MANCHESTER HAS REJECTED CHURCHILL FOR UNIONIST FIRST SHOCK TO ASQUITH

Joynson-Hicks Carries Northwest Division by Majority of 429 in Heaviest Poll of Twenty Years— Bad Blow for Government and Premier Asquith.

SOCIALIST VOTE WAS NOT A FACTOR

MANCHESTER, April 24.—The northwest division of Manchester, by the heaviest poll cast in 20 years, to-day reversed its verdict of 1906, and by a majority of 429 voters unseated as its member of parliament Winston Spence Churchill, Liberal, who has just been made president of the board of trade in the new Asquith Cabinet, and who that year so brilliantly wrested
the seat from W. Joynson-Hicks, Unionist, his chief opponent of to-day.
Three candidates stood for election and the result was as follows:
W. Joynson-Hicks (Unionist), 5417.
Winston Spence Churchill (Liberal), 4988.
Mr. Irving (Socialist), 276.
A Crushing Blow.
The defeat of Mr. Churchill is a crushing blow to the prestige of the government and the young and confident minister, which is bound to have a marked influence in several other impending by-elections. The result is difficultly in finding for Mr. Churchill a safe seat elsewhere. The Liberals may derive from their defeat of to-day what consolation is possible for the fact that prior to 1906 the northwest division seat was held consistently by Conservatives.

Asquith's Oversight.

Among the many influential and cross currents at work in this extraordinary contest it was not wholly beyond reason to suppose that Mr. Asquith himself was partly responsible for the defeat of his young colleague. It is customary for the leader of the party to send a letter wishing success to any member of his party seeking election to parliament. Mr. Balfour in this case sent Mr. Joynson-Hicks an unusually long and adroit letter, which doubtless very materially assisted the Unionist campaign.

Mr. Asquith, on the other hand, for some as yet unexplained reason omitted to follow this custom, though he sent a letter to Walter Funnell, president of the board of education, who on Thursday contested and won the seat for Dewsbury by a majority of 118 votes.
It is impossible to suppose that the omission in the case of Mr. Churchill was intentional; but in any case it gave the Unionists an opening to insultuate that the premier rather abstained from the usual cabinet approved of Mr. Churchill's tactics in pledging the government to the Irish home rule and other questions, or that he would not be unwilling to see an over-confident young member receive a check.

Socialist Vote Small.

Contrary to expectation the Socialist vote was so small that it had practically no effect on the election. Probably more damage was inflicted on the Liberal cause by the activity of the Sur-fragists, who worked with the same energy against Mr. Churchill. It is also supposed that David Lloyd-George chancellor of the exchequer, by breaking the custom that requires cabinet
members personally to canvass electors, gave many votes of wavering to the Unionists, while Mr. Redmond's advice, the Catholic question, and the Churchill may have come too late, the English Catholic priests having conducted a very vigorous campaign against Mr. Churchill and the government's education bill.

Licensing Bill Blamed.

Mr. Joynson-Hicks, in an interview
after the election, attributed his victory mainly to the action of the licensing bills. He is a London solicitor, 43 years of age and never before has held a seat in parliament. He has a wide acquaintance in Manchester, and his wife, who belongs here. He is an able platform speaker. He has travelled much on the continent and in America studying conditions in those countries.

Excitement Was Intense.

There was intense excitement here
to-night when the result of the election was announced to an enormous waiting crowd. Mr. Churchill was the first to congratulate his opponent.
Mrs. Cornwallis-West, Mr. Churchill's
mother, was standing at his side.
Later in the evening Mr. Churchill in a speech said:
"It is useless to disguise the fact that we have had a very heavy blow.
Its consequences will be grave and serious to all whose interests are interwoven with the principle of free trade."
Mr. Churchill also complained bitterly of what he declared was an unfair influence exerted against him by certain London newspapers.

Last Election Figures.

In the general election in Manchester Churchill captured the seat by a majority of 154. Following are the figures:
Churchill 5633
Joynson-Hicks 4398

First Seat Offered.

DUNDEE, April 24.—It is reported
the Liberal leaders here to-night sent a telegram to Winston Spence Churchill inviting him to contest the seat in parliament made vacant thru the elevation of the peerage of the Right Hon. Edmund Robertson, Liberal, who has held the seat since 1885.

PUGSLEY'S EASY TIME.

Wm. Pugsley had fairly smooth sailing with his estimate to-night. The

RAILWAY STOCK 95 PER CENT. "WATER"

T. F. Ryan, the New York Magnate, Astonishes Grand Jury by His State- ment.

NEW YORK, April 24.—When Thos.
F. Ryan was before the special grand jury investigating the affairs of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company,
he said that 95 per cent. of the stock of railroad corporations in this country
never cost a dollar.
There was great surprise, and many of the jurors questioned Mr. Ryan, believing that they had misunderstood;
but the only one in the room who manifested no surprise was Mr. Jerome, who, before Mr. Ryan appeared before the jury, had carefully gone over all the testimony with him.
Ryan's remark was made after Mr.
Jerome had read to the grand jury the statement prepared by the witness,
which Ryan gave out for publication
last Monday evening.
Mr. Ryan had figured out that the $2,000,000 of Metropolitan Street Railway stock represented cash payments of $1.3 per cent. of its par value. As Mr. Jerome read this statement Ryan interrupted, saying:
"Gentlemen, that is the answer to the statement that has been made for the last five years, that the Metropolitan Street Railway Company stock is all water."
Mr. Jerome promptly came to the witness' rescue, saying:
"Mr. Ryan, you have been connected with a large number of corporate ventures, both in street railways and in steam railways, have you not?"
"Yes, sir," answered Ryan.
"And as a banker you have been familiar with the capitalization of many of the railroads of this country, have you not?"
"Yes, sir."
"How will that compare—that percentage of water if you call it such?"
"Ninety-five per cent. of the stock of railroad corporations of this country never cost a dollar," was Mr. Ryan's declaration.
"You mean," said Mr. Jerome, "that 95 per cent. of the stock of the railroads of this country are all water?"
"How it was done."
"Yes, 95 per cent. of the railroads within the last—these great speculative years that we have had—put up stock so in the last ten or twelve years that it was easy to raise money on stocks and bonds; but up to 1885 95 per cent. of all steam railroads and all street railroads and all industrial corporations of this country never put in one dollar on their stock, except a little organization expenses that were required for a few shares of stock in the beginning."
"So, then," said Mr. Jerome, "your experience in these matters is that $5.13 cash paid in for every $100 in stock is an exception?"
"Yes, sir. Up to 1875 there was not a dollar paid in on St. Paul, Northwestern, Omaha or any of these railroads, and that is the government's policy."
Mr. Jerome asked another question:
"If you took these roads as they stand to-day, including the roads that have been organized and supported on a sound basis, taking them as a whole, both in steam railroading and street railroading, would $5.13 cash for every share of $100 per be a large percentage of cash?"
"A large percentage," replied Mr.
Ryan, "50 per cent. of them have not had anything. Not only that; in the re-organization that took place from 1860 up to 1897 they assessed these stocks and gave bonds."
"Mr. Ryan," said one of the grand jurors, "we understand then that the roads only cost about 5 per cent. of the capital issue; they were built with bonds?"
"Built with bonds," said Mr. Ryan.
"The Union Pacific Railroad is built with bonds and got a land grant worth $250,000,000 besides."
"And Atchafalaya," asked one of the other grand jurors.
"Atchafalaya the same."

Cost of the Parks Probe

Bill Against the City Totals $3766, of Which $2025 Goes to Mr. Raney.

The investigation into the parks department cost the city $3766.
The statement prepared by the city solicitor exhibits the following items:
Judge Winchester $455.00
W. E. Raney, civic counsel 2025.00 Thos. Bangough (official stenographer) 1071.50
A. W. Middleton (registrar of court) 138.50
Geo. Powell (court clerk) 78.00
Mr. Raney has already received $1500
on account.
The enquiry was ordered by the city council Nov. 11, 1907, and a week later proceedings were taken by John Chambers, then parks commissioner, to restrain Judge Winchester from examining witnesses in private or inspecting books of the department.
A second writ was served Nov. 25,
Mr. Chambers submitting to examination two days later.
The enquiry was concluded on March 24 last, the taking of evidence occupying 33 days. The transcript of the evidence covered 2500 pages of foolscap.
His honor submitted his report to the city council on April 15.
Mr. Chambers, the ex-parks commissioner, has stated that his legal expenses ran close to $2000.

Registrar's Trip to Ottawa Not Along That Line—An Interest- ing Episode Made Known.

A gentleman closely in touch with Mr. Peter Ryan stated yesterday that his mission to Ottawa had nothing whatever to do with politics, and that Mr. Ryan is far from nourishing any such political ambitions, as the Ottawa despatches might indicate. Mr. Ryan he stated quite positively, is not looking for cabinet honors.
As proof of the registrar's declination—even should others desire him—Wm. Waldorf Astor, president of the organization, related an incident hitherto known to only a few.
Mr. Ryan did refuse two requests that he should appear. On one occasion, so urgently was he wanted, that his friends in the government had all the necessary papers prepared for his appointment to the ministry, hoping that when placed before him they would prove an inducement. Mr. Ryan, however, again declined the honor thus proffered him.

LONDON, April 24.—The flag of the American frigate "Chesapeake," which was taken by H.M.S. Shannon, June 1, has not yet taken available official form, and that fortified with this he will expect to prepare for the flotation

of the debenture stock in question.

MAY ASK MCKAY TO GIVE HIS VERSION

Many Liberals Who Can't See Why He Didn't Resist the C. N. R. Guar- antee.

The most talked of thing in the city these days is the guarantee of the bonds of the Canadian Northern Railway and a half million by the Ontario Government and Legislature. All sorts of stories are current, some of them of a rather startling character, and some of them that ought to call for some kind of investigation. There was one man even who said there would be an official investigation demanded, but he would go no further, or give any particulars.
An incident that calls for a great deal of comment is the effort now going on to secure a Conservative organ in Toronto, that will be the mouthpiece of the government here and of the opposition at Ottawa. The gossip keeps suggesting that the morning after the warranty signing up this proposition with the proposition of the guarantee.
There are Reformers who say that they will insist on some kind of investigation within their own party taking place in regard to the episode, and especially since the News of yesterday afternoon contained a paragraph asserting direct complicity of the opposition with the course of the government. The paragraph reads as follows:
The decision of the Liberals in the legislature to support the consolidation and increased guarantee to the Canadian Northern Railway was reached the morning after the introduction in the house at a conference between Hon. A. G. Mac-Kay, the Liberal leader, and Mr. E.
J. B. Penne, the financial critic.
When interviewed by the News at the time, Mr. Penne stated that he had conferred with Mr. MacKay as to the action the opposition should take, and the Liberal leader had advised against any opposition to the measure, maintaining that the Liberals were committed to it by their previous guarantee, and that the present proposals were in accord with the policy inaugurated by the Liberal government.
Mr. Whitford also emphatic in his statement (published yesterday),
describing the opposition as a consenting party to the transaction. Here are
Mr. Whitford's words:
This bill was introduced and explained on the preceding Thursday.
It could not have been debated until today if the opposition had wanted to do so. But they did not want to do so; and in spite of that are not ashamed to object to it to-day, in order to, as they desire, cast some odium upon the government.
The opposition did not call for a division. They did not say one word in opposition to the bill. They wanted the bill to pass. Consequently it was carried unanimously, they voting with the rest of the members in favor of it.
A lot of Reformers resent these charges and will insist on Mr. Mac-Kay making some explanation, and especially in the conduct of an impartial "election fund" in it for him, as The Globe says there is for Mr. Whitford in it.

MAJOR HODGINS' CHARGES TO BE HEARD

Committee of Five Will Be Appointed to Investigate Charges of Graft on G. T. P.

OTTAWA, April 24.—(Special.)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier announced to-day that on Monday he would move for the appointment of a committee of five members to investigate the charges made by Major Hodgins, former engineer of the National Transconti-ental Railway at Kenora, against the commission. He read the correspondence in the matter.
The first letter is from Hon. S. N.
Parent, chairman of the commission, to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Dealing with the charges categorically, Mr. Parent denies that any of them have any foundation. The main charge is that the government is paying padded accounts for work done, and G.T.R. people are making no objection because they merely had to pay the added interest. In reply, Mr. Parent says the railway "make objections when they see fit and these are looked into
at once."
The chairman also refutes the statement that the commissioners wanted to change his (Major Hodgins') ideas on construction to classification, that is allowed to contractors in Quebec.
"The commissioners," says Mr. Parent, "inadequately time, requested
Major Hodgins to adopt in his district any classification not in accordance with the contract and specifications."
This can be easily seen, especially it was looked over and found to be agreeing with these and therefore perfectly regular."
The charges then read: If Mr. Poulin, the engineer appointed by Mr. Parent to replace me on the western district, has allowed the introduction of a classification similar to that allowed in Quebec, this will account for the increase in the estimated cost of the line. If this increase amounts to $2,000,000 or $4,000,000, it is time the public demanded some explanation." Poulin, replied the chairman, was appointed on the recommendation of the chief engineer because he was the best man to take hold of the work of re-organizing the district, which had been left in such bad shape by Major Hodgins.
Proceeding, he says: "Since leaving our employment, Major Hodgins has talked a good deal openly, in fact, much more than professional dignity, and the sense of justice would seem usually to permit of the time we feel, in justice to ourselves and the public, before whom there is an evident desire to misrepresent the facts, to call at half and make it necessary for the accuser to bring facts to substantiate his charges."
"In conclusion," the commissioners would respectfully request, as they do not wish to remain under the asper-sions of such reports cast on them, that the whole matter be referred to

Will the Federal Govt. Try to Find a Scandal?

communication, Sir James Willcocks,

HIGHEST SALARY ASKED WAS THREE THOUSAND

City Surprised at Modesty of Applicants for Position of Engineer—General City News.

HAMILTON, April 24.—(Special.)—The reorganization committee met this evening and spent applicants for the position of city engineer. There were 38 applicants, many of whom were students from Montreal, who wanted only about $1000 a year. The highest salary asked was $3000. This proved a surprise to the aldermen, who expected to have to pay about $5000. A sub-committee was named to select likely candidates for the position. From present indications the choice lies among J. W. Tyrrell, F. McCallum and F. Somerville. There was some talk about the salary list, but no action was taken, although the principle of unauthorized increases was condemned.

The Street Railway conference committee had a session this afternoon, but this evening and spent applicants for the position of city engineer. Several of the members opposed strenuously the request of the company to guarantee the bonds of the company for the $200,000 the company proposes to spend in fixing up the lot of private citizens, but will be allowed to sell carload lots. The clerk estimated that the city saved about $800 last year by buying its own fuel.

Third Man in the Field. Charles Collins, ex-mayor of Dundas, and an ex-county councillor, who has been a member of the executive of the Conservative party, has announced his intention of running in North Ward for the legislature as an independent Conservative. This will make a three-cornered fight, his opponents being R. A. Thompson, L. L. Libby and Gordon C. Wilson, Conservative.

There is a general outcry against the new rates of the Cataract Power Company. The company has promised that the new rates would mean a reduction in the cost of electric lighting. One of the kickers is "Bessie," who runs a restaurant on Macnab-street. Mr. Bessie's lighting bill, including a sign, amounted to $25 a month under the old schedule, and to $30 a month under the new.

P. W. Bothman, who interpreted the offer of the Cataract Power Company to supply power to the city at a horse-power per annum, says that when the conditions imposed by the company are observed, it will mean that the company would charge $32.38 or about double the rate quoted by the hydro-electric commission.

James Burgess, for many years proprietor of the Union Hotel, died this morning.

An injunction was taken out this morning to prevent Jacob Levy's body from being buried in the Hebrew cemetery. Solomon Frank, a brother-in-law, who wanted to bury the body in the cemetery, refused to pay the charge asked, $500, and an injunction was issued restraining him from doing the same.

The chattels of Thomas Colgan will be sold this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the New Arlington.

Mr. Tomes, the well-known Hamilton tailor, claims that an injustice was done him thru his name appearing in connection with a seizure of goods at the residence of James Woods. The goods were disposed of thru the ordinary course of business. Mr. Tomes had made an assignment to J. H. Tomes credit is good.

BROKE NEGOTIATIONS. Marine Firemen and Cooks Drifting Apart. DETROIT, April 24.—Following the breaking off of negotiations last night between the labor committee of Lake Seamen's Union and the Lumber Carriers' Association, the committee from the marine firemen and marine cooks also broke off negotiations to-day.

The lumber carriers asked the cooks to accept a reduction in wages of $7.50 per month and the firemen $5 and also the open shop. The representatives of the three unions immediately began a conference upon a plan of action.

SHOT PLUMAGE ON HAT. Hunter Mistook Stuffed Birds for the Real Thing. NEW YORK, April 24.—A hunter in the Edenwald woods, in the northern part of the Bronx, aimed at some birds in Mrs. Mary Sassen's hat, but missed and sent a load of shot into the woman's breast.

Mrs. Sassen, who lives at 232 South Eighth-avenue, Mount Vernon, entered the woods early in the afternoon to pick flowers. She wore a rather squat brown hat, trimmed with two brown birds, and a none-faded, in the woods, which are thickly grown, the hat looked for all the world like a big nest of birds.

The woman was bending over and placing flowers in a basket when shot.

SIX JAPANESE WARSHIPS ARMOR GLAD, AT AMOY

Varied Speculation as to Formidable Naval Display—Considerable Excitement Caused.

SHANGHAI, April 24.—The arrival of six Japanese armor-clad warships at Amoy has caused great excitement in the Fukien and Kwangtung provinces, as well as in Peking.

There is varied speculation as to the object of such formidable display, as it happens just as the negotiations relative to the Chientsao boundary dispute were reopened. The Korean population of the latter place presented a monster joint petition to the Chinese resident official, asking for Chinese protection.

Meanwhile, Col. Sato, the Japanese military commander at Chientsao, has arrived in Peking, with the object of strengthening Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, in his negotiations with Tung Shao Yih, the governor of Fukien Province, in connection with the Japanese military party, who regard Chientsao as of vital importance, commanding and menacing Kirin, Vladivostok and Harbin equally.

Japanese reserves, in the guise of settlers, peddling their wares in increasing numbers in the territory in increasing numbers.

Mr. Robert Hart of the Chinese imperial customs is due here to-morrow, en route to his home in Ireland. He has declared that he will return on the expiration of his year's leave of absence.

The British court has confiscated the steamship Maori King on the ground of false registration under the British flag. The owner of the vessel was accused of having allowed her to be used for the kidnapping of Chinese coolies, who were taken to Guaymas, Mexico, from Vladivostok.

It is expected that the Chinese government will ask for the restitution of those implicated in that affair.

Leslie Harris Returns. Leslie Harris, the English entertainer, proved that he has a large and varied stock of piano talks by hugely diverting his audience at the Massey Hall last night with an entirely new series of musical monologues. The occasion marked Mr. Harris' third visit to Toronto within a few weeks, and it is expected that the public of this city take kindly to this form of entertainment. His clever characterizations last night were full of freshness and such applause and merriment. Mr. Harris will repeat his performance to-night.

THE WORLD SCORES AGAIN.

The World is always winning out, and that is one of things that make our kind contemporaries sore. We were the only paper in Toronto to describe the proposed reduction of hotel license as a trick of Robert John Fleming devised to sidetrack the Beck Fleming policy. Mr. Fleming engineered Mr. Spence into a controllership and then handed him the license reduction brief. Some day soon the story of the circus at Ald. Hales' house in regard to the deal will be told.

The judgment of the court has settled the matter for the present. Everyone accepts the decision as a just ending of an unjust trick.

The World's further contention was that the people should settle this question, not the council; and it is more than likely that a proposal to reduce the number of licenses will be referred to the electors at the next municipal contest. The wish of the people as it may be then expressed at the polls will have to be accepted by the court, by the trade and by the commission. The people are the absolute masters in this respect and the trend of public opinion is in the direction of further limiting barroom drinking.

THE ARBITRATION TREATY.

Beyond giving formal expression to the conviction of the two great English-speaking peoples, that settlement of international disputes by friendly arbitration is proper and desirable, the treaty now ratified by the senate has little direct practical effect. Indeed, it is far more sedulously restricted in its terms than are the arbitration agreements previously entered into by many European nations. This, however, has not been due to the United States on this point occupying a less advanced position than that which other civilized communities have reached. Nor can it be attributed specially to any lingering remnant of the Anglophobia once so prevalent among the citizens, nor even to the political manoeuvring always associated with affairs touching the Irish vote. It is undoubtedly to be attributed to the constitutional provisions regulating the treaty-making power, and to the jealous care with which the senate guards its right of ratification.

The treaty now coming into force has this incidental importance, that it contains for the first time a provision that any agreement made to refer a question to arbitration shall not be binding on the British government until it has been concluded by the senate and its terms accepted by the British government by the exchange of notes. Hitherto it has been held that a treaty bound Britain from the moment of signing, while no treaty was binding on the United States until it was ratified and proclaimed by the president. Conditions will now be equalized, since in the event of the senate delaying ratification for a long time, or the committee on foreign affairs remaining indefinitely inactive, the British government can let a treaty lapse by refusing to exchange notes.

Another quiet but noteworthy innovation in the reservation by Great Britain of the right to consult any of the self-governing imperial states before concluding an agreement affecting their interests. This, it is believed, is the first time a clause of this character has been inserted in a formal treaty, though in commercial arrangements the independent position and rights of these states have received recognition. The reservation now made will form a precedent to which all subsequent treaties involving, or likely to involve, the autonomous dominions and states, will no doubt conform, and it marks another stage in the imperial evolution. Connections to national sentiment are never recalled, and as the over-seas states grow and develop their personal share in international negotiation over matters that concern themselves must increase and become more direct. Nothing can disturb orderly progress towards the realization of that conception which sees the British Empire in its final form of a partnership of equal self-contained and independently self-governing nations.

GOVERNMENT BY CORPORATIONS.

On Thursday the New York Evening Post, under the above caption, took as an editorial text a remark made by Mr. William J. Bryan on the recent revelations concerning the $500,000 contributed by the street railways of New York for political purposes. He said:

When you consider for a moment that this $500,000 which was contributed by a single corporation in this city was more than we were able to raise in either of the campaigns in which I was a candidate from more than 6,000,000 voters, you get a fair idea of the tremendous influence, one way or another, that the corporations can exert if they want to.

Commenting on this, The Post points out that for more than a generation people have been complaining, with more or less specification, that the machinations of both political parties are run by corporation influence. It continues: The Pennsylvania Railroad, for example, has been notorious as a corrupting force in the politics of Pennsylvania and New Jersey; the New York Central in New York; the New York, New Haven & Hartford in Connecticut, and Rhode Island; the Boston & Maine in New Hampshire; the Prudential Insurance Company and the Public-Service Corporation in New Jersey; and the protected interests in the national convention. No one could watch the proceedings at Harrisburg, Trenton, Albany or Washington without becoming convinced that big corporations were trafficking in laws and law-makers; but definite proof was often lacking.

The Post proceeds to show that "since the last presidential election, however, the damning evidence has poured upon us like a torrent." It refers to the admission that each of the three large life insurance companies had paid $50,000 to help elect Mr. Roosevelt, and to the letters between E. H. Harriman and the president, showing that the former had raised $200,000 late in October, 1904, for the obvious purpose of buying votes in New York State. It quotes Mr. Harriman as saying, "I have at least 50,000 votes, which I could secure a quiet way."

The Post proceeds, "And now," "comes this last addition to the list—the Metropolitan Street Railway. It backed any party from which it could secure a quiet way. The managers of this traction company robbed their stockholders in order to oppose Mr. Bryan; robbed them in order to secure support of Democrats and Republicans at Albany; robbed them in order to placate the Grand Old Party under the leadership of Odell; robbed them in order to favour Tammany under Charles F. Murphy. It was an orgy of political debauchery."

This terrible indictment does not appear in any yellow sheet, but in the editorial columns of one of the sanest, soberest and, in some respects, most conservative of United States newspapers. Nor can it be ascribed to any violent anti-corporation feeling, for The Evening Post is not a public-ownership journal. It feels and speaks strongly because the evidence of gigantic and wholesale corruption is too clear and convincing to permit of a contrary opinion. But can a system which permits of such conduct as is described be justified at all, or can it be regulated so that a continuance of the evils denounced will be effectively prevented? The World holds that it is impossible to do so except by a measure of control which practically means public ownership and operation of public services.

So long as public franchises are open to private exploitation, so long will they be the field of unscrupulous finance, and the occasion of legislative and electoral corruption. Straight public ownership and operation alone can secure the rights of the public in their franchises. The possibilities of illegitimate dealing are too great to be placed in private hands.

AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATIONS.

In a pamphlet recently published by Mr. Arthur Montefiore Brice some very important information is given regarding the remarkable popularity of agricultural associations organized for the collective sale of their products, or for the co-operative purchase of agricultural necessities, and often for both purposes. Mr. Brice's immediate object was to urge the adoption of these new and successful methods by British agriculturists, especially those who are taking advantage of the improved facilities for the acquisition of small holdings. But if these methods have proved their worth and efficacy on the continent of Europe and if the production and export of agricultural produce has been vastly stimulated, the principles which underlie agricultural associations of the class indicated are of interest everywhere.

According to the statistics collected by Mr. Brice there are more than 600,000 producers in France, organized into about 2500 associations for the collective sale of their products. Germany has more than 1000 societies for the co-operative purchase of agricultural necessities and nearly as many for both production and sale. Holland, he affirms, rescued itself from a terrible agricultural crisis by embracing the co-operative system, but it is in Denmark that it has attained widest popularity. With a population of about 3,000,000 Denmark has 300,000 individuals who are members of co-operative societies. As a specimen of the extraordinary care and thoroughness with which the Danes maintain the standard of their products it is mentioned that every egg can be traced by means of the stamp to the original supplier, and any member who sent in for the second time a stale egg would be expelled from the society.

Strong efforts have been made to introduce these societies into Ireland, largely on the initiative of Sir Horace Plunkett. As a result there are now 800 associations affiliated with the Irish Agricultural Organization Society. Attention has now been turned to England, where the opportunities provided by the recent Small Holdings Act are being extensively accepted. Mr. Brice quotes the results obtained in various parts of the country, where societies established along similar lines are doing good work, and he contends that the rural exodus would be arrested by better cottages, small holdings, credit banks and co-

The Perambulating Showcase

BY HERBERT KAUFMAN.

The newspaper is a huge shop window, carried about the city and delivered daily into many thousands of homes, to be examined at the leisure of the reader. This shop window is unlike the actual plate glass show case only in one respect—it makes display of descriptions instead of articles.

You have often been impressed by the difference between the decorations of two window-trimmers, each of whom employed the same materials for his work. The one drew your attention and held it by the grace and cleverness and art manifested in his display. The other realized so little of the possibilities in the materials placed at his disposal that unless some one called your attention to his bungling you would have gone on unconscious of its existence.

An advertiser must know that he gets his results in accordance with the skill exercised in preparing his verbal displays. He must make people stop and pause. His copy has to stand out.

He must not only make a show of things that are attractive to the eye but are attractive to the people's needs as well.

The window-trimmer must not make the mistake of thinking that the showiest stocks are the most saleable. The advertiser must not make the mistake of thinking that the showiest words are the most clinching.

Windows are too few in number to be used with indiscretion. The good merchant puts those goods back of his plate glass which nine people out of ten will want after they have seen them.

The good advertiser tells about goods which nine readers out of ten will buy if they can be convinced.

Newspaper space itself is only the window, just as the showcase is but a frame for merchandise pictures. A window on a crowded street in the best neighborhood, where prosperous persons pass continually, is more desirable than one in a cheap, sparsely settled neighborhood. An advertisement in a newspaper with readers loyal to independent thought and in the middle walks of life possesses a great advantage over the same copy in a medium circulating among persons who possess no means. It would be foolish for a shop to build its windows in the alleyway—and just as much so to put its advertising into newspapers which are distributed among "alley-dwellers," and to people who never carry them home.

P.S.—Talk No. 8 will appear in The World on Monday, April 27.

operative societies for sale and purchase. There can be no doubt that it is due in great measure to the institution of such societies and the influence they have exerted in stimulating agricultural production and enabling a high standard of excellence to be attained and maintained that Denmark has gained so high a place among the exporting countries of Europe.

Cobalt Ores in Demand.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The long idleness of Anasconda and many other copper mines in the west, which turn out a large amount of silver as a by-product, has caused active competition among smelters for the Cobalt silver ores. More smelters are now bidding for ore from Cobalt mines than ever before in their history, and in consequence the producers are enabled to obtain more satisfactory prices.

SCARLET FEVER CASES PREVALENT IN MARCH

Over 500 Reported With Fifteen Deaths, According to the Official Figures.

The provincial board of health reports that smallpox, scarlet fever and diphtheria were more prevalent in March than for the corresponding month last year. The returns give 85 cases of smallpox and two deaths, but the most marked increase is in scarlet fever, there being 629 cases reported, with 15 deaths, and for the same month in 1907 only 235 cases and five deaths were reported, but the mortality for both periods may be considered low. Diphtheria caused 27 deaths being an increase of 11. Measles appear to have been much less prevalent, only 80 cases and one death being reported. Typhoid fever also reached a low point, only 12 deaths having been reported. Tuberculosis continues to carry off its many victims, causing over 200 deaths for the month. The total deaths from all causes were 2648, being 15.5 in 1000.

Table with 2 columns: Disease, Deaths. Includes Smallpox (85), Scarlet Fever (15), Diphtheria (27), Measles (80), Whooping Cough (54), Typhoid Fever (12), Consumption (217), Total (1224).

Canada's Trade Outlook.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Bradstreet's says: In Canada better weather and reports of advanced work in all agricultural lines are stimulating trade slightly. Spring wheat planting is well advanced in the northwest, and a 30 per cent gain in acreage is possible. In building there is more activity at all centres, but in other lines of industry work is slower. Immigration is large and the number of unemployed heavy. Collections are better. Failures for the week number 26, against 29 last week, and 23 in this week a year ago.

THE HOUSE THAT VALUE BUILT

It's About Good Clothes---Read It!

It would be weakness on our part to boom the ready-to-wear clothing part of our business unless we had clothing to back up our arguments; garments so distinctly out of the ordinary that your finding out would agree with our say so.

There are several points about ready-to-wear clothes that must work together, and yet each point must stand firmly in its own strength, because in that chain no one link must be weak.

IN THE FIRST PLACE THE MATERIAL is of great importance. It must be of dependable quality. It must be honest. It must be a good pattern, and it must be purchased direct from a reliable mill to ensure getting down to lowest cost. Every yard you find here confirms these requirements.

THEN THE STYLES. No matter how good a suit is, it's a "hand-me-down" if it isn't right up to the day in style. Our designers not only keep abreast with the fashions, they know the new styles months before they appear on the backs of Canadians, and every new style twist has come into our garments.

THEN THE MANUFACTURE. Nowadays even tailor-made clothing is largely machine-made, because the sewing machine is accurate and it's honest, besides being a mighty time-saver. Our garments are made by experienced tailors, who work under the watchful eyes of inspectors—not because the tailors are worth watching, but because the store's reputation is worth protecting.

And there are many little details of excellence about our suits or overcoats that in everyday advertising the store believes you take for granted; the sewing on of buttons; the making of buttonholes; the lining, the inner parts of the garment that hold the thing in correct shape. All these little things are most important in our eyes and better work goes into each detail than you'd expect.

Examiners go carefully over every inch of the cloth before it is shrunken, after it is shrunken, before it goes to the trimmers, before it is handed to the tailors and when it comes back, then again upon return from pressers and finishers and finally when the garment is ready to receive its price ticket and go down to join its fast selling companions in the store.

To men who wear Eaton clothes all this talk will seem like a rehash; its telling facts they know. But we want to get at the man who doesn't know. We want to put facts before the man who has perhaps been careless in his clothing selections; dropping into any place that sold clothing and that made a noise about quality. We'd like to convince those many men who have received rude jolts in their ready-made clothing faith by dealers who sell clothes for to-day—letting the future take care of itself. In a word we want to tell the man who doesn't know that his money will go farthest here in the buying of best clothes.

But a young man says—Buy Eaton's clothes—that's a woman's store—What do they know about men's clothes?

IT IS a woman's store; ask any woman friend you like WHY. She'll tell you because it has the goods the women want, in the styles they want, of the material they want, made to give the long wear they want and to agree with the amounts they want to pay.

Satisfy a woman on all these points and it should be easy to satisfy the men.

It's just as much a man's store as a woman's; does that part of the business as well as the other; does all the business as distinctly better way than it ever was done before.

But enough for to-day. Let's finish this talk at the store, face to face with the evidence.

Attention to four sample suit values upon which we'll hang our reputation for putting the maximum of quality into every suit at its price.

Apert altogether from the big spectacular features which are to be offered at the 6th military tournament to be held in the armories on the evening of May 14, 15 and 16, is the big social rivalry among the lady adherents of the several regiments. It has been so arranged that each regiment will have its own vanguard night at the tournament, when the colors and souvenirs will be in keeping with the colors of the particular regiment in charge of affairs that night. While there is no particular competition, there is a pleasant rivalry among the lady friends of the several regiments to make the particular night of their respective regiments the most successful of the four nights of the tournament.

The friends of George B. Brown, manager of the Sterling Bank of Canada, Parkdale, tendered him a banquet at the Ocean House on the eve of his departure for Vancouver. He is severing his connection with the Sterling Bank this week, and leaves for the west on Monday. John Lawrence and Dr. Orr, both very old friends of Mr. Brown, were especially happy in the fitting tributes they paid him. Henry F. Young made the speech of the evening, in proposing the toast, "Our Country." R. R. Corson, manager of the Metropolitan Bank, Parkdale, made a very good toastmaster. Among those present were Dr. R. B. Orr, John Laxton, Henry F. Young, Andrew Martin, W. D. Corson, H. F. Falkner, Frank W. Gray, H. B. Walker, F. G. Malcolm, Herbert J. Thompson, L. T. Brandon, W. A. Cooke, Samuel Hobbs and others.

Grace of North Parkdale Presbyterian Church, when Miss Beesie Mackay, daughter of Mr. Hugh Mackay, Durham, Ont., was married to Mr. Wiley Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman of Caniluis, N.Y. The bride wore a blue silk, trimmed with Irish lace and pearls, with white roses and lilies of the valley and the groom's suit, a gold watch and chain. Miss Marie Mackay, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, in cream silk, and wore pink roses. The groom's ring to her was a gold bracelet. Mr. Alex. Fotheringham was best man. After the ceremony a wedding supper was given by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Robinson, 45 Lynd-avenue. A pleasant evening was spent by a few intimate friends and relatives on a lounge, the bride and groom leaving at 10 p.m., and will reside in their new home, on Lynd-avenue, on their return.

Mrs. Metcalfe, a sad-eyed little woman, was sentenced in yesterday's police court for forging the name of Miss Josephine Maher, her sister-in-law. The postoffice department refused to prosecute, but the sister-in-law was determined to carry the case thru. Magistrate Denison, after hearing the destitute circumstances of the family pictured by the crown attorney, the lawyer for the defence, Mr. Robinson, and the detectives, imposed a sentence of 30 days.

The woman had received $5 from the postoffice on a registered letter, signing her sister-in-law's name.

Detective Kennedy, who made the arrest, said he found the family in a state of absolute destitution, the mother even having been sold to provide food for the starving children. The woman and two children were sleeping on a lounge, the woman sick and her husband absent. The place was clean and tidy. Her husband, said Mrs. Metcalfe, was a school teacher by profession, but was just now working as a pedlar, her first husband being Miss Maher's brother, who had ill-treated her.

Magistrate Denison as he imposed the sentence said: "I can't overlook the offence; if I did, there would be a dozen such cases in no time. However, I shall be as lenient as possible."

The previous day some person in court, learning of the circumstances, sent the woman $10.

DUC DE CHAULENES DEAD HAD BUT RECENTLY WED

Body Found by His Young Bride, Who Was Formerly Miss Shonts of New York.

PARIS, April 24.—The Duc De Chaulenes, who in February was married in New York to Miss Theodora Shonts, daughter of Theodore F. Shonts, president of the Interboro-Metroplitan Railway Co., was to-day found dead in bed in his apartment at the Hotel Langham, in the Rue Bocquillon, where the duke was found by his wife.

The death of the young man was due to embolism or the obstruction of an artery by a solid body.

The duchess entered her husband's room this morning, but found that she could not awaken him. She quickly summoned help. A doctor came in response to her summons and after an examination he pronounced the duke to be dead by the police. The police was at once notified and the inquest opened. At the conclusion of the inquest the coroner declared that death was due to natural causes and that it had been brought about by embolism. The police later issued a permit of interment.

The Duc and the Duchess De Chaulenes had lived at the Hotel Langham for three weeks. They were awaiting the completion of their private residence, now in course of construction.

The Family Shocked. NEW YORK, April 24.—The news of the death of the Duc De Chaulenes came as a great shock to Mr. Shonts and his family. There had been no previous intimation that he was not in good health and the letters from the duchess, received recently, were happy in their recounting merely the incidents of their trip and of the life in France.

Couple Had Retired. PARIS, April 24.—According to a statement by the police, the Duc De Chaulenes and his wife had retired. Later the duchess awoke to find her husband dead by her side. Several minutes quickly he cried for help and a doctor was summoned. The duchess is still prostrated from the shock, but she has greatly improved.

SIR FREDERICK BRIDGE. The Organist of Westminster Abbey is Coming to Canada.

Sir Frederick Bridge, the great organist from London, who plays in Westminster Abbey, is coming to Canada and will be heard in recital. It is to be expected that he will play one of the Bach fugues, for those compositions are wonderful tests, not only of technical achievement, but of musical temperament. There are thousands of organists who can play every one of those fugues correctly, but only rarely can we find one who treats them as a family.

This amazing Player, by all odds the best on the market, as it was the first, has been secured by the firm of Gourlay, Winter & Leacock to install as an interior attachment to the Gourlay piano, an instrument which holds the van of Canadian pianos.

The Gourlay-Angelus is worthy of a place in the most artistic home, for while the player is a mechanical device, it responds instantly to the temperament and taste of the person who is operating it. Anyone who imagines that this is an exaggeration is under a mistake. See the instrument at the warehouses on Yonge-street.

RAILWAY CONDUCTOR TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Drank Poison From a Can and Then Leaped Into Current—Swept Over the Dam.

SMITH'S FALLS, April 24.—(Special.)—The town was shocked this morning by the announcement that Robert Beatty, a well-known C.P.R. conductor of this place, had committed suicide by jumping into the river near the Perrin Plover Works. The act was a most deliberate one, as he walked up to the spot where the fatal leap was taken about ten o'clock, apparently took over the ground and went away again. He returned in an hour's time and walked the length of the dam at the citizens' electric plant and there jumped in.

Some men in the Perrin Plover Works noticed him come to the place the second time and called to him. As they did so he took a small can from his pocket and drank from it something which is supposed to have been poison. Then he pulled his coat tight over his face and threw the can away, before he jumped.

The horrified on-lookers rushed at once to attempt to rescue him, but the current is very swift at this point and this was impossible. He went over the dam and the eddy whirled him up onto the bank at the cut. Every effort was made to resuscitate him, but life was extinct.

The deceased made his last trip on Wednesday when he booked sick after coming in from Smith's Falls. He was noticed to have acted rather strangely and this morning two of his friends were so impressed with the fact that they decided to watch him. They followed him to the Perrin Plover Works, when he went there the second time and was seen to take a small can from his pocket and drink from it. He was seen to turn to look at them, he paid no heed.

The deceased was about 40 years of age. He is survived by his wife and two children. What caused him to take his own life, however, is not known. He was in comfortable circumstances and was most happy in his home life.

He was prominent in railway circles. An inquest will be held.

Want Marking Act Amended. OTTAWA, April 24.—The gold and silver plate manufacturers of Canada to-day asked Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. F. H. Hunt, minister of the Marking Act by providing for the prohibition of the importation from England of gold and silver plate of a lower standard than that of the United States standard, which is the basis of Canadian manufacture, fixes 10 karats as the minimum, and the free entry of British goods of a lower standard is held to be unfair competition.

JAMES WILSON CHOSEN FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

MADAME FRANCIS' HAIR RESTORER

Controllers Unanimously Send the Recommendation for Endorsement of Council.

James Wilson, late superintendent of the Niagara Falls park system, will be the city's park commissioner; the board of control yesterday deciding unanimously in his favor.

A large majority of the aldermen behind his candidature, and the expectation is that at Monday's meeting the choice will be unanimous. The salary will be $3,500, considered, although a written application for the position from Chas. E. Chambers, son of the former commissioner, was before the board.

Controler Harrison, in moving that Mr. Wilson be appointed, explained that any movement to amalgamate the park and police departments and to place Commissioner Harris at the head was contrary to Mr. Harris' wishes.

The motion then carried without dissent. Mr. Wilson says he thinks he would be able to assume his new duties on May 1. The city, he thinks, would be able to secure the services of Rodolph Cameron, horticulturist, who has resigned as city horticulturist. He considers Mr. Cameron the best horticulturist in Canada.

Mr. Wilson's confidence that good improvement could be made in Exhibition Park and High Park.

HANGING NO PICNIC

Specialist Says Things About Mode of Execution.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—The accepted idea that execution by hanging is a painless operation was disputed by Dr. L. A. Spitzka, the eminent brain specialist, before the annual meeting of the American Philosophical Society which began in Independence Hall, Prof. Spitzka said that he had witnessed 31 electrocutions at Sing Sing, Auburn, Dannemora, in New York State, and at Trenton and five hangings at Moyamensing Prison in Philadelphia. Electrocution was, he said, the most humane method of inflicting the death penalty, because it was the most efficient, the speediest and the least painful, and he advocated its adoption by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

A Mission Appeal.

Editor World: The mission known as the St. Andrew's, 289 East King-street, was started by the St. Andrew's Brotherhood. They closed a year ago last March. I opened it and took charge of it, December, 1907, and have named it the Gospel Mission of Andrew and Phillip. I preach the truth—the Bible—and our work in bringing men and women to Jesus. I was born in Birmingham, England. I came to this country when a small boy, I got away from mother's influence, got in bad company and became a wreck. I was born again and became a new man in Christ Jesus. God has used me in wonderful ways, and I have given my life to His service. We are doing a good work and many are giving thanks to God because of my mission. I am a Holy Ghost man and conversion is a sure cure for the drunkard and all kind of sinners. I am badly in need of money to pay the expenses of the mission and I need 90 chairs and eight yards of oceanic matting for the floor. The mission is clean and light. Evangelist, E. K. E. Supt., 286 East King-street, Toronto.

"SPRING FEVER"

The need of a spring medicine seems to be universal. This is due to the fact that during the winter the blood becomes impure on account of the hearty food eaten. This causes that tired, weary, all-gone, don't-care-to-work feeling which is so prevalent at this time of year.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

That Tired Feeling. Uses It Every Spring. Mr. F. H. Leard, Saskatoon, Sask., writes: "I have used Burdock Blood Bitters as a spring tonic, and I find it the best thing I can take. It builds me right up and gives me a feeling that comes to so many at this time of the year."

"SPRING MEDICINE"

The Resurrection of the Just

Pastor Russell, in Scotland, Addresses Convention of Believers on the Atonement of the Precious Blood—"A Ransom for All."

GLASGOW, Scotland, April 24.—A three-days' convention of Bible students closed its sessions. Pastor C. T. Russell of Pittsburg, U.S.A., delivered the afternoon discourse to an immense concourse of people at Victoria Hall, the largest auditorium here. Nearly 8000 heard him, and of this number nearly 1000 from all parts of the Kingdom were attendants at the three days' convention. The speaker's discourse was based upon the Saviour's words, "Thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just." (Luke xiv., 14). He said:

There are two resurrections. He says, "Marvel not; the hour is coming in which all that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the Son of Man and shall come forth; they that have done good to the resurrection of life, they that have done evil unto the resurrection of judgment"—misinterpreted damnation in the common version. (John vi., 28, 29). We do not wish to be understood as making any teaching that there are no gradations amongst men, some more saintly and some less so, some more wicked and some less so, but we understand our Lord and the apostles to teach that there will be a difference of reward amongst those who will share in the First Resurrection, as well as differences of punishment for those who will share in the second resurrection, and that these will be registered according to the amount of knowledge and consequent responsibility and according to the zeal of our right doing or wilfulness in our wrong doing. We are here calling attention to the fact that there is a general division line between the just and the unjust, those who please God and those who please Him not. The First Resurrection class and the latter resurrection class, the Chief Resurrection class and the less desirable resurrection class.

Who are the "Just" referred to in the apostle's statement? Who are the "good" of our Lord's statement? We are to remember that by nature no one is just, no one is good, that all are fallen, all are imperfect, all are unworthy of divine favor, all are children of wrath. Hence the word "Just" and the word "good" must here be used in a relative sense, referring to those justified by faith and those good and acceptable to God thru faith in Christ. But we find that it is not sufficient that we should merely believe, but that the Lord has laid certain tests upon those who are now being called, but who, as our Redeemer says, they are called to take up their cross and follow Him; they are assured that if they are called to do His will, with Him in the great honor, glory and immortality which God hath in reservation for those who love Him. Hence, they are called to be His disciples, they are called to take up their cross and follow Him; they are assured that if they are called to do His will, with Him in the great honor, glory and immortality which God hath in reservation for those who love Him. Hence, they are called to be His disciples, they are called to take up their cross and follow Him; they are assured that if they are called to do His will, with Him in the great honor, glory and immortality which God hath in reservation for those who love Him.

Thus we see that the "very elect," those whom God will pass upon as good, as just, as acceptable to Him; those whom He will decree worthy of life eternal, will be a little flock. Notice and love which have thus determined. However, when we consider how small is the number of those who are called to be His disciples, living, not after the flesh, but after the spirit; we are assured that the majority of the church members, as well as all the Heavens, will have their portion in the resurrection of the unjust in the resurrection of those whose lives have been redeemed by the precious blood of God, even your sanctification—and all the unsanctified, therefore, are in an attitude of being raised up, gradually step by step, inch by inch, out of the degradation and sin into which they were plunged thru heredity as children of Adam. God has provided the thousand years or Millennium for their uplifting, mentally, morally and physically, out of sin and death conditions that they may be brought back eventually to the glorious estate of perfect manhood, to all that was lost in Adam and all that was redeemed by the precious blood of Christ. Hence their resurrection will be a gradual work, lasting a thousand years and provided with tests all along the way. The declaration is that if they will not be obedient to the tests and opportunities then granted to them, reward or blessing for good works, for faith and when Satan will be bound that he shall deceive the nations no more—if they will not avail themselves of these privileges and blessings and opportunities for raising up out of sin and death conditions, they shall be judged worthy of the Second Death, from which there is to be no redemption, no recovery—eternal death, extinction as with brute beasts.

But notice our context: Our Lord accepted an invitation to dinner from a prominent Pharisee, and the words of our text were addressed to this Pharisee and his friends. The special point of the lesson, therefore, was not to the Lord's disciples, but to people in general, as shown when our Lord said, "When thou makest a dinner or supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors, lest they also bid thee again and a recompense be made thee. But when thou makest a feast call the poor, the lame, the maimed, the blind and thou shalt be blessed, because they cannot recompense thee; for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just."

Several matters here deserve consideration: (1) No recompensing is suggested as taking place at death; (2) those to be recompensed are to get their reward or blessing for good works, for faith and not because they were disciples of Jesus and took up their cross.

The Resurrection of the Unjust. Those justified before God are counted worthy of eternal life, their trials and testings are being in the past in the present life. Hence, they all come forth to a life resurrection, perfected in the way that they may be brought back eventually to the glorious estate of perfect manhood, to all that was lost in Adam and all that was redeemed by the precious blood of Christ. Hence their resurrection will be a gradual work, lasting a thousand years and provided with tests all along the way. The declaration is that if they will not be obedient to the tests and opportunities then granted to them, reward or blessing for good works, for faith and when Satan will be bound that he shall deceive the nations no more—if they will not avail themselves of these privileges and blessings and opportunities for raising up out of sin and death conditions, they shall be judged worthy of the Second Death, from which there is to be no redemption, no recovery—eternal death, extinction as with brute beasts.

IT'S THE CRIMP—that's the part that counts. And the Crimp that makes Washing Easier, and practically does away with any danger to the Finer Linens, is the Crimp that's RIGHT. You'll always find the RIGHT Crimp in Eddy's Washboards Your Grocer has them—and Eddy's Matches.

So whether our minds dwell chiefly upon those who have had no opportunity, or chiefly upon the smaller number who have had some knowledge, they all belong to a class that will not be counted worthy of a life resurrection, but who, as our Redeemer says, will come forth unto a resurrection of judgment, come forth from the nest of the adversity, come forth from the dominion of sin and death that they may have a glorious opportunity of being raised up, gradually step by step, inch by inch, out of the degradation and sin into which they were plunged thru heredity as children of Adam. God has provided the thousand years or Millennium for their uplifting, mentally, morally and physically, out of sin and death conditions that they may be brought back eventually to the glorious estate of perfect manhood, to all that was lost in Adam and all that was redeemed by the precious blood of Christ. Hence their resurrection will be a gradual work, lasting a thousand years and provided with tests all along the way. The declaration is that if they will not be obedient to the tests and opportunities then granted to them, reward or blessing for good works, for faith and when Satan will be bound that he shall deceive the nations no more—if they will not avail themselves of these privileges and blessings and opportunities for raising up out of sin and death conditions, they shall be judged worthy of the Second Death, from which there is to be no redemption, no recovery—eternal death, extinction as with brute beasts.

Sibly Marvellous

Throw away that old Vinegar Belt! It's a nuisance, and it won't cure you. It must be constantly renewed, and it can't generate enough electricity to do any permanent, lasting good. Dr. Lorenz's Body Battery is the new—the better—the only home way to cure disease by electricity. This marvellous invention is as great an improvement over the antiquated "vinegar belts", as the modern reaper and binder is, over the ancient scythe.

Dr. Lorenz's Electro Body Battery is the only appliance that supplies a slow, steady current of electricity of any desired strength direct to the parts of organs affected. Dr. Lorenz's Body Battery generates, in actual volts and amperes, ten times as much power as is given off by the strongest "vinegar" belt. This battery requires no charging. It is always ready, and gives a current strong enough to light an electric lamp. Electricity is health. Whether you suffer with Rheumatism, Sciatica or Lumbago—Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Constipation—Liver, Kidney or Bladder Trouble—Nervousness, Sleeplessness or Headaches—Weakness or Failing Vitality—get one of Dr. Lorenz's Body Batteries and regain your health, strength and vigor. Sold on easy payments if desired. Health is in your grasp. Don't delay. Write at once for our booklets and easy payment plan, so you can find out all about this wonderful new invention that cures disease, and how easily you may own one.

In other words, in God's great counting, every act of kindness is a credit and every act of unkindness is a debit as respects the world and signifies either blessings or adversities proportionately when their judgment day shall come, when they shall be on trial during the millennial age.

What the Theatres Offer

Scene From "The Red Mill" Which Montgomery and Stone Present at the Princess All Next Week.

The Red Mill at the Princess.
The Red Mill, under the direction of Charles Dillingham, and with Montgomery and Stone as its stellar lights, will be offering at the Princess Theatre on Monday evening.

This attraction, which is probably the most important and most celebrated musical entertainment in the country, has so far been seen in very few of the larger cities. It played in Broadway alone last season for nearly a year, and in Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia enjoyed engagements of several months each.

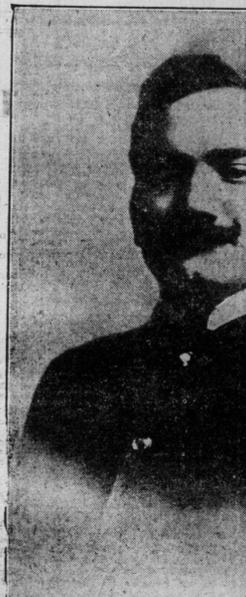

Montgomery and Stone long ago won their spurs in Toronto. They played in "The Wizard of Oz," and their quaint creations, the Tin Woodman and the Scarecrow, will long live as pleasant memories with local playgoers. In "The Red Mill," that talented librettist, Henry Blossom, is said to have provided them with parts which exactly fit their peculiar abilities. The company will be, to all intents and purposes, the same as that which has supported the two stars since "The Red Mill" was first produced. In numbers it is a very imposing assemblage, and in the principal roles are some artists of the very highest rank, notable among them being Alene Crater, Ethel Johnson, Edna Fessett, Maxine Verande, Belle Paulina, Olive White, Antonette Reisen, Berdine Zabor, Clara Eckstrom, Eddie Probst, Clara Nelson, Gene Cole, Natalie Greene, Grace Belmont, Edna Payne, Veronique Bannan, Edith Levey, David L. Don, Stanley Hawkins, Neal McCoy, Charles Dox and Claude Cooper.

Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday, and the engagement will be for one week.

CARUSO. The Famous, who Comes to Massey Hall on May 14th burlesque nature on the nation's leading ball teams.

At the Majestic.
In this his last play, "The Shoemaker," the versatile and talented character actor and comedian, has a part that will give him every opportunity to sustain his present enviable reputation. No production to years has created the talk and interest as has this unique piece of stage literature. It will be the next attraction at the Majestic Theatre and local amusement-seekers will have a good chance to judge it for themselves. Outside of the fact that Mr. Welch portrays the principal role, the play should appeal on its merits alone, for it is constructed in a skillful, careful manner, and tells a plausible human story in a way not to offend the most fastidious critic. As an exponent of a certain kind of Hebrew who makes his home on the east side of New York, Mr. Welch is without a peer. By judicious and painstaking study Mr. Welch has brought the character to a state of perfection equal to any noted stage achievements by such actors as either David Warfield, W. H. Thompson or Wilton Lackaye.

The Discovery of Caruso.
When Heinrich Corried became Maurice Grau's successor, he made up his mind that the time was ripe for a revival of interest in Italian opera. But where was the tenor for the experiment? So he began his search for a tenor. He walked up Broadway until he came to a neat-looking bookbind store, and proceeded to procure an unnecessary shine. Then the impresario asked casually, "Who is the greatest Italian tenor?" Tony looked up, and without hesitation answered "Caruso." A contract was discovered between the tenor and Grauf for the following season, but Grauf's retirement vacated it. Corried pondered. It occurred to him that there was an Italian savings bank in the city. Corried introduced himself to the president of the bank, and asked him who

Mrs. Fiske at the Royal Alexandra.
Dramatic interest will centre next week in the engagement of Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan company at the Royal Alexandra in "Rosmerholm," considered by many persons to be the masterpiece of the great Norwegian dramatist, Henrik Ibsen. Mrs. Fiske will be seen as Rebecca West, foster daughter of an eccentric physician of advanced ideas. At his death she has been cast upon her own resources. She is clever, has a keen wit and an ambition to take a prominent part in the political and social progress of the world. In John Rosmer, the clergyman of the parish of Rosmerholm, she sees the means of attaining her ambition. Installing herself in his household as a companion to his invalid wife, there soon grows up a friendship, and a mental responsiveness that Rosmer and his wife never had. The minister's wife does not fail to note this and she comes to feel that she is an obstacle to her husband's success in life. Her death by drowning follows soon after.

All this has occurred before the beginning of the play, which deals with the consequences of Rebecca's pursuit of her selfish desires and with the wonderful metamorphosis by which her will is broken and her passion for Rosmer ennobled into a beautiful love. It is a drama of the inevitable. At the outset of the play Rosmer has resigned from the ministry and has taken up arms with the radical elements in politics. The contest is so bitter that this parts him from some of his oldest friends, who do not hesitate to desert him. In the end, however, he is with Rebecca. From one source and another Rosmer learns the story of what caused his wife's death and at length learns the story from Rebecca's own lips, in the great confession scene where Mrs. Fiske does what is said to be the finest acting of her career. The play progresses to the tremendous denouement that is the fulfilment of Rebecca's destiny.

In the cast are Bruce MacRae, George Arliss, Fuller Melliish, Albert Brumby and Mary Maddern, a group of players who contribute what is said to be the best acting now to be seen on the American stage. There will be a Saturday matinee only.

Minstrels at the Grand.
George Primrose and his big minstrel company come to the Grand next week. It is said to be the grandest and most elaborate production on the stage, and, judging from the list of comedians, singers, dancers and musicians associated with Mr. Primrose, it is safe to say that this is no idle boast. Theatregoers of to-day will not content themselves with the minstrel performances that have been presented in the past, consisting of a few ordinary musicians, singers and vaudeville acts. Mr. Primrose being aware of this fact, has therefore selected the best vocal talent in the country, as well as an operatic orchestra of picked musicians, also the greatest comedians and dancers in the minstrel world. The opening first part is said to be the handsomest scenic interior ever put on the stage, being done in green and gold. During this part, all the latest comic songs, jokes and ballads, will be rendered by a host of comedians, singers and dancers. The second part will contain many new and pleasing features, rendering inspiring pictures of the south, with new and up-to-date novelties, including a very funny burlesque on our national game of baseball—which is said to be a very was the greatest Italian tenor. He said that the upshot was that, after a chat with the secretary, he was authorized by Mr. Corried to conclude an engagement with the tenor by cable. Thus the dictum of a book-black was the first step in the coming to this country of one of the greatest singers we have had here. He comes to Massey Hall May 4.

Vaudeville at Shea's.
"The Gainsboro Girl" heads the big bill of seven great acts at Shea's Theatre next week. Miss Marie Lesca Brackman is "The Gainsboro Girl," and appears in beautiful "singing pictures" as the Duchess of Devonshire, Marguerite Garden and in "The Heavenly Vision of the Eternal City."

Bernold's dog and monkey acts will live up to the reputation of being one of the best animal acts on the stage. Dan, the original dog with a jag, is a feature. This wonderful dog was a positive sensation when first seen last summer on a New York roof garden, and since that time the act has been in constant demand.

Frank Bryon and Louise Langdon have not been seen by Shea-goers in several seasons and their offering, "The Dude Detective," is as uproariously funny as ever, and Mr. Bryon's "I Lost Another Chance to be a Hero," is well remembered. Miss Langdon gives him special support in the fun-making.

The Kitamura Japs are acrobats, jugglers and equilibrists, and are a little short of a sensation. They use a gorgeously embroidered curtain in their act which is valued at many thousands of dollars, and it makes a splendidly effective background for the act.

Arthur Whitelaw, "the Celtic humorist," is a real Irish comedian, who does not resort to mongrel dialect and pink whiskers, but delivers his monolog in a delicious brogue that is always welcome. Maxine Remington is a great favorite with Shea-goers, and her funny "picks" are as sprightly and acute as ever. Miss Remington is singing a number of new and up-to-date songs, and her costumes are always well worth mention.

Paul La Croix has a novelty in his eccentric hat juggling act. The kinetograph closes the show with a full line of new pictures.

Amateurs at Majestic.
On Wednesday evening next, after the regular performance of "The Shoemaker" at the Majestic, a long list of local amateurs will compete for three prizes in gold. This will be one of the biggest amateur performances given in the city this season.

Fred Irwin's Show at the Gayety.
The attraction which will usher in at the Gayety Theatre next week will be the Fred Irwin's Big Show. Six big vaudeville acts are promised. The olio, consisting of the following performers: Campbell and Kerney, variety and sidewalk conversationalists; Walsh and Co., rural comedy; and the Irwin, Brady and Mahoney, as the Hebrew firm and the foreman, and the Wat-burlesques will be the features, the opening burlesque being "The Great White Way," closing with the extremely funny skit, "Ladies Day at the Actors' Club." The musical numbers, which are original, are light and catchy, and every encouragement is given the soloist to do her best. The principal parts in the burlesque are entrusted to Miss Margaret Bennett, Hazel Saenger, and Lillian Carter, while the comedy falls to the fate of Murray Livingston, Harry Campbell, Billy Walsh, Joe Brady, Frank Lynch, William Kenney and others. The Three Bennett Sisters will give an exhibition in physical culture.

The management desires to state that Fred Irwin's other show, known as the New Majestic, that appears at this theatre in two weeks, is a separate and distinct company. Matinees will be given daily.

"The Man of the Hour."
"The Man of the Hour," which William Brady and Joseph Griesener will offer to the theatre-goers at the Princess the week of May 4, marks a new era in the history of the stage. It follows none of the methods of speech or action. It has been called "The Dawn of Civic Conscience," "A Sermon on Public Honesty," yet it is said to be no "dry sermon." Its humor creates peals and roars of laughter.

The Press Club Show.
"Three Little Maids," the charming English musical play which is in preparation for the Toronto Press Club's forthcoming production at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, achieved world-wide popularity when it was presented in Great Britain, America and Australia some years ago. In planning a sumptuous revival of this gem of modern light opera, the Press Club has been fortunate enough to obtain the services of several English players of professional attainments. Robert Stuart Pigott, who is playing a leading role in addition to rehearsing the music, has appeared in many of the standard mu-

With about 600 entries, comprising the most notable quality of horse flesh ever seen in a Canadian ring, the fourteenth annual of the Canadian Horse Show, which opens on Wednesday afternoon next, in the St. Lawrence Arena, promises in point of intrinsic merit at least to be the greatest in the annals of the senior horse show of Canada.

The arena itself is a beautiful structure, decorated with a canopy covering the entire roof, from which many hundreds of electric lights will shine, while the walls will be draped and festooned in the most tasteful manner.

The committee has been fortunate in securing most of the eminent and eminent judges in the harness classes. Col. Pratt of Little Rock, Ontario, and Mr. Julian Keith, who has a pack of hounds of his own, will be in charge of the hounds.

There are a number of distinguished visitors coming from a distance, including the Hon. Mr. Justice Gaultier, Hon. Mr. Justice Gaultier, Hon. Mr. Justice Gaultier, Hon. Mr. Justice Gaultier, Hon. Mr. Justice Gaultier.

It is said to be a pitcher of no small ability and has a good record. Steffert is a spital artist.

To Trainer and Jockeys. The attention of trainers and jockeys who will be in the coming spring meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club is drawn to the following rule: "Application for licenses of trainers and jockeys residing in Canada will not be received by the committee after May 1. I will never forget the agony of the day when I first realized I had female trouble. I had pains in my head, back and bowels, nervousness, bearing down feelings, creeping sensations up the spine, hot flashes, weariness and all the other symptoms so many women have; for a long while before I would admit even to myself that the trouble was. Sometimes I would be so blue that it seemed life was not worth the living and I would be afraid I would kill myself.

Unless you have suffered as I did you cannot realize what it is to start at every sound. Did you ever have the mere slam of a door give you real physical pain? Of course, I tried doctors. I went to my family physician, when I finally got up courage enough to submit to his examination. He failed, of course. Then I tried specialists, and failing to secure relief, I turned to other remedies and tried, oh, so many of them, growing weaker with the worry and always the shadow of death or insanity before me. I saw my children grow away from me, and I had no interest in which I could not join. My music, books and flowers had no interest for me. I wanted to be alone. I grew irritable. I would almost cry my eyes out without knowing why. Then would come remorse and I would pinch my hands and make up my mind that I would not be sick, but faith cured did not work with a suffering woman. At last I was saved by the use of Mrs. Miller's home remedy. It is so simple, so easy, and so quick, that you can cure even the worst cases quickly. If you suffer, cut out the coupon now and receive by return mail the 50-cent trial treatment of this wonderful medicine which has helped so many.

Why Men Desert Their Wives

Eighty Per Cent of the Wife Desertions and Divorces Due to Female Weakness.

I guess that after all I was mostly to blame. I should have taken better care of myself, I suppose. I was sick and suffering. No one but a woman can ever know how I suffered. I was irritable, I couldn't be to my husband the wife that I ought to have been. He being a man, couldn't understand. We drifted apart. He sought his pleasures elsewhere. Finally there was nothing but the divorce court that could settle our differences.

That's the sad story that eight out of every ten women who have passed through the ordeal of the divorce court, as well as the countless thousands of deserted wives who are not divorced, know deep down in her heart was the real cause of her trouble. Domestic unhappiness is nine times out of ten the fault of the woman. A sick wife, a neglected home, and the publicity and disgrace of the court room to end it all. There wouldn't be half as much talk of the divorce evil in the world if only every wife and mother would realize her duty to preserve her health and strength.

No woman has the right to expect her husband to devote his leisure hours to his home and her when she is leading a dragged-out, hopeless, down-in-the-mouth existence that would discourage the greatest optimist on earth. Men won't do it and the sooner the women of this country understand the plain truth the better it will be for all concerned. A man has no use for the woman who is sick and ailing half the time. The home that's built on that sort of a foundation is going to fall as sure as fate. Mrs. Cora B. Miller's marvelous home remedy has done more to prevent divorce than all the messages to congress and conventions in the world. The woman who is bright and cheerful and well has a home that reflects her own good feeling and content and no place there in.

Mrs. Miller's aid and advice is as free to you as God's sunshine or the air you breathe. She is always glad to lend her assistance to any suffering woman, and she is a generous, good woman who has the best of feelings in the world, and she wants to prove to you that her common-sense home treatment will cure you just as surely as any of this country's many her humble cottage before riches and fame came to her.

If you are a sufferer from any female trouble, or what it is, send me the coupon below to Mrs. Cora B. Miller at once.

Couldn't Stand Examination, Kills Herself.

Denver, Colo. (Special Correspondence.) One of the most beautiful and interesting ladies of this city, killed herself this morning by taking an overdose of morphine. She had been a sufferer for over a year from a bad case of female trouble starting in a neglected cold taken last winter. Unable to longer endure the constant torture, she had consulted a number of physicians about a week ago. An appointment had been arranged for this afternoon, the physician wishing to make a thorough examination of the case, which Mrs. Miller had been attending to. Miss James, unable to bring herself to undergo the unpleasant, and to a sensitive woman always embarrassing, examination, finally brooded over the matter until her mind gave way and she took her life.

Don't Be A Curse To Your Children

Any woman who deliberately neglects her health, allowing any female trouble, no matter how slight or unimportant it may seem to be, to run on unattended, commits a crime against her own children. The world is full of poor, little, puny, neglected beings, who might just as well be motherless, all because their mothers are sick and ailing and unable to give them a loving mother's care. It's just as well to be frank. The mother who is sick half the time is a curse to her own children.

Moreover, it cures to stay cured. A cure with my remedy is speedy, it's safe and it's lasting. The intense torture, the burning, smarting and itching stop at once and you feel better right from the start. Send for my free treatment at once and see for yourself.—Mrs. Miller.

Noted Sanitarium Closed.

Gainesburg, O. (Special.)—Dr. Dill's sanitarium in restraint, has been permanently closed. The reason, it is stated, is the widespread use in this locality of Mrs. Miller's treatment for female disease. Growth less and less until the sanitarium has long been operated at a loss. Every one is glad that the horrible distressing crises and means of the patients will no longer stretch the anatomy.

FRESH IMPETUS GIVEN TO THE MINING MARKET

Montreal Operators Are Again Large Buyers at the Toronto Exchange - Close Strong.

World Office, Friday Evening, April 24.
Another impetus was given to the trading in Cobalt securities by the dealings on the two Toronto exchanges to-day. The Wall-street curb was comparatively inactive, the brokers there being too heavily short of the market to encourage buying by their clients. The active issues to-day were Silver Queen, Temiskaming, Tretthewey, Crown Reserve, Green-Meehan and Silver Leaf. Several good advances in price were made and the undertone to the whole market was undoubtedly strong. The strength in Tretthewey was said to be due to the belief that this company will shortly redeemance dividends. The buying of Crown Reserve was again largely for the account of Montreal, which city is also said to be heavy takers of other of the more active securities. A much better public demand has developed, but a large number of orders in the hands of brokers remain unfilled owing to limits being made as to buying prices. The market closed very firm with enquiry for considerable stock on the curb after close of the exchanges.

Lawson Mine

Certain persons other than Thomas Crawford of New Liskeard are offering stock in this mine. Mr. Crawford is the only person who has any undisputed interest therein. The other interests are disputed and likely to be defeated in the actions now pending before the Court of Appeal; until decided, these actions also stay the assertion of those disposed in favour of Mr. Crawford's right to the whole property rests principally upon a Torrens title, and subsequent grant in fee from the Hon. Minister of Lands and Mines. In the former case the Court of Appeal gave effect to the Torrens title, when set up by Lawson against the present claimants, and would have given effect to it if then relied on by Crawford himself in respect of Crawford's former solicitors had led to the protracted litigation. The crown grant in fee is also conclusive, when attacked by a subject. The courts have no jurisdiction to interfere with or to set aside any official act of any minister of the crown, and in the case of mining leases or grants in fee, the only jurisdiction is when the Attorney-General intervenes for fraud on the crown, and there has been no expression of judicial opinion contrary to these contentions. Persons interested can get further information from me or from Shilton, Wallbridge & Co., Solicitors for Crawford, McKinnon Building, Toronto.

Heron & Co. in their weekly market letter say: During the week there has been a marked change for the better in sentiment in the Cobalt market. Trading has been on a largely increasing scale, and with few exceptions prices show very encouraging gains. There have been numerous favorable developments, including Silver Queen and

Right of Way and the complete failure of the attempt to precipitate a strike of the miners thruout the camp. Outside interest in Cobalt stocks is rapidly growing and a strong and buoyant market from this time on seems assured. The movement will gain strength as it goes on and we again advise the purchase of the good stocks while an opportunity remains to do so at panic prices. Transactions for the five days ending to-day on the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange amounted to 160,054 shares and on the Toronto curb 23,618, in all 183,672 shares, with a value of $74,075.78.

You Lose Money

Every time you let an opportunity pass. Now, it is not always easy to see these opportunities in time to take advantage of them. But we are in a position to give you information now, which will make it plain to you that there never was a more opportune time for making good profits by the purchase of some of the better Cobalt stocks. (Now, don't buy every Cobalt stock; get some reliable information on them first). Later on everyone will realize that what we say is true, but by that time the price will be much higher, and consequently half of your profit's lost.

We are very much pleased by the many enquiries coming to us for our information and advice, and we are ready at all times to cheerfully give it to you. We are pleased also to see many buying what we recommend, for we know they will make money, and we will make new friends--clients.

Also, these many enquiries coming to us show us that the people are beginning to realize more and more every day that we have in Cobalt one of the richest silver mining camps in the world. This is the truth, and if you don't believe us, go up and see for yourself, and we know you will come back and say that the half was never told.

J. B. Mackenzie, in moving to quash a local option bylaw passed in Hamilton Township, argues that because it purports to be operative in Gore Landing, Rice Lake, which is a harbor, it is ineffective. The jurisdiction over harbors, he says, is vested in the Dominion Parliament, and local option in the harbor could only be effected by legislation at Ottawa.

New Ideas About Furnishing

THE world has changed since Queen Victoria died. New ideas about many things have been born, but what we want to discuss is the present day movement towards harmony and good taste in house furnishing.

Are you not interested in the beautification of your home? Don't you keep up to date in your reading, in your opinions, in your very clothing? How much more then should you keep in touch with the development of taste in interior fitting, furnishing and decoration?

We would like to have those interested in this subject come to us for a talk on the practical possibilities of this subject. We have the goods here that are necessary by way of illustration. It need not be expensive.

Generally speaking dining room walls are decorated in greens, reds, browns, or blues, in either burlaps, tapestry, leathers or paper. Given such a room, then, nothing would be more suitable for the floor than a heavy Axminster Rug, with either a plain centre and band border, or simple design with motif in harmony with whatever pattern occurs elsewhere in the room.

Such a rug for an ordinary-size room can be bought here for $30.00, $35.00, $40.00 or $50.00, seamless, of course, and made by the best manufacturer in all England.

For the Portiere Curtains we will show you a very decorative fabric—all wool—which may be enriched with an applique of buff-colored linen or

He quoted the resolution moved by Mr. Whitney in April, 1904, condemning the action of the Ross Government in guaranteeing the C.N.R.

Mr. Curry declared Mr. Whitney, as premier, had gone back on his former position and had guaranteed other bonds of the same nature.

Mr. Whitney's resolution of 1904, continued Mr. Curry, had lowered now as he suggested was followed in 1904. Mr. Whitney's resolution of 1904, continued Mr. Curry, had lowered now as he suggested was followed in 1904.
