ALL CANADA SHARES IN GRIEF AT DEATH OF R. STOCKTON

OTTAWA, March 15 (Special)—Dr. Alfred Augustus Stockton, M. P., St. John, died at the Water St. hospital at 6.20 this morning. The deceased was taken ill over four weeks ago and taken to the hospital, where he has been ever since. Some two weeks ago a doctor was sent for from Boston to operate upon him, but this, at the time, was decided unnecessary.

For a quarter of a century Dr. Stockton was identified with the political life of his native province. The immediate cause of death was acute pleurisy. His daughter was with him at the time of his death, and Mrs. Stockton arrived from St. John to-day. This is the eighth death among parliamentarians since the session opened.

A Notable Career The Evening Times on Oct. 18, 1905 in its series of articles on the Men of St. John published the following sketch of Dr. A. Stockton, M. P.

Alfred A. Stockton, Ph. D., D. C. L., LL. D., K. C., M. P., was born at St. John, Kings county (N. B.), on Nov. 2, 1842, and is of English and Loyalist descent. He was educated at Mount Allison University, graduating B. A. in 1864, and receiving the M. A. degree in 1867, and at Victoria University, Coburg, where he received the degree of LL. D. The degree of Ph. D. was received on examination in 1883, from Illinois Wesleyan University. He was a member of the Mount Allison and of King's College, Windsor. He was for some years an examiner for degrees at Mount Allison in political economy and constitutional history, and in law at Victoria University. Upon the establishment in this city of the St. John law school in connection with King's College, Dr. Stockton was appointed lecturer in admiralty and shipping and in constitutional history and law, which appointment he still holds. He was also for some years a member of the board of regents of Mount Allison and secretary of the board.

Dr. Stockton studied law with his uncle, C. W. Stockton, and was afterwards a member of the firm of A. and R. O. Stockton, which was dissolved in 1877. He then practised under his own name until November, 1904, when he admitted J. Milton Price to a partnership, the firm now being known as Stockton & Price. In 1882 he edited with extensive notes, "Deberton's Reports of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick," and in 1894 published a work on the Admiralty Law; and in 1898 a work on the Monroe Doctrine and other topics. At present he is bringing out a history of the "Judges of New Brunswick and their times, from the organization of the province to the present time." In 1887 he was appointed a member of the commission to report upon the amendment of the "Law and Practice and Constitution of the Courts of the Province."

Dr. Stockton always took an active interest in political affairs, and in 1883 elected a member of the New Brunswick legislature. He was continuously one of the members for St. John until 1898. In 1900 he unsuccessfully contested the constituency for a seat in parliament, but was elected at the general elections in 1904. In every political campaign during the period of his public life Dr. Stockton has taken an active part, and throughout the province he has the reputation of being a brilliant campaign speaker, strong in attack, ready and witty in retort, and never disturbed by interruption of any sort. His clear, resonant voice, ringing through the vast part of the largest auditorium, at once commands attention, and his fine gift of eloquent expression has long stamped him as one of the most effective public speakers in the province. Dr. Stockton has always taken an active interest in edu-reach there until noon today, so that she could not see him alive. Besides his wife the members of Dr. Stockton's family are: Miss Elsie, who was in Ottawa at the time of her father's death; Miss Evelyn, a nurse in New York, and Miss Sylvia and Caroline at home. The sons are Goldwin in London, Can.; G. Blair, Mitchell, Powell, Plimney, Judge Hanington and others were there. Among all the members of the legislature during this time there was probably not one who did more solid and effective work than Dr. Stockton. He was a man who did not confine his attention exclusively to law. There probably was no better authority in Canada on constitutional history and cognate questions of legislation. Dr. Stockton was fast rising in eminence in the larger sphere, in which in the last few years he had been called upon to act. He was not a frequent speaker, but when he rose to speak he was always listened to with great attention by all classes in the house.

Member of the provincial legislature with Dr. Stockton for thirteen years—from 1887 to 1900—and they had acted in concert. "He was a man of great industry and was always in his seat. He was one of the leading debaters in the house, and was second to none, which is saying a great deal when such men as Andrew G. Blair, Mitchell, Powell, Plimney, Judge Hanington and others were there. Major Sears said: "No citizen, I believe, has more forcibly impressed his personality upon the community than has the late Dr. Stockton. He was a man universally esteemed—a bright, clear character, whose friendship was valued for its freedom from any coarseness and its invariable standard of thoughtfulness and happy suggestiveness. "I had the pleasure of Dr. Stockton's acquaintance for over thirty years, and both socially and politically considered him as truly representative of what was of the highest standard of citizenship. Thomas McAvity said he had been greatly shocked to hear of Dr. Stockton's sudden taking off. He and Dr. Stockton had always been warm friends, despite their differences of political opinions. "He was a man," said Mr. McAvity, "who was held in the highest esteem by all, irrespective of their political opinions. He was an upright, honorable, good-willed citizen, and he will be deeply mourned by all." He considered Dr. Stockton to be the type of man whom all could admire, thoroughly conscientious and working for that which he thought was right and for the good of all.

Hon. H. A. McKeown said: "My first association with Dr. Stockton was in 1887 when I entered his office to study law, and from that day until the present time my relations with him have always been most friendly and cordial. The political differences which developed between us never for a moment interrupted the steady friendship which always existed between us. He was a man of high ideals, a scholar of matured judgment and active intellect. As a forcible debater, I never knew his superior, and the address he delivered on political and other subjects was always marked by research, and by a thorough knowledge of the subject under discussion. "As a public man he was always guided by the absolutely just and right to all classes. "His death leaves a gap in public life in this community which it will be difficult to fill. He was most sincere in his beliefs and in his friendships, and I count myself particularly fortunate to have known him as a man of high character and ability."

Hon. C. N. Skinner Recorder Skinner said he learned with sincere regret of the death of Dr. Stockton. "I knew him," he said, "when he first started to study law in St. John, and I always admired his great ability and his desire to bring out all the facts in a case as well as his great fairness. "For some years we were in the legislature together, and during the early part of our legislative career we were both supporters of Mr. Blair. When Dr. Stockton withdrew his allegiance to Blair in 1880 it in no way disturbed our personal friendship. Dr. Stockton was a man of the most kindly disposition and possessed in an eminent degree the highest qualities of statesmanship."

George Robertson, M. P. P. said that his acquaintance with Dr. Stockton extended over a period of forty years and generally acquired personally of his condition and was anxious to know if he could call and see him. He also intimated to the high feeling of admiration and respect he entertained for my colleague. He is a loss to his constituents, to parliament and to the country for his high quality of clean thought and of clean politics."

J. D. Hazen, M. P. P. (Special)—The news of the death of Dr. Stockton M. P. was received by members of the legislature with very great regret, and was the principal topic for discussion this morning. J. D. Hazen, leader of the opposition, discussing the sad event with the Times correspondent said that he heard of Dr. Stockton's death with feelings of deep emotion. He had been his personal, professional and political friend for many years and he had never known a man possessed of a more generous disposition or who was actuated by higher ideals. He regarded him as the best public speaker in New Brunswick of his time and as a constitutional and parliamentary lawyer he had no superior and few if any equals in Canada. His death was a great public loss for he was always ready to bear his share in the public life of the country. In politics he was a man of strong views and a most courageous and aggressive political campaigner. His private life was beyond reproach and he would leave behind a most fragrant reputation.

Geo. W. Fowler, M. P. (Special)—OTTAWA, March 15 (Special)—Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., for Kings said: "I have known Dr. Stockton for many years and admired him for his great knowledge, his parliamentary skill and his talent as a debater, as well as for his personal worth. The deceased was a staunch friend and had no enemies."

W. B. Ganong, M. P. "I cannot tell you how sorry I was to learn this morning of the death of Dr. Stockton. We were acquainted for many years and were fast friends. His death is a great loss to parliament and especially to St. John, which had always his first consideration. He gave to his constituents the best of service in his own and he will be missed by them, as well as by a host of friends and admirers."

Dr. Daniel, M. P. "In the death of Dr. A. A. Stockton, St. John loses one of its best known and most respected citizens and the parliament of Canada one of its ablest members. He had a long political career in the provincial arena, was a man of strong convictions of duty and right and always had the courage of his convictions and expressed his views on his colleagues, and his country."

Premier Pugsley FREDERICTON, March 15 (Special)—Premier Pugsley is suffering today from a severe cold, and he is now in his room at the Queen Hotel. Speaking to a Times correspondent he said: "I must say how terribly shocked I am to hear of the death of Dr. Stockton. We have been warm personal friends for about thirty years. Coming as we did from the county of Kings, our relations were always very intimate and naturally from the commencement of our professional careers in St. John, we were thrown very much together. I have been frequently associated with him in appeal cases, sometimes on his side, but more often opposed to him, and I always admired his great ability and his desire to bring out all the facts in a case as well as his great fairness. The whole of the interior of the house was damaged and will be irremediable. The fire was thought to have originated in a gas stove in one of the bedrooms on the north side and had been smouldering for some time when discovered. The fire department worked from six until eight o'clock before "all out" was sounded. From the starting point the blaze spread between the floor and ceiling on the second story and gradually worked its way up in the attic. The fire was contained to the west part of the house

WALL STREET WAS AGAIN PANICKY THIS MORNING

NEW YORK, March 15—Stocks opened higher this morning amid great nervous excitement but a rush to unload caused a reaction. Heading extreme opening advance over last night was 11; B. and H., 12 1/2; Amalgamated Copper, 9; Sugar, 6 1/2; American Smelting, 7; Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, M. P., B. & N., N. & W., 6 1/2; New York Central, 5 1/2; S. P. and Atchison, 4 1/2. Almost immediately heavy offerings were thrown upon the market, and violent reactions followed. Reading fell back five points; Great Northern preferred reacted to below last night; Northern Pacific fell back 3 1/2; B. and H., 3; S. P. and Atchison, 2 1/2; and several other active stocks several points. Fluctuations became very feverish after that. The buoyant rise in London was the prime factor in lifting prices here. The orders issued by Secretary Cortelyou after the market closed yesterday gave hopes of relief from the money stringency.

Chicago Not Worried

CHICAGO, March 15—The slump in stocks is regarded as a New York affair. Chicago bankers yesterday asserted that they were not troubled over the outlook for the money market. The highest priced American stocks which are in the middle west would be in nowise affected. There was manifest among the banks no alarm or misgiving. There are millions in reserve here which can be utilized and the country is unusually prosperous. One other idea of special interest also was expressed by James H. Wood, president of the National Commerce Bank, who looked at the situation with some pessimism and claimed that there is too much speculation over the railroads.

London Quiet

LONDON, March 15—During the early trading on the exchange prices in the American market were marked up without much business, but with quotations improving, which resulted in some buying by houses which had left American alone for years; also by Continental bankers and investors who were tempted by their cheapness. The highest priced American stock opened at 3 to 7 points above New York parity and fluctuated widely. Union Pacific opened at 155 and rose to 157 but lost 1 1/2.

Berlin Stronger

BERLIN, March 15—Prices on the Bourse today, recovered but trading was quiet.

Montreal Lower

MONTREAL, March 15—Liquidation in stocks continued in heavy volume again today and most of the market went lower. There seemed to be support in some issues, however, which were steadier and some were helped by the improved level in Wall street where the opening. Pressure to sell was in evidence, however, in a number of issues. Dominion was firmer, and so was Twin City. Stocks which fell were Mont. Power, to 81 3/4; Toledo, 25; Mackay, 63 1/2; Toronto Ry., 109 3/4; Nova Scotia Steel, 66 1/2; Dom. Iron sold at 18 1/4 up to 19 1/4, bid at 40 1/2 and Bonds, 7.

THE THAW TRIAL

NEW YORK, March 15—In the Thaw trial today Dr. Hirsch, another of the state's attorneys, declared that Thaw was sane when he killed Stanford White, and that science knows no such thing as a "brain storm." Dr. Pritchard also declared that Thaw was sane when he killed White.

The Viper of Milan. A ROMANCE OF LOMBARDY. BY MARJORIE BOWEN.

(Continued.) The Count had scarcely strength for any definite purpose of self-help. He drew water, and turned to drag himself away in search of some he might dare drink. Eye long, he knew not how, he reached it; a little hollow fringed with fern, in its centre a calm and placid pool, the trees mirrored its peaceful surface. Count Conrad felt beside it, gazing longingly. A statue of a woodgod, the sunlight yellow in the hollow eyes, leaped from among the bushes, and mocked him with its smile. Another effort and he had reached the stone. The water was so cool so clear, so pure and still, it seemed impossible that it should harm him. He reached his hand out, then convulsively resisting the impulse, drew it back, and sank again upon the grass. At a flutter of white from the bushes near, Count Conrad lifted his eyes, and saw a dove that flew past him to rest upon the rim; he watched it eagerly. The bird preened itself, shook its feathers stately, stooped and drank. Conrad drew himself a little nearer. Suddenly with a cry the bird whirled up into the air, beat its wings together vainly, and fell back into the water, dead. Poisoned! All the water poisoned! Desolation gripped him a moment's strength, Count Conrad rose and regarded the dead dove with greedy eyes, but stealing himself against the impulse to devour his own death, he crawled on with the vague thought to reach the gate. Some instinct of remembrance guiding his stumbling steps, he came upon it. It was twice his height, and all its elaborate tracery offered no single aperture through which a child could thrust his hand. Sick and blind, he clung to it; he tried to shout, to scream, his voice died away. In his helplessness, his wild, unreasoning passion against the iron, his eyes starting, his tongue lolling out of his dry mouth, he gripped and shook the lock. Two children running by, stopped, gazed, came nearer, and then at what they saw, fled, screaming. No one else approached. The world seemed empty, twilight began to fall. Then in his half-delirium, Count Conrad thought again of the dead bird, and laughed wolfishly to himself, making with tottering steps back toward the hollow. To search coherently for food or drink or succor was now beyond his power. Presently again he sank across the grass and lay there crying like a child, whimpering and whispering. Once or twice he made an effort, smatched at the long grass, fell back again, and lay now in silence. After a time, but while it was still light, he seemed to wake as from a trance, and saw a figure moving down the glade toward him. Was he still living? He could scarcely tell. Was this Visconti come again to mock him? The thought spurred the man, though dying, almost to strive to rise and meet his fate standing. But sky, grass, trees, and stone reeled about him in a chaos of green and blue. He strove to speak, but his tongue refused. The dark figure came nearer, stopped beside him, stooped and spoke, but Count Conrad did not see nor hear. He lay, a wretched spectacle, as if dead indeed. He awoke, as he thought never to wake again, with moistened lips, and water on his forehead, and a face that was not Visconti's bending over him; a dark face with strange brown eyes, that looked at him, with sombre interest. "Thou comest from the Duke?" gasped Conrad. Francisco shook his head. "I am no emissary of Visconti." "Then thou comest to save me?" whispered Conrad eagerly, hope dawning in his eyes. "I will save thee if I can," replied Francisco. "Thou art alone?"

STREET COSTUME OF PALE GRAY CLOTH. The costume illustrated was designed for dress wear, the skirt being made with a decided sweep all around. The little coat was a short, loose affair, trimmed with braid and buttons, the vest being of a darker shade than the cloth. It was made of heavy corded silk. The skirt had an attached flounce set on from either side of the front. This model would also be very smart in white or colored linen, trimmed with wide, heavy wash braid.

When the heart is healthy and performing its functions naturally, it should beat regularly seventy-two times a minute without inconvenience or distress. When it begins to beat irregularly or intermittently, palpitate and throb, skip, beat fast for a time, then slow as to seem almost to stop, it ceases great anxiety and alarm. The least excitement or exertion seems to affect it. Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, because weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social or business duties, through unnatural action of their heart. To all such sufferers MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS can give prompt and permanent relief. Mrs. F. Fletcher, Sault Ste. Marie, West, Ont., says: "I have been troubled for four or five years with weakness, and run down system. My feet were always cold and I felt almost dead. My heart was weak and I was so nervous I could hardly walk across the street. I started taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after using three boxes I felt much better. I continued their use until I had taken twelve boxes and I am now well." Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Fish Ousted, Says Harriman, for Using Million of Funds of the Illinois Central for Himself.

"I DON'T THINK I EVER HAD ANYTHING TO DO WITH A RAILROAD THAT DEFAULTED ON ITS BONDS" -Asserting that Stuyvesant Fish had used the Illinois Central Railroad as a personal asset, that he had lent securities to the Republic and the Commonwealth Trust companies to pad their statements and that he had lent himself $1,000,000 of its funds, giving practically worthless securities as collateral, E. H. Harriman caused a sensation when he told the Interstate Commerce Commission why he had ousted Mr. Fish from the presidency of the Illinois Central.

DR. STOCKTON
The hand of death has of late been busy among the older generation of New Brunswick public men. Today the sad news is flashed over the wires from Ottawa that Dr. Stockton, M. P., whose heroic struggle against disease had aroused the deep sympathy of his fellow citizens, had passed away.

Universal sorrow was felt in this city and province, where through a long and active public life he had held the esteem of all. His career as a lawyer, as a member of the legislature, as a member of parliament, and as an advocate of all measures for moral reform in the community, was marked by great ability and earnestness of purpose. He was a man of singular kindness of nature, and though a formidable adversary in political warfare, his social virtues overcame even the suggestion of personal bitterness. Charitable in his relations with men, open to the appeals of those in difficulty or distress, he will be held in honored memory by many who were the recipients of a kindness as unobtrusive as it was timely and unselfish. All benevolent organizations lose in him a valued friend, for his voice and influence were never sought in vain in their behalf. His career in the federal parliament was too brief and too much shadowed by illness to produce marked results, but he had won the respect of men of all parties, and established himself as one of the most effective debaters in the house. It was but the other day that this paper quoted from a Montreal liberal journal a notable eulogy of Dr. Stockton. As a platform speaker he had in his prime of life few equals. His clear, vibrant voice rang through the largest room, and he possessed in no small degree the gift of eloquence; while his readiness at repartee made him rather welcome the interruptions that would confuse a man of less resource. As years passed he gained a stronger hold upon the affections of the people, and the sorrow of his family today is shared by thousands, who mourn the passing of a strong and gentle soul, whose earthly life was fruitful in service to its kind.

THE NEW SCHEME

Having studied the St. John aldermen at close range, the municipalities committee of the legislature evidently came to the conclusion that a city which would tolerate such a council deserved to be punished. Therefore it decided to saddle upon the community a council of nine men.

On its financial page today the Times gives the comment of leading New York papers on the attempt to be made by the great railroad interests to head-off President Roosevelt in his campaign to compel the companies to consider more the interests of the public and give to the government an accounting of their stewardship. It is generally believed that the president will stand by his guns, and will not be deterred by the artificial encouragement of Wall Street panics from doing what he conceives to be his duty to the people.

centre, foreign markets adopted quick obstructive measures in the effort to ward off the American demand. The Holland bank rate was immediately advanced from 5 to 6 per cent. and the London market, realizing the favorable trend of exchange on this market, raised the selling price of American gold coin 5-8 over yesterday. The Journal of Commerce said: "The government has a surplus for the fiscal year to date of $44,000,000, and could well afford, were such a course considered advisable, to make deposits, under the new Aldrich Bill, of government receipts in depositories throughout the country. Secretary Cortelyou has not yet declared his policy, and until he does so it is not expected that the money market will be come settled. Responsible interests here represent that the government ought to come forward and state promptly what course it will pursue. It is no part of a properly organized administration to keep the country on tenterhooks regarding its financial policy, and if the present government has any financial policy it ought to relieve existing uncertainty. Since Friday the banks have lost no less than $3,481,000 to the sub-treasury, contrasted with only a nominal loss at this time last week. The outlook for Saturday's bank statement is not, therefore, encouraging. Moreover, preparations or instalments on new securities and for April dividends will shortly have to be made. All these facts point to the difficulty that stock market manipulators would encounter were they to attempt to arouse speculative enthusiasm at this time. The stock market is hopeful that the government, having passed the Aldrich bill, will take advantage of its terms and that Washington will no longer act as a financial sponge. If it can be shown that the country is suffering from unduly high rates—merchants are now compelled to pay from 6 to 6 1/2 per cent for accommodation—the new secretary may be inclined to release part of the treasury's ample reserves."

A VALLEY RAILWAY

Yesterday's discussion in the legislature on the subject of a railroad for the St. John valley from St. John to Woodstock, was interesting, and suggests a course of action for the people who would be served by such a line. Whether the federal government could be prevailed on to assist such a road to any greater extent than the usual subsidy, which is already in part available, is of course a doubtful question. There are several branch lines already built which have not been taken over by the I. C. R., and their claims will be steadily pressed whenever the general question is up for consideration. It is not disputed that a railroad down the St. John valley would be of great service to the people, and it would doubtless lead to a rapid development of the region traversed, which offers fine opportunities for productive industry. On this ground the project should appeal to the provincial government more than to the federal, which has the development of half a continent to consider. The subject having been brought into the arena of discussion, the people most directly concerned will, perhaps deem it worth while to have data prepared, giving a clear statement of the value of immediate and prospective traffic such a line might reasonably expect to secure. The municipal and provincial authorities might properly co-operate in this work, which is very essential and would not involve much expense.

A FINE PUBLICATION

The spring number of the Maritime Merchant for 1907, just issued, surpasses all former issues and ranks among the finest commercial publications issued in Canada. There are no less than 246 pages in an exceptionally handsome cover, the front cover being a genuine triumph of the printer's art in design and execution. The paper, printing and illustrations of the book are of very fine quality, while the contents are an inspiration to commercial men in these provinces. The spirit is optimistic and the call is to greater effort in provincial development. St. John wholesale houses figure largely among the advertisers, whose attractive announcements grace the book. Among the special features is a page telling the story of the re-emption of the St. John cotton mills. The Era of the South Shore is a finely illustrated article on Shelburne, Barrington, Lockport and the region opened up by the new railway. There is a page on the industrial awakening of Dorchester. An exhaustive article by A. K. MacLean, M. P., of Lunenburg, tells the story of the Modus Vivendi. Pages are given up to a review of the outlook for business in the provinces, written by correspondents from scores of different places. Indeed there are too many interesting features to be noted in a brief review. The publishers of the Maritime Merchant are to be congratulated, and a wide circulation of this number must be of benefit to the provinces.

DISCUSSED PLAN FOR RAILWAY DOWN VALLEY OF THE ST. JOHN RIVER

FREDERICTON, March 15—A railway for the St. John valley was discussed in the house yesterday. The discussion arose through the introduction of a bill by Mr. King to authorize the Auto Road Company to build a steam railway and extend their road from Gagetown to Fredericton and from Rothesay to Gagetown. Mr. Pugsley and Mr. G. T. P. seem to have been investigated by us or our contemporaries.

"I am sure that all will agree that the building of a railway down the St. John River valley is a matter of very great importance, but it is wrong to say that the government is to build a road not being built. Not only has the Dominion parliament but the Provincial government years ago voted a subsidy to assist in building it. This legislature voted $3,000 a mile and the Dominion parliament $3,000 a mile. A company of strong capitalists was organized and the road had been graded from Fredericton to Springhill, the undertaking was abandoned. At that time the company could not secure the necessary capital. If it is desirable to build this road, and I certainly think it is, some more effective means must be devised to secure this result. I would like the leader of the opposition to think this matter over seriously and I will welcome any practical suggestion he may make. My own view is that such a railway as we require cannot be built simply by means of Dominion and provincial subsidies. There is no use putting such offers on the statute book for this was done twenty years ago and the result has been nothing. I am glad that this matter has come before the house at this time, especially in view of the fact that the surveys of the best route for the construction of the road by a company and it could be leased to the I. C. R. at a rental that would cover the interest on any bonds that the province would guarantee so that any loss would be avoided. I would be willing to entertain such a proposition.

THE LOOSE LEAF SYSTEM. General storekeepers and dry goods merchants cannot afford to ignore the value of a simple system of book-keeping. No business man should attempt to run his business without what has come to be known as the loose leaf or continuous ledger system. The man who has not yet introduced this system into his business should do it today. It will be the cheapest investment he ever made. No matter if you look after your own books or employ bookkeepers it will cut down expenses and save time. In this way the system pays for itself over and over again. More general storekeepers have failed through lack of system than from any other cause.—Dry Goods Record.

The social round during the past week has been unusually interesting, especially in view of the fact that the close of Lent is near at hand.
 The tea and concert given in Centenary school room on Wednesday evening was largely attended and society was well represented. Many beautiful gowns were worn and the event passed off in a manner that reflected much credit on the members of the Hibernia Circle, under whose auspices it was given.
 Another event of interest in local society circles was the wedding of Miss Alice M. Armstrong, daughter of Colonel A. J. Armstrong, and Arthur E. Jubien, of Sydney. The ceremony was performed last Wednesday morning in St. John's (Stone) church, by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Keating. Mr. and Mrs. Jubien left by the early train for Fredericton and proceeded later to Halifax and from there to their future home in Sydney.
 The bride is one of St. John's most popular young ladies and her friends unite in wishing her every happiness in wedded life. Among the out of town guests were Miss Florence Jubien, Clifford Jubien and A. Fred Jubien, sister and brothers of the groom.
 Miss Mary Trueman was hostess at a very enjoyable function on Tuesday evening last when she entertained the Whist Club at her home, 112 Hazen street. Miss Trueman was assisted by Mrs. Ward Miss Ada Dunlop, and her sisters, Misses Kathleen and Jean Trueman. The players were Miss Elsie McLean, Miss Constance Inches, Miss Ethel McAvity, Miss Katie Haen, Miss Margaret McAvity, Miss Phyllis Stratton, Miss Eileen Taylor, Miss Mabel McAvity, Miss Elsie Jardine, Miss Jamie Stone, Miss Charlotte Yastie, Miss Barker and Miss Stetson.
 The gentlemen were John Sayre, W. Harry Harrison, Heber Vroom, J. D. Pollock, Lewis William Vassie, George Leebart, W. G. Pugsley, Fred Taylor, Hugh McKay, Harold Stetson, Mr. Ward, Gordon Kerr and Alexander Fowler. A dainty supper was served at midnight and the event proved most successful.
 Mrs. J. B. Cudlip entertained a number of her friends at bridge bridge, last Tuesday evening and the event proved one of the most delightful of its kind that has been given this week. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Frank Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Downing-Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. Lamson and Miss Kaye. The prize winners were Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Lamson, Mrs. Harry Robinson and Mr. Patterson.
 The Misses Travers were hostesses at a delightful driving party on Monday evening last in honor of Mrs. Greson.

WARD SYSTEM
BILL PASSES
 Nineteen Aldermen for St. John and a Return to the Old System.

FREDERICTON, March 14.—The municipalities committee today agreed to the St. John civic elections' bill which authorizes a return to the old ward system of elections and which increases the size of the city to 19 members.
 The bill relating to street paving in St. John created considerable discussion. Mr. Maxwell, who introduced it, said he would like to see it withdrawn.
 Mr. Baxter then fully explained the object of the bill which he said has caused considerable difficulty to the council as they had to face a good many different interests. But he certainly thought that where a better class of paving was put down at the request of the owners of the property fronting on the street they should be called upon to contribute to the extra cost of the same.
 H. H. McLean said his opposition was confined to clause 4 under the agreement which was made last year and which was sanctioned by the legislature, the street railway's obligation would not be applied to any street where no burden would be laid on the owners of the property on either side, nor to any street where the liability was on the street railway, but that right should remain under the law as it at present exists.
 Mr. Haen was opposed to the bill originally when he first read it, but after hearing what had been said he had come to the conclusion that there was a good deal to be said for it at any rate as far as residential streets were concerned.
 The premier suggested that as it was not intended to increase the obligations of the street railway would it not be as well to insert a clause to that effect.
 Mr. Hill remarked that persons living in the premises adjoining to the street repaving was done got the benefit of it without any cost to themselves beyond what they paid in the general taxation.
 The premier suggested that the bill be amended by striking out clause 4 and inserting instead thereof the following: "Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to increase, alter or diminish the rights and obligations of the St. John Street Railway Company under any existing statute or agreement." This was agreed to and the bill ordered to be recommended for third reading.
 The committee then proceeded with the consideration of the bill respecting sewage maintenance in St. John and Mr. Baxter having fully explained the object of the bill Mr. Maxwell said he hoped the bill would not be allowed to go through as the revenue derived from the water rates was very considerable and if the accounts in connection with the sewage were mixed up with those of the water department it would not be possible for the ratepayers to find out to what extent they were taxed and that should not be so.
 The committee having deliberated in private the bill was agreed to and ordered to be recommended to the house.

Her wedding to Captain Angel, formerly of Rochester, N. The engagement was announced early in January. Mr. Post, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Post of this city, is the secretary to Governor Winthrop. Captain Angel and his bride will remain in San Juan, where he is now stationed. Mrs. Angel is a beautiful and accomplished woman.

SPECTATOR FINED.
 KINGSTON, March 11.—Herbert Little was today fined $2 and costs at the police court for disturbing the peace. He denied that he attempted to assault Referee Hancock, at the Stratford-Kingston hockey match, but he did shout "You're rotten." The magistrate said that was enough to incite trouble. He spoke about sport in the city, and the interest taken in it. Generally any result was accepted as the game went, but hot heads frequently gave a bad name to sport by their conduct. He rebuked such actions and showed disfavor over Little's conduct by fining him for his disorderliness.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

SKATING

LAST NIGHT'S RACES. Cheering thousands of people who filled Victoria rink last evening saw Fred Logan, the St. John skater, defeat Morris Wood, world's champion, in the quarter mile event, in one of the best races ever skated in the rink. Wood won the 220 handily, equalling the rink record, 19 4/5, and was also first in the 880 yards, which, however, was a very unsatisfactory race. Altogether it was a great night of sport. The chief interest was, of course, centred in the match races in which Wood, indoor champion of the world; Logan, outdoor champion, and Bart M. Duffy, maritime champion, were entered.

A race which called forth many cheers for the contestants was the match between Hughie McCormick and Fred Breen, former world's champions. The quarter mile was skated, it was announced, in 42 seconds, by these old timers, Breen winning by a very close margin. "Hughie" wore the antiquated long reachers, and the way he cut the corners was a caution. Breen had a great stroke, and showed very good form. The list of winners is:

Match race—Hipwell, 1st; Baird, 2nd. Time, 1:30 1/3. Small boys' half mile—First heat, Elliot, 1st; Bell, 2nd. Final—Elliot, 1st; Stephenson and Bell, tie. Time, 2:16 3/5. 220 yards match race—Wood, 1st; Logan, 2nd; Duffy, 3rd. Time, 19 4/5. 220 yards (open)—First heat, A. Logan, 1st; McLean, 2nd. Second heat—Wright, 1st; Harrington, 2nd. Third heat—Whitehouse, 1st; Bell, 2nd. Final—A. Logan, 1st; Wright, 2nd; Whitehouse, 3rd. Time, 2:14 4/5. 440 yards (open)—First heat: Wright, 1st; A. Logan, 2nd. Second heat—McLean, 1st; Whitehouse, 2nd. Third heat—Northrup, 1st; Hipwell, 2nd. Final—McLean, 1st; Whitehouse, 2nd; Northrup, 3rd. Time, 4:40 sec. Junior boys' half mile—First heat: Hodd, 1st; Johnston, 2nd. Second heat—Coleman, 1st; Ingraham, 2nd. Final—Coleman, 1st; Ingraham, 2nd; Hodd, 3rd. Time, 1:52. Senior boys' one mile—Belyea, 1st; Miller, 2nd; Hodd, 3rd. Time, 3:49 3/5. 440 yards match race—Logan, 1st; Wood, 2nd; Duffy, 3rd. Time, 40 1/3. 880 yards (open)—First heat: Harrington, 1st; Riley, 2nd. Second heat—Wright, 1st; McLean, 2nd. Final—Wright, 1st; Riley, 2nd; Harrington, 3rd. Time, 1:37 3/5. Quarter mile match race (opposite sides)—Fred Breen, 1st; Hugh McCormick, 2nd. Time, 42 sec. 880 yards match race—Wood, 1st; Logan, 2nd. Time, 1:29 3/5. Mile race (open)—McLean, 1st; Bell, 2nd; Whitehouse, 3rd. Time, 3:13 3/5. The officials were: Judges, Major J. J. Gordon, J. W. Cameron, J. Turner, J. Page, A. Patterson, W. B. Ganong; starter, Jas. H. Fulton; timers, M. Dehan, F. Watson, Dr. T. F. Johnston, Mr. Hunter, clerks, H. Ervin, H. Lumney, J. Fred Shaw; scorer, Gordon Johnston, A. S. Stevens, John Barry, Fred Triton; announcer, James Smith; official registrar, John Ross.

Hilton Belyea's Challenge. Hilton Belyea claims to be the fastest one mile skater in St. John and will back up his claim on Monday night in the Victoria rink by taking on Wood, Logan and Duffy from opposite sides, each in turn, with twenty minutes rest between races. Belyea does not claim to be a sprinter, but that he can defeat any of the men named in a mile race. Suspend. All skaters who competed in the M. R. A. races here March 7, with the exception of the competitors in the junior and small boys races, have been suspended by the M. P. A. A. Barclay Moore and Thompson, of Campbellton, have also been put under the ban indefinitely for competing with Hilton Belyea.

CURLING McLellan Cup Match Postponed. Yesterday was the date arranged for the Fredericton curlers to come to St. John to try for possession of the McLellan Cup held by the Thistle. On account of the uncertainty of having good ice, however, and because of the lateness of the season, they asked that the match be postponed until next year. C. J. Milligan, secretary of the club, communicated with the trustees of the cup—J. F. Gregory, of St. John, and F. Dexter, of Truro—and they consented to the postponement. Fredericton will, therefore, be first to try for the coveted trophy next year. They challenged with two rinks skipped by James Tibbets and T. L. Fowler. The Thistle rinks chosen to defend the cup were: H. G. Barnes, A. D. Malcolm, James Mitchell, J. S. Malcolm (skip), J. McE. Reid, T. U. Hay, W. A. Shaw, J. Fred Shaw (skip). After Fredericton, those in line for the McLellan cup attack next year are Pictou, Antigonish and Amherst. Chatham, 29; Moncton, 23.

NO HOME RULE FOR THESE ORANGEMEN Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West Declares Against Home Rule for Ireland. Orangeville, March 14.—At a meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West this morning a strong resolution against home rule for Ireland, moved by Fred Dan and seconded by W. J. Parkhill, was passed, after a series of warm speeches by a number of delegates, nearly all of whom vigorously protested against the proposals of several Roman Catholic organizations to boycott French goods because of the recent anti-Irish legislation passed by the French parliament. There was a very pleasant meeting of the High School Alumni at the home of Chamberlain Sandall last night. Miss Kenney read a paper on the Slumber Songs of the Nations. During the evening an excellent programme of solo and quartet songs was given. Miss Merritt, Miss March, Miss Hathey, Miss Strudwick and Messrs. Gandy and Knight took part.

TOM LAWSON SHEARS LAMBS

Millions Lost in the Nevada-Utah Coup—Duped by the Boston Man.

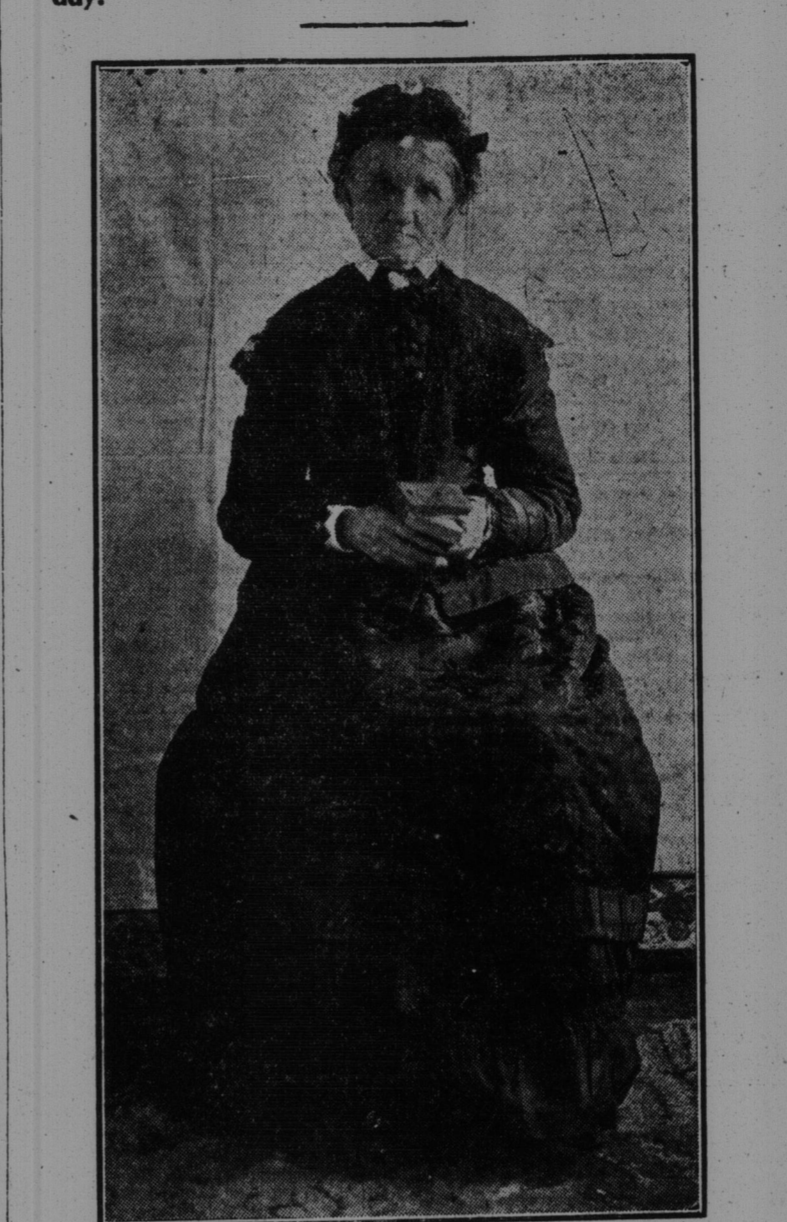

(New York Herald, Wednesday.) Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, gave one of the plainest examples of the credulity of a Wall street crowd yesterday, whose cupidly he first played upon by dangling big profits before their eyes and finally secured them as neatly as ever lamb was sheared in Wall Street. The Lawson coup was worked in a curb stock known as Nevada-Utah, a copper mine the first mission was worked of what was done by the Stock Exchange firm of Hooly, Leonard & Co. Circulars issued by this firm first called attention to the speculative world to the fact that its stock was selling at the "very low price of from $3 to $1 a share."

Toward the end of February Lawson seized upon the stock as a field for another Trinity coup and in six inch type to Wall street crowd asked "are you ready?" Then began a great curbing of the stock, the like of which curb has not been in many years. The stock sold up from $1 to $2. Another twelve months have gone round, and another year is added to the great age of Mrs. James Holt, of Carleton. Friday was 104 years old, but bright and enjoying good health. No better evidence of this is to be found than in the fact that some little time ago she journeyed from her home in Carleton to Hampton to spend some time with relatives, and there she is at present with Mrs. John Graham, but intends to come to the city again in the spring. Mrs. Holt was born in Ballyshannon

OBITUARY

Mrs. Henry Wallace. On Wednesday the death of Mrs. Henry Wallace took place at Hoyt Station, Sunbury county. She had been in failing health for the past two years and death came as a relief from her sufferings. Mrs. Wallace was a middle-aged lady and previous to her marriage to Mr. Wallace was the widow of Captain Brown, of Nova Scotia. She leaves her husband and a family of small children.

Miss Margaret Duff. Word of the death of Miss Margaret Duff, of Westcott Settlement, Kings county, has been received here. Miss Duff was a middle aged lady, and was much respected by all who knew her. She leaves two sisters—Miss Christina Duff, and Mrs. Belle Northrup; and one brother, Robert, all of Westcott. A number of nieces and nephews, reside in this city.

John Stewart. The death of John Stewart, a respected colored resident of the city, occurred at his home, 20 Leinster street, Thursday. Before moving to Leinster street he resided in the North End for sixteen years. He leaves his wife, one son, Charles Stewart, and a daughter, Mrs. Frank McAleer, all of this city.

Mr. Kane for some years conducted a meat market in Main street and moved to Winter street about a year ago. He had been in failing health for some time and the end was not unexpected. He was a man of a quiet retiring disposition but had a large number of friends. He was a member of Branch 134 of the C. M. B. A. He is survived by his wife, one son, George, and three daughters, Nellie, Kathleen, Gertrude, all at home.

Mrs. Thos. B. Williston. Chatham, March 13.—Mrs. Thomas B. Williston, of Bay au Vin, died very suddenly this morning. She retired apparently in her usual health last night, but was taken ill about 2 o'clock and passed away three hours later. Mrs. Williston was formerly Miss Bessie Carmichael.

Mrs. W. H. Eaton. Robert A. Johnston, of the Sun Printing Company, received a telegram early Friday morning containing the news of the death of his sister, Rebecca Jane, wife of W. H. Eaton & Son, printers of Montreal. Deceased had been ill for a long time with dropsy, and the end was not unexpected. What made the death of Mrs. Eaton appear doubly sad at this time is the fact that Mr. Eaton has been sick for the last seven weeks with dropsy.

A meeting of the pew holders of Trinity church, which was to have been held last evening to hear the report of the vestry on the choice of a rector, was postponed until next Tuesday week, March 22.

AN EXPERIMENT SAYS ALD. BAXTER

Alderman Baxter was interviewed by a Times reporter this morning relative to the new system of civic elections. He said: "The new system, if it becomes law, must not be looked upon as ending discussion or thought upon the subject. Personally, I have for years been of opinion that a district system has more advantages than any other, but as the proposed system was the only one on which a majority of the council could agree, I believe that its adoption is a step in the right direction."

CHIVALRY IN INDIANTOWN

James Patterson Preparing to Break a Lance With a Monster Bull Frog.

There is every evidence that the days of knight errantry, long since mourned as dead, are about to be revived in Indiantown and if the stories related in that picturesque burg are correct, a new page in the history of chivalry is about to be written by as bold a knight as ever fought north the red pile of Chandos or the scutcheon of the house of Loring.

Judging from the awesome tales told of this Brobdignagian amphibian it is no mean antagonist, even for the doughty and strenuous gentlemen of the storied past, will be but as the twinkling of a slow fading star, compared with the noonday glare of his prowess materialized he will undoubtedly shed a lustre on his family arms, judged by which the fame of St. George or Sir Galahad or the other illustrious gentlemen of the storied past, will be but as the twinkling of a slow fading star, compared with the noonday glare of his prowess materialized he will undoubtedly shed a lustre on his family arms.

When he finishes his trap and selects his pike-pole he will go to the market and buy a pair of country mittens, as the north end is also shy on knightly gauntlets. Then will he fasten to the corners of his physical prodigy, and hunt the mits at the frog as a symbol of his defiance.

ATHLETIC CONTESTS

Interesting Tournament in Mission Church Gymnasium.

A series of athletic contests which are being held in the Mission church gymnasium, in Paradise Row, are proving of great interest to the boys competing in the different events.

The classes, in which there are about twenty-five boys are under the direction of Arthur Boyne. The senior boys compete in eight events, as follows: 100 yards; standing broad jump; three standing jumps; backward jump; potato race; quarter-mile run; standing hop, step and jump; and standing high jump.

The prizes for the senior boys is a handsome silver cup, standing about ten inches high, lined with gold, and bearing two flags crossed on the front.

The junior prize is a very pretty silver tankard. Both are suitably inscribed.

THE EVERY DAY CLUB

At a meeting of between forty and fifty enrolled members of the Every Day Club last evening it was decided that the rule to exclude boys must be enforced, except in the case of boys accompanied by father or other brother.
