RANEY SAYS ATTITUDE OF GOVT. ON HYDRO RADIALS QUESTION APPROVED BY CONSTITUENTS

Attorney-General Declares That Personnel of Investigating Commission Is About Completed — M. M. McBride, Member for Brantford, Says He Has No Reason To Retract Any Statement Made Regarding Raney.

Toronto, July 13.—That Hon. W. E. Raney has received word from some of his constituents to appear before them and explain his attitude on the hydro-radial policy of the United Farmers' Government is all a myth, was the statement of the attorney-general this morning, who read from letters from some of his constituents indorsing his stand and that of the premier.

"So you see I'm not afraid of the recall," commented Mr. Raney.

Mr. Raney said that the personnel of the hydro-radial commission has practically been decided on by the Government, but that no announcement will be made until everything is certain.

"We are not going to announce the names piecemeal," said Mr. Raney, "although the mind of the Government is more or less made up. There has been no trouble in getting commissioners and there will be no unnecessary delay in making the announcement."

McBRIDE'S ATTITUDE.

Toronto, July 13.—"If Mr. Raney feels that the cap fits, let him wear it," said Mayor M. M. McBride, M.P. of Brantford, today, in explaining his "wicked partnership." Mr. McBride said he has not yet received the attorney-general's letter asking him for further information on the subject. "When I do I will most certainly reply promptly. He is not dealing with Andrew Hicks," said he.

"What I said," explained Mr. McBride, "was that perhaps a perusal of Mr. Raney's speech at Mount Forest on Thursday last will reveal to the people of the province the wicked partner in the Drury cabinet.

"In my opinion, Mr. Raney went considerably out of his way to knock hydro radials. So far as I am aware no improper motives were imputed to the attorney-general. If, however, he feels that the cap fits him, he can wear it," added Mr. McBride.

BRITISH LABOR CONGRESS VOTES AGAINST ANY DIRECT ACTION TO FORCE GOVT.'S HAND IN IRELAND

Proposal Is Defeated by Big Majority of Delegates, Who Represented 5,000,000 Workers—Resolution of Modified Character Adopted at Conference.

London, July 13.—The proposal to employ direct action if necessary to force the government to withdraw its troops from Ireland and cease manufacturing munitions for use in Ireland and Russia, was defeated today in the special trades union congress called to consider labor's attitude on the Irish question.

Eight hundred delegates were present, representing 5,000,000 workers.

The resolution in favor of direct action, which was proposed by the leader of the locomotive men, was defeated by a majority of 716,000 votes.

The congress later adopted a resolution introduced by the miners' federation, demanding the withdrawal of all the British troops from Ireland, and the cessation of the manufacture of munitions to be used in Ireland and Russia. This resolution recommended a general strike if the government refused the demands, but the question of direct action will be left to a ballot of the members of the various unions. Thus the rank and file will have a chance to express their opinion.

FESEN'S CONDITION IS STILL CRITICAL

Oliver Ferns Has Been Released On $1,000 Bail.

The authorities at Victoria Hospital reported this afternoon that little hope is held out for the recovery of San Fesen 51 Briscoe street, Rumanian, who was struck by an auto driven along Wharncliffe road by Oliver Ferns of Glanworth during the rainstorm on Sunday evening. Fesen has been unconscious ever since the accident, and his condition today was reported as unchanged.

Ferns, who is a young farmer, was driving his own Ford car, and following the crash was arrested on a charge of driving with neglect by Constable Louis McCaughey, who states that accused carried his victim on the radiator of the auto about 75 feet before he fell off, and that the car drove almost one block past this point before stopping. Fens attributed this fact to nervousness due to the crash.

He will appear before Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon on Wednesday in the local police court to answer the above charge. Meanwhile he is out on bail of $1,000 in two sureties of $500 each, provided by Joseph Johnston and Oman Rogers, both of Glanworth.

G. M. BAILLIE IS COMING TO LONDON

Appointed Assistant District Superintendent of C. P. R. Local Division.

G. M. Baillie, formerly stationed with the C. P. R. in New Brunswick, has been appointed assistant district superintendent in the London division of the C. P. R., according to an announcement made today. Mr. Baillie will be assistant to Superintendent R. McKillop of the local division. His headquarters will be located in Windsor.

The office is a new institution on the C. P. R. in the London division. The traffic on the road has been increasing so rapidly during the recent months that it has become too heavy for one man to superintend. The road has been exceptionally busy at the border points.

GRASSHOPPERS INVADE TRAVERSE CITY, MICH.

Traverse City, July 13.—Grasshoppers, which have been devastating farm crops in this district, invaded Traverse City today. Thousands of the insects swarmed through the streets. Damage to crops has been estimated as high as $1,000,000.

WM. FERGUSON KILLED.

Edmonton, July 12.—William Ferguson, a well-known businessman of this city, was instantly killed on Saturday evening, when his automobile overturned on a road a few miles from Leduc. He was a native of Collingwood, Ont., and was in business in Kenora, Ont., before coming to Edmonton ten years ago.

RAIN IS NEEDED IN WESTERN PROVINCES

Slight Damage Done by Grasshoppers and Other Pests.

Winnipeg, July 13.—The fourth crop report of the Free Press reveals a rather mixed condition in all three provinces, with the general tone of the reports for the whole west not quite so satisfactory as last report, while in some large areas, notably Southern Alberta, conditions are much improved. The one serious drawback has been lack of rain at many places. There is still very considerable surface moisture, but there has not been sufficient rain to keep this moisture linked up to the roots of the crop. Out of 234 points heard from, 115 want more rain.

The threatened grasshopper destruction, thanks to the good organization and the vigor with which it has been fought, has not developed serious loss in any of the three provinces to date. Absolutely no further wind damage has been reported, and very little hail. Cutworms have done considerable damage at some points, mainly in Alberta, but their period of destructiveness is now past, and it may be assumed that there will be no trouble from that source.

Due in large measure to the cool nights, no damage has been reported from rust. Taking the three provinces as a whole, there is much very fine crops, a great deal of the time lost by late seeding has apparently been made up, and in this respect Manitoba leads. Coarse grains as a whole seem to be in a thrifty condition, and promise well.

LEAGUE COMMISSION TO SETTLE ISLANDS ISSUE

London, July 13.—The Council of the League of Nations has decided to refer the question of the Aland Islands to a commission of three international jurists, who will be nominated by the president of the league. The Swedish and Finnish Governments have agreed to abstain from any action likely to aggravate the situation pending the decision of the jurists.

SINN FEIN COURT RENDERS DECISIONS

Belfast, July 13.—Of the 130 petty jurors summoned for duty in the assizes court here yesterday only 19 men were present when court opened. More than 80 of the 99 appeal cases before the tribunal had been withdrawn, it is announced.

A remarkable feature of the incident was that yesterday a Sinn Fein court reached decisions on almost all the appeals listed for hearing before the assizes court, and barristers and solicitors were in attendance.

WILL ENTER PETITION AGAINST CLOSING EGERTON ST. SCHOOL

Residents Object To Little Tots Having To Cross Tracks and Also Going Long Distance Several Times a Day—Board To Consider Question This Afternoon.

Decided opposition to the closing of Egerton Street Public School is voiced in a petition which is being circulated in that neighborhood, and which likely will be presented to No. 1 committee of the board of education Wednesday afternoon.

Closing the school will mean that nearly a hundred small pupils, none of whom are much more than eight years of age, will have to go long distances to either Rectory or Quebec Street Schools. If they go to the latter, they will have to cross the street car tracks and run the risk of the heavy traffic on Dundas street. On the other hand, if they go to Rectory Street School they will have to pass along Campbell street, which is also said to be dangerous for small children because of the railway sidings on it.

A Real Hardship.

The distance to these two school centres will also be pointed out as an argument against closing the Egerton street building. It is claimed that it will be a real hardship for the small children to make journeys of that length two or three times a day.

The people of the neighborhood are taking a keen interest in the matter, and about seventy families are already represented on the petition. They state that they are willing to pay higher taxes to obtain a new school rather than have their children go to other centres.

Has No Partitions.

Although termed a school, the building is really only a cottage, although it has always been used for school purposes. There are no partitions in it. The board of education at its last meeting decided to close it, because for sanitary and other reasons it was deemed unsuitable for the purpose. Except for additions to Ealing School the present plans of the board do not include any new school accommodation for this district.

JEWS EXPRESS APPRECIATION OF GREAT BRITAIN'S EFFORTS

London, July 13.—Ten thousand Jews, in a demonstration in Albert Hall on the occasion of Great Britain's acceptance of the mandate for Palestine, last night unanimously adopted resolutions expressive of appreciation of "the illustrous services rendered the Jewish nation by the statesmen and peoples of the allied and associated powers, particularly Great Britain."

The resolutions pledged the Jews "to spare no effort or sacrifice for the rebuilding of Palestine as a Jewish national home, in collaboration with the inhabitants of the country."

Arthur J. Balfour, lord president of the council, and others addressed the meeting. Mr. Balfour, who was accorded an ovation lasting several minutes, said he hoped the Arabs in Palestine would remember that Great Britain freed them and made no trouble. He said he anticipated the greatest difficulty would be the inability of the Jews to work together and obey their leaders.

Max Nordau, replying to Mr. Balfour, asserted that the Jews, as well as the English, were politicians, and that the British statesmen could be assured that "we want to be Great Britain's sentry on the Asia frontier, and if you will permit us to grow as strong as we desire we will watch the Suez Canal for you and be a useful ally, if necessary."

MERRITTON BRIDGE IS DAMAGED BY CRANE

Machine Was Being Hauled Beneath Steel Structure.

St. Catharines, July 13.—The steel bridge on Main street, Merritton, over the Grand Trunk Railway, was badly wrecked last night, when it was struck by the boom of a combination digging crane and ditcher which was being hauled beneath the bridge.

The machine was badly damaged, and Arthur Sauve, who was riding on the crane, was injured. All heavy traffic over the bridge is blocked and through trolley traffic on the local line between St. Catharines and Thorold is hampered.

EMPRESS EUGENIE BEQUEATHED ESTATE TO PRINCE 'VICTOR

London, July 15.—The late Empress Eugenie bequeathed her mansion and her estate at Farnborough, England, to Prince Victor Napoleon and his wife, formerly Princess Clemettite of Belgium, according to a Madrid dispatch to the Daily Mail. She also left a considerable sum to Queen Victoria of Spain, who was her god-daughter, the newspaper says.

Prince Victor is head of the Napoleon family and makes his home in Brussels.

FIRE DESTROYS WHEAT.

Oberlin, Kas., July 13.—Fire late yesterday destroyed 3,000 acres of harvested wheat between Oberlin and Norton, causing a loss of $150,000.

THIRD PARTY UNABLE TO AGREE ON NAME

Points in Disputes To Come Before Joint Convention.

Chicago, July 13.—The joint conference to reconcile differences between the committee of 48 and the Labor party broke up today with a decision to place all the disputed points before the delegates of both conventions in open session.

The conferees said the disagreements principally were about a name for the proposed party, and over the degree of industry to be recommended in the platform. Labor party representatives favored carrying nationalization further than did the committee of 48.

JAPANESE PARLIAMENT DEFEATS UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE MEASURE

Tokio, July 13.—(By the Associated Press).—Universal suffrage was defeated in the Lower House of Parliament yesterday, when a resolution providing for it, introduced by the Opposition, was rejected by a vote of 159 to 283.

C. P. R. MANAGER RESIGNS.

Montreal, July 13.—The resignation of Andrew Allen, as European freight traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Service, is announced in a cablegram from the London correspondent of the Montreal Gazette, and it is understood he will sail on Saturday to assume a managerial appointment with the Anchor-Donaldson Line in New York.

TIME LIMIT IS EXTENDED FOR GERMAN REPLY

Allied Prime Ministers Grant Until Wednesday For Answer.

EXPERTS OPEN INQUIRY

Premier Takes Brief Vacation From Labors At Conference.

Spa, July 13.—(By the Associated Press).—The allied prime ministers have decided not to insist on the Germans replying to the allied ultimatum regarding coal deliveries at 3 p.m. today. The Germans will be permitted to defer their reply until tomorrow.

The experts on both sides are spending the day examining the situation. While the experts were at work the prime ministers were indulging in relaxation from the labors the conference had entailed upon them. Premier Lloyd George, for his part, went on a motor car trip.

NAME MIXED COMMISSION.

Paris, July 13.—It has been decided, says a Havas dispatch from Spa, to appoint a mixed commission to make a report on the German reparations plan According to the report Germany will offer to pay 50,000,000,000 francs in 50 annual installments, 20,000,000,000, of which will be for reconstruction in the devastated regions and which will be payable in building materials and merchandise.

MONTREAL NEGRO ACTS AS HANGMAN IN ELLIS' ABSENCE

Two Rumanians Are Executed Today in Quebec Jail.

Quebec July 13.—Nick Debeka and George Morhari, two Rumanians, who murdered a compatriot, Toter Kostinian, on July 27, 1919, at Kenogami, were hanged in the jail here this morning. The hangman was a Montreal colored man, who volunteered to act as executioner when Ellis the official hangman, could not act.

POLES CONFIDENT OF ALLIED ASSISTANCE

Russian Government Reply to Truce Proposal Not Yet Received.

Spa, July 13.—(By the Associated Press).—The Russian Soviet Government had not replied up to this afternoon to the request of the Allies that an armistice be arranged with Poland. The message was sent by wireless to the Soviet authorities through the British Government, because of the relations already existing between Premier Lloyd George and Leonidas Krassin, the Bolshevik minister of trade and commerce.

Ladislas Grabski, the Polish prime minister, is due to arrive in Warsaw today from Spa bearing the assurances of the Allies that ample arms and munitions and supplies will be provided Poland if the Soviet Government do not agree to an armistice or unduly delay a reply.

The Poles count upon the Allies to supply this material, the deliveries to begin in about fifteen days, unless the Soviet Government immediately accepts an armistice.

REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT IN BOLIVIA

Government Is Overthrown, Rebels Assume Control.

Lima, Peru, July 13.—A revolution has broken out in Bolivia, according to dispatches received last night from La Paz.

The Government, headed by President Jose Gutierrez Guerra has been overthrown and the president and members of his cabinet have been made prisoners.

Baptiste Saavedra has assumed power being supported by the army and is said to have appointed Jose Carrasco, former Bolivian minister to Brazil, chancellor.

SEVEN PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Asheville, N. C., July 13.—Seven prisoners, all charged with serious crimes, escaped from the Buncombe county jail early today by sawing their way out of individual cells and then dropping with the aid of blankets tied together from a third floor window, where waiting automobiles carried them to freedom.

McCURDY AND WIGMORE ARE ONLY NEW MEMBERS CHOSEN BY MEIGHEN FOR CABINET

NEW PREMIER NAMES MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET

HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN.

Canadian Premier Announces His Administration — Some Additions May Yet Be Made To Council — Sir James Lougheed and Hon. Dr. Reid Will Have Double Portfolios For a Time—McCurdy Takes Over Portfolio of Public Works, While Wigmore Assumes Duties of Minister of Customs and Inland Revenue.

Ottawa, July 13.—(Canadian Press).—Hon. Arthur Meighen this afternoon announced the members of his administration. It contains two who were not members of the Borden Government. They are R. W. Wigmore, member for St. John city, who takes the portfolio of customs and inland revenue, and F. B. McCurdy, who takes over the department of public works.

The cabinet is as follows:

HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN, prime minister and secretary for external affairs.
HON. J. A. CALDER, president of the council and minister of immigration and colonization.
HON. SIR GEORGE FOSTER, minister of trade and commerce.
HON. SIR JAMES LOUGHEED, minister of the interior.
HON. SIR HENRY DRAYTON, minister of finance.
HON. HUGH GUTHRIE, minister of militia.
HON. A. L. SIFTON, secretary of state.
HON. DR. REID, minister of railways.
SENATOR ROBERTSON, minister of labor.
HON. C. C. BALLANTYNE, minister of marine and fisheries and minister of naval services.
HON. F. B. McCURDY, minister of public works.
HON. C. J. DOHERTY, minister of justice.
SIR EDWARD KEMP, minister without portfolio.
SENATOR BLONDIN, postmaster-general.
DR. F. S. TOLMIE, minister of agriculture.
HON. R. W. WIGMORE, minister of customs and inland revenue.

The prime minister, under the terms of the statute, will be secretary of state for external affairs.

It is understood certain additions to the cabinet are still under consideration and may be made shortly. Sir James Lougheed, in addition to being minister of the interior, will also be superintendent-general of Indian affairs. Hon. Dr. Reid will preside over the dual departments of railways and canals.

AUSTRALIAN BISHOP TO GET FREEDOM OF CITY OF NEW YORK

Archbishop Daniel Mannix Will Be Principal Speaker At Mass Meeting.

New York, July 13.—By the Canadian Press.—Archbishop Daniel Mannix of Melbourne, Australia, who is at present in Montreal, will receive the freedom of the city of New York from Mayor Hylan after his arrival in this city on Saturday next, it was announced in the Times this morning.

He will be one of the principal speakers at a mass meeting at Madison Square Garden next Sunday night, which is to be held in the interest of "the Irish republic." The self-styled "president of the Irish republic," Eamonn de Valera, will also speak.

A statement was issued this morning by Rev. Arthur Vaughn, secretary to the Australian bishop, regarding the report that Archbishop Mannix had refused to stand when the band of the steamer Ventura played "The Star-Spangled Banner." This statement repeats the explanation which has already been given out, to the effect that Archbishop Mannix failed to recognize the tune, and declared the incident was the result of a "plot" engineered by "a crowd of British promoters and propagandists who were in board the Ventura."

ALVINSTON MILL IS BURNED, LOSS $10,000

D. J. McEachern and Sons' Plant Is Destroyed.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Alvinston, July 13.—At 6 o'clock this morning fire broke out in D. J. McEachern & Sons' planing and saw mill, burning it to the ground. The loss is about $10,000. The mill was insured for $1,500.

CHINESE CITY OF TIEN TSIN NOW UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Peking, July 13.—By the Associated Press.—Efforts are still being made by new emissaries to persuade Wu Pei Fu and Tsao Kun, the generals who rebelled because of the recent dismissal of Gen. Hsu Shu Cheng, to obey the government mandate not to march in the direction of Peking. The food supply in this city is receiving attention from the various foreign legations, in view of the stoppage of traffic between Peking and Hankow, and the possible interruption of other railway lines. Authorities here have been asked to make known their minimum requirements. Martial law has been proclaimed in Tien Tsin.

Debs May Direct Coming Campaign From Prison Cell

Unless Pardoned, the Socialist Nominee Will Have To Take This Course.

Detroit, July 12.—Unless he is pardoned, Eugene V. Debs, presidential nominee of the Socialist party, will direct the party's campaign this summer from Atlanta Federal Prison, where he is serving a sentence on a charge of violating the espionage laws, the Socialist national committee decided here today. The committee decided first, however, to make a personal appeal to President Wilson for Debs' release. A group of about two hundred Socialists plan to call on the president within the next two weeks.

8,000,000 BOTTLES OF CHAMPAGNE TO GO BY AUCTION

Paris, July 13.—Eight million bottles of champagne will be among the items on the lists of commodities to be placed on sale January 28 when the sequestered property of Baron de Mumm will be auctioned off. This property was seized in 1915, subsequent to the baron's resumption of German citizenship when the war began.

The number of bottles in the baron's cellars in the vicinity of Rheims, where the sale will take place, was greatly diminished during the war. When Gen. Ludendorff was making his furious drives toward Rheims and Epernay the wine cellars were used as bomb shelters, and the men were given much of the priceless wine with their meals.

MEXICAN REBEL LEADER DEFEATED BY FEDERAL TROOPS, NOW IN FLIGHT

Mexico City, July 13.—Gen. Jesus Gerardo, a leader of an insurrection in the Laguana region, has been defeated by federal troops and is fleeing, having been abandoned by most of his men. Brig.-Gen. Pablo Gonzales, another rebel, has been defeated at Sabinas Hidalgo, in the State of Nuevo Leon and is in flight, according to the Excelsior.

MOTIVE FOR DOUBLE MURDER IN CHICAGO IS STILL UNKNOWN

Chicago Police Searching For Woman in Wanderer's Case.

Chicago, July 13.—Delay in presentation of the two grand jury indictments voted against Carl Wanderer was secured by police today to permit further investigation of Wanderer's motive for shooting his wife and the unidentified stranger he had hired for a fake robbery.

The indictments will be brought up before Judge Crowe later this week, police said, and meanwhile they are seeking another woman in the case and attempting to identify the "hired robber."

The mental test taken of Wanderer soon after the murders will be used in court in the event that at the trial he makes a plea of insanity at the time of the murders the police said.

The physicians who examined him said they had not fully concluded their test, but that they had decided so far that Wanderer is sane and that his motive for the crime is still unknown.

Police today shifted their attention to the ex-lieutenant's letters. From those and from his friends police say, they learned that he had many friendships with girls, some of which ran concurrently with his married life.

"I believe that Carl is insane," Mrs. Roth said. "Our mother killed herself after having been insane for six years, and Carl once tried to throw himself from a fire escape at the county hospital while confined there with scarlet fever. He must have been out of his mind when he killed Ruth, but this is no reason why he should not pay the penalty."

Among the letters found by the police was one of a puzzling nature signed "Anonymous," couched in endearing terms.

MINSK IS CAPTURED BY SOVIET TROOPS

Town Was Occupied by Reds On Sunday.

London, July 13.—Minsk has been captured by Russian Bolshevik forces, according to an official statement received here from Moscow, which says the soviet troops occupied the town on the morning of July 11.

Minsk is the capital of the Russian government of the same name, and is situated on a branch of the Beresina River, approximately 250 miles northeast of Warsaw. For some time the Russian soviet forces have been converging on Minsk from the north and south, and the position of the city has seemed to be serious. The fall of Minsk would seem to indicate that Vilna, about 110 miles to the northwest, is in imminent danger of capture by the Bolsheviki.

VETERANS TO DISCUSS MEMORIAL FUND AT TONIGHT'S MEETING

Question of Gratuity For Sanatorium Patients Also Coming Up.

One of the important matters to be discussed at the reorganization meeting of the G. W. V. A. this evening will be that of the memorial fund. Several women's organizations of the city are of the opinion that the funds should go in aid of a hospital for the children of the soldiers who were killed in the war, while others claim the G. W. V. A. should have the money. This will be decided upon this evening.

The gratuity money of the patients of the sanatorium will be another important matter to be taken up. Some of the patients have not received any of their gratuity and in one case a man has $500 coming to him. One of the men who was in the sanatorium for several months stated to The Advertiser that he bought a house from a patient last week for $1,800. Before the house was sold the owner had the whole sum borrowed, and was paying six per cent interest.

"If that man's gratuity was not tied up, he wouldn't have to pay the interest, as I think he has the remainder of the money," he said.

Two resolutions will be brought up, but the officers would not make them public, as some developments are expected to follow.

ACCIDENTS ON BOTH LINES MONDAY NIGHT

Springbank Cars As Well As L. and P. S. R. Are Delayed.

Both the London and Port Stanley Railway and the Springbank street car line suffered delays in the service owing to accidents to the lines on Monday night.

On the L. and P. S. R. an engine and a number of cars jumped the track at a switch in St. Thomas, so that traffic was suspended for an hour.

Near Woodland Cemetery the street car wires were broken, causing delay for a similar period of time. The accident happened late at night, so that many who had been to the park did not reach the city until after midnight. Some of the cars on the city lines going to the barns on their last trip served as a means of transportation for persons going east.

Although there was no definite cause of the break given, it is claimed that a trolley on a city-bound car lost contact with the main wire and cut some of the cross-wires.

SALE POLICY OF R. LEO WATSON'S SHOPS FOR MEN

Twice a year for a period of from ten days to two weeks we conduct a real Old-Fashioned Reduced Price Sale to accomplish three vry important points: 1st, make new friends; 2nd, make old friends closer; and last, to clean up broken stocks.

In Galt, where we are putting on our 8th Semi-Annual Sale, we have always been favored with a big response, for our friends in the Scotch City have learned that our sales are real money-saving events on high-grade merchandise.

Our first "sale" on our new shop, at 188 Dundas street, opens on Friday morning with reduced prices on all Suits, Overcoats and Men's Furnishings.

Thursday's papers will contain real "good news" from this shop to purchasers of High-Grade Men's Wear.

The regular price label is sewn in the coat pocket of every garment. You know how much you save? b

PROTESTING AGAINST TAKING CONCERT FEES

Protest against the fees charged for use of the city parks for band concerts has been forwarded to City Clerk Baker by Mrs. R. Heard, convener of the I. O. D. E. concert committee. She states that the public utilities commission is charging 20 per cent of the proceeds from each concert. She thinks this is unjust, as the proceeds are used for charitable purposes. The concerts will be continued, however.

The question was raised some time ago at a meeting of the public utilities commission. It was contended that some charge should be made for the use of the park, because the park had to be cleared up on the day following each concert.

ADDRESS PRESENTED TO MRS. GORDON WRIGHT

The lifework of Mrs. Gordon Wright among the women of South London was most fittingly referred to in an address presented to Mrs. Wright Monday afternoon by the Askin Street branch of the Woman's Missionary Society on the occasion of transferring her membership to the First Methodist Church. Mrs. Wright's devotion to her immediate neighborhood was emphasized, notwithstanding her heavy responsibilities as a leader in county, provincial and national organizations devoted to women's interest and moral reform. An armful of American Beauty Roses accompanied the address. Mr. and Mrs. Wright have just returned from a speaking tour through Scotland in the interests of prohibition, and are being pressed to return to that country for another campaign in the autumn.

BANDSMEN IN DISPUTE RE NON-UNION MEN

A dispute between union and non-union bandsmen of the city is creating quite a stir amongst the soldiers. At a meeting of the bandsmen of the city held Monday it is claimed that it appeared that the G. W. V. A. band would have to stand by the non-union ones.

Some of the men claim that the officers of the union are the ones who are causing the trouble, while others cannot trace the source. The main trouble is that men living out of town are not allowed to play with the soldier organizations which are giving concerts in Victoria and Queen's parks.

No information regarding the meeting was allowed to be made public, although it is intimated that a line of action has been decided upon that will be productive of a satisfactory adjustment among the men.

LABOR NOT SATISFIED INCREASE IS NEEDED IN CITY GAS RATES

Won't Stand For It Unless Justified, Says H. B. Ashplant.

"I anticipate that labor won't stand for any increase in the price of gas unless complete justification is shown for it," said H. B. Ashplant, a member of the labor representation committee, today. "Labor is not satisfied by any means that the report which was submitted by the city auditors proves that an increase is necessary. It shows no loss up to date. If there is a loss in slack months that is no indication of the earnings for a whole year. While it is true that operating costs are high it does not necessarily follow that a higher price for gas is necessary.

"The past records of the company show that it has been a very profitable undertaking. Large surplus earnings have been re-invested. Bonds could easily be issued on this, and the money used to meet current expenses. If this was finally absorbed then would be the time for the people to come to the rescue.

"Labor is not opposed to a proper and legitimate return for legitimately invested capital, but it is opposed to compounding earnings and re-investing in the company's surplus revenue,which is really taken out of the consumers."

Mr. Ashplant could not state what steps the labor representation committee would take in event of the service charge being made, but he claimed that it was within the right of any citizen to issue an injunction to prevent such a proceeding.

TIME LIMIT

ence here late this afternoon that the Germans must agree by 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to deliver to the Allies 2,000,000 tons of coal monthly. Otherwise, the Germans were informed, the Allies will take measures to enforce the terms of the Versailles treaty.

Thus the negotiations with the Germans have reached another tense point. The spirit of conciliation adopted by both sides has prevented a break thus far, but the Allies found it necessary to issue this ultimatum for carrying out the treaty, which would entitle them to a greater amount of coal than now is demanded.

The question of coal was the subject of controversy during a three-hour session of Premier Millerand, Premier Lloyd George, Count Sforza, the Italian foreign minister; Viscount Chinda, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain; Premier Delacroix of Belgium; Konstantin Fehrenbach, the German chancellor, and Dr. Walter Simons, the German foreign minister, who had with them only one secretary each.

Reduced to 2,000,000,

The Allies began by insisting upon a monthly delivery of 2,200,000 tons. The Germans offered 1,100,000 tons, and the Allies reduced their demand to 2,000,000 tons.

Dr. Simons represented that coal being the very foundation of the industrial life of Germany, every ton that Germany sent to the Allies meant that much less production. He said:

"My contention is in European interests as much as in the interest of Germany, because our payments to you are conditioned upon our industrial production. You want your money. We want you to have it, but how can we pay large sums if you take away large quantities of coal?"

Better Food Conditions.

The foreign minister of Germany offered then to increase the deliveries of coal from 1,100,000 tons to 1,400,000 within six months, and to 1,700,000 tons within a year. This could only be done, he said, if the Allies made better food conditions possible for the miners and contributed raw materials to build houses for more miners.

The premiers, after prolonged discussion with the Germans in a calm, business-like manner, informed Chancellor Fehrenbach and Dr. Simons that the Allies must have their final answer tomorrow.

If the German reply was rejection, the Allies, it was declared, would take measures to enforce their demands, either by occupation of mining territories or by sending their own coal commission into Germany to examine the situation in the mining regions.

The ultimatum was delivered in the quietest tone by the Belgian premier, M. Delacroix. As the meeting dissolved, the British prime minister said to Dr. Simons:

"Think this over and come to our terms."

OFFER COMPROMISE.

PARIS, July 12.—In German circles late this evening the belief was expressed that tomorrow Dr. Simons would offer the Allies 1,800,000 tons of coal monthly, says the dispatch.

DEMAND ENFORCEMENT.

RHEIMS, France, Julny 12.—France will demand enforcement of the treaty of Versailles to the last article, Leon Bourgeois, president of the French Senate, declared today in a speech before more than 100 French and foreign newspaper correspondents at a luncheon in the ruins of the Hotel de Ville.

ASKED POSTPONEMENT.

PARIS, July 12.—When the allied offer to accept two million tons of coal monthly, together with a promise to facilitate the feeding of the miners was not accepted, says a Havas dispatch from Spa, the Allies declared they would revert to the reparations commission's figures of 2,400,000 tons, Dr. Simons then asked a postponement until tomorrow for a definite answer.

ELECTRICAL PLANT IS SCENE OF COSTLY FIRE

Damage estimated at from $2,500 to $3,000 was done by fire to the plant of the Taylor-Campbell Electric Company, 526 Adelaide street, on Monday night. The blaze originated in the bake-oven in the finishing rooms about 9:30 o'clock. The department worked for an hour before the fire was extinguished. One of the firemen was injured by falling glass.

FAVORS MINIMUM CHARGE FOR GAS

Ald. Moorhead Has Plan For Solving the Problem.

A minimum charge for gas was suggested by Ald. C. G. Moorhead today as a means of dealing with the present situation. He thinks the commodity could be placed on the same basis as the city water. A minimum charge could be fixed at 90 cents a thousand feet. This amount would be paid by anyone using that amount or less. After exceeding a thousand feet, the consumer would pay accordingly. Besides increasing the company's revenue, this would also have the effect of conserving the supply, as most consumers would endeavor to keep below the minimum amount, he thinks.

While not criticising the report made by City Auditors Dale and Screaton, Mr. Moorhead thinks that it should have shown the capital stock of the company and whether the original amount has been increased out of the earnings.

"If the people have paid out of their pockets for the expansion of the company, then they should not have to pay an increased price for gas now that the company is losing a little" he said. "On the other hand, if it is found that the stock has not been increased out of earnings, then the company certainly needs help. So far as I can learn, though, the city council has no jurisdiction in the matter."

SEE NO REASON FOR ANY GREAT RUSH

Police Commissioners in No Hurry To Fill Police Vacancy.

Members of the London police commission decline to make any statement for publication as to when they will meet for the purpose of appointing a chief of police for this city. They pass the buck to Mayor E. S. Little, chairman of the commission, who calls the meetings, and they are also reticent regarding the probable choice of a successor to W. T. T. Williams, recently resigned from office.

Inspector Robert Birrell, who is after the job, is performing the duties of acting chief at present, and the commissioners state that with this difficulty overcome there is no immediate rush for the appointment of an officer to fill the vacancy. The four candidates for the post are also observing strict silence, marking time as it were until the commissioners meet to consider their applications.

ANOTHER BAND MAY BE FORMED LOCALLY

One Way Out of the Trouble Over Ruling of Union.

Definite word is expected any time from Joseph N. Weber, president of the Musicians' Union of the International Federation of Labor, New York, regarding the non-union bandsmen in the city wishing to play in soldier organization bands. The dispute is over some of the men of the P. P. C. L. I., who hold out-of-town union cards, not being allowed to play in the bands in the city. Most of the local bands are willing to form a band, but it is contrary to the rules to have any men play in or with a union man who has not a local union card.

There are ten men of the P. P. C. L. I. affected by this ruling, and when satisfactory word is received it is thought likely that another band will be formed in the city. If one cannot be formed, the men will in all probability be taken into the other soldier bands.

FIGHT TO A FINISH OVER GAS QUESTION

Essex and Kent Representatives To Meet at Windsor Friday.

Windsor, July 13.—Strongly condemning the propaganda campaign being conducted by the Windsor Gas Company, Gas Commissioner Estlin of Chatham, over long-distance telephone, informed Acting Mayor F. L. Howell there was still an act on the statutes of the province and regulations of the railway board, which maintained some measure of governmental control over gas companies. Acting Mayor Howell, who has summoned a conference of all Essex and Kent mayors to discuss the gas situation on July 16, with Gas Commissioner Estlin and representatives of the Windsor Gas Company, declared today that the interests, attempting to put into effect an increase from 30 cents to $1 per thousand feet for the fuel, apparently had counted on the municipal authorities being ignorant of legislation bearing on the case.

Assured by leading legal authorities throughout the province of the inability of the Union Gas Company to cut off the supply entirely from the Border Cities on August 1, unless the ultimatum is accepted, Windsor is prepared to carry the fight to a finish, the acting mayor declared.

Mrs. J. H. Moran and Miss Lillian Moran of 626 Wellington street have returned from a three months' trip to California and the Canadian Northwest.

—Wm. C. Kennedy, M.P. of Windsor, has been added to the board of the London and Western Trusts Company, Limited.

—Earl Arscott, son of Frank Arscott, 127 Ann street, was taken suddenly ill at Port Stanley yesterday, and was rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. He was reported doing nicely today.

TO PICNIC AT PORT.—Plans are well under way for the annual picnic at Port Stanley of the London retail hardware dealers on Wednesday, July 28. A splendid program of sports is being arranged.

BUTCHERS' PICNIC TOMORROW.—The annual picnic of the Retail Butchers' Association will be held on Wednesday at Springbank. The sports are announced for 1:30 p.m. In the evening a carnival and dance will be held in the pavilion.

SUES FOR $200.—Acting for Mabel Burch of this city, Tennent & Tennent have issued a writ in the supreme court here against David W. Marshall for $2,000, the principal and interest due upon a mortgage made by defendant to plaintiff November 28, 1918.

ENJOY RIDES.—Lieut. W. Nuttall of Port Stanley has been taking the children of the Soldiers' Aid Commission camp out for yacht rides in his yacht the "Neptune" every morning. Ed. Lance, secretary of the Soldiers' Aid Commission and head of the camp, stated that the children are enjoying the trips immensely.

PEAL OF BELLS.—Dr. J. H. Smith, organist of Askin Street Methodist Church, is busily engaged this week installing a "stop" into the organ of the church which will operate a peal of bells. The job is a somewhat lengthy one, and Dr. Smith is doing the work entirely by himself. Some of the city church organs possess a "harp stop," but Askin Street Church organ is the first to have the "peal of bells stop."

BUILDING IS BRISK.—Activity in building is reflected in the amount of plumbing which is being done at the present time. Plumbing Inspector James Young completed his report for June today, and stated that it was the largest month since the inspection system was commenced, July bids fair to outdo it. Eighty-seven permits were issued, and 177 inspections were made. Fees amounting to $183.50 were collected. In May 154 inspections were made and $167 in fees was collected.

MORE PERMITS.—Steady contribution to the city's building progress is being made by the London housing commission. A permit was taken out Monday to erect a house for C. Belbeck on Duke street. It will be a one-story brick veneer dwelling, costing $4,000. William Fox will build a one-story brick veneer dwelling on Nelson street at a cost of $3,600. This makes a total of 27 permits for $32,350 worth of building for July, giving a total for the year of $857,455.

TO DISCUSS WATERWAYS.—Efforts are being made by the London Chamber of Commerce to insure a large representation from London at the great lakes-St. Lawrence tidewater congress to be held in Detroit July 22 to 24. So far it is only known definitely that Geo. M. Reid will attend, but many other members of the Chamber of Commerce will attend if possible. The delegates will be welcomed on July 22 by Governor Sleeper of the State of Michigan and Mayor Couzens of Detroit.

SAFETY FIRST.—In order to prevent any possibility of accident at the Ames, Holden & McCready building through the wrecking of the old City Mission at 257 Richmond street for the new building of the London and Western Trusts Company, Building Inspector A. M. Piper ordered the contractor, W. L. Sparling, of Toronto, to erect proper supports to hold the walls in place. Two supports at the front of the building and sufficient supports along the side, are the requirements which the contractors had to comply with.

GROCERS' PICNIC.—The annual picnic of the City Retail Grocers' Association has been announced for Wednesday, July 21. It will be held at Springbank all day. As a warning, the grocers will close their stores the whole day instead of the usual Wednesday half-holiday. Preparations have been made for Irish and Scotch dancing, baby shows, baseball and other sports. As an inducement for some of the parents to take their families to the picnic, a 98-pound sack of Hunt's Diamond Flour will be given as a prize to the largest family on the grounds at the hour of 5 o'clock.

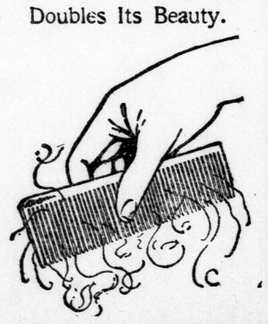

MAY SEND DELEGATES.—London likely will send delegates to the twentieth annual convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, which is to be held in Quebec City Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, July 27, 28 and 29, although none have been appointed yet. City Clerk Baker is a member of the Ontario executive of the association, and he is likely to be one of the delegates. Others may be appointed at committee meetings before the end of the month. No Londoners are included on the program, which is an extensive one, dealing with a large number of municipal problems. The union met in London in 1917.

"PIKERS" WILL HAVE LUNCH AT WARDSVILLE

According to a change of plans in the route which the Michigan pikers will follow on their trip from Windsor to London they will stop for luncheon at Wardsville instead of at Blenheim, as originally planned. They will be met at Lambeth by London motorists and welcomed to London. Decorations, welcome signs and flags are being erected where their route enters the city and at Queen's Park, where they will camp over night. Several larger motor trucks will carry the tents, framework and camp paraphernalia, and it is expected that with plans well worked out, the tourists will be able to complete the erection of the small canvas town in which they will spend the night within 45 minutes after halting.

LADS MAKE SPEEDY MOTOR BOAT FROM DISCARDED SHELL

Craft Runs Smoothly, Making Ten To Twelve Miles an Hour.

Possessed of considerable natural mechanical ability, two boys, Albert Knowles, aged 15 residing 1 High street, and Murray Thorpe, just turned 16, who lives at the Spruce Terrace on Grand avenue, have turned a shell of an old and abandoned motor boat and the remains of a demolished motor cycle into a speedy air-propelled motor-boat.

The boat, christened the "Aero," has been successfully launched in the south branch of the Thames, near Wellington street where there is a stretch of over one-half mile of deep water to Hunt's dam. The boat runs smoothly at a speed of from 10 to 12 miles an hour at the present time, a greater speed being prevented by belt-slipping. It is expected, however, when this trouble is remedied by improvements planned, that a speed of 20 miles an hour will be attainable.

Launched the Craft.

The idea of such a boat came to the two boys in the early part of last winter. After working intermittently on it all winter and spring, it was launched last Friday.

The body of the boat was a leaky, flat-bottomed shell when secured. This was shortened, a pit was built forward, and the whole painted a maroon color. A four-cylinder engine was taken from an abandoned motorcycle which had proved too heavy for practical use and installed in the boat for motive power. Directly over the pit and supported by a steel shaft and uprights, is the propeller.

The Big Problem.

The propeller is the real masterpiece of the structure, and proved to be the real task of the undertaking. It was built from five layers of yellow pine and oak, and was as neatly turned as those used for propelling aeroplanes. The three thick planks of oak were glued together with the pine sandwiched between. This was planed and turned to give it the right shape. The two wings are approximately six feet from tip to tip. The propeller is operated by a leather belt connected to the engine below. The boat was constructed by the boys without any assistance or advice from older people, it is claimed.

GRADED CHARGE FOR GAS MIGHT RESULT IN QUITE A SAVING

Citizen Points Out How Flat Rate Has Worked Out.

Some citizens who protested against the flat service charge of 85 cents a month which the City Gas Company intended to make are now wishing that the plan had been carried out instead of the graded charges which are soon to become effective. It is claimed that the average consumer will pay more in this way than by paying the fixed charge.

Under the proposed graded scale the "ready to serve" charge is 35 cents for gas less than 1,000 cubic feet, between 1,000 and 2,000 cubic feet it is 60 cents, and from 2,000 to 3,000 it is 85 cents. The next jump is from 3,000 to 5,000 feet for which a service charge of $1.40 is made.

It is claimed that there are very few consumers who do not use more than 3,000 feet a month. Many of them use only a few hundred feet more than that, but they are compelled to pay 55 cents more than the person who uses a few feet less than 3,000 feet.

One citizen who knows how to read his gas meter found that he was within about 100 feet of the 3,000 mark on the day previous to the one on which the meter reader usually came around. He therefore exercised the most rigid economy the following day to keep within the mark. His efforts were unavailing, as the meter reader was a day late. As the meter by that time was a short distance past the 3,000 mark the citizen expects that he will pay 55 cents more on his next bill than he would if the reading had been made on time.

FINED $200 FOR TAKING WHISKEY TO HOUSE OF A FRIEND

Elmira Man Will Probably Go To Jail Three Months.

Because he obtained a bottle of whiskey on a doctor's prescription Monday morning and then took it to the house of a friend at 2 Dundas street to be consumed, Albert Wilson of Elmira was fined $200 and costs in police court today, with the option of three months in jail. He accepted the option.

"I did not know it was against the law," declared Wilson. When asked by the court where he obtained the liquor, he answered "with a per." The prisoner obtained the bottle one hour before he was arrested, and the conviction was registered because it was used as a beverage and not for medicinal purposes as originally intended.

A local woman who participated in the booze party was allowed her freedom after being charged as a drunk, because the drinking was not done on the street. She promised to leave town at once.

"If you keep on you will go to the reformatory," cautioned Magistrate Graydon.

The police were called to the Dundas street house because the occupants were disorderly, and the whiskey bottle, produced in court as evidence, contained about one-half ounce of liquor.

A Simcoe street foreigner could not navigate south end streets safely last night and was taken in tow by a constable. The verdict in his case was $10 and costs, which his spouse paid.

PICKS HARDING AS NEXT PRESIDENT

Senator William R. Harding is most likely to be the next president of the United States, unless a third party takes the field, according to ex-Controller C. H. Merryfield of Gibbon, Neb., who is spending a two-month vacation with J. H. Hambly, of 340 Adelaide street. Mr. Merryfield said that political feeling in the state from which he came seemed to indicate that the senator would easily outdistance the Democratic candidate, Governor James M. Cox, and odds of 2 to 1 were being placed on him.

Conditions prevailing in Nebraska are very similar to those here, as the same post-war problems are being experienced, Mr. Merryfield said. Lately, however, prices have shown a downward tendency, particularly for shoes. The wheat crop, although good, is not large. A poor crop last season discouraged many farmers from doing extensive seeding this year, with the result that a considerable reduction in production has taken place.

WOULD NOT ALLOW RIVER WATER PUMPED INTO THE CITY MAINS

Commissioner F. G. Mitchell Is Opposed To Plan — Joint Committee Meets Tomorrow To Discuss Situation.

Plans for using river water in the city mains never has been discussed at an open meeting of the utilities commission yet. Indications are that the scheme will not have the unanimous support of all the commissioners, while as far as other city bodies are concerned many members are likely to oppose it.

The work has not progressed to the point where the co-operation of the board of health has been sought. This body must give its consent before any addition can be made to the drinking supply from any source. The board will meet this afternoon, but nothing regarding the river water will come before it.

Plan Joint Meeting.

The matter likely will be discussed at a joint meeting of the utilities commission and No. 1 committee of the council Wednesday afternoon. This has been called primarily to discuss ways and means of obtaining funds for water and light extensions. It is likely, however that the utilities commission will take advantage of the opportunity to learn the opinion of the aldermen on the use of river water.

Commissioner F. G. Mitchell is actively opposed to the plan.

"I wish to be placed on record as being against the use of river water for drinking purposes," he said today. "I think it is all right to use it for commercial purposes, but special mains should be constructed. A line should be built from the river to supply the C. P. R., and by extending this around the city we could supply practically every factory. The street watering could also be done with this river water.

More Spring Water.

"Every effort should then be put forth to obtain more spring water for drinking purposes. There must be three or four million gallons available on property which the city already owns and in the vicinity of Springbank and Komoka. We would save a million gallons for drinking purposes by using the river water for the factories. This would mean a total addition of about five million gallons to our spring drinking water supply.

"With the large reserve supply which we will have at Springbank when the reservoir additions are completed, this should be sufficient to supply the city for a good many years to come. Our spring water supply is one of the city's chief assets, and we should spare no pains to keep it."

OFF THE RAILS

WON THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Although the G. T. R. entered a team in the manufacturers' field day for the first time on Saturday, it easily won the championship and cup, with a total of 20 points. This fact, coupled with the athletic field, which is in course of construction, is expected by the officials at the G. T. R. car shops to give sport a great boost among the employees of the G. T. R. in this city.

NEVER BEATEN YET.

By defeating the Fort Erie baseball team on Saturday in Fort Erie by a score of 11 to 1, the G. T. R. baseball team kept up its record of not losing a game this year. Bryce of the car shops pitched for the local team.

ARE RUSHING WORK.

Despite the many interruptions experienced and the shortage of construction labor on the G. T. R., Superintendent C. F. Forrester, of the local division, expressed confidence today that the large construction program for this district would be completed before the summer is ended. This had been considered doubtful by several local officials of the road, a few weeks ago when the shortage of labor became acute.

The work of laying 100-pound rails between Paris and Sarnia is being held up by a shortage of rails. It is not expected that the shortage will be relieved before the end of the month. The work has been proceeding rapidly during the past week as the two gangs employed have been laying a mile a day. The gang which started at Princeton has reached Eastwood, while the gang which was working west of the city has laid all but two miles of the distance between London and Hyde Park.

SPECIAL TO FLINT.

A special train loaded with laborers is scheduled to leave Toronto at 12 tonight en route to Flint, Mich. It will pass through this city a few minutes after 3 Wednesday morning.

PIGEONS WERE KILLED.

Several dead pigeons were discovered on the pilot of the London, Huron and Bruce train when it arrived in this city this morning. The train had run through a flock of the birds, which was feeding on the tracks in the west end of the London yards.

Poet Bill, baggageman on the train, expressed no surprise at the occurrence. It is quite a common thing to find the bodies of birds on the engine after it had finished its run, according to him. Less than a month ago the pilot killed and picked up a skunk this side of Exeter. When the train arrived in that town Mr. Sneath said that everyone wondered what had happened to the Grand Trunk.

TEMPORARILY HELD UP.

Construction work on the G. T. R. athletic grounds, being erected east of the George White Foundry, is being held up temporarily because the teams needed for plowing and leveling are being used in building the reclamation yards.

FOUND PURSE IN STORE.

A young woman traveling on the G. T. R. recently discovered a short time before her train was due to leave this city that her purse, containing $40 and her ticket, were missing. She appealed to an official of the travelers' aid department of the Y. W. C. A., who was at the station. The officials took a list of all the stores the woman had visited during her short stay in the city. Calling each one on the phone, she located the purse in time for the woman to catch the train.

CITIZEN IS GIVEN BENEFIT OF DOUBT

Charge of Speeding Against J. G. Bullen Is Dismissed.

J. G. Bullen, a local citizen, was granted the benefit of the doubt in police court today, after Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon heard the evidence in a charge of speeding. Constable Tomlin swore that a Ford car bearing Bullen's number went on Hamilton road from Pegler to Rectory street in 15 seconds on July 7, which according to Inspector Birrell's estimate, is 26 miles per hour.

Bullen testified that he was in Nilestown at the time, and did not come along the road until two hours after the constable swore he took the number. The charge was dismissed.

E. N. Hart, a merchant with premises in the Market Lane, was charged with unlawfully parking his car in that thoroughfare. The court agreed with him that the bylaw was a hardship upon him, and with a caution to "try and obey the letter of the law," discharged Hart.

Others not so fortunate were: William Martin, William Bailley, Sam Biddle, Edward Lewis, R. Thomas, Fred Hooper, F. Burt, William Sumner, Alex. Ollson, George Marshall, John Androck, M. Johnston, J. Milner, W. Billington, Percy Newby, John Dixon, Maxwell Johnston, Harry Fuller and Forest Lee, who contributed $2 for breaches of city bylaws, while A. Dayton paid $1 for the same privilege.

Transgressing the motor vehicles act cost F. A. Bull, J. Stone, A. N. Udy, C. O. Smith, A. D. McLean and Gilbert Henderson $5 and costs, while W. R. Hodges was assessed $2 and costs for a similar offence.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DEATH OF PTE. HAWKESBURY.

The death of Pte. Arthur Hawkesbury of St. Thomas occurred in Byron Sanatorium on Monday afternoon. Deceased was 30 years of age. Besides his wife, he is survived by two small children. The remains will be taken to St. Thomas today, where interment will be made on Wednesday.

HAS DAUGHTER IN LONDON.

Springfield, July 13.—The funeral of George Nigh, aged 81, held here this afternoon was conducted by Rev. Dr. Barnby of the Methodist Church. Mr. Nigh was prominent in I. O. F. circles, and for several years was a school trustee. He took an active part in Liberal campaigns in the district. He is survived by one son, Henderson, of Toronto, and four daughters: Amy at home; Mrs. D. Stenton and Mrs. D. W. McGill of Toronto, and Mrs. Morrison of London.

FENIAN RAID VETERAN.

The funeral of George Baskerville was held from his residence, Lot 5, Concession 4, West Nissouri, on Saturday, July 10.—He had resided in that district for the past fifty years, and was a veteran of the Fenian Raid. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. George J. Kerr, of Bothwell, assisted by Rev. Mr. Thompson of Dorchester Station. The pallbearers were E. J. McMartin, J. S. Pardy, T. J. McFarlane, John B. Woods, J. G. Goarley and R. F. Matthews. He is survived by the following: Mrs. Harry Lea of Newbury; Mrs. Wilfred Weir of North Dorchester; James and Henry on the old homestead, and William J., Philip and David in the west.

FORTY-EIGHT RINKS HAVE BEEN ENTERED IN BOWLING TOURNEY

Play Will Start At St. Thomas On Wednesday Morning.

Forty-eight rinks are entered in the St. Thomas lawn bowling tournament, which opens sharp at 9 o'clock (standard time) on the club's greens at the Athletic Grounds, East street. Half of these rinks play at 9 o'clock, and the other half at 10:30 sharp, and penalties will be imposed on rinks not ready to play on time. Lunch and hot dinner will be served on the grounds, so that delays will be unnecessary. There is plenty of room to park autos on the grounds. Cars enter from St. George street.

MONTREAL BARBERS GRANTED DEMANDS

Montreal, July 13.—The barbers' strike in Montreal ended in a victory for the men, who demanded $25 a week and 50 per cent of all money earned over $35 a week.

McGILL STUDENT DROWNS.

Cobalt, July 15.—Pedro Marcionelli, 19-year-old son of a wealthy Peruvian mine owner, and a student at McGill University, has been missing since yesterday afternoon, and is believed to have been drowned in Cross Lake, near here, while out in a canoe. His capsized canoe was found in the lake. Up to the present searching parties have been unsuccessful in locating the body.

WORDY BATTLE AT MEETING OF PRESBYTERY

Rearrangement of District Charges Causes a Lively Discussion.

A lively discussion regarding the rearrangements of certain charges in the London Presbytery was participated in by clerics and laymen at the adjourned meeting of the presbytery held in the First Presbyterian Church today.

Rev. J. Currie moved that Hyde Park charge, having become vacant, Cook's Church, Caradoc, Mount Brydges and North Caradoc become one charge; Komoka, Delaware and Muncey another, and that Hyde Park and West London Presbyterian Church form another.

Rev. John Stewart moved, and it was seconded by Inspector P. J. Thompson, that Cook's Church and Delaware Church remain as they are; that Mount Brydges, Komoka and Caradoc form another charge, and West London and Hyde Park form the third charge.

A Wordy Battle.

The laymen as well as the ministers were ordered several times by the new moderator, Rev. W. J. Knox, to keep their seats. It was only after a wordy battle that the presbytery carried the motion made by Rev. John Stewart.

A committee will visit the congregations affected and acquaint them with the action which the presbytery has taken and their views regarding the matter will be aired at the meeting to be held in September. The idea of the presbytery to re-arrange some of the charges is that by so doing they may save approximately $1,800, funds for work in the west, where there are hundreds of families without any minister being needed urgently. Some of the ministers were of the opinion that the presbytery should not change these charges for the sake of what was termed "a few hundred dollars."

Will Not Interfere.

Dr. D. L. McCrae informed the presbytery that the carrying out of this new arrangement would not in any way interfere with the co-operation scheme planned between the Methodists and Presbyterians of Western Ontario.

The attention of the presbytery was brought to the fact that the general assembly had refused to raise the minimum stipend to $1,800. It, however, recommended that the congregations of the various churches deal favorably regarding the matter of stipends in these days of high cost of living. The presbytery is in session this afternoon.

BUILDING HELD BACK BY LABOR TROUBLES

Various disturbances in the building trade are tending to keep figures for the month at a low level. So far only 30 permits have been issued for a total of $34,475, as compared to $171,200 last year. The figures for the year are still well ahead of those of last year. A total of $825,105 new building was started this year, compared to $719,235 at the end of July last year.

Even the most optimistic outlook on the situation does not anticipate that the figures for August will approach those for August last year, when $867,420 was rolled up. This was chiefly due to new theatres and other large construction jobs.

If all the school building program is under way by August about $275,000 will be added to the building figures, which may aid considerably in bringing the total somewhere near that attained last August.

The chief permits today were: William Fox, one-story brick veneer dwelling, Nelson street, $3,600; John Fox, one-story brick veneer dwelling, Carleton avenue, $1,800.

BUILDERS OFFER 55 CENTS AN HOUR TO HODCARRIERS

About 80 members of the hod-carriers' union are standing firm for the demands of the union. About 25 have gone to work for contractors not members of the Builders' Exchange, and who have agreed to pay 70 cents an hour. A few of the union members have temporarily engaged in other lines of work, but not more than three or four, or about 2 per cent, have broken ranks and returned to work at their old jobs for the old rate of pay.

Members of the strike committee today stated that they could not say how long they would be able to hold out, but that at any rate the question of calling off the strike had never been raised yet. There is some prospect of some financial support being available for the hod-carriers, and this will strengthen their position very materially.

Issues Statement.

The strike committee, with President F. Tucker of the union; J. H. Davies, acting secretary and J. Jameson, chairman of the committee; as spokesman, issued a written statement of their position today, claiming in part that the contractors represented in the Builders' Exchange could quite profitably pay the increased wages asked. An outside company, which underbid local contractors by $13,000 on a large construction job now under way, submitted its tender with the expectation of having to pay 70 cents an hour to the hod-carriers and laborers. The fact that it is not paying this union scale, the union officials attribute to influence of the Builders' Exchange members in advising the outside firm that men could be secured for less money.

60 Cents an Hour.

What the hodcarriers really struck for was a minimum of only 60 cents an hour the contractors refusing to pay more than 55 cents. While the strikers' demand at present is for 70 cents an hour, it is openly admitted that the strikers are ready to compromise any way from 60 to 70 cents. A compromise would not necessarily affect the agreement already entered by seven or eight smaller contractors outside the Builders' Exchange, who, by agreeing to pay 70 cents an hour, secured the best men in the union.

The Builders' Exchange is still firm, however, in declaring that no compromise is possible and that 55 cents an hour is the highest minimum it will agree to.

Strikers' Claims.

The strikers' written statement alleges in part: "A gigantic attempt to smash the union," and claims that if an outside contractor could, while expecting to pay 70 cents an hour, underbid the local men by $13,000, the local men could easily pay 60 or 65 cents an hour.

Labor officials and organizers would make no statement today as to the purpose of a meeting of the Bricklayers' Union called for Wednesday night. It is understood that the hodcarriers' case will be up for consideration, but it is also intimated that the bricklayers have grievances of their own to discuss. A meeting of the brick and stone contractors' section of the Builders' Exchange has been called for tonight when a decision will probably be made how to face whatever demands the bricklayers may make.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, July 13.—Atlantic Sugar preferred proved the market leader on the Toronto exchange today, with practically all the other issues developing a slightly weaker tendency, profit-taking playing a big part in the decline. Opening 2 points up from last night's close, Sugar preferred was strong throughout the session and closed at 170, a gain of 5 points for the morning. Riordon was the only other stock to show a big advance, closing at 214, a gain of 10 points. Steel Corporation and C. P. R. were steady.

Bank of Hamilton shows a tendency to firm up again after its precipitate decline, selling at 173.

New York, July 13—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Substantial recoveries from yesterday's weak close accompanied the active opening of today's stock market. Oils, steels and equipments were the conspicuous leaders, Royal Dutch, Mexican and Pan-American Petroleums, Crucible, Republic, Baldwin gaining 1 to 1⅞ points. C. P. R. and Reading again represented the firm to strong rails with St. Paul preferred and St. Louis and San Francisco. Backward features included the shippings, coppers, tobaccos and chemicals. Buying of United States Steel lifted the general list to higher levels within the first half hour.

Noon.—Alternate setbacks and recoveries featured the trading of the forenoon. Extensions to early gains were made by steels, equipments and oils, but these and affiliated shares reacted sharply when Houston Oil fell 6 points. On the subsequent rally many losses were largely regained, motors and their specialties participating in the improvement with shippings. The money market was unchanged, call loans opening at 8 per cent on freer offerings. In the bond market Belgian 7½'s made a new high record at 100⅛, and the new Swiss Government eights, just listed, sold at 102¾.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. RUSSIA TO PAY $10,000,000 FOR CANADA'S GOODS

Martens Says Arrangements Made For Purchase of That Amount.

NEW YORK, July 12.—(By Canadian Press.) — Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, chief of the Russian Soviet bureau here, this morning announced that he had received a cablegram from the Soviet embassy in London, stating that satisfactory arrangements had been made with Canadian bankers for the transfer of $10,000,000 gold into Canada for the purchase of Canadian goods.

Mr. Martens stated that no further details in regard to the gold shipment were given in the cable, but he believed arrangements had been made in London by Santeri Nuorteva, one of the Soviet representatives, who recently toured Canada, interviewing Canadian manufacturers, and who afterwards went to London to conduct negotiations regarding the financing of contracts with Canadian firms.

POLISH ARMY WINS IN PRIPET DISTRICT; TAKE HUGE SUPPLIES

WARSAW, July 12.—Victories for the Poles in the Pripet region and in Volhynia are reported in advices received here today. The Bolshevik cavalry leader, General Budenny, has been defeated, the advices state, and he is fleeing to Rovno, upon which the Poles are marching.

The victory of the Poles in the Pripet region is described as "complete." Enormous supplies are declared to have been taken with the occupation of the town of Owrunca, where 200 prisoners also were picked up.

The troops operating against General Budenny, the advices report, captured Great and Little Zyoin, taking eight guns, while a Bolshevik cavalry brigade was annihilated.

Bolshevik attacks south and west of Rovno were repulsed, the message adds.

A Clean Cool Scalp

Parisian Sage Stops Itching, Keeps the Scalp Cool—Prevents Dandruff.

Almost everybody nowadays knows that Parisian sage, the most efficient hair invigorator, is guaranteed to remove every trace of dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or the cost, small as it is, will be refunded.

But you should know more about this marvelous hair grower. You ought to know that it immediately destroys all odors that are bound to come from the excretions of the scalp, and in five minutes after an application, no matter how hot the weather, your head will feel cool and comfortable.

Everyone should have a bottle of Parisian sage handy, because it is such a pleasant and exhilarating hair treatment. Ladies use it because it is daintily perfumed, not sticky or greasy, and surely does make the hair beautiful, silky and abundant. Here's what a New York woman writes: "I have used Parisian sage two weeks only, yet in that time find my hair has wonderfully increased in beauty, thickness and luxuriance, but what surprised me most was the disappearance of all dandruff."

A large bottle of Parisian sage can be obtained from any good drug or toilet counter—it's inexpensive. J13,A17

T. R. Ferguson, K.C., Tells Toronto Orangemen Trouble Led To Gooderham-Kingsmill Break—Large Parades Mark Demonstrations in Many Cities.

TORONTO, July 12.—Never before in the history of Orangeism in Ontario was the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne celebrated with more lively interest than was the case today in many centres, and larger parades than usual marked the various demonstrations. Many cities and towns held celebrations, and specially big Orange processions were reported at Peterboro, Sarnia, Belleville and Owen Sound. In Toronto the paraders numbered more than 8,000, which was a record for "the Belfast of Canada," as this city was called by Mayor T. L. Church in his address of welcome to the Orangemen at Exhibition Park.

Hon. W. D. McPherson, former provincial secretary, deputy grand master of the Grand Lodge of British America, announced that he and H. C. Hocken, grand master, had sent a cable message to Sir Edward Carson at Belfast, stating that the eyes of the world were on him and the hearts of the Orangemen of Toronto were with him.

T. R. Ferguson, K.C., of this city, said he believed that an effort was being made by the Catholics to obtain control of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire. The scheme, he said, had led to the trouble between Lady Kingsmill and Mrs. A. E. Gooderham, the former president, and had resulted in many Toronto ladies, prominent in the order for years, being forced out.

Hon. Thomas Crawford, former speaker of the Ontario Legislature, charged the priests and bishops in Ireland with responsibility for destruction of life and property by the Sinn Fein. The persecution would cease if the priests objected to it, he asserted.

In connection with Toronto's Orange celebration, a tag day was held in aid of the Orange home for children and $12,000 was obtained.

DENIES STATEMENT OF TORONTO PREACHER

PETERBORO, July 12.—Denial of the accuracy of a statement attributed to Rev. Dr. Wm. Patterson, pastor of Cooke's Presbyterian Church, Toronto, in his sermon in Toronto on Sunday evening to the effect that damage had been done to the band instruments of the Salvation Army band here, because the army had signified an intention of taking part in the 12th of July parade, was made by Adjutant Bunton of the local Salvation Army. Adjutant Bunton stated that the officials of the Salvation Army in Peterboro did not connect the Catholic community, or any part of it, with the damage done to the band instruments.

Chief of Police Thompson said that there had been no suggestion made to him or to any of his men in connection with their investigating of the matter that would lead him to believe that the damage in question had been done by any person of the Catholic faith.

The Orange celebration here was one of the largest on record.

WINGHAM CELEBRATES.

WINGHAM, July 12.—Twenty district Loyal Orange lodges braved the unpromising weather conditions that prevailed early today and joined with the local brethren in celebrating the memory of the battle of the Boyne. The visitors arrived by train and in autos, and the usual parade was formed at noon, the 20 lodges, with banners flying and to the martial music of many bands, proceeding to Victoria Park, where the Orangemen were formally welcomed to the town by Mayor Gourney.

Interesting addresses, dealing with the aims and objects of the Orange Order were delivered by local and visiting speakers. At night a pleasing concert in the town hall was enjoyed by a capacity audience.

On Sunday Wingham L. O. L., No. 794, accompanied by a number of visiting brethren, attended divine service in the Anglican Church, the semon being preached by Bro. H. Snell grand chaplain of Ontario West.

The oldest brother in attendance was W. H. Rodous, who has been an Orangeman for over 40 years.

3,000 AT OWEN SOUND.

OWEN SOUND, July 12.—About 3,000 Orangemen, with their wives and friends, attended the 12th of July celebration in Owen Sound. From the time the first excursion train arrived about 9:45 o'clock this morning till the last one left at 8 o'clock this evening, nothing was to be heard about the streets, but the beating of drums and the tooting of fifes. Five or six bands added to the amount of noise and general confusion.

Over 50 lodges were in town from all parts of Grey and Bruce Counties. The lodge which came the farthest distance was from Underwood, a small place within six miles of Port Elgin.

50 Lodges Parade.

At 1 o'clock to the tune of "The Protestan Boys," played with as many veriations as there were fifes and drums, the 50 lodges, with banners streaming, paraded to Victoria Park, where they listened to many inspiring addresses on the Orange Order, its aims and objects.

The Orangemen were welcomed to the city by Ald. Brownlee, in the absence of Mayor Patterson. Mr. Brownlee was followed by Rev. Canon Ardill, Rev. T. G. McAlee, D. M. Jermin, past county master of Bruce and sheriff of that county; Mr. Miller, past county master of Grey; Rev. Mr. Marshall and Rev. Mr. Douglas.

Baseball and football matches added to the enjoyment of the afternoon, and it was a tired but happy crowd of people that left for home tonight.

CLINTON WINS PRIZES.

GODERICH, July 12.—The "Glorious 12th" was celebrated here by some thousands of Orangemen and as many more followers. Despite the threatening weather, the turnout was about as large as Goderich has had. Three special trains were run all bringing in fair crowds, but not as large as was expected.

The procession formed up in Victoria Park and, headed by J. B. Armitage, county master, and the Citizen's Band, paraded the streets to the square, where addresses were given.

Mr. Armitage acted as chairman. Addresses of welcome were given by Mayor Wigle, on behalf of the town, and by Rev. Mr. McCaulay on behalf of the Ministerial Association.

Attacked Home Rule.

Rev. Mr. McKegney of Clinton, the principal speaker, gave a brief outline of British freedom since 300 years ago, and stated that Britain stood just as firmly for freedom now as she ever did.

Rev. Mr. Lowe bitterly attacked home rule for Ireland, and finished by saying, "God help the people if Ireland gets home rule." Addresses were also given by local and visiting clergy. Clinton won the prize for the best band and the largest lodge in the procession. Zurich and Goderich played an interesting game of ball at Agricultural Park, the locals winning 4 to 2. Batteries: Goderich, Bissett and Wiggins; Zurich, Brown and Houffman; umpires Wiggins and Cooper.

PARADE FIVE MILES LONG.

SARNIA, July 12.—More than 18,000 Canadian Orangemen took part in the big international celebration of the Glorious Twelfth in Port Huron today. It is estimated from the details of the lodges which participated in the big five-mile long parade that nearly 23,000 Orangemen and their friends marched from Military street to Pine Grove, where programs of speeches and sports were carried out.

Rev. W. H. Graham of Stratford presided, and after welcoming the American and Canadian delegates, declared that the principles of the order are still the same and the confidence of Orangemen in the justice of these principles as great as ever. The difference between the principles of the two great parties represented by the Orangemen and those opposed to them he claimed are as great as the differences between two gods.

Speaking briefly of the so-called Irish Republic, he said that he was glad to know that the United States did not want an Irish Republic, as evidenced by the fact that neither party had accepted such a plank in its platform.

Urged Aggressiveness.

Rev. C. F. Clarke expressed pleasure at the great success of the celebration, and urged his hearers to a great aggressiveness in the interests of truth and Protestantism.

Wm. McLean Doig, Port Huron, paid a tribute to the part that the Orangemen of Ontario had taken in the great war. He did not believe that the United States would ever recognize such a thing as an Irish republic. "We do not forget that while Canadians, Scotchmen, Englishmen, Frenchmen and Americans were conscripted for the war, the Irish were the only people who escaped conscription and who, while the war was on, gave such aid as they could to the Huns. Yet these people want to be given self-government." In concluding he advocated one school, one flag, one law and one language.

Other speakers were William Taylor, state grand master for Michigan; R. F. Lesueur, Sarnia; Rev. Andrew Wood, Port Huron, and Rev. Keen Ryan, Chicago, grand chaplain of Illinois.

DISMEMBER EMPIRE.

WINDSOR, July 12.—At one of the most enthusiastic gatherings of Essex Orangemen held in the history of the county, Rev. D. W. Collins of the Church of Ascension, at Kingsville today, addressing members of the order, declared Irish independence the first step toward dismemberment of the British Empire, and consequently, if the Anglo-Saxon race were broken up, would be a retarding step in the progress so closely bound up with ideals of civilization.

He urged close adherence to Orange principals to offset De Valera's $6,000,000 campaign of evil propaganda against Britain, and appealed to members of the order to assume their obligations to undertake the defence of the British throne, preservation of the empire, the integrity and observation of the principles of the Protestant Reformation.

5,000 AT STRATFORD.

STRATFORD, July 12.—Orange and blue were conspicuous on the street today, when several ladies' lodges joined their male relatives in celebrating the "Twelfth" and helped to make up the 5,000 paraders who wended their way to the park, where the day's program was carried out. Lobo, St. Marys, Woodstock, Oxford and Listowel were well represented, each of these lodges bringing bands with them.

Following the parade a band contest was held, and the banners were judged. Thep rize for the best piccolo band went to Ingersoll, second to Brantford; largest lodge in parade won by Wallace Lodge 1347; largest ladies' lodge, Palmerston, L.O.B.A. 248; best Orange primary lodge banner, Wallace 1347; oldest member in parade, W. H. Jelly, Rochester.

The second part of the program was given over to speechmaking, at which G. F. Gilliland, C.M., of South Perth, was chairman. Ald. John Roberts welcomed the visitors on behalf of the city.

One School, One Language.

Rev. Capt. Appleyard of Woodstock spoke briefly on Orange ideals and how important it was the French language should not be taught in our schools. "We want one school and one language," said the speaker. "Is to eliminate the state from the education of the young. They are determined to keep the Bible a closed book."

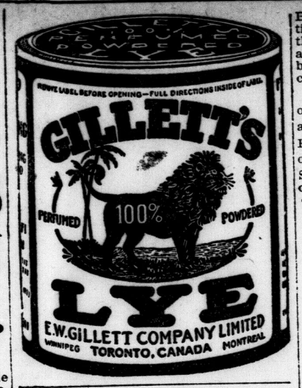

Equal Rights For All.

Rev. Dr. Cobourn, past grand chaplain of Ontario West, said: "We stand for equal rights to all and special privileges to none. We do not wish to deprive the Roman Catholics of any privileges we have, but they want special privileges in the matter of separate schools and language."

H. B. Morphy, K.C., M.P.P., D.G.M., B.A., Listowel, emphasized most particularly the loyalty and patriotism of the Orangemen during the great war, and specially the general response made by the men of Northern Ireland to the call for men.

Rev. W. H. Dunbar of Listowel dwelt on the attrocities committed in Ireland against the imperial soldiers and the Protestant people, and blamed the Catholic religion for the attitude taken in South Ireland. He advocated the policy of one flag and one language. He also condemned the legality of allowing the Catholic priets to annul a marriage solemnized by a Protestant minister. Mr. Dunbar wished no toadyism to the Catholic element in Canada.

Rev. G. A. McKenzie praised the valor and courage of King William of Orange who had made Protestantism the great and glorious force it is in the world today. It was he who made it possible for the pilgrim fathers to embark on their perilous expedition to an uncivilized continent to found a democracy where all would have a right to their own religion.

With the aid of a delatone paste, it is an easy matter for any woman to remove every trace of hair or fuzz from face, neck and arms. Enough of the powdered delatone and water is mixed into a thick paste and spread on the hairy surface for about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This completely removes the hair, but to avoid disappointment, get the delatone in an original package.—Advt.

Why Teeth Glisten

Millions of them—a new method

All statements approved by high dental authorities

You see glistening teeth now wherever you look, for millions clean teeth in a new way. We offer you here a ten-day test, to show the results on your own teeth.

The fight on film

Dental science has found a way to combat film on teeth — the film that dims teeth and destroys them.

Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not dissolve it, so brushing has left much of it intact. And very few people have escaped its damage.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea, which attacks 95 in 100.

Now, after years of research, a way has been found to combat it. Able authorities have amply proved its efficiency. Leading dentists everywhere now urge its daily use.

And millions of people now employ it, largely by dental advice.

The method is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. Two other new factors are combined with it. And this tooth paste is inaugurating a new dental era.

Free to all who ask

A ten-day test of Pepsodent is sent to all who ask. Also a book to explain the results. The method quickly proves itself.

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to day by day combat it.

Pepsin long seemed impossible. It must be activated, and the usual agent is an acid harmful to the teeth. But science has found a harmless activating method, so pepsin can be every day applied.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

Do this for your own sake and your family's sake. Nearly everybody suffers from this film. Cut out the coupon so you won't forget.

SHIP OF STATE IS IN DRYDOCK, LACKS A CREW

"Capt." Meighen Expects the Most of Old Crew Back At Ottawa.

PARTY WITHOUT MANDATE

Cronyn Cabinet Possibility, But Meighen Fears Election in London.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, July 12.—The Ship of State is in drydock, its keel covered with barnacles, and for the time being minus a crew. Captain Meighen is whistling for a wind and looking for some rope-handlers. Capable navigators cannot be secured and are little needed in any case. The old crew may mostly come back after a short respite ashore, and as the next voyage will be but a short one, it will suffice for the purposes.

The barnacles on the keel cannot very well be torn off until the Ship of State has gone into fresh water—general election waters. They have accumulated while the vessel lay becalmed for the past few years on the sargasso sea of political drift and indecision. To abandon the figurative, Premier Meighen now constitutes the whole Government of Canada, with the lone exception of Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, who submitted to being sworn again as minister of marine and fisheries, and then went off to St. Andrews for a vacation. Other ministers, most of whom were opposed to Mr. Meighen being selected, will submit to like dignity being imposed on them, even including Hon. J. A. Calder, who in the session of 1919 declared, "Now I believe it to be my duty to stay with the task I have assumed until demobilization has been completed and our soldiers returned." Mr. Calder probably had reference to the next war when he spoke.

Without a Mandate.

In the meantime Premier Meighen, head of a new party without a mandate, and exponent of a new platform without public indorsation, is striving hard to secure a few new men to fill vacancies which cannot be filled with the ministers at present at hand. Of cabinet timber of a mediocre sort he has a considerable quantity. But its only qualification which counts in his selection is ability to win a by-election. It is easy for Premier Meighen to choose new ministers, but with these the people in the end have the final choice, and they are liable to differ with Mr. Meighen.

Hume Cronyn of London has been looked upon as a strong possibility, but in his present company the Government fears he could not be re-elected in London, and in any case it is not intended that the new Liberal and Conservative party shall be liberal in anything but name.

Hope for Patronage.

There are evidences among the former stalwart workers of Conservatism of an anticipation that with the incoming of a straight Conservative Government under a straight Conservative leader, patronage will be restored and the faithful rewarded.

E. K. Spinney, M. P. for Yarmouth, is here tonight and saw the premier. It is rumored that he will be called into the cabinet without portfolio. With portfolio he would be compelled to seek re-election, and a by-election in Yarmouth would be fraught with grave danger to the Government's candidate.

ENOUGH GOVERNMENT AT OTTAWA NOW FOR 50,000,000 PEOPLE

Declared W. C. Kennedy, M. P. For North Essex, in Address Last Night.

WINDSOR, July 12.—"The whole trouble is, there is too much government at Ottawa. There is enough machinery down there to run a country of 50,000,000 people instead of 9,000,000, with the result that millions of dollars are being spent uselessly. Since the signing of the armistice 26,000 people have been added to the payroll of the Dominion Government, and once there they become a permanent fixture and generally with no prescribed duties."

So declared W. C. Kennedy, Liberal M. P. for North Essex, during a conference with the retail grocers' section of the Border Retail Merchants' Association, in session tonight following receipt of an appeal from the London Retail Grocers' Association to join in a concerted effort with similar organizations in other centres to protest the recent ruling of the Dominion Board of Commerce, which compels grocers to submit a monthly statement of all sales to the Government.

Another Expense.

"The board of commerce," said Mr. Kennedy, "is but another expense to the people. If the grocers did comply with the request, not only would it increase costs to the consumer, but hundreds of thousands of dollars of further expense would be entailed by the Government in the employment of a staff to check over the reports properly, and if they are not checked over, why submit them at all? So many systems have been inaugurated by the Government and given free rein that manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers have been loaded with tasks, not only impossible to fulfill, but useless."

Falling in line with the program of the London dealers, the local organization passed a resolution characterizing the edict of the board of commerce as a heavy imposition that would add to the cost of necessities to the ultimate consumer, increase overhead expense to retailers, enforce employment of a large staff of accountants almost impossible to obtain, and would actually accomplish no good.

S. S. GLENLYON RAMS G. T. R. FREIGHT PIER

Narrowly Escapes Colliding With Two Ships At Point Edward.

SARNIA, July 12.—While proceeding down stream at a good rate of speed today the S. S. Glenlyon of the Playfair Company, had to change her course to avoid colliding with the sailing schooner Hattie Hutt, and almost immediately afterwards change it again to clear the sandsucker Charles Heiden with the result that before the way on her could be checked she had rammed the G. T. R. freight pier at Point Edward and freightshed at a tangent completely demolishing it for a length of 125 feet. The damage is estimated at $5,000. The Glenlyon was only slightly damaged, and was able to proceed on her journey.

STRIKE IS AVERTED.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 12.—Danger of a street railway strike here with tie-up of electricity and gas has been averted for the present.

VETERANS ASK OTHER UNIONSTS TO RESIGN ALSO

Sent Letters Demanding That They Follow Burnham's Example.

TORONTO, July 12.—The resignation of J. H. Burnham, M.P. for West Peterboro, has given the Grand Army of United Veterans its cue for a united onslaught on the Ontario members of the Unionist party. Provincial Organizing Secretary Fred Marsh today sent out a letter to all the local members of Parliament, pointing out the reasons on which the organization bases its demand for their resignation.

STEAMER IS RELEASED.

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 12.—After having been stuck in the mud in Maumee Bay during the night the passenger steamer State of Ohio, was released this morning and towed into Todelo. The boat, with few passengers aboard, was bound for Cleveland, having left port here at 11 o'clock last night. The passengers were removed and brought to Toledo during the night.

FLAVELLE WILLING TO TAKE CHANCE ON LEGALITY OF ACTION

License Board Chairman Says He Will Go Ahead Until Case Is Heard.

TORONTO, July 12.—With reference to the seizure of large liquor shipments at Windsor and the holding up of delivery until the consignee can prove that the liquor is for his own use, J. D. Flavelle, chairman of the Ontario License Board, said today: "We are going to proceed with it until we gain or lose a case."

Chairman Flavelle said there was only one magistrate for Windsor, Ford, Walkerville and Sandwich, and it would be some time before the magistrate could get around to any of the license board's cases.

Chairman Flavelle said that probably a good deal of liquor was being shipped from Toronto and smuggled into the United States, as well as from the border cities and towns.

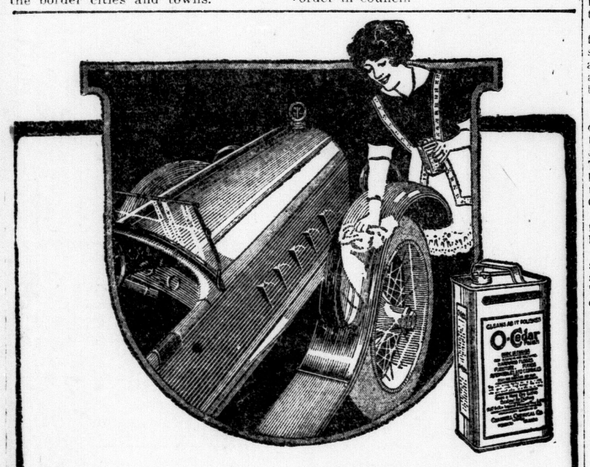

EXTENDS TIME FOR VETERAN TO APPLY FOR HIS GRATUITY

Orders-in-Council Passed Also Provide Payment To Widows.

OTTAWA, July 12.—Provisions that will prove of great benefit to the returned soldiers, their widows and dependents are contained in the orders-in-council just passed by the Government, indorsing certain important recommendations recently submitted by the parliamentary committee on re-establishment.

The first order-in-council extends the time in which a man who served overseas may apply for his gratuity. The time originally set as the limit in which he might apply was July 1, 1920, but this has been extended to March 31, 1921.

The payment of the dependents' portion of the war service gratuity to widows of deceased soldiers is authorized for the first time in the second order-in-council.

Make it Gleam as When New

UNDERNEATH the coat of dust that covers your car, hides a radiant brilliance, that a cleaning and a polishing with O-Cedar will restore to its glistening newness.

Remember how proud you were of your car's appearance the day you bought it. You will be equally proud of it after a little rub with O-Cedar Polish, and delighted to notice that the hard, dry brilliance does not collect dust easily. What little does collect may be removed with a cloth or an O-Cedar Duster.

Best of all is the fact that O-Cedar will prolong the life of the varnish. This feature in itself is a joy to every enthusiastic motorist.

O-Cedar is the Polish that brightens and preserves floors, woodwork and furniture. It is just as effective as a Polish that will prolong the life of the varnish on your motor car.

O-Cedar Polish in bottles, 25c. and 50c. In cans, $1.25, $2.00 and $3.00. At your Hardware or Grocery Shop.

O-Cedar Polish Mop, without handle, $1.50.

The handle — 54 inches in length—is 25c. extra.

DEVIL'S SHOAL SCENE OF ANOTHER TRAGEDY OF THE GREAT LAKES

Capt. D. Willman, Cleveland, Drowned From Stranded Steamer Baltic.

OWEN SOUND, July 12.—Capt. D. William, of the 5,500-ton coal carrier Baltic fell off his boat Saturday night six miles from Tobermory and was drowned. The Baltic was inward bound to Byng Inlet with coal from Toledo. Just after leaving Toledo she rammed another boat, and when she ran on Devil's Island shoal Friday afternoon the captain felt very badly about it.

The tug Harrison was dispatched from Owen Sound to the Baltic's assistance, but was unable to release her, and left the stranded boat on Saturday after the lighter Reliance of the Soo had been sent for.

Body Recovered.

Saturday night four men who were off duty and lying in their bunks in the forward part of the boat saw a dark object pass window and heard a splash They immediately rushed on deck and lowered a boat, but it was three-quarters of an hour before the body of Capt. William was found.

The body was taken to Wiarton, and from there shipped to Cleveland, where his wife and four children live.

Whether the captain slipped on the sloping deck and fell in, or whether his act was intentional will never be known. The Baltic was pulled off the shoal Sunday night by the tug Redeves.

LET US HAVE SOLDIERS IF NECESSARY TO STOP ILLEGAL LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Said Rev. N. W. Crewe in Scathing Arraignment of Border Conditions.

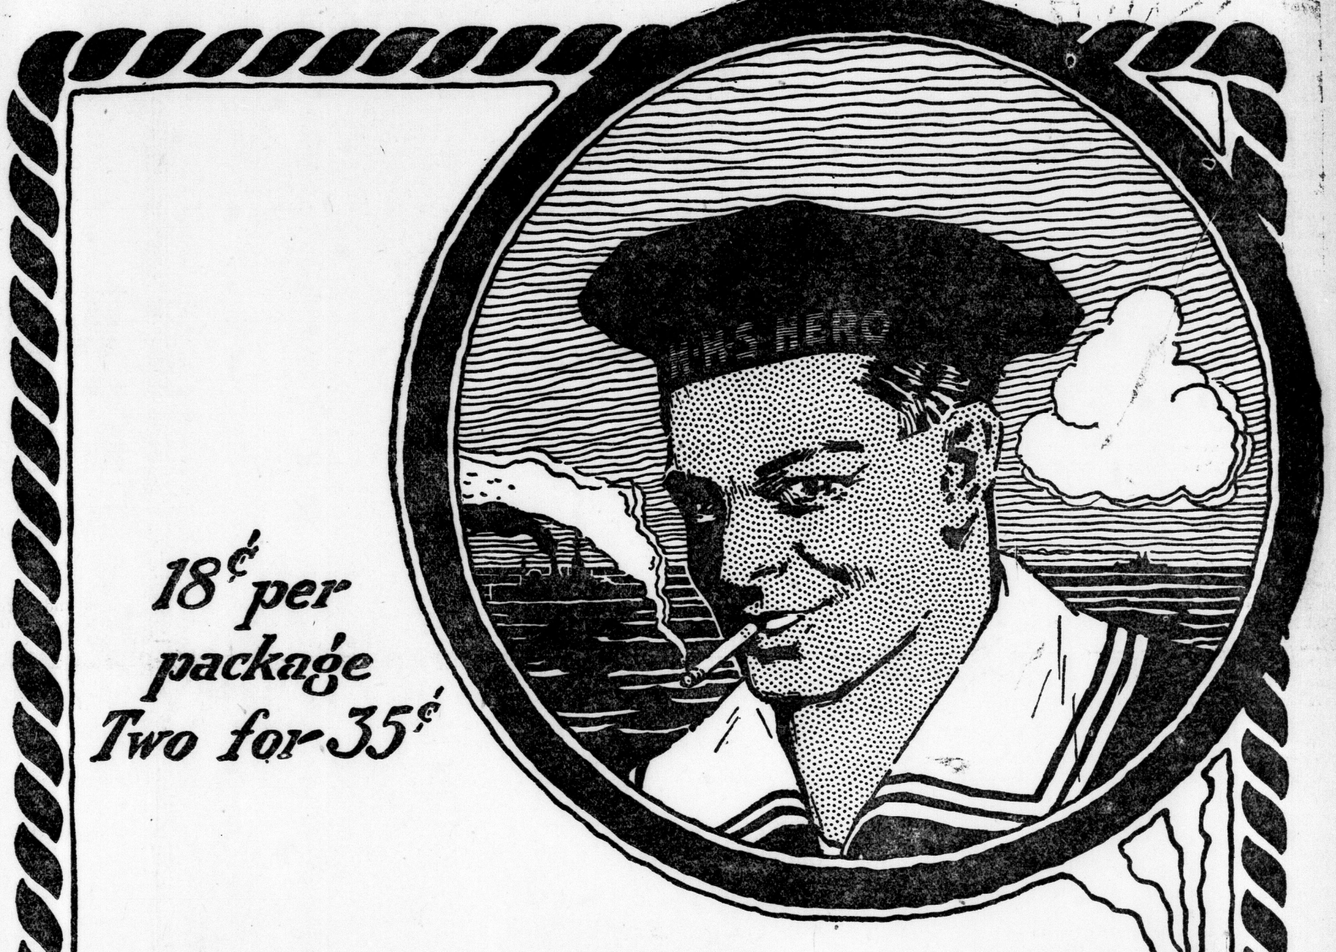

WINDSOR July 12.—"If it requires detachments of soldiers to patrol the entire Canadian frontier along the Detroit River to put an end to the conditions which have for some time past been affecting so seriously the good name of the Border Cities, let us have soldiers," is the emphatic attitude of Rev. H. W. Crowe, pastor of Central Methodist Church, as expressed here in scathing arraignment of liquor traffic and the kindred evils associated with it, said to be proceeding in flagrant manner on the Essex border.

Appealing to Methodists throughout the district to rally in the fight to rid the border of the term now commonly applied to it by outside places as "the plague spot of Ontario," he said: "There are men today selling their souls in this traffic. They tell me that men in high places are associating themselves with conditions which we knew exist. Some man who has lived in our community for years and who was considered to be of moderate means, suddenly becomes rich, buys a splendid house, car and other luxuries. Years hence, in passing that mansion, people will say, 'There is a house which was built by money made in bootlegging.' The stigma will never be removed nor forgotten."

The pastor in conclusion likened Windsor to Sodom and Gormorrah, and reiterated his plea that if necessary a body of troops be sent here to curb the liquor evil.

INCOME OF RAILWAY.

TORONTO, July 12.—The net income of the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway Company, which operates between Toronto and Welland, Ont., for the year ending December 31 last, was $338,521, or $563,986 less than the net income for the previous year. The surplus was $78,981. The profit and loss surplus now amounts to $2,537,718, and the total assets are $15,449,061.

EUGENIE AND THE EMPIRE.

The passing of the ex-Empress Eugenie is not likely to excite much sympathetic feeling in France. Fifty years have passed since Napoleon fell into German hands, and his wife and child fled to England to escape the fury of the French mob, but there has been nothing revealed since then that softens the picture of the degenerate, dissolute court of this political adventurer and political adventuress, who, by their intriguing and scheming, led their country into a disastrous war, and sowed the seeds of hatred and national jealousies that fruited in the recent great European war.

Napoleon III., like his great uncle and namesake, was ambitious to found a dynasty in France. He sought a wife in the royal courts of Europe, but the princesses drew their skirts about them and refused to recognize him. It was then that he married Eugenie, a lady whose parentage would scarcely bear scrutiny. She had beauty and the social graces that were demanded by a court, but neither she nor the emperor had the ability to discriminate between those entitled to recognition and those who were merely self-seekers. The consequence was that the court was infested with penniless adventurers, newly-rich bankers, stock jobbers, political schemers of all kinds, not to mention gamblers and crooks. The description which Nicholas Murray Butler recently gave of some of the supporters of Gen. Leonard Wood might be applied to the court of Napoleon and Eugenie. Napoleon's chief adviser was his illegitimate half-brother, a cool, cynical man of fashion, completely master of the under-currents of Parisian politics, business and society.

It is to the credit of the French people of the time that they were not deceived by Napoleon or by Eugenie. The emperor was regarded properly as a charlatan, the empress as an upstart. The Royalists stayed away from court, and the middle classes and peasantry tolerated the empire because it acted as a bulwark against the revolutionary socialism which they feared would seize their savings. Professor Schapiro, in his history of Europe, says that "under the great Napoleon these two elements, the peasants and the bourgeoisie, had combined against the old nobility; under his nephew they combined against the working class."

A court like that of Napoleon, brilliant with a forced brilliancy, was the ground in which seeds of war quickly matured. Napoleon himself regarded a war policy as essential to his ambition, but his practice was to associate himself with allies; in case of victory he could claim the credit, and in case of defeat he could put the blame on the others. In 1854 he joined England and Turkey in making war on Russia. In 1859 he joined Sardinia in a war on Austria. In the early sixties he intervened in Mexico, and supported the Austrian Prince Maximilian and his Carlotta in their tragic effort to establish monarchy in the new world. Unfortunately for Napoleon and for France, his last war had to be fought without an ally, and against a power whose strength he sadly underestimated. The circumstances leading to the Franco-Prussian war are familiar. The perfidy of Bismarck has been much dwelt upon by historians, and well deserves the utmost condemnation for all time, but even Bismarck's forging of the Ems telegram would not have brought on war had there not been a reckless war party in the French court. This war party was headed by the Duke de Gramont, minister of foreign affairs, and by Eugenie. They prevailed upon the emperor and his prime minister, Ollivier, to make unreasonable demands upon King William, and his refusal was used by Bismarck to make "a red rag for the Gallic bull." A few months later Napoleon was a prisoner, and his consort a refugee in England.

English sympathy was decidedly with Germany during the war, but the English people received the royal refugees with consideration. Napoleon died in England three years later, and his widow made her home there or the rest of her life. She had been provident enough to amass a huge fortune during the heyday of the empire, and this was transferred to England. It has been stated that the whole of the fortune estimated at thirty millions, has been let to the church.

Here's hoping the Tecumsehs make the Saginaw Aces look like the deuce.

You are a "rummy" if you don't run rum, is a popular sentiment along the border these days.

In reply to many inquirers: Canada's new premier pronounces his name as if spelled "Mee'een," the "h" being silent, as in "mud."

Commenting on the Government's decision to investigate the hydro radial scheme, a contemporary thinks that Mr. Drury "lacks courage and vision." On the other hand, he has an abundance of common sense and caution—most desirable qualities in political leadership today.

HON. MACKENZIE KING'S SPEECH.

Helped to end near-civil war in Colorado.

The Research Work.

The results of my work for the Rockefeller Foundation are published in book form. I think some honorable gentlemen may have heard of the book; and here let me say that I am sure the House will realize how extremely embarrassing it is to anyone to be obliged to make a reference to his own work. But honorable gentlemen will also realize, I am sure, that if I simply make a general statement such may not prove sufficient under the circumstances. I am therefore obliged to make specific reference to some portion of the work accomplished in this connection. That is my apology and my reason of necessity for referring to one or two things which I wish to place before the House for consideration. Whether the results of my study bear at all helpfully upon the problem of reconstruction or not, honorable members will be able to see for themselves by referring to the book. It is entitled "Industry and Humanity: A Study in the Problems Underlying Industrial Reconstruction." The book consists of some 550 pages, exclusive of charts and diagrams. Every line of it was written in the city of Ottawa; every page of proof was read in this city; all of the research work was done in Canada. It was done during the war, and the book itself was published before the armistice had been concluded. The Canadian editions have been published by Thomas Allen of Toronto, the American by Houghton-Mifflin of Boston and New York, and the English by Constable & Co.

I presume the impression that in some way or another I was connected with the so-called Rockefeller interests grew first of all out of this association with the Foundation to which I have referred. It may also have grown out of the fact that in the early years of the war I spent quite a little time in the State of Colorado, and later accompanied Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jun., through the mines of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company. May I say to honorable members that the reason I went to Colorado at the time I did was because there had been a situation there very much in the nature of an industrial civil war—it was the most serious industrial situation on this continent, I went of my own volition, under direction or suggestion from no one. I had been given a perfectly free hand by the Rockefeller Foundation to do what I thought best in the way of carrying out the work which the trustees of the Foundation had given me the opportunity to perform. I felt that if it were possible to demonstrate in the State of Colorado, under conditions such as existed there, that the application of certain principles to the relations of employers and employees could not do other than operate in a manner that would be helpful alike to labor, capital and the public, it would be rendering a service to industry in a place where, and at a time when it was very greatly needed. The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company was one of the companies which had been affected by the strike. It is the largest concern in that state. It employs somewhere in the neighborhood of 12,000 workers in coal mines, iron mines and steel works. Like other steel and coal companies, its help was required to provide essential war supplies, and it had orders from the Allies to be carried out. Because of the Rockefeller interest in that company, I believed that my association with the Foundation might gain for me an exceptional opportunity, which it did. I am not going to refer to my work done in that connection. It was work done in public, and honorable members can find out its scope and significance for themselves if they are sufficiently interested in so doing. All I wish to state at the moment is that for that service—or whatever measure of service it may have been possible to render in the State of Colorado—I received no payment from any interest or from any individual directly or indirectly concerned with any of the companies with which I had to deal. I undertook the work as a part of the opportunity afforded me by the Rockefeller Foundation, and I carried it out wholly in that spirit.

If the House will permit it, I should feel deeply obliged if, at the conclusion of my remarks, I might be allowed by general consent to place on Hansard one statement which I think will accurately reveal the nature of the work done in Colorado. It is from an authority which no one in this House will question, and is an article which appeared in the Toronto Globe of October 13, 1915, entitled "Solving Colorado's Civil War, by J. A. M." The article is by Dr. J. A. Macdonald, who at the time was editor-in-chief of the Globe, and who visited Colorado while I was there engaged upon the work to which I have just been referring. It was written by Dr. Macdonald at the time, was published in the Globe, and is of record there. If the House denies me the privilege of placing the article on Hansard, honorable gentlemen who may be interested at all in discovering the significance of that work or the truth concerning it, will be able to do so by a reference to the files of that paper.

Solving Colorado's Civil War.
By J. A. M.

I had spent the whole day interviewing all sorts and conditions of men, and gathering all sorts of views about the one question of universal interests these days in all these mountain mining regions—Mr. Rockefeller's plan for the complete reorganization of the mining industry in the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, in which he holds 40 per cent of the stock, and to whose conditions he has been giving a direct and personal interest during the past fortnight wholly without precedent in the history of capital and labor.

Last week in Toronto we had Associated Press dispatches to the Globe describing this unusual trip of Mr. Rockefeller, his meeting with men of all grades in all the camps and in the pits, his conference with them face to face, and his proposals to them for a fresh pack and a new deal. The dispatches mentioned Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King as being the magnate's guide, philosopher and friend.

Mackenzie King's Work.

Almost the first man I met after reaching Denver, two days ago, in the rotunda of the Brown, was Mackenzie King. He had been in Colorado a great deal of his time since joining the Rockefeller Foundation. At the very beginning of his work as chief executive for the study at first hand of industrial relations, Mr. King stipulated that the mining camps of Colorado, where long industrial strife issued in actual civil war, and where the Foundation itself is a larger holder of corporate securities, provided an immense laboratory for a comprehensive study of the essential facts, the root causes of industrial disturbances and the lines of policy to be adopted if industrial war is to make way for co-operation, prosperity and peace.

The root idea of the old policy on both sides, both capital and labor, was competition. In the new policy the root idea is co-operation. If the seed of co-operation is nourished and comes to full fruitage it may yield co-partnership. I did not find that Mr. Rockefeller balked at the idea of capital and labor coming to be partners in the industrial world.

It was both interesting and significant to observe the effect of the young man's personal touch on men whose hostility was deep-seated and fierce. The great body of the miners, voting by secret ballot, after hearing him expound the plan, and studying it in its fully-printed form for several days, voted almost unanimously for its approval. A newspaper man who went the rounds of the camps, and whose sympathies were socialistic and anti-capitalistic, confessed to me that what he saw at close range convinced him that Rockefeller is absolutely sincere, resolved to meet the men far more than half way, and has accepted the principles of industrial co-operation with an honest mind and a serious purpose. This view I found to prevail among the Denver newspaper men. A Chicago journalist who came to Colorado to curse returned to Chicago to bless.

A Straightforward Man.

This indeed was the impression made on my own mind by frank conversation and close observations. I did not find this young capitalist other than very straightforward and humanely sympathetic. He accepted the obligations of great wealth and stupendous industrial responsibility as a man "who must give an account."

It was not difficult to observe the reflex influence of Mackenzie King's personality and teaching on the life and program of John D. Rockefeller, Jun. I confess that I had real misgivings about King's decision last year to undertake work with the Rockefeller Foundation. I feared its reaction on his out outlook and life work. After observing the situation in Colorado, the change of front not by King, but by Rockefeller, and studying the testimony of newspaper men and others, who assured me that all this that Rockefeller has done is in reality the result of King's careful study of industrial problems in the mines, and of his competent exposition of it to Mr. Rockefeller and his associates, I am entirely reassured. Nor was Mr. Rockefeller at all reluctant to give Mr. King full credit.

NEWSPAPER ECONOMICS.

The sensational rise in the cost of paper is likely to affect the daily newspaper much as the high cost of living affects us, the gentle readers thereof. As the prices of eatables, drinkables, wearables, and, in fact, every concrete factor of our daily lives have soared, we have had to deny ourselves one by one the little luxuries that oiled the wheels of life, until at present most of us are fighting stiffly to obtain the bare necessities.

"Quite different," said Breton. He, too, was regarding to handwriting with great interest. And Rathbury noticed his keen inspection of it, and asked another question.

"Ever seen that writing before?" he suggested.

"Never," answered Breton. "And yet—there's something very familiar about it."

"Then the probability is that you have seen it before," remarked Rathbury. "Well, now, we'll hear a little more about Marbury's doings here. Just tell me all you know, Mr. and Mrs. Walters."

"My wife knows most," said Walters. "I scarcely saw the man—I don't remember speaking with him."

"No," said Mrs. Walters, "you didn't—you weren't much in his way. Well," she continued, "I showed him up to his room. He talked a bit—said he'd just landed at Southampton from Melbourne."

"Did he mention his ship?" asked Rathbury. "But if he didn't it doesn't matter, for we can find out."

"I believe the name's on his things," answered the landlady. "There are some labels of that sort. Well, he asked for a chop to be cooked for him at once, as he was going out. He had his chop, and he went out at exactly one o'clock, saying to me that he expected he'd get lost, as he didn't know London well at any time, and shouldn't know it at all now. He went outside there—I saw him—looked about him, and walked off toward Blackfriars way. During the afternoon the cap you spoke of came for him from Fiskie's. So, of course, I judged he'd been Piccadilly way. But he himself never came in until ten o'clock, and then he brought a gentleman with him."

"Ah!" said Rathbury. "A gentleman, now? Did you see him?"

"Just," replied the landlady. "They went straight up to twenty, and I just caught a mere glimpse of the gentleman as they turned up the stairs. A tall, well-built gentleman, with a grey beard, very well dressed as far as I could see, with a top hat and a white silk muffler round his throat, and carrying an umbrella."

"And they went to Marbury's room?" said Rathbury. "What then?"

"Well, then, Mr. Marbury rang for some whiskey and soda," continued Mrs. Walters. "He was particular to have a decanter of whiskey; that and a siphon of soda were taken up there. I heard nothing more until near midnight; then the hall porter told me that the gentleman in twenty had gone out, and had asked him if there was a night porter—as, of course, there is. He went out at half-past eleven."

"And the other gentleman?" asked Rathbury.

"The other gentleman," answered the landlady, "went out with him. The hall porter said they turned toward the station. And that was the last anyone in this house saw of Mr. Marbury. He certainly never came back."

"That," observed Rathbury with a quiet smile, "is quite certain, ma'am. Well, I suppose we'd better see this number twenty room, and have a look at what he left there."

"Everything," said Mrs. Walters, "is just as he left it. Nothing's been touched."

It seemed to two of the visitors that there was little to touch. On the dressing-table lay a few ordinary articles of toilet—none of them of any quality or value; the dead man had evidently been satisfied with the plain necessities of life. An overcoat hung from a peg; Rathbury, without ceremony, went through the pockets; just as unceremoniously he proceeded to examine trunk and bag, and finding both unlocked, he laid out on the bed every article they contained and examined each separately and carefully. And he found nothing whereby he could gather any clue to the dead owner's identity.

"There you are!" he said, making an end of his task. "You see, it's just the same with these things as with the clothes he had on him. There are no papers—there's nothing to tell who he was, what he was after, where he'd come from—though that we may find out in other ways. But it's not often that a man travels without some clue to his identity. Beyond the fact that some of this linen was, you see, bought in Melbourne, we know nothing of him. Yet he must have had papers and money on him. Did you see anything of his money, now, ma'am?" he asked suddenly, turning to Mrs. Walters. "Did he pull out his purse in your presence, now?"

"Yes," answered the landlady with promptitude. "He came into the bar for a drink after he'd been up to his room. He pulled out a handful of gold when he paid for it—a whole handful! There must have been some thirty to forty sovereigns and half-sovereigns."

"And he hadn't a penny piece on him when found," muttered Rathbury.

"I noticed another thing, too," remarked the landlady. "He was wearing a very fine gold watch and chain, and had a splendid ring on his left hand—little finger—gold, with a big diamond in it."

"Yes," said the detective thoughtfully. "I noticed that he'd worn a ring, and that it had been a bit tight for him. Well, now, there's only one thing to ask about. Did your chambermaid notice if he left any torn paper around—tore any letters up, or anything like that?"

But the chambermaid produced had not noticed anything of the sort; on the contrary, the gentleman of number twenty had left his room very tidy indeed. So Rathbury intimated that he had no more to ask and nothing further to say just then, and he bade the landlord and landlady of the Anglo-Orient Hotel good-morning and went away, followed by the two young men.

"What next?" asked Spargo, as they gained the street.

"The next thing," answered Rathbury, "is to find the man with whom Marbury left this hotel last night."

"And how's that to be done?" asked Spargo.

"At present," replied Rathbury, "I don't know." And, with a careless nod, he walked off, apparently desirous of being alone.

CHAPTER V.
Spargo Wishes to Specialize.

The barrister and the journalist, left thus unceremoniously on a crowded pavement, looked at each other. Breton laughed.

"We don't seem to have gained much information," he remarked. "I'm about as wise as ever."

"No—wiser," said Spargo. "At any rate, I am. I know now that this dead man called himself John Marbury; that he came from Australia; that he only landed at Southampton yesterday morning, and that he was in the company last night of a man whom we have had described to us—a tall, grey-bearded, well-dressed man, presumably a gentleman.

Breton shrugged his shoulders.

"I should say that description would fit a hundred thousand men in London," he remarked.

"Exactly—so it would," answered Spargo. "But we know that it was one of the hundred thousand, or half million, if you like. The thing is to find that one—the one."

"And you think you can do it?"

"I think I'm going to have a big try at it."

Breton shrugged his shoulders again.

"What?—by going up to every man who answers the description, and saying, "Sir, are you the man who accompanied John Marbury to the Anglo——"

Spargo suddenly interrupted him.

"Look here!" he said. "Didn't you say that you knew a man who lives in that block in the entry of which Marbury was found?"

"No, I didn't," answered Breton. "It was Mr. Elphick who said that. All the same, I do know that man—he's Mr. Cardlestone, another barrister. He and Mr. Elphick are friends—they're both enthusiastic philatelists—stamp collectors, you know—and I daresay Mr. Elphick was around there last night examining something new Cardleston's got hold of. Why?"

"I'd like to go around there and make some inquiries," replied Spargo. "If you'd be kind enough to——"

"Oh, I'll go with you!" responded Breton, with alacrity. "I'm just as keen about this business as you are, Spargo. I want to know who this man Marbury is, and how he came to have my name and address on him. Now, if I had been a well-known man in my profession, you know, why——"

"Yes," said Spargo, as they got into a cab, "that would have explained a lot. It seems to me that we'll get at the murderer through that scrap of paper a lot quicker than through Rathbury's line. Yes, that's what I think."

Breton looked at his companion with interest.

"But you don't know what Rathbury's line is," he remarked.

Poetry and Jest

THE NATURALIST ON A JUNE SUNDAY.

[Lenora Speyer.]

My old gardener leans on his hoe,
Tells me the way that green things grow
"Goin' to church Why, no;
All nature's church enough for me!"
Says he.

"Preachin' o' flower and choir o' bird,
And the wind passin' through the plate—
Sweetest service that ever I heard,
That's straight!
Eternal feast?
What for, friend?
Gimme a swarm o' bees to tend,
A honey-makin', world without end,
That's what I'd like the best!
(Scoop 'em right up an' find the queen,
They'd not sting me—the bees ain't mean!)
Heaven's all right!
But still I guess I'll kinder miss
The Lady Lunar moth at night,
And the White Wanderer butterfly,
Crawlin' out of its chrysalis!
I want my heaven human, too.
'Twixt me and you—
Why, I'd just love to see
A chipmunk hop up to the Lord,
An' eat right out of His dread hand,
Same as it does to me!
Eternity—eternity—
Don't it sound grand
But, say,
What's the matter with today
Just step into the wood an' take a look!
Ain't that a page o' teachin' from the Holy Book
'He that hath eyes to see,
An' ears to hear'—
That's good enough for me!
I guess God's pretty near,
He'll understand I know,
Why, I ain't in no hurry to let June go!"

My old gardener turns to his hoe,
Helping the green things how to grow.
"The missus can go to church for me!
Amen!" says he.

SUSPENSE AND EXPENSE.

[Rehoboth Sunday Herald.]

Her sweetheart had decided to emigrate. Tomorrow he would be off to Canada in search of fame and fortune.

Tender farewells were the order of the day, or rather night; slowly Maud and Harry bade each other a fond adieu by the hat stand, then on the door mat, and now they were repeating it on the doorstep.

In the dining-room father was pacing to and fro, anxiously and angrily trying to estimate the cost of the gas bill in these hard times. Gingerly he opened the door and listened.

"Answer me, Maud—answer me!" came in gushy whispers from Harry's manly throat. "Answer me now, darling. I can bear this suspense no longer!"

"Yes; answer him, Maud," came an appealing cry from the dining-room. "I can bear this expense no longer."

THE GODS.

[E. C. Holt in Westminster Gazette.]

When we were young, the gods, I think,
Were passing brave and tall;
We only saw them through the chink
In heaven's jeweled wall.
And gladly did the poets sing.
And hearts were bold, I ween,
When every boy was like a king,
And every girl a queen.

But now that we are old and wise,
The world is older too:
No more we seek to bridge the skies,
As once we vowed to do.
Unread, the songs of Arcady
Encumber dusty shelves.
For we have climbed the hills, you see,
And we are gods ourselves.

THE ONLY REASON.

[Life.]

"Well, I hear there'll be no more strikes."

"Why, haven't the poor old public any money left?"

MY AUTOMOBILE.

Squeak, squeak, squeak,
In my awful old bus, O gee!
And I would that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me.

Oh, well for the garageman's purse,
That he can't seem to find out the cause.
Oh, well for the dealer's hide.
That he's a long way away from my claws.

And the stately boats roll by,
Believe me, 'tis a bitter pill:
And oh! for the thought of a banished squeak:
And the thought of a car that is still.

Squeak, squeak, squeak,
At the foot of a junk-pile, Gee!
But the steady nerves of a day that is dead
Will never come back to me.
—With apologies to Alfred Tennyson.

THESE H. C. L. TIMES.

[Louisville Post.]

Once it was the might of a dollar, but now it's the mite of a dollar.

TO AN OLD CANOE.

[H. Louis Raybold in Rod & Gun.]

On, ever onward, through blue slipping,
Bow on the beckoning trail,
Sped by the noiseless paddle, dipping, dipping,
Onward, past hill and vale;
Straight to the sky line, if the course be clear,
Or 'round each changing point, as it draws near;
This was your rightful life, your heritage inborn,
Avoyaging to go—
Ah, many a star we've watched grow pale and many a morn in radiant colors glow!

Frail though your frame, you stood me staunch and true,
Tried in the lashing storm;
Breasting the waves, you rode the whirlwind through,
Straining your slender form;
And oft, in moonlit path that pierced the sea,
You drank the witchery of night with me!
Far from the city's clamor, far from restless dreams
And hurried people's strife,
You gently took me to cool woods and singing streams,
The sweeter ways of life.

Yet must I leave you, by grey age o'ertaken,
Bow in the pinetree's shade,
Spent with long years of service, travel shaken,
Broken your paddle blade;
And if some spring you feel the old-time thrill,
Which subtly lures the spirit to its will,
And, on the season's flood embarked, you heed the call,
Once more adrift to go—
Fear not the rapids white—beyond each waterfall Lie quiet pools below.

ALL COMFORTS OF A HOME.

Miss Manchaser—I should think that some time you would tire of your selfish, solitary existence and yearn for the joys of domestic life.

Mr. Oldbatch—Oh, I don't miss those joys very much. You see, I have a talking machine and a cat that rubs up against me and purrs whenever she wants anything and the bills my chauffeur runs up are outrageous.

MADE HIM NERVOUS.

[Tit-Bits.]

"It is an established fact," said the lecturer, "that the sun is gradually but surely losing its heat, and in the course of seventy million years it will be exhausted; consequently, this world of ours will be dead, and, like the moon, unable to support any form of life."

The head and shoulders of an excited member of the audience rose above those of his fellows.

"Pardon me, professor!" he cried. "How many years did you say it would be before this calamity overtakes us?"

"Seventy millions, sir," said the professor.

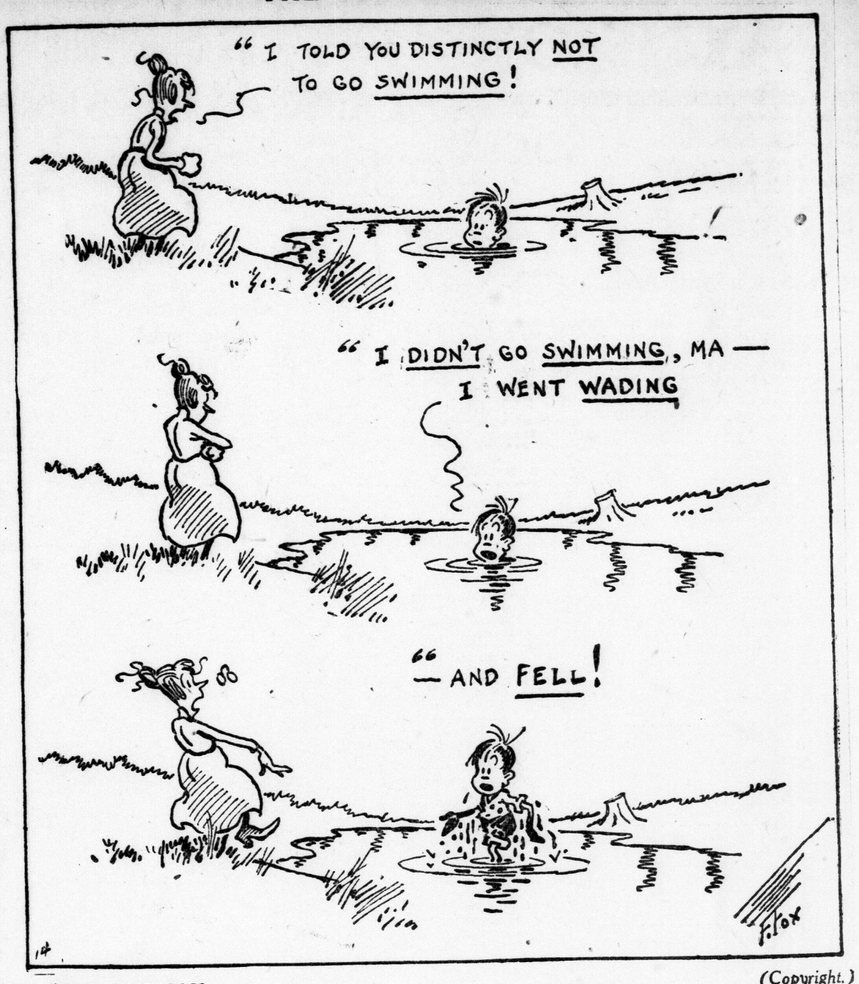

"Thank heaven!" gasped the interrogator, sinking back exhausted into his seat. "I thought you said seven millions!"

"Flu" Makes the Hair Come Out

Specialist Offers Simple Home Recipe To Stop Loss of Hair and Make It Grow Again.

People who had the "Flu" this past winter and who now find their hair coming out badly, will be interested in the suggestion of a well-known Hair Specialist, who says: "Anyone can easily and inexpensively make at home a recipe which, in my opinion, is unequalled for stopping loss of hair and making new hair grow out again thick, glossy and luxuriant.

You get from any druggist 6 oz. Bay Rum, 2 oz. of Lavona (de Composee) and ½ drachm of Menthol Crystals. Mix together and allow to stand overnight before using. Rub thoroughly into the scalp with the finger tips or a stiff brush.

This prescription is perfectly harmless, acts quickly and neither dries out the hair nor makes it greasy. But ladies using it should be careful not to get it on the face where hair is not desired.—Advt.

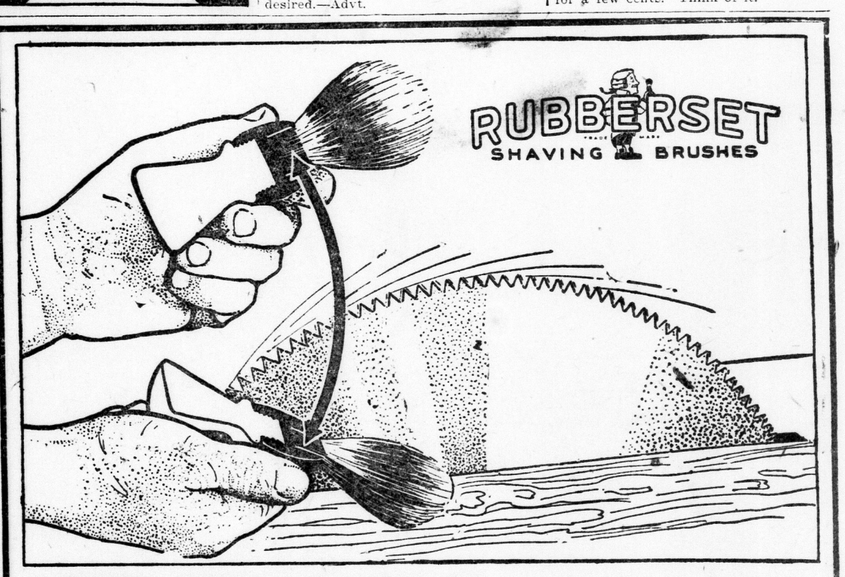

"TIZ" FOR SORE, TIRED FEET—AH!

"Tiz" Is Grand for Aching, Swollen, Tender, Calloused Feet or Corns.

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, aching, tender, sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions.

No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions.

Get a box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try "Tiz." Get a whole year's foot comfort for a few cents. Think of it.

Z-ZIP! and it never lost a bristle!

IT'S that everlasting grip of hard rubber that holds them! Incidentally, it may not be out of place to remind you that a hard rubber grip is the only one so far discovered that will hold the bristles in a shaving brush regardless of the effects of soap or soil, of heat or cold, of flood or drought, of use or of old age. You couldn't say that of brushes in which the bristles are just temporarily caught in pitch, glue, cement, resin, shellac or similar substances. Well, hardly!

AND in buying a brush of our make, your investment is safeguarded by the guarantee: RUBBERSET must make good—or WE WILL! You know that if, through any fault of ours, the brush should fail to measure up to standard, you may return it to us and receive in its stead a new one of similar style and price. We don't begrudge you the new brush—we thank you for turning in the unsatisfactory one! That kind of a policy makes both of us winners.

RENFEL MISSION CLOSES YEAR WITH OBJECTIVE PASSED

$1,110 Raised Including Value of Labrador Bale.

The annual meeting of the Grenfel Mission was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Little on Friday afternoon last, the reports of the various officers showing that the local interest in this work has grown greatly during the past year, and the membership roll stretched out considerably. The objective of the society for the past year was $1,000, including the value of the bale sent to Labrador. They exceeded this objective, raising in all $1,110.50, including the value placed on the bale. This amount represents, voluntary contributions mostly, as the only attempt to raise money by the society was the garden party held recently at the home of Mrs. Becher. At the meeting a resolution of thanks was passed to Rev. Mr. Warner, Miss Ruth Kingsmill, Mrs. A. G. Hewton and Mrs. A. E. Brown, who kindly assisted with vocal numbers at the garden party.

The following contributions have been made recently to the mision: Mrs. Harry Young, $2; Ladies' Aid of the Robinson Memorial Church, $5; Ladies' Aid of Wortley Road Baptist Church, $5; Mrs. J. K. McDermid, $2; Mrs. Ronald Harris, $2; Mrs. E. B. Smith, $5; Miss Milly Harris, $2; Mrs. Leslie Turner, $2; Miss Shannon, 2 knitted caps; Mrs. McIntyre, $1; Mrs. A. V. Becher, $5; Miss Shaw-Wood, $2; Mrs. Wyckoff, $2; Mrs. Donald McLean, $2; Miss McPherson, $5.

The officers elected for the coming year are as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. Becher, Sen.; honorary vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Reid; president, Mrs. A. Little; vice-presidents, Mrs. George Reid, Mrs. Donald McLean, Miss Shaw-Wood; treasurer, Mrs. Archie Becher; secretary, Mrs. Harris Elliott.

SOOTHES IRRITABLE THROAT; QUICKLY CURES BRONCHITIS

No Drugs to Take. No Sickening Stomach Medicine to Use.

JUST BREATHE "CATARRHOZONE."

Count ten—a bad cold is relieved by Catarrhozone—wait one minute and you will feel its soothing influence on a sore, irritated throat. No failure with "Catarrhozone"—it cures because you can breathe a healing vapor to the very spot that needs help.

The big thing to remember about Catarrhozone is this—you just breathe a healing, piney vapor that is full of the purest balsams, that is rich in the greatest healing agents known to science.

This wonderful vapor dispels all soreness, kills all germs, gives nature a chance to complete a real cure.

Colds and throat troubles can't last if the pure, healing vapor of Catarrhozone is breathed. Catarrh will disappear, bronchial attacks will cease, coughs and winter ills will become a thing of the past. Complete outfit lasts two months, price $1.00; smaller size 50c; sample size 25c, all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston.

Miss Howie is spendling a brief holliday at Orchard Beach, Port Stanley.

Miss Louise Diknoether has returned to the city after a two-weeks' visit in Buffalo.

Mrs. William Lamb, her two daughter and Miss Cannell are holidaying at Port Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Merryfield of Gibbon, Nebraska, formerly of this city, are visiting in London.

Misses Anna and Angeline Antonache of Philadelphia are visiting their mother, Mrs. M. Antonache, King street.

Mrs. E. B. Smith has returned from Hamilton after attending a meeting of the National I. O. D. E. executive there.

Miss Thompson of Port Arthur on July 19 takes over her new duties as superintendent of the Victoria Home for Incurables.

Miss Florence Coppersmith of Chicago, formerly of London, and a prominent figure in the Zionist movement, is visiting her grandmother in this city.

Miss Elsie Mitchener of Toronto will be in the city for several days to rehearse her repertoire with Mr. Willgoose prior to going on a two months' concert tour.

Rev. N. D. and Mrs Drew announce the engagement of their daughter, Vera, to Mr. W. B. Scandrett, son of the late Mr. W. B. Scandrett and Mrs. Scandrett, the marriage to take place shortly.

The pretty summer cottage of Mrs. W. D. I. Wright, Port Stanley, was the scene of a very happy gathering yesterday afternoon, when the members of the Seventh Regiment Chapter met there at the tea hour to bid farewell to one of their members, Mrs. M. Lee, who is leaving shortly for England. The regent, Mrs. Randle Brown, on behalf of the chapter, presented her with a handsome seal week-end bag, with ivory fittings. She was also showered with quantities of handkerchiefs and miscellaneous articles of that sort.

SHEPPARD—JOHNSON.

Miss Maude Johnson was married to Arthur Sheppard Saturday afternoon by Rev. H. B. Ashby, rector of St. Matthew's Church, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Frederick James, 8 Wyatt street. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. James. Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard, upon their return from a wedding trip to the Border Cities will reside at 1066 Florence street.

ANDERSON—SHOULDICE.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Shouldice, Elmsdale Farm, Shouldice, on June 30, when Lucinda J., second daughter of the late W. J. and Mrs. Shouldice, became the bride of Rev. E. L. Anderson, B.A., of Bayfield, son of Rev. and Mrs. S. Anderson, Clinton, Rev. S. Anderson conducting the ceremony, assisted by Rev. T. W. Hazelwood of Listowel. The bride entered the drawing-room leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. J. Shouldice, to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus," played by Miss Lavina Fleming, and took her place under an arch of ferns and marguerites, banked with palms. She wore ivory georgette and satin, with a graceful veil of silk chiffon adorned with orange blossoms, and carried Sweetheart roses. Miss Mabel Stockfish, a graduate nurse of the Kitchener Hospital, was bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by Mr. V. W. Shouldice, brother of the bride. During the signing of the register, Mrs. T. W. Hazelwood, sister of the bride, sang.

The wedding breakfast followed, the dining-room being tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers suspended from the ceiling, where a white wedding bell hung over the centre of the bride's table. The streamers were draped to the corners of the table, and held in place by pink peony buds. Toasts were proposed to the bride by Rev. S. Anderson, and responded to by the groom. Later the bride donned her traveling suit of navy taffeta, with navy hat and taupe marabout, and left with her husband for their new home in Wellburn. The bride's classmates at the General and Marine Hospital, class of 1919, Miss Lillian Sheffield, and Miss Miles, in pale pink, assisted at the breakfast. The guests from a distance were: Rev. and Mrs. S. Anderson, Clinton; Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Hazelwood, Listowel; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Findlay, Listowel; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shouldice, Massie; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shouldice, Shallow Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Foster, Annan; Mrs. C. P. Foster, Clavering; Mrs. John McAuley, Owen Sound.

BABY IN THE SUMMER.

Infant mortality is heavy in the summer months, especially in the cities. This is due to the dreaded "summer complaint" more than to any other one disease.

And what causes summer complaint, or cholera infantum, as this form of dysentery is sometimes called?

Usually impure milk, or impure water. The infant death rate in some big cities has been reduced by more than half, by the improvement of the milk supply. Therefore, the first thing to do for the baby, as the summer months come on, is to make sure about his milk. It is always of vital importance, but in summer, milk spoils so quickly that it is doubly difficult to get it good. If there is any doubt about your milk or water, pasteurize the one and boil the other, even for children 4 or 5 years old.

If a baby has diarrhoea, more than the normal two or three soft yellow movements a day, act promptly. Give him a teaspoonful of castor oil, and stop his milk, feeding him on strained barley gruel, and plenty of cool, boiled water until the diarrhoea is checked, put him back on his milk gradually, and increase the proportion of lime-water by a tablespoonful for a day or two. If the baby is really very sick, with vomiting and frequent motions of the bowels showing green or bloody mucus, get a physician right away.

Pure milk, fresh air, sensible clothing and regular habits are the best guards against summer complaint. For children over one year, whose diet is varied, care must be taken to keep their bowels open, their food clean and pure, and not let them play in the hot sun in the heat of the day. A rest time, even if they will not sleep, should be insisted upon for an hour after the midday meal.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

The little more, and how much it is!
The little less, and what worlds away.—Browning.

Veranda Chats.

If the demand does not yet exceed the supply could you send me one of the famous stocking-foot patterns? I have two little curly heads running around, so would love to get the pattern.

Inclosed find a bit for the fund. With best wishes for the Page. MOTHER.

Ans.—The supply of S. F. Patterns is inexhaustible, and am glad to send one to you, Mother. If you are refooting tiny hose, take a tuck in the centre of the pattern, and it will then suggest the size you want. Thanks for the fund "bit."

I saw in last night's paper, where Tony wanted the words of "Jim Blake, Your Wife is Dying," so am sending it along. And, Cynthia, I never yet received the recitation you promised me. The name of it was "Hey, Young Feller, Where'd You Get That Gal," so will you please send it along if you have it on hand, and oblige,

ANOTHER READER.

Ans.—I am sorry your request for above recitation has not been filled. Maybe someone can supply the poem.

This is my first letter to your much-beloved Mail-Box. Your Mail-Box does oceans of good to both young and old. I try to take time to read your interesting and useful epistles. I am a busy mother of two sturdy little boys, so I will just make one request and hasten away again. I would like to give a few useful hints, but I can't collect my thoughts tonight. I am making a table runner and would be very much pleased if some of the boxites would send me sample of lace for ends or medallions, also small edging for lace curtains. I would return patterns.

Wishing the Mail-Box every success, and thanking you in advance, I remain,

EVADA.

P. S.—Inclosed find a mite for hospital fund.

Ans.—Thank you for the hospital contribution and let us hope your first request in the Mail-Box will bring response from some of our experts in crochet work.

I thought I would drop in and make life a little pleasant for you, as it is a rainy day, and I just imagine I see you sitting at your desk tearing up letters, and throwing to the hungry W. P. B. How is the stocking-foot pattern hanging out? I got one, and it works great. Ta ta, for it.

Miss Grey, are you lonesome in your stuffy old office all day long. I am sending you a little fellow to keep you company if you are. I am sending the little fellow's father, too, because he may get homesick. I suppose you can see by my scribbling that I am only thirteen. But, don't blame me; it's the pen. Well I will close, with a mite for S. C. H.

OTER.

Ans.—Thank you Oter for the Teddy-chaps. They are very cunning, also we appreciate your contribution to the hospital fund. Can truthfully say, Oter that I am one of those persons who seldom gets lonesome, and you must not imagine Cynthia Grey spending her time "tearing up letters and throwing them to the W. P. basket." We do not expect letters of that inferiority in the Mail-Box.

I saw in a recent publication of The Advertiser a letter from one June Roses asking for a cure or at least a relief from rheumatism. Many have successfully tried this:

Cure for Sciatica—One quart best Holland gin, 4 ounces sulphur, 1 ounce tincture juniper berries, ½ ounce wintergreen. Dose—One tablespoonful after each meal, to be well shaken before taking.

Hoping that June Roses sees this and finds it of use, I shall sign myself,

PEGGY.

Looking over the Mail-Box of a March paper, I saw where Mrs. T. W. wanted the piece, "Take Me Back to Dear Old Childhood." I have the copy, which is as good as new, and she could have it for price, 35c, which I gave for it, along with a 3c stamp for mailing.

I have two crochet books, "The American Beauty" and "Crochet Novelties," which I will lend to anyone if they will send me one in their place.

I will crochet woolen tams, the crown and headpiece of a cap to be made up with ribbon or silk for summer, corners for dessers and commode scarfs and pillowshams, also medallions, for anyone and if they write me I will send them amount of crochet cotton and price.

Beware of Old Fogies.

An old fogy is a doctor of any age who needs a mental shave and whose therapeutic trousers are bagged at the knees. Often he has a large, and as the obituaries say, lucrative practice—so large and lucrative, in fact, that the man simply can't take time to read up on the progress of medical science. The old fogy has a way of explaining nearly all the ills his patients complain of by safety-first diagnoses. The trouble is indigestion, overwork, bad weather, nervousness, dampness, impure blood, coffee, catarrh or gas; and the patient is in a rundown condition, which, naturally, is sufficiently met with something which the old fogy lets on is a good tonic. The beauty of all these near-diagnoses is that they are changeable without notice in the event that the real nature of the illness should become manifest.

The old fogy takes his cue from the charlatan's almanac. He even goes so far, in some cases, as to pull such decrepit jokes as "liver complaint"—if the patient looks a trifle sallow or muddy—and "kidney trouble"—if the patient mentions backache.

To the old fogy medical man heart disease, save as a post-mortem guess, is pretty much a closed book. He arrives at a suspicion that his patient has a diseased heart about the time the neighbors begin to drop in to smoke a figurative pipe over the still lively corpse. But he is a popular man, and always has a large and lucrative practice, with patrons fairly rioting for a place inside his crowded reception-room. And he is so reasonable, too.

The great majority of cases of heart disease go unrecognized for years, first because the victims do not consider themselves ill enough to consult a doctor, what with so many sure-shot remedies available for every complaint they have to make; and, second, because there are so many old fogy doctors who are too popular and too busy and too reasonable to take the trouble to examine patients stripped. A great many cases of serious heart disease are unrecognizable as such, even by the most skilled physician, if the examination is limited to feeling the pulse and listening to the heart with or without a stethoscope. A stethoscope by no means stamps the doctor as a more skillful man than his neighbor who relies on the naked ear; it merely shows the doctor believes in safety first—real safety first, this time. He doesn't care to rub his ear on every chest that happens along, lest he catch something.

In short, a fairly complete physical examination is necessary in order to obtain even a fair conception of the functional condition of the heart—and no matter whether there be definite heart disease or not, the important thing to be determined is whether the heart is functionally efficient.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Breathing and Cats.

Perhaps fifty years ago I evolved my own way of deep breathing. Instead of holding the lungs expanded through use of the valve at the opening, I take a deep breath and hold it merely by use of the muscles of the chest and abdomen. This has been my unconscious or almost automatic practice every hour for many years, my purpose being to change the air in the farthest spaces of the lungs. I am surprised to find that you condemn deep breathing. Can you tell me whether there is anything in the old idea that a cat will suck the breath of a baby and thus kill the baby —I. S. L.

Answer—Your breathing practice is harmless, and as exercise of certain muscles, even beneficial. I condemn the practice of deep breathing by persons who have tuberculosis, because lung rest is the desideratum in such cases. I assert that deep breathing does not increase the oxygenation of the blood, as many people imagine it does, and as half-baked physical culture "authorities" and other charlatans of the modern type often suggest it does. The only way the oxygenation of the blood may be actually increased is by general exercise. The breathing is a function which is best left to regulate itself. Exercise creates the demand which is automatically met by deeper breathing. You can't reverse this process. The superstition of the cat sucking the baby's breath is wholly imaginary.

Ignorance Creates Fear.

. . .the specialist said it would be necessary to have an operation on the ear, through the bone behind the ear, in order to keep the pus from working into the brain. I have never heard of such an operation being successful and I dread it. —Mrs. R.

Answer—Such operations are uniformly successful. The successful ones are routine, uninteresting, soon forgotten, especially by the patients. The occasional unsuccessful one is of news interest and everybody hears all about it, and it is not quickly forgotten. The operation is safer than the condition unoperated on. Chronic running ear (middle ear suppuration), is always a menace to life.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

THE PERFORMING DOGS.

Part 1.

Roderick had never seen such pretty dogs before. He had always believed himself a rather nice little dog, but he was quite sure he did not look half so nice as these little dogs who marched along in such fine style. There were six of them, and all different—Tibby the foxterrier, Dandy the Boston, Wiffet the poodle, Ching the Chow dog from China, Mira the Maltese, and Mimso the spaniel.

Roderick was only a puppy, but he knew at once that these were the performing dogs who had been at the theatre that week, and had caused all the dogs in the town to wonder how it was they were so clever. No other dog had dared go near enough to the performing dogs to speak to them, for their master was right behind them with a whip in his hand and that whip looked as if it might be for intruders.

But Roderick came from a brave family. Indeed hadn't both his father and mother been Red Cross dogs in the war. They had come all the way from Belgium to Canada—so Roderick was a dog of distinction himself. He trotted boldly up to Tibby the foxterrier, but Tibby just ignored him. Dandy the Boston was the only one who would exchange greetings.

"Who are you?" asked Dandy.

"I'm Roderick, a Belgium shepherd dog," Roderick answered.

"You mean police dog," said Dandy. "They don't call them shepherd dogs any more."

"Don't they indeed!" exclaimed Roderick in wonder, for Dandy's tone was so sure he believed it. They walked along and chatted gaily, for Dandy was in a good mood and Rod was quite delighted in being noticed by such a clever dog, as he believed the Boston to be. It was surprising that the performing dogs' master did not send Roderick back, but truth to tell he was very glad Roderick was following them. He had wanted to have a Police dog for a long time, but they were so expensive he had not bought one. All unknown to Roderick, he was being lead into a trap. It was not until he had followed Dandy into a shipping crate at the station, and the door had been closed after him that he realized he was a prisoner. Poor Roderick! His adventures were about to begin.

[Rose Henderson, in Woman's Magazine.]

The streets were strange and lonely, and the town
Stretched bleak and garish with its strident cries.
A bit of human driftwood, up and down,
I passed, an alien under alien skies.

Then the cool silence and the book-filled shelves,
The readers all about me, gravely still;
We paused together, with our other selves,
And all the place grew radiant with good-will.

SCHWARTJE ON NEW JOB AT HAMILTON BEATS LOWLY PACK

Herman Allows But 5 Hits, While He Turns in 3--2 Win.

SOX GET BEST OF DUEL

2--1 Tally in Tenth Inning Gives Herbert, New Hurler, Verdict.

HAMILTON, July 12. — Herman Schwartje, purchased by the Hamilton club from Saginaw, won his first game as a member of the locals today. He held the Bay City Wolves to five hits, and in only one inning was he in trouble. That was in the sixth, when the visitors scored their two runs. Glen Cook, the Wolves' best pitcher was hit in the pinches in the first, third and fifth innings. The hitting of Blake and Zinn for Hamilton was the feature of a closse but very ordinary game.

KITCHENER AFTER McKEE.

KITCHENER, Ont., July 12.—Flint took the third straight game from the Beavers by a score of 11 to 7, after having won two in the Motor City across the line. The Vehics pulled off a double steal in the first inning and scored, and in the second pounded Lefty Schwartz out of the box, with four hits and five runs. Sharp pitched the remainder of the game. Landry retired tho Beavers in order in the first three, but was wild in the fourth, the home team scoring five runs and almost tied the score. Hays was sent in and prevented the Beavers from overcoming the early lead. In Kitchener's half of the fifth, Umpire McKee warned Manager Beatty for disputing his decision, and the crowd jumped the railing and threatened to mob the arbitrator, but no damage was done. VIC FLEMING DRIVES WINNER IN TOLEDO'S OPENING RACE CARD

Murphy, Valentine and Dodge Are Other Winning Drivers On Good Card.

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 12.—The opening of the Grand Circuit racing on the Fort Miami track was feature l today by spirited competition and fast racing. Close finishes were the rule.

Murphy, Valentine, Dodge and Vic Fleming won the honors of driving winning steeds. Murphy took the 2:15 trot behind Red Russell; Valentine captured the big end of the Fort Meigs $3,000 stake for 2:09 pacers behind Red Lancelot; Dodge won with Great Britton, the Sherwood 2:12 trotting stake, and Fleming, a Canadian driver, took three straight heats in the 2:12 pace for a purse of $1,200.

Favorites won in most instances, but a big upset came when Voltage, picked as the favorite in the Colt stake, lost to Miss Em. The shift paid about 30 to 1. There was a spill in this event, and the judges penalized Driver Ray for interference, distancing his horse when it went around the track trailing close to the winner. The summaries:

SEAFORTH STAGES TOURNEY ON JULY 21 AND 22

Fifty Rinks at Least Are Expected To Turn Out For Big Doubles Event.

July the 21st will see the opening of the largest Scotch doubles tournament ever staged in Seaforth, in which three trophies and $200 worth of individual prizes will be played for. The cups which are up for competition will be the new Savauge trophy, Stewart Brothers, which was put up for the first time last year and won by Heaman and Creech of Exeter, and the Free Press cup. All three cups must be won by a club three times before they become permanent property.

It is expected that there will be in the neighborhood of fifty or sixty rinks present to contend for the honors, when play commences at 9 o'clock on the morning of the 21st. Players from the east will be allowed a time limit owing to the train service from that direction.

Dominion rules will govern the tourney. Fifteen ends will be played. Before the tournament opens a civic welcome will be accorded the players by Mayor Harburn of Seaforth.

Carmen Whiffs 13 Aces in Listless Affair Ending 10-3

Saginaw Presents Changed Line-Up, But Same Stride, While Tecs Slug For 14 Hits—Carmen Forced in Two Runs On Walks.

Beyond Carmen setting a record in strike-outs for Tecumseh Park this season, having turned 13 back to the hands of the bat boy, London's 10 to 3 victory over the Aces had little to recommend it. The Aces showed a greatly changed line-up, and the same ability to lose, and that's about all they did hold up to the public's gaze.

In fact, Carmen shouldn't have been scored on at all. For six cantos he only allowed three widely distributed hits, and then in the seventh, when everybody was wreathed in smiles, and everything but the tea was on for a real social afternoon, Carmen lost the family plate. He started walking them with Wotell, and, aided by Pitt's and Dowling's errors and McKee's hit, he worked on the reverse gear until three runs were forced over. The Aces banged out a pair of hits in both the eighth and ninth, but Carmen let them die easy deaths on the bags.

As for the Tribe, they looked much as usual after their absence. They didn't take the game, nor Dodge, McKee's first moundsman, very seriously. Having by the end of the fifth, which marked the departure of Thamuel Dodge, on 11 hits, collected a nice, sizeable little bag of 8 runs, they were content to tally a counter in two succeeding frames, and in the social seventh charge themselves with two errors.

Two In Front.

They started out in the first to get two of their bag. Kennedy walked and Shay hit safely to first. Both were advanced on sacrifices and were scored by Briger's hit to the mound and Crichlow's choice.

In the fourth chorus, Crichlow and Pittenger both were safe on grounders to Dodge, the first going down to second on Sam's throw and Pitt stealing. Dowling's single scored Crich, and then along came Carmen with his smashing three-bagger to centre, scoring Pitt and Dowling. He was scored by Kennedy's single to the same garden. Shay remembered two successful bunts at Dodge, and performed the same painful operation on him, and then enticed Dodge into a prayerful throw to second, which escaped. Kennedy was scored by Calbert's sacrifice fly, and the next two were out.

In the fifth, Crichlow singled and Pittenger and the Mississipian were both safe when Wotell tried to cut the latter off at second. Dowling was out and Carmen walked when Kennedy's single to right brushed Crich across. Fisse's nice catch of Shay's curving pop and Calbert's out ended the affair.

Crichlow's three-bagger scored Joe Briger in the sixth, and in the seventh Kennedy, who had been given free transportation to first, scored when the Aces were getting Calbert, who had singled, at the second station. Dodson, who had come in from left field in the sixth, only allowed Dowling's single in the eighth.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN LEASED BY TEX RICKARD

New York, July 13.—Tex Rickard, boxing promoter, announced last night that he had leased Madison Square Garden for a period of ten years. He plans to hold boxing contests there and to rent the building when he is not using himself, for expositions, political meetings and circuses, which are traditions at the garden.

Glints From the Mint Diamonds

That's the fifth straight, so the natives are away on another streak.

• • •

The Aces and Tecs have been playing each other so long now that's is a real "George and Harry" affair.

• • •

Change of uniform hasn't certainly done Purcell, former Ham slugger, any good. He heard the umps say "you're out" no less than five times yesterday.

• • •

Wotell, who used to scamper around the outfield for the Vehics, played first yesterday and handled the job rather well.

• • •

Hegedorn and Fisse are switched at the short and second base positions, but it didn't seem to matter. Nothing did.

• • •

Calbert and Kuhn didn't have much luck yesterday. Both were using the wood, but nobody was late when their polings were sailing out to the outer works.

• • •

Crichlow had a great day at bat, getting two clean ones and a three-bagger for froth.

• • •

There wasn't enough excitement to draw Manager Wetzel from the dugout, if he had been there. He was in Toledo.

McKee limbered up by taking Dodson's place out in left. It's a hard job trying to live down a one-time connection with the Tigers.

The Beavers didn't use Joe Grace, the recruit shortstop from the Hamilton Harvesters, yesterday. He will be broken in this week, however.

This new person, Herbst, of Brantford, has broken in with a jump. He won at Bay City 6 to 1 for his second win for the Sox, and then yesterday notched the best of a duel with McMillan.

Tip O'Neil of the Flint Journal says: "Hick" Ferrell is going up, if he has a catcher and an umps. Hick's main complaint in life, outside the strenuous life he is forced to lead as a ballplayer, is that none of the umps are good enough to lamp the intricacies of his broad curve, nor can he get a catcher who can hold him. Hick will go all right, but it will be back to the land. His curves are a lot more deceptive from the stands than from where the umps poses.

Of the London game the Flint Journal says: "It was necessary for him to get four or five strikes off the Londoners in order to get a credit. If President Maines wants the Mint League to be a farce, and the Flint end of it to be a joke, then the best thing he can do is to give some of his umps a life job. Jack Carroll, in conversation with the sporting editor of the Journal today, said that he intends to put the screws on 'arguing' in the game. It's not before time, Jack."

Morrissette, according to Shag, has not been sold to Detroit, but will probably report to Navin field after the end of the Mint season. The Spectator says that Weinberg will not report until Thursday to the Hams.

The Tribe are now just working a week ahead of the Hams on games. How many ahead of Brantford? We regret to say.

ROSS WAS HEAVY WINNER AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, July 13.—Commander J. K. L. Ross was the leading winner at the Connaught Park spring meeting, and pouched $2,490, mainly through the running of his horse, Princeps, who won $1,515. The Seagram stable came next with $1,700. Dr. Joe was the second money-winner, taking down $1,400 for J. S. Tree. Frank Monroe, one of the most inconsistent horses on the Canadian circuit, was third with $1,200 to his credit, and Irish Jig fourth.

Little Richcreek, the diminutive pilot, is continuing his good riding on other tracks, was the leading jockey, with seven wins to his credit, six seconds and four thirds. He was unplaced ten times, but he was accorded some of the best mounts at the meeting and they carried him to his position. Little Yeargin had four meritorious wins to his credit out of twelve mounts. The rest did little to attract attention. Borgan led the steeple jockeys with two wins, and G. R. Allen topped the trainers' list with five wins.

FOUR RACES TODAY ON GRAND CIRCUIT

Toledo, Ohio, July 13.—There are four races on today's Grand Circuit program at Fort Miami Park. The events are well filled, and the track is fast. The racing is scheduled to begin promptly at 2 o'clock. The day's program consists of the 2:07 pace for a purse of $1 200, with eight starters; the 2:12 trot, for a purse of $5,000, with twelve starters; the 2:07 trot, for $1,200, and the 3-year-old pace for a purse of $1,000, with six starters.

R. Mercer, Won 1, minus 7.	W. Casselman, Won 3, plus 9.
A. Heffernan, Won 1, minus 14.	A. McLaren, Won 2, plus 2.

OPEN SORES

And Old Ulcers Healed By "ABSORBINE JR."

The difficulty of treating ordinary Ulcers, Old Sores and Varicose Veins has always been a source of much irritation to the physicians; and especially so, when the leg is involved.

The thing to do is to apply "ABSORBINE JR." The way this famous liniment relieves pain, reduces inflammation and swelling, promotes the growth of healthy tissue, and closes up old, stubborn sores, is astonishing.

"ABSORBINE JR." is a vegetable germicide that is absolutely safe; does not stain or grease the clothing; and gives certain relief for cuts, bruises, swellings, boils, felons and wherever there is pain.

ACTION TAKEN WILL DECIDE THE FATE OF RACING IN ONTARIO

Owners of Devonshire Park Charged With Keeping Gambling House.

WINDSOR, July 12.—The fate of racing in the province of Ontario next year will be decided in an action already instituted by Crown Attorney J. H. Rodd, representing the Ontario Government, against the Western Racing Association, owners and operators of the Devonshire racing plant, which closed its first meet of the season here Saturday.

In the case, which will come up for hearing locally on Thursday morning, the management is charged with owning and operating a common gambling house.

Crown Attorney Rodd stated tonight it was the intention to carry the prosecution through vigorously, while it is understood the racing association will appeal, no matter what the decision of Magistrate Miers may be in the case. Although, upon the ultimate outcome of the controversy will depend the future of racing in the province, this year's sport program will not be affected.

200 YARDS OF KING'S PRIZE FINISHES WITH NO POSSIBLES

Canadians Well Up, But Were Squaded Late For Event.

Bisley, July 13.—By Canadian Press.—A stiff breeze with a changing light tended to bring down the general level of scoring from yesterday's achievements, when the King's prize, the first stage, ten shots at 200 yards, was reached this morning. No possible was scored in the first couple of hours, though four competitors made 49. The Canadians were mostly squadded late.

Scores of those who shot early were: C. S. M. G. Goodhouse, Ottawa, and Pte. W. J. Irvine, Ottawa, 47; Sergt. W. A. Hawkins, Toronto, 45; Capt. W. J. Sangster, Falmouth, N. S., 44.

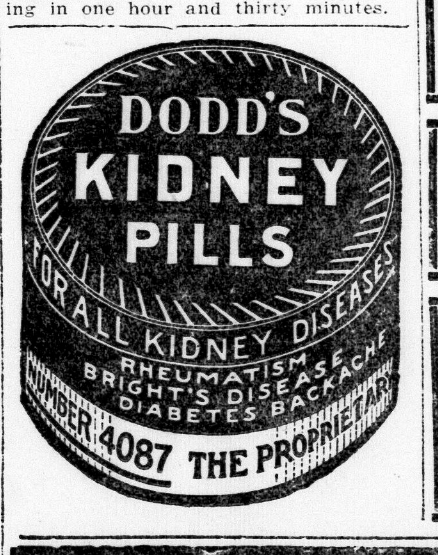

The King's prize is open only to past and present members of his majesty's forces. The winner gets £250 donated by the King, and the N. R. A. gold medal and gold badge. The next 99 marksmen get badges and money prizes and the next 290 get money prizes.

NIAGARA VICTIM WAS BARBER EXTRAORDINARY

NEW YORK, July 12.—Charles George Stephens, who was killed yesterday in going over Niagara Falls in a barrel, was a barber extraordinary. His hobby was performing spectacular stunts, for which he received three ribbons, five gold medals and six silver medals. His specialties included kissing a lion in its den, shaving customers in a lion's den, boxing in a lion's den, and parachute descents from a balloon.

Buys Health Automobiles

TORONTO, July 12.—Hon. Walter Rollo, minister of labor and health, has purchased sixteen motor cars for the department of health from a Dundas dealer, at a cost of something under $20,000. The purchase has been made through the good offices of Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of public works, whose purchase of motor trucks from a Dundas dealer some time ago was criticized because Dundas is Mr. Biggs' riding. It is claimed that through Mr. Biggs the health department was able to get a better price than might otherwise have been the case.

The cars are to be used by the district officers of health and the nine or ten nurses who are to organize throughout the province, in the smaller centres, community health centres.

NEW POLICE STATION IS IN ORDER NOW

Present Building Is Entirely Inadequate For City's Needs.

WAS BUILT 41 YEARS AGO

Motor Cycle Cops To Chase Speeders Are Also Required.

A prominent citizen makes the suggestion that when a new chief of police for London is appointed the civic authorities at the same time should take steps to erect a new police station. The present structure, which was built in 1881, is regarded by all in touch with police headquarters as entirely inadequate for the city's needs.

When about to be built 40 years ago the police station on Carling street was planned to meet the requirements of that era, accommodation being provided for but sixteen constables, the strength of the force at that time, and the said accommodation has not been increased since, although the number of constables on the force now numbers more than three times that of 1881. The offices built at that time are still in use, but everyone is cramped in the work, particularly the detective department, which is housed in a dingy back room.

Many Had to Stand.

Regarding the police court room proper, on Monday, when a case of local interest was heard, the chamber was taxed beyond capacity, many spectators being required to stand in the halls. With a host of witnesses occupying the spectators' seats, the frequenters of police court who do not attend by invitation are often denied their privileges by lack of space. The prisoners' box is often crowded, the overflow of unfortunates being seated with the witnesses.

Even the space in the garage at the rear of the station, where the police autos are parked, is at a premium, the officer in charge taking a special course in manoeuvring the patrol at each call.

Favor New Station.

Officials at the police headquarters here are heartily in favor of a new station, but entertain the opinion that things will have to be much more progressive locally ere it becomes a reality. They declare that the present site is an ideal one, situated in the business district and on a back street, but the grounds are far too small to house a structure in keeping with the present-day needs. They veto the suggestion of having police headquarters in the same building as the new city hall, pronouncing this experiment a failure in other cities where it was tried out.

In the opinion of the officials a sub-police-station in East London is also a necessity. They point out that a few years ago excellent quarters, involving an expenditure of $500 for equipment, was available in the East London town hall, but the authorities hesitated to spend the money.

Suggest Motorcycles.

Other innovations required here, they say, are motorcycles, to facilitate the capture of speeders, and they declare that the machines would pay for themselves in fines in a month. Mounted police are also deemed necessary by police officials, who maintain that they could supplant the motorcycles to a certain extent in the winter, and in summer could be used to patrol the outlying districts which at present are neglected because of the fact that they require several extra constables to patrol them, and such patrols would be unusually long with every chance of lawbreakers getting away with their nefarious work. If the mounted police were authorized, stables for the horses used by them would be necessary, and these could be erected in conjunction with the proposed new station. There is no available accommodation for them at present police headquarters.

GOVT. IS ENCOURAGING CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

Copies of the new "Co-operative Marketing Loan Act, 1920," recently passed by the Ontario Government, are now available from the branch offices of the department of agriculture. In substance the new act, which is intended to encourage co-operative associations in preparing agricultural products for markets and effecting their sale, provides that:

"The lieutenant-governor in council, upon the recommendation of the minister, may make a loan to any co-operative association, in accordance with the provisions of this act, for the purpose of acquiring lands, buildings, equipment and machinery necessary for the carrying out of the objects for which such association was incorporated to an amount not exceeding $3,000.

"Such loan shall not exceed 50 per cent of the appraised value of the property upon which the loan is to be made.

"Such loan shall be free of interest for a period of two years, after which time interest shall be payable at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, for the balance of the time for which the loan is held.

"Such loan may be repaid at any time at the option of the association, but at least 50 per cent shall be repaid at the end of five years from the date of the loan, and the remaining 50 per cent at the end of a further period of five years."

CLOSING ADMIRALTY OFFICES.

Vancouver, B. C., July 13.—Admiralty offices in Vancouver, in existence for three years, will be closed on July 31. When first opened they were in charge of Commander De Wet and latterly of Commander Redcliffe. The latter has, as yet, received no word of his future duties.

MAY TAKE VOTE ON PURCHASE OF STREET RAILWAY

Change in Act Permits Vote To Be Taken Any Time.

The possibility of a vote on the purchase of the street railway being taken before the end of the year, as the result of changes in the municipal act, is being discussed in city hall circles today.

According to unofficial information received at the city hall, subsection 3 of section 263 of the municipal act has been amended by allowing a vote at any time instead of only on January 1.

Previously to this a vote could be taken during the year only by the hydro-electric commission. This had considerable bearing on the street railway problem here. Many of the aldermen were willing for an immediate vote to be taken for the purchase of the road, but they wanted it run by the city and not by the hydro-electric commission. The amendment will make it possible for the city to take a vote of this nature at any time.

No official move for an election has been made yet, although it is possible that the question may be raised at the first regular meeting of the city council in September. This would not meet with the approval of all the aldermen, as it would then be so close to the end of the year that they would be in favor of waiting for the regular election date.

Other complications may affect the situation by that time. Street railway employees have only agreed to operate the road on the present basis until the end of the summer. Negotiations which they may then commence with the Ontario railway and municipal board may add to the possibility of an early vote.

REBUILDING OF DAM WOULD NECESSITATE NEW DISPOSAL PLANT

City Engineer Brazier May Go Ahead With Plans Soon.

Definite action to rebuild the Springbank dam will mean that an additional sewage disposal plant will be built on the river somewhere between the city and Springbank. It is claimed that little can be done toward beautifying the river or restocking it with fish so long as the raw sewage is pouring into it from several points, as at present.

Building a dam would make conditions worse, as it would hold back a large volume of the polluted water. One sewage plant is already in operation in the city and is proving successful. It filters sewage in such a way that the water which passes into the river is in practically a pure state.

City Engineer Brazier said today that if a move was made to rebuild the Springbank dam that the city work department would not be behindhand in preparing plans for a sewage disposal plant, which would insure the river water being clean.

MAY HAVE TO REMODEL ALL SLOT MACHINES

The appearance in London of the new one-cent coin raises the question what is to become of the old penny-in-the slot machines, which are constructed for operation by the larger-sized coin. The slot machine is not very common in London, and has never been adopted by the postoffice for selling stamps here, as in Toronto and other Canadian cities. Local merchants who have gum-vending and weighing machines in or outside their stores, state that no arrangements are yet in view for the reconstruction of these machines for operation by the smaller coins. Some of them are manufactured in Canada, and will probably be collected and sent back to the factories. Others are manufactured in the United States and will have to be replaced by new or rebuilt machines on which additional customs duties will be collected in any event.

SETTLEMENT BOARD WILL END SEPT. 1

After several years of service among the returned men of the district the local office of the soldiers' settlement board will go out of existence on September 1, according to an announcement made today. The soldiers' settlement work throughout the province will be looked after by one central office located in Toronto after that date.

The offices here have been in operation since during the war. They have been located in the Dominion Savings building, and have been under the charge of Capt. Hardy of this city.

NEW ENGLAND STATES LOOK FOR CONTINUED SPELL OF PROHIBITION

New York, July 13.—By the Canadian Press.—Under the caption, "New Brunswick Decides to Prohibit," the Times this morning discusses the result of the recent referendum in New Brunswick. The newspaper says the return of the Canadian troops from overseas has apparently made no relative change in the wishes of the people of that province, and adds:

"As there is no appreciable difference between the people of New Brunswick and New Englanders, except that the former call 'loyalists' those whom the latter call 'tories,' there seems to be small chance indeed of doing away with dryness on this side of the frontier line at its eastern end."

INTERIM INJUNCTION CONTINUED.

Halifax, N. S., July 13.—Judge Mellish, in supreme court chambers today continued until Friday next the interim injunction against striking marine workers picketing the entrances to the Halifax shipyards.

Deputy sheriffs informed the court that they had been unable to serve writs in the case of Chairman Borland and Secretary Greig of the Marine Workers' Federation, and counsel for the shipyards maintained that the presence of these two in court as defendants was essential to his presentation of the company's case against the strikers. The judge, accordingly continued the hearing, and the interim injunction, instructing the sheriff's officers to serve the writs on Borland and Greig by Friday.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

RASPBERRIES WERE PLENTIFUL TODAY AT 35 CENTS A BOX

More Than 100 Crates Are Offered On the Local Market.

Raspberries were offered in large lots on the market today. The officials estimate that there were more than 100 crates, all of superior quality. Some of the growers say the berries this year are not as good as last, but the grades are of the best. Prices today were 30c a box wholesale and 35c a box retail. This is slightly higher than last year, when the lowest quotation was 20c a box, but the ranging prices were from 22c to 28c a box. In many cases the growers cannot get pickers, and therefore much fruit is going to waste.

Strawberries were slightly easier this morning. The retail price dropped from 20c and 22c a box to 20c a box. Wholesale they went down from 22c and 25c to 22c a box.

Red currants were offered in large quantities, and prices remained unchanged.

Black currants were firmer. The retail price jumped from 22c to 25c a box. The wholesale price remains at 20c a box.

Gooseberries were plentiful and in good demand at 15c and 18c a box.

Cherries were offered in large quantities. The prices remain the same as they were all week.

The maximum price of beets took a drop of 10c to 40c a dozen.

Peas by the pod sold from 10c to 12c a quart. All week they have sold for 15c a quart. Shelled peas, that were selling at 40c and 50c a quart, sold on Tuesday for 40c and 45c a quart.

Eleven-quart baskets of butter beans were much easier. Prices ranged from $1 to $1.25. Last week the quotations were $1.50 to $1.75 a basket, but on Saturday they dropped to $1.25 and $1.50. The beans this year are of the very best quality. Quart boxes wholesale sold for 10c, and retailed from 12c to 15c. Beans are in good demand.

Old hay is scarce, and although new hay is coming in fast, the demand is active. The price is $33 a ton. New hay sells from $25 to $28 a ton.

Fat sows took a jump of 25c on the maximum price. They now sell for $15 to $15 25 per cwt. Live hogs also took a jump of 25c on the maximum price. Dressed hogs remain at $26 per cwt. A shipment on Wednesday is expected to put the price up considerably.

Oats are slightly easier today. The prices on Monday, which were $4 and $4 05, dropped to $3 95 and $4 per cwt. By the bushel they sell for $1 34½ and $1 36.

Butter and eggs were more settled than for some time. Prices took a big jump on Monday, but did not change today.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, July 13.—Oats opened ½c higher for July at $1 16½; October ⅝c higher at 93¼, and December ½c to ¼c higher at 85¾@86c.

Barley opened ⅞c higher for October at $1 38.

Flax ⅝c lower at $3 85 for October.

Chicago, July 13.—Opening: Corn—September, $1 58¼; December, $1 42.

Oats—September, 79½c; December, 77½c.

Chicago, July 15.—Absence of any reports of actual damage from black rust in the United States spring wheat belt tended today to check bullish sentiment regarding corn. The corn market was also bearishly affected by prospects of larger receipts of oats. On the other hand, reports were current that owing to black rust the United States spring wheat yield would be reduced 21,000,000 bushels, compared with the July 1 outlook. Opening prices, which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to ⅝c lower, were followed by a moderate upturn and then by a sag below the initial level.

Oats were relatively much weaker than corn. After opening ¼c to ⅜c down, the market rallied a little and then declined lower than before.

BUTTER AND EGGS.

Chicago, July 13.—Butter—Firm; creamery, 44@55c.

Eggs—Unsettled; receipts, 34,640 cases; at mark, cases included, 37@41½c.

CAPT. WILLMAN SUICIDES.

Wiarton, July 13.—Pulling his coat over his head to make certain of drowning, Capt. Willman of the steam barge Baltic, jumped into Lake Huron and ended his life. He had been despondent over a couple of accidents to his boat. He was 55 years old, and a native of Cleveland. The body was quickly recovered.

WALL STREET.

1:30 p.m.—Pools became more active at midday, Pan-American and Mexican Petroleum making extreme gains of 3½ to 6 points respectively, while Houston recovered its 6-point loss and an additional 3 points. These movements were ignored by the general list, steels, equipments and rails lagging.

STANDARD STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, July 13.—A fair amount of activity was displayed at this morning's session of the Standard Mining Exchange. Hollinger remained firm at 565, while Dome was strong, selling at 11.25. Lake Shore declined 2 points to 116. McIntyre sold down to 183, a loss of a point. Teck-Hughes sold at 10½, while Beaver was up a half point at 43½. Sales this morning approximated 35,705 shares.

MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE.

Montreal, July 13.—The stock market opened strong this morning, and during the first hour some very brisk trading took place. The paper stocks were again to the fore, and generally speaking they were above yesterday's closing levels. Textile was strong in the early trading. Riordon made a 3-point gain. Brompton went to the 150 mark, where it was steady. Sugar was another feature with a 2-point overnight gain. Other issues were steady.

This New Cement Makes A Superior Silo, Well, Trough

—Because It Is Waterproof Absolutely

In building construction where absolute waterproofness is imperative, the new SUPER CEMENT will fill a long-felt need.

This new cement was fully tested during the war and gave complete satisfaction in waterproof construction work for the British Admiralty, Air Ministry, War Office, Public Works, etc.

SUPER CEMENT is now being manufactured in Canada.

New Process The Reason

SUPER CEMENT secures its efficiency from a patented new process which greatly improves Portland Cement, and so increases its efficiency that it becomes absolutely waterproof.

This new process gives SUPER CEMENT a greatly increased bonding action. It enables SUPER CEMENT to adhere with greater tenacity to the particles of sand and stone and to bind them together in a stronger, denser waterproof mass.

In farm construction work, there is a big field for this new waterproof cement.

Take Silos for example:—

A silo should be waterproof absolutely—not only to keep out the rain, but also to prevent the moisture and acids contained in the silage from percolating through or being absorbed by the silo wall.

Tests have demonstrated that SUPER CEMENT Concrete is impermeable under a water-pressure of 200 lbs. per square inch and a gasoline pressure of 130 lbs. per square inch. In other words, it is absolutely waterproof, acid-proof, and non-absorbent even of odors.

SUPER CEMENT is ideal for wells, springs, and troughs where sanitation, cleanliness, durability and absolute water-tightness are essential.

For root cellars, hog pens, barn foundations, feeding floors and ordinary concrete floors, etc., the waterproof, sanitary and durable features of SUPER CEMENT are of supreme value. Don't be content with anything less than SUPER CEMENT.

Complete information, details of tests made by English and Canadian experts, etc., will be supplied on request. Address:—

Super Cement (America) Limited, Mount Dennis, Ont.
Distributors: Alfred Rogers, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BONAR LAW ADMITS PROPOSING ARMISTICE FOR RUSSIA, POLAND

Also Confirms Trade Agreement, But Refuses To Tell Terms.

LONDON, July 12.—Further official confirmation was given today that the Allies had made proposals to the Russian Soviet Government for an immediate armistice on equitable terms between Poland and Russia. This confirmation was given in the House of Commons by Andrew Bonar Law, the Government spokesman.

Mr. Bonar Law also declared that the Soviet Government had accepted Great Britain's terms for a resumption of trade between Great Britain and Russia.

When asked to state the terms of the trade agreement, Mr. Bonar Law declined to say more than that the message to Moscow dealing with the Polish armistice dealt also with the question of trade negotiations.

The question was raised whether the Allies had threatened if the Soviet Government declined an armistice that the Allies would defend Poland. Mr. Bonar Law would not give the details regarding this contingency, but he did say that the British negotiations did not involve recognition of the Soviet Government.

CREW HATES WATER; SHIP IS HELD UP

BOSTON, July 12. — The White Star liner Cretic has been held at quarantine since Friday, because the crew refuses to be washed. The detention involves 1,543 steerage passengers, and is costing the company about $20,000 a day. First-class passengers were allowed to land without bathing.

ANNOUNCES VILLA IS AGAIN BOTTLED UP

MEXICO CITY, July 12.—General Joaquin Amarro has Francisco Villa, revolutionary leader, in the State of Chihuahua, bottled up, following an encounter near Parral in which 500 rebels and 300 Federals participated, General P. Elias Calles, the war minister, announced today.

The rebels who left forty men in dead, wounded and prisoners, fled to the hills, according to the war minister.

Gustavus Adolphus Needed Spectacles

He lost his life for want of spectacles. On a November morning in 1632 he mistook enemy troops for his own, because he couldn't see better. Modern research has discovered that he was a myope (meaning near-sighted). No one then knew what a myope was, or that he was one.

It would have done him no good had anyone known, because glasses were still unknown, except in China. Everything that has been learned about them since then is available to you at the Brown Optical Company, five minutes from anywhere downtown, and in Montreal and Windsor.

TRIPPING LEADS TO ARREST OF THUGS WHO HELD UP AUTO

Victim of Outrage Recognizes Men On Train and Notifies Police.

WINDSOR July 12.—Tripping over the foot of a dozing pasenger on a train coming into Windsor from London resulted in the arrest of the two careless pedestrians, who were identified by the sleeping man as hold-up men who had robbed him and two friends on Wednesday of last week, many miles from where they were captured, the highwaymen having got in their work at New Hudson, near Brighton, Mich.

Help Up Party.

Two automobile thugs stopped William Andre, 1300 Sominole avenue, Detroit, general manager of the Detroit Commission Company and two companions while they were motoring. Pistols poked in his face failed to produce any results with Andre who knocked the revolver from his opponent's hand and fought until both bandits had knocked him unconscious with fist and gun butt. His head has been in bandages since. Then they removed $150 from him and $11 and a gold watch from one of his friends.

Arrested in Windsor.

Two days later Andre went to Toronto, and was returning home from a business trip when he was awakened by the stumbling thugs, and when they got off at Windsor he followed them into a restaurant, where he had them arrested. The pair, turned over to the Detroit police, gave their names as James P. Doran 34 Carrie street, and Leonard Hennigan, 1494 Canton avenue. The men are held on charges of robbery while armed.

DYNAMITE PROPERTY OF AGITATORS, SAYS EXPLOSIVE EXPERT

Bombs and Grenades Retain Strength—Dynamite Weakened by Exposure.

WINDSOR, July 12.—G. B. Frost, chemical expert of the Government, sent here from Ottawa to invesitgate the finding of 250 sticks of dynamite last week, together with five bombs and one powerful hand grenade on the outskirts of Ford City, after making a thorough examination of the explosives and the cache where they were found, tonight pronounced the opinion they had been the property of agitators along the border, and had been hidden some time. Some of the dynamite had became weakened in power through deterioration, but the bombs and grenades retained their original strength.

The former, wrapped in clothing bearing laundry marks which as yet have not been identified, bore the trade-mark of the Canadian Explosives, Limited, while the boxes in which they were packed bore the name of the Essex Provision Company, Windsor.

MEIGHEN WILL GIVE WESTERN PROVINCES CONTROL, IS CLAIM

WINNIPEG, July 12.—It is announced by an authoritative source that Premier Meighen has given his word that he will find a solution to the long standing problem of the West this year. He will, it is said, fulfill aspirations of the prairie provinces and at once transfer the control of natural resources to them. Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are to be given absolute control and ownership of mines and public lands. Water power and fisheries will remain vested in federal authority. The Dominion subsidy will be rearranged and slightly reduced, and the claims of Ontario and Quebec which prevented settlement a year or more ago will be discounted, it is said.

CENSURES CAPTAIN OF TUG FOLLOWING DROWNING ACCIDENT

TORONTO, July 12.—Captain John Pratt of the tug Weddell, was censured by a coroner's jury here tonight for negligence in connection with the drowning of Moses Metcalfe in Toronto Bay on July 7. Metcalfe and Captain Pratt were employed by a local contracting firm and at the captain's bidding Metcalfe was stepping from a small boat onto the tug when the tug started up and Metcalfe fell back into the water.

AUTO HITS INTER-URBAN CAR; OCCUPANTS ESCAPE

CHATHAM, July 12.—Several young ladies driving to this city from Kingsville experienced a narrow escape this morning when the car in which they were driving ran against an interurban car of the C. W. and L. E. radials on the Talbot road crossing near Cedar Springs. The front part of the car was badly smashed. The occupants escaped without injury.

A large number of Orangemen motored from this city in automobiles and converted motor trucks to Kingsville to join in the monster Orange celebrations.

Officials of the Chatham-Kent Motor League will erect a special danger sign at the Talbot road crossing over the C. W. and L. E. radials. There is a dip in the road at the crossing, and approaching motorists are unable to see the radial lines until they are almost on them.

MUST PROVIDE PROOF OF HIS NATURALIZATION

Pittsburg, Kas., July 12.—(By Canadian Press).—Representative Philip Campbell, who was born in Nova Scotia, cannot register to vote in the August primary until he produces proof of second naturalization papers.

Campbell is a widely-known resident of Pittsburg and has represented the third district in the House for nearly 20 years.

A new Kansas law requires that foreign-born residents must have their second papers in order to vote in Kansas. A complete new registration in Kansas cities also is required.

When Mrs. Campbell and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Campbell, appeared to register yesterday they could not present proof that Mr. Campbell's father, now deceased, had completed his United States citizenship. They were not allowed to register. Relatives said that Mr. Campbell, who will be here in a few days, had the necessary proof.

BORDEN EXTENDS SYMPATHY.

Ottawa, July 12.—(By Canadian Press).—Sir Robert Borden has sent the following telegram of sympathy to Mrs. William Dennis, in the death of her husband, Senator Dennis:

"My wife and I send heartfelt sympathy to you and your family in your very sad bereavement. Never have I met a more heroic soul than William Dennis. His life and record should be an inspiration to the young men of Canada. I mourn his loss as that of a very true and loyal friend during many years of political and personal association."

SELLS B. C. BONDS.

ARM BELIEVED TO BELONG TO STEPHENS FOUND

Tattoo Marks Likely To Aid in Identification of Member.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 12.—A right arm, believed to belong to Charles George Stephens, who lost his life in an attempt to go over the Horseshoe Falls yesterday, was picked up at the Maid of the Mist landing this afternoon. It is not possible to identify it with certainty. It is tattooed with a design of crossed hands and the words, "Forget me not, Annie."

The arm will be embalmed and an inquiry will be held.

POLICEMAN STARTS 2,000-MILE JOURNEY TO "FROZEN NORTH"

Takes Eskimo Prisoner Back For Trial Among Tribesmen.

OTTAWA, July 12.—(By Canadian Press.)—After making a patrol of more than 2,000 miles, most of it through the "frozen north" to bring an Eskimo, Ou-Hang-Wak, charged with murdering two of his compatriots, to trial in the "white man's country," Sergeant Douglas, R. N. W. M. P., has started on the return journey, taking his man back for trial in the north.

Douglas left for Montreal this afternoon with his prisoner, in company with Inspector Thomas, Corporal J. Small, and Constable A. Paquette, and expects to sail from Montreal on July 15 on the Hudson Bay sealer Muscopia for Chesterfield Inlet.

The Eskimo was brought to Dauphin jail, after being committed for trial at his preliminary hearing at Le Pas, Manitoba, and it was later decided to return him to the north and hold the trial among his own people. In this way it was hoped to bring home to the Eskimo population the fact that they must obey "the white man's law" even in the frozen north.

The mounted police party except to be about six weeks on their journey to the post at Chesterfield Inlet.

ILDERTON

ILDERTON, July 12.—The Ilderton Fair Board held an important meeting on Saturday evening. It was decided to increase the prize lists, and a thorough revision was made by the committees of each section, and in most cases substantial increases were made, especially in the horse and cattle departments. Judges of each section were selected, and it was decided to again hold the judging contest for boys. The fair will be held on Friday, September 24.

Construction work on the Farmers' Elevator has been held up owing to the scarcity of cement.

Haying has been slow during the past week owing to the frequent showers. Some Lobo farmers who cut early are done, but most of the hay crop is still to harvest, and it is said that some will now have to be left until after the fall wheat is cut, some fields of which will be ready for the binder this week. The prospects indicate a fine sample of grain.

A Pimply Face Or Poor Complexion Quickly Restored

Thousands of young men and women would be handsome and attractive were it not for unsightly pimples, blackheads, and rough uneven skin. Custom seems to recommend lotions and salves, but unfortunately their effect is but temporary. These disfiguring blemishes do not originate in the skin—their birth in every case goes further back, to the blood, which must be cleansed of humors before the pimples depart for good.

A physician who has made a careful study of such cases, says that the quickest cure comes from a blood-building medicine like Ferrozone. The minute Ferrozone strikes the blood its good work begins. Poisons and foul matter are expelled. Every trace of humor is driven out, and the whole life current is supplied with nutriment and health-giving qualities. You can always tell a Ferrozone complexion when you see it—the cheeks are clear and rosy, no signs of sallowness—the eyes are bright and expressive because rich, red blood is circulating through the whole system carrying health, energy and strength with it. Not only will all skin eruptions disappear, but an increase in vital strength, an all-round improvement will be apparent. No rebuilding tonic could be more efficient. Get Ferrozone today—good for young and old, for well folks and sick ones, too; 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

To Overcome Redness, Tan, Freckles, Blotches

If your skin is unduly reddened, tanned or freckled, just dab a little pure mercolized wax on the face and allow it to remain over night. When you wash off the wax in the morning, fine, flakey, almost invisible particles of cuticle come with it. Repeating this daily, the entire outer skin is absorbed, but so gradually and gently, there's not the slightest hurt or inconvenience. Even the stubbornest freckles are affected. The underlying skin which forms the new complexion is so clear, fresh and youthful-looking, you'll marvel at the transformation. It's the only thing known to actually discard an aged, faded, muddy or blotchy complexion. One ounce of mercolized wax, procurable at any drug-store, is sufficient in most cases.—Advt.

At The Theaters

AT THE ALLEN.

Packed with thrills from beginning to end is "The Girl of the Sea," being shown at Allen's for the first half of this week. Leagues beneath the sea a diver gropes for lost treasure. He finds jewels. He signals to be brought to the surface, but a giant octopus or "sea devil" grasps him, and he is powerless. A beautiful eyed maiden of the island who tells where the sunken treasure is dives to almost unfathomable depths and attracts the attention of the octopus that the man in his grasp may escape. This is only one of the thrilling scenes portrayed in the film.

All the wonders of the sea, strange fish, starfish and sea inhabitants of all kinds may be seen on the bed of the deep. A mutiny, a shipwreck and a murder are all aid toward a climax of a wonderful romance. The film which was taken in the South Seas is one of the most unusual and really fascinating pictures ever produced.

Those who visited at Port Stanley on Dominion Day have a chance of seeing themselves in the movies. Various views of the sports and merriment at Port Stanley as well as the Cleveland police playing the London Manhattans are shown. A Christie comedy that is a disperser of blues, a travelogue and Allen's weekly Pictorial complete an excellent bill which will be repeated today and on Wednesday.

AT LOEW'S.

"The Fighting Shepherdess," starring Anita Stewart, is the feature film offering of a really excellent program showing at Loew's Theatre the first half of this week. The town of Prouty in Wyoming, embittered by the sheep-herders supplanting the cattle-ranchers in the surrounding territory vented its stupid spleen upon Mormon Joe and the little girl he befriended; the little girl fell in love with an eastern college boy and a jealous Mexican cowardly murdered the big-hearted-silent shepherd. So develops the dramatic setting for the final hour of love and triumph when the little shepherdess heaps "coals of fire" upon the heads of the stupid townfolk by financing the irregation project so long dreamed of by the desert dwellers.

In a Mack Sennett comedy, "The Gingham Girl," there is some good acting by a duck, a remarkable clever bird which flies like a heron, and after swimming in a bowl of old-fashioned punch, outcapers Charlie Chaplin.

Only three acts of vaudeville are presented, but each is away above the usual quality. Monday night's audience greeted Carlton and Belmont with a storm of applause when they put over the most obvious line of humor with truly astonishing cleverness.

Mason and Fletcher are high-class entertainers with a simple pretty melange of song, dance and laughter, and the Uyeda Boys, nimble Nipponese balancers and screen jugglers, pleased very much also. Two overture musical numbers are excellently rendered.

AT THE PATRICIA.

The adventures of a wife and a young man next door, who unknowingly stumbles into a very difficult situation, so strange that they are afraid to tell the truth to the irate husband and the jealous fiancee, for fear it wouldn't be believed, form the basis for "Everything But the Truth." It is a clever comedy, featuring the two Universal stars, Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran, which opened a three-day engagement at the Patricia Monday afternoon.

The photoplay is full of quiet humor. All the laughable possibilities of the story have been seen by Lyons and Moran, who were the producers.

Things begin to happen when a newly-wed wife asks her neighbor to drive her to a nearby chicken farm to get some eggs for her husband's breakfast. Both are imprisoned all night in a deserted farm-house by an escaped lunatic. Upon returning the next morning they realize that the real story of what happened sounds so improbable that they must invent one more plausible.

They have no luck at all, and their ensuing troubles furnish the popular fun-making team with many humorous situations. After they have told the truth they finally tell how it happened, and with someone to back it up, they clear up all the difficulty.

The two stars are supported by Anne Cornwall, Katherine Lewis, Willie Marks, Nelson McDowell and Elizabeth Witt.

The Rainbow comedy, "An Artist's Muddle," provided many laughs for the audience.

A Universal western drama, "Under Sentence," completes the bill, which will be shown today and tomorrow.

SILOAM CIRCUIT PICNIC

Delightful Outing Held at Springbank on Thursday—Full Program.

ETTRICK, July 12.—A union picnic of the Siloam circuit was held on Thursday last at Springbank Park, at which a goodly representation of each of the three appointments was present. The journey to the picnic grounds was made by motor car.

Dinner was the first item on the program after arrival at the park, following which Will Warwick and John Guest were chosen captains for the baseball teams and a lively five-inning game was played with a score of 13 to 7 in favor of Mr. Warwick's champions.

Then followed the program of sports, in which all participated. Rev. Mr. Whillans acted as director, with G. Pack and R. Brooks as starters. The results were as follows:

Girls and boys, 4 years and under—Wilmer McGuffin, Dorothy Gouph, Lillian Springett.

Girls and boys, 5 and 6 years—Bruce Cornell, Isabell Craig, Wm. Kernohan.

Girls and boys, 7 and 8 years—Albert Bradley, Clayburn Geddes, Kenneth Box.

Girls and boys, 9 and 10 years—Mary Guest, Dorothy Geddes, Eva Bradley.

Girls and boys, 11 and 12 years—Alma Stone, Thelma Gardiner, Wellington Haskett.

Girls, 13 and 14 years—Lillian Geddes, Irene Piper, Annie Birrel.

EX-ALDERMAN DEAD.

CHATHAM, July 12.—Ex-Alderman Charles E. Lister, one of the most prominent of Chatham's citizens, passed away early Sunday morning. He was taken ill about two weeks ago. The deceased took an active interest in civic affairs, and was one of the active workers in the Chatham Board of Trade. He is survived by a large number of relatives. The funeral takes place on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Shoeing the Children

If you feel that the Shoe problem for the child is a hard one to meet, don't try to solve it through buying the cheapest Shoes to be found. For that only makes it harder. Ill-fitting, bargain-counter Shoes will reap foot trouble in the little ones in years to come.
