NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 85(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 42 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 66(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 2)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 565(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 105, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 567.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

although this soldier has pleaded guilty to the charge of A.W.L., I would ask the Court to give consideration to the following facts -

1/ Pte. Dalgell is Category S.H. - M.2, and is due to be sent back to Canada for discharge

2/ At the time of going A.W.L. his child of 10 months was seriously ill - and required constant attention - Mrs Dalgell was unable to carry on alone - as she also was ill - ~~and only Pte Dalgell~~ personal return & only by Pte Dalgell being there was he certain that the child was properly looked after & cared for.

3. During the period of A.W.L. - arrangements were also completed for his family to be moved to Canada.

4 This man has completed 4 yrs in the Can. Army - & light sentence in this case would do much to help Pte Dalgell to re-habilitate himself when he returns to civilian life.

Pte Dalgell's home is in Ashton - Keynes, Wiltshire, & he has been married approx. 3 yrs.

WR 170 Constable E O CROSSE, Monmouth Police Sta, MONMOUTH, being sworn states:-

At 0040 hrs Tue morning 31 Aug I was in my house at Whitebrook, Monmouthshere when I heard the sound of smashing timber on the rd outside and men shouting. I put on my uniform and went down onto the rd where I saw a square of fencing 4'x4' smashed on the other side of the rd. About 20 or 30 yds up the rd there was a group of 4 soldiers. I shone my spotlight on them, they were still smashing something up the rd. One of them called out, "What do you want". I replied "I want you to come back here and see this damage". Two of the men then ran towards me, a third one laid down a few feet away. The fourth man remained further up the rd holding a white light. The two men who came towards me appeared to be hostile, so I shone my torch on my uniform so that they could see who it was accosting them. I then shone the light on them again and the man on the left shouted, "It is only a fucking policeman, we can knock his head off". The man on my left then wrestled with me for possession of my torch which he obtained. I then drew my staff and warned the men again that I was a police offr. The two men then took hold of the staff and my arm was twisted until I had to release it. The man on my left then raised the staff over my head with his right hand and said, "we can knock your head off and we will". He did not deliver a blow however, he closed with me and pinned my arms to my side. He then began to walk me backwards and the man on my right landed two blows on my neck. The man on my right then said, "take your bloody glasses off so that we can hit you properly". Neither of the two men had hats on. I noticed that the man on my left had hair which was brushed back, the man on my right had hair which was standing straight up. I eluded the men and went to phone for help from Monmouth . I also got another torch from my own house. When I got back to the rd the men had vanished. I immediately made enquiries at Whitebrook in company with two other police offrs as a result of which we went to a gravel quarry near Redlock. The gd there took us to Capt J E Seybold and we told him what had happened. After making a search of the camp he infm us all men were present. The time was then 0230 hrs 31 Aug. I left in company with Sgt Brown, Gnr Fyfe, Pte Panard and Gnr Gray. Just after leaving the pub we all had a drink outside and started up the road together. As we walked we started to straggle out. I was with Gnr Gray for awhile and then Gnr Fyfe. About ½ mile from the pub I got seperated from Gnr Gray and Fyfe and proceeded to the camp alone. About ½ mile further on I met Gnr Fyfe. I spoke to Gnr Fyfe and then he carried on towards the camp and I followed closely behind. I arrived in camp and went straight to bed. During my stay at the pub I drank between 6 and 8 beers and drank for about 5 minutes outside of the pub. I saw Pte Panard outside of the pub and left Gnr Gray about ½ mile up the road. Gnr Fyfe came along right after Sgt Brown had passed me. Gnr Fyfe did not accompany me to the Camp. When I arrived at camp, Gnr Gray who shares a bed with me was not in. I arrived at Camp at about 2315 hrs. Gnr Gray arrived back and went to bed about 2325 .

Fourth Witness for Prosecution. K76840 Gnr Fyfe; D. 2 Cdn CBO Staff RCA, sworn, states:

I left the pub about 2230 hrs. I had a drink outside with the group. On the way home we broke up and I found myself walking with Sgt Brown. I left Sgt Brown about ½ mile further on. I walked on my myself to the first Cross Rds and I met L/Bdr Stewart. After a few words with Stewart I started for the camp. On reaching camp I went to the latrine. I was in the latrine for about 5 minutes and walked over to the tent. On the way to the tent I met L/Bdr Penny and then I went straight to bed at about 2320 hrs. During my stay in the pub I had at least 8 pints of beer. I did not notice whether any of the group which I left the pub with were in camp when I arrived. I did not hear anyone come in after I went to bed for I had my head under the blankets.

The Defence Counsel examine the witness:

I never noticed any other soldiers in the pub on the night of 30 Aug outside of our group. We spent about five minutes outside the pub drinking a quart bottle of beer. I did not have any bottled beer with me when I left. I do not know who supplied the quart of beer. I talked to L/Bdr Stewart about ½ mile from Camp. I heard footsteps all the way up the road until we turned off the road where the trail commenced for the camp.

First Witness for Defence

The accused M590 Gnr Gray MA having been duly warned gives the following evidence under oath:

I left camp around 2000 hrs 30 Aug with L/Bdr Stewart and proceeded to the Crown Inn, Whitebrook where we spent the evening until 2230 hrs drinking. I drank about 12 pints of beer. At 2230 hrs when the pub keeper hollered time we all left and went outside together. Just outside the pub we had a bottle of beer between us and started for camp together. We got spread out. I tried to keep up to L/Bdr Stewart. After we got split up I found myself walking with someone whom I did not recognize. A little further on we met a person who might have been spàliceman who hollered at us telling us not to make so much noise. This man in uniform appeared when we were about ½ mile from the pub. We did not stop but kept on going and I arrived in camp alone. On arriving in camp I spoke to L/Bdr Stew art who had just got into bed, we talked for a short while and went to sleep. The only time I stopped on the way from the pub to the camp was just outside of the pub where we had a drink. I had no physical contact with anyone from the time I left the pub until I reached the camp. I do not remember anyone flashing a light, the persons in uniform had on a square hat and might have been either a bus driver or a policeman.

Witness was examined by the Prosecution.

I estimate that I arrived in camp after 2300 hrs but before midnight.

Witness was examined by President.

I was wearing my DR uniform and my crash helmet. I wore my crash helmet all the time on the night of 30 Aug for fear of losing it. I have my crash helmet now.

Second witness for Defence:

M16629 Pte Benard; A V having been duly warned gives the following evidence;

On the night of 30 Aug shortly after 2000 hrs I left the camp accompanied by Sgt Carr. We were going down to the pub at Whitebrook. Just as we got to the pub we met Sgt Brown and Gnr Fyfe. I drank beer in the pub until closing time. Just before we came out of the pub there was a flagon of beer on the counter which the pub keeper told me to take. I stepped outside the pub when I tumbled over something and the flagon broke. When I caught up to the others on the road they were passing a bottle around and I had a drink there with them. We then started up the road together. While I was walking up the hill alone I head others in front of me. When I got home I talked to Pte Baker. Then I went straight to bed, but I do not know the time I got into bed. I estimate that I had 6 to 8 pints in the pub and a drink outside the pub.

The above witness cross-examined by the Prosecution.

I think I can remember everything that happened on the night of 30 Aug.

Cross examined by the President.

I do not know the exact time I reached the Camp but I walked back slowly not sitting down anywhere.

RP (8) 83 complied with.

Third witness for Defence:

K37230 Pte Baker; S J 2 Cdn CBO Staff RCA sworn, states:

I am a cook in the mens kitchen. I know both the accused Pte Benard and Gnr Gray. On the night of the 30 Aug I was around the kitchen talking with Gnr Smith who was the guard. We talked till about 2250 hrs when I started to make my bed. I know it was 2250 hrs for I asked Gnr Smith for the time and he looked at his watch. I spoke to Gnr Smith again at 2300 hrs when he went off guard. I then smoked a cigarette in bed. Pte Benard then came in stepped on the foot of my bed and I spoke to him. I would estimate that Pte Benard came in between 2320 and 2325 hrs.

The witness was cross examined by the prosecution.

I was not asleep when Pte Benard came in. I may have fallen asleep before he came in but this is highly improbable. I was not very tired on the night in question as I had a sleep during the day.

RP 83(b) complied with.

Fourth Witness for Defence

I inspected the kit of the men in my unit on 31 Aug and did not find either a constable's staff or flashlight This inspection included the kits of the two accused. I do not know of the accused, Gnr Gray being short a crash helmet since 30 Aug. There were 17 men present on the identification parade 31 Aug.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

Closing address of Defence Counsel (sec 7)

This case rests on the question of identification of the two accused. The court is faced with the problem of reconciling two contradictory reports, as to the presence of the two accused in two different places at materially the same time. On the one hand the evidence of Constable Cross that at 0045 hrs 31 Aug ~~xx~~ out of a group of 4 soldiers the accused were the two by whom he was assaulted. On the other hand we have the quite independent evidence of Pte Baker that the accused Pte Panard had stepped on his bed and had subsequently gone to bed in a camp about 1 mile away from the scene of the assault. L/Bdr Stewart said that the accused Gnr Gray came into bed a few minutes after he did at least 1½ hrs before the time of the assault. I ask the court to examine the credibility of these two sets of statements as they apply to the accused. In the latter case there is no question of identification, the accused are known to the persons who gave the evidence. L/Bdr Stewart's time is fixed by the fact that he met Gnr Fyfe about ½ mile from camp. Gnr Fyfe going on into camp ahead of him, the latter arrives at a time fixed by L/Bdr Penny as being between 2300 and 2330 hrs. I submit to the court that it is unreasonable to assume that L/Bdr Stewart took another 3/4 of an hour to make that ½ mile and that the time of his arrival may be taken to be before 2330 hrs.

We are asked to believe that agroup of five men will leave a pub at closing time and are still on their way home some two hours later. Yet we are told by Sgt Brown, Gnr Fyfe and the two accused that they all moved off together from the pub at the most 15 minuts after closing time. I ask the court where the four men of whom the accused are alleged to have been two came from. When we are told that out of a group of 5 from this unit two were definitely in camp by midnight and one was ½ mile away at midnight. I ask the court to examine the strength of the identification by the first witness of the accused. The constable came onto the road, flashed his torch on a party 20 or 30 yds away. Two of the party come running towards him as they come he shines his torch on himself to identify his uniform, then these two men start grappling for the torch. All of this activity the constable tells us took a minute or a matter of seconds. This taking place on a practically moonless night. The constable does not recall any peculiarity in dress and does not recall seeing any dress other than ordinary battle dress on any of these two men. I suggest to the court that a torch flashed over a distance of 20 to 30 yds on people running towards one shows more than just the faces. High boots and breeches, a crash helmet, whether worn or carried, are sufficient variance of the normal pattern as to make a decided impression. I suggest to the court that Constable Cross has made a mistake in identification. His identification is based on colour of hair, height and general build. I would submit as a psycological fact that the human mind sees and recognizes that which it wants to see and recognize.

The constable comes to a group of 17 men and sees two who answer his description. The first time he sees them he is positive of one and not of the other. The second time he sees them that evening he is satisfied as to both. I submit that having seen them in court a third time he firmly believes they are the two men. I would submit to the Court that Constable Cross at about 2300 hrs saw the accused walking down to the pub. The next day when he came to identify them they struck a responsive chord in his mind and his identification was incorrect.

I ask the court to pay attention to MML p 58 para 67 ch 5.

I suggest that at least one hour before the scene described by the constable took place the accused were back in camp.

Closing address of the Prosecution.

As Capt Sheps poined out there are two conflicting stories, one the evidence of the policeman, who as it was said before, was positive of the identity of one man on the parade, but was not certain of the other until he heard the second one's voice later on. Against that we have the evidence of L/Bdr Stewart and L/Bdr Penny, Sgt Brown, Gnr Fyfe, as to when they arrived home. None of them should have been out of camp at all. With the exception of Fyfe who was seen by Penny within certain time limits I submit that there has not been one definite time established regarding the time of return of these men. In Penny's evidence he stated that he went back to the tent after duty at about 0045 hrs. He remembers Fyfe there. He does not remember any of the others. It is reasonable to expect that had Gray been in Penny would have noticed him as they only slept a foot and a half apart. I would ask the court to consider the way these soldiers spent the evening, the amount of beer they had consumed, the fact that none of them should have been out of camp, at the time when it is weighing the evidence.

Summary of evidence in the case of M 590 Gnr Herbert Alfred Gray and M 16629 Pte Avery Victor Danard of 2 Cdn C.B.O. Staff R.C.A., Canadian Army Overseas, charged with a civil offence, that is to say assault of W.R. 170 Constable Crosse of the Monmouthshire County Constabulary.

First Witness

W.R. 170 Constable Edward Owen Crosse, sworn, states:

At 0040 a.m. on 31 August I was at my home in Whitebrook when I heard the sound of smashing wood on the road outside and some men shouting. I put on my uniform and went down on to the road where I saw a 4'x4' section of fencing which had been recently smashed. A little way up the road there was a group of men smashing at something. I shone my torch towards them and one of them called out, "What do you want? I replied, " I want you to come down here and see this damage." One of them called out, "All right we are coming" and two of the men came towards me. They appeared to be hostile so I shone my torch on my uniform so that they should know who it was accosting them. I then shone the torch on them again and they continued to come towards me. I warned them to stop intending to question them. The man on my left who appeared to have the fairer hair of the two said, "He is only a fucking policeman, we can knock his head off." He then tried to take the torch from me and I shone it on them again. The man on my right had darker hair that stood upright on his forehead. The man on my left succeeded in obtaining possession of the torch. I then drew my steff and warned the men once more that I was a police officer. The man on my left then shone the torch on my face and both men tried to get my steff from me. They twisted my arm around until I had to release my staff which was taken by the man on my right. The man on my left then took the staff and held it up in his right hand above my head and said, "We can knock your head off and we will". He did not deliver a blow but closed with me and pinned my arms to my side. He then pushed me backwards and the man on my right started punching me on my throat but landed only two blows. The man on my right then said, "Take off your bloody glasses so we can hit you properly." I then released myself from their grasp and went to a house to telephone for assistance from Monmouth. When I returned to the road the men had gone. At 1.20 a.m. in company with Sgt Taylor and W.R. Turvill, I visited the Crown Inn at Whitebrook. I made enquiries there as a result of which we three officers visited a gravel quarry near Trelleck. We there saw Capt Seybold and told him what had occurred and that we beleived the men to be in his unit. We were informed by Capt Seybold after he had made a search, that all men were present, the time then being 0230 hrs. At 0700 hrs, 31 August, I searched the road where the fight had occurred and found a flagon half full of beer in a ditch and a bottle containing a clear liquid. At 9.30 a.m. 31 August in company with Supt. Lewis of Monmouth I visited the quarry again. An identification parade was held and I was invited to try to identify my two assailants. I identified the two men who are before you now, Gray being the man who was on my right and Danard on my left. During the fight a third soldier was lying on the road a few feet away and a fourth man, who I do not know if he was a soldier, was about thirty yards away up the road holding a white light. He remained there during the fight.

Q. What other troops are there in the neighborhood?

A. To my knowledge, none within seven miles of Monmouth in which district I am in, I do not think there are any between here and Chepstow.

Pte Danard, the accused, cross examined:

Q. When you came out on the road how far away would you say the troops were that were doing the breaking?

A. About 15 yards.

Q. I understand you to say that you stood by the break in the fence and these two soldiers approached you.

A. I did say that.

Q. When you came out on the road firstdid you shine your torch around to see the damage?

A. Yes. I did.

Q. Then did you see the man that you said was lying on the road?

A. The third man did not approach me in the same manner as the other two.

Gnr Gray, the other accused, cross examined the witness:

Q. You say that the two men who approached you had no hats on?

A. I did not say that but I say it now. That is how I was able to describe their hair.

SEVENTH WITNESS

(Documentary)

The statement of Constable 228"K" C.M. Travis, J.I.D. Special Branch & Intelligence, is read to the accused.

STATEMENT

I beg to report that at 09.30 hours on Tuesday, 28-4-42, in company with Detective Constable Richards, I saw the above-named soldier in the Y.M.C.A. Services Hotel Church Street, Liverpool. He was dressed in civilian Clothing and was in possession of a service respirator. I asked him to account for his possession of the respirator and he said " I bought it from a soldier".

I further questioned him and he later admitted being absent without leave from the 3rd Canadian Division-Reinforcement Unit, stationed at Crookham, Hants, since 26-3-42. The civilian clothing Dancoisne was wearing had been lent to him by David Simpson, a merchant navy man, also residing at the Y.M.C.A., to whom Dancoisne had represented that he was on Leave. I instructed Dancoisne to change into his uniform and returned the civilian clothing to Simpson.

Dancoisne was arrested and taken to the Main Bridewell, where when charged with being an absentee he did not reply.

He appeared before the Court and was remanded in custody until the following day, 29-4-42, on which date he was further remanded to await military escort.

I would suggest that a copy of this report be forwarded to the Officer Commanding the 3rd Canadian Division Reinforcement Unit, Crookham, Hants.

(SIGNED) C.M.Travis, Con.228"K"

The accused does not question the evidence of the witness nor does he require his presence for cross-examination.

FIRST WITNESS
Defence

The accused K-876 Private Dancoisne, M.W. having been duly warned in accordance with Rule of Procedure 4 (e) makes the following statement:

When I returned to the 1st Batalion on Canadian Scottish Regiment on the 22nd of December 1941 from the R.A.F. I was told that I would be able to remain in England with the said Unit and when I was a short time with the Field Unit I was told that I would have to go back to the Holding Unit and await a draft to return to Canada. When I got to the Holding Unit I applied again for my fourteen days leave which was due, they would not give it to me and they tried to stop my seven days leave, when I went on my seven days leave I decided that instead of going back to Canada I would go back to the Merchant Navy where I think my services would be of more value to the country.

L/Cpl Robbins went one side, and I went the other side. The accused was standing beside the vehicle. One of the Cdn soldiers had a pistol and had it pointed at L/Cpl Robbins, he ordered him to put the pistol down which he did. L/Cpl Robbins handed the pistol to me, I examined it and put it in my pocket. I ordered the accused to stay where he was until the jeep came. He did not. QP On the 2 Mar 45 Did you have occasion to go to liquor store to see about a complaint
A1 Yes sir
From the infor rec'd here what did you do?
L/Cpl Johnson and I proceeded to the Liquor Store to investigate the complaint of Cdn soldiers causing a disturbance. We arrived there about 1730 hrs. I was informed there that the soldiers had left at that moment a civilian standing on the St pointed towards the corner. As we was walking towards the corner two soldiers in hosp blues saw us coming and started to run. We gave chase meanwhile ordering them to halt, but they kept on running for about 2 sts then we saw the soldiers hide behind a civilian lorry. L/Cpl Johnson went around the rear of the lorry I went around the front. We then apprehended the two soldiers. The accused then started using obscene language.
QC What do you call obscene lang?
A The Prov are no etc sir.
--and then struck L/Cpl Johnson on the side of the head using his fist. A civ. policeman then gave assistance and force had to be used to subdue him. He was then escorted to Detach. HQ.
Q Pros What time did you actually apprehend him
A I'd say about 1740 -1745

Q1 Def When did you tell the accused he was under arrest
A1 When I apprehended him sir, when I went around the front of the truck
Q2 Could you tell us just what happened around the time you say the acc. struck Cpl Johnson
A2 At that time he was ordered to come along with us. He told his partner he didn't have to as the Provost were etc and struck L/Cpl Johnson.
Q3D Did Cpl Johnson have a hold of him at the time?
A 3 No sir he was going to take him by the arm when he struck him
Q3 He was just reaching for him
A3 Yes sir that is what I would say
Q4 Then they got into a fight?
A4 Yes sir
Q5 Would you say the accused was very drunk
Q5 He had been drinking sir, but I would not say he was drunk

RP 83(b) complied with "J E Movat" Lt

The accused sworn states:
At approx 1700 hrs 2 Mar 45 I left the liquor store and proceeded to the corner of the st. to wait for a tram. Then we saw the Provost and remembering that the lady in the wine shop said she would call the provost, we walked around the corner. The rest is very vague. I remember starting to run and I remember seeing L/Cpl Robins with a pistol pointed at me. Then I don't remember anymore until I was at Det HQ

Q1Def Do you remember what kind of a day it was- Rainy windy
A1 It was windy
Q2D Do you remember anything about spitting in the Provost face
A1 No sir
Q1 Pros What time did you leave the hospital?
A At approx 1415 1430 hrs
Q2 Did you have a pass signed for that day?
A2 No sir
Q3 You say you were app at approx 1730 hrs by the Provost
A3 I wouldn't say that.
Q4 You said it was approx 1730 hrs you saw L/Cpl Robins
A4 No sir I said at approx 1700 hrs I left the liquor store.

RP 83(b) complied with "J E Movat" Lt

To whom it may concern:

The accused Pte DANCOISNE CAMERON HIGHLANDERS OF OTTAWA came to my platoon in England in November 1943 and stayed with me until the change of organization of our unit in February 1944.

During his stay he was employed as a DR and he carried out all his duties in a faithful and soldierly manner

Statement of Mitigation by the accused.

When I was with the CSR in Debert Can. I was discharged on the 1 May 41, which was about the 8th discharge for being underage. I went to Halifax, signed on a ship in the Merchant Navy, came to England and enlisted in the RAF. I served in the RAF until the end of that year (41) when they found out how old I was they then gave me 6 mos temp discharge to return to the service when I was 18. Instead I went to London and re-enlisted in the Can Army. I was then kept in the Reinforcement Units, because of my age. I was never available for the field because of my age. I always seemed to be getting into trouble while in the holding unit. I then came over here in November 44 haping to go straight to the front, but I was kept here in the holding unit until the beginning of Jan 45 when I was admitted into hosp for diptheria and skin trouble. I spent two months in hosp and when I was slated for Rconval. I tried to come straignt to CSRG instead of going to Conv, so that I would be available for the front. I would like very much to get there before it is all over.

I wish to point out that the accused has had no previous charges since arriving in this theatre.

29 June 43.

Plea for Mitigation of Sentence.

Armed No. K-876 Pte Walter Dancoisne of the First Bn., Canadian Scottish Regt. pleads guilty to the charge. The following are mitigating circumstances.

Pte Dancoisne left school in 1940 to enlist at age of 16. He was discharged from the 5th Can. motor cycle Regt after two months as under age. He then enlisted with the Canadian Scottish Regt and was with them until 1941 at Debert in Canada. Here he was warned that he would not come overseas because of his age. On a "Stuckman's pass", he went absent without leave and worked his way by ship to England. 16th June 41 Pte Dancoisne joined the R.A.F. as a motor cycle dispatcher and was discharged because of age 22 Dec. 41. No crime record during this time.

Canadian Precept advised that he could enlist in Canadian forces in England and Pte. Dancoisne requested to be sent to his old regiment, Canadian Scottish, in an effort to redeem himself with that unit.

When he ~~was first~~ was apprehended was in uniform en route to return to his unit, though he had been previously in plain clothes.

In view of this record and the fact that he has been denied opportunity of training on motor cycles which is his great interest in the army, we respectfully submit that a minimum sentence be handed down and that a recommendation be made to transfer him to another unit where his motor cycle experience will be profitable.

THE ACCUSED M-16114 PTE DANDO F.E. BEING QUESTIONED BY HIS DEFENDING OFFICER (CONT'D)

Q. It has been shown in evidence that you had no hesitiation in showing the contents of your haversack and freely making a statement of them. Would you explain to the court slowly why you considered yourself justified in being in possession of these items?

A. Yes, Sir.

A. The pudding in question is not a full size pudding. I made two full tins which we used, this was about four spoonfulls of batter left and would have been thrown away, instead of which I put it in a tin and steamed it with the rest. The meal was served - everyone had had enough and so rather than throw it out I thought it could be used at home.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY DEFENDING OFFICER / CAPT R.W. BONNER

In plea of mitigation I wish to draw to your attention once again the fact that there has been no attempt to discredit the claim which Pte Dando placed upon the rations which were found in his haversack. Had he exercised what he feltto be his rights and eaten the rations in his own camp, there would be no suggestion, and indeed there has been none offered by the Prosecutor in examination, as to his conduct. However in seeking to have a meal with his wife and taking his rations to his wifes stopping place for the purpose of his own consumption, he placed himself technically in error, a fact which should be weighed only after consideration of his original intent and further in consideration with his record of unquestionedconduct and exemplary industry within his term of service, a matter of 2½ years with this unit. I believe the strongest testimony as to character and degree of reliability with which this unit regarded Pte. Dando is to be found in the statement offered by Major McLean this morning. The Major's statement That Dando was one of the few upon whom he had relied while others failed him and that indeed he would be willing to re-employ Pte. Dando in his former position when this business has been settled, speaks for itself. In addition, I would point out, although Pte. Dando has not, until yesterday been up for trial he has nevertheless undergone a considerable period of confinement (18 days) and I beg therefore that in considering the sentence to be awarded that the 18 days be taken into account.

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE By M16114 Pte DANDO F.E
/ C/AU NORTON CAMP AT 1810 hrs 11 July 44

I having been duly warned state:—

I had to arise early this morning for duty at the Officers Mess, and was leaving early this afternoon on Tuesday to have my supper with my wife who has just come up from Edinborough. So I took 3 Eggs half a dozen slices of Bacon ½ a pound of margarine and left camp at 1600 hrs. I was apprehended at 1630 by the provost on my way to Church wondering why my wife is staying.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER

By way of summarizing the defence, Sir, let me point out that the prosecution has failed to establish the theft of the items referred to as exhibits B, C, D, and E by first, failing to show that the items were missing from any particular mess and indeed introducing only a likelihood that these goods were army rations at all.

The fact that the defense does not contest the identity of these goods must be interpreted, in the light of testimony for the defense only as, a question of possession by right. The defense contests that a man cannot steal his own rations.

Reasonable evidence has shown that Pte Davdo felt that he could have moral claim on the three eggs and small amount of bacon by reason of not eating breakfast — his habit whilst employed as cook and that he sought to use his unconsumed ration for a supper with his wife an event which is not normally possible because a ration card will not feed two people. Had he followed this line of reasoning and eaten his ration in camp there would have been no question of misconduct but in seeking to eat this food at his home — where his wife was visiting him — and in taking the food to that place — he placed himself technically in error. Though his right to the food was at no time contested during the offering of evidence nor in cross examination by the prosecutor. His right to the food is not questioned; his taking it out of camp is. This is not a question of stealing but rather one of proper possession.

Character Testimony as to character is unanimous in affirming that Pte Dando's honesty and industry during his service with this unit for the past 2½ years was above question & beyond reproach. Major Mc Lean stated that Dando was one of few upon whom he had relied & would continue to rely upon when this affair had been heard out.

Therefor I plead that the court consider

1. Dando's uncontested claim to his rations
2. His excellent record of service during the past 2½ years and 3. The unduly long period of confinement whilst awaiting trial - a matter of weeks -

- when it passes judgment upon the case of Pte. Dando.

I beg that the court be most considerate of the delicate point upon which the defence is poised and that its decision be correspondingly sympathetic.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of M16114 Pte. Dando, F.E., ~~Royal Edmonton Regiment~~ Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, on the strength of No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

M11673 L/Cpl Hunt, H.W., No. 4 Detachment, 7 Provost Company, Canadian Provost Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows: I am M11673 L/Cpl Hunt, H.W., #4 Detachment, 7 Provost Coy, Cdn Provost Corps, stationed at Welbeck Camp, No. 1 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, and was so on 11 Jul 44. While on M.C. patrol on the road between Church Warsop and Welbeck Camp, at about 1630 hrs on 11 Jul 44, I had occasion to check a Canadian soldier, whom I ascertained to be Pte. Dando, whom I now recognize as the accused. I asked him for his pass, which he produced. I also noticed he was carrying a haversack. At my request he opened the haversack and took out the contents. They looked to be Army rations. I found the haversack contained one pudding which was still warm, a half-pound of margarine three eggs which had a date stamp on them, a few slices of bacon and some other stuff but the other stuff was not army stuff. I placed the soldier under arrest and brought him to Welbeck Camp, and on instructions I took him to No. 1 Cdn Inf Rft Unit Guard Room. I turned over the haversack and contents to Sgt Schlosser.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

At about 1630 hrs on 11 Jul 44 I was with L/Cpl Hunt on M.C. patrol. On the Warsop road, L/Cpl Hunt, in my presence, checked a Canadian soldier whom we found to be Pte. Dando, and whom I now recognize as the accused. He was carrying a haversack which he opened and which contained three eggs which had a mark stamped on them, a loaf pudding about 4 inches square and about 6 inches long, and a half pound of margarine or butter, and a few slices of bacon. There were also I believe, a couple of packages of salted peanuts. I recognize the pudding which is now produced and shown to me as the pudding which Pte. Dando had in his haversack and which is now marked Exhibit "A" and initialled by me for purposes of identification. We brought Pte. Dando back to Welbeck Camp under close arrest. I left the haversack and contents in the Provost Detachment Office.

THIRD WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

approximately 1700 hrs on 11 Jul 44 on returning to my office, I found the accused whom I now recognize, in the custody of two members of the patrol, namely L/Cpl Hunt and Pte. Gamelin. L/Cpl Hunt informed me in the presence of the accused that he had apprehended the accused, whom I found was Pte. Dando of No. 1 Cdn Inf Rft Unit, at approximately 1630 hrs and that the accused had been found in possession of army rations. I inspected the rations in question and found that they consisted of three eggs, several slices of bacon, one half pound of margarine and a suet pudding. These were in a haversack. The haversack now produced and shown to me is the haversack in question. I recognize it because of a red X which I put on the outside of it with a marking pencil. This haversack is now marked Exhibit "D" and initialled by me for purposes of identification. The eggs marked Exhibit "B" are the same eggs which were turned over to me as being the eggs which were in the haversack found in possession of the accused. The margarine marked Exhibit "C" is the same margarine I found in the haversack Exhibit "D" at this time. The pudding marked Exhibit "A" is the same pudding I found in the said haversack. The bacon which is now produced and shown to me is the same bacon I found in the said haversack. I recognize it because I marked the wrapping in red pencil. This is now marked Exhibit "E" and initialled by me for purposes of identification. The accused volunteered to explain his being found in possession of these articles. He stated that he had been working in the Officer's Mess on that day and had taken the rations to give to his wife who was in Warsop at the time. I then cautioned the accused in the following words, (as closely as I remember) "Will you make a statement? Anything you may say in the statement will be taken down as evidence and may be used against you." In my presence the accused made a statement which was taken down by L/Cpl Baker and signed by the accused. The statement xxxxxxxx xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx now produced and shown to me is the statement made and signed by the accused. This is now marked Exhibit "F" and initialled by me for purposes of identification. The accused was then escorted to the Guard Room. The haversack and contents was kept under observatio by me and L/Cpl Baker until approximately 1930 hrs when they were placed in the safe. They were turned over to the Adjutant, No. 1 C.I.R.U. the following day for safe-keeping.

I am in charge of receiving and issuing all the standard rations of the Unit. The pudding marked Exhibit "A" is not an issue commodity but could be made of issue commodities. The only thing I can say is that when the cooks of the Unit make steam puddings, they are made in a container of a similar shape to the pudding marked Exhibit "A". Eggs for the Officers' Mess are a cash purchase and do not come within the scope of my duties. The margarine marked Exhibit "C" is a similar ration to the one which we receive from the R.A.S.C. and re-issue to the cook-houses, but it cannot be positively identified as public property. The bacon marked Exhibit "B" is similar to bacon that we receive from N.A.A.F.I. and re-issue to the Unit cook-houses. It can't be identified as public property. The bacon, and margarine are rationed commodities and would require coupons for purchase in a civilian shop.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

I am Major B.M. Maiden acting O/C of A Wing 1 C.I.R.U

Q Do you recognise Pte Dando
A. Yes he has been employed as a cook for about three years during which time he has always been reliable and worked hard. I feel that he acted on a slip. He is his first offence and I would endeavour to employ him again. I feel that whatever has happened is due to error on his part and not deliberate intention. I would be quite willing to employ him in future

Plea of mitigation of punishment

by Capt Bower

2nd plea of mitigation I would ask to draw to your attention once again the fact that there has been no attempt to dissemble the charge which Pte Dando placed upon the rations which were found in his haversack. Had he concealed what he felt to be his right and taken the rations in his own camp there would be no suggestion and indeed nor has been offered by the prosecution in examination as to his conduct. However in seeking to have a meal with his wife and taking his rations to her wife stopping place for the purpose of her own consumption he placed himself technically in error a fact which should be weighed only after consideration of his original intent and further in consideration with his record of unquestioned conduct and exemplary soldierly written his term of service a matter of 2½ years with the unit. I believe the strongest testimony as to character and degree of reliance with which the unit regarded Pte Dando is to be found in the statement offered by Major McLean this morning. The weight of statement that Dando was one of the few upon whom he had relied while others failed him and that indeed he would be willing to re employ Pte Dando in his former position when the charge has been settled speaks for itself in addition I would point out although Pte Dando has not until yesterday been up for trial he has nevertheless undergone a considerable period of confinement (18 days) and 9 days thereafter that in considering the sentence to be awarded that that 18 days be taken into account

Summary of evidence in the case of M.16114 Pte Dando F.E. A soldier in the Edmonton Regiment Cdn. Army (Overseas).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence was taken under oath.

1st Witness for the prosecution — M.15654 Sgt Linteris, P. Edmonton Regiment having been duly swwrn states:-

[redacted] On Sat. Oct 18 41 L/Cpl Wilson reported to me that 12/6 was missing from his room and Pte Merrill reported that 10/- was missing from his room. We searched all the platoon, and Dando being a suspect he was watched. On the inspection parade he was about 5 minutes late. When I asked him where he was, he told me he was speaking to the gardener. Dando had no money on him atthe inspection. After the inspection I went to see the gardener, and was told by him that Pte Dando had been speaking to him, and had just come from behind the shed. At this time Pte Hudson appeared, and we both made a search, and found the money under a half barrel. We did not touch the money, but reported the find to Sgt McCulloch and Sgt Shoubridge. I then put on two guards, one at the lavatory window, and one in the pantry to watch and see who would pick the money up. At approximately 1330 hours Pte Dando was seen to go behind the shed, by Pte Birmingham who was posted at the toilet window. Birmingham reported to Sgt McCulloch and he reported to me. I Then went to Pte Dando's room with Pte. Heath and searched him. When he emptied his pockets, there was one 10/- note, 3 half-crown pieces and 2 two shilling pieces. I then placed him under close arrest, and took him to the guard room.

Question 1 [redacted]

Answer 1

Question 2 How long has he been with your platoon?
Answer 2 About 7 months.
Question 3 Did the gardener specifically mention Pte Dando by name as having been behind the shed.

[redacted] At 1130 hours Sat Oct 18, I was on an inspection of billets with Major Donald, when it was reported that two sums of money had been taken from two different rooms in " Ennoyene" (the house in which the men were billeted) on that morning between approx. 1000 hours and 1100 hours. At that time it was established by the platoon Sgts. McCulloch, Linteris and Shoubridge that not more than 5 men were in the building at the time. One of the five was Pte Dando. Acting on Major Donald's instructions the whole of the personnel in the house was paraded. They turned their pockets out. When the parade was first fallen in, Pte Dando was absent. By the time that I had reached the second rank, he had taken his place there. He had no money. I asked him specifically if he had any money in his other clothes. This he denied and stated that he was flat broke. This was approximately 1150 hours At approximately 1210 hours it was reported to me that a certain sum of money had been found under a barrel at the rear of an outbuilding and that a watch had been posted. I went to the room where Dando was being searched and saw the money in his presence - one 10/- note, 3 half-crowns and two two shilling pieces. Plea in mitigation in the case of.

D.104 Pte Landmand

The following plea will be a simple relation of the facts surrounding the alleged absence of the accused.

Pte Landmand has seen action, first in Italy with the Loyal 2nd. Bgt and, later, with the same unit has been through the campaign of Holland.

Immediately after VE. day - in May 45. while his unit was stationed in Naarden, Holland, Pte Landmand was granted a pass to England along with a number of his companions.

Then, for NO reason the said pass was cancelled. I say, NO reason because even his Coy Cond answer was "He did NOT know about that!"

Two weeks later Landmand was granted a pass to Brussels.

Again it was cancelled just previous to him leaving the Unit's Line.

Later he applied for a pass to Amsterdam. "NO" he was told "You can NOT go, we have been warned for the occupation." (CAOF).

At that rate, Pte Landmand, after spending 2 solid months in the kitchen as fatigueman was "gratified" with a "one day pass" to see "treat the Navy".

On 24th Aug 45 the accused was transferred to "le Bgt de la Couronne" 3 Bde. No specific reason given.

There he applied for a pass of some sort, stating what you have just heard.

The answer was "NO."

That was the end.

I wish, here, to stress the fact that this way of handling our men has NOT been uncommon. You will hear the same story in roughly 50% of the AWL cases.

I am asking the Court to consider the above and remember chiefly the the man has surrendered himself in the end.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. I do not (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his ~~(their)~~ plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). ~~The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they)~~ ~~change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s).~~ Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there in no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any pleas standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(C) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? (1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

B2 Statement of K 74333 James Hilbert Vanes. Wester[illegible] (19)

We were up at the front and I belong to the snipers platoon. Our job is pretty hard but we one did I just to do my duty. We were withdrawn from the front and were training at a training camp. My platoon was sent to a school. I was left behind with the Regt. For about two days I was not doing any thing and just laid in my tent from morning till night. Then the Regt was sent for some crossing. I knew that I would be laying in my tent for another four days so I thought I would go out and make the best of it while I had the chance.

E1 First witness for defence
Lt. S.H. morgan Weston R (NZ) Sworn states.
Pte Vanes since going into action has been in our snipers pl. this job consisted mainly of patrolling for a period of about four weeks and in some instances they were out twice in one night. Never once did he refuse to go out or shirk his duty in any way. For all other respects he has been a good soldier since coming to the Sp coy. I am an officer in the Sp coy and have known Pte Vanes for about two years.
Cross exn. He has done the same amount of patrolling as the rest of the pl.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No.(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B 5, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT
D137786 Pte DANIEL, B.

The accused was seven months at the front then came out with his Unit to Rest. At this time he received a letter saying that his father was in hospital and his Mother was very sick. The boys nerves were not too good after the actions he had been through and that along with the letter from home upset him mentally. He felt"sorry for himself" and the Unit not being in action he went AWL. He surrendered himself with the intention of going back to his unit. His record as a soldier is good and in considering sentence I would ask mercy of Court.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of: L26036 Rfn. Daniels, J., 1st Bn. The Regina Rifle Regiment.

1st Witness

L27054 C.Q.M.S. Jean, J. S., 1st Bn. The Regina Rifle Regiment, having been duly sworn states as follows:

"I am Coy C.Q.M.S. of C Coy., Regina Rifle Regiment. On the 4th day of December 1943 the Bn. was billetted at Lewes doing an exercise with tanks. Rfn. Daniels was helping in the kitchen at the time. On the night of 4 Dec 43 the senior cook asked that personnel in the kitchen be given a late pass that evening. I consented after having said that they would have to draw lots. Rfn. Daniels was one of the lucky ones to get a pass. On checking at 0630 hrs , reveille, the next morning 5 Dec 43 I found L26036 Rfn. Daniels, J. was absent, then I reported to C.S.M. Edwards that Daniels was an absentee and asked for a man to replace him in the kitchen. I then picked up what kit he had there and checked it. On returning to the Coy billets two days later I checked the remainder of Daniels kit. To the best of my knowledge Daniels had a complete kit before going on the scheme to Lewes."

2nd Witness

L27899 L/Cpl. Warner, A. E., 1st Bn. The Regina Rifle Regiment, having been duly sworn states as follows:

"I am clerk of C Coy., Regina Rifle Regiment. On the 4th day of December 43 at approximately 1630 hrs I made out a late pass from 1630 hrs 4 Dec 43 to 2359 hrs the same night. I checked up with the kitchen and ascertained that Daniels would not be on duty. I gave the pass to L27899 Rfn. Yaschuk, J. of this Company at 1645 hrs. The pass was signed by Lieut. D. G. Brown. Daniels was reported absent to Bn.H.Q. the following morning and I saw the report each day thereafter for approximately 21 days go in to Bn.H.Q. that Daniels was still absent. It was at least until he was S.O.S. This office was notified on 25 Mar 43 that Daniels had been apprehended in Brighton and was then in the Regimental Guard House.

3rd Witness

L27140 C.S.M. Edwards, B.A., 1st Bn. The Regina Rifle Regiment, having been duly sworn states as follows:

"I am C.S.M. of C Company and had knowledge that Rfn. Daniels was out on late pass 4 Dec 42 when the Company was at Lewes on tank training. We were billeted in the town of Lewes. I checked the Company billets at 2359 hrs and found Rfn. Daniels to be absent. Rfn. Yaschuk of this Company came to me that evening with Daniels pass and I told him to turn it in to the Orderly Room. All ranks had been notified by the posting of Daily Orders 3 Dec 42 para 4 that no leave of any discription could be granted to terminate later than 2200 hrs Sunday, 27 Dec 42. This is exhibit (a)

When Daniels had still not returned at 0630 hrs 3 Dec 42 I replaced him in the kitchen with another man.

On 25 Mar 43 I was notified by L27194 L/Cpl. Ralston of the Regimental Provost that he had apprehended Rfn. Daniels in Brighton that day and that Daniels was at present in the Guard House. Daniels had been continuously absent from 4 Dec 42 until 25 Mar 43.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

4th Witness

L27194 L/Cpl. Ralston, G. J., 1st Bn. The Regina Rifle Regiment, having been duly sworn states as follows:

"I am in the Regimental Provost Section. On the 5th of December I received notice that Rfn. Daniels was an absentee. During the week of 21 Mar 43 and 27 Mar 43, the Adjutant, Lieut. Nash, instructed me to go to Brighton to pick up L27503 Rfn. Daniels, J.

On the 24th day of March 1943 I stopped my motorcycle in Brighton one block south of the station to light a cigarette. It was about 1150 hrs. I noticed four of our men on the corner, Rfn. Daniels was one of them. Three of them run off but he remained. I asked him when I came up to him if he was Daniels and he said he was. I asked him to come along with me and he said "Yes" He had a battle dress on, but no regimental flashes or divisional patches on it. He got on the back of my motorcycle and came with me to number 19 Old Steyne, the Provost Headquarters in Brighton, where I turned him over for safe custody and phoned for and escort. When the escort arrived Daniels was taken to Denne Park and placed in the Guard House by me. I then notified the duty officer and later C.S.M. Edwards.

The following caution was given to the accused who elected to give evidence on oath:

"Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence upon oath. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence"

"I am L26036 Rfn. Daniels, J. I went with the Company on the scheme at Lewes on 4 Dec 42. I was in the cooker. That night I asked for a pass but I left without it because one of the boys told me Rfn. Yaschuk had my pass. Then I went to Newhaven. I looked for Yaschuk but didn't find him. That night I missed the train to Lewes so I went to some people I knew in Newhaven and they put me up for the night. I arranged to be woke up at 0400 hrs with next morning but they didn't wake me until 0730 hrs. I went to catch the bus but found I couldn't get back to Lewes until 0900 hrs at the earliest, so I walked. I got to Lewes about 0930 and by this time was pretty disgusted and fed up. I had quite a bit of money so I took the train to Brighton and have been there until L/Cpl. Ralston picked me up on 25 Mar 43. All the time I was there I wore my uniform. I never did have Regimental flashes on it, but I did on my other one. I stayed in billets with other Canadian troops in Brighton. I also stayed with some civilian people I know there. I worked around the house at one place I stayed but never had any other job. All the time I was in Brighton I was never stopped by an M.P. until L/Cpl. Ralston picked me up. I have not dodged M.Ps. L/Cpl. Ralston's evidence on how he picked me up is correct. I have read the evidence of Rfn. Yaschuk on the Court of Inquiry and I knew he had my pass I cannot say whether the rest is correct.

Surgeon Major

Prosecution sums up: Evidence of Sgt Quist shows that accused did have a pass which purported to be a genuine leave pass and by his actions showed that he knew that the pass was not genuine. The evidence also shows that when searched he could not produce a P.B.I pay book when stopped he handed over a pass with a false name and when searched by Cpl McA Ricardo he tendered for the name of Walker and never denied that his name was Walker.

Defending Officer sums up: He was arrested on May 8 and the pass he had expired on May 11 so the document did not purport to be a genuine leave pass. It had expired and was not altered. The only evidence of giving a false name is the handing over of a leave pass which is the substance of the second charge as it really an alternative charge and not a separate charge to the second one.

I am 25 yrs old, married with two children. I have a fair education. I went to school for two yrs in Bulgaria, Such then I was adopted by an old lady and for two yrs I didn't go to school. Instruction † If there is no summary or abstract of evidence, sufficient evidence to enable the Court to determine the sentence, and to enable the confirming officer to know all the circumstances connected with the case, will be taken on a separate sheet in the same manner as on a plea of "Not Guilty."

kept out. I eventually went out on my own until I went back to my parents when I was 17. I never had a steady job. I got married when I was 20 not because I wanted to but because I had to. We never got along so I decided to join the Army. I tried to get in with the Army Service Corps but they wouldn't take me. I went back home and in 1941 I joined the 2nd Gn Regiment Royal Regt. I intended to be a good soldier but in two months had an awful charge against me. I was drafted to the 1/2 Gn but I wasn't there long before I had a charge against me. Then all the charges against me were because of the boys in my company and the N.C.O.s. Everything I did wrong, they turned me. I think I got a raw deal in the case of this Gn but I take some of the blame myself. I have 4 brothers in the Canadian Army overseas. I don't regret much with them, as I was away from home so much they don't seem like brothers. I haven't received any mail from home since Nov. 1942. I went AWL from detention because I received a letter from a girl in Brighton who told me that she was in trouble and if I didn't go and see her she would report me to the Regiment so I decided to go right down and see her when I got there I found she was only a decoy for me. Then I went to London to see my brother who is at Lmtd. I stayed in London 3 weeks when I was never questioned or stopped. I left London and went to Nottingham where I was picked up. Now after all the trouble for which I am sorry, I am anxious to be a good soldier when I come out from my punishment.

Sir,

At NOTTINGHAM on the 18th MAY 1943 about 1145 hours I was on duty in CARRINGTON STREET where I saw the above named soldier whom I checked for his pass. He produced the attached pass which expired on the 11th MAY 1943 but stated that he was in possession of another pass which he had left with his Army Pay Book in a case at the Y.M.C.A. SHAKESPEARE STREET.

I accompanied him to the above Y.M.C.A. but he was unable to produce the case or the document stating that it had been defaced by a companion who was with him at the time he was checked. After a further search of the City for the Canadian soldier who had been his companion I told him that as he could not satisfy me that he was on leave I was placing him in close arrest as an absentee without leave.

I conducted him to the BARRACK DETENTION ROOM where I handed him over to the M.C.O. to be detained.

The President or ~~JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. N O [5]

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

5. The francs in my Pockets (23,050 francs) were obtained by playing cards, and gambling in my unit lines before going AWL and with Americans soldiers when I was AWL.
I didnt made any black markets or stolen any bodies.
In relation with the cheque book and documents in the coat's pockets. I never seen it.

6. I never had any badges on my uniform and never masquerading officers.

I have been cautioned by Sjt MATTHEW SIS, that I need not say anything, but that anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence, to show that I understand this caution, I sign my name here.

"DANIELS JOSEPH"

I am 28 yrears of age, I enlisted in the Cdn Army on Mat 10th, 1941. After training in REGINA Sask, I was posted to the Regina Rifles Regt and came overseas with them, landing in UK on 1st Sep 41. I remained with Regina Rifles in UK until about Mar 43, when I was transferred to the RCASC as a cook. I came to France with this unit as cook on 22 Jun 44. I am a married man, my wife and two children reside at BALCARRES Sask. My assignment of pay is $20.00 monthly.

On 8th Nov 44 we were employed moving hospital personnel from SAYIEUX to GHENT. On 9th Nov 44 at 0800 hrs I went AWL from my unit, RCASC and obtained a ride from RAF personnel as far as LILLE. I met another Cdn soldier in LILLE who was AWL, he was intending going back to Holland. I do not know his name but he was with the armoured corps; he told me that he knew where there was an abandoned jeep outside LILLE. Since he told me that he intended returning to HOLLAND, I decided to go with him if the jeep would operate, and I would return to my unit. We went to where this jeep was abandoned and found it was out of gas, we stopped a truck and got a jerry can of gas, got a push from the truck and the jeep started. This incident took place about the end of Nov

In the intervening time, that is from 9th Nov 44 until we got this jeep, I had stayed in LILLE. I had approximately 30,000 French Francs, I had stayed in LILLE. I was able to eat at Cafes and Cantrens in LILLE, I was invited to several civilian homes where I slept, I also slept at an English Army Camp on quite a few occasions. I went in with the British soldiers and was not checked for a pass, I also ate there while staying at this camp.

About the end of Nov 44 when I contacted this other Cdn I already mentioned, I had decided to return to my unit, but on obtaining the jeep we proceeded to ROUEN where we met an American unit. We travelled with the Americans for about four days and then went with an American truck to PARIS. We all travelled at the American unit in ROUEN we had this jeep. We stayed at American canteen while in PARIS under which there got into a conversation where in fact I stayed in PARIS. We stayed there for about a week. This American unit in ROUEN were engaged transporting mechanical equipment to PARIS and, and after this week in PARIS, we both got a ride back with them to ROUEN, and found that the jeep we had left there was still intact. We used this jeep to travel around the area, we stayed at civilian homes most of the time then and we then decided to return to LILLE on 3rd Jan 45. We stopped at a cafe and left the jeep outside, we were checked there by the CMP, found that we were both AWL, placed us under arrest and took possession of the jeep we had been using. We had taken turns in driving this vehicle over the period we had it in our possession, there was no log book or work ticket with this vehicle. I had approximately 29,000 French Francs in my possession when arrested at this time, but had it in my dress shirt pocket and although I was searched by the CMP, they did not locate this money. They took possession of my documents, pay book etc. I was escorted to 12 CBRD on 5th Jan 45 along with my companion. I was subjected to a further search at the guard room 12 CBRD; I still had this money in my shirt pocket but they did not locate it. This money consisted of one 5000 franc note, several 1000 notes and the balance in 500's. I was held in custody at 12 Bn CBRD guard room until 17th Jan 45 when I escaped custody at approximately 2200 hrs. I was dressed in Cdn Cdn Battle Dress, having removed the suit of deniums that we usually wore over the battle dress. I walked out of the main gate without being questioned for a pass. I stayed in a Cafe in GHENT over night, I still had all the 29,000 Francs (French) with me.

I stayed around GHENT the following day and obtained a ride into FRANCE with the RAF and made my way back to LILLE. I remained there a few days, went to ARRAS by hitch hiking and remained there until about the 28th or 29 Jan 45. I stayed in hotels in ARRAS and had my meals there. On the 29th Jan 45 I obtained a ride to LILLE, I stayed there until 31 Jan 45 when I was arrested by the CMP about 1315 hrs. The circumstances surrounding my arrest on this occasion are as follows. I was in a barber shop in LILLE about 1300 hrs on that date, another soldier who was English asked me if I knew where the petrol supply point was located, he said he was AWL. I told this English soldier that I knew where to get petrol and went outside with him. He had a Jeep parked there. He drove the jeep and I rode with him to get petrol; he didn't tell me that this was a stolen jeep. We arrived at the petrol supply point and while this English soldier stayed in t the jeep, I went into the Report centre to check in for petrol. There was a Capt there who asked for my identity card etc., which I could not produce as they were held at guardroom 12 CBRG and he held me at the office while he phoned for the CMP. Meantime, the English soldier who was driving the jeep apparently saw that I was being questioned and he left on foot. On arrival of the CMP I admitted that I was AWL. They took me over to the jeep that had been abandoned by the English soldier and drove me in the jeep to their HQs. They did not ask me anything about this other soldier or how I came to be with this vehicle. They located what money I had left in my possession amounting to 23,000 French Francs and took possession of same.

With regard to my dress when arrested, I was wearing a long waterproof DRs coat which I had got in the jeep when I accompanied this English soldier. There were not gadges of rank on this coat, either on the shoulders or elsewhere and I do not know what the pockets contained. I have no knowledge of any cheque book or documents belonging to one Lt N J BURNSIDE (36236), these documents were not shown to me by the CMP. If they obtained such documents, I do not know where they obtained them, I still had possession of this coat and all my uniform until I was handed over to 12 Bn CBRG on 1st Feb 45. I was questioned by the CMP as to my activities at LILLE area, they believed I was in the Black Market because of the amount of money I had when arrested. My battle dress blouse did not have any badges of rank on it either, I still have this blouse; the coat was taken possession of by the staff at the reception office at 1 Can Disc Centre as they claimed I was not entitled to such kit.

I have had only one FUCW, that being in England in 1943 for being AWL for approximately 118 days and was awarded 9 months Detention. Any other crime in the army was short periods of AWL in England. When I went AWL from RCASC on 9th Nov 44, I had approximately 30,000 French Francs in my possession, I had obtained this amount by gambling at the unit, my pay book shows that I drew my pay for the period 1st - 31st Oct 44, immediately prior to my going AWL.

Closing address for the prosecution in the case of H.102787 Pte Daniels J.R.

I have submitted evidence to show the accused was warned his company was proceeding to a forward area. This warning took place at Riccione on 29 Nov 44. The evidence further shows that at a stand-to in an F.U.P near Bagnacavello on 20 Dec 44, the accused was absent without leave and was so absent until surrendering himself on 4 Jan 45. I submit that the accused was duly warned, and was fully aware of his responsibilities when he absented himself from a forward area. Therefore he absented himself with intent to avoid service in a forward area.

PLEA OF MITIGATION ON BEHALF OF M.60463, Pte. Daniels, E. BY HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

In this case we have pleaded guilty because it is admitted that Daniels was AWL. However, there are many extenuating circumstances which I believe should cause the sentence in this case to be as light as possible.

Daniels is charged with being AWL over 40 days beginning on the 24th Oct 44. However the defendant states that he was in camp after that date. Due to the transient population of 3 CRC it is not possible to prove that he was there after the above date and according to unit roles he did not answer his name but I am quite sure he did not leave camp till later bringing his period of AWL down to 30 some days. Though this cannot be proven I feel the court will consider this statement in passing sentence.

Daniels has been in the army nearly 3 years and this is his first crime. In these three years he has been a good soldier causing no trouble whatsoever. Even now he has no intention that there will be any more crimes. This point I feel is an extremely important one in favour of the accused.

Daniels had no intention of going AWL. He went down town in the evening, enjoyed himself and started back to camp. Those, who know the location of 3 C.R.C. will know that it is a difficult place for an intelligent man to find in the day light and is extremely difficult for a man of Daniels mental ability to find at night. At any rate he missed the way, by the time he realized he was lost it was too late to get back to camp. He was taken in by civilians and treated so nicely and urged so warmly to stay that the next day, realizing he was going to be charged as AWL in any event consented to remain. The longer he stayed away the more frightened he was of returning. Daniels is very dull mentally and it would not be difficult for a civilian to convince him. I feel they are more to blame than he, he had and still has no intention of doing wrong.

A str ng factor in this case is the defendant's mental state. He has been recommended for an M4 rating by the psychiatrist and is actually an M3 already. It is stated - "Patient shows evidences of temperamental instability characteristic of mentally dull." It is a well known fact that men of low mental ability and unstable are more apt to cause crimes than those of more ability. But Daniels, in spite of his limitations has managed to keep his crime sheet clean so far. Nothing should be done to make him change his mind, as a severe sentence might. Moreover, even in his normal state of mind, he is not actually accountable for his actions, when a state of battle exhaustion is superimposed on top of that we cannot expect too much.

Daniels enlisted almost 3 years ago at age 17. It is well-known that it is difficult to employ 17 year olds, especially those unable to absorb trade training, in Canada until they are old enough for overseas service. Consequently they must take either advanced training over and over again or else they must be put on fatigues. They become so "fed up" that they are apt to get into a great deal of difficulty and often their crime sheets are long. But here we have a man that enlisted at 17, had to remain in Canada for two years but in spite of that has no crimes.

He arrived in France with his regt. on the 6 Jul 44, was wounded, hospitalized in England, came back to the continent and once again served with his unit. At all times he did his very best, finally had to be evacuated because of exhaustion but is still anxious to serve. A man, patriotic enough to enlist at 17, be wounded in battle and still go back in and do his best, I feel, should be given every consideration.

After leaving his unit he was hospitalized, sent to reinforcement battalion, special employment companies and Reallocation Centre. Already confused, exhausted, dull, it is little wonder that he lost his reason for a while and committed this breach. However, he has now rested and is himself. I am sure will cause no more crimes. The purpose of a sentence is either to deter the criminal from committing further crimes or to prevent others from committing the same crimes. Neither purpose is obtained by giving this man a long sentence. He already realizes his mistake, will not commit another crime if given a short sentence - the very fact he was so long in the army without a crime proves that. It will not deter others in his unit as the population of 3 CRC moves so quickly that no one who knows Daniels or about his crime will be there when the sentence is published. It will have no effect on the people who are there at that time.

No witnesses as to character have been brought before the court because this man is far away from his original unit. He knows no one in this area well enough to make a worth while statement regarding his character. However, I am sure, in the short time that I have known him, that he will always do his best and am sure that if members of his unit were here that they would speak well of him. I am mentioning this because I wish the court to know that the lack of character witnesses is caused by the exigencies of war not by this man's conduct.

In conclusion I would like to sum up these extenuating circumstances. Daniel was not AWL quite as long as charged; this is his very first crime in almost 3 yrs in the army; he had no intention of going AWL and could not help it as far as the first day was concerned. His intelligence is so low and he is of such an unstable nature that he should not have come o/s let alone to France, probably would be of more use in civilian life than in the Army, is not altogether accountable for his actions. He has seen considerable action, has been wounded. He has no intention of committing further crimes so I hope will have a light sentence as no useful purpose could be served by the sentence being severe.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 25 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans .....(5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. 1st Witness for Prosecution:-

A11729 Sgt. McConnell, P.J.S. 4 CBK Bn. being duly sworn states:-

I was Orderly Sgt D Coy 4 CBK Bn on 15 Feb 44. I was present when the roll was being called at about 0830 hrs. The name of Pte Daniels was called but not answered. I searched the area of D Coy, incl tent lines, kitchens, and the area generally, making enquiries as to his whereabouts. His name was again called on noon meal parade, but he did not answer. I am on practically every parade, but did not see or hear of Daniels again until he came before his Coy Comd on charge of AWL.

The man referred to above was not known to me by sight at the time he was first missing from roll-call. He is F 35152 Pte Daniels, West NS R and is the man previously referred to as being on charge of AWL before his Coy Comd. I recognize him only by name and number.

Cross-Examination.

When the roll is called, a tick is placed against a man's name if he is not present on parade. I then go through my duty-books to see if the man is employed. If he is not, I check through the camp to try and locate him. I make a note of the time he was first absent, and if he is not located during the day he goes on the daily absentee report. The name is continued to be called for 21 days.

I did not search outside D Coy lines for Daniels on ~~[illegible]~~ the 15 Feb because all personnel are warned not to leave Coy lines during parade hours. But I did cover the lines and kitchen area calling his name.

At the 0830 hrs parade, the Coy less employed, were fallen in and the roll called and the employed men checked. I sent a man to K.O.R.C. but to try to locate Pte Daniels, without success. As is my custom in the case of men I'm searching for I called his name on meal parade and at several other times among groups of men.

I do not know if there were a Pay parade that day, but if so I did not parade it.

All offrs were C.B. to Coy lines until after afternoon parade, and rolls were called at irregular times. On 15 Feb, roll-call was between 0500 hrs + 0900 hrs, and independent of any roll calls for fatigues.

(R.P. 83(3) complied with)

2nd Witness for Prosecution

K67700 L/Cpl Bradley, J.S. 4 CBR Bn, being duly sworn states:-

I was on R.P. duty with 4 CBR Bn 3 Mar 44 when the accused, whom I recognize was handed over to ~~his~~ me at 1000 hrs to be placed in close custody

No Cross-Examination

(R.P. 83(3) Complied with)

D3 3rd Witness for Prosecution.

a/Captain J. Martin, 4 CBRBn, being duly sworn:-

ON 5 Mar 44 I was Adjutant, 4 CBRBn. I produce Certificate of Arrest under AA 163 (i) (j) received by me on that date in connection with the accused whom I recognize (att Appx A)

(R.P. 83(B) Complied with)

D6 1st Witness for Defence

Captain R. M. Brousseau, RCAPC. 4 CBRBn, duly sworn states:-

I am Paymaster, 4 CBRBn. On 15 Feb 44 I paid the accused, whose name and number appear on my acquittance roll No 54. The pay parade was held in D Coy lines, but I cannot recall the time. But it certainly was after 0830 hrs.

Cross-examined.

It is quite possible that a man who was not paraded could slip into the line, and providing he had a pay-book he would be paid. There is always a W.O. or N.Co. on parade who identifies men as best he can, considering the rapid flow of ops through the Coy.

(R.P. 83(B) Complies with)

D6 Closing Address by Defending Officer:

In the first place it is obvious that the accused was not absent on 15 Feb 44. The mere fact that he was paid at a Coy parade supervised by an N.C.O. in the Coy lines, shows that he was not absent from 0830 hrs as charged. If Lt McConnell was so interested in finding out the whereabouts of men absent, he would have called the accused's name at pay parade.

I maintain that the evidence produced by the Prosecution is insufficient to find Daniels guilty of the charge as stated. The Prosecution has not been able to definitely prove the time of departure nor can they prove any other date on which he might have left.

I maintain that the system used in keeping track of men in the Coy was faulty and does not cover any event nality which may explain a man's absence. It has been definitely stated that there was no official time of roll-call, but that it varied. Daniels undoubtedly was visiting friends in another Coy.

I also maintain that the Lt concerned could not have made an efficient check, because he did not recognize Daniels, but knew him as a name and number only.

D6

Reply by Prosecution.

The defence stated Pte Daniels was not absent on 15 Feb XV because he was paid in his coy lines that date. It has, however, been shown that a man could possibly be paid without being on parade with his coy. Five minutes previous on a pay parade does not change the fact that he was absent at roll-call about 0830 hrs that day.

It is not necessary to prove the exact minute of the accused's departure. It is enough to prove that he was absent from roll-call on the morning parade.

Although the defence claims that the accused was visiting a friend in another coy - no friend is named, no coy designated, and the fact is ignored, that being C.B. to coy lines, the accused was absent by merely being in another coy lines.

The system of roll-call in the coy may be faulty, but the man was apprehended in Paris, and no system of roll-call could be expected to reach him there.

GB.

E3 Address in Mitigation of Punishment.

Daniels joined Army in June 40 & came to England in 1942. He arrived in Chis Theatre and was posted to West N.S.R. spending six months in action with them. - as a rifleman all the while. He was wounded by shrapnel at the approaches to Orsona x-ds, and was in hospital for six days. He was sent right back to the unit in action again.

This man has a wife and four children, and though he has received mail from home he has not heard from his wife for over nine months. His family would write either, so he has been worried as to his children.

He has already been in custody for 21 days, and in view of the circumstances surrounding the evidence, I plead that as lenient a sentence as possible be meted out. He is a battle trained infantryman who has stated his willingness and desire to return to his unit at first possible opportunity. I again request that he be dealt with leniently.

Proceedings on Plea of Guilty.

* To be struck out in case no plea of "Not Guilty" has been proceeded with.

*[The Court having been reopened, the accused is again brought before it, and the charge to which he has pleaded Guilty read to him again.]

The accused Lieut A/Captain William Frederick DANIELS, is found guilty of the First, Second and Third Charges.

*The summary (or abstract) of evidence is read, marked "G" signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

Answer. The accused in mitigation of punishment says:—

[or hands in a written statement, which is read, marked, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

Gentlemen, you understand this situation. Something has occurred. There is nothing I can do or say that alters that fact, it has been, and is there. An explanation may clarify it to some extent.

On this night in question, the 8th and 9th of January I left the Office about 6 o'clock, proceeded to the Mess and on my arrival at the Mess I had 2 gins, and a beer before dinner. I went in to dinner, and immediately after dinner proceeded back to the office until 8:30 at which time I left and went to Aldershot and had several beers at the Public House there. I returned to the Mess around 9:30 or 10 o'clock and had other beers from that time until 11 o'clock. During that period I sent upstairs and put on my flannels and sport jacket. At 11:30 I decided to go down and visit some friends who lived at Scott-Moncrief Square. As I was going out the Hall I picked up my trench coat, put it on, and my scarf and brown khaki gloves. I proceeded to visit this place.

The people I go down to visit are friends of mine. I can prove that very easily. All the barrack blocks are similar to thousands of others in Aldershot, and in the blackout at night you cannot tell the difference between one door and the next. The people I know live on the second floor. You go in the entrance, up the stairs, then turn right and it is the first door on the left. Now I thought I was at the right door and started to knock, there are no bells. I increased my banging

Instruction.

† If there is no summary or abstract of evidence, sufficient evidence to enable the Court to determine the sentence, and to enable the confirming officer to know all the circumstances connected with the case, will be taken on a separate sheet in the same manner as on a plea of "Not Guilty."

If from the statement of the accused, or from the summary or abstract of evidence, or otherwise, it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of "Guilty," the Court shall alter the record, and enter a plea of "Not Guilty," and proceed with the trial accordingly.

and knocking because these flats are made so you go in the door to the living room, there is another door on the left hand side leading upstairs to the second floor, and the bedrooms have doors on the top floor, making three doors between the bottom door and the upstairs. If anyone is sleeping upstairs you have to make a lot of noise to be heard. I started knocking on this door and then this Mrs. MacKenzie eventually opened the door, whether she told me to run off in the meantime I cannot clearly state, but the moment I saw her I did the natural thing and I said I was sorry and that I had arrived at the wrong house.

This S/M from the APM Office started throwing a lot of questions, asking who I wanted to see. The statement says Mimi Jones. Well I ask you, the mere fact they used the name Jones is something I am sure I did not. I can prove I know people living there by the name of Adams and a person by the name of Mina.

The S/M was at the top of the stairs, I had on a Cdn Officers trench coat and I do not speak like an Englishman. In the Summary of Evidence the S/M admits that I stated I was a Canadian. If you were asked if you were a civilian or a soldier the logical reply is you are a soldier. I then proceeded without any trouble, I was not abusive to them, down to their Hq and immediately we got into this room there was a telephone and I asked if I could use it. They said no. The chap sat down at the table and said would I make a statement. I said no, I wanted to use the telephone and would make one after I got an officer. Prior to that they asked me for an identification card and I found it in my back pocket. I did not know if I had it as I always carry it in the inside upper pocket. When I made those rash statements down there I was behind the 8 ball to put it bluntly, I had one C.M. over here. This chap had everything right on me and I wanted to get to the phone so I could get things straightened out. It was a most difficult position, I tried to keep control of myself, I was quite ready to slug him. Every statement I made, was made while I was walking up and down the room, I was agitated, I was not trying to pull a quickie there, you can appreciate that.

I can prove I have friends there. I can prove that by 20 people. I was not abusive andfollowed the MP to the HQ. They admit I asked for a telephone repeatedly and I was denied. I asked for a pencil and paper so I could cover myself, it was no go.

You can imagine my disturbed state in that Provost Office. I had this one Court Martial behind me, and I tried, honestly I tried.

That is all.

in the case of

Lieutenant (Acting Captain) William Frederick DANIELS, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, on the strength of Headquarters, Canadian Reinforcement Units, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on Oath.

FIRST WITNESS: for the Prosecution:

3518699, CSM John COWIN, Corps of Military Police, 158 Headquarters Provost Coy, British Army, having been duly sworn, states:--

"I am 3518699, CSM John Cowin, Corps of Military Police, 158 H.Q. Provost Coy. On the morning of 9 January, 1945, at about 0020 hours, I was asleep in my married quarters, which is No 79 Scott-Moncrieff Square. I was awakened by hearing a woman screaming and loud bangs. I got out of bed and as I was about to open my Quarter door I heard someone kicking at a door and a man's voice saying, "Will you open the door, or do I have to bring the Guard?" I opened the door and saw a man dressed in plain clothes standing on the landing. He was wearing civilian clothes, blue suit with pin-stripe, no head-dress and a wide khaki woollen knitted scarf. I asked him who he was and what he wanted. He said he was a civilian. I then asked him to show me his identity card and he said he wasn't in the habit of carrying it. I asked him again why he was at the Married Quarters. He said, "You know these things." By this time Sergeant Smith, who lives below me in No. 77 opened his door and I called him to come upstairs. The door of No. 80 had by this time been opened by Mrs. McKenzie. I asked Mrs. McKenzie if she knew the man dressed in civilian clothes. She said, "No", that she had never seen him before he had knocked at her door a few minutes before and she had told him to go away. Sergeant Smith and I brought the civilian, as he was then as far as we knew, down to the Military Police Office at 158 H.Q. Provost Coy, Provost Road, Aldershot. On arrival at the Police Office I again asked the man for his identity. At first he refused to give any identity and I told him that he would be searched, whereupon he took a small wallet out of his hip trouser pocket and produced an identity card, issued by the Canadian Army Identification Bureau, in Ottawa, on 1 August, 1944. I ascertained that he was Captain William Frederick Daniels, R.C.A.S.C., and I now recognize him as the accused. I asked him for the location of his Unit. To this he replied, "If I don't give it to you, I suppose you will beat it out of me". I telephoned to the Duty Officer at R.C.A.S.C. Unit, Blenheim Barracks, Aldershot, and as a result of this telephone Lieutenant M. Basstien, R.C.A.S.C., came to the Police Office and took Captain Daniels away in arrest. During the time I was waiting for the escort to come along, Captain Daniels became very abusive, making such remarks as, "If you were a quarter of a man, I'd punch you on the fucking nose." "This is what we've traveled forty-four thousand miles for." "And you know what the Australians and Canadians think of you fellows."

No answer was made to any of these abusive remarks and I asked Captain Daniels please to keep quiet until the escort arrived."

END OF STATEMENT.

THE ACCUSED ELECTS TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS:

Q.1 Sergeant Major, when we arrived at your office, I asked permission to use the telephone. This was not permitted. Is this true?

A.1 Quite True, Sir.

Q.2 I asked if I may have a pencil or a pen. This was not permitted?

A.2 That is quite true, Sir.

Q.3 I didn't offer any physical resistance, did I?

A.3 Had resistance been offered, it would have been stated in the evidence, Sir.

Q.4 When I used abusive language, it was because I had been annoyed by being refused to be allowed to use the telephone, was it not?

A.4 That is difficult to say. I don't know why you used abusive language. We were careful not to answer back because it might cause provocation.

Q.5 Did the language complained of take place after I was refused the use of the telephone?

A.5 You requested to use the telephone quite five times, and it was really difficult to keep you quiet; and you used abusive language between the various requests to use the telephone.

SECOND WITNESS: For the PROSECUTION:

Mrs. Marion MacKENZIE, 80 Scott-Moncrieff Square, Aldershot, having been duly sworn, states:--

"I am Mrs. Marion Mackenzie, and am the wife of Private K. Mackenzie, Seaforth Highlanders, and I reside at 80 Scott-Moncrieff Square, Aldershot. On Monday, 8 January, 1945, at about midnight I had gone to bed. Shortly after midnight I was awakened by m y sister and I came downstairs. I heard knocking and banging at the door of my flat. I called, "Who do you want to see?". I was answered very rudely, "Never mind who I want to see. I just want Mimi Jones". I simply said, "Mimi Jones doesn't live here. Will you please go away." While the door was still being hammered I was answered, "I don't care who the hell lives here. I want to see Mimi Jones." The door was still being shaken and knocked, almost forced in. After repeatedly asking for whoever it was to go away, I didn't know what to do. I open my scullery window and called several times for the guard but got no reply. I shut my window and the door was still being hammered so I opened the window and shouted for the guard. I then heard that someone had come and heard voices outside my door and knowing someone was there, I opened my door to explain matters. I saw my neighbor's husband, who is a Sergeant Major in the Military Police. There was also another man there who was in civilian clothes. There was no light in the passage but my neighbor had a torch and I couldn't see very much. I might know him to see him again in civilian clothes. I recognize the accused as the man who was there. While I was talking to the Sergeant Major, Sergeant Smith came up from the flat below. I explained to the Sergeant Major and the Sergeant that my door had been banged and that I had been afraid to open it. The man in civilian clothes then apologized and stated that he had made a mistake and didn't intend coming to my Quarter. While he was still apologizing I went in and shut the door."

END OF STATEMENT:

THE ACCUSED ELECTS TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS:

Q.1 When you enter the building of your quarters you go up a flight of stairs to a landing, turn and go up another flight and the door of your flat is on the left-hand side on the next landing. Is that correct?

A.1 Yes.

Q.2 All the buildings there are the same, are they not?

A.2 They are all similar.

Q.3 They are built on the same style?

A.3 Yes, to the best of my knowledge.

END OF CROSS-EXAMINATION.

THIRD WITNESS: For The PROSECUTION:

2656174, Sergeant C.H.S. Smith, 158 Provost Coy, Corps of Military Police, British Army, who having been duly sworn, states:--

"I am 2656174, Sergeant Smith, C.H.S., 158 Provost Coy, Corps of Military Police. At Aldershot, on 8 January, 1945, at about 2355 hours, I was going to bed in my Married Quarter, No 77 Scott-Moncrieff Square, when I heard somebody fall up the stone stairs which lead to the Married Quarters above. I waited a few seconds and I heard the noise again.

I put on my trousers and slippers and went to the front door and into the passage-way, where I put on the electric light. On looking up the stairs I saw a man dressed in civilian clothes looking over the hand-rail. I recognize the accused as the man I saw. He asked me if everything, and came staggering down the stairs and asked me if Mimi Jones or Mrs. Adams was in. I informed him that no persons of that name lived in this block of quarters. He then asked me who lived in this block of quarters and I told him that the Sergeant Major lived on one side and Mrs. Mackenzie on the other. When I said, "Mrs. Mackenzie", he remarked, "That is the name". He then said goodnight to me and went upstairs, I into my quarters. At about 0010 hours, I heard the noise of a door being kicked. This noise grew worse. I got dressed and went out into the passage and went upstairs to the top quarters. On reaching the top of the stairs, I saw CSM Cowin, Mrs. Mackenzie and the civilian who I had already spoken to. Sergeant Major Cowin asked him what he wanted and if he was a civilian. He said he was, so the Sergeant Major asked him for his identity papers which he refused to show and said he hadn't got. Sergeant Major Cowin then told me to detain the civilian while he, Sergeant Major Cowin, got dressed. I then assisted Sergeant Major Cowin to escort the civilian down to the Military Police H.Q. On checking on this civilian's identity, which he produced in the office on being asked again, he was found to be Captain Daniels, R.C.A.S.C. Sergeant Major Cowin telephoned. During this Officer's stay in the Sergeant Major's office, he became very abusive to all, saying such remarks as, "This is what we come forty-four thousand miles for, to fight for you bastards", and, "You know what the Australians and the Canadians think of you", also, to Sergeant Major Cowin he said, "If you were a quarter of a man, I would punch your fucking nose". An Officer arrived and Captain Daniels left with him about 0215 hours, 9 January, 1945."

END OF STATEMENT:

THE ACCUSED ELECTS TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS:

Q.1 Sergeant, would you state whether you thought I had been drinking or not?

A.1 Yes, you certainly had been partaking in alcoholic liquor, Sir.

Q.2 When I produced my identification card, did I not state, I didn't think I had it with me, and then I found it in my xxxxxx back pocket?

A.2 That's right Sir. You got it from your back pocket.

Q.3 When we were on the landing in the Married Quarters did I not state that you could tell by my accent that I was a Canadian?

THE ACCUSED WAS CAUTIONED: "Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything, or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

THE ACCUSED ELECTED TO GIVE EVIDENCE UPON OATH:

"I am Captain William F. Daniels, RCASC, on strength Headquarters, Canadian Reinforcement Units. I accept full responsibility for my regrettable and unfortunate actions and statements during the night 8/9 January, 1945, which arose under the following circumstances: On the night in question I decided to make a night of it. I returned to the Mess from the Office, changed from battle dress to my grey flannels and light grey sport jacket, continued to wear my khaki shirt and tie. When I eventually decided to go out again, I picked up my Canadian Officer's trench coat, khaki woollen muffler and gloves, to proceed to visit friends living on Scott-Moncrieff Square. Due to my very befuddled state or condition from liquor and similarity of these flats, I commenced knocking and banging on the wrong door in a very noisy and loud manner. The moment I saw Mrs. Mackenzie I realized my error and acted accordingly. The statements made by me in the A.P.M.'s Office were wild and inaccurate, made generally when unable to use the telephone or acquire pen or pencil. I regret exceedingly my actions and inconvenience caused to all people concerned and do accept full responsibility and guilt of any charges laid against me."

PLEA IN MITIGATION

Gentlemen, I want to say something in the nature of a plea in mitigation of sentence.

When I was approached by this Officer to act in his defence I did so gladly, because I have known him some considerable time, and my inclinations are to be sympathetic to someone who has a good reputation. If I had known this Officer had a bad reputation I would not have been here. I think it is apparent to the Court that this Officer realizes the gravity of the situation. I have realized myself that he is in a most difficult situation. When I did agree to his request I had no idea whether it was advisable for him to plead Guilty or Not Guilty. When I saw that biased and prejudiced Summary of Evidence, and when I realized every witness appearing on that evidence was an English provost or English woman it was my firm conviction at all costs to keep these witnesses out and it lead me to conclude the best thing to do, which was his own inclination I might say, was to plead Guilty, well knowing the consequences. It is not for me to criticize the technicalities of the Summary. I know that there are some things said under oath that generosity could lead a person to exclude. They do not have to repeat verbatim, but could indicate something they have seen without repeating certain detrimental words.

I want you gentlemen to appreciate the situation he is in. He has pleaded Guilty. I want to also point out that I do not think we should come to the conclusion that because of 15 or 20 minutes that it is indicative of this Officer's reputation or character. I think it is a most difficult thing to judge a human being. You may judge him by his actions if you have only met him a short time, or if you only know him slightly, but nine times out of ten judgements of this sort are wrong.

This case is not indicative of his nature. I might say he was drunk, but I do not want to bring in the word drunkenness because of certain things which would be erroneous. Might I just take a minute or two to discuss the reactions of a few drinks on the accused. Might I say that I have known him as a fellow Officer in the Mess. I have seen him drunk once, some few months ago. I do not know how much he takes. I do not think he should drink. He knows it himself. It got him into trouble two years ago. Since then he has toed the mark. He knows his weakness, he knows the effect it has on him. For two years, with one exception of drinking very little, he has caused no trouble. It was remarkable how easily he did get drunk.

I want to reiterate, two years following a piece of bad luck he has rigidly toed the mark. For two years he has been employed as a staff officer at HQ CBU with a Branch of the Service which is under tremendous pressure. I have seen him come in at 10 O'clock after long hours of hard work. I do want to show the Court that there is nothing wrong with an officer who can carry on three years duty overseas to the utter satisfaction of his Superior Officers. Moreover, there is not only the strain of his work, but I want to make a suggestion - we are going into our sixth year of war, officers who have had to endure separation have had psychopathic results, some officers and men of strength of will and character may not get psychopathic results, but do get fits of depression. This Officer has had three years service over here. He has suffered as most of us suffer from the result of the strain of soldiering in this country.

I also want to bring to the Court's attention that this difficulty took place a few days after Christmas and New Years. They were not happy days by any means, I happen to have seen him over that period, they were not happy days. Everyone indulged in an effort to relieve their feelings, he did not touch a drop. He knew his weakness and moreover he was on duty. He has spent 15 hours a day under accumulative strain, the strain of his job, the strain of being away from home, and the depression of which he has suffered.

We come to this night - at 8:30 he has a drink when he goes to the Mess with the usual effects, and he has gone out and made a bit of an ass of himself, being foolish for 15 or 20 minutes. I venture to suggest that if the Canadian Provost Corps had said get on your way, it would have been the end of the matter.

I do not know as there is much more to say. I do not think you can look at him and say he is not a clean-cut lad. He is like any of the rest of us, doing a good job to the satisfaction of his superior officers, and because he wavers one might finds himself in the dreadful situation he is now in. Therefore I would most anxiously, and seriously, and earnestly, ask you to take into consideration the fact he has served here three years, a total service of four years, and I want you to consider the effect on the Cdn Army if they are to dispose of the services of a chap with a good record

I am certain that the Court has noticed that when this Officer spoke on his own behalf he was visibly moved. He is not a callous chap, who does not care, but on the contrary he is a chap who feels deeply, and is most heartily ashamed of finding himself misbehaving for 10 or 14 minutes while under the influence of liquor.

I seriously consider that the assets on the balance sheet far outweigh the things indicated in the Summary of Evidence.

I hereby waive my right to 7 days notice of the prosecuter having legal qualifications pursuant to RP 89(b).

Q.6. Question. *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

A.6. Answer. No sir.

The prosecutor makes no opening address [illegible], and the Prosecutor calls witnesses in the proceedings.

In the opinion of the Judge Advocate and the Court, it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B) The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. Capt W.A. Cummings, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy R.C.A.S.C.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q.7. Do you recognise the accused?
A.7. I do.
Q.8. What is his name?
A.8. Lieut Daniels, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy.
Q.9. Capt Cummings, where were you on the night of October the 24th?
A.9. Until about a quarter after ten, in the Officers' Mess.
Q.10. And after that?
A.10. After that I proceeded up the road possibly a hundred yards to a drill-hall at Walton-On-The-Hill, where a dance was being held.
Q.11. Did you see the accused there?
A.11. I did, about half an hour after I arrived.
Q.12. Will you tell the court under what circumstances you saw the accused at the Drill Hall?
A.12. I was dancing over by the far side of the hall from the door. When the music stopped, I was approached by one of the civilians and he spoke to me. As a result of what he said, I went over to the door and Lieut Daniels was in an argument with two or three soldiers and I asked him if he would step outside and talk it over, which he did.
Q.13. In your opinion was the accused sober or drunk?
A.13. In my opinion if anyone is not in control of themselves they are drunk. I would say he was not drunk.
Q.14. It is your opinion, that at that time, the accused was not drunk? Did you have occasion to see the accused after this alleged action took place? Did you see the accused again after this occurrence took place?
A.14. Yes. We - I tried to persuade the accused to go back to the mess and we had a little bit of an argument in the hallway of the Drill Hall and eventually I went outside into the street and suggested that he come outside and I tried to get him to come outside. Outside, we had a further argument.
Q.15. And then what happened?
A.15. After considerable argument, he was persuaded to go back to the mess. I believe two soldiers went back with him - two or three.
Q.16. What did you do?
A.16. I went back into the dance hall and Mr Andrews invited me into the kitchen where they were drinking beer.

Q.17. Did you see the accused again, after that?
A.17. Yes. About half an hour later he returned and came into the kitchen. There was a bit more of an argument, but not a great deal. He had two soldiers with him, the same two that seemed to be with him before, and he was persuaded to leave with them again and go back to the mess.
Q.18. Did you see him on any further occasions that night?
A.18. Yes. After the dance had ended, I waited around until most of the people had left the hall and then I walked down to the mess myself and he met me just as I went through the gate into the mess. He was waiting for me there and we had a slight argument.
Q.19. What do you mean by 'slight argument'?
A.19. The argument was just a slight one - what you might term a 'wrestling match' for about ten minutes.
Q.20. Then what?
A.20. As a result of what other officers had said and done, Daniels went upstairs to go to bed.
Q.21. He went upstairs to go to bed?
A.21. Yes. I went into the mess. After I told Capt Shaw what had happened from my point of view, we sat downstairs for a while and then I decided to go to bed. As I went up the stairs, I went round the corner about seven steps from the top and I saw Daniels at the top of the stairs. I went on up and started to go by and suddenly he kicked me in the face.
Q.21. Did he say anything?
A.21. No, he didn't say a word at that time and then he made a dive at me. I tried to get hold of him and push him in the corner. There was a bit of a scuffle before Capt Shaw and Capt Kitchen and I believe Mr Cooke intervened.
Q.22. At this time, was the accused drunk of sober?
A.22. He had been drinking but I wouldn't say that he was drunk.
Q.23. In your opinion, was he capable of carrying out his duties?

Judge Advocate: You mean 'capable' in what respect? Is it a question of training; or physical or mental condition due to drinking, or what?

The Prosecutor continues the examination of the witness.

Q.23. Do you think he had had sufficient drink as to be incapable of carrying out his duties? Was he so much under the influence of alcoholic stimulants as to be incapable of carrying out his duties?
A.23. No. I think in an emergency he would be capable of carrying out his duties if he had been ordered to do any.
Q.24. At any time during the evening, did you hear any bad language being used? By the accused?
A.24. I don't recall any, no.
Q.25. At any time during the evening?
A.25. No, I don't.
Q.26. You stated previously that the accused kicked you in the face?
A.26. Yes.
Q.27. Did you provoke him in any way?
A.27. He may have considered that I had provoked him, but at that time it was not.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.28. Prior to the time the civilian Mr Andrews called you and you came over to the accused, did you notice any particular commotion there?
A.28. No sir. There was a big crowd there, and the band was playing. I didn't notice any particular commotion at all.
Q.29. According to what you have just said, the accused didn't strike you at any time prior to the time of the argument which you had at the top of the stairs.
A.29. Yes, that is correct.
Q.30. Definitely correct?
A.30. Yes.
Q.31. You are positively sure that the accused was not drunk?
A.31. That is my own opinion of drunkenness.
Q.32. He was not, definitely, drunk and could have carried out his duties?
A.32. Yes. I think in an emergency, he would have been able to carry out

A.24. I don't recall any, no.
Q.25. At any time during the evening?
A.25. No, I don't.
Q.26. You stated previously that the accused kicked you in the face?
A.26. Yes.
Q.27. Did you provoke him in any way?
A.27. He may have considered that I had provoked him, but at that time it was not.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.28. Prior to the time the civilian Mr Andrews called you and you came over to the accused, did you notice any particular commotion there?
A.28. No sir. There was a big crowd there, and the band was playing. I didn't notice any particular commotion at all.
Q.29. According to what you have just said, the accused didn't strike you at any time prior to the time of the argument which you had at the top of the stairs.
A.29. Yes, that is correct.
Q.30. Definitely correct?
A.30. Yes.
Q.31. You are positively sure that the accused was not drunk?
A.31. That is my own opinion of drunkenness.
Q.32. He was not, definitely, drunk and could have carried out his duties?
A.32. Yes. I think in an emergency, he would have been able to carry out

COUNTER NUMBER 537639

HOUR 945

OPERATOR'S INITIALS E.R.

RELIEVING OPERATOR R.D.

his duties if ordered to do so.

Q.33. As regards using foul and abusive language. You are quite sure he didn't use any?

A.33. Well, he was in my presence and I didn't hear him.

Q.34. You are quite sure you didn't hear any in the kitchen?

A.34. Yes.

Q.35. Quite sure?

A.35. Yes.

Q.36. Roughly what time did the dance finish?

A.36. About 12 o'clock.

Q.37. You are quite sure it was about 12?

A.37. Yes.

Q.38. When you left the Drill Hall for the last time, it would be after 12 then?

A.38. Yes.

Q.39. You went towards the mess?

A.39. Yes.

Q.40. And you met Daniels on the lawn of the officers' mess?

A.40. Yes.

Q.41 Where you said a 'wrestling match' ensued?

A.41. Yes.

Q.42. Did the accused strike you in the course of that 'wrestling match'?

A.42. No sir.

Q.43. You are quite sure?

A.43. Yes. Quite sure.

Q.44. From there, you parted and came into the mess?

A.44. Yes.

Q.45. What time would that be - a rough guess - twenty minutes afterwards

A.45. It would be at least half past twelve. The dance closed at twelve.

Q.46. How long were you in the mess before you started to go upstairs?

A.46. Between half an hour and an hour.

Q.47. Approximately what time would the argument be on the stairs?

A.47. Approximately one-thirty.

Q.48. Approximately one-thirty?

A.48. Yes.

The witness is re-examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.49. You stated just now, when asked in your own opinion as to whether or not the accused was drunk, that he was not. You qualified your statement by saying that he would be capable of carrying out his duties if he were called upon 'in an emergency'. Now will you answer that question again, leaving out 'in an emergency'?

A.49. I don't think I am a competent witness to answer that except that I would say that he was capable of carrying out his normal duties, considering the hour and the time of day.

Q.50. In your opinion, he had been drinking?

A.50. Yes.

Q.51. What do you base your assumption on?

A.51. I base my assumption on the fact that I had had a drink with him.

Q.52. Is that the only thing you base your assumption on?

A.52. Well, he didn't seem quite as reasonable --

Q.53. In what way?

A.53. In listening to what I had to say to him and during the two or three arguments we had on several different occasions.

The witness is questioned by the court.

Q.54. To your personal knowledge, was the accused drinking in your mess before this dance?

A.54. Yes. Earlier in the evening.

Q.55. The same evening?

A.55. Yes.

Q.56. How many drinks did you see him have?

A.56. Two. I would say.

Q.57. Was drink available at the dance?

A.57. Only beer.

Q.58. Did you see the accused have any beer at the dance?

A.58. No, I didn't.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate.

Q.59. Now, Captain Cummings, you have given evidence that this officer was not drunk, that he had numerous arguments with you and that he kicked you in the face.

A.59. Yes sir.
Q.60. On what basis do you account for his kicking you in the face if he was not drunk?
A.60. I don't know sir. My opinion of drunkenness --
Q.61. Let us have your opinion.
A.61. One who is capable of controling his actions --
Q.62. What do you mean by that?
A.62. I consider that he was able to walk down a straight line. I can't say anything about a mental condition because I am not a phsyciatriet.
Q.63. Then this is purely a question of physical ability?
A.63. Yes sir.
Q.64. Your opinion has nothing to do with his mental condition as a result of liquor?
A.64. No sir.
Q.65. Then, according to your way of thinking, if a man can walk straight and control his arms, he is not drunk?
A.65. No sir.
Q.66. You take no account of his mental condition?
A.66. No, I wasn't taking that into account when I answered the question.
Q.67. Then, if this officer was not drunk? how do you account for his actions to which I have referred?
A.67. Sir, I don't know. I couldn't say.
Q.68. You couldn't eh?
A.68. No sir.

Second Witness for the Prosecution: Mr James Andrews, 12 Sandlands Road, Walton-On-The-Hill, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.69. Do you recognize the accused?
A.69. Yes.
Q.70. Will you point him out?
A.70. Yes(pointing out the accused) - there.
Q.71. Do you know his name?
Q.71. Only by what has been given me. Daniels. I didn't know him before yesterday.
Q.72. Where were you on the night of the 24th of October, 1942?
A.72. At the Dance Hall at Walton-On-The-Hill.
Q.73. Did you see the accused that evening?
A.73. Yes. He came into the hall about a quarter past eleven. I wouldn't be certain of that time as I haven't got a watch and there isn't a clock in the hall.
Q.74. Under what circumstances did you first see the accused?
A.74. I am pretty sure he was under the influence of drink.
Q.75. Was he drunk or was he sober?
A.75. I should say he was drunk sir.
Q.76. Have you any reason for making that statement?
A.76. He walked in the hall and put his coat and hat on the table that is used for taking tickets. He went into the dance hall where the people were dancing and he danced with my sister-in-law and she came back and as a result of what she told me, he was not fit to be in the dance hall.

Defending Officer: I object to that sir.

Judge Advocate: You must give evidence only of what you saw or what you said. Was the accused there when this conversation took place?

Witness: No sir. And then, the next dance was the "Palais Glide".

Judge Advocate: What is the "Palais Glide"?

Witness: It is a dance where three or two or four or more people dance abreast and one of the steps is a kick forward and a kick backward. There was four of your soldiers dancing in the hall. This was a bit unusual there are usually girls in the party and when the four soldiers came opposite Mr Daniels, he appeared to know one of them.

The Prosecutor continues with the examination of the Witness:

Q.77. Was Mr Daniels dancing?
A.77. He was commencing to dance with a young lady. He kicked one of the soldiers as he was coming along behind them. The soldier turned around and said "What did you kick me for?" I don't know if those are the exact words or not, but it was something to that effect. Then the officer said "I can do what I like" and he proceeded to push the soldiers out of the dance hall. His arms were under their chins. I thought there was going to be a bit of a bother as they appeared to dislike what he said and I thought I had better get another officer to go to him and see if he could stop it. I got another officer, I don't know his name, I have seen him in the Orderly Room just now and he called him "Bill".

Prosecuting Officer: Call Captain Cummings.

The first witness for the Prosecution, Capt W.A. Cummings is re-called.

Prosecuting Officer: While we are waiting for Capt Cummings I will ask a few more questions.

Q.78. During the first part of your statement you described this dance or one step of this dance as being a kick forward and a kick backward. Could this kick be done in the course of the dance, or was it deliberate?
A.78. I should say it was done in the course of the dance because different people have different ideas of a kick and I should not say - I really should not say it was done deliberately.
Q.79. Was the pushing done in the course of the dance?
A.79. I - Oh no! That was done to push these four soldiers off the dance floor.

Defending Officer: I object!

Q.80. Did you see the four soldiers being pushed off the floor?
A.80. Yes.
Prosecuting Officer: I think that takes care of your objection.

The witness continues:

These four soldiers circled around the officer, on three sides like this (demonstrating to the court) and then I thought there was going to be rather an ugly situation there.

Court: We are not interested in what you thought.

The first witness for the Prosecution is brought before the court.

Q.81. Is this the officer you were referring to?
A.81. Yes sir.
Q.82. Do you recognize him as the Captain you spoke to that night?
A.82. Yes sir.

The first witness for the Prosecution withdraws.

Q.83. When you approached Capt Cummings and spoke to him, what did he do?
A.83. I asked him if he would go and see if he could pacify him and he went and asked him if he would come off the dance floor into the lobby.
Q.84. You were present?
A.84. I was present.
Q.85. Did you hear any bad language?
A.85. Yes.
Q.86. Will you repeat what you heard?
A.86. He called him a "Dirty Bastard" and "If he didn't leave him alone he would kill him" and some other words - "f"-ing and what-not. They proceeded to the lobby and he said if he didn't leave him alone he would kill him. I was with them all the time the C[illegible] was trying to pacify him, telling him not to be silly. I am sure he did all he could do. He didn't want to go home, he just seemed to want to create a scene. He struck Captain Cummings with his hand and he kneed him in his privates and eventually wrestled with him and during this the Capt lost his glasses. He couldn't see and he was rather knocked about a bit. I recovered his glasses and tried to get him on his feet as there was six or eight other privates holding the Lieutenant away. There was a lot of talking and they agreed that these officers should go outside the hall and fight it out. We kept inside the hall. They proceeded outside on the tarmac and after two or three minutes we thought we had better go out. The Captain had the Lieutenant on the ground by his shoulders shaking him and the Lieutenant was trying to push him off with his hands and eventually they got up and eventually got the Lieutenant to go home. The Captain came in the hall with me and I saw that he was rather upset and there was nothing to drink in the way of refreshment so I asked him if he would like a bottle of beer which I had in my pocket. We went into the refreshment room. Nobody could get in only through the door and I opened the bottle of beer and gave it him. He half-drank this half-pint and the door opened and in walked the Lieutenant again. I said "Why don't you go home?" and he took no notice of me. He went straight up to the Captain and wrestled with him during which time a basket of crocks were knocked over. Then a couple of soldiers came in and a sergeant I hadn't noticed this sergeant before, and he went up to the Lieutenant and said "Why don't you go home?" and he walked out out then - well - just as if nothing had happened. Really the only point I would like to stress that I was interested in this case is because if the privates had struck an officer it would be much more serious and I was a witness to it and that is why I was interested in the case.

Q.87. Now, I want you to think very carefully before you answer this question. When Capt Cummings approached the accused, did he provoke him in any way?

A.87. No. He just got hold of his arms - gently like. He went to assist him into the hall. There was no roughness at all.

Q.88. Was he bullying or aggressive?

A.88. No. I am sure he used all the tact that he could to keep it a quiet'do'.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.89. Prior to the time that you saw the accused push the four soldiers, and prior to the time of the kicking, the accused was dancing?

A.89. He had half a dance. What I mean is that the lady left him before the dance had finished.

Q.90. When the following dance was this 'Palais Glide'?

A.90. Yes.

Q.91. And in that dance, you say there is kicking forward and backward?

A.91. Yes. Like this. (The witness demonstrates with the Defending Officer, the actions of the 'kicking step' of the dance)

Q.92. Whereabouts did the accused kick this private?

A.92. In the behind.

Q.93. Whereabouts did the kick land?

A.93. About here (Indicating the right hip)

Q.94. And there were quite a lot of people doing that dance?

Judge Advocate: Where he kicked the private would be on the right buttock, would it?

Witness: Yes sir. On the right hip.

Q.94. How far away from the accused were you at that time?

A.94. About ten feet.

Q.95. About ten feet?

A.95. Yes.

Q.96. And then you could see everything that went on?

A.96. Yes.

Q.97. You are quite sure as to where the kick landed?

A.97. Yes.

Q.98. It wouldn't have landed below the hip would it?

A.98. No.

Q.99. Now, why was it highly irregular for the four soldiers to be dancing together?

Prosecutor: I object. The witness did not say it was highly irregular for the four soldiers to be dancing together, he said it was a bit unusual.

Q.100. Why did you allow them to go on dancing together?
A.100. Well, they seemed to be enjoying themselves.

Judge Advocate: He didn't suggest that there was anything against it.

Witness: The M.C. never lets two men dance together. We try to get it all even like. It is our particular arrangement. The four soldiers were dancing together and they were having a good time and there was nothing against it really.

Q.101. I misunderstood you to say that it was highly irregular.
A.101. No. It is just a bit unusual, but there is nothing wrong with it.
Q.102. When the Prosecutor asked you if the kick was deliberate, I think I understood you to say that you are quite sure that it was not, that it was just accidental.
A.102. No I wouldn't say it was deliberate.
Q.103. It could have been just a result of this particular dance. Just an accident. There was quite a crowd there?
A.103. Yes it could have been.
Q.104. There is a kick forwards and then a kick backwards?
A.104. Yes, just like I showed you.
Q.105. Now, as regards the accused pushing the four soldiers, I understand he put his arms like this and he walked off the floor.
A.105. Yes. Pushing them like this in front of him. (Demonstrating to the court)
Q.106. And they were four privates?
A.106. Yes. Well, there might have been a corporal but I think they were privates.
Q.107. They were all men?
A.107. Yes. Four soldiers.
Q.108. And he pushed them offin this fashion?
A.108. Yes. When he walked naturally the four soldiers would go backwards, wouldn't they.
Q.109. And after the accused had kicked this private you said that he turned around and faced him?
A.109. Yes.
Q.110. Did you notice any aggressive action on the part of the privates?
A.110. No, I didn't.
Q.111. I would like to know if one of these privates turned round with his fist up in a threatening attitude?
A.111. No they didn't. They were just pushed off the floor like this (witness demonstrates) Q.112. They were facing you then, and the accused had his back to you?
A.112. No. I was standing there and the soldiers had their backs to me and the officer had his face to me.
Q.113. And you could see everything?
A.113. Yes. Oh yes.
Q.114. And then you went and got the Captain?
A.114. Yes.
Q.115. And he came over to the accused?
A.115. Yes
Q.116. Do you recall what he said to the accused?
A.116. "Why don't you go home?"
Q.117. And he replied that he didn't want to go home and the Captain got hold of his arms and walked with him out to the lobby?
A.117. He took him by the arm; and walked with him out to the lobby.
Q.118. How far away from them were you then?
A.118. I was just with Capt Cummings.
Q.119. Within a matter of two or three feet then?
A.119. Yes.
Q.120. And when you decided to go outside the hall, you found the accused on the ground and the Capt on top of him.
A.120. It was arranged by the soldiers that the two officers should go outside and fight it out and after they had been out there for a matter of two or three minutes we decided to go out and I saw the Lieutenant on the ground. The Capt had hold of him like this (demonstrating) and shaking him.

Q.121. And you didn't see anybody strike anybody?
A.121. No sir.
Q.122. Prior to that you said that you went from the dance hall into the little hall, where an argument ensued?
A.122. Yes.
Q.123. What happened there?
A.123. The Lieutenant struck the Captain.
Q.124. Did you actually see the Lieutenant strike the Captain?
A.124. Yes.
Q.125. He hit him?
A.125. Yes.
Q.126. Did you see the Captain strike the Lieutenant?
A.126. No sir. He was more sort of a smothering nature. His action was really to smother him and keep his hands from striking him.
Q.127. He sort of grabbed him?
A.127. Yes, that's right.
Q.128. At this time, when they started fighting, what happened? Who was knocked down?
A.128. The Captain was knocked down.
Q.129. Was the Lieutenant knocked down?
A.129. No.
Q.130. The Lieutenant was holding the Captain down?
A.130. Yes. The Lieutenant was holding the Captain down. I should say eight or more men, including rather a tall sergeant - he didn't take any action in the affair atall. They were sort of trying to pull the Lieutenant away from the Captain. Well, these eight men were trying to keep the Lieutenant from striking the Captain. The Captain had lost his glasses and he was practically helpless. He said "Mind my glasses" "Pick my glasses up somebody" I said to the Captain "Get up now" Then these soldiers helped him to get up and took hold of the Lieutenant and I told the Captain "It is all right". I helped him up.
Q.131. You are sure the Captain was on the floor?
A.131. Yes.
Q.132. And the Lieutenant was standing up?
A.132. Yes. The soldiers were holding the Lieutenant and the Captain was sitting on the floor. I told him I had his glasses and I helped him up.
Q.133. At the time of the argument in the kitchen, are you quite sure that the door was closed?
A.133. No. It couldn't have been closed because afterwards he walked in. So he must have known he was in there.
Q.134. And then the door was open?
A.134. It must have been open, yes.

The witness is questioned by the court.

Q.135. When the Captain first requested the Lieutenant to leave the dance floor, did you hear the accused using this fould language? I think you described it.
A.135. Yes.
Q.136. In the subsequent struggle, did you hear anybody using obscene language?
A.136. Only the Lieutenant sir.
Q.137. Will you tell us what he said?
A.137. He called him a 'Fucking Bastard' and a 'dirty bastard'. 'Bastard' was used quite a lot and 'Fucking' and Dirty Rotten and all that sort of thing. He told him if he didn't leave him alone he would kill him. He used the name of 'Bill' all the time.
Q.138. On how many occasions did you see the accused strike the Captain?
A.138. Five or six times sir.
Q.139. Deliberately five or six times?
A.139. Yes sir. Five or six times.
Q.140. Where did he strike the Captain?
A.140. In the lobby sir. The Captain was bending over and the Lieutenant was hitting him sir, from behind.

Q.141. Was the Captain on the floor looking for his glasses?
A.141. He had been pulled down. The soldiers were pulling the Lieutenant and the Lieutenant had hold of the Captain so of course as the soldiers pulled the Lieutenant, the Lieutenant pulled the Captain. I picked up his glasses and tried to help the Captain up after I had his glasses.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate:

Q.142. Did the Lieutenant at any time say anything to the Captain about his glasses?
A.142. Yes. In the lobby he asked the Captain to take off his glasses.
Q.143. Yes, but did he say anything further about them?
A.143. He said he would fight him without his glasses on in case he broke them. The Captain didn't want to fight at all and he didn't want to take off his glasses.

The court is adjourned for five minutes in order that an original statement by the witness might be obtained.

The court is re-opened.

Defending Officer: Mr Andrews, is this your writing, and is this your signature? (showing the witness the original statement)
A.144. Yes.
Q.145. I would like you to read it again and check it.
A.145. Yes sir.
Q.147. That letter is one that you wrote as a result of being asked to make a statement as to what happened?
A.146. Yes.

The original statement is tendered by the Defending Officer as an exhibit, and is marked "C" by the President.

Third Witness for the Prosecution: Capt D.C. Shaw, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecuting Officer:

Q.147. Do you recognize the accused?
A.147. I do.
Q.148. What is his name?
A.148. Lieut Daniels.
Q.149. Capt Shaw, on Saturday the 24th of October of this year, at approximately 2245 hours, where were you?
A.149. In the mess of 41 General Transport.
Q.150. Did you see the accused that evening?
A.150. Yes, I did.
Q.151. Will you tell the court in your own words the circumstances arising from your meeting the accused?
A.151. I was sitting in the mess when someone opened the door and put his head round the corner. I recognized Mr Daniels. He just looked in and went right out again. He didn't come in. I noticed he had a cut over his eye. I didn't think anything about it for a minute. And then I got up and followed him out. I realized what it was.
Q.152. What do you mean "You realized what it was?"
A.152. I realized that something was wrong so I went to find out what it was. I went outside into the grounds to see if there was anything going on. I walked up the path and heard the sound of scuffling at the side of the grass and I went over to see what it was and I found two officers, Lieutenant Daniels and Captain Cummings. They were not fighting then, they were locked together. I ordered Mr Daniels to get up which he did. When he recognized me I told him to go to bed. I then asked Captain Cummings what the trouble was.

Judge Advocate: Was Daniels there at that time?
Witness: He was a short distance away.
Judge Advocate: Could he hear what you said?
Witness: I wouldn't say sir.
Judge Advocate: Then you can't give that conversation.

The witness continues:

After Daniels had gone I told Capt Cummings to get along to bed as well. I figured that the morning would be the time to find out further about it. Capt Cummings was proceeding up the stairs to bed when Daniels came out of his room again and shouted at him "Come on and fight". I can't say whether those were his exact words I'm afraid.

Q.153. Did you hear any abusive words used?
A.153. Yes.
Q.154. Could you tell the court what you heard?
A.154. I can't tell you all but he yelled "Dirty Bastard" at him. Then I yelled at Daniels to go to bed. Before I could get up the stairs he had met Cummings and the two of them fell in the corner.
Q.155. Will you be more explicit?
A.155. I didn't see the first part of it because I was on the way up I just saw the second part of it.
Q.156. Did you see the accused strike Captain Cummings?
A.156. Yes, I did. And I saw Capt Cummings strike the accused.
Q.157. Who struck the first blow?
A.157. I would say definitely Daniels did. I once more separated them with the assistance of two other officers and I went with Daniels to put him in his room. He went quite quietly and then I went down stairs to see how Cummings was and went back upstairs to Daniels room. I stayed with Daniels for some time after that in an endeavour to quieten him and find out what it was all about.
Q.158. In your opinion, was Daniels drunk?
A.158. I would say he was drunk in the usual method of deciding in the army whether or not a man is drunk. He didn't appear to be drunk at first, it was only after I went to his room and got him quietened down and in bed. He was incoherent in his speech and there was a strong smell of liquor and his words were not connected in any way. He would talk of one thing and then another, shifting from one thing to another. It is hard to say just what he said for the simple reason that when I had got him quietened down, he went to sleep and I left his room.
Q.159. Did Capt Cummings appear to be drunk?
A.159. Not before the fight started.
Q.160. After the fight?
A.160. He had two or three drinks after the incident was over but that had nothing to do with the case.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.161. Capt Shaw, do you remember at what time in the evening did you assume that the accused was drunk?
A.161. After the two incidents when I had got him back to his room in bed again.
Q.162. You were definitely of the opinion that the accused was not drunk prior to the time that he was in his bed?
A.162. I didn't think of it because he didn't appear to be drunk at the time I spoke to him on the grass. He obeyed my command to go to bed. I didn't take the time to find out if anybody was drunk at that time. It was only in his room when I had a chance to talk to him that I thought he was drunk.
Q.163. From the time of the incident on the lawn to the time that he was in his bed, how long would that be?
A.163. About fifteen or twenty minutes. I was talking to Capt Cummings for a while.
Q.164. Mr Daniels had a cut over his eye?
A.164. Yes.
Q.165. You have no idea how he got that cut, have you?
A.165. No sir.
Q.166. That was before this business on the lawn?
A.166. Yes.
Q.167. Were there any blows on the lawn?
A.167. None that I saw. They were both locked together.
Q.168. What time did you come into the mess [illegible]?
A.168. About eleven o'clock or eleven-fifteen.
Q.169. How long were you in the mess before the accused came in?
A.169. About fifteen minutes.

Q.170. It would be roughly eleven-thirty then?
A.170. Yes. It might have been fifteen minutes later or before.
Q.171. There were about twenty minutes then, intervening between the argument on the lawn and the argument on the stairs?
A.171. Approximately, yes. It is very hard to judge because of the excitement and people were asking questions and nobody worried about time.
Q.172. Did Capt Cummings tell you there was a dance?
A.172. Only after the incidents yes.
Q.173. To the best of your knowledge what time was the argument on the stairs?
A.173. Roughly about a quarter to twelve I should think.
Q.174. This is your signature signed to your statement taken at the time of the Summary of Evidence?
A.174. Yes.
Q.175. And you signed this statement as being correct?
A.175. Yes.
Q.176. I would like to point out to you that in this statement you said "Approximately 2340 hours, I returned to the mess"
A.176. Well, it might have been any time actually, I can check that definitely if you wish for time because I got off the train at BECHWORTH Station and it generally gets in at ten to eleven. It might have been anywhere between that time and twelve o'clock. I came straight up to the mess.
Q.177. This argument on the stairs might have been after twelve o'clock then?
A.177. It might have been, yes. I have nothing to judge the time from except that I came straight up from the station.
Q.178. It might have taken place any time then, after twelve o'clock?

Judge Advocate: Are you trying to establish that the assault took place on a different date? I invite your attention to Rule of Procedure 44(D) footnote 6.

Q.189. On what did you base your observations?
A.189. On his actions.
Q.190. Will you describe his actions?
A.190. Well he was very happy, a trifle hilarious but behaving in a respectable manner - nothing untoward, but I believe in my own mind that he had something to drink.

Q.191. Did you see him take anything to drink?
A.191. No sir.
Q.192. Then your remarks are based solely on his conduct?
A.192. Yes sir.

Judge Advocate: Was the accused there at that time?
Witness: I couldn't say, sir, I didn't see him?
Judge Advocate: Then it isn't evidence.
Prosecutor: It may be established by some other witness.

Q.209. In the Dance Hall, did you see any struggle between the accused and Capt Cummings?
A.209. No sir.
Q.210. And you saw no struggle outside the Dance Hall?
A.210. No sir. Mr Daniels left the Dance Hall to the best of my knowledge, at least I didn't see him any more from that time until I saw him in the mess. As far as I am concerned he had left. The next time I saw him was in the mess, in the an te-room.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate.

Q.211. This dance, how many people were there?

A.211. It was fairly crowded. I would say there were over 200 there.
Q.212. A great many civilians, I suppose?
A.212. It was a civilian dance. There were quite a few.

A.219. Yes, I was with him.
Q.220. You were drinking with him?
A.220. Yes.

Judge Advocate: This is your witness. You had better not cross-examine him.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.221. Did you see the accused come into the ante-room of the mess?
A.221. Yes.
Q.222. In what condition was he? Was there blood on his face?
A.222. Yes.
Q.223. And over his uniform?
A.223. I didn't notice any on his uniform.
Q.224. But there was blood on his face?
A.224. Yes sir.

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution: Capt G.S. Kitchin, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

The Prosecutor declines to examine this witness.

Q.225. You were in the mess at the time of the incident on the stairs?
A.225. That is correct.

Judge Advocate: Get him on at least the night. This officer is not even in the picture as yet.

Defending Officer: I was just trying to short-cut it.

Q.231. Was he punching Lieut Daniels?

Q.234. On the 24th of October, 1942, where were you?
A.234. I was in the Mess of 41 Cdn Gen Tpt.
Q.235. Did you see the accused?
A.235. I did.
Q.236. Will you tell the court in your own words under what circumstances you saw him?
A.236. The accused came in and he was feeling rather happy. That's about the only thing I can say. He was just a little over-exuberant.
Q.237. Was he drunk or sober?
A.237. I couldn't say.
Q.238. You couldn't say?
A.238. No, I couldn't say. I want to be fair. I imagine he had a few drinks. He was sent upstairs to his room, which he did.
Q.239. Why?
A.239. Captain Shaw told him to go upstairs and go to bed.
Q.240. Why was he told to go to bed?

Judge Advocate: He wouldn't know what was in Captain Shaw's mind.

Witness: No, I had no knowledge of what had happened. I went out in the hall a little later and I heard a scuffle upstairs and Captain Cummings came in and started to go upstairs to his room.
Q.241. Was this previous to your hearing the noise?
A.241. Yes, previous. Mr Daniels went upstairs and Captain Cummings came in and started to go upstairs to his room. I was in the hall-way and I heard the commotion. It was just an argument going on upstairs. Captain Shaw and I went upstairs and pacified them and that is all there was to it.
Q.242. Of what nature was this argument?
A.242. Loud talking and things of that nature.
Q.243. Any abusive language?
A.243. Yes.
Q.244. Who by?
A.244. They were out of sight at the time the talking took place and I didn't see who said what.
Q.245. What did you see with reference to the scuffle?
A.245. Oh a certain amount of pushing around.
Q.246. Who started it?
A.246. I couldn't say. It started before I got to the stairs - Captain Shaw and I.

Judge Advocate: You may not cross-examine this witness unless you want to ask the court to declare him a hostile witness.

Q.247. Will you go through that very carefully again?
A.247. Captain Shaw and I were in the hall. We went to the foot of the stairs to see what it was about and we saw Mr Daniels at least I saw Mr Daniels about two or three steps down from the top. Captain Cummings was below him and they were talking in rather loud voices and it developed into a scuffle. Both of them fell into the corner of the stairs and when that took place Captain Shaw and I went upstairs and separated them.
Q.248. Who was the aggressor in this case?
A.248. I would say Mr Daniels was.
Q.249. In your opinion was the accused drunk or sober?
A.249. I couldn't say.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.250. Prior to the incident in the mess, you - no prior to the incident on the stairs, you were in the mess?
A.250. Yes.

Q.251. Did Mr Daniels come in?
A.251. He came in twice during the evening while I was there.
Q.252. Did you notice anything unusual about his appearance, the second time he came in?
A.252. He was dressed different the second time he came in. He didn't really come in, he just stuck his head round the door and then went right out again.
Q.253. Did he have a cut over his eye, the second time he came in?
A.253. I believe he did.
Q.254. You are quite sure about that?
A.254. Yes.
Q.255. When Captain Cummings was going up the stairs, did Mr Daniels put his hand out to stop him?
A.255. I didn't see the start of this thing, I only saw the finish of it. The scuffle started before Captain Shaw and I got to the foot of the stairs. It was more or less working up to that point.
Q.256. On what basis do you say that Mr Daniels was the aggressor?
A.256. When we got to the foot of the stairs Captain Cummings was standing below Mr Daniels. He was about two steps above Captain Cummings and Daniels reached forward and pushed him. That is the start of the aggression, in my opinion.
Q.257. Did Captain Cummings strike Mr Daniels - in all fairness?
A.257. I don't believe he started it.
Q.258. Did he strike the accused?
A.258. I don't believe so. Captain Cummings didn't start the aggression.

Court: We don't know or care who you are covering up, but you must answer the questions properly.

The witness continues.

The altercations started when I was in the hall. Captain Shaw and I went to the foot of the stairs. I saw Mr Daniels about three steps from the top, facing Captain Cummings, who was going upstairs to his room. They were talking loudly and the next thing I saw was Mr Daniels pushed Captain Cummings and Captain Cummings lost his balance and he swung round and grabbed him by the legs as far as I could see and there was a certain amount of scuffling and then they both fell into the corner. By that time Captain Shaw and myself got there and I grabbed hold of Captain Cummings. Then Mr Daniels and Captain Shaw went to Mr Daniel's room and Captain Cummings and I came back downstairs to the mess.

Q.259. Did you later in the evening see Mr Daniels?
A.259. I went upstairs to ask Captain Shaw if there was anything that I could do.
Q.260. What condition was Mr Daniels in then?
A.260. He was kind of sobbing. I didn't speak to him at all.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate.

Q.261. Why did you ask if there was anything that you could do? What more could you do?
A.261. I was just trying to help out.
Q.262. You assumed this man was sober, so why should there be any reason for helping in any way?
A.262. I have been with the police for quite a number of years and I naturally took an interest. And I wanted to know if there was anything I could do to help out.
Q.263. What police were you with?
A.263. Mounted Police.
Q.264. How many years?
A.264. Six years sir.
Q.265. Do you expect to go back?
A.265. No sir, I don't. I have been out of them now for quite a few years.

Eighth Witness for the Prosecution: H87365 Pte Thompson, C.T., 41 Can Gen Tpt Coy R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.266. Do you know Lieutenant Daniels?
A.266. Yes sir.
Q.267. Point him out?
A.267. Right there sir. (Indicating the accused)
Q.268. On the night of the 24th of October, did you see Lieutenant Daniels?
A.268. Yes sir
Q.269. Where?
A.269. At the dance sir.
Q.270. Under what circumstances did you see him?
A.270. When I first noticed him was when I was kicked.
Q.271. By whom were you kicked? Where were you kicked?
A.271. On the right hip sir.
Q.272. What did you do after you had been kicked?
A.272. I swung round and raised my fist sir. I immediately asked him why he kicked me.
Q.273. What did he say to you?
A.273. He said "Don't try to push me around"
Q.274. And then?
A.274. He pushed me slightly back and then he saw Private Packenham.
Q.275. You say he kicked you and then you turned round with your fist up. Then what?
A.275. I saw it was one of our officers so I lowered my fist and asked him why he had kicked me.
Q.276. And then he pushed you?
A.276. He didn't really push me sir, he just put his hand up. And when he saw Private Hawkes, he put his hands on him.
Q.277. What - where did he put his hands on you and on Hawkes?
A.277. Right here sir. (Indicating) Just pushed me like that.
Q.278. And then what happened?
A.278. Then Hawkes says "Take your hands off me or I'll hit you" And then Captain Cummings took him off to the lobby, and then the scrap started.
Q.279. Were you present then, at this scrap?
A.279. Yes sir.
Q.280. Will you tell in your own words what happened at the scrap?
A.280. Well, as soon as they went out into the lobby, Hawkes, myself and Lee went out also and they started an argument about -- Q.281. Who do you mean, 'they'?
A.281. Captain Cummings and Lieutenant Daniels. They started to fight.
Q.282. Who was the aggressor?
.282. What do you mean sir?
Q.283. Who started it?
A.283. Lieutenant Daniels sir. And it was getting pretty rough so Lee took hold of Mr Daniels and I took hold of Captain Cummings. We all fell on the floor and I let Captain Cummings up and he told Lee to release Mr Daniels. There was some more arguing and I went back into the dance hall and that is all I saw.
Q.284. Was Mr Daniels drunk or sober?
A.284. He was drunk sir.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.285. You said Mr Daniels was drunk?
A.285. Yes sir.
Q.286. On what do you base your opinion. Why do you say he was drunk?
A.286. By his actions sir.
Q.287. By his actions?
A.287. Yes sir.

Judge Advocate: That is the first straight answer we have had on that question this morning. That doesn't mean that you may not pursue that. It is very refreshing to know that there is somebody in this unit that knows when a man is drunk.

The Defending Officer continues with the cross-examination.

A.288. In the dance --

Judge Advocate: Mr Defending Officer don't think I was getting you off. If you want to go into the question of 'actions', you do that.

The Defending Officer continues with the cross-examination.

Q.289. The dance was the 'Palais Glide'?
A.289. Yes sir.
Q.290. And you were kicked during that dance?
A.290. Yes sir, that's right.
Q.291. Did you see Mr Daniels before you turned round?
A.291. No sir. I never noticed him.
Q.292. He could have been dancing then?
A.292. Yes sir. He could have been dancing.
Q.293. You don't know whether the kick was deliberate or not do You?
A.293. It could have been the dance, I guess.
Q.294. You are quite sure you turned round when you were kicked, with your fist cocked?
A.294. That's right sir.
Q.295. When Mr Daniels was pushing you off the floor, did he have his hands folded like that? (demonstrating the manner in which the actions were described by the witness Andrews)
A.295. No sir.
Q.296. His elbows were not up like this?
A.296. No sir. He didn't try to push me off sir, he just pushed me aside.
Q.297. Did you see him push any other privates like this?
A.297. No. He just pushed us aside.
Q.298. Returning to this business of Mr Daniels being drunk. Your assumption was that he was drunk?

Judge Advocate: He didn't say that it was an assumption.

The Defending Officer continues.

Q.299. Would you mind explaining why would you say that he was drunk?
A.299. By the way he talked and walked and what he was doing. If he hadn't been drunk, he wouldn't have walked up to me and kicked me on the dance floor.
Q.300. You are quite sure it was a deliberate kick?
A.300. No sir. I'm not sure it was, no.

The witness is questioned by the court.

Q.301. When this argument occurred, did you hear any bad language?
A.301. No sir.
Q.302. Did you see the accused strike anybody?
A.302. No sir.
Q.303. In the struggle outside?
A.303. No sir. I never seen him strike anybody but I seen him take a crack at Captain Cummings, but he didn't hit him.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate.

Q.304. I understand that in this particular dance there is a certain amount of kicking. Now, when you got a kick in the pants, would you say that was a part of the dance or was it a deliberate kick?
A.304. I didn't think it was sir because it was a hard kick for part of the dance.
Q.305. Where did it hit you?

Ninth Witness for the Prosecution: C32423, L/Cpl Lee, 41 Con Gen Tpt Coy R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.306. Do you know Mr Daniels?
A.306. I do sir.
Q.307. Can you point him out?
A.307. Yes sir. There. (Indicating the accused)
Q.308. On the night of the 24th of October where were you?
A.308. I was present at a dance at the Drill Hall sir.
Q.309. Did you see Mr Daniels there?

A24

A.309. I did sir.
Q.310. Under what circumstances? Will you tell the court in your own words?
A.310. Just a normal position sir.
Q.311. I didn't say 'position', I said circumstances.
A.311. Just normal sir.
Q.312. You say you saw Mr Daniels?
A.312. Yes sir.
Q.313. What was he doing? Tell us about what he was doing.
A.313. Well, during the night, I can't just recall the time, but it was between ten and eleven to my estimation, there was an argument took place between Mr Daniels, and four privates.
Q.314. What did you see Mr Daniels do?
A.314. I saw him standing in front of them and then I noticed the lady friend that Mr Daniels was dancing with leave him and then he kicked Private Thompson.
Q.315. When you saw Mr Daniels kick Private Thompson, was he dancing?
A.315. Yes sir.
Q.316. Who with?
A.316. Some girl.
Q.317. You just said that the girl left him?
A.317. Well, at the time that he kicked Thompson, he was alone.
Q.318. He was alone at that time?
A.318. Yes sir, he was alone at that moment.
Q.319. And then what happened?
A.319. Private Thompson naturally turned around to see who it was and he had his fist raised but when he saw who it was, he put his fist down and told the officer to watch what he was doing.
Q.320. Those are the words that were used?
A.320. Yes sir.
Q.321. And a few moments later Captain Cummings appeared on the scene?
A.321. Yes sir. He asked Mr Daniels to come outside. There was an argument, I don't recall the words, but just that Captain Cummings asked him to come outside. After they went out, I went out too.
Q.322. Did you follow them out?
A.322. Not just right after. It was a few seconds later sir.
Q.323. What did you see when you went out?
A.323. Well sir, it was confusion and there was a tustle and Private Thompson and I stepped in and tried to separate them. I took hold of Mr Daniels who started it. At least that is what I thought. It had already started when I got out there.
Q.324. It was already started when you got there?
A.324. Yes sir, it was all confusion.
Q.325. Then what?
A.325. We parted them and somewhere in the struggle somebody tripped and fell on the floor and Private Thompson immediately released Captain Cummings and he got to his feet and he told me to release Mr Daniels and then they proceeded outside and there was another argument and another chap and I went out shortly after and there was another confusion and argument which led into a slight bit of a tustle and Private Packebusch appeared on the scene. He said --

Judge Advocate: Was Mr Daniels there then? Could he hear this conversation?

Witness: I couldn't say sir.

Judge Advocate: Then it is not admissable in evidence.

The Prosecutor continues with the examination.

Q.326. In your opinion, was Mr Daniels drunk or sober?
A.326. I couldn't say sir. He seemed quite normal to me sir.
Q.327. And now about this pushing episode. Who pushed who?
A.327. As close as I could see sir, Mr Daniels walked among these four privates and pushed them back with his arm.
Q.328. Did he say anything?
A.328. Not that I could hear sir.
Q.329. Did you hear any bad language from anybody any time during the evening at the dance?
A.329. I heard swearing sir, but who it was I couldn't say.
Q.330. Can you remember the words you heard?
A.330. No I can't sir.

Q.331. Was it foul language?
A.331. Yes sir, it was.
Q.332. And you don't know who it was that said it?
A.332. No sir, I don't.

The witness is cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.333. While Mr Daniels was in your hearing, did you hear him swearing?
A.333. No, not that I heard sir.
Q.334. You said that you did see Private Thompson turn around with his fist raised?
A.334. Yes sir.
Q.335. So you were apparently in a position where you could see the four privates?
A.335. Yes sir.
Q.336. Did you see Mr Daniels dancing on the floor at the same time as you saw the privates?
A.336. Yes sir. I just happened to look up sir and saw him.
Q.337. They were all on the floor?
A.337. Yes sir, facing me.
Q.338. At the time of the kicking, the time Thompson received the kick, was Mr Daniels in the area of the floor on which they were dancing. Was Mr Daniels on the dance floor or was he along the side where the other people were standing?
A.338. He was where they were dancing, in the floor, inside the crowd.
Q.339. He was dancing then?
A.339. Yes sir.
Q.340. You are quite sure that Mr Daniels was dancing?
A.340. Yes sir. Well, I couldn't say that he was actually dancing, but he wasn't standing along the side where the crowd was watching the dancing.
Q.341. In this particular dance, they do a kick forward and a kick backward, is that right?
A.341. Yes sir, they do.

The witness is questioned by the Judge Advocate.

Q.342. Did you meet Mr Daniels afterwards and have a conversation with him in the doorway?
A.342. I did.
Q.343. What did you say to him?
A.343. I said to him "Why go back in?"
Q.344. Why did you say that to him?
A.344. Well, I had witnessed these arguments before sir and just naturally I didn't care to see any more.

At 1220 hours, the court is adjourned.

At 1345, the court as above, re-assembles.

The First Witness for the Prosecution, Capt W.A. Cummings, is recalled and questioned by the Judge Advocate.

Q.345. You are still under oath, Captain Cummings. The Court wishes to clear up certain parts of your evidence. The recollection of the court is first of all, that you stated that the accused was not drunk and you gave your reasons, and secondly that there were no blows struck prior to the time that you met in the mess afterwards. Is that right?
A.345. Yes sir.
Q.346. And I think you said that there was no bad language used? Is that your evidence?
A.346. Yes sir. I don't recall any sir.
Q.347. And I am not sure what you said about the pushing.
A.347. I didn't see him sir.
Q.348. What was your reason for taking him off the dance floor?
A.348. Others were trying to do the same thing sir.
Q.349. He was then doing what?
A.349. He was acting as though he didn't wish to go and there was an argument between he and some soldiers. It was fairly obvious to me that what the civilian had told me was right.
Q.350. It is right then, that you thought that he should not be on the dance floor because of that?
A.350. He was arguing with these soldiers and was quarrelsome sir.

Q.351. Very definite evidence has been given that the term 'bastard' was used against you?
A.351. I don't recall it sir.
Q.352. That is the best you can say about that?
A.352. Yes sir.
Q.353. After, you were wrestling outside with him?
A.353. You might put it that way sir. I was holding his arms and trying to get him to go back to the mess.
Q.354. And this other affair on the lawn at the officers' mess, what was that a result of?
A.354. The previous difficulties sir.
Q.355. And I suppose those difficulties arose out of the fact that you tried to get him to leave the dance hall?
A.355. Yes sir.
Q.356. After you left that dance hall, there was a soldier holding you, and a soldier holding him, is that right?
A.356. No sir.
Q.357. Nobody stepped between you?
A.357. No sir. I don't recall that sir. I don't see why they should.
Q.358. In the ante-room at the dance hall, or in any other room - the vestibule, you don't remember any fracas there?
A.358. No sir.
Q.359. Let's get this clear. You went to the dance hall and got him to leave.
A.359. We just went outside the door where an argument ensued.
Q.360. An argument ensued?
A.360. Yes sir.
Q.361. Did it end in blows?
A.361. No sir.
Q.362. Did it end in anybody holding anybody else?
A.362. Yes sir, I held his arms.
Q.363. Why?
A.363. It seemed to me that he might try to hit me then and I tried to persuade him to go back to the mess.
Q.364. You held his arms. Were there any private soldiers there?
A.364. Yes sir.
Q.365. What were they doing?
A.365. As far as I remember they were just standing there.
Q.366. Did you fall on the floor?
A.366. I believe we fell on the floor.
Q.367. Did you loose your glasses?
A.367. No sir.
Q.368. Not prior to that, in the dance hall?
A.368. No sir.
Q.369. When you got to the garden of the mess, where did you meet him? Did you come home with him from the dance?
A.369. No sir. He went home and returned and came into the kitchen. I was in the kitchen. Mr Andrews had asked me to come in and have a bottle of beer.
Q.370. What happened there?
A.370. Just a slight argument there sir.
Q.371. No blows?
A.371. No sir.
Q.372. Did he take hold of you?
A.372. No sir.
Q.373. Did you take hold of him?
A.373. No sir.
Q.374. After that what happened?
A.374. He left accompanied by two soldiers.
Q.375. Which two soldiers?
A.375. I'm not sure, I believe Private Packebusch was one.
Q.376. Why did they go with him?
A.376. They followed him into the kitchen. They tried to persuade him not to cause any trouble.
Q.377. And he went back and you followed later?
A.377. After the dance, yes sir.
Q.378. How much later?
A.378. About half an hour.
Q.379. Was there any blood on his face or had it been marked in any way?
A.379. I don't remember.
Q.380. Did you see any blood on his face?
A.380. Later on.

Q.381. Did you mark him?
A.381. Sir, later on there were marks on his face. I guess I did it.
Q.382. Where did you see him next?
A.382. I saw him in the garden of the mess.
Q.383. What happened?
A.383. He was standing on the grass beside the gate.
Q.384. What did he say?
A.384. He obviously wanted to fight with me.
Q.385. Did he strike you?
A.385. He tried to sir.
Q.386. You wrestled with him?
A.386. Yes sir.
Q.387. You were both on the grass?
A.387. Yes sir.
Q.388. And two officers came out?
A.388. Yes sir. Captain Shaw was one of them.
Q.389. Did you see Andrews that night at the dance hall? He was the man that complained, was he?
A.389. Yes sir.
Q.390. He has nothing against Mr Daniels?
A.390. No sir. I don't think he ever saw him before. He didn't know him by name.
Q.391. Were you sober?
A.391. Yes sir. I had three drinks about seven-thirty. Nothing between nine and ten-thirty.
Q.392. You had three drinks prior to nine o'clock?
A.392. Yes sir.
Q.393. What were those drinks?
A.393. Gin, Lime and soda-water.
Q.394. And about ten-thirty you went to the dance?
A.394. Yes sir.
Q.395. And when you got to the dance, did you dance right away, or what did you do?
A.395. I saw a young lady I know and was dancing with her when the complaint was made to me.
Q.396. Were you at any time aggressive with him?
A.396. I don't think so sir.
Q.397. Did you initiate any trouble on these four separate occasions?
A.397. Not other than that I was trying to make him come out of the dance and keep out of trouble.
Q.398. Do you remember Andrews returning you your glasses?
A.398. No sir. But I believe I took them offin the kitchen. I had been outside and when I came in they got fogged over and I couldn't see so I took them off and laid them on the counter.
Q.399. How well do you know Andrews?
A.399. That was the first time I had seen him sir.
Q.400. That was the first time you had seen him?
A.400. Yes sir.

Judge Advocate: Mr Daniels, you need not give evidence on oath unless you wish to do so. But if you do give evidence on oath, you are liable to be cross-examined by the Prosecutor or questioned by the Court. I must warn you that evidence given on oath will carry more weight with the court than a statement not given on oath. You are now placed upon your defence.

Q.401. Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A.401. No sir.
Q.402. Do you intend to call any other witnesses in your defence?
A.402. No sir.
Q.403. Have you anything to say in your defence not upon oath?
A.403. No sir.
Q.404. Do you wish to call any witnesses as to character?
A.404. No sir.

The Prosecutor makes the following closing address.

I am going to run through the facts as submitted by the evidence of the Prosecution. I am going to take each charge separately. First, the charge of 'Drunkenness' under Army Act Section 19. The evidence that has been produced, first by Captain Shaw was to the effect that the accused was drunk. Mr Andrews stated that the accused was drunk. This was corroborated by one of the other witnesses, that the accused was drunk in a public place. - the Dance Hall. There were several officers who say that the accused was served in the mess previous to the dance, with drinks. They also state that he was not served in the mess after eleven o'clock that night with any alcoholic refreshment. If Captain Shaw thought that this accused was drunk at a later time than that charged, it was due to previous indulgence in alcoholic stimulants, before twelve o'clock. I submit sir, that the accused was drunk at eleven o'clock and was still drunk at twelve o'clock.

As for the second charge, that is that he "Did kick privates Thompson and Hawkes, the witness Andrews says that he saw the accused kick Private Thompson. He stated that he could not say definitely whether or not the kick that he saw delivered was a deliberate kick, or whether it was done in the course of the particular dance that was in progress, but he further states that he saw the accused deliberately and maliciously push the privates. He himself heard the accused call Captain Cummings a 'dirty bastard' and also make the statement that he would kill him. Captain Shaw also heard 'dirty bastard'. When Lee was in front of you, he made the statement that the accused had been dancing with a girl and just prior to this occurrence, he had stopped dancing and that in his mind, the kick was deliberate. If we trace further the actions of the accused after the xxxx kicking - if this kick were accidental and done during the course of the dance, the logical thing to do would be to apologize to the one kicked. But instead of doing that, he xxxxxxx began to throw his weight around and pushed the four privates off the dance floor.

As for the third charge, that of striking a superior officer, Captain Cummings himself has told you that he was struck. Lieutenant Cooke after much persuasion, admitted to the court, that the accused as the aggressor. Captain Shaw also gave similar evidence that he saw the accused strike Captain Cummings.

In view of the charges, I submitthat the accused will be found Guilty on all three charges.

The Defending Officer makes the following closing address.

The Prosecution have made a great deal of use of the evidence of Mr Andrews. I would like to refer the court to exhibit 'C'. You will note that in Para 4 -- Mr Andrews was asked to make this statement as he had given his name to Captain Cummings of his own accord. In this statement, Mr Andrews stated that Mr Daniels, the accused had kicked the private in the shin. Today he seems quite sure that the private was kicked in the right buttock, which apparently was the case. Then the private turned around with his fist cocked at the accused. Mr Andrews says that the private didn't raise his fist. Private Thompson, the private in questionsays himself that he did raise his fist and when he saw that it was an officer of his own unit, he lowered it. He also says that when the accused was allegedly pushing the four privates off the floor with his elbows raised, that such was not the case. Other witnesses say that the accused did not have his arms folded in the manner described to the court by the witness Andrews. I would like to point out these points sir, because I don't think the statements of Mr Andrews can be relied upon.

As regards the first charge, Captain Shaw did not say that the accused was drunk in the hall. It was some time after that, after he had got the accused to bed that he thought that the accused was drunk.. Andrews also stated that the accused was drunk and when he was asked to give his reasons, he was not very co-operative. Private Thompson said he was drunk due to his actions - that he believed that he was drunk. I think Captain Cummings testified that he was with the accused in the Mess and that the accused was drinking with him. He says they had two drinks only, and he goes on to testify that in the dance hall there was nothing but beer to drink. There was no hard liquer at all. All they were able to obtain was beer.

As regards the second charge, that of kicking one Private Thompson. It has been given in evidence that the accused was definitely on the dance floor, where people were dancing. It has also been given that such a kick could have been a result of the dance itself where one of the steps involve making a kick forward and a kick backward. Further, I submit that this kick was not deliberate, that it was done in the course of the dance, which was at that particular time the dance that has been described as the 'Palais Glide'

As regards pushing the privates. Private Thompson says that he turned around with his fist raised and wanted to know why the accused had kicked him. His attitude may have been a threatening one and the pushing may actually have been just a pushing aside rather than a deliberate and malicious attempt to put him off the dance floor.

As regards using foul language. I believe there were five witnesses who said that the accused did not use foul or abusive language in their presence, and they are supposed to have been there all the time that is in question.

Captain Cummings has stated that he was not struck prior to the time they went into the mess and met on the stair way. Captain Cooke said that the accused was on the top step and Captain Cummings was going up the stairs and that he grabbed the accused and they fell into the corner. Captain Kitchen after that said that in the corner, Captain Cummings was on top. There is no evidence that the accused kicked Captain Cummings in the face, or anything else. I submit sir, that the accused be found Not Guilty of the charges.

The Judge Advocate makes the following summing-up.

My duty before this court is to advise you on the law. You will take the law from me except for a good cause, of which a record must be made. You are the judges of the facts and my duty with regard to the facts is simply to make some sort of a general outline so that you may appreciate the law applicable here. I will outline the facts giving the salient points, but you are not bound to follow such outline. You must be satisfied that the particulars charged in the charge sheet the particulars of the offence - have been proved and that these particulars constitute the offence charged.

The offences are, first of all, 'Drunkenness' in that he in the Field on the 24th October was drunk in a public place, that is to say, the Village Drill Hall, Walton-On-The-Hill, Surrey. You must decide. You must use your own knowledge as reasonable men, your own military knowledge as to whether or not the actions of the accused were sufficient to show that he was drunk. There is no special 'Yard-Stick' by which you can measure this, you must decide it for yourselves. One man may be drunk and may be able to walk in a straight line and not fall down. Another may not. You will have to decide on the evidence as given to you today whether or not the actions and conduct of the accused was that of a drunken man. It is for you to say whether he was drunk or whether he was just boisterous. Everything he did that night may be taken into consideration. That is all I will say on the question of drunkenness. You have heard the evidence of Andrews and Thompson and the rest of them of what occurred that night at the dance hall. You have heard the evidence of the other officers as to what happened after the incident at the dance hall. All that evidence may be considered in deciding whether or not the accused was drunk.

He is charged that he did push and kick one Private Thompson and did push Privates Hawkes and Bulbuk, private soldiers of the Canadian Army. The suggestion is that the kick was purely and simply a result of the particular dance which was in progress at the time of the kick. It has been given in evidence that the kick might have been an inadvertant one and not done deliberately. Lee says that the accused, that he saw the accused leave the girl that he was dancing with and turn round and kick the private. There is evidence that the other privates were pushed. There is no evidence to the contrary, no conflicting evidence on that point.

On the question of the foul language, you have the evidence of Mr Andrews that it certainly was used. He described the language that he heard. Others gave evidence that they didn't hear any.

When we come to that which happened in the mess on the stairs. All these things are part and parcel of the same thing, culminating from the primary argument in the dance hall. That is to say you are entitled to consider all these things to be an aftermath of the original argument. It is for you to say whether or not such actions are to the discredit of the Canadian Army. It is for you to say whether or not such actions would make the people of this country say "That is how the Canadians carry on".

As to the striking of Captain Cummings. The evidence of Mr Andrews is that he was struck in the dance hall. Whether he was struck or not, Captain Cummings was holding the accused and ordered him off the dance floor. It is for you to say whether or not Captain Cummings would order him off the floor without good reason. There is the evidence of Mr Andrews that Captain Cummings was struck by the accused. There are the subsequent incidents, all of which might tend to show that the accused was following up Captain Cummings because of his endeavour to keep things in order. It may have been due to his condition of drunkenness. Drunkenness is of course, no excuse for the commission of a crime. I advise it has not been shown in this case, that the accused did not know the nature and quality of his act nor the difference between right and wrong.

As to the striking on the stairs. There seem to have been blows on both sides. As to the time of the striking, it is open for you to bring in a special finding as to the date.

I must however charge you on the important matter of doubt. The accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. Now, a reasonable dount does not mean some fantastic doubt which you may conjure up in your minds, it means a doubt on the whole case which you, as reasonable men would find in your minds after hearing all the evidence.

Again, I must remind you that the onus of proof is upon the Prosecution. It is not for an accused to show that he is not guilty of the charge. The Prosecution must show, by positive evidence that the accused is guilty of the offences charged against him. The whole proposition of doubt has been illustrated in a very famous case. "Throughout the web of the English Criminal Law one golden thread is always to be seen, that it is the duty of the Prosecution to prove the prisoner's guilt, subject to what I have already said about the defence of insanity and subject also to any statutory exception. If at the end and on the whole case there is a reasonable doubt created by the evidence given by either the Prosecution or the prisoner as to whether the prisoner killed the deceased with malicious intention, the Prosecution has not made out the case and the prisoner is entitled to an acquittal. No matter what the charge or where the trial the principle that the Prosecution must prove the guilt of the prisoner is part of the Common Law of England and no attempt to whittle it down can be entertained".

It is the duty of the Prosecution to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the guilt of the accused. It is for you, the court, to decide whether or not that has been done.

The court is closed for consideration of the finding.

The court is re-opened.

I don't think there is very much to say sir. On passing sentence on the accused, I would ask you to take into consideration this report as to the accused's condition and as to his nervous state. I believe it would perhaps have some bearing on the passing of sentence on him. I would also like to point out that none of these charges are serious ones. It is just unfortunate that the accused should be charged with these offences. I am sure that there are a great many of us who are guilty of similar offences at one time or another but nothing happened.

As regards that report, there is one point that might have a certain amount of bearing on the case. The accused has just returned from a months' ~~x~~ Commando Course and I am sure that it was a strain in his particular case. I would like you to take that into consideration in passing sentence on the accused.

The court is closed for consideration of sentence.

re incident which occured at Dance
24th Oct 1942. Ex. C.

Sir

before beginning this statement
I should like to say I am very sorry indeed it happened and my action of interferring was to stop what I thought would be a serious crime.

I saw Lieut — enter Drill Hall about 11.15. and leave his hat, coat & torch on table at entrance.
I must say that he was the worse for drink. he commenced dancing. When the dance finished he went toward refreshment bar. and stood talking to two young ladies

The next dance was a Pali Glide. which you may known, the dancers kick their legs to the rear during the steps.

4 of your men were dancing together, and I may say quite engaging themselves and at their best behaviour, when I came opposite unit — he kicked one of the soldiers on the shin, and from what I saw, seemed to me to be a ~~deliberate~~ deliberate kick.

The 4 soldiers stopped dancing at once and turned facing officer, and asked him what he had done it for.

The officer then folded his arms level with his shoulders and proceeded to push soldiers off floor. But putting his elbows in Soldiers chests.

The Soldiers of course resented this and I thought one of them would strike officer. this I knew would be a very serious crime for the soldier although the officer was asking for trouble.

I turned and saw Capt standing a little way away talking to 2 young ladies. I went to him and asked him if he would come with me and get the Lieut away before any harm was done.

As soon as the Lieut saw Capt. he immediately became very offensive and went with Capt out to the Lobby. they were followed by several soldiers.

On reaching the lobby that Capt. tried his best but tactfull means to get the Lieut to go home, but the Lieut sparred up to Capt. and struck at Capt. and told the Capt to take off his glasses and his would give him a good hiding.

The Capt refused to take off his glasses and tried again to get Lieut to go home.

The Lieut then closed with Capt and during to struggle, his glasses came off and one of the soldiers picked them up, in the meanwhile the soldiers done their best to part officers and both officers went outside hall to fight it out.

5 I followed outside and both officers were struggling. then the Lieut slipped and Capt was on top of him. he was pressing Lieut shoulders to the ground telling him not to be a fool but to go home.

Then a Serg. who had been who watching helped to part officers and eventually the Lieut ~~was~~ went away escorted with a Soldier and I thought went home.

I went back in half with Capt. and asked him if he would like a drink. he said he would so I took him into the refreshment bar and gave him a light ale. and I must say that during the whole affair

7 the Capt behaviaured as a gentleman and did all he could to stop disturbance.

As we were talking the door of Bar opened and in walked the Lieut again and commenced striking Capt again and using bad language, a struggle commenced in which a basket of Cups & Saucers was knocked out and several broken.

Finally a soldier and a orderly walked in and parted officers and got the Lieut to go away.

That is all and as I have said I am very sorry but the Lieut was most aggressive all the time, but I am sure if he had been sober I am sure nothing would have happened and he would have joined in the fun.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

LIEUT. W.F.DANIELS, 41 CDN.GEN.TPT.COY., R.C.A.S.C.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for Prosecution.
Capt. W.A.Cummings, 41st Cdn.Gen.Tpt.Coy., RCASC, having been duly sworn states:-

I am Capt. W.A.Cummings, 41 Cdn.Gen.Tpt.Coy., RCASC. On the evening of 24 Oct 42 I was attending a Benefit dance (civilian) in the local Drill Hall. At approximately 2300 hours I was dancing on the far side of the hall, opposite the entrance, when I was approached by a civilian (Mr. Andrews) who asked me to remove one of "our" officers as he was creating a disturbance. I found Mr. Daniels arguing with soldiers who were trying to persuade him to leave the hall. I persuaded him to go as far as the vestibule where an argument ensued. I left the hall suggesting he follow, hoping thus to be able to get him outside and then on to the Mess. Lieut. Daniels followed me out. He took exception to my having asked him to leave the hall and I had some difficulty in restraining him from taking physical action. It was necessary for me to hold him arms and later place him on the ground where I held his arms down. While holding him in that position I tried to persuade him to agree to go back to the mess and forget the incident. I eventually persuaded him to return to the mess accompanied by two soldiers. I then returned to the Drill Hall. The two civilians operating the dance thanked me for what I had done and invited me into the kitchen to have a drink of beer. At approximately 2330 hours Lieut. Daniels came into the kitchen accompanied by two soldiers. Again I had difficulty in preventing physical violence. He was eventually persuaded to leave accompanied by two soldiers. I finally left at 2400 hours. I waited for the crowd to clear away and then proceeded toward the mess. As I went through the gate leading to the Mess, Lieut. Daniels ran at me. I was unable to subdue him, consequently a fight ensued which lasted a couple of minutes until it was broken up by Capt. Shaw and several other officers who had come out of the Mess. Capt. Shaw told Lieut Daniels to go to his bed. I explained to Capt. Shaw what had taken place and on his suggestion started upstairs to bed. As I turned the corner approaching the top of the stairs I saw Lieut. Daniels standing at the top. As I came towards him he kicked me in the face and then charged at me. I was able to hold him and push him into a corner of the stairway. I was prepared to have a real fight by this time but was restrained from doing so by Capts. Shaw and Kitchen and Lieut. Cooke.

Second Witness for Prosecution.

Capt. D.C.Shaw, 41st Cdn.Gen.Tpt.Coy., RCASC, having been duly sworn states:-

I am Capt. D.C.Shaw, 41st Cdn.Gen.Tpt.Coy., RCASC. At approximately 2345 hours Saturday evening 24 Oct 42 I returned to the Officers' Mess. I was sitting in Ante Room when Lieut. Daniels put his head in doorway and I noticed that he had a cut over his eye. He disappeared at once and I followed in a few moments to see what the trouble was. I did not find him and after a few moments hesitation I decided that I would make a thorough search for him. I went out to the front lawn and found two officers lying beside fence. They were locked together but neither could do any fighting. I immediately ordered them to get up. This was done and I then ordered Lieut. Daniels to go to bed. Capt. Cummings, the other officer involved, I questioned as to the circumstances. He informed me that he had had trouble with Lieut. Daniels. I then ordered Capt. Cummings to go to bed with the intention of getting full information in the morning. Lieut. Daniels had obeyed my order and Capt. Cummings was proceeding up the stairs to his room when Lieut. Daniels came out of his room again, and stood at railing. He shouted at Capt. Cummings "Come on and fight, you old bastard. Put up your hands like a man. I'll kill you." Capt. Cummings told him "Go to bed, Bill, and keep quiet". and continued to mount the stairs. I was at the bottom of the xxx stairs and ordered Lieut. Daniels, once again to keep quiet and go to bed. Before I could however get up the stairs Lieut. Daniels from the head of the stairs made an attack on Capt. Cummings. Capt. Cummings grabbed his legs and pulled him down. Capt. Kitchen and Lieut. Cooke who were with me at this time assisted me to get the two men separated. I then took Lieut. Daniels to bed myself and to make sure he did not cause any further disturbance I locked his door and kept the key until the return of his roommate, Lieut. Grigsby. I found Lieut. Daniels at this time to be almost beyond control although he obeyed me without question when I was with him. The minute I left him however he seemed to be without any control whatsoever. Capt. Cummings then proceeded to go to bed. There was no further trouble. At no time up to the time I put Lieut. Daniels to bed did I think that either of these two officers were under the influence of drink. After getting Lieut. Daniels finally to bed I found that he very definitely was drunk although he had walked and acted before his attack on Capt. Cummings in an excited but normal manner. I base my opinion as to this drunkeness on the following facts: a very strong smell of liquor, the fact that once Lieut. Daniels had let himself go and forget his fighting mood he was almost childish in his actions. He acted in a manner similar to a man who is commonly considered drunk. Capt. Cummings was excited and upset over the affair when I first spoke to him but he was not in any way intoxicated. I spent some considerable time with Lieut. Daniels after getting him to bed in an endeavour to find out what the trouble was. He had no idea at the time except that he was in a dangerous, in fact, a murderous mood. He was irrational and after some time broke down completely in a hysteria. He was not in any

I saw Lieut Daniels at the Drill Hall dance at approximately 2215 hrs. 24 Oct 42 at which time I would say he had been drinking but was behaving rationally. I also saw Capt. Cummings who was watching the dance and behaving in a very sober manner. Atapproximately 2300 hours I was in the Ante-room when Lieut. Daniels walked in. He said nothing and retired. At approximately 0020 hours as I was leaving the Mess I heard noises and some swearing at the top of the stairs, but noticing that Capt. Shaw, Capt. Kitchen and Lieut. I then heard him go upstairs. About2350 hours as I left the mess to go to the drill hall to get my overcoat, I saw Capt. Shaw trying to separate Capt. Cummings and Lieut. Capt. Shaw order him to go to bed. About 2330 hours Capt. Cummings came in and started to go quietly upstairs. Capt. Shaw having told him that he had better do so. I then heard a lot of cursing and swearing at the head of the stairs by someone who was out of sight. Capt. Shaw and I went to see what was taking place. I saw Lieut. Daniels standing about 2 or 3 steps from the top of the stairs and Capt. Cummings facing him about 3 steps lower down at about the turn in the stairs. There was an argument going on between them which ended in Lieut. Daniels giving Capt. Cummings a shove with his hand. Capt. Cummings swung round to face Lieut. Daniels. Lieut. Daniels then bunted Capt. Cummings with his knee, the latter falling back in the corner of the stairs. Capt. Cummings then started to go forward and Lieut. Daniels kicked him, where I am not quite sure. Capt. Cummings then lunged at Daniels and grabbed him around the legs, the latter loosing his balance, fell forward and landed on his right side in the corner of the stairs. Cummings retaining his hold fell with him, landing on top. Capt. Shaw, Capt. Kitchen and I then went upstairs to separate them. Capt. Shaw then ordered Lieut. Daniels to his room, Capt. Cummings xxxxx coming downstairs with Capt. Kitchen and myself. I noticed Capt. Cummings was bleeding from a cut between and slightly above his eyebrows which was not there prior to his going upstairs.

Eighth witness for prosecution continued from page 4.

I am C32423, L/Cpl. Lee, H.J., 41st Cdn.Gen.Tpt.Coy., RCASC. On the night of Oct 24th, 1942, I was present at a dance in the Drill Hall. While there I witnessed a fight between Capt. Cummings and Lieut. Daniels . I saw Lieut Daniels dancing on the floor and there were four Ptes., Hawkes, Bulbuck, Thompson and Urrutia. The case being I saw Lieut. Daniels had told her to go back or had pushed her back and kicked Pte. Thompson on the hip. Pte. Thompson turned around not knowing who it was, with his fist raised and seeing it was an officer said to him "Sir, you had better be careful what you are doing. The next thing I saw was Lieut. Daniels crowding around the Ptes. and started pushing with his forearms. At that time Capt. Cummings came on to the scene, had a conversation with Lieut. Daniels. The two of them proceeded outside to the little hall. I did not exactly follow them right away but did very shortly afterwards and they got into another argument but I did not exactly see any blows struck against one another but saw them grab one another. Then seeing two of our own officers, Pte. Thompson and myself, fighting so we took a hold of them and pulled them apart but they were holding onto on another and to get them parted we had to pull them hard. Apparently it made him fall on the floor and in the tussle Capt. Cummings and Pte. Thompson were on the floor also. Pte. Thompson immediately lifted Capt. Cummings up and Capt. Cummings told me to release Mr. Daniels at once, which I immediately did. Then they proceeded outside. I followed out with Ptes. Hawkes and Bulbuck. When we got there Lieut. Daniels was on the ground and Capt. Cummings was holding him down with his knees on his arms and his hands on his head. There was a conversation carried out by the two officers andthen L/Cpl Packebusch appeared on the scene. There was a number of people starting to gather around there and I said lets break this crowd up and I xxxxxxx assisted him in doing so. Then L/Cpl Packebusch parted the two officers and the last I saw was Capt. Cummings going toward the dance hall and L/Cpl Packebusch taking Lieut. Daniels down the road toward the officers mess and that is all I saw of that. I went back into the drill hall and had one or two dances and I was coming outside with my lady friend for some fresh air and I met Lieut. Daniels in the doorway. I asked him not to go in the hall and he told me to stay out of it, as it was none of my business. Which I did. I returned a few minutes later and in the sandwich bar, which leads off the small entrance, I heard a noisy conversation and I looked in. I noticed the two officers scuffling. L/Cpl Packebusch again appeared on the scene and I told him what was going on in the sandwich bar and I said to him"You know them better than I do. Why don't you go in and part them and take him home. Which he did and that is all I know of the case.

The witness is cross-examined by the accused. (H.P. 4'd')

Q. I actually kicked Pte. Thompson, did I?
A. Yes, sir. As close as I could see and I was as close as five feet. You were all coming around the one way dancing and you were pretty much all in a line in the Pali Glideand I was paying particular attention to the four Ptes. doing the Pali Glide and the next thing I saw you were right beside them. You had told your lady friend to go away or pushed her away and you turned around and kicked Pte. Thompson.
Q. I did deliberately kick him then?
A. Yes, sir.

Pali Glide when I received a severe kick on the right hip. I immediately turned around with my fist up and I saw it was Lieut. Daniels. When I saw who it was then I immediately relaxed and I put my hand out and I asked why did he kick me. He said "Don't shove me around" and he put his hand out and pushed me. I put my hand out and I pushed him slightly back. He then saw Pte. Hawkes and he pushed me out of the way, and Pte. Bulbuck also, and he said "Hawkes, you are the man I want". He put his hands on Hawkes and tried pushing Hawkes around. Hawkes told him to take his hands off him or he would hit him. Then Capt. Cummings came up and he persuaded Lieut. Daniels to go outside into the lobby. They went out and a few minutes later Pte. Hawkes and myself and L/Cpl Backbusch went out. Capt. Cummings and Lieut. Daniels were arguing. Presently they started to fight. It was getting pretty rough so L/Cpl Backbusch grabbed Lieut. Daniels and I took hold of Capt. Cummings. Lieut. Daniels and L/Cpl Backbusch fell onto the floor and Capt. Cummings and myself were pulled on top of them. I immediately released Capt. Cummings. He got up and he told L/Cpl Backbusch to release Lieut. Daniels. He did so. They had a few more words and I went back into the hall and that is all I saw.

Questioned by Capt. MacDonald, officer taking summary.

Q. Did Lieut. Daniels use any foul or abusive language while on the dance floor?
A. No, sir.

EXHIBIT "A".

STATEMENT BY J.ANDREWS, 12 SANDLANDS RD., WALTON-ON-HILL.

Re incident which occurred at Dance 24 Oct 1942.

Sir/

Before beginning this statement I should like to say I am very sorry indeed it happened and my action of interferring was to stop what I thought would be a serious crime.

I saw Lieut. ---- enter Drill Hall about 11.15 and leave his hat, coat and torch on table at entrance. I must say that he was the worse for drink. He commenced dancing. When the dance finished he went toward refreshment bar and stood talking to two young ladies.

The next dance was a Pali Glide which you may know, the dancers kick their legs to the rear during the steps.

4 of your men were dancing together and I may say quite enjoying themselves and on their best behaviour. When they came opposite Lieut.---- he kicked one of the soldiers on the shin and from what I saw seemed to me to be a deliberate kick.

The four soldiers stopped dancing at once and turned facing officer and asked him what he had done it for.

The officer then folded his arms level with his shoulders and proceeded to push soldiers off floor, by putting his elbows in soldiers' chests.

The soldiers of course resented this and I thought one of them would strike officer. This I knew would be a very serious crime for the soldier although the officer was asking for trouble.

I turned and saw Capt.---- standing a little way away talking to 2 young ladies. I went to him and asked him if he would come with me and get the Lieut. away before any harm was done.

As soon as the Lieut. saw Capt. he immediately became very offensive and went with Capt. out to the lobby. They were followed by several soldiers.

On reaching the lobby that Capt. tried his best by tactful means to get the Lieut. to go home, but the Lieut. sparred up to Capt. and struck at Capt. and told the Capt. to take off his glasses and he would give him a good hiding.

The Capt. refused to take off his glasses and tried again to get Lieut. to go home.

The Lieut. then closed with Capt. and during the struggle his glasses came off and one of the soldiers picked them up. In the meanwhile the soldiers did their best to part officers and both officers went outside hall to fight it out. I followed outside and both officers were struggling. Then the Lieut. slipped and Capt. was on top of him. He was pressing Lieut. shoulders to the ground telling him not to be a fool but to go home.

Then a Serg. who had been watching helped to part officers and eventually the Lieut. went away escorted with a soldier and I thought went home.

I went back in hall with Capt. and asked him if he would like a drink. He said he would so I took him into the refreshment bar and gave him a light ale and I must say that during the whole affair the Capt. behaved as a gentleman and did all he could to stop disturbance.

As we were talking the door of bar opened and in walked the Lieut. again and commenced striking Capt. again and using bad language. A struggle commenced in which a basket of cups and saucers was knocked over and several broken.

Finally a soldier and a Serg. walked in and parted officers and got the Lieut. to go away.

That is all and as I have said I am very sorry but the Lieut. was most aggressive all the time but I am sure if he had been sober I am sure nothing would have happened and he could have joined in the fun. Your gentlemen are a long way from home and things don't always go right and one tries to forget their troubles and have a drink. I was in the last war from '14 to '19 and I know what striking an officer meant.

This I write is a true statement.

The accused D 63135 Gpl. Thomas Denis, Sworn states:.

On the morning of 23 Oct I was sent with three men, Spr Desjardins and two others to do some work on the pipe line. We checked the pipe line and I found we had to go to a Quelling Coy to get what I need. I left two of my men at the pol and told the driver to take me into the village of Lupperz and I asked him to stop in the front of a ~~Jews~~ store and I went in and ~~bought~~ told Mlle Germaine Pouyat. She used to ~~Pay~~ serve us and I asked her sister Jeanne to open the backyard door and I went back to the truck and asked Desjardins to give me the cans of petrol and I took them into the store. I told Germaine Pouyat that I would come back but she didn't understand what I said very well. I said this is very dangerous looking at the petrol cans and went back to the trucks and went back to a Quelling Coy. After dinner the Officer came and told the Sergt. Major to put me under close arrest.

I took the cans to the house because I wanted my uniform clean and I had tried to get it done by a soldier to whom I paid fifty pounds but it was very messy. Then I gave a civilian woman 30 francs to clean it. It was still dirty with tar and diesel oil after she was done. A few days after I went to the first Blue with my uniform on and Lucy Purple saw it and said it was very dirty and should be washed with petrol.

I laughed and asked her if she would wash it if I gave her some petrol and she said yes.
After I left I remembered we had found some jerricans of petrol on the road a few days before and they were still on the truck I drove so anything wrong in using it for cleaning my uniform. The next day I looked in the truck I had put them in after picking them up and the two cans were still there.
I didn't have any trucks for my work so I stopped a truck driven by Spr. Plunette. I asked permission of the Corporal to use that truck and he said it was alright and I transferred the jerricans to the truck driven by Spr Plunette. I said to Spr Plunette the driver of the truck from which I removed the petrol cans "Are these the petrol cans we found on the road" and the driver (Spr Robbins) said
"If there petrol cans then they are ones found on the road".
I did not think it was wrong to use the petrol for my own purpose because I had found them road. We used to send plenty on Friday which we used for fires and cleaning. One day I was with my Sergeant and he picked them up and put them on the truck.

When petrol is found if we don't use it for cleaning we take the tools and equipment on the job we leave them in the lorry.

In my work I need petrol for cleaning the machinery and for cleaning a pump on the job when it becomes clogged.

I have been issued petrol from the transport corporal (Cole) at least on one occasion for cleaning machinery.

Cross examined.

~~Do I said before I had~~ used I have used petrol for cleaning my clothes by taking spots off myself but I have never washed the uniform in petrol. I didn't give any consideration to take more petrol it would take for more than to wash my uniform.

I found the petrol on the side road on the Gent to Ostend road between Ghent and Ostend about 11 days before I was put under close arrest
I put it into the truck as I always did I didn't consider it my responsibility to turn it in.

It was 11 days before
I took the petrol for cleaning because in the meantime I had the order it could be cleaned at a place the Sergeant got his uniform

I know that it is ~~is~~ not permitted to give petrol to civilians ~~but~~ but in this case I didn't ~~t~~ give the petrol to the civilians. It was for my own use. I know that there had been a battalion order ~~prohibiting~~ prohibiting the giving of petrol to civilians.

The prosecution produces copy of Pt I Coy. D.O. & 40 of 18 Oct 44. Accused says he has seen same. It is a Coy. Order. He doesn't know about a similar Bn. Order. (marked Exhibit 1).

Questioned by the Court:

I went ~~from~~ to Loppem for the purpose of leaving the petrol tins as I had a spare hour. I didn't have the uniform that needed cleaning with me. It is about a half mile from the 2 Dividing Coy to Loppem. The conversation with Lucy Pupper about cleaning my uniform was two or three days before I took the petrol to her place.

Defence

Bury
J.A.

The charges brought against Gpt Davis have not been proved. It is a very difficult thing, in fact, impossible, to prove a thing which has never taken place.

The burden of proof which should rest with the prosecution, as in that case, fell on the shoulder of the defence. The Court having overruled my plea of "not proven", forced me to put forward proofs and facts that the accused is not and cannot possibly be found guilty of the charges brought against him.

In his sworn statement, the accused state that he did not steal any petrol. Never had any intention of stealing petrol. Never gave away any petrol and never had any intention of giving away petrol.

I consider that following the evidence heard, the Court must be satisfied that the accused never stole any petrol, never had any intention of stealing petrol.

Gpt Davis's platoon sgt, Sgt Mercer stated during the course of his evidence, that the accused had all the reasons in the world to have petrol in his possession.

I refused to bring evidence that might discredit some persons or persons, but I wish to state that as Gpt Davis's platoon commander, I ordered him to obtain some petrol and use it in the course of his duty, and I further state that on the 23rd of October between the hours of 0700 and 1800, Gpt Davis was perfectly justified in having petrol in his possession.

This last statement, if the Court wishes me to, I am ready to make it under oath.

In conclusion I declare Cpl Davis not guilty of these two charges, namely stealing petrol and being in improper possession of petrol.

If it happened that Cpl Davis were found guilty under either one of these two charges, I will appeal the decision of the Court.

I demand that the accused should be honorably acquitted.

Summing up of Prosecution. WOU 3 8A

Gentlemen -

You have heard all the evidence in this case. On the first charge of stealing it has been proved that the jerry cans were ~~the~~ army ones and that they contained ~~petrol~~ army petrol. Whether he found it or not, the fact that he did not turn it in and later proposed to use it for himself constitutes stealing. His disregard of the Coy orders, which he admits he knew about make it very plain that he intended to take it for his own purposes and the conversation with Miss Pryer shows that it was premeditated.

On the second charge, the accused was seen and admits himself of bringing the petrol to the house and placing it in the yard. If as the defence claims he required petrol for his work, some thing which is not substantiated for this amount of petrol, what was he doing with it in the back yard. The defence has not shown that he was ever legitimately issued with petrol for work at that time and if he did need it why did about eleven days elapsed without his using it. He found it and as he did not turn it in he was in possession of it which he had no business to be.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

D-63135, Cpl. Armand Danis, B Coy, 3 Bn RCE, C.A., a soldier of the Canadian Army placed on active service.

CHARGES:- 1. ~~Neglecting to obey a Company daily part I Order.~~ Stealing Public property

2. (Alternative) Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

Lt L.E. Lavigne, B Coy, 3 Bn RCE, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

Acting on information I received on the morning of 23 OCT 44, I questioned spr Durette concerning some petrol. Spr Durette told me he had seen Cpl Danis and spr Desjardins unload two Jerry cans from his truck at a civilian house. The cans appeared to be full and were taken through the entrance of a backyard. I asked spr Durette to show me the place. Having located the house, but having no power to investigate in a private house I called upon the local civilian police for assistance. The police came with me, we entered the ~~place~~ backyard and the gendarme questioned the woman who was there. The gendarme then translated back to me that it was true that a Canadian soldier had brought some petrol there.

She indicated a small trench covered with brush and earth and upon investigation pulled out of it two Jerry cans . I opened them and assured myself that they were full of army petrol. I brought this petrol back to camp and had the C.O.M. place Cpl Danis under arrest.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

SECOND WITNESS

D-47441 Spr Durette, R., B Coy, 3 Bn RCE, C.A., having been duly sworn, states:-

On the morning of 23 OCT 44, I drove my truck to 2 Drilling Coy RCE along with me were Cpl Danis and Spr Desjardins and two other soldiers. The two others got off at 2 Drilling Coy RCE and Cpl Danis told me to drive on to LOPPEM. He had me stop in front of a house. There, he got off and went at the back of the truck. I then heard him say to Spr Desjardins to hand him two cans. I looked through my mirror and saw Spr Desjardins hand to Cpl Danis two Jerry cans. I was surprised because I was sure that the night before, those cans were not there, since I check my truck every night after work. I did not make any remarks to Cpl Danis. I then saw him carry the two cans through a gate leading to a backyard. The cans appeared to be full, judging from the way the Cpl was carrying them.

I then drove down the road, turned my truck around and as came back to the house. Cpl Danis got back on the truck and we returned to 2 Drilling Coy RCE. During the trip Cpl Danis who was sitting next to me, did not mention the Jerry cans.

During the afternoon, I reported what I had seen to Cpl Cote, our MT Cpl.

Lt Lavigne later questioned me. I repeated my story and he asked me to show him the house where the petrol had been unloaded. We went in his jeep along with Cpl Cote. After I had pointed out the house to Lt Lavigne, we drove to a neighboring village, picked up two gendarmes and returned to the house.

I remained in the jeep whole they went in the backyard. When they returned Cpl Cote was carrying two Jerry cans.

The truck then moved off and we came to the village of LOPPEM and stopped in front of a house. Cpl Danis came at the back of the truck and told me to hand him two Jerry cans and passed them to him. I did not get off truck and did not have the faintest idea of what he intended to do with them. I saw him go to the house, [illegible]. He then went in the courtyard, carrying the two Jerry cans. He returned without them and got back in the truck ans we drove off.

FOURTH WITNESS Miss Lucie Puype, 54 Loppem Place, Loppen Common, Occidental Flanders, having been duly sworn, states:-
One day I told this man here present and whom I recognise that it would be necessary to have petrol to clean his uniform of the grease spots.
He brought the petrol one day when I was not there. The petrol was received by my sister who did not know for what purpose this petrol was needed.
A few days later, Monday the 23 OCT 44, I returned home and learned that the soldier whom I now recognise had brought the petrol and that later the police had come with soldiers and had taken the petrol with them.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

On Monday 23 OCT 44 in the morning the cpl, whom I recognise, came at the door and asked me to open the garden gate, because he wanted to put some Jerry cans in the garden. I did not question him but he understood that those were for another person who was supposed to come and fetch them later. I do not understand French very well and took it for granted that there was nothing wrong in accepting this petrol. Later in the day I received the visit of two gendarmes and two soldier who asked me if I had received some Petrol Jerry cans. I answered yes and they asked me how many cans and where they were I showed them the place and handed the petrol back to one of the soldiers.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED

Do you wish to makeany statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

ANSWER OF THE ACCUSED

D-63135 Cpl DANIS, A., "B" Coy 3 Bn RCE states:-

First of all I want to tell that when Jerry cans are found on the side of the road, they are picked up and placed in one of our vehicles.

On that day I do not remember the date, I was in charge of a working party. We were working on the pipeline along the Autostrade about one and a half mile ~~frx~~ east of the LOPPEM Clover Leaf Turnabout. I noticed some Jerry cans on the side of the road. Those cans were full of petrol. I had them loaded in one of our trucks, and went about my business.

About eight or ten days later, I had my battle-dress cleaned at a house near our billets. I paid 30 francs for this.

When I went out that night, I found that my battle-dress was still covered with grease and oil spots. I went to buy some grapes at a store in LOPPEM. I was asked inside, While talking I excused myself for being so dirty and explained that I just had my suit cleaned but without much success. The lady offered to clean it for me, but said that she would need some petrol to wash it in.

On my way back I suddenly remembered about the petrol found on the road, and figured that I could use it if it was still in the truck.

That same morning I had been detailed along with three plumbers, to connect up two ends of the pipeline. Not having the proper tools to cut the pipe, I had to go to 2 Drilling Coy RCE to have it done. They said they would do it when the work they had on hand would be completed.

I left two of my men there, to wait and want with the truck to hand the petrol to the girl who had promised to clean my battle-dress.

She was not there when I arrived, and I therefore handed the petrol to another girl, older than the one I was to see, saying that I would be back. I was with sapper Desjardins, who handed me the petrol from the truck, It was then about 0930 hrs 23 OCT 44.

Later in the day I was placed under arrest by the C.S.M.

Trial of B-83578 Pte T. Danks, 1 Coln Corps Def Coy

Prosecution

First Witness - Lt R.G. Hennell, HQ 1 Coln Corps, having been duly sworn states:-

At approx 1955 hrs 10 Nov I was called by "A" mess steward to investigate a disturbance at entrance to "A" mess. I proceeded to the front gate entrance of "A" mess. Upon reaching the sentry posts, I found no sentries. I went onto the road leading in front of "A" mess to Casa Fl. Bambara, & as where I found Pte Nesbitt, one of the guards Pte Danks returned to his post without his rifle. Pte Danks then went to get the Cpl of the guard & returned with a Cpl, who proceeded to supply him new men for the guard, and place Pte Danks & Pte Nesbitt under arrest. I then proceeded to Casa Fl Bambara with Cpl Watson, R.C.C.S, where I found Pte Danks rifle which was removed in a room on second floor in which there were soldiers and several civilian females, and wine was being served. I took the rifle back to "A" mess. I consider Pte Danks unfit for duty when he returned to duty his post, due to indulgence in alcoholic liquor.

Cross Examined

It was the first time I had seen the accused that evening.

By the Court

I told the accused he was under arrest when the Cpl & Pte Anderson returned.

(5) Banks

825

2. I considered Pte ~~Bks~~ Banks unfit for duty because his speech ~~I assume~~ was not clear. His gait was not steady. He was without his rifle. He was away from his post without permission.

3. ~~I did not see the accused~~ accused emerge from Casa F. Bambara

4. Rifle I picked up in Casa F Bambara bore name tag of Pte T. Banks. ~~I take~~ I took down the number of the rifle

EXHIBIT "A" Submitted - rifle No 24L 00884 + tag bearing name Banks T + rifle no. 24L00884.

Second Witness - 2/Lt J. S. Anderson, RR. 1 Cdn Corps having been duly sworn states.

At about 1900 hrs, 10 Nov, I heard a shot, which I took no action. Shortly afterwards, upon information received, I went to sentry post where there was no sign of the accused I went looking for him + ~~found~~ saw him come out of the field known as Casa F Bambara. When questioned, the accused said he was the sentry. I returned to sentry post with accused. In company with accused I went to ~~the~~ guard commander ~~I was proceeding~~ contacted ~~obtained~~ an N.C.O. whom I can not recall who put two ~~fresh~~ new sentries on duty, in place of ~~Pte Banks~~ the accused, & relieved. It was approx 1/2 an hour after I saw accused leave Casa F Bambara. I do not believe there was any chance of accused returning to his post between the time we started looking for him and I saw him leaving Casa F Bambara. Accused ~~was not to much~~ appeared to me to be under the influence of alcohol, as his walk was unsteady at times, & his speech not as clear as I believe should be from a soldier on duty.

~~Re-Exam~~

Cross Examined

I did not see accused before I saw him coming out of Casa ~~P~~ Barbara. Wine was being sold at Casa P. Barbara + Villa Paradiso, but I did not see the accused take a drink.

There are no sanitary facilities for the guard of "A" mess.

I did not see the guard commander at any time that night.

Q. by Court.

The accused attempted to enter the Casa Barbara after being refused & return to his post. He did not re-enter the Casa Barbara.

I heard ~~2~~ Lt Kennel warn the accused that he was under arrest.

Third Witness - B15388 L/cpl Barnard, HQ 1 Cdo Corps Def Coy, having been duly sworn states :-

As acting 2/c of my section, at 1645 hrs 10 Nov I checked the ~~accused upon his being posted at 0800 hrs~~ posted in the ~~Bathroom~~ area, the accused appeared to be normal, and I then brought ~~him~~ down to his post at "A" mess. Defence

First witness: B-83573 Pte T. Danks, 1 Aust Corps Wks Coy having been duly sworn states

At reaches 10 Nov 43 I was part of a working party cleaning St Georges Hotel and Pte Nesbitt + I bought three bottles of wine. We started to drink the wine as we were working, until dinner time. After dinner several of our party and myself bought several more bottles of wine and continued to drink the wine as we worked. Sometime around 1500 hrs, Pte Nesbitt + myself were detailed by 2nd Lieut for the next shift of guard duty. We washed + got ready for our tour of duty. I was feeling the effects of the liquor then, although I endeavoured not to show. I had supper there and was taken to our post by Lieut Farnham who gave details he gave us for our duties, I do not remember.

I did not know I was to go on guard until afternoon.

I drank over two bottles of wine & prior to the I was warned for guard. When I went on guard everything was blurred, and my mind was not clear. It was the first guard duty I had done since in Italy.

I have never been charged with drunkenness.

I had the odd drink after being warned for before I was posted to my duty.

I felt drunk when warned for guard.

825.

Cross Examination

I have been in Hdq. Coy since July 42 and have done one week's guard per month since that time. At the time I was warned on 15th Nov, I did not realize the importance of a guard due to my condition.

There are six of others had as much to drink as I did.

To my knowledge I had nothing to drink after going on guard.

I did not tell any body I was "feeling high", but tried to cover up. I ~~did~~ made no attempt to try and get excused from guard.

By The Court

I was on the gate at 11 hrs and asked the relief to relieve me while I went to toilet in Casa de Barbara I do not remember what I did in the Bldg, how long I was there, or handing my rifle over to any one. I remember one officer asking me if I was the guard.

When I went on guard I do not feel that I was not in full condition to carry out the guard.

It was when I was on my way to the rear post that everything went blurred.

I had no reason to believe that there was a lavatory in the Casa de Barbara.

Hunt in the afternoon the accused was there and I would say that he had been drinking, and pulled him up 2 or 3 times. I would say that the accused was drunk and unfit for duty.

Cross Examination

I took no steps to keep the accused from going on duty, even though drunk, as I do not consider it was up to me as a private soldier.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of--
B 85573 Pte Danks T
1 Cdn Corps Def Coy, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer has not directed, nor has the accused demanded that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS Lieut R.G.Hennell, On the strength of HQ 1 Cdn Corps, A.D.C to the Corps Commander states as follows:-

At approx 1855 hrs, 10 Nov 43, I was in my room at A Mess with Lieut J.S.Anderson. The Mess Serjeant came in and complained that one of the sentries had discharged his rifle at one of the batmen. With Lieut Anderson I went to the main gate of the Mess and found no sentries. One sentry was located immediately, the other, whom I now recognise as the accused, arrived some 30 mins later at approx 1940 hrs.

He returned to his post with clothing disheveled, minus his rifle and under the influence of intoxicants.

Without being asked he volunteered the information that he had been to the lawtory. I advised him that he was under arrest, ordered him to stand at ease beside his post and asked him no questions. He was later identified as Pte Danks.

After ordering Cpl Thompson to bring new sentries and personnel to take the old sentries (now in arrest)into custody. I left Lieut Anderson with the sentries while I went in search of the missing rifle. I enlisted the aid of Cpl Watson, R.C.O.C. who was standing near-by and entered a building identified as Casa F Bambara from which the accused had been seen to emerge. This building is outside the A Mess enclosure. On the second floor of this building, in a crowded room in which wine was being served to soldiers and civilian females, I found rifle No 24L0084 and a detached magazine charged with five rounds (Rifle and magazine produced and marked Exhibit A). I removed both from the premises and took them to my room. The rifle bore a name tag with "Danks" written thereon. The building in which the rifle was found turned out to be a brothel.

The accused was taken into custody by Sjt McNally and Cpl Thompson at approx 2050 hrs.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

R.G.Hennell Lieut

SECOND WITNESS Lieut J.S.Anderson, On the strength of HQ 1 Cdn Corps, A.D.C. to the Corps Commander states as follows.

At approx. 1855 hrs, 10 Nov 43, I accompanied Lieut Hennell to the main gate of A Mess to investigate an alleged disturbance by the sentry i.e. The firing of a rifle at a batman.

While Lieut Hennell interrogated one of the sentries, I set out to locate the other. The second sentry, whom I recognize as the accused came out of a building on the street opposite the Paradiso, minus his rifle at approx 1940 hrs. He began talking to one of the soldiers billeted at the Paradiso. I questioned him as to whether he was the second sentry. He said "Yes" I then ordered him to proceed immediately to the main gate of A Mess to see Lieut Hennell. He attempted to go back into the house to get his rifle but Lieut Hennell ordered him to come directly to the gate.

He was thereupon questioned as to the whereabouts of the Cpl of the guard. He said the guard HQ was located at the Hotel Victoria, but he did not know how to get there. In his conversation with me it was evident the accused was under the influence of alcohol and incapable of carrying out his duties as a sentry but had control of his faculties.

I questioned a carabinier who then took both the accused and myself to the Hotel Victoria where Cpl Thompson was found although no guard commander was available.

I returned with Cpl Thompson and the accused at 1950 hrs to the main gate A Mess.

Cpl Thompson was instructed to obtain replacements for the guard and I went to supper leaving the sentries in arrest with Lieut Hennell. When I returned at 2015 hrs the relief had arrived and both sentries were placed under close arrest.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J.S. Anderson Lt.

THIRD WITNESS B-95388 Pte Garnham J.G., On the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Def Coy, 2 i/c of the section detailed for guard states as follows.

At approx 1700 hrs, 10 Nov 43, I was detailed by Lieut Lent to see if the two sentries, The Accused and Pte Nesbitt, were getting ready to go on guard at A Mess. Both sentries were ready. I was instructed by Sjt Hokes to post the sentries at A Mess. This I did. Both sentries were quite sober and fit for duty. My instructions as to their duties were clearly understood by both and when I left with the two relieved sentries both the accused and Pte Nesbitt were carrying out their duties in the proper manner.

The duties to which the accused and Pte Nesbitt were assigned were to guard A Mess by one sentry patrolling within the enclosure in which the building - A Mess- is situated and the other standing guard at the main entrance gate to the enclosure.

The building, Casa P Dambara, is a building outside the said enclosure and neither the accused or Pte Nesbitt had any right or occasion to enter this building during their tour of duty at A Mess.

The Accused and Pte Nesbitt were posted shortly after 1700 hrs and their tour of duty was from 1700 hrs until 2100 hrs.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J.G. Garnham Pte

FOURTH WITNESS B-75359 L/Cpl Lauriks, H. On the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Def Coy states as follows;

I was in a Cabaret Club in the Casa P Dambara Building drinking wine when a soldier who I recognize as the accused asked me to look after his rifle while he went to the lavatory. I took the rifle and put it on the floor beside me. Some time after, probably about five or ten minutes Cpl Watson in the company of Lieut Anderson asked if I had the guards rifle. I replied that I had a rifle but do not know if it belongs to the guard. He ordered me to give it to Lieut Anderson which I did.

Question. In your opinion was Pte Danks under the influence of liquor.

Answer. The meeting was so short that I would be unable to tell. There was nothing in his actions to lead me to believe he had been drinking.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

H. Lauriks L/Cpl

FIFTH WITNESS K-82346 Cpl Watson J.A., On the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Sigs states as follows:

At approx 1900 hrs 10 Nov 43, I was looking for the men in my section just outside the Paradiso Cafe when an Officer came up to me and asked if I knew where the sentry was. The signalman with me Sgmn Gaston, had an idea where he might be found.

. . About 30 minutes later another Officer ordered me to go with him into the building opposite the Paradiso to look for a rifle. This I did. The rifle was in the posession of a soldier who gave it up when ordered to do so.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J A Watson Cpl

SIXTH WITNESS B-112156 Sgmn. Gaston, R.H., on the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Sigs states as follows:

I was with Cpl Watson at some time between 1900 hrs and 1930 hrs, 10 Nov 43 when I heard an officer asking if anyone had seen the guard. I told him I had an idea where he might be found.

Question. Had you personally seen the guard.
Answer. No Sir. I had heard some men talking about a guard.
Question. Did you direct the Officer to where the guard was.
Answer. No Sir. He didn't ask me for any more information.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

R Gaston

SEVENTH WITNESS B-73992 Sgt McNally R., on the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Def Coy states as follows:

At approx 2010 hrs on 10-Nov-43, I was informed that two men were required as sentries at A Mess and that the A.D.C. wanted to see me at the gate. I detailed two men and in the company of Cpl Thompson we proceeded to A Mess. The A.D.C. Lieut Hennell ordered me to place the two sentries, one of which I recognize as the accused, under arrest, and to post two new sentries. Both the sentries under arrest were standing to attention. I ordered the accused to surrender his weapon. He had none. The A.D.C. stated that he was in posession of the accused rifle.

In my opinion the accused was unfit for duty owing to being under the influence of liquor. I took both men in arrest back to their billets where they were kept under guard.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

R McNally

EIGHTH WITNESS B-73892 Cpl Thompson, W.G. on the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Def Coy states as follows:

At approx 2010 hrs on 10-Nov-43, I went to A Mess with Sgt McNally and two men to replace two sentries, one of which I recognize as the accused, who had been placed in arrest.

Both the accused and Pte Nesbitt had been drinking and were, in my opinion, unfit to carry on the duties as sentries.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

FIRST WITNESS

Lt KS McARTHUR, 1 CASCRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the QM of 1 CASCRU, and here is a MFM 513A showing a Sten Gun, Number FM36637, as having been issued to one A.87026 Pte DANLUCK S, in Sep 44. The signature of this soldier appears in coln 50 opposite his name. The sheet of this MFM 513A, is Sheet No. 1003.

SECOND WITNESS

H.2504 Sgt GARSIDE F, 5 VRD 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

In Sep 44 I was the Pln Sgt of the s/s det from 1 CCOD and the accused whom I now recognize was in my pln. On or about the 19 Sep 44 a rifle inspection was made by Capt Smith at which time the accused reported to me that there was some trouble with his Sten Gun, I believe the Cocking Handle was damaged, and he was told to take it to the Unit Armourer and have it repaired. The following day there was another rifle inspection and the accused didn't have his Sten Gun repaired as he said there wasn't any Unit Armourer available. The pln later left for France and the accused was still in possession of a defective Sten Gun.

THIRD WITNESS

Lt AW COULTER 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm now Capt Coulter, but I was Lt Coulter in Dec 44 at No. 2 Staging Camp at Doullons, half way between Amiens and Arras. An order was put out in Nov by the O-D 1 CCOD that a Kit Stores would be set up at each Staging Camp. At No. 2 we set aside a special room which was adjoining the Orderly Room and we put a sign outside it, which sign the men had to pass under on their way to eat the Mess Hall, and the sign read "Kit Stores, kit may be checked in here". It was put up to the Offr IC of the pln of men or the NCO IC as to whether they would check their kit or not. At the time the draft was returning to the UK this Kit Stores was still there and this order had never been recinded. The men however came in under a different arrangement when coming back from draft, but I know of no arrangement made by the OC, Lt-col Townsend, to check their kit in this particular room. As far as the offrs were concerned we never mentioned the Kit Stores at all. We assumed that all the men would see the sign or knew why it was there from experience in the past. They all came in, about 600 of them, but I doubt whether the Kit Stores would have held all their kit, and no order was put out by the Offr IC of the Camp to tell them this, and I don't know whether any orders were given by the offrs IC of the draft either. I don't remember seeing the accused.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. In other words the arrangement for convoy personnel was not under your jurisdiction at the time the draft was returning from o/s?
A. No.

Q. If the Kit Stores had been open would it have been possible for the 600 men to store their eqpt there?
A. I doubt it, they would have had to stack it, which would mean mixing them up somewhat. I might add here that all men were CB'd at the time to Camp and it may have been thought not to use the Kit Stores.

Q. What is this document I show you?
A. It's a certified extract from Pt I Orders of O/D 1 CCOD d/14 Oct 44. This is the order that I have been referring to. I would point out now that Convoy personnel differ from draft personnel. Convoy personnel when they leave the Camp take with them only their blankets, as their trip was usually for 6 days. On the other hand the draft personnel had with them all their eqpt. This order refers only to Convoy personnel.

D.91994 A/CQMS MacINNIS RS, 4 WHD, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm the A/CQMS of 4 WHD and I recognize the accused. On 18 Dec 44 I inspected the accused's kit at Borden Camps and I found him to be deficient 1 Sten Gun. I don't now remember the number of it, but the vocabulary price is $3/30, and there is a 10% Administrative charge on top of that.

DEFENCE

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, I will make the statement here that I made at the Summary, that is, I'm not guilty as charged. On returning at No. 2 Staging Camp for embarkation I understood that eds would be posted in rooms occupied and where the eqpt was left. In accordance with instrs I occupied the room alloted to me and laid out my eqpt. We came to this room, there were 22-23 of us, and were told that the room would be a place where we would spend a day or two or a couple of evenings. I laid my eqpt down, including my Sten Gun, in one of the corners, and went to a picture show and when I came back from the show it was gone. I reported it to my Plh Sgt, Sgt Agnew. I didn't hear anything more about it until Jan when I told my CO I didn't have my Sten Gun and I was taken off the draft. I might also say here that there was also another Sten Gun missing that same night as mine went missing. At the time my Sten went missing it still was not repaired.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. I take it you assumed that there were gds posted?
A. Over the eqpt I took it for granted that there would be gds posted, yes, Sir.

Q. Were there any other people in Camp besides CCOD?
A. Not as far as I know. There was the FFI outside the Camp, Sir.

Q. What was your job before this?
A. Operating a mail truck between 1 Bch at Brussels and Antwerp, Sir, until I joined this draft to report to England.

Q. You were aware that there was Kit Stores?
A. I saw the Kit Stores, Sir, but I never used it because I slept in the mail truck with the mail and always kept my eqpt with me.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS

K.73016 Sgt AGNEW RA, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

On 7-8 Dec I was IC of the pln in which the accused, whom I now recognize was a member. On arriving at No. 2 Staging Camp we were posted to our billets, and that night there was a picture show on in the Mess and we went there. I recd no instrs about posting gds over kit. There were approx 28 men in the pln, and I stayed in the same quarters with them, and I did just the same as the rest of them, I put my eqpt at the head of my bed - we were all in one room.

Q. Was there a Kit Stores sign?
A. Yes, I had seen it some 3 wks before but there was nothing stating it WAS for OUR kit, Sir.

Q. Did you see it in operation?
A. No.

Q. Was there any attendant or gd in this Kit Store to your knowledge?
A. No, not to my knowledge, Sir.

Q. Approx how many were on the draft?
A. I couldn't say, but it was quite a large draft.

Q. Would it have been practicable for all the men to turn in their eqpt and take it out again each time they went to any place like the picture show, to mess, etc., and then put it back in this Kit Stores place again?
A. Not in my opinion it wouldn't, Sir, the room wouldn't hold it all anyway, in my opinion.

Q. Did you see any FFI men in the Camp?
A. I saw FFIs within our area, Sir, in the Camp, and they were actually within our lines.

Q. Did you see a gd posted at the bottom of the ramp?
A. No.

Q. What action did you take with regard to the loss of this Sten?
A. I marked it down on a piece of paper when the accused reported it to me, Sir, then went to the Orderly Room, but there was nobody there, and then we left for England next morning and the piece of paper became lost in the scuffle.

THIRD WITNESS

It RP RYAN, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

I am now the Asst Adjt at H.Q. 1 CCOD and when they were returning from o/s I was Offr IC Records and was Adjt of the draft, and I travelled with the draft from Boullens.

Q. Were there any orders issued by the offr IC of the draft as to the storage of kit?
A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Would you have known if there had been?
A. I think I would.

Q. Was anyone put IC of the Kit Stores to operate them?
A. I don't believe there was a Kit Stores for the draft, they were only used for the convoys.

Q. About gds?
A. I believe there was a gd on the gate which was the only entrance to the Camp. The draft however was CB'd, and the gd was there to keep all outsiders out of the Camp.

Q. Were any specific orders issued about posting a gd over the eqpt in the rooms?
A. I think that was left to the judgment of the offr IC of the draft. It wasn't an order that gds be posted.

Q. Were you quite satisfied that the eqpt would be safe in the diff rooms?
A. I'd say it would be safe with regard to the eqpt getting out of the area, but I couldn't go so far as to say it would be safe with regard to other soldiers in camp.

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER ON THE FINDING

It has been brought out that these orders issued about Kit Stores did not apply to the draft returning from o/s. They applied only to Convoy Personnel as it distinctly states in Exhibit 1. The draft was travelling with full eqpt, they were CB'd to Camp, gds were posted, and these orders as to Kit Stores didn't apply. It has also been proven that there were no Kit Stores operating and therefore it was a physical impossibility to check rifles, Sten Guns and other eqpt into these Stores. It was also understood by everyone that eqpt would be left in the billets without a gd and that it would be perfectly safe. The accused was assigned a position in the room, and laid out his eqpt as did all the other personnel, including the Sgt if you will remember. As far as taking eqpt or other stuff with them such as Sten Guns and rifles with them, it was a physical impossibility, to cary such to meals and picture shows, and I think the fact that picture shows were arranged by the Offr IC of the draft would show that he didn't intend the men to carry their eqpt with them. The charge is that the accused lost by neglect this Sten Gun, and the Prosecution must prove the neglect. The accused, as instructed, laid his eqpt out, went to the picture show, and on returning to the room found his Sten Gun gone, and reported it to his Pln NCO. From there on it was the duty of the Pln NCO to report it to someone in authority so that the place could be searched. That this was no done is in way the fault of the accused who has been charged with negligence. Considering the facilities at the Camp and the understanding about gds I maintain that the accused was not in any way negligent and that he by reporting the loss of the gun, done what was required of him.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

The accused was issued with a Sten Gun, and was later found to be deficient of this gun. It might be pointed out from the time that the gun was issued to him it was his reponsibility as a soldier to look after it. During the fracas at Doullons, orders in some instances have proven to be vague, however there WAS a Kit Stores for anyone's use, although it was not a definite order that the Kit Stores be used. It was assumed that gds had been posted not only to keep unauthorized personnel from entering the Camp area, but also make certain that the people in the Camp didn't leave with eqpt which didn't belong to them. This was taken for granted, and there was not anything definite to show that gds had been placed. It was a known fact that unauthorized personnel had been seen in the Camp lines. Regardless of orders being passed down from higher authority to the soldier himself, his knowledge of the people about the country and the fast moving circumstances should have caused him to think firstly about the safety of his eqpt rather than the picture show, and for this reason I consider that the accused was at least partially responsible for the loss of his weapon.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED

I acknowledge receipt of Exhibit

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

A-87026 Pte. Danluck, S., on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas

By Direction of the O.C. Depot Bn, 1 CCOD, RCOC, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution.

Lt.- K.S. McArthur, RCASC, on strength of 1 CASCRU, an Officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"I am Lt.- K.S. McArthur, and am employed as Q.M. at 1 CASCRU. On the 29th Sept 1944, A-87026, Pte. Danluck, S., was issued with a Carbine machine Sten No. FM 36637 on our issue voucher 1003 (513A) for which he signed. According to our records he was S.O.S. this Unit on 20th Sept 44. Authority D.O. Part II, No. 222, at which time he was in possession of this weapon."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

SECOND WITNESS For the Prosecution.

H-2504, Sgt. Garside, F., 5 V.R.D., on strength of 1 C.C.O.D., R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"I, Sgt. Garside, F., was N.C.O. in charge of No. 15 platoon, 1 O.D., 1 C.C.O.D., Pte. Danluck was in my platoon at that time. As the formation of the Overseas Detachment 1 C.C.O.D. personnel from 1 CASCRU transferred to R.C.O.C. under Capt. W.F.R. Smith at Whitley, on 20th September 1944, Capt. Smith called a rifle inspection which was carried out by platoon Officers and N.C.O's, accompanied by Lieut. Parsons W.I., noted that the Sten Gun of Pte. Danluck had a jammed cocking handle, which I pointed out to Lieut. Parsons. He was told to take it to the Armourer for repairs. There being no armourer on duty, he appeared on the final inspection before proceeding Overseas, still in possession of Said Sten Gun.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution.

Lieut. A.W. Coulter, on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D., an Officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"I, Lieut. Coulter, was an Officer stationed at No. 2 Staging Camp, during the period in December 1944, when the Overseas Detachment was returning from France, and was present when the returning advanced party came through. We had been given instructions by Capt. Winters to allocate this draft to suitable sleeping quarters; in the case of the Advance Party it was "G" Block. Heretofore,

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution. (Cont'd)

all convoys staging at our camp had been warned of the existence of a Kit Stores which had been set up on instructions from H.Q., to protect the men from pilferers. This Kit Stores was still in operation at the time this draft went through and all the former N.C.O's and Officers in charge of Convoys were aware of this fact and were supposed to warn their men that if they had an intention of leaving camp to visit Doullons during the evening, they would be wise for their own protection to check their kit into the stores. Pte. Danluck who had been employed on the mail truck, may not have had full knowledge of this ruling and evidently was notinformed by his N.C.O.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution.

D-91994 A/CQMS MacInnis, R.S., on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D. R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

On Kit Inspection performed by me on 18 Dec 44 at 4 V.R.D., Pte. Danluck, S., was found to be deficient one Carbine machine Sten. The price of the Sten as certified by DDOS, C.R.U. is £3-3-0 plus ten per cent administration charges (Six shillings and fourpence making a total of £3-9-4($15.50) in Cdn Funds.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution, the accused elects to make a statement.

The accused, A-87026, Pte. Danluck, S., on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, states as follows:-

"I, Pte. Danluck, S., am not guilty as charged. On returning at No. 2 Staging Camp Doullens for embarkation. I understand that guards would be posted in rooms occupied and where equipment was left. In accordance with instructions, I occupied the room alloted to me and laid out my equipment.

FIRST WITNESS for the Defence

K-73016 Sgt. Agnew, R.A., on strength of 1 C.C.O.D., R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"At Doullons, on 7 and 8 Dec 44, I, Sgt. Agnew, was in charge of a platoon of which Pte, Danluck was a member. The Platoon was part of a draft returning from France. I and my platoon were at No. 2 Staging Camp, Doullons; the two days and nights of 7 and 8 Dec 44, I remember Pte. Danluck reporting to me the loss of his Sten Gun. I know that he had previously been in possession of it at Doullons, as I saw him place it at the head of his bed. I took his name and number which I lost before morning, it being found out after coming back to the room from the pictures, and before I had opportunity of reporting it to the Orderly Room. On returning to England, Pte. Danluck was posted to one of the Sub-Units of 1 C.C.O.D.. No further action was taken by me on my return to England. It was my understanding that guards were posted by No. 2 Staging Camp and therefore I did not detail any men to guard the equipment. I was not aware that there was such place as Kit Stores where we could leave our equipment, in fact we received no instructions concerning it.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of 3 pages(3) was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4(c)(d)(e)(f) and (g) have been complied with.

Prosecution.

First Witness - Lt R.G. Hennell, HQ 1 Cdn Corps, having been duly sworn states:-

At approx 1955 hrs 10 Nov I was called by "A" Mess steward to investigate a disturbance at entrance to "A" mess. I proceeded to the ~~entrance~~ front gate of "A" mess. Upon reaching the sentry posts, I found no sentries. I went onto the road leading in front of "A" mess to Casa Fl Bambara, & as where I found Pte Nesbitt, one of the guards Pte Danks returned ~~to~~ stated to his post, without his rifle. Pte Danks then went to get the Cpl of the guard & returned with a Cpl, who proceeded to ~~supply~~ supply two men for the guard, and place Pte Danks & Pte Nesbitt under arrest. I then proceeded to Casa Fl Bambara with Cpl Watson, R.C.C.S., where I found Pte Danks rifle which was removed in a room on second floor ~~of~~ in which there were soldiers and several civilian females, and some was being served. I took the rifle back to "A" mess. I consider Pte Danks unfit for duty when he returned to ~~duty~~ his post, due to indulgence in alcoholic liquor.

It was the first time I had seen the accused that evening.

By the Court

I ~~when~~ told the accused he was under arrest when the Cpl & Lt Anderson returned.

At 1900 hrs, I heard a shot, but did not take any action. Shortly afterwards, upon information received I went out to sentry post where there was no sign of the accused I went looking for him + ~~found~~ saw him come out of the field known as Casa F. Bambara. When questioned, the accused said he was the sentry. I returned to sentry post with accused. In company with accused I went to find guard commander I ~~met~~ ~~proceeded~~ contacted obtained a N.C.O. from my Coy HQ who put two new sentries on duty, in place of ~~the Banks~~ the accused. It was approx 2 hours when I saw accused leave Casa F. Bambara. I do not believe there was any chance of accused returning to his post between the time we started looking for him and I saw him leaving Casa F. Bambara. Accused ~~was not to much~~ appeared to me to be under the influence of alcohol, as his walk was unsteady & loose, + his speech not as clear as I believe should be from a soldier on duty.

There was wine in the bldgs in which we were working during the day, and we had planned a party for that evening. The accused had I knew that the accused had something to drink during the morning, but I do not know what quantity.

Defence

First witness. B-83573 Pte T. Davis, 1 Can Corps Def Coy having been duly sworn states

At 1200 hrs 10 Nov 43 I was part of a working party cleaning St. Georgio Hotel and Pte Hewlett + I bought three bottles of wine. We started to drink the wine as we were working, until dinner time. After dinner several of our party and myself bought several more bottles of wine and continued to drink the wine as we worked. Sometime around 1800 hrs, Pte Hewlett + myself were detailed by 2 Lt Hunt for the next shift of guard duty. We washed + got ready for our tour of duty. I was feeling the effects of the liquor then, although I endeavoured not to show. I had supper then and was taken to our post by L/Cpl. Bramham. What time details he gave us for our duties, I do not remember.

I did not know I was to go on guard until the afternoon.

I drank over two bottles of wine & prior to the time I was warned for guard. When I went on guard everything was blurred, and my mind was not clear. This was the first guard duty I had done since being in Sicily.

I have never been charged with drunkenness in the Army.

I had the odd drink after being warned for guard + before I was posted to my duty.

I felt drunk when I was warned for guard 825.

Cross Examination

I have been in Hdq. Coy since July 42 and have done one week's guard per month since that time. At the time I was warned on 15th Nov, I did not realize the importance of a guard due to my condition.

There are six ~~#~~ others had as much to drink as I did.

To my knowledge I had nothing to drink after going on guard.

I did not tell any body I was "feeling high", but tried to cover up. I ~~felt~~ made no attempt to try and get excused from guard.

By the Court

I was on the gate at 8 pm and asked to relieve me which I went to toilet in Casa ~~7~~ Barbara I do not remember what I did in the Bldg, how long I was there, or handing my rifle over to any one. I remember an officer asking me if I was the guard.

When I went on guard I ~~did~~ felt that I was not in fit condition to carry out the guard.

It was when I was on my way to the rear that everything went blurred

I had no reason to believe that there was a lavatory in the Casa ~~7~~ Barbara.

2/Lt Hunt in the afternoon. The accused was then quite sober, but in the evening I would say that he had been drunk. I would say that the accused was drunk and unfit for duty.

I took no steps to keep the accused from going on duty, even though drunk, as it is no business of mine as a private soldier.

Summary of evidence in the case of--
B 83573 Pte Danks T
1 Cdn Corps Def Coy, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer has not directed, nor has the accused demanded that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS Lieut R.G.Hennell, On the strength of HQ 1 Cdn Corps, A.D.C to the Corps Commander states as follows;-

At approx 1855 hrs, 10 Nov 43, I was in my room at A Mess with Lieut J.S.Anderson. The Mess Sergeant came in and complained that one of the sentries had discharged his rifle at one of the batmen. With Lieut Anderson I went to the main gate of the Mess and found no sentries. One sentry was located immediately, the other, whom I now recognise as the accused, arrived some 30 mins later at approx 1940 hrs.

He returned to his post with clothing disheveled, minus his rifle and under the influence of intoxicants.

Without being asked he volunteered the information that he had been to the lavatory. I advised him that he was under arrest, ordered him to stand at ease beside his post and asked him no questions. He was later identified as Pte Danks.

After ordering Cpl Thompson to bring new sentries and personnel to take the old sentries (now in arrest) into custody. I left Lieut Anderson with the sentries while I went in search of the missing rifle. I enlisted the aid of Cpl Watson, R.C.C.S. who was standing near-by and entered a building identified as Casa P Bambara from which the accused had been seen to emerge. This building is outside the A Mess enclosure. On the second floor of this building, in a crowded room in which wine was being served to soldiers and civilian females, I found rifle No 24L0084 and a detached magazine charged with five rounds (Rifle and magazine produced and marked Exhibit A). I removed both from the premises and took them to my room. The rifle bore a name tag with "Danks" written thereon. The building in which the rifle was found turned out to be a brothel.

The accused was taken into custody by S/Lt McNally and Cpl Thompson at approx 2030 hrs.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

R G Hennell Lieut

SECOND WITNESS Lieut J.S.Anderson, On the strength of HQ 1 Cdn Corps, A.D.C. to the Corps Commander states as follows.

At approx. 1855 hrs, 10 Nov 43, I accompanied Lieut Hennell to the main gate of A Mess to investigate an alleged disturbance by the sentry i.e. The firing of a rifle at a batman.

While Lieut Hennell interrogated one of the sentries, I set out to locate the other. The second sentry, whom I recognize as the accused came out of a building on the street opposite the Paradiso, minus his rifle at approx 1940 hrs. He began talking to one of the soldiers billeted at the Paradiso. I questioned him as to whether he was the second sentry. He said "Yes" I then ordered him to proceed immediately to the main gate of A Mess to see Lieut Hennell. He attempted to go back into the house to get his rifle but Lieut Hennell ordered him to come directly to the gate.

He was thereupon questioned as to the whereabouts of the Cpl of the guard. He said the guard HQ was located at the Hotel Victoria, but he did not know how to get there. In his conversation with me it was evident the accused was under the influence of alcohol and incapable of carrying out his duties as a sentry but had control of his faculties.

I questioned a carabinier who then took both the accused and myself to the Hotel Victoria where Cpl Thompson was found although no guard commander was available.

I returned with Cpl Thompson and the accused at 1950 hrs to the main gate A Mess.

Cpl Thompson was instructed to obtain replacements for the guard and I went to supper leaving the sentries in arrest with Lieut Hennell. When I returned at 2015 hrs the relief had arrived and both sentries were placed under close arrest.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J.S. Anderson, 2/Lt.

THIRD WITNESS B-95388 Pte Garnham J.G., On the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Def Coy, 2 i/c of the section detailed for guard states as follows.

At approx 1700 hrs, 10 Nov 43, I was detailed by Lieut Lent to see if the two sentries, The Accused and Pte Nesbitt, were getting ready to go on guard at A Mess. Both sentries were ready. I was instructed by Sjt Nokes to post the sentries at A Mess. This I did. Both sentries were quite sober and fit for duty. My instructions as to their duties were clearly understood by both and when I left with the two relieved sentries both the accused and Pte Nesbitt were carrying out their duties in the proper manner.

The duties to which the accused and Pte Nesbitt were assigned were to guard A Mess by one sentry patrolling within the enclosure in which the building - A Mess- is situated and the other standing guard at the main entrance gate to the enclosure.

The building, Casa P Bambera, is a building outside the said enclosure and neither the accused or Pte Nesbitt had any right or occasion to enter this building during their tour of duty at A Mess.

The Accused and Pte Nesbitt were posted shortly after 1700 hrs and their tour of duty was from 1700 hrs until 2100 hrs.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

J.G. Garnham Pte

FOURTH WITNESS B-75359 L/Cpl Laupicks, H.C On the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Def Coy states as follows;

I was in a Cabaret Club in the Casa P Bambara building drinking wine when a soldier who I recognize as the accused asked me to look after his rifle while he went to the lavatory. I took the rifle and put it on the floor beside me. Some time after, probably about five or ten minutes Cpl Watson in the company of Lieut Anderson asked if I had the guards rifle. I replied that I had a rifle but do not know if it belongs to the guard. He ordered me to give it to Lieut Anderson which I did.

Question. In your opinion was Pte Banks under the influence of liquor.

Answer. The meeting was so short that I would be unable to tell. There was nothing in his actions to lead me to believe he had been drinking.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

H. Laupicks, L/Cpl

FIFTH WITNESS K-62346 Cpl Watson J.A., On the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Sigs states as follows:

At approx 1900 hrs 10 Nov 43, I was looking for the men in my section just outside the Paradiso Cafe when an Officer came up to me and asked if I knew where the sentry was. The signalman with me Sgmn Coston, had an idea where he might be found.

. . . About 30 minutes later another Officer ordered me to go with him into the building opposite the Paradiso to look for a rifle. This I did. The rifle was in the posession of a soldier who gave it up when ordered to do so.

I was with Cpl Watson at some time between 1900 hrs and 1930 hrs, 10 Nov 43 when I heard an officer asking if anyone had seen the guard. I told him I had an idea where he might be found.

Question. Had you personally seen the guard.
Answer. No Sir. I had heard some men talking about a guard.
Question. Did you direct the Officer to where the guard was.
Answer. No Sir. He didn't ask me for any more information.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

R Gaston

SEVENTH WITNESS B-73992 Sgt McNally R., on the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Def Coy states as follows:

At approx 2010 hrs on 10-Nov-43, I was informed that two men were required as sentries at A Mess and that the A.D.C. wanted to see me at the gate. I detailed two men and in the company of Cpl Thompson we proceeded to A Mess. The A.D.C. Lieut Hennell ordered me to place the two sentries, one of which I recognize as the accused, under arrest, and to post two new sentries. Both the sentries under arrest were standing to attention. I ordered the accused to surrender his weapon. He had none. The A.D.C. stated that he was in posession of the accused rifle.

In my opinion the accused was unfit for duty owing to being under the influence of liquor. I took both men in arrest back to their billets where they were kept under guard.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

R McNally

EIGTH WITNESS B-73892 Cpl Thompson, W.G. on the strength of 1 Cdn Corps Def Coy states as follows:

At approx 2010 hrs on 10-Nov-43, I went to A Mess with Sgt McNally and two men to replace two sentries, one of which I recognize as the accused, who had been placed in arrest.

Both the accused and Pte Nesbitt had been drinking and were, in my opinion, unfit to carry on the duties as sentries.

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

Lt KS McARTHUR, 1 CASCRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the QM of 1 CASCRU, and here is a MFM 513A showing a Sten Gun, Number FM36637, as having been issued to one A.87026 Pte DANLUCK S, in Sep 44. The signature of this soldier appears in coln 50 opposite his name. The sheet of this MFM 513A, is Sheet No. 1003.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS

H.2504 Sgt GARSIDE F, 5 VRD 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

In Sep 44 I was the Pln Sgt of the s/s det from 1 CCOD and the accused whom I now recognize was in my pln. On or about the 19 Sep 44 a rifle inspection was made by Capt Smith at which time the accused reported to me that there was some trouble with his Sten Gun, I believe the Cocking Handle was damaged, and he was told to take it to the Unit Armourer and have it repaired. The following day there was another rifle inspection and the accused didn't have his Sten Gun repaired as he said there wasn't any Unit Armourer available. The pln later left for France and the accused was still in possession of a defective Sten Gun.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THIRD WITNESS

Lt AW COULTER 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm now Capt Coulter, but I was Lt Coulter in Dec 44 at No. 2 Staging Camp at Doullens, half way between Amiens and Arras. An order was put out in Nov by the O-D 1 CCOD that a Kit Stores would be set up at each Staging Camp. At No. 2 we set aside a special room which was adjoining the Orderly Room and we put a sign outside it, which sign the men had to pass under on their way to eat the Mess Hall, and the sign read "Kit Stores, kit may be checked in here". It was put up to the Offr IC of the pln of men or the NCO IC as to whether they would check their kit or not. At the time the draft was returning to the UK this Kit Stores was still there and this order had never been recinded. The men however came in under a different arrangement when coming back from draft, but I know of no arrangement made by the OC, Lt-col Townsend, to check their kit in this particular room. As far as the offrs were concerned we never mentioned the Kit Stores at all. We assumed that all the men would see the sign or knew why it was there from experience in the past. They all came in, about 600 of them, but I doubt whether the Kit Stores would have held all their kit, and no order was put out by the Offr IC of the Camp to tell them this, and I don't know whether any orders were given by the offrs IC of the draft either. I don't remember seeing the accused.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. In other words the arrangement for convoy personnel was not under your jurisdiction at the time the draft was returning from o/s?
A. No.

Q. If the Kit Stores had been open would it have been possible for the 600 men to store their eqpt there?
A. I doubt it, they would have had to stack it, which would mean mixing them up somewhat. I might add here that all men were CB'd at the time to Camp and it may have been thought not to use the Kit Stores.

Q. What is this document I show you?
A. It's a certified extract from Pt I Orders of O/D 1 CCOD d/14 Oct 44. This is the order that I have been referring to. I would point out now that Convoy personnel differ from draft personnel. Convoy personnel when they leave the Camp take with them only their blankets, as their trip was usually for 6 days. On the other hand the draft personnel had with them all their eqpt. This order refers only to Convoy personnel.

ORDER MARKED EXHIBIT "2".

PROSECUTION WITNESS

D.91994 A/CSMS MacINNIS RS, 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm the A/CSMS of 4 VRD and I recognize the accused. On 18 Dec 44 I inspected the accused's kit at Borden Depts and I found him to be deficient 1 Sten Gun. I don't now remember the number of it, but the vocabulary price is $3/30, and there is a 10% Administrative charge on top of that.

DEFENCE

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, I will make the statement here that I made at the Summary, that is, I'm not guilty as charged. On returning at No. 2 Staging Camp for embarkation I understood that eds would be posted in rooms occupied and where the eqpt was left. In accordance with instrs I occupied the room alloted to me and laid out my eqpt. We came to this room, there were 22-23 of us, and were told that the room would be a place where we would spend a day or two or a couple of evenings. I laid my eqpt down, including my Sten Gun, in one of the corners, and went to a picture show and when I came back from the show it was gone. I reported it to my Pln Sgt, Sgt Arnew. I didn't hear anything more about it until Jan when I told my CO I didn't have my Sten Gun and I was taken off the draft. I might also say here that there was also another Sten Gun missing that same night as mine went missing. At the time my Sten went missing it still was not repaired.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. I take it you assumed that there were gds posted?
A. Over the eqpt I took it for granted that there would be gds posted, yes, Sir.

Q. Were there any other people in Camp besides CCOBR
A. Not as far as I know. There was the FFI outside the Camp, Sir.

Q. What was your job before this?
A. Operating a mail truck between 1 Ech at Brussels and Antwerp, Sir, until I joined this draft to report to England.

Q. You were aware that there was Kit Stores?
A. I saw the Kit Stores, Sir, but I never used it because I slept in the mail truck with the mail and always kept my eqpt with me.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 93(B).

SECOND WITNESS

K.73016 Sgt AGNEW RA, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

On 7-8 Dec I was IC of the pln in which the accused, whom I now recognize was a member. On arriving at No. 2 Staging Camp we were posted to our billets, and that night there was a picture show on in the Mess and we went there. I recd no instrs about posting gds over kit. There were approx 28 men in the pln, and I stayed in the same quarters with them, and I did just the same as the rest of them, I put my eqpt at the head of my bed - we were all in one room.

Q. Was there a Kit Stores sign?
A. Yes, I had seen it some 3 wks before but there was nothing stating it WAS for OUR kit, Sir.

Q. Did you see it in operation?
A. No.

Q. Was there any attendant or gd in this Kit Store to your knowledge?
A. No, not to my knowledge, Sir.

Q. Approx how many were on the draft?
A. I couldn't say, but it was quite a large draft.

Q. Would it have been practicable for all the men to turn in their eqpt and take it out again each time they went to any place like the picture show, to mess, etc., and then put it back in this Kit Stores place again?
A. Not in my opinion it wouldn't, Sir, the room wouldn't hold it all anyway, in my opinion.

Q. Did you see any FFI men in the Camp?
A. I saw FFIs within our area, Sir, in the Camp, and they were actually within our lines.

Q. Did you see a gd posted at the bottom of the ramp?
A. No.

Q. What action did you take with regard to the loss of this Sten?
A. I marked it down on a piece of paper when the accused reported it to me, Sir, then went to the Orderly Room, but there was nobody there, and then we left for England next morning and the piece of paper became lost in the scuffle.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 93(B)

THIRD WITNESS

It RP RYAN, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

I am now the Asst Adjt at HQ 1 CCOD and when they were returning from o/s I was Offr IC Records and was Adjt of the draft, and I travelled with the draft from Doullens.

Q. Were there any orders issued by the offr IC of the draft as to the storage of kit?
A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Would you have known if there had been?
A. I think I would.

Q. Was anyone put IC of the Kit Stores to operate them?
A. I don't believe there was a Kit Stores for the draft, they were only used for the convoys.

Q. About gds?
A. I believe there was a gd on the gate which was the only entrance to the Camp. The draft however was CB'd, and the gd was there to keep all outsiders out of the Camp.

Q. Were any specific orders issued about posting a gd over the eqpt in the rooms?
A. I think that was left to the judgment of the offr IC of the draft. It wasn't an order that gds be posted.

Q. Were you quite satisfied that the eqpt would be safe in the diff rooms?
A. I'd say it would be safe with regard to the eqpt getting out of the area, but I couldn't go so far as to say it would be safe with regard to other soldiers in camp.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 82(3)

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER ON THE FINDING

It has been brought out that these orders issued about Kit Stores did not apply to the draft returning from o/s. They applied only to Convoy Personnel as it distinctly states in Exhibit 1. The draft was travelling with full eqpt, they were CB'd to Camp, gds were posted, and these orders as to Kit Stores didn't apply. It has also been proven that there were no Kit Stores operating and therefore it was a physical impossibility to check rifles, Stem Guns and other eqpt into these Stores. It was also understood by everyone that eqpt would be left in the billets without a gd and that it would be perfectly safe. The accused was assigned a position in the room, and laid out his eqpt as did all the other personnel, including the Sgt if you will remember. As far as taking eqpt or other stuff with them such as Sten Guns and rifles with them, it was a physical impossibility, to cary such to meals and picture shows, and I think the fact that picture shows were arranged by the Offr IC of the draft would show that he didn't intend the men to carry their eqpt with them. The charge is that the accused lost by neglect this Sten Gun, and the Prosecution must prove the neglect. The accused, as instructed, laid his eqpt out, went to the picture show, and on returning to the room found his Sten Gun gone, and reported it to his Pln NCO. From there on it was the duty of the Pln NCO to report it to someone in authority so that the place could be searched. That this was not done is in way the fault of the accused who has been charged with negligence. Considering the facilities at the Camp and the understanding about gds I maintain that the accused was not in any way negligent and that he by reporting the loss of the gun, done what was required of him.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

The accused was issued with a Sten Gun, and was later found to be deficient of this gun. It might be pointed out from the time that the gun was issued to him it was his reponsibility as a soldier to look after it. During the fracas at Doullens, orders in some instances have proven to be vague, however there WAS a Kit Stores for anyone's use, although it was not a definite order that the Kit Stores be used. It was assumed that gds had been posted not only to keep unauthorized personnel from entering the Camp area, but also make certain that the people in the Camp didn't leave with eqpt which didn't belong to them. This was taken for granted, and there was not anything definite to show that gds had been placed. It was a known fact that unauthorized personnel had been seen in the Camp lines. Regardless of orders being passed down from higher authority to the soldier himself, his knowledge of the people about the country and the fast moving circumstances should have caused him to think firstly about the safety of his eqpt rather than the picture show, and for this reason I consider that the accused was at least partially responsible for the loss of his weapon.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED

I acknowledge receipt of Exhibit
1, which I agree to hand to the Adjt to be held by him subject
~~to~~ to further orders.

THIRD WITNESS For the prosecution. (Cont'd)

all convoys staging at our camp had been warned of the existence of a Kit Stores which had been set up on instructions from H.Q., to protect the men from pilferers. This Kit Stores was still in operation at the time this draft went through and all the former N.C.O's and Officers in charge of Convoys were aware of this fact and were supposed to warn their men that if they had an intention of leaving camp to visit Doullons during the evening, they would be wise for their own protection to check their kit into the stores. Pte. Danluck who had been employed on the mail truck, may not have had full knowledge of this ruling and evidently was notinformed by his N.C.O.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

FOURTH WITNESS For the prosecution.

D-91994 A/CQMS MacInnis, R.S., on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D. R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

On Kit Inspection performed by me on 18 Dec 44 at 4 V.R.D., Pte. Danluck, S., was found to be deficient one Carbine machine Sten. The price of the Sten as certified by DDOS, C.R.U. is £3-3-0 plus ten per cent administration charges (Six shillings and fourpence making a total of £3-9-4($15.50) in Cdn Funds.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution, the accused elects to make a statement.

The accused, A-87026, Pte. Danluck, S., on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, states as follows:-

"I, Pte. Danluck, S., am not guilty as charged. On returning at No. 2 Staging Camp Doullens for embarkation. I understand that guards would be posted in rooms occupied and where equipment was left. In accordance with instructions, I occupied the room alloted to me and laid out my equipment.

FIRST WITNESS for the Defence

K-73016 Sgt. Agnew, R.A., on strength of 1 C.C.O.D., R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"At Doullons, on 7 and 8 Dec 44, I, Sgt. Agnew, was in charge of a platoon of which Pte, Danluck was a member. The Platoon was part of a draft returning from France. I and my platoon were at No. 2 Staging Camp, Doullons; the two days and nights of 7 and 8 Dec 44, I remember Pte. Danluck reporting to me the loss of his Sten Gun. I know that he had previously been in possession of it at Doullons, as I saw him place it at the head of his bed. I took his name and number which I lost before morning, it being found out after coming back to the room from the pictures, and before I had opportunity of reporting it to the Orderly Room. On returning to England, Pte. Danluck was posted to one of the Sub-Units of 1 C.C.O.D.. No further action was taken by me on my return to England. It was my understanding that guards were posted by No. 2 Staging Camp and therefore I did not detail any men to guard the equipment. I was not aware that there was such place as Kit Stores where we could leave our equipment, in fact we received no instructions concerning it.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of 3 pages(3) was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4(c)(d)(e)(f) and (g) have been complied with.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution. (Cont'd)

all convoys staging at our camp had been warned of the existence of a Kit Stores which had been set up on instructions from H.Q., to protect the men from pilferers. This Kit Stores was still in operation at the time this draft went through and all the former N.C.O's and Officers in charge of Convoys were aware of this fact and were supposed to warn their men that if they had an intention of leaving camp to visit Doullons during the evening, they would be wise for their own protection to check their kit into the stores. Pte. Danluck who had been employed on the mail truck, may not have had full knowledge of this ruling and evidently was notinformed by his N.C.O.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

FOURTH WITNESS For the prosecution.

D-91994 A/CQMS MacInnis, R.S., on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D. R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

On Kit Inspection performed by me on 18 Dec 44 at 4 V.R.D., Pte. Danluck, S., was found to be deficient one Carbine machine Sten. The price of the Sten as certified by DDOS, C.R.U. is £3-3-0 plus ten per cent administration charges (Six shillings and fourpence making a total of £3-9-4($15.50) in Cdn Funds.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

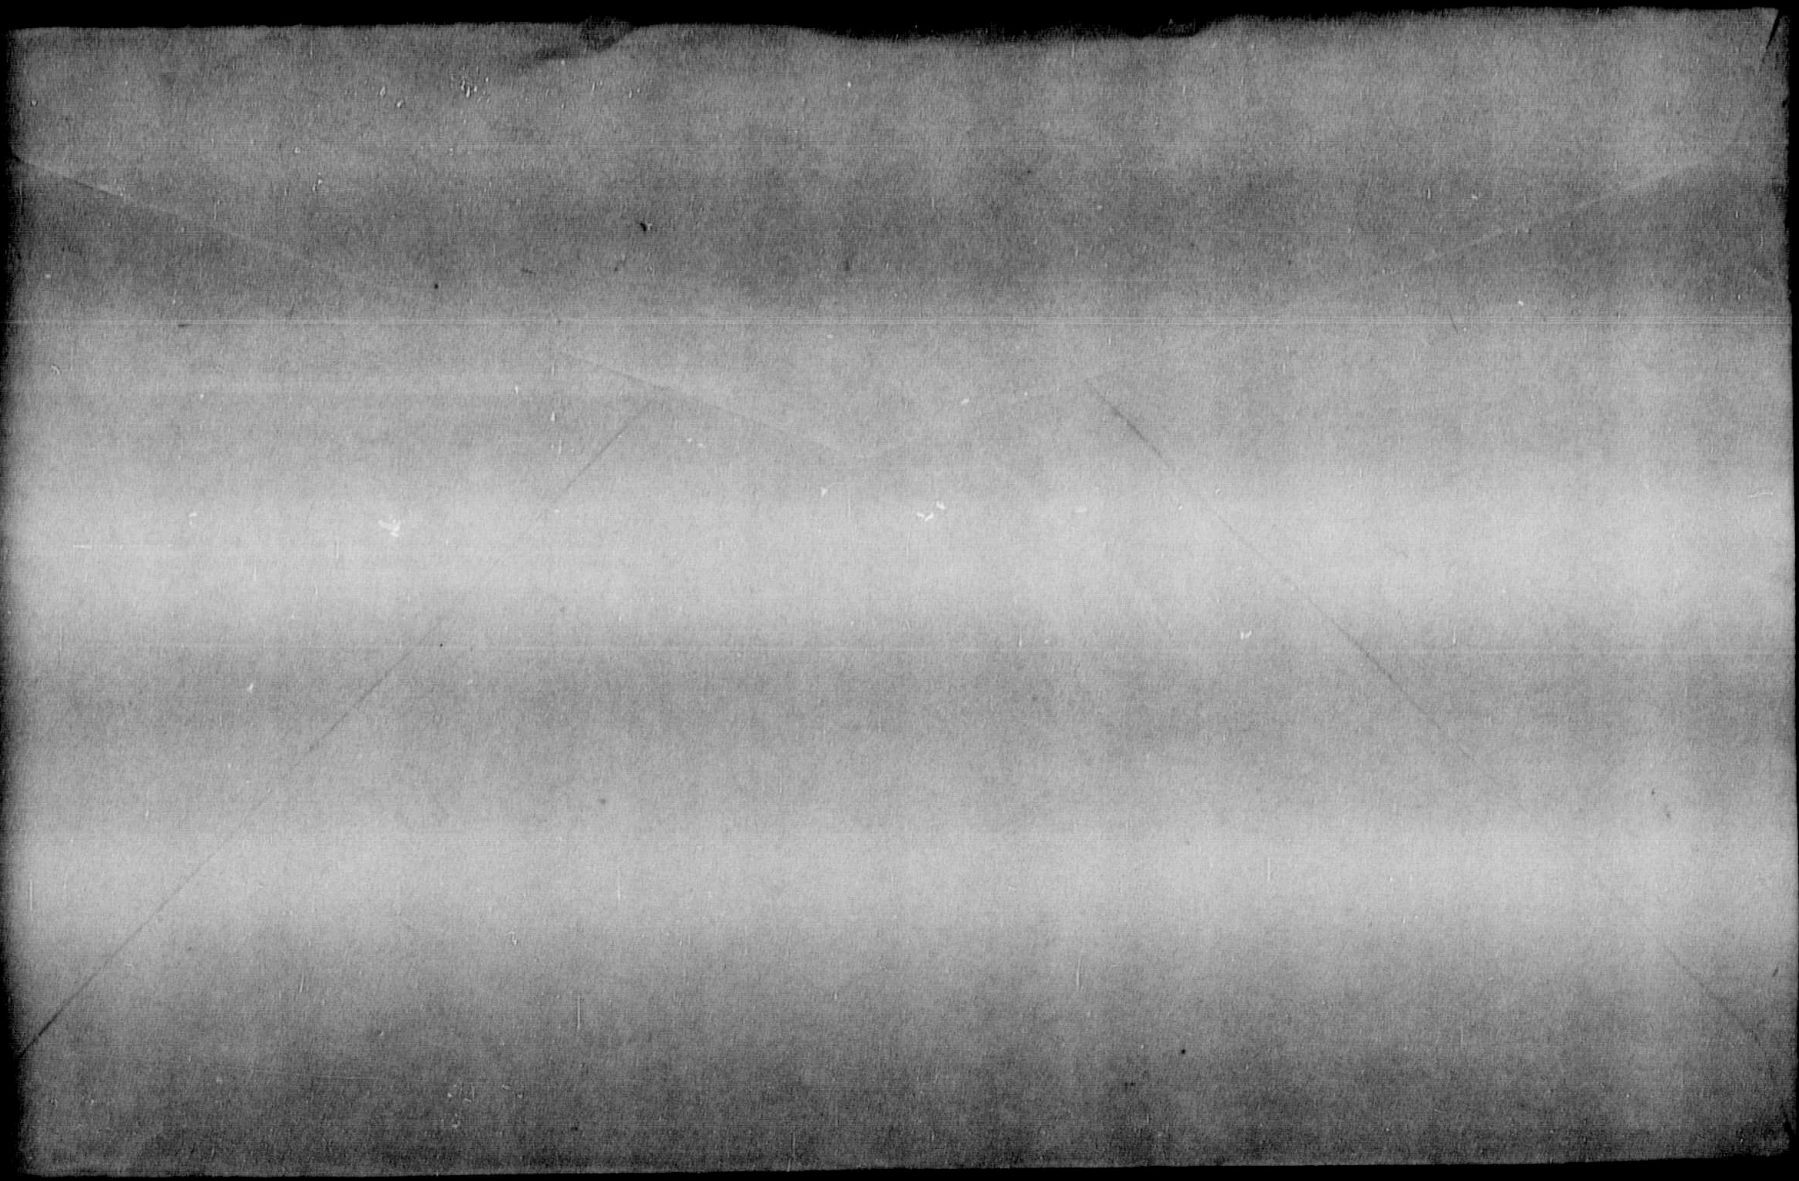
After the above caution, the accused elects to make a statement.

The accused, A-87026, Pte. Danluck, S., on strength of 4 V.R.D., 1 C.C.O.D., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, states as follows:-

"I, Pte. Danluck, S., am not guilty as charged. On returning at No. 2 Staging Camp Doullens for embarkation. I understand that guards would be posted in rooms occupied and where equipment was left. In accordance with instructions, I occupied the room alloted to me and laid out my equipment.

FIRST WITNESS for the Defence

K-73016 Sgt. Agnew, R.A., on strength of 1 C.C.O.D., R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-



"At Doullons, on 7 and 8 Dec 44, I, Sgt. Agnew, was in charge of a platoon of which Pte, Danluck was a member. The Platoon was part of a draft returning from France. I and my platoon were at No. 2 Staging Camp, Doullons; the two days and nights of 7 and 8 Dec 44, I remember Pte. Danluck reporting to me the loss of his Sten Gun. I know that he had previously been in possession of it at Doullons, as I saw him place it at the head of his bed. I took his name and number which I lost before morning, it being found out after coming back to the room from the pictures, and before I had opportunity of reporting it to the Orderly Room. On returning to England, Pte. Danluck was posted to one of the Sub-Units of 1 C.C.O.D.. No further action was taken by me on my return to England. It was my understanding that guards were posted by No. 2 Staging Camp and therefore I did not detail any men to guard the equipment. I was not aware that there was such place as Kit Stores where we could leave our equipment, in fact we received no instructions concerning it.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of 3 pages(3) was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4(c)(d)(e)(f) and (g) have been complied with.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 81.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting as evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 560. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 142 (1) (g) (h).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 119(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 37(D) fn 1 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 37(E). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No Sir.(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) opening address.(1)

If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.*)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Evidence on oath. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. No. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans. .....

(1. AA 54(3) (b), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative procedure is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and must not be used under Record Forms B or C.)

The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(3) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number(s), name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex ..... and Ex ..... respectively. [illegible]

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(E)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 45 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 80(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or J.A. (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 565(a).)

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 567.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 118(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

Argument by defending Officer.

First two charges. It has been admitted by prosecution witness that accused had duties to do and No evidence that ~~he~~ standing orders were generally known.

third charge.

No evidence that C.S.M. St Mark carried out his duties in warning the accused.

By Prosecution

Even if everything is not proved, there is a case.

Major Langlois has produced extracts of Standing Orders and he says he and the C.O. have checked it all of new garrison with them.

1st charge. Accd. has long enough experience to know duty of good N.C.O. & mind and read orders.

2nd charge. Given one main Langlois send accused for specific reason

3rd charge. a good N.C.O. must be prepared at any time & go on active service

~~If called~~ Even if not warned by C.S.M. I send myself at 05.20 I think he had time enough & be ready & move.

EVIDENCE in the case of D-6102 Sjt Daoust A (MM)

The accused having been sworn makes the following statement:

After Dieppe I was made Intelligence Corporal. I tried to get posted to the Field Security Branch, but instead was made I" Sjt under Lt Dextrasse Later on we got a new "IO", I didn't get along very well with him so I asked to be transferred anywhere as I was not satisfied with my work.

The CO then recommended me for OCTU, I told the CO, I was more interested in getting transferred than in an OCTU, but he told me since I more a MM I shouldn't leave the FMR's.

I went before the OCTU selection board and wrote my papers, on returning to the Unit and awaiting the results of the Exam, I proceeded on nine days leave. In the meantime a new "I" Sjt was appointed, and I was not posted, I did not pass the selection board. On returning from my leave I reported to my CSM and my Coy Comd who told me there was nothing for me to do as I was not yet posted. During this time I was only asked to do my turn as Coy Ord Sjt, which I did.

On the 20th Oct 43 I was again before the CO, he asked me if I would like to be "I" Sjt again, I told him I preferred to get my transfer, the CO then assured me if I went to a Rifle Coy for three weeks training and did well I'd be given an opportunity to go Overseas, if I did not do well he'd have me up before the General.

At about 2000 hrs the same day Sjt Beaudette and myself reported to Capt Rousseau to get orders regarding Exercise Prodder which was due to start the following morning, Capt Rousseau stated " I have no orders for you." I went out for the evening. At approximately 0230 hrs 21 Oct 43 I was awakened by Sjt Beaudette who informed me that I was supposed to proceed on the Exercise at 0400 hrs, I explained to Sjt Beaudette that having been on the selection board and on leave I did not have sufficient clean laundry to go on an exercise and that whilst I was on leave my clothes and equipment had been moved from one billet to another and I could not find some of my Sten mags, my water bottle, and my large pack containing my ground sheet, gas cape, etc. Furthermore what equipment I did have was not readily available and I therefore could not possibly be ready to proceed on the exercise in an hour and a half. Capt Rousseau woke me at approximately 0330 hrs and I informed him of the same thing. He then placed me under Close Arrest. He shouted so loud that he woke Sjt Gopeman who was sleeping in the same room as myself. I was left alone from then on. On 22nd Oct 43 I paraded myself before Capt Langlois, there was no charge read to me, he placed me under Open Arrest. From then on I was only called upon to do my turn as Coy Ord Sjt every other day or so, in HQ Coy.

When the Unit returned from Exercise Prodder Capt Thivierge was appointed OC HQ Coy. He did not give me any further duties to perform. On Monday morning after the Exercise 25 Oct 45, no one wakened me until Major Langlois came in our room, at approximately 0840 hrs CSM Gauthier and myself were still in bed and Sjt Copeman had just got up. At approximately 1120 hrs the same morning several of us who were not on duty at the time went to a local restaurant for a cup of coffee, I was not aware that this was contrary to any Unit Standing Order, particularly when I'd often seen our own officers there. Major Langlois came in and took our names. I met Capt Thivierge at Approximately 1400 hrs, he told me to report to him at 1530 hrs, he then told me to do my regular turn as Coy Ord Sjt. On 26th Oct 45 I was paraded before the CO and the charges were read to me, the CO asked me if I'd revert at my own request or be tried by Court Martial, feeling that I had not committed the offences as charged I elected to be tried by Court Martial.

First witness for defence (character)

Capt C.J.R. Langlois, (Pers. M.R.) having been duly sworn, states:

I have known Sgt Daoust since Apr 1942, and have known him better since after the Dieppe raid when I was transferred to the Pers. M.R. I was adjutant at that time and Sgt Daoust was Sgt. Later on I was H.Q. Coy Comd and had Sgt Daoust in my coy. All the time Sgt Daoust was with us, he has been a good N.C.O. and a well disciplined man. From knowledge Sgt Daoust has always done his duties, and as adjutant and coy comd, I have nothing to say against the man or against his work.

Second Witness for the defence

in leaving him own, obtain.

Sgt Daoust has been working under me for approximately eight months, both as a corporal and as a sergeant. I recommended him for his promotion to sgt. I have always been very satisfied with his work. Every time I asked him to do something he would do it. Often Sgt Daoust has told me, when my orders were not clear "sir, explain and tell me exactly what you want me to do".

I know Sgt Daoust always wants to make sure of orders so that he could carry them out properly. I left him in charge of the office for about two weeks. When I came back everything was in perfect condition. I have nothing but praise for the work he did while serving under me.

Third witness for the defence.

Fus. R. R.

Since I have been with the Fus. R.R. I have had occasion to recommend Sgt Daoust, whereas a sgt, about four months ago; for sergeants' stripes. He seemed was attached to the Intelligence Section and a hard worker and a disciplinarian, so a few months ago I recommended him to proceed on selection board for O.C.T.U. a few days after he came back from the Selection Board, I was ordered to parade Sgt Daoust to the C.O. who told him he had failed to pass the board. Afterwards he showed very disappointed at having failed.

The accused asked Col. Gauvreau for his transfer to any other unit & to be sent to Italy. The C.O. said "no" and finally a few days later, I had to parade Sgt Daoust on a charge.

Address in mitigation of punishment. E 3.

By defending Officer.

Refer Sect 6 K. R. (Can) 563 and sec(c)

The accused elects trial by court martial.
Bearing in mind the character evidence, I appeal to court to consider three points

1. What sentence will do the most good?
2. What sentence will prevent this type of misconduct re-occurring?
3. What effect will sentence have on the service?

Speaking for (1) the fact that a conviction will have to appear on the accused at an F.G.C.M. is punishment in itself. I feel confident it has been a punishment to the accused.

Speaking for (2) I submit that the unit itself could make unit orders possibly clearer, and at any rate, pronounce this in a little manner.

On third question, consider an N.C.O. with four and a half years of active service, a man whom the King has seen fit to decorate in his one and only engagement with the enemy, to break a man with this experience owned, without a shade of a doubt, penalize the service.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

CASE OF

D.76446 Tpr DAOUST HP 3 CACRU

CHARACTER WITNESS E-1

M.66547 L/Cpl VANESS, J.P., 3 CACRU, having been duly sworn, states:

The accused in my opinion is a very reliable chap, can be trusted and is a good worker. Ever since he has been in the Gd Room his conduct has been very satisfactory in every way. He has obeyed orders and done everything that was told him.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(8).

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED

The accused, D.76446 Tpr DAOUST, H.P., 3 CACRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I joined the Army in Ber 39, Sir, at the age of 20 and came overseas in Dec 39 with the 3 Bde HQ and since that time I have been batman and waiter in the Offrs Mess. I've never had basic or trades trg and I'm Cat "A". I've had regtl courses and I have had good reports on all of them. ABOUT all these AWL charges on my sheet, I guess I've been fairly young and have not realized the seriousness of going AWL and have carried on in the Army much as I would do if I were in civilian life. The middle of last Jul I was stationed with my unit at Seaford and one pay night I felt very depressed and went to London. There I met a woman at a dance who told me on the way home with her that she was a widow, and when I told her I was on 14 days leave I kept on seeing her everyday. I told her I was in love with her and asked her to come to the Registry Office, but unfortunately we couldn't get married as I had not my COs permission. I went back to the house with her and we pretended we were married where I stayed for 3½ months and her father advised the MP. I got 9 months for that which I served and hoped at the end of it and when I got out to be married to her. However the RC Padre did not think it would be advisable and wouldn't work out, so I went AWL again trying to marry her without permission. She was preganant at that time, however when I saw I couldn't marry her without permission I came back and put in an application. One day in Aug Col Patterson told me my request had been turned down and said I would be sent to another unit and hoped I would do better there. I was sent to 3 CACRU here and shortly after that I went AWL again to ss if I could get married as nobody seemed to do much for me. This is for the offence which I'm now being tried. I heard there was a place in Scotland where I could get married without permission and without a license but apparently they have changed their laws there now, so I returned to London last week where a letter was waiting for her and stating that so long as I remained absent this marriage would not be granted, so I returned. The OC 3 CACRU was very kind to me and told me that under the circumstances there was nothing he could do concerning this marriage, but after I had served my sentence he would do everything he possibly could to further this marriage. I promised I would finish my sentence and try to make something of myself and for my wife and future life.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

(NONE - APT)

Plea in mitigation of punishment

1. The Accused joined the army voluntarily almost immediately after the outbreak of war and shortly afterwards came overseas. He came from a good family in Quebec (his father is a notary and justice of the Peace) and being the youngest in the family, he was accustomed to having what he wanted and getting it easily. Moreover he did not come over with a field unit but with brigade headquarters and practically all of his service has been spent as a waiter in officers' mess. Accordingly he never received that fundamental training & discipline which is so essential if a man is to become a good soldier. He has never even had any taste of trades training. On the first year of his army life he worked well & his crime sheet was clear. Then his troubles began. He began to find his interest & recreation outside of camp and from that time on his crime sheet is a record, not of anything serious but of persistent A.W.L.s which punishment, long terms of detention did not prevent. He just did not take army life seriously & after he was struck off strength last year on one of his holidays without pay. He met a girl. He [illegible] a lot of her & they finally decided to get married

They found this to be impossible without the C.O.'s consent but on their return from the registry office they led everyone to believe they were married & from that time lived together as man & wife
Ultimately of course he was taken back to camp.
On the expiration of his term of detention he went back to this girl. After his return to camp (in July 1945) he learned that this girl would have a baby.
Then for the first time he had to take life seriously. He was aware that people might think he was being "played for a sucker" because the girl had been married before at 16, and was now, at 28, a widow with three young children. So he made enquiries & finally decided that she was genuine & had been faithful to him. He decided he loved her and wanted to marry her. He spoke to the R.C. padre who investigated & made his report to the C.O. Then for the first time the Colonel realized that army life was serious.
The other unfavorable factors might have been overlooked, but his own crime sheet was such that the C.O. felt he was not responsible enough to become head of a family & refused permission to marry. The Colonel for the first time began to realize that he could not escape from the consequences of his own actions, and that these consequences could seriously hurt him. He wanted nothing so much as to marry this girl & have his child bear his name and he was prevented from doing this by the consequences of his own conduct. From that time on his crime sheet is a record of unauthorized trips around the country in an attempt to find some registry office where he could get married - but with no success. Ultimately he was transferred to a new unit - 3 C A C R V. He arrived here, deserted his unit and was off again on this quest for some place to get married without the parents' permission. This time his search took him to Yreka, only to learn that reformed marriages had been outlawed several years ago. He returned to the girl who persuaded him that it was impossible to evade the army regulations & to return to camp & proceed through the regular channels. So he returned to C A C R V & voluntarily surrendered to the Provost Later when he came before the officer commanding Hholding Wing he told his story He was told that when he had proved his detention if he could prove that his attitude had changed & that he could become a good soldier, his application to marry would be reconsidered. I for Daoust said he would do anything for that chance. I spoke to the R/C padre who told me that though he could say nothing in favour of Pte Daoust from the point of view of military efficiency, nevertheless he was truthful & honest & bore no resentment even though he knew that the padre had opposed his marriage application. The corporal at the guard house told me that Pte Daoust is a cheerful & willing worker. These qualities are the basis of good soldiering. What Pte Daoust has lacked is a proper appreciation of the seriousness & purpose of army life & I think his attitude has changed now after his recent experiences. He realizes that he is at dead bottom, he has reached the end of his rope. He may be able to climb back up that rope. It will be hard, but O.C. Holding Wing of his new unit is willing to give him that chance after his return from this detention. If he fails to ~~make good~~ he will be ~~dealt with accordingly~~. Then next time he comes up on charge the unit will know how to treat him. Pte. Daoust ~~admits~~ says that he is eager to take his part in the war. He enlisted in 1939 for that purpose. Since that time he has strayed far from that path. In view of the facts I have set out I ask the court to give him this last chance, to make his sentence brief so that at the earliest possible moment he can come back to the unit, be trained, take his fair share in the war and redeem himself in the eyes of his family, the girl whom he proposes to marry, the army.

Statement in Mitigation of Punishment

by D76446 Pte L'Amant, H.R. R.M.R. (MG)

I enlisted on Sept 26th 1939. I came across with 3rd Bde. H.Q. as a batman to the staff capt. since that time I have never been with my unit and from the date of my enlistment until the present (almost 3 years) I have had no real training as how I was to go to the field.

This does not excuse my actions, I know, but as a consequence of being always at a H.Q. as a waiter, batman, or sanitary man, it prevented me from really getting to know an officer who might help me if I was in trouble.

On this particular occasion, I was involved with a woman in London who had some letters of mine which she had refused to return to me. I went to London on 48 hours leave in order to straighten out my difficulties but got so tangled up in the affair that I felt as if I might get into a lot of trouble if I did not get those letters.

It was while there was going on that

Ex 6

Signature

I felt as if I could not carry on, and I stayed two, hoping the mouth would clear up. I have not yet got the letters from her, but since my return I have had some advice from an officer and it does not worry me any more.

Summary of evidence in the case of D-76446, Pte. Daoust, H.P. Royal Montreal Regiment on strength of #1 Canadian Machine Gun Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer evidence is NOT taken under oath.

For the Prosecution

D-76778 L/Sgt. Faubert, E.N. Royal Montreal Regiment on strength of #1 Canadian Machine Gun Reinforcement Unit states:

"At Liepzig Barracks on the 7 AUG. 42. in my capacity as orderly sergeant of the R.M.R. Coy., I went to the Guard Room at approximately 0800 hrs. to pick up the pass of the accused who had been on 48 hours leaveexpiring at 0800 hours, 7 AUG. 42. I found that the accused had not reported back. Since that time the accused did not answer any roll calls until I handed over my duties as orderly sergeant to Sergeant Mort, W. on the 3 SEP. 42. On the 10 SEP. 42 I again took over as orderly sergeant. I did not see the accused until he was returned to the Unit under escort on the 11 SEP. 42."

PBEA IN MITIGATION

B-133038 Tpr. Davis A.H.

MILITARY HISTORY

Enlisted 16 Sept. 42.
Qualified as Driver Op. Gp. "C" in Canada 17 Feb. 43.
Arrived Overseas 11 June 43.
Granted Trades Pay as Op. CAC 23 Aug. 43.
Posted to the 7th Recce Regt. 23 Sept. 43.
Returned to No.1 C.A.C.R.U. for a 2 week gunnery course 18 Oct. 43. Qualified.
Again returned to No.1 C.A.C.R.U. 17 Apr. 44 for an operators refresher course.
Arrived in France with the 7th Recce Regt. 11 June. 44.
To Hospital in France 12 July 44.
Transferred to 22nd General Hos. 17 July 44.
No.1 Neurological Hospital 20 July 44 and discharged to No.1 CpA.C.R.U. 29 July 44.

I will deal with Tpr. Davis conduct sheet in a moment.

The accused served for 31 days in France and was in action the whole time with very little rest. He then collapsed and remembers nothing until he woke up in hospital. The cause was apparently an 88mm shell exploding rather close. He received slight wounds in the leg and arm. His category was A-1 until his discharge from No.1 Neuro. as Category B-3.

Prior to this his career was excellant. He qualified as a driver Operator in Canada and was returned to No.1 C.A.C.R.U. from his Regt on a gunnery course and a refresher in wireless whilst over here.. This would never have happened if his superiors did not think he had the necessary qualifications. On his arrival in France he was able to take an any job in an armoured car if necessary.

His trouble begins after he became a casualty and his discharge from hospital. As is shown there are no entries on his conduct sheet except an entry during his first six months of service.

Four weeks after leaving hospital he was improperly dressed outside barracks for which he received 3 days C.B. Just under 3 weeks later he went absent (and I do not believe the 3 days C.B. was responsible) and remained so until apprehended by the civil authorities.

During his absence he was not alone but with another soldier who was also A.W.L. This other person seems to have exerted some influence over Tpr. Davis as they were together the whole time. The civil authorities come into the picture when robbery was committed.

When I asked Tpr. Davis why he went A.W.L. his reply was that he did not know. Apparently Women, money, or even a fed up attitude was not responsible. He just didn't seem to care and was just drifting. Probably would have continued to drift from place to place(as his wanderings included a hitch hike to Scotland and back ~~to where he was apprehended~~) indefinitely were he not picked up. It may be that if he found himself near No.1 CpA.C.R.U. or any other unit he may have given himself up. He seems to have been a victim of lethargy or absent-mindedness. His conversation is erratic and he seems to find it difficult to concentrate and is also subject to periods of forgetfulness.

In the case of the housebreaking the civil authorities do not

His trouble begins after he became a casualty and his discharge from hospital. As is shown there are no entries on his conduct sheet except an entry during his first six months of service.

Four weeks after leaving hospital he was improperly dressed outside barracks for which he received 3 days C.B. Just under 3 weeks later he went absent (and I do not believe the 3 days C.B. was responsible) and remained so until apprehended by the civil authorities.

During his absence he was not alone but with another soldier who was also A.W.L. This other person seems to have exerted some influence over Tpr. Davis as they were together the whole time. The civil authorities come into the picture when robbery was committed.

When I asked Tpr. Davis why he went A.W.L. his reply was that he did not know. Apparently Women, money, or even a fed up attitude was not responsible. He just didn't seem to care and was just drifting. Probably would have continued to drift from place to place(as his wanderings included a hitch hike to Scotland and back. ~~to where he was apprehended~~) indefinitely were he not picked up. It may be that if he found himself near No.1 CgA.C.R.U. or any other unit he may have given himself up. He seems to have been a victim of lethargy or absent-mindedness. His conversation is erratic and he seems to find it difficult to concentrate and is also subject to periods of forgetfulness.

In the case of the housebreaking the civil authorities do not appear to have been as certain of Tpr. Davis being as guilty as the other soldier, who received a gaol term, and the accused a suspended sentence. This argues that he has not turned criminal but was just in bad company, and that it was unfortunate that he became friends with the wrong person.

Tpr. Davis'history prior to his becoming a casualty in France is in direct dontrast to his conduct and attitude after and I believe that it was his period in action and is his becoming a casualty that is responsible for his present plight and that he himself is not responsible for his actions.

This is also borne out by the fact that his category was lowered from A-1 to Stability 3. There are no medical documents pertaining to Tpr. Davis at No.1 C.A.C.R.U. and I must opoligize to the court for not being able to obtain them as they could possibley shed further light on the situation. I did not have time to go to the hospital and obtain them.
Also Tpr. Davis was not in any one Sqn of No.1 C.A.C.R.U. long enough after his hospitalization for anyone to form an opinion of his work.

(If admissable read the report of th P.S.O.).
This is of course and interview he had with the Tpr. Davis and is not backed up by documentary evidence.

Tpr. Davis may in time again become an efficient soldier as he was prior to becoming a casualty in action and the difference in his conduct before and after is so great that I would respectfully ask the court to take an extremly lenient view of this case.

Respectfully submitted,

Lt. Lambley

PULHEMS
21 1111113 27 July 44.

Interview of P.S.O. with Tpr. Davis 7 Sept. 44.

Went to France with the 7th Recce as Oper CAC on D plus 5. Was evacuated D plus 36 after collapse. An 88 mm shell landed close by and he sufiered slight shrapnel wounds in leg and arm. He doesn't remember anything until waking up in hospital 7 days later.

3. Since coming to this unit, he has been employed as a batman. So far he has been able to carry out his duties fairly satisfactorily but says he can't stand it much longer.

4. He is very nervous especially at night. He is afraid of "Buzz Bombs" and even the sound of Rifle fire from the range bothers him.

5. Although he has been able to carry out his duties as batman, it is very doubtful if he can be employed on that work much longer. There is no suitable employment for which he can be recommended.

6. It is suggested that he be considered for a further lowering of "S" rating.

First witness for prosecution. Lieut. T. L. Carter, 8th Fd. Battery, 2nd Fd. Reg't. R.C.A.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q-1 You are an Officer of the 8th Fd. Battery, 2nd Fd. Reg't. R.C.A.?
A-1 Yes sir.

Q-2 What were your duties on the night 16/17 Nov 41?
A-2 I was Orderly Officer of the 8th Fd. Battery.

Q-3 Will you tell the Court, in your own words, leaving out hearsay and anything irrevelent to the facts, what transpired during the night 16/17 Nov 41.?
A-3 At about 0130 hrs, early in the morning of 17 Nov. I entered the 8th Battery W/Ls to inspect them. I visited, first the "C" Tp Lines and there I was challenged by Gnr. Bell. I next visited the Bty H.Q. lines and was not challenged. I looked around the B.H.Q. lines for a few minutes and went on to the Gardhouse. At the Guardhouse I called out Bdr. Ingram who was A/Guard Comd. and together we went to the "D" Tp Lines where we were challenged by the two sentries. We went across to the "C" Tp Lines where we were challenged by Gnr, Bell. We then went to the Bty HQ lines and conducted a thorough search of the vicinity. We went to the sentry at the main gate to find out if he had seen the Bty HQ sentry. Q-69 Do you take them out together?
A-69 No sir, I take them out to H.Q. lines and tell the men their particular post, one man to HQ Lines, one man to "C"Tp lines one on the Gate. When I get back "D" Tp has usually been changed as when I leave the Guardroom I tell them where to go, "D" tp lines being near the Guardroom

Q-70 You realise that Gnr. Daoust is charged with a serious charge and you also realise the value of an oath. Consider very carefully. Please go over that again?
A-70 Yes sir. Two were taken to Bty H.Q. Lines.

Q-71 Why two?
A-71 You walk from H.Q. Lines to get to "C" Tp Lines. I sent one to "C" Tp lines and leave the other oneand tell them where they are supposed to be and bring back the other two having been relieved. By that time "D" troop is changed, it usually changes itself, and generally I go out and see if "D" Tp lines are O.K.

Q-72 What do you mean ?
A-72 Just to check on "D" Tp lines sir.

Q-73 Are they marched there by any word of command?
A-73 No sir, there is no formality. We just went out there, it is pretty muddy and we have no lights. We just feel our way.

A-75 That their area of duty would be either "C", "D" or "HQ" Tps or the gate

Q-76 Is there any more complete description of the area?
A-76 No sir.

Q-77 Are any instructions given as to the actual duties of the sentry?
A-77 They are supposed to be read out every night by the O.C. on duty.

Q-78 Read out when?
A-78 When the Guard is being mounted.

Q-79 Where you present on this particular night when it was read out?

A-80 In front of the Bty Office.

Q-81 May it sometimes be read by the Guardhouse.?
A-81 It could be but I have never heard it.

Q-82 You have never heard it read out at the Guardhouse?
A-82 No sir. Any time I have mounted Guard but this once, it is read in front of the Battery Office. This particular night it was raining very hard when we were mounted.

Q-84 In these instructions to Sentries is there anything set out as to the particular areas in which the particular sentries prowl.?
A-84 I cann recall sir.

Q-85 When one sentry takes over a post from another, you say it is done informally, is the drill, as laid down in Pamphlet A for Sentries, carried out. Do you know what I mean?
A-85 No sir.

Q-86 I have here Manual of Drill. I would refer you to page 77 chapter 6 Sec., 80 (Read to the Court) On this particular night, 16/17 Nov was that done.?
A-86 Only the fact that he had "C" or "D" Tp lines to perform. Just a matter of going in the dark and trying to find the other sentry. We generally shout so the another man knows his relief is coming.

Q-189 As far as you are aware, nothing was said about his post in your hearing?
A-189 I was told to go to "C" Tp and he was told to go to HQ Lines.

Q-190 Be very careful. Gnr. Daoust is on a serious charge and I want you to be very careful what you say. Did Bdr. Trites tell Gnr. Daoust in your hearing where he was to go or what his post consisted of?
A-190 I could not be exactly sure, I think he did but I am not certain.

Q-191 As far as you know were any instructions given to the Guard at any time from the time it was mounted and during the night regarding beats, posts and challenges?
A-191- Yes sir. Bdr. Trites spoke to Gnr. Daoust. I heard him tell him to be careful and keep alert.

Q-192 Did he mention beats at that time?
A-192 He said to stay on your beat.

JOAC

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION

Gentlemen, the evidence which I have endeavoured to bring out today, I hope, has properly impressed the court that Gnr. Dacust is guilty of leaving a post entrusted to him by, shall we say, the Canadian Army. He was a member of a Guard whose duty it was to guard thousands of dollars worth of vehicles and equipment, things we know are very hard to get at this time, almost to the point of an impossibility.

His duties and his post were definitely shown to him. The post was there, perhaps I have not been able to bring it out in actual boundries but I know the Court will use their military knowledge as to whether there was a post there or otherwise.

His duties were explained to him by the Guard Comd.

Between the hours of 0130 and 0200 he was not on that post. The Orderly Officer walked into the lines and started a vehicle. It might have been one of our enemies or a dozen of our enemies driving this vehicle out of that park.

One witness showed that he took no notice when he heard the sound of a motor because he knew there was a guard in that park. Unfortunately there wasn't.

The accused was found in his billet at No. 9 Palace Green at approximately 0230 hrs. undressed and in bed. If all guards did this then we are not required in the duty we are trying to perform.

JCHC

CLOSING ADDRESS FOR THE DEFENCE.

I am aware, sir, that the Court is fully cognizant of the heavy responsibility that rests upon them in this case. You are faced with a man on a very serious charge, punishable under the Army Act by penal servitude, when on active service, and, as I say, the case is one of a very serious nature and the Court should, more fully than ordinarily , bear this in mind and deal solely with the evidence and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the law as laid down in the Army Acts. I know they will do that but I just thought I would say it because of the very serious nature of this case.

I am not happy about the charge to begin with. I do not think the charge is well drawn in law. This may not be the right time to bring this up but I want to draw that to the attention of the Court. It is under Sec., 6 (2h) AA (The charge is read to the Court) I think the charge is to vague. It says "in the 8th Bty W/Las" The alleged posting which the Crown endeavours to make out is in the Bty H.Q. Lines of the 8th Fd. Bty. W/Ls. In that regard I draw the attention of the Court to the footnote on page 430 M.M.L. last paragreph of footnote 2 (read to the Court) The charge states the 8th Bty Wagon Lines. I submit it is too vague and the charge for that reason is bad. However be that as it may, I put that in as additional grounds for the defence.

The main ground for defence is obvious, and as I submit, is well founded. It is that the accused was never posted as a sentry as alleged by the Crown and not having been posted as a sentry he could not be guilty of having left his post.

In the first place, I would submit to the Court that it is essential for the Prosecution to prove that the accused was posted as a sentry. That is essential under the charge and under the law in the footnote 7 sec. 6 page 430 M.M.L. (read to the Court)

It is my submission and it is perfectly clear that the footnote I have just read is one that fits this case. It is always necessary to prove that he was properly posted. If that meaning is not given there can be no meaning to these words in the footnote at all. The second sentance "When he leaves his post and so commits an offence it is necessary to prove that he was regularly posted" exactly fits this case. Now examine the charge itself "Having been posted as a sentry in the 8th Bty, left his post","Having been posted" is a material part of the charge and if it is not proved, as I submit it is not, then the whole charge falls to the ground and quite reasonably and naturally so. In law you cannot have a man charged as a sentry unless properly posted and put on duty.

In this respect I want to refer to the evidence as to why I submit the accused never was properly posted within the meaning of what we call posting in the army. As I recall the evidence, and I do so correctly I think, the N.C.O. apparently went with him and Gnr. Bell to "C" Tp Lines, part way out to a road. Bell was apparently told that he was to go to "C" Tp Lines. Just what Dacust's instructions, I submit, the evidence has not cleared. At the sametime two men from the Guard went out to "D" Tp Lines and apparantly went on duty themselves. In the case of the accused, it is quite clear on the evidence before the Court that the NCO did not accompany him to the alleged place of his post or beat. The man went there himself, the man he relieved there subsequently coming back I believe, but the NCO did not go to the post or beat and I submit that on that fact there is no posting as there should be under the A.A.

Following that there was no proper exchange of sentries. Bell was to go to "C" Tp lines and find from the evidence that this man was to go to the HQ lines. There was no definition as to what HQ lines meant. It may be said the Bty has been in this vicinity for some time and it should be well known what HQ Lines are but that is no proper answer because when posting a sentry, each time it should be designated to him just what his post isto be otherwise you have nothing definite enough to make a post, just a case of going out there to the W/Ls. I submit that that is not sufficient under conditions of service which sentries were at that time carrying on in the 8th Bty W/Ls.

In that respect I might refer the Court to Exhibit "C" para 4 (e) (Read to the Court) It calls for a prowl of two men on the "C" Tp and "HQ" Lines at night. that is the order yet we have evidence saying there was an area in the H.Q. Lines and an area in the "C" Tp Lines also that two men went to "D" Tp Lines and a man at the gate. I submit that the order groups HQ and "C" Tp at night. As to just what consists thi area, where they together or were they separate. From the evidence of the Crown, these two particular places were separated for duty. Para 4(e) certainly groups "C" Tp and Bty H together therefore making it necessary to tell each man just what particular beat he is to cover.

Furthermore I would draw to the attention of the Court that ther were no definite orders to the sentries in respect to these areas. All that that orders says is the HQ and "C" Tp lines and there was no subsequent order defining clear enough ~~kkk~~ to a sentry what part of the lines he should take over. As an element of posting, it is necessary to have definite information and not a definition of "C" Tp or Bty HQ lines and nothing more.

No more orders were given by the NCO . The Crown produced no evidence of further orders in the Guard house or of being read to the Guard that day. in fact the evidence was that it was not read to the Guard that day and one witness did not know if it had been seen in the guardroom that night. The crown must establish that.

I submit that taking these essentials of a posting it cannot be said there was a posting of the accused to that particular area or beat, I submit that, under these conditions, the N.C.O. should go with the sentry to his beat that he should see the two sentries exchange there should be some more definite definition of the beat to be covered and there should be some definite orders to the sentry with reference to covering the beat. I take these as the four essential points of posting. First that he go to the post, secondly exchange of sentries, thirdly that there be definite area for the sentry and fourthly that there be orders as to how he is to patrol that area and deal with anyone coming in. These essentials are necessary and I submit that in the present case not one of them was followed as they ought to be. I realise on Overseas Service that you may post in an informal manner but I do say that even so one has to have the essentials. The crown has failed to prove that these were carried out, hence the charge of the crown fails.

As the Court well knows, one of the fundimentals of the English Law is the doctrine of "Reasonable Doubt based on the presumption of innocence" and the matter of posting in this case as shown in the evidence and just from the evidence as to the point of posting I do submit must raise a doubt in the mind of the court. That doctrine is simply this, that if the Court, looking on the evidence as a whole is of a reasonable dount mr in their minds as to the guilt of the accused then it is their duty under English Law to acquit the accused. The obligation is on the Crown to prios their case to the hilt and if they do not do so and leave a dount then under this law it is the duty of the Court to acquit I would refer the Court to page 58 chapter 5 para 57 (read) also page 647, footnote of R.P. 43 (read) So I say that certainly on this matter of the posting there must be a reasonable doubt in the mind of the Court.

Closing address for the Defence (contd)

I do not wish to continue any longer, I know the Court is aware of the obligation upon them and is aware of the arguments presented by both sides. I know that this is a military court, that the man is charged with having left his sentry post, but I want, once again in conclusion to remind the Court that this in not only a case of Gnr. Daoust that is being judged but there is their duty to their principals of English Law under which they are constituted and by which they must decide their case. Whether it is a case of Smith, Jones or Brown, over and above that case is an ideal standing by way of the principals of English law and no matter of the individual judgment in any one case, the principals of law must be safely preserved and kept intact. Bad cases sometimes make good law and brings out the difference between the English and the Nazi law. There is no saving of principals in the Nazi law as they have not the principals as we have. In this case there is a strong principal to be upheld and the Court, being cognizant of this, should bring in a verdict of not guilty.

IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

There are some facts which I submit to the Court before the passing of sentence. The accused enlisted on the 13/9/39 with two brothers. He went to Edmonton and broke his leg and was laid up for a while. When he was well again his unit had left so he went to a military Depot in Calgary then to Kingston and Petawawa and came over as a reinforcement in Sept. 40 and about three months later he came to the 2nd Fd. Regt. and since being here as done cooking. He is married and has two children. One of his brothers is overseas in England the other being sent home to Canada because of illness and he has anotherbrother in the Army in Canada. When the Court is passing sentence I submit they should take into consideration something that to me is quite obvious, that the accused did not realise the seriousness of the offence when he walked off that guard and went back to his billet and went to sleep. It is a serious offence and the accused could not, and did not realise the seriousness of it. He was ill at the time. Admitted that is no excuse, he should have reported sick but the fact remains that he was not feeling well at the time. I submit that the Court should take into consideration that he volunteered early in the war, he has other members of his family in the army and he did not realise the gravity of the offence he committed.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
in the case of

K-5064, GNR. DAOUST , V.J.J., 8th Cdn Fd. Battery, 2nd Field Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery.

By Order of the Commanding Officer, Lieut-Col., C. E. de Pencier, the evidence is taken under oath.

Lieut. T. L. Carter, 8th Fd. Battery, 2nd Fd. Reg't., R.C.A., being duly sworn, states;

"" On 17-Nov-41 at approximately 0130 hrs as Bty Orderly Officer I entered the 8th Bty Wagon Lines to inspect them. I entered near the "C" Tp Lines and was soon challenged by the sentry, Gnr. Bell. I went to the Bty H.Q. Lines, got into "K" Truck, and started the motor several times. After looking around I saw no sentry in Bty H.Q. Lines where one should be posted. I then went to the Guard Room and called out Bdr. Ingram, the A/Guard Commander, Together we visited "D" Tp Lines and were challenged by the sentries there. We then visited "C" Tp lines, were challenged by Gnr. Bell, and went on to Bty H.Q. Lines to make a thorough search for the sentry. Bdr. Ingram told me that Gnr. Daoust had been posted as sentry in Bty H.Q. Lines at 2400 hrs. We looked in every vehicle in Bty H.Q. Lines and made a thorough search of the area. About this time the clock at Addington struck two. Bdr. Ingram and I returned to the Guard House and looked there for Gnr. Daoust. Bdr. Ingram woke up the sentries to go on duty at 0200 hrs. After a further visit to Bty H.Q. Lines we returned to the Guard House and Bdr. Ingram woke Bdr. Trites, the Guard Commander. Bdr. Ingram and I then went to the billets, Gnr. Daoust not having been found up to this time. In Gnr. Daoust's billet, No. 9 Palace Green, we found him asleep at approximately 0230 hrs. I placed him under close arrest and returned with Bdr. Ingram and him to the Guard House. ""

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

T. L. Carter, Lieut.

G-7029 BDR. INGRAM, A.G., 8th Fd. Battery, 2nd Fd. Reg't. R.C.A. being duly sworn, states;

"" I was 2-i/c Guard at the 8th Bty W/Ls during the night 16/17-Nov-41. At exactly 0140 hrs on the night 16/17 Nov 41, the Bty Orderly Officer, Lieut. T. L. Carter came to me in the Guardroom and asked me to check "D" Tp Lines with him. We proceeded to "D" Tp lines and were challenged properly and found everything alright. We then proceeded to "C" Tp Lines and were challenged properly there and found everything in order. We walked down from "C" Tp Lines through Bty H.Q. Lines, Not receiving a challenge, we made a search for Gnr. Daoust who was mounted on this post at Midnight, 16/17-Nov-41. We then visited the Guardroom and made a thorough search there. Then I woke Bdr. Trites who was i/c Guard. He said to go up and check the Billets. Lieut. Carter and myself, at approximately 0230 hrs 17-Nov-41 found Gnr. Daoust asleep in his billet at No. 9 Palace Green. Mr. Carter immediately put him under close arrest. We then proceeded to the Guard Room. ""

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Bdr. Ingram

G-7070, BDR. TRITES, L.C., 8th Fd. Battery, 2nd Fd. Reg't. R.C.A., being duly sworn, states;

"" I was N.C.O. i/c 8th Bty Wagon Line Guard night 16/17 Nov 41. Gnr. Daoust was a member of the Guard and was mounted by me at midnight, 16/17 Nov 41 over Bty H.Q. W/Ls. His tour of duty was from midnight, 16/17 Nov 41 to 0200 hrs 17 Nov 41. After mounting the midnight guard, I returned to the Guardroom. I turned the Guard over to Bdr. B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35(A) fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. YES .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.) Adjourned for 24 hrs.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Q 2. Yes – I can identify these documents as:

(A) MBM 1 Pte of the accused, whom I recognize, covering the period 28 Mar 43 to 31 Jul 43. (marked Exhibit A initialled by President and entered)

(B) MBM 1 Pte of the accused covering the period 1 Aug 43 to 31 Dec 43. (marked exhibit B, initialled by President and entered)

Q 3. Was there any large withdrawal of money by the accused after he was issued with a new paybook?

A 3. Yes. He (the accused) was paid the sum of £13-0-0.

Q 4. Why was the accused issued with a new paybook?

A 4. Because the previous one was turned in for audit.

Q 5. If the accused's balance had been entered in the new (current) paybook according to the observations in the Treasury Verification (Ex C) could the accused have made this large withdrawal?

A 5. No. His maximum withdrawal would have been £3-0-0.

Q 6. Is not £13-0-0 a high withdrawal for a Soldier to make if he is not going on leave?

Defending Offr objects.

Objection over-ruled by the Court.

A 6. Yes it is a large withdrawal.

Q 7. Are any of the figures in paybook (Ex 3) in your handwriting?

A 7. No. My signature only appears in this paybook once

A 8. The Balance (Opening Credit Balance) on 1 Jan 44 was

PROSECUTION.

A 8 (Cont'd) $52.49. The credit of JAK pay brought it to $70.51. The withdrawal of £ 3-0-0 on 5 Jan '44 was made on acquittance roll 88.

Q 9. Are there any questionable entries in the two paybooks (Exs "A" and "B")?

A 9. Yes. The entries circled in green are questionable as they appear in the Observations of the Treasury. Also there is a line on page 8 ~~which has been~~ of Paybook 6 (Ex "B") which somebody has erased or attempted to erase. It is still faintly legible and shews "Forfeits 8 days pay" D O 231 of 24 Oct 43". This is referred to in the Observations of the Treasury para 1. The forfeiture has been deducted from the balance on the line above leaving a balance of £27 9s 6. I cant say whether or not this balance is correct ~~I have not computed it~~ RC Ex (B) complied with.

Cross-examined by Defending Offr.

Q 1. With reference to the Treasury Observations (para 1) was the Forfeiture of pay - £12s debitted in the current paybook.

A 1. YES.

Q 2. Doesnt this mean that the accused's account was debitted twice with the same amount.

A 2. ~~In accordance with the Treasury Observation~~

DARBY.

PROSECUTION.

A 3 (cont'd) his (accused's) balance in current paybook has been debitted $12.00 (shows court the entry in the current paybook)

Q by PRESIDENT to Defending Officer.
Has this any direct bearing on the charges?

A No - I just wanted to establish that the accused has been debitted for the same forfeiture twice.

Q 4. Have you ever personally paid the accused?

A 4. Yes - I paid him once in each book

Q 5. Do you remember which clerks used to work with Capt Bossa at pay-parades?

A 5. Sgt COSTELLO and SGT REMINGTON.

A 7 No. I am sure of this

Q 8. Who can utter entries in pay books?

A 8. Any member of the Staff. I check them and sign the entries.

A 9. Occasionally I do to enter the current months pay or possibly a clothing charge.

Q 10. Is there any chance of error being repeatedly committed by Clerks in the pay-office Prosecutor objects.

Objection over-ruled by court.

A 10 No.

Q 11. What is your procedure in the case of a lost MBM 1 Pt II.

A 11. At the request of the mans CO we issue a temporary one and pay him restricted payments only, until his balance is obtained.

Q 12. Where is the temporary paybook issued on 28 Dec '43?

A 12. I dont know anything about this.

2nd WITNESS

B 76402 Sgt. J.H. COSTELLO having been duly sworn is questioned by prosecuting officer.

Q 1. Do you recognize the accused and the paybooks (Exs A and B) before the court?

A 1. Yes I recognize the accused and those are his paybooks.

Q 2. Have you anything to say about the condition of paybook "C" (Ex "3")?

A 2. On page 8 line 3 of this paybook there is a very faint entry which I can recognize as my own handwriting. I can read what was formerly there and it is "Forfeits 8 days' pay" DO 23?; the fee balance shewn on page 9 line 3 is NOT in my own handwriting.

Part II Daily Orders (extract of the original) 23 & 28 OCT '43 introduced as evidence and admitted - marked Ex "E" and initialled.

On page 8 line 13 same paybook the columns headed date, particulars and local currency are in my own handwriting. The figure "$2.24" in the column headed Cdn. currency is NOT in my handwriting, nor are the figures in the balance column on Page 9. The figure "10/-" in the column local currency is my own handwriting but it is not in my own style of indicating 10 s, in other words there would NOT be the first stroke unless there were and entry of 1's

On page 10 line 3 of the same paybook the figures in the columns headed "date" & "particulars" are in my own handwriting. The figure in the column "Cdn Currency" and the figures in the column headed "Credit balance" are NOT in my handwriting.

Q 3. Is it your procedure to enter the amt in Cdn currency at the same time as you enter the local currency - date - particulars?

A 3 Yes, I always do that and never deviate from that practice.

Q 4 When do you enter the credit balance?

A 4 It is usual to do this at the same time but occasionally it cannot be done on payparade and if so the book is withdrawn and the correct balance entered. This paybook does not appear to have been withdrawn.

Q.5. Are you prepared to state that there have been alterations in the paybook?

A.5. Yes and the alterations were NOT made by me.

Q6. What are the responsibilities of a soldier in regard to his paybook Pt I?

A 6. A Soldier is responsible for the care of his MBR1 Pt II and should report any false entries on pay parade.

Q7. Is the Soldier responsible to prevent unauthorized persons making entries in his MBR1 I & II?

A 7. Yes, definitely.

R.P. 183 (8) complied with.

Defending Offr declines to cross-examine the WITNESS.

The Prosecution is closed.

Defending Offr submits that there is NO prima facie case. Court is closed to consider the submission.

The Court is unanimous in the opinion that the evidence as recorded does NOT establish a prima facie case on any of the charges, taking into account the sworn statement of the accused as it appears in the Summary of evidence (Page 2) that he did lose his paybook for a time but that it was recovered after 3 days and turned in to the Paymaster. Court adjourned, contacted ADJA who agrees.

The submission is allowed on all charges.

The court re-opens and the accused is acquitted.

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex F, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by one of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of punishment except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

Pvt Virginia, U.S., Philippine Scouts, having been duly sworn, states:

I have known the accused since July 1942. At that time he was a unit that I was in charge of, and, while he did not qualify as an NCO, he worked well and his conduct was good. Later, he was in my company for a period of several months, during which time he was always prompt and orderly in his appearance. He worked well, and carried out my orders he was given cheerfully. He was under my observation, and his conduct was very good.

Statement in mitigation of sentence in the case of H42390 Rfn Darby, DM.

Rfn Darby realises his mistake in going AWL and is genuinely determined that this offence will not occur again. As regards previous entrys on his MFM 6, three of them are AWL's of not more than four hours and one is ~~a~~ relating to a failure to get up in the morning. I plead for mitigation of sentence on the grounds of his general attitude towards training as given by his character witness, his youth, and the minor nature of his previous offences and his genuine determination to start soldiering again.

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 82(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or J.A. (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 66(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by J.A. if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or J.A. if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or J.A. if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 560. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (h).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 118(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or J.A. if acting will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

I wish to have my plea for mitigation of punishmmnt mainly on two points namely:

The youth of the accused, and

His previous excellent record.

The accused is now 22 years of age, and has been in the army just over two years. Two years without a single entry is surely worthy of considerations.

I would also like to point out that it was from "A" Ech that the accused absented himself, I mention this in order to bring out that, according to the accused's statement to me, his reason for absenting himself was simply the fact that he was "fed up" with the inactivity of life in "A" Ech. As he said "I didn't even get a chance to take up ammunition."

The accused has asked me whether, after he has completed his sentence, it will be possible for him to transfer to the Infantry.

Reference the second charge. I would like to point out that while to my knowledge the prosecution has no evidence of the circumstances of the accused absenting himself, I suggest that, as it was not a case of breaking arrest, the temptation, to an ignorant man (The accused has fouryears of schooling) must have been great, that is, with weak reasoning, he took the attitude "I might as well go whole hog, I'll not "get anymore" than I'm sure of now anyway.

(O.C.Harris) Lieut R.C.A.
Defending Officer

In my opinion the accused should be examined by a psychiatrist. I make this statement having regard to my conversations with the accused. On the other hand I am not suggesting that the accused is not sane as regards responsibility for the offence.

TRIAL of Regtl.No. F-29631 Tpr. D'ARCY,W.S.
4th. Canadian Recce. Bn. (4 P.L.D.G.)

PROSECUTION: Lieutenant A.H.Claxton - 4 Recce Bn.(P.L.D.G.)

DEFENCE : Lieutenant J.B.Beveridge - 4 Recce Bn.(P.L.D.G.)

No objections to document by accused
A.F. C.35 (b) complied with.

Lieutenant A.H.Claxton,having been sworn,states:-
"I wish to submit this pass in evidence to support the third charge against the accused which was forwarded to the accused's C.O.by the Cdn. Provost Corps. This is exhibit "A".

The accused identifies the fraudulent pass as the one in his possession when apprehended by the Provost.

Regtl.No.M-16499,Corporal McMAHON,J.C., Cdn. Provost Corps, having been sworn,states:-
"On the 24th of October in London at 1415 hours,I stopped the accused and asked for his pass,he produced one. I did not like the look of the pass. I escorted him to the HQ. of the 6th Cdn.Provost Corps,and on the way I asked him if it was a good pass and he replied "yes". I also asked him again before telephoning his Unit and he stated "it was the pass he had been issued with". The N.C.O. in charge of the cells telephoned the Unit and information came back that the accused was A.W.L."

Regtl.No. C-21046 Corporal MARTIN,R., Cdn. Provost Corps, having been sworn,states:-
"At London on the 24th October 1941 about 1415 hrs, I was in company with Cpl.McMahon when we saw the accused. We approached him and Cpl.McMahon asked him for his pass. He produced a pass which Cpl. McMahon did not like the look of and Cpl.McMahon told him he would take him to H.Q. 6th.Cdn.Provost Coy. to verify the pass. On the way down Cpl.McMahon asked him if his pass was good and the accused answered "yes". Cpl.McMahon asked him again before telephoning his Unit,the accused replied it was ~~xxx~~ a pass issued by his C.O. His Unit was contacted and the accused was found to be A.W.L. He was turned over to the N.C.O. in charge of the cells to be detained".

The accused wishes to give evidence on oath.

Regtl.No. F-29631 Tpr. D'ARCY,W.S. (The Accused) having been sworn,states:
"On 3rd of October 1941,I received a letter from a girl in Oxfordshire stating she wanted to see me as she was in trouble and I was to blame. I went and applied for a pass to the Orderly Corporal as my leave was due,but he told me it was impossible to get it at that time. I decided the only way I could see her would be to go A.W.L. I went A.W.L. on the 5th of October ~~and~~ approximately 7 or 8 October I saw her. The first evening with her I discovered she was married also that there was another soldier involved. I left her the first evening saying I never wanted to see her again. I went to London with a friend who had accompanied me on the trip and we got drinking,so I decided,with my poor record,I might just as well stay away 15 or 16 days".

The defence addresses the Court in mitigation.

Further on what the accused has said,I might add, the Troop Commander was new to the Troop and when the Orderly Corporal had given his answer to the accused the accused assumed he would receive no special favour from the new Troop Commander,so took the other alternative of A.W.L.

It was at a time when we had just returned from "

"Bumper" and there was a heavy demand for passes.

Captain J.B.Lawson, Adjutant 4 Recce Bn. (4 P.L.D.G.) having been sworn, states:-

"I submit herewith certified true copy of M.F.M.6, Field Conduct Sheet of the accused, F-29631 Tpr. D'Arcy, W.S., it is signed by myself".

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

R16431 Sgn S.M.S. Roney, D. J., 4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.)

(sworn) states: On 10 Oct 41 the kit of the accused was turned into B Sqn Q.M. stores. I immediately searched the kit and found that there were the following articles which were over the scale of issue as laid down:

Containers A/Gas - 3
Facepieces A/Gas - 3
Haversacks A/Gas - 1
Capes A/Gas - 1
Boots, Ankle, prs - 1

I assumed that he had with him at that time one Respirator A.G. complete and one pair of boots, ankle. I later found this to be true.

D. J. Roney, SQMS

Q. by the accused: Who turned the kit in to you?

A. The kit was turned in by L/Cpl Warner of 8 Tp.

4th Witness for the Prosecution

Major A. P. Ardagh, 4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.) (sworn) states:- I am C.O. Sqn 4 Cdn Recce Bn (4 P.L.D.G.). With regard to the ~~xxxxxx~~ third charge I would state that between the 5th and 24th Oct 41 no pass was issued by me or through my orderly room to Tpr D'Arcy. The pass which was submitted by the Cdn Provost Corps made out to Tpr D'Arcy is not signed by me or by any one in authority in my Sqn. The Orderly Room stamp used has not been in authorized use for at least two months and since that time has been kept under lock and key. It would seem that Tpr D'Arch made use of the stamp to stamp some passes in blank form some time ago when the stamp was in use in the Orderly Room. It will be noticed that the date portion in the centre of the stamp has not been printed and that the writing is superimposed on the stamp.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)
