COLLISION ON 'BIG FOUR'
THIRTY-ONE MEN KILLED

Conductor of Freight Ignored Orders and Smash Into Work Train Was Result.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 13.—Thirty-one men were killed and at least thirty injured in a head-on collision between a freight and a work train on the Big Four, between Mackinac and Fremont.

The bodies of 28 victims have been taken from the wreck, which is piled 30 feet high on the tracks. The bodies yet remain under the wreckage of broken timber, twisted and distorted iron and steel.

All the dead and most of the injured were members of the work train, the crews of both engines jumping in time to save their lives. The collision occurred in a deep cut, at the beginning of a sharp curve, neither train being visible to the crew of the other until they were within fifty feet of each other. The engineers set the brakes, but the freight train was too far ahead.

A second after the collision the boiler of the work train engine exploded, throwing heavy iron bars and splinters of wood 200 feet.

Conductor John W. Judge of the freight train, who had charge of the train, received orders at Urbana to wait at Mackinac for the work train, which was due there at 2:40 p.m. instead of doing this he failed to stop.

The engineer of the work train, George Becker, had also received orders to pass the freight at Mackinac, and was on the way to that station.

After working two hours the remains of 26 men were taken out. One of the dead bodies recovered was that of William Bradley of Mackinac, who had been lifted 30 feet into the air and held in place by two rails, which were pushed up between the engine and the tender of the work train.

The injured were taken to two cubicles of the relief train, where temporary hospitals were improvised and their wounds taken care of. The dead will lie on the bank all night, or until the arrival of the coroner in the morning. The dead and injured of neighboring towns, and the bodies of the men who were missing thronged around, asking if their husbands or fathers had been killed. Out of 30 men who constituted the crew of the work train, only four are living, and two of these are seriously injured.

It is not known which of these two has been accepted, but officials may be looked for to-morrow.

Editor World: I was present on Monday last when Lieut.-Col. Denison delivered an admirable address to the Canadian Club on the subject of Imperial defence. In introducing Col. From the reception accorded to the remarks of the president it is evident that the club is interested in the subject.

CANADA AND THE CANADIAN CLUB. The Canadian Club of this city has suffered a secession arising out of a difference of opinion as to the future relations of Canada with the empire.

It was difficult to avoid such a conflict on a question on which people feel so strongly. But it may be pointed out that there has been talk of radical changes on previous occasions.

One cannot dogmatize about the future, but progress in the past has been so steadily in one direction that the probabilities at least are in favor of that direction being followed.

Still the growth went on. The old legislative union soon proved to be too small a flower-plot to hold the thriving Canadian maple.

What is absolutely certain about the future is the continuance of growth. A population of fifty millions would leave this country very sparsely settled.

Toronto Junction, Nov. 18.—In view of the approaching local option contest, the hotelkeepers of the town are organizing a straight ticket for mayor and council to be issued. The local optionists have been organized for some time and are holding meetings nightly. It is said that they will not issue a ticket nor advocate the candidature of any particular candidate.

The change against Frank Henry, president of the association club, for keeping a common betting house, or horse pool room, comes up in the morning and promises to be very interesting. On April 28 a similar charge was laid against him in the grand jury, after hearing the evidence, returned the verdict and the County Court Attorney will prosecute.

About Victor Shoes.

The great bulk of shoes worn nowadays are made in great factories. Some of the makers use good leather and do good work, but most of them cheapen their product in every possible way. By cheapening we mean that they put a good-looking finish on inferior leather so that the shoes can be sold for more than they're worth. Competition between nine-tenths of the makers is on this point—how much can be saved in the quality without showing. The idea of VICTOR Shoes came with the development of our shoe business. We wanted something better than the trade could supply—the best that could be made to sell at $3.50. We found that six out of every ten pairs of shoes were shams, bits of useless leather pressed and made into shoes, disguised with the skill of a counterfeiter. They deceived even the merchant. Never was a time when shoes looked so well and wore so badly, until the shoeing of a whole family had come to be a serious task. There was a chance for someone and we took the chance. We commenced by ordering shoes made to our special order, selecting our own leather and watching every detail of the making. Coupled with this was the manufacturer's guarantee that if any shoe turned out wrong he paid for it, and not you nor we. That guarantee holds good to-day—your money back and our money back if the men who make VICTOR Shoes ever make a mistake. At first we didn't make a cent. It took every penny of the $3.50 to get and sell such shoes as we wanted, but we made a good name with you and the country at large. Every shoe was numbered and every sale registered with full name and address so that we could keep track of every pair. We stood sponsor for their behavior and didn't hesitate to say so. Our very mercantile honor was at stake—a positive guarantee that VICTOR Shoes were the best without any exception ever sold in Canada. That was the beginning. Our trade has grown and grown until to-day we have thousands of regular customers and carry a range of 22 different styles. It didn't take long for people to find us out. Gentlemen tell us they've worn VICTOR Shoes for over a year without re-soles, and others insist they can't wear them out. We know the sort of value we're giving—the making is the very best that high-grade workmanship can produce. In this way we're producing a model shoe store. We have VICTOR Shoes for ladies as well as gentlemen, and although we keep higher-priced makes, we can't advise anyone to buy them unless they want to spend some of their money twice over. We have ordinary good shoes for those who must pay less, and expensive fine shoes for those who insist on the imported, but our own judgment favors the VICTOR every time because eminently good, absolutely reliable, and what is also important—because they are MADE IN CANADA.
