

SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY IN CENTENARY CHURCH

The Sunday school held the centre of the stage at Centenary church yesterday when the 74th anniversary of this branch of the church was observed. At the morning service the members of the Sunday school occupied seats in the centre of the church and the choir was assisted by the Sunday school orchestra. James B. Arthur, superintendent, and A. Laskey, secretary, presented encouraging reports.

In the main school there are 284 pupils, 70 in the home department and 21 in the cradle roll, making a total of 375 with average attendance during the winter of 192 and during the summer of 76. Total receipts were $861.18 and the missionary collection $286.24. Rev. W. H. Barraclough, the pastor, at this service preached an interesting sermon on Light, illustrated by the use of candles. At an open session in the afternoon, addresses were given by former superintendents, including E. T. C. Knowles, J. L. Thorne, J. Hunter White and by Thomas Jenkins, honorary superintendent. In the evening there was a large congregation to hear the pastor discuss Our Duty to the Rising Generation. He gave an earnest talk to parents urging their co-operation in sending their children to the Sunday school.

lected at the annual meeting last week are as follows: James E. Arthur, superintendent; D. McKendrick, associate superintendent; A. Laskey, secretary; L. Lafacheur and R. Edwards, assistants; H. A. Lyman, treasurer; Roy McKendrick, librarian; H. A. Lyman and F. A. Barbour, assistants; Miss Annie Hea, home department superintendent; Miss M. Seelye, cradle roll superintendent; Thomas Jenkins, missionary superintendent; Miss M. G. Barbour, primary superintendent; D. McKendrick, temperance superintendent; Miss H. Galley, pianist; M. L. Harrison, leader of orchestra.

ONE PIECE DRAPE SKIRT.

This is an excellent model for broadcloth and similar soft, pliable materials. The skirt is made with high waistline and has a one-piece tunic. To make the skirt one will require 3 1/2 yards of 44-inch or 2 1/2 yards of 54-inch material. In using 44-inch goods, however, it will be necessary to open the goods when cutting. Place right side up and place the skirt on the cloth, about 2 inches from the edge. Lay the pieces for the skirt, then the tunic, being careful to see that each of the three pieces is on a lengthwise thread of the goods.
After cutting out, find the center-back of the skirt and tunic, which are indicated by single large "O" perforations at upper edges. Place the upper edge of the skirt, placing "T" on corresponding single small "o" perforations and tack. Turn hems at front edge of skirt section at notches. Arrange tunic on skirt, centers even (line of large "O" perforations indicate center-front of skirt and tunic); bring single large "O" perforation near lower edge of tunic to corresponding perforation in skirt, and stitch right front edge to position. Stitch left front edge along line of four small "o" perforations. In skirt section, stitch upper edges together, easing any fullness between double "T" perforations in tunic. Place upper edge of skirt, bringing slot perforations to corresponding double "oo" perforations and tack. Lap left front edge on right, bringing corresponding small "o" perforations together (as numbered in construction guide) and tack. Adjust a webbing or a straight strip of canvas 2 inches wide to position underneath upper edge of skirt for a stay; stitch upper edge together.
A pretty variation of this skirt may be carried out in crepe de chine or moire, having the tunic of heavy lace instead of the same material.

One of the latest designs for a skirt to wear with separate waist. It is made of broadcloth trimmed with 30 inches wide braid or heavy embroidery.

CANADIAN TRADE
$23,000,000 LESS

Ottawa, May 2—Revised trade figures for the past fiscal year and for the month of March last, tell a story of steadily decreasing trade in the dominion. While the figures for the fiscal year show an increase of $26,697,554 in the total trade of Canada, the growth falls far short of being commensurate with that of previous years, the increase for the fiscal year, ended March 1913, being in the neighborhood of $218,000,000.
It is evident also that but for the opening months of the past fiscal year there would have been a decrease in the total trade instead of an increase. The total trade for March last, for instance, shows a falling off of $23,000,000 as compared with March of 1913.
The total trade of the dominion for the past fiscal year is given at $1,073,766,068, as compared with $1,047,068,544 for the preceding fiscal year. The total trade for March was $80,873,598, as compared with $103,055,778 for March 1913. This is exclusive of coin and bullion.
An analysis of the figures for the fiscal year shows an increase in exports over the preceding year of $78,868,869, and a decrease in imports of $51,671,315, the total exports being $455,487,224, and the total imports being $618,228,574. For March alone there is a decrease of $15,000,000 in imports, and of $8,000,000 in exports.
An interesting commentary upon the search of Hon. Mr. Foster for wider markets was given in the figures for the trade with the West Indies market which was shown to have fallen off considerably in spite of the fact that the new treaty with the south has been in force. The effect of the Underwood tariff is reflected in the export figures for the last year, a vast increase in the exports to the United States being shown.

Frequent Spells of Melancholia and Hysteria

Resulted From Overstrained Nerves and Continued Sleeplessness—Good Health and Happiness Restored by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Persistent sleeplessness is one of the most unmistakable signs of exhausted nerves. Without sleep there is not much chance of restoring the wasted nerves, and so the nervous energy of the body is depleted until physical bankruptcy results.

Melancholia, hysteria, prostration, locomotor ataxia and paralysis are some of the natural results of exhausted nerves which are to be dreaded and avoided. The only way to prevent these troubles is to keep the nervous energy high-water mark by the use of such restoratives as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. As an example of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food actually does for a person whose nervous system is almost completely exhausted we refer you to this letter from Mrs. Stoner. This is on record, with thousands of cures similar to this, to prove the extraordinary restorative powers of this great food cure. Mrs. Emily Stoner, 31 Essex street, Toronto, states:—"I was all run down, and could not sleep at nights. I would frequently have spells of melancholia and hysteria, and my household duties seemed a great burden to me. One day a neighbor came in when I had a bad spell, and she sent at once to a drug store for a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"I obtained so much benefit from the first box that I kept up this treatment until I am feeling fine. I can restoratives as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, new sleep well at nights, and have perfect control of the nerves. Good health and happiness have replaced the weakness and discouragement."

Advocates CREX
Through the House

Formerly, CREX floor-coverings were principally used on porches and in bed-chambers of country homes. To-day CREX is found on the floors of almost every room in the house—the CREX is also largely used on yachts, by clubs, churches, hotels, and in public buildings.

The lightness, artistic beauty and cleanliness of this remarkable wire-grass product, combined with its durability and low cost makes it ideal for all uses.

New patterns, weaves and color-effects are constantly being added. The new Herringbone weave is a recent creation. It is extra substantial, especially adapted for porches, decks of yachts, and public buildings.

The variety of sizes, patterns and color schemes this season enables one to match the fittings of any room. If your dealer cannot supply you from stock, select from his CREX life-like Catalog. He can deliver within a few hours.

THE DUKE OF ARGYLL

More than thirty years have passed since the Duke of Argyll, whose death occurred on Saturday, was governor-general of Canada. He was then the Marquis of Lorne, and his wife the Princess Louise, daughter of Queen Victoria.

In the year 1900 the Marquis of Lorne became the Duke of Argyll. His subsequent career has not been marked by great events, but he was a distinguished member of the house of lords, and his literary labors were extensive, the best known of them being his Life and Times of Queen Victoria.

OUR DECLINING TRADE

Two striking features of the trade of Canada for the last fiscal year are the decline in trade with the West Indies since the new treaty went into force, and the increase in trade with the United States since the Underwood tariff was adopted in that country.

FOR BETTER ROADS

The question of improved highways is receiving a good deal of attention just now in the state of Maine, which is this year to enter upon a policy of extended road construction on a large scale.

Any who has travelled, for example, over state roads in Massachusetts, does not need to be convinced of the value of the best type of macadam roads.

we are still waiting for good roads even of the earth and gravel type. It is interesting in this connection to note what is being done in the province of Ontario to provide the people with better roads.

"Rural and urban Ontario waited almost impatiently for the report of the commission which was detailed to investigate road conditions in this country, as well as in many states in the union with a view to working out a plan whereby Ontario highways might be greatly improved, thus facilitating travel, and especially that part of it which deals with the marketing of farm produce.

"It was also good advice on the part of the commission to commit the actual control and management of roads, so far as possible, to local bodies, but in the working out of the plan it is necessary that these local bodies get competent men to see that the roads are properly built and properly cared for after being constructed, and some difficulty may be experienced in developing and working out a permanent system.

The provincial government will meet at Fredericton tomorrow. Perhaps the long looked for announcement of the appointment of the Royal Commission will then be made.

If a whole year is to elapse before the bridge at the Reversing Falls is ready for street car traffic, how long a time must elapse before the Valley Railway bridges across the St. John and Kennebec rivers can be completed?

A Toronto letter in the Montreal Financial Times says that trade conditions there show a slight improvement, but there is abundant evidence that the period of civic and economic expansion which characterized the early months of 1913 will not for the present be resumed.

Now and then journals which are opposed to a change of any sort, feature an announcement from somewhere that the single tax does not work out well in actual practice. Of late statements have been quoted from some mayors of towns in Western Canada to the effect that in their opinion the single tax system cannot be satisfactorily worked out.

In order to gain votes in Ontario in the federal election campaign the Borden candidates pledged themselves to secure a repayment to the depositors in the defunct Farmers' Bank. Mr. Borden has therefore found it necessary to introduce legislation to keep this pledge.

They had just renewed their acquaintance after five years. "For my word, Miss Weatherby," he said frankly, "I should hardly have known you, you have altered so much."

MOSQUITO PROBLEM EASY.
No Excuse for Their Presence Anywhere, Says Sir William Wilcock.

Washington, May 4.—Members of the House Rivers and Harbors Committee are interested in the testimony of Sir William Wilcock, an English engineer who built the Assuan Dam on the Nile, in which he told how the problem of the malarial mosquito along the Suez Canal had been solved. He testified before the committee that "at Khartoum, where the boats brought down the worst mosquitoes in the world, the drainage is so good there that we find a man twelve shillings for every mosquito seen in his place."

Sir William contended that there was no excuse for the prevalence of mosquitoes anywhere. The people along the Suez canal, he said, wrestled with the malarial mosquito until British engineers provided modern drainage and disciplined those who tolerated mosquitoes on their premises.

Discussing the Mississippi River situation, Sir William declared that no dyke should be less than twenty-five feet wide at the top, though he had noticed some in America less than eight feet wide.

Birds Lost in Fog.
St. Thomas, May 4.—During a dense fog, over Lake Erie, many land birds which had lost their bearings, alighted on Port Stanley fishing tugs several miles from land and remained until the boats reached the pier.

Among the birds were pigeons, bats, sparrows and one canary, which perched on the ship's compass of the Elgin E. and remained there until the boat tied up at her wharf.

BOARD OF TRADE SENDS LETTERS TO OTTAWA MEMBERS

Asks For Justice — Wants Same Treatment and Same Opportunity as Other Ports—Must be no Discrimination

Circulars asking for a joint consideration of the claims of St. John to a share in the handling of the Atlantic mail contract were mailed out to members of parliament and of the senate on Saturday by the board of trade. While statistical information was withheld from the circular, pending the receipt of the record kept by the postmaster-general, reference was made to this in the letter and the recommendation made that the parliamentarians should seek the information themselves.

Want Justice.

The circular read as follows:
St. John, N. B., April 30, 1914.
Dear Sir:
In re English Mail Contract.
This matter is now under the consideration of the government of Canada, and the board is desirous that in the framing of the new contract all ports in the maritime provinces capable of performing the service should stand on an equal footing. There should be no unfair discrimination as between Halifax and St. John, since both are Canadian ports and both possess the required facilities.

While the ocean distance to Halifax is slightly shorter than the ocean distance to be traversed to St. John, the land haul from St. John to interior points in Canada is very much shorter. The actual rail haul from St. John to Montreal by the C. P. R. is 488 miles, and the rail haul from Halifax to Montreal by I. C. R. is 886 miles. By I. C. R. and C. P. R. via St. John the distance from Halifax to Montreal is 758 miles. While on two occasions during the past winter there were slight delays in landing mails at St. John, due to controllable causes, there is a greater liability to delay in forwarding mails from Halifax via the I. C. R. as it is a well known fact that trains on the latter route are frequently detained for many hours by heavy snowfalls.

Through the intransigency of the St. John Board of Trade, routing of English mail letters from St. John to Montreal via the longer I. C. R. route was stopped this winter, and such letters were forwarded to destination by the shorter C. P. R. route, enabling the receivers to get the letters to St. John yesterday at 11 p. m. March 8, having covered the shorter voyage to Halifax in fifteen hours less than did the Letitia to St. John yesterday. The Hesperian mails, forwarded by rail over the I. C. R. to St. John, were one hour and forty minutes behind those of the Letitia. Taking the ocean time of the two vessels, had both covered the same ocean distance, the mails via St. John would have reached Montreal five or six hours earlier than the mails via Halifax and the I. C. R.

While comparisons such as the above are easily obtainable, our special purpose in quoting the above has been to demonstrate the right of the port of St. John to fair and equitable treatment.

While on this point, let me quote the following from the manager of the traffic department of the board of trade of the city of Toronto, under date Feb. 21, 1914:

"The only real test of the two ports is the results obtained from tests of the service, both eastbound and westbound, and from the records we have been able to compile it would seem that there is very little difference in time between the two ports so far as Toronto is concerned."
(Signed) "T. MARSHALL, Manager."

The board has endeavored to secure from the postmaster-general a statement to date of the time occupied in transporting the mails from the United Kingdom to Montreal, via St. John and Halifax.

JACKSONVILLE ELDER

Writes Characteristic Letter Regarding Loss of Appetite

He says:
"Vinol is just the thing. For summer, winter, fall or spring. Follow directions, take it right. It will save your lagging appetite. I know for I have tried it. For weeks I could scarcely eat enough to keep me alive. I have taken three bottles of Vinol and now it looks like I will eat my head off. I am at the table the times a day eating as I did in the good old days when I split rails, dug wells, topped trees, plowed corn and hood cotton. Try Vinol and see how good it feels to your hungry stomach."

When you ought to be hungry and are not it is because your stomach does not feel strong enough to ask for food. Better than dosing the stomach with pepin for temporary relief is taking Vinol, a strengthening tonic, which has the strengthening and blood-making power of iron, and the building-up value of cod liver oil. It quickly restores appetite and perfect digestion. If Vinol does not help you it costs you nothing. Wasson's drug stores.

dom to Montreal, Canada, via the ports of St. John and Halifax, respectively, during the present season, but the information has not yet been supplied. As the postmaster-general agreed to keep complete records of the time expiring on English mails delivered in Montreal through the port of St. John and the same for Halifax, it may be possible for members of parliament and of the senate to secure this information.

The board has in process of compilation, statistics showing the actual mail delays as between St. John and Halifax during the past winter, but owing to delay in obtaining the statement above mentioned from the postmaster-general, the compilation is incomplete and will have to be forwarded later on.

Meanwhile, this board would ask that fair and equitable consideration be given to the port of St. John in its connection with the ocean mail service. We ask for nothing more than we are willing to concede to other maritime province ports. We will be satisfied with nothing less.

Sincerely yours,
R. E. ARMSTRONG,
Secretary Board of Trade.
J. M. ROBINSON,
President.

EXPLOSION IN OTTAWA BURNED SEVERAL PEOPLE

Ottawa, May 3.—Without a moment's warning, a terrific explosion of a pail, filled with chemicals, occurred this afternoon in front of the residence of J. D. Mougo, corner of Centre and Ralph streets, and two men, four boys and an elderly lady were trapped in a mass of flames and smoke.

The pail had been carried from a private laboratory a few moments before the chemicals began smouldering. District Fire Chief Burnett carried it downstairs, not realizing the danger he was in, and placed it on the lawn, where a crowd collected.

Between 250 and 300 persons were standing about the corner when the chemicals exploded with a terrific crash, which could be heard for nearly half a mile. Ward Lester, son of W. H. Lester, 127 Second avenue, and little William Murray, son of F. W. Murray, druggist, were standing within a short distance of the pail when the flames and smoke enveloped them. Nearly a dozen others, including those among the injured, were stunned and their clothes caught fire.

The clothing of Lester, Murray and young Gordon Maler was in flames when the smoke cleared, and but for the promptness of bystanders and the firemen in smothering the flames they would have been fatally burned. As it likely later was so badly burned about the face that it was hours before it was known that his sight could be saved.

Found Dead in Bed.
Hugh Galloway, nearly eighty years of age, was found dead in bed on Saturday morning in a house in the Golden Grove road, where he had been employed. Coroner Roberts was notified, but on investigating, decided that no public inquiry would be necessary.

Tipping Has S Run Its Course That It Defeats Itself! Why Keep It Up and Help The Tip Trust?

BY HERBERT QUICK

Author of "On Board The Good Ship Earth," "When Glory Ceased," Etc.

It provides for punishments ranging in fines from ten to a hundred dollars, and a maximum imprisonment of a year.

RECENT DEATHS

A telegram has been received announcing the death yesterday at Middletown (N. S.) of Fred R. Butcher, who had many friends in St. John and elsewhere. A few years ago Mr. Butcher resided here, and was in business as a fire insurance adjuster. He was sixty-nine years of age.

After a long illness of about three years, John H. Ellison, of 117 Elliott street, formerly residing at Sussex, passed away at his home last evening. Mr. Ellison was well known and much respected, and sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family.

Samuel Moore, aged 75, a former resident of this city, died at Cody's, Queens county, yesterday. The body will be brought here for burial in Fernhill.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Coy, wife of David Coy, of this city, died last evening at her home, 54 Main street, after a long illness. She is survived by her husband, two brothers, Daniel P. Leonard, of Philadelphia, and Bradford Leonard, of Atlantic City; and one sister, Mrs. Annie J. Marshall, of Hollister (Mass.). The body will be taken to Hampton for burial.

The death of Mrs. James A. Estey occurred last evening at her home, 115 King street east, after a brief illness. Mrs. Estey was born at Paradise (N. S.), the daughter of the late Zebedee and Sarah Gabel and granddaughter of the late Rev. Jarvis Ring. Mrs. Estey will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends in the city and her death comes as a great shock to her family.

Mrs. Estey had done good work in various societies and will be greatly missed in the activities of the local Council of Women, the Natural History Society, the Wednesday Evening Club and the St. John Art Club. She was one of the first associate members of the Natural History Society and a member of the Wednesday Evening Club for thirty years. She was also a member and active worker in German street Baptist church.

Mrs. Estey is survived by her husband, two sons, Alfred W. Estey and Lloyd B., and two daughters, Ethel F. and G. Louise, all at home.

There will be widespread sympathy for them in the death of a loving, estimable wife and mother.

Sincere sympathy will be extended to Mrs. Mary Avery, Lancaster, in her double bereavement. Yesterday her daughter, Gertrude, was buried, and this morning her father, Joseph McHugh, who died suddenly on Saturday, will be laid to rest.

Yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock the funeral of Miss Gertrude Avery, formerly a valued member of the Standard staff, took place from her mother's residence to the Church of Assumption, where the pastor, Rev. J. J. O'Donovan, conducted services. The body was interred in Holy Cross cemetery, Sand ave. The funeral was one of the largest

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a fifty-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. Agent—Wasson's 5 stores.

IMPERIAL BANK CHIEF SAYS SINGLE TAX STANDS TEST

D. R. Wilke, president of the Imperial Bank of Canada, writing to the Edmonton Board of Trade, says among other things:—"Through a period which has tested the prudence, the good sense and the faith of all western municipalities, Edmonton stands out pre-eminently as an example worthy of emulation. The adoption of the single tax system, and of the policy of public ownership of utilities has proved beyond question the justice, the fairness, the profitability and the high economic value of the endorsement of those two great economic truths. Nowhere in the world has the single tax so thoroughly been tested, and exemplified so effectively and successfully."

BRITAIN USES MOST SOAP

Are two pounds of soap sufficient to keep a man clean for a year? A recent return shows that this is the amount per unit consumed in Russia.

The list of soap using countries is headed by the United Kingdom, with twenty-one pounds per individual; the United States comes next; Russia is last.

Even if the soap bill is a true test of people's personal cleanliness it is an invidious task to tabulate the dirtiness of nations.

Louisa in "Man and Superman" says: "Every Jew considers in his heart that English people are dirty in their habits."

It will be a familiar fact to many readers that among the lower middle classes, and to some extent in the lower classes, soap is regarded as a sort of charm. It is used on the face very much in the same way as holystone on a ship's deck.

A red and polished face is a proof that the holystone (or soapstone) has been well and truly laid. There need not be much cleanliness about this method, and perhaps Britain's large consumption of soap may be due to a wasteful use of it. It is possible, moreover, that the soap bill is not a true test.

It is difficult to keep away from the international aspect. As to Germany that great country is well up in the list. So is Spain. Not so Italy or France. Holland is quite high; Sweden quite low. Cold or warm climate seems to have little to do with the matter. The Brahmin's morning ablutions are a religious ceremony, and hygienically thorough.

Tradition often carries far. Pliny, who wrote the first of all encyclopedias, said that the German soap was better than the Gallic. Both Greeks and Romans "washed often."

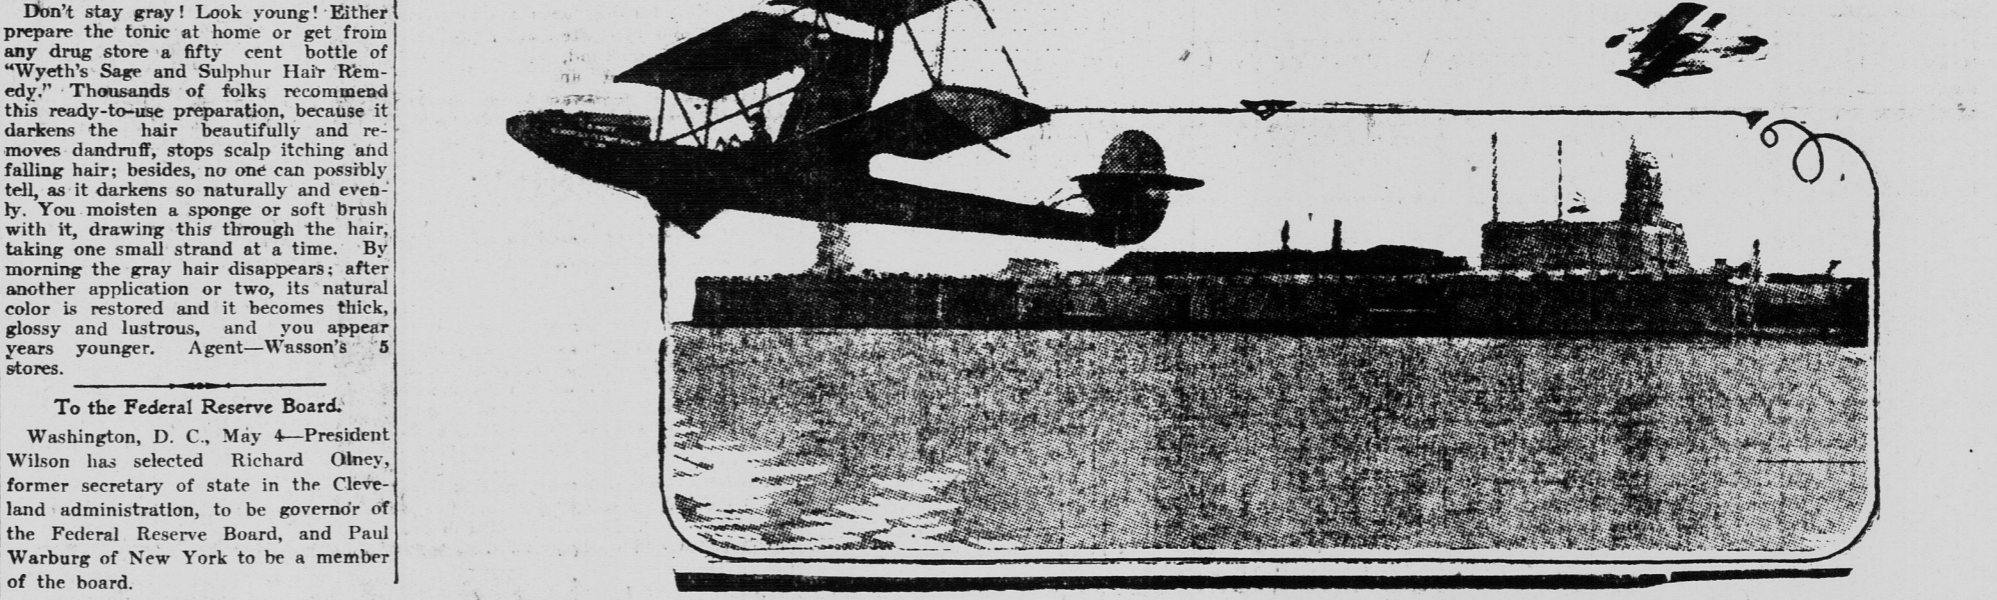

A great physician has recently stated that the skin cleans itself and that it is possible to overdo the washing habit. Besides soap and nature there are other methods: hot water and soda is no bad detergent. But, notwithstanding the increase of cleanliness among all classes, we still have among us "the unsusped," "the great unwashed."

More than 1,500 girls have gone on a strike in London because their employers are hiring child labor.

MONEY IN FOX'S DEN

A Woodstock correspondent of the Frederickton Gleaner writes: "John Y. Dow, a trapper, of Upper Woodstock, who for some time had a suspicion that a female black fox was roving around in his neighborhood, was successful in tracing it to its den yesterday and found the mother and five pups—three blacks and two silver grays. The lucky find was made on Sharp's Mountain, Upper Woodstock. He has been offered $25,000 for the lot and he may accept."

Ritchie Has Earned Championship

(FROM T. S. ANDREWS)

Milwaukee, May 2.—Willie Ritchie, the lightweight champion of America, has demonstrated in his last three fights that he is improving steadily in his work, and if he keeps on at the rate at which he has been going, he will soon be classed as one of the greatest lightweights this country has known. Ritchie has shown that he not only possesses cleverness, but also a punch and he is not afraid to take a punch in order to hand one back.

ten round route, Ritchie went in and not only fought him cleverly, but also slugged with him and beat him at his own game. He won over Wolgast in Milwaukee in their ten round contest on March 12 last, using his cleverness to good advantage and also his hitting powers. In his fight with Tommy Murphy in San Francisco recently Ritchie demonstrated again his superiority as a lightweight by beating the New York boy all through the twenty rounds. The only reason he did not knock him out was because Murphy was able to take an unusual amount of punishment and his stamina was something remarkable. The wonder was that he was able to go the distance and still be on his feet at the end of the 20th round. Murphy was not backward in saying after the fight that he considered Ritchie one of the greatest lightweights.

An Unusual Occurrence

Residents of the North End, and particularly those who traverse the lower section of Main street, were amused one day last week to see the haste which six fine-looking 'long-shoremen' used in transferring the immense shoe stock of Mr. James V. Russell to the much larger store, about five doors lower down the street and nearer Mill street. It seems the stock had been bought by tender and had to be removed by the hour of noon on May 1st. This gave just counting day and night, 48 hours in which to move some 20,000 pairs of boots and rubbers, and as no teams could be secured, this had to be used to move them. Everything was moved by Friday at 11 a. m. Then the crowd began to come for bargain. The management kept the door locked till 2 p. m. Saturday, then the crush began. Rumors of low prices on good boots and shoes had leaked out. The people came with their whole family, so that Saturday evening the door was locked almost as often as it was open. The people were surprised to see the order that prevailed in the store, as most of them knew how hurriedly the goods had been moved in.

"SIXTY YEARS A QUEEN"

Magnificent Pictorial Epitome of the illustrious Reign of Victoria the Good

To the generation of today Victoria's serene reign has passed into history. There are, however, many yet living in this country, as well as abroad who had the rare privilege of seeing the face of Her Majesty, and almost as many heard her voice. This great film of "Sixty Years a Queen" now gives to those who have never seen nor heard the Royal Sovereign, an opportunity to be brought to closer knowledge of some of her noble deeds. A pictorial can transmit what words cannot. Victoria lived for her country. By her life she showed the world the true meaning of feminine greatness.

WHY NOT CLEAN UP FOR ST. JOHN?

Some Things I Would Do For Benefit of All

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Details of Montreal's Plan For May 18-23—Antigonish, N. S., Ladies Plan to Offer Prizes in Six Branches

Let's make St. John the cleanest city in the world. The cleanest city in which to live; best because healthiest; best because fewest fires; best because the most beautiful. Cleanliness is the best fire insurance and the best fire insurance.

Authorities agree that thoughtless, careless and uncleanly housekeeping account for more than half of all the fires. A clean-up week would help to reduce infant mortality by bringing about clean homes and surroundings, which are of first importance for the health of the baby.

Here are a few suggestions for clean-up week. The first set is the programme outlined by the City Improvement League of Montreal and the next in order are the suggestions that planned by the ladies of Antigonish for their clean-up campaign.

Monday, May 18—Fire prevention day. Tuesday, May 19—Front yard day. Wednesday, May 20—Back yard day. Thursday, May 21—Sanitation day. Friday, May 22—Paint-up day. Saturday, May 23—Children's day.

The Antigonish plan follows: 1—Best kept school grounds—1st prize $10; 2d, $5; 3d, $2.50. 2—Best kept grounds around private residences—1st prize, $10; 2d, $5; 3d, $2.50.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

Community Work Project Strengthened By Pulpit References on Sunday The feeling manifested in Fairville over the community movement was reflected from the pulpits yesterday in two sermons.

It was necessary to begin at the bottom in nation building and town well fare did right in aiding the child, who would be the future citizen. Without a strong physique and active mind the spirit would not be so apt to thrive and be utilized in the effort to establish public playgrounds and other social centre works.
