MACLELLAN & CO., CHATHAM, THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1878. BANKERS & BROKERS, POLITICS IN NORTHUMBERLAND

Wednesday of last week was the day fixed for nomination to fill the vacancy in the New Brunswick Legislature, caused by the acceptance of the Surveyor General-Adams. John Shirreff Esq., High Sheriff opened his Court at the usual hour and it SHIP BROKER & COMMISSION MERCHANT was kept open till two o'clock, just before that, however, some two hundred persons -principally electors-were present and James Brown, Esq., of Newcastle, addressing the Sheriff, nominated Mr. Adams. econded by John O'Brien, Esq., of Nelson COMMISSION MERCHANT, yould think of men who would be with a overnment to-day and an Opposition tomorrow-who would clasp hands to-night with the Opposition and be found to-mor row in the Government? How could he trust such men as Willis and Covert, who, in 1872, sat in the councils of the Opposition and enjoyed its confidence the night previous to the moving of the Want of Confidence Resolution, but deserted the men with whom they were allied and were found on the side of the Government in the morning. In 1871 Willis was found voting and acting in the fullest accord with the Government, yet because Theri ault was taken in instead of himself he went over to the Opposition and was the mover of a Want of Confidence Resolution. No man so outrageously denounced the Government he had just supby the acceptance of the Surveyor General-ship of the Province by Hon. Michael ship of the Province by Hon. None of his (Mr. Adams') friends had anything against Mr. Fraser or Mr. Crawford, while all were in accord with Mr. Wedderburn. Yet when he joined these gentlemen he was called a traitor, because Mr. Stevenson was also associated with them. If, however, he ought to hate Stevenson, he ought to hate Willis and Covert more, because they deserted the Opposition in the time of need and trial. He regretted very much the loss of a supporter or friend and he was sorry if there were any who still disapproved of his course. He could only ask them to have patience until the House met and the Government submitted its bill of fare. If they did not find it such as they ought to

Mr. Adams here referred to the prominent position held by Messrs.
