YOUR HOUSE.

Be true to yourself at the start young man,
Be true to yourself and God;
Ere you build your house mark well the spot,
Let the ground and build you not
On the sand or the shaking sod.
Dig, dig the foundation deep young man,
Plant firm the outer wall;
Let the props be strong and the roof be high,
Like an open turret toward the sky,
Through which heaven's dews may fall.
Let this be the room of the soul, young man—
When shadows shall herald care,
A chamber with never a roof, a thatch
To hinder the light—or door or latch
To shut in the spirit's prayer!
Build slow and sure: 'tis for life young man,
A life that outlives the breath;
For who shall gain the Holy Word!
'Their works do follow them,' saith the Lord,
'Therein there is no death.'
Build deep and high, and broad, young man,
As the useful case demands;
Let your title-deeds be clear and bright,
Till you enter your claim to the Lord of Light
For the 'house not made with hands.'

RISE AND PROGRESS OF METH- ODISM IN TORONTO.

BY REV. JOHN CARROLL.

FIRST ARTICLE.

The original town plot of Toronto, called York at the first, was selected by Gov. Simcoe, and laid out under his direction, after his arrival in the Province in 1792, at which time he caused a military road to be made nearly due North to the lake which has ever since borne his name, Lake Simcoe; that road is the well-known Yonge street. As the Governor preferred the seat of government to be further from the frontier than Newark, (Niagara) where the first parliaments were held, he removed his residence and the Legislature to York in 1796, which was then considered sufficiently advanced to receive them.

During the Methodist Conference year 1801-2, there was a Circuit denominated the "Bay Quinte and Home District," which latter term, of course, included York and the country around it. Whether the itinerants ever then preached in the village, which was at that time so wild as to be called "Rogues' Harbor," or not, we have not the means of knowing, they must have passed through it in their fortnightly rounds. The preachers appointed to this Circuit were the Rev. Joseph Sawyer, Peter Vannest, and Nathan Bangs, the last of whom speaks of very interesting labors in the Yonge street settlements as high up as Newmarket, though he says nothing concerning the town itself. The next year, Bangs and Vannest labored on the same ground. In 1804-5, the "Home District" became a circuit by itself, to which the Rev. William Anson was appointed. In 1805-6, the name was changed to "Yonge Street," and the Rev. Daniel Fickett was the preacher. He continued through the year 1806-7. He was succeeded by the Rev. Andrew Prindle in 1807-8, and he by Rev. Robert Perry in 1808-9. In 1809-10, the Rev. John Reynolds succeeded to this circuit, and, in after years often spoke to the writer of his labors and experiences in the Yonge street settlement, but made no mention of any interest in the town at its southern extremity. But his successor, the Rev. Joseph Lockwood, who was there during the year 1810-11, we are quite sure informed us, that he sometimes preached in the town, we think at Dr. Stoyles's, and that he was often entertained by a branch of the Detlor family, (German Irish) from Bay of Quinte, whom we know remained there through the war of twelve. Towards the latter part of this year, Mr. Lockwood located and taught a school in the town several months. The Rev. Andrew Prindle was re-appointed in 1811-12. The Conference of 1812, on the eve of the war, appointed to the Yonge street circuit, the Rev. Joseph Gatchel, who desisted from the work before the war was over. Then succeeded three years constituting a sort of non-historic period, during which the printed Minutes make no references to Canada; but, though we know that Messrs. Rhodes, Culp, Harmon, and Elder Ryan, labored in the region around, we are quite sure that they were little known in "Little York," as some who resided there during the most of that time, never heard of a Methodist preacher in the town till the war was over.

Yonge street resumed its place in the Minutes at the Conference held at Lyons, N. Y. June 20th, 1816-17. The preacher's name was not printed in the Minutes. It is possible that the presiding Elder's supply for it was the noted James Jackson, inasmuch as we learn from the journals of the Genesee Conference that he was recommended by the quarterly Conference of that circuit to become a travelling preacher at the end of that year. In 1817-18, Yonge street Circuit had the Rev. David Culp for its minister. Duffin's Creek gave name to a new circuit, to which the Rev. James Jackson was appointed. Whether they travelled in concert over the whole ground embraced in the two circuits or not, it is morally certain that they began between them, to supply the town of York with preaching. Their chapel was sometimes a little unoccupied house on the north side of King street, about one third of the way from Bay street. One Sunday afternoon, the itinerant horse, which was tied to the fence while his master was holding forth within, was plastered with filth, along with the saddle, by some vulgar youngsters. This was the worst opposition we ever knew them to have encountered. During this memorable year, funds were collected throughout the Province by Elder Ryan, and the frame of the first meeting house was erected before the Conference year was ended. It stood mid-way between Bay and Yonge street on the South side of King street. It was a very plain, unpretending structure only about 40 by 30 feet square.

In the Conference year, 1818-19, York was made the head of a new Circuit, and the Rev. David Culp was appointed to its charge. But we have every reason to believe that Messrs. Jackson and Rundle, who were appointed to Yonge Street Circuit, also assisted to supply the York pulpit, Mr. Jackson preached the second Sermon. Under that sermon, Mr. Wm. P. Patrick was converted, who became the first leader of the first class.

The newly formed class in connection with this chapel was found to consist in the beginning of December 1818, of six members Mr. and Mrs. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. James Lever, Mr. James Hunter, and probably Dr. Stoyles. On the 5th of the month Mr. and Mrs. Doel, arrived from England, via Philadelphia, and gave in their certificates, making eight. Two of Mrs. Patrick's sisters, a Miss Gilbert and Mrs. Dr. Morrison, became members soon after as did Mrs. Mary Carroll, who found peace after several years of religious melancholy, while a hymn was being sung. Among the members at an early day were "Father Starks," as he was called, an American, who owned a Saw-mill on the "Blue-Hill Creek," in the woods, east of where Yorkville now stands; Mr. Hastings on the Danforth road, two miles east of the town, and Messrs. Magin and Pilkey, the latter a convert from French Roman Catholicism, who came to class on week nights, eight miles or more out of the woods of Scarborough. Nor must I forget Mr. Thos. D. Morrison, who was then a clerk in a government office, and afterwards a highly respected physician in the city, who became a leader in after years.

York continued the next conference year, 1819-20, a station by itself, and the Rev. Samuel Belton was the preacher at the wooden church. The society received an augmentation by the arrival of some devoted Irish Methodist, via New York, such as the Crawfords and others. Their meeting was very demonstrative and powerful; but, before the year was out a British Missionary, the Rev. Henry Pope, arrived, and several of the first formed Society, who were Europeans, drew off and joined him, while other old country people of Methodist proclivities were gathered up by Mr. P., and some new ones joined. But while his numbers increased, Mr. Belton's decreased. The real augmentation of Methodism under the two several sorts of preachers was only eight. No very great recommendation of the doctrine of those who plead for the divisions in our common cause!

This state of things existed at the commencement of 1820-21. Mr. Pope continued as the appointee of the British Conference. His preaching place was the Masonic Lodge room, over a public school in a narrow street, now called Market Lane. The arrangement which took place between the American General Conference which sat at Baltimore, in the month of May, 1820, and that of the British Conference which followed in the month of July following, took Mr. Pope away about the close of that year; and the whole ground was left to the Rev. Fitch Reed, who had been appointed by the Genesee Conference, which sat at Lundy's Lane, in the month of June 1820. We shall reserve an account of Mr. Reed's labors who continued two years, for a second article.

... ENGLISH WESLEYAN PERIODICALS.—The English correspondent of the Chicago Christian Advocate gives the following information: "The Wesleyan Conference issue, or cause to be issued, several magazines, of these the oldest, which is now venerable for age, being four score years and ten, and has appeared with an uninterrupted regularity during that long period, still shows signs of life, power, and usefulness as great as it ever did. Although the price is high, one shilling monthly, yet it reaches a circulation of 25,000 each issue. It is ably conducted, and is at once authoritative and creditable to the body it represents. Divinity, biography, science, art, and literature, are all judiciously blended, and its editor, Mr. Frankland, the son of an old minister, and himself a preacher since 1845, has won for himself great praise for the judgment with which he has maintained the character and circulation of this the oldest of religious periodicals. During the present year, what is known as the sixpenny magazine, which used to be made up from articles selected from the previous month's larger work, has appeared as an entirely new work under a new editor, the Rev. B. Gregory. It has already made a favorable impression in the body for boldness and originality, and a freshness which has made this edition once more a favorite to readers generally, which it could not be when it consisted of last month's cold meat re-hashed and re-served. Some of the seniors in the ministry are reported to have felt some misgivings at the freedom of expression and thought which characterized the early issues this year, but fear has now given place to commendation, seeing that the change works well morally and financially. Both these serials are illustrated with a finely engraved portrait on steel of one of the preachers. The newspaper press of English Methodism is represented by the Watchman, which has had an uphill career from its birth in 1835. It arose out of a storm, which, for a time threatened the peace of the body, and has had amongst its editors some able and worthy men—laymen—amongst whom Dr. Humphrey Sandwith and Mr. William Gattwiser will always deserve honorable mention. Its last editor, Mr. Rigg, died about a year ago, and his successor has not been appointed. In the meantime two of the preachers at the Mission House are rendering the paper their aid. It is simply a broad sheet of news, and one of its features at present is to give a sort of panoramic sketch of the opinions of the principal political papers in England on all current topics. Religious newspapers do not flourish in England, and the Watchman has long felt the force of that fact. An exception to the rule just named must be made for the Methodist Recorder, a weekly penny broad sheet, which, in spite of its uncomfortable size and form, takes admirably with the people, and has a weekly circulation varying from 25,000 to 30,000. In its contents will be found a fairly digested summary of religious and general news and literature, with some of the features which distinguish American newspapers; an occasional tale of the right stamp and ring, and frequently a good sermon. Its circulation has been improved lately by a series of ten letters, which have chronicled the journeys of Mr. Punshon during the past year, written by the preacher himself, and which are read with an eagerness and delight which the writer may be able to understand. The Rev. Luke H. Wiseman, the junior Secretary at the Mission House, is Editor-in-Chief.

... "WESLEY PREACHING ON HIS FATHER'S TOMBSTONE."—Of the subject of this fine picture the notice of the Sunday Magazine says: "Seven years after his father's death, seven weeks before his mother's, 'a grave man, little of stature, in full canonicals,' stood on his tombstone in Epworth churchyard, and preached there for eight successive summer evenings to dense and ever denser crowds. 'Near forty years,' John Wesley says, 'did my father labour here; but he saw little fruit of his labour. I took some pains among this people too, and my strength also seemed spent in vain. But now the fruit appeared. There were scarce any in the town in whom either my father or I had taken any pains formerly, but the seed sown so long since, now sprang up, bringing forth repentance and remission of sins.' A new religious movement had sprung up, destined to waken the religious life of England, and to found a vast Church, and of the first fruit that was gathered the seed was sown by the patient hand of the old rector of Epworth. Nor was this the only mark he left upon it. His gift of rhyme developed in his son Charles into a worthier faculty. The poet of Methodism became the poet of the Church, and hymns of Wesley will be sung as long as there are hearts in England to love Christ."

... THE MISSIONS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.—The British Colonist, of Victoria Vancouver's Island, in Noticing the Annual District Meeting of that Island and British Columbia, says:—"This meeting has just closed its sittings in this city. The reports from the various missions on the districts speak of marked progress. The congregations are enlarged; and increase of membership to every mission is recorded, and every financial claim is fully met besides a contribution of nearly a thousand dollars to the General Missionary Funds. The mission to Cariboo is a great success, the Rev. Mr. Derrick having in a few months built and paid for a church and parsonage costing about two thousand dollars. On the New Westminster mission, under the superintendence of Rev. Mr. Browning, a revival of religion has added 20 members to the church, and an increased attachment to its ordinances is most marked throughout the whole of that mission and nowhere more so than among the intelligent and energetic mill-men at Burrard Inlet. We are glad to chronicle success in every thing that is good, and wish our Wesleyan friends a continuance of their present prosperity. The stations for the ensuing year remain the same as at present.

MEETING OF COMMITTEES.

The Contingent Fund Committee, in the large Committee Room, on Wednesday, June 9th, at 6 a.m.

The Church Relief Fund, on Monday, June 7th, at 7 a.m., in the same place.

We HOPE our friends who so kindly furnish us with reports of Meetings and other communications, will excuse the liberty we take in frequently greatly condensing their remarks. We find it absolutely necessary to do so to find room for them all.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES LAST NIGHT.

The Rev. Hugh Johnson, M.A., preached in the Adelaide Street Church, an admirable discourse from Rev. ii. 10; when fidelity to Christ, and the reward that awaits the Christian, were beautifully and touchingly discussed. The Rev. G. N. A. F. T. Dixon preached a sound, practical discourse at Yorkville, from Heb. iv. 16.

The Rev. J. S. Evans also preached at Richmond Street to a large and appreciative congregation; and Bro. Fish to a crowded house at Elm Street. We have no reports of the sermons.

OPENING OF CONFERENCE.

LARGE ATTENDANCE.

THE REV. W. M. FUNSHON, UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED PRESIDENT.

THE CONFERENCE PRAYER MEETING, &c. &c.

The forty-sixth Annual Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, commenced its sessions in the Richmond Street Church in this city, at 9 o'clock a.m., yesterday. At the appointed hour a large number of the brethren were in attendance, and though here and there one bore traces of the ravages of time and the wear and tear of another year, they generally presented a well-preserved and robust appearance; and whatever may have been the labors and trials through which they have been called to pass during the year, their joyous countenances indicated that they had been forgotten. At the appointed moment the Rev. W. Morley Funshon, M.A., President of the Conference, was promptly in his place, and commenced the proceedings by giving out the 478th Hymn, which was spiritedly sung by the Conference, the Rev. John Hunt leading. The Rev. the Secretary of the Conference read the 52nd Chapter of Isaiah and the 4th Chapter of the 2nd Epistle to the Corinthians. The Rev. Dr. Wood and the Rev. A. Hurlburt led the Conference in prayer. The names of those appointed by the several District meetings to attend the Conference, were called for and reported by the several District Secretaries. The roll was then called and three hundred and sixteen ministers answered to their names.

The Rev. the Secretary then read the following extract from the address of the British Conference. "We cheerfully accede to your request that the Rev. W. Morley Funshon, M.A., should be permitted to reside and labour among you at least for a term of years, and be subject to your jurisdiction. The choice of the President of your next Conference, we leave to the assembled brethren." The Conference then proceeded to ballot for President, the result of the balloting was the unanimous election of the Rev. W. Morley Funshon, M.A. The President then addressed the Conference:

He thanked the Conference, and he thanked God, for the position he occupied. He adverted to the hearty welcome accorded him on his arrival a year ago, but stated that the present vote was an evidence of the continuance of their confidence after becoming acquainted with the man and his communications in his goings in and out from Stanstead to Sarnia. He thanked God for the preservation of health in journeyings of 10,000 miles, during which time he had addressed 176 public assemblies. He hoped that the utterance of the first unpleasant word would be indefinitely postponed and that the sessions of Conference, even in their driest details, might be to each a "means of grace."

The President then, according to usage in such cases, nominated the Rev. Geo. Douglas as co-Delegate for the ensuing year, and requested him to take his seat upon the platform.

Mr. Douglas on coming forward, was warmly greeted by his brethren. He briefly thanked the Conference for the honor conferred upon him.

The Conference then proceeded to ballot for Secretary. Several names were before the Conference, and each had evidently numerous friends, for it was not until the fourth or fifth ballot that a majority was secured, when the Rev. Charles Lavell, A.M., was declared duly elected.

The announcement was received with applause; and Mr. Lavell briefly thanked his brethren for the renewed expression of their confidence.

CONFERENCE PRAYER MEETING.

At 12 o'clock the church doors were thrown open, and a large concourse of persons soon occupied the spacious edifice. The several hymns were announced by the President of the Conference; the singing was of the good old Methodist kind, spirited and lively. The Revs. Messrs. Elliott, Ex-President of Conference, W. Hall, J. Carroll, J. L. Sanders, J. Messmore, W. Scott, E. B. Ryckman, W. G. Campbell, the well known Irish Missionary, and Dr. Green led the meeting in prayer. A gracious influence rested upon the assembly, and many felt that they had been privileged to sit with Jesus in heavenly places.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 3 o'clock precisely, the President announced the 327th hymn. Rev. W. McCullough led the Conference in prayer. The Secretary of the Conference read the minutes of the previous session, which were confirmed. Revs. W. Scott and W. S. Griffin were appointed Assistant Secretaries, and the Rev. E. B. Ryckman, M.A., Journal Secretary.

The following lay Representatives to the Missionary Committee were then reported from the various Districts.

LITERARY NOTICES.

A COMMENTARY ON THE HOLY SCRIPTURES, by John Peter Lange, D.D., Professor of Theology in the University of Bonn, translated from the German, with additions, by Philip Shaff, D.D., in connection with several American scholars, New York: Scribner & Co.; Toronto: Samuel Rose, Wesleyan Book Room. Price $3 75 per volume. The usual discount to ministers.

No study is more worthy of an immortal being than God's Revelation of His will to man—none will so truly exalt his nature, ennoble his intellect and purify his heart. This study is an exhaustless fountain of delight and of profit. Modern learning and criticism have supplied most valuable aids to this important study. But none of these aids we think are so helpful, so comprehensive, so masterly, as that of which we now speak. This great work—a true "magnum opus" with more than the ordinary significance of the expression—is gradually approaching completion. There are now seven volumes on sale at the Book Room, comprehending the whole of the New Testament, except the Epistle to the Romans, the Epistles and the Revelation of St. John, and also part of the Old Testament.

For breadth and depth of scholarship, for vastness of research, for philological accuracy and correct exegesis, this work stands unrivalled in the array of critical apparatus of the present day.

Such works as this are a necessity of the times. Adverse and destructive criticism of the Word of God have been assailing the bulwarks of the faith, with immense energy and vast ability; but in that same land where pre-eminently unhalloved hands were laid upon the Revelation of God, noble champions of truth have been raised up, thoroughly equipped, and furnished for its valiant defence. Lange and fellow-laborers remind one of those grand old theological athletes, the early apologists of the Christian faith.

No authorized teacher of the people, especially, should fail to furnish himself with this invaluable aid to pulpit preparation. He will experience from its study an intellectual stimulus, and obtain an insight into the sublime significance of Scripture; and the vast abysses of thought it opens that cannot fail to give greater freshness, vigor and power to his public utterances. He will find here such a complete thesaurus of fact and argument, and exegesis as will enable him to meet unshaken the keen, subtle, and powerful attacks made upon many of the great cardinal truths of Holy Writ. The learned authors have not shrank from grappling with the difficulties which have been the strongholds of successive generations of skeptics. In this task they have been nobly seconded by their American translators and editors. The excursi furnished by the latter to the American edition greatly enhance its value, and make the work the best commentary on the Sacred Writings extant. We are convinced that none of the brethren who will carry home with them this magnificent "Bible-Work," and we hope that very many will do so, will have occasion to regret their purchase.

LATEST NEWS.

IRISH CHURCH BILL.

LONDON, Midnight, June 1.—The Irish Church Bill was read for the first time in the House of Lords to-night. It was agreed that the Bill should come up for its second reading on the 14th inst.

MR. MOTLEY IN LONDON.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Herald's London special says: Mr. Motley, it is understood, to-day addressed a letter to Lord Clarendon, informing him of his arrival in London and officially requesting the appointment of a day for the presentation of his credentials. As the Prince of Wales holds a levee to-day, to-morrow has been named as the more fitting time for the Ministerial introduction.

The burden of newspaper articles published here to-day, on the subject of Mr. Motley's arrival, is generally to the effect that the writers find in his speech in Liverpool an indication of the spirit of the instructions given to him by President Grant.

MARRIED.

In the Wesleyan Church, Newtonville, June 1st, by the Rev. Edward Morrow, M.A., of Conesoc, George Douglas Brown, Esq., M.D., of Kingston, formerly of Clarke, to Lizzie A. Walters, second daughter of the late William Walters, of Newtonville, Clarke, Province of Ontario.

This being the first marriage celebrated in the Church, a beautiful Bible and Hymn Book were presented to the Doctor and his lady.

DIED.

Yesterday (June 2nd), aged 12 years and 11 months, HARRIET SCORE PRICE, the youngest daughter of James Price, Esq., 166 Teranley street.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral this (Thursday) afternoon, at half-past four o'clock, from her father's residence.

BAPTIZING THROUGH THE ICE.—A contemporary notices that a letter writer from the Adirondack Mountains, who has seen young girls baptized in rivers through holes cut in the ice, writes to the Tribune to ask if it is consistent on the part of the Divine Master thus to commit, crucities which unbelievers would recoil from. He thinks that here is a good field for the exertions of Mr. Bergh and the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

A GRAND SUNDAY SCHOOL RECORD.—An American paper says: "A paragraph is going the rounds of the press to the effect that since Rev. Dr. Tyng assumed charge of St. George's Church, New York, the Sunday schools of his parish have included in all more than 20,000 scholars, yet he can show to-day the attendance of any individual of that entire number for any Sabbath of the quarter of a century of his pastorate. Such a record enables Dr. Tyng to point to more than fifty ministers of the Gospel who have been led along from the infant class into the pulpit, and more than a thousand of his scholars who have entered the fold of Jesus. And such records enabled George H. Stuart, of Philadelphia, to tell, some years since, of twenty-five ministers of Christ, nine missionaries to India and China, and five others in preparation for the ministry, already from his Sunday school during his connection with it."
