I wish to submit that a Prima facie case has not been made by the Prosecution and therefore the accused must be acquitted by the court. The accused is charged with drunkenness and conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. With regard to the charge of drunkenness, the first thing I would like to point out to the court is that a man may be charged with drunkenness when on duty and when not on duty. If he is charged with drunkenness when on duty, then there are no degrees of drunkenness, he is either fit for duty or not fit for duty. If he is not fit for duty then he is clearly guilty of drunkenness. If he is drunk when not on duty it is my understanding that that does not apply. There may be many degrees of drunkenness and in these circumstances it is incumbent on the Prosecution to prove by allegation certain circumstances which indicate that the man was drunk and prove that these were in fact true. In this connection the Prosecution has the accused's own statement that they were drinking beer, but I submit that they have not established beyond any reasonable doubt that SQMS Dawson was so under the influence of liquor that he was incapable of conducting himself properly or was incapable of understanding what he was doing, in fact a witness for the Prosecution has stated that he saw the accused in the cafe and did not consider it necessary then to request him to leave or to place him under arrest. He also stated that the accused was capable of understanding and executing an order. This was corroberated by another witness, Mr. Curtiss. We have also discovered from the evidence of Capt Lewis and Mr Curtiss that the accused was in the cafe, or they saw him there about half an hour later, sitting quietly at a table eating a meal. With respect to his conduct while in the cafe these two charges are very closely interwoven and the only circumstances, and the court must remember, that it is incumbent to have the Prosecution who allege, to prove circumstances which prove that the man was actually guilty of being drunk, and the only circumstances which the Prosecution have brought forward to indicate the accused was drunk are first, that he was in the cafe, he was noisy, and he bumped into the patrons and tables. You will have noted that Capt Lewis and Mr. Curtiss have stated that he was noisy and talked in a loud voice and alleged that he said things in a loud voice, on the other hand Capt Hodgeon, who was sitting at the same table did not hear these specific things he is alleged to have said, nor did he notice that SQMS Dawson and Miller were causing any undue concern in the room. I think also it was brought out in the cross-examination that the tables and chairs were close together and anyone trying to walk between them would have the greatest difficulty in doing so without bumping into someone, apart from that they simply state he bumped into the chairs and people, and I don't think the court is justified in drawing the conclusion that there were any objections by anyone there. You will also have noted, that Mr. Stevens who was in the room was not concerned with what the accused and his friend were doing. I suggest that they were not creating anything like a disturbance and certainly as is shown, they did not attract the attention of the whole room. The last point I have to make with regard to drunkenness, the opinion of any witness is not sufficient evidence that a man is drunk. It is not evidence at all, the witness must establish a certain mode of conduct, certain conduct to support the charge, and as I think I have pointed out, they have failed to do so. There is one other point, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. First of all I would like to remind the court that the Prosecution must not only establish that the particulars in the charge, or rather prove them, but they must also establish that these particulars are an offence under section 40 of the Army Act and that they are prejudicial to both good order and military discipline. I have already spoken of the accused's conduct in the cafe, the question of bumping into the patrons and chairs and also his loud noisy talk. It is set out in the charge,"did improperly conduct himself, to wit by bumping into tables and chairs, and by loud and noisy talk". The charge indicates that the accused was acting improperly and that he was insolent and truculent when speaking to an officer. Now that has certainly not been proved or established by the Prosecution, in the first place the witnesses are not at all sure what he did say. The charge has one variation of the words said, Capt Lewis states that the accused said "Now look at that, we came in first, yet this officer sits and he came in after us". which is not the wording of the charge. Mr. Curtiss states he said "Look at that, we were in here first, and yet this officer gets seated first". I am not suggesting that it means that the wording is slightly different, but if they are unsure of what he did actually say, I think the court may infer he may not have been referring to an officer at all in his statement, and although he may have said it it was not in any way insolent or one that anyone could take objection to. It may have been rude, but I don't think that is grounds for establishing a charge under section 40 of the Army Act. Besides, Mr. Stevens, to whom the remark is alleged to have been addressed, does not remember hearing it and Capt Hodgson, who was sitting at the table with Capt Lewis and Mr. Curtiss did not hear it. One last thing with regard to that statement, Sec 40 reads as follows" Words spoken "of and concerning" a superior must only be made the subject of a charge under this section where the speaker used them with a guilty intent". They must be insubordinate. I submit that the Prosecution has not established that the accused used these words with a guilty intent. There is one other matter I have not dealt with and that is the statement of the accused which has been submitted in evidence. The accused states that he was drinking beer for three and a half hours in at least two public houses and he goes on to say he does not remember speaking to Capt Lewis or RQMS Davis or does not recall having any concern with anyone in the cafe. Now with regard to that statement the position there in my mind is that the court must infer that the accused was so under the influence of liquor that he was incapable of conducting himself, and as I have already pointed out, two of the witnesses for the Prosecution have admitted that he was capable of conducting himself properly and of understanding and executing an order, in other words that statement of the accused does not establish a degree of drunkenness. For these reasons I submit that the Prosecution has not presented a Prima Facie case and the accused must be acquitted.

Reply to the motion by the Prosecutor

Sir, I won't keep you long, at least two witnesses have stated without equivocation of any sort that the accused was noisy, that he was walking unsteadily, and he was attracting a great deal of unfavorable attention, and although he was capable of executing an order he was not capable of military duty, and I therefore submit that the charge has been proved. With regard to the second charge I submit that the actions of the accused in the cafe are detrimental to military discipline in the highest degree. There is a point raised by the defence, that is the difference in the wording. I submit that this does not matter, the substance of the remarks is precisely the same.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Closing address of the Defending Officer

Sir, I have very little to add to what I have already said, and I presume that the submission I made will be considered by the Court when making its finding. The only two points I brought out in the witnesses for the defence are that a few minutes before the accused and his friend arrived at the cafe they were drinking in a Pub close by, and at that time Sgt Cairns, a witness considered that they were not greatly under the influence of liquor, and although they had been drinking for some time they were not objectionable to any of the patrons in the Pub in which they were drinking and they could handle themselves allright. The second point is that the cafe was very crowded, and the accused and his friend and one of the other witnesses had to wait for a table. The cafe was not only full and crowded but the tables were rather closely packed and anyone would have difficulty in getting between the tables and chairs. You will also notice that RQMS Davis, who was present when this alleged trouble took place, he did not hear any of the statements the accused is alleged to have made. That is all I can add to what I have already stated, except I would like to remind the court that it is incumbent upon the Prosecution to definitely establish the circumstances which indicate or prove that the accused was guilty of drunkenness and I think they have failed to do so for the reasons I have stated in making the submission in this case. The court should also notice that the accused is charged not only with drunkenness but under Sec 40 of the Army Act, which is I presume, considered to be a lesser offence and I submit they should very carefully consider the alleged particulars of facts in that charge, and I donot, for the reasons I have already given believe these have been conclusively proven by the Prosecution.

Closing Address by the Prosecution

Sir the Defence has maintained that the Prosecution has not established a case of drunkenness. I do not agree, I think the symptons as brought out by the witnesses, to wit, the unsteady walk and loud speach, and the attraction of unfavorable attention have proven this point. The witnesses you have heard have fallen into two categories, there have been two who have stated these things very definitely and without any equivocation. There have been others who have not heard and have not seen, but who have done nothing to discredit or give us reason to suppose that the witnesses who made these definite statements were not telling the truth. As regards the second charge, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, the first witness to that has been Capt Lewis and again I maintain that nothing has been said by any witness to disparage what he has said. In a lesser degree other witnesses have borne out part if not all of it. I still maintain that the case has been established.

Summing up by the Judge Advocate

In order to obtain a conviction the particular charge brought must be proved. If it is not proved an acquittal will follow. Allegations which are not essential to constitute the offence and which may be omitted without affecting the validity of the charge, do not require proof, and may be rejected as surplusage.

Each charge should be divided into two parts:
(1) The statement of the offence.
(2) The statement of the particulars of the act, neglect or ommission constituting the offence.
The particulars should state such circumstances respecting the alleged offence as will enable the accused to know every act, neglect or ommission which it is intended to be proved against him as constituting the offence.

In considering the question of the burden of proof, regard must be had to two rules, first that every man is presumed to be innocent until he is proved guilty and second, that he who alleges a fact must prove it, whether the allegation is couched in affirmative or negative terms. Therefore, the prosecution must give evidence showing the commission of the offence, and connecting the accused with it. On this being done the prosecution will have proved a prima facie case. Then the presumption of fact shifts to the accused and the accused must give a reasonable explanation in satisfaction of the charge.

Here today in this particular case there are two charges facing the accused:

(1) Drunkenness
(2) Conduct to the prejudice of good order and mil discipline.

With respect to the drunkenness I would like to draw this to your attention, (reads Para 45 Page 25 of M.M.L.). I also want to draw to your attention an extract which I obtained from the Soldiers Guide. "There are many tests of drunkenness. In mil law the tendency is to consider whether the accused was fit to perform his duty. If the accused was at the time off duty, the test is whether he would have been capable of performing his duty, if he be called upon to do so. It may be said that this is a hypothetical question and as such is very difficult to answer. The Court can only make up its mind on the evidence as a whole; it will presumably require somewhat stronger evidence of drunkenness when the accused was off duty than when he was on duty.

You have the evidence before you and it is from the evidence which you have here that you come to the conclusion as to whether the accused was in fact unfit for duty on the night of 5 Jun 43. You being reasonable men are in a position to decide from the circumstances which have been proved here today as to whether or not in your opinion the accused was fit or unfit for duty. I am not going over the evidence it is just as fresh in your mind as it is in mine.

With reference to the second charge, conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, the questions to be considered are, first, have the facts alleged in the particulars of the charge been proved in evidence, second, if they have, then do such facts amount to conduct to the prejudice of both good order and military discipline. You in your deliberation, Mr. President and Gentlemen, must satisfy yourselves that the particulars outlined in the second charge have been proved and if you satisfy yourselves on that point, then you must come to the conclusion that, are they conduct to the prejudice of both good order and military discipline. This is a matter which you as reasonable men, plus your Regt'l knowledge and experience must bring to your aid in the finding.

The court must remember the principle of English law that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty, and that the burden of proof rests upon the prosecution. Unless, therefore, the guilt of the accused has been established beyond reasonable doubt, the accused must be acquitted, as the prosecution has failed to sustain adequately the burden of proving his guilt. Such a doubt would be one that reasonable men would have, it is more than mere suspicion. In other words the Court must be satisfied not only that the circumstances proved were consistent with the guilt of the accused but that also they were inconsistent with any other rational conclusion.
Is there anything further you wish me to say Mr. Defending Officer
No sir.
And You Mr. Prosecutor
No sir.

Capt D.E. Harker 28 Cdn Armd Regt having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am Capt D.E. Harker Adjt 28 Cdn Armd Regt.
Q.2 How long have you known the accused?
A.2 Ever since he enlisted three years ago.
Q.3 Has the accused ever been an N.C.O. under you in the Regt?
A.3 He was SQMS of HQ Sqn of which I was a section commander.
Q.4 Can you give the court a statement inregard to his character and as to how he discharged his duties while with the Regt?
A.4 In regard to his character he has had no charges on his conduct sheet all the time he served with the Regt and in regard to his duties I found him to be diligent and conscientious.
Q.5 Have you ever known SQMS Dawson to have been in any trouble or to cause you any concern in that way at all?
A.5 No sir.

Plea in Mitigation by Defence

I would merely like to point out, and as probably the court is well aware of, that it is in their power to reprimand the accused and in the case of the drunkenness to fine him an amount not exceeding £5-0-0 or the equivalent of $16.00. In view of the accused's very good conduct I think the court would be well justified in making the punishment a light one.

Summary of Evidence in the case of K-38538 SQMS Dawson, A.M., 28 Canadian Armoured Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, charged with Drunkenness.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st Witness

Captain C.W. Lewis, 28 Cdn Armd Regt, having been duly sworn, states:

I was on 5 June 43 and still am Acting Officer Commanding Headquarters Squadron, 28 Cdn Armd Regt. When K-38538 SQMS Dawson, A.M. entered the cafe in company with K-37361 SQMS Miller, D., he was not noisy but was objectionable in moving around and bumping into patrons. The N.C.O's t en moved to the front of the cafe to wait for a vacant table. Lieutenant L.D. Stevens and friend moved to the rear of the cafe and just as they got there a table was vacated and Lieutenant Stevens and friend sat down. SQMS Dawson turned to SQMS Miller and in a loud slurred voice said "Come on, follow me", and they made their way through the centre of the cafe, continually jostling chairs and causing unnecessary concern among the patrons. They reached the corner where Lieutenant Stevens and friend were sitting. SQMS Dawson said, in a loud voice and with hand motions, "Now look at that, we came in first and yet this officer takes the first table and he came in after we did". At this point I went across the cafe to SQMS Dawson, and I said, "I suggest you go home to your quarters", SQMS Miller said, "Very good Sir", but SQMS Dawson began to argue. I pointed out that he was in no condition to be in the cafe and that they should return to their quarters. SQMS Dawson then asked me if that was an order. I said, "Yes, you will leave the cafe immediately", at which SQMS Dawson said, "I see no reason why I should". I told him that he was in close arrest. I told SQMS Miller that SQMS Dawson was in his charge and that they were to return to their quarters immediately. I then returned to my table and told K-37270 SQMS Davis, .M. who was just leaving the cafe to take SQMS Dawson out with him. Then I heard some arguing in the corner the only part of which could be overheard was SQMS Dawson saying, "No, I am your prisoner, how you get me out of here". At this point SQMS Davis came to SQMS Miller's assistance and they left the cafe.

In about thirty minutes when the cafe was nearly empty of patrons SQMS Dawson re-entered the cafe through the kitchen door, sat down at a table and food was almost immediately placed before him. As he was quite and the cafe was nearly empty and he had his food before him, I thought it best to let him eat and we ourselves left the cafe. In my opinion SQMS Dawson was under the influence of liquor, he could not stand straight or walk straight, but he was quite capable of understanding my order to leave the cafe and return to his quarters and he was capable of executing it.

Cross examined by accused:

Q. Do you consider that SQMS Miller was more sober than I and was in a fit condition to take me home?

A. Yes, at that time I did definately think SQMS Miller was sober enough to do as I said.

Q. Why was SQMS Davis not put in charge of me rather than SQMS Miller?

A. I had already given the order to SQMS Miller and then asked SQMS Davis to assist him, having no intention of changing the responsibility.

Q. Should not some action have been taken to have me removed from the cafe when I returned?

A. My answer is given in my evidence.

Second Witness.

Lieutenant H. H. Curtis, 26 Cdn. Armd. Regt, sworn, states:

I was on 5 June 1943 and still an A/Tech. Adjutant, 26 Cdn Armd Regt (BCR). When S.Q.M.S. Dawson and another S.Q.M.S. entered the cafe they were quiet but were obviously drunk and unsteady on their feet. They looked around for a table, and wandered around between the tables bumping into people as they went past. Finally they stopped and stood talking together at one side of the room. In the meantime Lieutenant Stevens and friend walked over to a table in the corner where R.Q.M.S Davis was sitting alone, and I saw Lieutenant Stevens talking to the R.Q.M.S., who then left, and Lieutenant Stevens and friend sat down. At this point S.Q.M.S. Dawson waved his arm and said in a loud voice "look at that, we were here before then and they get a seat before we do". This statement caused Lieutenant Stevens and friend to get to their feet and they both appeared to apologize to S.Q.M.S. Dawson for having taken the seat. By this time everyone in the cafe was taking a great deal of interest in the proceedings. Captain Lewis left our table and went over and spoke to S.Q.M.S. Dawson. I did not hear the conversation. The other S.Q.M.S. took S.Q.M.S. Dawson by the arm as Captain Lewis returned to the table and tried to head S.Q.M.S.Dawson out of the cafe. I heard him say, "NO I am not going". The R.S.M.S. , who had been paying his bill at the counter, went over to S.Q.M.S. Dawson, and the three left together. About one half hour later S.Q.M.S. Dawson returned to the cafe and he was quiet. I think S.Q.M.S. Dawson was capable of understanding and executing an order.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Captain R. H. Hodgson, 4 Cdn Armd Bde Workshop Coy, R.C.O.C. , sworn, states:

I was on 5 June 1943 and still an Captain of 4 Cdn Armd Bde Workshop, R.C.O.C. I saw two N.C.O's of the British Columbia Regiment enter the cafe. They appeared to be under the influence of liquor. I was sitting facing the door near the doorway and was unable to observe their conduct after they passed our table. Captain Lewis left the table for a short time. I did not observe where he went or to whom he spoke. Approximately one half hour after his return to the table, Captain Lewis said, "theres that chap again". I looked around and saw a staff sergeant sitting by himself. Captain Lewis remarked, "There he is back to flaunt authority". Shortly after we left the cafe. I am not acquainted with the N.C.O's concerned and consequently am unable to say whether the staff sergeant who was sitting alone was either one of the two N.C.O's whom I saw earlier.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Fourth Witness.

Lieutenant L. D. Stevens, 26 Cdn Armd Regt., sworn, states:

I was on 5 June 1943 and still an Signal Officer of 26 Cdn Armd Regt (BCR). As my friend and I entered the cafe, all the tables were occupied and I noticed S.Q.M.S. Dawson and S.Q.M.S. Millar standing near a table. I also saw R.Q.M.S. Davis finishing a cup of coffee at another table. I went over and spoke to the R.Q.M.S. and shortly afterwards he left and we sat down.

My friend then went to speak to an acquaintance and when S.Q.M.S Dawson and Millar approached my table, realizing they had been in the cafe before us I also got up and as I left to join my friend I said to the S.Q.M.S. , "Here is the table you were here before I was". I noticed S.Q.M.S. Dawson had been drinking but I saw nothing further.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Did I say or do anything to insult or embarrass you or your friend?

A. No. I was interested in what was going on in another part of the room.

Signature of Witness.

Fifth Witness.

K37361 S.Q.M.S. Millar, D., 25 Cdn Armd Regt (BCR), sworn, states:

I was on the 5 June 1943 and still an S.Q.M.S. "C" Sqn 25 Cdn Armd Regt (BCR). I entered a cafe near the Queen's Head Hotel with S.Q.M.S. Dawson. I had had a good deal to drink and have very little recollection of what occured. I remember waiting for a table. I saw Captain Lewis speaking to S.Q.M.S. Dawson, then Captain Lewis turned to me and said in effect, "Here is your prisoner." I then recall seeing MQMS Davis. I do not remember leaving the cafe. What I have said contains everything that I recall from the time I entered the cafe.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Do you remember any further conversation between yourself and Captain Lewis?

A. No.

Sixth Witness.

K37270 R.Q.M.S. Davis, R. H. 25 Cdn. Armd Regt (BCR), sworn, states:

I was on the 5th June 1943 and still an Regimental Quartermaster Sergeant, 25 Cdn. Armd. Regt (BCR). I had just turned my table over to Lieutenant Stevens and was on my way out of the Cafe when I noticed SQMS Dawson and SQMS Millar approach Lieutenant Stevens. Both N.C.O's were under the influence of liquor. SQMS Dawson began talking to Lieutenant Stevens in a loud voice. I decided to intervene. I turned to the counter to pay my bill and then got my hat. Captain Lewis came up to me and asked me to assist in getting the N.C.O's. out of the cafe. I walked over and interviened and managed to get them outside. On reaching the sidewalk SQMS Millar was unable to walk, fell down and injured his ankle. I then aided him in getting to his quarters. I was not aware that Captain Lewis had placed SQMS Dawson in close arrest, nor did I hear the conversation between Captain Lewis and SQMS Dawson or between Captain Lewis and SQMS Millar.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Do you consider I was in a condition to understand and carry out an order.

A. No, not properly.

TRIAL of No.356217 Pvt O'Connor C.R.

PROSECUTOR Lieut McMillinay

DEFENDING OFFICER Lieut R.A. Hoodsman

OFFICERS under INSTRUCTION: ——

1. The order convening the court is read in the presence of the accused.
The accused is asked the following question;
"Do you object to be tried by the President or any Members of the court whose names you have heard read over?"
ANSWER: no Sir

3. The President, Members, ~~Judge Advocate~~, ~~Officers under Instruction~~ Shorthand Writer and ~~Interpreter~~ are duly sworn.

4. (a) The accused answers to his name and number, and is duly arraigned on the charges.
(b) The accused having pleaded guilty to the 1st Charge, R.P-36(b) is complied with.

5. The accused is asked the question at the foot of page 2 of A.F. A. 3, and his answer is recorded beneath the question.

6. The Prosecutor makes (no) ~~(the following)~~ opening address.

L/Cpl. Gill, having been called, is duly sworn and questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Will you give your number, rank, name and Unit to the Court?

A. B.84308 L/Cpl. Gill, 1 Cdn. Troop Carrying Company.

Q. What is your occupation with that unit?

A. I am the L/Cpl. in charge of petrol.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you give your story of the afternoon of 8 July 41?

A. On the day of 8 July, Pte. Dawson drew 8 gallons of petrol from me to fill his vehicle. I issued him with four 2 gallon cans. He returned two 2 gallon petrol cans and two 2 gallon oil cans. When he brought the cans back I told him to leave them outside as I was going to load them up;to have them refilled. After he left I noticed that two of the cans he had returned were oil cans. I never thought any more of the matter at the time but when I heard he was in trouble I remembered then about the two oil cans. That is as far as it went that day. On the 9th we checked up on his lorry and found the tank was only three quarters full. Before we, the Driver-Mechanic and myself, filled it I went to Captain Kendall and reported that it was only three quarters full. We checked up on the mileage and till the eight gallons which Dawson had drawn, the lorry averaged 11 miles to the gallon. After the eight had been put in it was only three quarters full and took another four to fill it. We checked on that and found it was only averaging four miles per gallon.

Q. On the 8th of July, after this petrol had been given to Dawson to put into his vehicle, did that vehicle make a trip?

A. No, sir.

Q. What time of day was it Dawson drew this petrol?

A. I would say approximately 1100 hrs to 1130 hrs.

Q. How much petrol does a driver generally draw?

A. I ask him how much he needs and he says two, three or four cans.

Q. Then you would assume that when he asked for the eight gallons that was sufficient to fill his vehicle?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are quite sure no trip was made from the time it was drawn until you checked the tank?

A. Positive, sir.

Q. L/Cpl. Gill is questioned by the Defence:-

L/Cpl. Gill, you stated that Dawson drew petrol from you on 8 July 41?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You gave him four 2 gallon tins?

A. Four 2 gallon tins, sir.

Q. Did the whole section draw petrol that day?

A. Not the whole section, just the drivers that were out.

Q. When Dawson brought the four tins back, did he bring them to you?

A. He brought them to the garage and was going to leave them inside. I was going to get them filled up so I told him to leave them outside by the fence.

Q. When he took them outside were they left on the pile?

A. No, the four of them were together.

Q. Did you see him place the four cans there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What drew to your attention the fact that two of them were petrol tins and two were oil tins?

A. Oil cans are regular petrol cans but when a petrol can gets a small leak in it we make an oil can out of it. These cans are usually very oily and dirty on the outside whereas the petrol cans are clean.

Q. Was it possible for petrol cans to get dirty like the oil cans?

A. Not likely as the oil is very gummy and holds the dirt.

Q. Did you, on the 9th of July, admit to anyone that you did not know there were two petrol tins and two oil tins?

A. No, sir.

Q. By your statement it would appear that you would naturally assume the eight gallons the accused drew from you would be sufficient to fill that lorry. Do you issue all the petrol just on assumption?

A. As they come for it I give them what they ask for.

Q. You never question them?

A. No, sir.

Q. Is there anything to stop a driver coming to you and asking for six 2 gallon tins of petrol?

A. No, sir. I would give it to him unless I knew he did not require it.

Q. If Dawson had have asked for six, would he have got it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. They could ask for any reasonable amount of petrol and insofar as you were concerned you would give it to them?

A. Yes, sir, but they would have to return cans either full or empty to compare with the amount drawn.

Q. Did you make up this Log Book?

A. No, sir.

Q. You did not tell anyone on the 9th that you did not know where Pte. Dawson put those cans?

A. No, sir.

Q. When the accused brought back these four tins you say that you saw the tins as he brought them in?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. He brought them inside to you?

A. No, sir. I told him to leave them outside.

Q. You saw him put them down?

A. Yes, sir. He set them against the fence.

Q. How did you particularly remember Pte. Dawson bringing back these tins?

A. He was the first to return the cans.

Q. Was there any possibility of getting these cans mixed up?

A. No, sir.

Q. When did you first notice that two of them were oil cans?

A. When we were loading them on to the lorry.

L/Cpl. Gill is questioned by the Court:-

Q. What time were the tins loaded on to the lorry?

A. At approximately 12 O'clock on the 8th.

Q. How do you know how many tins you issued the accused?

A. When they come in I ask the number of the lorry and beside the number put a small 2 or 3, whatever number of tins they draw, and when they come in I change it into gallons.

M.7068 Pte. C.E. Keast, having been called, is duly sworn and questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Will you give your name, rank and unit?

A. M.7068 Pte. C.E. Keast, 1 Cdn. Troop Carrying Company.

Q. What were you employed at on the night of 8-9 July?

A. I was on guard at vehicles in "C" Section.

Q. Where is that located?

A. At Tower Road, Tadworth.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you encounter the accused on the 8-9 July?

A. He came and spoke to me while I was on guard.

Q. Will you give the court the complete story of your encounter with the accused that night?

A. While I was on my beat I saw a civilian car draw up at the Orderly Room and stop. Pte. Dawson got out of the car and walked into the Orderly Room. I think he was in there possibly about ten minutes then he came out and got into the car again. They then drove down near my post and the car stopped just past where I was on guard. Pte. Dawson came back and spoke to me. He asked me if I knew anything about a convoy going out the next day. He went back to the car and he said he was going into the bush to relieve himself. Idid not see him again until he was getting into the car., Just as he was getting into the car his tunic fell back and there was a petrol can under his arm. The car then pulled away.

Q. At about what hour on that night did you see the accused?

A. It was roughly around 1030.

Q. And how long was it before the accused drove away?

A. Possibly ten minutes.

Q. How many trips did you see the accused make into the bush?

A. I saw him only once.

Q. Were you watching him all the time?

A. I did not see him while in the bush but I saw him when he came out.

Q. Was that the type of tin he had?

A. Yes, sir.

Pte. Keast is questioned by the Defence:-

Q. Pte. Keast, you stated that you were speaking to Pte. Dawson at 1030?

A. Roughly around 1030.

Q. Then he went into the Orderly Room?

A. He went into the Orderly Room before he spoke to me.

Q. When he came out of the Orderly Room and went to the car, how far away was it from where you were?

A. About 30 to 35 yards.

Q. How far would the bushes be from the Orderly Room?

A. Probably 100 yards from the Orderly Room.

Q. How far away from Pte. Dawson were you when you saw him come out of the bushes with the can under his arm?

A. About 30 to 35 yards again.

Q. Your sure it was a petrol can?

A. It looked like an ordinary petrol can.

Q. What does the ordinary oil can look like?

A. In my old unit they used to be like a petrol can but painted black. I don't know what the others look like.

Q. How long have you been with this unit?

A. About 1½ months.

Q. Are you a driver?

A. A driver-mechanic.

Q. As a driver-mechanic, knowing their duties, can you still say you don't know what type of can they are putting oil in

A. The drivers have been drawing their own oil. I have been looking after the transmission oil, which is in black 5 gallon containers.

Q. Is the type of can used for oil in any way similar to the ones used for petrol?

A. The ones we used to use were.

Q. Can you tell us of any particular difference between the two cans in size?

A. I don't know, it all depends what the unit is using. All I know is that the oil is drawn in five gallon containers.

Q. Does that look like a can that might be used for oil?

A. I don't know.

Q. You are a driver mechanic with the 1 Troop Carrying Coy?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see the can that the accused had under his arm?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have that can in your hand?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you know the can was full?

A. How would I know if I did not have it in my hand?

Q. You did not know if it was full or not?

A. It could have been full or empty, I did not know.

Q. All this took place at approximately 2230 hours?

A. As near to that as I can say.

Q. Do you know what blackout time was on 8 July?

A. No, sir.

Q. It was daylight?

A. It was still light enough to see.

Q. You could not see whether the can was filled or not?

A. No, sir.

Mr. Frank Buck, having been called, is duly sworn and questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Will you give the Court your name, address and occupation?

A. F.B. Buck, White Cottage, Box Hill - Master Butcher.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you had any dealings with the accused?

nly through my shop.

Q. Did the accused ever tell you he had petrol to sell?

A. He asked me if I was interested in petrol.

Q. How many times did he ask you, just once?

A. Yes.

Q. When?

A. On the Tuesday. I just don't know the date off hand.

Q. What action did you take?

A. I said I wasn't ineterested. I had enough petrol of my own.

Q. Did you take no action whatsoever?

A. No, just verbal action.

Q. Could you enlarge on that?

A. I just said no, that I wasn't interested.

Q. Did you tell the accused that you would find a customer for him or that you would send someone around?

A. No.

Q. Did you actually pass on the information to anyone else?

A. Yes. In the course of conversation but not as a special piece of news.

Q. Would you just tell the Court the way in which you passed this on?

A. I had occasion to see Mr. Archer that evening over some shopping his wife had done for my wife. During the course of the conversation the shortage of goods was brought up and I told Mr. Archer that I had had some cigarettes offered to me by a soldier and that I thought he would be able to get some from him and that he lived at No. 3 Howards Close. I also told him that he had offered me some petrol that afternoons so I knew that he would be in.

Q. You are quite sure that you did not tell the accused that you would find him a customer or send someone around?

A. Yes. As far as I was concerned the petrol question was finished with.

Mr. Buck is questioned by the Defence:-

Q. In your statement you said the accused asked you if you were interested in petrol?

A. Yes.

Q. He did not offer to sell you any?

A. No.

Q. As a master butcher you are under the petrol rationing scheme drawing additional or a special allowance of petrol?

A. Yes. Not for my private car but for my vans.

Q. In the course of your transactions with Pte. Dawson, the accused, did he ever owe you any money?

...o, he paid cash for every transaction.

Q. Did the accused actually offer to sell you petrol?

A. He just asked me if I was interested in petrol. He did not actually offer to sell me petrol.

Mr. J.D. Archer, having been called, is duly sworn and questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Will you give the court your name, address and occupation?

A. James Dennis Archer, Lock Hill Rest, Ashurst Drive, Boxhill Road, near Tadworth. Paint Manufacturer's technical representative.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes.

Q. When did you first meet him?

A. 8 July.

Q. How did you happen to meet the accused?

A. I was given an address by Mr. Buck.

Q. What did you do on getting that address?

A. It was some hours after I had been given the address. I asked a friend if he would take me down into Walton.

Q. Where did you go then?

A. To No. 3 of a row of council houses.

Q. Who lived there?

A. I was told that the accused lived there.

Q. About what time did you arrive at the house of the accused?

A. I would say between 9 and 10 p.m.

Q. It was still daylight?

A. Yes.

Q. Did the accused seem to be expecting you?

A. My impression would be that he was.

Q. What transpired then?

A. As I entered the gate the accused walked down the path. After some conversation he said that he had four gallons of petrol.

Q. Who brought up the subject of petrol?

A. The accused.

Q. After having said he had four gallons of petrol, what happened then?

He said that he wanted to be driven to some other place to settle some private affairs about a pass. We drove to this place then drove on a little further around a corner where we stopped the car. The accused got out and returned with a tin of petrol. He then fetched another 2 gallon tin and re-entered the car. We then drover to near the place where the house was situated where I met the accused and the accused got out of the car.

Q. What did you do with the petrol?

A. I just took it home and put the tins outside my bungalow?

Q. What eventually happened to the petrol?

A. The police collected it the next morning.

Q. Did the accused tell you that this was army petrol?

A. No, the subject wasn't mentioned.

Q. You are sure there were two tins brought by the accused?

A. Yes, two 2 gallon tins.

Q. Were they the same type of tins as these?

A. The same kind of tins.

Q. Would you be able to recognize the tins picked up by the police?

A. No, I'm afraid I wouldn't.

Q. There were no special markings that you would recognize them by?

A. No.

Q. In between the time that the accused put these two tins into the vehicle which you were driving and the time you handed them over to the police the next morning, was there any likelihood that anyone would have tampered with the tins?

A. I would not say that there was a likelihood. It would not have been impossible.

Q. At about what time was it that the accused brought the tins out to the car.

A. About 9 or 10 o'clock. I can't be more definite than that.

Q. Was it light out?

A. It was still light.

Q. Did you see a sentry or a picquet?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you notice where he was while the petrol was being brought out?

A. No, I didn't notice.

Mr. Archer is questioned by the Defence:-

Q. Previous to the incident, had you ever seen the accused before?

A. No, not to the best of my knowledge.

Had you ever communicated with him in any way?

A. No.

Q. Would you tell the Court what makes you think he was expecting you?

A. I did not say he was expecting me. He was expecting somebody.

Q. In your statement you mentioned that the accused returned from some spot with a two gallon petrol tin and he went back again for another 2 gallon tin. How did you know those tins had petrol in them?

A. I don't know they had petrol in them. They certainly had some liquid in them.

Q. In your statement you also mentioned that the incident took place between 2100 hours and 2200 hours?

A. Yes.

Q. What time were these tins handed over to the police?

A. About 0800 hours.

Q. Were they locked up?

A. No.

Q. Were they in the open?

A. They were in the open, yes, but covered up.

Q. Did you put any of the contents of those tins in your car?

A. No.

Mr. Archer is questioned by the Court:-

Q. Was there a financial transaction between yourself and the accused?

A. Yes, I paid the accused eight shillings.

Q. Did you think you were paying for petrol when you paid the accused 8 shillings?

A. Yes.

Mr. Archer is again questioned by the Defence:-

Q. Did you know the value of those tins empty on the open market here in England?

A. No, I didn't.

Lieut. Archer, having been called, is duly sworn and is questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Will you give your rank, name and unit to the court?

A. Lieut. Archer of the R.C.R., attached to Chemical Warfare.

Q. Can you find any identifying markings on these tins?

A. No. I only saw them for a fleeting moment.

Q. Can you tell the Court what you know about an analysis of petrol that was made by Capt. Macpherson of the Chemical Warfare Branch for 1 Cdn. Troop Carrying Coy?

A. I believe it was 23 July, a sample was brought up about 5 o'clock in the evening to see if it was W.D. Petrol or not. I was in the lab when he made his tests and saw the results of the tests.

Q. What were the results?

A. The results were that he found the petrol given to him to be tested was consistent with W.D. petrol.

Q. The term "consistent with W.D. petrol". Just what is the meaning of it?

A. It means simply that it contains the same ingredients as W.D. petrol.. It could be conceivably made up by someone knowing what ingredients were put into the petrol.

Q. There are special ingredients in W.D. petrol, to identify it from other?

A. Yes.

Q. Have these ingredients any other value in petrol besides being used to identify it?

A. No, they haven't.

Q. What tests were made?

A. They are a series of tests laid down by the Petroleum Board in London and have to be made before we can get the desired results.

Q. Is it likely that any other petrol would react similarly?

A. No, not other than W.D. petrol.

Q. Who brought this petrol in that you saw being tested?

A. He was a Captain in 1 Troop Carrying Company. I forget his name but I believe he is O.C. "D" Section.

Q. You mentioned in your evidence that a sample was tested. How was the sample brought in?

A. In a W.D. petrol can.

Q. In one can?

A. No, two cans actually.

Lieut. Archer is questioned by the Defence:-

Q. Was the sample that was analysed a little from each of the cans or a sample from each of the cans?

A. There was a test made of each can.

Q. And in your statement you stated that W.D. petrol could be conceivably made up?

A. Yes, by anyone knowing the ingredients but it is not likely.

Q. Do you think this would come within the scope of work of a paint manufacturer's technical representative?

A. No, I don't think so. I couldn't rightly say.

He might have business to do with dies used in W.D. Petrol?

A. He might, but it is not likely.

Q. Is the die used in W.D. petrol used as a pigment in paint?

A. No.

Q. Are you a chemist?

A. Yes, I am a chemist.

B.82763 Sgt. H.West, having been called, is duly sworn and questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Will you give your number, rank and name?

A. H. West, Sergeant, B.82763.

Q. What unit are you with?

A. 1 Can. Troop Carrying Company.

Q. What is your position with your unit?

A. "C" Section Sergeant.

Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you recount to the Court the happenings on the night of 8-9 July?

A. The Orderly Officer of the day, in company with Sgt. Hornberger picked me up at my billets and we in turn drove to a civilian residence which we had reason to believe Pte. Dawson was at. Sgt. Hornberger and myself entered the civilian residence and questioned Pte. Dawson. I did not directly question Dawson but I was a witness to the statements which he made. We then took Pte. Dawson to Company Orderly Room where Capt. Poulter, Orderly Officer of the day, asked him if he wished to make a voluntary statement. He also warned Pte. Dawson of his position in making such a statement. Pte. Dawson then proceeded to make a statement in front of Sgt. Hornberger, myself and the Orderly Officer of the day.

Q. Did you ask the accused for a pass?

A. No, sir. His pass had been turned in to the Orderly Room.

Q. What time?

A. At approximately 2300 hrs, as he had been marked present on the Tattoo Report.

Q. Did you know then that the accused had no pass?

A. The accused would not have a pass issued to him after 2300 hours at night.

Q. Did you see Captain Poulter write the statement?

A. Yes. I was only about 4 feet away.

Q. Do you recognize this document?

A. Yes, that is a very close resemblance to the written statement.

Q. Just a close resemblance?

A. Asfar as I can see, I am not a handwriting expert.

Q. Did the accused need a pass or written permission to be outside the lines after "lights out" or at the time apprehended?

A. Yes, sir.

Sgt. West is questioned by the Defence.

Q. Was a statement taken from the accused, Pte. Dawson, in the kitchen of 3 Howard Close?

A. No, sir.

Q. Where was Pte. Dawson the accused, when you and Sgt. Hornberger went to 3 Howard Close?

A. I cannot state for sure, but it was he who answered the door.

Q. What attire was he in when he answered the door?

A. Trousers as I recollect properly.

Q. Did he have a shirt on?

A. I don't know.

Q. Was there anyone with you and Sgt. Hornberger?

A. Not directly with us. The Orderly Officer of the day was in the car parked in the street. I recollect Sgt. Hornberger told Dawson to go upstairs and get dressed.

Q. Then we can take it for a fact that he was in an undressed state?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When Pte. Dawson dressed and came down, where was the voluntary statement taken?

A. A verbal statement was taken in the kitchen.

Q. Could you repeat to the Court as closely as possible the words that Sgt. Hornberger said to the accused when he asked him for a voluntary statement?

A. I will not swear on oath that this is correct. He said to Dawson, "Did you sell that petrol this evening?".

Q. Was that his first words?

A. I don't know.

Q. Did Sgt. Hornberger caution the accused before listening to a voluntary statement?

A. He did not ask Pte. Dawson for a statement, he questioned him as to the event.

Q. When you were in the kitchen with Sgt. Hornberger and the accused, did Sgt. Hornberger caution Pte. Dawson?

A. I don't recollect.

Q. Did you do it?

A. No, sir.

Q. If you cannot recollect, it is not an established fact that

Sgt. Hornberger did caution him?

A. I don't know. I took no part in the questioning of him at all.

Q. After you and Sgt. Hornberger saw Dawson, I presume you arrested the man and he was taken to "C" Section Orderly Room?

A. Company Orderly Room, sir.

Q. Captain Poulter was there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And when the accused was brought in to the Company Orderly Room did Captain Poulter caution the accused that anything he said would be used against him?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know what he said when he did that?

A. As far as I recollect, he said that anything the accused said could be used as evidence against him.

Q. Captain Poulter himself cautioned Pte. Dawson?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Up to this time had Sgt. Hornberger cautioned him?

A. Not that I recollect. Up to that time Sgt. Hornberger had not placed him under arrest.

Q. You placed him under arrest?

A. No, sir. The Orderly Officer of the day placed him under arrest.

Q. Do you know his name?

A. Captain Poulter.

Capt. Baskim, having been called, is duly sworn and is questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Will you give your rank, name and unit to the Court?

A. Capt. H. Baskim, 1 Cdn. Troop Carrying Company.

Q. Will youtell the Court what your position with that Company was on the 8th of July?

A. I was the Workshop Officer, attached to the Company.

Q. Is that the position you have maintained since that time?

A. That is the position I hold now.

Q. Do you recognize this petrol tin?

A. Yes.

Q. How do you recognize it?

A. The cross on top, placed there by a civilian policeman and the initial on the side placed there by myself.

Q. Do you recognize this one?

A. Yes. It is marked in the same fashion.

Q. Will you tell the court what you know about the tins?

A. Those tins were given into my custody by a policeman in the Sutton Police Court, after the trial of a man by the name of Archer.

Q. What was the date?

A. I have forgotten. It was a Thursday.

Q. Was it the Thursday subsequent to the arrest of the accused?

A. I cannot quite recall the exact date.

Q. From the time that those two cans came into your possession what did you do with them?

A. Those cans were in my possession at all times. The only time they were removed was to take them in to the Corps Chemist for analysis.

Q. Were you present during the analysis?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you bring the cans back?

A. Yes.

Q. When you were absent from your office what happened to the cans?

A. The office is locked or the Orderly Corporal is in my office at all times during my absence.

Q. Between the time the petrol was given to you and the time you had it analysed, was there any addition made to the contents of the can?

A. No. The cans were not touched at all.

Q. Would you say that the same petrol was in the cans?

A. Yes.

Q. Who carried out the analysis?

A. The Corps Chemist. I believe his name is Macpherson.

Capt. Baskim is questioned by the Court.

Q. When did you mark these tins?

A. I didn't put the cross on.

Q. When did you put the initial on?

A. The same date as I was warned to take them down for analysis.

Q. There is no way you can identify them as 1 Troop Carrying Company tins?

A. No, sir. They are the same as used by any other Unit. There are a few cans that are different from the W.D. cans.

Q. The first association you had with the cans is when the police gave them to you.

A. Yes, sir.

Capt. Baskim is questioned by the Defence:-

Q. What is the difference between these cans and the cans you spoke about previously?

A. Sometimes the cans come from the Shell Oil Company and the only way you can tell them to be W.D. cans is by the paint.

Q. You are the Workshop Officer?

A. Yes.

Q. Does Corporal Gill have anything to do with the Log Books of your lorries?

A. No. He is the N.C.O. detailed to take care of the petrol.

Q. Was Corporal Gill ever the driver of the lorry in question, #7658O7?

A. I'm afraid I can't answer that.

Q. Would you recognize this as being the Log Book for #7658O7?

A. Yes, this is the Log Book for the vehicle.

Q. Is Cpl. Gill's signature in here?

A. His signature won't be in there unless he signed for petrol.

Police Constable Cooper is called and having been sworn is questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Do you recognize those tins?

A. Yes. They have a mark which I put on them when they were in my possession.

Q. Will you tell the court what you know of this case?

A. On the 9th of July 41, in consequence of information received I made certain inquiries and as a result of these inquiries I went to Lock Hill Rest, Box Hill, in the company of P.C. Adsett, where I saw a Vauxhall 12 h.p. Motor Car POP.342 stationary outside a wooden dwelling house. I aroused the occupant of the house who was the registered owner, Mr. Peachy. I told him that it was alleged that on the previous evening his car had been seen at Walton to pick up two 2 gallon cans of petrol and was driven away. He then volunteered a statement. In his statement he admitted that it was Mr. Archer that had the petrol. I saw Mr. Archer who went to the rear of a wooden dwelling house and produced the two cans here from under some sacking. I examined them and a quantity of the contents was poured into a clear bottle and it was seen that it was coloured as is usual with army petrol. I told him that it was alleged that he had received this petrol from a Canadian Soldier. I cautioned him and he volunteered a statement.

Q. What happenedto the tins of petrol between the time that you received them and the time handed to Capt. Baskim?

A. I took possession of those two cans. They were locked in a shed at the Police Cottages at Box Hill. That evening they were called for by myself in company with Detective Cunningham of Sutton. They were handed to him, conveyed to Banstead Police Station and thence to Sutton. They were then secured in a cupboard and I was present when this cupboard was unlocked. I helped to convey them to Sutton Police Court and handed them to Captain Baskim.

Q. In your opinion was there any chance between the time these were taken from Mr. Archer until handed to Capt. Baskim of them being tampered with?

A. No chance whatever. They were in police custody at all times.

P.C. Cooper is questioned by the Defence:-

Q. Can you tell me if that is the usual way of marking things like that?

A. The markings are such that you can recognize it yourself.

Q. This is your marking?

A. There are now three other markings on there. Do you think there is anything to prevent me going outside, getting two full petrol cans painted as near the same colour possible and earmarking them. Could you distinguish between them?

A. Yes, I could tell by the location of the markings. If I used a label they would have been easier to remove.

Capt. Poulter, having been called, is duly sworn and is questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Do you recognize that document?

A. I do.

Q. Will you tell the Court what you know about it?

A. In what way?

Q. Who wrote it?.

A. I Was Orderly Officer of the day and was told that Pte. Dawson was acting queer and petrol tins were seen coming from "C" Section lines and I immediately took action to apprehend him. I understood there were civilians mixed up in the case so I contacted Sgt. Hornberger, late of the Field Security Section and Sgt. West of "C" Section and went to see if we could find Pte. Dawson. Sgt. Hornberger and Sgt. West found Dawson at his wife's place of abode on Howard Close. We took him to Company Orderly Room where we took the evidence. I told him that it was of his own free will and may be used as evidence if it was brought to court. From there it is the evidence as laid down in the statement.

Q. Is it in your handwriting?

A. It is in my handwriting.

Q. In your opinion, Capt. Poulter, did the accused realize that it was possible that the statement could be used as evidence at his trial?

A. I am sure he did.

Captain Poulter is questioned by the Defence:-

Q. You cautioned Pte. Dawson before taking the statement from him?

A. I did.

Q. Would you repeat again how you cautioned him?

A. I cautioned him that it was a statement of his own free will and would be used as evidence in his trial if brought to Court.

Q. To your knowledge, was there any coersion or any pressure brought to bear?

A. I don't think there was any forde used.

Q. I don't mean force, I mean prompting?

A. As far as my statement is concerned there was not any force used. He made it of his own free will.

Q. This is Sgt. Hornberger's signature?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there any other witnesses?

A. Sgt. West but he did not sign it.

Sgt. West is recalled and questioned by the Defence:-

Q. In your statements the last time you were in you said that the accused was present at Tattoo. What time is Tattoo?

A. 2300 hrs.

Q. Did the accused have a pass that night?

A. Yes, until 2359 hours.

Q. Is 3 Howard Close within the Barrack Area, for a man to walk out to without a pass?

A. No,, up until 2300 hours.

Q. Then from what you just said, the accused was not out of Barrack Area?

A. I would consider a man out of Barrack area at 3 Howard Close after 2300 hours, unless he had a pass.

Q. Then he would not be out of Barrack Area because he had a pass?

A. He had handed in his pass and was present at Tattoo.

Sgt. West is questioned by the Prosecution:-

Q. Regardless of whether Howard Close is within the Barrack Area it is not within the billets of "C" Section?

A. No, sir.

Sgt. West is questioned by the Court:-

Q. As I understand it, the men are required to be in their billets at 2300 hours unless they have a later pass?

A. Yes, sir.

Sgt. West has testified that he found the accused there and did not and could not have had a pass. That, in connection with the case is, I think, sufficient to find him guilty of both charges.

The Court questions the accused.

Q. Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you intend to call any witnesses on your behalf?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will that be a witness as to character?

A. Yes, sir.

Lieut. Irwin, having been called, is duly sworn and makes the following statement:-

Approximately 1 Nov 40, Dawson was detailed to me as batman-driver. He was my batman until I was struck off strength unit and I was posted to other duties. I came back to the Unit 18 June 41 at which time Dawson again approached me with a view to taking over duties again as batman-driver. At that time I told him that I had made previous arrangements. During the period referred to previously that Dawson was with me, I had no reason at any time to question his honesty or integrity. I didn't wish to take him on again as batman-driver because I did not consider him to be a good driver.

The Court addresses the Defence.

Q. Do you wish to say anything now or do you wish to make a statement now on the first of three charges?

A. Yes, sir. In the first charge, the charge of stealing public property. The first thing the prosecution would have to prove in any court of law and particularly a civil court is ownership. He must find someone to own that property, as the public, in law, is not a person. In civil law, these first two charges would be thrown out on that technicality. However without asking for that I will try and sum up the case of the accused as quickly as possible.

From the facts submitted before the Court, no concrete evidence has been brought forward to prove that there was actually petrol in the two cans which have been listed as exhibits in this Court. From the time that Pte. Keast saw the accused until the time that the petrol was picked up by Constable Cooper there was no evidence at all to show what liquid, if any, was in either of these two cans. Pte. Keast, in his evidence, admits that he did not know the contents of the cans. Mr. Archer, J.D., in his evidence before this Court admits that he did not know the contents of these cans. He only presumed the contents to be petrol. Further, Mr. Archer admits that he did not put any of the liquid from either of these cans into his car. He also admits that anyone had access to these cans. L/Cpl. Gill in his evidence brought out one fact in particular as to how he could identify petrol cans from oil cans, and stated one reason was that the cans used for oil often or sometimes had leaks in them. One of the two cans submitted to this Court as an exhibit as a petrol can leaks. The fact that the vehicle No. 1.765807 was assumedly short petrol in the amount of four gallons does not necessarily prove that the petrol drawn by the accused was not put in into the above mentioned vehicle. It is quite possible that petrol from any lorry can be syphoned out or drained from any lorry not under direct guard. In Mr. Bucks evidence there is nothing to prove the accused offered to "sell" petrol to Mr.

Buck. In Buck's statement to this Court he admits speaking of petrol but stresses the fact that he only spoke of it in the general course of conversation. Again in the evidence of J.D. Archer, Mr. Archer admits that he never saw the accused before and did not satisfactorily explain his statement in which he said that he thought the accused was expecting him (J.D.Archer). Mr. Archer again in the cross examination admits that two tins were put into the car, but also admits he did not definitely know the contents to be petrol. Lieut. Archer of the R.C.R. in his evidence before the Court admitted that W.D. Petrol could possibly be made up by other than those permitted to manufacture same. The defence admits that this is a remote possibility but wishes to draw the attention of the Court to J.D. Archer's occupation in civil life. On the second charge the defence wishes to point out that while the accused was found in No. 3 Howard Close that the Defence presumes that he was still within the Unit's barrack area and it has been established in Sgt. West's evidence the accused was granted a midnight pass. The fact that the accused turned his midnight pass in at 2300 hours and went to No. 3 Howard Close rather suggests anything but "sky-larking" and if anything is in the accused's favour. It must be also drawn to the Court's attention that the time of expiration of his midnight pass until the time he was apprehanded was 0131 hours. It is unfortunate that the late No. A.5049 Sgt. Hornberger, H.L. cannot be present at this Court Martial because his evidence submitted in the Summary does not show that the accused was either warned or cautioned at any time prior to being taken to the Company Orderly Room. Sgt. West's evidence further bears this out.

The Defence not knowing or being in a position to know the findings of this Court further submit the following defence. Even with the remote possibility that the accused might be found guilty of these offences, it must be admitted that if the accused was criminally inclined he could have easily hidden cans among other cans or as the prosecution contends, rather than bring back two oil cans could as easily have transferred any liquid from a petrol can to the two oil cans alleged to have been brought back.

In conclusion, the character evidence offeredby Lieut. Irwin speaks unquestionably well for the accused's honesty and integrity. There can be no doubt in the Court's mind but that the accused, Pte. Dawson, acting in the capacity of driver-batman for Lieut. Irwin must have had access to practically all of Mr. Irwin's belongings. He was with Mr. Irwin from November 40 until Arpil 41, a little over five months and during that time the evidence proves that while he was not the best of drivers he was undoubtedly a capable and honest batman.

The Court adjourns for a finding.on charges to which pleas of "Not Guilty" were given.

Summary of Evidence is read before the Court.

The accused is questioned by the Court:-

Q. Do you wish to make a statement on this charge? (plea of guilty)

A. No, sir.

The Defence is questioned by the Court.

Q. Do you wish to make a statement in mitigation of sentence on this charge?

A. Yes, sir.

While there is very little evidence it has to be admitted by

Summary by the Prosecution:-

On the first charge of stealing public property, in that he, ... the property of the public. From that it is essential that the Prosecution, in order to see the accused person convicted, shall firstly, prove that there was property stolen; secondly, that it was public property and thirdly that the place, time and date and amount of the theft be proven. As to the stealing, L/Cpl. Gill in the first of the case raised the presumption that two 2 gallon cans of petrol had been made away with. This also shows the purported tins were in the accused's possession and although he drew four 2 gallon tins of petrol he returned two empty petrol tins and two empty oil tins. This was enough to raise the question as to what had become of the other two petrol tins. When this was followed and a check up of the tank showed it to be four gallons short and a check up made of the average mileage, it set up a pretty fair case to show that these two tins with the four gallons of petrol were made away with. In connection with the evidence of Cpl. Gill. The fact that Cpl. Gill's statement may have differed by ½ a gallon should not be operated against the credability of this N.C.O. as in the summary he was working from actual figures but in his present statement he had no figures at all. Actually he has shown that after a trip of 48 miles the tank was found to require eight gallons of petrol. At least he was told by the driver. This would show an average of 6 miles to the gallon if the tank had been full before the start of that run. He then found out the tank required another four gallons, which, added to the 8 would make 12 gallons. Work this out. Actually that 48 mile trip would have been at the rate of four miles to the gallon.

Now another point which the Defence Officer was trying to bring out was that these oil cans may have been substituted by someone else. But that is denied by what follows. On page 118 of the Manual of Military Law, para 50, first sentence, sets out what the crime of theft amounts to; "A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently and without a claim of right made in good faith "takes" and "carries away" anything "capable of being stolen" with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof." Intent is shown here by the subsequent dealings of the accused. The intention to deprive the owner of possession is shown by the ultimate disposal of the petrol to Mr. Archer.

Now it is necessary to prove that the petrol was property of the public. The evidence of Cpl. Gill sets out a prima facia case. The evidence of Mr. Archer that he got the petrol in tins which resembled the ones here, the evidence of Police Constable Cooper that he got the tins and that he passed them on to Captain Baskim shows what it is. Even if there was anybody wanting to frame the accused, it is just barely possible that it could be tampered with while it stood outside Mr. Archer's house.

The evidence to the time and place of the theft is in the evidence of Cpl. Gill and Pte. Keast. The evidence of the amount stolen is in the amount of petrol Mr. Archer turned over to the police.

If the court find the accused "not guilty" then section 56(2) of the Army Act and para 53, page 120 of M.M.L. apply, "the accused may be found guilty of the lesser offence, fraudulently misapplying property".

In connection with the second charge, "When in billets .... Sgt. West's evidence on that matter is complete in all details. The accused was supposed to be in "C" Section billets with "C" Section. He also went to a place outside the billet area which actually was the civilian home of his wife.

the Defence that the accused is guilty. At the same time the Defence wishes to point out the ease with which Canadian Cigarettes may be purchased in any locaility in which Canadians are billetted. While the Defence admits this to be a most serious charge and there is plenty of evidence from Cdn. H.Q. showing that the sales of the Canadian cigarettes must be stopped, it is to be trusted that the Court will not hold the accused guilty of more than his own misdemeanor in the charge.

Capt. Baskim is called and states:-

I submit herewith two certified copes of M.F.M. 6 of the accused and a short statement as to particulars of service.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of

No. B8[illegible]17, PRIVATE DAWSON, C.,

1st. Canadian Troop Carrying Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, Canadian Army (Overseas), taken down by CAPTAIN D.C. SHAW, 1st. Canadian Troop Carrying Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, at WYKE HOUSE, CHEQUERS LANE, WALTON-ON-THE-HILL, SURREY, on the 10th. day of JULY, 1941, in the presence of the accused.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION.

No. M-7068, Pte. Keast C.E., 1st. Cdn. Troop Carrying Coy., RCASC., having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 8/9 July 41 at approximately 2230 hrs. I was on duty as sentry in "C" Section vehicle lines. While on my beat I saw a civilian car stop opposite "C" Section Orderly Room, and saw Private Dawson, whom I now recognize, get out and enter, to the best of my knowledge, "C" Section Orderly Room. The car then proceeded and stopped just near where I was on duty and Private Dawson came over and asked meif I had any information regarding the convoy that was to go out the following night. I told him that I knew nothing about it, and he then said he was going into the bushes to relieve himself. I did not see him again until I saw him enter the civilian car once more. Just as he entered the car, his tunic, which he had slung over his arm, fell back and I saw that he had a can of petrol under his arm. I did not have a chance to stop the car, but as it went down the road I took the number of it. I gave the number to Lance-Corporal Paul when he was making his rounds about 2330 hours. I had nothing further to do with the case."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

NO. B82508 - CPL. RICHARDS, W.E., 1st. Cdn. Troop Carrying, Coy., RCASC., having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 8/9 July 41, I was acting Orderly Sergeant and at approximately 2359 hrs., L/Cpl. Paul, N.C.O. in charge of "C" Section Guard reported to Capt. Poulter and myself at Unit Headquarters that a soldier reported as Pte. Dawson had been seen taking W.D. petrol away in a car. The license number of this car was reported at this time. We, Capt. Poulter, Sgt. Hornberger, and myself drove to "C" Section lines and wakened Sgt. West, "C" Section Sergeant. From there we proceeded to "Kingscote House" to find if Private Dawson was in his billet. L/Cpl. Paul and I searched the house without finding this man. Finding that he was not in his billet, we thought we would try the house in Howard Close, Walton-on-the-Hill where his wife lives, to see if he was there. When we arrived at this house Sgt. West and Sgt. Hornberger found Private Dawson there. We then proceeded with Private Dawson, whom I now recognize, to the Unit Orderly Room, where Private Dawson was brought into the C.S.M's office by Capt. Poulter, Sgt. West and Sgt. Hornberger. I waited outside. After Private Dawson came out I was ordered by Capt. Poulter to stay at Unit H.Q. until he returned. This is all my connection with this case."

CAPT. M.R. POULTER, 1st. Cdn. Troop Carrying Coy., RCASC., having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 8/9 July 41 at approximately 2359 hrs. while acting as Orderly Officer, L/Cpl. The guard on duty, Pte. Keast, had reported to him this fact, also that Pte. Dawson was seen entering the civilian car with W.D. can of petrol. As there were civilians involved, I contacted Sgt. Hornberger of the Field Security Company who is billeted nearby. Accompanied by Sgt. Hornberger and Cpl. Richards, A/Orderly Sgt., we proceeded to "C" Section lines and contacted Sgt. West, "C" Section sergeant. I had the billets searched and found Pte. Dawson absent from his quarters. We then went to No. 5 Howard Close where Pte. Dawson's wife resides. Sgt. Hornberger and Sgt. West were detailed by me to enter the house to ascertain if Pte. Dawson was there. They soon returned accompanied by Pte. Dawson. We returned to Unit Orderly Room where Pte. Dawson made a voluntary statement as to the procuring and disposal of 4 (four) gallons of W.D. petrol. We then drove to the Unit guard room where I had the A/Sgt. of the Guard, Cpl. NO. A5049, SERGEANT HORNBERGER, H.L., Field Decurity Intelligence Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

"On the night of 8/9 July 41 ataapproximately 2359 hrs. I was called for at my billet, No. 1 Howard Close, Walton-on-the-Hill, by Capt. Poulter, 1st. Cdn. Dawson was not in his official billet, and further determined that Pte. Dawson was at No. 3 Howard Close, Walton-on-the-Hill. Capt. Poulter, Sgt. West and another rank whom I do not know and myself drove to No. 3 Howard Close. Accompanied by Sgt. West, I knocked at the door of this house and Pte. Dawson answered the knock. We first ordered him to get his clothes quickly, and a few moments later, when he returned downstairs, I asked him in the kitchen what were the names of the civilians to whom he had sold the petrol that evening. He answered, "I do not know". I asked him how did he know who they were, and he responded, "Buck, the butcher, sent them." I asked him if he had sold them just the one can, and he answered "yes". He finished dressing, went to the car, and drove with us to Company H.Q., 1st. Cdn. Troop Carrying Coy., RCASC., Capt. Poulter told Pte. Dawson that he was under close arrest, and Pte. Dawson then proceeded to make a voluntary statement, which he signed and I witnessed. This statement is attached to this Summary of Evidence, and I recognize its contents. Following the signing of the statement, Pte. Dawson was ~~returned~~ placed in Unit Guard Room and Capt. Poulter and myself returned to Company H.Q. I then went to Dorking Police H.Q., arriving there at approximately 0200 hrs. 9 July 41., and laid the facts before the police sergeant on duty, whose name I do not know. He got in touch with Leatherhead Police immediately by telephone as Walton-on-the-Hill is in the Leatherhead Police district. I then returned to my billet and was informed later in the morning by P/C Cooper, Walton-on-the-Hill, that they, the Police, had apprehended James Dennis Archer, Royal Mail, Lochiel Rest, Ashurst Drive, Boxhill, purchaser of the petrol, and they had also the driver of car FGP-342, Ronald Sidney Peachey, who had an address in London, and also Headley Hights, Lochiel Rest, Boxhill. P/C Cooper informed me that these two men had made statements to him. These statements I read myself."

EIGHTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — NO. B84308, L/CPL. GILL, T.W., 1st. Cdn. Troop Carrying Coy., RCASC., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am L/Cpl. i/c Petrol for "C" Section, 1st. Cdn. Troop Carrying Coy., RCASC. On the afternoon of 8 July 41, Pte. Dawson, whom I now recognize, drew 4 two-gallon tins of petrol for his lorry No. L7665807. When he returned with the cans he returned two 2-gallon petrol cans, and two 2-gallon oil cans. I checked up on his lorry on the following day, 9 July 41, and found it still needed petrol. I put 4 gallons to completely refill the tank. At the same time I took the log book of the vehicle in question and checked the former consumption of petrol and found that the lorry was averaging 11½ miles per gallon. Pte. Dawson on the previous day had put 8 gallons into the tank reputedly, and this plus the 4 gallons which I put into the tank on the 9 July 41, making a total of 12 gallons, made an average for the last trip registered of 48 miles at 4 miles per gallon. The following figures were taken by me from log book of this vehicle. ~~xxxxxx~~

Original Speedometer reading when lorry taken by this Unit --	478
Reading before 8 July 41 --	1280
Miles Run	802
Petrol drawn up to 8 July 41	70	gals.
Average miles per gallon	11½
Speedometer reading 8 July 41	1280	miles.
" " after trip 8 July 41	1328	"
Miles Run	48
Petrol drawn by Pte. Dawson 8 July 41 after trip (48 miles)	8	gals.
Petrol necessary to fill tank 9 July 41 (no trip)	4	gals.
Total	12	gals.

Average for 48 mile trip - 4 miles per gallon.

Summary of Evidence - Pte. Dawson C.

EIGHTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION (CONTINUED)

Question: How did you know that I returned two 2 gallon Oil-cans in place of Petrol Cans.

Answer: When you returned the cans to me, you brought them into the garage, and I told you to leave them outside, as I intended to go to the Fuel Pumps to reload. The first four cans in the lot outside when I started to load the lorry to go to the pumps were the four cans you returned. I at one noticed that two of these cans were oil and not petrol cans.

I cautioned him and he volunteered a statement. This statement is attached to this Summary of Evidence. Mr Archer went to the rear of his residence and brought out two petrol cans both full of petrol. These cans are produced. The two statements mentioned above were read to the accused by me in the presence of Capt. D.C. TENTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

J.D. ARCHER, CIVILIAN, LOCHIEL REST, ASHURST DRIVE, BOXHILL ROAD, having been duly sworn, states:

"This is the second statement that I have made. The first one having been made to P/C Cooper. I now wish to have the original statement amended as hereunder.

About 7 P.M. on the evening of 8 July 41, Mr. Frank Buck of Walton-on-the-Hill approached me to collect some shopping. These were some things which I had purchased for him due to local shortage. Conversation between us then turned to shortages in general, and cigarettes and petrol in particular. He left the impression with me during this discussion that he knew a Canadian who could possibly supply me with some Canadian cigarettes, and that this same person could supply me with some petrol if I cared to call at an address which he described to me. This description was as follows: - some Council houses on the left hand side of Chequers Lane, just this side of the Chequers Public House and the number was No. 3. For some hours I thought no more of this until about 9.30 P.M. when I was assisting a friend to repair a puncture. I then asked this friend if he would drive me to Walton-on-Hill, and he agreed. We then proceeded to the house above described. We stopped outside No. 3 and I walked up the path, and a soldier came towards the gate to meet me. Conversation between us at first was general and I do not remember our exact words. I offered this soldier a cigarette, which he refused, and I asked him then if he had any cigarettes which he could spare. He said, "No". He then said that if we would take him to N.C. where he wished to arrange some personal business, he had 4 gallons of petrol which he would sell me. We drove to the spot where the soldier got out of the car and went into a building, afterwards coming out again and telling us to drive on a bit further. We then stopped again and the soldier left the car, returning after a few minutes with a tin of petrol. He left us again for a few minutes and returned once more with a two-gallon tin of petrol. We then drove to the junction of the road where we originally met the soldier, and Chequers Lane. He got out of the car and we drove off. I paid this soldier 8 shillings for the petrol which he had given me. This soldier I now recognize as the man standing beside me."

F.B.Buck,CIVILIAN,WHITE COTTAGE,BOXHILL,having been duly sworn,states:

"Somewhere about the beginning of the week of 5 July 1941.Private Dawson,who stands beside me,mentioned he had a number of cigarettes and was I interested. I said "No" as I was a non-smoker. Last Tuesday, 8 July 1941. Private Dawson came into my shop on Chequers Lane, Walton-on-the-Hill, and asked about his wife's new ration book. It was at this time that he mentioned about petrol. I said I was not interested as I had enough of my own. That was all there was to that interview. There were a number of other people in the shop at this time these people being my assistants and they may or may not have heard what had been said. That same evening I had occassion to go to Mr. Archer's house to collect some shopping which his wife had done for mine. During the conversation that I had while I was there,the shortage of supplies was brought up and I told him that I thought he would be able to get some cigarettes from No.3. Howard Close,and that also the fellow had offered me some petrol that afternoon. No.3. Howard Close being the address of Private Dawson and he also being the "fellow" referred to in the preceeding paragraph. That is all my evidence".

A Canadian Soldier, whom I now recognize as the soldier standing beside me,came to the Box and asked me where my mate was. I asked him to whom he referred and he answered "The other officer who wanted cigarettes". As there are nine different reliefs posted to that Box during twenty-four hours and since the Officer could not be identified by me,I purchased the cigarettes, fourteen packages at one shilling and six pence a package. There is nothing further I can add to this testimony".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions where accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than as mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 663(a).)

B 18427 Spr. Dawson, F.E. having been duly sworn states:-

I went to the Company in February as a driver and was a driver for about a month when I was taken off driving. I asked for a transfer to 2 Delivery Coy but didn't get it. I was put on fatigues and I asked for another transfer. I was on late pass and I missed the train one night and I was in the washroom, I stepped out for a moment and when I came back my watch was lost. I asked for a kit inspection and was refused. I went to the Sgt Major and asked for a parade to the O.C. but was refused. I reported the lost watch to the police in Dover. I left Dover to come here and went to London to look for my watch. I understood that you could not be refused a parade to the O.C. I have volunteered for overseas draft. I tried to get on draft to Italy before when I was in C.G.R.U. and had spoken to the officer. I had been in camp all the time but I missed the draft to Italy. I still want to go on draft. My mother sent the watch to me and thats why I valued it so much. It was a very expensive watch.

Corporal H. O. Dawson has been in the H.L.I. for four years. He has an excellent record with only one minor crime against his character. His wife wrote several letters saying that she was quite ill, and at the time she was pregnant. At last she told him that the doctor had advised her to have someone responsible person by her side. Cpl Dawson felt it to be imperative to go to her and since his application for special leave had been refused there was only one alternative. At the time he left his unit he had not been told that leaving his unit would be considered as desertion SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of No A37333 Cpl. Harold George Dawson, HLI of C, charged with absenting himself without leave.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

The rights of the accused in relation to the taking of the summary of evidence are explained to him.

No A37314 Sgt A W Lantz, HLI of C, having been duly sworn states:

I produce herewith Part II Order No 24 dated 30 May 1944 and I identify the accused as the Cpl H.G. Dawson to whom the same refers. At 1300 hrs 3 Jun 44 I was on duty at A-22 Camp, when the accused surrendered himself to me as an absentee without leave. I have been continuously present with the unit since 14 May 44 and know that the accused has been continuously absent.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Question to the Accused

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence.

Answer by the Accused

I wish to give evidence on oath.(having been duly sworn states) I had been getting letters from my wife stating that she was not feeling well during her pregency, due to high blood pressure. She could not keep her food down, and was sick at her stomach and sweating each day. From that I decided that she needed my assistance and I went immediately to her. My wife is living with her mother, who goes out each day to work. She said that she had been to the doctor, who had told her she should have someone stay with her. I decided to stay with my wife. She was very nervous and excited, and the air raids and ack-ack continually upset her. Before I returned I took my wife to Dr.Ivor Kingsley, 100 Rugby Road, Brighton., whose statement is attached. Lieut. G.R.Reid
Officer detailed to take the Summary

Pte Dawson joined up with the Perth Regt in 1939 and in April 1940 was boarded out as category "C". Pte Dawson disliked the Army and wanted to do his part for his country so on Aug 9, 1940 he joined the R.A.N. at Cockburn where he became an A.B.S. In Sept. 1942 he volunteered for overseas service. I do not think there can be any reason ..... why a man who is so determined to do his duty for his country

Pte Dawson has applied several times for a transfer to the R.C.A.F. where he has type of work. His application was turned down and as many of us would have been very disappointed and fed up. Pte Dawson did a foolish thing but ~~and~~ has admits that he did wrong, and, is willing to take his punishment

Due to Pte Dawson past record which has been good I ask the court to be as lenient as they possibly can A5 - Not guilty, sir.

Prosecutor - On or about the 29th -30th March the accused, Dawson, came under suspicion and was placed in custody and an investigation carried out and these charges laid. The prosecution will attempt to prove by the evidence adduced that Dawson did steal this greatcoat that was found in his possession and that he was seen taking the coat. Regarding the suits of battledress, that was found in his kit.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for the prosecution, M-36707, C.S.M. Coogan, J.C., No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q6 - You are Sgt. Major J.C. Coogan, No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit?
A6 - Yes, sir.
Q7 - Of which company?
A7 - Headquarters Company.
Q8 - On the morning of the 30th March there was a report made to you?
A8 - Yes, sir.
Q9 - Will you tell the Court what it was?
A9 - On the morning of the 30th part of my men made a complaint that their lines had been ransacked and articles of clothing and personal equipment taken away, greatcoats, money, pay-books, medals and other personal property. We have only found the greatcoat, sir.
Q10 - What happened on the 1st April?

A10 - On the 1st April at 1600 hours the orderly corporal told me that that Pte. Fairhurst had recognized his greatcoat in possession of Pte. Hawley. Pte. Hawley was escorted to the orderly room and a statement taken as to where he had got the greatcoat. He was placed under close arrest and handed to me the money belt and pencil and pen. A11 - Yes, sir.
Q12 - And you had Pte. Hawley placed under arrest?
A12 - Yes, sir.

A13 - Not on Hawley; Hawley was wearing it in my orderly room.
Q14 - You examined it and found that it was Pte. Fairhurst's?
A14 - Yes, sir.
Q15 - But as far as Dawson was concerned he didn't come into it. You don't know of your own knowledge that Pte. Dawson came into it at all?
A15 - No, sir.

A19 - I did, sir.
Q20 - Whom did you buy it from?
A20 - Pte. Dawson, sir.
Q21 - In this court?
A21 - Yes, sir.
Q22 - The accused?
A22 - Yes, sir.
Q23 - Will you tell the Court what happened in respect of the greatcoat?
A23 - Dawson asked if I would like to buy a greatcoat as mine was slightly too big and I traded in my greatcoat and ten shillings for the greatcoat.
Q24 - What happened next?
A24 - Well, next I was wearing it around camp and Pte. Fairhurst recognized it and he said it was his greatcoat and I said he would have to prove it and he called the regimental police and the regimental orderly sergeant and took me to Sgt. Major Coogan's office and Sgt. Major Coogan put me in detention, sir.
Q25 - Is this the greatcoat you purchased from Dawson?
A25 - Yes, sir, that is the one.

The prosecutor presents in evidence one greatcoat which is accepted by the Court.

Q27 - How do you know it is the greatcoat?
A27 - Pte. Fairhurst's name is on it.
Q28 - Don't all greatcoats look exactly alike?
A28 - Yes, sir.
Q29 - Then you don't know if it is the greatcoat. Can you swear it is the greatcoat?
A29 - Not until I see his name.
Q30 - Why did you buy it?
A30 - Because I liked the style and mine was too big.

Q31 - Did you examine it?

Q32 - You didn't see any marks?
A32 - No, sir.
Q33 - Did you look it over carefully?
A33 - Yes, sir.
Q34 - And there were no marks on it?
A34 - No, sir.
Q35 - When they took the greatcoat from you when you were arrested how did they prove it belonged to Pte. Fairhurst?
A35 - On the little size tag Fairhurst's name was in very small writing.
Q36 - But you didn't see it when you bought it?
A36 - No, sir.

Re-examination by the prosecutor.

Q37 - Will you examine the coat and see if you can find the identification marks you have just said were on it?
A37 - Yes. (Indicates to the Court)
Q38 - That is the coat you bought from Pte. Dawson?
A38 - Yes, sir.

Re-examination by the defending officer.

Q39 - That mark, is it in quite a prominent place?
A39 - Yes, sir.
Q40 - You can see it easily can't you?
A40 - If you look closely, sir.

Third witness for the prosecution, H-16766, Pte. Fairhurst, E., No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q41 - Will you give to the Court your number, name and rank, please.

A42 - Yes, sir.
Q43 - In what barrack rooms were you at that time?
A43 - E-1, sir.
Q44 - On the 29th-30th March did you lose your greatcoat?
A44 - Yes, sir, I did.
Q45 - Had you had the greatcoat the night before?

Q46 - Had you been out the night before; the 29th March?
A46 - Yes, sir.
Q47 - Where?
A47 - Godalming.
Q49 - When did you return to camp?
A49 - Nine forty-five.
Q50 - 2145 hours?
A50 - Yes, sir.
Q51 - Had you had your greatcoat in Godalming?
A51 - Yes, sir.
Q52 - You took it there and brought it home with you?
A52 - Definitely.
Q53 - What did you do then?
A53 - I booked in at the orderly room and went to the barrack room and sat around until eleven p.m. and retired. The lights were put out and that was all I knew until reveille next morning.
Q54 - Where had you left the greatcoat?
A54 - At the head of my bed. My greatcoat had disappeared the following morning and I made a report to the orderly room to the orderly sergeant that the greatcoat had been stolen.
Q55 - When did you next see your greatcoat?
A55 - At 1730 hours on Tuesday, April 1st.
Q56 - What transpired then?
A56 - I was on duty in the men's kitchen in No. 2 mess and Pte. Hawley happened to come back to talk to one of the assistants and I recognized the overcoat. After I recognized the overcoat I asked the N.P. to detain the party in question until I notified my orderly room to see what was to be done, and the orderly sergeant took the party, with the coat, to the orderly room for further questioning.

Q57 - Did you identify the greatcoat?
A57 - I did.
Q58 - How did you identify it?
A58 - By my name written some months ago on the size tag on the right hand side inside the coat.
Q59 - Is this the coat taken from Pte. Hawley? (Shows witness Exhibit 1)
A59 - Yes, sir, that is it.

Cross-examination by the defending officer.

Q60 - Am I right in supposing, Pte. Fairhurst, that all you really know about this case is that you hung the greatcoat up at night and went to sleep and it was gone the next morning. Later you were told they had found a greatcoat and you went to the guard-room and identified it?
A60 - I recognized it on the individual.
Q61 - And you had Pte. Hawley arrested?
A61 - Yes, sir.
Q62 - You don't know how it got away from you?
A62 - No, it was just missing until I found it on Pte. Hawley.

A69 - At the time, sir.
Q70 - Where is his bed from yours?
A70 - The room is partitioned off and there are four double bed in each partition and his was the next partition, the other side of the next partition, on the opposite side of the room.

Q71 - Will you tell us what happened that night?
A71 - On the night of the 29th-30th March I was awakened about two o'clock by someone opening the door and I heard someone going in and then they stood in the middle of the floor about half way between Fairhurst's and my bed. I don't know who it was, and he went to Fairhurst's bed and lit matches and came back again. I sleep close to the door and the bed across from me was where he went and he had a flashlight which didn't stay lit, it would come on and go off right away -- like a poor match. I heard a rustling of papers and asked who he was looking for.

Q72 - Did you challenge this person at all?
A72 - I asked who he was looking for.
Q73 - Did you see him; did you see his face?
A73 - Yes, sir.
Q74 - How did you see that?
A74 - By the flashlight.
Q75 - What time was it then?
A75 - A little past two.
Q76 - Did you know who that person was who was in the hut?
A76 - I didn't know at the time.
Q77 - Did you know later?
A77 - I just came back from school at Aldershot and I just knew one or two of the cooks and the others were all strangers and I thought it was one of the boys I didn't know.
Q78 - Did you later recognize the person in the hut that night?
A78 - Later.

Q79 - Where was that?
A79 - I was standing in front of the orderly room of the unit when the parade came.
Q80 - For Colonel's orders?
A80 - They were in front of the unit orderly room.
Q81 - What happened then?
A81 - I identified the man I saw in the room.
Q82 - Who was that person you identified as being the man in your hut?
A82 - It's that man there. (Indicates the accused)
Q83 - Were there any other people standing around when you identified him as being in your hut?
A83 - I think either five or six.

Cross-examination by the defending officer.

Q84 - When this door opened in your hut, were you awake or asleep?
A84 - About half asleep. I sleep close to the door and when someone opens or closes the door I can hear them; but I was pretty well asleep.
Q85 - When you did wake up you were rather groggy weren't you? Everyone is a little groggy at first aren't they? Especially if the room is dark. You know what I mean -- sleepy.
A85 - I am not a man to sleep very much.
Q86 - You didn't wake right up with a jump did you? You were likely sleepy and groggy, weren't you?
A86 - I was pretty well awoke that night because a few of the boys came in before that and I heard the boys going to bed.
Q87 - You wouldn't think much of the door opening if you were expecting people to come in. You would be awake but not paying much attention.
A87 - I would at that time for anybody to come around.
Q88 - I am talking about when you were awakened by the door. When the door opened and the fellow walked in you would be sleepy wouldn't you?
A88 - I wasn't sleepy.
Q89 - Yet you were sound asleep before?
A89 - The door woke me up; I heard the door open and close again.
Q90 - You knew what was going on but you were half asleep weren't you?
A90 - It all depends.....
Q91 - Don't hedge, answer yes or no.
A91 - Some times I have felt that way, but other times I am wide awake.
Q92 - That night did you suddenly wake up wide awake or were you sleepy?
A92 - I awoke enough to see and hear things what was going on.
Q93 - Then you say the man went over with matches?
A93 - Yes, after he passed about two beds from me.
Q94 - Then a flashlight?
A94 - No, he stopped for a while, a few seconds, and went on to the next bed.
Q95 - When you called on him he lit his flashlight?
A95 - That was on the way back
Q96 - But you didn't when he lit the matches?
A96 - No.
Q97 - Why didn't you ask when he lit the matches.
A97 - I thought it was someone trying to find his way in the dark and I called him when I thought he had been there long enough.
Q98 - You were awake enough to observe anyone; you could see their form and see it fairly well?
A98 - Not when he was going in, when he stopped about the centre I could see a cap just like mine.
Q99 - When you called out, how far away was he from you?
A99 - The width of a door and a brick wall on each side of the door for a certain length, about three feet.
Q100 - Did he have the flashlight on then?
A100 - It would go on and off.
Q101 - Then what?
A101 - I heard the noise of the locker and heard the paper rustling. I sat up in bed to see if it was one of the boys who belonged to the bed.
Q102 - How was the light shining?
A102 - It was a dim light.
Q103 - Held out from his body?
A103 - In the front I think; anyway, I didn't see the light but I could see his face.
Q104 - Plainly?
A104 - Yes, sir.
Q105 - But it was a dim light.
A105 - It would go off and on; it would stay on a second or so.

Q106 - You mean to say that it was a dim light and he was some distance away from you....Was he facing you?
A106 - Sideways.
Q107 - And yet you could, in that light that wasn't bright, you could positively swear that you could identify that man?
A107 - By looking at him from the side I could.
Q108 - In the half light?
A108 - I could tell the shape of his face.
Q109 - But it would be very vague in a half light; the shape of anybody's face is vague, you can't get a sharp outline.
A109 - I think you can get a better look at him sideways than looking straight at him.
Q110 - These men on the Colonel's orders; you say there were five or six?
A110 - Yes, sir.
Q111 - Were they all dressed alike?
A111 - Yes, they were all dressedalike.
Q112 - They all had hats on did they?
A112 - Well I don't remember if they had hats on now. I think two had no hats on.
Q113 - The man you picked out, did he have a hat on?
A113 - No.
Q114 - Did the man in the hut the night before have a hat on?
A114 - That man came in with a hat when I noticed him when he stopped about half way in between my bed and the other end.
Q115 - When you identified the accused, did he have side arms; belt and bayonet?
A115 - No, sir.
Q116 - Did the others?
A116 - Not that I know of.
Q117 - None of them?
A117 - Except the guards.
Q118 - Were there guards?
A118 - Two guards.
Q119 - They were all together in the five or six?
A119 - Yes, sir.
Q120 - You knew the guard had prisoners then, didn't you? You knew the group of men were prisoners with a guard and knew they were going to the Colonel's office?
A120 - I didn't notice them going in?
Q121 - You knew what they were there for?
A121 - I had an idea.
Q122 - Did you know someone had been arrested for stealing a greatcoat?
A122 - I heard something about it.
Q123 - Did you hear the name?
A123 - I heard more than one but I didn't know who it was at the time.
Q124 - But you knew it would be one of those men?
A124 - I figured one of them, but I didn't know for sure because when I went there for a few minutes before there was another parade ahead.
Q125 - You knew he would be in one of those groups?
A125 - I didn't know for sure.
Q126 - You still say that you woke wide awake as soon as the door opened? Did you wake up or did you not -- wide awake? You are positive about the man, you should remember that.
A126 - I was awake, I remember that.
Q127 - Did you wake up every time somebody came in that night?
A127 - There might have been some others, but I heard two or three come in.
Q128 - And you woke right up when they came in?
A128 - I heard them going to bed and undressing.
Q129 - Don't you think that anyone coming in to steal something would come in quietly and would be gentle in closing the doors so you wouldn't be wakened up? Don't you think that? Don't you think that if somebody were coming in to steal something they would open the door gently so as not to waken anybody up? That is a natural thing, isn't it?
A129 - Yes.
Q130 - And this man that came in opened and closed the door to such an extent you were wide awake?
A130 - I was easy awakened that night.
Q131 - You were wide awake immediately? Just say whether you were or not. I think you can answer that question.
A131 - I must have been pretty well awake.

Fifth witness for the prosecution, Lieut. K.D. Wilson, No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q132 - Your name and rank, please?
A132 - Lieut. K.D. Wilson, No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit.
Q133 - Your duties in that unit are what?
A133 - Training officer and also security officer.
Q134 - Was there reported to you any thefts on or about 29-30 March?
A134 - There was a series.
Q135 - Did you investigate them?
A135 - I did.
Q136 - Do you know the accused?
A136 - Pte. Dawson, yes.
Q137 - Did you investigate..... Did he come under suspicion during your investigation?
A137 - He did.
Q138 - Will you tell the Court exactly in what manner?
A138 - There was a series of thefts in the camp and Dawson's name came to my attention in connection with a greatcoat stolen and purchased by Pte. Hawley. In investigating this I interviewed Dawson who told me that he had picked it up at the Half Moon Hotel at a quarter to ten just before closing time Defending Officer - Before we get any further statement I would ask whether Lieut. Wilson was investigating this in the role of a police officer.

Witness - Security is a broad term. Regimental security has to do in general with the morale of the troops. Thefts are considered as a dangerous threat to the morale of the troops. I was not acting as a provost.

Defending Officer - I would like to make a submission that this is a statement being brought in as being made by the accused and he should give evidence that the accused was warned in the usual manner.

Witness - This is a voluntary statement.

Defending Officer - I submit, sir, a voluntary statement cannot be accepted in court unless the accused was warned.

President - We cannot accept the statement of Dawson in this case from Mr. Wilson.

Q139 - Did you search Pte. Dawson's kit, Mr. Wilson?
A139 - I did.
Q140 - What did you find there?
A140 - In company with Pte. Deegan I went through Dawson's kit and found three suits of battle dress over and above what were issued to him.

Cross-examination by the defending officer.

Q141 - What condition were these suits of battle dress in?
A141 - In what way?
Q142 - Were they used?
A142 - Used.
Q143 - Were they in fairly good condition or poor condition?
A143 - All wearable.
Q144 - By wearable I would like to get your definition; do you mean they could possibly be worn for a parade?
A144 - As I recall, one would be quite passable for training parade such as ground work and the other two if brushed up would be passable for parade. They were all crumpled up and rolled up and the average battle dress after three weeks with the man is not considered formal attire.
Q145 - Were they covered with paint or grease?
A145 - I believe there is grease on one; I wouldn't be sure.

Re-examination by the prosecutor.

Q146 - I have three suits of battle dress, can you identify these as the ones found in Dawson's kit?
A146 - I couldn't possibly identify them at this stage as they have not been in my possession.
Q147 - Do you know where they have been?
A147 - Every safeguard was taken. They have been in the lock-up at the guard-room and from there removed to the cupboard in the Colonel's room under lock and key where they were under protection at all times.

The prosecutor presents to the Court three suits of battle dress which the Court accepts in evidence, marking them Exhibits 2, 3 and 4.

- How did you know it?
- I was told the bed he stayed in and the room he occupied and I cleaned out his locker.
. Was his kit bag marked in any way by which you could identify it?
. One kit bag and pack were marked.

fending officer declines to cross-examine this witness.

know Pte. Dawson, sir.
e accused?
s, sir.

Q173 - Were you detailed to search his kit?
A173 - No, sir.
Q174 - Did you have anything to do with the searching of his kit?
A174 - Not with the search, sir.
Q175 - Did you have anything to do with his kit when it was produced search?

Q176 - How many suits of battle dress were found in his kit, do you know A176 - Five suits, I think, sir.
Q177 - I produce here a certified copy of Pte. Dawson's M.F.C. 800. Is that a correct copy of his 800?
A177 - Yes, I think.....
Q178 - I want you to know.
A178 - I know it is.
Q179 - It is a true copy of his 800?
A179 - Yes, sir.
Q180 - He had only been issued with two suits of battle dress?
A180 - Yes, sir.

Cross-examination by the defending officer.

Q181 - You are sure there were five suits of battle dress?
A181 - Yes, sir. Whether it was counting the one on Dawson and four in the kit bag I don't remember. There were five altogether I know.
Q182 - How do you remember? He might have been wearing fatigue clothes; he was not necessarily wearing his battle dress, was he? Are you sure of the number?
A182 - Yes, sir.
Q183 - Is there any record of him having bought any suits of battle dress?
A183 - Not to my knowledge.
Q184 - Would you know?
A184 - Yes, sir.
Q185 - And he didn't buy any suits?
A185 - No, sir.

The case for the prosecution is closed.

Defending Officer - I would like to submit, sir, with regard to the first charge and the alternative charge, charge number two, I would submit that the prosecution has failed to connect Dawson with the stealing and the possession of the greatcoat. With regard to the stealing, Fairhurst saw no-one take the coat. He hung the coat up and went to sleep and it was gone when he woke up. Then the private who was asleep and was awakened by the door opening and closing, Pte. Barrette, quite evidently was beating about the bush. He isn't sure what went on that night. He didn't see the person who went by so he could recognize him. It was a very poor light and he had a flashlight held in front and he saw him sideways and from seeing him in a dim light with his hat on he could recognize him the following day at Colonel's orders without a hat. That isn't identification. If you know there is somebody there and he is supposed to have done a thing you can invariably pick him out. He couldn't have a good look in a dark room. That is allthe identification connecting Dawson with the greatcoat. Hawley examined the coat very carefully and he didn't see any name in it or any identification marks although all he did now was to turn out the white tab with the size of the greatcoat on it. The natural thing for a person buying a greatcoat would be to look at the size and Fairhurst's name was on the tag. If it was Fairhurst's greatcoat the name would be on there and he would have noticed it. Dawson has not been connected in any way. I think the next two charges should be withdrawn. It is my prerogative to make a motion for dismissal and you shall rule on it and if you say the charges haven't been proven I don't have to call evidence.

President - I am not going to throw it out; you can call evidence.

Q186 - Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A186 - Yes, sir.
Q187 - Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A187 - Yes, sir.
Q188 - Is he a witness as to character only?
A188 - Both as to character and fact.

First witness for the defence, H-16866, Pte. Doig, H.A., No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q189 - Do you know the accused?
A189 - Yes, sir.
Q190 - Do you remember the evening, Saturday evening, the 29th March this year?
A190 - Yes, sir.
Q191 - Will you tell the Court what you can remember about that evening? As it relates to the accused.
A191 - We went to the Half Moon Pub on the corner and just before leaving the pub Dawson found his greatcoat missing and there was another one lying on the bench by the window and there was nobody owning it and he took it figuring someone had taken it in mistake.
Q192 - How was Pte. Dawson dressed when you arrived at the Half Moon?
A192 - Properly dressed with his greatcoat and respirator.
Q193 - Would you recognize the greatcoat he took?
A193 - I believe so, sir.
Q194 - Could you identify it or not if I showed it to you?
A194 - I think I could.
Q195 - Is that the greatcoat Pte. Dawson had? (Shows witness exhibit)
A195 - I think it is. It was a coat the same as this one, a short coat.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q196 - You recognize the coat because it is a short coat?
A196 - Partly, sir, yes.
Q197 - Any other reason?
A197 - It had the Canada flashes on it.
Q198 - A lot of greatcoats have it on.
A198 - A lot have the regimental crest also.
Q199 - There are probably several thousand short greatcoats in the Canadian Army with Canada flashes on?
A199 - Yes, I suppose.
Q200 - How can you swear definitely?
A200 - I didn't say I could swear; I have said I thought it was the coat.

Second witness for the defence, H-16103, Pte. Slater, J.A., No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q201 - Do you know the accused?
A201 - Yes, sir.
Q202 - Do you remember the evening of Saturday, March 29th, this year?
A202 - Yes, sir.
Q203 - Will you tell the Court what you can remember about that insofar as it relates to the accused?
A203 - That evening we went to the pub up the road, to the Fox and Hounds, and I met Dawson there, and when we were coming away he had lost his greatcoat and found another on the bench.
Q204 - When did you arrive at the inn with relation to Pte. Dawson?
A204 - I couldn't say what time.
Q205 - Was it before or after?
A205 - He was there when we got there.
Q206 - And you left with him did you?
A206 - Yes, sir.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q207 - This was on the night of the 29th-30th March, Slater?
A207 - Yes, sir, I don't remember the exact date.
Q208 - What time?
A208 - Approximately nine or eight-thirty.
Q209 - Where was it?
A209 - The Fox and Hounds.

Q209 - (Defending Officer) Sir, I would like to clear up this point. I think the witness is getting the pub mixed up with a place near where he is stationed now. Will you think carefully of the name of the pub?
A210 - The Half Moon.
Q211 - Where is the Fox and Hounds?
A211 - Where we are stationed at Godstone.
Q212 - But at this time you were up here?
A212 - Yes, sir.

Defending Officer - I would have liked to have called another witness, but unfortunately he is in the field punishment camp and yesterday afternoon I visited there in an attempt to get him to come down as a witness but they wouldn't release him and so I took a statement according to the rules of procedure. I have warned the prosecutor and I am not sure of the form, but I will submit it as it is.

Prosecutor - Under what rule of procedure is that submitted?

President - I will confirm the fact in any event.

The defending officer submits in evidence a statement made by P-22264, Pte. Freeman, J.D., No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, and this statement is accepted by the Court in evidence.

Third witness for the defence, Lieut. J. Stewart Townsend, No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q213 - Do you know the accused?
A213 - Yes, I have known him since January, 1940.
Q214 - Would you tell the Court what you know about his character?
A214 - At no time during the time I have known Dawson has anything occurred to make me feel that he would be inclined to steal. He was the batman to an officer in my company and we were billeted in the same building and barracks and on manoeuvres and schemes. Our equipment and personal belongings were at all times around and at no time did anything happen which would indicate that Dawson had taken anything or was involved in anything being taken.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q215 - How long is it since Dawson was with your company?
A215 - The last I recall of Dawson was in August, 1940.

Fourth witness for the defence, H-16040, Pte. Dawson, J.P., No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q216 - Will you tell the Court in your own words just how you explain the greatcoats and suits of battle dress.
A216 - Yes, sir. On the evening of the 29th we went down to the Half Moon a short distance from the camp. I went with Doig and it was about ten minutes to nine when we left and I looked for my greatcoat and there was only one available coat and I asked the others if they had my greatcoat on and there were no Pats in there and I was under the impression somebody had taken my coat in mistake. I looked for Edmonton Regiment or Seaforth flashes on the one I took but there was no way I could tell and I had thought I would be able to take it to their company offices. The coat was too short for me and I exchanged it with Pte. Hawley but did not take any money from him. I had borrowed money from Hawley but not at the time and I gave a chit and the only way I could get the money was to say that I owed Hawley tensnillings.
Q217 - Will you explain the battle dress.
A217 - With regard the battle dress, I was in detention and a trustee there and during that time there was an old tunic which had been around the boiler room for some time and I was told I could have it and that no-one owned it and there was one suit left on the rear guard at Bordon at the time we moved to Witley Camp and then there was a suit I had borrowed from Doig. That gave me four suits. About the pair of pants, I exchanged a pair of trousers for an Australian pair. This Australian was going East and asked me for a pair of pants I had in exchange for his and as his were good I exchanged with him. That is how I came in possession of them. The others were all left behind and I have made quite a few moves and there has been quite a lot of stuff left behind. My reason for picking up this stuff was that I would rather have the serge for fatigue in the cold weather and I like to keep two suits clean at all times. That is about all I would like to say as to how I became in possession of those uniforms there.

Prosecutor - Cross-examination.

Q216 - Regarding the battle dress, Dawson, Did you pick up two suits at Bordon?
A216 - Yes, sir.
Q219 - And that is one that is here?
A219 - Yes, sir.
Q220 - Did you pick it up in the huts?
A220 - Yes, sir. There were quite a few in the huts left behind.
Q221 - They were army battle dress?
A221 - Yes, sir.
Q222 - You realize you should have turned it in to stores? I was A222 - I didn't know at the time it had to be turned in to stores. I was under the impression anyone throwing it away would have to pay for it.
Q223 - Anything you find in the way of army property you don't keep do you?
A223 - No, sir, this was old stuff.
Q224 - This at Bordon had never been issued to you?
A224 - No, sir.
Q225 - It was not a suit?
A225 - I got the pants at one hut and the tunic at another.
Q226 - The second suit, where did you get it?
A226 - From Pte. Doig.
Q227 - And the tunic you got in the detention barracks boiler room. Who gave it to you?
A227 - I ddon't like to bring anyone else in. An n.c.o. said he wished it taken out; it was no good to anyone.
Q228 - Regarding the greatcoat, you found it in the Half Moon Inn on the Saturday night?
A228 - Yes, sir.
Q229 - About what time?
A229 - It was about twenty minutes to nine when I found it. I arrived at the billets about ten minutes to nine.
Q230 - That was the greatcoat produced in court?
A230 - Yes, but I have no way of identifying it except it was a short coat.

Closing address by the defending officer.

I would still submit, sir, that the prosecution has not connected Dawson with the stealing of the greatcoat in any way. The evidence, as I said before, of Pte. Barrette, is evidence that cannot be taken as anything very definite at all. He saw a man in the half light and the next morning, or some time later, picked him out of a group of prisoners among whom he knew was the fellow accused of stealing the greatcoat. That is very slim evidence, sir. Then there is Pte. Fairhurst who doesn't know how his coat went missing except it was gone in the morning. Pte. Hawley bought a greatcoat from Dawson and he saw no name on the coat, no identification on the coat, to show that it belonged to Fairhurst. Now he identifies it by Fairhurst's name on the size tag on the coat. I would submit that if it is the same coat he bought he would have seen the name there when he bought it. He says he examined the coat very carefully and I think that is one of the first places anyone would look -- at the size. Otherwise his evidence doesn't amount to anything. That is the only way they attempt to connect Dawson with the greatcoat and I would submit he hasn't been connected on this evidence. He comes forward with a story and has witnesses. He wore a greatcoat to the pub and took his greatcoat off while he drank and when he came to go home his was gone and he saw another beside where his had been and thinking somebody had taken his by mistake he said he would take his, thinking they would be able to trade each other greatcoats. Counting the written evidence handed in there are three witnesses as well as the accused who substantiate that. That is definite evidence and the men are straightforward and tell a simple story in a straight-forward manner. They are not beating about the bush and humming and hawing as though seeing if they will be caught. As far as the battle dress is concerned, Lieut. Wilson says he searched the kit of the accused, Dawson, and in the kit he found three uniforms of battle dress. Then there comes another witness, Pte. Cessford, and he states he got the kit of Pte. Dawson and in the kit were five suits of battle dress. Then we find the next witness, Wilkenson, and he says first of all that Dawson had five suits of battle dress, he thought, and then, when faced with the question, says four suits there. That means out of three witnesses one says the accused had five, the next four, and the last three suits. The suits were described as being in good condition capable of being worn on a parade except one which had grease on it. One of these suits was picked up in the boiler room; one at Bordon when the unit moved and the other was borrowed. He has since been charged with it and the man he borrowed if from has had to buy another suit and he has an extra suit and is being tried by court-martial for having it. I think, sir, these are serious charges on which he is being tried. He most certainly is not connected with the stealing of the greatcoat. They only infer it might be him who took the greatcoat. As far as being in possession of the greatcoat was concerned that was not proven until my submission was turned down and the accused explained why he was in possession. That possession has been explained. I would suggest that the accused be found not guilty on all three charges; they have not been proved.

Closing address by the Prosecutor.

In this case the prosecution has built its case on the logical sequence that Pte. Fairhurst's greatcoat was stolen from his hut. Secondly, Pte. Fairhurst saw Pte. Hawley waaring his coat in the dining room and had him up in front of Sgt.-Major Coogan and proved the coat belonged to Fairhurst to the satisfaction of the sergeant-major and he had Pte. Hawley kept in custody. Hawley explained the possession of the greatcoat in that he had purchased it from the accused now charged before this court-martial; that he had bought it from Dawson on Sunday morning, March 30th. Fairhurst in his evidence stated definitely that he came in at 2145 hours wearing the greatcoat and that he hung it up over his bed and that was the last he saw of it until he saw Hawley wearing it. Barrette, in his evidence, said quite definitely he was awake. The defence asked long-winded questions about whether or not he was awake, but I think he was awake even to the questions and awake enough to identify the accused as the man who was in the hut the night the greatcoat disappeared. The accused had the opportunity of taking the greatcoat and Hawley stated it was the coat he had purchased and there is no question as to the identification and it was definitely identified as belonging to Fairhurst. The coat is traced directly back to Dawson and Dawson says he got it at the Half Moon Inn about eight-thirty or a quarter to nine the previous Saturday evening which seems a hard thing to do when Fairhurst was ~~seen~~ wearing it until a quarter to ten on the same evening.

Regarding the battle dress, one of the witnesses for the prosecution did state that he was not sure whether there was four or five and one said five and another said three extras. He automatically took it for granted he had two suits and three extras which makes five. I believe on the evidence the guilt of the accused has been established.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

Lieut. J. Braden, No. 3 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

We therefore changed greatcoats, my intention was to wear my new coat on church parade. I had no idea that the coat was stolen until Tuesday the 1st April 1941. on that date about 1730 hrs. when I was in the mess hall Pte. Fairhurst stopped me and informed me that I was wearing his greatcoat. I told him that he would have to prove this. He then had the R.P. on duty in the mess hall detain me until he brought the H.Q.Orderly Corporal who escorted me to the H.Q.Orderly Room. After Pte. Fairhurst identified the coat as his property C.S.M. Coogan took the coat from me and placed me in the guard room under arrest.I bought t he money belt from Dawson on 30-3-41 for two packets of cigarettes.The belt is now before me.

Plea of mitigation in the case of H-16090 Pte. Dawson, P.J. of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry on the strength of #1 C.I.R.U.

Sir:

This plea may appear to be a peculiar one for a defending officer to give but when you have heard me through I am firmly convinced that you will agree that I do it in the interests of Pte. Dawson and in the interests of the service. To do full justice I must go back a considerable number of years.

When Pte. Dawson was of a tender age he was placed in an orphanage. In the course of years he became old and strong enough to do manual labour. The orphanage then sent him out to work on a farm but retained their supervision of him. However, when the orphanage authorities made their appearance at the farm he was out in the fields. This farmer was apparently not of the best disposition and, in time, life became unbearable and Pte. Dawson left.

He appealed to an uncle who was working on a merchant ship. This uncle took him on board and found him a job there. Eventually Pte. Dawson became a stoker and had ten years service to his credit. He became interested in a marine school and decided to try and get 4th class stoker's papers which would give him sufficient qualification to obtain a stationary shore job as fireman. He decided to try this and went to Western Canada, to the prairies, to earn the necessary money. He was there when war was declared.

He immediately started East to join a naval service. When he reached Winnipeg he saw a naval barracks and sought the senior officer of the watch. He inquired of this officer about joining the navy. The reply was that at the moment there was nothing doing but when the mobilization order came through they would be most desirous of having him because of his experience. However, whilst waiting around for this to happen Pte. Dawson was seized in the enthusiasm that was rife at the time and joined the army in Sept. 39.

For awhile he was a good man in the army. He had been told a transfer to the naval service could be arranged. But let me show you his record since the first entry on his MFM 6. Since that time he has been sentenced to one year imprisonement with hard labor, 18 months penal servitude and 39 strokes of the birch rod and six months imprisonment with hard labour. Other than this he has received punishments totalling 64 days. Let me sum it up. For 3 yrs 127 days service he has been sentenced to a total of 3 yrs 64 days. Also since that time he has been AWL for a total of 90 days. So it works out that Pte. Dawson since that time spent practically all that time in confinement or AWL.

This to me shows that this man has never been a soldier and it also shows me that he will never be a soldier, through his own volition or through the attempts of some other person or authority. I feel sure that the last three years have meant nothing but expense and trouble to the Government of Canada in so far as Pte. Dawson is concerned. I am also certain that Pte. Dawson has proved only a problem to all with whom he came in contact within the last three years. Therefore, I think it to be an absolute certainty that the army is no life for Pte. Dawson.

In conclusion, Sir, I ask, in the interests of Pte. Dawson and in the interests of the service, that the court will consider these circumstances and arrive at the same conclusion as I that Pte. Dawson be dishonorably discharged. I ask this because continuance of life in the army with its constant repetition of imprisonment will eventually ruin this man. I ask this because whilst so employed he will be nothing but an expense and a problem. I ask this because, if discharged, Pte. Dawson could get a ship and do something useful for both his country and himself -- for his country in finally helping the war effort -- for himself in getting a grip on himslef and becoming a good and useful citizen.

Defending Officer.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of No. H-5085 Gnr. Dawson, W. I., Regimental Headquarters, 3 Fd. Regt., R. C. A.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

No. L-20, L/Sgt. Treadwell, E. K., Regimental Headquarters, 3 Fd. Regt., R. C. A., having been duly sworn, states:

I had breakfast on the morning of the seventh of December, 1942 with Mrs. Hinkinson and her mother. I left the cafe about 0900 hrs. That afternoon I returned to the cafe. Mrs. Hinkinson asked me if I had hidden her lighter as a practical joke. I said "No, I hadn't." She then said there was only one person who could have taken it. She told me of the circumstances why she believed this man had taken the lighter. She said this soldier had come into the cafe shortly after I had gone and had sat in a corner near the table where we had had breakfast. She had left her lighter on the table while she went to serve at the counter. Just then two soldiers came in. Walking back towards the breakfast table with the soldiers she noticed that her lighter had gone. She started to look for it with the help of the two soldiers who had just come in. She said she hadn't wanted to say anything to this man she suspected in case I had hidden it as a joke. I asked her if she knew the name of the man, or could she recognize him if she saw him again. She described him to me in detail and told me she would definitely be able to recognize him if she ever saw him again. She also described the lighter to me in detail. She said it was a Parker Beacon lighter worth about thirty-five shillings. It had an "X" scratched in the wick cover, the sides were engine-turned, the ends plain silver, it had "Parker Beacon" written on the screw at the bottom. I told her I would keep my eye out for the lighter.

On about the 27th of December I again visited the cafe, where I was told by Mrs. Hinkinson that the man she suspected had been in again, and that she found out his name was Dawson. I told her this man was in my section and that I would try to get her lighter back. On 4 Jan 43 I went into the survey room where Dawson was working and saw a lighter on the table beside him. I picked it up and recognized it from Mrs. Hinkinson's description. I asked Dawson where he got the lighter. He said, "I bought it in Scotland." I asked him if he was sure, and he said "Yes." I told him the lighter was stolen property and that I was taking it for awhile. I took the lighter down to Mrs. Hinkinson. She identified it as her lighter without question. I brought the lighter back and laid the whole matter before the R. S. M.

On 5th January I had a talk with Gnr. Dawson alone when he said to me, "I admit taking the lighter."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mrs. Xenia Hinkinson, Little Common, Bexhill-on-Sea, Sussex.

A written statement of this Witness's evidence, purporting to be signed by her has been read to the accused and is included in this Summary of Evidence.

"I am employed at the Two Trees Tea Room in Little Common. On about Monday 7th December 1942, in the morning between 9:00 and 10:00 o'clock, I left my lighter and some cigarettes on one of the tables after having breakfast with Sgt. Treadwell and my mother. At about this time a soldier came in and I proceeded to serve in the shop. I noticed that he went to get a newspaper from that table. When I went back to pick up my lighter it was gone but the cigarettes were still there. Two other soldiers came in about the same time and helped me look for it. Not being able to find it I decided that Sgt. Treadwell might have hidden it as a joke. When I saw Sgt. Treadwell later in the day he told me he did not have the lighter. I told him that the first soldier who had entered must have taken it. The two who helped me look for it could not have taken it because I had noticed it was gone as they came in.

Sgt. Treadwell being informed of my suspicions asked me to try and find out who the man was. A day or two after Christmas the soldier I suspected came in again with several others. I asked one whom I knew, what his name was, and he told me it was Dawson. I told Sgt. Treadwell the man's name was Dawson. I described the lighter to him which I could recognize by the screw in the bottom, which is a different colour than the rest, and it has faint rings around the head of the screw, and I had scratched an "X" in the inside of the cap which covers the wick.

On January 4th Sgt Treadwell brought in a lighter which I positively identified as my own. I estimate the value of the lighter to be about thirty-five shillings.

(Sgd) Xenia Hinkinson "

Having regard to the loss of time involved the attendance of this Witness cannot in my opinion be readily procured.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of No. H-5085 Gnr. Dawson, W.I., Regimental Headquarters, 3rd Fd. Regt. R.C.A.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

No. M-4138 L/Bdr. Hanson, F.A., Regimental Headquarters, 3rd Fd. Regt. R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states;

At about 1315 hours 1 Nov 42, I missed £10 from my wallet. After due consideration I came to the conclusion that the money must have been taken between the hours of 1100 and 1130 as that was the only time up until the time I missed the money that it had been away from my person The matter was reported to the R.S.M. and orderly Officer and a kit inspection followed. There was no reason to suspect anyone up until 29 Dec. 42, when Gnr. Dawson remarked that he had loaned Gnr. Murphy money to go on leave with. I questioned Gnr. Dawson regarding his being able to loan money whereupon he disclosed to me that he had a considerable amount of money loaned to various parties in R.H.Q., also that he had a balance in Post Office savings. I checked on Gnr. Dawsons Post Office book and found that he had deposited £5 two days after my money was stolen. I recalled that Gnr. Dawson had informed me that he had no money around 2nd or 3rd of Nov. 42. I reported what I had found to the R.S.M. whereupon Gnr. Dawson was questioned. On 25th Jan 43, I questioned Gnr. Dawson about the money and he admitted to me that he had taken it and also agreed to pay it back to me which he has done. I reported to the adjutant and repayment was made in his presence.

Questioned by Court.

Q.- As nearly as you remember what words did Gnr. Dawson use in admitting the theft?

A.- I asked Gnr. Dawson if he admitted taking the money-- He said- "Yes, I took it".

The accused having been given the opportunity declines to cross-examine the witness.

No. H-5008 R.S.M. Cairns, R.A., Regimental Headquarters, 3rd Fd. Regt. R.C.A. having been duly sworn, states;

At about 1300 hours 1 Nov 42, I was in my room. I was informed that L/Bdr. Hanson had had a sum of £10 stolen from him. On instruction from Lieut. McIntyre to hold a kit inspection of all personnel in R.H.Q., we immediately carried out an inspection and during that afternoon in company with Lieut. McIntyre we inspected the kits of all personnel. We found no trace of the money. On approx. 25 Jan 43 L/Bdr Hanson reported to me that Gnr. Dawson had admitted to him that he had stolen his money and would pay it back. I immediately took the matter up with the adjutant and told him that Gnr. Dawson had £7 deposited in a Post Office savings account, so I made arrangements with Gnr. Dawson and L/Bdr Hanson to go to the Post Office and withdraw this money. Capt. Clemis, the adjutant, and myself were witnesses to the fact that £7 have been paid back to L/Bdr Hanson, also on Thurs. 28 Jan 43, I was witness to the fact that Gnr. Dawson paid an additional £3 to L/Bdr. Hanson, making a total of £10.

I was also a witness to statement made in the presence of myself and L/Cpl in the R.C.M.P. by Gnr. Dawson in writing in which he admitted the theft.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Captain E.R.Clemis, Adjutant, Regimental Headquarters, 3rd Fd. Regt. R.C.A. having been duly sworn, states;

On 1 Nov 42 it was reported to me that £10 had been stolen from the Survey party room - the property of L/Bdr Hanson. I originated inquiries and search in an attempt to find the guilty person, here efforts failed until around the 1 Jan 43 certain evidence was produced which indicated that Gnr. Dawson was implicated in the disappearance of the £10. I interrogated him and was told by him that he knew nothing about the money. On 25 Jan 43 it was reported to me that Gnr. Dawson had admitted taking the £10. I had the R.S.M. parade Gnr. Dawson before me and in the presence of the R.S.M. I asked Gnr. Dawson if he had any information with reference to the disappearance of the £10, he said "yes - I took the £10 and I will pay it back", " I will draw my seven pounds from the Post Office savings bank and the balance I will receive on pay day from personnel who owe me money". The £10 was paid to L/Bdr Hanson in my presence.

L/Cpl Buckman, R.C.M.P. had also conducted inquiries in this case and he was in my office on the afternoon of 26 Jan 43. I reported to him that Gnr. Dawson had confessed to me and he said he would get a written statement from Gnr. Dawson. He took the statement and turned it in to his superior officer.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) and call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. Nil. (5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Plea in mitigation - Sgt. Hanson, R.J.

Sir:

Sgt Hanson, throughout the investigation of this case, has been direct and frank in every way. He has admitted his error and is willing to accept the consequences of it.

I appreciate that it is not easy for you to come to a decision in the matter of sentence since you have such a very confined field of "badness" in the record of this NCO's character — so confined that there is no such record. There has never been an instance which in any way reflected adversely upon Sgt Hanson's good conduct.

But let us briefly review the known quantities:

First, you can see for yourselves that Sgt Hanson is the type of man who is thoroughly honest and dependable.

Secondly, the two character witnesses whom you have heard bear out and amplify the first. Sgt Hanson has been known to both these witnesses for a considerable time - one before and the other since 1939, and their evidence has, in effect, commended him and shown him to be not only a good citizen but a good soldier.

Thirdly, Sgt Hanson has never been in any trouble since he has been in the army. I myself have known him well since Nov. 1942 and I can, and do, assure you now that there has never been a shadow to dull the shine of the good example he has always set to troops under him.

The statement of character which you have just ~~[illegible]~~ heard records his conduct as being "good." I have been second-in-command of Sgt Hanson's unit since 1942, and in the case of -

No. B85333, Sergeant Wilford James Dawson, of the 10th Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on Active Service.

CHARGE -

1. When on active service absenting himself without leave.

The Commanding Officer directs that evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness

No. K75644, Company Sergeant Major Horace Bridgment, of the 10th Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:-

Sir, I, K75644, Company Sergeant Major Horace Bridgment, did on the morning of 16 January, 1944, despatch the accused, whom I recognize, on a 20 mm Course at the Canadian Training School, Borden, Hants. At the time of despatching the accused I gave him a route card and I told him the place at which the course was to be held, the train he was to leave by, the route he was to go by and also to whom he was to report upon arrival. I also told him that the course terminated on the 29th of January, 1944, and that he was to return to the Company on that date. On the morning of 30th January, 1944, at 0700 hrs I searched the accused's room and the place where he ordinarily works and he was absent. As C.S.M. of the 10th Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, RCASC, I did personally re-establish his absence each morning and evening by visiting his quarters, moreover, since my duties are closely linked with those of the accused I would normally come into contact with the accused many times each day. From the morning of the 16th January, 1944 I did not see the accused at any time until 0700 hrs, 7 February, 1944, at which time I placed the accused under open arrest.

The accused declined to cross-examine. H. Bridgment CSM

Second Witness

No. K75493, Company Quarter Master Sergeant Robert Alfred Gilley, of the 10th Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:-

Sir, I, K75493, CQMS Gilley, R.A., entered my room at 2230 hrs, 6 February, 1944, and saw the accused preparing to go to bed. I share a room with the accused and this was the first I had seen of him since he proceeded on course, on the 16th January, 1944.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

R.A. Gilley

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED -

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

ANSWER BY THE ACCUSED -

I wish to make a statement on oath.

No. 69333, Sergeant Wilford James Dawson, of the 10th Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:-

On the 29th January, 1944, I was returning to my company from a course at Canadian Training School, Bordon, Hants. On arrival in London I found that I had a couple of hours to wait for my train so I went over to a hotel and started drinking. I did not remember leaving the hotel and did not remember anything until the next morning. I took a few more drinks to try and straighten myself out and got into the same condition again as I was on the day before, and carried on in that way for the remainder of the week as far as I can remember. When I finally sobered up I realized what I had done and immediately reported back to my Company on the evening of the 6th of February, 1944.

I certify that Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e) and (f) have been complied with.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

THE ACCUSED, HAVING BEEN DULY SWORN, STATES:-

I have been in the army almost two years, during which period I have had very little trouble. I have always tried to do my job well, and most of my service in the army has been in a mechanical capacity. Captain Todd wanted me to transfer to the Pioneer Corps. I explained to him that I did not want to go, the reason being that the Pioneer Corps is the lowest form of unit in the Army. I asked to go to the Service Corps, but he said I could not go. Then I asked to get para ded to my colonel, and he said I could not go. Then Sjt.-Major Kehoe gave me an order to pick up my kit and go on the truck. I had an idea that I was going to the Pioneer Corps, and I knew that I was taking a risk by refusing to go, but I did not want to go to the Pioneer Corps. I thought I could convince them to let me stay with my unit. When I refused, I was paraded to the guard room. The next morning I was tried by Capt. Todd. I refused his punishment, and wanted to get paraded to my colonel, Colonel Ross of the Postal Corps. I was taken back to the guard room. On May 13th in the morning I was tried by Colonel Spankie, and I refused his punishment. On the morning of the 14th I was tried by Colonel Spankie again, and he said if I went to the Postal Corps immediately, he would not punish me, so I refused that and I had an option to face a court-martial, in order to stay with my unit, or go to the Pioneer Corps, which, I considered, was a fate I did not deserve. I asked to see the colonel again, and was refused. I had a mother to support, and knew that I would be losing money, but I did not want to go to the Pioneer Corps. I wanted to see my colonel again, and was refused. I went to grade 8 in school, I was about 14 years old when I left school, sir. I come from Ashville Manitoba. I am not married. My mother is not getting Dependants' Allowance, but just my assigned pay. Mother and Dad are separated. I have $10.00 assigned to my mother, and $10.00 assigned to my sister. I did a lot of mechanical work after I left school, and in 1939 I worked in a store as clerk. I don't know why they want to transfer me to the Pioneer Corps. I understand it was through a medical board. I am category "A". I have been here 17 months at Farnborough, as mail escort on the truck, and then I went on a driving course to London for a month. I was in charge of the postal transport for about two months after the course. Then I went on driving on the Postal Corps' 30 cwt. truck. I drove until sometime in February. Then I was taken off driving for being charged with speeding, and then I was asked to go to the Pioneer Corps, in February, and I refused. I could not get any Dependants' Allowance for my mother in Winnipeg. My brother is in the Army, and he has assigned pay to my mother. I have two sisters in Winnipeg and one in Toronto, all of whom are helping my mother.

(over)

I think the CSM has been on my neck, and I have never got a good deal from him, and I never could do anything to satisfy him. I don't know why. I think it started before Christmas. He asked me to loan him money, and I refused. He asked me two or three times. I figure that is the reason he is against me. I got along very well with the other people in the unit. I was with the Army Service Corps for three months, I have no idea why they would not let me go back. I went to a mechanical trades-school in Winnipeg, in the Army Service Corps. I did not finish the trades-school, as I wanted to transfer to the Postal Corps, where my brother is. I am a qualified driver, and also qualified at the L.P.T.B. in London, which appears in my pay book.

I think I was pushed around a little by the Sergeant-Major.

I want to say that I don't want to go to the Pioneer Corps. I have been interviewed by the Personnel Selection Board, I saw a slip that Capt. Todd had when he asked me to transfer to the Pioneer Corps, as far as I know it was a medical slip.

When I asked to see the colonel, Capt. Todd said I could not see him. He did not give me any reason why. I asked Col. Spankie about seeing my colonel, and he told me to see my O.C.

(Prosecutor pointed out that in the postal corps, he understands that there is no intermediate rank between Captain Todd and Colonel Ross.)

1ST CHARACTER WITNESS:- H 290 53 S/SJT. GREEN, W., C.R.U. Postal Unit, sworn, states:-

I have known the accused since February, 1942. To the best of my knowledge he has always given good satisfa ction, and is hard working. He has been in the unit as a driver, and for a period he was in charge of the unit transport, in charge of the maintenance. I think he is a good driver. His general reputation is good. I have never had any trouble at all with him.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

2ND CHARACTER WITNESS:- L 7271 A/S/SJT. CHAPMAN, N.C., C.R.U. Postal Unit, sworn, states:-

I have known the accused since he came to the postal corps in February, 1942. He has always performed his duties well, was conscientious, and was not afraid of hard work. All the jobs I gave him he did well. Among his comrades he is well liked, he is honest.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:-

The accused definitely is guilty of the offense charged. He was up twice before Col. Spankie, and refused his punishment, and the last time he was given the option of going to the Pioneer Corps of going up for court-martial. To me that is an indication of good faith, certainly anything but stupidity or being unreasonable, and there is nothing about his attitude that is unreasonable. He is 25 years of age, "A" category, he has a good record, and a good capability for hard work. Most of his work has been mechanical, but above all, he is determined to stay in that part of the army where he will be happy. To my mind, that is all you could ask of a soldier. Why send a man like that to the Pioneer Corps ? I think it would be tragic to send him to the Pioneer Corps, where he would run into more trouble. I think his whole conduct deserves commendation. I think the accused should be somewhere where he will be useful and happy. I think he was justified in doing what he did. Lastly, I think the accused should be given an opportunity to transfer to the Army Service Corps.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF H-65693, PTE. DAWYBIDA,J., of Canadian Reinforcement Units Postal Unit, Canadian Postal Corps, Canadian Army (Overseas).

The Commanding,Officer, Capt. C. Todd, Canadian Reinforcement Units Postal Unit, Canadian Postal Corps, Hammersley Road,North Camp, Aldershot, Hants., directs that the evidence shall be taken on oath.

1st Witness for the Prosecution.

C.97118, C.S.M. Kehoe, W.H., having been duly sworn, states:

I am C.97118, C.S.M. Kehoe, W.H., of Canadian Reinforcement Units Postal Unit. At approximately 1630 hours on 11th May, 1943, I did give to H.65693, Pte. Dawybida, J., a direct order to pick up his kit and accompany me, as he would be going on a truck. Pte. Dawybida made no move to obey my order. About one minute later, I repeated the order to him again; he still did not make any move to obey my order. I then asked him if he did not hear or understand me. He replied: "Yes." I then repeated the order to him to pick up his kit and follow me. When he made no move to accompany me, I asked him was he disobeying my order. He replied by asking me where he was going. I next gave him a direct order to pick up his kit and accompany me, as he would be going on a truck. When he made no move to accompany me, I asked him was he disobeying my order. He replied: "In that case, yes." I then placed him under close arrest and marched him to the unit detention room, of H.Q.,Canadian Reinforcement Units. I then laid a charge against him of disobeying a lawful command.

The accused cross-examined this witness:

Q. Did I say: "In that case,yes"

A. Yes, you did.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

C.97905, Pte. Miller, H.P., having been duly sworn, states:

I am C.97905, Pte. Miller, H.P., of Canadian Reinforcement Units Postal Unit, Canadian Postal Corps. On 11th May 1943, at approximately 1630 hours, in Field Post Office S.C.11, located in the Spider Hut, on Hammersley Road, North Camp, in the accompanyment of C.S.M. Kehoe, I heard Pte. Dawybida refuse to act when ordered by C.S.M. Kehoe to pick up his kit and put it in a waiting truck. The Sergeant Major ordered him three or four times to pick up his kit and go to the truck. Pte. Dawybida insisted that he be told where he was going to. The Sergeant Major ordered him again and Pte. Dawybida's answer was the same. After ordering him two or three more times, there was no response or action so the Sgt. Major placed Pte. Dawybida under close arrest.

Dawybida, and Sgt. Major Kehoe. Sgt. Major Kehoe ordered Pte. Dawybida to pick up his kit and place it on a truck; he ordered him approximately four times to do that. Pte. Dawybida did not do so and he was then asked by the Sgt. Major (Sgt. Major Kehoe) if he had heard the order. He said "Yes." He was ordered once more to pick up his kit, he refused. He was then placed under close arrest.

The accused cross-examined this witness:

Q. What answer did I give Sgt. Major Kehoe to his last order.

A. The approximate words, I do not fully remember all the details, were: "I refuse to obey the order, unless I know where I am going."

The accused was cautioned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath; you are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

I CERTIFY THAT the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of three pages, was taken down by me in writing in the presence of the accused and rules of procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

2nd Witness for Prosecution — 47271 A/S/Sgt. Chapman, M.C. of C.P.C. of C.R.U.

having been duly sworn, states:—

On 15th June 43 I was told to get the accused ready to go to 4 C.H.A.C. about 15 hrs. I ordered him to have his kit ready to go. He refused. I asked him if he understood the order. He answered yes and I asked him if he understood the order. He replied that he again refused. As I placed him under arrest I did not report him to any other person before that he told me that he had refused to go once before and was prepared to refuse again. I was asked by Capt. Tamblyn to get the witness again.

accused ready to go. I came on the accused prepared to leave the accused under arrest if he refused.

Cross-examination

His answer to me was "I can't". About 5 minutes elapsed between the time I told him to get ready and when he was placed under arrest. The accused did nothing in the mean time. It took more than 5 minutes for a man to pack his kit. Capt. Buckland ordered me to tell the accused to get ready. I don't think he told me to take an escort with me. He ordered me to search his kit before
I placed him in confinement.

By the Court I do not think Capt Buckland told me to put the accused under. I did it on my own.

Col Wham for Prosecution

F.5530 Pte. Lakin, H.A.C.F. A.C.P. Cpl. of H.C.A. being lawfully sworn, state:
On 15 Jan 40 I had Chapman give the accused an order. I told him to get his kit ready and be prepared to go. The accused refused to go. Chapman reported after Chapman had told him if he refused the order. It took about 5 min. for the two Chapman told the accused order and the accused an order. I was in the guard at the time by Chapman. I was waiting before this conversation took place. I do not know why Chapman wished me to be there. I was on the events for the accused when he was placed under arrest.

Conversation

Chapman told the accused that a truck would be ready to take him away in a few minutes. I think he was given twenty minutes to pack my kit & make his arrangements.

Mr. Gilson for Prosecution

B/30711 Pte Squire, A.A.C. Ste Post C. of C.R.A. having been duly sworn, states.

On 6th Feb 43 about 1.30 pm I was in the Field Pol Office Chapman ordered the accused to pack his kit and get ready to go to Algiers. The accused refused to do so and he was placed under arrest. I think the accused actually said "I Refuse to obey this order this does not accord to other order". He did not do any thing to carry out the order. Chapman told me to put my name on and I was sup as a witness. This was about 10 min. before the conversation between Chapman and the accused. Just before I entered the place where the accused was he was told they were not going to be posted. Chapman told me I was on as a witness. I was on the events for the accused ~~that time~~ on that day.

At Witness for Defence

The accused having been duly sworn, states:

I have always been avid and ardently reserved just before I arrived at C.R.A. Petawawa.
I was admitted to hospital on 10 Jan 43. I was discharged on 12 May 43. I have always had trouble with my stomach but I carried on. I went to hospital again in August.
I was in charge of transport at C.R.A. post office. Then I was examined by Maj's Todd the psychiatrist. He said that my stomach condition was due to anxiety. He never said that I was to go to a Pioneer Coy. The first I heard of it was months later by my Sgt. Maj's. I never tried to pretend I was sick at any time. I did never have an ulcer "to speak of". I did not exaggerate any of my symptoms and part of my medical report is untrue to me. I tried to stay with the Petawawa Corps. I went to see Maj's C. Todd. and he said he did not think he could do anything about it. I then asked to see Col. Ross but the interview was never arranged. I asked again to be permitted to see Col. Ross and Capt. Todd, as I the men, said that that was impossible. I saw Col. Ross about two weeks ago, 12 Jan 43. Maj's Todd was present also. Col. Ross said I was to go to the Prairies by. This conversation took place in London. I like working at the kind of work at the Postal Corps. I was also interviewed by the Personnel Selection Board but I do not know what has happened. I am still category "A". I had two interviews with Major Todd about my transferring to the R.C.A.F.C.

Cross-examination

I did not want to go to the Prairies because I felt that my qualifications are most useful in the R.C.A.F.C. I have a good idea and experience of transport. I have asked Major Todd at least a dozen times to try and transfer me to the R.C.A.F.C. I have been in the Army for years and am a good mechanic. Also Major Todd gave me no reason for refusing me an opportunity of seeing Col. Ross. I always felt that Major Todd was determined to send me to the Prairies by. I realise that I should do what he told me but I felt that the proper channels had been closed to me.

Re-examination

The reason I refused this order was because I do not want to go to the Prairies. This would be against me a bit.

By the Court

I belonged to the R.C.A.F.C. in Canada but because my brother was in the Postal Corps. I wanted to be transferred to the A.S.C. after I was appointed by Maj'r Gould. It was April of this year when I formally requested to be transferred to the A.S.C. I had taken a Clerical Course with the Canada Transport and had taken a driving and mechanical course then. I was in charge of six vehicles at the Postal Corps although I was only a private. I dealt directly with Sgt. Todd and the Sgt. Maj'r. I was relieved of my duties in charge of the vehicles because the Sgt. Maj'r was always asking me to load his army and transport. His name is Sgt. Maj'r Kidner. I started to try and get transferred to the A.S.C. at the beginning of April and I must have approached the Sgt Maj'r about a dozen times to be granted leave my C. O. about the Maj'r C. Todd, O.C. C.R.A. Postal Unit, being then daily men, states.

Read Statement for Defence

The accused was not sent to the R.A. because the medical report did not recommend it. It was a case of a C.M.H.Q. posting of the accused to the Pioneer Coy. I made many arrangements for the accused to be interviewed with several officers of C.R.A. because he was anxious to be transferred to the A.S.C. He said that if he must go in the Postal Corps he would like to go to the A.S.C. rather than the Pioneer Coy. I saw Capt Rose and told him that the accused was a good soldier. I telephoned Maj Du Berger at C.M.H.Q. and asked him for a stay of the posting to the Pioneer and he said nothing could be done. The A.G. Branch of C.M.H.Q does not know of his own accord. I do not think they were ever consulted.

Cross-examination

With the exception of 3 months or the O.C. when he was [illegible] for 3 months. I think that the accused was not an efficient soldier. I can only go by his medical report. He was always complaining about being sick. He did not like the Medical profession as a whole. I started a lot of my time trying to get the case cleared up so that he could be placed in a corporal's job. But, unfortunately we never seemed to get anywhere with him. I spoke to Maj. Hall before the accused saw him and examined him. I also saw Maj. Hall after his examination. I do not remember all of my conversation with Maj. Hall before he examined the accused but I wanted to make sure that the accused was not just being kindly examined.

Re-examination

On many occasions he was to ill to work. He had an [illegible] He was under a doctor. He was doing maintenance work when I saw him. I took him off cleaning when he said he got dizzy spells. The accused was assisting the drivers to do their maintenance. I don't know how long he was at this job. He was a patient constantly in our establishment. The accused was constantly paraded by me before Col. Ross my C.O.

By the Court

The accused never filled out any transfer application nor did any one ever give him an application to fill out.

The Defence proceeds to call character witnesses.

1st Character Witness — Capt. W. E. Swarbrick, the 2 i/c of the accused of C.R.U. posted unit having been duly sworn, states:
I have known the accused for about 6 months. Before I left the unit in which he and I were serving, his work was entirely satisfactory. After I returned, his work was always satisfactory when I was in command of him. It has never been before me for a similar offence. I was away from the unit for about 3 months and I cannot say what happened while I was away.

2nd Character Witness — 14293 A. Sgt. Green, W. C.R.U. Posted unit having been duly sworn, states.
I have known the accused for 16 months. To my knowledge his work was always satisfactory. I know of the arrest of the unit. I work in the orderly room. During the past two months the accused was under a mental strain. This took the form of a worried state of mind and I think it was due to his proposed transfer. On an occasion he said that the M. O. did not seem very sympathetic to him. I certainly noted the M. O. did not seem very sympathetic to him. I certainly would not describe him as a "bad-tempered" at all.

Bad Witness for Charge

C 99178 Sgt. Young, J. E., C.A.A. Patterson, having been duly sworn, states:-

Under the accused for 9 months. He was always a good worker and seemed happy when he was until he was told that he could no longer be the orderly attendant to Capt. Patterson & Pte. was what he was doing. He was always happy & had a kind stomach and that the M. O's were very sympathetic. He slept in the same room as I did and he said that he was worried about conditions at home.

Address by Defending Officer

In this charge, certain facts must be proven by the prosecution beyond any reasonable doubt. First they must prove actual disobedience of a command, second they must prove that such a command was lawful and given by a superior and third, they must show that the accused did actually understand all that was expected of him.

On the first of these points, the following facts emerge. a) There was a lapse of only 5 minutes between command and arrest.

b) The packing of a kit takes twenty minutes or more

c) It is therefore manifestly impossible for Private Lida to obey or disobey the command since he had not the time to do either.

Under Footnote 1 to Section 9 of the Army Act, the mere statement of "I will not do it" does not constitute an offence under this section - yet we have S/Sgt Chapman element that the accused merely said "I don't do it" and, with another two or three others, was under arrest.

The second point has been established and need not be discussed. The third and final point is the one on which the case

This man is, on the basis of [illegible] neurotic subject; yet he remains legally
"A". In the period between his interview with the psychiatrist and his present trouble, we have a long history of stomach disorders, poor management — the doctors statements that this man tends to introspection would be of no account — all these things have played on this man's already delicately balanced mind and have produced the obvious effect. He is obsessed with but one idea — to keep from being "railroaded" into the pioneer coy. He already introspective mind is becoming imbued with a persecution complex — he feels, and, perhaps, rightly, that he is being victimized.

With this in mind, can the law of disobedience — or, alternatively, insubordinate language — be applied equally to a normal man who thumbs his nose at authority and to a man, the balance of whose mind is disturbed?

I suggest to the court, that, in view of the lack of proof shown, the provisions of the Army Act as quoted — and this man's mental conditions no crime has been committed. Instead there is an appeal by a man who feels an injustice has been done him to a court, not of discipline, but of justice, hoping that he may obtain it.

Closing Address by Prosecutor

Sir,

The accused before us is charged with "disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer". There is no question about that. We have the evidence of S/Sgt. Chapman corroborated by that of Privates Larkin and Spence that the accused refused to carry out the order to pack his kit and further did nothing whatsoever to carry out the order.

The circumstances surrounding the refusal of the order are rather exceptional. There is evidence on behalf of the accused that he attempted to transfer by being paraded to his C.O. to the R.C.A.S.C., and that nothing was done about it. We also have the evidence that he had been examined by medical officers who describe the accused as being in fit condition to be transferred to the Provost Company. On the other hand, we have the evidence of the accused's C.O. that practically everything possible was done to satisfy the accused. The accused according to Major Todd did not definitely request a transfer to the R.C.A.S.C., but agreed such preference if he had to be transferred from the Postal Corps.

The accused may have a grievance and perhaps certain individuals are guilty of mismanagement, but that does not excuse the offence committed. If the accused had a grievance, and I do not argue with that allegation, he should have carried out the order, and then on his arrival at the Provost ~~Grievance~~ Company aired his grievance through the proper channels.

The accused is of foreign origin. He has had a great deal of trouble and is, in my opinion a fitter case for a hospital than for a detention bks.

It is my opinion that this man has a definite guardacle. He has reached de stage when he is willing to become either a criminal or a lad-swinger — and a man of his type does not reach that point easily.

I make application to the court that a minute be attached to the proceedings requesting a close and thorough investigation of the circumstances of this case and that this man's grievance, if any, is redressed before he becomes an ineligible criminal or an incurable lunatic — or both.

I would bring to the attention of the court the fact that he is admittedly a neurasthenic case; yet he is still Category "A"; the irregularity of the non compliance with K.C. 245-7; and the evidence of long and serious mismanagement of men which has been shown by this case.

I believe that Dansereau realizes his offence and that he has made himself liable to disciplinary action — but I also believe that such an act as this in his case is the direct result of a steadily deteriorating mental condition, which has been impaired rather than repaired by his handling and which requires careful & considered treatment to prevent permanent brain damage and consequent insanity.

Onset Jan 1938 with "stomach burn" which was relieved by powders & olive oil. After enlistment in July 1941 was quite well. This he attributes to an appendectomy in Jan 1941 6 mos before enlistment. As far as can be gathered the appendectomy was performed to relieve him of the pain he had since 1938.

Came to England Dec 25 1941 and shortly after arrival has developed this pain. The pain was like a cramp came on any time & soda relieved him. It got worse & was admitted to hospital. History and findings as in Capt Zotnik's and Maj. Winsky's report.

This man's symptoms may be those of mild gastritis or of functional dyspepsia, but whichever they may be there is superimposed a large element of what may be termed neurosis, but what consists of an introspective fixation on his troubles, and the adoption of an extremely unreasonable attitude toward them. He threatens that he will not be able to carry on much longer unless something is done, and wants to be gastroscoped, obviously hoping, although he refuses to admit it, that suggestion cause will be found for lowering his category.

Although his previous record is a reasonably stable one because of his nationality, and his present attitude, I believe that his prognosis is not good, but suggest that he be handled firmly, as he is undoubtedly exaggerating his symptoms and has an axe to grind.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF H-65693, Private DAWYBIDA, J., on strength of Canadian Reinforcement Units Postal Unit, Canadian Postal Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer, Major C. Todd, of Canadian Reinforcement Units Postal Unit, C.P.C., Hammersley Road, North Camp. Aldershot, Hants., directs that the evidence shall be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution.

No. L-7271, A/S/Sgt. Chapman, N.C., on strength of C.R.U. Postal Unit, Canadian Postal Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At Canadian Field Post Office S.C.11, Hammersley Road, North Camp, on the 15th June 1943, at approximately 1500 hours, I, L-7271, A/S/Sgt. Chapman, did give to H-65693, Pte. J. Dawybida, a direct order to pack his kit and be ready for a car to take him to No.4 Canadian General Pioneer Company. Private Dawybida refused to do so. I asked him if he understood the order and if he refused it, and he answered "Yes". I then had two men fall in and took him to the guard room of Headquarters, C.R.U., where he was held under close arrest.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

N.C. Chapman A/S/SGT.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution.

No. F-5530, Private Larkin, D.L.G., on strength of C.R.U. Postal Unit, Canadian Postal Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

I am F-5530, Private Larkin, D.L.G., of Canadian Reinforcement Unit, Canadian Postal Corps. At approximately 1500 hours on the 15th June 1943, at the Canadian Field Post Office on Hammersley Road, I heard Staff-Sergeant Chapman order Private J. Dawybida to get his equipment and there would be a truck to take him out to the Pioneer Corps. Private Dawybida refused to obey the order. Staff-Sergeant Chapman explained his order to Private Dawybida and asked him if he understood it thoroughly. Private Dawybida said he did. He repeated again that he was not going. He then was placed under arrest.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Prosecutor - Lieut N.D. Slater

I have witnesses Sir, on the 1st charge wherby I ~~xx~~ believe I can bring out the facts that the accused, Gnr Day, A.B. struck his Superior Officer.

I also have witnesses on the second charge(alternative) that the accused Gnr Day, A.B. used threatening language to his Superior Officer.

On the third charge of Absent without Leave from Guard Mounting on the 25th Feb 43, I have two witnesses to prove that the accused was absent from Guard Mounting.

President - The first witness is A 32039 BSM Evoy, W.C. who is duly sworn states:-

Pros.- Sgt Major Evoy - On the 25 Feb 43 the accused A 33157 Gnr Day, A.B. is charged with striking you. "Is this true?"

Evoy - "Yes Sir, it is".

Pros - Where were you at the time of the incident and before it happened

Evoy - I spent the early part of the evening in the Sgts Mess and about 2215 hrs retired to my hut. I was in bed reading when Gnr Day came into the hut.

Pros - How is it that Gnr Day was in the hut.

Evoy - Gnr Day opened the door and I asked him what he wanted. He said "I want to have a few words with you" so I told him to come back to my bed and sit down. He sat down on the bed opposite and we discussed his absence from Guard Mounting. Our conversation was getting nowhere so I told him to go to bed. He insisted on talking about his absence from Guard Mounting and I finally said - "Day you must go to bed". He refused and became very~~xxxxxxx~~ aggressive and then struck me, in the face.

Pros - What happened then?

Evoy - I got up, dressed and just before leaving the ~~xxxxx~~ hut, L/Sgt Wallace came in. I left the hut and went to the Orderly Room and ordered the Orderly Sgt to get an escort and place Gnr Day in close arrest. Sgt Cuming who was in the Orderly Room at the time, came back to the Sgts hut with me.

Pros - What prompted Gnr Day to make that remark?

Evoy - What remark, Sir?

Pros - The remark about blackening your other eye.

Evoy - I do not know Sir.

Pros - You made no move to touch the accused ?.

Evoy - No Sir, Sgt Cuming and I came into the hut and told Day that he had better go to the Guard Room with us, and then he make the remark, "Do not touch me or I will blacken your other eye for you".

Pros - Sgt Major Evoy - What was your particular duty on the 25 Feb 43?

Evoy - I was Tp S.S.M. Sir, and only had my regular duties to perform.

Pres.- What is the story about the Guard Mounting on the 25 Feb 43.

Evoy - I was ordered from the Orderly Room to replace a man on Guard that night, as the man posted was on the Calibration shoot and there was no indication of when he would be back. I place Gnr Day in this capacity.

Pres - How long was this Guard.

Evoy - From 1700 hours to 1700 hours, Sir. 24 hours Guard.

The Defending Officer, Lieut A.B. Dowker asks permission to cross-examine the witness -

Def - Sgt Major Evoy, you are the Sgt Major of the troop of the accused.
Defy - Did the accused make application for a late pas on the 25 Feb 43 ?
Evoy - Yes Sir.
Def - Was that accused in the habit of putting in an application for late passes.
Evoy - Yes Sir, but no more than any of the others in the troop.
Def - Why was the accused pass cut off?
Evoy - There were 27 applications that morning, 13 more than we were allowed, and his name was one of the ones that was struck off.
Def - Was there any other reason for cutting off his pass.
Evoy - Yes Sir. On the 0830 parade that morning I fell the Troop in brought them to attention and then stood them at ease and then gave them the order "Stand Easy" before the Tp officer arrived. I then said "Troop, Pay attention" and read them some information I had received the night before. Gnr Day and another man were still talking and I informed them that they could expect an extra guard for talking on parade.
Def - When were the men notified that their passes were cancelled?
Evoy - On the 1330 hrs parade, Sir.
Def - Then Gnr Days pass was cut off in a form of punishment?
Evoy - Yes Sir.
Def - If the accused had not been inattentive on parade, would his pass still have been cancelled?
Evoy - I would have checked back in the pass roster to see how many passes he had had lately.
Def - The accused was also notified to mount Guard at 1700 hrs that night, by you on the same parade, 1330 hours.
Evoy - Yes Sir.
Def - Therefore the accused was punished twice for the same inattentiveness.
Evoy - No Sir. I was ordered to replace the man that was away at the calibration shoot, and I detailed Gnr Day. On the 1330 hrs parade the Orderly Sgt came up to me and said Gnr Day was to go on Guard. This was when I detailed the accused and he would get credit for this Guard on the roster and it was not to be an extra guard.
Def - What kind of a soldier have you found the accused?
Evoy - Since taking over the Troop last Sep. I have found GnrDay to be very satisfactory and he has caused no trouble.
Def - When was the next time you saw the accused?
Evoy - He broke off parade around 1500 hrs to get ready for guard. At 1700 hrs the Orderly Sgt informed me that Gnr Day was absent from Guard Mounting. The next that I saw the accused was when he walked into the Sgt Hut that night, around 2230 hrs.
Def - Did you warn the accused that he would be up for office?
Evoy - No Sir, I didn't have a chance to.
Def - When you left the hut that night to go over to the Orderly Room and left Sgt Wallce there, did you leave instructions for Sgt Wallace to place the accused under close arrest?
Evoy - No Sir, as there was no one there to escort him to the Guard Room, if the accused had been place under close arrest.

On the 1330 hr parade Sgt Keighley came over and told the BSM that I was to take Gnr Weiser's place on Guard. After the parade I asked the BSM to be taken off the Guard but he said there wasn't a chance of doing ~~xx~~.this. We broke off at 1500 hrs to get ready for ~~parade~~ guard and at 1530 I went over to the wash room to have a wash and shave.
Lt D - When you asked the Sgt Major to be excused the Guard did you explain the party?
Day - Yes Sir.
Lt D - Who all were going on the party?
Day - My brother, Gnr Cole and myself.
Lt D - When had you planned the party?
Day - The night before.
Lt D - Did you look at the orders that night?
Day - Yes Sir, we went over to the recreation hut to read them.

Day - I noticed that the BSM was watching me so I put on my rubber boots and went back to the washroom. This was about 1600 hrs and I went around to the back of the abolution room and then out of camp the back way and went to Westerham. I was there until 2145 hrs when I caught the bus back to camp arriving around 2200 hrs. I went into the Q.M. Stores and asked L/Bdr McKnight if there was any mail for me. There wasn't so I stood there talking to him for a few minutes.
Sgt King came in and I asked where BSM Evoy was and he told me he was out of camp. After Sgt King went out I left and went down to the Sgts Mut. I tried the door but it was locked. I heard a shout from the inside so went around to the other door. Sgt Major Evoy asked me what I wanted and I told him I would like to speak to him. He told me to come in and come back to his bed. I did so and sat on the bed opposite him. We talked for awhile about my absense from Guard Mtg and the BSM told me to go to bed. He then told me the place for me was in the guard room, It is here that he claims that I hit him.
Pres. Did you hit him?
Day Yes Sir but he wasn't in bed when I hit him.
Pres What position was he in when you hit him?
Day He was sitting up in bed.

Charge 3.

Lieut Slater - Sir , as the accused has already admitted his absence from the Guard mounting, is it necessary that I bring in my two witnesses on this charge? The witnesses are the Guard Commander and the orderly Sgt.

Pres. - Yes Sir I would like to see them.

First Witness - A 31061 Sgt Keighley, W. 97 Bty 7 Cdn A Fd Regt RCA having been duly sworn states;

Pros - Sgt Keighley will you give all the facts that you know about the case, before the Court.

Sgt Ke - Sir, I was Bty Orderly Sgt on 25 Feb 43 when the accused failed to appear for the Guard Mounting at 1700 hours.

Pros - In what manner was the accused warned about the guard.

Sgt Ke - Verbally on the 1330 parade by BSM Evoy and I was witness to the warning.

Defence - no questions

1101.

Second Witness

A 33188 Bdr Warmer, C.R. - 97 Bty 7 Cdn A Fd Regt RCA having been duly sworn states;

Pros. - Bdr Warmer will you give the court any facts you have relating to the Guard Mounting on the 25 Feb 43.

Bdr W - Sir, I was Guard Commander on the 25 Feb 43 when the accused, Gnr Day failed to mount with the Guard.

Pros - How did you know the accused was supposed to mount with the Guard?

Bdr W - By the roll call that I had with Gnr Day's name on in place on Gnr Weiser's. The roll was taken from Bty Part I Orders.

At Gr about 2300 hrs 25 Feb 43 the Orderly Sgt came into the Guard Room and ordered me and two guards out to place the accused under close arrest.

Pros - Where did you place the accused under arrest.

Bdr W - In the Sgts Hut.

Lieut Dowker cross-examines the witness.

Lt D - I what condition was the accused in? Did he give any trouble when you arrested him or later when you escorted him to the Guard Room?

Bdr W - He had been drinking Sir, but he didn't cause any trouble at any time.

J.M.

Lieut Slater states -

Sir - There is little doubt that the accused is guilty as he has already admitted that he was absent. In the evidence of Sgt King in admitting that the accused was beligerent and was looking for BSM Evoy about his grievance over the Guard Mounting shows that it was intentional. When Sgt King told the accused [redacted] the BSM was out of camp it was an odd step as he knew that he wasn't. If Sgt King had placed the man under close arrest at the time, but did not for some reason.

BSM Evoys was in camp all evening and therefore was on duty. Day asked for an interview and this was granted by the Sgt Major as he is responsible for the discipline of his men.

When Sgt Wallace and Sgt King were with the Sgt Major all evening and there were no marks on his face then it is evident that they were put on during the interview between the accused and BSM Evoy.

Capt W.S. Ferguson - 97 Bty 7 Cdn A Fd Regt having been duly sworn states; Character Reference of Gnr Day, A.B.

Sir:- The accused Gnr Day is a man in my troop. I have been in command of this troop since 1 Jul 42. Gnr Day is a qualified Artillery Signaller and a good one man. He has been on Active Service since Sep 39. During my Command he has never brought himself to undue office except in minor cases of trivial matters. His conduct is as good as as a good soldier should be. Day has been a reliable man ever since I have known him.

WM

President of the Court

Pres. Gnr Day ~~before~~ in mitigation of sentence of this court have you anything further to say.

Day No. Sir.

Defending officer considers to make statement (P 13).

Lieut A.B. Dowker - Defending Officer

In the above evidence Gnr Day has had a good recommendation from his Troop Commander and from BSM Evoy. The accused got into this trouble through a triviality on the 0830 parade. The accused had planned a party with his broth and Gnr Cole and made sure the night was clear before doing this, by checking the orders to see that he was free from duties.

His late pass was cancelled and was placed on Guard the same night. A Gnr has very few pleasures at any time and it was due to his plans being upset etc that he took it upon himself to go to Westerham. The accused had a few drinks which affected him more due to the frame of mind he was in, than would ordinarily.

The accused admitted striking the Sgt Major and at no time attempted to conceal the fact or to get away.

I wish the court to consider these facts before giving sentence.

Sgt King did not place the man under close arrest when it was his duty to do so and if this had been done the accused would have been in safe custody and the crime would never have been committed.

Evoy - On the 25 Feb 43 I was and still am Tp BSM of the 97 Bty - 7 Cdn A Fd Regt RCA. On the 1330 hr parade on this day, Sgt Keighley, the Bty Orderly Sgt, told me to detail the accused for Guard that night. I did so in the presence of Sgt Keighley. ~~About 1630 hrs the Guard Commander came to the [illegible] Guard Room and I found Gnr Day [illegible] and then went down to the [illegible] and spoke to the accused but could not locate him.~~ At approximate 2225 hrs I was in the Sgts Mess along with some of the other Sgts. At about 2230 hrs I left the Mess and went down to my hut, undressed and got into bed. Shortly after Gnr Day came into my hut and we discussed his ~~[illegible]~~ce from guard mounting. The discussion was getting us nowhere and I said "Day you had better go to bed". We said he wasn't going to bed and after discussing the matter somemore, Day became very abusive. I said "The place for you is in the Guard Room" and raised up in bed. It was then that he struck me. I got up and was getting dressed when Sgt Wallace came into the hut. I left the hut and went over to the Orderly Room and told the Orderly Sgt to place Gnr Day under close arrest.

Sgt Cuming, who was present in the orderly room, accompanied me back to the Sgts Hut. When we entered the Sgts hut the accused was still there. I went up to him and said ~~What~~ "Come on Day, you had better come along to the Guard Room with Sgt Cuming and I". He then said "Keep your hands off me or I will blacken your other eye".

Pros Offr - Was there any doubt about the warning for Guard Mounting?

Evoy - No Sir, there wasn't.

Pros Offr - How long have you known Gnr Day?

Evoy - Ever since I came to the Bty, last Sept. He has been in my troop ever since.

President - I am not clear on how the accused was warned for Guard.

Evoy - I detailed Gnr Day on the 1330 hrs parade, on instructions from the Orderly Sgt, Sgt Keighley.

Pros Offr - That is all Sir.

Defending Offr - I have no questions, Sir.

I proceeded to the Sgts Hut with the Orderly Sgt where we found Gnr. Day. I then escorted Gnr Day back to the Guard Room.

Pros Offr - That is all the questions I have to ask the witness.

...../5

Cdr. Harmer (contd)

President - I am still not clear on how Day was detailed for Guard.

Defending Offr - Did you actually see Day on parade and did you hear the Sgt Major detail Day for the Guard.

Keighley - I saw Day on parade and was there when BSM Evoy detailed Day for the Guard. I was close enough that I could hear him detail Day for the Guard.

Def Offr - What did Day have to say about the Guard Mounting?

Keighley - I didn't hear Day say anything, Sir.

Defe Offr - That is all the questions I have for the witness.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT WAS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP. 83(B).

Prosecuting Officer's Statement.

Sir I would like to sum up the case of A33157 Gnr Day, A.B. With regards to the first charge the evidence I have submitted shows that BSM Evoy was Day's Superior Officer and although there is nothing to show that BSM Evoy was wearing his rank insignia at the time, it has been proved that Day knew that BSM Evoy was his Superior Officer.

In regards to the actual striking, there is no evidence to show that Day did strike BSM Evoy, but on the other hand there is no evidence to show that he didn't strike him. Circumstantial evidence will prove though that he did. As for actual evidence BSM Evoy didn't have a black eye when he left the Sgts Mess but did have it when he entered the Orderly Room later on. BSM Evoy was still bleeding when he was in the Orderly Room. I will admit that there was no one in the hut at the time to see the accused strike BSM Evoy.

On the second charge it has already been established that BSM Evoy was Day's Superior Officer and Day knew it. By the evidence given by Both BSM Evoy and Sgt Cuming it has been proved that Day did make the statement "I'll blacken your other eye". There is no evidence to prove that the accused was drunk at the time.

On the Third charge firmly established evidence has been brought out that Day was warned on parade for Guard Mounting on the night of 25 Feb 43. As for Day's reply to this detail, he was on parade and therefore would not be able to make a reply. He was warned though and this was proved by the evidence of two NCOs. He was absent from Guard as it has been established that Day did not report to the Guard Room until 2300 hrs that night and the Guard mounted at 1700 hrs.

I have no character witnesses for the accused.

...../7

Defending Officers Statement

On the first Charge of Striking his Superior Officer, the charge should be dismissed due to lack of evidence. The Prosecution has in no way shown that the bruises or abrasions on the face of A32039 BSM Evoy had any relation to the accused, Gnr. Day.

It is quite possible that the BSM could have suffered these from the time that he left the Mess until he entered the Orderly Room. There is no evidence to show that Day appears on the scene until Sgt Cuming and BSM Evoy entered the hut and found Day there.

On the Third Charge there exists no reasonable doubt that Day was absent from Guard Mounting but there is some confusion and discrepancy in whether he was warned. It was not published in Bty orders for the accused to mount Guard.

Plea of Mitigation on behalf of F51747 Pte Day, D. D.

Pte Day has given me a letter (C2) which will shew that his wife - at the time of writing - was in hospital. She has been unwell for quite some time and in addition there are 4 children to be cared for. Pte Day is 34 and he was finding life very hard work very tiring. His family trouble adding to his physical strain made him decide to go out and forget it all. He took no kit and no money with him - he simply went out to drive his thoughts out and forget. He voluntarily gave himself up and made no effort to stay away. In view of these circumstances I request that the court shew all possible leniency.

Statement in Mitigation by Accused.

Sir, I have had very little illness since being in the Army. Last while in Sicily ~~in charge of~~ with a mule train a German mortar shell landed within 2 feet of me, & though not wounded I was very badly shocked. It was 3½ days before I had complete control of myself. I had been evacuated to 16 CCS. After 3 days I managed to talk my way back to the unit. On returning to the unit I was still very shaky & was kept from going up the line for a couple of days. Hostilities ceased, & I saw no more action until arriving in Italy, & was under no shell-fire until near Termini, & found that I could carry on normally under fire. The next heavy shell-fire was about the 21st, when I was thrown off

~~mind~~ denudation my - just shy a German ~~bath~~. & my bayonet went into my knee. I was evacuated, for shock & wounds.
On the way to the hospital there was found to be a discharge from my penis which was believed to be venereal disease, but after investigation it was found not to be so.
As soon as I could walk I left the Hosp. & went to C.B.R.D. & returned to the field unit about 8 days later, without any medical examination. On returning to the field I found myself very nervous & was unable to eat or sleep.
I had a nervous breakdown about the 16 Jan. & the next morning went to the unit M.O. who gave me medicine. It helped, but I could not sleep well, & was very tired all the time. On the 30 Jan. there had been very little shelling & being very tired & free from using ~~2 pint~~ & having eaten I fell asleep in my trench. After arriving at my post & all being quiet & feeling tired I fell asleep.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of M7101 Private Francis David DAY of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas CMF

By order of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness Prosecution

M16373 Sgt Purves, W. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment having been duly sworn states:-

I am M16373 Sgt Purves, W. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment. On the night of 30 Jan 44 I warned Pte Day for his turn on guard. We had been warned that a Jerry patrol was between the Seaforth's and the Pat's so I told him to be on the alert. He stated that Cpl Walker had already warned him so I watched until he went on the post then went away. This would xxx be about ten minutes to nine. I returned with Cpl Ryan about twenty minutes to ten and found Pte Day sleeping on his post. I unloaded his tommy gun, then woke him up. Immediately I asked him for the tommy gun and we had a dispute over it. After getting the tommy gun we took him up to Lieut Simmons who put him under open arrest.

Questioned by Officer Taking Summary

Q. 1 Do you recognize the accused as the man in question?
A. 1 Yes sir.

Q. 2 Why did you unload his tommy gun?
A. 2 I figured that if it were loaded and he was awakened suddenly he might fire it before he realized what was happening.

Cross Examined by the Accused

Q. 3 Did I not, as soon as I realized I was being taken off the post, hand the tommy gun over?
A. 3 No, you did not.

W. Purves
(W. Purves) Sgt M16373

2nd Witness Prosecution

M15869 Cpl Ryan, L.G. xxxx of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment having been duly sworn states:-

I am M15869 Cpl Ryan, L.G. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment. About twenty minutes to ten on 30 Jan 44 Sgt Purves took me along with him to the post where Pte Day was doing hisshift. We found him asleep. Sgt Purves then took the tommy magazine off the gun and then woke Pte Day. Sgt Purves told him he was on a charge for sleeping on his post. He then asked Pte Day for the tommy gun which Pte Day refused to give. There was an arguement and we told him at least three times to turn over the tommy gun which in the end he did. We reported the matter to Lieut Simmons who instructed us to place him under open arrest.

Questioned by Officer Taking Summary

Q. 4 Do you recognize the accused as the man in question?
A. 4 Yes sir.

2nd Witness Prosecution (cont'd)

Q. 5 Had Pte Day gone without sleep for any great length of time?
A. 5 No sir.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

(L.G. Ryan) Cpl M15869

3rd Witness Defence

M16955 Cpl Walker, R. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment having been duly sworn states:-

I am 16955 Cpl Walker, R. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment. Having been given the times for guard for my section I detailed them and at the same time warned my section that there was reported to be a Jerry patrol between the Seaforth's and the Pat's. Pte Day is in my section and was there when the section was warned. His time on guard was from 2045 hrs until 2300 hrs.

Questioned by Officer Taking Summary

Q. 6 Do you recognize the accused as the man in question?
A. 6 Yes sir.

Cross Examined by the Accused

Q. 7 Cpl Walker, do you think that I have been sleeping normally since returning from hospital?
A. 7 You mentioned to me that you haven't been sleeping well but there is no way I can prove whether you had been or not.

.....R. Walker.....
(R. Walker) Cpl M16955

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

Statement by the Accused

M7101 Pte Day, F.D. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment having been duly sworn states:-

I am M7101 Pte Day F.D. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment. On the night of 30 Jan 44 I was warned for guard by Cpl Walker, my time for guard being from 2045 hrs until 2300 hrs, later being told by him that a Jerry patrol was between the Pat's and the Seaforth's. Having slept very poorly for the last month I was feeling exceedingly tired. I sat by a warm fire till about ten minute to eight when I went to my slit trench and slept until awakened by Sgt Purvis who again warned me about a Jerry patrol. Going on my post I kept catching myself falling asleep. I got up, walked around, sat down again and the next thing I knew was that someone was shaking me. I got up not knowing who it was and evidently before I was fully awake Sgt Purvis warned me I was being taken off my post. As soon as I fully realized who it was and what was being done I gave my tommy gun to him.

Statement by the Accused (cont'd)

Statement in Mitigation by Accused.

Sir, I have had very little illness since being in the Army. But while in in Sicily with a mule train a German mortar shell landed within 2 feet of me, and though not wounded I was very badly shocked. It was 3 ½ days before I had complete control of myself. I had been evacuated to 16 CCS. After 3 days I managed to talk my way back to the unit. On returning to the unit I was still very shaky & was kept from going up the line for a couple of days. Hostilities ceased, & I saw no more action until arriving in Italy, and was under no shell-fire until near Vinchiature, and found that I could carry on normally under fire. The next heavy shell-fire was about the 21 Dec, when I was thrown off my feet by a German demolition charge, and my bayonet went into my knee. I was evacuated, for shock and wounds. On the way to the hospital there was found to be a discharge from my penus which was believed to be venerial disease, but after investigation it was found not to be so. As soon as I could walk I left the Hosp, and went to C.B.R.D., and returned to the field unit about 8 days later, without any medical examination. On returning to the field I found myself very nervous and was unable to eat or sleep. I had a nervous breakdown about the 16 Jan. and the next morning went to the unit M.O. who gave me medicine. It helped, but I could not sleep well, and was very tired all the time, On the 30 Jan. there had been very little shelling and being very tired and free from worry and having eaten I fell asleep in my trench. After arriving at my post and all being quiet and feeling tired I fell asleep.

---"JLM"

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of M7101 Private Francis David DAY of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas CMF

By order of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness Prosecution

M16373 Sgt Purves, W. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment having been duly sworn states:-

I am M16373 Sgt Purves, W. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment. On the night of 30 Jan 44 I warned Pte Day for his turn on guard. We had been warned that a Jerry patrol was between the Seaforth's and the Pat's so I told him to be on the alert. He stated that Cpl Walker had already warned him so I watched until he went on the post then went away. This would be about ten minutes to nine. I returned with Cpl Ryan about twenty minute to ten and found Pte Day sleeping on his post. I unloaded his tommy gun, then woke him up. Immediately I asked him for the tommy gun and we had a dispute over it. After getting the tommy gun we took him up to Lieut Simmons who put him under open arrest.

Questioned by Officer Taking Summary.

Q. 1 Do you recognize the accused as the man in question?
A. 1 Yes Sir.

Q. 2 Why did you unload his tommy gun?
A. 2 I figured that if it were loaded and he was awakened suddenly he might fire it before he realized what was happening.

Cross Examined by the Accused

Q. 3 Did I not, as soon as I realized I was being taken off the post, hand the tommy gun over?

A. 3 No, you did not.

2nd Witness Prosecution

M15869 Cpl Ryan, L.G. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment having been duly sworn states:-

I am M15869 Cpl Ryan, L.G. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment. About twenty minutes to ten on 30 Jan 44 Sgt Purves took me along with him to the post where Pte Day was doing his shift. We found him asleep. Sgt Purves then took the tommy magazine off the gun, then woke Pte Day. Sgt Purves told him he was on a charge for sleeping on his post. He then asked Pte Day for the tommy gun which Pte Day refused to give. There was an arguement and we told him at least three times to turn over the tommy gun which in the end he did. We reported the matter to Lieut Simmons who instructed us to place him under open arrest.

Questioned by Officer Taking Summary

Q. 4 Do you recognize the accused as the [redacted] in question?
A. 4 Yes Sir.

Q. 5 Had Pte Day gone without sleep for any great length of time?

I am 16955 Cpl Walker, R. of The Loyal Edmonton Regiment. Having been given the times for guard for my section I detailed them and at the same time warned my section that there was reported to be a Jerrypatrol between the Seaforth's and Pat's. Pte Day is in my section and was there when the section was warned. His time on guard was from 2045 hrs until 2300 hrs.

Questioned by Officer Taking Summary

A. 6 Yes sir.

Cross examined by the Accused

Q. 7 Cpl Walker, do you think that I have been sleeping normally since returning from hospital?

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE AND ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

Statement in mitigation of punishment by the Defending Officer attached hereto.

(OVER)

Statement in mitigation of punishment in the case of B31950 Gnr Day H.

The accused was born in Winnipeg Oct 2-1921 his father served in the last war and was a gas casualty, causing his death when the accused was 14 years of age, his mother died very soon after of broken heart leaving the lad entirely alone in the world.

He was to have been placed in an orphanage, this was distasteful and Day took to the road, wandering about the country working at odd jobs of farming, tinsmith's apprentice and as a waiter in a construction camp. He had no close friends.

He joined the Edmonton on Jul 3/41 at Toronto and landed in England in March 1942. This boy had no home life, none of the training or environment that most of us are blessed with, he received no mail for a long time until he wrote to a former Sergeant who had befriended him then he received letters from people who were sorry for a lonely soldier.

He had no crime record while in Canada, some six charges in England but following his last crime he had decided to try to go straight. Unfortunately he did not have the moral strength nor the background to combat the influence of a stronger personality in his associate at work in the person of Gnr Brooks.

The accused was prepared to become an army clerk and was prepared to go on a course, but Brooks decided to go A.W.L. and talked the accused into it; admittedly he was wrong

As to the charge of stealing the pistol, the accused has admitted taking it, but there is a strong element of doubt that he could think up an action such as this without prompting by some one, the accused states that at the time he had had a few glasses of beer and is confused as to what actually took place.

He admits pulling the pistol out of his pocket and threatening the Provost Sgt. but here again he was influenced by a stronger personality, this is not enough but one must remember that the accused was labouring under extreme excitement and probably fear.

The accused finally decided after wandering about the country that he would eventually be caught, so he went to the Y.M.C.A. in Manchester had the manager phone the Provost Corps. and gave himself up.

He feels that he has played a mean trick on Capt Jewell who had befriended him and wants to try to make amends, he submits to the mercy of the court and is prepared to take his punishment.

Further the accused has stated that when he has paid his debt, he will try really hard to become a good soldier and has expressed the wish to be allowed to become a cleric a wish intended.

Petersfield Division.

10. January, 1943.

Grayshott Station.

Report from P.C.344. G.H.Verey.

Subject re .38 Smith & Wesson Revolver No.845780 stolen from No.2 C.A.R.U. Superior Camp, Grayshott, on the 9th September, 1942.

Beg to report

Sir, I beg to submit the following copies of statements obtained at the time.

1st Witness. Capt.Charles Dease Jewell, states, "I am Adjutant of 'P' Wing, No.2 C.A.R.U. Royal Canadian Artillery, 'Superior Camp', Grayshott".

"About 12.30.pm on the 9th inst, I left my office to go to lunch. I left my .38 Smith & Wesson revolver in the holster on the back of my chair. Immediately after lunch I did not feel well, so did not return, and instructed my assistant, Lieut. R.J.MacEwen to carry on. I did not visit the office again that day.

At 8.00.am the following morning, the 10th inst, I returned to the office, and as I could not see the revolver or the holster, I asked my two clerks, Sgt King and Gnr Nosky if they had seen the weapon. Gnr Nosky then said that it was in the bottom drawer of my cabinet. I went there and saw the holster, but on further examination discovered that the revolver had been taken and the ammunition pouch empty. I made a further search but the only thing I found was one round which had fallen in a corner of the drawer in the cabinet. I then reported the loss to Major G.Rankin. On making further enquiries I learned that Gunners Brooks and Day, who worked in my office, and had been seen there at 7.30.pm on the evening of the 9th, had not been seen since. They are now officially absent without leave. The value of the revolver and ammunition is approximately £7."

2nd Witness. Lieut.Robert John MacEwen 'P' Wing, No.2 C.A.R.U. Royal Canadian Artillery, 'Superior Camp', Grayshott, states,

"On the 9th of September, 1942, I was acting as Assistant Adjutant. I was working in the Adjutants Office in 'P' Wing during the morning with Capt.Jewell. Round about 12.30.pm I left for lunch. I had previously noticed Capt.Jewells revolver in the holster hanging on the back of his chair. During lunch time I saw Capt.Jewell in the Officers mess, he told me that he did not feel well and asked me to carry on his duties. I returned to the office about 1.30.pm and saw the revolver was still hanging on the back of the chair. I finished duty at 5.00.pm and left the office. The revolver was still there then."

3rd Witness. Sgt.B.6231. Melvin KING 'P' Wing, No.2 C.A.R.U. Royal Canadian Artillery, 'Superior Camp', Grayshott, states.

"I am Orderly Room Sergt, of 'P' Wing. Capt,Jewell is the Adjutant. I was in the office at about 12.30.pm on the 9th of September, 1942, when I saw Capt,Jewell leave for his lunch. I then left a few minutes later for mine. On my return to the office about 1.10.pm I saw that Capt.Jewell had not returned, I also saw that his revolver was hanging across the back of his chair, it was in the holster. I did not pay any more attention to the weapon as I expected Capt,Jewell to return any minute. However he did not return that day at all. At 5.00.pm I left for supper and returned about 6.30.pm. The other man in the office then was Gnr Simi, the sanitor. I worked until about 7.30.pm, just before this time Brooks and Day came in, Day was on duty in the office until 8.00.pm I left a few minutes after 7.30.pm. I know definitely that Brooks and Day were in the office then but cannot swear if Simi was or not

4th Witness. Gnr No.R.38667 George Wiltold Nosky, states, "I am employed as a file clerk in the Adjutants Office, 'P' Wing, No.2.C.A.R.U. Royal Canadian Artillery, 'Superior Camp', Grayshott'.

"During the morning of the 9th of September, 1942, I was employed in the office, and left about 12 noon, as I was on a half days leave. I cannot saw whether or not Capt.Jewells revolver was in the office when I was there. I returned to duty at the office about 7.45.am the following morning, soon after that I had occasion to go to the filing cabinet, when I saw in the bottom drawer a revolver holster attached to the web belt and ammunition pouch. I thought it was Capt.Jewells property as he normally carried a revolver in the course of his duty. I did not examine the holster. A few minutes later Capt. Jewell came in. He said, "Where is my revolver" or words similar to that. I then went to the filing cabinet and took out the holster and handed it to him. It was then discovered that the revolver was missing, also the ammunition. Some time later on again going to the cabinet I found one round of revolver ammunition and handed this to Sgt King".

5th Witness. Gnr No.M.653 Alfred Simi, states, "I am employed as a Janitor in 'P' wing, No.2.C.A.R.U. Royal Canadian Artillery, 'Superior Camp', Grayshott.

"At 12.30.pm on the 9th of September, 1942, I went to the Adjutants office to clean up. On entering I saw Brooks and Day in the office. Brooks was fitting Capt, Jewell's revolver on his waist. I said to him."Dont do that, because if Capt, Jewell comes you will get into trouble". Brooks kept on playing with the revolver. I finished my work and left the office about 1.00.pm. Both Brooks and Day were still there then. I did not see what Brooks did with the revolver. I returned to the office about 7.00.pm to do more cleaning, both Brooks and Day were again in the office. I commenced my duties and cannot swear whether or not I saw the revolver then. I left about a half - hour later. Sgt King, and Brooks and Day were still in the office".

6th Witness. George Henry Verey, states, "I am a Police Constable in the Hants Constabulary stationed at Grayshott".

"At 9.45.am on the 10th of September, 1942, I received a report of this case, and proceeded to No.2.C.A.R.U. Royal Canadian Artillery, 'Superior Camp', Grayshott, and made enquiries. I visited the Adjutant's office at 'P' wing where it came to my knowledge that the .38 Smith & Wesson revolver, No. 845780, complete with 24 rounds of ammunition had been left in the holster, on the back of a chair, by the owner Capt.Jewll at 12.30.pm the previous day, and at 8.00.am the next morning it was discovered that the weapon and the ammunition was missing. One round of ammunition was later found and handed to Capt.Jewell. I made a thorough search in and around the office but could find no trace of the weapon or the ammunition. On making enquiries it came to my knowledge that two men, Gunners No.B.48606 Fred Carson Brooks, and B.31950 Harold Day, had been seen in the office during the afternoon of the 9th, and again later that evening. They have not been seen since and are now officially absent without leave from their Unit. Both Brooks and Day were employed in the office. I made further enquiries in the district but could find no trace of the weapon or the missing men.

At 4.15.pm on Saturday, the 9th of January, 1943, I saw Gnr No.B.31950 Harold Day, in custody at Cannon Row Police Station, London. I said to him, "I am a Police Officer from Grayshott, and am making enquiries respecting a .38 Smith & Wesson revolver, the property of Capt.Jewell which was stolen from No.2.C.A.R.U. Royal Canadian Artillery, 'Superior Camp', Grayshott. I cautioned him. He made no reply. I then escorted him to Whitehill Police Station where he was seen by Sgt. Pullman. I cautioned and charged Day with the offence. He replied, "I admit everything. I took the revolver". He was then locked up. At 12.05.pm the following afternoon I again saw Day

- in the cell at Whitehill Police Station. He said that he wished to make a statement. I cautioned him and he made a statement, (copy below) which I wrote on the requisite form and he read over and signed.

Harold Day Gnr No. B.31950, No.2 C.A.R.U 'Superior Camp', Grayshott, states:-

"I am a Gunner No.B.31950 Royal Canadian Artillery, No.2.C.A.R.U. 'Superior Camp', Grayshott.

"On the 9th of September, 1942 I was engaged as a runner in 'P' wing Orderly room. Somewhen during the afternoon I saw Capt. Jewell's revolver in the holster on the back of a chair. I took the revolver but left the holster behind. I also took 24 rounds of .38 ammunition from the ammunition pouch on the holster. Later I met Gunner Fred Brooks and we left Camp. We hitch hiked to London, and from there to Newcastle. I left Brooks in Newcastle. I then proceeded north to Glasgow. On Monday the 4th of January, 1943, I threw the revolver which was fully loaded with 6 rounds of ammunition, in the Manchester Canal. I also threw away at the same time the remaining 18 rounds I did not fire the revolver at any time. On the 6th of January, 1943 I gave myself up to the Military Police at Manchester."

Below is a copy of statement made by Gunner No.B.48608 Fred Carson Brooks, on the 6th of October, 1942.

Gunner No.B.48608 Fred Carson Brooks, 'P' wing 'B' Battery, No.2 C.A.R.U, Royal Canadian Artillery, 'Superior Camp' Grayshott, states:-

"I am a filing clerk in the Orderly Room of 'P' wing, 'B' Battery, 'Superior Camp', Grayshott. I was employed in the office all day on the 9th of September, 1942. Gunner Day was also employed in the same office as a runner. Approximately at 11.30.am that day I went to dinner, and returned to the office about 11.45.am to let Sgt.King go to his dinner. I cannot remember whether Day was there then , or not, but he was in the office with me at 12.30.pm. I then saw Capt.Jewell's revolver in the holster on the back of his chair. I took the weapon out of the holster and examined it. I did not attempt to fit the holster round my waist. I dont think Day touched it. After I finished examining the weapon I replaced it in the holster. Gunner Simi, the janitor was in the office all this time. At 4.30.pm I finished duty and left for supper. I dont remember if Day went with me or not. Actually I was officially finished at the office for that day, but I returned at 5.05.pm. I believe Day was in the office then as his duties carried him on until 8.00.pm to look after the telephone. Gunner Simi came in about 7.00.pm. After I had returned at 5.05.pm I put the weapon in the filing cabinet, in the bottom drawer. We generally put anything of value in there and lock it up. The keys of the cabinet are then hidden behind the black - out pole, in the office. The men

- in the office would know where the key was hidden but strangers would not. About 7.45.pm I left the office while Day was there. I had only got a short distance away when Day caught me up. Whilst we were in the office I told Day that I was going to take a short holiday, he then said that he would come along with me or words to that effect. I was all ready to go then but he was not. I waited about for him to get ready. About 8.15.pm we both left the Camp, and started on our way to London. Whilst on our journey Day produced the revolver that I had previously locked up in the cabinet. I did not know that he had it with him until that moment. The next evening whilst in Lower Richmond St, Putney, two Military Policemen on motor cycles stopped us and asked us for our passes. We showed them, and they became suspicious of them, actually we made out the passes ourselves back at Camp. They told us to go with them, Corporal Anderson, one of the Military Policemen, told us to get on the back of their machines. I got on the back of Anderson's, it was then that Day produced the revolver. I just forget what happened then, but we both beat it up the street. We stayed around London that night, then started to hitch hike north. We arrived in Newcastle on the 17th of September. During that evening we both went to a Y.M.C.A. we had been there about 4 hours when I went outside leaving Day upstairs. I was then challenged by a Military Policeman who asked me for my pass. I showed him a genuine one issued to me for Aldershot Command. He was not satisfied and took me into custody. I have not seen Day since. He had the revolver in his possession whilst in the Y.M.C.A. I was later escorted back to 'Superior Camp'. I would like to add that there was definitely no shots fired at any time whilst we were in Putney where the Military Police stopped us, but we did run through a private house to escape.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. TRANSCRIPT OF EVIDENCE IN THE TRIAL BY FGCM OF A-5032I CPL (L/SGT) (A/SGT) DAY, H R, ESSEX SCOT, HELD ON 21 MAR 45.

First Witness for the Prosecution, Capt A J Hodges, Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1- Will you tell us in your own words what happened on 1 Mar 45 ? With reference to this case?

A.1 - On 1 Mar 45 B Coy, of which I am OC, was ordered to put in an attack on part of the Hochwold Forest. Sgt Day was Mobile Fire Controller with our Coy, in the 3-inch mortar Platoon. I received my orders at about 1500 hrs and at that time I specified that Sgt Day would accompany Coy HQ. At 1400 hrs we crossed the start line. I don't remember seeing him after we formed up because I was at the front of Coy HQ and didn't look back once we started to see who was with us. When we reached our objective Sgt Day was not with us.

Q.2 - Did Sgt Day report to you at any time?

A.2 - No, he did not.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.3 - Capt Hodges, did you work with Sgt Day before this particular attack?

A.3 - Yes.

Q.4 - This particular day, he was with you at the O Gp?

A.4 - That is right.

Q.5 - Had he been with your Coy prior to this particular operation at 1400 hrs?

A.5 - Yes, he had been with us for several days.

Q.6 - Was he previously attached to your Coy as MPC?

A.6 - He had been working with B Coy since the start of the operation.

Q.7 - Before you started off on the attack you looked around and didn't notice him. Were you confident of the fact that he was there and would be there to do the job?

A.7 - Yes, I was.

Q.8 - Did you particularly want him on this attack because of other jobs he had done?

A.8 - Up until this time I had worked with Sgt Day in A and B Coys and he had always done a very fine job. As a matter of fact I had asked for him to be MPC with the Coy.

Q.9 - For this particular operation and for previous attacks?

A.9 - No, I had asked for him for this operation and for the operation before.

Q.10 - At what stage in the battle did you find out Sgt Day was not with you?

A.10 - I found out as we were advancing to our objective, 100 to 200 yards from where we crossed the start line.

Q.11 - What time did you personally find out he was not with Coy HQ, approximately?

A.11 - About 1430 hrs, when we started to consolidate.

Q.12 - What was the nature of the opposition in this particular area?

A.12 - Until we actually hit the woods, it was all small arms fire. After we got into the woods there were 88's and mortars.

Q.13 - Prior to your attack there was heavy enemy opposition in the nature of small arms and mortar fire?

A.13 - Yes, the Coys preceding us had got quite heavy opposition.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.14 - You mentioned Sgt Day was with you in an earlier operation. I would like you to give us the whole phase of this thing, how long he was with you, etc.?

A.14 - On the night of 28 Feb 45 we moved on to objectives, and B Coy moved on to an area just short of the Hochwold. We encountered no opposition and got on quite easily. At the same time, on our right, A Coy moved up and took a position on the left of the road which leads into the Hochwold Forest. They had some opposition but eventually took the position. On the morning of 1 Mar 45 our C and D Coys put in an attack on the Hochwold. They started off from A Coy position which I would say was about 4 or 5 miles outside the forest itself. The ground betweenA Coy position and the forest was pretty flat and they had several trench systems wired. C and D Coys on account of heavy opposition, had a number of casualties. They managed to take up positions just on the fringe of the Woods. C Coy went into the woods on the left of the road and D Coy into a few houses on the right of the road, which runs through the forest. B Coy was given the job of moving through C and D Coys and taking the woods on both sides of the road. We had quite a bit of opposition from MGs on the left front which caused most of our casualties. Once we hit the woods it was not too bad, there was a little mortaring and a few 88's and a little small arms fire. That is about all I can tell you.

Q.15 - You mentioned something about Sgt Day working with you in A Coy. Were you in A Coy on the night of 28 Feb 45?

A.15 - No , this wasduring the time we spent at Groesbeck. I was 2 i/c of A Coy during the month of Jan up until the time this attack started. We sat for a month in one spot and Sgt Day was MPC with the Coy.

Q.16 - Was Sgt Day with B Coy during this whole operation in the Hochwold Forest which you described?

A.16 - Yes.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(8).

The witness withdraws.

Second witness for the Prosecution, A-50288 A/Sgt Carter, J B, Essex Scot, being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.17 - In your own words will you tell us what happened on 1 Mar 45 with reference to this case? Do you recognise the accused?

A.17 - Yes, sir, Sgt Day, there (indicating accused). On 1 Mar 45 approximately 200 yards from our forming up position, I was quite near Sgt Day. He told me he could not go any further. He asked me if I would report to Capt Hodges for him.

Q.18 - Did you report to Capt Hodges?

A.18 - Yes, sir.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.19 - Sgt Carter, At this particular time when Sgt Day asked you if you would report to Capt Hodges for him, would you say he was nervous, or rather that his nerves were rather upset at the time because of the heat of battle?

A.19 - Yes, I would, sir.

Q.20 - His nerves were definitely upset?

A.20 - Yes, sir.

Q.21 - How soon was it approximately after Sgt Day told you that you reported to Capt Hodges?

A.21 - Before I could see Capt Hodges it would be approximately 10 minutes.

Q.22 - At the time Sgt Day reported to you was Capt Hodges in the immediate area, in sight?

A.22 - Capt Hodges at the time, sir, was just up about 50 yards or so, and I had to run to catch up to him after speaking to Sgt Day.

Q.23 - In this particular phase, the first phase of the battle, how was the enemy opposition in this area?
A.23 - Strong, sir.
Q.24 - Of what nature?
A.24 - Small arms.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.25 - The attack went in I understand at about 1400 hrs. Is that right?
A.25 - Yes, sir.
Q.26 - The O Gp was held around 1300 hrs?
A.26 - Yes, sir.
Q.27 - When did Sgt Day tell you he could not go on any longer, in relation to when you started across the start line?
A.27 - You want the time, sir?
Q.28 - How much time had passed or how many yards had you gone?
A.28 - I can't give you the time, but it was approximately 200 yards past the forming up position past the start line in the direction of the enemy.
Q.29 - After you got started he mentioned to you he could not go on?
A.29 - Right, sir.
Q.30 - Would you say he was sick?
A.30 - He seemed quite upset.
Q.31 - Sick or nervous?
A.31 - Nervous, I would say.
Q.32 - What exactly did the accused tell you?
A.32 - He spoke to me and he said, I can't go any further, will you report to Capt Hodges for me.
Q.33 - Can you add anything to that or was it just words to that effect?
A.33 - Words to that effect, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Third Witness for the Prosecution, Capt J R Learn, Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.34 - Do you recognize the accused?
A.34 - Yes, that is Sgt Day, there (indicating accused).
Q.35 - Will you tell us in your own words what happened on 1 Mar 45?
A35 - On 1 Mar 45, the day of the attack in question, I was called to the CO's O Gp and told the position of the attack. We were then in front of the Hochwald Forest. I was told that B Coy was one of two Coys going into the attack on the forest. In the course of the conversation the CO ordered me to find an MPC to report to B Coy before 1400 hrs. I saw Capt Hodges, OC B Coy, and asked him if he had any preferences as to an MPC. He asked me if Sgt Day was available and I told him that he was and he then asked to have Sgt Day report to him before 1400 hrs. I then contacted Sgt Day, gave him my orders and told him to report to Capt Hodges. I saw him leave and I returned to my Platoon HQ. I was OC Mortar Platoon. I was there shortly after 1400 hrs controlling a shoot from my HQ, it was approximately 1420 hrs to 1430 hrs, after the attack had started, and Sgt Day reported to me saying he had returned from B Coy. At that time I noticed Sgt Day was very pale and sobbing. I asked him what had happened and he stated that his nerves had broken and that he could not carry on with his job. I thought that in the condition that he was in he could no longer carry on and consequently, as the MO at that time had his hands full, I despatched him with a vehicle that was going to A Ech of our unit, sir.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.36 - Capt Learn, how long have you been with the Mortar Platoon of the Essex Scot?
A.36 - Itook over the Mortar Platoon approximately 15 Aug 44, sir.
Q.37 - Was Sgt Day a member of the Mortar Platoon?
A.37 - Yes, he was i/c of No 3 Section when I took over. As far as I know he landed with the Mortar Platoon in France.
Q.38 - Since August, all through the battles to the present time, Sgt Day has been a member of your Platoon, working with you?
A.38 - That is correct, sir.
Q.39 - What would you say of his character? And his work?
A.39 - A very good one, I would say. He has always done a very good job. I would say 60% of the time Sgt Day was in charge of the section. During that time he was not he acted as MFC and my personal opinion is that he has gone into as many attacks as the average Platoon Comd, or as the average Coy Comd. I never had a complaint from any Coy Comds as to his work with them and as far as I know he has done his job for them as well as he has done his job for me. He has always done a good job, sir.
Q.40 - You mentioned an O Gp before the attack. Was Sgt Day asked for by name?
A.40 - Yes, by Capt Hodges.
Q.41 - You stated that at approximately 1420 hrs Sgt Day reported back to you. Where were you?
A.41 - I was at my Platoon HQ, about 1500 yards from the target which was B Coy objective.
Q.42 - Did he report to you in a formal manner?
A.42 - He came direct to my command post in the centre of my position and called me aside.
Q.43 - In your capacity as Morar Platoon Comd since August you feel that you are acquainted with battle neurosis as apart say from straight fear?
A.43 - As qualified as any other Platoon Comd.
Q.44 - And through your experience you think Sgt Day's condition was defenitely a neurosis condition?
A.44 - Yes, sir.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.45 - Capt Learn, was there any prior indication from Sgt Day that his nerves were going?
A.45 - I can't say. He came back to me physically and mentally unfit for front line service. But I had been in England for two months before this attack.
Q.46 - Why didn't you send him to the MO as soon as he reported back to you?
A.46 - Because at the time Sgt Day was in such a condition I didn't want the other men to see him and inasmuch as the MO had his hands full with actual blood casualties. I thought it better to get him out of the way.
Q.47 - I realize that. But it would certainly not hurt the casualties to see Sgt Day in that condition or in any state even if he had to wait a couple of days for the MO to see him. In the second place, Sgt Day appears to be a hell of a good NCO, a good Sgt, and his whole future army history stands on the result of this court-martial. What we should have before us now is medical evidence as to his condition. If he was a battle exhaustion case he should have gone to a hospital, not a court-martial.

It is very unfortunate.

A.47 - It is my fault, sir.

Q.48 - I sympathize with you and can understand your position. But you should understand that this evidence is very important. A man's future hangs on it. There is only one way to get the proper evidence and that is for the MO to examine the man and testify that it was a bttle exhaustion case or he was scared. It leaves this Court in a very difficult position in deciding this case with no medical evidence at all. I realize that as an ordinary officer you are quite well qualified to judge. But I would like something m re from a qualified MO. That is all. Thank you.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution, Capt C J Jeffrey, Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.49 - Capt Jeffrey, do you recognize the accused?
A.49 - Yes, that is Sgt Day (indicating accused).
Q.50 - Were you the officer detailed to takt the summary of evidence in this case?
A.50 - Yes.
Q.51 - Would you identify this document?
A.51 - Yes, this was a statement handed to me by Sgt Day on the day I took this summary of evidence.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.52 - Did you in fact take this summary?
A.52 - Yes, sir.
Q.53 - Did you warn the accused before taking that statement?
A.53 - Yes, I gave him the warning under RP 4, read it out to him and then explained to him the meaning of it.

The statement is produced in evidence, read, signed by the President, marked exhibit A and attached to the proceedings.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

The Defending Officer submits the following motion.

Mr President and Members of the Court, it is definitely the opinion of the defence that there is no prima facie case against the accused either by the evidence of the prosecution or in any proof by the prosecution. The charge as it is worded here in the opinion of the defence does not apply in any way, to the actions of Sgt Day on 1 Mar 45 (reads the charge). True he did not take further part in the attack but as far as desertion goes there I submit it has no connection at all. In his statement, which I think is quite clear, he is very frank and tells exactly what happened. There was no intent on his part. Likewise, the evidence for the prosecution has proved no intent. In my cross-examination of witnesses, of Capt Hodges particularly, on this attack, it is quite clear that Capt Hodges had asked Sgt Day to act as his Mobile Fire Controller for his Coy. Although Sgt Day, having gone 200 or 300 yards from the FUP finds he could not go on, and although he cannot find his Coy Comd, he does the next best thing before pulling out. He asks Sgt Carter to get word to Capt Hodges and then he reported to his Pl Comd. Also, as the charge is framed, the total time absent, ~~mmm~~ thirty minutes, was the time spent by Sgt Day from the time he gave those instructions to Sgt Carter until he reported to his Pl Comd, Capt Learn, at Pl HQ, near TAC Bn HQ. In my cross-examination of Capt Learn, who is an experienced officer, having seen a lot of action, it was quite clearly brought out that Sgt Day's nerves had ~~gone~~ given way and for that reason Capt Learn sent him back to A Ech. At that time Capt Learn did the only thing he could do there. The whole area at that time was more or less front line and the best thing to do was to get him out and back to proper rest and proper care as soon as possible. At that time Capt Learn had no suspicions at all of desertion or any charge at all involving Sgt Day. So the thirty minutes involved there, it is obvious to the defence and I think the Court will bear witness, is not desertion. So in submitting these facts to your attention I would like the Court to consider these facts with regard to the charge. No intent has been proved, no desertion has been proved, and this case or rather charge as framed has not been established. As an experienced Coy Comd myself I believe this to be a case of battle nerves. We all know that MFCs do get into the thick of battle very often. Also, as Sgt Day said in his statement, during this two~~e~~week period he had had very little sleep or food, particularly during the last 36 hours. During this attack the Bn lost 27 officers and over 500 ORs. That was pretty steady going. Also during his time on this continent he has had no leave but one 48-hrs.

The Prosecutor declines to reply to the motion.

JA

On the point of law, I can point out that so far as intent is concerned, you cannot prove intent, what is going on in a man's mind. The only way intent can be proven is by the circumstances of the case. And as a general rule in law a man is presumed to intend the natural consequences of his acts.

First Witness for the Defence, the accused, A-50321 Cpl (L/Sgt) (A/Sgt) Day, H R, Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.54 - Sgt Day, would you tell the Court in your own words the facts leading up to this particular battle in which you took part and what happened?

A.54 - For about 4 or 5 days previous to the date mentioned, 1 Mar 45, I had been attached to B Coy at Capt Hodges' request. The night before the attack we had put in an attack with little opposition on the fringe of the Hochwold Forest. The previous day and night I had had practically no sleep because, as someone was overworked, I was manning an 18 set and you can't do that and sleep. Next morning I was ordered to report back to the Mortar Pl which I did. The mortars were in action and I kept busy there all morning until Captt Learn warned me I was going in with B Coy to the attack in the Hochwold Forest. He told me to report to the RVP which was at A ~~Hqrs~~ Coy position. I waited there for an hour at least until B Coy ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ came through and formed up. During that time we were mortared heavily in A Coy. I attended the O Gp with the Platoon Officers for this attack, and with the Anti-Tank representative, got the necessary information, and proceeded out to form up. We formed up and the attack began. There was a lot of MG fire and sniper fire, during this period, and things were growing steadily worse. My nerves were getting the best of me until I reached a point where I could not carry on with my duties. At which time I asked Sgt Carter to report the fact to Capt Hodges that I could not go on. I then did the best thing I thought I could do in the circumstances and reported to Capt Learn at Pl Hq. I told him what had happened. He then sent me to A Ech. At no time at all before the attack or during the attack did I have the intention of deserting from this action or disobeying orders. I think anybody who has been in action will agree that after a certain amount of battle a breaking point is reached. During 8 months in action I have never had any complaints at my work. If I had had desertion in mind on this occasion I certainly would not have waited at the forming up point for one hour or started the attack if disobeying orders had been my intent. From the time I went to pieces until I reported to A Ech I did the best things I could think of under the circumstances and just carried out Capt Learn's instructions from there.

Q.55 - Sgt Day, from the time y u left B Coy to report to Capt Learn, how long would that be?

A.55 - I can't say, sir, the matter of time. It could have been any time from 15 minutes to one-half hour.

Q.56 - At any time did Capt Learn suggest taking you to the MO?

A.56 - He never mentioned the MO at any time, sir.

Q.57 - You you have been willing to go if he had told you?

A.57 - Yes, sir.

The Prosecutor declines to ~~pa~~ cross-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.58 - Was B Coy in a forward area during the 36 hours previous to to this attack?

A.58 - Yes, sir.

Q.59 - Did you have to pass the RAP to go to Capt Learn?

A.59 - Our RAP and Mortar position were about 100 yards apart. As I remember the RAP was in a house facing the main road and behind a large building. One thing I might add, sir, my only job in that particular attack was to lift our fire if it was laid too close. I could not lay it against the enemy in the bush because I could not see them. Mortars were a minor phase in the general attack.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

Second Witness for the Defence, H/Capt J Cardy, Chaplain (P), Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.60 - Will you please give the Court your name and rank?
A.60 - Yes, I am H/Capt J Cardy, padre of the Essex Scot.
Q.61 - Do you recognise the accused?
A.61 - Yes.
Q.62 - On 1 Mar 45 were you with A Ech?
A.62 - Yes, coming back from leave.
Q.63 - During the battle, would you give the Court any details?
A.63 - Well, I worked with the RAP and helped with the casualties.
Q.64 - On this particular day at A Ech did you at any time see Sgt Day?
A.64 - Yes, I saw him I think just after he got back there.
Q.65 - Could you give us the approximate time?
A.65 - I think it was after lunch. I am not sure. Yes it was in the afternoon.
Q.66 - When you saw him what condition was he in?
A.66 - I had just left HQ on the way to B Coy when I saw Sgt Day standing there. I went up to him to see if something was wrong. He looked sick. I asked him what was wrong. He told me he had been sent back. I took him over to the support coy and told the man there in the kitchen there to get him a good meal, put him to bed and not to let anybody ~~xxxxxxxx~~ bother him. He was tired out, and needing a rest.
Q.67 - You thought that was the best thing to do?
A.67 - I thought it was the only thing to do. I knew he was exhausted and needed treatment. I knew how the MO treated battle~~d~~exhaustion cases and I knew how to treat Sgt Day.
Q.68 - What can you tell us as to his character?
A.68 - I have known him ever since he has been with the regiment and I always found him 100% reliable. He has been a friend of mine and I have worked very close to him, in his platoon. I know he has done a good job in action. From what the boys have said.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.69 - In your opinion, from what you have observed around the RAP, was Sgt Day a battle exhaustion case?
A.69 - Yes. I might point out that you do not evacuate Sgts as battle exhaustion cases, or officers, because if you do you lose them. There is nothing medical about an exhaustion case. All the doctor does is look at the man. I have known Sgt Day longer than the MO has.
Q.70 - In your opinion, do you think Sgt Day would have been evacuated as a battle exhaustion case had he gone to the RAP?
A.70 - I am certain of it.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Third Witness for the Defence, A-106131 Sgt Wilson, W J, Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.71 - Sgt Wilson, do you recognise the accused?
A.71 - I do, sir.
Q.72 - As Sgt Day?
A.72 - Yes, sir.
Q.73 - What is your job in the Bn?
A.73 - I have a section of former pioneers.
Q.74 - I understand, Sgt Wilson, on 1 Mar, when the Bn took part in the attack against the Hochwold Forest you were in A Ech?

A.74 - Yes, sir, I was LOB at the time.
Q.75 - During that day, did you see Sgt Day at A Ech?
A.75 - Yes, I seen Sgt Day the afternoon of the day we moved up to the attack.
Q.76 - Can you give me the approximate time?
A.76 - Yes, I am not just sure about it but would say between 4:30 and 5.
Q.77 - Do you know anything as to the circumstances why he was back at A Ech?
A.77 - No, I didn't at the time. But when I seen him I knew something was wrong. He looked completely beat.
Q.78 - Can you give us a little more detail regarding your opinion as to his, Sgt Day's condition?
A.78 - Well, when I first seen him I walked up to him and said, how are you doing. He looked bad. I asked him if he had a place to sleep. He said no. I said, come and sleep with me, in my slit. We were in slit trenches. We had tea, talked, then about 8 he said he guessed he would turn in. I allowed him to sleep until 1000 hrs next morning when A Ech was to move. The rest of us were up early but he was still asleep when I went to tell him we were going.
Q.79 - How long have you known Sgt Day?
A.79 - About 13 months now, sir.
Q.80 - How long have you been a Sgt?
A.80 Since 21 Jan 45.
Q.81 - As a fellow soldier, in the Support Coy, can you give us a brief description of Sgt Day's character?
A.81 - Well I think he has always made a pretty fine showing. He was at Groesbeck a month or month and a half out at B Coy, at the advanced outpost about 700 yards in front. He wasn't out of it much. I know the day we made the first attack up to the church, Sgt Day asked me if he could ride in my carrier but I didn't have room so he walked half-way. As far as I know he has always done a good job and been in there pitching.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine the witness.

No questions by the Court.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Fourth Witness for the Defence, A-21124 CSM Woodiwiss, J E, Support Coy, Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.82 - Do you recognize the accused?
A.82 - Yes, sir.
Q.83 - What is your job in the Bn?
A.83 - My job is to be in charge of ~~the Support~~ all NCOs and men in the Support Coy, for discipline and to see they carry out their duties, and also seeing that amn is supplied to the forward Platoons.
Q.84 - I understand that before being CSM of the Support Coy you were Mortar Platoon Sgt?
Q.85 - What can you tell us about Sgt Day?
A.85 - Sir, I have known Sgt Day ever since Sep 43. I trained with him in England and came to this country with him. He was at that time a L/Sgt, 2 i/c of my Section, I was Section Sgt. I have been in several battles with him, all through France. I became Platoon Sgt and had several dealings with him. He always carried out my orders. He was always willing to go up forward to any forward position. He never argued about anything. He even volunteered to go up an' take over sections that were short of MFCs. I never had any complaints from any Coy Comd. He always had his men well trained. We have had about two complete turn-overs in the Platoon of MFCs, and it's no easy job. And it is always difficult to train a good mobile fire controller. And we were nearly always shorthanded with MFCs so they had plenty to do.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine the witness.

No questions by the Court.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Fifth Witness for the Defence, Lieut W N McMillan, Essex Scot, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.86 - Lieut McMillan, you are now IO of the Essex Scot?
A.86 - Right, sir.
Q.87 - Do you recognize the accused?
A.87 - Yes, sir.
Q.88 - You were formerly a rifle coy officer?
A.88 - Right, sir, No 7 Platoon, A Coy.
Q.89 - Did you work with Sgt Day as MFC in ~~them~~ your platoon?
A.89 - Yes, sir, he was MFC attached to my Platoon for 30 days at Groesbeck.
Q.90 - Were you a forward platoon at the time?
A.90 - Yes, sir.
Q.91 - Can you give the Court a few bried details as to Sgt Day's operations with you?
A.91 - Yes, sir, during the time that Sgt Day was with me up in that position he carried out his duties as MFC very well, to the best of his ability and everything satisfactorily. He was with me when this push started. We occupied the same house. He carried out his duties very very well at all times.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.92 - Was this position for 30 days in Groesbeck rather an exposed, nerve-wracking one in any particular way?
A.92 - Not particularly, with the exception of the last few days when mortar fire increased. The first part of the time up there was very quiet. The last two weeks movement had to be absolutely controlled and ~~ha~~ we had heavy casualties in the platoon.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

The Defending Officer makes the following closing address.

Mr. President and Members of the Court, I think I have brought forward all the witnesses possible in defence of the accused, both as to the facts and as to character. I now wish to sum up on this case and also to bring out a few facts of my own. With regard to that, I have served in the same regiment as the accused, Sgt Day, for the best short of five years, since 1940 in July. I have known Sgt Day not only in the regiment but also in high school prior to joining the army. We came to this regiment at approximately the same time. Sgt Day has been engaged in mortar platoon work with an infantry bn for the last five years. He came to the Essex Scot in Aug 43 having reverted from a confirmed Cpl from his regiment so that he arrived at this unit as a pte. He came into the mortar platoon of the regiment here. In England he influenced his CO through his good work to recommend him for promotion to the rank of Cpl and recently he was promoted to L/Sgt and A/Sgt with the mortar platoon. He arrived with the regiment in France on 3 Jul 44 and from that day he has been in every battle, Caen, Fallaise, by the Seine River, Elbeouf and other actions all up through France, Belgium, Holland and Germany, right in there, with them. During this period he not only served asa senior NCO but particularly during the last few months he served as MH MFC and partly pinch hit in that job for others because of the very high casualties in MFCs. He has worked with any coy and every coy and was right on the bit whether on defence or on attack. That has been borne out by the witnesses on his behalf before the Court today. On this particular date, 1 Mar 45, on the attack on the Hochwold Forest, he was asked for by name by his Coy Comd concerne in this case, Capt Hodges. In summing up the evidence as given by the witnesses for the defence you have heard them all and I think it is quite clear to the defence, and I am quite sure to the Court, which must be influenced by the 100% record of Sgt Day through all the actions up to the present time, that Sgt Day has been going strong particularly during the last three weeks through three very severe battles. He was often called on because he was one of the most experienced MFCs we had. And in addition he volunteered at times for the job. I feel that the charge under which he is placed now is quite unfair. True, he was not take to the MO, but in any cases I have known as a Coy Comd myself, having dealt with a number of cases of this nature, I have never yet had a man walk to the MO. Usually he is taken or sent there by his superior officer. In this case, as a Sgt, his Platoon Officer felt it was advisable, with his experience, to send this Sgt back to A Ech. And that is the only reason why Sgt Day is here before you today. In closing I again ask the Court to consider all these facts as to Sgt Day's ability, record, and the circumstances. In this case he had just reached a point where you cannot expect flesh and blood to go further. In several ways it is not his fault that he is put on this charge. I will not ask the Court to give the accused th benefit of the doubt because I do not believe there is any doubt involved. I will say that the facts put forward on his behalf I suggest be accepted and considered in the final findings of the Court.

The Prosecutor makes the following closing address.

The prosecution rests this case on the evidence but would like to point out that a great part of the defence evidence has to do with mitigation of punishment.

The JA sums up as follows.

Mr. President and gentlemen, you are the masters of the fact and you are also masters of the law but I must point out that in this latter respect you should not disregard my advice unless on points of law unless for very weighty reasons. I also wish to remind you that the accused is presumed to be innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. By that I mean a common sense doubt arising out of the evidence and not based on fancy, imagination or undue sympathy. The onus rests upon the prosecution throughout the trial to prove the guilty of the accused and if you are not satisfied that the prosecution has proved that gu guilt then you are bound by law to find him not guilty. In this particular case we have a charge of desertion, going away without leave, and in going away having an intent either to desert His Majesty's Service never to return, or to avoid some particular service. It will be up to you to decide in this case whether hg leaving the Coy when it was in an attack is avoiding a particular service. In the event that you do accept the fact from the evidence that the accused did leave the coy during an attack, it will be up to you to decide whether it was desertion. To establish the fact of desertion you must have evidence of intent. Now of course, Intent cannot be proven by seeing what is in a man's mind. You have evidence of the accused himself which may enlighten you element. But intend may be deduced from all the circumstances of the case and in any event it is a presumption of law that a man is assumed to intend the natural consequences of his actions. Now I wish to read to you para 17 on page 18 of MML, Chapter 3 (reads the citation to the Court. Now you will find also in MML that the question of distance and time absent are not essential or invariable factors in desertion. But as a final word I again want to remid you that you must be sure beyond a reasonable doubt that the accused went away to escape or avoid doing an attack before you can find him guilty. Also, under Army Act Section 56, in a case of desertion, the Court are allowed to bring in special findings of guilty on the lesser charges of attempting to desert or absence without leave.

Mr. President, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. - No.
Mr. Prosecuting Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. - No, sir.
Mr. Defending Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. - No.

I wish the services of Major DAVIS be obtained to defend me at my trial if he is available. If he is not available I wish the services of an officer detailed by the Adjutant.

Hodges that he just couldn't go on any further.

THIRD WITNESS: Capt. J.R. Learn, 1st. Bn., Essex Scottish Reg't., Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

For the Prosecution

"I am Capt. J.R. Learn, O.C. Mortar Pl of the Essex Scottish Reg't., Canadian Army Overseas, At approx 1300 hrs 1 Mar 45, I ordered A-50321 A/Sgt. Day, H.R. to report to "B" Coy H.Q. and act as Mobile Fire Controller with that Coy. The Coy was due to attack at 1400 hrs of that date. Shortly after this time, Sgt. Day reported to me at my H.Q. stating that at the last moment his nerves had broken and that he was unable to go through with the taks detailed to him. At the time, I noticed that Sgt. Day was, in my opinion, mentally and physically unfit for front line service so I therefore sent him to "A" Echelon of our unit. He was very pale and sobbing at that time.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Sgd. J.R. Learn, Capt.

The accused having been duly warned in accordance with R.P. 4 (e), says:

"I wish to submit this written statement in my defence."

(Statement attached as App. "A".)

Sgd. H.R. Day A/Sgt.

The accused declines to call witnesses in his defence at this point.

Certified that R.P.4 have been complied with, and that the foregoing evidence, consisting of two pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED.

A-50321 Sgt. M.R. DAY .

The following statement I make voluntarily in connection with the summary of evidence taken by Capt. Jeffrey.

On the afternoon of 1 Mar 45 I, at approximately 1300 hrs, was ordered by my platoon commander, Capt. J.R. Learn, to report to Capt. Hodges, O.C. of "B" Coy. I contacted Capt. Hodges at the F.U.P. and attended his orders group.

He ordered me to travel with Coy HQ in the attack which I proceeded to do. After travelling approximately 200 yards across a field directly in front of the Hochwald Forest during which time my nerves were growing steadily worse. I finally completely went to pieces and felt I could no longer do my job ~~XX~~ as M.P.C. I called Sgt. Carter and told him to tell Capt. Hodges I could not go on. I then reported to Capt. Learn at my Pl HQ and he ordered me to our "A" Echn.

Previous to "B" Coy's attack I had been going with little food or sleep for 36 hours. At no time did I have the slightest intention of wilfully disobeying the orders given to me by either Capt. Hodges or Capt. Learn until as I previously mentioned, I broke down.

Case of

H.19865 Pte James Chester DAY 2 CIRU (Camp of C)

PROSECUTION

1st Witness

Lt JE ORR, 2 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

On Sunday 12 Mar at approximately 1100 hrs I was Mustering Officer. At about 1100 and 1115 hours I called the roll of the draft. Pte Day was present on the parade. The method of calling the draft is to give the man's surname and he reports back his number and initials. Rechecking my sheet I found the only man absent at the end of my muster was a C&MS Blanko whose absence was reported to the A/2IC. That is all, Sir.

Defending Officer declines to cross-examine.

Questions by the Court:

Q. What was the name of the draft?
A. It was for Exercise "ZIPPER", Sir.

Q. Was it a field draft?
A. Yes, that is, it was going to a regiment in the field in the UK as reinforcements. I did not know the accused by sight before that parade. When each man answered his name he fell out and formed up again on another piece on the parade square.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

2nd Witness

Lt JG FEE, 2 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

On Sunday 12 Mar 1944, I was acting in the capacity of warning officer and I called out Pte Day's name and he answered by his number and his initials. I then proceeded to warn the group who were proceeding on Exercise "ZIPPER" and explained the warning. The warning consists of five parts. I have in my hand the warning and nominal roll which I had on parade. The warning which I read is contained in paras (i) to (v) inclusive.

DOCUMENT MARKED EXHIBIT 1 BY THE COURT.

Cross examined by the Defending Officer

Q Did you ask for questions or anything?
A Yes, I took the first four paragraphs and then asked for any questions. Then I took the fifth para and read it and asked again for any questions.

Prosecutor declines to re-examine.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

3rd Witness

Lt J GARVSIDE, 2 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

At approximately 0630 hours on the 13 Mar as Asst Records Offr I was mustering a draft of men for Exercise "ZIPPER". I came to Pte Day's name on the list, called it, and he did not answer it. I called his name three times and on none of those occasions did he answer. The draft left this camp for its destination on the morning of the 13 Mar at 0745 hours. The accused did not go with that draft.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer:

Q Mr Gartside, did you check with the Orderly Sgt?
A I did not make any inquiries from the Orderly Sgt to ascertain [redacted] where the accused was. My duty is only to read the nominal roll on parade. Major Knox the OC of the Despatch Coy was present on the parade at the time the accused failed to answer his name and I drew his attention to the fact that the accused was absent.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine this witness.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

4th Witness

L.64083 Cpl RUTH RA, 2 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

On the morning of the 13th March, 1944, I was acting as Orderly Sgt and I went around to waken the men. All the men had been warned the day before on the morning parade and an afternoon parade at which I was present that they were to be up next morning at 0415 hours in order to turn in their blankets, have breakfast and then proceed to get ready to fall in on parade at a certain hour I can't definitely remember now. On that morning I proceeded to "B"7 Hut and personally woke Pte Day and told him to get up out of bed, as I did the rest of the men. I woke him again later and asked him if he was on draft and he told me no and as I did not have a list of the men that were on draft, with me, I went on with my duties. I got him up later and took his name and number and reported it to the Orderly Room. This was all after I learned that he was on that draft. On the parade the afternoon before I heard every man answer to his name that was called out and to the best of my knowledge there were no absentees.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer

Q On the morning of the 13 Mar when you first wakened Pte Day, did he get out of bed and put his feet on the floor?
A No, Sir.

The Prosecutor declines to re-examine this witness.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

DEFENCE

The accused, H.19865 Pte James Chester DAY, 2 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I was present on the parade on the morning of 12 Mar when the draft was warned. When I went to bed on the night of 12-13 I had my kit packed ready to go with the draft in the morning. I have no recollection of the Cpl or anyone wakening me on the morning of the 13 Mar 44. The first time I was fully awake was when I heard them saying they were going to clear the hut. I don't know what time that was then. When I wakened up there was one man in the hut where I was sleeping and if I am not mistaken there were three or four others. Their kits were there. I had no reason not wanting to go with that draft. I was at Dieppe with the Camerons. I came to the reinforcement unit through hospital on account of stomach trouble.

Cross-examined by Prosecutor:

Q Is that the first occasion on which you had slept in? 8.15 is rather a late hour for a soldier to get up is it not?

A No, Sir, I have slept in like this several times and quite often lately.

Defending Officer declines to re-examine this witness.

Questions by the Court:

Q Had you been drinking the night before?

A On the night of the 12 Mar I had been to the canteen and I might have had 5 or 6 pints of beer to drink. I was first warned for this particular draft on the morning of the 12 Mar 44. I went to bed just about midnight on the night of 12-13 March 44. Ever since I came from the field I have been sleeping more soundly and on a number of occasions I have been told later that I was shook in bed, still I have no recollection of it.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF RP 83(D).

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING

I have presented documentary evidence as well as four witnesses as showing that Pte Day was duly warned for draft and that on the morning of the 13 on the Muster Parade he was absent. According to the last witness he was called before the draft went out and was called again when the hut had to be cleared at 0815 in the morning. The witness himself says he has no recollection of being called. As I see it he was duly warned, was called, failed to get up and he therefore missed the draft, and on those facts the Prosecution rests its case.

DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESS THE COURT ON THE FINDING

The case is to proove intention of desertion by hiding himself, etc., so that he would not go to the field. This man himself has been at Dieppe, has served in the field, and has no reason for not wanting to go back to the field. As far as I see it I think it is only feasible that he went to bed late the night before after drinking, he may have been tired the next morning, and it is perfectly feasible that a person being wakened in the morning is not fact that he was awake just because he appeared to be awake. There is laxity in the company about these men being called for draft. About the Cpl - he proceeded on duty without a nominal roll and yet he went into that hut without an NCO from the Camerons with him. I won't say he did not waken him, but he should have seen that all men are up and on their feet. The accused does not recollect being wakened. If he had of been wakened properly and had of been on his feet he would not have missed that draft.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER A FINDING.

CASE OF

B.67648 Pte DAY IF 3 CIRU CIC

STATEMENT BY ACCUSED (OF OATH)

My main reason for going AWL Sir was that I got out of dtn in July of this year and was on a charge about a week after that in 4 CIRU and while in front of the Col, Col Melherson, I asked to be sent to France because there was a draft going out with a lot of friends on it and I wanted to get to France. I was in dtn when D-day came. Another reason was I had not seen my wife in 8½ mths and a baby daughter I had not seen in quite a while also. I was locked up in this Holding Unit undergoing dtn for 28 days and there were lots of drafts going out and I couldn't go. Col Melherson told me that I had to wait for a week or so and then he would see what my outcome was then. I waited that week and there was nothing doing so I asked diff offrs to get me leave and they couldn't get it for me so I got fed up with nothing doing around here and I took off. I've not had a leave since Nov 43, Sir, any kind of a leave at all, weekend, midnight pass, 7 days or anything. I'd like to go to France as a Rfn in some Inf Regt preferably in the regt I came o/s with, the Royal Regt of Canada. I spent 4½ mths with them in Iceland before I came to England and my service from then on has been trg and AWL. It is not the Army that scares me, Sir, I can stand anything they can hand out, but it's just that I would like to see my wife every 3 months, and I'd like to see that baby and bring it up right so that it will know me when I come home every 3 mths instead of every year or so, and then too, I want to go to France and do something beside a being in dtn. I am a fully qualified infantryman and I am also a AA gunner. During the time I've been in dtn I've had 20 days remission on the 60 days sentence and on the 6 and 7 months charges I had 4 months remission.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Were there people getting passes in Sep 44 before you went AWL this time?

A. Yes, but I couldn't get a pass until I came back from a fd of action, and I couldn't get to a fd of action.

Q. What was the civil charge?

A. THAT was for breaking and entering, Sir, a silly thing. Myself and 2 other fellows escaped from the CA Room and we were hard up and thought we could make some money quick. We did not steal anything however.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R 61(b).

'Day'

(BY ACC'D COUN.)

The accused enlisted in Mar 40 and he has also stated that he is most anxious to get to France, Sir, and has asked to be sent on a draft and I think that those 2 points show that he is anxious to be a good soldier. His record is chiefly offences of AWL and he has explained those by his wish to get home to see his wife and baby girl. He has spent quite a lot of time in stn already but he went 2 yrs after his first stn xxxx without a serious offence. I believe that if he were given a chance he could prove himself to be a good soldier, Sir, and to be able to give a lot more service to his country than what he has, and I'm sure he'd make something of himself if given an opportunity of joining a unit in France.

PLEA OF MITIGATION "JHC"
B-67445 Pte Day, L.F.

Pte Day, has served in the Army since March 1940, and has served with the R.C.R. in N.W.E. since Dec 44, giving him quite a length of time in a theatre of operations.

Although hostilities have ceased, Pte Day wants to stay with the Army, and will volunteer for C.A.O.F., when he has served his sentence.

He has received no pay from the Army since Nov 1941 through being A.W.L. He admits that it is his own fault, but intends to soldier from here on. This is the first offence that has taken place on the continent, showing that up to now, he has tried to soldier, but being so far in debt, he figures that he will never be able to get out of it.

Pte Day was married in Apr 1941, and has one child. He has not heard from his wife for approx three months, and does not know where they are at present, this is continually on his mind and is bothering him a great deal. Besides this he received notice that his only brother had been killed with the airforce, this has also been on his mind.

In summing up, I would like the court to take into consideration the length of time that Pte Day has served in the Army, and now that hostilities have ceased, he would still like to carry on in the service, either C.A.O.F. or in the P.F. fault. Another point to bring out, is his family affairs what of his wife and child, there should be a recommendation in order that he could look after them to the best of his abilities.

NOTE E-3 14th Feb 44

Statement in Defence of B-67445 Pte Day Z.F.

The court is asked to consider:

1) The accused was only absent 22 hours.

2) The accused was married (15 Apr 41) and has a daughter (14 Apr 43) both in Glasgow. He worries about both of them a good deal and tries to see his wife as much as possible. A long period of detention will cause her allowance to be cut off and only cause him further worry.

3) The state of this man's mind was disturbed by the promulgation of a severe sentence from the last FGCM. He broke detention because of what he considered his unjust and unfair treatment. As the charge was subsequently reduced by 3 months ~~and 2 of the former charges were quashed I submit that this is a strong~~

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

R.C.C.M. in the case of B67445 Pte DAY, Leonard, Frederick CIC - 5 CIRU

First Witness for the Prosecution:
C.53014 Sgt Beavis R.J., 5 CIRU having been duly sworn states:

On the 6th Feb 44 I was and still am the Sergeant in charge of the Regimental Police at 5 CIRU. At approximately 2230 hrs I was walking by the guardroom at 5 CIRU. Two patrols were ahead of me. I heard a noise coming from the roof of the guardroom. I stopped, turned my torch towards the roof and saw what appeared to be a small hole in the roof. I procured a ladder and got up on the wall and I turned my torch on to the roof and saw the hole broken through the slate. I sent Pte Cooper into the guardroom to have the corporal there check the cells. I then went into the guardroom and ordered the NCO in charge to procure handcuffs and he and I went into the cells where the accused and Pte Maynard and Pte Cooper were confined. I saw that there was a hole broken through the ceiling of the cell and there was plaster and broken lathe on the floor of the cell and under the bed of which Pte Day was lying on at that time. I ordered the corporal to put handcuffs on the soldiers which was done. When the corporal pulled the covers off Day, I saw that his hair and face and the sleeves of his shirt were covered with dirt and there were particles of plaster in his hair. Later I had a look in the yard where the roof with the hole slants down and there was a quantity of broken slate there similar to the slate on the roof. This was just below the hole in the roof. I took precautions to ensure that these three soldiers could not escape and reported the incident to the R.S.M.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

I inspected the guardroom including the cell in question on the afternoon of the 6th Feb 44 at approximately 1500 hrs and it was in good condition. There was no hole broken through the ceiling. There were no freshly made cracks in the ceiling. The only clothing these soldiers had in the cells were their shirts and their underwear shorts. The shirt of the accused was all covered with dirt, dust and there were small particles of plaster around his shoulders.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B)

Second Witness for the Prosecution:
C78018 Cpl. Herr P.L., 5 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am a corporal of the Regimental Police at 5 CIRU and held that employment on the 6 Feb 44. On 6 Feb 44 at 1600 hrs I was in charge of the guardroom and continued in charge until 2359 hrs that date. I made an inspection of all rooms and cells before I took over. The cell in which the accused and Pte Maynard and Pte Cooper were confined was checked by me. The ceiling appeared to me to be O.K. At approximately 2230 hrs I sent two men out on patrol. One of them came back and told me he heard a noise in the guardroom. I looked through the peephole of the door in the cell and saw everyone in bed. I went out to the yard in the back and found broken slate. I then went and got a ladder. Sgt Beavis climbed the ladder and found some slate missing from the roof. I went back into the guardroom and found a hole in the ceiling of the cell in which the accused was confined. Sgt Beavis ordered me to handcuff the three men in the cell. There was plaster over the floor and also on both of the men in the cell, Pte Day and Pte Maynard. The slate which I have seen on the cement floor in the yard was directly under the hole which I saw in the roof.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B).

Third Witness for the Prosecution:
D86442 Pte Cooper R.W., 5 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

I am a member of the Regimental Police of 5 CIRU and was so employed on the 6 Feb 44. At 2230 hrs that evening I was sent out on patrol. As I was turning the corner of the guardroom I heard a noise on the roof. I stopped and Sgt Beavis arrived and I drew this noise to his attention. He ordered me back to the guardroom. Cpl. Herr, the NCO in charge and I checked the cell., that is he checked the cell and I stood in the main guardroom. After that we went out in the backyard and found several slates on the floor. From there we went outside and got a ladder and Sgt Beavis and Cpl Herr got up and shon the light on the roof. Afterwards I climbed up the ladder and I saw a large hole in the slates of the roof. Cpl Herr and Sgt Beavis went into the guardroom and I stood on the tip of the ladder to make sure noone got out that way. Afterwards I returned to the guardroom and went to the cell and found that the accused and Maynard were covered with bits of plaster and dirt on their hair, face and hands. I was then detailed to stand guard at the door of the cell and all the occupants of the cell were handcuffed at the time. I saw dirt underneath the bed underneath the hole in the ceiling. The hole in the ceiling was big enough for a man to get through. I remained on guard at the door until the next shift took over at midnight.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer:

I don't remember the condition of the ceiling in this cell before these events.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B)

First Witness for the Defence:
The accused having been duly sworn states:

Q: On the night of Feb 6th, what time did you retire?
A: Approximately 2000 hrs.

Q: What did you do with your clothes?
A: Well sir, under orders from the corporal of the guard, I put me clothes outside the door of the cell.

Q: What did you have on at the time?
A: After that I had on a pair of shorts and a shirt.

Q: Then what did you do?
A: Went to bed sir.

Q: Then what happened?
A: Well, sir, we were lying there for a little while and Pte Maynard told me that there were pieces of plaster coming down from the roof.

Q: What side of the room were you sleeping at?
A: The opposite side.

Q: And who sleeps under the hole in the ceiling?
A: Pte Maynard.

Q: Then what happened?
A: I stood on Pte Maynard's bed. Pte Maynard asked me to come and stand on his bed so he could stand on my shoulders for the purpose of pulling the plaster down so it would not fall upon him when he fell asleep. Pte Maynard pulled the plaster down and I got a fair amount of it on me as I was directly underneath the hole and we cleaned off his bed as well as we could. We shoved the plaster from the blankets underneath his bed. I pulled down about 8 or 10 pounds of plaster.

Q: After the plaster was pulled down how big a hole did it leave in the ceiling?
A: About one and a half feet square.

Q: Then what did you do?
A: I went back to bed.

Q: What did Pte Maynard do?
A: He went back to bed too.

Q: Was anyone else in the room?
A: Pte Cooper. He had nothing to do with this.
I went to sleep. The next thing I know is that I was awakened and Cpl Herr put the handcuffs on me.

Q: Did you make any attemp to get out under the hole in the ceiling?
A: No sir.

Q: Did Pte Maynard make any attempt?
A: No sir.

Q: Did you put a hole in the roof?
A: No sir.

Cross-examined by the prosecutor:

I did not at the time notify the corporal that the ceiling was in a bad condition and that we were tearing it down.

Second Witness for the Defence:
D82517 Pte Maynard, F. 5 CIRU having been duly sworn states:

Q: On the night of Feb 6th 1944, what time did you retire?
A: Approximately 2000 hrs, sir.

Q: Where were you at the time?
A: I retired to my cell in the guardroom in 5 CIRU.

Q: What did you do with your clothes?
A: We put our boots and out pants outside the cell and the cell door was locked.

Q: Then did you go to sleep?
A: Yes sir. We did not go to sleep right then.

Q: What did you do after you laid down?
A: We were talking a bit and then the plaster started falling on my face and I called Pte Day over to assist me in taking down the plaster because it was annoying and I was afraid of getting it in the face.

Q: Did you notice any falling plaster before this night of Feb 6th 44?
A: No sir, not apparently. We noticed it just before we went to bed. It was hanging down about an area of 18 inches.

Q: When you went to bed and what happened?
A: When I went to bed, the plaster started to fall down and I asked Pte Day to come over and assist me in taking it down. He came over. I got on his shoulder and pulled it down. I pulled down all that was hanging, about 18 inches. and it weighed approximately 10 pounds. I just threw the plaster at the head of the bed. I cleared the plaster off the bed and put it underneath the bed. I got plaster and dirt from pulling it down all over my hair and face, and shirt.

Q: After the plaster was put under the bed what did you do?
A: After that I went to sleep. We did know anything more until the lights came on and the corporal and the sergeant came in and put the handcuffs on us.

Q: Did you make a hole in the roof of the guardhouse?
A: No sir.

Q: Did you make any attempt to get out of the cell?
A: I made no attempt whatever to get out of the cell.

Q: Did you have any intention of escaping?
A: No intention whatsoever.

Q: Do you know anything about the hole in the roof?
A: No sir. I know nothing about the hole in the roof. The hole in the roof is just a hole. I just saw the light coming through. The hole was put in there for the purpose of a chimney or an air vent, I think. I saw this about the first or second day I went in there about the 27 Jan 44. There was a hole in the middle of the ceiling a sort of an air vent about 3" in diameter through which I saw the hole in the roof.

Third Witness for the Defence:
C.725 Pte Cooper H.J., 5 CIRU, having been duly sworn states:

On the night of the 6 Feb 44 I was confined in a cell in the guardroom of 5 CIRU together with the accused and Pte Maynard. At 2000 hrs we put out clothes outside our cell door. The door was locked and we went to bed. I was sleeping in my shirt and shorts. After I went to bed, the plaster was taken down. I could swear to it. There was noise.

Q: Did you see the ceiling previous to the day 6 Feb?
A: Well sir. It was cracked at the right-hand corner where the hole was later.

Q: What happened after you heard the noise, did you go back to sleep?
A: I went to sleep. I slept. I do not know how long. Then someone pulled the covers off me and I was handcuffed.

The prosecutor declined to cross-examine the witness.

Closing address by the Prosecutor: Made after A/Officers address

As far as the prosecution is concerned, we have to rely on the facts brought before the court by the witnesses for the prosecution. I want to state that the accused did not make any mention or notification to the corporal in charge of the guard that the ceiling of the cell was about to give way and that they tore it down themselves. They did not notify the corporal of the guard to that effect.

Defending Officers sums up as follow:

I should like to point out to this court that the accused appeared before a courts-martial on Monday 14 Feb to face a charge of a previous escape for which he was tried on Monday 14 Feb. This occurrence is alleged to have taken place on the 6 Feb and the prosecution has had no knowledge of this attempted escape from that date and permitted the accused to stand trial without any reference to the attempted escape on the 6 Feb 44, the result being that the accused is up on two cours-martials instead of one. This in my opinion is irregular and unfair to the accused. This is a charge brought by the prosecution agains the accused on which there is no direct evidence of the offense. The prosecution are relying on circumstantial evidence to convict the accuse and in order to make that evidence hold it is essential that they produce facts in which they press these steps by which the accused has been able to commit the alleged offense, so that reasonable people would be led to the inescapable conclusion that the accused is guilty. Now in this particular case, certain facts have been brought out by the prosecution which in the opinion of the defence leave open serious omissions in the prosecution's case. The first point brought out in evidence is that the accused were without any clothing except their underwear. It is the month of February and this alone should lead reasonable men to infer that the accused are no so foolhardy as to escape without any clothing. There is no attempt on the part of the prosecution to prove that the hole in the ceiling was covered up so as to make possible a future escape maybe two or three days hence. The next, the prosecution in order to make out their case would have to show that the hole in the roof was made by the accused and to show that it was possible to do so. There is nothing in the prosecutor's case to say that the accused could have reached the roof from the position of the bed. The prosecution have shown that only the undershirt of the accused and his hair was covered with plaster and dirt but no evidence has come out that the shorts have been similarily covered and no dirt is reported on the shorts which is consistant with the evidence that plaster has fallen down upon the accused as a result of it having been pulled down from above. There is no evidence as to the size of the hole in the roof and no part of the prosecutions case shows it is large enough for the accused to have escaped Now the defence rest their case not only upon the prosecution's lack of evidence but also on the evidence brought out by witnesses for the accused to the effect that all evidence corroborates each other and there is no variation in the evidence and the accused bring forth reasonable evidence to support their contention. The accused have given an explanation which might be reasonably true and the court are entitled to give the accused the benefit of the doubt and should not convict him unless they are certain beyond reasonable doubt that his explanations are untrue.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No. B.97445 Private Day, Leonard, Frederick, Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 5 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, as a reinforcement, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

No. C.53014 Sgt Beavis, R.J., Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 5 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states:

I am No. C.53014 Sgt Beavis, R.J., Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 5 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, employed as sergeant in charge of the Regimental Police of 5 Can Inf Rft Unit. At approximately 2230 hours 6 Feb 44 I was walking down the road by the Guard House. Two of the Regimental Police were in front of me. I heard a noise on the roof of the Guard House. I stopped and looked up to see what caused the noise and sent one of the Regimental Police Private Cooper, R.W., into the Guard House to have the Corporal check the cells to see that everything was all right. I procured a ladder and I got up on the wall, turned my flashlight on to the roof and found that there was a hole broken through the slate on the roof. I immediately ran into the Guard House and told the Corporal to get handcuffs and we went into the cell which was occupied by the accused, whom I now recognize. I immediately had the accused handcuffed and I noticed that a hole had been made in the ceiling of the cell by tearing away the lathes and plaster, and also that the accused was covered in dirt and bits of plaster.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

No. C.78018 Corporal Hurr, F.L., Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 5 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states:

I am No. C.78018 Cpl. Hurr, F.L., Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 5 Can Inf Rft Unit, employed on the Regimental Police at 5 Can Inf Rft Unit. At approximately 2230 hours 6 Feb 44 I was on duty in the Guard House at 5 Can Inf Rft Unit as Corporal in charge of the Guard. At approximately 2230 hours I sent two of the Regimental Police on patrol, one of whom, Pte Cooper, R.W., came back in to the Guard House and reported that he had heard noises outside on the roof of the Guard House. I checked the cells, found all prisoners in bed, covered up, and checked the exercise yard and found several slates on the ground. These slates were not there when I came on duty at 1600 hours. At Sgt Beavis request I secured a ladder and took it outside around the corner of the building and put it up against the wall. Sgt Beavis was there and he climbed the ladder. After Sgt Beavis I climbed the ladder and turned my flashlight on, and noticed a hole in the roof. We immediately returned to the Guard Room and entered the cell occupied by the accused, whom I now recognize, and on looking up at the ceiling found a hole where the plaster had been torn down and I noticed a lot of dirt and plaster on the floor under the head of a bed. I also noticed that the accused, whom I now recognize, was covered with dirt and bits of plaster. Sgt Beavis immediately ordered the accused to be handcuffed.

1. This soldier is now only 20 years of age. He was 18 when he joined the army. The entries in his M.F.M. 6 are not of a serious nature. He and another young soldier went A.W.L. on the 30th March, went to Reading and foolishly put up stripes and had entries made in their pay books for promotions. They were arrested after 4 days.

2. This accused enlisted in Cape Breton in the Armoured Corps, went to Camp Borden, and was posted to the 6th. Hussars, Montreal. He is interested in Armoured Corps work, he had, before enlisting in May 1941, spent some four months in a cold storage plant, working in the Storage Diesel plant.

3. He said he was transferred to the Cape Breton Highlanders in September 1942, he does not know why, but as far as he knows it was not on account of any fault of his. He states he is most anxious to get back into the Armoured Corps. He is a young soldier of good appearance. He understands he has to undergo punishment for this offence, but I respectfully suggest that enquiries be made to see if he could be transferred to the Armoured Corps on his release.

ALDERSHOT.

Sir,

At READING on the 3rd. APRIL 1943 about 19.00 hours, I was on duty in FRIAR STREET where I saw the a/n Trooper. He was wearing Corporal's Chevrons. I stopped him and asked to see his Pass but he could not produce one. I then asked him how long he had been a Corporal and he replied:- "It is in my pay-book".

Not being satisfied, I then conducted him to Military Police H.Q. READING, and upon examining his M.B.M.L. I saw that entries had been made on Page 6 in regard to promotions. I contacted his Unit by telephone and was informed that the particulars of the a/n Trooper were as above and that he was ABSENT. He then admitted having falsified his M.B.M.L. himself.

He was detained pending the arrival of an escort.

Plea of Mitagation

The accused, Cpl John Raymond Daye, Regt'l number F-78905, joined the R.C.O.C., June 19th, 1941, came overseas Jan 10th 45 and was employed at #1 C.B. Workshop as A.F.V. Fitter "B" until he was posted to #1 C.S. Workshop on Aug 14th 45. He had been advised previously, by his sister, of his father's illness, and this has been a source of worry to him for the past four months. His father, who is 74, apparently has spinal trouble necessitating him being confined in a cast. Due to his father's age, Cpl Daye feels he may pass away before he is able to return home. He has been advised by the Asst Adj of the Unit to secure medical certificates from Canada, confirming the seriousness of his father's condition, so that his case may be brought to the proper authorities. Supplementary to this trouble Cpl Daye received on the 16th Aug, a letter from his girl in Canada, stating she had met another man, and wished to sever connections with him. Since they had been going together for four years, and before leaving Canada, an understanding has been reached whereby they would be married on his return home, he felt very badly about it. It was due to this, coupled with the worry over his father, that caused him to go A.W.L. Cpl Daye realizes the seriousness of the charge laid against him and pleads guilty accordingly. He feels he should be punished for the crime he has committed, but asks the Court to consider that he acted under stress, caused by his father's illness and loosing the girl he hoped to marry.

On 20 Aug 45 I was acting as sergeant in charge of 5 Platoon, C Coy, No. 1 Sub-Workshop RCEME. When I called the roll at 0745 hrs on the date mentioned, I found that Cpl Daye, J.R. of my platoon was not present on parade. I did not see Cpl. Daye ~~again~~ 20 Aug, nor was he present on parade until he surrendered at the unit guard room on 30 Aug 45. That is all I know of the matter.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

I produce a certificate pursuant to section 163 (1)(J) of the Army Act, signed by the Commanding Officer of the unit. (marked Appendix "A" and attached to the proceedings)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Plea of Mitigation in the case of Pte Dayton.

The accused, Pte Dayton has been a soldier of the Canadian Army in England since 1940. He has been with his regiment for two years of this time, and his conduct during all this time, with the exception of a few small crimes has been good. This is the first time that he has ever appeared before a court martial.

Several months ago Pte Dayton was admitted to hospital, and, since that time, has spent over five months in hospital. Having been discharged, and sent to #1 C.I.R.U., he was given sixty days light duty. During this time he was present to see two drafts leave, for his unit, which he was excluded from, ~~because~~ due to his physical condition. It was on the occasion of having been taken off the second draft for medical reasons, that he took matters into his own hands, and committed the crime of AWL with which he is now charged.

During the period of his absence, he has been working with travelling shows in England, where he was apprehended by civil authorities. Those shows, cease in two weeks, to close up for the winter, at which time the accused ~~was~~ intended to return to give himself up to the military police, his health having improved to the state where he is now fit for service.

The accused, according to his own statement had at one time, 27 applications to transfer to a unite that were engaged actively in fighting the enemy. His attitude has been one of restlessness and frustration at this inactivity, quite understandable in the light of present day affairs, and which is felt by all of us here in England. I hope in with this in mind, I ask the leniency of the court with this mans punishment, not only because the reason for his offence is understandable, but also in order that he may be released for active service in the near future, which has been his only ambition since he joined the army.

EVIDENCE

The accused enlisted at Toronto in 1942. He took his basic training in Kitchener and from there after 2 months he went to Kingston. He started on Operators Course and after 8 weeks with the Majority of his class was transferred to R.C.A.F. Fitters. He started training as a D.R. At that time they asked for volunteers for the Gas Experimental Training Section at Ottawa. Deady offered himself as a human Guinea Pig for these experiments. When he returned to R.C.A.F. he had to start the course as D.R. over again. 6 weeks later a draft was going overseas, although his training was incomplete, he volunteered to come overseas, he was accepted and arrived in the U.K. in April, 1943 and started training as a D.R. He was sent to hospital as a result of infection, the result of an accident and spent 6 weeks in hospital. When he returned from hospital to 1 C.A.D. he had to start his basic training over and take R.C.A.F. When resuming training as a D.R. a little over a month later 150 R.C.A.F. were transfered to I Corps as operators. All the time it was this man's ambition to get into action, he applied for first overseas from Canada and from the U.K. He felt that he had been shoved around and got nowhere in his training. Finally transferred to a line course, that is why Deady went AWL from the time stated, he says that he was fed up with being pushed around, all he wanted was to see some action and do something else then train. He has never done nothing but train and that this is his dearest wish, to get into action.

In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary that R.P. 83 B be complied with.

3. Prosecution

First witness

B-770444 A/L/Cpl. Russell, W.E. sworn, states

On 19 Dec 43 at about 0800 hrs I detailed Spr. Sloan A. to a fatigue which he refused by saying "I will not work in the kitchen but I will act as kitchen orderly" I repeated "do you refuse" his answer was "yes I refuse". I am giving the order I said "I will have to detail you for kitchen duty to-day"

A fatigue in the kitchen means general duties

Cross-examination

~~There was no involved~~

I said to

I in the kitchen when we were all having breakfast I said to Spr Sloan "I'm sorry but I must detail you for kitchen duty to-day ~~in the kitchen~~" his answer was not given in an insolent manner. He did not mention that he was in M.T. section.

By the Court

I did not say "you will report" I did it diplomatically as tactfully. I think he understood it was an order.

R.P. § 3(b) complied with.

H 100706 A/L/Cpl. Smith, W.A. sworn, states

I was sitting in the mess hall eating breakfast at approximately 0800 hrs. L/Cpl. Russell came in and asked Spr Sloan to go and work in the kitchen. I don't know just what he said, something like "due to the shortage of help you'll have to go on the kitchen for the day". Spr Sloan said "no I won't work in the kitchen, I'll take kit orderly but I won't work in the kitchen." Cpl Russell said "you refuse the order" Spr Sloan said "yes".

No cross-examination

~~By the Court~~ N.T.

RP § 3(b) complied with.

Third Witness

B- 79287 C.S.M. Wolst, W. S. sworn, states

Spr Olsen was taken on strength of the Coy on 17 or 18 Nov. he was posted to H.Q. He was employed ~~other~~ under Cpl ~~Scobie~~ Gibbs as a bat orderly and general fatigues. after a few days he approached me wanting to be sent on a diesel course. We have not any diesel course vacancies and I paraded Olsen to the O.C. Later I arranged with the Tpt. Sgt. to have Olsen taken on ~~for~~ Coy duty as D.R. or driver. He worked around the garage for a couple of days. Then a course came up for 6 D.R's and at the last minute one was rejected on medical grounds so we sent Olsen along on the course. He was returned a few days later. In view of the report from the school Olsen was transferred from the M.T. section. the morning of the 19th Dec. I gave orders for Olsen to report back to Cpl Gibbs ~~who told him~~.

Spr Olsen was placed under arrest at 16 30 on 21 Dec. 43.

Cross examination

He could have been T.O.S. on 28th of Nov. I am not sure of the date.

R.P. § 3(h) complied with

Fourth Witness

B- 23257 Cpl Gibbs, A.B. sworn states

I saw H.Q. Cpl. ~~Russell~~ morning of Sat. 18th Dec. I told Spr Olsen that I had permission from Sgt Tredaway the M.T. Sgt. to use him for any duties.

L/Cpl. Russell or L/Cpl of H.Q. I left on in my absence I ~~left~~ instructed him to carry on my duties. I was away from ~~noon~~ 12 00 hrs Sat. until 2359 hours Sunday 19th Dec.

Cross examination

I went up to Spr Olsens quarters and informed him that I had permission from Sgt Tredaway to use him for different jobs. I gave Spr Olsen orders to take down the blackouts, sweep the floors, clean up the toilets. He did so.

As far as I know he was on M.T. men.

I made no mention of work on Sunday.

R.P. § 3(h) complied with.

The Prosecution is closed.

D-4. Defending Officer's Motion for dismissal

On the First charge the Prosecution has failed to prove that it was a lawful command in the eyes of the accused. It was given as a request. The accused was not aware that Cpl Russell had any control over him as he was still attached to M.T. There is no evidence of mischief or insulting or disrespectful language before the court. On that basis I move that both charges be dismissed.

Prosecuting Officer's Reply

The language is insubordinate in itself whether it is insulting or disrespectful or not. Cpl Smith's evidence shows that an order was given. Finally when Cpl Russell asked him if he refused to obey the accused said "yes". He did not say "you have no right to give the order" Even if Sean was not directly under Russell he would still have to take orders from him.

The Defence

First Witness L-10195 Spr Sean, A. sworn states

I returned to the unit from D.R. course on 17th Dec. I reported to Sgt Trahan, the MT Sgt. at noon on Sunday. I was paid at 1600 hrs and went back to the M.E. shop to work under L/Cpl Gorman. We were paid about closing time and I did not do any work. I did not receive any orders to report anywhere else.

On Sat 18 Dec Cpl Gibbs asked me if I would help him by mess to wash out bath tubs and toilets. I said I would if it was all right in the shop because I was supposed to be there. He said Sgt Trahan said it was all right. I got down to the shop just before they were closing up on Saturday. L/Cpl Gorman told me they were closing up until Monday morning. I figured I was still under him.

~~I went back to unit~~ On Monday night 20th Dec ~~the~~ I was told to turn in my D.R. equipment ~~that I was no longer with the~~ ~~detachment~~. I went to L/Cpl Gorman who had heard nothing of it. I did not see Sgt Trahan until next day after dinner when he told me that I was through with the M.T. Sec.

On Sunday 19th Dec. in the kitchen L/Cpl Russell came over and asked me if I would work in the kitchen. He said "will you work in the kitchen for Coleman's place" ~~I said "no I won't you~~ I said "No I won't because I'm attached to the MT unit". He asked me if I was refusing his order. I said "yes if you call it that" He went away and I did not see him until Monday at noon. I asked him what had been. He said he was going to see the Sgt to give night after dinner and see what he was going to do about it and get it over with.

Cross-examination

I said I would do but ordinary duty. I didn't figure Cpl Russell had authority over me because I was still attached to the M.T. as far as I knew. I figured I would do a favour for him. I figured if I was taken off duty would let me know. I didn't really figure it was an order. ~~He~~ Cpl Russell just asked me "Will you work in the kitchen to-day in Spr Coleman's place." and "Do you refuse my order" I didn't figure it was really an order. He has given me orders before when I worked under him and gave them.

R.P. § 3(b) complied with.

Record Witness

C-2662 - A/L/Cpl Gorman D. sworn states

I am in charge of the M.C. shop. Spr Dean was working with me prior to 10 dec when he went on course. He came to work with me again when he returned from the course. He came on Saturday morning I have not yet been officially informed that he is no longer on M.T.

His work has been satisfactory in the shop.

No Cross examination

R.P. § 3 (b) complied with.

B-77044 L/Cpl Russell, W.E. recalled by the Court. states.

I did not say "Will you work in the kitchen in Spr Coleman's place" The accused said nothing about being attached to the M.T.

I picked Spr Dean because he had been delinquent that morning.

Defending Officer does not cross-examine
Prosecuting Officer does not re-examine

R.P. § 3(b) complied with.

H-100706 A/L/Cpl Smith, W.A. recalled by the Court. states

I did not hear L/Cpl Russell mention Spr Coleman.

The accused did not say "No I won't because I'm attached to the M.T. yet". He did not say anything about the M.T.

Defending Officer does not cross-examine
Prosecuting Officer does not re-examine

R.P. § 3(b) complied with.

Defending officers closing address

I have covered it before but I would just like to refer to the fact that Spr Dean did not figure he was disobeying a lawful command as he was in the belief that being under M.T. i.e. directly under L/Cpl German that L/Cpl Russell did not have the right to put him on a latrine fatigue. There was no intent to be insubordinate. I refer the court to the foot note 1 under Sec 9(2) and also under Sec 9(2) that the words must be used with insubordinate intent. They must be disrespectful or insulting.

Prosecuting Officers Reply

If he didn't consider it a lawful command why did he volunteer for but orderly. Secondly why did not he check up to see where orders he was under. Third. He should have obey'd the order first and then complained. Finally, the words of themselves are insubordinate when he says "I won't do" something when ordered by a superior officer.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate no summing up is required by the Judge Advocate.

Defending Officers Address in Mitigation

The accused has 2 A.W.L. on 4 Mar 43 and the previous entry is on 24 Sep. L/Cpl German says he is obedient and a good worker. There are no charges of drunkenness or of a serious nature on the conduct sheet. The accused elected trial by Court Martial.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of L101953 Spr. Dean, A., 30 Cdn Fd Coy, Canadian Army Overseas, charged with Refusing to obey a Lawful Command given by his superior officer.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

B77044 A/L/Cpl. Russell, W.E., 30 Cdn Fd Coy, sworn states:-

"I was on 19 Dec 43 and am still an A/L/Cpl., of Coy H.Q. 30 Cdn Fd Coy. I am aquainted with L101053 Spr. Dean, A., who has been for the last month a member of this H.Q. At 0800 hours on 19 Dec 43 I personally ordered L101953 Spr. Dean, A. to report to the kitchen for the purpose of working. He refused by saying "I will not, I will work as a hut orderly but not in the kitchen". I then asked him if he still refused to obey my order to work in the kitchen and he said yes. I then made other arrangements and reported the facts to the Coy Sergeant Major.

Cross examined by the accused:

Q. Did Spr Coleman ask you to put me on that job?

A. No.

Q. Did you know I was attached to the M.T. as a D.R?

A. No.

W.E. Russell

H100706 A/L/Cpl. Smith, W.A., 30 Cdn Fd Coy, sworn states:-

I was on 19 Dec 43 and still am an A/L/Cpl. in Coy H.Q., in charge of the R.A.P. of the 30 Cdn Fd Coy. At 0800 hours on 19 Dec 43 I was in the Men's Mess of Coy H.Q., 30 Cdn Fd Coy eating my breakfast. L101953 Spr. Dean, A. who I am aquainted with and who is also a member of Coy H.Q. 30 Cdn Fd Coy was seated directly opposite me at the next table. B77044 A/L/Cpl. Russell, W.E., who is also a member of H.Q. came into the mess and ordered Spr Dean to report to the kitchen to work. He, Spr. Dean, refused to do so, at the sametime saying he would work as a hut orderly but not in the kitchen. The L/Cpl. then again said are you refusing to obey my orders, to which Spr. Dean replied "Yes".

The accused declines to cross examine this witness

W A Smith

B89287 CSM West,W.S., 30 Cdn Fd Coy, sworn, states:-

"Sir, I was on 28 NOV 43 and am still Coy Sgt Maj of the 30 Cdn Fd Coy. I am aquainted with L101953 Spr. Dean,A. He was TOS of this Unit on 28 NOV 43 and was posted to Coy H.Q. He worked for a few days as a hut orderly but was unhappy in this work. He was then temporarily attached to the transport section under Sgt Trahan,V.C. with the understanding between this H.Q. and the NCO i/c tpt that if he was suitable he would be tested and posted as a Driver or D.R. On 10 DEC 43 six men of this unit were to proceed on a D.R's course but at the last minute one of the candidates was rejected on medical grounds and Spr. Dean,A. was sent in his place. Dean was retunned to this unit from this course on 17 DEC 43 as unsuitable. The tpt Sgt informed me in view of this report, he did not consider Dean as suitable for transport. I ordered him to have Dean,A. report to Cpl. Gibbs,A.B. on the following morning 18 DEC 43. (Cpl Gibbs is NCO i/c Works Section) This order was carried out insofar as Spr. Dean,A. did report to Cpl Gibbs on 18 DEC 43 and was employed on fatigues. A/L/Cpl. Russell,W.E. acts as 2 i/c to Cpl. Gibbs."

Cross examined by Accused:-

Q. Why was I not informed before 20 DEC 43 that I was taken off D.R.

A. You were temporarily attached to tpt section and sent on a course. Due to the report from the O i/c course, you were R.T.U. as unsuitable. This report arrived in this office on 18 DEC 43. I did not interview you, but informed Sgt Trahan,V.C. to have you report to Cpl Gibbs.

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution

B23257 Cpl Gibbs,A.B., 30 Cdn Fd Coy, sworn, states:-

"I was on 17 Dec 43 and still am a Cpl. in charge of works section 30 Cdn Fd Coy, I am aquainted with L101953 Spr. Dean, A. On 17 Dec 43 Sgt. Trahan, V.C. informed me Spr Dean would report to me for work on 18 Dec 43. I informed Spr. Dean of this and he did report to me on 18 Dec 43.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence".

The accused: I desire to give evidence under oath.

The accused, L101953 Spr. Dean, A., 30 Cdn Fd Coy, sworn states:-

"On 19 Dec 43 I was in my room when I heard Spr. Coleman who was in the adjoining room say to L/Cpl. Russell "I want Sunday Off and you get someone to take my place" They followed me to the mess hall where he asked me to work in the kitchen that day. He should have known I was working in the M.T. and was not on duty driving that day. Sunday is a day off for the M.T. I did refuse to obey his order on that account. He then asked me if I was disobeying his order to which I replied yes if that's what you call it.

A. Dean.

I certify that R.P. 4 has been complied with.

1. L 101853 Spr Dean A. 2 Bn RCE

First witness for the prosecution

M41376 A/Sgt Jaquish R.H. 2 Bn R.C.E. being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I am transport Sgt HQ Coy 2 Bn On 15 Jan 45 at 0800 hrs I detailed the accused Spr Dean to report to Spr Turzey who is a compressor operator in "A" Coy 2 Bn. I detailed him to hitch onto the compressor and take it and operator to "B" coy at Dunphan. ~~Before accused left I~~ CCD ~~told him to report to the operator.~~ The weight of load he was towing would be around a ton. Weight of the compressor was about 4000 lbs. It is a two wheel trailer. Ground yard it was very icy and slippery but I do not know the condition of the road.

No cross-examination.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Second witness for the prosecution

T/107047 11 Bdr Gibbs L.F.S. ~~att~~ "A" Coy Army Tpt RASC being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I pulled up on side of road to warp off rel on screen - stopped there a couple of minutes. I was standing on running board warping rel off the screen when I was thrown off the running board outs the side of road. On looking up I observed my vehicle approx 10 yds further up the road. Behind my lorry I observed the truck that had gone into back of me. I went to see damage to other truck and also that his radiator had been pushed back, also bumper bow was pushed into his offside front wheel. There was no damage to my lorry. The NCO with me asked accused if he was alright. The road was very icy at the time. Some sleet freezing on wind screen also at that time.

By cross-examination

By the Court.

The accused was driving the vehicle that ran into me. It was on 15 Jan 45 bet 0930 and 1000 hrs approx.

RP 23(b) complied with.

Brief written for the prosecution

B 28415 Pte Turzey A E. 2 Bn RCE being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I am Company Cpl in "A" Coy. Morning 15 Jan 45 between 0900 hrs and 0930 hrs. Pte Dean had been detailed to drive me and the Company and Company Tools of "A" Coy at 2 Bn R.C.E. stationed at

Deighan We were driving all clear directions and in front of me was an English vehicle parked near the car tracks. Sgt Dean saw the vehicle and geared down, started ~~braking~~ braking at appro 30 to 40 ft away
The roads were very icy and with the heavy load we were the vehicle would not stop. It was impossible to turn out because of on coming traffic. and accused's vehicle skidded into rear of the other one. I would say that we were travelling about 20 m.p.h. when we first saw parked vehicle. Weight of load approx 2 ton. and the compressor the same. The wind shield kept continually icing up.

Cross-examination

It may have been 50 ft. when we first saw parked vehicle. As I see it now I think it was 40 ft. My mind might have been fresher when I said 50 ft before. The bumper stowed in the radiator.
I don't recall you stepping off the distance the truck skidded. I remember you showing Sgt Burkitt
the skid mark

By the Court

Visibility conditions were very bad due to moist freezing on the wind shield. I was sitting in the cab.
RP 93(2) complied with.

4th witness for the prosecution

B 395780 A/Cpl Burkitt K.J. 2 Bn RCE. being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I am of Transport Sect. HQ Coy 2 Bn RCE On 16 Jan 45 I attended scene of accident and saw skid marks off the side of the road about 10 ft long. I could not tell of any more on crown of road because it was icy and there had been traffic

Cross-examination

The skid mark was off the side of the road.

By the Court

The skid seemed to have been caused by wheel being braked.

RP 83(B) complied with.

5th witness for the prosecution

Capt R.G. Chapman 24 LAD, RCEME attd 2 Bn RCE. being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I am OC 24 LAD attd 2 Bn RCE On 16 Jan 45 I inspected damage to CL 42725545 involved in an accident the The bumper and front coupling was damaged. No new parts required It was just matter of labour to repair the vehicle. I estimated 10 hrs labour required to repair same at cost of (8/-) eight shillings per hour. The OC 24 LAD attached to the unit has the authority to assess damage in these cases. He is the only one with authority.

Cross-examination If I remember correctly it was the left side of the coupling which was damaged. I can't say just how much it was damaged. I just inspected it and considered it would take 15 hrs to repair. I know bumper would have to be taken off heated and straightened. It would require the services of a blacksmith. I estimate 15 hrs labour from past experience. I do not think 3 shillings per hour is too high. That is the price laid down. I haven't any proof on me that that is the price laid down.

By the Court

I consider the sum of £2-5-0 a fair price to repair damage.

RP 83(B) complied with.

The accused objects to submission of Road Accident Report by prosecution. The objection is sustained by the Court and Road Accident Report not admitted.

Motion by accused

The accused submits that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case and that the charge should be dismissed.

The accused 4101953 Gnr Dilan A. 2 Bty RCE being duly sworn ~~states as follows~~

On morning 15 Jan 45 Lt Jagusch detailed me to take Gnr Turgoy and two compressor and tools to Bingham. We had to take 'star' dimension. The road was a very icy and there was kind of a mist freezing on the windshield which the wipers would not wipe off. I was following a vehicle a ways ahead of me and I couldn't tell when it stopped. some distance ahead - it was too foggy. As soon as I saw it was stopped I was fairly close to it I cannot say just how far. I geared my truck down and applied my brakes and the four wheels just skidded along on the ice and I bumped into the other truck. I could not swing out because of oncoming traffic. I estimate my speed about 20 m.p.h and I am just guessing at the speed. This truck had been in three accidents before I was assigned to it and the cowling and bumper were both bent when I took the truck over, and one brace on bumper was also broken when I took over. All I bent left hand of bumper and corner of cowling and cut off rubber hose on radiator. I broke top of crank guide which took about 20 minutes to braze. I was about 5 min taking it off and the same putting it back on. I stopped the blacksmith about 1 hr. changing it and about welding a crack where it had been broken before. One of the garage men Sgt Baragar took the cowling off in about ½ hr. I was told it took 2 hrs to put cowling back on, and the bumper ½ hr to put back on. I have been driving most the time now for 15 yrs. This is my first accident with a vehicle. I think estimate of 15 hrs is too high, and that 3 shillings an hour is too high for a man making $1.20 per day and taking the responsibility of driving

Cross-examination

The vehicle ~~in front~~ was about 100 to 150 yds in front of me when I first saw it. When I first saw that it was stopped I geared down and braked. I paced off the skid marks of my vehicle which were 36 paces long. The accident occurred about 1 mile out of Cambrai as near as I can say. I did not stop to wipe off windshield. I could still see enough to drive.

The bumper was brought in to be straightened. I did that and the crank bracket and the guide as well. I gave it to the welder for necessary welding. I also straightens the bumper brackets that holds the bumper to the frame. The coupling that was on truck was changed for another one. It had a small dent which I straightened. That did not take long. The whole thing took about 2½ hrs.

Capt R.S. Chapman already sworn is released and questioned by the Court.

I know the vehicle driven by accused had been involved in an accident previously to one in question. It was put back on road in good shape about 10 days before last accident. I saw vehicle after it came back from shop and before it was in this accident. I don't know of any damage to truck that might have been caused by the first accident. I did not know that the right front motor hanger was broken before the second accident. I did not know the right hand head of front bumper was broken before the accident. I noticed no bolts missing in transfer case. I don't think any record of time kept as to the repairs. Take for granted R.R. 83(3) complied with.

Accused does not wish to make a closing address.

Prosecution closing address.

I submit prosecution proved vehicle travelling 20 m.p.h. road icy, mist freezing on windshield. That speed was too fast under the circumstance and the accused therefore guilty of negligence.

I drive vehicle No. L5266525 Dodge 3 Ton G.S. On 15 Jan 45 I made a trip from MAESEYCK to EYSDEN. About 1000 hrs I stopped on the road between LANKLAER and EYSDEN to wipe ice off my windshield. I stood on the running board on the ditch side of the vehicle to do this. About 3 minutes after we had stopped I was thrown off the vehicle onto the side of the road. I looked up and saw that my vehicle had been knocked ahead approx. 10 yds by a vehicle which had run into the back of it. The driver of this vehicle I now recognize to be Spr Dean. There was no damage done to my vehicle.

The accused proceeds to cross-examine the witness.

Question 1 Did you see the vehicle which hit yours before the impact ?

Answer 1 No I did not see it.

Question 2 What was the condition of the road at that time and place ?

Answer 2 The road was very bad. It was very icy.

Question 3 Are you a qualified Driver i/c ?

Answer 3 Yes I am.

Question 4 Did you look at the damage to my truck ?

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B28415 Spr Furzey AE, A Coy 2 Bn RCE, having been duly sworn states:-

I am B28415 Spr Furzey AE, compressor operator in A Coy 2 Bn RCE.

On 14 Jan 45 I was attached to HQ Coy 2 Bn RCE. I received instructions that I would return to A Coy with my compressor and stores on the 15 Jan 45. About 0815 hrs 15 Jan 45 I was told that the winch truck ~~that~~ would take me and the compressor and tools to A Coy. We loaded the tools, hoocked on the compressor and started out about 0900 hrs. I was riding in the front seat with Spr Dean. The roads were very icy and the windshield tended to ice up due to a heavy fog. About 0930 hrs we were proceeding along the star diversion between LANKLAAR and KYSDEN. We were going about 20 m.p.h. when I saw a vehicle parked on the road along side the tram tracks about 50 ft ahead. Spr Dean saw the vehicle and geared down and applied his brakes but the truck just skidded on into the rear of the parked vehicle. There were vehicles coming in the opposite direction which did not allow us to swing out. The load of tools weighed approx. 2 ton and the compressor weighed about 3 ton. The damage I noticed was the front bumper of our truck was driven back on the radiator and the anti-freeze was leaking out profusely.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

A. E. Furzey

(B28415 Spr Furzey AE)

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

B39580 A/Cpl Burkitt NJ, HQ Coy, 2 Bn RCE having been duly sworn states:-

I am B39580 A/Cpl Burkitt NJ, a Tpt Cpl of HQ Coy, 2 Bn RCE.

At approx. 1015 hrs 15 Jan 45 I was told that there had been an accident involving one of our vehicles between LANKLAAR and KYSDEN and that I was to go to the scene of the accident and find out what had happened. I proceeded to the scene of the accident and found our vehicle parked against the tram line and that the other vehicle had left. Our vehicle could not be moved because the bumper was bent in against the left wheel. I noticed that there were skid marks from the ridge of the road to our vehicle and they were approx. 10 ft long. The vehicle may have skidded further because the ridge of the road was very icy and would not show skid marks and if there had been skid marks they might have been covered up by traffic which had passed. The grill on the vehicle was bent and the radiator seemed to have been pushed back. I saw that the anti-freeze had drained out. The crash guide was broken, the bumper was badly bent and two braces were broken. I pulled the bumper off the wheel with the HUP I had and pulled the vehicle off the road I returned to camp, got a 3 ton vehicle and towed in the winch truck.

The accused proceeds to cross-examine the witness.

Question 1 Would the vehicle run under its own power after the accident ?

Answer 1 Yes. The vehicle could not be towed around the sharp corner leading into the Tpt Park so I drove it approx. 50 yds under its own power. There was no water or anti-freeze in the radiator.

W J Burkitt

(B39580 A/Cpl Burkitt WJ)

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Capt RG Chapman, OC 29 LAD, RCEME being duly sworn states:-

I am Capt RG Chapman, OC 29 LAD, RCEME attached to 2 Bn RCE.

Approx. 1000 hrs 16 Jan 45 I was asked to examine vehicle No. CL 4272545 Winch truck to assess damage done to it in an accident on 15 Jan 45. The damage consisted of a bent front bumperand the cowling was damaged. This would necessitate approx. 15 hrs labour at 3 shillings an hour. No materials were required for the repair job.

The accused proceeds to cross-examine the witness.

Question 1 How would you account for the fifteen hours labour required ?

Answer 1 You would have to take off the cowling straighten it and replace it. You would have to take off the bumper straighten it and replace it. Taking off and putting back the cowling would take up most of the time.

Question 2 Why is the charge 3 shillings an hour ?

Answer 2 It is the rate laid down by Canadian Government.

FIRST CASE
Accused: L.101953 - Spr. DEAN, Arthur

1st Witness

F.1225 - Spr. BISHARA, C.D. - (Q.M. Staff) - After having been duly sworn in, gives the following evidence:
On February 12, Dean's kit was brought in and checked by me. At that time one shirt was missing which could not make a complete check of what he had on him at the time. When Spr. Dean arrived back I took the Part III of his service book and checked the balance of his stuff which he had on hand which found deficient one shirt angola.

Questions by Prosecutor:
Q.1 - When the kit was brought in to you was the kit checked and the shirt found missing?
A.1 - There was no shirt in the kit at the time.
Q.2 - And when Spr. Dean came back how many shirts did he have?
A.2 - He only had one at the time.
Q.3 - And how many should he have had?
A.3 - He just had one and should have had two.
Q.4 - When was the kit brought to you?
A.4 - On the 12th.
Q.5 - When you checked the kit were you alone?
A.5 - Yes sir, just Spr. Dean and myself.

PARA D 6

Closing Address by the Prosecuting Officer:

I would like to point out one or two facts brought out in the evidence:- Firstly, the accused had two shirts about the 7th of February. Secondly, he had only one shirt when he returned from AWL. Apparently one shirt went missing some time between the 7th and the morning of the 12th when his kit was checked by the QM Storeman. The mere fact that the shirt may have gone missing while Spr. Dean was AWL does not relieve him of the responsibility of his own kit.

Closing Address by the Defending Officer:

The facts brought out by the Prosecuting Officer with regard to the time when the shirt may have disappeared is the fact that I too wish to stress. I would like to point out that during this period between the 7th of February and the 12th of February the Accused was under close arrest in the Guard Room along with other soldiers, as pointed out by Corporal Miller. I should also like to point out that according to the evidence the Accused's kit was left over night in this Guard Room the night the Accused is supposed to have gone AWL, but I submit that surely the Guards who evidently were lax in their duties in allowing the Accused to leave his quarters, might at least have turned in or looked after this soldier's equipment. In closing I would like further to point out that some person evidently took the kit from the Guard Room to the QM Stores and there is nothing to show that it would not have been possible for this person to have lost the shirt, and I see nothing in the evidence which would prove negligence against the Accused.

PARA E 5

Statement by the Defending Officer on behalf of the Accused:

I would like to submit to the Court, circumstances surrounding this case which I feel should be considered in mitigation of any sentence that may be passed on Spr. Dean. Spr. Dean, the Accused was involved in a traffic accident on or about the 15th of January, at which time he caused damage to a WD vehicle. He was brought up before the Colonel of the 2nd Bn. RCE on a charge of negligence and misguidedly did not elect to take the Colonel's punishment because he rightly or wrongly considered the charge unjust. He elected Court Martial on this charge and was meted out punishment as shown on "Exhibit C". The accused at that time had no defending officer to speak for him as he was newly arrived at the Bn. and did not know of anyone who might look after his interests. Since that time, while serving his punishment he has brooded considerably over this whole matter and still feels rightly or wrongly that he has been harshly dealt with but realizes that there is no appeal from a sentence passed by a Military Court. I would submit that consideration be given when sentence is passed on this charge of AWL one day and fifteen minutes. That is all I have to say.

I made a thorough search of the cook house and surrounding buildings but he was not to be found any where within the area of Martinique Barracks. I did not see him again until the evening of 26 Aug. 41 when he was brought in custody of R.P. When I last saw him he was dressed in Battle Dress without gaiters or cap.

Army Form A.3.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

On Active Service, this 12th day of September 19 41

Order convening the Court.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6th Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *~~[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]~~

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

* Omit if not applicable.

*~~[I am unable to appoint:—~~

*~~(1. Three Officers to form the Court.)~~

*~~(2. A Field Officer as President.)~~

~~for the following reasons, namely:—~~]

In my opinion, military exigincies, namely: dispersion of units, difficulties of communication and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to follow those rules of procedure consistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the accused persons named in the schedule hereto by a F.G.C.M. assembled pursuant to order of the Brigadier, 6th Canadian Infantry Brigade.

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL, HELD AT CAMBERLY, ON FRIDAY 19 SEPTEMBER, 1941

TRIAL OF NO. LL2032, Pte. Dean, J. G., S. Sask. R.

PROSECUTOR: Lieut. R.A.F. Currie, S. Sask. R.

DEFENDING OFFICER: Lieut. S. Linton, S. Sask. R.

SHORTHAND REPORTER: D24030, S/Sgt. J. H. Spence, H.Q., 2 Cdn Div.

---

1. The Order Convening the Court is read to the accused.

2. The accused is asked the following questions:

Q Do you object to being tried by me as President, or by any of the Members of the Court whose names you have heard read?
A No, sir.
Q Do you object to having the evidence taken in shorthand by the S/Sgt?
A No, sir.

3. The President, Members of the Court and shorthand reporter are sworn.

4. The accused answers to his name and number and is duly arraigned.

5. The accused pleads "Not Guilty" to both charges as set out in the charge sheet.

6. R. P. 39(A) is complied with and the accused answers "No".

THE PROSECUTOR: There is one witness on one charge who is on leave at the present time and I would ask the Court and the defence if they would accept his sworn statement in the summary of evidence, if they would allow that to be written into the case, that is Major McRea's evidence. The second witness on the first charge is still travelling around the country, trying to get here, that is Pte. Trudel. I would like his statement to be written in.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: As far as Major McRea's statement is concerned there is only one item in it that I object to and that is that he says "no further authorization was given to anyone for the use of this vehicle." The only objection that I have to that is that the vehicle had to be serviced and that the vehicle did make another trip for Major McRea after that time. As far as the rest of his evidence is concerned I am quite willing that it should be allowed but with that one thing in mind I would allow the whole statement, but the vehicle did have to be serviced and that a further trip was made for Major McRea, which makes a different time when the vehicle was actually in use, instead of 1730 hrs. to about 1845 hours, or an hour and fifteen minutes and it does have a bearing on what occurred, but as long as it is admitted by the prosecutor I am quite willing that the whole statement should go in.

THE PRESIDENT: I think it is one of the main points. If you don't agree with that you don't agree with the charge.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: The only reason I object to that statement completely is on account of the fact that it may put Pte. Dean in a more serious light that he should be and it is evidently an error-- I am quite satisfied that it is an error.

The Prosecution and the accused formally admit the statement of Major J. A. McRea, as it appears in the summary of evidence. The defence feel that they would not be prejudiced by the absence of the witness. They do not wish to delay the Court until his return from the North of Scotland.

The Prosecution formally admitted that it was the automatic practice to gas the vehicle before returning it to the Company parking lines.

The 1st Witness for the Prosecution, M37279, Cpl. Q. E. Lawson, No. 2 Coy. Cdn Pro Corps., having been duly sworn, states:

Q 1 I want you to make your statement to the Court, explain who you are and what you were doing on the night of 29 Aug 41?
A 1 I am a Corporal in the Cdn Provost Corps. I was on foot patrol duty in Camberly on the night of 29 Aug 41, at about 2000 hours, in consequence of a report received I went along High Street and I saw Pte. Dean sitting at the wheel of a truck. He was drunk at the time
Q 2 What grounds have you for saying the accused was drunk?
A 2 He smelt very strongly of liquor and his speech was quite incoherent and when I took him out of the truck he could hardly walk.
Q 3 You say that he required assistance to get out of the truck?
A 3 Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

Q 4 What time did I understand you to say?
A 4 It was within a few minutes of 2200 hours.
Q 5 When you went down there was Pte. Dean troublesome at all?
A 5 Not a bit.
Q 6 He was quite good natured about it?
A 6 Yes, sir.
Q 7 Was he, to your knowledge, driving the car?
A 7 Not to my knowledge.
Q 8 And not creating any disturbance or objectionable in any way?
A 8 No, sir.

BY THE COURT:
Q 9 You can't say if Dean had been driving the truck?
A 9 No, sir.
Q 10 Did he say that he was alone?
A 10 He wasn't able to tell me, sir. He couldn't talk properly. I asked him if there was anybody with him and he said across the street at the Pub. I went across to the Pub across the street but there was nobody from the S. Sask. R. in the Pub at that time.
Q 11 So he was alone, to your knowledge?
A 11 Yes, sir.
Q 12 Was the motor running?
A 12 No, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR: That is the prosecution case, sir. If it please the Court I will dispense with the evidence of Pte. Trudel. If you notice the charge is made out it is an offence against the Road Traffic Act.

THE COURT: The evidence he gave in the summary is not admissible.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

D E F E N C E

R. P. 40 is complied with and the accused elects to give evidence on oath, and to call a character witness.

The accused, L12032, Pte. J. E. Dean, S. Sask. R., having been duly sworn, states:

On the night of 29 Aug 41 I had got paid, after I had taken the Paymaster down to the Company H.Q. and I went down with a bunch of the boys to the Pub and had quite a few drinks and I got very much under the influence, I wasjust with the gang of fellows buying drinks back and forth, and I wasn't sober that night-- I was very much liquored up and I don't remember much of what happened afterwards, only that I remember being violently ill and I stopped the car and got out and I was sick and I got back into the car and sat there to try and clear things up a bit. That is about all I know about the case until the Corporal came along. I don't think there is any more I wish to say.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q 13 At the time you left Major McRae, that was approximately 1730?
A 13 Yes, that is when I dropped him at the Mess.
Q 14 Between the time that you left Major McRae and the time that you were paid, had you serviced the truck during that time?
A 14 No, sir.
Q 15 Did you service the truck after you were paid?
A 15 Yes, sir. Major McRae dismissed me and told me to have the vehicle gassed up and in proper running condition for the following morning.
Q 16 And then what time would you say it would be when you went to the Pub?
A 16 It was going on for 1900 hours.
Q 17 And you had eaten last at what time?
A 17 Lunch hour, sir, at noon, at 12 o'clock.
Q 18 In other words, about seven hours without anything to eat?
A 18 Yes, sir, when I went back after he dismissed me I went back to tthe Coy. H.Q. and from there I went over to the transport lines to service the vehicle and I found the Major's respirator in the truck so I took it up to the Officer's lines to him and coming back the Paymaster was there and he was going down to pay our Company so I drove him down.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q 19 You were alone in the truck when you took it out?
A 19 I don't remember much about taking the truck out.
Q 20 You were actually in charge of that truck?
A 20 Yes, sir.
Q 21 You are the one person who drove it?
A 21 Yes, sir.
Q 22 You do admit, then,being under the influence of liquor?
A 22 Yes, sir, very much.

BY THE COURT:

Q 23 At what time did you have the first drink?
A 23 It was after I had filled the truck up with gas, after 6:30.
Q 24 When you had gassed up your car and after you went for a drink you were free?
A 24 Yes, sir.

The 2nd Witness for the defence (character), W.O.II (R.S.M.) Campbell, S. Sask. R., having been duly sworn, states:

I am C.S.M. (W.O.II) H. Q. Coy., S. Sask. R. I have known Pte. Dean for, roughly, two years, he has served with me in the transport section of the S. Sask R. since its inception, he is a diligent soldier an exceptionally good driver and a man whom you can sent out on a duty and you don't have to look down his collar. He is always on the job. The only time he has ever got into any trouble whatever is after having a drink or two; otherwise Pte. Dean is an ideal soldier.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q 25 You say after having had a drink or two?
A 25 Just that, sir, two or three drinks.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF FINDING.

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED AND THE ACCUSED AGAIN BROUGHT BEFORE IT.

The Prosecuter files certified copy of M.F.M. 6 and A.F.B. 296, which are formally admitted by the defence as being correct.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: There are one or two things I wish to bring to the attention of the Court. As brought out by Sgt-Major Campbell, Pte. Dean has always been a good soldier, the only time he got into trouble was through drinking. In this case, the fact that Dean was kept on duty when he should have gone to the mess and had his supper certainly had a very great deal to do with what happened later on. Any man that does any drinking knows what happens in that case and actually he was on duty until about 1900 hours, which is not the time that any man should have to wait for a meal, that is certainly one of the things that has been a contributing factor. Up to the time that he went back to the vehicle lines and took this car-- if he did take the car-- up until that time he had only been fulfilling his normal duties and carrying on as any soldier would, and then he went to the Pub and proceeded to drink with the boys and it was after that time that things began to happen, and actually what did happen we don't know. And there is one other thing that I want to bring to the attention of the Court and that is that Pte. Dean has now been 22 days in detention on account of this charge, and that seems to me to be quite a long time to be waiting trial and I would ask the Court to take that into consideration when they are coming to their decision.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF SENTENCE.

CHARGE SHEET

The accused, No, L12783, Pte. Segal, R., South Saskatchewan Regt., a soldier of the Canadian Army (Active) is charged with:

FIRST CHARGE — WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, USING SUBORDINATE LANGUAGE TO HIS SUPERIOR OFFICER
A.A.Sec. 8(2)

in that he at Hartley Row on 3 Sep 41, when ordered by Lieut, J.K.Kemp to pick up his feet when marking time, said "What do you think I am doing?" When told by Lieut Kemp not to address him in that manner, said "Do I owe you any money?" When told by Lieut. Kemp, "no" he said "well quit picking on me". Lieut Kemp then demonstrated how he required the marking time done, and told the accused that the feet must be fully six inches off the ground. The accused then turned to Lieut. Kemp and said "Did you measure the distance my feet were off the ground?" Lieut. Kemp replied "No," but I can see whether they are high enough off the ground or not." The accused then said, "You couldn't see anything."

SECOND CHARGE (Alternative) — CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE, A.A.Sec. 40

in that he

at date and place aforesaid wrongfully used the language aforesaid to said Lieut. J. E. Kemp.

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL, HELD AT CAMBERLY,
ON 19 SEPTEMBER, 1941

TRIAL OF NO. L12783, Pte. Segal, R., S. Sask. R.

PROSECUTOR: Captain J. A. Adam, S. Sask R.

DEFENDING OFFICER: Lieut. S. Linton, S. Sask. R.

SHORTHAND REPORTER: D24030, S/Sgt. J. H. Spence, H.Q. 2 Cdn Div.

---

1. The Order Convening the Court is read to the accused.

2. The accused is asked the following questions:

Q Do you object to being tried by me as President, or by any of the Members whose names you have heard read over?
A No, sir.
Q Do you object to the S/Sgt taking down the evidence in shorthand?
A No, sir.

3. The President, Members of the Court and shorthand writer are sworn.

4. The accused answers to his name and number and is duly arraigned on the charges.

5. The accused pleads "Guilty" to the first charge and the second (alternative) charge is withdrawn by the prosecutor.

6. Rule of Procedure 35(B) is complied with.

7. The abstract of evidence is read.

8. The prosecuter files certified copy of M.F.M.6 and A.F.B.296 which are formally admitted as correct by the defence.

BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q 1 Do you have any declaration to make?
A 1 With regard to character, or to the case?
Q 2 Your character first, and after if you--
A 2 I have nothing to say as to character, as a matter of fact this is my first case of Court Martial. As far as my character is concerned I imagine Capt. Adams knows me as well as anybody.
Q 3 You can make a statement in mitigation of your sentence, or bring in any witnesses as to your character--
A 3 That morning when we came out to drill I had got up on the wrong side of the bed. A few days after being in detention I figured things out and I thought "this is all foolish" but it was too late to refer the case back to the C.O., but seeing as how it has come here, how it started, we had been getting officers coming from the Holding Unit, and we understand they come for training, and that certain morning it made it a little bit complicated and it was the cause of the argument, but I think Mr. Kemp was wrong in prolonging the argument. I believe if a man does wrong he should be caught up for it. Our platoon has been subject to a lot of training personnel that comes from outside our unit, and it just gets under your skin, it is just the army, I guess. That is all.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER: In pleading guilty, the accused throws himself on the mercy of the Court. I would like to point out that the accused was aggravated at the time by the events of the previous day and the subsequent conversation with Lieut. Kemp didn't help the matter. I suggest that the accused didn't, at the time, realize the seriousness of the offence, but I think there is one point that the conversation should have been stopped right away and not continued back and forth. The accused's conduct in the battalion has been good, and he has only two minor entries on his conduct sheet. I would ask the Court not to give this man a heavy sentence.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF SENTENCE.

6188 Sgt. NASH S.W - Regt Police Sgt 701 Coy
LON. DEPOT.

FIRST WITNESS: Being duly sworn states:

On the time and date of the charge I was on duty as Regt police sgt. I walked down to the gate when a party of Conv. Depot after arriving there I met two officers they told me that there was a Cdn. soldier laying alongside of the road. I took Pte Adams and Pte Collomby to investigate I found the said soldier laying on a low wall asleep I woke him up and asked him if he had pass he said yes and started to walk away. Again I asked him for his pass just then a truck came by and he put up his thumb trying to get a drive. I then touched his arm and asked him for his pass. He replied by saying "don't get so fresh you bugger enough". In the mean time L/Cpl Mercer of the L of C Cdn provost Coy. came along the accused then started to walk away. I ordered him under close arrest. He made an attempt to strike me. I grabbed him around the neck with my left arm and started to wrestle as both were down I landing on top. He started to kick and one foot caught me on the face. One of the men that was standing by said, "Let him get up Sgt." I did so and then he kicked me on the legs. L/Cpl Mercer told him to come to the guard room and he started to fight with him and ~~caught foot having to be used~~ We took the accused to the L of C provost detachments house. I went in the house to make out the charge and get transport to transport him to his unit and left the accused in the custody of me Pte Collomby and Pte Adams. We then escorted him to his unit I saw him over to the guard room and the body receipt ~~obtained~~ obtained.

Direct

I recognize the accused.

It was not bright moonlight but it was quite light enough to see and in my opinion the accused could have seen my stripes.

The accused made a motion to strike me and before we fell on the ground he had both his fingers under my eye.

He said the of the escort shouted "Let him get up Sgt" and I heard it plainly.

Cross examination by Defending Officer

I had a flashlight

I shone it on the accused not on his face

Q I mean the words "have you a pass"?

I spoke him twice ~~on~~ before I touched him and I did not grab him by the arm.

Demonstration by witness of the manner the Sgt held accused

The accused was approximately two feet from me when he did something first.

I grabbed him by the neck for self defence

Q Had been in hospital with broken hand - I was out of hospital appx. a week and one hand was stiff in taped.

Have you had

Instruction that I have received before are not to lay hands on a man but I had to do it in self-defense.

Q Do you think that by grabbing about the neck of him was the only way to defend myself

We wrestled about two or three minutes.

I did not strike the accused while arresting and him.

Pt The other two Pte's, Pollomby and Adams, did not gain the fracas while arresting. saw

I can't say that he had his first clenches or not.

I can't say if the blow was accidental or not.

The accused did not offer any resistance

The accused was sober.

Second Witness: Being duly sworn states:

On the mentioned date I was on guard duty. At the same time I was on the look out for two Cdn. soldiers who were supposed to have hit and robbed two British soldiers. Sgt Nash and Pte Calloway came up to me. I/C Sgt Nash to the two cdn soldiers ordered me to accompany him and Pte Calloway. We walked down the road. Sgt NASH flashed a light into the soldiers face. Sgt. NASH asked the soldier for a pass and the soldier said, "Yes". He then walked down the road Sgt NASH then laid his hand on the soldier and asked him if he knew who he was talking to and the soldier answered "Nobody". Sgt NASH ordered me and Pte Calloway to take him up to the guard room. We started to walk up the road and Sgt NASH and the accused were exchanging words. I do not know what they were. The first thing I knew Sgt NASH and the accused were down on the road and struggling. I noticed that the accused had hit Sgt NASH's face. I Pte Calloway and I parted them and then walked up the road to the Provost.

Cross by the Prosecutions Officer

Sgt NASH's flashlight was shining partially on his head when the soldier got up.

The flashlight was shining on the accused for only a very period of time.

Regt'l police.

Being duly sworn states:

On the said date at apx 0052 hrs Sgt NASH and I were on special patrol looking for two cdn. soldiers. As we approached the main gate your area, we were informed by an officer coming on that there was a soldier lying on the wall - about 150 yds down the road. Sgt. NASH and myself, Pte Adams and L/Cpl Mercer walked down the road to see what the soldier was, we found the accused asleep on the wall. The Sgt. woke him and told him to get up, when the accused did. He then asked him where he was from, the accused replied, "Cobi". The Sgt asked the accused if he had a pass. The accused replied, "Yes I have". He then walked away and started to turn an approaching vehicle. The Sgt then called him back. Words passed between them which I did not hear, then I heard the Sgt say, who do you think you're talking to which was answered by the accused, "Nobody" or other words I did not hear. The Sgt then told us to take him down to the guard house. As we started off the accused turned towards the Sgt and made a motion with his arm. The next thing I knew they were fell on the ground, struggling. Pte Adams and I dipped in to separate them - I had a hold of one of the accused's feet - L/Cpl Mercer and Myself took the opportunity to let him up. I ~~had~~ got of his feet - I saw him strike the Sgt's face - We then escorted the accused to the A/Q C's provost headquarters. We got a vehicle and brought him down to Ebute.

I am not sure if it was produced afterwards.

The struggle started immediately right after Sgt. Nash told us to bring the accused to the guard room.

R. P 83(a) complied with.

Note

The Defending officer submits that the evidence for the prosecution does not establish a prima facie case on the ground that.

1° Accused did not attempt to strike Sgt Nash - he merely defended himself when attack by Sgt Nash

2° Fact of clenching his fists does not necessarily involve the idea of attack.

3° The accused was perfectly sober

4° He did not resist after being told to go to the guard room

5° It was very dark according to the last two witnesses and the accused did not recognized him as a superior officer.

The court is closed for consideration

After discussion in closed Court. it is announced that the submission is allowed

The Accused is declared Not guilty and The Court order the Accused to be immediately release of Arrest.

G-18048 - Sgt. NASH S.W., Regimental Police, 1 Cdn Conv Depot, being duly sworn, states:

I am G-18048 - Sgt. NASH S.W., Regimental Police, 1 Cdn Conv Depot. At or about 2359 hrs 6 Aug 44, while on duty as R.P. Sgt. of 1 Cdn Conv Depot, I walked down to the main gate at the North end of the Depot, near the main SALERNO road. I was informed by a passing officer that there was a Canadian lying alongside the road. I took Pte. COLOMBY and Pte. ADAMS with me to investigate. I then met L/Cpl. MERCIER of L of C Cdn Pro Corps, who accompanied me also. I found the accused, whom I now see and recognize, lying on a low wall. He was asleep, I shook him and awakened him and asked where he was from. He replied, "6 Bn, CBRD". I asked him if he had a pass. He said, "I have". Just then a truck approached. The accused started toward the truck and raised his thumb. I said, "I'm still talking to you. Let me see your pass". He did not stop and I grabbed his arm. He said, "Don't get so goddamn tough". I asked him if he knew who he was talking to. He replied, "I don't give a God damn, it's not so very much anyway". I then ordered him to the Guard room. He hesitated, so I walked up to him, and he stepped toward me. We bumped together. He had doubled his right fist as if to hit and I grabbed him, by putting my left arm around his neck. The accused put two fingers of his left hand under my eyes. We both fell down, and I landed on top. We then grappled. He started to kick and one foot hit me in the face. Then two of my men grabbed his feet, and one of them said, "Let him get up, Sergeant". I started to get up and my men let his feet go. As they did, the accused kicked me on the legs three times, as he lay on the ground. Then, L/Cpl. MERCIER took hold of him and the accused started to fight with him. L/Cpl. MERCIER overpowered him, took him to the L of C Pro detachment HQ. Later I took him under close arrest to 6 Bn and turned him over to the Sgt. of the Guard.

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Plea in Mitigation

The accused, B137246 Pte (L/Cpl) DEAN O.R., having been duly sworn

I am 20 yrs of age enlisted 10 Dec 42 and arrived overseas in Nov 43. I have been in action from 5 Jul 44 until 17 Dec 44 when I went absent. I did not go absent from the front line, but from the rest area. The reason that I went absent was because I could feel myself cracking up as my nerves were very bad. I had not had a pass of any kind in the 5½ months in action and really needed a rest. I regret going absent because I have always tried to be a good soldier. I was made a section leader in action.

I am more than anxious to return to the front line and that is the reason I surrendered myself. I feel very well now and ask that the Court see fit to allow me to go back as soon as possible.

Plea in Mitigation

The accused, B137246 Pte (A/Cpl) DEAN, C.R, having been duly sworn:-

I am 20 yrs of age, enlisted 10 Dec 42 and arrived overseas in Nov 43

I have been in action from 5 June until 17 Dec 44 when I went absent. I did not go absent from the front line, but from the rest area. The reason that I went absent was because I could feel myself cracking up as my nerves were very bad. I had not had a pass of any kind in the 5½ months in action and really needed a rest.
I regret going absent because I have always tried to be a good soldier. I was made a section leader in action.

I am more than anxious to return to the front line and that is the reason I surrendered myself. I feel very well now and ask that the Court see fit to allow me to go back as soon as possible

CASE OF

B.138794 Pte DEAN. RJ. 1 CITR.

TRIAL OF ACCUSED ON SECOND CHARGE.

PROSECUTOR STATED THAT HE HAD NO EVIDENCE TO PRESENT TO THE COURT TO DAY ON THIS CHARGE.

THE DFG OFFR MOVED THAT THE CHARGE BE DISMISSED BECAUSE THE PROSECUTION HAD FAILED TO MAKE A PRIMA FACIE CASE.

THE COURT WAS CLOSED.

THE COURT RE-OPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT THE COURT FOUND THE ACCUSED NOT GUILTY ON THE SECOND CHARGE.

Sir:- I am B-138794, Pte. Dean, R.J. My reason for absence from my unit on Dec 21 was on account of worries which I have had back home, referring to my Mother, who is very ill with cancer. I think very dearly of my Mother. At the time that I went absent, I was receiving very little mail from home. I put in for my leave, as I thought I could relax my mind, but my leave was turned down. That made things worse. I could not concentrate on soldiering so I went to the padre to find out whether he could do anything for me, but I got no results. Then I asked to be paraded to my company comdr so I could tell him my story and he said he would see what he could do.

I waited about two weeks, then I got very, very depressed, so I went absent without leave, not thinking at the time of what harm I was causing myself, as my mind went blank on me.

R. J. Dean.

E-1

Pte. Dean

The accused joined the army [illegible] coming overseas in Jun 44. He has made a written statement, copy of same for your information. Also, a letter from his Mother which bears out the fact that his Mother is ill.

The acc used claims that he felt it was necessary for his well being that he be granted leave and change his environement in order to relax his mind over hte condition of his Mother. He had not been receiving mail very regularily and this added to his troubles. He asked for leave in the usual manner but it was turned down. With the result that he asked to be paraded to his coy comdr. Again, he did not get his request granted. After this last appeal refusal, with the padre being unable to help him, it was then that he decided that he had to have leave, thinking it was essential for his own peace of mind.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex F, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Plea of Mitigation.

~~The accused joined the Army in April 41 — three years ago.~~

His conduct sheet shows a number of minor crimes, mainly AWL; but these crimes were all in 1941 and 1942 while the accused was serving with the 9.O.R. The accused came to the 4th Highlanders in the Sicilian campaign, fought through Sicily and Italy to Campobasso. During that time he had no crime — no misdeed; he did a good bit of work and was never in trouble. Taken out of the Line at Campobasso the accused, in January of this year, went A.W.L. from a Reinforcement unit for 3 days — clearly a serious crime, he was apprehended and made the mistake of breaking arrest; apparently he realised the effect of what he had done so, after three weeks of absence, he surrendered of his own volition.

Your Sirs, — here is a man whose conduct in the unit and while in the line was exemplary. His only misconduct ~~record~~ when taken out of the line — an absence of 3 days followed unfortunately by a break from confinement and a further short absence. But he did surrender himself, his absence was not long and it is my humble suggestion to the court that a minimum punishment followed by a quick return to his field unit be considered by the Court. I would like to draw to the attention of the Court that the accused has spent 69 days in custody awaiting this trial. This is a waste of fighting manpower, an injustice to the accused and a flagrant case of bad man management and should be taken into consideration by the Court.

ADDRESS OF DEFENDING OFFICER

Major D.N. Byers - 2 Cdn HAA Regt.

Plea in bar of trial as in MML covers just this type of case. The reason behind it is that the law considers it inequitable if a man is accused of certain offences to allow that man to continue doing the same duties out of which his alleged offences arose. The practical application of that is generally known to all in the Army. That is, if an officer or a soldier has committed a Court Martial offence he is almost invariably placed under close arrest, and taken off the duty he was formerly doing.

The Summary of Evidence of alleged offences of the 18 May. Summary of Evidence started on 11 Jun 45 and the supplementary Summary of Evidence on 25 Jun 45. Summary of Evidence should be held the same day as investigation.

Q10 - Tell the Court what took place on the trip from morning 13 to 18 May 45.

A10 - On the morning of 13 May 45 at approx 0730 hrs I left with Bdr Dean to pick up spare parts. Our first stop was at the salvage dump at MEPPEN. After Bdr Dean found he could not get the parts we left for a salvage dump at GRAVES. When we arrived at GRAVES the salvage dump was closed so we proceeded to TURNHOUT. On our arrival at TURNHOUT, we looked for the salvage depot where Bdr Dean at once changed a jeep motor, but found it had been moved. As the time was now approx 2030 hrs we decided to go to HALAAR for the evening where we were once stationed. Afterstaying there the night we visited friends on the following day, 14 May 45. In the evening of the same day after watching a Victory Parade we decided to return to our unit. After leaving HALAAR we proceeded about five kilometers and came upon a street dance in progress. We watched it for about ten minutes, th[illegible] then Bdr Dean got out of our vehicle.

I then proceeded to PUTTE ten kilometers from where I left Bdr Dean. After stopping for about fifteen minutes at PUTTE, at another dance, I started to return to where I left Bdr Dean. Approx 1 kilometer from HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG I met with an accident. After giving the Military Police the required information I went to a work shops in MECHELIN with the vehicle where I spent the night. On the morning of the 15 May 45 I went to HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG where I found Bdr Dean and explained to him what had happened. I stayed in HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG for the night and on the morning of the 16 May 45 I returned to the work shops and helped finish repairs on my vehicle. We were ready to start for the unit when we discovered that owing to the accident our headlights would not function. We remained in HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG and on the following morning 17 May 45 we started for the unit. Upon arriving at ZUTPHEN we were requested by two Army officers to tow their broken-down jeep to HENGELO. After doing so we proceeded to OLDENZAAL where we spent the night. On the morning of 18 May 45 we proceeded to MEPPEN where we obtained the required spare parts and went back to our unit, arriving at approx 1630 hrs.

Q-11- How far is HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG from MECHELIN?

A-11- About 20 kilometers.

Q-12- What time did you decide to return on 16 May 45?

A-12- After supper.

Q-13- What time did you discover that the lights weren't working?

A-13- I do not know.

Q-14- Was it dark?

A-14- No.

Q-15- How far is it from TURNHOUT to HALAAR?

A-15- I do not know.

Q-16- How long does it take to drive from TURNHOUT to HALAAR?

A-16- An hour and a quarter to an hour and a half.

Q-17- What time did you first arrive at HALAAR?

A-17- About 9 o'clock at night.

Q-18- Did you have any reason to go to HALAAR other than to visit friends?

A-18- No.

Q-19- Did you have a reason to stay other than visiting friends?

A-19- No.

Q-20- Could you have continued to go to unit on 14 May 45 if you had not stopped at the street dance?

A-20- Yes.

PROCEDURE

in the case of

G-8204 Bdr DEAN, T.R.

Q-21 - On 14 May 45 was any effort made to look for spare parts?

A-21 - No.

Cross-examine

Q-1 - During and at the time you were at WILHELMSHAVEN were vehicles out without work tickets?

A-1 - Yes.

Q-2 - Do you know of vehicles legally ordered, but no work tickets signed?

A-2 - Sometimes one work ticket was used for all day.

Q-3 - Was there a close check on vehicles?

A-3 - No.

End of case for prosecution.

Defending officer submits evidence for prosecution does not prove vehicle concerned in charge two. Ref R.P. 70. (Foot note).

COURT RULES - submission is dis-allowed in that the number of the vehicle used is not essential to constitute the offence. The offence would have been the same had any vehicle been used.

No witness for the defence because all facts are before the Court.

CLOSING ADDRESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Prosecution submits charges against accused proved. According to evidence the accused proceeded on a trip in charge of a WD Vehicle and although the purpose was authorized, the trip was not. Also accused abandoned purpose of trip and proceeded to visit friends and attend street dances. The trip was not authorized because no work ticket was submitted when they were in order. Had a ticket been used, Capt Arsenault would have filled in the destination. This removes authorization for extended trip and places full responsibility on the accused. No justification for accused to have gone farther than MEPPEN without further instructions from Capt Arsenault. He therefore acted on his own authority to go to GRAVES and TURNHOUT. For this part of the trip the defence may plead initiative of an NCO. The prosecution is willing to admit that initiative, constructive and well-guided initiative is an admirable quality in an NCO and that an NCO should not be penalized for using it except for a good reason. Nevertheless, any soldier acting on his own authority and without authority of his superior officers must be prepared to accept the responsibility from the result of his unauthorized actions. If the accused had returned from TURNHOUT directly and reported at the earliest possible moment to Capt Arsenault, and even though his return had been expected on the 13 May it is quite probable that a certain amount of lee-way would have been allowed for imitiative. However, any commendable or excusable deviation from the authorized

in the case of

actions was completely prejudiced by the accused entirely unjustified joy-ride to HALAAR and the entirely unwarranted three days wasted as a result of that action. Therefore the day and one half spent in returning from HALAAR to WILHELMSHAVEN must be included in the period of AWL and improper use of the vehicle.

CLOSING ADDRESS FOR THE DEFENCE

Evidence on a second charge is from Capt Arsenault who gave permission to the accused to go and did not lay down where he was to go or how long he could be away. I submit that Capt Arsenault's evidence shows sufficient authority for accused to use vehicle. The 1045s show that a fair number of parts were needed and it is in the evidence that accused did bring parts back.

On the first charge the same evidence I submit was sufficient authority for accused to leave unit. I stress evidence that accused had made similar trips, some for more than 24 hrs in the past. Should Court decide guilty on the first charge, I submit that period of absence be less that that on charge sheet. Evidence shows accused as looking for parts the greater part of the time and he was not responsible for the break-down of vehicle which caused further delay of his return.

ADDRESS OF DEFENCE IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

Accused came overseas in February 1941 and is assigned to a repat draft now. The draft is likely to be called in a short time - a week or ten days. Accused is married and a wife in Canada awaits his return. I suggest the sentence should not affect his return to Canada.

At 0900 hrs on 14 May 45, I was in charge of the morning parade. I called the roll and found that Bdr DEAN was absent. He was continually absent from parades from this date and time until the morning of 19 May 45, at 0900 hrs, when he was again on parade.

Second Witness for the prosecution

H-40795 Signn BERG H.V., 16 Cdn A.A.O.R., Sigs Sec, in the Field, having been duly sworn states:-

On the morning of the 13 May 45 at apprex 0730 hrs, I left with Bdr DEAN to pick up spare parts. Our first step was at the Salvage Dump at MEPPEN. After Bdr DEAN found he could not get the parts we left for a salvage dumpsat GRAVES. When we arrived at GRAVES the salvage dump was closed so we proceeded to TURNHOUT. On our arrival at TURNHOUT we looked for the salvage depot where Bdr DEAN had once changed a Jeep meter -- but found it had been moved. As the time was now apprex 2030 hrs we decided to go to HALAAR for the evening where we were once stationed. After staying there the night we visited friends on the following day, 14 May 45. In the evening of the same day, after watching a Victory parade, we decided to return to our unit. After leaving HALAAR we proceeded about five (5) kilometres and came upon a street dance in progress. We watched it for about ten minutes then Bdr DEAN got out of our vehicle. I then proceeded to PUTTE, ten kilometres from where I left Bdr DEAN. After stopping for about fifteen minutes at PUTTE, at another dance, I started to return to where I had left Bdr DEAN. Apprex one (1) kilometre from HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG I met with an accident. After giving the Military Police the required information I went to a wksps in MECHELIN with the vehicle, where I spent the night. On the morning of the 15th May 45 I went to HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG where I found Bdr DEAN and explained to him what had happened. I stayed in HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG for the night and on the morning of the 16 May 45 I returned to the wksps and helped to finish repairs on my vehicle. We were ready to start for the unit when we discovered that owing to the accident our headlights would not function. We remained in HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG and on the following morning 17 May 45 we started for the unit. Upon arriving at ZUTPHEN we were requested by two Army Officers to tow their broken-down Jeep to HENGELO. After doing so we proceeded to OLDENZAAL where we spent the night. On the morning of 18 May 45 we proceeded to MEPPEN where we obtained the required spare parts and then proceeded to the unit, arriving at apprex 1630 hrs.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

At 1630 hrs 18 May 45 Bdr DEAN reported to me in the unit Orderly Room at WILHELMSHAVEN and presented me with a note from a Service Corps Wksps which stated that the vehicle had been made road-worthy enough to return to the unit. This is the first time I had seen Bdr DEAN for a number of days.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution the accused elected to give evidence as follows:-

The accused, G-88804 Sgt DEAN F.R., 16 Con A.A.C.R., R.C.A., in the Field, having been duly sworn states:-

On 12 May 45 I met Capt ARSENAULT in the hall-way of our billet. I explained to Capt ARSENAULT that I needed some vehicle parts which I had not been able to obtain from ADOS as I had already tried to do so in OLDENBURG. I then suggested that I should go out on the scrounge. He then gave me permission to go. I then went and made out the necessary AB 1045 forms and took them to Capt ARSENAULT and got him to sign them.

On 13 May 45 at approx 0730 hrs I left, stopping at NEUFEN. I arrived there at approx 1130 hrs. I got out of the vehicle and inquired about the necessary parts. I could not obtain them there, so I continued on to GRAVES where I got out of the vehicle and went across the road where a L/Cpl was standing and asked him who I would have to see about getting some parts. He then told me that the dump was closed. I then proceeded to TURNHOUT. On the way, coming into TILBURG, I spoke to a Traffic Control policeman and asked if he knew of any slavage dumps and he said he did not know of any. I then again proceeded towards TURNHOUT. On our arrival at TURNHOUT I went to where the salvage dump was when I had once before put a motor in a Jeep while stationed at GILZE. On arriving at the former location of the dump, I found it had been moved away from the area. I then proceeded to HALAAR where I spent the night. On 14 May 45 I said to my driver, "While we are here we may as well visit some friends that we had met when we were stationed there". We spent the day visiting and in the evening there was a Victory parade which we watched. At approx 2100 hrs we started to return to the unit. On our way, approx five (5) kilometres East, there was a street dance in progress. We stopped the vehicle and sat and watched the dance for about ten minutes. I got out of the vehicle and the driver went to another dance. I waited until approx 2230 hrs and when he did not return I went and found accommodation for the night. On the morning of 15 May 45 I met my driver in HEIST-OP-DEN-BERG. He told me that he had had an accident. I then asked him where the vehicle was and he told me that it was in an RASC wksp in MECHELIN. I then asked him how long it would be before the vehicle would be repaired. He said approx two days or so as they did not have the required parts available. On the morning of 16 May 45 the driver went for the vehicle, returning in the evening. We got ready to start back for the unit when we discovered that there were no lights as a result of the accident.

We then remained in HEYST-OP-DEN-BERG for the night. On the morning of the 17 May 45 we left to return to our unit. On coming into ZUTPHEN we were stopped by two British Officers requesting us to tow their Jeep to HENGELO, which we did. After arriving at HENGELO we continued on to OLDENZAAL, arriving there at approx 2330 hrs. There we remained for the night. On the morning of 18 May 45 we continued on to MEPPEN where we stopped at the salvage dump. I got out of the vehicle and went over to see the clerk in charge, near the gate entrance, and asked him if I could get the required parts. He replied that he did not know but that there had been two vehicles brought in, and told me where they were. I then proceeded to where he told me to go. I found the vehicles and procured some of the parts that I needed, enough to put two of our vehicles back on the road. I then started back to the unit arriving at approx 1620 hrs where I reported in to Lieut LAMB.

Q. Did you intend that Bdr. DEAN should go as far as MEPPEN ?

The means authorization for extended trips & places full responsibility on account. The justification for account is how you justify that H/P personnel and further violations from legal counsel. [illegible]

[illegible] Jdes unaun authorization for extended trips + places full responsibility on accused. No justification for accused to have gone further than Hyppenmeitant further instructions from Capt Krenault. He thereon acted on own authority & go to Yaunde + Yaoundé. for this part of trip defense may plead in nature of [illegible] and well guided initiative is an admirable quality in an NCO and should not be penalized for using it except for good reason. Nevertheless any soldier acting on his own authority and without authority of his superior officers must be prepared to accept the responsibility for the results of his unauthorized action. If the accused had been returned from turnhout directly and reported at the earliest possible moment to Capt Arsenault even though ~~so that~~ his return had been expected on the 13th ~~same day had~~ it is quite probable that a certain amount of leeway would have been allowed for initiative. However any commendable or excusable deviation from the authorized actions was completely prejudiced by the accused entirely unjustified joy ride to Malaar and the entirely unwarranted 3 days wasted as a result of that action. Therefore the day and 1/2 spent in returning from Malaar to Wilhelmsdaven must be included in the period of AWL and improper use of the vehicle.

+W.L 4½ days

Dist. Tournhout to Malaar.
Equivalent dist other direction?
Had leave ticket been submitted dist. marked.
As a direct result of decision to proceed from Tournhout to Malaar (instead of returning from Tournhout toward Wilhelmshaven) to visit friends (no searching for parts) decision to start out at 2.00 hrs for Wilhelmshaven lead to stunt dance decision to go to dance instead of returning to unit, all lead to accident.
Accident combined with time wasted visiting friends and dancing took up fully three days.

In addition I submit that there was no justification for the accused to have proceeded further than the dump at Passen without further instructions from Capt Arsenault.
And that therefore he was acting on his own authority in going to Graves and then on to Tournhout.
Presumably he made an effort to find the parts at Graves and Tournhout.
For this part of the trip the defence may plead initiative on the part of our NCO. The prosecution is willing to admit that initiative, constructive

Relation of witness.

The 6 orders on 2nd charge is from Capt. Bernault who gave permission to accused to go and did not say anything unless he was to go or how long to be away. I submit that Capt. Bernault's evidence shows sufficient authority for accused to act as he did. The 1043's show that a fair number of pass was issued & it is in evidence accused did bring pass back.

On first charge the same evidence. I submit was sufficient authority for accused to leave unit. I also submit that accused had made similar trips some for more than 24 hours in past should not decide guilty on 1st charge. I submit period of absence of time to be less than that in charge sheet. 6 orders shows accused was looking for pass a great part of time & he was not responsible for breakdown of vehicle which caused further delay of his return.

Witness in mitigation of punishment

Accused came across Feb 41 and is assigned to a repl. draft now. The draft is likely to be posted in a short time next or two days. Accused is married & is therefore awaiting his return. I suggest a sentence that would not affect his return to Canada.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. C-20616 Pte. Dean, W. J. C. H. & A. (RR)

Pte Dean W. J. C. H. & A. (RR)

This Summary is taken on oath at the direction of Lt-Col. P. C. Klaehn, the C.O. of the accused.

1st Witness No. C20749 Sgt. MacDonald R.C. having been sworn and having identified the accused stated

"I was the N.C.O. in charge of the kitchen when the accused was on duty on the date in question. I first noticed his absence about 1130 hrs. on the 4th day of December 1942 and reported his absence immediately to the orderly room clerk of "J" Coy. whose name I do not remember. I think the clerk's name was Pte. Lortie. I also reported the matter to an officer who was in "J" Coy. orderly room at the time but I cannot remember that officers name nor could I now identify him as he had only recently come to the Bn. I have never had Pte Dean report to me for duty since nor did I ever see him again until he returned to the unit. I might add him this morning.

6 Jan 43

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Sgt [illegible] R.C.

2nd Witness C-21313 Sgt. Baird J. H., having been duly sworn and having identified the accused, states:-

"I was in command of the guards posted at the C.H. of O. Camp on 4 Jan 42. At approximately 1800 hrs. of that day the accused came in to the guard room, showed me his pass which I now identify by my handwriting on the back, and said he was reporting in. I put him under close arrest and detained him in the guard house. His name appears on part of Appendix "A" to the pass to which I am referring."

James. J. Baird

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

2nd Witness C-20376 L/Cpl. Robertson K.C. having been duly sworn and having identified the accused states:-

"I am an N.C.O. on duty in the Br. Publicity Room of the C.H. of O. (HQ) Upon examination of my records I see that the accused was reported by his Coy orderly room as having A.W.O.L. for 21 continuous days as of 2359 hrs 24 Dec 42. This means that upon investigation by the Bn. Orderly Room it was ascertained that the accused was continuously absent for 21 days or 24 Dec. 42. This report is necessary for a return which we always make when any person is absent for 21 days. If the accused returns at any time after the 21 days we could then K & B/d deserter & Cpd. a head Off.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

4th Witness No. C21301 Cpl. Montgomery G.J.W. having been duly sworn states:-

"I was commander of the guard of C.H. of 24/12/42 days on the night of 3-4 Dec 42. I cannot remember now whether or not the accused reported sick that night. Ordinarily, if he did not, his name would be posted up in the guard room as being A.W.L. but I cannot now remember whether the name of the accused was posted up. Also if he had reported in his pass would be collected from him at that time and he would not get it back again."

G. Montgomery Cpl

The accused elects to cross-examine.

The accused, having been warned in accordance with R.P. 4(E) as follows "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you may say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence", elects to give evidence on oath.

The Accused having been duly sworn, states:

"I admit to being A.W.L. for the period of time stated. I was fed up with the way things were going in the kitchen and I decided to get out of it if this way. I do not mind working but I did not like the way things were going and I wanted to get more real training.

Pte W.J. Dean

This is to certify that R.P. 4(C)(D)(E)(F) & (G) have been complied with and that the foregoing evidence was taken down in the presence and hearing of the accused at the above-mentioned date.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. NO .(5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jne 63 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 82(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 82(C) will be complied with.

(ii) At option of accused, statements by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 86.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (Where accused charged jointly see RP 85.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 562(a).)

Plea of Mitigation by Defense - Lt. J. G. Hayes

Sir. - I wish to enter a plea of mitigation to request leniency in the case of the defendant, A/Cpl. Walter Joseph Dean.

The soldier now on trial enlisted in the Cdn. Army, (Active Force), on the 2 Sep. 39 a week before the Cdn. government declared war on Germany. He volunteered for one purpose, and for one purpose only. - To fight! To fight any and all enemies of his country, regardless of personal dangers, discomforts, and separation from his young wife and family. ~~for years~~. As far

As far as health is concerned, Cpl. Dean is "A" category, and has been, in the 4½ years of his army career.

He served with the Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa as a machine-gunner, and after spending 11 months in Iceland with the regt., ~~[illegible]~~ he came with them to England. It was during his service in Iceland that Cpl. Dean was asked to cook and was so successful that he began to receive trades pay as a cook, group "C". Since that time he has cooked for the C.M. of O. in England, and in April, 43 was sent to #5 C.I.R.U., where his services as a cook were so invaluable that he was promoted to A/Cpl. and his attempts to get to the R.C.A.S.C., where, as a cook, he rightfully belongs, were always frustrated.

When #5 C.I.R.U. was broken up, he naturally expected that then he would realize his wish of being sent to R.C.A.S.C., from whence he could be drafted out to the field which was his one aim. Instead, he was transferred to #3 C.I.R.U., and has been cooking ever since. During this time he has been frowned upon by those N.C.O.'s and cooks who were already on the staff of this unit, and who believed he would eventually be promoted over their heads, and quite rightly, perhaps! In this atmosphere of resentment, he continued to do a fine job, and to hope that he would soon be sent to R.C.A.S.C., mainly, as it now appears.

One day, a few weeks ago, Cpl Dean sat down and began to sum up his own situation. This is what he arrived at. First - he was a young man, "A" category, with a will to fight, which is only too often lacking in some soldiers.

Secondly - cooks are always needed both in the front line and in the reinforcement units, but there are many low category men who could replace him in this unit, and release him for front-line duty. (Don't forget, - the defendant volunteered in the first place for one reason only to fight, - and it is far from his ambition to spend his time for the duration in a reinforcement unit, when "A" category cooks are in demand in action) Thirdly - he enlisted as a machine-gunner, and only became a cook through circumstance and necessity in Iceland. Now he discovers that through doing a tough and often thankless job to the best of his ability, he seems to have forfeited his chances of fighting, for no matter how he tried to get to R.C.A.S.C., he failed. Last but by no means least of these conclusions, he hears of the immense preparations in sway for the impending 2nd Front, and realizes that in less he does something soon, he will miss out on the only opportunity he will have of coming to grips with the enemy.

He sums all this up, and the only solution which comes to his mind, (wrong though it may be), is to go absent without leave, hoping that this will bring things to a head. Having tried everything else, he puts this last plan into action.

Now, - we can all sit in judgement on the foolishness of this escapade, and we know that it hasn't done him any good, - but no man is faultless, and all make a mistake sometime.

Ex. G 6.

The defendant has had no crimes and convictions for over 2 years, and has ~~always~~ been doing his best to soldier as evidenced by the fact that he was made an A/Cpl. for his work at #5 C.I.R.U.

I ask you to take all these things into consideration and I ask for leniency in Cpl. Dean's case.

Thank you sir.

W. Haynes, Lt.
