The time is at hand when quarrels take place among neighbors in regard to the roaming of hens. Spring flowers are showing through the ground in many places already and a flock of hens can soon do a good deal of damage with a tulip bed on which considerable time and money has been spent. Later on the family gardens will be calling for tender care and here again the hens can make endless trouble. Just a little thought for others in these matters and there need be no trouble or unpleasantness. The law is for those who fail to have this thought and consideration for others, and owners of hens are responsible for any damage that may be done by their feathered pets.

MRS. MARY A. SHANNON

Mary Anne Carleton, relict of the late John Shannon, passed away at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. John S. Bruce, Wagwick street, Watford, on Thursday, April 6th, in her 95th year. She had been ill since the first of the year and was confined to her bed for the last ten weeks.

The deceased was a native of Clones, county Monaghan, Ireland, and in 1852 was married to the late John Shannon. In the next year, 1853, they emigrated to Canada, settling in Melville, Prince Edward county. In March 1868 they moved to Warwick Village, residing there until September 1889, when they came to Watford.

Deceased is survived by eight daughters, Miss Bessie Shannon, Watford; Mrs. Walter Scott, Watford; Mrs. Wm. J. Wilson, Detroit; Mrs. Wm. Harper, Warwick; Mrs. T. McCausland, Watford; Mrs. J. Stanger, Watford; Mrs. J. Bruce, Watford; Miss F. Shannon, Stratroy, also 21 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Shannon was an active and earnest worker in St. Mary's church, Warwick, and Trinity church, Watford. She was also an active worker with the Orange societies and was made a life member of L.O.B.A. No. 95 some years ago. She was widely known and highly respected by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. A kind and loving mother and a good neighbor, being always ready and willing to help in time of need, and her many deeds of kindness, coupled with her cheerful disposition won for her a host of friends who were deeply grieved to hear of her death. She bore her illness with true christian fortitude as she placed herself in the hands of her Maker and died trusting in Jesus.

The funeral was held on Saturday at 1.30. The remains were escorted to Trinity Church by members of the local Orange societies and visiting brethren and sisters. The service in the church was conducted by the rector, Rev. S. P. Irwin, who based his remarks on Psalm 116:15. There was a very large congregation present. The body was then conveyed to St. Mary's cemetery, Warwick Village, and placed beside the remains of her husband. The Orange brethren met in a body at the grave and conducted their burial ceremony. The pallbearers were six grandsons, William and John Harper, William and John Bruce, William McCausland and Carleton Wilson. Rev. W. M. Shore officiated at the grave.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bruce, Detroit; Mrs. W. J. Wilson and son, J. C. Wilson, Detroit; Mr. Wm. McCausland and daughter Jean, Miss Sadie McCausland, Mrs. M. Sandford, London; Mr. and Mrs. R. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. T. Harper, Bridgeburg.

"SUN LO SING"
By Evelyn Claire Fortner

The wind howled dimly around the great dark buildings of the alley. Little Sun Lo Sing drew the worn folds of her mantle closer with her small, ivory-hued fingers. She shuddered and crept still nearer to the tenement walls, as a drunken man staggered noisily past her.

At last she reached her destination, as the faded letters over the door announced, was the "Suey Sing" restaurant. She stepped inside and walked edgily to the back of the room. Chinamen seated at the various tables, glanced admiringly at her slender beauty. But Sun Lo Sing heeded them not. As in a dream she heard the soft hiss of their opium pipes.

She passed on into the kitchen and, out of the shadows and strong odors of cooking things, an arm reached out and clutched at her angrily. "Child of Disobedience and Sorrow," cried a harsh thin voice, "Why hast thou been so tardy?"

"My father, as quickly as possible have I hurried back to Chinatown," answered the girl, as she awaited, trembling, her step-father's cruel anger. The eyes of Ling Sing, like narrow slits of onyx, gleamed maliciously and his high yellow forehead knarled and wrinkled, took on a still deeper frown, as he shook the frail body of Sun Lo Sing until her teeth chattered. Then releasing her he said sharply.

"Go now and spend the rest of this night in the cellar of mine house. In a corner shalt thou find a pallet of straw. Go now, and by this punishment wilt thou surely learn to obey Ling Sing, thy step-father and master."

Sun Lo Sing opened the trap door of the cellar and began to creep fearfully down into the dark basement, and in the blackness, sought the pallet of straw. She sighed wearily, for again she was being punished for something she had not done or rather for something which was not her fault in the least. Rats squeaked and scampered away as she passed. A huge cobweb caught her face in its soft slimy net. Finally she reached the straw and threw herself down upon it, crying as if her little heart would break.

"Oh Ai-Lo Hun, God of Benevolence," she prayed sobbingly, "Send to me an opportunity to leave the house of Ling Sing my cruel master! Nothing will I refuse to do if thou but help me, thy humble servant, in this."

Long did the Chinese girl pray to her gods and then, worn out at last, she dropped off to sleep, with the noise of the city's traffic reaching her ears faintly, as a thousand rumbling on Long Distance. I know he is in his office, so I'll call Station-to-Station." The cost of sales made by Station-to-Station calls is often less than the cost of correspondence — to say nothing of the time saved.

murmurs. In the morning she rose, stiff and aching, from her hard bed, and walked upstairs, only to find an exacting master waiting to scold and abuse her. Hard and faithfully did Sun Lo Sing work in the "Suey restaurant, until her feet ached with weariness. Likewise many months slipped by, and every night Sun Lo clasped her tiny hands and prayed, yet more earnestly, to be released from her hard life of slavery.

Then one sweet, summer morning, the one God, over all, heard and answered the prayer of the Chinese girl. She was crossing an alley street on an errand when the cry of a child attracted her attention. Turning she beheld a golden haired boy of about five years, crying piteously. "Ah, Child of the White Man!" cried Sun Lo Sing, running up to him and taking his hand in hers, "Hast thou lost thyself?" A sob was her only answer. Taking the boy by the hand again she hurried down the street, looking in vain for a sign of his people. Turning down into a larger street she beheld, in the distance, a large car. Hurrying up to it, she looked around for a sign of its occupants. Suddenly from around a corner, a beautiful lady came running towards her and picking up the child, clasped him to her breast.

"Where did you find him? I came here to do some charity work and went into that tenement house, leaving Baby with James, the chauffeur. In a little while James came running in to tell me that, while fixing the car, he had quite forgotten Baby and when he looked around the child was nowhere to be seen. We have been looking for him in every street except that alley-way where I conclude, he must have wandered until you found him. What is your name Chinese girl and how can I reward you?"

"Oh sweet lady!" cried Sun Lo Sing clasping her hands in eagerness, "Take me away from my cruel step-father who abuses me! Long have I waited to be freed."

"I have been looking for a small girl as an under nurse-maid. How would you like to come and live with me and help take care of Baby? I will go and see your father and pay him well for you."

A smile, radiant as the dawn, passed over the face of the Chinese girl. Her dreams and prayers were to be realized at last. Stooping low she kissed the hem of the White Lady's gown. Thus did Sun Lo Sing pass into her new life of freedom and happiness.

TEA PRICES RISING

Rumor has it that the labor unrest and general dissatisfaction in India, the largest tea producing country in the world, have made production so expensive and hazardous that a general rise in prices may be expected in the near future. The estimated consumption this year will be much larger than the crop available.

How to Grow New Skin!

Nothing is more wonderful than the human skin. It breathes through tiny mouths called pores. If it is kept whole and strong it improves the entire bodily health.

Those who know most about the complex structure of the skin appreciate the care that must be taken in deciding what is the safest, purest and best dressing to apply in time of accident or disease.

Much scientific thought and experiment was expended in the search for an ideal natural healing substance, but it has actually been found at last, in Nature's own storehouse of medicinal herbs.

Never in the world's history has there been another preparation like zam-buk. Amongst other virtues, it possesses that rare quality of actually growing new skin in Nature's own way.

A MIRACLE BEFORE YOUR EYES. Healing the injured and diseased tissues by this precious herbal balm is a miracle that may be performed before your own eyes. Children remember zam-buk best for its great power in soothing and healing their hurts, whilst in the treatment of eczema, ringworm, chronic sores, ulcers and poisoned sores, zam-buk powerful antiseptic and tissue-building properties ensure success; again, many thousands have zam-buk alone to thank for their complete release from torturing piles.

Differing fundamentally and in action from all ordinary ointments, zam-buk is free from animal fats and mineral compounds. It is highly refined and contains no ingredient which the skin cannot readily absorb. A fifty-cent box of zam-buk may save you dollars in doctors' bills. It is a unique preparation with a wonderfully wide range of usefulness.

Poor paint looks streaked to the naked eye.

It looks like ridges and furrows under the magnifying glass.

It's the Valleys in Paint That Make it Poor

The Valleys are the thin streaks
The Hills are the thick streaks

PAINT streaks are caused by the brush marks. No matter how much it is brushed, if the paint is cheap the brush marks are bound to show.

Good paint levels up to a smooth surface. Cheap paint dries with hills and valleys that are alternately strong and weak.

Just as a chain is only as strong as its weakest link, so is a film of paint only as good as its thinnest places—the valleys.

Most paints are made of only three things. Lowe Brothers High Standard is made of six—three more ingredients that exhaustive laboratory and practical tests have shown to be necessary to make good paint.

Add to this the fact that these ingredients are more finely ground, and you can understand why High Standard will always smooth out to a uniformly thick surface. Which is also the reason it lasts longer, and looks better as long as it lasts.

Come in and see the sample panels and ask for literature.

FARMER'S WIFE REGAINS HEALTH

Gives Credit to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Fork River, Manitoba.—"I saw in the newspapers where Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing so much good to women, and as I needed something I began to take it. I used to be very sick but I am not now. I live on a farm in the home-land district and we have to do all our own work. I tell all the women I see what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound does for me. I think it saves me from going to a doctor and is the best medicine women can take."—Mrs. Wm. COULTAS, Fork River, Manitoba. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for the ailments peculiar to women. It is prepared from medicinal plants, with care and accuracy. It can be taken by women of any age. Women make a serious mistake in allowing themselves to become so weak and nervous that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties. Such symptoms as pains and irregularities, all-gone feelings, backache, headache, hot flashes, nervousness, with a general run-down condition, indicate some form of female trouble. The Vegetable Compound has brought relief to thousands of women suffering from such ailments. Let it help you.

SOME GIANTS

Very Tall Woman Was Native of Nova Scotia. There is little or no warrant in history or in archaeology for the supposition that the elder races were much taller or more powerful than are those of the present day. We are limited in our conception of the truth of Pliny's description of the Arabian giants by a due realization of the probable imagination of the narrator.

The average present height of the human race is about sixty-five inches, but the average is produced by measuring both the races which are exceedingly tall and excessively short. The so-called gigantic races, of which the Scots of Galloway still stand at the head, are offset by the little peoples of central Africa, but one century with another and one geological period with another, the same thing probably has been largely true.

A few individuals have exceeded nine feet, according to authenticated records, but they have invariably been freaks, and do not justify the claim now set forth by the alleged discoverers of a graveyard in America filled with petrified giants, that a race of giants ever walked the earth.

The giant legend is probably derived from the same source as the notion that everything deteriorates as time runs on. It is of one piece with the pessimistic idea that virtue and happiness and good works of every sort have been declining ever since the world was young.

It was at first supposed that the first men on earth were necessarily tall and mighty, because it also was supposed that everything was going down hill. "There were giants in those times" was in reality a way of saying that men were not as great as they previously had been.

But a more modern view is that the stature of races is due, not only to nature, but to nurture, and it is conceded that man was never so well nurtured as he is to-day. It is infinitely more probable that man in the distant future will be a giant than that such ever existed in a previous age.

The recent revival of the petrified giant industry in the United States recalls the story of the monstrous fraud perpetrated on the American public during the year 1869 when people were led to believe that a 10-foot man had once lived and was buried near the little village of Gardiff in New York State.

The idea had its inception out in Fort Dodge, Iowa, when an adventurous showman purchased a huge block of gypsum from a quarryman of that place. The block then was shipped to Chicago, it being taken in charge by a sculptor, who chiselled it into a 10-foot giant. The surface was pricked with needles to give the appearance of pores in the human skin, and then treated with a variety of acids which made the entire stature appear of ancient origin.

After completion the giant was securely packed in an iron box and shipped to Union, New York, where the owner claimed to load the bulky box upon a large wagon, and hauled it fifty miles to a farm near Gardiff. The giant form was then removed from the box and secretly buried, remaining under the ground nearly a year, until it was "accidentally" discovered by some workmen who had been engaged to dig a well by the promoter of the fraud.

This great discovery was made on October 16th, 1869, and news of the wonderful petrified giant spread all over the country. The lucky finders covered it with a tent and put it on exhibition, while special trains were run from New York City and other near-by points so that the clamoring multitudes could see the astonishing remains at the earliest opportunity.

Until the deception was discovered it is estimated that more than 50,000 persons jostled each other in order to view the wonder, paying a dollar apiece for the remarkable privilege. But, passing on from this greatest hoax, it is found that the late Captain Bates, a native of Kentucky, was probably the tallest of modern American giants, although his 8-foot height was slightly exceeded by that of Anna Swan, a native of Nova Scotia. A recent visitor to the United States and Canada, Johann Van Albert, of Amsterdam, Holland, is said to have the distinction of being the tallest man who ever entered this country. He is described as being 8 feet 5 inches in height and is now in the "show business."

Going further back into giant history we find that Queen Elizabeth's head porter was 7 feet 6 inches high, probably being given this exalted position on account of his ability to see what was going on at all times. Among royalty itself it is claimed that one of the Roman emperors was nearly nine feet high, but the measurements of those days may have allowed him considerable more height than he would be entitled to at this time, though no doubt he was a person of great stature for history to make note of the fact.

ORDERS ARE ORDERS.

When Sir Robert Borden Met an English Sergeant. It was of the "cathen" that friend Rudyard Kipling wrote. "I don't obey no orders unless they is 'is own." Not of the British soldier. My word no. You ask Sir Robert Borden. He can tell you a story to prove that to the British soldiers "orders is orders," and that you may take the broad and easy path to the place where there is no bother about winter, before he will depart from them to the breadth of an eyelash.

It happened when Sir Robert was Premier of Canada. He was in London attending the Imperial Conference that preceded the Peace Conference. On the afternoon that the then President Wilson of the United States was to arrive in London, Sir Robert put on his best topper and hid him to the station to take part in the reception. Until he reached the railed-off circle wherein stood the King and other dignitaries, also bent on welcoming the United States President, Sir Robert had no misgivings. At a drop barred entrance to the railing he was confronted by a handsome representative of the British army, wearing a sergeant's chevrons and a number of stripes indicating wounds.

"Ticket, sir," said the sergeant smartly. "I am very enthusiastic in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a tonic for prospective mothers. I have had experience both with the 'Prescription' and without, and am in a position to know that there is a vast difference. I was never nauseated or sick at all with my 'Prescription' babies, but I was extremely uncomfortable with the others and my suffering was greater when I had not taken the 'Favorite Prescription.' I shall always take pleasure in recommending it to prospective mothers."—Mrs. Leota M. Pepper, 114 Grange St.

"But I won't have time to go back and get it before the train arrives," protested Sir Robert. "Here's my card—I happen to be the Premier of Canada."

"Cawn't 'elp it, sir; orders is orders. No ticket, no gettin' in."

"Look here, sergeant," said Sir Robert. "There's Gen. Smuts. Just call him over here a minute; he'll vouch for me."

"Couldn't do it, sir, my orders is to stay 'ere and 'ere I stays."

"Get one of your men to call him."

"Sorry, sir, the men is actin' on orders, too; I cawn't call 'em away from the post."

The situation became too embarrassing for Sir Robert. He didn't get through the barrier in time to greet the President and he did say some things subsequently that startled those to whom his urbanity and quiet dignity are characteristic.

They do say that about the mildest words he used sounded suspiciously like "Gol darn it." But subsequently he saw the humor of the situation as well as its illumination of the British character. "It's typical," he said. "How could the Germans ever hope to beat a race like that?"

Deserts Wife for Squaw.

How a romance of the wilds of Canada triumphed over an infatuation of the city was told in the divorce court in London, Eng., by Mrs. Florence Delaney, who was granted a decree nullifying her marriage to Archibald Delaney on the ground of it being a bigamous marriage. Her action was contested. The plaintiff said she went through the form of marriage to Delaney in February, 1917. She had known him several years before, but he went to Canada and she heard nothing more of him until 1916, when she saw him here with the Canadian forces. They were married and lived in Hastings. Soon after their marriage, however, he returned to Canada with the understanding that she was to follow him, but a year later she received a letter from him in which he said he had married an Indian girl on Bear Island, Nipissing, in 1910, and that she had rejoined him and they were living happily together.

He said he was under the impression that his marriage with the Indian girl was illegal, but had found it was not. He hoped he would not have to go to prison for his marriage in England. Mrs. Delaney also received a letter from Angel Macquina, Delaney's Indian wife, which was in the form of an affidavit, testifying to her marriage to Delaney.

Battle for Alaska.

Between Pinchot, apostle of conservation, and Secretary of the Interior Fall, apostle of exploitation, there is being waged a duel to the death for the control of Alaska. The decline of white population in the peninsula has furnished the excuse for the renewed assault of the forces headed by the secretary. Bureaucratic methods of the conservationist administration of the territory are said to be the cause of the emigration to Canada. Very sinister methods by the astute Canadian Government are alleged by the propagandists of "development," as destruction of natural resources is known to its friends. Probably President Harding will be dragged into the controversy before long, according to Washington despatches.

Alaska remains one of the few great wooded areas of the United States. Whether it will become treeless and a state, or remain green-clad and a territory, remains to be seen. Canada will be an interested spectator.

EASTERTIDE 1922

If friends were only truer,
And kindness loved of all,
Life's sorrows would be fewer,
And fewer tears would fall,
Upon the glowing embers
Of happy yesterdays,
And all the heart's Novembers
Would blossom into May;
Through days of stress and aching
Through sleepless nights of prayer
Unkindness still is breaking
More hearts than toil and care;
Oh! woe so hard of healing,
Oh! grief so full of smart,
Now Easter bells are pealing
God's message to our heart.

EASTER DAY AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE

Since civilization began, Easter Day has been one of the most significant anniversaries of the year. From days of remote antiquity Easter has been observed with rejoicing and thankfulness because it marked the opening of the vernal season, the end of winter, the return of green life, of grass and flowers and leafage. To dwellers in northern climates it was a festival full of deep meaning and was the occasion of profound gratitude as the advent of the vivifying influence of spring. At the present time people do not live so close to nature and do not appreciate as strongly the true significance of Easter Day.

In ancient temples sacred fires were kindled afresh and worshippers gave thanks to the old divinities for the return of light, heat and growth. Still in many parts of Europe, there is a survival of these rites, in form of bonfires lighted upon the same hill each year, which is known as Easter hill. The people believe that as far as the light from these fires reaches, the fields will be fruitful, and that the dwellings on which their light shines will be free from sickness or trouble during the year.

From the earliest period of civilization Easter has been characterized by dancing, games and sports among the country people of Europe, and special Easter cakes were baked. The custom survives to the present day in the form of "Hot Cross Buns." Brightly painted eggs were presented and the ancient custom still persists in some European countries. It is regrettable that these pretty customs are dying out. Many old people will remember that years ago decorated eggs appeared on every breakfast table on Easter morning, and the children were allowed to eat as many eggs as they could. Candy eggs and other confections, toy rabbits and other trifles now brighten Easter Day for children.

The religious significance of Easter is that it commemorates the resurrection and is also the memorial of the Christian passover—the atonement wrought by the death of Christ on the cross.

The name "Easter" is derived from the Teutonic divinity Ostara, patroness of light and spring. In the early days of Christianity, the ancient pagan festival became the Christian paschal feast. The year A.D. 68, has been named as the time of the formal institution of the Christian anniversary. Let us all join this Easter in the privileges accorded us of attending church and thanking and praising God for His inestimable love in the redemption of mankind by His son, Jesus Christ.

Her body was found among the reeds at the river bank after she had been missing for some hours. Miss Causgrove had been delirious through illness and in that condition arose from bed, and clad only in her night clothing wandered to the river. The alarm was given and search parties formed. They found her body some time later. Her clothing had become tattered in the reeds and her lifeless body was found on the top of the water. The deceased lady had taught school at Blytheswood, but was unable on account of her illness to continue her duties there and returned to her home a few days ago.

LAMBTON LEAGUE MAY JOIN O. B. A.

Perolea, April 10.—Petrolia's delegates to the Lambton county baseball league meeting in Watford this week will, it is stated sponsor a move to have the Lambton Amateur Baseball Association this year. The Hard Oaks will likely recommend the intermediate series of the association. Word was received here last week from Watford of the annual meeting of the league, when applications for league berths will be received and the schedule committee appointed. Last season five teams operated. This year the league will likely be an eight team affair. Strathroy, Wauabano, Alvinston and Arkona have made application for membership this season, Brigiden, one of the trailers last season, will likely drop out in favor of the Wauabano nine, one of the strongest U.F.O. teams in the county.

The Enarocs, champions last year, will advocate sending the league champions into the ring for the provincial championship at the end of the regular playing season and it is considered likely here that the proposal will meet with favor by the other county clubs at the meeting.

In Bosanquet, on Tuesday, March 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hillborn, a daughter.

MARRIED

At St. James' Church Manse, Forest, on Tuesday, April 4th, by the Rev. H. D. Cameron, Miss Theresa Elizabeth Ford to Mr. Harvey Tidball, both of Bosanquet.

Alice, the five-year-old, entered the general store of Mr. Smith, with whom she was a great favorite, and announced that, to make her dolly a dress, she needed "some red, blue and yellow." When Mr. Smith had brought out the required amount of material she asked how much it was. "That will cost you just one kiss," replied the storekeeper. Whereupon Alice answered: "Mamma will come in and pay you to-morrow."

SCHOOL ALL YEAR ROUND

As has been done the past three years, classes will be conducted in business and stenography again this year throughout the summer months at the Sarnia Business College. School the year round at this high-grade college is becoming more popular each year. It means that students who begin their courses with spring and summer months are not interrupted by a summer vacation, but may carry on during July and August, the same as usual, completing their courses in early fall.

Class hours during these two months are from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. This makes the course in Sarnia most pleasant as well as profitable.

The spring term begins on Tuesday, April 18. Although a student may commence any Monday, it is well to get started as soon after Easter as possible. Young people planning on training for a position or for their own general improvement in the work they are now following, should write for full information to P. R. Stringer, director of the Sarnia Business College. Write today, tomorrow never comes.

I'll Show You How to Increase Your Profits

If you'll talk over with me the advantages Toronto Stable Equipment will bring to your farm.

Toronto Stable Equipment is designed to save you labor, keep the stable cleaner, keep your cattle healthier, more contented, more profitable.

Let's talk this great improvement over. Toronto Stable Equipment includes Stalls, Bull Pens, Water Bowls and Litter Carriers.

DEATH OF JOHN EARL BANNISTER

One of the older residents of Plympton and Forest, died at the family residence, King street, on Thursday, March 30, in the person of John Earl Bannister, aged 69 years, 4 months and 13 days. Deceased had been ill from Sunday previous with pneumonia and in spite of everything that could be done he passed away about 6.30 Thursday evening as above stated.

The late Mr. Bannister, was a son of James Bannister, who was born in Suffolk, Eng., on Nov. 16, 1817, and emigrated to Canada in 1836 settling at Salt Fleet, near Hamilton, Ont. Here John Earl was born on Nov. 17th, 1852. The same year the family moved to Plympton township settling on the 14th concession, where deceased grew to manhood. He was twice married, his second wife being Mrs. Way, who survives him. The following children by his first wife survive: Ivan, Great Falls; Montana; Mrs. Nicol, Cobourg Ont.; Harvey of Winnipeg; Mrs. Howard McKay, Emery and Arthur of Forest. The following brothers and sisters also survive:—Mrs. Elizabeth Willar, of Forest; Charles Thomas, and Geo. Eli, of Essex; Mrs. Dent of Neutral Valley, Alberta; and James Ebenezer of Forest.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon to Beechwood cemetery for interment. Services were held in the Forest Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Thos. Doolittle, assisted by Rev. S. W. Muxworthy. The bearers were Joseph Bannister, E. M. Lester, John Walker, Henry Hare, John Bannister, and Fred Rawlings. Among the relatives who attended the funeral from a distance were Mrs. Nicol, a daughter, Cobourg; Ivan, of Great Falls, Montana; Charles, a brother, and John Bannister, a nephew, of Essex, and Mrs. R. Culley of Sarnia.

He was in his seventeenth year, and had been in very poor health for some time when he was taken seriously ill with the flu and passed away on March 19th. He is survived by his parents, two brothers and two sisters. The funeral was held on the following Tuesday. His father was in a very critical condition at the same time but was slightly improved.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1922

NOTE AND COMMENT

Destroy the home and the state perishes from the earth; destroy the filial affection and the home and the state vanishes.

The Midland Free Press is of the opinion that the rates at summer resorts should be lowered, or as it terms it the summer extortion of tourists should be stopped.

Over in Goderich moonlight excursions on Lake Huron for dates in June next are now being advertised. There must be hustlers in the Lake Huron port who believe in a liberal use of printer's ink. Not only this, but they favor giving it a chance to make good. Do you get the idea Mr. Business Man who believe in letting George do it in the matter of publicity?—Collingwood Bulletin.

The Kincardine Reporter in calling a halt on Government expenditures remarks that it took $4,415,269 more in 1920 to run the province, and $7,115,113 more in 1921 for ordinary expenditure than the Hearst government spent during its last year in office. This makes pleasant reading for Conservative supporters in view of the recent Shelvin-Clark investigation showing the Hearst administration sold the timber berths $3,000,000 too cheap.

"Is there a real devil?" the Collingwood Bulletin would like to know. If a printer's devil is meant the answer is easy. There is now practically none. Boys are not learning the trade—or any other trade. Skilled labor grows scarcer, and the army of the idle and uneducated, who are little if any better than pick and shovel men, increases. Boys in these days will not take time to learn a trade. But they will have time, all the rest of their lives, to repent of their folly, for which they will pay dearly.—Orillia Packet.

Stratford Herald.—The threatened coal strike is just like everything else. If people get panicky over it, there may be a lot of trouble which could be avoided. Ferry boats have been known to swamp when every passenger on board rushed over to one side of the craft. If people start laying in coal for next winter with an anxiety which has no regard for price, the effect will soon be felt when the strike becomes a reality. There is reason to believe that existing stocks of coal are large enough to go round if the proper distribution is made and if economy is practiced by all.

Ottawa Journal.—The most amazing thing about the whole matter is that the squandermania and taxing spree of the Provincial government do not stir the public to greater indignation. While it is the people and not the corporations who pay the taxes, Mr. Smith is probably justified in concluding that since the tax bills are not sent to the people direct he has a fair chance of getting away with increases that almost double the volume of taxes in three years. Mr. Smith in the Legislature didn't even trouble himself to explain where the increases were to come from, so little does he think the public cares.

One of the most effective vermifuges on the market is Miller's Worm Powders. They will not only clear the stomach and bowels of worms, but will prove a very serviceable medicine for children in regulating the infantile system and maintaining it in a healthy condition. There is nothing in their composition that will injure the most delicate stomach when directions are followed, and they can be given to children in the full assurance that they will utterly destroy all worms.

Standard hotels are not now liable to a business tax.

Essex Free Press.—With the avowed object of keeping people from gossip and other forms of hurtful conversation, and of inspiring kindly thoughts and kindly speech in the minds and mouths of its members, "The League of the Kindly Tongue" has been formed in this district by J. R. Strickland, of Essex, and Mrs. Strickland. Let us hope that the League will secure a large membership, and that its members will live up to its obligations, cut out gossip and inspire kindly speech. 'Tis true some people would sacrifice a lot of their present pleasure but the community would be better off.

A proposal to place a special tax on the income of all aliens, not residents of Canada, but who derive their income for services rendered in Canada, is to be moved in the House by W. M. German, Liberal member for Welland. Mr. German has given notice that he will move "that the Government should consider the advisability of amending the Income Tax Act, 1917, as amended by subsequent Acts, by providing that there shall be paid upon the annual income of all aliens, not being residents of Canada, who are employed in Canada or derive income for services rendered in Canada, 8 per cent. upon all such incomes exceeding one thousand dollars."

Springfield Republican.—The British are a very great people. The marriage of the Princess Mary is only another example of how they manage to do the right thing before the crack of doom. Remember the World War and how the British Empire came out of it bigger than ever. Look at Ireland—for years given up as hopeless. Think of Balfour coming to Washington and putting across the four-power treaty, while getting a naval holiday, and going home with both Japan and America the sworn friends of old John Bull. No people on earth today have political talent, experience and skill equal to the British. Congratulations to the former Princess, now a humble Viscountess; and if you please felicitations to old England on leading the world just by poise and brains.

It is announced that the Ontario government will introduce a bill to provide for alternative votes in the next provincial election, which will greatly affect minority candidates, that is, candidates who have not a majority over the combined votes of their opponents. The plans of the bill are that where there is a three-cornered fight, and where no one candidate has a majority over the combined vote of his competitors, the lowest man drops out and the second choices on his ballot will be added to the votes of the two leading candidates, thereby deciding the winner. In a four-cornered fight there will be a third count, the lowest dropping out each time. It will work out that only the majority candidates will be known as successful candidates on election day.

THE FARMER FEEDS THEM ALL

The King may rule o'er land and sea,
The Lord may live right royally,
The Soldier live in pomp and pride,
The Sailor roam o'er the ocean wide
But this or that, what'er befall,
The Farmer, he must feed them all.

The Writer thinks, the Poet sings,
The Craftsman follows wondrous things,
The Doctor heals, the Lawyer pleads
The Miner follows the precious lead,
But this or that, what'er befall
The Farmer, he must feed them all.

The Farmer's trade is one of worth,
His pasture with the sky and earth,
His pasture with the sun and rain,
And no man loses for his gain,
And men may rise and men may fall
But the Farmer, he must feed them all.

God bless the man who sows the wheat,
Who finds us milk, and fruit, and meat,
May his purse be heavy, his heart be light,
His cattle, his corn, his all go right;
God bless the seed his hands let fall,
For the Farmer he must feed us all.

If one be troubled with worms, he will find in Holloway's Corn Remover an application that will entirely relieve suffering.

GERMANS HARD AT WORK WHILE DISCONTENTED IDLE

The Association of German University Students seems to have got a thorough grasp on the economic situation. They have decided to send an open letter to all high school graduates intending to enter universities appealing to them to go to productive work instead of becoming an insupportable tax on their parents at this time—to go to work for the purpose of increasing the incomes of the German people. But in Canada particularly, and also in the United States, German agents are hard at work creating discontent and preventing Canadian workers from staying on their jobs.

UNSIGHTLY PIMPLES AND FACE ERUPTIONS

In the Spring Most People Need a Tonic Medicine

One of the surest signs that the blood is out of order is the pimples, unsightly eruptions and eczema that come frequently with the change from winter to spring. These prove that the long indoor life of winter has had its effect upon the blood, and that a tonic medicine is needed to put it right. Indeed, there are few people who do not need a tonic at this season. Bad blood does not merely show itself in disfiguring eruptions. To this same condition is due attacks of rheumatism and lumbago; the sharp stabbing pains of sciatica and neuralgia; poor appetite and a desire to avoid exertion. You cannot get rid of these troubles by the use of purgative medicines—you need a tonic, and a tonic only, and among all medicines there is none can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for their tonic, blood-improving, nerve-restoring powers. Every dose of this medicine helps make new, rich blood which drives out impurities, stimulates every organ and brings a feeling of new health and energy to weak, tired, ailing men, women and children. If you are out of sorts give this medicine a trial and see how quickly it will restore the appetite, revive drooping spirits and fill your veins with new, health-giving blood.

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Owing to the slackness all over in the wiring business at this season of the year, wiring material has slumped owing to lack of demand. It will be worth your while.

- INITIAL COSTS OF MATERIALS—Brantford Asphalt Slates are sometimes higher in initial cost for the material.
- NAILS REQUIRED—Brantford Asphalt Slates require ONLY 664 nails to lay a square. Brantford Asphalt Slab Slates require ONLY 450 nails.
- COST OF LAYING—Brantford Asphalt Slab Slates are four on one strip—require only one operation in handling, one operation in spacing—individual slates are 8 x 12 1/4 inches—Cut easily, fit easily, fit on angles and bend over roust surfaces. You save 30 to 50 per cent. in laying.
- NO PAINT OR STAIN REQUIRED—The surface of Brantford Asphalt Slates is in nature's permanent color, green and red, unfadeable, always attractive—requiring no stain to produce artistic effects, no liquid costs to make them fire-resistant.
- SAVING OF INSURANCE—Brantford Asphalt Slates are classed as non-combustible by fire insurance companies—a direct saving of from 10 to 20 per cent. on premiums is effected. In certain localities fire regulations demand asbestos paper under some roof materials, but Brantford Asphalt Slates are fire-resistant and are immune from special regulations.
- COST OF REPAIRS—From the day they are laid Brantford Asphalt Slates show almost 100 per cent. of the original roof untouched. Brantford Asphalt Slates do not curl, split, crack or rot. Complete protection and permanent protection are built into Brantford Asphalt Slate Roofs.

Compare these roof costs with those of any other roofing material; it is your money you are spending and you want value for it—then buy

OF PASSING INTEREST

With the substantial surplus of the Post Office Department of last year it would seem reasonable to hope that letter postage will soon be reduced to its pre-war rate of two cents.

A new political disease is breaking out among the politicians of England said Lord Linlithgow at a meeting. It's the political foot and mouth disease—"cold feet and hot mouths."

Remember that if you kill the first one and the next one, and the others as they come, one by one, you will have no flies in your house all summer. Nothing could be simpler.

Has anyone figured out how much advantage the United States has over Canada in the matter of postage rates? Canada pays four cents for the same business letter to Great Britain that cost the U. S. but two cents.

The habit of carrying "strike anywhere" matches loose in the pocket results in many serious fires. In taking something out of the pocket a match drops out on the floor of barn or other place, is stepped on and results in a fire.

"I suppose you're disappointed it isn't a boy?" "No, siree! When I think that women now vote, smoke, go anywhere, wear whatever clothes they like, if any, and that the men can't even have a glass of beer any more, I'm satisfied."

A grocer is suing the Muskogee, Oklahoma, Daily Phoenix for damages, alleged to have been suffered through the paper carelessly or accidentally leaving out his advertisement. He claims that the loss was serious, although only one insertion was omitted.

The law of the civil code that "a wife is obliged to live with her husband and to follow him wherever he thinks fit to reside," applies said Justice Lafontaine, in Montreal, "only within the limits of the country of domicile of the couple where they were married."

Someone makes quite an innocent and meaningless remark about somebody else. Then the mean, meddling some cuss of the village comes along and twists things about and rubs it in till the bet of friends are sworn enemies. And the smaller the towns, the greater the cussedness.

The Ontario Government has sent out inspectors to look over gravel pits and has issued regulations for owners to carry out. For instance, every gravel pit owner must see that there is no overhanging section of earth which might fall without warning, and no excavating is to be done which might incur danger.

A widowed mother, maddened by the destitution of her nine children, the eldest 15, attempted to kill herself at a hamlet near Sault Ste. Marie. Public relief had been denied her, as she had no legal claim on municipal or Provincial authorities. It is a terrible story, and no such pitiable case should be permitted to arise again.

The ratio of fire losses incurred to premiums earned of insurance companies operating in Canada in 1921 was 57.51 per cent., according to figures supplied by G. D. Finlayson, Dominion superintendent of insurance. This is a considerable increase over any recent year. The figure for 1920 was 51.50 per cent.

There is a fortune awaiting the individual who will invent a contrivance, muzzle or otherwise to put on the ordinary house cat to prevent it from catching and destroying insectivorous birds of all kinds during the summer months. It would astonish one to know the number of our feathered friends that are gobbled up by the voracious house cat during the nesting season.

Aren't we human beings funny? We spend all kinds of money for gasoline for joy riding and never grumbled, we take in picture shows and eat ice cream and drink soft drinks and indulge in hundreds of things that bring us nothing but the entertainment of the moment. No permanent benefit comes to us from any of it, but we never think of kicking about it. It is only when we come to pay taxes, the thing that gives us schools, roads, paved streets government and permanent benefits, that we rise up on our hind legs and foller our heads off. Aren't we humans funny?

The Peterboro Examiner calls attention to a matter which is worthy of general consideration at this time of year—that of taking short cuts across the grass on lawns and parks. The time gained by such a practice it says, is not worth considering when balanced against the damage thoughtless footsteps can inflict when the ground has not dried up after the passing of winter's snows. "It may seem a small matter, but the real city beautiful can never be attained until we learn to pay attention to the little details which make or mar the appearance of the city. Well-kept lawns play a big part, and it is the duty of everyone to assist by using the walks instead of the sward just now, when taking a short cut may result in lasting damage being done." The suggestion of the Peterboro paper is one that is applicable to Watford as it is also to other towns.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

ELOPES WITH MARRIED WOMAN

Kenneth Cosereri, alias Baker, boarded with Albert Vercounteren, Petrolia, for some months, until this week in fact. The notice he paid to Albert's wife was not specially remarkable during that time, but now both Albert's wife and Kenneth are missing. There is also the matter of $60 unpaid board bill and $150 in cash which Albert is despairing of. A warrant has been sworn out for their arrest, should they be apprehended. All the parties concerned are Belgians and have been in Canada and the United States for some time. Cosereri is a tall, loosely built man with curly hair and is about thirty years of age. It is supposed that the missing couple went north.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS
ALWAYS IN THE HOME

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she always keeps a supply on hand, for the first trial convinces her there is nothing to equal them in keeping children well. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach, thus driving out constipation and indigestion, colds and simple fevers, and making teething easier. Concerning them, Mrs. Salust Pelletier, Ste. Dumas, Que., writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past ten years and am never without them in the house. They have always given the greatest satisfaction and I can gladly recommend them to all mothers of little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or direct by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GOOD RIDDLES

What did Jack Frost say when he proposed to the violet? Wilt thou?—and it wilted.

Why are sidewalks in winter like music? If you don't C sharp you will B flat.

How does the letter Y work an impossibility? It makes a lad into a lady.

Why is the letter R a profitable letter? Because it makes ice into rice.

Why is the letter T like Easter? Because it is the last of Lent.

What seven letters did old Mother Hubbard use when she looked into the cupboard, O. I. C. U. R. M. T.

Why did Noah object to the letter D? Because it makes the ark dark.

Make five less by adding to it. IV. When is a bar of iron like a bad note? When it is forged.

DEATH OF AMBROSE G. LOGAN

News of the death on Saturday evening, April 1st, of Mr. Ambrose G. Logan came with a shock to the people of Forest. He had been in his usual health and around all day. Shortly after retiring to bed he spoke of not feeling just right and got up. In a few minutes he clasped his hand to his side, intimating to his wife his feelings and with that passed peacefully away into the Great Beyond. Mr. Logan was in his 61st year, and was born at Thorndale West Nissouri Township, Nov. 14th, 1861. His family moved to Warwick settling on the 4th line N.E.R., near Birnam, in 1874. In 1885 he was married to Miss Mary Schooley and resided on a farm on the 8th line of Warwick, about 2 miles from Forest. Two years ago this month he retired from his farm and moved to Forest. His sudden departure came as a great shock to all who knew him, and comes as a warning to us all "To be ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of Man cometh." He shall be missed greatly by those who knew him most, and loved him best. He was a good husband a loving father, and a kind and obliging neighbor. He leaves to mourn his loss, a sorrowing wife, who has been in ill health for the past year, and three sons: David and Melford of Warwick, on farms near Forest, and Dr. Floyd of Vassar, Mich. His only daughter, Merle (Mrs. (Rev.) B. S. Black) predeceased him some three years ago. He leaves also two brothers and three sisters: Finlay E., of Forest; William A., of Sarnia; Mrs. Morris Cornell, of Ashland, Wis.; Mrs. Leonard Matthews, Camlachie; Mrs. Frank Calt, of Forest. Another sister, Mrs. Richard Higgins of Watford, predeceased him less than one year ago. All have the sincere sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. The funeral took place from his residence, Broadway street, on Wednesday afternoon to the Baptist church, where the service was conducted by Rev. Doolittle assisted by Rev. Muxworthy, and from there the remains were conveyed to their last resting place in Beechwood cemetery, and placed beside those of his daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) B. S. Black. The bearers were brother Orangemen of the deceased.

Those attending from a distance were: Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Logan, Vassar; Mr. Fred Eastman and little son, Wilfred, and Mrs. Murray Kirk, Detoit; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Logan and Mrs. George Millman of Sarnia, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Matthews of Camlachie; Mr. Richard Higgins and daughter Rheta, Watford, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barber, Inwood.
