"The Advertiser" is an organ of news and of thoroughly independent opinion. The ADVERTISER alone is responsible for opinions expressed in these columns.

"The Advertiser" advocates Constitutional Free Trade, and as early as possible, free trade with the whole world.

"The Advertiser" looks forward with hope to Canada's future as that of an Independent Canadian Nation, in equally friendly alliance with the United States and with Great Britain, believing that such a status would be best for Canada, best for Great Britain, and promotive of the best attainable relations with the United States.

"The Advertiser" advocates prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor; and all expedient general legislation and persuasion in the meantime.

"The Advertiser" is an advocate of equal rights for women, whether as regards the franchise, or equal wages for equal work.

"The Advertiser" is a believer in Christian Union, and considers the time has come when the various Christian denominations should come closer together. Those bodies which are now nearest should unite first.

"The Advertiser" advocates Obligatory Voting as both necessary and practicable. Nothing would so much purify electoral contests. Nothing would so much enforce the idea that the franchise is a duty, not a chattel.

God's in His heaven, All's right with the world. - (BROWNING.)

LIQUOR LICENSES.

Hamilton has more places for the sale of liquor than the city needs, according to many residents of the place, and a movement has been set on foot to secure a reduction. A delegation of citizens called on a council committee the other night and asked the aldermen to submit the question to the vote of the people.

We in London believe in the plebiscite. When the question of the reduction of licenses was brought before the London City Council last year, the aldermen unanimously agreed to leave to the people the question of whether or not the licenses should be curtailed.

The greatest needs of Canada to-day are lowered taxes and better opportunities to trade with our neighbors.

NEXT YEAR IN THE STATES.

The recent exciting contests in New York, Ohio, Massachusetts and a number of other States must be regarded as a mere affair of the outposts compared with the Presidential campaign that takes place one year from now, yet it cannot be doubted that much of the fighting that recently took place was undertaken with a single eye to Presidential possibilities.

REPUBLICANS. DEMOCRATS. California 9 Alabama 11 Colorado 4 Arkansas 8 Illinois 24 Connecticut 6 Indiana 13 Delaware 3 Iowa 13 Florida 9 Kansas 10 Georgia 13 Maine 8 Louisiana 8 Massachusetts 15 Maryland 8 Minnesota 9 Mississippi 9 Nebraska 8 Missouri 17 Nevada 3 New Jersey 10 New Hampshire 4 North Carolina 11 New York 33 South Carolina 19 Ohio 12 Tennessee 12 Oregon 4 Texas 15 Pennsylvania 22 Virginia 12 Rhode Island 4 West Virginia 6 Vermont 4 Wisconsin 12 Total 210

Six new States have been admitted to the Union, all Republican on national issues, with electoral votes as follows: Idaho 3 South Dakota 3 Montana 3 Washington 4 North Dakota 3 Wyoming 3 Total 20

With this showing the basis of calculations for next year is 269 Republican electoral votes against 175 Democratic votes. But the very sanguine among the Democrats look upon Governor Russell's re-election in Massachusetts as an augury of Democratic success there next year.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Why is it that the original buys sympathy so very cheap? The next day of note in November will be Thanksgiving Day.

On the confession of the Toronto Empire, the public debt of Canada now amounts to $235,616,593, an increase of $191,000 over last month and of nearly $2,000,000 over last year, when it stood at $233,855,202.

No honest endeavor to establish reciprocity between Canada and the United States has been made in recent years. No honest endeavor need be looked for while men in the pay of the combine rule at Ottawa.

It is the man whose right to vote is appealed against fails to attend the revising officer's court, he may lose his opportunity to exercise the franchise. No one can tell how the appeals may be disposed of, so great are the powers of the revising officer.

SIR ERWIN ARNOLD, the distinguished British writer, who is now on a visit to this continent, says that he finds civilization in North America inferior to that in Japan in at least one respect. "If a man asks you for charity in Japan," he says, "give him what he wants, for he is starving. Begging is not practiced there, as the poor are supported by their relatives." It would be a great relief to the generous Canadians if the Japanese plan could be adopted here.

DR. FRYE, late Medical Health Officer of Toronto, strongly condemns the use of cedar blocks for pavements. "The very great extent to which cedar-block paving has been adopted," he asserts, "is something to be deplored, and those who sanctioned its introduction deserve to be censured, and much more so if they countenance its continuance. For what is it on a warm, sunny day more than a fermenting mass of decaying wood, saturated with horse excrement, emitting foul odors and dampness productive of disease." This view has been adopted by many of the best medical and scientific experts.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Mrs. Humphrey Ward's new book, called "The History of David Grieve," is for the convenience of American publication being held over till January. It is about the same length as "Robert Elsmere," and has on Mrs. Ward three years to write it. The author is now resting from her labors at Cannes.

THE GRAND JURY SYSTEM.

In charging the grand jury at the Nottingham Sessions Mr. Buzzard, Q.C., the deputy recorder, said he was one of those who thought that the time for grand juries had passed away. They were in the past a most valuable institution. A grand jury, in old times, unquestionably interposed very strong protection between the despotism of the monarch and the liberty of the subject. But those days of despotism had passed, and he really could not see why gentlemen engaged in business in our great commercial centers should be called away at what was probably the most valuable hour of the day, to hear over again without any legal assistance whatever, cases that had already been carefully considered by the magistrate of the town, and cases which would again receive the careful consideration of the petty jury. It seemed to him that it would be a reform in the right direction and a great saving of time of commercial men if they were not called upon to discharge the duties of grand jurors. In his opinion the legal equipment of the country was quite sufficient as it was at present. It did not appear to him that there was any occasion for an increase in the number of judges, but that what was required was the economizing of the time at the disposal of the courts.

"August Flower"

"I inherit some tendency to Dyspepsia from my mother. I suffered two years in this way; consulted a number of doctors. They did me no good. I then used Relieved in your August Flower and it was just two days when I felt great relief. I soon got so that I could sleep and eat, and I felt that I was well. That was three years ago, and I am still first-class. I am never without a bottle, and if I feel constipated the least particle a dose or two of August Flower does the work. The beauty of the medicine is, that you can stop the use of it without any bad effects on the system. Constipation While I was sick I felt everything it seemed to me a man could feel. I was of all men most miserable. I can say, in conclusion, that I believe August Flower will cure anyone of indigestion, if taken Life of Misery with judgment. A. M. Peculiar

To itself in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine.
Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.
Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.
Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses cost one dollar." Medicines in large and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Peculiar in its "good" character. There is no other Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where people of Hood's Sarsaparilla will not take of whole prices, than of all other blood purifiers.
Peculiar in its phenomenal record of cures abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Canadian-American football players were at Burton-on-Trent on Saturday, where they met the Burton Swifts and also a defeat. In a very fast and good game the Swifts won by 4 goals to 3.

HOCKEY.
STRAITSMEN'S CLUB.
At a meeting held Friday evening it was decided to organize a hockey club and the following gentlemen were elected for the season: Honorary president, A. F. McLaughlin; honorary vice-president, W. Maynard; president, John Macoun; vice-president, W. S. Watson; captain, W. Miller; secretary-treasurer, F. W. Tiffin; committee of management, J. A. McFadden, C. C. Watson, and O. Flyer. The club will join in the Ontario Hockey Association and play in the championship series.

THE TURF.
The English racing authorities have already made Orme the favorite for next year's Derby.
The Atlantic City Jockey Club have bought 22 acres of land near Eng Harbor, on which they intend to spend $85,000 for a handsome track and buildings and will hold their first meeting next summer.
Following is the record of the principal winning jockeys on the English turf during the past season: Barrett, 567 mounts, lost 452, won 115; Cannon, 503 mounts, lost 390, won 113; Watts, 434 mounts, lost 327, won 107; Woodburn, 429 mounts, lost 457, won 72.

The assessors of Westchester county have concluded that Morris Park track and its buildings are worth $3,000,000, and have assessed J. A. Morris with taxes for the sum of $270,000. He has appealed to the courts to reduce the amounts, and sets forth in his statement the fact that the entire township had been previously assessed at a valuation of only $2,800,000.

A London cablegram says the famous jockey, John Osborne, has gone into retirement after a riding career of 45 years. He won all the leading races in this country, and was never suspected of dishonorable conduct even in the evil days when owners and jockeys alike sought to amass fortunes by swindling the public. Such a record deserves, and is to receive some notice. It has been decided to present "Johnnie Osborne" with a testimonial, and among those who have already joined the committee are Prince Solykoff, the Earl of Durham, the Earl of Bradford, the Marquis of Hartington, and, in fact, practically every honest man among the English owners of racehorses. The Prince of Wales will head the subscription list, which, under such auspices, is certain to attain generous proportions.

SEATTLE'S WINNERS.

DRAGBOTS.
Great supplies has been created among the draughtsmen of the old country by the fact that the "Herd Laddie" has been selected by Richmond. They played twelve games, and the score was: Richmond 5, Wylie 1, draw 5. Some anxiety was felt by Mr. Wylie's friends as to the result of his match with the English champion Christie.

BASEBALL.
"Silver" Flint is reported dying in Chicago. His old pitcher, Larry Corcoran, was placed under the sod a short time ago.
The National League meets at New York on Tuesday, and an attempt to fix matters with the Association may be made.

NEW TESTAMENT ISLANDS.

A Trip Over the Route that Paul Traveled.

Dr. De Witt Talmage Discourses on "the Gospel Archipelago."

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 8.—This morning's sermon by Rev. Dr. Talmage was on the islands of the Greek Archipelago. The doctor took two texts: Acts, xxi, 3: "When we had discovered Cyprus we left it on the left hand," and Revelations, i, 9: "I, John, was in the isle that is called Patmos."
Good-bye, Egypt! Although interesting and instructive beyond any country in all the world, excepting the Holy Land, Egypt was to me somewhat depressing. It was a post-mortem examination of cities that died 4,000 years ago. But Egypt will yet come up to the glow of life. The Bible promises it. The missionaries are sounding a resurrection trumpet above those slain angels. Instead of the mummy they aim to slay the first-born of Egypt, the angel of the New Testament will shake everlasting life from his wings over a nation born in a day. When, soon after my arrival in Egypt, I took part in the solemn and tender obsequies of a missionary from our own land, dying there, far away from the sepulchres of her fathers, and saw around her the dusky and weeping congregation of those whom she had come to save, I said to myself: "Here is self-sacrifice of the noblest type. Here is heroic immortality. Here is a queen unto God forever. Here is something grander than the pyramids. Here is that which thrills the heavens. Here is a specimen of that which will yet save the world."

This sermon finds us on the steamer Minerva in the Grecian Archipelago, the islands of the New Testament, and islands Paulinian and Johnian in their reminiscence. What Bradshaw's directory to the travelers in Europe, and what the railroad guide is to travelers in America, the Book of the Acts in the Bible is to voyagers in the Grecian, or as I shall call it, the Gospel Archipelago. The Bible geography of that region is accurate without a shadow of mistake. We are sailing this morning on the same waters that Paul sailed, but in the opposite direction to that which Paul voyaged. He was sailing southward and we northward. There is no book in the world so accurate as the divine book. It is a royal family of islands, this Grecian Archipelago, the crown of the world's scenery set with sapphire and emerald and topaz and chrysolite and ablaze with a glory that seems to lead down out of celestial landscapes. God evidently made up his mind that just here he would demonstrate the utmost that can be done with islands for the beautification of earthly scenery. Upon reaching Cyprus we were soon on the very streets where Paul and Barnabas had walked as well as preached. Yes, when at Antioch Paul and Barnabas got into a fight—as ministers sometimes do, and sometimes do, for they will have no imperfections enough to anchor them to this world till their work is done, I say—when because of that bitter controversy Paul and Barnabas parted, Barnabas came back here to Cyprus to visit his birthplace. Island wonderful for history! It has been the prize sometimes won by Persia, by Greece, by Egypt, by the Saracens, by the Crusaders, and last of all, not by sword, but by pen, and that the pen of the keenest diplomatist of the century, Lord Beaconsfield, who under a lease which was as good as a purchase, set Cyprus among the levels of Victoria's crown.

The island of Cyprus has enough to set an antiquarian wild, but the glory is the glory of the past. But when the islands of the sea come to God, Cyprus will come with them, and the agricultural and commercial opulence which adorned it in ages past will be eclipsed by the agricultural and commercial and religious triumphs of the ages to come. Why is the world so stupid that it cannot see that nations prospered in temporal things in proportion as they are prospered in religious things? Goodness is profitable not only for individuals but for nations. Questions of tariff, public or monetary have not so much to do with a nation's temporal welfare as questions of religion. Give Cyprus to Christ, give England to Christ, give America to Christ, give the world to Christ, and he will give them all a prosperity unlimited. The altar of God in the church is the highest water mark of the world's happiness. The Christian religion triumphant, all other interests triumphant.

At midnight we sighted Rhodes. This island has had a wonderful history. With 6,000 Knights of St. John it at one time stood out against 200,000 warriors under "Solyman the Magnificent." The city had 3,000 statues, and a statue to Apollo called Colossus, which has been considered one of the seven wonders of the world. Yet all the thousands of years of this island's history are eclipsed by the few hours or days that Paul stopped there. And here I reflected on the fact that the world must have a God of some kind. It is to me an infinite pathos—this Colossus not only of Rhodes, but the colossi in many parts of the earth. This is only the world's blind reaching up its arms to feel after God, supernatural arm to help us ashore. All the statues and images of heathendom are attempts to bring celestial down into human shape. Blessed be our ears that we have heard of an ever-present God, and that through Jesus Christ he comes into our hearts and our homes, and with more than fatherly and motherly interest and affection he is with us in all our struggles and bereavements and vicissitudes.

As we move up through this archipelago, I am reminded of what an important part the islands have taken in the history of the world. The island of Salamis produced Solon, and the island of Chios produced Homer, the island of Samos produced Pythagoras, and the island of Cos produced Hippocrates. But there is one island that I long to see more than any other. As we come toward it I feel my pulses quicken. "I, John, was in the island that is called Patmos." It is a pile of rocks 23 miles in circumference, a barren and sterile island, and here, says the Bible, the inspired and inspired of the earth, and one palm tree spreads its foliage. But the barrenness and gloom and loneliness of the island made it a prison for the banished evangelist, Domitian

CHANCERY COURT.

Judge Meredith Presiding—List of Cases to Come Up.

The Chancery Sittings opened before Judge Meredith at the Court House yesterday. The following is a list of the cases: Ireland vs. Guest—Meredith, Cameron & Judd.
Kent vs. Ireland—Blackburn & Co.
Hollingsworth vs. Cragg—Meredith, Cameron & Judd.
Baird vs. Miller—Meredith, Cameron & Judd.
Lecky vs. Elson—Meredith, Cameron & Judd.
Breveton vs. Armstrong—Meredith, Cameron & Judd.
Masaret vs. Stewart—Gibbons, McNeill & Miller.
Ancient Order of Foresters vs. Moore—McLennan & Co.
Chisholm vs. McAlpine—Thomas & Chisholm.
Chisholm vs. Atkins—Thomas & Chisholm.
Lewis vs. Currie—Meredith, Cameron & Judd.

Ireland vs. Guest—David Ireland, the plaintiff, is a farmer living in Delaware township, and Isabella Guest, the defendant, is the wife of Wm. Guest, proprietor of the Royal Exchange Hotel, this city. The former claims that Wm. Guest got him into a bad way of liquor and then induced him to borrow from the Huron and Erie Loan and Savings Company $1,000 upon the security of his farm. Guest, it is alleged, then borrowed $700 from him, and the only acknowledgment given of the loan was a promissory note for $900. He further claims that on Sept. 20, 1890, Wm. Guest fraudulently induced him to execute in favor of his wife a mortgage of $1,400 upon his farm and that Isabella Guest was to give plaintiff a mortgage for $2,100 on the Royal Exchange Hotel property. Mrs. Guest had not delivered, nor could she deliver, a good sufficient mortgage for the hotel property was not worth more than $3,000, and it was encumbered to the amount of $12,000. On Sept. 18, 1890, Wm. Guest executed a deed whereby he purported to convey to Donald McIntyre the hotel property for $8,000 and obtained in part payment a mortgage executed by McIntyre to Mrs. Guest for the sum of $2,100. Guest now alleges that this mortgage had been assigned to the plaintiff. The defendants deny all the alleged charges of fraud and undue influence.

The Rebellion
In the Northwest has been suppressed and our citizens can now devote reasonable attention to their farms. The only sure, safe and patient remedy is Pittman's Pink Cure. It is never fails; never makes sore spots worse than the original discomfort. See that you get "Pittman's," and take none other.

Case still on.
Turn down all the lights that we may better see it, and lo! the conquering Christ, robed, girdled, armed, the flash of golden sanctities and seven stars in his right hand, candlesticks and stars meaning light held up and light scattered. And there passes a throne and Christ on it, and the souls broken, and the Agos sounded, and a dragon slain, and seven last plagues swoop, and seven vials are poured out, and the vision vanishes. And we halt a moment to rest from the exciting scene. Again the panorama shows before the cavern of Patmos, and John the exile sees a great city representing all abominations, Babylon towered, palaces, temples, fountains, gilded, and gold, and the Agos sounded, and a dragon slain, and seven last plagues swoop, and seven vials are poured out, and the vision vanishes. And we halt a moment to rest from the exciting scene.

CHANCERY COURT.

Judge Meredith Presiding—List of Cases to Come Up.

The Chancery Sittings opened before Judge Meredith at the Court House yesterday. The following is a list of the cases: Ireland vs. Guest—Meredith, Cameron & Judd.

Ancient Order of Foresters vs. Moore—McLennan & Co.
Chisholm vs. McAlpine—Thomas & Chisholm.
Chisholm vs. Atkins—Thomas & Chisholm.
Lewis vs. Currie—Meredith, Cameron & Judd.

Ireland vs. Guest—David Ireland, the plaintiff, is a farmer living in Delaware township, and Isabella Guest, the defendant, is the wife of Wm. Guest, proprietor of the Royal Exchange Hotel, this city. The former claims that Wm. Guest got him into a bad way of liquor and then induced him to borrow from the Huron and Erie Loan and Savings Company $1,000 upon the security of his farm. Guest, it is alleged, then borrowed $700 from him, and the only acknowledgment given of the loan was a promissory note for $900. He further claims that on Sept. 20, 1890, Wm. Guest fraudulently induced him to execute in favor of his wife a mortgage of $1,400 upon his farm and that Isabella Guest was to give plaintiff a mortgage for $2,100 on the Royal Exchange Hotel property. Mrs. Guest had not delivered, nor could she deliver, a good sufficient mortgage for the hotel property was not worth more than $3,000, and it was encumbered to the amount of $12,000. On Sept. 18, 1890, Wm. Guest executed a deed whereby he purported to convey to Donald McIntyre the hotel property for $8,000 and obtained in part payment a mortgage executed by McIntyre to Mrs. Guest for the sum of $2,100. Guest now alleges that this mortgage had been assigned to the plaintiff. The defendants deny all the alleged charges of fraud and undue influence.
