JUDGE GREGORY BADLY HURT.

Suffered Compound Fracture of His Ankle.
Will Be Laid Up Six Months—Chief Justice Tuck Will Preside Tomorrow.

(Special to the Star.)
FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 18.—Judge Gregory was the victim of an exceedingly painful accident last night. While crossing George street, directly opposite his residence, he fell on the slippery sidewalk and sustained a compound fracture of his ankle, the bones being broken in two places. The accident will preclude his attending to any of his judicial duties for at least six months.
Enquiry this morning elicited the fact that his honor suffered much during the night but is resting easier today. Judge Gregory was to have presided at a session of the supreme court here tomorrow to swear in barristers, but owing to the accident Chief Justice Tuck will preside, having wired his determination to be present this morning.

GERMANY AND U. S.
No Prospects of Better Commercial Relations—Tariff Walls Will Be Kept Against Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The Chemnitz correspondent of the North German Gazette has had an interview with Baron von Sternberg, German ambassador at Washington, regarding the German-American trade and tariff matters. Answering a question as to whether there is any prospect of moderating the alleged rigorous treatment of German goods by the United States customs authorities, the ambassador is represented as saying that the position of the American manufacturers and their financial backers is such that seldom can anything be accomplished by the mere lodgment of complaint and further that the manufacturers have powerful support in the United States senate. The ambassador, according to the interview, said he saw no indication of the adoption of specific instead of ad valorem duties, which the German exporters complain of.
"I came to Germany," said Baron von Sternberg, "precisely for a discussion of this question. I can assure you that President Roosevelt and his cabinet attach great importance to the friendly relations of the United States and Germany."

Asked whether a prospect exists for the making of a commercial treaty with the United States, the ambassador is represented as saying: "At present such a treaty is not to be thought of. The Americans are fully aware of the advantages of their position and industrial manufacturers would not willingly surrender them."

NEW CANAL TREATY.

U. S. Gov't. Takes Immediate Advantage of Panama Revolution to Rush Canal Project.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Press this morning, in a Washington despatch says: Confident of its final ratification by the necessary two-thirds of the senate, the administration yesterday began the formulation of a new canal treaty with the representatives of Panama. Secretary Hay and Minister Varilla, of Panama had a long conference after Mr. Hay left the cabinet meeting, where the canal situation had been considered thoroughly and it was learned that official negotiations were begun by them. The three commissioners from the new republic, who arrived in New York yesterday, will join in the negotiations.

THINKS HE SAW TRACKS OF LIVING MAMMOTH.
Dr. Frisell, Back From Alaska, Declares Marks in the Snow Were Hugs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 18.—Dr. J. P. Frisell, who has arrived here from the north, says in an interview: "I don't wish to make myself ridiculous to the scientific world by stating as a fact that at least one living specimen of the mammoth family is still roaming at large on the American side of the Arctic regions. However, I saw with my own eyes comparatively fresh tracks that apparently could not have been made by any other animal but a mammoth. I ran across the animal's tracks in the island of Unimak, which is 115 miles around and 25 miles in width. It is about four miles from the mainland and animals can walk back and forth from land."

Dr. Frisell is in the government's employ and has been in the Arctic regions for several years.
"The tracks could be distinctly seen in the ice and snow, and I followed them for quite a distance," the doctor added. "They sank four inches deep into the frozen ground and were four feet apart, showing that distance to be the stride of the animal. The size of the tracks was nineteen by twenty inches. In each track were the distinct impressions of eighteen toes. I ran across these animal tracks in the country between Mount Pomgromni and Mount Schescheid.
"Unimak fairly teems with animal life, and particularly with game. It is the hunter's paradise for caribou, bear and the red fox. The cinnamon variety of bear there is large, but an animal of that kind couldn't have made the tracks which I and the members of my party ran across. The tracks were that a large bucket turned down over so large and almost circular in form, one of them would just about have covered it."

FREAKS OF LIGHTNING.

It is responsible for the following:—In response to several earnest requests from parishioners, Rev. Dr. Goodman included in his morning service a petition for a cessation of the copious rains that have been deluging the land.
The next day's post brought him the following indignant protest:—
"Rev. and Dear Sir,—I was both surprised and pained yesterday to hear you pray that the rain might stop. There hasn't been a drop too much for my cucumber patch. If it stops now my crop will be a failure and I shall consider you partly responsible for it. When it comes to managing the weather I don't think you have any right to butt in. Yours truly,
R. R. Chucksley."

A stock of mineral waters was being delivered at the back entrance of a shop, when two urchins helped themselves to a couple of bottles, and after drinking the contents, walked around to the front and entered the shop with the empty bottles, for which they demanded a penny as returned empties.

Mr. Snoodles—Good afternoon. Miss Annex. Going for a walk? I hope I may accompany you?
Miss Annex—Yes. Dr. Sargeant says we must always walk with some object, and I suppose you will answer the purpose.

READY FOR WAR IN COLOMBIA.

$500,000 Subscribed for National Patriotic Fund.

New President Designated—Great Military Movements Proceeding Under Veil of Secrecy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—In a copyrighted Bogota cable, dated Nov. 17, the Herald says: General Rafael Reyes left Honda today for Barranquilla. He has been consulting with the government, the necessity of dividing his responsibility with the Colombian army and in solving the great local problem of the presidency by designating Nicolas Esquenazi, liberal, for the presidency, and Joaquin Fries, conservative, for the vice-presidency. The municipal council of Bogota has offered $500,000 to lead a national patriotic subscription. Great military movements are going on and the most supreme moments in Colombia's history are coming.

General Reyes, according to the foregoing cable, should be in Barranquilla. The French steamer due at Colon tomorrow is expected to bring important news from Barranquilla respecting the situation there. A strict censorship has been exercised over all messages from that port, and it is believed here that there is trouble of some sort which Colombia desires to keep secret.
Important events are also anticipated between Venezuela and Colombia. It is reported that President Castro may take advantage of the present situation to extend Venezuelan territory beyond the Orinoco.

ROUTED FROM HOME BY GHOSTLY NOISE.

Mysterious Rappings and Strange Movements of Furniture Alarm a Paterson Family.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Manifestations which can be explained by no ordinary means, and which many who have heard them ascribe to supernatural causes, have driven the family of William Bowman, of No. 21 Seely street, Paterson, into such distress that already the eldest son declines to sleep at home and the whole family are preparing to move.

The house stands on the lot next to the Sandy Hill graveyard, and those who believe in spirit demonstrations think the ghost of some one buried in the graveyard has come back to annoy the neighbors.

Strange noises, as of hammering, awakened the family one night not long ago. Mr. Bowman arose and was surprised to see a chair on the opposite side of the room begin to rock violently.
He at first thought it was a prank of the children, but they were asleep. Later on they, too, were awakened, and saw a travelling bag dancing back and forth in their room without visible means of propulsion. They fled in terror to their parents' room.
The noises and demonstrations are not repeated every night, but generally two or three days intervene, and then there is more of it.
Nobody but a child ever died in the house. The landlord is perplexed. The boy has gone and the family are going.

INVENTS RIFLE THAT SHOOT TEN MILES.

Bay State Man Said to Have Framed a Terrible Weapon of Death.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Nov. 17.—A rifle which he declares will shoot ten miles has been invented by G. E. Rounds, of this town.

The new weapon is short, has a tapered barrel which approaches half an inch in thickness at the rear end and is formed of nickel steel, which gives a maximum of strength.
The gun is of .406 bore and the cartridge looks like any other except that the shell is not choiced on the nose where the bullet fits it. Inside the shell is a charge of fifty-two grains of cordite. This, it is asserted has the explosive power of nearly a pound of common black rifle powder, and it will drive a bullet out with a muzzle velocity of 2,204 feet per second. At one hundred yards the striking velocity is represented by 3,235 foot pounds.

From tests made it is calculated that the gun fired its projectile at eight feet. At shorter ranges its muzzle velocity gives it a very flat trajectory, amounting at ordinary ranges to almost point blank shooting.
In the matter of penetration the cordite cartridge leaves others out of sight. A high power 30-30 sporting cartridge at one hundred yards will penetrate thirty inches of pine and the government high velocity cartridge will drive its projectile ten inches deeper, but this new one at the same range will bore through one hundred inches of pine wood.

CHAMBERLAIN CONFIDENT.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Joseph Chamberlain, the former colonial secretary, held a reception at the colonial office today to bid farewell to the agents general of the colonies. Lord Strathcona, the high commissioner for Canada, was spokesman of the latter. Replying to the address of Lord Strathcona, Mr. Chamberlain said he had now almost the assured conviction that he had been able to convince his fellow countrymen that it was to their advantage to adopt his fiscal policy.

FIGHTING IN SAN DOMINGO.

SAN DOMINGO, Republic of Santo Domingo, Tuesday, Nov. 17.—Severe fighting took place last night around this city. The rebels were prevented from entering the capital. The loss of the rebels is not known. The U. S. cruiser Baltimore landed marines to protect American interests. Guards were placed at the American legation and consulate and the Ciego assembly agency. An attack is expected at any moment.

TROUBLE IN CHICAGO.

More Riots Feared When Company Increases Cars Running Under Police Protection.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 18.—The Chicago City Railway Company has effected plans for opening up three more of its lines before the close of the week. The general plan of proceeding drawn up by the police and the management provides for the starting of the Indiana avenue electric cars today, the Halstead street car tomorrow, and the State street cable trains on Friday.
Little or no trouble is looked for on Indiana avenue, but the management of the company dreads the effect of sending out cars in Halstead and State streets.

GERMANY WILL RAISE COTTON

African Colonies Well Suited—Germans Will Study the Industry in the States

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The German colonial secretary contemplates the sending of a number of young men to Texas as agricultural and technical schools to study the methods of growing and marketing cotton. The young men will spend a year on a cotton plantation and so acquire practical experience which they will later employ in the German colonies. The students will sign a contract to spend a number of years in the service of the German colonial society for the purpose of introducing the growing of cotton after the American system. The enterprise is the outgrowth of a suggestion by the German consul at Galveston, who undertakes to make the arrangements for the preparation of the students.
The society has just sent a Texan named Becker to Dar-es-Salaam in German East Africa to find new locations adapted to cotton growing. He will be the first American expert to arrive there.

The latest reports from German East Africa indicate that interest in cotton growing is spreading and that many new communities are engaging in the industry.
The colonial society points to recent speculation in the American market as a reason for seeking to, if possible, make Germany independent of the American supply.

SMALLPOX IN BANGOR.

(Bangor Correspondent.)

To a Commercial reporter Monday, Dr. Woodcock said that no new cases of smallpox have been reported. The last case to which the attention of the health board was called was last Monday, making a solid week in which no new case has occurred. Four houses were disinfected and the quarantine raised Sunday and four more on Monday.
The reports of the number of cases in this city have been greatly exaggerated, rumor having it that there were one hundred times more cases here than actually existed. The disease has been confined almost wholly to persons too careless or indifferent to be vaccinated, not a single person, recently vaccinated, having been ill with the disease.

Much has been said concerning the necessity of vaccination as a safeguard against smallpox and to the fact that the advice has been so generally followed is due the good progress which has been made in stamping out the disease. In most of the stores, factories and large business houses, proprietors have made it compulsory for employees to be vaccinated and there is no more danger in Bangor today for any vaccinated person, than any other city or town in New England.

DRAUGHT AT THE GRAND UNION.

How Some of the Quarantined Guests Satisfied Their Thirst.

A rather good story comes from the Grand Union hotel which goes to show how even the most attentive and well meaning guards may at times be fooled. When the hotel was first placed in quarantine some of those who were compelled to become unwilling inmates, having little else to do, spent a considerable portion of their time in the bar. The results were quite natural, and conditions became such that it was considered desirable by those in charge to put an end to the sale of liquor by locking the bar and taking away the keys.

This was done and for a brief period comparative silence reigned. But some one of those whose brains were sharpened by that awful dryness, thought of an idea. A whole sale liquor house was called by telephone and an order given for a mixed case of liquor. The dealer was also requested to use an ordinary box for packing and not to have any markings indicating the nature of the contents. In due time a box of soap was delivered to the guard, who, thinking there could be no harm in such a common article of household use, admitted it. Very soon afterwards the holder of the keys was wondering.

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 12, 1903.

CONTENT IN IRELAND.

It was a bad move for the Irish nationalists when the government adopted a policy which removed most of the ground of complaint upon which their party existed. Being an Irish party, of course they could not support the government. Neither could they oppose it when it was doing precisely what the nationalists wanted done. A sorry state they were in with nobody to fight with. The party was threatened with extinction. Supporters were falling away daily. Faith! where was the fun of following a pack of apoplexies so spiritless that they could not pick a row with somebody for the silly reason that there was nothing to row about.

But the Donnybrook instinct awoke in the nationalist leaders just in time to save the party. Now they are cheerfully scrapping among themselves with great vehemence. Wm. O'Brien has resigned; John Redmond jumps on him good and hard for doing so and Tim Healy wades in and nails Redmond a staggering crack with the accusation that he is using the hated Sassenach's Land Purchase Act to cheat his own people in the price of some land he is selling them? It's like old times once more. The Irish scrapping yell and the click of the trusty abelash again prove that Erin's sons are as they used to be and the people are contented.

BARNACLES.

Admitting that the Ontario government needed reformation, the Toronto Globe, that government's chief supporter, finds the fault in the fact that too many barnacles are fastened to the ship of the administration and calls for their removal.

"Barnacles" are by no means a modern pest. Since the first cave man pounded his way with his stone club to the first leadership, there have been these parasites, who by flattery and sycophancy of all kinds have sought favor from the man or men who held the power. No government can escape from their persistence, but, aside from the annoyance, no government need be seriously affected as long as the barnacles are only on the hull of the ship and not on the bridge.

The machine system of politics, the pride of the liberals, is to blame for the great increase in the power of the barnacles. In connection with the managing of a party, especially during a campaign, there is a lot of work, which formerly was done by prominent men of the party, freely and for the sake of the cause the party represented. Now, however, the work is done by a "machine" composed of paid officials who care nothing for what they are working so long as the work is profitable to them. To such an organization the grafters naturally turn. As the work they perform is frequently not of a nature to bear publicity, many of them in the course of time grow to have the nominal leaders of the party in their power by the force of the information which they possess and which they do not scruple to use to their best advantage. So, gradually, the decent element is crowded out. Those who remain, claiming that title, dare not protest against the rule of the grafters lest they forever lose the name.

That is the condition in Ontario. To a lesser, but a growing extent, it obtains here and in every other province where the liberal machine organization has control. Barnacles are bad enough below the water line, but no effective mode of permanent deliverance from them has yet been devised. When they get up over the rail, in the pilot house and on the bridge, it is time that the ship was broken up.

Mr. Blair was recently travelling in one of the government's private cars. Yesterday he had a conference with Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Looks as if there might be something doing before long.

With the early prospect of a general election to make the government solicitous for the welfare of the various constituencies, the time is ripe for St. John to press its claims regarding that immediately necessary dredging for the new wharves.

MR. BLAIR AND ST. JOHN.

The St. John Gazette says: "So far as Mr. Blair is concerned, we have reason to believe that if he should desire the nomination of the liberal party in this city he could secure it without the slightest effort on his part, and should he be nominated there is no doubt that he would be elected by an overwhelming majority." The Sun has reason to believe that this opinion is not shared by Senator Ellis and the valued Globe. But there is a good deal in what the Gazette says in regard to the strength of Mr. Blair with the St. John liberals.

They would be rejoiced to see him a candidate and to have an opportunity to show their sympathy with him in his opposition to what he properly describes as the criminal folly, and reckless waste of the Grand Trunk Pacific contract. If Mr. Blair could be elected by an overwhelming majority, which seems improbable, it would not be because he is a liberal, but because of his powerful, though too brief resistance to that disastrous measure.—Sun.

It is understood that the York county supporters of the provincial government will strongly demand recognition of that constituency and of the western part of the province in the reconstruction of the government in case Mr. Dunn retires. They point out that York contains the provincial capital, and in that sense is the metropolitan county; that on two consecutive occasions the constituency has elected four members supporting the government, and has not been honored during that time even with a forecast member, or a speakership. No other county has fared so ill, though none has done so much for the government. That is the ministerial view in York.—Sun.

THE KING'S FRIEND.

(W. H. Woods, in the Independent.)
King Solomon was old—
The crown of his kingdom weighed on him,
The sins of his children preyed on him,
And the new queen's fancies played on him.
When Solomon was old—
Grown old and sick and sad.

But on a day it fell
That the sick king roused him suddenly
And said to his servants, "Put on me
My crown and my royal robes, and see
That all my heralds tell
The king holds court today."

Then feet ran to and fro,
And in the palace was wild dismay;
But none sought the royal word galaxy—
They put on him all his rich array,
And, wondering, watched him go
Up to his ivory throne.

He sat him down, and straight
The old light dawned in the old eyes dim,
The old glow shined in the old face grim,
And strength and beauty a while to him
Returned. He spoke then,
"Bring to me my best friend."

"Let the king's wife be done!"
They said, but with starts and stares he Said,
"Till a courier whispered, 'Tell the queen!
Mayhap she knoweth what this may mean.'
Smiling, the queen said, 'Run,
Bring my lord word I come.'"

She came with maidens fair,
Whose beauty to hers was left to rose,
Or lashes to eyes on which they close,
Or drifting them to the sunset snows
But the king, smiling there,
Waved the bright hand aside.

They brought his children then,
And many a bearded princeling tall
And wide-eyed wondering damsels small
Came thronging into the royal hall,
Only to pass again—
Their sire would none of them.

Some here then they sought;
They hunted for wise men through the town,
For poets, counselors, up and down,
And only to meet the king's slow frown
Till at last, distraught,
They stood with folded hands.

And Solomon arose
And stood on the last stair, eager-eyed,
"Give place, for the king's friend comes!" he cried:
All turned; on the great hall's further side
Unthought, the gates unrolled
And, with a shivering step,
A shadowy figure came.

(Some after swore no figure was there—
Some spoke of the moonlit eyes, his hair—
And some dreamed long of his kindly air—)
And a thin wisp of flame
Flashed from the king to him.

So on the marble cold
Nath the ivory throne—the story saith—
The weary monarch resigned his breath
To his last and longed-for friend, King
Death—
For Solomon was old—
Grown old and sick and sad.

PACIFIC'S GROSS EARNINGS.

Road's Performance Shows Consistent and Steady Increase For a Period of Years.

The performance of the Canadian Pacific Railway during the first four months of its fiscal year in so far as its gross traffic is concerned, affords scant foundation for apprehension of any trade contraction in Canada. Compared with the same period in 1902, the gross receipts this year of $15,485,590 show an increase of over 13 per cent. Over the same period in 1901, the increase is 28 per cent, while compared with three years ago, the gross traffic for the four months shows an expansion of 56 per cent. This year so far, the average monthly gross traffic receipts were $4,121,375, against $3,644,922 in 1902, $3,201,757 in 1901, and $5,636,868 in 1900. These figures certainly indicate a consistent and steady increase in the average volume of the road's business.

LIFE AS SHE SEES IT.

The most reckless spendthrift in the world is the one who squanders time. When a married woman sallies forth to look after her rights her husband stays at home reviewing his wrongs. A man calls a crock, and a woman calls a "drab"—but he knows a stylish gown when he sees it. Encouraging the growth of high interests in children is one of the best of preventing those which are unworthy.

Every act we do is full of the power of reproduction; we are tracked and hunted by our own deeds, and after we have lost them from view and from memory they reappear and claim as a right the mastery over our fate.

The chief was cross that morning and was venting his wrath on the pretty young lady who manipulated the typewriter.

"Everything is in confusion on my desk," he said testily, "it always is."

"You insist that you don't want anything disturbed there," she responded meekly.

"Well, I don't want my papers disturbed, but I don't want this sheet of postage stamps left there."

"Where shall I put them?" she inquired demurely as she took them up.

"Don't ask me so many questions," he snapped. "Put them anywhere out of my sight."

"Very well, sir," she cooed as softly as a dove.

OTTAWA MATTERS.

OTTAWA, Nov. 17.—The position of D. O. C. of No. 8 district, now vacant, is likely to fall to Col. Drury of St. John, N. B., assistant inspector of field artillery.

The Free Press (government organ) announces that the election will take place within the next six weeks. It says frankly this is the first move to clean out the Augean stable.

The comptroller of mounted police has received a report stating that a police party which established a post at Fort MacPherson had reached the mouth of Mackenzie River, and had been successful in establishing a second post in the district, the location being on Herschell Island, which is a great resort of American whalers. Seven whaling vessels were there when the police arrived.

Mr. Blair had an interview with the prime minister today, and the opinion gained ground that Blair will be chairman of the railway commission in a few days.

Prontaine is to take a trip over different island routes next week on the steamer Minto.

Grindley, agent at Liverpool, says too many varieties of Canadian apples are being sent over from Ontario.

It is reported that Bernier of the inland revenue will exchange positions with Beausoleil, the postmaster of Montreal. The latter would run against Tarte in Berthier. Tarte, however, will win that constituency, as well as St. Marys division, where he will also run.

It is said Judge Choquette, formerly M. P., will resign to take a seat in the senate. Choquette is Laurier's pet.

ST. PETER'S FAIR.

St. Peter's fair was well attended last night, notwithstanding the rain. The building was crowded from the time that supper began to be served until the closing hour, 9 o'clock. Beautifully decorated and well lighted, the hall seemed to be all the more attractive because of the contrast it formed to the conditions outside. The fair so far has been a grand success. It will be continued tonight and tomorrow night.

SPORTING NEWS.

THE RING.

Connelly Matched.
Charles Little of Albany, N. Y., and Ed. Connelly of St. John, N. B., fought at Schenectady, N. Y., on Dec. 4, twenty rounds. Queensbury rules, at 145 pounds. The fight took place at a considerable distance in the country. Connelly's friends in this city have not received any definite word from him for some time, but previous to his departure from St. John a couple of months ago he hoped to get on several paying matches before the holiday season.

Jimmy Briggs Was Given the Decision.
BOSTON, Nov. 17.—Jimmy Briggs was given the decision over Kid Broad of Cleveland after 15 rounds before the O'Brien A. C. tonight.

SYDNEY NEWS.

SYDNEY, C. B., Nov. 17.—The Dominion Iron and Steel Co. of Sydney gave notice today of a general reduction in wages and salaries of all its employees. The notices posted to that effect read as follows:

"Nov. 17.—Beginning with December 1st, 1903, all wages and salaries of the employees of the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. will be reduced from ten to thirty-three and one-third per cent. Common laborers will be paid $1.50 per diem."

The bulletin issued to the machinists notifies them of a reduction of 15 per cent., and furnace men of 20 per cent. The reduction will effect every man on the plant from officials down to common laborers.

John Moffat, grand secretary of the Provincial Workmen's Association, of which organization the large majority of the employees of the works are connected, informed the Star correspondent tonight that the association will not submit very kindly to this cut in their wages. The matter will at once be discussed before a joint meeting of the lodges directly concerned and then referred to the grand council, whose decision will be final. It is pretty well understood that the association will call out its men on December 1st, but no official statement to that effect can be elicited from any of the officials.

The notice of this reduction caused considerable disquietude among the men today, but the management aver it was the only course for them to pursue in view of a falling market and their inability to compete in Canadian territory with the United States Steel Trust, and which made reduction in their expenses absolutely necessary.

RECEPTION TO REV. MR. ROACH.

A reception was held in Main Street Baptist Church last evening to welcome Rev. H. H. Roach, who recently entered upon the duties of pastor of the church. W. H. White presided. The attendance was good, and the event a grand success in every way.

In the first part of the evening the people assembled in the main part of the church. Rev. I. B. Colwell offered prayer. After that a short musical programme was rendered, consisting of a duet by Frederick E. Sinclair and Mrs. Simpson; solo, Miss Jennie Trueman; two hymns by the full choir.

After the musical programme A. W. Gay, the church clerk, read an address, extending a hearty welcome to Rev. Mr. Roach and Mrs. Roach, and hoping that the future relations between pastor and people would be pleasant and successful.

Rev. Mr. Roach replied, thanking the congregation of the church for the cordial welcome extended to himself and Mrs. Roach. He trusted that God's blessing would be upon his labors in the church.

At the close of the proceedings in the main body of the church, Rev. David Long offered prayer.

The reception committee then met at the vestry door and introduced them to Mr. and Mrs. Roach. This committee consisted of Mrs. W. H. White, Jas. R. Andrews and the ushers, W. G. Estabrook, G. B. Cowan (Jr.), Fred P. Elkin, Chas. Cowan, Robert Dugham and Ralph Estabrook.

Refreshments were served by the ladies in the vestry, where all took off their wraps and enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

NAVIGATION CLOSED.

QUEBEC, Nov. 17.—Navigation was officially closed today, though the river St. Lawrence is as navigable as any day during summer. The ocean passenger service has, however, closed, and the department of marine and fisheries has given orders to remove all buoys in the channel.

United States immigration commissioners left today for St. John for winter duty. Inmates of the immigration detention house, twelve in number, will be removed to St. John in a special car. During the season of navigation 720 immigrants passed through the detention house. They were held on account of being infected with contagious disease, curable and incurable, and likely to become a public charge. Of these about 400 have been cured or bonds put up for their future care, and been released and forwarded to their destinations. The remainder were deported.

HIGH TEA AND SALLS.

The preparations for the Cathedral high tea, to be held in York Theatre rooms for four nights next week, commencing Monday, Nov. 23, are actively going on. The rooms are being got in readiness for the event, and it promises to be a very fine affair. Numerous attractions besides the tea will be offered, and a feature of the affair will be a voting contest for a handsome hat tree, for the most popular barber in the city.

The City Cornet Band will be in attendance, and other musical programmes will be arranged.

Bicyclists and all athletes depend on BENTLEY'S LINIMENT to keep their joints limber and muscles in trim.

QUEBEC, Nov. 17.—Matters in the Quebec shos difficulty remain as before. None of the machinists have yet signed the agreement, and they declare they will not do so. Both sides appear determined to fight it out to the end.

The elevators at Sand Point were cleaned up yesterday, preparatory to receiving grain for the season's business. There is enough on hand to stock the big building, and enough in sight to keep it stocked.

WINTER PORT MATTERS.

The Donaldson liner Alcides left Glasgow for St. John on Saturday.

Str. Manchester Corporation sailed from Manchester for St. John via Halifax on the 15th.

There is to be a conference at Montreal today between Reford & Co., the Donaldson line representatives, and the C. P. R. as to which berth the Donaldsons shall use at St. John this season. Word has reached St. John to the effect that the C. P. R. are willing to accept the inward cargo coming in the Concordia of the Donaldson line now due, and to supply her with outward goods at either No. 2, 3 or 4 berth. It is likely the Concordia will dock at No. 3 berth to discharge.

Str. Lake Champlain left Liverpool for St. John Monday, and the Lake Michigan yesterday.

Str. Montague sailed from Barry for this port on the 14th.

MISSED THEIR TRAIN.

James Doherty and wife of Green Head had all plans laid to join their friends, Thomas Durand and wife, and leave by yesterday's Montreal express for California, there to take up their residence. All went well till the very last. By special arrangement the Pleasant Point ferry steamer made a special trip to Green Head, or Kingsville, and landed the western-bound passengers safe at Indiantown. Street cars carried them to the depot, where numerous friends were in waiting to say good-bye. These same good-byes were their undoing, as the time rapidly sped by till the bell clanged, then there came the rush to have trunks checked, and a second and grand rush for the train, only to be too late, as the express was then under way.

CAPE BRETON SUIT.

HALIFAX, Nov. 17.—Three witnesses were examined today in the suit brought by J. H. Means against H. M. Whitney, who claims $45,450 damages for breach of contract. The witnesses were C. S. Cameron, J. H. Means and H. M. Whitney. The points raised were whether there was any contract or any consideration for contract, or whether it was merely a gratuitous offer from Mr. Whitney to Mr. Means. Assuming that there was a contract for the delivery of 550 shares of Dominion Iron and Steel stock, the question in dispute was whether Means had ever performed the contract, that is, performed it at all, or within a reasonable time.

ELECTIONS AT HAND.

MONTREAL, Nov. 17.—Hon. Raymond Prefontaine, minister of marine and fisheries, addressing the De Lormier Club this evening, stated that the cabinet was now considering the question of holding the general election. Voters' lists were being prepared, but it had not yet been decided whether or not another session of the present house would be held. He cautioned the club to be prepared for the elections, whether they came in six weeks or six months. As for the tariff, the government had not yet decided whether to revise Fielding's tariff or not.

Among those present will be the officers of other Catholic societies. The association's physical culture class under Sergt. McCarthy is progressing rapidly, and good results are looked for.

FREDERICTON BIGAMY.

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—Matthew P. Ryan was arrested at Lowell today for alleged bigamy. He is charged with marrying Margaret McKee at Fredericton, N. B., in 1897, and Bridget McMahon here in 1900. The second marriage occurred while his first wife was visiting New Brunswick.

The copy of the will of the late W. W. Turnbull of St. John, has been filed in the Middlesex probate court. A hearing will take place Dec. 15, on the property in Middlesex Co.

Edward Yull, aged 23, of Colchester Co., N. S., was killed by an electric car here yesterday.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 17.—Margaret McKee lived in this city for several years, as a domestic at the Queen hotel. While there she contracted a secret marriage with an unknown person and continued to live under her maiden name. Nothing is known of her early history. She left here in 1901 and all trace has since been lost.

Matthew Ryan is known here. He went to Boston ten years ago. He lived on King street with his mother and sister. He is not known to have been connected with the girl McKee in any way.

When lying down at night I was almost afraid to go to sleep for fear I would never wake up. When I arose in the morning I would feel a little better, but as soon as I started to work my heart would start fluttering, my head would become dizzy, faint weak spells would come over me and it seemed as if black objects were floating before my eyes. I was growing worse every day until I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. When the box was half gone I could feel that they had done me good and by the time it was finished I was in excellent health and would advise all sufferers from heart and nerve troubles to try them."

LIQUOR LAW VIOLATED.

Proprietor of Alexandra Cafe Denies Charge of Keeping Liquor For Sale Illegally.

The charge against William E. Gordon, proprietor of the Alexandra Cafe, for keeping liquor in a building was not prima facie evidence that it was kept for sale. The not specified more liquor than could be considered as reasonable for consumption by the proprietor of the place and his family. It was not shown that more than this had been found. He asked, on this and other grounds, that the charge be dismissed.

Mr. Morrison contended that a case had not been made out. He argued that the fact of having liquor in a building was not prima facie evidence that it was kept for sale. The not specified more liquor than could be considered as reasonable for consumption by the proprietor of the place and his family. It was not shown that more than this had been found. He asked, on this and other grounds, that the charge be dismissed.

BIG GAME IN NEW BRUNSWICK.

Many Moose and Deer Killed This Season.

Exact Number Not Known—Supply of Moose Meat and Venison Here Has Been Large.

Under the present game regulations of New Brunswick, hunters are not required to report to any of the warden the results of their shooting. In this way it is impossible even for those most closely identified with game preservation to form any sensible idea of the number of animals killed during the season in this province, and all estimates of such are nothing more than guess work. Returns from different districts, learned by hearsay only, may be put together and some rough computation made, but this may in any case be wide of the mark. In Maine the regulations are different, and every person who shoots an animal is compelled to report the same to the commission. In this way check is kept on the numbers of moose and deer slaughtered each season and the preservation of this species of game is better regulated.

In New Brunswick moose and deer are found in practically all parts, but the law of the close season is seldom violated, and what shooting is done is crowded into the five or six weeks during which shoot, g is permitted. From the morning of September 15th and at the opening of each season some person or other has a moose tied up in his back yard all ready to be shot, for seldom does the first day of the open season pass without one or two of these animals being sent to market.

In St. John the sportsmen do not seem to be very enthusiastic for the great majority of moose and deer arriving in this city are killed by outside parties and sent here for sale or distribution among friends. Thus of all those sold up to the present in the country market it is said that only three moose were shot by St. John people. So far as can be learned, three or four at the most, were given away in the city to friends of the hunters.

In the country market there have been brought twenty-five moose up to date this season. The first arrived on the morning of September 15th and was followed by three more on the 19th. The others have been scattered through the intervening weeks in such a way that there has been moose meat on sale for nearly all the time, but not much more than was necessary to supply the demand.

On two occasions carcasses were refused admission to the market as the meat was on a fair way towards decomposition. In this manner, three carcasses were destroyed, leaving twenty-two actually sold.

In a moose the fore quarters are of but little value, not that the meat is worthless or thin, but that the popular idea tends to cut out the meat from the hind quarters, and these find ready sale. The prices asked are kept quite high, eighteen cents retail being paid for steak and for other cuts as low as thirteen and four cents.

One man who brought a moose in about three weeks ago wanted twenty-five dollars for the head. Dollar by dollar he came down until he stuck at twelve and would not take a cent less. Although ten dollars was offered, as he was going out of town, the head was put away in a corner, and some few days later word was received from the owner that he was willing to accept the ten. The weather at that time was reasonably warm and when the head was dragged forth it had a rather peculiar appearance and as the smell was a little off, it was thrown out.

Two other persons forgot to remove the entrails, and the animal head started decomposition, which resulted in the loss of the carcasses.

With these exceptions the moose meat brought to the country market has been in good condition, and while no exceptionally large carcasses have been seen this year the weights have all been fair, running about 550 lbs.

In a number of cases the heads have been removed and sent in by themselves to be dressed, but as a rule they are still attached to the bodies and the purchasers of the carcasses are requested to have them kept or sent to be dressed. This latter proceeding costs from $15 to $20.

Of deer, there are fully twice as many carcasses received as of moose, and strangely enough venison is quite cheap, ranging from 7c. to 10c. per lb. An average buck deer can be bought for three or four dollars, and although the heads are often quite pretty but comparatively few of them are mounted. Most of the animals of this variety received are buck deer, although some are not uncommon. They, as well as the moose, seem to come chiefly from two districts, that lying between Norton and Grand Lake, and from Lepreau. One deer recently sold was shot on Partridge Island and sold ones are sent in from other places quite near the city.

STOLE A RIDE.

St. John Boy Sick in Montreal Tries to Get Home and is Arrested.

When the Montreal Express arrived at noon today Deputy Jenkin and Detective Killen took charge of a young man who had been sent to St. John as a prisoner. He was Edward McGahy, and was arrested at Montreal by Detective Duggan of the C. P. R., on the charge of stealing a ride from Montreal. McGahy is twenty-six years of age and in appearance bears out the story he tells.

He says that he is a St. John boy and formerly lived with his parents in the North End. He left this city thirteen years ago and has not been here since. He believes that his father is still here, but says his mother is dead. During the past three months McGahy has been quite ill in Montreal and had not a cent. Being anxious to get among friends he tried every way to get to St. John, but after failing in other ways, attempted to steal a ride. He got on the train leaving Montreal last night and was arrested. He is still quite weak and looks as though his sickness had been a severe one. McGahy was taken to the central station upon request of the C. P. R. officials here.

A FLATTERING TRIBUTE.

A musical critic and authority, writing to the Toronto Mail and Express concerning the appearance of Harold Jarvis in the production of the "Messiah" in that city recently, says:

Sir:—As to Mr. Jarvis, one of the soloists in the recent Messiah concert, I trust you will grant me a few lines of your valuable space to congratulate him on his splendid success in this great oratorio concert.

I have heard Messiah in the Crystal Palace, London, and in New York and other large cities, and have never heard the tenor solo sung in a more pleasing manner or more faithful to the composer's ideals, and I feel sure the great majority of those who heard him will agree with me.

His "tenor robust" sounded full and fresh, and he was second to none in correctness of intonation and distinctness of enunciation and dramatic feeling, especially in the recitatives. He displayed also a rather rare quality in tenors, namely, full, manly, lower notes. Some other tenors have such notes, but do not seem to care to display them in public, probably through fear of their being considered untimely. This is a pity, as it sometimes mars the artistic effect.

Mr. Jarvis need, however, have no such fear, as no one but a real tenor could have sung the Messiah tenor with its sustained notes up to it as he did.

Harold Jarvis and Owen A. Smiley, impersonator and elocutionist, appear at the Opera House here December 4th and 5th.

BANK OF NEW BRUNSWICK'S NEW NOTES.

The Bank of New Brunswick has just issued a new ten dollar note, which is now being put in circulation. The new note resembles the old one in most respects, but in the lower right hand corner the vignette of James Manchester, president of the bank, appears, replacing that of the Hon. J. D. Lewis, the late president. The back of the note is of a slightly different shade from the old one.

This issue is the first of a new series. Other denominations will be put in circulation as required. The notes are printed by the American Lithographing Company, of Ottawa.

WILL TAKE NO CHANCES.

Several members of the board of health had a consultation on the smallpox question today. Dr. Morris reports that all the vaccinations performed have been successful. The Grand Union has been in quarantine for ten days, but it is probable that nothing further will be done towards releasing the inmates until Sunday next, which will complete the fourteen days' term. While it is felt that perhaps the quarantine might now be raised without fear of any bad results, no chances will be taken.

NEW WRESTLING CHAMPION.

Because he broke his hold twice, D. R. Reid, the first man to throw Duncan C. Ross, forfeited his claim to the champion wrestler of the maritime provinces to Alex. J. McMillan, of Baddeck, now a resident of St. John. Reid, of this town. Five hundred people saw the bout and about $1,000 changed hands on the result.—Sydney Post.

PICKED UP $131.75.

Money Was Returned to Leger and Reward Refused.

David L. Carmichael, of George street, was made happy this morning by the return of a pocketbook which he lost yesterday on Charlotte street. Mr. Carmichael had been paying some bills and had quite a sum of money with him. He dropped the book and was kicked about the pavement for sometime without anyone paying any particular attention to it, until finally a German, named Hermann Nerlich, picked it up. Nerlich had been traveling to return such things to the police, and at once took the purse to Chief Clark, who found that it contained $131.75. Mr. Carmichael proved his right to the property today and left five dollars for Nerlich, who, however, declined to accept it for his own use, but gave it to the chief to be given in turn by him to some charitable institution. The chief will probably give the money to the Police Relief Association.

H. A. POWELL FOR ST. JOHN.

It is understood that H. A. Powell, K. C., ex-M. P., who is now practising at Sackville, will shortly move to St. John and permanently locate here. Mr. Powell is considered one of the leading barristers of the province, an energetic worker for his party, and his removal to St. John will prove an important addition to both legal and political circles.

HEVENOR-RIVERS.

In Trinity church this afternoon, R. Frederick Hevenor, of 19 Spring street, will be united in marriage to Miss Nellie Rivers, daughter of William Rivers, of Pleasant Point. The ceremony, which is to be a very quiet one, will be performed by Canon Richardson at five o'clock in the presence of only the immediate friends of the parties. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hevenor leave on the six o'clock train on a visit to Boston.

Miss Rivers has for the past few years been a popular member of the telephone office operating staff, and was presented by her associates with a beautiful silver service.
