FOR THE FEAR SEX

A Column Prepared for the Delection of Ladies.

Hints on Fashions—What Women are Achieving—Women Who are Talked About—Their Fads and Fancies.

The World has been asked to give a column at least once a week to matters of especial interest to the fair sex. The request was complied and fairly it was decided to allow the space if someone would undertake the preparation of the copy. It was not in the power of dense masculine mind to grasp just what class of reading women would prefer. After a well-known literary lady was induced to undertake the work she was provided with copies of such of our exchanges as she desired and after five or six weeks she returned with a list of names to be continued as a feature of Saturday's issue and contributions should be addressed to Edith Laidlaw, Column, care of The World, Vancouver, B. C.

Women of Toronto will get out in the near future a ladies edition of the Globe. Women of Ottawa have decided to give out a similar paper on April 11th. Mrs. Froehlich will be chief editor. She is a sister of the late Mrs. J. A. G. Foster and Madame Oulmer. Some days the ladies of the city are busy with the novelists. The World, asking permission to relieve the staff of their duties for a day.

Hats for spring are to be as showy as possible, but the picturesque of the hat-drooping plumes that have all winter long nodded from women's head-wear will be given up. The crown will be a waved wave in which straw and velvet are mixed. The brim is made of a novel sort consisting of a wire netting with very fine crown wire with a waved wave in which straw and velvet are mixed. Zealots Fail to Understand the Meaning of the Word—Historical Recollections Bearing on the Subject.
Written for The World by Lady Cook, nee Tennessee C. Clady.
Written for The World. One of the surest signs of a well-balanced and well-informed man is that he is governed by moderation. All truly great men and women have been distinguished by it. Zeal and folly may run hand in hand, but moderation is the sure sign of a well-balanced and well-informed man.

and Mr. Mars, but so far as I can learn Mr. Postock has got about two to one in this contest. One of the richest timber sections of the interior of British Columbia is being developed by the Spallumcheen river near Hazelton. Mr. Postock has been successful in organizing a company to put in a saw mill on the Spallumcheen river. The project has not yet been completed. The timber has not yet been cut. The project has not yet been completed.
