Hollinrake—Helliman.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Zion Church manse, 113
Darling street, on Tuesday morning in the presence of immediate friends, when Mr. William Paterson Hollinrake and Miss Margaret Edna Hilling man were united in marriage by the Rev. Gl A. Woodside. Mr. and Mrs. Hollinrake left by the 10 o'clock train on their honeymoon, followed by the good wishes of a host of friends.

The protect of the council would not include in the by-law was in the last degree important. As their by-law stands, there is nothing to prevent any shop keeper or huckster, at any of the street corners coming into the market as much as they like. It was objected that the shop keeper was prevented from buying directly from the farmer or when coming to the city, not to go to the market, but to sell in quantity to the shop keeper. The amendment I sought had no such meaning, or effect and was not in restraint of A public drinking fountain will be erected by the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Kansas as a memorial to Mrs. Carrie Nation, militant crusader against saloons. The fountain will be erected soon in Capitol Square in Topeka.

ment I sought had no such meaning, or effect and was not in restrain of trade as the shop keeper in his shop was not restrained from purchasing from the farmer when coming to the city to sell to him direct. It only prevented the shop keeper from stopping the farmer on the road to the market with his products and diverting him to his shop. verting him to his shop.

If it is good to stop forestalling on the market, it is equally good to stop it on the streets.

Again it was contended that the working man would be injured be-cause the farmer could not deliver butter to him. That again is not true, as under the original by-law any person could bargain with a farmer to deliver butter and would not in-fringe the original by-law. It is wonderful how some people's bowels of compassion open to the poor work-ing man. If I may be permitted to judge, I would say that these same working men are not so easily fooled as some people think.

I felt it to be my duty to make the situation plain to the public, as I have earnestly sought to have a real market in Brantford and not a delusion and a sham. J. W. BOWLBY.

Offer No. 1

In order to give you an opportunity of examining our famous "Special Selected" Rye Whisky free of charge, we will send on all introductory orders, express charges prepaid, a large bottle as well as a trial bottle. The latter is 2 ounce capacity, the same size as shown in this advertisement, containing exactly the same quality of whisky. When you get these two bottles, try the smaller one first. If you don't find it the smoothest, mellowest and finest whisky you ever drank, or if for any reason you are not satisfied with it, send the large bottle back, charges collect, and we will ask no questions whatever. We will send these bottles to you upon receipt of $1.50 and return the money if you return the large bottle. This is the fairest way we know of giving you a chance to try this—the Quality Whisky of Canada—free of charge. Offer No. 2

For $5.00 we will send you four large bottles of our "Special Selected" Rye Whisky, express charges prepaid. This whisky which we call "Special Selected" is seven years old and is distilled from the choicest grains selected by our experts and distilled in our distillery at Corbyville, Ontario, recognized as the most modern and up-to-date distillery in Canada. The whisky is matured in the old-fashioned way incharred oak casks in warehouses warmed during the cold weather so as to carry on the ageing at all seasons. We guarantee this and all our whiskies pure and conforming with all the requirements of the law.

But Allardyce was not prepared to talk about it yet—mot even to her alsters. They both saw this and respect the secret, and entered with eager zest into the thought of Miss Willoughby's entertainment. Their idea had been at the first not to attempt the entertainment of guests at their house, at any rate during this first summer; but they understood there was more in the coming of this friend or benefactor of their sister's than just an ordinary visit for curiosity or pleasure, and the interest of the situation grew upon them both.

Old standards, landmarks, old axioms seemed to be slipping from her grasp, leaving her foundering in a sea of specu lation and wonderment. And the odd thing was that with all this sense of upheaval and bewilderment she felt no depression, no desire to go back -rather an eager pressing forward into the unknown region that lay be-fore her, a region that lay wrapped in mystery, yet was tinted by the roseate hues of dawn.

Although she tossed to and fro in her bed, rose half a dozen times in the night to look out of her window and slept less than perhaps any pre vious night in her life, yet she did not miss her sleep.
