ber, R. Mathews, W. H. Mills, Jno Laidlaw. A motion was passed to amalgamate the Society with that of the Biding for the current year, and after the customary votes of thanks the meeting broke up.

BY TELEGRAPH. Despatches to the Evening Mercury.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE. London, Jan. 22.—The Russian government, in an official note, denies the report that Russia was sending troops to the southern frontier.

American Despatches. Havana, Jan. 22.—A Mexican fleet of two steamers, two brigs and two schooners arrived before Campeche on the 19th, and disembarked 2,000 troops under command of Gen. Alatorre and Col. Foster. They would immediately march upon Sisal to suppress the revolution and restore Gov. Cepeda.

New York, Jan. 23.—The Herald's Havana special says: We have further details from Mexico. The extraordinary powers which President Juarez had surrendered to Congress on his inauguration have again been authorized by Congress for a limited time, in view of the Yucatan insurrection. A secret session was held, in which the publication of a manifesto declaring the policy of the majority in Congress was approved. Congress has lately been stirring up the English Company holding concession to finish the railway between Mexico and Vera Cruz. An attempt had been made to kidnap Gen. Carvajal, but he escaped by killing the leaders of the kidnapers. On 30th ult. shocks of earthquake were felt in Mexico.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.—All the parties engaged in the prize fight on Sunday last, in which McClann was killed, have been arrested and sent to jail.

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—Late Idaho advices give news of a terrible snow storm about the 1st of January. The Indians are tired of warfare, and express their willingness to go on the Reservation.

New Dominion Art and New Dominion Comfort.

The Halifax Nova Scotian is most undoubtedly a cleverly written paper, but it is a stern and unrelenting enemy of Confederation. We do not know that it attributes the non-appearance of the fish in the bays of the Province last fall to the proclamation that was made on the 1st of July, 1866, but, like Rachel in Rahab, it refuses to be comforted, and will be satisfied with nothing short of the repeal of the Union. Nothing that the general Parliament did, during its last sitting, won a single approving word from the irate Nova Scotian, and some measures that were passed, particularly the bills in reference to customs and newspaper postage, exasperated it exceedingly. We wonder very much that journalists, whose writings would indicate that they are philologists, have not learned before now that it is their duty to accept the inevitable. After all, they are likely to be the gainers, this winter at least, by their connection with the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec. With whatever jealousy they may look upon Canadians, the latter look upon them as brothers, and now that the wants of nature are pressing them, have certainly not been slow to exhibit a fraternal spirit. In short, had Confederation not been accomplished (and the fish would have been equally coy if it had not) there would have been more desolate homes in Nova Scotia and much fuller church-yards than there is likely to be—these dread results being prevented by the liberality of Canadians. As a specimen of the virtuous style in which the journal referred to delights to indulge, we give the following, which appears under the heading given above.

Notman, photographer, of Montreal, (we advertise him for nothing—he should be grateful,) takes excellent pictures and we have no doubt, that which he is about to give to the world, of the meeting of Parliament at Ottawa will add to his reputation as well as to his purse. Dr. Tupper, and Lawyer McCully, and Caleb B. Bill, and all the nice men who last year legislated for Nova Scotia, will grin forth from the paper of Notman. For the pleasure of not beholding those speaking likenesses, those who are not invited to Senatorial domiciles, or who have not the good fortune to visit the stately halls at Ottawa, will have the pleasure of paying $4,000—that is, through the Government. We can possibly imagine a father expending four thousand pounds on a marble statue of himself while his children starved around him. He would it is true, be a monster, but, after all, he would own the money he spent. But if we had stretched whatever thoughts we had as far as possible, we could scarcely have conceived a paternal Government flinging $4,000 from the public chest to perpetuate the ugliness of its members, while industrious taxpayers were starving until John A. Macdonald and his friends showed us that such a thing might be. Let the people in Guysboro, Lunenburg and Halifax Counties think for a moment that while the benevolent are straining every nerve to keep starvation from fastening on the poor during the winter the careful, economical Government of Canada pays $4,000 to this Mr. Notman for making a Parliamentary rogue's gallery."

Congress and the Supreme Court.

The bill which lately passed Congress relative to the two thirds majority in the Supreme Court, still continues to excite much interest. The papers are warmly discussing the innovation, the Democratic organs condemning it as an infringement of the fundamental principles of the constitution, while the Radical newspapers consider it as exactly what ought to have been done, and what the exigencies of reconstruction demanded. We take the following from the Tribune: "Three of the Judges of the Supreme Court are relics of the old pro-slavery era, we can doubt the divinity of Slavery was to be excluded from office. They were appointed, like Taney, for their fidelity to the man-owning aristocracy of the South, and have survived in their places on the bench without change in their political sentiments, while the aristocracy which appointed them has been hurled from power, and shivered into a thousand fragments. But they still worship at the ruins of their ancient altars, and call those ruins 'the Constitution.'" They read the Constitution through the spectacles of Calhoun, and find its leading idea to be the sovereignty of the Southern States over the National Government, and of their ancient aristocracy over the Southern States.—Two more of the Judges are somewhat mixed in their political views, but their antecedents are with the pro-slavery element. Suppose the Chief-Justice and his two associates to vote one way, the three antediluvian Justices vote the other, and the other two divide. There is a tie. Suppose the question to be whether the legislation of Congress for the reconstruction of the Union and the deliverance of four millions of people from bondage be constitutional. A single judge, wavering one way or the other, may sustain the law or destroy it, restore the Union or introduce anarchy that shall involve years of strife and thousands of lives! We all know that the pretense law in the Judge's decision that there was in the act of Congress, which he overturned is sheer nonsense. It is political bias, and that only, which guides the decision. Why should the political bias of one man overrule the legislative voice of the nation? The vote of three-fourths or two-thirds of the Supreme Court should always have been required to any decision against the constitutionality of an act of Congress."

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

Toronto, January 22d. Petitions against the incorporation of the Licensed Victuallers' Association still continue to be presented in great numbers. Numerous other petitions were also presented to-day asking legislation on immovable subjects, all of which were referred. Sir Henry Smith moved for leave to introduce a Bill intituled "A Homestead Exemption Act." He said he had taken some pains in the preparation of this measure, and would briefly state its leading features, which he should endeavor, when it came up for a second reading, to show to be deserving of the approval of the house. In the first place, he proposed that a homestead of land should be exempted, in addition to the present exemption of personal property in this Province, to the extent of $750. In the second place, he proposed the exemption should continue during the lifetime of the party in whose favour it was created, and of his wife, and until his youngest child reached the age of 21 years. Thirdly, he proposed that the deed of conveyance should set forth the exemption. Fourthly, he provided that exemption should not extend to taxes, or debts contracted in the purchase of the property itself. Fifthly, he had provided that this Act should not defeat a remedy for any existing debt or liability. He had put in this clause, which was at variance with the American Homestead Act, because he believed the opinion of this house and of the country was against any ex post facto legislation. The sixth clause stated that no conveyance of an exempted property should be valid, except when the wife joined in it. The seventh provided that, when the debts exceeded $750, and an execution issued, the sheriff might call in appraisers, and if the party chose to pay to the judgment creditor the difference between $750 and the amount of the debt, the exemption would still continue. The eighth clause provided that, in the event of a sale, if the price of the property was largely in excess of $750, the surplus was paid to the person who held the estate, and the $750 remained untouched, so that the party might provide a new homestead. The 9th clause was in furtherance of the two preceding ones, prescribing the mode of sale. The 10th provided for the manner of appointment of appraisers. The 11th provided that the Insolvency Act should not affect the exemption created by this Bill to the extent of $750. Mr. Montsith inquired whether it is the intention of Government to re-establish the Municipalities Improvement Fund; and further if they intend to make good all arrears due Municipalities on said Fund since 1863, and which were retained by the Government of Canada? Hon. Mr. Wood replied that it is the opinion of the Government that it would be inadvisable at present to re-establish the Municipalities Improvement Fund. The Government had no means of making good arrears on the fund which were retained (if any were retained) by the late Government of Canada. Mr. Blake, seconded by Mr. McKellar, moved that the petition of Wm. Niles, and others, be referred to the selecting committee on privileges and elections. The motion was carried. Sir Henry Smith moved the second reading of the Bill No. 7, to amend chapter 6 of Consolidated Statutes of Canada, respecting elections of members of the legislature. After an animated debate, the Bill was read a second time, and referred to a special committee, consisting of the Hon. Attorney General, McDonald, Hon. Mr. Cameron, and Messrs. Blake, Pardee, R. Scott, Ferrier, Lauder, and the mover. Sir Henry Smith moved the second reading of the Bill to amend the law of evidence. After considerable discussion the debate was adjourned.

The Municipal and Assessment Bill.

The committee of the Legislature of Ontario appointed for the revision of the Municipal and Assessment Acts, met in their rooms, Parliamentary Buildings, on Tuesday, Mr. J. C. Ryker in the chair. This being the first sitting of the committee, it was determined that there should be no discussion, but that members should take up the Assessment Act first, and go over it clause by clause, and mark such clauses as needed revision or repeal. By to-day, members will have made up their minds to the amendments necessary, and be prepared to advocate them in committee this morning. In this way the committee's work—which is very heavy—will, it is expected, be got through in time to enable them to report early next week. Letters have, by the directions of the chairman, been forwarded to every municipality throughout the Province, calling for their suggestions in the Amendment of the Act. Replies will come in to these communications during the recess. The general opinion of the county will by that time be ascertained, and next session all that will be necessary to do will be to reorganize the committee now sitting, go over all the proposed amendments, and amend and consolidate both Acts. In the meantime, some of the more necessary alterations in both measures will be made. A dozen or fifteen of the clauses in each act will be charged; and the working of these amendments will be sufficiently tested, before the House meets again, to give an idea of their value. The clauses which members marked as requiring amendments were—The 4, 6, sub-section 3 of 9; sub-section 15, 19, 21 and 22, of clause 10; 10; sub-sections 2 and 4 of 21; 26, 29, 31, 32, 34, 35, 36, 37, 40, 41; sub-section 12, of 61; 64 and sub-sections; 66, 67, 68, 70, 72, 74, 81, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 90, 93, 95, 104, 109, and clauses 111 to 173, respecting county treasurers, local treasurers, clerks and assessors, and their duties; and 176. GUELPH BOARD OF TRADE.—Mr. Gow, on Tuesday, introduced a Bill to incorporate the Guelph Board of Trade.

THE DISTRESS IN NOVA SCOTIA

A meeting was held in Toronto on Wednesday evening, called by proclamation of the Mayor, to devise means for raising subscriptions to aid in alleviating the Nova Scotian fishermen, at present suffering from a want of the necessaries of life. An influential committee was appointed to canvass the various wards for subscriptions.

for Congress and the departments during the past year was $1,599,210.

A New York paper knows of a poor woman in that city who embroidered a child's garment by fourteen days' steady work, and received therefor $4. The material cost the merchant, who paid the price of work on it $7. The complete article cost him $11, and he sold it recently for $70.
