Which Was The Heir?

CHAPTER V.
(Concluded.)

WHOM does it belong to? asked Sidney Bassington. To Sir Edward Rashleigh. He is a baronet, a young man? The lawyer paused for a moment, then went on reluctantly: 'He is very wild; indeed, nearly all the Rashleighs have been wild: hence the condition of the house. All the property is in a bad way, and, where it can be, is heavily mortgaged. You—when I say you, of course I mean the earl—hold some of the mortgages.'

'It is a pity we can't buy it,' remarked Sidney Bassington.

Mr. Oldham smiled to himself; it had very soon come to 'we.'

'Yes, it is a pity,' he assented. 'But though Sir Edward could cut off the entail, he will not do so. The baronetcy is a very old one, and he—I was going to say he is very proud and fond of the place; but I do not think he cares very much; it is his sister, Miss Eva, who is attached to it and it proud of it. She lives with him.'

'He is not married, then?' asked Sidney Bassington, with interest; for it occurred to him that if he should ever be master of the castle these would be his nearest neighbours.

'No; Miss Eva keeps house for him; indeed, keeps the estate together as well as she can. She is devoted to him, and he—well, I suppose she is the only person on earth for whose opinion he cares. I tell you all this, Mr. Sidney, because you will no doubt know them. For some years past the earl and Sir Edward have not met—you know that the earl sees very few persons. He and Sir Edward quarrelled about some land. The earl is quick—he was going to say 'quarrel,' but he checked himself.

'When you say "wild," how do you mean?' asked Sidney Bassington: his idea of being wild was to get tipsy on Saturday night, cut the billiard-cloth, and quarrel with the marker. 'Does he drink?'

Mr. Oldham nodded.

'Yes,' he said, sententiously, 'I think so; I should say so. He gambles, as far as he can, and is well known on the turf; he has, I think, a horse or two. He is very well known, too well known, in London. But with all his faults, he is very popular, both there and here; rides straight to hounds, is a capital shot; what is called a good all-round sportsman. Ah! talk of the devil—Here he comes!'

Itching Piles For 27 Yrs.

Despaired of ever getting relief until cure came 3 years ago with use of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Mr. John Johnson, Carleton, Alta., writes: "Three years ago I was cured of blind, itching piles of twenty-seven years' standing by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. I used to think that death would be the only relief I could ever get from the terrible misery of piles. "Dr. Chase's Ointment is worth sixty dollars a box instead of sixty cents. I am a different man since using it. I am farming all the time now and never miss a day. Words fail to express my gratitude for the cure this Ointment made for me. I cannot tell half as much about it as it deserves. Any one doubting this can write direct to me."

Do not accept an imitation or substitute in place of Dr. Chase's Ointment, for there has yet to be discovered a treatment which so promptly gives relief from itching and so thoroughly cures every form of piles. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. CHAPTER VI.

SIDNEY BASSINGTON saw a dog-cart approaching him; it was a high one, and the horse a tall and powerful animal, was coming at a tremendous pace down the somewhat narrow lane. As they came nearer Sidney Bassington saw that the young man who was driving was extraordinarily good-looking. His face, which was slightly flushed, was of the devil-may-care order; his eyes were brilliant and there was a reckless but not unpleasant smile in them; he wore his cap a little on one side and he drove like a man who knows how to drive and likes to get the most out of his horse.

But Sidney Bassington scarcely glanced at him, for the young lady beside him riveted Bassington's attention. She was very beautiful, fair as a lily, with soft and shenny hair and hazel eyes which were made lovely by a certain wistful tenderness—womanliness—which spoke of a pure and gentle nature: if eyes are the windows of a soul then certainly Eve Rashleigh's was a white and sweet one.

She was simply dressed, but with the taste which proclaims the lady; Bassington had never seen anyone like her—excepting in a magazine illustration; for all her gentleness and simplicity of attire he knew enough drawing his whip across the mare's back. 'Stylish-looking thing, isn't she? Got her cheap: last owner afraid of his very life of her. But she's all right, aren't you, Moll?' All this time Sidney Bassington had been standing trying to look at his case; but well aware that he was flushed and that he was standing awkwardly: his arms and his legs were in his way, and he didn't know exactly where to look. Mr. Oldham came to his aid.

'Allow me to introduce Mr. Sidney Bassington, Miss Eva,' he said in his bland way. 'He is Lord Starborough's cousin, and has come to stay at the Castle.'

He laid a little emphasis on the 'stay' which was duly noted by Sir Edward, who turned his brilliant eyes on the young man acute but well-bred attention. He reckoned him up in that glance from top to toe.

'How do you do?' he said. 'Very glad to see you. Staying at the Castle, are you? I suppose Mr. Oldham has told you that Lord Starborough and I are not pals? All his fault, I give you my word, ain't it, Oldham? Of course you wouldn't say so: too loyal, eh? Well, never mind whose fault it is; there's no reason why you and I, Mr. Bassington, should be at loggerheads and snarl at each other whenever we meet. I'm all for going easily, I am; don't ride me on the cab and I'm as gentle as a sucking dove, ah, Eva?'

She had bowed to Sidney Bassington and had sat listening, with a grave gentleness in her eyes. She coloured slightly at being dragged into the conversation, but smiled gently and said nothing, and her brother went on in his bright voice, and with a smile which had so much of fascination in it:

'So I hope we shall be friends, Mr. Bassington. I can't come to the castle 'cause of this row, you know; but I hope you'll come and look me up. You must come and dine with us—eh, Eva?'

She inclined her head slightly.

'And if you don't know the country—this is your first visit, isn't it?—I'll show you across it. It's not a bad country for hunting; and there's plenty of game, especially on your lands. I'll say that for Lord Starborough: he knows how to keep the game up. You must come and dine with us to-morrow? We're all alone—you and I can have a chat over a cigar and a bottle.'

'We shall be very pleased if you will come, Mr. Bassington,' said Eva, her low, subdued voice, with its gentle tones, contrasting with the bright, high-pitched one of her brother, which notwithstanding, it somewhat resembled.

Mr. Sidney Bassington coloured to the roots of his hair, and found still greater difficulty over the disposal of his legs and arms.

'Thank you. I shall be very pleased,' he said, almost hoarsely, in his nervousness.

'All right! Eight o'clock sharp. No use asking you, Oldham? We're tired of asking you—aren't we, Eva?'

Mr. Oldham smiled at her as he answered her brother's...

'I rarely dine out,' Sir Edward. I am a very hard-worked old man, and I am only too glad to creep into my slippers when my day's work is done and fall asleep in my old arm-chair.'

'He talks of being old, Eva?' exclaimed Sir Edward. 'He is worth half a dozen of us young 'uns yet! Well, so long! Moll won't stand any more gossiping.'

The mare had already begun to fidget and rear; but he brought her to her bit and sent her along in masterly style, the tall dog-cart swaying to and fro as they disappeared down the lane.

Mr. Oldham looked after them with his eyes narrowed and his lips pursed, as if he were deep in thought.

'Seems a very nice fellow,' remarked Sidney Bassington. Then, with the nervousness of a sudden doubt: 'I suppose I did right in accepting his invitation? The—the earl won't mind?'

Mr. Oldham awoke from his reverie.

to be aware that she was what he would call a swell.

The dog-cart came tearing along, Sir Edward's smile grew brighter, and he pulled up the big horse almost on its haunches beside the two men.

'Hallo, Oldham, how are you?' he exclaimed in a bright voice.

Mr. Oldham, raised his hat and returned the salutation and went round to the lady's side. Eva Rashleigh extended her hand to him with a gentle smile in her eyes, and he bent over the small hand with an old-world courtesy and reverence.

'You are looking well, Miss Eva, he said. 'You have a lovely afternoon for a drive.'

'That's what I told her,' said Sir Edward, with a laugh and a teasing glance at his sister. 'I had hard work to get her up here and she's in a mortal funk all the time, aren't you, Eva?'

She looked at him and smiled, and she shook her head; and Mr. Oldham knew that it was not for herself she feared; but that some act of recklessness on the driver's part might result in a mishap to himself.

'Just bought her,' said Sir Edward,

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"Don't send my boy where your girl can't go. And say, There's no danger for boys, you know. Because they all have their wild oats to sow!" There's no more excuse for my boy to be low. Than your girl. Then please don't tell him so.

"Don't send my boy where your girl can't go. For a boy's sin or a girl's sin is sin, you know. And my baby's hands are as clean and white. And his heart is as pure as your girl's to-night."

—Anonymous.

There is one great moral reform that I hope to see in the twentieth century will be at least started, and that is the abolishment of a dual standard of morality for the two sexes.

Not long ago I wrote an article on the old-fashioned mother and the wisdom of listening to some of her old-fashioned advice.

Shortly afterward, one of this sisterhood of mothers wrote to me to say that she thought that some of the things in the article applied to her son, but that it had rolled from his shoulders like water off a duck's back, because he was sure it was meant only for girls.

It wasn't meant only for girls by any means. On the whole, I think that most young men need a conservative mother's advice much more than their sisters.

But you'd need Diogenes' lantern to find the man who would admit that. A woman can't possibly understand the peculiar temptations a man has.

or the peculiar standards he lives by, think most boys. Of course, they expect their sisters to be refined and careful and straight. The very thought of anything else makes their blood boil. But as for themselves—that's different. They're men.

I am an ardent suffragist, but I would rather see women get their rights in this matter than at the polls. I would rather see the time when a man's sin and a woman's sin would be regarded in just the same light, than the time when women will have free access to the ballot box.

I realize, of course, that women are their own worst enemies in this thing. It is a sad fact that a man will forgive an erring woman far more quickly than her sisters will. It is they who harshly condemn the woman who "loved not wisely, but too well," even while they forgive the man who has deliberately led a fast life.

She has lost caste forever. He has merely been "sowing his wild oats." And yet it is the same sin. Isn't it abominable? Isn't it absurd? Isn't it shortsighted?

For we are doing ourselves far more harm than we realize. A prominent woman physician recently made the prophecy to me that the woman of the next decade was going to begin to demand of her lover the same clean record she brings to him.

I am not so hopeful of that. It seems to me the next century will be nearer the mark. The most I hope for is a gradual tendency in that direction.

But I do hope for that. And I do think the woman who is working for complete justice for her sex can do nothing better than try to abolish this dual standard of morality, and put in its place one standard of rights and wrongs for both sexes, one attitude towards the same weaknesses whether they be found in man or woman.

Liver and Stomach Wrong,

Indigestion, Bad Color, Pale, Fatigued.

Those oppressed by Palpitation and Heart Pains will find interesting Facts in this Article.

The following letter is printed with the hope that it will show a clear road to health to those who suffer the pangs of indigestion and weak stomach.

"I am anxious to send the message of hope far and wide to all who are in poor health, as I was a year ago," writes Mrs. Ernest P. Gomez, from Meriden. "For years I have had a weak stomach and have experienced all the distress caused by indigestion. I may say that the heart pains, watery risings, pressure of gas from fermentation at times almost drove me wild. For a time I could scarcely eat a mouthful without causing myself endless misery; I could not sleep well, my color was fearful, dark circles under my eyes, bad dreams, etc.

"As a last hope I was persuaded to try Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. As I persevered with this treatment my appetite gradually returned, and I began to relish my meals. My strength slowly returned, the headache and chest pains grew less severe, and at last I began to look my old self again. Dr. Hamilton's Pills cured me, and I use them occasionally still because I find as a system regulator and health-supporter no medicine is equal to them."

The same medicine that so wonderfully restored Mrs. Gomez will also cure you, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00. Beware of substitutes. By mail from the Catarrhzone Company, Kingston, Ont.

Three Children Burned to Death.

Parry Sound, Ont., Feb. 12.—News has reached here that three children have been burned to death in a fire at Shawanaga, at the home of Freeman Carpenter, about eighteen miles north of here, on the C.P.R. The house was totally destroyed by the fire, which occurred Friday night about twelve o'clock. The father and mother, the five children and a young lady who was visiting at the home, retired to rest about 10.30, leaving a good fire in the stove. Mrs. Carpenter was awakened by the glare of light and aroused her husband and a young woman, who slept in an adjoining room. All the children were asleep upstairs. The father rushed up the stairs and succeeded in getting three of them, but one of them died four hours later. The other two boys were burnt to a crisp. Nothing whatever of the furniture was saved, and the woman escaped with but little clothing.

Doctor's Strange Story

"I used to write for a medical periodical. On returning home one day after a very heavy day's work at the hospital, and feeling completely exhausted, I found a note from the editor. 'Please let me have an article on such-and-such a subject to-night.' I sat down with pen and paper before me, but not a word could I write. Then I lay back lazily, and began to speculate as to the cause of my want of ideas. I thought, 'The brain is the same as it was yesterday, but yesterday I was not tired; perhaps it is the feeble circulation that prevents the brain from acting. If the blood does not go up to the brain, I may bring the brain down to the feet.' I therefore placed my head flat on the table, looking sideways at the paper, and began to write easily. On raising my head again every idea fled, so I placed my head again down on the table, and finished the article with my head in that position."—Sir T. Lauder Brunton, in The Practitioner.

A FRIEND TO WOMEN.

What most women require to make them strong and healthy, and to restore good complexion and a well rounded form is more blood, more rich, red blood, such as is added to the system by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Headache, indigestion and the weakness and irregularities which accompany exhausted nerves soon disappear when this great restorative treatment is used.

The monkeys of Gibraltar are familiar objects of interest to visitors to the Rock, and hold official recognition in connection with the garrison. How they first got into occupation of the stronghold is unknown, though they are undoubtedly descended from an ancestor brought by man from the Barbary coast opposite. They are a great and protected community.

The guards on the highest point—the signal-station—have strict orders to chronicle the monkeys' movements, and to register their births and deaths. When their numbers have so greatly increased as to need thinning special warrants from high home authorities are received ere an official may have it in command to give the quietus to a small percentage of the community.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

A packed pint of chopped meat is a pound.

The last spoonful of jelly can be added to pies or cooked prunes.

A slice of lemon stewed with prunes gives a most delicious flavor.

Don't add the flavoring to soft custard until the custard is cold.

If meat for soup is cut into small pieces more nutriment will be obtained.

When frying mush dip the slices first in white of egg. This makes them crisp.

For the roast of cold lamb course, serve an egg salad, sprinkled with minced mint leaves.

To peel tomatoes without scalding, rub them backwards with the blunt edge of a knife.

Clean the glass of pictures with whiting, as water is apt in time to mar the painting beneath.

When leather armchairs look shabby, they should be wiped off with a soft cloth, dipped in olive oil.

When the eyelashes are thin or inclined to stand out, rub them at night with vaseline or cocoa butter.

Wooden breadboards are kept in better condition by rubbing them with sand than by simply using soap.

In selecting beef, the pieces which are well mottled with fat will be found the richest and juiciest.

In making bread, do not fill the pans over half full. Bread should rise to twice its size before baking.

Wring a cloth in vinegar and wring it several thicknesses around cheese to keep it from molding or drying.

Odd pieces of fruit, such as an orange, an apple or an orange, are mixed with lemon gelatine to advantage.

A little vinegar put into the water in which eggs are poached will keep them white and prevent them from spreading.

In baking cake it is well to remember that a sponge cake requires a lower temperature than a cake made with butter.

White kid gloves should be rubbed gently with bread crumbs after each wearing, and they will keep clean a long time.

A scented bag that will keep moths away is made as follows: One half ounce each of cloves, nutmeg and caraway seeds.

Old bread just now takes a new form in breadcrumb cakes. Soak the bread in buttermilk and use flour to thicken the batter.

Add a teaspoonful of sugar of lead to the water in which fine silk hosiery is washed to prevent the delicate color from fading.

Palatable as Cream.—"The D. & L." Emulsion, for those suffering from severe coughs and hemorrhages, is used with the greatest benefit.

What Will Asquith Do?

The British Parliament will be opened by His Majesty the King today with the usual pomp and ceremony. The keenest interest is felt in the matter as the burning question of the hour is the attitude which the Government will assume towards the House of Lords.

The Lord Chancellor, the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the Premier have all been equally explicit in stating that the claim of the House of Commons to the sole control of finance, and the abolition of the absolute veto of the House of Lords in other legislation were of prime importance.

Before the election, Mr. Asquith stated in the Albert Hall that "The absolute veto of the House of Lords must go. The will of the people as expressed in the House of Commons must prevail in the life-time of a single Parliament."

Liberals will not assume or hold office without safeguards for the legislative utility and honour of the party of progress.

There must be a Statute that it is beyond the province of the Lords to meddle with finance.

What Premier Asquith will do is the question of the hour. His Nationalist allies in the late Election, his Labour allies, too, are urgent that he should make this fight the fight of the opening Session.

The King's Speech should disclose in general terms the policy. The Premier's speech in the House of Commons will probably go into details and show how they propose to go about their unique task.

Glaring Case of Cruelty

A glaring case of cruelty to a horse was brought before the notice of the police a few days ago and the owner of the animal will appear in court during the week. It appears that the animal was a kicker, and to correct this equine vice his harness was so adjusted that whenever it indulged in it the energy thus expended bore mostly on the tail of the beast, so that it was torn out of its socket. Only the stump now remains and this has become inflamed and is mortifying. Despite this the animal has been worked right along though suffering severely, and a stocking was placed over the appendage to cover it from view. Those who saw the animal say that it is a flagrant case of cruelty.

Arrival of Lake Simcoe

The Lake Simcoe, Capt. Enon, arrived here yesterday morning, 21 days out from Barbados. The ship had an eventful passage. She left Pernambuco November 7th for St. John's and made a good run down to the Newfoundland coast. Storms then beset the vessel, and in trying to hold the land nearly all her canvas was carried away. Supplies were running short and the captain did not like to run the risk of having his ship rendered completely helpless in battling with the storms on the coast but about for the West Indies on December 20th, and reached Barbados safely. The vessel then went on dock and was cleaned up and painted. The trip back to Newfoundland this month was made under very favourable conditions.

STOWAWAY ON BOARD.

A stowaway from the city, Joseph Gibbons by name, was on board the Lake Simcoe. He had been feeling unwell last fall and decided that he would go to Brazil in the Simcoe. He is now greatly improved in health, having had a round trip of 171 days.

A Dastardly Outrage.

On Saturday we received a letter containing a marriage notice in the usual form and purporting to come from the father of the bride. The letter contained 50 cents, the usual price for the publication of such a notice. We received it in good faith and published it in the usual way of business. It now appears that the marriage notice was false, no marriage having taken place, and the letter in question, purporting to come from the father of the bride, did not come from him. It was a forgery. We received a visit from the father, who is naturally distressed at such an affront being placed on his daughter. The supposed bridegroom, Mr. Gerald Hunt, also called at the office, and a letter from him appears in another column. We have placed the matter in the hands of the police. A detective has possession of the communication we received and the envelope. It is to be hoped the perpetrator of the outrage will be discovered, and the expectation is well based as there are clues which will probably lead to a detection.

It may be interesting to mention that a Mr. Horner sent a telegram during the recent election in England over a signature not his own, which induced the Daily Mail to publish it. It told a story of a hostile demonstration in Cornwall against Lloyd George which the latter declared false. The Daily Mail discovered that the sender of the message was not the person whose name had induced them to publish it. The signature was a Mr. Walter Kirby, but the gentleman who bore this name did not send the message. A Mr. Horner sent it. The Daily Mail presented Mr. Horner, and according to a copy of the Daily Mail, which we received this morning, Mr. Horner has been committed for trial by the Magistrate at the Mansion House, London, on the charge of forgery and uttering two telegrams at the Post Office, Penzance, on January 9th.

We call the attention of the Sydney papers to this matter as the notice in question contained an invitation to them to copy it.

Big Tobacco Deal.

A big deal in tobacco was concluded last Saturday when Mr. J. P. Cash bought in the stock of Mr. Malcolm Davidson from trustees R. Wright & Sons and P. C. O'Driscoll for $1,600. The stock was purchased by tender, and besides the tobacco and cigars included all the usual class of goods used by the disciples of "My Lady Nicotine." Mr. Cash will open there next Saturday and continue the place as a branch business. Mr. Cash has great enterprise and business ability and will no doubt make this venture also a success. He began life as a cooper and subsequently went to Archibald's factory, where he learned the business of making tobacco. After the fire of '92 he started business for himself at the store he now occupies. By industry and increasing application he built up the successful trade in the tobacco business that he now holds to-day. Personal supervision in every detail, zeal in pleasing his patrons were, we believe, the chief secrets of his success. He also believes confidently in moving with the times in regard to making improvements and being up to date. Money is no consideration when he makes up his mind that there is some new thing to be done to keep the tobacco business up to the mode of the times. He built a large warehouse for a bond store on Water St. East, opposite the Allan wharf, three years ago. It was necessary for his business and money was no object when a costly structure like that was required to meet the growing demands of his trade. Mr. Cash is ably supported by Mr. George Trainor, whose obliging manner and equitable temper make him very popular with all the customers. We congratulate Mr. Cash on his new enterprise, the same which has caused him to win his way in commercial life.

A Cold Wave.

The weather Saturday afternoon became very cold in the city, and before midnight the weather had dropped to a few points below zero. The wind was not high and consequently the frost was not as much felt as it otherwise might have been. It was pretty cold across country also. We learn from the Reid Co. despatching office yesterday morning it was 5 below at the Quarry, and 10 below at Bishop's Falls. Last night though a N. W. wind prevailed along the line the weather was fine and milder and the mercury recorded only 18 above at the Quarry and zero at Bishop's Falls.

Newfoundland Paper.

Crowds Interested in a Shop Window Exhibit.

A reel of Newfoundland paper, part of the first consignment from the new Anglo-Newfoundland Development Company's mills at Grand Falls, owned by the Associated Newspapers, the Amalgamated Press, and kindred publications, was the centre of attraction yesterday in one of the principal windows of Selfridge's, Oxford-street.

All day long crowds of people gazed with interest at the five miles of paper contained in the reel, which is displayed against a background of Union Jacks. It weighs over half a ton, and is capable of supplying paper for 9,800 copies of The Daily Mail.

Business men for once shared the pleasures of the shop window with the customary crowds of feminine shoppers, for, besides, being a reminder of a new imperial industry, the exhibit is an educational one. Window-gazers saw not only the finished reel all ready for the machine, but the spruce logs straight from the forest, and the pulp ground from the logs, while an interesting model of a paper-making machine suggested the final stage in paper making.

Samples of the new paper may be obtained on application to the stationery department on the ground floor.—Daily Mail, Feb. 21.

Pleasant Sunday Meet.

The meeting held by the Pleasant Sunday Afternoon people at the Congregational Church basement yesterday was largely attended. Mr. J. E. Ray occupied the chair. After the opening exercises were over Mr. W. F. Courtenay rendered a song in a very pleasing manner. Mr. G. C. Power then delivered an address on the "Self-conscious Man." Next Sunday Hon. J. A. Robinson will lecture.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Dr. Lloyd will give a lecture on "The House of Lords," at the British Hall to-night, under the auspices of the Newfoundland British Society.

Bronchitis More Than a Cold

Often develops rapidly into pneumonia—cure is found in Dr. Chase's Syrup of Limesed and Turpentine.

Any cold is serious enough when its dreadful possibilities are considered, but when there is soreness or tightness in the chest and a dry hard cough you can look for bronchitis, which is often confused with an ordinary cold.

It is usually known by aching limbs and body pains, chilly feelings, weariness and weakness, pain in the chest and a tight, tearing cough. Fever, dry skin, thirst, coated tongue and constipation are other symptoms.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Limesed and Turpentine seems almost like a specific for bronchitis because it is so successful in loosening up the cough, aiding expectoration and preventing the inflammation from reaching the lungs.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Limesed and Turpentine is so prompt in affording relief and so thorough and far-reaching in action that it succeeds when ordinary cough medicines have no influence. 25 cts. a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Terrible Accident at Bell Island.

From people who arrived from Bell Island, Saturday afternoon, we learn that a terrible accident occurred on Friday morning at Lance Cove, by which a little girl named Hammond, aged three years, was practically burnt to death. After getting up her mother started the fire in the kitchen stove, and taking a pail went outside to the well to fill it with water. The child arose from her bed and came in to the kitchen. She evidently went near the stove, her night dress caught fire and instantly her little body was enveloped in flames. Her mother hearing her screams rushed into the house and was horrified at the spectacle which her child presented. She lay on the floor writhing in agony with her apparel consumed by the fire, her hair in a blaze and her little body and face charred and blackened. The woman threw the contents of the vessel, which she carried, over the unfortunate little one, and the fire which ate into her vitals was quenched thereby but the condition of her offspring almost drove the parent to distraction. Hearing the woman's cries neighbours were quickly on the scene and everything possible was done for the sufferer. A doctor was quickly summoned and administered ointment which had the effect of dulling the intense pain which the patient suffered, but it was seen from the start that the child could not recover. In places the flesh was baked and fell from the bones, especially about the arms. The little sufferer lingered until 3 p.m. when death ended the misery endured. The child's funeral was composed of flannellette, a material which seems to be universally worn by children, but which though comfortable is dangerous, and which the slightest spark is capable of igniting so highly inflammable is it. Every year both at home and abroad fatalities due to the wearing of this stuff are recorded, and it is about time that this material were discarded for something which would be less liable to induce such an awful accident.

The Holy Name Society

The good priests of St. Patrick's parish must be gratified to note the response which the young men of the West End are making to the appeals put forth recently requesting all to join the Holy Name Society, which has for its object the propagation of respect and veneration for the Holy name of the Redeemer and the inculcation of principles of virtue and Christian rectitude. Yesterday the monthly meeting was held in the church at which Rev. Jos. Pippy delivered a very earnest and eloquent address, and one which must have had much effect for good upon the members. Mr. John Barron, the President, occupied the chair. The members were present in force and 40 young men were added to the roll. Cards have been printed and will be circulated, requesting all Catholics of Riverhead to enroll themselves. Already it is computed that next month fully 200 new members will be added to the ranks. The funds of the Society are becoming strong, and at next meeting the question of the erection of a hall to contain proper club rooms will be discussed. The members are very enthusiastic and the outlook is bright for this very deserving institution.

Tried to Enter Jackman's Stores

Late Friday night or early Saturday morning some prowler tried to break into the tailoring and gent's furnishing store of Mr. E. M. Jackman on Water Street. Whoever did it no doubt had robbery in view, and his attempt to get into the place was only prevented by the solid character of the bolts and fastenings. He drew out two staples with a chisel or some such instrument and endeavored to break off the locks but found them too strong. He also tried to force up the windows, but they also were too firmly secured. The matter has been reported to the police, but there is no clue for them to work upon.

The King Approves Speech From Throne

Which Will Be Taken Up First---The Budget or Curbing the House of Lords?

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, Feb. 20. The speech with which the King will open Parliament on Monday received His Majesty's final approval and signature at a meeting of the Privy Council in Buckingham Palace this morning. The new Ministers were also sworn in and received the seals of office. Seldom has an Address from the Throne and its interpretation by the Prime Minister been awaited with such intense interest, as on the tenor of these hangs the life of the Government. Premier Asquith is credited to-day with the rather clever plan of submitting to Parliament as a whole the question of whether priority shall be given to a consideration of the Financial Bill or to the question of the Veto Power of the House of Lords. Should he decide upon this course it is difficult to see how the Unionists could avoid supporting the Premier's predilection of regularising the finances of the country before an attack upon the House of Lords is made.

The Fight Between the Lords and Commons.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, Feb. 20. Premier Asquith has filled the vacancies in the ministry, which is an indication that he at least expects the Government to pass safely through the crisis. The new Ministers are: Wm. Wedgwood Benn and Owen Sp. Joseph Seares, Junior Lords of the Treasury; Edwin Samuel Montague, Under-Secretary for India, and Cecil Wm. Norton, Assistant Postmaster General. Mr. Morton succeeds Sir Henry Norman, who failed of election. This completes the Ministry. In the case of the Junior Lords, bye-elections will be necessary, but as both had good majorities last month there is little danger of their losing their seats. The King's speech, it is believed, beyond the usual references to foreign affairs, will be confined to the question to finance and relations between the two houses. The supremacy of the House of Commons in financial matters will be asserted firmly, but the Government's plan for limiting the Lord's power of veto will not be disclosed until the Premier addresses the House of Commons on the Address in Reply to the King's Speech. Finance is certain to take precedence over all other business in the House. Mr. Asquith has remained firm on this point, and the Liberals are convinced that the Ministers will be able during the course of the debate on the address to make out a case satisfactory to both the Labor and Irish members. Parliament will be formally opened at 2 o'clock tomorrow by the King, who will be accompanied by the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia. The formalities will take up an hour, and as Premier Asquith is expected to speak early in the debate on the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne, the members will not have long to wait for the Government's announcement of its intentions. The pronouncement of Irish affairs, by which the Premier hopes to attain the support of the Nationalists, is awaited with the greatest curiosity.

300 Roiters Arrested.

Special to Evening Telegram. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20. Rioting in every section of this city followed the attempt of the Phila. Rapid Transit Company to operate its lines here to-day. Passengers and crews were driven from the cars by infuriated mobs of strikers, and in nearly a score of instances the abandoned cars were burned or otherwise destroyed. At nightfall every car was withdrawn from the service. Stern measures were taken by the police to quell the disorders and nearly 500 persons were arrested charged with rioting. Iron bars and stones were piled on the tracks and several cars were wrecked. Mounted police were powerless to disperse the mobs and a fire hose was finally brought into play. Contradictory statements are made by the opposing forces as to the number of men on strike. The leaders of the Association of Street and Electric Railway employees say that six thousand and two hundred of the seven thousand employees of the Transit Company have left their cars.

Away Goes all Stomach Trouble.

Special to Evening Telegram. CAIRO, Feb. 20. Bourtras Pasha Gail, the Egyptian Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs, was shot and seriously wounded to-day by a student, who was arrested. After the shooting the student fired five shots, three of the bullets lodging in his body. No indigestion, heartburn, Gas or Dyspepsia five minutes later. If you had some Diapiesin handy and would take a little now your stomach distress or indigestion would vanish in five minutes and you would feel fine. This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, out-of-order stomach before you realize it. If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors. Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drugstore waiting for you. These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disturbance.

Mr. Gerald Hunt Exposes Outrage.

Burned by Carbolic Acid at Bell Island.

A gentleman who resides in the city, and who was on a visit to Bell Island, had a painful experience on Friday last. While making his toilet in the morning after arising he found a bottle in his room containing a label marked "mouth wash." Wishing to rinse his teeth he put the bottle to his mouth and filled it with the liquid. It contained carbolic acid and the man obtained a painful evidence of the fact. In his hurry to get clear of the burning fluid some of it slipped down his throat, and a portion of it going over his chin and throat burned these parts as well as the throat, tongue, lips and uvula. He suffered extreme pain for hours notwithstanding the fact that he repaired to a drug store and ordered and immediately received what would counteract the effects of the liquid. The bottle he drank from originally contained a wash for the mouth but afterwards the acid was put into it.

Byrne Gets There.

One night about three weeks ago a big pane of glass in Mr. Gus Wadden's fruit store was broken and a lot of the contents of the window were scattered about the street and lost. Though a busy man, Detective Byrne never loses track of a case, and in working up another little matter a couple of days ago he ran down the party who broke the glass and who admitted the deed. He will make good the damage wrought and will thus avoid punishment.

Mr. Donnelly is doing splendid work in his line and his practice is increasing greatly as a result.

The February Rod and Gun.

The best side of the Canadian winter, the side that appeals to every inhabitant of the Dominion and countless numbers of our visitors—the snowshoeing trips of the North receives prominence in the February issue of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. There is plenty of variety in the number in addition to these articles, including big game stories, duck and goose shooting, camping, protective work, fishing, etc., and no sportsman, whatever may be his particular inclination, can feel himself neglected. ## OVERDRAFTS ON APPROPRIATION VOTES

14. The following are the actual overdrafts on Appropriation Votes to January 31st last, viz:—

|  | Vote.      | Expenditure. | Increase. |

| Public Health, Labrador                | 2,500.00   | 2,612.96     | 112.96    |
| Sick Fishermen, Labrador               | 800.00     | 1,497.69     | 697.69    |
| Able-bodied Pauper Relief              | 3,102.62   | 3,102.62     | —         |
| Repairs General Hospital               | 1,000.00   | 1,372.48     | 372.48    |
| IX. Forest Fires and Timber Inspection | 1,500.00   | 2,336.31     | 836.31    |
| Exploration Coal Areas                 | 15,000.00  | 15,845.90    | 845.90    |
| XI. Steam Service Bay of Islands       | 1,000.00   | 1,100.00     | 100.00    |
| Steam Service Fogo District            | 10,000.00  | 12,500.00    | 2,500.00  |
| XVI. General Contingencies             | 10,000.00  | 16,130.56    | 6,130.56  |

15. Fuel and Light Post Office. — A constantly increasing expenditure due to an expanding service. No corresponding increase in the vote is made.

No. 2. Fuel and Light and Insurance and Keepers Museum.—New services which should have been provided for in the estimates for 1909-10.

No. 3. Repairs Government House.—This vote is always overdrawn.

No. 4. Registration of Jurors.—There should have been no possibility of error in estimating for this service.

No. 5. Public Health Contingencies.—An overdraft of nearly 150 per cent. in seven months. I am of opinion that a little more care should be exercised in connection with expenditure under this vote.

No. 6. Public Health, Labrador.—A short estimate.

No. 7. Sick Fishermen, Labrador.—Partly due to an increased movement of sick people from Labrador last summer, partly, in my opinion, to ill-considered expenditure.

No. 8. Able-bodied Pauper Relief.—While there is no regular vote for unforseen cases of destitution among our people, discretionary power was given by the Government (I think in 1892) to the Commissioner of Public Charities to relieve such cases, of this nature, as he deemed deserving. The expenditure under this head has never been very large. It has been charged to the vote for Permanent and Casual Poor, which has always been sufficient to contain the charge. It cannot therefore, be properly considered as a bona-fide overdraft but I have to report it as the authority is executive not legislative.

No. 9. Repairs General Hospital.—Due to the effecting of some repairs which were not anticipated.

No. 10. Forest Fires and Timber Inspection.—Due to the unusually large number of Forest Fires which occurred last summer.

No. 11. Exploration of Coal Areas.—Boring for coal under contract with a skilled operator was carried on last summer and proved more costly than was anticipated.

No. 12. Steam Service Bay of Islands.—Short estimate.

No. 13. Steam Service Fogo.—The estimate for this service was placed at a much lower figure per trip than could be obtained. The same applies to the Fortune Bay Service which, if it is not overdrawn at present, is practically exhausted and will require a large Supplementary Vote to cover its cost to the end of the year.

No. 14. General Contingencies.—The overdraft on this vote has been caused by the following expenditures, viz:—

|--|-------------|
| New Appointment—W. J. Garew, Salary                | $302.16    |
| Hague Tribunal, payments to—                       |             |
| Sir E. F. Morris, expenses, etc.                   | 1,000.00    |

| Rd. Furneaux, expenses, etc.                       | 19.00       |
| Jos. Mackey, attesting signatures witnesses        | 12.50       |
| Shea & Co., passage                                | 21.90       |
| J. J. O'Reilly, I.S.O., expenses                   | 24.54       |
| Labrador Boundary Question, payments to—           | 4,569.94    |
| P. T. McGrath, compilation, extracts, etc.         | 300.00      |
| F. J. Morris, K.C., services                       | 100.00      |
|  | 400.00      |
| Grand Bank Dredging—J. LeMoine                     | 1,000.00    |
| Training Equipment for care reindeer—Dr. Grenfell  | 1,836.05    |
| Railway Telegraph Enquiry—Payments to—             | 800.00      |
| A. McNeily, K.C.                                   | 1,000.00    |
| J. M. Kent, K.C.                                   | 100.00      |
| Dr. Lloyd  | 200.00      |
| Pensions—Proportion of pension to pensioners given | 1,300.00    |
| F. D. 6 and 7                                      | 2,040.90    |
|  | $12,239.05 |

The date to which the Legislature sat last year was so near to the opening of the new fiscal year that it must have been recognized that most of the expenditure noted under the head of General Contingencies would be incurred before the close of the next fiscal year, and Legislative provision should have been sought therefor. If from the expenditure for General Contingencies, i.e., $16,130.56, is deducted the above amount of $12,239.05, a credit balance of $4,591.51 would be left to the vote, sufficient, with ordinary care, to meet the normal requirements of the service to the end of the fiscal year.

16. Deducting from the sum of $12,239.05 noted against General Contingencies, the sum of $6,130.56 shown as the actual overdraft on this vote (see page 7) which is contained in the $12,239.05, and adding to the remainder the total overdrafts ($17,123.79) shown on the said page, it will be seen that Supplementary Supply for $23,232.28 will be required to meet undue expenditures to January 31st, 1910. This amount is distinct from any sum which may be required to meet increased overdrafts on the votes indicated and to supplement others which are at present nearly exhausted.

17. I have so often advised a proper distribution of the present votes so as to make them more in accordance with the actual requirements of the respective services, and an increase of $20,000 to the vote for General Contingencies which, if done, would obviate the necessity for anything more than a very moderate Supplementary Vote, that it is unnecessary that I should say anything more on this subject.

18. I have refrained from refusing repayment on some of these overdrafts as there are sufficient funds at present available from credits to kindred services to cover them by transfer. While this may be the case at present, it certainly will not be so long before the end of the present fiscal year as the services in question have not more funds at their disposal than they will require. In all cases where credits cannot be transferred, such as increases to salaries, new salaries or pensions and the overdrafts for General Contingencies, I have refused repayment and the issuing Department will be indebted pro tanto to the Bank of Montreal until the Legislature authorizes the payments. The following statement shows the payments for which I have refused to re-imburse from Exchequer Account the several Departments, viz:—

|                          |             |
|--------------------------|-------------|
| Colonial Secretary       | $ 781.25   |
| Public Works             | 218.05      |
| Postal and Telegraphs    | 2,453.22    |
| Marine and Fisheries     | 979.56      |
| Account of Contingencies | 6,130.56    |
|                          | $10,593.09 |

In conclusion I beg leave to respectfully draw the particular attention of the Legislature to a matter of very grave importance which I have had to deal with in former reports. I refer to the matter of the raising of Temporary Loans. For some years past a practice has been growing up of raising Temporary Loans for the public service of the Colony by the Governor-in-Council, acting doubtless under the presumed authority given them by Section 8 of the Audit Act of 1899.

There is no doubt that occasions very frequently arise when the exigencies of the public service require the raising of loans for immediate and necessary public works, and that Section 8 of the Audit Act does give the Governor-in-Council authority, in cases of emergency and to meet unforeseen contingencies, to raise these loans. But there is a danger, it seems to me, inherent in the granting of this authority, which is, that Governments may, under circumstances which were not wholly unforeseen while the last Legislature was in Session, assume the authority to raise loans for purposes which the late Legislature might not have been disposed to warrant and which the ensuing Legislature might not feel inclined to ratify. There should, therefore, in my opinion, be a more strict limitation imposed upon the Governor-in-Council in this respect than is Section 12 of the Audit Act. The construction which I place upon Section 8 is that no Temporary Loan should be raised until the credit of the Exchequer Account is exhausted. If it is necessary that expenditures should be incurred for public services which were immediately required and unforeseen, which involved disbursements that should properly be charged to Capital Account, and for which there was no legislative authority, then the proper procedure would be to (1) ask the Governor to issue a Special Warrant to meet their cost, in all such cases as came under the provisions of Sec. 33 (b) of the Audit Act or (2) in all other cases to charge the expenses to Exchequer Account until the credit of the said Account was exhausted then, and only then, to raise moneys to meet the balance of expenditure by Temporary Loan under Section 8 of the Audit Act. For he it observed, while I have the power under the provisions of the said Act relating to the Exchequer Account to refuse to issue a repayment cheque in liquidation of unauthorized expenditures, a power that I would exercise in grave cases, I have absolutely no control over expenditures chargeable to Temporary Loan Account beyond those of reporting them to the Legislature and the ordinary one of clerical audit. It seems to me that it is not the policy of the Audit Act that, by the adoption of any such expedient as this, control or guardianship over such expenditures by the Government should be wholly withdrawn from the Office of the Comptroller and Auditor General.

Fire To-Day.

Reid's Street Car Barn Destroyed.
At 1.35 p.m. to-day a fire broke out in the Reid Nfld. Co's. car barn, Water Street West, near the entrance to the freight sheds. An alarm of fire sent in three minutes after the blaze was seen called out the West End and Central firemen, who worked so well that they prevented the fire from completely destroying the building. It is, however, all gutted out inside, and street car No. 4, that was stalled there for repairs, is almost completely destroyed. The fire originated from a stove which was being used by the workmen on the shed while repairing the street car. All the men were away to dinner when the fire broke out, and this accounts for the fact that the fire had such headway before it was discovered. Inspector General Sullivan was on the spot early and directed the men, who looked well in their new rubber coats. The all-out signal came in shortly after 2 o'clock. A large crowd of people gathered on the premises and the policemen had quite a job in keeping the way clear for the firemen.

Broke His Leg.

As Philip Keefe, of Torbay, was driving home from town at noon to-day over King's Bridge Hill he met with a serious mishap. He was sitting on some baled hay on the slide and when he turned his head around to salute some one whom he met the slide took a lurch and Keefe was pitched off. The result of the fall was so serious that he was unable to rise. Mr. J. Hayes and others there hastened to his assistance, lifted him on a sleigh and drove to town to Dr. Tait's surgery, where the limb was set.

Local Marine Board Examination

It is pleasing to record the passing of Charles W. Green, of this city, for an Ordinary Master's Certificate. Three and a half years ago he obtained his mate's certificate at the hands of Captains English and Moss. He served as an officer on the Dominion ship "Arctic," Capt. Bernier, on his two last voyages to the frozen north.

Shorthand Passes.

Messrs. Joseph Joyce, William Callahan, Ronald Martin, J. Murphy, Misses Nina Osmond, Violet Green, May Butt and Susie Snelgrove, pupils of Miss Nellie Vinicombe, received diplomas from J. M. Sloan, Esq., Ramsgate, Eng.; also speed certificates for Miss Elsie Couch, 128 words a minute; Miss S. Miller, 123 words a minute; Miss Violet Bradbury, 119 words a minute; and Miss M. Ryan, 115 words a minute.

Seized With Illness.

Shortly before beginning the 8.30 Mass at St. Patrick's Church yesterday, and again after its conclusion, Rev. Fr. McDermott was seized with a sudden illness. In each instance, however, the attack was only of short duration, and after proceeding to the Deanery, the rev. gentleman was soon as well as ever. He last night preached a very eloquent and instructive sermon at the Cathedral, and seemed to have fully recovered from his indisposition.

Hockey Match.

The teams for to-night are as follows:—

| Pearce rover     | Hunt        |            |
| R. Stick right   | Brien       |            |

Coastal Boats.

WILD DUCKS PLENTIFUL.—Wild ducks were very plentiful at Blackhead (Cape Spear) on Friday and Saturday last. Several good shots were made by the men residing there.

S.S. Tobacco Here.

Saturday night at 11 o'clock the s.s. Tobacco, Capt. Newman, arrived here from Liverpool, 14 days out. Leaving there, on the 9th, good weather prevailed till the 12th, when a heavy N. E. gale was encountered. Last Saturday, about 150 miles off this coast, the ship passed through several strings of ice and the crew saw a good many old seals beating northwards. The cargo for St. John's is 380 tons. Mr. Whiteley came as passenger.

Revised New Testament

Full Marginal References Completed After Thirty-Seven Years.
London, Feb. 10.—After thirty-seven years' work the task of compiling full marginal references for the Revised New Testament has been completed. A new edition will shortly be issued by the University Presses, in which the new references will be substituted for the abridged references of 1898. Since the deaths of the original compilers, Dr. Scrivener and Professor Moulton, the work has been done by the Rev. Albert Greenup, Principal of the London College of Divinity, and Dr. MacNeil, Professor of Biblical Exegesis in that institution, and the Rev. James M. Moulton, Professor of Hellenistic Greek and Indo-European Philology at Manchester University, who is a son of the late Professor W. F. Moulton.

Professor Greenup says he believes that every published commentary on the New Testament has been read, besides many issues of the authorized versions, giving marginal references, including French, German, Greek and Hebrew. As an instance of the detail with which the work has been carried out, he cites one verse, the references to which it took ten years to complete. Many verses in the Gospels and Epistles have nearly a hundred references each in the new addition.

Judge and Preacher.

Judge Rentoul, who has been making some strong observations with regard to imprisonment for debt, was both a Presbyterian minister and a member of Parliament before he took to the law as a profession. As a fact, his honour, to all intents and purposes, is still a "reverend," though not on the active list, for, once admitted to the Presbyterian Church, a minister is always a minister, and can only be reduced to a layman through some act of misconduct.

It is not so very long ago since Judge Rentoul was pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Woolwich. Then, becoming M. P. for East own, he started to practise at the Bar, carrying on his three callings at the same time.

Not long ago Judge Rentoul told an amusing story of the first illuminated address he ever received. It was presented to him on his first election to Parliament. Scanning it closely, he was rather chagrined to find that following his name the word "barrister-at-law" was inscribed in very large characters, whilst "Member of Parliament" was very small.

On drawing the attention of the artist to the fact, he got the answer: "Well, sir, it requires a clever man to be a barrister, but any duffer can be a Member of Parliament."

Burglar a Gentle Nurse

Gave Man of the House His Medicine While Pals Cleaned Out the Silverware.
Chicago, Feb. 10.—J. S. McCullough, an official of the Southern Railway Co., lying ill in bed to-day, told friends how one of two robbers acted as his nurse yesterday while the other looted the house of its valuables. McCullough has been ill for several weeks. The burglars entered the flat with skeleton keys and were surprised by the sight of the invalid in bed.

"You get busy, Bill," said the leader, "I'll take care of our friend here."

"Bill" promptly cut the telephone wire and began gathering up the silverware. Meanwhile the other burglar chatted with McCullough. He observed that the glass of water on the table was "stale" and brought him another. Then he asked the railroad man if it was not time to take his medicine and when told it was, the thief measured out a dose and administered it.

When the burglars departed with $500 worth of jewelry and silverware they wished the sick man a speedy recovery.

Personal.

Mrs. W. D. Reid went to New York by the express last evening taking her little boy with her for medical treatment and the removal of a growth from his neck.

The s.s. Rosalind left Halifax yesterday for St. John's.

The Dunure arrived from Pernambuco to Bowring's to-day, 33 days out.
