

C. C. ZWICKER KILLED IN RIVERSIDE AUTO ACCIDENT

Faulty Steering Gear Causes Car to Crash Through Fence Between Boulevard and Bow River. Pinning Victim Beneath Capsized Machine.

THREE OTHER OCCUPANTS NOT SERIOUSLY INJURED

D. J. McCarthy Sustains Painful Injury to Shoulder, but Driver of Machine and Remaining Passenger Escape Unharmed

CARL C. ZWICKER, 214 Thirteenth street, was killed yesterday morning in an automobile accident which occurred on the boulevard between the bridge and a short distance east of the Langevin bridge.

Howday and McCarthy engaged the car at the E. P. R. depot about 2 o'clock, and under instructions, Carlin headed for Nose Creek. Zwicker, a friend of Carlin, accompanied the driver, sitting in the front seat. Witnesses state that after crossing the bridge the steering gear of the car became unmanageable, and Carlin was unable to make a turn as the machine was passing the old stone crushing plant on the north side of the river.

When help arrived it was found that the steering gear had been broken, and the car was in a position to roll over. After several attempts to start the car, it rolled over and landed on its side, the car turning turtle. McCarthy and Zwicker were pinned underneath, but Carlin and Howday contrived to liberate McCarthy, following which they rushed to the Riverside hotel, where the authorities were notified by telephone.

Crashed Through Board Fence Howday states that the car was traveling at a rate of about 15 miles an hour when the accident occurred. The car had gone about three blocks after crossing the bridge, declared Howday, when it suddenly crashed through a board fence. McCarthy, who was sitting in the rear seat, was thrown out of the car and landed on the ground, but he was not badly injured.

Carlin, who drove the car, was substantially uninjured. He says that he did not have a speedometer, but judged his rate of speed at about 15 or 20 miles an hour. The headlights were in operation, Carlin declares, but the car was not very good. Carlin has been driving a public car since November, 1911, and claims to have driven thoroughly. He was aware of the location of the turn, but when he attempted to shift his gear, the car rolled over the curve the steering wheel jammed. Carlin says he applied the emergency brake, but the car rolled over to prevent the car crashing through the fence. Carlin was not badly hurt, and was taken to the Riverside hotel, where he is recovering from his injuries.

According to Carlin, Zwicker was his personal friend, and also a friend of McCarthy. The latter, Carlin said, had imbibed a few glasses of beer, but Carlin did not consider the man intoxicated. All of the remaining members of the party were absolutely sober, Carlin stated.

The automobile is owned by Mr. George Parr. The damage to the car is in the neighborhood of $400. Zwicker, the victim of the accident, was also a chauffeur. He was a married man, and leaves a wife and two children, one being an infant in arms.

At an inquest held in Harrison & Foster's parlors yesterday afternoon, Charles Carlin was exonerated from all blame to the death of Zwicker, the coroner's jury holding that the badly lighted condition of the boulevard was responsible. The verdict in full is as follows: We, the coroner's jury, after hearing the evidence and viewing the place where the accident occurred, and unanimously agree that Zwicker, the deceased, came to his death by the car rolling into contact with the curb, owing to the badly lighted road, and falling down the embankment, and we attach no blame to the chauffeur, Charles Carlin.

A formal charge of manslaughter has been preferred against Carlin, however, and the case will be heard before Magistrate Standen today. Carlin has been liberated under bail bonds of only $100, in view of the finding of the coroner's jury. L. E. Howday, who was held without bail as a witness, was yesterday released after having given his testimony at the inquest.

When Queen Victoria would have made her husband king. London, April 14.—The Married Life of Queen Victoria, which has been compiled by the queen's biographer, stage further the study of the queen when she began in "The Early Court of Queen Victoria," the most interesting little anecdotes she tells have never been published. The queen's work by saying that had the prince consort lived long enough, the history of England would have been very different. There would have been, she says, no "great" Queen Victoria, for by 1840 the queen had so entirely transferred all work to her husband that, excepting as an appearance and a signature, the queen's name might almost be said not to have existed and it would have been the reign of an English revolution would have occurred.

Many of the stories of court life told in the book will cause a smile in these latter days. For instance, it is narrated how the queen's archbishop desired that Albert should be made king-consort, which caused Lord Melbourne to regard impudently. For God's sake, say no more about it, for those who can make things can make them.

TUESDAY, APRIL 15, 1913.

THE A. & G. W. SITUATION.

Despite the vigorous efforts of the opposition, led by R. B. Bennett, of the Elevator Trust, it is hard sledding to make any kind of an issue out of the A. & G. W.

The record of the parties shows that the Sifton government has been straightforward and honest in every move, while the opposition has been changeable and shiftless.

Leader Michener favored the Rutherford railway policy which included the A. & G. W. That was the first move taken by any member of the party. The Calgary Herald claimed it as its very own railway policy. Leader Michener and R. B. Bennett favored confiscatory legislation, as every member of the legislature knows, and only R. B. Bennett has the hardihood to deny. Both Mr. Michener and Mr. Bennett supported E. H. Riley in his candidature in Gleichen, when the only issue was immediate confiscation, which Mr. Riley advocated.

The present policy of the opposition, since R. B. Bennett got the retainer fee from the Royal Bank, was for the province to come through with a quarter of a million dollars to some person to settle the whole affair.

But the Conservative leaders put the soft pedal on the "fixing" business, forget that Mr. Michener favored the legislation at the beginning, and that both he and Mr. Bennett supported the confiscatory legislation, in the house and on the stump, and do nothing but wail about the loss to the province through the adverse decision of the Privy Council.

Of course, the decision of the Privy Council, though somewhat unfortunate, and most unexpected in one respect, held that the province was quite within its rights in foreclosing the agreement with the A. & G. W.

The decision paved the way for the settlement of the whole thing, which settlement can be made honorably, and without "fixing" any person. Within the next twelve months the A. & G. W. episode will be a thing of the past, and the province will not be at any loss, and will not bear even a scar. Premier Sifton is taking care of a distressing legacy left him by a predecessor, and is doing it with the maximum of honor and the minimum of cost.

WHO IS LEADER?

"Not an unmixt blessing" is the way that a prominent Conservative leader referred to the coming of R. B. Bennett a couple of weeks ago. He would be more outspoken in his opinion at present.

In addition to fixing the issue as one of trust domination in the province, Mr. Bennett has shown the public how weak Leader Michener really is. Leader Michener is no longer the leader in the province. He is seldom heard from, and little interest has been taken in his meetings or his sayings. People have to think for a time before they really can call to mind who the opposition leader really is.

It is true that Leader Michener is comparatively honest, except for some little lapses as to details such as regarding interviews he gives out, and misrepresentations which may be the result of an excited mind. He is no bragging bully. He is courteous. But he is entirely out of place as the leader of a party. He has doubtless been doing his best; but the mere fact that—despite four years in opposition—he has introduced no clear-cut policy of any kind that in any way even interests the public, is sufficient evidence that he is not the man to lead the province at this time in its development.

Leader Michener has not been a success as a leader of the opposition. How can any one expect him to be even passable as the leader of the government? He will never be premier of Alberta.

Editorial Notes

The evening Conservative newspaper which called the Conservatives to get about 15 or 18 seats, or 20 to 25 at the very most, had a second guess, and now says that the Conservatives have even chances, which is not very enthusiastic even yet. On another page the same paper casually remarks about Premier Sifton, whose government is certain to be returned to power.

If there were a new election every second week the Bennett Elevator Trust might keep on raising the price of oats until they were at least half as high as across the line.

It was E. H. Riley who insisted that

THE WOMEN IN THIS CONTEST

The women of the city are taking part in the present contest, as they have a perfect right to do. In fact, as they should do. They believe that the time has come when they should have the ballot. They approached Premier Sifton, and are quite satisfied with their reception. They understand that most governments do not move very far in advance of public opinion. They realize accordingly that they must first show that there is a demand on the part of the public for the extension of the franchise.

The election of George Ross, Dr. McDougall and Clifford Jones to the legislature will serve the double purpose of showing plainly how the public stands on that question, and of securing three able champions for votes for women in the legislature.

The women who are working in the interests of the three Liberal candidates in Calgary know what they want, and, in a very dignified way, they are trying to accomplish their purpose.

LEADER MICHENER SOMEWHAT LATE.

During the recent session of the legislature the names of the owners of the timber berths along the Athabasca river were laid on the table of the house—practically placed in the hands of Mr. Michener and his associates. That was the time for Mr. Michener to give his information about the Burrows properties along the route of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and B. C. Railway. But when he and his supporters were face to face with the premier, he had absolutely nothing to say about the transaction. But now, two days before the election, when an investigation is practically impossible, he publishes some roorbach statement, with the intention of reflecting upon the honesty of his opponent. That is cowardly.

In his statement, Mr. Michener merely quotes the numbers of some berths. At this late stage in the campaign it would be impossible to make a complete investigation. Is that the reason that at this particular time he springs his belated sensation?

And Burrows, be it remembered, is the brother-in-law of the brother of the premier. That is not a good reason why a railway should not pass through his property and develop a very promising part of the country.

The statement made by Premier Sifton is definite and clear and places the leader of the opposition in a very bad light.

R. B. BENNETT, PUBLISHER!

Boasting of the ownership of one-third of The Albertan, Mr. Bennett is obtaining credit in some parts of the province for broad-mindedness, in permitting a paper "which he practically owns" to oppose him vigorously. The "High River" Times is in this class; it says: "Not many men would permit a journal which they practically own to carry on a bitter campaign against them." The measure of Mr. Bennett's "broad-mindedness," however, was very clearly shown Saturday night when he complained bitterly that he "had been trying for a long time to buy another third, but couldn't get it." While Mr. Bennett is going up and down in the land exhibiting this newly invented brand of broad-mindedness to admiring constituents, he might throw some further light on it by divulging to his audiences the ownership of the other two-thirds of The Morning Albertan. And a plain statement of exactly what portion of the boasted one-third, "held in trust by John W. Huggill", belongs wholly and solely to Mr. R. B. Bennett, might also offer added scintillations to the spectacle for out-of-town audiences. When Mr. Bennett owns and controls as great a percentage of stock in The Albertan as he does in The Eye Opener, the character of The Albertan will probably reflect Mr. Bennett's "broad-mindedness" in much the same manner as that famous journal.

SUBTLE WAYS OF TRUSTS

Suppose R. B. Bennett had said to the farmers of Alberta, "I want a rake-off of from five to ten cents a bushel on all your grain." He would probably have been consigned to the place where bonfires blaze eternally. But Mr. Bennett adopted a different means to the same end. He purchased all the elevators that were for sale, and leased those that were not, in some cases, employing the owners to work for him, thereby cutting off all competition. He then proceeds to buy the grain at his own price, on his own weights, and his own grades, and thereby accomplishes—the very thing the farmers would have denied him, had he had but the nerve to ask it.

Mr. Bennett, it is stated, has made the elevators pay. The elevators were paying a legitimate profit before. There is but one way to make them pay more. That is by taking the added profit away from the farmers by paying lower prices for grain.

Don Hiesbert, one of the members of the first opposition in Alberta, and very much the best part of it, is supporting Premier Sifton because of the farm implement clause. And there are many more doing the same thing for the same reason.

The contest in Okotoks is one of the best in the province. Mr. Hiesbert has been no more indiscreet at Edmonton than Mr. Tweedie, neither introducing legislation of any kind. That is hardly progressive enough for Okotoks.

The people of Calgary have short memories if they do not remember the time when R. B. Bennett was fighting the A. & G. W. in Edmonton and favoring confiscatory legislation. They know that he stumped for E. H. Riley, who had no issue other than that Pre-of public affairs. He is aggressive and fearless. He is advanced and radical. He has the courage of his convictions. He is regarded as one of the solid men of the council. Every person who meets him in public life is impressed by his candor and his honesty of purpose. He is gentle. He sings true.

MR. HILLOCKS HAS NO PUBLIC EXPERIENCE

Rev. Mr. Hillocks, on the other hand, has had no public experience. He has taken no leading part in any public movement. A man does not need to be an alderman or a member of parliament to be a public-spirited citizen, working in the interest of the city. He was a minister of the gospel for seven years in this city. But he took no part in any public movement for the betterment of the city. He is not a man of broad sympathies, who is interested in the problems of the people. He is a man whose party is principle and whose principle is not party. He is a partisan. He favors certain principles underlying the Liberal party and for that reason he is not a public-spirited citizen. He is a typical partisan. I do not think that I am wrong when I say that he is the type of man who would place party before his province.

MR. TWEEDIE A CRITIC BUT NOT A LEGISLATOR

The contrast between him and his opponent is very marked. Mr. Tweedie is a man of ability, but of a different kind; probably the ablest man in the opposition ranks in Alberta. He is a man of high ability, but of a different kind; probably the ablest man in the opposition ranks in Alberta. He is a man of high ability, but of a different kind; probably the ablest man in the opposition ranks in Alberta.

MR. ROSS ROSE FROM PANKS BY HIS OWN ABILITY

Alderman George Ross is closely in touch with the advocates with whom he is working. He has had ample opportunity to see the results of the party's action on the farm and in the mine. He is self-made man and now, at a comparatively late age, he is in the top in the city and in the province, and all by his own ability and untiring effort. He has had a remarkable success.

MR. JONES A LEGISLATOR OF GREAT ABILITY

If the electors of South Calgary were called upon to choose between Clifford Jones and Dr. Blaw for a position upon the city council or as representative in a non-partisan legislature, with the party element entirely eliminated, there would be no doubt about the result. Clifford Jones would be elected by a very large majority. I do not think that many people will

THE SORDID LIFE

To gather think to eat and drink, and to graze, seem to be the only occupations of the lower classes. We call this process living! And when we speak about the lower classes, we speak about the lower classes. We speak about the lower classes. We speak about the lower classes. We speak about the lower classes.

The parcel post is an invention which makes every day look like Christmas in a post office. By means of the parcel post, one may mail packages all over the world at reasonable rates. Before the United States and the parcel post, it was possible to send packages to Europe or Germany for a small sum, but it was not until the parcel post was introduced that it was possible to mail to England and there have it mailed back.

THE CANDIDATES IN CENTER CALGARY RIDING

There is as much difference between the candidates in Center Calgary, Rev. Dr. McDougall is a serious-minded man, with a world of information, intelligence, determination, culture and wide information. He has spent a long and active life in advancing the cause of the people. He has been a minister of the gospel for many years. He is a man of high ability, but of a different kind; probably the ablest man in the opposition ranks in Alberta.

DR. BLOW STERN PARTIZAN BUT NOT A LEGISLATOR

I have not disguised the facts in anything I have ever written in this or any other campaign that I have the highest personal regard for Dr. Blow, the Conservative candidate in South Calgary. He is upright and honorable in all his transactions. He is a good living, honest, well intentioned, patriotic citizen. But I am quite as thoroughly convinced that he would not make a good representative.

Bank of England Sensation

London, April 14.—A Bank of England sensation is the one topic in financial circles just now. No details of the affair have been made public from official sources, but it is understood that the investigation following the disappearance of a considerable amount of bank money showed that securities valued at several thousand pounds were missing. In the absence of any authoritative statement with regard to the descriptions of the missing securities, an advertisement published last week concerning bonds attracted a good deal of notice. This advertisement did not mention the Bank of England.

Review of the Year's Work of the Evening Technical Classes of the Calgary Schools Five Teachers Instruct the Foreign Born

THE remarkable progress which has been made by the technical classes comprising Calgary's night schools for industrial education was undoubtedly a revelation to the large audience which attended the closing exercises of this branch of education at Central school last evening.

The numerous exhibits on display were conclusive proof of the efficiency of the instructors and the diligent work of the pupils. The principal address of the evening was delivered by Dr. MacRae. The points particularly brought out in his address were that boys and girls are permitted to discontinue their education at any period in life, and that our present system of education did not afford the coming generation a sufficient training with which to cope with foreign countries such as Germany for commercial and industrial supremacy.

Dr. MacRae cited the fact that in Germany the education of the students dove-tailed as it were with the industrial vocations to follow, so that the highest standards of efficiency were thereby attained. In the United States and Canada the loss in national wealth by reason of children leaving school at too early an age was appalling, and if so nothing were not done to remedy this evil we would eventually be outclassed by our foreign competitors in every branch of modern civilization.

Dr. MacRae summed the whole gist of his speech up in the short sentence that: "The efficiency of the nation depends upon the efficiency of the individual."

Prof. Kidner's Report. The report of T. B. Kidner, in charge of the various technical classes, was a most interesting one. It is once again my duty to present a report of the work of the evening technical classes. A year ago in this room the report of the previous year was presented. Today we have to report a large increase in the enrollment and a large number of subjects of instruction.

Another new class this year was that in electrotechnics, which attracted a large number of earnest students and achieved excellent results. The lecture theatre of the High school was used for the theoretical part of the course, and a workshop-laboratory was equipped in the basement for the practical work. Heating and ventilation was another new class and had a satisfactory session. In this subject and in plumbing and the other courses consisted of two lessons weekly, one being devoted to theory and the other to a special drafting course.

With the encouragement this afforded, a larger scheme was undertaken at autumn, the advisory committee being increased and many new subjects included. The personnel of the technical education committee is as follows:

HUDSONS BAY COMPANY

An Interesting Budget of Economy News from "The Bay"

A Noteworthy Display of Home Furnishings Which Will Provide for the Furnishing and Re-furnishing of Homes as They Should be Furnished

TO THOSE who have planned, or perhaps are planning right now, on furnishing a new home or refurbishing the old one, an hour or so spent in this new Carpet Section will provide almost endless suggestion to the newest and best ideas, and will probably impress most forcibly the fact that prices, too, are a little lower here than in most stores.

One of the new arrivals unpacked as late as last Thursday, and worthy of special mention is a product of one of the most wonderful carpet looms yet invented. This clever machine weaves a rug, the like of which would defy an expert to tell it from a genuine hand tufted rug.

For bedroom treatment in the most artistic homes the Art Nouveau Rugs are foremost in favor this season. The soft blending of color in the border and the quiet plain centres rendering them most desirable for the dainty bedroom.

In New York and London this season there is a great demand for rugs copied from antique Chinese creations that have cost their owners small fortunes. We have been very fortunate in securing the exclusive sale of one of the leading makers of these rugs in Calgary, and have gathered for the inspection of the critical buyer, some beautiful examples.

PERIOD RUGS play an important part in the showing here. Some very notable productions to be seen in rugs, faithful in every detail to the periods of Louis XIV., Louis XV., Empire, Adam and other notable styles.

Bath Room Mats. Mats for the bathroom are considered a necessity in the modern home. These we take of today are the best we could find to answer the purpose and answer it well.

New "Colorfast" Floor Covering. "What in the world shall we cover the bedroom floors with? Fur is nice, but I can't quite afford them just now, and linoleums are rather old-looking."

Wonderful Values in Women's Hose Today. For no other reason than the mere fact that stocks are a little too heavy for this season to our way of thinking, have we cut prices to such remarkable proportions for this day's selling.

Bath Towels to Fly in a Bargain Breeze

We cannot emphasize too forcibly the importance of this sale to the housekeeper with a towel supply to replenish. And there never seems to be one around just when wanted. Lost in the laundry or soiled, perhaps, with no others on hand.

A good sensible size of heavy terry that will thicken even after washing. On sale today, per pair 35c

SAMPLE VERANDAH MATS LESS THAN HALF THEIR REAL VALUE!

YOU'LL remember the remarkable values this store offered some weeks ago in richly colored Japanese Rugs and how they were "snapped up" by eager buyers.

Corset Covers Splendid Values at 50c

Women who appreciate generous value in such articles as these will be down bright and early to supply themselves with these at such a price. Not to our recollection have we offered better values in Corset Covers of such splendid quality.

125 dainty Corsets Covers, beautifully made of a fine quality nainsook in dozens of different styles and designs; some prettily trimmed with valenciennes lace, others with embroidery and lace, all finished with heading and ribbon; sizes 34 to 44. 50c

Best Quality Groceries Priced for a Two Days' Sale

THIS Pure Food Grocery has long since established itself for finest quality in every line and invariably quotes prices as low, and in most instances lower than housewives are asked to pay elsewhere.

Extra! $1.25 and $1.50 Swiss 85c

Never mind the "whys" and "wherefores," for the reason for this remarkable clearance concerns ourselves only. We will say, though, that values certainly call for early morning shopping today.

Wonderful Values in Women's Hose Today

For no other reason than the mere fact that stocks are a little too heavy for this season to our way of thinking, have we cut prices to such remarkable proportions for this day's selling.

Women's All Wool Black Cashmere Hose, of best English make, handsomely embroidered in white or colors. Regular standard qualities at 50c, 60 and 75c pair. Today, 3 pairs $1.00

Collars and Jabots Half Price

They're slightly shop-soiled, or you may be sure we could never offer them at such reductions. A little pure soap and a dip in a basin of clean water and you'd never know the difference.

Today Half Price

250 all told dainty collars and jabots in an almost endless variety of choice; which sold in the usual way at from 60c to $3.50 each.

Mothers! Pretty New York Dresses for Children $1.75

Here is a gathering of the prettiest little Dresses we've shown for the new season, being a "special purchase" by our own representative while in New York recently.

Beautifully made of fine percale and ginghams, in a variety of styles; some stripe effects and others perfectly plain, nicely piped with plain and self materials. Bring the little one down this morning for one of them. $1.75 and study the Anderson Apartment building. In the commercial classes, Mr. Norman Rankin, of the C.P.R. publicity branch, gave a most useful talk on office organization. Other practical help has been offered in a direction in which there may be great development in the future, namely, by providing positions for successful students and by making a difference in the pay envelopes of employees who have profited by the instruction given in our classes.

LOCAL BOWLERS GROWING STALE IS VERDICT

Reason for Poor Showing at Tag End of Season—Vancouver Scores

Calgary bowling fans were somewhat disappointed that the local aggregation that attended the Vancouver Bowling Congress did not do better than last in fifth place.

Although during the congress very poor scores were made and this is easily accounted for, Bowling is a game in which the most proficient of bowlers can stand only so much of and when he reaches that point he is bound to go stale and his scores are always noted for their low scores. Undoubtedly this is what is the matter with the local bowlers.

The Vancouver team was further handicapped by the necessity of Bill Schram returning to Calgary upon short notice because of the serious illness of his little girl.

The Vancouver team gives the following account of the Calgary bowlers' performances in Vancouver:

The Calgary team got into action yesterday and landed in fifth place as a result of their work. The team was unfortunate in that one of its members, Schram, just before the games were called, received word of the illness of a child at home, which threatened a fatal termination, and he was under a great mental strain in consequence. He rolled but three games, his place being filled by Owens in the night series, Schram leaving for Calgary on the evening train. He carried with him the sympathy of the entire body of bowlers in attendance on the congress.

The following scores were made by the Calgary boys:

Callie, Calgary	5	6	7	11
Patrick	153	147	138	178	171	108
Schram	158	145	137	148	157	202
Owens	198	181	213	—	—	—
Houghton	150	221	170	183	209	177	113
Stockton	157	153	205	142	201	138	104
Mitchell	177	147	203	162	183	163	104
	850	829	877	862	916	850	830

The athletic baseball team will hold a practice every night this week at Victoria park. All players are requested to be present.

HURLEY GUMSHOEING NOW FOR REAL TEAM

Saskatoon Boss Has Not Yet Divulged Line-up—Approves Gray's Umpire Stand

Saskatoon, April 14.—"Hello, Hurley, what's doing in baseball? O, say, Bill, aren't you going to divulge the names of the players you have signed to play for Saskatoon in the 'Big Six' this season? That's what was wanted by Bill Hurley yesterday.

"Nothing doing at present," replied the Saskatoon fox. "We are getting the men. We'll have a team and a spot one. Saskatoon is going after the pennant; we may not land it, but we're going to give it a warm chase. We'll see these with bells on when the umpire calls: 'Batter up!'"

Hurley will hit the trail for parts unknown today. He admits that he has most of his army corralled, contracts are in the hands of others, while they each a line of "retrography" will trot them back.

Bill is not the person to sign a team in a hurry and later discover that he has some dead wood on his hands. He selects his men like a butcher, and he gets the most substantial. Now, Bill has been rounding up his army for some time. The job is not completed yet. There are several places to be filled. Bill wants a team that can play the season through. They must learn each other's style. By the middle of the season his army should be one of the very best organized and best playing in the "Big Six."

William will hit the trails today is not known. He's got his eagle eye on something good, and when he selects his men, he'll be sure to buy the best. He may not get the classiest, but he gets the most substantial. Now, Bill has been rounding up his army for some time. The job is not completed yet. There are several places to be filled. Bill wants a team that can play the season through. They must learn each other's style. By the middle of the season his army should be one of the very best organized and best playing in the "Big Six."

Hurley says the boys will start their practice about the 20th. He will be pleased to pit his warriors against any of the city league teams and appreciate the kindness of the "double three" in promising to co-operate with him.

Speaking regarding President Gray's announcement that players will be severely censured for tormenting the umpire, Bill remarked:

"That was a good statement. No one likes good clean baseball better than the umpire should be backed by the league. But the trouble in the city league is that the umpires are that several of the umpires were not competent. Everybody wants a square deal. If President Gray enforces this rule, I hope the league will appoint good umpires—men who know the game and also their business, and I hope also that President Gray will back umpires against Edmonton team's protests too. If he's going to back the umpire, in one case, he'll have to do so in every case, including Edmonton's. If not, there'll be a general howl. Fair play in this respect will be giving all teams the same treatment. There should be no exceptions."

Nelsons vs. Hillhurst.

The Nelson Furniture company and Hillhurst will play a practice game tonight at Hillhurst grounds. The kick-off will be at 8:30 o'clock.

Nelson's team will be chosen from the following: Hogs, Law, Stevens, Irskine, Campbell, Smith, Beattie, Goetz, Bonfield, Liddle, Cooverdy, Cooper, Johnson, Bruce and Gough.

C.P.R. vs. Tynesiders.

The practice game last night between the Tynesiders and the C.P.R. team resulted in a goalless draw.

GIANTS TREATING MARQUARD KINDLY

His Return to the Fold is Welcomed by the New York Giants

MARQUARD has rejoined the Giants without being subjected to any such ridicule as he feared would be coming his way in consequence of the things he did and the things he said while holding out. When you get right down to it, ball players are a pretty fair-minded sort of a crowd. They have subjected the "Rube" to all kinds of kidding over his stage career, but no one has given him a real call about his unbecomingly retrogressive to McGraw and the team in general. It is taken for granted that the "Rube" is in the way of publicity that was necessary to advertise his vaudeville act, knowing no better way to get it than by getting a rise out of his one-time associates.

McGraw is glad to get Marquard back on the team because his presence increases the pitching strength of the team. But while the other members of the team either have been ordered to say nothing to the "Rube" in the way of criticism or have refrained from doing so as a general matter of decency, there is no doubt about the local local sportsman man with the club. Marquard never was a howling success in the "Big Six" and he is even less so now.

The fact that he has not yet been called upon to perform in a game is taken by some to mean that he is being punished by the management.

RUBE MARQUARD.

FIELDER JONES PREDICTS BIG YEAR IN NORTHWEST

The season of the Northwestern League will open today and this year promises to be even a more prosperous one than the last one, which was the best in the history of the game at the coast.

Fielder Jones, the president of the league, predicts a close pennant race in the following official statement which he has issued:

"With everything in readiness for the opening of the 1913 Northwestern League season on Tuesday, April 15, prospects were never brighter for the league than they are at the present time.

"The taking hold of the Tacoma franchise by Joe McClintock is the best thing that has happened to the league in many years.

"Since the Spokane and Vancouver, with Dugdale, Cohn and Brown in charge of baseball affairs, leave nothing to worry over, as they are practical baseball men and will give their respective towns the best talent possible, I look for the race to be very close."

PRACTICES START IN VERY INFORMAL MANNER

No Fanfare of Trumpets but Bronchos Are Now Working Out Every Afternoon

There has been no official announcement of just when the Bronchos' spring training camp is going to open and there will be no band parading the streets telling about it, but by the end of the week the players will all be here and regular practice will be on the bill of fare.

Yesterday afternoon the new diamond was given its first real use, when eight of the Broncho squad loosened up enough to get a good feel of the ball and see how it seemed to toss it around the diamond.

Pitcher Fink, the six-foot-two, who was secured from the old Washington State league, arrived yesterday morning and made the acquaintance of some of his team-mates.

Smick, Meyers and Hollis are expected in today, while Larry Piper will be along tomorrow morning.

Jack Roche left San Diego, Cal., on Friday and is expected here about Wednesday night. The rest of the boys will be along this week, and by next Saturday the entire Broncho crew will be on the job.

GIANTS HAVE YET TO WIN THEIR FIRST GAME OF SEASON

Ames and Tesreau Couldn't Stop Brooklyn — Pirates Beat Cubs and Joe Wood Was Too Much for Chance—Big League Games.

NATIONAL.

New York, April 14.—The Brooklyn team today defeated the New York Giants in the first game of a three-game series by a score of 3 to 2. It was well pitched by Ames and Allen. After Brooklyn scored a run in the first inning, the Giants' pitcher weakened slightly in the second half, when the Giants scored 2 runs off him. Ames and Allen, Ames, Tesreau and Myers.

Oh, You Pirates!

Chicago, April 14.—Pittsburg defeated Chicago today by a score of 3 to 5. The visitors batted all three of Chicago's pitchers out of the box. Carey, Hoffman and Vioxx making three hits each. Pittsburg's scoring, however, was helped by the wildness of Ritchie and Toney, and ragged fielding by their team mates. Pitcher Ritchie weakened toward the end of the game and gave way to Camnitz, who had little difficulty in checking the rally of the local. Score:

Joe Wood Won Pitcher's Battle.

Boston, April 14.—Wood outpitched Caldwell this afternoon and Boston won from New York 2 to 4. The New York were the first to score. Daniels led off with a single, stole second, and crossed the plate on two putouts. Boston had several opportunities to score but sharp fielding and good pitching prevented. In the eighth inning, when Wood doubled and went to third on an out at first. Yankee fouled to Calaway and Speiser was purposely passed. Lewis drove a double to right field sending in two runs. Wood struck out Walker and Harstedt in the ninth and Cree grounded to Jannvin. Score:

WIVES AGAINST PRO SOCCER FOR ALBERTA

Grad, an Edmonton Capital, Himself an Old Countryman, Comes Out Flatfooted

Chas. Grad, of the Edmonton Capital, has come out flatfooted against the Manitoba societies intent to defy the C.A.A.U. and bring over old country professional teams for exhibition purposes. At the recent annual meeting of the Alberta association action was deferred to see what the neighboring provinces will do. If Alberta societies have any regard for amateurism they will disapprove the action of the Manitobans and declare themselves emphatically for the C.A.A.U. and no professional team. It sounds good to bring old country professional teams to Canada for exhibition purposes, but it is very doubtful if any benefit would materialize to Canadian amateur soccer. The old country professional teams would be of little use so far as educating Canadian amateur soccer is concerned, would be of little use. If the Canadians want any education in the art of soccer, let them turn to the old country professional teams who are ready resident in Canada. Takes men like Jimmie McLuckie, of the Edmonton Capitals, for instance. Jimmie is an "international" and it is hardly likely that the old countrymen can teach him much, in fact it is more likely that Jimmie can teach them something. Alberta certainly has flat feet against bringing old country players here.

Bully for you, Grad, we're wide ya.

THE INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE STARTS TOMORROW

New York, April 14.—The International league will open its 1913 season Wednesday with Buffalo playing in Jersey City, Toronto at Newark, Rochester in Baltimore and Montreal in Providence. President Barrow declared tonight that he expected the race in his league to be even closer than last year.

"The first division clubs of last year are of about the same strength, while the second division clubs have all been strengthened to such an extent that it looks like an impossible task to pick the winner," said Mr. Barrow. "I figure that every one of the eight clubs has a chance. There are practically no holdouts on any of the clubs, all salary disputes between clubs and players having been amicably adjusted."

Mr. Barrow has issued a call for his umpire staff to meet for a conference in his office tomorrow. The assignments of the umpires for the opening games are:

Carpenter and O'Lea, Providence; Finnegan and Quigley at Newark; Millen and Blair at Baltimore; Mallin and Hayes at Jersey City.

Glad Tidings for You Men!

The BEST Clothes--LESS

LISTEN to this and tell us whether you ever heard such welcome news. You know the famous makes of Men's Clothing which we sell. You know what "rattling" good measure you get here any day of the week for every "greenback" invested. But here's where we cut a lower notch in our record of close pricing. For the balance of this week only, while extensive alterations in the front of our store are in progress, we are putting up to you men the real "sale cry" of the whole season.

Grand Improvement Sale

Every Suit--Every Overcoat--Throughout Our Entire Stock Marked Away Down

Just act at once and the profit is yours. "Trip" in here and select the Clothes you want—figure your saving and pocket it. You'll be chucking all the way home over your good luck at this five day "Price Festival."

Timely Tweeds, Worsteds, Cheviots, Serges and Vicunas, in a complete variety of styles and shades. Two and three button Sacks, and Norfolk—models for formal wear, and Overcoats of all the most approved cuts—all "pruned" down in price while this event lasts.

We're going to double business this week to the tune of the hammer and saw. Men who know values will be here in force to share the good things. See that you get yours, and that right soon.

Calgary Billposting Company Strenuously Objects to the Proposal to Appeal For a Charter Amendment Controlling Billboards

THE Calgary Billposting company is strenuously objecting to the proposal of the city to appeal for an amendment to the charter, giving Calgary the same right as other municipalities enjoy under the Towns Act to prohibit and control billboards.

The agitation for the abolition of unsightly billboards which has been carried on for the past three or four years, with little success, is to be headed this year, when A. J. Freese introduced a motion in council that the legislative committee inquire into the possibility of the prohibition and the removal of all billboards within two years.

GRAIN COMM'N. AT FT. WILLIAM

According to a well known London periodical, visitors to the house of commons are said often to be disappointed with the appearance and bearing of Mr. Lloyd George. Expecting to find a beaming and confident man, they are surprised to find a man who wears a monocle and speaks with a soft voice that is said to be a handicap to his eloquence.

POPE PASSED SLEEPLESS NIGHT

CONVALESCENT HOME IS FULL OF CAPACITY

THE Convalescent Home is at present filled to its utmost capacity, and almost every day there are needy ones seeking admission. As this institution has earned for itself the commendable reputation of never refusing a feeble patient, the management have decided to meet the emergency by erecting a new building on the grounds surrounding the home.

RESIDENTS OF SOUTH CALGARY IN FEAR OF BAD FLOOD

A LARGE quantity of ice is reported as being jammed against a bridge situated west of the park, and yesterday afternoon the water had risen until it was within inches of the level of the bridge. The latter is a small structure, and it is feared that it will give way under the ice pressure.

ICE JAM BRINGS THE WATER ALMOST UP TO MAIN LEVEL OF THE BRIDGE

The sudden change to quite warm weather within the past few days is creating a rapid break-up of ice, and the water is rising rapidly in both the Bow and Elbow rivers. There is no doubt but that the larger bridges across these streams will withstand the ice pressure and the excessive flow of water, but there is grave danger of water flowing over the river banks in many places where the mainland surface is low.
