Town Council Meets

Passes Bill Authorizing $22,000 Additional for New School Building

On Friday evening of last week a special meeting of the Council was held with Mayor Sutherland and all the Councilors present except Coun. Nowlan, who was detained by illness.

The bills of the Returning Officers and Poll Clerks at the recent Civic Elections were ordered paid as was also a bill for car-hire from Policeman Davis, of Kentville, incurred in assisting Policeman Crowell recently.

The Clerk presented the Assessment Roll duly certified and also a statement of the doings of the Appeal Court. On motion the Assessment was regularly passed.

It was decided to purchase a new safe for the town office, and the Finance Committee, was instructed to negotiate the purchase.

The following resolution was passed and ordered to be sent to the Provincial Government:

WHEREAS, the Town of Wolfville contributes annually one tenth of one per cent. of its assessment value, which in the year 1921 amounted to $762.39, to the Provincial Road Fund for the construction and maintenance of public highways in the rural municipalities of the Province of Nova Scotia.

WHEREAS, no provision is made in the Public Highways Act for the expenditure of any of these moneys on the streets of incorporated towns.

WHEREAS, the Town of Wolfville is so situated that two and one half miles of its main street forms part of the trunk line from Yarmouth to Halifax:

WHEREAS, the Town of Wolfville in 1911 and 1915 constructed through the central part of the town on the trunk line two and one quarter miles of permanent tar bound macadam road at an expenditure of $25,000.00, leaving one quarter mile of said main highway without permanent improvements.

WHEREAS, the cost of construction for said one quarter mile and maintenance of permanent street for said two and one quarter miles would be excessive, owing to traffic, tourist and otherwise wear and tear.

WHEREAS, said Town of Wolfville receives no revenue from motor vehicles, license or Highway tax, which are paid directly to the Provincial Government.

WHEREAS, the said Town of Wolfville is unable financially, without assistance from the Provincial Government, to construct and maintain a permanent highway throughout said one quarter mile, and to keep in repair the said two and one quarter miles of permanent highway now constructed.

WHEREAS, the Town of Wolfville with certain other incorporated Towns, having portions of trunk lines within its limits, considers it in the best interests of the public that the Provincial Government assist the incorporated towns so situated, by appropriating certain sums for satisfactory construction and maintenance of said trunk lines.

WHEREAS, the Town of Wolfville, with other incorporated Towns, considers the present expenditures of such moneys as derived under and by virtue of the Public Highways Act and Motor Vehicle Act, is unjust and inequitable on the grounds that all said moneys are spent on the highways in the rural municipalities.

WHEREAS, the Town of Wolfville, request the Provincial Government to make an appropriation for expenditure on the main trunk lines within incorporated Towns, such appropriation to be based on the number of miles of trunk line within the towns so affected.

A draft of the bill providing for the borrowing of an additional sum of $22,000 to complete the amount necessary for the building of the New School building was read and discussed. The bill was referred back to the solicitor for correction before being presented to the Legislature.

At a meeting held on Monday evening the amended bill was presented and a motion was passed approving of the same and ordering it to be sent to the county representative for presentation to the Legislature.

ACADIA ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION RECEPTION

The Executive Committee of the Alumnae Association of Acadia Seminary held a reception in Alumnae Hall, Friday evening March the tenth, to which all former students of the Seminary residing in town, the senior class and faculty of Acadia Seminary, were invited. One hundred and fifty invitations were issued and nearly one hundred accepted and were present.

The newly elected President, Miss Eva Andrews, in a short address, graciously welcomed the guests of the evening, after which an excellent programme, under the direction of Mrs. Avery deWitt, was presented. This included guessing contests, which taxed the ingenuity of those taking part and caused much merriment.

Hearty applause announced the arrival of Dr. DeWolfe, the popular principal, who upon being asked to address the gathering, responded in his usual happy manner.

A motion was unanimously passed that a message of love and greeting be sent to Mrs. Manning, who is one of the oldest graduates of the Seminary and greatly esteemed by all.

After a social hour, during which time refreshments were served, all joined hands and sang Auld Lang Syne, thus bringing to a close an evening long to be remembered by all present.

A CONSPICUOUS OPPORTUNITY

The visit of Dr. Campbell Morgan and his helpers for six days series of uplifting meetings in the religious life of our people all over the Maritime Provinces, which is to be held in New Glasgow, April 1-6 in the Itzitz Theatre and under the care of the Churches of the Town, throws open to every one that is looking for the bigger things of the Kingdom of God a fresh opportunity for vision and fellowship. Dr. Morgan is one of the most conspicuous exponents of the content of modern Christianity and its application to human life and the Committee of Ministers and Laymen having the matter in hand are throwing open a broad invitation to any one who may wish to come.

Arrangements are being made with the Hotels in New Glasgow and plans for housing any who may wish to come in some of the homes of the town, for entertainment on what is known as "The Harvard Plan" (which provides room with bed and breakfast—allowing the visitor to make use of the first class restaurants for the noon and evening meals).

A special PLACING COMMITTEE has been appointed and anyone wishing accommodation can communicate with the Committee. The Committee will do its best to meet the wishes of those who come in, arranging best accommodation at moderate cost.

The following are the names of the Placing Committee and any letter addressed to any one of them will have best attention.

Four years' fight in the law courts ended in victory for Francis Mackay, who was pilot on the death ship 'Mont Blanc' in Halifax harbour on December 6, 1917, and whose license was withheld from him following investigation into the collision between that steamer and the steamer 'Imo' which resulted in the fatal explosion on that morning, has been reinstated. The pilot, after fighting his case for four years in the courts, is naturally gratified at the outcome and is being congratulated by his friends on his success.

Successful Luncheon

Held by Board of Trade—Interesting Address by Prof. Blair

The luncheon held under the auspices of the Wolfville Board of Trade at the Parish Hall, on Tuesday evening proved to be most successful. Over forty representative citizens were present and had a pleasant social time, while partaking of the excellent luncheon served by Mr. E. C. H. Young.

When ample justice had been done to the eatables, President H. E. Woodman, on behalf of the Board of Trade, gave all a hearty welcome. He then introduced Mayor Sutherland, who in a brief address pointed out the various ways a live Board of Trade could do for Wolfville what the Council could do more, and do it better with the effective backing of some body of the citizens as the Board of Trade aspired to become.

The chairman then introduced the speaker of the evening, Prof. W. Saxby Blair, of the Experimental Station, Kentville, who gave a most interesting and helpful address on the subject, "Education with reference to municipal development". He stated that there were three things that entered in to the development and prosperity of a country. The first was the country's natural resources and the speaker showed how rich Nova Scotia was in natural resources comprising mines, forests, fisheries, fertile lands, etc. The second contributor to the country's prosperity is the natural ability of its people, and Prof. Blair's opinion was that no where was the natural ability of the people greater than in Nova Scotia. Both our natural resources and natural ability are unchangeable by legislation or otherwise.

The acquired ability of the people the speaker stated to be the third contributing factor to the country's or town's prosperity, and he praised the work of the common school as being the greatest aid to this acquired ability. He thought more attention should be given to the common schools of our country. He then went on to show how the Board of Trade by meeting together and discussing the affairs of a town could educate public opinion in all matters of vital importance to the town. It is only by working together in harmony that the stability of a town can be maintained.

Mr. Horton W. Phinney, in moving a vote of thanks to the speaker, complimented the Board of Trade on its first luncheon and wished it success in the carrying out of the important projects awaiting its concerted action. Mr. J. E. Hales in a few words seconded the motion.

After a brief acknowledgement by Prof. Blair, the chairman announced that it was the intention of the Board to have several more such gatherings in addition to their regular meetings, and hoped that a lively interest in the Board of Trade might be aroused, followed by a larger attendance at its meetings.

Academy Dramatic Club

Give Splendid Entertainment at Opera House

The entertainment given by the Academy Dramatic Club at the Opera House on Monday evening was deserving of a much larger audience than that which greeted the performers. Two short plays were given under the direction of Miss Smallman and Miss Whidden of the Seminary faculty. All the parts were exceedingly well taken. In the first play, "Sham", which was a social satire, the cast was as follows:

The Thief Raymond Johnson
The Reporter Miss Helen Starr
The Housemaid Charles Allaby
The other play was called "Playgoers" and the cast was:

The Mistress, Mrs. Dorington Miss Gertrude Rogers
The Master, Mr. Dorington Herman Spinney
The Parolmaid, Miss Beechcroft Harold MacLachlan
The Cook, Mrs. Hackett Fred Crossman
The Useful Maid, Trinder, Stanley Bonney Miss Worringham
The Kitchenmaid, Miss Platch Leon Wright

The Odd Man, Mr. Gale, Wallace Forgye
Between the plays there were several specialties including a clever invisible juggling feat by R. Webber; violin solo by Miss Myra Alcorn; Monologue by D. D. Cameron; Bell solo by Harold MacLachlan; and vocal solo by Miss Evelyn Lonsdale. The Seminary Orchestra under the direction of Miss Langley, rendered several selections which were greatly enjoyed.

BOYS' WORK NOTES

The game of Basketball for the championship of the Wolfville Scouts and the Tingley cup was played at the Memorial Gymnasium on Monday evening. The game was fast and interesting and the boys played a clean game throughout. The players were:

Methodists—J. Johnson, J. Williams, Walsh, R. Johnson, G. Schofield, Jones, H. Boates, A. Woodman.
Live Wires (Tabernacle)—J. Morine, H. Moran, H. O'Brien, F. Weatherbe, G. Spence, G. Rafuse, A. O'Brien.

Referee—Mr. T. Webb.
The score was 22 - 10 in favor of the Methodists who played a better combination. The Live Wires were not in such good practice as their opponents, as hockey had occupied most of their attention through the winter but they are to be congratulated on the clean way in which they played a losing game.

The cup was presented by the Rev. Douglas Hemmeon who stated that it must be won 2 years in succession or 3 years altogether to become the property of any one patrol. Points in competition are as follows:

Methodists 31; No. 3 Baptists, 28; No. 1 Anglican, 24; Presbyterians, 17; No. 1 Baptists, 11; No. 4 Tabernacle, 9; No. 2 Anglican, 8; No. 2 Baptists, 7; The patrol having the best attendance in "All 3" for month of March will build a canoe for their own use.

WANT WHEAT BOARD RESTORED

Next week a delegation, from the Canadian Council of Agriculture, will wait on Premier King to request the restoration of the Wheat Board. The photograph shows C. Rice-Jones, who is a member of the delegation.

On Monday evening, several of those interested in Wireless, met at the new School Building to form a Radio Club for Wolfville and vicinity, the chief aim of which is to advance Wireless along Amateur lines.

At eight o'clock, Principal Silve, who had kindly consented to act as Chairman, opened the meeting and in a few well chosen words outlined the plan of action and gave some possible results that might be expected by the organization of the club.

The following officers were then elected: Hon. President—Prof. F. R. Haley. President—Leander Thurber. Sec.-Treas.—W. B. Davidson.

Mr. Thurber then took the chair and some considerable time was spent in discussion along various lines including Membership Fees, Rules and Regulations, Order of Meetings, etc., but on account of there being such a small gathering, owing to other engagements, the most of this business was left over till next meeting, when a full attendance is requested.

The School Board has very generously loaned a room in the new School Building to the Club for its meetings, and the next meeting will be held on Monday evening, March 20, at quarter to eight. Everybody interested please be on hand at the appointed hour.

The Acadia Girls' basket ball team played a return game with the Dalhousie Girls at Halifax last Friday evening, the result being a win for Dalhousie by the close score of 17 to 16. The game was a regular thriller from start to finish and it was anybody's battle until the final whistle. It was ding-dong all the way, and first one fair sharpshooter and then another would make a tally for her side. The Acadia girls were out to get revenge for the last time they met Dalhousie, on which occasion they went down to defeat by one point, and according to the score, they came very near it. However, the Halifax girls were just a little too good for them; in fact, just one point too good. Isabel Murray played great ball for Acadia, and Madeline Mader was good for Dalhousie. The lineup:

Acadia—Mary Brown, M. MacPherson, Isabel Murray, H. Archibald, R. Hennigar, and I. McPhail.
Dalhousie—Marion Clarke, Lillian Rundle, May Linden, Madeline Mader, Eva Mader, and Miss Archibald.

CLINIC ITEMS
Dental Clinic at Kentville Academy, Friday, March 17. "Spare the brush and spoil the teeth."
Tuberculosis Clinic at Clinic Room, Weaver Block, Kentville, Friday, March 24, commencing at 2 p.m. A specialist from Nova Scotia Sanatorium in attendance.

One of the chief needs for recovery from tuberculosis is that a patient shall spend his days and if possible his nights too, out in the open air. In no room be it ever so well ventilated, can you take the cure so profitably as out of doors. It is free constantly moving air that has the best effect. Cold, fresh air quickens all the healthy processes of the body better than any tonic you can swallow. To this end you should make every effort to have a sleeping porch which will be for you a living out porch.—Dr. A. F. Miller and Mrs. J. Mortimer in "The War on Tuberculosis."

Mr. C. D. Koppel informs us that he had a short talk by phone on Wednesday with a party in New York. He states that he could hear the party very clearly.

LITERARY NOTES

The grave Librarian gasped when she opened the last parcel from McClelland & Stewart. A new, a very new, Canadian novel, copyright 1922, with a picture on the jacket showing a masked man on horseback pointing a revolver at an ingenuous and not ungraceful youth standing in approved fashion with his hands up! The title of the book is "Rangy Pete", and the author is Guy Morton.

This is Mr. Morton's first novel, though he has had some good work for several years as a writer of articles and short stories. He is now on the staff of the Toronto Mail-Empire. "Rangy Pete" is a western story, of course, but we should remember that the west, especially the Canadian west, is glorious. Pete is a strong son of nature, unable to do a mean thing, but able to rescue a distressed damsel and care for her with as great a chivalry as though he were a knight of King Arthur's court, able to fire a gun if need be, able to be in love as every hero of a novel should be, and able to be loyal and true. The book is perfectly clean. After we have cataloged it and placed it on the shelf labelled "New Books" there may be a few who will question its right to be in that room where those gather who have elected for Learning's sake "to scorn delights and live laborious days", but there will be many who will enjoy an hour with it, and return with revived energy to their text books.

"Twin Tales: Are All Men Alike: The Lost Titan" is the title of a book by Arthur Stringer. In the first story the interest centres about the heroine, a rich girl in chronic revolt against the social fetters that bind her. It is somewhat difficult to like her; she is charming, of course, and wholesome in a way, but she savors too much of a certain type of woman meet outside of books.—the girl a little too sure of herself, a little too unmindful of other people's claims upon this planet. She does too much mischief. Finally, because she must not be beaten in anything she undertakes she pays for her folly in a nasty automobile accident and almost kills her lover. The courageous fellow demands that she marry him, as atonement, and this she promises to do.

"The Lost Titan" is a tale of a different type. The hero is the conventional artist fellow without a trace of sentimentality or mawkishness. There is nothing unusual about him. You meet his kind often in books than in real life, but you like him wherever you find him. More over, his talk about painting quickens one's artistic pulses. The three women in the story are most unusual. The girl is sheer loveliness, impersonal and flawless; the two maiden aunts are compounds of Miriam the sister of Moses, the Hebrew Jael, the three Fates and Virgil's Tisiphone. In "The Lost Titan" surely Arthur Stringer has achieved a Canadian masterpiece.

I have also a volume of new Canadian verse, "A Garden by the Sea and Other Poems" by L. A. Lefevre. It is an attractively bound little volume, very suitable for a gift book. There are some crudities in the verse, but the author is a real poet with a plenteous gift for admiration and with a fine rhythmic sense. Why will not patriotic Canadians make complete collections of Canadian poetry? It will give distinction to your home library. The writer of this review will gladly furnish lists for private collectors.

A TOWN'S GROWTH

In every community and in every state can be found towns that are continually forging ahead, while others in the same vicinity remain practically at a stand still and accomplish nothing in a way of improvement or advancement. In every case the fault can be found to rest, not with the town, but with the people themselves.

The reason why some towns grow is because they have men in them with push and energy who are not afraid to spend their time, energy and money in anything that will boom and benefit the town. They have confidence enough in their town to erect substantial and modern buildings and residences and work for public improvement in the same order. They organize stock companies and establish factories, induce industrial enterprises to locate and use every means to further the best interests of the town. Their work is never considered finished and the accomplishment of one thing is only an incentive to another.

PRINCE OF WALES SEES WONDER PAGESANT

By Sir Percival Phillips
Bharatpur, India.

Bharatpur will linger in our memory as a tranquil little state where elephants and motor-cars mingle amicably in the maharajah's capital. Also because of the "night review" which surprised and fascinated the Prince of Wales and the guests bidden to meet him there.

It is said that the youthful ruler of Bharatpur spent sixteen lakhs of rupees in preparing his two days' festivities in honour of the Prince. He bought new cars, spread bright colors over the city, and built a hill in the middle of a plain that his royal visitor might better see a pageant by electric light. Whatever the cost, he succeeded in producing the finest spectacle of the kind I have ever witnessed.

He built a hill and put a carpeted pavilion on the summit. It was carpeted and lit by shaded lamps concealed between two ceiling cloths. The guests were shown up a sloping footway banked with plants to arm-chairs facing the darkened plain. The prince and the maharajah sat in a smaller and lower pavilion in front, which did not obscure the open-air "stage".

An elephant lumbered gravely into view, clad in gorgeous gold and colored trappings. As he moved in time to the lively music other elephants emerged from the darkness behind him and passed across the "stage". You cannot imagine the beauty of the effect produced by this animated, well-spaced trieze as it unfolded itself between the clean-cut edges of the zone of light. Each animal stood out in sharpest relief, the bright hues of its heavy mantle so distinct that it seemed possible to trace the very pattern, and it kept so perfectly in its appointed place that one could believe that the elephant, not the mahout, was the directing intelligence.

Surprise followed surprise. Dancing horses gave way to more elephants drawing quaint and cumbersome vehicles decked in crimson silk; a tiny boy drove past in a miniature dog-cart drawn by two perfectly docile black backs; scarlet-coated infantry—aligned so perfectly that involuntarily the spectators applauded them again and again—gave way to still more elephants drawing antiquated field-guns with an air of boredom; then camels, sixteen abreast, mincing across the "stage" with necks arched disdainfully; then lancers, and Boy Scouts, and old-time Rajput warriors with drawn swords, and horsemen standing in their saddles as they rode by with the ease and grace of Household Cavalry.

It was really a super-military tournament rendered far more effective than any show at Olympia by reason of the strangely beautiful setting. The musical ride is a familiar display, but London has never seen it performed in and out of innumerable lamps which carpet the earth in a bewildering design while the horsemen brandish flaming torches as they thread the maze to the jilt of a traditional cavalry air.

Soldier signallers came out of the darkness with their flags and waved to the prince a grace of message of good will. A company of youths chanted a strangely haunting Indian air with pauses while the native band played it over and over. Finally when our eyes were aching with the beauty and splendor of it all, the "stage" vanished as though real magic had been done, the distant field blazed again with the prince's symbol, and the united bands played the royal anthem. An unsurpassable spectacle.—London Daily Express.

Look Up Its History

When you buy fire insurance, shop around a bit—look up the history of the companies that write it—investigate their reputation.

You will find that the Hartford Fire Insurance Company—represented by this Agency—has been increasing its service consistently since 1810. That is certainly a convincing record.

SPRING SUITS

(Boston paper)

Spring suits are making their appearance and fine tweed costumes that formerly lived a life on the links or in the country, are trotting gayly about town during the shopping hours and at tea time in the fashionable haunts.

One suit that follows the straightest of courses chooses two tone tweed in tan, violet, blue or brown and fashions itself into a simple straight skirt with a hip-length jacket. The jacket is seamed to give a slightly fitted effect, but the lines are unbroken by any belt. One button closing and horizontal pockets are noticeable features.

Another model to please the most fastidious melosa tweed with a soft cheviot finish in Copenhagen, tan, green or tomato red, with braid binding in harmonizing color. There is also a box coat model with one button finish and the notched mannish revers, cuffs and flaps pockets are nicely bound with the braid. The skirt, like all smart ones this season, is comfortably narrow and not too short.

If you must have a belt on your suit you will welcome an attractive little model in a brand-new fabric called Spongene, a light weight material with an sponge weave. One may have the choice of blue, henna or cobweb taupe. The jacket shows notched revers, so smart on all the strictly tailored garments this season and the front is buttoned with three bone buttons. The slim belt is of self-material and is buckled by a self covered buckle.

The sports costumes with cape attached are decidedly new this season and promise to be very popular during the coming month.

The Ottawa Citizen cites the decrease in offences against the Ontario Temperance Act, reported by the Chief of Police in Toronto, as added evidence that prohibition can be enforced. Prosecutions in 1921 were reduced to 602, as compared with 1,106 in 1920. The cost of enforcing the Act, since 1918, according to Attorney-General Raney, has been more than covered by the revenue received from fines and confiscation. As the private profit is wiped out, illicit trading in liquor is on the wane in Ontario. "Public opinion in this Province," says the Citizen, "is quite definitely set towards the kind of liberty that is worth striving for: freedom from an evil influence."

"No three words are sweeter than 'enclosed find check.' And perhaps we don't love to read them."

"FLU" NEARLY KILLED HER

"I was so weak that I had lost interest in everything."

Because Mrs. McGregor let herself become run down, read what happened. "Like a great many other people who got the 'flu' a few years ago," she writes, "it left me in a weakened, run down condition. Nothing seemed to bring back my old strength and energy. I was tired all the time. I had no appetite. I had dull pains all over my body. I suffered agony with headaches. I was despondent and took no interest in anything. I was nervous. I was irritable and was always looking for slights. I was losing weight. I was in such a nervous, weakened, run down condition, that last spring I got pneumonia. My family didn't think I would live and the doctor told me afterwards that it was only because I had a strong heart that I managed to pull through. By the time I was out of danger, I was so weak and tired that I had lost interest in everything. I tried several preparations to build me up but none of them did me any good. One day a friend who had been very ill called in to see me, looking the picture of health. I asked her what she had been doing with herself to look so well and fat. She said that Carnol had done wonders for her and advised me to try it. As the evidence of what Carnol had done for my friend could not be denied, I decided to follow her advice. Today I think Carnol the most wonderful preparation in the world. It has made me a happy, healthy, contented woman."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 8-122

TWO SENATORS APPOINTED

OTTAWA, March 12.—F. F. Pardee, former Liberal member of Parliament for West Lampton, Ont., and Gustave Boyer, re-elected on December 6 last as member for Vaudreuil-Soulanges riding of Quebec, have been summoned to the Senate, it was officially announced tonight.

Senator Pardee fills the vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator Milne, and Senator Boyer that created by the death of the late Senator Arthur Boyer. These two appointments bring the Senate representatives to full strength and reduce the Conservative majority in the Senate by two, the late Senator Milne having been appointed by the Borden Government, while the late Senator Boyer was a Liberal.

TALKS ADVERTISING TO BUSINESS MEN

Addressing a gathering of business men, a man familiar with the retail business said on the subject of advertising:

"Of course, I am interested in advertising as any 'live wire' is, and I am a 'live wire'. I admit it. You don't have to prove it (laughter), and I want every other man to be a live wire in his business. How can the advertising line help you and help your business? A man who has a business and does not advertise, confesses by his non-advertising, either that he has nothing which he considers worth advertising, or that he does not fully appreciate the true worth of advertising."

"Now, what is advertising? Merely telling people that is all. There are several ways of disseminating information you know. Telephone, telegram, a woman; and various other ways. The printer comes along with his paper to tell people. In olden times a man used to go about town ringing a bell. He would take out the advertisements and news of the town and read them, but he could not make many trips in a day to many places. Advertising came with the printed word, to cover the wide territory, telling the same story to a great group at the same time."

BRITISH ARMY ESTIMATES CUT

LONDON, March 13.—The British Army estimates for the coming year total 62,300,000 pounds sterling as compared to 93,714,000 last year, it was announced in the House of Commons this afternoon.

The naval estimates total 64,883,700 pounds sterling.

Why do not our merchants organize a general bargain day or a "dollar day"? In dull times the merchants of progressive communities put on these sales to assist in dispelling stagnation and getting things moving. Are our merchants content to wear out the seats of their pants squatting around "waiting for something to turn up," like Micawber? In days gone by they were regarded as progressive; why not continue to deserve the name. Times are dull, true; but why not organize a few cheap sales and get off the shelves the tag-ends, that will do poor people a service instead of leaving them to mice and moths.—Bridgewater Bulletin.

Going to the movie costs the American people about $1,000,000,000 a year, not counting the carriages and the price of the sodas. Times may be hard, but it is evident, says The Boston Transcript, that it is still possible to pay for the necessities of life.

GARDENING

(Detroit Free Press)
 Right now I'd like to dig and hoe, But all my ground is deep with snow.

I'd like to work for hours and hours About my various shrubs and flowers.

I think today 't would be immense To make a bed along the fence.

But as I've said, the ground is hard And gardening to-day is barred.

I wonder when the winter's past, If the desire to dig will last.

When Springtime thaws the ground again, Will I be keen for gardening then?

Because I can't I want to work, But when I must, I want to shirk.

Once upon a time a man had a furnace which was not heating his home to a very great degree of satisfaction. Made in Canada

In the spring of 1913 we made our first shipment of fertilizer from this plant. At that time several of our travelling men reported to us that local agents were doubtful about being able to sell a fertilizer other than imported. They had been so accustomed to buying imported fertilizer that they did not feel that any which was not imported could be up to the standard of what they had used for many years previous.

In order to overcome this and to impress upon our trade that a fertilizer made in Canada was just as good in every particular as that imported, we adopted the phrase, "Made at Windsor, N. S.," which we have used on all our advertising pamphlets and booklets and have let the results which the users of our fertilizer obtained speak for themselves.

The value of fertilizer is not fixed by what the maker says about it in his advertisements but it is sold on its contents of plant food represented by the analysis. Almost every user of fertilizer knows what a 4-8-4 a 4-6-10 or a 5-8-7 are and just what these expressions mean. Government inspectors during the selling season take samples of fertilizer as offered for sale which samples are analyzed by the chemists at Ottawa and the results published in an annual report issued by that department. These reports are circulated everywhere fertilizer is used and every farmer and dealer can compare the analysis with the analysis the manufacturer guarantees.

The other method of determining how the fertilizer stands is by the actual results which the user gets from his crop. This is the final test but the results have shown the high analysis fertilizer almost invariably gives the best results and we have letters from many of our customers who have used our fertilizer for the past ten years, and we are selling to the same customers year after year.

Both the reports of analysis issued by the Department at Ottawa and the actual results obtained by the users of our fertilizer indicate that it is up to the standard in every particular and equal in every way to any imported fertilizer.

Just at this time we are calling this phase of the fertilizer situation to users and dealers because there is a general campaign being carried on by the Canadian Reconstruction Association to develop the sale of "Made in Canada" goods. By doing this the condition of unemployment will be relieved and everyone knows how serious is this matter of unemployment.

The official statistics ending for 1920 show that during that year the total amount of imported goods used in Canada amounted to upwards of one billion dollars and of this over eight hundred million came from the United States.

Now with unemployment so serious everyone before buying imported goods of any kind should be certain that he cannot buy the same goods equal in quality and equal in price made here. It is of course not possible to stop entirely the use of imported goods as there are numerous things which are not made here, there are others which on account of especial circumstances are made at other points at a lower price and sometimes of better quality, but the product that we sell is equal in price and in quality to any similar brand imported and there is no necessity from the standpoint of price or quality of anyone buying any fertilizer other than those made in Canada.

This year we are making up the various brands running in quality from those containing 1 per cent. of Ammonia to as high as 5 per cent. Ammonia and from 1 per cent. Potash to 1 per cent. Potash and we have a variety of grades to suit all crops and conditions. All our brands are made from the best materials, properly mixed, fine and dry and it will run in the planter and satisfactory in every way.

The results of the analysis of our different brands can be found in official government reports covering the past ten years and they will be found to be up to the guarantee all along the line.

We have local agents in most towns and our travelling men cover the various territories and we are glad to send our prices and terms to anyone writing us direct.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE

During the past week a large number of subscription accounts have been sent out from this office and in a good many cases these have met with a prompt payment. We beg to extend our thanks to those who have handed in the amounts due and to ask that those who have so far failed to respond to do likewise with the least possible delay. The expense of publishing such a newspaper as THE ACADIAN aims to be in these times of high prices is great and the margin of profit so narrow as to require that all the income for subscriptions, etc. should be in our hands and available for use. The policy of the present publishers is to conduct THE ACADIAN on sound business principles and we ask and expect a cheerful co-operation on the part of our patrons. We aim to pay our bills promptly and must ask those who patronize us to do the same.

It has been suggested by one of our leading business men that it would be a very wise proceeding for the Finance Committee to arrange for a conference with representative citizens before the estimates for the current year are finally made up. THE ACADIAN approves of the suggestion and passes it along for the consideration of the powers that be. After all it must be remembered it is the people's money that is to be expended and while ratepayers may have the greatest confidence in the ability and wisdom of those with whom they have entrusted the conduct of the town's affairs, they might very naturally desire to give expression to their opinion regarding the expenditures that are to be made. It is scarcely possible that such a conference as has been suggested could fail to be of value to community interests and at any rate could do no possible harm. The coming summer should be an important one in the affairs of our town and co-operation on the part of all interested in the direction of a wise and progressive policy of handling civic matters is bound to produce beneficial results.

Both our federal and provincial governments, now in session, profess the intention of pursuing strict economy in the administration of public affairs. It is certainly high time for the inauguration of such a course and the people will gladly support our rulers in an honest endeavour to put it into operation. There is, however, a vast difference between being economical and penurious. If economy in public affairs is to be secured as the result of a deterioration of the public service it will scarcely satisfy the people. Real economy—such as the people would like to see—would include the lowest possible minimum in the cost of government. Today it costs entirely too much to carry on the government of the country. If our legislators are consistent they will take immediate action along this line. A step in this direction that would meet with public approval would be the reduction of the so-called parliamentary indemnity to the former figure by both the Dominion and local houses, the cutting out of the legislative council and the reduction of the representatives in the legislature from two to one for each county. This with the reduction of departmental expenses and the honest expenditure of public funds would permit of the necessary outlay for every required public service without in any way imposing an undue burden upon the people.

A gentleman writing to the paper says that "if people would think a little more and talk a little less work a little more and kick a little less, it might be possible for them to feel that this is the best of all possible worlds." Well, perhaps the gentleman is right. But he's not practical. Human beings enjoy kicking. They feel better after enjoying a spell of kicking. Feeling better, they work better. Kicking is an inalienable right of every free citizen. Let 'em kick, brother! But we do wish there was a little more downright thinking, inside the skull.

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY FOR 1922

After all, the fellow who says "I should worry" has more sense than the chap who says "I do worry". What's the use of worrying anyhow? There are really only two things we can worry about, something we can't help and something we can help. There isn't any sense in worrying about what we can't help, and if we face something we can help then the best thing is to turn to an' help it as much as we can. We get further by using the brains we have to make things better than we do by weakening our brains by worrying about things and leaving them alone.

APPRECIATED

The following letter which was received by THE ACADIAN this week is from a former Wolfville boy who has made good in the big Canadian metropolis. Mr. Abbott is a son of Mr. G. W. Abbot, of 't' is town. He left Wolfville a good many years ago but still has a live interest in the affairs of his native town. THE ACADIAN thoroughly appreciates Mr. Abbott's kind words, which will stimulate us in our efforts to make our paper excel.

Dear Mr. Editor:—Enclosed please find my somewhat tardy subscription in liquidation of attached account, which should have been attended to long ago, but which I trust may still be of some little help in keeping things going.

I should like to re-echo the sentiments recently expressed in a letter you published, and signed "a new reader" as it fits in to a nicety with the view I have of the splendid showing you are making.

The Acadian is a distinct credit to the profession and I heartily congratulate you. Trusting all goes well, and with kind regards,

Very truly yours,

MEETING OF S. SCHOOL WORKERS

Miss Alice M. Harrison, of Moncton, Children's Division Secretary of the Maritime Religious Education Council addressed a meeting of Sunday School Workers representative of the Horton Division in the Baptist church on Thursday after noon.

Dr. Cutten presided over the opening exercises and introduced the visitor after Rev. G. W. Miller had offered prayer. Miss Harrison emphasized the importance of providing the best possible religious education and training for the children and especially mentioned the immense good that may be expected from the growing practice of mothers' meetings in convention with the Cradle Roll department. She showed the best methods which have proved effective in dealing with the primary and junior departments. Answering Rev. Mr. Hemmeon she hazarded the opinion that about a quarter of the Schools in the Maritime provinces adopted the graded lessons. Mrs. Ford read a paper on Story telling and Miss Harrison conducted a conference with the Primary and Junior teachers on various questions chief being, what was best incentive to regular preparation of lessons.

The Philathea Class entertained the delegates to a luncheon in the Church parlor at close of which Miss Harrison gave a splendid example of how to tell a story that grips.

FAIR PLAY

A certain Grocery Store in this town is now dabbling into the Ice Cream business therefore cutting into the Ice Cream Parlor who are trying to make up honest living. Would that Grocery store like it if we who are in the Ice Cream trade started in and sold Groceries? I personally do not think they would. They already sell chocolates and confectionery and the only item that we have to our selves is the Ice Cream and in all FAIRNESS I think they can leave that to us.

G. W. V. A. OBJECT TO GERMAN PICTURE

The following resolution was passed at a meeting of the Executive of the local G. W. V. A. on Wednesday:

WHEREAS it has come to the attention of the Wolfville Branch Great War Veterans Association of Canada, that a certain Motion Picture Film, entitled "Passion", of German origin and manufacture is being screened in the Province of Nova Scotia;

AND WHEREAS the mere fact of its origin is, in our opinion, sufficient to damn it in the eyes and minds of decent patriotic citizens of Canada;

AND WHEREAS we believe, and not without cause, that this Film is but the forerunner of a flood of Films "made in Germany";

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Wolfville Branch Great War Veterans Association of Canada express its strong disapproval of the importation of this or any other German made, owned or controlled Film and of the inaction of the Provincial Board of Censors in neglecting to bar the screening of this Film;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this Resolution be forwarded to the Provincial Command, all Branches of the Association in Nova Scotia, and the "the Veteran" for publication therein, with a request for cooperation in immediately securing all necessary action in the matter;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this Resolution be forwarded to the Honorable the Premier and all Members of the Legislative Assembly and to the Nova Scotia Board of Censors, for their information.

Passed at a Special Meeting of the Executive of the Wolfville Branch Great War Veterans Association of Canada, March 15, 1922.

Blow, March, with mighty winds away
 The outworn things of yesterday;
 Sweep through the soul, as through the earth,
 And bear afar the signs of death,
 Dead leaves, dead dreams and blighted hours;
 Clear hearts and fields for coming flowers!
 Blow, March, with great wings, to make room
 For life to bud and love to bloom!
 Take in your flight all wrongs regrets—
 Give place to hope's new violets.
 E. H. Kinney in Zion's Herald

In eight minutes over time play the Windsor hockey team defeated Thorburn at Amherst last night by the score of 5 to 4, thereby winning the championship of Nova Scotia.

Don't miss seeing "Conflict" at the Opera House, Monday and Tuesday, March 20-21. It is a marvel for thrills and adventure.

BILL TO CHANGE RULE OF THE ROAD

A bill to change the rule of the road from left to the right was introduced into the House of Assembly Wednesday, by Hon. H. H. Wickwire of Highways. This is the first step taken to bring Nova Scotia into line with the rest of the mainland of the North American Continent. While the bill itself is innocent enough in appearance, involving only the change of one word, "Left" to the word "Right" it is likely to be one of the most contentious and controversial bills introduced this season.

The bill as introduced does not refer to various changes which the amendment to the laws governing roads now involves but is introduced to establish the principle, so to speak, the other phases, relating to tramways, changes involved to the Motor Vehicles Act, and the time for the bill to be applied, will be discussed later. The date of its enforcement is left blank, presumably for a proclamation of the Governor in Council.

It is the purpose of the Highway Department to put the law into force at the time of the year when the traffic is least, and every precaution will be taken against accident, and for the careful instructions and information and reminder of the public. For instance it is proposed that motor cars will be provided, for a certain length of time with signs, "Turn to the right", and penalties to be exacted if cars fail to carry such signs. The signs will be provided by the Board. All Road superintendents will be provided with placards for cross roads and all turns where the change may effect traffic.

Mrs. T. S. Sanford very pleasantly entertained the Ladies' Bridge Club on Tuesday evening.
