2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE : RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused :

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 19)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 86.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 81.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order :

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting as evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 560. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (h).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already as exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 118(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked " Confidential ", or as otherwise directed.

2 CANADIAN INFANTRY BASE REINFORCEMENT BATTALION

I certify that I have this morning examined and he is fit to undergo trial by Court Martial.

.....[illegible]..... Lt. Hawkins .....

.....6 Mar.....1945 .....

M.O., 2 CdnInf Base Rft Bn

Plea for mitigation of sentence

The accused like so many other soldiers in the Canadian army has compelled his finish and only crime. He has gone through Sicily and Italy and apparently has done a good job. He was transferred from the 2nd Lt A.A. regt to the Lanark and Renfrew regt. without any previous infantry experience he was dissatisfied and unhappy + eventually his nerves suffered. His brother was killed in France. In view of his past good record I would ask the court to deal leniently with this case.

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL HELD IN THE FIELD,
ON.....6 SEP. 41

TRIAL OF NO: D61230 Pte. DARLINGTON, F., HQ, 5 Cdn.Inf.Bde.

PROSECUTOR: Capt. J.S. Walford, HQ, 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde.

DEFENDING OFFICER: Lieut. C.L. Stuart, R.H.C.

SHORTHAND REPORTER: B36801 S/Sgt. D.A. Shenstone, R.H.L.I.

1. The Order Convening the Court is read to the accused.

2. The accused is asked the following questions:

Q. 1. Do you object to being tried by me as President, or by any of the other Members of the Court ?
A. 1. No, sir.
Q. 2. Do you object to the S/Sgt. taking down the evidence in shorthand?
A. 2. No, sir.

3. The President, Members and Shorthand Writer are duly sworn.

4. The accused answers to his number and is duly arraigned on the charges.

5. The accused pleads "NOT GUILTY" to the 1st, 2nd & 4th charges.

6. R.P. 35(3) is complied with.

7. The accused pleads " GUILTY" to the 3rd charge.

8. R.P. 30(3) is complied with and the accused answers "No."

1st Witness for the Prosecution, Lieut. W.J.C. Stikeman, HQ 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde., having been duly sworn is examined:

Q. 1. Lieut. Stikeman, will you establish before the Court who you are - your name, rank and Regiment and whether or not you identify the accused ?
A. 1. W.J.C. Stikeman, Lieutenant, seconded to H.Q. 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde as Motor Contact Officer. I recognize the accused as Pte. Darlington. He was the sentry whom I found early in the morning of 2 Sep 41 sleeping at his sentry post at the main gate of the Royal Pavilion, Aldershot.
Q. 2. Will you tell the Court what you know about the condition of the accused, which would lead him to be unfit for duty due to previous indulgence in alcoholic stimulants ?
A. 2. On returning from a Brigade scheme at approximately 0150 hrs 3 Sep 41 I entered the gate of the Royal Pavilion and was not challenged by a sentry. I instructed my driver to stop while I went to look for the sentry. I found Pte Darlington, who was acting as sentry, lying down with his head in the front of the sentry box and his feet sticking out. He was fast asleep. Summoning the driver and a signaller who was with me, he was in fact a D.H. we attempted to wake the man up. Finally he woke up after a great deal of shoving and pushing. On sitting up it was revealed that he was improperly dressed, having his penis exposed, and a pool of liquid ....

(Objection by Defending Officer that this evidence is not relevant to the charge. Sustained.)

Witness continues:

When Darlington was finally awake I asked him what he was doing. He said he had had too much to drink. He informed me of that before three witnesses. That is all.

Q. 3. At that time, was the accused fit or unfit to carry out his duties as a sentry ?

A. 3. He was unfit to carry out the duties of a sentry, in my opinion.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q. 4. You stated in your evidence that the accused said he had had too much to drink. Did he specify what sort of drink ,

A. 4. No, he did not specify or classify the type of drink.

Q. 5. You stated the accused was unfit to carry out his duties ?

A. 5. Yes.

Q. 6. You gave no reason ?

A. 6. His admission that he had had too much to drink,he may be described as suffering from previous alcoholic indulgence and the fact that he was completely at a loss and did not know what was going on. He was improperly dressed, as will come out in another charge, and I considered it my duty as an Officer to place him under arrest, as he was on sentry duty at such an important position, and turn over his duties to another man.

Q. 7. In point of fact, this list of contributing factors might not have arisen from indulgence in alcohol, but might have been the result of a fatigued, tired state of mind. He was asleep and was wakened up in most embarrassing circumstances ?

A. 7. In my opinion, again I feel the circumstances in which he was aroused were caused by indulgence in alcohol.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. 8. I would like to know, if you discovered this sentry in this condition, did you just waken him and leave him on duty or did you remove him ?

A. 8. Removed him and placed him under close arrest.

Q. 9. At any time, was he known to have left his post ?

A. 9. He was not known to have left his post.

Q.10. He was posted at what time ?

A.10. I think evidence by the Guard Commander will bring that out. I have nothing to do with the posting of personnel.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution, M11156, Cpl.BOYCHUCK, S.M., H.Q. 5 Cdn.Inf. Bde, having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 11. On the night of 2/3 Sep 41, what were your duties at Bde HQ ?

A. 11. I was Guard Commander.

Q. 12. Did the accused, Darlington, form one of the members of the guard ?

A. 12. Yes, sir.

Q. 13. What time was that guard mounted ?

A. 13. Six o'clock at night.

Q. 14. Was he fit or unfit for duty at the time the guard was mounted ?

A. 14. He was fit for duty.

Q. 15. What tours of duty had been assigned Darlington during that evening ?

A. 15. Six to eight and twelve to two in the morning.

Q. 16. At twelve midnight, was Darlington personally posted on his beat as a sentry ?

A. 16. Yes, sir.

Q. 17. Between midnight and two in the morning, what knowledge have you as to the incident which took place involving Darlington ?

A. 17. I posted him at midnight. He was to my knowledge properly dressed and fit for duty. He took up his post in front of the Royal Pavilion. About ten minutes to two I saw Mr. Stikeman. I came out and I asked him what was wrong. I went with him to the gate. I seen Darlington standing there and asked what was wrong. Mr. Stikeman said that Darlington admitted himself that he was under the influence of alcohol, was asleep on his post and was improperly dressed, and told me to put him in close arrest.

Q. 18. What did Darlington say ?
A. 18. He didn't say anything.
Q. 19. What were his reactions ?
A. 19. None.
Q. 20. What action did you take ?
A. 20. I carried out my orders. I put Darlington in close arrest and put him in the guard room.
Q. 21. Did you change sentries ?
A. 21. Yes, sir.
Q. 22. What did you notice about Darlington's condition ? You say you put him in close arrest and put him in the guard room ?
A. 22. He seemed a bit dazed. He seemed as if he had just come out of a heavy sleep.
Q. 23. Did you notice anything that would indicate to you that he had been drinking ?
A. 23. I smelled liquor on his breath.
Q. 24. Was it a light smell or a heavy smell ?
A. 24. Just a smell, that is all.
Q. 25. Did he walk straight ?
A. 25. He walked straight as far as I know, because I was walking beside him.
Q. 26. From what you saw, what was his speech like ?
A. 26. He had nothing to say.
Q. 27. He did not talk much ?
A. 27. No.
Q. 28. He talked normally ?
A. 28. Yes.
Q. 29. From his speeach you could not tell just whether or not he had been imbibing ?
A. 29. No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q. 30. You stated that you smelled faint traces of liquor on the breath of the accused at about two in the morning ?
A. 30. Yes, sir.
Q. 31. Have you any idea how long ago that liquor might have been consumed ?
A. 31. No, sir.
Q. 32. But it was definitely faint ?
A. 32. Yes, sir.
Q. 33. From your knowledge of the accused - you are in the same platoon, I believe - would you say he was very prone to sleeping at odd hours of the day ?
A. 33. Yes. Yes, he is.
Q. 34. Very often when he comes in off duty he goes to sleep automatically ?
A. 34. Yes, he lays down most of the time when he is off duty.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. 35. When you posted Darlington on duty at 2400 hrs, during the next hour and a half did you see him at all ?
A. 35. No, sir.
Q. 36. You have already said he was fit for duty at 1800 hrs - was he fit for duty at 2400 hrs ?
A. 36. Yes, sir, perfectly fit.

The provisions of R.P. 40 having been complied with, the accused elected to give evidence under oath:

1st Witness for the Defence, D61230 Pte. DARLINGTON, F., H.Q. 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 37. Will you tell the Court what you did or did not drink on the evening of 2 Sep 41 ?

A. 37. I came off guard at 8 o'clock - I was on the 6 to 8 shift - and, I don't know just exactly the time, but somewhere between 8 and 10 I had a cup of tea and did have one small drink which I did not entirely drink. The way it happened was there were four chaps going by the gate house and these four came by. They seemed pretty merry and were French chaps, talking French. They stopped and asked if I would have a drink. I said "No" , I was sorry, I was on guard and they said come on a little won't hurt. I will admit I took a mouthful of wine, but instead of drinking it, I spit it out. It was not wine; it had something hot in it like alcohol or something. As far as drinking it goes I just had a taste and I felt it hot in my throat and spit it out. That is all the drink I had.

Q. 38. How much would you say you swallowed ?

A. 38. Not more than a teaspoon. I could feel it hot in my throat.

Q. 39. When you were wakened up - you heard the evidence that you said you must have had too much to drink ?

A. 39. Yes, sir.

Q. 40. Tell the Court what you meant ?

A. 40. I have had a lot of trouble with urinating, and I do often urinate in bed, and always on my relief. It is very embarrassing. I thought at that time that I was being awakened and it had happened and I was going to Company office. At first I thought I was wetting the bed.

Q. 41. When you said you must have had too much to drink, did you refer to liquor ?

A. 41. No, sir. I did not drink my tea at supper for that reason.

Q. 42. Did you drink tea that night ?

A. 42. Yes, sir. I was thinking of being on guard and not going to sleep.

Q. 43. Are you or are you not in the habit of sleeping a great deal ?

A. 43. Yes, sir. I do not get a normal night's sleep at any time. I am up on the average of every hour and if I sleep longer, I am wet. Naturally my time off duty I lie down and I never get an average night's sleep.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q. 44. To what do you attribute this condition that you refer to - that keeps you awake ?

A. 44. I urinate and I imagine it is my mattress.

Q. 45. Have you reported during the last two months on morning sick parade, to the doctor ?

A. 45. Yes, sir.

Q. 46. Approximately when ?

A. 46. Not for quite some time, for the reason that I have other things wrong with me and I am afraid of being boarded.

Q. 47. No having reported on sick parade, your Defence Platoon commander would not be aware of your condition ?

A. 47. He would be aware, but I have not reported at 5th Brigade , but at the Black Watch where I used to be they know I am that way so far as urinating is concerned.

Q. 48. With reference to the drinks that you had had - you said a cup of tea and this small drink of wine with which something was mixed ?
A. 48. Yes, sir.
Q. 49. You say you only had one mouthful ?
A. 49. Yes, sir. I spit it after the first taste.
Q. 50. What time was this ?
A. 50. Between 8 and 10.
Q. 51. You had nothing to drink, then, after you sent on guard at midnight ?
A. 51. No, sir. There is no way of getting it.
Q. 52. Can you tell the Court why your fly was open and your penis exposed ?
A. 52. I have/previous occasions like that, in the afternoon and I wake up and my fly is open like that. I think it is all my nerves. I am always thinking of urinating. That is always passing through my mind.
Q. 53. Do you normally close up your fly when you find it open ?
A. 53. Yes, sir.
Q. 54. Did you on this occasion ?
A. 54. I woke up and I was on my side. I walked up to the guard room. I cannot say whether I did or not.

2nd Witness for the Defence, M11556 Pte. JAQUISH, C.E., H.Q. 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 55. Do you know Pte. Darlington ?
A. 55. Yes, sir.
Q. 56. Do you see him in the Court Room ?
A. 56. Yes, sir.
Q. 57. Did you see Darlington on the night of 2/3 Sep 41 ?
A. 57. Yes, sir, shortly before I went on my trick. Shortly before twelve.
Q. 58. What was his condition ?
A. 58. He seemed quite sober to me.
Q. 59. Did you see him again later in the evening ?
A. 59. Yes, sir. At two in the morning when I relieved him.
Q. 60. What condition was he in then ?
A. 60. He seemed sober.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT.

Q. 61. You say you relieved Darlington ?
A. 61. Yes, sir.
Q. 62. At 0200 hrs. When Darlington was taken off you relieved him, or was that normal ? Were you specially put on to relieve him ?
A. 62. It was normal. I was due at 2 o'clock.
Q. 63. Were you paraded out by the guard commander or the corporal of the guard ?
A. 63. Not by the corporal, it was in the guard room I saw Darlington.
Q. 64. You did not actually relieve himat his post ?
A. 64. No, sir, I did not take over his post.
Q. 65. Whereabouts did you see Darlington ?
A. 65. In the Guard Room.
Q. 66. After he was taken off his post ?
A. 66. Yes, sir.
Q. 67. He was taken off, but not properly relieved ?
A. 67. Yes, sir.
Q. 68. About two o'clock ?
A. 68. Yes, sir.
Q. 69. You went out by yourself ?
A. 69. Yes, sir. I spoke to Mr. Stikeman.

3rd Witness for the Defence, Capt. E.H. Anderson, RCAMC, attached to R.H.G., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 70. Capt. Anderson, do you know Darlington ?
A. 70. Yes, I do.
Q. 71. Do you see him in Court ?
A. 71. Yes, that is Darlington (pointing to accused).
Q. 72. From the medical viewpoint, what dealings have you had with him ?
A. 72. I have seen him on several occasions for several different complaints.
Q. 73. Could you enlighten us as to these complaints ?
A. 73. The first time I had occasion to see him according to the records was the early part of last Spring, when he came on morning sick parade complaining of difficulty with his kidneys and bladder and passing urine frquently at night. The second occasion was on 14 Apr when he came complaining of very painful feet and inability to stand route marches and guards. He was referred to a specialist at Bramshott and was kept in the hospital on that occasion for four days. The third time he was referred to the A.D.S. at Polgate on 29 Jul. He had been in at that time with complications from varicose veins. Those are the only three occasions that I have had any dealings with him.
Q. 74. In connection with the complaint of bladder and kidneys, was any further action taken on that by you ?
A. 74. No. We had his urine tested and nothing abnormal was found on the first occasion. Since he has been here in detention we have examined his urine again and there are traces of some abnormalities there.
Q. 75. Could this abnormality, this condition of abnormality you have discovered occasion an irresistable urge to pass water ?
A. 75. Yes.
Q. 76. Could the condition of his feet and legs, which you mentioned earlier, on occasion lead to the irresistable desire to sit down ?
A. 76. Yes, it could.
Q. 77. If the accused has to get up as a result of this bladder trouble several times during the course of a night to pass water, would that lead to a chronic state of fatigue and drowsiness ?
A. 77. If repeated night after night, yes.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q. 78. You stated that last Spring, Darlington spoke to you in your medical capacity in respect to this condition that causes him to pass water frequently. You also state that since he was placed in custody, you have examined him ?
A. 78. Yes.
Q. 79. This man is alleged to have been found asleep on his post to which he was posted at midnight on 2 Sep 41; he was found asleep between 0100 hrs and 0200 hrs on that particular tour of duty. Are you in a position to state from your knowledge of him whether or not his sleeping at that particular time was something he could not be held responsible for ?
A. 79. No, I cannot state definitely that it was something that he was not responsible for.
Q. 80. Is there a reasonable doubt as to whether or not he was responsible for sleeping ?
A. 80. Yes, there is.
Q. 81. The accused is found at 0150 hrs with his fly open and his penis exposed. Could the Court find the accused responsible for that improper dress, on medical grounds ? Was the accused responsible for having his fly open and penis exposed in his condition ?
A. 81. I cannot answer that question.
Q. 82. Neither way - that he was responsible or was not ? Is there a reasonable doubt that he was responsible ?

A. 82. Yes, there is.
Q. 83. That doubt is not based on sufficient knowledge of this man's physical condition, or is it based on adequate medical knowledge of his condition ?
A. 83. The whole situation is that there are very few conclusive, definite statements that could be made medically.
Q. 84. The Court is asking your assistance. If the man is not responsible for being not fit for duty, then the Court cannot find him guilty of these charges. Is there a doubt, from your knowledge of his physical condition, whether it was through any fault of his own that he was unfit to perform his duties as a sentry ?
A. 84. There is a reasonable doubt.
Q. 85. To be asleep at that hour, at his post ?
A. 85. Yes.
Q. 86. You have adequate knowledge of the accused's medical condition to make that statement ? The doubt is not based on the fact that you have not had adequate time to diagnose his condition ?
A. 86. I have only seen him once last Spring and once since he has been in detention here. Examination of his in the first instance revealed nothing abnormal and it was diagnosed as hysterical bladder. The second time definite abnormalities were found in his urine which could be responsible for an uncontrollable desire to pass urine at that particular time and place.
Q. 87. He was not recommended to be boarded out ?
A. 87. In the English army he would have been boarded.
Q. 88. He was well enough to perform his duties ?
A. 88. In the Canadian Army, yes.
Q. 89. How do the standards differ ?
A. 89. It is a long story.
Q. 90. In what way was he fit on that night ?
A. 90. As far as the bladder is concerned, I put it this way. He has a case of hysterical bladder. Assuming that, it is featured by urgency, frequency of urination. It is an awkward situation. Things come and go depending on the situation and imagination; it is a psychological state of mind. They are boarded out in the English army but not in the Canadian Army.
Q. 91. What day did you see the accused, after he was placed in close arrest ?
A. 91. The 4th of this month. The day following the incident.
Q. 92. Are you not in a position to state whether or not he was in a state of fatigue which would make sleep irresistable on the morning of 3 Sep ?
A. 92. I cannot say that.
Q. 93. He may not have been responsible for going to sleep ?
A. 93. I think it is a normal conclusion that he was ~~max~~ in a state of fatigue as he had not been getting sufficient sleep.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT.

Q. 94. In this condition, would he have to urinate every hour or how often ? Could he go two hours ?
A. 94. Four or five times during the night - that is what he told me; that was his original complaint. I think there are witnesses who can say he does get up frequently.
Q. 95. If he was asleep, could it automatically come on without his know ledge ?
A. 95. Yes, it could very well.

4th Witness for the Defence, E4523 Pte. GREIG, J.D., H.Q. 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde., having been duly sworn, is examined:

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR DISCUSSION AT 1130 hrs 5 Sep 41.

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED AT 1140 hrs 5 Sep 41.

Q. 96. Do you recognize the accused ?
A. 96. Yes, sir.
Q. 97. What is his name ?
A. 97. Pte. Darlington.
Q. 98. Did you see the accused on the night of 2/3 Sep 41 ?
A. 98. Yes, sir.
Q. 99. Did you see him the next morning ?
A. 99. No, sir.
Q.100. Do you sleep anywhere near the accused ?
A. 100. Right beside him, sir.
Q. 101. Did you notice anything in particular on that morning in your room ?
A. 101. I moved the accused's mattress to Q.M. Stores, and found the mattress was all wet.
Q. 102. What caused that ?
A. 102. He had bladder trouble.
Q. 103. The mattress was wet, due to what ?
A. 103. It was his urine.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT.

Q. 104. Definitely, do you know how long ago that had happened ?
A. 104. It must have been some time ago. The mattress was getting mouldy.
Q. 105. Have you or have you not seen the accused sleeping at odd hours of the day ?
A. 105. Yes, I have, frequently.

5th Witness for the Defence, D01566 Pte. DICKSON, H.R., H.Q. 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 106. Have you noticed at any time, anything abnormal about the accused habits at night ?
A. 106. I have seen that his bed is wet often in the mornings.
Q. 107. Have you noticed anything about his sleeping habits in the day time ?
A. 107. In the day time he takes to his bed.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q. 108. Have you seen Darlington get up at night to relieve himself ?
A. 108. Yes.
Q. 109. Frequently ?
A. 109. On various occasions when I have been up myself.

6th Witness for the Defence, M85276 Pte. VCORYNUIGIN, W., H.Q. 5 Cdn. Inf. Bde., having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 110. Have you at any time heard the accused complain of bladder trouble ?
A. 110. Yes, sir, I have.
Q. 111. Have you ever seen anything that would bear out his complaints ?
A. 111. Yes, sir. I slept alongside of him, and he urinated in his blankets at night and did not happen to wake up.
Q. 112. Has the accused ever complained to you about his legs ?
A. 112. Yes, he has.
Q. 113. Have you ever seen anything that would tend to bear out this complaint ?
A. 113. Yes. When we were stationed at Albuhera Barracks in Aldershot, and we were on sentry at H.Q., and Darlington had to sit down during the guard.

Q. 114. Have you seen him sleeping during the day time ?
A. 114. Yes. It is quite a comman thing to have to waken him to go on duties.

THE PROSECUTOR.

This procedure may be irregular, but I believe the evidence before the Court covers all three charges as laid, and with the consent of the Defending Officer I would like to move that the evidence before the Court be made to apply on those three charges.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

That leaves out charge No. 3 ?

Yes.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I do not wish to make any address. I think the evidence you have heard is quite conclusive.

THE COURT CLOSES FOR FINDING AT 1200 hrs.

THE COURT RE-OPENS AT 1330 hrs.

On the THIRD CHARGE the Court admits the Summary of Evidence as read. M.F.M.6 and A.F.B. 269 are read by PROSECUTOR and admitted by DEFENCE as correct and relating to the Accused.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The accused has pleaded guilty to what is in Military Law a serious offence. He has pleaded guilty to it and you have heard evidence as to the definitely extenuating circumstances. Various functional abnormalities cause him at time to be subject to an almost irresistable desire to sit down - such as varicose veins and a very severe case of bunions. The result of his urinary trouble is to keep him up half the night, resulting in almost chronic fatigue. This, combined with his having to sit down caused him to go to sleep. The fact has been brought out that the accused did not report on sick parade, at any rate not recently, with all these troubles. He has given as his reason that he did not want to be boarded out of the army. I feel that the situation is quite clear to the Court. He realized the difficulties he was under and what must have been a very hard situation for any man to have to live with other men who knew about his unfortunate condition. His Conduct Sheet - M.F.M. 6 - which has just been read out is perhaps not of the best. On the other hand consider the difficulty under which the accused has been labouring during the time he has been in the army. I personally consider it amazing that in view of the facts, his conduct sheet is not worse. Finally I think that the man, although he himself has not reported on sick parade, the fact of his trouble appeared to have been common knowledge with the men with whom he worked. As such, he should have been forced to parade sick. I think quite definitely that his immediate superiors have slipped up. The man should never have been placed in a position to commit this crime. From medical evidence he appears to have been incapable of remaining on sentry over two hours without breaking off to go to the latrine. I should like you to consider these points when finding, and consider whether or not a rider should be added for a medical examination with a view to re-boarding and change of category.

THE COURT CLOSES FOR CONSIDERATION AT 1410 hrs 5 Sep 41.

FIRST WITNESS: Lieut. W.J.C.Stikeman, H.Q. 5 Cdn Inf Bde,
Having been duly sworn, states;

I am an M.C.O. seconded to H.Q. 5 Cdn Inf Bde.
Upon returning to the Royal Pavillion from a Brigade Scheme at 0150 hrs 3 Sep 41, the signal truck in which I was riding passed unchallenged through the Main Gate. On looking for the sentry, who should have challenged me, I perceived the accused recumbent in his Sentry Box, on the WEST of the Main Gate. I instructed my driver to stop, I got out of the car and found the accused to be asleep. After some minutes I succeeded in awakening him with the help of Sign'n Bray, D'Estaire and Sign'n D.R.Meval all of whom were with me.

The accused appeared dazed and I asked him what he was doing. He said that he had been drinking. I then noticed that his clothes were untidy, his fly was open, his penis was hanging out and there was urine on the floor of the Sentry Box and on the ground about it. I left him in charge of Sign'ns Bray, D'Estaire and Meval and went to summons the Guard Commander, who was Cpl Boyshuk. Cpl. Boyshuk posted a fresh sentry and I placed the accused under close arrest.

I identify the accused as D-81230 Pte. DARLINGTON. F.

At approximately ten minutes to two, Lieut W.J.C.Stikeman notified me that my guard on post admitted being under the influence of liquor and sleeping while on post. I posted a new sentry and carried out the orders given by Lieut Stikeman, which were to place the accused in confinement as he was under close arrest.

While returning from a scheme at approximately 0150 hrs, 3 Sep 41 I was driving my vehicle through the Main Gate of Royal Pavilion Aldershot with Lieut W.J.C.Stikeman who was setting in the front.

We noticed that we were not challenged by the sentry. Lieut. Stikeman ordered me to stop the car while he investigated. He then got out and went over to the Sentry Box and ordered Sigm'n D'Estaire and myself to come over and assist him.

Upon arriving at the Sentry Box I saw the Sentry lying on the ground, his head and shoulders in the Sentry Box asleep. Being awakened he stood up and I noticed he was improperly dressed, in that his fly was open and his penis was hanging out. It appeared that he had urinated on the floor of his Sentry Box and just outside of it.

Lieut. Stikeman asked him what he had to say for himself and the accused replied that he had had too much to drink.

Lieut. Stikeman summoned the Guard Comd and ordered the accused to be placed inconfinement and be replaced by another sentry.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. Nil.(5)

(1. RP 37(E). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 45 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 1(b)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 118(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT FOR A82234 Pte Darrack C.C.

Sir:

Pte Darrack join the army July 1942 took basic training and proceeded overseas Feb 1943. On arrival overseas he was sent to the H.L.I. of C as an anti tank gunner.

While on manouvirs in England he broke his shoulder and was sent to hospital, this occured in March 1944.

After discharge from hospital Pte Darrack was sent to the R.W.R. in France arriving there June 14, he remained with them until July 4 when he was wounded and returned to England. On discharge he returned to the R.W.R. on Aug 30. After a few days action he again was sent to the hospital this time because a blast had blown his front plate out of his mouth and he had to have it replaced, returning to his unit on the 28th of Sept where he remaineded until the 8th of October when again he was sent to the hospital this time because of a broken shoulder. He was returned to No 13 Bn on the 26th of Oct.

On arrival at 13 Bn Pte Darrack was paraded to request a transfer to anti tank work, realizing that his training as an infantry line man hadn't been sufficient borne out by the number of times he had been in the field and the short time of each stay, before he was either hurt or wounded. Whereas his training as an anti tank gunner in the Infantry had been extensive. Also he was to be sent to the H.L.I. and not back to the unit he had been fighting with namely the R.W.R.

As both request to be sent back to his unit and to be made an anti tank gunner was refused, fearing that the next time he went to the front might be fatal he went A.W.L.

Pte Darrack pleas for mitigation of punishment as he is anxious to get back to his unit at the earliest possible moment.

A 82234 Pte. Darroch C.C.

Sir. Pte. Darroch join the army July 1942 took basic training and proceeded overseas Feb. 1943. On arrival overseas he was sent to the H.L.I. of C. as an anti tank gunner.

While on manoeuvres in England he broke his shoulder and was sent to hospital, this occured in March 1944. After discharge from hospital Pte Darroch was sent to the R.W.R in France arriving there June 14, he remained with them until July 4 when he was wounded and returned to England. On discharged he returned to the R.W.R on Aug. 30. After a few days again he again was sent to the hospital this time because a blood had blown his front plate out of his mouth and he had to have it replaced, returning to his unit on the 28th of Sept. where he remained until the 9th of ~~Aug~~ October when again he was sent to the hospital this time because of a broken shoulder. He was returned to No 13 Bn on the 26th of Oct.

On arrival at 13 Bn. Pte Darroch was granted to request a transfer to anti tank work, realizing that his training as an infantry man had not been sufficient borne out by the number of times he had been in the field and the short time of each stay before he was either hurt or wounded. Therefore his training was an anti tank gunner in the Infantry had been extensive. Also he was to be sent to the H.L.I. and not back to the unit he had been fighting with.

namely the R.W.R.

As both the request to be sent back to his unit and to be made an anti-tank gunner were refused, fearing that the next time he went to the front might be fatal he went A.W.L.

I respectfully plead for mitigation of punishment as he is anxious to get back to his unit at the earliest possible moment.

Lieut-Colonel.

Closing Address for Prosecution in the case of 57571 Pte Darrah et.

Sirs:

The accused is charged with desertion. The evidence brought out by the 1/Sgt definitely proves that the accused was warned for draft & that he understood the warning. The accused went through the clearances, had his equipment packed, & admits that he "figured" he was on draft.

The time of departure of this draft was not given to them at the time of the warning because it was not known - however they were told that they would be leaving "next morning or in a day or so". Also at 2300 hrs that night when Pte Darrah should have been in his quarters the time of departure was given.

The accused claims he spent all the night trying to locate 983. In the morning when he came in the draft was not formed up - it took him four minutes to get on his eggs & when he got out there was no sign of the draft. He started for St Peters station but couldn't find it so decided to have a few drinks —

In closing I should like to say that it is impossible to show "intent" as something concrete but should be judged by the actions of a person.

respectfully submitted HH Saunders

In summing up this case I should like to condemn the manner of warning men for draft in G.S. Cay. Everything is so indefinite that it is a wonder to me that any draft gets away at all. I can just imagine the mix-up there is in that Cay when a draft is warned to leave. As far as S/Sgt Kellow's evidence is concerned - I doubt that he is ever quite sure what he says.

It is quite evident that the Darrah had no intention of evading the draft therefore he cannot be charged with desertion. Admittedly he has committed some indiscretion in acting as he did but surely this is an action of a soldier who is disappointed at something that has happened and I feel that he has some reason for his actions.

In connection with the prosecution stating a man on draft holding himself available at all times. I submit that every reinforcement in 2 CRRC is on that category and it does not only apply to one warned for draft.

In the end, I ask the charge of Desertion be dismissed for the prosecution has proved nothing as far as actual intent to desert is concerned.

JUDGE-ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE COURT

IN THE CASE OF: R 5451 Pte Dorsett C T

I wish to point out that it is part of my duty as Judge-Advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law.

The Court is, however, the sole judge of the facts and anything I say now or may have previously said indicating my personal views as to the facts should be entirely disregarded. The Court and the Court alone is the sole judge of the facts.

I do not think it necessary for me to review the evidence - there does not appear to be any difficulty in that respect.

As to the Law the accused is charged with Desertion. It is a special type of Desertion. Desertion can be divided into two kinds:

(a) What is known as the general type of Desertion where an accused goes absent without leave and forms an intention not to return to the Army again, and

(b) Where he goes absent without leave after having been warned for some special duty or draft and forms an intention to avoid that particular duty. Whether or not he intended to return to the Army eventually is of no importance, the criterion being did he intend to avoid the draft for which he was warned.

The onus is on the Prosecution, it is not for the accused to prove himself innocent, it is for the Prosecution to prove he is guilty. The Prosecution, therefore, must prove to the satisfaction of the Court:

(a) That the accused was AWL during the period charged,

(b) That he was duly and properly warned for the draft and that he understood the warning,

(c) That he was absent without leave with the intention of avoiding that draft, and,

(d) That the draft for which he was warned did in fact proceed.

It is also my duty to point out to the Court that the accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. I say a reasonable doubt, that is some doubt which is based on the facts before the Court and not some doubt which is purely immaginary. If the Court has a reasonable doubt after hearing and weighing the evidence then the accused is entitled to the benefit of that doubt.

On a charge of Desertion the Court may come to any one of the following decidions:

(a) Guilty as charged - that is guilty of Desertion.

(b) Not guilty of Desertion but guilty of absence without leave,

(c) Not guilty of any offence.

That is all I wish to say unless the Court or the Prosecutor or Defending Officer require explanation on any question that I may have overlooked. Mr President, have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court? Mr Prosecuting Officer have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court? Mr Defending Officer have you any points on which you wish me to address the Court?

A Case of Mitigation. Pte Darrah C.T.

I would like to submit to the court at this time a few facts about Pte Darrah. He joined the army in Sept. 1915 and three months later arrived overseas with his unit C. C. B. workshop. He has been with them continuously since then, landing in France on July 14, until he went to hospital on Jan 21 with abdominal trouble. His record with his unit is excellent and he is wanted back by them as they are running for him. Pte Darrah is very anxious to rejoin his unit and I think this slight indiscretion on his part should not be held against him too much.

Pte Darrah has never been on a reinforcement draft before and he was only in C.P.R.C. for two days when this episode occurred. As you have heard he attempted to catch the draft, and then, after missing it wandered off down town. It was his disappointment at missing the draft that cruised him to do this and I ask the court to consider this in when passing judgment.

Pte Darrah was absent 14 hours. During that time he was in possession of all his kit. At the end of the day he was still carrying all of his equipment and I submit to the court that this is another example of his good qualities as a soldier. Pte Darrah has been 26 ~~27~~ days under arrest and has been of more use to the army during that period. I ask the court in passing judgment to remember that Pte Darrah will be of much more use to the Can. Army in his unit than elsewhere and because of this, to be lenient with the accused.

Plea in Mitigation

Mr. President and Members of the Court.

Gnr. Darrah has not a particularly good record. He came to E Bty 2 C A R U on the 20th Dec 42. This was during the Christmas season and although he is married and his wife lives in Darnhaw he was not allowed a pass until Jan 9th thus spending Christmas and New Years in camp away from his wife. On returning from his Jan 9th pass he was late through no fault of his own. He was then told he would receive no further passes from E Bty as he couldn't be trusted. This rather discouraged him as he thought it was descrimination against him due to his past record. He was transferred K F Bty and several days after the transfer went absent suffering to be anywhere but 2 C A R U where he felt his past record was being held against him.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by one of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

E-1 STATEMENT BY ACCUSED

Sir, the reason I was evacuated from my unit I had a skin disease for 4 mths and was evacuated from Cratona on 7 Apr 44 and sent to 1 Br Force CCS, and from there to the 50th Gen Hr, and then to 1st Cdn Gen Hosp, where I remained for a month and was sent to No 6 Bn CRRD and was there put under treatment for skin disease again and was treated for a month until I got this 28 days FP. When I came out I went into treatment again until the latter part of Aug when I was sent to 14 Gen and was then sent back from 14 Gen in Dec to X-9, where I remained for 3 wks, recd treatement there, and then X-9 sent me back to 4 Bn and then I was returned to X-9 again and X-9 then sent me to X-8. I got back to England in Feb 45 and my category was confirmed. The MO asked me to have a blood test and I told him I hadn't had one and he was quite surprised to find that I hadn't had any blood test after 5½ yrs in the Army. I then went AWL to see my wife and to receive some medical treatment from a civilian doctor. I'm still suffering from the skin disease, Sir, and while I was AWL my son broke his leg, and the Dr said he had the scabies, chronic scabies, and he said I had it also.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Plea of Mitigation of Sentence in favor of.

F-59637 Gnr. John Francis D.arrah. R.C.A.

Sirs

At this point of the procedure may I ask the Court to consider very strongly the circumstances, in which the accused w/out A.W.L. As previously said, he is in the army since over five years an a half. He served in Sicily, fought in Italy up to Ortona. He is suffering from that skin infection since over a year, and the 11 Dr. he dealt with, did not cure his sickness. He then went A.W.L because he was under the impression he was not getting the proper treatments in the army. He saw a civil doctor, who told him he had acute scabies, he was treated accordingly until apprehended.

As told by the accused, he is married in England and has a young baby, which broke his leg while the accused was on leave, forcing him to lengthen his absence. The accused is still suffering from the skin affection. m/o.

Due to these facts, and considering the long service of the accused, may I ask the clemency of the court in favor of the accused

I also have a certified true copy of the Declaration of the Court of Inquiry which was held for the Accused, and is Exhbit "A" in the Summary. The above mentioned Exhibits are signed by the President and marked D.E.F. and G. respectively.

President to the Accused:

Q. Do you wish to address the Court?

A. (Lieut. Mersereau) Yes.

On behalf of the Accused I think it is my duty to bring to the attention of the Court my viewpoints, that may speak for themselves, in favour of the Accused.

The Accused has made to me and his Commanding Officer no excuse whatsoever for his prolonged absence. Upon investigation however, there are a few bits of information that have come to life. At the time the Accused was A.W.L. the regiment was stationed in Petworth, and it is a very lonely place, and it has since been brought out that the Accused put in for passes at that time, which were refused. It has also been brought to light that his relations with his No. 1 were not of the best, which may account for these refusals, but the main thing is that at that time the Accused was married a week before he left to go A.W.L. He was in Petworth, and his newly married bride was in Farnham. I say it has been brought to our attention that these passes were refused and upon questioning, this fact was brought to light from the Accused.

I would suggest to the Court that there was some provocation at this time. You will see by his Crime Sheet that this man went two full years without a crime and it has only been recently that there have been any entries on that sheet at all.

I would ask the Court to take into consideration in awarding sentence, the fact of provocation at the time of being A.W.L. and the fact that he has already spent 27 days in detention awaiting court-martial, and the fact that he is absolutely willing to take his punishment and begin to soldier again.

I can myself testify as to character, having known the Accused in 1940 when he was a member of this Battery, and was a concientious and good soldier. I don't know the date that he left the Battery, but I do know that he has spent eleven months with Brigadier Leach, where his conduct was very good.

President to the Accused:

Q. Gnr. Darrah you will be remanded under close arrest to await promulgation of the sentence.

The Court is closed for consideration of the sentence.

On the night of 10th/11th June at the Sgts. Mess at Dragon Camp, the accused asked me to buy him some beer. I thought he was one of the waiters. He then said to me, "when a woman obeys by a kiss some marks." I was not off duty. I went with him and he gave me a cigarette. I was sitting on the stool and he was counting some money. I asked him what he was going to do with the money and then said that I would be going. He then pulled a ring out of his pocket and told me how well he could wear it. This ring was similar to the one he showed (Exhibit "A") I felt uneasy and he stood me up with the open ring and said "Take off your shoe & socks." I did this. When his attention was distracted I struck him with my left fist on his forehead to the left eye and the head with some thing heavy and black. I fell on the floor. He stood over me with the ring and said "I've a good mind to cut you all to pieces." On showing the ring was away from my face several times I cut my hand slightly on it. The accused then kicked

I did not see the accused any more, except I gave him over the last found to be known from about.

By the Court.

The accused did not say why he wanted me to take off my boots & socks. I took my jacket off in the room & the accused after I took off my boots & socks. The room looked like a living quarter. When I left the room I left behind my socks, boots, jacket and cap.

His head was injured, his forehead, one of his eyes was injured, his nose had been bleeding and there was a few small cuts on the palm of both his hands. I reported the matter to the Orderly Officer. This Light Quarters where I saw the Light Corporal is in Jaeger Camp. I saw the accused at training of 2 Ord at 43 at 0900 hrs. He was in the boiler shop of the Prince Coy which is in Jaeger Camp. The boiler shop is located in Jaeger Camp and is the case of a small bigger building. After examination

About 0920 hrs on 2 Oct 43 I was in my orderly room. Sgt. Englehart came in and reported to me. As a result of this conversation I went with Sgt. Englehart to the barber shop of 1 C.G.P.C. the accused being there. He is the regimental barber. There was a time there that accused should not be going on the bird. This Exhibit "C" is the same time and I recognize it by the steps in the alone and the blood stains. There was a pair of boots there too, I think these are they (Exhibit "E")

I asked him what he was going to carry some money. I asked him what he was going to do with the money and then said that I would be going. He then pulled away a note out of his pocket and told me how well he could use it. This note is similar to the one he showed (Exhibit A) I left away and he stood near me with the yellow note and said "Take off your shoes + socks." I did this. When his attention was distracted I struck him with my left fist a his forehead. At the blow me to the chest with something heavy and that I fell to the floor. He stood over me with the note and said "I've a good mind to cut you all to pieces." On seeing the note away from my face I seized him + at my hand slightly a it. The accused then slipped me in the face and body and then I managed to get away. Left a private to guard me and took me under his care. I was wearing my Class A's at the time and my pajamas and bedpan. Just the two of us were there. This room I was in was a room that was built into a long brick building in Jenpan Camp. This happened on the 9th night of 10 Oct 43. I was taken to the 0100 hrs and 0200 hrs. I had been drinking but was not drunk. The second time I had been drinking but was not drunk. The second time did not appear drunk to me. I had given him a pint of rum. I went with the second to get a signature from him. I had seen him before. I identify this shirt as mine, it is the one I was wearing when the incident occurred. (Exhibit "B") I also identify this bottle here as the one I was wearing. (Exhibit "C") I also identify the cap as the one I was wearing (Exhibit "D") I also identify these boots as the ones I was wearing (Exhibit "E") At that time I had not had anything to drink before I left the room. There was no one in my left hand was wearing at that time.

Cross-examination:

I did not pay much attention to what jewelry or boots was in the room. I identify the shirt because it is my blood that is on it and I know the shirt. My nose was bleeding and so was my head. I did not have my jacket on when the fight started, but I wore it into the room. I was kicked in the side of the head and on the. I was at the door but I do not know. I talked a lot with Lt. McGeachie

I did not see the accused any more, about 4 pm when was the last time I saw him on board.

By the Court.

The accused did not say why he wanted me to take off my boots & socks. I took my jacket off in the room & the accused after I took off my boots & socks. The room looked like an ordinary living quarters. When I left the room I left behind my socks, boots, jacket and cap.

There was a pair of boots there too, I think these are they (Exhibit "E")

The Prosecution is closed.

The Defending Officer submits under R.P. 40 that the Prosecution has not made out a prima facie case and the Court is closed for consideration of the submission.

The Court is re-opened and it is announced that the submission on the Second Charge is allowed and the accused is therefore pronounced "not guilty" of the 1st Charge.

R.P. 40 is complied with and the Defence proceeds to call witnesses.

1st Witness for Defence. The accused, having been duly sworn, states:-

On the night in question I stopped and had a bottle of beer with about 0920 hrs. I stayed to drink a bottle of beer with a friend of mine. Then we went to the 4th Block to try and get some beer. I saw a waiter there we know to get some beer but I was refused. Then my friend "Nancy" who is another batman took me to the

Sgt. Mess. Then one pay Sgt. came out with a pint of beer and I bought it from him. Then another Sgt. got me a 1/2 pint. Then Sgt. Englehart came along and he said he could get me some beer. He bought it at the Officers Mess and went back in. I suggested that he get 1/2 doz. pints and go over to my place and we could drink them. Then I kept on drinking and eventually I went into the Mess and spoke to him. We got 6 pints of beer and Sgt. Englehart & myself went to my room. He suggested staying for the night. I said it was O.K. with me. He started to brag about the States and I told him I did not like it and to get out. As I went to the door to show him out I was hit on the head with a glass by Sgt. Englehart. I turned round and hit at him many times or three times. I was pretty mad. He pleaded for mercy and I told him to get out. I walked out of the place and went over to the showers. I think it was about 0330 hrs 2 Oct 43. Then I saw a man called "Pop". The Sgt. was gone. My face was bleeding, my head was too. Then I went over to the kitchen and had some tea. I was talking with a pair of Aussies who's Sgt. Englehart was then. I also had the cook I was having the evening laying on the table. Englehart "A" belongs to me

I had about 6 pints on the night in question. I was not drunk. I have a very clear idea of what happened.

I do not know why the light hit me. I know that if he had come after me with his fist he would have got the same treatment. He can not swim. I did not ask him me to the shop for a smoke.

By the Court. I don't know why he hit me. I hit the light several times after he hit me.

Lord Ottrom for Defence. 428199 Pte Pastorius, A. L. of 2C. F. A. C. being duly sworn, states

Early in the evening the accused knocked on the bottom door. I got up and he had blood running down the back of his neck and went out to the shop with him. There there were broken bottles and blood on the floor and a light in there on the floor. Then we went to get a cup of tea and we could not get any as it was too late. The accused was just scratched on the back of his neck and his ear. It did not require any medical attention.

Cross-examination. His forehead was not injured as far as I could see.

By the Court. The accused said that the sergeant had cuts and asked him if he was not the bastard who fought. He told me that he had been in bed when the fight came and ordered him up.

Closing address by Defending Officer.

In closing may it be pointed out that while undoubtably Sgt Copeland received blows and was definately marked up at the hands of the accused and that to a certain extent thes evidence is corroborated both by circumstantial and verbal evidence, the whole affair appears to be the word of one man against another there were no actual eye witnesses.

The Sergeant is a superior officer, and the other is on a soldier striking an N.C.O. but there was considerable drinking by both parties and the fact that a Sergeant in drinking with a inferior lays himself open to question.

In the opinion of the defending officer the accused has produced evidence of extreme provocation.

Reply by the closing address of Defending Officer.

By Prosecuting Offr. (Capt A.E. Calvert)

I agree with the defending Offr. that the case should be decided on the facts as proved in evidence, and not on the sympathies which may be aroused by the appearance of counsel for one party (the accused) against the other (Sub-Lieut. Bond).

It is very evident that considerable kindness had been shown up to the time of the accused's arrest, according to the statements of the witnesses, but after the accused had struck the Bosun, steps were taken to put him under restraint.

Did he misunderstand the instructions given to him?

AHP

The accused's evidence as to the alleged, he was attacked by Englehart (a huge individual) and how is it that Sparrow's injuries were practically nil and Englehart was fairly beaten up?

It is true that Lt Englehart placed himself in a very humiliating position by accepting the invitation of an inferior rank to go to his quarters. But is that any defence for a vicious attack such as he sustained?

I believe that on weighing the evidence adduced at the trial the Court will have no difficulty in arriving at the same conclusions as the prosecution.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Jasper Camp,
Witley, Surrey
2 & 4 Oct 43

in the case of B.64564 Rfn. Laughton Darroch, No 2 Canadian General Pioneer Coy.

R.P.(F) The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken under oath.

19 WITNESS B62579 A/CSM Graham L.M. of No 2 Cdn Gen Pnr Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I am Acting C.S.M. of No 2 Cdn Gen Pnr Coy. On 2 Oct 43 at approximately 0930 hrs., Sgt Englehart C.G. came to my desk of No 2 Pnr Coy, and stated that he wished to lay a charge against B.64564 Rfn. Darroch L. He stated that approximately 0030 hrs on 2 Oct 43 that he had met Rfn. Darroch after the dance held at #2 C.A.R.U. Sergeants Mess, and had been asked to go with Rfn. Darroch to his quarters. He further stated that he had been lucky to get out of Rfn. Darroch's quarters alive. Thinking best that we start at the beginning I asked Sgt Englehart to accompany me to the Sergeants Mess to indentify the spot where he claimed to have the acquaintance of Rfn Darroch. We then proceeded to the Sergeants Mess Hall (the recreation end) and I had him point out where he had met Ref. Darroch. This place was immediately outside of the bar of the mess at its western end, which is approximately 10 feet from the bar itself. We left the mess, and I asked him where he went after they left the mess. He said pointing westward that it seemed to be in that direction. He could not be sure since it was dark. I asked him to describe the room that he was taken to. He stated that it was a room, small, but with the wall covered with pictures of women. Knowing such a room I took him to the barber shop, which is also the sleeping quarters of Rfn. Darroch, and he said this is the room. On entering the room, a battle blouse turned insideout was laying upon the bed. He said "that is my tunic". Cpl Cadotte accompaning me picked up the tunic (Exh.F.) still turned insideout and asked, " can you indentify the tunic (Exh.F.)". Sgt Englehart replied. "Yes ,it had Rifle Regt. stripes on the right arm only. There should be nothing in the pockets". He said, "those are my shoes", pointing to a pair of shoes (Exh.E.) on the floor. Cpl Cadotte asked him " can you indentify your shoes"? He said, "yes, one sole is not worn through the other is? The shoes (Exh.E.) were picked up from the floor and the statement verified. I also noted that on a cupboard on the east wall, and on the outside door there were blood stains.

At 1630 hrs after the preliminary hearing in company of Lt. R.W. Spurr we proceeded to make an examination of Rfn. Darroch's quarters. We found one straight razor (Exh.A) ivory shield, also on examination of the floor found several pieces of broken glass, (Exh.B.) one piece under the table on the south wall and two pieces under the cupboard on the east wall.

Q. by the accused:
"Did the Sgt. say to you this morning that he did not know where my place was ?"

A. by the witness:
"Yes"

Q. by the accused:
"What did he tell you that happened after we met last night"

A. by the witness:
"He stated that he had met Rfn.Darroch after the dance at #2 C.A.R. U. mess and that on Rfn.Darroch's invitation he had gone to Darroch's quarters. On entering the quarters he had had suggestions made to him by Darroch to perform an unnatural thing, that is,Darroch be allowed to suck his penis. He further stated, that with the idea of getting away from Darroch, that he had attempted to kid him along, by saying "that's going to cost you a lot of dough" He further stated, that displayed money and at this point, that he(Sgt Englehart) had got up from the bed with the intention of leaving, on doing so Rfn. Darroch reached into a box and threatened him, that if he did not undress, that it would be just too bad for him. He further stated that he watched his chance, after having removed his shoes(Exh.E.)and tunic(Exh.F.)to escape. He is vague in stating what transpired from that point on, although he did state that he had fought to escape and had been slashed with a razor in Darroch's hands and had been kicked and had had to leave, when he did escape in his bare feet.

7th WITNESS

B6630 L/Bdr. Armstrong W.T. of No 2 Cdn.Arty.Reinf.Unit., having been duly sowrn states:

I am R.P. for No 2 C.A.R.U. I was on night duty in charge of the guard house on the night of 1Oct and 2 Oct 43. At approximately 0300 hrs 2 Oct 43 a man came to me with a report that a man in a hysterical condition was wandering around the lines. When I found him he was dressed only in summer underwear, battle dress trouses, and suspenders. He was bare footed and carried with him a shirt (Exh.D.) and handkerchief badly blood stained. He was in a childish and frantic condition. He had obviously been beaten up and showed the marks of blows. His nose had been bleeding. I took him to the First Aid Post. As he had no means of indentification when the medical orderly made out his 292, that is his medical report. I found he was Sgt Englehart of #2 C.I.R.U. so I called from R.H.C. #2 C.A.R.U. to Orderly room of #2 C.I.R.U. for them to come and get the man. The R.P. from #2 C.I.R.U. came for him at approximately 0600 hrs 2 Oct 43. He returned at approximately 0900 hrs 2 Oct 43 accompanied by the R.S.M. of his camp. The R.S.M. of 2 C.A.R.U. told me to check the case and report to him. I took him to the Sgts mess, from where he described his trip of the night before, and the room in which he claimed to have been attacked. The descriptions led me to take him to the Pioneer Barber shop. Upon arrival there the room at first seemed too small to the Sergeant. Then seeing scars on the barber's forehead he ask the barber how he came by them. The barber said to the effect" You should know, I am the man you are looking for". Upon being asked about the sergeant's clothing he said, "the boots are under my bed"(Exh.E.). I then turned the case over to the R.P's. of his own unit, Cpl Cadotte and Tpr Sarafinchan.

I said yes. Sgt Englehart said I want him under close arrest. I asked why. He said he had had a fight with Rfn Darroch in the barber shop the previous night. He said he is a dangerous man, he made a pass at me with a straight razor. He showed me his fingers and they were cut, so I went to the barber shop and put Rfn Darroch under close arrest in No 2 C.A.R.U Guard Room at 0910 hrs 2 Oct 43. I came back and brought Sgt Englehart to Sgt Major Graham's office. Sgt Major Graham asked me if I had stripped Rfn.Darroch. I said.yes. "Have you got his keys?", I said yes. Sgt Major Graham told me to open the door that Sgt Englehart wanted to look for his boots and tunic. The tunic was laying on the bed and was indentified by three stripes on the one arm, and I asked Sgt Englehart how he knew his boots. He told me the way they were laced, and the sole was worn of one boot. The left boot,size 7. I said it is yours alright. So I brought the boots and tunic to Sgt Major Graham. About 1500 hrs 2 Oct 43 I was checking the lines around the barber shop. I saw a piece of glass(Exh.G.) about 35 to 40 feet from the barber shop alongside a tree. I picked it up and noticed there was blood stains on the glass. I brought it to the Orderly room and turned it over to Capt H.D.Hay.

B 64564 Pte Darroch, Langton 2.C.G.P.C.

duly sworn states

About 2300 hrs 10/2/43 I finished work in my barber shop at 2 C G P C. A friend of mine called Danny, a barber at 2 C A R U, came in to my shop, we talked for a while and then went to the Sgts mess 2 C A R U. around 2315 hrs to get a beer. We asked one of stewards if he could get us a beer. He went into the mess and came back and told us he couldn't get any. Danny then left me and I decided to try further to get a beer. I stood talking to two privates at the door for a while when then a sgt came out. I do not know his name. This sgt had been drinking. I asked him to get me a beer and gave him the money for it. He went in and came out with a mug of beer. The sgt returned to the mess, the provost went away and I stood in the doorway drinking the beer. Another sgt came out later and I asked him to get me a beer. I gave him the money and he went inside and then returned with two ½ pints of beer in two small mugs. I do not know this sgt's name but this sgt also had been drinking considerably. I was just about finished then drinks when Sgt Englebert came along. I did not know him before. I asked him if he could get me some beer and he said sure and with that he gave me the glass of beer he had in his hand. I offered to pay for it but he declined to accept. Sgt Englebert then went into the mess and returned with four glasses of beer, he set them on an oil drum outside the entrance to the sgts mess and he said he would get some more. I said get a half dozen and I will pay for them. He said don't worry about that. I said if you can get a half dozen we will take them on to the barber shop. He went into mess and was there ten or fifteen minutes and in the meantime I had consumed most of the four glasses of beer which were only partially filled. Then I went into the mess to look for Sgt Englebert and saw him with the sgts in a room adjoining to the bar. I met the bar steward and asked him why he did not give some beer to another steward for the barber who was outside and told him I was the barber. He gave me reply. Sgt Englebert then came in the bar room, went on to the bar, he picked up two glasses of beer and I picked up four glasses. The beer was already poured and sitting on a shelf. We then went on to my barber shop and took the beer with us. We entered the shop, Sgt Englebert sat on the bed and put his beer on a table near the bed. I set my beer on the other side of the table. On the table was a tin which contained my barbers tools. We sat and talked and drank for an hour or so. Sgt Englebert was talking about the southern states. I was sitting on a chair by the table trying to fix a pair of clippers. Sgt. Boylehart told me that he was going to stay there all night so I said it was OK for him to stay. He kept raving about the southern states and I got fed up and told him to get out and he said if that is the way you feel about it is OK I'll go. I went to go out to the lavatory and I was struck over the head with a glass. I turned when I was hit and he attempted to grab me and I took a smack at him, hitting him some where on the face. I had nothing in my hands at the time. We tussled for a few minutes and then he fell back on the bed and said that was enough and to leave me alone. I walked out of the room and went over to the showers in another building about ten yds away. My purpose was to see Pat Stories who sleeps there. I told him that I had just had an argument with a sgt. He came back with me and when we got to my room the sgt had gone. I wiped some blood from the left side of my head and laid down on the bed. When I awoke at 0630 hrs 2 Oct 1943 I noticed the floor wet under the table, glasses upset over the table, I went out and went over to the kitchen. I had a cup of tea and a cook called Tommie asked me where I got the blood on the side of the face. I told him I had been in a fight the night before and was hit over the head with a glass. I then went back to my shop and cleaned it up. There was some broken glass on the floor which I picked up and with the glasses I put them under a tree just outside my shop. I was working on customers accounts 08 30 to 09 00 when an R P and Sgt Brightbat came to my shop. They stood in the doorway and looked around. Nobody said anything at first. They were talking to each other and the R P appeared to go away & I stopped him and said "I think you are looking for me". With that the Sgt Brightbat asked me how I come to get two little scrapes on my left forehead. I said that I got them on the Wednesday previous in a bomb on the way home. The R.P asked me about some clothes. I told him the boots were in the bed - which he cannot now identify & identified as such nor can he identify the battle dress blouse. I was then taken to the guard room.

Cannot state whether or not Sgt Brightbat took off his boots and some of his clothes but I do know that he laid on the bed and pulled a blanket on him. This took place before an scuffle later.

I have four straight razors of my own and one other belonging to another soldier.

The prosecutor hands to the court a written closing address

The defending Officer hands to the court a written closing address.

Judge Advocate summed up in open court and stated that the only conflicting evidence debated was the evidence of Sgt Englebar and the evidence of Pte Dawson which differed considerably in what actually happened on the night 1-2 Oct '47. The court were informed that they were sole judges of the facts and the credibility of the witnesses. It was pointed out that striking in self defence was an answer to the charge of the court believe that the striking was done in self defence and was only sufficient for that purpose and not excessive. Any reasonable doubt must be given in favor of the accused.

Defending Officers Closing Address W.S.
in the Case of B64564 Pte. Laughton DARROCH
Canadian General Pioneer Coy. Can. Army.

The prosecution has produced evidence to show that S/Sgt Eglehart became involved in a brawl in which he sustained certain injuries. This borne out by certain exhibits covered with blood allegedly the Sergeants' and statements made by him.

On the other hand the accused under oath states that the Sergeant struck him first and denies that at any time he threatened the Sgt. Eglehart with a razor. Admittedly there were razors in the room where the fracas took place as it was a barber shop, but there is reasonable doubt that any of them were used as stated in the charge.

There is definate evidence that both parties present had been drinking and evidence that Sergeant Eglehart was in no condition at any time to be absolutely sure what actually took place.

Sergeant Eglehart placed himself in a compromising situation when he agreed to drinking with a subordinate and in accompanying Darroch to his room.

After Sergeant Eglehart left Darroch room and received medical treatment he did not appear to know whom it was or where it was the events took place. I therefore submit that it is highly improbable that he knew how or what had occurred much[illegible] less that he had been threatened with a razor.

The accused had been working until approx 2300 hrs had consumed at the most 6 glasses of beer and would be in a much better condition to know what occurred. The sergeant had been drinking for a considerable time previously and as stated by the accused was fairly drunk.

There is no ~~evidence~~ evidence to lead one to believe that Darroch entered Sgt Lyttleton's quarters with the sole purpose of attacking him the accused under oath refutes statements made by the sergeant and states definitely that he was not the aggressor.

Any blows struck by the accused were in self defence. There was broken glass on the floor ~~and~~ it is quite possible ~~that~~ the right ~~hand~~ was cut by this glass during the scuffle.

Address of Prosecuting Officer W.T.

Sir,

What we are all concerned with is to get at the truth of what happened in the accused's barber shop at Jasper Camp on the night of 1 October 42.

You have heard Corporal's story supported in its broad detail by the evidence of Lt Peter Armstrong who found him wandering around. The latter in a highly distressed condition, and also by the testimony of the medical officer at the F.A.P. and the orderly sergeant. The bartender at the Jasper Inn, has no recollection of Sgt. Corporal appearing under the influence of liquor. Neither has Peter Armstrong. Both gave positive evidence that he was in full possession of his faculties at the time the precipitate barrette after him ~~appeared~~ in the quarters, but being out of sight at that time.

I leave it to the Court to supply its own theory of what led to the vicious attack on Sgt Corporal. Neither he nor ~~anyone~~ anyone else ~~is~~ on that point - but what must be considered is the fact that, despite the physical advantage enjoyed boy Sgt Copeland he was the man that was badly beaten. There is no doubt whatever that Barrack threatened him with a razor - the accused says "in self-defence" - but if we are to believe Copeland's story (and he is very clear on this point) he was forced to forcibly disarm under such duress. It was the fear of what might otherwise result that made him comply. You can hardly blame him - most of us here I hardly expect for a razor would be an open or avowed purpose.

The fact remains that Copeland was first intimidated and then struck to the floor by a heavy object. He does not remember much after that except that he continued to receive blows. Collecting himself together he watched an opportunity to make his escape. I suggest at once that the accused sustained the few scratches he apparently received.

The evidence of the medical orderly only emphasizes the mental stress under which Englehart was naturally declining. It is logical to expect he would want to get on more even terms with his late aggressor and undue importance should not be attached to that point.

Obviously both had been drinking but the evidence has been adduced to indicate the extent to which the influence of liquor - if any - had affected their faculties. - It is for the Court to say whether they did.

If the evidence for the prosecution is to be believed the Court must find the accused guilty of an unprovoked assault upon the unarmed [illegible]

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence,
in the case of B.64564 Rfn. Laughton Darroch, No 2 Canadian General Pioneer Company.

R.P.(F) The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken under oath.

1ST WITNESS K.53827 A/Sgt Englehart C.G. of R.W.R. #2 Cdn Inf Reinf Unit having been duyl sworn states:

On the night of 1 Oct 43 I attended a Sergeants dance in the Sergeants mess No 2 C.A.R.U. I was accosted by the accused and he approched me and asked me to buy him a beer, but the bar was closed, so as I had some I gave him what I had, thinking he was one of the mess help. The fellow I was with, I missed him and I was out of smokes. The accused said he had some close by in his room and asked me to stop in and have one. He rolled me a smoke, and pulled a razor (Exh."A") out of his pocket and told me how he could use it. He had some money in his hand. When I suggested I was going to go, he said, I ~~will~~ go when he let me. He pulled a razor and held it in front of my face and told me to take my boots (Exh."B") and stockings off. I watched my chance and hit him with my left hand. I was then hit in the head by the accused with some object and knocked on the floor. He than made a statement that he had a good mind to cut me up with a razor. Keeping the razor out of my face I had my hands cut. I then escaped out of that room. First I was kicked in the stomach and face, and I escaped in my bare feet, then I was found by the provost who looked after me. I was in a very dazed condition and only remember being picked up in a jeep and taken to our M.O. No 2 C.I.R.U. I also remember someone giving me a pair of canvas shoes. I reported to C.S.M. McLellan, A/R.S.M. of No 2 C.I.R.U. He came up with me and reported to R.S.M. of 2 C.A.R.U. I described the room and when we found it, identified the accused in the room.

C.G. Englehart.
K.53827 A/Sgt Englehart, C.G.

2nd WITNESS B.6630 L/Bdr Armstrong W.T. of No 2 Cdn Arty Reinf Unit, having been duly sworn states:

At 0300 hrs 2 Oct 43 it was reported to me at the guard house, that a man was wandering around the lines. I checked and found the man who claimed to be a Sergeant from the Infantry Camp, No 2 C.I.R.U. He had no means of identification, was bare footed, wore only his summer underwear and trouses and carried a shirt(Exh."C") and handkerchief, both badly blood stained. He had a stale smell of liquor, but not strong and seemed to be in a childish frame of mind. He had obviously been beaten up. I took him to the first aid post for treatment where we found brusies on his head, slight lacerations on the hands, and the only explanation for the amount of blood being his nose bled, his nose had been bleeding. The orderly made out a sick report (Exh."D") and the sergeant's name was Sgt. Englehart of No 2 C.I.R.U. I left him at the first aid post and went to R.H.Q.

there I called up his own camp. I asked them to come for him and bring boots for him. The R.P's of his camp came at approximately 0600 hrs or 0700 hrs. It was understood they would take him home and put him to bed and to forget about it. He returned approximately at 0900 hrs with R.S.M. of his camp. The R.S.M. returned immediately to his own camp. The R.S.M. of our camp instructed me to get the details of the case, check, and report to him. The Sergeant and myself went to the Sergeants mess and from there a description led us to believe it could be the Pioneer barber shop. On arrival there the barber was working on a customer. We simply stood in the door way. I asked the sergeant if this was the room. He said he thought it looked too small, and was going to leave. Then he noticied some small scars on the barber's forehead. He asked the barber how he came by those marks. There was converstaion between them, which I do not remember at all. The barber then made the statement to me, " I guess I am the man you are looking for". On being asked about the sergeant's clothing. He said to the effect,"His boots are under my bed." The sergeant tried to push past me into the barber shop and I told him it would be better to settle the argument otherwise and took him to the R.P's., of the Pioneers. Telling the barber to carry on with his work I turned the sergeant over to Cpl Cadotte of the Pioneers.

3rd WITNESS

B.112721 L/Bdr.Appleton C.H. of No. 2 Cdn Arty Reinf Unit, having been duly sworn states:

I am medical orderly of #2 C.A.R.U., F.A.P. On Oct 2nd at 0030 hrs, Sgt.Englehart came into the F.A.P. with an R.P. and said that he needed treatment. He had a kahki shirt carried over his arm, blood stained. I went ahead and checked over his body to find out where the blood stains came from, and all I could find was an abrazed wound at the back of the head and also contusion of the face below the eye and a very small cut on the hand. That was the full extent of his injuries. He did have any boots on when he came in, nor hat or tunic, the shirt was on his arm as already stated. He was wearing his undershirt but had no blood stains on it. My job is to find out how the injuries took place. I asked him how he received the injuries and he told me he had been fighting with some Lance Corporal from the Q.M.Stores. He changed the story and stated that Germans and Italians were after him. He kept demanding rifle and bayonet that he was going to kill this L/Cpl with the bayonet. I soaked his feet for him and loaned him my shoes, but he was still insistent on wanting to get this rifle and bayonet. He rushed over to the window to get a window closing pole and he was going out of the building with it, when an R.P. and myself took it from him. Then he still asked for the rifle and bayonet. I told the R.P. to take him over to the guard room and call the provost to take him away. In my opinion the man had a slight case of D.T's. I made out my report for the Medical Officer.

5th WITNESS B.62579 A/CSM Graham L.M. of No 2 Canadian General Pioneer Coy., having been duly sworn states:

At approximately 0930 hrs 2 Oct 43 Sgt Englehart, C.G. reported to me that he wished to lay a charge against B.64564 Rfn Darroch L. I then took him to the sergeants mess hall(the recreation room) where he showed me he had met Rfn Darroch, this was a point outside the bar of the mess, that is the western end, which is approximately 10 feet from the bar itself. I asked him to show me where he went with Darroch after the dance. He told me that a place was small and that the wall was covered with pictures of women. I then took him to the unit barber shop which answered that discription. On entering the room a battle blouse(Exh."E"), turned inside out was lieing on the bunk. Sgt Englehart said,"that is my tunic? Cpl Cadotte also present, picked up the tunic which was still turned inside out, and asked Sgt Englehart, "Can you identify this tunic?" Sgt Englehart then replied " Yes it had rifle regiment stripes on the right arm only? Examining the tunic I noticied blood stains on it. There was a pair of boots on the floor. Sgt Englehart pointed to the boots and said," Those are my boots." He was asked to identify them, he said, "One sole is not worn through and the other is." The boots were picked up from the floor and his statement was substaniated. I also noted that on a cupboard on the east wall and that on the outside wall there were blood stains. At 1630 hrs after the preliminary hearing and in company with Lieut.R.W.Spurr we carried out an examination of Rfn Darroch's quarters. We found one straight razor with ivory shield, and on examination of the floor found several very small pieces of broken glass(Exh."F")

I am Provost of No 2 Cdn Gen Pnr Coy. On 2 Oct 43 at 0900 hrs L/Bdr Armstrong and Sgt Englehart walked up to me in the lines. Sgt Englehart asked me if I had Rfn Darroch, barber. I replied, yes. Sgt Englehart told me to put him under close arrest. I asked, why ? He replied,"Look at my fingers and face, he is a dangerous man, he made a pass with a razor at me." I walked up to the barber shop with two escorts, and put Rfn. Darroch under close arrest in No 2 C.A.R.U. guard room. I walked back and brought in Sgt Englehart to C.S.M. Graham. While I was in the orderly room Sgt Major Graham asked me if I had stripped Rfn Darroch. I replied, yes. He said, give me the keys of his barber shop. I opened the barber shop, but before opening it, I asked Sgt Englehart why he wanted to go into the barber shop. Then Sgt Major Graham stated that Sgt Englehart had a pair of boots inside and a tunic. I then asked Sgt Englehart if he could identify his clothes, he said, "I can tell my boots the way they are laced, and the sole worn off on the left foot". I then picked up the pair of boots underneath Rfn Barroch's table. I examined the boots, I said, "it's yours sergeant" He then identified his tunic with three stripes on the right arm, and no shoulder patches, and nothing in the pockets. I brought out the belongings to Sgt Englehart and turned them into Sgt Major Graham. At about 1500 hrs the same day I was examining the lines and saw a broken glass about 35 to 40 feet along side a tree near the barber shop. I picked up the piece of glass(Exh."G") and examined it. There was blood stains on the glass and then I turned it over to Capt Hay.

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 96 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 40(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or J.A. (RP 40 fn 1(6)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

Plea of Mitigation of B 138275 Pte. Dart, L.R.

In putting forward a plea of mitigation for this man I would like to point out first of all, his history. He is 22 years old, was married at the age of 21 and spent only 5 days with his wife before going overseas. At this time he was with the Artillery. He was transferred from the Artillery to the Infantry just before coming to France in October, 1944. He fought with "B" Coy of the Calgary Highlanders for one month. During this time he fought through several battles including the battle of the Causeway on the 1st of Nov., 1944. After that the Battalion had a short rest period. During this period Pte. Dart had a lot of spare time and I am afraid that he started thinking over the vivid details of this last Causeway battle in which his Company had played the most vital part. He went over this battle again and again in his mind until he had almost worked himself into a frenzy of fear which thus led to his going A.W.L. While he was away from the Battalion he was able to get his mind back to normal again and realizing his mistakes gave himself up to the Provost. I believe that Pte. Dart regrets his action and if he is given a chance will once more become an efficient soldier and an asset to his country.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

Plea of Mitigation of B 138275 Pte. Dart, L.R.

In putting forward a plea of mitigation for this man I would like to point out first of all, his history. He is 22 years old, was married at the age of 21 and spent only 5 days with his wife before going overseas. At this time he was with the Artillery. He was transferred from the Artillery to the Infantry just before coming to France in October, 1944, He fought with "B" Coy of the Calgary Highlanders for one month. During this time he fought through several battles including the battle of the Causeway on the 1st of Nov., 1944. After that the Battalion had a short rest period. During this period Pte. Dart had a lot of spare time and I am afraid that he started thinking over the vivid details of this last Causeway battle in which his Company had played the most vital part. He went over this battle again and again in his mind until he had almost worked himself into a frenzy of fear which thus led to his going A.W.L. While he was away from the Battalion he was able to get his mind back to normal again and realizing his mistakes gave himself up to the Provost. I believe that Pte. Dart regrets his action and if he is given a chance will once more become an efficient soldier and an asset to his country.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 89(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

Plea attached of RB

Gentleman! Here is what appears on first sight a flagrant case of violation of Army rules: ~~On second sight~~ But if we examine the case closely we can find some explanation for the actions of the accused. ~~Let me~~ Allow me for a few moments to discuss the Army career of Pte Dasher and the circumstances under which he joined the Can. Army.

Dasher, an American citizen, came to Canada in May 1940 for the sole purpose of joining our forces. The ~~one~~ reason for this action Gentleman, is quite obvious. It was prompted by the same feeling which made many a citizen of another country join our forces. After a short time in ~~infantry~~ R.C.A.S.C. he was transfered to R.C.A.S.C. Where men were urgently needed at the time.

In 1941 Dasher was sent to England for the next three years he was employed in Service Corps work. However ~~for the~~ 1944 this brings us to the momentous year of ~~1944~~

No 47 Vol 12.

Many of our men had been hit, consequently there existed, especially in the Infantry Corps, an acute shortage of manpower. Pte Dasher at this time decided his services were more urgently needed elsewhere than in his present post and for this reason volunteered for service in the infantry.

After a period of training in England he was sent to the Continent. He went into action with the Essex Scottish on Feb. 1945. This regiment was then fighting in the bitter sector of Calcar. On the 19 Feb Dasher's Platoon ran into very stiff fighting. The Platoon leader was killed, the Sgt who took over was wounded. They received orders to withdraw. Four men [redacted] were needed to fight a rear guard action in order that the others might get out safely. [redacted] volunteered. [redacted] to be one of the [redacted] was Pte Dasher. This rearguard fought and protected the withdrawal in spite of a strong German attack, until finally they were surrounded and forced to surrender.

After his Capture the Accused was sent to Stalag #11B This camp was one of the worst in Germany. Need I say more. Whilst in this prison Dasher again showed commendable fortitude. The International Red Cross had sent many parcels of food and comforts to the Prisoners of War in Germany. They also provided vehicles to transport them to their many away and dispersed destitutions. Volunteers from P.O.W. Camps were requested to drive these vehicles and deliver them where they were so urgently needed. Again Dasher ventured.

This duty was indeed a hazardous and dangerous one. Please remember gentlemen then our Air force were bombing & machine gunning every moving object on German roads, ~~often they could not see that these vehicles were those of the International Red Cross.~~ In the course of this work Dasher was strafed twice by our own planes and once by [redacted] Russian aircraft. Not a very pleasant experience one must admit, more emphatically so, when one is on a merry mission and has not the means or opportunity of defending oneself, ~~but~~ alone fighting back.

The accused after liberation came back to England. He could have gone straight back HOME However for reasons best known to himself he elected to stay in England. He asked to be discharged here but his request met with no considerations. He was told at that time EX Prisoners had to return to Canada.

This state of affairs gentleman was the basis of the accused violation of martial law. He like many others, deserted himself and then after a time gave himself up to the authorities.

There is no reason for his deserting himself gentlemen and why the same reason why he wished to be discharged in the UK. Barber is in love with a married woman in this country and is soon to have a child by her. He wants to arrange this divorce of the wife's way because the husband is not the type of father who would take care of another woman's child and Barber does want his child to have the best care. On civil life Barber was an at Petroleum research and he's sure he can get a job in this country. He's old enough to know his own mind gentlemen and in view of all he's been through in this war I plead with you to be lenient with this man and help him make a future for himself. Remember gentlemen Barber is 29 years of age and if you deal harshly with him now it will take him years to get started again.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 45 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(I. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex P, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(2) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

In the case of B 63814 Pte Dashak John Maurice, 48th Highlanders, the court opened at 1400 hrs 24 May 44. Defence asked for 24 hrs adjournment under R.P 39(a). Application was granted. Accused pleaded not guilty Court resumed at 1400 hrs 25th May 44. The accused changed his plea to "guilty". Accused declined to make any statement.

On a plea of mitigation, the defending officer pointed out that it was apparent from the man's record that there "must be something wrong with the man." Accused enlisted in 1939 — he served for 3 years until C.O.R's. During that time, said defending officer, his conduct sheet was clear. "Not as much as one day C.B." That enlisted, said the officer, the man's desire to be a soldier. "Something happened to man at that time," defence continued. "What it was I am not prepared to say."

Defending officer said "I do know this much - this man has been interviewed by a psychiatrist and his report definitely shows that if this man were publicized he would have a category under the 'S'."

"I think it is duty of this court," defense added, "in their endeavor to do justice to see that this man is psychologically [illegible] that way only defense contended, "Can we be sure that accused was fully aware of the action he was about to take when he went AWOL".

Continuing, def officer submitted a letter written by accused to the S.P.O. "I present the letter to bring out the fact that an examination is necessary."

(Defending officer asked permission to produce documents from S.P.O. files. Permission was granted - and documents tendered.)

Accused has gone a statement under oath.

Statement under oath of B 6814
Pte Kaschuk J M, 48th Highlanders of Canada,
Having been duly sworn, the p/m states:

"When I joined the army, I joined any to do all I could do at the front time I joined my mother died and I was the support of the family. That meant I was eligible for discharge if I so wanted one. I took it the best way I could and carried on. While in Canada after returning from Newfoundland, there were more domestic troubles. I straightened them out the best way I could — I was confident that the people home would help them with my word and I carried on with my army duties.

I applied for a transfer to the Air Force. Coming to England I again applied for such a transfer through proper channels but evidently the application were crushed 'the top.' Again in July 42, I ~~again~~ applied but nothing ever through. I still kept on soldiering. On Feb 43 I ~~kept~~ had definite papers for my transfer which were properly signed. Only one more signature was needed. I never got a reply. I tried very hard all the time to soldier - but, in my mind, I figure I got a raw deal in my desire for a homer. That is the only reason that I was carried on as I have. That is all, sir."

Questioned by the Court.

Q Are you married?
A No, sir!
Q Have debts concerning your family
A I have one minor dependent
Q Did you assign pay to your home
A Yes, $40 to my mother

Dear Sir

Re my interview with you some months ago Pte J W Dalziel. You told me to try getting along, while I stayed finishing in my mind I could not do a thing, and inform I have gone A.W.L. unless not in hospital. I've been at the Unit Det 24 days limit, and am now waiting for a sentence again. My mind has not changed my mind, and even if I have to take a term out on the front draft, I'm on and go up for duration I'll do so. I feel that the Army has wrong'd me and don't see one good reason for fighting. As God knows I've tried for three years to become more active and the thanks I got for it was being put out as you already know. I'm short 11 days of 2 years in service and my mind is quite the same, what I mean is no matter how hard I try I just can't see me in the Army. All I think about is how the Army made me go bad this part you, and only then I'm thinking that my mind let me slip.

Now I don't know no one who I can turn to and you tell me if I could but got no satisfaction to see you again, my being with No 4 C.I.R.U. makes it impossible, so I hope my writting will help. All I ask is that you carefully look that report over and place yourself in my shoes. I had twice reason, which I couldn't of got a discharge back in Canada, got in fast I stuck, I just was so hard to help this War, I'm ashamed to - mind, which was the cause of my being done wrong. As I see I can't possibly get a transfer into the Air Force as a Gunner or something which I enlisted, but I'm not the kind but able to soldier in the Army, in my mind it might seem so trivial and no matter how I just can't get it out. All I think of is drinking as it helps the might off my mind, and I feel deeply that every one is against me. The P.D.O. said he could not do anything and I can't see nothing but jail for me, and it just because I was so dead set on the Airforce. Why can't you send my case back to the Unit (1st Batt C.O.R. of Can) you'll find that I have tried very hard I and to make good, while I had hopes of the transfer. I slept last

You can ask Col Sprague about my application for transfer to R.C.A.F. whether I got a formal reply, asked my first 18 months in this country, how I worked, with to Col Mac Rendell at Ottawa about the letter I wrote him, and his return one which you read, and if needed it will get you all the proof I other men have, and if you [illegible] completely clear my name, and will say I am [illegible] than I in the army world. I've never asked in my life asked any thing for my self, and for the way I fought to soldier and was driven to go back. I still do not desire to go out in a manner which at the last resort I shall do. I just can't soldier no more, as the transfer has been in my mind so long and its all I can see. It has been in my mind so long and not a thing can change it. If I should be found to carry on I don't change as my mind does not see to do so. I'll not stop bucking a solid wall till I get out of the Army and maybe then able to mend my good. I've set my mind to one 3½ years ago.

Re: D-121999 Pte Gastous Emil

The accused has plead guilty on the charge laid against him but before convicting this man I pledge the court to consider the fact that the accused has been in action with the R de Chaud since pt 10 and served with this unit for seven month always fulfilling his duties to the best of his knowledge and ability.

The strenuous battles at wich the Regt took part slowly grinded his moral and he asked for a leave to which he was entitled and that was refused to him.

On the 19 of Jan, his unit being on rest he repeat his request and was still refused the privelege that many of his junior had received.

The accused having fulfilled his duties very consciencously up to the date of his error and which is proven by the fact that he spend seven month in action with his unit I am sure the court will find that this man has temporarily lost control over himself and made an error which every humany being is bounct to make at one time or an other.

The accused, feeling that he has failed to fulfilled his duties up to the end is ready to repair is fault and has proven it by signing for service in the Far East.

I beg the court to be indulgent and to give a chance to a man who is proving his valiance.

Plea in Mitigation

I joined the unit (R de Chaud) in February 1942 and landed in France on Jun 16/44. Since that time I have always been with the unit and when I asked for leave I always received the answer "Wait". My 7 days leave to England was due for a long time. Some men who arrived on the continent after me had their leave but I could not get mine. No leave was granted to me! When I went A.W.L. I did not realize what I was doing but when I came back I did and I paid for it.

PLEA OF MITIGATION RE D121999
PTE DASTOUS PAUL

The accused has plead guilty on the charge laid against him but before convicting this man I pledge the court to consider the fact that the accused has been in action with the R de Chaud since D plus 10 and served with this unit for seven months always fulfilling his duties to the best of his knowledge and ability.

The strenuous battles at wich the Regt took part, slowly grinded his moral and he asked for a leave to which he was entitled and that was refused to him.

In the 19 of Jan, his unit being on rest, he repeat his request and was still refused the priviledge that many of his junior had received.

The accused having fulfilled his duties very consciencously up to the date of his error and which is proven by the fact that he spend seven month in action with his unit, I am sure the court will find that this man has temporarily lost control over himself and made an error which every human being is bound to make at one time or another.

The accused, feeling that he has failed to fulfilled his duties up to the end is ready to repair is fault and has proven it by signing for service in the Far East.

I beg the court to be indulgent and, to give a chance to a man who is proving repentance.

D121999 Pte Paul Dastrous PLEA IN MITIGATION

I joined the unit (R de Chaud) in February 1942 and I landed in France on Jun 16/44. Since that time I have always been with the unit and when I asked for leave I always received the answer "Wait." My 7 days leave to England was due for a long time. Some men who arrived on the continent after me had their leave but I could not get mine. No leave was granted to me. When I went AWL I did not realize what I was doing but when I came back I did and I signed for Japan.

CASE OF

E-1 D.76446 Trooper D'AOUST, H.F., On strength No. 3 CACRU

The accused, sworn, states:-

As you know, I have been overseas since Dec 39. Of course, I admit that since that time my conduct has not been any too good but now I can see that the war is not going to last very much longer and I would like to get overseas before the conflict is over. If I'm in detn once the war is over, I will never be able to face my people any more. I have no excuse to offer. I came out of detn in Nov and I firmly resolved that I would soldier. For one month, I was on put on coal fatigues here. I worked hard. I got a nine-day pass and came back to camp after a long walk from the station in the rain. I came back an hour before my pass was finished. I thought I was on the right road. Two weeks later, I got a week-end pass. I came back to Waterloo Stn on time to get back. I went in the buffet bar, had too many drinks and naturally missed the train. With the conduct sheet that I have, knowing that being late an hour, I knew that the punishment would be very severe. I woke up the next morning and I said to myself, "What's the use". While absent, I did not enjoy myself. I don't know why I do it. I don't think I'm smart or that I'm fooling the Army, nothing like that. I should have $1,200 deferred pay in my paybook but now I have only $500.00; my gratuity after the war is gone. I would like to ask the Court to get me overseas before this war is over as I want to do something worthwhile.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. Why did you go absent on the 12 Dec 44, while you were in arrest?
A. I was up before the Major and he sent me up before the Col. He gave me a good talking to. I knew what I was in for. It frightened me more and I was mad and that's why I went away.

Q. If you want to soldier why did you go absent on the 30 June, 44, shortly after "D-Day,
A. I was trying to get married. I had a woman which was in the family. I was trying to get permission to get married. I didn't get it. So I went to Sheffield to try and get married without permission. I didn't succeed.

Q. How are your personal affairs now?
A. It's all settled now, Sir. She had a miscarriage in Sep of last year.

Q. How did you live while you were ASL?
A. I was in Southend and talked to American soldiers and told them I was ASL. They looked after me.

Q. What is your Cat?
A. "A", Sir.

QUESTION BY THE DEF OFFR

Q. You came overseas on the 17th Dec 39 and how have you been employed since you are over here?
A. Yes, Sir, I've been over here since 39 and I have always worked in the Officers' Messes as batman, etc.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO CAUTION THE ACCUSED AS TO HIS RIGHTS (B).

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

This man has been employed as batman. He is cat "A". He came over here on the 17th Dec 39 and I can quite understand the man being rushed around in these various jobs getting absolutely "fed up". I'd like the COURT to consider this in making their verdict. This man would like to go overseas as early as possible because the war will end soon and I would like you to be as lenient as possible as he wants to get overseas before the war is over.

Whether Pte Dautenil was sober tight or drunk the charge against him is still leaving his post before he was regularly relieved.

Two N.C.O.s both under oath have stated that Pte Dautenil left his post and quoted Dautenil as saying he was not doing any more guard.

There is absolutely no doubt that he left his post & that he is guilty of the charge

I wish to bring the attention of the Court to Note 7 of the Section of P.A. under which the accused is charged. It is stated there that on a charge like the present one it has to be proved that the accused had been regularly posted. This has not been proved by the prosecution and both witnesses have clearly declared that they did not post the sentry themselves.

Jurisdiction Conf.

In mitigation of sentence I wish to bring to the attention of the court the record of this soldier. The fact that in his whole service which dates back to 1939 he has had only one charge of A.W.L. The fact that when he left his post he had was under the influence of "wine" and not in possession of all his senses. The fact that on leaving his post he made sure to report to his Sgt so his post would not be left unattended and the fact that this post was not an important one. Due to all these considerations I ask the Court to be lenient in its sentence.

Respectfully.

STATEMENT OF WITNESS

NAME :- Douglas L. BRAZIER.

ADDRESS :- Reigate Borough Police.

OCCUPATION :- Police Constable No.40.

STATES :-

"At 4.30 am on Saturday the 25th of October 1941 I was on duty in West Street, Reigate, when I was approached by a pedal cyclist Mr Maurice Harris, of 12 Kiln Lane, Brockham, a cleaner at the L.P.T.B. Garage, Reigate.

In consequence of what he told me I borrowed his cycle and after communicating with Reigate Police Station from the Black Horse telephone kioskI proceeded with all possible speed to the Buckland Cafe.

On arrival I found that the Cafe door had been forced.

I entered and searched the building and on the floor found a Policeman's helmet.

On a chair just inside the door I found an Army Forage cap bearing a Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment of Canada badge and inside the cap was the number C.5290.

At this stage Sergeant Patrick and Special Constable Vreglown arrived and together we further examined the premises.

Behind the door I found half a brick and a gents leather fur lined glove.

I handed all the articles which I had found to Sergeant Patrick who took them to the Buckland Police Office.

After the sergeant left I further examined the vicinity and outside the Cafe door I found a piece of iron 9 inches in length and 2 inches in width which exactly fitted the marks on the door.

I remained in the vicinity and kept observation on the premises until the arrival of Sergeant Tuggey of the County Police and conferred with him before leaving".

States:-

"At 4.15.a.m. on Saturday the 25th Oct., 1941, I was on duty at Reigate Road, Buckland, and when about 50 yards from "Jack's Snack Bar" I heard a door crash in the direction of the snack bar. I immediately went there and saw an electric torch being used inside the snack bar. I found the door had been forced open and inside the snack bar I saw two soldiers standing in front of the counter. I said to them, "What are you doing in here", and at the same time switched on my electric lamp and observed that both soldiers belonged to the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. One of them, who I now know as Bale, said, "We just walked in". I said, "You have broken in". He said, "No", the door was open." I said to them; "You belong to the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, where do you come from". The soldier, who I now know as Daverick, said, "Just up the road". I said, "You will have to come with me". Bale then rushed at me, grabbed me by the neck and pushed the piece of iron produced into my stomach. Daverick started to punch the side of my head. I struggled with them and worked towards the door. I had my truncheon drawn and struck Bale across the head, which caused his hat to fall off. We eventually got out of the cafe door and they both pushed me over on to a table which was standing outside the snack bar. They tore my cape off and continued to punch me about the body. I shouted for help and they both ran off in the direction of Reigate, throwing the piece of iron (produced) at me as they went.".

"I obtained assistance and an immediate search was made for the two men, but without successful result. As a result of my injuries I was unfit for duty for two days."

"At 3.p.m. on the 6th Nov., 1941, I attended an identification parade at "Ravenleigh", Betchworth, which was conducted by Provost Sergt. Cornish, where I identified Ptes. Bale and Daverick as the two men who assaulted me at the snack bar previously referred to."

D/States:-

"At 4.40a.m. on the 25th Oct.,1941, I received a report from P.C.Haseman that he had been assaulted by two soldiers of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, who he had found in Jack's Snack Bar, Buckland, at 4.15.a.m. that morning. He was in a distressed condition and his face bore marks of recent blows."

"I immediately went to the snack bar and found entrance had been effected by forcing the door with some instrument and the marks were identical with the piece of iron produced which I found outside the snack bar."

"As the result of an Army cap, bearing No.C6290, and Hastings and Prince Edward Regimental badge, I made enquiries with the Regimental Police at local units and ascertained that the hat was the property of Pte.Howard Harold Hale,"A" Company, Morden Grange, Hetchworth. I later ascertained that he had been absent from his unit for the past 16 days with Pte. C.Deverick."

"The description furnished of the two wanted men was identical with that of Hale and Deverick."

"On the evening of the 4th Nov.,1941, I interviewed Pte. Hale, who was then under close arrest at Battalion Headquarters.I told him the nature of my enquiries and he strongly denied all knowledge of the matter. He was then in possession of the Army cap produced, which he first stated was issued to him about a month ago, but later he said it was issued to him about 18 months ago when he was at Aldershot."

"On the afternoon of the 5th Nov.,1941, I interviewed Pte. Deverick at Buckland. I acquainted him with the nature of my enquiries and whilst he admitted he had been in the company of Hale during the whole time he had been absent from his regiment, he denied all knowledge of the matter in question."

"I was called to the cafe by the Police at 8.a.m on the 25th Oct.,1941, and upon making an examination I found the place had been entered by forcing the door,xxxx the lock having been damaged. There was nothing whatever stolen from the cafe".

First witness for prosecution. C 33312 Pte Virtue, R.W., 2 Cdn Fd Coy RCE.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

On 22 Jul 43 I found Spr Davey, the accd, in his hut & told him to report back to his vehicle & carry on with his maintenance, which he did. This was at 1430 hrs. On 1330 hrs his parade on 22 Jul there was a skin inspection in one of the huts, it was not in Davey's own hut. Sgt Ruffell gave me order in presence of accd that MT section would carry on with maintenance of vehs after skin inspection. I gave the order to MT at 1410 hrs & Spr Davey was present.

WMills

On 24 Jul I reported this occurrence to Sgt Ruffell.

Cross-exam There was a kit inspection this day. Spr Davey was sitting at the table & kit laying out on bed. On morning parade had been told there was a kit inspection but kit had not been inspected up to 1430 hrs.

Re-exam none

Court – Sgt Ruffell gave order on morning parade for kit inspection. MT sec were standing to their kits all morning – some of their kits but not all had been inspected in the morning. MT sec fell in at 1330 hrs & were on skin inspection until 1410 hrs when I gave order. No further orders were given about kit inspection after morning parade. Order was for whole section to lay out their kits & stand by their beds & wait for kit inspection. After skin inspection I told all MT to break off & carry on with the maintenance of their vehicles. Have no reason for not reporting this until 24th – did not consider it very important –
Just normal kit lay out, that is, everything he possessed was laid out on his bed & was to be inspected by an officer. No order or understanding when kit would be taken up or packed away.

2nd Wit Pros] B25370 Sgt Ruffell, L.C., 2 Cdn Fd Coy, RCE, duly sworn, states:-
On 24 Jul @ 1100 hrs placed Spr Davey under open arrest.
On 22 Jul at 0830 hrs 2 gave orders for kit inspection + told personnel to stand by their bed after laying out their kit.
On 1330 parade gave orders to L/Cpl Virtue that at 1500 after skin inspection would continue with their duties maintaining their vehicles & when kit was to be inspected they would be called in from their duties individually.
Cross-exam. Was a room orderly for 4 huts + his job to watch the 4 huts. Whole coy on skin inspection so nothing should have been stolen.
Re-exam - Normal procedure to have only 1 orderly for 4 huts + they contained about same equipment as every other day.
Court. 2 gave order to L/Cpl Virtue at 1330 hrs - did not instruct whole parade just L/Cpl Virtue. Was not present when he passed the order on. During morning all men were standing by their beds in accordance with orders.
Usual order to do maintenance is carry on with maintenance should not confuse this order as meaning that would carry on with maintenance after kit inspected + packed away. Is not know whether Cpl Virtue told men that they would be called in individually when kit was to be inspected.

3rd Wit Pros] B25747 Cpl Koen, H, 2nd Cdn Fd Coy RCE, duly sworn, states:-
On 25 July 43 2 was hut orderly - at 2300 hrs 2 took tattoo report. Spr Davey, CK, the accused, was absent. 2 marked him absent on tattoo report. 2 took no further action to search for him. At 0600 hrs next morning 2 found Spr Davey in his bed. He did not report to me during the night.
2 go thru hut to bedsen taking tattoo - they are supposed to be in bed at 2300 hrs.
Cross-exam. Tattoo is rigidly enforced. - Tattoo reports have been taken early but the men were all in. If man not in 2 told tattoo until 2300 hrs. 2 told it this night. 2 enquired from men in the hut. If man outside walking around would be absent - lights put out at 2300 hrs. Do not let men come in late unless they are marked absent.
Re-exam - none
Court. Orders are that tattoo will be taken at 2300 hrs + this is generally known. If man not present 2 just make enquiries from other men but do not go out looking for him. If man not present at tattoo it is generally understood + published in Pt I orders that he is absent + it is generally understood that a man absent must report to guard room or hut Cpl.

Sir, I am Capt. W.L. Stirling now on transient strength of 3 Wing, 3 Cdn Repat Depot. I have known the accused over a period of 6 months, during that time he was employed at the supply depot of the Educational services on the continent and attached to 23 Educational Section of which I was the Admin officer. At all times I found the accused to be an efficient soldier and he was promoted to the rank of Cpl and confirmed in that rank from Pte and recommended for the promotion to Acting Sgt and the fact that the unit was disbanding alone stopped the granting of Sgts stripes. I have always found the accused to be a soldier of exemplary conduct. When he came to the section there was no entries on his NPM 6 and he never came before the C.O. on any charge whatever. Furthermore I would like to point out that I always found Cpl Davey to be a trustworthy soldier, in addition to his normal duties he slept in the supply depot, he had the key to the warehouse at all times, in that depot were stored the supplies and equipment including typewriters and other office machinery and other equipment of considerable value and there were never any shortages and this bears witness to his honesty. I have no hesitation whatever in making this plea on his behalf.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

PLEA OF MITIGATION BY ACCUSED

THE ACCUSED SWORN, STATES:-

Between Dec the 26 and 29th I was attached to 4 Bn Repat Camp in Nijmegen Holland. On one of those days I heard one of the men in the hut ask the other fellows with a view to selling a revolver. He pointed out that he needed some Dutch currency and was willing to part with his weapon for a sum of 25 guilders. Since most of the men in the hut had already in their possession weapons as souvenirs, he made no sale until he came to me. As it happened I was in a position to furnish the necessary currency I thought the revolver would make a good souvenir. I noticed that it was wrapped in two pieces, the barrel and the body and the numbers on the barrel and the body did not agree and the barrel did not screw into the body, however as my intention was to keep it as a souvenir I didn't mind. I went on leave over here and included the weapon with my kit, I figured it was much safer than leaving it here. While on leave I was talking to several Canadians and I gathered that it might not be a good idea to retain the weapon in my possession. On Jan 10 I decided to dispose of it. I talked to an American soldier and he said that Americans were permitted to take weapons back with them and he suggested selling it to an American. Later on that day in the afternoon I was walking along a street in London near Marble Arch and passed three men in American Uniform. They stopped me and we engaged in conversation. I told them about the revolver, one of them looked at it under his coat and he suggested trading it for a .45 calibre weapon. I didn't particularly want to trade for another weapon and my idea was to get rid of it altogether. The Americans went into a building nearby and I waited and I presumed they were going to get the .45. A few seconds later I noticed a civilian walking across the street toward me and he introduced himself as a police officer and asked to see the parcel, I showed him on which he placed the two parcels in his overcoat and informed me I was to go with him, I was taken into custody from there and was taken to the Provost and returned to this camp and later remanded for FOCN. From remarks that had been made I had gathered that weapons were not to be taken back to England.

No. 139111. of The Royal Canadian Regiment, in uniform, he approached three U.S. Soldiers, and was in conversation with them, when I walked passed them, I heard the Canadian Soldier say "I want three pounds ten for it," and I noticed that the Canadian Soldier was holding something, wrapped in newspaper; The American to whom DAVEY was speaking then entered a Cafe close by, and I then approached DAVEY and told him I was a Police Officer, and that I would like to know what he was offering for sale, he replied "Nothing". I then asked him to open the paper parcel he was carrying, he did so, I then saw that it was a Service revolver, No. 730289, I then asked him how he came into possession of the revolver, and he said "I bought it in Holland"

Reg. No. B139111 Cpl.DAVEY F.C.
No. 3 Cdn. Repatriation Depot

ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF WEAPONS.

SIS/W-3-213

1. At 15.20 hrs. of 10th. Jan.1946, the a/m soldier was apprehended by the Civil Police for being in possession of a .38 Cal.Smith & Wessen revolver at Seymour Place, W.1, London. This revolver, bearing a frame number 64732 and a barrel number 730289, was in two parts, the barrel having been unscrewed from the frame and each part having then been wrapped in a separate parcel.

2. Cpl.Davey was handed into military custody and escorted to the guardroom of No. 6 Cdn.Provost Coy. On the 11th. Jan. 1946, he was interviewed by the writer and a statement taken as follows; Statement of Reg. No. B139111 Cpl.Davey F.C.:- I have been warned by Sgt. G.A.Rose of the S.I.S. that I do not have to say anything if I do not wish to do so and that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence. To show that I understand this caution I sign my name here.....Sgd F.C.Davey.

I had a leave pass from No. 3 Repat. Depot, dated 3rd. to 10th. Jan.1946. When I came on leave I had in my kitbag a Smith & Wessen revolver that I brought with me because I did not like leaving it at camp where my kitbag might be tampered with. This revolver I had bought from a man who needed Guilders, in my but at 4 Btn. Repat. camp at Nijmegen, Holland. I gave twenty five guilders for it and intended taking it back to Canada as a souvenir. I have no ammunition for it. On the 10th. Jan.1946, about three o'clock in the afternoon, near Marble Arch, three Americans asked me if I had anything to sell. I told them I had a revolver .38 cal. and one of them looked at it under his coat. He suggested trading a .45 for it. I hesitated and the Americans walked off. I presumed they had gone to fetch the .45. As I stood there a man came and said he was a police officer.

I have made the above statement without fear of threat or hope of favour and it is true.

Sgd. F.C.Davey.

After making this statement Cpl.Davey wished to add further to it; further statement of Cpl.Davey F.C.:- When I bought the above mentioned Smith & Wessen revolver it was in two parts, the barrel being seperate from the remainder. I had kept it in the seperate parcels and it was in two parcels when the police officer picked me up. I had never had it together, the barrel would not screw into the other part as it was too tight fitting.

Sgd. F.C.Davey

3. Cpl.Davey did not wish to reveal the identity of the man who sold him this weapon. The revolver is being disposed of according to Exhibit Report Feral 116. B139111 Cpl.Davey F.C. is being returned to his unit, Form 252 and Civil Police certificate of apprehension accompanying.

CANADIAN ARMY TROOPS CANTEEN SERVICE

ON ACTIVE SERVICE

STATEMENT of A-22653 L/Sgt DAVEY, Harvey Frederick in mitigation of sentence.

1. I enlisted 13 July 40 with the Essex Scottish Regiment. Came overseas as an NCO, and was promoted to the rank of L/Sgt I Aug 43. I have been with the A/Tk Platoon ever since it was formed.

2. On the morning 30 Oct 44, I was in charge of a gun detachment. The gun-tower driver had been wounded; the vehicle had developed a faulty right brake and was very difficult to handle. For these reasons I was driving the vehicle myself. It was because of the condition of the vehicle that it threw a track. ~~This fact has been proved in the evidence of the Opl mechanic and other witnesses.~~ In spite of this unavoidable accident to the gun-tower, my crew, the gun and myself were immediately ready for action and ready to take on our target.

3. Sgt Belland went past me and was very annoyed because the gun-tower had thrown the track. He had shown a great deal of hostility towards me for some time, for no good reason. He stated at the time that I would be up on charge. But I thought nothing of his threat and heard nothing more about the matter until several days later when our unit was out of the line. Then I was informed that I would be charged for driving a carrier when drunk.

4. This charge was absolutely untrue as I was absolutely sober at the time and had had nothing to drink. I was before the 2 i/c of the unit on this charge on two occasions, but the case was remanded on both occasions. I was very anxious to get the whole matter disposed of immediately as it was completely an injustice started from the personal animosity of Sgt Belland towards me, with no facts or evidence to support the charge.

PLEASE WRITE ON BOTH SIDES

CANADIAN YMCA

ON ACTIVE SERVICE

5. The unit was granting recreational passes to everyone while we were out of the line. When my turn came I was granted my pass, and then at the last minute it was cancelled when it was remembered that the charge had not been cleared up. I paraded before the 2 i/c and asked to have the matter disposed of or to be granted the pass. This was not done.

6. I felt that I had been very unjustly treated in being put up on a false charge and then to have my pass refused because it had not been disposed of. I took it upon myself to take the pass which I thought was rightly mine. I realize that this should not have been done. But the only reason I did was because I had been in the line continually with the unit, and felt very "browned off" when my leave was held up on account of a false charge laid because of a personal jealousy.

7. In all the time I have been overseas I have only once been on charge before. On that occasion I was reprimanded.

8. I would ask that the Court would take into consideration all the above facts and my long service with the Essex Scottish in the front lines.

Sgd R.C. Goodenough, Capt
Offr detailed to take Summary

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: H103162 A/Cpl Brule, Leopold, 1st Bn. Essex Scottish Regt, Cdn Army Overseas (sworn) states:

"I am second-in-command of No 1 Det of which L/Sgt Davey is Det Comd. On Nov 8, I attended an 'O' Gp at approx 1130 hrs. The pl comd gave us information that we would probably move about 2000 hrs that night into Holland. I told L/Sgt Davey after returning from 'O' Gp that we would probably move about to take over positions from English troops somewhere in Holland. At approx 1915 hrs we held another 'O' Gp when the pl comd told us that we must be in the carriers at 1945 hrs ready to move off. L/Sgt Davey was missing at the time of the 'O' Gp. I searched the house but could not find him. I have not seen him since."

Questioned by Accused

Q1 After the first 'O' Gp did you have any reason to believe that you were going into operations against the enemy?

A1 Yes, there were rumours that we were going into action. But what made me believe we were going into action was the fact that we were moving out from the area where we had been resting.

Q2 When I asked you what information you got from the 'O' Gp, do you remember telling me definitely that we were going to Holland?

A2 I remember telling him that we may be moving but I do not remember saying that we were going to Holland.

L. Brule Cpl

Sgd B103162 Cpl Brule,L.

The accused, having been duly cautioned in accordance with RP 4(e), says:

"I want to make a statement". - "When I joined the Army, it was voluntary. I don't like to be treated as though I was compelled to join up. At the time of this incident I had come back from the front the same as the others. They were allowed to go on leave and because of a charge (Charge I above) I was refused. I applied for a pass through the proper channels and was turned down. I took my leave anyway. I only took what was coming to me."

Ed F[illegible] PLEA OF MITIGATION

Sir.

We have before you a man who has been a detachment Orderly of the Anti Tank Platoon since the Royal Scottish landed in Norway. This man has led his detachment through all the actions that his Battalion has been in. Even the steel & iron that we are has its breaking point. ~~steel & blood~~, We are all made of flesh & blood which also has its breaking point. This man has, I feel, reached the breaking point. Now this man did not leave his detachment in duty but went through channels back to the Field P. The Medical officer reported to Sgt Davy's Platoon Commander that he considered him a nervous case & recommended that Sgt Davy be re-allocated if possible. Sgt Davy did not act rash, he did feel that as he could no longer fulfill his obligations there was another place that he could still carry or as a useful member of our great Canadian Army. I feel quite sure that this man, who has proved himself in action, could certainly fill his place in the 7th Medium

Regimental Platoon of the B.C.A.S.C.
I feel that men of this kind should be given that chance instead of being so harshly treated.

Summary of Evidence in the case of A 22653 Cpl. Davey H.F., The Essex Scottish Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The accused is informed of his rights.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for the prosecution: A 86727 Sgt. Howieson J.B. The Essex Scottish Regiment, sworn, states:

"I, A86727 Sgt. Howieson J.B., am pl. sgt. of 13 pl. in which A 22653 ~~Cpl.~~ Cpl. Davey H.F. was a member. I called the roll at 0800 hrs 14 mar. 45 and ~~Cpl.~~ Cpl. Davey H.F. did not answer his name. I searched the entire area but he could not be found. I then marked him AWL and notified the coy orderly room."

The accused declines to cross-examine. J.B. Howieson

Second Witness for the prosecution: KS 7238 C.S.M. Anderson W.W. The Essex Scottish Regiment, sworn, states:

"I am C.S.M. of 'C' coy in which A 22653 ~~Cpl.~~ Cpl. Davey H.F. was a member. On the morning of 23 Mar 45 at 1200 hrs ~~Cpl.~~ Cpl. Davey H.F. reported to me that he had returned. At which time I placed him under open arrest"

The accused declines to cross examine. W. Anderson

The accused, having been duly cautioned in accordance with R.P. 45 says:

"I want to be sworn"

The accused A 22653 Cpl. Davey H.F., sworn, states:

"On my last charge I made the statement to the C.O. that I couldn't go on any longer. I also said I wanted to revert and would like a job in one of the echelons or be reallocated. I thought perhaps by taking I could get something done, but it seems that nowadays it doesn't pay to ask for things.

After that last charge against me there was a considerable amount of talk passed through the regt and through that the boys turned against me. O.C. C.S.M. said they should have shot me, but I know that if he had known the whole story he never would have made that statement. The only fellows that would continue to work with me, and without any trouble or comments are the boys that were with me when I checked in. No one will say anything about it to my face, which is a good thing for them. I can't stop them from thinking but if I get to ever hear any one, barring none, talking about me, I would make him think twice before he opened his mouth again about anybody. I have never been in a rifle coy since I came overseas and I always said that I would never soldier in one either, and believe me, I mean it, I will be content to go to jail first. When I looked at the orders and saw that I had been posted to 'C' coy, I asked for an interview immediately because I wanted to get things straightened out so there would be no trouble, but it seems that Major Thomson told Capt. Grandjean that he didn't see as it was necessary for me to have the interview.

I did the next best thing - D.W.L. If I hadn't done that, then I know I'd have been on a more serious charge. The thing that happened to me also happened to Mr. Higgins and what he put on charge? No. he was sent out of the regt. There was also a lot of talk about him. He just couldn't stand it any longer and neither could I. I would like to see credit given where and when it is due. Any man that has come through France to Germany deserves a lot of it especially if he has been right in there all the way. There are very few of these men left, and if any of them feel that they can't go on they shouldn't be classed as being no good. That seems to happen every time. They should be given something else to do.

As for myself. I've gone the limit and now I would like to be transfered out of this regt. I have had a talk with the O.C. 7th Med. Regimental Pl. R.C.A.S.C., Capt. Mills and he said he would accept me if I can get a transfer. I would be better off there and still doing the job. I am quite prepared to take any punishment that is coming to me, because as soon as I am S.O.S. from the regt, I will notify Capt Mills and will carry on my job from there.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No sir (5)

Statement in Mitigation

Acc pleaded guilty to charge which is result of attempts by acc to have certain action taken which was not taken.

In the Army almost 5 years - had been promoted up to L/Sgt in A/Tk pln. While serving there he found nerves were letting him down. Contacted medical off and told him his story. MO promised investigation and did so. Told acc nothing wrong with him. Acc then tried to get position in A/Tk pl where his nerves would not affect other men. No success there. Was brought up for awl in trying other means to get that job. Told senior off of his case. Acc as pte now was told he was transferred to rifle coy. Told all offrs including CO his nerves would not stand rifle Coy were less than A/Tk pln. Told them he would go to rifle Coy and there he told CO he could not stand the strain. After every attempt made through his own offrs to be reallocated, acc felt he must take matter in his own hands.

Acc did what was told to do, i.e. get paraded to CO until he saw no result did arise of it

Acc is married and has 2 children - 4 & 5 yrs old. Asks for leniency

Statement in Mitigation

By Re: C. 21348. Pte Davey M.A.

Sir:

I joined the army on May 30, 1940 and on July 7, 1940, I arrived in Iceland with my unit, the Camerons of Ottawa, where I remained for 10 months. I landed with my regiment in England on May 2, 1941. Since the time I joined the army until about 2 months ago I was with the Camerons of Ottawa, when I was suddenly transferred to the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment at #1 C.B.R.D. This made me sore for I had been with the Camerons for over three years and had made many friends in the regiment. I was a N.C.O. with the Camerons. I became fed up and went A.W.L., particularly when we were confined to barracks week after week over for 5 weeks. Had I known that the Hastings and PE Regiment were going to Sicily I certainly would not have gone A.W.L.

Yours.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Opl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 45 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 88(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 2(b)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 562(a).)

COVERING SHEET

F.G.C.M. - Trial: A.30106 - Pte. Davey, R., 1 Cdn Army Tk Grd Fd Pk RCOC

Date of trial: 13 Oct 42

President of Court: Major C.N. Heroutsos, 1st Cdn Army Tk Regt

1. For the information of the officers asked to sign below, the following irregularities are noted:-

(a) The full name of the accused is not set out in the schedule on page 2 of the AFA 3 or in the charge sheet (See K.M.L. page 714)

(b) Minute of the Convening Officer is not dated on the Charge Sheet.

(c) Name, number and Unit of the accused is not filled in in the Extract of Promulgation at the bottom of page 3 of the A.F.A. 3

(d) It is considered that the third charge under Army Act Sec 40 alleging that the accused "did make away with one compass proportional, being public property, by selling the same to etc." As the case in fact is stealing public property, should have been laid under Army Act Sec. 18(4). Theft is defined in K.M.L. at page 118, Chapter VII, para. 201. "without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith, takes and carries away anything capable of being stolen, with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof." In these circumstances it is considered that the third charge should have been laid as an alternative charge. This is being submitted to the J.A.G. Branch under K.R. (Can.) 573.

(e) Proceedings were completed in the handwriting of the Judge Advocate on 13 Oct 42. If they had been delivered by hand to the Confirming Officer, no reason is seen why two days should elapse before confirmation on 15 Oct 42.

(f) No reason is seen why forty-three days should have elapsed before the accused was brought to trial.

2. May these remarks and the authorities quoted be read by the following officers, signed and returned to this Headquarters, please.

W.B.B.

On 6 Oct 42, in accordance with an order given by Capt. H. Williamson Staff Capt. 1 Edn. Army Tank Bde. I proceeded to Tyne House, near Capel, Surrey where on that day in the presence of the accused I took a Summary of Evidence regarding this case. The accused was duly cautioned in accordance with R.P. 14(E) and elected to give evidence on oath. This was recorded. I produce that part of the Summary of Evidence containing the statement made by the accused (Exhibit S1) At the time the accused made this statement the accused indicated the contents, which I now produce (Exhibit 11) and which were then lying on the table. He examined them before making the statement as to his recognition of them. Cross examined: The statement was read back to the accused. He understood it and the implications of it were fully explained to him before he signed it. I pointed out to the accused the phrase beginning "I picked them up" and ending "by the Army work" was not a good one in his favour. I explained what it meant and he signed the statement. By the Judge Advocate: The signature on the document (Exhibit S2) is to the best of my knowledge the signature of the accused. He signed it in my presence. in its present form. In continuing the accused I used the exact wording in R.P. 84(C). I read it from the MML.

R.P. 83(E) complied with.

Second Witness for the Prosecution } A. 21953 Cpl. Gollmore H., 1 Edn. Army Tank Ord. to Pte. R.C.O.C. (3rd Echelon). being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:

In cpl. quartermaster stores of 1st Pk. 3rd Echelon. I recognise the compass and case (Exhibit H). which I know to be government property by the governments stamp on it. That item of equipment has never been issued to this unit. I recognise the accused as Pte. Dawley. This compass (Exhibit H) at no time, to my knowledge have been issued to this accused. It would have been recorded on his MFC 300 if it had been. I produce the MFC 300 of the accused (Exhibit I). I recognise the signature of the accused on it, as he signed it in my presence.

Cross examination: Every type of instrument of that nature issued to the accused would have to come through me and be signed for on his MFC 300. If on a recog reading course, he would sign for it but it would necessarily not be shown on his MFC 300. We have never had a compass compass proportional in our unit.

No re-examination

By the Court: There is nothing in our unit resembling this compass (Exhibit H).

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Third Witness for the Prosecution } A. 49922 Pte Greentree A.A. 1 Edn. Army Tank Ord. to Pte. R.C.O.C. (3rd Echelon). being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:

I recognise the accused as Pte. Ross Dawley. I have seen an article like exactly like it before (as being shown Exhibit H.) on or about the 9th of July 1942. At that time Pte Dawley came to me and asked for a loan of 10 shillings. I borrowed it from someone else and sent it to Pte Dawley. not having the money. Later in the day Pte Dawley brought to me a proportional compass. He told me if I sold it I could get the money which he borrowed from me so that I could repay it to the person I borrowed it from. On the 15th of the month after that Pte Dawley paid me back the 10 shillings I had borrowed from me. Later that day I asked him what I was to do with the instrument. He said to sell it or do what I wished with it as it was no use to him. To the best of my knowledge the compasses (Exhibit H) are the same compasses. The accused cautioned me to keep the compasses out of sight. He said nothing to me about the serviceability of the compasses.

Cross examined: The compasses were not actually sold to me. I never gave it a thought as to whether the compasses were government property or not. I just put them away without looking at them.

Re-examination. (Exhibit H).

By the Court: The compasses, looked the same as the ones I got from Pte. Davey. The first time I realized they were government property was when Capt. Ross & Cross of the Security Police showed them to me and told them they were government property.

By the Judge Advocate: I have been in the army about 16 months and before then I was a bread driver not on government property. I may have seen it but never recognized it as a government property.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

R.P 40(A) complied with.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. Yes sir.

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. Yes sir.

Question. Is he a witness as to character only? Answer. Yes.

D 2

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

First Witness for the Defence } A. 50106 Pte. Dawes, R., the accused, being duly sworn is examined by the defending Officer, -

When I was running stores to Pde. unit one day I came upon an issue for Pde. Signals 10 miles north of Brighton. When I came out the driver of the truck was away for the moment. I spied (Exhibit 4) this article and case across the road lying in the grass. I picked it up and put it in my pocket and returned to Bergen Hill, my starting point. While at Bergen Hill I put it in the bottom of my duffle bag and left it there until such time as I went back to Nottingham where my unit was stationed. One day when needing 10 shillings I went to Pte Greentree and asked him for the loan of 10 shillings. He didn't have it. It came to my mind about 20 minutes later that I could give him this article as security. About 15 July last it being pay day I paid Pte Greentree the 10 shillings he had lent me and asked me what he should do with the compass proportional. I told him to look at it under cover, and to sell it or do what he liked with it, not knowing at the time it was W.D. property. I did not know until Sgt. Cross produced the instrument to me around 1 Sept 42. The place I found the compasses was not on W.D. property at all but on the opposite side of the camp. I was questioned by the C.O., by Sgt. Cross became confused and that is why I said I knew the compasses were W.D. property in my statement.

Cross examined: I was on a Store Course when the unit was at Nottingham. I was learning how to do the job on this course. My job is to issue stores. I know the broad arrow meant government property when I picked up the compasses but I did not look at them carefully and did not know there were actually Government property. Normally when stuff is found in the army it is turned into the Orderly room if W.D. property; if not one endeavours to find the owner oneself. I did not attempt to turn the compasses (Exhibit 4) into the orderly room at any time. I made no attempt to find a private owner for it. When I asked Pte. Greentree he could do what he liked with the compasses I did not consider them mine as that I had the right to do that.

On hearing the Summary of Evidence, nothing was hearried & rushed. At the time I considered everything over upon which in connection with taking the summary was correct. But since then I felt I was confused because of the number of investigations there have been and the number of questions I have been asked.

No re examination:

By the Court: One would not use instruments like these compasses (Exhibit H). If enquiries had been made I might have found an owner for them. When I found the compasses I put them in my pocket and said nothing about it.

R.P. 83(E) complied with.

Court adjourns at 1725 hrs.
Court re-opened at 1740 hrs.
The Defence is closed.

The Prosecutor addresses the Court: The fact that the accused admits taking the compasses; that he knew they were not his own property; that he made no attempt to find the owner of the compasses: that at about 9 July 42 he delivered them to someone else for disposal constitutes theft. As to the second charge it is immaterial if the accused knew the compasses were government property or not. With regard to the last charge the facts prove the accused delivered them to Pte Swentzell for subsequent re sale.

The Defending Officer addresses the Court. The accused found the compasses and one, picked them up without careful examination put them away. The element of intent is lacking to constitute stealing. The fact that the accused did not know they were W.D. property shows that the accused was not in unlawful possession. On the third charge there is no evidence that the accused sold the compasses to Pte Swentzell. Accused had no intention of selling them; he merely used them as security for the loan. The accused neglected to ascertain their true ownership - a perfectly natural thing in the circumstances.

The Judge Advocate, summed up; pointing out to the Court the definition of theft found in DORs p. 22 para 35: the fact that on the alternative charges the accused could not be found guilty of both charges: that the accused must be given the benefit of any reasonable doubt: that the Court must be satisfied that the requirements of "unlawful possession" must be met: and with respect to the 2nd and 3rd and 4th charges must be satisfied that such acts are to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

2nd Witness for the Accused } Lieut. H.S.D. Alexander, 11 Can. Army Tank Regt. being duly sworn states,-

I have known the accused from 1934 - 39 when we were employed together at the Daily Star, Windsor, Ont. Canada. During this time the accused had a spotless record, especially concerning theft of any type. While through his duties concerned collecting money and accounts for the paper. The manager of his department with whom I was very friendly often spoke highly of his work, conduct and integrity.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of A-50106 Pte. DAVEY, R., of 1 Cdn. Army Tank Ordnance Field Park R.C.O.C. (3rd. Echelon).

The C[redacted]manding Officer directs that all evidence be taken under Oath.

Rights of the Accused before Summary of Evidence are explained to him.

1st. WITNESS - A-21953 Cpl. GALLIMORE, H., 1 Cdn. Army Tank Ordnance Field Park R.C.O.C. (3rd. Echelon) having been duly sworn states:

"I, A-21953 Cpl. GALLIMORE, H., have been in charge of the Q.M. Stores of the 1 Cdn. Army Tank Ordnance Field Park R.C.O.C. (3rd. Echelon) since the unit was organized. I recognise the pair of proportional compasses (Attached and marked Exhibit "A") as public property by reason of the stamp ↑ on the upper arm. This item of equipment has never been issued to and is not on charge to this unit. It has never been issued to the accused and is not shown on his M.F.C. 800. (Attached and marked Exhibit "B") which I now produce."
The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

2nd. WITNESS - A-49922 Pte. GREENTREE, A.A. 1 Cdn. Army Tank Ordnance Field Park R.C.O.C. (3rd. Echelon) having been duly sworn states:

"On or about the 9 July, when I, A-49922 Pte. GREENTREE A.A., of 1 Cdn. Army Tank Ordnance Field Park R.C.O.C. (3rd. Echelon) was with the unit at BILBOROUGH CAMP near NOTTINGHAM, the accused, whom I recognize, asked me to lend him ten shillings. I did not have the money at the time but I borrowed ten shillings and gave it to him. Later that day the accused approached me and gave me the pair of proportional compasses, which I recognize. He said "If you sell these you should get a pound for them and you will be able to repay the money you borrowed to lend me" He also told me to keep them out of sight until I sold them and that they were a compass of some sort. I did not ask him where he got them and he did not tell me. On or about 15 July the accused paid me back the ten shillings. Later that day I asked him what I should do with the compasses and he said "Do what you please with them. They are no good to me."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

3rd. WITNESS - A-50106 Pte. DAVEY, R., 1 Cdn. Army Tank Ordnance Field Park R.C.O.C. (3rd. Echelon) being duly sworn states:-

"Between 14 May 1942 and 6 June 1942 whilst I was attached to the Brigade Field Park R.C.O.C. I went out with a vehicle delivering stores to the different units on various days and was being taught how to issue stores. On one of these runs, the driver stopped at a Canadian Brigade Signal Unit about 10 miles north of BRIGHTON. I issued stores to the unit and as I came out I saw the proportional compasses, which I now, to the best of my knowledge, recognize, lying on the grass in their case. I picked them up, inspected them, and knew they were W.D. property, by the arrow mark. No one was present at the time. I put them in my pocket and brought them back to the unit. On or about 9 July 1942 whilst at BILBOROUGH CAMP, near NOTTINGHAM, I gave them to A-49922 Pte. GREENTREE, A.A. 1 Cdn. Army Tank Ordnance Field Park R.C.O.C. (3rd. Echelon) who had lent me ten shillings that day, and told me that if he could sell them to go right ahead as they were no use to me. I did not tell him they were W.D. Property."

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) or call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(1)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your pleas to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Prosecution

1 & W Statement.

W. F. K. Beedell, Police Sgt # 3, Surrey Joint Police, sworn, states

On 12 Nov 43 I was on duty. At 10.35 in consequence of a telephone call I attended in the Borough Ambulance to a point on Nutfield Road, Redhill. It was a bright moonlight night. On arrival at the scene of the accident which was near the entrance to Patterson Court I found a civilian lying on the northern footpath with his feet in the road. He was being supported by a second civilian. The injured man was bleeding from the nose, mouth and left ear and was unconscious. First aid was rendered and he was conveyed to the East Surrey Hospital in Redhill in the ambulance.

I took statements and measurements of the road. On the footpath adjacent to where the man was lying I found a dunlop and an artificial eye.

The width of the road was 20'. There was a tyre impression commencing 9' West of the edge of the footpath which terminated at the entrance to Patterson Court. The tyre impression continued for 25' on the footpath where it went into the road. I also found a mark on the fence 2' from the ground commencing from the second paling of the fence and continuing eastward for 6' where some part of a vehicle had grazed the fence. Brown paint was at the commencement and at the end of the mark.

In consequence of statements taken I caused the description of a military station waggon to be circulated within the County. I made further enquiries and contacted witnesses from whom I took statements.

Cross-examination

I can't say whether or not the injured man was moved before I got there.

There was only a scrape on the fence. It was a fresh scratch. There were no old scratches on the fence. The paint was right at the beginning and at the end of the scrape which was 6'. You couldn't tell whether there were one or two tyre impressions.

I recognise this photo as the scene of the accident.

The tyre impression was too wide for a car tyre. It was about 10" wide. I should say it was only one wheel. There was no sign of any brake being used.

I recognise this picture as the scene ~~of the~~ approaching from the West 1/2. from the direction of Redhill.

Picture accepted and marked Exhibit "B"

The tyre impression was about 10" from the bars of the fence.

Re-examined

I am familiar with this road. The photograph shows the directional points, the white line, and cats' eyes. There is an A.R. sign on an iron post at the end of the fence, facing west, indicating a sharp corner.

~~By the Court~~ Nil.

R.P. 83 (a) complied with.

2nd Witness

R 152569 LAC Francis, W. RCAF sworn, states

On 12 Nov 43 I left Redhill accompanied by AC Jennings at about 2200 hrs. As we were approaching Hillbrow School on the Godstone Road. I heard a vehicle stop behind me. Coming after we had passed Hillbrow School at a bend in the road we found a man sitting on the sidewalk with another ~~man~~ man on injured man in his lap. The injured man's feet were on the road.

The vehicle that stopped behind us passed us going at a pretty fast clip - about 45 & 50 m.p.h. It didn't look like an Eng look vehicle couldn't tell exact type of vehicle. Thought there was a luggage rack on top. Would say it was a Ford from the sound of the engine.

~~No other vehicle passed~~ I did not see any other vehicle on the road between the time the vehicle I have described passed us and the time I found the injured man.

As the vehicle passed it seemed to me it had a luggage rack on the top with something in it but I wouldn't say for sure. It seemed to have a square back. It was a covered vehicle ~~the same as~~ Ford something the same as a sedan or a closed.

It was a moonlight night.

It was on the down side of the road when it passed us.

Cross-examination

I did not see the accident. I couldn't see the scene of the accident. I wasn't very far away when I heard the cries. When we came to the bend we cut over to the middle of the road. When we heard the cries and went over to the injured man. I couldn't see the man from the centre of the road.

It was only making the usual amount of engine noise that any car would make.

By the Court

I was a couple of hundred yards from the scene of the accident when the vehicle passed me. It is a couple of minutes walk. I did not hear any brakes being applied, nor any crash, nor any outcry until I got to the scene.

R.P. § 3 (b) complied with.

I was walking up the road from Redhill with L.A.C. Franks when we got to Hillsbrow School. We were about 20 yards past Hillsbrow School when a car passed us. We walked on down the road to Patterson's Corner when someone shouted to me. We went over and saw a man was hurt. I went and phoned the police. I think it was a staff car.

The vehicle was travelling fast. Definitely faster than cars do travel on the road.

I did not see any other vehicle pass us ~~from the time I arrived~~ to the time I arrived at the scene of the accident. There was only one other vehicle passed us ~~the~~ from the time we left Redhill.

I did not hear any noise at all.

By the Court

The first vehicle that passed us was going towards Nutfield I think it was about twenty minutes before the second vehicle which passed us.

R-160020 AC/1 Minter, W.A. - R.A.F. sworn states.

At 9 o'clock on 12 Nov. 43 Cpl Roach, the accused and myself left the W.V.S. canteen in Redhill to deliver a despatch. After delivering the despatch we went to a pub some distance from Redhill where we had three pints of beer each - pints -. We went to another pub which again was some distance away. We had 3 pts of beer each again. By that time it was closing time and we left. The driver, said he would take us home. On the way we stopped to cash 3 A.T.S. girls at the junction of the cut-off from Nutfield to South Nutfield. As they were going along the same road they were invited to ride along with us to their quarters

Shortly after we picked the girls up we came to a bend in the road. We were driving quite fast. I don't know exactly how fast. It was a moonlight night. At the bend in the road there appeared to be a break in the sidewalk which might be taken for a continuation of the road in the glare of the moonlight. As we came to this spot we swerved out and as we swerved we hit someone. I heard someone yell. I felt two impacts and told the driver to stop. We continued on to where the girls lived which was approximately 1/2 mile down the road. The driver then proceeded on to take us to our billets. I got out first and the driver and Cpl Roach went on. I reported the accident to the service police. The day following the accident in the afternoon I went out with the police to try and locate the driver.

Cross-examination

I did not actually see the man and vehicle come together. To my impression it was a staff car. The car did not slow down to any appreciable extent when approaching the corner in the road. I don't remember whether it slowed down ~~at all~~ by not. It was my impression that the car just ~~glanced~~ grazed the curb. It was on the left hand side in the front seat. When I first saw the man he was between the breaks in the sidewalk. ~~It was an entrance~~ He was walking across the entrance to a property which made a break in the sidewalk.

By the Court

The car went over the edge of the road. I saw a man there. I felt two impacts and heard a man yell. After this yell we all told him to stop. I don't remember him saying anything. I recognise the driver (the accused) RP. 83 (a) complied with.

R - 895 65 Cpl Rocks. T.M - R.A.F. sworn states.

On 12 Nov 43 after the accused delivered his dispatch we went to a pub. I had three pints of bitter. We each bought a round. We went to another pub further down the road where we each had three pints. It was closing time. The accused was going to drive. Winterton and myself to our billets.

We proceeded in the direction of Nuthfield. We stopped to enquire how to get to Nuthfield. We asked 3 A.T.S. girls to get in and we would drive them home which was only a little way down.

On the way we hit the curb. The girls screamed. There were quite a few people walking along the footpath. I saw two people on the left hand side of the road. The vehicle just seemed to hit the curb. I couldn't see whether it went over the curb or not.

The girls screamed, ~~and ran~~ Mr Intern asked the driver to stop. The girls said ~~you~~ hit somebody. The driver swore and started up the car. I think it stopped. I'm not exactly sure. We dropped off the A.T.S. girls then we proceeded to Millfield and dropped off Mr Intern then he took me & my billets.

He was going about 40 before the accident. He slowed down after he had been told he hit someone.

I had made a date with him to see at the W.V.S. at Rothill. I ~~did~~ next day. I met him and told him I had been told that someone had been badly injured on Millfield Road. I told him the police had been down to get a statement ~~He wanted to keep quiet about it~~ ~~later that day~~

I knew his name was Davies. He spelt it out but I don't know whether he said Davey or Davies.

I ~~didn't~~ recognise the driver of the vehicle here in court.

I did not. Once I told Davey that he should slow down and Mr Intern told the driver he was going too fast just about 5 or ten minutes after we came out of the second pub. We had gone approximately 5 miles. I said "you'd better slow down a little"

The girls screamed and one of them said "you've hit somebody." The driver said "fuck" then said "sorry mate" to the girls Then he either slowed down or stopped I'm not sure which. I'm not sure whether we were stopped or not.

Cross-examination

The police took a statement from me the night of the accident. I can't remember whether he closed up or not before he got to the corner.

By the Court

I was sitting in the front seat in the centre between Mr Intern and the driver. The car was going over 30 m.p.h. just before the girls screamed. I think the leading lights were on. I didn't see anyone in front of the car. As we came around the bend it gave me the impression that it had the curb. The girls screamed one of them said you have hit someone. The driver changed gears.

Mr May ward and I were walking in the direction of Nutfield. We reached the west entrance of Patterson Court. All I remember is a vehicle came up behind I heard a thud and the next thing I saw Mr May ward lying on the pavement. The vehicle was up on the footpath. I heard it go over the fence. I couldn't see what sort of vehicle it was owing to the speed of it. which I estimate to be 40 to 45 miles an hour. It failed to stop. It drove straight on. I went to Mr May ward and waited until help came.

Cross-examination

I did not see the vehicle hit Mr May ward. The pavement breaks to make way for the drive to Patterson Court. We were just stepping onto the pavement on the Nutfield side of the break. I was on the inside. We were just about level with the A.R. reflector. It was on our left. At a rough estimate the reflector is about 3'6" from the ground. We would not interfere with the passage of any vehicle coming from Riddhill owing the reflector.

By the Court

I did not have a front view of the car. It had a tail light on. A red light. The R.A.F. man and A.T.S. girl were the first to arrive at the scene. I heard a definite thud. The sound of the vehicle scraping on the fence. R.P. § 3 (a) complied with.

After we got into the car we travelled about 200 to 300 yds we were travelling between 30 and 40 m.p.h. We came to a bend just at the entrance of Patterson Court. It was a very big & woody lit night and I think the drive being to the entrance was a continuation of the road. It does go in that direction. The vehicle mounted the pavement. I was sitting just behind the driver. For a split second I saw two people on the path. Then we hit the fence and swerved back onto the road. I looked back and saw one of the men lying on the pavement. I told the driver to stop. I thing he was going to stop. He seemed to slow down. But he didn't and continued until we got to the Priory Gates. We got out there. The car then continued straight on. I would not recognise the drivers if I saw him again. The Priory Gate is about 100 yards beyond the entrance to Patterson Court.

Cross-examination

When the vehicle hit the fence I would estimate its speed at from 20 to 25 m.p.h.

By the Court

I was sitting right behind the driver on the right hand side. There were three members of the A.T.S. in the rear seat. The driver and two men were in the front seat. After we had hit the fence and got back onto the road again we all asked him to stop.

After we got out of the vehicle I went back and found the man lying in the same position as when I saw him from the car. His feet were lying over the edge of the pavement. Cpl. Jenkins went back with me. To my mind the driver seemed quite capable of driving the vehicle. They all seemed quite all right. The other two were laughing and talking but they weren't positively or anything like that. It was a station waggon.

We had not been in the car very long before we got to the entrance of Patterson Court and I was under the impression that the driver thought the entrance was a continuation of the road because he made for it but saw his mistake and swerved quickly to the right. I did not notice that he struck the fence. I felt the car strike something just as he swerved. I saw two men on the pavement. Then I felt we skidded a bit. I told the driver to stop that we had hit somebody. He didn't stop. He carried on. We kept on asking him to stop but he did not stop. He carried on. We kept on asking him to stop but he did not until we got to the Priory when we told him we would have to get off then. I got out. The injured man was lying on his back. His feet up to the calf of his legs were on the road. I was on the left side of the car the other side. I did not see the man hit. I looked around but the car appeared on my vision and I couldn't see anything. I felt only one bump. The driver did not brake. He seemed to take his foot off the throttle then put it back on again. He did not stop until he got to the Priory.

We mounted the footpath went into the pales and went straight on. I turned around and saw someone lying partly on the footpath and partly on the road. I told the driver to stop. I told him he had knocked someone over. But he drove straight on. He did not slow down after he struck the fence. I think it was a station waggon.

At 11.00 AM the following morning I went to the scene of the accident with Sgt Riddell who pointed out to me various marks on the fence. One such mark consisted of a horizontal mark about 6" long made by paint of a brownish colour. This mark was 2 feet above the footpath. at 11.15 AM. I went to the unit camp at Chipstead where in the presence of the accused and Capt Findlay I made an examination of Canadian Ford Military Station Waggon # CM 42 02 716. I found the mudguards were painted a brownish colour. On the front near side of the mudguard I found several horizontal marks where the paint had been rubbed off apparently due to the vehicle coming into contact with something hard. These marks were various heights from the ground but one was 2 feet above the ground and could have been caused by striking the fence at the scene of the accident. The accused informed me that the three ATS girls sat on the centre seat of the vehicle and that the two airmen sat on the front seat next to him, the rear seat being vacant. In view of the reference in his statement to her turning her head around to see if an accident had occurred I decided to test her vision I accordingly caused three soldiers of small stature to sit on the centre seat and two more to sit on the front seat to represent the airmen I found the rear window of the vehicle to measure 4 feet wide by 11 inches high. I then sat in the driving seat and turned my head around and looked out of the rear window. I found that the only view I had was between the heads of the three persons on the centre seat. My view was very limited and I formed the opinion that as the accused is a much shorter man than myself his view would have been more limited.

Defence

1st Witness. B-39475 PC Davey, W. L. sworn, states

after leaving Redhill I proceeded on the road to Nutfield. On arriving at the top of the hill I was beginning to wonder if I was on the correct road to Nutfield. After driving some distance I observed 3 A.T.S. I stopped and asked if I was on the correct road to Nutfield. They answered yes. I asked them if they were going that way. They got into the car. I started off down the road. At this time I mentioned to Cpl Cook that the moon was very bright and made the road glaring. After saying this I looked up and found I was approaching a dark object in front of me so I slowed down from 30 to 20 miles an hour approximately. Coming to a break on the left hand curb I was not sure whether the road continued to the left or swung to the right. After seeing a gate on the left side I looked over to the right and saw where the road and sidewalk continued I then slowed down and endeavoured to swing the vehicle to the right. About 25 upon arriving at the break in the road I looked up and saw two men walking straight ahead of me. It looked to me as though the men on the outside was walking with one foot on the main roadway and one on the driveway to the private cars. By then the two people had left the glare of my headlights Arriving where the curb commenced I found that it was not several yards to the centre of the road than the one I had left. Arriving at this point I felt the car hit the curb and the car started to swing after this the three A.T.S. in the back all started screaming and hollering at once that I had hit something. I then put my foot on the clutch and the brake taking the car out of gear and slowing the vehicle down I then looked around between the two A.T.S on the right hand side of the vehicle where heads were turned around. I could see two people walking out of the rear window so I decided the girls were just frightened of being in a swaying vehicle so I put the car into low gear and started on down the road. The vehicle did not come to a dead stop. After driving down the road a hundred yards or so I stopped and let out the three A.T.S. After they got out an Eng lish soldier came to the car door and asked if I was going to Eudstone. I replied that I was not so he closed the rear left door and I proceeded on down to the air force billets. Upon arriving at the billets I let out the fellow I knew by the name of Bill. I then drove to Cpl Rochés billets. There I stopped the vehicle and we talked about home for several minutes - between 10 and 15 minutes. As I decided to return to camp Cpl Roche suggested that it would be a good idea if we looked the car over to see if we had dented a fender or wheel when I presume we had hit the curb. I could not find no marks on the vehicle that I had not seen before. I then told Cpl Roche that I would see him the following day at 10 o'clock at the W.V.S. canteen at Redhill. I then returned to camp across the shortcut from Nutfield to Merstham instead of going back via Redhill which was farther and I knew it was getting late and I wanted to get the vehicle back to the parking lot. The following day at 1 P.M. I met Cpl Roche in the W.V.S. canteen I told him that I was still on duty that I had a 60 cwt Chev G.S. with some supplies on it to take back to camp. Cpl Roche did not say anything to me about the questioning by the police. I was told that later by Sgt Bowles. We did not talk about the accident at all. I was sitting on a bolster when I was driving the Car. The bolster is between 4 and 5 inches high. I was nearly the curb over 9 inches high. There was not a red glare at that corner. If there was a sign there there was something between my vehicle and it. I think now it was the men. When I looked over to the right I saw eyes or nine cats eyes on the centre of the road. If I had noticed any new marks on the fender I would have gone back to the scene of the accident. As finding no marks on the Car I was convinced that I had not hit anyone. I forgot all about it until I was questioned by the police. My answer to the police question was "That I had led a military vehicle on that road on the said night and that I had hit the curb and the girls had said that I had hit someone but I, believing in my own mind, that I did not do so I had forgot about the matter."

Cross-examination:

I had the impression at the time that the vehicle had just bumped against the curb. It had not mounted it to my knowledge. The two men were standing directly in line with the sign. Driving down the road I was keeping about four feet from the curb. As soon as the brush came in the curb I swung the wheel to the right. I couldn't swing it fast because there were three in the front seat. The centre seat is a partial seat. One A.T.S. was only half on the seat. I could see between the two that were on the same side of the car as I was. As regards the part of my statement where I said the amount of beer had taken effect on me. I was feeling warm. It had not affected my ability to see or think.

By the Court

When I looked back the car was on kerb road. I know the road up to Redhill but I had not been on the road past there more than twice. I have driven in Brighton and a car.

R.P. § 3 (b) complied with.

2nd Witness Capt F. P. Brindley, sworn states

I recognise the accused. He has been driving in the unit for 1 car and two weeks. He has never had an accident. He recently drove me on a long trip in a Ford Station waggon. I had no fault with the way he was driving. The seat is moveable. He was a bobbin. I was present when Sgt Bowles was questioning the accused. To the question by the police were you the driving the station waggon involved in the accident the accused replied something to the effect that he was driving a car that evening and had hit the kerb but was not involved in the accident.

Cross-examination

I questioned him once about speeding.

R.P. § 3 (b) complied with.

Defending Officers' Closing Address

On the second charge the main point is whether or not he is guilty of neg list. The defence by cross-examination has proved that he is not guilty. First that kerb in the road was not properly marked. The accused was a victim of the blackout accident in hitting that curb. This accident at this point could happen to anyone. Capt Laffley testified that he was going between 20 - 25 m.p.h. at that point. This illusion of speed came from the noise of the engine in second gear. The vehicle could not go from 0 to 45 m.p.h. in 200 yards. There is no evidence before the court that the injured man was any other place but on a public road. The witness Mr Moore stated at the time of the accident he was even with the red marker. 5 seconds before then at vehicle time the vehicle would be 50 yds from the scene would bring 88 more back about 3 paces which would put him directly blocking the R.A. sign. All this evidence clearly brings out contributory neg list and no neg list on the part of the driver. On the last charge this man slowed down immediately after the accident and 100 yards from the accident stopped for what must have been three or four minutes. If this man felt guilty about an accident he would not have stopped for that time so close to the accident. He looked out the back window and assured himself that he had not hit any one. Any two strong minded men will not be led by a lot of women He had the situation under control in his own mind.

As a man is innocent until he is proven guilty and the prosecution have failed to prove him guilty I ask the court to find him not guilty on the second and third charges.

The Prosecuting Officers Closing Address

The evidence heard by the court fully justifies a finding of guilty on the 2 nd and 3 rd charges. There can be no doubt that the accused was driving negligently and that he knew he had struck the pedestrian and left without stopping to help.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. no summary up is required from the Judge Advocate.

Defending Officer in Mitigation

The accused has only one entry on his conduct sheet and that he tells me was once when he was ordered on a rush job.

I know this man to be a good soldier and I believe there are few men who would show up better in action. I ask the court to be lenient with him.

After delivering the dispatch we returned to Redhill, and went on to the Red Lion at Betchworth where we each bought a round of drinks consisting of three pints of beer. We then proceeded to the Banker room where we had one round each of Bitters consisting of pints.

At this time the pub was closing at 10 o'clock, thinking there was a dance at Betchworth Hall, drove there, he found there was no dance there.

Then we returned to Redhill, where I decided to take the two boys back to Nutfield bunk.

Driving out of Redhill towards Nutfield it was very misty, and the moon was very bright making the road glisten. At this time I put Doreen mentioned that it was very difficult to drive the motorcycle Bike owing up with on the inside and outside.

Upon stopping, the A.T.S. informed me I was on the correct road, and I asked them if they would like a lift and they had yes and entered the car.

I then drove on a short way to Bob Roache's billet where I stopped and we talked about home for 10 minutes. Just before I decided to return to Barnes, Bob Roache was undecided as to whether I had hit somebody or not and suggested we should look at the car.

We looked at the left side of the car with matches, to see if I had dented a wheel or fender, but could find no evidence that I had done so.

We made arrangements to meet the following day at 1 pm at the W.V.S. Canteen in Redhill, and I then returned to Barnes, taking a short cut from Nutfield to Merstham instead of returning via Redhill

About 10.30pm. on Friday 12th November 1943 I was walking along Nutfield Road with my lady friend, Private Eileen JENNINGS, of No.1 S.L.Command Holding Unit, Nutfield Priory, when we found a man lying on the footpath on the North side of the road with his feet in the roadway. He was lying on his back and being supported by another man. In consequence of what the man said, I remembered seeing an Army Ford Chad Car just previously passing us travelling towards Nutfield at about 45 to 50 m.p.h. I remarked to my friend at the time upon the speed of the car. The car had a rack on the top and was carrying luggage.

It was bright moonlight at the time, and the car was using side-lights.

I heard a car stop some distance behind us previous to the accident and the Ford was the only car which passed us.

About 10.25pm. on Friday 12th November 1943 I was riding in a car at the time of accident. I had been picked up just West of Hillsbrow Gate and alighted at Priory Gate. I was in company with two other A.T.S.girls from the same Unit.

The car was driven by a soldier and two other men were in the front seat. The driver did not appear to know the road and asked the way to Hutfield. He drove very fast.

I saw two people on the footpath ahead of us at the bend. The car swerved and struck the nearside fence, but I did not notice what happened to the two people, but after we had passed I looked round and saw someone lying on the road.

I called to the driver to stop and told him he had knocked someone down, but he would not stop until we got to the Priory Gate. We three got out and the car went on towards Hutfield. I could not identify the driver.

At 10.5pm. on Friday 12th November 1943 I and my friend Hubert George MAYNARD left Redhill Railway Station and started to walk towards Bletchingley. We walked on the nearside footpath, myself on the inside and my friend on the outside, about two feet from the kerb. We walked past "Chart Lodge", Nutfield Road, and on reaching the entrance to Patteson Court (opposite Nutfield Lodge, Nutfield Road), I heard a thud. I realised that my friend had been struck by a motor vehicle. I saw the vehicle mount the footpath and continue along the footpath for a distance of approximately 26 yards. It continued on along the road towards Nutfield at a speed which I estimate at 45 m.p.h.

I then found that my friend was lying face downwards on the footpath, his head towards the inside of the footpath. He was unconscious and bleeding from the head, mouth and left ear. An R.A.F. man went into a house opposite and the Ambulance was sent for.

I think that the vehicle that struck my friend was of the heavy Army lorry type. I also noticed that a private car proceedings towards Redhill passed the scene of the accident shortly after the accident occurred.

The scene of the accident is on a right hand bend and the footpath broadens out to about eight feet in width.

At roughly 9.0pm. on Friday 12th November 1943 I was in the W.V.S.Canteen in High Street, Redhill, when I met a Corporal from the Aerodrome and a Canadian despatch rider. The Canadian had a Canadian Staff Car with him and was on his way to deliver a despatch to his Colonel. He invited the R.A.F.Corporal and myself to accompany him, which we did. He went first and delivered his despatch, I have no idea of the roads he traversed except that we proceeded out of Redhill under the Railway Bridge and to the right, and I got the impression from the driver that we were going near Godstone.

He delivered the despatch and we then drove to a Public House which I understood was the "Red Lion" at Betchworth, and there we had three pints of beer each. On leaving this Public House we drove to another which I cannot name and we each had another three pints of beer there. We remained in the bar until time was called at 10.0pm.

When we re-entered the car both the Corporal and I considered the driver was driving too fast. We told him so and said we were in no hurry.

I am under the impression we passed through Redhill and then we pulled up and asked three A.T.S. girls if we were on the road to Nutfield. They said we were right and as they were going part way on that road we gave them a lift.

Very shortly after picking up the girls we struck something. At the time the car was travelling at an excessive rate of speed and it deviated to the left where there was a break in the kerb at the entrance to some private property. I am quite sure the car did not mount the kerb but we deviated and struck something in the opening.

We all immediately insisted upon him stopping and the girls demanded to get out. He then proceeded on for perhaps half a mile, then stopped and let the girls out.

Having set them down he asked where we wanted to go. I am a little hazy as to what was said about the accident and going back, as I was quite shocked at the time, but he didn't go back, but drove me to my Billet and then went on with the Corporal.

We were walking towards Nutfield and were on the left-hand footpath. When we were near "Hillsbrow" a Military Station Wagon travelling in the same direction pulled up, and an airman who was sitting on the nearside front seat asked if that was the right way to Nutfield. The vehicle was being driven by a Canadian soldier, and there were two other men seated in front with him, one was an airman, but I really didnt notice who the second man was.

As we were going towards Nutfield they offered us a lift. We accepted and endeavoured to open the car nearside door. It appeared to be locked and the driver got out to assist us, but before he got around the vehicle I got the door open and we entered. As the driver got back into his seat I did notice in the moonlight that he had a flash on his shoulder which I believe was blue with light-coloured lettering.

As soon as we were seated the driver started off and the vehicle quickly gathered speed. By the time we got to the top of the rise it was travelling very fast and the driver didnt ease down, but appeared to accelerate. The car seemed to sway about the road and in my opinion it was travelling too fast to take a right hand bend which we were approaching.

As we reached the bend the driver appeared to hesitate and then instead of bearing right he went straight on and appeared to be going into the private drive of Patteson Court, which is on the nearside. At the last moment he appeared to realise his mistake and swung right, but it was too late. The vehicle mounted the footpath and I felt a bump as it mounted the kerb. At that moment I noticed two people on the footpath immediately in front of us. They appeared to be turning round, probably having heard us behind them. The car went a little way along the footpath and then hit the fence a glancing blow and swung back on to the road. I at first thought we had hit the fence and not the two people, but on looking back I saw that only one of the two people was standing and the other was lying on the ground.

The driver had braked when he realised he was entering the private drive, and had probably reduced his speed to 20 or 25 m.p.h. when he mounted the footpath.

Immediately I noticed the man on the ground I said to the driver - "Stop, you've knocked someone down". He didnt answer, but seemed to hesitate so that I thought he was going to stop but then accelerated and drove on. He did not drive very fast after that, and we kept saying - "You must stop". He eventually stopped and put us down at the Priory entrance, which is approximately 200 yards from the point where the accident occurred. The car barely stopped and we simply tumbled out, and as we did so some soldiers attempted to get in. I dont know whether they were told to keep out but they left hurriedly. The car was already moving again as the soldiers attempted to get in, and it went away towards Mutfield at a fast speed.

I think we were all too upset and frightened to think about taking the number of the vehicle.

After a short discussion Corporal JENKINS and I went back to the injured man and did what we could for him pending the arrival of the Ambulance, but there were already other persons in attendance.

At 10.20 pm. on Friday 12th November 1943 I was walking along Nutfield Road with two members of my Unit towards Nutfield Priory. We were on the left hand footpath.

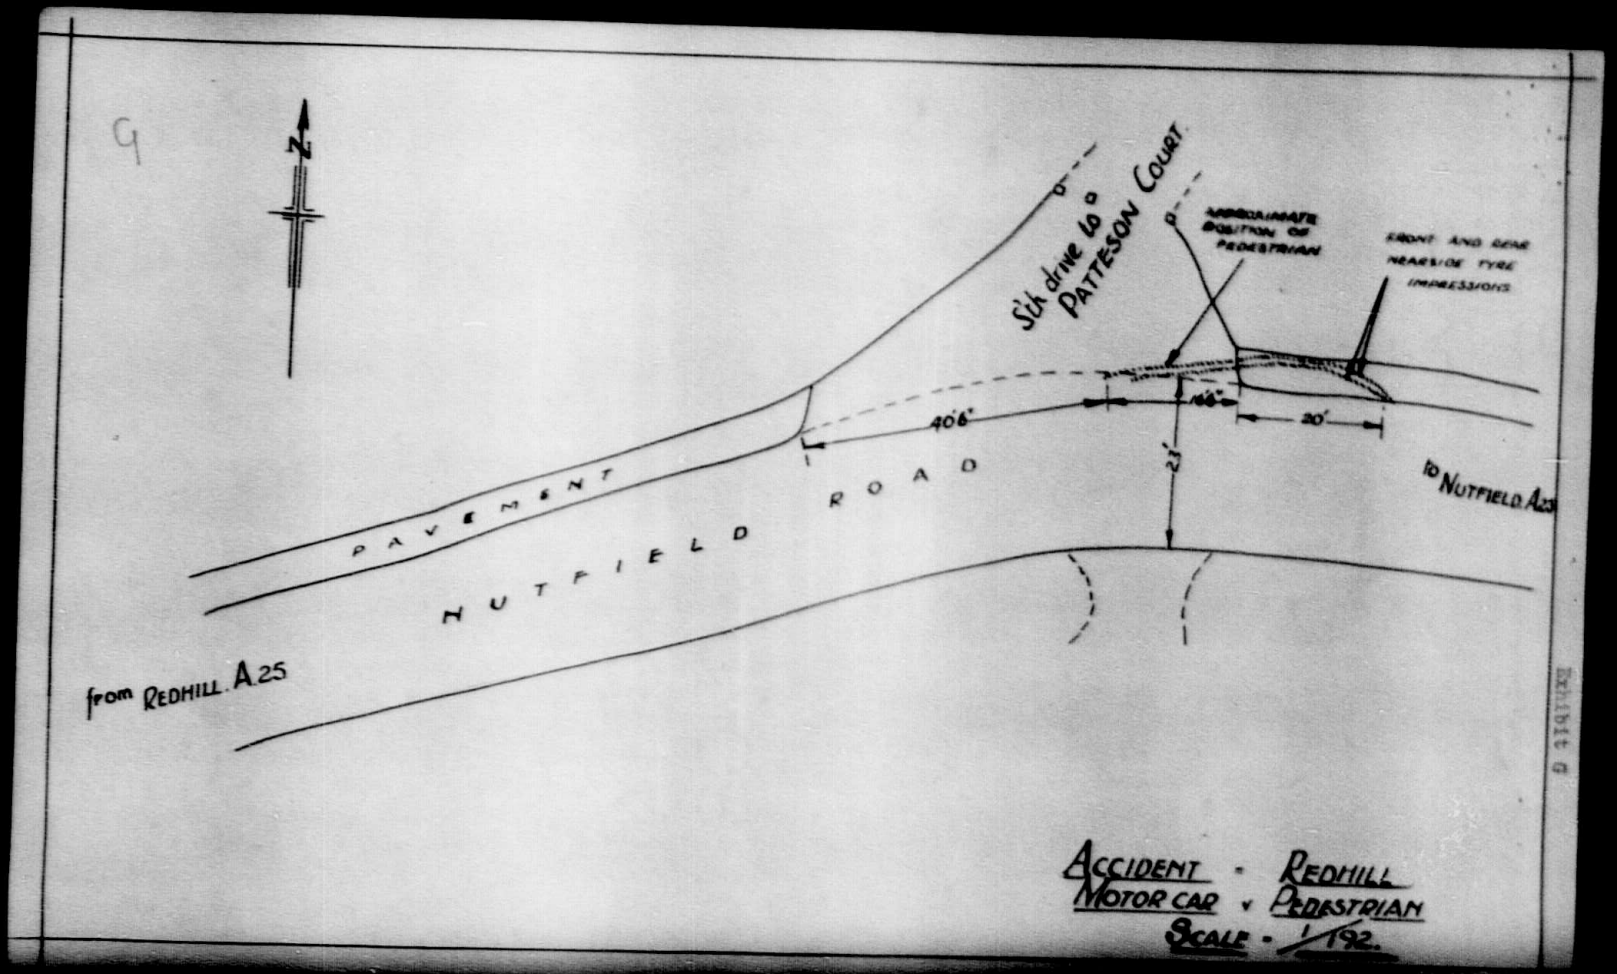
When we were near "Hillsbrow", a Military Station Truck which was going in the same direction pulled up beside us. There were two men beside the driver in the front seat, and the nearest one, who wore glasses, asked us the way to Nutfield. We said they were on the road and they asked if we were going that way and would we like a lift. We accepted and all got in the back. As we got into the vehicle I noticed that the driver was a soldier but the other two men were airmen.

The vehicle started away and while I would not say that it was going slowly I will not commit myself as it is difficult in a big, smooth-running vehicle to judge its speed.

When we had travelled a few hundred yards I noticed two men walking in the same direction as ourselves on the nearside footpath. We were just then by Patteson Court entrance, and I think the driver thought that was the road, and appeared to be going into it. He then corrected himself and swerved to the right and at the same time I felt the car strike something, and the car shook. I asked the driver to stop, but he did not answer and continued on his way. I looked through the rear window, but could see nothing.

We continued to ask the driver to stop, but he did not do so until we reached the Priory Gates, and then only because we told him we had to get out there. As soon as we got out of the car it went on towards Nutfield.

L/Cpl.LAWLISS and I went back to the spot where I had felt the car strike something and found a man badly injured. There was another civilian and an airman with him.



I could not identify the driver of the Military vehicle, and did not notice the markings on his uniform.

I have been cautioned by Sgt. Harrison of No 1 Special Investigation Section Royal Canadian Army, that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

To show that I have read over and understand this caution and that I am making this statement voluntarily, I sign my name here.

J. M. Rocke.

Witness: J. T. Harrison.

States:

My name is Terence Michael Rocke and I am a Corporal Electrician, stationed at R.C.A.F. Station, Redhill Surrey. I am twenty-one years old. With regard to the statement that I made to the Red Hill civilian police, there are certain things now that I wish to clear up. This is actually what happened. On Friday 12 Nov 1943, I visited the W. V. S. Canteen in Redhill and in there I met A. C. Minter and a Canadian soldier whom I knew as a kid in Hamilton, Ontario. [redacted]

Bill who stated he had a dispatch to deliver invited Minter and I to go for a ride with him in the station wagon which he was driving. We accepted the invitation and left the Canteen, I should think somewhere after 8 o'clock. I am not familiar with the district and do not know where we went but gained the impression that he delivered his dispatch to his Colonel somewhere in the Godstone district. After he had delivered the dispatch we drove quite a way to a Public House where we had three [illegible] drinks. I had "bitter". On leaving this Public House we went to another not far away where we had another two or four apiece. We left this house at closing time. After leaving the Public House were driving back through Redhill on our way home. Bill was driving pretty fast at this time and Winter told him to not to drive so fast. On the way we picked up three A. T. S. girls and gave them a lift. Some five or six hundred yards after picking up the girls, it is my impression wrong that I saw two people walking either on the road or very close to the side of the road on the left hand side, proceeding in the same direction that we were going in. It was bright moonlight and the road was rather glary. Suddenly, I felt the car jerk, and I thought that we had hit the curb. At the time this happened, I wasn't paying any particular attention to the road but was looking down at the dashboard. The girls all screamed, and I think one of them called out, "You've hit somebody, or words to that effect. Winter also said something about "stop the car" Bill pulled the car down quite a bit, exclaiming "fuck" as he did so. Then he said, "I beg your pardon" referring to the girls. The girls insisted that they be allowed out of the car. By this time we were almost at their quarters, so he let them out. We started up again and Bill asked Winter and I if he was on the right road to Nutfield. We replied that he was and we proceeded to Nutfield. Winter was dropped off at his quarters and then Bill drove me up to my quarters which are situated a short distance from Winters. We got out of the car and examined it and neither of us noticed anything particularly wrong with the car. He asked me if I'd be around Saturday, and I said I'll meet you at the W. V. S. meaning the canteen in Red Hill. I met him there on Saturday, the day following, and we went out to his unit in a truck I met him about one o'clock in the afternoon. He asked me if the police had been to see me and I told him that they had and that they had taken a statement from me

J. M. Cole

Pte Cole J.M.
R.A.F. Police.

I also told him that he had critically injured a civilian. I do not remember his exact words, but he implied that I was to keep my mouth shut as far as the police were concerned. Later on that day, we went to Croydon, and as I still couldn't remember his name, I asked him what it was and he replied "Davey" meaning his surname and I asked him how he spelled it and I pointed to a sign on a store which spelled Davey and I asked him if it was spelled like that and he replied DAVIES spelling it out. We spent the entire afternoon and evening together and came back to Red Hill by train. Apart from the conversation concerning the accident we had early in the afternoon we did not discuss it further. On Sunday, when you and the police sgt. called the reason I did not tell you his name and the fact that he was in Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps was because I did not want him to feel that I was the means of having him arrested. It is just possible that I could have taken you to his unit location but I am not quite sure. I realize now that I have done a foolish thing in keeping back this information and am genuinely sorry that I did not cooperate fully with the police.

(Signed) W.L.Davey.

I left camp about 6.30pm. on Friday 12th November 1943, proceeding to Godstone area for the purpose of delivering a despatch to Colonel [illegible] C.M.E.M.E. I was driving a Ford Station Waggon No.CM.4[illegible]16.

Upon arriving at Redhill I decided to go to the N.V.S.Canteen in the High Street and have tea. On entering the Canteen I recognised Corporal ROOKE of the R.C.A.F., whom I had not seen for five years. Thinking it not any harm, I asked him if he would like to accompany me to South Godstone to deliver the despatch. It was 7.0pm. when I met him.

After having tea, Corporal ROOKE and a friend who was with him, also in the R.C.A.F., known as Bill, accompanied me to Godstone, where I delivered the despatch.

After delivering the despatch we returned to Redhill and went on to the "Red Lion" at Betchworth, where we each bought a round of drinks, consisting of three pints of beer. We then proceeded to the "Burley Mew", where we had one round each of bitters, consisting of pints.

At this time the Pub. was closing, so I thinking that there was a Dance at Betchworth Hall, drove there, but found there was no dance there. Then we returned to Redhill, where I decided to take the two boys back to Nutfield Camp.

Driving out of Redhill towards Nutfield it was very misty and the moon was very bright, making the road glarey. At this time Corporal ROOKE mentioned that it was very difficult to drive. The windscreen kept misting up both on the inside and outside.

I saw three A.T.S.girls walking towards Nutfield and decided to stop to enquire if I was on the correct road to Nutfield. Upon stopping the A.T.S. informed me I was on the correct road, and I asked them if they would like a lift, and they said "Yes" and entered the car.

W.L.Davey

(Continuation).

I drove on, and by this time I was not seeing the road very clearly. My eyes were blurred and the heat of the car was affecting me. I was beginning to realise that the beer I had consumed was taking effect on me. On realising this I slowed the car down from 30 m.p.h. to 20 m.p.h. approximately.

I was following the left kerb very closely, and on coming to a slight right hand bend I came to a break in the nearside kerb.

As I looked ahead I discovered that where the nearside kerb re-commenced it was further out towards the centre of the road than the kerb I had just left. Upon discovering this I endeavoured to bring the car to the right of the road away from the kerb. At this time I noticed people on the nearside side-walk walking near me.

Upon arriving at the spot where the kerb re-commenced I felt the car hit the kerb. As I did so the girls called out that I had hit someone, and on hearing this I slowed the car to nearly a stop and turned my head around, and as near as I could see I thought that I could still see the two people walking. The Corporal suggested I should stop and I, not thinking very clearly, did not think it necessary, so I proceeded down the road another 800 yards approximately. Here I let the girls out and proceeded to Hatfield, where I dropped Bill at his billet. I then drove on a short way to Corporal Kemp's billet, where I stopped and we talked about some car the station. Just before I decided to return to Camp Corporal KEMP was undecided as to whether I had hit somebody or not and suggested we should look at the car.

We looked at the left side of the car with an intent to see if I had dented a wheel or fender, but could find no evidence that I had done so.

We made arrangements to meet the following day at 1.0p.m. at the N.A.A.F.I. in Redhill, and I then returned to Camp, taking a short cut from Hatfield to Horsham instead of returning via Redhill.

This statement has been read over to me and is correct.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of B38475 Pte Davey, William Loraine, R.C.O.C., 95 LAD, att'd 8 Cdn Fd Pk Coy, charged with:

1. Between 1800 hours and 2300 hours on 12 Nov 43 improperly and without authority using a Canadian Military vehicle, W.D. No CM-4202718 for private purposes.

2. About 2225 hours on 12 Nov 43 negligently driving Canadian Military vehicle W.D. No CM-4202718, thereby causing serious injury to one, Hubert George Maynard.

3. About 2225 hours on 12 Nov 43, after being involved in an accident, leaving the scene of the accident without leaving his particulars or taking steps to assist the injured person.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS:

William Francis Leonard Beedell, Police Sergeant No 3, Surrey Joint Police, Reigate Division, having been duly sworn, states:

At 10.35 P.M. on Friday 12 Nov 43, I was on duty at Centre Redhill. In consequence of information which I received I attended an accident in the Borrough Ambulance to a point near the entrance to Patteson Court, Nutfield Road, Redhill. Upon arrival I saw a civilian lying on the Northern footpath with his feet in the road and being supported by a second civilian.

I examined the patient and found that he had sustained injuries to the head and was bleeding from the mouth, nose and left ear. He was suffering also from shock. I rendered first aid and he was removed into the ambulance and conveyed to the East Surrey Hospital, where he was admitted and detained. Relatives informed.

I examined the scene of the accident and took measurements. Width of Nutfield Road was found to be twenty-two feet (22'). On the footpath where the patient had been lying, I found a denture and an artificial eye, which proved to be the property of the injured man. There were marks on the Roadway of tyre impressions commencing eight feet from the footpath, at the entrance to Patteson Court drive, and continuing over the footpath where the injured man was lying, for a further distance of twenty-five feet (25'), where the impression ceased on returning to the roadway. I also saw a mark on the fence two feet (2') from the ground, commencing at the second paling of the fence, and continuing for six feet (6') along the fence, apparently caused by something grazing the fence. At the end of this mark was what appeared to be a brownish coloured substance which I assumed to be paint from a vehicle.

I made inquiries and took statements from witnesses and circulated the description of a Ford V-8 vehicle wanted for failing to stop after an accident.

I made further inquiries at Nutfield Priory, where I interviewed three A.T.S., from one of whom I took a statement and made an appointment for the other two to attend Redhill Police Station the following morning. I hereby submit statements taken from (a) R152559 L/C Franks, Walter, R.C.A.F. (b) W/231959 Pte Chisholm, Joyce, A.T.S. and (c) 1465162 Pte Moore, E.J., R.E.M.E., Bristol. I hereby certify that the statements submitted herewith were given and signed in my presence by their respective makers.

ELEVENTH WITNESS A/Capt. F.P. Findlay, 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C. att'd 8 Cdn Fd Pk Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I am Officer Commanding 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C. and still am. I am well acquainted with the accused, B38475 Pte Davey, W.L., who has been under my command for the period of approximately one year. I recognize him here as the accused.

At approximately 1800 hours 12 Nov 43, I instructed the accused to deliver a dispatch to H.Q. R.E.M.E. (RCOC) 2 Cdn Corps Troops, at South Godstone. He was to proceed in Ford Station Wagon, C11,A.S. W.D. No CM-4202718, and I wrote the journey on the work ticket, "Chipstead to South Godstone and return". The mileage was then shown to be 21647 miles. I did not see the station wagon again until after morning parade, on 13 Nov 43, at which time I wrote in the entry on the work ticket; the mileage then being 21688. I noticed nothing wrong with the station wagon at that time. At approximately 1745 hours 15 Nov 43, I returned to the unit and found Police Investigators inquiring for Pte Davey, W.L. I personally brought the accused to the Orderly Room, and for the first time learned of what he is now accused. I was present at the initial questioning. At the end of this that same evening, Sergeant Harrison, J.T. of No 1 Special Investigation Section, and Sergeant J.R. Bowles, Surrey Joint Police Force wished to examine the car. At that time it was very dark and both were not satisfied with the examination by torch light. Arrangements were made to view the car the following morning. Iwas reminded then to check the work tickets of the station wagon, W.D. No CM-4202718 for the previous week, and found that the total mileage of the trip on the night in question was 41 miles. From past experience the trip should not have exceeded 25 miles. I turned in the work ticket to Capt H.B. Ford, R.C.E. 8 Cdn Fd Pk Coy as evidence of an unauthorized journey made by B38475 Pte Davey, W.L. I hereby submit the Transport Work Ticket

The Work Ticket referred to by the witness produced marked "Exhibit J" signed by me and attached hereto.

TWELVTH WITNESS: John Rideout Bowles, Sergeant No 31 Reigate Borrough Division, Surrey Joint Police Force, having been duly sworn, states:

At 5.30 P.M. on Monday Nov 15, 1943, at a Canadian Military Camp, Chipstead Surrey, I interviewed the accused, Pte Davey, W.L. in the presence of his commanding officer,Captain F.P. Findlay. I said to him," I am making inquiries respecting an accident which occurred on the Nutfield Road, Redhill, about 10.25 P.M. on Nov 12 , 1943, in which a man walking on the near side footpath toward Nutfield was knocked down and seriously injured by a vehhicle going toward Nutfield, which failed to stop".

It has been ascertained that the vehicle was a Cdn station wagon, and carried two airmen and three A.T.S. girls. "Were you the driver of the vehicle in question?" He answered,"Yes, I was". The girls said I had knocked somebody down, but I didn't think I had so didn't stop.

I said to him, "Do you care to make a statement? as to what occurred?" He sought the advice of Captain Findlay, and said; "Yes, I wish to make a statement" I thereupon cautioned him and took down at his dictation, a statement which he then made. On completion, I read the statement over to him and he signed it in my presence, and also did Captain Findlay. I hereby submit the statement of B38475 Pte Davey, W.L., 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C.

At 11.00 A.M. on Tues Nov 16, 1943, I accompanied Sergeant Beedell to Nutfield Road, Redhill, where on the fence adjoining the entrance to Patteson Court, he pointed out to me various marks, one of which consisted of a horizontal mark, two feet from the pavement, made by paint of a brownish colour. At 11.15 A.M. Tuesday Nov 16, 1943, I went to Chipstead, where, in the presence of Captain Findlay and Pte Davey, I made an examination of a Canadian Military station wagon of Ford make, W.D. No CM-4202718. I found the mud-guards of this vehicle to be painted a brownish colour, and on the front near side, or front left hand mud-guard, I found several horizontal marks, caused by the vehicle coming into contact with some object. The paint was rubbed off at these marks. The marks varied in height from the ground, but I found one to be two feet from the ground which could have been caused by contact with the fence at Patteson Court.

Pte Davey informed me that the three A.T.S. girls he carried were sitting on the middle seat of the vehicle and the two Canadian airmen were sitting on the front seat next to him; the rear seat being vacant.

I caused three soldiers of fairly small stature to sit on the centre seat and two more to sit on the front seat to represent the airmen. I then sat in the driver's seat and on turning my head round, I found I could only see out of the rear window BETWEEN THE HEADS of the three men in the middle seat. The rear window measured four feet wide by eleven inches high. The view was very limited, and as Pte Davey is a much smaller man than myself, I formed the opinion that his view to the rear was also limited.

Signature of witness J. R. Bowles

The statement referred to by the witness, produced, read over to the accused, marked "Exhibit J", signed by me and attached hereto.

The accused does not wish to cross-examine this witness

(signature of Officer taking summary)

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath?" You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The accused: "I do not."

(Signature of accused)

I certify that R.P. 4 has been complied with.

Q.1 Will you identify the accused?
A.1 The accused is M.6205 Pte. DAVID Blaise

Q.2 Could you tell the court what you know about Pte. David with regard to the charge laid against him?
A.2 On the 15th of Feb. 1944, I was platoon Sgt of #16 Platoon. In the afternoon I warned my platoon that we were to go up to the frontline on that same night. We were to move at 2030 hrs. Pte. David who was then present, told me he would not go to the front line because he was too nervous and afraid. When the time to move arrived I made a roll call Pte. David was not present. I havent seen him until the other day when he told me he had reported at "B" echelon on the 17th of Feb.

Cross-examination by Defending Officer:

Q.1 Were the men of your platoon warned that if they absented themself they were to be considered as deserters?
A.1 There was no officer in the platoon at that time, and I was acting as Platoon Commander. My men had been warned before that if they went A.W.O.L. in such circumstances they were to be considered as deserters.

Q.2. On that particular day, did you warn your platoon that if one man absented himself he would be considered a deserter?
A.2 No, Sir, all the men had been warned to that effect a few days before.

Q.3 Was Pte David present when that warning was given a few days earlier?
A.3 I don't know.

I said to him, "Do you care to make a statement? as to what occurred?" He sought the advice of Captain Findlay, and said; "Yes, I wish to make a statement" I thereupon cautioned him and took down at his dictation, a statement which he then made. On completion, I read the statement over to him and he signed it in my presence, and also did Captain Findlay. I hereby submit the statement of B38475 Pte Davey, W.L., 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C.

At 11.00 A.M. on Tues Nov 16, 1943, I accompanied Sergeant Beedell to Nutfield Road, Redhill, where on the fence adjoining the entrance to Patteson Court, he pointed out to me various marks, one of which consisted of a horizontal mark, two feet from the pavement, made by paint of a brownish colour. At 11.15 A.M. Tuesday Nov 16, 1943, I went to Chipstead, where, in the presence of Captain Findlay and Pte Davey, I made an examination of a Canadian Military station wagon of Ford make, W.D. No CM-4202718. I found the mud-guards of this vehicle to be painted a brownish colour, and on the front near side, or front left hand mud-guard, I found several horizontal marks, caused by the vehicle coming into contact with some object. The paint was rubbed off at these marks. The marks varied in height from the ground, but I found one to be two feet from the ground which could have been caused by contact with the fence at Patteson Court.

Pte Davey informed me that the three A.T.S. girls he carried were sitting on the middle seat of the vehicle and the two Canadian airmen were sitting on the front seat next to him; the rear seat being vacant.

I caused three soldiers of fairly small stature to sit on the centre seat and two more to sit on the front seat to represent the airmen. I then sat in the driver's seat and on turning my head round, I found I could only see out of the rear window BETWEEN THE HEADS of the three men in the middle seat. The rear window measured four feet wide by eleven inches high. The view was very limited, and as Pte Davey is a much smaller man than myself, I formed the opinion that his view to the rear was also limited.

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath?" You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The accused: "I do not."

ELEVENTH WITNESS

A/Capt. F.P. Findlay, 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C. att'd 8 Cdn Fd Pk Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I am Officer Commanding 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C. and still am. I am well acquainted with the accused, B38475 Pte Davey, W.L., who has been under my command for the period of approximately one year. I recognize him here as the accused.

At approximately 1800 hours 12 Nov 43, I instructed the accused to deliver a dispatch to H.Q. R.E.M.E. (RCOC) 2 Cdn Corps Troops, at South Godstone. He was to proceed in Ford Station Wagon, C11,A.S. W.D. No CM-4202718, and I wrote the journey on the work ticket, "Chipstead to South Godstone and return" The mileage was then shown to be 21647 miles. I did not see the station wagon again until after morning parade, on 13 Nov 43, at which time I wrote in the entry on the work ticket; the mileage then being 21688. I noticed nothing wrong with the station wagon at that time. At approximately 1745 hours 15 Nov 43, I returned to the unit and found Police Investigators inquiring for Pte Davey, W.L. I personally brought the accused to the Orderly Room, and for the first time learned of what he is now accused. I was present at the initial questioning. At the end of this that same evening, Sergeant Harrison, J.T. of No 1 Special Investigation Section, and Sergeant J.R. Bowles, Surrey Joint Police Force wished to examine the car. At that time it was very dark and both were not satisfied with the examination by torch light. Arrangements were made to view the car the following morning. Iwas reminded then to check the work tickets of the station wagon, W.D. No CM-4202718 for the previous week, and found that the total mileage of the trip on the night in question was 41 miles. From past experience the trip should not have exceeded 25 miles. I turned in the work ticket to Capt H.B. Ford, R.C.E. 8 Cdn Fd Pk Coy as evidence of an unauthorized journey made by B38475 Pte Davey, W.L. I hereby submit the [illegible]

TWELVTH WITNESS:

John Rideout Bowles, Sergeant No 31 Reigate Borrough Division, Surrey Joint Police Force, having been duly sworn, states:

At 5.30 P.M. on Monday Nov 15, 1943, at a Canadian Military Camp, Chipstead Surrey, I interviewed the accused, Pte Davey, W.L. in the presence of his commanding officer,Captain F.P. Findlay. I said to him," I am making inquiries respecting an accident which occurred on the Nutfield Road, Redhill, about 10.25 P.M. on Nov 12 , 1943, in which a man walking on the near side footpath toward Nutfield was knocked down and seriously injured by a vehhicle going toward Nutfield, which failed to stop".

It has been ascertained that the vehicle was a Cdn station wagon, and carried two airmen and three A.T.S. girls. "Were you the driver of the vehicle in question?" He answered,"Yes, I was". The girls said I had knocked somebody down, but I didn't think I had so didn't stop.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of B38475 Pte Davey, William Loraine, R.C.O.C., 95 LAD, att'd 8 Cdn Fd Pk Coy, charged with:

1. Between 1800 hours and 2300 hours on 12 Nov 43 improperly and without authority using a Canadian Military vehicle, W.D. No CM-4202718 for private purposes.

2. About 2225 hours on 12 Nov 43 negligently driving Canadian Military vehicle W.D. No CM-4202718, thereby causing serious injury to one, Hubert George Maynard.

3. About 2225 hours on 12 Nov 43, after being involved in an accident, leaving the scene of the accident without leaving his particulars or taking steps to assist the injured person.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS:

William Francis Leonard Beedell, Police Sergeant No 3, Surrey Joint Police, Reigate Division, having been duly sworn, states:

At 10.35 P.M. on Friday 12 Nov 43, I was on duty at Centre Redhill. In consequence of information which I received I attended an accident in the Borrough Ambulance to a point near the entrance to Patteson Court, Nutfield Road, Redhill. Upon arrival I saw a civilian lying on the Northern footpath with his feet in the road and being supported by a second civilian.

I examined the patient and found that he had sustained injuries to the head and was bleeding from the mouth, nose and left ear. He was suffering also from shock. I rendered first aid and he was removed into the ambulance and conveyed to the East Surrey Hospital, where he was admitted and detained. Relatives informed.

I examined the scene of the accident and took measurements. Width of Nutfield Road was found to be twenty-two feet (22'). On the footpath where the patient had been lying, I found a denture and an artificial eye, which proved to be the property of the injured man. There were marks on the Roadway of tyre impressions commencing eight feet from the footpath, at the entrance to Patteson Court drive, and continuing over the footpath where the injured man was lying, for a further distance of twenty-five feet (25'), where the impression ceased on returning to the roadway. I also saw a mark on the fence two feet (2') from the ground, commencing at the second paling of the fence, and continuing for six feet (6') along the fence, apparently caused by something grazing the fence. At the end of this mark was what appeared to be a brownish coloured substance which I assumed to be paint from a vehicle.

I made inquiries and took statements from witnesses and circulated the description of a Ford V-8 vehicle wanted for failing to stop after an accident.

I made further inquiries at Nutfield Priory, where I interviewed three A.T.S., from one of whom I took a statement and made an appointment for the other two to attend Redhill Police Station the following morning. I hereby submit statements taken from (a) R152559 LA/C Franks, Walter, R.C.A.F. (b) W/231959 Pte Chisholm, Joyce, A.T.S. and (c) 1465162 Pte Moore, E.J., R.M.M.E., Bristol. TWELVTH WITNESS: John Ridout Bowles (continued)

I said to him, "Do you care to make a statement? as to what occurred?" He sought the advice of Captain Findlay, and said; "Yes, I wish to make a statement" I thereupon cautioned him and took down at his dictation, a statement which he then made. On completion, I read the statement over to him and he signed it in my presence, and also did Captain Findlay. I hereby submit the statement of B38475 Pte Davey, W.L., 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C.

At 11.00 A.M. on Tues Nov 16, 1943, I accompanied Sergeant Beedell to Nutfield Road, Redhill, where on the fence adjoining the entrance to Patteson Court, he pointed out to me various marks, one of which consisted of a horizontal mark, two feet from the pavement, made by paint of a brownish colour. At 11.15 A.M. Tuesday Nov 16, 1943, I went to Chipstead, where, in the presence of Captain Findlay and Pte Davey, I made an examination of a Canadian Military station wagon of Ford make, W.D. No CM-4202718. I found the mud-guards of this vehicle to be painted a brownish colour, and on the front near side, or front left hand mud-guard, I found several horizontal marks, caused by the vehicle coming into contact with some object. The paint was rubbed off at these marks. The marks varied in height from the ground, but I found one to be two feet from the ground which could have been caused by contact with the fence at Patteson Court.

Pte Davey informed me that the three A.T.S. girls he carried were sitting on the middle seat of the vehicle and the two Canadian airmen were sitting on the front seat next to him; the rear seat being vacant.

I caused three soldiers of fairly small stature to sit on the centre seat and two more to sit on the front seat to represent the airmen. I then sat in the driver's seat and on turning my head round, I found I could only see out of the rear window BETWEEN THE HEADS of the three men in the middle seat. The rear window measured four feet wide by eleven inches high. The view was very limited, and as Pte Davey is a much smaller man than myself, I formed the opinion that his view to the rear was also limited.

A/Capt. F.P. Findlay, 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C. att'd 8 Cdn Fd Pk Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I am Officer Commanding 95 L.A.D. R.C.O.C. and still am. I am well acquainted with the accused, B38475 Pte Davey, W.L., who has been under my command for the period of approximately one year. I recognize him here as the accused.

At approximately 1800 hours 12 Nov 43, I instructed the accused to deliver a dispatch to H.Q. R.E.M.E. (RCOC) 2 Cdn Corps Troops, at South Godstone. He was to proceed in Ford Station Wagon, C11,A.S. W.D. No CM-4202718, and I wrote the journey on the work ticket, "Chipstead to South Godstone and return" The mileage was then shown to be 21647 miles. I did not see the station wagon again until after morning parade, on 13 Nov 43, at which time I wrote in the entry on the work ticket; the mileage then being 21688. I noticed nothing wrong with the station wagon at that time. At approximately 1745 hours 15 Nov 43, I returned to the unit and found Police Investigators inquiring for Pte Davey, W.L. I personally brought the accused to the Orderly Room, and for the first time learned of what he is now accused. I was present at the initial questioning. At the end of this that same evening, Sergeant Harrison, J.T. of No 1 Special Investigation Section, and Sergeant J.R. Bowles, Surrey Joint Police Force wished to examine the car. At that time it was very dark and both were not satisfied with the examination by torch light. Arrangements were made to view the car the following morning. I was reminded then to check the work tickets of the station wagon, W.D. No CM-4202718 for the previous week, and found that the total mileage of the trip on the night in question was 41 miles. From past experience the trip should not have exceeded 25 miles. I turned in the work ticket to Capt H.B. Ford, R.C.E. 8 Cdn Fd Pk Coy as evidence of an unauthorized journey made by B38475 Pte Davey, W.L. I hereby submit the Transport Work Ticket used by Pte Davey, W.L. the (Signed) W.L.Davey.

I left camp about 6.30pm. on Friday 12th November 1943, proceeding to Godstone area for the purpose of delivering a despatch to Colonel [redacted] C.B.E.M.C. I was driving a Ford Station Waggon No.CM.4302716.

Upon arriving at Redhill I decided to go to the S.V.S.Canteen in the High Street and have tea. On entering the Canteen I recognised Corporal ROCHE of the R.C.A.F., whom I had not seen for five years. Thinking it not any harm, I asked him if he would like to accompany me to Goth Godstone to deliver the despatch. It was 7.0pm. when I met him.

After having tea, Corporal ROCHE and a friend who was with him, also in the R.C.A.F., known as Bill, accompanied me to Godstone, where I delivered the despatch.

After delivering the despatch we returned to Redhill and went on to the "Red Lion" at Betchworth, where we each bought a round of drinks, consisting of three pints of beer. We then proceeded to the "Barley Mow", where we had one round each of bitters, consisting of pints.

At this time the Pub. was closing, so I thinking that there was a Dance at Betchworth Hall, drove there, but found there was no dance there. Then we returned to Redhill, where I decided to take the two boys back to Nutfield Camp.

Driving out of Redhill towards Nutfield it was very misty and the moon was very bright, making the road glary. At this time Corporal ROCHE mentioned that it was very difficult to drive. The windscreen kept misting up both on the inside and outside.

I saw three A.T.S.girls walking towards Nutfield and decided to stop to enquire if I was on the correct road to Nutfield. Upon stopping the A.T.S. informed me I was on the correct road, and I asked them if they would like a lift, and they said "Yes" and entered the car.

I have been cautioned by Sgt. Harrison of No 1 Special Investigation Section, First Canadian Army, that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

States:

My name is Terence Michael Roche and I am a Corporal Electrician, stationed at R.C.A.F. Station, Redhill Surrey. I am twenty-one years old. With regard to the statement that I made to the Red Hill civilian police, there are certain things now that I wish to clear up. This is actually what happened. On Friday 12 Nov 1943, I visited the N. A. A. F. I. Canteen in Redhill and in there I met A. G. Winter and a Canadian soldier whom I knew as a kid in Hamilton, Ontario. [redacted] Bill who stated he had a despatch to deliver in order that Winter and I to go for a ride with him in the station wagon which he was driving. We accepted the invitation and left the Canteen, I should think somewhere after 8 o'clock. I am not familiar with the district and do not know where we went but gained the impression that he delivered his despatch to his Colonel somewhere in the Godstone district. After he had delivered the despatch we drove quite a way to a Public House where we had three [illegible] drinks. I had "bitter". On leaving this Public House we went to another not far away where we had another two or four apiece. We left this house at closing time. After leaving the Public House were driving back through Redhill on our way home. Bill was driving pretty fast at this time and Winter told him to not to drive so fast. On the way we picked up three A.T.S. girls and gave them a lift. Some five or six hundred yards after picking up the girls, it is my impression wrong that I saw two people walking either on the road or very close to the side of the road on the left hand side, proceeding in the same direction that we were going in. It was bright moonlight and the road was rather glary. Suddenly, I felt the car jerk, and I thought that we had hit the curb. At the time this happened, I wasn't paying any particular attention to the road but was looking down at the dashboard. The girls all screamed, and I think one of them called out, "You've hit somebody, or words to that effect. Winter also said something about "stop the car" Bill slowed the car down quite a bit, exclaiming "fuck" as he did so. Then he said, "I beg your pardon" referring to the girls. The girls insisted that they be allowed out of the car. By this time we were almost at their quarters, so he let them out. We started up again and Bill asked Winter and I if he was on the right road to Nutfield. We replied that he was and we proceeded to Nutfield. Winter was dropped off at his quarters and then Bill drove me up to my Quarters which are situated a short distance from Winters. We got out of the car and examined it and neither of us noticed anything particularly wrong with the car. He asked me if I'd be around Saturday, and I said I'll meet you at the W.V.S. canteen in Red Hill. I met him there on Saturday, the day following, and we went out to his unit in a truck I met him about one o'clock in the afternoon. He asked me if the police had been to see me and I told him that they had and that they had taken a statement from me

P Pearley Esq
R.A.C. Police.

J.M. Poole

I also told him that he had critically injured a civilian. I do not remember his exact words, but he implied that I was to keep my mouth shut as far as the police were concerned. Later on that day, we went to Croydon, and as I still couldn't remember his name, I asked him what it was and he replied "Davey" meaning his surname and I asked him how he spelled it and I pointed to a sign on a store which spelled Davy and I asked him if it was spelled like that and he replied DAVIES spelling it out. We spent the entire afternoon and evening together and came back to Red Hill by train. Apart from the conversation concerning the accident we had early in the afternoon we did not discuss it further. On Sunday, when you and the police sgt. called the reason I did not tell you his name and the fact that he was in Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps was because I did not want him to feel that I was the means of having him arrested. It is just possible that I could have taken you to his unit location but I am not quite sure. I realize now that I have done a foolish thing in keeping back this information and am genuinely sorry that I did not cooperate fully with the police.

He was lying on his back and being supported by another man. In consequence of what the man said, I remembered seeing an Army Ford Chad Car just previously passing us travelling towards Nutfield at about 45 to 50 m.p.h. I remarked to my friend at the time upon the speed of the car. The car had a rack on the top and was carrying luggage.

It was bright moonlight at the time, and the car was using side-lights.

I heard a car stop some distance behind us previous to the accident and the Ford was the only car which passed us.

The car was driven by a soldier and two other men were in the front seat. The driver did not appear to know the road and asked the way to Nutfield. He drove very fast.

I saw two people on the footpath ahead of us at the bend. The car swerved and struck the nearside fence, but I did not notice what happened to the two people, but after we had passed I looked round and saw someone lying on the road.

I called to the driver to stop and told him he had knocked someone down, but he would not stop until we got to the Priory Gate. We three got out and the car went on towards Nutfield. I could not identify the driver.

At 10.8pm. on Friday 12th November 1943 I and my friend Hubert George MAYNARD left Redhill Railway Station and started to walk towards Bletchingley. We walked on the nearside footpath, myself on the inside and my friend on the outside, about two feet from the kerb. We walked past "Chart Lodge", Nutfield Road, and on reaching the entrance to Patteson Court (opposite Nutfield Lodge, Nutfield Road), I heard a thud. I realised that my friend had been struck by a motor vehicle. I saw the vehicle mount the footpath and continue along the footpath for a distance of approximately 26 yards. It continued on along the road towards Nutfield at a speed which I estimate at 45 m.p.h.

I then found that my friend was lying face downwards on the footpath, his head towards the inside of the footpath. He was unconscious and bleeding from the head, mouth and left ear. An R.A.F. man went into a house opposite and the Ambulance was sent for.

I think that the vehicle that struck my friend was of the heavy Army lorry type. I also noticed that a private car proceeding towards Redhill passed the scene of the accident shortly after the accident occurred.

The scene of the accident is on a right hand bend and the footpath broadens out to about eight feet in width.

At roughly 9.0pm. on Friday 12th November 1943 I was in the W.V.S.Canteen in High Street, Redhill, when I met a Corporal from the Aerodrome and a Canadian despatch rider. The Canadian had a Canadian Staff Car with him and was on his way to deliver a despatch to his Colonel. He invited the R.A.F.Corporal and myself to accompany him, which we did. He went first and delivered his despatch, I have no idea of the roads he traversed except that we proceeded out of Redhill under the Railway Bridge and to the right, and I got the impression from the driver that we were going near Godstone.

He delivered the despatch and we then drove to a Public House which I understood was the "Red Lion" at Betchworth, and there we had three pints of beer each. On leaving this Public House we drove to another which I cannot name and we each had another three pints of beer there. We remained in the bar until time was called at 10.0pm.

When we re-entered the car both the Corporal and I considered the driver was driving too fast. We told him so and said we were in no hurry.

I am under the impression we passed through Redhill and then we pulled up and asked three A.T.S. girls if we were on the road to Nutfield. They said we were right and as they were going part way on that road we gave them a lift.

Very shortly after picking up the girls we struck something. At the time the car was travelling at an excessive rate of speed and it deviated to the left where there was a break in the kerb at the entrance to some private property. I am quite sure the car did not mount the kerb but we deviated and struck something in the opening.

We all immediately insisted upon him stopping and the girls demanded to get out. He then proceeded on for perhaps half a mile, then stopped and let the girls out.

Having set them down he asked where we wanted to go. I am a little hazy as to what was said about the accident and going back, as I was quite sobered at the time, but he didn't go back, but drove me to my Billet and then went on with the Corporal.

I mediately went andreported the facts to Corporal NOBLE, H, of the R.A.F.Police, who telephoned the Civil Police.

I do not know the Canadian, but his Christian name is Bill, and although he was not wearing any stripes he said he was a Lance-Corporal. He was wearing a Despatch Rider's badge. I think he said he was 21 or 22 and came from Hamilton. I wand to add that he was a fast driver as a result of knowing the roads well.

He didnt answer, but seemed to hesitate so that I thought he was going to stop but then accelerated and drove on. He did not drive very fast after that, and we kept saying - "You must stop". He eventually stopped and put us down at the Priory entrance, which is approximately 200 yards from the point where the accident occurred. The car barely stopped and we simply tumbled out, and as we did so some soldiers attempted to get in. I dont know whether they were told to keep out but they left hurriedly. The car was already moving again as the soldiers attempted to get in, and it went away towards Nutfield at a fast speed.

I think we were all too upset and frightened to think about taking the number of the vehicle.

After a short discussion Corporal JENKINS and I went back to the injured man and did what we could for him pending the arrival of the Ambulance, but there were already other persons in attendance.

At about 10.20 p.m. on Friday 12th November 1943 I was walking along Nutfield Road with Corporal JENKINS and Private CHISHOLM of my Unit. We were walking towards Nutfield and were on the left-hand footpath. When we were near "Hillsbrow" a Military Station Waggon travelling in the same direction pulled up, and an airman who was sitting on the nearside front seat asked if that was the right way to Nutfield. The vehicle was being driven by a Canadian soldier, and there were two other men seated in front with him, one was an airman, but I really didnt notice who the second man was.

As we were going towards Nutfield they offered us a lift. We accepted and endeavoured to open the car nearside door. It appeared to be locked and the driver got out to assist us, but before he got around the vehicle I got the door open and we entered. As the driver got back into his seat I did notice in the moonlight that he had a flash on his shoulder which I believe was blue with light-coloured lettering.

As soon as we were seated the driver started off and the vehicle quickly gathered speed. By the time we got to the top of the rise it was travelling very fast and the driver didnt ease down, but appeared to accelerate. The car seemed to sway about the road and in my opinion it was travelling too fast to take a right hand bend which we were approaching.

As we reached the bend the driver appeared to hesitate and then instead of bearing right he went straight on and appeared to be going into the private drive of Patteson Court, which is on the nearside. At the last moment he appeared to realise his mistake and swung right, but it was too late. The vehicle mounted the footpath and I felt a bump as it mounted the kerb. At that moment I noticed two people on the footpath immediately in front of us. They appeared to be turning round, probably having heard us behind them. The car went a little way along the footpath and then hit the fence a glancing blow and swung back on to the road. I at first thought we had hit the fence and not the two people, but on looking back I saw that only one of the two people was standing and the other was lying on the ground.

The driver had braked when he realised he was entering the private drive, and had probably reduced his speed to 20 or 25 m.p.h. when he mounted the footpath.

When we were near "Hillsbrow", a Military Station Truck which was going in the same direction pulled up beside us. There were two men beside the driver in the front seat, and the nearest one, who wore glasses, asked us the way to Nutfield. We said they were on the road and they asked if we were going that way and would we like a lift. We accepted and all got in the back. As we got into the vehicle I noticed that the driver was a soldier but the other two men were airmen.

The vehicle started away and while I would not say that it was going slowly I will not commit myself as it is difficult in a big, smooth-running vehicle to judge its speed.

When we had travelled a few hundred yards I noticed two men walking in the same direction as ourselves on the nearside footpath. One was carrying a suit-case. We were just then by Patteson Court entrance, and I think the driver thought that was the road, and appeared to be going into it. He then corrected himself and swerved to the right and at the same time I felt the car strike something, and the car shook. I asked the driver to stop, but he did not answer and continued on his way. I looked through the rear window, but could see nothing.

We continued to ask the driver to stop, but he did not do so until we reached the Priory Gates, and then only because we told him we had to get out there. As soon as we got out of the car it went on towards Nutfield.

L/Cpl. LAWLING and I went back to the spot where I had felt the car strike something and found a man badly injured. There was another civilian and an airman with him.

I could not identify the driver of the Military vehicle, and did not notice the markings on his uniform.

Upon arriving at Redhill I decided to go to the W.V.S. Canteen in the High Street and have tea.

On entering the canteen I recognised Corporal Crocker of the R.C.A.F., whom I had not seen for over five years. Thinking it not any harm, I asked him if he would like to accompany me to Godstone to deliver the dispatch. It was then when I met him friend who was with him also in the R.C.A.F. known as Bill accompanied me to Godstone, where I delivered the Dispatch.

After delivering the Dispatch we returned to Redhill, and went on to the Red Lion at Betchworth where we each bought a round of drinks consisting of three pints of beer. We then proceeded to the Banker, now where we had one round each of Bitters consisting of pints.

At this time the pub was closing so I thinking there was a Dance at Betchworth Hall drove there, but found there was no Dance there.

Then we returned to Redhill, where I decided to take the two boys back to Nutfield Bank.

Driving out of Redhill towards Nutfield it was very misty, and the moon was very bright making the road glisten at this time I got drowsy mentioned that it was very difficult to drive the windscreen kept misting up both on the inside and outside.

I saw three A.T.S. girls walking towards Nutfield and decided to stop to enquire if I was on the correct road to Nutfield.

Upon stopping, the A.T.S informed me I was on the correct road, and I asked them if they would like a lift and they said yes and entered the car.

I drove on, and by this time I was not seeing the road very clearly. my eyes were blurred and the heat of the cart was affecting me. I was beginning to realise that the blow I had sustained was taking effect on me On realising this I slowed the cart down from 30 m.p.h to 20 m.p.h. approx.

I was throwing the left bank very closely, and on coming to a slight right hand bend, I came to a break in the nearside bank.

As I looked ahead I discovered that where the nearside bank re-commenced, it was further out towards the centre of the road than the bank I had just left. Upon discovering this I endeavoured to swing the cart to right of the road away from the bank. At this time I noticed people on the nearside path walking near the bridge.

Upon arriving at the spot where the bank re-commenced I felt the cart hit the bank. As I did so the girls called out that I had hit someone, and on hearing this I slowed the cart to nearly a stop and turned my head round and as near as I could see I thought that I could still see the two people walking. The Inspector suggested I should stop and I did not hesitate very clearly, I did not think it necessary, so I proceeded down the road another 200 yards approx. Here I let the girls out and proceeded to Nutfield, where I dropped "Bill" at his billet. I then drove on a short way to Pte Roache's billet where I stopped and we talked about home for 10 minutes. Just before I decided to return to Barnes, Pte Roache was undecided as to whether I had hit somebody or not and suggested we should look at the car.

We looked at the left side of the car with matches, to see if I had dented a wheel or fender, but could find no evidence that I had done so.

We made arrangements to meet the following day at 1 pm at the W.V.S. canteen in Redhill, and I then returned to Barnes, taking a short cut from Nutfield to Merstham instead of returning via Redhill

W. F. L. Beedell, Police Sgt # 3, Surrey Joint Police, sworn, states

On 12 Jan 43 I was on duty. At 10.35 in consequence of a telephone call I attended at the Borough Ambulance Depot on Nutfield Road, Redhill. It was a bright moonlight night. On arrival at the scene of the accident which was near the entrance to Patteson Court I found a civilian lying on the northern footpath with his feet in the road. He was being supported by a second civilian. The injured man was bleeding from the nose, mouth and left ear and was unconscious. First aid was rendered and he was conveyed to the East Surrey Hospital in Redhill in the ambulance.

I took statements and measurements of the road. On the footpath adjacent to where the man was lying I found a dented and an artificial leg.

The width of the road was 20'. There was a tyre impression commencing 9" West of the edge of the footpath which terminated at the entrance to Patteson Court. The tyre impression continued for 25' on the footpath where it went onto the road. I also found a mark on the fence 2' from the ground commencing from the second paling of the fence and continuing eastward for 6' where some part of a vehicle had grazed the fence. Brown paint was at the commencement and at the end of the mark.

In consequence of statements taken I caused the description of a military station waggon to be circulated within the County. I made further enquiries and contacted witnesses from whom I took statements.

Cross-examination

I can't say whether or not the injured man was moved before I got there.

There was only a scrape on the fence. It was a fresh scratch. There were no old scratches on the fence. The paint was right at the beginning and at the end of the scrape which was 6'. You cannot tell whether there were one or two tyre impressions.

I made this plan on the scene of the accident.

Plan presented and marked Exhibit "A"

The Tyre impression was too wide for a lorry tyre. It was about 10" wide. I should say it was only one wheel. There was no sign of any brake being used.

I recognise this picture as the scene ~~of the~~ I saw approaching from the West 10. from the direction of Rothbill.

Picture accepted and marked Exhibit "B"

The tyre impression was about 10" from the base of the fence.

Re-examined

I am familiar with this road. The photograph shows the directional points, the white lines, and cats' eyes. There is an A.A. sign on an iron post at the end of the fence, facing west, indicating a dang er point.

On 12 Nov 43 I left Rothbill accompanied by P/O Fleming at about 2200 hrs. As we were approaching Kelbrow School on the Eddelow Road I heard a vehicle ~~stop~~ behind me. ~~Coming~~ after we had passed Kelsbrow School at a bend in the road we found a man sitting on the sidewalk with another ~~P/O~~ Crew an injured man in his lap. The injured man ~~was~~ lay on the road.

The vehicle that stopped behind us passed us going at a pretty fast clip - about 45 to 50 m.p.h. It didn't look like an Eng unit vehicle couldn't tell exact type of vehicle. Thought there was a luggage rack on top. Would say it was a ford from the sound of the eng ine.

~~No other vehicle passed~~. I did not see any other vehicle on the road between the time the vehicle I have described passed us and the time I found the injured man.

As the vehicle passed it seemed to me it had a luggage rack on the top with something in it but I wouldn't say for sure. It seemed to have a square back. It was a covered vehicle ~~the same as~~ I/C something the same as a sedan or a closed.

It was a moonlight night.

It was on its own side of the road when it passed us.

Cross-examination

I did not see the accident. I couldn't see the scene of the accident. I wasn't very far away when I heard the cries. When we came to the bend we cut over to the middle of the road. Then we heard the cries and went over to the injured man. I couldn't see the man from the centre of the road.

It was only making the usual amount of eng ine noise that any car would make

By the Court

I was a couple of hundred yards from the scene of the accident when the vehicle passed me. It is a couple of minutes walk. I did not hear any brakes being applied, nor any crash. nor any colony until I got to the scene.

I was walking up the road from Redhill with L.A.C. Franks when we got to Hillsbrow School. We were about 20 yards past Hillsbrow School when a car passed us. We walked on down the road to Pattenden Corner when someone shouted to us. We went over and saw a man was hurt. I went and phoned the police. I think it was a staff car. The vehicle was travelling fast. Definitely faster than cars do travel on the road.

I did not see any other vehicle pass us ~~from the to the time I arrived~~ to the time I arrived at the scene of the accident. There was only one other vehicle passed us ~~the~~ from the time we left Redhill.

I did not hear any voice at all.

At 9.0 o'clock on 12 Nov. 43 Spl Roach, the accused and myself left the W.T.S. Canteen in Redhill to deliver a despatch. After delivering the despatch we went to a pub some distance from Redhill where we had three beers each - pints. We went to another pub which again was some distance away. We had 3 pts of beer each again. By that time it was closing time and we left. The driver, said he would take us home. On the way we stopped to ask 3 A.T.S. girls the direction of the cut-off from Maidstone to South Maidstone. As they were going along the same road they were invited to ride along with us to their quarters

Shortly after we picked the girls up we came to a bend in the road. We were driving quite fast. I don't know exactly how fast. It was a moonlight night. At the bend in the road there appeared to be a break in the sidewalk which might be taken for a continuation of the road in the glare of the moonlight. As we came to this spot we swerved out and as we swerved we hit someone. I heard someone yell. I felt two impacts and told the driver to stop. He continued on to where the girls lived which was approximately 1/2 mile down the road. The driver then proceeded on to take us to our billets. I got out first and the driver and Sgt Roach went on. I reported the accident to the service police. The day following the accident in the afternoon I went out with the police to try and locate the driver.

Cross-examination:

I did not actually see the man and vehicle come together. To my impression it was a staff car. The car did not slow down to any appreciable extent when approaching the curve in the road. I don't remember whether he slowed down ~~at all~~ or not. It was my impression that the car just glanced off me as I raised the curb. I was on the left hand side in the front seat. When I first saw the man he was between the break in the sidewalk. ~~It was an auto~~ He was walking across the entrance to a property which made a break in the sidewalk.

By the Court

The car went over the edge of the road. I saw a man there. I felt two impacts and heard a man yell. After this yell we all told him to stop. I don't remember him saying anything. I recognise the driver (the accused) R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

On 12 Nov 43 after the accused delivered his despatch we went to a pub. I had three pints of bitter. We each bought a round. We went to another pub further down the road where we each had three pints. It was closing time. The accused was going to drive. Winterton and myself to our billets.

We proceeded in the direction of Ratfield. We stopped to enquire how to get to Ratfield. We asked 3 A.T.S. girls to get in and we would drive them home which was only a little way down.

On the way we hit the curb. The girls screamed. There were just a few people walking ~~along the footpath~~. I saw two people on the left hand side of the road. The vehicle just seemed to hit the curb. I couldn't say whether it went over the curb or not.

The girls screamed ~~and ran~~ Mr Winterton asked the driver to stop. The girls said ~~you~~ hit somebody. The driver swore and started up the car. I think it stopped. I'm not exactly sure. We dropped off the A.T.S. girls then we proceeded to Nutfield and dropped off Mr Winterton then he took me to my billets.

He was going about 40 before the accident. He slowed down after he had been told he hit someone.

I had made a date with him to see at the W.V.S. at Redhill. ~~I~~ next day. I met him and told him I had been told that someone had been badly injured on Nutfield Road. I told him the police had been down to get a statement ~~from him about it~~ ~~late that day~~

I knew his name was Clarnies. He spelt it out but I don't know whether he said Clancy or Clarnies.

I ~~also~~ recognise the driver of the vehicle here in court.

~~I didn't~~ As we I told Clancy that he should slow down. and Winterton told the driver he was going too fast just about 5 or ten minutes after we came out of the second pub. We had gone approximately 6 miles. I said "you'd better slow down a little"

The girls screamed and one of them said "you've hit somebody." The driver said "fuck" then said "opens me" to the girls then he either slowed down or stopped I'm not sure which. I'm not sure whether we were stopped or not.

Cross-examination

The police took a statement from me the night of the accident. I can't remember whether he stood up or not before he got to the cars.

By the Court

I was sitting in the front seat in the centre between Winterton and the driver. The car was going over 30 m.p.h. just before the girls screamed. I think the headlights were on. I didn't see any one in front of the car. As we came around the bend it gave me the impression that it hit the curb. The girls screamed one of them said you have hit someone. The driver changed gears.

Mr Maynard and I were walking in the direction of Nutfield. We reached the west entrance of Patteson Court. All I remember is a vehicle came up behind. I heard a thud and the next thing I saw Mr May nard lying on the pavement. The vehicle was up on the footpath. I heard it go over the fence. I couldn't see what sort of vehicle it was owing to the speed of it. which I estimate to be 40 to 45 miles an hour. It failed to stop. It drove straight on. I went to Mr May nard and waited until help came.

Cross-examination

I did not see the vehicle hit Mr May nard. The pavement breaks to make way for the drive to Patteson Court. We were just stepping on to the pavement on the Nutfield side of the break. I was on the inside. We were just about level with the A.A. reflector. It was on our left. At a rough estimate the reflector is about 3'6" from the grass verge. We would not interfere with the carriageway vehicles coming from Redhill using the reflector.

By the Court

I did not have a front view of the car. It had a tail light on the ~~off~~ side from red light. The R.A.F. man and A.T.S. girl were the first to arrive at the scene ~~of the~~. I heard a definite thud. The sound of the vehicle scraping on the fence.

After we got into the car we travelled about 200 to 300 yds we were travelling between 30 and 40 m.P.H. We came to a bend just at the entrance of Patteson Court. It was a very long & woorly bend right and I think the drive leading to the entrance was a continuation of the road. It does go in that direction. The vehicle mounted the pavement. I was sitting just behind the driver. In a split second I saw two people on the path. Then we hit the fence and swerved back onto the road. I looked back and saw one of the men lying on the pavement. I told the driver to stop. I thought he was going to stop. He seemed to slow down. But he didn't and continued until we got to the Priory Cafe. We got out there. The car then continued straight on. I would not recognise the driver if I saw him again.

The Priory Gate is about 100 yards beyond the entrance to Patterson Court.

When the vehicle hit the fence I would estimate its speed at from 20 to 25 m.p.h.

By the Court

I was sitting right behind the driver on the right hand side. There were three members of the A.T.S. in the rear seat. The driver and two men were in the front seat. After we had hit the fence and got back onto the road again we all asked him to stop.

After we got out of the vehicle I went back and found the man lying in the same position as when I saw him from the car. His feet were lying over the edge of the pavement. Cpl. Jenkins went back with me. To my mind the driver seemed quite capable of driving the vehicle. They all seemed quite all right. The other two were laughing and talking but they weren't boisterous or anything like that. It was a station waggon.

R.P. § 3(b) complied with.

8th Witness

W/36624 Cpl. Jenkins, M. A.T.S. sworn, states

We had not been in the car very long before we got to the entrance of Patterson Court and I was under the impression that the driver thought the entrance was a continuation of the road because he made for it but saw his mistake and swerved quickly to the right. I did not notice that he struck the fence. I felt the car strike something just as he swerved. I saw two men on the pavement. Then I felt and saw the driver put on the brakes. I told the driver to stop that we had hit somebody. He didn't stop at all. I told the driver to stop but he did not stop. He carried on. We kept on asking him to stop but he did not until we got to the Priory when we told him we would have to get off then. We got out. L/Cpl Lafferty and I went back and found a man lying on the pavement. It was a station waggon.

No cross examination

By the Court

The injured man was lying on his back. His feet up to the calf of his legs were on the road. I was on the left side of the car but under the car. I did not see the man hit. I looked around but the car obscured my vision and I couldn't see anything. I felt only one bump. The driver did not brake. He seemed to take his foot off the throttle then put it back on again. He did not stop until he got to the Priory.

R.P. § 3(b) complied with

9th Witness

W/X 31959 Pte Chisholm, J. A.T.S. sworn, states

When we got to Patterson Court the driver turned did not appear to know the road. We didn't see the people on the footpath until we were right on top of them.

We mounted the footpath went into the fence and went straight on. I turned around and saw someone lying partly on the footpath and partly on the road. I told the driver to stop. I told him he had knocked someone over. But he drove straight on. He did not slow down after he struck the fence. I think it was a station waggon.

No Cross-examination

By the Court

I was sitting in the back seat in the centre. I had no trouble seeing out of the station waggon. I felt two bumps. He didn't actually slow down until we got to the driving gates. We grazed the fence.

RP. §3(a) complied with.

10th Witness

Police Sergeant Bowles, John Rideout # 31 Reigate Borough Division. sworn, states

On Mon 15 Nov 43 about 5.30 PM. I saw the defendant AC Clancy at a Can. M.T. establishment at Chipstead Surrey. In the presence of his C.O. Capt Hindley also present was Sgt Harrison of the Can S.I.S. I said to AC Clancy "I am making enquiries respecting an accident which occurred on the Nutfield Road Red Hill. about 10.25 PM on Thu Nov 12, 1943. in which a man walking on the near side footpath towards Nutfield was knocked down and seriously injured by a vehicle going towards Nutfield which failed to stop. It has been ascertained that the vehicle was a Can station waggon and carried two airmen and 3 A.T.S. girls were you the driver of the vehicle? He replied "yes I was" The girls said I had knocked somebody down but I didn't think I had so didn't stop." I then said to him do you care to make any statement as to what occurred. He sought advice of Capt Hindley and then said "yes I wish to make a statement. At this stage I cautioned him explaining exactly what was meant by it. I also made it plain to him that the statement was entirely voluntary. I then took down in writing at the dictation of the defendant a statement which was read over to him after which he signed

The Judge advocate explains to the defending officer his right to cross-examine the witness, and to call witnesses, misleading the accused on the issue as to whether or not the statement was voluntary.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer

Q. Did you tell the accused that it would be easier for him if he made the statement

A. Definitely not

Q. Did you hear any other person say it would be easier for him if he made a statement.

A. Mr. Col. I would like to add that I did tell the accused that if he was fit to make a statement it would be beneficial to him and to the parties in so far that both sides of the story could be ascertained.

Defending Officer

This particular statement by the sergeant is an inducement to the accused to make a statement.

Prosecuting Officer

The statement was voluntary.

The court is closed to consider the submission.

The court is re-opened.

The President announces that the statement is admissible.

The witness reads the statement which is accepted by the Court and marked Exhibit "C"

At 11.00 AM the following morning I went to the scene of the accident with Sgt Ruddell who pointed out to me various marks on the fence. One such mark consisted of a horizontal mark about 6" long made by paint of a brownish colour. This mark was 2 feet above the footpath. At 11.15 AM I went to the mil camp at Chipstead where in the presence of the accused and Capt Hindley I made an examination of Canadian Ford Military Station Waggon No CM42027 19. I found the mudguards were painted a brownish colour. On the front near side of the mudguard I found several horizontal marks where the paint had been rubbed off apparently due to the vehicle coming into contact with something hard. These marks were various heights from the ground but one was 2 feet above the ground and could have been caused by striking the fence at the scene of the accident. The accused informed me that the three ATS girls sat on the centre seat of the vehicle and that the two airmen sat on the front seat next to him, the rear seat being vacant. In view of the reference in his statement to his turning his head around to see if an accident had occurred I decided to test his view I accordingly caused three soldiers of small stature to sit on the centre seat and two more to sit on the front seat to represent the accused. I found the rear window of the vehicle to measure 4 feet wide by 11 inches high. I then sat in the driving seat and turned my head around and looked out of the rear window. I found that the only view I had was between the heads of the three persons on the centre seat. My view was very limited and I formed the opinion that as the accused is a much shorter man than myself his view would have been more limited.

XD. Cross-examination

R.P. § 3 (2) complied with.

Defence

1st Witness. B-38475 Pte Davey, W. L. sworn, states

After leaving Reddell I proceeded on the road to Nutfield. On arriving at the top of the hill I was beginning to wonder if I was on the correct road to Nutfield. After driving some distance I observed 3 A.T.S. I stopped and asked if I was on the correct road to Nutfield. They answered yes. I asked them if they were going that way. They got into the car. I started off down the road. At this time I mentioned to Cpl Cook that the moon was very bright and made the road easy. After saying this I looked up and found I was approaching a dark object in front of me so I slowed down from 30 to 20 miles an hour approximately. Coming to a break on the left hand kerb I was not sure whether the road continued to the left or swung to the right. After seeing a gate on the left side I looked over to the right and saw where the road and sidewalk continued. I then slowed down and endeavoured to swing the vehicle to the right. [illegible] 25. Upon arriving at the break in the road I looked up and saw two men walking straight ahead of me. It looked to me as though the men on the outside was walking with one foot on the main roadway and one on the driveway to the private house. By then the two people had left the glare of my headlights arriving where the curb commenced I found that it was not several yards to the centre of the road than the one I had left arriving at this point I felt the car hit the kerb and the car started to swing after the three A.T.S. in the back all started screaming and hollering at once that I had hit something. I then put my foot on the clutch and the brake taking the car out of gear and slowing the vehicle down I then looked around between the two A.T.S on the right hand side of the vehicle whose heads were turned around. I could see two people walking and my rear window so I decided the girls were just frightened of being in a swaying vehicle so I put the car into low gear and started on down the road. The vehicle did not come to a dead stop. After driving down the road a hundred yards or so I stopped and let out the three A.T.S. After they got out an Eng Unit soldier came to the car door and asked if I was going to Godstone. I replied that I was not so he closed the rear left door and I proceeded on down to the air force billets. Upon arriving at the billets I let out the fellow I knew by the name of Bell. I then drove to Cpl Rocks' billets. There I stopped the vehicle and we talked about home for several minutes - between 10 and 15 minutes. So I decided to return to camp Cpl Rocks suggested that it would be a good idea if we looked the car over to see if we had dented a fender or wheel when I presume we had hit the curb. I could not find no marks on the vehicle that I had not seen before. I then told Cpl Rocks that I would see him the following day at 10 o'clock at the W.V.S. canteen at Redhill. I then returned to camp across the shortcut from Nutfield to Merstham instead of going back via Redhill which was farther and I knew it was getting late and I wanted to get the vehicle back to the parking lot. The following day at 1 P.M. I met Cpl Rocks in the W.V.S. canteen I told him that I was still on duty that I had a 60 cwt Chev G.S. with some supplies on it to take back to camp. Cpl Rocks did not say anything to me about the questioning by the police. I was told that later by Sgt Bowles. We did not talk about the accident at all. I was sitting on a bolster when I was driving the car. The bolster is between 4 and 5 inches high. I was near the curb side of the road. There was not a red light at that corner. If there was a sign there I didn't know it was the men. When I looked over to the right I saw eight or nine cats eyes in the centre of the road. If I had noticed any new marks on the fender I would have gone back to the scene of the accident. On finding no marks on the car I was convinced that I had not hit anyone. I forgot all about it until I was questioned by the police. My answer to the police question was "That I had had a military vehicle on that road on the said night and that I had hit the curb and the girls had said that I had hit someone but I, believing in my own mind, that I did not do so I had forgot about the matter"

Cross-examination

I had the impression at the time that the vehicle had just bumped against the curb but had not mounted it to my knowledge. The two men were standing directly in line with the eyes. Driving down the road I was keeping about four feet from the curb. As soon as the break came in the curb I swung the wheel to the right. I couldn't swing it fast because there were three in the front seat. The centre seat is a partial seat. One A.T.S. was only half on the seat. I could see between the two that were on the same side of the car as I was. As regards the part of my statement where I said the amount of beer had taken effect on me. I was feeling warm. It had not affected my ability to see or think.

By the Court

When I looked back the car was on kerb road. I knew the road up to Redhill but I had not been on the road past there more than twice. I have driven in England a year.

R.P. § 3 (b) complied with.

2nd Witness Capt F. P. Pindlay, sworn states

I recognise the accused. He has been driving in the unit for 1 year and two months. He has never had an accident. He recently drove me on a long trip in a Ford Station waggon. I had no fault with the way he was driving. The seat is moveable. He was a bit taller. I was present when Sgt Bowles was questioning the accused. To the question by the police were you the driving the station waggon involved in the accident the accused replied something to the effect that he was driving a car that evening and had hit the curb but was not involved in the accident.

Cross-examination

I questioned him once about speeding.

R.P. § 3 (b) complied with.

Defending Officers closing address

On the second charge the main point is whether or not he is guilty of neglect. The defence by cross-examination has proved that he is not guilty. Apart this kerb in the road was not properly marked. The accused was a victim of the blackout accident in hitting that curb. This accident at this point could happen to anyone. Capt Appleby testified that he was going between 20 - 25 m.p.h. at that point. This illusion of speed came from the noise of the engine in second gear. The vehicle could not go from 0 to 45 m.p.h. in 200 yards. There is no evidence before the court that the injured man was any other place but on a public road. The witness Moore stated at the time of the accident he was even with the red marker. 5 seconds before then at which time the vehicle would be 60 yds from the scene would bring 16 Moore back about 3 paces which would put him directly blocking the A.A. sight. All this evidence clearly brings out contributory neglect and no neglect on the part of the driver. On the last charge this man slowed down immediately after the accident and 100 yards from the accident stopped for what must have been three or four minutes. If this man felt guilty about an accident he would not have stopped for that time so close to the accident. He looked out the back window and assured himself that he had not hit any one. Any 65 storey middle man will not be led by a lot of women He had the situation under control in his own mind.

As a man is innocent until he is proven guilty and the prosecution have failed to prove him guilty I ask the court to find him not guilty on the second and third charges.

~~The~~ Prosecuting Officers Closing Address

The evidence heard by the court fully justifies a finding of guilty on the 2 nd and 3 rd charges. There can be no doubt that the accused was driving negligently and that he knew he had struck the pedestrian and left without stopping to help.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. no summery up is required from the Judge Advocate.

Defending Officer in Mitigation

The accused has only one entry on his conduct sheet and that he tells me was once when he was ordered on a mob job.

I know this man to be a good soldier and I believe there are few men who would show up better in action. I ask the court to be lenient with him.

First witness for prosecution. } P. 48741 Sgt Carson RA.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q1 - Will you Identify the accused?
A1 - The accused is E-6233 PC David Black
Q2 - Could you tell the Court what you know about PC David with regard to the charge laid against him?
A2. On the 15th of Feb 1944 I was platoon Sgt of #16 Platoon. On the afternoon I warned my platoon that we were to go up to the front line on that same night. We were to move at 2030 hrs. PC David who was then present, told me he could not go to the front line because he was too nervous and afraid. When the time to move arrived I made a roll call and PC David was not present. I have not seen him until the following day when he told me he had reported at "D" Echelon on the 17th of Feb.

Cross-examination by Defending Officer:
Q1 - Were the men of your platoon warned that if they absented themself they were to be considered as deserters?

A1- There was no officer in the platoon at that time, and I was acting as platoon commander. My men had been warned before that if they went A.W.L. in such circumstances they were to be considered as deserters.

Q2- On that particular day, did you warn your platoon that if one man absented himself he should be considered a deserter?

A2- No, Sir, all the men had been warned to that effect a few days before.

Q3- Was the Signal present when that warning was given a few days earlier?

A3- I don't know.

(See RP 40 fns 9-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly, see RP 81.)

For Mitigation of punishment "LNC"

When you consider this case gentlemen, I would request that you pay attention to this man's age. He enlisted four yrs ago when he was just over 16. He was quite young and is still very young. The man knows that he has committed a serious crime and also knows that he must pay for it. He has had several petty offences in his unit but has never committed any serious offence until now. He is sincere in his desire to go with his unit and his crime was committed while in a depressed state of morale when he was taken off draft to that unit. The type of offences that have been committed by this youth show in my mind a great deal of boyish prank - caused by immatured feelings, easily persuated by others. Your job is to decide how to punish this chap for the offence for which he is on trial today. A long term in prison is no punishment for him. It will show him that he is being punished for a serious offence, yes but it will also prejudice him against the army and start him off on a career that will make him no good to the Army or the country. He has enlisted perhaps with a spirit of adventure, but with a decided desire to fight for his country and so gentlemen, I ask you to give him that chance to get back with his unit in order to do the job he wants to do.

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address [hands in a written address which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]~~

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. Frank Beamis, Police Sgt. 10. 4th Division Metro. Police.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I recognize the accused. I first saw the accused on 6 Jan. 13 at about 9.55 pm in this area & the second time ~~I saw him that night~~ 9 Jan. 13 at an identification parade. At 9.55 pm on 6 Jan I was on duty in Shaftesbury Av. I saw some bdy soldiers about 11 or 12 in number coming down Broadway from Northumberland Ave. towards the S.E. corner of the square. They were in line abreast & shouting - crossed traffic proceeding from Morley's Hotel across to Strand & stopped suddenly. One of the remarks passed was "your rotten country" they approached me at the S.E. corner of the square & when they had almost reached me I was almost face to face with the accused & asked them to behave themselves & be a little quieter. This L/Cpl. said "You're making yer jacking trouble. Get out of it." I came on & struck him & then he said that the others came round me & as they did so the accused punched me in the chest. I at once took hold of him & told him I was taking him into custody for using insulting behaviour & assaulting me. After I had received a number of blows from those around me. One of them got on my back & was holding me while the accused was striking me in the face. In the ensuing melee the prisoner was wrenched from my grasp. On ~~Saturday~~ Monday 7th Jan 17 in company with ~~[illegible]~~ I attended an identification parade of men of the R.C.S. about thirty-five in number & I immediately picked out L/Cpl. Liddell as the man referred to in my evidence.

The accused made no effort to surrender himself at any time between then & when I identified him at the 9th Jan 17. He was due to his own & the efforts of his friends that he was able to escape. I maintain that from the time I first saw them until they were close to me. I watched them closely all the way across, the accused was in the centre. During the struggle he and I face to face with one another.

C3

Dawe:

Cross-examined by the Defence: The last of the identification parade was probably between 4 and 6 Jan. 43. There were about six soldiers on the parade. Two sergeants and two lance-corporals probably more. The two sergeants stood at least one pace apart from me. I received a punch in the pit of the stomach from the time I took hold of him until he escaped would be about two minutes. I identified him on the parade from what I saw of him during that time. I had hold of him with both hands directly in front of me and I was backing up at the same time and I was backing to dodge several blows. There were seven soldiers on the identification parade who were in the rear. The accused was on the right of the parade in the front rank. He was not the only L/Cpl. on parade but was the first one I came to. I was looking for a face to recognize not a lance corporal. I knew that it was a L/Cpl. who had attacked me. If other witnesses say at the accused was not in the right place they are committing perjury.

Questioned by the Court:

I had one man in the dock when the trouble started. Later there were more. From the corner they started from to the point where I was standing was approximately 110 feet.

Re-examined by Defence:

Corporal Tozer arrived just at the moment the accused escaped.

First witness for the Defence – the accused D21078 F/Cpl. Liddell, D.T. No. 2 Coy. 16th Corps Sigs having been duly sworn states.

I was in London on 6 Jun. 43 with the remainder of my D.R. section to play baseball. The last game finished at 17.00 hrs. Signmn. Gerrels & myself met two girls in Hyde Park during the game we made a date to meet them at 19.00 hrs. We left the park with the rest of the team & went to Capt. Sigs garage & got washed & cleaned up. From there Signmn. Gerrels & myself with other members of our football team had supper in a restaurant. The two of us left the rest & went to Hyde Park to meet the girls we left at about 18.30 hrs. We stayed in Hyde Park until the girls outfit about 21.30 hrs. We then caught a bus & went to Victoria Sta. & the girls accompanied us we got there at 21.59 hrs. I was checking train times & asked so I saw Signmn. Conway, Sgt. Conway & Signmn. Pascfield I went to them & Gerrels & myself went through the gate & onto the train. Myself went as far as Three Bridges Sta with a girl friend & then came back to billets.

I was not the L/Cpl. the police sergeant described nor was I doing any of the things he says.

D3

Cross examined by the prosecutor:

There were about six others with me at the restaurant. There were three long tables. We left the rest of them that we were going to meet the girls. Signor. Drury & Cpl. Coons were at the next table to us. We went directly back to Hyde Park after our meal. We went by bus & reached the park about 7.00 hrs. We did not leave the park. There were about ten soldiers of that same Regt. in the park. The company got into the truck at Iron Bridges. The restaurant is about 3 minutes walk from the C.W.K. garage. I did not go through Trafalgar Sq. at all that evening.

Questioned by the Court:

At the identification parade I was in charge of Major Peck. 6 S.R. He called me out to be a marker. I don't know how many other Fly Offs were on the parade. The police officers ran to come from the back of the parade. I moved from the right in the front rank to 2nd or 3rd from left in rank. I think the parade was quite fair. We spent no money when we were with the girls & we did not go to a pub. I first heard of the charge on the truck on the way back from Iron Bridges. The first thing that was said was "I wonder if anybody got any blight" I did not see Sgt. Conway on the train. I discussed the charge with Sgt. Conway & Cpl. McKenzie next morning. This was the first time I had seen Cpl. McKenzie since we had supper in the restaurant. I had had nothing to drink neither had Cpl. McKenzie. The bus we boarded was a number 16 to Victoria Barracks. The bus was 2nd Lt. Wilson for the defence. #D 21017 Sgt. Jan. Edwards, W.R. R.A.M.C. Corps Sig. serving with a Corps Sig. Coy. with Canadian Corps.

I was in London on the 8 Jan 1943 with the company baseball team. After the game we went to the W.V.S. Garage washed up & then ate in a restaurant & went back to Hyde Park to meet two girls with whom we had made a date. We walked around for a while sat on a bench & then went to the ball-diamond. Lt. Liddell & his girl sat on a bench. We stayed there until 2330 hours & then caught a bus from Marble Arch to Victoria Station arriving there at about ten o'clock. I know this as I saw the station clock as we said goodbye to the girls at the station. Liddell did not leave me at any time.

Cross-examined by the prosecution:

We met the girls at the second game of ball. I was coaching at a base. We made a date at the finish of the game. Lt. Liddell & I left the ball park together. We went directly back to the garage. Lt. Liddell & I went alone to the restaurant we sat alone at a table. There were other members of the team there & some R.A.F. men C.W.A.C. We returned to Hyde Park directly by bus. We met them on the ball diamond. He did not pay for the meal. I did not see him do so at all. I have a watch to which I agreed to be sure to catch the train. I have had the watch for a year. At 21.30 hours I said we should go for the train.

Hpl. Riddell was some way from me I could not hear what he + his friend were saying. A Sicilian told me what time to get to Victoria. I checked the time at the station by the large station clock. I checked the departure board to see what time + from what platform the train left. I also saw Sgt. Bowery + his brother near the departure board. We got on the train immediately. There were no other sigs. personell got in my carriage. Signm. Johnson had a truck waiting + I got in the back of it. I did not see Sgt. Wal. I was never actually in Trafalgar Square that day. Hpl. Riddell did not leave me at any time.

Questioned by Jd.

Hpl. Riddell asked me to come on several occasions. Cpl. Brooks from G.H.Q. was at the table behind us at the restaurant.

3rd Witness for the defence B33100 Signm. Passfield R.L. of No. 2 Sig. Coy. Aldershot Signalling Instructor sworn + Exd.

I was in London on 30th Jan + attended a boat race. I was at Victoria station at ten o'clock that evening. I saw the accused + Signm Gerrells. At that time + they served to me. I was with Sgt. Bowery + Signm. Bowery.

Cross-examined by the prosecutor:

After the game we went to the Regent Grill garage + then to supper. After that we visited some pubs. I was not in the [redacted]

Lyon pub. I was not in Trafalgar
Sq. shelf that evening. I saw no other L.C.C. personnel that evening until train time.

Re-examined by the defence:

I got on the train 5 or 10 minutes after I had seen the accused. We left a pub at about ten minutes to ten not far from the station.

Questioned by the J.A.

We went to several pubs & drank about pint or ½ pint pints of beer.

4th Witness for the defence B331 Det. Sgt. Ivan Conway
J.192 Sq. Metr. Comp. Sup. having been duly sworn states:

I was in London on the 4th June at 3. at Leicester Sq. I went out afterwards with my wife & Sergeant Campbell. We reached Victoria Stn at about ten o'clock. I saw the accused & Sergeant Carrolls in the station at that time. They went to meet me. We left a pub about then & reached about a quarter to ten.

Cross examined by the prosecution:

I got that we left the pub at a quarter to ten in conjunction with the distance we walked to the station is what I base the time on.

D7.

Questions by the Jdg.

We went to eat after the ball game. After that we went around some parks. We had about five half pints of beer, one in each park. I first heard of Ratcliffe from off. Words on the train. I can't say whether Liddell & Gerrells were on the train or not.

5th Witness for the Defence A31863 Cpl. Mc Vanzie, A. M. No. 2 Coy Sigs. 16th Corps H.Q. having been duly sworn states:

I was in London on 4 Jan. 43 at the football game, after that we went to C.M.H.Q. Prayers & then to a restaurant to eat. We went to two parks after & came out of the last one & walked across Trafalgar Sq. There were about two hundred us. I was in front with a L/Cpl. & on the road. The lads were singing. At the other side of the square was a Police Sgt. who told us to stop singing. The Police sergeant took hold of the signaller & told him to stop singing. The lance corporal told the sergeant he didn't have to take hold of the signalmen's tunic. The L/Cpl. tried to pull the police sergeant's arm away the police sergeant then turned & held the L/Cpl pulled harder the sergeant would not let go & then the L/Cpl. hit the police sergeant. He & L/Cpl stepped back & got into the crowd. I saw the police sergeant looking on to the L/Cpl. Two soldiers were pulling on the L/Cpl. to get him away from the police sergeant & the L/Cpl got away. The accused was not [redacted] police sergeant. I did not see the accused after the policeman had told me to go home. Cross-examined by Prosecutor.

There were about seven with me when I went to eat at the restaurant. I did not see L/Cpl Riddell or Signor Gerardi in the restaurant. I did not see the accused from the time we left the hall gate until identity parade. He is in the same [illegible] as me.

Questioned by the J.A.

Signor Drury was not in the restaurant. I think that Cpl. Brooks was there. There were about 5 or six of the Yeomanry with this company. I only know one [illegible] Lance-Corporal. There were no [illegible] two L/corporals & two sergeants from M.T.R.Q. I did not see the sergeant during the scuffle. I saw more than one sergeant there. The crowd was big & the sergeant might have been there but I did not see him.

D9

I was brought the car trying to stop the trouble - I could name the lance corporal and upon or five of the ball team who were in the fracas. I did not see the sergeant after it was all over. I walked back with the lance corporal. I do not know the signm. who was with me & the lance corporal. I do know the lance-corporal & he belongs to 6. W. F. Q. Sigs. I took the 10.28 to Shaw Bridge there was one signalman with me. I was sent to H.Q. of this unit present at the scuffle & told the sergeants about it when I got back. Lieut. Smith is my section officer.

The Defence is closed.

The court calls Sergeant Conway to give evidence.

B33099 Sergt. Conway J. of No. 2 Coy. 1 Loco. Corps. Sigs. having been duly sworn states: I was in London on 6 Jan. to see a ball game. I had a meal with my parties & again. Parties at the canteen in St. Martin's in the Field. We marched at 16.45 hrs. garage before we ate. I think we left the canteen at about 19.00 hrs & went to the Grapes' a pub. in the Strand & then pop there to Piccadilly & visited about five or six. The last one was close to the station. We marched the last one at about 22.00 hrs. I left Capt. Liddell at the station & had been there only a few minutes before he came into mine. We took a bus from Piccadilly to the Victoria Stn. area. There were only Sgt. Waters & myself until the only sergeants who went to London. I did not see Cpl. McKenzie, Legion. Drove in Thy that evening.

The defending officer makes his closing address:

The prosecution must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the offence occurred & that the accused committed the offence. The only witness was Sgt. Beavis who parked him outside the Wednesday morning. I consider that Sgt. Beavis had made a mistake. He was having set upon & being struck & pulled at the time he says he saw the accused. The discrepancies of the defence witnesses are small. But the substance of their movements is corroborative in all cases. The basis for estimating the time of arrival at the station is normal. The accused was seen at Victoria Station at 2200 hrs. & the trouble started at Trafalgar Square at 2105 hrs. Lieut. McKenzie was an eye witness who saw a L/Cpl. assault a police Sgt. who was not the accused but someone else whom he knows.

Guilty

The prosecuting officer says:

The police-sergeant's evidence was steadfast in spite of gruelling cross-examination.
During cross-examinations of the defence many discrepancies appeared. It is only a few minutes by cab from Trafalgar Square to Victoria Station.

First Witness

Police Sgt 40 Frank Denis, "A" Division of Metropolitan Police having been duly sworn states.

At about 1955 hrs on 6 June 43 I was on duty at Trafalgar Square when I saw 11 or 12 Canadian soldiers crossing the roadway from Northumberland Ave towards the South East corner of the Square. They were strung out in line abreast, shouting and caused oncoming traffic from Morley's Hill to stop. Amongst the things shouted was "Your rotten country" apparently to a bus driver whose bus had been stopped. They continued over towards me & when they reached the corner I stepped in front of them & asked them as they were in uniform to behave themselves & keep a little quieter. L/Cpl Riddell thrust himself toward me & said "You're asking me for fucking trouble Come on boys smash him up". With that they all came round me and L/Cpl Riddell then half punched me in the chest. I at once caught him to him + told him that I was arresting him for using insulting behaviour + assaulting me. The others got around me and I received a rain of blows from various directions. Sigma Drury (afterwards recognized) climbed on my back with his arm around my neck. By his efforts + others I was finally forced to let go of Riddell. To-day I attended an identification parade and recognized D 21078 L/Cpl Riddell D.F.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I recognize the accused. I first saw the accused on 6 Jun 43 in this area G.G. at about 9.55 p.m. and the second time at ~~Highbury Manor~~, 8 Jun 43 at an identification parade. At 9.55 p.m. 6th June I was on duty In Trafalgar Sq. I saw some Can. soldiers about 11 or 12 in number crossing the roadway from Northumberland Ave. towards the S.E. corner of the square. They were in line abreast and shouting and caused traffic proceeding from Morley's Hill across the Strand to stop suddenly. One of the remarks passed was "Your rotten country". They approached me at the S.E. corner of the square and when they had almost reached me I was almost face to face with the accused and I asked them to behave themselves and be a little quieter. This L/Cpl said "You're asking for fucking trouble. Get out of it. Come on boys smash him up". When he said that the others came round me and as they did so the accused punched me in the chest. I at once took hold of him and told him I was taking him into custody for using insulting behaviour and assaulting me. I then received a number of blows from those around me. One of them got on my back and was holding me with his arm around my throat. In the ensuing melee the prisoner was wrenched from my grasp. On Wednesday the G.C. 9 Jun 43 in this area of Highbury Manor I attended an identification parade of men of the H.G.C.S. about thirty-five in number and I immediately picked out L/Cpl Riddell as the man referred to in my evidence.

The accused made no effort to surrender himself at anytime between then and when I identified him on the G.C. 9 Jun 43. It was due to his own and the efforts of his comrades that he was able to escape. A minute elapsed from the time I first saw them until they were close to me. I watched them closely all the way across, the accused was in the centre. During the struggle he was face to face with me. The blow was not a heavy one.

Cross-examined by the Defence: The date of the identification parade was probably the 9 Jun 43 and not 8 Jun 43. They were all in battledress. There were two sergeants amongst them and two corporals and at least one Lance/Corporal probably more. Just as he was pulled away from me I received a punch in the stomach. From the time I took hold of him until he escaped would be about two minutes. I identified him on the parade from what I saw of him during this time. I had hold of him with both arms directly in front of me and I was backing up at the same time and trying to dodge several blows. There may have been some soldiers on the identification parade who were in the fracas. The accused was on the right of the parade in the front rank. He was not the only L/Cpl on parade but was the first one I came to. I was looking for a face to recognize not a lance corporal. I knew that it was a L/Cpl. who had attacked me. If other witnesses say that the accused was not in Trafalgar Sq. that evening I would say that they were committing perjury.

Questioned by the court:

I had one man in the Square when the trouble started. Later there were more. From the corner they started from to the point where I was standing was approximately 210 feet.

Re-examined by defence:

Const. Toger arrived just at the moment the accused escaped.

First Witness for the Defence - the accused

D-21078 L/Cpl. Riddell, D.F. No. 2 Coy. 1 Cdn Corps Sigs having been duly sworn states:

I was in London on 6 Jun 43 with the members of my D.R. section to play baseball. The last game finished at 17.00 hrs. Sigmn. Carrels and myself met two girls in Hyde Park during the game we made a date to meet them at 19.00 hrs. We left the park with the rest of the team and went to R.M.C.S. sigs garage and got washed and cleaned up. From there Sigmn. Carrels and myself with other members of our ball team had supper in a restaurant. The two of us left the rest and went to Hyde Park to meet the girls we left at about 18.30 hrs. We stayed in Hyde Park with the girls until about 21.30 hrs. We then caught a bus and went to Victoria Stn. and the girls accompanied us we got there at 21.59 hrs. I was checking train times and as I did so I saw Sigmn. Conway, Sgt. Conway and Sigmn. Passfield. I waved to them and Carrells and myself went through the gate and onto the train. Sgt Ward met us at Three Bridges Stn with a truck and brought us back to billets.

I was not the L/Cpl. the police sergeant described nor was I doing any of the things he says.

Cross-examined by the prosecutor:

There were about six others with me at the restaurant. There were three at my table. We told the rest of them that we were going to meet the girls. Sigmn. Drury and Cpl. Brooks were at the next table to us. We went directly back to Hyde Park after our meal. We went by bus and reached the park about 19.00 hrs. We did not leave the park. There were about ten soldiers of this company got into the truck at Three Bridges. The restaurant is about 5 minutes walk from the C.M.H.Q. garage. I did not go through Trafalgar Sq. at all that evening.

Questioned by the J.A.

As The identification parade was in charge of Major Peck. C.S.M. Best called me out to be a marker. I don't know how many other L/Cpls. were on the parade. The police officers had to come from the back of the parade. I moved from the right in the front rank to 2nd or 3rd from left in rear rank. I think the parade was quite fair. We spent no money when we were with the girls and we did not go to a pub.

I first heard of the trouble on the truck on the way back from Three Bridges. The first thing that was said was "I wonder if everybody got away allright" I didn't see Sgt. Conway on the train. I discussed the trouble with Sgt Conway and Cpl. McKenzie next morning. This was the first time I had seen Cpl. McKenzie since we had supper in the restaurant. I had had nothing to drink neither had Garrells. The bus we travelled on was a number 16 to Victoria.

2nd Witness for the defence - # D-21077 Sigmn Garrells, W.R. No. 2 Coy. 1 Cdn Corps Sigs. having been duly sworn states:

I was in London on the 6 Jun 1943 with the company baseball team. After the game we went to C.M.H.Q. Garage washed up and the ate in a restaurant and went back to Hyde Park to meet two girls with whom we had made a date. We walked around for a while, sat on a bench. Cpl Riddell and his girl say on another near the ball diamond. We stayed there untill 2130 hours and then caught a bus from Marble Arch to Victoria Stn. arriving there at about ten oclock. I know this as I saw the station clock. We said goodbye to the girls at the station. Riddell did not leave me at any time.

Cross-examined by the prosecution:

We met the girls at the second game of ball. I was coaching at a base. We made a date at the finish of the game. L/Cpl. Riddell and I left the ball park together. We went directly back to the garage. L/Cpl. Riddell and I went alone to the restaurant we sat alone at a table. There were other members of the team there and some D.H's. from C.M.H.Q. We returned to Hyde Park directly by bus. We met them on the ball diamond. We did not pay for the bench. I did not lie on the grass at all. I have a watch to which I referred to be sure to catch the train. I have had the watch for a year. At 21.30 hours I said we should go for the train.

Cross-examined by the prosecutor:

There were about six others with me at the restaurant. There were three at my table. We told the rest of them that we were going to meet the girls. Sigmn. Drury and Cpl. Brooks were at the next table to us. We went directly back to Hyde Park after our meal. We went by bus and reached the park about 19.00 hrs. We did not leave the park. There were about ten soldiers of this company got into the truck at Three Bridges. The restaurant is about 3 minutes walk from the G.M.R.A. garage. I did not go through Trafalgar Sq. at all that evening.

Questioned by the J.A.

At The identification parade was in charge of Major Peck. C.S.M. Best called me out to be a marker. I don't know how many other L/Cpls. were on the parade. The police officers had to come from the back of the parade. I moved from the right in the front rank to 2nd or 3rd from left in rear rank. I think the parade was quite fair. We spent no money when we were with the girls and we did not go to a pub.

I first heard of the trouble on the truck on the way back from Three Bridges. The first thing that was said was "I wonder if everybody got away allright" I didn't see Sgt. Conway on the train. I discussed the trouble with Sgt Conway and Cpl. McKenzie next morning. This was the first time I had seen Cpl. McKenzie since we had supper in the restaurant. I had had nothing to drink neither had Garrells. The bus we travelled on was a number 16 to Victoria.

L/Cpl Riddell was some way from me. I could not hear what he and his girl were saying. A civilian told us what bus to get to Victoria. I checked the time at the station by the large station clock. I checked the departure board to see what time and from what platform the train left. We saw Sgt. Conway and his brother near the departure board. We got on the train immediately. There were no other sigs. personnel get in my carriage. Signn. Johnson had a truck waiting and I got in the back of it. I did not see Sgt. Ward. I was never actually in Trafalgar Square that day. L/Cpl. Riddell did not leave me at any time.

Questioned by the J.A.

L/Cpl. Riddell asked me the time on several occasions. Cpl. Brooks from C.M.H.Q. was at the table behind us at the restaurant.

Re-examined by the defence:

I got on the train 5 or 10 minutes after I had seen the accused. We left a pub at about ten minutes to ten not far from the station.

Questioned by the J.A.

We went to several pubs and drank about five or six half pints of beer.

I saw the accused and Signm Garrells in the station at that time. They waved to me. We left a pub about three blocks away about a quarter to ten.

Cross examined by the prosecution:

The fact that we left the pub at a quarter to ten in conjunction with the distance we walked to the station is what I base the time on.

We went to two pubs after and came out of the last one and walked across Trafalgar Sq. There were about twelve of us. I was in front with a L/Cpl. and an other rank. The lads were singing. At the other side of the square was a Police Sgt. who told us to stop singing. The Police sergeant took hold of the signm. and told him to stop singing. The defending officer makes his closing address.

The prosecution must prove belong a reasonable doubt that the offences occurred and that the accused committed the offences. His only witness was Sgt. Beavis who picked him out on the Wednesday morning. I consider that Sgt. Beavis had made a mistake. He was being set upon and being struck and pulled at the time he says he saw the accused. The discrepancies of the defence witnesses are small, but the substance of their movements is ---- D.C. corroborative in all cases. The basis for estimating the time of arrival at the station is normal. The accused was seen at Victoria Station at 22.00 hrs. and the trouble started at Trafalgar Square at 21.55 hrs. Cpl. Mc"enzie was an eye witness who saw a L/Cpl. assault a police Sgt. who was not the accused but someone else whom he knows.

The prosecuting officer says:

The police sergeant's evidence was steadfast in spite of gruelling cross-examination. During cross-examinations of the defence many discrepancies appeared. It is only a few minutes by cab from Trafalgar Square to Victoria Station.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. Yes, Sir. See B2 (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) (adheres) (adhere) to his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to the charge(s). Part I of the Schedule or amended proceedings.(2)
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records findings of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B5, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address (hands in a written address which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)~~

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. Major H. R. Schedl, 11 Coln Army Tank Regt.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

I am P.M.C. of the Officers Mess of the 11 Coln Army Tank Regt. I recognise the accused, who was employed in the Officers Mess as a steward for which he was paid £1.0.0 a month over and above his army pay. On 9th April 43 when the accused was left in charge of the Officers Mess as the rest of the unit was on Exercise "Spartan". The mess was not open at that time, there not being sufficient officers left in the rear party to warrant it being left open. As P.M.C. I would write letters to institutions from which liquor could be purchased authorising such firms to sell to the bearer - usually the mess corporal - liquor for the Officers Mess. These letters of authority were signed by me. Business had been done with Dags Wine Stores Ltd. Brighton. The accused had been entrusted to purchase liquor in the manner mentioned when he was mess corporal, previous to Dec. 1942. Sometime after my return to the regimental area from Spartan, Cpl. Phillips presented me with a letter written to Mr Taylor of Dags Wine Stores Ltd. I produce this document (Exhibit 93) The signature is not mine: my rank is incorrectly spelled and the handwriting is not mine.

The accused had no authority to make out duty like this one (Exhibit P1). No one was authorised to purchase liquor for the mess on or about 5 Mar 43.
I produce a statement of Days Wine Stores Ltd (Exhibit H1) and an itemized account in connection therewith.
(Exhibit I). These were given to me by Cpl. Phillips shortly after I received the authority (Exhibit P1).
To my knowledge the Officers Mess has never received the 2 bottles of Sherry and the bottle of Port referred to in the account (Exhibit I). From 5 Mar 43 until I returned from Exercise 'Spartan' the mess received no liquors from Days Wine Stores Ltd. The mess has not received from Days Wine Stores Ltd any wines since Spartan said to be the wines listed on this bill (Exhibit I). The bill has not been paid or honoured by the mess.

No cross examination.

By the Court Judge Advocate.

WBB. No arrangement has been made by the mess with Days Wine Stores Ltd. whereby the account of £ 2.15.6. against the mess has been cancelled so far as I know that firm may still have it on its books as an account receivable. I am fairly familiar with the handwriting of the accused. The word
"David" in the document (Exhibit P1) seems to me to be in his handwriting.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Second Witness for the Prosecution { Lieut. D. Mc Neish, 11 Edn Army Tank Regt.

being duly sworn states,-

I was detailed by Lt-Col. Johnston, O.C. 11 Edn Army Tank Regt to take a summary of evidence in the case of the accused subject I recognise. On or about WBB 3 Apr 43 I took cautioned the accused in accordance with R.P. 4(E) and asked him if he wished to give a statement on evidence under oath. This accused at the conclusion of taking the witnesses evidence.
The accused said he desired to give evidence under oath. He made the following statement (Exhibit J).
The typed statement was read to the accused. He approved of it and then signed it in my presence.

No cross examination.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Sworn Witness for the Prosecution } William Taylor, 61 St. George Road, Brighton.

being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

I recognise the accused. On or about 5 June 43 the accused came into Days Wine Stores Ltd., Brighton where I am employed as manager with a letter (Exhibit 3) enclosed in the attached envelope. I had heard of Maj. Schadle though I did not know him personally. The accused had been in the shop before. I considered the letter (Exhibit 3) to be genuine. I gave the accused 2 bottles of sherry and one of port in fulfillment of this order, of a total value of £ 2.15.6. I identify the bills (Exhibits H and I). I had no doubts so on my suggestion the accused accepted wine instead. The accused has not offered to pay me the £ 2.15.6.

Cross examined:

Purchases now are on a cash basis.

No re. examination.

By the Court:

The orderly room stamp is stamped on letter of authority I got from some units but not from this unit. The accused told me that although the unit was away there were a few left behind in Worthing.

By the Judge Advocate:

Other purchases made by the accused were paid for by him. Most of my previous dealings were by personal contacts with officers of the Allied Army Staff and their batmen. The account of £ 2.15.6 is on the firm's books as an account receivable. It has not been paid. If it is not paid I will have to make it good myself.

R.P. 32 (2) complied with.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution { B.610814 Cpl. Phillips G.W. 11 Coy Army Tank Regt.

Having duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

I recognise the accused. I am now steward of the Officers' Mess of the 11 Coy. Army Tank Regt. I identify the letter (Exhibit H) which I received from Days Wine Stores Ltd. I am fairly familiar with the accused's handwriting. The handwriting on this letter (Exhibit H) is similar to his handwriting. I know nothing about the account (Exhibit I). The statement (Exhibit I) was shown to me by Major Sibbald. The mess has not received the liquor skennigh on the statement (Exhibit I). Days Wine Stores Ltd. have not delivered to the mess any goods covering the statement (Exhibit H). I did not authorise the accused to purchase any liquor for the mess on or about 5 Nov. 43.

Cross examined:

Letters of authority to wine merchants are signed by members of the mess committee, only, except on one occasion when Lt. Harold signed one. The accused has frequently seen me get various Officers to sign these letters of authority or slips. Sometimes I have had them signed in advance of issuing, but only made out in my name. Denning Spartan, if there were any signed ones lying around they were made out to me.

re-examination.

By the Court:

We do not use letters of authority to purchase at Days Wine Stores Ltd. We only use them at two places and then they bear the orderly room stamp.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

The Court adjourned at 1200 hours.

D

The prosecution is closed.

The Court re-opened at 1315 hours.

Defence.

R.P. 40(A) COMPLIED WITH Instruction.

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

D 2

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

First Witness for the Defence { B.60959 Spr. David. G.G., the accused.

being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer -

When I made out the Bills of authority (Exhibit 'B') I had no ready money. I wanted the spirits but I intended to pay the bill somekind before Spartan weaved. I am aware of the system in the Officers Mess. The bills when received are double checked by the Mess corporal and a member of the Mess Committee. If a bill was paid and no spirits were received it would show up at the end of the month on stock taking. I was unable to pay this bill, because Spartan ended sooner than we expected and everyone in the rear party was C.B when it was discovered things were missing from the barracks. I told Spr. Burney one night at supper that I had an unpaid mess bill in Brighton and that I had to get in to pay it.

Cross examined:

I knew I had no authority to make out the letter (Exhibit 'B'). I had something over £1.0.0. at the time. I paid back 11/- which I owed: the rest was spent before I was C.B. The next pay day after the time I made out the letter (Exhibit 'B') was 15 Mar 43. I did not tell Spr. Burney that I had forged Major Shebbeare's name to the letter (Exhibit 'B').

No re-examination.

By the Court:

Every two weeks I got between £2.10.0 and £3.0.0. At the end of the month I got £1.0.0 from the mess. The writing on the letter (Exhibit 'B') is my own writing. The wine I procured was used for my own pleasure, that evening in Brighton.

By the Judge Advocate:

Spr. Taylor took it for granted that the sale was for the Officers Mess. I did not tell him so & that the purchase was for myself.

K.R. 453(6) complied with.

D.3.

Second Witness for the Defence. { B.61099 Spr. Kinsie J.D., 11 Can. Army Tank Regt.

being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer -

I recognize the accused. On or about 15 Mar 43 I had a conversation with the accused regarding his finances. He said he wished his wife "free" so he could go into Brighton and settle a wine bills. He said he had got some wine and wanted to pay the bill.

Cross examined:

The conversation took place on the day the rear party was confined to barracks.

No re-examination.

By the Court:

We were paid on 15 Mar 43 after 1.30 P.M. I have known the accused about a year. The accused is employed in the Officers mess. I am a batman. I have never been sent by any Officer to buy spirits.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Third Witness for the Defence { Major, H.R. Gilbert, 11 Can. Army Tank Regt.

already sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

I recognize the accused. I have known him since he came into the regiment in Sept. 1939. At until the time that this incident occurred I considered that he was a very trustworthy and honest soldier. At the same time I am of the opinion that he could be easily influenced by a person of a more dominating character. I think this incident was caused by an influence of an outside source. I.E. outside the regiment.

No cross examination.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

The Defending Officer, addressing the Court, stated that the accused had no intention of defrauding anyone when he made out and used the letter of authority. He was familiar with the accounting system in the mess. He fully intended to pay the bill. The accused did not realize the enormity of what he was doing. He did not realize it was forgery. He point out that in the letter of authority Major Ball is described not as P.M.C. of the Officers Mess but 2 i/c 11 Coy. Army Tk. Regt.

The Prosecutor, in reply, reviewed the evidence and contended that the prosecution had proved the charge against the accused.

The Judge Advocate in summing up referred the Court to para 68, MML p. 125 and that the prosecution must prove the charge against the accused beyond a reasonable doubt.

~~Sentence.~~

The Court sentence the accused ~~[illegible]~~ Sentence ~~[illegible]~~

The Defending Officer, in mitigation of sentence stated the accused has a fairly good record. It is not the record of a criminal. He joined up at the very beginning of the war. He was for a time batman to Lt. Col. Pearson - for about four months, until Col. Pearson left the unit. He was made a lance steward because he was a good reliable soldier, and except for three months, when he was Mess Corporal he has remained in that employ. The accused is not good at figures and caused to be Mess Corporal for that reason. But he still remained as Lance Steward. The present incident seems to be a sudden going wrong probably caused by outside influences. The accused having no dubies at the time was under more than usual temptation. He is not at heart a criminal. He was silly and stupid but he did not deliberately or wilfully intend to cheat anybody.

"I am Mess Cpl of the Officers' Mess and the accused was assistant our steward for which he was paid the sum of one pound (£ 1) per month. The radio in question, which I now positively identify as the one marked exhibit "A", was lent to us by Capt. Falls. It was last seen by me on the night of 28 Feb 45, the night I left with the Unit on Exercise SPARTAN. It was on the mantle over the fire place in the mess. On return on 13 Mar 45 the radio was missing. Tpr David was placed in charge of all Mess equipment while I was away on scheme. Tpr David has been my assistant since I became Mess Cpl and has been in charge in my absence.

"Tpr David J.J., whom I recognize, entered my store on the 10th March afternoon and offered the radio for sale. I can positively identify this radio. He said to me he would take what I had to offer and he told me that one valve was missing. I said under the circumstances I would offer him one pound (£1); he said he would accept it. I gave him £1-0-0 and took the radio from him. No transaction is shown in the books of my company. A Police Inspector and two M.Ps took the radio from my store 20th March."

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

th WITNESS FOR
HE PROSECUTION

William Taylor of Day's Wine Stores, Ltd., 81 St. George's Road, Brighton, having been duly sworn states:

"On or about 5 Mar 43 Tpr David brought the document marked Exhibit "D" into my store. He wanted 3 bottles of spirits, I had none so he made a purchase of two bottles of Port and one bottle of Sherry. The total price of these was £2-15-6. I charged this to Officers' Mess, 11 Cdn Army Tank Regiment, relying on the note labelled Exhibit "D" as authority. Exhibits "E" and "F" - statements of an account rendered by me to Officers' Mess, 11 Cdn Army Tank Regiment, for the above mentioned wines. Due to an error the itemized bill read two bottles of Sherry and one bottle of Port. This should be 1 bottle of Sherry and two bottles of Port. The total price is the same.
The account has not been paid or honoured.
Tpr David has been here many times shopping. Cpl Phillips had often been here with notes from Major Schell. I would not have sold the liquor if it had not been for the alleged note from Major Schell.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

William Taylor

W. Taylor,
Day's Wines Stores, Ltd.,
Brighton, Sussex.

5th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Major Herbert Robson SCHELL, 11 Cdn Army Tank Regiment, having been duly sworn states:

"I am President of the Mess Committee, Officers' Mess, 11 Cdn Army Tank Regiment. The method of purchasing liquor for the mess was for me to sign a chit requesting that all consideration be given the bearer of the note. These chits are now given to Cpl Phillips. In the past Tpr David had been authorized to purchase liquor. Tpr David was barman in the officers' Mess, for which he was paid £1-0-0 per month.
On and about 5 Mar 43 all officers who had authority to authorize the purchase of liquor were away on Exercise "Spartan". Tpr David was left in charge of the property of the Mess which was left behind in WORTHING. There were only three officers left, and I ordered that the bar be closed.
Shortly after our return from "Spartan", Cpl Phillips presented me with this note to Mr. Taylor of Days' Wine Stores, Ltd., Brighton, Sussex, in an envelope, both of which are labelled exhibit "D" and which I here produce(attached to summary as exhibit "D") It is a request that Tpr David be provided with three bottles of spirits and is presumably signed by myself. The handwriting and signature are not mine.
I produce a bill from Days' Wine Stores, Ltd., marked Exhibit "E" and an itemized account marked exhibit "F"(both attached to summary). Since Corporal Phillips became Mess Cpl., Tpr David had never had authority to purchase liquor. To my knowledge, the Officers' Mess has never received any of the liquor referred to in Exhibits "D", "E" and "F". The bill has not been paid or honoured by the mess.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

I recognize the document labelled Exhibit "D". Mr. Taylor of Days' Wine Stores Ltd., Brighton gave me that on Saturday 27 Mar 43. The handwriting is similar to Tpr David's. I gave this to Major Schell. The Mess has not received the articles purchased under this authority. During the time covered by the account in Exhibit "B", the Mess purchased no liquor from Days' Wine Stores."

"On or about 19th of Mar 43 I was detailed to conduct an investigation within 11 Cdn Army Tank Regiment involving various thefts which took place during Exercise "Spartan". As a result of inquiries made, B60959 Tpr DAVID, J.J. of 11 Cdn Army Tank Regt. was suspected of being involved. I interrogated and cautioned him. He made a statement in which he admitted removing from the Officers' Mess a battery Radio Set, and disposing of same. I recovered the radio in the store of the firm Page and Miles, Ltd., Worthing. I identify the radio as the one marked Exhibit "A". It is a Darwin Portable Radio, numbered on the inside SA 1719.

I produce the document marked exhibit "C", which is attached to this summary, which I certify is a true copy of Tpr David's original statement. The original must be kept in our files until the convening of a Court Martial, or other disposition of the case.

Opening address of the Prosecution:-

Mr. President, it will be observed that the accused is charged on thirteen different charges and he has pleaded not guilty to all but one. I do not propose to be very long but with your permission I will give you a brief outline of the case.
The first two charges relate to Petty Cash, the first one in which it is alleged that Lieut. Col. Gray gave the accused certain monies from time to time with which to pay expenditures such as stamps etc. and in the second charge it is alleged that certain monies were supplied in the same way and for the same purpose by Major LePlante now Lieut. Colonel. Evidence will be produced by the introduction of a certain document found in the cash box showing that certain sums were owing to these gentlemen and the evidence will be given on that point by Sergeant Major Moore.
Charges three to eleven pertain to the signing of a certain document. It is the custom that when other ranks receive their pay they sign a certificate to the effect that they have no debts. These certificates will be produced in evidence and they will attempt to prove that the accused signed each of these certificates when in fact he did owe certain monies.
He has pleaded guilty to the twelfth charge and therefore there is no need to mention it.
The last charge deals with borrowing money from subordinates and they will give evidence on this. It is understood by the accused that this money was borrowed by the accused and has not been repaid. In respect to the first and second charges no accounting of the funds has been made.

A.20. Yes Sir I do.
Q.21. Will you indicate him to the Court?
A.21. I recognise Staff Sergt. David as the accused.
Q.22. Did you on any occasion ever give any monies to the accused?
A.22. Yes, he was Chief Clerk in my office and I used to leave small amounts of cash with him to pay any personal accounts - things like stamps and so on.
Q.23. Do you mean personal accounts of yours?
A.23. Yes of mine.
Q.24. What would these sums amount to?
A.24. Very petty, four or five shillings.
Q.25. When you gave it to him do you know how much it would be?
A.25. Never more than five or ten shillings.
Q.26. And you gave him this from time to time?
A.26. Yes.
Q.27. To pay certain small bills?
A.27. Yes.

Q.28. Do you recall an occasion when the accused did not come into the Office?

A.28. Yes.

Q.29. Do you recall what date that was?

A.29. No I do not recall the date, I know it was Monday morning.

Q.30. On that occasion did you find any document at the office?

A.30. Yes there was a document on my desk.

Q.31. I produce to you a certain document, can you identify it?

A.31. I recognise that as the document that was on my desk on the Monday morning in question.

Q.32. Do you know in whose hand writting it is?

A.32. I would say it was Staff Sergeant David's.

Q.33. Are you familiar with his hand writing?

A.33. Yes.

(Document read by the Prosecution, Marked EXHIBIT "A")

Q.34. On the occasion that you received that document was there any money owing from this Petty Cash of yours?

A.35. No I do not.

Q.36. You did not keep any record of it?

A.36. No.

Q.37. Did you know where this Petty Cash was kept?

A.37. No, but I understand it was kept in the drawer of his desk.

Q.38. But that would be hearsay evidence?

A.38. Yes Sir.

Q.38. Can you tell us how much you thought was owing to you at that time?

A.39. The only knowledge I have of the amount is that I know I never gave him more than five or ten shillings.

Q.40. What I want to get on the record very clearly is, do you or do you not know whether there was any money owing to you at that particular time?

A.40. I would not have any idea.

Q.41. Since that day has the accused paid you any sum of money?

A.41. No.

Witness cross-examined by the Defence.

Q.42. Colonel Gray, the accused I understand was Senior Clerk in your Department and in that capacity he looked after your personal affairs, sending letters, getting tea etc.

A.45. I do not know of anything adverse in his conduct.

Q.46. Were there any instructions that the accused must keep your personal things in a particular place?

A.46. No Sir I gave no instructions.

Q.47. So you do not know where he kept the money?

A.47. No Sir, until this trouble I had no idea.

Q.48. Now Colonel, there was a box in the accused's drawer which was known as the petty cash box, that was in the drawer long with other articles and since that box was there in the accused's custody, it might be quite natural for him to carry these small sums in his pocket?

A.48. I would have raised no objection.

Q.49. And the accused has done fairly well, promoted twice and it would be fair to assume that if this trouble had not arisen he would have been in line for promotion to W.O.2.?
A.49. Yes.

Witness questioned by the Court.

Q.50. When you are referring to Petty Cash are you referring to personal cash or Government Funds?
A.50. Entirely personal, there was no Government money there, Sir.
Q.51. Was that box locked?
A.51. As I say I do not know, I did not know there was a box, it may sound a little careless but it is true.

A.58. I would never give him more than ten shillings.
Q.59. Did you ever receive from the accused an accounting as to how this money was expended?
A.59. No, I used to ask him once in a while if he had enough or if he wanted more.
Q.60. And you subsequently learned that the accused went AWL?
A.60. Yes.
Q.61. At the time that the accused went absent were you able to say whether there were any monies owing to you from these sums?

A.63. No.

Q.70. At that time then did you give him £1.0.0?
A.70. I do not remember the amount but it would be more than ten shillings.
Q.71. And I suggest that this loose arrangement was on account of your confidence in him?
A.71. Yes.
Q.72. It had nothing to do with Department affairs?
A.72. No Sir.
Q.73. Did you know that this money was kept in a box?
A.73. I have heard two or three times that it was kept in a box but I did not know, it might have been kept in his pocket.
Q.74. You have never asked him where he kept that money?
A.74. No, I cannot recall ever asking him.
Q.75. Then you agree that he might well be safeguarding your personal money and that of Col. Gray in keeping it on his person rather than in a box?
A.75. Yes.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

The witness withdraws.

Q.114. Were you asked?
A.114. No Sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

The witness withdraws.

4th. Witness Prosecution. Lieut. J.A. Handley, 11th. Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C. having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecution:

Q.115. Will you give your full name, rank and Unit to the Court please?
A.115. Lieutenant, John Albert Handley, 11th. Canadian Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C.
Q.116. Were you formerly Stationed in London?
A.116. Yes Sir.
Q.117. And attached where?
A.117. D.M.S. Branch.
Q.118. Do you know the accused Staff Sergeant David?
A.118. I do Sir.

Pros: Mr. President, I should point out that this witness was not at the Summary of Evidence and notice should have been given to the Defence.

Def: I have no objection Sir.

Q.119. I am producing to you certain documents Exhibits C.1. to C.12 for identification do you recognise the signature at the bottom?
A.119. That is my signature, on No.1,2,3,4,5,8, and 11.
Q.120. Then your answer is that you identify all documents with the exception of No.6,7,9,10 and 12?
A.120. Yes Sir the remainder are my signature.

Witness cross-examined by the Defence.

Q.121. Were you present at the time of the alleged signing of these documents?
A.121. I was.
Q.122. Did you see the accused sign these Debt Certificates?
A.122. I would not like to make that statement Sir but I was on duty at the time of the Pay Parades and I stood by the Paymaster and the men signed the certificate at the end of the counter and any time that my signature appears on that sheet I was present, but for me to say that I saw any individual sign it would not be correct.

Pres: Q.123. Well then these certificates are not correct?
A.123. Well I have witnessed those signatures but I cannot say that I saw each and every individual sign it.

Pros: Q.124. Would it be that you cannot recall each man that signed?
A.124. Yes.

(B)

Def: Q.125. Would it be right to say that some of the personnel are not always there at the signing of the Debt Certificate, there have been occasions when certain men are paid at subsequent times at C.M.H.Q. and are paid when you are not present and these certificates are then returned and you sign them?

A.125. No Sir, any personnel that are not on that Pay Parade, if there are no signatures on that list it is their responsibility not mine.

Q.126. Therefore you were not present when any personnel were paid at C.M.H.Q.

A.126. No, I witnessed the signatures of the personnel of the Medical Branch that were on Pay Parade.

Q.127. And therefore the accused might not have been paid on that parade on occasions?

A.127. Yes Sir, if they were there I have witnessed their signatures if they were not there I did not. It is obvious, you may have forty men and some of them may be on leave and if they are not there, it is the responsibility of the Paymaster.

Q.128. We are concerned with the Debt Certificate not the Pay Rolls, and there have been occasions when men have not signed it and it has been returned to be completed.

A.128. There may have been men who were not on the Pay Parade, for instance, if they call the Pay Parade for Eleven o'clock and the men were not there and they went over to C.M.H.Q. at Twelve o'clock to be paid, now if they at C.M.H.Q. allowed those men to sign over my signature it is not my responsibility, if they are not on the regular Pay Parade.

Pres: What you mean to say is that a blank would be left on the certificate and subsequently they would sign it when Mr. Handley was not present?

Def: That is right Sir.

Pres: Q.129. Just to clarify that, on these certificates, would it be possible that where the signature of the accused appears it had not been witnessed by you?

Wit. A.129. It would be possible, yes, it would be possible for David to be absent from the Pay Parade and later to be paid at C.M.H.Q. and sign that document later.

Pres: Q.130. It would be possible for blanks to be left on that certificate?

A.130. Yes Sir is has happened.

Q.131. Do you know David's signature?

A.131. Yes Sir I do.

Q.132. Will you look over these certificates and see if you are able to identify the signature of the accused?

A.132. (Certificates examined by the witness) They appear to be David's signature Sir.

Q.133. On each and every one of those certificates?

A.133. Yes Sir.

Def: Q.134. Since you have just examined those documents are you now prepared to swear that it is the accused's signature?

A.134. They appear to be Sir and that is based on knowing it for sometime past, but I would not swear to it.

Q.135. And you are no handwriting expert?

A.135. No Sir.

Q.136. Inasmuch as you say that you are no handwriting expert and the accused is in a different position when he signs that document, you cannot definitely say that he signed it? that is in your presence?

A.136. I cannot say that.

Q.137. And when the personnel sign that document you are some ten or twelve feet from the end of the table?

A.137. Yes Sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B). The witness withdraws.

Q.145. That was his private lodging?
A.145. Yes.

A.146. Eight pounds altogether.
Q.147. Do you recall how that was paid Mrs. Meakin.
A.147. The first fortnight he paid me £3.15.0 and then £3.0.0 in August and then I asked him to get me some theatre tickets, he paid for them himself and they came to £1.5.0.
Q.148. So that he paid you £8.0.0 altogether?
A.148. Yes.
Q.149. Do you know how much money he owed you when he left?
A.149. I have only got it roughly I loaned him thirty shillings, £42.7.0 including the 30/-.
Q.150. That is over and above the £8.0.0?
A.150. Yes.

Q.151. So that he owed you some /42.0.0? that is for Board and Lodging?
A.151. Yes.
Q.152. Was there any other money?
A.152. My brother lent him £10.0.0, and the day came to pay it back and it was not paid. My brother wanted it to pay his Income Tax, and I had to pay it, and I wrote to the Colonel about it.
Q.153. Has any of that money been paid back by Staff Sergeant David?
A.153. No Sir.
Q.154. So that the full amount is owing?
A.154. Yes Sir.

Witness cross-examined by the Defence.

Q.155. Mrs. Meakin, David was a friend of your two sons in the Royal Navy?
A.155. Yes Sir.
Q.156. He was taken into your Home as a friend?
A.156. Yes.
Q.157. So that he was taken in as one of the family?
A.157. Oh no Sir.
Q.158. Your two sons knew him and you let him have the room and board for £1.17.6?
A.158. Yes.
Q.159. And he paid you £6.15.0?
A.159. Yes.
Q.160. To August?
A.160. Yes.

Q.161. And then he paid £1.5.0 for you for theatre tickets?
A.161. Yes, I offered him the money and he refused it, he said take it from my account and I did.
Q.162. Prior to that he did not know that you were going to take it from his account?
A.162. Yes Sir.
Q.163. Then later you wrote to him and advised him that he should not run up debts?
A.163. Yes Sir.
Q.164. And then one day David found a note in his hat?
A.164. I never had the chance to speak to him privately, my husband and family did not know that he owed me the money, I could not get a chance to speak to him alone.
Q.165. Surely there was some chance to speak to him?
A.165. No there was not if he did not come in until late, it is a boarding house, and I had no opportunity of speaking to him alone. If he knew I was going to speak to him he would not come home.
Q.166. Well it seems strange to me that a man could stay at your place for some months and yet you cannot speak to him?
A.166. Oh yes I have spoken to him, but I thought I was helping him because he said he wanted to send money to Canada.
Q.167. Anddid it not occur to you to tell him that he had to pay, will we say give him three months to pay?
A.167. I did, I asked him from time to time.
Q.168. Then you must agree it was a very poor policy?
A.168. Yes Sir I know now it was.

Pres: This is not very clear to me, there seems to be some confusion about this money?
Pros: Mrs. Meakin says that the accused went there about the middle of June 1942 and paid her £3.15.0 about the end of June 1942 and he paid her £3.0.0 in August and then he paid £1.5.0 for theatre tickets for her.
Pres. Q.169. When was that Mrs. Meakin?
A.169. Sometime in October.
Q.170. So that by the end of July he owed you the entire month of July?
A.170. Yes Sir and in the meantime I lent him ten shillings.
Q.171. At any time after the end of July would he be free of debt to you?
A.171. No Sir, that is all he paid me.

Q.234. You I believe came over with the 15th. Canadian General Hospital?

A.234. Yes.

Q.235. And Staff Sergeant David came over with the same Unit?

A.235. Yes.

Q.236. Would you please Sir tell the Court what you know of the accused?

A.236. Sir, I first met Staff Sergeant David in the Fall of 1939 when I was enlistment Officer. I knew him more intimately when he was with the 15th. General Hospital under Colonel Urquhart. I was Medical Officer and I was in daily contact with him until May 1941. He was given the rank of Corporal and selected for special duties which I understand he carried out very well. From May 1941 until June 1942 I did not see him much but since that time we have been in the British Columbia house and in all the time I have known him he has been most reliable and trustworthy, and I was very surprised to hear that he was on charge at all.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B).

2nd. Witness Defence. Character.

Lieut. Colonel. R.C. Montgomery, R.C.A.M.C. having been duly sworn is examined by the Defence.

Q.237. I believe Colonel that you came over with the 15th. General Hospital?

A.237. That is right.

Q.238. And you were at the 15th. General Hospital prior to being transferred to No.1. Neurological Hospital?

A.238. Yes.

Q.239. While you were at the 15th. General Hospital you had an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the accused?

A.239. Yes.

Q.240. Will you tell the Court what you know as to the character of the accused?

A.240. I was with the 15th. General Hospital in Toronto

A.240. Staff Sergeant David enlisted very early I do not remember much of him there, he became a clerk at that time and went right through. We opened the hospital at Bramshott on the 1st. of July 1940 and he stayed there a little over a year and during that time he was promoted to Corporal he did his work with initiative and did very well. He was not the type of lad that did his work in spurts and he was a very useful lad to have around and it was not my idea that he should transfer to Headquarters, I would have kept him. So far as I know I never had him before me at all, he was a very useful lad.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

The witness withdraws.

3rd.Witness Defence. Characher.

Lieut. Colonel R. Dickson, R.C.A.M.C. having been duly sworn is examined bythe Defence:-

Q.241. Colonel Dickson do you recognise the accused?
A.241. Yes.
Q.242. I believe you have known the accused for some time, you know the family and you knew him while you were at the Hospital?
A.242. Yes.
Q.243. And while you were at the 15th. General Hospital did you find his Services satisfactory?
A.243. Very satisfactory.
Q.244. Will you tell us what you know about his general character?
A.244. I have known the accused quite well since the formation of the 15th. General Hospital in 1939 and I knew him better after the formation of the 16th. General Hospital at Bramshott. Early on he had work to do with the Medical Boards and during that time he did a very good job, conscientious, willing and did not mind working late hours and we all very much regretted his transfer from the Unit.
Q.245. He left the Unit of his own free will?
A.245. Yes.
Q.246. And you were at all times struck with the manner in which he conducted his duties?
A.246. Yes.
Q.247. Anything further?
A.247. Nothing, except that while he was with the 15th. General hospital his character was always exemplary he was a very good influence to have around.

Closing address of the Defence.

Mr. President, you have heard the evidence on these charges and I should like, first of all to make a few remarks relating to the 1st. and 2nd. charges, Fraudulently misapplying propert belonging to a person subject to Military Law, these charges in part state, "Applied the sums of 6/6½ and 4/- to his own use with intent to defraud". Now if you analyse the phrase, "intent to defraud" fully I do not think from the evidence in this case, that intention to defraud has been proved by the Prosecution. It must be agreed that the accused did not fraudulently misapply that money, it was merely safeguarding the funds of his Superior Officers, they trusted him and they say that they had no objection to his carrying that money around in his poeket and therefore I move that the charges one and two laid under Section 18(4) be dismissed as no prima facie case has been established by the Prosecution.

We will now consider charges 3 to eleven the wording of the charge is as follows:- In a Certificate signed by him knowingly making a false statement", Gentlemen, the act of making nine separate charges out of one act might well be challenged by any legal mind in the country, it has been done in order to make a drab looking picture against the accused, and I know the Court will not be hypnotised by the fact that the thirteen charges might well be put into one.
We next move to the A.W.L. charge to which the accused has pleaded guilty and all I can say regarding this is that the accused has been under a great mental strain even on the verge of Anxiety Neurosis, for some months, he had been pondering over his difficulties and attempting to solve his financial difficulties, trying to be a breadwinner to his Mother and Sister pooling funds with his brother. This was too much for him and he was mentally fatigued and it was necessary for him that he went A.W.L. fully realizing the seriousness as shown by the letter which he left to Colonel Gray, he clearly realized that he was committing an offense before going A.W.L. and this letter clearly shows the state of mind of the accused and shows the obvious need of a change of environment to change his equilibrium, and he came back of his own free will.
Now with reference to charge thirteen, the wording of the charge is correct but it gives a very wrong impression of the circumstances. The accused was a personal friend of both Sergeant Kiefer and Private Prince and I suggest there is found a spirit-de-corps in the Medical Corps, and especially in the D.M.S. branch, there is close relationship in the staff both in their duties and socially, and with David, Kiefer and Primes it was even more so, they dined together and spent their time together and if one of them was in need of a little money they lent it to one another it was lent as friend to friend and the last thought in their mind would be rank.

Closing address of the Prosecution.

Mr. President, I have just a few observations to make, the first is regarding the nine charges which the defence says should be grouped as one. It was not the intention to make the picture look black but that it is the only way it can be done, each one is a separate and distinct act. I point that out because there was no alternative. Now with regard to the first and second charges. Now the Defence is right when he says that there must be intention, the absence of intention is to show that he is not guilty. The intention is the circumstances surrounding the particular act, the intention to what is formed in his own mind. You have a situation here that Petty Cash was advanced by Colonel Gray for the purpose of making small purchases. From their personal point of view it was not very significant. I do not think these two charges are really bad it is just prejudical to Military Discipline the charges came to light and they had to be laid. You have before you the slip of paper showing figures indicating that he owes so much and so on, you have the whole transaction before you, and it is not a great sum of money, but the money was not there at the time and he could not pay it. That money was entrusted to him and it has not been paid since and the Court will have to take all that into consideration. I do not want to be unfair to the accused I am only trying to enable you to come to the conclusion as to whether or not their was the intention, and in coming to that conclusion one must have regard for his ability to pay and whether he intended to return that money. Could it be paid? and if there is any doubt about it the accused should have the benefit of that doubt. The other charges as suggested can be grouped, if the accused did sign these certificates to say that he had no debts, it is for you to decide from the evidence as to whether he did in fact have debts. The evidence is quite clear. It was wrong and he knew it was wrong and he knew he had certified that he did not owe any money. You have the evidence of Mrs. Meaking that he paid the first two weeks and from that time he owed her money and had no ability to pay her. The signing of that certificate is laid down as a military rule it is done as a matter of policy, it is a good thing that it is done, it was within the sphere of Military ruling to make it and if broken it becomes an offence and the accused knew all this. The accused has pleaded guilty on the Charge of A.W.L. and therefore I have no need to say anything about it. As far as the 13th. charge is concerned, borrowing from two other soldiers it is true that there is a spirit-de-Corps, a desire to help one another, it is rather nice that it does exist but it is a breach of discipline, it is a law and that law is that an N.C.O. should not borrow from his subordinates and it is within the confines of that law that he must not borrow money from subordinates. Now the accused has brought before this Court witnesses as to character, it has been splendid and you will have to take that into consideration and I have no comments on that I made no attempt by cross-examination or by calling witnesses to the contrary and you have to accept it as such. You will have to deliberate as to the finding and the evidence on all the charges is before you and I think there is evidence that the accused is guilty. If there is anything I can do to assist you I will be only too pleased.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court is re-opened, and the accused is brought before the Court.

Q.248. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of Service of the accused?

Capt. W.G. Elder, Prosecuting Officer is duly sworn.

A.248. I produce A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M.6 relating to the accused.

The above statement (with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with) is read, marked "P", signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q.249. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?

A.249. Yes Sir.

Address by the Defending Officer in mitigation of punishment.

Mr. President and members of the Court, I wish to make a few remarks relating to this case in mitigation of punishment. Staff Sergeant David enlisted on the 8th. of September 1939, on the 5th. day subsequent to the declaration of war. He had a position in Toronto from which he resigned to enlist. He left a modest home in which he lived with his mother, and a sister who at 36 years of age cannot walk without assistance and of which home he and his brother are the only support. You have heard the avidence as to his character. Six months after coming to this country he was a corporal, and as you have heard, if it had not been for these difficulties he would have been a W.O.2. In spite of this rapid rise, never forgetting his obligations to his mother and sister he assigned $25.00 per month for about eleven months, he received promotion and his first thought was home and he increased his assignment to $35.00 per month and that was for 14 months and then he increased his assighment again to $49.00 per month and that is about $1400.00 that the accused has sent home and you must agree that this is no mean sum. He was transfered to his prrsent branch in 1941 and he became Chief Clerk in this Branch and the next thing was that he received word that his mother was seriously ill with cancer, in spite of this he carried on. We have evidence that his Chief Clerk knew that he was carrying on under a terrific mental strain and he became exhausted and as I said before was on the verge of anxiety neurosis and there was only one way out, to have a rest and then return, and as he stated to Colonel Gray he intended to return and take his punishment. As we look at that letter we can see it is no ordinary case of A.W.L. He went to his relatives in the country and the change in environment certainly resulted in him regaining his composure, and, having taken hold of himself, he returned to London with two things in his mind first to make a clean breast of his immediate past and to make restitution. He had a true friend in London who drew £75.0.0 from the bank and said to him here go and pay your debts and we can talk afterwards. The mere fact that this friend would draw that amount of money from the bank is a sign of the esteem in which the accused was held. These obligations would all have been paid had it not been for the intervention of the Camp Commandant who felt that he should intervene and it was decided that these debts should be left in obeyance and Mrs. Meakin with whom the accused had had his home ultimately agreed that the arrangement was the better plan. When this arrangement was first being made to pay this money in Miss Whitehead's office and the plans changed he asked her to call the Provost and gave himself up. This man was not picked up by the police he gave himself up. Immediately the accused was taken into custody it was his desire to make a clean breast of it and he told everything he knew, and goodness knows he really told everything. He had been in custody four days when he volunteered to help the Provost Company, and it was agreed that in view of his past he should be allowed to work at certain duties and he has worked under the Assistant D.P.M. for the past 31 days. I ask you gentlemen to take a fair view of this case for while this man is being punished so are others of his family, his mother and sister who are invalids, and his brother who is in the Forces and I make an earnest plea for a lenient sentence.

Pros. F.G.C.M.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the Sentence.

The contents of this note disturbs me very much. Of late it has affected me and my efficiency very much.

I have not been a success in any way since I came to London and especially I have failed to keep above water financially.

Details re this can be had from Lieut Handley and also from Mrs R. Meakin, 117 Fellows Road Primrose 5217.

Before I face up I

2 have feel that I must a few days rest, although I fully realise this is an additional charge.
as I am going to go away and will report to you personally on my return.

I give you my word of honour I will return

I am extremely sorry to have ended all chances of making a successful life in this manner but after I pay just punishment I will try to really make a worthwhile citizen

Officer Detailed to take
Summary of Evidence.

You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say will be taken down in writing, & may be given in evidence. I have been warned by Det. Sgt. H. of the Special Investigation Section, & I fully understand the warning. (Sd) J.

I met my land lady her husband & two children, Mr & Mrs, about the first week in June 42. About the middle of June I discussed with her the question of rents, & she gave me to understand she had a room with board cheaper than I was already paying. I moved to her house & boarded there at £7/6 a week including bed, room & attendance & week. After two weeks I paid her husband £3. 15. 0. Then the end of Aug 42 I paid £3. 0. 0. on my bill. In the first week in Sept 42 I bought five theatre seats for her husband at 5/- each. This she deducted from my board bill. I believe that is all I paid for. I forgot I gave her a pound, in the neighborhood of £50. 0. 0. I left her belongings in the house when I went to A.W.L. sometime in Aug 42. I borrowed £10 from her.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of B-93585 S/Sgt. Lloyd David, R.C.A.M.C., attached to Canadian Military Headquarters, Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of evidence is taken on Oath.

Witness No. 1 Prosecution

Lieut.-Col. K.G. Gray, R.C.A.M.C. (A.M.D.1) having been duly sworn states:

The accused, S/Sgt. David, L., was the senior clerk in my office. I gave him from time to time sums of money - five to ten shillings at a time from which to pay out monies on my behalf. These were for personal expenditures such as stamps for personal letters and small sums of that kind.
On the day that S/Sgt. David was reported as being A.W.L. it was reported to me that this petty cash was missing, it being kept in a box in his desk.
The balance of the cash belonging to me I estimated to be about six or seven shillings.
On the morning that the accused was absent this document (marked exhibit "A") was on my desk. I recognised it to be in the handwriting of the accused which is familiar to me.

K.G. Gray Lt Col

The accused declined to question the evidence.

Witness No. 2 Prosecution

Major J. Paul LaPlante, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn states:
The accused - S/Sgt. David, L., was the senior N.C.O. in the office of the A.M.D. (1).
I have been in the habit of giving him small sums of money to cover petty personal expenses such as stamps, cables, etc. This sum never exceeded ten shillings at any time.
When I was advised that the accused was A.W.L. Sgt. Major Moore informed me that this money above described was missing from the box which was in the desk of the accused.
I estimate that the amount of cash belonging to me would be about four shillings.
The note marked exhibit "B" was in the box and this shows that a balance of four shillings was due to me.

Paul LaPlante Lt Col

The accused declined to question the evidence.

Witness No. 3 Prosecution

B-30312 A/CSM Moore, E.C.K., R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn: states:

At 0900 hours 4 Jan 43, B-93585 S/Sgt. David, L., did not report for duty.
When Lieut.-Col. Gray arrived, I reported the absence of S/Sgt. David. I then reported this matter to the Camp Commandant.
I immediately made enquiries at the residence of S/Sgt. David but he was not there. He did not report for duty on any of the following days. I did not see S/Sgt. David again until this morning, 21 Jan 43.
In the box in which S/Sgt. David kept his petty cash, I found a slip of paper (marked Exhibit "B") in the handwriting of S/Sgt. David. I recognised the handwriting of S/Sgt. David with which I am familiar. There was no money in the box.
Exhibit "B" is an account of the petty cash received by S/Sgt. David and shows a balance due to Lieut.-Col. Gray of 6/6½ and a balance due to Major LaPlante of 4/-. This balance - totalling 10/6½ was not in the box and was not accounted for. I recognise the signatures on the payrolls as being in S/Sgt. David's handwriting.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Sir;- In looking over this case I find Gnr. David is a very young man, a little over 21 years of age. His M.F.B. 355, a statement of character, shows that he has only had three charges in almost three years military service. These three charges are all for short periods of A.W.L. It seems that Gnr. David is not a hardened criminal, and that fact might be brought out by his conduct on these charges of theft. He did not make any attempt to get rid of the booty in any way that a criminal might, instead most of it was found on him. In view of the fact I might ask the Court to take into consideration when passing sentence that Gnr. David be given a full chance to make his life afterwards something to be proud of. Anything that the Army might do to help that would be well done in this case.

I was called on a few moments ago for a statement of character. Unfortunately as far as Gnr. David is concerned he has only been with this Regiment a very short time, and therefore we will have to rely on this statement as given on M.F.B. 355.

THE C.O. HAS DIRECTED THAT THE EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH.

FIRST WITNESS B-17527 R.S.M. McCowan, D., 2nd Canadian Medium Regiment, R.C.A., having been duly sworn states:-

I am the Regimental Sergeant-Major of the 2nd Canadian Medium Regiment, R.C.A., and in this capacity I searched C-10614 Gnr. David, L. on 8 April 1943 at R.H.Q. In the presence of Gnr. Hudson A.W., Gnr. Hopson F.R., and Gnr. Daly R.R. I found in his pocket a bent farthing which was identified by Gnr. Hudson as belonging to him. I found a green fountain pen which was identified by Gnr. Hopson and also a alligator shaped brooch which Gnr. Daly identified as belonging to him. Gnr.Hudson said the bent farthing was his and was stolen with fifty-five cents canadian money from his pocket. The Accused stated "I have had that a long time, I had some Canadian money too, but I gave it to a girl on the bus." When Gnr. Hopson identified the fountain pen as his, the Accused replied "I found it on the floor yesterday when I was sweeping up along with a lighter, I gave you back the lighter but forgot to give you back the fountain pen." When Gnr. Daly identified the brooch as his, the Accused replied "I got it from a girl in Croydon." Searching further I found in the Accused's pocket a letter addressed to Gnr. Perry. I asked him about it and he replied "This is Gnr. Perry's tunic I am wearing. He gave me permission to wear it while he was on leave.

I placed him under arrest and had him removed to the guardhouse. I then searched his truck and then found 250 "Sweet Caporal" cigarettes in the side curtain pocket. On the morning of 9 April 1943, from the propietor of the Bell Hotel in Godstone, I received a gold wrist watch which Gnr. Daly identified as his and from Gnr. Hopson a pair of new black oxford shoes. At 1400 hours 9 April 43, the Accused was paraded before me in the C.O's office. I cautioned him "You are charged with theft, you need not say anything in answer to the charge but anything yo do say will be used in evidence." The shoes were on the desk in front of me and I told the Accused that they were stolen from No.2 C.A.R.U. He replied "Yes, I stole the shoes." I showed him Gnr. Daly's wrist watch and he stated "Yes, I stole the wrist watch and the brooch." I asked him if he knew anything about Gnr. Adams' wallet which had been stolen from the room and he replied "I stole the wallet and sold it to a chap in the 25th Battery, I don't know his name." I asked him about the cigarettes that I found in his truck and he replied "I did not steal the cigarettes, I get lots from Canada."

D. McCowan

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

SECOND WITNESS D-14553 Gnr. Hopson, F.R., R.H.Q., 2 Canadian Medium Regiment, R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ..... (5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). CASE OF

C.10614 Gnr DAVID, L 2 CARU

PROSECUTOR:

The Def Offr has told me that he is ready to admit that the accused was in lawful custody when he escaped.

DEF OFFR:

The Defence is prepared to admit that the accused was in lawful custody at 2~~000~~ hr on 19 Mar 45, because he did not wish the court to know why the accused was in custody. "R"

PROSECUTOR:

As to the 2nd charge the fact of the absence can be proven but the exact date of apprehension cannot be proven as we did not feel it worth while to bring the civil police from London.

As to the third charge I will call witnesses.

As to the fourth charge I have not the evidence to support it as we did not feel it worth while to bring the civil police here.

THE DEF OFFR MADE A SUBMISSION WITH RESPECT TO THE FOURTH CHARGE THAT AS THE PROSECUTION WAS CALLING NO EVIDENCE THE FOURTH CHARGE SHOULD BE DISMISSED.

THE PROSECUTOR DID NOT REPLY.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION.

THE COURT REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT STATED THAT THE SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR WAS ALLOWED ON THE FOURTH CHARGE AND ACCORDINGLY THE FOURTH CHARGE WAS DISMISSED.

Q. I have here a set of battledress?
A. It is mine, I recognize the trousers by their being shortened from 32" to 30", and the tunic by the Can badges which I sewed on myself and the box bag which was in it. There is also an eyelet on the tunic to fasten on to the hook in my trousers. This battledress is mine.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR

The Defence submits that the 2nd charge should be dismissed because the prosecution has failed to make a prima facie case in that they have not proven the exact times of the supposed absence.

REPLY BY THE PROSECUTOR TO DEF OFFR'S SUBMISSION

I submit that the charge is proven in that Bdr Gosling who was the accused's escort at the time said that at2005 hrs the accused broke away and we have proof by Cpl Lynk that he was in London on the 24 Mar in the morning. As to the termination we have in evidence a certificate made out in the name of Pte Potts, and the accused admitted to the Cpl that he had given this name to the civil police. Apart from that I have no other evidence but I submit that the charge has been proven.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR IS DISSALLOWED.

- D E F E N C E -

FIRST WITNESS

The accused made the following statement not under oath:

Sir, I'm engaged to Miss Clare Canty whom I met in Jul 44 and since then we have written many letters to each other. I want to marry her and she wants to marry me, but for some reason the Col won't sign the application which I have submitted. On 19 Mar 45 I was in custody unable to see her and she had written and told me she was in hospital pregnant. She has been in and out of hosp for the past 6 mos or more. I was very anxious to see her on 19 Mar because of her condition.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)
THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

The first charge has been proven without a doubt, and on the second charge I have covered mostly in my submission. On the third charge a witness has given evidence and he is a person subject to military law and he has shown that Exhibit 2 is his battledress. Another witness says that it is the battledress that was on the accused at the time he was taken into the Gd room.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFR ON THE FINDING

Two witnesses have been called by the Prosecution and have made certain statements with regards to dates and places which disagree with what the accused has told me privately.

The accused was considerably worried about the condition of fiancee and he wanted to see her, and I'm sure we can all understand how he must have felt about her while in dtn and receiving letters from her caused the desire to go and see her. I have here the correspondence between the accused and Miss Canty, which I will tender to the Court as an Exhibit, but before doing so I would like to read just a few of her letters to him. (DEF OFFR READS ALOUD THREE LETTERS).

LETTERS MARKED EXHIBIT 5.

I submit that the accused was not in his right mind at the time and cannot be held responsible for his actions that took place on 19 Mar. Further to the letters I have here a PSO report from 2 CANU, and a report from the psychiatrist at 22 CGH on the accused, and which I will tender to the court.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

The report of the psychiatrist shows the accused to be of no use to the Army, and I say that being of no use to the Army it would be better if he were automatically discharged from custody and sent to No 1 Dis Repat Depot and sent home, as there would be no point in keeping him in detn. He is presently serving 2 yrs dtn and I understand that this court could not impose a higher sentence than that which he is already serving. I think that is about all I have to say in mitigation, Sir.

"R"

I acknowledge receipt of Exhibit 2 which I agree to hold and hand to the Adjt until further orders.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

PLEA OF MITIGATION.

C-10614 Gnr DAVID, Lomer, 2 CARU.

Sir,

Lomer David was born on 20th Nov 1922 in Hull PQ., of French Canadian parentage, son of a contractor.

He attended a French school in Ottawa and completed Grade eight. Upon leaving school at the age of fourteen, he worked with his father, then as a tinsmith and as a driver for his uncle, who is a contractor.

David earned as much as $1.10 per hour on this last job.

At 18 years of age, Lomer David enlisted in the Canadian Army (active) at Ottawa on 6 August 1941., served one year in Canada at Ottawa, Peterborough and Petawawa, here he was employed as a driver, and he now speaks good English, and is unaccustomed to using his mother tongue.

He proceeded to the UK in Sept 1942 to 2 CARU, where he was trained as a medium gunner and later was employed as instructor - driver i/c.

Gunner David has been charged with being AWL and of petty larceny on several occasions.

His first twenty months service have been blemished only by two charges of AWL, 7 days and 1 day respectively, and thirdly by absence from duty for four hours. He has never been directly charged with drunkenness.

From April 43, his record made a great change. In civil life he had been accustomed to an appreciable amount of pay and spending money.

In the army overseas, being short of money and obsessed by a desire to show that he could treat his friends, (to use his own words) he weakened.

These desires became overbearing and under the influence of liquor, this weakness of character overcame his better judgement and he began committing acts of petty larceny, pens, watches, cigarettes, and other articles which he usually sold. On sobering up he was afraid of being found out had he returned any articles.

His drinking became heavier, as he says, and these offences continued.

In my mind these offences are the result of a kleptomania and a desire for possession, heightened by the influence of alcohol although I have no proof of this last factor.

Whilst awaiting FGCM on these charges (of April 1943). Gunner David became obsessed with a fear of trial and a long sentence, it played on his mind to such an extent that he escaped confinement on two occasions. In the first instance he reported back to his unit on his own. The second time he broke confinement, he was afraid of coming back.

By FGCM, he was awarded 18 months detention on 26th July 1943, of which he was remitted a total of 9 months for good behavior, being released 30th Apr 44.

On the 18th of August, 1944, Gunner David borrowed a bicycle from a RP at 2 CARU (then Superior Camp) and went to Godalming with no intention of going AWL. He met friends, was drinking and decided to go AWL. Weakening, again, he sold the bicycle.

Even though this soldier had served a sentence of these offences, he began committing acts of larceny, for which he was convicted in a civil court and sentenced to 6 months imprisonment of which 2 months were remitted.

On the day of this trial (4 Sept 44) Gunner David of his own free will made the statement (exhibit "C") pertaining to additional larceny, with which he had never been accused or charged.

He expressed a desire to have this statement of his admissions taken in consideration in Civil Court. And he understood at the time of sentence that they were being considered, even though they were not read in court. (Reference Summary of Evidence, 2nd witness).

Gunner David is now being tried for these larcenies admitted by himself.

This soldier wished to have these offences cleared up and to cease altogether any further misconduct. He decided this when he awaited his civil trial and made his statement of guilt of his own free will. He has again expressed the same desire to me, his defending officer.

Had his intentions not been sincere gentlemen, would he have made that statement?

My plea is that further punishment for these offences will be no incentive to this man in his present desire to be a good soldier.

But there is another reason, gentlemen, why this soldier wishes to go straight.

Last July, Lomer David met Miss Clair Canty of Midhurst to whom he is now engaged to be married. It is an unfortunate case gentlemen, that Clair Canty is now at a maternity home under the care of reverend sisters at 51 Marlborough Place, St John's Wood, London N.W.8, Telephone number Maida Vale 3044.

I spoke to this lady on the telephone last evening (1 Feb 45) by permission of the mother superior. She does not know the story of his case and is expecting to see him and be married to him soon. Their child is expected on April 24 1945. His plans for obtaining permission of his CO and marrying have been thwarted through being in prison. She is worried and expects to see him soon.

My plea is gentlemen, that Gunner David has learned a severe lesson and nothing whatever can be gained by long sentences. This is not a strong willed soldier, he is sensitive and he has suffered.

For their future Lomer David expresses his concern and anxiety. He is sincere in his wish to cause no sorrows on her part.

May I submit a letter to Gnr David (unfortunately better evidence has been destroyed) from Clair Canty received 1st Feb 45.

I close this plea of mitigation with the express recommendation(in these exceptional circumstances) that the court be most merciful in the Judgement of Lomer David.

SUBJECT: Theft of Personal Property DATE: Sept 4, 1944.

STATEMENT OF Reft No: C10614 Gnr: Lomer David.

Taken at:- Guildford Police Station.

"I have been warned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I now say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

"To show that I understand the above warning, I make this statement voluntarily and sign my name herewith."

STATES:

While I was AWL I slit a number of Kit Bags at 2 CARU South Camp.

I slit a number of Kit Bags in Hut 7, Hut 6, Hut 5, Hut 11. The only articles taken from these Kit Bags were to the best of my knowledge cigarettes, it is quite possible I took other articles but I can't remember what they were.

In North camp, I stole from Hut 10. I took a wrist watch from Gnr Sanford out of his Kit Bag, also a fountain pen. From another Hut I stole and I think, Hut 9, I slit a Kit Bag, and took out cigarettes and various articles, (tooth paste etc.,) From another Hut at North Camp I slit two kit bags, and took cigarettes and other small articles. From another hut I slit a few more kit bags, and stole cigarettes and chocolate bars. I sold the watch I stole from Sanford to a Pte Romer at Bramshott Hospital, employed on the Fire Brigade. I believe during my period of AWL I slit at least twenty kit bags.

Around the 18 of June I stole four fountain pens and thousand cigarettes from Hut 8 at South Camp. To the best of my knowledge I have given a frank and truthful account of all the thefts committed by myself.

"Lomer David"

I remember that on a Thursday night £10.00 was taken from a hut where Smith had been. On saturday morning around 0300hrs, Smith came into the kitchen and I asked Smith if he had any money. He replied that he had £16.0.0. I knew that a couple of nights previous he was broke, I asked him where he got it from, but he would not tell me where he had got it from. I did not see the money but I believe that he had it.

Around the 2nd of August 1944, I was approached by a Cdn soldier who I think was in the Artillery. He asked me if I wished to buy a wrist watch for £3.0.0. This I agreed to do I paid him £1.10.0 there and the rest on Payday. The Cdn soldier selling me the watch was named David.

I did not know it had been stolen, the first knowledge of this, was when I was approached by the Provost.
