

VICTORY FOR SUFFRAGISTS IS ABOUT TO DAWN, SAYS THEIR PLUCKY LITTLE CHIEF

Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst Appeals to The Advertiser as "a Matronly Little Woman"—Talks With Enthusiasm of Great Advances.

BLAMES LONDON MEN BECAUSE ALL THE WOMEN DID NOT VOTE

"We Don't Like To Be Dressed as Children—We Simply Desire to Improve Conditions"—Claims Rioting Is Justified.

Militant suffragists are not the dangerous and fire-eating mortals the dispatches paint them. That is, if Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst, the leader of the movement, is any criterion by which to judge.

She is at the Tecumseh House today, and when seen by The Advertiser, talked freely of the movement. One expected to see a Juno-like, masculine woman with a firm jaw, and a punch concealed in each hand. One's vision of even suffragists might become distorted by reading the accounts of the fearful movement.

One could hardly believe that the little woman who introduced herself to the reporter was the leader of the militant suffragists, those determined women who are driving political parties to despair, and creating world-wide sensations.

A Motherly Little Woman. Mrs. Pankhurst does not look more than four feet six inches. Her steel grey hair is arranged in a coiffure suitable to a lady of middle life. Clad in plain blue, there is no suggestion of affectation or dressing for effect. Just a plain, motherly little woman with a mission—one who believes in her work as she believes in her life, a dreamer, in truth, with a great desire to do good in the world.

One could scarcely bring himself to imagine that she, at the head of the suffragists, had stormed Parliament, and made the greatest Government in the world grope. Yet she did it, more's the wonder. And she will continue to do, she is certain, until the women of England and other countries are given that which they most desire—the ballot. Not that in itself the ballot is the summum bonum of a woman's existence, but it means emancipation, the possibility of a woman expressing herself in making the laws that shall govern her and her children.

Is 1912 Their Year? She chattered quietly, enthusiastically, optimistically of the future, and declared that the day for which she and the others had fought was about to dawn. Victory had been won, they would soon enjoy the fruits of it.

Mrs. Pankhurst is just completing a tour of Canada and the United States to tell the women of America what the movement means. She has been greeted with immense audiences across the continent, and is looking with interest to her trip home, when she will again enter the thick of the battle for the ballot.

"I am finishing my tour of Canada and the United States," said Mrs. Pankhurst to an interviewer. "It has been a pleasant journey. We have been greeted by large audiences and the warmest of sympathy."

All Women Are Roused. You know, the woman's movement is worldwide. In every nation, Persia, Turkey, the United States, everywhere they are bestirring themselves. They are claiming their rights. It is proper and fit that the movement should reach its highest point in England, where conditions are such as demand that something be done. We want to raise the status of woman everywhere, and we do not think that any better way could be found than by claiming the ballot. It means emancipation.

"Think in England—there are five and a half millions of women in England who must earn their living. The average wage is about $2 a week. There is an enormous problem. That must needs be settled. The status of the workingman was raised, and he was made a more self-reliant individual when he obtained the ballot. The same will apply to the woman. It will mean better wages, and better conditions."

"Treat Us as Grown-Ups." "We women simply desire to improve conditions. We think we can do so. We want to be treated as grown-ups, not children. When it comes to paying taxes, to earning our own living, we are grown-up, but when it comes to a matter of voting, we are classed as children. We do not like that, and can you blame us?"

The reporter admitted that he could blame Mrs. Pankhurst for absolutely nothing. With her grip of problems, social and otherwise, she would be certain to wield an influence for good everywhere.

The interviewer pointed out that in London, with 2,500 more women than men, and hundreds of them in possession of the franchise, there was not any stampede of female voters on election days to the polls.

"The men are quite to blame in this," she answered. "There is no effort to get out the women's vote—they are not valued as they should be. Just as soon as the politicians view the woman's vote as something worth going after, then it will be brought, and when women become a political force, there will be plenty of them at the polls."

As to the Government. The Asquith Government is not one of the divinely ordained institutions, in Mrs. Pankhurst's mind. And it is all due to the question of votes.

"The only opposition we have comes from a few people in high places," she continued. "The common people are with us. They do not heckle us any

The vote in favor of the bylaws was somewhat surprising. That three of the four should be acceptable to the people was quite unexpected for at the city hall. The West London bridge and the garbage disposal bylaws had rather pronounced majorities, but the incinerator plan had a small plurality. The members of the board of health are more than delighted with the result in the latter instance, and will commence at once to prepare plans for the new garbage incinerator.

The storm sewer bylaw received fairly good support. It had few friends at court, although some system is recognized as a necessity. City Engineer Wright had not time to prepare plans or a topographical map in time for the electors to see exactly what was needed, or probably a favorable ballot would have been given.

Decisive Vote for Commission. The plebiscite form of government received a great endorsement, the vote being three to one in favor.

TOOK CARBOLIC WHILE DESPONDENT

Cherry Street Lady Driven to Desperate Act Through Recent Illness.

NO DOCTORS TO BE HAD

Suffers for Nearly an Hour Before Relieved by Death—Found Impossible to Secure Medical Aid.

While suffering from a temporary fit of despondency, Mrs. C. A. Wilson, of Cherry street, wife of a cutter at Greene, Swift & Co., ended her life on today at the home of her friends, Mrs. J. J. Meyers, at 40 Dundas street, West London, by swallowing the contents of an ounce vial of carbolic acid.

Mrs. Wilson had been in ill-health for some time, and was a patient at Victoria Hospital only a short time ago, when suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Both the deceased and her husband came to this country from England.

Mind Deranged. While no definite information could be obtained, friends declared that Mrs. Wilson had become temporarily deranged, and that she had attempted to commit suicide on previous occasions.

Yesterday she returned from St. Thomas, accompanied by her sister, whom she left at home this morning to attend to household duties, while she left to do some shopping in the business section.

Before returning to West London, Mrs. Wilson called at B. A. Mitchell's drug store and purchased an ounce of carbolic acid. The usual strict precautions were taken by the clerk, who questioned the customer as to what she desired the poison for. Mrs. Wilson stated that she wanted the acid for the purpose of washing out a cut, and also took a quantity of olive oil with her. The sale was recorded and Mrs. Wilson affixed her correct name and address.

Appeared Downcast. From there she proceeded to the home of Mrs. Meyers, a friend, at 40 Dundas street, West London. On her arrival she appeared very downcast, and while she did not state the cause of her trouble, she broke down and wept. Mrs. Meyers prepared a cup of tea for her and talked for a while.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Mrs. Meyers had occasion to go into the kitchen, and on returning to the dining-room noticed that her visitor lay in her chair and appeared to be in great agony. The odor of carbolic acid gave some indication of what had occurred, but despite the fact that she was still conscious she made no statement. Mrs. Meyers hastily called Mrs. O. C. Burningham, of 38 Dundas street, and P. C. Harpur, who was passing by, and they arrived on the scene within a few minutes. The officer had some knowledge of the principles of first aid and gave what antidotes he found available.

The patient was in very bad shape, however, and while the woman lived from 11:30, when she took the acid, until 12:20, no means of conveying her to the hospital could be obtained. Neither had she any form of medical attendance.

Her husband was called from his employment, and her sister and family.

GIVES TWO MILLIONS TO FIGHT THE REBELS

Empress Dowager of the Chinese Anxious to Carry On the Campaign.

[By Canadian Press.]
Peking, Jan. 2.—The Empress Dowager, who is desirous of carrying out a campaign against the revolutionaries, advanced 3,000,000 taels (about $2,300,000) this morning to Premier Yuan Shi Kai for that purpose. There are many indications that the northern troops are anxious to resume hostilities.

CHARGED WITH KILLING HER LITTLE SON

Woman Says Child Fell From Bridge Into Stream and Was Drowned.

Bath, Me., Jan. 2.—The alleged murder of her 3-year-old son, Howard Martin Keefe, Mrs. Mildred Keefe was placed on trial in the supreme court here today. The child's body was found in October last in a pool of water only a few inches deep connected with a pond on the Brunswick road. Mrs. Keefe asserted that while she was walking along the road with the little boy he fell over the bridge and was drowned. The medical examiner decided that the child's death resulted from some unknown cause, the nature of which he could not determine.

ADDRESSES ELECTORS

Mayor-Elect Graham Declares Slogan Is No Empty Promise.

Mayor-Elect Graham spoke briefly last evening, when the returns showed that his election was assured.

Mr. Graham stated that the time at which he spoke was the most joyous moment of his life, that he would do his best to prove that he merited the confidence which his supporters displayed, that he was tired after the campaign, and for that reason would make no attempt to make a prolonged address.

In concluding he declared that his slogan, "Build up London" was no idle campaign talk, and that within a year he would have something to show the electors.

THE RUSSIANS TAKING A TERRIBLE REVENGE

Persians Who Attacked Czar's Soldiers Being Tried and Executed in Batches.

Tabriz, Jan. 2.—The Russian court martial, sitting here to try the Persians captured during the recent fighting in the streets of this city, is exacting a heavy toll for the casualties suffered by the Russian troops. The officers composing the court martial are trying the prisoners in batches, and in nearly every case they are condemned to be summarily hanged, and their bodies displayed throughout the day in the public square.

Among those hanged are Shegat Ul Islam, the head of one of the religious sects, and the chief member of the local assembly Selk Salem.

Shua Ed Dowleh, brother of the ex-Shah arrived here this afternoon to assume the governorship. He was escorted by a body of Russian Cossacks.

MILITARY BALL GRAND SUCCESS

Event In Armories One of the Most Fashionable Ever Held In City.

DRILL HALL IS DIVIDED

Wall of Palms and Guns Make Striking Effect—Masses of Evergreens Displayed.

The military ball, which was held in the armories last evening, under the auspices of Lieut.-Col. Campbell and the officers of the Seventh Regiment Fusiliers, proved to be one of the most successful and fashionable events held in this city for several years.

Several hundred couples were in attendance, and the attractively decorated ballroom, together with the unusually beautiful costumes of the ladies, presented a veritable fairy-world of music, gallantry and beauty.

To Capt. W. R. Brown, the honorary treasurer, Lieut. T. C. Wright, honoree, and the various committees of officers, a great deal of credit is due for the entire success of the affair. Among those present were a large number of the best-known military men of London and Western Ontario.

Decorations Attractive.

Seldom have more beautiful decorations been seen in London. The drill hall was divided by a wall of palms into a ballroom and dining-room. The ballroom was decorated with red, white and green streamers, flags and bunting. Around the walls the waistcoating was massed with evergreens, above which were hung shields and green drapings at intervals. The windows were artistically curtained with long flowing ribbons of green, closely hung together. White and red streamers and bunting predominated in the dome of the hall, above the ball room and over the dining-room hung an elaborate lattice-work of white and red ribbons.

The Company's Quarters.

The eight company armories were all attractively decorated with evergreens, flags and bunting. One in particular was favorably commented upon here at the ballroom by Mr. Victor Blackwell, and exhibited a tent arranged as upon the field of battle, with all the camp effects and guns and accoutrements of war arranged about it.

The rest and lounging rooms of the gallery were also tastefully arranged and decorated, and card rooms were

FOURTEEN PERSONS HURT IN WRECK ON WABASH

Passenger Train Leaves Track Sleepers Crashing Into Railway Station.

[Canadian Press.]
St. Peters, Mo., Jan. 2.—Wabash passenger train No. 1, from St. Louis to Kansas City, left the track at the station here at 11 o'clock last night, and from ten to fourteen persons were injured. All but two coaches turned over and eight of them were burned. One of the sleepers crashed into the little station here, and toppled it over.

The wreckage caught fire, and the station was burned. No one was in the place at the time, and all passengers are said to have escaped from the coaches which turned over. The engineer and fireman are the most seriously hurt. Many of the passengers are said to have miraculously escaped serious injury.

There were nineteen competitors, including Tom Longboat, the Indian runner, who dropped out of the race at the sixteenth mile, when he was leading by three hundred yards.

French-Canadian Holds Record For Election to State Governorship.

[Canadian Press.]

Providence, R. I., Jan. 2.—For the fourth successive time Governor Aram J. Pothier, a French-Canadian, was ushered into the office of chief executive of the state today, when he and the other members of the state government took the oath of office. It was the first time since the adoption of the state constitution in 1842 that a governor had ever been inaugurated for four consecutive terms.

Results of the Municipal Elections

Toronto, Jan. 1.—The election of Toronto's mayor by acclamation and a general feeling on the part of the voters that they were having too many elections this year resulted in one of the most apathetic elections this city has seen in recent years.

The chief fight was for the board of control, which will be composed next year of H. C. Hocken, J. O. McCarthy, Thomas Foster and Thomas Church. The first and last named were members of the 1911 board. Foster is a former controller, and McCarthy was an alderman last year. Controllers Spence and Ward were among the four defeated candidates.

The ratepayers were in a saving mood and defeated by a 3,000 majority the proposition for a five-million-dollar tube railway, while the $1,700,000 Bloor street viaduct scheme carried by only 1,300. The extension of the hydro-electric system and the civic car lines were approved, but the annexation of North Toronto and the proposed two years' term for council members were voted down.

Woodstock.

Woodstock, Jan. 1.—The municipal elections, which took place here today, aroused very little interest. Dr. A. B. Welford was elected over Clifford Kemp, barrister, for mayor, by a majority of nearly five hundred. Others elected were: For aldermen, J. G. McBeath, Geo. King, T. D. Broom, John Butler, W. D. Hobson, John Manning, George Parker, W. S. West, J. W. Scarf.

For board of education, G. Whitlaw, E. A. Rea, F. Downs, Dr. John Mearns and W. S. Bean; for water and light commissioners, R. E. Butler and John Bain.

Hamilton.

Hamilton, Jan. 1.—Owing to the fact that there was no contest for the mayoralty only mild interest was taken in the municipal elections today. The feature was that heaves to raise $333,000 were submitted, and the electors carried all but one, that to purchase the Oaklands property on the north shore of the bay at a cost of $40,000. They authorized an expenditure of $750,000, as follows: Waterworks extension, $550,000; east end park, $50,000; central fire station, $55,000; Gore Park convenience, $14,000. The vote was: Waterworks, 3,705 for, 1,149 against; east end park, 2,253 for, 1,955 against; fire station, 2,904 for, 1,468 against; Gore Park, 2,922 for, 1,468 against.

Chief interest centered in the election of controllers. Controllers Bailey and Gardner were re-elected at the head of the polls, and ex-Controller Allen and ex-Ald. Jutten were also elected. Controller Bailey got 4,523 votes, Gardner 4,448, Allen 3,841, Jutten 3,612, Morris 2,951, Robson 2,286, Sweeney 2,273, Forth 2,202, Campbell 1,422.

The aldermen elected: Ward 1, Ald. Hornum; and ex-Ald. G. H. Milne; (Continued on Page Three).

January White Sale Begins Tomorrow

Preparations have been made on a larger scale than ever before for this January Sale of White Goods. While the values of past January White Sales are not yet forgotten by hundreds of customers of this store and also the fact that many specials offered at the beginning were not obtainable nor could not be purchased later by many who came back for a second supply after a closer inspection, examination and comparison of values at home, yet we are quite justified in stating that the specials listed here for Wednesday's selling have never been excelled.

A MARVEL OF WHITE—Extending from section to section under the lofty white ceilings, this transformation from the displays of heavier winter merchandise and mixture of colors to a sea of white, presents a most pleasing and animating scene, which begins with the displays in Dundas street windows, and continues through Linen and Cotton Sections, with four large sections in main aisle given to the display and sale of special Embroideries direct from the makers in St. Gall, and stretching from east to west side, covering large sections on the Second Floor. The biggest display of Ladies' White wear ever made at this store. Only a few of the special lines on sale tomorrow are listed here.

All goods ordered by letter delivered free by post, express or freight, no matter where you live.

Hand Embroidered French Underwear

Every woman loves it; modest and simple in design, and so dainty and exquisite. Made of such sheer material and such beautiful handwork, so patiently accomplished by the most expert workers, that no one can fail to prefer it to the more elaborate lace trimmed Underwear.

A most elaborate display of this beautiful White wear is shown in our January display. Note the very reasonable prices, possible only through importing direct from Paris. Examine these garments, and ask yourself if ever you handled such garments at these low prices.

January Sale Cottons and Linens

In view of the preparation which has been made during the few months past for this January Sale, and after a careful inspection of the values awaiting through the great purchases which have been made for this event, we do not hesitate to state that the values are bigger than ever before, and point to greater savings. There is a peculiar trait about this store—that even when there is talk of higher prices, that is the very time when we are usually well stocked and prepared to offer goods at prices under, rather than over, regular value. We have no fear of the cotton strike. Our stocks for the January Sale are here in the stock room, and plenty of them, not at regular, but special sale prices.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

New blood was a winning cry in the aldermanic elections. Because of the large field it was inevitable that some competent candidates, new and old, should miss the twelve topmost runners of the ladder, but an admirable council has been elected. The successful school trustees will strengthen the board of education in the right direction, though here again some good men were unavoidably crowded out for the same reasons.
The re-election of Water Commissioners Chapman and Pocock was, of course, a foregone conclusion. All three candidates for the mayorality had always shown great strength at the polls, and the division of the vote among one Conservative and two Liberals suggests that many electors followed party inclinations.
With regard to the aldermanic, school, and water boards, politics evidently played no part. Candidates politically opposed were in hearty co-operation, a hopeful and creditable state of af-airs. With such a council, Mayor-elect Graham will have an opportunity to do the city good service in the coming year.

The garbage bylaw had a close call,
and it will be the duty of the department which has the spending of the money to prove to ratepayers who opposed it that the system will be as effective and economical as promised.
If this is done, the city will be a great gainer, and one of its worst re-proaches be wiped out. Apparently the sewer bylaw, which has been twice rejected, will not be carried until the need of it, which is real and will become more urgent with time, is impressed forcibly on the taxpayers by the whole weight of the city administration. The success of the bridge bylaw, which directly affects only a section of the city, shows what can be done by an organized effort. The majority for the North Midland bylaw, while the project is still only on paper, is a striking evidence of public sentiment in favor of the development of radial railways in the territory tributary to London.
Had the scheme been an actuality, the majority would have been ample to carry the bylaw. The overwhelming affirmative vote on the question of substituting some form of commission government for the present system is an expression of dissatisfaction with past conditions. The vote will lead to further discussion of the proposal and to its presentation in a practical shape.

THE NAVY AGAIN.

Le Devoir, the organ of the Quebec wing of the Ottawa Cabinet, continues its attack on the Canadian and Australian naval laws. "To utilize the national pride," it says, "in order to procure the construction of pretended local fleets, to bring these fleets under the same discipline, so as to facilitate common action, and then, on the day of crisis, to profit by the weakness of politicians, the passions of race, and the false notions on the duty of the colonies that are diligently disseminated, in order to throw all into the imperial furnace—it was a calculation that might appear to be reasonable. But the success, if any, would have been of short duration, and the reaction terrible, perhaps tragic. They may deceive or purchase a parliament; they may wheedle a popular verdict. But they do not in this manner change the ideas or needs of a people."

Peeping out of Le Devoir's article is,
of course, the Nationalist aversion to the clause of the Laurier naval law—it is the same as the Australian—which empowers the Government to put Canadian warships under the control of the British admiralty in time of war. The Nationalists are perfectly right in assuming that in the day of crisis the patriotism of politicians, which Le Devoir calls their weakness, would put Canada's strength behind that of the mother country, in the defence of British possessions wherever threatened. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues have no desire to conceal this implication of their policy, or to apologize for it. The majority of the electors of Quebec, for their honor, stood by him. His work has been undone, for a time, at least, by an Anglo-Canadian prime minister co-operating with the French-Canadian politicians for whom Le Devoir speaks. It is easy to tear down, but how are these groups to co-operate in building up a system of naval defence?

CHRISTMAS AT THE SOUTH POLE.

Sir Ernest Shackleton, in his mind's eye, saw Explorer Scott eating his Christmas dinner at the South Pole in a biting wind and with the temperature 40 degrees below zero. If the picture proves authentic, Christmas Day, 1911, will go down in history as the date of the crowning feat of Antarctic exploration.
Shackleton himself and three companions celebrated Christmas, 1908, almost without sight of the South Pole, dining on a plum pudding saved from their jettisoned supplies. That either the British explorer, Captain Scott, or the Norwegian explorer, Amundsen, has now traversed the remaining hundred-odd miles from Shackleton's furthest south is entirely possible.
Shackleton, on scaling an 8,500-foot glacier near the end of his journey, found himself on a plateau, which apparently extended to the pole. Had he had 50 pounds more of food on his expedition, it is likely that the discovery of the South Pole would today be an old story.

But whether Captain Scott has carried the Union Jack to the South Pole from the point where his old lieutenant left it less than a degree and a half distant, or whether Nansen's comparison has won the race, the event in either case will add new laurels to polar exploration.
With both poles "discovered" will there be a subsidence of interest in this form of adventurous rivalry? Will the incentive then exist to fit out expensive expeditions and undergo the hardship necessary merely for the secondary distinction of following the track of the pioneers who blazed the way?
The future of polar exploration with its prizes won is problematical.

New blood and good blood run well together.

It was another great day in Ontario for the three-fifths clause.

The ex-aldermen are numerous enough to form an old boys' association.

To many people the week from Christmas to New Year's inclusive is the same old Saturnalia that it was in pagan Rome.

The manner of ushering in the New Year at famous London and New York restaurants suggests that fools and their money are better parted.

The peace dinner at New York passed off successfully without Roosevelt, and it looks as though the United States intends to get along without him in future. He has put himself on the wrong side of a great moral question, and he will have to repent before he can "come back."
Colonel Hughes' scheme for drilling forty thousand school children would have come with better grace if it had not been preceded by his truculent boast at Montreal that he would arm a million men to drive back the Yankees. It is a pity that a swashbuckler with a loose tongue was put at the head of the militia department.

THE BEST CHANCE.

[London Opinion.]
The Admiralty—I think shall write to you father and ask him if I may marry
you. What sort of a letter would you advise me to send?
The girl—I should write an anonymous
one if I were you.

A DESIGNING SUITOR.

[Boston Transcript.]
She—My father made a fortune before he died. Would you like to know how he did it?
He—No, but I'd like to know if he still has it.

THE HARDEST EVER.

[Edmonton Journal.]
Lord Curzon has taken the leadership of the "no votes for women faction." He will find that being Viceroy of India is recreation beside his present task.

[Puck.] Visitor—Are your children doing anything for you in this year's last illness?
Old Man—Yes, they're keeping up my life insurance.

NOT AFFINITIES.

[Harper's Bazar.]
Misses—And why did you leave your last place?
Maid—Me and the missus was not congenial.

MUCH OUT OF LITTLE.

[The Sketch.]
The Lady—How much does the old cow give a day, Tom?
Tom—About eight quarts, ma'am.
The Lady—And how much of that do you sell?
Tom—About twelve quarts, ma'am.

THE SHREWD STATESMAN.

[Cleveland Plaindealer.]
"Did you make up the list of the twenty greatest women that the editor asked you to prepare?"
"Not on your life! But I've told at least 100 women that they were sure of a place on it."

BATHTUB'S LONG VACATION.

[Philadelphia Times.]
Prof. Carl Kelsey, of the University of Pennsylvania, in lecturing the other day upon insanitary conditions among the poor, remarked that sometimes bad conditions were not due to the inability to obtain better ones.
"A landlord," said Dr. Kelsey, received a letter last spring from one of his tenants which read:
"Dear Sir,—Please send someone to fix our bathtub. It leaks, and it's nearly time to begin using it again."

JUST WANTS TO PROVE IT.

[Exchange.]
Even if a girl doesn't care anything about a man, she likes to show others that she can make him care for her.

PURENESS OF INTERPRETATION.

[New York Press.]
A woman can tell you what the baby is trying to say better than the baby could if it knew how to talk.

THE THIRTY SCOT.

[Westminster Gazette.]
Much has been said these days of the cost of living having gone up, but it is rather curious to find that in spite of it all the amount of money deposited in the savings banks of the country continues to increase by leaps and bounds. A year ago the Edinburgh Savings Bank showed an increase in its funds of £104,000; this year it shows an increase of over £160,- 000. Not only has the amount deposited increased but the number of depositors has increased also. So some Scots at all events still believe in taking care of the babbees.

THE OLD TOWN.

[Haberdscher.]
When you have travelled miles from home—
To cities of renown,
In matters not where you may roam,
Back, somewhere, there's a town
That's calling to you, soft and low,
And hants where'er your steps may go.

Beside the river of romance
Your feet may find their way;
By distant shores, perhaps, you chance
In eagerness to stray.
The old town's somehow, with you still,
It's calling now, and always will.

You take your way by foreign strand,
Across the distant seas,
In palaces great or castle grand,
With luxury and ease;
On dusty trail, on mountain track,
The old town's calling, "Lad, come back!"

And all the lands so wondrous strange,
Though we tramp up and down,
In this wide world we'd never change
For just one little town.
Where'er we may take our way—There's one place beckons night and day!"

NOT TROUBLED WITH COLO FEET.

[Philadelphia Inquirer.]
A woman can wear low shoes and thin silk stockings in winter time without feeling any ill effects, but she would rapidly go into a decline if deprived of her furs.

WEALTH AND DIVORCE.

[Toronto Mail and Empire.]
In the great divorce cases, Vanderbilts families have been eleven divorces in five years, and it is hard to escape the conclusion that great wealth is even more conducive to domestic misery than great poverty.

ART AND A SAUSAGE KING.

[Vancouver Province.]
Robert Henri, the New York painter, was talking about the millionaires who buy, merely to show off, doubtful "old masters" at fabulous prices.
"Their knowledge of art," Mr. Henri said, "is about equal to that of the Chicago sausage manufacturer who said to Whistler:
"What would you charge to do me in oil?"
"Ten thousand," said Whistler, promptly.
"But suppose I furnished the oil," said
the millionaire.

NOT AS EASY AS IT LOOKS.

[Babycare Independent.]
In a recent after-dinner speech, Hon.
Mr. Monk said: "I thought a cabinet minister's life merely meant smoking good cigars and handing out soft jobs.
I find there are many problems to face and much work to be done." It is always that way. The outward glitter and tinsel attracts attention, while the underlying soaking with perspiration is not seen.

GOING OVER THE BOOKS.

[Washington Star.]
"This item in your campaign expense account mystifies me," said the auditor.
"I don't understand what you mean by
'Taw material.'"
"That's an error on the part of the stenographer," replied Senator Sorghum.
"It should read, 'hurrain material.'"

A PARDONABLE PARADOX.

[Washington Star.]
"That young son-in-law of mine," said Mr. Curmure, "says I'm unreasonable. And maybe he's right."
"What's the trouble?"
"Before their marriage I objected to his attentions to my daughter. Now I'm objecting to his inattention."

MAYOR OF WINDSOR

Executive After a Bitter Contest.
Windsor, Jan. 1.—Mayor J. W.
Hanna was today re-elected for a third term as the city's chief magistrate by a majority of 1,100 votes over former Ald. J. A. Ennsor. The campaign, though short, was marked by considerable bitterness.
The election for aldermen resulted as follows:
Ward 1—F. Howell, H. J. McKay,
N. Irwin. Ward 2—D. M. Eagle, J.
A. Shepherd, J. W. Keough. Ward 3—
Hamilton Trumble, A. Meersky, J.
W. Bannell. Ward 4—W. McFarish,
W. Lanspary, Euclid Jacques.

HARRISTON FACTORY
MAKING EXTENSION

Casket Company Will Manufacture
Oak Goods and Add Department Employing Many Men.
[Special to The Advertiser.] Harriston, Jan. 2.—As a result of the Harriston Casket Company having decided to go into the manufacture of oak goods a new department employing a number of additional hands will be added to the concern.
Harriston's new rink was formally opened yesterday and a large crowd enjoyed the ice.
It is likely that a newer and larger engine will be installed shortly in the pumping station, as the present engine is deemed much too small to meet the requirements, particularly in case of emergencies.
Mr. John Gates, of Fernie, B. C., is visiting with relatives here.
St. George Sunday school will put a cantata on Friday evening next.

WINGHAM CURLERS

Big Tournament Held at Parish Club Was Much Enjoyed.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
Wingham, Jan. 1.—At a tournament of the Wingham Bowling Club for the trophy the prizes were won as follows:
First, A. Alderson and J. Dodds; second, J. Mason and W. A. Campbell; consolation, W. Graham and N. Watson and W. Galbraith and B. Blackhall.
Mr. Blackhall, who has been employed by Mr. T. Henry Christie for some time, has accepted a position in Toronto with Messrs. Walker & Clegg, leaving for that city shortly.

Mr. C. H. Haly, who left Wingham some time ago to take a course in business college in London, has returned and accepted a position in the glove and mitt factory of Mr. W. D.
Pringle.

DR. GREGOR DEAD.

Montreal, Jan. 2.—Dr. Gregor, professor of modern languages at McGill University, is dead in Arizona, where he went in search of health. He was suffering from tuberculosis.

A Few Lines of Most Anything

Many a man who had aldermanic hopes in 1911 is destitute for twelve long months. Yet he may sleep easier during the year, for all of that.

The new council has a mandate from the people that London does not want to "let well enough alone."

No, kind peruser of our columns, it has not yet been learned who was elected mayor of Tripoli.

No one will be angry if that "mad as a hatter" expression is brought to light at this moment.

Now for the expropriation of the present city hall premises for a new city hall. How about it, gentlemen-elect?

Did you manage to get into a taxi bound for the polling booth? Neither did we.

It should be a fitting welcome note to Mrs. Pankhurst that the "female of the species" proved herself quite as dearly as the male voter in yesterday's little expression of opinion.

London's ladies never formed a street sweeping brigade, but they did help to put through the garbage bylaw.

London "done noble" at the polls on Jan. 1, and established a precedent worth training for the 364 days left for us.

Just to think, away, Bennetness, that each of us—the doctors willing—possesses those 8,712 hours for our very own. No one can filch them from us, and we cannot draw on the reserve. Wouldn't we waste a little less? Let's!

According to the logic of that Woodstock boy, if a hill is a field with its back up, isn't a valley a field with its chest out?

At the same time it must be fine for the hill to have its back scratched with a disc harrow once or twice a year.

Something that ought to go in the
"What-has-become-of" class is the old-fashioned pipe with the tin cap on it smoked by a man with a ragged mo-stache.

Just once more now: If a hill is a field with its back up is the land roller merely a massage outfit?

And when they sow the hill does it get a stitch in its back?

GUESSES AS TO HEADS OF THE COMMITTEES

Several Names Mentioned in Connection With the Various Chairmanships.

There is much speculation about the city hall today as to the complexion of the various committees of the city council.

The choice of chairmen is one of considerable moment, and already several names are mentioned.

A bylaw to bonus the Dominion Car-
ners to establish a factory here was carried 17 votes more than the necessary number being cast.
In Howard Township there was also a keen battle on local option, but it carried, 458 for and 330 against, just 10 more than the required three-fifths.

The name of Ald. W. E. Robinson is mentioned for the board of works.
He has had considerable practical experience, and with plenty of time at his disposal it is thought that he is especially fitted for the place. It is probable that Ald. Rose, Ald. Bennett and Ald. Blandford will be associated with him in that work. It may possibly be that Ald. Rose will be transferred to No. 3 committee, and Ald.
Coles placed on No. 2.

Ald. Ashplant will be selected for
No. 3 committee. With him will be
Ald. Murphy, Ald. Wright and Ald.
Rose or Ald. Coles.

This is the arrangement at the present time, it is understood, but it is probable that changes will be made before the organization meeting on Monday next.

It is also suggested that Ald. Coles be made chairman of the manufacturers' committee. There will be other chairmanships yet to be decided upon.
If a city hall is built, there is a possibility that Ald. Bennett will be head of the special committee in charge.

A meeting of the nominating committee, which will be composed of Ald.
Robinson, Moore, Wright, Richter and Ashplant, will be held Wednesday night to arrange matters.

SUCCESSION DUTIES

Duties Collected in December Nearly as Much as a Year Ago.

[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, Jan. 2.—Had a check for $15,000 reached J. B. McLeod, solicitor to the treasury on Saturday instead of today the succession duties collected in December would have been little less than the total for the corresponding month in 1910. The collections for the month totalled $75,555.12. For two months of the fiscal year, beginning Nov. 1, they total $127,417.56. This morning Mr. McLeod received a check for $15,000 on account of dues from the estate of the late Frank Smith, of Sarnia.

In December, 1910, the collections totalled $94,483.59, and for the portion of the fiscal year ending that month they totalled $125,339.39.

Among the York County estates, which contributed to the provincial coffers, was that of Goldwin Smith, with a balance of $1,484.24.

LADY LEA'S WILL.

London, Jan. 2.—The will of the late Lady Herbert of Lea, who died Oct.
30 of last year, was probated today.
The estate amounted to $159,905, net.
Lady Elizabeth Herbert of Lea was the widow of Sidney Herbert, who was minister of war at the time of the Crimean war. She was the author of several books and was a leading member of the Roman Catholic society. She was the mother of the Earl of Pembroke and of the late Sir Michael Henry Herbert, who was British envoy at Washington.

LOCAL OPTION MET
DEFEAT AT RIDGETOWN

Thirty-Four Votes Needed to Meet the Three-Fifths Requirement.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ridgetown, Jan. 2.—After a strenuous fight here, local option was defeated today. The vote was considerably in favor of abolishing the hotels —290 voting for it and 234 against—but the necessary three-fifths majority was wanting by 24 votes.

For mayor, R. W. Stokes was elected, his plurality being 84 over Mr. John McGeehough. In the three-cornered fight for the reevehip, Mr. George Grant defeated both R. Newman and Mr. J. West.

A bylaw to bonus the Dominion Car-
ners to establish a factory here was carried 17 votes more than the necessary number being cast.

for the reevehip, and F. G. Walby defeated S. M. Douglas by 228 for deputy-reeve.

The following votes were polled by the candidates for the council, the

LONDON WINS BASKETBALL GAME

Defeat Stratford Team by a Score of 45 to 21.

JIMMY PRESTON HURT

Fast Stratford Hockey Player Wrenched His Knee, and Had To Retire.

The London Intermediate Basketball team, by their Ontario Basketball League, added another victory to their already long list, when they took the fast Stratford intermediate team into camp by the score of 45 to 21. The game was fast and furious from start to finish, the heavier Londoners being a little too fast for the lighter Stratford boys. A regrettable feature of the game was an injury to Jimmy Preston, the well-known Stratford hockey player, who was playing for the intermediates. In the second half, Preston wrenched his knee so badly that he had to retire, and the injury was likely to last for some time. Up to the time of his accident, Jimmy had been playing a whirlwind game, and was practically doing all the scoring for his team. He was wrenched by his knee shortly after the second half started, but pluckily stayed in the game. This was his undoing, however, for a few minutes later, while checking one of the London forwards, he slipped and fell. As a preliminary event, the local juniors played the Stratford Juniors and succeeded in winning out by the close score of 17 to 16. The game was a close one, and was enjoyed by the large crowd present.

The teams lined up as follows:

Stratford points—Fraser 2, Babb 2, W. J. Preston 3, Riddle 4, J. Preston 10, Stephens 4, Jones 2.

London points—Morris 31, Shaw 2, Stephens 4, Jones 2.

Reference—Taylor.

Stratford points—Kemp 1, McPherson 1, McDonald 2, Valentine 2, Harris 1, Morris 1, Burridge 1, W. J. Preston 1, M. Riddle 1, J. Preston 1.

London points—Thomas 6, Harris 5, Morris 4, Burridge 2, W. J. Preston 1, M. Riddle 1, J. Preston 1.

Famous Three-Fingered Pitcher Will Engage in Business at Chicago.

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, Ill., Jan. 2.—Mordecai Brown, star pitcher of the Chicago National League Club last season, arrived in Chicago from California for New Year's and immediately confirmed rumors which had preceded him that he had finished with baseball. Brown declared last night that it was true that he would probably engage in business with Alderman Al. Tearney, who is also president of the Three T's League.

"My contract with the club has expired," said Brown, "and I do not believe I could earn otherwise. Therefore there is scarcely a chance that I will be seen on the mound next season."

NEW EDINBURGH EASY FOR FAST VICTORIAS

Winnipeg Team Has Little Trouble in Defeating Ottawa Seven.

Winnipeg, Jan. 1.—The Winnipeg Victorias decisively defeated the New Edinburgh hockey team from Ottawa tonight by the score of 9 to 2. The game was a good exhibition and was attended by three thousand spectators. The latter part of the game owing to the lack of practice, as they were only able to have four workouts before coming here.

Jack Ryan was not allowed to play, the local team refusing to acknowledge the Quebec branch amateur card which he held. He acted as judge of the play. The local team claims that his card should have been issued by the A. A. U. of C. as he played professional hockey in two provinces.

The defence was the weak point of the visitors, while the local aggregation was in the best of shape, and put up one of the best games this winter. New Edinburgh plays the Monarchs on Thursday night.

O'TOOLE WRITES THAT HIS ARM IS BETTER

Pittsburg's $22,500 Pitcher Says That He Expected to Shine Among Top-Notchers.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Pittsburg, Jan. 1.—Martin O'Toole, has written a letter here to the effect that his pitching arm is entirely well and that he expects to shine among the topnotchers during 1912 after the dis-appointment of the season just closed. The $22,500 pitcher writes:

"The statements in regard to my arm being sore and in bad condition are very much exaggerated. It feels as free and as strong as ever. Early this afternoon I bowled with a local team, but decided to quit to give my arm all the rest possible. I am spending a great deal of time in the woods and taking daily exercise, which helps to prevent me from getting too heavy. I expect to finish during the coming season among the leading pitchers of the league."

Do you know the fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, and require no internal treatment whatever? Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely and see how quickly relief comes. For sale by all dealers.

JACK JOHNSON READY TO FIGHT JIM FLYNN

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, Jan. 2.—Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion of the world, said he would sign an agreement today to fight Jim Flynn, the Pueblo freeman, at Windward, Nev., either in June or July. Johnson's end in the bout, according to the agreement, will be $20,000, and a third interest in the moving pictures. The champion has stood out for $30,000 win, lose or draw, for his next fight.

Johnson believes the present arrangement will amount to the same thing.

GREAT DAY AT DUFFERIN PARK

The Best Racing That Has Been Seen For Some Time.

SOME CLOSE FINISHES

2:20 Pace Was Desperately Contested, and Had To Be Postponed Until Today.

Toronto, Jan. 2.—The best racing that has been seen at Dufferin Park for many a long day is the general verdict of the large number of spectators who journeyed out to the course to witness the final day's programme of the Toronto Driving Club's winter meeting, and the attendance was fully as large as on Christmas Day. The day could not have been better for winter racing, and as the track was in first-class shape it was but fitting that the racing should also be good.

More close finishes than are usually seen on a harness horse track, crowded in the afternoon's racing, and for the close finishes occurred in the 2:40 pace, which, by the way, is still unsettled.

The regular programme consisted of the 2:20 pace and the 2:12 pace, besides a race that had been carried over from Saturday, when Little Fred had won two heats and Little Dick and Shaun Rhue, one each.

Nat Ryan was again behind Shaun Rhue and won the two heats necessary to annex first money for the horse's owner, James O'Halloran, the popular ex-president of the Dufferin Driving Club.

As already stated, the 2:20 pace was desperately contested. Eight horses started for the opening heat, and seven of those were there in the hunt when darkness caused the race to go over until this morning at 10 o'clock, when the race was finished, free of admission to the spectators. The Under-taker, that won the 2:30 pace the opening day, was favorite at even money against the balance of the field before the first heat, and although Barrett did all in his power to get down in front each heat, two was all he could gather in. His sulky wheel collapsed after passing the half in the first heat, and he excused himself, but in the second Nellie Mack, the previous heat winner, and Doctor Wilkes beat him. However, Barrett got him down in the third and also in the fourth, but along came the outsider, Billy B., and proved to be the final heat of the day. The first two heats were fast, the second, in fact, equalling the time made in the 2:12 pace, each heat of which was paced in 2:31. Nat Ryan's gelding, Dr. Wilkes, was the half-brother of the race, as he was barely beaten in each of the first three heats, taking second each time, and now stands only for fourth money, as there are three heat winners.

The non-appearance of Knight Onwards and St. Anthony robbed the 2:12 pace of considerable interest, but still five classy pacers faced Starter McKee. Furioso, Mattie Chimes, Lou Jean, Nellie G. and Nellie Edna made up the field, and Furioso was the favorite. The unexpected happened in this race, as the rank outsider in the betting, Nettie Ethan, took the select society racers into camp by the straight heat route, favored by a good start in the opening heat, she went from fourth position to the rail at the first turn, shutting off Mattie Chimes, that had drawn the rail position, and she led throughout the balance of the race. Furioso, the original favorite, made a close finish in the third heat, but fell short by half a length. Lou Jean and Nellie G. appeared to be short of work, and the old mare, Mattie Chimes, is plainly out of form.

The horses were finally all shipped by express to Ottawa tonight, where the big winter meeting opens at Lansdowne Park Thursday. The summary:

MRS. PANKHURST TONIGHT.

The Manitoba Free Press, in reporting Mrs. Pankhurst's lecture there recently, says: "The lecturer discussed the value of the enfranchisement of women would be for the community at large, saying that their better understanding of such problems as infant mortality, the white slave trade, and conditions of women's labor would have them better solved. In matters of home life, marriage and divorce, she claimed that as one of the participants, a woman should, of a certainty, have a voice in the legislation which was made on these matters." Much light will doubtless be thrown on this "Votes for Women" question, by this talented woman, in Wesley Hall, tonight, where she speaks under the auspices of the Woman Teachers' Guild.

RESTLESS CHILD SAVES FAMILY

Parents Awakened by Whimpering Find House Filled With Smoke.

The restlessness of Gordon, the 3-year-old son of Mr. Charles E. Carruthers, 144 Tecumseh avenue, South London, prevented the family from being lulled to sleep last night. About 2 a.m. the child became restive. The smoke was choking him, but the rest of the family were sound asleep. By his continued crying, he awakened Mr. Carruthers, who found the house completely filled with the fumes. He roused his wife, who was sleeping with the baby in another room.

Mr. Carruthers rushed downstairs, but was compelled to come back owing to the dense smoke. He climbed out on the balcony, and slid down the post in order to open the front door and allow fresh air to enter the house. The trip was a dangerous one. Mr. Carruthers' hands and side being lacerated and bruised.

Driven Out by Smoke. Mrs. Carruthers worked her way out the front door with the baby. Her husband had rushed to the residence of Mr. W. H. Lister, and called the brigade. Not seeing him, Mrs. Carruthers rushed back into the house, but the smoke drove her out. Mr. Carruthers took his wife and the baby to the neighbors, where they spent the night.

All the family suffered from the cold. However, none are feeling much worse for their experience today.

The first started from an overheated furnace pipe, and completely gutted the house. The damage was done to the extent of $600, and the owner, Mr. William Watson, 140 Tecumseh avenue, is protected by insurance. Mr. Carruthers' loss is about $500, on which there is no insurance.

"It was a narrow escape," said Mr. Carruthers to The Advertiser. "The boy awakened us, or we undoubtedly would have been suffocated. I am feeling none the worse for my experience now, and the others are better."

Men of lofty aim in action."

In your new home we wish you success, prosperity and contentment, and further, "that your eyes may catch the larger vision of possible things, that your heart may throbb with altruistic sympathy, that your mind may be exercised with noblest thought, that your hands may be active with kindest deeds, that your body may glow with vigorous health, that your soul may be helpful, pleasurable, worthy experiences may be yours in the years to come, is the sincere wish of your London friends.

As a slight token of our appreciation, we ask you to accept this wish, for, in the hour two of them turned up, at the time, may you realize that though absent, you are not forgotten.

Signed on behalf of, and for the Life Underwriters' Association of London: T. B. PARKINSON, VIVIAN REEVE.

Defective Wire Started Blaze Which Was Checked Just in Time.

Another bad fire was narrowly averted on Tuesday morning, when Thomas Gillean's jewelry store was found to be on fire. The morning squad of policemen was just going on duty when the fire was noticed, and an alarm turned in. It was found that a defective electric wire had ignited the partition, and it was blazing hungrily when noticed. Had it not been noticed for half an hour, or even less, a great loss would have followed. However, the flames were extinguished by the fire department with little loss.

SACRIFICED LIFE TO SAVE SISTER

Motherless Lad of Six Shields Little Sister From the Flames.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Jan. 2.—Louis Brown, a motherless boy of six years, lost his life in a fire early today because he stayed by the side of his 4-year-old sister, Helen, and shielded her from the smoke and flames. A fireman, searching the burning building, found the two children unconscious and clasped in each other's arms beneath a bed. The boy had wrapped his jacket about the little girl's head to protect her. She had put her head down on his breast and locked her arms about his waist.

Helen's condition is serious. The children had been forgotten in the general scramble for safety.

DEFENSE CONFERENCE

Hon. George Perley to Consult With the Admiralty While Abroad.

Ottawa, Jan. 1.—Hon. George M. Perley, minister without portfolio, who is at present on a holiday trip in the south of France, will, before his return in February, consult the Admiralty and the War Office in London on behalf of the Government in regard to Canada's co-operation in Imperial naval and military defence.

Mr. Perley's conference with the Imperial authorities will, of course, be preliminary to more formal discussions for several months in London next year, which Premier Borden, Hon. J. D. Hazen and Hon. Col. Hughes expect to arrange.

Meanwhile Mr. Perley's report to his colleagues will probably form the basis for the cabinet's consideration of some definite programme of naval defence, than is now possible, owing to the divergent views held by the members of the Government.

FOUND DEAD IN WOODS

Webber Newcombe Shot While on a Hunting Expedition.

Hallfax, Jan. 1.—Three young men went out back of one of Dartmouth, takes to spend New Year's Day shooting. They were to meet at a rendezvous at 3 o'clock today, but at that hour two of them turned up, but Webber Newcombe, the third, did not appear. A shot was heard, but whether it was a signal from him or an accident was not known. At midnight some of the searchers found him dead. He is believed to have been shot accidentally. Newcombe had been a traveller for Smith Brothers.

CEASE TO EXIST

Famous Firm of Wernher, Beit & Co. Goes Out of Business.

[Canadian Press.] London, Jan. 2.—The famous firm of Wernher, Beit & Co. ceased to exist with the last day of 1911.

It was dissolved by mutual consent, but the diamond trust is transferred to the firm of L. Brelvierey & Co.

The banking house of Wernher, Beit & Co. has for years been the leading European firm operating in South Africa. Otto Beit, a bachelor, 55 years old, who succeeded in 1905 to the wealth of his brother, the late Alfred Beit, who was a partner of Cecil Rhodes in South Africa, is probably the richest citizen of England. Sir Julius Wernher, his partner, is also one of England's best-known financiers, and his entertainments at his London home, and at Luton Hoo Park, Bedfordshire, are famous for their lavishness and good taste.

PTOMAIN AND WHISKEY KILLED BERLIN TRAMPS

Adulterated Alcohol Said To Be Responsible For the Scores of Deaths.

[Canadian Press.] Berlin, Jan. 2.—Since the arrest of the wholesale liquor dealer who had been in the habit of disposing of wood alcohol and groceries to the inmates of the municipal Shelter for the Homeless, the consumption of the adulterated whiskey found on his premises, no further poisonings have been reported in the city. The official total of the dead occurred at the night shelter, is 72 out of 182 cases reported to the authorities, but these do not include a number of persons who have died and been taken sick outside of the municipal institutions.

The fact that a great proportion of the deaths might have been prevented if the cause of the sickness had been more promptly established has excited much criticism. The authorities, in replying to this, assert that both ptomaine and wood alcohol were responsible for the early cases, but these were undoubtedly mostly caused by ptomaine poisoning.

SAWED DYNAMITE BLOWN TO ATOMS

Italian Laborer Was Killed at a Construction Camp Near Lindsay.

Lindsay, Ont., Jan. 1.—An Italian named Valentino Luciano was killed at the construction camp on the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway Seaboard branch, near Glenora. He was sawing dynamite, when a spark got into one of the cases, causing a terrible explosion. Luciano's body was blown to atoms, and a companion assistant some distance away was seriously injured and is now lying at the Ross Memorial Hospital here. Six cases of dynamite exploded. Luciano was about 23 years of age and unmarried. The remains were buried in the Roman Catholic Cemetery, the Rev. Archdeacon Casey officiating.

SACRIFICES HER LIFE TO SAVE HER MOTHER

Girl Receives Bullets Fired by Angry Father at His Wife.

New York, Jan. 2.—Bertha Reiman, a 14-year-old girl, stepped in front of a revolver in the hands of her stepfather, George Benz, a salesman, and received in the temple two bullets which had been intended for her mother. The girl died in an ambulance half an hour later; the mother was uninjured. Benz fled down the street but was captured and held without bail, on a charge of murder.

Mrs. Benz and her husband separated for several months. She was returning home from a New Year's celebration early this morning to her home at Evergreen, L. I., when the man accosted her and her daughter in the street. After a few angry words he leveled the revolver at his wife, but just at that moment the girl sprang forward and cried: "Go away and don't bother mamma."

A moment later she fell mortally wounded.

THE YOUNG WIFE

Who uses "Purity" Baking Powder will have food pure and nutritious—food that her husband will enjoy. So many of the young wives of today are ridiculed on account of their baking. "As heavy as lead" is said of the young wife's baking. Very often it is true.

It is not for want of skill, but there is a reason—she does not use "Purity" Baking Powfood is invariably the result when you use "Purity."

"NEW BLOOD"

In an election campaign that created more interest than any in recent years, Mr. C. M. R. Graham was elected mayor yesterday over his two opponents, Ald. R. C. Eckert and
W. J. Stevenson. His plurality over
Stevenson was 1,485, while he defeated
Eckert by 1,775 majority. He came within 73 votes of polling as many as the two in every ward, and in a vast majority of the divisions, he had a plurality.

For the council, the aldermen of 1911 were almost annihilated. Nine of the number were left at home. The Citizens' State elected their eight candidates, while ex-Ald. G. E. Rose, unseated by Ald. W. A. Wilson last year, is again selected. The clean-up
was the most complete in recent years.

For the board of education, three
new men were chosen, Dr. Balfour,
a former trustee, being left out. Dr.
Teasdale, the other retiring member,
was elected.

1,500 Votes for Lawrence.

For the water commission, Chairman Pocock and Commissioner Chapman had comparatively a walk-over.
In spite of that fact, Joseph Lawrence polling a much larger vote than was expected. Nearly 1,500 electors cast their ballots in his favor. It was not expected that he would get half that number.

The ratepayers were in a generous mood yesterday, two of the most money-hungry recurring their indignation. The bylaws defeated were those for storm sewers and for the North Midland. The latter did not secure sufficient votes, according to Mr. Baker, although it had a majority of the vote cast.

There was a big vote in favor of commission form of government. This plebiscite has been discussed at considerable length the past year, and a great body
of sentiment was developed in its favor.

Organization Told the Story.

Returning to the majority campaign,
the result occasioned no great surprise.
Mr. Graham had a strong following

Mr. Hawtrey Splendid.

"Dear Old Billy," presented by the
celebrated English character actor, Mr.
William Hawtrey, at the Grand Opera House twice on the holiday, made a most favorable impression on local the-atregoers and established Mr. Hawtrey as a real London favorite. The opportunity of seeing the play again tonight
will not be overlooked by those who appreciate good acting.

The play is a farce, concerning "mixed couples," giving rise to all manner of complications. The dialogue is clever, the action of the play moves rapidly, and there is a snap about it that is most appealing.

Above all, it was presented in brilliant fashion. Mr. Hawtrey has surrounded himself with a company of artists. It must be mentioned that they are all English, a synonym apparently of historical excellence. In any event, it was a delight to greet such an excellent company of actors and be entertained
by them.

Mr. William Hawtrey is a clever man, bigger than his play, in fact. He is always a success.

Miss Jane Burdy, E. R. Kelly, Bernard
Fairfax, Henry Redding, Miss Ruth Tomlinson, Miss Cassie Jamieson and the others deserve particular mention for their fine work.

"Dear Old Billy" will be repeated this evening, and any person wishing to enjoy a fine entertainment should not fail
to see this play.

A Great Favorite.

It is a singular coincidence that the two most famous and highest-salaried vaudeville headliners that have been imported from the London Music Halls, Harry Lauder and Alice Lloyd,
should make their first appearance in
New York City less than two weeks
apart, and also appear in this city
within a few weeks of each other.
When these two foreign celebrities
have appeared on the same bill, as has been the case in London on sev-

erall occasions, it is said that neither
could be pronounced the favorite.
However, in two important particulars, the engagements of these international favorites in this city differ materially. Harry Lauder did not appear until the performance was more than half over, while Mr. Lloyd appeared at the stage practically all the time, assuming the fascinating title role of "Little Miss Fix-it," as well as doing her remarkable vaudeville act.
She appears at the Grand Opera House tonight of this week. The plan is now open.

"The Chocolate Soldier."

That happy combination of the genius of George Bernard Shaw and
the wit of Oscar Wilde, "The Chocolate Soldier," will be with London theatregoers next Saturday, matinee and
night, at the Grand.

It is chiefly the music which has given the opera its remarkable reputation. Such melodies as "My Hero,"
the waltz refrain, which is the dominant theme of the entrancing score,
"The Letter Song," "Would You Be Lovely," and "The Chocolate Soldier," are still holding the memories of thousands, and sung and played with the greatest delight throughout the country. These beautiful lyric gems have a magnificent setting in the rich
and elegant production which Mr.
Whitney is presenting this season. The chorus is composed of sixty splendidly trained singers, and the orchestra
of 25 picked musicians is alone worth hearing.

was no use doing anything; it would pass.

Fortunately, about two years ago, I got "Fruit-a-tives," and they cured me.

Since then, I take them occasionally and keep free of pain. I am sat-

Rheumatism and they will cure any-

JOHN B. McDONALD,
Rheumatism, Sciatica and Lumbago

substance formed as a result of acid indigestion and impurities in the blood.

"Fruit-a-tives," or intensified fruit juices, is the greatest blood purifying medicine in the world.

"Fruit-a-tives" keeps the whole system free of uric acid and will aleral occasions, it is said that neither

could be pronounced the favorite.
However, in two important particulars, the engagements of these international favorites in this city differ materially. Harry Lauder did not appear until the performance was more than half over, while Mr. Lloyd appeared at the stage practically all the
time, assuming the fascinating title
role of "Little Miss Fix-it," as well as
doing her remarkable vaudeville act.
She appears at the Grand Opera House
tonight of this week. The plan is now open.

"The Chocolate Soldier."

That happy combination of the
genius of George Bernard Shaw and
the wit of Oscar Wilde, "The Chocolate Soldier," will be with London theatre-
goers next Saturday, matinee and
night, at the Grand.

It is chiefly the music which has
given the opera its remarkable reputation. Such melodies as "My Hero,"
the waltz refrain, which is the dominant theme of the entrancing score,
"The Letter Song," "Would You Be Lovely," and "The Chocolate Soldier,"
are still holding the memories of
thousands, and sung and played with
the greatest delight throughout the country. These beautiful lyric gems
have a magnificent setting in the rich
and elegant production which Mr.
Whitney is presenting this season. The
chorus is composed of sixty splendidly
trained singers, and the orchestra
of 25 picked musicians is alone worth hearing.

"NEW BLOOD"

In an election campaign that created
more interest than any in recent
years, Mr. C. M. R. Graham was elected mayor yesterday over his two
opponents, Ald. R. C. Eckert and
W. J. Stevenson. His plurality over
Stevenson was 1,485, while he defeated
Eckert by 1,775 majority. He came within 73 votes of polling as many as
the two in every ward, and in a vast majority of the divisions, he had
a plurality.

For the council, the aldermen of 1911 were almost annihilated. Nine
of the number were left at home. The Citizens' State elected their eight
candidates, while ex-Ald. G. E. Rose,
unseated by Ald. W. A. Wilson last year, is again selected. The clean-up
was the most complete in recent years.

For the board of education, three
new men were chosen, Dr. Balfour,
a former trustee, being left out. Dr.
Teasdale, the other retiring member,
was elected.

1,500 Votes for Lawrence.

For the water commission, Chairman Pocock and Commissioner Chapman had comparatively a walk-over.
In spite of that fact, Joseph Lawrence
polling a much larger vote than was expected. Nearly 1,500 electors cast their ballots in his favor. It was not expected that he would get half that
number.

The ratepayers were in a generous
mood yesterday, two of the most money-
hungry recurring their indignation. The
bylaws defeated were those for storm
sewers and for the North Midland. The
latter did not secure sufficient votes, according to Mr. Baker, although it had a majority of the vote cast.

There was a big vote in favor of commission form of government. This plebiscite has been discussed at considerable
length the past year, and a great body
of sentiment was developed in its favor.

Organization Told the Story.

Returning to the majority campaign,
the result occasioned no great surprise.
Mr. Graham had a strong following

Mr. Hawtrey Splendid.

"Dear Old Billy," presented by the
celebrated English character actor, Mr.
William Hawtrey, at the Grand Opera House twice on the holiday, made a
most favorable impression on local the-atregoers and established Mr. Hawtrey
as a real London favorite. The opportunity of seeing the play again tonight
will not be overlooked by those who appreciate good acting.

The play is a farce, concerning "mixed
couples," giving rise to all manner of
complications. The dialogue is clever,
the action of the play moves rapidly, and
there is a snap about it that is most appealing.

Above all, it was presented in brilliant
fashion. Mr. Hawtrey has surrounded himself with a company of artists. It must be mentioned that they are all English, a synonym apparently of historical excellence. In any event, it was
a delight to greet such an excellent company of actors and be entertained
by them.

Mr. William Hawtrey is a clever man, bigger than his play, in fact. He is always a success.

Miss Jane Burdy, E. R. Kelly, Bernard
Fairfax, Henry Redding, Miss Ruth Tom-
linson, Miss Cassie Jamieson and the others deserve particular mention for
their fine work.

"Dear Old Billy" will be repeated this
evening, and any person wishing to enjoy a fine entertainment should not fail
to see this play.

A Great Favorite.

It is a singular coincidence that the
two most famous and highest-salaried vaudeville headliners that have been
imported from the London Music
Halls, Harry Lauder and Alice Lloyd,
should make their first appearance in
New York City less than two weeks
apart, and also appear in this city
within a few weeks of each other.
When these two foreign celebrities
have appeared on the same bill, as
has been the case in London on sev-

erall occasions, it is said that neither
could be pronounced the favorite.
However, in two important particulars, the engagements of these international favorites in this city differ materially. Harry Lauder did not ap-throughout the city, while both Ald.

Eckert and Ald. Stevenson cut in on each other's territory to a very great deal.
There is no denying the fact also that Mr. Graham had a complete organization at his back, and it was used to excellent advantage.

In Wards 2 and 3 he received more votes than the other candidates together, and in the others he fell little short of accomplishing that feat.

Mr. W. E. Robinson headed the poll for the council, receiving one of the largest ever polled for an aldermanic candidate. He is well-known and popular, and such an indorsement was not unex-
