ish Are Advancing

By Courier Leased Wire.

Paris, Nov. 8.—French troops renewed their advance along the whole front this morning. The war office reports today that French units have reached the railway junction of Liart, about twenty miles north of Rethel.

The French early today captured Singly, less than eight miles south of Mezieres and Frenois, about one mile west of Sedan. Fifteen hundred prisoners and much material were captured yesterday.

The statement reads:

Our progress was resumed again this morning on the entire front. French advance elements reached Liart, thirty kilometres north of Rethel. Further to the right we captured, early this morning, Singly and Frenois, and penetrated into the outskirts of Sedan. The number of prisoners taken yesterday was more than 1,500. The amount of material captured was increased considerably.

BRITISH ADVANCING

London, Nov. 8.—The British are continuing their advance along the active battle front. Field Marshal Haig to-day announced the capture of three villages in the region between Eons and Mauberge.

"Sharp fighting occurred in the evening in the neighborhood of Reclabes and Limont-Fontaine, south of Beaumont. These villages were captured with a number of prisoners. Our advance south of the Meuse canal continued."

NEWS COMING THROUGH.

New York, Nov. 8.—News despatches from Associated Press correspondents in Europe were coming through the censorship freely to-day as usual and their character demonstrated that there was no sharper censorship of contents than usual. To-day's despatches told of advances on the Sedan front to-day with captures of villages and prisoners, and also details of the movements of the armistice commissioners.

WASHINGTON DENIES NEWS IS WITHHELD

By Courier Leased Wire.
Washington, Nov. 8.—Washington awoke this morning to find that its wild celebration yesterday afternoon and last night in the belief that the war had ended was premature. This morning State and War Department officials, who had kept an all night vigil still were without information that German plenipotentiaries had signed the armistice terms. At President Wilson's direction, Secretary Lansing issued a statement shortly after noon to-day that any statement that news reaching the government concerning armistice negotiations was being withheld was utterly false and that as soon as a decision in regard to the armistice was reached it would be made public immediately by the government.

LAST HUNDRED DAYS FRAUGHT WITH DISASTER FOR GERMANS

Little Over Three Months Ago Foe Was Within 35 Miles of Paris; To-day He Begg Peace On Allied Terms

By Courier Leased Wire.
Paris, Nov. 8.—(5.45 a.m.)—One hundred days ago the Germans were thirty-five miles from Paris. To-day they are begging peace.

After many occasions when hope has been deferred and of bitter disappointment, France knows at last that triumph has come and gives rein to its unreserved joy. The conviction is universal that whether the German delegation signs articles of capitulation or not, Germany is beaten.

The Allied advance, particularly the exploit of the Americans in capturing Sedan, a name which thrills every French heart, show clearly that continuation of hostilities by Germany can lead only to a military debacle in the near future. This feeling is confirmed by news received from reliable quarters that Germany's internal affairs are drifting toward chaos.

Huns Try to Cloud Issue.
Paris, Nov. 8.—(5.40 p.m.)—The text of the wireless exchanges between Marshal Foch and the German high command shows signs, this morning, newspapers declared, that Germany is still determined to cloud the issue in every possible way, apparently with the object of at least gaining time, if they cannot gain anything else.

"Berlin and all Germany are striding rapidly toward a revolution. The substitution of a responsible secretary of state for Admiral von Hintze was inspired by this grave peril. The commission sent by the German Government must have with it a man able to sign immediately without referring to Berlin. An attempt must be made at any price in the person of Prince Maximilian of Baden, to open negotiations in favor of peace."

Needless to say the German Government is the victim of a persistent illusion. Marshal Foch will refuse to come out of his province which is strictly military and he also will certainly refuse any suspension of hostilities until the armistice is accepted.

GIVE ENEMY THREE DAYS TO DECIDE

Time Limit of Seventy-Two Hours Set When Foch Defines Terms

ONLY UNTIL SUNDAY

By Courier Leased Wire.

Paris, Nov. 8.—If the credentials of the German armistice delegates are found adequate, they will be informed officially what the terms of the armistice are, and that they will have a time limit of seventy-two hours in which to reply.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Information reaching Washington through diplomatic channels to-day indicated that if the German armistice envoys are not ready to accept immediately the terms offered by Marshal Foch the Marshal will give them only until Sunday to sign.

No efforts at compromise or evasion by the Germans is to be tolerated. They must take what the allies and the United States offer, and lay down their arms, or there will be no interruption of the great offensive which is destroying the German military machine.

Powers Conferred
Paris, Nov. 8.—The powers conferred on Marshal Foch are strictly confined to the conclusion of an armistice, according to The Echo de

MAJORITY PARTIES WILL INSIST KAISER QUIT

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Nov. 8.—The German majority parties have held a final discussion on the question of Emperor William's abdication and will without doubt unanimously demand that he abdicate, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Copenhagen Politiken, forwarded by the Exchange Telegraph correspondent. The ab-dication is added, will probably occur to-morrow.

HISTORIC MEETING TO TAKE PLACE ON WEST FRONT TO-DAY

German Plenipotentiaries Go Before Marshal Foch To Seek Terms of Peace; Allied Forces Continue Progress Meanwhile

By Courier Leased Wire.

New York, Nov. 8.—The Associated Press this morning issued the following:
Germany's delegation charged with the duty of receiving from Marshal Foch the Allied terms for an armistice crossed the Allied lines near La Capelle last night. The members spent the night at a house inside the Entente front and this morning were taken to a place in the Department of the Aisne where they will meet the commander-in-chief of the Allies. It is announced by Paris that it is a four-hour trip to the scene of the historic meeting.

The German high command sent a wireless message to the Allies yesterday asking for a provisional suspension of hostilities on the front where the delegates are to cross, beginning at 3 p.m. and lasting until further notice. This was presumably to permit the armistice mission to pass in safety. The Germans, however, were delayed on the road and they did not reach the lines until well along in the evening. In the meantime fighting on the western front has not ceased. Torrential rains have been falling the fields of France where the British and French are in close pursuit of the Germans. This rain has hampered the enemy's retreat very seriously and while it has also slowed down the Allied advance the Germans are apparently in grave danger of being crushed.

The British are assembling within cannon range of the railroads north and northeast of Hison, leading into Belgium. If this is a fact the Germans must attempt to make good their escape through the wooded, rough Ardennes region. This country is devoid of railroads and has only mediocre highways over which the enemy may withdraw his trains of supplies and munitions, and his (Continued on Page Three.)

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Nov. 9.—9.36 a.m.—The cities of Bremen, Schwerin and Tilsit have joined in the German revolution, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Dr. Earl Liebknecht is said to have arranged for the formation of a soldier's council at Bremen.

Bremen is, next to Hamburg, the principal maritime emporium of Germany. It is situated on the Weser river, 59 miles southwest of Hamburg. Its pre-war population was about 170,000. Schwerin is the capital of the grandduchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, and is situated on the west side of Lake Schwerin, 35 miles southeast of Luebeck. Its population in 1900 was about 38,000. Tilsit is a city of East Prussia. It lies on the left bank of the Nieman river, 60 miles northeast of Koeningberg. Its population is about 35,000.

REBELS HOLD HAMBURG

Amsterdam, Nov. 8.—The great German maritime port of Hamburg is completely in the hands of the revolutionists, according to reports from Hamburg newspapers, printed by the Cologne Gazette. The red flag is flying on all the ships in the harbor.

RED FLAG AT KIEL

London, Nov. 7.—The greater part of the German navy, with red flags hoisted, left the harbor of Kiel in possession of mutinous sailors, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Copenhagen also reports that the revolutionary flag has been hoisted at Warnemunde, with which place railroad communication has been interrupted.

There are no guards on the German Danish frontier, it is reported, and many prisoners crossed into Denmark last night. Dispatches say that no trains have arrived at Copenhagen from Hamburg to-day.

REJECTED

London, Nov. 8.—The German proposal for an immediate provisional suspension of hostilities has been rejected by Marshal Foch.

BY-LAW TO RAISE $75,000 FOR NEW SCHOOL COMING

Board of Education Will Ask City Council to Put Issue Before Electors

CATCH UP ON STUDIES

Holidays May be Curtailed to Regain Time Lost Through Flu

The Board of Education in a one-hour session last night discussed plans for the new school to be erected on Sarah street; for overcoming the handicap of a month's enforced closing of the schools through influenza; and for a victory celebration to be held immediately on the final submission of Germany. In regard to the time lost through the flu, the suggestion was made by J. W. Shepperson, chairman of the board, that the Christmas and Easter holidays might be shortened in order to catch up on the year's work. Other suggestions were advanced by other members of the board. The City Council at its next meeting will be asked to submit to the ratepayers in January a by-law to raise $75,000 for the construction of a new school in the East Ward Schools Re-open.

The Management Committee reported as follows: Owing to the outbreak of an epidemic of influenza and pneumonia, all the schools under the control of the Board were closed by order of the Board of Health from October 15th and remain closed up to the present time. Permission, however, has been given by the board to have the schools re-opened on Monday, November 11th.

That cheque be issued to C. L. Gamble for $50 per school cadets, as per arrangement.

That the pupil suspended from the Central School be allowed to return on his parents undertaking to see that he is prompt in attendance.

That the remuneration of occasional teachers be increased to $3 per day when considered necessary by the inspector.

That the letter of A. M. Overholt, principal Collegiate Institute, dated September 12th, be filed, and that the sum of $25 be placed at his disposal for petty cash requirements. An account with vouchers to be furnished the secretary from time to time.

That the request of Principal Overholt asking permission to procure certain supplies be granted, and that he be requested to expend as little as possible until after the close of the year, as the appropriation for 1918 is entirely exhausted. Increase Salaries.

The Buildings and Grounds Committee reported as follows: The salary of Simon Hill be increased to the sum of $1,300 per annum, and that of Henry Lawrence to $900 per annum, both payable monthly, and to be inclusive of war bonds. Said advances of salary to take place from January 1st next.

The Finance Committee in its report requested payment of a number of accounts.

M. W. McEwen reported verbally on the technical classes at the Collegiate Institute. Pupils to the number of 235 have been enrolled, and a successful season is anticipated. Visits had been made to the factories, and a number of prospective pupils secured there.

The action of the chairman in securing an option on land on Sarah street as the site for a new school, was endorsed, and the Buildings and Grounds Committee authorized to bring in a report as soon as possible in order that the board can approach the City Council asking for submission of a moneyed by-law for $75,000 to the ratepayers.

Enlarge Dental Committee. Mrs. Ballachey introduced a resolution to constitute the dental committee of five members instead of three, as at present. This carried unanimously, and Dr. Marquis and M. W. McEwen were appointed as the two new members.

Chairman J. W. Shepperson was appointed the board's representative on the City Council Boundaries Extension Committee.

Mr. T. S. Armstrong was appointed employers' representative on the advisory industrial committee, filling a vacancy which has existed all year.

Make Up for Time Lost. Touching on the influenza question, Mr. Shepperson stated that it might be found necessary to shorten the Christmas and Easter holidays in order to catch up on the work.

Capt. Jenkins suggested that the board send a memorial to the Department of Education asking that the curriculum be shortened in view of the time lost.

Dr. Gamble suggested that the examinations might be held a month later than usual.

The question will be further considered by the Management Committee before the next meeting.

Mr. Shepperson expressed pleasure that the board had been able to be of service during the epidemic, both board members and the teachers having done yeoman service, responding to the call in a most gratifying manner.

Victory Celebration. Capt. Jenkins voiced a demand for a celebration of the coming of peace, by the children of the public schools. He suggested a general rally day.

Inspector Kilmer approved of the suggestion, declaring himself proud of the part the children had borne in war work.

Capt. Jenkins, Inspector Kilmer, Mrs. Ballachey and A. M. Overholt, principal of the Collegiate Institute, were appointed a committee to arrange for the demonstration.

The report of Inspector Kilmer for September was as follows:

Schools	Enroll.	Average at- tention	Attendance, P.C.

Those present were J. W. Shepperson, chairman; Miss Colter, Mrs. Ballachey, A. Coalbeck, M. W. McEwen, E. L. Miller, W. Lashy, Dr. Gamble, Capt. the Rev. C. E. Jenkins, Inspector Kilmer and A. R. Bunnell, secretary.

The board adjourned at 9.10.

To Subscribers in Arrears

Paper Controller Orders Cutting Off of Unpaid Subscriptions!

Mr. R. A. Pringle, K. C., the Paper Controller of Canada, has issued an order, effective January 1, 1919, which says:

"2. Discontinue sending paper within three months after date of expiration of subscription, unless the subscription is renewed and paid for."

There are many other restrictions imposed, but this one is the most important. Therefore, between now and the end of the year The Courier's subscription list must be overhauled and put on a paid-in-advance basis, in order to comply with a governmental order.

Accounts have already been sent out to those in arrears, but subscribers do not need to wait for a "dun" to spur them to action. The date on the label affixed to the paper sent to mail subscribers tells the story. City subscribers can learn how their subscription stands by referring to their last receipt.

The reason for this regulation of the Paper Controller is that it is the practice of some publishers to send their newspaper until ordered stopped, and this practice frequently means a failure to collect anything for subscriptions in arrears, in which case there is a virtual waste of paper. It is to prevent paper waste that the new regulation has been decided on.

The manufacture of paper consumes labor, wood, coal, chemicals and transportation facilities, and every ton of paper saved means just so much labor, raw materials, chemicals, fuel and transportation available for urgent war needs. For these reasons the Government insists that paper shall be saved, and proposes that only those who pay for their publications shall receive them.

Under these regulations The Courier will have no choice in the matter of dealing with subscriptions in arrears for over three months.

Send in your subscription at once. Do not delay, the collectors call regularly on city subscribers. Keep your account up-to-date.

THE WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS, AUTHOR OF "MARGARET GARRETT'S HUSBAND," AND OTHER NOTABLE STORIES.

CHAPTER LXIX

Mr. Mandel Urges Ruth to Take a Rest. She Refuses.
Ruth had wanted terribly to ask Brian not to take Mollie King out while she was away; but she had no right. She was leaving him, he would resent any suggestion that to how he should spend his time during her absence. Then too, she was happy that he had been so loving and kind at the end of their interview.

Although she had told Brian she was a clerk like all the rest, and she really had meant it, she well knew that Mr. Mandel did not furnish taxis for the others. Yet she saw no sinister reason because she was so favored. She was the highest paid woman, consequently the most valuable one in his employ. He probably figured that her strength was worth more to him than the price of the taxis.

Her helplessness as regarded Brian's intimacy with Mollie King, sent her heart down sickeningly. Yet she knew that any false move on her part—while she kept her position—would make a breach between them. That it was already there, she would not admit even to herself.

She had forgotten a paper, she wished to take with her, so after getting her bag, and giving Rachel directions for Brian's comfort while she was away, she went back to the store to secure it. Mr. Mandel found it for her, then said:

"You have been working hard lately, worrying a little too, I fear. You have shown it, he answered her questioning look. "Now my dear Mrs. Hackett, my best interests can only be served when you are feeling at your best, mentally and physically. You've earned a play spell. Take a couple of days and go to the Springs," he named a famous resort near the city she was to visit—"Here is extra money for your expense while there. Don't hesitate to take it, you have earned it."

"Oh, but I couldn't." "You couldn't? Why?" "Oh, I couldn't stay away from Brian. Mr. Hackett, just to have a good time at some fashionable resort, that wouldn't be fair. It is hard enough for him when I am on business. Thank you, just the same, Mr. Mandel, but I will come directly home when I finish the work."

Arrived at her destination, Ruth sent a message to Brian before she left the station. Just a few words, "Arrived safely. Love." But she sent it happily, hoping because of his tenderness, she would find from him that it would find him at home eating the dinner Rachel would have ready.

A man's conscience—perhaps a woman's also—is very elastic. When she was with him, or when, as just before she left his office, Ruth showed her love for him so plainly Brian made all sorts of good resolutions.

So he had this time when Ruth left the office. "I'll behave myself this time and eat at home," he said aloud as he put away the papers over which he had been working. "It's loneliness that's the devil." But Ruth is a good sort.

That Rachel was also an excellent cook may have had something to do with his determination to go home to his dinner. Continued To-morrow

Nor was Ruth the only one who found the tension under which they lived, hard to bear. That he no longer had Ruth's outspoken encouragement to hearten him, to urge him on, was hard for Brian. He had sort of comfort on her cheerfulness when things went wrong or were "slow" at the office. He lived most on hope, in those days; clients were few, pay when he did find one uncertain. Ruth's cheer was badly needed—And Mollie King was always sympathetic, always cheerful.

THAT FLU COUGH

You are pretty apt to have a cough that is inclined to linger after the Flu.

The system now needs a remedy for that cough, and a tonic as well. The best preparation for this condition is Nyal's Tasteless Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, Wild Cherry and Cresote. This preparation is not a cure-all like a great many other preparations, but a definite specific for lingering coughs and a tendency towards lung and bronchial trouble. This preparation fortifies the system, increases appetite, and improves the general condition.

PTE. N. TEASE WINS MILITARY MEDAL

Paris Soldier Honored For Valor on Field—Other Paris News

Paris, Nov. 7. (From Our Own Correspondent). — Yesterday Mr. Reginald Tease received word that his brother, Pte. Norman Tease, had won the Military Medal. The circumstances under which Tease won the distinction were most daring. On August 28th, during a heavy attack on the German positions it was vital important to get a despatch to headquarters. This could only be done by the soldier passing through a terrific artillery barrage and German machine gun fire. Nine of his comrades had fallen before Tease accomplished the mission. He is an old Paris boy, born and educated here. About six months ago Tease was mentioned for bravery in assisting to get in a badly wounded man, under fire.

In a letter to his parents under date of October 2nd, Sgt. Edgar Harold states that while marching down the line at the close of a heavy and successful attack, they passed two heavy guns that had been captured from the Germans. On one was chalked: "For the Mayor of Brantford," and on the other, "For Mayor C. B. Robinson of Paris."

Paris so far has done well for the Victory Loan campaign. Over $120,000 has been subscribed, and several previously heavy contributors had not yet been interviewed.

Last week Trooper A. Dora received his discharge from the military service. He went overseas with the 4th C.M.B.'s from Paris. At the battle of the Somme he won the Military Medal, and shortly after was badly shell shocked and gassed. Mrs. Albert Dora and little daughter arrived here from England last week.

On Tuesday afternoon Willie, the little son of the late John Ceator, was laid to rest beside the remains of his father, who was buried two days previously. The mother is also lying very sick at time of writing.

It is understood that a meeting will be held in a few days of professional men and interested citizens dealing with the establishment of a permanent hospital here. Under the terms of the late Mrs. Willett's will, a generous grant of several thousand dollars was made toward such an institution, and the prevailing epidemic showed quite forcibly the urgent necessity of such.

At the regular meeting of the Paris Medical Association, and body placed on record its sincere appreciation of the splendid services rendered by the doctors, nurses and lady and men helpers during the sickness that prevailed

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If your back hurts or bladder bothers, drink lots of water. When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grams of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of "Kid Salts," take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Kid Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

so largely in town and neighborhood. Sympathy was also expressed to those who had suffered bereavement, as also those who had been stricken with the influenza. The association also suggested that a public meeting should be held at an early date to render the humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God for His great mercy to the sick and suffering, and for the appreciable abatement of the sickness, also for the prospect of an early finish of the war and the establishment of a righteous and lasting peace among the nations.

During the early hours of Wednesday morning, a death came very suddenly to Mr. Peter Schram. He had not been well for a couple of weeks, but was up and around the day before his death.

A former Paris boy in the person of Samuel Clark, passed away the other day from pneumonia, following an attack of influenza. He came to Paris when quite young with his father and was educated in the High School here. He was a chemist by profession, and was employed at the Utica Knitting Company, New York. He leaves a widow and one son, besides his father, Mr. Edward Clarke.

THE SITUATION.

While the German delegates are on their mission to Foch to learn the terms of an armistice the leading papers of that country continue to maintain a most defiant tone. They are insisting upon a strong military concentration in order to save the Fatherland and assuring the people that there is no need to lay down arms. Whether this is a game of bluff or otherwise really does not matter; the Hun outfit will have to toe the mark now or else maintain a hopeless struggle until they are made to do so later on.

Parisians naturally vented their feelings in great jubilation when it became known yesterday that American troops had entered Sedan. It was here that an army of 30,000 French surrendered to the Prussians in 1870.

Foch's men continue to force back the enemy with ever increasing speed and an advance of ten miles was yesterday reported at certain points.

Plenty of internal trouble would now seem to be looming on the Eastern front and Bavaria is threatening Hungary.

Reports of mutiny in Germany still continue to come through, although details are very much suppressed. It seems more than probable that rebels are in control at Kiel and Hamburg.

THE STROKE SHOULD COME.

There has recently been published an English translation of a pamphlet written by Herr Emil Zimmerman in which he frankly outlines the plans of Germany for a "mittel-Afrika." Without bothering about the details of a scheme which has gone glimmering like all of the other Teuton designs the following extracts from the Zimmerman effusion proves illuminating:

"It is no exaggeration to say that our system of Protection was only possible because the Anglo-Saxons put at our disposal their fields of cheap production across the sea."

"But they did more. They gave admission to our merchants, trade agents, commercial establishments everywhere in their broad domains, looked kindly on them as long as they were modest, and thereby they assisted materially to open markets for our industrial products."

"Suppose we had not had the rich fields of South and West Africa, Australia, India, the Far East, Canada, where the Anglo-Saxons had done the preliminary work, but had had to begin at the very beginning in the acquisition of our raw materials—should we have obtained so quickly the position of a great industrial and commercial power? Our rise depended essentially on the British policy of the Open Door. We were reformers in England's house, paying guests of the Anglo-Saxons, the secret of our success lies, apart from our organization and the training of our working classes, in the fact that England and the countries which are the great producers of raw materials granted us an Open Door, allowed us to draw on their vast reservoirs of raw materials. If this permission is withdrawn we shall be at one stroke once more the Germany of 1880."

Canada, especially in nickel, and all the other countries over which the Union Jack floats have foolishly allowed Germany to exploit their raw material and also their markets and thus helped to build up a lecherous monster whose desire to throttle and dragoon the rest of the world has only been thwarted after four years of the most costly struggle the world has ever seen. Please God the lesson has now been properly learned and will in all future years be properly acted upon.

HON. MR. CROTHERS RESIGNS.

Canada's Minister of Labor has sent in his resignation because of ill-health, and in accepting the same Sir Robert Borden took occasion to pay tribute to his worth and work in the office for a period of seven years. In doing so the Premier made special reference to the many difficult questions coming before the department for the last four years and voiced congratulations that "during that period there have been fewer labor disturbances than in any part of the Empire." As to that, of course the men themselves also deserve a good deal of credit, although he would be a small minded individual who would not also pay tribute to the sincere efforts of Mr. Crothers. That at all times he brought an earnest and sincere purpose to the discharge of his duties cannot be questioned, although certain Labor men subjected him to much criticism.

criticism which any holder of that job is likely to get from both employers and employees.
There is reason to believe that an excellent choice has been made in the person of his successor, Senator Robertson. In his 44th year he is in the prime of a vigorous life and has risen from the ranks having for many years been a railway telegraph operator. Mr. Robertson has already demonstrated the possession of steady and conciliatory qualities in many labor difficulties in whose adjustment he has taken part and he should make good.

PREMATURE REJOICING.

The laugh is on just about every place in Ontario, with the exception of Brantford, Ottawa, Belleville and Kingston, in the matter of yesterday's demonstrations over the fake war news that the Huns had signed peace terms.

Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, Galt, Guelph, Woodstock, Kitchener, St. Thomas and a whole raft of smaller places gulped down the yarn holus bolus. Factories and business houses suspended work. Mayors declared half holidays and things in general were cut loose and made wide open.

From early morning The Courier office was bombarded by phone messages and personal callers who wished to know why in thunder the great news was not extra'd and placarded and many seemed to be quite resentful when informed, in the words of a celebrated speech once made in the Canadian House of Commons, "There ain't nothing to it." At night citizens were down town in vast numbers on edge for a big spurge and even when official denials were bulletined from Westminster that neither the Government there nor the Embassies had received any word of a conclusion of terms were still many doubting Thomases. A final despatch that the British Foreign Office had received no word on the subject still found a certain number unconvinced.

As a matter of fact it only took a very little consideration to show the false nature of the initial despatch. The German delegates were not due to arrive within the French lines until last night and how they could sign terms in the early morning hours, which they had not seen and from which they were miles distant, it would puzzle the most astute of Philadelphia lawyers to explain. It was certainly a bright bunch of newspaper men who lent themselves to the stampeding of the public.

Meanwhile Brantforders will await the real news before having theirs and it will be some spurge all right when the facts are known to warrant the same.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Brantford demonstrated her good sense in not demonstrating.

The citizens of this good burgh have to be shown the real thing before they consent to uncork their enthusiasm.

With the German delegates given seventy-two hours in which to reply to the terms of Foch it may well be that the outcome may not be known until Sunday or Monday. And then again it might prove otherwise.

There should be small wonder over any rebellion among the sailors of the Kiel fleet. They have been cooped up in that canal for so long that old age must be creeping over a lot of them.

PEACE AND HAPPY—Orthodoxy asks me, "How much does happiness depend upon wealth?" Happiness does not depend upon wealth, nor upon any material thing. There is a great deal more happiness among the poor and the middle classes, than among wealthy people. Wealthy people who do not depend upon their riches may be happy, but it is never the wealth that makes them so. Happiness depends upon your mental and spiritual attitude, and upon trying to make others happy.

Paris. The amendments to the terms placed in his hands by the Inter-Allied Council are closely limited, the newspaper says.

Huns Go to Meeting Place. Paris, Nov. 8.—German delegates sent to the French front to receive from General Foch allied terms for an armistice crossed the Allied line near La Cappelle last night. They were taken to a house where preparations had been made to receive them. They stayed there during the night and this morning (Friday) will be conducted to a place in the Department of the Aisne, which is a meeting place fixed by Marshal Foch. This trip will take about four hours. Marshal Foch will leave with Admiral Sir Royal Wemyss, first sea lord of Great Britain, and Major General Maximo Weyand of the French army, Marshal Foch's assistant.

Wilson to Make Announcement. Washington, Nov. 8.—The statement was authorized at the White House shortly after 10 o'clock this morning that whatever word came of the signing of an armistice in France President Wilson himself would announce it immediately.

When this assurance was given, the government had not been advised whether the German armistice delegation had reached Gen. Foch's headquarters behind the French lines where they were expected about noon today, Paris time.

ARRIVE AT SIX. Bulletin, London, Nov. 8.—12.30 p.m.—The German armistice delegates arrived at Marshal Foch's headquarters at six o'clock this morning, according to advices received here.

CONFERENCE AT NINE. (Bulletin, Washington, Nov. 8.—The German armistice delegation entered conference with Marshal Foch at 9 o'clock this morning. French time, the State Department announced officially to-day.

Announcement was made also that if it is found that the German delegates must refer the armistice terms to Berlin they will be given 72 hours from the time that decision is reached in which to answer.

NOT TO NEGOTIATE. (Bulletin, Washington, Nov. 8.—An official diplomatic dispatch from France to-day emphasized that Marshal Foch is empowered only to deliver armistice terms to the Germans and receive their acceptance, and that peace negotiations are not the business of the military commander. Any suspension of hostilities before the armistice is signed, even if asked on philanthropic grounds, is declared to be out of the question.

The powers conferred on Marshal Foch only concern the conclusion of an armistice, says the dispatch. "The modifications which he is qualified to grant are strictly limited. Any suspension of arms even if it is asked for on philanthropic grounds, is out of the question."
It is stated that there should be no doubt that the armistice and the peace considerations are two distinct questions and while Marshal Foch is duly qualified to negotiate the armistice, the peace negotiations are concerns of the Allied Government.
Marshal Foch will do nothing more than communicate to the delegates the already prepared conditions of the armistice.

TO ADDRESS BOARD

Mr. Lloyd Harris will address a meeting of the Board of Trade on Saturday evening.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The finance committee of the city council will hold a meeting this evening to discuss some important matters.

ENGLISH MAIL

A heavy English mail was received by the local post office authorities last night, and as a result the posties are busy to-day with its delivery.

PRAYER SERVICE

There will be a special Praise Service in the Salvation Army Citadel on Saturday at 8 p.m., preceded by an open air service on the Market Square.

FEW FIRES

For nearly six weeks the local fire department has not been called upon to answer an alarm for a fire. The record is a remarkable one for the time of year when there is usually a large number of chimney fires.

FOR OVERSEAS

The ladies of the First Baptist church spent a busy time yesterday packing sixty boxes for the men overseas connected with that congregation.

TILE EXPECTED

Before night it is expected that the tile that has held sewer operations up for so long will arrive in the city. Immediately upon its arrival work will be recommenced on the Bruce street sewer.

SCHOOL CADETS

Reports on the recent inspection of the public and high school cadet corps were submitted to the Board of Education last night. The former corps has a total membership of 313, and the latter of 177. Both are well trained and disciplined.

COURT OF REVISION

The Court of Revision for the voters lists of the Township of Brantford was held this morning in the Grand View school. The court is being held before His Honor Judge Hardy. A large number of appeals will be settled.

BOARD OF WORKS

A meeting of the board of works was held in the city hall last night when purely routine business was discussed. The matters were of very little importance, and consisted of some proposed changes in the department.

PLAYED AT FUNERAL

Major General Lipsett was recently killed at the front, shot through the head by a German sniper, and at his funeral the band which went over with the 125th, played funeral marches. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, was among those present.

IS PRISONER OF WAR

Pte. A. E. Johnson, missing since August 14, is now a prisoner of war, according to word received by Mrs. G. Stenebaugh, 235 Nelson street, with whom the young man made his home. He was formerly employed by the Brantford Gas Company, and went overseas with the 125th battalion.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning some boys who were having a little celebration over the reported news last evening, and who damaged some property in Eagle Place, were allowed to go after making restitution for the damage. The only other case to be heard was that of George Gibbons of selling liquor, which was dismissed.

THE END OF WAR

It has been decided to hold a meeting in the Board of Trade rooms within one hour of the receipt of the official announcement of the signing of armistice which will probably end the war for the purpose of adopting resolutions and taking such action as may then be deemed proper.

CLEAN UP LAND

A letter has been received by the city from the Wood Coal Co. in regard to the tall race near their property. The letter explains that the land in its present condition is of no use to anyone, and the stagnant water forms a breeding place for all kinds of disease. The proposal that they make is that if they are assisted for the land they will at their own expense fill it up and pay half toward the laying of a tile drain to take the place of the race.

CARS ON MARKET

With the opening of the theatres the market has once more become a popular place for the parking of cars during the evening. Last evening a large number of cars were stationed there during the performances.

CONGRATULATE PRESS

The general opinion around the city to-day is one of commendation and congratulation for the local press in the way in which they handled the peace rumor yesterday, as compared with the action in other Western Ontario cities.

AT FIRE HALL

Fireman George Atkins of the central fire department this morning returned to duty after his annual holidays. At present no one is holidaying owing to the reduced condition of the staff. The situation was somewhat relieved to-day with the return of one of the men.

TO ADDRESS BOARD

To-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the board of trade chambers, Mr. Lloyd Harris will address the members, more particularly the manufacturers and importers and exporters on the work of the war mission in Washington, and also on some questions relative to after the war conditions as they may affect business in Canada.

PARS BOARD

A routine meeting of the local parks board was held in the city hall last evening when the following resolution was passed: That the Supt. be instructed to sell the old lumber at present piled in the Agricultural park. A large number of accounts were passed. The following members of the board were present: Messrs. Grobb, Cockshutt, Ker, Quinlan and Glover.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL

Conditions in the emergency hospital to-day show a marked improvement. The number of patients has decreased, at present there being only thirty-nine there, and these are not in critical condition. Yesterday's discharges are as follows: Mr. W. C. R. James and his son, Reginald, Mrs. Nellie Simms, of the Belmont hotel. The staff of nurses is up to its full strength and a general improvement is reported.

MOHAWK PARK

It may be well worth noting that the advocacy by The Courier in regard to the regeneration of Mohawk park has at last been taken note of by the parks board and since the first of the week the men of that department have been engaged in grading and other work at the entrance to the park. It is expected that other improvements will follow in the course of events.

GASOLINE REGULATIONS

The regulations respecting the sale of gasoline are to receive the further consideration of the Fuel Controller. Since the regulations were formulated about a month ago, representations have been made to Mr. McGrath in regard to certain features, and he now announces that, pending further consideration, the enforcement of the regulations will be held over for the next ten days. During this period, therefore, it will not be necessary for gasoline dealers to take out licenses, and they may continue to do business as heretofore.

BIG DAY IN TORONTO

Brantford citizens who were in Toronto yesterday report a demonstration unparalleled in that city's history. Every store was closed as soon as the news was flashed into the city that the Germans had quit. Bells were rung, whistles blown, horns tooted, passengers climbed to the roof of street cars, and tin pans, bands, and every other noise-maker in the city requisitioned for service. Tickers, paper flags and bunting of every sort was freely distributed from offices and stores, and the scene and din was beyond description.

CASE SETTLED

The case of Davidson versus Davidson and Trusts and Guarantee Co., which was slated for a hearing at the fall sessions next week, has been settled out of court. The suit is an action brought by the widow of the late Mr. Davidson, to set aside an agreement made with the other heirs in which the widow was to accept a certain sum for her interest in the estate. The Trusts and Guarantee Company only became a party to the suit through their being the administrators of the estate.

BURFORD FUEL

Mr. W. K. Muir has been appointed Fuel Controller for the Township of Burford, and has already entered upon his duties. It will be an impossible task to make one ton of coal do the work of two, but it is hoped that during the winter suffering resulting from a lack of fuel will be eliminated by directing the disposition of a limited supply of coal to the quarters where the most good will be accomplished.—Burford Advertiser.

AVIATORS' VISIT WAS BIG SUCCESS

Squadron of Birdmen Entertained to Luncheon at Kerby House

While neighboring cities and towns went into a frenzy yesterday over a rumor that the Germans had quit, citizens of Brantford were entertained by a squad of aviators, five in number, which came from the aviation camp at Beamsville, for the express purpose of helping the local Victory Loan committee by distributing literature. For some time past the publicity committee had been endeavoring to secure the planes, as an attraction for the citizens, and only through the assistance of Miss H. Cunningham daughter of Mrs. J. B. Detwiler, 47 Chestnut Avenue, were they successful. For this assistance the committee express their thanks.

The flyers, led by Capt. Godfrey, left Beamsville camp shortly after 11 o'clock, but not having a military map of the district, went some distance astray. It was nearly 12:30 when the Commandant, in a big scout machine, appeared in the sky directly over the city. Here he performed many thrilling stunts, until the arrival of the other four machines, some 20 minutes later.

The five machines then began a veritable bombardment of the city, distributing 4,000 cards, which had been specially prepared for the raid. A landing was then made on the McEwen farm, situated between the Paris and St. George roads, and the aviators were met by a committee from campaign headquarters. From the field the party motored to the Kerby House where a luncheon had been prepared.

At the luncheon the chair was taken by Mayor MacBride, who cordially welcomed the aviators, and then asked Mr. W. G. Raymond to speak. Mr. Raymond was followed by Mr. Bunell, Capt. Godfrey and his associates, and Col. Howland, who spoke briefly. Miss Helen Cunningham, who had so generously assisted the committee, responded, when called upon by the American girls, and Miss Hilda Hurley made a neat speech as a Canadian girl.

The flyers who took part in the exhibition were: The Camp Commandant, Capt. Godfrey, a veteran, and an aviator belonging to the plans to his credit, and in addition a Military Service Medal. Capt. Williams was another of the flyers, and he also has seen air service in Flanders. The other members of the squad were Lieut. Burns, Clement and McIntyre. Luncheon was interspersed by singing, led by Miss Hurley, Miss Cunningham and Mr. E. Mousie. The aviators being in a hurry to start to camp, the proposed around the city had to be abandoned, and as soon as a supply of gasoline was procured the birdmen left the temporary aviation field for their camp.

SERGT. MAJOR STEVE RIDLEY WON D.C.M.

Also Recommended for the Medal of St. George Since His Death in Action

Sergt.-Major Steve Ridley, late of the 19th battalion, who was killed in action last August, won the Distinguished Conduct Medal, and has also been recommended for the Medal of St. George, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ridley, 11 Close Avenue, Galt. Sergt.-Major Ridley was a former member of The Courier Staff, being assistant pressman here at the time of his enlistment over four years ago. The following letter has been received by his parents:—

19th Canadian Battalion.
October 19th, 1918.
Mrs. R. Ridley,
11 Close Ave., Galt, Ont.
Dear Mrs. Ridley.—Ere this you will have received intimation of the sad death of your son, No. 55496 C. S. M. Ridley, of this Battalion, which occurred on the previous day, although on account of the active conditions prevailing since this date, the information forwarded you has necessarily been somewhat meagre. While sympathizing deeply with you for the great loss you have sustained, it is with gratification and pride that I am now able to inform you that your son was recommended, and awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal, one of the highest honors a soldier can qualify for, on account of his gallantry and courage in the battle in which he was wounded. His conduct at all times throughout the action was a credit to him both as a soldier and a man, and he more than earned the medal which he was awarded.
I am having arrangements made to have this decoration mailed direct to you from the Base, and I hope that the possession of this token of your son's devotion to duty may mitigate to some extent the grief which you feel in your bereavement.
Assuring you of my sympathy in the loss which you have sustained, believe me,
Sincerely yours,
L. Millen, Lieut.-Col.
19th Can. Batt.

RIDING ON HANDLE BARS

A movement has been set on foot in Hamilton to ask the city council to approve a by-law making it illegal for two persons to ride a bicycle on the city streets and for any motorcycle to be parked closer than six feet to any street hydrant. This by-law, it is explained, is intended to prevent the practice of carrying children on the handle bars of bicycles.

KITCHEN SHOWER

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford, Elgin St., the friends of Miss Clifford of St. Luke's Church, gave her a kitchen shower and an address. Miss A. Clifford, who is shortly to be married, was taken by surprise. Two features of the evening were the unwrapping of the parcels by the prospective bride and groom and Mr. Harradine's mimic band.

CHESSE TOURNAY.

By Courier Leased Wire
New York, Nov. 8.—Joseph Capablanca last night established a strong lead in the chess masters tournament at the Manhattan Chess Club when he defeated Janowski in 55 moves. The match was a long drawn out affair and at one time it was thought that it had been adjourned. However, the men went at it again and after a couple of hours additional striving the Cuban pulled through a winner. The victory gave him nine in the winning column and only one in the losing division. Marshall, the American champion, defeated Morrison of Canada after 57 moves.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY HELD ITS ANNUAL MEETING

Officers Elected For 1919— Judging of Lawns and Gardens

The annual meeting of the Brantford Horticultural Society was held in the Public Library. Receipts for year, $1,308.60; expenditure, $590.14; membership, $45. The membership was materially smaller this year owing to non-arrival of bulbs from Holland. A vigorous campaign will be conducted next year with a view to putting the membership at the thousand mark. The following officers were elected for 1919:

President—G. H. Ryerson. First Vice-President—A. A. McIntyre. Second Vice-President—C. Watt. Secretary-Treasurer—To be appointed.

Directors—Meedam's Marquis, Watt, Parley and Ruddy; Messrs. Diamond, Kilmer, Sleith, Day, Woolsey.

Auditors—Messrs. Rowe and Baldwin. Owing to the influenza epidemic the meeting was small and only did such business as was imperative under the act. A general meeting will be called in the near future.

Prizes in the society's competitions were awarded as follows: Lawn and Flower Garden Competition.

Ward One—1, G. B. Duncan; 2, R. C. Burns; 3, T. Ransom. Ward Two—1, I. S. Armstrong; 2, Mrs. R. R. Taylor; 3, Mrs. A. Watt.

Ward Three—1, R. Rowe; 2, Mrs. Marquis; 3, Mrs. Moore. Ward Four—1, F. Wright; 2, T. Stuart; 3, G. A. Kirkley.

Ward Five (North)—1, H. S. Tapscott; 2, D. L. Adams; 3, Mrs. F. Cox. Ward Five (South)—1, J. D. Ansell; 2, T. Sleeth; 3, J. H. Cowperthwaite.

Window or Verandah Box Competition. Ward One—No entries. Ward Two—1, Mrs. Lavery.

Ward Three—No entries. Ward Four—No entries. Ward Five—No entries. Vegetable Garden Competition. Ward One—1, C. Slemin; 2, C. Woodbury; 3, J. J. Hurley.

Ward Two—No entries. Ward Three—No entries. Ward Four—1, H. T. Jordan; 2, R. L. Simmons; 3, E. Thompson. Ward Five (North)—1, G. Teakle, sr. Ward Five (South)—No entries. Echo Place—1, Mirley Myers; two prizes to be awarded.

OBITUARY

MISS HELEN LIVINGSTON. Influenza added another to its seemingly endless chain of deaths last night when Miss Helen Livingstone passed away at the home of her father, Mr. Alex. Livingstone, 75 Chatham street. The deceased was a graduate nurse of St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago, and was herself recovering from an attack of influenza when she volunteered to nurse the late Russell Sweet, until his sister, a nurse at St. Luke's, could arrive home. While doing so she again contracted the complaint. She possessed a very fine character and lovable disposition and a large circle of friends will extend sympathy to the bereaved parents in their loss of a true Christian daughter. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon to Farrington Cemetery.

"THE HUMAN FLY" COMING. The "Stunts" Committee in connection with the publicity for the Victory Loan have succeeded in adding another feature to the program of the sirmen yesterday. This will be the appearance on Saturday morning of the "Human Fly," who will climb the tallest building without the aid of any contrivance, using simply his hands and feet. The "Human Fly" has attracted much attention in the city of the large American cities, and recently created a great deal of excitement in Toronto.

OBSTRUCT NAVIGATION. Migrating caribou along the Yukon River near the Canadian-American border were so thick last week that the U.S. gunboat General Davis had difficulty in navigating among the swimming stragglers of the herd. Debris were lashed and drawn aboard. Tens of thousands were estimated to compose the migrating herd.

WILLIE WILL BEAR WATCHING. At Renfrew, Willie Gravello has inherited from his father an uncanny faculty in opening safes. At Pembroke last week his services were requisitioned to open the court house vault—an old one unused for five years or more, the combination for which had been forgotten. He went on listening post for a few minutes—then promptly turned the trick.

A CASE OF THE SPITTER SPITTED. Every one has heard the old story of the bitter bitten. In Kitchener recently Frank von Neubronn protested to the Board of Health against the lax enforcement of the prohibition against spitting on the streets. The Board requested more diligence on the part of the police, and von Neubronn was the first man apprehended. He himself is a member of the Board of Health.

WHERE SALMON IS NO LUXURY. Owing to a surplus supply of fresh salmon, that so-called "luxury fish" sold at six cents a pound in Vancouver last week 7,000 pounds, failing to find buyers even at that price.

Victory Bonds sustain Canadian industry in peace times.

SERGEANT-MAJOR S. RIDLEY. Died of wounds, Aug. 28, a former member of The Courier; he won the D.C.M. for valor.

SOCIALIST AIMS. Copenhagen, Nov. 7.—The Vorwarts of Berlin publishes a new proclamation to German workmen by the Social Democratic party, in which is emphasized the party's firm intention to secure full Democratic liberty for the German people. The proclamation says in part: "All those who, through unwise policies caused this calamity to come upon our people must resign their posts. All necessary measures are being taken to this end. No exception will be made of any person, however highly placed."

VALENCIENNES IS ANOTHER STAR IN CANADIAN CROWN

Deeds of Valor Performed in Short, Sharp, Decisive Fight There

By Courier Leased Wire. By J. F. B. Livesey, Canadian Press Correspondent. With the Canadian Forces in the Field, Nov. 2, via London, Nov. 7.—Short, sharp and decisive as was the battle of Valenciennes, it will rank as one of the most brilliant achievements of the Canadian corps. The situation offered an extremely difficult problem. Until three days ago the entire Canadian force was on the west side of the Scheldt with its battle front cut off from the enemy by a flooded and impassable area. His plan thus protected the enemy was able to hold fast to the high land to the south of the city of which Mont Houy was the key. Two attempts by troops operating on our right to storm this position had failed. The Canadian Fourth Division was entrusted with the entire operation. The Tenth brigade kicked off at dawn and by eight o'clock had carried all objectives including Mont Houy and the intervening villages up to the southern outskirts of the city. Much of this initial success was due to the remarkable work of the Canadian artillery which laid down a barrage mixed with smoke that promptly devastated the enemy defenses. Our advancing infantry came upon enemy machine posts blown to pieces with all their crews. With sufficient remaining however, to put up a stout fight, bitter opposition developing at Aubuy steel works, at Marly and elsewhere. The enemy dead exceeds anything of the kind ever seen since the height of the battle of Cambrai. Happily our own casualties throughout the whole operation were relatively light. While the Tenth brigade was thus engaged, the Twelfth brigade from the west attacked and succeeded in crossing the canal at one point. The only practical crossing was commanded by strong machine gun posts, just across the canal. Wrapping the wheels of an eighteen pounder with a carpet, the gun was brought down secretly at night to a house just opposite this post and then fired through the wall at the zero hour next morning at point-blank range at a distance of a few yards. At the first discharge it blew machine guns and crew into the air.

An eastern Ontario battalion crossed over the locks on the southwest of the city by a foot bridge, under a heavy enfilading fire from machine guns and with the first section there went over the official Canadian photographer who took pictures under fire. The battalion proceeded to consolidate the southern end of the Oise, holding that night the line of the railway. A British Columbian battalion crossed over the canal further down and after sharp fighting succeeded in making good a line on the north-west outskirts of the city. An Ottawa battalion pushed its way right through the city and took up a line on the eastern boundary, being supported on the left by British Columbian troops and on the right by units of the Eleventh brigade which went through the Tenth brigade. Two Canadian gunners with two French interpreters, at 10 o'clock swarmed up the tower of the Hotel De Ville, cut down the German flag and hoisted the tricolor. The enemy still clung tenaciously to the edge immediately east of the city, whence it directed a harassing fire. We attacked in force again and drove him out of the strong positions he held between St. Aulve and the Chateau Houris.

SKINNED CATS SOLD AS GREY SQUIRRELS. San Francisco, epineurs are wroth in consequence of a mass deception practised upon them. They have discovered that the tasty little animals bought by them from Jimmy Burket, a grey squirrels, and greatly enjoyed during these months had been in reality skinned cats.

PREMIER BORDEN WILL LEAVE SOON

Lloyd George Urges Him to Proceed to England at Once

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—It is understood that the Prime Minister will leave at an early date for England to take part in the preliminary discussions respecting the terms of peace and to represent Canada in connection with the peace conference. He will have the assistance and advice of Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Hon. Arthur L. Sifton, Minister of Customs will accompany him, and at a later date, as soon as urgent duties permit, Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, will proceed to England for the same purpose.

Mr. Lloyd Harris, chairman of the Canadian War Mission at Washington; Mr. Frank Jones, vice-chairman of the War Trade Board; Dr. James W. Robertson, C.M.G., representing the Department of Agriculture, and Colonel O. M. Biggar, of the Department of Militia and Defence, and Mr. L. C. Christie, of the Department of External Affairs, will also accompany and assist the Prime Minister in his mission.

The Prime Minister and the Minister of Labor have conferred with the president of the Trades and Labor Congress as to the selection of a labor representative to accompany the Prime Minister, and Mr. P. M. Duncan, secretary of the Trades and Labor Congress, has been selected for that purpose.

During Sir Robert Borden's absence, Sir Thomas White will be acting Prime Minister.

Has Been in Close Touch. During recent weeks the Prime Minister has been constantly in touch with the Government of the United Kingdom, and especially Mr. Lloyd George, respecting the approaching peace negotiations and the conditions of the armistice with Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria. These conditions have been communicated to the Government of Canada in ample time for their observations and suggestions. This is especially true of the conditions proposed to Germany which have not yet been made public in full. The terms of peace have been carefully and exhaustively discussed in council, and the Prime Minister has the benefit of the views of his colleagues thereon, especially in their relations to Canada.

In recent messages Mr. Lloyd George has urged that Sir Robert Borden should proceed to England without delay. On account of the rapid march of events during recent weeks the departure of Sir Robert Borden is necessarily somewhat hurried. On that account reconstruction of the Government cannot be considered until after his return.

The duration of the Prime Minister's stay overseas cannot, of course, be foretold. It will depend upon the outcome of the armistice negotiations and the time occupied in peace negotiations. Should his absence be protracted, however, Parliament will meet in due course under the leadership of Sir Thomas White.

It must be convened at least once a year, and will have to be summoned to vote supply for the next fiscal year, which begins on April 1. Estimates are already being prepared in the several departments, but whether Parliament will meet in January as anticipated or later cannot be stated.

The coroner told Ruddy that he was morally responsible for the girl's death.

Further and Immediate Aid is Asked by Provisional Government at Omsk

DELAY MEANS DANGER National Forces of Muscovite Republic Recovering Quickly

Washington, Nov. 7.—Further and immediate aid from the allied and American Governments in ridding Russia of Bolsheviki control and re-establishing order is asked in an appeal addressed to President Wilson by the consolidated provisional Government at Omsk and delivered to Secretary Lansing to-day by Boris Bakmeteff, Russian Ambassador to the United States.

After describing the reign of terror inaugurated in Central Russia by the Bolsheviki and asserting that control by this element is made possible only through German influence, the appeal says aid already extended to Russia by the allies will be in vain if "the new help arrives too late." It adds that every hour of delay "threatens with innumerable calamities Russia, the allies and other nations."

It is evident that the new provisional Government, into whose hands has been entrusted the supreme power by the people of Russia, the regional Governments, the convention and committee of the members of the Constituent Assembly, the Zemstvos and municipalities, addressed itself to the allied powers. It expects to receive their aid and considers itself in the right to demand insistently upon such help.

It is to the head of the great American democracy, recognized apostle of peace and fraternity of the nations, that it makes its appeal. Aid already extended to Russia by the allies would be in vain if the new help should arrive too late or in insufficient quantity. Every hour of delay threatens with innumerable calamities Russia, the allies and other nations.

A HOME MADE GRAY HAIR REMEDY

You Can Make at Home a Better Gray Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy

Gray streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary. You can darken it without using a dye.

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Olex Compound and 3/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger. It is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp; is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

ONLY 20,000 ARE MILLIONAIRES

Interesting Figures of the Yankees' Incomes Compiled by New York

America is rich, but the number of millionaires in the country is less than is generally believed, says the New York Commercial. The Bankers' Trust Company of New York has published some illuminating facts bearing on the wealth of the country and its distribution. No man with an income of less than $50,000 a year can be classed as a millionaire unless his possessions consist largely of unimproved real estate.

According to this carefully compiled pamphlet 23,500,000 families and unmarried persons in America have incomes of $1,000 a year or more. Of these 21,375,000 in the class between $1,000 and $2,000 a year have a total income of $40,615,000,000, while the income of all over $2,000 a year amount to only $12,234,335,500, making the total income of all who have $1,000 a year or more $52,850,000,000.

The millionaire group of persons and families having incomes of $50,000 a year or more includes only 19,125 whose total income is $2,730,255,000 a year. It will surprise many to hear that there are less than 20,000 millionaires in America, and that if their entire incomes were confiscated the levy would yield only about one-third of the $2,000,000,000 taxes provided in the new revenue bill.

Corporations are reported as having profit and loss surpluses for the year of $7,150,000,000, which makes the total national income $60,000,000,000. These corporations are expected to pay $4,000,000,000 taxes and to buy $2,000,000,000 in bonds, which will reduce their total surpluses to $1,150,000,000.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo said in Carnegie Hall that of the 18,000,000 subscribers to the third Liberty Loan but 23,500, including corporations, bought $10,000 or more of these bonds. When we find that there are less than 20,000 millionaires in the country these figures are not surprising.

"Bring My Daddy Home Soon"

IN thousands of Canadian homes to-night, the prayers of little children will ask Heavenly protection for fathers and brothers "over there."

If you could enter one such home, and hear a child lisp that plea for daddy's safe return, there would come into your life a newer and more personal realization of what war means.

You who have no kin in France— Surely you have eyes to see and hearts big enough to understand the obligation that rests on you.

Surely you will provide the money—all the money you can—to bring about that Victory which will answer the prayers of our soldiers' little ones.

How much of your earnings will you put into Canada's Victory Bonds?

It is more than a duty—it is a privilege—to help provide everything that enables our brave Canadians to march on to Victory—to bring the struggle to an early end—that the prayers of their little ones may be answered and

"daddy brought home soon."

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Ministry of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

FOR FLETCHER'S
ASTORIA

For Cowardice

By Lieut. K. N. Colville, R.G.A.
John Templeton was a coward. To the truth of this he was himself the chief witness, for in his moments of complete self-abasement he would confess as much and point out, not in palliation of his offence but in penitential augmentation of it, that his cowardice was so plain that he could never forget it and did not even dare let himself get into a position in which it might be displayed to the world.

It was this fear of being found out for the coward he was that made him join the army among the very first from his native village (which he had never had the courage to leave.) He knew that if he stayed at home people would say he was a coward and knowing it to be true, he could not afford to let it be said.
"If I'd had a little more pluck," he once said, "I'd stuck it out and stopped at home. But I couldn't even bear to think of the girls jeering at me and giving me white feathers."

John felt, as many others have done, that companionship was a partial protection from cowardice. Companionship and warmth made him feel almost brave so long as any palpable cause of fear was out of sight. He had a preference, too, for the company of hefty, stout-hearted fellows who would be likely to stand by him at a pinch. Therefore when he went over the top with his platoon he never straggled and sought an excuse to go back to the dressing station. The men who got left behind in convenient shell holes were weaklings with whom he dared not stay, and he was afraid of losing his way if he went back to get some minor wound dressed, or perhaps get buried by a shell as he went and have no pal at hand to dig him out.
So John generally got into the most ticklish parts of the fighting because he dared not leave the stout fellows who went there, he supposed, because they liked that sort of thing. Also, as before, his conscience was so tender that he dared not run any risk of having nasty things said about him.

John had, in this way, got quite a reputation for valor, and, as he shamelessly owned on at least one occasion, he hadn't the moral courage to let on what his real nature was. He might therefore have been a sergeant by the time the incident I am going to relate happened had he not steadfastly, by fair means and foul, evaded promotion. He dreaded that because it would mean his separation from those heroic souls to whom he clung like a shipwrecked mariner to a spar. As a private he would hardly ever have to take any step without a N.C.O. to give him moral and physical support, and he could now rely on his chosen leaders to take him with them, for they knew he would never desert them if he could help it. They thought him a regular rock of a fellow, a veritable die-hard. He knew that he was only a wretched scrap of seaweed, that would be blown away into the maelstrom of terror were it left to float alone and unanchored to some more solid object.

So after three years John was still a private, and it was as No.
24718 Private John Templeton that he went into the show in which he won his Military Medal.

There is no need to describe the fighting. It was like most of the fighting of the time, a matter of going over the top of the tanks which disorganized the defence without wholly obliterating it, and clearing out pockets and consolidating the ground in preparation for a further advance a little later. Unfortunately one of the tanks in front of John's crowd got stuck owing to engine trouble, and the one next to it went a bit off its line, so that there was an unusually stiff resistance. Instead of the old farm house where the Germans had made machine gun emplacements, trenches, and the usual appurtenances of a strong point, in front of John's company.

Therefore, though John and a dozen others got into a very snug little trench that formed an outwork of the main position, they could get no further, and the rest of the company did not get even so far. The attack was checked at this point, and John and the rest were left high and dry by the receding tide.

But if the Englishmen could get no further, the Germans seemed dis-inclined to come and turn them out.
They started to attack them once, out they had to come across the open to do it and they did not push the attack home. Thereafter they contented themselves with sweeping the parapet with machine gun fire whenever anything showed above it.

Behind John's new home the ground fell pretty sharply and it was possible to get away almost back to the sunken road from which they had started, and where, it was clear, their supports now were, without being observed. Therefore, when, presently, a trench mortar opened fire, the senior N.C.O. of the party (they had no officer) suggested a gradual retirement, one at a time, back across the dead ground behind them. John, who dreaded having to make such a journey alone argued against it, but as they could clearly not attack the strong point alone, and the trench mortar was steadily wiping out their all too feeble defences, the majority approved of the suggestion, and the first man slipped out and crawled down the slope.

So, one by one, they crept back to safety, the rest meanwhile keeping up a spasmodic fire, at any target that offered to cover the retreat.
Four got clear away. Then the fifth was spotted and fired on. He was apparently hit, but he too got clear.
But now the enemy was on the lookout, and also made another attempt to rush the trench. Again the attack was half hearted, and though three or four Germans came to close quarters, none survived. But the English had their casualties too.
Two men were shot through the head; John got a bullet in his left shoulder, and hardly had the rush been beaten back than another man was knocked out by the trench mortar.

It was decided to continue the retirement, but John insisted, though his wound entitled him to the first chance of escape, on staying where he was. "I simply hadn't the pluck even to attempt it," he said. "You had to crawl three hundred yards or more on your belly and then get up and run another hundred with the Boche blazing at you from less than six hundred yards off. I should never have had the nerve to get up even if I could have done the wriggling part."

So John stayed with his pals, but they got fewer and fewer, all but one getting back all right, till only one was left with him.

"Now John," said the other, "I'll toss you which goes and which stays."

"But I couldn't move," said John, in telling the story. "It was awful to be alone, but I was better where I was in that trench. So I said 'Right you are, mate,' and I tossed and he said 'Heads,' and it wasn't heads, but I said it was, and he slipped out; but he's hardly gone when he turned round and came back, and that moment the blasted T. M. knocked him out. But presently my trench was full again and our guns started hammering the Boches and then we went in and wiped 'em out."

NEED PASSPORTS TO PASS THROUGH U. S.

Under an order issued by the Secretary of State, Washington, effective November 11th, 1918, all persons going from Canada to foreign destinations by way of United States seaports must procure permission for embarkation before leaving Canada.

Such permission may be arranged for either by executing declaration and procuring visa on passport before one of the American Consuls in Canada, or by making formal application before any of the United States immigration officers located in Canada upon forms furnished by the said officers.

In order to allow sufficient time for investigation, transmission of papers to Washington, etc., applications should be filed either with the Consul or the immigration officer at least 17 days prior to the date of proposed departure.

The State Department invites special attention of prospective travellers to the fact that unless they have obtained visa by an American Consul, the said department must decide whether or not departure from an American port will be allowed, such decision being based upon the application submitted through the immigration officers. Passengers are accordingly warned not to proceed to the port of embarkation until they are in possession of either the Consular visa, or proper certificate from the U. S. immigration authorities showing that permit for departure has been granted.

The foregoing applies to all persons not citizens of the United States, and it is effective regarding all destinations, including Mexico, U. S. insular possessions, etc., but not including Bermuda.

United States citizens seeking to proceed to foreign points are required to have passports issued by the State Department, applications for same being obtainable from the various American Consuls.

ALTER FURNACE, BURN SOFT COAL

Save Anthracite by Using Soft Coal Until Christmas as Illinois People Do

How to burn soft coal in heating stoves and kitchen ranges, and suggestions as to putting such stoves in order for soft coal consumption, are told in the following article, prepared by the conservation department of the United States Fuel Administration for Illinois. As the supply of hard coal for Chicago is limited and everyone is urged to burn soft coal until Christmas, even though their hard coal requirements have been partially filled, this advice on the use of soft coal is timely.

Why Rates go up!

ONE-thousand-and-seven public utility enterprises in Canada and the United States, up to July 31, 1918, have been granted by regulatory commissions, authority to increase their rates. Among these have been 331 gas plants, 280 electric light and power plants, 220 city and interurban electric roads, 36 water plants, 79 telephone systems, 61 hot water and steam plants.

Just to give an instance or two from our own experience:

To run a pair of long-distance wires (one circuit) on our poles from Montreal to Ottawa has just cost us $20,124. A similar circuit on the same poles in 1913 cost $12,870.

A circuit just completed from Toronto to Hamilton cost $7,396. A similar circuit in 1913 cost $4,730.

A mile of underground cable put down in Toronto has just cost $8,976. The same work and material in 1913 cost $6,072.

A mile of 4-conduit in Toronto has cost $12,672. In 1913 the cost was $8,448.

Such increases in cost affecting all phases of our work, in spite of rigid economies, make present revenues inadequate to enable us to meet our obligations to employees, shareholders and patrons.

PRISONERS CHOKE ITALIAN ROADS

Austrians Endured Incredible Hardships Before Armistice Was Signed

By Courier Leased Wire.

With the Italian Army at Trent, Wednesday, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.) Amid the rejoicings of this redeemed city, scenes of destruction and starvation are common as one passes over the roads trying to pass the thousands of Austrian prisoners who were cut off by the Italians southwest of Balzano. Every road leading up to this city is crowded with men and on every hand there are evidences of the collapse of one of Europe's mightiest armies.

The horrors of Napoleon's retreat from Russia, it is said by military observers, were trifling compared with the suffering of the Austrian troops in this region. Great masses of men wait for long hours to move a few feet or a few hundred yards to progress on a road littered with the carcasses of horses and with cannon, pieces of shields, pistols, rifles, broken down automobile trucks and machine guns.

There is swearing among these men. There are even moments of profound quiet, broken by snatches of songs. Italian soldiers seem positively sorry that the end of the war is approaching. They say: "What a few months more, now that we are sure of victory?" Many Austrians are dying from sheer fatigue and starvation, and not wounds. The Italians are doing all they can to hurry up food supplies. This is difficult and in the meantime dead horses are eaten, the flesh being cooked by the roadside by fires kindled by the soldiers.

Large bodies of Austrians are helpless. The correspondent passed between Rovereto and Trent, a distance of sixteen miles, an unending column of men marching none knew whither. They asked orders from an officer, who was with the correspondent. When asked if they knew about the armistice they said: "We want food. Food is the only thing we are interested in. We are indifferent to war and peace and death—everything but food."

GASOLINE REGULATIONS.

The regulations respecting the sale of gasoline are to receive the further consideration of the Fuel Controller. Since the regulations were formulated about a month ago, representations have been made to Mr. Magrath in regard to certain features, and he now announces that pending further considerations, the enforcement of the regulations will be held over for the next ten days. During this period, therefore, it will not be necessary for gasoline dealers to take out licenses, and they may continue to do business as heretofore.

GERMANS STOLE FOOD

OF RELIEF COMMISSION On the Battlefield in Belgium, Nov. 7.—German soldiers at one point during the retreat in Belgium carried off a stock of flour, lard and pork purchased by the Belgian Relief Commission and destined to feed the Belgian civil population. Sixteen non-commissioned officers entered a flour mill and ordered the German soldiers to load six box cars with flour, valued at $100,000. The Relief Commission's stores then were robbed of 48,000 pounds of lard and 18,000 pounds of pork.

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oakaloca, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, elevation, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

AMERICAN TROOPS ENTER SEDAN

Porfion West of the Meuse in Possession of the Allies

Paris, Nov. 7.—American troops to-day entered that part of Sedan that lies on the west bank of the Meuse. The bridge over which the retreating enemy fled has been destroyed and the river valley flooded.

The principal German lateral lines of communication between the fortress of Metz and northern France and France are now either cut or unavailable for the enemy's use.

The matter of peace negotiations failed to slow down in the slightest degree the operations along the front to-day. The news that Germany has taken definite steps to secure an armistice reached advanced headquarters, but was not accompanied by any orders affecting the big drive now in progress, and it is expected that the American line will be carried forward without pause.

With that part of Sedan resting on the western bank of the river occupied, the American army is consolidating its positions and preparing for a further advance.

the south and east of Dun-sur-Meuse were among the places taken this morning. The American troops are in close touch with the line between Inor and Martincourt, where the roadbed has been destroyed, the material having been carried away to strengthen the German positions on the heights beyond. To the south of this Remilly was captured.

It is evident that the Germans are determined not to yield the rest of Sedan unless absolutely forced to do so. They have made big concentrations on the heights back of the city and in such places as can be defended, both above and below on the river.

Concrete entrenchments near the city are strongly held, while all the woods and bridges in the neighborhood have either been destroyed or mined.

RAILWAY BOARD VACANCIES FILLED

Dr. McLean Reappointed, Dr. J. G. Rutherford Replaces D. Scott

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—Appointments have been made by the Government. It is understood, to fill the vacancies on the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada, due to the expiration of the ten-year terms of office of Dr. S. J. McLean and Dr. J. G. Rutherford, last. Dr. McLean, a native of Ottawa, and formerly a member of the staff of the University of Toronto, has been re-appointed. Dr. J. G. Rutherford, of Calgary, has been selected to succeed Mr. Scott, who was assistant chief commissioner. Dr. Rutherford was at one time a Liberal member of the House of Commons for Lisgar, Manitoba. Subsequently, he was appointed live stock commissioner for Canada, which position he resigned in 1911. Of late he has been in the employ of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

Dr. Rutherford's appointment to the Railway Commission has doubtless been made in response to the demand for a representative of the Prairie Provinces on the board.

The office of assistant chief commissioner will not be filled for the present. It has to be held by a lawyer of ten years' standing in his profession. For this office Commissioner A. C. Boyce would be eligible. At the same time there has been some talk of the possibility of the amendment of the Act to permit the appointment of Commissioner McLean, who is a barrister, although only comparatively recently called to the bar.

VICTIMS OF LA GRIPPE

If you have had an attack of la grippe, or Spanish influenza you are not out of danger until your blood is restored to normal.

Influenza leaves behind it weakened vital powers, thin blood, impaired digestion, and over-sensitive nerves. In this condition the system becomes an easy prey to deadly pneumonia, bronchitis, nervous prostration, rheumatism and even consumption. Ask anyone who has had an attack of influenza what their present condition of health is and most of them will answer "Since I had the grippe I have never been really well."

This general feeling of weakness will continue until the blood is built up again, and for this purpose nothing can equal a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. From first to last these pills make new, rich, red blood which reaches every organ and nerve in the body, and through this week, despondent victims of influenza are transformed into cheerful, healthy, happy men and women.

Among the many victims of la grippe who proclaim the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mr. Amos Kaulback, of Petite Riviere, N.S., who says:—"I was taken down with a severe attack of la grippe, or influenza. After a time the early symptoms of the trouble left me, but I did not regain my usual strength, and I had always been a strong man. There were times when I felt I could hardly crawl about, and I was so run down I could scarcely go about my business. I continued taking medicine but it did me no good. Then I found the trouble was affecting my digestion and the disagreeable feeling from this, added to my general misery. I was finally advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to try them. I had only been taking the pills a few weeks when I found my strength returning, my appetite improved, and still continuing the use of the pills a few weeks more found me restored to my old-time vigor. I can most strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all who have passed through an attack of influenza, as a safe medicine for renewing their strength."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Chaplain Services Director Asks Religious Character be Given Jubilation

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—The following statement was issued by the Militia Department this evening:

"In view of the possibility of an armistice or cessation of hostilities, the Director of Chaplain Services in Canada, after consultation with and with entire approval of representative heads of the various churches, Protestant and Roman Catholic, respectfully requests that such steps be immediately taken as will give to any spontaneous outburst of rejoicing a religious character.

The following suggestions have met with the approval of the representative clergy referred to above:

That, through the public press and otherwise, clergy be requested to ask the members of their choirs to assemble at some appointed place or places in the open, as soon as the good news is made public, and lead the gathering multitudes in songs of praise to God.

The following selection of Psalms and hymns will, among others, readily suggest themselves:

"Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow."
"Te Deum."
"All People That On Earth Dwell."
"O, God, Our Help in Ages Past."
"God Save the King."

ITALIAN MINISTERS HAILED.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Rome, Nov. 6.—Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino were given a tremendous reception at every point along the railroad while on their way to Rome from Paris where they attended the Inter-Allied conference. At Turin an immense throng, including 10,000 refugees from Piave, gave them an ovation.

Their reception at Rome resembled a triumphant procession. Te Deums are being sung in all Italian churches. A decree was issued ordering the employment of Austrian prisoners on the repair of roads and buildings in invaded regions. General Diaz's official statement announcing the victory will be carved on the Capitol and the palace at Venice, which was formerly occupied by the Austrian embassy.

MINISTER OF LABOR QUILTS

Hon. T. W. Crothers to be Succeeded by Senator Gideon Robertson

By Courier Leased Wire

Ottawa, Nov. 8.—It was officially announced today that Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labor, who is now en route for California, has handed his resignation to Sir Robert Borden and that it had been accepted. Hon. Gideon Robertson, who has represented Labor in the Cabinet for some time past, in addition to acting as chairman of the Canada registration board, has been appointed Minister in succession to Mr. Crothers, and was sworn in at noon yesterday. Mr. Crothers resigned on the ground of ill health.

Senator Robertson, the new Minister, has been closely in touch with the work of the Labor Department since entering the government a year ago. It is generally recognized that he has been largely instrumental in promoting industrial peace throughout the Dominion during the war period. Some of the more important labor disputes which he was successful in adjusting were those of the Nova Scotia miners last January, and the Canadian Pacific Railway Maintenance of Way men, involving 8,000 employees last February. He was sole arbitrator in the T. and N. O. Railway dispute in April, and his efforts which resulted in the successful settlement of the Winnipeg civic strike will be remembered. Senator Robertson was also largely instrumental in settling the strikes in the shipbuilding yards on the west coast, and the settlement reached at that time has proven a most satisfactory one. He was the promoter in Canada of the adoption by Canadian Railways of the McAdoo award and its amendments, which is of such material benefit to the railway employees throughout the Dominion.

Senator Robertson will be the second Minister with a portfolio holding a seat in the Senate, the other being Sir James Loughheed, who heads the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR MENNONITES

Those Coming to Canada Hereafter Not Under Exceptions

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—Who is a Mennonite? Methods of definition are provided in an additional regulation adopted by the Government. The regulations in brief provide for the establishment of a court to decide whether a man is entitled to be classed as a Mennonite or Doukhobor, and as such exempted from compulsory military service.

It is provided in the regulations that any person may lodge a complaint with a Registrar of a military district that a person claiming exemption from military service as a Mennonite or Doukhobor is not entitled to exemption. The Registrar can then apply to the Chief Justice of the province for the appointment of a Judge who will hear the case. The Judge will certify his decision to the Registrar, and the decision will be final and conclusive.

The new court thus established ranks practically with the Courts of Appeal created in each province to hear appeals from local tribunals on questions of exemption.

In addition provision is made that persons who immigrate or come to Canada hereafter will not be deemed to come within the exemption in the Military Service Act referring to Mennonites and Doukhobors. Neither are future immigrants to receive exemption on the ground of conscientious objection to military service.

Karns & Co. expect to receive for Saturday selling another shipment of Japanese Battenburg and draw-work, table scarfs, dresser scarfs and table scarfs. See the special dollies at 15c.

Peace does not remove the need for the Victory Loan.

SEPARATION RATES HAVE BEEN RAISED

Soldiers' Dependents Will Get Larger Allowances By New Order

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 8.—An order-in-Council has been passed increasing the rates of separation allowance payable to the dependents of private soldiers, non-commissioned officers, first-class warrant officers, and lieutenants, serving with the Canadian Expeditionary Force, effective September 1, 1918, as follows:

1. Dependents of private soldiers and non-commissioned officers from $25.00 to $30.00 per month.
2. Dependents of first-class warrant officers, from $30.00 to $35.00 per month.
3. Dependents of lieutenants from $30.00 to $40.00 per month.

As the majority of the November cheques had already been printed before the order-in-Council was passed, it is not possible to include the adjustment in this month's issue, but the amount due on account of these increased rates for September,

October and November will be included in the issue of December cheques.

The distribution of December cheques will be made from militia headquarters as well as by unit paymasters by the 15th of December.

Where the dependents of a soldier are receiving their separation allowance from the unit paymaster, instead of from Ottawa, the adjustment will be made by the unit paymaster and not from Ottawa.

Those ladies wishing to save money on their fall hats will do well to visit Karns' on Saturday.

ENEMY CONTINUES TO GAS CIVILIANS

Despite the Hypocritical Protestations, the Armies Destroy as They Go

Washington, D.C., Nov. 8.—German forces in their retreat from Belgium are bombarding defenceless towns, using especially, gas shells, and devastating the countryside, according to an eye-witness account made public to-day by the Belgian Legation.

"The Belgian government has been informed," said the statement, "by a reliable eye-witness, who follows closely the operations of the Belgian front, that at the very moment that the German government has announced her protest against inhuman acts and while Germany offers to stop aerial bombardments in the interest of the civil population of the occupied territory, the Germans have bombarded the villages and towns which they were obliged to abandon during their retreat; they have used especially gas shells for this purpose."

"Indescribably heartrending scenes have occurred, the unfortunate population having no gas masks or means of protection against these death-spreading fumes. A Belgian soldier entering Wyngthem, his home town, found his wife dying and his little daughter dead, victims of the poison gas, and his home a heap of ruins. The country all around Ghent, the rich and beautiful cultivated fields and pastures, the picturesque villages of Hansbeke, Landchem, Nevelde, Laethem, Saint Martin, Tronchiennes present a horrible sight of devastation and havoc. Not a church was spared from destruction."

"Among the civilian population aiding in the collars there have been a great many deaths from gas, 27 in the village of Hansbeke alone. A portion of the population who had fled from their homes during the fighting and bombardment found on their return mere ruins and debris—trees had been cut down, houses ransacked, furniture smashed to pieces, fields devastated."

"From these facts one may appreciate how hypocritical are the humanitarian propositions and protestations of the German government."

PERILS OF KITE FLYING

While flying a kite at Port Stanley recently, little Willie Oliver was badly burned through the string of his kite crossing a hydro wire. It is assumed the cord was wet.

BRAVE MEN OF EVERY NATION

Two war honors recently conferred for conspicuous valor have been won by Pte. Ben. Simcoo, D.C.M., a Rama Indian whose tribal name is Waydahsun (meaning Sunrise), and Sing Kee, D.S.O., a New York-born Chinaman.

Put a few drops on a touchy corn, then lift corn out with fingers

Your high heels have put corns on your toes and calluses on the bottom of your feet, but why care now?

For a few cents you can get a quarter ounce of the magic drug frezons recently discovered by a Cincinnati genius.

Apply a few drops upon a tender aching corn and instantly, yes immediately, all sciences disappears and shortly you will find the corn so loose that you lift it out, root and all, with the finzera.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying frezons or afterwards it doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet just seem to shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical. It is a compound made from ether says a well known druggist here.

"I am just back from Bullcourt, where it was thought impossible to cross the German barbed wire. I was right close to the trench among the Lowland divisions, the H.L.L., the K.O.S.B., and the Scottish Rifles.

"I wish you could see the men yonder. We have the bravest men the world has ever known. We are fighting a false religion. God has asked us to destroy it, and we must not fail in our daily duty.

"I asked a German prisoner 'What is your religion?' 'whom do you worship?' He said 'The Kaiser and the Hohenzollern family.'

"I never felt more confident of absolute and complete victory than I do now." This was too much for the congregation, which broke into loud cheers.

"I wish you could see the men yonder. We have the bravest men the world has ever known. We are fighting a false religion. God has asked us to destroy it, and we must not fail in our daily duty.

Music and Drama

The Brant and the Rex theatres re-opened last night after a closed period of nearly four weeks during the duration of the influenza epidemic. Both theatres drew fairly large audiences when it is considered that a large portion of the public are still careful to avoid public gatherings of any kind. At the Brant, the principal attraction is the daily Marguerite Clark in her latest production "Out of a Clear Sky" with its scene laid in modern Belgium. The winsome little star is seen at the height of her ability, and is given excellent support by a strong cast. A special Victory Loan film is an added attraction combining sound, wholesome patriotic propaganda with popular entertainment. The latest episode of the mystery serial "The House of Hate" featuring Pearl White and Antonio Moreno is also shown, as is a clever Mack Sennett comedy.

At the Rex, talented Dorothy Dalton is seen in a timely war drama "Vice La France," a picture which portrays graphically the sacrifices to which the women of that country are inspired by their patriotism. The role which Miss Dalton portrays is one peculiarly suited to her abilities. Charlie Chaplin is seen in one of his uproarious comedies, and a special Victory Loan picture is also shown.

The first of next week Manager Moule has secured for the Brant, D. Griffith's second Arctur production "The Great Love," a stirring war drama in which the nobility of England are seen. The cast is practically the same as that which appeared in "Hearts of the World," with the addition of Henry B. Walt, the immortal star of "The Birth of a Nation."

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason. DISORGANIZED.

The world's upset and out of plumb, all system has been shivered; the goods we ordered do not come, and ne'er will be delivered; but it's no use to paw the ground, to rend your hair and tear it, until a remedy is found. Just simply grin and bear it. The price of everything is high, the outlook is distressing; the hens won't lay the cows go dry, and all our needs are pressing. Perhaps your neighbor has a grinch, but you should never share it; rise whistling from your downy couch, and simply grin and bear it. The stores are full of awkward clerks, and all their stunts are botches; the honey-handed farmer brooks repairing clocks and watches; the girls are at their brother's jobs—statistics all declare it—but don't repine and hand out sobs; just wink and grin and bear it. We all are doing what we can to keep the home fires burning and grandpa washes pot and pan, and uncle does the churning; unwanted tasks upon us tossed, we take the yoke and wear it, and if our efforts seem a treat, why, comrades, grin and bear it.
