IN MITIGATION

The accused was in action with us since D Day 2 Div. He did his share well until he went AWL. He was never AWL in action or in the time he was in England. He is willing to go back to Beach and do his work as he was doing it when he left. His first offence and I ask the Court to consider this fact and be lenient.

SPR DAVIDSON

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFR

~~IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND JUDGE ADVOCATE NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH AO 43 B.~~

Mr President and Members.

I believe that though Spr Davidson has no lawful excuse for his act, there are a number of circumstances that have a bearing on the matter. He has been overseas since 1941, a little over 2 years now and training for most of that time for action which has not materialized, and trg does get monotonous for most of us. He has been with two other units before coming to the 6 Fd Sqn. He wished very much to stay with one of the units, but was MOS on going to the hospital. This unit was 1 Wkshp & Pk. He has been with this unit for 6 months now, trained and qualified as a concretor, and has not had a total of more than three days at his trade since coming to this unit. Around 1 Dec 43, Davidson tried to transfer to the 7 Fd Pk Coy, in which unit he has a very good friend. I talked with Mr. Ditchburn, who was his tp comd at the time, and he told me that Davidson had come to him with a request for transfer, but the transfer had not been proceeded with, which is not in accordance with A ORO 1614(?), having a good friend there was not sufficient reason. During Dec, it appears that one Half the NCOs in 6 Fd Sqn were away from the Sqn on leave or on courses. Trg and supervision of the men was not at a high peak. I was there and there was considerable disorganization. The morale of the men was low and there was considerable unrest. Lastly, I would like to say that Spr Davidson has done some work at his trade under my supervision and I think it is the only work he has done at his trade. I found him to be a very good tradesman, and also that on the one occasion on which I inspected a Sqn guard of which he was a member, I chose him as "stick man" for the guard for being the smartest and best turned out soldier on the guard.

Remember you are under oath.
Q.107 For how many days were you interviewed by people interrogating you - civilian police, Provst, SIS etc.
A.107 About five or six days.
Q.108 For how long did these last.
A.108 All day. In between breaks, Tpr Wheat and I were examined for a couple of hours each day.
Q.109 Did you receive any threats.
A.109 Yes sir.
Q.110 Will youtell the court about it.
A.110 Yes sir. I was taken for a walk down the road towards Five Oaks Corners by the Provost Sgt, the RP of this Regt. We got to arguing about the case, and he said I was a Dirty Shit Heel for letting Tpr Wheat take the blame for the accident. I got mads and told him that I thought that he had nothing to do with the case or me, but to keep me in custody. He then said that he could make me talk by cutting off my food and all privileges of the Guard Room. So I told him he had better take me back and lock me up. The next time was the SIS man. On the afternoon of the 14th Dec, Sgt Latta asked me if I was married and I said yes and he asked me if I had any children. I told him yes. We got to talking and bandying words between each other and he said I might as well tell otherwise he would drag my wife into it. I told him that it had nothing to with my wife and it only concerned myself. He said he had power of authority to drag anyone in on the charge at any time, and I let it go at that.
Q.111 After several days you were not looking forward to these daily visits.
A.111 No I was not sir.

Prosecution

A.113 He actually said that if he wanted to, he could cut off my food.
Q.114 Did he say he was going to.
A.114 No sir.
Q.115 Is that all that was said.
A.116 A few more things were said and I told him to mind his own business and just keep me under custody which was his business.

Q.117 Did you say anything to them about being questioned.
A.117 I don't know the exact day sir, but one afternoon just after being questioned, I told them that anything they had to say would be brought out at the Court Martial. The Provost told the Guard Comds to keep me locked in the cell as I thought I was hard and to take it easy with Tpr Wheat.

Defending Offr calls ~~First~~ Witness for Defence.

Maj FA Minchall RCAMC, 15 Cdn Fd Amb, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

~~Q.123 Will you identify yourself to the Court please.~~
~~A.123 I am Maj FA Minchall, 15 Cdn Fd Amb, RCAMC.~~
~~Q.124 I should like you to tell the Court what your opinion is in a case such as this. You are a qualified medical practitioner having graduated from a recognized University I am.~~
~~A.124~~
~~Q.125 You have a considerable amount of work in this line.~~
~~A.125 Yes both in the Army and in civilian practice.~~
~~Q.126 Would you tell the Court what your opinion is in such a case as this. A man confined in under close arrest in a Guard Room and subjected to interrogation by his own offrs, by the regtl police Sgt by civilian police and SIB of the Provost Corps. This continued over a period of several days and on some days lasted all day except for breaks in the morning and following the evening meal. Would you tell the Court what your opinion is as to whether this statement was signed under duress or not.~~
~~A.126 If a man has been under interrogation for some considerable period, under conditions which could be termed adverse, his statesent in such a case could very easily have been coloured by suggestions made by the interrogators~~
~~Q.127 In other words then, in unfriendly circumstances he might make a statement under duress.~~
~~A.127 Yes but it would cover an awful lot of ground but it could be said from a scientific viewpoint that it was not his free opinion.~~
~~Q.128 Do you think that this would have any bearing on it -- the man having learned that his whole unit was to be CBd until such time as the crime was solved.~~
~~A.128 That would depend on the man's mental makeup. If he were of the suggestive type it might have a great bearing on his future action.~~
~~Q.129 Would youth have any bearing on it.~~
~~A.129 A younger man would be more susceptible to such than an older more mature man.~~
~~Q.130 Can you tell the Court anything else in support of your statement. Is this your own opinion or is it a general feeling in the medical profession.~~

(over)

A.131 In dealing with neurosis psychological reports I would say it would be ~~a~~ generally accepted principle.

Questioned by the Court

Q.132 With a hypothetical case as set forth by the Defending Officer, if no suggestions were put forward by the interrogating offrs, would the individual be apt to tell the truth, or would he make a false statement.

A.132 That would be a question that would be almost impossible to answer unless you knew the individual concerned and his degree of mental stability. He might make a false statement merely to get the thing over with.

Q.133 You see the accused in Court to-day. Have you had an opportunity to investigate him from a psychological point of view.

A.133 No, I have never seen the accused before.

A.151 No sir, I did not.
Q.152 Did the accused say to you that you (Sgt Latta) had nothing to do with my (Davidson's) wife.
A.152 No sir.
Q.153 Did you say to him words to the effect that you had the authority to drag anyone into the case at any time.
A.153 Definitely not sir.
Q.154 Your evidence earlier was to the effect that you gave the regular caution to Tpr Davidson and as a result of that he made a statement to you.
A.154 That is correct sir.

Prosecution declined to examine the witness.

Defending Offr cross-examines theWitness.

Q.155 How was the name of Tpr Davidson's wife brought into it.
A.155 He was headed with the car in the direction of where his wife was staying. He was asked if he had been to a certain place.
Q.156 Did you make any remark that his wife would be brought into it.
A.156 No sir.
Q.157 Then you have no way of explaining how is wife was to be dragged into it.
A.157 No sir. The assumption was that he took the truck to see his wife.

Judge Advocate addresses the Court.

Mr President and Gentlemen. You have heard the evidence concerning the facts surrounding the attaining of a statement made by the accused to Sgt Latta of theNZ. I want to point out to you what the rules are with reference to the admissability of that statement. I am going to read to you para 75 on Page 91 of the Manual of Military Law.

Judge Advocate reads para 75 on Page 91 of the Manual of Military Law.

Therefore Mr President and Gentlemen, what you have to satisfy yourselves about is [redacted] whether the admission has been induced by any fear of prejudice or hope of advantage. If you come to the conclusion that the statement has been obtained through fear of prejudice or hope of advantage the statement must be excluded from evidence. But if on the other hand it was not induced by any fear of prejudice or hope of advantage the statement is admissable. Therefore I now ask suggest you close the Court to make your finding with reference to the particular statement.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE STATEMENT.
THE COURT REOPENS.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

The Defending Officer Sums Up

There are certain points I should like to bring out. No work ticket was produced for the night of 9 Dec 49; moreover there is no proof that the vehicle was ever taken out of the park on that evening. The sentry on duty that night could not pin it down any further than it was during the week of Dec 9, or before that. I have nothing to say as to his mental capacity. The veh was not even identified as belonging to the SAR. Authorities who specialise in psychological work are agreed that a man subject to prolonged daily interrogation in unfriendly surroundings and who have at the end of that time given a written statement to the interrogators, might well be said to have been given that statement under compulsion of a sort which I think is very true. You can put yourself in the position of the accused - he is close arrest, in most uncomfortable Guard House - stone walls and a cement floor and not much light. He has a wife and a sick baby about whom he is quite worried. He has learned that the regt has been confined to barracks and will remain there until the guilty party is discovered. He is interrogated for long hours day after day and as a grand finale the SIS are called in to finish him off. Two great hulking men who could scarcely be described as laughing boys carry on the quiz. One feels that the only thing that was missing was the bright lights and the rubber hose. There was moreover a certain amount of threat. The RPS admits he called the prisoner a very foul name. The accused under oath states that the SIS Sgt threatened to bring his wife into it. The SIS Sgt denies this it is true also under oath. It is possible that the accused's wife was mentioned in a manner somewhat different from that which the accused thought. Nevertheless he obviously did interpret whatever threat was made to drag in his wife. Now as to the vehicle itself. The damage was assessed. A witness Capt Ashhurst has admitted that when he assessed the damage done to this car he noted everything broken or missing on it. I am sure that the court will agree that any military veh which is brought in for a thorough check would have a considerable amount in the way of pounds, shillings and pence wrong with it although it had had the best of care. It has also been brought to my attention that there was a certain amount of cannibalization going on with respect to this veh. The muffler was removed from it following the accident and placed on another car assigned to another Tpr in this unit. I am further told that the generator and distributor were taken off it and put on another veh. If this is so, it is quite likely to suppose that other parts had been removed from it and that damaged parts were put back in their place. On many recent exercises we saw vehicles in the North being damaged by trees rocks, etc. It is quite possible that this veh likewise suffered. That is all that I wish to present before the Court at this time.

The Prosecuting Offr sums up.

The Defending Officer has made certain points I should like to cover. I should like to make a resume of the case.

The Prosecution have called witnesses who have sworn that scout car CF 62076 was on Tpr Davidson's charge and other witnesses have indicated that on the night of 9 Dec 43 there was no authorized work ticket issued to the accused to take his veh out of the Pk. Another witness has stated that on the same evening while he was on guard duty in the veh pk, he talked with the two men but he was unable to identify the accused as one. He talked to two men who entered the Pk and did not leave on foot. A few minutes [illegible] later a car which he was unfortunately unable to identify as a scout car left by another gate. At approx the same time a Tpr belonging to another unit has testified on oath that scout car of this regt left the lines and they told him they were going on a map-reading scheme. It seems reasonable to assume that the vehs were one and the same. The defence has made much of the fact that the accused underwent a psychological third-degree by SIS men. SIS men of the APM's office are people with proper police trg whose duty it is to get at facts. I fail to see that the physcial size of the SIS men should have anything to do with it. The defence brought a witness who testified on oath that a certain amount of cannibalization had been going on between the scout cars of this unit after the accident and before the scout car went out to the workshop. Parts were removed, tools taken out to make up shortages in other vehs. When questioned by the Prosecution the witness admitted that he did not see the act and had not taken part in it and that his evidence was based merely on hearsay.

The Judge Advocate sums up.

The charge before the Court to-day is -

The charge is read to the Court.

If you come to the conclusion that the Prosecution did not prove the full amount of the money damage set forth in the charge sheet, and if you feel that the prosecution proved all the other essential ingredients in the charge, you will not bring in a finding of Not Guilty, but you would bring in a special finding setting forth the amount of money damage proved.

The facts in this particular case are within a very narrow compass and to aid you, you have the confession which was made by the accused to Sgt Latta of the SIS and in that confession the accused said among other things on Thurs 9 Dec 43 at about 1630 hrs we went down to the car pk [illegible] and took my veh CF 62076 and drove out the [illegible] gate. At the gate, we were stopped by the sentry and Trp Wheat told him we were going on a Map Reading scheme. We were allowed to pass, etc etc. The prosecution brought before you the witness to testify that two men came up to him while in a veh and said we are going on a MR exercise or words to that effect and this veh in question was found on 10 Dec 43 about 30 miles from the 29 Recce Regt veh pk in a damaged condition. So I don't think Mr. President and Gentlemen that you should have a great deal of difficulty in coming to the conclusion that the accused took the scout car No. CF 62076 and drove it a considerable distance and the veh was damaged about 30 miles away. You have to satisfy yourself as to whether or not the Prosecution has proved to your satisfaction that the veh was taken and used without authority having been given. My opinion is and as I have already intimated which opinion you are not bound to accept that the Prosecution has proven adequately that no authority was given to the accused to use his veh on the night of 9 Dec 43.

With reference to the damages to the veh, the suggestion has been put forth by the defending officer that the damage testified to by Capt Akehurst was not the damage that was sustained by ~~xx~~ the veh on the night of 9 Dec 43, that cannibalization had taken place and that therefore the total amount of the damage would not be £8, but in my opinion, which opinion you are not bound to accept, the witness for the defence in testifying as to parts of the car which had been taken off before the assessment was made by Capt Akehurst was ~~xx~~ purely of a hearsay nature. He said if I remember the evidence correctly, that a discussion took place one rainy afternoon in the hut~~x~~ and that the boys were mentioning this and that and the other thing. However, it is for you to decide, and if you give any credence to the evidence given by that particular witness Cpl Smith, then, of course, the amount of damage would be lessened.

The Court must remember the principle of English law that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty, and that the burden of proof rests upon the prosecution. Unless, therefore, the guilt of the accused has been established beyond reasonable doubt, the accused must be acquitted, as the prosecution has failed to sustain adequately the ~~xx~~ burden or proving his guilt. Such a doubt wouldbe one that reasonable men would have. It is more than mere suspicion. In other words, the Court must be satisfied not only that the circumstances proved were consistent with the guilt of the accused, but also that they were inconsistent with any other rational conclusion.

Wish the Court consider it necessary in the interest of justice to recall Capt Akehurst - K.I.Hay.

Capt Akehurst is questioned by the Court.

Q.259 Could you tell at the time you examined the scout car CF 62076 whether the damage to the tool box on the left rear fender was a recent injury.

A.259 Yes it was.

Q.260 How many mufflers were missing.

A.260 Two sir.

Q.261 Could you tell that the absence of thesetwo mufflers was a recent absence.

A.261 No sir.

Q.262 What would the cost of a muffler be.

A.262 Nineteen shillings each. Thirty-eight shillings for two.

Q.263 What would be the amount for the labour necessary to instal two mufflers.

A.263 One hour - three shillings.

Q.264 The left rear fender was bent, was that a recent or an old bending.

A.264 It was a recent one.

Q.265 And the right rear fender was bent.

A.265 That was recent also.

Q.266 The driver's hatch was damaged.

A.266 That was also recent.

Q.267 The left aerial mount damaged.

A.267 That was also recent.

Q.268 The rear view mirror was missing, how about that.

A.268 It was on the fender that was damaged and we have no evidence as to whether it was recent or not.

Q.269 Was it broken off.

A.269 It wasn't there.

Q.270 What would the cost of the rear-view mirror be.

A.270 Ten shillings.

Q.271 The bracket holding the co-driver's seat.

A.271 That was recent damage.

Q.272 You say the rear-view mirror would cost ten shillings. How long would it take to install.

A.272 About twenty minutes labour - one shilling.

Q.273 Was there any indication Capt that the mufflers were taken off by hand recently or were they torn off.

A.273 There was no indication of their being torn off. I noted that fact and that there was no damage to the parts that the mufflers were fitted on with.

The Defence cross-examines the witness

Q.275 Can you tell me how this three-shillings an hour is arrived at.

A.275 It is laid down by the Cdn Claims Commission. You would be charged approx the same rate in a civilian garage.

Q.276 But it was not taken into a civilian garage and it is grossly unfair.

A.276 These charges are only made when there has been an accident which is the fault of the driver of the veh.

With the defending officer does not wish to make any further address on behalf of accused.

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Gentlemen. There are one or two remarks I should like to make in the case of the accused. One thing which has not been brought out is that this soldier joined the Army on 5 Sep 39 and like the majority of us wanted to come over and get the job done and get back home. He came ove with 1 Cdn Div and through no fault of his own, was left behind when 1 Cdn Div went to the present theatre of war and is somewhat ~~as~~ naturally discouraged, and has something what the English call a browned off feeling. He has from time to time tried to get a transfer to 1 Cdn Div. The first remark addressed to him was that of a Sgt Major who said we don't want the likes of you around here. This would not tend to make him any happier in his unit. He put in through the usual channels an application for transfer. This was turned down either by the CO or 2 Ech and once again he had a set-back. He went further than this and asked to be paraded before the GOC to no avail. Tak ng all these factors into consideration, you can picture the man who is thoroughly fed up with his lot, and has reached that frame of mind of a man who feels truly or wrongly that he has been kicked around and takes French Leave and thinks it is the perfectly normal reaction under the circumstances. To hearken back to the damages to the veh, these have seemingly been well considered with particular reference to the missing mufflers. However, one feels that this charge of three shillings per hr is rather unjust but it perfectly regular as laid down by the Canadian Army Overseas. I cannot believe the damage to the left rear fender and right rear fender when the car was on its left side for they both could not have been damaged by this accident. That however is a minor point. The last point which I should like to bring up is one which I think is too often forgotten in Military Courts. That is punishments in Civil Courts and Military Courts. An employee of a large trucking firm having taken a veh belonging to that firm in order to see his ailing child and during the trip having had an accident with that car he might conceivably lose his job and would undoubtedly be assessed for the damages to the car, but he would at least be free to search for another job. In other words, his capacity as a wage earner would not be interfered with for a very long period, whereas in the Army there is always a tendecy when a man is guilty to throw the book at him. The result of this will be a soldier who is returned to work feeling very disgruntled indeed particularly in this ~~punishment~~ specific case. When you are considering this case, I would ask you to bear in mind that the traffic offence and punishment in civil and military courts and also the fact that this man did have in fact a sick child.

A. The fenders were bent to such an extent that they only had to be hammered out - they could be repaired without replacing them.
Q. Were mufflers beyond local repair?
A. Yes.
Q. The vehicle was lying on its left side, therefore how could the right muffler be broken?
A. I do not know how this could happen, but when I examined the vehicle the muffler was damaged to such an extent that it will have to be replaced.
Q. Was the right rear fender bent?
A. Yes. It could be repaired without being replaced.
Q. Capt Crichton with regard to the Muffler. Would any marks on the nuts or bolts indicate whether or not it had been tampered with?
A. I don't believe that it would show on the nuts or bolts.
Q. When you examined this vehicle would you have noticed if any parts had been removed or replaced?
A. It would be pretty hard to tell whether parts had been replaced by parts from an old vehicle, it could be told if they were new parts.

Evidence for the Prosecution

1st witness for the prosecution No G-32888 Sgt Hanlon C.E. having been duly sworn states:-

Evid in chief.

I recognise the accused. On or about 1130 hrs on the 21st December 1943 I was taking a class of instruction on the R.R.C. in the hut adjoining the briefing room at Carter Barracks Bulford Camp. The accused was a member of the class. I gave the accused an order and he replied "Yes, sergeant" in a smart cheek manner. I told him that he would have to change his tone or I would place him in the guard room and he replied "I don't give a shit." I placed him under close arrest and fell in the rest.

The reply "yes sergeant" was made in an insolent manner. The accused knew I was his superior officer. The remark "I don't give a shit" was addressed to me personally.

accused. The order which I gave to the accused was to pay attention; he had something in his hand and was not paying attention. I don't know exactly what he was doing. I spoke to the accused in a tone of voice of me in authority. The accused replied to me in a smart aleck and somewhat insolent manner.

I have heard the expression "I don't give a shit" before.

sergeant The reply "yes sergeant" provoked me to say that I did.

Questioned by the Court The accused when he made the remark "I don't give a shit" said it at me and was looking me in the face.

At the time of the instruction the class was grouped around the gun and the accused was slightly to the right and in front of the gun

2nd witness for the prosecution No. H-1332 L/Cpl Dooley R 1st Air Parachute Bn having been duly sworn states:-

Evd in chief

I recognise the accused. In the afternoon of the 21st December 1943 I was in the class taken by Sgt Hanlon at Easter Barracks Bulford Camp; the time was between 1500 and 1520 hours. Sgt Hanlon told the accused to pay attention to which the accused replied "yes sergeant" in a not ordinary tone of voice. Sgt Hanlon told him (the accused) to change his tone of voice or he would land up in the guard room to which the accused replied "I dont give a shit". I was right beside the accused at the time.

The accused knew Sgt Hanlon to be his superior officer and allowed his remark "I dont give a shit"

Directly to Lgt Hanlon

cross ad. The time was just after a break. We were gathered in a semi-circle round the gun about three feet away. The accused was to the front of the gun - sideways to me and facing Lgt Hanlon who was behind the gun. Lgt Hanlon was giving the instruction. The accused was looking at pictures with another detachment and not paying attention.

I don't remember hearing the expression "I don't give a shit" before. The accused is a good type of man.

I identify the original charge sheet against the accused (Marked 'A'). I appreciate that it does not mention that the warning was given by a superior officer and that it does not state to whom the reply was made.

The accused is informed on his rights in accordance with R.P. 40 (A) and Note 2 on pag. 644 of the Manual of Military Law, 1929 Edition. The accused is asked the following questions:-

Q.1. Do you wish to give evidence as a witness ?

A.1. Yes

Q.2. Do you intend to call any other witness on your behalf ?

A.2. Yes

Q.3. Are they witnesses as to character only ?

A.3. No. As to fact also

Evidence for the Defence

1st witness for the Defence No. 6-28066 Pte Doyle A.D. 1st Cdn Parachute Bn having been duly sworn states:-

cad in chief. I recognise the accused. Between 1500 and 1530 hours on the 21st December 1943 I was a member of a class with the accused which was being taken by Sgt Harlow at Carter Barracks Bulford Camp. We were gathered round the MMG just after a break; Sgt Harlow told us all to pay attention. I was on the extreme left of the group while the accused was on the extreme right in front of the gun. The accused was doing something with his purse. Then Sgt Harlow told him to put "that" away and pay attention. The accused replied "Yes sergeant" and I noticed nothing out of the ordinary in his tone of voice. Sgt Barlow told him to change his tone of voice ~~or he would put him in the guard room~~. The accused replied "yes sergeant" again. I was not paying attention after this and did not hear anything further said.

I have heard the expression "I don't give a shit" before. It does not mean anything spiteful.

The accused has always used the same tone of voice while I have known him.

corrected I did not hear the accused say "I don't give a shit" that day.

2nd witness for the defence No. 0-202553 Pte Lewis C.D. 1st Cdn Parachute Bn having been duly sworn states:-

cnd in chief

I recognise the accused. Between 1500 and 1600 hours on the 21st December 1943 at Carter Barracks Bulford Camp during a break in R.M.C. instruction I was with the accused sitting down looking at some photographs from his wallet. When an instructor shouted to everybody to return to their lines the accused was having some difficulty in putting the photographs back in the wallet. I heard Sgt Scanlon say to the accused "Pay attention" and I heard the accused reply "yes sergeant" in an ordinary tone of voice. I did not hear anything further as I joined my own class.

I have heard the expression "I don't give a shit" many times; it is used the same as "I don't give a damn".

No cross-examination.

3rd witness for the defence (the accused) 808-8719
Pte Davidson G.J. 1st Cdn Parachute Bn having been duly sworn states -

At about 1515 hours on the 2nd December 1943 at Carter Barracks Bulford Camp I was ~~in the~~ showing some pictures from my album to Pte Lewis during a break in R.R.C. instruction. An instructor ordered us all to return to our dances and in doing so I was having difficulty in putting the pictures away. Sgt Hanlon who was instructing my class said to me "Put the pictures away" to which I replied "Yes sergeant" in the same tone of voice that I am using now. Sgt Hanlon then told me to change my tone of voice" to which I replied "yes sergeant" again in an ordinary tone of voice. He then said that if I didn't change my tone of voice he would place me behind bars to which I answered "I don't give a shit." I did not say this at the sgt; I was at the side of the door and facing the other members of the class as well.

Sgt Hanlon then placed me under close arrest.

The expression "I don't give a shit" means no more to a Canadian soldier than "Bloody" does to an English soldier.

Sgt Hanlon has been victimizing me ever since I applied to return to the Mortar Platoon and I know that he has reported me to the CSM to be a ringleader of trouble. The result has been that he has always been checking me for every little thing crossed. No questions to ask

ANSWER:- No.

Plea in Mitigation of Punishment in the case of No. R-8719 Pte Davidson G. J. 1st Canadian Parachute Bn

It is not contended that the accused is a good soldier in his duty. The court is asked to take into consideration the fact that the accused was not happy where he was and had made every effort to get back to his old platoon through the proper channels. It is clear from the evidence that he was being threatened by Sgt Hanlon and the court is asked to take a more lenient view of a remark that slipped out under those circumstances.

The accused has been in confinement already for sixteen days.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

IN THE CASE OF

No. B-8719 Pte George Joseph DAVIDSON, First Canadian Parachute Battalion, C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on active service.

CHARGE

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS No. G-32888 Sgt HANLON, C.E. First Canadian Parachute Battalion, being duly sworn, states "On 21 Dec 43 at approximately 1530 hrs I was in charge of a class of instruction on the MMG. I had given Pte DAVIDSON an order and he replied "Yes, Sergeant" in a smart-alecky manner. This had occurred on a previous occasion. Pte DAVIDSON, when I told him that he would have to change his tone and insolent manner, or that I would place him in the guard room, replied to me "I dont give a shit". At this reply I had L/Cpl OVERBY fall in two men and escort Pte DAVIDSON to the guard room. That is all."

C.C. Hanlon Sgt HANLON C.E.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

SECOND WITNESS No. H-1332 L/Cpl OVERBY, G. First Canadian Parachute Battalion, being duly sworn, states:—

"On the afternoon of 21 Dec 43, while undergoing instruction on the MMG, Sgt HANLON told Pte DAVIDSON to pay attention. Pte DAVIDSON in reply said "Yes sergeant" in a not ordinary tone of voice. Sgt HANLON told him to change his tone of voice or he would have him in the guard room. Pte DAVIDSON answered "I dont give a shit". That is all".

A Overby L/Cpl OVERBY, G.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

THIRD WITNESS No. G-28066 Pte DOYLE, A.D. First Canadian Parachute Battalion, being duly sworn, states:—

"On the afternoon of 21 Dec 43, at some-time after 1500 hrs, we were under Sgt HANLON's instruction in the MMG. ~~We had~~ Pte DAVIDSON had stated once before that he was not interested in this drill and had tried to get a transfer. Sgt HANLON drew the classes attention after a break and Pte DAVIDSON was talking to another chap. Sgt HANLON told Pte DAVIDSON to put away his purse and pay attention. Pte DAVIDSON answered "Yes sergeant". I did not notice anything of an insulting nature in his voice. I was then busy getting my mens' attention as I was 2i/C No. 6 Section. The next I heard was Sgt HANLON telling Pte DAVIDSON to pay closer attention and not to use that tone of voice in speaking to an NCO. That is all I can remember except that I became an escort to take Pte DAVIDSON to the guard room."

A.D. Doyle Pte DOYLE, A.D.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS No. G-28255 Pte LEWIS, C.D. First Canadian Parachute Battalion, being duly sworn, states:—

"On 21 Dec 43, shortly after 1500 hrs and at the end of a break period, Pte DAVIDSON was putting away some pictures he had been showing me. One of the instructors called for everyone to go back to their own detachments. I arose to return to mine when Sgt HANLON told Pte DAVIDSON to pay attention. Pte DAVIDSON answered "Yes sergeant". I returned to my detachment and during the whole procedure I found nothing spiteful in Pte DAVIDSON's behaviour. That is all."

E3. 23 Nov. 44.

In the case of No. H 3178 Sgt. Davidson J.E. No. 5 Coy. C.H.C., C.A.O., charged with being Absent Without Leave. (A.A.15(1))

Plea of Mitigation of Sentence

Before sentence is passed there are several points concerning the accused which should be brought to the attention of the court and which I feel should have some bearing on the final decision reached by the court.

In the first place it was not the premeditated intention of the accused to go A.W.L. but was a combination of circumstances which finally led to this getting intoxicated with liquor and finding himself absent from his unit. It is reasonable to suppose and easy to believe that on awakening in the morning with a hangover and the realization of what he had done that he was fearful of the probable consequences of the escapade and it is also reasonable to believe that he would turn to liquor to give him courage to face the facts. One drink led to another with the result that he again reached the stage of intoxication and failed to return to his unit. There was a repetition of the each day until he finally sobered completely and fully realized the error of his ways and voluntarily returned to his unit.

The accused has given good and faithful service in the army for over four years and during that time has kept his conduct above unblemished. He has worked hard and has not been on leave for a year and a half. The strain of the present conflict and unnatural way of living for a prolonged period of time has had considerable effect on the decisions we now make and it is not unreasonable to maintain that the accused in a moment of pressure relaxed his hold on himself sufficiently to result in his getting intoxicated and being A.W.L.

Secondly it is going to be very strange for the accused after living the life and enjoying the comforts and privileges of a Sgt. to suddenly relinquish all these amenities. I am sure that each day will forcibly bring to his attention the consequences of discovery disciplin and that he will fully realize the importance of discipline in the army.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No. H-3178 Sgt. DAVIDSON, J.E., No.5 Coy. Canadian Dental Corps, CAO., charged with being ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE (AA 15 (1)).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS:

B5343 C.S.M. (WO II) COLLETT, E.P.D., No. 5 Coy., C.D.C., sworn states:-

"On Sunday, 29 Oct 44 the dental detachment consisting of Capt. Decker, Sgt. Davidson, and Pte. MacDonald reported to this H.Q. Sometime during the afternoon I was instructed by the O.C. to allocate sleeping accommodation for Sgt. Davidson and Pte. MacDonald. I neglected to inform the Orderly Sgt. that these men had been put on H.Q. strength.

At roll-call on the morning of Oct 30th 1944 at 0845 hrs., Sgt. Davidson was missing from parade. This is not unusual with dental detachments just arriving as usually their clinics have to be set up for dental duties.

At 0930 hrs Capt. Decker inquired as to whether Sgt. Davidson was on parade. I informed him he was not, that I thought he was in Capt. Decker's clinic. Capt. Decker informed me he was not there.

On inquiry from Sgt. Van Rysell, the Orderly Sgt. of the previous night, I was informed that Sgt. Davidson was not in his quarters at Tattoo Roll Call, 2230 hrs.

This information was passed on to the Adjutant, Capt. Nacht, by me.

On all subsequent parades, until the 8th of November, 1944, Sgt. Davidson was absent.

At 2145 hrs. on the 7th of November, 1944, the Orderly Sgt., Cpl. Cameron reported to me, in my tent, that Sgt. Davidson had returned from absence, voluntarily. He was accompanied by Sgt. Davidson. I instructed Cpl. Cameron to allocate a bed for Sgt. Davidson.

I reported this fact to the O.C. at 0830 hrs., 8 Nov 44, who instructed me to place Sgt. Davidson under close arrest, pending charges being laid.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

E.P. Collett

C.S.M. COLLETT E.P.D.

SECOND WITNESS: M-3148 Sgt. Van RYSSEL, A., No. 5 Coy., C.D.C., sworn states:-

"On the night of 29 Oct 44 at 2230 hrs, being Orderly Sgt., I made a personal check of the barracks, and Sgt. Davidson was not in.

I did not report it to the Sergeant Major, but I made inquiries the next morning, and then made a report to CSM Collett."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

A. Van Ryssel
Sgt. Van RYSSEL, A.

THIRD WITNESS: Capt. G.E. DECKER, No. 5 Coy., C.D.C., sworn states:-

"On the morning of the 30 Oct 44, my Chair Assistant, Sgt. Davidson, did not report for duty. I asked Capt. Nacht to find out whether he was missing, or around camp. He spoke to the Sgt. Major, and the latter informed me Sgt. Davidson had been absent from roll-call that morning.

The following morning I turned over the Sergeant's kit to the Q.M. Stores."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Geo E Decker
Capt. G.E. Decker.

FOURTH WITNESS: G-45234 C.Q.M.S. BURNETT, C.A.C., #5 Coy., C.D.C., sworn states:-

"The day after Sgt. Davidson left the Unit, his kit was turned over to me by Capt. Decker. It was kept in the Q.M's custody until Sgt. Davidson returned.

When he returned I checked the kit in his presence. He was short one pair of boots."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

A. Burnett
C.Q.M.S. BURNETT, C.A.C.

FIFTH WITNESS: C97010 Sgt. PAQUIN, K.D., No. 5 Coy., C.D.C., sworn states:-

"I am Orderly Room Sgt. of No. 5 Coy., C.D.C. On the morning of 31 Oct 44, I was directed by Capt. M. Nacht to submit a casualty return to 2 Ech showing H3178 Sgt. Davidson J.E. as A.W.L. from 2230 hrs 29 Oct 44. After 72 hrs. A.W.L. I sent a description of Sgt. Davidson to the D.A.P.M. 3 Cdn. Inf. Div (REAR). On the 8th day of absence, 7 Nov 44, I submitted a casualty return to 2 Ech showing Sgt. Davidson still absent as at 2230 hrs. 6 Nov 44.

On the morning of the 8th of November 44 I was notified by CSM Collett that a casualty return would be submitted to 2 Ech showing Sgt. Davidson returning from Absence Without Leave at 2130 hrs 7 Nov 44. This was done."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

K.D. Paquin
Sgt. PAQUIN, K.D.

The C.R's referred to above are attached hereto, marked Exhibits "A" "B" and "C" respectively.

SIXTH WITNESS: F-51398 Cpl. CAMERON, H.A., No. 5 Coy., C.D.C., sworn states:-

"On November 7th I was Orderly Sgt., and at 2130 hrs. Sgt. Davidson reported to me. I brought him down the the Sergeant-Major's tent. The Sgt. Major instructed me to see that he would get a room to sleep in for the night, which I did."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

H Cameron
Cpl. CAMERON, H.A.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

A I want to make a statment.

Q On oath or not on oath?

A On oath.

The accused, M3178 Sgt. Davidson, J.E., sworn states:

"After coming in off detachment, having been assigned to my quarters, there was nothing for me to do until the following morning.

I proceeded to have a few drinks with friends. We continued to drink, and I remember nothing else until sobering up and returning to my Unit."

J.E. Davidson
Sgt. DAVIDSON, J.E.

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of four pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

PLEA OF MITIGATION - H-12041 Cpl Davidson, L.D.

I would like to make a plea of mitigation for H-12041 Cpl Davidson, L.D.

Throughout the Italian Campaign Cpl Davidson was a very desirable type of soldier. It was here he was promoted to the rank of Cpl. On this continent he also proved to be very efficient and trustworthy in his particular employment.

It is appreciated that on Sunday afternoon Cpl Davidson did borrow another drivers truck with the intention of going to see his brother.

May I bring to the attention of the Court the following facts:-

(a) That Cpl Davidson is married and has one child at home.

(b) His repat point score is 149.(May I ask the courts leniency in dealing with Cpl Davidson.)

(c) Cpl Davidson has been repeatedly held off repat drafts since 27 Sep 45, pending court Martial.

We were passing in the direction of Eindhoven as we had just crossed the bridge at Best. The road he was driving was approx 10 Km. p.h. as he had his lights on which he dimmed several times during the journey. During the accident I can't remember a thing was striking of time we didn't pay any attention to the traffic coming from the opposite direction. I remember one thing I asked the driver if he had sufficient room in which to drive as it was very crowded. The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

Fourth Witness: C 78114 Pte Keating J. V. J.
1 Ch Base Tpt Coy RCASC sworn, states.

I am C 78114 Pte Keating J. V. J., 1 Ch Base Tpt Coy R.C.A.S.C., in the Platoon. On Sunday afternoon 23 Sept 45 at approx 1230 hrs Cpl Davison asked me if I wanted to go for a ride with him. I had nothing else to do so I said yes. I got out, got into the truck and we started off. Cpl Davison said he was looking for his brother in the vicinity of Lichtenau

We arrived at Lindsay and looked around for his brother outfit, the 11 Squadron employment of pr about ½ hour. As we couldn't find him we left for Tomkat and arrived about 1630 hrs. after taking on Tomkat with no means we had something to eat and started for about 3 miles out of Lindsay towards Hartzgrove. I was sitting in the open door and looked I noticed a white approaching with two red lights and a big colored light it appeared to be on its own side of the road. Capt Sanders turned this light two or three times. It seemed to me that the two approaching would pass as the one on my side of the track but suddenly there was a cloud at the west thing I knew we were upside down on the side of the road. I was slightly dazed but managed to climb out of the white straight. I then noticed the other white on the opposite side of the road about 1½ or 2 ft off. I made my way to a nearby house, where an ambulance arrived and took me to No. 38 F.S.H. where I was examined by a doctor & put to bed. The aparatus on the truck was broken but I would say we were going approx 30 m.p.h. The accident occurred at 0200 hrs.

Fifth Witness: 1272486 Cpl Hitchcock J. DADM. No 7 Police Area RAF, sworn, states:

I am 1272486 Cpl Hitchcock J. J DADM No 7 Police Area. at Lisbon on 23 Sept 45 at 0201 hrs I was called to the scene of an accident on the S'Hertogenbosch - Eindhoven rd. in company with Cpl Kennedy D and Cpl Legge H. J of 7 Police Area. On arriving at scene of accident I saw the Ch lorry upside down on the Ch lane with starboard side of lorry facing S'Hertogenbosch at an angle of about 30° with the front of the cab to the road and the back of the lorry to the verge. The N bound lorry was on the opposite side with the front of the lorry facing 30° towards it rear and it was getting out into the road to the extent of about 6'

On the rd. behind the car was there were a skid mark 21' long showing that the vehicle was skidding slightly sideways. I would say that the skid mark was the off side rear wheel which definitely shows the Ch. veh. was on its own side of the road. A minor witness who I now know to be J Gordon Hawkins
Mason and Oosterbeek, came on to me & stated that he had seen the accident. He then said the lorry coming from the direction of Eindhoven dipped its lights when I heard a crash. I ran on to the lorry & the rd. but side the road and helped two men to get out.

The accused declined to answer the charge.

2 Witness: 1565703 Cpl Lennie D. of DAPM

#7 Police Area RAF area states:

On 1565703 Cpl Lennie D of DAPM
#7 Police Area R.A.F. On the evening of 23 Sept 45 at approx 2200 hrs I was called to the scene of an accident on the S. Hertogenbosch - Eindhoven Rd in company with Cpls Hitchin & Lyth of #7 RAF Police Area. On arriving at the scene of the accident I saw a car long lying upside down on the right hand side of the road at a distance long standing on the opposite side of the road. I measured the road in company with Cpl Hitchin and examined a skid mark which I would say was made by the left hand rear wheel of the Car long Cpl.

This showed that the cart lorry was on the correct side of the road. It was about 21' long. Whilst taking down these particulars a Dutch civilian approached us whom I now know to be Theodorus Gerardus Maria Oosthoek and stated he had seen the accident. He also stated that he had seen the lorry coming from the direction of Eindhoven dip its lights & then he heard a crash. He then said he had helped the two occupants of this lorry out of their cab. He then assisted in clearing the road of the two lorries.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

Seventh witness: 1484938 Cpl Legge H. of DAPM #7 Police Area R.A.F. duly sworn, states:

I am 1484938 Cpl Legge H. of DAPM #7 Police Area R.A.F. On 23 Sept 45 at approx 2215 hrs. I was informed there was an accident on the Stuttgart Esslingen Rd. and in company with Cpls Wittaker & Dennis I proceeded to the scene of the accident on arrival at the accident I noticed a 6 ton truck upside down on the verge of the road. The front on the road and the back on the grass verge. Directly opposite, left on the road and left on the grass verge I noticed a Dutch military vehicle. Immediately on arrival I enquired of the injured & found that they had been removed to hospital. I took a statement from the civ civ driver who was still with his truck and then sent him to 38 F. S. U.

I tried to find witnesses but the only one was a young civilian boy whose name is Theodorus Gerardus Maria Oosterbosch. and he could give me very little information about the accident. A convoy report from 1104 General Tpt. Coy Netherlands was on hand and showed the two trucks to this unit but this Unit could not be found.

I submit the details of the accident.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

Eight Witness: Capt J. H. M. Laughlin
1 Cdn Base Tpt Coy R.C.A.S.C.
duly sworn states:

I am Capt J. H. M. Laughlin 1 Cdn Base Tpt Coy R.C.A.S.C. and W/S Officer. Capt Davidson is a R.M.T. clerk in my platoon and at no time did he make permission to use H.D. vehicle No CL 5926150 for any journey nor did I give him such permission as I am the only person in the platoon that has the authority to sign work tickets. I examined H.D. vehicle CL 5926150 after the accident and found the damage to be: 1 wheel @ 2-0-0
Fuel tube @ 10-0-0
1 door @ 1-0-0
1 rear spring @ 3-0-0

The labour amounted was 20 hrs @ 3 shillings per hour = £4-10-0, the total damage thus amounts to £ 20-10-0

Q. On oath or not on oath?

The accused sworn, states:-

about three mile past Eastbourne towards Hastings when on my way home, I noticed a vehicle approaching with two small side lights and a fairly large yellow one. The large yellow colour light wasn't so bright as to blind me but it had more of a confusing effect, I could only see vaguely what was in front of me. I dimmed my lights three times trying to get the the driver to dim his large yellow light. He seemed to be passing in the normal way but at approx fifty feet I suddenly realized he was too far over on my side of the road. I remember putting on my brakes, then there was a crash. I next remember sitting & leaning climbing out of the truck which was upside down on the edge of the road and I climbed out of the door. I then noticed the other vehicle on the opposite side of the road, half on & half off. I was travelling approx 30 m.p.h. and it was a bright moonlight night.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of Royal Canadian Artillery 2 Canadian Division, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

PART I.

DESCRIPTIVE RETURN of a Deserter or Absentee without Leave.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF MAGISTRATES.

(1) When a man is apprehended by the Civil Power as an absentee without leave, or as a deserter, if the information tendered leaves no doubt in the mind of the Magistrate that the prisoner is a soldier, this return should be completed and given to the Police to hand to the escort on arrival.

(2) To avoid delay in the arrival of the escort a telegram stating the Number, Rank, Name and Unit of the soldier should be sent by the Police, as soon as the man is committed, to the Officer Commanding the soldier's Unit. The place where the escort is required to attend should be stated, also whether the soldier surrendered or was arrested.

(3) Any recommendation for a reward should be made on Part II of this return.

(4) The Court fees chargeable for Descriptive Returns should be claimed periodically from the Command Paymaster of the Command in which the Court is situated.

(5) The stations of all Units are shown in the Monthly Army List, as are also the Depots of Corps.

In the case of doubt as to the location of a particular Unit reference should be made to the nearest O.C. Troops. Where the soldier's Unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District, and the Channel Islands) the telegram for an escort should be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will take all necessary action for its provision.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. nil (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ..... initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B as appropriate.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by completing with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

Summary of Evidence in the case of B-9090 - Pte Davidson, OR, RCASC, on strength of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, 21 Army Group, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS
For the prosecution

G-8179 - Sgt McFarlane, DJ, RCASC, on strength of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, 21 Army Group, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sown, states as follows:

On the night of 4 NOV 44 at approx 2315 hrs, I was up in my quarters, Men's Mess, Kammen Straat, Antwerp, Belgium, when I heard a commotion downstairs. I decided to investigate and proceeded downstairs. On arriving downstairs in the hallway, I found B-9090 - Pte Davidson, OR, and Pte McKenzie, both members of the Kitchen Staff of which I am the NCO in charge. Pte Davidson was sprawled on the floor with Pte McKenzie on top of him. I stepped in and separated them which they did voluntarily. I led Pte Davidson to his quarters which are upstairs in the Men's Mess Bldg. I then returned downstairs to escort McKenzie to his quarters. Having done this, I reported back to my own quarters. Arriving at the top of the stairs leading up from the Mess Hall, I saw Pte Davidson standing on the stairs leading to the attic with a pistol in his hand. Entering my room, I turned around and Pte Davidson followed me and was standing in the doorway of my room. Pte Davidson pointed the pistol at me and said "stay where you are or I will fill you full of lead". I told Pte Davidson that he was rather foolish and to put the gun away, as he was going to do himself more harm than good. Pte Davidson said that he did not care. I do not remember the exact words, but Pte Davidson was mumbling something at the time, to the effect that he had something on his mind that was driving him crazy. I tried to talk Pte Davidson into giving me the pistol or putting it away but he would not listen at all. There was someone coming up the stairs and Pte Davidson turned around from the door and ordered him to halt. It turned out to be Cpl Hachey. Cpl Hachey came into the room and we talked to Pte Davidson and I managed, after about 5 minutes, to take the revolver away from him. The revolver was loaded. I also removed a spare clip from his locker. I tried talking Pte Davidson into going to his bed but he would not do so, so I got a lorry and brought him down to the Guard Room, with Pte Michol and Pte Pierson. Pte Davidson was turned over to Cpl MacEachern, Regtl Police. Pte Davidson threatened, two or three times on the way to the Guard Room, that he would shoot me. Pte Davidson had been drinking, as the odour of liquor on his breath was noticeable.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Question: Sgt McFarlane, how did you get the clip out of my locker?

Answer: On entering your room, you opened your locker with a key attached to your identity discs around your neck. Your holster was hanging on your belt in your locker. You showed me the clip and I took the clip out of the holster myself.

Question: Do you take it by these actions that I was going to give you the clip?

Answer: At the time, I would not take anything for granted.

Question: Referring to my condition, you did not consider me drunk. The reason for asking this question is that, at times, I have had liquor on my breath, and have I ever threatened you before?

Answer: You have never threatened me.

Question: I would like to know whether you considered that I was drunk or not.

Answer: I would not go so far as to say that you were drunk, although you had been drunking.

G-8176 - Sgt McFarlane, DJ

SECOND WITNESS
For the prosecution

G-19385 - Cpl Hachey, G, RCASC, on strength Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, 21 Army Group, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At Antwerp, Belgium, on 4 NOV 44, at approx 2320 hrs, I was walking up the stairs from the Mess Hall, Men's Mess, Kammen Straat, leading to my quarters, when I saw Pte Davidson, a member of the Kitchen Staff, pointing a pistol at Sgt McFarlane. When he heard me, he turned around and pointed it at me. I was approx 5 ft away from him at the time. He told me to halt and then he said "get in your room". When I got into my room, the same room occupied by Sgt McFarlane, Sgt McFarlane and myself talked to Pte Davidson, asking him to give up his revolver and Sgt McFarlane finally managed, after about 5 minutes of talking, to take it from him. Sgt McFarlane then took him to the Guard Room.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Question: You say you saw me pointing the pistol at Sgt McFarlane while coming up the stairs. Where was I standing?

Answer: In the doorway.

Question: Therefore, you could not see Sgt McFarlane?

Answer: There was only Sgt McFarlane in there.

Question: Would you consider that I was drinking at the time?

Answer: In my opinion, you were not sober.

G-19385 - Cpl Hachey, G

THIRD WITNESS
For the prosecution

F-79071 - Cpl MacEachern, JD, CIC, on strength of Cdn Sec GHQ 2nd Echelon, 21 Army Group, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At the Main Office Building, Antwerp, Belgium, at approx 2350 hrs, 4 NOV 44, Sgt McFarlane brought Pte Davidson to me to be placed under close arrest which I did. He had the odour of liquor on his breath. At the time, he was capable of managing himself.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J D MacEachern
F-79071 - Cpl MacEachern, JD

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The Accused elects to make a statement:

Since arriving overseas I have had trouble with my wife last Sept it came to a head as my wife left my son & me to date I do not know where she is

I tried to go back to Canada at that time but was not allowed to I have worried over this & from time to time have gone out & got drunk this I know now has been very foolish as it has got me into more trouble

It use to be that I could enjoy a friendly drink but now my friends tell me that I get quarrelsome

I can not understand why I should have threatened the Sgt or any one here as they have never hurt me in anyway.

as the evedence has shown I had been drinking also quarelsome and I must of thought the Sgt was interfering so I pick on him I can honestly say I did not know what I was doing at the time

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT IN THE CASE OF B 9090 PTE DAVIDSON O.R.

Further to the statement which Pte Davidson has just made I would like to point out that while this soldier has had several crimes previously, the nature of these crimes tends to show that he is not a bad character.

I would ask the Court to take into consideration the mental strain this soldier has been under in regard to his marital life. It certainly has not been conducive to a state of complacency.

Pte Davidson, in my opinion, was under such a mental strain that he did not know or realize what he was doing while he was intoxicated. He had no reason to offer violence to either Sgt McFarlane [redacted]. It was not his intention to do them any harm. He was in a condition of extreme mental anxiety and that in conjunction with the alcoholics he had consumed rendered him in such a state as to be not entirely in control of himself. Surely each of you must know what torment one undergoes from continual worry.

I ask the court that this case be given the utmost consideration and that instead of causing this soldier added anxiety, that an effort be made to alleviate the cause of his trouble. If it is deemed, by the Court, that a punishment must be meted out, I ask that it be made as little as possible in view of the extenuating circumstances.

I would point out that Pte Davidson is Category A under very extenuating circumstances and that this also be taken into consideration by the Court

Ex what "A"

Mr President - The prosecution has used the Submission of Legt. Documents to make his case - I too will use Legt documents, duly certified and admissable, to form the defence as a corner stone for the defence.

The charge, I submit, is a very unusual one: in that it accuses the alledges the accused is AWL and then adds "Dressed in civilian clothes" The wearing of civilian clothes has no bearing concerning the Severity of the Sentence if the accused is found Guilty of AWL. and although not an illegal charge it is unfair in that it puts the accused in an unfavourable position before the court. It is doubly unjust in this case - as the statement - Dressed in Civilian clothes is untrue.

I propose therefore to divide the defence

Into two parts.
1st. The AWL case Proper.
2nd The wearing of Civilian Clothes.

The prosecution for the AWL case is based on The certificate of True copy of record of a declaration of a court of inquiry. and also the certificate of apprehension.

Now any certificate of True copy really means that the findings of the record of the court of inquiry have been Truly and correctly put on paper. The word True copy does not necessarily mean that the court of inquiry has been carried out in the proper as Set down in MML & KR can.

The Submission of this certificate of True copy of record of a declaration of a court of inquiry is merely used to save Time of summon officer, NCOs present & roll call &c then marked and other their attendance is Strictly at the FOO not required. unnecessary.

I submit therefore that to be just this have a bottom of documentary evidence must be based on meticulous legal accuracy.

① Before a Soldier can be charged with AWL he must first be on Strength.

During the year 1944 the accused he was not on ~~Strength~~ up to and including any orders PART II Part I orders published by No 1 CCRU ALTHOUGH accused of being AWL at 0359hrs 26 Jul 44 charged with (See charge Sheet)

During the year 1944 the accused was not shown as being on Strength of No 1 CCRU up to and including the daily Part II orders published on 27 Jul 44

he was not even shown as Strength as of orders Part II published on 15 Aug 44.

He actually was TOS, on 28 Aug 44 No 1 CCRU Part II orders No 205 Page 2 at Bottom and ante-dated.

I file certified True Copy orders No 205.

~~I submit that such dating in the legislative document~~

(2) when a Soldier goes awl in accordance with KR Can 449 (i) (ii) (iii) he will be notified in unit part II orders as ~~published~~ on the day following and his name must appear on the day following awl, this name will appear as the 8th day of absence and will appear as the 22nd day. ~~and~~

& This is all set out for the protection of the Soldier and to facilitate the keeping of good records and There are the rules by which we must abide.

In the case of the accused his name did not appear as awl, as ordered published on or about 26-27 Jul 44. ~~the~~

His name did not appear in orders published on the 8th day. That is 3 Aug 44.

His name did not appear in orders published on the 22nd day That is 17 Aug 44

(5)

It was not until 28 Aug 44 Part II orders
No 205 Page 7. Centre. the 1st. 2nd. 3rd
Amdt publication was noted and again anti-dated.

I file a certified Part II order No 205
28 Aug 44.

(3) Rules as
In the event of a Soldier being absent without Leave for a period of 21 clear days a court of inquiry must be assembled at once unless the soldier has been apprehended
(AA 72 (1) and read Notes 1.)

This is again for the protection of the Soldier and the keeping of information while he is still fresh in the minds of all the witnesses. In any event these are the rules as set down in AA.

In the case of the accused this Court of inquiry was not ordered until 9 Oct 44. It was held a 10 Oct 44 not 22 days but 75 days after absence.

I file certified copy of Part II orders No 299
18 Oct 44. Page 10 Section.

To sum up gentlemen the members of the court of inquiry overlooked many the regulation which affect, and in addition they themselves were late in sitting. How could they come to a decision after almost 3 months had elapsed and with all this anto-dating. I only wish that the regulation permitted there three members of the Court of inquiry to come here for cross examination.

Now coming to the Second Point the Question of Dressed in Civilian Clothes.

Call. NCO Blaney. British Police. for evidence.
on oath.
① Get clear STATEMENT.
② Exhibit can call.
Bring in STATEMENT of Ca. Corporal.

Summary of Defence

To sum up the defence. ① I submit that the court of inquiry and Certified True copy which is the result of the court of inquiry is based on Thin legalities and there are reasonable doubts cancing the Documentary evidence as produced by the Prosecution. In the case. Proof that the Accused did not sign Tos. Not shown that on 1st & the 2nds. Accused did not sign TOS. Not shown that on 1st & the 2nds. and court 7 days

② The second part of the docent evidence certificat of apprehension namely Suggests that a mil Policeman - went to a plat of ground right here in the out skirts of Aldershot and picked up a Soldier in uniform (or wearing fatigue clothes) There is certainly no proof to show that this man was sent on 26 JULY 44.

③ Finally the charge was wrong. The Soldier picked up by the mil Police was widely the accused. but he Have been able to prove that he was Not in Civilian Clothes. Smart Soldiers Wearing Battle dress the charge be dismissed

STATEMENT by accused (D) or "I" GPC.

I am a married man with a wife and child (12 years of age) back in Canada. Previous to the war I worked as a hospital orderly ~~for 4 years~~ at Byron Sanatorium and finally ~~4 years~~ with the Westminster London Ont military Hospital at ~~London Ontario~~. my work was always satisfactory and not once in civil life did I run foul of the law. my record was clean and I was a good citizen and Father. ~~I am sorry that the reference for the Westminster has not arrived but there has been little time~~. ~~Major Fellowes my defending officer Sent a cable~~.

I joined the R.C.R. in 1940 and Transferred to the 1st Hussars in 1941 in order to get overseas. I came over in Nov 1941 - once overseas I had my a medical Cat was found to be 'B2' and I put in for Transfer to the medical corps where my civilian experience could be used. up to that time my record in the army was clear. I have always been a man of action and ~~like~~ others got browned off a bit in 1942 - and 1943 Sitting around waiting for action. During this time I did get into trouble now and then in a while but it was never anything but the odd AWL. I never stole from anyone and I am not a Criminal. I belive my trouble was due at this time to uninteresting Training, lack of interest on the part of my NCO's and generally poor manmanagent in not keeping me really busy.

When 'D' day came I was a totle Person. I was wanted for action and went as a L.S.T Boat. Amnica. Ship No 541 - For three weeks Solid we brought wanted out of France and my work was Satisfactory after the three weeks was over

We were all sent back to the unit evidently because it was decided not to evacuate any more Casualties in this manner. From then on I was have been waiting for the day that I can get back and took after the wounded. I am very distressed at the change "dressed in Civilian Clothes" I left a good Job in Canada to Join up and do my bit and I am still a Soldier who is at his best when kept busy. I was wearing my issue Denims COVERALLS which are on exhibit Here,

Defence Plea - Mitigation. "J"

J/B

(1) Accused left home and growing Child away back in 1941.

(2) He got browned off in 42-43 Due to lack of interest, ~~and~~ and probably understrength

(3) He is smart, and Soldierly - he did his Job as D day and for 3 weeks on his own Station.

(4). He is not a Criminal Type. ~~but~~ his only crimes appear to be AWL.

(5) Now is he bright or intelligent. I submit as copy of Telegram received from Canada.

(6). Sending this man to prison will do no good, he will be merely an expence to the Public.

(7). The most effective punishment for this Soldier if he is guilty of any crime is would be to let him carry wounded under fire in France and this he is most anxious to do.

(8) I would ask that he be given a ~~Suspended~~ Sentence a Sentence which would insure that he be placed at the first boat ~~either~~ either way.

Pleads for mitigation on behalf of the accused

(1) On behalf of his long service record militia since 1921 Active Army Feb 1940 to date

(2) He was influenced in taking leave of absence in feeling he could not work with the sisters of # 15 Gen Hosp having worked with them in peace time.

(3). His action in staying away 40 days and with a forged pass and his attitude towards his crime suggest that he is of a sub normal intelligence.

4. His action in putting on corporals stripe is in keeping with (3) in as much as it shows a definite psychotic trend. Being a Pte since 1921 he has developed grandiose ideas and so paraded as an N. C. O when away from the sub of authority

EVIDENCE FOR NO. 3 CDN. PROVOST COY. CHARGE #3073.:

On the night of 30/Jul/43, I was informed by the Horley Civil Police, that there was a Canadian soldier working on a farm near Horley, whom said Police thought to be an absentee.

Appendix "A"

In company with L/Cpl. Rose, A. and the Horley Civil Authorities, I proceeded to the farm in question. On arriving at the farm the soldier was contacted and his particulars were obtained. This soldier proved to be Reg. No. A.3711 Pte. Davidson, V.J., of the 15th. Canadian General Hospital R.C.A.M.C. Pte. Davidson was asked whether or not he was in possession of a pass, the soldier replied that he had a pass; however when he attempted to produce same he was unsuccesful. I then placed Pte. Davidson under close arrest and escorted him to the Horley Civil Police Station.

After arrival at the Police Station Pte. Davidson was advised to turn his possessions over to me, it was then that I discovered a pass amongst the soldier's possessions that had been altered. Pte. Davidson made a statement to the effect that he was an absentee. At the time Pte. Davidson was wearing the rank of full Corporal on his tunic; upon checking his pay-book and other possessions no verification of said soldier having been promoted to the rank of Cpl. could be ascertained. The farmer Mr. F. Grey of 16 Station Road, Horley, for whom the accused worked, stated that Pte. Davidson had been employed by him since 5/Jul/43.

A statement was received from a Mrs. E. Jeeves of 35 Meath Avenue, Horley, whom the accused had been staying with, to the effect that Davidson had come back to stay on the 1/Jul/43 and that he had remained there until this date 30/Jul/43.

~~Pte. Davidson's Unit was contacted and advised of the matter through No. 3 Cdn. Provost Coy., Orderly Room.~~

Opening address by the Prosecuting officer

Sir, and members of the court, it has fallen my lot to do a very unpleasant job of prosecuting a good Cpl. The facts that I shall present to you will be brief and I think to the point, so I will leave the opening address out.

Q.2 Will you tell the court what you know of the alleged absence without leave of Cpl Davie, T.C.?
A.2 In our company, 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy, of which I am the Sgt Major, it is my duty to issue all leave passes to personnel proceeding on leave. I issued one to Cpl Davie on the 18th of August 43 inthe company of other men going on leave. I pointed out to Cpl Davie there was an address on the back of the pass to which they would return if the unit had moved. I also pointed out that the pass expired at tattoo and warned them of the train times from London toWadhurst where we were in order that they could get back in time.
Q.3 Do you recognize the accused?
A.3 Yes sir,(identifies the accused)
Q.4 Do you recognize this?
A.4 Yes sir, it is the pass I issued to Cpl Davie on the night in question.

A.6 Not at all times.
Q.7 You do at times?
A.7 Yes sir.
Q.8 What are some of the duties allotted by you to Junior N.C.Os?

Q.10 In any report that has ever been given to you, or any statement, by Cpl Davie, has there ever been the slightest doubt that they were false?
A.10 No sir, it has not.
Q.11 Have you at any time ever had any complaints made to you by your subordinates as to the actions of Cpl Davie?
A.11 I cannot recollect any sir, none of military importance.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

The Prosecution is closed

First Witness for the Defence

The accused, H 65426 Cpl Davie, T.C., 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy RCASC being duly sworn is examined by the Defence.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am H 65426 Cpl Davie, T.C. 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy RCASC.
Q.2 How long have you been with the 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy?
A.2 Ever since I joined the army sir,
Q.3 That was when?
A.3 June 25th, 1941 sir.
Q.4 What ranks have you held in this unit?
A.4 L/Cpl and Cpl sir.
Q.5 How many charges of which you have been found guilty have you to your credit?
A.5 I have never had a crime in the army sir, this is the first one.
Q.6 Have you ever had any trouble with your superiors or your subordinates or lower ranks in an official capacity?
A.6 Not as far as my superiors are concerned, but with the lower ranks I have had some trouble but have usually been able to straighten that out.
Q.7 Are you married?
A.7 Yes sir.
Q.8 When and where did you get married?
A.8 I was married on Saturday the 17 July 43 at Mortlake.
Q.9 How much leave did you have at the time you got married?
A.9 I was married on the Saturday and returned to the coy on the 16th to continue sports.

Q.10 If you had pressed the subject could you have had leave?
A.10 Yes sir, I cancelled it because of the sports.
Q.11 Who wanted you to participate in these sports?
A.11 Capt Ford was the one who asked me.
Q.12 When was your seven days leave due?
A.12 The 14th of July sir, 1943.
Q.13 You allowed your leave to pass so as to participate in the sports?
A.13 I cancelled my leave more or less for the request. There was a big sport day coming up and they wanted me totake part.
Q.14 The cancelling of your leave, did that cause any domestic friction of any kind?
A.14 It was my first argument with my wife.
Q.15 Did you feel you were doing right?
A.15 In a way yes, because if I took my leave it would just throw the sports day out and they would have had to move more men around.
Q.16 Would you explain the circumstances in connection with your missing the bus at Mortlake?
A.16 On the evening of 27 Aug Mrs Davie and myself went out to a town called Kingston to visit some friends. We stayed there for supper and left after supper to get the bus back to Mortlake where I was to catch my train. We arrived at the bus stop and there was a queue there and we missed the first bus and had to wait for another one. We arrived in Richmond approximately 2015 hrs and I had to continue out to Mortlake. By the time I had got my pack I would have been too late to get the train to catch the train to destination.
Q.17 Did you know from past experience or through some check, the exact time the bus left that stop?
A.17 Yes sir.
Q.18 Why did you not proceed to take the next train?
A.18 I would have had to stay in Waterloo allnight sir.
Q.19 How do you know this?
A.19 Other times when I had been up there before I caught the last train back.
Q.20 May I ask why you phoned the unit?
A.20 Yes sir, to inform them I was coming the first thing in the morning, I knew I was A.W.L. and I phoned to clear myself.
Q.21 Why after all this trouble of phoning the unit, why did you not leave in time to get back?
A.21 It was through the condition of the wife I stayed sir.
Q.22 Could you clarify that a bit, as to what happened?
A.22 Before I came up on leave, Mrs Davie had heard from one of the fellows of the unit, he asked her if I had been up on leave and when she said no, he told her she could expect me any time because we were all leaving and had to finish our leave by the end of the month. She then took it that it was my last leave. On Saturday morning the 28th of August I was getting ready to go home and I walked out of the bed room and left Mrs Davie in there. I returned about ten minutes later and asked if she was ready. She was lying on the bed crying. I asked her what was the matter and she told me. The more we tried to stop her, her mother and I, the worse she got. This kept for an hour and a half I would say and we put her to bed. I knew then that even if I did get the train I would not arrive back in camp until Saturday night, and the next day being Sunday was the reason I stayed.
Q.23 Did you feel at the time that by staying with your wife you could do any good?
A.23 Yes sir, she practically begged me to stay.
Q.24 Did she know the trouble you would get into?
A.24 I think she did more or less not know what she was doing.
Q.25 Has she at any time before lost control in this way?
A.25 No sir, before she always made sure that I got the train, and got back in time.
Q.26 How soon did you get away on Sunday?
A.26 I left home at 1700 hrs on Sunday, and left for my destination at 7:26.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine

Questioned by the court

Q.27 Is Exhibit A the leave pass you had Cpl?
A.27 Yes sir.

W487

Q.28 The empiry time on that pass is 2200 hrs on the night of the 27 Aug?
A.28 That is right sir.
Q.29 Were you back at the unit lines at that time?
A.29 No sir.
Q.30 Did you have any further leave after you were married?
A.30 I had one week end and one forty eight hour sir.
Q.31 The week end would be from Saturday after duty?
A.31 Yes sir, I returned on the Sunday night.
Q.32 What was the duration of the 48 hrs pass?
A.32 From noon on Saturday until noon on Monday.
Q.33 Why did you not return Saturday afternoon?
A.33 Through the condition of the wife sir.
Q.34 You state this condition was bad for an hour and a half, this was Saturday A.M. I presume?
A.34 She was in a bad condition all day Saturday sir.
Q.35 Did you go out on Saturday night?
A.35 No sir.
Q.36 Why did you wait until 1700 hrs Sunday before you left?
A.36 The wife and I got out of bed around noon and we had dinner and then talked for a while and then I got the train.
Q.37 What was the date of your leave?
A.37 From 17 Aug to 27 Aug?
Q.38 What year?
A.38 1943 sir.

Q.3 Have you worked with Cpl Davie for any length of time?
A.3 Over two years sir.
Q.4 May I ask your opinion as Sgt of Cpl Davie as section Cpl?
A.4 All the time that I have known Cpl Davie I have found him to do his work to the best of his ability, have never once had cause to pull him up for anything. He has displayed fine leadership and his section has always proven it.

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am Lieut E.W. Maloney, 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy RCASC.
Q.2 Might I ask what is your opinion of the accused Cpl Davie?
A.2 I am an increment officer attached to the 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy for a period of three months. I was in charge of A Platoon for a period of 6 Jun to the middle of August and Cpl Davie was a section leader for a period of four or five weeks. He carried out his duties well and he was anxious to do his work

Q.3 Would you say that Cpl Davie was a good soldier?
A.3 I would.
Q.4 As an officer in charge of A Pl would you say that A Pl would benefit by hating Cpl Davie as a section Cpl?

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Closing address of the Prosecution

Mr President, and Gentlemen, in fairness to everyone regardless of certain extenuating circumstances that appear in this case it has nevertheless been proven, (1) that Cpl Davie is a person subject to military law (2) it was in fact his duty to be with his unit at tattoo on the 27th of August, 1943 (3) that he was not there at that time.(4) that he remained absent until 2100 hrs 29 Aug 43 and then returned of his own accord.
This the Prosecution has proven and the Prosecution rests.

Closing address of the Defence

May I first point out this, an action such as this one, a Cpl who has been of great value to his unit, who has absolutely nothing behind him except good work, a clean crime sheet, certainly in the opinion of the defence this should not have been brought to a court martial. Cpls could be made to do extra duties and made to give up leave. If an example is to be made of anyone surely that example could be made of one who deserves it rather than one who has stumbled over some slight block that was put there through circumstances beyond control. I know that this Cpl was in line for promotion. He has carried out his duties as A Pl Sec Comd and he is the senior Cpl in the Platoon. He has never had any complaints. I myself have quite a bit to do with administration, and any reports, or any work done by Cpl Davie, there never was a cause forcomplaint. I believe that Cpl Davie had every reason to and every intention to return at the right time as was told to him by Major Miller when he phoned. As has been brought out Cpl Davie was married on the 17 Jul, and for the good of the unit, and I am sure for no other reason, he only took a honeymoon of a day and a half, because people begged him, and he came back to participate in the sports, so that something might be secured by his unit as a record. Cpl Davie did this in spite of the argument he put up I am sure. May I also point out that it would hardly be expected of any man, to turn around and walk out of the house when his wife is hysterical. We might say that he should get back to the unit, but would any of us do that under the same circumstances. He had not been married long and as he saw it his duty lay with his wife, and he was under the impression that once the circumstances were explained it would be allright. It has also been brought out the amount of leave he has had since his marriage, but at the same time I want to bring out that he has pulled for this unit and worked for this unit, and I know what I am speaking of. He has carried out every duty which has been given to him and he certainly is one of our best Cpls. He would be missed if he were takendown from his present rank and he would not be missed if he were put up. This may sound as if I were attempting to build him up to the court, but that is not the case, he is a good man. All this should be taken into consideration when the court is considering their finding.

In the opinion of the President and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary for the Judge Advocate to sum up

Statement by the Defence in further Mitigation of Punishment

I think perhaps enough has been said other than one or two words. I would very much like to point out that consideration might be given to his past record his past conduct and the value to the unit that he has been, and the value to the unit at present as a very competent section commander.

Summary of evidence in the case of H65426 Cpl. Davie, T.C., 10 Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, 4 Canadian Armoured Division, is charged with:

1. A.A. 15-1 Absence Without Leave.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness:

K75465 C.S.M. Wilson, G.E., 10 Cdn.Inf.Bde.Coy.,R.C.A.S.C., sworn, states:

In my capacity as C.S.M. of this Company, I issue all the leave passes to men proceeding on leave. On the night of 18 Aug 43, I issued Cpl. Davie with a pass and had him sign for Train Warrant and Ration card in a book kept for that purpose. In the company of other men proceeding on leave I pointed out an address on the back of the pass to which members of the Unit would go in the event the Unit had moved. I warned them of train times in order to be back in the Unit Lines by Tattoo of the date the pass expired. That is all Sir.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

Second Witness:

Major H.E.Miller, Officer Commanding, 10 Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, R.C.A.S.C., sworn, states:

One day last week Cpl. Davie phoned and asked if it would be possible for him to extend his privilege leave 48 hrs. This would mean instead of returning to the Unit Lines Friday at Tattoo, he would be returning Sunday at Tattoo. I informed Cpl. Davie that due to the fact that there were things in the air and that there was a shortage of N.C.O.'s at the present time, I was sorry but he would have to return on the date his pass expired. ~~That is all I have to say.~~

The accused declined to cross-examine.

Third Witness:

K42285 Cpl. Wilson, W.E.L., 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy, R.C.A.S.C. sworn, states:

I received a phone call on the night of 27 Aug 43 at approximately 2100 hrs from Cpl. Davie, saying that he had missed his train from Richmond to Waterloo Station, and the first train that he could catch would be the next morning at 0700 hrs. I then turned this information over to Capt. Richards the Administrative Officer. That is all Sir.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

Summary of evidence in the case of H65426, Cpl. Davie, T.C., 10 Canadian Infantry Brigade Company, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, 4 Canadian Armoured Division, is charged with:-

1. A.A. 15-1 Absence Without Leave.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

Fourth Witness:

H 65454 L/Cpl. Hamaberg, L.R. 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy, R.C.A.S.C. sworn, states:

In my capacity as Guard Commander between the hours of 1800 and 0600 on the 29-30 Aug 43 Cpl. Davie reported at the Guard House at 2100 hrs 29 Aug 43. That is all Sir.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

L. R. Hamaberg.

The accused was warned as follows:
" Do you wish to make any statements or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given as evidence."

H 65426 Cpl. Davie, T.C. 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy, R.C.A.S.C., sworn, states:

On the afternoon of Friday 27 Aug 43 Mrs. Davie and I went to a town out of Richmond called Kingston and stayed at some people's house for supper. We left the house and figured we had a lot of time to get bach to Mort Lake Station in time for me to catch my train back to Waterloo. It took us longer than we had figured in returning to Mort Lake by bus. I could have got a train out of Mort Lake that evening but I would have had to stay in Waterloo Station all night because of no trains moving between Waterloo and my final destination. I then phoned my Unit. On Saturday morning when I was packing my kit bag to return to my Unit Mrs. Davie could not get it out of her head that it was my last leave which she had heard previous to my arrival from one of the fellows in the 4th Division. We were just about ready to leave the house when Mrs. Davie broke down. Her mother could do nothing with her and neither could I. By the time we got her settled it meant that I would not arrive back at my Unit until Saturday night. I then figured the next day being Sunday, the way she was, I would stay over and go back Sunday night. I reported into the Unit at approximately 2100 hrs the night of 29 Aug 43. That is all Sir.

The accused declined to call any further witnesses in his ownbehalf.

T. C. Davie.

I certify that the forgoing summary of evidence was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure four (C), (D),and (E) and (F) have been complied with.

I recognise the accused. I first met acc. on aug. 3 last 44. I have known him continuously since that date. He has always carried out his duties in soldierly manner. To the best of my knowledge he has never been in any trouble except on 2 occasions for minor offences. After his trial I will be willing to take him back into my employ.

I know the accused, a former member of 8 Bde R.P. staff. I first met acc. around 6 Apr. 44. I made him a member of RP staff at that time. Specializing for 2 occasions on which he got into a slight bit of trouble I found him capable, willing & able to carry out his duties in Capt. Police. He was always smartly dressed: excelling to volunteer for extra duties. Reports I received from his NCO's were that he was always dependable. I have never known him to do any heavy drinking. In any dealings I've had with acc. he has always been a gentleman & a well disciplined soldier. In connection with his two shots of trouble, I wish to add that on recommendation of his O/C acc. was returned to duty with RP. A short time ago his name was put forward for promotion to L/Cpl.

No cross-exam.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT IN THE CASE OF H17581 PTE. DAVIES, E., 8 Bn. R GRNR.

The accused, Pte. Davies, has pleaded GUILTY to an offence under the ARMY ACT. Until a late hour it was the intention of the accused to plead NOT GUILTY, not because he denies the offence but because there are certain extenuating circumstances in connection with the case which must be given consideration. The case of Davies is one of a series of cases to be tried before this Court. Many offenders will be tried and of them all Davies is one of the least guilty in my opinion. If, in the opinion of the accused, one or more of the more guilty parties (that is, more guilty in the opinion of the accused) elect to plead NOT GUILTY and are acquitted the accused feels that he too should plead NOT GUILTY . At the last moment the accused has decided to plead GUILTY and submit to the Court mitigating circumstances which should influence the Court in the awarding of punishment.

In connection with the statement made by Davies at the time of apprehension I submit to the Court that it was NOT given as voluntarily as it would appear. On the way to the office where the statement was made, Sgt. McCaffrey told Davies he had better "come clean" as all the others implicated in this and other cases had told everything and that they "had the goods" on Davies. As this statement of McCaffrey implies a threat I submit that the statement in no way implies voluntary effort and should be disregarded. Furthermore, Sgt. McCaffrey has on oath signed a statement to the effect that he was present when Davies' statement was made. That is a deliberate untruth. Sgt. McCaffrey was NOT present at the time as he had left to see a patient in the sick bay and did not return to the same office until the statement had been completed. Davies was alone with Lieut. Evans.

Insofar as the charge itself is concerned, the accused does not deny selling six pair of Canadian Army boots. However, in the first instance the accused did not sell the boots with the idea of personal gain albeit he did receive a commission when the sale was completed. He made the sale in order to help a friend. His friend Plourde was in need of money and appealed to Davies for assistance. Plourde was insistent that the money was needed urgently and immediately. In each instance the boots were given to Davies by Plourde and the monies received were equally divided. Prior to the first offence Pte. Davies was in a troubled state of mind due to letters received from his wife. The accused was married in England and up to the time of his leaving the U.K. for this theatre of war his married life was exceptionally happy. But once Davies arrived in Italy his wife continually complained to him that while British soldiers on a much lower rate of pay were sending home souvenirs to their wives, he, the accused was sending none. This upset the accused as after normal expenses were deducted from his pay he never at any one time had sufficient money to purchase such souvenirs. Had he been criminally inclined he might then have resorted to theft in order to restore his wife's estimation of him. But he did not do so. It was only after persuasive arguments and the manner in which easy money might be squired were shown him by his friend that at last he was persuaded to join his friend in the disposition of W.D. boots. He was not so persuaded until after he had been approached on several occasions and during which time he saw with his own eyes several other persons so trafficking. Once involved in ventures of this nature it is far more difficult to quit than to continue as there is always present the threat of exposure by any or all of the other parties concerned.

Another error occurs in the previous statement of the accused. The boots in question were not delivered out of the camp area. They were disposed of solely to transient British troops who were at that time living in 8 Bn. Quarters. This tends to prove nothing except that the statement of the accused could not have been taken down verbatim and consequently other errors might likewise be contained therein.

Again, the accused never actually benefitted financially by his one step. All the money he received was placed by him in a locked kit-bag ready for the time he might go on leave and make the purchases his wife had requested of him. His kit bag was later slit open by some person, not necessarily unknown, and the money removed.

The AFW6 of the accused is certainly no worse than that of any average soldier. It shows two or three minor charges over a period of 4½ years. There have been no serious offences, which tends to prove that Davies was indeed a good soldier, usefully employed, and had never previously been guilty of dishonesty.

Davies is still a very young man. He regrets his recent misconduct and is more than willing to make amends. He enlisted at the age of 19 with the PPCLI with which unit he served for 13 months. He went on attachment to the Winnipeg Rifles in July 41 and arrived with that Unit in the UK in September of the same year. In October 43 he transferred to the RCOC and it was with this latter Unit that he arrived in Italy. For his service he was awarded the CVSM and clasp, whilst attached to 8 Bn. and with the exception of the one offence his conduct has been meritorious as verified by the witnesses as to character who were his superior officers.

Since his apprehension the accused has been in custody for nearly two months, a fact which must be taken into consideration when awarding punishment. This period of confinement without trial has not been an easy one but it HAS given the accused more than sufficient time to make up his mind that henceforth he will commit no further offences. It is his firm decision to again become and remain a good soldier. In view of the fact that he is married he ~~is~~ greatly desires that his wife shall not suffer in the matter of pay and allowances. If such a thing did occur it is not without the bounds of possibility that his future married life would become indeed a disaster.

I would again ask the Court to review the mitigating circumstances in synoptic form:

(1) The youth of the accused.
(2) This is his first serious offence.
(3) His record of service.
(4) His previous good conduct.
(5) Errors in the statement of the accused in the Summary of Evidence.
(6) The accused was improperly warned before making statement.
(7) The statement of Sgt. McCaffrey must be regarded as untrue.
(8) The accused, in the first instance, had no initial intent but erred to help a friend.
(9) He did not benefit financially by his misconduct.
(10) His worry over his wife's demands.
(11) The fact he is married.
(12) His desire that his wife shall not suffer financially.
(13) His fear that his wife's affection would be lost for him should her allowances cease or if she knew he were confined.
(14) His long confinement awaiting trial.
(15) His earnest desire to once again become a good soldier.

In view of the facts outlined and others which may be obvious to the Court I would at this time respectfully request the Court to give the case of Davies its utmost consideration and bearing the facts in mind to be most lenient in the awarding of punishment.

Approximately in the middle of June 15th I was approached by Pte. Plumb who was employed as Barrack Stores. He asked me if I would like to make some money and I replied that it all depended what and how much it was. He approached several times on the same subject and I refused to do what he suggested, and then he approached me again and said "Davies please help me as I need the money". I replied that I would do it to help him and he said that he had to have the money myself as he owed it. I went into Barrack Stores with him and he handed me two pairs of W.D. boots which I took and took them to Town Cpl Mellins and received 1200 lire for them. I returned to camp and gave Pte Plumb 600 lire and kept 600 for myself. Approximately a week later we did the same thing again and this time it was also 2 pr. We made the same split and this occurred one more with the same division of money. Allegetta we dropped 6 pr. of boots for which I received 3600 lire and gave Plumb 1800 of it. I would get them and I handed by wearing a pair of boots out and carry my money shoes in my hand and found. Allegetta I made 6 trips and I handed

LEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT IN THE CASE OF H17521 Pte DAVIES, E., 8 Pn 2 CERD.

The accuse, Pte Davies, has pleaded GUILTY to an offence under the ARMY ACT. Until a late hour it was the intention of the accused to plead NOT GUILTY, but because he denies the offence but because there are certain circumstances [illegible]

The MFM6 of the accused is certainly no worse than that of any average soldier. It shows two or three minor charges over a period of 4½ years. There have been no serious offences, which tends to prove that Davies was indeed a good soldier, usefully employed, and had never previously been guilty of dishonesty.

Davies is still a very young man. He regrets his recent misconduct and is more than willing to make amends. He enlisted at the age of 19 with the PPCLI with which unit he served for 13 months. He went on attachment to the Winnipeg Rifles in July 41 and arrived with that Unit in the UK in September of the same year. In October 43 he transferred to the RCOC and it was with this latter unit that he arrived in Italy. For his service he was awarded the CVSM and clasp & one good conduct badge, whilst attached to 8 Bn. and with the exception of the one offence his conduct has been meritorious as verified by the witnesses as to character who were his superior officers.

Since his apprehension the accused has been in custody for nearly two months, a fact which must be taken into consideration when awarding punishment. This period of confinement without trial has not been an easy one but it HAS given the accused more than sufficient time to make up his mind that henceforth he will commit no further offences.
It is his firm decision to again become and reamin a good soldier. In view of the fact that he is married he greatly desires that his wife shall not suffer in the matter of pay and allowances. If such a thing did occur it is not without the bounds of possibility that his futmre married life would become indeed a disaster.

I would again ask the Court to review the mitigating circumstances in synoptic form:

(1) The youth of the accused.
(2) This is his first serious offence.
(3) His record of service.
(4) ~~(4)~~ His previous good conduct.
(5) Errors in the statement of the accused in the Summary of Evidence.
(6) The accused was improperly warned before making statement.
(7) The statement of Sgt. McCaffrey must be regarded as muntrue
(8) The accused, in the first instance, had no initial intent but erred to help a friend.
(9) He did not benefit financially by his misconduct.
(10) His worry over his wife's demands.
(11) The fact he is married.
(12) His desire that his wife shall not suffer financially.
(13) His fear that his wife's affection would be lost for him should her allowances cease or if she knew he were confined.
(14) His long confinement awaiting trial. 46 days.
(15) His earnest desire to once again become a good soldier.

In view of the facts outlined and others which may be obvious to the Court I would at this time respectfully request the Court to give the case of Davies its utmost consideration and bearing the facts in mind to be most lenient in the awarding of punishment.

Exhibit A in the Summary of Evidence in the Case of H17521 Pte DAVIES Ernest. "Geo. Gale" Capt...

Approximately in the middle of June 15th I was approached by Pte. Plourde who was employed at Barrack Stores. He asked me if I would like to make some money and I replied that it all depended what sort of money it was. He approached me several times on the same subject and I refuded to do what he suggested and then he approached me again and said " Davies please help me as I need the money". I replied that I couldn't do it to-day but would take them out to-morrow but he replied that he had to have the money right away. I went into Barrack Stores with him and he handed me two pair of W.D. Boots which I took out. I took them to down town Avellino and received 1200 lire for them. I returned to camp and gave Pte Plourde 600 lire and kept 600 for myself. Approximately a week later we did the same thing again and this, time it was also 2 pr. We made the same split and this occured once more with the same division of money. Altogether we disposed of 6 pr of boots for which I was received 3600 lire and gave PLOURDE 1800 of it. I would get them out of bounds by wearing a pair of boots out and carrying my running shoes in my shirt front. Altogether I made 6 trips out of bounds,

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. N.D. (5)

Any chief has been in the army since Sept 39 overseas since Sept 40 during which time has only crimes been for drunkenness & one slight absence

24 recently was out with the intention of obtaining money that prompted the despoiling of the overall of Gen Lowe had money in his possession at the time and to prove his integrity - gave the wallet previous to the pickup Gen Lowe found a pocket-book on the British lines containing money which he voluntarily turned over to Sea 9 troop of the RATD Battery which was eventually delivered to owner. Unfortunately the owner of the pocket book (British) has proceeded on leave to the front lines and is unobtainable as witness. This one and only reason that the unfortunate occurrence took place is due to Chiefs having imbibed too freely (ordered by chiefs) & was under the influence of liquor, has no recollection of having - and he did not realize what he was doing due to drink. - I feel confident that the court will consider the accused to be labouring under the effect of drink - and that he did not have dealings with the stolen property with intent to defraud

E1 B1 TM2

In the case of D. 6020 Gnr. Davies E.J. 6 Canadian Base Reinforcement Battalion, 2 Canadian Base Reinforcement Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

14594661 - Gnr. Roberts A., 2 AA Depot and Training Regt. RATD having been duly sworn states:

I am 14594661 Gnr. Roberts A., 2 AA Depot and Training Regt. RATD. On the 24 Sept. 44 I was on police patrol with 1621823 Gnr. Robinson G. in the vineyard at the N.W. corner of the camp at RATD. At about 1645 hrs. I saw the accused whom I now recognize as Gnr. Davies in conversation with 2 Italian civilians. I kept them under observation and saw the accused take off his coveralls and hand them to one of the Italians. He then came out on to the backroad of Eboli and I followed him and questioned him and he admitted that he had sold the coveralls for three hundred lire. (Exhibit "B".) We then took the accused and the Italian civilian who had bought the coveralls and reported the matter to the Bdr. i/c of Regimental Police of 2 AA Depot. He told me to report to Lieut. Thomas of 9 Troop Office. Lieut. Thomas gave us instructions to hand the accused over to the NCO i/c compound.

Q1 Is the Italian Civilian available?
A1 No sir, we took him to the civil prison in Salerno.

Q2 Do you know his name?
A2 No, sir.

Q3 Do you know his address?
A3 I know where he lives.

Q4 Are these the coveralls? (Exhibit "A")
A4 Yes sir.

Q5 Can you identify them?
A5 There were some holes in them sir.

Q6 Did you see the accused accept any money?
A6 No sir. One of the Italians had a roll of bills in his hand when the accused handed over his coveralls. Accused, when questioned by me, admitted that he had sold the coveralls and handed me the money he had received for them, the sum of 300 lire. The accused wanted to return the money to the Italian and get his coveralls back.

FIRST WITNESS (cont'd)

Q7 Did the accused see you while you were keeping him and the Italians under ~~over~~ observation?
A7 No sir. I don't think he did. I was lying on the ground about 30 ~~pased~~ yards away.

Q8 Was the accused drunk or sober?
A8 You could smell drink on him, but I couldn't say that he was drunk.

I am 1621823 Gnr. Robinson G. 2 AA Depot and Training Regt. RATD. About 1645 hrs. the 24 Sept. 44 I was on police duty. I saw the accused whom I now recognize enter the vineyard at the bottom of the Canadian Camp. He was wearing coveralls. A few moments after, we, Gnr. Roberts and myself saw the accused in conversation with 2 Italians. We walked past them and we kept them under observation from a distance of about 50 yeards. I saw the accused exchange his coveralls and take money from the Italians. The accused came walking towards us. Gnr. Roberts stopped the accused and asked him what he had done with his coveralls. He admitted to both of us that he had sold them to the Italians and he handed over to me the money he had received for them, 300 lire. Gnr. Roberts asked him for his paybook. I then recovered the coveralls from the Italians after finding out that only one of the Italians was the purchaser. We let the other one go. Army Form A.3.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A. Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Tenth day of October, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of Royal Canadian Artillery 2nd Canadian Division, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; ~~*and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer~~;

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

~~*I am unable to appoint~~

~~*(1. Three Officers to form the Court.)~~

~~*(2. A Field Officer as President.~~

~~*(3. Three Officers having more than one year's service.)~~

~~the following reasons, namely:~~

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

M.F.B. 168

*I have satisfied myself that none of the officers detailed as members of this Court have previously served upon any Court of Inquiry respecting the matters forming the subject of the charge before this Court-Martial.

Major President

The accused is arraigned upon the charge in the above-mentioned charge sheet and pleaded not guilty.

The accused was asked if he wished to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial had not been complied with, or that sufficient opportunity for preparing defence had not been given him and he replied in the negative.

The prosecutor addressed the Court stating that Bdr. Davies had failed to carry out the order of his superior officer in the matter of the submission of some work tickets and called the first witness.

First Witness for the prosecution Capt. W.F. Hadley, 5 Fd Regt., R.C.A., having been duly sworn gave evidence as shown in the abstract attached hereto. Ex. 4.

Second Witness for the prosecution D6038 L/Sgt. Bruce N.G., 5 Fd. Regt., R.C.A., having been duly sworn, gave evidence as shown in the abstract attached hereto.

Third Witness for the prosecution D6049 L/Bdr. Knox R.L., 5 Fd Regt., R.C.A., having been duly sworn, gave evidence as shown in the abstract attached hereto.

The defence questioning L/Bdr. Knox brought out the fact that the job was taken away from Bdr. Davies at 1745 hours and that being the case he had not had time to complete it. L/Bdr. Knox admitted the accused had made an effort to have the work tickets completed and he was not certain that his evidence given in the abstract was correct regarding Davies' intention of having the job completed the next morning. The defence submitted that it took L/Bdr. Knox two further hours to complete the work and pointed out that the vehicles were a mile away from the tent lines, that the drivers would have to be called, taken away from their suppers, and that altogether the order was one which could not have been executed in the time, namely an hour and a half. The defence there ore moved that the case be thrown out on the grounds that no prima facie evidence had been produced that the accused had been given sufficient time and opportunity to carry out the order. The prosecutor had not shown that Bdr. Davies did not intend to comply with the order and the fact that the job was given to Bdr. Knox at 1745 hours when Bdr. Davies was still available could be taken to mean that had been relieved of his responsibility in the matter.

The Court felt that there was a reasonable doubt that Bdr. Davies was given sufficient time to carry out the order and after due consideration allowed the motion of the defence and dismissed the case.

ABSTRACT OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

D6032 BDR JOHN DAVIES

5 Fd Bty, 5 Fd Regt.R.C.A.

Capt. T.H. Montgomery, 5 Fd Regt.R.C.A.has been detailed by C.O. 5 Fd Regt,R.C.A. to take an abstract of evidence in the above case in accordance with D.R.O. No 772 App "A".

FIRST WITNESS:
Capt.W.F.Hadley

According to Bty Order No.588 d/30/9/42, commencing 1-9-42 new work tickets were to be issued at the start of each month.

At approx 1630 hours 30-9-42 I sent the Sept Bty work tickets to L/Sjt Bruce, Bty NCO i/c M.T. with instructions to have them completed so that I could make out the petrol return & new work tickets after supper. When I returned to Bty Office at approx 1850 hrs,with a few exceptions all work tickets had been returned,and with the exception of B Troop, work tickets had been completed up to date.

As Bdr Davies B Troop NCO I/C M.T. could not be found, the work was given to L/Bdr Knox, an NCO in B Troop M.T, to complete.

SECOND WITNESS:
D6038 L/Sjt Bruce.N.G.

At approx 1630 hrs 30-9-42,D.R. from Bty Office, Gnr Komisaruk, turned over the work tickets to me with instructions from Capt Hadley that they be returned to the Bty Office completed up to date. I went to find Bdr Davies "B" Troop NCO I/C M.T. and found him in the K of C canteen. I instructed him to have his work tickets returned to me by 1800 hours. He told me that that was impossible and could not be done,or words to that effect. I said "You have them returned to me by 1800 hours" or words to that effect. At this time all of "A" Troops work tickets had been completed without special instrucions having been necessary,except one. At approx 1800 hrs B Tp work tickets had not been returned, and I met L/Bdr Knox and asked him to round up the missing work tickets. L/Bdr Knox then brought the work tickets to the Bty Office where he completed them.

THIRD WITNESS:
D6049 L/Bdr KNOX.R.L.

At approx 1800 hrs 30-9-42, Sjt Bruce came to me and asked me to bring in "B" Troop work tickets, I told him they were not completed, and he told me to bring them in anyway. I found Bdr Davies and he told me that he had given some of the tickets out to the drivers to be completed by morning, and that the rest were in his tent. I got the tickets out of his tent, and turned them into the office. About half an hour later Capt W.F.Hadley sent for me and told me that he wanted all the "B" Troop work tickets turned in, and all completed up to date. I collected the work tickets which had been given out to the drivers and completed those which had not already been done. By the time I had finished this job it was about 2000 hours.

The foregoing abstract of evidence was taken by me, in the field, on the sixth day of October-1942.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

TRIAL ON THE 2ND CHARGE

EVDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION NOTE D-3

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
D 91040 MSM C ENNOR, on strength No 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy, having been duly sworn states:

I am the mechanist sgt major at 1 Cdn Adm Tpt Coy, I know Cpl Davies, he is there, the accused, I have known him a short time in this country and in Canada I knew him for about a year. He visited me in the sgts mess a couple of months ago, somewhere around the end of Sep, I just don't remember the exact date, there was another sgt with him, I do not know this other man's name, nor do I think I could mcognize him if I were to see him. I was out that evening and I came into the mess around 9:00 pm that evening and was met by these two chaps, we went up to the bar and had a drink. The accused asked me if there was any chance of getting a truck, I told him I had nothing to with tpt. He said there would be £20 or £25 in it for me, and I said I was not interested. We had another drink and as I had an appointment that evening I left.

Q Was any purpose mentioned for which the veh was required?
A There was not very much talk about the veh after I refused to try and get one. I do not recall them telling me of any purpose. There was some talk about blankets.

Q Did you gather from the accused remarks that if you supplied the truck he would give you £20 or 25£?
A I think that is what he meant.

Q Did you supply a truck?
A No sir.

Q Did he pay you any money?
A No sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEF OFFR (Capt Saunders)

Q Did you report the accused alleged topic of conversation to anyone?
A No sir.

Q Why not.
A I just let it go, I was not interested, I forgot the whole matter for a month or so.

Q You are a responsible WO in charge of tpt?
A I have nothing to do with tpt, I am in charge of the wksps.

Q You are a responsible WO and you thought it quite a light matter?
A No I did not so I dismissed it all from my mind.

Q Did anyone else approach you with a similar proposition?
A no sir.

Q Were there any other sgts from 1 Adm Tpt Coy present when this conversation took place?
A There was only the three of us standing by the bar, I never spoke to the other chap.

Q If I was to bring in a certain sgt, do you think it might re fresh your memory?
A It possibly would.

Q Have you a veh at your disposal?
A No sir.

BY LT WILDING-WHITE

Q The accused said to you "there will be £20 or £25 in it for you"?
A Yes sir.

Q He did not say "I will give you £20 or 25£?
A No sir.

Q In other words if you joined into something you would get 20 or 25 pounds as a result?
A Yes, I took it that if I supplied a truck I would get 20 or 25 pounds.

Q In other words you did not know how you were going to get that 25 pounds, whether it would come from somebody else or from something that the truck was to be used for or by other people?
A Yes

Q It might depend on the [redacted] success of the venture that the truck was to be used for?
A I cannot say as to that.

Q Did you understand then that he was not himself directly offering you 25 pounds of his own, but that after whatever happened, if it happened, you stood to get 20 or 25 pounds?
A That is the way I took it, that if I supplied the truck I would get 20 or 25 pounds.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

23 Nov 44.

Court adjourned at 1730 hours/until 0930 hours 24 Nov 44.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

The charge on which the accused is being tried is that of offering a bribe, to permit the illegal use of a veh. Only one witness has been called as to the facts of this case. The reason for this is that Ennor himself is the only possible witness. It might appear that the Court could not convict upon the evidence of only one witness, but there is no law laying this down, in fact it is definitely laid down that the Court may convict upon the uncorroborated evidence of one witness provided that they believe the evidence given by that witness. I refer the Court to Page 45, Page 83, MML. The evidence of Ennor is quite clear. At sometime towards the end of Sep 44 Ennor states that Davies came to see him in the Mess and that he asked him for a veh, that he stated that if he, Ennor, would supply the veh there would be 20-25 pounds in it for him. Is that the offer of a bribe? I think the Court must conclude it is. Ennor was offered a sum of money to permit the doing of an illegal action. The Defence in their X-examination of Ennor tried to raise this point, that what Davies was really doing was offering Ennor a share in the proceeds of an action and that Davies himself was not directly making the offer or promising to pay. I think that the evidence given by Ennor is to the relationship between himself and Davies disposes all of that objection. Ennor stated that two sergeants came to see him, that the only one of the two with whom he was acquainted with was Davies, that he [redacted] would not recognize the other man if he was him. Now it is merely common sense to think that Davies was the only possible person from whom Ennor could expect payment.

Even if Ennor had been disposed to agree to this proposition he certainly would not have entered upon the say-so of a man absolutely unknown to him or upon the promise of receiving part of the proceeds of a very vague deal, the only thing that he knew about was that the deal concerned blankets. Davies came to him, offered him a bribe provided he would permit the illegal use of a vehicle. Since this is what the charge complains of, I feel that the Court should have little difficulty that the accused is guilty of the offence as alleged.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFR ON THE FINDING

I think I made it clear in X-examination of Sjt Ennor the exact nature of this approach. It was not an offer by Sjt Davies to give him twenty or twenty five pounds if he would do something. This is emphasized by the fact that another Sjt was with him at the time. In other words they went there with the object of making him join their group, and they said there will be or may be $20-25 in it for you. That is not a direct offer, and is not a bribe at all, or an attempt to bribe. I think this sort of thing has appeared in the trial of the accused all the way through. This is obviously multiplicity of charges as outlined in MML. There is no doubt in my mind but that improper methods were taken in getting the statement. Last of all we have got these extra charges put in should the other charges fail to get them in some sort of way. I think that is the type of attitude which MML severely disapproves of. Further, my main point is that this was in no sense an attempt to bribe even and I think that is very clear to everybody that that is so.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE COURT FINDS THE ACCUSED NOT GUILTY ON THE SECOND CHARGE.

Capt GA PENCHARD, RCA, 2 CARU, having been duly sworn, states:

The accused came to "I" Wing of 2 CARU about July or Aug of 43. He was with us for a period of approx 11 mths, and during that time he served the Wing efficiently in every respect, was found to be very trustworthy and carried out every duty which was assigned to him, cheerfully, accurately and willingly. His ability, Sir was outstanding. On many occasions he would be asked to construct a letter to answer to some subject and we found that he was outstanding as a clerk in the Orderly Room. It has often been mentioned by many of the Staff that he was the best clerk that ever came to our Wing We require an Orderly Room clerk of very high standard. He was covering a vacancy of a Sjt Gp "B" and during this time around Spring of 44 promotion within the RU's were frozen and consequently we could not bring him up to the rank he was fully deserving of. Through contacts made to CRU an offr asked if we would be willing to release him for a posn at CRU which would give him a rank of Sjt, to which we agreed. In passing I might mention that at the time he left the unit he owed small amounts of money and I endeavoured to get in touch with the Pmr to settle these accounts. However the Pmr could not advance him the money as he didn't have it in his paybook, so I loaned him the money. Some 2 wks later he made a spec trip to 2 CARU in order to pay this money back to me, and left it there which I recd at a later period as I [redacted] was away at the time he came to pay me. I mention this to confirm my previous statement in regarding him as fully trustworthy. I know the accused to come from a family of very high standing and cannot believe that through any wish of his own he was been involved in these circumstances.

(DEF OFFR)

There are just two things I would like to express to the Court. I want the Court to consider the character evidence given, the fact of the accused's service of 5 yrs without any tries upon his 6, and the accused's own statement himself. Thank you.

E-1

During the last few days, I have been undergoing a form of self-analysis trying to get at the root of the causes resulting in my being in this predicament - in no sense do I wish to unload any blame other than on my own shoulders for my part in the incident - but I am quite definite that contibuting causes are beyond my control.

Prior to joining the Army in September 1939, I enjoyed a normal and active life. I had played representative cricket for Quebec, football for various clubs in Montreal and the Eastern Townships of Quebec, tennis and golf, had no domestic worries and suffered no ill-health. My record as a civilian was without blemish and I still have excellent references from my few employers.

As a contrast - October 1944.

I am employed at a trade(Clerk) which I strove to avoid for three years in the army, my physical disabilities prevent me from partaking in any outdoor sport, my domestic affairs are far from happy and my temperament changed to the extent that my stability, since 1942, confines my reading to the daily newspaper, and entertainment consisting in fostering a temporary elation from the solace of a few pints of beer.

I enlisted with the RCASC - became a PT Instructor, was promoted and attached for duty to HQ MD 4. I reverted to be transferred to the 1 Cdn Svy Regt RCA in order to come overseas, and promises I received that my education would be adaptable to the requirements of the Survey Regt (as a Surveyor). My second day with that Regiment brought a demand to work in the Orderly Room "just to help out for a few days" but continual complaining brought forth the promise that my technical training would commence just as soon as we arrived in England. I was in charge of the Orderly Room until we moved to this country. I was paraded soon after arrival and again stressed dissatisfaction with clerical employment and asking that they fulfill their promises. It was agreed that I undergo survey training but at no time was there any suggestion of putting the promise into effect. A hernia operation in 1942 was only partially successful. I returned to the hospital a few months later, but the suggested operation was delayed, and further complaints at regular interyals resulted in a category, but no cure. During this time I was employed at clerical duties, quite contented knowing that manual labor was physically impossible. I was sent on the Clerks' Course and a pay-book entry supports the fact that I qualified with 96.5%. A sojourn in hospital followed and in 1943 I attended a Shorthand Steno Course in 1 CGRU. Domestic events had not improved my morale and I made an official application for compassionate leave to Canada. A copy of my letter is attached. The application was concurred in by Major Lawrence, OC Clerks' Trg Wing, and forwarded to higher authority. I did NOT receive the courtesy of a decision.

I was posted to No. 2 CARU, a thoroughly "Browned off" individual, In "C" Bty at that Unit, it was recommended by the OC that I be returned to Canada. That suggestion came to nought. I was paraded to OC Adm Wing some time later and stated my case for return to Canada but received no encouragement, and my general outlook on the Army was very unwholesome. Through the results of the "I" Test, CMHQ recommended that I make an application for OCTU. The local selection board apparently frowned on category aspirants(even though I had expressed preference for the Forestry Corps). I could not be used on the Permanent Establishment of No. 2 CARU, as I was qualified "B" Clerk (both general duty and shorthand steno) and the establishment was very limited for such tradesmen. I came up for re-test and failed both tests simply by signing the blank sheet of paper. I thus managed to become employed on the PE of 2 CARU as a Clerk "C".

I again went to the hospital in the spring of this year, but I was told that because of impending operations no bed space was available and the Medical Officer expressed the opinion at the time that, even though an operation be performed, I was unlikely to become a "fighting soldier". It was the desire to go overseas that actuated my plea for something to be done as I felt that more than 2 years in a Rft Unit was having a very unsettling effect - that apart from the physical discomfort I had(and still have) to endure. The War Establishment at 2 CARU was amended and I came back before the Trade Test Board and I requalified Clerk "B". I covered off a Sergeant's vacancy in "I" Wing for several months as a Bdr, but promotions were "frozen" in the Artillery. I was offered the rank of Sergeant with the Trade Test Board, and eventually came on the strength of HQ CRU-Trades Test Section.

As custodian of the office eqpt I live in the office building by myself, but a hermit's life was incompatible with my personality and I felt the need of "mixing" to a marked extent. In September, Lieut Benson, my OC, suggested that I move into other quarters, and that was my intention before my arrest.

Rather than undergo an unpleasant session in seclusion, I formed the habit of drinking as an excape from solitude, but I do not blame the few weeks of that existence as responsible, but rather the effect of the causes I have outlined.

The culmination was that the slightest opportunity to relieve the monotony, which severely taxed my nervous system, was a welcome respite from the dubious entertainment of the bar -room and the opportunity to help engineer the crime was not so much to defeat the law as it was a perverted attempt to occupy my intellect starved by restricted and what has always been unsuitable employment.

I have continually expressed my concern over my physical condition and less than a month ago I was told by the Unit Medical Officer that anything strenuous would be dangerous and he confirmed what I had been told at Bramshott in the spring.

Regt. No. B-64113, Rfn. DUDLEY, R.D.C.
"A" Wing, M.T. Sect., No.1 C.C.R.W., C.R.H. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NIXON, of S.I.S. that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) R. DUDLEY

STATES:

On 4 OCT 44 around dinner-time I was working on my truck, No. L-762820 in the workshop at my Unit when one of the other men in the M.T. Section came to me and asked me if I would like to make myself some extra money. He is a friend of mine and I don't want to say his name and maybe get him into trouble. I was broke and wanted to get some money so as to be able to go on leave, so I said "Yes I would", and asked him how it could be done. He told me there was some stuff to go to London next day and if I would take it in my truck I'd get out of the deal. I said I'd do it, and he told me that if I'd take the truck round to the Blanket Hut sometime during the afternoon next day the Staff-Sergeant in charge of Mob. Stores would get the fatigue men to put on a load of blankets. All I had to do then was drive up to the Garrison Theatre where somebody would be waiting to go in to LONDON with me and look after things from there on. My friend also told me I'd better take out a Work Ticket showing a load of Hospital Blankets for WATFORD.

I had two trips next morning - one to the Gov't.Siding in ALDERSHOT at 01:30 hrs. and one from 11:30 hrs. to 13:30 hrs. to ALTON and return. When I got back I was detailed by Cpl. JEYNES for a journey to FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH. He made out my Work Ticket for 15:30, signing it "Keen, Capt." and initialling it "W.J.", as the N.C.O. Despatcher usually does.

After lunch I didn't go to FARNHAM, but took my truck round to the Blanket Store at about 15:30 hrs. and backed up to the door. S/Sgt. FITZSIMMONS (I think that's his name - he's i/c Mob. Stores) came out, I opened up the back of the truck and got in. The S/Sgt. told the fatigue man to start loading blankets. I only said "Hallo" to him, and nothing much more was said. He told the man to count out so many blankets for Despatch Coy., and so many for other Coys. in the Unit. They were all in bundles of 10, and I'm sure the fatigue man didn't know anything about the deal. They only helped me. I stacked the blankets inside my truck.

During the Break Period that morning from 10:00 to 10:30 hrs. I went into the M.T. office while no-one was in there and took a Work Ticket which I made out as instructed, signing it "Keen Capt.". I kept it with me for the trip to LONDON in the afternoon.

I didn't know how many blankets I had in the truck, but when the S/Sgt. said "O.K., that's the lot", or words to that effect, I tied up the torpaulin and drove up to the Garrison Theatre as arranged. I stopped there, and another Staff-Sergeant I didn't know came up and got in the truck. I know now his name is S/Sgt. GRIMIX. He told me where to go from there on, as I didn't know the roads up at SHREWSBURY. We headed straight for LONDON. I know we went through STAINES and KINGSTON, according to the road signs, but I don't remember much about the roads. I think we were pretty well into LONDON when he said to turn off and after a lot of turns round fair-sized roads he said to pull up in a street where there were one-trucks. He said "Wait here", and got out for 5 or 10 minutes. I don't know where he went. After that we did a lot more turns, and I was completely lost. Once we passed a place where he said: "I was pinched over in there once". We didn't stop any more until we got to the place where the Police found us. I guess it was about 19:30 hrs. when we got there. I knew it was getting dark. S/Sgt. GRIMIX got out and told me to wait. About half-an-hour later another soldier got into the cab with me and gave me 5/- and said "We'll be a little while yet. You'd better go and get something to eat". I couldn't see his face in the dark and wouldn't recognize him again. I couldn't tell from the way he spoke whether he was Canadian or not. I didn't notice what sort of uniform he was wearing. I went to a snack-bar a little way down the street and when I came back a few minutes later the soldier got out of the cab and said: "We'll be back".

I waited a long time and then both doors of the cab opened, somebody grabbed me by the arm and asked me what I was doing. I said I was waiting for my chum and he'd gone to get something to eat. They said they were Police Officers and that they'd wait too. After a while S/Sgt. GRIMIX came back and the Police grabbed him too. I didn't see any other civilians and didn't know who was supposed to get the blankets. The Police told me to drive to a Police Station nearby, which I did. One of them drove with me. They took S/Sgt. GRIMIX in their car.

I can honestly say that I have never been mixed up in anything like this before in the Army or in civil life, and my crimes in the Army have all been trivial. I only agreed to do it on a sudden impulse because I wanted to make a little money to go on leave, as I'd lost a bit over being a days A.W.L. a little while ago. I was only in ALDERSHOT with a girl. Nobody talked me into taking blankets to LONDON. I just didn't stop to think how serious a thing it was. I figured it was safe enough, too, because somebody else was doing the job and I was just driving my truck and didn't even know where the stuff was going. I'm sorry now I had anything to do with the business.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to come, and it is true, /UNDS.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S. that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I may will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence. To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) R. J. GRIMMIA

STATES:

One day last week, I think it was Saturday Sep 30, 1944, I was in the N.A.A.F.I., Stanhope Theatre, Clarendon, at lunch time in company with, Sgt. Gosnell, ..., Sgt. Davies, J. and Sgt. Johns, D.T. All of No.1 CCRU. Sgt. Gosnell stated that he knew of some blankets which we could make some money if we could dispose of them.

On Sunday, 1 Oct 44, we were all in the Sgt's Mess (No.1 CCRU) and in the course of the afternoon the blanket transaction. Sgt Davies said that he might know someone in London that would be interested. It was decided that Sgt Davies and I would go to London. It was arranged that we could get a car and go up in the Elephant and Castle district. Later that night we arrived in the Elephant and Castle district about 2000 hours. In the taxi Sgt Davies and I made inquiries in the bars and offices about blankets. The first person I knew of someone who would be the right person to see was in the Kings Head, Public House. We went for there to the Black Prince Public House, where Sgt Davies went up to a man called Leicester and they had a whispered conversation together. Leicester did not overhear what was said but Sgt Davies said that he would take around 500 blankets if we could deliver them for that he would pay 7/6 a piece for them. He told Sgt Davies that he would be here at 8 pm on Thursday night to meet him to the conversation. We were to bring them up on Thursday Night and meet him in the Black Prince. This Civilian would be about 40 years old, five feet Eight Inches, stocky build, ruddy complexion, ginger stubble, thick lips, I noticed the hands with brown coat sleeves and would not like to see in the dark. He was wearing grey check cap with light brown stripes running through, a check dirty blue suit (light) of cloth, white collar and brown shoes.

We left the Black Prince and proceeded to the Kings Head where we saw the man called Pop. Sgt Davies told him he had already seen the man he wanted to talk to. "Pop" is quite an old man about 5' 6". He was wearing a shiny light grey stubble. He was wearing a black coat. I think he is known in the Elephant and Castle pubs as Tich but he said that he had been sick and that he expected to get discharged soon, on this account.

After a couple of drinks we went back to the Black Prince with "Pop" and Sgt Davies had a couple more where [illegible] there was another civilian with him but I would not recognise him again. We spent the night in London and returned to Aldershot the next morning.

That morning I saw Sgt Gemmell and told him everything had been arranged. He said arrangements would have to be made for transport. Later in the day he saw me and said that arrangements were being made for the blankets to be ready on Thursday. Sgt. Gemmell, Sgt Johns, Sgt Davies and myself usually go into the Stanhope N. ....P.I. every day at lunch time and one day I think it was Wednesday Sgt. Johns said that transport had been arranged for the blankets on Thursday. We were together that day at noon, and Sgt Gemmell went over to talk to CSM Miskimmins. He then called us over and Miskimmins said that everything was all arranged. Sgt Davies was to go to London with the truck load of blankets and Sgt Johns and I were to meet him in the Black Prince. He had a letter addressed to No 23 Coln Sea Hosp [illegible] Watford, covering shipment of 1000 blankets which would be under hir on his journey. Later it was arranged that I should go to London with the truck and the letter was handed to me, I don't know where it came from. Sgts Johns and Davies would meet me on arrival at about 1830 hours in the Black Prince, I was to meet truck No L 7618220 outside the Garrison Theatre, Aldershot at 1600 hours and show the driver how to get there. I didn't know where the blankets were coming from all I knew was that CSM Miskimmins was arranging to get them.

I met the truck at 1600 hours as arranged and proceeded via Staines, Kingston, Clapham Junction to the Elephant and Castle area where I had some difficulty in finding the Black Prince Pub, driving around for approximately half an hour in that area before finding the right pub. I stopped once at a Black Prince Pub but found it closed and decided it was the wrong one. We then drove back following the tram lines and stopped again to ask [illegible] the tube station after which I found my bearings and arrived at the right place at about 1830. I told the driver to wait and went into the Davies and Sgt Johns inside the pub, they were not there yet but a civilian who knew Ginger was there and went to the phone. He came in about an hour later to report [illegible] make some arrangements but sent word back by another civilian between 20 and 2030 hours that arrangements could not be made that night. I would recognize Ginger again if I saw him but not the two other civilians.

While we were in the pub I gave Sgt Davies 5 shillings for the driver to go for supper, Sgt Davies stayed with the truck while he was away at about 1930 hours, he came back about 20 minutes time and I took him out some cigarettes and matches, I don't know the lad and never saw him before in my life.

After we got Woinears's message Sgt Johns, Sgt Davies, and I went by tube to the west end to see if we could find a place to store the blankets, we tried in a pub near Oxford Circus without success and took a Taxi to some club or other that Sgt Johns knew about and left him there while Sgt Davies and I went back to the truck by Taxi. I was to follow the Taxi back in the truck. I left Sgt Davies talking to the driver and when I crossed over to the truck a couple of plain-clothes policemen stepped out and asked what I was doing, I said I was going back to Aldershot but they said I had better come with them and took me to a police station near by. Another officer followed with the driver in the truck. Later S/Sgt Nelson of the SIS came and took me and the driver over to No 6 Provost Detention Room, he cautioned me and then asked me if I had any business in London with the truck and blankets to which I replied "No".

I have never been concerned in anything of this kind before except for the case of selling 1000 cigs. but I was due to go on leave and needed money, and knowing that I was not directly concerned with the taking of the blankets, and did not know the persons to whom they were going, I thought I could get enough money to go on leave. It was my job to direct the driver to the correct place, the arrangements being left to the others. I did not realize how serious an offence of this kind could be, or I would not have had anything to do with it.

STATEMENT OF:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

(SGD) W.A. GEMMELL

STATES:

At some time after the return of 1 CGRU to ALDERSHOT it came to my knowledge that there were in the Unit three or four thousand surplus blankets. I am not sure who first told me about it. It may have been COMS MISKIMMINS; but I was under the impression that this was common knowledge. The [illegible] it mentioned several times.

Ever since last August when we were at [illegible] Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt JOHNS and I have been drinking somewhat heavily. About a month ago I asked Maj. LAWRENCE, O.C., Clerks' Coy if he would post me to the Field. This was to get away from the associations and drinking habits I had formed. I was afraid that sooner or later it would get me into trouble. As I was Chief Instructor he wouldn't consider this possibility at that time.

On Thurs., 28 SEP 44, after 13:15 Parade, Sgt JOHNS and I went down to the "Wellington" Public House for a quiet drink as two of us had got in the habit of going occasionally for some time. We had a few too many and didn't return to the Unit until about 18:0 hrs., when we learned that LAWRENCE had been enquiring for us and we'd be in trouble over it. Next morning Maj. LAWRENCE informed us that we were posted to Reinforcement Strength. Automatically I had to revert from A/S/Sgt. to Sgt., and commenced Basic Training on 4 OCT 44.

On Saturday, 30 SEP 44, between 15:00 and 17:00 hrs. Sgt. JOHNS and I were alone together in our quarters at [illegible] Bks. when S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. DAVIES came in. They had been drinking, but we had not had a drink all day. We were all just about broke and the question of how to raise some money cropped up. I said: "Well, there's some bloody blankets over in the Quarters' Stores" and from there on there was just some general conversation about the possibilities, although I think no-one had any serious idea of doing anything with it. Certainly I didn't myself.

Next afternoon, Sunday, 1 OCT 44, the four of us were together drinking again in the Sergeants' Mess. JOHNS had borrowed a couple of Pounds. The subject of selling blankets cropped up again and we were discussing the possibilities of disposal. Sgt. DAVIES said he knew of a man in LONDON who might take them. Later he and S/Sgt. GRATRIX went off together to LONDON and next day in the Mess at noon they told me that the arrangement for disposing of 1000 blankets had been made in LONDON and asked me to see COMS MISKIMMINS about it. I did not see him until next day, Tuesday, 3 OCT 44, in the NAAFI, when all I said to him was: " If you're interested in disposing of some blankets those guys over in the corner will handle it", indicating S/Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. DAVIES. I had not discussed the subject previously with CQMS.MISKIMMINS, and that is all I said to him at the time. I had one drink with him and left the NAAFI, as I was due for Parade. Sgt JOHNS was there with the other two. CQMS MISKIMMINS said that it was OK with him if they could arrange it, and that he would see them next day about it. That night in the Mess I told them what he had said when they asked me about it.

Next day Wednesday, 4 OCT 44, I went along to the NAAFI at noon and joined S/Sgt GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt DAVIES at their table for a glass of beer. Later CQMS MISKIMMINS came in and joined us. The matter of disposal of blankets was discussed and I was told when I asked that transport had been arranged. MISKIMMINS suggested that they be picked up at the laundry next day, as had been arranged, but I didn't know when I left them where they were to come from or at what time.

Next day, Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at noon in the NAAFI, I was looking over a Racing Sheet with MISKIMMINS and figuring if I could place a good bet with a Bookie who comes in there. S/Sgt GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt. DAVIES came over and final arrangements about the blankets were made. S/Sgt. GRATRIX had a letter which I recognize as the one in your possession. I had not read it, but I knew its contents. I do not know who wrote it. A truck was to pick up the blankets that afternoon, and S/Sgt. GRATRIX or Sgt. DAVIES was to go up to LONDON with the driver. I did not know what driver or what transport would be used. Next day I learned that GRATRIX went with the truck and that Sgt. DAVIES and Sgt. JOHNS went up together by train to meet him in LONDON. I heard also that GRATRIX and the driver of the truck got pinched.

On Friday noon in our room, Sgt. JOHNS told me that the civvy in LONDON who was going to take the blankets didn't turn up. He went over to a Club in the West End to try and find some other way of disposing of them, but when he got back the truck was gone.

I did not go to LONDON and had nothing to do with the deal other than stated above. I didn't know exactly how much money was in it, or how it was to be divided. Some time during the week Sgt. DAVIES said there was 7/6 apiece coming in for the blankets, and GRATRIX said Six Shillings. To my knowledge no detailed division of the proceeds was discussed. Had they chosen to give me a cut out of the deal no doubt I would have accepted it, as I was pretty well broke. I had no doubt that they would come through with something, as I had knowledge of the project from the start, although I took no active part in the business once the others got started on it. I have been living and working with S/ Sgt. GRATRIX and Sgt. JOHNS over a period of two years, and have always been on the best of terms with them. It is only natural, therefore, that I would not give them away when I knew what was in the wind. After the arrangements had been made I did not like the set-up too much, and did not myself wish to become too deeply involved. By then, however, there was little I could do about it. I am sorry now that I had anything to do with it at all, as I have never been mixed up in anything of this kind before.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to some and it is true. (SGD) N.A. GRENELL 10 OCT 44

STATES:

On Sunday, 1 OCT 44, during the afternoon, I was in the Sergeants' Mess, No. 1 C.G.R.U., in company with S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt. JOHNS, and Sgt. GEMMELL. We had all had quite a few drinks by then, and being more or less broke, the question of how to get some money became the subject of conversation. I remember that someone mentioned that there were 4,000 buckshee blankets to be had in the area. I don't remember who said this, and I never did hear where the blankets were supposed to be. There was quite a crowd in there, and the matter was not discussed at any length. No-one else heard this conversation. I suggested that I thought the Black Market was rife around the Elephant & Castle and so without any delay, S/Sgt Gratrix and myself were delegated to pound out the possibilities.

About a year ago I was in the Elephant & Castle district and there was a man who had suggested that any time I had anything to sell it was possible to make connections in that locality. He was addressed by one of his friends at the time as Ginger Cheek and was wearing a grey check cap. He would be about fifty years of age and about five feet nine inches in height. He had light hair and reddish complexion with a gingerish whiskers (stubble). He was clean shaven and I think he had a cauliflower ear. I know he was rather uncouth looking and wore a blue suit with a white scarf.

That evening S/Sgt Gratrix and I went to the Elephant and Castle district and after having a few drinks at various pubs entered the "Black Prince" and the "Ginger Cheek" (described above) was in the pub. It was suggested to him that we had a number of blankets to sell, and he replied that he was not in a position to handle them. Another man entered the pub and I would describe him as follows:-

Foreign appearance but spoke with a Cockney accent, middle age, height about 5' 9", black hair swarthy complexion, thin face, clean shaven, wearing trilby hat and dark overcoat. He came over to our table and commenced a conversation with S/Sgt Gratrix. I did not hear the topic of the conversation and once when I made a remark I was told to "shut-up" by the civilian. At this stage I was quite drunk having been drinking since 12 o'clock noon. Gratrix was comparatively sober as he had not been drinking to any extent owing to stomach trouble. We left the pub at closing time and went to Streatham, to spend the night, and on the way home I understood that it had been arranged that the blankets could be disposed of.

On Monday or Tuesday S/Sgt Gratrix, Sgts Johns and Gemmell and I discussed the matter again and it was decided that some effort be made to obtain transport for the blankets. On Tuesday Sgt Gemmell and I went to see a friend of mine at another unit who might have been able to help but he refused to have anything to do with the transaction. The person who was eventually responsible for arranging the transport I do Not know. There was some talk about getting the blankets from a laundry.

On Thursday morning, October 5th, 1944, I drafted a letter addressed to No 23 Cdn Gen Hospital concerning an imaginary shipment of blankets to that Unit. I thought it would cover the load of blankets en route to London. On it I used a fictitious file number and signed it L. Skinner Lt. I know of no such Officer and used the first name that came into my head. The letter you have in your possession is the one referred to in the previous sentence. In the NAAFI at noon I saw S/Sgt Gratrix and the two other Sgts and passed round the letter for their comments. It was suggested that I accompany the load of blankets to London, but for various reasons I declined and S/Sgt Gratrix volunteered to do this, and he took the envelope (which I had addressed) and the letter. I was not aware of the final arrangements for picking up the blankets. At approximately 2.30 p.m. S/Sgt Gratrix came to my office and requested permission from QMS Martin to have me leave early as he wanted me to assist him with some clerical work he was doing at Woking. At 3.30 p.m. I left the office to go to the Clerks Training Wing and it was then arranged that I go by rail to London with Sgt Johns to meet S/Sgt Gratrix at the Black Prince. We left on the 4.16 p.m. train and met S/Sgt Gratrix, as arranged soon after opening time.

For some time we sat in the pub drinking beer, and I took five shillings from Staff Gratrix to the driver of the truck which was outside in the street to let him get some supper. Ginger came in about 7.30 p.m. and said 'hasn't he turned up' - no name was mentioned, meaning the man who was to take the blankets. He left the pub, apparently to find the man in question, but sent back a message by a stranger, that he couldn't be found. I suggested that the truck and blankets return to Aldershot where they came from, but owing to the difficulties of that procedure it was decided to explore the possibility of making other connections. We visited several pubs and finished up in the West End at some pub or other where Sgt Johns met some people who were interested. He stayed there with them while Staff Gratrix and I went back to get the truck, hiring a taxi for the journey. When we got there, S/Sgt Gratrix went over to the truck and I gave instructions to the driver of the cab to turn around so that the truck could follow us back. We went round the block to do this and when I got back the truck and Staff Gratrix had gone. I returned to Sgt Johns and told him what had happened, so we went to Streatham for the night, returning to Aldershot in the morning.

The agreed price was 7/6d each for the blankets. Transport was to have cost £40 or £50 and I understood that the remainder of the proceeds was to be split between Staff Gratrix, Sgts Gemmell and Johns, myself, and whoever supplied the blankets.

The whole plan was evolved whilst I was under the influence of liquor, and it was through drinking activities that I had got behind financially and seized on this method of getting myself straightened out. If I had been in a sober frame of mind, I would not, under any circumstances, have considered being a party to any such undertaking, as I have never been connected

I owe £8-0-0 to Sgt Brooks £5-0-0 to Tpr Richardson, the barber, and £1-0-0 to Mr Lucas down in the Wellington Pub. Other guys owe me 20 Or 30 pounds and I have got plenty of money back home if I want it. I had nothing to do with the blanket deal but I knew it was coming off. I only went to London for a steak supper at Greatrix's place. I went to a club in the West End and got a girl friend of mine to phone up a garage to store the truck. When I told her there were blankets in the truck she phoned again and none of them would have no part of it. I had nothing to do with arranging transport. I have been drinking heavy for the past three or four months since leaving Witley. I remember being with the others but did not always know what they were talking about. When I am drinking I can do my job but forget what people say to me. I figure Greatrix is O.K. Gemmell is close as can be. Gemmell always talked along to Iskinmons. Davies is O.K. I guess, he was only trying to find a place to park the truck not to sell the blankets he never tried to sell anything. STATES:

I am C.Q.M.S. I/C Accommodation Stores, No.1 C.G.R.U., where I have been for 4 years in the same position. I have always worked hard to keep all Barrack Stores in good order, and have never at any time disposed of stores to outside individuals. Before the war I worked for 16 years for T. EATON & Co., TORONTO, in the Creamery Dept., and left there in excellent standing.

About two weeks ago a new Reception Coy. was formed in 1 CGRU and my O.C., Capt. LAKE, instructed me to collect all surplus blankets throughout the Unit for the use of this Coy. These are all accounted for on the "Long Roll". We do not as yet keep Coy. Inventories. I started at the beginning of last week with Medical, General, and Despatch Coys., keeping over 1000 in the Blanket Store to be laundered. Next morning, 4 OCT 44, I took 1000 of these blankets to the Hale Laundry in FARNHAM. I don't remember which truck or driver was detailed. I made two journeys. My Storeman, Pte. GOLD, and Mr. SHORT, i/c R.S.A. Stores and his staff knew I was going to do this, and of course our M.T. Section knew what I was doing.

The following day, Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at about 13:30 hrs., I took the truck and driver I had all morning round Unit Lines to FARNHAM, where I collected 800 clean blankets, in bundles of ten, leaving 200 to be collected later. I put them in the Blanket Store.

Upon my return Pte. GOLD told me that Reception Coy. required a lot more blankets, and as I had requested another truck at lunch-time, when I was told I could have the first one that came in, and having despatched the one I had to another job, I told Pte. GOLD to remain in the Blanket Store, where he was working, and to start loading the first truck which arrived. I went back to my office and on my return at about 15:30 hrs., I found a truck there and gave Pte. GOLD and the Driver a hand in loading on the blankets. I'm not sure how many were there, but I kept back about 150 in the hut. I distinctly remember telling the driver to take them to Reception Coy., within Unit Lines, and Pte. GOLD heard what I said. I went off then about my business, and the first I heard that anything was wrong was next morning, when Capt. LAKE asked me what trucks I had had booked out to me and said that one had been found up in LONDON the night before. I had no reason to think that any blankets were missing, and the first I heard of this was when my Charge was read by Maj. MacLEAN.

Contd.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour to come, and it is true./ENDS

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION

SECOND STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. B-68151, CPL. M. MISKIMMINS, W.
"A" Wing, No.1 C.G.R.U., C.R.T. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) M. MISKIMMINS.

STATES:

I have read over the statements of B-68113, Rtn. D'DLEY, R.D.C., dated 8 OCT 44, L-1161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J., dated 7 OCT 44, and L-16134, Sgt. GRISSEL, E.W., dated 10 OCT 44, and wish to state that I don't know Rtn. D'DLEY by name, but would no doubt recognize him as the driver who took the blankets last Thursday. I did not tell him to take the blankets anywhere but to Reception Coy. as that is never to Despatch Coy. in any case.

I would know S/Sgt. GRATRIX, Sgt. GRISSEL, or S.S. DAVIES if I saw them no doubt, but I do not know them by name, and have never had anything to do with them. I have known Sgt. JOHNS as "SMOOKE" for about a year, but have never had much to do with him. Never at any time did I discuss the subject of blankets to any of these men, nor have they ever bring up the subject to me or in my presence. It's possible that they may have spoken among themselves, but I don't think for a minute that [illegible] of anyone else in my department. [illegible] theft of the blankets was entirely on [illegible] of my knowledge.

I do remember being in the M.A.A.F. [illegible] Tuesday week at noon (11 or 8 OCT 44), [illegible] showing the runners in a horse race [illegible] over to a table where "SMOOKE" and [illegible] were sitting. I sat down for a minute on the [illegible] beside their table and told them I had a good thing for the Third Race - "CADET". I don't know what they acted but I finished my beer and went to dinner. I was only in there a few minutes. I wasn't taking any bets - just passing on a good tip. I'm interested in horses, but don't play them much just a shilling here or there when I get hold of a good thing.

I want to repeat that this whole business has been a shock to me because never at any time have I been guilty of disposing of stores to a my unauthorized Person whatsoever.

I have read over the above statement, which was taken down by me, and it is true.

THIRD STATEMENT OF:

R/Sgt. No. L-1161, S/Sgt. GRATRIX, R.J.
Clerks' Coy., No. 1 C.G.R.U., C.A.U. Command.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. NELSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

(SGD) R.J. GRATRIX

STATES:

I have read over the statements of L-16134, Sgt. GRENELL, N.A., dated 10 OCT 44, D-91032, Sgt. DAVIES, J.C., dated 11 OCT 44, and B-68451, CQMS MISKIMMINS, W., dated 12 OCT 44, and wish to state that prior to the occasion I mentioned, lunch-time on Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I never discussed the question of blankets with CQMS MISKIMMINS, nor did he discuss it in my presence. Further, the letter which Sgt. GRENELL says I had - the one which you took from me in LONDON - was passed round amongst the five of us. Who all read it I don't know, but it was not in my possession until later in the afternoon, when it was given to me by Sgt. DAVIES.

On the Sunday night DAVIES and I went to LONDON (1 OCT 44) I visited the Black Prince and Kings Arms Public House, Elephant and Castle, for the first time in my life, I had never frequented that area. To my knowledge arrangements were completed that night between "Ginger" and Sgt. DAVIES, "Ginger" was certainly arranging the disposal of the blankets. The civilian described by Sgt. DAVIES whom "Ginger" called over held a short conversation with "Ginger", and when Sgt. DAVIES interrupted, this man told him to "shut up" and left. The topic of conversation I do not know. I had never seen "Ginger" before and had no part in the arrangements for disposing of the blankets.

CQMS MISKIMMINS was at the same conversation at which the letter mentioned above was produced, and certainly knew of all the arrangements as to the loading and the intended destination (LONDON) of the blankets.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat or hope of favour, and it is true./ENDS.

STATES:

I have read over the statements of D-91032, Sgt. DAVIES, J.C., dated 11 OCT 44, and B-30451, CQMS MISKIMMINS, dated 12 OCT 44. I have no comments to make concerning the first.

Concerning the statement of CQMS MISKIMMINS I can only say that he was fully aware of the arrangements to get the blankets away from the Unit as I stated before. He was more responsible than anyone.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour to come, and it is true.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION

13 Oct 44

STATEMENT of:

H-59092, Pte. OLSEN, C.R.,
M.T. Sect., "A" Wing, [illegible] C.C.R.U.

STATES:

On 5 Oct 44, at 01:30 hrs., I was detailed for Government Siding, ALDERSHOT, but the detail was cancelled and my next detail, with Mob. Stores, at 08:30 hrs., was over-written on the same line of my Work Ticket. I was driving all morning within Unit Lines for CQMS MISKIMMINS. I was not particularly busy. I didn't handle any furniture.

After lunch at about 14:00 hrs., at the direction of CQMS MISKIMMINS, I drove him to the Hale Laundry near FARNHAM and picked up 800 blankets which we brought back to Blanket Stores at 1 C.C.R.U. Pte Merry T2068 went with us and also Pte. GOULD. They work in the Mob. Stores.

After I delivered the blankets, CQMS MISKIMMINS told me I would not be needed further, but to pick up another S/Sgt. near FARNHAM where he was working on stores, and bring him back to the Unit. That was around 15:00 hrs. I did this, and checked in my vehicle, No. L-765782, at 16:30 hrs. I had one more trip to Aldershot Station that day.

I know nothing of what was going on concerning theft of blankets that day, and know nothing much about it now.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION

13 OCT 44.

STATEMENT of:

Regt. No. B-96927, Cpl. JEFFRIES, J.C.M.,
Trnspt. Sect., "A" Wing, No. 1 C.C.R.U.

BEGINS:

I have been cautioned by S/Sgt. WILSON, of S.I.S., that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

To show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here. (SGD) J.C. JEFFRIES.

STATES:

I am Corporal Despatcher in the Transport Office, No. 1 C.C.R.U. On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, just before dinner, Rfn. DUDLEY, who drives L/[illegible] 6280, saw me as I was leaving the office and said CQMS MISKIMMINS would be needing another truck that afternoon to get blankets from the Hale Laundry over Farnham and asked if he could have the detail. I had no suspicion of any ulterior motive on his part, and just said "OK".

At approximately 15:00 hrs. in the Despatch Office I received the request for another 60 cwt. truck for FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH from CQMS MISKIMMINS. We already had one 60 cwt. with Pte. CLEMO at Mob. Stores. He said he wanted another one to get blankets at the Hale Laundry. We seldom uses more than one big truck at a time, but I put it down to an incoming draft. I said I'd have a truck over in about 15 minutes. We did not request any particular driver, but I told DUDLEY in mind because of his request, and despatched him at about 15:30 hrs. I made out his Work Ticket for the journey. I know nothing about the other Work Ticket you have in DUDLEY's particulars for WATFORD. It is not genuine. He must have pinched it and made it out himself. I still had no reason to suspect his motions, and the first I heard that he'd been mixed up in any trouble was next morning, when he was reported to have been picked up in LONDON. I was definitely not in on the deal, and have never at any time been mixed up intentionally in any crime where Unit transport may have been used.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour, and it is true./ENDS

8th Aug/44.

Statement by:- B-11[illegible], Gnr Wood, A.C.

Sir:-

On the 5th of Aug/44 I was detailed to take the Mob. Stores Sgt to Witley. We went to Witley and arrived there about 0900 hrs. He did numerous Barracks duties around the Camp. We then came back to Aldershot. We arrived back at Aldershot at about 1200 hrs. When we got back to Aldershot the Sgt said that he had to have the vehicle in the afternoon and would have to think up some way to wangle it. He then told me to report back to the garage and he would want me again at 1300 hrs. Then he said after you park the truck come to the N.A.A.F.I. and I will buy you a beer. I went to the N.A.A.F.I. and I had three (3) pints. I bought myself a pint and him. He bought the others. I then received a late meal chit from the Messing Sgt for a late lunch at Corunna Man's Mess. After lunch I picked up the Mob. Stores Sgt at his quarters in Corunna Barracks. He then got in the vehicle and said take me to Camberly. I drove him to where he wanted to go. I had explained to him that my Work Ticket was not to go out for Camberly. He replied; Oh that won't matter we won't be stopped anyway. The route I took to Camberly was via Cove. This brought us out by the Public House known to me now to be called by a name like Ellis. The Sgt said pull in here. This I did. We then said come on and have a drink. We went inside and he bought me two (2) pints of beer. The time was about 1400 hrs. We then left the Pub and he said take me this way. He directed me to a Teashop near Camberly where I understand the Mother of his girlfriend lives. We went inside and had a glass of lemonade. After this the Sgt said take me into Camberly to the girlfriends and I will only be about 10 min. After he came out from talking to the girl he directed me to return to Aldershot. We arrived back in Aldershot at about 1530 hrs. The Sgt then started to look around the Barracks for the Messing Sgt. We first went into Corunna Sgt's Mess. While there, the Messing Sgt bought me a half (½) pint of beer. The Sgt then said that we had to go to Maida Sgt's Mess. When we got there he told me to come in. The Mob. Stores Sgt then bought me a pint of beer and after I tasted it I noticed that there had been Gin put in it. We then left the Mess and went to the Messing Stores. The Messing Sgt then went away and got his pass. When he came back I drove the Two Sgts to Corunna Sgt's Mess and they bought some beer. They brought this out to the truck in a box. The Mob. Stores Sgt then told me to take the Messing Sgt to Witley. This I did. When we got to Witley I was directed by the Sgt to a house near the Priorsee Lumley. The Sgt got out; took the box that contained the beer with him and went in the house. He then called me. He gave me two half pints of beer. The time was about 1630 hrs. I then returned to Aldershot and the Mob. Stores Sgt as he had directed that I do this when I returned. I found him at his quarters. He was just getting cleaned up. When he had finished he told me to come and have my supper. This I did in the Man's Mess Corunna. The time by now was about 1830 or 1900 hrs. The Sgt then said he wanted to go to Camberly. When we got to Camberly he took me to Pub where we had a pint of beer that he bought. He then said take me to the Red Lion. He then directed me to it. (We had tried another one before this but it was shut). When we got to the Red Lion he bought me three Gins and Three pints of beer. I then took him to his girl friend's house in Camberly. The time was about 2130 hrs. He then said thats all I want. I then started for home. I came home via Cove. On the way to Cove I stopped the vehicle as I did not feel very well and thought I had better straighten myself up. I must have gone to sleep for a short while. When woke up I started right back for Camp. I arrived back at about 2320 hrs.

STATES:

I have been a driver at No.1 C.G.R.U. for over a year. I have never had much trouble in the M.T. Section, but on 5 AUG 44 I was driving CQMS MISKIMMINS who is H.C.O. i/c Mob. Stores at the Unit. He got me into trouble by taking me on a lot of unauthorized journeys and also getting me drunk. On 6 OCT 44 I was paraded before Capt. KLEIN, my O.C. I made to him a statement which he typed out and which I signed. It is the statement you have in your possession. The Mob. Stores Sgt. referred to is CQMS MISKIMMINS.

While I was driving him that day (I can't remember just when), CQMS MISKIMMINS said to me: "Some day when we get a chance you and I are going to make ourselves some money on some blankets. We'll get about forty or fifty Pounds apiece out of it". He meant that he wanted to get me to deliver some blankets for him some place where he would sell them. I didn't know what the set-up was, and made no promises. I didn't think very serious of the idea and heard no more about it from him or anybody else. He never sold anything that day when I was with him; but when I heard last week that my friend Rfn. DUDLEY was caught with a load of blankets I figured who it was who got him to take them in his truck.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

STATES:

I am attached to Accomodation Stores, 1 C.G.R.U., where, with one short absence of about 5 weeks last Summer I have been for about a year. I am a Storeman in that Department.

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I was working at the Accomodation Stores all day. I can't quite remember what I was doing during the morning, but after lunch I was at the Blanket Store emptying palliasses in company with Pte. TOZER, D., another Storeman. C/MS MISKIMMINS came over and told us to load 1000 dirty blanks into a 60cwt. truck driven by Dvr. OLSEN. We had about 1300 there in bundles of 10. At about 14:00 hrs. C/MS MISKIMMINS, Pte. TOZER and I went with the truck-load of blankets to the R.C.I. Laundry near ZAMMIT and left the blankets there to be cleaned. We then loaded 900 clean blankets for return to the Unit. We always exchange 1000 blankets at a time at the Laundry.

The reason why we did not bring the full 1000 back was that TOZER made a bad job of loading at the start, it was raining hard, and we couldn't see what we were doing without getting the last ones wet. C/MS MISKIMMINS made arrangements to collect the remaining 200 due on the following morning.

We got back at about 16:00 hrs., and TOZER and I unloaded the blankets into the store. Dvr OLSEN drove his truck away. About half-an-hour later another 60cwt. backed up to the store. C/MS MISKIMMINS arrived on his bicycle about the same time and said we had to load 900 clean blankets for Reception Coy. TOZER & I were a bit sore, having just unloaded them, but C/MS MISKIMMINS and the driver, to whom I paid no attention, gave us a hand, and I counted out the bundles. The driver stacked them in the truck.

I distinctly remember C/MS MISKIMMINS telling the driver: "Take that to Reception". They had a few words over there, so we didn't go with the truck, but C/MS MISKIMMINS followed the truck away on his bicycle. The driver never said anything at all. We worked fast because it was getting late. I do know that Reception Coy. had been hollering for blankets for several days. TOZER and I just went on working with the palliasses, and that's all I know about it.

At no time had I any reason to suppose that the blankets were to be taken elsewhere than to Reception Coy.

I have read over the above statement, and it is true.

STATES: (SGD) R. DUDLEY

I have read over the statement of B-96927, Cpl JEYNES, J.C.M., dated 13 OCT 44, and wish to state:

The man who asked me if I wanted to take the blankets to LONDON, and arranged it all for me was Cpl. JEYNES. I was willing to take the rap myself, and the only reason for not saying who he was at first was to keep him out of trouble if I could. I'm no squealer.

All I said in my other statement is true, except that I didn't steal the Work Ticket. During the afternoon after he spoke to me about the job Cpl. JEYNES came to me and gave me two work tickets. One he had made out as a sample for me to copy, and the other, which is the one you have, was blank. He told me to fill it in like the one he made out, and to destroy the sample for his protection. I did this that afternoon, and put the one he made out down the toilet in the Provost Lines opposite the Garage.

Cpl. JEYNES also told me I'd get about £15 for the job, and I figured he'd get a good cut out of it as well. He said: "You know who's running this, don't you?", and I said: "I have a pretty good idea" and left it at that. I figured it was COMS MISKIMMINS, and I'm sure that's who he meant. Next day he told me to fix up my truck and make sure I had enough.

I was busy that day like I said on a draft job. The first idea was to get the blankets from the laundry at FARNHAM, but when I didn't get back till 14:00 hrs. he said: "Never mind, you can pick them up at the Blanket Store", and made out my Work Ticket for 15:30 hrs. He knew I had the other one to cover me for the LONDON trip.

I never asked Cpl. JEYNES for the job - he asked me in the first place and fixed it all up himself. I never did any jobs before for COMS MISKIMMINS (taking stuff out, I mean) but I kind of figure others have, and I know Gnr. WOODS got caught over him once on a buckshee run when they got him drunk and he got back late.

I have read over the above statement, which I have made of my own accord, without fear of any threat or hope of favour to come, and it is the truth./ENDS

STATES:

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, at about 09:30 hrs., Sgt. JOHNS, of Clerks' Coy., 1 CCRU, came to me in the Despatch Office, M.T. Section, where I am in charge, and asked me if I could fix him with a big truck to take some blankets to LONDON. I asked him how long it would be needed and he said from about 16:00 hrs to 19:30 hrs. I said I'd let him know later, but he said he'd have to know before 2 o'clock. He said there would be about 700 blankets and that the driver and I would receive about £40 between us, depending on what they got for them. He didn't say who else was in the deal, but as the blankets were coming from Mob. Stores, I concluded that CQMS MISKIMMING was in it. I told him I'd fix it for him unless some emergency arose and I'd have to cancel it. He gave instructions that the truck was to be at the stop-lights in FARNHAM just below the Hale Laundry at exactly 15:55 hrs., when a Sergeant would be there to direct the driver. He didn't say what Sergeant. I stipulated that there was to be no drinking on the trip. I told Sgt. JOHNS to expect No. L-762820, as that was the logical vehicle for the job. He said "O.K.", and left the office.

I immediately left the office to contact Rfn. DUDLEY, the driver of the 60 cwt, L-762820, and met him outside the office. I asked him if he wanted to take a buckshee trip to LONDON, and mentioned that there would be roughly £15 in it for each of us. He agreed to take the trip, and I told him I'd fix up a sample of a work-ticket for him to make out to cover his journey. I gave him his directions as instructed, warning him also against drinking, and be careful with his driving. I picked DUDLEY because I knew him and knew I could trust him. He doesn't know LONDON, but I figured somebody would show him the way.

I returned to the office, and when I was alone I stamped two blank Work Tickets, making one out for DUDLEY to copy. I stamped it several times so that it would be unusable. At about 10:00 hrs. I met Rfn. DUDLEY at the Workshop door and gave him the two work-tickets with the warning that the sample work-ticket must be destroyed after he had copied it. He agreed to do this, and I told him that he was on his own hook once he was on the road with his vehicle. I later advised him to see he had enough gas. He did a trip to ALTON, and I gave him his Work Ticket for FARNHAM and FARNBOROUGH to cover him through the area at 15:20 hrs. I can remember no change of plan, and he must have received instructions elsewhere to go to Blanket Stores.

The driver for Mob. Stores that day was Pte. OLSEN, who was on that job the day before, and was warned that night that he would be needed again at 08:30 hrs., 5 OCT 44. At no time during that day was any call received at the Transport Office from Mob. Stores for another vehicle. Rfn DUDLEY was sent solely in consequence of the request of Sgt JOHNS that morning. I knew nothing of any further arrangements connected with the deal.

When I made my first statement on 13 OCT 44 I figured that to tell all I knew would do nobody any good. Now I feel it isn't fair for Rfn. DUDLEY to take all the blame. I have read his statements, dated 6 OCT 44 and 19 OCT 44, and with the exception of the differences I have pointed out above, his statement is correct to the best of my knowledge. I am quite sure that he has never been mixed up in anything of this kind before. Neither have I.

STATES;

I am attached to Accomodation Stores 3 CRU, where I have been working since JUNE, 1944.

On Thursday, 5 OCT 44, I was working in connection with a Decontamination Stores all day. I was with Gnr. GOULD all morning at the Blanket Store emptying pallisses. At noon CQMS MISKIMMINS, who was i/c Accomodation Stores, told us to be at the Blanket Store at about 14:00 hrs., as we were going to get blankets from the Hole Laundry, WARNHAM, having taken a thousand there to be cleaned a couple of days before. When the truck arrived, driven by Pte. O'HARA, CQMS MISKIMMINS, Gnr. GOULD and I went with it to the laundry at WINDSOR, where we started to load clean blankets in tandem with ten C.A.S.C. M.T. MISKIMMINS said we were going to take 700, as I wasn't too busy now I started loading. When I had loaded about 300 he said we'd better take 1000, but I hadn't piled them very tightly so only got 800 on. I'd have had no room for the 30 owc. we had, and could only get 800 on. I'd have had to empty the truck again to have taken the full thousand, but he said not to bother. It was raining that day, and if I'd put on more than 800 they'd have got wet at the back of the truck.

We brought the 800 blankets and unloaded them into the Blanket Store, and the truck went away. Gnr. GOULD and I stood there working on the pallisses for a half-hour or so when another 60 cwt. truck, driven by Pte. HADLEY, pulled up. I said him went he went, but he didn't seem to know, and said CQMS MISKIMMINS wanted him to report there. A minute or two afterwards CQMS MISKIMMINS came up on his bicycle and told us to load up 700 blankets for Reception Coy. We thought that kind of funny because we could have taken them at present over in the first place, but he said that's what they wanted now. So we just got busy and loaded them and the driver stacked them in the back of his truck. Gnr. GOULD carried out CQMS MISKIMMINS's instructions. I didn't hear any instructions given to the driver, but when we had finished loading at about 16:30 hrs. the truck pulled away with the blankets, and that's the last I saw of them. I figured they were for Reception Coy., and CQMS MISKIMMINS said we didn't have to go with the truck because there was a Petrique down there to unload it. I had no reason at all to suspect that there was anything wrong, and just went on with my work.

(Contd Over)

with my work/.

I didn't know anything happened until next day, when I heard some talk around the Camp that the truck-load of blankets had been picked up in LONDON.

I have read over the above statement, and it is correct./ENDS

When the truck was/loaded I began to feel a bit guilty and said to the driver, Pte. DUDLEY: "Slim, take them to Reception Coy. To Hell with it!" He said: "O.K., Bill", and drove off. He looked a bit scared, too. I thought he was going to do as I said, and even went down to Reception Coy. on my bike to see if he was there. I would have had them unloaded right there, the way I was feeling, honest to God, but he didn't show up. Neither Ptes. GOULD or TOEWS knew what was going on, and I really meant what I said to the driver. I knew something had gone wrong next morning when Capt. L.NE called me into his office to ask me about the truck which was missing. That is all I had to do with the deal, and I'm sorry now that I ever had any part in it. I was not short of money, and I honestly don't know whatever made me consent to it.

It is true that Reception Coy. needed more blankets, as those I had previously sent were dirty, and had to be replaced by clean ones. Some fellow I don't know tipped me off a few days previously that the police in ALDERSHOT were watching for a blanket deal that was supposed to be coming off, and that is why I was getting a bit scared about the whole thing.

The statements I previously made are partly untrue, because I know I had a surplus to cover the losses and I thought that I might be relieved of blame.

I admit that for a long time past I have been scrounging stuff to make good deficiencies in the Unit, but I can truthfully say that apart from the above two instances, when I disposed of stores to Sgt. GRAHELL, I have never sent anything to unauthorized persons, or sold or disposed of stores to civilians. I don't think that a complete Unit inventory would show any shortages in my department. It might even show a surplus.

I have read over the above statement, which has been made voluntarily, of my own free will, without fear of any threat, or hope of favour from any person or persons, and it is all true.

Lt Col D.L. Redman,
PERMANENT PRESIDENT, Courts Martial
HQ CRU.

F.C.C.M. - Tpr Dudley

1. At the recent Court Martial of the m/n CR, he declared that he had been threatened by myself, as officer taking the Summary of Evidence. He called, as witnesses, six CRs on whom a Summary was also being taken.

2. I feel that in view of his evidence, an explanation is required.

3. The nature of this threat was that I had stated that I would make a pitchfork out of the evidence against them by laying a great number of charges.

4. The facts are: when Dudley and the remainder of the accused appeared before me 1 Nov 44 for the purpose of taking a Summary of Evidence, I carefully explained to them their rights at the Summary; told them that if they had witnesses for the defence they could call them or not as they pleased; told them that in due course they would be given an opportunity of making a statement in regard to the charges but that they did not have to do this and also advised them as to their rights in cross-examining the witnesses. I then read the charge sheets to them; explained to them that the charges now laid against them were not necessarily the charges which would finally be laid; explained also that it was quite probable that more than one charge would be laid against them depending upon the evidence brought out at the summary.

5. At this point Dudley himself asked me why more than one charge would be laid and whether it was legal to do this. I told him that it was and in order to make the position clearer to him I stated that Law was like a pitchfork, that in committing a crime a man frequently runs afoul of one time of the fork and at the same time runs ~~xfxxx~~ into another, pointing out to him that he was charged with stealing blankets, that apparently his share in the crime was to drive a veh to London and that in doing so he laid himself open to a possible charge of illegal use of the veh. This is an explanation of the 'pitchfork' phrase, about which the accused talked at Dudley's trial.

6. I have taken a great many Summaries of Evidence and have always been particularly careful to explain the exact position of the accused. In this case I was even more careful than usual because of the serious nature of the charges. I took the precaution to see that all the accused thoroughly understood what was going on. Whenever any witnesses testified to any of the accused by name or when any evidence was brought out mentioning any of the accused, or in any way affected them, I invariably called the attention of the man concerned to the fact and made sure everything to him that at the end of the witnesses' evidence, he had the right to cross-examine him. I was particularly careful to do this in the case of Tpr Dudley, who obviously had only a vague idea of what was going on, and in the case of Sgt Jones, against whom the evidence was not particularly strong, but who was affected. [illegible] all the witnesses mentioned his name and all of the accused, [illegible] himself, had made statements involving him. None of the accused were in any way prejudiced in their defence by anything stated or done at this Summary. All of them were handled with great fairness and consideration and the entire Summary was taken in the strictest accord with the Rules of Procedure.

7. For your information, please.

On 6 Oct 44 I was recalled from a twenty four hour pass and told that truck No L 762026 had been stolen and was in London. I was told also that the permanent driver of the vehicle, Rifleman Dudley, whom I now recognize as one of the accused, was detained in London. I questioned my despatching staff as to what duties the vehicle had been on. The only permanent personnel on that staff are L/Cpl Warren, W.T. and Cpl Joynes, whom I now recognize as one of the accused. I found that the vehicle had been detailed to go to accomodation stores. That evening I brought to the attention of Cpl Joynes there was a letter written by the Quartermaster to the effect that vehicles would not be despatched to the accomodation stores unless a duit, signed by an officer had been presented [illegible] to that effect. He informed me that he had signed one and asked that the vehicle be despatched to the accomodation stores. He informed me it was a forgery. That caused me, who I now recognize as one of the accused. I was present when Cpl Joynes was interviewed by the S/Sgt Nelson from the Special Investigation Section and I was present when Rfn Dixon was brought in and interviewed, and I was present when L/Cpl Warren was interviewed. These people denied any knowledge of the circumstances.

The witness is shown exhibit "P"

That is a transport work ticket, army form 3518 made out from Aldershot to Watford on return detailed for the purpose of taking hospital blankets authorized by O.B.U. and it is alleged to have been signed by myself. It is not my signature and I did not sign it. I did not know of any authority for this trip as I was on a 24 hr pass. The only authority received would be correspondence direct to my second in command Lieut Draper, by the Adjutant.

That is a transport work ticket army form 3518. To all intents and purposes as far as I am concerned it is made out correctly. The last trip is Lieutenant Robertson Farnham and Farnborough which my signature made by Cpl Joynes with his initials above it

One is a transport work ticket army form 3518 and the other sheets are what I call drivers' call sheets on which all vehicles dispatched by the despatching office are supposed to be entered or with the exception of staff cars

The forenoon is very hazy to me but in the afternoon the main detail was down to the Hale Laundry near Farnham to pick up blankets, I believe it was seven or eight hundred. They were taken to the accomodation store-room at Corunna Barracks and unloaded there. After that I took S/Sgt Miskimmons over to the accomodation stores. After that he told me I was not needed any more with the exception of picking up another S/Sgt at Group Headquarters. The S/Sgt Miskimmons I speak of is one of the accused, whom I now recognize. I was told shortly after three o'clock I was not needed any more. That was early and I waited around for a while then went down to pick up this S/Sgt and took him up to the accomodation stores and then returned to the garage. Formally I would be dismissed from the accomodation stores between 4:30 and 5 o'clock.

We had a drink together and he then asked me if there was any possibility of getting a truck and mentioned there would be twenty or twenty five pounds in it for me if I could do so. I told him that I had nothing to do with the transport and was not interested in the matter. We talked for a while then left the mess. On 3 Oct 44 I started to set up the office in Corunna Lines and we were advised on the afternoon of that day to expect a draft in from Canada on the night of the fourth. Myself, Lieut Dunlap, and one of the Sgts went to the accomodation stores and told the QM'S in charge we needed four hundred and fifty blankets. He told us to go along to the storeman and we could draw the blankets we wanted. We went along and saw the storeman and drew I believe four hundred blankets. That was sufficient for the draft we expected and I ceased my connection with the company on the afternoon of 5 Oct 44 and at the time we did not order any more blankets nor did anyone else in the company. D 93614 Sgt Beecher, E.

The officer detailed to take the summary of evidence recalls a witness for the purpose of clearing up an ambiguity in the evidence given by this witness.

CAPT C E LAKE. Examined by the officer detailed to take the summary

Q.1 You have been recalled to clear up an ambiguity in your evidence in regard to the shortage in blankets. You stated in your evidence that a blanket check showed there were seven to eight hundred short, It is not clear to me whether you mean that there are seven to eight hundred blankets short including the blankets alleged to have been discovered in London, or whether you mean there are an additional seven to eight hundred missing.

A.1. I have here a recapitulation of the blanket check taken by Canadian Barrack Services, submitted to me by Lieut Fraser, Assistant Quartermaster. The actual amount of blankets checked totals 8900 even. There were approximately 50 blankets that were not checked in the pioneers quarters and 50 blankets with the medical company which they had out on a scheme that day. That makes a grand total of 9000 checked

The unit long roll figures were 6824 as of that date left a surplus of of 176 blankets. Taking into consideration the 700 already in London not checked by the Canadian Barrack Services makes a total SURPLUS of 876 blankets
Mr Fraser and I calculated as closely as possible the of G 1098 blankets belonging to individuals on unit all of whose G 1098 blanket were counted in the check.
Taking the units strength as of that date less the incoming drafts in Reception Company we calculated that there were approximately 966 G 1098 blankets in possession of the individuals. This can only be approximate as in the length of time that the check was made it was impossible to get the exact figure. The surplus of 876 blankets against our approximation of 966 G 1098 blankets showed an apparent shortage of 90. This figure could of course be wrong to the extent of 200 either way, depending upon how accurate our estimation was of G 1098 blankets. When I speak of this day I mean Oct 11th, 1944, the day of the check.

The accused B 96927 Cpl Joynes, J.C.M., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas on strength of No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit having been duly sworn states that:-

"On the morning of the 5th of October, 1944, at about 0930 hrs, Sgt Johns, whom I now recognize, came to me in the motor transport office and asked me if he could get a vehicle to handle some blankets going up to London. These blankets were to be delivered in London at exactly 1830 hrs. I understood that these blankets were to be sold to someone in London. Sgt Johns told me that if I would arrange the vehicle, the driver and I would get approximately £15-0-0 each, depending upon the price received for the blankets. I said that I would do so provided I could get a driver and provided that an emergency demanding the use of a lot of transport did not come up during the day. I had in mind Rifleman Dudley as the driver of the vehicle. Sgt Johns said he would have to know by 1400 hrs that day and was not satisfied unless I could tell him right away, so I said I would let him have the vehicle, intending that if anything came up that I could not use it, not to bother letting him know differently. Sgt Johns told me to have the vehicle just below the stop-lights on the Upper Hale road at exactly 1555 hrs, where it would pick up another Sgt. I understood that the blankets were to be obtained from the Hale laundry. I went out into the yard, met Dudley and asked him if he would do this. He agreed to do so. I then made out a ticket for the trip, filling it out, and then stamping it several times with the unit motor transport stamp, so that that particular ticket could not be used. I then gave Dudley a blank work ticket already stamped and told him to copy on it exactly what I had written on the first ticket. He was then to destroy the first ticket, the reason for this was so that if he was stopped or anything went wrong, my handwriting would not show up on the work ticket. I also told Dudley that once he set out he was strictly on his own and that I had no knowledge of the deal whatsoever. I also told him to make sure his tanks were full so that he would have enough gas to get to London and back, and so that he would not have to draw any anywhere. About 1500 hrs I got Dudley's genuine work ticket on which he had been operating on legitimate business, and made an entry on it for a journey via Farnham and Farnborough. The purpose of this was to protect him until he met the Sgt at the stop-lights in Hale, pick up the blankets, and was out of the immediate area of Aldershot. Once out of the immediate area of Aldershot his London ticket would protect him. As far as I know Dudley has never been mixed up in any illegal involving transport before. The only reason I approached him was I knew he was broke and going on leave soon. I have never been mixed up myself in anything like this before either.

Officer taking summary

New Scotland Yard.
9th. October, 1944.

STATEMENT of Ernest Cook, Detective Sergeant, New Scotland Yard , who saith:-

At about 8.15 pm., on 5th, October, 1944, I received information that a soldier in the Canadian Army had been endeavouring to dispose of a load of blankets which he had brought on a lorry to Walworth. With Detective Sergeant Webb and other Officers I went to Walworth Road, Walworth, S.E., and after searching the vicinity saw an Army lorry Index No. CL 76RG80 parked by the side of the road about 100 yards from the Elephant and Castle and facing South. The lorry was covered with a tarpaulin sheet secured by ropes.

We went up to the lorry and saw DUDLEY who was in the drivers seat. I said to him, "We are Police Officers. What are you doing here? . He said "I am waiting for my Sergeant who has gone to get something to eat". I said to him "Where are you from. Where are you going and what load have you got on?". DUDLEY replied, "I'm from Aldershot and I am taking a load of blankets to Watford . I said "What are you doing here, you are miles off your route". He said "I am only acting on instructions". I then asked him where his Sergeant had gone to and he said "I haven't any idea".

I looked under the tarpaulin covering and ascertained that there was in fact a large quantity of blankets on the lorry. I told DUDLEY that I was not satisfied with his explanation and that I was going to make enquiries with a view to verify his statements. He then handed me a printed form showing particulars of a load of blankets to be taken from Aldershot to Watford, saying, "This is my authority". I told him that I was still not satisfied and that enquiries would be made. DUDLEY then said "I will tell you the truth. The blankets are stolen. I made the particulars out myself and my Sergeant told me what to do and where to go".

I then left an Officer in the lorry with DUDLEY whilst we kept observation in the vicinity. At about 10.15 pm., I saw CROTTY, who had come from the direction of the Elephant and Castle, endeavouring to climb into the cabin of the lorry. I went up to him and [illegible] are Police Officers, are you in charge of this lorry?". He said "Yes". Sergeant Webb said "Can you explain what you are doing with it . CROTTY said "I am taking a load of blankets to Watford". He was then asked if he had been to any [illegible] he replied "I have been drinking with some friends". Sergeant Webb asked him who his friends were and CROTTY said "I don't know. I have only met them casually to-night". He paused and then added "As a matter of fact I have been with another soldier from my Unit but I am not saying who he is". Sergeant Webb then said "I have reason to believe that the blankets are stolen". CROTTY said "I don't think so".

I then said to DUDLEY and CROTTY "I am not satisfied with your explanation, you are going to be arrested and taken to the Police Station where you will be detained pending enquiries". I cautioned them. CROTTY said "I don't know what it is all about". DUDLEY did not reply. They and the lorry were taken to Carter Street Police Station.

The Canadian Military Police Headquarters were then informed of the detention of DUDLEY and CROTTY and later Staff Sergeant Nelson, R.C.M.P. Canadian Military Police attended and took both men into his custody. I handed to Staff Sergeant Nelson the printed form obtained from DUDLEY.

This statement is true.

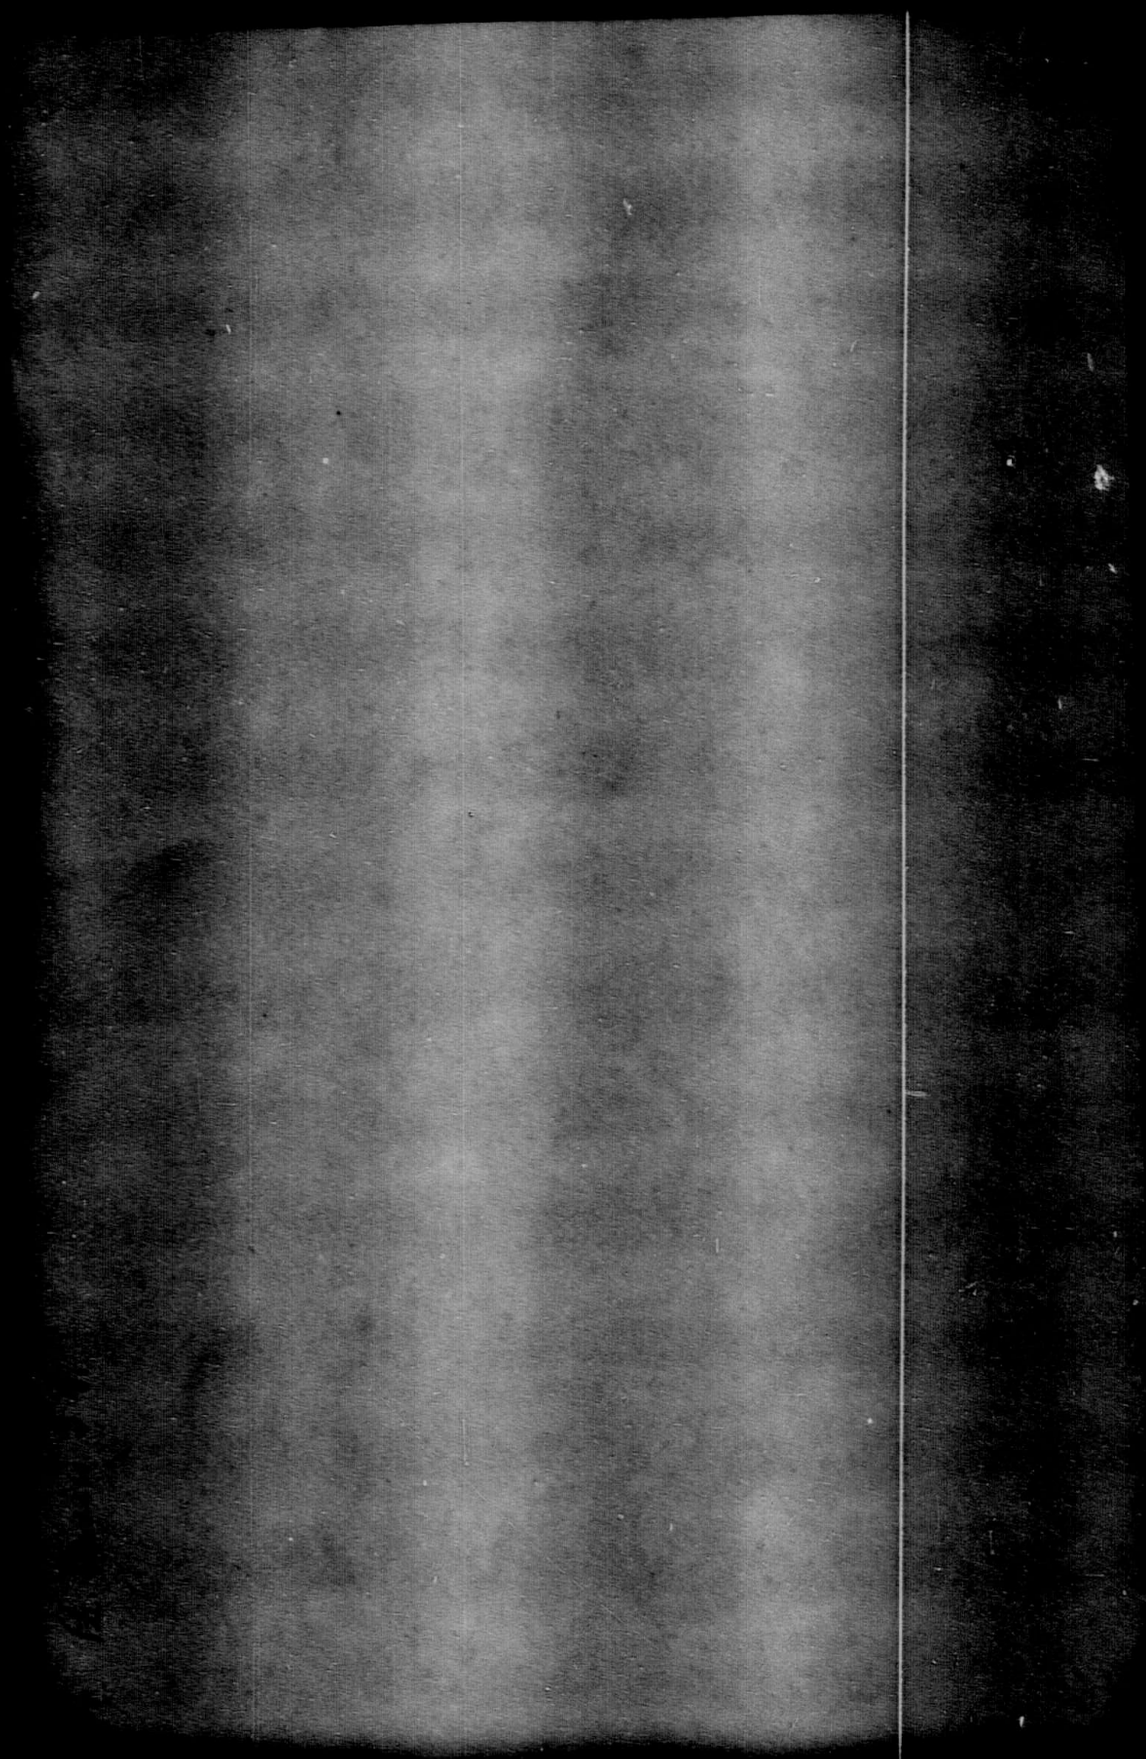
Flying Squad Office,
New Scotland Yard.
9th October, 1944.

STATEMENT of Albert WEBB, Detective Sergeant, New Scotland Yard, who saith:-

At 8-15 p.m., 5th October, 1944, I went with Detective Sergeant Cook and other officers to Walworth Road, S.E., where I saw an Army lorry Index No. GL-762820.

We approached the lorry and saw Dudley in the driver's seat. Sergeant Cook told him we were police officers and said, What are you doing here?" Dudley said, "I am waiting for my sergeant. He has gone to get something to eat." Sergeant Cook said, "Where are you from, where are you going, and what load have you got?" Dudley replied, "I've come from Aldershot and I'm taking blankets to Watford." Sergeant Cook pointed out that Dudley was miles out of his route and Dudley said, "I am only acting on instructions." Asked where his sergeant had gone to he said, "I haven't any idea."

We looked under the tarpaulin covering of the lorry and saw piles of blankets. Sergeant Cook told Dudley he was not satisfied with his story and that he would have to verify his statements. Dudley then handed Sergeant Cook an Army Form giving particulars of a load of blankets to be taken from Aldershot to Watford. Dudley said, "This is my authority." Sergeant Cook told him that further enquiries would have to be made and Dudley said, "I will tell the truth. The blankets are stolen. I made the particulars out myself. My sergeant told me what to do and where to go."



Leaving an officer in charge of the lorry we kept observation in the vicinity and at about 10-15 p.m. Gratrix came from the direction of the Elephant & Castle and endeavoured to climb into the lorry. We approached him and I said to him, "We are police officers. Are you in charge of this lorry?" He said, "Yes." I asked him to explain what he was doing with it and he said, "I am taking a load of blankets to Watford." I then asked Gratrix if he would give an explanation as to where he had been during the previous two hours and he said, "I have been drinking with some friends. I asked who his friends were and Gratrix said, "I don't know. I have only met them casually to-night." He then added, "As a matter of fact I have been with another soldier from my Unit. I am not saying who he is." I then said to him, "I have reason to believe that the blankets are stolen," and Gratrix replied, "I dont think so."

Sergeant Cook then said to Dudley and Gratrix, "I am not satisfied with your explanations. You are going to be arrested and detained pending enquiries." He continued then and Gratrix said, "I dont know what it is all about." Dudley made no reply.

They were both then taken to Carter Street Police Station with the lorry and later Staff Sergeant Nelson, S.I.B., Canadian Military Police, attended and took both men into custody.

Defending Officer -- Up until Davies committed the civil offence the military offences are really of a minor character. He feels his position keenly and knows that his actions since that time have been hard on his mother. He is sole support of his mother. By reason of his being confined in a civil jail his leave was put back three months. He just couldn't take it. He has now committed himself to further responsibilities which will make him settle down. He is category "A" and a good man and wants to be a good soldier. These added responsibilities he wants to assume will, I think, steady him down and make him think longer before taking any action in the future.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

Plea in mitigation in the case of E14212 Pte Davies, J.

The Court has decided to find the accused guilty, and I cannot now question that decision.

Davies has a static vehicle. Daily maintenance is his sole duty in camp. This he completes by 0930 hrs at the latest. Since coming to the Anglo he has not be ordered to any other tasks. To relieve the monotony he has asked to take out the water vehicle. He has not been checked for missing parades. The Home Fort Corps is here for rest and relaxation. He has not been told to stay around camp. He had every reason to believe he had freedom when his duties were completed to come and go. Indeed he was told by the duty officer it was unnecessary to check out when washing his vehicle for it was static. Why should he then have to check out himself? He was certainly not absent for five hours and forty minutes. The drunkenness of Davies has been proved beyond a doubt. This is submitted. He was not responsible for his actions lies through with the escort. I request the Court to enter a finding of Guilty.

Pl. Counsel for defense
Davies has performed efficiently all the duties given to him and witnesses that he has been invited in no accident.
I call attention to Davies willingness to work and his look of duties while his caravan is stopped.
When my guard was at the Prisoner of War cage between Mijdrecht and Cyprano, Davies came to our camp. I asked him what he was doing there.
He replied that he had volunteered to drive some of the Dutch trucks and take prisoners back to the Army Cage: his vehicle was packed but he had nothing else to do.
I ask for the utmost leniency on the part of the Court in the punishment of defendant.
Pt Davies.

Shortly afterwards I heard a commotion going on & went over to the lany. The accused was out of the lany & going towards Gnr. Jones, one of the guards, who told him to get back or he would shoot. I have to have permission to wash my vehicle. I was around when not doing duties. I had missed a good many parades. I had only been checked once for this, about 2 mos ago. Closing Address by the Defense in the case of E 14212 Pte Davies J.

Pte Davies is charged with being AWL from 1000 hours, 13 June to 1530 hours on that date. The prosecution has established Davies absence from the 1330 parades. It has failed to prove his absence after that time. No one who endorsed the said Davies between Parade hours was produced in Court. Reliance is placed solely on Sgt. Thomsins evidence, whereas told Davies could not be found this is hearsay evidence, unsatisfactory and inadmissable
Indeed it is not established that the accused was AWL at all. He was never ordered to stay around camp, nor checked per he has a static vehicle and daily maintenance in the morning which he had completed, concludes his duties for the day. He had never refused to perform other duties.
Unless he engaged in some duties during the day he would be completely idle. Considering that corps is in this camp for rest and adaptation Davies had every right to believe he proved [illegible] freedom during the day to amuse himself. Pte Davies was not AWL at all. Certainly he was not drunk for hours and hours.

The second charge deals with resisting an escort, something Davies undoubtedly did. But it has been established conclusively that Davies was drunk — thoroughly so. He and a friend had consumed a full bottle of liquor, and beside wine in quantity.

The defense has established that a large and noisy crowd were gathered around the detention barracks. The guards and the crowd were baiting Davies, and today on the true drunks in detention calling them dirty bastards and drunken fools, thoroughly disgusting them. It was only natural for Davies to respond as he did, drunk and provoked.

Davies was drunk, aggravated, not responsible for his actions when he tussled with the guard. I contend Davies should not be found guilty of the second charge.

Prosecution and Court have chosen to drop the third charge against the accused. I submit he must be found not guilty of the charges remaining.

FIRST WITNESS: B86217 L/Cpl. Dawson C. R. on strength 1 Cdn Corps Car Coy RCASC CMF having been duly sworn states:

"I am L/Cpl. C. R. Dawson, NCO i/c despatching office "A" Platoon 1 Cdn Corps Car Coy RCASC. At approximately 1530 hrs 13 Jun 44 I saw Pte. Davies in the town of Alife. I realized that he was absent from his duty so I ordered him to return to the camp with me. He came along and we entered camp at approximately 1545 hrs. After Davies had been confined to the Detention Vehicle he climbed out of the truck along Page and Gayhart. The guard told ~~him~~ them to get back or he would shoot. Davies replied, "I won't and you haven't the guts to shoot." He then grabbed the barrel of the guard's rifle and pointed it at his own stommach and said, "Now, pull the trigger. If you won't I will." Then the guard and Davies started to wrestle with the rifle. The guard gained control of the rifle and Davies climbed back in the vehicle. That is all I know of the case.

Q. Were you sent to pick us up?

A. No.

Q. Were we drunk or simply under the influence?

A. Merely under the influence.

Q. In your mind were we capable of carrying out our duties?

A. Yes, certain duties.

Q. Were we capable of driving a vehicle?

A. Not to my satisfaction.

C. R. Dawson L/Cpl.
B86217 L/CPL. Dawson C. R.

Second Witness: L7329 Sgt. Morrison R. A. on strength 1 Cdn Corps Car Coy RCASC CMF having been duly sworn states:

"I am L7329 Sgt. R. A. Morrison, Platoon Sgt of "A" Platoon 1 Cdn Cps Car Coy RCASC. On 13 Jun 44 at approximately 1000 hrs Pte. Davies was missed from his place of duty. On the 1330 parade roll call was called and Pte. Davies was absent. I detailed Cpl. Anning to make a search of the area which he did and reported to me at 1430 hrs that Pte. Davies could not be located in the area. I reported the absence of Pte. Davies to Lieut. J. R. Watson, my platoon officer. Lieut. Watson warned me to place Pte. Davies under open arrest on his return. At 1545 hrs 13 Jun 44 Pte. Davies returned to the park. He was questioned immediately as to his whereabouts between 1000 and 1545 hrs. He stated that he had been in the company of Pte. C. Page and Pte. C. Gayhart and that they had been washing WD vehicle M4232732. The three soldiers, Davies, Page and Gayhart were then asked where the vehicle was. Gayhart and Page replied that the vehicle had been involved in an accident and vehicle No. M4232732 was at present in Coy Wksp. At this point it became quite obvious that the three men were under the influence of liquor. Lieut. Watson asked Page if he had been drinking to which Page replied, "Certainly we had a drink but after the accident." Mr. Watson ordered me to place the three men under close arrest immediately, which I did. That is all I know of the case."

Q. Was I drubk or simply under the influence of liquor?

A. I am not a medical man and am not qualified to determine the extent of drunkeness or the extent of being under the influence but would say that you had been drinking."

.....
L7329 Sgt. Morrison R. A.

Third Witness: Lieut. J. R. Watson of 1 Cdn Cps Car Coy RCASC CMF having been duly sworn states:

"I am OC "A" Platoon 1 Cdn Cps Car Coy RCASC. At approximately 1000 hrs 13 Jun 44 Sgt. R. A. Morrison reported to me that he was under the impression that Pte. Davies was absent from his duty. I ordered Sgt. Morrison to investigate the absence and he later reported that on the Platoon parade at 1330 hrs that Pte. Davies failed to answer his name. He stated that a thorough search of the camp area had been made. At approximately 1545 hrs 13 Jun 44 Davies returned to the car park in company with two soldiers, namely Gayhart and Page, who were also suspected of being absent. I questioned Davies as to his absence and he replied in a voluble and abusive manner. I realized that he was under the influence of alcoholic drink so ordered Sgt. Morrison to place him in close arrest. Prior to being placed under close arrest Davies stated that he had been in the company of Gayhart and Page during the day. He stated that he had accompanied Pte. Page to aid in washing the vehicle at 0630 hrs. He was unauthorized to make this journey. That is all I know of the case."

Q. Was I capable of properly performing my duties?

"I am Gnr. H. G. Jones, a driver in 1 Cdn Cps Car Coy RCASC. On 13 Jun 44 between 1500 hrs and 1600 hrs I was detailed as a guard over the Detention Lorry. Having assumed my ~~ix~~ duties for about five minutes an arguement ~~arose~~ between a Cpl. and one of the prisoners. During the arguement the three prisoners got out of the vehicle. Pte. Davies more or less fell out of the vehicle so I figured he was drunk. I told the three prisoners to get back in the vehicle or I would shoot. They started back in the truck and Pte. Davies spun around and grabbed hold of my rifle. We tussled for a moment and I got control of the rifle. I told Davies he was sticking his neck out. Davies apologized and got back in the truck."

Q. Was L/Cpl. Dawson at the scene at the time?

A. I cannot say as I have no recollection of seeing L/Cpl. Dawson there.

On the way round I saw a Car Coy jeep on the side of the road with Ptes Davies, Geyhart and Page beside it. I stopped and asked them if I could assist them. They asked me if I could tow them to camp. I looked at the vehicle and found that the steering was broken. I could not tow the vehicle so I returned to camp and informed Wksp who sent a breakdown to bring in the vehicle. That is all I know of the case.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex.....initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (i).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No.(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (his) (~~his~~) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB. If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 80(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Yes. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. Not. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. No.

joined 10 CIB on May 29, copy from No 1 CASRE. I was with the unit only one hour. when I was transferred to Ha Sqn as waiter. I was a waiter in the Officers mess.

I was excused parades and so did not remember attending the Regtl Roll Parade. Sgt Hoddes the Mess Steward would arrange for me on parades.

when I returned to 10 CIB Coy I was posted to B Pl. I was now found for O/S duties.

On July 1st, 1944 I was issued with the 12 hr pass expiring at 2359 hrs. I went to Aversa to see my wife to arrange arrangements concerning a separation. I had attempted to see her before without success. I could not see me and I was disgusted and demoralized so I started away until I got myself up. I was worried over what could happen to me.

I was sent to A/I, CASRE about 2 or 4 under close arrest. I was charged with and for 10 days 2200 hrs 6 minutes for the period of the present charge. and returned for Records. To summary was taken. I was appears before the C.O after being warned.

I came over not under arrest and was first placed under arrest at 10 Sn CRASH - From then I must be my present unit as draft and not under arrest.

I did not know I was going to be tried and when I left England I thought the case was all worked out

X Exam. I did not read Part I orders for at Hq Sqn. I know what Part I orders mention ally. and know that any one is required to read Part I orders.

When I came back to B Pl 10 CRS Sqy I did not see any outstanding preparations for embarkation. It was a busy Pl. - getting pilots and posted in - up in the air.

I did not see any notice posting going on in unit lines.

I was under the impression the D Day was 6 June. I did have an idea that the Div would be going O/S some day but did not know when. I knew 7 day leaves had been cancelled. I did not hear Part I orders read in B Pl as we often parades. During the period of my absence I made no attempt to get in touch with the unit without authority to surrender. I did not know if my unit had gone O/S or not.

I did not communicate with anyone in 10 CRS Sqy about concerning my family troubles.

making a change in the name cused was on parade. I satisfied myself accused was on

At this time (12 Jun 44) the also so attached on 8 June 44.

The accused reported to the present. Nobody was off this parade from the Coy; everybody was there. I cannot recall making the change in the initials of the accused on the parade state.

It would not be possible for anyone to be absent from the parade.

joined 10 CIB on May 28, Corps from No 1 CASH. I was with the unit only one hour. when I was transferred to H.Q. Sqn as waiter. I was a waiter in the H.Q.'s mess.

I was issued parades. and do not remember attending the Rush-Roll Parade. Sgt Hollett the Mess Steward would arrange for our parades.

when I returned to 10 CIB coy I was posted to B Pl. I was issued boots for G.S. service.

On July 1st, 1918 I was issued with the 14 day pass expiring at 2359 hrs. I went to Huron to see my wife to come to some arrangement concerning a separation. I had attempted to see her before without success. I could not see her and I was disgusted and demoralized so I stayed away until I got myself up. I was worried about what would happen to me.

I was sent to No 1 CASH about 29 Oct 18 under close arrest. I was charged with and for 10 days 2300 hrs 6 minutes for the period of the present charge. Was remanded for F.G.C.M. No summary was taken. I never appeared before the C.O. after being remanded.

Some days after I was put on draft and there were many. I was not sure in Taplow.

I came over not under arrest. and was first placed under arrest at 18 Bn CSM H- From then I went to my present unit as draft and not under arrest.

I did not know I was going to be tried and when I left England I thought the case was all worked out

Lt Evans. I did not read Part I orders 6 Jun at HQ Gp. I knew what Part I orders contain generally. and knew that any man is required to read Part I orders.

When I came back to B Pl 10 CWB Coy I did not see any outstanding preparations for embarkation. It was a busy Pl. - getting packs and packed up in the army book.

I did not see any waterproofing going on in unit lines.

I was under the impression the Coy was 6 Jun. I did have an idea that the Coy would be going O/S some day but did not know when. I knew Xmas leave had been cancelled. I did not hear Part I orders read in B Pl nor the company parades. During the period of my absence I made no attempt to get in touch with the military authorities to surrender. I did not know if my unit had gone O/S or not.

I did not communicate with anyone in 10 CWB Coy about concerning my family troubles.

I saw my wife's letter and when I mentioned my wife was coming up, so I decided to stay until I had seen my

On or about 12 June 44, at a Muster Parade of HQ Sqn, 4 CAD, I read to all personnel on strength and attached fap to HQ Sqn, 4 CAD, a Special Warning Order for Service Overseas, namely 2 Cdn Corps Routine Order 353, dated 27 May 44. This Order was republished in my Unit Daily Orders, Part I, No. 43, dated 8 June 44 and signed by myself for the OC HQ Sqn, 4 CAD. B75893 Pte. I clearly remember explaining this Order in detail and advised everyone to ask questions of me if the Order was not understood fully. Some questions were asked and I made answer to these. After assuring myself that all understood, the parade was dismissed.

A Certified True Copy of the original 2 Cdn Corps Routine Order 353, dated 27 May 44 is submitted as Exhibit "A".

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS Capt., O.J. Beatty, HQ Sqn 4 Cdn Armd Div
sworn states:

I am 2i/c and adj of HQ Sqn 4 Cdn Armd Div. About 12 June 44 a muster parade was held of HQ Sqn and I used 2 Cdn Corps R.O. 353 d/29 May 44. I asked for questions. Some questions were asked and answered by me. I stated everyones number and name clearly and remember making a change in the name of the accused on the muster roll. From this I recall that the accused was on parade. I satisfied myself everyone heard the order.

(2 Cdn Corps RO 353 d/29 May 44 admitted as Exhibit "A" read by the president. A certified true copy thereof compared by the court and attached to the proceedings. The original returned to Capt Beatty.)

This order was republished in Unit Part 1 order No 43 d/8 June 44 and posted in prominent places in unit lines.

(With Part 1 order No 43 d/8 June 44 admitted as Exhibit "B" and read by the President. A Certified true copy thereof compared by the Court and attached to the proceedings. The original returned to Capt Beatty.)

The Service increment Officer Lt F.H. Horncastle was present and certified to the correctness of that muster roll which I read.

(Muster roll admitted as Exhibit "C" and the name of the accused read by the president. A certified true copy thereof compared by the court and attached to proceedings. The original returned to Capt Beatty.)

I cannot actualy recall seeing the accused on the parade.

At this time (12 Jun 44) the accused was attached fap from 10 CIB Coy RCASC and also was so attached on 8 June 44 The accused ceased to be attached and was absent 24 June 44 when he went back to 10 CIB Coy RCASC.

Cross-exam;

The accused was a mess waiter in "A" Mess. I knew the accused in my capacity as adjutant. On muster parades everybody should be present. Nobody was off this parade from that Sqn ; everbody was there. I cannot recall making the change in the initial of the accused on the parade itself. It would not be possible for anyone to be absent from that parade.

No Re-exam

Examined by Court

At the Muster Parade to ensure I had warned everyone, I marched the men from one group to another as their names were called. During the period of 12 Jun - 24 Jun 44 leaves were suspended, D Day had come along and passed, waterproofing was well underway clothing parades had been held. and it was generel knowledge that we were going somewhere.

RP 83 (B) Complied with.

SECOND WITNESS

K-49027 Sgt Dando, A.M.S, HQ Pl. 10 CIB Coy RCASC, Sworn states:

Am O.R. Sgt I produce certified true copy of the Record of the declaration of the Court of Inquiry relating to the accused. the accused returned to our unit in Jun 44 and was with us during a portion of July :

Certified true copy of Declaration admitted as Exhibit "D"
I produce certificate of apprehension relating to the accused admitted as Exhibit "E" During the period 24 June to 15 Jul preparation for overseas service was going on. and waterproofing was completed passes were given until midnight.

Cross-examination

The accused was S.O.S. after his absence . I dont know whether the accused was warned in accordance with Exhibit "A" . The accused was with the Coy only one day before he went to HQ sqn on attachment.

No Re-exam.

Exam by Court

We were located at Cressborough about 15 July 44 . 24 hrs passes were cancelled a short time but were permitted for a time again. The Unit left the Cave area 18 July and arrived at marshaling area 18 July . We left in parties for Overseas in the next 4 or 5 days. The accused did not go overseas with the Unit

The witness desires to correct his evidence by stating that the accused was with the Unit a very short time and not one day before proceeding on attachment to HQ sqn.

R.P. 83(B) Complied with.

DEFENCE

B-75893 Pte Davies, H.R. 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy, RCASC sworn states:

Joined 10 CIB in 23 May 44 came from No 1 CASRU. I was with the Unit only an hour when I was transferred to HQ Coy as waiter I was a waiter in the GOC's mess.

I was excused parades and so not remember attending the muster roll parade. Sgt Walters the Mess steward would answer for me on parades.

When I returned to 10 mC.I.B. Coy I was posted to B Pl. I was never warned for overseas Service.

On 15 July 1944 I was issued with a 12 hr pass expiring at 2359 hrs. I went to London to see my wife , to come to some arrangement concerning a seperation. I had attempted to see her before without success. I could not see her and I was disgusted and demoralized so I stayed away untill I gave mys lf up. I was worried about what would happen to me. I was sent to No 1 CASRU about 29 Oct under close arrest. I was charged with absent for 100 days 22 hrs 56 Min for that period of the present charge. and remanded for FGCM. No summary was taken I once appeared before the CO after being remanded . Several days after I was put on draft and came overseas . I was not tried in England I came over not under arrest and was first put under arrest at 12 Bn CBRG from there I went to my present Unit on draft and not under arrest. I did not know I was going to be tried and when I left England I thought the case was all washed out.

Cross-exam;

I did not read Part 1 orders 6 Jun at HQ Coy . I have read Part I orders occasionally and know that every man is required to read Part I orders . When I came back to B Pl 10 CIB Coy I did not see any outstanding preparations for embarkation. It was a busy Pl. getting petrol and picked it up in 1 Cdn Army Lorries . I did not see any waterproofing going on in Unit Lines . I was under the impression that D day was the 6 Jun. I did have an idea that the Div would be going overseas some day but did not know when I knew 7 day leaves had been cancelled. I did not hear Part 1 orders read in B pl on any of the afternoon parades. During the period of my absence I made no attempt to get in touch with the military authorities to surrender . I did not know if my unit had gone overseas or not .

I did not communicate with anyone in 10 CIB Coy RCASC cocerning my family troubles.

Re-exam: None

Examined by Court

I saw my wife's mother and when I understood my wife was avoiding me , so I intended to stay until I had seen my wife, I lived with friends just outside of London.

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS Capt., C.J. Beatty, HQ Can 4 Cdn Armd Div
sworn states:

I am 21/c and adj of HQ Can 4 Cdn Armd Div. About 12 June 44 a muster parade was held of HQ Can and I used 2 Cdn Corps R.O. 353 d/20 May 44. I asked for questions. Some questions were asked and answered by me. I stated everyones number and name clearly and remember making a change in the name of the accused on the muster roll. From this I recall that the accused was on parade. I satisfied myself everyone heard the order.

(2 Cdn Corps HQ 353 d/20 May 44 admitted as Exhibit "A" read by the president. A certified true copy thereof compared by the court and attached to the proceedings. The original returned to Capt Beatty.)

This order was republished in Unit Part 1 order No 43 d/8 June 44 and posted in prominent places in unit lines.

(Unit Part 1 order No 43 d/8 June 44 admitted as Exhibit "B" and read by the President. A Certified true copy thereof compared by the Court and attached to the proceedings. The original returned to Capt Beatty.)

The Service Increment Officer Lt E.H. Hornestle was present and certified to the correctness of that muster roll which I read.

(Muster roll admitted as Exhibit "C" and the name of the accused read by the president. A certified true copy thereof compared by the court and attached to proceedings. The original returned to Capt Beatty.)

I cannot actually recall seeing the accused on the parade.

At this time (12 Jun 44) the accused was attached 2nd from 10 CIB Coy HQ and also was so attached on 8 June 44. The accused ceased to be attached and was absent 24 June 44 when he went back to 10 CIB Coy HQ.

Cross-examined:

The accused was a mess waiter in "A" Mess. I knew the accused in my capacity as adjutant. On muster parades everybody should be present. Nobody was off this parade from that 2 p.m.; everybody was there. I cannot recall making the change in the initial of the accused on the parade itself. It would not be possible for anyone to be absent from that parade.

No Re-ex m

Examined by Court

At the Muster Parade to ensure I had warned everyone, I scrubbed the men from one group to another as their names were called. During the period of 12 Jun - 24 Jun 44 leaves were suspended, Other than some slight unrest, waterproofing was all underway clothing parades had been held. and it was general knowledge that we were going somewhere.

SECOND WITNESS

W-39027 Sgt Brode, A.E.F., HQ Pl. 10 CIB Coy RCASC, sworn states:

By C.O. Sgt I am in the certified true copy of the Record of the deliberation of the Court of Inquiry relating to the accused. The accused reported to our unit on 24 Jun 44 and was with us during a portion of July .

Certified true copy of Declaration admitted as Exhibit "B"
I produce certificate of apprehension relating to the accused admitted as Exhibit "C" During the period 24 June to 15 Jul preparation for overseas service was going on. and waterproofing was completed passes were given until midnight.

Cross-examination

The accused was "A.O.". after his absence . I dont know whether the accused was warned in accordance with Exhibit "A" . The accused was with the Coy only one day before he went to Hospn on attachment.

No Re-exam.

Exam by Court

We were located at Grassborough about 15 July 44 . 24 hrs passes were cancelled a short time but were permitted for a time again. The Unit left the Cove area 14 July and arrived at marshalling area 14 July . We left in parties for Overseas in the next 4 or 5 days. The accused did not go overseas with the Unit

The witness desires to correct his evidence by stating that the accused was with the Unit a very short time and not one day before proceeding on attachment to Hospn.

R.P. 83(3) Complied with.

DEFENCE

B-78693 Pte Davies, H.R. 10 Cdn Inf Wks Coy, RCASC sworn states:

Joined 10 CIB in 23 May 44 came from No 1 CASBU. I was with the Unit only an hour when I was transferred to Wks Coy as waiter I was a waiter in the SOC's mess.

I was excused parades and so not remember attending the muster roll parade. The Waiters the Mess steward would answer for me on parades.

When I returned to 10 C.I.B. Coy I was posted to R Pl. I was never warned for overseas Service.

On 15 July 1944 I was issued with a 12 hr pass expiring at 2359 hrs. I went to London to see my wife, to come to some arrangement concerning a separation. I had attempted to see her before without success. I could not see her and I was disgusted and demoralized so I stayed away until I drew my AF 1f 40. I was worried about what would happen to me. I was sent to No 1 CASBU about 29 Oct under close arrest. I was charged with absent for 100 days 22 hrs 55 Min for that period of the present charge. 100 days was remanded for RCMP. [illegible] was taken I was remanded before the CO after being remanded. Several days after I was put on draft and came overseas. I was not held in Canada and I came over not under arrest and was first put under arrest at 12 Bn CWRC from there I went to my present Unit on draft and not under arrest. I did not know I was going to be tried and when I left England I thought the case was all washed out.

Cross-exam:

I did not read Part 1 orders 6 Jun 44 Sgn. I have read Part I orders occasionally and know that every man is required to read Part I orders. When I came back to R Pl 10 CIB Coy I did not see my outstanding preparations for embarkation. It was a busy Pl. getting petrol and picked it up on 1 Cdn Army Tarries. I did not see any waterproofing going on in Unit lines. I was under the impression that D Day was the 6 Jun. I did have an idea that the Div would be going overseas some day but did not know when I know 7 day leave had been cancelled. I did not hear Part 1 order s read in R Pl on any of the afternoon parades. During the period of my absence I made no attempt to get in touch with the military authorities to surrend r. I did not know if my unit had gone overseas or not.

I did not communicate with anyone in 10 CIB Coy RCASC concerning my family troubles.

Re-exam: None

Examined by Court

I saw my wife's mother and when I understood my wife was avoiding me, so I intended to stay until I had seen my wife, I lived with friends just outside of London.

IN THE CASE OF

B.53268 Cfn DAVIES.R.A. 1 COMERU

E-1 STATEMENT BY ACCUSED
(on oath)

B.53268 Cfn DAVIES. R.A. of 1 COMERU having been duly sworn states:

Q. With regard to your education you have two years high school and after that you worked for your father in the coal and ice business is that right?
A. Yes sir.

Q. You are 22 years of age and category A.1 is that right?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you enlist in the Ordnance on 20 Sep 41 at the age of 19 and subsequently proceed overseas with CBOW on 22 Mar 42?
A. Yes sir.

Will you tell the Court in your own words of the AWLs at CBOW and the reason for them?

"I wanted to go to the infantry and it seems they would not let me. I am category A.1. I went to the Orderly Room and asked the CSM if I could go to the infantry. CSM Stenhouse later told me that nothing had happened and so I went AWL. When I came back I was put on charge and I told Col. Fields that I wished to go to the infantry and that was the reason why I went absent. He said that that was a poor excuse so I went AWL again. When I came back I told Col. Fields the same reason for my going AWL. He said he would see what he could do for me. I was let out on 3 days remission of sentence for the purpose of going to the infantry but I was sent to the Ord. R.U. I was suppose to go to the infantry because I saw it on the paper which I handed in to Records. Nothing happened for a while so I went AWL again and received 28 days field punishment. When I came up for office before Major Shewbridge I told him why I went absent, because I still wanted to go to the infantry, and he gave me a bawling out. I spent 28 days in hospital and I was put on three drafts for overseas when I came to this camp and each time I was taken off by the M.O. because I was taking treatment for V.D. I then had a 9 day leave which I over-stayed which is this absence."

Q. You were in Leeds all the time you were AWL the last time?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What were your reasons for returning?
A. It was my duty sir.

Q. Anything else?
A. Yes sir there is a girl I wish to marry.

Q. Has your treatment by the M.O. been completed by now?
A. Yes sir.

Q. You are now medically available for draft?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What trades have you in the army?
A. No trade sir.

Q. Do you mean by that general duty?
A. Yes sir.

Q. You have never taken a course?
A. No sir.

Q. What have you been employed at all the while at CBOW & COMERU?
A. Fatigues all the time sir.

From defence Cross-exam. & by the Court:—

Q. Have you ever applied for permission to be married?
A. Not yet sir.

Q. How did you live for 34 days?
A. I stayed at the girl's place.

Q. Have you ever had the Army Act read to you?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you ever been told that you had the right to be paraded to your officer?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Why didn't you ask to be paraded?
A. You hear so much about that sir of one fellow trying to get paraded and you never seem to be able to get paraded.

Q. Why didn't you try?
A. I do not know sir.

CASE OF

B.53268 Cfn DAVIES.R.A. 1 COMERU.

CHARACTER WITNESS FOR ACCUSED

B.24140, CSM STENHOUSE. J. of 1 CBOW having been duly sworn states:

Will you tell the Court what you know of the character of Cfn Davies and what you know of his work and general reputation as a soldier?

"He was with Base Wksp for some time. The last I knew of him he was employed in the Sgts Mess as a waiter for the last two years before leaving us. He was a good soldier and worker. He was always on the job except for a couple of times when he was A.W.L. which I believe was caused by his nerves. The general information I received from the Sgts. was that he was a good man, smart and attended to his duties and generally conducted himself very good."

Prec does not wish to Cross-Examine Q. by the Court:—

Q. Had this man ever asked you about a transfer to the infantry?
A. Yes he was interested to get to the infantry.

Q. What did you do about it?
A. I took it up with Major Ross.

Q. What happened?
A. He stated that he would have to wait until a draft was going out.

Q. Did you tell him that?
A. I told him there was a possibility of his going to the infantry later on.

Q. Did you ever parade him to an officer?
A. Not that I recollect.

Q. Why not?
A. He didn't ask.

Q. He asked to go to the infantry?
A. Yes sir he spoke to me about it.

Q. Why didn't you parade him to an officer?
A. ~~[illegible]~~ I had already taken the matter up with the Coy.Comdr. At that time we had from 100 to 150 who wanted to go to the infantry and we didn't encourage them at that time. The Coy Comdr said there would be men going out at a later date.

ADDRESS IN MITIGATION

B-53268 Cfn DAVIES, R.A.

The Court are asked to consider the following points in mitigation of sentence.

1. The accused has been given a good character reference by his C.S.M. at the only unit in which he has been other than the R.U.

2. This is the first F.G.C.M. of the accused, he has never served detention and he has now been A.W.L. 34 days.

3. The accused was in uniform at all times and voluntarily surrendered.

4. That the accused has, for months now, being trying to transfer to the Canadian Infantry Corps and has even gone AWL trying to force the issue.

5. The accused has been on two or three Canadian Infantry Corps drafts at COMEND, but has been removed by the M.O. However, this has now been cleared up and he is medically available for Canadian Infantry Corps transfer.

6. The accused is physically and mentally equipped for transfer to Canadian Infantry Corps i.e. age 22, Category A-1 and two years High School training.

7. It is recommended therefore, that after as short a period of punishment as possible that the accused be allowed to transfer to the Canadian Infantry Corps.

TRIAL OF

M-16313 PTE DAVIES RD HQ 1 CCOD

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

I would just like to say that his soldier enlisted in Sep 39 at which time he was with The Loyal Edmonton Regiment, but in the latter part of 40 by reason of his age and sickness, he was transferred from that unit to Ordnance when subsequently he came to 1 CCOD. He is married in England since 1940. His wife has had a series of illnesses having been bombed and buzz-bombed; her home was also bombed and buzz-bombed. The accused originally came from Wales in 1926 to Canada and wishes to be discharged in the UK because he has no relatives or friends back in Canada and hopes to make his home here. He is a mason by trade and has been promised a job over here if he can be discharged in this country. I should like the Court to pay particular attention to his AFW 6 which records that the only offences he has ever committed in the Army were small AWLs. On all these charges, he has been convicted and given various punishments. I suggest that if the accused is given a further period of detention it will not help him nor will it be of any assistance to the army. The reason he remained absent was because his wife was sick and he remained with her. He had been previously absent and his location was known and he could have been picked up if they had wanted to pick him up. He is 41 years old and was transferred to Ordnance by reason of category; I submit therefore that this man is more a medical case than a CM case.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A.12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

(See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 562(a).)

Plts in Westgation for M16313 Pte Davies R.D.

Sir:

This soldier was on leave terminating on 6 Sept 45 but he took sick in Oxted, Surrey where he was staying on leave. I have a certificate from doctor stating that he treated Pte Davies on 8 Sept 45. Pte Davies wife became very ill with a nervous breakdown and in spite of the fact that the accused was still very ill himself he stayed ~~with her~~ looking after her. She became dangerously ill and very nearly died. Under doctor's care she did recover and when the crisis had passed Pte Davies returned and surrendered himself. Even at the time of his surrendering himself Pte Davies was ill as evidenced by the fact that he was sent to hospital for over three weeks from C.G.R.U. Pte Davies enlisted in Sept 39 and came overseas in Dec 39. He is 44 yrs of age and so is his wife. His category is A. established by S.M.B. in 1939. Pte Davies wife is still ill he desires nothing more than to get home to her side and be of some help to her. Pte Davies is not a young man and his whole life is built around his wife. He has been waiting 45 days for this C.M. In view of these factors I beg the court that Pte Davies be awarded a forfeiture of pay rather than a further period of detention so that he can return to his home.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of D 125253 Tpr Roy Douglas DAVIES 4th Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, evidence is taken upon Oath.

First Witness
For the prosecution

C 37480 L/Sgt Simmonds, R.P. 4th P.L.D.G. having been duly sworn states:-

I am C 37480 L/Sgt Simmonds, R.P. "B" Sqn 4th P.L.D.G. On the 27th Dec 44 I was Section Commander of 1 Sec 10 troop "B" Sqn 4th P.L.D.G. (acting Platoon Sgt in the absence of Sgt Reilley) On the 27th Dec 44 at 0700 hours I checked my Section and found Tpr Davies whom I recognize as the accused absent. I reported his absence to the Orderly Room. Tpr Davies did'nt return to the Sqn during that day and I did'nt see him until taken before the Coy Commander for orders on the 9th Feb 45.

R.P. Simmonds L/Sgt

The accused decines to cross examine this witness.

Second Witness
For the prosecution

Capt., W.H. Powell, 4th P.L.D.G. having been duly sworn states:-

I am Capt., W.H. Powell. From 25th Dec 44 until 27th Dec 44 I was with 10 troop "B" Sqn 4th P.L.D.G. of which I was Troop Officer. ~~On the morning of 27th Dec 44 D 125253 Tpr Davies, R.D. whom I recognise was reported to me as absent as from 0700 hours on that date.~~ On the 26th Dec 44 I attended an Orders Group at approx 1300 hours where I learnt that the Sqn would be returning into the line the following day. I arranged a troop parade to the Sqn Stores on the afternoon of 26th Dec 44 and at the same time warned all the troop to get their kit and equipment ready to return into action the following day. ~~I am able to state that if Tpr Davies was still present with the troop on the afternoon of the 26th Dec 44 he recieved the warning that the Sqn would be going into action again.~~

I present tothe Court a certificate in accordance with Sec 168 (1)(j) of the Army Act purporting to be signed by Capt., B. McNeill., O.C. 507 Provost Coy., C.M.P. This document refers tothe accused man.

(W.H. POWELL) Capt.,
4th Princess Louise Dragoon Guards.

The accused declines tocross examine this witness.

The certificate referred toby the witness, produced, read over to the accused, marked exhibit "A", signed by me and attached tothis summary.

Third Witness
for the prosecution

C 37480 L/Sgt Simmonds, R.P. 4th Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, recalled, still under oath states:-

On the 26th Dec 44 I was on a troop Q.M. Parade held at approx 1600 hours. The troop was being reissued shortages of kit and equipment. On that parade Capt., Powell warned 10 troop that they would be going back into action the following day. As no roll call was taken I cannot state whether Tpr Davies was on that parade. However, at 1800 hours 26th Dec 44 Tpr Davies came to me asking me for under clothes. ~~As~~ The whole Sqn was living in the same building ~~it is obvious that Tpr Davies whether he had been on the Q.M. Parade or not knew that the Unit was going back into the line as the troop had been warned an hour or so before that or otherwise he would not have came to me for clothing.~~

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

As defending Officer I wish to make a plea for mitigation of sentence in the case of B47931 Pte. Davies W. This man is only past twenty years of age and has been in the army since his 18th year. He enlisted on or about July 24/42 and arrived in England Jan 7/43. He has been in the artillery during his term of service.

He arrived in France on June 24 with a battery in a L.A.A. regiment and remained there until Sept 26/44 when a battery from each regiment was broken up and the personnel returned to England. He was then inserted into the Infantry stream a state of affairs that didn't leave him very happy.

Previous to going to France he had several crimes most of which can be put down to youthful impulsiveness with a motor-cycle as he had been a D.R. only one of his crimes was AWL and that less than a day and caused by overstaying and making poor connections. So up to this time he had been a pretty fair sort of a soldier. But he comes back, is sent up from his mates and stuck into a new branch of the service and his good record starts to go where it shouldn't.

He is A category, very anxious to return to the field as an artillery reinforcement but would be delighted to return to the field as infantry if he could get in as a D.R. a line of work that he has long been trained for. He realizes he has done wrong and will probably have to suffer for it. His last three AWL offences have been brought about by a crazy notion that with a number of offences he might get shipped back to the field to get rid of him.

I beg the court to give these points their consideration and I feel that there are excellent grounds for clemency and it would be a mistake to hold a man of this calibre, who is anxious to get back despite his youthfulness, for too long a time. ~~So I beg the court to consider and~~

~~is~~ thrown himself on a mercy of a court martial rather than having his CC try him in order that probably higher formations would get to know about him and thereby enable him to return more quickly to the field. In the view of his youthfulness and what has been previously a fairly good record I ask the court to give this man their utmost consideration

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans NO, Sir.(5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex 'A', initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Mr President, Members of the Court,

You will have to judge today a peculiar case, that I would like to explain to you before you give your sentence.

This man join the army as a volunteer in 1942 at 18 years old.

Came in England in 1943 where he was trained as a D.R. with a Light A/A Regt. To me have to believe me but he was in Canada.

He went to France on June the 10th he has been in action from this date to sept of the same year, or his battery being the German battery of the regiment was reinforced to infantry.

Until this date, out of a few months of front this man never had a trouble in F.F.M. 6, or how he was mentioned, he did my feel very happy of the thing because of he having been trained as a D.R. For almost 2 years he was very proud of his battery, specially of having been in action with it so long.

The then was sent back to England, where he was sent to a training Regiment to orient S.W.L. and was awarded 2 days F.P. orders during this F.P. he was supposed to be trained and then sent back in action he was satisfied with that, but instead of being trained he was sent to Aldershot Camp the C.I.T.R. where they kept him like doing nothing, no training, this is the reason why is not absent A.W.L. again.

This man would like to be trained and send to action.

Every time he was A.W.L. he always surrender himself to his unit.

All this is no excuse for being A.W.L. but considering the surrounding of this case I would ask the court to be very lenient in giving their punishment and if possible I would also ask the court to do so - considering for this man because he is ready to go in action again and as soon as possible. His conduct Category is still A.1. and up till now he has always done his duty toward his country.

Jeannar Cadieux Lt
Officiating officer.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

B-26423 L/SGT (A/SGT) W.C.DAVIES OF THE 2nd. Cdn. Fd. Park Coy., R.C.E.

By direction of the A/C.R.E. 1 Cdn. Div., the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

B-28011 L/Cpl. Power, L.M., 2nd. Cdn.Fd.Pk.Coy., R.C.E., having been dulysworn, states;-

"On the night of 25/26 Dec 42 I was L/Cpl. in charge of the guard. At about 1900 hrs 25 Dec 42 I was given the keys of the Men's kitchen by a cook, and I visited the kitchen to check the fires and to see that everything was alright, at about one hour intervals all night. At about 2300 hrs, I inspected the kitchen and found everything in order. As nearly as I can remember, it was about 2345 hrs when I noticed the kitchen lights were on, and unlocked the kitchen door. On entering I found three N.C.O.s and asked them how they had entered the kitchen. They answered that they had entered through the shutters over the serving counter. I then asked them how they had got the door of the food storeroom open, and they told me that it had been open when they arrived. I questioned the senior Sergeant if I was to report this incident and he told me he would take full responsibility for dealing with it, and he would see that the kitchen and storeroom were locked up. At this I left the Mess Hall and returned to the Orderly Room. In about half an hour I again visited the Men's kitchen and found everything securely locked. At about 0230 hrs 26 Dec 42 I woke up L/Cpl. Gibson, the cook, andtold him what had happened. He came down to the kitchen and checked the food storeroom."

Questioned by the Court.

Q.1 "Who were the three N.C.O.s you saw in the Men's Kitchen?"
A.1 "Sgt. Davies, Cpl. Hamilton and L/Cpl. Hoffman. All of this unit."

Q.2 "What were the N.C.O.s doing when you entered the kitchen?"
A.2 "They were in the kitchen eating."

Q.3 "Was the food storeroom open, and how did it appear to have been opened?"
A.3 "It was open and the screws had been removed from the hasp."

The accused declined to cross examine this witness.

L/Cpl Power L.M.

Second Witness for the Prosecution.

B-28065 Cpl. Hamilton, G.R., 2nd.Cdn.Fd.Pk.Coy., R.C.E. having been duly sworn, states;-

"On the night of 25 Dec 42 I had a few drinks and do not feel that I can give evidence in the matter."

Cpl Hamilton G.R.

The accused declined to cross examine this witness.

TO PAGE -2-

Third Witness for the Prosecution.

B-28095 L/Cpl. Hoffman, S., 2nd. Cdn.Fd.Pk.Coy., R.C.E. having been duly sworn, states;-

"I am a Transport L/Cpl. in Bridging Section of the 2nd Cdn.Fd.Pk.Coy., R.C.E. On the night of 25 Dec 42 in company with Sgt. Davies and Cpl. Hamilton, I went to the Men's Mess kitchen to see if we could get a cup of tea. It was then approximately 2330 hrs. We found the kitchen door was locked, but Sgt. Davies noticed the door into the Mess Hall was open. He went to see if anyone was in the Mess, while Cpl. Hamilton and I waited outside. Sgt. Davies called us almost at once and told us that the shutter over the serving counter between the kitchen and the Mess hall was open. We subsequently went into the kitchen and turned on the lights. Sgt. Davies called my attention to the fact that the door leading into the ration room had been forced open previously. I could see that this was true as the screws holding the hasp were just hanging lossely. Sgt. Davies then said that as he was senior N.C.O. in camp, he was going to remove the screws and investigate to see if anything was missing, but that he wished a cook was present. At this time L/Cpl. Power came in and asked what was going on. We told him that Sgt. Davies had found one shutter over the serving counter open, also that we were investigating, and had found that the hasp of the ration room door had been tampered with and the screws were loose in the holes. L/Cpl. Power said that he would report the matter in the morning. Sgt. Davies told him that there didn't seem to be anything missing, and that as it was Christmas night, he didn't wish to make any trouble and would take the responsibility for any further action. At about this time, Pte. Taunton came in and when the matter had been explained to him by Sgt. Davies, they went into the ration room. Shortly afterwards I left the kitchen."

L/Cpl. S. Hoffman

The accused delines to cross examine this witness.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution.

B-83011 L/Cpl. Gibson, G., 2nd. Cdn. Fd. Pk. Coy., R.C.E. having been duly sworn, states;-

"I am L/Cpl. cook of the 2nd. Cdn.Fd.Pk.Coy., R.C.E. At approximately 0200 hrs, 26 Dec 42, L/Cpl. Power woke me up and gave me information which led me to believe that the kitchen had been broken into, and asked me to check the rations. I did so and found two Christmas puddings and a few eggs were missing. I made sure everything was securely locked up again and went back to bed. At about 0800 hrs 26 Dec 42 I reported to Sgt. Davies, the Senior Sergeant in camp, that the kitchen had been broken into, and that two Christmas puddings and some eggs were missing. Sgt. Davies told me to forget about it and that he would take all responsibility, as it was Christmas and he didn't want any trouble.

L/Cpl G Gibson

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

TO PAGE -3-

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution.

Major R.B.Fraser, O.C., 2nd.Cdn.Fd.Pk.Coy., R.C.E. having been duly sworn, states;-

"I am Major R.B.Fraser, Officer Commanding 2nd. Cdn. Fd. Park Coy., R.C.E. At about 1430 hrs 29 Dec 42, at the rear of Mountfield Court, in some bushes, I discovered a plum pudding similar to those which had been ordered for the men for Christmas. I proceeded to the kitchen of the Men's Mess where I questioned L/Cpl. Gibson as to whether they had had sufficient pudding for Christmas, and whether any had been missing. About 15 minutes later L/Cpl. Gibson came into my office and gave me certain information which led me to believe that the storeroom, adjoining the Men's kitchen, had been broken into on the night of 25/26 Dec 42. Shortly after this I met the accused in the corridor and he stated to me that he had taken the responsibility for not reporting the break-in to myself, because it was at Christmas time and that he would prefer to take the blame himself, rather than have it laid on the shoulders of some junior N.C.O.s.

On 30 Dec 42 I charged A/Sgt. Davies with neglect in failing to report this incident to me, and remanded the case for higher authority."

2nd Witness S/Cpl. Hoffman 3-28095 sworn states:- S. 2/Lt A Pixley RCE

I am 328095 S/Cpl Hoffman
I am a S/Cpl in the bridging section of 2nd Fd Pk Coy RCE. On the night of Dec 25. at approximately 23.30 hours in company with Sgt Davies and Corporal Hamilton we went to the Mens mess to see if we could get a cup of tea. when we got there we found the door was locked from the outside. Sgt Davies noted the door leading into the mens mess hall was open and he said he was going in there to see if anybody was there, shortly afterwards a matter of a few seconds he called Cpl Hamilton and myself around. When we got there he told me that the shutter over the serving counter leading into the mens kitchen was open. He said that he was going in there to see if everything was all right. When we put the lights on he brought my attention to the fact that the door leading into the ration room had been tampered with

4. I could easily see this, as the [illegible] crews holding the harps ~~was~~ ~~this~~ were hanging loosely in the holes. Sgt Davies then said that as he was senior NCO in camp he was going to enter the room to see if every thing ~~were~~ was all right. just then S/Cpl Powers came in, and wanted to know what we were doing in there. Sgt Davies explained to him, just what had happened and that he was looking to ~~see~~ see if there were any thing missing. S/Cpl Powers then said that he would report the matter in the morning. Sgt Davies answered that as it was Christmas night and there seemed to be nothing missing and as he was senior N.C.O. in camp he would take responsibility for any further action he thought necessary, shortly after that I left.

The ~~Crown~~ Defence have no questions.

I am Major R B Fraser O/C 2nd Fd Pk Coy RCE On the afternoon of the 24th Dec at about 1430 hours at the rear of this building I found a plum pudding in some bushes. This pudding was similar to the ones obtained for the Officers mess for Christmas dinner. I went to the kitchen of the Men's mess and made inquiries as to whether the men had had sufficient pudding for Christmas and whether there were any missing 15.

4/ Shortly after this Capt Gibson & Mess Kitchen reported to me in the office and gave me certain information. This information led me to believe that the food storage room adjoining the mess-mess kitchen had been broken into on the night of the 25-26 Sometime after this on the same date I met the accused in a corner of the building and he corroborated to me that the storage room had been broken into and that the occurrence had been brought to his knowledge.

I placed a charge against Sgt Davies for neglecting to report this incident and remanded the case for higher authority -

No questions by the Defence.

Qs from the Court.

Q1 Was there any reason that Sgt Davies should have reported the matter to you.

Instruction.
The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

I for this theft.

A. I assumed responsibility for any further action because approximately a month previous to this, my O.C. Major Fraser had called a meeting of all NCO's in the company. At that meeting he told us that we, the NCO's, particularly the senior N.C.O's, were responsible for stopping petty theft and that we ourselves were to look after it. ~~if we could find out who~~ ~~was to take the food, keep it back~~ ~~and bring it to this [illegible] of morning. that~~ ~~would be an example to anyone~~ So I assumed responsibility for any further action believing that I was carrying out my O.C's wishes.

Q.2 Will you tell the court briefly what happened in regard to the charge against you on the night of 25-26 Dec 42.

A. Q. On the night of 25 Dec I was senior N.C.O. in the camp. I was in company with S/Sgt Hoffman & Cpl Hamilton in the orderly room when someone suggested that we go to the mess kitchen and see if we could get a cup of tea. When we came to the kitchen the door was locked. As I had passed towards the kitchen I had noticed that the door entering to the mess hall was open, so I went around to the door, switched on the lights, when I put on the lights I found that the shutters above the serving table were open and I called S/Sgt Hoffman and Hamilton and went inside to the kitchen. When I put the lights on in the kitchen I immediately noticed that the hasp of the ration room had been tampered with. the screws being partly off. I removed them the rest of the way. and went inside to see if any thing had been taken, nothing seemed to be upset. and I came out. at that moment A/pt Cowen knocked on the door of the kitchen unlocked it, and came in. He asked me a few questions, and I told him what had happened. I told him also that I would assume responsibility for any further action. He then left, a few minutes afterward Pte Taunton. came into the kitchen (he is one of the attached R.C.A.S.C cooks). I asked him to check the ration room. and went with him while he checked. he told me that there were 2 puddings gone and he thought a few eggs. I then went out, got a screw-driver, replaced the lock. after that I went into my quarters went to bed. at approx 0700 hours. A/pt Gibson reported to me. that the puddings had been stolen. I told him I'd look after the matter. On the 29 th. A/pt Gibson said to me that the O.C had been checking so I immediately went to the O.C. and told him that I knew about it. I have got any more chance to explain to the O.C., ~~it was apparently he did not mind~~ as he did not listen to my explanations. On the next morning I was brought up on a charge. I still did not have an opportunity

Edwin.

A10 No Sir

Q11 Did you prior to the 29th of Dec make any serious effort to fix the responsibility for the theft.

Do you feel that you carried out as fully as possible the O.C's intentions as to prevention of theft.

Ans.4 Yes I do.

Q.5. Will you please tell the court the substance of Major Fraser's instruction at that meeting in regard to dealing with petty theft.

A.5 I recall a statement which major Fraser made and from this statement I took it that we N.C.O.'s of this company were to stamp out the petty thieving which had been going on, I also took from it that we were to use our own judgement and methods in stopping it.

Prosecution Q.16

Did you understand from this meeting that in future any cases of theft did not have to be reported to the O.C.

Ans. 16 From the statement I took it that we were to handle any cases that we could and any cases which were too much for us to handle should be turned over to the section officer.

The court has no further question

3rd Witness for the defence.

Sgt Hannah CH. 3 28204. having been sworn states I am Sgt Hannah CH 328204 No 2 Fd Sq Coy RCE.

Q.17 Sgt Hannah do you remember an N.C.O.s meeting called by Major Fraser some weeks ago at which the subject of petty theft in the unit was discussed.

Ans 17 Yes Sir

Q.18. Can you now tell the court according to your best recollection what directions were given to N.C.O.s in dealing with cases of this kind. If so repeat them directions according to your best understanding of them.

Ans 18. As I understood it petty thieving would be handled by the N.C.O. without taking it to the orderly room.

12. Prosecution. Q.19

Q.19 From this meeting did you understand that in any case of petty theft which an NCO could not fix the responsibility that it was no longer necessary to report the fact to an officer.

Ans Q.19 No. If the NCO could not fix the responsibility or solve the petty thing he would have to report it.

The court has no further questions to ask the witness.

Defence's closing address as follows.

The first point which the defence wishes to make is that this whole charge evolves from someone wanting an extra bit of plum pudding at Christmas, and I must say that I myself was greatly surprised when I found out the details of the case against Sgt Davies. I have known Sgt Davies for a year. I have seen his conduct sheet and I was very much taken aback that so much to-do was being made over so small a matter.

So far as the facts go there has been no attempt on the part of Sgt Davies to conceal that he did not report this [redacted] petty theft, and in not reporting it he believed (perhaps mistakenly) that he was acting in accordance with his commanders wishes. This inadvertence or misunderstanding of a verbal order given at a meeting & not formally minuted was shared by at least 2 other reputable & experienced sergeants

Recto

13. It is not by these remarks intended to cast reflection upon the ability of the officer who gave the instructions, whatever they were, but it is hoped to explain that from the nature of the meeting & the purport of the C.O.'s remarks misunderstanding on the part of several intelligent persons has arisen; & in this connection I prefer the court to the provisions of Ch 40 footnote as amended by A.C.I. Jan. 5/41, 33 June 42; The defence maintains this error of judgement was an honest error of judgement as proven by the testimony of Sgts Hannah and Thompson and the further evidence of the accused show that in making a search for the missing puddings he displayed a zeal concomitant with the importance of the occasion. Further he took the trouble to repair the forced locks.

As regards the lapse of time between the occurrence of the break in and his discussion with his company C.O.; the court will probably take cognizance of the season of the year. Saturday was boxing day, Sunday a day of rest; and it is easy on a boxing Monday morning to stay up in small matters.

Note May the defence have drawn to the attention of the reviewing authorities the provisions of M.M.L. Chap 5 para 16. in conjunction with the corps to which the officers constituting this court belong. with a view to determining whether or not such provisions apply to an R.C.A.M. as described in Sec 112

345.
Evidence for Defence
Pages 76 to 86.

Euro.

17. of the same chapter;

Will the court also consider whether or not the provisions of M.R.A. Chap 5 para 560 have been complied with.

May the attention of the reviewing authorities be drawn to this para in relation to the grounding of this court.

The defence does not feel that any defence other than that of misunderstanding and inadvertence is necessary. The technicalities introduced are precautions ~~etc~~ to bring it to attention only to further protect an innocent who is guilty at worst for error of ~~the~~ interpretation Prosecutions reply.

Briefly the facts of the case would appear to be. a theft was discovered on the night of 25-26 the ~~[illegible]~~ reported to Sgt Davis the accused, ~~[illegible]~~ having been unable to fix the responsibility for the theft he failed to report the matter to the O.C. Concerning the excuse of an error of inadvertence. The responsible senior N.C.O.s have stated on oath that at the N.C.O.s meeting held some weeks previously they understood that if they were unable to fix the responsibility for a petty theft they should report the matter to the O.C or one of the officers

Fifth witness for the prosecution having been duly sworn states:
"I am Henry Blyth, sergeant of the Ayrshire Constabulary at Girvan, Scotland. On monday 29 Sept 41, I was on motor patrol duty with Inspector James Graham on the Girvan/Barr road. At 4 P.M. we were passing the entrance to Penwhapple Reservoir House when we observed a Chevrolet Army van sitting at the side of the road with a soldier in battle dress seated in the driving seat. This van had the number CV - 199157 painted on the bonnet and appeared to be identical with a van described as stolen from Aldershot in the Scottish Police Gazette dated 22 Sept 41, 1941, cases 1 and 22.
We stopped our car and interrogated the driver who informed us that his name was McLeod and that the was a private in the Canadian Army. He also stated that his companion was at a house nearby for a bottle of tea. This man was also interrogated and he stated that his name was Davis and that he was a soldier in the Canadian Army.
The men were detained at Girvan until 9 p.m. that day and were then handed over to an escort from Kilmarnock Burgh Police.

Question by the Court: "How do you know this was the same vehicle?"

Answer: "I recognized it. We had a panel vehicle numbered CV-199157 in the shop at the time. It had been in an accident and was off the road".

No cross-examination.

Eighth witness for the prosecution having been duly sworn states:
" I am Lieut.F.Leaman, Transport Officer, #1 C.A.S.C.RU. On 1 Sep.41 it was reported to me that Chevrolet panel No. CV-199154 was missing. This I found to be the case. As it is the practice to fill all tanks each night this vehicle contained twelve gallons of petrol valued at 19/1. This is based on the price at that time. No work ticket had been issued for this vehicle to be taken away.

No cross-examination.

Ninth witness for the prosecution having been duly sworn states:
" I am D91705 A/Sgt.Finella J.A. #1 C.A.S.C.R.U. I am acting as C.Q.M.S. for No.4 Coy and as such I checked the kit of Pte Davis A.C. on 25 Nov.41 with his M.F.O.600 and found him to be deficient equipment, clothing and necessaries to the amount of two pounds, thirteen shillings and tenpence halfpenny. I produce this statement as evidence. (Exhibit "H")

Question by the defence: " Do you keep a record of boots in repair?"
Answer; "Yes."

Rule 40 complied with. The accused does not wish to give evidence.
Rule 41 B (ii) (a) is complied with. The accused does not wish to make a statement.

First witness for the defence having been duly sworn states:
" I am H37464 Pte.Briar H. #1 C.A.S.C.R.U. employed in the R.Q.M. stores.
Question: "Have you a book showing entries of boots for repair? Answer: "Yes."
The book is produced and the court satisfied itself that the accused had a pair of boots in for repair at the time the inventory was made of the accused's kit. In accordance with Rule 44 footnote 6, this fact is noted by the court.

Statement by the defence: When the accused was taken in custody by the police he was in uniform. When he surrendered himself on 1 Jan 42 he indicated by so doing that he had no intention of deserting.
The prosecution have not established that the accused took the vehicle.
Insofar as the loss of kit is concerned, the book from the R.M. stores proves that he was no minus his boots.

Statement by the prosecution : The letter which has been produced as evidence is definite proof of intention to desert. The defence does not deny the evidence of this letter. If this man is not guilty of desertion, then under section 36 of the Army Act, he is guilty of absence without leave.
The fact that the accused and the vehicle disappeared at the same time and were found together indicates that he is implicated.

The court is closed to make its findings.

The prosecution produced A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M.6 prepared by the court martial officer #1 C.A.S.C.R.U. which the defence accepts.(Exhibit "I")

Statement in mitigation of punishment.
"In civil life the accused is a blacksmith. He is a married man with a family. He has had no civil record or been in trouble, before joining the army. His offences in the army have been minor ones. There is every indication that he has been led astray and has acted on impulse. He has promise and shows signs of being a better soldier.

The court closed to consider sentence.

Garage since that time. On checking vehicles I found that Chevrolet panel No. CV-199154 was missing. I reported this loss to the Provost Marshall, Line of Communication Provost, and local Police. As all vehicles are filled with petrol and oil every night Vehicle No. CV-199154 had 12 gallons of Petrol in the tank, value being 19/1. No work ticket or other authority was given for this vehicle to be out and it was away from the M.T Garage from 1 September 1941 to 18 October 1941 when it was returned by Lieut. MacFarlane. When the said vehicle was returned to Blenheim Barracks, Farnborough, Hampshire, the number had been changed from CV-199154 to CV-199157.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of B-81631 Pte. Alfred Charles DAVIS, 1 Cdn ASC Reinf Unit, Blenheim Barracks, Farnborough, Hampshire.

B-85286 Pte. Dunnett, J.W. having been duly sworn states;-

I am B-85286 Pte. Dunnett J.W. of the Regimental Police, 1 Cdn ASC Reinforcement Unit. On 12 Dec 1941 I was N.C.O. i/c No.1 Detention Guard Room, Blenheim Barracks. At about 2359 hours Pte. Going asked to go to the latrine. I got the keys from the desk and let him out of his cell and let him go into the latrine in the large detention room. I handed L/Cpl. McGugan the keys after letting Pte. Going into the large detention room. I stood by the door. When Pte. Going failed to come out inna reasonable time I went into the room to see what was keeping him. When I entered one or more men grabbed me and pulled me inside the room. I then started to wrestle with Pte. Going. This tussle lasted about a minute and a half. Pte. Going then broke away from me, ran out of the room and slammed the door. I was then locked in account of the automatic lock. I kicked at thedoor to try and attract attention. A few minutes later Pte. Robertson opened the door and let me out. I immediately locked the door behind me to secure the remaining prisoners. Pte. Robertson told me L/Cpl.McGugan was locked in cell No.1 and I released him. He was handcuffed. The Orderly Officer, Lieut. J.K.Manuel appeared and I called the roll in his presence. We found three prisoners to be missing. They were; C-10315 Pte. Going, L.P., , B-85931 Pte. Wilding, W., B-81631 Pte. Davis, A.C.

I am B-85318 L/Cpl. McGugan.R.H. of the Regimental Police, 1 Cdn ASC Reinforcement Unit. On 12 December 1941 I was on duty at the desk in No.1 Detention Guard Room. At approximately 2400 hours I heard a knock on Pte. Going's cell and Pte. Dunnett got up, went to the cell and enquired what he wanted. He asked to be let out to go to the toilet. Pte. Dunnett came and got the keys and let Pte. Going out. He was in his underwear and had his stockings on and Pte. Dunnett let him in the back room where the rest of them are. After he had opened the door Pte. Dunnett tossed the keys back to me at the desk and after a minute or so had elapsed Pte. Dunnett was suspicious and went inside the door. The next thing I saw Pte. Davis come out of the room and advanced towards me. I immediately drew my bayonet and asked him what he was pulling off and he told me not to have any trouble as they were going to pull out of here. I said "Like hell you are" and I no sooner tried to close the door than Pte. Wilding jumped on my back. I tried to get him off my back and in the space of three seconds Pte. Going was on top of me and we had a good fight in the room.

B-89541 Pte. Robertson, D.W. having been duly sworn states;-

I am B-89541 Pte. Robertson, D.W., 1 Cdn ASC Reinforcement Unit. I was on duty at the switchboard which is a small room partitioned off the main room No.1 Detention Guard Room. My door was approximately six inches open when at approximately 2400 hours my door was pushed open and Pte. Davis appeared in the doorway and jumped me while I was lying on the bed. He grabbed my right wrist and hand and pushed it down between the bar of the bed and the springs and straddled me and held the other hand. In the meantime the switchboard had rung and he just leaned over and pushed the gate up. It rang for fully a minute, Sir. I thought it a good opportunity to start a struggle upsetting everything. Then Pte. Going appeared in the doorway with intention of damaging the board beyond use. I said "For God's sake don't bugger up the board" to which he replied, "Okay," Pte. Going then left the room and I continued to struggle with Davis. He jumped off me and ran out, someone yelling, "Let's go". I got free from the bed and ran for the Orderly Officer, then ran back to the guard room and took the keys to release Pte. Dunnett who was locked in the "Bull Pen" I handed him the keys to release L/Cpl. McGugan who was locked in Pte.Going's cell. As soon as I handed him the keys I ran to the switchboard and phoned No.7 Provost.

2/Lieut. J.K.S.Manuel having been duly sworn states;-

I am 2/Lieut. J.K.S.Manuel, 1 Cdn ASC Reinforcement Unit. I was Orderly Officer on the night of 12 December 1941. At approximately 0005 hours I was called by Pte. Robertson who advised me that there had been a prison break and I ordered the telephone operator to notify the Provost immediately. I called my runner and he accompanied me to No.1 Detention Guard Room arriving there at 0012 hours. I found on my arrival a number of military police in the main room of No.1 Detention Guard Room. I immediately asked who was in charge and was advised that Pte. Dunnett was in charge of the guard room. I told the telephone operator to call the M.T.Garage immediately While I was questioning Pte. Dunnett the call was put through and I spoke to the Cpl. In charge and advised him that some prisoners had escaped and to be on the look-out for same. I questioned Pte. Dunnett as to what had happened and after hearing his explanation ordered him to call the roll of the remaining prisoners. I then took a statement from L/Cpl. McGugan and also from Pte. Robertson. I inspected Pte. Going's cell and also the main detention room. At this time No. 7. Provost Coy called me for a description of the escaped prisoners which I gave him to the best of my knowledge. As I had given a chit to a night fatigue man who required this for a midnight supper at approximately 0002 hours I sent my runner to have him brought to the guard room for questioning and upon questioning this fatigue man B-14597 Pte. Dube, R. I found that as he left my office he saw two men coming out of the guard room turning left. They ran down the street towards the M.T.Garage. He stated to me that he thought they were M.P's. He then checked the main room of No.1 Detention Guard Room to see if there was anything missing and were not able to find the following;

One Flashlight
Pte. Going's Greatcoat
All escaped prisoners small Packs.

I then sent my Orderly Sgt. and an M.P. in a lorry to Aldershot to check in the viminity of High Street where the M.P. said that Wilding was friendly with a woman. They reported back that they were unable to find them and I dismissed the transport. I then called both M.T.Garages and told them to check their vehicles. They

Ayrshire Constabulary,
Girvan, 3rd December 1941.

The Officer Commanding,
No. 1 C.A.S.C.
Reinforcement Unit,
Canadian Army.

Statement re Alfred C. Davis and Leslie McLeod.
Theft of Chevrolet Truck.

We beg to report that on Monday, 29th September, 1941, we the undersigned police officers were on motor patrol duty on the Girvan/Barr Road. At 4 p.m. we were passing the entrance to Penwhapple Reservoir house when we observed a Chevrolet Army van sitting at the side of the road with a soldier in battledress seated in the driving seat. This van had the number C.V. 199157 painted on the bonnet and appeared to be identical with a van described as stolen from Aldershot in the Scottish Police Gazette dated 22nd September, 1941, Cases 1 and 22.

We stopped our car and interrrogated the driver who informed us that his name was McLeod and that he was aprivate in the Canadian Army. He also stated that his companion was at a house nearby for a bottle of tea. This man was also interrogated and he stated that his name was Davis and that he was a soldier in the Canadian Army.

We immobilised the van and conveyed the soldiers to Girvan in the patrol car.

When searched at the Police Station the soldiers had in their possession the undernoted articles:-

ALFRED CHARLES DAVIS - 18/2½; knife; scissors; silver cigarette case; two pay books; Iodine tube; wallet containing photographs; two miniature R.A.S.C. badges; one pair gent's grey suede gloves; lady's wristlet watch with chromium band.

LESLIE McLEOD - 1d; fountain pen; cigarette lighter; pay book; two pencils; one pair gent's brown leather gauntlet gloves.

The following articles were found in the van -

"Leyland" leather golf jacket; 10 gallon oil drum; soldiers pack containing one pair gent's brown shoes (new); one pair gent's black shoes (worn); several pairs of socks; part of a lady's floral dress and three tyre levers."

The men were detained at Girvan until 9 p.m. that day and were then handed over to an escort from Kilmarnock Burgh Police.

On the following day the van was handed over to a L/Corporal Gibeon from Canadian Army Headquarters in Scotland.

I got into a jam over here Darling and I'm trying to get back home to you and Bob. You see there was a motor cycle and a truck stolen from our Garage over here when I was on guard and they never found them well they where going to make me pay for them and give me two years in the Glass house and I could never stand that so I beat it in other words I'm A.W.O.L. I'm at a Seaport now Darling and expect to sail on a ship any shortly I'm in Civvy clothes and hope to get back to you soon. What ever you do don't let any one else read this letter outside of Mom + Dad

I hope you will understand why I haven't wrote before on account of I was afraid they might trace me from the letters but I'm not any more I'll write you as often as I can Darling and tell Mom & Dad they will have to be satisfied to read your letters until I get back. When I come back to you Darling we will have to move away from Toronto altogether I guess you know when we will go about you.

Don't let anyone know I'm coming out side of Mom & Dad. I love you and miss you so much Darling and it sure will be a happy day when I get back to you. I'll be able to tell you more Darling when I get back to you I don't want to write to much in case this envelope gets opened Bye Bye for now Darling With all my love to you and Bob.

(Include necessary references to Watch Lists, with Authority requiring the Watch)

Canadian soldier, faced with two years imprisonment, has gone A.W.O.L. with intent to desert. He has obtained civilian clothes and is now at a seaport waiting for a passage to Canada.

Page 1, line 3: "I'm so sorry I haven't been able to write in the past three weeks and I haven't been able to get any of your mail yet. I'll explain the reason to you darling in this letter. I hope you and Bob are well and that you haven't been worrying too much about me as I am in good health. I got into a jam over here darling and I'm trying to get back home to you and Bob. You see there was a motor cycle and a truck stolen from our garage over here when I was on guard and they never found them, well they where going to make me pay for them and give me two years in the glass house and I could never stand that so I beat it in other words I'm A.W.O.L. I'm at a seaport now darling and expect to sail on a ship very shortly I'm in civvy clothes and hope to get back to you soon. What ever you do don't let anyone else read this letter outside of Mom and Dad.

No.1 Cdn A.S.C. Reinf Unit

1. You were President of a F.G.C.M. sitting for the trial of the m/n soldier on a charge (inter alia) of desertion.

2. The proceedings of this case have been considered and I am of the opinion that the letter alleged to have been written by the accused to his wife should not have been admitted without some evidence that the accused was the author. The proceedings do not show that any such evidence was introduced.

3. Further I am of the opinion that the actions of the accused are not consistent with his alleged declared intentions in the letter. This letter is dated 25 Sept 41. The writer stated he was in civilian clothes in a sea-port town waiting to get a boat back to Canada. Four days later the accused was arrested in uniform in possession of a Cdn Gov't vehicle.

4. There is no evidence beyond the contents of the letter to show any intention of desertion . I therefore direct you to re-assemble the court for reconsideration of the finding on the first charge. Absence without leave was proved and under Sect 56(3) Army Act the Court may make a finding of guilty of A.W.L.

5. Proceedings are returned to you in accordance with Sect 54 Army Act R.P. 120. You will be guided by form of revision on pp 759 - 60 M.M.L.

A. Yes, this is the one I gave to him.

43. Q. Whose signature?

A. Same one.

44. Q. Were you present?

A. Yes.

45. Q. Would you read it out, please?

A. This is to certify that there is no debt existing between Miss Edna Wright concerning articles sold by her for me. Agreement dated 28 Oct 43. (Exhibit "B").

46. Q. That was when three of you were present together?

A. Yes.

(Cont'd).

47. Q. Did Cpl. Davis say anything to Miss Wright?

A. Yes.

48. Q. What did he say to her?

A. He said he was sorry.

49. Q. For what?

A. For saying she had not paid when she had.

50. Q. Now the two items here, apart from the £20. 0. 0d., are the item for £6. 0. 0d., which you say was owing (yes) and the other item of £8. 0. 0d. was on account of your daughter Mollie?

A. Yes.

51. Q. When did you first see Miss Wright about this transaction?

A. The same date she came down with Cpl. Davis - the date on the agreement.

52. Q. Had you seen her before that time - after the goods were delivered to Cpl. Davis.

A. No.

53. Q. You did not?

A. I went to the Treasury to see her - I asked her to come to see me, but she did not.

54. Q. How long after the original sale of the goods was this agreement made?

A. It would be 12 months approximately.

55. Q. Approximately 12 months?

A. Yes.

56. Q. The item of £20. 0. 0. referred to in Exhibit "A" Mrs. Vickers was for the sale of silk goods.

A. Yes.

57. Q. Did the accused have any further conversation with you or any correspondence with you?

A. Well, those letters he had, and then he had correspondence appertaining to a lady's raincoat, attache case and black suede shoes - When the man came up from London to take the statement he took all that down.

58. Q. Are you familiar with the handwriting of the accused?

A. Yes.

59. Q. How so?

A. Well, letters I have had from him - Miss Wright asked for a written statement to that effect that she had paid.

60. Q. What statement do you refer to - Exhibit "B"?

A. Yes.

(Cont'd).

61. Q. Well, this statement says Mrs. Vickers that:there is no debt existing between Miss Edna Wright and myself concerning articles sold by her for me - what does this mean - was there any conversation?

A. Yes, she said that she had sold these goods for me - she wanted a written statement to prove that she did not owe for them.

62. Q. You said that Cpl. Davis said that he was sorry to Miss Wright - what was he sorry about.

A. That he had lied about the debt.

63. Q. Lied to whom?

A. To me.

Questions by Defending Officer

1. Q. Mrs. Vickers - how long did Cpl. Davis board with you?

A. Well, I should think in all about 6 months.

2. Q. Can you tell me the approximate dates?

A. I am sorry I cannot - I do not remember.

3. Q. Can you tell me the amount of rent paid?

A. 30/- a week.

4. Q. And was that paid in advance?

A. No.

5. Q. How was it paid?

A. When he received his pay.

6. Q. And was it paid regularly?

A. At first - yes.

7. Q. And when did it start falling off?

A. Well, it fell off a month after he came - then he straightened it up again.

8. Q. Did he continue to pay it regularly after that?

A. Until he left.

9. Q. So when he left he was cleared up?

A. He left in debt - for £6. 0. 0.

10. Q. £6. 0. 0. would mean how many weeks?

A. I do not know.

11. Q. 6 weeks?

A. No it would not be 6 weeks - I do not know how long.

(Cont'd).

12. Q. You know he owed £6. 0. 0d., but you do not know for how many weeks he owed?

A. No I do not - I know that was the amount.

13. Q. Where did you get these goods?

A. My shop.

14. Q. You had a shop at this time?

A. No, I'd just sold the business - I had a lot of stock from the shop.

15. Q. And you kept this stock - where?

A. At home.

16. Q. And were you licensed to sell these goods by the Board of Trade.

A. I did not need to be.

17. Q. Now Mrs. Vickers, you know and I know that no one in this country can sell goods without a license from the Board of Trade - is that not right?

A. No, you can sell privately - I went to the Town Hall first.

18. Q. Now Mrs. Vickers I put it to you that you cannot sell over a continuous series of transactions without a license.

A. Privately.

19. Q. Every sale is a private sale you know?

A. Oh no.

20. Q. Were you selling these for coupons?

A. No, I was not entitled to take coupons - I had not given coupons.

21. Q. Did you know that you had to sell only with coupons according to the law?

A. I did not - I should have been liable had I taken coupons.

22. Q. So you are telling me that you were permitted to sell these without a license and without coupons?

A. Yes, because they were my own private stock.

23. Q. From your shop?

A. Yes - kept for my daughter and myself originally.

24. Q. Then you decided to sell them?

A. Yes.

25. Q. How did you happen to ask Cpl. Davis to sell these?

A. Well, he brought Miss Wright to our home.

26. Q. Well?

A. We talked about these silks. She said her Auntie would like some, and then she said she was going over to Blackpool. (Cont'd).

Davis confirmed that and asked me to bring a parcel up here to give to Miss Wright.

27. Q. I see. Then Miss Wright was not buying these herself - she was buying them for her Aunt. So actually you were selling these to Miss Wright - Cpl. Davis was just a messenger boy.

A. Yes.

28. Q. So the sale was from you to Miss Wright and Davis was to deliver the money - was that discussed with Miss Wright?

A. Yes.

29. Q. And when did you discuss that with Miss Wright?

A. When we were all together.

30. Q. And how many times did you see her?

A. She came a lot.

31. Q. A lot.

A. Yes, off and on she did.

32. Q. And he was with you, you have told me, for six months?

A. Approximately.

33. Q. And during that six months Miss Wright came to your place quite a lot.

A. Yes, right up to when he left.

34. Q. In fact Miss Wright got him a new place to live?

A. She contradicted that.

35. Q. You say Miss Wright did not get him a new place to live?

A. She told me she did not. Davis said he was going to live with Miss Wright's sister - they were sorry for him and would keep him for a £1. 0. 0. a week. This Miss Wright denies - he never went.

36. Q. Mrs. Vickers did not Miss Wright get Cpl. Davis in a billet?

A. I do not know - I only know that Miss Wright said she did not.

37. Q. She told you that she did not get Cpl. Davis in a billet.

A. Yes.

38. Q. Now you have told my learned friend that there are two parcels in all - is that right?

A. Yes.

39. Q. And what was the space of time between these two parcels?

A. The same date.

40. Q. The two parcels were sold on the same date?

A. Yes, One was bought at noon; one earlier.

(Cont'd).

41. Q. By whom?

A. By him.

42. Q. For whom?

A. Miss Wright.

43. Q. And that was the only sale - is that right?

A. Yes

44. Q. You are absolutely positive as to that are you - that is the only money owing?

A. Yes.

45. Q. How many sales were there to Miss Wright?

A. She had a few dealings with me - just small transactions.

46. Q. How many transactions in all?

A. I do not know.

47. Q. 50?

A. No.

48. Q. Many as 20?

A. I don't think it was.

49. Q. 10?

A. Yes, maybe.

50. Q. Of this, approximately 10, how many would be through Cpl. Davis.

A. Well, they were all through his instructions - I did not know her previously.

51. Q. Then of these approximately 10 items you were paid for all, with the exception of those two on that day.

A. Yes - by Miss Wright.

52. Q. You were paid by whom?

A. Miss Wright.

53. Q. In each case?

A. Yes, with the exception of the two parcels on this one day.

54. Q. By Miss Wright personally?

A. Yes.

55. Q. You are quite sure as to that?

A. Quite - it was in my home.

56. Q. What would be the approximate value of all these other 8 or 9 parcels?

A. I do not know.

(Cont'd).

57. Q. No estimate?

A. In the shillings.

58. Q. Approximately when were these sales, you told us about, directed to Miss Wright?

A. During that six months must have been - I did not know her before.

59. Q. Were they before these others, those two you are talking about now, or before that.?

A. Yes.

60. Q. Did not you just tell the Court Mrs. Vickers that you did not know Miss Wright until Cpl. Davis introduced her to you one evening and you arranged to send these two parcels to her. ?

A. No, I have seen her several times - first in my home - he introduced her.

61. Q. How long had you known Miss Wright before any articles were sold to her at all. ?

A. I did not know her until Davis brought her.

62. Q. And how soon after Davis brought her did you sell her any article.?

A. The second time she came.

63. Q. And was that a direct personal sale?

A. Yes.

64. Q. Was Cpl. Davis present?

A. Yes.

65. Q. And Miss Wright paid you then and there?

A. Yes.

66. Q. And then approximately how much was involved that time?

A. We have been through all that.

67. Q. You cannot tell me?

A. Not exactly

68. Q. You do not know the amount, you do not know the article, and I suppose that holds equally true for the 8 or 9 items she made direct purchase from you.

A. Yes, they were only small transactions.

69. Q. Was this particular purchase of the 2 parcels in the middle of your acquaintance with her or the earlier part?

A. The end.

70. Q. Towards the end?

A. The end of both of them.

(Cont'd).

71. Q. The end of which?

A. Davis and her.

72. Q. Do you mean towards the end of his staying at your place?

A. I mean the end of the transaction - I never saw her again - it was not at the beginning.

73. Q. Approximately how long was it after that transaction that Davis moved out of your place?

A. I do not know.

74. Q. Would that particular sale we are talking about have taken place 3 or 4 months before he moved.

A. I do not know how long.

75. Q. What were in those two parcels?

A. The goods the young lady has put down before. - Crepe-de-chines, satins in lengths - all ticketed and priced separately.

76. Q. Have you an account of it?

A. I had only my home went into storage.

77. Q. You have no account of it?

A. I have lost them all.

78. Q. How do you know the price is £27. 0. 0.

A. He knew - we checked it over.

79. Q. Are your documents in storage or are they lost?

A. Lost - everything.

80. Q. They went into storage?

A. They were lost in storage.

81. Q. You were relying purely upon your memory for the amount?

A. I am not likely to forget.

82. Q. It was £27. 0. 0. to the penny?

A. Rather more - a few shillings more - Miss Wright agreed that it was that amount.

83. Q. Do you remember the value of each parcel?

A. I do not.

84. Q. You remember the approximate value of each parcel.

A. .....

85. Q. Is this fair then - you do not remember the dates Davis boarded with you - you do not remember the number of weeks he owed you - is that right?

(Cont'd).

A. Yes.

86. Q. You do not remember the dates of the sale or sales to Miss Wright?

A. No.

87. Q. You do not remember the number of articles exactly you sold to Miss Wright?

A. No.

88. Q. You do not remember the amounts of the other items of sale?

A. No.

89. Q. You did not know when the sales took place?

A. No - not of the dates.

90. Q. You do not remember the amount of each parcel?

A. No.

91. Q. You do not remember exactly what was in each parcel?

A. No - silks.

92. Q. All you know is that Davis owes you £27. 0. 0d. - is that right?

A. £20. 0. 0. for the £27. 0. 0.

93. Q. All you know is that these two parcels originally totalled £27. 0. 0?

A. Yes.

94. Q. And you remember that from your memory?

A. Practically - and I remember him too.

95. Q. You remember giving evidence under oath at a summary of evidence?

A. I have been up here befors.

96. Q. Do you remember giving evidence under oath to Capt. Mathieson, the Prosecuting Officer, at a summary of evidence of this case?

A. Yes.

97. Q. Do you remember this question being asked you by Cpl. Davis:

Page 4
Q. In that case can you tell me how the £26. 0. 0. or £27. 0. 0. is made up - would there be 20 pieces of silk or 10 pieces of silk - is it itemized?
A. Yes
Q. You can submit a bill showing this account in full.
A. Yes.

98. Q. Were these questions asked you?

A. Yes. (Cont'd).

99. Q. Were these questions made by him?

A. Yes.

100. Q. Are they true?

A. Yes.

101. Q. Look Mrs. Vickers maybe you and I do not understand each other - I am absolutely positive you made a statement here a few minutes ago that you could not remember the exact items in the parcels and that you could not remember the exact prices and all that you knew was that it came to about £27. 0. 0.

1 A. I had it in storage to my belief that account.

102. Q. And when was it lost from storage?

A. Well, it has been a matter of six weeks.

103. Q. Six weeks ago it was lost - right?

A. No, I went for it the day I saw this gentleman - we sold a bureau to a person when the furniture was in storage and I went to collect the papers - there was nothing in - they were missing.

104. Q. Mrs. Vickers I suppose it is true that Miss Wright continued to come to your place with Cpl. Davis after this individual transaction?

A. No.

105. Q. When did Cpl. Davis move out then?

A. That is best known to himself.

106. Q. Did he move out about this time.

A. I cannot give you the date he moved out

107. Q. Would this transaction be some weeks before he moved out.

A. I do not know.

108. Q. You would not know whether it was the date he moved out, or two months before?

A. I do not know the date.

109. Q. For all you know the sale in question may have taken place 5 months before he moved out?

A. All that I know is that the sale in question took place, and that he took the money - that is all I know, and that is why I am here.

110. Q. Now, look Mrs. Vickers this is a serious charge against this young man, and it is up to you to prove it and you must answer my question - I want to know from you whether this sale could have taken place 5 months before Cpl. Davis moved out of your home?

A. I do not know the date.

111. Q. You are not prepared to say then whether this particular sale took place one month before he left your place or 5 months, or one day?

A. I repeat, I do not know the date. (Cont'd).

112. Q. Do you remember the season of the year that this sale was supposed to have taken place.

A. Cpl. Davis left in the fall.

113. Q. Cpl. Davis left your house in the fall?

A. .....

114. Q. Do you remember the season of the year these 2 parcels were sold to Miss Wright?

A. I do not know the date - I don't pretend to guess.

115. Q. Do you know the season of the year?

A. No.

116. Q. But you did know absolutely positively that from the time that these two parcels were delivered to Cpl. Davis Miss Wright never came again to your home ?

A. No.

117. Q. That is right is it not?

A. Yes.

118. Q. Now Cpl. Davis moved out of your place in the fall of 1942?

A. Yes.

119. Q. And that these statements, Exhibits "A" and "B", are dated Oct 43?

A. Yes.

120. Q. So Cpl. Davis was gone about a year?

A. Yes, approximately.

121. Q. During that time did you ever see Miss Wright on the street?

A. Not to speak to her - I only saw her once a distance away.

122. Q. Did you ever write to her?

A. No

123. Q. Did you ever telephone her?

A. No.

124. Q. You have already told the Court that Cpl. Davis had told you all along that Miss Wright had not paid him the money?

A. Yes.

125. Q. And you believed that?

A. I did - he said he could not ask the family for that money, because the brother was going to marry into it.

126. Q. In other words you believed that - all this was before this meeting in Oct 43 - Miss Wright had not paid this money. ?

A. Yes, and I believed Davis would pay as he had promised

(Cont'd).

127. Q. And during all this time you did not once communicate with Miss Wright with a view to getting this money.

A. I had no need.

128. Q. Do you mean you did not need the money.

A. I mean I needed it badly.

129. Q. What do you mean?

A. Miss Wright had paid Davis - he was to bring the money to me - I believed that.

130. Q. Not two minutes ago Mrs. Vickers you told this Court under oath that you believed Miss Wright had not paid Davis.

A. No, I never believed that.

131. Q. Mrs. Vickers you have told this Court before that Davis was telling you all along that he had not yet received the money from Miss Wright.

A. Yes.

. . . . . .

President Will you be here at 2 O'clock Mrs. Vickers?

Mrs. Vickers. I'd rather call the whole thing off - I have never been so disgusted in all my life.

. . . . . .

Court adjourned for lunch.

Mrs.D.Nötson.

Questions by Defending Officer (contd)

Q. Mrs. Vickers, I now show you Exhibit "A". This shows that Cpl.Davis has undertaken to pay you 10/-d a week to discharge this amount, and the account was made up of Board £6., Mollie £8 and yourself £20, making a total of £34. Is that correct?

A. That's right.

Q. And I suppose you regarded all of this as money owing to you?

A. Yes.

Q. It was a debt to you - is that right?

A. Yes, by Cpl.Davis.

Q. You considered that this was a satisfactory way of having this debt paid off, by payments of 10/-d a week?

A. I thought it was the only way.

Q. That it was the best way you could get the money back - you considered that all of this money was owing to you by him?

A. Yes.

Q. What is this item of £8. to Mollie.

A. He owed that to my daughter.

Q. What for?

A. I don't know.

Q. How do you know that he owed that to Mollie?

A. Well, she said he owed it to her.

Q. The basis for you saying that he owed this to Mollie was that Mollie told him he owed it to her?

A. In my presence, yes.

Q. In your hearing?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you any idea how this £8. happened to be owing to her?

A. I don't know how he came to borrow it?

Q. Do you even know that it was borrowed?

A. She said it was. That is what I have always understood. Actually I was away from home when it transpired.

Q. My information, Mrs.Vickers, is that this is money which was obtained in some unknown way, and was given by Mollie to Cpl. Davis to hold for her as she did not want you to know that she had it. Could that be correct?

A. No I don't think it is correct.

Q. But you don't know?

A. I don't know why she should not want me to know she had it.

Q. You don't know how it happened to be in her possession?

A. No, it was her own money.

Q. You don't know how she got it or where it came from?

A. I know she saved it.

Q. Did she tell you that in the presence of Cpl.Davis?

A. I don't know about that.

Q. Is she available?

A. Well she is with the Pay Corps in Penny Street.

Q. Then why should you ask that this money be paid to you?

A. Well I had written this down when Cpl.Davis wrote that underneath - I had written these three amounts down.

Q. It was no business of yours - what business had Mollie's money to do with you?

A. It is really, she is not of age.

Q. Did she ask you to get this from him?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you any letter of authority to collect this for her?

A. No I did not think I required one.

Q. Amongst other things you claimed Cpl.Davis owed you, you decided you had better get this £8. back for Mollie too?

A. When I wrote these three items down I did not know he was going to sign on this paper at all.

Q. What you had in mind, as well as collecting the other money owing to you, you thought you would also collect money owing to Mollie?

A. As her mother, yes.

Q. This item of Board for £6. you have already told us you do not know for what period of time that covered. Do you recall a Sgt.McLean and his wife who stayed with you for a period of two weeks?

A. Yes.

Q. They stayed 2 weeks did they not?

A. Yes.

Q. How much did you collect from them?

A. I don't know - £2. each they paid me.

Q. My information is that you collected and insisted upon and did receive £16.

A. No. £2. each they offered when they came -

Q. My mistake - that you insisted and did receive the sum of £13. for their having stayed there for a period of 2 weeks?

A. I received £2. each per week, they offered that when they came. They paid that in London.

Q. You received in all £8. ?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you ask for any more than that £8 ?

A. No.

Q. All you received was £8 ?

A. I took their offer.

Q. There was no other sum mentioned by you?

A. No.

Q. This item of £20. You have told us you did not know exactly what the amount owing to you was - that it was in the neighbourhood of £27 ?

A. £27. and a few shillings.

Q. And you decided to accept £20. instead of the £27. to clear it?

A. Yes.

Q. You wrote these items down before the meeting with Cpl. Davis and Miss Wright?

A. I had that in my handbag.

Q. You had it written down before - this item of £20. was all that you had in mind and all that you ever dreamt was owing?

A. It was all I thought of getting.

Q. I suppose it was not in your mind that the sum owing was more than £20?

A. I had agreed to settle for £20.

Q. I suggest that was the entire amount owing to you?

A. No I had reduced it - it couldn't have been the entire amount.

Q. When did you reduce it?

A. After talking to Cpl.Davis.

Q. After talking to him after your meeting with Miss Wright or previously?

A. I had hoped to touch for the whole amount rather than wait for little bits.

Q. Are you content to accept little bits of payments of 10/-d a week?

A. If that was the only way, yes.

Q. You were content to accept £20. before you knew this was the only way to get this back?

A. Yes to get the full amount.

Q. You have told the Court he did make payments totalling £8?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you absolutely positive it was no more than that?

A. Yes.

Q. You have taken your oath on that?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you give receipts for those payments you have received?

A. Yes.

Q. For all of them?

A. Yes.

Q. And did you give receipts for previous payments you had received from him

A. Yes.

Q. Did you give receipts for any previous payments?

A. I did not receive any other payments.

Q. Did you get receipts from Cpl.Davis for his Board and room as he went along?

A. No it is not customary.

Q. Is it a fact then that the only receipts you gave to Cpl. Davis at any time were for payments on account of this agreement in Exhibit "A"?

A. Quite right.

Q. And they total £8 - is that right?

A. The one item is £8 - the item for Mollie is £8 - the board is £6.

Q. The total receipt you gave is £8?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you not occasionally tell Cpl.Davis that he could make payments owing to you under this agreement of Exhibit "A" to Mollie?

A. No by letter, for his own convenience.

Q. But it was acceptable to you that he should pay some of this money to Mollie.

A. I accepted a letter.

Q. The payment was in the letter?

A. Yes.

Q. And that you would accept receipts given by Mollie?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you give receipts on these forms? (Exhibit "C" was shown to Mrs.Vickers). Is that a receipt dated 15 Nov 43 - received from Arthur D. Davis the sum of £1?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that another receipt given by you? (Exhibit "D" produced and shown to Mrs.Vickers). Receipt dated 15 Dec 43 for £2. to Arthur D. Davis Jr.

A. Yes.

Q. And is this another receipt which you gave dated Jan 15th? (Receipt produced and shown to Mrs.Vickers, dated Jan 15th 44 receipt for £2. from Arthur D. Davis - Exhibit "E")

A. Yes.

Q. Another receipt from yourself to A.D.Davis dated Feb.16th for £2 (Exhibit "F"), and another receipt d/Mar 44, Receipt to A.D.Davis for £1 - Exhibit "G". Another receipt d/15 Mar received from Cpl.Davis £1 - Exhibit "H". Mrs. Vickers you have told us that Cpl.Davis paid you the sum of only £8. pursuant to this agreement of 43, is that right?

A. Yes. But I don't think I received that last one.

Q. And you have also told us that you are absolutely positive that you received none of the £27. from him prior to this date, and that there was the sum of £27. owing to you, and I suppose it is fair to say that your evidence with respect to the payments received by you under this Exhibit "A" agreement - your evidence with respect to that is just as good as your evidence with respect to the £27 you claim?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you totalled the amount of the receipts I have just shown you.

A. No.

Q. Are you good at figures?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you good at accounts?

A. Yes I think so.

Q. And you can remember quite well monies owing to you and monies received by you?

A. Yes.

Q. Would it surprise you to learn that these figures total to £9 and not £8 ?

A. No.

Q. Why would not it surprise you? You have just given an absolute positive oath it was £8 and nothing more.

A. I just said when I saw the last one I didn't receive that payment.

Q. Are you in the habit of sending receipts for monies you don't receive?

A. Well I sometimes have the receipts ready.

Q. Are you suggesting Cpl.Davis stole that receipt from you?

A. Oh no.

Q. How would he get it?

A. I don't know.

Q. And you have told the Court that your evidence with respect to the payments received by you is just as good as your evidence with respect to the £27. claimed by you - is that so?

A. I claim £20 - I agreed to settle for £20 not £27.

Q. Did you put this matter in the hands of solicitors?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you like writing letters?

A. No.

Exhibit "J" produced - letter d/Mar 27th, and read aloud:

Q. What do you mean about tattling to Capt.Rodgers?

A. Davis knows what I mean.

Q. I want to know - the Court wants to know. Will you answer the question please?

A. Yes, it was telling tales of all the others - him of all people.

Q. What tales?

A. Anything he found out about them.

Q. About the boys? - Let's have all this story - what is this story about tattle? Tattling about what and about whom?

A. Oh about anything he could get.

Q. Name one specific instance. Capt.Rodgers is here, we can call him. Name me one instance.

A. No I don't want to - not in public.

Q. Did Capt.Rodgers tell you to send these cartridges on? They were live cartridges.

A. Yes.

Q. And you are suggesting to me that he would tell you as a civilian to forward live cartridges by messenger to another soldier?

A. He asked me to send the things along.

Q. Your oath is Capt.Rodgers told you to send these cartridges on to Cpl.Davis.

A. Everything here.

Q. Did he tell you to send these cartridges?

A. Yes.

Q. Were the cartridge s mentioned?

A. No. They were when I was talking to him but they weren't when I sent them.

(Capt.Epstein continued to read out the letter)

Q. When you say he did not reply to your letters, do you mean Captain Rodgers?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you been writing to him too?

A. Yes.

Q. How many letters did you write to Capt.Rodgers?

A. Several - I don't know - more than one probably.

Q. Not probably - you know definitely.

A. Well, our matter is not bearing upon that.

Q. With respect to Cpl.Davis and others in his Unit?

A. No not all of them, no. Other matters.

Q. What other matters?

A. Private. My affairs.

Q. With respect to the Army?

A. Yes.

Q. Well, just to test your credibility, I would like you to tell the Court.

A. Private.

Q. Private? - How private?

.....

Q. You refuse to say? Well, I wont press you for an answer.

continuing reading the letter -

What was the affair of Feb 29th of the Sgt. and L/Sgt. you discuss?

A. When McLean said that about Britain.

Q. And who is the L/Cpl?

A. I suppose it was the one with him. It was after the Pay Corps dance. He had to leave.

Q. And this business of Feb 29th is the remark that Sgt.McLean was alleged to have made?

A. Oh it was an all night sitting. My husband made him go, he was creating a disturbance all night long.

Q. And did you discuss with him the question of the board you charged?

A. No.

... continuing reading the letter aloud -

Q. What was Mollie supposed to be there for? What was he supposed to see Mollie for?

A. To give her some mail I presume.

Q. You presume! - you wrote this.

A. Yes, he had given her some envelopes.

Q. How much money do you know he gave Mollie?

A. The money I got the receipts for.

Q. How do you know he did not give her more?

A. I opened them.

Q. Do you open all Mollie's letters?

A. No I open my own.

Q. And Mollie's?

A. No.

And who are Edna and Bob?

Miss Wright and her Canadian boy friend.

And what were they supposed to come for?

They were to come together to meet Davis and ask him if he had paid.

This letter was written March 27th 44 wasn't it? That was written this Spring wasn't it?

Yes.

March 27th 44?

Yes.

And he was supposed to come with Edna on March 27th 1944?

May I see that again, please..... They were to come again together.

They did come again in Oct 43, and he signed this release saying that she didn't owe him any money.

A. They bought a dog from us - a Scottie dog.

Q. Does he also owe you for a dog?

A. No, he paid for the dog.

Q. I suggest to you Mrs.Vickers that Edna and Bob were to see you with respect to some letters of Davis's which you had sent to Edna.

A. No - not in that letter which Davis had sent me about Edna.

Q. Have you sent letters to Davis about Edna and Bob?

A. No.

Q. At no time?

A. No.

Q. Now, you told us a moment ago Edna and Bob were to come with Davis to re-affirm that she did not owe you anything.

A. Pardon me - that is since, about the letters, and they did come about the letter. They all read the letter and we agreed to burn it, the letter that Davis had sent me about Edna.

Q. She read it?

A. He read it.

Q. What about the dog?

A. Well he bought a dog - he has been three times in all since then.

Q. Davis bought a dog?

A. Bob bought a Scottie dog.

Q. And Edna? She was with him? She hadn't bought a dog?

A. No.

Q. What is this raincoat business?

A. The raincoat that is mentioned before.

Q. Let us hear all about the raincoat.

A. Well, he borrowed it for a W.A.A.F friend.

Q. Davis borrowed what?

A. The raincoat.

Q. From whom?

A. It is Mollie's raincoat - he borrowed it from me.

Q. Was Davis present then?

A. Yes.

Q. My suggestion is Mrs.Vickers that you loaned a raincoat to some lady when Davis was not even present.

A. He was with her, he had stayed the night there, a lady by the name of Parkinson.

Q. What about the shoes?

A. He got the other one, she took it to try to see if it would fit her.

Q. The same girl with the raincoat?

A. Yes.

Q. Cpl.Davis took a shoe from you?

A. He was there when she took it. He was seeing her the following Saturday, he was to bring the money the following Saturday.

Q. Is this another sale you were making?

A. She was his friend.

Q. Why should he volunteer to carry on all these transactions for you?

A. Because he was enamoured with the dame I suppose.

Q. Why should you when he failed to pay you this £27 - why should you trust him to carry on further transactions?

A. Well, why shouldn't I?

Q. O.K. I suggest to you that you sent this shoe to him in a box to the address of this Unit.

A. No he asked me for it. One shoe was no good without the other.

Q. Which did you send him, the first shoe or the second shoe?

A. The second shoe.

Q. And you are telling me that he took a shoe - that some friend, some Miss Parkinson took a shoe from your place, he was to collect the money from her to pay it to you and eventually you had to send the other shoe to his address here?

A. He was taking the other shoe when he had paid - that was the arrangement.

Q. He was to take the second shoe when he had paid the money?

A. Yes.

Q. And you forwarded it on to him without ever getting paid.

A. A while after.

Q. Why?

A. Well, the one shoe was not any use to me.

Q. Why didn't you ask for the shoe?

A. I don't know where she lives.

Q. Who is the "dame who whopes to become Mrs.Davis?"

A. The dame who has the shoe.

Q. How did you know he would be hearing from her?

A. If you read the letter there, it tells you.

Q. Not a word here about it. If she had been to visit you why didn't you ask her for the shoe?

A. She hadn't been to visit me after she took the shoe - not in between seeing Davis, I saw him several times about it.

Q. She took the shoe after you had discussed her in this letter.

A. No I discussed the shoe with Davis in the meantime several times.

Q. It was the same woman who took the shoe?

The P.S. of the letter was read to Mrs.Vickers who said :

He did and its right. I don't know where he is but if he were here he would substantiate that.

Q. When did you decide to take military steps against Cpl. Davis.

A. On Capt.Rodgers' advice.

Q. Capt. Rodgers advised you to do that - did he?

A. Yes.

Q. And what about your legal adviser?

A. He said it would have been different had he been a civilian.

Q. Had you written Messrs.Winder & Cliff, Solicitors, of 23 Sun Street, Lancaster?

A. Yes.

Q. And did they on your instructions write a letter to Cpl.Davis?

A. I believe they did.

Q. Is that the letter carrying out your instructions? (Exhibit produced and shown to Mrs.Vickers)

A. No I haven't had any copy of a letter.

Q. Are those the instructions you gave them?

A. No they had that paper with the £8. and £20.

Q. Did you tell them on May 4th 1944 that Cpl.Davis owed you £20 for goods you supplied to Miss Wright?

A. I left it with them.

Q. Did he owe you £20. at that date?

A. When I took the -

Q. Did he owe you £20?

A. I went to the solicitors about it.

Q. What is the date?

A. 4th May 44. I took the exhibit with me and left it.

Q. Did Cpl.Davis owe you £20 on that date?

What about the monies he had paid you on account?

A. Well I had given them to Mollie.

Q. The £8. owing to Mollie - you had given it to Mollie? Did Cpl.Davis ask you to give it to Mollie? Don't you think he wants accounts for money he is supposed to owe you?

A. He admitted he owed her £8.

Q. What about the extra £9 he had paid you.

A. We have gone into that before.

Q. Oh, he didn't pay it to you - was that what you said before?

A. I said I couldn't account for that one.

Q. You took the case away from the solicitors?

A. No.

Q. Is it still in their hands?

A. I asked their advice on it and I just told them I was coming here to-day.

Q. Did you take the case away from the solicitors? Would you look at this letter please? Your own solicitors withdrew from a case without even telling you?

A. I have not had any letter from them. It is funny Mr.Cliff didn't tell me so yesterday.

Q. Solicitors as a rule do not withdraw from cases except on instructions.

A. He said he would prefer it with a civilian - that was the only thing - he could have dealt with it differently.

Q. (Def.Officer produced Exhibit "K" for Mrs.Vickers perusal) Can you remember the date you sent that letter?

A. I suppose it would have the date on the envelope.

Q. Can you remember the date?

A. No.

Q. Is this your writing?

A. Yes.

Q. And also that?

A. Yes.

Q. This is on April 11th, 1944?

A. Yes.

Q. On the face of it it says ....(Exhibit "L" produced and read aloud in Court by the Def.Officer) - You wrote quite regularly to Cpl.Davis didn't you? Is that your writing?

A. Yes.

(Exhibit "M" produced and read aloud in Court)

Q. Did you Write this - this is another post card d/4 May?

A. Yes.

Q. You knew his address at that time did you not? - the 4th May?

A. I had it given here.

Q. Why did you include it in your letter to him in London?

A. So that they could trace who he was.

Q. I suggest that you put that in as a threat to him - if he did not meet your demands you would write again to his family.

A. No.

Q. And your story is that they might have difficulty in tracing him in London so you put his home address in Canada on the post card ?

A. Yes.

Q. I see. Is that the best story you have?

A. It is the truth. It isn't a story.

(Exhibit "N" produced and read aloud in Court)

Q. Is "Wyndham" Major Wyndham?

A. Yes.

Q. And was he selling Cpl.Davis's lighter to Mary Johnstone?

A. She said so.

(Exhibit "O" produced and shown to Mrs.Vickers)

Q. You sent this?

A. Yes.

Exhibit "O" was then read aloud in Court.

Q. Why did you put that in block letters instead of ordinary writing?

A. I don't know.

Q. Just to bring a little bit more pressure to bear on him?

A. No.

Q. What are these..."something I thought he would be interested in"

A. It was an advertisement he might be interested in.

Q. Why should he be interested in this advertisement?

A. He knows why.

Q. You tell us why.

A. I thought he would be, that's all.

Q. Well why?

A. From a conversation we had.

Q. Where did you get Cpl.Davis's home address from?

A. From him.

Q. On this Exhibit "N" you addressed to him in London, you put "London, Ontario, 125, York Street", you told us you got that from somebody else.

A. I got the copy of it here.

Q. Who from?

A. Capt.Rodgers.

Q. Capt.Rodgers gave you his address in Canada and his regimental number?

A. Yes.

Q. I suggest to you Mrs.Vickers that for a long period of time you engaged on a long deliberately thought out course of bringing the utmost pressure to bear in forcing him to pay.

A. I thought he owed the money and should pay.

Q. And as a result of that you bombarded him with letters in England.

A. No.

Q. Bombarded his home in Canada with letters.

A. No.

Q. You sent him letters in addition to those I have produced to-day, did you?

A. I may have done. He sent me plenty.

Q. You badgered Capt.Rodgers and other officers here?

A. No.

Q. So that Capt.Rodgers had to give instructions that you were not to be allowed in this building?

A. That is news to me.

Q. It surprises you?

A. Yes greatly.

Q. You did not think you had bothered him?

A. I don't think I have. He has not told me that.

Q. I suggest to you further that Cpl.Davis when he left your place he left a kit with articles which you went through.

A. Just a kit - a cardboard box.

Q. And it was open ?

A. There was nothing to go through.

Q. You found cartridges, a cigarette lighter and other things.

A. No the cigarette lighter had nothing to do with me. He left it with me to pay his debts,

Q. Do you know of an interview between your husband and your daughter Mollie and Captain Rodgers?

A. My husband has never interviewed Capt.Rodgers. Davis said he had, and he said he had never seen Capt.Rodgers. I went to his place of employment when he was working nights and he said "Never"!

Q. And you had this prosecution brought in order to get this Cpl. to pay you your money.

A. To get payment, yes.

Q. Your sole interest in this Court-Martial is to get Davis to pay you your money.

A. To pay me what is my own.

Q. Apart from that you have no interest in it?

A. I have not.

Q. You want to get your debt paid off?

A. Yes.

Q. Mrs. Vickers have you ever been to see a mental doctor.

A. I have not.

Q. You have not - at no time?

A. No.

Q. Would you take your oath on that?

A. Absolutely.

Q. Have you ever been to see any Doctor about mental disturbances.

A. Never.

Questioned by the Prosecuting Officer.

Second Witness. Miss Edna Wright, 54, Torrisholme Road, Lancaster, sworn, states:

Q. Where are you employed Miss Wright?

A. Canadian Treasury Office, and have been for some time.

Q. Do you know the accused, Cpl.Davis?

A. Yes.

Q. Is he in Court to-day?

A. Yes.

Q. When did you first know Davis?

A. August 42.

Q. Where was he living then, Miss Wright?

A. With Mrs.Vickers at 19, St.Nicholas Street, Lancaster.

Q. Did you have any business deals with him?

A. Yes.

Q. What were they?

A. Goods that he got from Mrs.Vickers and he asked me if I wanted to buy any.

Q. What sort of goods?

A. Silk goods.

Q. And what was the arrangement about them?

A. Cpl.Davis asked if I would like any. He brought me the parcels and I sold them and gave him the money - that was all I knew about it.

Q. How many parcels did you obtain from Cpl.Davis?

A. I can't tell you to be exact.

Q. About how many?

A. About 9 or 10.

Q. And did you make any agreement about the price you would pay?

A. Mrs.Vickers put a slip in the parcel of each piece of material and I used to send the slip back to her with the money.

Q. To whom did you deliver the money?

A. Cpl.Davis.

Q. Had you previously examined these goods anywhere.

A. No.

Q. And you first saw them in Cpl.Davis's possession?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you know who the owner was?

A. Yes, he told me who they were from.

Q. He told you they were from Mrs.Vickers?

A. Yes.

Do you remember what period of time you purchased these articles?

I can't remember what any exact dates at all. I met him in August 42 I think, or the end of September - he left Mrs. Vickers then so it must have been between that period.

Between August and September 1942?

Yes.

How did you pay Cpl.Davis?

On each parcel I received I took out what goods I could sell, or what goods I wanted myself, gave him the money and the things I didn't want back in a parcel with the money.

You paid him in cash?

Yes. I can't tell you any amounts, they came over a period and I never kept any account. There was just one parcel I kept an account for.

How much did you pay for it?

A. It just happens to be some of the goods I kept for myself that is why I wrote it down.

Q. Did you make these entries at the time?

A. Yes. All the parcels were not like that. Some of the parcels just came with one length of material in.

The witness produced a notebook.

Q. That is one particular parcel of goods which you had at one time?

A. (reading from her notebook)

2 yards Lemon	15s	10d
2.1/8 yds Blue silk...	13s	8d
3¾ yds blue crepe.....1.	17s	3d
4 yds rust linen.....	18s	0d
4 yds brown "	18s	0d
	£5. 2s	9d

I am not sure whether we kept all those though.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Mrs.Vickers about this business deal and its payment in the presence of the accused?

A. Yes.

Q. What was the nature of that conversation?

A. I was clearing myself - it was Cpl.Davis and he signed a statement to say I had given him the money.

Q. Why were you clearing yourself with Cpl.Davis?

A. He told me that Mrs.Vickers told Cpl.Davis I had not paid him.

Q. As a result of the conversation you had with Mrs.Vickers you had a conversation with the accused and Mrs.Vickers together?

A. Yes that's right.

Q. Just tell us what happened - what was said between the three of you.

A. Well, I said to Cpl.Davis"will you prove to Mrs.Vickers that I have given you the money for all the stuff I have received from you" and he said "Yes" and I asked him if he would write a paper out to prove I had given him this money, and he did and gave it to me.

Will you look at this paper please (Exhibit "B" produced) - that is the document you refer to? Is that his signature?

Yes.

Did he give any explanation to Mrs.Vickers at that time?

No, he hardly spoke at all. She asked him if he would sign a statement to her to pay so much back a week, and he turned round to me and he said he was very sorry I had been troubled by this - that I had been worried by her.

You had been worried by Mrs. Vickers?

Yes, She had been up twice with then you see to the office - a business office.

Q. He told Mrs.Vickers in your presence that you had paid him?

A. Yes.

Q. And that you had received the goods.

A. Yes.

Q. The date of that agreement is October 29th 1943 is it not?

A. The 28th.

Q. Sorry - the 28th. So that agreement was signed approximately a little over a year after the actual transaction?

A. Yes.

Questions by Defending Officer.

Q. Miss Wright, you have told my learned friend that there may have been 9 or 10 of these transactions in all.

A. Yes.

Q. Was each one from Cpl.Davis?

A. Every one was from Cpl.Davis.

Q. Did you make any purchases or accept any deliveries, or pay any monies to Mrs.Vickers direct at any time?

A. No.

Q. Are you absolutely positive about that.

A. Yes I am positive.

Q. The reason I ask you is that Mrs.Vickers has told us here to-day of 8 or 9 occasions you purchased articles direct from her and paid her at the time.

A. No, I never did.

Q. In each one of these cases you paid the money to Cpl.Davis?

A. Yes.

Q. Could you remember what would be the largest individual amount ?

A. I should think this would be the one - £5.

Q. That was the reason you kept track of it?

A. Yes because I was buying it myself.

Q. With respect to some of the other articles, you were passing them on to others?

A. Yes.

Q. The reason I ask you that is because Mrs.Vickers has told us there were two parcels delivered to Cpl.Davis here for you on one day which totalled £27. 0s 0d.

A. Ridiculous.

Q. Would you be prepared to venture some sort of an estimate as to the total price of all the articles?

A. I don't see how I can really.

Q. Would it have been as much as £50?

A. Oh no.

Q. Would it have been more than £10?

A. Yes it could have been more than £10.

Q. Would it have been more than £20?

A. I don't think so.

Q. You do not think the total of the 9 or 10 purchases would come in all to more than £20?

A. No. We didn't keep them all. We sent some of the things back to Mrs.Vickers.

Q. You are quite sure that on no occasion there were two parcels totalling £27. Os Od or anywhere near to that?

A. Quite sure.

Q. During the period when you were making these purchases were you over at the Vickers house at all?

A. I only went there about twice. I don't know whether it was during this time.

Q. Did you at any time see these dress materials at Mrs.Vickers' house?

A. No.

Q. I understand that sometime in the Fall of 42, Cpl.Davis moved out of Mrs.Vickers' place.

A. That's right.

Q. I understand further that you in fact helped him to get another billet.

A. Yes.

Q. That is definite?

A. Yes.

Q. Have you any idea why he moved out?

A. Well, I could say something. I met Mrs.Vickers you see, and I had been in the house once, I think, then I saw the condition of the place and I told him it was a terrible place to stay in and she was an awful woman, and I did find him somewhere else to go, and he had lost one or two things out of his kit.

Objection by P.O.

D.O. The whole case stands or falls on the credibility of Mrs.Vickers. I asked Mrs.Vickers why Cpl.Davis moved out. She gave her reasons. If this witness has personal knowledge - if she has - as to why he moved out, I think we are entitled to that knowledge. Mrs. Vickers you will remember told the Court that Miss Wright had nothing to do with obtaining another billet for Cpl.Davis. Miss Wright tells us she, in fact, had. I am saying that, since the issue of the credibility of the chief witness is so highly in issue, that all these circumstances which might help the Court to arrive at some estimate as to the reliability of the evidence of Mrs.Vickers are submissible evidence going to the credit of Mrs. Vickers. My point is that anything the witness has said, such as the conditions of the house, are reasons which may contradict Mrs.Vickers' reason.

P.O. I have no objection to that, but as to the witness giving her own opinion as to what sort of a woman Mrs.Vickers is - the Court itself will form an opinion of the witness.

D.O. Since Cpl.Davis' intentions are in issue - since he is charged with fraudulent intent - any statements he made at that time to Mrs.Vickers which would throw light on his own state of mind at the time, is I think submissible evidence, and I propose asking the witness of statements made to her by Cpl.Davis, in her own words, but actual statements made by him to her.

P.O. I think that is fair.

The Defending Officer continued his questioning:

Q. Did Cpl.Davis tell you about that time as to any reasons he might have had for wanting to move?

A. Yes, but I don't think that I'd be allowed to say them in Court. Well, one morning he met me and told me he had to turn her out of his bed, and I said he had no right to be in a house like that?

Q. Any other reasons?

A. Can't remember at the time.

Q. Would it refresh your memory at all if you were to cast your mind back to letters to his home in Canada?

A. Yes definitely.

Q. Would you tell the Court what he had to say about that?

A. He told me that she had got his address from his personal belongings and was writing to his wife and family about different girl friends he had made while he was over here.

Q. Any question raised with respect to accounts with her or charges?

A. No I don't think so.

Q. The fact of the matter is that you did get another billet for him?

A. Yes. I asked a friend of mine and she got another friend of hers who lived opposite to take him in.

Q. And he left Mrs.Vickers' place about what month?

A. The end of September or the beginning of October.

Q. It wasn't until Oct 43 that you had this meeting you have told us about with Mrs.Vickers and Cpl.Davis a year later?

A. Yes.

Q. During that period of a year, were you approached by Mrs.Vickers about monies owing to her by Davis or yourself?

A. No never, only two days before this was signed.

Q. You said something to the Court about her coming to your office.

A. Two days in succession. That is - one day when I went down to her house and the day before that.

Q. And during the interval of a year or so, did you see Mrs. Vickers at all?

A. Yes I saw her in the streets.

Q. Did you ever talk to her?

A. Just "Hello" - I think she once stopped me and started to tell me about someone else she seemed to have a grudge against.

Q. You did see her on the street and exchange words with her?

A. Yes.

Q. Did she ever during these times mention the fact of yourself or Cpl.Davis owing her money?

A. No.

Q. If you or Cpl.Davis owed her money, I expect you would have expected her to mention it?

A. Yes certainly.

Q. What were your reactions when she came up to the office claiming this money in Oct 43?

A. I was just shocked - I couldn't believe it.

Q. You hadn't the slightest reason for believing anything was owing?

A. No.

Q. You assumed from her actions everything was paid?

A. Yes. Cpl.Davis was still living with her while I was getting the things you see.

Q. Then he moved out - he was away for a period of a year before the thing was ever mentioned to you?

A. Yes.

Q. Did the amount claimed surprise you?

A. Yes I had no idea - I mean I can't tell you now any figures.

Q. You told us it might possibly come up to £20?

A. Yes. I had no idea what amount until Mrs.Vickers mentioned it to me you see.

Q. And since that meeting of 28 Oct 43, has Mrs.Vickers been bothering you at all?

A. Yes.

Q. In what respect?

A. When Cpl.Davis went to London to work she came up the following day and said he had missed paying her her money, and I told her it was nothing to do with me, and she sent me a card or something to say.....

Q. Has she been sending you letters?

A. Yes.

Q. More than one?

A. She sent me one yesterday or the day before. Yesterday I think it was. She sent one to a friend of mine that I had written to when I knew him. She sent it to a boy I started going out with.

Q. Did Cpl.Davis ever tell you as to why he stopped making payments to Mrs.Vickers under this agreement?

A. Yes.

Q. Why?

A. Because she had not kept her promise about writing home to his people.

Q. She was still writing home to his people?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he ever tell you why he signed that document that he had?

A. He said he didn't want any more trouble at home.

Q. Did he say anything that might indicate that he didn't owe it.

A. I told him I didn't know who to believe. He said when I went down there "I was a fool for signing that paper". He thought she would stop writing home but she didn't so he stopped paying her.

Q. Did he at any time ever tell you that he had in fact paid over the proceeds of the sale to Mrs.Vickers at the time and did not owe her any money?

A. Yes he told me that.

DEFENDING OFFICER.

I intend to be very brief in my submission if it pleases this Court. This entire charge stands or falls on the evidence of Mrs.Vickers. The accused is charged with fraudulent conversion - a very serious crime - which means that he made up his mind fraudulently to deprive her of money that was rightfully hers. I do not propose to go into each item point by point showing that Mrs.Vickers is an absolutely untrustworthy witness who has allowed herself to get twisted up, whose affairs are in such a muddle that neither she nor anybody else can figure them out; I merely wish to make a bald statement, which I do - that it will be impossible for any Court of Law to convict an accused person on the muddled testimony produced and heard in this Court to-day. Miss Wright, who is an absolutely independent witness, who owes nothing to either Mrs.Vickers or Cpl.Davis, has come and contradicted Mrs.Vickers on some of the most essential points. The fact that there was no purchase in her opinion that would amount to more than possibly £5. - the fact that the total number of the purchases would come to perhaps £20. - the fact that she did not at any time make a direct purchase from Mrs.Vickers and Mrs.Vickers has sworn that on 8 or 9 occasions she did and paid cash to her; the fact that she saw Mrs.Vickers on a number of occasions and exchanged words with her during the intervening year - from Oct 42 to Oct 43, and not one word was mentioned. I suggest to this Court that Mrs.Vickers' affairs are so confused and her mind so confused, that she does not know what this is all about. She has bothered Cpl.Davis - as he has told Miss Wright - by writing to his family. He finally decided to get out of her place and still she bothered him, and in a moment of weakness thought it was better to sign this document and stop the trouble with his family, even though he was not responsible for the amount that he signed to, hoping it would stop these notes. He still got the letters and decided he had better stop paying entirely. I submit to this Court respectfully, the only reasonable conclusion they can come to is that there is not the slightest trace of fraudulent intent to convert anything owing to Mrs.Vickers, or that, if anything, she has converted some of his things and that the charge should be dismissed.

PROSECUTING OFFICER.

My submission to the Court is that this is not the time for the Court to consider the credibility of the witness. They are considering now the charges and what has been alleged, and then whether there is any answer, any explanation, which may be required from the accused. You are not deciding now that the accused is guilty or innocent, you are deciding whether there is any evidence on which a Court might reasonably convict at all and the charge is fraudulent conversion of a certain sum of money - the exact amount is not material - if it differed by a few pounds the Court could make a special finding. The evidence so far is that Mrs.Vickers had delivered certain goods to the accused with instructions to sell to Miss Wright, and that she did not receive the money. That is corroborated by Miss Wright who says that she purchased the goods and paid the money to Cpl.Davis, and that subsequently Cpl.Davis admitted to her and to Mrs.Vickers that he had received the goods. In view of the evidence I submit that this is not the time for the Court to decide there is no case against the accused and not the time for the Court to decide as to the credibility of the witness Mrs.Vickers.

DEFENDING OFFICER.

Entirely apart from the question of the credibility of witnesses, it will be noted that the charge against the accused is fraudulent conversion of property contrary to the Larceny Act in that he fraudulently converted £26. being the proceeds of certain goods delivered to him for sale by Mrs.Vickers. Now Mrs.Vickers has told the Court of her own mouth that in the first place she regarded this merely as a debt owing to her. Well that is not fraudulent conversion. If I signed the signature of any member of this Court to a cheque and afterwards find that its O.K. - sure! go ahead and owe me the proceeds - that is not forgery. In this case, even assuming (which I don't for a minute) that Cpl.Davis had received this money and had not paid her, and at no time intended to pay her, just the same the actions of Mrs. Vickers change the character of the transaction from the conversion - which it could have been I could mention - to a straight business matter of debt. She was content to regard him as owing her so much money - that is the only way in which she regarded this transaction. A straight matter of civil debt and not of Criminal law. I think Mrs.Vickers put the matter most aptly towards the end of my cross examination of her when she said she instituted these proceedings in order to force Cpl.Davis to pay her the money he owed her. In other words, she is using the instrumentality of a Court-

Martial - using this Court - as a debt collecting agency. My submission is, therefore, entirely apart from a question of credibility whatsoever. The charge as laid has not been proven.

PROSECUTING OFFICER.

I submit that any condonation or forgiveness of a person injured by crime does not excuse the crime. I made a note of that particular point. It obviously strikes one immediately that, although a crime has been committed, what is the result if the person injured forgives the wrongdoer? Does that then make what was a crime purely an innocent act as far as Criminal Law is concerned? I quote now from Cranshaws Canadian Criminal Code & Notations of a similar section in the Canadian Criminal Code :

(The P.O. read the section out in Court).

When that happens it does not affect the fact that a crime has been committed. What the individual does who has been injured does not affect the Criminal [illegible], and does not affect his punishment.

(The P.O. reads Sections 1 and 2 from 9 Halsbury Laws of England)

"A crime is an unlawful act which is an offence against the public and renders the person guilty of the act liable to legal punishment". While the crime is often an injury to a private person, who in this case has a remedy in a Civil action, it is an act contrary to the order of peace and well-being of society when a crime is punishable by the State. The Civil proceeding has resulted in recovery of property, the enforcement of a right for the advantage of a person suing, but a Criminal proceeding is a punishment of a public offence and it has been described as the standing forward as a Prosecutor on behalf of a subject on public grounds. A similar case in MilitaryLaw - we are talking Military Law - for instance - a Pte. soldier steals a carton of cigarettes from his comrade, and his comrade says "Well you owe me 300 cigarettes" but his Company Commander hears about it and for the sake of discipline in his Unit, he is quite entitled to have the man tried and if found Guilty, have the man punished - it is exactly the same situation. For the sake of discipline in the Unit. The same as the case here, except it is for the Public Welfare.

Third Witness. Mrs. Audrey McLean, 23A, Queen Street, Lancaster, having been duly sworn states:

Q. Mrs.McLean I believe you and your husband lived for a time at the home of Mrs.Vickers - the woman whom you have seen in this Court - I believe you also know Cpl.Davis.

A. Yes.

Q. How long was your husband there?

A. Mac was there a month. - Just a little over 4 weeks.

Q. How long were you there?

A. About a little over 3 weeks.

Q. And for your Board and room, what were you to pay?

A. £4. a week for the two of us.

Q. And for the first week your husband was there before you?

A. He gave her £2.

Q. And the next week you were there?

A. I gave her £4.

Q. And each of you were there for the balance of 2 weeks - normally you would pay her £8, how much did she claim from you?

A. £12. 19s 0d.

Q. Did you eventually pay it to her?

A. I gave it to her.

Q. Why?

A. Well, we were leaving the next day, we did not want anything more unpleasant to follow. I gave her the money purely and simply because I did not want any more bother.

Q. Then you overpaid her £4. 19s 0d?

A. Yes.

Questioned by the President:

Q. Have you any receipts for the money you paid?

A. No.

Q. Did you pay this money to Mrs.Vickers - just the two of you? Had you any witnesses there when you paid the money?

A. No. Just the two of us. I have no witnesses.

4th. Witness.

Capt. John Rodgers, Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.F.C. having been duly sworn states:-

Questions by Defending Officer:-

Q. What is your position in the Army?

A. In this Unit I am Adjutant, Quartermaster and Paymaster.

Q. You know Cpl. Davis?

A. Yes.

Q. How long have you known him?

A. About 1 year 10 months.

Q. We have heard evidence in this Court from a witness, Mrs. Vickers, to the effect that she communicated with you to enquire what she should do with some live cartridges belonging to Cpl. Davis. Is that so?

A. She did not communicate with me, she came to see me in the office and told me.

Q. Did you tell her to send these to Cpl. Davis?

A. No.

Q. We have also heard some evidence about a woman's black suede shoe. Do you recall the incident some time ago when Cpl. Davis received a single black shoe through the mail?

A. Yes.

Q. Woman's shoe?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you know who that shoe was from?

A. Mrs. Vickers.

~~PROSECUTING OFFICER READS FROM M.111, P.108, Sec.116.~~

Q. You have known Mrs. Vickers for some time. You have seen her a number of times here?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you take some course of action with regard to permitting or not permitting her to enter this building.

A. After the visit from her, I decided that I should not see her any more and instructed the guard that she was not to be allowed in the building.

Q. From your conversation and knowledge of her generally, would you be prepared to place any truth on any statement she would make under oath?

A. I would believe nothing she said or swore too.

Q. Have you had any letters from her?

A. Many letters.

Q. From your experience and knowledge of Cpl. Davis during the 1 year 10 months, what would you say with respect to his reliability or integrity?

A. His military character while with this Detachment was good.

Q. Have you ever had any information or any grounds for suspecting that his honesty or character as an individual was not good?

A. Not in his military character, but of course Mrs. Vickers cast some reflection on him.

Q. Apart from Mrs. Vickers?

A. No.

Q. Are you in a position to make any comment on this question from your experience with Cpl. Davis. Is he the sort of man who would try to make money out of anyone.

A. I do not know him socially.

DEFENDING OFFICER.

I intend to be very, very short in summing up my two points that were raised in my submission yesterday with respect to the law. Well with respect to the law, even if Mrs. Vickers' story were true, which we do not attempt to refute, but solely for the purpose of argument, assuming it is that the charge has not been made out because the character of the transaction has been changed by her. I am not suggesting that a condonation or mere forgiveness by her would wipe out the agreement, because the agreement is not a matter between two individuals, but is a matter between the Army and this soldier, or the law and this soldier, but I do suggest that were the person who claims that they have been defrauded, or whose goods have been converted, themselves change the character of the transaction from one of conversion to a straight civil matter of debt, thus my submission that there are no grounds whatsoever for regarding the transaction as other than what the person whose goods are involved, themselves are content and willing to regard. I do not wish to labour that point, however, because in this particular case a far more important argument I think, was the argument of a fact rather than the law, that is the question of the credibility of the Chief Witness, Mrs. Vickers. My submission is that this case cannot be better than the evidence of the credibility of the chief person involved. I do not propose going through the multidudinous points in which the witness, Mrs. Vickers has been caught out in absolute lies, the point in which she is obviously mistaken or confused, and I am content to leave that question entirely to the sound discretion of this Court, and merely say that the evidence of Mrs. Vickers was absolutely worthless in any court of law in the land. I am making respectful submission that this court should not, as any court in the world could not, make a finding respecting fraudulent intent on the perjured, muddled, confused and inconsistent story of the complainant. I wish again for just a moment to draw the attention of this Court to the contention of Commercial Law and Justice, but before the accused can be placed in jeopardy, the evidence against him must be clear and pointing to his guilt beyond any reasonable doubt. If the court entertains any reasonable doubt whatsoever as to whether every single ingredient or any single ingredient of a charge has been made out, the Court must, in accordance with the law, give the accused the benefit of that doubt. I go so far as to say that I can recall no case in which the evidence upon which a charge has been laid, has been so poor, been so bad, as in this case. I think perhaps the Court might well wonder with me why the charge was ever proceeded with.

PROSECUTING OFFICER.

Concerning the Defence submission as to the law in this case, I submit again the statement of the law which I have read to the Court (9 Halsbury and Cranshaw Commercial Code) in substance that is, that a crime in a criminal proceeding has for its object, punishment of a public offence, and any agreement between the individuals concerned cannot affect the question as to whether or not a crime has been committed. It might affect ~~punishment~~ as to the punishment. As to the facts, I agree with the Defence that the case ~~depends~~ on the facts, I agree with the evidence of the Chief Witness, Mrs. Vickers. There is no doubt that a sale of goods between Mrs. Vickers and Miss. Wright took place, using the accused as an agent for Mrs. Vickers. The whole question for the Court to decide is whether or not Cpl. Davis having received the proceeds of the goods, paid over the money he received from Miss Wright to Mrs. Vickers.

If the Court has any reasonable doubt; that the decision be possibly given in favour of the accused.

FINDINGS OF THE COURT

NOT GUILTY.

PROSECUTING OFFICER.

In this connection the charge is an act of the prejudice in having possession of a soldier's Paybook issued in the name of another person, and knowing that the Paybook was not genuine.

One witness, Mrs. Vickers, will be called to establish that the accused was in possession of the Paybook and that he gave the book to the witness.

.....

Mrs. Mary Vickers of Lancaster - housewife, having been duly sworn states:-

Questions by Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. The accused was boarding with you for six months?

A. Yes.

Q. When he left your house did he leave any articles with you?

A. Yes.

Q. What did he leave?

A. Several things.

Q. I will show you a document here Mrs. Vickers. What is that?

A. Paybook I should imagine.

Q. Have you anything to say about that Book?

A. No.

Q. In whose name is it?

A. A32092 Parkinson, Arthur Domville.

Q. Did you ever see this Book before?

A. Yes.

Q. In what circumstances?

A. I handed the book in to you. I do not know who handled it.

Q. You gave it in to the Unit here?

A. Yes.

Q. Where did you obtain the book?

A. It was left with me by Cpl. Davis.

Q. When was that?

A. When he left.

Q. When did he leave?

A. I haven't the date.

Q. What time of the year was it?

A. In the fall.

Q. Was it last fall?

A. No.

Q. Was it the previous fall?

A. Leave it just at that, I do not know.

Q. Was it 3 years ago?

A. I do not know the date.

Q. Do you know the date?

A. No.

DEFENDING OFFICER OBJECTED TO THE CROSS-EXAMINATION OF THE WITNESS. - OBJECTION OVER-RULED BY THE COURT.

Q. Did you have any conversation with the accused about this Paybook?

A. Yes.

Q. What was this conversation?

A. He said that if he did not pay the money in to me, I had to hand this Paybook in to here, otherwise he would collect it along with the things that he had left.

Q. Did you ever see him with that Pay Book?

A. No.

Q. Except on one occasion?

A. That's right.

THE WITNESS SAID THAT SHE PREFERS NOT TO GIVE THE DATE.

EXHIBIT "A" PRODUCED IN COURT.

DEFENDING OFFICER.

No questions.

Questions by Prosecuting Officer:-

Q. Did Cpl. Davis give you this Paybook himself?

A. Yes.

Q. It was not with the other articles left there?

A. I did not take it if that is what you mean. It was to be handed in by me if he did not meet his obligations. This I did.

Q. Did you know it is illegal to have a soldier's Paybook in your possession?

A. I did not know it was illegal for him to leave anything.

DEFENDING OFFICER.

If it please this Court I would like to now tender a submission that the case against the accused be dismissed. There are a number of grounds which I would like to mention, but the one ground upon which I have based this submission at the present time, is that the charge has not been made out. The charge reads that the accused between 1 Jan 42 and 28 Oct 43 was in possession of this document. The only evidence with respect to dates is that it was some time in the fall. We do not know whether this was in the fall of 39, 40, or what fall. Accordingly, since the charge as laid has not been proven, my submission must be dismissed.

PROSECUTING OFFICER.

No reply.

PRESIDENT.

There is no case and this case is absolutely washed out.

Enclosed, as instructed by C. Rodgers, are the cartridges etc, which you professed to leave, here as security? until your debts thereto, are settled.

As he did not reply to my letters, am doing as stated, so strongly do I feel re the affair of Feb 29th & the Sgt also Lce Cpl, we discussed. Had I thought that I should have been held up to ridicule after leaving, I should certainly have taken the matter further, earlier. You have not yet seen Mollie, as you promised, or come here with Edna & Bob, as the latter stated.

Will you send your payment on the 30th as I have an obligation to meet, also please increase payments as you definitely promised, in view of the "amount" owing, length of time it has been "overdue", bearing in mind also, length of time it will take before same is settled. I shall be more than pleased when I have no further interest, in any Canadian, or the Kings Arms Hotel. It is with deep regret I have to acknowledge this but to be quite truthful I have just had enough, an Esteemed Belly full so to speak. By the way, the one who rates to be the "Town House", was here to see if your divorce was settled. She hadn't the manners to bring Mollie a raincoat, what about it? & the coupons for same?, as you promised in writing. Also I am still waiting for you to send or replace, the hide attache case, 1 Black Suede Shoe (new Size 4)

Coupons, 7 are required for Shoes, you can have the other

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. A.32092 Cpl. Davis, Arthur,D., R.C.A.P.C. att'd. Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.P.C., C.A.O. charged with, w.o.a.s., an act to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he made use of a document purporting to be a genuine pay book, well knowing that it was not genuine. (A.A.40)., and comitting a civil offence, that is to say, Conversion of Property contrary to Section 20 (a)(IV)(b) of the Larceny Act 1916.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness. Miss Edna Wright, 54, Torrisholme Road, Lancaster, sworn, states :-

I knew Cpl.Davis when he was stationed at Lancaster approximately August 42. He was staying with Mrs.Mary Vickers, 19, St.Nicholas Street, Lancaster. Cpl.Davis came to me and said that Mrs.Vickers had some material left over from her stock which she would like to sell, so he asked me if I would like to buy any. I said "yes" and he brought the parcels to me and I bought them and sold some to my friends and gave him the money, and I thought that he had paid it to Mrs.Vickers. I did not know anything about it after that. It was silk material and I purchased goods to the value of approximately £26. I bought about 10 different packages at certain times, but we sent some of the material back that we did not require. I do not know if Cpl.Davis paid the money to Mrs.Vickers - I have no proof at all that he did and I have no proof that he did not.

At certain times he came and said Mrs.Vickers would like the money - she was going away for the day and she'd like the money to go with. I gave it him and as far as I know he took it down there. As he was living at the place I did not think anything about it.

I had conversations with Mrs.Vickers after Cpl.Davis returned from Canada which would be about August. About August 1943 Mrs.Vickers came up to the office to see me. As a result of my conversations with Mrs. Vickers I went down to see Cpl.Davis and asked him to accompany me to Mrs.Vickers to prove that I had paid the money because that was all I was interested in and he went down to sign that paper for me to say that I was in the right. (Statement produced signed by Arthur D.Davis,Jr. dated 28.10.43, marked exhibit "A").

The statement is as follows:-

"This is to certify that there is no debt existing between Miss Edna Wright and myself concerning articles sold by her for me".

I asked him if I had paid the money and to tell Mrs. Vickers in front of me that I had given it to him, and he said Yes I had so I asked him to sign a note for me to prove that I had, and Mrs.Vickers then asked him if he would sign a paper to say that he would pay so much a week, which he did while I was there, and then I think he left the house after he had signed the papers, and that he left the house and went home.

Cross examined by accused :-

Q. You are quite sure that you did not know.... I did not approach you any time prior to August 42?

A. I am not sure, no.

Q. You are not sure. The amount of £26 - until Mrs. Vickers brought it to my attention at her place, had you any definite knowledge that it was £26.?

A. No, but I know it must have been going up to that amount.

Q. With reference - your statement that Mrs.Vickers saw you about two months prior to the statement being signed would bring it approximately to August 1943. Do you feel that is when Mrs.Vickers came to see you after I had returned to this country?

A. Yes.

Q. I might refresh your memory by stating that I was still in Canada in Aug 43.

A. Well I don't remember any exact dates. I am just trying to get it from that statement. I know it was just after you returned from Canada that she came to see me, although I had seen her around town and she had never mentioned the matter.

Q. While I was away?

A. Yes.

Q. Can you give any approximate date as to when I left Mrs.Vickers' residence?

A. About the end of September 43.

Q. You would be quite sure of that time in your own mind that it would be then, would you?

A. Yes.

Q. You have something conclusive to prove it if necessary?

A. Yes.

Q. You did arrange for me to go to a new billet to a friend of yours from Mrs.Vickers did you not?

A. Yes.

Q. You took me there and introduced me to the people?

A. Yes. ...G. Wright.....

A. W. Davis.

Third Witness. Mrs. Mary E. Vickers of Lancaster, Lancashire, Married Woman, having been duly sworn, states:-

I know Cpl. Davis, he boarded at my home in Lancaster for about six months in 1942. I don't remember the date he came to board but he left in the Fall of 1942. He was still stationed in the town after he left.

In 1942 I had a quantity of silk dress goods which were left over from my shop. I formerly had a business in Bradford. In that year I gave a parcel of silk goods, there may have been two parcels, to Cpl. Davis, to take to Miss Edna Wright of Lancaster. She was disposing of them for me. I had seen her several times about it and she had seen the goods. I was to be paid straight away as soon as Miss Wright received the goods. The goods I sent to Miss Wright were valued at £27. 0s 0d. I marked the prices and the length in yards on each separate piece of goods and they totalled £27. 0s 0d. I did not receive any money. My instructions to Cpl.Davis were to bring the money to me after delivering the goods to Miss Wright. I asked him about the money several times. He said Miss Wright hadn't paid. I had no conversation with Miss Wright about the matter until I went to see her at the Treasury Office where she worked. That was on 28 October 1943. As a result of that conversation, she came down with Cpl.Davis to my home. He said in my presence and in the presence of Miss Wright, that Miss Wright had paid him for the silks when she got them. He gave her a statement in writing to that effect. The statement, marked Exhibit "A" now shown to me, is the one I refer to. At the same time he gave me a statement. This was about one year after the original sale of goods. In this statement he undertook to pay me £20. 0s 0d for the goods Miss Wright had. I reduced the account by £7. 0s 0d because I thought it would be an incentive to pay me. Now produced and shown to me is a copy of the original statement, which is not now in my possession. Statement marked Exhibit "B". The statement shows an account for £6. 0s 0d board and £8. 0s 0d for "Mollie". On these three accounts totalling £34. 0s 0d he agreed to make payments of 10 shillings a week. He paid me since the date of the agreement, 28 Oct 43, the sum of £8. 0s 0d about, I am not sure of the exact amount. The last payment was made in March 1944. The account for £8. 0s 0d opposite the word "Mollie" was for a debt of that amount owed my daughter Mollie Vickers. The account for £6. 0s 0d board was board money owed by Cpl. Davis to me. I do not know the dates for which board was due. I consider that Cpl.Davis now owes me £26. 0s 0d.

Concerning a paybook, I know nothing about the contents whatever. I made a statement a few weeks ago to a man dressed in civilian clothes, who said he was representing the military. I don't know his name. I don't see the need of giving the statement again.

Cpl.Davis left a paybook with me, when he left my home, together with other articles. He said if he didn't pay me that I could hand the book in. Pay-book in the name of Parkinson, Exhibit "G" now shown to me is the paybook I refer to. I know nothing about the paybook. I just did what I was instructed to do, just hand it in. Davis said nothing to me about the paybook at any time, except that he left it as security. I never saw Cpl.Davis use the paybook, nor saw it in his possession before he gave it to me.

Cross-examined by the accused :

Q. At the time you were giving me the goods that you sent to Miss Wright, did you keep an account of the amount of the goods going to Miss Wright?

A. Yes.

Q. In that case, can you tell me how the £26. 0s 0d or £27. 0s 0d is made up. Would there be twenty pieces of silk or ten pieces of silk - is it itemized?

A. Yes.

Q. You can submit a bill showing this account in full?

A. Yes.

Q. There are also two other items on the account - one is board - would that be board owing at time I left?

A. Yes.

Q. You are not in a position to say when that was.

A. It was the last month you were with me.

Q. What was the month?

A. I don't know the month it was. I don't know the exact date.

Q. I have a bill from W.N.Winder & Clift - Solicitors, stating sum owing is £31. 2. 6d - are they acting on your behalf?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you withdraw the case from them?

A. No, they wrote and said military were dealing with it.

Q. The sum of £8. 0s 0d due to Mollie, do you know what that was for?

A. I know you owed it to her.

Q. You have no idea why?

A. No.

Q. Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

Statement of No. M 367433, Sgt Matthews, A. S. S. Adv Personnel Corps, C.M.H.Q. made at London, Eng. the 11th day of August 1944:

Acting on instructions from O.C. S.I.S., I investigated certain charge complaint against A 32092 Cpl Davis A.S. between 21 Jul 44 and 27 Jul 44. My investigation concerned allegations that Cpl Davis was indebted to a Mrs M. C. Vickers of Lancaster, for board and for retaining certain monies belonging to her as well as for other accounts. It also concerned the improper use by Cpl Davis of a false payment.

I proceeded to Lancaster on 21 Jul 44 and there interviewed Mrs Vickers, her daughter Miss Phyllis Vickers and a Miss Edna Wright. On 27 Jul 44 I interviewed Cpl Davis at London. I called at the office where he is employed as a pay clerk, and after declaring my identity I told him I had been investigating complaints made against him by Mrs Vickers of Lancaster. I asked him if he wished to make a written statement and he asked what that would amount to. I explained to him that he would be cautioned and then that any statement he gave I would take in writing and that it could be used in evidence. He said he had already given two written statements and that he didn't think I should ask him to make another one. I then had a conversation with him on the subject. I had no interest at the time to charge Cpl Davis with any offence. He stated that he owed Mrs Vickers £25.00 in connection with an agreement he had signed for at Lancaster to pay £34-0-0 on which he had already paid £9-0-0

I asked him about a paybook in the name of Parkinson; which I showed to him. The paybook I showed to him is the one now before me. It is M.O.H.I, Part II, purporting to be issued to A32092 Parkinson, Arthur Donald

He said it was a paybook he had at Lancaster, but he had had it since he was a Batty Sgt. Major in the R.C.A., when he had access to paybooks which he could get without difficulty. I asked him about the name Parkinson and he stated it was the name of a girl friend he had while in Lancaster and that he had made the paybook out in that name to suit his own purposes. He denied having left the book at Mrs. Vickers, but alleges she stole it from him.

He said the reason he stopped paying Mrs Vickers the debt he owed her was because she had been writing home to his wife in Canada, and he thought if he stopped payment she would desist from writing.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No.(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records findings of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any pleas standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

(When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 562(a).)

Ex 3 E.1

Mr. President and members of the Court:

I am not giving an excuse for going AWL but just the reasons that I did so. Commencing last April letters from my wife, who usually wrote 3 and 4 times a week, began to become fewer and fewer, dropping down to once a week and then gradually to one every two weeks. The letters seemed to be different. I wrote to my wife quite often asking her what the matter was, but she was evasive and would give me no satisfactoy answer. Although it worried me a great deal, we were in action at that time and it helped me to keep my mind off it.

Around this time I had mentioned to my brother, with whom I correspond quite frequently, about the trouble I was having. My brother and I were going to start a small business after we got home and I had saved quite a bit of money towards this end. He wrote me to the effect that my home seemed to be going all to hell. I have three children and it seems that my wife had another girl staying with her whom she was giving free room and board on condition that she looked after the children while she went out, which apparently was quite often. This information came from my mother and sister, to my brother, who in turn sent it to me when I asked him for the truth of the matter. Around that time I also got a couple of letters from some friends of mine stating that my wife was running around with some transport driver.

I know that at that time I should have gone to the Padre or the organization that deals with that sort of trouble, but the war was over then and I figured that it wouldn't be too long until I was home and that I would be able to fix things up myself. A man doesn't like to admit even to a padre that his wife is running around and his children neglected. I still had a great affection for my wife and wrote to her repeatedly trying to find out the trouble but I got no reply. This went on until the 27th of June when I was offered a leave to the UK which I took.

On or about the 7th of July, I met my wife's cousin in London. He had just been overseas a couple of months and as he only lived 10 doors from my wife, I asked him if there was any truth in what I had heard. After a lot of evasive answers he finally admitted that my wife had been running around for some time and that one of my boys had been left at her Aunt's in Hamilton all summer and also that she had left one with her mother in Toronto and one with her sister in Agincourt. This was later confirmed in a letter from my sister. It was after hearing this news that I seemed to lose interest in everything. I didn't seem to care about going home, the army or the consequences. I went out and got drunk. It seemed that my whole life had gone on the rocks. All the money I had saved, I spend on drink. It wasn't drinking to have a good time, it was drinking to forget that I didn't have anything to go home for--there was no point in trying to start a business--I had nothing to start it for. Nothing seemed of any importance any more. This state of affairs existed until the provost picked me up. Since then I have been under close arrest for a little over a month. Although I've had lots of time to think since then, I still see no solution for my home life, but I do see where I was a fool and was hurting no one but myself by going AWL.

Defending Offr Capt LC Rutherford, in mitigation of Punishment states;

Mr President,
Members of the Court

Exh B
E.3

Tpr Davis has pleaded guilty and has given his evidence on oath, but before the court reaches a verdict, there are several points that I wish to draw to your attention.

Tpr Davis volunteered and came overseas in 1942, leaving his wife and three small children behind. He was posted to Hq Sqn 5 Cdn Armd Bde and fought through the Italian campaign and later in this theatre as a tank driver. With the except of a few minor charges of AWL while the division was not in action, his record is good. During operations his service was extremely good.

Tpr Davis loves his wife and children very much and you can well imagine the effect the news that his home was broken up and that his three children were living with relatives would have upon him. He received this news from his wife's cousin ~~the day~~ a few days before he should have returned to his unit. In this state of mental unrest Tpr Davis lost interest in everything. All the plans he had made for the future seemed lost and nothing seemed to matter.

In conclusion, Gentlemen, I wish to point out that Tpr Davis has already spend 32 days under close arrest and I ask you to consider this in reaching your verdict.

Statement of Pte Davis C B55451 in mitigation of punishment.

I am B55451 Pte Davis C at present on strength 3 Coy 7 round Comp C.F.N. I enlisted in Feb 1941 and came overseas. In June 1918 I served in France & Germany from Aug 6/44 the present time. I went on leave to England on Aug 16/45 for 12 days. During this time I become sick I had a disease of the bowels and feet. While in hospital I contacted my officer by letter asking him what to do. He replied by letter that I should get a doctors certificate from the hospital and return to the unit as soon as I was discharged. This I did. I got a certificate from the hospital that is the Miners Hospital at Redruth Cornwall Eng and started back to my unit. I was picked up by the Provost in London on 19 Sept 45 on my way back to my unit. The Provost put me under close arrest and sent me to Reddy at Aldershot. Here I was held under close arrest for a period of 32 days. As there is no custody in Reddy I was held the same as those undergoing detention. This was because they could not locate my documents. I was finely sent under close arrest to 13 Bn. C.F.N. Here I was paraded before the C.O. charged with A.W.O.L. for the period of my sickness. The doctors certificates were attached at this time to the charge sheet being familiar with orderly room procedure when the CO asked me if I would accept his punishment I said yes He then gave me 14 days F. P. and I was sent under open arrest to my unit I immediately took it up with my Officer who said he would take the matter up with the CO of 1st Bn as the unit had no record of any crime.

I completed my 14 days F.P. and as nothing had been done about the treatment
I had received I went A.W.O.L. in disgust
I worked in Holland and established myself in this country and prepared a home for my wife and baby girl. I made arrangement to bring them over from England. However by the time I realized I had made a mistake by going A.W.O.L. so I decided to surrender myself and have the whole matter cleared up. So I surrendered myself to the Provost and I would ask you sir to consider the circumstances outlined above when you sentence me and I would ask also that you be as lenient as possible as any lengthy punishment will surely jeopardize my future life

- PROSECUTION -

NOTE:

The Defending Officer waives notice under RP 89)3) that the Prosecutor is a lawyer and states that he desires to proceed with the case today.

First Witness for the Prosecution

E.11025 Pte (A/L/Cpl) MATHESON ML, 4 Cdn Gen Pioneer Coy, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q1 To what unit are you at present attached?
A1 The Pioneers, Sir.

Q2 Is that the unit to which the accused belongs?
A2 Yes, Sir. I know the accused and recognize him in Court. (Witness points to accused). My quarters are in Tslevera Barracks. I occupy the same room as the accused; there are approximately 15 men at present, Sir. On or about 2nd February, 1944 there were 15 men there also. On the evening of 2nd February, 1944, just before lights out at 10.15, 2215 hours, the accused came in and some of the boys were having lunch, and he asked the boys if he could have some with them. About 5 minutes later he went out, and from that time on we had not seen him until after lights out, 2230 hours, he came in about 2240 hours. He went to the toilet in the back of the barracks. I know that he went there because he was the only one up and about at that time. After he came out of the lavatory he went towards his bed and just as he reached his bed, the Sjt from upstairs came in. The Sjt put the lights on, and Davis was standing at the foot of his bed, Sir. He then asked the accused to empty his pockets. The accused emptied his pockets. After this the Sjt found that there was nothing from the contents of the accused's pockets that belonged to him, the Sjt. The Sjt asked him what he had done with the wallets. There was nothing on the table that belonged to the Sjt . By this time I had got up. Another man came into the barrack room after that with 2 wallets and said that they had been found in the washroom. He had nothing besides the 2 wallets. They were talking for awhile then, then the Orderly Sjt had the accused put under arrest. There was no one in the room at 2215 hours except the accused. The lavatory is at the far end of the barrack room. (Witness prepares a sketch of the barrack room)

PLAN PREPARED BY WITNESS OFFERED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED EXHIBIT "A".

Cross-examined by Defending Officer:

Q3 Cpl Matheson, you said all the men were in bed when you turned out the lights, except the accused.
A3 Yes, Sir.

Q4 Who took the accused into custody?
A4 They came up from the Guard Room, Sir.

Q5 Did this Sjt tell any men to fall in and take the accused into custody?
A5 That I could not say, Sir.

Q6 Who was this Sjt?
A6 I don't know, Sir.

Q7 Were any of those other rooms on that floor occupied?
A7 Yes, Sir, by men from my company.

Prosecutor declines to re-examine this witness.

Questions by the Court:

Q8 This washroom that you have marked on the plan which is now before the Court, is that used by others than those in your hut?

A8 Yes, Sir.

Q9 There is only the one entrance to your hut, the one you marked on the plan?

A9 No, Sir, there is another but it is always kept locked.

Q10 Is there another entrance to that lavatory from another barrack room?

A10 No, Sir, but from the reading room there is, and it also is always locked.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Second Witness for the Prosecution

C.51603 Pte GARVOCK JJ, 4 Cdn Gen Pioneer Coy, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q11 Do you know the accused?

A11 Not very well, Sir. We occupy the same living quarters, at least on the evening of 2 Feb 44. I'm not there now myself. At about 2200 hours we were having a bit of lunch at approximately a quarter after 10. Pte Davis joined us and later left the room. The lights went out at 1030. A commotion was later made by Davis coming into the room, and a Sjt was trailing him. The Sjt put the lights on. Later the accused was put under arrest. No one else had left the barrack room except Davis before or after the lights went out.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer

Q12 You said there was a commotion when Davis came in?, but he came in by himself, with a Sjt trailing him? Did the Sjt say anything to Pte Davis?

A12 He questioned him as to where he had been and I guess he figured right away that he had the right chap.

Prosecutor declines to re-examine this witness.

Questions by the Court:

Q13 Are there any night lights in the hut?

A13 No, Sir, there are no lights like that; there are no night lights.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

R.19665 Sjt BAYLISS AH, 4 Cdn Inf Reinf Unit, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q14 Will you describe to the Court where your quarters are Sjt?

A14 Our quarters are the top floor of Televera Barracks at the extreme end, just past the Pioneers. Our room is the one at the far end, the most westerly end. When I got back in my quarters at approximately 10 o'clock, I went to bed, and at approximately 1030 or 1045 I was awakened by someone who was in the room and who had kicked the bench as they were going out. I wasn't actually asleep and I heard the door open and someone go outside. I immediately got out of bed and made for the door. When I got outside the door I saw a man going down the stairs. The stairs are right at the door as you go out. Sjt Burr, was at this time coming up the stairs. I hollered to Sjt Burr to stop him and immediately Sjt Burr went down after the man. When I got back to the room my clothes and Sjt Cogger's clothes were on the floor. We both went through our clothes and found certain articles missin . I got dressed and Sjt Cogger and I were just going out when we met Sjt Burr who said he had a man downstairs. We all then went down and Sjt Burr identified the man that he saw on the stairs. We made him empty his pockets but I found nothing from the contents that belonged to him. The accused was present all this time. Sjt Burr left the room to go to the lavatory and came back with two wallets and one Ronson lighter and said he had found them in the washroom.

Q15 Is this the lighter that Sjt Burr gave to you when he returned?

A15 Yes, Sir, that is my lighter.

(LIGHTER MARKED "X" FOR IDENTIFICATION)

Q16 Do you know this wallet?

A16 Yes, Sir, that is my wallet.

(WALLET MARKED "Y" FOR IDENTIFICATION)

Q17 What happened then?

A17 Immediately then Sjt Cogger and myself went over to the Unit Guard Room and got the RPs to come over and place the man under arrest.

Q17 Sjt [illegible] to this when the position of your room?

A17 [illegible] room is directly above the washroom, Sir.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer:

Q18 Does anyone else sleep in this room occupied by you?

A18 Yes, Sir, there are 4 other Sjts.

Q19 About how long did you say you had been asleep?

A19 I would say approximately half an hour, Sir.

Q20 What aroused your surpicions when there were 4 other Sjts in that room with you?

A20 Someone kicking the bench had wakened me, Sir, and I thought it kind of funny for any other Sjts getting up would put the lights on, so I jumped out of bed to put the lights on.

Q21 Did you see this person that knocked the bench?

A21 No, I could not recognize him, Sir, no, but I saw him going out the door. At that time there was [illegible] sleeping all the way along. But the Sjts had the [illegible] at the far end. The [illegible] were all from 4 CIPU including the room I am in. The Pioneers slept below. I recognized Sjt Burr coming up the stairs. It was a very bright night that night, Sir.

Q22 Then the accused was ordered to empty his pockets did he have any articles belonging to you?

A22 No, Sir.

Q23 Did you conduct any other search?

A23 Yes, Sir, after we had taken him to the Guard House we got the Cpl of that room to look through some of the accused's clothing and kt bags to find any other articles that were still missing.

Prosecutor declines to re-examine this witness.

Questions by the Court:

Q24 Are there any lights in the hall or on the stairs where you saw this man?

A24 No, Sir, but there was a full moon at that time. The stairs are outside the building, but it was a very bright night, Sir.

Q25 Were there any other articles missing in that room other than the lighter and wallets?

A25 Yes, there was one watch and 21 shillings and something in coins, Sir.

XXX XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Q26 When did you know you last had your lighter and wallet?

A26 When I went to bed, Sir because I used it to light a cigarette before I went to bed. My wallet was in my pants pocket, the lighter was in my top tunic pocket.

Q27 Could you see the man well enough being downstairs to give a description of him?

A27 No, I could not, Sir, he had his back to me.

Q28 When Sjt Burr came into the hut with these articles did the accused say anything or did anyone say anything to the accused?

A28 No, Sir, not to my knowledge. The door to our room is right at the top of the stairs. There are stairs on both ends of the building.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF RP 83(B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution

B.42502 Sjt COGGER HJ, 4 Cdn Inf Reinf Unit, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q29 Where are your quarters, Sjt?

A29 I occupy the same room as Sjt Bayliss. On 2 Feb 44 at approximately 2345 hours Sjt Bayliss woke me and asked me to look through my clothes. I got out of bed and found my trousers lying on the floor. I examined them and found that 21 shillings and 6 pence had been taken from a side pocket and a leather wallet from my back pocket.

Q30 Do you recognize this wallet?

A30 Yes, Sir, that is my wallet. I recognize it by my regimental number and initials.

(WALLET MARKED "Z" FOR IDENTIFICATION)

Q31 What happened then?

A31 I got dressed and Sjt Bayliss and I went down stairs. We entered the accused's room and the accused was standing by the table. In the middle of the table were lying the wallets, or I should say, at the end of the table. I picked up mine and I identified it. Sjt Burr and I then reported to the RPs and had the accused placed under arrest.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer:

Q32 You say you went downstairs with Sjt Bayliss?

A32 Yes, Sir.

Q33 How did you know what room to go to?

A34 On the way down we heard Sjt Burr's voice. Sjt Bayliss went on to the accused's room while I lingered behind with my torch looking for anything I might find that might have been dropped.

Q35 How long were yout out looking?
A35 Not very long, Sir, not more than a minute and a half I would say. I met no one in the passageway while I was following Sjt Bayliss. I went to bed at 9.30, Sir, and was the only one in the hut when I went to bed, Sir. I am certain that this wallet was in my pocket as I had occasion to count some money after paying some I owed not very long before, and that is how I came to have the loose money in my pocket. I just left it there before going to bed, not bothering to put it in my wallet.

Prosecutor declines to re-examine this witness.

Questions by the Court:

Q36 You said when you went to bed you were alone in the room?
A36 Yes, Sir.

Q37 At the time you were woke up, were you and Sjt Bayliss the only ones in the room?
A37 That is right, Sir.
Q38 But there are 6 Sjts in the room? They occupy that room?
A38 Yes, Sir, that is right, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF RP 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution

B.65800 Sjt BURR GR, 4 Cdn Inf Reinf Unit, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q39 Sjt Burr, do you live in the same quarters as Sjt Cogger and Sjt Bayliss?
A39 Yes, Sir, and on the night of 2 Feb 44 I was coming up to my room after being out and it was approximately 2245 hours, and I was just about to the top of the stairs, or the landing I should say, when Sjt Bayliss came out through the second door of our room and said "catch that fellow, he's just been in our room".

Q40 Whom did he mean by that fellow?
A40 It was a fellow that had passed me on the landing as I was coming up the stairs, the landing midway between the second and third floor. I immediately hollered "hey", wheeled around and ran down the stairs. As I got to the second landing on the second floor I heard a door close in the near vicinity, right close at hand, so I knew it was the washroom door.

Q41 There is a door into the washroom from or off the landing?
A41 No, Sir, it is off the hallway. I immediately went into the hallway and as it was kind of dark in there I got out my torch from pocket and shone it in the hallway. The door to the big room was padlocked, so upon finding that I knew there was only one other door and that was the one leading into the washroom. I opened the washroom door and put my hand in feeling for the light switch, but on switching it no lights came on and just then I heard water being turned on behind the partition.

(WITNESS AT THIS TIME AT REQUEST OF PROSECUTOR, PREPARES A SKETCH OF THE WASHROOM)

401

SKETCH PREPARED BY WITNESS OFFERED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED EXHIBIT "B".

Q42 You heard water running?
A42 Yes, Sir, I heard it turned on just as I was finding the switch. I eased more or less into the room with my torch, and I then went around behind the partition to see who was in there and found the man who gave me his name as Pte Davis and I recognize that man in this Court room now. (Witness points to accused). He had no soap nor towel with him and he told me he was washing. He was just dipping his hands into the water. Ther were no lights on at all. I took his name and number, and as I did not know what had been taken until I found the Sjt that had hollered at me from the doorway upstairs I went outside and waited on the landing for him to come out. There was only one way out. He came out and I followed him into his room to find out into which bed he slept, still not knowing what was missing or if anything was missing I immediately went to get the other two Sjts. I went upstairs for them and then I found out what they were missing. They were by this time fully dressed to come down and I took them down to where I had found the accused slept and being as how I had the flashlight I went to research the washroom. Nothing to my knowledge occurred in the meantime. When I went into the washroom I flashed my torch around where the accused had been standing and found under the washbasin right next to where he had been standing, two wallets and a lighter and case.

(WITNESS IS SHOWN WALLET MARKED "Z" FOR INDENTIFICATION AND SAYS THAT IT LOOKS LIKE THE SECOND ONE FOUND IN THE WASHROOM)

WALLET OFFERED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED EXHIBIT "E".

Q43 What did you do with these articles?
A43 I took them into the room and put them on the table. We went around the washroom afterwards and I went back through the washroom and tried to look in there. There was no trace of the missing watch, after being told by another Sjt of a missing watch.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer:

Q44 Did you know which Sjt it was that spoke to you at the top of the stairs?
A44 Yes, Sir.

Q45 This man whom you identify as Pte Davis, and found later in the washroom, is he the same man who passed you on the stairs?
A45 I could not be sure of that Sir, the man who passed me had walked past me, and one can't be sure.

Q46 Were there any other people around?
A46 No, Sir, there was only one man who passed me on the stairs. There was nobody else in the hallways or landings.

Q47 Did three of you Sjts come down to the room of the accused and enter the room together?
A47 Yes, Sir, I remember that Sjt Bayliss did enter the room with me - I could not say for sure of Sjt Cogger.

Q48 When were you informed of the nature of the articles missing?
A48 On the way down, Sir.

Q49 Was it light enough for you to see along these landings?
A49 Yes, Sir, there was a full moon that night, Sir.

Prosecutor declines to re-examine this witness.

Questions by the Court:

Q50 Is there a toilet in that washroom?
A50 No, Sir.

Q51 Did you meet or see anyone else on the stairs or in the hallways?
A51 No, Sir.

Q52 When you turned to follow the man you met on the stairs did or could you see his back then?
A52 He was just out of my sight and that's all, Sir, he was on his way down the second set of stairs.

Q53 Did he come into your view at all after that?
A53 I can't say that he did, Sir.

Q54 Did you run?
A54 Yes, Sir, I took 2 or 3 steps at a time, Sir. Where I first saw this man is marked "X" on the plan. That was in front of a wash basin. The spot where the articles were found is marked "Y" on the plan.

Q55 Were they hidden at all?
A55 They were on the floor, Sir.

Q56 Could they easily have been seen?
A56 If the lights had of been on, yes, Sir.

Q57 How much time elapsed between the time you were first called by Sjt Bayliss, from that time until the time you saw the accused in the washroom?
A57 About a minute and a half I would say, Sir.

Q58 Is that washroom used by everyone in that block, or just Sjts in particular?
A58 For anyone, Sir.

Q59 When you first saw the accused did he have his clothes on?
A59 Yes, Sir.

[redacted]

Q60 Shoes?
A60 Yes, Sir.

Q61 Cap?
A61 I can't recall whether he had his cap on or not, Sir.

Q62 When you first brought the articles into the hut did the accused say anything?
A62 No, Sir.

Q63 Did anyone say anything to him about them?
A63 I can't recall, Sir.

Q64 Sjt Bayliss, when you had the accused turn out everything in his pockets did you find any money?
A65 Yes, there was quite a bit in change, Sir, I don't know exactly what there was.

Q65 Any idea?
A65 Not at that time, Sir, but I knew how much when he went to the Guard Room.

Q66 How much?
A66 27 shillings, Sir.

Q67 Was it in silver or notes?
A67 It was all in silver, Sir, and I believe there was two £1 notes.

-STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED-

The accused, K.53024 Pte DAVIS DB, 4 Cdn Gen Pioneer Coy, makes the following statement not under oath.

Sir, on 2 Feb 44 I came back from downtown after meeting a girl. I had lunch with some of the boys in there and in a few minutes I went downtown to meet this girl, but she did not show up and I waited around a while and then I came back to my billet. I had been there several minutes when this Sjt came in and turned on the lights and asked me if I had come from upstairs which I said "No" to and he then asked me my name which I told him. This Sjt then left my hut and came back with two other Sjts and one of them asked me to turn out my pockets. I looked at him in amazement and being he was my superior I obeyed his order. Then one of the Sjts left the hut and returned later with two wallets and a lighter. Then one of the Sjts suggested that I be put under close arrest. There was a couple of our own chaps standing around the table and one of the Sjts told him to fall in and take me to the Guard Room, in which they refused to do, and the Sjt argued with them for awhile and then they left and returned with their own RPs and I was taken to our Guard Room. That is all I have to say, Sir. This was the second night I had been in occupation of this room.

- CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION -

Sir, the statement made by the accused man has borne no way at all in clearing up the points which required clearing up. I can only repeat once again that the conduct on the part of this accused calls aloud for an explanation. There was a theft of certain articles from these quarters, and a man who had been in these quarters was pursued down the stairs in the barracks in which Davis lives. The period through which all this took place was the time Pte Davis is alleged to have been out of his quarters and the time when he was discovered again. He was found in a washroom completely without lights standing there in the dark dipping his hands in the water, apparently in the act of washing himself, but without either soap nor towel, by a Sjt to which the door has only been opened a fraction of a second before. The articles were found very close indeed to the place where Pte Davis was found washing himself. Those circumstances are far too strong to wash away that Pte Davis is not the man. I submit that a conviction must be registered.

- CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER -

On the statement of the accused he went out to meet a girl whom he did not want to be seen around with and she wasn't there, so in a short time after he came back to his billets and went to his room is witnessed by Cpl Matheson who says he went to the latrine and came back by his bed when a Sjt came into his room and asked him if he came from upstairs, asked him his name and which he gave him. Later the Sjt went out and came back with 2 other Sjts, and he was told to turn out his pockets and it was found that the accused had nothing belonging to them. Sjt Burr apparently went to this washroom where he said he found a man, and also found some articles there. They are not all the articles which have been lost and two of the articles which were lost have never been recovered. It would seem very strange that someone would apparently steal articles from Sjts quarters, and then only have part of them found later, and but a very few minutes later. The fact that Pte Davis was not in the washroom is substantiated by Cpl Matheson's statement and Pte Davis that he came back into his room directly and got ready for bed. As he was getting ready for bed these Sjts came in and found him up. Apparently the Sjts did not make any effort to check any other rooms to see if men were awake. It is possible that Sjt Burr lost tract of a man whom he was following and this man could have ducked into any number of rooms on that second landing, and as I see the facts before the Court there is nothing, and there has been nothing, to prove that Pte Davis is the man who could have been in the room from which the articles were taken. He would not know the layout of the rooms for one things as he had only been in these quarters but a night or so, and to come into a strange room where men were sleeping, and search through people's pockets is rather a tricky business and would I should think, take some time for a man who does not know even his way around. I submit that there has been nothing proved in evidence of what Pte Davis is charged.

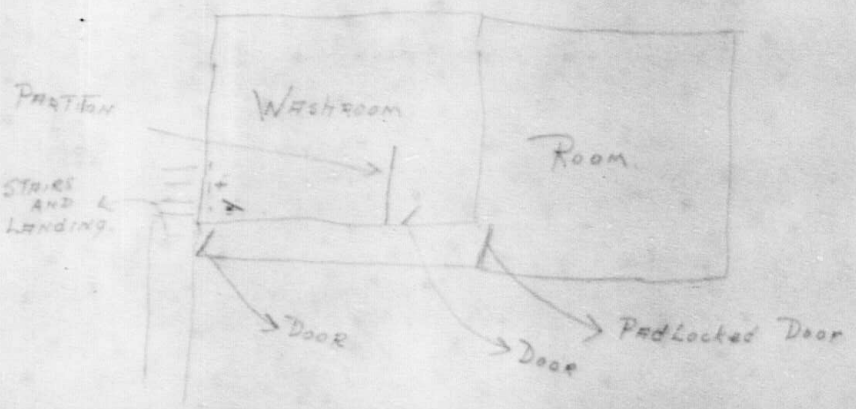
THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING.



-PLEA IN MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFR-

I have known this Pte Davis since 1940 when I came overseas in July and I first met him in September in the 2nd Reconnaissance Sqn and since that time I have been with the unit most of the period. Pte Davis left the regiment in Scotland just before they went overseas due to the fact that he had a motorcycle accident and was sent to hospital and therefore could not be taken with us. During the time he was in the Sqn he had a few minor charges against him which were and are shown against his conduct sheet, but not of any serious nature whatsoever and I have always found him a very reliable soldier and I think his service and record should be taken into mind. I can't understand him getting mixed up in any trouble like this, for although he is not happy here with this unit at the present time he has been trying to get back to his own unit for some time now but the medical authorities have not let him return, for the present time at least. That is all I have to say, Sir.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of K-52024 Private Donald Beaufort DAVIS, on the strength of 4 Canadian General Pioneer Company, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

E-11025 Private (Acting Lance Corporal) Martin Luther MATHESON, on the strength of 4 Canadian General Pioneer Company, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On 2 February 1944 at approximately 2210 hours, we were having something to eat in the Hut. Private DAVIS, whom I recognize as the accused, came in the Hut. He then went over to one of the boys bed and asked if he could share their lunch with them, they said, "Yes". Approximately 5 minutes later Private DAVIS, D.B. left the Hut. At approximately 2240 Private DAVIS came back, lights were out. He then went to the lavatory, as he reached his bed a Sergeant came in looking for him. He turned the lights on and told the accused to empty his pockets on the table. It appeared that the accused had nothing belonging to them. Then two other Sergeants came in. I then heard one Sergeant saying, "Here's one of my two wallets, I've just found them in the Washroom". We also searched his kit and found nothing belonging to them.

M.L. Matheson

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

C-51603 Private James John GARVOCK, on the strength of 4 Canadian General Pioneer Company, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On 2 Februarry 1944 at approximately 2200 hours, I was in Hut #42 when Private DAVIS, D.B. the accused whom I now recognize, came in the room. We were having a bit of lunch and Private DAVIS joined us. At approximately 2215 hours Private DAVIS went out of the Hut and did not return till 20 or 25 minutes later, the lights were out. He came in to his own bed and immediately afterwards a Sergeant came in looking for him, he switched the lights on. Everyone in the hut was in bed except Private DAVIS. The Sergeant accused Private DAVIS of going into their quarters and stealing some articles belonging to them. Shortly after two more Sergeants came in. They suggested that Private DAVIS be put under close arrest. That is all I know about what took place in the Hut.

J.J. Garvock.

THIRD WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

B-19665 Sergeant Alfred Henry BAYLISS, on the strength of 4 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:

At approximately 2245 hours, 2 February 1944 I was woke up by someone that was in our room, and he woke me up by knocking against the bench as he was going out. I then heard someone open the door and immediately I was out of bed, put on the lights and through the door I went outside. The top of the stairs is right beside the door to our quarters, as I got outside the man that was in our room was going down the stairs and Sergeant BURR was coming up the stairs. I then shouted to Sergeant BURR, "Stop that man, he's been in our quarters," Immediately Sergeant BURR chased him down the stairs. Immediately afterwards I went back to the room to find out if anything was missing. I then woke up Sergeant COGGER. Immediately he got up and we both found our Battle Dress laying on the floor. One Leather Wallet and One Ronson Lighter, bearing the initials "A.B." were missing - these articles I now identify as my property. A few minutes later while I was getting dressed, Sergeant BURR came into the room and told me that he had caught the man and that he was in his quarters downstairs. After that, Sergeant COGGER and myself went downstairs to the man's room. As we arrived in the room, Sergeant BURR picked out the man and told me he was the one that he had followed and caught in the Wash Room. I then told the man to empty his pockets, which he did, but we found nothing in his possession belonging to myself. Sergeant BURR said that he would go back to the Wash Room and see if he could find anything there. A few minutes later he came back with two leather Wallets and one Ronson Lighter and said that he had found them underneath the wash basin in the Wash Room, that is the same Wash Room that he had followed the man into a few minutes previously. Afterwards Sergeant COGGER and myself went to the Guard Room and two Corporals and the R.P. put the accused under close arrest.

On 2 February at approximately 2245 hours, Sergeant BAYLISS awoke me and asked me to look through my clothes and see if anything was missing. I got out of bed and found my trousers laying on the floor. On examining them I found coins to the value of £1-1-6 missing, also a Leather Wallet, stamped with my regimental number, D.H.R. B-42502, I identify this wallet as my property. Together we went down to see where Sergeant BURR was, and found him

FIFTH WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

B-65800 Sergeant Gerald Reginald BURR, on the strength of 4 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:

On the night of 2 February 1944 at approximately 2245 hours I was coming in and I was about halfway up the last flight of stairs when a soldier went past me walking. I did not pay any attention to him until Sergeant BAYLISS came out through the door and shouted, "Stop that man, he's been in our room". I immediately hollered, "Hey" and followed him. I was behind him and when I got to the landing on the second floor I heard a door close in the vicinity where I was standing. I shone my torch on one door and it was padlocked, there was only one other door in the vicinity and that was the Washroom door. I went in this Washroom door, switched the lights and there were no bulbs in the sockets. I shined my torch around, and as I shone it in the far end I heard the water turned on behind the partition. I walked around the partition, shone my torch on the fellow in question, the soldier whom I now recognize as the accused, he had not soap nor towel. I asked him for his name and number. He gave me his name as Private DAVIS of 4 Canadian General Pioneer Company. At that time I did not know what it was all about, I walked out and waited for him on the landing. He came out and I followed him into his hut. I found out in which bed he was sleeping and immediately went for Sergeant BAYLISS, who was coming down the stariway. We went back together and I showed him the fellow I had found and found out what was missing. Being that I had the torch, I left Sergeant BAYLISS and went to search the Washroom. Upon searching the Washroom, I found two wallets, one Ronson lighter and case under the wash basin, next to where Private DAVIS was standing when I found him in the Washroom. I took the articles into the room in which the accused sleeps, layed them on the table and suggested that this man be put under close arrest. We searched around the hut but couldn't find of the balance of the missing articles.

G.R. Burr

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Plea in Mitigation

The accused was quite drunk at the time of the offences. That he was sober he would not have committed the crime. While drunkenness is no excuse yet it can afford mitigating circumstances. In awarding sentence the Court asked to consider this.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of C42858 Gnr.; DAVIS L H, 3 Bty; 5 Cdn A Tk Regiment, RC.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, is charged with:-

CHARGES

WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE DRUNKENESS. Sec 19 Army Act

COMMITTING A CIVIL OFFENCE, THAT IS TO SAY, SHOP BREAKING AND LARCENY, CONTRARY TO SECTION 26 (1) OF THE LARCENY ACT 1916

By the direction of the commanding officer the evidence is taken on OATH.

First Witness L27846 Sgt Holness L, 8 Cdn Pro Coy having been duly sworn states:-

"I am, L27846 Sgt Holness L, a section Sgt with 8 Cdn Pro Coy. On 30 Sep 44, I was and still am a Sec Sgt with 8 Cdn Pro Coy. At approximately 1205 hrs, I was on duty as Orderly Sgt in the Orderly Sgts' Room, when two ladies came in and notified me that two Canadian Soldiers were shooting up the place.

One lady later proved to be GEORGETTA MARIA HAECK, the owner of a bake shop at 49 Kerk Straat, EECLOO. As they spoke little English, I could not understand exactly what they were trying to tell me, so I went to a shop which turned out to be a bakery; where I saw as I entered, a blond haired soldier, who later upon examining his MB M I, proved to be C42858 Gnr DAVIS L H 3 Battery, 5 Cdn A Tk Regt RCA, taking money out of a drawer behind the counter.

I asked him what he was doing behind the counter and he replied, "These people are collaborators". "Are you sure of this", I questioned, and he replied, "Iam not sure", with which he took all the money out of his pocket and threw it back in the drawer.

I placed this man under close arrest and left H15515 Pte McLaughlin N H, 8 Cdn Pro Coy., who had accompanied me to the scene, to guard him. He remained with the accused while I attended to another urgent matter. Upon its completion, I returned and took C42858 Gnr Davis L H to the Guard Room.

THE ACCUSED DECLINED TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

Question by Officer taking Summary of Evidence.

Question 1 Did there appear to be any damage done to the establishment?

Answer 1 I noticed a broken pane in the front door and in the kitchen a cupboard ramsacked, which contained only clothes. A gramaphone was tampered with.

Question 2 Do you consider that the accused was drunk?

Answer 2 Yes, he was drunk, not paralized but quite intoxicated.

Second Witness Julia Cyrille Miel, No 69 Kerk Straat, KECLOO, a barmaid having been duly sworn States:-

"I am, Julia Cyrille Miel, and I work at the Rene Maes Cafe as a barmaid and do house duties for my uncle who owns the cafe.
At about a quarter to twelve on the 30 Sep 44, two soldiers entered the cafe and asked for cognac, but I did NOT serve them as it was too early, under the law, to serve them. The soldiers, one of whom proved to be the accused here (C42858 Gnr DAVIS L H), went into the private room without my permission. I tried to stop them but they pushed me into an arm chair. At that moment I saw this man, Gnr Davis had a pistol which the other soldier took from him and pointed it at me, demanding cognac and money. They were both drunk and I don't think they knew what they were doing. A little later I saw my chance to get away and ran outside with C42858 Gnr DAVIS L H running after me. He passed me in the crowd and did not see me. I saw him go into a bakery in the same street.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

Question by Officer taking Summary of Evidence.

Question 1 Did the accused threaten you at any time with a pistol?

Answer 1 No, the other man had the pistol then and the accused acted like a fool.

Question 2 In what way did he act like a fool?

Answer 2 Because he was so drunk he did not know what he was doing.

Question 3 Did you see the accused, C42858 Gnr Davis L H, use force to enter the bakery.

Answer 3 I could only see the entrance from where I stood in the street and don't know whether or not he forced his way in.

Question 4 Were you previously on friendly terms with the accused?

Answer 4 I only saw him the night before and he was just an ordinary soldier to me like the other customers.

THird Witness Georgetta Maria Haeck, 49 Kerk straat, EECLOO, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am Georgetta Maria Haeck, owner of a bakery business at 49 Kerk Straat, EECLOO. On 30 Sep 44, I was standing in the doorway at 1215 hrs and I saw one Canadian soldier standing opposite my shop in front of a butcher shop and I saw that he was drunk. I at once shut the door because I was frightened of a drunken man, as I am of all drunken men.
I had no sooner shut and locked the door than this same drunk man came and kicked and broke the glass panel in the door. I at once ran away through a private entrance door and went to the Military Police for help. I was all alone at home.
I explained what had happened to the police and they went away immediately in a Jeep to investigate and I followed on foot.
When I entered the bakery, I saw the Military Police taking money away from the drunken soldier, who I learned then was C42858 Gnr Davis L H, who I identified as being the person who kicked my front door in. The police gave back the money to me and I counted it and there was 1150 Francs with nothing missing. On entering my kitchen, I saw all my clothes thrown out on the floor, my phonagraph open and the spring broken. I reported this to the police who were there to examine the damage. The Military Police then took the drunken soldier (C42858 Gnr Davis L H) away with them.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

Question by Officer taking Summary of Evidence.

Question 1 How did you know the money which the drunken soldier had was yours?

Answer 1 The Military Police told me they saw him with his hand in the money drawer and I knew how much money I had there, as I had just counted it a few minutes before the man came in. There had been 2500 Francs in the drawer and the soldier had only taken 1150 Francs out.

Question 2 Did the soldier know what he was doing when he broke into your shop?

Answer 2 I don't think he knew what he was doing, because he was drunk.

Question 3 In what way did the soldier threaten you?

Answer 3 I never spoke to the soldier nor he to me, but as soon as he started breaking through the door I ran away. He never threatened me.

Question 4 Did you see the soldier coming up the street towards your shop or was he just standing across the road?

Answer 4 Standing across the street.

Question 5 How do you place a value of 100 Francs on the broken panel in your front door?

Answer 5 The man who put in the new glass charged me 100 Francs.

.....4

Question 6 Also how dop you place a value of 25 Francs for the value of repairing of your gramaphone?

Answer 6 Where they repair phonographs they told me that was the price for a new spring.

Others made the investigation, I only acted as a guard."

THE ACCUSED CROSS-EXAMINED THIS WITNESS.

On 30 Sep 44 I was on duty at Coy Hqs, when the Orderly Sgt reported to me that two women had come in to report a holdup in progress. I detailed L27846 Sgt Holness L to proceed with the complaintants to investigate. About ten minutes later I proceeded to the scene of the occurances, namely a bakery at 49 Kerk Straat, where I saw the accused (C42858 Gnr Davis L H) standing at the end of the counter. As I entered he pulled some money from his pocket and placed it on the counter. L27846 Sgt Holness L was beside the accused, slightly behind the counter. A drawer containing more money was open. Sgt Holness informed me that, another soldier was connected with the occurance but did not know where he was. Leaving C42858 Gnr Davis L H under the charge of B15515

Upon my return to the front of the bakery, I was informed that Lieut C H Ray and L27846 Sgt Holness L had proceeded to the Rene Maes Cafe. I, therefore, proceeded to the cafe and when I returned to the bakery I saw that C42858 Gnr Davis L H was conducted to our Guard Room.

THE ACCUSED DECLINED TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

Question 4 — Did you notice any property damage done?

Answer 4 — I noticed that the glass in the door had been broken.

"I am, Lieut C L Ray a Platoon Comdr of 8 Cdn Pro Coy. I was on 30 Sep 44 and still am Lieut C L Ray. On 30 Sep 44 shortly after 1200 hrs, I went with Lieut John Tweedle to a barkery at 49 Kerk Straat, EECLOO, to investigate a reported holdup. I walked through the bakery with Lieut J Tweedle and L27846 Sgt Holness L, but took no active part in arresting C42858 Gnr Davis L H. I was then conducted by a soldier from the Linc & Welld Regt to a cafe along the street where Sgt Holness and I had a Sgt pointed out to us by this soldier from the Linc & Welld Regt as the person who had held him up and, also the woman in the cafe, a Julia Cyrille Miel, who worked there identified this soldier who proved to be C42856 Sgt Norton D B.

The prosecutor makes an opening address [hands in a written address, which is read, marked G, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings].

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. CAPT. W.H. ROSE. R.C.A.M.C.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q Give us the narrative in regard to the first charge of malingering.

A. At about 1100 hrs Nov 14th 37 I examined the accused in the unit M.I.R. On examination I found minor abrasions of one foot these in my opinion were not sufficient reason to cause the accused to fall out from any route march of ordinary length and under ordinary marching condition.

I produce here the morning sick report MFB 2982 which accompanied the accused when he appeared before me for examination. Marked "H" G.

Q Has the accused Pte. Davis ever reported to you previous to this time either after or during route marches claiming that he was suffering from sore feet

Court rule out preceeding question.

Q Dr Rose have you any further evidence in regard to the accused

A. In what regard.

Cross examination by defending officer

Q Capt Rose were you on this scheme or route march which ended 31st of Oct?

A No sir.

Q Did you see the accused on the 31st of Oct?

A No sir.

Q Then you couldn't very definitely state that the accused feet were hurting at that time

A No medical officer can definitely state whether or not a mans feet hurt at any time subjective symptoms come from the mans statements

Q Then it would be possible that the accused feet hurt him on Oct 31 1942

A. They could have hurt but not from the small areas of irritation shown to me Nov 1 1942 at 1100 hrs

Q It is possible that a mans feet may be hurting him without showing visable signs of bruises or injury?

A That is possible. But in this instance the symptoms were definitely related to these areas of inflatation.

Q. Don't you think that a soldier who doesn't know a great deal about medicine is liable to imagine that the reason his feet were sore was on account of the areas which showed some injury?

A Possibly sir a soldier would have had first aid and striven to carry on not to use it as an excuse to fall out.

Q. You did examine his feet at his first appearance at the R.A.P.?

A. At 1100 hours the 1st Nov 1942

Q. The sick report that accompanied him was made out Nov 1 1942?

A It is dated that sir

Q. It is possible for a mans feet to be pretty sore on the march and yet on the next day for them to be recovered enough to carry on

A No sir

Q ~~You mean to say that a man on a route [illegible]~~

Q According to your last answer if a man falls out of a route march for sore feet one day he is not capable of carrying on route marching the following day?

A. If the soreness were sufficiently severe to warrant falling out he would not have sufficiently recovered the following day to carry out a route march.

Q Have you ever experienced any instances where it has been necessary to put a man on a truck for an hour or so and have him back route marching the next day.

A. No sir.

Question by the court.

Q what part of the foot were these minor abrasions?

A. As I recall it side of the foot by the great toe

Third charge. Same Witness.

Q Your narrative in regard to third charge and found?

A. At about 1100 hrs. Nov 1, 1942 the accused was paraded to the MIR where he presented a foot for medical inspection the filthy condition of the foot was such that I ordered him to bathe the feet and return to the MIR at a later hour, to be exact 1145 hrs.

Q Did the accused appear at or about 1145 hrs as ordered

A No sir.

Q What action did you take if any subsequent to that time.

A. I remained at M.I.R. until 1200 hrs and the accused had not reappeared. I sent Pte. Conte PNR Connolley to ascertain his where abouts the next I saw him was in my room sometime between 1300 and 1400 hrs. the same date when he was paraded there by Pte. Connolley

Q. what connection did Pte Connolley have officially?

A. He is first aid man for A. Coy. who brought Pte Davis to M.I.R. at 1100 hrs.

Q What are the bathing facilities for washing?

A Reasonable and adequate and near enough to the quarters to enable the accused to comply

Q Do you think Pte Davis fully understood the order to return?

A Yes sir. I asked the accused if he fully understood the order.

Q. Why did you take the pains to ask if he fully understood the order?

A Knowing well the men of the Corp. I felt that it was necessary in this particular case

Q Did Pte Davis offer any reason for not obeying your command to report at 1145 hrs

A Yes sir he didnt wish to keep me waiting for my lunch

Q ~~The accused was ordered to return at 1145~~ O.K.V.

Q What time do you usually leave at noon?

A. As a rule from 1200 - 1215 hrs depending on duties.

Q Had the accused any reason to believe that you would be leaving on this day at or a little after 1145 hrs.

A. Not as far as I know sir.

Cross examined by the defending officer.

Q Back to the 3rd charge of dirty feet. Have you had instructions or order placed before the unit in regard to washing feet before appearing before you for foot inspection.

A Instructions have appeared in Part I orders at my suggestion ~~xxx~~ on various dates relative to personal hygiene particularly emphasizing care of feet at all times but more especially prior to, during and following route marches.

Q I want to know has there been Part I orders published in this unit definitely stating that feet are to be washed before appearing before the M.O. for foot inspection

A No sir but numerous and frequent instructions have been given that men appearing on foot inspection must appear with feet clean or disciplinary action would be taken.

Q That is verbal instructions to the different Corps?

A That is right sir

Q By the medical section?

A Yes sir

Q ~~There is a chance xxx~~.

Q Can you say the accused was present when the instructions were given?

A. No sir.

Q Isn't it true that you found the accused feet were dirty and you ordered him to come back for examination after he had washed them?

A. Yes sir.

Q Then you didnt examine his feet on his first appearance at the R.A.P.?

A. I both noted the filthy condition as well as ~~lesions that h~~ of which he complained.

Q Did he report to you on the afternoon of Nov 1 1942?

A Yes sir he appeared accompanied by Pte Connelly.

Q Then we can assume that Pte Connelly had nothing to do with his coming to you the second time.

A I dont know sir.

Re examination by the Prosecuting Officer

Q ~~Accused~~ PKK Has the unit been given any lectures on good march discipline?

A Yes sir at different times.

Q Is there any relationship between good march discipline and care of feet.

A Yes sir next to pesonal hygeine I consider proper march discipline the greatest contributing factor toward marching efficiency.

Examined by the court.

Q. When Pte Davis reappeared on the afternoon of Nov 1 1942 were his feet then clean

A Yes sir.

Rule of Procedure 83B has been complied with.

Witness withdraws.

2nd witness for the prosecution C 54310 Sgt Moss A medical Sgt S.D.G. Highrs. being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

Q Speak on charge 3 please

A. At approximately 1100 hrs Nov 1, 1942. I examined the feet of Pte Davis and found them to be in ~~poor~~ filthy condition

Q Speak now to the 4th charge.

A. I heard Capt Rose tell Pte Davis to report back I was there until 1215 hrs and up until then he had not shown up

The defending officer declines to examine the accused.

Examined by the court.

Q Could the accused have shown up without you seeing him?

A No sir.

Q Did you hear Capt Rose state an exact time?

A No sir

Question by defending officer put through the court

Q ~~If the~~ Sgt Were you working on documents at the time the accused came in did you stop work and examine his feet before the MO?

A. I am not sure whether I was working on the documents or whether I examined his feet before or after.

Rule of Procedure 83B has been complied with

Witness withdraws.

3rd Witness for the prosecution c 50763 b.Q.M.S. Dobson J.C. S.D.G. Highes. being duly sworn is examined by the prosecuting officer.

Q. Will you speak to the 2nd charge?

A. The Coy was out on Dorking ranges at the time they left Oct 31 1942 about 1400 hrs to march home I stayd behind to turn over to B Coy at the ranges when returning on Dorking - Horsham highway in the truck I noticed Pte Davis standing by the side of the road. I stopped and inquired what was wrong, he said he had to drop out the truck was loaded and so he said he would make his way back by bus. Back at camp I found Lieut Clarke was a/Coy Commander at the time had made arrangement for a foot parade 1900 hrs. I placed Pte Connelly our first aid man in charge of the parade and told him to see that Pte Davis went on foot parade as soon as he got into camp.

Q Was anyone else warned by name other than Pte Davis

A Pte W. Bates

~~Q Did Pte Bates attend~~ DKK

Q Why did you instruct Pte Connelly to see that Davis in particular attended this parade?

A. I felt that if he was not warned he might not attend

Cross examination by the defending officer

Q Did you see the accused on Saturday ~~afternoon~~ DKK Oct 31 1942 after you talked to him on the road

A. No sir.

Q He was coming towards camp when you saw him?

A They were standing on the corner.

Q They?

Q If you would have had room would you have brought them in.

A Probably yes.

Q You didnt doubt Davis' word when he told you he had to drop out?

A Yes sir

Q Why?

A ~~When he told me he couldn't keep up the pace he didn't appear to me to be exhausted~~

A During last 2-3 days on the ranges the men had been wearing rubber boots on account of the mud. On Saturday morning we loaded platoon trucks early & told the men they could still wear their rubber boots but to leave their leather boots out to wear on march home. A couple of the men packed their leather boots on the truck. Pte Bates was one and he informed me at the last minute he couldnt walk home because he had rubber boots on. I told him that didnt make any difference he would have to walk home now. I could see PKK

Prosecution "R 2"

Closing Address by Lt Defence.

With regard to the first charge of Malingering. The charge reads that the accused pretended to the unit M O on Saturday 31 Oct 1942 that he had abs feet. This was not possible as the M O admits in his evidence that he never saw the accused on Saturday 31 Oct.

Also the accused is said to have fallen out of the route march, but did he? As the last witness states, he was seen to drop back, but not to fall out, and when asked by Lieut Watt, the accused stated that he couldn't keep up the pace, which, according to Mr Watt was a "good" pace

Therefore I feel that the DA prosecution has failed to prove this first charge.

The second charge has not been proven as Capt. L. G. M. S. (S/Ldr) M. Gibson did not personally order the accused to attend the foot inspection parade and I would ask the court to read M.M.L. Ch III Para 10. and also A.A. Sec 8 Note 3. which states that the order must be given personally.

The third charge has also not been proven as there is no evidence to show that the accused ever was told that he must report his foot before going to the M.O. not only that but the accused had just returned from a detention of several days and may not have had time or [illegible] to tried to get cleared up.

On the last charge I have nothing much to say except that except for the previous circumstances, it would never have happened.

Yours Watson Capt.
