CHATHAM, N. B., JULY 27, 1893. Shall we Ever Reach Independence?

By granting responsible government to the North American colonies, the British government not only did an act of justice to its people, but relieved them of a terrible incubus which, if it had been allowed to exist much longer, would have caused another rebellion.

As the decision of this matter rested with the imperial authorities, the oligarchy gain the sympathy, took as the shibboleth of their party the defence of British interests, to which they declared their opponents were opposed.

As the provinces had at that time but a scanty population, little or no trade with other countries, and almost a monopoly of the lumber trade of the British empire, they not only grew and prospered, but their inhabitants were contented with the measure of political liberty that had been accorded to them.

As time passed on and the business of the country improved, this agitation died out, but the thinking men of the British American colonies became aware of the great fact that it was the settled policy of every British government that whenever it found it could advance the political or commercial interests of Britain by sacrificing those of the colonies, it inflexibly did so, no matter how injurious to the latter such policy might be.

In a recent address, Dr. Bourinot tells how Canada has suffered in the past owing to her interests being sacrificed by British diplomats, who considered her as only an insignificant appendage of the British Crown, and enumerates the causes that compel the Dominion to insist on her voice being heard in all future negotiations between the British Empire and the United States.

struck her. Captain Bourke described the length the effort made to save the ship after the collision, descriptions of which have heretofore been published. He said that his despatches to the admiralty truly described all the details of the disaster. He had no complaints whatever to make regarding the conduct of any of the survivors.

Europe has suffered to quite an extent as America from the drought of the present season, and although rain has fallen within the last three weeks—as it has done here, also—the mischief had been already done, and the rain comes too late to do any good.

Some of the papers appear to be pining for Hon. Mr. Mitchell, who has been represented in a Montreal paper as speaking on his recent visit to Northumberland in his reception in all the parishes of the County constituted a triumphal ovation.

THE ART OF MAKING WATCHES. The Danes and the Swiss are the two nations which have made the art of watch-making a science.

THE PALM MOUNTAINS. In regard to these preposterous demands, France has said to England: "We are not to be treated as a conquered nation."

THE SIAMSESE TROUBLE. Trouble between France and Siam has been brewing for months, and the active part of the present war was attacked and routed by Siamese troops.

THE HEAT IN NEW YORK, on Monday, 17, was terrible. All our door work was suspended, many persons succumbed, and the death rate took a big jump.

THEY NEVER MENTION IT—The Toronto Globe, in making the announcement that Sir Hector Langevin is shortly to take an active part again in political life, and a movement is on foot to have him assume the leadership of the party.

TO SALMON-NET OWNERS. I hereby certify that compliance with the law respecting salmon nets is to be enforced with effect from the 1st of August.

M. S. N. COY. The M. S. N. Coy. will run excursions for points during the months of June and July.

DRS. G. J. & H. SPROUL SURGEON DENTISTS. Teeth extracted without pain.

Miramichi and the North Shore etc.

BUILLERS are interested in the tenders advertised for by the secretary of school district No. 9, Chatham.

A GENERAL AGENT is wanted for a first class Insurance Company, to whom large territory and advantageous terms will be given.—See Advt.

TRAMPS' BATTLE.—Two men were mortally wounded and one instantly killed in a pitched battle between tramps and citizens near Sheffield, Ont., last Wednesday.

THE PHONIC IDEA has reached the grocers of Hamilton, Ont., who had one of those reasonable outings on Wednesday of last week going to Niagara Falls. The number attending was 2,000.

CONGRATULATIONS.—The R. C. Congregation at Dalhousie are to open their summer on Tuesday, August 1 and will continue it during that week. They are making such preparations as indicate that it will be a great attraction.

COLLIDED WITH AN ICEBERG.—Norwegian barque "Martha," from Dalhousie, N. B., June 16, for Glasgow, had been, but has taken their little disappointments with a good grace, and do not write nonsense as to their feelings? Here is the world saying: "It was known just as well before the wreck of the ship as it was afterwards that the Leary would lead the local boats. With graceful and easy lines, a large sail, a competent management, and two to four feet extra length, nothing but an accident or a disaster could have prevented her from being a success."

HEARD ON THE WYM.—The World is rather hard on the yacht Wym, which it says "lay over like the Oriana, the water washing her deck at every puff." Careful observation justifies the statement that while a puff is sufficient to lay the Oriana over, and when she is over her speed is arrested, it requires a strong wind to put the Wym's scuppernons, but when she is submerged her speed is hardly lessened at all. There is no more similarity between the two boats in a respect than there is between a salmon and a sea-robin.

AN ANGLE'S SUDDEN DEATH.—Julius Oatlin, of New York, a member of the Boatmen's club, died at his home in New York, N. Y., on Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock. He had been feeling all day and was apparently in good health, helping the men to carry up the baggage from the canoe to the club house. A few minutes after he reached the club house he fell on the platform and expired almost immediately. Two daughters and a son-in-law were at the club house. He remains there forwarded by express train to New York.

STRANDED.—A Montreal despatch of 20th says:—The Tyrone Power dramatic company, which has been playing here at the Queen's theatre after a tour of the Maritime Provinces, is in a bad luck on Monday and Tuesday. The company is still in debt to the management of the theatre for advancing the money for the fare from St. John, N. B. Salaries are not being paid and the trunks of some of the members are in the hands of hotel keepers for board.

PERSONAL.—Mr. John Eagles' many friends here were glad to welcome him in a week and to wish him and his bride every happiness in life.

Philip Palmer, E. J., of St. John accompanied by Mr. Palmer and his sister, Miss Bartlett were at the Bowler Hotel yesterday and go by Canada Eastern Railway to Fredericton this morning.

Dr. Murray Maclean, Douglas Hazan, Esq., M. P. and L. Fisher Row of the Grandeur Guards, side of camp to the governor of Bermuda, were here on Monday and are now at Camp Tabernacla.

Rev. Mr. Rorborough, who has been a welcome visitor to his old field, Tabernacla, for a short time past, and where he held service in his former home, is to leave this week on his way to Moncton, N. S., where he now resides.

WEDDING BELLS AT DOVER.—Wednesday afternoon 19th at 3 o'clock, Miss Edith Una Wilbur, eldest daughter of W. D. Wilbur, was united in marriage to Mr. John S. Eagles, son of Mr. J. S. Eagles, by the Rev. Mr. McCallum, assisted by Messrs. Tarball & Co., and one of the best known travellers in the province. The bride wore a fine colored suit and carried an exquisite bouquet of roses. Her bridesmaid was Miss Alice McKeown of Moncton, and Miss Edith Wilbur was maid of honor. The groom was supported by Mr. John Fleet of Halifax. Rev. J. Roy Campbell tied the nuptial knot. The guests were in large numbers, and the Trinity church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The happy couple went to Halifax, where they will spend their honeymoon. A host of friends in St. John and throughout the province join in wishing the bride and groom a long and happy life.

The Millerton Garden Party. Quite a large number of excursionists left Chatham by the Rastler yesterday for Millerton intending to enjoy the garden party which was to take place on Messrs. Robinson and Miller's grounds, and were preparing to go later, but owing to the rain the event was postponed until to-day or the first following fine day.

St. Luke's Mission Band Sale. The annual sale of the mission band of St. Luke's Sunday school will be held in the basement of the church Thursday, August 3; doors open at 4 o'clock, to continue throughout the evening. Light refreshments will be served. Admission 5cts.

A Big Fleecce. The Charlottetown P. E. Patriot says that Joseph Tweedie of Halifax Point sold a fleece of wool to the McKeown woolen mill company weighing seventeen pounds, net, washed. The fleece was taken from the back of one of his imported Cotswolds, and weight and quality show them to be the right breed for wool raising. One exchange remarks that it must have been a cow.

About Profanity. "A writer in the Century says profanity is declining. That writer ought to go up into the bark woods once where profanity is in its art, and see how it sounds in its decline."—Gleaner.

Or—he might change his mind had he been at Mr. Harris' dock spring when the Gleaner editor found only a string of trout-heads to represent the spoils of his probing expedition to Muzzero Brook.

An Attractive Entertainment. Her usual life Miss Annie Louise White, who has the reputation of being the most versatile and gifted actress in the province, is to appear in Macanie Hall, Chatham, this Thursday evening in a very attractive programme which will include the exciting and difficult Chariot Race from Ben Hur.

Everybody should hear this talented lady. Her equal has never been in Chatham.

Her recitations Miss White easily places that charming lady at the head of her profession. She is equally pleasing in both humorous and serious work as a whole could not be excelled.—The Star, April 21st, 1893.

Miss White's charming recitations completely captivated the audience. Miss White is one of the most versatile actresses ever heard in this city.—Bradford Daily Recorder, Oct. 20th, 1892.

Miss Annie Louise White possesses a very flexible voice, and a talent of high order; this was seen to excellent advantage in Winning Cup; where she kept the motion of a horse man with excellent realism. In the Lover and the Bird; her imitation of the Bobolink was as pleasing as her performance of the rest of the play. Bradford Daily Home News, N. J., January 12th, 1893.

Admission has been placed at 25 cents to all parts of the house.

A Pitiful Sight. By-standers at the L. C. R. depot yesterday afternoon, on the arrival of the C. P. R. train, witnessed a rather pitiful sight. Marshall Foster was taken to Dalhousie jail Mrs. Thos. Crossman and Brophy, for a term of four and six months respectively, the former convicted of vagrancy yesterday and the latter of theft a few days ago. The two were handcuffed together and as they were led through the jostling crowd and put aboard of the train the woman walked reluctantly, crying the while, while the man sat the way, tugging the woman along by the manacled arm.—Moncton Times.

Size and Model. Why can't yachtmen—even although they don't know much about yachting, but take their little disappointments with a good grace, and do not write nonsense as to their feelings? Here is the world saying: "It was known just as well before the wreck of the ship as it was afterwards that the Leary would lead the local boats. With graceful and easy lines, a large sail, a competent management, and two to four feet extra length, nothing but an accident or a disaster could have prevented her from being a success."

Now, isn't it a fact that the Oriana, for instance, was expected by her owner, when he built her, to lead the whole fleet—big or little? Wasn't she "a daisy" when her keel was laid, "a beauty" when her centre-board was put in and "a poem" when she was launched? She disappointed the expectations and anticipations which formed about her when she was floating like a halo in the atmosphere of fatality, hence the movement against big boats. But, it is true that the bigger boat always wins? If so, how is it that the Wym, which is only "a 26 footer" beat the Lea Rig, which is only "a 27 footer" more than 15 minutes actual time in the race of 18th inst. There is, of course, much in size, but there is also much in model.

Garden Parties. There have been two garden parties during the past week—one last Thursday under the auspices of St. Andrew's church, on the grounds of Hon. L. J. Tweedie and the other on Tuesday evening on the grounds of Dr. J. B. Benson, under the auspices of the Guild of St. Mary's. Both were very successful in all respects.

Mr. Tweedie's grounds were turned into an amphitheatre of evergreens by the placing of spruce and fir trees as a continuous hedge around them. Booths of the same material were erected, in which tea was served, ice cream, strawberries and other refreshments and the phonograph and other attractions operated. These booths were decorated with large and small flags and colored fabrics and there were transparencies, Chinese lanterns and other devices, the whole presenting a very attractive picture in form and color, while in the evening, when all was slight and the guests, to the number of nearly a thousand, were moving about, the scene was one of great animation and brilliancy. All the refreshments for the tea and other departments were perfect. Music was furnished by McEachern's orchestra, and the fireworks, under the direction of Mr. J. D. B. F. MacKenzie were first-class. The affair was one of the most successful and enjoyable ever held on the Miramichi, reflecting the highest credit on all concerned. The money realised was about $360.

The Garden party on the grounds of Dr. J. B. Benson was on the same lines as that of St. Andrew's. Mr. Tweedie kindly gave Dr. Benson his outfit of trees, booth-materials, etc., besides loaning his Chinese lanterns, which, added to the materials for the beautifying of the grounds procured by the doctor himself and his assistants, enabled the ladies of the guild to welcome their guests in the most comfortable and very complete in their attractions. The patronage was even greater than anticipated. Tea was served to hundreds from a few minutes past five until nine o'clock and scores who desired tea after the latter hour could not be accommodated. The refreshment booth was crowded until nearly 10 o'clock and had facilities been double what they were they could have been profitably employed. Everything the ladies had to offer was sold. The gate admissions—which were 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for children—footed up $109, showing that there were more than 1200 people on the grounds. The receipts of the afternoon and evening were about $325. The 73rd Band, led by Mr. Arch. McEachern furnished excellent music. The ladies request us to especially thank Dr. Benson for his efforts in their behalf and to acknowledge their appreciation of Hon. Mr. Tweedie's kindness, while not forgetting all their other friends.

Had for the Shingle Man. Last week's Campbell Enterprise says: "A. C. F. Sorral, Boston, suspended payment about the 15th inst. We understand that is some trouble with the bank he is doing business with. There is reason to hope that he may get over his present difficulties, and pay a large dividend, if not in full. If he should not the North Shore people will lose heavily. We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Reid are creditworthy for about $2000, Alexander and Mowat $250 each, Miller Bros. $1300, Wallace and Marshall Reid, of Dalhousie are also said to be heavy losers. Robt. Blair of Wm. Currie will also lose some."

"We understand that the above are all the Restigouche operators that are involved in the failure, as we do not know of any other shippers who consigned to him."

"A meeting of all the shingle manufacturers of Restigouche will be held on Friday at the Waverley Hotel, Campbellton, for the purpose of forming an association to regulate the price of shingles."

"The minimum price for extras in the American market will be $2.25, other grades in proportion. We trust this will be carried through satisfactorily on the shingle trade at present in a deplorable condition."

Extra standard shingles are now being offered in the American market at $2.50. This is the lowest price ever known."

Long lumber and clap boards are also very dull in the market and many American mills have closed down. It is feared this surplus American spruce will find its way to the English markets and have a tendency to weaken our local trade."

Big Fire at Suctouche. MONCTON, July 27.—At 11.30 last evening a disastrous fire broke out in one corner of Clavia Chase's building, under course of construction. The fire, fanned by a south westerly breeze, spread rapidly, and in less than ten minutes after its discovery enveloped the entire structure. The flames caught in Vital Bourque's and Chase's barn. In the barn were the following horses, all of which were burned up: Clavia Chase's Island Hero, Dr. E. Leblanc's Wm. Hodges, Goldleaf, Moncton, and horses belonging to Messrs. Trenholm, Marceau, Cormier and M. Veillon, of Shediac.

The flames from these buildings ignited Isaac Trenholm's hotel, and in less than an hour E. J. Leblanc's store and dwelling combined, ex-Sheriff Girouard's building and a number of outbuildings burned to the ground. The progress of the fire was stopped at the frame work of the new hotel being erected by George Irving. Had this been completed several other buildings would have been destroyed.

The origin of the fire is not known for certain, but the general opinion is that it was due to a quantity of lime igniting with which the building, where the fire started, was being plastered. Several residents of burning buildings barely escaped with their lives. Most of the furniture was destroyed; in some instances all the wearing apparel was burned. One of Miss Bourque's daughters in making her exit from the house had her hair badly singed and her arms and face slightly burned. Some of the buildings are lightly insured.

The Hamilton Herald to prove its point that the theological world has moved forward a good deal during the past century, quotes Jonathan Edwards' description of hell, and very truly says, that no clergyman could be found to-day who would repeat it. This is what the great Jonathan thought the hereafter of the unrepentant would be.

"Do but consider what it is to suffer extreme poverty, to starve, to suffer day and night from one day to another, from one year to another, from one age to another, from one thousand ages to another, and so, adding age to age, and thousands to thousands, until you are weary of your misery, groaning and shrieking and gnashing your teeth; with your souls full of dreadful grief and amazement; with your bodies and every member of you racked with pain; with every faculty getting cease; without any possibility of moving God to pity by your cries; without any possibility of diverting your thoughts from your pain; without any possibility of anything united to be in mitigation, or help, or change for the better in any way. Do but consider how dreadful despair will be in such torment. How dismal will it be, when you are under such a load of misery, and when you are sure that you never, never shall be delivered from it; that you might be burned into nothing, but you shall have no hope of it when you shall wish that you might be turned into a toad or serpent but shall have no hope of it; when you would rejoice, if you might but have any relief, after you have endured torments millions of ages, but shall have no hope of it; when after you shall have worn out the eye of the sun, moon and stars in your dolorous groans and lamentations, without any rest or night, or one minute's ease, second or forever, and when you shall have delivered; when, after you shall have worn out a thousand more such ages, yet you shall have no hope, but shall know that you are not to be delivered, and that you shall be tormented, but that still there are the same groans, the same shrieks, the same dolorous cries, incessantly to be made by you, and that the smoke of your torment shall still be rising up forever, and that you shall be tormented, which shall have been agitated with the wrath of your bodies, which shall have been burning and roasting all this while, will yet burn, and you shall not have been shortened by what shall have been past."

MONCTON, July 20.—An important suit was tried before Judge Tuck in the circuit court, Dorchester, yesterday. A year ago last July, J. M. Snow, master of the schooner and an insurance agent, disappeared leaving $1,000 under discount at the bank of Nova Scotia, and various other liabilities. Nothing has been heard of Snow, and his bank has since all his belongings to secure itself. Among Snow's creditors were several insurance companies, one of which, the British American, sued Snow's bondsmen, A. C. Stevens, a Moncton lawyer, and the McGaule, merchant, for $130, due by Snow's agency. The bondsmen pleaded they were not liable because of the length of time that had elapsed since they were Snow's security, but the verdict was in favor of the party for the full amount claimed. It is understood that several other companies will take similar proceedings to secure amounts due by Snow.

A. N. B. Cyclone. MONCTON, July 20.—The thunder storm which swept over this district last night appears to have been a miniature cyclone. Near Dorchester Cape, between the eleven o'clock, a heavy hail storm, accompanied by terrific wind, thunder and lightning, swept a straight course for nearly three miles and of considerable width. Standing crops were cut to the ground, the grass being cut off from six to twelve inches from the top. Part of the crops were washed out, fences torn down and glass in general of moderate height. In one residence 64 panes were smashed and 25 broken panes was a common average. About a foot of hail lay in the ditches this morning and numerous incidents are cited to show the force of the wind. In the vicinity of Moncton several cattle and a large number of hives were killed and several places struck by lightning, but no serious casualty is reported.

Rehabilitate. RICHMOND, July 19.—The match race on the Kent driving park yesterday afternoon between Billy Wallace of Kingston and Lulu Allright, owned here, had to be declared off on account of an accident. Just shortly before the horses were to be called, John T. Cole was driving Lulu Allright slowly down the track, when she became suddenly started and upset the sulky. Mr. Cole was able to control her until she was safely landed, but the serious nature of his injuries was learned. They consist of a compound dislocation of the elbow joint, a compound fracture between the shoulder and elbow, and a fracture of the left leg, badly twisted, besides several lacerations in other parts. He was able to be removed to his home about an hour after the accident, where Dr. Ferguson of Kingston and Dr. Bourque resided the necessary aid. Mr. Cole is not only a lover of horses, but an authority on everything pertaining to them. He has owned and driven some of the best in the province.

St. Patrick's hall was completely filled last evening on the occasion of the entertainment given by the ladies of the R. C. congregation. It was an enjoyable time from beginning to end. The entertainment was held on the basement from six o'clock until eight. At the close of the performance a large amount of ice cream was disposed of.

Mrs. E. Sinclair of Miramichi is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Ferguson at Kingston.

Provincial Items. ST. JOHN'S, July 19.—This morning an excursion train on the Tobique Valley railway ran over and killed a man, Charles McMillan, a section man, who was trying to remove a trolley from the track.

John McLaughlin, of Upper Nashwaak, Kent County, was instantaneously killed last night, his horse running away and dashing him over the steep bank on to some rocks in the river.

A violent hailstorm in California settled on Victoria County, has ruined the crops on some 17 farms, cutting even the grass close to the roots. In some places the hailstones covered the ground to the depth of two feet.

Lenox Corporal Brown, of the Fredericton railway school, has been sent to jail for 90 days for receiving canned goods and delicacies stolen from the Queen hotel by a pretty waitress who had fallen in love with him.

The grand demonstration by the Knights of Pythias here closed to-day with an excursion and clam bake up the St. John river. The American and Nova Scotia visitors left for home to-night.

Evangelist Moody has secured possession of the Empire theatre at Chicago for the next week, and has opened it for nightly gospel meetings.

Rev. Edwin Benjamin Russell, rector of the American Chapel in Florence, has been received into the Roman Catholic Church and has abandoned the Protestant Episcopal faith.

Class cases are being made for the exhibition of ministers whose Christian charity will not permit them to accept invitations to the picnic of other ministers' churches, and who prefer to stay at home endeavoring to expunge the tenth chapter of Acts from the New Testament.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.—The reception committee for the Maritime Christian Endeavor convention, which meets in Halifax, August 1 to 3, expect between four and five hundred delegates. They will be billeted before leaving home, and already many have been notified where they will be entertained on the arrival of all steamships and supplied with badges and escorts.

OTTAWA, July 20.—At the time of the French Canadian national congress, which was held here July 9th, Mr. Justice Lefebvre gave considerable offence to the Catholic clergy by stating that the latter element was hostile to the preservation of the French language, and that in New Brunswick especially the Irish clergy were quite far from being in sympathy with their French co-religionists. His Lordship Bishop Sweeny of St. John, N. B., has taken up the matter and writes to the True Witness as follows: "I have lived in this province for nearly fifty years, since my ordination to the priesthood, in constant communication with both Irish and French and I have never seen anything to justify such a malicious accusation. In all the French parishes there are French priests, with schools and convents encouraged by the clergy as far as the circumstances permit, and I have never seen anything to justify such a malicious accusation. In the last month I have administered the sacrament of confirmation in a majority of the largest parishes of the French districts, and I saw the evidence of faith, charity and good will."

The Hamilton Herald to prove its point that the theological world has moved forward a good deal during the past century, quotes Jonathan Edwards' description of hell, and very truly says, that no clergyman could be found to-day who would repeat it. The secretary, D. P. McLachlan, gave the statistical report, which showed that there are 45 schools which have reported 236 teachers and teachers, 1,831 scholars enrolled with an average attendance of 1,350. From a few schools no report has yet been received, but the above shows considerable improvement over last year.

An interesting conversation followed on How to Improve Our County Work, Messrs. Parsons, Lucas, Johnson and others taking part. J. R. Ford read a paper in the place of Mr. A. McN. Shaw, on the Home Study of the Scholar, and was followed by Miss Yorkton, on the Home Preparations of the Teacher. Like the papers by two ladies yesterday, this was also excellent in instructive suggestions for practical work in the Sunday School teacher. Discussion followed by several members of the convention. A large list of written questions was answered by Revs. N. McKay and A. Lucas.

In the fourth session Miss Edith Shirreff taught a primary class in next Sunday's lesson—Paul at Corinth. With blackboard and picture roll the teacher made the lessons clear to those children, who were strangers to the teacher. A primary class hymn was sung, and Mr. Parsons gave many useful hints on the blackboard. Rev. Geo. Steel gave the papers to be read at the large last of written questions was answered by Revs. N. McKay and A. Lucas.

The fifth and last session opened in the evening at 7.30. The subject was "The Home Study of the Teacher." In the absence of Rev. H. Penna, Mr. Lucas was requested to conduct the reading on How to Use the Word of God. Unpublished business five persons were elected to represent the convention at the provincial convention. An admirable address was given by Rev. N. McKay on the subject of Systematic Bible Study.

Mr. Lucas gave an address on the Christian church as in our current Sunday school lessons. He put an outline on the blackboard and led teachers to see the attraction for study in this part of the Bible.

The evening address was by the Rev. Joseph McKay of St. Andrew's Church Chatham, on the Need of the Holy Spirit in every department of our work. The personality of the Spirit and His agency in Christian life, and the absolute necessity of the work of teachers as well as pastors were earnestly resolved.

A strong, hearty resolution was moved by Mr. McLachlan and Rev. N. McKay endorsing the work of the provincial association and most thoroughly commending the efficient work of the field secretary. This was supported by others and carried unanimously.

Votes of thanks were passed, and with a few parting comments from Messrs. Lucas and Parsons the convention closed with benediction by Rev. N. McKay.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West. THE GREATEST ENTERTAINMENT OF ITS KIND IN THE WORLD.

The Artillery Races; the Mexican Hippodrome; the harrowing of Old Trapper Tom's Cabin; the Attack on the Fort Hill Stage Coach; the Wounded Knee Fight and the Mountain Meadow Massacre, are episodes in the life of the greatest of our heroes, Pawnee Bill, who has made his name as a familiar to Americans as household words. There is scarcely a warrior or tribe of note unrepresented in this unquestionably the greatest of all Wild West, and also the only one in the world travelling in its own train of splendidly equipped cars.

Wherever and whenever it appears it is greeted by thousands with a hearty welcome for it brings with it everything required for a day's enjoyment of the most interesting and instructive of all spectacles, and to illustrate to the minds of all the majesty of the aboriginals of the Continent, and the diversity and idiosyncrasies of the different races who have populated the two continents of the world.

From the moment the parade commences at 10 A. M. daily, until the close of the performance at night, public interest centres in this magnificent national exhibition of the marvels of America. At the afternoon performances, which began at 2 p. m. without fail, hosts of ladies and delighted children, through the vast auditorium, or in the open air, watching with rapture the daring equestrian feats of cowboys, the branding of cattle, the shoe shoving from horseback by Miss May Lillie, and the achievements of Pawnee Bill himself—the hero of Oklahoma, the man who like Daniel Boone, led a band of hardy pioneers into a wilderness and carved out a new State.

This Historic Wild West is most fully equipped, and has been added every where to be the best ever seen, most complete in historical and ethnological detail ever contemplated.

With its real Indian band of music; its Mexican orchestra; its Indian museum; its band of genuine Bedouin Arabs, it stands the nonpareil of public entertainments—educational, moral, historical and thrilling. This great and the public unite in its praise. This is the verdict of Dayton Ohio, Herald:—"Without a shade of exaggeration, it may be said that no other Bill and his troupe of Indians, cowboys, trappers and frontiersmen, gave a truly excellent entertainment at the Fair Grounds on Saturday afternoon and evening, which will be repeated again and again. A large concourse of people witnessed the exhibition this afternoon, and gave it as their general verdict that the show was indeed a good one. To this there is not one known dissenting voice. Every body present was highly pleased, highly entertained and taught a few things about wild Western life that they had never before dreamed of."

There are several novel evening performances, which are given under the effect of powerful calcium lights and head lights. The artificial light, however, makes the exhibition none the less realistic or exciting, in anything, all the more so.

The reckless riding by the Indians and cowboys is certainly not the least interesting feature of the show, while as for excitement, there is nothing more startling realistic than the capture and hanging of a horse thief by the vigilantes. In this act the thief is pursued, captured and roped, then violently jerked from his horse and dragged a distance of a hundred yards or more to a tree, where he is hastily "strung up" and rattled with bullets. The attack upon the old overland stage coach by robbers; the attack upon the trap's cabin by a band of red devils, who fire at and then heartily murder the inmates, the attack upon the wagon train and the rescue by the West are not only startling, but are of the most thrilling and interesting nature in the West that are yet vivid in the memory of all the leading characters with the company.—EX.
