CANADIANS HAVE PURCHASED $212,985,677 IN VICTORY LOAN BONDS; ONTARIO LEADS

More Than Half of the Grand Total Has Been Subscribed by People of This Province—Montreal Comes Next With More Than $47,000,000—Brisk Campaign Is Being Waged.

Toronto, Nov. 5.—The grand total of subscriptions to the Victory Loan, covering the Dominion, as officially announced by W. S. Hodgins, chairman of the dominion finance committee, at noon today, was $212,985,677. The following totals represent reports from British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Montreal, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island up to Monday night, and from the provinces of Ontario and Quebec up to Tuesday night:

British Columbia	$ 8,471,527	Ontario	$120,104,850
Alberta	4,811,000	Quebec	7,566,350
Saskatchewan	3,850,800	Montreal	47,025,300
Manitoba	11,866,000	New Brunswick	3,278,500
Nova Scotia	5,680,150	Prince Edward I.	331,200

FORTY PLACES IN ONTARIO HAVE WON HONOR FLAGS

Toronto, Nov. 5.—Ontario's Victory Loan campaign during the first eight days of the month has won the honor of being the first province to reach the goal of $100,000,000. The official returns up to last night show that $120,104,850 has been subscribed, or 53.18 per cent of the combined objective. Of this the special subscription committee has raised $65,673,250, or 75.51 per cent of its special objective.

The women of Ontario will make a clean-up drive next Wednesday. Their objective is $1,000,000. One thousand women will be engaged, and a canvass of homes for small subscriptions overlooked by the board salesmen in the past, will be made.

The parade of decorated motor cars and vehicles next Saturday afternoon promises to be the greatest event of the kind ever staged in the Dominion. It will be the value of $500 are the prizes, and the entry list is exceedingly large.

Attention is again drawn to the fact that the Victory Loan in many of the churches next Sunday. A special open-air service will take place on Sunday afternoon, at which time the value of $500 are the prizes, and the entry list is exceedingly large.

An encouraging increase in the volume of small subscriptions is noted at local headquarters, where about 13,000 were recorded yesterday.

DELEGATES INCENSED OVER REMARKS MADE BY SENATOR SHERMAN

Foreign Representatives May Leave Unless Amendments Are Made.

DISCUSSION RESUMED Forty-Eight-Hour Week Is the Subject of Heated Arguments.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The question of the 48-hour week or the straight 40-hour day again was up at the opening of today's session of the International Labor Conference. Wrangling over this issue broke up yesterday's session of the conference.

Several of the delegates have become incensed over critical remarks made by Senator Sherman, Republican, Illinois, in the Senate yesterday, and intimated that unless proper amendments were made they would leave the conference. An effort was being made by those in charge of the conference to smooth over the situation and save the conference from a break in its ranks.

Sherman said the conference contained "a number of Socialists and also a number of those who go beyond socialism—radicals, alien firebrands—but a few degrees removed from those who believe in soviet principles."

Germany has delegates in the conference who are here to "promote industrial mischief," Senator Sherman said, "while Japan has delegates planning inroads on American industry." Senator Sherman predicted that the conference would declare against the American "open shop" and subject the United States to economic boycott if the conference decision was not observed.

FORMER LIBERAL LEADER IN ONT. TO BE SENATOR

William Proudfoot and Col. Gerald White To Get Appointments.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, Nov. 5.—Announcement of the appointment to the Senate of Col. Gerald White, former member for North Renfrew, and of William Proudfoot, M. P. and former leader of the Opposition in Ontario, will, it is stated, be made shortly. Both have been in the capital for a few days.

There are several candidates for the vacancies in the Upper House. Col. John Carleton, former member for Thunder Bay, is also at the capital, but it is not anticipated that Col. Carleton will be appointed. Another name mentioned is that of Col. Andrew Thompson, barrister, of Ottawa.

REPUBLICANS GAIN IN N. Y., BUT LOSE IN OTHER STATES

Strength of Socialists in New York State Assembly Is Doubtful.

PROHIBITIONISTS WIN Lieut.-Col. Theodore Roosevelt Elected by Large Majority.

New York, Nov. 5.—Indications early today were that the Republicans had gained several seats in the New York state assembly as a result of the election yesterday. Their representation has been increased by five, with no reports available on ten doubtful districts in the state.

The strength of the Socialists at the next session remains in doubt. They elected one of their candidates in Bronx County, but lost the 17th New York district. The result in the 23rd Schenectady district, a Democrat, won by a Socialist last year, remains in doubt.

Both the women who served at the last session were defeated by men for re-election. Two other representatives of the fair sex will sit at the next session, however. They will be Dr. Elizabeth Van R. Gillette of the 2nd Schenectady district, a Democrat, who won from the man who defeated her last year, and Margaret L. Smith, who scored a victory over Martin J. Healy, the Democratic incumbent in the 12th New York district.

One of the interesting characters at the next session will be Lieut.-Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who was elected from the Otsego County district by a large majority. He will begin his political career exactly as did his father, as a Socialist.

Most of the upstate municipal elections, the only second-class cities which elected Democratic mayors were Schenectady, where George R. Lum was returned to the office he had held as a Socialist on two previous occasions, and Troy, where James W. Fleming, a former state conservation commissioner, was successful.

WILSON CONGRATULATES GOVERNOR COOLIDGE ON WINNING ELECTION

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Wilson, from his sick bed, today telegraphed Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, congratulating him on his reelection, which the president said was "a victory for law and order."

A White House attaché said this problem was solved.

TOTAL IS GOOD, BUT PURCHASERS OF SMALL BONDS PROVING SCARCE

Victory Loan Officials Say London Should Do Better Still.

SALESMEN ARE BEHIND Only Have $800,000 Instead of Twice That Figure As Expected.

The Victory Loan campaign for 1919 reaches the half-way mark today and although London is but a million dollars away from the objective, the canvassers and others in connection with the loan will have to put their best foot foremost in order that the loan may be the success it was last year.

"In stalling up the general situation with half the campaign gone, London finds herself with a total subscription of over six million dollars, which with an objective of $7,500,000, appears to be very satisfactory," declared Organizer J. A. G. Clarke today.

"People have the impression, however, that of this six million dollars, four and a half million is made up of two subscriptions, the Hudson & Erie for three and a half million, and the London Life Insurance Company for a million. Another half million is accounted for in large subscriptions, and this is highly satisfactory as far as the general result is concerned."

The total subscriptions turned in by the salesmen only amount to $800,000. The objective for them is set at $3,000,000 and therefore they are $2,200,000 behind their objective at the half-way mark, and will have to have the fullest response from the citizens if the loan is to be made a success.

"People have the impression," continued Mr. Clarke, "that their $100 and $50 bonds are of very little importance, while it is in reality the most important part of the campaign. A third of last year's Victory Loan subscriptions were made up of bonds of $100 or less. The importance of these small subscriptions will be readily recognized."

"Through her war effort Canada is in a prominent position among other nations of the world, which it would have taken years of peace to obtain. It was to retain this position it is vitally necessary that the country be financed by its own citizens. It is to carry out the trade and commerce of the country and meet the reconstruction period."

People Relaxing.
The returns show that the actual number of applications for leave of absence from last year and this would indicate that with the war over, the people in general, are inclined to relax and not make the same effort as was the case during the past four years.

So long as our men were overseas and affording us protection from the German menace, no one hesitated to support them to the utmost, but now that the war is over it is still our solemn duty to establish these men who fought for us and protected us from the perils of the war, and to take care of the dependents of those who fell. This is not an obvious patriotic duty, but a duty of common sense.

Golden-Haired Girl of Eighteen Is Held as Bandit

Pretty New York Blonde Was Carrying a Gun When Arrested.

New York, Nov. 5.—An 18-year-old golden-haired girl stood behind the bars of a West side police station today while the police were checking up on 23 robberies which she and a man, 24 years old, were charged with having committed in the last two weeks. The girl, who was expensively groomed, and her companion were armed with revolvers when arrested.

They are alleged to have carried on a systematic campaign for the robbery of apartment houses by visiting furnished rooms advertised for rent, making out the names of the tenants, and turning later to rob. A search of their home is said to have revealed stolen articles valued at thousands of dollars.

The girl, who gave the name of Marie Mathews, and her male companion, Frank Pecareh, are charged with grand larceny and violation of the Sullivan law in carrying concealed weapons.

U. S. GOVERNMENT REFUSES TO ACCEPT PROPOSAL OF LABOR TO END SOFT COAL STRIKE

Assistant Attorney-General Ames Declares That Strike Is a Direct Violation of the Nation's Laws and As Long As It Continues Court Action Will Be Resorted To To Protect the Public.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5.—The Government cannot accept the proposal of organized labor to end the coal strike by vacating the injunction against the officials of the United Mine Workers of America. Assistant Attorney-General Ames, in the absence of Attorney-General Palmer, announced today that the Government could not abandon its position because the strike was in violation of the law.

Mr. Ames issued the following statement: "The strike is a violation of law. As long as it continues we are going to proceed in the courts. The dispute between the mine owners and workers is an entirely different question, that they can settle in their own way. The Government cannot tolerate continued violation of the law, such as this strike constitutes."

Refusal of the Government to vacate the injunction means a long fight in the coal fields, while its withdrawal would have opened the way for settlement of the strike within 48 hours, according to Edgar Wallace, legislative representative of the United Mine Workers of America.

MINERS BELIEVE ACTION OF GOVT. WILL PROLONG STRIKE

Washington, Nov. 5.—Labor leaders who had taken a hopeful view of the strike situation, after hearing of Samuel Gompers' suggestion for a settlement, were plainly disturbed by news that the department of justice would let the injunction stand. All agreed that it would keep the strike going for some time. This also was the view of operators.

In view of the intention of the attorney-general not to ask for vacation of the injunction, labor leaders said there was no likelihood of a settlement soon.

TORONTO TAXI DRIVER IS MURDERED BY FOREIGNER

J. G. Rowland, a Returned Soldier, Is Victim of Knife Wounds Inflicted by Unknown Person That He Had Driven to Leaside—Died in Hospital.

Toronto, Nov. 5.—J. G. Rowland, 35, a returned soldier and taxi driver, was brutally assaulted and stabbed in the back at Leaside, one of the northeastern suburbs of Toronto, shortly after midnight, and died in the DeWittville Military Hospital, after having received him 100 yards from the scene of the assault, to a neighboring residence and obtaining assistance.

Rowland was unable to complete his story before death ensued, but declared that a foreigner, apparently a Russian, hired him at the union station to drive him to Leaside. There his story stopped. There were nine different slashes on the victim's face, and a great gash in his throat. It was evident that he had been attacked from behind.

The police are working on various clues.

Rowland served with the 2nd Machine Gun Battalion overseas, and was wounded and captured in 1917. He is a retiring man, of exemplary character.

LOAN AUTHORITIES CANCEL NUMBERS DROPPED LAST NIGHT

One Man Got 500 Numbers
When Pamphlets Accidentally Drop.

Victory Loan authorities have decided to cancel the numbers on all of the pamphlets which were accidentally dropped in one bundle last evening. Immediately after the performance of Aerial Peris, the trapeze artist, to make amends to the crowd which was on the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets last night, a double quantity of the pamphlets will be distributed this evening.

The strong wind, which chilled the performer on his high platform and the large assemblage of spectators below, was largely responsible for the accident concerning the pamphlets. When Mr. Peris had completed his last feat, hundreds of the pamphlets were placed in a basket on the sidewalk, which was tied to a long rope, and by which it was to be sent to the distribution point. But when the basket was pulled up about half the distance, it was caught by the wind and the rope, and in the effort made to free the resultant jam, the handle of the basket was broken and the pamphlets fell in a bundle on the pavement below. Several Victory Loan officials, who were watching the proceedings, and who anticipated the accident, secured the assistance of three policemen in an effort to clear the sidewalk immediately below the basket before it fell.

Crowd Rushes for Papers.
They were successful for a few seconds—until the bundle hit the ground. Then a tremendous rush of excited citizens, making a scramble that any football team could never hope to equal, carried the policemen off their feet and a wild fight for the papers containing the numbers was made for several minutes. The people were forced to realize that a continued struggle was useless however, through the presence of mind of one of the policemen. He secured the handle of the basket and holding it high over his head, shouted: "This is all that is left."

Sergeant Fred Young, on behalf of the Victory Loan executive, announced that all of the numbers which fell would be cancelled, as the numbers are known at headquarters. Speaking to the crowd he said: "We wish to inform the public in the emergency tonight, and particularly the man who saw the bundle of papers, that they are not one bit ahead of the game. He then announced that a cancellation of the numbers would be made, and received hearty applause from the assembled people.

During the evening Victory Bonds were sold in the G. T. R. ticket office on the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets by F. H. Butler, who sold bonds worth $1,000 by the telephone alone. For every bond purchased at that office a pamphlet containing three numbers for the contest to end next Saturday will be given.

Smile or Scowl, It Is Here; Snow Has Arrived For Winter

There Are Some That It Makes
Happy and Some That It Makes Mad.

The beautiful snow, that poets rave about, that cool dentists, plumbers and winter undergarment manufacturers welcome with a glad smile, and that the average householder curses most heartily, arrived in London for its first fall appearance Tuesday night, followed this up today by a second appearance in greater force, so to speak.

Merchants in general are glad to see the snow. It makes people begin to think about Christmas and the gifts that must be bought. They explain their feelings by stating that it is "reasonable" weather, while as far as the telegraph editor is concerned it is "sneezable" only.

Foot Bill phones long distance from Wingham to state that there is over an inch and a half of snow on the ground there, and that the snow is not snowflakes, but snowflakes that must be bought. They explain their feelings by stating that it is "reasonable" weather, while as far as the telegraph editor is concerned it is "sneezable" only.

Hardware men are getting down hockey sticks and skates that were held over last year on account of the mild winter, during their off and preparing for business. Farmers who have been busy with their crops and potatoes in the garden are in for a hard winter's work in general.

PUBLIC SCHOOL PRINCIPALS LEFT BEHIND IN SALARY RACE; HEADS OF COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENTS HIGHER

Latter Given $500 Rise, Former, Who Have Reached Maximum, Get Nothing, Although Formerly Placed On Same Level.

The salaries of Principal W. H. T. Mooney of the collegiate institute, and Principal H. B. Beal of the technical school, were placed at $2,200 by the board of education yesterday. The salaries for heads of departments in both the collegiate and technical school were placed at $2,700, or $500 more than the maximum salary of a public school principal. They were formerly at the same level, $2,200.

As this maximum has been raised, all the teachers in these schools will benefit by the bonus which the board granted. But as some public school principals have reached the maximum limit of $2,200 they will get no benefit whatever, although in the former salary schedule they were placed on the same basis as the teachers in the technical and high schools.

Trustee Rowe replied to question by Trustee Coleridge, that these teachers have high qualifications than the public school principals.

The salary of Miss Manley, physical instructor for high school girls, will be $1,600, and that of Mr. Syme, physical instructor for the boys, $1,700. In future the minimum salary of high school teachers will be made in accordance with their qualifications and successful record in the past.

This will enable it to get better teachers.

Principal H. B. Beal reported that the attendance at the technical school in October was 146 enrolled; 132 daily average attendance, and an aggregate attendance of 2,782. There was an average attendance of 356 at the evening classes. The registration for the evening and special afternoon classes was reported most satisfactory, with 844 students taking 1,261 classes.

Collegiate Attendance.
Principal Mooney reported 314 pupils on the general roll at the collegiate, and 241 on the commercial roll.

There is an average attendance of 864 in the general and 228 in the commercial. In 1918 there was an average attendance of 715 general and 166 commercial. In the night school 120 pupils are enrolled, compared to 108 last year. The average attendance, however, is only 74, compared to 91 last year. Two new rooms have been opened in the commercial building. The teachers for these appointed for term are: Mrs. Laird, wife of a returned medical officer, a fully certified teacher, at a salary of $1,500 per annum, and Miss Cannell at $450 a day.

Public School Inspector Edwards reported 8,088 pupils on the public school rolls, compared to 7,945 last year, an increase of 143. The average attendance last month was 7,265, compared to 7,117 last year.

A recent prophylactic clinic 383 cases were examined and 371 cases were treated. Eighty-seven per cent of the pupils examined had defective teeth.

EXCAVATION WORK ON MEDICAL SCHOOL NEARING COMPLETION

The Foundation Work May Be Covered by January.

HOUSE CLASSES IN FALL
Plans Include Auditorium To Seat 500 People and Gymnasium.

Despite the fact that local citizens voted only $100,000 last January toward the erection of a new medical school here, work of excavation for a $300,000 structure has been begun at the corner of Waterloo street and Ottawa avenue. A. Cope & Sons of Hamilton have received the excavation contract, and a steam shovel is on the job nibbling away at the site of the basement for the west wing being excavated last week. While the shovel is today clearing the way for the east wing, the final contract for the new building has not been signed, owing to minor details which must be settled. But John Petherbridge, a local contractor, is proceeding with the work and has sublet the excavation contract to the Hamilton firm.

Will Take Subscription.
It is planned by the Western University board of governors to raise funds by subscriptions to make up the additional $200,000 deficit, and it is hoped that the provincial authorities will grant financial assistance in the near future.

The site of the new building was purchased years ago by the board of governors. Under the plan of Dr. P. S. McKibben, acting dean of Western University Medical School, the work will be continued throughout the winter, it being the intention of the contractor to have the foundation work covered by January next, so the interior work will not be held up by the weather. Dr. McKibben yesterday informed The Advertiser that several classrooms in the new school will be available for occupation when the college term begins in October, and that the progress of construction at the new medical school, owing to large junior classes of returned soldiers.

Auditorium for 500.

STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLE

Once the liver fails to filter the poisonous bile from the blood, there is a clogging up and poisoning of the whole system which causes many troubles to arise. Therefore, upon the liver, more than any other organ of the body, depends the general health.

Carelessness and neglect, and often-times willful disregard of nature's laws will put the system out of sorts. The bowels become constipated, the liver inactive and the stomach upset. To bring the system back to its normal state, you should take Milburn's Laxative Liver Pills. They open up the liver, get the bowels back to their proper condition and tone up the stomach.

Mrs. G. L. Cackett, Enchant, Alta., writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxative Liver Pills and have found them good for both stomach and liver troubles. I have told others about your valuable medicine and they have used them with good results."

"They are also good for headaches." Milburn's Laxative Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

INQUIRY PROMISED INTO CHARGES MADE AGAINST ASYLUM

Inspector Says This Will Be Searching.

There will be a judicial inquiry of the most searching character made by W. W. Dunlop, inspector of prisons and public charities, and the new provincial secretary—whichever he may be—of the charges preferred by Harry Lawder, 359 Halo street, against the Ontario Hospital for Insane.

G. N. Weekes, who is looking after the case for Mr. Lawder, declared today that he was in receipt of a letter from Mr. Dunlop in which he stated that if Mr. Weekes had no objection, he would wait until a new cabinet was formed, and take up the matter with the new provincial secretary under the Drury Government, and that a full investigation would be made. He acknowledged the receipt of the charges made, which covered twelve full type-written sheets.

Twenty-two witnesses will be called in support of the evidence set forth in Lawder's statement. The charges for the most part involve attendants and other employees of the institution, Lawder alleging gross mismanagement and stealing of the most flagrant character, as well as ill-treatment of inmates.

Lawder first made the charges at a meeting of the G. W. V. A. some weeks ago. These charges were absolutely and flatly denied by Dr. W. J. Robinson, medical superintendent at the hospital, who declared that he would welcome an investigation.

COMMITTEE TO MEET.—Members of the town planning committee will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4:30. Appearances will be heard. Most of the cases are of a minor nature.

CHIEF KNOWS.—Some months ago a local lady, who is thought to reside in the north end of the city, brought a dog from Toronto, but shortly after its arrival it disappeared. To her its whereabouts are unknown, but Chief of Police W. T. Williams is said to have a possible clue to the mystery and thinks that if the owner will make inquiries to him, the dog may be recovered.

TO BE TRIED IN DECEMBER.—The action of Thomas H. Jones vs. Harry Evans, both of this city, which was on the county court list to be tried at the last April session, has been re-entered for trial at the December session of the court. The claim made is for the balance of purchase money for a house, 217 Trenchard avenue, which was purchased by the defendant, being $200.

Home-Made Lotion For Wrinkled, Flabby Skin

To remove wrinkles and age lines, or to delay their formation, a simple lotion made by dissolving one ounce of pure powdered sassafras in a half pint of witch hazel, will be found wonderfully efficacious. It tends to tighten and tone up the relaxed skin, making it firm and smooth. The ingredients of course can be had at any drug store or in toilet sections of department stores.

Bathe the face with this harmless lotion daily for awhile and every line will vanish, including the deepest crow-feet and furrows. Even the first application gives surprising results. There is nothing better for reducing double chin and sagging cheek muscles, as well as enlarged pores. No trace of the treatment itself remains on the face, so your friends will not guess the reason for your rejuvenated appearance.—Adv.

ASKS THAT PROVINCE BE GIVEN RIGHT TO PROHIBIT IMPORTATION AND MANUFACTURE OF LIQUOR

W. C. T. U. Mass Meeting Forwards Request To Ottawa—
Opposition Expressed to Another Referendum On Ground of Expense.

At a large mass meeting of those interested in the referendum campaign for prohibition, held last evening in St. Andrew's Hall under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., a resolution was passed asking that the Dominion Parliament be petitioned to give the province of Ontario the right to prohibit the importation and manufacture of liquor within the province, in view of the overwhelming vote in favor of prohibition at the taking of the referendum. Rev. W. E. Prescott, who proposed the resolution, spoke of the great expense which another referendum, such as the Dominion House was now proposing, would entail on the province. The resolution was passed unanimously.

Some Experiences.—The meeting was conducted with Robert Green, chairman of the referendum committee, in the chair, and after a service of prayer and praise, many of those present gave some of their experiences during the referendum campaign, which were most amusing.

After several speakers, including Professor James Bowman, Dr. D. H. Arnold, Mrs. May R. Thornley, Rev. J. McLaughlin, H. Ashpitt, Col. C. M. R. Graham and Wm. Martin, a man arose in his seat and calmly announced that he was probably the only Liberty League member present, and that they were not here to hear from him. Every neck was craned in the direction of the speaker, who, it finally appeared, had merely attended one of the Liberty League meetings "to see what was going on," as he expressed it.

Terrible Results.—"I learned that there were a great many people dying for want of liquor," he declared. "I also learned that the increasing number of divorces in the country were due to the lack of liquor. I heard most strenuous attacks on the preachers and on no one else. Then when the Liberty League procession for Western Ontario moved off from the market square I counted but 81 people."

Rev. W. E. Prescott here arose and corroborated the speaker's count, declaring that there really had been no more than 81 people in the procession. The speaker here had been unable to get support here and that there was no man in London who would lend his name to the project.

Mrs. May R. Thornley referred to the way in which, after voting for 28 years in Canada, she was told she could not vote at the referendum, because she had never been naturalized since she married an American husband.

Got Her Vote.—"My naturalization paper came the Friday before the election and I voted," she concluded.

At last night's meeting it was decided to keep the temperance organization for the referendum intact, in case another referendum is necessary, and to importation of liquor into the province.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the ladies of the church to about 500 people. Vocal solos were rendered by Ed. Webster and Mrs. Ed Wyatt.

Presbytery Considers Changing of Fields To Make Possible Payment of Larger Salaries

Largely Attended and Interesting Meeting Held in St. Thomas—Many Congregations Meet Now Rates.

The Presbytery of London met in Knox Church, St. Thomas, on Tuesday, the sessions beginning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. D. L. McCune, moderator, presided, and the attendance was very large.

Rev. Dr. Martin of Knox Church, Stratford, was invited to sit and confer with the presbytery on the question of the great foreign mission work of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and the meaning of the forward movement in regard to it.

Rev. T. A. Symington presented a comprehensive report on the question of the salaries of ministers' stipends throughout the bounds of the presbytery, and a minimum of $1,500 with manse. On the whole a splendid response has come from the congregations both in the rural districts and in the towns and cities, and there are a few dissenting voices, but the majority are in favor of the plan.

Much Discussed.—The matters which caused much discussion were the increase in ministers' stipends, and the rearrangement of fields to make this possible. The last General Assembly fixed the minimum salary for all ministers at $1,500 with a manse. In order to do this and save the home mission fund thousands of dollars in augmenting a salary passed for a complete survey of the whole presbytery, and an effort to rearrange the fields, a simple plan made by dissolving one ounce of pure powdered sassafras in a half pint of witch hazel, will be found wonderfully efficacious. It tends to tighten and tone up the relaxed skin, making it firm and smooth. The ingredients of course can be had at any drug store or in toilet sections of department stores.

How to Qualify For $100 Free Victory Bond

Every afternoon and night this week at 4:30 and 8:30 the marvellous Ferris, premier trapeze artist of America, performs his thrilling stunts over the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, throwing from his aerial perch hundreds of pamphlets telling the story of Victory Bonds. All have been serially numbered. Some have as high as ten numbers.

Next Saturday Night at Victory Bond Street Carnival

The holders of the winning numbers will be awarded these prizes:

$50 Bond to the holder of the first prize-winning number. But if on carnival night the winner has purchased a 1919 Bond his prize will be doubled.
$25 Cash Second Prize.
$10 Cash Third Prize.

If you cannot get into the crowd to catch a pamphlet you can get yours from a Victory Bond salesman in the G. T. R. Ticket Office during each of Ferris' performances. Place an order for a Bond, and the salesman will give you a pamphlet bearing three numbers. Remember, if you are a 1919 Bond owner on Saturday night that is your qualification to double the first prize.

MOVE TO INCREASE THE LICENSE FEES IN LOCAL THEATRES

Committee Will Look Into the Question.

Aldermen Wilson, Cunningham and Moorhead, and a committee from the chamber of commerce, have been appointed to consider the question of increasing the license fee for the local theatres, as the present fee is thought to be too low.

The city council at its last session of the year passed a resolution to the effect that the city council would consider the question of increasing the license fee for the local theatres, as the present fee is thought to be too low.

SENATE COMMENCES G. T. R. BILL DEBATE, BORDEN SENDS NOTE URGING APPROVAL

Premier Declares Rumor That He Was Out of Sympathy Is Unfounded.

AMENDMENT IS COMING
Senator Lynch Staunton Says He Will Move Change to Clause Six.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—Debate on the second reading of the Grand Trunk bill, which was given the third reading in the Commons at 3:30 this morning, proceeded with in the Senate this morning. As soon as the bill received the third reading, the amendment was moved, and Sir James Loughborough, the government leader, rose to speak in support of the bill.

Sir Robert Borden, dealing with the case of the bill, had also been circulating that the prime minister was in sympathy with the measure.

Sir Robert, in his letter dated November 1, described this rumor as being utterly unfounded. Had this been the case, the letter would not have been introduced in Parliament.

Sir Robert pointed out that he had himself commenced the negotiations in London two years ago. He did so because the Government realized that the national system of railways is so complete as to be a successful operation. The negotiations had also been entered into because the only other alternative was to allow the Grand Trunk to pass into the hands of a private company, thereby putting all the railways under one company, a situation so dangerous as to constitute a national disaster.

Robert urged the Senate to support the bill, and expressed regret that the condition of the bill had been such as to render it impossible for him to remain at his post and take part in the debate on the bill in the Commons.

Senator Dandurand rose to observe that it had been suggested that the bill was supported by the bill "with a faint heart."

The Government leader retorted with a rejoinder that he had this view of the bill, and that he was not prepared to change his mind before he had seen the bill in its final form.

Sir James reviewed in detail the making of the agreement between the Government and the Grand Trunk railway system, and the present railway situation in Canada on the former administration. He maintained that a proper and businesslike proposal, and that it would be unwise for the Government to operate the G. T. R. and C. N. R. systems in the west without securing the Grand Trunk lines in Eastern Canada.

Will Move Amendment.
At this point, Senator Lynch Staunton of Hamilton, interrupted Sir James, and proposed that the bill be amended to move the following amendment to clause six of the bill.

Provided that if the determined value of the property and common value in the aggregate exceeds $7,414,170, the bill shall be amended to provide that the value of the property shall not exceed the face value of $7,414,170.

Provided further that the arbitrators shall not increase the amount of the award by reason of the fact that the new guaranteed stock is to bear four per cent interest, but shall regard it as equivalent in value to such gold coin.

Big Interests Opposing.
Dealing with the question of public ownership, the government leader said that the bill was being opposed by big business interests, but parliament represented the plain people who would not be willing to stand aside and let these interests dominate the policy of the government.

He noted in passing that as a result of the policy of England, labor candidates had scored a great success. The great majority of the people in Canada undoubtedly favor government ownership.

Sir James Loughborough said that not a member could be elected in Canada, an opponent of public ownership. This was a sign of the times, and those who represented capital against public ownership would have to become as active as their opponents. For himself, he favored acquisition of the Grand Trunk or any other road which would complete Canada's railway system. If public ownership were found a failure, the government could invite offers for the purchase of its 20,000 miles of roads. Then Canada would have two transportation systems and she had all the machinery.

Sir James instanced succeeding railway policies, all of which led to the same goal.

"We've built and paid for practically every railway in Canada," he said. "Are we to continue building roads and turning them over to private interests?"

GRAND TRUNK BILL MAY YET BE KILLED BY UPPER CHAMBER

Every Day's Delay Favors Opposition To Measure.

GOVT. WHIPS ARE BUSY

Calling Members of Senate
From the Far Places For the Battle.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—With the fight on the Grand Trunk bill drawing to its inevitable ending in the Commons, the Government whips in the Upper Chamber have been calling in their members for a far place for the still more serious fight, shorter, battle, which will take place in the Senate. In the Commons the bill will secure third reading in the face of Opposition amendments by a majority of at least thirty, and the same apprehension is felt there that a number of the members have paired and gone home.

Every day's delay favors the opposition to the measure, which appears to be gathering strength. From Montreal this morning comes an editorial appeal to the Senate to kill the bill and force the Government to the country. It is being represented that the Government has no mandate for such far-reaching legislation, and that the people should be consulted before it is gone ahead with.

Rumored Amendment.
In fact it is rumored that among the amendments to be offered by the opposition will be one providing that the agreement do not become effective until after an appeal to the people. The acceptance for a majority of the Upper House of such an amendment would constitute a straight challenge to the Government which it would be difficult for it to disregard.

The Upper Chamber will be very fully represented during the coming week. Every man who can do so is coming in. And nobody knows what is in the mind of each Senator. It is that party lines will not be drawn very lightly on the measure, saving for the fact that Liberal senators will vote faithfully against it.

The Government is hesitating about the time of the four existing vacancies, though it may be necessary to do so in order to save the bill. There is no lack of candidates, but the Government is averse to taking men out of the Commons, for to do so involves by-elections, and by-elections are not popular at Ottawa these days. It is stated, however, that a selection has been made and that the names of an emergency developing during the debate which is to come, four new senators will be sworn in.

LUSITANIA SKIPPER ADMITS DISOBEYING ADMIRALTY ORDERS

Ignored Two Specific Instructions For Precautionary Measures.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A parliamentary paper made public today, containing secret evidence in the inquiry into the sinking of the Cunard liner Lusitania, shows that Captain W. T. Turner of the Lusitania admitted that he disobeyed the instructions of the admiralty in steaming only at the rate of 19 knots an hour. The captain testified, however, that he had been ordered to do so by the admiralty, and that the Lusitania would have reached the harbor of Liverpool before the vessel could cross the mine field.

Captain Turner also testified that he had not altered a zig-zag course at full speed, as the admiralty had ordered, because he thought this order applied only when a submarine had been sighted.

Drury Cabinet Still Subject For Guessing

Premier-Designate Likely To Spend Rest of Week
Considering.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—Ernest Charles Drury, premier-designate, was in the throes of anxious thought all day today over his cabinet-making, and so far as could be learned tonight he is likely to take most of the week at it. Ontario's first citizen is pursuing his course in such secrecy that only a chosen few know where he is, still less what he is doing. The only open development today was the demand from Northern Ontario for representation in the new Government. Z. A. Macgillivray, a Liberal member-elect for Sturgeon Falls, is said, is pressing his claims to cabinet rank as a representative of the north and as a French-Canadian. Mr. Macgillivray has been in this city the last two days.

No information as to Mr. Drury's going was forthcoming tonight. "Wait and see" appears to be the motto adopted at the United Farmers of Ontario headquarters here. In the meantime the guesses are made and unmaking governments, and no one seems to have knowledge as to the probable personnel of the Drury Government—that is to be.

VETS.' APPLICATIONS MUST BE IN BEFORE FIRST OF FEBRUARY

Otherwise Not Entitled To Vocational Retraining Benefits.

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—Former members of the Canadian forces who desire to take advantage of the vocational retraining courses conducted by the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment and who have not yet made application must do so before February 1 next. This is the effect of an order-in-council, which states that any member of the Canadian naval or military forces shall not be entitled to the benefits of retraining under the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment unless application for courses of re-training is made within three months after the 1st of November, or three months after date of discharge from such forces, if that occurs later than the date specified.

Where a former member of the forces has been transferred from the department of militia and defence, or the department of the naval service, to the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment for a continuation of treatment, such former member of the forces shall be allowed three months from the date of retirement or discharge, or from the conclusion of such treatment in which to make application for the benefits of re-training.

LICENSE OF LONDON HOTEL IS CANCELLED FOR O. T. A. BREACH

Announcement Is Made by
Chairman of Ontario
License Board.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—Chairman J. D. Flavelle of the Ontario board of license commissioners, announced today that the license of George A. Franklin of the Savoy Hotel, London, and Harry Finch of the Colborne Hotel, Toronto, had been cancelled because the proprietors had been convicted of violations of the Ontario temperance act. The Savoy and Colborne were standard hotels.

J. G. Cornell, one of the two Toronto Government agents, has resigned. His position will not be filled until the new Government takes office. It is understood. Meanwhile the business is being carried on by one of the employees of the agency.

"AGIN THE GOVERNMENT" SEEMS TO BE TENDENCY SAYS ALBERTA PREMIER

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 4.—Premier Stewart, when asked his opinion of the Cochrane election results, said he was disappointed, but, in view of the last week's campaigning, not surprised. The people had decided the question and the Government on its part would be prepared, he said, to accept the verdict. A. A. Moore, the victorious farmer candidate, would be given a welcome to the legislature and a seat would be provided for him in the cross-benches.

The election, added the premier, was more or less in line with the tendency so evident nowadays to go "against the Government." Everywhere "in-re" seemed to be a disposition to overturn or attack the existing systems of government, even where there was no valid reason for doing so. Mr. Stewart reiterated the statement he has made several times during the campaign that the farmers had no actual criticism of his administration to make, but vote for their own candidate on quite different grounds.

Make Your Dreams Come True

Fond parents dream of a bright future for their children.

They dream of the literary and musical education they are going to give their daughter, and of the high position she will take in her sphere of womanhood.

They dream of the education they are going to give their son and vision him some day as a clergyman, a famous lawyer, an eminent physician, a prominent financier, or a captain of industry.

But to make these dreams come true —or even partly true—requires foresight, planning and money.

To provide the money what plan so wise as to buy Victory Bonds for each child?

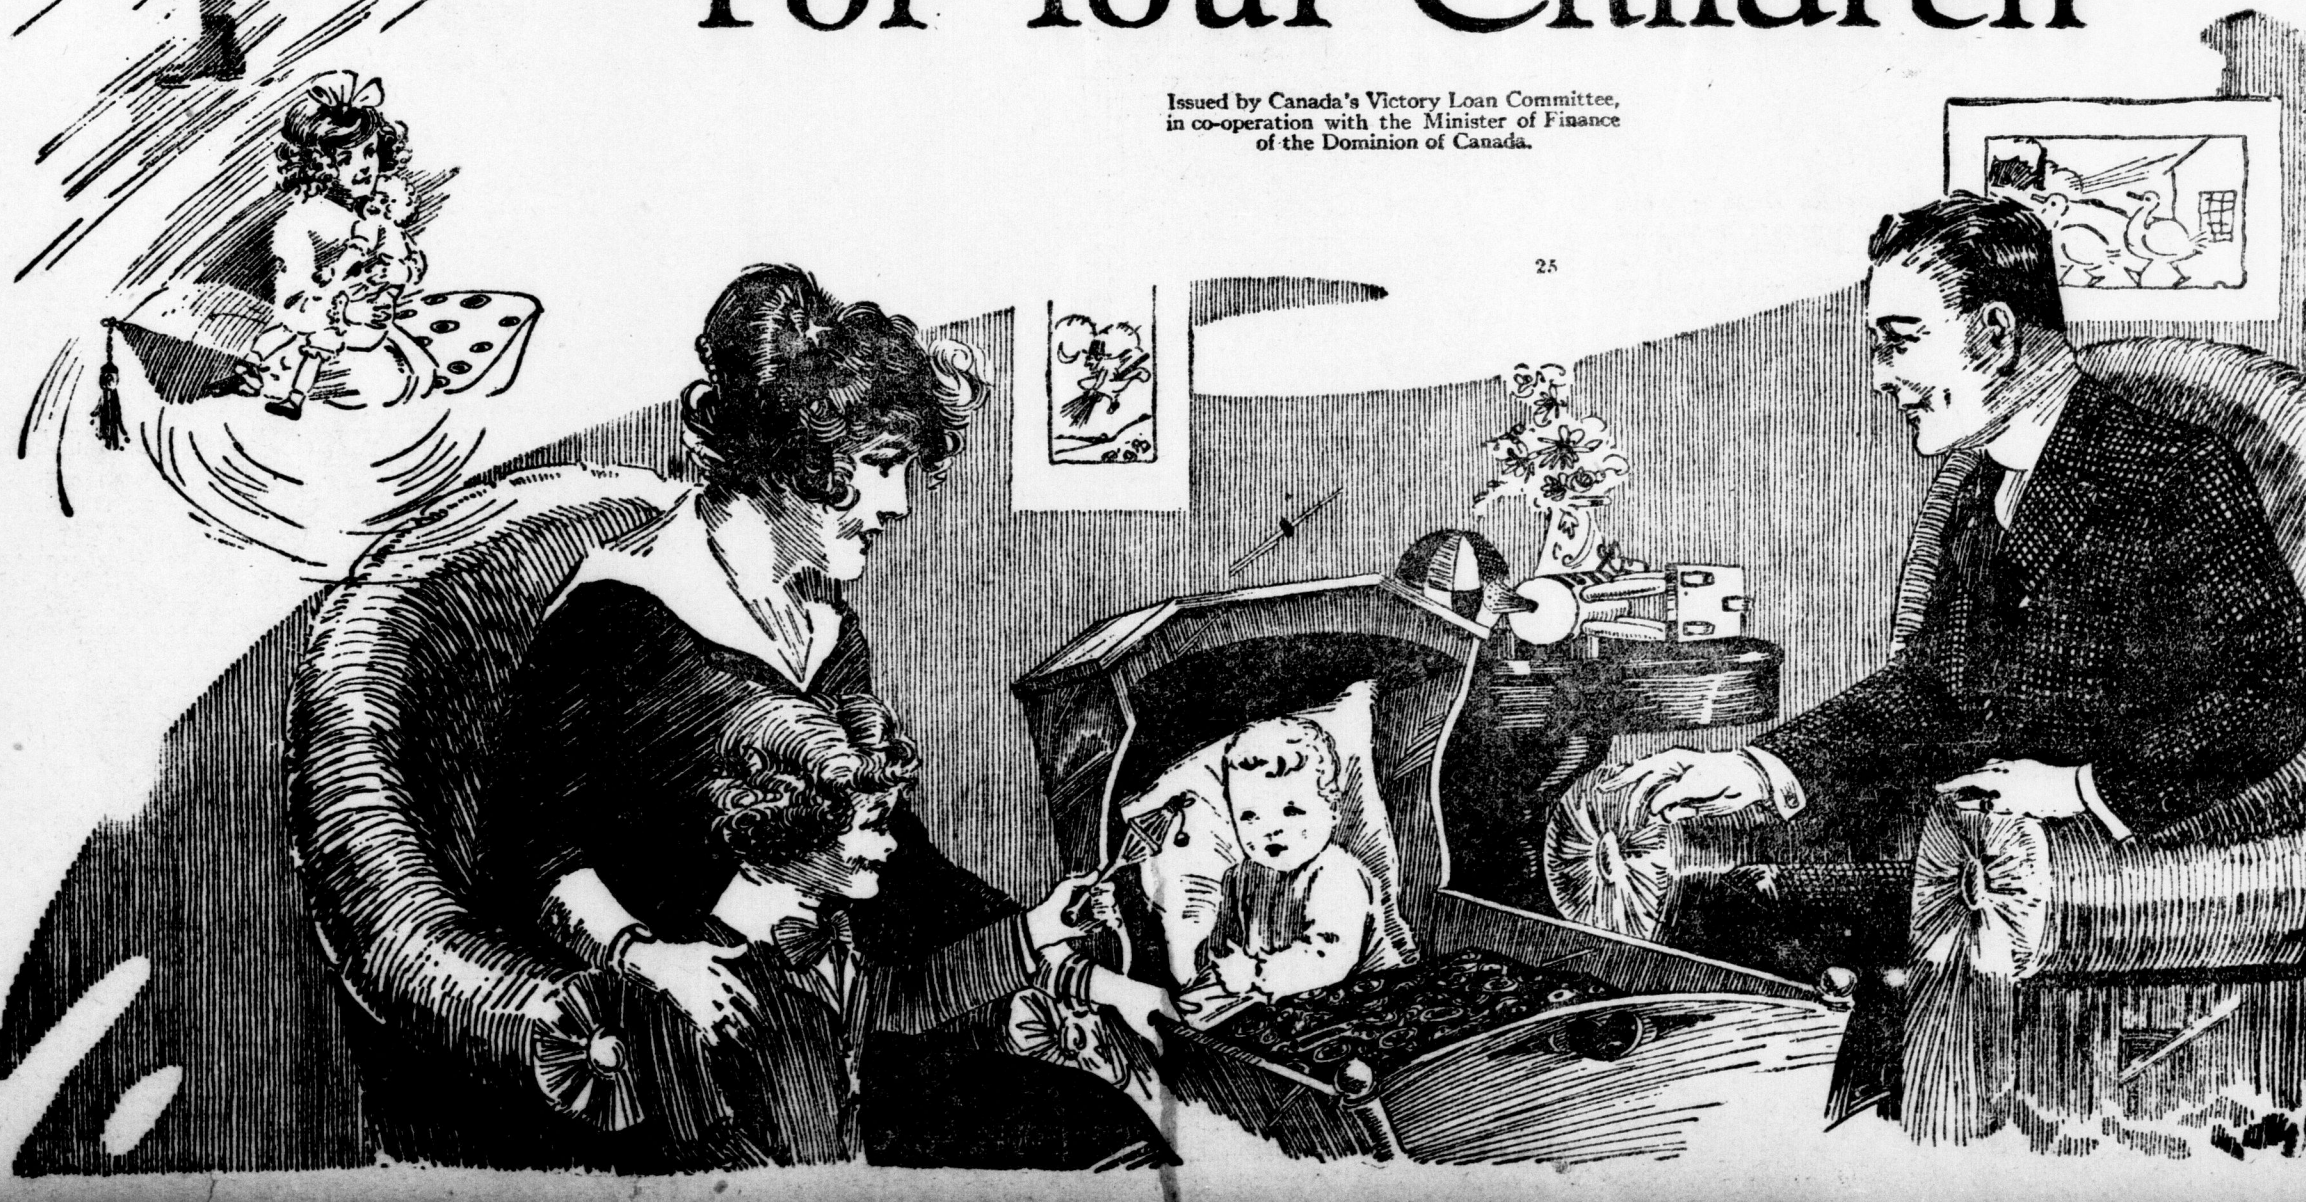

Thousands of parents bought Victory Bonds for their children in 1917 and 1918.

Surely you will be among the thousands of loving parents who will buy Victory Bonds for their children—this year.

Victory Bonds may be bought on instalments at such easy terms that every parent who so wishes may buy.

TEACHERS GIVEN BONUS OF $100 BY BOARD OF ED.

Much Wrangling Over Five Teachers Being Left Out.

OBJECTION TO ACTION

Will Not Include Teachers Who Have Reached Maximums.

A bonus of $100 for public school, collegiate and technical school teachers was authorized by the board of education Tuesday afternoon.

The recommendation of the various committees dealing with the matter were all duly cut and dried when brought before the board, but some were so dry that it was only with difficulty that the board as a whole swallowed them. In fact, it was only by a vote of five to four that the recommendation regarding public school salaries was adopted.

No. 1 committee, which handles public school matters, recommended: "That all teachers who have not reached the present maximum be given an increase of $50 or a portion of that amount not to exceed the present maximum. That all women teachers, now in the employ of the board, who have not reached the present maximum be given an increase of $150 or a portion thereof so that the maximum salary is not exceeded."

Applicable to All.
In the regular course of events the men would receive $100 increase, and the women $50 increase in January. So this recommendation merely means that they will receive $100, no distinction being made between men and women teachers.

This is fairly satisfactory, except the clause which provides that the present maximum be not exceeded. This means that at least five teachers will receive no benefit whatever from the bonus as their regular yearly increase will bring them to their maximum.

Unanimity Broken.
It was on this point that the unanimity of the board broke up. Trustee Coleridge wanted the report referred back to the committee to consider this point. Trustee Smith seconded him, and Trustees Udy and Gray supported them. They were defeated by one vote.

"This motion is unfair to at least five teachers," said Trustee Coleridge. "We should go over the whole schedule from top to bottom."
Echoes of the private meeting held last Friday now began to be heard. "We were led to believe at that meeting that all the teachers would profit by this recommendation," said Trustee Gray.

"No, they do not," said Trustee Thomas Howe, who was presenting the report. "The committee making this motion included the mover and seconder of the amendment, but they have changed their minds. We all could do that if we listened to everything that was told us over the telephone. It is impossible to arrange a salary to suit all."

Should All Get Increase.
"I believe that all the teachers should get this increase. It is intended to help them meet the high cost of living. A principal who has reached his maximum is faced by the high cost of living as much as anyone else," said Trustee Coleridge.

"The 1920 board will have a full twelve months to consider readjustments," replied Trustee Rowe.

"It was said at the special meeting that one or two teachers would receive little benefit. I voted for the recommendation with that understanding. I didn't think that there were five of the teachers who would get no benefit whatever," said Trustee Udy.

"I thought only one teacher would not receive an increase," said Trustee Gray. "That was the bone of contention at the special meeting."

Could Easily Adjust Salaries.
"Five salaries can be adjusted as easily as one, and it seems to me we should adopt this as agreed at the special meeting," said Trustee Manning.

"The whole schedule should be revised," said Trustee Smith.

Granted $40,000 Increase.
"We must take into consideration that we gave the teachers an increase of $40,000 this year," said Mr. Rowe, "and this will mean an additional $32,000. No member is more anxious to pay generous salaries than I am, but if we break the schedule for these five teachers the others would have an equal right to ask us to break it for them. We must use judgment. We cannot stampede ourselves into the city treasury."

"All we ask is to refer it back to the committee," said Trustee Smith. "That is no crime."

"I'll vote for this recommendation if No. 1 committee will take up the case of these five teachers," said Trustee Gray. "I want them all to get this $100. It is not for teaching, but to meet the high cost of living."

The original recommendation went through, and it was then discovered that no date had been fixed. A clause was added to make the increase effective January 1.

Schedule Can Be Broken.

The argument that the schedule couldn't be broken received a jolt when on high school teachers' salaries. This that some of the high school teachers were at their maximum, and would therefore receive no benefit from the bonus. They therefore boosted the maximum of department heads from $2,200 to $2,700 so that all high school teachers will benefit by the bonus. By high school looking more than a public school principal, who is responsible for a school of twelve or more rooms.

L. E. Carrothers was appointed architect for the board at a salary of $2,500. The rest of the board wanted it to the members retired for a few moments and then recommended Mr. Carrothers. The appointment was unanimously confirmed.

Delightful Comedy-Drama
Pleases at All Saints' Hall

"Tony, the Convict," Presented by Dramatic Club of All Saints' Church.

"Tony, the Convict," was the title of a delightful little comedy-drama presented by the All Saints' Church Dramatic Club in the Parish Hall on Tuesday evening.

The play brings in Tony Warren, a many-sided character, who escapes from Sing Sing Prison, played by H. Slade, who after his escape, meets James Barclay, a hard-hearted and vindictive sort of person, who causes Tony a great deal of trouble. In his travels after his escape from jail, Tony meets Weary Wayside, who is always too tired to work, but at the same time makes a nice chum for Tony.

Before going to jail Tony was a respectable working man, who once had a loving wife and a little girl, and it is through no fault of his own that he enters Sing Sing.

While in Sing Sing he loses trace of his daughter, who in the meantime has been adopted by a judge and his wife, and no one knows that she is other than their own daughter until she receives an offer of marriage.

From here on the audience is kept thinking and wondering what will happen next. However, it turns out that all is well that ends well.

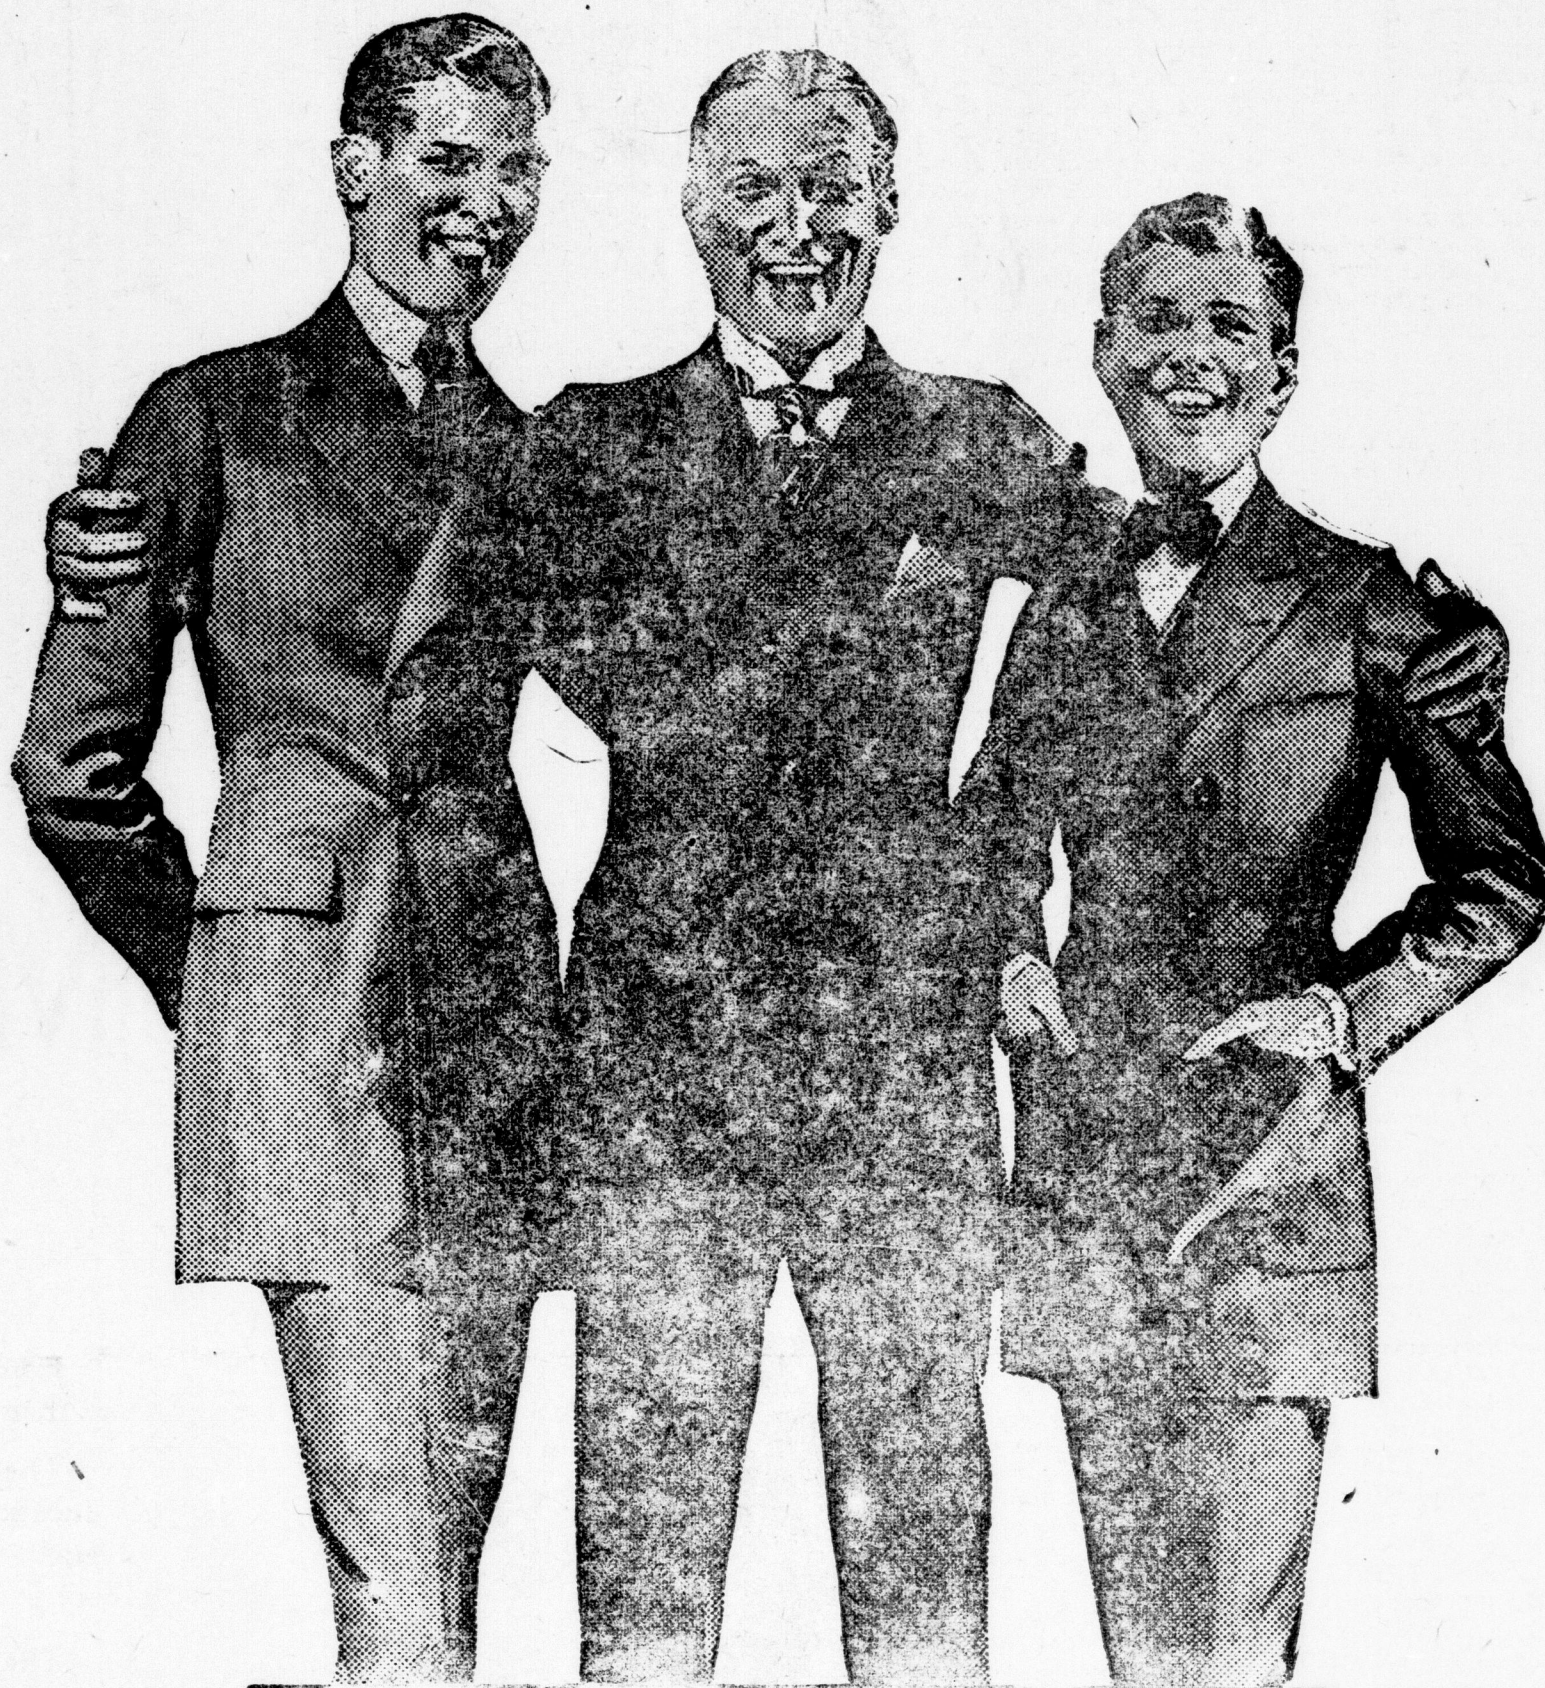

The scenery is very pretty, and the play remarkably well staged for amateurs. An orchestra in between acts played some very nice selections.

Those taking part in the cast were: F. Mayston, Miss L. Docksey, Miss R. Hill, Miss A. Odsdale, Mrs. T. Hobbs, H. Slade, H. F. Hill, W. Pyke, C. Parsons, C. G. Walner, A. Cayon.

A SISTER NATION.

Speaking before a great audience yesterday at Toronto, the Prince of Wales said: "The dominions are no longer colonies; they are sister nations of the British nation." This is an admirable answer to a certain element at London, of which Lord Milner appears to be spokesman, who are agitating for a closer confederation of the Empire, with more rigid control centred at London. Lord Milner is greatly perturbed over the rapid advance of the dominions from the status of colonies to their present independence. He considers this progress to be too rapid. It is understood that Milner strenuously objected to Canada holding a vote in the League of Nations. It is time Lord Milner and his friends should know definitely and finally that Canada is not going to have her thinking in matters vital to her affairs done by a colonial minister of the British Government. Lord Milner is a man of great mental capacity, and has a distinguished record in public life, but he is of the old imperialist school, and if he could would have the Empire, colonies, dominions and all ruled and run from London. As he cannot have this, he is out for some sort of an imperial parliament. Lord Milner should not worry or fret. The greater the self-government, the greater has been the happiness, contentment and loyalty of the dominions. Our present association with the motherland is the healthiest, cleanest, and safest possible. We have common purposes with England, which is really the only bond that is necessary. A "sister nation," as the prince expresses it, fits the case exactly.

AN ESTIMATE OF MACKENZIE KING.

The Canadian Magazine for November contains an illuminating and sympathetic sketch of the new Liberal leader, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, from the pen of the editor, Mr. Newton MacTavish. There are few young men in Canada who have been more lauded and more criticized than King in the period that he has been in political life, a very clear indication that he is no mere figure-head nor even has been. Mr. MacTavish thinks that youth has always seemed to be King's greatest foe. "The boy minister" they called him when he entered the Laurier cabinet, but the title would not be applicable today, for the Liberal leader is now 45. Moreover, "by reason of his studies, by reason of his opportunities, by reason of his great endowments, by reason of his unusual experiences," he is well prepared for the work that he lies ahead of him.

Mackenzie King's career has been no ordinary one. He showed an interest in social problems before he was out of college, and that natural bent led him into newspaper work on the Globe, and then on to the University of Chicago and Harvard, where he secured his doctor's degree, and might have remained to become a professor. Instead, he returned to Canada, and undertook for the Government important investigations of industrial conditions that paved the way for his entry into public life as deputy minister and later minister of labor. In 1911 he was withdrawn from this work by the defeat of the Laurier Government, and thereupon entered upon an investigation of industrial conditions the world over for the Rockefeller Foundation. He had been there about a year when the war broke out. Of this period Mr. MacTavish writes:

"Almost immediately he entered upon the most poignant distressful period of his life. He easily could have joined the militia and obtained a comfortable post, for at his age he scarcely would have been permitted to go to the front. Quite apart from that, however, we find a remarkable coincidence. Mackenzie King at this time was engaged, besides his other duties, in obtaining material for his book, which is a study of the life that affect industrial life, and which was undertaken in the same spirit in which the British Government thought well of having a special department established to study the problem of industrial reconstruction. At the same time, Dr. MacDougall King was engaged in writing his book on 'The Battle With Tuberculosis, and How to Win It,' a work that has been taken by both the Canadian and American Governments for use in all their military hospitals. Here, then, were two brothers devoting their splendid energies to the task of ameliorating man's condition in life."

Mr. MacTavish states further that at this time Dr. MacDougall King was a victim of tuberculosis, and had been on his back for two years, during which time and afterwards he and his family were supported in large measure by the brother, Mackenzie King, who, quite apart from his personal affairs, was aiding several of the largest war industries on the continent to adjust their industrial relationships so as to secure continuous and maximum output of essential war materials. To give one instance of the result of a plan drafted by him, each man's output for the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company was greater during the time the United States was at war than at any other coal company in America. During this time there were other demands of a personal character upon him, as Mr. MacTavish points out. His father, who lived in Toronto, had become blind, and the care of him, as well as of the aged mother and a sister also fell upon Mackenzie King. The sister died a year after the war began, increasing the immediate and personal responsibility of Mr. King for his aged parents. A year later the father died, and the mother moved to Ottawa to live with her son. For one year she was ill in bed with a trained nurse in constant attendance, and at the end of that time she, too, died. Thus during the whole of the war period there was this succession of family responsibilities of a distressing character thrown upon Mr. King's shoulders, but all serving perhaps to direct his mind more and more to the opportunities for service on behalf of suffering humanity.

The selection of Mackenzie King as Liberal leader Mr. MacTavish regards as a logical happening, in view of the long preparation of this man for the responsibilities of public life. Possessed of an engaging personality, with a keen sense of justice and uprightness, an abhorrence of sham and crookedness, a sympathetic outlook on life, a logical mind and all those finer qualities that mark the man, there is no doubt that the new Liberal leader is now entering upon the period of his life in which he will be able to bring into reality those ideals for humanity that have been shaping themselves through the years.

HELP THE Y. W. C. A.

Beginning today, the Young Women's Christian Association of this city starts a three days' campaign for funds to help carry on. There is no welfare organization in London that is more worthy of hearty and substantial assistance than the Y. W. C. A. Within the last few years women have become a vital part of our industrial and commercial life, so much so as to be indispensable to a large degree. It is estimated that at least 60 per cent of the army of women workers has been recruited from the country, the village, and the small town. To them—in most cases coming from home life—living economically and comfortably in the city is a good deal of a problem. Here is where the Y. W. C. A. steps in, providing excellent quarters, the physical welfare so necessary to efficient service—whatever may be one's position—and the wholesome surroundings of home life. That the fine calibre of tens of thousands of youths today is in a large measure due to the training and influences of the Y. M. C. A., nobody will deny. For the sisters of these men the Y. W. C. A. is engaged in the same splendid service. To give the organization financial aid that is urgently needed is good business, quite apart from the moral and religious necessity of such an organization which nobody questions. "Come across" for the Y. W. C. A.

THE FATHER OF THE QUAKERS.

Thomas Carlyle wrote one day, in his quaint but vigorous fashion, the following remarkable words: "The most significant incident in modern history is not the Diet of Worms, still less the battle of Austerlitz, Waterloo, Peterloo, or any other battle, but George Fox making himself a suit of leather. This man, the first of the Quakers, was one of those in whom the divine idea is pleased to manifest itself, and across all the hills of ignorance, shine in awful and unspeakable beauty."

Memorable, also, is the deliverance of Wendell Phillips: "Thee and thou, a broad-brimmed hat, and a plain coat are not George Fox, at least in our country. You will recognize George Fox in him who rises from the lap of artificial life, flings away its softness, and startles you by the sight of a GRAND MAN."

A grand man, indeed, was the founder of the "Society of Friends," commonly called "Quakers."

Born in Leicestershire, England, in 1624, Fox was apprenticed by his father to learn the trade of a shoemaker, but when the prospective cobbler reached the age of 20 something happened that was to "shunt" him off on to an altogether different line.

The young apprentice began to feel that there was "something the matter" with himself. He acted strangely, and was evidently in great distress.

Some thought the young man was going mad, others were of the opinion that he was suffering from some physical ailment. Certain of his friends advised him to "get married," others to "join the army," while others still "thought he would do well to 'smoke tobacco and sing psalms.' A venerable clergyman who was much interested in him begged him to "take physic and have himself bled."

The young man listened to all of them without taking up with any of their prescriptions. He wrestled with himself for three or four years, stood by his guns without calling for reinforcements from any quarter, and finally fought his way to victory.

He announced that he had been made the recipient of a "revelation." God had told him something, and it was for the purpose of making that something known to the world that he began his preaching on that memorable first day of September, 1647.

In 1689 Fox came to America, where he remained until 1673. During this period he visited every section of the country from Massachusetts to Georgia, preaching and exhorting men to "turn from darkness to light," from the slavery of the letter to the glorious freedom of the Spirit.

And what was the character of the "revelation" that came to the man in the suit of leather?

It was none other than this: That God deals at first-hand with his children, and that all divine inspiration is simply a matter of the "Inner Light" which belongs to every man.

Would you know God? Then look WITHIN—and listen.

Read what is written upon your own soul. There is an "inmost centre in us, all truth abides in fullness," and by reference to that centre you may find the light you seek.

Worship? It is purely spiritual—the calm, silent communion of the soul of man with the Infinite Soul.

No ecclesiastical red-tape is required. Closer than the mother is to the child, is God to humanity.

Forms and ceremonies serve but to distract us. Look within and live!

Such, reduced to substance, was the teaching of George Fox.

It is unnecessary to say that the world today can show no finer people than the followers of Fox. Splendid citizens are the Quakers wherever they are found.

From Here and There

AFTERMATH—JULY 19.

[Siegfried Sassoon in the London Nation.]
Have you forgotten yet?
For the world's events have rumbled on, since those gagged days.

Like traffic checked a while at the crossing of city ways;
And the haunted gap in your mind has filled with thoughts that flow

Like clouds in the lit heavens of life, and you're a man relieved to go.
Taking your peaceful share of time, with joy to spare.

But the past is just the same—and war's bloody game,
Have you forgotten yet?
Look down, and swear by the slain of the war that you'll never forget.

Do you remember the dark months you held the sector at Mametz?
The nights you watched and wired and dug and piled sandbags on parapets?
Do you remember the rats, and the stench
Of corpses rotting in front of the front-line trench—
And dawn coming, dirty white, and chill with a hopeless rain?

Do you ever stop and ask, "Is it all going to happen again?"

Do you remember that hour of din before the attack—
And the anger, the blind compassion that seized and shook you then.

As you peered at the doomed and haggard faces of your men?

Do you remember the stretcher cases lurching back
With dying eyes and lolling heads—those ashen grey Masks of the lads who once were keen and kind and gay?

Have you forgotten yet?
Look up, and swear by the green of the spring that you'll never forget.

THE TWO LANGUAGES.

[Ottawa Journal-Press.]

Rev. Dr. Love of St. Andrew's Church, Quebec, undoubtedly spoke the truth at the Presbyterian Synod the other day when he declared that a better understanding between the two dominant races in Canada could best be promoted by encouraging the acquisition by both French and English of a knowledge of each other's language. A better understanding must come from greater mutual knowledge of the life and aims of the two peoples, and that knowledge must come from easier intercourse through the medium of the spoken and written word. There is generally far less ill-feeling and far greater mutual respect and admiration among those of the two races who understand each other's language than among those who do not. And it is a reflection on the English-speaking people of Canada that the percentage who have acquired the French language is much smaller than the percentage of French-Canadians who have learned English. It would be well, as Dr. Love urges, if greater effort were made to have the school children learn both languages as far as possible.

VOX POPULI, VOX DEI?

The following letter appeared in the Vindicator of Poland, Ohio. It is from the pen of the Rev. W. H. Wilson, a Baptist minister, and a native of this city. He is a brother of the late Nicholas Wilson.

Is the people's voice the voice of God? Is the democracy of the twentieth century the ideal form of government?

When the news came of the death of Andrew Carnegie I recalled the last view I had of the great philanthropist over ten years ago. It was on the first celebration of Founder's Day by the schools which his large munificence had endowed in Pittsburgh. The doughty little Scotchman was leading the procession, and I was reminded of his remarkable book on "Triumph of Democracy," published some forty years ago. No better proof of his triumph seemed possible than the author himself—born in poverty, a captain of industry, a benefactor to millions of his race.

It was said after his passing away that grief over the awful war had shortened his life. The man who built the Peace Palace could not long survive the calamity that defeated its purpose and shattered his hopes for humanity.

The heir to the throne of the greatest of world empires has been touring the country where the success of popular government has been tested. But he does not pose as a prince. He mingles with the crowd as one of the people. For the day of empire is past; the day of democracy has come. George V., though inheriting the forms of royalty, is no more than a chief magistrate of a free people. It would seem that democracy has triumphed.

What of the future? But peace has not yet come, and no man can tell what a day may bring forth. The world is in a state of flux. What its future may be is a dark problem. Five years of destruction and misery, and yet no assurance of relief! Autocracy has met its doom, but not yet has democracy triumphed. "Our Boys," who dealt the decisive blow, not only proved their morale as fighters, but maintained their morale as men. But the ships which carried home our heroes seem to have brought to our shores, hidden somewhere in the cargo, the bacilli of lawlessness which has plunged the nations of Europe into anarchy. Their deadly work amazes us as we read the daily record of robbery, murder, frauds, strikes, and the "unrest" which tells plainly that the war is not won. It is well that we should stop and think.

There is something in human nature that always lends to extremes. This is more especially true of the crowd and the community. Some great wrong is discovered, some error that needs correction, and there is a rebound that does not stop at the golden mean. We wanted the world freed from despotism and safe for democracy. The need of today is a democracy safe for the world. Democracy breeds demagogues. That is an ill-chosen word. It properly means leaders of the people, but the demagogues, of which we have not a few in Congress, only want to lead men anywhere they are willing to be led by them.

This writer, and there are many who are like him, believes that now as never before men need to lift up their eyes to the Sovereign Ruler, over all nations, and with bowed hearts implore his aid to save the world. Democracy will not save it, apart from God. The rule of righteousness will never come till men recognize a theocracy. "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." "Ye are the salt of the earth," said the Christ to his disciples. What does that mean? Nothing else than that the preservative element which can arrest the progress of anarchy and disorder, and bring back society is the church whose disruption gave it this "charge to keep." Mr. Carnegie, who set such a noble example to the possessors of wealth, was an agnostic, and did not place his trust in the latter standpoint of a believer in God and in him who revealed God to man.

The Irish Question.

A great ovation greeted the men who came over the ocean to present the cause of Irish freedom to the citizens of the United States. This is a time for calm reflection and cool judgment. Intelligent men cannot be deceived by rhapsodies deriding the British Government. What might have been said of ours which for eighty years upheld human slavery? All ought to know that British rule has been in the main beneficent and uplifting to the weak races incapable of successful self-government. Missionaries and men of affairs have testified to this from personal knowledge. It is notably true of Egypt and India, despite charges made by some who never saw those countries. It would be true of Ireland if agitators did not stand in the way of reforms. I am an Irishman through-bred, more so than De Valera, though by accident of birth American. No truer friend have the people of the Great Isle than Lloyd George, just as the laboring class of this country have no better champion than Woodrow Wilson. But in both cases the profifers of help have been rejected. There is something in the air that makes men impatient and distrustful.

But, worse than distrust of men is the turning away from God and his word which we profess to believe and obey. What if we were under the rule of Nero? Yet it was when that tyrant ruled in Rome that the Apostle Paul said: "Put them in mind to be in subjection to rulers." "I exhort that prayers be made for kings and all that are in authority." Under such a government Peter enjoined Christians to "fear God, honor the king." Now in the churches prayers are offered for the recovery of the president, who collapsed under a burden such as no man before him has had to carry. We should also make continual prayer for the afflicted world. "From whence cometh my help? My help cometh from the Lord who made heaven and earth." Let the voice of the people be the echo of the voice of God, and his will be done. This is the only panacea for the woes that have come upon us.

the importance of asking for sugar by brand name? Do you realize that to have a sugar which will give unfailing satisfaction in preserving, in baking, and for all sweetening purposes, you should ask for—and insist on getting—Dominion Crystal Sugar.

Women who use this brand have found it to be all that a sugar should be—pure, sparkling, finely granulated. And it is with satisfaction they realize that this finest of sugar is "Canadian from the ground up." A large part of the output of our three modern refineries is obtained from raw cane sugar—but our pride is in that increasing proportion of our output which is made from Canadian Sugar Beets.

Our whole-hearted effort is directed toward the equitable distribution of our product to the thousands of Canadian grocers who are our customers—in order that their customers may have, in their kitchens and on their tables, this sugar they like so well. So we pass up the tempting opportunity of export business, in order to first place at the disposal of Canadian grocers and Canadian homes every available pound of

The House of Eddy

A Factor in Canadian Life

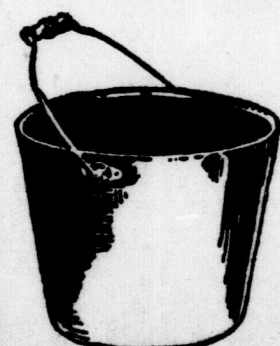

It is probable that not a day goes by in which the House of Eddy does not make life more comfortable and convenient for you. Eddy Products—Eddy Conveniences—are woven into the very fabric of Canadian life. You light the kitchen fire, or the gas-grate of a morning—or perhaps your pipe, and the comfortable glow springs from the end of an Eddy match-stick.

Eddy's Products

are Products of Convenience

Eddy's Indurated Fibreware Pails, Washtubs and Washboards are widely used on the farm and in the cities. Your butter was shipped in an Eddy Butter Tub, which kept it free from taint or odor. Eddy Milk Pails play their part in keeping your supply clean and sweet. Your purchases from the store are sent home in Eddy Paper Bags. It is highly probable that the newspaper you are now reading is printed on paper which was made at Hull—by Eddy.

HEALTH BOARDS WARN OF NEW INFLUENZA DANGER

Ask People To Be Careful, Use Proper Preventatives, Take Treatment Promptly—What To Do.

To be prepared for any recurrence of the serious outbreak of influenza and pneumonia that last winter swept over the entire country, taking their toll in thousands of human lives, public health boards everywhere are issuing cautions and instructions to the public not to neglect treatment at the first symptom of a cold and to co-operate with health boards and physicians in stamping out the spread of the disease.

Be on guard, they say, against the first suspicious sign. No disease develops so quickly or spreads so rapidly. The first symptom usually is a sharp rise in temperature to 103 or 104 degrees, headache, pain in the back, throat feeling dry or sore. Unless promptly checked by proper treatment, the best plan is to go to bed and stay there for at least a week, keeping warm to avoid pneumonia, and let the minor ailment run its course and also prevent the spread of the disease to others.

Most of us, in these busy days, cannot afford, if it can be avoided, to lose a week or more of work so it is all the more necessary that at the very first sign of cold, gripe or influenza a counter-acting treatment be resorted to. Probably no better or more effective treatment could be followed at such a time than to get from the nearest drug store a complete Hyomel outfit, consisting of a bottle of the pure Oil of Hyomel and a little vespocet, hard rubber inhalant device into which a few drops of the oil are poured.

Put the inhaler in your mouth and breathe its air deep into the passages of your nose, throat and lungs. Every particle of air that enters your breathing organs will thus be charged with an antiseptic, healing balsam.

You can't do this too often. The Hyomel Inhaler is small and can be conveniently carried in a handbag or in your vestpocket. Every half hour or so, throughout the day, take it out and draw a few breaths of its pure healing air into your nose and throat. Relief should come almost instantly as the gripe or influenza symptoms subside, congestion ceases, fever disappears and throat conditions become normal. The outfit is not at all expensive for the rubber inhaler will last a lifetime, while the Oil of Hyomel can be obtained from any corner grocery or drugstore. Lots of people already have a Hyomel Inhaler. Take it out, change it and use it without delay. If you haven't one, get it today.

A few cents spent now may easily prevent serious illness and save many dollars and help stamp out the spread of the disease.—Advt.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $7, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will give you the idea of its permanent place in your home.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth); then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the bottle. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you 16 ounces of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every passage, loosen a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief for throat, chest, tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Silver Decorates Evening Gowns

Exquisite Textile Creations and How Silver Combines To Produce Great Charm of Effect With Modern Lives.

By Mme. Frances, Famous Creator of Fashions, New York City.

The fashions are praised for the beauty of their simplicity—they are not gilded, nor yet, silvered. Not so of the season's evening gown! Surely Solomon in the glory of his gift and silver, his purple and paucity, was not arrayed as the modern woman to whom the robes of the earth offer not the simplicity of the sky, but the wealth of mines which, through the genius of man is transformed into wonderful metallic brocades of gold and silver, and into fringes and laces that stun with the glory of their magnificence.

Never in textile history has the art of metallic weaving produced fabrics of such exquisite loveliness. Gold is wrought with yellow, silver with white, bronze, purple and black in brocade, that might have graced Sheba's queen, and silver is woven in these fabrics that suggest the beauty of an eastern night when Cleopatra and Antony watched the silver moon reflected in the depths of the Nile. One sees a gown of silver and white and the loveliness of the Taj Mahal bathed in the glory of India's moon is brought to mind.

The metallic lace and nets are especially lovely and silver is extremely popular combined with black or white, or with colors. Cloth of silver, backed with a color, green, blue or rose that gives a reflection of tone to the silver, is the most exquisite in effect. Metallic nets are also wrought into wondrous trimmings on evening gowns. In all of these trimmings silver takes precedence over gold.

Zip-Zag Embroidery. One of the most effective ways of using silver is in the form of "zip-zag" embroidery that gives a charming broken line far more effective than broad bands of embroidery or insertion of lace. Narrow "binds" or folds of silver are used to edge ruffles, tucks and skirts, with delightful effect. Silver fringe is extensively employed on many evening gowns and may be found in various widths. It is most popular in depths of six to twelve inches.

Silver and gold slippers, especially silver, are the most observed footwear with evening gowns, whether of the dinner, theatre or dance variety. Trimmings with rhinestone buckles or with small rhinestone buttons these slippers are important details of evening dress. Silver buckles are worn with old-fashioned effect on black velvet slippers if black footwear is desirable. Rhinestone buckles on silver slippers are also worn with evening gowns, and has the advantage of being softer than the heavier brocade fabrics. Pink, blue, yellow, rose and orchid are the favored colors, though silver and gold are always in demand.

A Gown of Pink Chiffon. Silver, being extremely effective worn as fillets on the hair. A lovely gown of pink chiffon embroidered in silver carries lines of grace worthy of this beautiful fabric. The supple bodice is given a sleek line by the arrangement of the shoulder straps, one side of which is cut in one with the triangle of silver ribbon.

The skirt shows a slight puffing on one side, and again suggests the Greek costume. This puffing is apparently held in place by a clasp of silver ribbon that wraps around the waist and hips in the line that Venus might have tied her girdle. The embroidered chiffon is draped around the figure in a slimmish of line that by its beauty defies the distended Velasquez silhouette. Deep silver fringe follows the line of the skirt.

NEAR HARRISON. A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized on Thursday, October 30, at the Centennial Methodist Parsonage, by Rev. H. T. Ferguson, when Miss Hattie Harrison of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. John Near of Lakeside, The bride, who is charming in her travelling suit of brown velvet with small velvet hat. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Arthur Rogers, where a dainty repast was partaken of, after which Mr. and Mrs. Near left by motor for Lakeside, where they will reside.

line and falls in lovely shimmering softness over the chignon.
A riot of silver ribbon binds the hair and silver slippers and flesh color stockings complete the glorious loveliness of this costume.

Another Silver and Color.
A lovely dress model combines silver with a contrast of several exquisite colors. In this dress there is a charming bodice embroidered in zig-zag lines of silver. Over the bodice are laid two scarf-like pieces of pinkish mauve chiffon, edged with silver. The flowers that are posed on the shoulders where the soft chiffon narrows to almost nothing, are mauve and orange. The skirt shows three lines of color, the top, green; the centre, magenta; and the lower, hyacinth. They are exquisite in their contrast with mauve and orange. Four scarves of pinkish mauve and orange are suspended from the girdle. They are gathered into long, silver tassels held by a calyx of emerald green. Silver slippers and pale orange or silver grey stockings are worn with this dress. A garland of orange and orange flowers tied with silver rests lightly on the hair. This gown, like so many of the evening models, is sleeveless.

Green Responds to Silver.
Green seems to answer to silver as few other colors do. Emerald, chartreuse and jade are exquisite when trimmed with silver.

A lovely frock of chartreuse chiffon displays silver fringe and silver "binds" or narrow folds. The bodice combines silver and silver lace. On the chartreuse side are run several folds of cloth of silver, and the extremely short kimono sleeves are also finished with "binds." A tinge of emerald green laid beneath the bodice and just below the girdle on the skirt shows the reflection of this color. The skirt as usual on these colorful frocks, carries several lines of silver. The narrow folds of chartreuse green chiffon are gathered into a double spiral ruffle of chartreuse green chiffon around the figure. These ruffles are edged with green and silver. Silver tassels follow the bias line of the ruffles and continue twice around the skirt, that narrows to a slender train. The ankles and ends in a slender train.

Silver is also employed to elaborate demitoses, such as restaurant, or theatre gowns. A charming model is developed from geranium pink chiffon. The bodice is cut kimono and reaches only to the neck on each side front so as to display sleeves and neckline. The narrow sleeves, on which are mounted ruffles of tulle edged with silver.

A tiny binding of silver outlines the neck and ends in a slender train. Below the ruffles run "binds" or folds of chartreuse and silver. The narrow skirt is emerald green.

An Extremely New Skirt.
The skirt of this gown is extremely new. It shows a gathered underdress of geranium pink chiffon banded with silver. Over this fall long, narrow, and heavy silver tassels that drag the back of the gown like four slender trains when the wearer steps forward.

With this colorful gown is worn a hat that is exquisitely contrasted with the vivid tones of the dress. Made of whose duty consists in "vamping" the husbands, who accompany their wives to such establishments, they are being received with enthusiasm by the great dressmaking establishments of the world. For one thing, they will not tire like the living model, they are more economical and they are dependable.

Women At Home and Abroad

LIVING MANNEQUINS GIVING WAY BEFORE WAX FIGURES.

In the great dressmaking establishments the possibility of strikes on the part of living mannequins and the increasing tendency on the part of the girls of today to enter professions in which they feel they are definitely accomplishing something, is leading to the use of wax figures in the place of living models. These figures are being made, not clumsily as the models which were often seen in shop windows, but with infinite care and artistic skill.

The artist employed, molds the wax in much the same way as he works on a clay figure, with the exception, that in the wax figure, he strives to produce natural color as well as form. These figures are equipped with real hair, eyes, lashes, teeth, etc., and are jointed in such a way that they can be posed in any way necessary for the display of the gowns. Many of them are also furnished with a mechanism which will allow the figure to move about the room and assume different postures. To prevent falling a gyroscopic attachment is part of the equipment of the wax model.

Though there is doubt that the purchasing value of these wax figures will be as great as the living model, part of

Consequently they are placed out into homes, some of them good and some of them far from satisfactory, when it is a matter of producing Canadian citizens. That the state should undertake to see that these children receive a proper education is the matter which is shoving itself upon the public conscience of today.

Further, it is felt that the number of these illegitimate citizens of the world might be greatly lessened if good, wholesome recreation were provided young girls, and clubs established, where they might spend their evenings in a healthy and useful way.

Perhaps one of the prettiest of Halloween parties was that held at the Protestant Orphan's Home, when the children, all dressed up for the occasion, spent one of the happiest evenings of their lives. The home has been much gay for the occasion with all manner of reasonable decorations and quantities of good things supplied for the children to eat. A pretty feature of the party was the presentation by the children of an electric iron to Miss Auld, the retiring matron, who has served the interests of the institution for 35 years. Miss Auld also received a very handsome gold-mounted pan from the staff of the home.

NEAR-HARRISON.

A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized on Thursday, October 30, at the Centennial Methodist Parsonage, by the Rev. H. T. Ferguson, when Miss Hattie Harrison of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. John Near of Lakeside. The bride looked charming in her traveling suit of brown velvet with small velvet hat. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Arthur Rogers, where a dainty repast was partaken of, after which Mr. and Mrs. Near left by motor for Lakeside, where they will reside.

Dentist's Recipe For Pyorrhoea, Bleeding Gums or Loose Teeth

If your teeth are loose or if your gums are receding, or if they bleed easily, or are spongy, flabby or colorless and discharge pus, go to your dentist and get one ounce jar of Epithol and gently rub a little over the gums with your fingertips each night and morning.

This is a famous dentist's prescription for such serious gum diseases as Pyorrhoea or Riga's Disease, which make the teeth loosen and fall out and usually brings prompt relief from all the dangers of infection. Loose teeth should be kept in place. Epithol is easy and pleasant to use, and not expensive, as one ounce will last for many weeks. Anyone suffering from Pyorrhoea or Riga's Disease or Sore Throat gums should give this remedy a trial.—Adv.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

John D. Jun.
Dear Miss Grey.—Some time ago I asked if you could kindly find me J. D. Rochester, Jun., address? Please answer in the column and oblige.

Ans.—Your query and the following reply appeared in issue of Monday, October 13: If you go to New York City and inquire at No. 4 West Fifty-fourth street, you'll find the office of J. D. Jun., located there, I think.

To Make Pot Pourri.
Dear Miss Grey.—I would like very much to have someone in your column tell me how to make "Pot Pourri." I have the rose leaves gathered and ready but do not know what to put with them. Thanking you for your trouble, sincerely,
V. F.

Ans.—Here are two methods: think if I were making pot pourri I should use the second one: 1. Take the dried petals and put in a jar with alternate layers of dry salt mixed with orris powder, then stir the whole up and moisten with rosewater. 2. Dried lavender root ½ lb., broken cloves, cinnamon and allspice, each 2 ozs., take leaves together and add the other ingredients to the salt. Place alternate layers of the two mixtures into your jar, and keep it closed tightly for several weeks.

Work Midst Canadian Shantymen Is Aided by Local Donations

Rev. Thos. Joplin, Field Secretary, is in the City.

The Rev. Thomas Joplin, field secretary of the Shantymen's Christian Association, is in the city campaigning for funds to help spread Christian teaching among the lumber men living in Canadian forests. This association was established in 1912 by W. Henderson, the present superintendent, and since that time has done excellent work in sending out missionaries among the men and distributing copies of the Bible.

Every year various church organizations in the city and individuals have subscribed to this fund, amounting in all to $394.81. The societies contributing last year were the Aberdeen Association, Marion Keith Club, First Evangelical Church, First Presbyterian Church, Chelsea Presbyterian Church, Centennial Methodist Prayer Service, Knox Church, Y. W. Society, Wellington Street Methodist Church, Coburn Street Methodist Church, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Sunday School, Adelaide Street Baptist Church, Askin Street Methodist Church, First Methodist Church, Talbot Street Baptist Church, New St. James' Presbyterian Church, and Knox Church, W. Western U. Has Habit of Annexing Championships

May Upset Dope This Year Again—Kingswood Out For Saturday Game, Making Heavy, Speedy Back Division—Rooter Chorus Also Has Treats in Store For Fans.

Western University have a faculty of turning in championships for the city of London, and it wouldn't be surprising if they should continue the pleasing practice this season again after a four-year lay-off. In 1914-15 they brought the Dominion rugby championship and the Northern League honors to London in a first effort, and this year they have splendid chances of upsetting the done in the Intercollegiate Intermediate series, because if they can put Varsity away, they should not experience much difficulty in settling the dispute with the winners of the eastern group.

A Good Work-Out. With every man in tip-top shape after their hard game in Toronto last Saturday Western went out again last night and hard at it for over an hour. The touch of winter weather gave an added pep to the work-out, and Coach Brock drove them unmercifully. The team is thoroughly keyed up to the game on Saturday, as they fully realize that a loss or even a win by less than nine points finishes their football career this year. All the signals worked beautifully in Toronto, so Coach Brock worked all last night on new plays which should stand the Toronto team on their heads. He watched the Varsity style of play very closely on Saturday, and the team should benefit greatly from the instruction received this week. Roy Kingswood, the speedy basketball player and halfback of former years, has done the most in gain and was out at practice last night and had no difficulty in picking up the signals. His speed and weight should be of great assistance to Western on Saturday. That will give Western two men on the back line who can tear off a hundred yards in less than eleven seconds, and as both weigh over one hundred and seventy pounds they are playing football. With Capt. Cline, Kingswood, McGeech and Simpson, Western have four star basketball players, and should any loose balls come their way, there is little chance of them going begging for an owner. Each Simpson and Cline pulled off some real catches in Toronto last week, and a "h-texas-league" stuff which caused practice every day this week, and should be in condition to do the battle of their lives on Saturday.

A Rooter Chorus. Those who attend the rugby game on Saturday at Tecumseh Park will be treated to a novel entertainment in the form of a rooter chorus. It is no less than an organized rooter's chorus of over one hundred students. "Will the girls be there?" you ask. Why certainly they will, right in the same section as the boys, and their voices, while not so strong as the men's, will blend very nicely in the numerous parades on local popular song hits that will be presented during the intermissions and the game itself. The students fully realize that the team is deserving of their support, and with organized victory, songs and parades should do much to help the team to a win. A song sheet has been prepared, and the line-up of the two teams, officials, scoring points, etc., and a full page of the songs, so that the spectators can follow the efforts of the rooters during the game. Two practices will be held at the University gym on Wednesday and Friday nights of this week, and according to reports all the students will be there in their best rooting voices.

ARGOS DECIDE TO ENTER PROTEST AGAINST TIGERS

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—At a meeting of the executive committee and players of the Argonaut football club tonight it was unanimously decided to protest the protest against Hamilton lodged after the game there on Saturday, in which the Argos were beaten 9 to 6. Tigers won when McKelvey, who carried the ball for the final touch-down in the last half-minute, was fouled by the spectators who were swarming over the field at the time, and Argos could not reach the runner to make a tackle.

There was not a dissenting voice at tonight's meeting. The Double Blue feel that they have a duty to perform in connection with the protest. They want to bring matters to an issue, and prevent, if possible, a recurrence of the incident at Hamilton. The protest will be forwarded to the inter-provincial rugby union immediately.

FORM CITY BASKETBALL LEAGUE IN ST. THOMAS

ST. THOMAS, Nov. 4.—The formation of a city basketball league for the coming season was decided upon at a meeting held in the Y.M.C.A. when J. Dowler was chosen as the president of the league. The games will be played in the Y.M.C.A. gym, and as there is considerable material for the game in the city, the league should be composed of very good teams. The matter of entering a team in the O. R. A. has not been decided locally as yet.

INTERNATIONAL HEADS WILL MEET TODAY TO SHAPE UP CIRCUIT

Binghamton Franchise May Go To Montreal—Star Chamber Session Is Certainty.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Owners of the International League clubs will meet here tomorrow to dispose of the surrendered franchise of the Binghamton club. Montreal, Providence, Syracuse, Scranton and Akron are said to be applicants. Some hitch may result in awarding the franchise, as the owners of the defunct club not only surrendered the franchise, but released or sold all the players, which is claimed to be an illegal act.

There is also said to be strong sentiment among some of the barons to seek peace with the majors and restore the draft. The Toronto club is said to be particularly strong for such action.

City Basketball

League To Get Started Soon

Six Teams Are Expected To Make Up 'his Year's Organization.

The local basketball situation has not been organized yet, but every night finds some of the season's prospects out for short workouts, and it is possible that a six-team city league will be in operation within the next two weeks. The league will be the number of teams and their make-up is not known yet, but there is plenty of material lying loose around. As usual, London will be represented by a city team, recruited from the city organization.

Along with other lines of athletics, basketball looks as if they were going to have a more than share in the general awakening.

The Y. gym. is a busy place these days, with changes going on from the middle of the afternoon daily until late in the evening.

Classic City Fans Hope For Return of Old Hockey Days

STRATFORD, Nov. 4.—Stratford is getting into hockey with both feet this winter and fans are looking hopefully to the local teams retaining some of the laurels which came to the city in days gone by.

Charlie McDonald of Hamilton has been engaged as trainer, and is expected to get the boys rounded up in a day or so. The plan is to have them work out at the rink for the present and later some road work will be taken up. The boys will be given a stiff preliminary so that when the ice comes they will be ready to get down to real hard work.

There seems plenty of good material about the city this year, and both juniors and intermediates should come along nicely. If they don't there are going to be a lot of disappointed fans.

MAY FORM TOWN HOCKEY LEAGUE IN WATERLOO

WATERLOO, Nov. 4.—Waterloo fans are considering the question of organizing a town hockey league. It is suggested to include the bankers, insurance men and factory teams, if suitable arrangements can be made with the rink company the league will probably be organized.

MOTHERS! NEVER NEGLECT WHOOPING COUGH

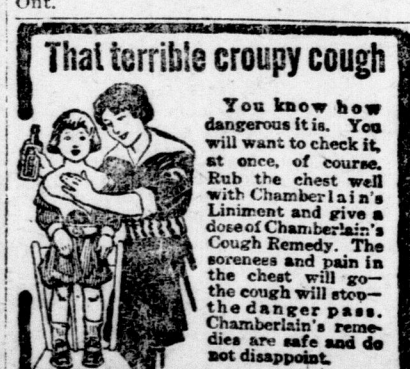

Many mothers make the mistake of thinking that whooping cough is not of serious importance, but unfortunately this mistake often leads to the neglect of this dangerous child's disease.

Never neglect whooping cough, for it may be followed by some serious lung trouble.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble. It will clear the clogged-up air passages of the mucous and phlegm that has collected, and in this way bring on the "whoop" which brings the so-much-sought-for relief.

Mrs. Francis Burlington, New Gate B.C. writes: "This spring three of my children took the whooping cough, and they had it so bad I thought they would choke. I was getting pretty worried when my sister wrote me, telling me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I sent for some right away, and, believe me, I will never forget how it worked. I will always have it in my house."

There are many imitations of Dr. Wood's on the market. Get the genuine when you ask for it. It will pay in the end. Put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ELECTRIC CHAIR FOR 6 NEGROES

Rapid Progress Made in Trials Resulting From Arkansas Race Riots.

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 4.—Rapid progress marked the trials today of cases growing out of the recent race disturbances south of this city. One negro being convicted of first degree murder after eight minutes' deliberation by a circuit court jury, and five others suffering a verdict of guilty to a similar charge, all at the same time, after the jury had been out seven minutes. The verdict means electrocution for the six negroes. In the first of the two cases tried today, that of Frank Hicks, several witnesses for the state testified they saw Hicks fire the shots the morning of October 1, which resulted in the death of a white man, an ex-soldier of this city. The defense announced it had no witness, and the case was waived. In the second case, Moore, Ed. Hicks, J. E. Knox, and Ed. Coleman, charged with the murder of Lee White, a white man, were tried. The defense argued for a verdict of manslaughter, but the jury, after deliberating for seven minutes, returned a verdict of first degree murder, and returned in seven minutes.

Lord Astor Finds It Difficult To Get Rid of Tile

Lady Astor Opens Campaign At Plymouth.

London, Nov. 5.—"Some people find it difficult to get tiles, but my poor husband finds it difficult to get rid of his," declared Lady Astor, in opening her political campaign yesterday in Plymouth.

Lord Astor said he was going to do all he could to get back to the Commons, but did not see why he should be deprived of his ordinary rights of citizenship.

The contest is likely to be extremely fierce. The Liberal candidate, Isaac Foot, is the local solicitor and town councillor. He unsuccessfully fought Sir Charles Hanson in the Bodmin election last December.

The Labor nominee is W. T. Gay, local co-operative stores manager.

A Witness Testifies SHE WAS WEAK AND NERVOUS

Brampton, Ont.—"About five years ago I began suffering with woman's trouble. I became all run-down and weak and nervous, I was so completely down and out that I could not do anything, and I had the doctor and took all the medicine but without getting better until I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his Golden Medical Discovery. It was only necessary for me to take about three bottles when I was completely restored to health and strength and I have been in better health than I ever was before. I have had no more medicine since, but should I need it I would take these same remedies, knowing them to be excellent."—MRS. HARRY KNIGHT, Jessie St.

OWES HER LIFE

Baskatchewan, Alta.—"It is with me a matter of life and death. I hope it will. In my many sufferings who do not know the good Dr. Pierce's medicines would do them if they would try them. In regard to my condition, I will say that I suffered from childhood from a very weak back; I had the misfortune of having spinal meningitis when I was one year old and until I was 12 I did not see a well day, but a very kind lady told my mother about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and to my surprise in three weeks I was out of bed and better. I owe my life to it and nothing else, and shall never be without it. If any sufferer wishes to write, I will answer with pleasure."—MRS. NOEL BARTHOLOMEW.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat, also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Let less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to cleanse the kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

LABOR CANDIDATES WIN SEVERAL SEATS IN BRITISH RIDINGS

Municipal Reformers Successful in 14 Out of 28 London Boroughs.

London, Nov. 5.—Final results in the municipal elections show that besides the huge gain in the country, Labor candidates have won several seats in the London boroughs. Municipal reformers, who correspond roughly to the Conservatives here, have a majority in twelve boroughs. The progressives, otherwise Liberals, have practically disappeared.

The Daily Telegraph recalls former Premier Asquith's recent remark: "The Labor party has housed the Labor party. I hope it will be so again."

ESSENTIAL GERMAN TRAINS TO BE RUN

Suburban and Workmen's Trains To Continue—May Be Political Move.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—The German Government has taken a very drastic step in connection with the railway service. The coal scarcity, had locomotives and what not had reduced the railway system to a state of great disorganization and for some time the running of certain trains being discontinued have been suspended. Having discussed the whole situation, the imperial cabinet today decided that from November 5 all the essential German trains should be run at all. The only exceptions are suburban trains around large cities and absolutely necessary workmen's trains. After November 5, all other trains will be run, which are essential to the economic life of the nation.

This step is said to have been taken in connection with plans for facilitating the transport of coal for the military, but of which Germany is having difficulty.

The decision is decreed by the imperial cabinet, but as the separate states have still got rights over their own railways, it is expected that objections will be raised by them against the imperial authority.

Whether the action announced has any political consequences is difficult to say at the moment. Troublesome times are ahead in the ensuing days when the German Government's political complexion is to be tested.

PROHIBITION DRIVES U. S. LIQUOR ABROAD

Exports for Eight Months of 1919 Are Nineteen Times Imports.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Radical changes in the foreign trade of the United States in spirits, wines and liquors, due to the prohibition legislation, are reported by the department of commerce.

For the eight months ending with August, 1919, the value of liquor exports was nineteen times as great as the imports, while in the year 1914 the value of the exports was five times the value of the imports.

The first eight months of the present year totaled $35,214 in value, or at least $77,424 for the complete year, while in 1917 the import trade of the United States in this commodity amounted to $17,579,132, and in 1914 to $2,347,546.

Exports for the eight months ending with August, 1919, amounted to $9,893,655, as compared with $5,883,013 for the corresponding period in 1918, and $8,417,178 in 1917. Continuation of this export trade is expected by the department in view of the great quantities of liquor now in bonded distillery and warehouse.

JOURNALISTS ARE MIGHTY HUNTERS

Irvin Cobb, Damon Runyon and William Macbeth Get Big Game in N. B.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 3.—Irvin S. Cobb of the Saturday Evening Post, Damon Runyon of the New York American and William Macbeth, assistant sporting editor of the New York Tribune, struck camp at 6 o'clock Saturday morning, and after a week in the New Brunswick woods back of Petate, they have a pile of eighteen miles through the woods in the form of an automobile and were driven back to Fredericton, where they boarded the train. Cobb, Macbeth and Runyon had been with the party, but left on Thursday.

The members of the party were enthusiastic about New Brunswick and its beauties, and said that although they had heard much of its game, they had never expected to find moose and Adam all in one place. When they left Macbeth to return next year, and if possible to make it an annual event.

Mr. Macbeth came back saying that they broke camp at 6 o'clock that morning and went to Petate at 12 o'clock, although the guide had given them two more hours to go. "Cobb fell in a stream on the way and went up to his neck," said Mr. Macbeth. "He had some time getting him out. Then he went to work and sprained a ligament in his leg, so his party here are here at all."

Mr. Macbeth said that they had had luck. "We brought down two moose and three deer," Runyon got the moose and a deer. "I got a moose and Cobb got two deer."

ably was the first time in history that president had congratulated a candidate of the opposite political party on his election to office.

MICHIGAN ELECTIONS WERE CONFINED TO FIVE LARGE CITIES

Detroit, Nov. 5.—The "off-year" election in Michigan yesterday was confined to five of the larger cities of the state. At Port Huron, where labor unions have been active in politics, John V. French, a street car conductor, was elected mayor by a small majority.

Kalamazoo elected a new city commission. Jackson elected John J. Bennett mayor and voted on long list of bonding proposals. At Muskegon seven over the city government recently adopted, and Mayor John H. Moore, brought as a result of the street car riots last August, was defeated.

With less than half of the street car snow flurries, and the first cold snap of the year.

KENTUCKY AND OHIO JOIN 'DRY' STATES

New York, Nov. 5.—Ohio and Kentucky today only two states holding elections yesterday in which prohibition was a direct issue, has enrolled commissioners to draft a voluntary abstention, on the face of partial prohibition.

Turnout at the polls was reported to be better than that of the state reported. Secretary of State Smith predicted it would be found Ohio had the largest turnout of voters.

In Kentucky it appeared that the state-wide prohibition had been carried by a large majority.

'WETS' CANDIDATE IS ELECTED GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 5.—Edward J. Edwards, Democratic candidate for governor of New Jersey was elected yesterday by a plurality of approximately 12,000. With returns coming in early today from only thirty-one of the 211 districts in the state, he had 20,471 votes as compared with 17,117 for Newton A. K. Buehse, his Republican opponent. The victor stated his political future upon the election of the anti-liquor laws.

Leaders of both parties profess to believe this was the issue which had most to do with deciding the contest. Edwards pledged to oppose ratification of the prohibition amendment and to fight by "all lawful means" enforcement of anti-liquor laws. He has promised his support to women's suffrage.

Democratic governor-elect will have a Republican Legislature against him, for that party elected 15 of the 21 senators and 33 of the 40 assemblymen. The only Republican gain in the upper House was the election of a candidate to a seat which was vacant at the last session, but they won three new places in the assembly.

COOLIDGE IS ELECTED

Boston, Mass., Nov. 5.—Governor Calvin Coolidge was re-elected today by a plurality of 124,172 over Richard H. Long, Democrat. The revised vote of the state complete: Coolidge, 319,000; Long, 193,074.

The vote given Governor Coolidge was the largest ever cast for governor in this state, although his opponent's vote had exceeded. Long also opposed Governor Coolidge last year and was defeated by a plurality of 17,935.

MORROW IN KENTUCKY

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—With ten counties missing, a majority of 23,000 returns early today gave Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, a majority of 23,000 over Governor-elect, Richard H. Black, Democrat. In the race for governor of Kentucky, Republican state returns from the ten missing counties will give Morrow a total majority of 30,000 votes.

DEMOCRATS CARRY MISSISSIPPI

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 5.—Additional returns from election day showed service only to roll up the big majority by which Mississippi state officers were carried by Democrats. The vote polled by any of the Socialist candidates, the only opponents of the Democrats, was less than 10,000. The governor-elect is Lee M. Russell, and his successor as lieutenant-governor is H. H. Caudill. The legislature will be solidly Democratic, as there were no opposition candidates.

ROTH IS RE-ELECTED

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 5.—James H. Roth was re-elected mayor yesterday, defeating Eugene Schmidt, a former mayor, by approximately 20,000 majority. Figures compiled early today show that Roth carried by one-half of the vote of the city indicated.

RECOUNT WILL BE ASKED

New York, Nov. 5.—Complete returns of the vote for president of the board of education of New York City show that Representative F. H. Lacardina, Republican, defeated Robert L. Moran, Democratic incumbent, by 1,363 votes. An official recount will be asked for in Mr. Moran's behalf.

MOORE DEFEATS WESCOTT

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—Congressman Philip H. Wescott was defeated by a majority of 183,516 over Harry D. Wescott, his Democratic opponent, according to the complete unofficial count today.

McLEOD-LAWRENCE

BLENHEIM, Nov. 5.—A quiet wedding took place Monday at the home of Mrs. Mary Lawrence, when her daughter Mary Ellen was married to the presence of immediate relatives to Maxwell R. McLeod. The knot was tied by Rev. A. E. Jones. They were home to their friends after November 15. The groom is a railroad man, and the bride was assistant postmistress here.

GRAIN

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Opening: Corn—December, $1.36 1/2; May, $1.23 1/2. Oats—December, 72c; May, 73c. Chicago, Nov. 5.—Produce strength developed in the corn market today, owing to forecasts of unsettled weather. On the advance there was considerable selling on the part of commission houses. Dealers in many localities, however, reported that farmers would not be so ready to sell at present values.

Hay, which ranged from $10.00 to $12.00, was unchanged, with December at $1.30, and May at $1.30 1/2. In 1919, were followed by a reaction set in, rains were dull and relatively weak. After opening at 72 1/2 to 73 1/2, the market underwent a material sag. Winnipeg, Nov. 5.—Oats opened 1/4c up at 82c.

Flax unchanged for December at $4.17. May 1/4c higher at $4.12. Inspections totaled 550 cars of all grades of wheat. Liverpool, Nov. 5.—Cotton—Futures closed steady

TO GROW HAIR ON BALD HEADS

Specialist Gives Simple Recipe That Works Fine.

Thousands of people suffer from ba and falling hair who, having tried every advertised hair-tonic or hair-grower without results, have turned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is hopeless; the following simple description has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled in restoring grey hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out, and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put up by any druggist: Bay Rum, 1 ounce; Cayenne, 1 ounce; Sassafras, 1 ounce; Lavender de Camrose, 2 ounces; Alcohol, 1 pint.

Crystals, one-half drachm.
 you wish it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and speciallats and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently used in hair tonics. Ladies using this description should be careful not to use it on the face or where hair is desired.—Advt.

HOW THIN PEOPLE CAN INCREASE WEIGHT

The result was there, but your food does not work and stick, and the plain truth is that you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of living. This is true of thin folks all the world over. Your nutritive organs and your functions of assimilation, are so weak that you are out of gear and need reconstructive treatment.

Be Generous & Noble
THURSDAY, NOV. 6.
The astrological outlook for this day is a very encouraging one. There is prospect of an important change of fortune, unanticipated or unplanned. Either of these abrupt affairs is ill result in financial gain or other advantageous issue, as Jupiter is in one's most benevolent positions—in respect with the Moon. The main ca-anxiety will be with regard to health, as Saturn is wielding a slight but universal influence. Or it may bring some kind of disappointment or delay. In such a case, the person is advised in the signing of papers, contracts, etc., Mercury be in the sign of the Moon, or in the quadrature to the Moon, which will put it in a fortuitous position. Those whose birthday it is are promised a prosperous year, with increase in business and money. They should be careful of their health. A child born on this day will be kind and generous.

WOMEN AT WORK

During the war, millions of women have been at work in vocations which they have never before held—in Munition Factories, Chemical Works, Metal Works, Street Railways and as Ambulance Drivers, Barbers, others have longed to serve in ay, but because of female ailments which had fastened upon them, were ble to do so. Women in this conpon should give Lydia E. Pinkham's vegetable Compound a trial and alth and strength, as thousands thers have so done.

"THE WESTERNERS" AT THE MAJESTIC LAST OF THE WEEK

Big Photodramatic Production Showing at Popular Theatre.

Remember when you were a boy—or a girl—how you used to love on a winter's night to get hold of one of those thrillingly interesting stories, curl up before the fire, munch on an apple, and read and read, fighting away sleep until you had come to the end of the tale?

That's the sort of story "The Westerners" is—a book that you cannot lay down until you have finished it. But, better still, the story has been adapted to the screen, and is to be presented at the Majestic on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Here you will have it done in film form, with the whole stirring story actually pictured before your eyes, a little more than an hour in the visual telling of it. It's a real melodrama, with action every minute.

All next week Professor Kekoa and his company of musical artists will provide the vaudeville part of the program at the Majestic.

HEADS TRUST COMPANY.—Arthur T. Little was elected president of the London and Western Trusts Company in succession to the late George S. Gibbons, at a meeting of the directors Monday.

GLASSES YOU WEAR SHOULD BE MADE FOR YOU.
GLASSES that merely seem helpful to your sight are not necessarily the lenses that will correct your vision any more than a pleasant-to-taste drug is certain to correct some other physical ailment. Allow our optometrist to look back through your pupil—back through the corner of your eyes at the crystalline lens. If there are no opacities he will discover by other tests the manner in which your weakened eye muscles have interfered with your sight.

"BROKEN BLOSSOMS" AND VAUDEVILLE AT GRAND ALL THIS WEEK

D. W. Griffith's "Broken Blossoms," showing at the Grand all this week, is a tale of love and lovers that they tell in the low-lit caseway that sinks from West India dock to the dark waste of waters beneath. The hero is a Chinese aristocrat who has left his temples and rice fields in Shanghai to bring the doctrine of Buddha to the people across the water. But he finds that they have no ear for his message, and with Oriental philosophy, he settles down in a little shop in Pennyfield, where he is known vaguely as a poet. He meets the child. His instant love for her beauty hidden under pain and hunger and terror, his rescue of her from the brutal waster who owns her, and their few short hours together in his sanctuary above the shop are unfolded in a series of the most exquisite scenes ever projected on the screen.

VAUDEVILLE
M. Adolphus and company, headline of the vaudeville bill, presented the last time today. Monsieur Adolphus and his clever assistants present a most artistic offering of classic and up-to-date dances.
Marshall Montgomery, ventriloquist extraordinary, supported by Edna Courtney, is the extra added feature.
Lorays and George, a pair of eccentric comedians, singers and dancers; Wallen and LaFavor in acrobatic eccentricities, and Joe Paramo, the Italian musical comedian, are the other acts.

Mayor Doesn't Want "Every Little Movement" Published, He Says.

Another secret meeting pertaining to city business was held on Tuesday. After being barred from two meetings of the board of education in the last few days, reporters were requested to leave the special meeting held yesterday afternoon of number one committee of the city council, which met to talk over the advisability of buying the London Street Railway. Those present were Mayor C. R. Somerville, Ald. E. S. Little (chairman), Ald. F. E. Harley and Ald. O. I. Cunningham and City Clerk Samuel Baker. Leonard Tait, secretary-treasurer of the Street Railway Company, was also present.

Mayor Somerville declared that he did not believe in having the press from any ordinary meeting, but he did not think that negotiations could very well be carried out with "every little movement" being reported in the public press. Ways and means which would
