The C. of E. Garden Party

The Church of England Garden Party took place in the Academy grounds on Wednesday, August 6th. Although the weather at the beginning of the day looked threatening the afternoon cleared off beautifully and a large number of visitors arrived from the various towns. The members of the Carbonoeur Cricket Team and their friends were entertained at the Garden Party.

The tables, which were bountifully laden, were splendidly patronized and it was felt that a special word of praise was due to Mrs. (Rev.) Bishop and the Ladies of the Association.

At night a grand concert was held in Cable Hall, under the direction of Mr. H. Gordon Christian, L.R.A.M., assisted by Miss M. Fraser.

C. L. B. Notes.

On Aug. 7th all ranks, having enjoyed a glorious camp holiday paraded at 7.45 preparatory to carrying out the new fall programme to be shortly announced by the Officer Commanding. About 80 all ranks work on duty. Major Herbert Outbridge, M.B.E., in command, with Brigade Major Williams and Captain P. B. Rendell and Fred Burden, Chief Medical Officer in mufti. Lieut. Hubert Rendell, R. Mott, in mufti, M. Reeves in mufti and Eric Jerrett with R. S. Major John Andrews. Several officers were absent on leave.

Companies were given gymnastic marching and physical drill and dismissed at 9 o'clock as no routine march could be ordered on account of the rain.

Everybody speaks of Camp 1924 as the best in history. All C.L.B.-ites were glad to have had the opportunity of meeting their fellows, making personal acquaintanceships and coming into close touch with matters of Brigade drill and general good fellowship. The discipline was ideal and every lad proved himself gentlemanly and courteous.

Bank Cashier of the C.L.B. Savings Bank reports 471 lads having accounts on June 30 and deposits of $3568.39. Four percent was paid last year and Bank Finances are sound. All ranks not availing of the C.L.B. service are asked to open accounts.

Rev. Edgar H. Fletcher a former Officer—now living at Avalon West St. Bourne, Line, England writes recently from there and sends kindest regards to all friends and his old C.L.B. comrades. He still plays cricket "behind the stumps" for Bourne but has given up football.

News of Major A. Raley formerly Adjutant of the Royal Nfld. Regiment and latterly of the C.L.B. is to hand announcing that he has been ordained as a Deacon and is now engaged in parish work at Luton in the Diocese of St. Albans. His old friends congratulate him on his vocation and wish him well.

Lieut. L. Colley is now residing at 417 West 121st Street, New York and taking a special course in his scholastic profession at the Horace Mann School and Teachers College. He is enjoying the Collegiate life and spending many happy hours enjoying the rights of the big metropolis, he sends greetings to all the Nfld. Regiment and hopes they will have a good Camp.

Capt. Horsley of Field College Company is spending his vacation at his home Deal, England, and longs to get back again to old Newfoundland, amongst his boys of the old Brigade.

The Athletic Association announces that the prizes won at the Outdoor Sports held last June have now arrived and will be publicly presented in a few days.

Strike at Corner Brook

The men who struck last week at Corner Brook have gone back to work. A vote was taken and out of the 2700 who were out only 284 wanted to strike. A few agitators were the main cause of the trouble. The Government will thoroughly investigate affairs at any place where there is dissatisfaction and endeavor to set matters right.

WHEAT ADVANCED

The price of wheat advanced by steps 12 cents a bushel in Canada since July 15th. This means about 60 cents a barrel on flour. The reports of crop shortage are the cause of the advances and the millers are forecasting even higher prices this month.

Miss Essie Parsons, who holds a position with the Eastern Trust Co., St. John's, has been home spending her holidays.

LUCY GRAHAM'S SECRET

'What the devil am I doing in this galere?' he asked. 'But I am in it, and I can't get out of it; so I better submit myself to the brown-eyed girl, and do what she tells me patiently and faithfully. What a wonderful solution to life's enigma there is in petticoat government! Man might lie in the sunshine, and eat lotuses, and fancy it 'always afternoon,' if his wife would let him! But she won't, bless her impulsive heart and active mind! She knows better than that. Who ever heard of a woman taking life as it ought to be taken? Instead of supporting it as an unavoidable nuisance, only redeemable by its brevity, she goes through it as if it were a pageant or a procession. She dresses for it, and simpers and grins, and gesticulates for it. She pushes her neighbors, and struggles for a good place in the dismal march; she elbows, and writhes, and tramples, and prances to the one end of making the most of the misery. She gets up early and sits up late, and is loud, and restless, and noisy, and unyielding. She drags her husband on to the work-sack, or pushes him into Parliament. She drives him full butt at the dear, lazy machinery of government, and knocks and buffets him about the wheels, and cranks, and levers, and pulleys; until somebody, for quiet's sake, makes him something that she wanted him to be made. That's why incompetent men sometimes sit in high places, and interpose their poor, muddled intellects between the things to be done and the people that can do them, making universal confusion in the helpless innocence of well-placed incapacity. The square men in the round holes are pushed into them by their wives. The Eastern potentate who declared that women were at the bottom of all mischief, should have gone a little further and seen why it is so. It is because women are never lazy. They don't know what it is to be quiet. They are Semiramides, and Cleopatras, and Joans of Arc, Queen Elizabeths, and Catharines the Second, and clamor and desperation. If they can't agitate the universe and play at ball with hemispheres, they'll make mountains of warfare and vexation out of domestic molasses, and social storms in household teacups. Forbid them to hold forth upon the freedom of nations and the wrongs of mankind, and they'll quarrel with Mrs. Jones about the shape of a mantle or the character of a small maid-servant. To call them the weaker sex is to utter a hideous mockery. They are the stronger sex, the noisier, the more persevering, the most self-assertive sex. They want freedom of opinion, variety of occupation, do they? Let them have it. Let them be lawyers, doctors, preachers, teachers, soldiers, legislators—anything they like—but let them be quiet—if they can.'

straight brown hair, and uplifted the dark mass in his despair. 'I hate women,' he thought, savagely. 'They're bold, brazen, abominable creatures, invented for their annoyance and destruction of their superiors. Look at this business of poor George's! It's all woman's work from one end to the other. He marries a woman, and his father casts him off penniless and professionless. He hears of the woman's death and he breaks his heart—his good, honest, manly heart, worth a million of the treacherous lumps of self-interest and mercenary calculation which beats in women's breasts. He goes to a woman's house and he is never seen alive again. And now I find myself driven into a corner by another woman, of whose existence I had never thought until this day. And—and then,' mused Mr. Audley, rather irrelevantly, 'there's Alicia, too; she's another nuisance. She'd like me to marry her I know; and she'll make me do it, I dare say, before she's done with me. But I'd much rather not; though she is a dear, bouncing, generous thing, bless her poor little heart.'

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY PROCEEDINGS

OFFICIAL SYNOPSIS

MR. HICKMAN said that he felt very proud of his opposition. He had men on this side of the House of ability and good sound judgment. He regretted very much that Sir Michael Cashin was not a member of the House. He next took up the subject of prohibition. He said that the prohibition laws just as binding as any other laws, and no man has any right to break it. If it is to remain as at present, it is the duty of the Prime Minister and the Government to see that it is carried out. If it cannot be carried out it is also his duty to change it. He did not believe in total prohibition, but in an ameliorated measure, so that the liquor will be distributed evenly and properly. Some people are afraid to express their views on prohibition. He understood from the Prime Minister that the railroad was to be run as before under the management of Mr. Russell and a Commission. Mr. Hickman said that he would not like the occasion to pass without expressing his views on the Newfoundland War Memorial. This was erected through the energy of Colonel Nangle and is a credit to St. John's and Newfoundland. He hoped that the Government would bring down legislation concerning a minimum wage. A man needs thirty or thirty-five cents an hour. He cannot live on less. In his Manifesto the Prime Minister promised a bounty on fish. If a man is fishing, and does not earn sufficient to support his family then there is nothing else to be done but to give him a bounty to help him out. It is the duty of the Government to carry out its promises in that respect. Mr. Hibbs spoke of the tourist traffic. He trusted that something would be done in this connection. He was glad to know that the Minister of Posts and Telegraphs had saved over $100,000 by the elimination of some of the coastal services. MR. WARREN said he was elected to the House as an Independent member and he took it that it was his duty to vote for or against any measure introduced from either side of the House. He wished to point out that these Estimates, while they were never submitted to this House before, were made up by the Government of which he was Prime Minister and were made up with due regard to all the economy possible. He said he had been informed officially by Minister of Posts and Telegraphs that the "Wren" had been taken off Fortune Bay because the cost of the service was out of all proportion to the service rendered. It was alright to take off one ship when the traffic fell down; but he considered it false economy to take off one ship permanently. He would like to know if the loss on the Trepassey Branch was out of proportion to the service rendered. He thought that in practising economy that the members for Ferryland should be punished as well as he was, and that if the Minister was going to be fair he should be fair to all.

Rev. T. Albert Moore, D. D., General Secretary of the Dept. of Social Service and Evangelism of the Meth. Church of Canada, who visited Newfoundland in Sept., 1917, in connection with the Social Congress, says:

'Stall's Books on Avoided Subjects have been standard works for such a long time that it seems almost unnecessary to say a word in their behalf. I believe they have accomplished great good, and are written with care and delicacy, at the same time with sufficient frankness or the modest discussion of these delicate subjects. They are safe books for general reading, especially if from the various books there is proper selection for the youth or adult, man or woman, as the case may be.'

Referring to the Prohibition Act he said he had reports in the Department which he had produced to the House showing how impossible it was to enforce the Act no matter how conscientiously the police or the Customs-officials did their duties because the Act was against public opinion and was carried on a minority vote.

HON. THE PRIME MINISTER congratulated the various members of the Opposition on the addresses they had made and for the apparent feelings of good will they expressed to himself and to the Government in general.

HON. THE PRIME MINISTER continuing said that the Government had under consideration a policy for the encouragement of the tourist traffic. He believed that there would be a great future for Newfoundland through the encouragement of this traffic.

The Prime Minister definitely stated that no passes would be issued by the present Government.

Mr. Monroe said he did not propose to say very much this afternoon on prohibition, the Bill they proposed to bring in is to have a Commission to operate in the meantime, a Commission to be chosen from both sides of the house, to sit and take evidence from various temperance organizations or other bodies.

With regard to a minimum wage mentioned by the Leader of the Opposition, the Prime Minister agreed that it would be a very fine thing, and very beneficial to the people in particular and the country in general.

SIR JOHN CROSBIE wished to say a few words regarding the matters before the House. He said that it appeared as if some of the Members on the other side of the House had become angels in the space of an hour. In referring to the dismissals by the present Government he called the attention of some of the Hon. members on the other side of the House who mentioned the dismissals made by the Government. He called the attention of Mr. Halfyard to the dismissal of the Captain of the S. S. Prospero, and the appointment of Capt. John Field, three or four years ago. He also called the attention of Mr. Grimes to the time when he opposed him, and defeated him in Fort-de-Graves, when Mr. Grimes dismissed a girl from a Post Office in that district. Sir John pointed out to some of the members on the other side that when they were in power they thought absolutely nothing of dismissals, they dismissed all and sundry where and whenever it suited their purposes, and in cases where they could not lery well dismiss, they granted pensions and made new appointments.

MR. PETER CASHIN rose to thank the leader of the Opposition for the good opinion which he expressed of, and the commendable remarks made by the Leader of the Opposition concerning his father, who was a member of this House for thirty three years. He felt certain that Mr. Hickman was sincere and in earnest.

In speaking of the subject or question of dismissals Mr. Cashin pointed out that when the Squires Government came into power in 1919 dismissals were the order of the day, they dismissed civil servants left and right, and in a great many cases without any provocation or reason whatever. MR. WALSH—Mr. Walsh said that it was not his intention to say much this afternoon, but he merely rose to express his regret and reiterate the remarks of the Leader of the Opposition, that Sir Michael Cashin was not with them in the House today.

MR. PUDDESTER wished to congratulate the Speaker on the high honour he had attained. He had been pleased to hear the leader of the Opposition utter praise he could not help recalling that during the election fight in Bay de Verde District a paper was circulated there called the Journal, every second line in which was abuse of Sir Michael Cashin. He wished Mr. Speaker success in his exalted office and to Mr. Monroe in carrying out his policy of clean up, keep clean and a square deal to all.

MR. HICKMAN would like to

Hard Work Means Success

There never was a goal worth getting but you must work to attain. You must suffer and bleed for it, cling to your creed for it. Fall and go at it again.

Success is no whim of the moment, no crown for the indolent brow. You must battle and try for it, offer to die for it; Lose it yet win it somehow.

The Pathway to glory is rugged, and many the heart-aches you'll know. He who seeks to be master must rise from disaster, Must take as he giveth the blow.

There's no royal highway to splendour, no short cut to fortune or fame. You must fearlessly fight for it, dare to be right for it, Falling, yet playing the game.

The test of men's merit is trouble, the proof of his work's distress. Much as you long for it, man must be strong for it, Work is the door to success.

VERBENA FLOUR

W. A. Munn, Wholesale Agent

Flour Mill for St. John's will be Great Boom

WILL TURN OUT 1,000 BARRELS A DAY AND GIVE STEADY EMPLOYMENT TO 150 MEN.

Work Will Start Within a Year.

The flour mill project is now assuming definite shape. The Bill in connection with same passed in the House last week. The Prime Minister, Hon. W. S. Monroe, who introduced the Bill, gave the following particulars about it.

The promoter of the project is Mr. Palmer, a native of Trinity Bay, who while in the United States made a study of the flour milling industry and who has interested capitalists abroad in the project. He submitted the project to the Board of Trade last year and received the endorsement of that body.

The plant will be built of reinforced concrete and have a capacity of 2,000 barrels, divided into two units of 1,000 barrels capacity per 24 hours together with necessary boiler house and reinforced concrete grain elevator of 500,000 bushels capacity and equipped so as to handle 12,500 bushels per hour.

The mill building will be eight stories high with an addition on one end three stories high for locker rooms, tool room and motor room and on the other end an addition two stories high one storey of which is devoted to warehouse and one storey to offices. On each end of the mill building there will be a reinforced concrete stair tower so that there will be no openings or communication between the various floors. This is for fire protection.

In one stair tower there will be a push bottom electric elevator. Adjoining the mill proper, which will commence on the third floor, there will be a grain cleaning house which will be divided from the mill by a fire wall. The packing department and warehouse will occupy the two lower floors.

The whole plant will be equipped with the most modern machinery, fully equal to that in any mill in Canada or United States. Machinery will, in the beginning, be installed to turn out 1,000 barrels of flour per day. As soon as the domestic and foreign markets warrant, this will be increased by another unit of an additional thousand barrels.

It has been decided to establish the plant in St. John's, although this is not in the agreement nor has the actual site been determined. If the annual importation of flour amounts to three million dollars in cost, paid, freight and insurance; to outsiders, a very large percentage of this expenditure will be saved to the country and the money kept at home. Besides there is the labor and making of packages. The by-products of the mill will give cheap feeds for cattle which will lower the cost of meat, eggs, butter, etc., and should give a great impetus to farming and the raising of live stock. It will also be possible to bring in oats in bulk with a cheap freight and have them quickly unloaded and sacked by means of the elevator, thus making a reduction in the home cost of this grain.

About two and a half million feet of lumber will be required in logs for the manufacture of staves for barrels which will give a great deal of employment to loggers and saw mill men. There will be a fair and legitimate competition in flour selling and consumers in Nfld. will not be charged unwarranted prices for flour.

The entire cost of the plant when completed will be $650,000 and only $150,000 of this will be spent in machinery. The balance will be spent in labor and material at home. From 100 to 150 men will be required for the operation of the plant when completed, not to speak of those hundreds who will get work in cutting coeprage lumber and the money spent in transporting the material to headquarters in St. John's.—TRADE REVIEW.

Better Roads

Extensive road repairs are being effected throughout this District. The main road and the road between Spaniard's Bay and Riverhead are being widened and repaired and when completed should make an excellent driveway.

Conception Bay scenery is equal to that of any part of the country and, perhaps, because we have become so accustomed to it, we have lost sight of its deep beauty. We would have people touring Newfoundland to visit that section outlying Mackinson's, near Brigus; North and South Rivers, the Gorge, near Spaniard's Bay and Hr. Grace and then tell us whether the scenery this part of the Island compares favourably with that of other places.

Good roads are one of the great essentials in catering to the tourist trade and when the roads of Conception Bay are in good condition, we will get our share of visitors who come to see the beauty spots of Newfoundland.

NEWFOUNDLANDER HIGHLY HONOURED

An official announcement has been made to the effect that: "The King has approved the appointment of Lieutenant-General Sir John S. M. Shea, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., D.S.O., to be Aide-de-Camp General to His Majesty in the place of General Sir Claud D. Jacob, K.C.B., K.C.S.I., K.C.M.G., ADC, who has vacated the appointment on completion of tenure."

The distinguished officer referred to has had a remarkably brilliant military career in India, South Africa and in the European war. As the recognition of his services in the latter he received mention in despatches and the titles of C.B., C.M.G. and K.C.M.G. were in turn conferred upon him. Sir John Shea was born in St. John's in 1869, and is a first cousin of the Hon. George Shea.—Telegram.

St. John's Regatta

The Annual Regatta took place on Quidi Vidi Lake, St. John's, on August 6th. Mr. A. Hiscock was president of the committee and on him and his associates the responsibility of the day's sports rested. The weather on that occasion was ideal for boat-racing and the event took place without mishap.

BOSTON SIZZLING IN A TEMPERATURE OF 97.

Boston, Aug. 8.—The hottest August yet in Boston since 1875 yesterday prostrated 14 persons, while reports of death and illness attributed to heat came from many cities in the State. For two hours in the afternoon the mercury clung to its high point of 97 degrees, and the brisk shower which soaked the streets in the early evening was able to tumble in only nine degrees.

Meigle Arrives from Labrador

Coast Fishery on the Whole is Reported by Captain Burgess as Being Poor.

SHORTAGE OF BAIT HAMPERS HOOK AND LINERS

S.S. Meigle, Capt. Burgess, arrived from the Labrador service early Thursday morning, bringing as passengers W. Hawkins, Miss Benson, G. Cowan, E. W. Gushue, J. Ryan, A. Gooby, T. Travor, Rev. Steaney, S. H. Coward, Miss Cassie Smith and three in steerage.

Capt. Burgess reports that on the whole the Labrador fishery is a poor one. At Cape Harrison, Sloop Cove, King's Bay and Queen's Lakes there is a fairly good sign of fish. At Cape Harrison two of the Sampsons from Flat Islands, B.B., had 1400 and 1200 qts. respectively, and the other 20 schooners there were fairly well fished. At King's Bay 7 or 8 of the vessels have about 700 or 800 qts. each, and Capt. Alf. Carey of Herring Neck was seen coming home with 700 qts. At Horse Harbor and Emily Harbor all the crews average about 100 qts. per man. From Indian Harbor south to Battle Harbor the fishery is very poor with hook and line and bait is scarce.

Between Battle Harbor and Snug Harbor a little herring is being taken. Beyond Queen's Lakes no report was received. At Jigger Tickle there are more schooners than in 30 years, and it is understood their presence there indicates plenty of fish. At Indian Tickle, Sand Banks and Griffin's Hr. a few schooners have from 400 to 500 qts. each but at Grady the voyage is a very poor one.

The Meigle went far north as Nain and made the trip in 19 days, although she was detained two days at Paul's Island and Davis Inlet by fog.

Two men named Cullen, of Carbonar, who had been fishing at Bolster's Rock, were brought home by the ship. One who had been suffering from cancer of the throat was taken to St. Anthony hospital on the last trip of the steamer, and the other is suffering from an internal complaint.—MAIL.

BARNEED GARDEN PARTY

The Methodist congregation of Barneed held their annual Garden Party on Wednesday last. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Boy Scout Band, of this town, under Bandmaster Isaac Dawe. During the afternoon football matches were played between a mixed team from Barneed and Clarke's Beach and Bay Roberts. The Bay Roberts players were Messrs. George Mercer, Willie Mercer, Claude Howse, Hayward Snow, Walter Sparkes, Aubrey Sparkes and Charlie Russell. The names of the Barneed-Clarke's Beach players we do not know. After a hard fought game the Bay Roberts team won by a score of 2 goals to nil. The weather was fine and judging from the large number who attended the Garden Party was quite a success. The proceeds, we understand, go towards the new school.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place to the Methodist cemetery. Rev. S. Baggs, who officiated, took for his text John, 12th chapter, verse 27. Left to mourn are a husband, two sons, Arthur, at home, and Malcolm, at Albany, New York, one daughter, Sophie, at home, two grandchildren, two sisters and a large circle of friends.

NEWS WANTED

News, news, news, news, news! It's enough to give a man the blues. Nobody married, nobody dead, nobody lost an arm or a head. Nobody came in to talk of the 'crap,' no one got boozed and started a scrap, nobody got run in for taking a horn, nobody buried and nobody born. Oh! for a racket, a riot, a fuss. Some one to come in and kick up a fuss, something to stir up the peace laden air, somebody's come to give us a scare. Someone to come in and pay up his dues, anything, anything, just so it's news.

Nfld. Quarterly

We acknowledge with thanks an advance copy of the "Newfoundland Quarterly" from the publishers. This number is especially interesting and contains articles on The New Government, the Visit of Field Marshal Earl Haig, etc. The Summer number would be very interesting to Newfoundlanders abroad who are still interested in the activities of their homeland.

U. S. AIRMEN AT ICELAND

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 6th.—Skirting the south-eastern, southern and south-west coasts of Iceland, Lieut. L. H. Smith and Lieut. E. Nelson today drove their round-the-world planes from Hovin Hornafor to Reykjavik, a distance of some 300 miles in four hours and fifty-nine minutes.

The entire population of the quaint little hamlet of Reykjavik assembled on the pier to watch the two great planes as they circled above the harbour inside the sea wall searching for their buoys. As the airplanes hit the water, with Lieut. Smith leading the way, a small boat put out from the shore and took off the fliers. Arriving at the pier they were welcomed by the mayor of the town and members of the town council and the women presented them with bouquets of flowers.

GLENCOE ASHORE NEAR BRIG BAY

Word was received on August 6th from Capt. Archibald Blandford stating that the S.S. Glencoe had gone ashore at Dog Bay, about 8 or 10 miles south of Brig Bay, but was not taking much water and expected to refloat at high tide. Later messages stated that the ship was leaking and assistance was required to tow her off.

The Prospero was rushed to the scene and was successful in towing the Glencoe off the shoal. After the ship had been refloated no further assistance was required and the Prospero proceeded on her way to Humbermouth.

There is no damage done to the Glencoe as was feared at first and the Railway management have announced that passengers leaving by Tuesday's express will be able to make connections with her at Humbermouth.

"IF"

For Boys at Summer Camps

By P. R. Hayward, in the Target. If you can keep your socks when all about you

Are losing their and blaming it on you; If, when the jam is gone and others doubt you,

You make allowance for their hunger, too; If you can wait and not be tired by waiting

On table when the pantry's scant of pies, And eat what's left without trace of hating,

And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can play—and not make play your master; If you can work—and not make toil your aim;

If, when your tent blows down in grim disaster, You keep your smile in action just the same;

If you can stand to have the boughs you've broken Stolen by knaves to make a bed for fools;

And, with a word of banter fifty spoken, Go gather more with only borrowed tools;

If you can make one heap of all your bedding, And air it on a fence rail by the wood;

And when it rains not talk about hard sledding; And call a cinder in the coffee good;

If you can jump and run and swim and paddle, And yet not throw waste paper in the yard;

Nor grumble at your leader in the saddle, Nor every say that anything is hard;

If you can put on "stunts"—and keep your virtue, And never "wangle" out of work or such;

If neither bugs nor loving ants can hurt you, If mealtime counts with you—but not too much;

If you can fill each swiftly passing minute, With sixty seconds' worth of strain less fun;

Yours is the camp and everything that's in it, And—which is more—you'll be a boy, my son!
