At this moment a special roster of persons, adjudged mentally unbalanced or believed so, who have been confined for varying lengths of time at the county jail, is being prepared for the consideration of the Toronto authorities. While the county officials feel that there can be but one ruling upon the question, they are preparing, however, to seek the definite assurance of the department heads before they advised, as they anticipate, they will immediately decline, they say, to accept prisoners of this class.

While this has, seemingly, been a point of contention for years past, between the county authorities and the city police, the former have always maintained that it is so provided in the regulations that they need not house insane persons for any unreasonable length of time, or may if they choose, decline to accept them at all.

The list of those detained since December last, although only partially complete, reveals the fact that persons of this type, once lodged at the county jail, have remained there for two, three or even four weeks.

That these prisoners, in addition to all else, are a continual source of worry and are, in fact, more trouble than the usual prisoner, is the claim of the jail authorities, who cite as an here for a considerable period await be saved the city of London in taxes ing deportation to the United States. if the Ontario Legislature approves Inmates of this description call for increased care and not infrequently precipitate fights and other disorders breaking windows, throwing water

"They should do the same thing with business taxes, because many people go out of business between assessment and collection, with the result that the city loses money. The legislature will most likely adopt the recommendation because it comes from men who are interested in and familiar with the situation, and therefore it should be reasonable."

Should Superintend.

Assessment Commissioner Stephen Grant, who attended the session of the Ontario Municipal Association at Toronto, when the recommendations was made, declares that the delegates present felt that the provincial government should superintend the collection of income tax on the same basis as the federal authorities, and should turn the money over to each municipality.

Mr. Grant stated that the recommendation, if ratified, would have not effect on the assessment department, but would place the responsibility on the tax collector of garnering in income tax in the same year in which the assessment is made.

No extra help would be required in his department, Mr. Bell points out, the only difference being that the collector would bill the citizens liable for income tax, one year ahead of the present system.

City Architect Provides For Eight-Roomed Edifice in Southeast.

Soaking the Public. THERE IS very little said by coal miners or operators as to who won the soft coal strike. There can be no argument as to which of the parties lost the strike -the consuming public lost it. Here is proof of it:

The Des Moines Capital printed an interview with H. M. HAVNER, former attorney-general, and now president of the Pershing Coal Company, quoting him as saying that his company is preparing to wipe off its books the cost of the five months' strike by raising coal prices until $75,000 is made up. "The loss," he is quoted as saying, "must be made good before April 1, 1923, for we will have a new contract with the miners after that

The fact that the coal companies can bleed the buying public in order to make up losses suffered during the strike may be the explanation for the ease and rapidity with which strikes develop.

Were it not possible for them to do this they might not be so easily persuaded to let a difficult situation drift on until it became a strike.

As things stand now, and judging from the avowed intention of the coal company referred to above, the companies will go ahead and extract from the dear general public what it has cost them to conduct a ruin-

THE Tara Leader takes Miss AGNES MACPHAIL, M.P., severely to task for the material that has been used in same of her recent public utterances.

The member for Southeast Grey, says the Leader, may be serious in her attack upon the telephone as a black eye for co-operation on the farm, but is she to be taken seriously? According to Miss MacPHAIL, the farmers of Canada are "slaves." Conditions on the farm are discouraging. All the beautiful farm buildings "we used to see in the old days" have gone to pieces. There is no such thing as co-operation because, forsooth, while in earlier days farmers had to meet each other to do business, now "they stay at home and telephone." As a consequence people are leaving the farms in alarming numbers. Soon, if we read Miss MACPHAIL aright, there won't be a field of wheat or a patch of corn or potatoes between Toronto and London, or London and Windsor. Nothing but "To Let" on all the barns and house fronts. In a Western Ontario farming district during the richest harvest season, perhaps, the Dominion has ever known, a district noted for its fine, comfortable homes, Its accessibility, its sociability and its prosperity, the Cassandra of Parliament said these things. Generally there would be a brick platform a few feet around the stove, and on these bricks the wet and frezen mittens of the rising generation, as well as their their contempt for the republic, but rubbers and leggings, would be thawed and warmed and scorched, according to the zeal of the fireman for the day. We can recall one little red school where the teacher was somewhat of a diplomat. Instead of making any of the boys look after the fire during the day he conceived the idea of allowing the boy who made the highest marks for the week look after the fire. Thus was the job of stoking raised from the ranks of labor and placed in the class of privilege. And the old box stove that was made for use in the private house gestion of scarcity. And into the or three of these ex-soldiers the maws of that old box stove went anything and everything that looked like a stick of wood. The old box stove stove in the kitchen was far more length and size, and it also turned up its nose at large chunks with knots in them. Thus, when it came time to split the wood there was always the loophole when a big stick with a bigger knot came out to look at the axe. If it couldn't be trimmed down enough to go into the kitchen stove, why it would make a headliner for the box stove, and would, probably stay in most of the night. Ah, yes, come to think of it, it was a very desirable thing to have a stick of wood that possessed that fine qualification of being able to last overnight. But the box stove went the way of all things, and made way for the coal stove, and the coal stove held on well for a bit, and then made way for the furnace. These things marched along, and the old box stove was either dumped into the scrap heap of the metal gatherer or stowed away in the corner of the attic or the drive-For years it hasn't had a shed. chance to show off at all, but now there are whispers reaching even the attic and the driveshed that the old box stove may be taken out to show off for the season of 1922-23, and the little old black lead will come along, and there will be some more wood ashes in the land to pave the way for home-made soap. And so it may be that the good old days that people talk so much about and yet know so little of may come and camp right in our midst again.

Take It In Time

Do you know that these common ailments produce symptoms that are very much like those caused by the more serious

DO you know that many women and young girls suffer needlessly from such ailments? More than that, they endanger their health by allowing their ailments to continue and develop into something serious.

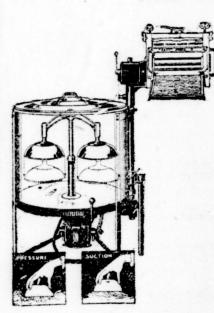

If treated early, that is, within a reasonable time after the first warning symptoms appear, serious conditions may often be averted. Therefore, at the first appearance of such symptoms as periodic pains, irregularities, irritability and nervousness, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be taken. It is prepared with accuracy and cleanliness from medicinal plants. It contains no narcotics nor poisonous drugs, and can be taken with perfect safety.

The Vegetable Compound acts on the conditions which bring about these symptoms in a gentle and efficient manner. The persistent use of it shows itself in the disappearance, one after another, of the disagreeable symptoms. In a word, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound acts as a natural restora. tive, relieving the present distress and preventing more serious trouble.

Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and secretions from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of peroxine powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition. an efficient, simply designed sanitary housecleaning outfit built to last a lifetime

OU-as a good housekeeper-take pride in keeping your home thoroughly clean. But have you ever thought about the gritty embedded dirt that settles down into the pile of your rugs? Or the powdery dust that gradually sifts through into your hangings, upholstered furniture, mattresses and pillows?

Broom, dustcloth and carpet-sweeper cannot reach this germladen dirt and dust. The laboratory jar-of-water test, illustrated at left, shows how the Royal Electric Cleaner removes this embedded dirt and dust in the only way it can be thoroughly removed -with scientifically applied powerful air-suction.

For the Royal cleans by air alone!

It has no brushes, belts or gears to get out of order or slow up its strong cleansing stream of air. A slight turn of the patented Royal adjusting screw quickly adjusts the extra wide 14-inch nozzle to any floor surface. Indeed, the Royal is really a complete house-cleaning outfit! With its simple, easily-connected attachments, it performs every cleaning service thoroughly and with minimum labor. Its light weight (barely 11 pounds) and its large rubberoid wheels make it exceptionally easy-running. Its nozzle is specially designed to go under and around furniture and into corners readily. It is built to give a lifetime of faithful service. And because it cleans by air alone it cannot possibly injure even the finest rugs or fabrics.

Don't be contented with getting only the surface dirt! The most dirt—the unsanitary dirt, is in the fabric, not on the surface.

Thousands of Royals are in daily use throughout Canada. A strong and liberal guarantee certificate is issued by the manufacturer to every Royal owner. But judge for yourself the worth of the Royal. Let us demonstrate its superior cleaning ability in your own home-without obligating you in any way. Ask to-day for a demonstration and the particulars of our deferred payment plan.

LONDON DIVIDES HOLIDAY BILL

Coogan Pounded Out in Morning-Carmen Wins Shaky Game.

Dropping the morning game of the holiday bill to Hump Pierce's late cellar occupants by a score of 7—5 yesterday lost the Tecs another chance of reducing the margin be-tween themselves and the Hams, even if Carmen's shaky 2-1 win in the afternoon put a couple of stitches in a badly-torn heliday.

The after-breakfast affair was rather weird in spots. Two pilfers of the Beaver family plate featured two tallies the Londoners made, and the Beaver margin was traceable to loose London fielding.

Coogan was removed too late in the eighth, when four hits had al-ready produced three Beaver runs, knotting up the count, and two were on. Carmen walked Hindt, the next up, and struck out Regan, but Sharp sired a double, which tallied in two more and iced the proceedings for the Beavers, as Don Summers made Stimpson pop, Butler strike out, and Malmquest fly out to right in the mainful.

London Scored First.

London nicked the first three runs in the morning affair in the third, when Stimpson opened with a single. Stimpson was nicked at third on Butler's choice, but Butler made up lost ground by stealing second right after. He scored on Schaefer's triple, which was that calibre by reason of Chilton falling when he went after the ball. Schaefer made a barefaced steal of home plateright before Summers' eyes, and then Churry drew a deadhead, and promptly stole second. Gadsby also drew a pass, and Boyle's single scored the catcher. The Beavers came back with a run in the fifth, after they'd made several bids, to be turned back by Coogan, who hurled well in the pinches. Summers was on through Reis having Summers was on through Reis having several bids, to be turned back by Coogan, who hurled well in the pinches. Summers was on through Reis having dropped a shoe-string try after a long run in. Burrell dropped down a hard choice toward second, which Boyle fielded, but Gadsby dropped his bullet-like throw at second, and both runners were safe. A wild pitch put Burrell on second and Hindt's single scored Summers.

Following a walk and Hooker's single in the sixth. Hartline bunted down the third base line, and as Butier patiently watched for the ball to roll fair Sharp romped in past him and home. Coogan came in for Shea's pop toward third and completed a double-play at second, and, after walking Summers, he went over to first for the next put-out.

London drew ahead in the seventh. Butler singled with Stimpson gone. Maim walked and Schaefer was nicked at second on Churry's choice. Malmquest and Churry's tarted a double pilfer. Hartline foolishly being drawn into a peg at second, and Maim scored. Then came the debacle in the eighth with its five tallies and the game.

Had Edge.

McCallum had the edge on Carmen in the second game, allowing but two hits outside the three bunched by London in the sixth. The local southpaw days nicked steadily, and had to pull himself out of several bad places, or life talle would have been different. Hooker's triple and Geary's smash that went swishing by Carmen in the second produced the Beavers only run, while Carmen may have pitched himself into holes, he batted himself out, or at least started the rally in the eighth which gave London two runs and the game. 72 HOLES

GOLF is to have its world series.

The proposed match between deen Sarazen and Walter Hagen has been closed definitely.

These two great players will meet in a 72-hole contest for the golf title of all lands on October 8 and 9.

It is intended that the first 36 holes shall be played at Pittsburg. Sarazen's home grounds, so to speak. The final 36 will be played on the Westchester-Biltmore course at Eye, N. Y.

The meeting will bring together the two outstanding figures in the golfing world.

Walter Hagen holds the British open Walter Hagen holds the British open title, having triumphed over the best the old country has to offer. Gene Sarazen is the American open champion. Nothing could be more fitting than that these two stars should meet to settle the world's title.

Sensation of Season.
Sarazen is easily the year's sensation in golfing circles. In addition to the open championship of the United States, be holds two other titles only slightly

These include the southern open championship, won from one of the classiest fields ever entered in this particular event, and, more recently, the professional title, taken by him at Pittsburg from a field which numbered the very cream of "pro" relant.

When Gene won the United States open at Skokie, many golfers regarded his success as a bit of a fluke. This judgment was unjust to Sarazen, as he subsequently proved by the masterful style in which he took the professional title, disposing decisively of the great Lock Hutchison.

Little to Choose.

There is little to choose between the natural ability of the two.

Sarazen has youth; Hagen experience.

And the latter is a very young man, too.

Besides, youth plays a less prominent part in golf than in any other major sport.

Major A. is known as "a bad actor," but he performed fine today and his work had the crowd on their toes. Billy Sunday and his driver. Andy Easson, escaped uninjured. The results:

A record-breaking crop - the crop of Goodyear Tires for 1922.

Like Canadian No. 1 Northern Wheat, a crop famous the world over for quality.

But a crop required by the consumer demand.

Only a record-breaking demand could keep the immense Goodyear factory at *new Toronto busy 24 hours a day (three 8 hour shifts) as it has been for months.

And only record-breaking mileage could produce this demand.
