HUNT CLUBHOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fine Structure on Scarborough Bluffs Falls Prey to Flames Early Sunday — The Loss May Reach $50,000 Valuable Trophies Were All Lost.

The Toronto Hunt, the most active sporting organization in Canada, and a great center in the social life of Toronto, had its fine clubhouse on the Kingston-road, in Scarborough, (six miles east of the city hall) totally destroyed by fire Sunday morning about 7 o'clock, when the head waiter discovered the building in a blaze. Nothing could be done to save it, and soon only the walls, or part of them, was standing. The loss of buildings, contents and trophies, the latter alone valued at $10,000, will foot up to between $40,000 and $50,000, said to be largely, if not altogether, insured. A spark from a fireplace is said to have started the trouble.

A meeting of the board of directors will be held at Chudleigh, Mr. Beardmore's residence, to-night, to decide upon future plans. The club was about to build an addition to the south, for a lounge room and ballroom accommodation, and alterations were to have been made to the present structure to admit of bowling alleys. It was the intention to institute a winter sports school, including skating and snow-shoeing.

The Toronto Hunt has easily been the most active sporting and social organization in Canada in its special line. It has the largest and most active hunting club in Canada, and has made or helped to make our leading horse show, it has got polo going, it gave a series of most excellent golf links, tennis courts, and provided a lot of interesting sport in the way of cross-country racing and gymkhana features. It has kept in touch with the military organizations, regular and volunteer, and backed up the industrial fair, it has entertained many distinguished visitors, and has been one constant source of activity in social ways and in sports. There was always something doing. Everybody who came to town was entertained there. Lord Minto was the president after Mr. McCarthy, another life-size one of D'Alton Beaumont, in hunting outfit, and portraits of Lord Minto and Countess Minto.

Fire Spread Quickly.
 The fire was discovered when Head Waiter Temple went down stairs at 6:45 a.m., and found the ladies' room filled with fire. It is thought a live coal may have dropped from the grate in the ladies' room, and the light, so rapidly the flames spread to the east and north wings that the servants and three guests who had remained over night had barely time to escape and without saving any of their personal effects or greatly prized trophies.

Chas. Cronyn, W. D. Ross and Frank Drake were the only guests, and they made an attempt to first save some of the trophies, and then the rush of the encounter, tried to save the $5000 stock of champagnes, wines and liquor, but had to abandon this too. No possibility of checking the progress of the flames, there being no water supply for fire-fighting, and not enough men to form an effective but, as it were, a wall. Just as the room in which the fire broke out was a big water tank, and an effort was made to cut a hole that would expose the contents to flood, when the floor, but it had to be given up. There were only three hand extinguishers in the place, and these were useless. A section of the city fire department went down, but could do nothing to check the quantity of fire in the construction, together with a strong breeze, contributing to rapid destruction. The floors, too, had been re-waxed and oiled many times, so that a great deposit of smoke resulted. In rapid succession, the ladies room, general lounge room, hall, dining room and bar, ladies' dressing and cloak rooms became like furnaces. Then the flames rushed east and north, licking up the kitchen and servants' quarters, from which nothing was saved, in the east wing and the men's smoking room, lounge room, and guests' apartments, to which the trees adjoining these wings began to scorch, and the efforts of the fire-fighters were concentrated on these to prevent a spread to the woods. A strong wind was blowing from the northwest. The fences leading to the stables and garage were torn down to prevent a spread to these structures.

Valuable Trophies Lost.
 Chas. W. Clinch, chairman of the house committee, places the loss at around $50,000, covered by insurance, but it was impossible last night, he said, to tell how the insurance was apportioned.

Among the valuable trophies destroyed were: The Earl Grey Challenge trophy, valued at $750, for competition among hunt teams of Canada and military teams which the club brought up from Ottawa Oct. 27, last year, and again held from Ottawa when the latter came up this year, Oct. 21. The Dalton McCarthy memorial plate—a cup as large as a tub, valued at $800, presented by the McCarthy es-

DEMOCRATS ARE FAVORED IN TO-MORROW'S POLLING SITUATION HELD UNIQUE

Observers Wary as to Congressional Forecasts, But Trend Indicates Republican Losses—Where Battles Will Wage.

The Chicago Record-Herald's (Ind.) political expert, Summer, in discussing to-morrow's elections in the United States, says:
 A new house of representatives, governors of twenty-eight states, supreme court judges and minor state officers in thirty-eight states, and state legislatures that will choose twenty-nine United States senators, are to be elected by American voters on Tuesday. Popular interest nationally is centered in the complexion of the next, or sixty-second congress, in the government, private judgment, in their respective states in a few of the states, and in two or three contests involving the personal political fortunes of as many prominent figures in the United States Senate.

For the first time in two decades an "off year" election approaches with strong indications of Democratic success to a marked degree. Whether the Democratic trend is to result in a landslide that will sweep practically everything before it, or merely give a close margin of control to one side or the other in congress, and perhaps divide honors in the electoral college, is a question warranting no more than a guess in advance. The country-wide situation is so peculiar, so involved by elements unprecedented in American political history, that general drift, throughout the land, favors the Democrats.

The Big State Contests.
 Next to congress, and to a certain degree exciting even more interest nationally, come the state fights in New York and Ohio. Both states are doubtful, New York possibly more so than Ohio, as the campaign draws to its close. Surface indications, including the betting odds, have favored the Democrats in each instance. At the same time the personality of the two most prominent figures in the Republican party to-day stands out in the respective contests.

Ohio is the home of President Taft, New York the home of former President Roosevelt. Preliminary to a discussion of some of the details affecting the betting odds, have favored the Democrats in each instance. At the same time the personality of the two most prominent figures in the Republican party to-day stands out in the respective contests.

With the re-election of Governor Harmon probable as to Ohio; with the outcome of the contest between Stimson and Dix somewhat more in doubt than the result in the Buckeye State.

THE HUNT CLUB, AS IT WAS.

ASSURANCE LIKELY TO CHECKMATE REDMOND

Belief That Unionists Will Support Him in Defiance of Nationalists Until Irish Matters Are Settled — Conference Reaches a Compromise.

DUBLIN, Nov. 6.—The Evening Herald, a Nationalist organ, professed Saturday to have learned from an authority in London that the members of the conference of the government and the opposition over constitutional questions have reached a compromise regarding the house of lords, and that the Unionist leaders have agreed to support the government until the latter has had full opportunity to frame a plan for the settlement of Irish matters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Tribune's London correspondent cables: The crisis of the constitutional conference has been reached. Twenty meetings have been held, and an approach to an agreement has been made. This is conceded by the pessimists, and otherwise the conference would have broken up long ago. Will the eight negotiators arrange a modus vivendi for coronation year and avoid a general election? The optimists without doubt are more hopeful than they have been since the death of King Edward. They assert that the Walthamstow election has convinced the Unionists that a premature election in January will be ruinous to tariff reform, and must be avoided by a timely compromise.

What politicians are saying at every turn is that Premier Asquith has accepted a basis of settlement for the budget and veto questions, and that Mr. Balfour is hesitating, but is inclined to accept the terms, with the understanding that the house of lords shall be allowed to reform itself at leisure.

The financial press has never presented any serious difficulties beyond the necessity of obtaining a definite authority. The veto question, if settled by the conference, is likely to be taken into joint session of the two houses, after the bill has been carried three times by the commonsense majority of the day so as to involve a final passage.

To Help Tariff Reform.
 An arrangement of this kind will satisfy the Radicals, but can be tolerated by the Unionists solely on the ground that the elections must be put off in the interest of tariff reform.

Talk about a larger conference has been stopped by the discovery that Mr. Redmond, who has been writing with fervor and intelligence in The Times, is a less important personage than has been generally supposed.

It is now a foregone conclusion that there cannot be a second conference unless substantial progress has been made by the first one in the adjustment of the veto and financial questions. If a partial agreement has been reached, the cabinet will be informed on Tuesday, and Mr. Asquith may be the bearer of tidings of peace. The Guildhall dinner on the following night may be a feeling of confidence to-day among politicians on both sides that a permanent armistice has been arranged.

Home Rule Postponed.
 The Times' London correspondent cables: John Redmond and his fellow-misadventurers have now sailed from America for Europe, leaving behind them Ireland. Home rule, indeed, is in the air, but not in the sense used by the nationalist leaders. Mr. Asquith, it is believed, instead of the stars in their course appear to be moving so that the premier may be in a position to bid defiance to the Nationalist importunities.

The constitutional conference has held its twentieth session, and there is a general conviction that it will be at least productive of a modus vivendi to remain in office securely and quietly until after the coronation. Nobody, except possibly the Nationalists, expects a general election before that event, and if, as is expected, the leaders in the conference come to an agreement, the Nationalists will not be able to force an election.

Changes which were made in the cabinet this week afford a clear indication of the government's confidence that it will be in office next year. Mr. Harcourt is a wealthy man, which Lord Crewe is not, and will be able to entertain the members of the colonial conference, which meets in London next year, on an adequate scale. It is considered more than probable that this fact entered into the calculations of the cabinet when the changes necessitated by Lord Morley's retirement from the India office, had to be made.

ALBERTA TO HAVE ASYLUM.

BRANDON, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—It is now stated that Manitoba will be relieved of the care of the hundreds of homeless lunatics on the completion of the Alberta asylum at Ponoka. The great majority of the inmates of the Brandon Asylum are from Saskatchewan and Alberta, and they will be sent to Ponoka within a few weeks. The asylum at that place will be completed by the first of the year, but it is expected that portions can be rushed to completion to provide accommodation and relieve the situation here.

WILL GIVE REWARD TO PRODUCE BELLE ELMORE

Dr. Munyon Ready to Back With $50,000 His Belief in Crippen's Innocence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—To back his belief that Belle Elmore, the wife of Dr. Harvey Hawley Crippen, still lives, Dr. J. M. Munyon of Philadelphia has offered a reward of $50,000 to any one who will produce her. "I will even pay it to the woman herself," he said, "if she will come forward in time to save her husband." Dr. Crippen's appeal for a new trial was denied, and he is sentenced to be hanged in London next Tuesday.

SAYS SHE'S ALIVE

Philadelphia Lawyer Will Try to Stop Execution.

Mrs. Crippen Near Chicago? PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Believe it or not, the woman who is supposed to be the wife of the man who was hanged in London, is in this country, by Francis Tracey Tobin, a lawyer in this city, according to an interview which The Philadelphia Press will publish to-morrow.

Mr. Tobin declares that he "has received letters from those who have seen her," and says he knows "that she is living and is in hiding in this country, not far from Chicago." He says: "She was seen in San Francisco at the time Dr. Crippen was first arrested by the British police, charged with her murder."

Genuine Effort For Reciprocity

Conference Began on Saturday—A Belief That Something Definite Will Be Accomplished" is Reported.

The following is the Associated Press despatch concerning Saturday's tariff negotiations at Ottawa, as printed in the United States papers of Sunday:
 Reciprocity conferences between representatives of the United States and countries and a discussion of the domestic industrial situation in each. It is understood that there was discussion on both sides an appreciation of the difficulties each country might have with some of its own people in making any substantial tariff change. It was pointed out by Dominion commissioners that this was decidedly true in Canada, where there have recently been strong protests against reciprocity negotiations being entered into, the ground being that Canada was prospering now and it would be better to let well enough alone. The United States delegates, it is said, also made clear their position was not without difficulties.

LARGEST SCHOONER WRECKED

"The Preussen" is on the Rocks Off Dover.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The largest sailing vessel in the world, the steel-framed "Preussen," is to-night pounded on the rocks in Crab Bay, Dover, battered by waves forced along by strong southwest gale. The crew have not yet been taken off owing to the storm.

BRITISH QUEENS FRIENDS

Unfounded London Gossip is Denied—Lord Kitchener Starts for Nile.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(New York Tribune Cable.)—Queen Alexandra's return from Denmark has been preceded by ill-natured gossip respecting her jealousy of Queen Mary, and one social paper announces that she insists on a ruling from the King equalizing the positions of the two queens. This gossip is baseless, the relations between the two queens being cordial, and King George being a most considerate and affectionate son.

BELIEVE BOURASSA WILL SWEEP QUEBEC

Ottawa Opinion is That Premier Will Rise For English as Martyr to Imperialism.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Political excitement is still the order of the day at Ottawa. It is evident that the Drummond-Arthabaska result is regarded as very probably the signal of a new era in Canadian political history. What party will be at the head of affairs during the new era is the question uppermost. A month ago The World stated that the opinion prevailed at Ottawa that history was repeating itself in Quebec, and that, just as Mercier swept the French province and handed it over to the Liberals in 1896, 1904 would sweep Quebec and hand it over to the Conservatives in 1912. To-day this opinion is unaltered, the statement in the Sunday World that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would be presented to the English-speaking provinces as a martyr to imperialism, provided the prophets and students of politics here with food for thought, and it is admitted that this is the only course open to the premier. There has been some talk of opening another Quebec seat, but not much stock is taken in this, it is regarded as more likely that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will play for meanwhille.

Members of the hour amongst the Liberals is for Senator Dandurand, who has been gradually taking less interest in party organization during the last few years. Credit for the Liberal success in Quebec in 1904 was due even more to Dandurand than to Laurier. He has a genius for organization, and indeed has no equal amongst the Quebec Liberals. But he turned down the case of the naval service portfolio, and it is doubtful, in view of the apparent end of Laurier domination in Quebec, if he can be induced to play an active part again.

Members who are arriving in the city for the session cannot be induced to give their opinions for publication. But amongst the men of more stable opinion there is no disposition to charge the French-Canadians with disloyalty, as some newspapers have done. One member pointed out that there have been always similar campaigns and talk in Scotland as in Quebec, yet nobody would dream of charging Scotland with disloyalty to the empire. He regards the hot talk as simply loose remarks, made in the bitterness of campaigning.

LYMAN C. SMITH DEAD

Was the Founder of the Smith Premier Typewriter Company.

STRACUSE, N.Y., Nov. 6.—Lyman C. Smith, millionaire typewriter manufacturer, died here last night. Mr. Smith was the founder of the Smith Premier Typewriter Co., and the L. C. Smith Bros. Typewriter Co., Torrington, Conn., March 31, 1880. He was a director and heavy stockholder in several electric railroads, as well as in transportation companies on the Great Lakes. He owned several millions of dollars' worth of Seattle real estate, and had completed plans for the erection of a forty storey building in that city.

Mr. Smith left an estimated fortune in excess of $10,000,000.

BURNS PROVE FATAL

Child Played With Matches and Set Fire to Clothes.

The injuries little Josephine Sutton, of 41 East Front-street, sustained through accidentally igniting her clothing Saturday afternoon, proved fatal. She died in the General Hospital at eight o'clock last night.

The little girl, the daughter of Thomas Sutton, discovered some matches and lighted them. In some way her clothing caught fire, and before help reached her, she was terribly burned around the lower part of her body and arms. An inquest will probably be held.

BACK TO WARD SYSTEM.

WINDSOR, Nov. 6.—This city will revert to the ward system of choosing aldermen at the approaching municipal elections, with the four wards into which the city was divided before the general vote was adopted, instead of with the six ward divisions planned by the city council this year. The coming election, three representatives from each ward will be chosen instead of two from each of six.

All the present aldermen will probably be in the field again, and about half a dozen new men have practically decided to run.

REFUSED THE LEADERSHIP

C. A. Magrath, M.P. for Medicine Hat, Will Not Head Alberta Opposition.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—It is learned that C. A. Magrath, M.P. for Medicine Hat, has definitely refused the leadership of the Conservative opposition in Alberta. It is possible that Maitland S. McCarthy, M.P. for Calgary, may undertake the task of building up the Conservative party in that province.

Alberta is now the only province in which the Conservatives are weak. Saskatchewan is expected to go Conservative at the next election. Less than 100 votes, properly distributed, would have put them in power last time.

SUES ILL-DRESSED WIFE

Her Unfashionable Grab Embarrasses Him, Says Husband in Divorce Suit.

STERLING, Ill., Nov. 6.—James Conkling of Bureau County Saturday filed a petition for divorce, in which he sets forth that his wife refuses to dress like other women in the neighborhood, and that the style of attire adopted by her causes him much embarrassment.

He alleges that she has refused to buy a new dress for two years. He states that he had frequently urged her to dress more fashionably and in keeping with the season's styles, but that his wife maintained that it was too costly.

He also alleges that she has deserted him.

WILL HAVE COMMISSION GOVT.

PORT HURON, Mich., Nov. 6.—The voters of Port Huron yesterday adopted the new charter provided for in the home rule bill, thereby putting their stamp of approval on the commission form of government. The new form of government will go into effect Jan. 1. Port Huron is the first Michigan city of size to take this step.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

Three Hamilton Men Will Be Charged With Getting a Meal Under False Pretences.

HAMILTON, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Constables Yasley and McNair arrested James Dean, James Howe and Alexander Green this afternoon, on information lodged by the Oriental Cafe. They will be charged with getting a meal under false pretences. The proprietor says they left without paying.

The nineteenth anniversary in St. George's Church was celebrated today, in the morning the Bishop of Niagara occupied the pulpit, and in the evening Dr. Griffith Thomas of Wycliffe College, Toronto. His lordship, in the course of a sermon on the origin and history of the ministry, congratulated the congregation on having had one minister for fourteen years, which, he said, was rare in these days, when ministers moved from place to place after four or five years' residence.

The police got out on a still hunt for four boys, Charles Heddle, Charles Hotter and Richard McLellan, all of Toronto, and Arthur of St. Thomas, who broke out of Mimico Industrial School last night. It is understood that the boys have friends here.

The police arrested Bertha and Bertha Seymour, colored women, who spend a good deal of their time on the streets, on charge of vagrancy, and a more serious charge may follow.

The police raided 28 West Cannon-street last evening and arrested Kittle Mack, Dorothy Brown, Alice Jones and Eva Brown. The first named will be charged to-morrow with keeping a disorderly house, and the other three women with being inmates.

That two supporters of the hydro-electric power project in the city council were sidetracked in connection with Friday's session, the committee on the subject became evident Saturday. Controller Bailey knew nothing about the meeting being held, and Ald. Hill, who did not vote at all on the question of consent, passed on the hydro-electric commission, was credited with having voted for it.

ATTEMPTED MARCH TO BARCELONA A FAILURE

Only 1200 Took Part in Strikers' Manifestation—Spain Wishes a "Moral" Concordat.

MADRID, Nov. 6.—An official statement yesterday sets forth that only twelve hundred persons took part in the manifestation of Sabadell strikers, who attempted to march to Barcelona Saturday afternoon. They were easily dispersed by the civil guards. The authorities believe that there will be no further disorders.

Senor Sagasta, Spanish minister of the interior, said that he had tried unsuccessfully to secure the arbitration of the strikes at Sabadell, where six thousand men demand a nine-hour work day, and at Barcelona, where the metal workers are out. The attitude of the government, he added, was neutral.

The Liberal press regards the adoption by the senate of the "padlock bill" as the best assurance that Spain has abandoned a reactionary course, and, echoing the words of Premier Canalejas, says that the country merely wishes a "moral" concordat which will not offend sincere Catholics and at the same time will satisfy the advocates of tolerance and liberalism. Hope that this will be attained before the expiration of the two years during which the establishment of new religious orders is interdicted is expressed.

So far as the political situation is concerned these papers declare that the reaction in France against socialism and the repression of the movement in Spain has strengthened the hands of the government to crush attempts at revolt, which attempts, moreover, are sure to be combated by a loyal army.

MAY RESUME NEGOTIATIONS.

ROME, Nov. 6.—(N. Y. Sun cable.)—The Osservatore Romano comments on the Spanish senate's approval of the law forbidding the establishment of new religious congregations in Spain, and says that the result of an amendment, introduced at the eleventh hour, the interrupted negotiations between the holy see and Spain may possibly be resumed.

The paper informed that the Vatican considers that the situation has improved but it still doubts the sincerity of Premier Canalejas. It is willing to resume the negotiations for an alteration of the Concordat provided it receives formal assurances that the government is really animated by a conciliatory spirit and is not hostile to the claims of the church.

The Spanish ambassador is likely to return to Rome shortly to resume negotiations.

CRIPPEN APPEAL FAILS

Points on Which Prisoner's Counsel Asked New Trial.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The criminal court of appeals on Saturday dismissed the plea for a new trial for Dr. Crippen, who is under sentence of death on Nov. 8. Crippen was present, very pale, but composed.

Mr. Tobias his counsel, pleaded that the trial had been irregular in that one of the jurors, when ill, had been out of the charge of a bailiff, but this was refuted. It was noted that the jury had been introduced during the evidence as regards the piece of rye jam found with the buried flesh.

"It came as a bolt from the blue to the jury," declared the counsel. He also complained that Chief Justice Alverstone, in addressing the jury, had said that no one seriously disputed that the flesh found was that of a woman, and also his reference to the remains being found with a woman's vest, as to which there had been no suggestion in the evidence.

Also in reference to the alleged sale of the hair, which was a crown conceived there no grave doubt that the mark on the other side of the horsehoe was due to the same cause.

It is reported that Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard, who arrested Crippen on the steamer Montrose off Father Point, Que., is about to retire from the police service.

WILL GO TO OTTAWA

Bourassa, Lavergne and Prevost Will Seek Seats in Federal House.

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—It is stated here that Henri Bourassa, Armand Lavergne and Jean Prevost will all three go to Ottawa at the coming federal election. Had Mr. Lavergne been a candidate in Drummond and Arthabaska, he would have had five hundred of a majority, so great is his popularity in his father's and his uncle's old constituency, but when the federal contest comes around, he will probably run for Montmagny. As for Mr. Bourassa, his eyes are said to be on St. James, against Mr. Gervais, although he would have a harder work there in a rural constituency. Mr. Prevost will, of course, run in Terrebonne.

GLASGOW SELECT CHOIR.

The famous Glasgow Select Choir gave the first of their two town square concerts in Massey Hall Saturday night. Nothing so fine in part singing has been heard here before. The beauty of expression and the tone production were marvellous, and every number rendered by them exhibited remarkable training. The soloists of the choir are fairly entitled to be classed as among the best in the profession. The enthusiasm of the audience was unbounded, and encores and double encores were the order of the evening. Jessie MacLachlan, the Scottish prima donna, and Mr. Buchanan, were in the audience and were evidently delighted with the performance. They congratulated the leader of the choir, George Taggart, at the close of the entertainment.

At the concert to-night there will be an entire change of program. Those who have not already heard this choir should not fail to do so to-night, as nothing better has been heard here in many a long day.

This is the first case of this disease in that locality and much alarm is felt among the residents.

PREY TO CHARLATANS

French Liberal Organ Pleads For the "Old Traditions of Honor and Disinterestedness."

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The Liberal party must be in a bad way. "Le Pays," edited by Godfré Langlois, M.L.A. for St. Louis, commenting on the result in Drummond and Arthabaska, says:

"Our party has met with a crushing defeat, and we must have the courage to avow it. All will admit that our party is not what it was formerly, for the Liberals have certainly weakened during the past few years. A great number of partisans have raided the depository of the government spoils, have wrung from the ministry everything in their power for their own personal account, instead of remaining at their post, as good soldiers of duty and progress.

"During all this time they placed their faith as to the future of the party in the splendidly sympathetic personality and the incomparable prestige of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, upon whose shoulders everything has rested since 1898. As a matter of fact, our party is gravely sick. In the minds of a great number of people Liberalism has given place to ministerialism. Instead of the grand principle of the former day, we find keen appetites and personal aspirations impregnating the present entourage of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. There are too many people, in fact, who are trying to get rich at the expense of the country. There are too many advocates in parliament who wish to don the ermine. Our Liberal newspapers, instead of being allies of the government, have been playing the role of servile domestics, and power has been used for the material satisfaction and advantages which it brings.

Disabled and Disorganized.

"We are both disabled and disorganized. In Montreal, for instance, we have no leaders, no centre for rallying purposes, no centre for political action, and no cohesion in the ranks. A matter of fact there is nothing at all, except general dissatisfaction. We frequently hear of an election committee, but all this is a myth, for since fifteen years it is concealed in the pocket of Senator Dandurand.

"Apart from election times, it is as if there was no Liberal party in the city and district of Montreal. For years past the Liberal party has been merely the thing of certain men, and when we see in this little group men who sell situations, and promotions, who traffic their influence, and who believe that a man's supreme ambition consists in making politics a paying business, it will be easily understood why so many good men in our party are demoralized and disgusted, and why we cannot understand, however, is the fact that our leaders, knowing what they know, persist in giving their confidence to enriched individuals, to corrupt men, to men who, void of every sense of honor and integrity. In the County of Arthabaska, Mr. Arthur Ebermont constituted himself the grand organizer of the Liberal party, and Mr. L. Lavergne, promoted from hustings to hustings at the rate of fifty dollars per day. In fact, when a party puts such men as these in the lead, it is time for those who believe the true interests of the Liberal party at heart to cry a halt.

A Serious Blunder.

"And was not Le Pays a thousand times in the right when we said to Sir Wilfrid the other day that he was committing a blunder in appointing Mr. Louis Lavergne to the senate? If our chief aim instead of encouraging only professional men to enter politics had accorded a little of his esteem and consideration to the business men of Montreal, by giving the late Sir Geo. A. Drummond a successor in the senate like Alphonse Racine, J. M. Wilson, or Louis Payette, our party would have been less compromised to-day, and Drummond and Arthabaska would be still in the initial column.

"The Liberal party must return to the old traditions of honor and disinterestedness. Our party must cease being the prey of charlatans and speculators. The members for the Province of Quebec must in future have at least as much independence of character as those from the other provinces, and must especially stop running after government jobs.

The French Liberal press lacks in character and independence, and Mr. Langlois says that in future they must educate the people politically in the independent and impartial manner.

"A permanent Liberal committee of action must be created here without delay, whose task will be to look after the interests of the party. Privileges and claims must be abolished, and there must be no more proscriptions against people who have their own convictions, and who neither will, nor are not for sale. Let the ministers come out of their ivory tower, and if all this is done, and with a leader like Sir Wilfrid Laurier, there are still bright days in store for the Liberal party."

PARTY MUST CEASE BEING PREY TO CHARLATANS

French Liberal Organ Pleads For the "Old Traditions of Honor and Disinterestedness."

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The Liberal party must be in a bad way. "Le Pays," edited by Godfré Langlois, M.L.A. for St. Louis, commenting on the result in Drummond and Arthabaska, says:

"Our party has met with a crushing defeat, and we must have the courage to avow it. All will admit that our party is not what it was formerly, for the Liberals have certainly weakened during the past few years. A great number of partisans have raided the depository of the government spoils, have wrung from the ministry everything in their power for their own personal account, instead of remaining at their post, as good soldiers of duty and progress.

"During all this time they placed their faith as to the future of the party in the splendidly sympathetic personality and the incomparable prestige of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, upon whose shoulders everything has rested since 1898. As a matter of fact, our party is gravely sick. In the minds of a great number of people Liberalism has given place to ministerialism. Instead of the grand principle of the former day, we find keen appetites and personal aspirations impregnating the present entourage of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. There are too many people, in fact, who are trying to get rich at the expense of the country. There are too many advocates in parliament who wish to don the ermine. Our Liberal newspapers, instead of being allies of the government, have been playing the role of servile domestics, and power has been used for the material satisfaction and advantages which it brings.

Aids in Sorting Garments for the Poor Made by Needlework Guild.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(N. Y. Times Cable.)—The spectacle of a queen busy unpacking, sorting and arranging piles of rough garments for the poor is not a frequent one.

Queen Mary throughout the past week has devoted several hours each day to tasks of this kind and has worked as hard as any of the women who have been helping her. She is patroness of the London Needlework Guild, an institution which makes garments for the poor.

WILL DIE FROM BURNS

Neighbors, Attracted by Her Screams, Found Mrs. Tuffield in Flames.

LONDON, Ont., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Screams from her home at Mrs. Margaret Tuffield of 22 Walnut-street, attracted the neighbors this morning, who, on entering, found her enveloped in flames. She is 48 years of age, and was partly unconscious when found. She was taken to the hospital and will die. From the waist down she is terribly burned. How the accident occurred no one knows, as the woman lived alone.

GODERICH PEPOT BURNED

Building Was a New One and Cost $35,000 to Erect.

GODERICH, Nov. 6.—The G. T. R.'s beautiful new depot was totally destroyed by fire this afternoon about 6 o'clock. The fire originated in the ticket office, where a small coal oil stove was being used for heating, as the furnace had not been going this fall, being out of repair. The firemen succeeded in saving all the surrounding property, freight cars, etc. This depot was an ornament to the town, costing about $35,000 to build.

$35,000 FOR A LIFE.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 6.—A jury in the Somerset County Court here today returned a verdict awarding $35,000 to the heirs of Robert H. Kyle, who was struck and instantly killed by the Black Diamond Express at the Hillsborough crossing on the night of April 9, 1910. This is said to be the largest award ever given in court for the loss of a single life.

LOOK AT THE BRIGHT SIDE

Bishop Scadding's Advice From Elijah's Experiences.

A sermon of inspiration and encouragement was delivered last evening by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Scadding, Bishop of Oregon, in the church of St. Mary the Virgin, Bloor-street. Bishop Scadding's text was taken from I Kings, xix., 9. "What doest thou here, Elijah?"

The bishop pictured the prophet after coming down from the great demonstration on Mount Carmel. He was dejected, and tired of the world, and had taken refuge in the seclusion of his cave. Bishop Scadding noted the various causes for the prophet's despondency at this time, and believed that many cases of the "blues" of to-day might be traced to similar origins.

"To begin with, there was a reaction of the nervous strain on Mount Carmel, and it takes a great deal of religion to make a dyspeptic smile," said the bishop. "Then there was his disappointed expectations. His wife-disappointed expectations. His life-very narrowness of his outlook was another cause. He saw but a very small portion of the good that existed. Observe God's three-fold manner of treating with these various ailments.

"He supplied Elijah first with physical relief. Then he expostulated with him. Our bodies are the temples of the holy ghost, and we must keep them in repair. When we are discouraged, and almost on the point of despondency, let us look and see how much is due to physical overstrain. We are likely to become discouraged, and to lose the 'blues.' Ministerial success lies in ordered lives, and unceasing hearts. Elijah's apparent success was in the demonstration on Mount Carmel, where all his real success was in the number of people that were made to believe in his teachings. Let us then be constantly on the alert for the still small voice, and not for the rushing mighty wind. Come out of the cave, and look on the bright side of things," was the Bishop's concluding remark.

PARKDALE SENIORS DEFAULT

And Juniors Play Exhibition Game With T. A. A. C.

Varsity Field, Toronto, Nov. 5.—It was 4:15 this afternoon before the junior game here was finished, and the field cleared for the senior game between T. A. A. C. and Parkdale.

Parkdale could not gather a team, and so the juniors, with a few changes, went in and played an exhibition, which was largely a joke.

The teams lined up as follows: T.A.A.C.—Full-back, Capreol; halves, Powell, DeGruchy, Fleming; quarter, Cory; scrum, Debow, Hoare, McKen-

On a kick over Parkdale line Toronto dribbled and Parkdale roused. No score was made in the second quarter, but after a series of rushes, Sheriff got over for a try in the third quarter, which was not converted. Toronto 6, Parkdale 0.

DeGruchy got away for a ten-yard run for a touch. Toronto 11, Parkdale 0. DeGruchy got over for a touch, which was converted. Toronto 11, Parkdale 6. This was followed by a touch, which was converted. Toronto 11, Parkdale 6. Powell ran forty yards for another touch, making the final score: TORONTO 22, PARKDALE 6.

MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 7, 1910. HYDRO (POWER) PHOBIA IN HAMILTON.

The Hamilton Times is frothing at the mouth and tearing its hair out in handrails and hammering its head against the wall and exhibiting other symptoms of hydro (power) phobia. The cause of the present paroxysm is the determination of the commission to stick to the route originally determined for the transmission line thru the city, and the refusal to divert the line from this central location in order to go outside the manufacturing district, where the manufacturers could not be reached.

Of course The Times does not put it this way. Instead, it has a great deal to say about "high-handed action," "tyrannical body," "nagging and persecution of Hamilton," "fully fettered by hydro schemers," "hydro-electric houses," "transparent bunco game," "bull-dozing tactics" and other matters with which The Times is undoubtedly familiar from a point of view entirely its own.

Delay in obtaining poles from Idaho because the commission could get none nearer that were considered good enough for Hamilton has prevented the completion of the line as was intended months ago. The poles were ordered for the line as approved by the city in the first place, and are being supplied. They are higher than the poles used in other places, the lowest being forty feet, so as to suit the inequalities of the ground and to provide a level line.

The Times and its friends meanwhile considered that if the commission's line went along this direct original route it would enter the territory where all the manufacturers were. That, they decided, was poaching on the Cataract Company's preserves. Hence the hysteria. The commission was ordered to take its line outside the city and get around to the pumping station by a water route. Choosing one way would have required a span of 1800 feet, whereas the greatest span with the metal towers on the main line is 1100 feet. This distance requires especially constructed and extra strong steel towers. To have these made would have required another six months at least, besides the expense of the Idaho pole contract. The Times is very eager to save the city expense and to hasten construction according to the melancholy plans it wails out for the benefit of the Cataract Company. The facts, however, are against it. The Cataract scheme was to get the hydro-electric line out of the way of the manufacturers and into a place where expense and delay would be a serious matter.

It was proposed that a road be built over the water route to convenience the poles of the commission, but when it turned out that the Cataract Company wanted this road for a car line, the plan of putting the cost up to the commission was not so clearly generous. Nor would the chief engineer endanger the safety of the whole line by placing the poles on made ground. Every tower that has been built is constructed so solidly that, short of an earthquake or human malignity, nothing could overthrow them. The foundations offered for the diverted line were not such as to engender confidence, and as the failure of the Hamilton branch might wreck the Dundas trunk station and throw the whole system out of gear the commission refused to assume the risk. This is a matter in which the rest of the province is concerned, altho The Times would have its readers believe that Hamilton alone has any interest in the affair.

Mayor McLaren, who apostacized from the hydro-electric professions he made previous to the election which he won by them, has been very anxious to justify his perfidy, and he has made common cause with The Times and its clients on the latest Hamilton power issue. The Hamilton Spectator, which has evidently some inkling of the facts, finds fault with the commission for not explaining why it sticks to the route first settled. If The Spectator had been as anxious as it appears to get the facts why did it not call up the commission on the telephone? Hon. J. S. Hendrie could have told it all about the business, too.

MAJOR GEARY WANTS THE VIADUCT. Mayor Geary and The Evening Star have got together once more on the Street Railway Company's campaign against the Bloor-street viaduct. Mayor Geary wishes it to stand aside for another year, during which time the cost of its construction will go mounting up, and the street railway will be relieved of any fear of competition from the independent city car lines tapping the Broadway-avenue and Danforth-avenue districts. The viaduct might have been constructed ten years ago at about half the cost which is now calculated upon, but the city was then in the control of an even less progressive council than at present. It is true there are many bylaws to be submitted this year, but none has been longer before the public than the Bloor-street viaduct measure.

THREE HURLED 30 FEET BY LADDER BREAKING. One Died of Broken Skull and the Others Suffered Severe Injuries. NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Nov. 6.—(Special)—B. Dasher, age 42 years, was killed, and Benjamin Phillips and Richard Misener were seriously injured when a ladder on which they were working broke at the plant of the Ontario Power Company, just below the Horseshoe Falls, shortly after nine o'clock this morning. The men, who were all riggers, were ascending a long ladder to reach the frame work on which to complete their task.

The argument that it is to favor the east end and that the Ashbridge's Bay bylaw is also an east end measure is not a reasonable one. Ashbridge's Bay is a measure for the whole city, and is a detriment rather than an advantage to property in the east end. If anyone doubts this let him consider what the west enders would think of a proposal to establish reclamation works on the Humber Bay shore and to develop a big manufacturing district there. Ashbridge's Bay is merely the means by which the east end will be sacrificed to the manufacturing interests of the city as a whole, and the passage of the Bloor-street viaduct bylaw is but a small compensation to the east end in this respect.

The residence portion of Toronto across the Don can only be rendered conveniently accessible by the Bloor-street viaduct, and when the citizens understand the situation they will have no hesitation in voting for the project. If the ratepayers would take the trouble to go and examine the territory affected there would be no doubt of the bylaw being passed. Meanwhile Mayor Geary has no business to block it.

DOCTOR AND INSPECTOR. It is unfortunate that Dr. MacMurphy should, to use an expressive colloquialism, have "got in wrong" in the beginning of her work when appointed medical inspector of schools. There is no more urbane and genial official in Toronto than Mr. J. L. Hughes, and we believe that Dr. MacMurphy herself is distinguished for her amiable qualities. Unfortunately both parties appear quite unconsciously to have lent themselves to the tactics of those on the board of education who are friends neither of Dr. MacMurphy nor of Mr. Hughes.

Dr. MacMurphy has explained away her categorical references to Inspector Hughes as having an academic bearing only, and it is unfortunate that she did not make this clear at first. It should be possible to surmount the personal situation that has been created, and to take up the question from the point of view of both parties in their desire to do the greatest possible amount of good to the children. Dr. MacMurphy and Inspector Hughes are both big enough and magnanimous enough to get together and straighten out the tangle without making it a public taunt.

Port Hope is grumbling because of having to pay $2.50 per thousand for gas, the intelligence that Toronto has 70-cent gas in sight agitating The Guide. Port Hope should buy out the gas company and make its own gas as cheap or cheaper than Toronto does.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ELECTIONS. Editor World: A tremendous amount of fuss has been made over the Drummond and Arthabaska election. What does it all mean? Simply that combined forces have been successful over unit. That will always happen, providing that the forces are really combined. In this case they were. There were a large number of recalcitrant Conservative Liberals. The Conservative party voted with them, as if it were to its principles and really believes what it says about the party in power. It should have done so and always will. Conservatives say the party in power is corrupt and influenced and governed by self-seeking people. That being so, the policy of the opposition must be, and should be, to turn the recalcitrants out. This is what has happened in Drummond and Arthabaska. It is no anti-imperialistic vote, no anti-British vote, but simply a combination of antagonistic forces. Every government has to stand that sort of thing, every government is up against it. At the same time it is possible to place too great a stress on a single result, and that is what is being done in the present case. Had the opposition put a candidate in the field, M. Perrault might have been elected by an overwhelming majority. The vote shows that the solidarity of Quebec is disturbed by internal dissensions. The "outs" are taking advantage of the situation and letting the "ins" wreck themselves. It is politics, and it is war. So far as Conservatism, whatever it may mean, is concerned, after this it will be well, if accession to power is their only aim, to continue to stand aside and let the Kilkenney cats, or the two cats on the line, fight it out. Onlooker.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Hopes of an immediate settlement of the garment workers' strike disappeared to-day, when the strikers voted not to accept the agreement recommended by T. A. Rickert, president of the United Garment Workers. The Chicago Federation of Labor voted to-day to uphold the garment workers' strike.

BISHOP FALLON AND THE BIBLE. Rev. J. W. Pedley Comments on Remarks as to Higher Criticism. "Bishop Fallon's ideas about the Bible and theology," was the subject chosen by the Rev. James W. Pedley, in his evening sermon at the Western Congregational Church. Reference was made to the address made by the Roman Catholic bishop at the opening of the new seminary recently. Mr. Pedley referred favorably to the address in the main; but considered that some of the statements were rather suggestive to a Protestant people.

PLENTY OF ROAST APPLES. BELLEVILLE, Nov. 6.—At an early hour Sunday morning a three-story brick storehouse, belonging to James Graham of this city, was destroyed by fire. There were stored in the building about 10,000 barrels of apples, some 6000 barrels of which were destroyed. The loss estimated on the building and contents is $25,000, and the insurance $20,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

RECALLED GUNPOWDER PLOT. Black Knights of Ireland Attend Church Service. "It stands in the way of the evangelization of the world. It is the great impediment to the spread of the kingdom of the Lord, Jesus Christ," said Rev. Canon H. C. Dixon, in referring to the Roman Catholic Church, in his sermon delivered before the Black Knights of Ireland in Little Trinity Church, East King-street, yesterday morning. The service was in commemoration of the gunpowder plot of 305 years ago. About 175 members of the order were present.

TEMPERANCE LEAGUE MEETING. Rev. A. L. Geggie the First Speaker—His Views on Prohibition. About 3000 people Sunday afternoon greeted the opening meeting for the season of the Canadian Temperance League in Massey Hall. J. S. Robertson, president of the league, occupied the chair.

Rev. A. L. Geggie, the speaker of the afternoon, based his remarks on the words: "Prepare ye the way of the people; gather out the stones." Reminiscences of days spent in missionary work in the slums of Edinburgh were recalled by Mr. Geggie, who spent two years in this work. It was then, he said, that he became a sworn enemy of strong drink. In the face of the conditions he had witnessed and similar ones to be seen in Canada, and in Toronto, he did not think that men should stand back and philosophize.

Varsity Students Sing and Cheer at Rosedale

How the Rah Rah Boys Urge Their Rugby Team on to Victory—Their Songs.

The Glee Club, the cornet soloists, the bands, the yell leaders and Varsity students generally have had all their own way the past three years on the Rugby side lines, and Saturday was no exception. A handful of Queen's supporters in the west end of the grand stand did their best, that called forth no attention from the Varsity boys.

U. of T. was written in human character in the northwest stand, white with a black background and there they started to cheer before the rival colleges trotted out on the Rosedale grounds. They roared and cheered vigorously from the kick-off and the early resistance of Queen's trained singers, led by the Grenadiers' Band. Then when Mike Kennedy stole the ball and ran unopposed nearly three-quarters the length of the field the work of the student mob was one grand joyous series of shouts.

The cheer leader waved his blue pennant and they sang to the tune of "What's the Matter with Father Kennedy?" he's all right. What's the matter if Kennedy's hair is white? His punting and catching are good, you bet. But his running is better than anything else.

Then they implored the team as a whole, singing with renewed vigor. "Tune, 'Moonlight in June'." "Come on, ye Varsity men, Varsity men, Come on and yell." "We've got fourteen husky football men to knock Queens to Troy, Ra! Ra! Ra! We've got the championship. Champion-ship! We'll get it again."

And the team goes down in history as champions in 1910. Oh, you "Reddy" Dixon, Are you ready, Dixon? Are you ready, "Reddy" Dixon? Are you ready, "Reddy" Dixon? (Repeat.)

The boys in the stand never forget the Varsity captain, who wears the same baseball cap he brought into Rugby football from the Parkdale Collegiate Institute. So they sang to the tune, John Doe, Hugh Gall, Hugh Gall. Was never known to miss the ball. You can kick them low, you can kick them high. To Hugh they're all like eating pie. Our Hugh-ey Gall is easily the best of all. At run or kick he sure is slick. The original Hugh Gall. Blanche Ring's "Yip I Addy" sung at Yale and Harvard, is just as popular in Toronto. The boys are always in good voice singing.

Yip I addy I say, I say Yip I addy I say, I say Then three times three for U. of T. Yip I addy I say I say Toronto Varsity, Hurrah! Queens aren't in it; no not for a minute. Yip I addy I say. In decision they gave the Queen's yell, the cheer leader with a garnet sweater over his coat working like a professional gymnast.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. W. J. Fraser of Howard-street will receive only on the fourth Monday of the month during the season. The first Saturday afternoon recital of the season was given at the College of Music, Pembroke-street, by the pupils of Dr. F. H. Torrington last Saturday afternoon. The following program was rendered: Schumann, "Aur-schwung"; Dora Stutchbury; Pontet, "Carissima"; Mrs. E. D. Hancock; Chaminate, "Gigue"; Moszkowski, "Waltz"; Beale Malle; Allitsen, "Like as the Heart Desireth"; Mrs. Kellor; Reinhold, "Impromptu"; Pearl Black; Sullivan, "The Lost Chord"; Oley Speaks, "In May Time"; Penelope Young.

"The Spinster's Return." An excellent example of amateur theatricals delighted an appreciative audience at Alter's Assembly Hall Friday evening, when Viola Bebekian, Lodge, No. 53, L.O.O.F., presented a comic drama entitled "The Spinster's Return." Mrs. Bebekian is the sequel to "Dumb Bells," and represents the good ladies as having returned from the Klondyke and being again in their annual convention. They give accounts of their varied experiences in far Alaska, where some have been fortunate in securing husbands, and others have prospects. The following took part: Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Ralston, Mrs. Macdonald, Mrs. Cronkright, Mrs. Sherbrook, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. R. Croker, Miss C. Walker, Mrs. Mortimer, Miss Lewis, Miss Jeffries, Mrs. Mitchell, Miss E. Walker, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Warwick, Miss Cairn, Miss Burr, Miss Red, Mr. H. E. McDonald, Mr. Ralston, Mr. Brady, Miss E. Pettie, Miss May Sherbrook, Miss F. Pettie, Miss A. Croft, Master Morgan, Master Pisk, Master Crookshank, Master Will Crocker, Mr. Sherman, a social dance followed the performance.

Public Amusements

"When All Has Been Said," a new drama written by Bayard Veiller, will have its first stage presentation this week at the Royal Alexandra by Lieber and Company. The play is said to be unusually strong, especially appealing to those interested in the human stories back of the business of to-day.

The great cast that will be seen in David Belasco's production "The Matrimony a Failure" at the Princess Theatre this week, left New York direct for this city on a special train last night. The scenic investment is typical of David Belasco, which means that it is perfect in every detail.

At Shea's Theatre this week Manager Shea has a great bill, headed by Rosina Cassell and her wonderful mid-western cantines. They do everything but talk, and when they finally tumble over themselves into their tiny automobile and ride away, they are always rewarded with a storm of applause.

Joe Morris and company of forty people in the new "Dainty Duchesse" will be at the Gaiety Theatre this week. Two musical farces are the principal features, the first entitled "Bradley From Wall Street," and the second, "Sultan for a Day."

The Messrs. Shubert's very largest musical amusement, "Up and Down Broadway," in which are exploited such names as Eddie Foy and Emma Carus, come to the Royal Alexandra Theatre next week. The enterprise is the first of the Messrs. Shubert's New York summer revues this firm intends putting forth annually.

Sunday School Anniversary. Special services were held yesterday in Berkeley Street Methodist Church in celebration of the 73rd anniversary of the church Sunday school, which was founded in 1837. The preachers were Ivor Brock, Rev. Geo. F. Madson, Rev. Isaac Tovell, D.D., at 11 a.m.; and the pastor, Rev. R. N. Burns, D.D., at 7 p.m. A musical program was provided by the scholars of the Sunday school.

"It's very cheap! It's very clean! It's very digestible! It's very refreshing!"

The University Sermon

The darker side of the influences of western civilization was portrayed with earnestness and force by E. T. Cotton of New York, in his address at University Convocation Hall yesterday morning. As one who has traveled widely in the interests of mission extension, Mr. Cotton's presentation of conditions as he found them emphasized sufficiently the difficulties under which the Christian worker in foreign fields labors.

Peeling reference was made by President Falconer to the sudden death of Mr. Tackaberry of the university faculty. All knew his gentleness, culture and readiness to help, and the heartiest sympathy of all went out to his family.

HEAVY SENTENCES. Burglars Get Long Terms in Penitentiary and Leader the Lash as Well. BRANDON, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—At noon to-day Carson, Newton and Welsh were found guilty of burglary at the Hamiota jewelry store. Welsh was sentenced to four years in penitentiary, Newton 14 years on the Porage and 14 years on the Hamiota charge, the sentences to run concurrently. Carson, the leader of the gang, was sentenced to 14 years on the Porage and 15 years on the Hamiota charge, and 25 lashes.

N. TORONTO PEOPLE ALK OVER SEWAGE MATTERS

Engineer Rust's Report Will Soon be Hand—J. W. Banton is New President.

NORTH TORONTO, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The opening meeting of the North Toronto Ratepayers' Association, held in the town hall here on Saturday evening, was taken all over fairly representative one, tho in point of numbers there was little to attract attention. Probably altogether less than forty ratepayers were in the room, but they were men deeply interested in the progress of the new sewerage system and impart instructions.

In the outset a good deal of difficulty was experienced in securing quorum to fill the several positions. For president, W. G. Ellis, Robert Ferguson, George Rennie, H. H. Ball, T. W. Banton, N. G. Clarke, D. D. Reid, Walter Musson, Frank Howe, and others were nominated, but each and all declined acceptance of the honor. Finally T. W. Banton was prevailed upon to allow his name to go before the meeting, with the result that he was unanimously chosen as the new president. He is generally regarded as eminently fitted for the duties of the office. Well informed on all town and city affairs, and possessing, as he does, the respect of everybody, the new president will make an admirable presiding officer.

The other officers elected are: Geo. Rennie, first vice-president; Chas. Adams, second vice-president; and A. E. Brocklesby, secretary-treasurer. The members of the executive committee are: Messrs. Ellis, Leach, Reid, Stevenson, Richards and Aull.

Having cleared the decks for action, and following the president's address, in which he made it clear that everybody would get a chance to air his views, the meeting cast about for some subject to which they could devote the balance of the evening. Discussion naturally one of the two uppermost topics in the town, sewerage, was seized upon. Chairman D. D. Reid, as chairman of the sewerage committee, was called upon to outline what action it was being taken by the town council along this line.

"Sewage and annexation are so independent that one without the other is of no use," said the chairman, and the meeting gave to the chairman the most attentive attention.

On a large blue-print prepared by T. Ald Murray, C.E., Mr. Reid pointed out that the drift of the several streams and ravines in town was all to the east, and arising from this, proceeded to make out a fairly strong case for a local sewerage system. He stated that the town council had authorized the establishment of three or four disposal plants, and cited the case of Kew, where the sewerage system had the greatest satisfaction. He lauded it as a panacea for the relief of all the towns in the county, and stated that a local system, in his opinion, would be less than would follow in the event of annexation, and would cost less, both in cost of installation and in point of land damages. In fact, he stated that the sewerage committee had made it plain that he was "right" in his connection, he has declined to be a deputy in favor of annexation, and will put up his own sewerage system and get annexation afterwards, he said.

At this point Mr. Reid proposed a resolution, which, in effect, was that, in view of the approaching vote on annexation, any further discussion with respect to the sewerage matter until the wish of the ratepayers with respect to annexation was ascertained should be delayed by council.

Many Winter Problems Will Be Solved

By this sale of Eiderdown Bath Robes tomorrow. Just one hundred of them, but every one represents the acme of winter comfort, at a very large saving, for they are all worth half as much again as our Tuesday price.

100 Women's Bath Robes, of double-faced fancy eiderdown, grey, tan, cardinal and sky, in stripe effects; full skirt, frog and loop fastener; woollen girdle; collar and cuffs edged with stitched satin, in harmonizing colors; sizes 34 to 42. Regular $3.95. Tuesday, $2.49.

Cannot promise to fill phone or mail orders.

$1.25 Moreen Petticoats, 75c.

Women's Moreen Petticoats, in black, navy, brown and myrtle; several different styles in the lot; some with tailored, others with accordion pleated flounces; trimmings of pin tucking, stitching and headings; some styles are finished with deep taffetine underpieces; lengths 38, 40 and 42 inches. Regular $1.25. Tuesday, 75c.

You Have Heard That Our Silks and Dress Goods

Are the most reliable, as well as the most attractive, in town. There are plenty of reasons for this; our buyers have had long experience in foreign markets, and they have instructions to pay a little more than other stores for fabrics to sell at certain recognized prices. Come and examine the goods we mention here, and you'll see why we are willing to pay a little more for such distinctive fabrics. Some of these prices are just half what you've been used to.

Half-Priced Evening Wear Fabrics.

200 yards Silk Stripe Voile, Silk Stripe Taffetas, Plain and Fancy Mohairs, Plain and Striped Crepes, Plain Voiles in pastel shades, Henriettas, etc., etc.; a beautiful range of shades in this collection, also creams, ivory and blacks; 42 to 44 inches wide. Regular price 65c and 75c. Tuesday's selling, 38c.

Linings.

1000 yards Quilted Satins, in a full range of shades, specially adapted for lining evening cloaks, etc.; 24 and 30 inches wide. 50c and 75c.

New Persian and Dresden Silks.

The most fashionable Silks of the season are undoubtedly the Dresden, Persian and Paisley Silks now being so much worn for afternoon and evening wear; the soft, light shades being veiled with chiffon. There are scores of color effects to choose from. Prices range from $1.00 to $1.50 per yard.

Lamb's Wool Slipper Soles

1000 pairs Lamb's Wool Slipper Soles, leather out-sole, specially priced for Tuesday: Men's, 29c; Women's, 19c; Boys', 19c; Misses', 18c; Infants', 16c.

We Don't Need to Argue

"I'm not arguing with you," said Whistler one day to a person who had disagreed with something he said, "I am telling you!"

The position of this store in the realm of men's clothes is something similar. We tell men what they may expect of our suits when they buy them, and our statements never get us into an argument; the clothes "stand up" so well that the statements we make about them are always well inside the mark.

The prices in this collection of Winter Suits for to-morrow's selling have been reduced from twenty, eighteen, sixteen and fifteen dollars to ten-ninety-five. But when we say they'll give you the amount of wear and satisfaction represented by their original price, we're making a conservative statement, and one over which there'll be no argument. Read this description and act quickly Tuesday morning.

Men's English and Scotch Tweed and Fancy Worsted Suits, in all this season's new shades and patterns, including fine twill and herringbone weaves. The colors are dark brown, olive and grey grounds, with neat fancy thread stripes, cut from the latest models, in 3-button single-breasted sack style, carefully tailored and finished with extra quality linings and trimmings; sizes 36 to 42. Regular $15.00, $16.00, $18.00 and $20.00. To clear Tuesday at $10.95.

Men's Sweater Coats, Slightly Soiled, $1.98

Just one hundred Sample Sweater Coats and Slightly Soiled White Sweaters, with cardinal collars. The Sweaters are a four-ply pure wool, fasten at neck with five pearl buttons, high collar shaped to fit neck. The Sample Sweater Coats are made from the finest Australian wool, and come in tan, green and white. Regular prices $2.50, $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00. Tuesday, $1.98.

Men's Natural Wool and Elastic Rib Underwear, shirts or drawers; several different lines to choose from, but not all sizes in each line. Regular to $1.25. Tuesday, 79c.

Two Famous Brands of Men's Hats

Christy's and King's Brand Stiff and Soft Hats, in all the leading English and American Fall and Winter styles; colors fawn, brown, slate and black; special quality trimmings and finish. Better hats would be difficult to procure; they are both dependable for wear, comfort and style. Splendid value at $2.00 and $2.50.

Other lines in equally good values, fine English make, at $1.00 and $1.50.

Fine Footwear Values for Men and Boys

400 pairs Men's Boots, box calf leather, dull matt calf uppers, narrow, medium or broad toes, double Good-year welted soles. Just the boot for Fall weather; all sizes 5½ to 11. Regular value $3.50. Tuesday, 8 o'clock, $2.49.

300 pairs Boys' Boots, strong box calf leather, dull matt calf uppers, Blucher style, solid leather soles and heels; a dressy and wear-resisting boot; sizes 1 to 5. Regular value $2.25. Tuesday, 8 o'clock, $1.69.
