P. E. I. SEED OATS. Produce Commission Merchant, To day the Aorains Fost responds as follows:

"We have been requested to state that the paragraph which was published by a contemporary peatwday respecting the Duchess of Edinburgh was inserted without the authorization or knowledge of the Duke of Edinburgh."

The best comment on this I take from one of the provincial newspapers:

"The announcement in the Times of to-day about the Duchess of Edinburgh has been the cause of more laughter and not very complimentary talk than any announcement that has appeared in the public papers for many a day. The thing has been universally condemned as indelicate, and surprise has been everywhere expressed that the Times should have been made the victim of what may turn out to be a laughable hoax. Meanwhile, it is perhaps as well that the Duke of Edinburgh is not responsible for taking the whole world into his wife's confidence three menths after her marriage. Some of the London papers have tonight been informed that what has been done in the Times was done without his consent and without his knowledge."

The Senate Speaks. Two of the Government's pieces of legislative jobbery failed to become law because the Senate regarded them as too outrageous to be allowed to pass. One was the bill for the gerrymandering of Huron and the other the clause of the Election Bill that disfranchised one-third of the qualified voters of Prince Edward Island. The Huron bill proposed to reconstruct the Huron Ridings (Parliamentary electoral districts) by taking a Grit parish from a Riding that could spare it without injury to the Grit majority, and adding it to another Ridmajority, and adding it to another Rid-ing in which the Grit majority at the last has been petitioned against and there is Long speeches are not tolerated. Then at night the number not tolerated. Then at night the number of Bills, Reports and other Parliamentary documents which pass, is something marvellous. True, very few of them pass in a Parliamentary way—most of them pass from one member to another, and generally with striking effect. It is true the Iusolvency Law has been postponed, but the larger end it is pierced longitudinally to the depth of about a quarter of an inch, and the hole is provided with a screw thread. The advantage claimed is that the needle will make a smaller hole in the fabric than is caused at present by the bulk of thread around the eye of the old-fashioned implement.

The Flying Cloud.—The bark Flying Cloud was only 41 days from the east coast of England to St. John, one of the quickest trips made this season. We are informed by the captain and the pilot who brought her in that she was not leaking badly, as stated Tuesday and that the steam pump was used simply because there were no men on board after her arrival. She is a first-class clipper ship, has a certificate from the Board of Trade, England, and is prepared to carry passengers. The published statement came from sailors on board, and was telegraphed to the Associated Press of the United States before its publication in this city. Messrs. A BAC HELOR'S CONSOLATIO

A Romance of the Needle.

The "Howe" and the "Wilson" both val too light, And the "Osborne" broke down on a fell.

After trying in vain many other Machines, Without any hope of success, He called where the "Singer New Family" kept, And they quickly relieved his distress.

Tor here half a dozen machines were engaged. In stitching of different sorts, Which they did so complete, and with so little He acknowledged the truth of reports.

Though he'd searched through the infin Then the stitch was so neat, so elastic, so stroi That he vainly endeavored to bresk it, And so many at vantages in it combined That he quickly decided to take it.____.

blished in the Press of Saint John, I beg to are you that, if elected, I will not fail to do t sincerely regret that a measure which should eling, and now threatens to embroil the Gov ment of the Province with the Dominio arliament. This is a very serious cond nings and it is evident that something will have to be done to remedy it. I think certain improve ents and modifications might be made in the Bill which, while doing no wrong to Protestants, ould lead Catholics to accept it without furt pposition. But the School Bill in its pre-ET SHAPE IS TOO EXPENSIVE. All that we HOULD BE HAD FOR ABOUT TWO THIRDS OF WHAT WE ARE NOW PAYING, and at the same tin
