LOCAL NEWS

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Black Fox Fur—Two valuable black fox furs, estimated to be worth about $300 each, were brought to Victoria by William Jewry, of the firm of Drury Taylor, of Dawson, who arrived on the Cottage City. The skins are very rare and extremely handsome.

Coverlan News—The Tyee aerial tramway closed down Saturday morning for repairs. The new wire for the line was strung and the old wire will be installed at once. During the installing of the wire it will be impossible for regular shipments of ore to be forwarded to Ladysmith.

For King Edward—The California Knights Templar are preparing a gift for King Edward in appreciation of the honor conferred upon them by his Majesty in sending a personal representative with the delegation of the highest officers of the Order of the Knights of the British Empire to attend the convocation at San Francisco. The souvenir consists of a volume of the history of the order especially bound and ornamented for the King. The covers are of California silver, hand worked and polished to a fine mirror. It is understood that a sawmill will shortly be built.

Island Progress—Gratifying reports of the progress being made developing the northern end of Vancouver Island are being received. Hardy bay promises especially to become a busy point. The provincial government has the cost of opening the wagon road between Hardy bay and Quatsino, and the latter is now open for business. A post office has been established and it is understood that a sawmill will shortly be built.

Salmon Galore—The steamer Bosworth, which arrived from the North yesterday morning, has a large quantity of great run of salmon. Rivers inlet canners being glutted, so that many fish had to be thrown overboard. The fish was only encountered at Rivers inlet, on the Skeena, the fish are a little scarce. The fishery is still in a heading south, for in Johnson strait they were extremely plentiful. Officers of the steamer state that the fish will be worked on the sea but could hardly make a step anywhere between now and then.

Alaskan Sub-Ports—Says the Washington correspondent of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer: "A report reached the treasury department today that the United States government is about to ask the department to establish one or more ports of entry in the Tana region, which is a large tract of land in the Yukon territory. No such application has been made to the department, however, and the officials were unable to say whether or not such a movement is on foot. The belief was expressed that the report is a publication in one of the Dawson newspapers."

Touring Logging Camps—Mr. John Murray, timber inspector, left by the steamer Danube for Fort Simpson. He is on a tour of inspection of the logging camps in the Yukon territory, and will visit all the logging camps situated on the coast from Portland canal to Burrard inlet.

Exploring Island—Mr. R. W. Rodda, the well-known mining engineer, accompanied by Messrs. Alvin Eberlyck and Leonard Frank, returned to Nanaimo on Sunday from a tour of inspection of the island, which is situated in the centre of the Strait of Juan de Fuca. Mr. Rodda spent several days at the property, and got a good view of the island. He is of the opinion that the island has a wonderful future before it. Messrs. Eberlyck and Nichols, the owners of the property, have put up a cable to the head of the island, and the cable is being used to transport the heavy machinery. Record Halibut Catch—The steamer New England, Captain Freeman, made a record on her last voyage for a quick fishing trip with satisfactory results. She has arrived at Vancouver with a catch of 110,000 pounds of halibut, which she took in about twelve hours fishing off Queen Spit, northern end of the Ross Channel.

Chilcotin Cattle—A Bella Coola correspondent reports that Messrs. Sunn and Johnson recently brought down from Chilcotin to Bella Coola some very fine cattle, which they dispose of at a good advantage. This indicates that the stock raising in the interior is making progress.

Rich Find in Yukon—A rich find has been made, says a Dawson dispatch, on the benches adjoining Clear creek bend, near the Skeena, near Mouth Point, recently located by John Sirodina, an Austrian, who has been mining on the creek for the past two years with his permanent habitation at Barlow.

Seeks Building Stone—Herbert Carmichael, provincial assayer, will leave for the Yukon territory, to view the lands of the Gulf with a view to developing the province. He is expected to be in the province by the end of the month.

Narrow Escape—Two Indian boys, W. Rudin and Donald Powell, of Metlakatla, narrowly escaped drowning in the Skeena, near Mouth Point, recently. They were on their way down from Metlakatla in a Columbia river boat, carrying dispatches to the telegraph office for Indian Agent Morrow. The boat being without ballast caught in a comparatively light squall. The boys managed to cling to the boat till rescued by two Japanese fishermen, who at some distance had fortunately witnessed the accident.

Off to the Front—Relief has come at last to the war correspondents who have been so long shut-up in Tokio. In a private letter to Mr. Church, Mr. Gordon Smith writes about the Emperor of China that he and the other foreign newspaper men have escaped from the Japanese capital, and are now in Shimoshima, where they will embark for the front. Mr. Smith is expected to be in the front by the end of the month.

Yukon Navigation—Word was received by the American press that the water in the upper Yukon river is still rising at the rate of an inch per day. On Wednesday last the water in the river opposite White Horse stood at 44 inches above mean level, and on Thursday last it stood at 45 inches. The river steamers are not now experiencing any difficulty in navigating the rapids between White Horse and Dawson.

Sees a Whale—A monster whale has made Elliott bay his play ground, and for two days past has been holding high feasts in a most approved manner, near the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. He swims about the bay as complacently as if he owned the whole district.

Girouard May Come to Canada

Rumored He Will Accept a Position With Grand Trunk Railway Company.

Sketch of His Remarkable Career—Was Born in Montreal in 1867.

In this country, upon which he has shed so much lustre, any turns in the career of Sir Percy Girouard are followed with interest. He is unquestionably one of the most distinguished of Canada's sons. Worthily his name stands high in the list of the British Empire builders of our time.

Island Progress—Gratifying reports of the progress being made developing the northern end of Vancouver Island are being received. Hardy bay promises especially to become a busy point. The provincial government has the cost of opening the wagon road between Hardy bay and Quatsino, and the latter is now open for business. A post office has been established and it is understood that a sawmill will shortly be built.

Salmon Galore—The steamer Bosworth, which arrived from the North yesterday morning, has a large quantity of great run of salmon. Rivers inlet canners being glutted, so that many fish had to be thrown overboard. The fish was only encountered at Rivers inlet, on the Skeena, the fish are a little scarce. The fishery is still in a heading south, for in Johnson strait they were extremely plentiful. Officers of the steamer state that the fish will be worked on the sea but could hardly make a step anywhere between now and then.

Alaskan Sub-Ports—Says the Washington correspondent of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer: "A report reached the treasury department today that the United States government is about to ask the department to establish one or more ports of entry in the Tana region, which is a large tract of land in the Yukon territory. No such application has been made to the department, however, and the officials were unable to say whether or not such a movement is on foot. The belief was expressed that the report is a publication in one of the Dawson newspapers."

Touring Logging Camps—Mr. John Murray, timber inspector, left by the steamer Danube for Fort Simpson. He is on a tour of inspection of the logging camps in the Yukon territory, and will visit all the logging camps situated on the coast from Portland canal to Burrard inlet.

Exploring Island—Mr. R. W. Rodda, the well-known mining engineer, accompanied by Messrs. Alvin Eberlyck and Leonard Frank, returned to Nanaimo on Sunday from a tour of inspection of the island, which is situated in the centre of the Strait of Juan de Fuca. Mr. Rodda spent several days at the property, and got a good view of the island. He is of the opinion that the island has a wonderful future before it. Messrs. Eberlyck and Nichols, the owners of the property, have put up a cable to the head of the island, and the cable is being used to transport the heavy machinery.

HIS RISE.

Sir Percy Girouard is about the same age as the present Governor of the Yukon, and he is about the same age as the present Governor of the Yukon, and he is about the same age as the present Governor of the Yukon.

A CONFIDENTIAL CHAT.

"It's perfect nonsense, Bessie, for you to talk of being laid on the shelf. Why, it all depends on yourself. Forget your worries, your aches and ailments, do as I did, take plenty of cod-liver oil, cultivate happiness by not allowing your mind to dwell on the trifles and the worries of life. I sent fifty one-cent stamps to Dr. F. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for his 'Common Sense Medical and Family' and I can testify much useful information about the care of my health and about my own, and everything you wish to know, and I can testify much useful information about the care of my health and about my own, and everything you wish to know."

THE DISASTER HORN.

The steamer Enterprise arrived last evening from San Juan. No alteration had been made in the General Commanding Officer's force still maintained its position. On Monday afternoon the revenue cutter now arrived here from P. O. Townsend. About the same time the U. S. cutter, the Albatross, arrived at the wharf. The stores were landed yesterday, but one attempt had been made to disembark the troops. It was supposed they were destined for another point. H. M. S. Plover, the revenue cutter, arrived on Monday with troops from Queenborough. The following order was issued by the commanding officer on Sunday: "The cutter now arrived here from P. O. Townsend.
