By direction of the commanding officer the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

1st Witness for the prosecution

Capt W H Rose (M.O.) Stormont Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders having been duly sworn testifies:- At, in the Field, on Nov 1. 1942 the accused appeared at R.A.P at approximately 1100 hrs for an examination of a foot condition, which he claimed had necessitated his falling out from a route march on the previous day. On examination the feet of the accused were found in a filthy condition. He was ordered to wash them before further examination would be made.

The accused was ordered to report back to the R.A.P. at 1145 hrs. Nov 1. after having washed his feet. This he failed to do. I waited till 1200 hrs at the R.A.P. but Pte Davies failed to put in an appearance. I then sent Pte Connolly who had brought him in previously to the R.A.P. to ascertain the whereabouts. Prior to the accused having left the R.A.P. I asked him if he fully understood the order. He replied in the affirmative.

When we came into camp Lieut J.E. Clarke arranged a foot parade of the R.H.P for 1900 hrs. TRIAL OF

K.50330 Pte DAVIS H 1 Cdn Repat D

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

D.81868 Sgt COOKE RJ, 1 Cdn Repat Depot, having been duly sworn, states:

On Wed as is my custom I have my cooks and helpers report to the MIR for an inspection. I later go to the MIR to see who is not reported. On 11 Jul, the accused whom I now recognize was a vegetable man and he had been with for a few weeks. I noticed that he had not reported [redacted] and I went to find him at about 1500 hrs to tell him to do so, as he should have been working in the vegetable room. I couldn't find him after looking around for him and sent Pte Sklut to find him but he couldn't either.

Q. What happened the next day?
A. The next morning I asked him where he had been and I cannot recall what he said to me. The time then was around 8 o'clock. I then told him to go to the MIR and he said when he finished eating he'd go. However, he was upset at me I guess telling him and on the way out to the back door I think it was Sklut spoke to him or twigged him about something and the accused came back and wanted to know what I was talking about. I told him I had said nothing but for him to get to the MIR. I said to him "get to the MIR in a hurry", and he replied that he was not taking orders from a thing like me and I reprimanded him saying "Sgt to you". Capt Ferris happened along at the time, heard the altercation and he told the accused to as he was told. The accused still said he wasn't taking orders from a thing like me and left then for the MIR and then Capt Ferris said "place that man under arrest, charge him with insolence and name me as a witness". I would think the accused heard what Capt Ferris said.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. According to the accused he says his job was finished for the day and that there was nothing for him to do, is that correct?
A. I wouldn't say that, Sir. He is a fatigue man in the kitchen doing vegetables and doing whatever work is necessary. A man is not done until he has finished his day's work.

Q. He was staying in the kitchen?
A. I didn't see him since around dinner time.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THE PROSECUTOR SAID THAT CAPT FERRIS WAS ON LEAVE AND WAS NOT AVAILABLE.

THE DEF OFFR SAID HE DID NOT REQUIRE CAPT FERRIS'S PRESENCE FOR CROSS-EXAMINATION

SECOND WITNESS K.18061 Pte SKLUT, HJ, 1 Repat Depot, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and on 11 Jul I saw him in the kitchen in the afternoon around 2 o'clock.

Q. Did you see him after 3 o'clock?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you have occasion to look for him?
A. Yes, I looked in Hut 12 where he sleeps to see if he was there, and I couldn't find him. I did this because the Sgt gave me an order to find him and tell him to go to the MIR. I also looked in all the rooms of the kitchen and couldn't find him. The next I saw him was that night at 6 o'clock at the gym before the show started. I saw him again next morning, talking to the rest of the boys and myself in the kitchen.

Q. Was he talking to an NCO?
A. I didn't see him.

Q. Did you hear the Sgt order him to go the MIR?
A. Yes, and he replied that he would go there when he finished eating.

Q. Did you hear the conversation at the door between him and the Sgt?
A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you actually look in the accused's bed at Hut 12?
A. Yes, I think it's in an upper bunk he sleeps - I also looked in the washroom

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. What was your job that day?
A. General fatigues in the kitchen, Sir.

Q. What time are you dismissed?
A. About a quarter to six, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THIRD WITNESS

B.51956 Cpl MURRAY, FE, 1 Cdn Repat Depot, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused - I'm the NCO IC of fatigues in the kitchen. The accused was away from duty for 7 hours on Wed 11 Jul 45. His work was finished at the time but we don't let them leave the place because other work might come up. I missed him from around 1 o'clock and the next time I saw him was when he was going to the lavatory around 4 o'clock.

Q. What time is the vegetable man off duty?
A. A little after 5.

Q. Did you see him next morning?
A. Yes.

Q. Speaking to the Sgt cook?
A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you dismiss him after he had finished after 4 o'clock?
A. No, they generally quit a little after 5 or so and he stayed till then, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

FOURTH WITNESS

L.110068 Pte HALL SJA, 1 Cdn Repat Depot, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. I saw him on the morning of 12 Jul in the kitchen about 8.15 to 9 o'clock when he came in for a cup of tea. I heard him say to the Sgt that he was always trying to boss him and order him around.

Q. What else did he say?
A. I don't know I moved away.

Q. Did you notice anything about his attitude?
A. No.

Q. Did you hear an argument?
A. Yes, they were arguing about something in the back and the accused told Capt Ferris that the Sgt was always arguing with and picking on him. That is all I understood distinctly.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

DEFENCE

The accused, duly,sworn, states:-

I do not see how I was absent without leave because I remember being in the kitchen until approx 1615 hrs. I was sitting in the dining-room portion of the building. There was a fireman there and I believe a Cook. The cook was sitting across the room from us and I was sitting with the fireman on one of the tables. We sat there for approx one hour and fifteen minutes. I remember listening to two different radio programes in thekitchen on the said afternoon. Each programe was approx one half hour long. During that time I never saw the Sgt come into the vegetable room or Mess Hall and after 1600 hrs I came into the kitchen and I went into the vegetable room to get my Mess Tins and then I had my supper. The cooks were getting the evening meal ready and I stood in there until just before they started to serve the meal. Being as I never help serve food I went to my quarters. During this time from 1500 hrs to 1645 hrs at no time did anybody say or suggest to me that I was to attend a medical parade. I was in the camp area all night and next morning reported to the kitchen at 0805 hrs. As soon as I walked into the kitchen the Sgt Cook said to me "You had better get over to the M.I.R. if you know what is good for your" He gave me no explanation and to my mind his manner was over-bearing and his voice threating. On being given no explanation one way or the other I went over and poured myself a cup of tea and buttered a piece of toast. I had no sooner laid the knife that I had been buttering the toast with down on the table when the Sgt came up to me and grabbed the knife on the table and said you had better wash things and I told him that I wasn't finished with it as yet. He went away for about five minutes and came back and grabbed the knife again and made the same statement in the same manner as before. I again told him and that I hadn't finished with the knife as yet. He took the knife and went over and washed the knife himself and then walked away through the kitchen and leaned against the open doorway. After I had finished eating I went out through this door and as I passed this Sgt he saidsomething in a low voice. As there was nobody around I assumed that he spoke to me and when I asked him to repeat it he refused. At this time Capt Ferris came into the doorway and the Sgt started talking to him about me. I went to the M.I.R. and the Orderly asked me what I wanted and I told him that the Sgt Cook had sent me over to the M.I.R. without any explanation and the Orderly said that he didn't know anything about it so I said maybe it is about this routine check up we are supposed to have in the kitchen. The orderly checked my name and I then left the M.I.R.. About halfway back I met a Sgt and he told me that I was under close arrest.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. What hut do you sleep in?
A. 12.

Q. Have you been on inspection parades at the MIR?
A. Yes, once before, about 3 weeks before.

Q. The same day, Wednesday?
A. I don't remember. I've been in the kitchen for about 5 weeks.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

From the evidence it is clear with respect to the first charge that there is an error as to time and I suggest that the Court make a special finding.

However, there can be no doubt in the minds of the Court that the accused was not at his place of duty from the best evidence which is that of Cpl Murray who was NCO IC of the fatigues, and he couldn't be found between 1300-1700 hrs.

With respect to the 2nd charge, from Sgt Cook's evidence who is an NCO of very long standing, and has had considerable dealings with men, and who has nothing to gain and also from other rather indefinite evidence of other witnesses that there was an altercation of some kind, I respectfully submit that the accused was at the time specified guilty of the offence as charged.

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING

I would like to deal with the two charges separately.

Regarding the first charge the accused according to his own statement was in the kitchen at a quarter to 5. A witness has said that he saw him in the kitchen around 2 o'clock, sometime between 1 and 3, and another witness says that he was on duty at 4 o'clock and worked there until he was dismissed at supper time. The charge reads that this man was AWL from 1500 hrs until 0800 hrs the following morning. The accused was seen at supper parade and was seen later at 1800 hrs going to a show, and as he was not required for further duty that night it appears to me that the charge of AWL is entirely wrong. There are no restrications placed upon PE personnel of the Camp and as long as they are in their quarters by lights out and on duty the following morning they are not required to have a pass.

Regarding the second charge I have my statement written out and I will read it to the Court (note att)

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE COURT FINDS THE ACCUSED NOT GUILTY ON THE FIRST CHARGE.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

THE DEF OFFR SAID HE HAD NOTHING FURTHER TO ADD TO WHAT HE HAD SAID ON THE FINDING.

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING ON THE SECOND CHARGE

Regarding the second charge it appears to me to be rather a case of "Much Ado About Nothing" - Lieut. Cooke, quite rightly, appears to have been rather sharp with Davis in his first order for him to get over to the M.I.R. Davis did not know that Lieut. Cooke had been looking for him the previous evening and further to that did not know of the Medical Inspection. In my opinion it is a natural reaction to get ones back up at being spoken to in this manner with no previous warning and with no knowledge of what was going on. As he was leaving the latter Davis made a natural, mistake and thought that the Lieut had spoken to him again. It appears that throughout their conversation together that Lieut. Cooke did not think Davis' manner insubordinate and it was only on the recommendation of Capt. Ferris who only appeared at the end of the conversation that Davis was put under charge. Surely if a Lieut. Cant make up his own mind ~~trying a~~ whether a man should be charged a lot and has taken no steps the previous evening to locate the accused on mash parade or in his hut to warn him of the Medical Inspection then I maintain that this man is innocent and the whole affair simply a case of a lot of fuss being made over something which with a little more management and understanding would never have happened.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K-50330 Pte. Harry DAVIS, No. 1 Canadian Repatriation Depot (Lorne Scots) a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

D-81868 Sgt. COOKE, R.J., No. 1 Canadian Repatriation Depot (Lorne Scots), having been duly sworn, states: I am D-81868 Sgt. Cooke NCO i/c Cooks and Helpers, 1 Cdn Repat Depot (Lorne Scots). On Wednesday 11 Jul 45, which is medical inspection day for cooks and helpers handling food I looked for Pte. DAVIS, H. around 1500 hrs to warn him of the inspection but could not locate nor find him. Later I sent another Private to find him and he likewise could not locate him. The man was absent from duty from approximately 1500 hrs 11 Jul 45 until 0800 hrs 12 Jul 45 when he reported for duty. When I spoke to him telling him to get to the M.I.R., as soon as possible, he said that he was in no hurry to go to the M.I.R., and that he was not taking any dirt from me and no orders and that he would go when he was ready. Going out of the kitchen I was standing at the back door when one of the boys further back in the kitchen said something to him and he took the attitude that it was me and came back and asked me what I was talking about. I told him I wasn't talking to him and for him to get to the M.I.R. He still said that he wasn't taking orders from a "thing" like me which Iresented. Capt. Ferris came along during the argument and said "place that man under arrest. You cannot take any nonsense from this man. I will be a witness."

A-1 As is customary on Wednesday of each week I check on the men to see if they have reported so as not to hold the report up. You had been on this parade on previous Wednesdays and I could not locate you to check you or warn you for the parade.

Q-2 Where did you look for me?

A-2 In the Area of the Kitchen and Mess Hall and buildings adjoining the Kitchen.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Captain A.G. FERRIS having been duly sworn states:- I am Captain A.G. FERRIS, Messing Officer, 1 Cdn Repat Depot (Lorne Scots). At approximately 0815 hrs I went into the mess kitchen and found Sgt. THE ACCUSED ELECTS TO GIVE EVIDENCE ON OATH

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED: K-50330 Pte. DAVIS, H. having been duly sworn states: I am K-50330 Pte. DAVIS, H. employed as a GD in the kitchen at No. 1 Cdn Repat Depot (Lorne Scots).

Ref: FIRST CHARGE - I do not see how I was absent without leave [redacted] being in the kitchen until approximately 1615 hrs. I was sitting in the dining room portion of the building. There was a fireman there and I believe a Cook. The cook was sitting across the room from us and I was sitting with the fireman on one of the tables. We sat there for approximately one hour and fifteen minutes. I remember listening to two different radio programes in the kitchen on the said afternoon. Each programe was approximately one half hour long. During that time I never saw the Sgt come into the vegetable room or Mess Hall and after 1600 hrs I came into the kitchen and I went into the vegetable room to get my Mess Tins and then I had my supper. The cooks were getting the evening meal ready and I stood in there until just before they started to serve the meal. Being as I never help serve the food I went to my quarters. During this time from 1500 hrs to 1645 hrs at NO time did anybody say or suggest to me that I was to attend a medical parade. I was in the camp area all night and next morning reported to the kitchen at 0805 hrs. As soon as I walked into the kitchen the Sgt. Cook said to me "You had better get over to the M.I.R. if you know what is good for you." He gave me no explanation and to my mind his manner was overbearing and his voice threating. On being given no explanation one way or the other I went over and poured myself a cup of tea and buttered a piece of toast. I had no sooner laid the knife that I had been buttering the toast with down on the table when the Sgt came up to me and grabbed the knife on the

and said you had better wash things and I told him that I wasn't finished with it as yet. He went away for about five minutes and came back and grabbed the knife again and made the same statement in the same manner as before. I again told him and that I hadn't finished with the knife as yet. He took the knife and went over and washed the knife himself and then walked away through the kitchen and leaned against the open doorway. After I had finished eating I went out through this door and as I passed this Sgt he said something in a low voice. As there was nobody around I assumed that he spoke to me and when I asked him to repeat it he refused. At this time Capt. Ferris came into the doorway and the Sgt started talking to him about me. I went to the M.I.R. and the Orderly asked me what I wanted and I told him that the Sgt Cook had sent me over to the M.I.R. without any explanation and the Orderly said that he didn't know anything about it so I said maybe it is about this routine check up we are supposed to have in the kitchen. The orderly checked my name and I then left the M.I.R. About halfway back I met a Sgt and he told me that I was under close arrest.

These cases were tried on 20-21 Apr 44. On the 19th I took exception to the Charge Sheet, being a charge laid under AA 41 under Reg 42 Defence (Gen) Regs 1939. I objected first because all the element in the Regs were not in the charge and I stated that I thought from the summaries that it could not be proven that the games were organized for gain and I suggested an alternative charge. The Charge Sheets were redrawn, the additions put in the first charge and an alternative charge laid under 40; improperly gambling with dice for money at Bordon Camp (Sec 440 KR(Can) forbidding gambling in bks, camps or cantonments) On the morning of the 20th the new charge sheets were signed and handed to each of the Defending Officers. None of them wished to ask for an adjournment. One of the accused was acquitted on both charges because there was no evidence whatever that he was playing; he was merely a spectator. All were acquitted on the charge under Reg 42 as there was no proof whatever that the games were organized games although there is no doubt that they were. The other 4 accused were convicted under the alternative charge, Sec 40. All had been in custody for 21 days awaiting trial. Three of them were sentenced to forfeit 30 days pay and the 4th, an older man, to forfeit 45 days pay.

The police did not succeed in getting any of the organizers, only tho small fry were caught. I do not see why the police should not have had one or two Provosts transferred to units at Bordon to carry on their duties for some weeks and arrange for a raid when the organizers were present or otherwise get the evidence on which the organizers could be charged and convicted. The private soldier will take a poor view and properly so of the administrative ability of an organization which cannot convict the organizers and can only catch the small player. Gambling is so prevalent that the ordinary soldier will generally only be able to see why it should be stopped when it can be brought out that the organizers are victimizing the ordinary player in large sums of money. I think the police should make another and more intelligent try at getting the organizers.

At the trial Capt Hayes, S/Capt "F" Gp CRU, produced an Ordnance Map showing that King George Gerdens lay within the W.D. property shown on the map as Bordon Camp, and that that Camp is served by a W.D. railway and has a military phone system and that it has many bks. The Camp therefore under the meaning of the words in KR(Can) 440 may be regarded as either a camp or cantonment, the latter being defined in Cassels Dictionary as a permanent military station.

The 5 men charged had exemplary records. They had all been in the Army for years, one of them had a clear record, 3 of them had only 1 minor charge on their sheets, the 5th had 4 very minor charges. They all had been awaiting trial for 21 days. I had difficulty in persuading the junior members of the court that any substantial punishment should be awarded. They took the view that it is well known that men play crap in their bks without any action being taken, and that probably a heavy sentence would tend to make bad soldiers of these 4 men with good records. I pointed out that the sentence must at least be greater than a CO could award, as superior authority had directed they be tried by FGCM. I also pointed out that these games were run openly and flagrantly contrary to KR(Can) 440. I adjourned the consideration of sentence until next day when the 2 offrs agreed to the sentences above mentioned. These amount in 3 cases to a fine of approx $75 and in the 4th to a fine of approx $100, taking into consideration the days awaiting trial.

I again point out that gambling will not be stamped out in Bordon Camp until the men who are making the money are convicted.

EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

D.6032 Pte DAVIS J 119 LAD (att CTS)

A-8 _ STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFR _

I would like to take an objection that the initials W.O.A.S. which are inserted in this charge are improperly inserted in both these charges. There are certain sections of the Army Act which show that it is not an ingredient of the charge and should not be inserted in the charge and the accused should not be asked to plead to a charge containing these initials. I raise the same objection to the second charge.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

THE COURT REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT STATED THAT THE COURT DISALLOWED THE OBJECTION UNDER RP 32.

A-8 THE DEFENDING OFFICER STATED THAT UNDER SECTION 93 OF THE DEFENCE REGULATIONS A PROSECUTOR CAN ONLY BE INSTITUTED BY OR WITH THE CONSENT OF THE DIRECTION OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, AND SAID THAT NO INTIMATION IN THE SUMMARY THAT SUCH CONSENT HAD BEEN GIVEN, AND ASKED THE PROSECUTOR IF HE HAD OBTAINED SUCH A DIRECTION.

THE PROSECUTOR'S REPLY WAS THAT NOT AS FAR AS HE KNEW.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

THE COURT REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT THE OBJECTION WAS DISALLOWED.

THE CASE OF

D6032 Pte Davis J, 119 LAD, (att CTS) proceeds on a Trial Within a Trial.

D-3

1st Witness for the Prosecution

R.97637 Cpl DEROW, MC, 9 Cdn Pro Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

On instructions from the OC No 9 Pro Coy I arrived at a sort of enclosed lot near King George V Gardens. It is a small place surrounded by trees and on one side there is a ditch. This place is in the Bordon area. On arriving there, there were two tables about 4 x 6 in operation, made of rough lumber, and apparently not government issue. The accused whom I now recognize was at the first table. There were men rolling dice from a rubber cup and it changed hands different times. I saw the accused with money in his hands and money in front of him on the table. I saw him pick money from the table and place it towards the centre of the table. I saw him take money from the centre of the table and put it back in front of him. I moved then from that position father around the table.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. You mentioned two tables. Did Pte Davis have anything to do with more than one table? Was there a rakeoff?

A. No, Sir. I did not notice anyone taking a rake off. I am not familiar with a dice game other than they put the dice in a cup and roll them out on the table.

Q. Do you know a member of the Pro, a big red headed man?

A. Not that I know of, Sir. I did not take much notice as a matter of fact. The raiding party consisted of about 20 men, and 2 offr. Altogether about 25 pro were there, Sir. There were approx 15 men around one table. In some places they were maybe 2 deep.

NO RE-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Are you familiar with the game of crown and anchor?
A. No, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

E.39203 Lcpl BRIAND P, 9 Cdn Pro Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. On the 31 Mar under instructions of our OC with Sjt GOULD in charge I proceeded towards King George V Gardens, and when we arrived there, there were 3 tables, 2 being used. We stood at the first one. We arrived there at approx 7 o'clock in the evening. We stood at this table from 5 to 10 mins. They were playing with dice and making bets on it. Some were saying "I put 2/6 on this one" and another one would say "I put 5 bob on this one" and so on, and that was what was going on at the table. About 7 o'clock a whistle blew, people started to scatter, so I got hold of Pte Davis. I held him away from the table with one hand, and took some money from him while he was trying to take it off the table. He was trying to take it from the table and I have the money here. This money consists of four 2s pieces and a 6d piece. I think this belongs to the accused because he was trying to get it off the table while I was holding him. After, some of our boys arrived in the stn wagon and they took the accused away with them.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. How long have you been in the Provost Corps Cpl?
A. Since Dec 40. I saw nobody take any rake off from this game that I witnessed.

Q. As a member of the pro you are enforcing the regulations in routine orders I suppose?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you know of a regulation in routine orders that says that money shall not be taken away from a man who is arrested?
A. The money was taken while he was trying to get it, Sir. If he could have gotten the money it would have been his, Sir.

Q. Did you see him bet these same coins?
A. I don't know if they were the same coins, Sir.

Q. You thought it was his money?
A. Yes.

Q. You are aware of this routine order about taking money from a man then when he is arrested?
A. I did not take it from him, Sir, I took it from the table.

NO RE-EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Will you produce the money referred to?
A. Yes, Sir.

MONEY MARKED EXHIBIT 1 BY THE COURT.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

Lt RI LUKER, 9 Cdn Pro Corps, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. On the 31 Mar I received instructions from the OC 9 Pro Coy to proceed to the Bordon area in charge of a detail of men. I arrived at Bordon Area in the vicinity of King George V Gardens. There were a number of soldiers running through the bushes and by the time I had got to the tables where they were set up, there was roughly about 25 soldiers grouped around them. I ordered them to fall in in 3 ranks, which they did, and I ordered that their regtl particulars be taken. This was carried out and 6 of the chaps who had fallen in were taken to 9 Pro HQ. I recd a quantity of various sums of money from these soldiers which I held in safe keeping until being instructed otherwise.

THE DEFENDING OFFR AT THIS POINT MADE A SUBMISSION THAT HE DID NOT THINK THERE SHOULD BE ANY MENTION OF MONIES TAKEN FROM THE ACCUSED CONTRARY TO RO 4066.

THE COURT WAS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

THE COURT REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT NO EVIDENCE OF MONIES TAKEN FROM THE ACCUSED AFTER THE ACCUSED WAS BROUGHT TO PRO HQ WOULD BE ADMITTED.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. There were about 30 pro men in this party?
A. No, Sir, not 30, I don't just remember but I would say there would be about 15.

Q. Before the raiding party arrived a number of your men in plain uniform circulated throughout the gathering at King George V Gardens?
A. Yes, Sir, about 6, Sir.

Q. Was there a tall red-headed Lcpl in your party?
A. I could not say about that, Sir, I don't know the chaps very well. That description though does not strike any familiar chord in my memory. I was not familiar with any of the personnel in particular though, Sir.

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWN.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution

U.1543 Sjt GOULD WR, 9 Cdn Pro Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

On the night of 31 Mar 44 as a result of instructions received from my OC I was IC of a party who made some arrests at King George V Gardens, Bordon Area. Among the arrests was Pte Davis the accused whom I now recognize. He was escorted to HQ 9 Pro Coy at Milford, where, after being duly cautioned he made a voluntary statement. The accused, Sir, was brought into a room where there was a typist, myself and an NCO, and I told him that I would like to have a statement and was about to administer a caution saying "I have been warned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that anything I now say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. To show that I understand the above warning I make this statement voluntarily and sign my name herewith". I actually read all these words to him. He then made his statement, a statement of his activities from the time he left barracks until the time of his arrest and what he was doing at the time of his arrest. He then commenced to tell me his story. As he said the words to me I repeated the words to the stenographer who typed them on a Can Pro official statement form on which the caution is typed. The form was removed from the typewriter and handed to the accused to read who said that it met with his approval and he then signed it twice. I signed the form as a witness. I tender this statement in evidence.

THE DEFENDING OFFR AT THIS POINT SAID HE WISHED TO CROSS-EXAMINE THE WITNESS ON THE ADMISSIBILITY OF THE STATEMENT.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFR

Q. How far is Milford from where the accused was placed under arrest?
A. Ten or 12 miles, Sir.

Q. Have you a tall red headed heavily built fellow in your coy?
A. I don't know of his existence, Sir. I actually did not see the accused placed under arrest, and I did not talk to him before he went into the room to make this statement. I did not talk to him on the way over either. I don't know if any of the other pro talked to him. The typist was Pte Gerigs of No 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, also one of the arrested men. He was in the room when all of our conversation took place.

AT THIS POINT THE DEFENDING OFFR ASKED THAT THIS WITNESS WITHDRAW AS HE WISHED TO EXAMINE THE TYPIST, PTE GERIGS.

Witness

B.32078 Pte Thomas GERIGS, 4 VRD, CCOD, having been duly sworn, states: (EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFR)

Q. It has been given in evidence before the Court that you were doing some typing for Sjt Gould while Pte Davis was in the room?
A. Yes, Sir. I did not hear what was said between Gould and Davis as I was busy with my typewriter. I typed the dictation at the Sgt's dictation. The first word the Sjt said to me was that he had a statement that he wanted me to type. He requested Pte Davis to make out that statement by saying "will you make out a statement". I previously had made out a statement myself. I made the statement because the pro asked me to. I was told to make a statement. I did not think I could refuse. We were pushed around all night and they told us to empty our pockets, ordered us, and eventually told us to make a statement.

Q. Did he say anything else to you?
A. No, Sir, I was typing all night and was paying more attention to the typewriter than anything else.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

NO QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

THE DEFENDING OFFR AT THIS POINT SUBMITTED TO THE COURT THAT THE STATEMENT WHICH WAS MADE UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH HE HAD BROUGHT OUT IN HIS EXAMINATION OF PTE GERIGS SHOULD NOT BE ADMITTED. HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT THE ACCUSED BE TOLD THAT HE HAS NOTHING TO FEAR, NOTHING TO HOPE FROM ANY STATEMENT (QUOTES P. 92 MML), AND THAT IT WAS QUITE OBVIOUS THAT THE ACCUSED WAS ORDERED TO MAKE A STATEMENT AND THAT HE WAS NOT GIVEN THE WORDS OF THE WARNING WHICH CONVEYED THE PROPER EFFECT. HE WAS ORDERED TO MAKE THIS STATEMENT. THAT IS CLEAR BOTH FROM THE SJT AND FROM THIS LAST WITNESS. THERE WAS NOTHING IN THE ALTERNATIVE IN SPITE OF THE WRITING THAT WAS SHOWN TO HIM AND I SUBMIT THAT ANY STATEMENT OBTAINED FROM A MAN WHO HAS BEEN TREATED AND HANDLED IN ARREST AS THE ACCUSED HAS BEEN, IS NOT ADMISSIBLE. WE HAVE THE EVIDENCE OF THE TYPIST WHO SAID THE MAN HAD TO MAKE A STATEMENT. HE CALLED THE ACCUSED.

Witness

The accused, D.6032 Pte DAVIS J, 119 LAD (att CTS), having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Offr:

Q. Will you tell the Court why you signed this statement?
A. Well, Sir, I had been struck by a tall red headed heavily built Lcpl of the pro. He had pro flashes up, that's how I know he was pro. I was clear 2 feet at the end of the table and there was one man on each side of me holding my arms. These two men were dressed in coveralls. One of them was one who gave evidence here this morning. This pro chap came through the bush, took a dive at me and hit me on the chin with his fist. We were then ordered into the trucks and taken to pro HQ and at the time of the statement which I gave Sjt Gould was in the room with the typist and I think it was one of the other men who asked me to go in this room and Sjt Gould's words were "I want you to make a statement from the time you left your billets until you were picked up and then he told me to look at the form and then I gave the form back, after looking at it although I was in an all confused state of mind, Sir.

Q. Had your been interviewed by anybody else prior to Sjt Gould?
A. Yes, Sir, I believe it was the OC of the 9 Pro, and questions were asked. They gave me no warning.

Q. Why did you sign it?
A. Naturally I was afraid after getting one smack, I did not want to take the chance of getting another.

Q. What gave you that idea?
A. After being hit and there being no reason for my being hit, Sir.

Q. In what manner were you being questioned by these officers?
A. It was not a friendly sort of tone, I would say it was more or less of an aggressive sort of tone, Sir.

PROSECUTOR DECLINED TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE COURT WAS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE ADMISSIBILITY OF THIS STATEMENT.

THE COURT REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT THE COURT HAD DECIDED NOT TO ADMIT THE STATEMENT.

Witness

U.1543 Sjt GOULD WR, 9 Cdn Pro Coy, being recalled, on his former oath, states: (Examined by the Prosecutor)

I saw three tables in the enclosure in King George V Gdns, 2 of which were being played on and the other was vacant. There was quite a sum of money on the table and dice were being thrown. The tables were seized by the raiding party. They are now outside the door, Sir.

AT THIS POINT THE DEFENDING OFFR OBJECTED TO THE PRODUCTION OF THE THREE TABLES STATING THAT THE ACCUSED IS ONLY CHARGED WITH PLAYING A GAME AND THE EVIDENCE IS THAT HE WAS PLAYING AT ONE TABLE.

THE COURT STATED THAT THEY WOULD AMIT THE TABLES AS EVIDENCE AS THEY WOULD BE EVIDENCE OF THE ACCUSED PLAYING AT ONE OF THE TABLES PRODUCED., AND ALL WERE EVIDENCE OF THE GAMES.

TABLES WERE PRODUCED AND MARKED EXHIBIT 2 BY THE COURT.

Capt JLG HAY, Royal Winnipeg Rifles, having been duly sworn, states:

I am S/Capt of "F" Gp CRU. I produce herewith a map being Ordnance Survey Map No 3906, also numbered No 50/16 SE 1/25000 and 50/14 NE designated Aldershot Command Trg Areas in Gt Britain. This War Dept land is stippled in red and shows that the area in which King George V Gdns is situated is approx below the words on the map "BORDON CAMP". The railroads within the area are operated by the War Dept. The military have a phone communication in this area. There are many barracks within the area. The date on this map is 1931 and is the last map that has been issued and I procured these maps from the DCRE and are the last maps that are issued at this date. I don't know if there is an Alershot Command at this time. It shows the area in which King George V Gdns are situated.

MAP MARKED EXHIBIT 5 BY THE COURT.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFR

Q. Do you personally know where these gardens are?
A. I do, Sir. The map is the latest being used at the moment. I don't know if there is an Aldershot Command though any more, but the map is of this particular area.

DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT

RP 40 NOTE 1

D-4 In dealing with the first charge under the Defence regulations the evidence that 10 or more persons were present shall be evidence that the party was one organized for game. The evidence is quite conclusive that there was game of some kind going on, but that nobody, but that noone was making any gain or rake off, that no individual was running this game for his own gain. I quite agree with the onus under this section thrown on the accused, but that the evidence of the Prosecution itself proves conclusively that there was no gain, nobody took anyt ing out of the pot as the only two witnesses who gave evidence of the gaming, stated. It is an essential element of the offence that somebody must be operating the table for gain. I think that the Court can draw upon their military and general knowledge that in a gaming house it is customary for the operator to take a percentage of the pot or throw, and the evidence is that this was not done here, so that the evidence is within Section 3(c). With regard to the alternative charge, in the absence of any order or rule I must assume that this charge under Sec 40 of the Army Act refers back to para 440 of KR(Can), which says that all gambling within garrisons, barracks, camps or contonments is forbidden and I submit that this is not a garrison, barracks or contonment, as a contonment is a quarter assigned for tps, a permanent military station, and there is no evidence before this Court that this is a quarter for tps. The map does not assist us and the officer who produced it was not able to assist the Court and any suggestion of the gardens definitely indicates that it is not within the area prohibited by the King's regulations.

THE PROSECUTION DECLINED TO REPLY TO THE SUBMISSION MADE BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

THE COURT WAS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION THAT NO PRIMA FACIE CASE HAS BEEN MADE ON EITHER CHARGE.

THE COURT REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT THE SUBMISSION MADE BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER IS DISALLOWED WITH RESPECT TO EITHER CHARGE.

D-5 --D E F E N C E--

The accused, D.6032 Pte Davis J, 119 LAD (att CTS), on his former oath is examined by the Defending Offr:

Q. On the night of 31 Mar it is in evidence that you were in King George V Gardens. Will you tell the Court how you came to be there?

A. Yes, Sir. I was passing there on my way to the pictures. I went in to see what the noise I heard was about that was going on. They were rolling dice, commonly called crap, the game as I know and saw it was just rolling dice out of a cup. Everybody was taking a turn at it. I have played this game before.

Q. Was there anyone person running it?

A. No, whoever had the dice put his money down and rolled out and if he rolled out certain numbers, for example a combinatio of two 1's, or a two and a 1, and two 6's, is called a crap, which the roller loses his money but retains the dice. He then puts up some more money and whoever wants to bet him wrong that he loses, covers that money again. If he rolls out a seven or an eleven on his first throw he wins, but if he rolls any other number than a seven or an eleven or a crap, he must roll and keep rolling until he gets that point he originally rolled, unless of course he rolls a 7 in the meantime, in which case he automatically gives up the dice to the next player in line. Each player takes his turn at the dice in this manner. This game has no connection with crown and anchor - it is called crap, Sir. While I was playing no one was taking any rakeoff from the roller's winnings. I would have known if it had of been taken out of mine. I paid no one to sit in the game either. I saw no one else paying anybody else to sit in the game. Everyone was on an equal basis. This place is in an enclosure in St George's Gdns. There are no quarters for tps in these gardens.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINED TO CROSS-EXAMINE.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. Who owned this pair of dice?
A. I don't know, Sir.

Q. Who owned this cup?
A. That was also there, I don't know, Sir.

Q. Who owned the table?
A. That was also there, I don't know that either, Sir.

Q. Who was in charge of the game?
A. I could not say, Sir, I just stopped in.

Q. Who was the boss of the game?
A. I couldn't say, Sir, if there was a boss.

Q. Had you been there before?
A. Well, yes I had been there before, Sir.

Q. Who appeared to be the boss when you were there before?
A. I don't know, Sir.

Q. Who was making most of the money?
A. That is hard to say, Sir, as a person is more concerned with their own money rather than anyone else's, and with the amount of men there it is hard to say who is winning or losing.

Q. What is the biggest bet you saw made that night?
A. One or two pounds, Sir. I could not be sure, Sir, I did see a bill.

Q. What is the biggest winning you ever heard of anyone making at these tables, at the times you were there?
A. At the times I was there, Sir, mostly 5 or 6 pounds, I have heard but not seen what thousands of pounds were made.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. Did you get any rakeoff yourself?
A. No, Sir.

Q. It has been suggested that you had a sum of money on you when you were arrested. Where did you get this money?
A. That was my pay, Sir, outside of a few shillings. I drew that pay on the 31st. I drew £4/10/0, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

2nd Witness for the Defence

C.15580 Bdr KELLY RP, 1 CARU, having been duly sworn, states:

On the nite of 31 Mar 44 I was in King George V Gardens engaged in a game at which Pte Davis was. I was there about 15 minutes. I was there when the pro arrived. Prior to that I had been playing myself. I could not tell you who was actually in charge of that game. Each player took his turn in order. No one took any rake off out of any bets that I know of. I took what I won. I was arrested when the pro came. My case has been dealt with and I received a severe reprimand.

PROSECUTOR DECLINED TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Who is the boss in this game?
A. I don't know, Sir.

Q. Who put those tables up?
A. It is beyond me, Sir.

Q. When did you first see those tables there?
A. About 3 nights before, Sir.

Q. How long have you been in Bordon?
A. Since 1st August, 40, Sir.

Q. Who made the biggest winning?
A. I could not tell you who made the biggest winnings while I was there that night because the money was being kept off the tables, Sir. The biggest bet I saw was about 10 shillings.

Q. How many different games were going on?
A. Just at the one table, Sir. All I could see that night was one, Sir.

3rd Witness for the Defence

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Mr President and Members of the Court. Last autumn there were eight or nince cases of a similar nature to this tried by a F.G.C.M. I defended one man and the charge in this case was gambling in a public place. I t was argued that it was not a public place by the Defence but it was held that it was a public place. I endeavoured to find a record of that case today, but it was not to be found. Would the Court be good enough to advise me if I may give evidence that it was a public place? I don't know how I can get it before this Court in any other way.

4th Witness for the Defence

Maj EM MILLER (Defending Offr for the accused), of 1 C.A.R.U., having been duly sworn, states:

In the autumn of 1943 I acted as Defending Officer for a soldier who was one of a number of soldiers charged with gambling in a public place, namely King George V Gardens which has been mentioned in evidence today. At that time for the Defence I raised the point they were not a public place. The charge was proven and the accused was found guilty. I regret that I am unable to remember the name of the accused but the accused was found guilty and the place a public place.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE.

NO QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

PLEA IN MITIGATION

I would drew the Court's attention to the fact that the accused has been in close arrest for 20 days now, and I suggest to the Court that if it had of been for the first charge this matter would have been dealt with in the same way as that of Bdr Kelly, who was reprimanded.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as " Notes ".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jun 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 80(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn, or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subjects of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 965(a).)

Character witness in the case of C 20897 Pte. DAVIS, C.H.

FIRST CHARACTER WITNESS

Major W.S. MacKenzie, C.I.C., No. 1 C.G.R.U. att CMHQ ~~is questioned by the defending officer~~ having been duly sworn

Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes.

Q. During what time were you Company Commander of the accused?

A. From February 1940 to 1942.

Q. Will you tell the court of your knowledge of the character of the accused.

A. During that period in Iceland under tough conditions He was a well and willing worker with a happy disposition, and he was the same after coming to England. He was never in any trouble until I left the unit in February and to the best of my knowledge has been of no trouble to his new commander.

Q. Would you care to have Davis back?

A. Yes, I would like to have a bn of men like Davis.

SECOND CHARACTER WITNESS

Major J.P. Palmer, C.I.C. ~~is questioned by the defending officer.~~ having been duly sworn

Q. Tell the court what your first association with the accused was.

A. I was IC No. 5 Platoon, "A" Coy, C. H. of O. from 3 May 41 until March 1942. Davis was sick at the time I joined the platoon but he rejoined the platoon shortly after I came. In my opinion he was one of the three best Ptes in the platoon and was very efficient. He was in no serious trouble of any kind and was always pulling his weight. I have always had the greatest faith in him and expected him to become an N.C.O. He did have acting rank once but lost it through going to hospital. He is a very useful soldier and in my opinion should be made available for the army as soon as possible.

E3
Dmc.

Statement made by Defending Officer in the case of
C 20897 Pte. Davis, C.H.

The accused joined the army on the 10th of September 1939. He served in Iceland in 1940 and 1941 and in the field. He became an A/Cpl. but lost his stripes because he went to hospital. I do not know the date of his promotion. His crime sheet only shows one crime of nine hrs A.W.L. Since coming to C.E.R.G. in the Cameron Platoon he has been a very fine soldier. There are several things that explain his going A.W.L. The first is the mail situation which worried him considerably. Secondly he spent all his soldiering time with the Cameron Highlanders and he might be sent from here to another unit. Under the conditions here, living conditions, etc., his one desire was to go to the Camerons. The best place for this soldier is in the field and since he has only made one mistake a soldier like Davis should not be put in detention but used as a soldier.

First Witness for Prosecution) H.37867 Pte Filion L 2 Bn 1 CBRD duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

Atabout 0130 hrs on 1 Jan 45 I was in bed in my quarters Valcartier Bldg Can Bks when I saw some person go past my bed to the wall at the head of the bed, take down a tunic that was hanging on the wall turn around and walk to the window at the foot of the bed. Although he had his back turned towards me I judged this person was going through the pockets of the tunic - I actually saw him doing this. This person was taking something out of the tunic pockets and placing it in his own trouser pockets. I knew it wasn't Cpl Hidlebaugh who sleeps over my bed so I hadn't heard him get out of bed so I reached up and put my hand between the slats of the upper bed & felt someone in bed there. I woke up the occupant Cpl Hidlebaugh up. I then turned to my large pack which was near the bed & obtained my torch from it. The man near the window turned around and as I did this I flashed my torch on his face. The man on whom I flashed the torch was the accused who is in court. The accused left the tunic on the foot of the bed and walked out of our quarters. Both Cpl Hidlebaugh & Myself got up and dressed and went down to the SLI quarters on the floor below ours and looked through those quarters for the accused but couldnt find him. On our way out of the SLI quarters we notified the Orderly Sgt. Afther this we went downstairs to the latrine and found the accused just inside the latrine. Cpl Hidlebaugh placed the accused under close arrest. The accused was searched in the hallway of the Valcartier Bldg. Before the search the accused said he had some 1600 lire on him. After the search it was found the accused had 2200 lire. In the guard room Cpl Hidlebaugh mentioned that he was missing a pen and pencil - the accused was present - Cpl Hidlebaugh, an R.P. and myself went to the latrine where we had first found the accused. I saw what look like a pen in the latrine pit. I then went to bed. The accused lived in the SLI billets as far as I know. The accused when I saw him in our quarters had trousers, running shoes and shirt on - he had notunic . The tunic which he took from the wall was hanging on the wall between my bed and the corner of the room.

Cross-exam.

The accused by his condition had been drinking.

I couldn't say the accused was drunk.

Second witness for prosecution

H. 16923 Cpl Hidlebaugh M.J. 2 Bn 1 CBRD duly sworn is exanined by the prosecutor.

At about 0125 hrs 1 Jan 45. I was in bed in my quarters in Valcartier Bldg. Can Bks. when I was awakened by Pte Filion who slept in the lower bunk of my bed. I saw a person standing by the window which is just to the right of my bed - I watched this person for about a minute then this person turned around and hung my tunic on the foot of my bed. I asked this person what he was doing with my tunic and why he was in the room. Just about then Pte Filion flashed his torch on this person's face. This person at that moment said "I am looking for my bed" and then turned and ran out of the room. The accused, who is in court was the man upon whom Pte Filion flashed his torch. Pte Filion and I got up, dressed and went over to the SLI quarters but was enable to locate the accused there. Filion & I went on downstairs and I saw the accused in the latrine. Filion flashed his light on him and we both recognized him as the man who we had seen upstairs with my tunic. I placed the accused under close arrest. The accused asked for permission to have aleak which I gave. The accused opened the lid and I saw him place his hand in the large front xx pocket of his trousers and it appeared to me that he dropped something down the latrine hole. I slammed down the seat and made him stand away. The accused was searched and there was found on his person money and some pencils. At the guardroom the accused was again searched. Where more pencils And some pens were found on his person. When I went to sign the body receipt for the accused I found my pen and pencil were missing. I went back to the latrine where I thought I'd seen the accused throw something down the latrine hole, there I saw one pen laying at the bottom of the latrine and one pen up near the top. The latrine seat was nailed down until the morning. In the morning at about 0900 I went to the latrine and recovered from it 2 pens and one pencil. The pen and pencil were my own. Waterman's pen & pencil set shown to me are my own which I recovered from the latrine. Marked Ex A. The other pen was a motley white one - The pen shown to me is the other pen- marked Ex B. The pens and pencils taken from accused in Guard Room consisted of a pen & pencil set in a black case- set produce and identified by witness marked Ex C. also a pen and pencil - pen identified and marked Exhibit D - pencil identified and marked Ex E. The last time I had the pen & pencil set Ex A was on the night of 31 Dec 44 at which time it was in the tunic which I later saw in the hands of the accused by the window on the 1 Jan 45.

Cross-exam

I dont remeber using the latrine previously that evening.
I didn't actually see the accused drop something down the latrine.
There are a number of seats in the latrine about 12 I think.
The only time I was in the latrine that night that I can remember was when I was there with the accused when he asked me if he could have a "leak"
I would say the accused had been drinking that night.
It was noticeable that the accused had been drinking except when he ran out of my quarters.

Prosecutor's address.

Prior to the day of the offences - alleged in the charge sheets certain soldiers lost property prior to the arrest of the accused on Jan 1 - 45. These articles were subsequently found in the possession of the accused. The articles have been satisfactorily identified and there ownership proven and it is now the duty of the accused, through defence witnesses, to give a satisfactory account of how he became to be in possession of these articles which he has not done.

-9- "DWR"

Pte Davis has been in the army since Sept 39, and so far has a very good record and fairly clean NFM t. He seems to be the victim of very unfortunate circumstances. He purchased two pens at the Maple Leaf Gardens not knowing they were stolen.
On New Years Eve he was celebrating and had quite a lot to drink, around midnight his mind became blank and he does not remember what he did. His friends he was drinking with have since left for their unit.

Pte Davis was drunk and does not remember what he was doing. It is left to the Court to decide whether he was guilty or not.

Pte Davis enlisted on the 3rd Sept 1939. He has had no previous service in the field. His AFW 6 shows that for the last five years he has kept out of trouble & has had three small chages against him. He has one dependant, his Mother. It is my opinion that Pte Davis has been the victim of very unfortunate circumstances & ask the court to judge accordingly.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(2), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(3)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(4)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, see Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex [illegible], initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). First Witness for Prosecution:

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 63 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

First Witness for prosecution } H 37867 Pte Filion L. 2 Bn 1 CBRD duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

at about 0130 hrs on 1 Jan 45 I was in bed in my quarters Valcartier Bldg Can Bks when I saw some person go past my bed to the wall at the head of the bed, take down a tunic that was hanging on the wall turn around and walk to the window at the foot of the bed. Although he had his back turned towards me I judged this person was going through the pockets of the tunic - I actually saw him doing this. This person was taking something out of the tunic pockets and placing it in his own trouser pockets. I knew it was not Cpl Riddlebarger who sleeps over my bed as I had not heard him get out of bed so. I reached up and put my hand between the slats of the upper bed & felt someone in bed there. I woke up the occupant Cpl Riddlebarger R.P. I then turned to my large packsack which was near the bed & obtained my torch from it. The man near the window turned around and as he did this I flashed my torch in his face. The man on whom I flashed the torch was the accused who is in court. The accused left the tunics on the foot of the bed and walked out of our quarters. Both Cpl Riddlebarger & myself got up and dressed and went down to the SLI quarters in the floor below ours and looked through these quarters for the accused but couldn't find him. On our way out of the SLI quarters we notified the Orderly Sgt. After this we went down-stairs to the latrines and found the accused just inside the latrines. Cpl Riddlebarger placed the accused under close arrest. The accused was searched in the hallway of the Valcartier Bldg. Before the search the accused said he had some 1600 lire on him. After the search it was found the accused had 2200 lire. In the guard room Cpl Riddlebarger mentioned that he was missing a pen and pencil - the accused was present. Cpl Riddlebarger, an R.P. and myself went to the latrines where we had first found the accused. I saw what look like a pen in the latrines pit. I then went to bed. The accused lived at in the SLI billets as far as I know. The accused when I saw him in our quarters had trousers, running shoes, shirt on - he had no tunic. The tunics were hanging on the wall between my bed and the corner of the room.

At about 0125 hrs 1 Van 45 I was in bed in my quarters in Valcartier Bldg Can. Bks when I was awakened by Pte Filion who slept in the lower bunk of my bed. I saw a person standing by the window which is just to the right of my bed - I watched this person for about a minute then this person turned around and hung my tunic on the foot of my bed. I asked this person what he was doing with my tunic and why he was in the room. I just about then Pte Filion flashed his torch on this person's face. This person at that moment said "I am looking for my bed" and then turned and ran out of the room. The accused, who is in court was the man upon whom Pte Filion flashed his torch. Pte Filion and I got up, dressed and went over to the S.H.I quarters but were unable to locate the accused there. Filion & I went on downstairs and I saw the accused in the latrine. Filion flashed his light on him and we both recognized him as the man whom we had seen upstairs with my tunic. I placed the accused under close arrest. The accused asked for permission to have a leak which I gave. The accused opened the lid and I saw him place his hand in the large front pocket of his trousers and it appeared to me that he dropped something down the latrine hole. I slammed down the seat and made him stand away. The accused was searched and there was found on his person money and some pencils. At the guardroom the accused was again searched when more pencils and some pens were found on his person. When I went to sign for the body receipt for the accused I found my pen and pencil were missing. I went back to the latrine where I thought I'd seen the accused throw something down the latrine hole. There I saw one pen laying at the bottom of the latrine and one pen up near the top. The latrine seat was nailed down until the morning. On the morning at about 0900 I went to the latrine and recovered from it 2 pens and one pencil. The pen and pencil were my own. Waterman's pen & pencil set shown to me are the my own which I recovered from the latrine. marked Ex. A. The other pen was a mottled white one - The pen shown to me is the other pen marked Ex B. The pens and pencils taken from accused in Guard Room consisted of a pen & pencil set in a black case - Set marked by produced & identified by witness, marked Ex C. also a pen and pencil - pen identified and marked Exhibit B - pencil identified and marked Ex C. The last time I had the pen & pencil set Ex A was on the morning of 31 Dec 44 at which time it was in the latrine where later saw it in the hands of the accused by the window on the 1 Jan 45

I dont remember using the latrine previously that evening.

I didnt actually see the accused drop something down the latrine.

There are a number of seats in the latrine about 12 I think.

The only time I was in the latrine that night that I can remember was when I was there with the accused when he asked me if he could have a leak.

I would say the accused had been drinking that night.

It was noticeable that the accused had been drinking except when he ran out of my cigarettes.

I did not give the pen or pencil Ex A to the accused at any time or to any other person prior to their being in the latrine hole.

Prosecutor's Address.

Prior to the day of the offences - alleged in the charge sheets certain soldiers lost property prior to the arrest of the accused on Jan 1-45. These articles were subsequently found in the possession of the accused. The articles have been satisfactorily identified and there ownership proven and it is now the duty of the accused, through defence witnesses, to give a satisfactory account of how he became to be in possession of these articles, which he has not done.

Pte Davis has been in the army since Sept 39. and so far has a very good record and fairly clean Mil 6. He seems to be the victim of very unfortunate circumstances. He purchased two pens at the Maple Leaf Canteen ~~and~~ not knowing they were stolen.

On New Years Eve he was celebrating and had gone a bit to drink, around midnight his mind became blank and he has not remembered what he did. His friend he was drinking with have since left for Overseas.

Pte Davis was drunk ~~so~~ and does not remember what he was doing. It is left to the court to decide whether he was guilty or not.

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

"At approximately 0145 hours 1st January 1945 I was in bed in Valcartier Building, Canada Barracks. I saw someone come in, take a tunic from the wall and go over to the window with it. From his motions I would say that he was taking something from the tunic and putting it in his own pocket. I awakened Cpl Hidlebaugh and got my torch from my large pack. I flashed my torch on the man. It was the accused, whom I now recognize. He left just after I flashed the torch. Cpl Hidlebaugh and myself dressed and went to search for him. When we went outside of the building we saw the accused by the latrines. I went to get a regimental policeman. When I came back with one I saw the accused's money counted. The accused sais he had about sixteen (16) dollars. I am not sure but I think there was about twenty-two (22) dollars. The accused was then taken to 2 Bn Detention Room. On the way back to the billets I stopped at the latrine with Cpl Hidlebaugh and looked in it. I saw a fountain pen down at the bottom. I then went to bed."

"At approximately 0125 hours 1st January 1945 I was in bed in "6" Coy billets in the Valcartier Building, Canada Barracks. I was awakened by Pte Filion. I saw someone standing by the window with his back towards me. I watched him for about a minute. He turned around and hung my tunic up on my bed. The accused, whom I now recognize, was that man. I asked him what he was doing there and what he was doing with my tunic. He said he was looking for his bed. Pte Filion flashed his torch on him and the accused made a hurried exit. Pte Filion and myself got out of bed, dressed, got the 2 Bn Orderly Sgt, Sgt Basarabe and went through "LO" Coy billets but did not find the accused. We went downstairs and outside where we found the accused. I placed him under close arrest. The accused said he wanted to have a leak. Prosecution witness for prosecution: No K-77219, Sgt COLLINS C.A., No 1 MTVRD, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q. Are you aware that Pte Davis is charged with disobeying a lawful command given him by his superior officer?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What do you know of the first charge laid against Pte Davis?
A. On the morning of 16 Feb 42 Pte Davis approached me with regard to obtaining a pass. He claimed a lady friend had come to visit him and he wanted to find accommodation for her. I passed the request on the Adjt and he rejected it, and I informed Davis of the decision, but allowed him the rest of the morning off to escort the lady out of the bk area.
Q. Did you tell Pte Davis to report back to you at any particular time or before any particular time?
A. No sir, I just said "that morning."

Q10. Did you at any time after you allowed him to go that morning, endeavour to locate him?
A10. Yes sir, on the lunch parade at 12 o'clock.
Q11. Pte Davis said he had a lady friend in the bk area?
A11. Yes, sir.
Q12. Where abouts?
A12. In front of our depot orderly room: I spoke to her myself, personally.
Q13. Did Pte Davis say why this lady friend was there?
A13. She was just visiting him.
Q14. The Adjt refused to grant Davis a pass, did he?
A14. Yes sir, and I told him he could take the rest of the morning off for the purpose of finding quarters for this friend of his in the town of Bordon.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q15. Will you state to the court the exact order you gave Pte Davis?
A15. "You may have the remainder of the morning off to escort this lady out of the bk area, and report back to me this morning." I gave a definite order.
Q16. Was any specific time stated?
A16. No sir, just the order to escort her out of the bk area and then report back to me.
Q17. He didn't report back to you?
A17. No, sir.
Q18. When did you miss him or look for him?
A18. At the lunch parade at 1200 hrs.
Q19. Were you looking for him then?
A19. Yes, sir.
Q20. He should have reported to you by that time?
A20. Yes sir, the morning was over by 12 o'clock.
Q21. And you consider that was a definite order, that he could find quarters for his lady friend and report back to you in the morning?
A21. Yes, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q22. You gave Pte Davis permission to be absent from the bk area and to report back to you during the morning of 16 Feb 42?
A22. That is right.
Q23. At any time after 1200 hrs of that same date, did you see Pte Davis?
A23. No, sir.
Q24. Can you state from your own knowledge whether he was in his quarters at tatoo roll call on 16 Feb?
A24. No, sir.
Q25. Who took the roll call that night?
A25. The senior man of his room.
Q26. When you gave permission to the accused to escort his lady friend out of the bk area, did you make it clear he was to report back to you that same morning?
A26. Yes sir, I did.
Q27. What information have you concerning the time the accused was absent from duty that day?
A27. The same morning I drew up a guard roster and posted it, and his name was on the list. Due to him not showing up the remainder of that day I exchanged his name with another for guard mounting about 1600 hrs, and he still had not shown up.
Q. Is that your usual way of detailing men for guard duty?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long has that system been in force?
A. Since we have been in these quarters.
Q. Pte Davis, as a member of your sub-park, would have been on guard quite frequently: can you tell the court how often Pte Davis would be on guard, on an average?
A. About every third week, that is for the sub-park.
Q. How many men are there in the sub-park?
A. 65 O.Rs.
Q. Therefore, would it be in order to say Pte Davis had at least one guard per month?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long has Pte Davis been with the sub-park? 4/6

A33. Ever since its formation.
Q34. Therefore Pte Davis at least once per month has seen his name on that order board and has been posted for guard duty in this manner?
A34. Yes, sir.
Q35. Did you see him anywhere in the bk area between 1200 hrs 16 Feb 42 and 1600 hrs 16 Feb 42?
A35. No, sir.
Q36. Did you make any inquiries about him?
A36. On the morning of the 17th I took the reveille roll call and he was absent, and his bed had not been made down and he was absent for the remainder of that day.
Q37. What time did Davis approach you the morning of the 16th to get permission to escort his lady friend out of the bk area?
A37. At approx 0800 hrs or 0815 hrs.
Q38. Therefore it would appear that Davis requested a pass before this lady friend arri ved?
A38. No, I believe she was already there; about 0830 hrs I noticed her there and she was there until about 1015 hrs.
Q39. What time did you give Davis permission to leave the camp?
A39. About 0830.
Q40. And you posted this guard roster at what time?
A40. Approx 0900 hrs the morning of 16 Feb 42.
Q41. Therefore to the best of your knowledge the accused was absent from 1200 hrs 16 Feb 42 until 1600 hrs 16 Feb 42?
A41. Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

He said there was nothing to do and I could go and find a room for the girl friend. All he said was I could go away long enough to find a room for the girl friend.
Q84. And you went with her to find a room for her?
A84. Yes, sir.
Q85. You did come back to bks some time in the afternoon, did you?
A85. About 1600 hrs.

Q87. After getting accomodn for your lady friend and coming back to bks, then you did go AWL?
A87. I went into the bk room and they told me I had been pegged for going away that morning, that Sgt Collins had pegged me, and I believed that because I have been on the peg so often there, and I figured I might as well take a little time off.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

A98. No, but there was no reason to report to anyone.

R-77215 Sgt. Collins, C.A., No. 1 M.P.P.U.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., C.A. (C), having been duly sworn, gives evidence as follows:

Q.1 Sgt. Collins, you have heard the charges against Private Davis read out to him. Kindly state what you know concerning these charges.

A. Sir, on the morning of 16 FEB 42 I was approached by the accused, Pte. Davis, at approximately 0815 hrs in regards to him securing a pass. He stated he had a lady friend here in the barrack area that he wished to find quarters for that day. I approached the Adjutant, as my own Section Officer wasn't here, and stated the question. The Adjutant refused permission. I returned to Davis and told him the answer, then gave him permission to escort the lady out of the barrack area, and then to report back to me.

Q.2 When you told him to report back to you, did you state specifically the latest time at which he was to report?

A. No Sir, there wasn't any specific time, I just said in the morning. That was the last I saw of him until I was brought up as a witness in a charge laid against him before the Commanding Officer.

Q.3 Did you, at any time after he left you on the morning of 16 FEB 42, endeavour to locate the accused?

A. Yes Sir, at 1800 hrs of the same day at the dinner parade. He was absent then.

Q.4 Can you state of your own knowledge whether or not he was in his quarters at Tattoo Roll Call, 16 FEB 42?

A. No Sir.

Q.5 Who took the Tattoo Roll Call?

A. One of the senior privates sir. I just forget his name. I choose a different one every night in the absence of the Corporal, but I believe it was Private Monteith.

Q.6 Did you make it quite clear to the accused that he had permission only to escort the lady from the barrack area, and was to report back to you on the morning of the 16th?

A. Yes Sir, I attempted my best to explain that.

Q.7 What information have you, of your own knowledge, concerning the charge of the accused failing to appear for Guard Duty?

A. None Sir.

Wm Langley Myers

Summary of Evidence (Cont'd)

Q.8 What information can you give concerning the warning of the accused that he was detailed for Guard Duty?

A. I personally, on the morning of 16 FEB 42, drew up a Guard Roster and posted it on the Sub Park order board on the morning of the 16th, in which his name appeared.

Q.9 What is the usual manner of warning soldiers for Guard Duty?

A. By their names being posted on the Sub Park order board.

Q.10 Was it the same board on which you did post the accused's name on the morning of the 16th?

A. Yes Sir.

Q.11 Was his name deleted from the Duty Roster at any time during the 16th of February?

A. Yes Sir, after 1200 hrs.

Q.12 You say after 1200 hrs. Can you give an approximate time?

A. Between 1500 and 1600 hrs his name was deleted from the Roster and another name submitted.

Q.13 Did you make such deletion?

A. Yes Sir.

Q.14 Does the accused come directly under your command?

A. Yes Sir.

Q.15 Did you see him at his usual place of duty or anywhere in the barrack area between 1200 hrs, 16 FEB 42, until 1600 hrs, 18 FEB 42?

A. No Sir.

Q.16 During that time did you make any inquiries about him?

A. Yes Sir.

Q.17 How?

A. I made inquiries to his room-mates.

Q.18 Did you check the barrack room at Tattoo Roll Call or Reveille Roll Call between 16th and 18th February?

A. Yes Sir, at Reveille of the 17th.

Q.19 Was the accused present at that time?

A. No Sir.

Q.20 What time did you give Davis permission to leave the camp?

A. At approximately 1000 hrs on the morning of the 16th.

Q.21 What time was the Guard Duty Roster posted to the notice board?

No. B-62873, PTE. DAVIS J.W., 1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., tried by Field General Court Martial at BORDON, Hants. on 29 Apr 42, 1 May 42 and 6 May 42.

PRESIDENT:	Major W.G. Bury,	1 CDIRU.
MEMBERS:	Capt. E.M. Crouse,	1 CDIRU.
	Capt. T.M. Powers,	1 CDIRU.

The order convening the Court, the charge sheet, summary of evidence and medical certificate are laid before the Court.

The Court satisfy themselves as provided by R.P. 22 & 23.

The accused is brought before the Court.

Prosecutor: Lieut. R. Erskine, 1 MTVRD, RCASC.
Accused declined services of Defending Officer.

At 1040 hrs the trial commences.

The order convening the Court is read, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused, and they severally answer to their names.

Q1. Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1. No, sir.

The President, members and judge advocate are duly sworn.

Q2. Do you object to No. B-66944, A/Sgt. T. Pyburn, H.Q., C.R.U., acting as shorthand writer?
A2. No, sir.

The shorthand writer is duly sworn.

The charge sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned first charge sheet.

Q3. Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3. Not Guilty.
Q4. Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4. Not Guilty.

Q5. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?
A5. Yes sir, for two reasons I would like an adjournment. First, I have not had my charge sheet yet at all nor any papers; and secondly, I want to plead in my case that I am not responsible for my actions. I have never seen the charge sheet yet.
Q6. Have you had a copy of the summary of evidence?
A6. No sir, I have had nothing like that at all.
Q7. Have you had an opportunity of getting a defending officer?
A7. I had the opportunity, yes sir, but I refused a defending officer.
Q8. And you would like more time to prepare your case?
A8. Yes, sir.
Q9. How long would it take you?
A9. I would like to see a specialist for my second reason for not wanting to be tried now, and there are some witnesses I want to get in this case, sir.

Q10. Are there here, are they in this camp?
A10. No sir, they are at Farnborough.

PROSECUTOR: I have no objection to an adjournment on the grounds the accused has given. I did not personally give him a copy of the summary of evidence, but I was informed by Capt German, the former Adjt at MTVRD, that he had given a copy of the summary to the accused, but I did not give it to him myself. Capt German left here on 15 Apr.

Q11. JUDGE ADVOCATE: Did you receive a copy of the summary of evidence?
A11. ACCUSED: No sir, I didn't. I had it offered me about 10 mins ago.

PROSECUTOR: I have always carried out the practice, when the accused arrives, to give him a fresh copy, because they get pretty dirty and soiled.

THE COURT: How long has the accused been in custody?

PROSECUTOR: About 54 days awaiting trial on these charges, sir.

THE COURT: He has had the opportunity of getting witnesses if he required them, though?

PROSECUTOR: As a matter of fact I was informed he did not require any witnesses, sir.

THE COURT: I would like to ask the prosecutor the reason for the 54 days delay in bringing this case to trial.

PROSECUTOR: I don't think I should say at the present time, sir; it might prejudice the trial.

Court closed to consider submission of accused for adjournment.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

THE COURT: The court will adjourn until 0930 hrs 1 May 42 ti give you an opportunity to get your witnesses and a copy of the summary of evidence. Before you leave the court let the prosecutor know the names and locations of the witnesses you wish to call. I would strongly advise you to take advantage of the services of a defending officer.

ACCUSED: But I don't have to tell the prosecuting officer who my witnesses are, do I?

JUDGE ADVOCATE: It is only for the purpose of helping you to get them here, but if you don't want to do that, if you feel sure you can get hold of them yourself, you may handle it that way. However, if you wish, it is your privilege to submit the names to the prosecuting officer here to get your witnesses for you, but if you want to get them yourself, very well.

ACCUSED: What about the second plea, the medical examination?

JUDGE ADVOCATE: You will have to arrange that through your unit. Ask to be paraded before your C.O. and make your request.

PROSECUTOR: This soldier is at the present time in detn rm No 1, CASCRU; for reasons which will come out later on he was removed from the guard room of this unit to that detn rm. I believe he is struck off our strength, so possibly he will have to apply to the C.O. of the Reinf Unit where he is at present located. (To Accused):- Of course, if you wish to call medical evidence you should give the name of the M.O. also to the C.O. and ask him to have the M.O. here to give evidence on your behalf, but I would strongly emphasise what the President has already said, that you should, as you have pleaded Not Guilty to these charges, take advantage of your opportunity to get an officer to defend you at your trial.

Q12. THE COURT: Have you now got a copy of the summary of evidence?
A12. No, sir.

PROSECUTOR: I have a spare copy, sir, which I will hand to the accused before the Court with your permission, also the charge sheets which are attached, and a list of witnesses.

At 1100 hrs the Court adjourn until 0930 hrs on 1 May 42.

On 1 May 42, at 0930 hrs, the Court reassemble, pursuant to adjournment; present the same members as on the 29 Apr 42.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

Q13. THE COURT: Pte Davis, are you now prepared to proceed with your case?
A13. ACCUSED: No sir, they put me in a cell and would not let me see anybody, and they would not even let me look at my papers.
Q14. You had your summary when you left here?
A14. They took it off me when I went down there, though.

Q15. JUDGE ADVOCATE: Do you mean to say somebody took your summary of evidence away from you?
A15. Yes sir, they said I didn't have any right to have any reading material in my cell at all.
Q16. Who was he who took it away from you? What was his name?
A16. I don't know; I was reading it on my bed and they took it away from me.
Q17. What time did they take it away from you?
A17. Just after dinner on Wed. I got back there about quarter to 12, had my dinner, and they took it off me. They didn't even send it with my escort today and I have not got a copy of it.
Q18. Did you ask for an opportunity to get witnesses?
A18. Yes sir, I was paraded to the orderly room to be remanded and I asked for my witnesses, I wanted the MP's off duty, and they wouldn't co-operate. I asked the Major there.
Q19. Who was the Major?
A19. Major Lucas.
Q20. Who is he?
A20. The Major in the Administrative Wing at the unit. I went up before him and I asked him to let me have the witnesses and he said he would send the courts martial officer over, but he didn't come.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: Mr Prosecutor, do you know anything at all about these circumstances?

PROSECUTOR: The Adjt of the Reinf Unit phoned me yesterday, and I explained that the Court had instructed the accused, and I was told later on by another phone call by an officer whom I understood was the courts martial officer, that he had had a long conversation with the accused and that the accused had been medically examined at the F.A.P. of the Reinf Unit. I would submit, if I may, that the accused was given very clear instructions when he left here at the previous adjournment.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: If it is true that a M.P. took the summary of evidence away from the accused, it is serious.

Q21. THE COURT: Did you complain about that to the orderly officer?
A21. ACCUSED: I didn't say anything to him at all; I just asked them to give it back to me and they refused. They said there was no kind of writing material allowed in there, and that was supposed to be writing material.

PROSECUTOR: May I make a suggestion? Obviously the accused is not conducting his case in a very good manner, and it is my duty to bring out anything helpful to him, and I suggest very strongly that an officer be appointed to defend him, if that can be done.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: You cannot force a def officer on an accused person.
Q22. Do you want a def officer?
A22. ACCUSED: I want a real lawyer; I don't want an ordinary officer.
Q23. Who is the courts martial officer?
A23. Lieut. Pearce.
Q24. Would he be satisfactory to you?
A24. If I can get him, sir.

Court closed to consider application of accused.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

LIEUT. V. PEARCE, No 1 CASCRU appeared before the Court, and announced he was acting as Defending Officer for the accused.

Upon instructions of the President, the shorthand writer read a verbatim report of the proceedings to date.

Q25. THE COURT: Are you satisfied that is a fair transcript of your evidence?
A25. Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Have you anything to say, Mr. Pearce?

DEFENDING OFFICER: Having been brought into the case at the eleventh hour I have not had much opportunity of studying the case. I have seen Davis on one or two occasions previously and the question of a defending officer was discussed. I will not take up your valuable time by talking of what was done, but I did advise Davis to have a def officer, and I was somewhat surprised to find he had not requested one. This morning was the first intimation I had that he was attending a court martial without a def officer. I am prepared to accept the case, now that he has asked for me, and I would respectfully ask for an adjournment to study the case and put myself in a position to adequately defend him, and if the court would see their way clear to grant an adjournment to a date satisfactory to all concerned it would be very much appreciated.

THE COURT: Shall we say next Wed morning at 0930 hrs?

DEF OFFICER: That would be sufficient time, sir, if that meets with the approval of the court. That would give us plenty of time to prepare a defence.

At 1115 hrs the Court adjourn until 0930 hrs on 6 May 42.

On 6 May 42, at 0930 hrs, the Court reassemble, pursuant to adjournment; present the same members as on the 1 May 42.

LIEUT. V. PEARCE, No 1 CASCRU, formerly defending officer, did not appear before the Court.

LIEUT. M.I. FRIEDMAN, No 1 CASCRU, took his place before the Court as defending officer.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

THE ACCUSED: May I change the plea I made the other day, sir.

DEFENCE (To Accused): Just a minute. Sit here by me.
I take it, sir, the preliminary proceedings have already taken place and the accused has already pleaded. I have a preliminary application to make on the charges, and whether that is open to me now, when the accused has already pleaded, I don't know, but if the court will hear me I would appreciate it. The accused wishes to withdraw the plea already made. Perhaps that will put us back in a position as though he had not pleaded at all.

THE COURT: Very well; we will proceed on that basis.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: Now, there are two charge sheets, and the accused has pleaded Not Guilty to the charges on the first charge sheet. Does he wish to withdraw that plea and substitute another plea?

DEFENCE: He has not pleaded to the second charge sheet?

JUDGE ADVOCATE: No.

DEFENCE: It is the first charge with which I am concerned at the moment, the AWL one. I wish to withdraw that plea for the accused.

Defending Officer submitted first and second charges on first charge sheet arise out of same set of facts, and requested Court and/or prosecutor to withdraw one charge.

The Court is closed to consider their decision.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

THE COURT: The Court has not granted the application of the defence.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: The Court not having granted the application, I will read the first charge sheet again.

The accused is again arraigned upon each charge in the first charge sheet

Q26. Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge in the above mentioned charge sheet?
A26. Guilty.
Q27. Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge in the above mentioned charge sheet?
A27. Guilty.

The accused having pleaded Guilty to the two charges on the first charge sheet, the provisions of R.P. 35(B) are here complied with.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the second charge sheet.

Q26. Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge in the above mentioned charge sheet?

PROSECUTOR: Before the accused pleads, may I draw the attention of the court to the fact that the date as shown in the charge sheet and summary of evidence is a typographical error; the correct date is 18 Mar 42, not 19 Mar 42.

DEFENCE: My friend may be right, but the date throughout the evidence is shown as 19 Mar 42.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: I do not know what the accused intended to do, but possibly a plea of Not Guilty should be entered in view of these discrepancies.

DEFENCE: I will not advise the accused to plead Guilty to the offence occurring on the 19th if it did not occur on the 19th.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: It is the duty of the court to enter a plea of Not Guilty under the circumstances, and put the accused on his defence.

DEFENCE: I have no desire to give the court any unnecessary trouble. However, the accused has to plead to the charge as laid.

Q29. JUDGE ADVOCATE: Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge in the second charge sheet?
A29. Guilty.
Q30. Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge in the second charge sheet?
A30. Guilty.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: In view of the fact the prosecuting officer has called the attention of the court to the fact that the date in the charge sheet is incorrect and should be 18 Mar 42 instead of 19 Mar 42, I must advise the court there is no alternative but to proceed with the evidence since it has come to their knowledge the date is incorrect, and if they find the offence charged was committed on a different date, to make a special finding that the accused is guilty of committing the offence on that date instead of the 19th. I think that is the only thing we can do, unless the prosecuting officer can produce some authority to the contrary.

PROSECUTOR: No sir, I think that is the safest procedure, and also the fairest. I wish to call witnesses who will, I believe, prove that the accused did damage public property, and the approx time mentioned will be proven by the various witnesses. The date which I submit to the court will be proven as 18 Mar rather than 19 Mar, is to all intents and purposes an immaterial fact, in that the accused is being tried on a charge of an act of wilful damage, not necessarily at any specified time. Those are the only remarks I have to make, sir.

1st witness for prosecution) No. M-21115, PTE WALTON W.J., No 1 MTVRD, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q31. Pte Davis, the accused, has been charged with causing certain damage to public property; this damage occurred at a certain time on a certain date. Just tell the court in your own words the date that this damage occurred, the approx time, your duties, and what you saw?
A31. On 18 Mar 42 at approx 1700 hrs I was on sentry duty at the In gate by the guard room. At approx 1700 hrs I heard the noise of breaking glass. I went through the In gate to the window, where I could see Pte Davis breaking the windows with his hand. I stood there for a few mins and the Sgt of the Guard came along. I could see no-one else in the guard room at the time.
Q32. When you went around to where you heard this breaking of glass, did you look in the window?
A32. When I went around, yes sir.
Q33. You say you saw the accused actually breaking glass, is that correct?
A33. Yes, sir.
Q34. Did you peer inside the guard room at all?
A34. I looked inside and could not see anybody else.
Q35. Did you have a fairly wide view of the guard room?
A35. Not all of it, sir.
Q36. But you did see Pte Davis breaking the glass?
A36. Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q37. Do you recall giving your evidence on the summary, when the summary was taken?
A37. Yes, sir.
Q38. Did you state, in giving your evidence at that time, that the offence occurred on 19 Mar 42?
A38. Yes, sir.
Q39. What makes you so certain that the offence occurred on 18 Mar 42 instead?
A39. That was a mistake, sir, in the guard reports.
Q40. How did that mistake arise?
A40. It was just a mistake in the date.
Q41. What have you to do with the guard house?
A41. I was a sentry at the time, I was on the In gate.
Q42. Have you any other way of remembering the date? Just how do you remember the date?
A42. I was on three nights in that week. I was off Tues night, on Wed night; on every other night, you see.
Q43. How does that help us now in establishing the date?
A43. It works out that I was on the night of the 18th.
Q44. What night of the week was that?
A44. I think a Wed.
Q45. The fact is, you are not certain now whether it was the 18th or 19th?
A45. Yes sir, I am certain it was the 18th.
Q46. Because you have checked with the calendar, have you?
A46. Yes, sir.
Q47. Was it dark that night?
A47. No, sir.
Q48. Could you see quite clearly?
A48. Yes, sir.
Q49. Were lights on inside the bldgs?
A49. No, sir.
Q50. Any light in this cell which you though: Davis was occupying?
A50. No, sir.
Q51. How far were you from the window?
A51. I was right up, close to it.

Q52. What first attracted your attention?
A52. The noise.
Q53. How far were you away from the place where the noise was being made?
A53. Approx 10 ft.
Q54. All right; what did you do?
A54. I went around and went up to the window.
Q55. At your post at the In gate you were only 10 ft from the window you say was being broken?
A55. Yes, sir.
Q56. Did you look towards the window then?
A56. I couldn't see the window; it was around the corner.
Q57. You went to see what the noise was, is that it?
A57. Yes, sir.
Q58. What did you see when you got there?
A58. I could see breaking glass, and when there were enough windows broke I could see Pte Davis quite well.
Q59. Did you know Pte Davis?
A59. Yes, sir.
Q60. How many panes of glass were broken?
A60. Thirteen.
Q61. You are quite certain of that, are you?
A61. Yes, sir.

Q62. JUDGE ADVOCATE: 13 panes in one window, or was there more than one window?
A62. There is a double window.

2nd witness for prosecution) No. B-81562, L/CPL HENDERSON, R.M., No 1 MTVRD, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q63. The accused, Pte Davis, has been charged with causing certain damage to public property at a certain place at a certain time on a certain date. He has also been accused at approx the same time and place and date of attempting to escape. Would you tell the court in your own words the duties you were performing on that particular date, tell them the date and anything else you know concerning these charges?
A63. On 18 Mar 42 I was in my own bk room and I heard Pte Davis wanted salt for his meal at approx 1700 hrs. I got the salt and took it into him. When I entered his cell the Orderly Sgt accompanied me. After giving Pte Davis the salt I turned to go out of the cell. The Orderly Sgt walked up to Pte Davis and as I was just going to go out of the door I saw the tea fly on the floor, and also a cup, in our direction, but it did not splash either one of us.
Q64. Whose cup was it?
A64. Pte Davis'.
Q65. Did you see how it got on the floor?
A65. No sir, I just seen it fly by; I didn't see him throw it or anything else.
Q66. How do you know it was the 19th, and not the 17th or 20th of March?
A66. All I can remember is it was on 18 March that it happened.
Q67. When you got the salt did you enter into the cell in which Pte Davis was?

JUDGE ADVOCATE: Don't lead the witness too much.

PROSECUTOR: I am sorry; I had no intention of doing so.

Q68. What did you do with the salt?
A68. Gave it to Pte Davis.
Q69. Where was he then?
A69. Sitting on his bed.
Q70. Was anybody else in that particular room with the accused?
A70. No, sir.
Q71. Are you quite certain of that?
A71. Absolutely certain.
Q72. What did you do when you left the room?
A72. After I went in there, the Orderly Sgt was right behind me and I waited until he came out, and then locked the door again.
Q73. Who locked the door?
A73. I did.

Q74. Then what happened?
A74. The accused asked through the door for a drink of water, and I refused to give it to him on account of throwing the tea on the floor until the orderly officer made an appearance. While the orderly officer was making his appearance there the door was broken with something from the inside. Pte Davis asked me again for a drink of water and I said I would not give it to him until the orderly officer appeared. I went outside and heard some windows being broken and I saw them being broken at the north end of the bldg; I could not see who was breaking them, but they were broken from the inside.
Q75. Do you know anything else?
A75. That is all I know about that charge.
Q76. All right. Now, the second charge, that of attempting to escape?
A76. At 2050 hrs on the evening of 16 Mar 42 I accompanied Pte McMillen with Davis to go to the latrine. When we were approx 100 yds from the guard room Pte Davis said, "I am sorry, boys, I have a date, I will have to leave you." He had his rain cape over his head, he threw it off and ran away from us, ahead of us. He made a bolt for it.
Q77. Then what happened?
A77. We finally caught him.
Q78. What did you do?
A78. Pte McMillen caught him.
Q79. What did you do?
A79. I threw my torch at him to try and stop him.
Q80. What else did you do?
A80. I helped Pte McMillen look for him, and accompanied him back to the guard room at approx 2105 hrs.
Q81. Where did you next see Pte Davis after he made a bolt for it?
A81. I never saw him after we took him back to the guard room at 2105 hrs.
Q82. The accused ran away. Was it dark that night?
A82. Yes, sir.
Q83. Where did you next see him?
A83. When Pte McMillen was bringing him back to the road.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q84. Where did this alleged attempt to escape occur in relation to your bk block?
A84. On the road up to the latrine, about 100 yds from the guard room.
Q85. Were there other bldgs around there?
A85. Just outside toilets.
Q86. How far were you from the bk blocks?
A86. I would say about 50 ft.
Q87. How far from the nearest office bldg?
A87. About 100 yds.
Q88. It was not very late, 2050 hrs; were there people about?
A88. Some people coming from the show at the time.
Q89. Were there not a considerable number of people around, with the show having just come out?
A89. Not a considerable number, but I remember four or five people passing at the time.
Q90. And there were two guards with the accused?
A90. Yes, two of us there.
Q91. Before he made this alleged bolt, Davis said something, didn't he?
A91. Yes, he said, "Excuse me, boys, I have got a date, I will have to leave you."
Q92. It sounded as though Davis was trying to have a little fun with you?
A92. I wouldn't say that.
Q93. How far did he get?
A93. About 25 ft.
Q94. And that is about as far as you would expect a man to get under those circumstances?
A94. When he has got a pretty fast runner after him, yes sir.
Q95. You said you helped Pte McMillen to look for him, is that right?
A95. Yes, sir.
Q96. You didn't need to do much looking?
A96. I couldn't myself because my flashlight was out of commission; Pte McMillen really found him.

Q97. Are you suggesting you could not see 25 ft away without your flashlight at that hour?
A97. Not on 16 Mar.
Q98. Yet you saw other people walking around?
A98. Yes, people with flashlights.
Q99. Are you suggesting you could not see the figures of persons walking across the road?
A99. When they got close to me, yes sir.
Q100. How close?
A100. When walking right by me.
Q101. But you could not see them 25 ft away?
A101. No, sir.
Q102. How far is 25 ft?
A102. About the length of this room, sir, that is my idea.
Q103. You have not a very clear conception of when this alleged offence occurred, have you?
A103. We enter it in the book when anything happens.
Q104. You made an entry in the book when?
A104. I didn't make the entry, but the Cpl of the MP did.
Q105. You go by what he says then?
A105. I also make a note of it on a calendar for my own convenience in my own case.
Q106. Did you mark this particular occurrence on your calendar?
A106. No sir, I didn't.
Q107. So you are going by what the other guard says about the date?
A107. No, I am sure of the date it happened myself, because it was on a Wed.
Q108. There are lots of Wednesdays, though.
A108. This particular Wed fell on the 16th ofthe month.
Q109. You have always known it was on a Wed then?
A109. Yes, sir.
Q110. You have since found out what dates in Mar Wednesdays fell on?
A110. Yes, sir.
Q111. And did you find this particular Wed fell on 16 Mar?
A111. Yes, sir.
Q112. When did you find that out?
A112. I actually found it out just about four weeks ago.
Q113. So you have not been certain of the date until four days ago?
A113. That is right.
Q114. You now come in here and take your oath it was the 16th?
A114. Absolutely.
Q115. Previously to that, did you swear it was the 19th?
A115. I did. yes, sir.
Q116. In your summary of evidence?
A116. Yes, sir.
Q117. Now this evening in the detn room, how long had Davis been in detn there A117. From the 6th of the month.
Q118. Approx 10 or 11 days?
A118. Yes, sir.
Q119. That evening he made a request for salt for his food?
A119. Yes, sir.
Q120. Is it customary to give the prisoners salt?
A120. If they want it, yes sir.
Q121. Is it customary to take it in with their food?
A121. It is generally handed in with the food, but in this case we took it in.
Q122. Why was it not handed in to Davis?
A122. We had to keep him locked up pretty solid.
Q123. You did not let him unless it was absolutely necessary; is that what you are trying to say?
A123. Yes, sir.
Q124. He ate apart from the other prisoners, did he?
A124. Yes, sir.
Q125. Did you look after his wants?
A125. Pretty well, as well as I could.
Q126. It was your duty to see the prisoners were properly looked after?
A126. There is a guard there, a Sgt of the Guard who is i/c.
Q127. How did he happen to ask you for the salt?
A127. He did not particularly ask me; I heard him ask for it and I went and got it.
Q128. Do you recall giving evidence on the summary of evidence ---

PROSECUTOR: I object to reference to the summary of evidence.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: I think it is proper on cross-examination, but not on direct examination. You should read and ask the witness if he said it.

Q129. DEFENCE: Do you recall saying this, "He asked me for some salt for his supper?" Do you recall that?
A129. Yes, I remember that. The Sgt of the Guard asked for salt, I heard the accused ask for salt and I went and got it for him. He repeated it, and asked me for it.
Q130. You told us a moment ago he did not ask you personally for salt, and now you say he repeated his request direct to you?
A130. He asked the Sgt of the Guard for it at first, and I heard him repeat it again to me.
Q131. He made more than one request for salt?
A131. He did.
Q132. And finally asked you?
A132. Yes, sir.
Q133. Is that because the other guard would not bring it to him?
A133. I don't suppose he knew where it was.
Q134. But he had to ask someone else?
A134. Yes.
Q135. Then finally the salt was brought?
A135. Yes, sir.
Q136. How long after he first asked for it?
A136. Three to five mins.
Q137. There was some time elapsed, at any rate. Now then, when you came in with the salt, after giving it to him he threw his tea cup on the ground, is that right?
A137. Yes, with the tea in it.
Q138. Why did he do that?
A138. I have no idea, I was facing the door at the time.
Q139. Quite obviously he did not throw it at you?
A139. Oh no, not at me.
Q140. There must have been some reason?
A140 Yes, but he was talking to the Orderly Sgt - not to me.
Q141. That was not a magnificent, big room you were in?
A141. I didn't hear him say anything at all.
Q142. Did you hear him ask for some warm tea?
A142. I swear I didn't.
Q143. How close were you to the Orderly Sgt when he was talking to this prisoner?
A143. About from here to that chair (approx 18 ft).
Q144. You are not in a position to tell the exact size of the room?
A144. No, sir.
Q145. Or why Davis threw this cup of tea on the floor?
A145. No, sir.
Q146. After that, he asked for some water?
A146. Yes, sir.
Q147. Was any water brought to him?
A147. As a rule we are not in the habit of giving anybody water after throwing their cup of tea away.
Q148. Are people in the habit of throwing cups of tea away?
A148. As a matter of fact, that is the first time I ever refused anybody water.
Q149. You wanted to punish Davis, was that it, by making him wait for his water?
A149. Absolutely.
Q150. Did you try to find out why he threw his tea on the floor?
A150. No sir, I had other duties to perform and I came out and made the Orderly Sgt come out and locked the door.
Q151. When did you hear the breaking glass? How long after this happened?
A151. About 15 mins after; it all happened between 5 and 10 mins afterwards. The whole thing was over in about 15 mins.
Q152. What did you hear first?
A152. The door being broken.
Q153. What did you do?
A153. Nothing. I just stood on the outside.
Q154. You did not open the door to see what was happening?
A154. No, sir.

Q155. Was it not part of your duty to protect the property there?
A155. Yes, but there is a Sgt of the Guard i/c.
Q156. Did you notify the Sgt of the Guard?
A156. He was right there, alongside of me.
Q157. What were you doing there?
A157. I am the R.P.
Q158. Is it your duty to control prisoners?
A158. Yes, sir.
Q159. Even when in detn?
A159. Yes, sir.
Q160. You heard this prisoner breaking a door, and you did nothing about it?
A160. Quite correct.
Q161. Later on you heard him smashing windows?
A161. Yes, sir.
Q162. What did you do then?
A162. Just let him break them.

Q163. JUDGE ADVOCATE: Who was the Sgt of the Guard?
A163. I can't just name him now, but he is here.
Q164. The Orderly Sgt - do you remember him?
A164. Sgt Slade.
Q165. These windows in the guard room, are there any iron bars on them?
A165. Yes sir, on the outside.
Q166. Could a man get through, provided the panes of glass were broken, could he get through and escape through those windows?
A166. Not without bending the bars.

3rd witness for prosecution) No M-61504, PTE. McMILLEN H.N., No 1 MTVRD, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q167. Pte Davis has been accused of causing certain damage to public property on a certain date at a certain time and at a certain place. He is also charged with attempting to escape at or about the same time. Please tell the court your duties on the date on which these instances are alleged to have occurred?
A167. My duties were R.P. on the evening of 16 Mar 42.
Q168. You know of this charge laid against Pte Davis. When was it he was alleged to have attempted to escape - what date?
A168. The 16 Mar 42.
Q169. How are you so sure it was 16 Mar, and not 17th or 20th; why are you sure it was the 16th?
A169. Because there is a guard report.
Q170. Have you seen the guard report?
A170. Yes, sir.
Q171. What do you know of these charges?
A171. I don't know anything about the damage; I only accompanied the Orderly Officer into the cell, and I also accompanied the First Aid Cpl to help him apply first aid to Pte Davis; he had a bruised hand.
Q172. What did you see when you went into this cell?
A172. I saw Pte Davis sitting on his bed, and his hand was badly cut and bruised.
Q173. What else do you know about the other charge against Pte Davis?
A173. That is all I know in regard to the damage.
Q174. What do you know about the attempt to escape?
A174. At 2050 hrs the same evening I accompanied L/Cpl Henderson for the purpose of taking Pte Davis to the lavatory, and on the way he did attempt to escape.
Q175. What did he do?
A175. He threw down his ground sheet; he said, "I am sorry, boys, I have got a date," and he ran down the road a short distance and swung in at some bushes.
Q176. Then what happened?
A176. I went around the other bldg to head him off, and when I came back I found him in a small hollow not far away, near the bushes, laying on the ground with his face down.

Q177. What was your impression at the time?

DEFENCE: I object to that question.

Q178. PROSECUTOR: How far from the bushes was he?
A178. Approx six ft or so.
Q179. Was this hollow out in the open?
A179. There is an air raid shelter right near by.
Q180. Did you bring the accused's supper down to the guard rm on this night in question?
A180. Yes, sir.
Q181. About what time?
A181. Approx quarter to five or so.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: Is there any point in going into all this in detail? Does it really enter into the charge, do you think?

PROSECUTOR: No sir, but I am trying to anticipate possible cross-examination and probably head it off a bit.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: Well, I don't know that you can do that. It is purely extemporaneous matter.

PROSECUTOR: That is what I thought of the last cross-examination. No more questions, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q182. I think you told the court that at the time of this alleged offence it was the 18 Mar 42, is that right?
A182. Yes, sir.
Q183. Do you recall when giving your summary of evidence you stated the date at that time?
A183. Yes, sir.
Q184. Did you then say the date of it was 19 Mar?
A184. That was a mistake.
Q185. But you did say that, didn't you?
A185. Yes, but it was a mistake.
Q186. How do you know it was a mistake then and that you are not mistaken now?
A186. I have gone over the guard sheets, sir, and I find it was a mistake.
Q187. Who makes up the guard sheets?
A187. The Guard Comdrs.
Q188. You have nothing to do with that?
A188. No, sir.
Q189. You are now taking their word that it was the 18th and not the 19th?
A189. The 18th is right.
Q190. But you are not giving us yourown memory at all as to the date?
A190. The 18th is right.
Q191. Because the Guard Comdrs say so?
A191. No, sir.
Q192. How do you know then?
A192. We have a list to keep track of it.
Q193. Have you your own record?
A193. One made by the Cpl i/c, but not one I make myself.
Q194. It is the result of your conversations with these NCOs that leads you to say the 18th now and not the 19th?
A194. It was a slight mistake on my part.
Q195. They have convinced you now that you made a mistake before, when you gave your other evidence, is that right?
A195. Yes, sir.
Q196. That night you were on duty at the detn bks, the 18th or 19th?
A196. Yes, sir.
Q197. Did you have anything to do with the prisoner Davis, the accused, in this case that night?
A197. Yes, sir.
Q198. What did you have to do with him?
A198. I took him his supper.
Q199. At what time?
A199. Something just before five o'clock, between 4.30 and 5.00.

Q200. And it was your responsibility to see he was fed?
A200. Yes.
Q201. Did he ask for anything?
A201. No.
Q202. At the time you took his supper in, did he ask for anything then?
A202. No, sir.
Q203. Did you later hear him ask for anything at any time?
A203. No, sir.
Q204. Did you remain in the detn bks?
A204. No, I went to my own quarters.
Q205. Is that part of the detn bks or another bldg?
A205. In another bldg, attached to it.
Q206. How soon after you took him his supper did you leave for your own quarters?
A206. Right away.
Q207. And you didn't go back again until the time you describe to the court, with the First Aid Cpl, is that correct?
A207. I went back, sir, I was back with the Orderly Officer.
Q208. What time was that?
A208. After five o'clock, but I don't know what the time was.
Q209. The orderly officer or the orderly Sgt?
A209. No, the orderly officer.
Q210. Was the orderly Sgt there?
A210. Yes, sir.
Q211. Was L/Cpl Henderson there?
A211. Yes.
Q212. Were you all in the cell together?
A212. We were in the guard room, but I don't know who went in the cell.
Q213. Did you go into the cell?
A213. I did.
Q214. What happened?
A214. The Orderly Officer spoke to Davis and asked somebody to go for the First Aid Cpl.
Q215. Was this after the episode of the glass breaking and that sort of thing?
A215. Yes, sir.
Q216. You were not in before that?
A216. No, sir.
Q217. Later on you saw Davis again; later on you were back with Davis again?
A217. Yes, sir.
Q218. What time was that?
A218. It was before six o'clock, but I don't know the exact time.
Q219. What happened then?
A219. I helped the First Aid Cpl with his treatment of Davis.
Q220. Were you back again after that?
A220. Yes.
Q221. When?
A221. About 2050 hrs.- yes, 2050 hrs.
Q222. How are you so sure?
A222. Because I had signed the book, and that is the time I put down.
Q223. That is the only time you do remember clearly, is it?
A223. Yes.
Q224. What happened on that occasion; was that when Davis wanted to go to the latrine?
A224. Yes.
Q225. Were there more than two of you escorting Davis?
A225. Just the two of us.
Q226. Who was the other man?
A226. L/Cpl Henderson.
Q227. How far did you have to take him?
A227. Approx 125 yds or so.
Q228. Between the detn bks and that latrine, and in that vicinity, are there other bldgs?
A228. Yes, but all fenced off, sir.
Q229. There are other bldgs, are there?
A229. Yes.
Q230. Are they brick bldgs?
A230. No, sir.
Q231. Are there any brick bldgs there?
A231. Not along there.

Q232. L/Cpl Henderson, I am certain, said there were brick bldgs 50 ft away; would you agree with that?
A232. They are a short distance away from where the trouble started.
Q233. There are people living there?
A233. Yes.
Q234. And various bldgs around there?
A234. I don't just remember any.
Q235. This latrine to which you were taking Davis, was that a latrine other men frequented?
A235. Yes.
Q236. You were walking along a road, were you?
A236. Yes.
Q237. Were there other people on the road?
A237. I saw no-one else at the time.
Q238. Was there a show on that night?
A238. At the Garrison, yes.
Q239. Was that show quite close by?
A239. It was quite a little distance away.
Q240. Men returning from that show would walk along that road?
A240. Some of them do.
Q241. Do you recall seeing any such people at the time?
A241. There was a fellow and his wife, yes.
Q242. Will you swear there was no-one else on the road at that time?
A242. Well, it was dark and raining pretty hard to be able to distinguish anyone, to see very much.
Q243. How far was the man and woman you saw away?
A243. Not very far, about 15 ft, I guess.
Q244. How far from you were they when you first saw them? Were they walking towards you?
A244. They were standing on the road.
Q245. Were you walking in their direction?
A245. The time I saw them was when I was bringing Pte Davis from where I found him.
Q246. Do you recall seeing any people on the road before he bolted?
A246. I don't.
Q247. Would it refresh your memory if I told you that L/Cpl Henderson said---

PROSECUTOR: I object to that.

Q248. DEFENCE: You have described to the court how Davis bolted that night; were you walking one on either side of him?
A248. Yes, sir.
Q249. And he said as he left, "I am sorry, boys, I have a date?"
A249. Yes.
Q250. Did he laugh?
A250. I don't know whether he did or not.
Q251. And he started to run?
A251. Yes, sir.
Q252. What did you do?
A252. I followed him.
Q253. How close behind him were you?
A253. 15 or 20 ft.
Q254. How far did he manage to run?
A254. Oh, I don't know.
Q255. Just off the road?
A255. No, 30 or 40 yds or so.
Q256. And you were always 15 or 20 ft behind him?
A256. Well, you know yourself it is pretty hard to see in the dark when it is raining.
Q257. But you kept him in sight?
A257. Until he swung into the bushes.
Q258. How far into the bushes did he go?
A258. Just a few ft. I left there then and swung around the bldg to cut him off.
Q259. Was this after he went into the bushes?
A259. Yes, sir.
Q260. How far into the bushes did he go?
A260. There is not much bush there; he kind of went through the bushes, as far as I could make out, and there was not much else for me to do but go around. When he swung into the bushes, by the time I caught up, being a little distance behind, it was better for me to go around than through them.

Q261. How big a bldg is this?
A261. Not very big.
Q262. Were the bushes right alongside the road?
A262. Yes.
Q263. How far off the road was he when you found him?
A263. 10 to 12 ft.
Q264. And he was not in the bushes, was he?
A264. No, sir. Q.265. Where was he?
A265. He was in the open, in this little hollow.
Q266. You had no trouble seeing him when you got there?
A266. No, sir.
Q267. Did he struggle at all?
A267. No, sir.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: Do you think there is any necessity of calling witness after witness to prove the same facts?

PROSECUTOR: No, sir. Of course, the chief officer may insist on having them called. The only other witnesses I wish to call are the Sgt of the Guard and evidence as to the cost of the damage, that is all.

4th witness for prosecution) No. B-63901, SGT. SMITH A.G., No 1 MTVRD, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q268. Pte Davis has been accused of causing certain damage to public property and also of attempting to escape. Tell the court what your duties were and the date of these occurrences and also what dates they occurred and why you know it to be that particular date. Then I want you to tell the court anything you know concerning these charges?
A268. At 1700 hrs on 16 Mar 42 I mounted a guard. Immly after the change over of the guard I dismissed the remainder of my guard to the guard room and went to the cells. At that time L/Cpl Henderson was in the guard room. Pte Davis called L/Cpl Henderson.
Q269. You are sure it was 16 Mar?
A269. Yes, sir.
Q270. Did you see anything of the alleged damage to the guard room?
A270. Yes sir, I heard the pounding on the door of the guard room and went down to the guard room door and saw the splinters fly out of the panel of the door, and I then saw through a hole in the door Pte Davis swinging at the door with what I would say was the leg of the bed.
Q271. Do you know if anyone else was in the guard room with Davis?
A271. There was evidently no-one else in the cell because I checked immly afterwards.
Q272. Do you know of any other damage to the guard room (sic)?
A272. 13 panes of glass were broken, one of which was broken previously. I heard the glass being broken, walked around the outside of the guard room, and saw Pte Davis smashing the windows with his fist.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q273. Were you the Sgt of the Guard at the detn bks that night?
A273. I was.
Q274. Was L/Cpl Henderson serving under you?
A274. The R.P. don't serve under the Guard Comdr, they operate on their own, and when prisoners need to be taken out or anything, they handle it themselves.
Q275. Whose duty was it that night to control the prisoners?
A275. While there are no policemen around it comes under the charge of the Guard Comdr.
Q276. Who else was there besides you when you saw this door being smashed?
A276. There were others, but I couldn't say who.
Q277. Did anyone enter the cell to attempt to control this prisoner?

A277. No, sir.

Q276. You just let him go merrily on his way, did you?
A276. Yes, sir.
Q279. Did you hear Davis ask for anything prior to this occurrence?
A279. He asked for a drink of water.
Q280. Was that brought to him?
A280. No, sir.
Q281. Did you hear anything else that night?
A281. I heard he had complained.
Q282. Do you know anything of that to your own knowledge?
A282. Not of the first complaint, sir.
Q283. Do you know which cell the accused was occupying that night?
A283. Yes, I did.

Q284. JUDGE ADVOCATE: In what guard room did these occurrences you have related in your direct examination take place?
A284. In the unit guard room, the No 1 MTVRD guard room, Louisburg Barracks, Bordon.

5th witness for prosecution) C.Q.M.S. JONES T.O., No 1 MTVRD, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q285. The accused, Pte Davis, has been charged with causing certain damage to public property, namely, the detn cell in the MTVRD guard room. In your capacity as Q.M. Sgt will you give the court the estimate of the damage which was caused?

JUDGE ADVOCATE: You might ask the witness if he examined the damage at a certain time and perhaps lead up to it in that way.

Q286. PROSECUTOR: Would you tell the court what connection you had with the charges which were laid against Pte Davis?
A286. On the morning of 19 Mar 42 I was instructed to ascertain the cost of damages to the unit detn room, which was the S.E. detn room. This I did with Mr. Stevens, R.E. Clerk of Works, as follows:-

Repairs to detn room door	6/7
Cost of replacing 12 panes of glass @ 1/2 per pane	14/-
Total cost of damages	£1. 2. 7

This was later confirmed by R.E. damage voucher.

Q287. Have you any knowledge whether there were any broken panes of glass there in the late afternoon of 18 Mar, the day before your inspection?
A287. Sgt Smith, who was Sgt of the Guard, advised me one had been broken previously to that, but to my own knowledge, no sir.

No cross-examination.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: I notice in the charge sheet the damages are £1.15.7. £1.2.7 I take it is the correct amount. However, it is favourable to the accused.

Q288. This examination was made by you at what time on the 19th?
A288. At 10 o'clock in the morning.

The prosecution is closed.

Q289. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A289. No, sir. (R.P. 40 & 41 duly complied with).
Q290. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A290. No, sir.

Upon completion of closing addresses by the prosecutor and defending officer, the Judge Advocate made the following summing up:-

JUDGE ADVOCATE:-

I merely want to suggest to the their minds the fact that the accused at first charges appearing on the second charge sheet, and one of Not Guilty entered by direction of the Cour plead Guilty before the Court directed a plea of Not into their consideration. With regard to the first the panes of glass, if the court is satisfied that that out took place on 19 Mar 42 instead of 19 Mar 42, then special finding, finding the accused guilty of committing Mar 42. It seems clear from the evidence of the witnesses offence committed. I think the court can come to the conclus difficulty that the offence mentioned in the first charge was it is up to them to decide from the evidence produced before the on which date the occurrence took place. The amount of damage in terms, of course, will have to be accepted from the evidence and the charge sheet, namely, the amount given by the Q.M.S. of £1.2.7. very little to say on the second charge; it is a matter for the court.
the def officer says, the prosecution must prove the guilt of the accused beyond a reasonable doubt - not a fanciful doubt, but a doubt of some substance. They will consider the evidence given, consider also the remar made by the accused at the time of his breaking away from his escort, and a from that evidence and from his actions and words, whether or not he is guil of the charge of attempting to escape.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

The Prosecutor, LIEUT. R. ERSKINE, No 1 MTVRD, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the Judge Advocate:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q291. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?

A291. Yes sir, I produce AF B296 and copy of MFK-5.

The above statement is read, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q292. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have read?
A292. Yes, sir.
Q293. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A293. Yes, sir.
Q294. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A294. Yes, sir.

No cross-examination.

THE COURT: Do you wish to address the Court?

DEFENCE: There is only the question of age. Perhaps the court will allow me to pass on to them what I have been told by the accused. I speak towards the sentence that might be imposed on the accused. He has pleaded Guilty to two charges, and has been tried on two others. The character evidence submitted establishes the accused's age as being 21 yrs 9 mos. I am told by the accused, and have no reason to doubt it, that when he joined the army over two years ago he was then only 15 yrs of age. His present age is 17. Now, that is very, very young; he is only a boy. The record he has in the army is not a very commendable one, I admit. I suggest, sir, that a long period of detention will not have the corrective influence over the accused which would be desirable if such a sentence were going to be imposed. In my experience with the accused, and through talking to other, in

JUDGE ADVOCATE:-

I merely want to suggest to the Court they should put out of their minds the fact that the accused at first pleaded Guilty to these two charges appearing on the second charge sheet, and to consider his plea as one of Not Guilty entered by direction of the Court. The fact that he did plead Guilty before the Court directed a plea of Not Guilty should not enter into their consideration. With regard to the first charge, wilfully breaking the panes of glass, if the court is satisfied that that offence was committed but took place on 18 Mar 42 instead of 19 Mar 42, then they may bring in a special finding, finding the accused guilty of committing the offence on 18 Mar 42. It seems clear from the evidence of the witnesses that there was an offence committed. I think the court can come to the conclusion without much difficulty that the offence mentioned in the first charge was committed, and it is up to them to decide from the evidence produced before the court today, on which date the occurrence took place. The amount of damage in monetary terms, of course, will have to be accepted from the evidence and not from the charge sheet, namely, the amount given by the Q.M.S. of £1.2.7. I have very little to say on the second charge; it is a matter for the court. As the def officer says, the prosecution must prove the guilt of the accused beyond a reasonable doubt - not a fanciful doubt, but a doubt of some substance. They will consider the evidence given, consider also the remarks made by the accused at the time of his breaking away from his escort, and say from that evidence and from his actions and words, whether or not he is guilty of the charge of attempting to escape.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

The Prosecutor, LIEUT. R. ERSKINE, No 1 MTVRD, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the Judge Advocate:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q291. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A291. Yes sir, I produce AF B296 and copy of MFK-6.

The above statement is read, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q292. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have read?
A292. Yes, sir.
Q293. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A293. Yes, sir.
Q294. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A294. Yes, sir.

No cross-examination.

THE COURT: Do you wish to address the Court?

DEFENCE: There is only the question of age. Perhaps the court will allow me to pass on to them what I have been told by the accused. I speak towards the sentence that might be imposed on the accused. He has pleaded Guilty to two charges, and has been tried on two others. The character evidence submitted establishes the accused's age as being 21 yrs 9 mos. I am told by the accused, and have no reason to doubt it, that when he joined the army over two years ago he was then only 16 yrs of age. His present age is 17. Now, that is very, very young: he is only a boy. The record he has in the army is not a very commendable one, I admit. I suggest, sir, that a long period of detention will not have the corrective influence over the accused which would be desirable if such a sentence were going to be imposed. From my experience with the accused, and through talking to other, in particular Lieut. Pearce, who interested himself in the case, we have come to the conclusion he is a very high strung individual, a lad with a strong temper, who does not take kindly to orders. I was informed by both Lieut Pearce and the guards who have had him in detention at our own unit, that he has given no trouble; any time he was disinclined to obey a command, all that was required was a little reasonable handling. A lot of this boy's trouble has occurred, I think, because he has not been handled in that way. Psychologically I say the boy is mentally wrong. I am not a medical expert, but from my contact with him that is the opinion I offer to the court, for what it is worth. A long period of detention, I think, will make him bitter, will make him feel more misunderstood and perhaps make him feel a martyr. Certainly I don't think he will come out of detention a better soldier. If this court had the power, my own suggestion would be that mental observation would be the only thing for a boy of this kind with his mentality; actually I think he is in need of treatment rather than punishment. Everything he does is quixotic. I think a severe punishment would have the opposite effect to that which this court would want it to have.

The Court was cleared for the consideration of the sentence.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE

2nd WITNESS B-81582 L/Cpl. Henderson, R.M., of No.1 M.T.V.R.D.,R.C.A.S.C., C.A.(Overseas),having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

I am L/Cpl Henderson, R.M.,B-81582, of No.1 M.T.V.R.D.,R.C.A.S.C., and on 19 Mar 42 I was one of the Regimental Police on duty. At approximately 1700 hours, 19 Mar 42, I visited Pte. Davis in his detention room . He asked me for some salt for his supper. I obtained the salt for him and at that time was accompanied by the Orderly Sergeant, Sgt. Slade. After giving him the salt I turned to leave and then Pte. Davis threw his tea and his teacup on the floor of the room. I left the room with the Orderly Sergeant and I locked the door after me. After the door was locked, Pte. Davis called out that he wanted some water. I told him he would not get any water until the Orderly Officer arrived, because he had thrown his tea on the floor. The Orderly Officer was then sent for, and while waiting for him the panel in the room door, in which only Pte. Davis was located, was broken. Then I heard the smashing of glass.

Q. 1 Are you positive that there was only Pte Davis in the cell at the time the door was broken and you heard the breaking of glass?

A. Yes, sir. Pte. Davis was kept in a cell by himself apart from the other soldiers in detention. I then went outside the guard room and around to the windows to Pte Davis' room facing the Unit vehicle park or parade square. I saw some windows being broken from the inside of the room and knew that Pte. Davis must be breaking them because he was the only person in the room.

Q.2 What more do you know concerning the charges against Pte. Davis?

A. At 2050 hours on the same night I was in the Guard Room and Pte. Davis asked to be taken to the latrine. Pte. McMillen and I then escorted Pte.Davis towards the latrines located in "D" Block of the barracks. When about 100 yards from the Guard Room, near the crossroads, Pte. Davis suddenly flung off his rain cape and said, "Excuse me, fellows, I have a date up the road." At the same time he started to run forward. I gave chase and threw my torch at him but missed. Pte. McMillen ran around a small building and I next saw that he had caught Pte. Davis. Pte. Davis was then escorted back to his cell, this was at 2105 hours.

CROSS-EXAMINATION of the Witness by Pte. Davis:

Q. 1 Who brought my supper to the Guard Room?
A. I don't know. I was not in the Guard Room at the time.

Q. 2 Did you hear me ask for salt and at what time was it?
A. Yes, I heard you ask for salt at approximately 1700 hours, it might have been a few minutes before.

Q. 3 How long was it after I had asked for salt in your presence before I got it?
A. Not more than a few minutes. The salt was in my room, next to the Guard Room.

Q. 4 Where was the usual place to keep salt for the prisoners?
A. I am not sure of that.

Q. 5 Where were the other prisoners between 1645 and 1700 hours?
A. Sir, should I answer that? (Officer taking Summary then advised the witness to answer) The other soldiers in detention were in the Regimental Police office, having supper.

Q. 6 When you gave me the salt, were you accompanied by the Orderly Sergeant?
A. Yes.

Q. 7 Did you hear me ask the Orderly Sergeant for a fresh cup of tea, as mine was cold?
A. No, I didn't. I heard something said by either you or the Orderly Sergeant just before you threw your tea and teacup on the floor, but I don't know what was said or by whom.

Q. 8 When I asked for water, did you personnally send for the Orderly Officer immediately?
A. I did not do so personally but someone in the Guard Room did then phone.

2nd WITNESS, Continued:

Q. 9 Immediately?
A. Yes.

Q.10 On what date was this?
A. 19 Mar 42.

I am Pte. McMillen, H.N., M-81504, of No.1 M.T.V.R.D.,RCASC, and on 19 Mar 42 I was one of the Regimental Police on duty. Sometime before dark on 19 Mar 42, possibly between 1700 and 1800 hours - I am not sure of the time -- I accompanied the Orderly Officer into one of the detention rooms and again a little later I accompanied the First Aid Corporal into the same cells to help dress Pte.Davis' hand, which was cut and bruised. I did not see Pte. Davis receive the injuries. At approximately 2050 hours on the same night, I, with L/Cpl. Henderson, was escorting Pte. Davis to the latrine in "D" Block. When near the crossroads about 100 yards from the Guard Room, Pte. Davis, who was marching between L/Cpl. Henderson and myself, suddenly threw his ground sheet on the ground behind him and said, "Sorry, boys, I have a date". At the same time he started to run away up the road. He swung towards some bushes. I ran around a small building to head him off and as I came around, Pte Davis was lying on the ground, in a little hollow near the bushes. L/Cpl. Henderson was then a short distance away and on the roadway. Pte. Davis was then returned to his cell.

CROSS EXAMINATION of the Witness by Pte. Davis:

Q. 1 Did you bring the prisoners' supper to the guard room on that night, and at what time?

ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE

5th WITNESS B-83901 Sgt.Smith,A.G., No.1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., C.A. (Overseas) having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

I am B-83901 Sgt.Smith,A.G., of No.1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., and on 19 Mar 42, at approximately 1700 hours, I took over the duties of Guard Commander and learned that Pte.Davis, J.W., had a complaint. A few moments after I took over I saw the Orderly Sergeant and one of the Regimental Police, L/Cpl. Henderson, enter the detention room in which Pte.Davis was held. I did not follow them into the cell. Almost immediately I saw the Orderly Sergeant and L/Cpl. Henderson leave the cell and I supervised the locking of the door. At approximately 1705 Pte Davis called through the door to L/Cpl. Henderson, asking for a drink of water. I told Pte. Davis that he would receive the water when the Orderly Officer arrived, it being my understanding that the Orderly Officer had already been sent for. A few moments later a panel of the door was broken from the inside and through the hole I saw Pte. Davis with something in his hand, I think it was part of a bed, with which he was smashing at the door. I then sent a runner for the Orderly Officer and as I did so I heard the breaking of glass in the detention room holding Pte. Davis. I went outside the Guard Room and saw Pte. Davis breaking window panes with his bare fists. I actually saw a few of the panes being broken.

Q. 1 Was there anyone else in the cell with Pte. Davis at the time these occurrances took place?
A. No, sir. He was kept alone in that cell. I checked the cell over when locking it after the Orderly Sergeant and the R.P. left the cell. At approximately1715, I am not sure of the exact time, the Orderly Officer arrived and I entered the cell with him. Pte. Davis was then lying on his bed. Since Pte. Davis' hand was bleeding the Medical Orderly was sent for to render first aid. Pte. Davis was given a drink of water on the orders of the Orderly Officer. At approximately 2200 hours Pte. Davis asked to go to the latrine. I obtained two of the R.P. as escorts and they took him out of the Guard Room. About 15 minutes later they returned Pte.Davis to his cell.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF THE WITNESS by Pte. Davis:

Q. 1 Had the Orderly Officer actually been called for when I first asked for water?
A. It was my understanding that he had then been sent for.

Q. 2 But had he really been called for?
A. I don't know for certain but it was my understanding that he had been called for.

6th WITNESS B-88736 Sgt. Slade, A., No.1, M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., C.A. (Overseas), having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

I am B-88736 Sgt. Slade, A., No., 1 M.T.V.R.D., R.C.A.S.C., and on 19 Mar 42 I was Orderly Sergeant. At approximately 1700 hours, Pte. Davis made a complaint to me that his meal was cold and I asked him how long he had had the meal. He stated he had had it for about 10 minutes. He also complained that he had no salt -- he said he had asked the R.P. for salt but had not received it. On investigation I found that salt was then being obtained for Pte. Davis. I returned to the cell and Pte Davis asked for some hot tea. I told him that he had his one ration of tea and could not have more. I moved to the door to leave and as I reached the door Pte. Davis threw his tea and mug to one side on the floor. None of the tea struck me.

CROSS EXAMINATION of the Witness by Pte Davis:

Q. 1 What is the prisoners' tea brought to the guard room in and how much does the container hold?

A. It is brought to the guard room in a container holding about one gallon if full.

Q. 2 How much tea was in the container when I asked for more tea?

A. I don't know of my own knowledge. I had told Pte. Davis a second time that he couldn't have more tea since he threw his first supply on the floor.

Q. 3 Did you check with the Sergeant of the Guard that there was no more tea, and did you check it yourself?

A. I checked with the Guard Sergeant but did not check myself.

Plea for Mitigation in The Case of Rfn. Davis K.W.

Mr. President and members of the court.
I wish to bring to your attention some facts in the case of Rfn. Davis K.W.

Davis is a volunteer who joined the army at the early age of eighteen on January twelth 1943. He landed in France on June nineth 1944.

Since June the nineth Davis has served in the frontline Continuously with the exception of eighteen days. On unfortunate mistake on his part.

Davis did not go absent with the intent of missing action. He was is a reserve company position.

You cannot compare him to those who shirk their job becuase they are afraid to fight. Davis is a fighting man and has been in all the major battles of the batalion doing his part. He has been in battles such as Carpiquet Gibberville and the Schelt.

I submit this plea and bring these points to your attention in the hope that this man can soon return to his unit and serve his country in any future battles.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

(See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

Plea for the Mitigation of Punishment - B.9760 Gnr Norman Luther Davies.

Gentlemen:

This soldier is 36 years of age, married and has two small children in Canada.

He was wounded in action in Sicily and although dischargedsfrom the hospital claimes he has been in poor health ever since. A medical reboard on 18 May 44 gave his a lower category.

He has in his possession letters which reveal that his wife has for several monthhs past been suffering from ill health alsothat his family have been compelled to move serveral times from their places of residence. The welfare of his wife and children has been a source of constant worry to him.

He was given a job at the No 2 Kit disposal unti which he was physically incapable of doing to the satisfaction of his superiors. He was then put on fatigue duty cleaning latrines etc and over a period of time became very disatisfied with this job.

This soldier, gentlemen, is most unhappy in the serivce. I believe that the factors mentioned above have contributed in large measure to the crimes withwhich he has been charged and should therefore be given due consideration when you come to award punishment.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans .....(5)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making the appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

First Witness for Prosecution.
A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

PROSECUTOR MAKES AN OPENING ADDRESS

The facts in this case will be fairly well placed before the Court by any one of the first witnesses called by the Prosecution so that I believe it is sufficient for me to say at this time that the Prosecutón will establish that on the night of 30th Jan 45 a sort of a cafe brawl took place in a spot known as Maxie's Cafe here in the city of GHENT.

This affair was immediately in front of the doorway or exit leading to the street. By reason of what went on there a Polish Soldier was struck and was knocked to the pavement and he subsequently died.

I have had a sketch made for the benefit of the Court. I will have that sketch produced in order that direction and location will be established and I trust that this will be satisfactory.

Prosecution - Duly sworn

Secondy KUNZE, Dienstweg 7, Lehdorf, GERMANY.

(evidence through Flemish interpreter)

Q.1 You are Secondy KUNZE?

A.1 Yes Sir.

Q.2 Do you know the Cafe known as Marie's here in the city of Lindau?

A.2 Yes Sir.

Q.3 Were you at Marie's Cafe on the evening late in Jan 45?

A.3 Yes Sir.

Q.4 Do you know the date?

A.4 I am not certain of the date.

Q.5 Can you give me the date?

A.5 All I can say it was about 8 o'clock.

Q.6 Do you know the nearest soldier, U.S. you saw there?

A.6 Yes I saw him there.

Q.7 Was he at Marie's Cafe on the night late in Jan that you are talking about?

A.7 Yes I saw him.

Q.8 Were there other soldiers in Marie's Cafe that night?

A.8 Yes there were lots of soldiers.

Q.9 Do you know from what regiment the accused belong to?

A.9 No I do not.

Q.10 Do you know the regiment of any of the soldiers that were there?

A.10 I have forgotten what was on their shoulders, there were English soldiers there as well.

Q.11 You say English soldiers, do you mean English soldiers or Scottish soldiers?

A.11 There were English soldiers, Scottish soldiers and Belgian soldiers.

Q.12 How what did you see happen in front of the Kommando Hotel during the night?

A.12 I saw that they were fighting.

Q.13 Did you see any Polish soldiers there in front of the Kommando Hotel that night?

A.13 I saw Polish soldiers going to come in.

Q.14 How many Polish soldiers?

A.14 One or two.

Q.15 And did they come in Marie's Cafe?

A.15 I saw them open the door.

Q.16 And then what happened?

A.16 There was a Scottish soldier sitting inside who was "Zig-Zag". He went to the door and he fought. I then went outside and I saw on the ground outside a Polish soldier lying down. I saw two other soldiers outside. I saw that he was bleeding.

Q.17 Where was he bleeding?

A.17 On his nose and his ears.

Q.18 And were there any more Polish soldiers other than this one there then?

A.18 No there was just one lying on the ground.

Q.19 Now you have told the Court that there was a Scottish soldier in Uncle's Cafe who was "Zig-Zag" and who went to the door and was fighting there with this Polish soldier?

A.19 You have the door and there is a corner.

Q.20 Yes, now who was fighting with this Polish soldier?

A.20 I saw the Scottish soldier who is sitting here fight with the Polish soldier.

Q.21 Is it the accused soldier that you have identified here?

A.21 I saw him fighting.

Q.22 With the Polish soldier?

A.22 Was in the corner.

Q.23 In the corner, is that in front of the doorway in that building?

A.23 There is the door and there is a little place behind that where there is one table.

Q.24 Did you see him, did you see this Canadian soldier or the Scottish soldier as you have called him, fighting with the Polish soldier at the doorway?

A.24 I saw that he had been fighting.

Q.25 I ask you again did you see the Scottish soldier that you have identified here fighting with the Polish soldier in front of the doorway?

A.25 I saw them fighting in this corner.

Q.26 Can you answer that yes or no?

A.26 All I can answer is that I saw them fighting in the corner.

Prosecutor - May I ask the permission of the Court to cross-examine this witness and put leading questions to her. This is very material and I would like to know therefore if I may treat this witness as hostile?

Defence - From what the evidence has been so far it is too early to decide this question. She has merely stated one thing three times refreshing it and I do not think that constitutes a hostile witness.

Prosecutor - I am prepared to argue that with my friend. It is not a question as to whether the evidence is favourable or not. I do not produce this witness for that.

I can go on and establish this fact. This witness is a very material witness or I would let that matter drop and establish it through somebody else but I am not in that position. I do need the permission of the Court as this is my witness and I can not cross-examine her and I can not put leading questions to her. It is more than the duty of the Prosecution to produce some one just because they are favourable or unfavourable. I am prepared or ready to cross-examine this witness if the Court will give me such permission.

Judge-Advocate - I think the witness should withdraw.

Witness withdraws.

Prosecutor - The question here is one of the statements made by the witness, Seconde [illegible], whom we have just had in the witness box and on behalf of the Prosecution. I have of course statements that the witness has made and I have tried to bring out from her in direct examination the facts that she has already stated. That direct examination of mine fails to bring out here those facts. Now without the permission of the Court I can not go on and put leading questions to this witness and I can not cross-examine her but it is a matter solely within the discretion of the Court as to whether or not I can be permitted to do that.

I can illustrate that by saying that I have a plausible statement made by this witness. I can not as the Prosecution present it to this witness and say "is that what you said"? By so doing I impeach the credit of my own witness.

The Court being cognizant of the facts at this time decide whether I am permitted to put on that now or whether you feel something more can be done by way of direct examination. Now that goes even further, if that does not establish the facts that she has already stated, with your permission I can call other evidence of the circumstances surrounding this statement which I propose to do with your permission. I can appreciate that there is some law there which you may like to consider but I feel that it is important and material and I do not want to leave it unless you so desire.

Defence - This witness has not shown herself to be hostile. It is for the discretion of the Court whether or not the Prosecution may ask leading questions and so on but the basis of the thing is that the witness is hostile, that I do not think has been shown.

The Court is closed to consider the request of the Prosecution.

The Court is reopened. The Court has considered the submission of this time of the Prosecuting Officer. The Court feels that there is not sufficient evidence before it to say that this witness is acting in a hostile manner. If after further evidence it is considered that she is acting in a hostile manner the matter will be considered again.

Prosecutor - will the Court permit me to carry on further examination or put to her leading questions. That is the question that should be decided here not as to the hostility of this witness at this point?

JA - The Court feels, Mr. [illegible], that questions should be asked in either a yes or no answer.

Prosecution witness - For the Prosecution
Gwendolyn WARE - is recalled.

JA - will you warn this witness that she will answer these questions with a yes or no answer. That is if she is asked for a yes or no answer she will give a yes or no answer.

Q.27 I want to ask you another question about what you saw at the doorway when the Polish soldier entered Maxie's Cafe. Did you see, did you not see the accused person, DAVIS, fighting with the Polish soldier in front of the doorway of Maxie's Cafe?

A.27 I saw the soldier fighting in the corner of Maxie's Cafe with the Polish soldier.

Prosecutor - I am going to ask the Court that it is important that they go down and see the interior of Maxie's Cafe and the area where this incident occured but that still is not helpful at this moment.

Perhaps we need not go further there. I do not oppose the fact that there is a little nook around a table there that she is talking about. I submit that we do not need to go into the question.

Q.28 Did you see Polish soldiers in the Cafe on more than one occasion that night?

A.28 No I only saw them enter once.

Q.29 And how many Polish soldiers did you see enter at that time?

A.29 First one came in and then two came in.

Q.30 Now, there was the accused person, DAVIS, standing when the one Polish soldier entered Maxie's Cafe?

A.30 (No answer)

Q.31 There was DAVIS standing when you saw the one Polish soldier enter the Cafe?

A.31 He was a prisoner then.

Q.32 What do you mean "he was a prisoner then"?

A.32 The police had already taken him away.

Q.33 Where was DAVIS standing when two Polish soldiers entered the door?

A.33 That was a week later.

Q.34 You have told the Court that on this night two Polish soldiers and then one Polish soldier entered. Now is that all on the same night?

A.34 No it is not on the same night.

Prosecution - May I have permission of the Court to have the statement made by this witness and ask her if she recalls making this statement. I have an additional Flemish witness and will put it to her through the interpreter who took it.

JA - Is he present?

Prosecution - Yes.

Defending Officer - On that point may I make a submission. I think it is to the interest of all that her mind should be directed to the evening in question using the statement for that purpose only and as much of the statement that will make that clear only. I feel that we are getting nowhere but to use the statement to bring out what occurred on that evening is quite improper. With the Court's agreed that she may be treated as a hostile witness.

Prosecution - The difficulty is that the Court have no way of knowing these facts unless I am permitted to produce this statement.

The Court will do not know that my question is directed to enough at unless I am permitted to see way to establish that. That is all I should say.

JA - the statement you are referring to is the one made on 7 Feb

Prosecution - that is right.

JA - this witness has already told us she saw fighting at the door, she saw 2 Polish officers come to one or two.

Prosecution - the statement which I would like to have permission to use contains these words, "I have seen the same Polish soldier who is now present in the Barrack Room with two Polish officers as soon as they entered. I tried to separate them but it proved impossible. I saw then that the soldier of the Corps of Engineers Canadian regiment was pulling the fighters. One of these Polish officers was a tall man, the other a small one."

Defending Officer - I would merely like to draw the attention of the Court that this witness is intent merely on not willing to give straight answers to questions. In other words there has been so much confusion. While this statement has been read I think the Court ought to know at the same time that a further statement between the accused and the witness was made, I think those two statements should be read together when it comes to the Court's consideration whether or not this witness must be treated differently. I believe I have the answer there.

JA - It seems to me, my opinion, that this is one of the most essential points of the whole case. The evidence of this witness states that she saw fighting at the door, she saw Poles going to come in, one or two, she saw the Canadian soldier and Polish soldier open the door, the Canadian soldier went to the door and fought and that she saw the Polish soldier lying on the ground. It seems that this witness is not hostile sufficient to allow the reading of this statement.

Prosecutor - As Prosecutor you know I am bound to be fair. I do not want to h we produce here anything that is prejudicial to the accused person and should not be properly admitted. I suggest that this is not a question of anyone refreshing their memory. The statement that I read to you is to the effect that "I saw the same Scottish soldier giving a blow to a Polish soldier." As I have told you I can establish the circumstances under which this statement was taken and who was in the Tarvet at the time and who was seated and what was done to calm the witness Potter with the fact that the accused person was DRUNK and that he was the only person sitting in the room.

- Hostile witness:

"A party producing a witness shall not be allowed to impeach his credit by general evidence of bad character; but he may, in case the witness shall, in the opinion of the judge, prove adverse, contradict him by other evidence, or, by leave of the judge, prove that he has made at other times a statement inconsistent with his present testimony; but before such last-mentioned proof can be given, the circumstances of the supposed statement, sufficient to designate the particular occasion, must be mentioned to the witness, and he must be asked whether or not he has made such statement. To be inconsistent within the meaning of the section the statement need not be directly or absolutely at variance. The word 'adverse' in this section means 'hostile', and not merely 'unfavourable'. The discretion of the Judge to give or refuse leave to cross-examine the party's own witness, however hostile he may be, is absolute. If the witness appears evidently to be hostile to the party who has called him, counsel may put leading questions to him, having first obtained permission of the Court to do so."

Prosecutor - May I say that you can not determine whether this witness is hostile or not at this time. How can the Court determine whether this witness is hostile until I bring the facts before the Court. I have asked you for permission to use this statement and you say that there is no grounds for using this statement as yet. I asked for permission to call a witness to state that what this witness is saying is not the truth, that she has stated otherwise.

JA - my advice to the Court is that this can not be done unless the Court is satisfied that this witness is adverse. You are now asking permission to prove that she is hostile.

Prosecutor - I am asking you to open the door a little bit and I will show you.

The Court is closed.

Prosecutor - I am in the same position with this witness as I was with the other witness and I do not know whether I can proceed further. I believe I have given the Court the information. I believe unless the Court wishes to give instructions I have nothing further with this witness.

I would like certain formalities to be complied with in this matter this morning. I would like to have either by proper interpreting statement made by this witness or by writing down statement or getting another witness and writing down statement or getting another witness to produce the statement.

Defence - I would like to oppose that motion. I submit that the witness has already told straightforward the witness has already told straightforward the story this morning. There is no intention that she is in any way trying to do anything else other than answering the questions put to her as well as she can. If the Prosecutor produces the statement I object, the evidence which has given this morning is the evidence which has been written in her statement. Let him read it out then and.

Court - A motion has been made by the Prosecutor for leave to produce or to produce a statement purporting to be made by the witness and asks the Court for permission to cross-examine his own witness.

In establishing whether the witness is adverse or not what is that the Prosecutor has to attempt to introduce the statement and prove if he can if this is a statement made by the witness. The decision being left with the Court to determine whether that statement if proven shows that the witness is adverse. The Court must be careful that any evidence which is brought forward at this stage - to remember that it is not evidence against the accused but it is merely evidence in issue as to whether the witness is adverse to the Prosecution but the Prosecutor must not introduce in evidence in chief any evidence made in that statement.

Defence - May I just make one point on that. In this statement before it is introduced as evidence it should also be shown that the evidence given verbally in Court is different from her statement.

IL - that is a matter for the Court to determine.

Defence - Oh yes but I would like that point to be very definately established by the Court.

Q.96 Do you read Flemish as well?

A.96 Yes.

Q.97 Is that your signature at the bottom of that page?

A.97 Yes sir.

Q.98 Will you read that statement, not out loud, to yourself. Is that statement a statement witnessed signed by you on the 2nd of Feb?

A.98 Yes sir.

Q.99 And is that a true statement?

A.99 Yes sir.

Q.100 Now do you recall being interviewed by an officer once again regarding this DEVOS trial?

A.100 No I do not remember.

Q.101 Do you remember that on the 2nd of Feb you made that statement?

A.101 Yes.

Q.102 And that about 11th ?

A.102 Yes by the CSM police.

Q.103 And an officer?

A.103 Yes sir.

Q.104 Now do you remember that at that time this statement was shown to you?

A.104 Yes.

Q.105 And the question was asked of you, "Is this the statement you gave to the Police on the 2nd Feb 45" and you answered "Yes"?

A.105 Yes.

Q.106 And do you remember that the next question that was asked was, "Is that a correct statement" and your answer was, "No, it was wrong"?

A.106 There was a wrong word in it.

Q.107 Now what is the wrong word that is in it?

A.107 The CSM Police asked me if this was the Scottish soldier that killed the Polish soldier.

Q.108 Yes and did you answer this?

D.J p 13.

A - Just a moment Mal WILSON. I do not want anything read out of that statement in open court. I do not want any evidence read out that is prejudicial to the accused.

Prosecutor - I just want to get from this witness a yes or no and if she says she made this statement I will read it to you

Q.109 The next question. The question here that was put to you was, "What changes do you wish to make with reference to that statement" and your answer was, "It was not the accused whom I meant was the one who fought with the lady entering the Cafe, it was another Scottish soldier." Is that what you said?

A.109 Yes.

Q.110 Now you were questioned by the accused, "Where and I when this fuss was up at the doorway" and you answered "I think you were at the counter." "I saw you talking once in the corner with one British soldier."

And, "What did I do, from starting to the corner?" and you answered, "I didn't see you do anything more."

Is that the statement that you made at that time?
Is that the questions and is that the answers you gave?

A.110 That is correct.

Q.111 Is that your signature?

A.111 Yes that is my signature.

Court is closed.

Court to re-assemble - Court has found that the evidence of the Prosecution has been closed and the Prosecution may treat the witness as adverse.

Second Witness for the Prosecution is recalled.

Cpl. MACKINNON.

Prosecutor - I take it that I may proceed to cross-examine her in any way regarding the facts in this matter.

Q.112 I show you a copy of the statement signed by you on the 2nd of Feb. And that is your signature there?

A.112 Yes sir.

A.113 Now did you say on the 2nd of Feb. "Some minutes after, another British soldier came in and immediately the Scottish soldier fought with him. I saw that the British soldier went backwards as he was charged by the Scottish soldier. I saw that the Scottish soldier was a private. I saw that the Scottish soldier was without shoes at the fight and also that he must have had a wooden leg as he was without his wooden leg and his crutches."

Is that true?

A.113 Yes that is true.

Q.114 That is the Scottish soldier that you refer to here, that Scottish soldier there (pointing to accused)?

A.114 No that is not him.

Q.115 Is that the Scottish soldier who lost his badge and his crutches?

A.115 Yes sir.

D.2 p 44

Q.116 Then what did you mean when you said, "The Scottish soldier shut then the door and said he must have his badge and his overcoat"?

A.116 He did lock the door, he had lost his coat and his badge.

President - Would you remind the witness that this is a serious case, someone has been killed, and that she is under oath.

Original Flemish statement produced by Prosecution is entered as Exhibit "A".

Prosecutor - I have examined this witness before I raised the question of her being a hostile witness and I went over the evidence with this witness up to the time of the incident in the Cafe. Now I have put before you the position of this witness in so far as this incident is concerned. Now I think that all the evidence is in material form.

Now my friend is through cross-examining this witness if he thinks he can further I would like if you would put to all the witness or the interpreter who was there at the time that statement was made and give the relevant facts surrounding the making of that statement.

DA - That is a witness that is not in the Summary of evidence. If the Defending Officer will waive AR 76?

Defence - I will not object to that.

Prosecutor - I think that once the Court have become staunch of these facts of the case that they will want to hear what evidence this further witness can give.
I do not have in the papers stating that you have discussed before the sitting of the meeting any witnesses to deal with that but I would like to know that if you can etc.

Q.214 Did you see the accused soldier in the fight?

A.214 No I did not see that.

Q.215 Where was the accused soldier when the fight was going on?

A.215 In the cafe at the door.

Q.216 Was that near the door on the street?

A.216 Yes sir.

Q.217 Did anybody come in that door while he was standing there?

A.217 I could not say.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Prosecutor - While I did indicate that I intended to call another one of these civilian witnesses, Georgetta EVERAERT, her evidence is similar to that given by these two civilians and unless my friend wishes me to call them in order that he may cross-examine them I do not think it necessary to produce this witness.

Defence replies - I do not require this witness for the purpose of cross-examination.

SIXTH WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn
M-3623 L/Cpl THOMLINSON W N, HQ 2 Cdn L of C Pro Coy.

Q.218 Cpl THOMLINSON, do you recall the night of 30th Jan 45?

A.218 Yes sir.

Q.219 And did you that night by reason of a call that you had received attend at the Victory Cafe, GHENT?

A.219 Yes sir.

Q.220 At what time?

A.220 At 2145 hrs.

Q.221 Did you at my request make a rough sketch of the area showing the Victory Cafe and Maxie's Cafe in the city of GHENT?

A.221 Yes sir.

Q.222 Is that it?

A.222 Yes sir.

Q.223 Does this sketch show roughly the location around the Victory Cafe and Maxie's Cafe?

A.223 Yes.

Q.224 I know it is not to scale but so far as direction and location is concerned is it fairly well set up?

A.224 Yes.

Sketch is tendered to the Court, admitted in evidence, signed by the President and marked Exhibit "B".

Q.225 Would you indicate on this sketch where you did go that night and what you found there? Could you mark on there the cafe that you attended and what you found there and where?

A.225 I came down the street to the Victory Cafe and went through this front door and was taken through the bar to the back room. When I went into the back room there was a Polish soldier sitting on a chair.

Q.226 Do you know the particulars of that soldier?

A.226 Yes sir, I took his pay book from his tunic pocket. I took the soldier's pay book from his pocket, took his particulars from it and put them in my own book.

Q.227 What was that soldier's name and number?

A.227 5088 Cpl Rataj Jan.

Q.228 Do you know what unit he belonged to?

A.228 10th Polish Rifles.

Q.229 What happened from there on as far as this man is concerned?

A.229 As soon as I saw him I phoned for an ambulance and then waited approx ½ hr for the ambulance and because it did not come I took him in my own jeep to 2 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.230 What did you see about the condition of this Polish soldier?

A.230 Bleeding from the mouth, the nose and the ears.

Q.231 Now on the sketch that you have there can you for purpose of record - can you say where the Polish soldier was in the Victory Cafe when you saw him? Mark with an "X" there.

A.231 Witness marks sketch with "X" position of Polish soldier.

Q.232 Yes and you have shown Maxie's Cafe on there as well?

A.232 Yes.

Q.233 Is it fair to say that Maxie's Cafe is almost directly opposite the Victory Cafe?

A.233 Yes sir.

Q.234 Now who was with the Polish soldier when you found him in the Victory Cafe?

A.234 Another Polish Cpl.

Q.235 Any Cdn soldiers with him?

A.235 No sir.

Q.236 What did you do when you took him to the hospital?

A.236 I took him to the hospital reception room and turned him over to the MO.

Q.237 That is the last that you saw of him?

A.237 Yes sir.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.238 When you got to the hospital you say you turned the Pole over to the MO. Would you be able to describe the scene at the hospital more fully?

A.238 I took the Polish Cpl and two orderlies laid him down on the stretcher and the MO Capt examined him.

Q.239 Did you see anything else happen after that or besides that?

A.239 No sir, they removed him and then I left the hospital.

Questioned by the JA

Q.240 Did you look to see if he had any identity discs at all?

A.240 No sir I did not.

Q.241 You just looked at his pay book?

A.241 Yes sir.

Q.242 Was there any other insignia that would identify him as belonging to the 10th Mounted Rifles?

A.242 Not that I know sir.

Q.243 Where did you find his pay book?

A.243 In his breast pocket sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Prosecutor - Unless the witness Seconde MARIE is available the only other witness I have to call at the present is the Doctor from 2 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Due to the fact that his evidence may be rather lengthy if the other witness is not out here and if it is in keeping with what the Court might wish I suggest that we may adjourn and see the scene of this night and leave the other until the morning.

1500 hrs - the Court adjourns for a view of the scene of the incident. Those present, the Court, JA, Prosecuting, Defending Officers, accused, escort, court reporter and officers under instruction.

Judge-Advocate warns the accused that he is not obliged to say anything or point out anything to the Court. He is just there to see that no evidence is taken that he has no knowledge of.

The Court attended at Maxie's Cafe and viewed the surroundings from inside and out. It was noted by the Court that inside of the cafe was a small vestibule to the right of which was a small recess in one corner. The bar is on the opposite wall to the door. The stove is approx in the center of the room. There is another room which seems to be a type of dance hall. The enterance is at the left hand room in which the bar is. The enterance from the street to the cafe is reached by one step 2" and another step approx 8". The sidewalk and road-way are stone.

~~SEVENTH WITNESS---For the Prosecution--~~

The Court reassembles - is re-opened at 1000 hrs 19 Apr 45.

SEVENTH WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
Major J D DUFFIN, RCAMC, Pathologist, 2 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.244 Are you the Pathologist at 2 Cdn Gen Hosp?

A.244 Yes sir.

Q.245 And in the course of your duties there did you have occasion to perform an autopsy on Jan HATAJ?

A.245 Yes I did.

Q.246 When did you do this?

A.246 This was done on the afternoon of Jan 31 of this year at 1600 hrs.

Q.247 Now can you tell us what your examination of that body revealed in the sense of what injuries there were to it and if you do know what may or may not have caused it?

A.247 The cause of death was quite apparent. It was due to haemorrhage inside the scull together with fractures of the scull and in addition to that haemorrhage in the brain tissue itself. The haemorrhage was of such a type that it was quite evident it was some violence that we call termatic. That is some type of blow to the head. That is somebody either struck the deceased or he had fallen and hit his head very forcibly. Perhaps somebody had knocked him and he had fallen over backwards and he sustained injuries of that nature.

Q.248 Now can you show us with your own head at what part of the head the injuries were?

A.248 The violence had been applied to the back part of the head on the left side. (indicates to the Court).

It was quite clear that violence had been indicated to that part.

Q.249 Could any more immediate medical treatment have saved this man's life if he had received this type of injury?

A.249 That is rather difficult to answer. Almost all cases that have this type of injury do die within a short period of time. I suppose it is theoretically possible, perhaps it is possible. I understand he had the routine treatment for injuries of this nature and rapidly died within a few hours after having been admitted.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.250 Were there any bruises on the front of the face?

A.250 No there were not.

Q.251 If a blow had been struck sufficient to knock him backwards on the sidewalk, on the face, would you expect to find a bruise there?

A.251 You may or you may not. As a matter of fact in this case there was no mark on the place where he had been struck externally. As a matter of fact I had to retract the skin to find this and as far as the front of the face is concerned we did not find any and it had no significance.

Q.252 Did you yourself know that the person you examined was Cpl RATAJ?

A.252 Yes it is a routine that we go through to identify everybody.

Q.253 Are you able to say of your own knowledge that the person you examined was Cpl RATAJ Jan?

A.253 It just depends on what you want for identification. The patient died and the Wardmaster who looks after this case came up to my office and got a book in which he wrote the name of the patient and he issued me with the keys to the morgue in which he put the patient. The body was wrapped in a sheet and was marked with the name of the patient. More over he was the only patient or body in the morgue at this time.

Q.254 Did you notice that his identity discs were still on?

A.254 No they were not. They are not usually on, sometimes they are on and sometimes they are not.

Q.255 You did not see him until dead?

A.255 No I did not.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.256 Did you notice any marks on the chest or stomach that would indicate the place where he was struck?

A.256 No there were no marks on the body externally at all.

Q.257 Is it fair to say that as far as identification is concerned it was just through the routine?

A.257 There were no special steps taken just the usual routine.

Q.258 The body that you presumed the deceased, that you understood was the person referred to, merely because it was tagged?

A.258 It was reported to me that he was deceased and I was in charge of the morgue. Unless they substituted another body for this body and I think that is impossible. Provided that the identification through life was conducted which I presume had been.

Q.259 In your opinion this Polish soldier had been adequately medically attended to and did not die as a result of neglect?

A.259 I am quite sure that he did not die of neglect. I am not a specialist but as I pointed out to Major WILLSON he had every attention possible. He had a very extensive fracture of the scull and such cases almost never recover and in addition to this he had these fractures which I described which no medical surgery could have done anything for.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

President announces - When the Court adjourned on the 17th a motion had been made by the Prosecution opposed by the Defending Officer that the witness Seconde MARIE be declared adverse. The Court allows the submission of the Prosecuting Officer and permits the cross-examination of the witness Seconde MARIE and the witness Seconde MARIE may be treated by the Prosecution in all respects as if adverse.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution - reminded of the fact that she is already sworn Seconde MARIE, Binnenweg 78, Ledeburg, GHENT.

Statement entered as Exhibit "C".

Witness is shown statement of evidence.

Q.260 Is that your signature?

A.261 Yes.

Q.262 On the 2nd of Feb did you say these words and sign this statement?

A.262 Yes I told the Belgian Interpreter and I signed it. (referring to Exhibit "C")

Prosecutor - For the benefit of the Court I will read the statement:

"The undersigned SECONDE Marie, declares that she as barmaid, was present in the bar 'MAXIE's' Kleine statiestraat, 13, Ghent, on the 30th January 1945, at about 9½ o'clock P.M.

About 40 soldiers were in the bar. Also two civilians who stood near the counter.

I have seen that the scottish soldier who is now present in the bureau, fought with two polish soldiers, as soon as these men entered. I tried to separate them, but it was no possible. I saw then that two soldiers of the 'Argyll and Sutherland Canada' regiment separated the fighters. One of these two soldiers was a tall man, the other a small one. They said me they come back the following day, but I didn't see them.

I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the streetdoor, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement.

As I was also standing at the open streetdoor, and that the scottish soldier shut this door violently, I steped into the street and saw the polish soldier lying upon the ground. I saw that he was bleeding from mouth, nose and ears."

Q.263 Do you remember another Cdn Officer coming to see you and taking a statement from you about the 12th of March?

A.263 I have forgotten now.

Q.264 Well is that your signature there? (pointing to original Summary)

A.264 Yes.

Q.265 Do you remember that officer having with him that statement and he was showing it to you and then you said this: (Prosecutor presents Exhibit "C")

"I have nothing to add nor have I any changes to make in the statement which I gave to the Provost on 2nd Feb 45."

And when questioned by the accused as follows:

"I was fighting with two Poles in the corner of the cafe, was I not?"

You said, "Yes".

And when further questioned:

"When you mention 'Same Scottish soldier' do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform?"

You said, "Same uniform, it was another soldier."

Do you remember at the time that officer visited you with the accused present, the accused asked you this question. "I was fighting with two Poles in the corner of the Cafe, was I not?" and you answered, "Yes"?

A.265 That is right.

Q.266 And do you remember being asked, "When you mention same Scottish soldier do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform." And you answered, "Same uniform but another soldier"? Is that what you said?

A.266 Yes.

Q.267 Is that your signature?

A.267 Yes.

Q.268 Did the accused person ask you that and did you answer that at the time, "the same uniform but another soldier?

A.268 There were two in the cafe.

Judge-Advocate - I rule that you must introduce proof of the statement made not just some material part of it.

Prosecutor - I wish to ask the witness whether or not the question in the original Summary of Evidence which reads thus was asked of you:

"When you mention same Scottish soldier do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform?"

Q.269 Was that question asked of you by the accused?

A.269 That is what I had to answer.

Q.270 What do you mean by that when you say, "That is what I had to answer"?

A.270 That is the question that was asked.

Q.271 Yes and did you answer, as is listed in answer 2, "Same uniform, it was another soldier"?

A.271 Yes I answered that.

Q.272 But were you not standing at the door of the cafe when that happened?

A.272 When what happened?

Q.273 When the Polish soldier was struck?

A.273 No I was not standing at the door there.

Prosecutor - Referring to Exhibit "C" I wish you to read to the witness in Flemish this paragraph which I read in English:

"I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at anotherpolish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this Polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the street door, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement."

Will you read that paragraph (referring to the 4th paragraph side-lined in read on Exhibit "C").

Interpreter reads paragraph in Flemish to witness.

Q.274 Do you remember saying that?

A.274 I can not remember what I said.

Prosecutor - That is all I have for this witness. I will produce the interpreter to ask what she said and leave the rest to the Court.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.275 Do you remember how many people were in the cafe that night?

A.275 Probably 30 or 40 soldiers.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.276 Where were you standing when the two Polish soldiers came in?

A.276 I was standing at the counter.

Q.277 Did you see a fight between these two Polish soldiers and some Canadians or a Canadian?

A.277 I saw that they were fighting between the door and the corner.

Q.278 Who was fighting between the door and the corner?

A.278 A Canadian soldier with 2 Poles.

Q.279 Is the Canadian soldier that you saw fighting the accused?

A.279 There was also a soldier in the cafe who also fought.

Q.280 Was the Canadian soldier in Court, the accused, one of the soldiers that was fighting?

A.280 The soldier sitting here fought. There was still another soldier who also fought.

A.283 No sir.

Q.284 Did you see a Polish soldier lying on the ground outside the cafe?

Q.285 How did you see that?

A.285 I was going to go to the door to tell them that they should not fight any more the door went shut and I was out on the street and I saw the Polish soldier lying there.

Q.286 Was anyone else out there besides the Polish soldier lying there?

A.286 No sir.

Q.287 Did anybody come while you were there with the Polish soldier?

A.287 I saw two soldiers and I asked them if they were Poles.

Q.288 Were these soldiers that came Polish?

A.288 Were they the ones that went in?

Q.289 No the ones that came when you were standing beside the Polish soldier on the ground.

A.289 They came around the corner.

Q.290 And did you see the soldier on the ground fall down?

A.290 No sir.

Q.291 Did you see anybody strike the soldier that was lying on the ground?

A.291 No sir.

Q.292 Did you make a statement (referring to Exhibit "C") at police HQ on the 2nd of Feb?

A.292 I said this in the bureau at police HQ.

Q.293 Did you say that under oath?

A.293 No sir I did not have to swear anything.

Q.294 Is that statement true?

A.294 I said that.

Q.295 Is everything that you said in that statement true?

A.295 I think so.

Q.296 In this statement (referring to Exhibit "C") you said that you saw the Polish soldier fall backwards and his head struck the pavement, is that true?

A.296 I saw one soldier fall.

Q.297 Was that the soldier you saw on the ground outside of the cafe?

A.297 I do not know I did not look to see what soldier it was.

Q.298 How long after you saw the soldier fall did you see the soldier lying on the ground outside the cafe?

A.298 About 15 minutes later.

Q.299 The soldier that you saw fall - was there anybody near him when he fell?

A.299 I did not see that.

Q.300 Did you see anybody strike the soldier that fell?

A.300 Yes I saw that.

Q.301 Who struck him?

A.301 It was a Canadian.

Q.302 Is the Canadian that struck him the Canadian in Court, the accused?

A.302 No sir.

Q.303 Was it a Scottish Canadian that struck him?

A.303 Yes sir.

Questioned by the President.

Q.304 Why are you sure the Scottish Cdn that struck him is not the same one that is sitting here?

A.304 The one soldier that hit the other soldier I saw him last week.

Q.305 Are you sure it is not the same one that is sitting here now?

A.305 Yes sir.

Q.306 Do you know the name of the man who struck the Polish soldier?

A.306 No sir.

Q.320 If you were not threatened why did you make that statement?

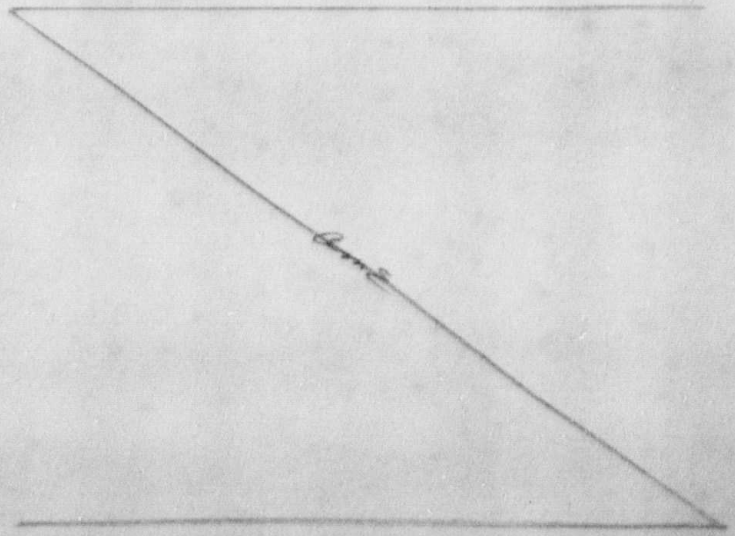
A.320 I did not know what I was saying.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary for the Prosecution to call a witness to establish the statement referred to in the evidence of this witness.

Prosecutor - Mr President, I have now produced on behalf of the Prosecution all of the available witnesses with the exception of two Polish soldiers who are named in the Summary of Evidence. Yesterday the Defending Officer and the Court I believe decided they wanted to hear the evidence of the two Polish soldiers and they have been sent for and they should be here at any time but in view of the courts of this trial and what has happened here during yesterday afternoon and this morning I would like to ask the Court if they feel that they would still like to have these two witnesses produced. May I say at this time the two Polish soldiers do not help in any respect in so far as the question of identification is concerned and who actually struck the blow which resulted in the death of the Polish Cpl. I raise this now because I feel that unless the Court do wish these witnesses produced or the Defence do then I feel that on behalf of the Prosecution they can add nothing to the actual facts of this assault. So perhaps if the Court would indicate to my friend the Defending Officer as to what their wishes are perhaps we could be guided by that in the future course of this trial.



Judge-Advocate - You appreciate that the Defending Officer has the right to demand the attendance of these two witnesses due to the fact that the two Polish soldiers are witnesses to the Summary of Evidence and that you may be required to make them available to the Defending Officer for cross-examination.

Defence - I do not require the two Polish soldiers for my case.

President - In view of the statement of the Prosecuting Officer and the Defending Officer the Court feels that we do not require the two Polish soldiers to be required.

Prosecution - Then may I say, Mr President, that aside from the two Polish soldiers that is the case for the Prosecution and those are all the witnesses that we are able to call.

The Prosecution is closed.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER SUBMITS THAT THE EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION DOES NOT ESTABLISH A PRIMA FACIE CASE AGAINST THE ACCUSED.

I submit that no prima facie case bas been made out.

In a manslaughter case it must be shown among other things that there was a blow or some other unlawful act - that a blow was struck or some other unlawful act had been done and that the person who did this unlawful act is the accused.

I do not propose to examine the evidence of the witnesses in detail I shall merely say that the witness WESTERLINK and SECONDE have both stated that it was not DAVIS who hit the Pole who fell outside the door and one of them has stated that she did not see any blow struck at all against this particular Pole. It seems there was a fight in the corner of the Cafe and from the view which the Court had yesterday I think it is physically impossible for anybody in that corner to strike a blow so that a man would fall backwards outside the door. He would have to fall at 180° from where he was hit.

From that cursory examination of the evidence I submit that there is no evidence whatsoever that DAVIS is guilty of the charge of Manslaughter.

PROSECUTOR ANSWERS SUBMISSION BY DEFENCE OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE

Mr President and gentlemen, this is a very serious case in the sense that a life has been taken and also from the point of view that a Canadian soldier is on trial here today on a very serious charge.

The evidence for the Prosecution in this case must necessarily depend upon the story of two civilian witnesses who as you know have been declared by the Court at my request to be hostile or adverse witnesses. You know the difficulty we have had in dealing with these witnesses, you have seen their manner and demeanor here and it is very much a question of what you can believe from what they said and what you believe they actually know. I must leave that entirely to you I know it is in a very unsatisfactory state. I think that the Prosecution has produced every available person, every civilian or soldier who could give any helpful facts on this incident. In so far as the identity of the deceased person is concerned I can not help but feel that you have been satisfied that the person who had been killed was Cpl RATAJ Jan.

It is purely for the Court to determine whether there has been sufficient here to satisfy that the accused person here, that DAVIS, was the man who struck the blow which resulted in the death of the Polish soldier.

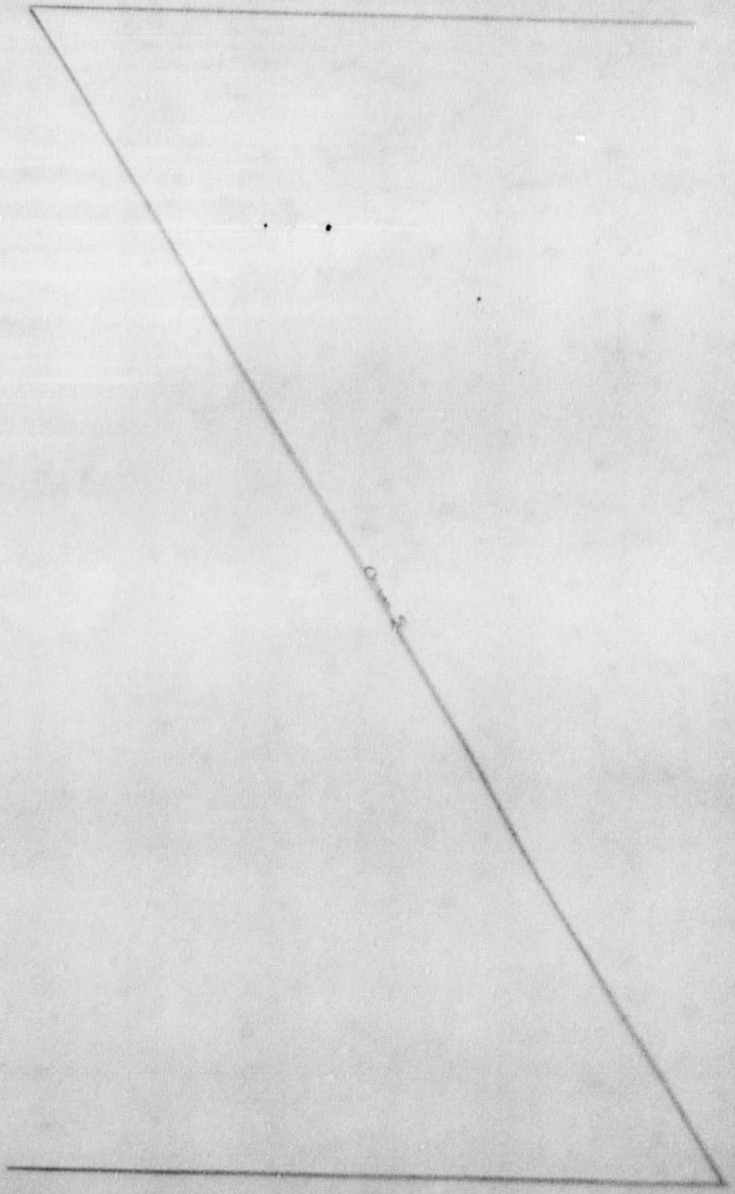
It is purely a matter of fact and I must leave it to you.

JUDGE-ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE COURT ADVISING ON SUBMISSION OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE

Mr President, the Prosecution has presented its case and at this time the Defending Officer has made a motion that the Prosecution has not established a prima facie case and therefore the accused should be found not guilty at this time.

The definition of manslaughter is as follows:

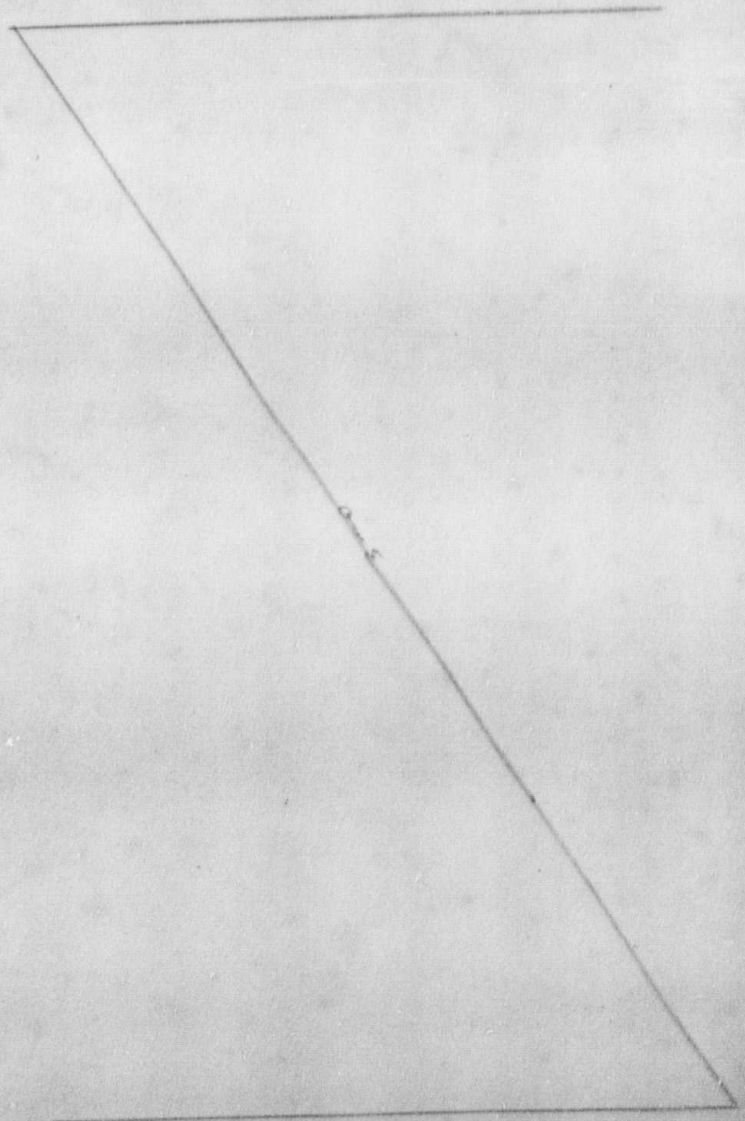
"Manslaughter is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice either express or implied."



"The killing must be unlawful and not excusable or justifiable. It may be by poisoning, striking, starving, drowning, and a thousand other forms of death by which human nature may be overcome."

"It may be taken generally that in all cases where a killing, though not with malice, is nevertheless incapable of justification or excuse, it is manslaughter."

To establish whether or not a prima facie case has been made by the Prosecution it is not necessary for the Court at this stage to decide on credibility of witnesses. Nor need the Court decide whether the Prosecution has proved the accused guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. It is only necessary for the Court to determine that there is some evidence to support the charge laid and upon which if uncontradicted the Court could convict, that is more than a scintilla of evidence which supports the charge. The Court as I have said may believe everything they have heard to date the sole question before the Court now is is there or is there not a prima facie case of manslaughter.



The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is allowed on the First Charge.

Private DAVIS the submission by the Defending Officer has been allowed. You are therefore not guilty of the First charge of Manslaughter.

Gent, den 2 februari 1945.

De ondergeteekende Westerlinck Maria verklaart dat zij als dienster, op 30 Januari 1945 omstreeks 9¼ uur 's avonds, in het café MARIE'S aanwezig was.

Er waren ongeveer 20 soldaten in het café, als ook twee burgers en een ~~solo~~ belgisch soldaat.

Onder de soldaten heb ik 4 à 5 Amerikanen bemerkt, alsook 6 soldaten van het ARGYLL AND SUNTHERLAND-CANADA regiment.

Ik zat aan de toebel en hoorde de canadeesche soldaat vragen of hij van de politie was.

Ik hoorde de belgische soldaat van "neen" antwoorden en hij zegde dat de twee burgers geheime agenten waren.

Daarop heb ik de schot een handslag op het gericht van een der 2 burgers zien geven. Die burgers hebben niets geantwoord en de belgische soldaat is buitengegaan.

Ik hoorde de schot zeggen "I am sorry".

Daarna heb ik dezelfde schot cognac uit een flesch zien drinken, maar ik weet niet of het zijne flesch was of van een kameraad.

Ik zag 2 poolsche soldaten zeer binnenkomen en dezelfde schot ging met deze personen aan het vechten.

Twee andere soldaten van de ARGYLL AND Sutherland regiment hebben de vechtenden gescheiden, waarop de 2 polen weggegaan zijn.

Na eenige minuten zag ik een ander poolsch soldaat binnenkomen, en dezelfden schot viel dit maar aan.

Daar de buitendeur binnen in het café is een schutsel aangebracht. Ik zag dat de schot de poolsche soldaat er achter drumde en terugsmeet.

Een canadeesch soldaat heeft ze willen scheiden maar de schot had nog de tijd aan een poolschen soldaat een hevigen mep slag in het gezicht toe te brengen.

Daarop heeft de schot de deur dicht gedaan en dat hij zijn opstel en uniformarmel moest terug leggen.

Iedereen die wilde buitengaan werd door den schot afgetast.

Wij hebben het café verlaten en hebben niets meer gezien.

The undersigned WESTERLINCK Maria declares that she as barmaid, was present in the bar "MAXIE'S" Kleine Statiestreet, 13, Ghent, on 30th. January 1945, at 9½ o'clock in the evening.

About 20 Canadians soldiers were in the bar, six of them appertained to the "ARGYLL AND SUNTHERLAND CANADA" regiment. I saw also 4 à 5 American soldiers, one belgian soldier and two civilians.

I sat down near the fire and heard that the canadian scottish soldier, who at this moment is present in the bureau, asked at the belgian soldier if he was of the police. I heard the belgian soldier answering "NO" and he said th at the two civilians were of the secret police.

I saw that the above scottish soldier gave a slap on the face of one of the two civilians. The civilians didn't answer and the belgian soldier went out. I heard the scottish soldier saying: " I AM SORRY ".

Thereafter I saw this scottish soldier drinking cognac of a bottle, but I don't know if it was his own bottle of well one of his friend.

I saw two polish soldiers entering the bar, and the scottish soldier fighted with them. Two soldiers of the "ARGYLL AND SUNTHERLAND CANADA" regiment separated the fighters, and the polish soldiers went out.

Some minutes after, another Polish soldier came in and immediatly the scottish soldier fought with him. A [illegible] went backwards, as he was obliged by the fighters, I saw that the scottish soldier gave a violent blow at the polish soldier. The scottish soldier shut then the door and said that he must have his badge and his overcoat. Everyone who wanted to leave the bar, was examined by the scottish soldier.

Thereafter we left the bar and saw nothing more.

born in Watteren, on 8th. July 1927.

Ghent, 2nd. February 1945.

The undersigned SECONDE Marie, declares that she as barmaid, was present in the bar " MAXIE'S " kleine Watiestraat, 18, Ghent, on the 30th. January 1945, at about 9½ o'clock P.M.

About 40 soldiers were in the bar. Also two civilians who stood near the counter.

I have seen that the scottish soldier who is now present in the bureau, fought with two polish soldiers, as soon as these men entered. I tried to separate them, but it was no possible. I saw then that two soldiers of the " ARGYLL AND SUNTHERLAND CANADA "regiment separated the fighters. One of these two soldiers was a tall man, the other a small one. They said me they came back the following day, but I didn't see them.

I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the streetdoor, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement.

As I was also standing at the open streetdoor, and that the scottish soldier shut this door violently, I steped into the street and saw the polish soldier lying upon the ground. I saw that he was bleeding from mouth, nose and ears.

I saw two other polish soldiers and asked them if they were polish. They answered " YES ". I said them that the canadian soldier who gave the blow at the polish soldier, was in the bar. At this answer, one of the two polish soldiers took his pistol, loaded it and asked me where this " BOCHE " was.

I returned into the bar, took my overcoat and went home.

5088 Cpl ROTAJ Jon 10 Polish Rifle Regiment.

admitted	at	2130 hrs	30 Jan 45.
died at		0710 hrs	31 Jan 45.
autopsy	at	1600 hrs	31 Jan 45.

This Polish N.C.O. sustained an injury to the back of the head on the evening of 30 Jan. He was unconscious for 20 minutes. On admission to hospital he had signs of a fractured skull, and lumbar puncture showed bloody C.S.F. Death occurred, after the development of convulsions, on the morning of 31 Jan 45.

At autopsy the positive findings were confined to the head. On external examination there was no laceration or marking of any nature of the scalp. There was a large diffuse haematoma of the subcutaneous tissues and muscle of the scalp, discovered only after the latter was reflected. This measured 12 cm. in diameter and overlay the left parietal bone, being centred 6 cm. below the left parietal eminence. The calvarium was normal. There was a recent, diffuse, large, left sub-dural haematoma overlying the whole of the antero-lateral aspect of the left cerebral hemisphere and of its basal aspect in the middle fossa. The haematoma was made up of clotted blood having a total volume of approximately 120 C.C. There was a thin layer of blood overlying the antero-lateral aspect of the right hemisphere also. The tips of both frontal and both temporal lobes, as well as their under surfaces, exhibited severe contre-coup pulping and moderate contre-coup sub-arachnoid haemorrhage. A few small collections of blood were encountered elsewhere in the sub-arachnoid space. There was an area of recent haemorrhage in the left globus pallidus extending into the adjacent anterior limb of the left internal capsule, and measuring 2 cm. in greatest diameter. No other lesions were found in the brain, the structures beneath the tentorium being normal.

There was an "open-ring" type fracture of the base of the skull involving the bones of the middle and posterior fossae. It extended from the left parietal bone through the squamous plate and petrous portion of the left temporal bone, through the basic sphenoid and greater wings and body of the sphenoid bone, involving the sphenoid sinus. It reduplicated itself on the other side i. e. extended through the right petrous and squamous temporal, and the parietal bones as far as the occipital bone. The whole of the occipital bone at the level of the internal occipital protuberance formed the "open" or non-fractured part of the ring. There was haemorrhage into the mastoid air cells and middle ears on both sides with bilateral perforation of the ear-drums. No other significant lesions were encountered.

Anatomical Diagnosis.

1. (Violence to back of head)
2. Haematoma of scalp (left parietal)
3. Fractures of base of skull
4. Acute sub-dural haemorrhage (left)
5. Contre-coup sub-arachnoid haemorrhage and pulping of brain (tips of both temporal and frontal lobes)
6. Haemorrhage into globus pallidus and internal capsule (left)
7. Haemorrhage into middle ear cavities (bilateral)
8. Perforation of ear-drums (bilateral)

Summary.

Death was due to intra-cranial haemorrhage, brain damage and fractures of the skull resulting from a violent force applied to the left parietal region. This force was either a powerful blow from a moderately heavy blunt instrument or a fall with impact of the head against a solid object

At approximately 2145 hours on 30 January 1945 I was informed that a soldier had been hurt and was in the Victory Cafe, Klaine Straatstraat, Ghent. I went to this cafe and found an injured Polish soldier in the back of the cafe. He was bleeding from the mouth, ears and nose. I sent for an ambulance at once. On checking his pay book I discovered that he was 5080 Cpl. Ratay Jan, 10 Pol Mtd Rifles. The ambulance was slow in coming so I took the man to 2 Cdn General Hosp in my own jeep. When I asked the Victory Cafe proprietor how the Polish soldier came to be in the cafe, I was informed that he had been carried in from the street. ~~[illegible]~~. Maxie's Cafe is directly opposite the rear door of Victory Cafe.

PROSECUTOR MAKES AN OPENING ADDRESS

The facts in this case will be fairly well placed before the Court by any one of the first witnesses called by the Prosecution so that I believe it is sufficient for me to say at this time that the Prosecution will establish that on the night of 30th Jan 45 a sort of a cafe brawl took place in a spot known as Maxie's Cafe here in the city of GHENT.

This affair was immediately in front of the doorway or exit leading to the street. By reason of what went on there a Polish Soldier was struck and was knocked to the pavement and he subsequently died.

I have had a sketch made for the benefit of the Court. I will have that sketch produced in order that direction and location will be established and I trust that this will be satisfactory.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn
Seconde MARIE, Binnenweg 78, Ledeburg, GHENT.

(Evidence through Flemish Interpreter)

Q.1 You are Seconde MARIE?

A.1 Yes Sir,

Q.2 Do you know the Cafe known as Maxie's here in the city of GHENT?

A.2 Yes sir,

Q.3 Were you at Maxie's Cafe on an evening late in Jan 45?

A.3 Yes sir.

Q.4 Do you know the date?

A.4 I cannot remember the date.

Q.5 Can you give us the date?

A.5 All I can say is that it was in January.

Q.6 Do you know the accused soldier DAVIS over here?

A.6 Yes I saw him there.

Q.7 Was he at Maxie's Cafe on the night late in Jan that you are talking about?

A.7 Yes I saw him.

Q.8 Were there other soldiers in Maxie's Cafe that night?

A.8 Yes there were lots of soldiers.

Q.9 Do you know from what regiment the accused person is?

A.9 No I do not.

Q.10 Do you know the regiment of any of the soldiers that were there?

A.10 I have forgotten what was on their shoulders, there were English soldiers there as well.

Q.11 You say English soldiers, do you mean English soldiers as compared to Scottish soldiers?

A.11 There were English soldiers, Scottish soldiers and Belgian soldiers.

Q.12 Now what did you see happen in front of the doorway leading out of Marie's Cafe that night?

A.12 I saw that they were fighting.

Q.13 Did you see any Polish soldiers there in front of the doorway that night?

A.13 I saw Polish soldiers going to come in.

Q.14 How many Polish soldiers.

A.14 One or two.

Q.15 And did they come in Maxie's Cafe?

A.15 I saw them open the door.

Q.16 And then what happened?

A.16 There was a Scottish soldier sitting inside who was "Zig-Zag". He went to the door and he fought. I then went outside and I saw on the ground outside a Polish soldier lying down. I saw two other soldiers outside, I saw that he was bleeding.

Q.17 Where was he bleeding?

A.17. On his nose and his ears.

Q.18 And were there any more Polish soldiers other than this one there then?

A.18 No there was just one lying on the ground.

Q.19 Now you have told the Court that there was a Scottish soldier in Maxie's Cafe who was "Zig-Zag" and who went to the door and was fighting there with this Polish soldier?

A.19 You have the door and there is a corner.

Q.20 Yes, now who was fighting with the Polish soldier?

A.20 I saw the Scottish soldier who is sitting here fight with the Polish soldier.

Q.21 Is it the accused soldier that you have identified here?

A.21 I saw him fighting.

Q.22 With the Polish soldier?

A.22 Yes in the corner.

Q.23 In the corner, is that in front of the doorway in that building?

A.23 There is the door and there is a little place behind that where there is one table.

Q.24 Did you see him, did you see this Canadian soldier or the Scottish soldier as you have called him, fighting with the Polish soldier at the doorway?

A.24 I saw that he had been fighting.

Q.25 I ask you again did you see the Scottish soldier that you have identified here fighting with the Polish soldier in front of the doorway?

A.25 I saw them fighting in this corner

Q.26 Can you answer that yes or no?

A.26 All I can answer is that I saw them fighting in the corner

Prosecutor - May I ask the permission of the Court to cross-examine this witness and put leading questions to her. This is very material and I would like to know therefore if I may treat this witness as hostile?

Defence - From what the evidence has been so far it is too early to decide this question. She has merely stated one thing three times reframing it and I do not think that constitutes a hostile witness.

Prosecutor - I am prepared to argue that with my friend. It is not a question as to whether the evidence is favourable or not. I do not produce this witness for that.

I can go on and establish this fact. This witness is a very material witness or I would let that matter drop and establish it through somebody else but I am not in that position. I do need the permission of the Court as this is my witness and I can not cross-examine her and I can not put leading questions to her. It is more than the duty of the Prosecution to produce some one just because they are favourable or unfavourable. I am prepared or ready to cross-examine this witness if the Court will give me such permission.

Judge-Advocate - I think the witness should withdraw.

Witness withdraws.

Prosecutor - The question here is one of the statements made by the witness, Seconde MARIE, whom we have just had in the witness box and on behalf of the Prosecution. I have of course statements that the witness has made and I have tried to bring out from her in direct examination the facts that she has already stated. That direct examination of mine fails to bring out here those facts. Now without the permission of the Court I can not go on and put leading questions to this witness and I can not cross-examine her but it is a matter solely within the descretion of the Court as to whether or not I can be permitted to do that.

I can illustrate that by saying that I have a Flemish statement made by this witness. I can not as the Prosecution present it to this witness and say "is that what you said"? By so doing I impeach the credit of my own witness.

The Court being cognisant of the facts at this time decide whether I am permitted to act on that now or whether you feel something more can be done by way of direct examination. Now that goes even farther, if that does not establish the facts that she has already stated, with your permission I can call other evidence of the circumstances surrounding this statement which I propose to do with your permission. I can appreciate that there is some law there which you may like to consider but I feel that it is important and material and I do not want to leave it unless you so desire.

Defence - This witness has not shown herself to be hostile. It is for the descretion of the Court whether or not the Prosecution may ask leading questions and so on but the basis of the thing is that the witness is hostile, that I do not think has been shown.

The Court is closed to consider the request of the Prosecution.

The Court is reopened. The Court has disallowed the submission at this time of the Prosecuting Officer. The Court feels that there is not sufficient evidence before it to say that this witness is acting in a hostile manner. If after further evidence it is considered that she is acting in a hostile manner the matter will be considered again.

Prosecutor - Will the Court permit me to carry on further examination or put to her leading questions. That is the question that should be decided here not as to the hostility of this witness at this point?

JA - The Court feels, Maj WILLSON, that questions should be asked in either a yes or no answer.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution
Seconde MARIE - is recalled.

JA - will you warn this witness that she will answer these questions with a yes or no answer. That is if she is asked for a yes or no answer she will give a yes or no answer.

Q.27 I want to ask you another question about what you saw at the doorway when the Polish soldier entered Maxie's Cafe. Did you see, did you not see the accused person, DAVIS, fighting with the Polish soldier in front of the doorway of Maxie's Cafe?

A.27 I saw the soldier fighting in the corner of Maxie's Cafe with the Polish soldier.

Prosecutor - I am going to ask the Court that it is important that they go down and see the interior of Maxie's Cafe and the area where this incident occured but that still is not helpful at this moment.

Perhaps we need not go further there. I do not oppose the fact that there is a little nook around a table there that she is talking about. I submit that we do not need to go into the question.

Q.28 Did you see Polish soldiers in the Cafe on more than one occasion that night?

A.28 No I only saw them enter once.

Q.29 And how many Polish soldiers did you see enter at that time?

A.29 First one came in and then two come in.

Q.30 Now, where was the accused person, DAVIS, standing when the one Polish soldier entered Maxie's Cafe?

A.30 (No answer)

Q.31 Where was DAVIS standing when you saw the one Polish soldier enter the Cafe?

A.31 He was a prisoner then.

Q.32 What do you mean "he was a prisoner then"?

A.32 The police had already taken him away.

Q.33 Where was DAVIS standing when two Polish soldiers entered the door?

A.33 That was a week later.

Q.34 You have told the Court that on this night two Polish soldiers and then one Polish soldier entered. Now is that all on the same night?

A.34 No it is not on the same night.

Prosecution - May I have permission of the Court to have the statement made by this witness and ask her if she recalls making this statement. I have an additional Flemish witness and will put it to her through the interpreter who took it.

JA - Is he present?

Prosecution - Yes.

Defending Officer - On that point may I make a submission. I think it is in the interest of all that her mind should be directed to the evening in question using the statement for that purpose only and so much of the statement that will make that clear only. I feel that we are getting nowhere but to use the statement to bring out what occured on that evening is quite improper until the Court agrees that she may be treated as a hostile witness.

Prosecution - The difficulty is that the Court have no way of knowing these facts unless I am permitted to produce this statement.

For instance the Court still do not know what my examination is directed to and can not unless I am permitted in some way to establish that. That is all I should say on it.

JA - the statement you are referring to is the one made on 2 Feb 45?

Prosecution - That is right.

JA - this witness has already told us she saw fighting at the door, she saw Polish soldiers come in - one or two.

Witness is withdrawn.

Prosecution - the statement which I would like to have permission to use contains these words, "I have seen the same Scottish soldier who is now present in the bureau fight with two Polish soldiers as soon as they entered. I tried to separate them but it was not possible. I saw then that two soldiers of the 'Argyll and Sutherland Canada' regiment separated the fighters. One of these two soldiers was a tall man, the other a small one."

Then the middle part. "I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another Polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this Polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the street door, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement."

Those are the facts that I would like to question this witness on and you can see I am in difficulty unless some latitude is granted.

Defending Officer - I would merely like to draw to the attention of the Court that this witness is intentionally or not failing to give straight answeres to the questions. In other words there has been so much confusion. While this statement has been read I think the Court out to know at the same time that a further statement taken on the Summary of Evidence, a sworn statement, in which she states referring to the Scottish soldier giving a blow, was the "same uniform but another soldier". I think these two statements should be read together when you decide whether or not this witness may be treated differently. I believe you have the Summary there.

JA - It seems to me, Maj WILLSON, that this is one of the most essential points of the whole case. So far the evidence of this witness stated that she saw fighting at the door, she saw Poles going to come in, one or two, she saw him open the door, the Scottish soldier was "Zig-Zag" went to the door and fought and that she saw the Polish soldier lying on the ground. It seems that this witness is not hostile sufficient to allow the producing of this statement.

Prosecutor - As Prosecutor you know I am bound to be fair. I do not want to have included here anything that is prejudicial to the accused person and should not be properly admitted. I suggest that this is not a question of anyone refreshing their memory. The statement that I read to you is to the effect that "I saw the same Scottish soldier giving a blow to a Polish soldier." As I have told you I can establish the circumstances under which this statement was taken and who was in the bureau at the time and who was seated and what was done to make the witness familiar with the fact that the accused person was DAVIS and that he was the only person sitting in the room.

The Court is closed to consider this question.

The Court is reopened.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution is recalled.
Seconde MARIS

Q.35 On the night of the 30th of Jan 45 at Maxie's Cafe do you know whether or not if any soldier there lost his coat or his badge or other equipment?

A.35 Yes I do.

Q.36 Who lost some equipment there that night?

A.36 The soldier that is sitting there, the Scottish soldier.

Q.37 That is the accused?

A.37 Yes sir,

Q.38 What did he lose?

A.38 He had lost his badge that he has on his cap.

Q.39 Anything else that you know of?

A.39 No.

Q.40 And what was he doing because of that?

A.40 He locked the door.

Q.41 And what did he do at the doorway?

A.41 He asked and felt to see if any soldier had his badge.

Q.42 Who did he feel and see if any soldier had his badge?

A.42 The Scottish soldiers.

Q.43 Do you know whether or not the door was open or closed leading to and from Maxie's Cafe?

A.43 He closed the door and stood in front of it.

Q.44 And what did he do then when the Polish soldiers entered?

A.44 How do you mean,"whe n the Polish soldiers entered"?

Q.45 When the Polish soldiers came into the cafe what did the accused do?

A.45 He offered to fight with the Polish soldiers at the door, there is a door and there is a corner.

Q.46 And what did you see him do at the doorway?

A.46 I saw that he was fighting.

Q.47 Do you know who he was fighting with?

A.47 He fought with the Polish soldiers.

Q.48 And then what happened to the Polish soldier.

A.48 When he was fighting with the Polish?

Q.49 Yes.

A.49 I went there and went in between them.

Q.50 And then what happened?

A.50 And then another two soldiers came over and took them apart.

Q.51 And what happened from then on?

A.51 I then went out on to the street and I saw a Polish soldier lying on the ground.

Q.52 Do you know how the Polish soldier came to be lying on the ground?

A.52 I could not exactly say how the Polish soldier came to be lying on the ground.

Q.53 Did you see anyone strike the Polish soldier?

A.53 No I never saw that.

Q.54 Are you sure of that? Are you sure that you did not see someone strike the Polish soldier?

A.54 When they took him away?

Q.55 Did you see anyone strike the Polish soldier in what you have called the corner of that cafe?

A.55 I saw that Scottish soldier fight there.

Q.56 And did you see that Scottish soldier strike the Polish soldier there?

A.56 I just saw them fight.

Q.57 What did the Polish soldier do then after this fight?

A.57 Was that the Polish soldier that fought?

Q.58 Yes.

A.58 There is soldiers that took him outside so that he would go away.

Q.59 Was he able to walk out?

A.59 I did not see that.

Q.60 Did you see the Polish soldier back out of the doorway?

A.60 No I never saw that.

Q.61 You did not see a Polish soldier back out of the doorway and close the door behind him at any time that night?

A.61 No I never saw that.

Q.62 Did you see a Polish soldier fall backwards through that doorway at any time that night?

A.62 No sir.

Q.63 Do you know how the Polish soldier that you saw lying in the street came to be there?

A.63 No I do not know. When I came outside I saw him lying on the street.

Q.64 Then you did not see this Scottish soldier strike a blow at any soldier that night?

A.64 I just saw that he was fighting.

Q.65 Did you see him strike anyone?

A.65 No I did not see him hit.

Q.66 Did you see the accused strike any Polish soldier there that day ?

A.66 I did not see that.

Prosecutor - I think that is as far as I can go unless the Court feels- if you feel that it is a question of this witness actually not knowing then it is not a question of granting me any leeway. If you feel that if at one time this witness did feel differently about this I should like to continue.

Defence - I do not wish to add any more objections because I feel that this witness either does not know or either has probably forgotten or never knew what happened. I do not wish to make any more objections or suggestions as to changing the method of the Prosecution's questioning here.

Prosecutor - Probably this may be cleared up if my friend goes on and cross-examines her and the Court may wish to recall her later if you feel that any advantage may be gained in that way.

Defence - In that respect the witness has not given any material evidence whatsoever against the accused. By cross-examining I would be sticking my neck out and I would rather leave any cross-examination until the Prosecution is finished rather than cross-examine and leave it open.

JA quotes from Archbolds - Hostile witness:

"A party producing a witness shall not be allowed to impeach his credit by general evidence of bad character; but he may, in case the witness shall, in the opinion of the judge, prove adverse, contradict him by other evidence, or, by leave of the judge, prove that he has made at other times a statement inconsistent with his present testimony; but before such last-mentioned proof can be given, the circumstances of the supposed statement, sufficient to designate the particular occasion, must be mentioned to the witness, and he must be asked whether or not he has made such statement. To be inconsistent within the meaning of the section the statement need not be directly or absolutely at variance. The word 'adverse' in this section means 'hostile', and not merely 'unfavourable'. The discretion of the Judge to give or refuse leave to cross-examine the party's own witness, however hostile he may be, is absolute. If the witness appears evidently to be hostile to the party who has called him, counsel may put leading questions to him, having first obtained permission of the Court to do so."

Prosecutor - May I say that you can not determine whether this witness is hostile or not at this time. How can the Court determine whether this witness is hostile until I bring the facts before the Court. I have asked you for permission to use this statement and you say that there is no grounds for using this statement as yet. I asked for permission to call a witness to state that what this witness is saying is not the truth, that she has stated otherwise.

JA - my advice to the Court is that this can not be done unless the Court is satisfied that this witness is adverse. You are now asking permission to prove that she is hostile.

Prosecutor - I am asking you to open the door a little bit and I will show you.

The Court is closed

The Court is reopened - President announces Court will adjourn until 1000 hrs 18 Apr 45.

Court re-assembles 1000 hrs 18 Apr 45 - is re-opened.

The First Witness, Seconde MARIE, being not available the Prosecution on the direction of the Court proceeds to call other witnesses.

SECOND WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
Maria WESTERLINK, Binnenweg 55, Ledebrug, GHENT.

(Evidence through Flemish interpreter)

Q.67 You are Maria WESTERLINK?

A.67 Yes sir.

Q.68 Do you recognise the accused soldier here in Court today?

A.68 Yes, witness indicates the accused.

Q.69 Were you in Maxie's Cafe in the City of GHENT on an occasion when he was there?

A.69 Yes sir.

Q.70 What day was that?

A.70 30th of Jan 45.

Q.71 At about what time?

A.71 Between 9.15 and 9.30 PM

Q.72 And were there many Canadian soldiers in Maxie's Cafe that night?

A.72 Approx 20 Cdn soldiers.

Q.73 Did you see some Polish soldiers in that Cafe that night?

A.73 Yes two Polish soldiers.

Q.74 What did you see happen so far as these Polish soldiers are concerned?

A.74 Before the two Polish soldiers came in Davis was fighting with two Belgian civilians. He then fought with the Polish soldiers at the door of the Cafe.

Q.75 And what happened to the Polish soldiers?

A.75 Two of the A & SH of C took them apart.

Q.76 And then?

A.76 Then one Polish soldier came back in again and DAVIS started in to fight with him again. If DAVIS put him outside or hit him outside I could not say. DAVIS came back into the Cafe and said that he had lost his coat and his badge and that he wanted it back. That is all I saw.

Q.77 Did you see the Polish soldier outside afterwards?

A.77 No sir.

Q.78 Do you know anything about DAVIS' coat or hat badge?

A.78 I do not know if DAVIS got his coat or his badge back, everyone was asked if they knew anything about it?

Q.79 Who asked everyone?

A.79 DAVIS himself.

Q.80 Where was DAVIS standing?

A.80 At the door

Q.81 Now do you know the Argyle and Sutherland Highlanders hat badge, cap badge ?

A.81 Witness produces A & SH of C hat badge from purse.

Q.82 Now do you know what kind of a hat badge DAVIS wore.

A.82 With a cross on it (indicates with her fingers)

Q.83 Is there any doubt in your mind as to the identity of this man DAVIS?

A.83 I did not know his name exactly, I know he was the man with the Polish soldiers.

Q.84 Now I want to review with you a moment the facts about these Polish soldiers. Is it true that Polish soldiers came into the Cafe more than once that night?

A.84 Twice, only twice.

Q.85 And the first time how many Polish soldiers came in?

A.85 Two.

Q.86 And then the second time how many Polish soldiers came in?

A.86 There came two in the second time and one of them was one of the first ones that came in..

Q.87 Did anything happen at the doorway that night?

A.87 In the cafe or outside?

Q.88 Either?

A.88 I saw nothing else except that the accused fought with the Polish soldier.

Q.89 And what did you see the Polish soldier do?

A.89 The Polish soldier fought back

Q.90 And then what happened?

A.90 The accused also fought.

Q.91 What did you see the accused do?

A.91 The accused fought with the Polish soldier when they came in.

Q.92 What happened after the fight?

A.92 The accused wanted his badge and his coat back.

Q.93 Did the accused person fight with the Polish soldier on more than one occasion there that night?

A.93 I just saw him fight twice with the Polish soldiers.

Q.94 And where abouts did he fight twice with the Polish soldiers?

A.94 At the door of Maxie's Cafe on the left hand side, that is where they fought.

Q.95 You did not go outside of Maxie's Cafe after you saw this fight then?

A.95 No I could not go outside the Cafe as he was standing in front of the door.

Prosecutor - I am in the same position with this witness as I was with the other witness and I do not know whether I can proceed further. I believe I have gone as far as I should unless the Court wishes to give me permission to use the statement or to do anything further with this witness.

I would like permission, depending on what your instruction was on this matter this morning, I would like permission either by way of introducing a statement made by this witness establishing her signature or calling another witness to produce her statement.

Defence - I would like to oppose that motion. I submit that the witness has apparently told a straightforward story this morning. There is no indication that she is in any way adverse or is doing anything else other than answering the questions put to her as well as she can. If the Prosecutor produces the statement, however, the evidence which she has given this morning is substantially the same as is written in her statement taken some time ago.

JA - A motion has been made by the Prosecutor for leave to introduce or to produce a statement purporting to be made by the witness and asks the Court for permission to cross-examine his own witness.

In establishing whether the witness is adverse my advice is that the Prosecutor should be allowed to introduce the statement and prove if he can if this is a statement made by the witness. The decision being left with the Court to determine whether that statement if proven shows that the witness is adverse. The Court must be careful that any evidence which is brought forward at this stage - to remember that it is not evidence against the accused but it is merely evidence in issue as to whether the witness is adverse to the Prosecution and the Prosecutor must not introduce in evidence in chief any evidence made in that statement.

Defence - May I just make one point on that. In this statement before it is introduced as evidence it should also be shown that the evidence given verbally in Court is different from her statement.

JA - that is a matter for the Court to determine.

Defence - Oh yes but I would like that point to be very definitely established by the Court.

Q.96 Do you read Flemish as well?

A.96 Yes.

Q.97 Is that your signature at the bottom of that page?

A.97 Yes sir.

Q.98 Will you read that statement, not out loud, to yourself. Is that statement a statement made and signed by you on the 2nd of Feb?

A.98 Yes sir.

Q.99 And is that a true statement?

A.99 Yes sir.

Q.100 Now do you recall being interviewed by an officer once again regarding this DAVIS trial?

A.100 No I do not remember.

Q.101 Do you remember that on the 2nd of Feb you made that statement?

A.101 Yes

Q.102 And then about 12th Mar?

A.102 Yes by the Cdn Police

Q.103 And an officer?

A.103 Yes sir.

Q.104 Now do you remember that at that time this statement was shown to you?

A.104 Yes

Q.105 And the question was asked of you, "Is this the statement you gave to the Police on the 2nd Feb 45" and you answered "Yes"?

A.105 Yes

Q.106 And do you remember that the next question that was asked was, "Is that a correct statement" and your answer was, "No, it was wrong"?

A.106 There was a wrong word in it.

Q.107 Now what is the wrong word that is in it?

A.107 The Cdn Police asked me if this was the Scottish soldier that killed the Polish soldier.

Q.108 Yes and did you answer this?

JA - Just a moment Maj WILLSON. I do not want anything read out of that statement in open Court. I do not want any evidence read out that is prejudicial to the accused.

Prosecutor - I just want to get from this witness a yes or no and if she says she made this statement I will read it to you.

Q.109 The next question. The question here that was put to you was, "What changes do you wish to make with reference to that statement" and your answer was, "It was not the accused whom I meant was the one who fought with the Pole entering the Cafe, it was another Scottish soldier." Is that what you said?

A.109 Yes.

Q.110 Now you were questioned by the accused, "Where was I when this Pole was hit at the doorway?" and you answered "I think you were at the counter." "I saw you fighting once in the corner with one Polish soldier."

And, "What did I do after fighting in the corner?" and you answered, "I didn't see you do anything more."

Is that the statement that you made at that time? Is that the questions and is that the answeres you gave?

A.110 That is correct.

Q.111 Is that your signature?

A.111 Yes that is my signature.

Court is closed.

Court is re-opened - Court has found that the submission of the Prosecution has been allowed and the Prosecution may treat the witness as adverse.

Second Witness for the Prosecution is recalled.
Maria WESTERLINK,

Prosecutor - I take it that I may proceed to cross-examine her in any way regarding the facts in this matter.

Q.112 I show you a copy of the statement signed by you on the 2nd of Feb. And that is your signature there?

A.112 Yes sir.

Q.113 Now did you say on the 2nd of Feb, "Some minutes after, another Polish soldier came in and immediately the Scottish soldier fought with him. I saw that the Polish soldier went backwards as he was obliged by the fighters. I saw that the Scottish soldier gave a violent blow at the Polish soldier. The Scottish soldier shut then the door and said that he must have his badge and his overcoat."

Is that true?

A.113 Yes that is true.

Q.114 That is the Scottish soldier that you refer to here, that Scottish soldier there (pointing to accused)?

A.114 No that is not him.

Q.115 Is that the Scottish soldier who lost his badge and his overcoat?

A.115 Yes sir.

Q.116 Then what did you mean when you said, "The Scottish soldier shut then the door and said he must have his badge and his overcoat"?

A.116 He did lock the door, he had lost his coat and his badge.

President - Would you remind the witness that this is a serious case, someone has been killed, and that she is under oath.

Original Flemish statement produced by Prosecution is entered as Exhibit "A".

Prosecutor - I have examined this witness before I raised the question of her being a hostile witness and I went over the evidence with this witness up to the time of the incident in the Cafe. Now I have put before you the position of this witness in so far as this incident is concerned. Now I think that all the evidence is in material form.

Once my friend is through cross - examining this witness if he wishes to go further I would like if you permit me to call the witness or the interpreter who was there at the time that statement was made and give the circumstances surrounding the making of that statement.

JA - That is a witness that is not in the Summary of Evidence. If the Defending Officer will waive RP 76?

Defence - I will not object to that.

Prosecutor - I think that once the Court have become seized of these facts of the case that they will want to hear what evidence this further witness can give. I do not know whether your ruling that you have discussed covers the question of my calling any witnesses to deal with that but I would like to do that if you see fit.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.117 You say that you saw DAVIS fighting with the first two Poles who came into the cafe?

A.117 Yes sir.

"Alto"

Prosecutor - Unless the witness Seconde MARIE is available the only other witness I have to call at the present is the Doctor from 2 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Due to the fact that his evidence may be rather lengthy if the other witness is not out here and if it is in keeping with what the Court might wish I suggest that we may adjourn and see the scene of this night and leave the other until the morning.

1500 hrs - the Court adjourns for a view of the scene of the incident. Those present, the Court, JA, Prosecuting, Defending Officers, accused, escort, court reporter and officers under instruction.

Judge-Advocate warns the accused that he is not obliged to say anything or point out anything to the Court. He is just there to see that no evidence is taken that he has no knowledge of.

The Court attended at Maxie's Cafe and viewed the surroundings from inside and out. It was noted by the Court that inside of the cafe was a small vestibule to the right of which was a small recess in one corner. The bar is on the opposite wall to the door. The stove is approx in the center of the room. There is another room which seems to be a type of dance hall. The enterance is at the left hand room in which the bar is. The enterance from the street to the cafe is reached by one step 2" and another step approx 8". The sidewalk and road-way are stone.

~~SEVENTH WITNESS---For the Prosecution--~~

The Court reassembles - is re-opened at 1000 hrs 19 Apr 45.

SEVENTH WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
Major J D DUFFIN, RCAMC, Pathologist, 2 Cdn Gen Hosp.

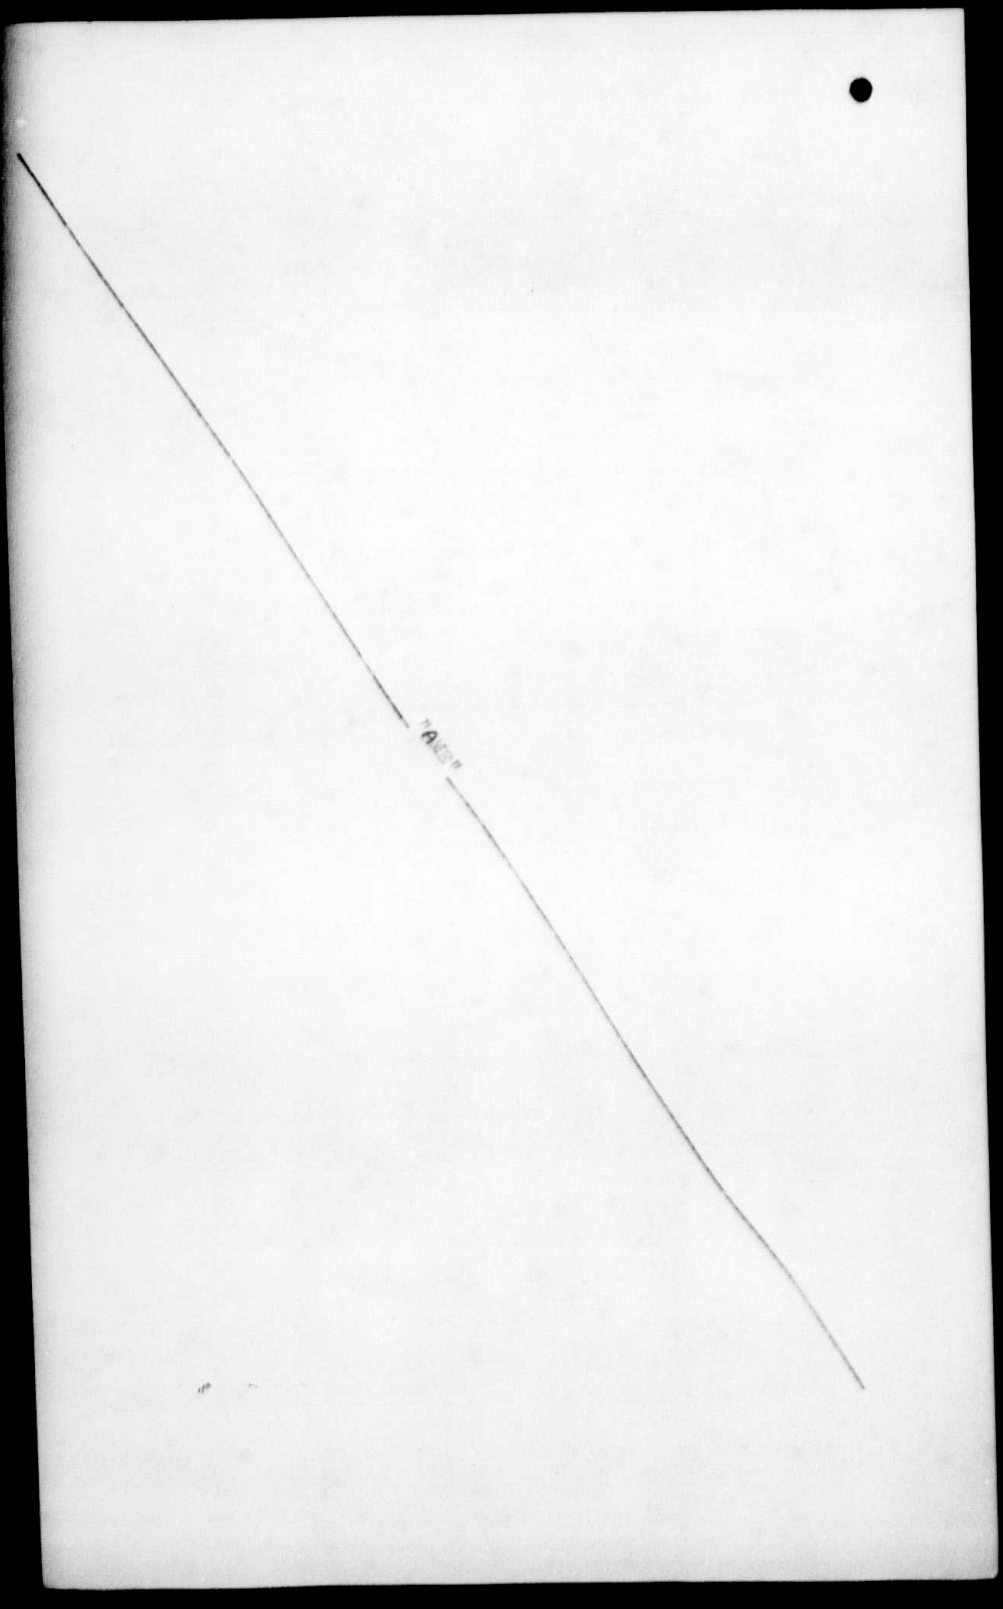
Q.244 Are you the Pathologist at 2 Cdn Gen Hosp?

A.244 Yes sir.

Q.245 And in the course of your duties there did you have occasion to perform an autopsy on Jan RATAJ?

A.245 Yes I did.

Q.246 When did you do this?



A.246 This was done on the afternoon of Jan 31 of this year at 1600 hrs.

Q.247 Now can you tell us what your examination of that body revealed in the sense of what injuries there were to it and if you do know what may or may not have caused it?

A.247 The cause of death was quite apparent. It was due to haemorrhage inside the scull together with fractures of the scull and in addition to that haemorrhage in the brain tissue itself. The haemorrhage was of such a type that it was quite evident it was some violence that we call tematic. That is some type of blow to the head. That is somebody either struck the deceased or he had fallen and hit his head very forcibly. Perhaps somebody had knocked him and he had fallen over backwards and he sustained injuries of that nature.

Q.248 Now can you show us with your own head at what part of the head the injuries were?

A.248 The violence had been applied to the back part of the head on the left side. (indicates to the Court).

"AXIS"

It was quite clear that violence had been indicated to that part.

Q.249 Could any more immediate medical treatment have saved this man's life if he had received this type of injury?

A.249 That is rather difficult to answer. Almost all cases that have this type of injury do die within a short period of time. I suppose it is theoretically possible, perhaps it is possible. I understand he had the routine treatment for injuries of this nature and rapidly died within a few hours after having been admitted.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.250 Were there any bruises on the front of the face?

A.250 No there were not.

Q.251 If a blow had been struck sufficient to knock him backwards on the sidewalk, on the face, would you expect to find a bruise there?

A.251 You may or you may not. As a matter of fact in this case there was no mark on the place where he had been struck externally. As a matter of fact I had to retract the skin to find this and as far as the front of the face is concerned we did not find any and it had no significance.

Q.252 Did you yourself know that the person you examined was Cpl RATAJ?

A.252 Yes it is a routine that we go through to identify everybody.

Q.253 Are you able to say of your own knowledge that the person you examined was Cpl RATAJ Jan?

A.253 It just depends on what you want for identification. The patient died and the Wardmaster who looks after this case came up to my office and got a book in which he wrote the name of the patient and he issued me with the keys to the morgue in which he put the patient. The body was wrapped in a sheet and was marked with the name of the patient. More over he was the only patient or body in the morgue at this time.

Q.254 Did you notice that his identity discs were still on?

A.254 No they were not. They are not usually on, sometimes they are on and sometimes they are not.

Q.255 You did not see him until dead?

A.255 No I did not.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.256 Did you notice any marks on the chest or stomach that would indicate the place where he was struck?

A.256 No there were no marks on the body externally at all.

Q.257 Is it fair to say that as far as identification is concerned it was just through the routine?

A.257 There were no special steps taken just the usual routine.

"GAGE"

Q.258 The body that you presumed the deceased, that you understood was the person referred to, merely because it was tagged?

A.258 It was reported to me that he was deceased and I was in charge of the morgue. Unless they substituted another body for this body and I think that is impossible. Provided that the identification through life was conducted which I presume had been.

Q.259 In your opinion this Polish soldier had been adequately medically attended to and did not die as a result of neglect?

A.259 I am quite sure that he did not die of neglect. I am not a specialist but as I pointed out to Major WILLSON he had every attention possible. He had a very extensive fracture of the scull and such cases almost never recover and in addition to this he had these fractures which I described which no medical surgery could have done anything for.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

President announces - When the Court adjourned on the 17th a motion had been made by the Prosecution opposed by the Defending Officer that the witness Seconde MARIE be declared adverse. The Court allows the submission of the Prosecuting Officer and permits the cross-examination of the witness Seconde MARIE and the witness Seconde MARIE may be treated by the Prosecution in all respects as if adverse.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution - reminded of the fact
Seconde MARIE, Binnenweg 78, that she is already sworn.
Ledeburg, GHENT.

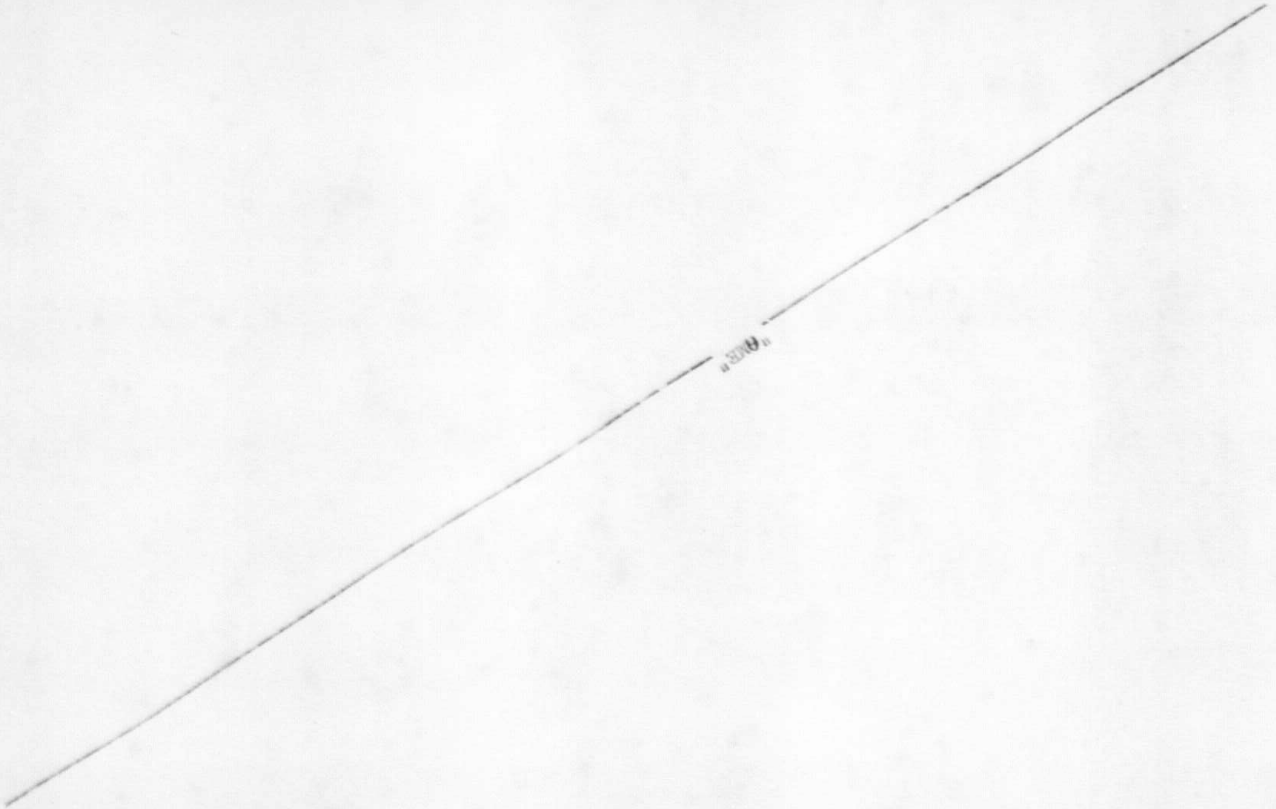
Statement entered as Exhibit "C".

Witness is shown statement of evidence.

Q.260 Is that your signature?

A.261 Yes

Q.262 On the 2nd of Feb did you say these words and sign this statement?



A.262 Yes I told the Belgian Interpreter and I signed it. (referring to Exhibit "C")

Prosecutor - For the benefit of the Court I will read the statement:

"The undersigned SECONDE Marie, declares that she as barmaid, was present in the bar 'MAXIE's' Kleine statiestraat, 13, Ghent, on the 30th January 1945, at about 9½ o'clock P.M.

About 40 soldiers were in the bar. Also two civilians who stood near the counter.

I have seen that the scottish soldier who is now present in the bureau, fought with two polish soldiers, as soon as these men entered. I tried to separate them, but it was no possible. I saw then that two soldiers of the 'Argyll and Sutherland Canada' regiment separated the fighters. One of these two soldiers was a tall man, the other a small one. They said me they come back the following day, but I didn't see them.

I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the streetdoor, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement.

As I was also standing at the open streetdoor, and that the scottish soldier shut this door violently, I steped into the street and saw the polish soldier lying upon the ground. I saw that he was bleeding from mouth, nose and ears."

Q.263 Do you remember another Cdn Officer coming to see you and taking a statement from you about the 12th of March?

A.263. I have forgotten now.

Q.264 Well is that your signature there? (pointing to original Summary)

A.264 Yes.

Q.265 Do you remember that officer having with him that statement and he was showing it to you and then you said this: (Prosecutor presents Exhibit "G")

"I have nothing to add nor have I any changes to make in the statement which I gave to the Provost on 2nd Feb 45."

And when questioned by the accused as follows:

"I was fighting with two Poles in the corner of the cafe, was I not?"

You said, "Yes".

And when further questioned:

"When you mentioned 'Same Scottish soldier' do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform?"

You said, "Same uniform, it was another soldier."

Do you remember at the time that officer visited you with the accused present, the accused asked you this question. "I was fighting with two Poles in the corner of the Cafe, was I not? and you answered, "Yes"?

A.265 That is right.

Q.266 And do you remember being asked, "When you mention same Scottish soldier do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform." And you answered, "Same uniform but another soldier"? Is that what you said?

A.266 Yes.

Q.267 Is that your signature?

A.267 Yes.

Q.268 Did the accused person ask you that and did you answer that at the time, "the same uniform but another soldier?

A.268 There were two in the cafe.

Judge-Advocate- I rule that you must introduce proof of the statement made not just some material part of it.

Prosecutor - I wish to ask the witness whether or not the question in the original Summary of Evidence which reads thus was asked of you:

"When you mention same Scottish soldier do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform?"

Q.269 Was that question asked of you by the accused?

A.269 That is what I had to answer.

Q.270 What do you mean by that when you say, "that is what I had to answer"?

A.270 That is the question that was asked.

Q.271 Yes and did you answer, as is listed in answer 2, "Same uniform, it was another soldier"?

A.271 Yes I answered that.

Q.272 But were you not standing at the door of the cafe when that happened?

A.272 When what happened?

Q.273 When the Polish soldier was struck?

A.273 No I was not standing at the door then.

Prosecutor - Referring to Exhibit "C" I wish you to read to the witness in Flemish this paragraph which I read in English:

"I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this Polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the street door, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement.

Will you read that paragraph (referring to the 4th paragraph side-lined in read on Exhibit "C").

Interpreter reads paragraph in Flemish to witness.

Q.274 Do you remember saying that?

A.274 I can not remember what I said.

Prosecutor - That is all I have for this witness. I will produce the interpreter to ask what she said and leave the rest to the Court.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.275 Do you remember how many people were in the cafe that night?

A.275 Probably 30 or 40 soldiers.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.276 Where were you standing when the two Polish soldiers came in?

Q.278 Who was fighting between the door and the corner?

A.278 A Canadian soldier with 2 Poles.

"A"

Q.286 Was anyone else out there besides the Polish soldier lying there?

A.286 No sir.

Q.287 Did anybody come while you were there with the Polish soldier?

A.287 I saw two soldiers and I asked them if they were Poles.

Q.288 Were these soldiers that came Polish?

A.288 Were they the ones that went in?

Q.301 Who struck him?

A.301 It was a Canadian.

Q.302 Is the Canadian that struck him the Canadian in Court, the accused?

A.302 No sir.

Q.303 Was it a Scottish Canadian that struck him?

A.303 Yes sir.

Questioned by the President.

Q.304 Why are you sure the Scottish Cdn that struck him is not the same one that is sitting here?

A.304 The one soldier that hit the other soldier I saw him last week.

Q.311 Was this man with the Scottish soldier who is sitting here when the fighting took place?

A.311 No sir.

Q.312 Can you describe what he looks like?

A.312 He has dark hair, he is a tall person, he is broad.

A.316 No sir.

Q.317 Why in this statement do you say that you saw the soldier strike the Polish soldier and now you say that you did not see it?

A.317 They never asked me if there was any more.

Q.318 I am asking why did you say in this statement that you saw the soldier, Scottish soldier who is present in the office, who is the accused here now - you saw him strike the Polish soldier, you saw the Polish soldier fall out and now you say you did not see that?

Q.320 If you were not threatened why did you make that statement?

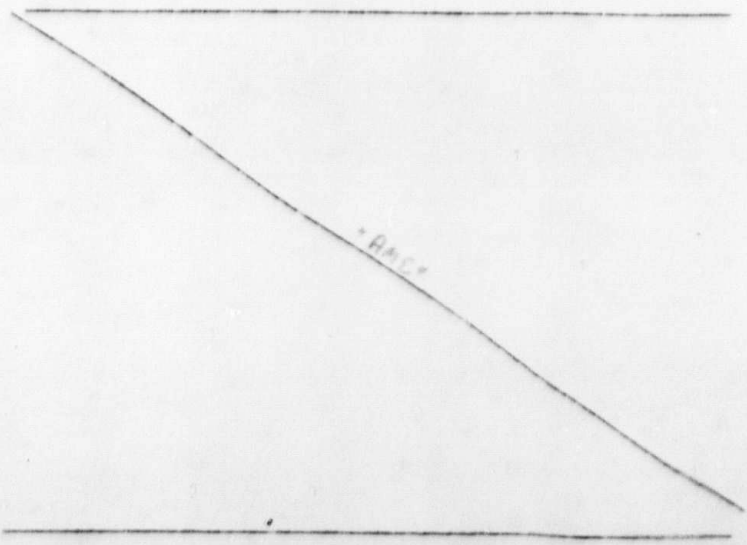
A.320 I did not know what I was saying.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary for the Prosecution to call a witness to establish the statement referred to in the evidence of this witness.

Prosecutor - Mr President, I have now produced on behalf of the Prosecution all of the available witnesses with the exception of two Polish soldiers who are named in the Summary of Evidence. Yesterday the Defending Officer and the Court I believe decided they wanted to hear the evidence of the two Polish soldiers and they have been sent for and they should be here at any time but in view of the courts of this trial and what has happened here during yesterday afternoon and this morning I would like to ask the Court if they feel that they would still like to have these two witnesses produced. May I say at this time the two Polish soldiers do not help in any respect in so far as the question of identification is concerned and who actually struck the blow which resulted in the death of the Polish Cpl. I raise this now because I feel that unless the Court do wish these witnesses produced or the Defence do then I feel that on behalf of the Prosecution they can add nothing to the actual facts of this assault. So perhaps if the Court would indicate to my friend the Defending Officer as to what their wishes are perhaps we could be guided by that in the future course of this trial.



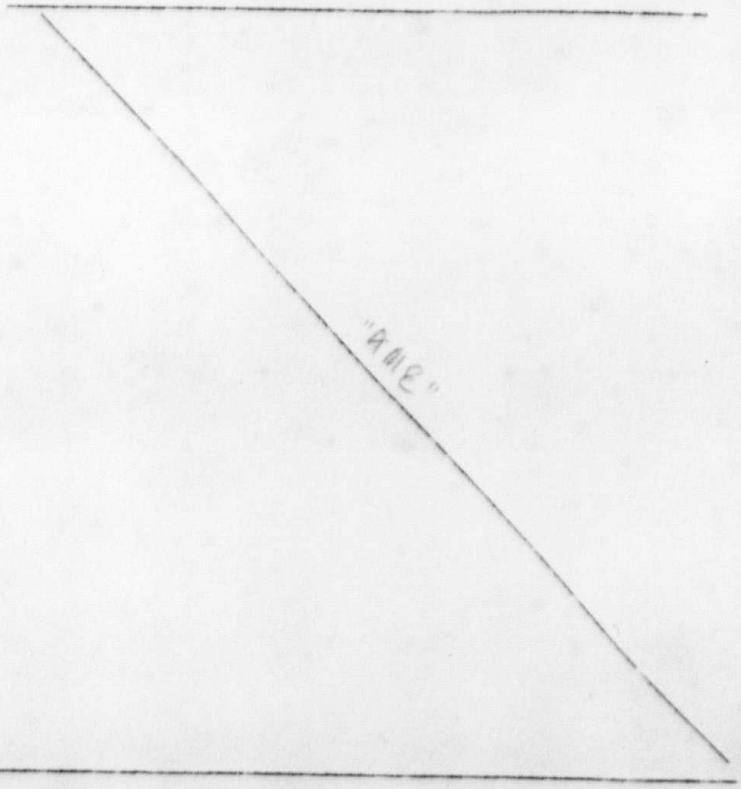
Judge-Advocate - You appreciate that the Defending Officer has the right to demand the attendance of these two witnesses due to the fact that the two Polish soldiers are witnesses to the Summary of Evidence and that you may be required to make them available to the Defending Officer for cross-examination.

Defence - I do not require the two Polish soldiers for my case.

President - In view of the statement of the Prosecuting Officer and the Defending Officer the Court feels that we do not require the two Polish soldiers to be required.

Prosecution - Then may I say, Mr. President, that aside from the two Polish soldiers that is the case for the Prosecution and those are all the witnesses that we are able to call.

The Prosecution is closed.



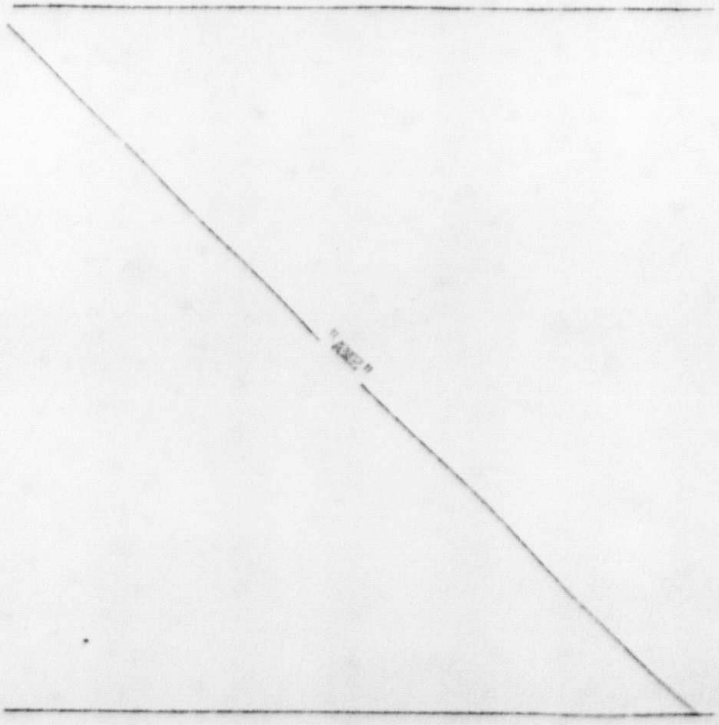
THE DEFENDING OFFICER SUBMITS THAT THE EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION DOES NOT ESTABLISH A PRIMA FACIE CASE AGAINST THE ACCUSED.

I submit that no prima facie case has been made out.

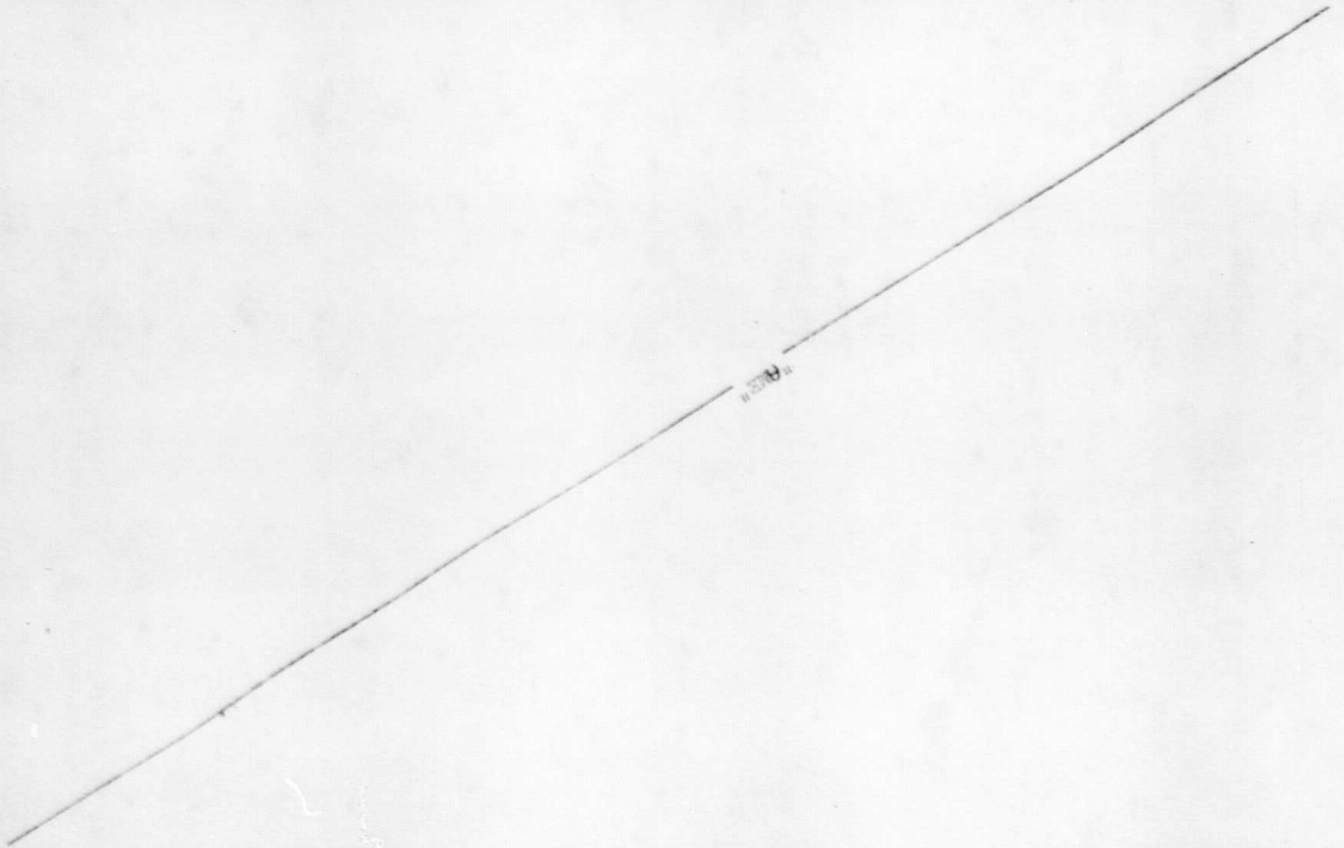
In a manslaughter case it must be shown among other things that there was a blow or some other unlawful act - that a blow was struck or some other unlawful act had been done and that the person who did this unlawful act is the accused.

I do not propose to examine the evidence of the witnesses in detail I shall merely say that the witness WESTERLINK and SECONDE have both stated that it was not DAVIS who hit the Pole who fell outside the door and one of them has stated that she did not see any blow struck at all against this particular Pole. It seems there was a fight in the corner of the Cafe and from the view which the Court had yesterday I think it is physically impossible for anybody in that corner to strike a blow so that a man would fall backwards outside the door. He would have to fall at 180° from where he was hit.

From that cursory examination of the evidence I submit that there is no evidence whatsoever that DAVIS is guilty of the charge of Manslaughter.



PROSECUTOR ANSWERS SUBMISSION BY DEFENCE OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE



Mr President and gentlemen, this is a very serious case in the sense that a life has been taken and also from the point of view that a Canadian soldier is on trial here today on a very serious charge.

The evidence for the Prosecution in this case must necessarily depend upon the story of two civilian witnesses who as you know have been declared by the Court at my request to be hostile or adverse witnesses. You know the difficulty we have had in dealing with these witnesses, you have seen their manner and demeanor here and it is very much a question of what you can believe from what they said and what you believe they actually know. I must leave that entirely to you I know it is in a very unsatisfactory state. I think that the Prosecution has produced every available person, every civilian or soldier who could give any helpful facts on this incident. In so far as the identity of the deceased person is concerned I can not help but feel that you have been satisfied that the person who had been killed was Cpl RATAJ Jan.

It is purely for the Court to determine whether there has been sufficient here to satisfy that the accused person here, that DAVIS, was the man who struck the blow which resulted in the death of the Polish soldier.

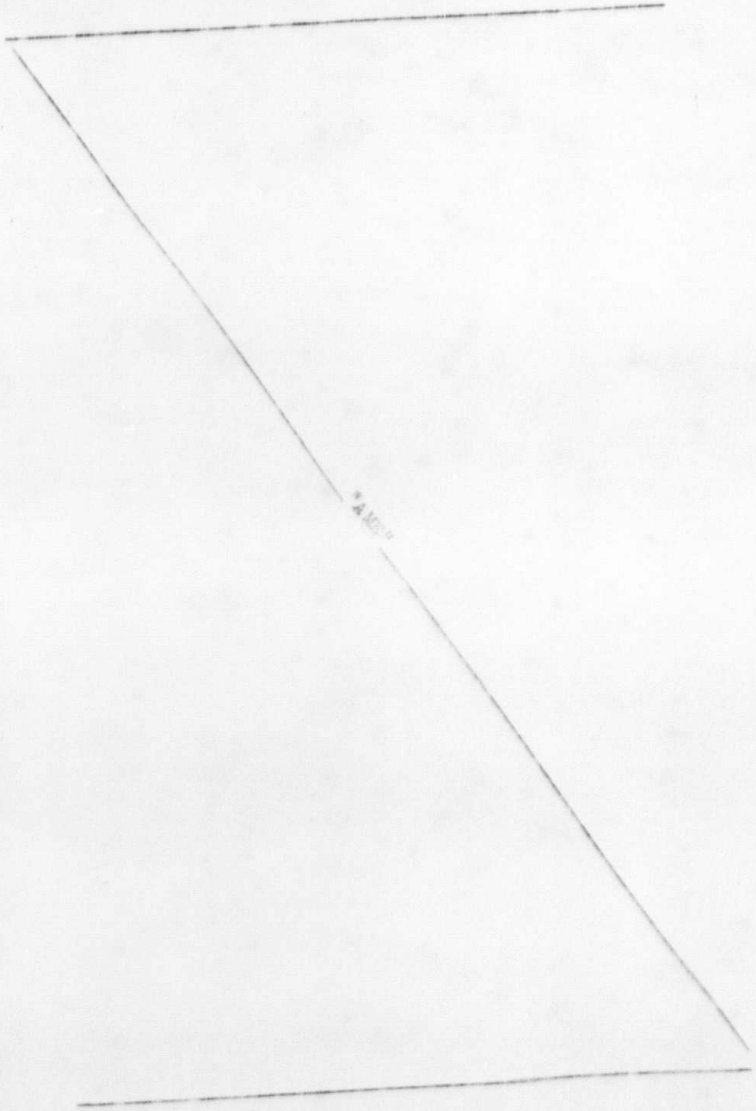
It is purely a matter of fact and I must leave it to you.

JUDGE-ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE COURT ADVISING ON SUBMISSION OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE

Mr President, the Prosecution has presented its case and at this time the Defending Officer has made a motion that the Prosecution has not established a prima facie case and therefore the accused should be found not guilty at this time.

The definition of manslaughter is as follows:

"Manslaughter is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice either express or implied".



"The killing must be unlawful and not excusable or justifiable. It may be by poisoning, striking, starving, drowning, and a thousand other forms of death by which human nature may be overcome."

"It may be taken generally that in all cases where a killing, though not with malice, is nevertheless incapable of justification or excuse, it is manslaughter."

To establish whether or not a prima facie case has been made by the Prosecution it is not necessary for the Court at this stage to decide on credibility of witnesses. Nor need the Court decide whether the Prosecution has proved the accused guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. It is only necessary for the Court to determine that there is some evidence to support the charge laid and upon which if uncontradicted the Court could convict, that is more than a scintilla of evidence which supports the charge. The Court as I have said may believe everything they have heard to date the sole question before the Court now is is there or is there not a prima facie case of manslaughter.

The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is allowed on the First Charge.

Private DAVIS the submission by the Defending Officer has been allowed. You are therefore not guilty of the First charge of Manslaughter.

TRANSLATION OF FLEMISH STATEMENT

WESTERLINCK Maria,
barmaid,
Binnenweg, 55,
Ledeberg,
born in Ledeberg, on 9th August 1927.

Ghent, 2nd. February 1945.

The undersigned WESTERLINCK Maria declares that she as barmaid, was present in the bar "MAXIE'S" Kleine Statiestreet, 13, Ghent, on 30th. January 1945, at 9½ o'clock in the evening.

About 20 Canadians soldiers were in the bar, six of them apper-tained to the "ARGYLL AND SUNTHERLAND CANADA" regiment. I saw also 4 à 5 American soldiers, one belgian soldier and two civilians.

I sat down near the fire and heard that the canadian scottish soldier, who at this moment is present in the bureau, asked at the belgian soldier if he was of the police. I heard the belgian sol-dier answering "NO" and he said that the two civilians were of the secret police.

I saw that the above scottish soldier gave a slap on the face of one of the two civilians. The civilians didn't answer and the belgian soldier went out. I heard the scottish soldier saying: "I AM SORRY".

Thereafter I saw this scottish soldier drinking cognac of a bottle, but I don't know if it was his own bottle of well one of his friend.

I saw two polish soldiers entering the bar, and the scottish soldier fighted with them. Two soldiers of the "ARGYLL AND SUN-THERLAND CANADA" regiment separated the fighters, and the Polish soldiers went out.

Some minutes after, another Polish soldier came in and imm-ediatly the scottish soldier fought with him. I saw that the Polish soldier went backwards, as he was obliged by the fighters, I saw that the scottish soldier gave a violent blow at the polish soldier. The scottish soldier shut then the door and said that he must have his badge and his overcoat. Everyone who wanted to leave the bar, was examined by the scottish soldier.

Thereafter we left the bar and saw nothing more.

(Sign). Maria WESTERLINCK.

I hereby certify that the above is the true translation of the flemish statement, which I obtained from WESTERLINCK Maria on the 2nd. February 1945.

AUTOPSY REPORT

5088 Cpl ROTAJ Jon 10 Polish Rifle Regiment.

admitted	at	2130 hrs	30 Jan 45.
died at		0710 hrs	31 Jan 45.
autopsy	at	1600 hrs	31 Jan 45.

This Polish N.C.O. sustained an injury to the back of the head on the evening of 30 Jan. He was unconscious for 20 minutes. On admission to hospital he had signs of a fractured skull, and lumber puncture showed bloody C.S.F. Death occurred, after the development of convulsions, on the morning of 31 Jan 45.

At autopsy the positive findings were confined to the head. On external examination there was no laceration or marking of any nature of the scalp. There was a large diffuse haematoma of the subcutaneous tissues and muscle of the scalp, discovered only after the latter was reflected. This measured 12 cm. in diameter and overlay the left parietal bone, being centred 6 cm. below the left parietal eminence. The calvarium was normal. There was a recent, diffuse, large, left sub-dural haematoma overlying the whole of the antero-lateral aspect of the left cerebral hemisphere and of its basal aspect in the middle fossa. The haematoma was made up of clotted blood having a total volume of approximately 120 C.C. There was a thin layer of blood overlying the antero-lateral aspect of the right hemisphere also. The tips of both frontal and both temporal lobes, as well as their under surfaces, exhibited severe contre-coup pulping and moderate contre-coup sub-arachnoid haemorrhage. A few small collections of blood were encountered elsewhere in the sub-arachnoid space. There was an area of recent haemorrhage in the left globus pallidus extending into the adjacent anterior limb of the left internal capsule, and measuring 2 cm. in greatest diameter. No other lesions were found in the brain, the structures beneath the tentorium being normal.

There was an "open-ring" type fracture of the base of the skull involving the bones of the middle and posterior fossae. It extended from the left parietal bone through the squamous plate and petrous portion of the left temporal bone, through the basic sphenoid and greater wings and body of the sphenoid bone, involving the sphenoid sinus. It reduplicated itself on the other side i.e. extended through the right petrous and squamous temporal, and the parietal bones as far as the occipital bone. The whole of the occipital bone at the level of the internal occipital protuberance formed the "open" or non-fractured part of the ring. There was haemorrhage into the mastoid air cells and middle ears on both sides with bilateral perforation of the ear-drums. No other significant lesions were encountered.

Anatomical Diganosis.

1. (Violence to back of head)
2. Haemetoma of scalp (left parietal)
3. Fractures of base of skull
4. Acute sub-dural haemorrhage (left)
5. Contre-coup sub-arachnoid haemorrhage and pulping of brain (tips of both temporal and frontal lobes)
6. Haemorrhage into globus pallidus and internal capsule (left)
7. Haemorrhage into middle ear cavities (bilateral)
8. Perforation of ear-drums (bilateral)

Summary

Death was due to intra-cranial haemorrhage, brain damage and fractures of the skull resulting from a violent force applied to the left parietal region. This force was either a powerful blow from a moderately heavy blunt instrument or a fall with violent impact of the head against a solid object

Statement of

M-3823 L/Cpl Thomlinson W.M.

At approximately 2145 hours on 30 January 1945 I was informed that a soldier had been hurt and was in the Victory Cafe, Kleine Staatiestraat, Ghent. I went to this cafe and found an injured Polish soldier in the back of the cafe. He was bleeding from the mouth, ears and nose. I sent for an ambulance at once. On checking his paybooks I discovered that he was 5088 Cpl. Rataj Jan , 10 Pol Mt d Rifles. The ambulance was slow in coming so I took the man to 2 Can General Hosp in my own jeep. When I asked the Victory Cafe proprietor how the Polish soldier came to be in the cafe, I was informed that he had been carried in from the street. Maxie's Cafe is directly opposite the rear door of Victory Cafe.

(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said..." I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

PROSECUTOR MAKES AN OPENING ADDRESS

The facts in this case will be fairly well placed before the Court by any one of the first witnesses called by the Prosecution so that I believe it is sufficient for me to say at this time that the Prosecution will establish that on the night of 30th Jan 45 a sort of a cafe brawl took place in a spot known as Marie's Cafe here in the city of GHENT.

This affair was immediately in front of the doorway or exit leading to the street. By reason of what went on there a Polish Soldier was struck and was knocked to the pavement and he subsequently died.

I have had a sketch made for the benefit of the Court. I will have that sketch produced in order that direction and location will be established and I trust that this will be satisfactory.

"AMEN"

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn
Seconde MARIE, Binnenweg 78, Ledeburg, GHENT.

(Evidence through Flemish Interpreter)

Q.1 You are Seconde MARIE?

A.1 Yes Sir,

Q.2 Do you know the Cafe known as Maxie's here in the city of GHENT?

A.2 Yes sir,

Q.3 Were you at Maxie's Cafe on an evening late in Jan 45?

A.3 Yes sir.

Q.4 Do you know the date?

A.4 I cannot remember the date.

Q.5 Can you give us the date?

A.5 All I can say is that it was in January.

Q.6 Do you know the accused soldier DAVIS over here?

A.6 Yes I saw him there.

Q.7 Was he at Maxie's Cafe on the night late in Jan that you are talking about?

A.7 Yes I saw him.

Q.8 Were there other soldiers in Maxie's Cafe that night?

A.8 Yes there were lots of soldiers.

Q.9 Do you know from what regiment the accused person is?

A.9 No I do not.

Q.10 Do you know the regiment of any of the soldiers that were there?

A.10 I have forgotten what was on their shoulders, there were English soldiers there as well.

Q.11 You say English soldiers, do you mean English soldiers as compared to Scottish soldiers?

A.11 There were English soldiers, Scottish soldiers and Belgian soldiers.

Q.12 Now what did you see happen in front of the doorway leading out of Maxie's Cafe that night?

A.12 I saw that they were fighting.

Q.13 Did you see any Polish soldiers there in front of the doorway that night?

A.13 I saw Polish soldiers going to come in.

Q.14 How many Polish soldiers.

A.14 One or two.

Q.15 And did they come in Maxie's Cafe?

A.15 I saw them open the door.

"ALIEN"

Q.16 And then what happened?

A.16 There was a Scottish soldier sitting inside who was "Zig-Zag". He went to the door and he fought. I then went outside and I saw on the ground outside a Polish soldier lying down. I saw two other soldiers outside, I saw that he was bleeding.

Q.17 Where was he bleeding?

A.17. On his nose and his ears.

Q.18 And were there any more Polish soldiers other than this one there then?

A.18 No there was just one lying on the ground.

Q.19 Now you have told the Court that there was a Scottish soldier in Maxie's Cafe who was "Zig-Zag" and who went to the door and was fighting there with this Polish soldier?

A.19 You have the door and there is a corner.

Q.20 Yes, now who was fighting with the Polish soldier?

A.20 I saw the Scottish soldier who is sitting here fight with the Polish soldier.

Q.21 Is it the accused soldier that you have identified here?

A.21 I saw him fighting.

Q.22 With the Polish soldier?

A.22 Yes in the corner.

Q.23 In the corner, is that in front of the doorway in that building?

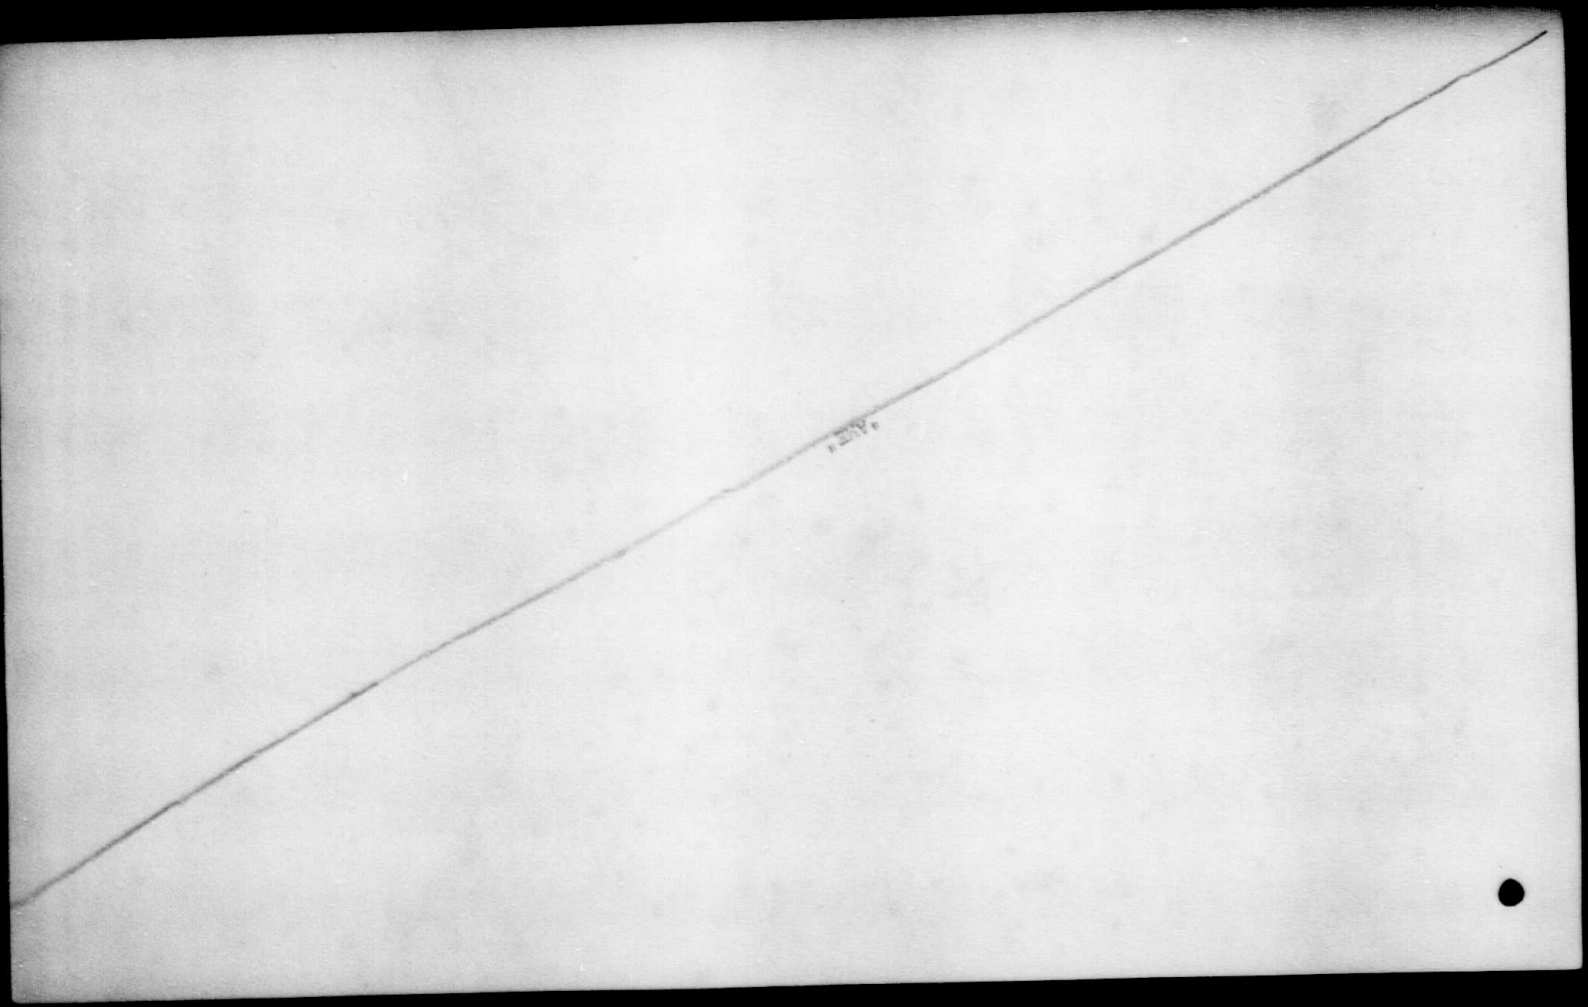
A.23 There is the door and there is a little place behind that where there is one table.

Q.24 Did you see him, did you see this Canadian soldier or the Scottish soldier as you have called him, fighting with the Polish soldier at the doorway?

A.24 I saw that he had been fighting.

Q.25 I ask you again did you see the Scottish soldier that you have identified here fighting with the Polish soldier in front of the doorway?

A.25 I saw them fighting in this corner



Q.26 Can you answer that yes or no?

A.26 All I can answer is that I saw them fighting in the corner

Prosecutor - May I ask the permission of the Court to cross-examine this witness and put leading questions to her. This is very material and I would like to know therefore if I may treat this witness as hostile?

Defence - From what the evidence has been so far it is too early to decide this question. She has merely stated one thing three times reframing it and I do not think that constitutes a hostile witness.

Prosecutor - I am prepared to argue that with my friend. It is not a question as to whether the evidence is favourable or not. I do not produce this witness for that.

I can go on and establish this fact. This witness is a very material witness or I would let that matter drop and establish it through somebody else but I am not in that position. I do need the permission of the Court as this is my witness and I can not cross-examine her and I can not put leading questions to her. It is more than the duty of the Prosecution to produce some one just because they are favourable or unfavourable. I am prepared or ready to cross-examine this witness if the Court will give me such permission.

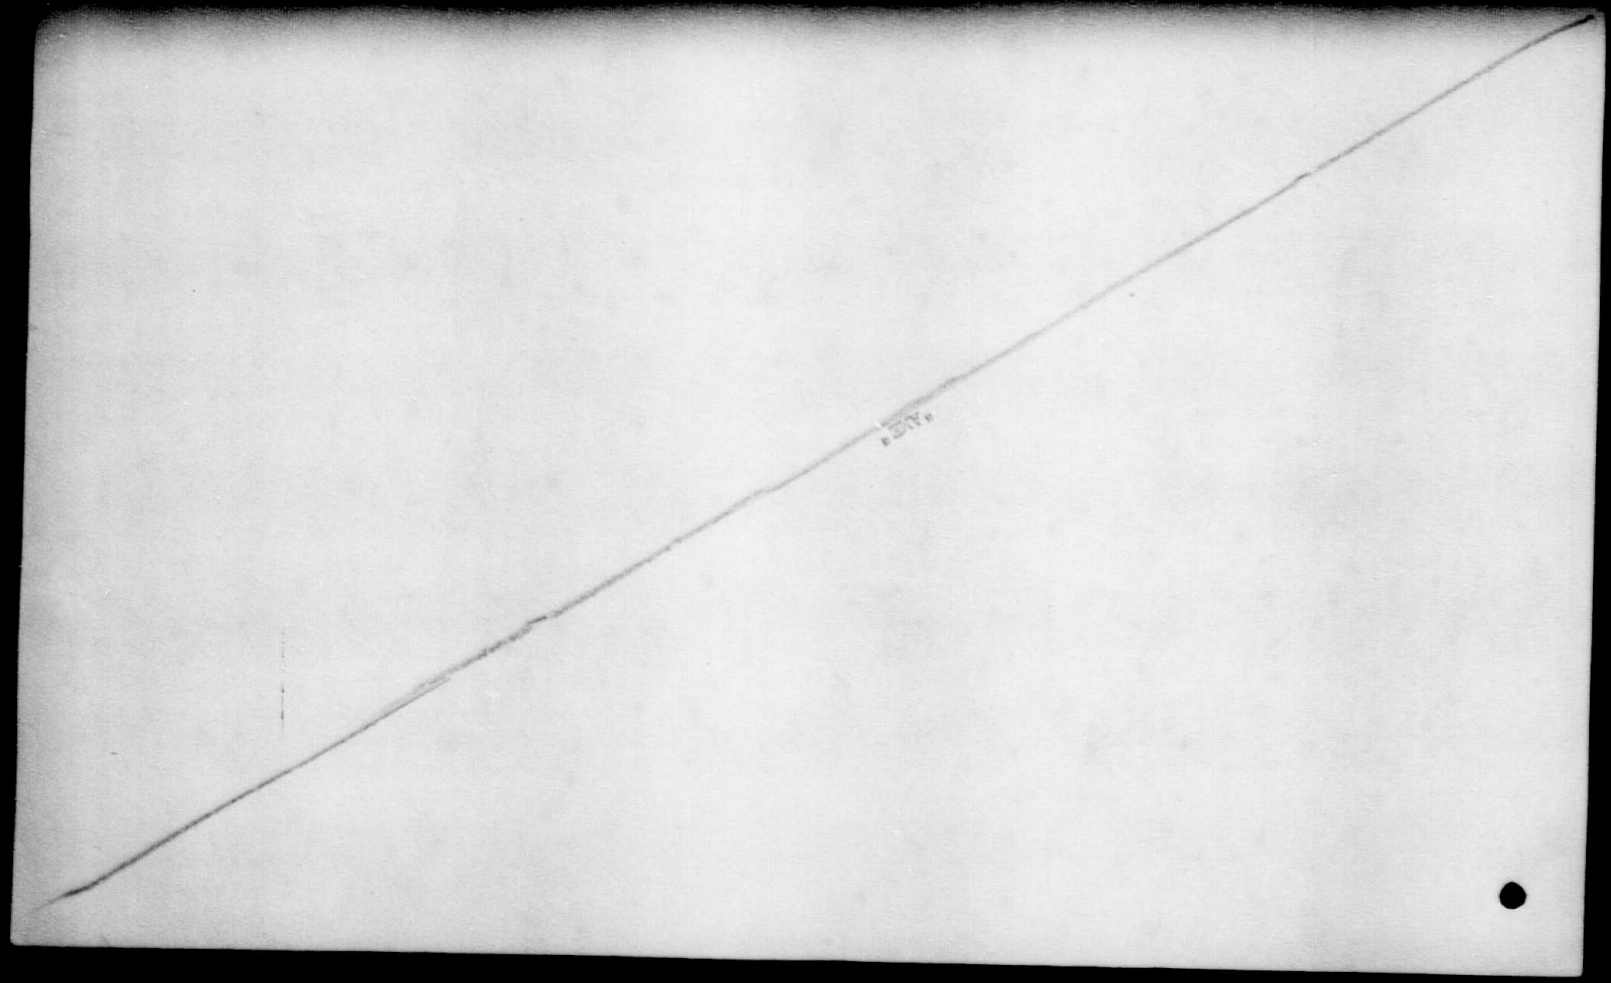
Judge-Advocate - I think the witness should withdraw.

Witness withdraws.

Prosecutor - The question here is one of the statements made by the witness, Seconde MARIE, whom we have just had in the witness box and on behalf of the Prosecution. I have of course statements that the witness has made and I have tried to bring out from her in direct examination the facts that she has already stated. That direct examination of mine fails to bring out here those facts. Now without the permission of the Court I can not go on and put leading questions to this witness and I can not cross-examine her but it is a matter solely within the descretion of the Court as to whether or not I can be permitted to do that.

I can illustrate that by saying that I have a Flemish statement made by this witness. I can not as the Prosecution present it to this witness and say "is that what you said"? By so doing I impeach the credit of my own witness.

The Court being cognisant of the facts at this time decide whether I am permitted to act on that now or whether you feel something more can be done by way of direct examination. Now that goes even farther, if that does not establish the facts that she has already stated, with your permission I can call other evidence of the circumstances surrounding this statement which I propose to do with your permission. I can appreciate that there is some law there which you may like to consider but I feel that it is important and material and I do not want to leave it unless you so desire.



Defence - This witness has not shown herself to be hostile. It is for the descretion of the Court whether or not the Prosecution may ask leading questions and so on but the basis of the thing is that the witness is hostile, that I do not think has been shown.

The Court is closed to consider the request of the Prosecution.

The Court is reopened. The Court has disallowed the submission at this time of the Prosecuting Officer. The Court feels that there is not sufficient evidence before it to say that this witness is acting in a hostile manner. If after further evidence it is considered that she is acting in a hostile manner the matter will be considered again.

Prosecutor - Will the Court permit me to carry on further examination or put to her leading questions. That is the question that should be decided here not as to the hostility of this witness at this point?

JA - The Court feels, Maj WILLSON, that questions should be asked in either a yes or no answer.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution
Reconde MARIE - is recalled.

JA - will you warn this witness that she will answer these questions with a yes or no answer. That is if she is asked for a yes or no answer she will give a yes or no answer.

Q.27 I want to ask you another question about what you saw at the doorway when the Polish soldier entered Maxie's Cafe. Did you see, did you not see the accused person, DAVIS, fighting with the Polish soldier in front of the doorway of Maxie's Cafe?

A.27 I saw the soldier fighting in the corner of Maxie's Cafe with the Polish soldier.

Prosecutor - I am going to ask the Court that it is important that they go down and see the interior of Maxie's Cafe and the area where this incident occured but that still is not helpful at this moment.

Perhaps we need not go further there. I do not oppose the fact that there is a little nook around a table there that she is talking about. I submit that we do not need to go into the question.

Q.28 Did you see Polish soldiers in the Cafe on more than one occasion that night?

A.28 No I only saw them enter once.

Q.29 And how many Polish soldiers did you see enter at that time?

A.29 First one came in and then two come in.

Q.30 Now, where was the accused person, DAVIS, standing when the one Polish soldier entered Maxie's Cafe?

A.30 (No answer)

Q.31 Where was DAVIS standing when you saw the one Polish soldier enter the Cafe?

A.31 He was a prisoner then.

Q.32 What do you mean "he was a prisoner then"?

A.32 The police had already taken him away.

Q.33 Where was DAVIS standing when two Polish soldiers entered the door?

A.33 That was a week later.

Q.34 You have told the Court that on this night two Polish soldiers and then one Polish soldier entered. Now is that all on the same night?

A.34 No it is not on the same night.

Prosecution - May I have permission of the Court to have the statement made by this witness and ask her if she recalls making this statement. I have an additional Flemish witness and will put it to her through the interpreter who took it.

JA - Is he present?

Prosecution - Yes.

Defending Officer - On that point may I make a submission. I think it is in the interest of all that her mind should be directed to the evening in question using the statement for that purpose only and so much of the statement that will make that clear only. I feel that we are getting nowhere but to use the statement to bring out what occured on that evening is quite improper until the Court agrees that she may be treated as a hostile witness.

Prosecution - The difficulty is that the Court have no way of knowing these facts unless I am permitted to produce this statement.

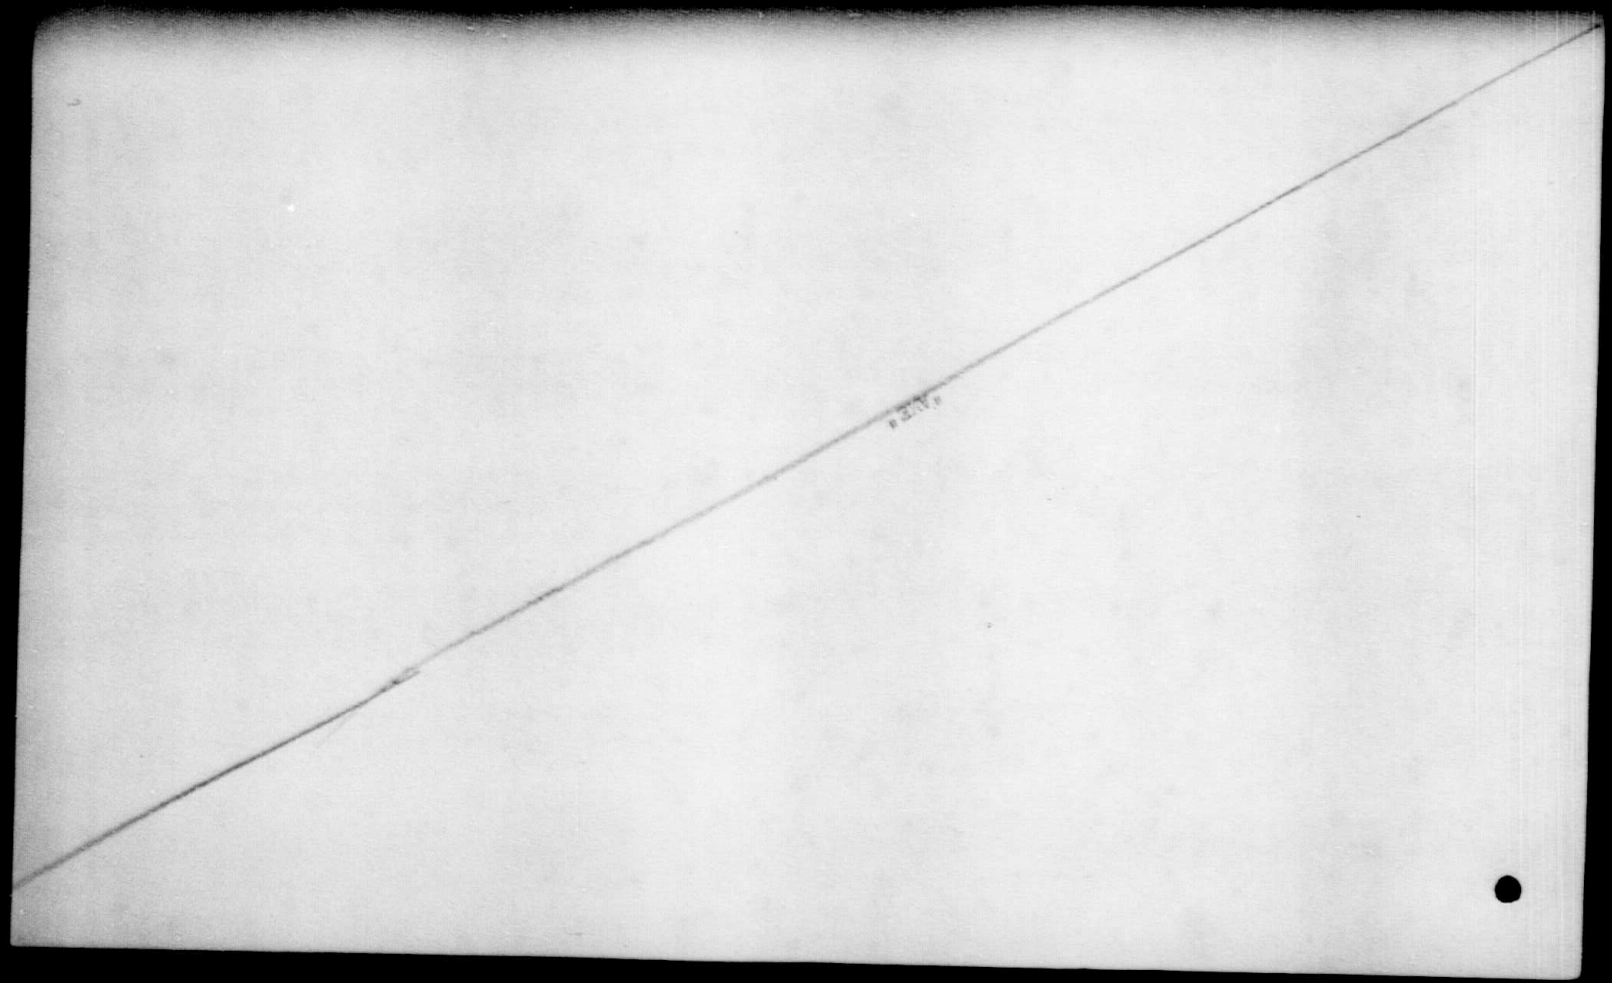
For instance the Court still do not know what my examination is directed to and can not unless I am permitted in some way to establish that. That is all I should say on it.

JA - the statement you are referring to is the one made on 2 Feb 45?

Prosecution - That is right.

JA - this witness has already told us she saw fighting at the door, she saw Polish soldiers come in - one or two.

Witness is withdrawn.



Prosecution - the statement which I would like to have permission to use contains these words, "I have seen the same Scottish soldier who is now present in the bureau fight with two Polish soldiers as soon as they entered. I tried to separate them but it was not possible. I saw then that two soldiers of the 'Argyll and Sutherland Canada' regiment separated the fighters. One of these two soldiers was a tall man, the other a small one."

Then the middle part. "I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another Polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this Polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the street door, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement."

Those are the facts that I would like to question this witness on and you can see I am in difficulty unless some latitude is granted.

Defending Officer - I would merely like to draw to the attention of the Court that this witness is intentionally or not failing to give straight answeres to the questions. In other words there has been so much confusion. While this statement has been read I think the Court out to know at the same time that a further statement taken on the Summary of Evidence, a sworn statement, in which she states referring to the Scottish soldier giving a blow, was the "same uniform but another soldier". I think these two statements should be read together when you decide whether or not this witness may be treated differently. I believe you have the Summary there.

JA - It seems to me, Maj WILLSON, that this is one of the most essential points of the whole case. So far the evidence of this witness stated that she saw fighting at the door, she saw Poles going to come in, one or two, she saw him open the door, the Scottish soldier was "Zig-Zag" went to the door and fought and that she saw the Polish soldier lying on the ground. It seems that this witness is not hostile sufficient to allow the producing of this statement.

Prosecutor - As Prosecutor you know I am bound to be fair. I do not want to have included here anything that is prejudicial to the accused person and should not be properly admitted. I suggest that this is not a question of anyone refreshing their memory. The statement that I read to you is to the effect that "I saw the same Scottish soldier giving a blow to a Polish soldier." As I have told you I can establish the circumstances under which this statement was taken and who was in the bureau at the time and who was seated and what was done to make the witness familiar with the fact that the accused person was DAVIS and that he was the only person sitting in the room.

The Court is closed to consider this question.

The Court is reopened.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution is recalled.
Seconde MARIE

Q.35 On the night of the 30th of Jan 45 at Maxie's Cafe do you know whether or not if any soldier there lost his coat or his badge or other equipment?

A.35 Yes I do.

Q.36 Who lost some equipment there that night?

A.36 The soldier that is sitting there, the Scottish soldier.

Q.37 That is the accused?

A.37 Yes sir,

Q.38 What did he lose?

A.38 He had lost his badge that he has on his cap.

Q.39 Anything else that you know of?

A.39 No.

Q.40 And what was he doing because of that?

A.40 He locked the door.

Q.41 And what did he do at the doorway?

A.41 He asked and felt to see if any soldier had his badge.

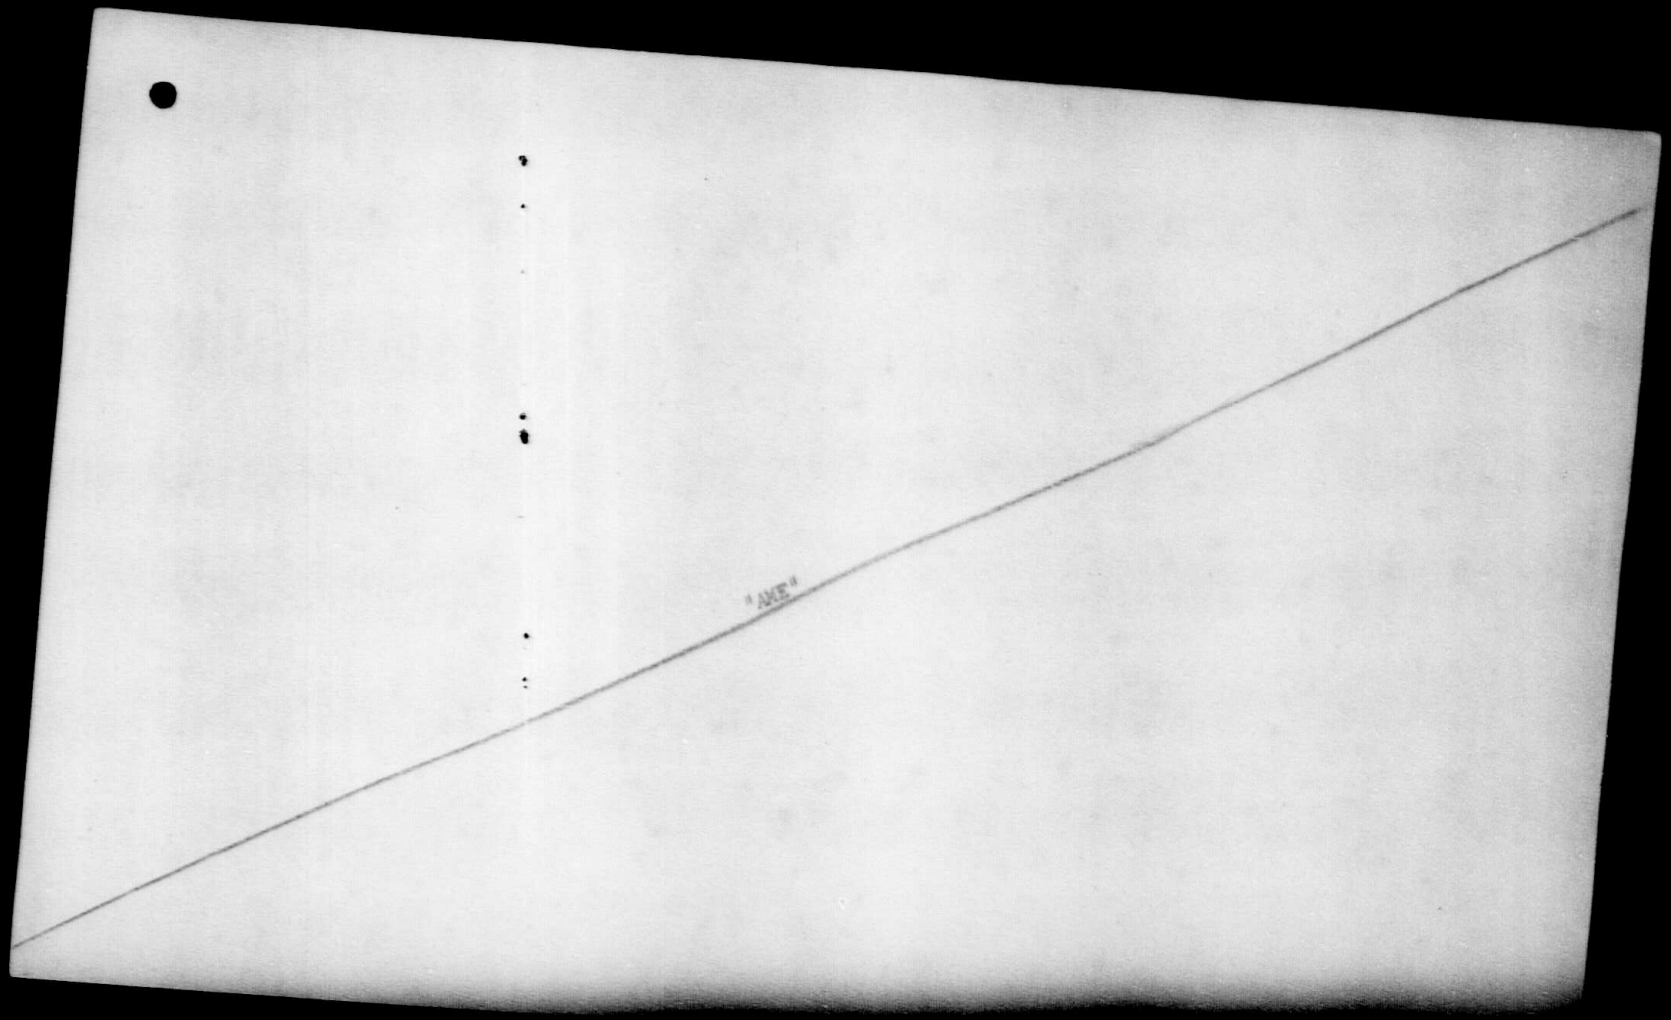
Q.42 Who did he feel and see if any soldier had his badge?

A.42 The Scottish soldiers.

Q.43 Do you know whether or not the door was open or closed leading to and from Maxie's Cafe?

A.43 He closed the door and stood in front of it.

Q.44 And what did he do then when the Polish soldiers entered?



A.44 How do you mean,"whe n the Polish soldiers entered"?

Q.45 When the Polish soldiers came into the cafe what did the accused do?

A.45 He offered to fight with the Polish soldiers at the door, there is a door and there is a corner.

Q.46 And what did you see him do at the doorway?

A.46 I saw that he was fighting.

"AKE"

Q.47 Do you know who he was fighting with?

A.47 He fought with the Polish soldiers.

Q.48 And then what happened to the Polish soldier.

A.48 When he was fighting with the Polish?

Q.49 Yes.

A.49 I went there and went in between them.

Q.50 And then what happened?

A.50 And then another two soldiers came over and took them apart.

Q.51 And what happened from then on?

A.51 I then went out on to the street and I saw a Polish soldier lying on the ground.

Q.52 Do you know how the Polish soldier came to be lying on the ground?

A.52 I could not exactly say how the Polish soldier came to be lying on the ground.

Q.53 Did you see anyone strike the Polish soldier?

A.53 No I never saw that.

Q.54 Are you sure of that? Are you sure that you did not see someone strike the Polish soldier?

A.54 When they took him away?

Q.55 Did you see anyone strike the Polish soldier in what you have called the corner of that cafe?

A.55 I saw that Scottish soldier fight there.

Q.56 And did you see that Scottish soldier strike the Polish soldier there?

A.56 I just saw them fight.

Q.57 What did the Polish soldier do then after this fight?

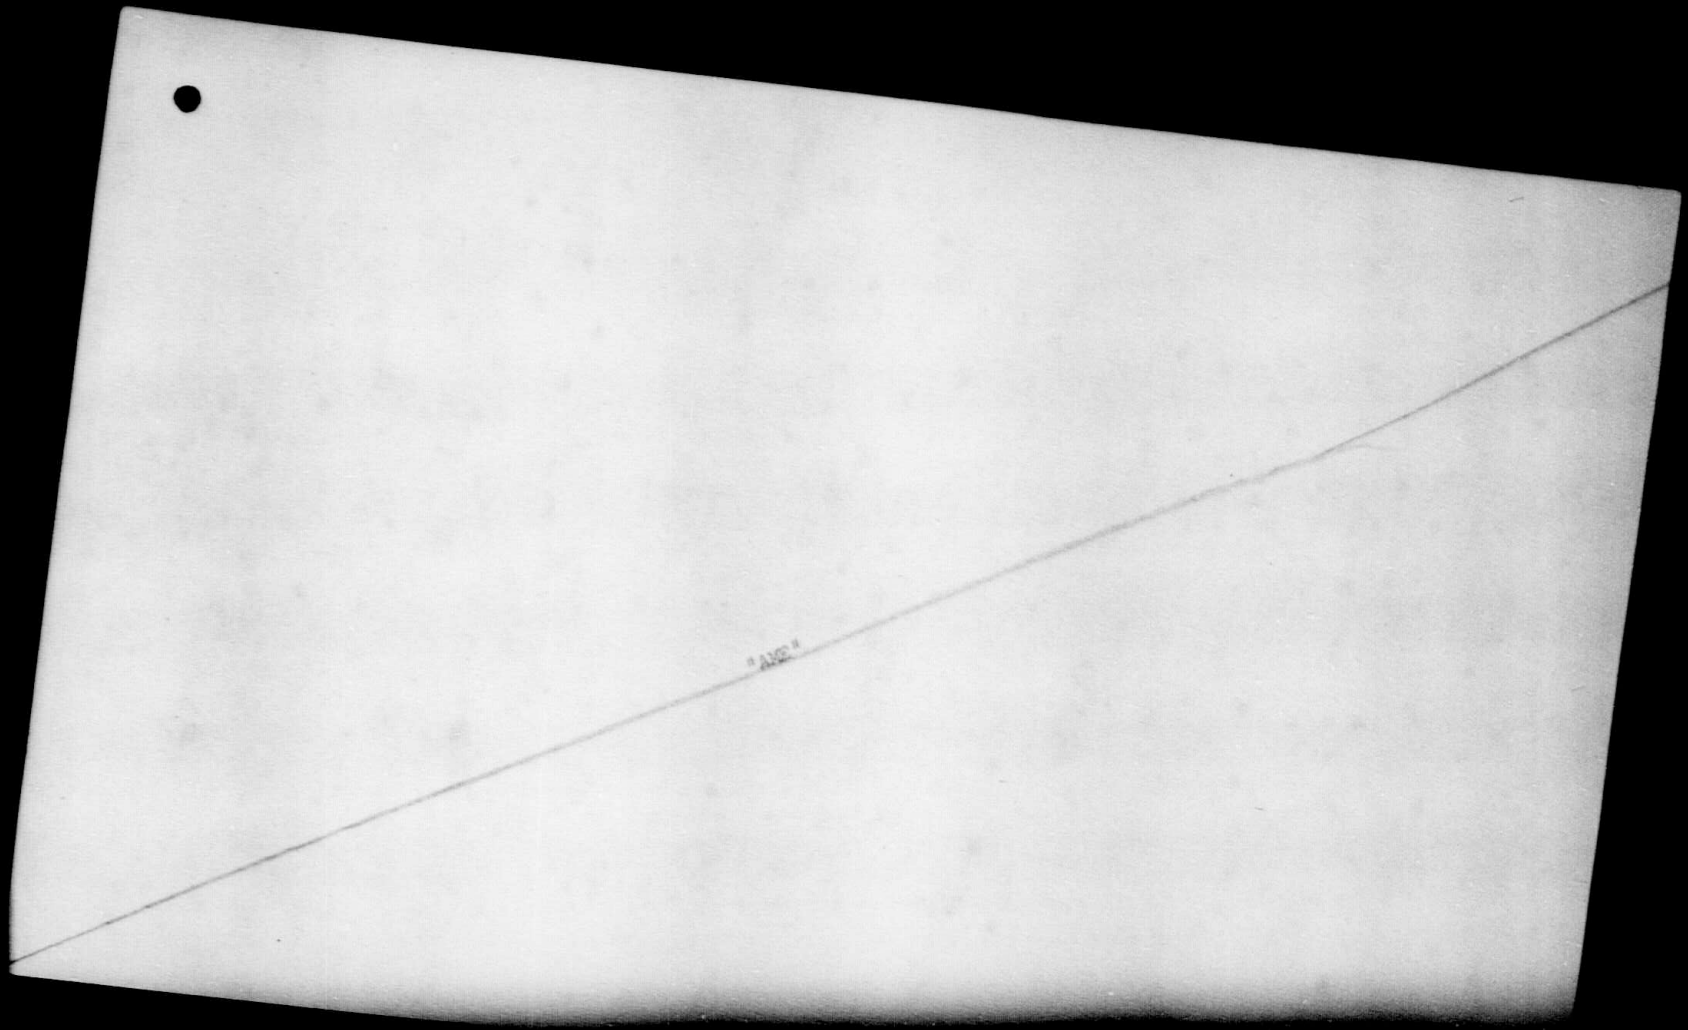
A.57 Was that the Polish soldier that fought?

Q.58 Yes.

A.58 There is soldiers that took him outside so that he would go away.

Q.59 Was he able to walk out?

A.59 I did not see that.



Q.60 Did you see the Polish soldier back out of the doorway?

A.60 No I never saw that.

Q.61 You did not see a Polish soldier back out of the doorway and close the door behind him at any time that night?

A.61 No I never saw that.

Q.62 Did you see a Polish soldier fall backwards through that doorway at any time that night?

A.62 No sir.

Q.63 Do you know how the Polish soldier that you saw lying in the street came to be there?

A.63 No I do not know. When I came outside I saw him lying on the street.

Q.64 Then you did not see this Scottish soldier strike a blow at any soldier that night?

A.64 I just saw that he was fighting.

Q.65 Did you see him strike anyone?

A.65 No I did not see him hit.

Q.66 Did you see the accused strike any Polish soldier there that day ?

A.66 I did not see that.

Prosecutor - I think that is as far as I can go unless the Court feels- if you feel that it is a question of this witness actually not knowing then it is not a question of granting me any leeway. If you feel that if at one time this witness did feel differently about this I should like to continue.

Defence - I do not wish to add any more objections because I feel that this witness either does not know or either has probably forgotten or never knew what happened. I do not wish to make any more objections or suggestions as to changing the method of the Prosecution's questioning here.

Prosecutor - Probably this may be cleared up if my friend goes on and cross-examines her and the Court may wish to recall her later if you feel that any advantage may be gained in that way.

Defence - In that respect the witness has not given any material evidence whatsoever against the accused. By cross-examining I would be sticking my neck out and I would rather leave any cross-examination until the Prosecution is finished rather than cross-examine and leave it open.

JA quotes from Archbolds - Hostile witness:

"A party producing a witness shall not be allowed to impeach his credit by general evidence of bad character; but he may, in case the witness shall, in the opinion of the judge, prove adverse, contradict him by other evidence, or, by leave of the judge, prove that he has made at other times a statement inconsistent with his present testimony; but before such last-mentioned proof can be given, the circumstances of the supposed statement, sufficient to designate the particular occasion, must be mentioned to the witness, and he must be asked whether or not he has made such statement. To be inconsistent within the meaning of the section the statement need not be directly or absolutely at variance. The word 'adverse' in this section means 'hostile', and not merely 'unfavourable'. The discretion of the Judge to give or refuse leave to cross-examine the party's own witness, however hostile he may be, is absolute. If the witness appears evidently to be hostile to the party who has called him, counsel may put leading questions to him, having first obtained permission of the Court to do so."

Prosecutor - May I say that you can not determine whether this witness is hostile or not at this time. How can the Court determine whether this witness is hostile until I bring the facts before the Court. I have asked you for permission to use this statement and you say that there is no grounds for using this statement as yet. I asked for permission to call a witness to state that what this witness is saying is not the truth, that she has stated otherwise.

JA - my advice to the Court is that this can not be done unless the Court is satisfied that this witness is adverse. You are now asking permission to prove that she is hostile.

Prosecutor - I am asking you to open the door a little bit and I will show you.

The Court is closed

The Court is reopened - President announces Court will adjourn until 1000 hrs 18 Apr 45.

Court re-assembles 1000 hrs 18 Apr 45 - is re-opened.

The First Witness, Seconde MARIE, being not available the Prosecution on the direction of the Court proceeds to call other witnesses.

SECOND WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
Maria WESTERLINK, Binnenweg 55, Ledebrug, GHENT.

(Evidence through Flemish interpreter)

Q.67 You are Maria WESTERLINK?

A.67 Yes sir.

Q.68 Do you recognise the accused soldier here in Court today?

A.68 Yes, witness indicates the accused.

Q.69 Were you in Maxie's Cafe in the City of GHENT on an occasion when he was there?

A.69 Yes sir.

Q.70 What day was that?

A.70 30th of Jan 45.

Q.71 At about what time?

A.71 Between 9.15 and 9.30 PM

Q.72 And were there many Canadian soldiers in Maxie's Cafe that night?

A.72 Approx 20 Cdn soldiers.

Q.73 Did you see some Polish soldiers in that Cafe that night?

A.73 Yes two Polish soldiers.

Q.74 What did you see happen so far as these Polish soldiers are concerned?

A.74 Before the two Polish soldiers came in Davis was fighting with two Belgian civilians. He then fought with the Polish soldiers at the door of the Cafe.

Q.75 And what happened to the Polish soldiers?

A.75 Two of the A & SH of C took them apart.

Q.76 And then?

A.76 Then one Polish soldier came back in again and DAVIS started in to fight with him again. If DAVIS put him outside or hit him outside I could not say. DAVIS came back into the Cafe and said that he had lost his coat and his badge and that he wanted it back. That is all I saw.

Q.77 Did you see the Polish soldier outside afterwards?

A.77 No sir.

Q.78 Do you know anything about DAVIS' coat or hat badge?

A.78 I do not know if DAVIS got his coat or his badge back, everyone was asked if they knew anything about it?

Q.79 Who asked everyone?

A.79 DAVIS himself.

Q.80 Where was DAVIS standing?

A.80 At the door

Q.81 Now do you know the Argyle and Sutherland Highlanders hat badge, cap badge ?

A.81 Witness produces A & SH of C hat badge from purse.

Q.82 Now do you know what kind of a hat badge DAVIS wore.

A.82 With a cross on it (indicates with her fingers)

Q.83 Is there any doubt in your mind as to the identity of this man DAVIS?

A.83 I did not know his name exactly, I know he was the man with the Polish soldiers.

Q.84 Now I want to review with you a moment the facts about these Polish soldiers. Is it true that Polish soldiers came into the Cafe more than once that night?

A.84 Twice, only twice.

Q.85 And the first time how many Polish soldiers came in?

A.85 Two.

Q.86 And then the second time how many Polish soldiers came in?

A.86 There came two in the second time and one of them was one of the first ones that came in..

Q.87 Did anything happen at the doorway that night?

A.87 In the cafe or outside?

Q.88 Either?

A.88 I saw nothing else except that the accused fought with the Polish soldier.

"A.E."

Q.89 And what did you see the Polish soldier do?

A.89 The Polish soldier fought back

Q.90 And then what happened?

A.90 The accused also fought.

Q.91 What did you see the accused do?

A.91 The accused fought with the Polish soldier when they came in.

Q.92 What happened after the fight?

A.92 The accused wanted his badge and his coat back.

Q.93 Did the accused person fight with the Polish soldier on more than one occasion there that night?

A.93 I just saw him fight twice with the Polish soldiers.

Q.94 And where abouts did he fight twice with the Polish soldiers?

A.94 At the door of Maxie's Cafe on the left hand side, that is where they fought.

Q.95 You did not go outside of Maxie's Cafe after you saw this fight then?

A.95 No I could not go outside the Cafe as he was standing in front of the door.

Prosecutor - I am in the same position with this witness as I was with the other witness and I do not know whether I can proceed further. I believe I have gone as far as I should unless the Court wishes to give me permission to use the statement or to do anything further with this witness.

I would like permission, depending on what your instruction was on this matter this morning, I would like permission either by way of introducing a statement made by this witness establishing her signature or calling another witness to produce her statement.

Defence - I would like to oppose that motion. I submit that the witness has apparently told a straightforward story this morning. There is no indication that she is in any way adverse or is doing anything else other than answering the questions put to her as well as she can. If the Prosecutor produces the statement, however, the evidence which she has given this morning is substantially the same as is written in her statement taken some time ago.

JA - A motion has been made by the Prosecutor for leave to introduce or to produce a statement purporting to be made by the witness and asks the Court for permission to cross-examine his own witness.

In establishing whether the witness is adverse my advice is that the Prosecutor should be allowed to introduce the statement and prove if he can if this is a statement made by the witness. The decision being left with the Court to determine whether that statement if proven shows that the witness is adverse. The Court must be careful that any evidence which is brought forward at this stage - to remember that it is not evidence against the accused but it is merely evidence in issue as to whether the witness is adverse to the Prosecution and the Prosecutor must not introduce in evidence in chief any evidence made in that statement.

Defence - May I just make one point on that. In this statement before it is introduced as evidence it should also be shown that the evidence given verbally in Court is different from her statement.

JA - that is a matter for the Court to determine.

Defence - Oh yes but I would like that point to be very definitely established by the Court.

Q.96 Do you read Flemish as well?

A.96 Yes.

Q.97 Is that your signature at the bottom of that page?

A.97 Yes sir.

Q.98 Will you read that statement, not out loud, to yourself. Is that statement a statement made and signed by you on the 2nd of Feb?

A.98 Yes sir.

Q.99 And is that a true statement?

A.99 Yes sir.

Q.100 Now do you recall being interviewed by an officer once again regarding this DAVIS trial?

A.100 No I do not remember.

Q.101 Do you remember that on the 2nd of Feb you made that statement?

A.101 Yes

Q.102 And then about 12th Mar?

A.102 Yes by the Cdn Police

Q.103 And an officer?

A.103 Yes sir.

Q.104 Now do you remember that at that time this statement was shown to you?

A.104 Yes

Q.105 And the question was asked of you, "Is this the statement you gave to the Police on the 2nd Feb 45" and you answered "Yes"?

A.105 Yes

Q.106 And do you remember that the next question that was asked was, "Is that a correct statement" and your answer was, "No, it was wrong"?

A.106 There was a wrong word in it.

Q.107 Now what is the wrong word that is in it?

A.107 The Cdn Police asked me if this was the Scottish soldier that killed the Polish soldier.

Q.108 Yes and did you answer this?

JA - Just a moment Maj WILLSON. I do not want anything read out of that statement in open Court. I do not want any evidence read out that is prejudicial to the accused.

Prosecutor - I just want to get from this witness a yes or no and if she says she made this statement I will read it to you.

Q.109 The next question. The question here that was put to you was, "What changes do you wish to make with reference to that statement" and your answer was, "It was not the accused whom I meant was the one who fought with the Pole entering the Cafe, it was another Scottish soldier." Is that what you said?

A.109 Yes.

Q.110 Now you were questioned by the accused, "Where was I when this Pole was hit at the doorway?" and you answered "I think you were at the counter." "I saw you fighting once in the corner with one Polish soldier."

And, "What did I do after fighting in the corner?" and you answered, "I didn't see you do anything more."

Is that the statement that you made at that time? Is that the questions and is that the answeres you gave?

A.110 That is correct.

Q.111 Is that your signature?

A.111 Yes that is my signature.

Court is closed.

Court is re-opened - Court has found that the submission of the Prosecution has been allowed and the Prosecution may treat the witness as adverse.

Second Witness for the Prosecution is recalled.
Maria WŁOTKOWSKA,

Prosecutor - I take it that I may proceed to cross-examine her in any way regarding the facts in this matter.

Q.112 I show you a copy of the statement signed by you on the 2nd of Feb. And that is your signature there?

A.112 Yes sir.

Q.113 Now did you say on the 2nd of Feb, "Some minutes after, another Polish soldier came in and immediately the Scottish soldier fought with him. I saw that the Polish soldier went backwards as he was obliged by the fighters. I saw that the Scottish soldier gave a violent blow at the Polish soldier. The Scottish soldier shut then the door and said that he must have his badge and his overcoat."

Is that true?

A.113 Yes that is true.

Q.114 That is the Scottish soldier that you refer to here, that Scottish soldier there (pointing to accused)?

A.114 No that is not him.

Q.115 Is that the Scottish soldier who lost his badge and his overcoat?

A.115 Yes sir.

SAMPLE

Q.116 Then what did you mean when you said, "The Scottish soldier shut then the door and said he must have his badge and his overcoat"?

A.116 He did lock the door, he had lost his coat and his badge.

President - Would you remind the witness that this is a serious case, someone has been killed, and that she is under oath.

Original Flemish statement produced by Prosecution is entered as Exhibit "A".

Prosecutor - I have examined this witness before I raised the question of her being a hostile witness and I went over the evidence with this witness up to the time of the incident in the Cafe. Now I have put before you the position of this witness in so far as this incident is concerned. Now I think that all the evidence is in material form.

Once my friend is through cross - examining this witness if he wishes to go further I would like if you permit me to call the witness or the interpreter who was there at the time that statement was made and give the circumstances surrounding the making of that statement.

JA - That is a witness that is not in the Summary of Evidence. If the Defending Officer will waive RP 76?

Defence - I will not object to that.

Prosecutor - I think that once the Court have become seized of these facts of the case that they will want to hear what evidence this further witness can give. I do not know whether your ruling that you have discussed covers the question of my calling any witnesses to deal with that but I would like to do that if you see fit.

Cross-examination by Defence.

A.190 That was on the side of the stove.

Q.191 Which was on the side of the stove?

A.191 That is where the soldiers were standing.

Prosecutor - While I did indicate that I intended to call another one of these civilian witnesses, Georgetta EVERAERT, her evidence is similar to that given by these two civilians and unless my friend wishes me to call them in order that he may cross-examine them I do not think it necessary to produce this witness.

Defence replies - I do not require this witness for the purpose of cross-examination.

SIXTH WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn
M-3823 L/Cpl THOMLINSON W N, HQ 2 Cdn L of C Pro Coy.

Q.218 Cpl THOMLINSON, do you recall the night of 30 Jan 45?

A.219 Yes sir.

Q.220 At what time?

A.220 At 2145 hrs.

Q.221 Did you at my request make a rough sketch of the area showing the Victory Cafe and Maxie's Cafe in the city of GHENT?

A.221 Yes sir.

Q.222 Is that it?

A.222 Yes sir.

Q.223 Does this sketch show roughly the location around The Victory Cafe and Maxie's Cafe?

A.223 Yes.

Q.224 I know it is not to scale but so far as direction and location is concerned is it fairly well set up?

A.224 Yes.

Sketch is tendered to the Court, admitted in evidence signed by the President and marked Exhibit "B".

Q.225 Would you indicate on this sketch where you did go that night and what you found there? Could you make on there the cafe that you attended and what you found there and where?

A.225 I came down the street to the Victory Cafe and went through this front door and was taken through the bar to the back room. When I went into the back room there was a Polish soldier sitting on a chair

Q.226 Do you know the particulars of that soldier?

A.226 Yes sir, I took his pay book from his tunic pocket. I took the soldier's pay book from his pocket, took his particulars from it and put them in my own book.

Q.227 What was that soldier's name and number?

A.227 5088 Cpl Rataj Jan.

Q.228 Do you know what unit he belonged to?

A.228 10th Polish Rifles.

Q.229 What happened from there on as far as this man is concerned?

A.229 As soon as I saw him I phoned for an ambulance and then waited approx ½ hr for the ambulance and because it did not come I took him in my own jeep to 2 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.230 What did you see about the condition of this Polish soldier?

A.230 Bleeding from the mouth, the nose and th e ears.

Q.231 Now on the sketch that you have there can you for purpose of record - can you say where the Polish soldier was in the Victory Cafe when you saw him? Mark with an "X" there.

A.242 Not that I know sir.

Q.243 Where did you find his pay book?

A.243 In his breast pocket sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Prosecutor - Unless the witness Seconde MARIE is available the only other witness I have to call at the present is the Doctor from 2 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Due to the fact that his evidence may be rather lengthy if the other witness is not out here and if it is in keeping with what the Court might wish I suggest that we may adjourn and see the scene of this night and leave the other until the morning.

1500 hrs - the Court adjourns for a view of the scene of the incident. Those present, the Court, JA, Prosecuting, Defending Officers, accused, escort, court reporter and officers under instruction.

Judge-Advocate warns the accused that he is not obliged to say anything or point out anything to the Court. He is just there to see that no evidence is taken that he has no knowledge of.

The Court attended at Maxie's Cafe and viewed the surroundings from inside and out. It was noted by the Court that inside of the cafe was a small vestibule to the right of which was a small recess in one corner. The bar is on the opposite wall to the door. The stove is approx in the center of the room. There is another room which seems to be a type of dance hall. The enterance is at the left hand room in which the bar is. The enterance from the street to the cafe is reached by one step 2" and another step approx 8". The sidewalk and road-way are stone.

~~SEVENTH WITNESS---For the Prosecution--~~

The Court reassembles - is re-opened at 1000 hrs 19 Apr 45.

SEVENTH WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
Major J D DUFFIN, RCAMC, Pathologist, 2 Cdn Gen Hosp.

Q.244 Are you the Pathologist at 2 Cdn Gen Hosp?

A.244 Yes sir.

Q.245 And in the course of your duties there did you have occasion to perform an autopsy on Jan RATAJ?

A.245 Yes I did.

Q.246 When did you do this?

A.246 This was done on the afternoon of Jan 31 of this year at 1600 hrs.

Q.247 Now can you tell us what your examination of that body revealed in the sense of what injuries there were to it and if you do know what may or may not have caused it?

A.247 The cause of death was quite apparent. It was due to haemorrhage inside the scull together with fractures of the scull and in addition to that haemorrhage in the brain tissue itself. The haemorrhage was of such a type that it was quite evident it was some violence that we call tematic. That is some type of blow to the head. That is somebody either struck the deceased or he had fallen and hit his head very forcibly. Perhaps somebody had knocked him and he had fallen over backwards and he sustained injuries of that nature.

Q.248 Now can you show us with your own head at what part of the head the injuries were?

A.248 The violence had been applied to the back part of the head on the left side. (indicates to the Court).

"A"

It was quite clear that violence had been indicated to that part.

Q.249 Could any more immediate medical treatment have saved this man's life if he had received this type of injury?

A.249 That is rather difficult to answer. Almost all cases that have this type of injury do die within a short period of time. I suppose it is theoretically possible, perhaps it is possible. I understand he had the routine treatment for injuries of this nature and rapidly died within a few hours after having been admitted.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.250 Were there any bruises on the front of the face?

A.250 No there were not.

Q.251 If a blow had been struck sufficient to knock him backwards on the sidewalk, on the face, would you expect to find a bruise there?

A.251 You may or you may not. As a matter of fact in this case there was no mark on the place where he had been struck externally. As a matter of fact I had to retract the skin to find this and as far as the front of the face is concerned we did not find any and it had no significance.

Q.252 Did you yourself know that the person you examined was Cpl RATAJ?

A.252 Yes it is a routine that we go through to identify everybody.

Q.253 Are you able to say of your own knowledge that the person you examined was Cpl RATAJ Jan?

A.253 It just depends on what you want for identification. The patient died and the Wardmaster who looks after this case came up to my office and got a book in which he wrote the name of the patient and he issued me with the keys to the morgue in which he put the patient. The body was wrapped in a sheet and was marked with the name of the patient. More over he was the only patient or body in the morgue at this time.

Q.254 Did you notice that his identity discs were still on?

A.254 No they were not. They are not usually on, sometimes they are on and sometimes they are not.

Q.255 You did not see him until dead?

A.255 No I did not.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.256 Did you notice any marks on the chest or stomach that would indicate the place where he was struck?

A.256 No there were no marks on the body externally at all.

Q.257 Is it fair to say that as far as identification is concerned it was just through the routine?

A.257 There were no special steps taken just the usual routine.

"A"

Q.258 The body that you presumed the deceased, that you understood was the person referred to, merely because it was tagged?

A.258 It was reported to me that he was deceased and I was in charge of the morgue. Unless they substituted another body for this body and I think that is impossible. Provided that the identification through life was conducted which I presume had been.

Q.259 In your opinion this Polish soldier had been adequately medically attended to and did not die as a result of neglect?

A.259 I am quite sure that he did not die of neglect. I am not a specialist but as I pointed out to Major WILLSON he had every attention possible. He had a very extensive fracture of the scull and such cases almost never recover and in addition to this he had these fractures which I described which no medical surgery could have done anything for.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

President announces - When the Court adjourned on the 17th a motion had been made by the Prosecution opposed by the Defending Officer that the witness Seconde MARIE be declared adverse. The Court allows the submission of the Prosecuting Officer and permits the cross-examination of the witness Seconde MARIE and the witness Seconde MARIE may be treated by the Prosecution in all respects as if adverse.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution - reminded of the fact
Seconde MARIE, Binnenweg 78, that she is already sworn.
Ledeburg, GHENT.

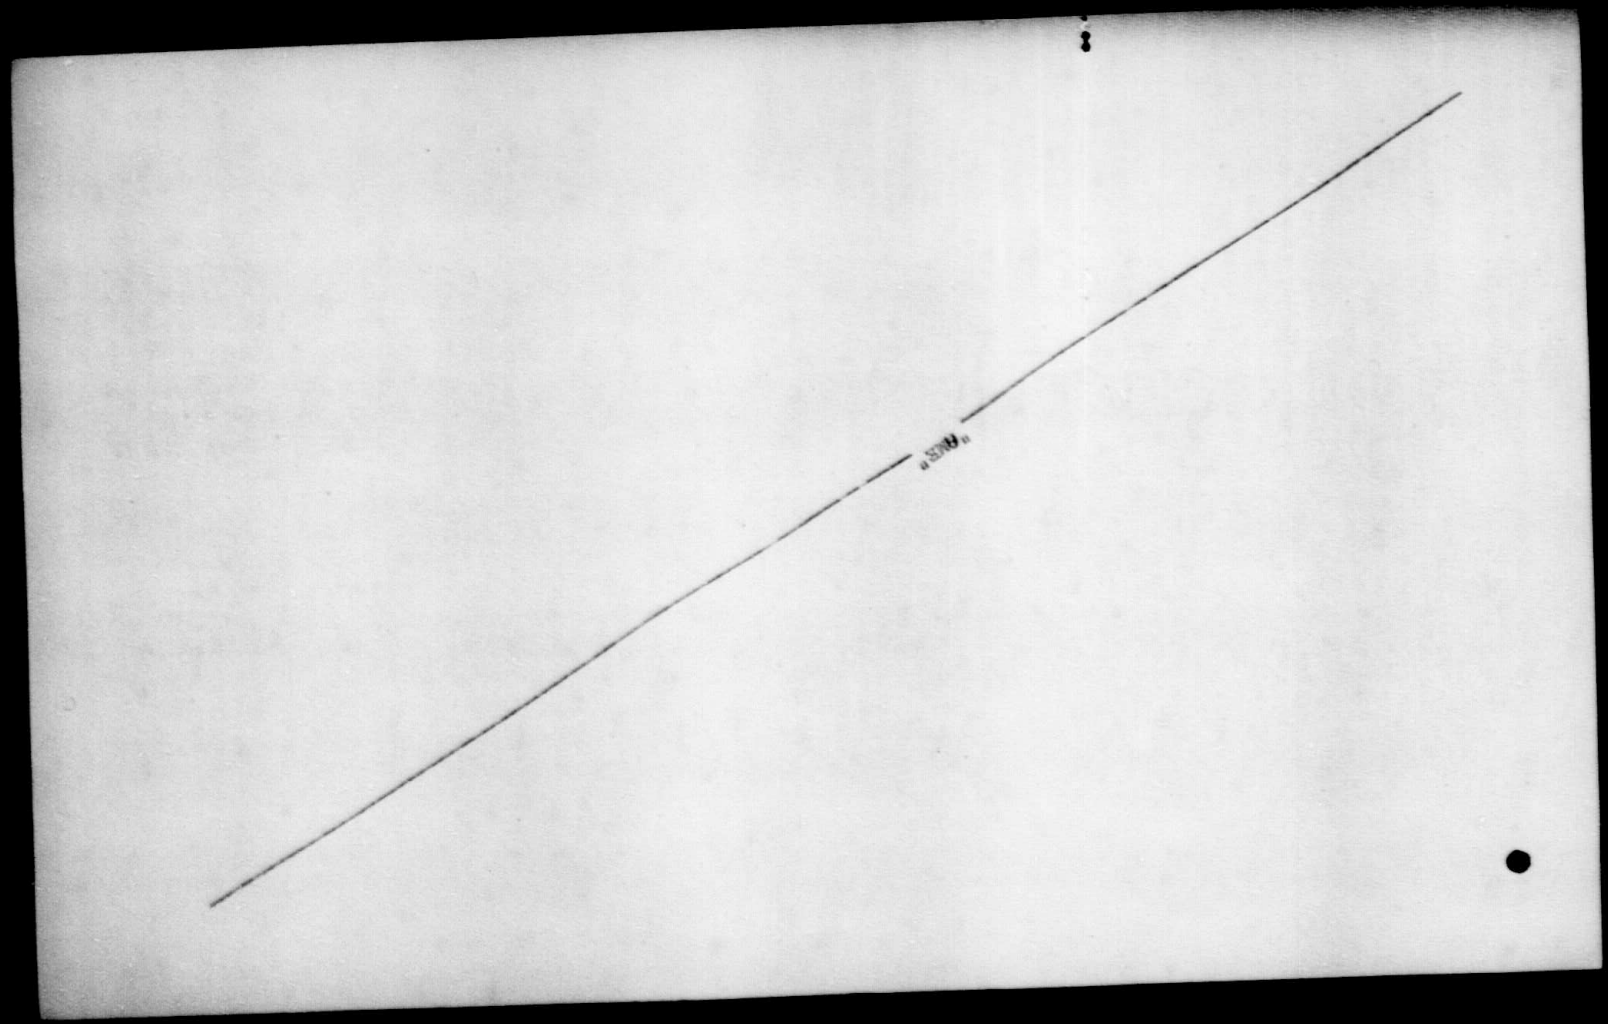
Statement entered as Exhibit "C".

Witness is shown statement of evidence.

Q.260 Is that your signature?

A.261 Yes

Q.262 On the 2nd of Feb did you say these words and sign this statement?



A.262 Yes I told the Belgian Interpreter and I signed it. (referring to Exhibit "C")

Prosecutor - For the benefit of the Court I will read the statement:

"The undersigned SECONDE Marie, declares that she as barmaid, was present in the bar 'MAXIE's' Kleine statiestraat, 13, Ghent, on the 30th January 1945, at about 9½ o'clock P.M.

About 40 soldiers were in the bar. Also two civilians who stood near the counter.

I have seen that the scottish soldier who is now present in the bureau, fought with two polish soldiers, as soon as these men entered. I tried to separate them, but it was no possible. I saw then that two soldiers of the 'Argyll and Sutherland Canada' regiment separated the fighters. One of these two soldiers was a tall man, the other a small one. They said me they come back the following day, but I didn't see them.

I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the streetdoor, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement.

As I was also standing at the open streetdoor, and that the scottish soldier shut this door violently, I steped into the street and saw the polish soldier lying upon the ground. I saw that he was bleeding from mouth, nose and ears."

Q.263 Do you remember another Cdn Officer coming to see you and taking a statement from you about the 12th of March?

A.263. I have forgotten now.

Q.264 Well is that your signature there? (pointing to original Summary)

A.264 Yes.

Q.265 Do you remember that officer having with him that statement and he was showing it to you and then you said this: (Prosecutor presents Exhibit "C")

"I have nothing to add nor have I any changes to make in the statement which I gave to the Provost on 2nd Feb 45."

And when questioned by the accused as follows:

"I was fighting with two Poles in the corner of the cafe, was I not?"

You said, "Yes".

And when further questioned:

"When you mentioned 'Same Scottish soldier' do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform?"

You said, "Same uniform, it was another soldier."

Do you remember at the time that officer visited you with the accused present, the accused asked you this question. "I was fighting with two Poles in the corner of the Cafe, was I not? and you answered, "Yes"?

A.265 That is right.

Q.266 And do you remember being asked, "When you mention same Scottish soldier do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform." And you answered, "Same uniform but another soldier"? Is that what you said?

A.266 Yes.

Q.267 Is that your signature?

A.267 Yes.

Q.268 Did the accused person ask you that and did you answer that at the time, "the same uniform but another soldier?

A.268 There were two in the cafe.

Judge-Advocate- I rule that you must introduce proof of the statement made not just some material part of it.

Prosecutor - I wish to ask the witness whether or not the question in the original Summary of Evidence which reads thus was asked of you:

"AMEN"

"When you mention same Scottish soldier do you mean me or a soldier with the same Scottish uniform?"

Q.269 Was that question asked of you by the accused?

A.269 That is what I had to answer.

Q.270 What do you mean by that when you say, "that is what I had to answer"?

A.270 That is the question that was asked.

Q.271 Yes and did you answer, as is listed in answer 2, "Same uniform, it was another soldier"?

A.271 Yes I answered that.

Q.272 But were you not standing at the door of the cafe when that happened?

A.272 When what happened?

Q.273 When the Polish soldier was struck?

A.273 No I was not standing at the door there.

Prosecutor - Referring to Exhibit "C" I wish you to read to the witness in Flemish this paragraph which I read in English:

"I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this Polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the street door, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement."

Will you read that paragraph (referring to the 4th paragraph side-lined in read on Exhibit "C").

Interpreter reads paragraph in Flemish to witness.

Q.274 Do you remember saying that?

A.274 I can not remember what I said.

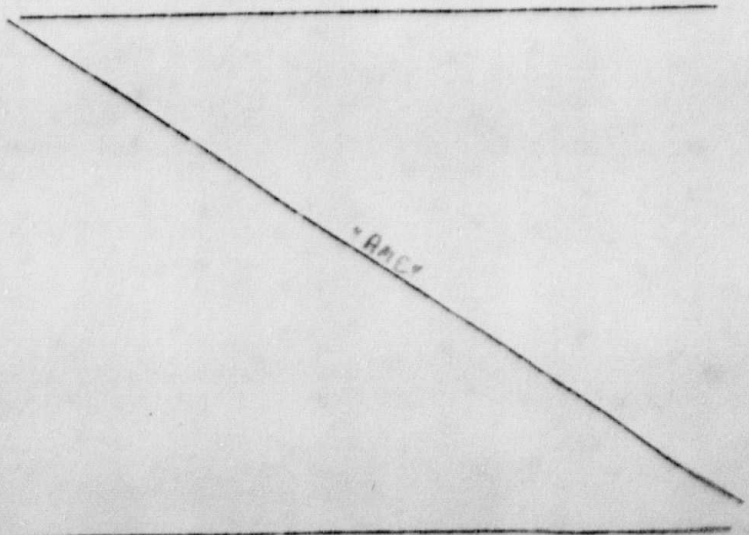
A.320 I did not know what I was saying.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(2).

The witness withdraws.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is not necessary for the Prosecution to call a witness to establish the statement referred to in the evidence of this witness.

Prosecutor - Mr President, I have now produced on behalf of the Prosecution all of the available witnesses with the exception of two Polish soldiers who are named in the Summary of Evidence. Yesterday the Defending Officer and the Court I believe decided they wanted to hear the evidence of the two Polish soldiers and they have been sent for and they should be here at any time but in view of the courts of this trial and what has happened here during yesterday afternoon and this morning I would like to ask the Court if they feel that they would still like to have these two witnesses produced. May I say at this time the two Polish soldiers do not help in any respect in so far as the question of identification is concerned and who actually struck the blow which resulted in the death of the Polish Cpl. I raise this now because I feel that unless the Court do wish these witnesses produced or the Defence do then I feel that on behalf of the Prosecution they can add nothing to the actual facts of this assault. So perhaps if the Court would indicate to my friend the Defending Officer as to what their wishes are perhaps we could be guided by that in the future course of this trial.



Judge-Advocate - You appreciate that the Defending Officer has the right to demand the attendance of these two witnesses due to the fact that the two Polish soldiers are witnesses to the Summary of Evidence and that you may be required to make them available to the Defending Officer for cross-examination.

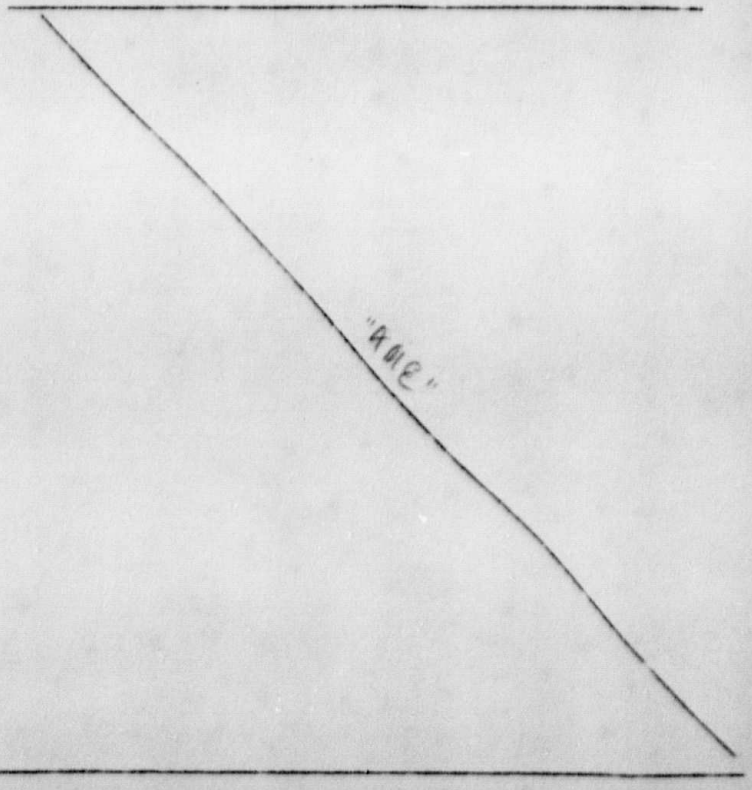
Defence - I do not require the two Polish soldiers for my case.

President - In view of the statement of the Prosecuting Officer and the Defending Officer the Court feels that we do not require the two Polish soldiers to be required.

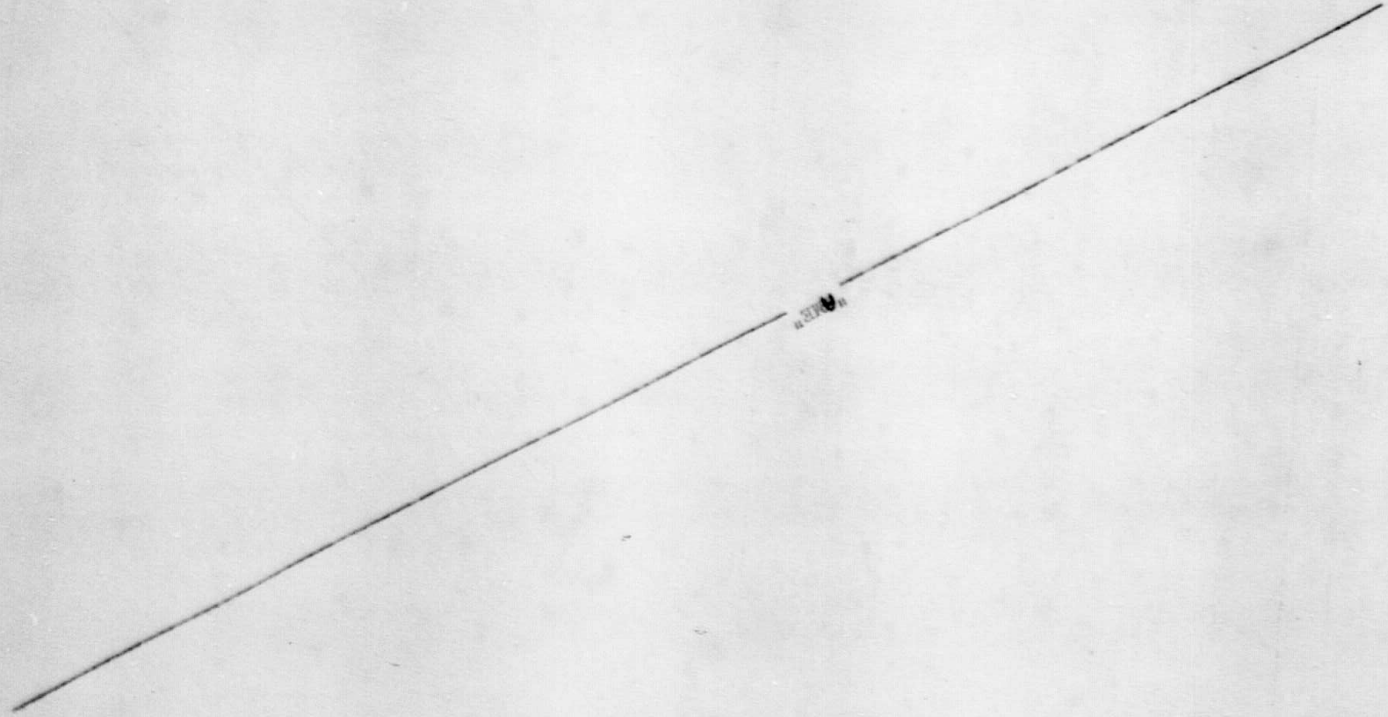
Prosecution - Then may I say, Mr. President, that aside from the two Polish soldiers that is the case for the Prosecution and those are all the witnesses that we are able to call.

The Prosecution is closed.

"PRESS"



THE DEFENDING OFFICER SUBMITS THAT THE EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION DOES NOT ESTABLISH A PRIMA FACIE CASE AGAINST THE ACCUSED.

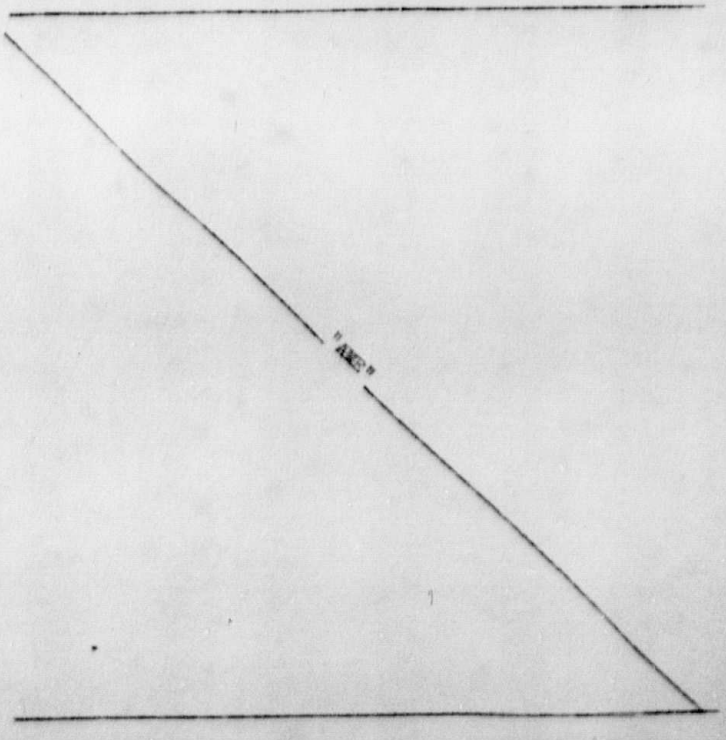


I submit that no prima facie case has been made out.

In a manslaughter case it must be shown among other things that there was a blow or some other unlawful act - that a blow was struck or some other unlawful act had been done and that the person who did this unlawful act is the accused.

I do not propose to examine the evidence of the witnesses in detail I shall merely say that the witness WESTERLINK and SECONDE have both stated that it was not DAVIS who hit the Pole who fell outside the door and one of them has stated that she did not see any blow struck at all against this particular Pole. It seems there was a fight in the corner of the Cafe and from the view which the Court had yesterday I think it is physically impossible for anybody in that corner to strike a blow so that a man would fall backwards outside the door. He would have to fall at 180° from where he was hit.

From that cursory examination of the evidence I submit that there is no evidence whatsoever that DAVIS is guilty of the charge of Manslaughter.



PROSECUTOR ANSWERS SUBMISSION BY DEFENCE OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE

Mr President and gentlemen, this is a very serious case in the sense that a life has been taken and also from the point of view that a Canadian soldier is on trial here today on a very serious charge.

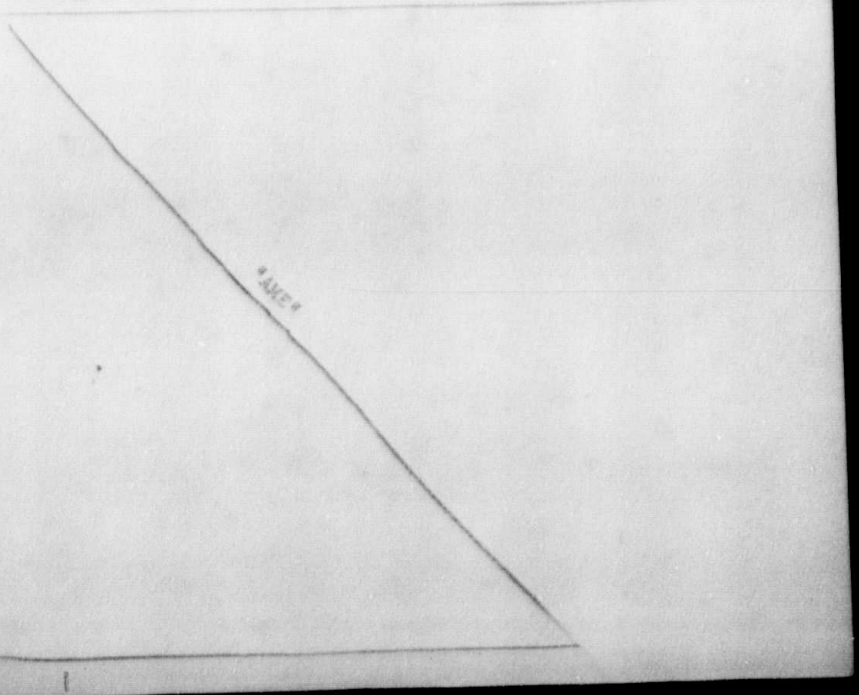
The evidence for the Prosecution in this case must necessarily depend upon the story of two civilian witnesses who as you know have been declared by the Court at my request to be hostile or adverse witnesses. You know the difficulty we have had in dealing with these witnesses, you have seen their manner and demeanor here and it is very much a question of what you can believe from what they said and what you believe they actually know. I must leave that entirely to you I know it is in a very unsatisfactory state. I think that the Prosecution has produced every available person, every civilian or soldier who could give any helpful facts on this incident. In so far as the identity of the deceased person is concerned I can not help but feel that you have been satisfied that the person who had been killed was Cpl RATAJ Jan.

It is purely for the Court to determine whether there has been sufficient here to satisfy that the accused person here, that DAVIS, was the man who struck the blow which resulted in the death of the Polish soldier.

It is purely a matter of fact and I must leave it to you.

JUDGE-ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE COURT ADVISING ON SUBMISSION OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE

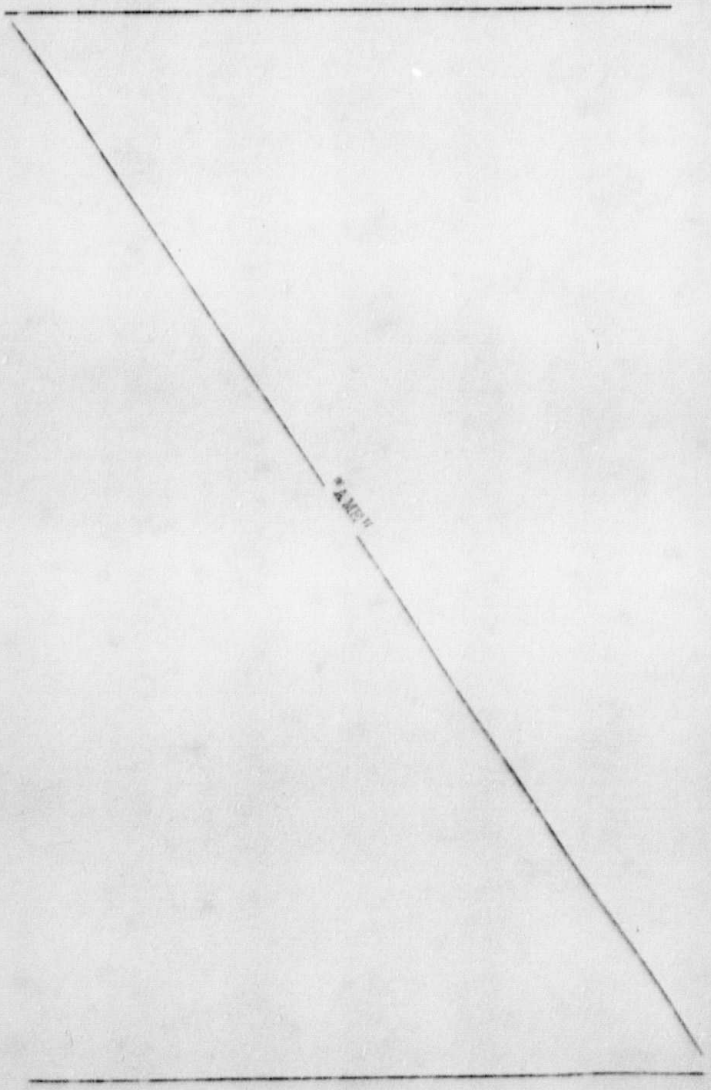
Mr President, the Prosecution has presented its case and at this time the Defending Officer has made a motion that the Prosecution has not established a prima facie case and therefore the accused should be found not guilty at this time.



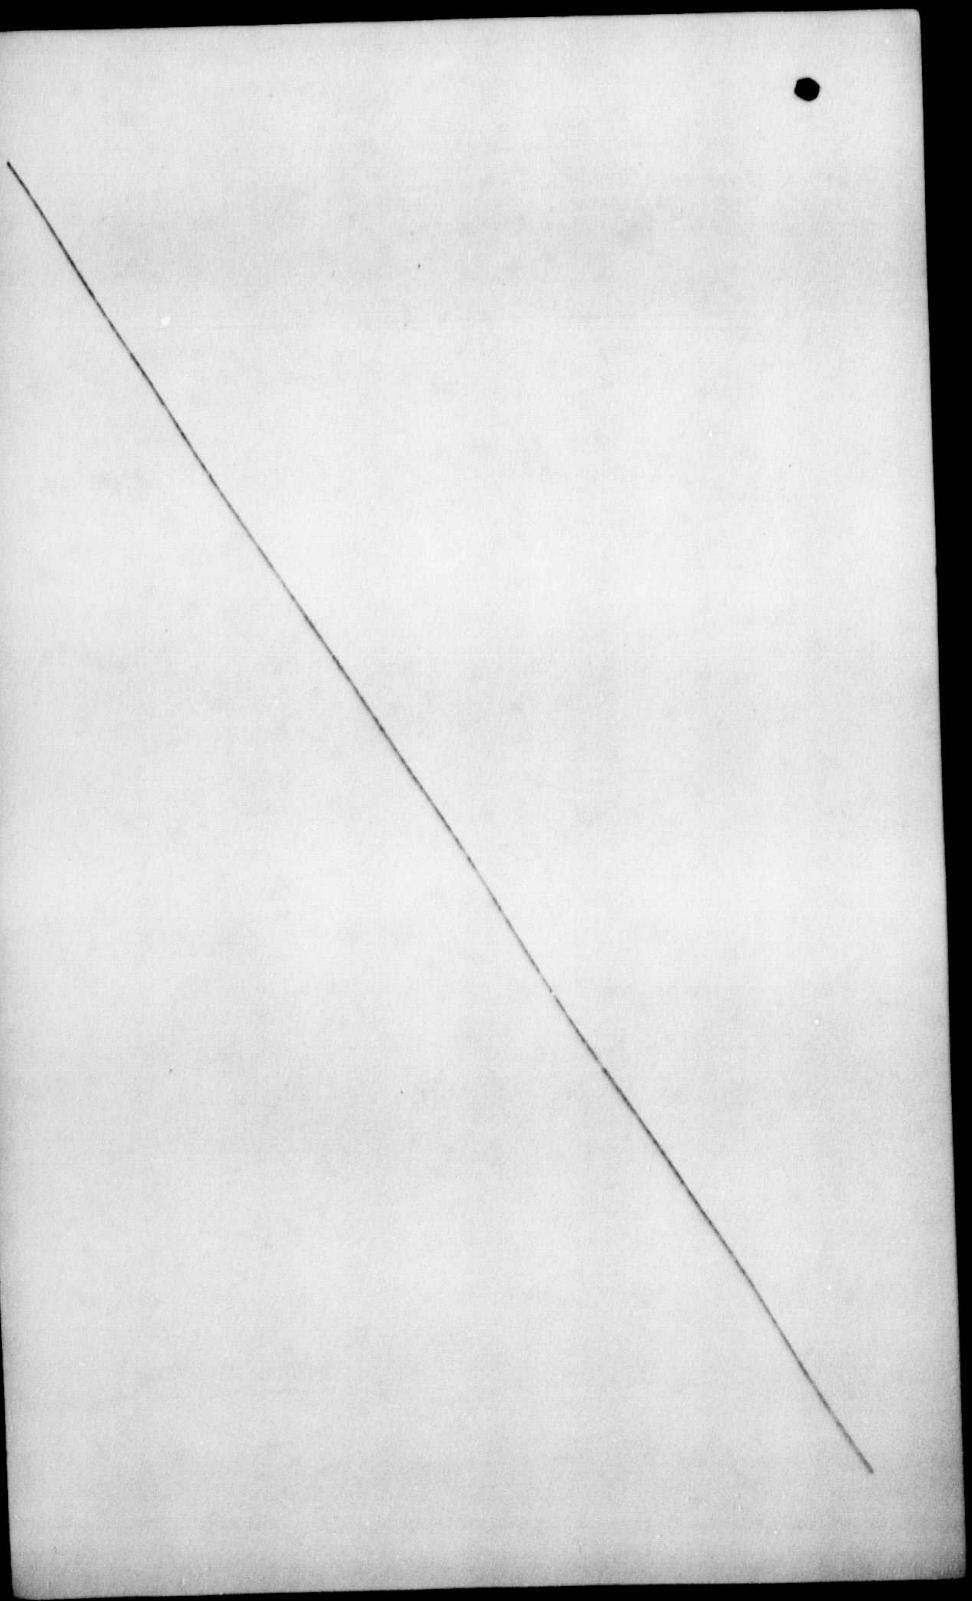
The definition of manslaughter is as follows:

"Manslaughter is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice either express or implied".

"The killing must be unlawful and not excusable or justifiable. It may be by poisoning, striking, starving, drowning, and a thousand other forms of death by which human nature may be overcome."



"It may be taken generally that in all cases where a killing, though not with malice, is nevertheless incapable of justification or excuse, it is manslaughter."



To establish whether or not a prima facie case has been made by the Prosecution it is not necessary for the Court at this stage to decide on credibility of witnesses. Nor need the Court decide whether the Prosecution has proved the accused guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. It is only necessary for the Court to determine that there is some evidence to support the charge laid and upon which if uncontradicted the Court could convict, that is more than a scintilla of evidence which supports the charge. The Court as I have said may believe everything they have heard to date the sole question before the Court now is is there or is there not a prima facie case of manslaughter.

The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is allowed on the First Charge.

Private DAVIS the submission by the Defending Officer has been allowed. You are therefore not guilty of the First charge of Manslaughter.

WESTERLINCK Maria,

born in Ledeberg, on 9th August 1927.

Ghent, 2nd. February 1945.

The undersigned WESTERLINCK Maria declares that she as barmaid, was present in the bar "MAXIE'S" Kleine Statiestreet, 13, Ghent, on 30th. January 1945, at 9½ o'clock in the evening.

About 20 Canadians soldiers were in the bar, six of them appartained to the "ARGYILL AND SUNTHERLAND CANADA" regiment. I saw also 4 @ 5 American soldiers, one belgian soldier and two civilians.

I sat down near the fire and heard that the canadian scottish soldier, who at this moment is present in the bureau, asked at the belgian soldier if he was of the police. I heard the belgian soldier answering "NO" and he said that the two civilians were of the secret police.

I saw that the above scottish soldier gave a slap on the face of one of the two civilians. The civilians didn't answer and the belgian soldier went out. I heard the scottish soldier saying: "I AM SORRY".

Thereafter I saw this scottish soldier drinking cognac of a bottle, but I don't know if it was his own bottle of well one of his friend.

I saw two polish soldiers entering the bar, and the scottish soldier fighted with them. Two soldiers of the "ARGYIL AND SUNTHERLAND CANADA" regiment separeted the fighters, and the Polish soldiers went out.

Some minutes after, another Polish soldier came in and immediatly the scottish soldier fought with him. I saw that the Polish soldier went backwards, as he was obliged by the fighters, I saw that the scottish soldier gave a violent blow at the polish soldier. The scottish soldier shut then the door and said that he must have his badge and his overcoat. Everyone who wanted to leave the bar, was examined by the scottish soldier.

Thereafter we left the bar and saw nothing more.

(Sign). Maria WESTERLINCK.

I hereby certify that the above is the true translation of the flemish statement, which I obtained from WESTERLINCK Maria on the 2nd. February 1945.

SECONDE Marie,
Barmaid,
Binnenweg, 78,
Ledeberg.
born in Wetteren, on 8th July 1927.

Ghent, 2nd February 1945.

The undersigned SECONDE Marie, declares that she as barmaid, was present in the bar "MAXIE'S" Kleine statiestraat, 13, Ghent, on the 30th, January 1945, at about 9½ o'clock P.M.

About 40 soldiers were in the bar. Also two civilians who stood near the counter.

I have seen that the scottish soldier who is now present in the bureau, fought with two polish soldiers, as soon as these men entered. I tried to seperate them , but it was no possible. I saw then that two soldiers of the "ARGYLL AND SUNTHERLAND CANADA" regiment separated the fighters. One of these two soldiers was a tall man, the other a small one. They said me they came back the following day, but I didn't see them.

I saw the same scottish soldier giving a blow at another polish soldier, who just entered the bar. As this polish soldier didn't have the time in order to shut the streetdoor, he fell backwards, his head struck the pavement.

As I was also standing at the open streetdoor, and that the scottish soldier shut this door violently, I stepped into the street and saw the polish soldier lying upon the ground. I saw that he was bleeding from mouth, nose and ears.

I saw two other polish soldiers and asked them if they were polish. They answered "YES". I said them that the canadian soldier who gave the blow at the polish soldier, was in the bar. At this answer, one of the two polish soldiers took his pistol, loaded it and asked me where this "BOCHE" was.

I returned into the bar, took my overcoat and went home.

AUTOPSY REPORT

"AAA"

5088 Cpl ROTAJ Jon 10 Polish Rifle Regiment.

admitted	at	2130 hrs	30 Jan 45.
died at		0710 hrs	31 Jan 45.
autopsy	at	1600 hrs	31 Jan 45.

This Polish N.C.O. sustained an injury to the back of the head on the evening of 30 Jan. He was unconscious for 20 minutes. On admission to hospital he had signs of a fractured skull, and lumber puncture showed bloody C.S.F. Death occurred, after the development of convulsions, on the morning of 31 Jan 45.

At autopsy the positive findings were confined to the head. On external examination there was no laceration or [redacted] marking of any nature of the scalp. There was a large diffuse haematoma of the subcutaneous tissues and muscle of the scalp, discovered only after the latter was reflected. This measured 12 cm. in diameter and overlay the left parietal bone, being centred 6 cm. below the left parietal eminence. The calvarium was normal. There was a recent, diffuse, large, left sub-dural haematoma overlying the whole of the antero-lateral aspect of the left cerebral hemisphere and of its basal aspect in the middle fossa. The haematoma was made up of clotted blood having a total volume of approximately 120 C.C. There was a thin layer of blood overlying the antero-lateral aspect of the right hemisphere also. The tips of both frontal and both temporal lobes, as well as their under surfaces, exhibited severe contre-coup pulping and moderate contre-coup sub-arachnoid haemorrhage. A few small collections of blood were encountered elsewhere in the sub-arachnoid space. There was an area of recent haemorrhage in the left globus pallidus extending into the adjecent anterior limb of the left internal capsule, and measuring 2 cm. in greatest diameter. No other lesions were found in the brain, the structures beneath the tentorium being normal.

There was an "open-ring" type fracture of the base of the skull involving the bones of the middle and posterior fossae. It extended from the left parietal bone through the squamous plate and petrous portion of the left temporal bone, through the basic sphenoid and greater wings and body of the sphenoid bone, involving the sphenoid sinus. It reduplicated itself on the other side i.e. extended through the right petrous and squamous temporal, and the parietal bones as far as the occipital bone. The whole of the occipital bone at the level of the internal occipital protuberance formed the "open" or non-fractured part of the ring. There was haemorrhage into the mastoid air cells and middle ears on both sides with bilateral perforation of the ear-drums. No other significant lesions were encountered.

Anatomical Diagnosis.

1. (Violence to back of head)

2. Haemetoma of scalp (left parietal)

3. Fractures of base of skull

4. Acute sub-dural haemorrhage (left)

5. Centre-coup sub-arachnoid haemorrhage and pulping of brain (tips of both temporal and frontal lobes)

6. Haemorrhage into globus pallidus and internal capsule (left)

7. Haemorrhage into middle ear cavities (bilateral)

8. Perforation of ear-drums (bilateral)

Summary

Death was due to intra-cranial haemorrhage, brain damage and fractures of the skull resulting from a violent force applied to the left parietal region. This force was either a powerful blow from a moderately heavy blunt instrument or a fall with violent impact of the head against a solid object

Statement of

M-3823 L/Cpl Thomlinson W.N.

At approximately 2145 hours on 30 January 1945 I was informed that a soldier had been hurt and was in the Victory Cafe, Kleine Staatiestraat, Ghent. I went to this cafe and found an injured Polish soldier in the back of the cafe. He was bleeding from the mouth, ears and nose. I sent for an ambulance at once. On checking his paybooks I discovered that he was 5088 Cpl. Hataj Jan , 10 Pol M t d Rifles. The ambulance was slow in coming so I took the man to 2 Cdn General Hosp in my own jeep. When I asked the Victory Cafe proprietor how the Polish soldier came to be in the cafe, I was informed that he had been carried in from the street. Maxie's Cafe is directly opposite the rear door of Victory Cafe.

TRIAL OF

M.22063 Pte Mervyn John DAVIS --- 4 Cdn Repat Depot

K.3120 Tpr Roy Thomas WEAVER ---- 4 Cdn Repat Depot

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Capt J.S. GARDNAR, Transport Officer of No. 4 Cdn Repat Depot, sworn, states:-

Q. Do you recognize this document (Work Ticket)?
A. Yes, I do.

Q. What is it?
A. It is a work ticket made out to Camberly for a Chev MUP CZ.4289851, March 46 and the date is 24 of Mar 46 and was authorized to go to Camberly and Bramshot to pick up W/Capt Phillips.

Q. Will you present it to the court?
A. Yes sir.

Q. This work ticket is made out for a Pte Davis and also a Spr Graham?
A. Yes he was originally authorized to drive the vehicle and Pte Davis would take it on different trips.

WORK TICKET (ARMY FORM G 3518) MARKED EXHIBIT 1 BY THE COURT

Q. Was Pte Davis authorized as driver of CZ 4289851 on the night of the 24 - 25 March 46?
A. He was.

Q. Was anyone else authorized to drive that vehicle?
A. Not after the particular trip he was authorized for.

Q. Was Pte Davis given written authority or permission by you to drive to Staines after picking up W/Capt Phillips?
A. He was not.

Q. After a driver is given authority to drive a vehicle can he give the authority to anyone else to drive his vehicle?
A. He can in case of emergency.

Q. Are the drivers in your department aware of this?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you authorize Tpr Weaver to drive CZ 4289851 on the 24 - 25 Mar 46?
A. No I didn't.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER FOR DAVIS

Q. Would a driver when authorized to take a vehicle over does he take over the responsibility?
A. Yes, he does.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER FOR WEAVER

Q. You told the Prosecuting officer that in case of Emergency, Tpr Weaver in this case, could have taken over the driving of the vehicle?
A. Yes, to clarify that, for example, if a driver knows that he is over-fatigued and turns the vehicle over for the safety of the vehicle and turns it over to a competent driver

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION (CONT'D)

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. You have presented to the court a work ticket for a certain vehicle in which it shows the names of two drivers, Pte Davis and Spr Graham?
A. Yes sir.

Q. And you have said that both these people could drive this vehicle on authorized trips as shown by the work ticket?
A. Yes sir, in this particular case it was a Sunday and we have only a few drivers and if the despatcher found he couldn't get a driver to take that particular trip that drove that vehicle he would take another driver and put him on that trip.

Q. Wouldn't he change the name of the driver?
A. No.

Q. Have you anything to show from this work ticket who the particular driver was on that day?
A. The despatcher who sent the trip out keeps the name in the records in the transport office.

Q. On this particular day there is only one entry on the work ticket and that is Witley to Witley by way of Bramshot and Camberly, authorized by Lieut P.J. O'Brien and the time out is shown as 0900 hours. There is no record shown here when that vehicle returned?
A. The vehicle in question was authorized for the use of Padres and as he had several trips to make that day, one to Bramshot and one to the church in camp and the church in Camberly and that is why he was authorized to use that vehicle for all those trips.

Q. There is no entry to show when the vehicle returned?
A. In that particular case the vehicle was to make two trips to Camberly and the despatcher was to have closed off this entry and make another entry for the second trip to Camberly and he didn't do so.

Q. The exhibit you have presented to us, showing a properly authorized trip on the 24 of Mar from Witely to Witley by way of Bramshot and Camberly and that trip started at 0900 hrs in the morning and that is all it shows?
A. Yes sir. He made the trip to Bramshot in the morning.

Q. Have you in your possession as Transport officer any document which can show what happened to this particular vehicle and what trips it made on that particular day?
A. Just the check on the work sheet in the office.

Q. Have you a copy of that?
A. I can check through the files and get it, unfortunately the particular despatcher employed in this case was repatriated to Canada a few days after it happened.

Q. From your own knowledge was there an unauthorized trip made by this vehicle on that day?
A. Yes, as I examined the despatchers work sheet in the office on the night of the 24 I know that no trip had been authorized to Staines or it would have been [redacted] entered on the sheet.

Q. This vehicle did make a trip to Staines that day?

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

W.3180 Tpr Roy Thomas WEAVER (the accused) sworn, states:-

Q. Tell the members of the court your story about the night of the 24 and morning and 25 of Mar 46?
A. On the night of Mar 24 I spent the night at Staines with my girl friend. We had one or two beers and left for her home, pretty early in the evening, roughly around 9.30 we went to have something to eat and then we went to Ashford to my girl friends home and stayed there the rest of the time, it was pretty close to mid-night when I heard an Army vehicle going down the road so I looked out the window and I recognized it as an Army vehicle so I figured it might be one of 4 Repat's trucks so I thought I would get a ride back to camp. After I left the girl friend's place I started to walk up the road, by that time the vehicle had turned around and was coming down the road towards me. I flagged the vehicle down and asked if he was going to 4 Repat, he said he was and I recognized the driver to be Pte Davis, so when I got into the vehicle he asked me where Pte Evans was staying, I told him, he was staying down the road a ways and he asked me if I would show him, I showed him where Pte Evans was staying and then that was where he said he was too tired to drive, I saw he was tired so I told him I would drive the vehicle back to camp. After we picked up Pte Evans we proceeded on to Staines and Pte Davis told me to stop at an air raid shelter as he was going to pick up some more fellows, we stopped there and we picked up 5 fellows and then proceeded back to camp. I know this Staines bridge and there was a curve there, I slowed the vehicle down before I came to the curve but with the weight in the back and the road being slippery the vehicle seemed to push over to the right of the bridge and hit the side wall, there Pte Davis told me to get the vehicle to the left, I tried to keep it to the left but the wheels didn't seem to respond to the way I wanted them and the vehicle headed for the edge of the bridge and crashed and then the ambulance came and picked us up and took us to the hospital.

Q. When you took over the driving of the vehicle did you take over the driving because you like to drive or because you thought you would be helping Pte Davis out because he was tired and had been driving a lot that day?
A. I thought I would be helping him out, I could see he was pretty tired.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q. Did you know that when Pte Davis asked you to drive that it was an unauthorized trip?
A. I knew nothing about it sir.

Q. Did you realize that when you consented to drive that you were taking full responsibility for the vehicle?

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

A. As far as I understand is that when a vehicle is signed out to a driver he takes the responsibility for the vehicle under any circumstances, no matter who drives. I mean the man to whom the vehicle is signed out to.

Q. What was the weather like at the Staines bridge?
A. It was foggy, It was almost impossible to have the lights on bright as it would reflect against the fog, I had the lights dim after leaving Ashford.

Q. Then the visibility was poor?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Pte Davis admitted the speed of the vehicle at the time of the accident was 25 m.p.h., do you agree with this?
A. Yes because I slowed down before I came to the bridge.

Q. You think you were doing 25 m.p.h.?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you usually drive at this speed when the weather is foggy?
A. I am not quite sure what the regulations are on that sir.

Q. You say that the road was slippery?
A. Yes a little moist on the road from the fog.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER FOR DAVIS

Q. When you went out of your girl friend's house to stop the vehicle, what made you think it was a 4 Repat vehicle?
A. I just took that chance, I was planning on spending the evening at my girl friend's house and the vehicle would take me back just that much earlier.

Q. Do you know this Pte Evans?
A. Yes I knew them both.

Q. When you understood the trip was made to Staines to pick up this Pte Evans you must have realized that it was an unauthorized trip?
A. No, not necessarily.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. How long have you been a driver?
A. Since the latter part of Feb with this Depot here.

Q. I see that you are wearing the DM badge on your arm?
A. Yes sir.

Q. That stands for Driver Mech and did you just take that up in the latter part of Feb 46?

A. Since Feb 45.

Q. As a driver mech you know standing orders for M.T. drivers?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you see this Pte Evans at all on the evening of the 24 in Ashford?

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

A. I believe I saw him once.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him then?
A. No sir.

Q. You didn't know from Pte Evans that Pte Davis was coming down to pick him up?
A. No sir.

Q. But yet when you heard an army vehicle passing your girl friend's house you left the house and started back for camp on the chance that you would get a ride to the repat depot?
A. Yes sir.

Q. How did you know that vehicle was going to turn around and come back in the direction you were going?
A. I just took that chance that he would come or go as far as the main road and then turn around.

Q. You hear it passing your girl friend's house and you went out on the strength of that and started to walk, that is correct is it not?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What were you going to do if the vehicle had not turned around?
A. I would have waited awhile and gone back to the girl friends house.

Q. You had an idea it was going to turn around?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What gave you that idea?
A. I don't know I had the idea that it would that is all.

Q. It did turn around and you flagged it down?
A. Yes sir.

Q. You recognized the driver as Pte Davis?
A. Yes sir.

Q. He works with you in the M.T. section?
A. Yes sir.

Q. After you directed him to Pte Evans and you picked him up he asked you to drive the vehicle?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Why did he want you to drive the vehicle?
A. He told me he was to tired to drive it.

Q. Did you see that he was tired?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he say why he was tired?
A. He said he was duty driver and had been driving all day and night.

Q. You as a driver knowing the regulations of course understood that it was a duty trip to pick up Pte Evans?
A. No I didn't when he told me he was going to pick up Evans I didn't know whether it was a duty trip or not.

Q. You didn't think it was as a driver of experience?
A. No sir.

Q. You thought as a matter of fact that Pte Davis was taking an unauthorized trip?
A. Yes sir.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

Q. And yet having that in mind that the trip was unauthorized you took control of the vehicle by becoming the driver?
A. Yes sir. I took it because I thought it would be better if I did as he was pretty tired.

Q. Althought you were trying to help Pte Davis out did you know you were taking a chance by driving the vehicle on an unauthorized trip?
A. I have not seen M.T. laws that says you can't help another driver out, whether the trip is authorized or unauthorized.

Q. A work ticket makes the trip authorized?
A. Yes sir.

Q. If there is a co-driver the names are shown on the work ticket?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you bother to ask to see the work ticket?
A. No sir.

Q. You knew your name could not be on the work ticket as co-driver?
A. No sir.

Q. You were taking a chance by assuming control of the vehicle on the unauthorized trip?
A. Yes sir.

Q. While you were driving on this unauthorized trip an accident occured?
A. Yes sir.

Q. That is the root of the thing?
A. Yes sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH SP 82(B).

ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION

Upon the evidence that has been presented it appears that Pte Davis made an unauthorized trip to Staines and on to Ashford to pick up his friend and that when he arrived in Staines he picked up a driver whom he knew by name, a Pte Weaver, and because he was tired he asked Pte Weaver to drive. Pte Weaver has admitted that he didn't think it was an authorized trip but consented to drive the vehicle back to camp and while the vehicle was under the control of Pte Weaver it ran into and damaged the bridge at Staines and also caused damage to the vehicle to the amount of £86-17-0. That is all I have to say sir.

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENCE FOR PTE DAVIS

Pte Davis did take this unauthorized journey but the point in question is that Tpr Weaver took over the vehicle, realizing it to be an unauthorized journey, therefore no driver had been allotted to the vehicle, so the vehicle could not be tied down to the responsibility of anyone in particular so the person driving should be the person responsible for the custody of that vehicle.

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER FOR WEAVER

I should like to follow the events as they actually happened. Tpr Weaver was in Staines or Ashford on the night of Mar 24 and when he saw a vehicle going to 4 Repat he thought he would take a chance and get a ride, he was lucky, it happened to be a 4 Repat vehicle. He flagged down the driver of the vehicle who was Pte Davis. He knew him and he was asked where Pte Evans was, they went down to see Evans and while sitting waiting for Pte Evans, Pte Davis asked Tpr Weaver to take the vehicle over because he was tired. Now I am pretty sure this has happened hundreds and hundres of times where a driver meets a driver he knows is authorized to drive and gives him the vehicle. The unfortunate thing about that night is that they were involved in an accident. You have heard his evidence, the evidence of the first witness was that Tpr Weaver was perfectly justified in taking over the vehicle because Pte Davis was tired. The fact that Tpr Weaver took the vehicle over and is responsible, nobody is sure of. Tpr Weaver took over the vehicle, he started out back to camp, he came to a curve and slowed down and was driving at a moderate rate of speed which is 25 m.p.h. and he tried to make the curve at Staines bridge and as far as we can find out when he tried to turn it to the left there was a defect in the steering. Anyway the accident occured at an unfortunate time. I don't think Tpr Weaver is guilty of the charge.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER IT'S FINDING

THE COURT RE-OPENS

PLEA OF MITIGATION FOR PTE DAVIS BY HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

All I have to say is that according to what Pte Davis told me his first charge on the conduct sheet was an offence that was committed in one week of him joining the army and the other charges are to my estimation minor offences. I wish the court would look into that when considering the sentence.

PLEA OF MITIGATION FOR TPR WEAVER BY HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

I would like to make a plea for Tpr Weaver. This court has dragged out for three months and during that time Tpr Weaver has been trying to make arrangements to be married over here since he has not been under close arrest but under open arrest. He couldn't get out to see his girl friend and he has had a hard time trying to make arrangements by telephone to get married because of the dragging out of the Court Martial.

Since I have known him he has been working in the Admin Office with me and he has been an outstanding soldier.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. You have presented to the court a work ticket for a certain vehicle in which it shows the names of two drivers, Pte Davis and Spr Graham?
A. Yes sir.

Q. And you have said that both these people could drive this vehicle on authorized trips as shown by the work ticket?
A. Yes sir, in this particular case it was a Sunday and we have only a few drivers and if the despatcher found he couldn't get a driver to take that particular trip that drove that vehicle he would take another driver and put him on that trip.

A. No.

Q. Have you anything to show from this work ticket who the particular driver was on that day?
A. The despatcher who sent the trip out keeps the name in the records in the transport office.

Q. On this particular day there is only one entry on the work ticket and that is Witley to Witley by way of Bramshot and Camberly, authorized by LieutP.J. O'Brien and the time out is shown as 0900 hours. There is no record shown here when that vehicle returned?
A. The vehicle in question was authorized for the use of Padres and as he had several trips to make that day, one to Bramshot and one to the church in camp and the church in Camberly and that is why he was authorized to use that vehicle for all those trips.

A. In that particular case the vehicle was to make two trips to Camberly and the despatcher was to have closed off this entry and make another entry for the second trip to Camberly and he didn't do so.

Q. Have you in your possession as Transport Officer any document which can show what happened to this particular vehicle and what trips it made on that particular day?
A. Just the check on the work sheet in the office.

Q. Have you a copy of that?
A. I can check through the files and get it, unfortunately the particular despatcher employed in this case was repatriated to Canada a few days after it happened.

Q. From your own knowledge was there an unauthorized trip made by this vehicle on that day?
A. Yes, as I examined the despatchers work sheet in the office on the night of the 24 I knew that no trip had been authorized to Staines or it would have been ~~as it would have been~~ entered on the sheet.

Q. This vehicle did make a trip to Staines that day?
A. Yes sir, from what I heard about the accident and where it was involved?

Q. What did you hear about this particular vehicle on that particular day?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Is there any order in Transport that says that is right or is not right?
A. I don't know sir.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

Q. You can hand over to another driver on an authorized trip?
A. If he is appointed as a co-driver yes.

Q. If he is a co-driver he drives for that trip?
A. Yes sir.

Q. If he is not a co-driver the regulations do not enter into it at all do they?
A. I never have seen an order that says you can't let a driver take over your vehicle while on a trip.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

K.3120 Tpr Roy Thomas WEAVER (the accused) sworn, states:-

Q. Tell the members of the court your story about the night of the 24 and morning and 25 of Mar 46?
A. On the night of Mar 24 I spent the night at Staines with my girl friend. We had one or two beers and left for her home, pretty early in the evening, roughly arpund 9.30 we went to have something to eat and then we went to Ashford to my girl friends home and stayed there the rest of the time, it was pretty close to mid-night when I heard an Army vehicle going down the road so I looked out the window and I recognized it as an Army vehicle so I figured it might be one of 4 Repat's trucks so I thought I would get a ride back to camp. After I left the girl friend's place I started to walk up the road, by that time the vehicle had turned around and was coming down the road towards me. I flagged the vehicle down and asked if he was going to 4 Repat, he said he was and I recognized the driver to be Pte Davis, so when I got into the vehicle he asked me where Pte Evans was staying, I told him, he was staying down the road a ways and he asked me if I would show him, I showed him where Pte Evans was staying and then that was where he said he was too tired to drive, I saw he was tired so I told him I would drive the vehicle back to camp. After we picked up Pte Evans we proceeded on to Staines and Pte Davis told me to stop at an air raid shelter as he was going to pick up some more fellows, we stopped there and we picked up 5 fellows and then proceeded back to camp. I knew this Staines bridge and there was a curve there, I slowed the vehicle down before I came to the curve but with the weight in the back and the road being slippery the vehicle seemed to push over to the right of the bridge and hit the side wall, there Pte Davis told me to get the vehicle to the left, I tried to keep it to the left but the wheels didn't seem to respond to the way I wanted them and the vehicle headed for the edge of the bridge and crashed and then the ambulance came and picked us up and took us to the hospital.

Q. When you took over the driving of the vehicle did you take over the driving because you like to drive or because you thought you would be helping Pte Davis out because he was tired and had been driving a lot that day?
A. I thought I would be helping him out, I could see he was pretty tired.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q. Did you know that when Pte Davis asked you to drive that it was an unauthorized trip?
A. I knew nothing about it sir.

Q. Did you realize that when you consented to drive that you were taking full responsibility for the vehicle?

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

A. As far as I understand is that when a vehicle is signed out to a driver he takes the responsibility for the vehicle under any circumstances, no matter who drives. I mean the man to whom the vehicle is signed out to.

Q. What was the weather like at the Staines bridge?
A. It was foggy, It was almost impossible to have the lights on bright as it would reflect against the fog, I had the lights dim after leaving Ashford.

Q. Then the visibility was poor?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Pte Davis admitted the speed of the vehicle at the time of the accident was 25 m.p.h., do you agree with this?
A. Yes because I slowed down before I came to the bridge.

Q. You think you were doing 25 m.p.h.?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you usually drive at this speed when the weather is foggy?
A. I am not quite sure what the regulations are on that sir.

Q. You say that the road was slippery?
A. Yes a little moist on the road from the fog.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER FOR DAVIS

Q. When you went out of your girl friend's house to stop the vehicle, what made you think it was a 4 Repat vehicle?
A. I just took that chance, I was planning on spending the evening at my girl friend's house and the vehicle would take me back just that much earlier.

Q. Do you know this Pte Evans?
A. Yes I knew them both.

Q. When you understood the trip was made to Staines to pick up this Pte Evans you must have realized that it was an unauthorized trip?
A. No, not necessarily.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. How long have you been a driver?
A. Since the latter part of Feb with this Depot here.

Q. I see that you are wearing the DM badge on your arm?
A. Yes sir.

Q. That stands for Driver Mech and did you just take that up in the latter part of Feb 46?
A. No sir, I was authorized as a driver mech in Canada.

Q. You have been only driving in this country here since the latter part of Feb?
A. In this transport section here.

Q. How long have you been a driver?
A. Ever since I came over.

Q. How long have you been over?
A. Since Feb 45.

Q. As a driver mech you know standing orders for M.T. drivers?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you see this Pte Evans at all on the evening of the 24 in Ashford?

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

A. I believe I saw him once.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him then?
A. No sir.

Q. You didn't know from Pte Evans that Pte Davis was coming down to pick him up?
A. No sir.

Q. But yet when you heard an army vehicle passing your girl friend's house you left the house and started back for camp on the chance that you would get a ride to the repat depot?
A. Yes sir.

Q. How did you know that vehicle was going to turn around and come back in the direction you were going?
A. I just took that chance that he would come or go as far as the main road and then turn around.

Q. You hear it passing your girl friend's house and you went out on the strength of that and started to walk, that is correct is it not?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What were you going to do if the vehicle had not turned around?
A. I would have waited awhile and gone back to the girl friends house.

Q. You had an idea it was going to turn around?
A. Yes sir.

Q. What gave you that idea?
A. I don't know I had the idea that it would that is all.

Q. It did turn around and you flagged it down?
A. Yes sir.

Q. You recognized the driver as Pte Davis?
A. Yes sir.

Q. He works with you in the M.T. section?
A. Yes sir.

Q. After you directed him to Pte Evans and you picked him up he asked you to drive the vehicle?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Why did he want you to drive the vehicle?
A. He told me he was to tired to drive it.

Q. Did you see that he was tired?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he say why he was tired?
A. He said he was duty driver and had been driving all day and night.

Q. You as a driver knowing the regulations of course understood that it was a duty trip to pick up Pte Evans?
A. No I didn't when he told me he was going to pick up Evans I didn't know whether it was a duty trip or not.

Q. You didn't think it was as a driver of experience?
A. No sir.

Q. You thought as a matter of fact that Pte Davis was taking an unauthorized trip?
A. Yes sir.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

Q. And yet having that in mind that the trip was unauthorized you took control of the vehicle by becoming the driver?
A. Yes sir. I took it because I thought it would be better if I did as he was pretty tired.

Q. Althought you were trying to help Pte Davis out did you know you were taking a chance by driving the vehicle on an unauthorized trip?
A. I have not seen M.T. laws that says you can't help another driver out, whether the trip is authorized or unauthorized.

Q. A work ticket makes the trip authorized?
A. Yes sir.

Q. If there is a co-driver the names are shown on the work ticket?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you bother to ask to see the work ticket?
A. No sir.

Q. You knew your name could not be on the work ticket as co-driver?
A. No sir.

Q. You were taking a chance by assuming control of the vehicle on the unauthorized trip?
A. Yes sir.

Q. While you were driving on this unauthorized trip an accident occured?
A. Yes sir.

Q. That is the root of the thing?
A. Yes sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION

Upon the evidence that has been presented it appears that Pte Davis made an unauthorized trip to Staines and on to Ashford to pick up his friend and that when he arrived in Staines he picked up a driver whom he knew by name, a Pte Weaver, and because he was tired he asked Pte Weaver to drive. Pte Weaver has admitted that he didn't think it was an authorized trip but consented to drive the vehicle back to camp and while the vehicle was under the control of Pte Weaver it ran into and damaged the bridge at Staines and also caused damage to the vehicle to the amount of £85-17-0. That is all I have to say sir.

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENCE FOR PTE DAVIS

Pte Davis did make this unauthorized journey but the point in question is that Tpr Weaver took over the vehicle, realizing it to be an unauthorized journey, therefore no driver had been allotted to the vehicle, so the vehicle could not be tied down to the responsibility of anyone in particular so the person driving should be the person responsible for the custody of that vehicle.

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER FOR WEAVER

I should like to follow the events as they actually happened. Tpr Weaver was in Staines or Ashford on the night of Mar 24 and when he saw a vehicle going to 4 Repat he t ought he would take a chance and get a ride, he was lucky, it happened to be a 4 Repat vehicle. He flagged down the driver of the vehicle who was Pte Davis. He knew him and he was asked where Pte Evans was, they went down to see Evans and while sitting waiting for Pte Evans, Pte Davis asked Tpr Weaver to take the vehicle over because he was tired. Now I am pretty sure this has happened hundreds and hundres of times where a driver meets a driver he knows is authorized to drive and gives him the vehicle. The unfortunate thing about that night is that they were involved in an accident. You have heard his evidence, the evidence of the first witness was that Tpr Weaver was perfectly justified in taking over the vehicle because Pte Davis was tired. The fact that Tpr Weaver took the vehicle over and is responsible, nobody is sure of. Tpr Weaver took over the vehicle, he started out back to camp, he came to a curve and slowed down and was driving at a moderate rate of speed which is 25 m.p.h. and he tried to make the curve at Staines bridge and as far as we can find out when he tried to turn it to the left there was a defect in the steering. Anyway the accident occured at an unfortunate time. I don't think Tpr Weaver is guilty of the charge.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER IT'S FINDING

THE COURT RE-OPENS

PLEA OF MITIGATION FOR PTE DAVIS BY HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

All I have to say is that according to what Pte Davis told me his first charge on the conduct sheet was an offence that was committed in one week of him joining the army and the other charges are to my estimation minor offences. I wish the court would look into that when considering the sentence.

PLEA OF MITIGATION FOR TPR WEAVER BY HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

I would like to make a plea for Tpr Weaver. This court has dragged out for three months and during that time Tpr Weaver has been trying to make arrangements to be married over here since he has not been under close arrest but under open arrest. He couldn't get out to see his girl friend and he has had a hard time trying to make arrangements by telephone to get married because of the dragging out of the Court Martial.

Since I have known him he has been working in the Admin Office with me and he has been an outstanding soldier.

Accused Evidence in S of E shows utility cupboard of Ward H was not locked & open to personnel in hospital. In other words temptation more or less placed before orderlies working in ward. Accused has of own volition pleaded guilty to charges. Everyone is aware of difficulty of proving the theft of common brand of cigarettes. He decided he was in the wrong & so make a clean breast of whole affair & start over again. Respectfully request Court to consider carefully the age of accused - 19 yrs. Enlisted in Can. Army minute he could do so for service. He assign signed for active service & in my opinion has makings of good soldier. He has requested Court take into consideration the value of articles stolen & that they be guided by this fact in considering sentence. Further fact that all these soldiers on trial today are very young, new to this country & have not had an opportunity of becoming settled. Customs are different than in Canada & living conditions more expensive. Respectfully requested Court consider these things & give accused a light sentence & an opportunity of proving himself both as a man & a soldier.

Pte Davis also requested a transfer to another

Corps via desirous of seeing more active service with the Cdn Inf.

FIRST WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

GEORGE THOMAS HOLLIS, Police Sergeant, Warwicks County Police, attached to Coleshill, having been duly sworn,- states:

I received information from Lieut. Ramsberry #19 Canadian General Hospital, on the 24th September 1944 that a theft had been committed in Ward H. I came to the Hospital and ascertained what the property was that was missing, and on the 25th September, I interviewed Pte. Davis in the presence of Lieut. Ramsberry. I said to him "I am a Police Officer and I am making enquiries into a case of theft from the kit bag of Lieut Martin, who is a patient in Ward H. Do you know anything about it" He replied "No". I questioned him further about the matter and he said "I did have some of the cigarettes, I'll tell you." I cautioned him, giving him the usual form of caution and he went on to make a statement which I took down in writing at his dictation. When he was finished, I read it over to him, and, after initialling several alterations, he signed it. I produce the original of the statement made by the accused, consisting of three pages of writing in ink.

(RECEIVED AND MARKED EXHIBIT "A")

I then took the accused to Pte. Davis to No.1 hut where he sleeps and searched his kit. I found two packages of Gillette Razor Blades, one pair braces, one comb, two boxes of matches and one pair of puttees. These articles I have shown to Lieut. Martin (not in the presence of the accused) and he identified them as property similar to property lost by him. I labelled the recovered property in the presence of Lieut Ramsberry and handed it to him for safe keeping.

I produce copy of a report I have compiled with respect to this investigation.

COURT WAS ADJOURNED AT 1200 hrs.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution.

D125539 S/Sgt. HUXLEY John Charles Edward, R.C.A.M.C. #19 Canadian General Hospital having been duly sworn states:
I am the Head Wardmaster of the #19 Canadian General Hospital. One of the wards in my care is Ward "H", which contains officer patients. I received a complaint that some articles were missing from an officer's kit. As a result I interviewed Lieut Martin and he gave me a list of articles missing from his kit. I reported the matter to R.S.M. Richard.
When Officer patients were admitted to Ward "H" their personnel kit was stored in the utility cupboard next to the front door of the ward. Some of the personnel kit was also kept under the officer patient's bed. The door to this utility cupboard was not kept locked, and anyone could have had access to it. The ward orderlies of ward "H" were Ptes.Otis, Craig, Davis and Chisholm. Pte. Otis was the night orderly. It was from this ward that the articles were missing. As a result of my investigation I learned that Pte. Ramsey had visited ward "H" on one occasion when Pte. Otis was on night duty. When an officer patient wants anything of his kit, it is the duty of the ward orderly to get it from the utility cupboard and bring it to him and to return it to the utility cupboard when the officer is through with it.

~~Question: To accused~~ ~~Do you wish to ask this witness any question.~~
Answer Yes I do.
Question:By accused Wasn't the night Ramsey was in the ward the night after the articles were stolen.
Answer I do not know the actual date.
Question: Was Ramsey on leave at that time?
~~Answer~~ ~~This was before he went on leave.~~

Question: To accused Do you wish to question the witness ~~further~~?
Answer No.

States Mr Henry, Canterbury:-

About 3 weeks ago in the morning St Martin asked me for his ~~Kit~~ baggage. He gave me some papers to get his baggage up to the ward. I was at the time ward Orderly in the 1H. His Kit was sent up and left under the verandah on the side walk. I went to tell it to be asked for something out of it. I don't ~~think~~ know that it was he asked for. Both St Martin & started looking through one of the Kit bags. He took out what he wanted and he told me to pick it up and put it away in the store closet at the end of the ward. I did this, and I left them in the closet. The door was not locked. ~~on the~~ The ~~same~~ ~~matter~~ next morning St Craig came to me in the 1H and said, "I've got some cigarettes here for the Major's Kit bag" and he showed me 600 Turret Imperial Cigarettes ~~in a tin~~ in two cartons of 300 each. He then ~~went~~ gave me one carton of 300 Turret Imperial cigarettes. I did not actually take possession of them but he said he would sell them for me. me box of 1,000 Lucky Leaf cigarettes. I've still got some left, I didn't tell any. In about time later Lucky went Brady to get an air raid shelter next to us behind Mrs S. He showed me a small wood box — & inside he had quantities of Lucky Leaf cigarettes. — & a little black flask, pair of gloves, white pocket Knife, matches (about 5 boxes) pair of pullers, razor blades (about 4 packets I think) 1 coat, two boxes of revolver ammunition.

He left it there for the day — & the following day Brady fetched the stuff over to the No 1. hut. — & dumped it up. The article I stated that in the box of Brady, were actually given to me in the No 1 hut — & not in the hut. I have still got the stuff in my box.

~~At the beginning of last week Lucky again got Brady — He & I. Lucky to the store room — & took 4000 My Lucky Leaf cigarettes for the week's beg.~~

I didn't tell you at the time, but when I had the 1,000 Lucky Leaf I also took 600 Senior Service cigarettes. I have sold one packet of senior Service cigarettes to ~~Cpl~~ at other for 10/-, this would be the beginning of last week. I told Lucky to buy at the time. I'd had them for the little room. I also gave one packet to Cpl Chisholm as he asked for them. I remember him got them for Mr Harris's kit bag. This was also the beginning I don't think. He said, "Have you got any shirts?" I said, "I think there is." The next day he told me he had one. — I said, "I've had it for Mr Harris's

A day or so later Mr Harris asked the afternoon I walked to Harris's. I opened the store room — & the kit bag was quite open. I fetched it up, — & when he saw all the stuff had gone he was pretty upset about it. He took the stuff that was left in his kit bag — & re-packed it in his trunk. He gave me five shillings.

STATES, after being cautioned:-

About 3 weeks ago in the morning, Lt. Martin asked me for his baggage. He gave me some papers to get his baggage up to the Ward. I was at the time Ward Orderly on Ward 'H'. His kit was sent up and left under the verandah on the side walk. I went to fetch it as he asked for something out of it, I don't know what it was he asked for. With Lt. I did this and I left them in the closet. The door was not locked. The next morning Pte. Craig came to me in Ward 'H' and said, "I've got some cigarettes here from Mr. Martin's kit bag", and he showed me 600 Sweet Caporal cigarettes in two cartons of 300 each. He then gave me one carton of 300 Sweet Caporal cigarettes. I did not actually take possession of them, but he said he would sell them for me. I took myself out of the kit bag one box of 1,000 Sweet Caporal cigarettes. I've still got some left, I didn't sell any. A short time later I went with Craig to an air raid shelter in between Ward 'H' and 'J'. He showed me a small wood box and inside he had quantities of Sweet Caporal cigarettes and a little black fleck pair of gloves, white pocket knife, matches (about 5 boxes), pair of puttees, razor blades (about 4 packets), one comb, two boxes of revolver ammunition.

We left it there for the day and the following day Craig fetched the stuff over to the No.1 Hut and divided it up. The articles I stated I had in the Ward from Craig were actually given to me in the No.1 Hut and not in the Ward. I have still got this stuff in my bag box. I didn't tell you at the time, but when I had the 1,000 Sweet Caporal I also took 600 Senior Service cigarettes. I have sold one carton of Senior Service cigarettes to Pte. The prosecution intends to call witnesses to establish that the accused committed the offence charged as alleged in the particulars.

D 3 Evidence for Prosecution

First witness for Prosecution: B19520 A/Cpl. F.B.H. Harding, No 1 Coy, C.Pro.C., sworn, states:

At about 1900 hours on Sept. 9th, 1944, A/Cpl. Dudley and myself were making a routine patrol in the vicinity of the Grand Hotel 18.8 in Recoaro, Italy, when Sgt. Parker C.Pro.C. [illegible] driving a jeep stopped and asked me to accompany him on a complaint. Sgt. Parker, myself and A/Cpl. Dudley then went down the street to the Hotel Nido in Recoaro. On entering this hotel the first person we met was a sergt. whose name I did not know at the time, but whom I now know to be Sgt. Salomon of the West Nova Scotia Regt. When I first saw Sgt. Salomon he was coming through the doorway of the room adjoining the room which was the lobby of the hotel, on the main floor. While Sgt. Parker and A/Cpl. Dudley stopped to interrogate this Sgt. Salomon I proceeded into the next room, that is, the room out of which I had seen Sgt. Salomon come. (At the request of the Court the witness prepared a sketch of the layout of the main floor of the hotel. The sketch is shown to the Def. Offr. who consents to the sketch being accepted by the Court. The sketch is accepted by the Court and marked Exhibit "A"). It took us about five minutes to reach the Hotel Nido after Sgt. Parker had spoken to us. The Room shown as Room 1 on Exhibit A is the room in which I first entered the hotel. The door shown between Room 1 and Room 2 is the door out of which Sgt. Salomon appeared to be coming. This is the same door which I was to go from in Room 1 to Room 2. I saw nothing in Room 2. I did not stop in Room 2 but continued to walk from Room 2 into Room 3 through the door shown between Room 2 and Room 3. When we entered the Hotel Nido it was just beginning to get dusk. I do not remember whether there were any lights on or any means of illumination being used in Rooms 1, 2 or 3 when I entered these rooms. Further I was stepping through the door from Room 2 into Room 3

N

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROS (CONT'D)

I saw a man wearing either denim or battle dress lying in a prone position on top of a woman lying on her back on the floor. I could only see them from the waist down to and including the feet. The remainder of their bodies was hidden by some kind of a stove located about half way across the room. I saw another soldier standing in the room about 2 feet beyond where the people were on the floor apparently watching them. The people on the floor were between me and the soldier standing up as I entered the room. The light in this room that is Room 3 when I entered was a little shadowy in the corners but was sufficient for me to see the occupants. I did not see any other person in Room 3 except the three people I have mentioned. I did not hear any sound coming from Room 3 before I entered it and I did not attempt to find any person in Room 3 before I entered it. As soon as I saw these people in the Room I stopped and watched them for about 15 or 20 seconds and without saying anything I turned around and walked directly back through Room 2 into Room 1 and told Sgt. Parker what I had seen and then I went directly back into Room 3 not more than one minute could have elapsed between the time I left Room 3 and the time I returned to it. I could hear the woman moaning when I first entered Room 3 and during the short time I was in there before going out to speak to Sgt. Parker. When I returned to Room 3 all the three occupants were still in the same positions they were in when I first saw them. I walked up to the soldier who was on top of the woman, put my hand on his shoulder and ordered him to get up which he did. At the time I went up to this soldier, I saw that he was lying in a prone position on top of this woman who was lying on her back on the floor. The woman was completely naked. The soldier was fully dressed. I cannot remember whether he had a hat on or not. The women's legs were spread out and the soldier was between the woman's legs. I noted as the soldier's back going up and down while on top of the woman. After the soldier had got to his feet, I saw him fiddling around with the fly of his pants but I did not actually see whether his fly was open when he got up or whether his penis was out of his trousers. I identify the accused as the soldier who was on top of the woman. When he got up I ordered him and the other soldier who was the deputy to come with me into Room 1. In the best of my recollection I was the only person in Room 3 apart from those three persons at the time. After the accused got up off this woman, the woman got up from the floor and stood up and picked a cloth which might have been a sheet or some part of her clothing off the floor and covered her body. When she got to her feet she was sniffing. At no time did I hear her scream or shout. I noted at that time there was what appeared to be blood smeared on her face, around her chin and

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROS (CONT'D)

When I ordered the 2 soldiers to accompany me into Room 1 they did so. On entering Room 1 I saw Lt Col Dudley talking to another soldier whom I had not seen before, and the Sgt. whom I now know to be Sgt. Coleman was nowhere to be seen. About 5 minutes after I had returned to Room 3 with the 2 soldiers I noticed that the 2 soldiers had disappeared. I do not know when they had left the Room 1. I did not, nor did any other person give them permission to leave. About 5 or 10 minutes after I noticed their disappearance Lt Col Dudley and myself took the soldier Lt Col Dudley was talking to from the Nido Hotel to a garage on the next street. It took us about 3 minutes to reach the garage. Just as we left the Nido Hotel the enemy started shattering the vicinity. The nearest shell landed about half a block away from us. After we got into the garage I saw these two soldiers, that is the accused and the other soldier who was a spectator, in the garage. I spoke to them and noticed the accused was wearing a beret. I asked him why he had put on a beret. He told me, to the best of my recollection "I don't know what you're talking about I have been in this garage all evening." About 5 or 10 minutes later Sgt. Parker drove up the garage and stopped his jeep down & told us to bring the steel mesh down to Section HQ. I could see there was a woman in the jeep with Sgt. Parker. I then noticed for the first time that the accused and the spectator soldier had left the garage. I do not know exactly when they left and I did not see them leave. They did not have my permission or Lt Col Dudley's permission to leave. The accompanying woman, who was a well-built blonde fellow with a mustache was taken to Section HQ. I did not see the accused again until about 1000 hours the following day, that was Sept. 10th when I saw him at an identification parade held at the West Nova Scotia Regt's lines. There was a Lt N.S.R. whose name I do not know, in charge of the identification parade. There were about 6 men on the parade lined up in a row when I reached the parade ground. I believe it was the third man on the row, I recognized the accused as the man I had found on top of the woman in the first floor. I was unable to find the other soldier who had acted as a spectator. The blond soldier I have referred was also on this parade. The accused was placed under arrest at 10 hours after I had picked him out on the identification parade. I had not seen any description of this soldier I saw hanging on the wooden before the identification parade. Nobody had asked me to describe him. (The prosecutor shows the witness some garments) I do not recognize the garments now shown to me by the Prosecutor.

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROS (CONTINUED)

CROSS-EXAMINATION: When I first entered Room 1 the Sgt whom I now know to be Sgt Solomon was standing about one foot from the door leading into Room 2. He was facing the hotel entrance. I later identified this sergt. by his voice and manner of speaking, not by his formed features. To the best of my knowledge, I entered Room 3 the first time alone. I cannot say whether there was any window in Room 3. When I entered Room 3 the first time I heard a moan and a sob. I remember saying in my evidence on the stating of the summary of evidence that when I walked into Room 3 I saw a soldier having intercourse and I walked over and grabbed him and ordered him to get up. I did not on the Sunday say that this took place the second time I entered Room 3. Because I was told when giving my evidence on the Sunday to state only the bare facts and that is why I did not say anything about going into Room 3 twice. I was instructed as to this by a Provost official when I first entered Room 3 the spectator was not holding the girl. When I entered Room 3 the second time all 3 spectators were in the same position. The spectator was not holding the woman at that time either. I am sure that when I entered Room 3 the second time and the soldier got off the woman that she did not have any clothes on her. I could not see her fully until the soldier got up. She appeared to have a very thin coating of blood on her face. The bleeding may have resulted from a tiny scratch and the blood smeared around her face. I heard faint moaning when I entered Room 3 both the first and second times. I could not tell from the moaning whether she was suffering any pain. On both occasions when I entered Room 3 I could see the soldier lying on the woman appeared to be lying motionless. I could not see the woman's arms the first time, and I am not positive as to the position of her arms the second time. I did not see from the waist to the feet of the girl until the soldier got up. When I took the soldier by the shoulder I am sure that the woman did not have either arm around the soldier. I am sure I would have noticed this. The woman's legs were spread wide and the soldier's legs were close together between her legs. The first time I moved his arms but I do not recollect doing so. There was nothing as far as I could see to indicate that the woman was being forced to do anything against her will, except the appearance of her face when the soldier got up. I noticed the blood I have described and her face looked puffed up. She looked miserable and not as though she was enjoying something. The soldier could have been scratching himself when I saw him fiddling with his fly after he got up. I did not at any time see any persons in Rooms 2 and 3 other than those I have described. When we first entered Room 1 the only persons I saw there was Sgt. Solomon. When I returned to Room 1 from Room 3 there were 2 or 3 R.C.D.'s who had apparently entered Room 1 after me. Sgt Solomon had arrived. He entered by one of the 2 doors which disappeared on the two occasions I have mentioned. As far as I know.

W.

CROSS-EXAM (CONT'D): no one had ordered them to stay on either occasion.

RE-EXAM: It was about 1915 hrs when I ordered the accused to get off the woman.

EXAM BY COURT: The woman's legs were spread out with her legs straight at the knees. The floor was almost of tile. There may have been one or two chairs in Room 3 but I did not see any beds, couches or other furnishings, except the stove. The light in Room 3 was sufficient for me to see the face of the soldier who got off the woman. It was the accused. I did not know the accused before this occurrence and as far as I know had never seen him before. Room 7 I believe was the kitchen of the hotel. As far as I could see there was no indication in Room 3 that any struggle had taken place.

EXAM BY J.A.: I did not have any difficulty or hesitation in picking out the accused at the identification parade. At the identification parade he was wearing a tin helmet. The accused has the kind of face that can be easily remembered. I cannot identify the woman I saw on the floor.

R.P. 93(B) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION: CERRI TONINA, residing at Hotel Lido, Riccione, Italy, sworn, states: (THROUGH THE INTERPRETER)

A90 I am an Italian citizen. I am unmarried. On Sept. 9th 1944 I was employed. On that day I was living at the Hotel Lido, Riccione, Italy. I had been living there for 3 or 4 days prior to Sept 9/44. On the evening of Sept 9th, 1944, at about 6 o'clock, four or five soldiers I do not know how many, entered the kitchen of the Hotel Lido, looking for wine. I told them we have no wine and the soldiers started to take food and cooks from the civilians in the kitchen. When this happened most of the civilians in the kitchen ran away. When these civilians ran would away by the soldiers remaining behind was myself an old man and a young married man, both Italians. The old man was robbed of his food and cooks and being, as I stood to run away as I was trying to run away, a soldier with a bruised hand offended me ordering for some bandage. I showed him different pieces of cloth he kept on saying no it would not do. While doing that he kept walking towards me, forcing me backwards. This soldier whispered words in my ear to which I replied "I do not understand". He kept on insisting and repeating whether it was he was whispering in my ear. On hearing this I got scared and started shouting for help. When I started to shout for help this soldier struck me on the head. He struck me about three times. Finally he threw me down. When the soldier had me on the floor I kept on calling for help. This soldier struck me a couple of times and he started to tear my clothes off. After he had taken all my clothes off he had sexual intercourse with me. After the first soldier had finished intercourse he held me until other soldiers arrived. I believe about four other soldiers had sexual intercourse with me. The police arrived on the scene and found a soldier on top of me. I cannot say whether he was the last one or not because my eyes were closed and I was in hysterics. As soon as the police took this man off of me

SECOND WITNESS FOR PROS. (CONT'D)

I ran upstairs to find some clothes to put on as I was all naked and afraid that the soldiers might return. As I went upstairs, there was some clothing in the corridor beside the door of an apartment and I picked a few things up and put them on. A policeman came upstairs and instructed me to stay in my room. He left me alone. Being afraid that soldiers might return I went downstairs to a villa in front of the hotel to look for my brother and sister. As I was going across the road to the villa the police arrived in a Jeep and took me away to their billets. I was shown a soldier and asked if he was one of the soldiers who had intercourse with me. I could not identify him as being one of the soldiers. I probably could recognize the soldier with the bruised head. I could not identify any of the other soldiers. I did not in any way give my consent to the acts of any of the soldiers having sexual intercourse with me. The soldier that the police took off of me made female contact with his penis into my female organ. I identify the torn garments now shown to me by the Prosecutor as the clothing I was wearing when I was attacked. (Clothing as the time they were torn off me when I was attacked. (Clothing placed in Bundle, marked Exhibit "B")

CROSS-EXAMINATION: Four or five or six soldiers arrived first. I did not count them. I was scared. Other soldiers came in and out of the kitchen while I was in there between the time the first group of soldiers arrived and the time I was first attacked. I do not know whether any soldiers other than those who had intercourse with me came into the kitchen while I was having intercourse. I am not sure if the first group of soldiers arrived at the kitchen. I believe it was the time the first group of soldiers arrived at the kitchen. The time between the time the first group of soldiers arrived and the time the first soldier attacked me. I cannot remember any identifying features about any of the soldiers who had sexual intercourse with me, other than the bruised head of the first soldier. I had not previously had sexual intercourse with any man. The blood on my face was caused by the soldier with the bruised head. I do not know whether the soldier with the bruised head got his head injury from me. I did not see any blood on his head. I admit that on the morning of October 6th I said that whilst I was being held another soldier grabbed my legs and a third soldier started taking my clothes off. This story I did not tell the police. The soldier who first had sexual intercourse with me did leave my room. The soldier who had sexual intercourse with me whilst one of the other two had sexual intercourse with me. The sexual intercourse took place in the room where we all slept. I struggled with all the soldiers who had sexual intercourse with me. I was struggling with the soldier who was on top of me at the time the police arrived. The police arrived I should say about 5 minutes after the soldiers arrived. The police dragged me off the soldier who was on top of me at the time and very weak. Because I was very weak I could not offer any more resistance against the last soldier who was on me. Nobody was holding me while the last soldier was on me. I have not seen the soldier with the bruised head since he had intercourse with me.

NO RE-EXAMINATION:

EXAM. BY COURT: The soldiers who had intercourse with me appeared at the time. It was fairly dark in the room when the soldiers had intercourse with me. I do not know which soldier was the last to have intercourse with me, but it was not the soldier with the bruised back. The soldier the police took off me was the last man who had sexual intercourse with me. I was not feeling well at the time the Summary of Evidence was taken.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

THIRD WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION: URBANI FERDINANDO, residing at Hotel Hida, Riccione, Italy is called by the Prosecution. This witness was not called as a witness on the taking of the Summary of Evidence. The Prosecutor states no notice of the calling of this witness was given to the accused. The accused is informed by the Court of his rights under Rule of Procedure 76. The witness, sworn, states: (THROUGH THE INTERPRETER):

I am an Italian citizen. On 9th Sept. 1944 I was employed as a storeman at the Hotel Hida, Riccione, Italy. At about 6 o'clock on the evening of ~~four~~ soldiers who were drunk, shouted up at the hotel. I was scared and ran away along with some other civilians who were in the hotel when the soldiers entered. Being the custodian of the hotel I returned about 5 minutes later to see what was going on. As I was returning I heard somebody shouting for help. As I came close to the door of the room adjoining the kitchen I looked into the room and saw CECILIA TONINA on the floor and three soldiers on top of her and another soldier leaning up against the wall. I saw CECILIA TONINA struggling and heard her shouting for help. On seeing and hearing this I rushed out to get help. I went and found a civilian who took me to a little English soldier and told him what was happening. He then returned to the hotel the police had already arrived. About 20 or more minutes soldiers. A soldier then went to the hotel and when I returned to elapsed between the time I left to look for help & the time I returned to the hotel. The room adjoining the kitchen is used as a dining room mainly.

CROSS-EXAMINATION: I am not related to Cecilia Tonina. I had known her before. I am sure there were only four soldiers who came in. I cannot say for sure how drunk the soldiers were. One of the soldiers was left on top of her and I could see everything what the other 2 were doing as there was a table between them and me. I could very well see that there were 3 soldiers I could see their heads and shoulders. I could see clearly under the table and I was able to see the soldier who was on top of her. I could not see whether he had any clothing on. I cannot identify any of the soldiers who were in the room with Cecilia Tonina.

NO RE-EXAM:

EXAM BY THE COURT: There is a stove in the kitchen but not in the room mainly used from the soldiers and Cecilia Tonina.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION: DOCTOR Jan Franco Ajjioni, a civilian doctor, residing in Rimini, Italy, sworn, states:

At about 9 o'clock in the evening of September 9th, 1944, I examined Signorina Celli Tonina. She was suffering from nervous shocks. There were abrasions on her face and on her hands, and also an abrasion ~~on the~~ on the left breast. There were bruises on the inside of the thighs of both her legs. There were also abrasions apparently made by the scratching of finger nails on the inside of the thighs of both legs. There was dried blood which had formed between her hairs near her wombs.

CROSS-EXAMINATION: Her nervous condition could have been caused by having sexual intercourse with a number of men. In my opinion she had had sexual intercourse prior to the 9th September 1944.

RE-EXAM: In my opinion she had had sexual intercourse on the night of Sept 9th, 1944.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION: B95591, Sgt. G.F. Parkes, No1 Coy, C.Pro.C., sworn, states:

At about 1900 hrs 9th Sept. 1944, as a result of information received by us from 2 R.C.D.'s I drove with them in my jeep to go to the Hotel Nido in Rimini, Italy. On the way to the Hotel I came across two Provosts L/Cpl Dudley and Harding and asked them to accompany us which they did. When I entered the hotel I saw a sgt coming towards me through the doorway of an adjoining room. This would be the room shown as Room 2 on the sketch Exhibit A. I arrested the sgt and ~~while~~ while someone sent L/Cpls Harding and Dudley into the adjoining room, that is Room 2. I then questioned the sgt. whom I did not know then. I saw L/Cpl Dudley and Harding go into Room No. 2. A minute or two later L/Cpl Harding returned to Room 1 with 2 Canadian soldiers and about a minute later L/Cpl Dudley returned alone. I told L/Cpls Harding and Dudley to keep a close eye on the 2 soldiers & the sgt & then proceeded to obtain the result of information L/Cpl Harding gave me and found a woman whom I now know to be Celli Tonina with a sheet wrapped around her. When I got close to her she started to back away from me. I told her to get dressed and put my dungarees on. On returning downstairs I found that the sgt had left and the soldiers L/Cpl Harding had brought with him ~~and~~ and Dudley the accused to be one of the two soldiers who went into the room with L/Cpl Harding. The accused and the sgt had left by the time I returned downstairs.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION'.

When I first saw the accused in Room 1 of the hotel he was wearing a civilian fedora hat. I wasn't close enough to him to decide whether he had been drinking or not. I saw the accused and [illegible] again about 7 or 10 minutes after I had left them in the custody of the provost. When I saw them again they were walking in a cowpath running out of a garage about 150 to 200 ft from the hotel. The accused at that time was wearing a beret in place of the civilian hat he had previously worn. I told Cpls Dudley and Harding who came into the garage right behind me to take care of the accused and the other soldier and take them down to their section HQ. I went to take Celli Tonina to the provost sec. HQ.

CROSS-EXAMINATION'. I ordered Cpls Dudley and Harding to take the accused into custody for the first time when I saw the accused and the other soldier coming out of the passage. This was said by me within the hearing of the accused.

NO RE-EXAM.

EXAM. BY COURT'. It was the right and the accused who I found had left Room 1 when I returned downstairs. When Cpl Harding brought the accused and the other soldier into Room 1 he said to me in their hearing, "Here is a woman in there"

EXAM. BY J.A.: At the time I entered the hotel until I left I did not hear any noise or sound other than gunfire from the time I entered the hotel until I left. I saw the accused from a distance of 7 or 8 feet while Cpl Harding brought him into Room 1. I distinctly recognize his face.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

SIXTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION'. A2248[illegible] Lt Cpl. Ely J. Dudley, No. 1 Coy, C.P.R.C., sworn, states:

I entered the Hotel Nide with Lt Cpl Harding and left Barker. Lt. Barker ordered Lt Cpl Harding and myself to go into the adjoining room of the room into which we entered the hotel. When I entered the adjoining room I observed a soldier lying on the floor with a girl underneath. The soldier was through the motions of intercourse but the soldier was standing up looking on. I immediately turned to call Lt. Parker who was talking to this Lt. I then turned to go back to the room when Lt. Cpl Harding came out of the room with two soldiers. I could clearly see the face of the two soldiers. One of them I identify as the accused.

SIXTH WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION:

CROSS-EXAMINATION: I was present at an identification parade at the WNSR. The men on this parade had on their helmets when I first saw them and I was unable to pick out the accused. I then asked that their helmets be removed and when this was done I picked out the accused as one of the two soldiers who had come out of the room with L/Cpl Harding. I did not tell the accused I had identified him until after I had informed the officer on the parade that he was the man. I did not see any struggling in the room in which I saw the soldier and the woman. I did not hear any moaning or crying. I could not see the face of the man lying on the woman. I could see the face of the soldier standing up. The soldier standing up was not the accused.

NO RE-EXAM:

EXAM BY COURT: I saw the back and right hand side of the man who was on top of the woman. He was wearing denim pants. He did not have a hat on. He was wearing gaiters & boots. I was in the room about 30 seconds. L/Cpl Harding and I went into the room together. When L/Cpl Harding brought the 2 soldiers out they both smelled strongly of liquor.

R.P.83(B) complied with.

The Prosecution is closed.

Court is adjourned at 1715 hrs 4 Oct 44 until 0900 hrs 5 Oct 44.

Court resumed at 0900 hrs 5 Oct 44

EVIDENCE FOR THE DEFENCE

First Witness for The Defence: F40981, Pte ROBERT, DAVIS, WNSR, the accused, sworn, states:

In the aft of Sept 9, 1944, I was in Rimini. I had drinking all afternoon. Towards evening around dusk I wandered into the Hotel Rubo. There were a few soldiers in there. I believe 6 or 7 soldiers in there. I went in and was talking to a couple of them in the kitchen. This was at approx 1830 hrs. I went to the door adjoining the kitchen. I looked in and saw one soldier standing watching a woman. Another soldier was preparing to have intercourse with her. When this last soldier was through he asked me if I wanted to go ahead. I did not know anything about this thing they call rope. During the time I saw these two soldiers having intercourse the woman did not cry or moan or struggle or in any other way indicate that the intercourse was ~~not~~ taking place without her consent. There was some kind of window overhead in the room and shutters were drawn over the window. There was no light coming into the room from any of the doors in the room. I could not see clearly in the room, it was pretty dusky in the room. It was light enough for me to be able to recognize any persons in the room. When the second soldier asked me if I wanted to have intercourse I answered yes. I had consumed about three quarts of lemonade over a period of about four and a half hours that afternoon. I was sober enough to ~~realize what~~ know what I was doing. This woman was lying on the floor 7 or 8 feet in front of the door. She was lying on her back with her legs open. I intended to have intercourse with this woman. With the liquor I had in me I ~~did not think~~ still could not get a hardon, and I was unable to have intercourse with this woman for that reason. When I got on her to have intercourse she never raised a hand or said a word. While I was on the woman the provost walked in, tapped me on the shoulder and told me to get up. He then took me out to the next room where there was a sgt of the Provost. I was not told I was under arrest. When I entered the hotel and saw all the soldiers around I thought there was a prostitute there. I got this impression because the soldiers were not drinking any liquor there. I was present on one identification parade. I was not identified by any woman I was picked out of the detachment which consisted of 6 men and a sgt by M/Cpl. Harding, the first witness for the prosecution. I was never at any time identified by M/Cpl Dudley, the 6th witness for the prosecution. M/Cpl Dudley did not at any time point anybody out on an identification parade to my knowledge. When I was trying to have intercourse with this woman my penis was not sufficiently hard for me to penetrate into her. I have been in the Canadian Active Army since August 2nd, 1940. I have been overseas since June 23rd, 1941. I have never had a charge of any kind laid against me since I joined the Army. I took part in the entire Sicilian and Italian Campaigns. 188 as a D.R, and lately as a member of a 6 pounder anti-tank gun crew. When off duty I am normally a pretty heavy drinker. I am 22 years old and married. I have one child. In civilian life I was a store clerk. I completed the first year of high school only. I am legally married. No person held the woman while I was attempting to have intercourse with her. She was wearing clothes while I was having intercourse with her. She looked to me as though she had a dress on which was up to her waist.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

CROSS-EXAMINATION: I was in the hotel approx. 20 minutes I stood in the doorway of the room in which I saw the intercourse taking place for five minutes. I knew both the soldiers. She did not struggle with me. She did not assist me. She did not ask me to have intercourse with her. No one charged me with rape. Before I had a chance to offer the woman some money the provost took me out. I was not placed under arrest when the provost took me out of the room. No one told me to leave the Hotel. As far as I know no civilians were present from the time I entered the Hotel until the time I left the Hotel. As far as I could see, the girls clothes were not torn. I could not see any blood on her. She did not speak to me and I did not speak to her.

RE-EXAMINATION: I did not speak Italian. I did not pay any particular attention to the details of the woman's clothing.

EXAM. BY COURT: I have seen the woman since. I saw her yesterday when she appeared as a witness in this case. I took my penis out of my pants. I tried to get my penis into her vagina but I couldn't succeed. I used my hand in guiding my penis. I knew who some of the soldiers were that I found in the hotel when I got there. I was not on duty that afternoon. I was stationed just outside the town of Riccioli. After I left the hotel I went to a garage alone. The garage was across the street from the hotel. The provost arrived at the garage after I got there. They did not say anything to me. I started on my way home from the garage alone. I then got a ride back to where I was stationed. I was wearing denim trousers. I don't believe I had a coat on when the provost found me in the Hotel. The woman did not make any sign to indicate that she was agreeable to having intercourse with me.

EXAM BY D.A.: I was on the woman for three or four minutes before the provost came in. There was another soldier in the room while I was attempting to have intercourse. He was just standing there watching. This soldier had come into the room after I had got on top of the woman. I did not notice any bruises on her body or any indication that a struggle had taken place. I did not have any blood on me. When I got up off the woman neither of my hands was bruised or scratched. I did not see any woman in the hotel until I saw this woman on the floor. I got on the woman about one minute after the last soldier had finished having intercourse with her.

R.P. 53(B) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE: Capt. Lg. Lt. Taylor, WNSR, sworn, states:

I first met the accused in July 1942. He has been in my platoon since that time up until about two weeks ago. All the time he was with me I found him to be a dependable, trustworthy and good living soldier. He was with me during the entire Sicilian Campaign and the Italian Campaign up to two weeks ago and I found he was a good man in action and carried out orders when given to him.

CROSS-EXAMINATION: I have considered the accused as being worthy of promotion. I did not promote him because I felt the job he was doing was essential in the platoon and that there were other men in the platoon who would make better N.C.O's than the accused at that time. As far as I know, the accused is not a heavy drinker.

RE-EXAM: I have never had to take any action of any kind with respect to the accused, resulting from any drinking by him.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE: Lieut. E.H. Holloway, WNSR, sworn, states:

I have known the accused since I came to the WNSR in January, 1944. During that time he has been reliable, both in and out of action. I have never had to take any disciplinary action against him. I was the commissioned officer in charge of the identification parade. The parade took place by platoons and all the soldiers were wearing tin helmets. There were three provost with me on this parade. Only one provost N/Cpl claimed to identify the accused at this time. N/Cpl Harding, the first witness for the prosecution, was the provost who picked out the accused. I cannot remember whether N/Cpl Dudley the 6th witness for the prosecution was with us on this identification parade.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEF COUNSEL

Rape is defined as having carnal knowledge of a woman other than his wife without her consent. It is necessary for the prosecution to prove penetration, consent, and identification. The defence submits that the prosecution has failed to do so. The defence has not denied that the accused attempted to have sexual intercourse with the complainant under the circumstances, seeing several soldiers in and about the hotel. The young woman herself has failed to identify the accused. The evidence of Lieut Holloway shows that one of the Provost M Cpls, M Cpl Dudley did not identify the accused at all contradicting M Cpl Dudley's evidence before this Court. The state doctor has stated that this young woman was in a nervous state and has stated further that her nervous condition could be the result of having sexual intercourse with several men. The state doctor has stated that this woman had had sexual intercourse prior to 1940. This contradicts the evidence given by this woman in court that she was a virgin. The woman herself has admitted that she had sexual intercourse with an unknown number of men prior to 1940 and has further stated that the man who was living on her when she provost arrived had suffered no restraint from her. This woman repeatedly contradicted herself. L/Cpl Harding has admitted that the blood on the young woman's face could be the result of a very minor scratch, also admitting that he did not put the soldiers found in this house under close arrest and did not order them to remain there. The defence has proven that at least 6 soldiers were in and about the room where the alleged crime is supposed to have been committed, and it has been proven that there was a great flow of traffic there as several soldiers had come in and out. L/Cpl Harding has stated that the woman was naked. The accused has stated she wore clothes from her waist up. It is one man's sworn evidence against the other. Furthermore L/Cpl Harding has stated that the moans and cries he mentioned did not indicate to him that she was suffering any pain. The prosecution has failed to produce any evidence showing that this woman was forced by the accused or by any person with the knowledge or consent of the accused to submit to sexual intercourse. Surely if she were being raped, with the amount of traffic, someone would have heard. The defence has proven that the accused had been drinking heavily all afternoon, not enough to be staggeringly drunk but quite sufficient that he was unable to exercise his fears, proving that in this case there was no penetration. The defence submits that the accused was an innocent bystander presuming he was a member of a "square" meeting his term which may be seen in any small brothel. This has been evidence by the prosecution that the accused had any intention when entering this house of committing rape and no evidence that he committed rape after he entered the house. The defence has produced at least 4 witnesses as to the excellent character of this soldier. He is a veteran soldier, happily married. I submit it is extremely unlikely that this accused would commit such a crime. It is the duty of the prosecution to establish the guilt of the accused beyond a reasonable doubt. Therefore I submit that the accused must be found not guilty of any crime.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTOR.

The prosecution has proven the absence of consent on the part of the woman, by her own evidence which is corroborated by the evidence of the three witnesses who stated he heard her scream for help and saw her struggling. The accused also states himself that the woman did not ask him to have sexual intercourse and did not assent him. It can well be imagined she was in a high state of nervous shock and fatigue as the doctor stated after struggling with at least 4 to 6 men for about an hour and would be quite unable to resist the accused at this time. As to penetration the doctor states there was penetration on that night. The girl herself states that the last man on top of her made penetration. The prosecution has shown by L/Cpl Hardings evidence that the accused was the last person on her. The accused states this woman was dressed from the shoulders to the waist. L/Cpl Harding in his evidence states she was naked. Sgt. Parker stated in his evidence he told the girl to get dressed. I suggest Sgt Parker would not tell her this if she was dressed as the accused alleges. The accused states that before he had a chance to pay her the provost pulled him off. To my mind I do not think it is likely he would pay for something he didn't have or get sexual intercourse. The accused stated he did not know anything about safeguarding on the room. The accused states he saw a man having sexual intercourse. How did he know this? The defence has brought forth witnesses as to the exemplary character of the accused. If the man is of such a good character why did not the accused assist the girl as the defending officer in his address suggested someone would have done. In closing I wish to point out that it has been proven that no consent was given by the girl to any of these men; that the accused was identified beyond a doubt and that there was penetration. I therefore submit the accused should be found guilty of the charge.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY PROS (CONT'D)

AB

SUMMING-UP BY JA

The Court should accept my advice as to the law. The Court are the sole judges of the facts.

Upon this charge, the Court may arrive at any one of the following findings:

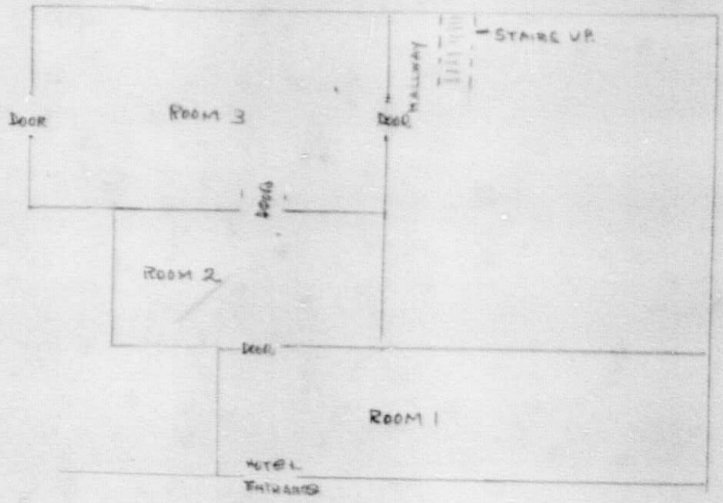
(1) Guilty of Rape
(2) Guilty of attempted rape
(3) Guilty of indecent assault
(4) Not Guilty

Rape is the act of a man having carnal knowledge without the consent of a female who is not his wife. Penetration is considered to constitute carnal knowledge. There must be actual penetration of the female organ by some part of the male organ. The slightest penetration will be sufficient: it is not necessary to prove that there was such penetration as would be sufficient to rupture the hymen. Whether there was a emission of semen or not is immaterial. It is not an excuse that the woman was a common prostitute, or had previously had sexual intercourse although unmarried. Evidence of this nature should be taken into consideration by the Court in considering whether or not she is likely to have consented. Consent to be an excuse, must be actual consent, and not mere submission, and it must be voluntary, and not extorted by force or duress or fear of immediate bodily harm. Indecent assault, is an assault accompanied with circumstances of indecency, on the part of the accused. Actual consent on the part of the woman would constitute a defence in this case to both rape and attempted rape and also to indecent assault. In other words if the woman actually consented to sexual intercourse with the accused, the Court should find him "Not Guilty."

The prosecution must prove the accused to be guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. This is a very serious charge and the Court should be very careful to satisfy themselves that the guilt of the accused has been est beyond a reasonable doubt by the evidence they have heard before finding him "Guilty." A reasonable doubt is a doubt honestly entertained after weighing all the evidence. The accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt.

It is my duty to warn the Court that in a case of this nature it is dangerous to convict on the uncorroborated evidence of the woman herself, although you can convict on her evidence alone, if you see fit to do so. The corroboration required is independent testimony which confirms in some material particular not only the evidence that the crime has been committed, but also that the accused committed it.

If the Court entertain a reasonable doubt as whether the woman voluntarily consented to have sexual intercourse with the accused, the accused should be given the benefit of the doubt and the Court should bring in a finding of "Not Guilty." If the Court entertains a reasonable doubt as to whether there was penetration by the accused, the Court should not find him guilty of rape. Penetration is not a necessary element however to constitute attempted rape or indecent assault.



It is important that the Court bear in mind that the defence contends that whether or not there was in fact a voluntary consent on the part of the woman to sexual intercourse with the accused, the accused honestly believed that she was voluntarily consenting and consequently did not have the intent to commit a crime which it is necessary

E-3 Address by Def. Off. in mitigation of Punishment

I wish to point out again the military history of the accused. He joined up in the Canadian Active Army on August 2nd, 1940, came overseas in June, 1941, fought through the entire Sicilian and Italian campaigns until the day of his arrest. Witnesses have been called who have testified that he is an excellent and well-behaved soldier. I might add that this man served as a rifleman in my own company when he first came overseas giving me no trouble. He is 23 years of age, married, has a son, is hotelkeeper married has completed one year high school and previous to the war worked as a clerk in a store in Truro, N.S. This man is a volunteer and although still a very young man has over four years' service in the army. I would ask the court to consider the fact that this man has dependent upon him a wife and son and that the court take all these circumstances including his excellent military record when awarding sentence. I submit it is perfectly clear from the evidence that the fact he had been drinking heavily while off duty was responsible for his getting into trouble. I wish also to point out that he has already spent 25 days in close arrest awaiting trial. I ask for a very lenient sentence under the circumstances.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of F40981 Pte Robert DAVIS, West Nova Scotia Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, AAI, when on Active Service.

By Order of Lt col R S E Waterman, Comd West N S R.

Evidence taken on Oath.

The interpretor T/177616 Sgt Brattersany C, FGS, As duly sworn.

First Witness
For Prosecution

Celli Tonina, Italian civilian, Hotel LIDO, Riccione, Italy, having been duly sworn states:

"At about 6 O'clock 9 Sep 44 four soldiers entered the kitchen here at the hotel. One soldier claimed to have a sore hand and asked if I had anything he could wrap it with. His right hand appeared to be bruised and skinned. Whilst he was asking me for bandages, he was backing me up. This man was fairly heavy built, full face, blond moustache. He struck me in the face after he had thrown me to the floor. I was screaming so he pushed my head back and put his hand over my face. Whilst I was being held, another soldier grabbed my legs and a third soldier started taking my clothes off. This they did, leaving me nude. The soldier who hit me held me whilst one of the other two "screwed" me. I do not know which one started but I had intercourse a number of times - first one and then the other. I was so frightened and hysterical, I did not pay much attention to their appearances. I do not believe I could recognize them. This statement was read over to me and is correct".

Signed: Celli Tonina

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness
for Prosecution

Dr. Jan Franco OGGIONI, civilian doctor, Riccione, Italy, having been duly sworn states:

"On the night of the 9th of Sept at approx 9.30 P.M. I examined Celli Tonina. I found traces of blood near the genital opening. On the inside of her legs were marks on either leg which suggested that this girl had been taken by force. There were marks on her face, and bruises on either shoulder blade plus abruise on the left of her body just below the left breast. She was in a nervous state due to the shock.

Questioned by Officer taking Summary:

Q. Was there penetration or attempted penetration?
A. From a medical point of view when a woman has had intercourse at a previous time the doctor must presume. In this case I presume that there was actual penetration.

Signed: [illegible]

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness
for Prosecution

Sgr Parker C F, No 1 Cdn Provost Coy, having been duly sworn states:

On 9 Sep 44 at approx 1900 hrs, two RCD soldier stopped me in the town of RICCIONE and informed me of a rucus which had occurred up the street. One stated he had seen an Italion run out of the house covered in blood. I suggested they come with me and we would investigate the complaint. Whilst enroute to the scene of the complaint, I came across two Provost on street patrol, L/Cpl Dudley and Harding, No 1 Provost Coy. These two men got into my jeep and we all went to the scene. I walked into the building and I saw a Sgt coming out of one room into what appeared to be the kitchen. I asked him who he was and he wanted to know what authority I had in questioning him. I proved my authority and he then stated he too was a Provost Sgt of his own unit, and later, stated he was from the West Nova Scotia Regt. I then ordered L/Cpls Dudley and Harding to go into the other room and see who was in there. Pte Harding came out with two soldiers who also claimed to be from the West Nova Scotia Regt. Harding stated that there was a women in there and it looked as though she had been raped. I left the two Provost personnel in charge of the soldiers and proceeded into the next room to investigate the alleged rape. I went up to the next landing and found a woman with a sheet wrapped around her. She was frightened and, as she thought I was one of the original soldiers, she ran from me. I convinced her who I was and told her to get dressed and come down below. On going down stairs myself, I found that the two Provost personnel had only one man in custody - three of the soldiers had gone into another room and slipped out one of the many doors. It might be noted here that the two RCD soldiers had disappeared shortly after our entering the building.

B18520 L/Cpl Harding F, No 1 Cdn Provost Coy, having been duly sworn states:

On 9 Sep 44 at approx 1900 hrs I was on patrol with L/Cpl Dudley of this company. During this patrol a Provost jeep came up driven by Sgt Parker and he asked us to get into the jeep and go up the street to help investigate a complaint. We ended up at Hotel Lido and on entering the hotel, I saw a soldier with three stripes on a denim jacket. Whilst Sgt Parker was interrogating this Sgt, I walked into the next room and found one soldier having intercourse and abother standing there looking on. The girl was stripped of all her clothes and there was blood on her face. She was moaning and crying. I walked over grabbed the soldier that was on the woman and ordered him to get up. I then took these two soldiers out to the next room where Sgt Parker had been interrogating the other Sgt. On entering, I found L/Cpl Dudley checking a fourth soldier. I do not know where he came from. Three soldiers were left in our care, the original Sgt in question was not there at the time. Two of the remaining three soldiers slipped out another entrance - an entrance we had not noticed. The remaining soldier was brought down to "D" Sec HQs No 1 Cdn Provost Coy.

A22489 L/Cpl Dudley G, No 1 Cdn Provost Coy, having been duly sworn states:

"During patrol duties with L/Cpl Harding, Sgt Parker of this coy came to us in a jeep and asked us to go along with him. We stopped at a hotel. Civilians told us that there were soldiers inside and these civies had a mass of complaints to make. When we went in, I saw a Sgt wearing a civilian hat. Sgt Parker stopped him and asked him a few questions. At first the Sgt refused to give his identification. Sgt Parker then showed him his shoulder flashes and convinced the Sgt he was a Provost. The Sgt then stated he was from the West Nova Scotia Regt. Sgt Parker then ordered us to go into the next room. With Pte Harding in the lead, we went in and I saw one soldier having intercourse. A second soldier was standing watchin. I walked back into where Sgt Parker was to call him. In the meantime Pte Harding was on the way out with these two soldiers. I then started to check a fourth soldier who was carrying a revolver. The Sgt that was originally checked was not in the room and it was found later that he had slipped away. Two of the remaining three soldiers also slipped out an entrance we did not know of. The other soldier was taken down to the Section HQs for interrogation. On an identification parade held at Sp coy WNSR on 10 Sep 44 I identified Sgt Salsman J F40702 and Pte Davis R F40981 as being concerned in the above mentioned affair.

This morning 29 Oct 43 at 1100 hrs

I search Pte Davis's kit and found in the kit bag the following articles:-

Kit bag marked Exhibit A.

Articles listed in charge less those mentions in Particulars, Exhibit B.

Bombadier Lee searches the kit of the accused.

I was present. In the kit bag, Exhibit A, these articles I first were found.

When I told the acc we were going to search his kit, he said "I have it in." He was lying in bed, and nodded towards Exhibit A and his other kit. Exhibit A was lying about 3 feet away from the head of his bed on the right of the bed.

Exhibit was in a corner of the room. There were articles of clothing on the kit bag.

Cross-examined

Q. The kit-bag was with the rest Pte's kit?

A. Yes sir. The kit-bag was in plain sight.

By the Court - Pte Davis's kit was the only one close to him.

The acc. did not say that Ex. A was not his kit-bag while it was being examined.

At 1100 hrs 29 Oct 45 Sgt Mc. Kibbin and myself searched the kit of the accused whom I identify. We found in the large kit bag, which I recognise, (Exhibit A) — a quantity of the goods mentions in the charge sheet.

The acc's kit was all together alongside of the head of his bed on the right of the bed, the kit Bag (Ex A) was about 5 ft from the head of the bed.

I knew it was the acc's kit-bag, because when the Sgt and I told the acc. we were sent to search his kit, the acc. pointed along the coast to his kit-bag and said the kit was along the wall.

Cross examined: witness states —

It was about five feet away from the bed. It was indicated to me by the acc's pointing and by his words.

The acc did not say anything when we were searching Ex A. or when we finished searching

Cross-examined

I am sure it was the acc. who came into the acc. put the lights on when he came in and put them off again when he went out.

I cannot say what it was the acc. was

The Accused was T.O.S. b. 5 Jan 23 (0) and was employed as Cook in Common Mess. During whole time he showed a keen interest in his work, used initiative and was very resourceful & economical in preparation of meals. When Cpl Purcell Davis was away on leave he was placed in charge of the Common Mess where he did an excellent job both in preparation of meals and organization, and was very clean about his person and kitchen at all times. Organized the kitchen staff well and had no trouble getting them to work. It was intended to recommend him to be placed in charge with the rank of Cpl. [redacted] It is contended that the accused could not take the risk of jeopardizing his chance of promotion for the sake of a few rations.

He is married & has three children and in considering the sentence I suggest great consideration should be given to the accused in view of the fact that now that the Commissions are in action & volunteers in addition & or liability to the Canadian Army.

H100228 Gnr Bukovich, D., RCA, on strength of Canadian School of Artillery (Overseas) having been duly sworn, states:

I am H100228 Gnr Bukovich, D. employed in the kitchen of Cdn School of Arty (O). On the morning of 29 Oct 43 between the hours of 0500 and 0600 Pte Davis brought something into the room but I am not aware of what it was. He did not stay very long and when he left I went back to sleep. When I got up in the morning Cpl Elgie, the cook in charge of the kitchen mentioned to me that some rations were missing. He asked me if I had seen Pte Davis bring anything into the room, and I told him that I had seen Pte Davis bring something into the room and go away again.

Cross examined by the accused:

Question: Do you remember when I came up stairs what colour bundle it was I had and laid down?
Answer: No.

Question: Do you remember me being in my room at midnight and talking to you and Cpl Elgie?
Answer: I remember you talking to Cpl Elgie and me but don't know if it was the night in question.

Second Witness

C248 Gnr Riddle, S., RCA, on strength of Canadian School of Artillery (Overseas) having been duly sworn, states:

I am C248 Gnr Riddle, S. employed as helper in the Gunners' Mess of Cdn School of Arty (O). On Thursday night I was on the usual job cleaning up and helping the night cook. Pte Davis was night cook that night. I was pretty busy that night and didn't notice much of Pte Davis's activities in the kitchen. I left the kitchen twice that night, the first time I am not sure what the time was. The second time was between 0500 and 0600 and I was away for about 25 minutes. It was possible that Pte Davis could have gone to his room and returned while I was gone. I know it was between 0500 and 0600 because I heard the clock strike shortly before leaving the kitchen. I don't know of anyone else in the kitchen other than the names mentioned. Both times I left the kitchen Pte Davis was in the kitchen and was in the kitchen when I returned. The first time I knew anything of this was when Gnr Bukovich told me he saw Pte Davis in his room earlier in the morning with his kit bag. The night man is responsible for the larder.

Cross examined by the accused:

Question: Who woke the day shift in the morning?
Answer: I am not sure.

Question: Did you see me leave the kitchen any time in the night during your tour of duty?
Answer: No.

(to page 2)

Second Witness (Contd) Question: Did you ever see me take anything?
Answer: No. I never saw you or any cook take anything from the kitchen.

I did not speak to him so I could not see if he was drinking or not. I put the dishes down and went out again.

Cross examined by the accused:

Question: Was there anyone else in the kitchen besides me?
Answer: Yes. Gnr Riddle was in the kitchen at that time.

Bukovich D.
H100228 Gnr Bukovich, D.

The accused having been duly cautioned under R.P. 4 (e), gave the following evidence under oath:

I am M37138 Pte Davis, T.R. employed as cook at the Canadian School of Artillery (Overseas). On the night 28/29 Oct 43 I was employed as night cook. On the afternoon of the 28 Oct 43, being payday and M.O's inspection, I asked Cpl Elgie after both parades were over if it would be all right to have time off till about midnight. He replied, "It's all right, go ahead." About 2230 hours of the night of 28 Oct I checked in at the guard room, being slightly under the influence of liquor. I proceeded from the guard room to the kitchen to start my tour of night duty. When I got in the kitchen I made myself a cup of tea. After having the tea and a sandwich I went up stairs to my room to change into my whites. I came back to the kitchen after changing and started roasting the meat for the next day. After I got that in the oven I went into the storeroom to bring out the sausage for morning's breakfast and placing them in the pan ready for the oven for 0530 in the morning. After that job was completed I watched the meat up till about 0030 hours. After the meat being completed and removed from the oven, it was placed in a big pan and put in the storeroom. I then proceeded up stairs to get some laundry I wanted to wash. Getting my laundry from my kit bag I went down stairs and started washing it. When completed it was laid on newspaper above the gas range and in no time was dry. At about 0600 in the morning I went up stairs with my laundry to wake the day shift. I threw the articles that I washed on my bed and went over and woke Gnr Bukovich and Cpl Elgie and immediately after that I went back to the kitchen. After helping serve breakfast which would be about 0730 or 0740 when completed, I went up stairs to my room. I sat down on the bed and reached for my kit bag to put the laundry in that I washed the previous night. Noticing the kit bag that I reached for was very heavy I immediately investigated to see what it contained and saw that there were rations in it. It made me very scared seeing it was a kit bag full of rations. I wanted to report the matter and figured if I did so, that I would be placed on a charge of improper possession. Then I thought of bringing them back to the storeroom. Thinking that over I knew that if I were caught in the storeroom with a kit bag of rations regardless if I were taking them out or not I would be placed on a charge of stealing, so I figured the next best thing for me was for me to wait for the right moment which would have been the night of 29/30 Oct to replace them in the storeroom. The kit bag containing the rations does not belong to me.

(to sheet 6)

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. NO (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes ~~(a)~~ (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para. if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. No. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. No. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.

PROSECUTION

The Prosecutor makes the following opening address:

"In the case before you today, I wish to point out and prove by Pte Bowles who is mentioned in the charge sheet, that he was ordered on the night of the 27 May to shadow the accused. Previously there had been reason to believe that the accused had been mixed up in shortages of rations in the men's mess. It so happened that the accused asked Pte Bowles for some cigarettes and in exchange he was going to give him a dozen eggs. Pte Bowles having orders from his senior NCOs was told to carry on with the deal and the evidence will show that the accused got the cigarettes, proceeded to give Pte Bowles the eggs in exchange and at this point the two NCOs actually saw the cigarettes being turned over and the eggs taken from the crate and given to Pte Bowles. That briefly is the story behind the case."

1st Witness, B19035 S/Sgt Green, C.R. 11 Cdn Inf Bde Wksp, RCOC, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. 4 Will you tell the Court in your own words, what happened on the night of 27 May and the early morning of 28 May?

A. 4 I am a regimental NCO of the 11 Cdn Inf Bde Wksp and any order concerning the regiment comes through the SM and is passed to me. I had several occasions on which I was told that food was missing from the kitchen. I had been called in the CO's office and told by him that I was to check this matter up and find out, if possible, where the food was going and to see who was responsible for it. This happened about three days before the 27 May. I questioned several men of the unit and through asking various questions was led to believe that the accused had something to do with this case. I watched the accused on several occasions. At 1800 hours on the night of 27 May, I ordered Pte Bowles to stand watch for a 12 hour period over the accused who was on night shift and to report to me anything he saw wrong. Pte Bowles came to my room at approximately 2300 hours at which time I was in the kitchen and on returning from the sgts' mess the SM called me in his room and Pte Bowles proceeded to give him some facts. I took from the situation that there was some deal afoot and decided that Pte Bowles would go through to the mess and carry out the deal. Previous to my telling Pte Bowles to carry out the deal, I instructed him as to what he should do. I told Pte Bowles to go the men's mess accompanied by SM Allan, go to the kitchen and give Pte Davis 3 packages of cigarettes for eggs he had been promised previously. Pte Bowles, SM Allan and myself proceeded to the mess together, Pte Bowles and SM Allan going directly in the kitchen of the men's mess and I

A. 4 concealed myself in a washroom adjoining the pantry. I waited some 15 minutes and then Pte Bowles and SM Allan came to me and said that the accused was asleep. I told them to go back and wake him up and I stayed where I was concealed in the washroom. Some few minutes passed and the accused and Pte Bowles came to the larder together. The accused opened the door, turned on the light at which time I beckoned to SM Allan who was standing a few feet from me to come up by my side. The accused took a crate of eggs from under the shelves of the larder and proceeded handing eggs to Pte Bowles. Pte Bowles on completion of this transaction turned and came out of the larder and the accused followed him out. Pte Bowles headed for a door leading outside the mess and when a few feet from the door, I stopped him and asked him what he had in his possession. He said he had nothing. I searched him and found 13 eggs. I turned to the accused and said "What is going on?" and he said "Nothing". At that time the SM and myself made the arrest.

Q. 5 At what time was the arrest made?
A. 5 At 0015 hours on the 28 May.

Cross Examination by the Defending Officer

A. 8 Only one sir.

Q. 11 Where were you when the eggs were taken from the crate?
A. 11 About 1 foot from the door of the larder.

Q. 12 Which door?

A. 13 Approximately 3 or 4 minutes.

Q. 14 Was anything said at the time?
A. 14 No, sir.

Q. 15 Nothing at all?
A. 15 No, sir.

Q. 16 He just handed the eggs to Pte Bowles?
A. 16 Yes, sir.

Q. 17 Where was the SM at this time?
A. 17 About 2 feet in front of me.

Q. 18 He was in the larder?
A. 18 No, sir, he was about 6 feet from the larder door itself.

Q. 19 What did you do after you say you found the eggs?
A. 19 I proceeded back to the kitchen itself and found three packages of cigarettes which were later identified by Pte Bowles as the cigarettes he had given to the accused during the transaction.

Q. 20 I show you three packages of cigarettes, can you identify them?
A. 20 These are the cigarettes which I picked up in the kitchen and which Pte Bowles gave to the accused.

Q. 21 Did you see these cigarettes being given to the accused?
A. 21 No, sir, I could not see as there was a wall between the two men and myself.

The three packages of cigarettes are produced to the Court, marked Exhibit "A" and attached to the proceedings.

By the Judge Advocate

A. 22 Yes, sir.

Q. 23 If I had three other packages there could you identify them?

Q. 26 What is your position in the unit?
A. 26 I am Armament SM.

Q. 27 Would you tell the Court what happened on the night of the 27 May which you actually saw and any orders you gave?
A. 27 On the 27th day of May, I had learned previously that rations were short and so S/Sgt Green and myself, with the sanction of the OC of the unit, tried to lay a trap of some description to find out who was taking rations. On the evening in question Pte Bowles met the accused in his quarters and said that he had emptied a carton of cigarettes on his bed and that the accused had offered him some eggs for some cigarettes. I told Pte Bowles to stay in my room and went over to the Sgts' Mess and got S/Sgt Green and then Pte Bowles repeated again what he had told me. Pte Bowles had been given the job of shadowing the accused for that night. He left and Cpl Rutschka, the cook in charge of the kitchen, came in and mentioned about some rations being missing in the kitchen. As a result of the information I received from Pte Bowles and Cpl Rutschka, I gave some instructions to Pte Bowles. I told him to carry out the deal he had made with the accused. Pte Bowles and I went in to the kitchen and S/Sgt Green stayed in the lobby in behind the door of the washroom. I went to the rear of the kitchen and saw Pte Bowles go in a room which is used by the cooks and heard him say "Tom, get up". This was about 2345 hours. He came out and said that he could not wake him up. Pte Bowles and I went to where S/Sgt Green had hidden himself and told him that we could not wake him up. He said "Let's try once more". We took up our positions once again and Pte Bowles once again went to the cooks room and evidently succeeded in waking the accused up. The accused came out and I saw three packages of cigarettes passed from Pte Bowles to the accused. After a few

A. 27 minutes the accused got the keys and went to the larder. I followed them. A half moment later S/Sgt Green beckoned to me and I went in and took up my position alongside S/Sgt Green. I saw the accused hand over some eggs to Pte Bowles. We waited until Pte Bowles came out the mess hall and stopped him and asked him what he was doing with the eggs. I asked the accused what was going on and he said "Noth'ng". I told him he had better come w'th me. I took him back in and then to the guard room.

Q. 28 What time was the arrest made?
A. 28 At 0015 hours.

Q. 29 Where were you when the eggs were passed to Pte Bowles?

There were about 175 cigarettes in the carton. D E F E N C E

The Defending Officer declines to make an opening address.

1st Witness, M37138 Pte Davis, T.R., 11 Cdn Inf Bde Wksp RCOC, having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q. 151 Will you tell the Court your story of this affair?
A. 151 On the 27 day of May at about 9 o'clock at night, I came to the hut where I was sleeping and changed clothes to prepare for the night shift in the kitchen when Pte Bowles approached me and asked me if there was any chance of me getting him something to eat. I said "I am getting tired of feeding you fellows out of hours, why don't you bother the Cpl cook for a change?". He said that he had been late for supper and had not had very much so I said "You come up and I will see if I can find you something". At about 1130 hours I was on table resting as there was not very much doing. I was preparing to make some cup cakes for the following noon and when Pte Bowles came up to wake me, I ignored him thinking he might go away. In about five minutes he came back and I thought I might just as well get up. He asked me what the chances were of getting something to eat. He threw some cigarettes on the table. I never touched them. I said "Give me a hand to carry some stuff to the kitchen from the storeroom and I will see what I can do for you". I stood by the range to warm up a bit, for three or four minutes and then went to the storeroom and said to him "Carry some eggs to the front end of the kitchen and I will take the liver". I told him to be careful and not to drop them. I intended to use them for the cup cakes. He put the eggs in his sweater pockets and had some in his hands when SM Allan and S/Sgt Green walked in. They asked me what was going on and I said "Nothing". That is a very common expression of mine and use it quite frequently and then they placed me under close arrest.

Cross Examination by the Prosecutor

A. 154 Yes, sir.

Q. 155 Who told you to make cup cakes that night?
A. 155 No one. The Cpl cook leaves it pretty well to the night cook to make pastries.

Q. 156 Did anyone see these cigarettes thrown to you?
A. 156 No, sir.

Q. 157 Were the cigarettes tossed on the table?
A. 157 Yes, sir.

Q. 158 Where was the liver?
A. 158 In the storeroom.

Q. 161 Did you pick up any liver?
A. 161 No, sir, I did not have a chance to.

Q. 186 Who has the keys to the room where the eggs are kept?
A. 186 The night cook has the key.

Q. 187 You took the keys over that night at what time?

Q. 189 Are they in full view of anyone who comes in there?

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

2nd Witness, H203 L/Sgt Beeston, J., 2 Cdn Armd Regt (LdSH), having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q. 204 Do you know one M37138 Pte Thomas Ray Davis?
A. 204 I do, sir.

Q. 205 Is he here this afternoon?
A. 205 Yes, sir. (Points to accused).

Q. 206 Will you tell the Court of your relationship with him in the past?
A. 206 For several months the 11 Cdn Inf Bde Wksp was attached to our kitchen for feeding. A short while ago they established their own kitchen. During the time they were attached to us, I had no cause for complaint about the accused. He always did his work well.

Q. 207 Do you know where their kitchen is now?
A. 207 Yes, sir, in the far end of the building where our kitchen is.

Q. 208 You had a joint kitchen before but now they are separate?
A. 208 Yes, sir.

Q. 209 Where is their storeroom?
A. 209 Just adjoining the kitchen.

Q. 210 About how far is it from where they do their cooking is the storeroom?
A. 210 About 70 feet.

Q. 211 What is the custom in the cookhouse of feeding men after hours?
A. 211 Well that is usually left up to the discretion of who ever is in charge of the kitchen. If a man comes in late or if he misses his supper or something of that nature we give him something to eat. Sometimes late at night when we are ahead on our rations we give the late comers a sandwich. When the two kitchens were together we had to stop the late lunches though for there was always too much arguing but since the kitchens are now separate we have again started. We usually give them a sandwich or something.

Q. 212 Even where the man has had his supper?
A. 212 Absolutely.

Q. 213 What is the practice when the men get parcels from home?
A. 213 Usually when they get parcels from home, the men like to have a loaf of bread to make sandwiches in their rooms.

Q. 214 Is it a custom for the men when they get these lunches to sometimes give you something in return.
A. 214 Yes, it is quite customary for them to return a favour and quite often they give us something. They sometimes give us cigarettes of their own accord.

Q. 215 Did you ever have any reason to suspect the accused of stealing rations?
A. 215 No, sir, I was responsible for the rations and had no occasion whatsoever.

Cross Examination by the Prosecutor

Q. 216 Have you anything to do with the Ordnance kitchen?
A. 216 No, sir.

Q. 217 The kitchens have been separate for about 6 weeks?
A. 217 Yes, sir.

Q. 218 You have nothing whatsoever to do with running the Ordnance kitchen?
A. 218 No, sir.

Q. 219 You mention that you sometimes gave lunches to the men. Did you mean men of your own regiment?
A. 219 Yes, sir. I have seen the Ordnance cooks do this as well after they started their separated kitchen.

Q. 220 When the two kitchens were together you sometimes gave lunches to both your men and our men?
A. 220 Yes, but we had to put a stop to it for when we refused some men they became very insulting.

Q. 221 Since the kitchens have separated you have started this practice again?
A. 221 Yes, sir.

No re-examination.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

3rd Witness, H3, A/L/Cpl McCalder, D.R., 2 Cdn Armd Regt (LdSH), having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q. 222 What is your job in the unit?
A. 222 I am a cook.

Q. 223 Do you know the accused?
A. 223 Yes, sir. (Points to accused)

Q. 224 Can you tell us if you ever have had any dealings with him?
A. 224 I worked with him.

Q. 225 Can you tell the Court anything about his work?
A. 225 He is a willing, efficient worker and does a good job.

Q. 226 Did you ever have any occasion to suspect him of stealing your rations?
A. 226 No, sir.

Q. 227 Is it possible for men to get something to eat after hours in your kitchen?
A. 227 Yes, sir, but we tried to discourage it as much as possible but quite often we would give them sandwiches or whatever we had on hand.

Q. 228 If they had parcels from home, would you give them anything?
A. 228 Yes, sir, we used to give them a loaf of bread or something like that.

Q. 229 You were working with the accused in the kitchen for some time?
A. 229 Yes, sir.

Cross Examination by the Prosecutor

Q. 230 Were you giving rations to just your men or to both your men and the Ordnance men?
A. 230 Mostly to our boys but sometimes we would give lunches to both.

No re-examination.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

4th Witness, Leonard Dyer, Police Constable, Maresfield, having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. 231 Do you know M37138 Pte Thomas Ray Davis?
A. 231 Yes, sir. (Points to accused).

Q. 232 Can you tell the Court anything about the accused?
A. 232 When I first came to know the accused he was in the Provost Corps and I never found anything wrong with him. I never saw him try to get rid of any rations. I also knew him when he transferred from the Provost.

Q. 233 How long have you known him?
A. 233 Ever so many months. I could not say exactly.

Q. 234 Do you know of him offering rations to anyone?
A. 234 No, sir.

Q. 235 Would you hear of anything like that?
A. 235 Yes, we work with the Security police in cases like this.

Cross Examination by the Prosecutor

Q. 236 What sort of dealings have you had with the accused?
A. 236 He was on Provost duty at Maresfield at times when I was on duty. He would stop the Army vehicles and I would stop the civilian cars on gasless days.

Q. 237 Is there another town close to Maresfield?
A. 237 Yes, Uckfield.

Q. 238 Would it be possible that these rations could be taken to Uckfield without you knowing?
A. 238 I guess it would but I have never seen him carrying a parcel coming from camp.

Q. 239 You are not there at all times?
A. 239 No, sir.

Q. 240 Is there another policeman around there?
A. 240 Yes, sir, there is another policeman stationed in the next village.

Q. 241 You acquaintanceship has been periodic?
A. 241 Yes, sir, More so when he was in the provost and used to patrol in that area.

Q. 242 Has he ever been to your house?
A. 242 No, sir.

Q. 243 So far as your dealing were with the accused, they were only as to his provost duties?

A. 243 Yes, sir. I met him only once since he transferred.

Q. 244 You are familiar with the accused's movements all the time?
A. 244 No, sir.

Re-examination by the Defending Officer

Q. 245 I believe you told the Court that you were only familiar with the accused while he was on duty. Were there no other times?
A. 245 Yes, I have met him in the pub while not on duty. I met him the first time in the pub where some men were playing crib. That is how I got to know him.

Q. 246 You have seen him in the pub since then?
A. 246 Yes, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

The Defence is closed.

The closing address of the Defending Officer is recorded on a separate sheet, marked "X" and attached to the proceedings.

The closing address of the Prosecutor is recorded on a separate sheet, marked "Y" and attached to the proceedings.

The closing address of the Judge Advocate is recorded on a separate sheet, marked "Z" and attached to the proceedings.

The Court is now closed to consider the finding.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it, and the findings of 'Not Guilty' on the second and third charge are pronounced.

Statement of Character and Service and Field Conduct Sheet signed in the manner required by A.A. 163(1)(h) and purporting to refer to the accused by his number, rank, name and Corps, are produced to the Court, read, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

President to accused

Q. 247 Do you wish to address the Court on the Statements of Character Service and Conduct and in mitigation of punishment?
A. 247 Yes, sir.

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation of punishment:

"The evidence has brought out the fact that there was a practice which went on in that kitchen of giving out food after hours and unfortunately the accused has been found guilty of giving out food and in turn receiving a gift from one of the men. He saw fit to hand over Army rations and in return received a gift of cigarettes. The Court has seen fit to consider that an offence. The evidence discloses that this practice was also carried on by people with authority in kitchens.

I think for an error of this kind, he should not be punished too severely. I would say that any cook who gives a lunch and in return receives a favour or gift, or a QM who does a favour for a man and in return receives a gift, all are guilty of an offence of a fraudulent nature."

The Court is now closed for consideration of sentence.

CERTIFIED A TRUE RECORD OF THIS TRIAL, this 4th day of June, 1943.

Judge Advocate Captain

"X" Gunn.

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

It is my opinion that the defence have put forward a plausible explanation of what happened in this case on the night of 27 May. We have in this case a man who is commonly called a "stool pigeon" who tried to set a trap to catch one particular cook.. The only reason they had for setting this trap is that rations were missing and in fact on this very night three dozen eggs were missing between the hours of 7 and 11. The accused was there between the hours of 9 and 11 and it could have been quite possible that the other cook or for that matter, anyone could have taken those keys and stole those three dozen eggs, yet the SM picked on this man to be shadowed.

So far as the cigarettes are concerned, the accused stoutly denies it. He denies making the arrangement mentioned and one question you will have to ask yourselves is "Why were all these people hovering around?". The length of that kitchen is approximately 75 feet and it is quite likely that he could give Pte Bowles these eggs to carry to the kitchen and then to possibly fry him up a couple of eggs as a favour. I hardly think that any intelligent person, who was formerly a provost, would let a dozen eggs go for three packages of cigarettes when he could get at least three or four shillings from civilians. The amount is also quite small.

Another point I note in the evidence. It seems that it is more or less hearsay where he was arrested. One of them claims that he was stopped just as he was coming from the storeroom door, while another stated that he was well outside. Pte Belanger was within 10 feet of the accused when he was awakened and the final time the accused sat up and took notice, picked up the keys and went to the storeroom and all this while nothing was said about cigarettes. Another witness tries to show that they were handed to the accused and were in his possession. Therefore it is my contention that the accused is being charged with an offence which has become a common practice in this kitchen. It has not been proved that the eggs were sold and as one of the witnesses for the defence has said it was quite frequently that they received cigarettes for favours done. It was also pointed out that all late comers were given food.

Now for the technical side of this case. I do not think the trap was laid the way it should have been for it was they would have marked the cigarettes so that they could later have identified them. My contention is that they thought it was just a possibility and there was an excellent opportunity for them to catch someone. If they had anticipated an ending such as this, why were the cigarettes not marked. We have evidence that the cigarettes were put on the table and yet nothing has been said that the accused had them in his possession.

The same remarks apply to the second charge because the necessary ingredients of the offence are, in fact, the same. I feel that all the technical points have been brought out to answer the charge of theft.

The third charge is difinitely not right for he is charged with being in possession of eggs. That is absurd. It could hardly be said that he was in improper possession.

I feel that when you review this evidence and find any reasonable doubt, the decision must be resolved in the favour of the accused for it has been said that it is better for 99 guilty men to go free than for one innocent to be convicted.

ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR

The Defending Officer says that the evidence does not disclose any proof that cigarettes were handed to the accused. Pte Bowles in his evidence says they were and this is further substantiated by SM Allan in his evidence. That makes two who actually saw the cigarettes given.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that S/Sgt Green and SM Allan, who were two senior NCOs, would hear that rations were missing and they actually told their CO and it is also reasonable to suppose that the accused who had been night cook for that week, might be suspected and therefore Pte Bowles was ordered to shadow him. How did they know rations were missing? They both said that they had been told by Cpl Rutschka and were sure the accused was mixed up in it. The trap was set. This is hardly the name for it for, even though Pte Bowles was ordered to shadow the accused, the accused made a trap for himself.

The fact that the cigarettes were not marked would also indicate that the two NCOs were not expecting any offer from the accused to drop into any plans which were made so hurriedly and a small point, although a good one, was overlooked.

ADDRESS BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE

My function is chiefly to advise you on the matters of law which are involved in this case. Your duty is to deal with the facts of the case and you are the sole judges. You will take your own recollections of what you have heard in evidence and should I express any opinion as to the facts, you are entitled to disregard my opinion for it is not binding.

The first charge is under Sec 17 of the Army Act which reads as follows (reads). The points for you to consider there are whether or not the accused was concerned in the care of public property and it seems quite likely for he was the night cook. However, it is for you to decide whether the night cook is concerned in the care of rations. The other point you have to decide is whether he gave these eggs to Pte Bowles in exchange for cigarettes or otherwise, and if he did so whether he had any fraudulent intent. I would say that as a matter of law, if he did give rations in exchange for cigarettes, that would constitute fraudulent misapplication. That is applying property to other than what he was supposed to do. I would like to read to you para 35 on page 22 of MML, (reads). That, gentlemen, is the definition of fraudulent misapplication. That is the story with regard to this and it is for you to decide. The accused places himself at variance to the story given by Pte Bowles and it is for you to determine who is telling the truth from the circumstances and to determine whether the story which Bowles gives is correct or whether the accused's story is correct.

The second charge is an alternative one under Sec 18(4) of the Army Act. I would like to read to you the definition of theft (reads).

Then you have the third charge under Sec 40 which merely charges the accused as being in improper possession of the eggs.

In connection with alternative charges, the accused, if found guilty at all, can only be found guilty of one of these charges laid in the alternative. There is very little more I have to say apart from telling you that under British justice a man is innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt--such a doubt as you would have in conducting your own personal affairs or military actions.

11 CANADIAN INFANTRY BRIGADE WORKSHOP

5 CANADIAN ARMOURED DIVISION

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

M 37138 Pte. Davis, T.R.

FIRST WITNESS

B 19035 S/Sgt. Green, C.R., Regimental N.C.O.
11 Cdn Inf Bde Workshop having been duly sworn in, states:-

"For some time it has been brought to my attention that rations have been missing from the kitchen. I was ordered by Major R.G. Farrell, O.C. 11 Cdn Inf Bde Wkshop, to take steps to stop this if possible. After questioning different personnel of this Unit I had reason to believe that Pte. Davis, being employed as a cook in this Unit, was mixed up in this stealing. I set a trap for him as follows. I ordered Pte. Bowles to stand a twelve hour guard to watch Pte. Davis in every move he made during his tour of duty. At approximately 2330 hours, Pte. Bowles came to me and said, that he had been asked by Pte. Davis to trade him some eggs for cigarettes. I immediately started the plan which I had previously talked over with ASM. Allan. This occurred on 27 May 1943.

ASM. Allan and myself accompanied Pte. Bowles to the kitchen and arrived there at 2345 hours. I went through one door to the washroom adjoining the pantry so that I could keep watch on any movements he made and ASM. Allan accompanied Pte. Bowles to the men's mess room. After some few minutes, 2345 hours, Pte. Bowles failed to awaken Pte. Davis, who at that time was asleep on the table. We came outside the mess and decided to try again. This time, 2355 hours, Pte. Bowles was successfull in awakening Pte. Davis and accompanied him to the kitchen storeroom. Pte. Davis opened the door and proceeded into the room and took 13 eggs out of a case, which was under the shelf, and handed Pte. Bowles the eggs and who ~~in turn~~ ~~gave~~ Pte. Davis 3 packages of cigarettes. At that time I motioned to ASM. Allan, who was standing a few feet from him and together we made the arrest at 0015 hours."

B 19035 S/Sgt. Green, C.R.

The accused declined to cross examine the witness

SECOND WITNESS

A 21270 ASM. Allan, N., 11 Cdn Inf Bde Wkshop having been duly sworn in, states:-

"On the 27 May 43 I learned that rations had been missing over a period of days and on making enquiries around the Unit, Pte. Davis, being employed as a cook in this Unit, was suspected. So a trap was laid by myself and S/Sgt. Green and we picked Pte. Bowles to watch Pte. Davis on the night of 27 May 43. At 2330 hours Pte. Bowles came up to the Sgts' Quarters and stated to me that Pte. Davis had seen him emptying a carton of cigarettes on his bed and had approached him by saying give me three packages of cigarettes and I will give you a dozen eggs. I then told Pte. Bowles to stay in my room until I came back. I went over to the Sgts' mess looking for S/Sgt. Green.

I did not see him in the mess but on arrival back at my quarters found S/Sgt. Green together with Cpl. Rutschka in the hall-way of the Sgts'. Quarters S/Sgt. Green and Cpl. Rutschka entered my room and Pte. Bowles repeated his story. Cpl. Rutschka then said: "That is what I have come up to see you about, I checked my eggs in the storeroom before going off duty and I checked them again approximately a half hour ago and found three dozen eggs short." S/Sgt. Green and I then planned to carry out the pre-conceived trap. We then went to the kitchen, S/Sgt. Green entering and concealing himself in the washroom, and I went through the mess hall with Pte. Bowles and entered the coal bin. Then I saw Pte. Bowles go into the room which is used by the 11 Cdn Inf Bde Wkshop cooks. I could not see anything more but heard Pte. Bowles say "Come on Tom, wake up." After about ten minutes I saw Pte. Bowles leave the kitchen. I then went out the door and I met him as he came out. He then stated that he could not wake Pte Davis up. So Pte. Bowles and myself went round to the back of the kitchen and told S/Sgt. Green. We stayed there for about Five or ten minutes deciding what to do and decided to try again. Again entering the kitchen S/Sgt. Green concealed himself in the wash room and I in the coal bin. All the lights were on in the kitchen. Five minutes later Pte. Davis and Pte. Bowles came out of the cooks' room and entered the kitchen where I could see them. They talked for a couple of minutes and then I saw Pte. Bowles put his hand in his sweather pocket and pass over to Pte. Davis three packages of MacDonalds cigarettes. Then after another one or two minutes Davis went over and got a key, what I thought was and which later proved correct the key to the storeroom and I followed them. Pte. Davis went into the storeroom using the key to the door and Pte. Bowles went inside with him. They left the door wide open and the lights on. I then went through the door into the lobby from which the storeroom leads off and saw Pte. Davis remove some eggs from a case under a shelf. We then waited until he had given the eggs to Pte. Bowles who started to put them in the pocket of his sweather and had some in his hands. We waited until Pte. Bowles made to leave the mess hall and go back to quarters when S/Sgt. Green and I stopped them the time was 0015 hours. I then turned around to Pte. Davis and asked him what was going on. He said "Nothing". I then placed Pte. Davis under close arrest and accompanied him to the guard room.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No Sir.(5)

In the case of M-37138 Pte. Davis T.R. of 30 Coy., 9 Bn., 3 C.B.R.C. Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

M-44016 BSM. McIntyre E.E. of 64 Coy. 9 Bn. 3 C.B.R.C., having been duly sworn states:-

I am M-44016 BSM McIntyre E.E. of 64 Coy., 9 Bn. 3 C.B.R.C. On 12 April 1945 at approx. 1450 hrs. I was proceeding with my Commanding Officer from Bn. H.Q. to Factory Camp at Quatrecht. At a point approx 400 yds. from Bn H.Q. along the highway towards the Brussels Highway I saw a soldier whom I now recognize as Pte. Davis. He was carrying something inside of a gas cape under his right arm. My C.O. instructed the driver, Gdsman. Page, to stop and instructed me to check the soldier. We had gone past his position about 100 yds. I got out of the jeep and was going back to check the soldier. He had gone into a Cafe.(No.29) I went in the cafe and asked the soldier for his pass. He did not have one. I told him to step outside which he did. I then asked him what he had under his arm. He told me a blanket which he was taking back to camp. The blanket was rolled inside the gas cape. I told him to proceed over to the Jeep, where in company of Gdsman. Page he gave me the blanket and gas cape which I marked and now submit as evidence (Exhibit "A") I ordered him to get into the back of the jeep and we proceeded to 9 Bn. Guard Room where I handed him over to the Guard Commander.

Q. When you first saw Pte Davis on the road, in which direction was he proceeding?

At approx. 2100 hrs on the 12 th of April 1945 Capt. Kendall of 30 Coy. gave me a written message to check the bed of Davis. I checked our nominal roll and found only one Davis on strength. This soldier was M-37138 Pte. Davis T.R. I made the check and located the bed by the number and name stamped on a kit bag on the bed. My instructions were to locate Pte. Davis' Bed and let the Coy. Comdr. Know how many blankets were on the bed. There were 2 blankets on the bed. I notified the Coy. Comdr. immediately The bed had apparently been slept in and there was also a uniform which was used as a pillow.

Q. Are you perfectly satisfied that it was Pte Davis bed which you checked ?

A. Only by the fact that it was a double bunk and the kit of Pte. Davis was at the head of the bunk on the floor.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of M-37128 Pte. Davis T.B. of 30 Coy., 9 Bn., 5 C.B.R.C. Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

M-44016 RSM. McIntyre E.E. of 64 Coy. 9 Bn. 5 C.B.R.C., having been duly sworn states:-

I am M-44016 RSM McIntyre E.E. of 64 Coy., 9 Bn. 5 C.B.R.C. On 12 April 1945 at approx. 1430 hrs. I was proceeding with my Commanding Officer from Bn. H.Q. to Factory Camp at Utrecht. At a point ap rox 400 yds. from Bn H.Q. along the Highway towards the Brussels Highway I saw a soldier whom I now recognize as Pte. Davis. He was carrying something inside of a gas cape under his right arm. My C.O. instructed the driver, Gdsmn. Page, to stop and instructed me to check the soldier. We had gone past his position about 100 yds. I got out of the jeep and was going back to check the soldier. He had gone into a Cafe.(No.29) I went in the cafe and asked the soldier for his pass. He did not have one. I told him to step outside which he did. I then asked him what he had under his arm. He told me a blanket which he was taking back to camp. The blanket was rolled inside the gas cape. I told him to proceed over to the Jeep, where in company of Gdsmn. Page he gave me the blanket and gas cape which I marked and now submit as evidence (Exhibit "A") I ordered him to get into the back of the jeep and we proceeded to 9 Bn. Guard Room where I handed him over to the Guard Commander.

Q. When you first saw Pte Davis on the road, in which direction was he proceeding?

A. He was proceeding away from the Camp towards the Brussels Highway Sir!

SECOND WITNESS

M-88098 RSM Shields A.E. of 30 Coy. 9 Bn. 5 C.B.R.C. having been duly sworn states:-

At approx. 2100 hrs on the 12 th of April 1945 Capt. Mundell of 30 Coy. gave me a written message to check the bed of Davis. I checked our nominal roll and found only one Davis on strength. This soldier was M-37128 Pte. Davis T.B. I made the check and located the bed by the number and name stamped on a kit bag on the bed. My instructions were to locate Pte. Davis' Bed and let the Coy. Comdr. Know how many blankets were on the bed. There were 3 blankets on the bed. I notified the Coy. Comdr. immediately The bed had apparently been slept in and there was also a uniform which was used as a pillow.

Q. Are you perfectly satisfied that it was Pte Davis bed which you checked ?

A. Only by the fact that it was a double bunk and the kit of Pte. Davis was at the head of the bunk on the floor.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Sworn States.

We left the Field Park on the morning of December 18, 1942 about 1000 hours. Proceeded to Horley to repair chicken coop, arriving at approximately 1030 hours. We commenced working on chicken coop at that time. We worked at chicken coop till 1145 hours. The accused and myself proceeded to a shop in Horley to buy nails. On the way back from the shop we stopped at the Gatwick Arms in Horley. We went in and had one half pint of ale each. We were there approximately five minutes. We were away from the chicken coop about twenty minutes. We then went back to place where we were repairing chicken coop and worked for twenty five minutes, then we returned to camp, arriving about 1210 hours. At 1330 hours L/Cpl. Davis, Pte. Cranley and myself proceeded to Horley arriving at 1345 hours. We then discovered that we needed another sheet of tin for the roof and we started back to the unit at 1350 hours via Gatwick and Three Bridges, arriving at Gatwick at approximately 1410 hours. We then stopped at Greyhound Inn and L/Cpl. Davis and Pte. Cranley went in. I stayed behind with the vehicle for about ten minutes. I got out of the vehicle and went into the toilet and saw L/Cpl. Davis and Pte. Cranley and stopped to find out how long they were going to stay and just then Sgt. Frazer came in and he asked me if he could have a ride with us to Three Bridges. I told him he could. He then bought me a drink, I drank it and then we left for the Unit via Tinsley Lane and Three Bridges at 1430 hours. I drove the vehicle all the way there and back. I parked it at the Greyhound Inn on the driveway facing the road parallel to the building, facing the railway tracks.

The evidence was read back to the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS
for prosecution

No. C.28705 Sgt. Everett, Perry,
No.1 Canadian Ordnance Reinforcement Unit attached
Royal Canadian Regiment.

Sworn States

On 18 December 1942 I was N.C.O. in charge of Transport for 9 Canadian Non-Divisional Ordnance Field Park to which unit I was attached. On this date at the time of the authorization of this journey I was away from the camp playing hockey for the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps Troops team at Purley, Surrey. I returned to the camp at approximately 1530 hours and remained there until the following morning. Pte. McGinnis, [redacted] was Transport Clerk whom I had left in charge of work tickets during my absence.

When a work ticket is required the person requiring same applied to me or Transport Clerk for one. A trip number was allotted to the ticket from a series of consecutive numbers. The ticket then being filled in, leaving the column for the signature of the Transport Officer for authorization. Corresponding information regarding the vehicle concerned, the destination, the duty to be performed, and the approximate time of departure, was entered on a sheet which was kept for our own reference. When vehicle left the Park the person on duty at gate entered on a sheet the time of departure, the W.D. Vehicle number, the work ticket number, the destination and driver of the concerned vehicle, completing this entry by recording the time the vehicle entered the Park. According to camp Standing Orders, the sentry or guard on duty at the gate is to assure himself that every driver has a properly authorized work ticket for the trip concerned. If that cannot be produced the vehicle is not allowed to leave the Park. It was found on checking records that the trip in question had been properly authorized by Lieut. G.T. Edwards and a corresponding entry had been made for unit record.

The evidence was read to the witness.

(C.28705 P. Everett) Sgt.
10 Canadian Non-Divisional Ordnance Field Park.

The witness is cross examined by accused.

Question:-

What was the proceedure of work tickets when two trips were necessary to complete the duty?

Answer:-

The same authorization on the work ticket allowed the vehicle to complete the duty provided that it was not necessary for the vehicle to proceed to any other destination before completing the original duty on the same day. If the duty required another day a new entry was made stating the proper date.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 25 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject as RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or J.A. (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 86.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 86.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(E)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

(vii) Summing up by J.A. if any. (RP 42.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 404, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

There are, I believe, a few considerations, beyond the cold statement of the facts presented in the Summary of Evidence, that should be in the Court's mind when sentence is passed. The first is that this man is a qualified Armament Artificer, the highest trade qualification in the Army - one in fact that is not obtained easily - and that as such he must have a full and thorough knowledge of his trade. The fact that he has been promoted to the rank of Staff Sergeant and has performed his job as such with a clear record for the past year - for the past eight months with the same Workshop - must indicate that he is quite able to do his job.

Offences, I think, may be divided into three classifications:

(1) A deliberate, premeditated crime, such as a theft or a murder.
(2) A deliberate breach of discipline in which the offender imagines that "he can get away with it", or, that at the worst, the probable punishment will be but a fair price for the ends achieved.
(3) An unintentional misdemeancur where the possibility of serious consequences is not realized at the time.

Now, let us review this offence in order to determine it's nature. Type No. 1 we can rule out without question. Type No. 2 I think we can also rule out when we remember that the accused did call at the Control Office immediately before departing with the vehicle. His intention in doing this must have been to sign the vehicle out in accordance with the regulations, as there is no other logical explanation. Surely, had he been intending a deliberate breach of discipline, he would have made all efforts to depart undetected with the jeep. Further, we must remember that his job in the Unit as a Senior N.C.O. involved a certain latitude in the use of Unit vehicles, including jeeps, for purposes of Unit business. It seems a logical conclusion, therefore, that, at the time, the accused had no idea as to the gravity of his offence, or, indeed, that he was committing an offence at all.

If then, our opinions are in concurrence that this was an offence of the third type, I am sure that we will agree that the soldier has already undergone a considerable degree of moral punishment while, during the past three weeks, the preparations for this trial have forcibly demonstrated to him the gravity of his offence.

I am not asking for mercy, gentlemen, but merely for true justice. Surely it would not be in the interests of true justice, nor would it be in the interests of our own cause, to administer further punishment that will render this man incapable of continuing a highly specialized job at which he has proven so proficient, and for which there are all too few men with the proper technical qualifications.

Summary of Evidence in the case of
C-34787 Armt/S/Sgt DAVIS, W.F., 1 Cdn Tank Troops Wksp, R.C.E.M.E. Exhibit "A"

The Commanding Officer directs that all evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for Prosecution.

B-4451-S/Sgt TOMES, E., 1 Cdn Tank Troops Wksp, RCEME, In the Field, having been duly sworn, states:-

On the night of 30 December 1944, I was Orderly Sergeant. Between the hours of 1915 and 1945, I saw a Willys 5 Cwt leave the Control Office with C-34787 Armt/S/Sgt DAVIS, W.F. driving. I entered the Control Office to see if the vehicle had been signed out as per regulations. It had not and B-112795 Cpl. DRYBROUGH, V.J. signed it out. I did not see the jeep or any further sign of it that night. I thought that having seen that the jeep was signed out was sufficient. The jeep I could not identify as to number.

Cross-examination by the Presiding Officer.

A. Yes, I saw him mount it.

Statement of M-62323 Q.M.S., NELSON, O.M. continues:-

Second Witness for Prosecution

C-34787 Armt/S/Sgt DAVIS, W.F. would not be on parade and that he would like to see me in his room. After parade, I proceeded to his room where he reported to me that the previous night, 30 December 1944, he had fallen downstairs and injured his back. He was sent on Sick Parade that morning, 31 December 1944, and on his return was placed under Close Arrest. Later in the morning, B-94412, SM HENSON, E. was consulted and as S/Sgt DAVIS was too ill to be out of bed, the close arrest was changed to Open Arrest.

Cross-examination by the Presiding Officer.

Q. Who made the original examination upon finding of the vehicle?

A. Captain C.D. Orchard, the Company Officer. A repair price was put on the vehicle at the same time.

Q. Was this the jeep belonging to that Company?

He remained for approximately five minutes. Shortly after he had left, I heard a motor start. A few minutes later, B-4451 S/Sgt. TOMES, E., the Orderly Sergeant, entered and asked me if the vehicle that had just left had been signed for. I was instructed to make an entry in the Pool book, which I did, showing that the vehicle had been driven out at 1915 hours.

The jeep was examined by myself and an estimate of the cost of repairs was placed at two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

(C.D. Orchard)

Fifth Witness for Prosecution.

B-66049 Cpl. BREEN, R.B., 1 Cdn Tank Troops Wksp, RCEME, In the Field, having been duly sworn, states:-

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as " Notes ".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 96(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 96(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 80(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 42 fn 1, 80.)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

Appeal for Medigation

This man went on AWL while unit was out of line. We realize he has gone this way before. These breaks have come in spells which his youth probably has much to do with. It would be better for him and the Cdn Army if he were allowed to stay with his unit. Thus the defence asks for leniency, this being his first Court Martial, giveing this man little detention so that he may stay with is unit and some other form of punishment instead.

Lt. W. J. Armstrong, 48th Highlanders of Canada, an officer in the Canadian Army on Active Service.

A101705 Pte Davis W. W. was in my platoon and while he was in it he was a good soldier and carried out all his duties in an efficient manner. Pte Davis had come to the 48 Hgh. from the W.N.S.R. and was not entirely happy with the 48 Highlanders because he had been on outpost with his friends in the W.N.S. Regt. Steps were taken to try and get Pte Davis back to the W.N.S.R. He answered to no transfers at the front. He did a good job during his whole period with the Pl. I found Pte Davis to be a clean cut and efficient soldier.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(2), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(3)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans _____(4)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex _____, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(2) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans Do neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans Yes, sir. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans No sir.

The accused was not present when I warned the Platoon they would be moving forward that evening, but I warned him personally to that effect at 1700 hrs 5 Oct 44. At approx 1830 hrs 5 Oct 44, I called the Roll and found F.5049 Pte. Davison, J.M. to be absent, I reported his absence to the CSM.

At approx. 0900 hrs Pipe Major Gillis called a parade for the Draft which was about to leave for the Unit. I was a member of that Draft. Being Guard Commander I knew that Pte.Davison, J.M. was present on that parade, because I saw that all the accused and/or prisoners in the Guard Room who were on the Draft, attended that parade. After we had fallen in we were broken off and given ten minutes in which we were to get our equipment together and turned in our surplus kit to the Q.M.stores, after which we were to fall in again and move off. When we fell in the second time three of the accused and /or prisoners were missing one of which was Pte.Davison, J.M. I then warned them that they were to go to the front and rejoin their unit which was in the line. At approx 0915 hrs 24 Oct 44 I detailed one vehicle to transport the guard and accused and/or prisoners. When I asked Cpl McInnis my Acting Orderly Sgt. to have the guard commander andhis guard and the accused and/or prisoners brought to their vehicle, all the Guard Commander could produce was two of the five, accused and/or prisoners who were on the Draft. I searched the billets and surrounding area with the guard commander but could not find any of the accused or prisoners who were missing, one of which was Pte.Davison, J.M.

At approx 0900 hrs on 24 Oct 44 Pipe Major Gillis had a parade of all the Draft who were to leave for the front. The Roll was called and all personnel were present. The parade was broken off and given ten minutes to collect their equipment and turned their surplus kit to the Q.M.Stores. Pipe Major Gillis told to put the accused and prisonersson a vehicle which he had detailed for that purpose. I told the guard commander, Cpl Wile to put his guard, accused or prisoners on that vehicle. Cpl.Wile could produce only two of the five accused and prisoners which had been detailed to proceed on draft. Next saw him when he came up to Pl HQ after getting on objective. Was too nervous for outside so put him on OP in ho. Did job except when shedded - appeared very nervous. During stay for few days he slept little & did not eat regularly were relieved & out for short period. When moving in again was last I saw of him until he reported back to Pl. He tried to do his best while with us. No complaint as to his conduct as a soldier.

Pros in closing:- Accd was a front line soldier & facts show guilty. Surrender immaterial because intention at time of leaving is all that concerned with. No doubt accd was warned & then went absent, deserter on both charges. Must have gone with intent to avoid since went immediately after warning.

Being Guard Commander I knew that Pte Davison, J.M. was present on that parade, because I saw that all the accused and/or Prisoners in the Gd Room who were on the Draft, attended that parade. After we had fallen in we were broken off and given ten minutes in which we were to get our equipment together and turned in our surplus kit to the Q.M. stores, after which we were to fall in again and move off. When we fell in the second time three of the accused and/or prisoners were missing one of which was Pte Davison, J.M. When I asked Cpl McInnis my Acting Orderly Sgt. to have the guard commander and his guard and the accused and/or prisoners brought to their vehicle, all the Guard Commander could produce was two of the five accused and/or prisoners who were on the Draft. I searched the billets and surrounding area with the guard commander but could not find any of the accused or prisoners who were missing, one of which was Pte Davison, J.M.

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address (hands in a written address which is read, marked ----------, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)~~

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. A-3175 Sgt. Wellott, E. N., 1 Bn, Essex Scottish R., being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

J.A.

Sgt. Wellott, you as you know are to appear before this Court on a similar charge arising from this same incident. It is my duty to advise you that you need not answer any questions which you think would tend to incriminate you with respect to the charge against you. The Court, however, is the judge as to whether your answer would incriminate you or not. If the Court says you have to answer, you, of course, must answer the question put to you. But you have the right to ask the Court's ruling.

Prosecutor

Q.4 - Would you identify yourself to the Court, giving your number, rank and name and unit, please?
A.4 - A-3175 Sgt. Wellott, E. N., Essex Scottish Regiment.
Q.5 - Do you know Sgt. Davy?
A.5 - Yes, sir.
Q.6 - Is he in this courtroom?
A.6 - Yes, sir.
Q.7 - Can you point him out?
A.7 - Yes (indicating accused).
Q.8 - Do you recall the 8th of August, this year?
A.8 - Yes, sir.
Q.9 - Will you tell the Court your position in the regiment?
A.9 - Platoon Sgt., of the Carrier Platoon.
Q.10 - What is Sgt. Davy's position in the regiment?
A.10 - Section leader in the Carrier Platoon, sir.
Q.11 - Now will you just tell the Court in your own words what arrangements had been made for the afternoon of the 8th of August and what took place on that day?
A.11 - On Friday night, previous to Sunday, we had a discussion in regard to the next two days training, Saturday and Sunday. We discussed track repair drill which came up on Sunday. We decided to do it with live ammunition, the same as we had seen done at C.T.S. Mr. Grandjean, Sgt. Davy and myself had a few weeks previously concluded a 4 weeks battle drill course at C.T.S. We discussed the area. Mr. Grandjean suggested Newdown and it was agreed on. Mr. Grandjean detailed Sgt. Davy to recce the ground, find out the gun position, etc. We discussed loading the magazines, and decided to use every other round tracer. Someone mentioned he had seen one chap at C.T.S. nearly hit. Mr. Grandjean said we will take a greater safety angle. On Sunday, Mr. Grandjean and Mr. Williams were called to the C.O.'s meeting at lunch time. Mr. Grandjean instructed me and Sgt. Davy to carry on with the instruction. I told Sgt. Davy that he and I would carry on with the afternoon's training. At 1400 hours we proceeded out to Newdown area were the battle drill was to take place. The Platoon assembled. Sgt. Davy gave a lecture on track repair drill. During the lecture he described what the drill was, each man's particular job, where the carriers would be placed and also the position of the bren gun which would be firing at them. He told them live ammuntion would be used and not to do any unnecessary moving about, but there would be room to work round at their job. He went over the particulars of each point a couple of times and we proceeded with the drill. Sgt. Davy placed the gun in position and put the first two sections through. I was signalling with the flag used for firing and watching the clock, keeping time. Sgt. Davy in his lecture mentioned a flag would be used, my own position with the flag, when the flag dropped firing would start.

Q.12 - The gun was placed in position. You had the flag. Who gave instructions detailing the people to jobs in connection with the firing?
A.12 - Sgt. Davy gave the lecture.
Q.13 - Who gave instructions to the gun crew?
A.13 - Sgt. Davy did.
Q.14 - You were time keeped and to work the flag?
A.14 - Yes, sir.
Q.15 - Immediately after the lecture, did Sgt. Davy place the gun himself?
A.15 - Yes, sir.
Q.16 - What happened between the time he placed the gun in position and the first section started going through the drill?
A.16 - The men got into the carriers, drove the carriers out to their respective positions.
Q.17 - And then what happened?
A.17 - They prepared to do their respective jobs. I dropped the flag when I saw everyone was in position.
Q.18 - When was the first burst fired?
A.18 - When I dropped the flag.
Q.19 - Was that the first firing of the day?
A.19 - No, Sgt. Davy fired before the carriers came into position.
Q.20 - Where did he fire?
A.20 - Across the ground to the hill.
Q.21 - When was the next firing?
A.21 - Right after I dropped the flag.
Q.22 - Were the men in position then?
A.22 - Yes, sir.
Q.23 - And the carriers?
A.23 - Yes, sir.
Q.24 - Then Sgt. Davy fired while two sections went through?
A.24 - That is right, sir.
Q.25 - After Sgt. Davy finished firing, what happened?
A.25 - I took over to fire the gun.

Defending Officer

I don't like to object, but this offence says he failed to ensure that proper safety precautions were taken to prevent injury to participants. In the first place, Sgt. Davy was under the Platoon Sgt., was not in charge. It seems to me the question before the Court is whether when Sgt. Davy was firing he placed the gun in position himself and completed preparations for firing.

Prosecutor

I merely wanted to establish the injury and their actions, that is all. Just to place it before the Court.

J.A.

I think we had better hear what happened subsequently, if the evidence of the witness can be given without naming any names.

Prosecutor

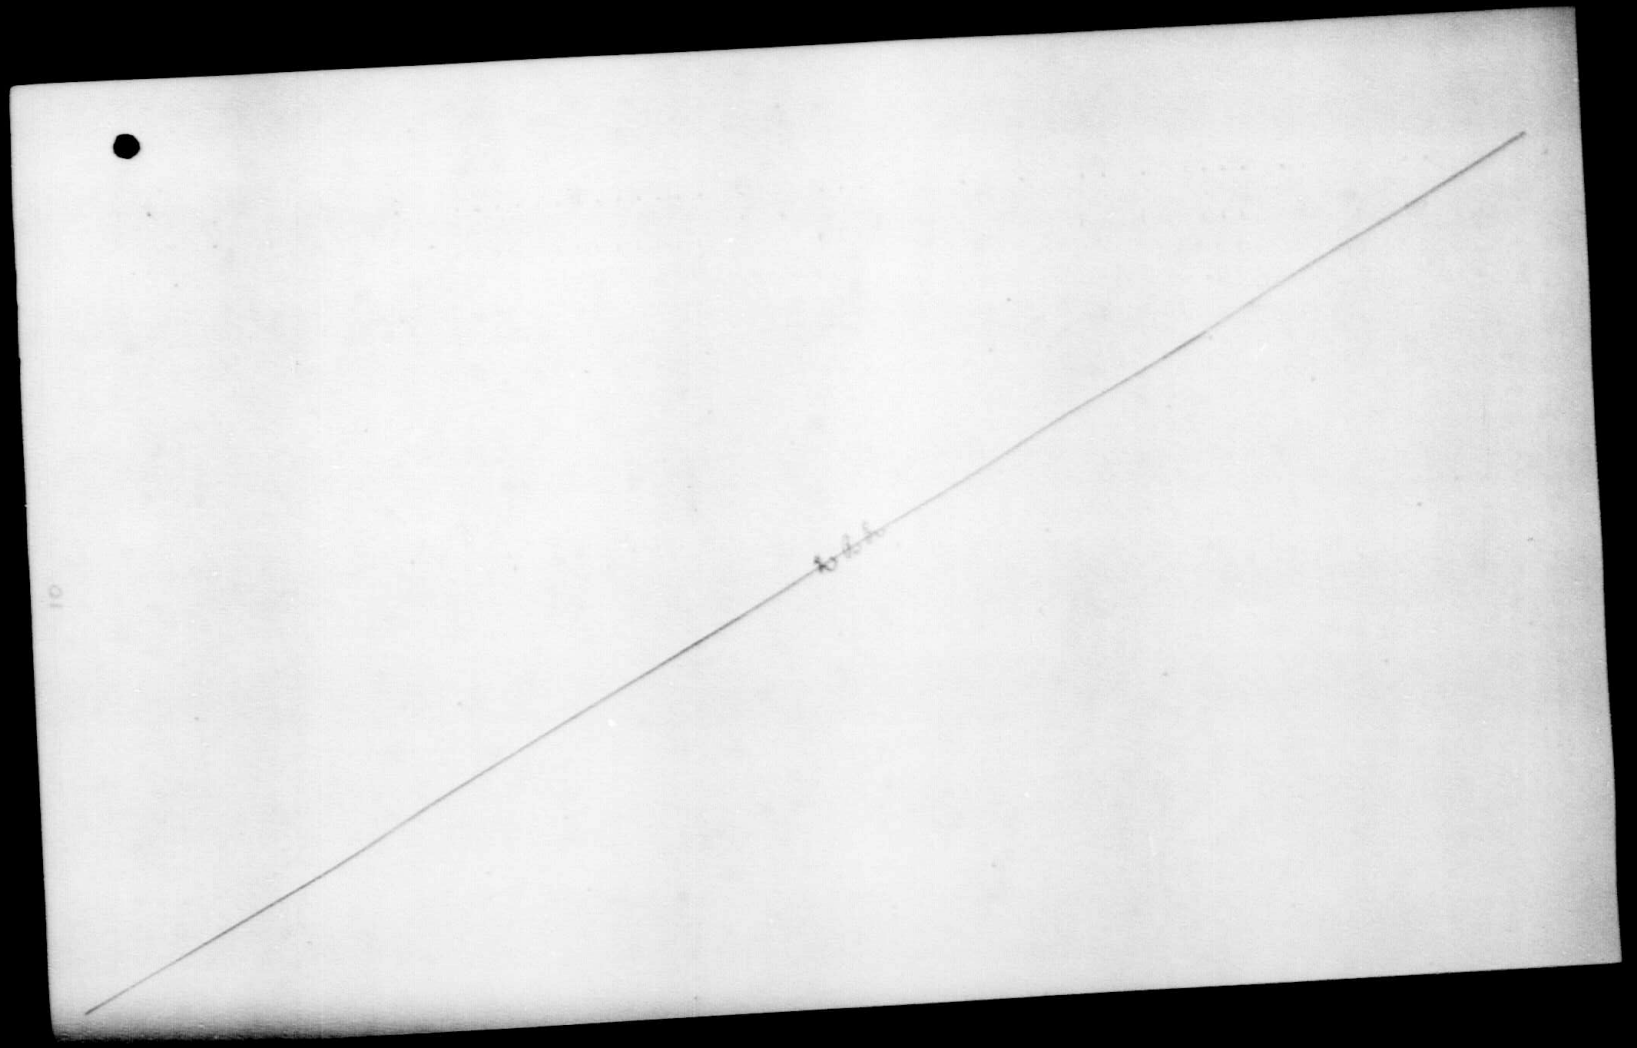
That is what I want.

Q.26 - Sgt. Mellott, after Sgt. Davy finished firing over the first two sections and they finished the drill, then what happened? Someone else took the gun. What was he told?
A.26 - The gun was dead on, to take the same aiming mark.
Q.27 - Where was the aiming mark?
A.27 - Beyond the carriers, sir.
Q.28 - Where, on the ground or in the air?
A.28 - A piece of overturned sod made by a tank turn.
Q.29 - Then sombody took over the gun and commenced firing.
A.29 - Yes, sir.
Q.30 - Then what happened?
A.30 - The accident took place.
Q.31 - What accident?
A.31 - One of the drivers of the carriers fell with a bullet in head.
Q.32 - Do you know the name of the driver?
A.32 - Chapman, sir.

J.A.

Q.33 - Sgt. Mellott, when Sgt. Davy turned over the gun, did he definitely point out the firing mark on the ground?
A.33 - He told me to use the same mark.
Q.34 - Did he identify the airiming mark?
A.34 - I think he said 'it was a piece of sod I was firing at'. I can't swear to that, sir.

Prosecutor



Q.35 - You say Chapman was hit on the head with the bullet. Do you know Sgt. Davy's qualifications regarding battle drill of this type.
A.35 - He had considerable experience. He has done it at the Isle of Wight, on Exercise Stonerforce, at the Bde Battle School and at C.T.S.
Q.36 - What do you know of these experiences?
A.36 - I was with him on two occasions, at Bde Battle School and at C.T.S.
Q.37 - I show you these two pieces of paper. Would you tell the Court what they are, what they represent? Do you recognize what is represented on the papers?
A.37 - Yes, sir.
Q.38 - What is it?
A.38 - A sketch of the position of the carriers and the bren gun at the time of the accident, a front view and a top view.
Q.39 - Which one is this piece of paper?
A.39 - The top view.

The sketch is produced in evidence, signed by the President, marked Exhibit "G" and attached to the Proceedings.

Q.40 - And this piece of paper. Will you tell the Court what that is?
A.40 - Yes, sir, it is a sketch, the front view, at the time of the scene of the accident.

The sketch is produced in evidence, signed by the President, marked Exhibit "H", and attached to the Proceedings

Q.41 - You indicated you were present when preparations for the firing were actually made?

A.41 - Yes, sir.

Q.42 - Will you tell the Court your opinion of this ground picked for this type of training?

A.42 - I think it was an exceptionally good area, sir.

Q.43 - Will you tell the Court the nature of the type of ground picked?

A.43 - The carriers were in a hollow, and the bren gun was mounted to one side, up on a knoll. Across from the knoll was a slope.

Q.44 - What was the nature of the ground itself?

A.44 - It was sod, sir.

Q.45 - What type of soil?

A.45 - I would say reasonably firm. It wasn't hard, and not exactly soft.

Q.46 - How was the ground where the bullets landed?

A.46 - The same, sir.

Q.47 - When preparations were being made for the firing, how much clearance would you say there was over the carriers?

A.47 - That was determined by Sgt. Davy, sir, before he fired over the carriers. Before the carriers were driven in. When he fired, after the carriers were driven in I was down at the flag and I don't know how much safety angle he used.

Q.48 - From your observations what would you say was the distance the firing passed over the carriers?

A.48 - I don't know what was done, sir.

Q.49 - Before the carriers were in place, did Sgt. Davy fire across this valley?

A.49 - Yes, sir.

Q.50 - What was in the valley when he first fired with the bren?

A.50 - Nothing, sir.

Q.51 - Sgt. Will you look at what I show you and tell the Court what it is?

A.51 - It is a weapon training pamphlet, Small Arms Training, Volume I, Pamphlet No.14 it deals with field firing, battle inoculation.

Q.52 - Have you seen it before?

A.52 - Yes, sir.

Q.53 - Where?

A.53 - Possibly in the Platoon or Coy office. There are numerous pamphlets there. I may have seen it there, sir.

Q.54 - Will you tell the Court what section 2 on p.32 provides with regard to simulating battle conditions?

A.54 - Under this heading, sir, "The Use of Live Ammunition for Simulating Battle Conditions"?

Q.55 - Yes?

A.55 - Yes, sir (reads the section).

The pamphlet is produced in evidence, signed by the President, marked Exhibit "I", and attached to the Proceedings.

Q.56 - Now, Sgt. Mellott, will you just tell the Court what you know about the gun that was being used in this battle drill?

A.56 - I was familiar with all the weapons in the Platoon, sir.

Q.57 - What was Sgt. Davy's knowledge of this gun?

A.57 - He had previously been using this particular gun at C.I.S.

Q.58 - What type of gun was it?

A.58 - A bren gun, Mark I, with extending legs.

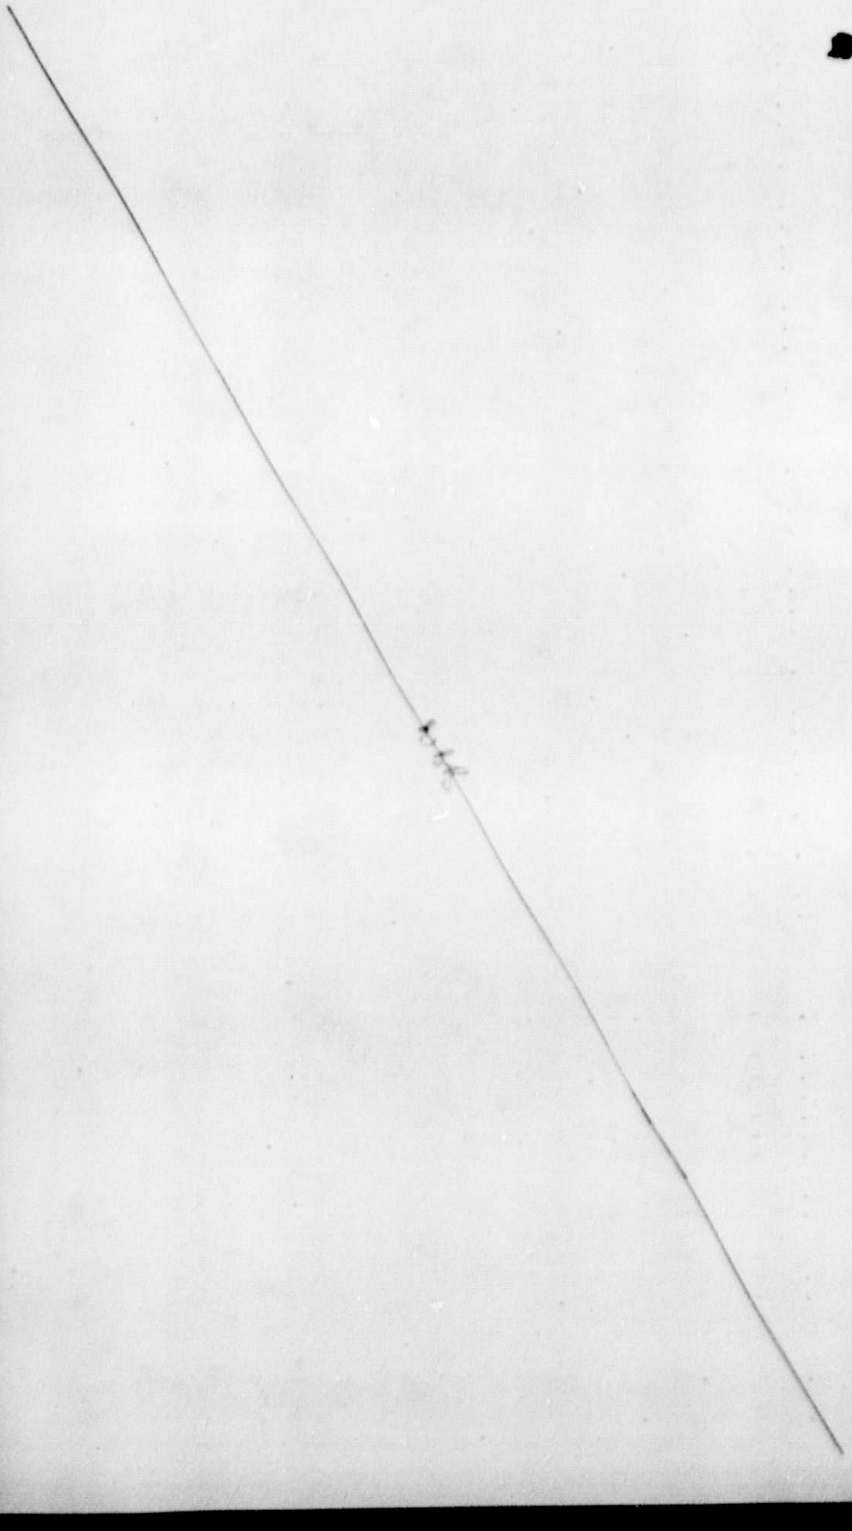
Q.59 - At this Drill on Sunday afternoon, what was the overhead margin of safety of the path of the bullets?

A.59 - At that time, I would say 3 or 4 feet.

Q.60 - Where was the firing in relation to the sections, or rather the overhead path of fire relative to the carriers?

A.60 - Overhead fire, sir, right over the carrier driver's head, sir.

Q.61 - How was the bren mounted?



A.61 - On a bipod, sir.

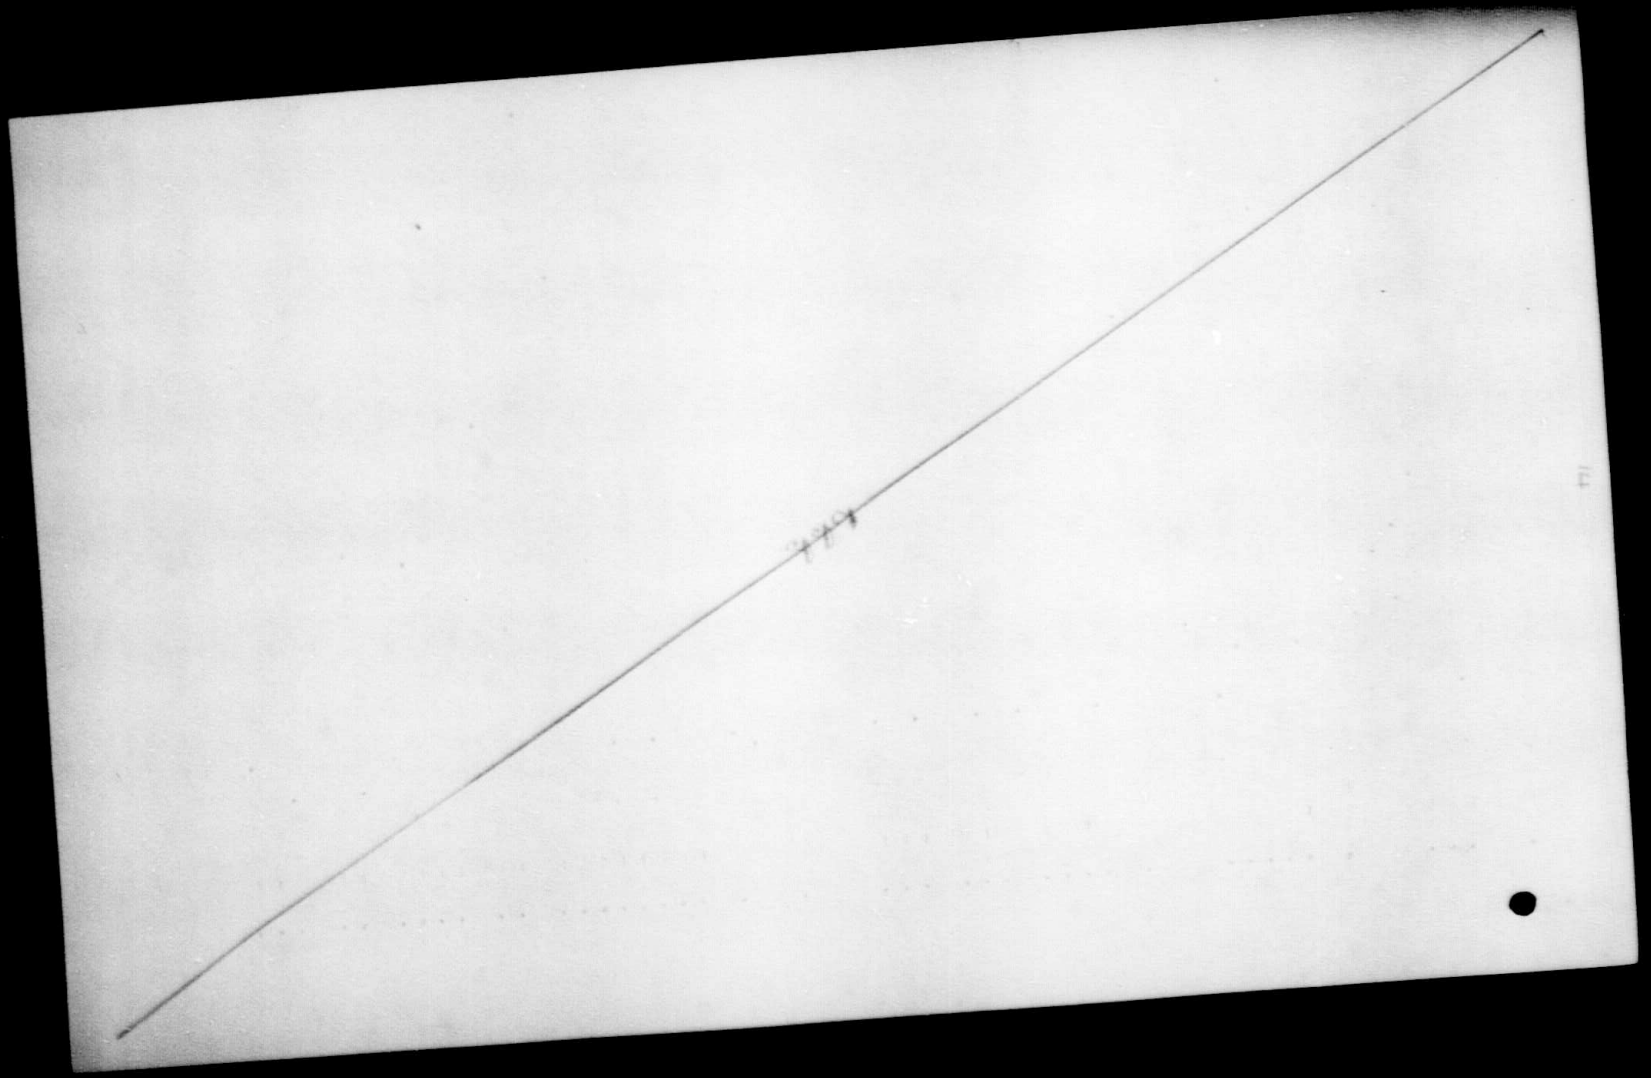
Cross-examined by Defending Officer.

Q.62 - Sgt. Mellott, your opinion as to the margin of safty at the overhead firing was 3 or 4 feet?

A.62 - Yes, sir.

WLL

Q.63 - Subsequently it was ascertained, was it not, that it was considerably more? It was ascertained that the margin of safety was approximately 12 feet?
A.63 - Yes, sir.
Q.64 - What was done on that occasion to ascertain it was 12 feet?
A.64 - An officer at C.T.S., Sgt. Davy and myself went to the scene of the accident. Sgt. Davy stood on top of a truck with his hands over his head. The officer took an aim, and ascertained it was 12 feet.
Q.65 - Before that, you were under the impression the path of fire was 3 or 4 feet over the carrier driver's head?
A.65 - Correct, sir.
Q.66 - When you were firing the bren gun, where was Sgt. Davy?
A.66 - In the position I had been, keeping time and using the flag.
Q.67 - And when Sgt. Davy was at the gun, you had the flag?
A.67 - Yes, sir.



Court

Q.68 - With respect to this test which was made. Was the bren gun in the same position as at the time of the accident?
A.68 - Yes, sir.
Q.69 - How do you know?
A.69 - Well, the ground was covered with empty casings at the spot, sir.
Q.70 - And was the aiming mark still there?
A.70 - Yes, sir.
Q.71 - Was it easily identified?
A.71 - Yes, sir.
Q.72 - Was this truck put in the same position as the carrier had been when the accident happened?
A.72 - Yes, sir.
Q.73 - You were satisfied the line of fire was the same?
A.73 - Yes, sir.

Defending Officer

Q.74 - Was the ground at the aiming mark of a type likely to cause ricochets?
A.74 - No, sir.

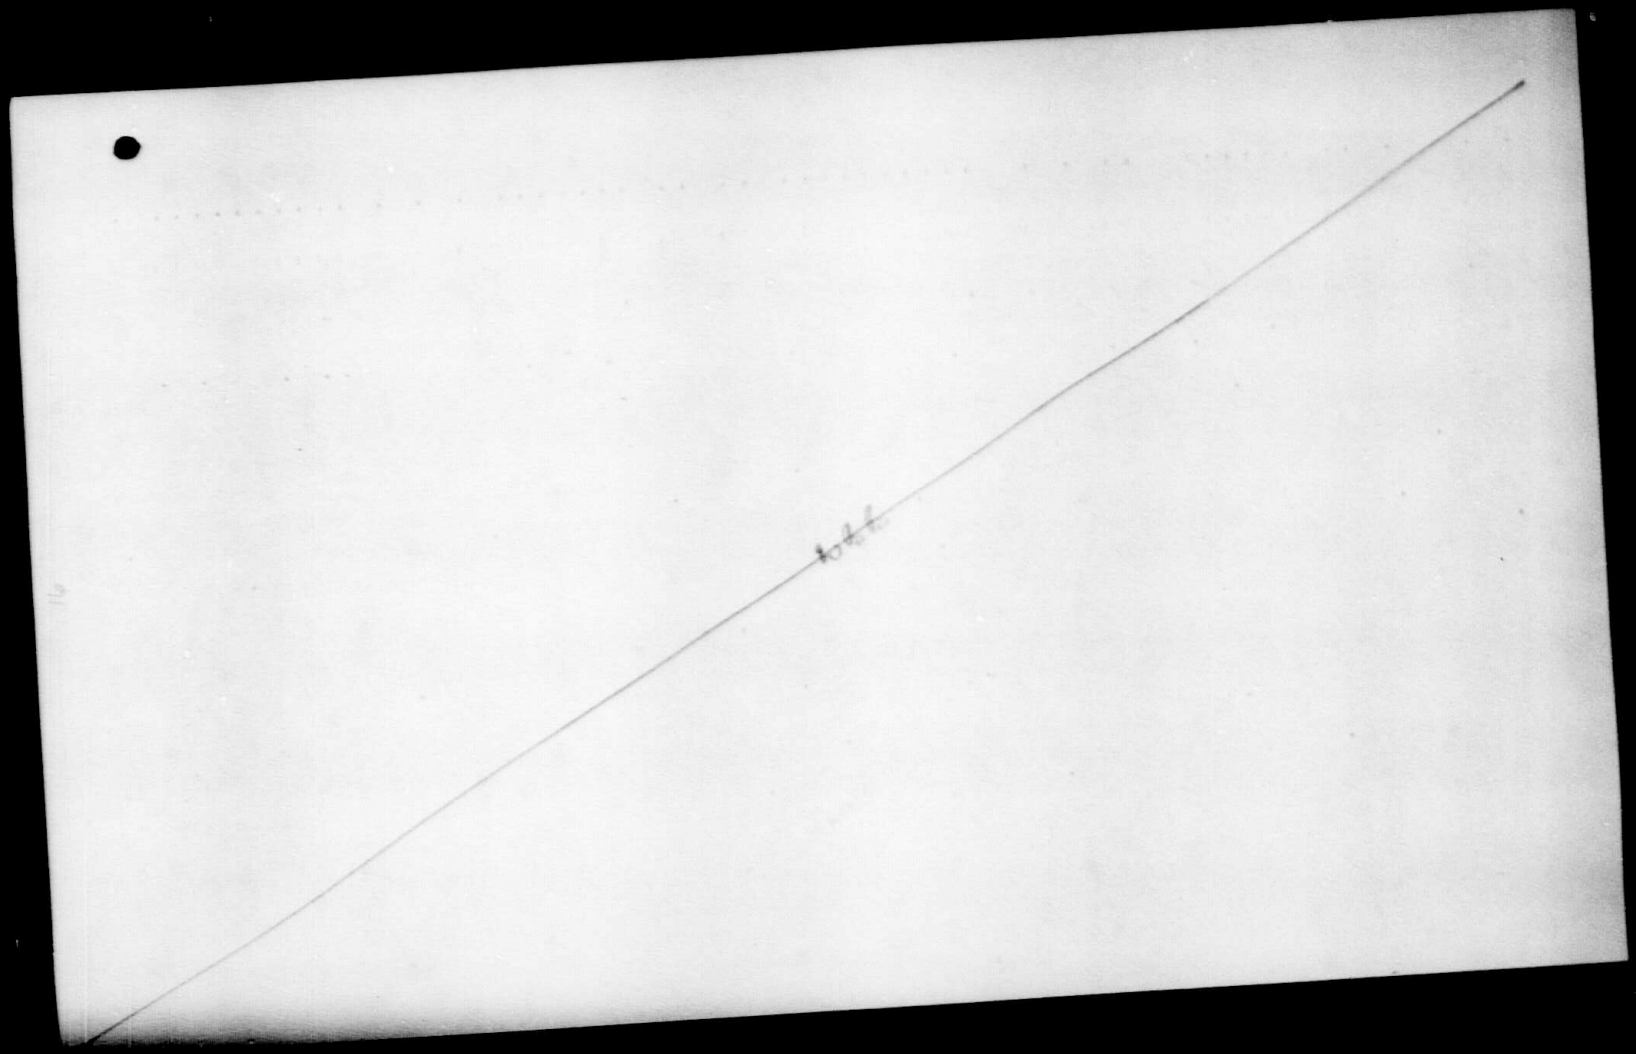
A.75 - No, sir.
Q.76 - Did you comprehend everything at that meeting?
A.76 - Yes, sir.
Q.77 - Had the gun been zeroed or not?
A.77 - Yes, sir.
Q.78 - When?
A.78 - A day or so previous to coming to the area, sir.
Q.79 - When it was found the firing passed 12 feet over the carriers, How far were the carriers from the gun?
A.79 - About 35 feet, sir.
Q.80 - What was the angle of fire when Sgt. Davy fired between the carriers?
A.80 - He fired at a point midway between the carriers, sir.
Q.81 - Allowing approximately 20 feet?
A.81 - Yes, that's correct, sir.
Q.82 - At C.T.S. what instructions were received as to angles of fire overhead?
A.82 - I didn't receive any, sir.
Q.83 - Did they lay down any safety angles of fire, or overhead margins for this type of training?
A.83 No, sir.
Q.84 - Was this type of drill carried out under fire at C.T.S.?
A.84 - Yes, sir.

K.R.L.



Q.85 - I believe you said Sgt. Davy gave a lecture to the men before this drill?
A.85 - Yes, sir.
Q.86 - You said he went over everything twice?
A.86 - Yes, sir.
Q.87 - In your opinion did he give them every instruction as to safety?
A.87 - In my opinion he did, sir.
Q.88 - You are a qualified instructor at C.T.S.?
A.88 - Yes, sir.
Q.89 - And Sgt. Davy is also?
A.89 - Yes, sir.
Q.90 - When Sgt. Davy handed the gun over to you during the drill what did he say?
A.90 - He said the gun was dead on, and to fire at the same aiming mark as what he had been using, sir.
Q.91 - You are not sure whether he said the aiming mark was this piece of sod or not?
A.91 - No, I'm not sure, but I could see where his bullets were churning up the ground.
Q.92 - So you knew where the point of aim was?
A.92 - Yes, sir.
Q.93 - Did you have any difficulty in finding the aiming mark?
A.93 - No, sir.
Q.94 - The legs of the gun were extended? Of the bipod?
A.94 - Yes, sir.
Q.95 - Sgt. Davy, from where you were standing, could you tell the exact spot on the carrier where the fire was passing overhead?
A.95 - No, sir, I could not.
Q.96 - You don't know if it was over the centre or the right or the left?
A.96 - A bit to the left, I think, sir.
Q.97 - This book of pamphlets containing Exhibit "I". Have you ever seen it before?
A.97 - Yes, sir, it is Mr. Grandjean's book.
Q.98 - Where is it kept?
A.98 - I have seen it in the Platoon office, sir.
Q.99 - Have you read many of the pamphlets in this book?
A.99 - Yes, sir.
Q.100 - What type of pamphlets are they?
A.100 - Weapon training, sir.
Q.101 - And you were Platoon Sgt. on that day, Sunday, 8th August?
A.101 - Yes, sir.
Q.102 - Sgt. Mellott, of your own knowledge, were the safety precautions as laid down in Small Arms Training pamphlets observed except as to the angle of overhead fire in this drill?
A.102 - Yes, and with the exception of the mounting of the gun on tripods, as well. No tripods were available.
Q.103 - Of your own knowledge, the only safety precation not taken was in the angle of overhead fire?
A.103 - Yes, sir.
Q.104 - And in your opinion the reason the exact number of feet laid down in the pamphlet was not adhered to was because of what you had seen afterwards at C.T.S. Battle School?
A.104 - Yes, sir.
Q.105 - How close did the firing come at C.T.S.?
A.105 - About a foot. One chap was nearly hit.
Q.106 - They didn't observe the rules of this pamphlet?
A.106 - No, sir.
Q.107 - What was the general policy adhered to at C.T.S. as far as safety precautions were concerned?
A.108 - It appeared a lot less than the rules, sir.
Q.109 - Do you remember when doing this type of training at C.T.S., firing overhead at carriers, how far was the overhead margin?
A.109 - Maybe a couple of feet.

Re-examined by Prosecutor.

Q.110 - Sgt. Mellott, you said the firing passed directly over the head of the driver?
A.110 - It looked that way to me.

Q.111 - This aiming mark you told the Defending Officer was between the carriers?
A.111 - Yes a point midway between the carriers.
Q.112 - And the overhead mark was this piece of sod turned up?
A.112 - Yes, sir.

A.113 - About 2 or 3 feet long, and the width of a tank track.
Q.114 - Will you tell the Court what preparations were taken at C.T.S. to undertake this type of training?
A.114 - The only thing I could see was giving a lecture telling what would take place, then positions of the carriers and the gun.
Q.115 - What instructions were given with regard to the position of the carriers and the position of the gun?
A.115 - There were no instructions given as regards the drill itself, what we were to do. We just watched them do it.
Q.116 - What did they do?
A.116 - The instructor showed us where he put the carriers and the gun.
Q.117 - In the course of the lecture everybody received, what were the instructions for preparing for battle innoculation at C.T.S.
A.117 - They merely said it was firing with live ammunition over carrier crews at track repair drill.
Q.118 - What were the instructions for preparing a situation of this nature?
A.118 - Just as I have stated. The instructors told us where the carriers would be placed, where the gun was, and what the crew would do repairing tracks.
Q.119 - What preparations did they make at C.T.S. for battle innoculation such as siting the ground, etc.?
A.119 - I don't know. That was done beforehand.
Q.120 - What instructions were received as to the preparations for this type of innoculation?
A.120 - I don't recall any, other than they said there would be firing.

Defending Officer puts the following question through the Court.

Q.121 - What type of shot are you with a bren gun?
A.121 - I am a first class shot, sir.

Court

Q.122 - Who holds the Senior NCO appointment in the Carrier Platoon?
A.122 - I do, sir.
Q.123 - Who is the 2 i/c of the Platoon?
A.123 - Mr. Williams, sir.
Q.124 - You are the Senior NCO?
A.124 - Yes, sir.
Q.125 - What is Sgt. Davy?
A.125 - He is a section Sgt., sir, section leader.
Q.126 - How many sections are there in the Carrier Platoon?
A.126 - Four, sir.
Q.127 - You have four section leaders under you as Platoon Sgt.?
A.127 - Ultimately, when the establishment is completed, yes, sir. We were both made Sgts. at the same time. I have been acting as Platoon Sgt.
Q.128 - Sgt. Davy passed over the gun to the second firer. It would have been possible for the second firer, if he wanted, to increase the margin of safety?
A.128 - Yes, sir.
Q.129 - In respect of the weapon training pamphlets, is it the custom in your platoon to keep these pamphlets on hand before training or do you have to seek them?
A.129 - Both, sir. Sometimes Mr. Grandjean had them on hand, sometimes we asked for them.
Q.130 - Previous to this incident, was this particular pamphlet, Exhibit "I", on hand?
A.130 - No, sir.

Q.131 - Were you beside Sgt. Davy at the time he was firing the gun?
A.131 - No, sir.
Q.132 - Were you in any position to watch the path of the tracers as it originated from the barrel of the gun?
A.132 - No, sir, I saw them going over.
Q.133 - Would it be possible for the next firer to identify the gun position from where the tracers entered the ground if seen from the side, from a lateral position?
A.133 - Will you put that question again?
Q.134 - In another way, if a man watches the tracers from the barrel of the gun to a position close to the carriers, and sees the point of impact, sees the tracers along the line of fire. Would it possible for that man to take the bren gun over and fire it where he saw the bullets enter the ground from the side?
A.134 - I could see the tracers going into that particular site, sir.
Q.135 - Will you describe the particulars of track repair drill?
A.135 - The carriers are in position. The driver remains in the carrier. The gunner takes up the position of firing. The NCO and the observer gets out, break the track, the carrier is moved off; then the driver drives back on the track and we put the track together, sir.
Q.136 - Is it necessary for any member of the crew to work standing on the carrier or take a standing position in the normal course of this drill? Or to reach for a tool?
A.136 - No, sir, the tools are all available.
Q.137 - Was this drill proceeding simultaneously with all three carriers in the section?
A.137 - Yes, sir.
Q.138 - The fire from the bren gun was sometimes directed between the carriers and sometimes overhead?
A.138 - Yes, sir, overhead of the centre carrier only.
Q.139 - The gun was firing at a variety of targets?
A.139 - Yes, sir.
Q.140 - When the first two sections went through the drill, Sgt. Davy was firing the gun and you were on the flag?
A.140 - Yes, sir.
Q.141 - Who took over when the injury occurred?
A.141 - Sgt. Davy.
Q.142 - Was overhead or flank firing taking place when the injury occurred?
A.142 - Overhead, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Q.143 - Will you identify yourself to the Court, giving your number, rank, name and unit?
A.143 - A-22591 Cpl. Lang A., Essex Scottish.

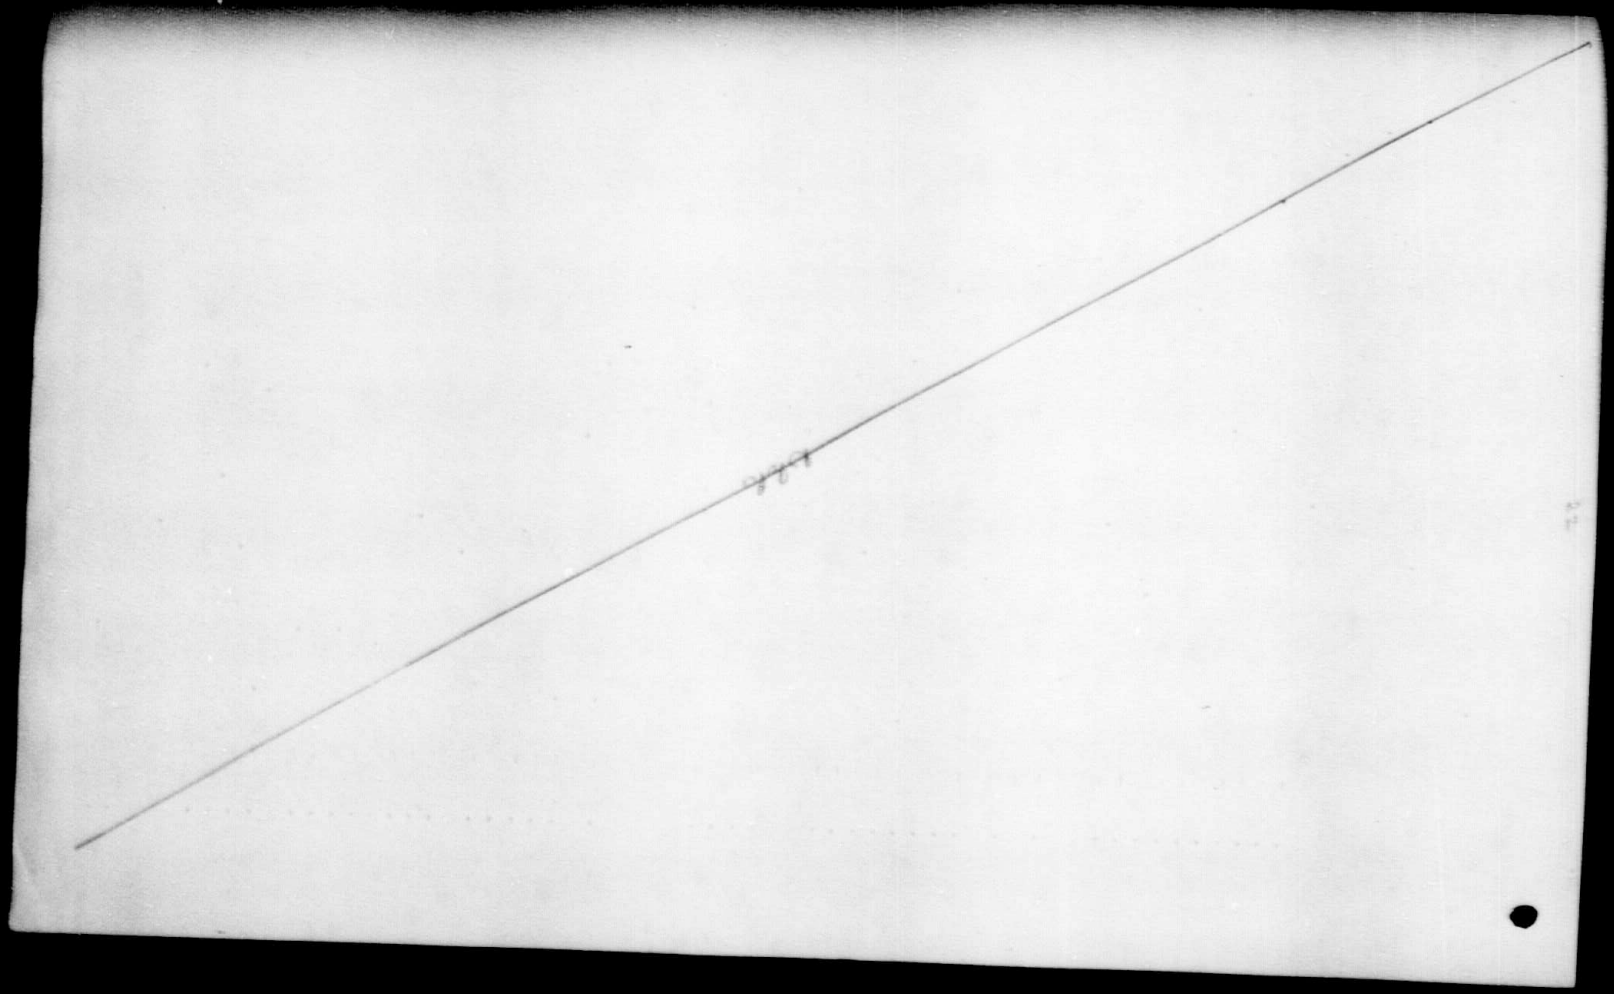
A.144 - Yes, sir.
Q.145 - Is he in this courtroom?
A.145 - Yes, sir.
Q.146 - Can you point him out?
A.146 - Yes, sir (indicating accused), right there.
Q.147 - Cpl. Lang, what is your position in the Regiment?
A.147 - I am a carrier crew commander, sir.
Q.148 - What was your position on the 8th of August, this year?
A.148 - I was a gunner, sir.
Q.149 - You have since received a promotion?
A.149 - Yes, sir.
Q.150 - Do you recall the 8th of August, this year?
A.150 - Yes, sir.
Q.151 - Will you just tell the Court in your own words what happened on that day?
A.151 - We went out to the downs for carrier repair track drill, sir.

Q.A.B.

We had a lecture on what was going to take place by Sgt. Davy. Told us there was going to be live ammunition used. Crew Commanders were told their positions, what everybody was to do, the position of the flag for firing, the sections were to be timed. Had a competition between sections. When the flag dropped get out and start out jobs. A guard was posted for firing. The driver stayed in his vehicle. Myself and another chap got outside, broke the track, carrier drove off then back on track, and we connected the track. We got through and broke off.



Q.152 - Then what happened?
A.152 - I went up the hill to where the gun was firing.
Q.153 - What type of ground was the gun firing from?
A.153 - I didn't pay much attention. It looked all right to me.
Q.154 - How was the gun fired?
A.154 - From a bipod, sir, just the usual way.
Q.155 - Can you tell the Court how many guns were fired at the drill?
A.155 - Only one, sir.
Q.156 - Where?
A.156 - Up on the hill, sir. The carriers were down in the bottom, [illegible] centre carrier, and in between the others.
Q.157 - What is your opinion of that type of ground for that type of training?
A.157 - In my opinion the position of the gun and the carriers was very good, sir.
Q.158 - Do you know Sgt. Mellott's qualifications for this training?
A.158 - He is a Q.1 small arms instructor, sir.
Q.159 - Where did he qualify?
A.159 - No.3 C.T.S. at Borden, here, sir.
Q.160 - Everything looked all right to you?
A.160 - Yes, it did, sir.
Q.161 - Can you tell the Court what safety precautions should be taken?
A.161 - You should have the gun in a firm position, a target to aim at, sir, in the background, take at least 5 degrees, fire over and around the flanks of your object, sir.
Q.162 - The gun should be in firm ground?
A.162 - Yes, sir, and should be on a tripod, actually.
Q.163 - What about the gun position there?
A.163 - The ground looked o.k. to me. I didn't pay much notice. I didn't go up and actually inspect it.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer.

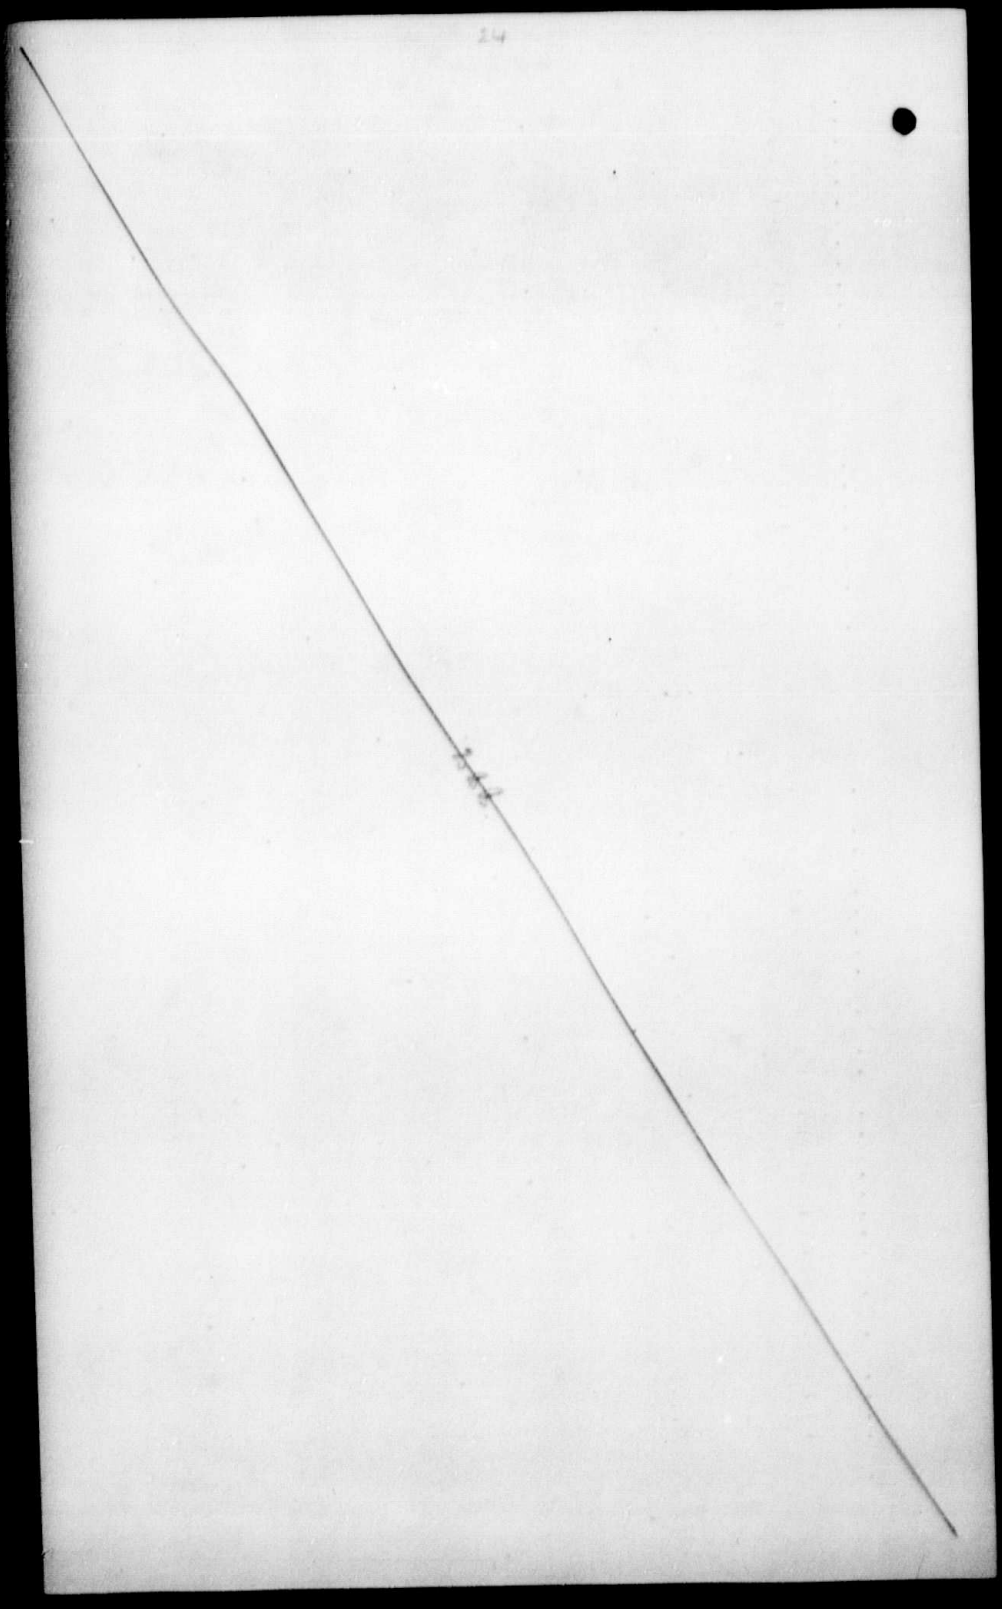
Q.164 - Cpl. Lang, I think you said Sgt. Davy was firing when you were undergoing the drill. Did you have to stand up?
A.164 - Yes.
Q.165 - Did you notice the tracers?
A.165 - I seen a few, sir.
Q.166 - Did you see the margin of safety?
A.166 - Well, standing up, working around, it didn't seem like they were close, sir.
Q.167 - Did you see the tracers?
A.167 - Just the closeness.
Q.168 - Could you say how far overhead they were?
A.168 - No, sir.
Q.169 - From your experience, were the shots far enough away?
A.169 - Yes, sir.
Q.170 - Did you see the point of impact?
A.170 - When Sgt. Mellott was firing, the bullets, tracers, was going into a piece of sod turned over by a tank track.
Q.171 - Sgt. Davy handed over to Sgt. Mellott. Were you there?
A.171 - Near there, sir.
Q.172 - What did you hear Sgt. Davy say?
A.172 - The gun was firing dead on, sir.

Re-examined by Prosecutor.

Q.173 - You did have occasion to stand up during the drill?
A.173 - Yes, sir.

Q.174 - Where?
A.174 - Breaking the tracks. I had to go back for tools.
Q.175 - You didn't notice the bullets going over your head?
A.175 - I didn't take occasion to look up.
Q.176 - Could you estimate how far they were going over your head?
A.176 - I didn't notice, just tried to get the job done in a hurry.
Q.177 - How high is a carrier?
A.177 - About up to my shoulder, about 5 feet 4 inches, sir.
Q.178 - Which side of the carrier were you, in relation to the bullets?
A.178 - Right in front, sir.
Q.179 - Between the bullets and the carrier?
A.179 - Yes, sir.

Court



Q.180 - Previous to this particular occasion on the 8th of August, had you ever had similar battle innoculations or track repair drill?
A.180 - Not myself, sir. In certain coys they had.
Q.181 - Ever had battle innoculation?
A.181 - Yes, sir, quite a bit of battle drill, sir.
Q.182 - At this drill, did it seem as though the firing was closer than usual?
A.182 - I think I have had fire come closer than that, sir.
Q.183 - Could you give any estimate of the overhead margin at any time during that drill?
A.183 - Well, it was about 3 or 4 feet, anyway.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

Third witness for the Prosecution, Lieut. E. C. R. MacDonald, Essex Scottish R., being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.184 - Will you identify yourself to the Court, please, giving your rank, name and unit?
A.184 - Yes, Lt. E.C.R.MacDonald, Essex Scottish R.
Q.185 - Will you tell the Court your position in the regiment?
A.185 - Weapon training officer.
Q.186 - You are aware of an incident that happened on 8 Aug, this year?
A.186 - Right, sir.
Q.187 - Do you know the location of that incident?
A.187 - Yes, sir.
Q.188 - I show you two pieces of paper. Will you tell the Court what they are, please?
A.188 - They are copies taken from original drawings of the area where the accident occurred.
Q.189 - What do you know about the drawings?
A.189 - The originals were made at the scene of the accident by "I" Section.
Q.190 - How correct are they?
A.190 - The scene is represented properly, I think. Exhibit "C" is the top view, and Exhibit "B", the front view.
Q.191 - I show you a pamphlet. Will you tell the Court what it is?
A.191 - It is a Small Arms Training Pamphlet, Volume I, Pamphlet No.1.
Q.192 - For what?
A.192 - Field firing.
Q.193 - Will you tell the Court, as Weapon Training Officer, whether this is available, and where it may be found?
A.193 - It is available to all officers and NCOs from "I" Section. Practically every NCO can get one if he wants to.
Q.194 - Will you tell the Court, as Weapon Training Officer, your opinion of the nature of the ground for this type of training?
A.194 - I thought it quite suitable.
Q.195 - Was it excellent ground, do you think?
A.195 - Yes, I do.
Q.196 - Was there anything to indicate the position of the carriers and the bren gun when these sketches were compiled?
A.196 - Yes, sir, the tracks of the carriers were there, and the position of the gun was shown by the empty casings and marks of the legs.

bdd.

Q.197 - How did you determine the angles of fire?
A.197 - Well the bren gun was placed in the position from which it was previously fired by Sgt. Davy and Sgt. Mellott.
Q.198 - Who indicated the position to you?
A.198 - Sgt. Davy and Sgt. Mellott.
Q.199 - Did you take another carrier and another gun?
A.199 - Yes, we made almost an exact duplication of the scene at the time of the accident.
Q.200 - Then what did you do?
A.200 - Looked at the safety angles, how high over the carrier the gun would fire.
Q.201 - How did you determine the height over head?
A.201 - Took my sight over the carrier to the point of aim.
Q.202 - What did you estimate the height to be?
A.202 - I can't recall the exact figure but I think it was about 5 feet.
Q.203 - Over what?
A.203 - Over the heads of the men in the carrier.

Defending Officed declines to cross-examine.

Court

Q.204 - Were the men in the carrier sitting down?
A.204 - Yes, at the time the tests were made.
Q.205 - You were Weapon Training Officer at that time?
A.205 - Yes, sir.
Q.206 - Had you seen the ground prior to it being used?
A.206 - No, sir.
Q.207 - What did you think of the ground for this drill?
A.207 - Excellent, sir.
Q.208 - If you had made a recce prior to the drill would you have selected it?
A.208 - Yes, sir, it was very good.
Q.209 - Did you ever see Exhibits "G" and "H" before this?
A.209 - Yes, sir, at the Court of Inquiry.
Q.210 - It has been suggested the overhead margin was 3 feet. Do you recall any discussion about that?
A.210 - Yes, sir, there was quite a bit of discussion about that.
Q.211 - Whose judgment was responsible for that estimate?
A.211 - That of the two Sgts. sir. When we went to look we found the margin was greater.
Q.212 - When was your examination made?
A.212 - Two or 3 days after the accident.

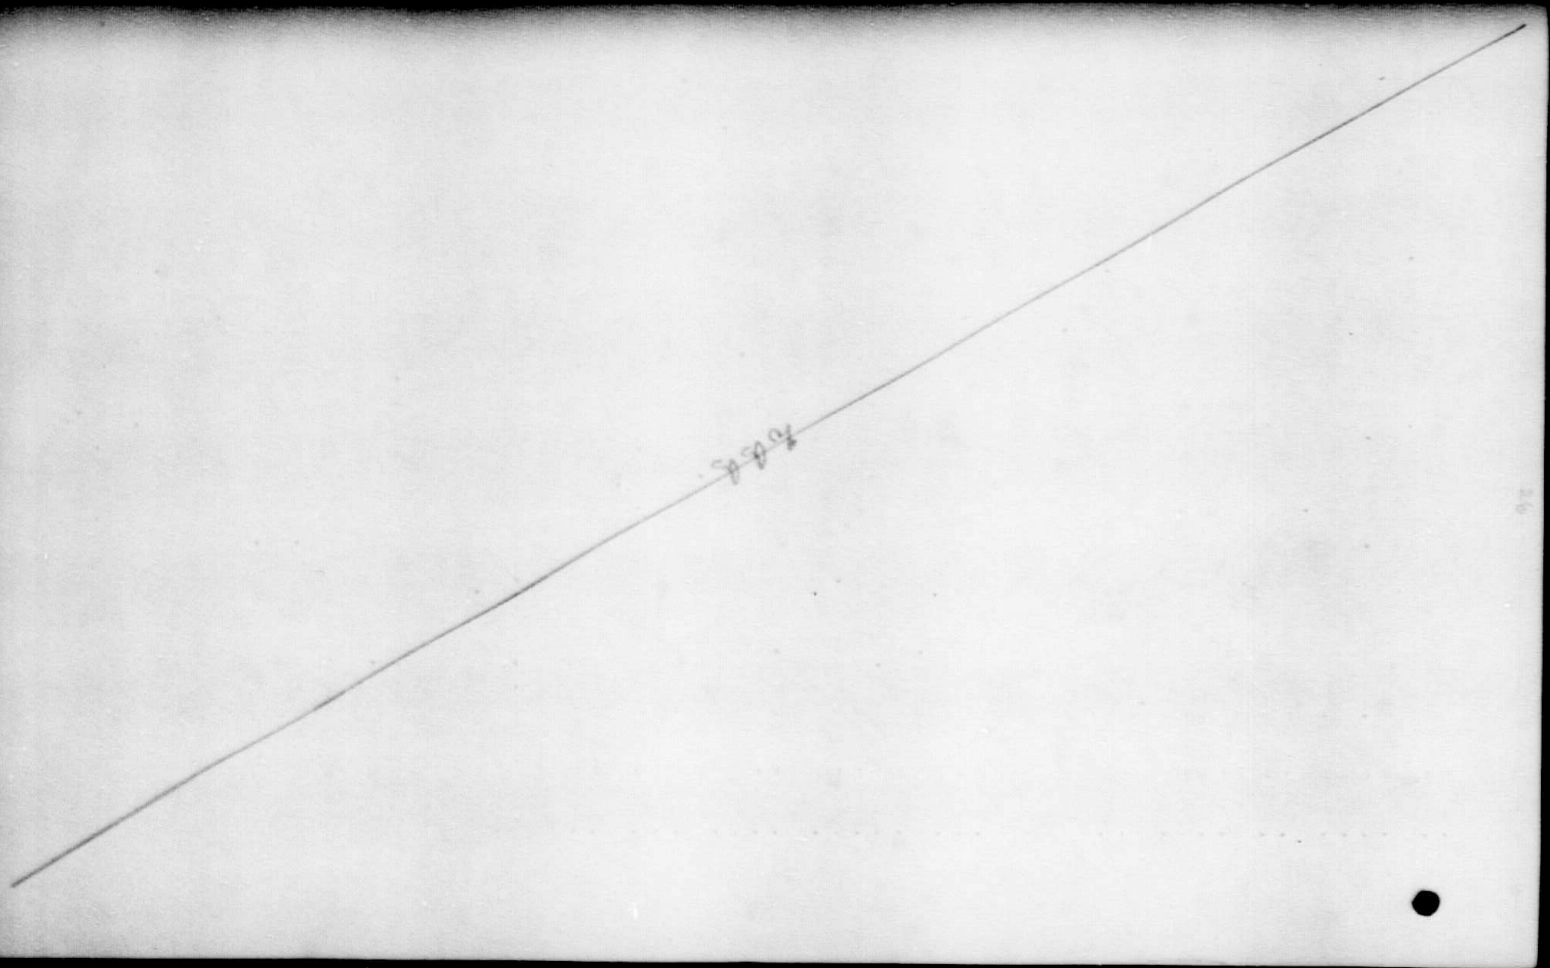
In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Prosecutor

Unless the Defence wishes me to call Lt. Grandjean, that is all the evidence I have.

Defending Officer



No, we don't request that.

The Prosecution is closed.

Defending Officer makes the following motion.

I ask for a dismissal of the charge on the ground that the Prosecution has not made a prima facie case against Sgt. Davy. I submit that the charge is (reads from charge sheet). Now, to go back to the evidence, we see there was a meeting with the Platoon Officer preparing for this particular type of training. Sgt. Davy recce'd the ground personally. The ground would not cause ricochets. It was excellent ground in an excellent area. The firing was not too close. Cpl. Lang said he had been under closer fire. Sgt. Mallott said the flank firing was halfway between the carriers. Sgt. Davy also gave the men a lecture, told them not to run around unnecessarily or stand up. He went over each point more than once. Noone was injured when Sgt. Davy was firing. Greater safety angles than those laid down at C.T.S. were carried out. When Sgt. Davy turned over the gun to a second firer, he said the gun is dead on. He pointed out the aiming point and said use the same one. He was not the Platoon Sgt. and was not in charge of the drill. He is charged with failing to take proper precautions. The evidence of the Prosecution shows he took every precaution that he could take. No one was hit when he fired. There has not been sufficient evidence put forward to call on him to answer that charge by putting him on his defence.

121

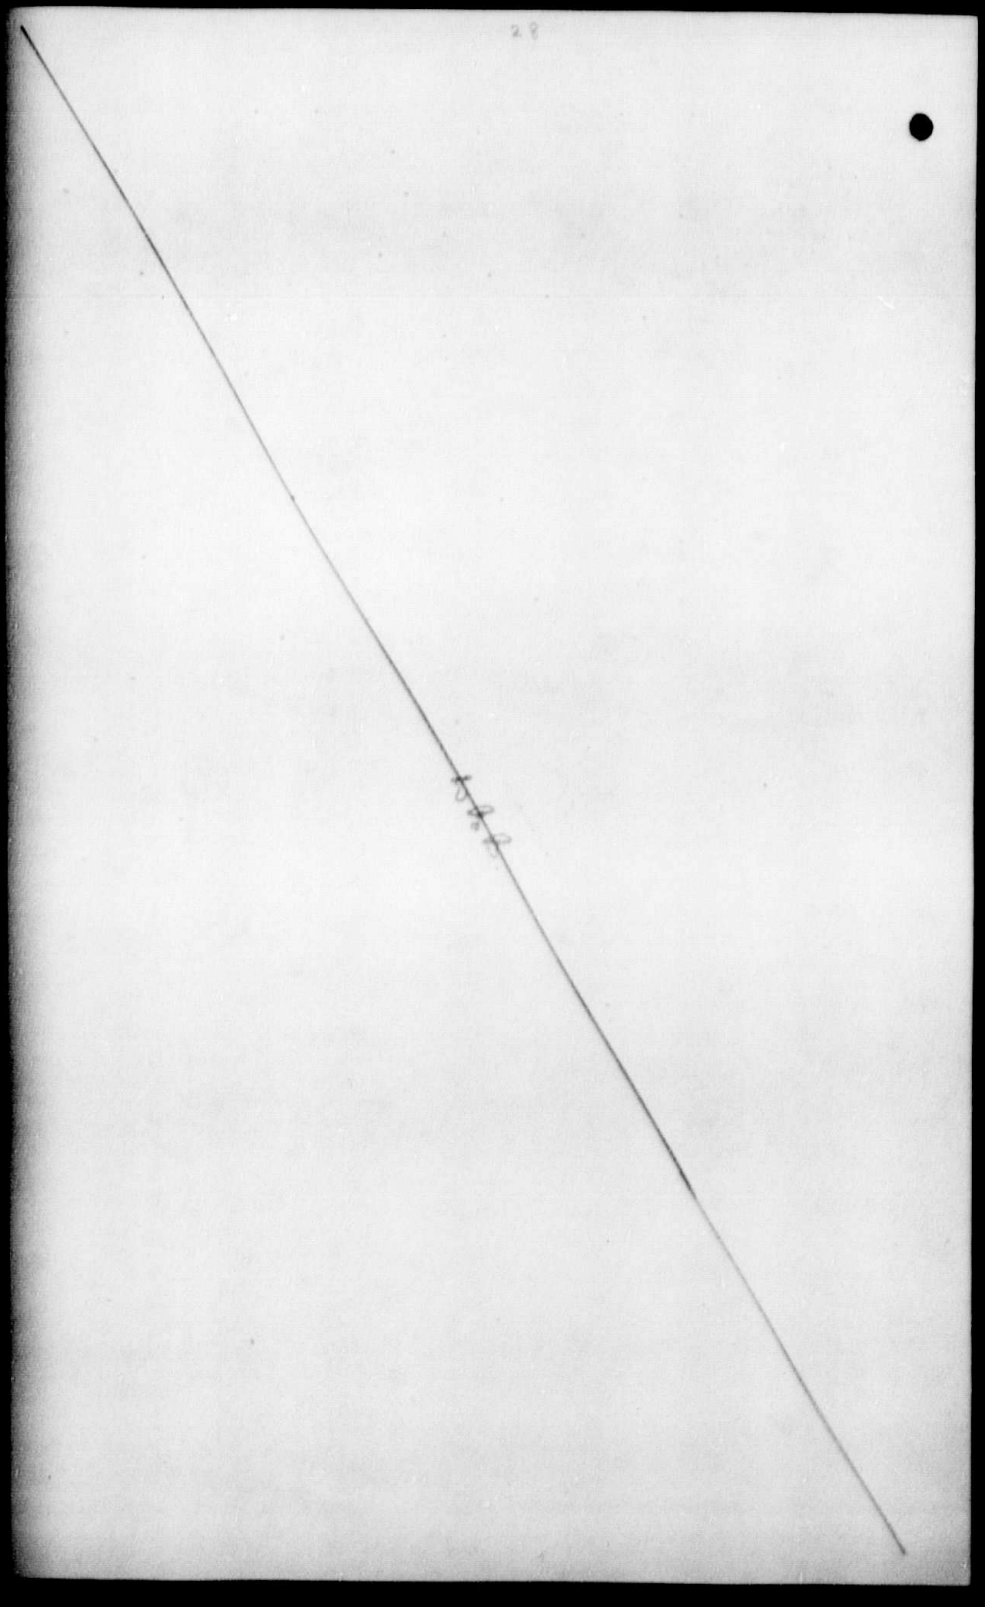
Prosecutor makes the following reply to the motion of the Defence.

I think the evidence indicates very clearly the accused should be put on his defence. The mere fact that nobody was injured when he was firing is beside the point. I suggest Sgt. Davy did take charge of the drill, recce'd the ground, selected the gun position and that of the carriers. I maintain it is laid down in the pamphlet that overhead fire must allow a safety margin of at least 5 yards. We have evidence that there was at the most 5 feet, and perhaps 3 feet of safety margin when Sgt. Davy fired. He selected the aiming point and turned that aiming mark over to the second firer. He did not take proper precautions in overhead fire so that it was safe.

Defending Officer makes the following reply to the Prosecutor.

I don't question the fact that Sgt. Davy carried out the drill from the start. I am pointing out he was not in charge of the drill. And I submit he did take proper safety precautions because nothing happened.

The Court is closed to consider the motion of the Defence.



The Court is re-opened and the accused is again brought before it.

Sgt. Davy, I have been directed by the Court to inform you that the application made by the Defending Officer on your behalf has been allowed and you are found not guilty of the charge against you ~~accordingly dismissed~~.

Summary of Evidence in the case of A 21863 Sgt Davy J
1st Bn Essex Scottish Regt a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The accused is informed of his rights
The CO directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

Prosecution Witness for the Prosecution
Lieut P.H. Grandjean, 1st Bn Essex Scottish Regt, sworn states:

I am OC No 4 pl 1st Bn Essex Scottish Regt. On or about 1 Aug 43 I took No 4 pl to camp BURPHAM for about two weeks intensive trg. Sgt Mallatt, Sgt Davy, and myself had just finished attending the carrier wiring at No 5 CTS from 10 June 43 to 17 July 43. While at the school we did both drills under fire, and I wanted like to say that Sgt Davy and Sgt Mallatt are both senior NCO's, and in my opinion competent instructors in carrier both drill. On Friday evening Aug 6 Sgt Mallatt, Sgt Davy, Lieut R Williams my 2/c and myself had a meeting at which we discussed the trg for Saturday, Sunday Aug 7 & 8. Included in the syllabus of trg for the pl, which syllabus had been approved by both the CO and 2/c of the regt were several periods of track repair drill. Sgt Davy suggested at the meeting that we do the track drill on Sunday Aug 8, and that we use Bren arms when doing so. He wanted to know if does the same as we had had it done to us at No 5 wing CTS. I am NOT quite positive on this point, but I believe that we agreed to do the drill with Bren arms. On Saturday evening 7 Aug am I was going into town I went out Lieut Col McDonald, CO Essex Scottish, who advised me that Lieut R Williams, and myself were the present at a meeting at the HQ HALHAMER at 1330 hrs Sunday Aug 8. He asked me at the same time if my NCO's could carry on with trg by themselves, and I replied "Yes". On both myself, and Lieut R Williams were busy all Sunday morning we arrived back at Camp BURPHAM late, and had to rush through lunch to try and get to the CO's meeting at HALHAMER by 1330 hrs. Just before leaving the camp I told Sgt Mallatt, & Sgt Davy, to take to carry on with the trg as laid down for Sunday afternoon. I was under the impression that I never thought that they might be using live ammunition while doing the track drill that afternoon

I may say, however, that prior to proceeding to the firing area on each occasion (Aug 43) I had tried to get a tripod for a brew but had been unable to do so, as none was available. I would also like to add that I had given no orders for safety precautions on the ground when the drill was to take place because I had not viewed the ground personally

Q. Do you remember sending me out on an NC one afternoon to recce the ground in question.

A. Well, it was some time ago, and I can't recall that I did, but I believe that I did instruct you to recce the ground.

Wm. Grandjean Lt

Second Witness for the Prosecution

A3175 Sgt Mellar E.H. 1st Bn Cameron Highlanders, sworn, states:

On Sunday afternoon 8 Aug 43 I received instructions from Grandpa OC No 4 Pl. When we arrived at the firing area Lt Young got all the men together, and he gave a lecture on Bren drill repair. At the same time he informed the men, that the drill would be done under fire - that a Bren gun would be firing at them, and he told the men to keep down as much as possible, and be careful. He then told them the posn of the Bren gun, and the posn of each carrier. He also placed the Bren guns from each individual carrier, acting as their protection, on the same flank as the Bren gun that was to do the firing, in order that they would be out of the line of fire of the Bren. It was also laid down that no firing would occur until the flag was dropped, and all men were behind the firing Bren gun except those actually engaged on the drill. I acted as Bren loader, and the drill started, as we were having a competition between sections to see which could make the best time. Lt Young fired the Bren during the time the first ~~of~~ second section went through the drill and as far as I am concerned all normal safety precautions were taken. I have been through numerous recalculations of the notes, and through carriers using the SCR 5 and the safety precautions to me seemed normal & sufficient. The gun was sited on a knoll about 20 feet high – 25 to 30 yds away from the carrier. The firing was about 3 to 3½ feet over the carrier, NOT the carrier deviser and about 15 to 20 feet from the rear of the carrier. After I took the men over to fire the third section through, the ~~D~~ same safety precautions were taken as before.

Cross Examined by the Accused

Q. Do you remember asking me how the gun was firing when you took over the gun to fire the third section

A. Yes, and you replied it was properly traversed, on ahead on – also that I should use the same angle of fire, and NOT to fire until the flag was dropped, and all personnel behind the gun, except those actually engaged on the fire drill.

A 3175 Sgt E.W. Mellatt

Third Witness for the Prosecution

A 22591 L/Cpl Young A 1st Bn Lowe Scottish Regt sworn states I am L/Cpl A section No 4 Pl 1st Bn Lowe Scottish Regt. On Sunday afternoon 8 Aug we went to NEW DOWN wooden Sgt Young and Sgt Mellatt. When we got there Sgt Young gave us a lecture on track drill, and then told us we were going to do the drill under fire from a gun the type of which he pointed out to us. He told us to keep down as much as possible during the drill, & watch ourselves. I then remember him placing the gun some 50 yds from the carrier, on the same ~~flank~~ as the firing bren. I was in number one position when I went through the drill and once during the drill I had to stand up. The fire was nowhere near me. I took up the number two position on the gun when Sgt Mellatt went to fire the third section through, and other than a change in the angle of the gun which Sgt Mellatt made, to fire where he desired, and in which I helped him there was no other change different to the conditions under which the firing of number 1 & 2 sections took place. I am graduated A1 Small arms by the 2 C.T.S and the angle of fire of the gun & position seemed alright to me.

Cross - Examined by the accused

Q Under the same conditions, would you be willing to undergo black dull under fire with myself in charge again.

A) Certainly would. A-225 [illegible]

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address (hands in a written address which is read, marked ----------, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)~~

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. A-3175 Sgt. Mellott, E. N., 1 Bn, Essex Scottish R., being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

J.A.

Sgt. Mellott, you as you know are to appear before this Court on a similar charge arising from this same incident. It is my duty to advise you that you need not answer any questions which you think would tend to incriminate you with respect to the charge against you. The Court, however, is the judge as to whether your answer would incriminate you or not. If the Court says you have to answer, you, of course, must answer the question put to you. But you have the right to ask the Court's ruling.

Prosecutor

Q.4 - Would you identify yourself to the Court, giving your number, rank and name and unit, please?
A.4 - A-3175 Sgt. Mellott, E. N., Essex Scottish Regiment.
Q.5 - Do you know Sgt. Davy?
A.5 - Yes, sir.
Q.6 - Is he in this courtroom?
A.6 - Yes, sir.
Q.7 - Can you point him out?
A.7 - Yes (indicating accused).
Q.8 - Do you recall the 8th of August, this year?
A.8 - Yes, sir.
Q.9 - Will you tell the Court your position in the regiment?
A.9 - Platoon Sgt., of the Carrier Platoon.
Q.10 - What is Sgt. Davy's position in the regiment?
A.10 - Section leader in the Carrier Platoon, sir.
Q.11 - Now will you just tell the Court in your own words what arrangements had been made for the afternoon of the 8th of August and what took place on that day?
A.11 - On Friday night, previous to Sunday, we had a discussion in regard to the next two days training, Saturday and Sunday. We discussed track repair drill which came up on Sunday. We decided to do it with live ammunition, the same as we had seen done at C.T.S. Mr. Granijean, Sgt. Davy and myself had a few weeks previously concluded a 4 weeks battle drill course at C.T.S. We discussed the area. Mr. Grandjean suggested Newdown and it was agreed on. Mr. Grandjean detailed Sgt. Davy to recce the ground, find out the gun position, etc. We discussed loading the magazines, and decided to use every other round tracer. Someone mentioned he had seen one chap at C.T.S. nearly hit. Mr. Grandjean said we will take a greater safety angle. On Sunday, Mr. Grandjean and Mr. Williams were called to the C.O.'s meeting at lunch time. Mr. Grandjean instructed me and Sgt. Davy to carry on with the instruction. I told Sgt. Davy that he and I would carry on with the afternoon's training. At 1400 hours we proceeded out to Newdown area were the battle drill was to take place. The Platoon assemble Sgt. Davy gave a lecture on track repair drill. During the lecture he described what the drill was, each man's particular job, where the carriers would be placed and also the position of the bren gun which would be firing at them. He told them live ammuntion would be used and not to do any unnecessary moving about, but there would be room to work round at their job. He went over the particulars of each point a couple of times and we proceeded with the drill. Sgt. Davy placed the gun in position and put the first two sections through. I was signalling with the flag used for firing and watching the clock, keeping time. Sgt. Davy in his lecture mentioned a flag would be used, my own position with the flag, when the flag dropped firing would start.

Q.12 - The gun was placed in position. You had the flag. Who gave instructions detailing the people to jobs in connection with the firing?

A.12 - Sgt. Davy gave the lecture.

Q.13 - Who gave instructions to the gun crew?

A.13 - Sgt. Davy did.

Q.14 - You were time keeped and to work the flag?

A.14 - Yes, sir.

Q.15 - Immediately after the lecture, did Sgt. Davy place the gun himself?

A.15 - Yes, sir.

Q.16 - What happened between the time he placed the gun in position and the first section started going through the drill?

A.16 - The men got into the carriers, drove the carriers out to their respective positions.

Q.17 - And then what happened?

A.17 - They prepared to do their respective jobs. I dropped the flag when I saw everyone was in position.

Q.18 - When was the first burst fired?

A.18 - When I dropped the flag.

Q.19 - Was that the first firing of the day?

A.19 - No, Sgt. Davy fired before the carriers came into position.

Q.20 - Where did he fire?

A.20 - Across the ground to the hill.

Q.21 - When was the next firing?

A.21 - Right after I dropped the flag.

Q.22 - Were the men in position then?

A.22 - Yes, sir.

Q.23 - And the carriers?

A.23 - Yes, sir.

Q.24 - Then Sgt. Davy fired while two sections went through?

A.24 - That is right, sir.

Q.25 - After Sgt. Davy finished firing, what happened?

A.25 - I took over to fire the gun.

Defending Officer

I don't like to object, but this offence says he failed to ensure that proper safety precautions were taken to prevent injury to participants In the first place, Sgt. Davy was under the Platoon Sgt., was not in charge. It seems to me the question before the Court is whether when Sgt. Davy was firing he placed the gun in position himself and completed preparations for firing.

Prosecutor

I merely wanted to establish the injury and their actions, that is all. Just to place it before the Court.

J.A.

I think we had better hear what happened subsequently, if the evidence of the witness can be given without naming any names.

Prosecutor

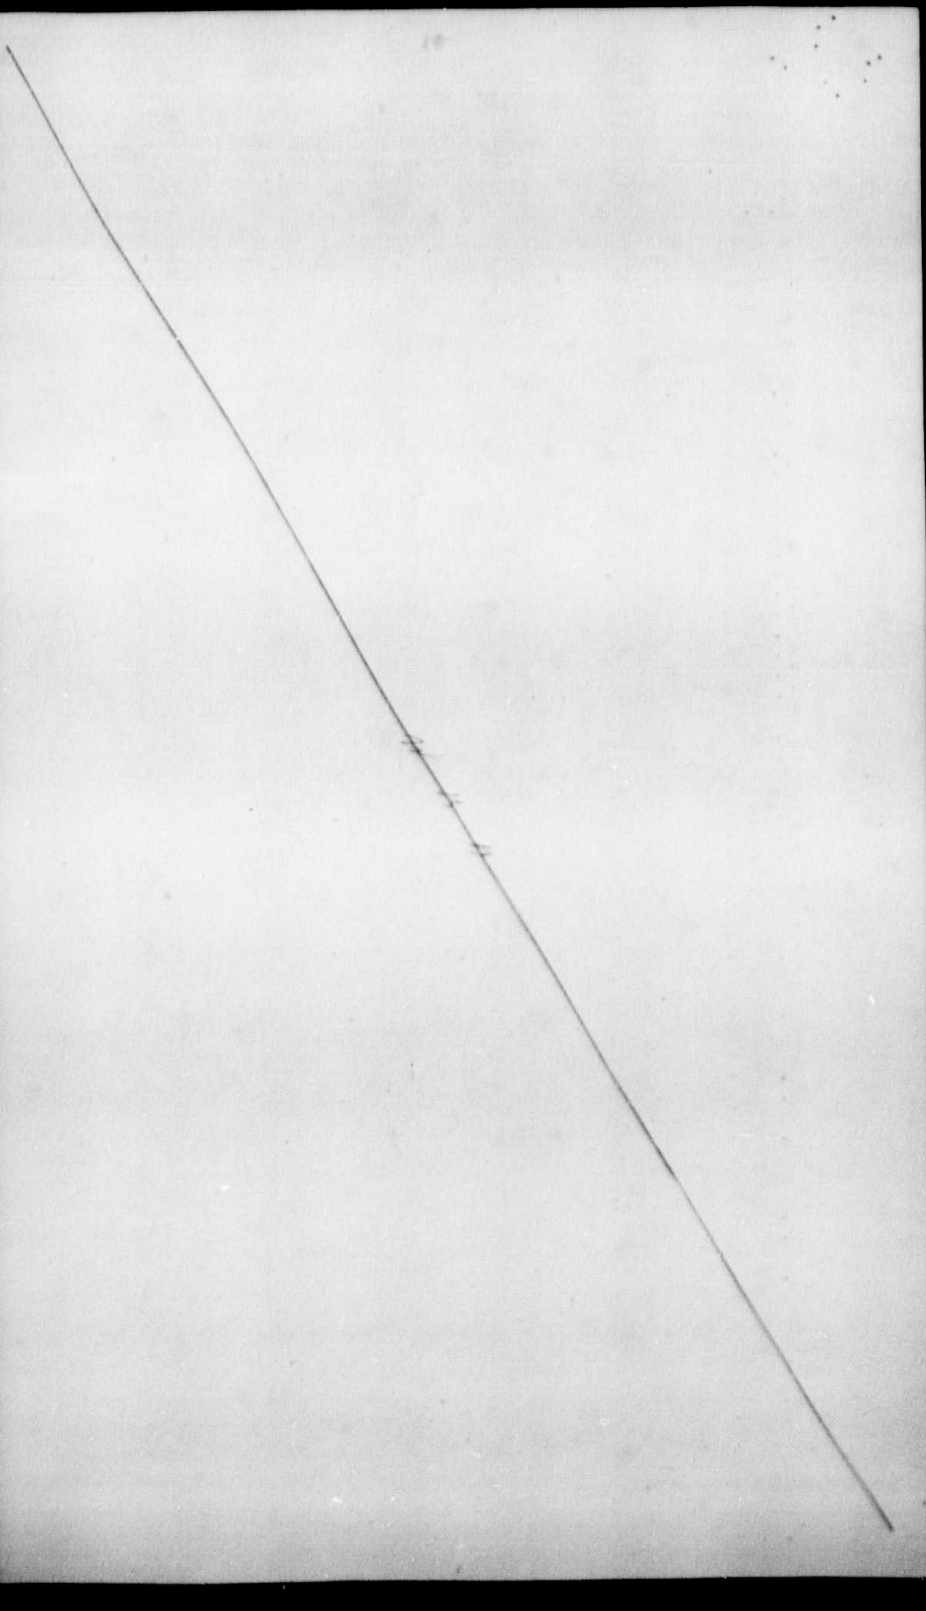
That is what I want.

Q.26 - Sgt. Mellott, after Sgt. Davy finished firing over the first two sections and they finished the drill, then what happened? Someone else took the gun. What was he told?
A.26 - The gun was dead on, to take the same aiming mark.
Q.27 - Where was the aiming mark?
A.27 - Beyond the carriers, sir.
Q.28 - Where, on the ground or in the air?
A.28 - A piece of overturned sod made by a tank turn.
Q.29 - Then somboly took over the gun and commenced firing?
A.29 - Yes, sir.
Q.30 - Then what happened?
A.30 - The accident took place.
Q.31 - What accident?
A.31 - One of the drivers of the carriers fell with a bullet in head.
Q.32 - Do you know the name of the driver?
A.32 - Chapman, sir.

J.A.

Q.33 - Sgt. Mellott, when Sgt. Davy turned over the gun, did he definitely point out the firing mark on the ground?
A.33 - He told me to use the same mark.
Q.34 - Did he identify the airiming mark?
A.34 - I think he said it was a piece of sod I was firing at. I can't swear to that, sir.

Prosecutor



Q.35 - You say Chapman was hit on the head with the bullet. Do you know Sgt. Davy's qualifications regarding battle drill of this type.
A.35 - He had considerable experience. He has done it at the Isle of Wight, on Exercise Simmerforce, at the Bde Battle School and at C.T.S.
Q.36 - What do you know of these experiences?
A.36 - I was with him on two occasions, at Bde Battle School and at C.T.S.
Q.37 - I show you these two pieces of paper. Would you tell the Court what they are, what they represent? Do you recognize what is represented on the papers?
A.37 - Yes, sir.
Q.38 - What is it?
A.38 - A sketch of the position of the carriers and the bren gun at the time of the accident, a front view and a top view.
Q.39 - Which one is this piece of paper?
A.39 - The top view.

The sketch is produced in evidence, signed by the President, marked Exhibit "G" and attached to the Proceedings.

Q.40 - And this piece of paper. Will you tell the Court what that is?
A.40 - Yes, sir, it is a sketch, the front view, at the time of the scene of the accident.

The sketch is produced in evidence, signed by the President, marked Exhibit "H", and attached to the Proceedings

Q.41 - You indicated you were present when preparations for the firing were actually made?

A.41 - Yes, sir.
Q.42 - Will you tell the Court your opinion of this ground picked for this type of training?
A.42 - I think it was an exceptionally good area, sir.
Q.43 - Will you tell the Court the nature of the type of ground picked?
A.43 - The carriers were in a hollow, and the bren gun was mounted to one side, up on a knoll. Across from the knoll was a slope.
Q.44 - What was the nature of the ground itself?
A.44 - It was sod, sir.
Q.45 - What type of sod?
A.45 - I would say reasonably firm. It wasn't hard, and not exactly soft.
Q.46 - How was the ground where the bullets landed?
A.46 - The same, sir.
Q.47 - When preparations were being made for the firing, how much clearance would you say there was over the carriers?
A.47 - That was determined by Sgt. Davy, sir, before he fired over the carriers. Before the carriers were driven in. When he fired, after the carriers were driven in I was down at the flag and I don't know how much safety angle he used.
Q.48 - From your observations what would you say was the distance the firing passed over the carriers?
A.48 - I don't know what was done, sir.
Q.49 - Before the carriers were in place, did Sgt. Davy fire across this valley?
A.49 - Yes, sir.
Q.50 - What was in the valley when he first fired with the bren?
A.50 - Nothing, sir.
Q.51 - Sgt. Will you look at what I show you and tell the Court what it is?
A.51 - It is a weapon training pamphlet, Small Arms Training, Volume I, Pamphlet No.1; it deals with field firing, battale inoculation.
Q.52 - Have you seen it before?
A.52 - Yes, sir.
Q.53 - Where?
A.53 - Possibly in the Platoon or Coy office. There are numerous pamphlets there. I may have seen it there, sir.
Q.54 - Will you tell the Court what section 2 on p.32 provides with regard to simulating battle conditions?
A.54 - Under this heading, sir, "The Use of Live Ammunition for Simulating Battle Conditions"?
Q.55 - Yes?
A.55 - Yes, sir (reads the section).

The pamphlet is produced in evidence, signed by the President, marked Exhibit "I", and attached to the Proceedings.

Q.56 - Now, Sgt. Mellott, will you just tell the Court what you know about the gun that was being used in this battle drill?
A.56 - I was familiar with all the weapons in the Platoon, sir.
Q.57 - What was Sgt. Davy's knowledge of this gun?
A.57 - He had previously been using this particular gun at C.T.S.
Q.58 - What type of gun was it?
A.58 - A bren gun, Mark I, with extending legs.
Q.59 - At this Drill on Sunday afternoon, what was the overhead margin of safety of the path of the bullets?
A.59 - At that time, I would say 3 or 4 feet.
Q.60 - Where was the firing in relation to the sections, or rather the overhead path of fire relative to the carriers?
A.60 - Overhead fire, sir, right over the carrier driver's head, sir.
Q.61 - How was the bren mounted?
A.61 - On a bipod, sir.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer.

Q.62 - Sgt. Mellott, your opinion as to the margin of safty at the overhead firing was 3 or 4 feet?
A.62 - Yes, sir.

Q.63 - Subsequently it was ascertained, was it not, that it was considerably more? It was ascertained that the margin of safety was approximately 12 feet?
A.63 - Yes, sir.
Q.64 - What was done on that occasion to ascertain it was 12 feet?
A.64 - An officer at C.T.S., Sgt. Davy and myself went to the scene of the accident. Sgt. Davy stood on top of a truck with his hands over his head. The officer took an aim, and ascertained it was 12 feet.
Q.65 - Before that, you were under the impression the path of fire was 3 or 4 feet over the carrier driver's head?
A.65 - Correct, sir.
Q.66 - When you were firing the bren gun, where was Sgt. Davy?
A.66 - In the position I had been, keeping time and using the flag.
Q.67 - And when Sgt. Davy was at the gun, you had the flag?
A.67 - Yes, sir.

Court

Q.68 - With respect to this test which was made. Was the bren gun in the same position as at the time of the accident?
A.68 - Yes, sir.

A.71 - Yes, sir.
Q.72 - Was this truck put in the same position as the carrier had been when the accident happened?

A.77 - Yes, sir.
Q.78 - When?
A.78 - A day or so previous to coming to the area, sir.
Q.79 - When it was found the firing passed 12 feet over the carriers, How far were the carriers from the gun?
A.79 - About 35 feet, sir.
Q.80 - What was the angle of fire when Sgt. Davy fired between the carriers?
A.80 - He fired at a point midway between the carriers, sir.
Q.81 - Allowing approximately 20 feet?
A.81 - Yes, that's correct, sir.
Q.82 - At C.T.S. what instructions were received as to angles of fire overhead?
A.82 - I didn't receive any, sir.
Q.83 - Did they lay down any safety angles of fire, or overhead margins for this type of training?
A.83 No, sir.
Q.84 - Was this type of drill carried out under fire at C.T.S.?
A.84 - Yes, sir.

Q.85 - I believe y u said Sgt. Davy gave a lecture to the men before this drill?
A.85 - Yes, sir.
Q.86 - You said he went over everything twice?
A.86 - Yes, sir.
Q.87 - In your opinion did he give them every instruction as to safety?
A.87 - In my opinion he did, sir.
Q.88 - You are a qualified instructor at C.T.S.?
A.88 - Yes, sir.
Q.89 - And Sgt. Davy is also?
A.89 - Yes, sir.
Q.90 - When Sgt. Davy handed the gun over to you during the drill what did he say?
A.90 - He said the gun was dead on, and to fire at the same aiming mark as what he had been using, sir.
Q.91 - You are not sure whether he said the aiming mark was this piece of sod or not?
A.91 - No, I'm not sure, but I could see where his bullets were churning up the ground.
Q.92 - So you knew where the point of aim was?
A.92 - Yes, sir.
Q.93 - Did you have any difficulty in finding the aiming mark?
A.93 - No, sir.
Q.94 - The legs of the gun were extended? Of the bipod?
A.94 - Yes, sir.
Q.95 - Sgt. Davy, from where you were standing, could you tell the exact spot on the carrier where the fire was passing overhead?
A.95 - No, sir, I could not.
Q.96 - You don't know if it was over the centre or the right or the left?
A.96 - A bit to the left, I think, sir.
Q.97 - This book of pamphlets containing Exhibit "I". Have you ever s en it before?
A.97 - Yes, sir, it is Mr. Grandjean's book.
Q.98 - Where is it kept?
A.98 - I have seen it in the Platoon office, sir.
Q.99 - Have you read many of the pamphlets in this book?
A.99 - Yes, sir.
Q.100 - What type of pamphlets are they?
A.100 - Weapon training, sir.
Q.101 - And you were Platoon Sgt. on that day, Sunday, 8th August?
A.101 - Yes, sir.
Q.102 - Sgt. Mellott, of your own knowledge, were the safety precautions as laid down in Small Arms Training pamphlets observed except as to the angle of overhead fire in this drill?
A.102 - Yes, and with the exception of the mounting of the gun on tripods, as well. No tripods were available.
Q.103 - Of your own knowledge, the only safety precation not taken was in the angle of overhead fire?
A.103 - Yes, sir.
Q.104 - And in your opinion the reason the exact number of feet laid down in the pamphlet was not adhered to was because of what you had seen afterwards at C.T.S. Battle School?
A.104 - Yes, sir.
Q.105 - How close did the firing come at C.T.S.?
A.105 - About a foot. One chap was nearly hit.
Q.106 - They didn't observe the rules of this pamphlet?
A.106 - No, sir.
Q.107 - What was the general policy adhered to at C.T.S. as far as safety precautions were concerned?
A.108 - It appeared a lot less than the rules, sir.
Q.109 - Do you remember when doing this type of training at C.T.S., firing overhead at carriers, how far was the overhead margin?
A.109 - Maybe a couple of feet.

Re-examined by Prosecuter.

Q.110 - Sgt. Mellott, you said the firing passed directly over the head of the driver?
A.110 - It looked that way to me.

#30

Q.111 - This aiming mark you told the Defending Officer was between the carriers?
A.111 - Yes a point midway between the carriers.
Q.112 - And the overhead mark was this piece of sod turned up?
A.112 - Yes, sir.
Q.113 - How big was it?
A.113 - About 2 or 3 feet long, and the width of a tank track.
Q.114 - Will you tell the Court what preparations were taken at C.T.S. to undertake this type of training?
A.114 - The only thing I could see was giving a lecture telling what would take place, then positions of the carriers and the gun.
Q.115 - What instructions were given with regard to the position of the carriers and the position of the gun?
A.115 - There were no instructions given as regards the drill itself, what we were to do. We just watched them do it.
Q.116 - What did they do?
A.116 - The instructor showed us where he put the carriers and the gun.
Q.117 - In the course of the lecture everybody received, what were the instructions for preparing for battle innoculation at C.T.S.
A.117 - They merely said it was firing with live ammunition over carrier crews at track repair drill.
Q.118 - What were the instructions for preparing a situation of this nature?
A.118 - Just as I have stated. The instructors told us where the carriers would be placed, where the gun was, and what the crew would do repairing tracks.
Q.119 - What preparations did they make at C.T.S. for battle innoculation such as siting the ground, etc.?
A.119 - I don't know. That was done beforehand.
Q.120 - What instructions were received as to the preparations for this type of innoculation?
A.120 - I don't recall any, other than they said there would be firing.

Defending Officer puts the following question through the Court.

Q.121 - What type of shot are you with a bren gun?
A.121 - I am a first class shot, sir.

Court

Q.122 - Who holds the Senior NCO appointment in the Carrier Platoon?
A.122 - I do, sir.
Q.123 - Who is the 2 i/c of the Platoon?
A.123 - Mr. Williams, sir.
Q.124 - You are the Senior NCO?
A.124 - Yes, sir.
Q.125 - What is Sgt. Davy?
A.125 - He is a section Sgt., sir, section leader.
Q.126 - How many sections are there in the Carrier Platoon?
A.126 - Four, sir.
Q.127 - You have four section leaders under you as Platoon Sgt.?
A.127 - Ultimately, when the establishment is completed, yes, sir. We were both made Sgts. at the same time. I have been acting as Platoon Sgt.
Q.128 - Sgt. Davy passed over the gun to the second firer. It would have been possible for the second firer, if he wanted, to increase the margin of safety?
A.128 - Yes, sir.
Q.129 - In respect of the weapon training pamphlets, is it the custom in your platoon to keep these pamphlets on hand before training or do you have to seek them?
A.129 - Both, sir. Sometimes Mr. Grandjean had them on hand, sometimes we asked for them.
Q.130 - Previous to this incident, was this particular pamphlet, Exhibit "I", on hand?
A.130 - No, sir.

Q.131 - Were you beside Sgt. Davy at the time he was firing the gun?
A.131 - No, sir.
Q.132 - Were you in any position to watch the path of the tracers as it originated from the barrel of the gun?
A.132 - No, sir, I saw them going over.
Q.133 - Would it be possible for the next firer to identify the gun position from where the tracers entered the ground if seen from the side, from a lateral position?
A.133 - Will you put that question again?
Q.134 - In another way, if a man watches the tracers from the barrel of the gun to a position close to the carriers, and sees the point of impact, sees the tracers along the line of fire. Would it possible for that man to take the bren gun over and fire it where he saw the bullets enter the ground from the side?
A.134 - I could see the tracers going into that particular site, sir.
Q.135 - Will you describe the particulars of track repair drill?
A.135 - The carriers are in position. The driver remains in the carrier. The gunner takes up the position of firing. The NCO and the observer gets out, break the track, the carrier is moved off; then the driver drives back on the track and we put the track together, sir.
Q.136 - Is it necessary for any member of the crew to work standing on the carrier or take a standing position in the normal course of this drill? Or to reach for a tool?
A.136 - No, sir, the tools are all available.
Q.137 - Was this drill proceeding simultaneously with all three carriers in the section?
A.137 - Yes, sir.
Q.138 - The fire from the bren gun was sometimes directed between the carriers and sometimes overhead?
A.138 - Yes, sir, overhead of the centre carrier only.
Q.139 - The gun was firing at a variety of targets?
A.139 - Yes, sir.
Q.140 - When the first two sections went through the drill, Sgt. Davy was firing the gun and you were on the flag?
A.140 - Yes, sir.
Q.141 - Who took over when the injury occurred?
A.141 - Sgt. Davy.
Q.142 - Was overhead or flank firing taking place when the injury occurred?
A.142 - Overhead, sir.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

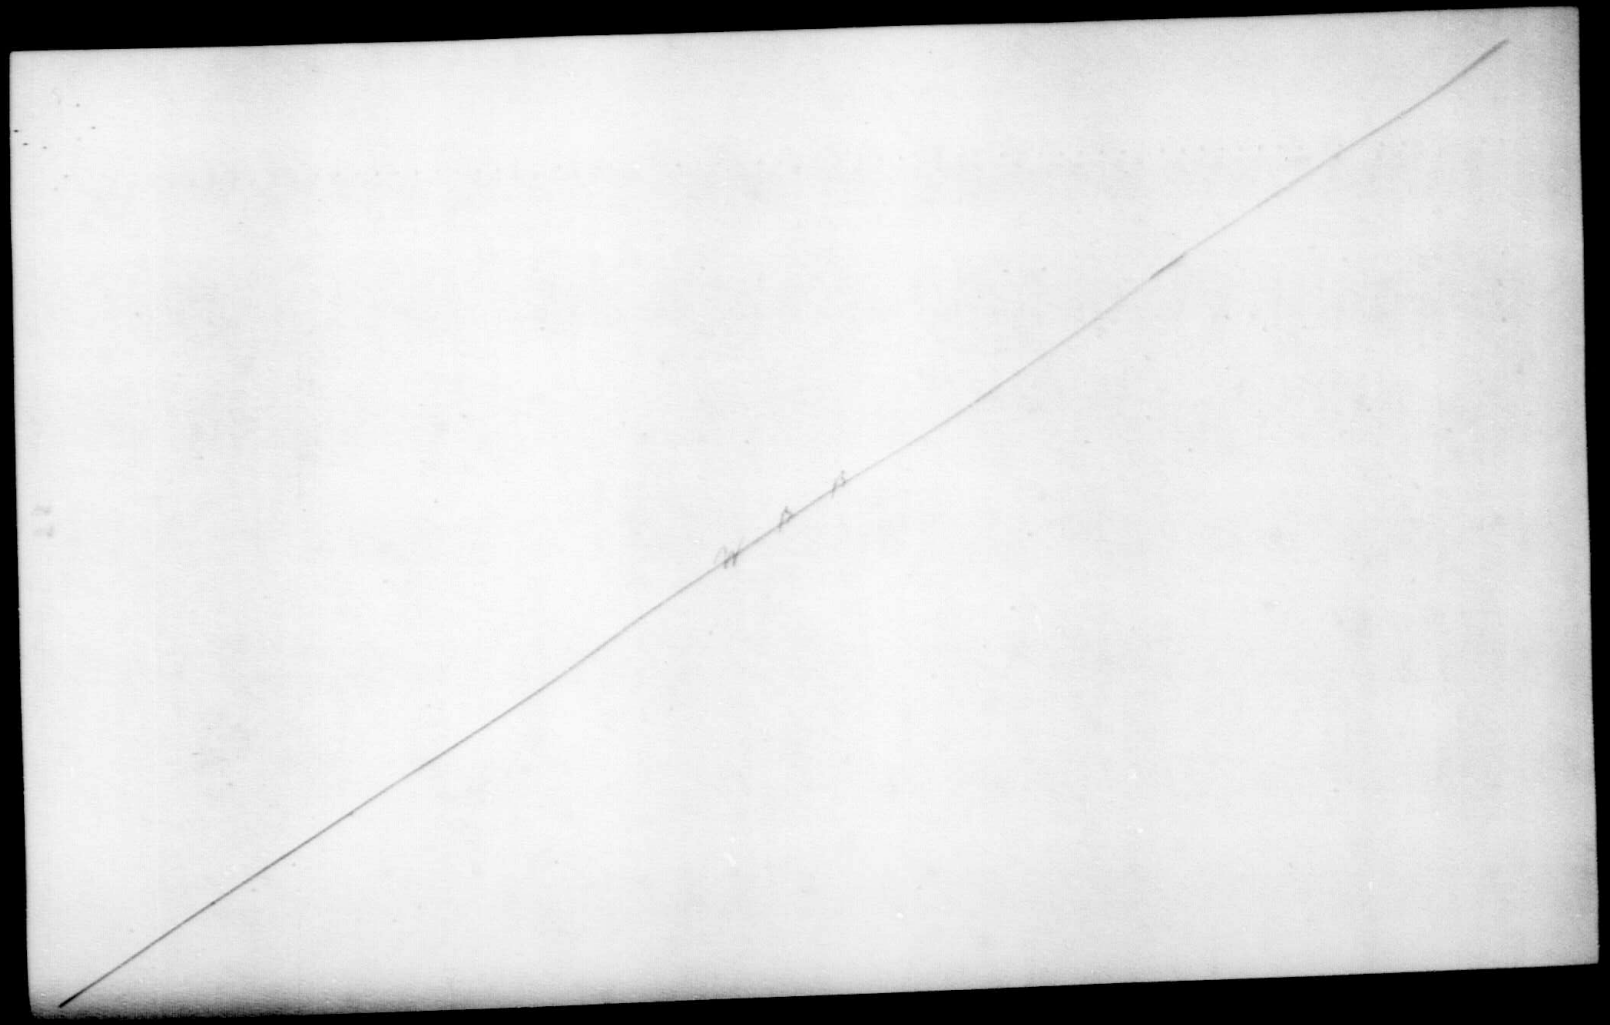
Q.143 - Will you identify yourself to the Court, giving your number, rank, name and unit?
A.143 - A-22591 Cpl. Lang A., Essex Scottish.
Q.144 - Do you know Sgt. Davy?
A.144 - Yes, sir.
Q.145 - Is he in this courtroom?
A.145 - Yes, sir.
Q.146 - Can you point him out?
A.146 - Yes, sir (indicating accused), right there.
Q.147 - Cpl. Lang, what is your position in the Regiment?
A.147 - I am a carrier crew commander, sir.
Q.148 - What was your position on the 8th of August, this year?
A.148 - I was a gunner, sir.
Q.149 - You have since received a promotion?
A.149 - Yes, sir.
Q.150 - Do you recall the 8th of August, this year?
A.150 - Yes, sir.
Q.151 - Will you just tell the Court in your own words what happened on that day?
A.151 - We went out to the downs for carrier repair track drill, sir.

We had a lecture on what was going to take place by Sgt. Davy. Told us there was going to be live ammunition used. Crew Commanders were told their positions, what everybody was to do, the position of the flag for firing, the sections were to be timed. Had a competition between sections. When the flag dropped get out and start out jobs. A guard was posted for firing. The driver stayed in his vehicle. Myself and another chap got outside, broke the track, carrier drove off then back on track, and we connected the track. We got through and broke off.



Q.152 - Then what happened?
A.152 - I went up the hill to where the gun was firing.
Q.153 - What type of ground was the gun firing from?
A.153 - I didn't pay much attention. It looked all right to me.
Q.154 - How was the gun fired?
A.154 - From a bipod, sir, just the usual way.
Q.155 - Can you tell the Court how many guns were fired at the drill?
A.155 - Only one, sir.
Q.156 - Where?
A.156 - Up on the hill, sir. The carriers were down in the bottom, and the gun fired over the centre carrier, and in between the others.
Q.157 - What is your opinion of that type of ground for that type of training?
A.157 - In my opinion the position of the gun and the carriers was very good, sir.
Q.158 - Do you know Sgt. Mellott's qualifications for this training?
A.158 - He is a Q.1 small arms instructor, sir.
Q.159 - Where did he qualify?
A.159 - No.3 C.T.S. at Bordon, here, sir.
Q.160 - Everything looked all right to you?
A.160 - Yes, it did, sir.
Q.161 - Can you tell the Court what safety precautions should be taken?
A.161 - You should have the gun in a firm position, a target to aim at, sir, in the background, take at least 5 degrees, fire over and around the flanks of your object, sir.
Q.162 - The gun should be in firm ground?
A.162 - Yes, sir, and should be on a tripod, actually.
Q.163 - What about the gun position there?
A.163 - The ground looked o.k. to me. I didn't pay much notice. I didn't go up and actually inspect it.

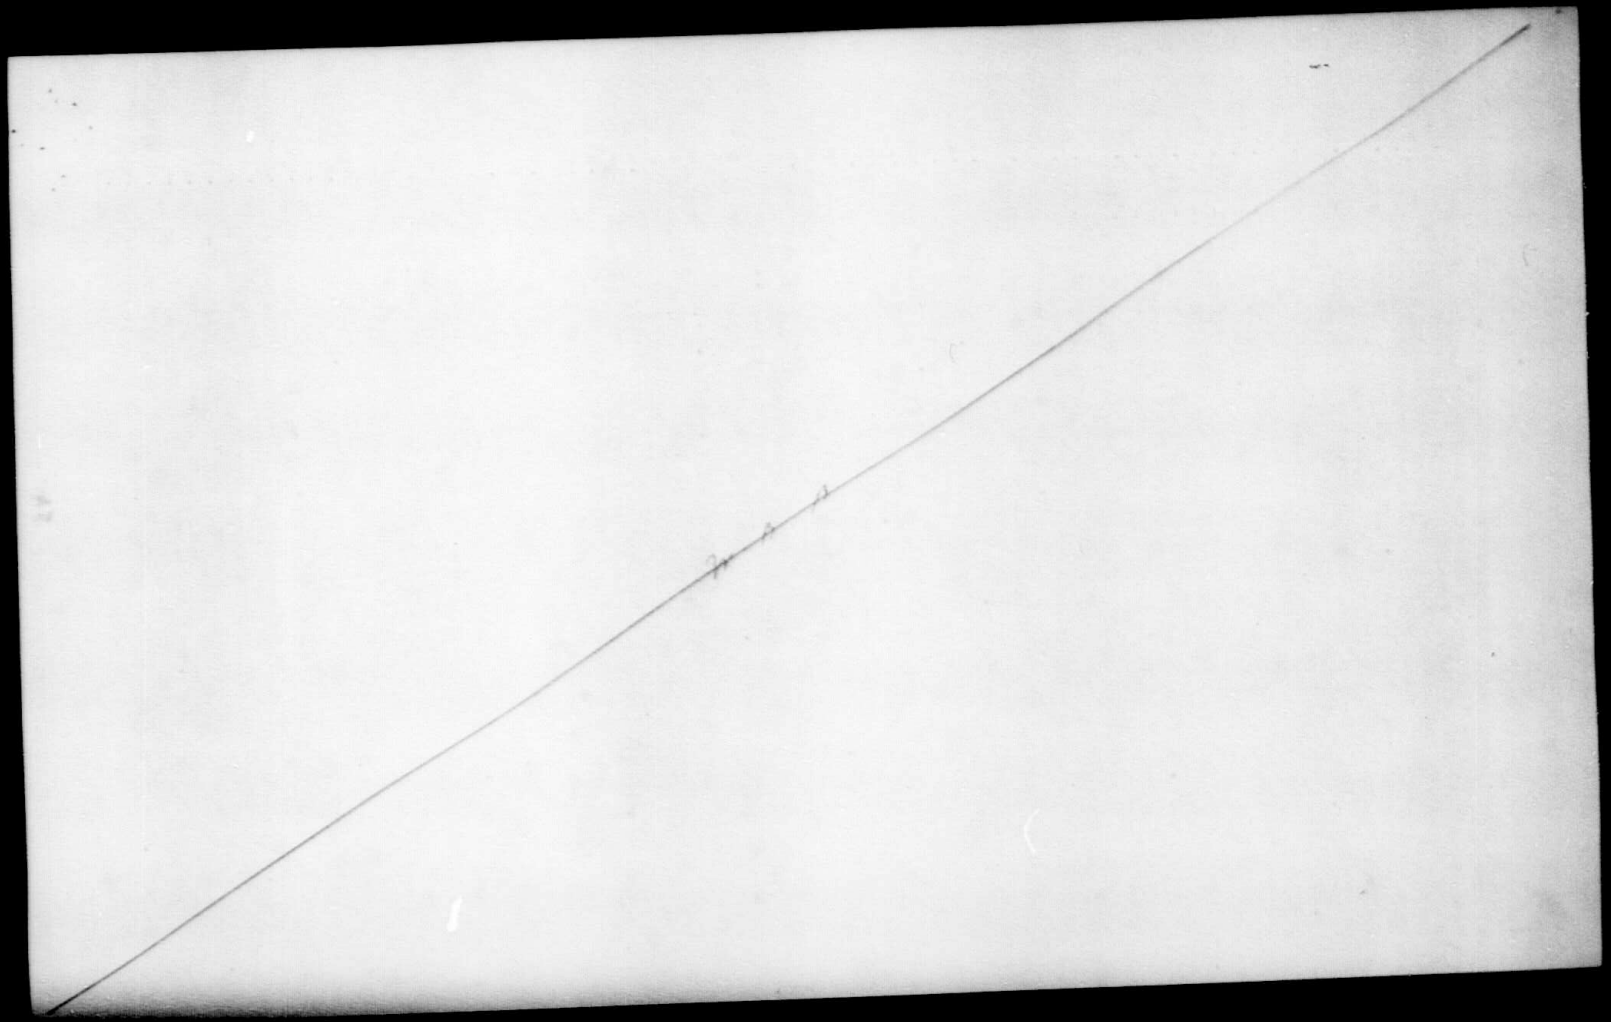
Cross-examined by Defending Officer.

Q.164 - Cpl. Lang, I think you said Sgt. Davy was firing when you were undergoing the drill. Did you have to stand up?
A.164 - Yes.
Q.165 - Did you notice the tracers?
A.165 - I seen a few, sir.
Q.166 - Did you see the margin of safety?
A.166 - Well, standing up, working around, it didn't seem like they were close, sir.
Q.167 - Did you see the tracers?
A.167 - Just the closeness.
Q.168 - Could you say how far overhead they were?
A.168 - No, sir.
Q.169 - From your experience, were the shots far enough away?
A.169 - Yes, sir.
Q.170 - Did you see the point of impact?
A.170 - When Sgt. Mellott was firing, the bullets, tracers, was going into a piece of sod turned over by a tank track.
Q.171 - Sgt. Davy handed over to Sgt. Mellott. Were you there?
A.171 - Near there, sir.
Q.172 - What did you hear Sgt. Davy say?
A.172 - The gun was firing dead on, sir.

Re-examined by Prosecutor.

Q.173 - You did have occasion to stand up during the drill?
A.173 - Yes, sir.

Q.174 - Where?
A.174 - Breaking the tracks. I had to go back for tools.
Q.175 - You didn't notice the bullets going over your head?
A.175 - I didn't take occasion to look up.
Q.176 - Could you estimate how far they were going over your head?
A.176 - I didn't notice, just tried to get the job done in a hurry.
Q.177 - How high is a carrier?
A.177 - About up to my shoulder, about 5 feet 4 inches, sir.
Q.178 - Which side of the carrier were you, in relation to the bullets?
A.178 - Right in front, sir.
Q.179 - Between the bullets and the carrier?
A.179 - Yes, sir.



Court

Q.180 - Previous to this particular occasion on the 8th of August, had you ever had similar battle innoculations or track repair drill?
A.180 - Not myself, sir. In certain coys they had.
Q.181 - Ever had battle innoculation?
A.181 - Yes, sir, quite a bit of battle drill, sir.
Q.182 - At this drill, did it seem as though the firing was closer than usual?
A.182 - I think I have had fire come closer than that, sir.
Q.183 - Could you give any estimate of the overhead margin at any time during that drill?
A.183 - Well, it was about 3 or 4 feet, anyway.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

Third witness for the Prosecution, Lieut. E. C. R. MacDonald, Essex Scottish R., being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.184 - Will you identify yourself to the Court, please, giving your rank, name and unit?
A.184 - Yes, Lt. E.C.R.MacDonald, Essex Scottish R.
Q.185 - Will you tell the Court your position in the regiment?
A.185 - Weapon training officer.

A.186 - Right, sir.
Q.187 - Do you know the location of that incident?
A.187 - Yes, sir.
Q.188 - I show you two pieces of paper. Will you tell the Court what they are, please?
A.188 - They are copies taken from original drawings of the area where the accident occurred.
Q.189 - What do you know about the drawings?
A.189 - The orighals were made at the scene of the accident by "I" Section.
Q.190 - How correct are they?
A.190 - The scene is represented properly, I think. Exhibit "C" is the top view, and Exhibit "B", the front view.
Q.191 - I show you a pamphlet. Will you tell the Court what it is?
A.191 - It is a Small Arms Training Pamphlet, Volume I, Pamphlet No.1.
Q.192 - For what?
A.192 - Field firing.
Q.193 - Will you tell the Court, as Weapon Training Officer, whether this is available, and where it may be found?
A.193 - It is available to all officers and NCOs from "I" Section. Practically every NCO can get one if he wants to.
Q.194 - Will you tell the Court, as Weapon Training Officer, your opinion of the nature of the ground for this type of training?
A.194 - I thought it quite suitable.
Q.195 - Was it excellent ground, do you think?
A.195 - Yes, I do.
Q.196 - Was there anything to indicate the position of the carriers and the bren gun when these sketches were compiled?
A.196 - Yes, sir, the tracks of the carriers were there, and the position of the gun was shown by the empty casings and marks of the legs.

Q.197 - How did you determine the angles of fire?
A.197 - Well the bren gun was placed in the position from which it was previously fired by Sgt. Davy and Sgt. Mellott.
Q.198 - Who indicated the position to you?
A.198 - Sgt. Davy and Sgt. Mellott.
Q.199 - Did you take another carrier and another gun?
A.199 - Yes, we made almost an exact duplication of the scene at the time of the accident.
Q.200 - Then what did you do?
A.200 - Looked at the safety angles, how high over the carrier the gun would fire.
Q.201 - How did you determine the height over head?
A.201 - Took my sight over the carrier to the point of aim.
Q.202 - What did you estimate the height to be?
A.202 - I can't recall the exact figure but I think it was about 5 feet.
Q.203 - Over what?
A.203 - Over the heads of the men in the carrier.

Defending Officed declines to cross-examine.

Court

Q.204 - Were the men in the carrier sitting down?
A.204 - Yes, at the time the tests were made.

Q.206 - Had you seen the ground prior to it being used?
A.206 - No, sir.
Q.207 - What did you think of the ground for this drill?
A.207 - Excellent, sir.
Q.208 - If you had made a recce prior to the drill would you have selected it?
A.208 - Yes, sir, it was very good.
Q.209 - Did you ever see Exhibits "G" and "H" before this?
A.209 - Yes, sir, at the Court of Inquiry.
Q.210 - It has been suggested the overhead margin was 3 feet. Do you recall any discussion about that?
A.210 - Yes, sir, there was quite a bit of discussion about that.
Q.211 - Whose judgement was responsible for that estimate?
A.211 - That of the two Sgts, sir. When we went to look we found the margin was greater.
Q.212 - When was your examination made?
A.212 - Two or 3 days after the accident.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Prosecutor

Unless the Defence wishes me to call Lt. Grandjean, that is all the evidence I have.

Defending Officer

No, we don't request that.

The Prosecution is closed.

Defending Officer makes the following motion.

I ask for a dismissal of the charge on the ground that the Prosecution has not made a prima facie case against Sgt. Davy. I submit that the charge is (reads from charge sheet). Now, to go back to the evidence, we see there was a meeting with the Platoon Officer preparing for this particylar type of training. Sgt. Davy recce'd the ground personally. The ground would not cause ricochets. It was excellent ground in an excellent area. The firing was not too close. Cpl. Lang said he had been under closer fire. Sgt. Mallott said the flank firing was halfway between the carriers. Sgt. Davy also gave the men a lecture, told them not to run around unnecessarily or stand up. He went over each point more than once. Noone was injured when Sgt. Davy was firing. Greater safety angles than those laid down at C.T.S. were carried out. When Sgt. Davy turned over the gun to a second firer, he said the gun is dead on. He pointed out the aiming point and said use the same one. He was not the Platoon Sgt. and was not in charge of the drill. He is charged with failing to take proper precautions. The evidence of the Prosecution shows he took every precaution that he could take. No one was hit when he fired. There has not been sufficient evidence put forward to call on him to answer that charge by putting him on his defence.

Prosecuter makes the following reply to the motion of the Defence.

I think the evidence indicates very clearly the accused should be put on his defence. The mere fact that nobody was injured when he was firing is beside the point. I suggest Sgt. Davy did take charge of the drill, recce'd the ground, selected the gun position and that of the carriers. I maintain it is laid down in the pamphlet that overhead fire must allow a safety margin of at least 5 yards. We have evidence that there was at the most 5 feet, and perhaps 3 feet of safety margin when Sgt. Davy fired. He selected the aiming point and turned that aiming mark over to the second firer. He did not take proper precautions in overhead fire so that it was safe.

Defending Officer makes the following reply to the Prosecutor.

I don't question the fact that Sgt. Davy carried out the drill from the start. I am pointing out he was not in charge of the drill. And I submit he did take proper safety precautions because nothing happened.

The Court is closed to consider the motion of the Defence.

The Court is re-opened and the accused is again brought before it.

J.A.

Sgt. Davy, I have been directed by the Court to inform you that the application made by the Defending Officer on your behalf has been allowed and you are found not guilty of the charge against you.

Summary of Evidence in the case of A21863 Sgt. Davy, J.
1st Essex Scottish Regt. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The accused is informed of his rights.

The CO directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution
Lieut. P.M. Grandjean, 1st Bn. Essec Scottish Regt., sworn states:

I am O.C. No. 4 Pl 1st Bn Essex Scottish Regt. On or about 1 Aug 43 I took No. 4 pl to Camp BURPHAM for about two weeks intensive trg. Sgt. Mellott, Sgt. Davey, and myself had just finished attending the carrier wing at No. 5 CTS from 10 Jun 43 to 17 Jul 43. While at the school we did battle drills under fire, and I would like to say that Sgt. Davy and Sgt Mellott are both carrier N.C.O's, and in my opinion competent instructors in carrier battle drill. On Friday evening Aug 6 Sgt Mellott, Sgt Davy, Lieut. R. Williams, my 2 i/c and myself had a meeting at which we discussed the trg for Saturday, Sunday Aug 7 & 8. Included in the syllabus of trg for the pl, which syllabus had been approved by both the CO and 2 i/c of the regt were several periods of track repair drill. Sgt Davy suggested at the meeting that we do the track drill on Sunday Aug 8, and that we use live amn when doing so. He wanted to have it done the same as we had had it done to us at No. 5 Wing CTS. I am NOT quite positive on this point, but I believe that we agreed to do the drill with live amn. On Saturday evening 7 Aug as I was going into town I met Lt.-Col. MacDonald, CO Essex Scottish, who advised me that Lieut. Williams, and myself were to be present at a meeting at Bn HQ HALMAKER at 1330 hrs Sunday Aug 8. He asked me at the same time if my NCO's could carry on with trg by themselves, and I replied "Yes". As both myself, and Lieut Williams were busy all Sunday morning we arrived back at Camp BURPHAM late, and had to rush through lunch to try and get to the CO's meeting at HALMAKER by 1330 hrs. Just before leaving the Camp I told Sgt. Willott, or Sgt. Davy, or both to carry on with the trg as laid down for Sunday afternoon. I was in such a hurry that I never thought that they might be using live amn while doing the track drill that afternoon. I may say,however, that prior to proceeding to the trg area on or about 1 Aug 43 I had tried to get a tripod for a bren but had been unable to do so, as none was available. I would also like to add that I had given no instrs for safety precautions on the ground when the drill was to take place because I hadn't receed the ground personally.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q.1. Do you remember sending me out on an M.C. one afternoon to recce the ground in question?

A.1. Well, it is some time ago, and I can't swear that I did, but I believe that I did instruct you to recce the ground.

P.M. Grandjean Lt.

Second Witness for the Prosecution.

A3175 Sgt Mellott E.N., 1st Bn. Essex Scottish Regt., sworn, states:
I am sec comd No. 4 pl 1st Bn. Essex Scottish. On Sunday afternoon 8 Aug Sgt. Davy and myself proceeded to NEW DOWN to do track drill under fire on the instructions of Lieut. Grandjean OC No 4 Pl. When we arrived at the trg area Sgt. Davy got all the men together, and he gave a lecture on track drill repair. At the same time he informed the men, that the drill would be done under fire - that a bren gun would be firing at them, and he told the men to keep down as much as possible, and be careful. He then told them the posn of the bren gun, and the posns of each carrier. He also placed the bren gunner from each individual carrier, acting in their protective role, on the same flank as the bren gun that was to do the firing, in order that they would be out of the line of fire of the bren. It was also laid down that no firing would occur until the flag was dropped and all men were behind the firing bren gun except thoseactually engaged in the drill. I acted as time keeper, once the drill started, as we were having a competition between sections to see which could make the best time. Sgt. Davy fired the bren during the time the first & second sections went through the drill and as far as I am concerned all normal safety precautions were taken. I have been through numerous innoculations of this nature, and through carrier wing No. 5 CTS and the safety precautions to me seemed normal & sufficient. The gun was sited on a knoll about 20 feet high - 25' to 30 yds away from the carriers. The firing was about 3 to 3½ feet over the carriers, NOT the carrier drivers, and about 15 to 20 feet from the rear of the carriers. After I took the bren over to fire the third section through, the same safety precautions were taken as before.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q.1. Do you remember asking me how the gun was firing, when you took over the gun to fire the third section.

A.1. Yes, and you replied it was properly fused, and dead on - also that I should use the same angle of fire, and NOT to fire until the flag was dropped, and all personnel behimd the gun except those actually engaged in the fire drill.

Third Witness for the Prosecution.

A22591 L/Cpl Lang, A., 1st Bn Essec Scottish Regt sworn states:

Third Witness for the Prosecution.

A22591 L/Cpl Lang, A., 1st Bn Essec Scottish Regt sworn states:
I am L/Cpl A section No. 4 pl 1st Bn. Essex Scottish Regt. Sunday afternoon 8 Aug we went to NEW DOWN under Sgt Davy and Sgt Mellott. When we got there Sgt Davy gave us a lecture on track drill, and then told us we were going to do the drill under fire from a bren, the posn of which he pointed out to us. He told us to keep down as much as possible during the drill & to watch ourselves. I then remember him placing the bren gunners from the carriers, on the same flank as the firing bren. I was in number one section when it went through the drill, and once during the drill I had to stand up; the fire was nowhere near me. I took up the number two ???? as the gun when Sgt Mellott went to fire the third section through, and other than a change in the angle of the gun which Sgt Mellott made, to fire where he desired, and in which I helped him there were no other changes different to the conditions under which the firing of number 1 & 2 sections took place. I am qualified Ql Small Arms by No. 3 CTS and the angle of fire of the gun & position seemed alright to me.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q.1. Under the same conditions, would you be willing to undergo track drill under fire with myself in charge again.

A.1. I certainly would.

R.R. Clark Maj

President

The Prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. 7684890 Sgt. Ongley.A.G. of the Corps of Military Police, being duly sworn, was examined by the Prosecutor.

"I am 7684890 Sgt. Ongley.A.G. of the C.M.P. stationed at C.L.R.D. Great Scotland Yard"

Q. (1). "Do you recognize the accused in the room?"

A. (1). "I do". (Hepoints him out)

The President of the Court read the evidence of Sgt.Ongley as recorded in the Summary of Evidence.

Sgt.Ongley stated the evidence as read to be correct. He said that he did not see the accused in the canteen previous to the arrest. The other soldier who accompanied the accused endeavoured to intervene in the arrest but desisted on seeing the M.P. were determined, and returned quietly to the canteen. He remonstrated there with the accused and told him to keep quiet and not to talk. On approaching the soldiers Sgt.Ongley heard a voice say; "Why did you take it?", or words to that effect. He stated that he had handed the bag of coins to Mr.Gibson because he had seen him in the canteen before and assumed he was entitled to receive it. Mr Cotgrove identified the bag in Sgt.Ongley's presence. The latter did not count the money and did not see anyone else doing so. Sgt Ongley stated he can claim a knowledge when a man is drunk as about seventeen thousand persons had passed through his hands and a fair proportion had been drunks. This man was not. This conclusion was borne out he said by the following actions of the accused. Cpl.Smith asked for a cigarette, Cpl. Ley offered him one but Pte Daws intervened and suggested he have one of his; also he asked permission to attend to the toilet and walked there of his own accord without assistance.

On first approaching the accused Sgt.Ongley noticed that he placed his right hand in the right trouser pocket and then quickley placed both hands above his head. Suspecting that he was trying to hide something Sgt. Ongley grasped his right hand and found in it a bag which contained coins.

The name and number of accused was learned when L/Cpl. Ley asked for them in accordance with duty routine.

Mr Cotgrove identified the accused as having been in the canteen before by saying;that this was the man who stole the coins, or words to that effect. There appeared to Sgt.Ongley to be no doubt in Mr.Cotgrove's mind that Pte.Daws not Cpl. Smith had stolen the bag.

The witness was cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

He said that when he approached the two Canadian soldiers he stood in front of them,explained who he was, and said they were under suspicion of stealing the bag and gave them the customary warning and told them they were beingdetained.

The bag of money was about five inches by four and one half inches and could be concealed in a closed hand,and although he was watching the accused closely he did not see the bag, although he saw him put his hands up.

He doubted that the voice could have come from anyone else as he was close enough to see him though it was on a busy thoroughfare.

The accused became violent when he saw he was being taken into custody.

Mr Cotgrove was a timid man which would account for his being not definite in his identification of the accused according to the Summary of Evidence. Although the witness has handled about 20000 cases since this one he was certain he could remember the details, as he had had considerable experience in this.

He was five to seven yards from the men before he saw them, as they were standing near the light of a traffic island, he recognized them as soldiers by the outline of their clothing.

Sgt.Ongley stated that he had given his evidence twice before and it was based on notes taken at the time to which he had last referred on the morning of the trial.

Rule of Procedeure 83(B) has been complied with.

Second Witness for Prosecution.

2658784 L/Cpl.Ley.J.P., C.M.P., C.L.R.D., Whitehall, being duly sworn was examined by the prosecution.

"I am 2658784 L/Cpl.Ley.J.P. of the C.M.P. stationed at C.L.R.D. Great Scotland Yard".

L/Cpl.Ley identified the accused as Pte Lewis.

The President read out the evidence of L/Cpl.Ley as contained in the Summary of Evidence, to which L/Cpl.Ley answered questions.

He then stated that the canteen was a long narrow room with tables at both sides and down the centre. He was sitting at the first table from the passage on the right hand side about six feet away from a cash desk and three feet away from a table and saw the accused standing between the table and the cash desk and mentioned his presence casually to Sgt. Ongley. He did not see the two men leaving the canteen, nor did he recognize the accused in the street later, but did recognize him when he was returned to the canteen.

In his opinion the man was not drunk because he gave his name and number clearly; and acted as described by Sgt.Ongley. When in the lavatory he asked to wash his face with L/Cpl.Ley's handkerchief and said; "I'll get straightened up. I don't want to get you fellows into trouble"; or words to that effect. He was able to stand without support.

The witness was cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.(1)"What was the attitude of Cpl.Smith?"

A.(1) "He was amazed and could not understand why we detained him. He told the accused to be quiet that everything would be all right".

After hesitation L/Cpl.Ley said that when he approached the men he heard a voice say; "You should not have done it"; or words to that effect. He said the voice came from the vicinity of the two men, but agreed voice could have come from someone else in the vicinity, though he was not sure that there was anyone else thereabouts.

He replied that he had talked over the evidence with Sgt.Ongley the day before the trial.

He said that there were not many soldiers about as it was fairly late and fairly quiet.

He answered that it was necessary to be about four feet away from the men before you could see them properly.

PPCLI President

When told that Mr.Cotgrove in his statement for the Summary of Evidence had said he could not definitely identify Pte.Daws as being the soldier who had taken the bag, although he himself had said in his statements that the accused was idnetified by Mr.Cotgrove when brought back to the Canteen, he said that civilian witnesses were frequently unreliable and quickly forgot events.

Asked to describe what occurred an their approaching the men, he gave the following evidence:-

Sgt.Ongley and he approached the two men and told them they were under suspicion of having taken money from St.Martin's Canteen. The accused then made the reply stated and raised his hands in the air. Sgt. ongley got hold of his hand and found the bag of coins. Mr Gibson had come up in the meantime and received the bag. Sgt.Ongley then ordered him to assist in apprehending the accused. They went to take hold of him and he then hit Sgt.Ongley on the side of the head, swung around and kicked L/Cpl.Ley on the shin. The struggling commenced after they went to lay hands on him.

It was while they went to apply the No.1 Police Hold that L/Cpl.Ley was kicked.

At the request of the Court L/Cpl.Ley demonstrated, with the Defending Officer as a subject, the No.1 Police Hold

Rule of Procedeure 83(b) has been complied with.

At 1600 o'clock the Court adjourned until 1030 o'clock tenth day of October 1941, when civilian witnesses should be available.

On the tenth day of October 1941 at 1030 the Court reassemble pursuant to adjournment; present the same members as on the ninth day of October 1941.

3rd Witness for Prosecution.

Mr.Cotgrove being duly sworn stated:
"I am Mr.S.F.Cotgrove of 1 Adelaide Street, London, engaged as shelter Warden at St.Martins In the Field. I was on duty on the night of the eighteenth of August 1941".

The statement made by Mr.Cotgrove in the Summary of Evidence was read over and he agreed that it was correct.

He then described the incidents which occurred.

He said he was standing some yards from the entrance inside the Canteen when two soldiers entered. One of them stood by the small desk, put his hand on it, then put his hand into his pocket, hesitated for a minute, turned to the entrance then went out.

The soldier indicated as having been found in possession of the bag by the C.A.P. resembled in general appearance and build and uniform this man whom he had seen acting as described.

The soldiers were noisy and under the influence of drink, but were not completely drunk.

The witness was cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

He stated that the bag of money was the usual Banker's size and could be grasped in the hand. All of it could not be contained in a closed fist. He agreed it was just something blue, the colour of the bag, which he saw and assumed it to be the copper bag, that he was some distance from the soldier, and that there were a few other people passing between.

Rule of Procedeure 83(B) was complied with.

The Case for the Prosecution was closed.

DEFENCE

The accused was informed of his rights in accordance with R.P.40(a) and M.M.L. Page 644(n2).

The accused was asked the following questions:-

Q.(1)"Do you wish to give evedence as a witness?"

A.(1) "Yes".

Q.(2) "Do you intend to call any other witnesses on your behalf?"

A.(2) "Yes".

Q.(3) "Are they witnesses as to character only"?

A.(3) "No".

(The procedeure set out in R.P.40 was then followed.)

Accused.

Pte Daws having been duly sworn stated:-
"I am K52555 Pte Daws.A.E. of The Seaforth Highlanders of Canada"Regiment".

Questioned as to what he recollected of the occurrences on the evening of the eighteenth of August he said that he remembered nothing after leaving the "Silver Grill" until he found himself sitting in a straight backed chair with his hands locked behind him and being beaten on the face with a wet towel. When he asked why this was being done, he was told that it was to wipe the blood off his face. The Canadian Military Pilice then arrived and took him to Henrietta Street.

Asked how long he had been drinking and how much, he said that after landing in London he went to "Meronne's Bar" at about 1730 hrs and had about three or four pints of beer and about four double scotches. Then they went to the "Beaver Club" for supper and then to the "Silver Grill" where they met a Scotsman who proceeded to buy them double rums for the rest of the evening.

He stated that he was paid on a Saturday and then went on guard, and on the Monday received a further £1-10-0d with which to go on leave, thus being paid twice within a few days.

The witness was cross-examined by the prosecutor.

He stated that it was his first "bender" for a long time. He said his memory of what happens when he has been drinking is very short, and agreed that anything might have happened.

Asked who was in the party at the "Silver Grill" with him he said, Cpl.Tuffs, Cpl.Smith, Pte.Walker, Pte.Stevenson, a [redacted] and many of his friends.

The conversation as he remembered was average, concerning what each of the party was doing, where they were going on leave and so on.

He stated that he had £4-10-0d when he went on leave and £2-19-0d when he returned.

The blood on his face he assumed must have been from the way the Military Police had handled him, but does not think they knocked him out.

The witness was re-examined by the Defending Officer and stated in reply to questions that the Cameronian was buying drinks for the large party, also that one of the party was the owner of the brewery which supplied the beer to the"Silver Grill". This man later became sick and was taken home.

He stated that he was asked by Canadian Military Police why he had not "knocked the blocks off" the Provosts for marking him up as they had.

1st Witness for Defence.

K52862 Cpl.Smith.M.A. having been duly sworn states:-

"I am K52862 Cpl.Smith.M.A. of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada".

Cpl.Smith recognized the accused as Pte.Daws.

The President read out the statement of Cpl.Smith in the Summary of Evidence and Cpl.Smith stated it to be correct.

He said that the last time he remembered Daws he was intoxicated with rum and scotches as indicated in his actions and the way he stumbled about. Daws he said had some money in bills but could not say exactly how much.

The witness was cross-examined by the Prosecutor.

He stated in reply to questions that his opinion that Pte Daws was drunk was based on the amount of liquor he had drank in comparison with his own(Cpl.Smith) degree of intoxication, and the fact that Pte Daws was stumbling about after moving over to the "Silver Grill".
He stated that when he was accosted by the C.M.P. he was just walking down the street to the best of his knowledge.

R.P. 83(B) was complied with.

2nd Witness for Defence.

K52711 Pte Stevenson.T.A. Seaforth Highlanders of Canada having been duly sworn stated:-

"I am K52711 Pte.Stevenson.T.A. of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada".

He said he knew Pte.Daws and was with him on the night of the eighteenth of August 1941.

His chronicle of events was, that they arrived in London between 1630 and 1700 hrs and after supper at the "Beaver Club" had gone to "Neronne's Bar" where they drank Scotch Ale and Scotch Whiskey. They left there at about 2000hrs and went to the "Silver Grill" where they drank rum and beer for the rest of the evening.
The accused had more to drink than the witness as the party he was in was setting up double rums for him. At one time the accused fell off a stool before the bar and knocked over a table with glasses and bottles on it. He was also attempting to sing but could not articulate clearly, as is frequent with drunken persons.
A sergent of the Black Watch came in with the owner of a brewery and commenced to buy drinks all round. As it was getting close to the time for his train he,(Pte Stevenson) left and that was the last he saw of Pte.Daws.
Asked whether he saw Pte.Daws with money, he said that the accused pulled out paper money several times.

The witness was cross-examined by the Prosecutor.

He stated that in his opinion the accused ~~was~~ was fairly drunk, and that he left the grill at twenty minutes to eleven.

In reply to questions he said that he left Pte.Daws in the grill room at almost fifteen minutes to eleven, and that the accused was then drunk. This he illustrated by saying that the accused staggered and knocked over a table and fell over backwards when he went to get a high stool. He also said that he twice saw the accused pay for drinks with £1 notes.

The witness was cross-examined by the Prosecutor.

He said on cross- examination that he had been drinking rum and beer and was feeling pretty happy, but was sober enough to leave in time for his train.

Question by the Court to 3rd witness for defence:-

Q.(1). "Would you say that the accused had had more to drink than you had"?

A.(1). "Yes".

R.P.83(B) was complied with.

The Prosecutor made a reply, which is attached as page of the Proceedings.

The Court was closed for the consideration of the finding.

FINDING.

The Court find that the accused K52555 Pte.Daws.A.E., Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, is ~~not~~ NOT GUILTY of the fourth charge, but is GUILTY of the first and second charges.

The finding of NOT GUILTY on the fourth charge was read in open court.

The Defending Officer made the following plea in mitgation of sentence:-

The character of the accused was excellent as shown in the statement of the witness who said he was trustworthy and efficient. Also his Company Commander had stated that he wished to have Pte.Daws back in his Company.

The circumstances under which the offences were committed should be taken into consideration, in that the accused had been drinking heavily. Also their was provocation due to the apparently unnecessary force employed by the Military Police in detaining the man.

In addition Pte.Daws had already been in custody for 52 days as shown by the certificate produced (Appendix A)

SENTENCE.

The Court sentence the accused K52555 Pte.Daws.A.E., of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada to SIXTY DAYS DETENTION.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of K 52555 Pte. DAWS, A. E. SEAFORTH HIGHLANDERS OF CANADA

First Witness

Mr. S. F. COTGROVE of 1 ADELAIDE ST., LONDON, W.C. 1. having been duly warned states:-

" On the 18 Aug. 41. I was on duty as Shelter Warden at St.MARTINS IN THE FIELD. At approximately 10 P.M. I was standing outside the entrance to the canteen when two soldiers went into the canteen. They were making a noise and appeared to have been drinking. I saw one of the soldiers who was standing by a roll-top desk place his left hand on the desk and then put it in his pocket. I noticed in his hand something which appeared to be blue. Knowing that the copper money was kept in blue bags I thought that he might have taken one of these bags which were sometimes kept on the roll-top desk. The two soldiers then left the canteen and I went in and asked the Superintendant if a copper bag had been left on the desk. As a result of what the Superintendant told me, I followed the soldiers to the foot of the stairway leading out to the street. I there met Mr. GIBSON and told him to follow them which he did. I returned to the canteen and told Sgt. ONGLEY and L/Cpl. LEY of the C. M. P. what had occurred. They left the canteen in search of the soldiers and later returned with two soldiers. I had not had ~~the~~ an opportunity of having a close look at the soldiers but from the similarity of their dress and build I was reasonably certain that the soldiers brought in by the C. M. P. were the same two whom I had seen enter the canteen as above stated. Shortly after the soldiers left in the company of the C. M. P. I cannot definitely swear that the accused whom I now see was the soldier whom I saw standing by the roll-top desk as above stated. I can only say that his face is familiar to me."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

S. F. COTGROVE.

Second Witness

7684890 Sgt. ONGLEY, A. C. CORPS OF MILITARY POLICE having been duly warned states:-

" On the 18 Aug. 41. I was having , in company with L/Cpl. LEY, refreshments in ST.MARTINS CANTEEN, ST. MARTINS-in-the-FIELD, when at 23.05 hours I was approached by Mr. COTGROVE, who ascertained that we were military policeman. As a result of what Mr. COTGROVE had to say I left the canteen with L/Cpl. Ley in search of two Canadian Soldiers who had recently been in the canteen, and at the top of the stairs at the entrance to the canteen we were met by a Mr. GIBSON who had endeavoured to follow the two Canadian soldiers, but who had lost them in the black-out. I went in the direction of Charing Cross Road but could not see them but heard voices in arguement coming from the direction of ADELAIDE PLACE. On proceeding in that direction with L/Cpl. Ley, I came upon two soldiers, one of whom I now recognize as the accused. I told them who I was and explained to them that they were under suspicion of having taken a bag of money outof St. MARTINS CANTEEN. I then gave them the customary warning. Pte. DAWS, whom I now recognize as the accused said," Search me you Cock Sucking Bastard". I then ordered them both to accompany me to St.MARTINS CANTEEN which they refused to do. I then instructed L/Cpl. LEY to assist me in taking Pte. DAWS into custody. Upon taking hold of Pte. DAWS' right hand I discovered it contained a dark coloured bag of coins. I took this from him and handed it to Mr. GIBSON. The accused then struck me a blow and started to struggle violently. In doing so he kicked L/Cpl. LEY on the shin. His actions necessitated the use of force to restrain him. Together with L/Cpl. LEY, I took Pte. DAWS to St. MARTINS CANTEEN and Pte. DAWS and Cpl. SMITH were then identified both by Mr.GIBSON and Mr. COTGROVE. The accused was pointed out by Mr. COTGROVE as the man who had taken the bag. The accused then stated," If I have done wrong I cantake it," and used obscene language.

18

used obscene language./
I then communicated with the Canadian Provost Corps and the accused and Cpl. SMITH were subsequently escorted to C. M. P. Headquarters. It was apparent from the breath of the accused and Cpl. SMITH that they had both been drinking. I would say they were not drunk but were under the influence of liquor. The accused was able to reason and argue and appeared to be in complete possession of his faculties. He was not staggering in any way.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness

8658734 L/Cpl. LEY, J. CORPS OF MILITARY POLICE having been duly warned states:-

" On 18 Aug. 41. at 23.05 hrs. I was sitting with Sgt. ONGLEY in the canteen in St. Martins-in-the-Field, when we were approached by a canteen warden whom I now know to be Mr. COTGROVE and were asked if we were military policemen. As a result of what Mr. COTGROVE told us we left the canteen in search of two soldiers. At the exit we met Mr. GIBSON. As a result of what Mr. GIBSON told us we went in the direction of Charring Cross Road. As it was dark we were unable to locate the soldiers. We then heard from the direction of ADELAIDE PLACE voices raised in argument and we approached and saw two soldiers one of whom I now recognize as the accused. We told the soldiers that they were under suspicion of having taken a bag of money from St. MARTINS CANTEEN. Pte. DAWS said, " Search me you Cock Sucking Bastard ". The accused was holding a bag of money in his right hand which was taken from him by Sgt. ONGLEY who handed it to Mr. GIBSON, who had come up in the meantime. Sgt. ONGLEY then cautioned the accused and ordered me to assist in apprehending him. Pte. DAWS commenced to struggle and struck a blow at Sgt. ONGLEY. He was extremely violent while I was holding him and kicked me on the left shin. Sgt. ONG and myself escorted the accused to St. MARTINS CANTEEN where Pte. DAWS and Cpl. SMITH were identified by Mr. GIBSON and Mr. COTGRO Mr. COTGROVE pointed to the accused and said," That is the man w took the bag". Pte. DAWS said," If I have done wrong I can take He continued to be abusive. At 23.20 hrs. the Canadian Police c and took the accused into custody. The breath of the accused s of liquor. He was not drunk but was under the influence of liquor. He was able to stand and answer questions intelligently. For example he was able to give me his name and number when I asked for it."

Fourth Witness

K 528562 Cpl. SMITH, M. A. SEAFORTH HIGHLANDERS of CANADA having been duly warned states:-

"I arrived in LONDON at about 16.30 hrs. on 18 Aug. 41. in the company of Pte. DAWS, A. E., whom I now recognize as the accused, Pte. WALKER, J. and Pte. STEPHENSON, all of 'D' Coy., Seaforth Highlanders of Canada. The four of us went straight to the Beaver Club where we had something to eat but no drinks. At about 17.30 hrs. we all proceeded to NEROUNE'S BAR in TRAFALGAR SQUARE where we remained until approximately 20.00 hrs. While there we consumed a quantity of Scotch Ale and Scotch Whiskey. We then went to the SILVER GRILL on the STRAND where we continued drinking. Our drinks here consisted principally of Rum. My next recollection is of Pte. DAWS and myself being accosted on the street by two Military Policemen. One of them took hold of my arm, felt my stripes and said, "It is alright Corporal", or words to that effect. A civilian came up and I heard one of the policeman ask him to stay with me which he did. I heard a scuffle but it was too dark for me to see what was going on. The next thing I remember is being in St. MARTINS CANTEEN with the policemen, Pte. DAWS and a civilian.

19

Pte. DAWS and a civilian./
Later the Canadian Military Police ame and took us to their Headquarters. I have no recollection of going into St. MARTINS CANTEEN after leaving the SILVER GRILL nor do I remember any conversation or anything that took place in the CANTEEN when taken there by the policemen. I admit I was intoxicated which is the reason I can remember so little of what happened.

Fifth Witness

The following is a statement of Mr. A.K. Gibson, of No. 1 Adelaide Street, London, W.C. 1, given in writing and signed by him, which said statement has been read to the accused and is included in this Summary of Evidence. The accused has waived his right to demand that the witness attend for cross-examination:-

"Mr. S.F. Cotgrove approached me with the request that I follow two soldiers who were leaving the canteen. It being assumed that they had stolen a bag of coins from the canteen. I followed them up the stairs to the street but lost them in the darkness. I was then approached by Sergeant Ongley, C.M.P., who asked me in what direction the soldiers had proceeded. I told him that I thought that they had gone off in the direction of St. Martin's Lane, he then ran off in the direction indicated by me, however, hearing shouts and sounds of a disturbance coming from the direction of Adelaide Place, I went there and found Sergeant Ongley and Cpl. Ley struggling with a soldier. Sergeant Ongley having ascertained who I was handed to me the bag of coins with the request that I should endeavour to accompany the other soldier to the canteen as he was having difficulty in securing the soldier who was struggling violently, whom I recognised as being one of the soldiers I had been requested to follow."

I hereby certify that in my opinion the attendance of the above-mentioned witness cannot be readily procured having regard to the expense and loss of time involved.

EVIDENCE
re
FIELD GENERAL COURT MARTIAL
2 and 3 March, 1945
on charge against
K 52555 Private Albert Edward Daws
No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION. L 50164 CSM Thomson, S., Company Sergeant Major, No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, Cdn. Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:-

EXAMINED BY PROSECUTOR:

Q.1 Do you recognize the accused?
A.1 I do. (Witness indicates accused)

Q.2 The accused is charged with absenting himself without leave for a period of 16 days and 17 hours on 22 December 44. Can you tell the Court what you know of this matter?
A.2 Sir, No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps moved into billets at Westerloo on 22 December 44 arriving there shortly before noon. Just after we arrived I was notified that all personnel were confined to their billet area as an alert was in force at that time. The Company were in turn notified of this in a general way. That evening I instructed the Orderly Sergeant, Sgt Lemelin, and the Orderly Corporal, Cpl Paulson, to take a tattoo roll call of the Company at 2230 hours. At Reveille the following morning Cpl Paulson informed me that the accused had been absent from his quarters when a tattoo roll call was taken. At approximately 0800 hours 23 December 44 a parade of the Company was called and I personally called the roll. The accused failed to answer his name. I made a search through the billets but could find no trace of him and reported his absence to the Commanding Officer.

Q.3 Will you describe, please, what you mean when you said the order was passed to the Company in a general way?
A.3 No special parade was called to notify the Company that they were confined to their billet area. I notified the Orderly Sergeant, & the Orderly Corporal, also several other N.C.Os. whose names I cannot now remember and instructed them to pass the information through the various rooms in which Other Rank personnel were quartered.

Q.4 How and when did the Company move to their new location?
A.4 There were several movements, Sir, On 23 December 44 a small detachment left Westerloo for Spa also on 23 December another detachment left for Heeze in Holland, then on 24 December the balance of the Company left for Milheeze, Holland.

Q.5 Did you see Pte Daws on any one of these detachments?
A.5 No, Sir, I did not.

Q.6 Would you have known if he had been on them?
A.6 I think I would, Sir, as I looked on him as an absentee and was therefore keeping my eye open for him.

Q.7 When was the last time you saw Pte Daws?
A.7 On 22 December after our arrival at Westerloo. I can't state any definite time.

Q.8 But you noticed that he was there?
A.8 Yes, I saw him after we arrived at Westerloo.

Page TWO follows.....

CROSS-EXAMINED BY OFFICER FOR THE DEFENCE:-

Q.9 Sergeant Major is it possible that the accused did not hear the C.B. order on 22 December?
A.9 Yes, Sir, that is possible.

Q.10 What type of duty does Pte Daws usually carry on in the Company?
A.10 He was usually engaged in camp fatigue and guard duties.

Q.11 Is his work usually satisfactory?
A.11 Yes, Sir, I never had any particular trouble with him.

Q.12 Do you know of any reason why he would have left had he known of the C.B. order?
A.12 No, Sir, I know of no reason.
R.P. (83 (B) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION. G 48247 Pte Paulson, G.E., No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, Cdn. Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:-

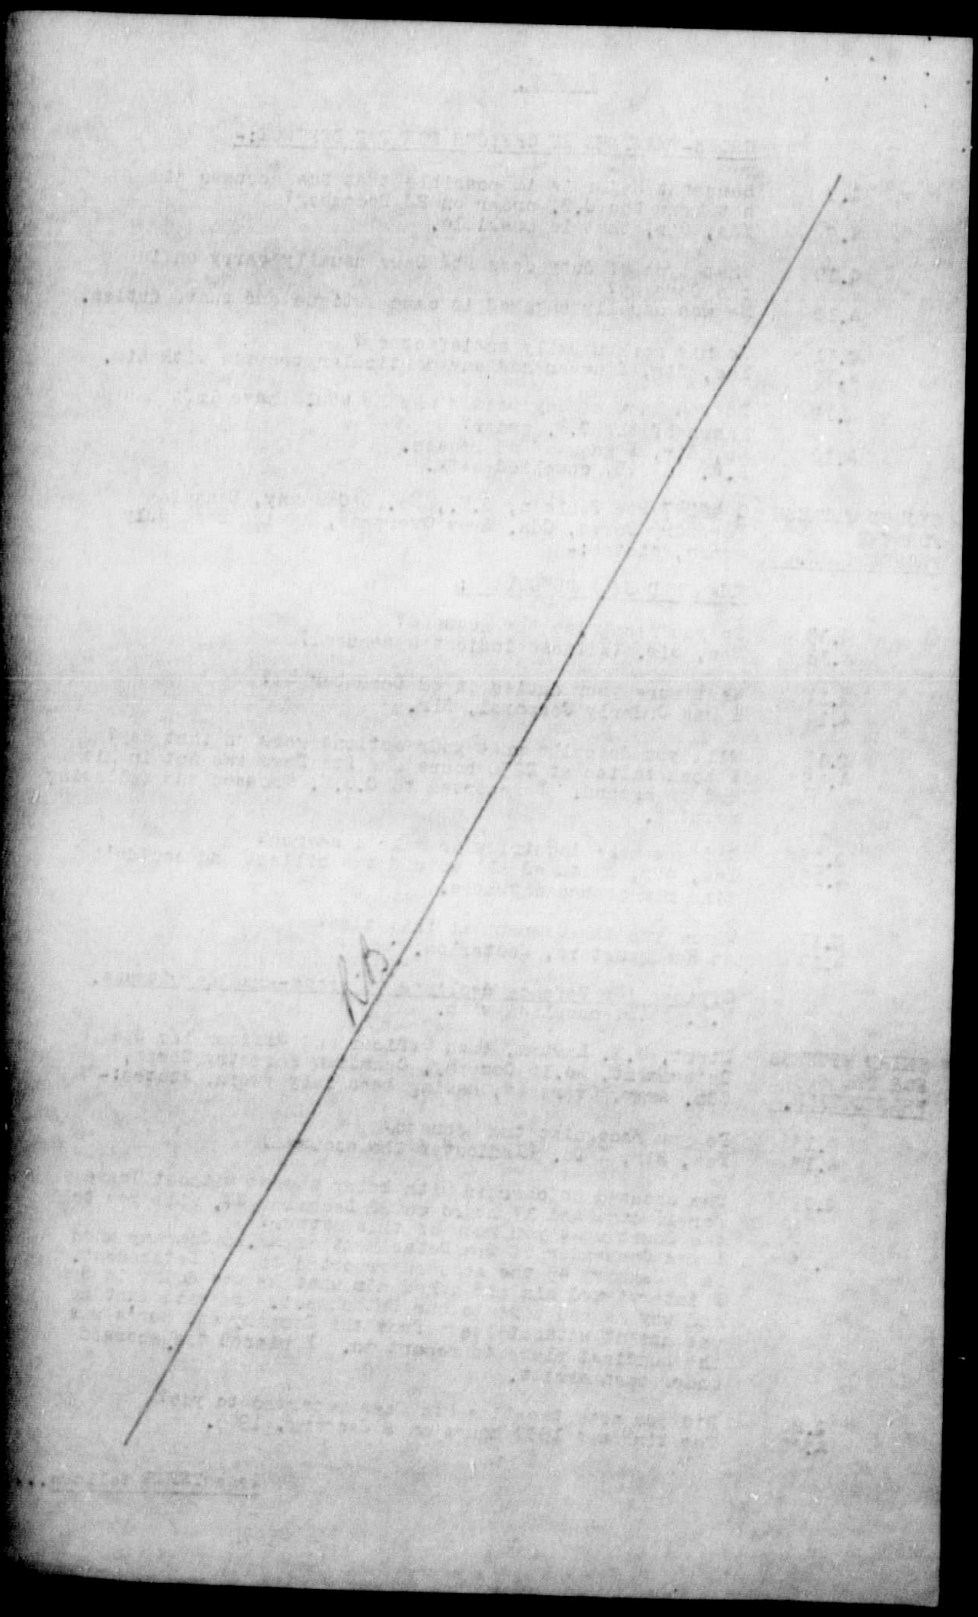
Q.14 What were your duties on 22 December 44?
A.14 I was Orderly Corporal, Sir.

Q.15 Will you describe what your actions were on that day?
A.15 I took tattoo at 2230 hours and Pte Daws was not in his bed or around. I reported to C.S.M. Thomson the following morning.

Q.16 Did you make inquiries or make a search?
A.16 Yes, Sir, I looked all around the billets and couldn't find him around anywhere.

Q.17 Where was the Company at this time?
A.17 At Headquarters, Westerloo.

Officer for Defence declines to cross-examine witness.
R.P. 83(B) complied with.



THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION. Lieut, W.R. Lawton, Bush Officer and Officer i/c Spa Detachment, No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, Cdn. Army, Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:-

A.18 Yes, Sir, I Do. (Indicates the accused)

Q.19 The accused is charged with being absent without leave for 16 days and 17 hours on 22 December 44, will you tell the Court what you know of this matter?
A.19 I was Commander of Spa Detachment of No.16 Company when on 8 January 45 the accused reported to the Detachment. I interviewed him and asked him what he was doing in Spa and why he had come to our Detachment. He said that he was absent without leave from the Company and our's was the handiest place to report in. I placed the accused under open arrest.

Q.20 Did you note the time Pte Daws reported to you?
A.20 The time was 1530 hours on 8 January, 1945.

Page THREE follows....

Q.21 Did you report to the Officer Commanding that Pte Daws had returned?

A.21 Yes.

Officer for Defence declines to cross-examine witness.

The accused expresses the desire to give evidence on his own behalf on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

K 52555 Private Daws, A.E., No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, Cdn. Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:-

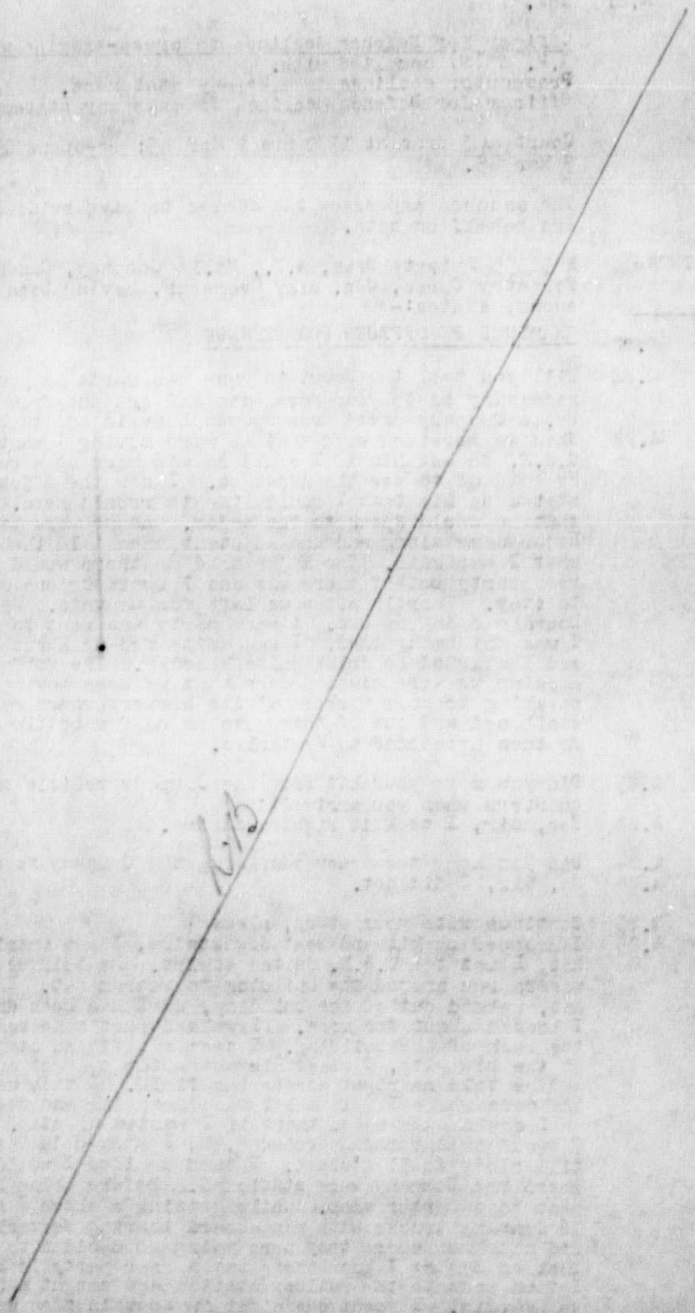
EXAMINED BY OFFICER FOR DEFENCE

Q.22 Will you tell the Court in your own words as you think it is necessary as to your movements and actions from the time No.16 Company moved from Spa to Louvain and to Westerloo?

A.22 When we received word that we were moving I went to the C.S.M. to ask him if I could remain here as a rear party. He told me to see the Adjutant. I saw the Adjutant and stated to him that I would like to remain here. He said that he would speak to the Major. As we were talking the Major came along and the Adjutant then told the Major what I had said. The Major told me there would be no rear party but if there was one I would be one of the ones to stay. Shortly after we left for Louvain. We were in Louvain a day or two. A rear party was sent to Spa and I was not among them. I was quite fed up about this time and I started to drink quite heavily. The following morning we were given orders that we were moving. I was speaking to some workmen at the brewery where we were stationed and one of them gave me half a bottle of cognac. We then proceeded to Westerloo.

Q.23 Did you move your kit from the Company vehicle to the quarters when you arrived?

A.23 Yes, Sir, I took it right upstaire.



Q.24 Did you hear the order confining the Company to barracks?

A.24 No, Sir, I did not.

Q.25 Continue with your story, please?

A.25 I dropped my kit and went downstairs, I was wearing no hat, I met the C.S.M. on the stairs. He told me if I was to run around the building to wear a hat. I got my hat, walked out of the building, as I had been drinking I looked about for more. I walked past some tents at the back of the building. I seen a civilian standing at the big gate, I asked him where the nearest cafe was and he told me right across the field. I then went to the cafe where I done a lot more drinking and they told me I could have a bed there if I wanted to stay. I awoke next morning around 9.30, I stayed in the cafe till close to 11 o'clock. I then decided I would go back where the Company were stationed. Before going back I went to a barber shop. While getting a shave I seen 16 Company trucks with men aboard leaving Westerloo. I did not know where they were going so decided to come back to Spa as I knew there was a rear party in Spa. I then went to the railway station and caught a freight to Louvain. I spent one night in Louvain then proceeded to Leige where I spent one night.

N.B.

Then I went to Verviers where I got an ammo truck and went to Malmedy or just outside Malmedy where I tried to join the American 12th Field Artillery. They would not let me go into action with them. I stayed there two days and a Colonel sent me back. I came back through Spa to Verviers where I tried to join an Infantry unit in Verviers. I spoke to a Captain there and told him that I was from a non-combat unit but would like to go into action. I lied to him as I told him we had nothing to do at the present time. He said that he would try to do what he could for me, so I waited around for several days. Then I realized I was away a long time. I came back to Spa and reported to Lieut Lawton.

Cross-examined by Officer for the Prosecution:

Q.26 You say you tried to get back to Spa in your statement, to the Detachment there and yet later in your statement you say you tried to join an Artillery unit and when that failed an Infantry unit. You also came back from Malmedy to Verviers passing through Spa. Did you not try to contact the Detachment at Spa?

A.26 Sir, when I left Westerloo my idea was that I would see action in Spa. When I reached Verviers I found out the enemy was no where near Spa at the time and as I am well acquainted with quite a number of boys in the 12th Field Artillery I thought I would join them.

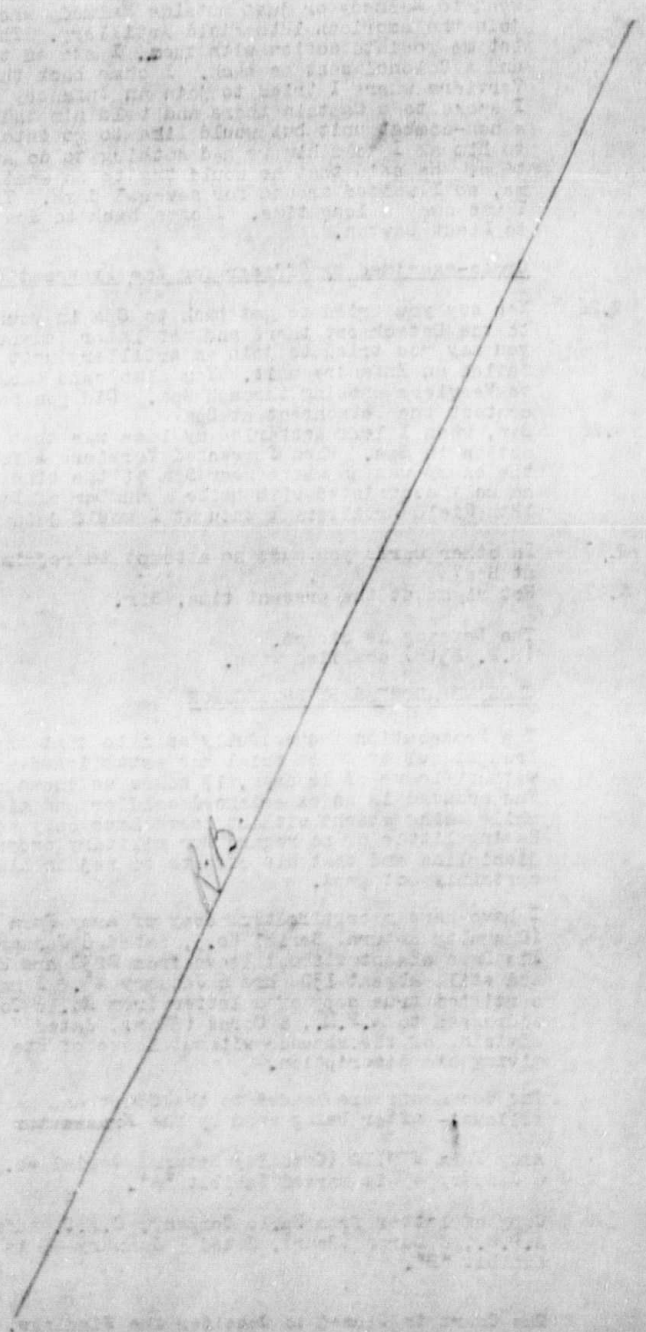
Q.27 In other words you made no attempt to rejoin your unit at Spa?

A.27 Not right at the present time, Sir.

The Defence is closed.
(R.P. 83(B) complied with.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTOR

The Prosecution respectfully submits that the evidence brought out at th is trial has established an absence without leave of 16 days, 17 hours as shown on the charge. The accused is an experienced soldier and his actions while being absent without leave have only shown him as having little or no regard for military order and discipline and that his efforts to rejoin his unit were certainly not good.



I have here a certified true copy of Army Form W3011A (Casualty Return) Serial No.3, dated 6 January 45 showing Pte Daws absent without leave from 2230 hrs 22 December 44 and still absent 1500 hrs 6 January 45. I have also a certified true copy of a letter from No.16 Company, C.F.C. addressed to A.P.M., 8 Corps (REar), dated 7 January 45, advising of the absence without leave of Pte Daws and giving his description.

The documents are handed to the Court and marked as follows:- after being read by the President:-

Army Form W3011A (Casualty Return) Serial No.3, dated 6 January 45 is marked Exhibit "A".

Copy of letter from No.16 Company, C.F.C. addressed to A.P.M., 8 Corps (Rear), dated 7 January 45 is marked Exhibit "B".

The Court is Closed to Consider the Findings.

FINDING

The Court being re-opened, the Accused is again brought before it.

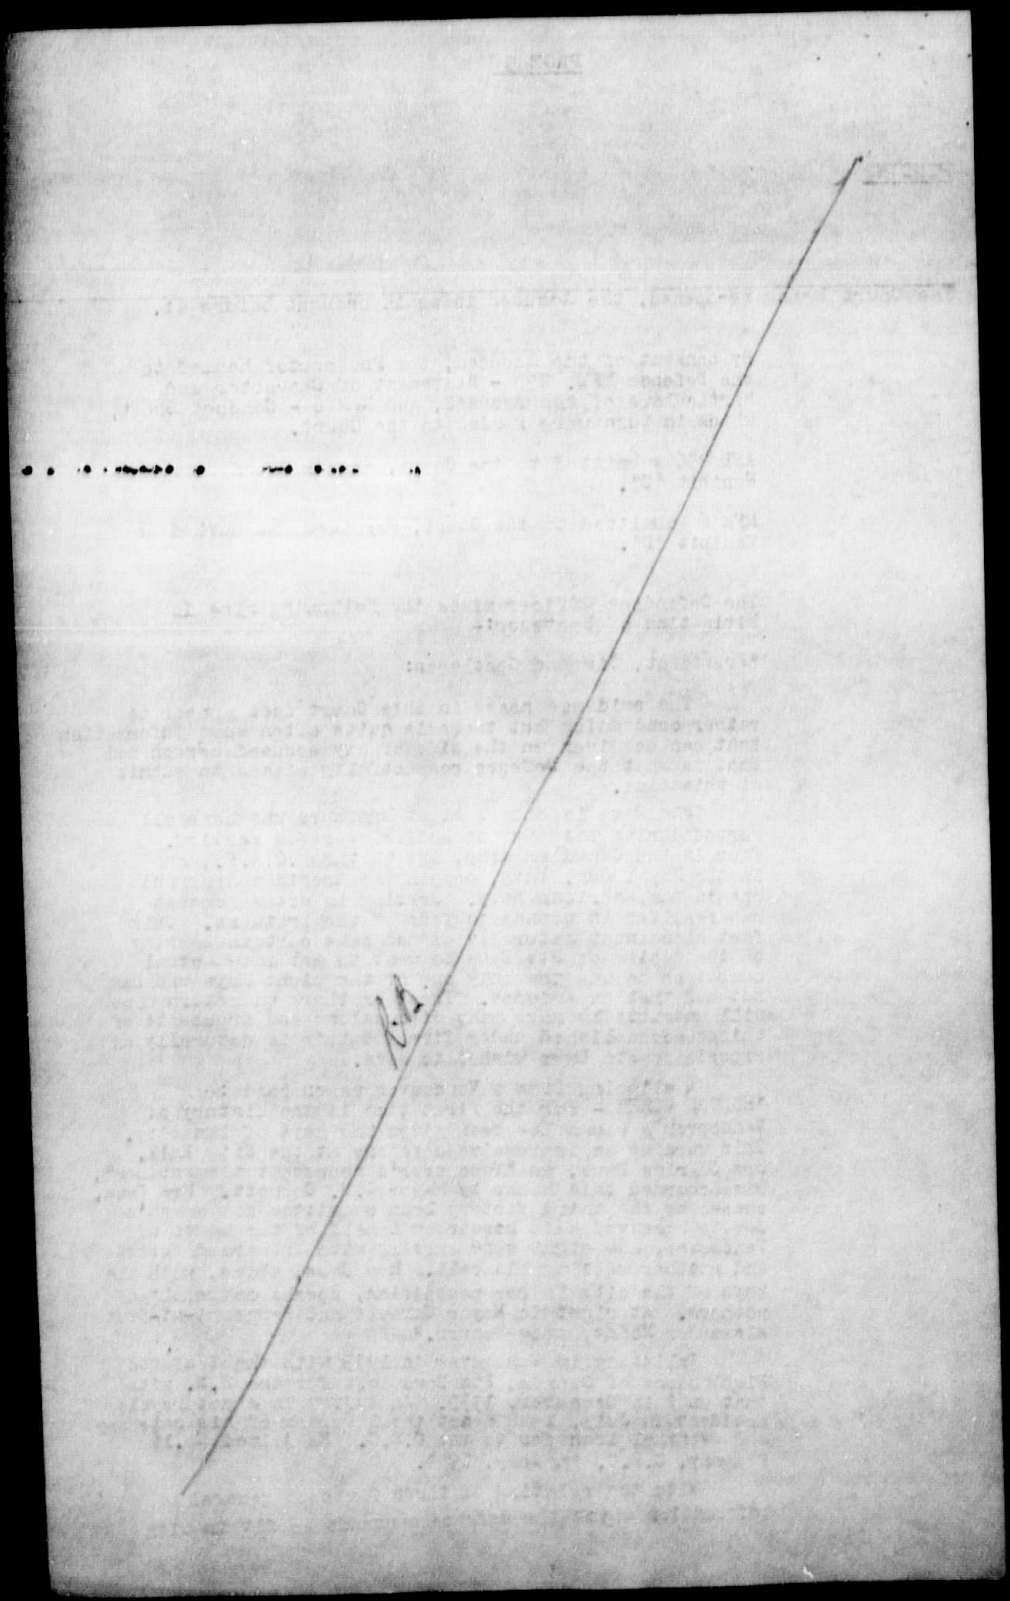
By consent of the Accused, the Prosecutor handed to the Defence MFB. 296 - Statement of Character and Particulars of the Accused, and MFM 6 - Conduct Sheet, which in turn were handed to the Court.

AFB 296 submitted to the Court, examined and marked as Exhibit "C".

MFM 6 submitted to the Court, examined and marked as Exhibit "D".

The Defending Officer makes the following Plea in Mitigation of Sentence:-

"President, Sir and Gentlemen:



The evidence heard in this Court does appear as rather condemning but there is quite often some information that can be given on the side of any accused person and that is what the Defence respectfully wishes to submit at this time.

Pte Daws is one of eight brothers who have all served during this war on active overseas service. Four in the Canadian Army, one in the R.C.A.F., one in the Royal Cdn. Navy, one in the American Army and one in the American Navy. Serving in actual combat has resulted in wounds to four of the brothers. This fact alone must naturally of had some certain bearing on the desire of Pte Daws to want to get into actual combat as he was the only one of the eight boys who had not had that experience. These brothers on return home will undoubtedly have many discussions and arguments of things accomplished under fire and this is naturally an experience Pte Daws wished to have.

A clipping from a Vancouver paper reads:- "HONORS WOMEN - For the first time in the history of Vancouver a woman has been given the keys of the city. This morning an impressive ceremony at the City Hall, Mrs Charles Daws, as "Vancouver's representative mother", was accorded this honor by Mayor J.W. Cornett. Mrs Daws, chosen by the third Victory Loan committee for women's day to received this honour on behalf of the women of Vancouver, has eight sons serving with the armed forces and another waiting his call. Mrs Daws, above, with the keys of the city in her possession, speaks on behalf of mothers. At right is Mayor Cornett and Sergeant-at-arms Alexander McKay, mace-bearer."

Enlisting in Vancouver in 1939 with the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada, Pte Daws left for the U.K. with that unit in December, 1939. An injury in a motorcycle accident in July, 1942 meant the lowering of his category and eventual transfer to the C.F.C. He joined No.18 Company, C.F.C. in July, 1944.

With the relating of these facts of general information which the defence contends do fit in with the actions of the accused and together with his own evidence it is hoped they will be given sympathetic consideration by the Court.

The accused has been spoken of in evidence as a satisfactory worker and it was not for the purpose of shirking things military that he took his little excursion into more exciting areas.

The prosecution on cross-examination apparently lost sight of the hourly changing conditions from the time the accused started out to join his own unit at Spa until he actually did. The accused's one desire was to see action.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

SENTENCE. The Court sentence the accused, K 52555 Private DAWS, Albert Edward, to:

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of K 52555 Private Daws, Albert Edward of No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, C.A.O., charged with absenting himself without leave from 2230 hours 22 December 44 to 1530 hours 8 January 45.(Absent 16 days, 17 hours) A.A.15(1).

The Commanding Officer does not direct or the accused demand, that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness L50184 C.S.M. Thomson, S., No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, states:-

I am Company Sgt Major of No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps. On 22 December 44, the Company, then in billets at Headquarters, 1 Canadian Forestry Group, was confined to barracks on orders of the Officer Commanding. I instructed the Orderly Sgt and Orderly Corporal to make a bed check of the Company at 2230 hours. This they did, and reported that Pte Daws was absent. The whole company had been ordered confined to barracks on our arrival at Group H.Q. which was about midday on 22 December 44. There had been a warning issued that it was believed that there might be German Parachutists in the vicinity and the whole camp was confined to barracks. The following morning, I personally, called the roll of the Company and Pte. Daws failed to answer his name. I reported his absence to the Officer Commanding. The accused was still absent when the Company left Headquarters in two sections on the mornings of 23 and 24 December 44.

Q.1 Do you know if Pte Daws heard the order that the Company was confined to barracks?

A.1 No, I can't be sure of that as the order was passed to the Company in a general way.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

.....

Second Witness G48247 ~~Cpl~~ Pte Paulson, G.E., No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, states:-

On 22 December 44, I was detailed by C.S.M. Thomson as Orderly Corporal and, at 2230 hours, was instructed to make a bed check of the Company by Sgt Lemelin, the Orderly Sgt. This I did and found that Pte Daws was not present in his quarters. I also made a search of the camp area and inquired if anyone had seen him. I could not find him and he had not been seen by any of his room-mates since late afternoon. I reported his absence to the Orderly Sgt and C.S.M.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

H/Capt. A.S. McConnell, Padre, 8 Cdn LAA Regt RCA having been duly sworn states:-

"I have known the accused for the past 15 months both in Canada and in England. I found him always a hard working man in his capacity. He has acted in the capacity of batman for some time. To the best of my knowledge with any personal dealings that I have had with him he has acted honestly. IK feel possibly that his present predicament is brought on by, shall we say, just a personal weakness, we'll assume conditions, shall we say in England may have suggested to him that possibly there were things that he could get that he might not be found out in. He has pleaded guilty and I feel possibly that he has learned his own lesson at the present time and I only make it a plea that taking into consideration the personal weakness that this Court give him due consideration. That is about all that I could say on his behalf now but I do feel that the man possibly right now realizes just what he has done and has been fairly severely punished by his own condition.

Address by Lt F J Morgan, 8 Cdn LAA Regt RCA, Defending Officer

"I would just like to say a few words that might help the Court in settling the sentence. First of all I would like to point out from the evidence this is the first matter of this type that the accused has ever been brought up on. I can say personnally that I have known the accused since he came to this Regiment because he came to my troop over in Canada and after about two months in the Troop he became batman for the Battery Captain at that time, and he served as batman for approximately 8 months and during that time, most of which he was batman for the Battery Captain who is now Major McKay, and I know Major McKay was very pleased with the man and the relationship between Major McKay and the accused was such that he was very lenient and very good to the accused, in the sense that he gave him quite a bit of money and a few clothes and things like that. That was the relationship that existed and he was not strict with him and perhaps not as strict as he might have been at some times. That condition went on for several months and the accused Gnr. Dawes acted in the Officers' Mess and any officer in the regiment would say that Dawes the accused was extremely hard working, I think that Mr Lynn would agree to that. But later, about 3 months or so ago Maj McKay left the regiment and the problem arose as to what would become of Dawes, the accused, so he kept batting for other officers and I think that when he started batting for other people he found that perhaps they were not quite as liberal with him as Maj McKay had been. The opportunities of a batman, although he is in a position of truct are numerous, in that a lot of batmen are in the habit of using bits of their officer's equipment, also the accessability of officers clothing. I would say this is more than temptation to batmen, I think that batmen start using it without deliberate intention to steal in some cases. I do not think that the person deliberately steals something for the purpose of getting money, I think it best described as petty pilfering of these articles and small articles of equipment and of very little value. The accused has been 11 days in close arrest I know that personally from interviews that I have had with him that he has gone through a lot of strain and stress going through this for the first time and he realizes what he has done and he has a family over in Canada, a wife and three children and he feels extremely sorry of their hearing of this matter with respect to the consequences of their hearing about it. I personally think that the accused and any lesson that anyone else might learn will be learned from a lenient sentence from this Court. And I will say that from personal experience my opinion was always high of him. And in view of the fact that the accessability that a batman has to officers' kits, and that this is the first charge of this kind, and that he is an extremely hard worker I ask that you would be as lenient as possible with him.

Gnr Dawes during this time had access to my kit and was in the practise of sending out my laundry. During this time there appeared to be a shortage of shirts, towels and hdkfs from my kit. I mentioned the shortage of shirts to Gnr Dawes and he informed me that my laundry had returned one shirt short and that he was endeavouring to get this from the laundry. I asked him a week later if he had gotten my shirt and he said No, but that he was still trying. This specific instance did not come to my attention again but I continually had the feeling that several articles were missing from my kit. On Sunday, 30 May 43, my cigarette case was given to me by Gnr (A/Bdr)Smith, W.G. and he told me that the accused had let this drop from his possession a few days before.

Third Witness (continued)

I asked Maj R.J.Hegan, OC 101 Bty, if a kit inspection of the accused might be made to determine whether any articles of my clothing were in his possession. I was present at the kit inspection at 1100 hrs, 3 Jun 43, and an examination of the kit disclosed two pair of socks which I know to be mine and one ration bag which I know to be mine, and the accused was wearing at the time of the inspection one of my shirts. Amongst other articles found in the lines occupied by the accused there was a towel and one handkerchief which belongs to me.

Accused declines to cross-examine witness.

H35396 BSM Elrick, R., 70 Bty, 8 Cdn LAA Regt RCA, having been duly sworn, states:

I was, on Thursday, 3 Jun 43, A/RSM for the 8 Cdn LAA Regt RCA. At approx 1030 hrs, 3 Jun 43, I was ordered by the Adjt to attend a kit inspection of L100304 Gnr Dawes, J.E. with whom I am well acquainted. In the quarters of Gnr Dawes at 1100 hrs, 3 Jun 43, Gnr Dawes was ordered that his kit would be inspected immediately. He proceeded to turn out his kit, I saw one khaki shirt and one ration bag with the name Hamilton on each of these articles. Gnr Dawes admitted to me that these articles were the property of Lt G.B.Hamilton. Also, during the inspection I found 21 other articles which Gnr Dawes admitted to me were not his property. Some of these articles bore Regtl Numbers and names which are not Gnr Dawes. I placed Gnr Dawes under close arrest.

Accused declines to cross-examine witness.

Signature of fourth witness

"The 21 other articles referred to by the fourth witness produced, marked exhibit "C", signed by me and att hereto".

On 3 Jun 43 at approx 1030 hrs, I was present at the request of Maj R.J.Hegan, OC 101 Bty, at a kit inspection of the accused. I assisted in checking his kit for articles not the property of the accused. I saw one khaki dress shirt which he was wearing with the name Hamilton on the inside of the collar. I also saw one handkerchief with the name G. "Ham" on it.

Accused declines to cross-examine witness.

Sixth Witness

H35442 Sgt Gallaher, J.B., 101 Bty, 8 Cdn LAA Regt RCA, having been duly sworn, states:

On 3 Jun 43, Maj Hegan, OC 101 Bty, informed me that there would be a kit inspection of Gnr Dawes, J.E. whom I recognize as the accused. I went over with Maj Hegan, Lt G.B.Hamilton, BSM Elrick, Sgt Robertson. Gnr Dawes' equipment was all turned out on the table and we proceeded to examine the different articles. Lt Hamilton asked to see the shirt which Gnr Dawes was wearing. I saw Lt Hamilton's name on the inside of the collar. Gnr Dawes stated to Maj Hegan that he had no laundry being washed. I went over to the soyer stove in front of HHQ and found several articles there that belonged to the accused. On going through the washing I found one towel, one handkerchief, both of which have been identified to belong to Lt G.B.Hamilton.

Accused declines to cross-examine witness.

Opening address of the Prosecuting Officer

Before going on to substantiate the charges which have beem read out I propose to place before the court a very brief outline of the facts as they emerged on the summary of evidence and as they will emerge from the testimony. Onthe 5th of June two officers from our Regt Capt Lewis and Lieut Curtiss and an officer from the Ordnance were having coffee in the Halloway Cafe, that is a small cafe in Mindhead and about 2 15 hrs the accused and SQMS Miller came in and took up a position some 8 or 10 ft away. They were at first quite quiet, but I wish to prove that their speech and actions proved to these officers that they had been drinking heavily. A few minutes later another officer of the 28 ArmD Regt came in, Lt Stevens, with a friend. He looked around for a table and noticed one in the far corner which was about to be vacated by RQMS Davis and he went over to the far side of the cafe and sat down. I wish to prove that the accused then said "Come on, follow me", to SQMS Miller. They then both pushed their way through the centre of the cafe, jostling the patrons and bumping into tables as they went through, The accused then turned and addressing the public in general said "Now look at that, we came in first, yet this officer takes our table, and he came in after we did". Lt Stevens, as the evidence will show, to avoide embarassment, then moved with his friend. Capt Lewis noticing that the attention of the people was being riveted on the accused, went across to speak to him and advised him to leave the cafe, saying, that he was not in a condition to be there. SQMS Miller immediately agreed. The accused, however, did not finally saying, no, to which Capt Lewis said yes you will. The accused asked him if it was an order and when told it was said he could see no reason why he should. In his own evidence on the summary he states he cannot recall any of this. Capt Lewis then told SQMS Miller to take him out and later enlisted the help of RQMS Davis and eventually they left. About 30 minutes later theaccused was back again in the cafe and finished his meal. Finally the accused has stated in his defence that he had been drinking for 3½ hrs and he had no recollection of the affair.

First Witness for the Prosecution

Capt C.M. Lewis 28 Cdn Armd Regt, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecuting Officer.

Q.1 Will you tell the court in your own words the exact events whichm took place on the evening of 5 Jun 43 in the Halloway Cafe?

A.1 On the evening of the 5th of June at approximately 1950 hrs I went to the Halloway Cafe accompanied by Capt Hodgson and Mr Curtiss, and shortly after we were seated SQMS Dawson accompanied by SQMS Miller came in. They were not noisy, but they weaved around and finally came to a standing posistion in the front part of the cafe up against a table at the front and bothered the patrons at that end of the cafe. Shortly after they came Lt Stevens came in and he proceeded to the back end of the cafe. Just after he had gone by, SQMS Dawson said in the loud voice "Come on, follow me"and he and SQMS Miller proceeded to the back end of the cafe. I turned to see what was going on and saw Lt Stevens was seated and SQMS Dawsom went up to the table and said again in a loud voice "Now look at that, we came in first, yet this officer sits and he came in after us". At that point I decided the situation had gone far enough and went over to the two quartermasters and suggested they return to their quarters. SQMS Miller agreed and said very good sir. SQMS Dawson argued about it and finally said is that an order sir and I said yes, you can now consider it an order and you willleave the cafe immediately. In reply to this he said I see no reason why I amould so I told him he was under arrest and told SQMS Miller he was in charge of SQMS DAwson and they were to leave immediately. I then turned to go back to my table and I noticed RQMS Davis and went over and said will you see that these two quartermasters get outof the cafe immediately and then sat down. There was some argument where SQMS Miller and Dawson were standing, only one phrase of which I overheard, and that was, "no, I am your prisoner, you get me out of here"., and then RQMS Davis came up to them and they all left the cafe together. Some 30 minutes later SQMS Dawson came back into the cafe through the kitchen entrance and sat down and almost immediately food was placed before him. The cafe was very nearly empty and as he was quiet and the food had been placed before him, I thought it best to leave him alone to eat his meal.

WTS1

Cross examined by the Defence

Q.2 You state, that when SQMS Dawson and Miller came into the cafe they were quiet but weaving around, did you at that time request them to leave the cafe?

A.2 No.

Q.3 Did you consider them at that time sufficiently drunk, or under the influence of liquor, to warrant or justify you to put them under arrest?

A.3 I considered them certainly in a state in which they should not have been in the cafe, but as they were quiet I preferred to let them remain rather than create a scene.

Q.4 You did not actually think of having them get out or placing them under arrest?

A.4 Not at that time.

Q.5 You say they moved from the end of the cafe to the other and bothered the patrons, what do you mean by that?

A.5 The door by which you enter is facing the rear and is in the right hand corner. Down the right wall are tables and along the front as well and all of the cafe is quite closely packed with tables and their is a main way through the tables from the front of the cafe to the rear. The two SQMS when they came in took up a posistion by the table at the front of the cafe out of the regular passage and leaning against tables of the patrons at the front end, and they moved from there to the table which SQMS Dawson apparently noticed Mr Stevens was sitting down at, and while they were doing that, that is moving down through the tables they bumped into tables and chairs of the patrons in the cafe.

Q.6 How close were the tables and chairs together?

A.6 The main alleyway was opposite the main door and on the left of the alleyway there were a number of small tables very closely packed and closely placed and instead of them coming down the main alleyway they came down through these closely packed tables.

Q.7 They had to more or less squeeze their way through?

A.7 There is room to get through, the waitresses get through, but they could not do it without bumping into the patrons.

Q.8 Could a man walk straight through or would he have to turn sideways?

A.8 He could walk straight through.

Q.9 When SQMS Dawson and Miller reached the table you state you heard SQMS Dawson say, "Now look at that, we came in first, yet this officer sits down, yet he came in after us. Are you sure these are the exact words?

A.9 I made no copy but these are certainly in effect themselves the words he used.

Q.10 You asked SQMS Dawson and Miller to leave and you say SQMS Dawson refused to do so, and after what apparently what you call some argument, you ordered him to leave and placed him under arrest, do you think when you gave him that order he was sober enough to recognize you as an officer and capable of understanding and executing the order you gave him?

A.10 From the argument and from my observations I would say definitely yes.

Q.11 At that time you did not consider putting him under arrest until he refused to leave the cafe?

A.11 No

Q.12 Did you consider at the time that SQMS Miller was capable of looking after SQMS Dawson as a prisoner?

A.12 That was my opinion, yes he was quite ready to do as I suggested and agreed to do as I suggested.

Q.13 I am correct in assuming that both men at that time were sober enough to understand orders and were capable of carrying them out?

A.13 That is correct.

Q.14 When you saw SQMS Dawson in the cafe the second time did he indicate in any manner that he was drunk in a manner which would lead anyone to assume he would be difficult or would make trouble?

A.14 No he came in very quietly and was quiet when he sat down, that is why we left him there.

Wit

Q.15 You state you entered the cafe around 1950 hrs?
A.15 Approximately yes.
Q.16 SQMS Dawson and Miller entered shortly after?
A.16 That is right.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor

Q.17 What were the actions of the accused which lead you to ask him to leave the cafe?
A.17 The loud remarks by SQMS Dawson and the clumsy way in which they went from the front end of the cafe to the table.
Q.18 You say SQMS Dawson was capable of executing an order, was he fit for military duty?
A.18 I would have said no.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with the provisions of R.P.83(b)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Second Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut H.N. Curtiss, 28 Cdn Armd Regt, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecuting Officer

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am Lieut H.N. Curtiss, Tech Adjt, 28 Cdn Armd Regt.
Q.2 Will you tell the court in your own words what happened on the evening of 5 Jun 43 in the Halloway Cafe subsequent to the entry of SQMS Dawson?
A.2 Approximately 2200 hrs 5 Jun 43 I was seated in the Cafe with Capt Lewis and Capt Hodgson when SQMS Dawson came into the cafe in company with another SQMS. They were both quiet but obviously drunk, very unsteady on their feet. They were looking around for a table to sit down and wandered around the room jostling peoples elbows and finally came to rest at one side of the room. Lt Stevens and a lady friend had in the meantime walked over to a table at the far end of the room from where the two SQMS were standing. Mr. Stevens spoke to RQMS Davis and shortly after this the RQMS got up and walked away, and at this point Lt Stevens and the lady sat down at the table. Quarters Dawson weaved his way to that part of the room and said in a loud voice "look at that, we were in here first and yet this officer gets seated first". Lt Stevens and lady friend got up on their feet, I did not hear anything that was said, and they moved away from there and left the table to SQMS Dawson and his friend. In the meantime Capt Lewis noticed the disturbance and got up and went over to talk to Quarters Dawson. I did not hear what was said, for it was at the far end of the room from where I was sitting. Shortly after Capt Lewis came back and sat down. At this point I noticed the other SQMS take hold of SQMS Dawson's arm to lead him out of the cafe and I heard him say "no, I won't go". RQMS Davis who had been paying his bill came over and the three of them walked out together. Approximately half an hour later SQMS Dawson came back into the cafe alone and sat down quietly, and food was brought to him immediately and at that point we left.
Q.3 You mentioned he was obviously drunk, will you state why you make this statement?
A.3 As I mentioned in my evidence, he was unsteady on his feet and weaving around as he stood.

Cross-examined by the Defence

Q.4 When SQMS Dawson and Miller reached the table which Mr. Stevens was at with his friend, was Mr. Stevens alone or was the friend with him?
A.4 They were both there together, they were in the act of sitting down.
Q.5 You stated he said "There look at that, we were in here first and yet this officer gets seated first", are you sure they are the exact words?
A.5 I could not say they were exact, there may be a word or two left out.
Q.6 Did you hear SQMS Miller say anything?
A.6 I heard nothing that SQMS Miller said.
Q.7 Did you consider SQMS Dawson sufficiently sober to understand an order and that he was capable of carrying it out?
A.7 I believe he was.

Q.8 Did you consider that SQMS Miller was capable of understanding and carrying out an order?
A.8 I believe so.
Q.9 When SQMS Dawson returned to the cafe did he appear to be very drunk?
A.9 I would not say exceptionally drunk, he was orderly and quiet.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor

Q.10 You told the defence that the accused was capable of executing an order, was he fit for military duty?
A.10 Possibly not.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

Capt R.H. Hodgson, 4 Cdn Armd Bde Wkshp RCOC having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecuting Officer

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am Capt R.H. Hodgson, 4 Cdn Armd Bde Wkshp, 4 Cdn Armd Div.
Q.2 Do you recognize the accused as an N.C.O. you saw in a cafe in Mindhead?
A.2 No sir.
Q.3 You don't remember the accused as an N.C.O. you saw, and who was subsequently present at a summary of evidence?
A.3 I don't remember his face at all.

Cross-examined by the Defence

Q.4 Were you in the Halloway Cafe with Capt Lewis and Lt Curtiss on the night of 5 Jun 43?
A.4 I was there with them on several occasions.
Q.5 Can you recall at any time you were there a disturbance being created by two N.C.Os?
A.5 I did not observe any disturbance.
Q.6 Did you hear any disturbance?
A.6 I heard a sort of rumbling in the background.
Q.7 Did you hear anyone say words to this effect "Now look at that, we were in here first yet that officer gets seated first"?
A.7 No sir.
Q.8 While you were there do you remember Capt Lewis getting up from the table and left for a short time?
A.8 Yes sir.
Q.9 Do you recall some time later when an N.C.O. came into the cafe and Capt Lewis remarked "There he is, back again to flaunt authority"?
A.9 Yes sir.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor

Q.10 I realize this all happened a long time ago, but you just spoke of a rumble in the background, and in the testimony of evidence you expanded on this statement, could you be more specific now in the matter of the rumble in the background?
A.10 I was seated at a table facing the door, on my left was Capt Lewis, Capt Lewis left to speak to two N.C.Os, I could not see nor hear what went on.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut L.D. Stevens, 28 Cdn Armd Regt, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecuting Officer

Q.1 Will you identify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am Lieut L.D. Stevens, of the 28 Cdn Armd Regt, BCR.
Q.2 Will you tell the court in your own words the facts that took place on the evening of 5 June in the Halloway Cafe in Mindhead?
A.2 I entered the cafe about 2200 hrs along with a friend. As I entered I saw SQMS Dawson and Miller standing at a table, and I also saw in the far corner RQMS Davis who appeared to be just finishing a cup of coffee. I walked over to his table and spoke to him. After RQMS Davis had left his table my friend and myself sat down. Just as we sat down we noticed another friend at another table who spoke to us, so we proceeded to get up and go over and carry on a conversation with this other party. As I was getting up I noticed SQMS Dawson coming towards the table at which I had been sitting.

Lofty

Q.3. When you came into the cafe and saw SQMS Dawson standing there did you notice anything about him or did you just walk by?

A.3 When I saw him it appeared to me that he had expected to get the table at least that is what I suppose, I cannot say definitely on that point, but I thought he was waiting for the table he was leaning against, and when I saw him approaching the table, my friend carried on to the other table and I approached SQMS Dawson and told him that he was in the cafe before I was and he was quite welcome to the table, and I then walked over to carry on a conversation with the party at the other table.

Q.4 When you gave up your table to the two SQMS why did you do so, why did you move away to another part of the cafe?

A.4 I move away because it was not important to me that I have a table immediately and I realized that they had been waiting for a table and were not waiting for the one they were standing beside, and I thought it would be the thing to let them have it.

Q.5 Can you remember anything either one said to you?

A.5 Yes, when I offered the table they said it was quite allright that I could carry on.

Cross examined by the Defence

Q.6 When SQMS Dawson and Miller reached your table was your friend there with you or had she already left?

A.6 My friend was not with me then.

Q.7 Did you hear SQMS Dawson say "Now look at that, we were here first but that officer gets a seat before us"?

A.7 No, things were happening so fast I was not paying attention to them I was concerned with something in another part of the room at the time.

Q.8 Did you notice that SQMS Miller and Dawson were creating quite a disturbance or anything you could describe as bad conduct or annoyance to the other patrons?

A.8 No I saw SQMS Dawson when I first came in and subsequently when he was walking over towards my table, the rest of the time my back was towards them.

Q.9 Would you say that at any time after they had reached you that the attention of everyone in thecafe was directed towards them?

A.9 As it happened my back was towards them from then on and when I went to the other table my back was towards them and apparently that was where they were, and shortly after that I left.

Q.10 Did you leave before or after the accused and the other SQMS?

A.10 They were still in the building when I left.

Q.11 Where were they?

A.11 At that time I believe they were in the hallway or open doorway, I am not quite sure.

Q.12 Do you remember any conversation between them or disturbance between them and Capt Lewis?

A.12 No I could not say what was going on between Capt Lewis and SQMS Dawson.

Q.13 Did you see SQMS Dawson at any time later in the evening?

A.13 As it happened I did, but I don't know exactly what time it was I saw him.

Q.14 Did you speak to him?

A.14 He asked me the way home and I directed him.

Q.15 Did he appear capable of getting home?

A.15 He was able to walk but he was not sure of the direction.

Q.16 At what time were you in the Halloway Cafe?

A.16 At approximately 2200 hrs.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor

Q.17 When the accused asked you the way home where were you then?

A.17 I was on my way down the main street of Mindhead.

Q.18 In what direction was he going?

A.18 He was going away from the barracks.

Q.19 How far was he away from quarters?

A.19 I would say about two blocks from his own quarters.

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution

Major J.N.B. Pattulo, 28 Cdn Armd Regt having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor

Q.1 Will you indentify yourself to the court?
A.1 I am Major Neil Pattulo, 28 Cdn Armd Regt.

Q.4 What were the exact words by which you warned him?
A.4 I read them out of the Manual of Military Law, which are as follows, "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you may say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

Q.5 What did the accused say?
A.5 He desired to give evidence on oath, which he did and which he signed. WSD
Q.6 Did you say anything further to him?
A.6 I told him he did not have to make a statement on oath and advised him not to do so, but he said he wished to give his evidence on oath.

Statement by the Defence

I wish to point out that when SQMS Dawson made this statement he was charged under another section of the Army Act, namely section 9, disobeying a lawful command. He was not charged with drunkenness at the time and also the statement was made voluntarily at a time when he was charged on grounds other than the two he is charged with at present. For these reasons I would like to submit that the sta tement is not admissable even though any statement made by the accused at the summary regardless of the charge is admissable for the Prosecution providing he was duly warned. Court rules the statement is inadmissable. WSD

Motion by the Defence that no Prima Facie case has been established.
