be seeded down to anything else. In the majority of cases wheat is up about two inches. Fully 90 per cent. of oats, barley and flax are also in. No rain is needed at present. Winter wheat conditions are not favorable, almost half the crop being killed out by alternate thawing and freezing in the month of March.

Cochrane, Alta., May 14.—Ninety per cent. of all grains seeded, being an increase of 25 per cent. over last year. Little or no spring wheat grown, fall wheat in splendid condition, better than last year. Seed bed in good condition. Date of seeding later than last two years, but prospects better.

Lehrbridge, Alta., May 14.—Winter wheat not so promising in this district as a year ago. Some fields have been reseeded with spring wheat. Just what percentage is difficult to obtain at present. There was practically no growth till the last week or ten days, so it was difficult for farmers to tell how badly their fields were damaged. The present rain which began on the night of the 19th, will be very beneficial. Spring wheat seeding finished, except a few winter wheat fields which may still be reseeded. Spring wheat is up. Seeding has been perhaps a week later than last year.

Taber, Alta., May 14.—All wheat sown in this district approximately average 25,000, being three times greater than last year. All land intended for wheat has been sown with it. Seed bed in excellent condition. Spring wheat is up two inches; 75 per cent. of oats, barley and flax grown. Grain advanced about the same as in 1907. An abundance of rain. Winter wheat well rooted before winter and in good condition.

Medford, Alta., May 14.—Practically all the wheat is seeded. The amount seeded to wheat this year is 30 per cent. greater than last year. Seasonable, but fields selected for wheat were sown as intended. Ground in perfect condition when grain was sown. Great deal of wheat that was sown early nearly two inches up. No rain, oats or flax yet sown. Had more than enough moisture for wheat could have done with less. Seeding fully three weeks later than last year, but last year no growth for nearly a month after grain was sown, too much moisture and cold weather keeping everything back. Condition of winter wheat is poor in many places. Several farmers have tilled and sown spring wheat again. Doubt thought to be fall. Taken as a whole the winter wheat will be up to the standard this season, both in quality and yield. Snow and rain soaked the ground thoroughly.

Clareholm, Alta., May 14.—Percentage wheat seeded 15 to 20 per cent. more than last year. No land intended for wheat has been sown with oats or barley. Seed bed in very best condition when wheat was planted. Much wheat up two inches. About 30 to 40 per cent. of oats, barley and flax sown. Seeded earlier in 1907 and 1908, but matters as far forward this year. No rain needed. Winter wheat in fair condition.

Okla., Alta., May 14.—There is practically no spring wheat in this district. The total acreage is probably about 10,000 and about one-third of this is wheat. The acreage will be about one-quarter greater than last year. In some parts a little winter wheat is being re-sown again with barley. Some winter wheat was injured by the winter frosts. The winter wheat is beginning to show green, although there has been very little growth yet. About 75 per cent. of oats and barley are now sown. Seeding is about ten days earlier than in 1908 and 1907. Have had good rain this week.

Red Deer, Alta., May 14.—Spring wheat all sown. Acreage about 20 per cent. less than last year. About 10 per cent. of land intended for wheat sown with oats. Condition of land good. Considerable plowing done last season. Wheat not up, but germinating well; 75 per cent. of oats and barley sown. Seeding fifteen days later than last year, but 1907 and 1908 one week earlier than in 1907. Have had good rain this week.

Lacombe, Alta., May 14.—Little spring wheat is sown in this district and lateness of spring has had no appreciable effect on area sown; land works well and wheat has been seeded in good condition. The first sown spring wheat is now up. Winter wheat shows an increased acreage of 25 per cent. over 1908, and while improving rapidly there will possibly be a loss of 10 per cent. from winter killing. About 70 per cent. of the oats and barley are sown. Seeding is two weeks later than in 1908 and one week earlier than in 1907. Rain is not needed.

Wetaskiwin, Alta., May 14.—The wheat is all sown in this district. The acreage being probably one-third less than last year and owing to the lateness of the season the amount of land originally intended for wheat has been quite a surprise. The condition of the soil at time of seeding, however, was very good and while there is no wheat up yet, the general impression is that with a continuation of the weather now prevailing good results will follow. From 50 to 60 per cent. of the oats and barley are sown. The sowing is two weeks later than last year. Sufficient rain.

Mirror, Alta., May 14.—Twelve thousand acres of winter wheat sown in this district last fall, 10 per cent. killed out during the winter; wheat now four inches high. About 50 per cent. spring wheat seeded; acreage only half last year's; much land sown to oats instead of wheat. Seeding is one month behind last year. Only three weeks free from precipitation. Prospects good this season.

Raymond, Alta., May 14.—Nearly all wheat seeded, there being approximately 1,000 acres, 20 per cent. greater than last year. Practically no land sown to oats and barley. Seed bed generally good. Spring wheat coming strong. Fifty per cent. of oats and barley sown. Season two weeks later than usual owing to excessive rainfall.

Fort Saskatchewan, Alta., May 14.—About 80 per cent. of wheat is sown. Twenty-five per cent. less will be sown than last year, but will be made up by oats and barley. Land in excellent condition when the wheat was sown. The wheat is up in some places; 50 per cent. of oats sown. Date of seeding about same as 1907, three weeks later than 1908. Rain not needed. Acreage ten per cent. greater than last year.

UNIONISTS VERY WROTH

May Fight Budget Proposal All Summer.

Chicago, Ill., May 15.—Cabling from London, T. O'Connor says Lloyd George's budget still overshadows every other political issue and will continue to do so for months. The present prospect is that the parliamentary session must last until September and Lloyd-George himself speaks of being ready to fight on these lines until October.

The tariff reformers are anxious to destroy the budget not only because they disapprove of its taxes, but because they see in it the defeat of their own plans of raising a revenue by tariff. There is a certain difference in attitude. Balfour is a like warm and young Chamberlain is an ardent protectionist. Balfour while condemning the budget proposals is comparatively inactive, while young Chamberlain rages daily and the tariff newspapers still shout to the House of Lords to have courage to reject the bill. This last cry is discredited and even the Times, which has become a tariff organ under the proprietorship of Lord Northcliffe, dismisses this plan as stupid and impracticable. All the attacked interests, present and absent, proprietors, saloonkeepers, landowners and stock brokers, from a tremendous combination and shout in chorus of singular unanimity, but Lloyd-George still remains on the top, adroitly supplied and reserved, receiving deputations from all the classes, promising concessions wherever reasonable, and when necessary carrying the war into the enemy's camp by a brilliant attack. Bousing enthusiasm in all the radical circles by so heavily taxing the rich and unpopular classes, he rides on the whirlwind tranquilly. The leading question now in the Liberal ranks is how the prolonged filibustering of the Tories is to be beaten. Moderate Liberal organs like the Westminster Gazette still oppose the drastic closure on the budget as supplying the unionists with a bad precedent which they could imitate in passing a protective budget in their days of power. But it is almost certain that Lloyd George will be driven to some such expedient for the political reasons which rises every hour and the unionists have all made preparations to prolong the campaign. Either Lloyd-George must drop large slices of the budget or guillotine the debate. In the meantime all other legislation is driven into the background and the Tories are getting anxious about Birrell's land bill. Birrell remains characteristically optimistic amid all the perils and will spend next week examining the amendment proposed by the Tories—and is quite happy. The Irish party while mixing protestations of high whiskey upon the small Irish saloon keepers, have no notion of playing into the hands of those who mark it as the end of their union.

CREMATION AT CRANBROOK

Body of Hindu Disposed of After the Manner of His Country.

Cranbrook, B.C., May 17.—This morning a Hindu died in St. Eugene hospital of lung trouble. It seems that Sheel Sangh, the dead Hindu, was an employee of the Standard Lumber Company whose mill is situated about four miles north of Cranbrook. At twelve noon today the body was conveyed by W. B. Beatty undertaker, to the Standard Lumber Company's mill where a large pile of wood had been piled up. The body containing the body was placed on the pile and a match did the rest. Presently the body was seen dropping from the bones until all that was left was the bones of the hands, feet, ribs and head which were thrown into the Ganges. There were automobiles, rigs, and saddle horses around the pyre and many citizens witnessed the ceremony. The clothes of the dead man were also burned. This is the first time that the Government agent has been asked for and has granted a permit to cremate the body. Only four of the dead man's countenances were present.

Felt in Toronto

Toronto, May 17.—"It must have been quite a movement to send tremors here," said Director Stupart, of the observatory. "It likely was centered in Western Canada or the Western States, but our record here is so slight that there are no phases of movement to give us any indication of where the earthquake was. Western Canada is an extremely unlikely place for an earthquake, and therefore this one comes as quite a surprise."

LOVE FEASTS BETWEEN THE RULERS IN EUROPE

Emperor William and Emperor Francis Joseph Hold a Fraternal Meeting in Vienna—Saint-Germain to King Emmanuel of Italy.

Vienna, May 15.—At the state banquet last night, Emperor Francis Joseph, addressing the Emperor William, expressed profound satisfaction at being able to greet your Majesty, the steadfast promoter of all efforts for peace at the moment when danger after being exposed to many dangers during the past winter, seems again assured. With great and sincere gratitude I remember the brilliant manner in which our alliance recently has been tested, and the friendly attitude of the German Emperor, whose constant and loyal support so greatly facilitated the accomplishment of my sincere wish to smooth away all difficulties that had arisen without warlike complications. He concluded with a tribute to the unshakable loyalty of his allies, the Emperor of Germany and the King of Italy.

Emperor William, in reply, remarked upon his affection for the Emperor Francis Joseph, and upon the great contribution toward preserving the peace of the whole of Europe, adding: "As the Emperor and myself made our entry into your capital this morning, we were greeted with a roar of enthusiasm from the old Viennese hearts of gold, and mighty was the echo those cheers 'awoke in my heart."

"The memory of receptions that always have been accorded me in your Majesty's wide empire, both here and among chivalrous Magyars, is indelibly printed upon my heart. May under your Majesty's glorious sceptre, these feelings and the ties of friendship exist to the remotest future; may they always form an indissoluble tie between us and our empires, to the well-being of our peoples and as a guarantee of peace."

Buffalo, N.Y., May 18.—"New York is the place where insanity is manufactured," was the statement made by Dr. Albert Warren Ferris, of Brooklyn, a member of the State Commission in Lunacy, in a lecture on the general phases of insanity, before the men's club at St. Paul's Church.

To prove his statement, Dr. Ferris quoted statistics showing the relative proportion of insane persons in New York to the insane population in the State. He said that in the four state hospitals in Greater New York there are 11,000 patients, of which 4,000 are in the Manhattan State Hospital in Ward's Island.

Shabby Clothes Mean Shabby Work

Go into any of the big offices. Pick out a hundred men. Separate the shabby from the well dressed. And you'll find the unreliable men, the careless men, the men-at-the-bottom, are the shabby men.

Shabby clothes seem to breed a shabby mind, just as bad thoughts breed bad habits. It's the clothes we wear every day, that influence our lives, just as it is the things we do every day that make us what we are.

A frock coat and an hour in church on Sunday, won't equalize six days of shabbiness and dishonesty. Dress your body and you dress your mind.

PREPARING FOR BIG DAY

According to the present indications the sports to be held in Fort Saskatchewan on Monday, May 24th, promise to eclipse all former records.

This is the one day that Edmonton goes to the Barracks town and everybody in the city who can get away will spend the holiday out of doors at the Fort.

Frank Walker, M.P.P., came up from the Fort Tuesday to see the Edmonton baseball team perform and incidentally to complete arrangements for these sports.

He is very enthusiastic over the prospects and states that this year they will be bigger and better than ever.

All they need is fine weather and as the sports have not been marred by rain during the past fifteen years the chances are that fine weather will prevail next Monday.

In the athletic events the features will be the 20 mile and 10 mile road races. The former will be from Edmonton to Fort Saskatchewan.

Mr. Walker states that already a large number of entries for this race have been received including runners from the Fort, Edmonton, Strathcona, Calgary and other towns.

It is probable that Fred Fraser, J. F. Fitzgerald and other runners of note, will compete as well as some dark horses who will endeavor to spring a surprise.

Last year this race was won by Art Burn of Calgary, in 2 hours and 45 seconds. It is expected that the 20 miles will be done under 2 hours this year.

The 10 mile race from the Halfway house to the Barracks town is also very popular and the entry list will probably be large.

The course last year was between 9 and 10 miles and was won by J. F. Fitzgerald, in 55 minutes, or 12-1/2 seconds. The entries for the 10 and 20 mile races close tomorrow morning.

Good Horse Races. The horse races are being featured more this year than formerly and should be well worth seeing.

Six races have been arranged, the best 2 in 3 heats for each. The races are the freewill, trot or pace, 2:30 trot or pace, local trot, 1 1/2 mile run (open), 3/8 mile run (open), and 1/4 mile run for local horses.

The track is now in the best possible condition and good time should be made. Last year Bermuda Queen, owned by Taylor & Spinks of Edmonton, won the two for each heat time 2:33.

The half mile open run was won by Minnie D., owned by F. Hutchinson, Fort Saskatchewan.

Mr. Walker states that the entries for the horse races will be very large this year. Eight horses from West Edmonton will be entered among them being the horses from the Standard stables.

The 5/8 mile run in heat 1, five horses will be entered. The 2/30 trot will also have a large entry list among the horses from West Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan.

The sports committee has put up $10,000 for the various sports this year, $1,000 of it being for horse races alone. Entries for all but the 20 and 10 mile races are closed.

Entries for the 20 and 10 mile races will be closed at 12 o'clock noon on May 24th.

Other athletic sports arranged for 100 yard dash, 200 yard race, 1 mile flat race, putting the 16 lb. shot, and jumping over the bars.

In the putting the shot contests there are some first class entries, including two men who formerly put 100 lbs. in Scotland and one who held the championship of Queen's University. At 10 o'clock in the morning the best in the province will play a lacrosse match and at 5 p.m. the Edmonton St. George's team will play a football match with the Fort team.

Officials for the Sports. The officials for the sports on May 24th are as follows: Starter for 20 and 10 mile road races—Frank Walker, M.P.P., Fort Saskatchewan.

Judge of Athletic events—J. W. Ward and Chas. May, Edmonton, and G. H. McAvoy, Fort Saskatchewan.

Starter for lacrosse—H. Morris, J. Burns Buchanan, and C. Ross Palmer, Edmonton.

PRICE OF BREAD SOARS

Monday the price of bread in Edmonton took a jump upward. Commencing today householders will receive only fourteen loaves for $1, instead of sixteen loaves as formerly.

Two loaves may still be purchased for 15 cents as formerly. The decision to advance the price of bread was made by the Edmonton Bakers Association on Saturday evening.

The reason for the raise is the increase in the price of flour made recently. Edmonton is about the last city in the West to increase the price of bread this spring.

Ever since Patten made his famous corner in wheat, the price of flour in flour prices is about 14 cents per barrel. The Edmonton baker had a considerable supply of flour on hand which they had purchased at cheaper prices.

They were thus enabled to supply bread to Edmonton residents at the old price for a longer period than formerly. Now, however, they are compelled to purchase the dearer flour and as a consequence the price of bread has been increased.
