FREDERICTON.

Death of Rev. Geo. A. Currie and Mrs. Wm. Lookhart.

Rev. J. D. Freeman's Farewell—The City Will Have a Great Exhibition.

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 15.—The death occurred at Boston on Saturday of Rev. George A. Currie, son of Wm. Currie, Royal road, York County. He was formerly pastor of the Free Baptist church at Fredericton Junction, Rustigornish and Norton station. Last October he accepted the pastorate of the Free Baptist church at Cheoggin, Yarmouth County. Consumption followed a severe cold contracted six weeks ago, resulting in death at Boston, where he went a week ago. He remains buried here at noon today, accompanied by his brother, J. H. Currie, of Boston. His widow will arrive from Yarmouth this evening. Rev. A. W. Currie, of Waterville, Carleton County, is also a brother of the deceased.

The death occurred on Sunday of Mary Jane, wife of Wm. Lookhart, a Fenian raid veteran. She had been ill only a few days with grippe. Several sons and daughters survive.

Mrs. Currie will arrive in St. John by the steamer Prince Rupert this afternoon, and if in time will go on to Fredericton. The Free Baptist ministers of the city will meet the steamer and Rev. C. T. Phillips will accompany Mrs. Currie to Fredericton.

FREDERICTON, April 14.—Fredericton is to have an exhibition next fall. The government has assured the agricultural society of this city a grant of $2,000 towards the exhibition, the city council has appropriated $1,500 for the same purpose, and will be asked by the society to increase the appropriation to $4,000, and the county council will be asked to give $1,500 for the same purpose. The society will meet this week to fix the date of the fair and formulate definite plans for buildings, etc.

Rev. J. D. Freeman preached his farewell sermon tonight, taking as his text 2nd Cor., 13th chapter, 14th verse. Owing to the basement of the church being yet flooded, the service was held in the Opera House, which was completely filled. The congregation included many of his friends who gathered to hear the reverend gentleman's farewell address. He was able to make the pleasing announcement that provision had just been made for the last of his services, which will be held on the church. During his six and a half years' pastorate 164 persons have been baptised and nearly 800 added to the church.

KING EDWARD AND VON MOLTKE.

LONDON, April 15.—King Edward today received General Von Moltke, nephew of the former field marshal, and Lieut. Usedom at Marlborough House. The German officers were accompanied by a sergeant wearing the new German field service uniform sent by Emperor William for King Edward's inspection. The uniform differs little from the usual military uniform, but King Edward expressed warm approval of the uniform. He made Gen. Von Moltke a knight commander of the royal Victorian order, and Lieut. Usedom a commander of the same order.

Deewe's wood plant of the American Sheet Steel company at McKeesport, and the company, about half of the men are on a strike today and the operation of the plant is badly crippled. The cause of the trouble was the recent discharge of seven men, who, the men say, were dismissed because they were members of the newly organized lodge of the Amalgamated association. About 400 men are out.

JEWELS WORTH $50,000.

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 15.—The death here of Mrs. Robin Lohr reveals the fact that some and unguarded in her house was great wealth in jewels and precious stones. NEW YORK, April 15.—In the course of a special article on the situation in Venezuela under date of April 2, a correspondent of the Tribune says: "The Venezuelan government is trying to negotiate a loan of $30,000,000 in New York, and the matter is now being considered. Notwithstanding the government Venezuela has had much of the time for the last fifteen years the nation's receipts always exceeded its expenses, and the government can pay the interest on all its debts, if it so chooses, with perfect ease. Ayala, the leader of the campaign against the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company, has been nominated vice-president of the republic."

CHINESE AFFAIRS.

PEKIN, April 15.—Li Hung Chang has applied to Gen. Chaffee to leave behind when he departs Capt. Tillson and a sufficient number of men to police the Chinese city, as the Chinese fear the district will not be well looked after when controlled by other foreigners. ## CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

CRIMES OF A DAY.

Murders, Lynching and Suicide Reported in Last Night's Despatches.

Negroes Trilled with Bloodhounds—The Ready Revolver Does Its Deadly Work.

HAZLETON, Pa., April 15.—Ebon Fletcher was shot to death this morning in a fight in Kilne township, near Meadco. The alleged murderer, Metro Grassella, with whom the dead man boarded, has fled. Both men were intoxicated at the time of the shooting.

HASTINGS, Fla., April 14.—Julius Eskew, white, manager of the Armstrong turpentine camp near here, was shot and killed by Jim Curby, a negro, last night. Eskew has $100 on his person, and the negro wanted the money. After Eskew was dead Curby started towards the body for the purpose of robbing it, but was frightened away. He escaped into a swamp, where he was captured with the aid of bloodhounds. While Sheriff Perry was waiting in the depot with his prisoner to take him to St. Augustine, unknown persons fired through a window and put five bullets in Curby's back. Curby, believing he would die, made a confession implicating Bob Lee, another negro. Bloodhounds are now after Lee. The crime has caused intense excitement and there may be a double lynching.

WALLACE, Idaho, April 14.—Jack Powell was shot and killed at Mulien last night by Deputy Sheriff Williams. Three men fired from ambush at Deputy Sheriff Rose and Williams about midnight, wounding Rose twice. Deputy Williams fired six or seven shots in the direction of the flashes and fatally wounded Jack Powell. His body was not found until today. Martial law, which has been in force in Shoshone county since April 23, 1899, was abolished last Thursday by Governor Hunt. Threats had been made that with the abolition of martial law all officers would be shot, and it is said the officers never went out alone after dark.

SILVER CITY, N. H., April 14.—Red Weaver, a well known border character, has been killed at Alma, a little mining camp seventy miles northwest of here. Weaver had threatened to kill Tom Holliman, who had previously called him to account for certain remarks against a young woman's character. Later they met again and fired at each other. Weaver fell dead with a bullet through his head. Holliman was exonerated.

WICHITA, Kas., April 14.—At Granite, Oklahoma, today, J. T. New killed his brother-in-law, John Doyle. Both had revolvers, but Doyle did not attempt to use his weapon. He went in to a neighbor's house to avoid the quarrel, but New followed him and shot him three times. Bad blood had existed between them. New is under arrest.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Mrs. Kate Pitt, who was shot into last (Saturday) night by her husband, Harry Pitt, is lying at her home very dangerously wounded. One of the bullets from her husband's revolver plowed a deep furrow under her right eye and another struck her back of the right ear. Thomas Welsh, a boy who did chores about the Pitt home, and who was also shot by the man, is in a hospital with a bullet in his abdomen, another in the left arm and a third in the shoulder. The surgeons say Pitt may recover, but there is very little hope for the boy.

Pitt made a living by selling sand and stone to contractors and also carried on a beer bottling business in his own house, his wife attending to this part of it. He was of a quarrelsome disposition, and when he came home about midnight tried to get possession of a jug of whiskey which his wife had hidden in the stove. Her effort to keep him from the whiskey so enraged him that he tried to brain her with a poker, but was prevented by the Welsh boy. This only added to his fury and, drawing his revolver, he shot his wife in the head, and then going into the next room killed himself.

OSWEGO, N. Y., April 15.—Police man Fred Miller shot and fatally wounded John R. Madigan early today. The man was apparently endeavoring to effect an entrance into Herman Law's saloon. He was discovered by the proprietor, who informed the police. They surrounded the building, and Madigan, who was on the roof of the barn in the rear, attempted to escape. Miller fired a shot in the air to frighten the fugitive, but without effect. He then fired two shots, one entering Madigan's side, causing a mortal wound. He was captured and taken to the police station before the wound was discovered. Madigan has always been a good reputation, and it is supposed he was intoxicated. A companion who was with him escaped.

WANTS RATS EXTERMINATED.

CHICAGO, April 15.—The Tribune says Dr. Nagusha, who is a bacteriologist of prominence in Japan, is at the additorium annex. He has been making a study of the plague of rats in Hong Kong, in Bombay, in Japan, and in other countries. He was convinced, he said, that rats were the greatest propagators of contagious diseases. He says they destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property each year. Japan, said Dr. Nagusha, had made an official investigation of the harm done by the rodents and the result of this investigation would be brought to the attention of the civilized world with an appeal for the extermination of the pest.

UNCLES PAUL AND UNCLE SAM.

The Star begs to assure that eminent patriot, Oom Paul Kruger, of his distinguished consideration. Never has there been in America, nor intimately acquainted with the subtle qualities of American statesmanship, Uncle Paul may have been puzzled and disturbed by the cables he received from this side on Saturday.

THE WAR IN SIMONDS. There Will Be a Hot Time at Loch Lomond Tomorrow.

The little civic contest in St. John city tomorrow is a mere brush between pigmies compared with the battle of the giants out in Simonds. WONDERFUL McEWEEN. A Great Exhibition Saturday Evening—New Programme and Reduced Prices This Week.

Mind reading and "the murder trial" will be the attractions at the Mechanical Institute this evening. McEween the hypnotist will stay another week in St. John, and the prices of admission for this week have been reduced.

On Saturday evening McEween had the largest class of subjects he has yet had. The number included a well known young gentleman, who was there also on Saturday afternoon, and who in the evening proved quite a successful subject. As the evening progressed he became more and more susceptible to the hypnotic influence, even to the extent of assuming a rigid attitude in the statutory work, remaining like all the others in that state until McEween's word "now!" called them all out of it. This young gentleman said after the test that while in this state he was semi-conscious, and felt a trembling of the muscles, which, in the case of the other subjects were rigid, but that he was utterly powerless to move body or limb. McEween observed that with more practice, and greater concentration of thought, absolute rigidity would be obtained, as in the case of others who were on the platform. The same young gentleman when he went to sleep went into a much deeper slumber than the others, and did not as quickly open his eyes and perceive the imaginary things which were suggested to him. But when McEween spoke directly to him and pointed out to him the imaginary air-ship, his puzzled expression changed to one of eager interest and he immediately began to look upward and talk with the other members of the hypnotized group, who all seemed to see an air-ship and were eagerly disputing as to its exact shape and means of propulsion. And just when they were all arguing and gestulating and pointing, McEween cried "stone!" and they stood as if petrified. Whatever expression was on his face, was retained, and in one instance they were allowed to remain that way for nearly five minutes—the most interesting group of living statuary ever seen in St. John—and the most striking figure was the tall form of the young gentleman already referred to. There were fourteen in the group. When McEween cried "now!" each went on with word or act just where he had broken off, as if there had been no interruption whatever.

McEween induces his subjects to go into hypnotic sleep, suggests to them something they will see or do when they wake up, then wakes them and straightway they do or see the things suggested to their mind in the preceding state. Saturday evening's audience was intensely interested as well as amused, and frequently broke into hearty applause.

This evening, with a change of programme and reduced prices of admission, there should be a large attendance. McEween's work in his line has never been equalled in St. John.

PUSHING TRADE INTO ONTARIO. The extension of his tea trade into Ontario by R. H. Estabrook, the St. John tea importer and blender, has proved a gratifying success. Most encouraging reports have been received. Within a week or two after supplies were received came letters from dealers saying that their customers liked Red Rose tea better than any they had ever used. Along with this gratifying news came repeat orders. This trade is now regularly established and being vigorously extended in that province, under the supervision of Rupert Pratt, whose headquarters are in Toronto.
