MRS. DELMONT A WITNESS TODAY

She Swore Complaint Against Arbutckle.

Prosecuting Attorney Considers Evidence of Hotel Physician of Main Importance in Case Against the Comedian.

San Francisco, Sept. 26.—Mrs. B. M. Delmont, who swore to the complaint accusing Roscoe Arbutckle of the murder of Miss Virginia Rappe, was announced as the principal witness, who would be called to the preliminary hearing on that charge in the police court here today.

Mrs. Delmont was the companion of Miss Rappe at the party in the Arbutckle suite at the St. Francis Hotel at which the girl is said to have suffered fatal injuries.

The plan called for Mrs. Delmont to take the witness stand after Dr. Arthur Beardslee, house physician of the St. Francis Hotel, and Al Semmacher, of Los Angeles, Miss Rappe's business manager, who was announced last night, would be asked to testify as a defence witness so Arbutckle's attorneys said. Semmacher initially was called as a prosecution witness, but the prosecution repudiated him.

Dr. Beardslee attended Miss Rappe after she had been taken ill, and, according to District Attorney Brady, his testimony is considered extremely important to the state as showing that Miss Rappe apparently was injured internally before the first medical treatment was given.

Brady said last night: "We are satisfied with the progress made in the Arbutckle case."

"I wish to impress upon the public, though, the fact that we are not trying to bound any man or attempt to convict a conviction of a person on any charge. All we are trying to do in this case is to get the truth and punish those responsible for Miss Rappe's death."

Other prosecution witnesses whom Brady expects to have take the stand today or tomorrow are Miss Alice Blake and Miss Zey Frevell, who were guests at the party. That every woman witness for the prosecution will be thoroughly cross-examined.

Brady's attorney is the expectation of Brady. The screen comedian is spending his sixteenth day as a prisoner in the Hall of Justice, where he has been held since his arrest.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Charles L. Woolwine, district attorney of Los Angeles, County California, who is visiting relatives here, denied last night that he had obtained a statement from Roscoe Arbutckle the morning after the death of Miss Rappe. In contradicting press reports to that effect Mr. Woolwine said he left Los Angeles on September 2, three days prior to Arbutckle's Labor Day party.

WOUND UP BY THREE CRIPPLES

Says Two on Crutches and One With a Cane Robbed Him of $20.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The police today are looking for three highwaymen, two on crutches and the other hobbling on a cane, who last night held up Thomas Payne of this city, and robbed him of $20, according to Payne's complaint to the police. Payne said he was sitting in his automobile, accompanied by a young woman, on a road about 100 yards from the Water Reed Army Hospital, when at pistol point he was commanded to leave the machine by three men who appropriated $20 and then, ordering him back to the car, threatened to shoot him unless he drove away slowly.

WAS DUCKED

Communist Orator Thrown Into a Pond at an English Town.

London, Sept. 26.—(Canadian Press)—A communist leader and orator named Durant was thrown in a pond in the town of Chestport, in Monmouthshire, and a riot, as the result of a demonstration between communists and ex-soldiers was precipitated.

The former soldiers were indignant at the distribution of leaflets announcing a communist meeting in the town square. They passed a resolution protesting against the communist doctrine being advocated in the town. Then they attacked the communists and routed them. Durant returned, however, and defied the crowd, which thereupon ducked him. He swam to the side, recovered his hat, and calmly walked away.

POLICE COURT. Only one man appeared in the police court this morning to answer to a charge of drunkenness. Policeman Lindsay testified that he found him lying in Simonds street between one and two o'clock Sunday morning. When asked by the magistrate what he got it from a friend for nothing. The magistrate said that he was liable to $8 for being drunk and $200 for six months in jail for taking it from a stranger in the public streets.

SUNDAY TRAINS ARE CRITICIZED

Lord's Day Alliance Speaker in Fredericton Churches.

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 26.—Rev. Mr. Gannell of Toronto, representing the Lord's Day Alliance, who preached here on Sunday in the Brunswick street Baptist and St. Paul's Presbyterian churches, criticized in a strong manner the Canadian National Railways for running special trains out of Fredericton yesterday to take exhibits to the stock and race horse and midway shows from the Fredericton exhibition to the fairs at Chatham and Charlottetown.

COURT CASE IS REFERRED TO AT CITY HALL

Solicitor for Union Says City Has No Right to Send to Jail Man Fined in Traffic Case—Tenders Opened.

Contending that the police magistrate had no right under the by-law governing motor traffic in the city to send a man to jail in the event of his not being able to pay a fine, a delegation from the electrical and street car workers' union appeared before the city council in committee here this morning.

J. A. Barry, solicitor for the union and also for the Union Bus Co. presented the case. He said that according to the by-law, if the person fined defaulted the city chamberlain had power to sue for the amount. If judgment was against him and he had property it could be seized, but if he had none, then he could be sent to jail for ten days.

He contended that a case recently before the police court resulted in false imprisonment, that a man fined $10 and as he had not the money, he was sent to jail and remained there until 3 o'clock when his fine was paid. He said that the city had the right under the motor vehicle act to outline routes, fares and details of service, but had no authority for having a man sent to jail. He asked if the city took the responsibility in cases of this kind. In reply to Mr. Bullock, Mr. Barry said that in one case a man was not able to pay his fine and was sent to jail until it was paid.

Commissioner Frink said that if any man was imprisoned illegally, he would have cause for an action.

The mayor said that he would arrange for a conference on the matter by Mr. Barry, the recorder and himself. This arrangement was satisfactory to him and the delegation withdrew.

Tenders for a hot water boiler in the water and sewerage building, Leinster street, were referred to the commissioner of water for report. The tenders were: J. W. Carter, $750, without regulator $705; W. E. Emerson, $849; R. E. Fitzgerald, $880; Jas. H. McPartland & Sons, $1,025; P. Campbell & Co., $840; Wm. B. McDonough, $656.

One tender received at 11:30, half an hour after the tenders were due to close, was not considered.

The following tenders for 26 sets of Richards-Wilcox floor-hangers for the West Side sheds were opened: Robertson, Foster & Smith—Hangers, $8 pair; track, 75c; a foot; brackets, 95c; each; bolts, $4.25 per 100.

McAvity & Sons—Hangers, $7 a pair; bolts, 75c; each; rule plates, 65c. each. Estey & Co., $1,700 for the entire lot.

The tenders were referred to Commissioner Bullock.

An application from the N. B. Telephone Co. for permission to erect a guy wire in Winter street was referred to Commissioner Frink. There had been a log retaining wall there. The commissioner recommended that the city restore the retaining wall and make repairs to the sidewalk. Carried.

WATER MAIN EXTENSION

Commissioner Jones asked authority to extend the 6-inch main in Water street as far as Reed's point. He said the water taken by the C. P. O. S. Bay of Fundy service was through a service pipe which was leading badly. He proposed to do the work by his own department, the cost to be paid out of unexpended bond issues. The estimated cost was $1,500. It was intended to put in a hydrant at Reed's Point.

Replying to the mayor, Commissioner Jones said that the city engineer had not been consulted in the matter.

The mayor and Mr. Bullock thought the engineer should be consulted. It was decided to refer the matter back to have a plan of the proposed extension presented at tomorrow's council meeting.

TAKE MATTER TO NATIONS LEAGUE

South African Railway and Harbor Union Men Make Protest.

London, Sept. 26.—(Canadian Press)—A Reuter's cable from Johannesburg, dated September 23, says the national union of railway and harbor servants, which recently protested to Premier Smuts against the railway administration's proposed modification of the eight hour rule as not in accordance with the peace treaty, has now sent a letter to the labor office of the League of Nations protesting against the selection of the South African delegates, Messrs. Archibald and Crawford and Mrs. Fitzgerald, on the ground that the union, representing 80,000 workers, had not been consulted.

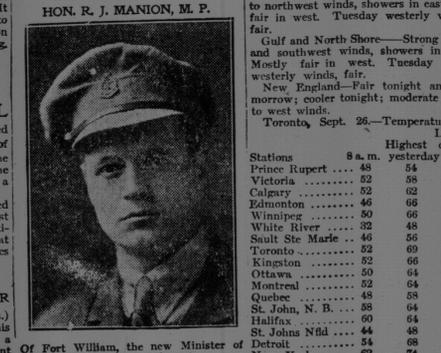

The letter declares that the union cannot accept the delegates as adequately representing labor requirements in South Africa and the union cannot necessarily be bound by the decisions in which they participate.

BRITISH ANSWER ON WEDNESDAY

Reply to Latest Note from De Valera

London Sunday Times Writer Sees the Door Still Open—Troubles in Belfast—A Statement by Hon. Winston Churchill.

London, Sept. 26.—Premier Lloyd George will send the British government's answer to the latest note from Eamon De Valera, Irish "Republican" leader, on Wednesday, so it was learned here today.

Door Still Open. London, Sept. 26.—The hope that Premier Lloyd George will not close the door to a conference in his reply to De Valera is expressed by the usually well-informed political correspondent of the Sunday Times. He says there can be no doubt that the Sinn Fein leaders are anxious to come to a conference and that one may shrewdly suspect that their insistence on sovereign rights is no longer more than a pious opinion, but that they fear to make a formal renunciation of them, for they know it will be the signal for a bitter attack on them from that powerful section of their party which is inveterate anti-English. "It is not at all improbable," he says, "that if De Valera gave the understanding the premier required he might be disposed from his leadership by the Daily Breeze. No one recognizes the embarrassment of the Sinn Fein leader more fully than Lloyd George. We may take it that he is already devising a way out for them."

Belfast, Sept. 26.—Belfast was quiet this morning, a half dozen shots fired on the Newtownards road being the only outward indications of the excited feeling aroused by disturbances of Sunday night. The fears were expressed that even, there would be action in reprisal for the bombing unless the military took vigorous action to surprise disorderly leaders.

The military during the morning was engaged in erecting barbed wire and sand bag barricades in the Ballymacaree district. Pickets were posted at the danger points. Little work apparently was being done in the district. Later in the morning a shop assistant in Dublin through the jaw in My Lady's Road, in East Belfast, but one of the crowd which dispersed after the shooting without the culprit having been apprehended. A gang of men working on the new football grounds in Queen street, was attacked and three of the workers were badly beaten.

Dublin, Sept. 26.—Two were killed and thirty-six wounded in rioting in Belfast on Saturday night. A bomb was thrown in the Millwater road and six persons were wounded, two of them seriously. One version of the bombing was that a Unionist crowd threw a bomb into a store in order to set it on fire and while carrying this out were made the target for a republican bomb.

A despatch from Cork says that conditions there were similar to those before the signing of the truce. A party of citizens returning after a social gathering were held up and roughly treated by members of the British constabulary.

The Cork city council have decided to forward to the Irish government in Dublin a statement from the commander at Spike Island regarding alleged severity in treatment of Sinn Feiners.

London, Sept. 26.—Winston Spencer Churchill, minister for the colonies, speaking in Dundee Saturday, said that the British government had gone to the utmost limit possible in its offer to the Sinn Fein, and that if it was rejected the government had not anything else to give.

Fredericton Furnishes Incident of Risk of Women in Accepting a "Lift."

(Special to Times.)
Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 26—An instance of the risk taken in accepting rides in automobiles, occurred during exhibition week, when Mrs. Agnes Thornton of Devon, after entering a car to get a "lift" from Fredericton to Devon, on the highway bridge, was compelled to jump from the car, while it was going at high speed. She received an injury to one hand.

Mrs. Thornton believed the car was that of an acquaintance, and entered it. She then learned that she had made a mistake, five strange men being the occupants. She asked to be set down at the Devon end of the bridge, and was taken on with the party. Mrs. Thornton then opened the door of the car, which was putting on speed, and before jumping, she struck one of the men across the face.

The car put on such speed that its number could not be taken. It was a New Brunswick car.

IN WALL STREET

New York, Sept. 26—(10.30)—The strength of rails imparted a steady tone to the stock market at the outset of today's trading but reactions set in almost immediately on further offerings of foreign oils. Royal Dutch, which unsettled last Saturday's session, opened at a moderate recovery, but soon dropped 1 1/2 points. Mexican Petroleum fell 2 3/8 and equipments, motors and shippings, as represented by Baldwin, Pullman, Studebaker and American International, also gave way. A new low record for marks at 87 to 88 directed renewed attention to Germany's unstable economic status.

Noon Report.
New York, Sept. 26—In the course of the early recovery, Pullman, Harvesters, Sears Roebuck, U. S. Rubber and Samatra Tobacco lost one to three points. The first rally of the morning was led by steels and coppers, followed by chemicals, leathers, motor specialties and utilities. United States Steel's advance of one point lifted that stock to its highest quotation for the current movement. Regardless of further favorable statements of earnings for August, high grade rails were apathetic, but junior shares, including Lehigh Valley and Colorado Southern first preferred registered one point gains. Call money opened at five per cent.

BIG MUSICAL TREAT AT OPERA HOUSE

Today Your Last Opportunity to See the Week-end Bill—New Programme Tomorrow is Even Better.

The week-end bill at the Opera House, which has been attracting packed houses, will terminate tonight. There will be the usual matinee at 2:30 and the two evening performances. Every act is a feature, and those who have not already seen this bill we would strongly advise to do so. The programme is as follows: LaCardo Brothers, in the best acrobatic act seen at this popular theatre, "The Tired Bakers;" Nelson Waring, in a class by himself as a pianist; Mason and Gwaine, in a comedy blackface offering entitled "The South Today;" Count Perrone (baritone) and Miss Trix Oliver (soprano) in a high-class singing offering that has been the cause of much favorable comment from patrons. And last but by no means least "The Monarch Comedy Four," male quartette. There is also the usual week-end serial drama, and a two-reel Jimmy Aubrey comedy which contains many a laugh.

The new mid-week bill which will start tomorrow with a matinee at 2:30 is a banner one. It will be as follows: Jean McCoy and Ralph Walton, in a comedy singing and talking offering entitled "A Few Minutes With Outlaws;" Fleeta Brown and Herbert Spencer, "Vaudeville's Singing Composers;" Miss Brown offering her own novelty songs, Mr. Spencer composer of "Underneath the Stars" and "Egypt in Your Dreamy Eyes;" Eckhoff and Gordon, in a comedy musical offering entitled "The Musical Laugh Makers;" Manning and Lee, in a comedy singing and talking skit entitled "After the Matinee;" Paul Perry, novelty sensational cannon ball juggler. Another chapter of "The Evening Arrow." And last but by no means least a two-reel Hank Mann comedy, your old favorite.

NEW YORK MAYOR ATTACKS PRESS

Scores Papers for Reports on Breaking Up of Unemployment Demonstrations—Defends Police Action.

(New York Times.) Mayor Hylan's second attack in a week on the newspapers took the form yesterday of a proclamation in which he scored the papers for what they have published about the methods of the police in breaking up gatherings of unemployed in Bryant Park and Cooper Square when attempts were made to feed them. Less than a week ago he told the members of the Associated Men and Boys' Apparel Industries in the Waldorf-Astoria that there was no crime wave except that in the newspapers, which, he charged, were allied with the traction and other interests.

Wedding Gifts In Rich Cut Glass

Choice shapes, perfectly and brilliantly cut. We invite your inspection. O. H. Warwick Co., Limited 78-82 King Street

He asked business men to stop advertising in the newspapers as a means of bringing pressure to bear on them. The mayor's proclamation followed a day in which the police did everything possible, with one exception, to cooperate with men and women who are attempting to alleviate the condition of the unemployed, and showed a complete reversal of the temper with which they greeted Urban Ledoux when he tried to repeat in this city his experiment of auctioning jobless men.

The mayor also wrote two letters on unemployment, one to Bird S. Cole, Commissioner of Public Welfare, in which he commended the commissioner for the work already done to alleviate distress through the Industrial Aid Bureau. He called attention to a gathering of business men in the Board of Estimate meeting room in the City Hall today at 2:30 o'clock to discuss measures to relieve unemployment.

Dennis O'Sullivan, an attorney, chairman of the Bronx Unemployment Committee, also received a letter thanking Mr. O'Sullivan for suggesting that the city take action to obtain the use of the armories to house shelterless men, and saying that he would be glad to act on any practical suggestion to relieve conditions which Mr. O'Sullivan might make.

The proclamation. The mayor's proclamation was as follows: To the Business Men, Merchants and Shop Keepers of New York City: You support the newspapers of the city and you have the right to expect them to be loyal to your interests, but some of them, in their mad fury to do "anything to beat Hylan," are not giving you a square deal. In fact they are doing everything they can to wreck the town commercially and it is time you realized it. The other night the police broke up a near-riot in Bryant Park that would have made the world think that New York was as lawless as an old-time mining camp—if it had been allowed to spread. Certain newspapers, instead of commending the police for their determined and courageous work, are now trying to create the impression that the police were cruel and brutal to a lot of innocent citizens.

New York, like all other big cities, is at the present time facing an unprecedented situation, due to the vast army of unemployed, who are unable to secure employment. It also has its share of criminals, but our conditions are made worse by the influx of out-of-town rascals, who are persistently told by certain New York newspapers that New York is a gold mine for thieves and that the New York police are incompetent and crooked. It is no wonder that the crooks of the world want to come here when the political propaganda of disloyal newspaper publishers assures them that this is a safe and profitable place for them to prey upon the public.

Mr. Business Man, Mr. Merchant, Mr. Shopkeeper, when these hate-craved newspaper publishers besear New York and advertise it to the world as a paradise for criminals, they are asking you to pay the price of their political spite. The same crime-wave propaganda that practically invites the crook to come to New York operates at the same time to frighten away the visitors, shoppers, tourists and business men from other parts of the country. Think this over, place the blame where it belongs—and act accordingly. Inn witness whereof, I have herewith set my hand and affixed the seal of my office this twenty-first day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

JOHN F. HYLAN, Mayor. JOHN F. SINNOTT, secretary to the mayor.

ORPHANAGE FAIR DAILY NEWS-LETTER. St. John, N. B., Sept. 26, 1921. To the Protestants of N. B.: Greetings.—We regret very much to say that our concert of Friday evening, which by the way was an excellent one, was rather poorly patronized, due mostly to poor advertising. The small balance realized was due to the kindness of both the Imperial management and staff. We owe them and the "Rising Sun" concert troupe a debt of gratitude, also to the ladies who served them with refreshments at the close.

It has been decided that the fair will be held in the St. Andrew's rink, opening on Oct. 17 and continuing for ten days. A very large number of ladies and gentlemen are being enrolled on the various committees, most of whom are looked upon as the "live wires" of their respective organizations the aggregation must of necessity be regarded as a very strong one.

We intend very soon to publish a list of the conveners of the different booths, so that those interested in helping out in the efforts of their own particular societies, or in any line of work in which they may feel disposed to assist, may know with whom to correspond. Meantime if you have anything to contribute, suggest, or even inquire about, write to the secretary, who will place all correspondence in the proper hands.

Those of limited means, or who do not see their way clear to assist in other ways, but are willing to help in any way they can, may purchase and resell season tickets. These tickets are good for admission to the fair for the full ten days and entitle the purchaser, whether attending or not, to a chance to win one of the prizes which go with it—a Chevrolet automobile and sleigh. The tickets are sold at $1 each or in books of six for $5. This is a splendid chance for giving small contributions. Write name and address of purchaser on all stubs and return to us for drawing. Make orders payable to Jas. E. Arthur, secretary, P. O. Box 12, City.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

The fire that recently caused such destruction in the town of Annapolis was set by a boy of twelve years who is mentally defective. At least he says he did it. Here is his record, as given in the Halifax Echo:

"Tommy Miller was released from the Halifax Industrial School in November, 1920, after serving two years there for indecent assault. Superintendent Johns, of the Industrial School, pronounced him a degenerate with no moral sense whatever, and in his report categorized him as of poor physique and feeble-minded. It was very much against the better judgment of the school that he was released, but there was no law in existence at that time that would give either him or Mr. Blois, superintendent of neglected and delinquent children, authority to keep the lad any longer in custody. According to the law now, two further years could be added, but even that eventually allows a feeble-minded boy to be released."

The superintendent says that boys are sent out every year who are feeble-minded, and that a reformatory is really not the place for them, as they get too much special care and instruction as they need. Hence a separate institution providing such care and instruction and also segregation, is needed. It could be provided for a fraction of the amount of money lost in the Annapolis fire. It is also pointed out that at the time of the Sydney hotel fire suspicion pointed to a feeble-minded boy who had been in the reformatory, although nothing could be proved against him. The superintendent of the Maritime Home for Girls had written Sup't. Blois some time ago about a girl absolutely without moral sense, who was splendid in the home, but as bad as ever when released, yet there was no authority to keep her beyond a certain period of time. Mr. Blois said he had before him a letter telling of a sixteen-year-old girl, the daughter of feeble-minded parents, who had already had two children. These and many cases were constantly cropping up, but little could be done to help the situation. Referring to all such cases, the Echo says:

"If there were such a thing as a psychiatric clinic in Nova Scotia, the machinery would be at hand for prompt action. Then if the province contained a home for the feeble-minded, the place of training would also be provided. To send irresponsible human beings of any age to jail is a crime against humanity and one that no community should commit thoughtlessly. A home for the feeble-minded is a prime necessity in Nova Scotia from a humanitarian and Christian point of view."

All that is here said concerning Nova Scotia applies with equal force to New Brunswick. Action has already been too long delayed.

"NO CATERING TO LIBERALS."

Major Arthur, M. P. for Parry Sound, declares that "the old Conservative party is coming back into its own." No Liberal mixture for him. At a meeting of representatives of the Conservative party for thirty-six ridings in the Central Ontario last week in Toronto, there was a feeling that "there was really too much catering to the Liberals in the Liberal Conservative party." One man said: "Why should we cater to the 20 per cent of the Liberals in it and lose 30 per cent of good old Tories? That is my view of it. I would welcome any Liberal who wishes to join us, but I would not cater to them. I believe in keeping our good friends and not driving them away." Another said: "The sooner we get back to good old Tory lines the better." There was, moreover, "an undercurrent that the Liberals who had joined the party in 1917 were being patted on the back a little too much," and as still another put it: "I don't want too much catering to the Liberal element in the party. We have no objection to them joining, but we don't want to lose our Tory friends." It is well to have this put on the record. Appeals made to Liberals in this campaign to be patriotic and support the government will be straight appeals to join the Tory party. Liberals will welcome a contest on those lines.

A SAMPLE BRICK

Toronto Saturday Night believes that the prosperity of Canada depends upon protecting our industries from unreasonable competition of countries where labor is paid but a fraction of what it is here, but it does not like the inequalities of the present tariff, and gives the following very striking illustration:

"On the other hand the inequalities of our present tariff are all too apparent. Here is a story to illustrate what I mean. It comes hot off the griddle, Joe Haycock, the former head of the Patrons of Industry of Ontario, being the author thereof. Joe wanted a pump and wanted it badly. In due course he was waited upon by the agent of a Canadian firm. The pump Joe wished was quoted at $15, but Joe, not being as green as his name, consulted the catalogue of a rival firm in the United States, and he found the pump could be had there for $10. With freight and duty added, the American pump cost landed at Joe's some just about the same as the Canadian one. Charged with full advantage of the tariff, the agent pleaded guilty.

THIS IS INTERESTING.

The Toronto Globe devotes an article to election estimates. It says: "Here is one from a Conservative source to which a good deal of information is likely to flow:

Table with 4 columns: Province, Liberal, Labor, Con. Ontario: 10, 32, 40. Quebec: 61, 4, 4. Nova Scotia: 12, 2, 2. New Brunswick: 6, 1, 4. Manitoba: 1, 12, 2. Saskatchewan: 1, 14, 1. Alberta: 1, 10, 1. British Columbia: 2, 3, 3. Prince Edward Island: 2, 2, 2. Total: 96, 74, 64.

"This is not very far from the estimate of a Progressive Journal, the Ottawa Citizen, which gave the Liberals as a maximum 100, the Conservatives 60 and the Farmers 70. Enthusiastic Farmers claim 50 Ontario seats, which seems rather high. Liberals claim that the tide is running in their favor in Ontario. There is very little difference between the Liberal and Conservative estimates as to the eastern provinces. Both give the Liberals 12 out of 16 seats in Nova Scotia, 6 out of 11 in New Brunswick, and all but four or five in Quebec. The prophets are fairly well agreed about the overwhelming dominance of Liberals east of Ontario and of Progressives on the prairies; the provinces most in doubt are Ontario and British Columbia."

WHERE EVERYBODY WORKS

The New York Sun is impressed by the industrial revival in Germany. It says: "Germany is setting a pace industrially and in general activity that has no counterpart in the world today. Her recovery from chaotic afterwar conditions, the output of her industries and the measure of world trade she has already regained have no parallel. The reason for these achievements rests with her people. They are workers. They know that if the Fatherland ever pays its colossal indemnity and re-establishes itself as a free and independent nation among the nations of the world, work alone can accomplish it; intense, unsparring work. And these German people are bending their backs to the task uncomplainingly and with a will to surmount all obstacles."

METHODISTS AND UNION OF CHURCHES

Rev. Dr. Chown Speaks of Discussion at the Ecumenical Conference.

Toronto, Sept. 26—Canadian Methodists may have played its last part in the ecumenical conference of world wide Methodists, from which Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada, returned yesterday.

He said that the question of the prospective union of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches into one union church of Canada was discussed at the conference in London, and was generally referred to with strong approval. He said the Canadian Methodist church would part from the rest of Methodism throughout the world with extreme regret, but if duty called them to go forward to an amalgamation with other churches it would mean their severance from the ecumenical conference.

WILL TRY TO PLAY THE U. N. B. TEAM

In view of the request of the U. N. B. football team for a game with the St. John team next week, all those who would like to take part in such a contest are asked to put in an appearance on the East End Grounds this afternoon as soon after five o'clock as possible. Only kicking, running, passing, and elementary formations will be carried out today so that uniforms are not required.

THE OLD, OLD SONG.

(By Charles Kingsley.) When all the world is young, lad, And all the trees are green, And every goose a swan, lad, And every lass a queen; Then hey for boot and horse, lad, And round the world away; Young blood must have its course, lad, And every dog his day.

When all the world is old, lad, And all the trees are brown; And all the sport is staid, lad, And all the whistles rusted down; Creep home, and take your place there, The spent and maim'd among; God grant you find one face there You loved when you were young.

LIGHTER VEIN.

The woman who sat in the physician's consulting room was certainly stout, and her reason for being there was that the man of medicine might prescribe some course of treatment which would reduce her corpulence. After some consideration the great man drew up a dietary, and instructed her to report to him in a month. At the end of that time the physician's office saw her again, stouter than ever. "Are you sure you ate what I ordered?" asked the physician, aghast. "Everything," answered the patient. His brow wrinkled in perplexity. "And nothing else?" "Nothing whatever, doctor—except, of course, my ordinary meals."

The manager of an "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company intentionally forgot to pay the members of the company their usual salaries—and "skipped" with all the money. The players, as soon as they discovered the true situation, unlearned the bloodhounds used in the play and put them on the trail of the missing manager.

The bloodhounds caught up with the manager, but the latter collected them and formed a No. 2 company of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Flattenstaf had arrived home late from the office and his wife was not the sort of woman to let a thing like that pass unnoted. "Why didn't you catch the 7.30 train home tonight, Herbert?" she demanded. "Well, you see, dear," replied Herbert, "I asked the porter from which platform my train started, and he said if I turned to the left I'd be right."

"Unfortunately, no, my dear!" replied her husband. "A little mistake on my part. I turned to the right and was left!"

ANGLO-AMERICAN UNITY.

(Montreal Gazette.) George Bernard Shaw is responsible for the statement that Great Britain and the United States are "heading for war," and he goes so far as to quote the British prime minister in substantiation of this view:—"We are ready to discuss with American statesmen any proposition for the limitation of armaments which they may wish to make, and we can undertake that no such overtures will find a lack of willingness on our part to meet them. In the meantime we cannot forget that the very life of the United Kingdom, as also of Australia and New Zealand, indeed the whole empire, has been built up on sea power, and that sea power is necessarily the basis of the whole empire's existence. We have therefore to look to measures which our security requires. We aim at nothing more. We cannot possibly be content with less."

David Lloyd George made use of the foregoing quotation in a speech upon the unimpeachable imprimatur of honesty and straightforwardness, coupled with an underlying high motive to restrict armaments in the interest of the proper safety of the British empire. No other interpretation can be placed upon the statement, and it is only those who have an innate ulterior motive or defect of issues who could take upon themselves to assume that this expression of opinion is in effect "a declaration of war."

It is apparent primarily that the British premier desired to make it clear that Great Britain would take all the necessary diplomatic precautions to secure her own safety, and that of her far-flung empire, without dreaming of having the slightest desire for anything remotely resembling war. The fact is that the British navy was the basis of British naval sea power prior to 1914. When the defeated, lame, bedraggled, and dispirited fleet limped across the North Sea subsequent to the armistice, thus signaling its disappearance as a fighting unit, it was obliged ignominiously to lay down its flag and surrender to the Allied navies, thus removing a very real menace to the nations of the world. Subsequent to this, Great Britain lost no time in announcing her intention to very materially curtail the naval strength, reducing her ship-construction programme straight away. It is the first lord of the British admiralty, in the British House of Commons, confirmed the British naval policy, and announced that for the future the one-power naval standard would be put into effect. Lord Grey and Mr. Balfour, two leading British statesmen, have expressed great faith and hope in the League of Nations as a means towards the preservation of a world peace.

The development of the League of Nations is in effect to the dangerous policy of alliances. A British understanding with the United States is essential to world peace. It is not meant by this that the League of Nations should be "scrapped." The League of Nations is capable of doing very excellent work, but it should not undertake any schemes it has no power to carry into effect. The refusal of the United States to go into the League of Nations has to an extent "hobbled" the league, and his hindered in carrying into effect many of the designs of its founders; but the League of Nations has so far justified its existence by accomplishing things that diplomacy could not attempt. The Vilna issue and the Aland Islands questions are fresh in the memory. Traffic in opium was also dealt with, and other matters of considerable moment to the nations. The strengthening of cordial relationships between Great Britain and the United States can be accomplished by some statesmanship at the Washington conference.

Clark and Mrs. Clark Saturday evening and presented them a beautiful bronze jardiniere, the occasion being the ninth anniversary of their wedding. SAYS ENGLISH LEADER BARRED Question in Connection With the Proposed Visit of Old Country Revue Company.

London, Sept. 26—(Canadian Press)—Surprise is expressed at the alleged barring of an English orchestral musician from appearing in Canada by order of the American Federation of Musicians, controlled from New York.

The case has arisen in connection with a forthcoming presentation of a revue by an all-English company from England. The producer proposed taking a member of the recognized English musical trade union as musical director but he now learns that this is impossible because by the rules of the American Federation, the Canadian instrumentalists cannot play with a non-member.

The producer has indignantly cabled Premier Meighen asking whether he proposes to allow a British subject to be flung out of work because he is not allowed to play in a British dominion by an American body.

Toronto, Sept. 26—A. A. Weatherburn, secretary of the Toronto Musicians Union, knows of no insurmountable difficulty in the way of an English musician desiring to play in Canada and he thinks there must be some unexplained reason for the barring of the English revue orchestra director by the head office of the musicians federation. The Englishman would, of course, have to take out a card as a member of the union here, but there would be no difficulty about this. He said Canadian musicians accomplished fact. Yesterday, while the Jarvis street pastor, in his own tabernacle praised the Lord for the complete defeat of the powers of evil and the departure of those members who "preferred to be on good terms with the devil," people so designated to the number of about 300 continued devoting service in their own way in the auditorium of the central Y. NEW YORK DEATH RATE SHOWS DROP

The death rate was lower in New York City during the week ended Sept. 17 than for any week since mortality statistics have been kept, according to Dr. Royal S. Copeland, commissioner of health.

There were 967 deaths recorded in the city, a rate of 8.88 a thousand of the population. The lowest death rate in 1920 was 9 a thousand. In 1919 the lowest was 9.04; in 1918 it was 10.05 and in 1917, 10.96.

The rate is always lower in the summer months, partially because it is a healthier season and partially because of the number of persons out of town at that period. According to many reports, the population of the city is abnormally low at present, owing to the number of families which have remained at summer resorts to escape New York rents and prices. But Dr. Copeland yesterday reported that overworking was as bad as last year, according to a survey of several blocks.

In spite of the increased danger of epidemic diseases due to overcrowding, the city has been unusually healthy throughout the year, as shown by the figures of the Health Department. For the first thirty-eight weeks of 1921 the death rate was 11.47 a thousand a year, as against 13.8 during the corresponding period of 1920.

Children under one year have died at the rate of 75 a thousand a year during 1921, against 91 in 1920.

SEA OTTER RAREST OF WORLD'S FURS

(Mall and Empire, Toronto.)
"Two prime sea otter pelts"—the comestor of fur looks up, startled, from that solitary item in the lists of the coming New York fur auction sales. Never again, perhaps, will it be seen there, for the bird of paradise is not so rare or so precious as the sea otter now. Yet even two centuries ago the news of such skins for sale would have awakened excitement. The sea otter's story is dark with strife, tragedy and adventure. Fiercely-hunted prizes they are gone today from the shore of California, and the whole north-western ocean seems to hold no more than could be counted on one's fingers. As the quest of the clove spurred the merchant adventurers of Venice and of London to the conquest of the East, so it was the pursuit of the sea otter rather than a longing to correct the world's geographical map that led old Vitus Bering into the north, out upon the sea which bears his name, and at last to a lonely death on a desert island. The creature had the unhappy faculty of kindling avarice. All who heard mariner's tales of sea otter hunting longed to go and seek them; the riches which even a single skin would bring, says Marion Storm in an interesting article in the New York Post.

A Beacon to Discovery.
Only the Alaskan natives, who when the Russian traders first came were wearing these priceless furs as ordinary garments, were ignorant of their worth. But they soon learned. After selling the explorers a number of the cloaks for a trifle, they became as canny as their customers. Year after year thereafter, through all seasons, the sea otter got no day's rest. The Russians employed bands of natives as hunters, treating them mercilessly, and sometimes forsaking them upon the coast, to be sought when they returned to bargain with a luxurious nobility over the spoils of the chase. Soon sea otter hunting became the great business of the natives along the Aleutian Islands. To this animal the early geographers owed all their knowledge of Russian America. The beautiful and costly skins had been eagerly sought in Russia since Alutov and his Tartars first secured them on the Kamchatka coast towards the close of the seventeenth century. The fur hunters were glad to back other explorers besides Bering, and fitted out other vessels, as perilously frail as his, in which they sailed to face the tempest of the north.

Treasure of Courts.
From time immemorial the Japanese had known the value of the otter, but their own coats provided enough for their wants, and they conservatively kept the knowledge to themselves. Not until the Hudson's Bay Company began to search the coasts of British Columbia and Oregon did the skins become the treasure of the courts of all the civilized world. Since those times the worth of the sea otter's skin has grown with every decade. From 1741 until the practical extermination of the animal in 1854, at least 10,000 hunters sought the otter. Their early abundance became a legend. When the Pribilof Islands were discovered, 5,000 skins were taken there the first season. Within six

Our Portrait is of Mr. E. F. WHEELER, of 22, Regent Street, Bath, Dorchester, England, who writes: "About two years ago I had a nasty wound break out in my big toe. I had it attended to for about three months, but during that time it had spread to all the toes, with the result that I had to undergo an operation, but with no avail. Then, after another operation, as it did not get any better, I thought I would give your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' a trial. After taking the first three bottles I could walk better, and now after having nine bottles the wound has quite healed, and I am pleased to say I have not seen any sign of it breaking out since."

Let anything interfere with these processes and you are in danger of improper nutrition, and sickness of some kind follows. Poor digestion and assimilation means failure to derive full nourishment from food and that in turn often means impoverished blood, weakness, anemia, etc. Poor elimination means an accumulation of waste matter which poisons the body, lowers vitality, decreases the power of resistance to disease and leads to the development of many serious ills. Rheumatism—due to some interference with the process of elimination, fails to get rid of certain body poisons—cannot be expected to yield to any medicine that fails to correct the condition responsible for it. WESTMORLAND CO. LABOR OBJECTS TO A. E. TRITES

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
 Monday, Sept. 25.—The Independent Labor party which met here yesterday afternoon to receive the report of the committee on the U. F.-Labor convention which nominated A. E. Trites as candidate in Westmorland on Monday last refused to adopt the committee's report and declined to endorse the Farmer candidate. In a heated discussion it was maintained that the 40-60 basis allowed by the Farmers was unfair to the Labor party and a resolution was passed staying action by the Labor party until a new United Farmer-Labor convention was called and the choice of a candidate made on a 50-50 basis.

YESTERDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

Eloquent and stirring addresses on Sunday school work were given at a largely attended meeting at the Baptist church at Mace's Bay last evening. C. W. Wasson, president of the St. John County Religious Education Council, presided, and led in the opening devotions. Robert Reid, treasurer of the Maritime Religious Education Council, made a strong appeal for support of the work of the Maritime Council and of the Sunday schools inside its domain. He referred to the golden jubilee convention that will be held in St. John on October 10. W. J. Shives Durham, of Chicago, International Sunday school superintendent, gave an address on Sunday school methods, speaking under the three co-operation, organization and education. The speakers motored from St. John and back again. They were greatly encouraged by the interest and enthusiasm shown at the meeting.

At the main street Baptist church in the morning, the sermon was delivered by Rev. H. O. Morse, editor of the Maritime Baptist. A Sunday school rally in the afternoon was held in the auditorium of the church with the superintendent, W. J. McAlary presiding. The choir was composed of members of the Sunday school and led the singing in excellent manner. The primary department gave a selection that was specially pleasing.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

Those who made perfect attendance, Sherwood Armstrong, Dorothy Price, Elma Hamilton, Florence Welch, Marion McLean, Jessie Burk, Wesley Price, Elva Chapman, Beatrice Chapman. The prizes were rings and books. L. H. Thorne, one of the teachers, also made perfect attendance and he was given a special award. Those who were only absent one day were given special mention. They were: Arnold Hamilton, Alfred Welch, Herbert Lilley, Dorothy Christie, Donald Harris, Helen Thompson, Laura Knorr, Marion Cowan, Robert Morrell, Alice Morrell, Mabel McDonald, Elsie Chapman, Jessie Scott, George McDonald and Margaret Akerley of the primary department, Miss M. D. Morrell and J. W. McAlary, a teacher.

In the German street Baptist church at the morning service, J. H. McGorman, a member of the congregation, son of William McGorman, gave an excellent sermon on "The Unchanging Christ." Mr. McGorman has been the assistant pastor at Amherst Baptist church for the last year and he will leave soon to continue his studies at Acadia Theological College.

The sacrament of Baptism was administered in Trinity Episcopal church in the afternoon and in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at the morning service.

The Methodist ministers in the city observed their usual monthly interchange of pulpits yesterday morning. Rev. Neil MacLauchlan, of the Queen square church, exchanged with Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Centenary church. Rev. H. E. Thomas, of Exmouth street church, exchanged with Rev. H. B. Clarke, of the Portland Methodist church. Rev. E. E. Styles, of the Garnet street church, exchanged with Rev. J. H. Heaney, of the Carleton church.

In the Anglican churches yesterday reference was made to the illness of His Lordship Bishop Richardson, who is to undergo an operation in Montreal today. Prayers for his speedy recovery were offered.

A St. John branch of the Anglo-Catholic Union of Canada was formed last night at the parish hall of the Mission church of St. John the Baptist. Addresses were given by Rev. Father J. V. Young, chairman of the meeting; H. B. Schofield, Ronald Pith and E. E. Blair.

Genuine!

WHEN it comes to settling vexing questions finally and in brief phrases, our old friend the dictionary is often of greatest service. Of the work "GENUINE", for instance, the first comment of such an authority as the "Standard" is this: "Genuine—OF THE ORIGINAL OR TRUE STOCK".

Well over thirty years ago, the process of gripping brush bristles everlastingly in hard vulcanized rubber was originated by the proprietors of Rubberset Company.

Then followed the adoption of the trade name RUBBERSET and of the practice of imprinting it plainly and permanently upon every brush so made, to distinguish it among all brushes throughout the world as the product of Rubberset Company.

These processes—widely imitated but never successfully duplicated or surpassed—are to this day practised in absolute faithfulness in the factories of the originators, and to the brushes so made is affixed YOUR PROTECTION the old original trade name.

"GENUINE" RUBBERSETS, then—"of the ORIGINAL or TRUE STOCK"—can be none other than those brushes produced in our factories and bearing no trade name other than that most famous of all brush trade names—RUBBERSET.

Insist upon seeing it, as illustrated herewith, upon every brush you buy.

PRICE OF TICKETS GOES TO HUNGRY

New York, Sept. 26.—Rev. Clifton Mason, rector of All Souls' church, sent to a newspaper a check for the amount which he had planned to pay for tickets for the coming world's series, and asked that the money be used to feed hungry men and women.

He said he had been a baseball fan for years, but his conscience would not permit him to use the money to buy tickets of the series when the unemployed were unable to get enough to eat. He intends later to give for the aid of the unemployed the money he had planned to spend in a shooting trip next month.

He suggested that a world's series between teams finishing second be held for the aid of the unemployed.

SAY POLICEMEN ARE BOOTLEGGERS

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Federal officials today had started an exhaustive investigation of the Chicago police department as a result of an appeal last night by Chas. Fitzgarris, chief of police, who declared that, in his belief, "half of the city's 5,000 policemen were bootleggers, plying their illicit liquor operations much more industriously than they watched over the city."

FAIR VALE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The closing of the Fair Vale Sunday School took place for the season yesterday. A general review of the season's work and the presentation of the prizes won during the summer by the children were the chief features of the day. The various reports showed that the school had enjoyed a successful season and that there was a balance of $80 on hand which it was decided to turn over to the St. John Protestant Orphanage fund. Just prior to closing a short address was given the school by W. H. White.

HONOR HEROES BY TREES. More Than 1,300 Planted as Memorials in Pennsylvania County.

A report recently made by Mrs. R. S. Cannon of York, Pa., on behalf of the World War Memorial and Tribute Tree Association of York County, shows that 1,821 trees have already been planted along the Lincoln Highway between Wrightsville and the Adams County line. The expense of the work amounted to $3,150. Each tree bears a small memorial shield, which carries the name of the hero it memorializes.

York county was one of the first along the Lincoln Highway to undertake through an active organization to beautify the route under such a plan, which is now being carried out in many of the counties traversed by the transcontinental road between New York and San Francisco.

The organization was started a year ago with the object of perpetuating the memory of dead heroes who fell on the fields of France, by planting memorial trees along the Lincoln Highway across the county, and it has accomplished excellent results during the past year.

Plans have also been completed by the St. Joseph County Memorial Trees Association of Indiana for the planting of several thousand trees along the 31.4 miles of the Lincoln Highway in the county, outside of populated communities.

The entire county is organized, with business, manufacturing, civic and agricultural interests supporting the project as the most appropriate possible memorial to St. Joseph County's war veterans, who number over 6,000. A map through this map the location of each individual tree, together with the name of the soldier to whom it is dedicated, will appear as a permanent record.

Head Off High Prices on Lumber

A careful survey of the Lumber market has convinced us that prices have struck bottom, and an advance is certain in the near future. There is already a stiffening; certain sizes are off the market; others have been marked up in the United States, notably 2 by 8. This is especially true of rough lumber, also of doors and trim. BUY NOW and head off high prices as far as you are concerned.

EXCHANGE AND EXPORTS. (Toronto Globe.)

There is more an gleam on the surface in the decision of a great international motor car concern to concentrate its manufacture for export in a Canadian town. An important factor, perhaps the determining one, is the exchange situation. The currencies of virtually every European country are quoted higher in Canada than in the United States, to the extent of the appreciation of the United States dollar in the Canadian market. The fact that the pound sterling, which is worth only $3.70 or $3.71 in New York, will bring $4.15 or $4.16 in this country is a fact with which the United States exporter must reckon. It means that, other things being equal, the British buyer will spend his money in the country where his money goes furthest. The Continental buyer will do the same. The financial mechanism of Canada is so interlocked with that of Europe, that a State that while Canadian money is below par of exchange across the line Canada will have an advantage in the export trade with countries whose currencies are depreciated in relation to the dollar. It is part of the price Uncle Sam must pay for his present monetary supremacy. And so long as Europe remains greatly in his debt his dollar will be king at the expense of his export trade.

ONTARIO BONDS. Toronto, Sept. 26—It is announced that the Ontario bonds sold last week to the amount of twenty million dollars had gone very well on both sides of the line. The ten million dollars which went to New York was disposed of on the first day by the purchasing syndicate, while the ten million dollars bought by the four Toronto houses for the Canadian market has also disposed of and were very well in the hands of investors.

DEMPESEY FIGHT PUT UP TO THE GRAND JURY

Jersey City Justice Orders Investigation to Decide Whether Crime was Committed.

Investigation of the Dempsey-Carpenter boxing match of July 2 has been ordered by Francis J. Swayze, justice of the Supreme Court in Jersey City. Justice Swayze asked the Hudson County Grand Jury for the September term to decide whether the contest was a prize fight, and therefore covered under the laws of New Jersey, or a boxing contest within the Act of 1918. In charging the Grand Jury Justice Swayze said: "On the second of July there took place in Jersey City what I have commonly heard called a fight. Whether that is the correct name for that may be important in its bearing upon the guilt or innocence of crime in the parties engaged. Prior to 1918, under the Crimes Act of 1889 any person who was engaged in a fight, whether he was the victor or the vanquished, was liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine not exceeding $100, or to both such imprisonment and fine. There can be no doubt that Dempsey and Carpenter, the principals in this so-called fight, would be guilty of a misdemeanor if the law had not been changed. Their guilt does not depend, for money, or other valuable thing, or for any benefit for any other person, or merely to test the skill of bodily powers of the pugilist or combatant, or to bet in any such fight or combat, or any person who shall be present at any such fight or combat, whether coming from a foreign state or not, for the purpose of witnessing the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. This section also does not require, in order to constitute the crime, that there should be any prize money or other valuable thing by way of prize or for any benefit."

Affected by Limitation of Rounds. "I find myself unable to understand how it is possible to use the less a fight because there is no decision, and the only reward is the gate receipts, than it would be if there were a prize offered under that name and a decision."

"The number of rounds permitted by the statute bears more nearly upon the nature of the contest, and if the number of rounds were so limited and the gloves were of such a weight that there could be no danger of the brutality that seemed a necessary incident to the fight, perhaps we should say that no crime was committed, inasmuch as there were fewer than twelve rounds and gloves of the requisite weight were worn. "The arbitrary fixing of the number of rounds at twelve and the weight of the gloves at eight ounces does not necessarily make it only a boxing match, but a prize fight, and would become a fight prohibited by the law. "I need hardly say to gentlemen of your experience that the law cannot be changed by mere names, and if in fact the contest of July second was a fight, and if it was only called a boxing or sparring match in name, that would not change its essential character as a crime. Not a Question of Names. "The question for you and me is not one of names but one of fact. I know nothing personally about this occurrence. I left for my vacation before it took place, but it attracted attention everywhere, and I got the impression from what I heard (I have seen none of the pictures of the fight and have read no detailed account of it), that it really was a fight and not a boxing exhibition. "You must determine that fact. If you think it was a fight, indict the principals and the principal managers. I should say, especially all who had a pecuniary interest in the contest. If, however, it was a mere boxing or sparring match, it was permitted by law and we should have to do as judges in other courts did before July second, and stay our hands. I leave the question to you."

SLEEPING SICKNESS ON FARMS. Stockholm, Sept. 26—During the last six months 1,475 cases of sleeping sickness have been reported. The number of cases in the country is nearly eight times as large as that in the city.

BASEBALL STUNTS OF OTHER YEARS

Features Recalled as Time for the 1921 World Series Draws Near.

New York, Sept. 26—Unusual plays, brilliant performances of individual players and freaky things have entered into many of the series for the world's baseball championship. Such occurrences are recalled each year in fondness and lend to the speculative interest in the championship games about to be played. The outstanding feature of the series in 1908, in which the Chicago Cubs defeated the Detroit Tigers, was the hurling of Pitches Overall and Brown of the Cubs. Overall won two games, the second, in which he allowed the Detroit four hits and won six to one, and the fifth in which he allowed three hits and won two to nothing. Brown shut out the Tigers in the fourth game, three to nothing. The Tigers getting but four hits off his wild delivery. In 1909, "Babe" Adams, the veteran Pittsburgh hurler, won three games for the Pirates, the first, fifth and seventh, against Detroit. Hans Wagner, the Pirate shortstop, played brilliantly, as did Moriarty, the Pirate third-sacker. Bender and Coombs pitched and won the entire series for the Athletics against the Cubs in 1910. Coombs won all three games in which he started and Bender won one and lost one. Eddie Collins performed brilliantly and at bat for the Mackmen. The Cubs were favorites to win in the series. The home runs of Frank "Home-Run" Baker contributed largely to the Athletics victory over the Giants in the series of 1911. In the second game Baker's homer put the Athletics in the lead and his homer in the third game tied the score after the Giants appeared to have the game on ice. Thrills aplenty were had in the 1912 games between the Boston Red Sox and the New York Giants. In the eighth game at Boston, on October 16, the score was tie in the ninth. The Giants scored one in the tenth and led. Harry Hooper robbed them of a run that may have slaved off defeat by leading the Yankees to a victory. Hooper's long hit which seemed good for three bases. Mathewson pitched a long fly by Engle who batted in place of Wood, the Boston hurler, whose hand was injured in the previous inning when he stopped Catcher Meyer's home run. Engle took second on the muff. Snodgrass then made a magnificent catch of Hooper's fly which seemed good for three bases. Hooper tried all his cunning to strike out Yerkes, and failed. Yerkes walking. Speaker hit the first ball pitched for an easy foul which alone have been caught by first baseman Merkle. As it occurred later, by capturing this foul Merkle would have saved the game for the Giants for Speaker singled, sending Engle home with the winning run. Yerkes stopped at third. Gardner sent a long fly sacrifice to Devore and Yerkes sped across with the winning run. In 1913, the Athletics won from the Giants again. One of the bright spots in this series was the great pitching duel between Mathewson of the Giants and Plank, of the Athletics, in the second game. Barry, Collins and Baker the great Athletics insiders performed well. Bender pitched Philadelphia to victory in two games. The Boston Braves, who had made a great fight in the National League and pennant, upset all hope in 1914 by winning four straight from the world's champion Athletics. Little John Evers pulled one of the greatest "home-head" plays in world's series history in the tenth inning of the third game. With the bases full, Baker hit a hard grounder to center. John juggled the ball and looked dumb while two men crossed the plate. The hitting and fielding of George Duffy Evers featured the 1915 series between the Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Nationals. He drove in Speaker with the Sox's only run in the eighth inning, first game. In the fourth game his two-bagger sent across the winning run for Boston in the sixth inning. He collected three of his team's six hits off Alexander in the third game which the Sox won in the ninth on his single which drove in a run. More than 43,000 persons witnessed the game. Harry Hooper, of the Boston Red Sox, the same player who saved his team the series in 1912 by catching Doyle's long hit as it went over the fence, played a brilliant game for his team in the series of 1916 against Brooklyn. He batted .333 and played sensationally afield. His hits were all timely and contributed to the Red Sox victory. "Babe" Ruth, now the home-run champion and a member of the New York Yankees, pitched the Red Sox to two victories over the Chicago Cubs in 1918. Tyler's pitching and hitting also helped the Sox to win the series. Carl Mays, who also is a member of the Yankees this year, won two games for Boston in his airtight hurling. Last year the triple play made by Wambrans of Cleveland in the fifth

The Commercial Club Cup.
I. R. McLellan, secretary of the Commercial Club, informed the Times this morning that an error was made in a recent publication regarding the presentation of the Commercial Club baseball trophy to St. Peter's, winners of the City League. He stated that he had been invited to attend a banquet recently tendered St. Peter's and regretted his inability to attend, owing to his absence from the city, but the invitation had nothing to do with the presentation of the cup. He explained that the cup is in charge of the Athletic Association of the club, whose direction it will be presented at an opportune time.

"DYNAMITE ALLEN"

"Dynamite Allen" is a tale of the mining districts, and abounds in tense dramatic situations. Many sensational scenes are introduced such as the burning of a large house, the flooding of a mine, an explosion that destroys a giant sluice, and a racing locomotive which plunges through an open bridge into the river. In addition, the picture contains a delightfully sweet romance.

AND THE BOY, soul-sick at the wreck of his love, flung out of his father's home and sank to the depths. But this smug "foremost citizen"—what of him? What of the girl who gave up when she wasn't fit for his son? What of his church that was ruled by hypocrites? What of the thousands of honest workers whose lives these hypocrites darkened? Was there any way up to the Light? Only one!

Winston Churchill's powerful romance of plain worth, and gilded hypocrisy. A story of love that aroused the churches and toppled over the gods of "high society."

RAILWAY BOARD HERE IN NOVEMBER

A Chance to Make Objection to Discrimination in Freights.

Hon. F. B. Carvell, chairman of the railway board of commissioners, arrived in the city today at noon in a special car attached to the Boston train. Dr. S. J. McLennan, assistant chief commissioner, is accompanying Mr. Carvell.

To a Times reporter Mr. Carvell said that there would be a sitting of the board in Kentville, N. S., on Tuesday and one on Thursday in Bridgewater. He was not certain whether or not there would be a session in Yarmouth. The board would proceed to Halifax and, should it be necessary, a sitting would be held there on Friday. The present tour included the bi-annual trip of the board to various sections of the Dominion.

Asked in regard to a sitting in St. John Mr. Carvell said that it had been decided to hold sessions at both St. John and Halifax some time in November. This would afford opportunity to the people of the maritime provinces to voice their objections to alleged discriminations between here and Montreal and Montreal and the west, particularly in regard to freight rates.

Asked if his present trip was a forerunner of lower freight and passenger rates for the maritime provinces Mr. Carvell said that he did not anticipate any immediate drop as the board had recently decided, by a majority vote, not to make a cut.

Mr. Carvell and his party spent the week-end at Woodstock having arrived there from Ottawa on Saturday. He will leave the city this evening and proceed to Truro.

FLOOD IN CITY ROAD; THE CAUSE AND REMEDY

The heavy rain storm last evening caused a miniature flood early this morning in City road. The cellars of several houses in the vicinity of the Victoria rink were reported partially filled with water, while a certain amount of water gathered in the street. A resident said this morning that this occurred before. Commissioner Jones said this afternoon "that while he had not received any notice of this particular incident, he knew that the water often backed up there. The trouble is attributed to ashes washed down Hospital Hill and clogging the sewers. Mr. Jones said the council had been considering means of rectifying this trouble for some time, but it has been found that the only feasible method would be to have a new sewer built at the corner of Clyde and Forest streets and that this would entail a large outlay of money. He said, however, that he hoped to be able to have this new sewer within a few months."

LIQUOR STOLEN IN A HOLD-UP

Gun Play Part of Incident Near Lepreaux in Which Booty is Big.

Stories of a daring hold-up of three liquor-dealers' automobiles at Mick Creek, near Lepreaux, late on Saturday night, reached the city yesterday, and are somewhat suggestive of the activities of the famed Jesse James.

The automobiles are said to have been on their way from this city and were heading towards the Maine border. As a deserted spot the road the drivers were suddenly confronted by several men, armed with rifles and revolvers, who stepped from the woods on either side of the road. Some shots are said to have been fired before the cars were brought to a stop.

Ordering the occupants of the cars to dismount, the highwaymen marched them at the point of the gun into the woods and left them there. When they returned they found that the automobiles, and up to the present it is understood that no trace has been found of them. Mick Creek reported yesterday that they had heard shots during the night.

SPELLMAN AND O'BRIEN SENT UP

Counsel Ask for Maximum in Lemon Extract Case.

James Thomas Spellman and Edward O'Brien were sent up for trial this morning by Magistrate Ritchie in connection with the death of Albert Norris of Barronville, N. B. William M. Ryan, who appeared on behalf of O'Brien addressed the court and asked that the defendants be sent up for trial on a charge of manslaughter and not murder. He said that there was no evidence brought out in the preliminary hearing that murder had been committed and that he felt that in justice to the accused it should be changed to manslaughter. Magistrate Ritchie said that if he was trying them he would give them the benefit of the doubt, but he did not think it proper for him to make any change in the original charge. He briefly reviewed the evidence and committed the defendants for trial.

Earle Logan, who appeared for Spellman, asked when the case against Charles Paddock would come before the court. He felt that it should be dealt with before the defendants appeared for trial. He asked that the maximum penalty be struck as he manifested that the selling of the lemon extract was responsible for the trouble. Mr. Ryan also said that he would recommend that the maximum penalty be struck. Magistrate Ritchie said that the case would come up this day week.

SEPTEMBER BRIDES

Girvan-Christie.

A very pretty wedding took place in St. David's Presbyterian church at six P. M. on Saturday, the 24th inst., when the pastor, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, united in marriage Agnes Stronach, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Girvan, 148 Duke street, to Harold Leonard Christie, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Christie of this city.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a navy blue tricotine suit, grey velvet hat with trimmings of grey and cerise ostrich and a grey sequined stole, the gift of the groom. The couple were unattended. During the signing of the register, Miss Nina Brown sang very sweetly "O Promise Me." Mrs. T. J. Gunn presided at the organ. The ushers were John Howard and A. Cuyler Clark.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party motored to the depot, where Mr. and Mrs. Christie boarded the Boston train for a wedding trip to Boston, returning via Nova Scotia. On their return they will reside at 148 Duke street. Many beautiful gifts were received, testifying to their popularity. The groom served overseas in the war, having gone over with the 4th Canadian Siege Battery and later transferring to the Royal Air Force. He is now a popular member of the traveling staff of the National Drug & Chemical Co. of this city.

Saunders-Ayre.

On Saturday afternoon, in the Main street Baptist parsonage, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson officiated at the wedding of George Harold Saunders of Quispamsis, Kings county, to Miss Agnes Ayre of the same place. Miss Bessie Ayre, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by his brother, H. Myles Saunders. After a wedding trip through New Brunswick, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders will make their home at Quispamsis. They will have the best wishes of many friends.

VanWart-Moore.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Luke's church at 3 o'clock this afternoon when the pastor, Rev. R. P. McKim, united in marriage Miss Florence Ottilia Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Moore, and Arthur O'Dell VanWart of this city. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful costume of crepe-de-chene with a veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was unattended. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, 27 Vishart street, after which the bride and groom left on an automobile tour through the maritime provinces. On their return they will reside at 14 Vishart street. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

DO WELL AT GLEN FALLS

The extraordinary weather for the time of year is producing much that is unusual in garden and field. Yesterday J. Theo. Shaw of Glen Falls enjoyed some excellent string beans that were picked in plenty in his garden. Mr. Shaw also has three potatoes the total weight of which is four pounds and three ounces.

Stewart Fillmore of Glen Falls brought to the Times office this morning a bunch of purple violets and several strawberry blossoms and green strawberries picked yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of his home. He said that there were many of both plants in bloom in that locality.

Give The Bride Useful Things

The Bride thinks above all things of home furnishings—how cosy and comfortable and beautiful she can make this, her first home.

So why not give something to help her carry out the idea uppermost in her mind? She isn't particularly interested in odds and ends—gifts quite superfluous when compared with things to round out and help beautify each room.

Useful presents for the September Bride not only will be appreciated so much more at the time they are received but will carry with them in the hearts of those to whom they are given a deeper sense of appreciation which will endure long after the other gifts are forgotten.
