

nificant church of Notre Dame was the objective of a dastardly attempt at its destruction. Seemingly, the famous edifice was saved through a direct interposition of Heaven. The first bomb struck its spired roof and rolled down to the edge, exploding and setting afire a small wooden beam. When the bomb struck the church was crowded with worshippers and an incipient panic took place. The priests urged calmness, and those present emerged in time to witness the downward flight of the second bomb directed at the edifice. The missile struck the parapet of the Bridge of Notre Dame and deflected into the river. The third and fourth bombs aimed at the church fell in nearby side streets and did no particular damage.

FRENCH STATEMENT.
Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.
PARIS, Oct. 12.—Continuation of the activity in the north of France, and repulses of the Germans between Lassigny and Roie are reported in the official statement given out this afternoon by the war office. The statement follows:

"On our left wing the cavalry engagements continue in the region of La Bassée, Estéross and Bazouck. Between Arras and the Oise the enemy has attempted numerous attacks which have been repulsed, notably between Lassigny and Roie.

"In the centre we have made some progress on the plateaus on the right bank of the River Aisne, before Soissons and to the east and south-east of Verdun.

"On our right wing, in the Vosges, the enemy has made a night attack in the region of Bam de Sapt, to the north of St Die, but was repulsed. The flag captured yesterday belonged to the 6th Regiment of Pomeranian Infantry, No. 49, of the 2nd Prussian Army Corps.

"The fusilier brigade was engaged on the 9th and until the morning of the 10th against German forces, which it repulsed, inflicting serious losses. Two hundred Germans were killed and 50 made prisoners. The French losses were 9 killed, 39 wounded and one man missing.

"In Belgium, according to the latest information received from Antwerp, the Germans occupy only the outskirts of the city, the 24 forts on both banks of the Escant River resisting energetically.

"In Russia the battle on the East Prussian frontier continues with desperate fighting. To the northwest of Lyck the Germans are in retreat, having destroyed the bridges in Southern Prussia between Ivangorod and Sandomir. Artillery duels are in progress with the enemy's columns that have reached the Vistula."

The following official statement was given out tonight:
"There is nothing in particular to report.
"Violent attacks have occurred along the front. We have gained ground at some points and we have not lost any at any place."

HOLLAND WILL OBSERVE NEUTRALITY.
Special to The Toronto World.
NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—W. L. F. C. Van Rieppard, ambassador from Holland to the United States, who is here today, issued the following statement:

"I do not believe Germany will try to use the Scheldt River. I cannot see what advantage would be gained in using Antwerp as the base of operations against England. Ostend would suit better. Holland will take every measure to observe neutrality. It is costing our nation an immense sum of money to maintain a large army on the border to this end.

"They are entering German, French, British and Belgian troops which cross the border and there are at least 1,000,000 refugees in Holland. The problem of feeding them is an acute one. We have established a strict embargo against the shipment of supplies thru Holland to the warring nations."

TWO MEN LIVED ON SIX BISCUITS FOR FOUR DAYS

came on a couple of men of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders who had been cut off at Mons. One was badly wounded, but his companion stuck by him all the time. They were in a country full of Germans, and I pressed the unwounded man to tell me how they had got thru the four days on six biscuits. He always got angry and told me to shut up," he continued.
"I fancy he went without anything and gave the biscuits to his wounded companion. One night they lay out in the open thru a very heavy downpour, tho there was a house at hand where they could have sheltered. Uhlans were on the prowl, and they could not think of compromising the French people, who would have been glad to help them," he concluded.

SHRAPNEL FIRE DATES FROM PENINSULAR WAR

General Shrapnel Invented the Shell Which Toronto Firms Are Now Making.

Shrapnel has proved the most destructive arm of light artillery in the present conflict, and experts now say that the majority of the wounds inflicted can be traced to the bursting of these shells.

Shrapnel receives its name from Gen. Shrapnel, who invented the shell during the Peninsular War. He conceived the idea of taking a hollow shell, filling it with small metallic bullets, and providing it with an explosive charge. When the charge exploded the contents were scattered in all directions.

Shrapnel has undergone considerable improvement during recent years, its deadliness and destructiveness having been accentuated to a remarkable degree. Its design is somewhat varied, according to the special service it is required to fulfil. For instance the shell which would be effective for stopping an advance of cavalry would be quite unsuitable when used against infantry standing in the trenches. Again, while under certain conditions all requirements are fulfilled by the shell striking the ground and exploding, under contract, at others it is necessary to cause the shell to explode while in mid-air, and at a predetermined range.

The modern shrapnel shell is a steel cylinder packed with bullets, and carrying an explosive charge. The shell is capped with either a percussion or time fuse. The percussion fuse shell will explode only when it comes into contact with a solid object, such as the ground, and is used extensively against infantry.
The murderous effect of shrapnel is enhanced from the fact that not only are the bullets contained in the shell driven with fearful force in the desired direction, but even the steel case itself is broken into small pieces by the bursting charge, which is even capable of wrecking buildings.

These instruments of wholesale destruction are now being manufactured by several iron and steel workers in Toronto and other large plants in the Dominion, large orders having been placed by the government.

Wants to Extend Railway.
Altho the proposed railway was completed according to plans approved by the city, George F. Webb is willing to extend it to overcome the stiff grade to the bottom of the mainline. PRISONERS HAVE A HAPPY TIME

HAVE NOTHING TO DO
Read and Play All Day Long in Their Corals.

Special Correspondence to The Toronto World. LONDON, Oct. 12.—During the days of the battle of the Marne large numbers of German soldiers were taken to the French troops and an official communique says that one of the reasons for this is that the Germans are being treated as to make it quite a desirable thing to be captured. They are, in fact, extremely well off compared with their comrades in the field, and the same is the case with those brought to this country.

I paid a visit yesterday to the encampment at Newbury race course—All the English race courses are being used either for prisoners or for training recruits—and saw several hundred German and Austrian prisoners. They are all very pleased to see visitors and lay themselves out to show off their various accomplishments. They sing, dance, run races, and perform acrobatics to the best of their ability.

They appear quite content with their lot and they might be spared from the hardships of warfare, they have no work to do, they are in the sunshine and generally make themselves happy.

The athletes can be seen building up a pyramid the topmost man chasing Deutschland Ub Alles. A professional acrobat vaults over half a dozen bent backs.

A man with a mouth organ plays Strauss waltzes while his compatriots dance. An attempt to enlist British sympathies is being made by the endeavor to sing "Tipperary" but the accent is too pronounced for home consumption.

A prehistoric animal, something like a camel, is suddenly appear and parades the compound in charge of a keeper, a gaunt female figure following in the rear. She is announced as Mrs. Fankbender, a woman who has been taken to the front by the German army.

Some play quills, other kick a football about. A few are away into quiet corners to study favorite authors. No body wants to escape.

A baron and a count enjoy the joint services of a valet, and are not called upon to take pot-luck with their less wealthy countrymen. The camp commandant is kindly and considerate, and when he makes his daily round the prisoners receive a salute from him as a friend and protector.

These Germans do not care how long the war lasts, provided the sun shines and they have a way for making their work.

PRZEMYSL SIEGE NOW ABANDONED

Garrison, Reinforced by Austrians, Compelled Russians to Fall Back.

AID FROM THE BELGIANS

Fall of Antwerp Not Unmixed Calamity, is London's Opinion.

An unbroken series of victories in their sweep thru Galicia, and the commencement of today's despatches, supplemented as they were by more circumstantial accounts from Vienna of a vigorous Austro-German offensive seemed to presage important news.

Before Koenigsberg. The most reliable report indicates that General Rennenkampf is now before Koenigsberg, menacing the Danzig-Thorn line of forts. These names are familiar and were featured daily some weeks ago when the Russian advance first drove into East Prussia. But General Von Hindenburg won a victory at Allenstein, which forced back the czar's legions. It has taken weeks of persistent fighting to recover the lost ground in the last phase of this movement developing in a series of operations in the Russian Province of Suwalki, where the Germans suffered heavily. Their armies have recovered police again, however, and are offering a stubborn resistance all along this front.

Reverse on Vistula. The Russian centre has made slight but progressive advances toward Brest-Litovsk, and are gradually forcing their opponents back. On the Vistula, German arms appear to be successful, and the Russians are fighting desperately to affect a passage of that river. In fact, the situation in Galicia and southwestern Poland cannot be judged accurately because of the strict censorship. But desperate fighting is under way and the result appears to be very doubtful, with the advantage turning to the Austro-German forces.

Berlin Claims. The official German statement of today is couched as follows: "The general staff reports that a very strong garrison defended Antwerp at first with great energy, and then flew in full rout after an attack by the German infantry and marine divisions. Among the garrison was one British marine brigade.

"The complete breakdown of the Anglo-Belgian troops was shown by the fact that no military authority could be found to surrender and the capitulation of the city was negotiated by the burgomaster. Our forces have taken many prisoners, but the number is not yet available. Many fled into Holland and returned to Belgian soil. General Von Beseler has received the 'order pour la merite' for his taking of the city.

"From Vienna we have reports that in the face of heavy destruction Russia has given up the attempt to take the besieged fortress of Przemyel. "The Austrian army defeated six Russian divisions near Lancut and routed one Cossack division east of Nymano.

"The Japanese have occupied the Shantung Railway—the Chinese State Railway, built by Germans—and China has lodged a protest.

Veil Drawn Over Belgium. The British and Belgian troops who retired from Antwerp before the German occupation, with the exception of those who are now interned on Dutch soil as a result of having to cross the border, have been swallowed up as completely as if they had been buried under the ruined forts. For military reasons their positions and the areas of hostilities in Belgium must remain obscure, until the turn of events brings them sharply to the fore again, as was the case when, after the fall of Antwerp, the British public learned for the first time that British forces had assisted the garrison.

Optimistic as always, the British press besides contending that Antwerp is of no importance to Germany as a naval base, finds release in the argument that the release of the allied troops there more than counterbalances the troops which Germany will send from that point into France. Col. Frederick N. Maud, a retired army officer and author of several standard military books, writing in today's Evening Standard, says:

Allies' Left Wing Strengthened. "This morning finds the Belgians with five-sixths of the British contingent perfectly ready to renew the fight, with their supplies and the reinforcements from overseas amply safeguarded. After deducting the garrison for Antwerp, losses and so forth, it is exceedingly probable that the Germans have more than 50,000 men left to follow them—which gives us a clear gain of 40,000 to our left wing, without counting the reinforcements which we shall pick up on the way."

Allies' Line Near Coast. The official communication from Paris indicated how this left wing is stretching daily and nightly further west and north and will reach the coast, if the opposing sides continue throwing out cavalry in an endeavor to outflank or break thru. The allies make no claim to victory in the afternoon statement, which opens with the remark that these cavalry operations continue as far north and west as Hazebrouck, a point hardly more than a good day's walk from Calais.

When the allies learned yesterday that they had driven the Germans from Aire, London learned for the first time that the Germans had made as much progress west from Arras as they had from the east. Presumably the allies still hold the ground they claim to have regained, but the Germans are throwing more men westward and are putting up a hard fight, and the communication does not make plain which side holds the town nearest the coast.

Gains Made in Centre. At nowhere along the Belgian line do the allies say they have made any progress except in the centre on the right bank of the Aisne, below Soissons. At two other points, notably between Arras and the Oise and on the right in Vosges, it is said, the German attacks have been repulsed. A paragraph near the end of the official communication saying it is understood that the Germans are occupying only the suburbs of Antwerp,

Judge Archambault, in Quebec Court, Grants Germans Right to Sue.

MAY BECOME CANADIAN

Whether Naturalized or Not, They Have Legal Standing, Says Judge.

Since the outbreak of hostilities in Europe several minor suits have been brought in Canadian courts by alien enemies against British subjects, and in each instance the case has been thrown out, the presiding judge holding that such alien enemy has no rights before British courts of law. A judgment handed down by Mr. Justice Archambault in the Quebec circuit court sitting at Montreal Saturday upsets this ruling, and it is now an interesting question as to whether a test case will be taken to the supreme court in England to decide the issue.

FIRE! FIRE! WHERE? WHY, HERE—IN THE OVEN

After Some Difficulty in Finding the Trouble, Brave Firemen Saved a Home.

Thanksgiving Day at the home of H. C. Tomlin, 312 Russell Hill road, was a sad disappointment. Everything was in readiness for the annual festival. At an early hour the cook started to prepare for the mid-day banquet, and as the morning drew on towards the noon-hour the family awaited the dinner gong. Suddenly the alarm of fire was raised. Members of the family were rushed off to notify the fire department. The arrival of the brigade added to the excitement, and visions of a disappearing home loomed up before the family. On entering the premises the firemen had considerable trouble in locating the scene of the outbreak, which however, they finally traced to the kitchen, where they discovered that the saddest of all calamities had occurred. The turkey was burned.

HORSE WAS BURNED. Fire did $275 damage to a two-story barn at the rear of 445 Ontario street yesterday. A horse belonging to H. A. Lay of 36 St. James avenue was also burned.

Take a Voyage in History With Larned! BEGIN AT THE BEGINNING OF HIS WONDERFUL HISTORY OF THE WORLD NOW OFFERED BY THE TORONTO WORLD

The Dawn with Larned Has Scarce Begun when you start! The world is one vast hunting-ground. Primeval man, naked and unshamed, lives but for one thing—to feed. For untold thousands of years he has existed on roots and herbs—but at last he has tasted flesh. Thenceforth through forest and plain he goes—climbing steep mountains, swimming tumultuous rivers—pursuing the vanishing game to its lairs—to its caves—or to its habitations amidst the lush and friendly grass. At last fire becomes a necessity. He invents it—and ascends the first great step above his brother, the Brute!

The Dawn Begins to Gray Imperceptibly! Man discovers that indiscriminate slaughter is waste. He has subdued all the animals of forest and plain—and now begins to tame those that will yield him milk, that will labor in captivity, that will breed and yield him flesh and fleece and skin. His appetites are insatiable. Unlike the animals—want in man begets want—desire produces new desire—always a little different; a little better; a little higher. He follows the changing seasons with his flocks and herds; follows the pasturage and the herbage and the new grass. Then first comes leisure from the fierce fatigues and dangers of the chase. Man begins to observe—to reflect—to study—to use his brain. Nature becomes his teacher as well as his deity. He watches her in her ceaseless re-production of vegetation. He discovers that grains have seeds. He experiments; he plants—and lo! a harvest springs up to bless and reward his toil.

two-fold conquest of man—by war and by traffic—cause and effect—effect and cause again. And Now the Red Streaking of the Dawn Brightens Along the Sky Line! One dazzling ray scintillates above the horizon; another and yet another. Behold, the sun is risen—and History has begun!

The Pallor of the Gray Dawn Trembles with a Blush! For the first time in the migratory zones of his existence he stops—he feeds his flocks—he plants—he builds a hut with roof and walls—and mankind has a Home! Comes increased leisure for study—for thought—for observation. His brain takes on new convolutions—the old ones deepen. For protection—for companionship—for exchange of speech—of ideas—man becomes gregarious. He and his kind dwell together; they become a tribe; they found a community—a town. But still fresh wants arise—new desires spring up. They cannot longer be gratified by mere conquest of Nature. A new era begins—man's

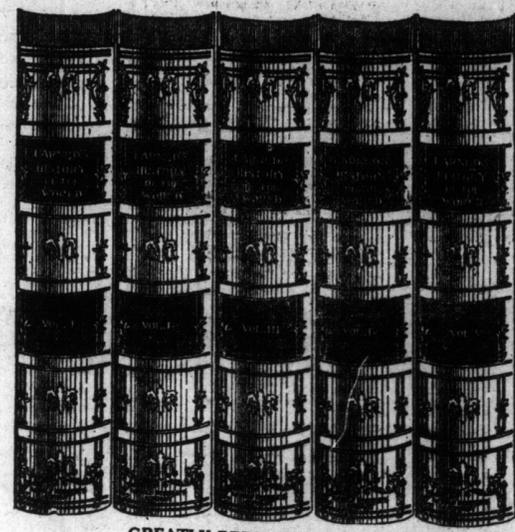

In the general introduction to his great world history Larned takes you back to pre-historic peoples. In less than twenty pages, with his consummate power of condensing; of focussing; with his positive genius for generalization, Larned gleans the volumes of the scientist, the ethnologist, the philologist for a century past, and places before his reader all that is useful for him to know of mankind up to the dawn of History. This wonderful introduction is alone worth volumes of ordinary history. It is as fascinating as it is instructive—and the reader having once embarked on the voyage with Larned, cannot lay the volumes aside till he has reached his own times—his own people—and his own world as it is in this new 20th century—more marvelous than all that have gone before!

HYDRO TURNED ON AT WOODBRIDGE

Hon. I. B. Lucas Worked the Switch at Power House.

FAIR GROUND CROWDED

Weston to Woodbridge Radial Line Was Also Inaugurated.

Woodbridge fair of 1914 will be marked by the operation of the new hydro-electric line through the town. In the absence of Sir Adam Beck, the switch at the new power house was turned by the Hon. I. B. Lucas, vice-chairman of the Hydro Commission. Among those present at the ceremony were Capt. Tom Wallace, M.P.; Geo. S. Henry, M.L.A.; Reeve C. L. Wallace and Reeve Geo. Syme of York Township.

The occasion was also marked by the running of the Woodbridge extension of the Weston radial car line, a temporary track having been laid thru the subway at the west end of Weston.

The big day of the fair yesterday attracted perhaps the largest crowd on record. The special trains from Toronto were crowded to overflowing, and on the return journey people were standing in the aisles. The transportation facilities were considered altogether inadequate for such an occasion, even although this year the new radial line by way of Weston carried its quota of passengers.

Some magnificent animals in the heavy classes were shown, and the first prize gained by Robert Robinson of Bolton for his two-year-old Clydesdale mare was well deserved.

The heavy draught team class was won by John Young & Sons of Hagerman Corners, Scarboro Township, with a splendid pair of finely built horses, the second prize being awarded to J. Bull of Brampton.

R. Mashinter of Milton was awarded first for his agricultural spring coil, and first for his year-old draught horse.

Cattle Classes. In the cattle classes there was an excellent display of Holsteins, Jerseys and Shorthorns, an especially good selection of Holsteins being exhibited by Watson Bros. of Pine Grove, who took first prize for their grand champion bull, Homestead Colantha Prince Canary, weighing some 1600 lbs. This bull took first prize in the National Dairy Show last November, and again in this year's Canadian National Exhibition.

Wilson, Stonehouse, and Rattle & Stonehouse of Milliken; in a big show of Leicesters, A. M. and F. Brain of Hornby and Wm. Clarkson of Highfield; in Oxfordshire, J. G. Ellenton of Hornby, and in a fine exhibition of Cotswolds, Paterson of Milton and Johnston of Dollar.

In the pig classes, Dalston of Alba carried off the honors for Yorkshires, and A. Peacock of Woodbridge gained three firsts and two seconds in Tamworths.

Poultry Display. The poultry, tho the entries were not above those of recent years, made a big show and some fine birds were exhibited. The Rhode Island Reds, shown by Lloyd Watson and J. H. Thomson, the white Wyandottes by M. R. Hoover of Locust Hill, and the Plymouth Rocks by M. R. Hoover and E. Smith of Stanley Mills were all conspicuous for their excellence.

Hoover had perhaps the largest number of rose and single-comb white Leghorns on exhibition, while J. J. Pearson of Cookville carried off about ten or twelve first prizes in single-comb Leghorns, Buff Orpingtons and Langshans. J. J. Pearson also carried off the honors for Chinese geese and Roman

A meeting was held in Frankland school at which representatives of the school districts of Pape, Withrow, Earl Grey and Frankland schools were present, and arrangements made for the organization of a military corps of the Toronto Military Training Association in each school district. Enrolment will take place on Friday, the 14th, at 10 a.m. in each of the above named schools.

Complete instructors will be in charge and in view of the enthusiasm in the district a large number of men are expected to enroll.

STREET LIGHTING ON LOCAL PLAN

Scarboro Council Adopts New Method—Trustee Buys Debentures.

Residents in Scarboro Township can now have their streets lighted by applying to the township council for street lamps as a local improvement the cost to be charged against the property benefited. At a meeting of the council at Woburn yesterday, a by-law was passed providing for the installation of street lighting on this basis so that the more closely built districts adjoining the city need not walk in darkness if they are willing to pay for light.

W. H. Patterson, school trustee of Agincourt submitted a tender at par for $2000 of 5 1/2 per cent. debentures which have been issued to provide money for the completing of the Agincourt public school. The offer was accepted.

A subdivision plan of part of lots 29 and 30, con. B., the Davison farm was submitted by Robins Ltd. and approved.

Another plan passed was for the subdivision of lot 26, con. C. submitted by Copland and Munro.

SWANSEA RATEPAYERS WANT MAIL DELIVERED

At a meeting of the Swansea Ratepayers' Association it was reported that negotiations between the Hydro Commission and the York Township Council for street lighting in the Swansea and Runnymede districts had been reopened.

Joseph Edge stated that members of the township council had inspected College street lately, and promised to do something towards the grading of the roadway.

A deputation, consisting of Donald McBeth, Charles Shaw and Alex. B. Hutchison, was appointed to interview W. H. Hall, chairman of the board of school trustees, regarding the alleged payment of 20c per hour, instead of 5c, to carpenters working on the addition to the school on Windermere avenue, and the non-employment of resident labor by Contractor Sproule, in contravention of clauses contained in the agreement.

Alex. B. Hutchison, A. McBeth, M. Crombie, W. McLean and H. Booth were appointed as a deputation to ask Superintendent Ross for a rural mail delivery, and to ask the township council to number the houses and change the names of any streets conflicting with those in the city.

PATRIOTIC CONCERT MUCH ENJOYED

North Toronto Rifle Club's Entertainment a Distinct Success.

A patriotic concert in aid of the North Toronto Rifle Club was held in the town hall, North Toronto, and attracted a capacity audience, which thoroughly enjoyed the fine program presented. Miss Norine Brodie used a fine voice to good advantage in "The Gallant Men of Liege," and "Rule, Britannia," and was warmly applauded. Wee Fatti, a clever juvenile, made a great impression in popular numbers, and stop dancing. "There's a Land," and "The Calling of the Motherland," were rendered in spirited style by Barnaby Nelson, who won several encores. Bert Lloyd kept the audience in roars with his humorous songs and dialogue. Miss Edith M. Drake won merited applause for her rousing numbers, that of "Alaska" being especially good. E. R. Durand was also in favor in several recitations, while the duet "The Lover and a Lass," by Miss Brodie and Barnaby Nelson, was the success of the evening. S. G. Douglas pleased immensely with correct solo.

The selections of the Y.M.C.A. orchestra during the evening were much appreciated, its rendering of "Tipperary" at the finish arousing much enthusiasm. The proceeds of the entertainment will add considerably to the $400 already subscribed towards the building of the new rifle range on Montgomery street, and on which work has started. The members state that they are now independent of any grant, and hope to have the range ready for practice before the severe weather sets in.

To Help Belgians. The women of the North Toronto Red Cross Auxiliary are at present engaged in making clothing for the Belgian refugees, and are now independent of any grant, and hope to have the range ready for practice before the severe weather sets in.

SPENT THANKSGIVING AT SHOOTING RANGES

Regiments at the Long Branch ranges yesterday included the 12th York Rangers, "E" Company of the Queen's Own Rifles, the 48th Highlanders, the University of Toronto Rifle Association, and "C," "E," "H," and "I" Companies of Eaton's Rifle Association.

The 48th Highlanders were out to the number of over 100, under Major Duncan Donald. The regiment paraded at the armories at 8:15 a.m., and left the Union yards shortly after by special train for the ranges. On arrival the men were marched to the firing point at the 100 yards range by special train.

S. Hawkins, G.M., and the other regimental musketry instructors of the regiment had 150 Lee-Metford rifles already sighted and ready for action. The whole of the 40 targets were engaged, and no time was lost in getting the men started, the companies taking turns at providing markers.

Throwing a Stone Into a Pond

produces a series of ripples in ever-widening circles that stretch out and out until they finally reach right up to your own feet at the water's edge.

Every time you purchase something "Made in Canada" you start a ripple of prosperity—reaching out in ever-widening circles, through shopkeeper, wholesaler, manufacturer, farmer, right back to yourself; for no matter what you yourself produce, what occupation you are engaged in, your individual prosperity is dependent on the general prosperity of the country—on keeping every Canadian busy.

Dollars spent for Canadian-made goods help to do this; some of the dollars spent for Canadian-made goods are bound to come back to you—all of the dollars spent for imported goods are gone—are starting a ripple in someone else's pond.

Start a Ripple of your own by Saying "Made in Canada."

WHY EUROPE IS AT WAR VARSITY STUDENTS LEARN

Three Thousand Copies of War Book Distributed From Students' Book Department.

"Why Europe is at War" is the name of a book being circulated among the students of Toronto University, as a result of arrangements made between the university book department and the publishers. The educative value of this work was realized to be so great by the manager of the book department that he consulted with university officials, and endorsement was given to the plan of printing three thousand copies for circulation among the students.

The volume deals in concise form with the main events leading up to the declaration of war; it traces the negotiations carried on by the diplomats of the powers, and presents the issue at stake in the conflict. Since the volume has been available to the students, there has been a great demand for it, until now practically every student of the university has secured the literature giving information about the causes of the struggle.

President Falconer and other university officials state that they consider the move well worth while.

Cheering Up the Kaiser

As we have already said, the fall of Antwerp will have cheered the Germans as the fall of Breslau or Cologne would cheer the allies. The fact is that the Germans needed cheering...

The chief result of the fall of Antwerp, therefore, is the rehabilitation of German confidence, which has been sadly shaken in the last few weeks. Nothing has been carried out of the program which included the fall of Paris...

The old military faith seems likely to be justified and earthworks and entrenchments once more relied upon as superior to any rigid walls. Antwerp, which was supposed to be good for months of resistance, lasted eleven days...

The unreasonable demand of $100,000,000 as an indemnity measures the degree of the German chagrin over the situation. And it also emphasizes the collapse of German credit, which is in sore need of being bolstered up by this or any means.

There appears to be a desire on the part of the Kaiser in taking Antwerp, not only to cheer up his people, but also to get a stop nearer England. It is suggested that he hopes to be able to retain Antwerp after the war...

Our contention is that parliament should be in session, devising measures for the support of the mother country, for the defence of Canada, and for any other purpose that the present crisis demands.

But if the Dutch should think that the Germans have a chance of ultimate success, they may think it wise to make friends with the Mammon of unrighteousness and save their bacon...

Except for air-craft, the German invasion of England is not an immediate consideration. The next news we may expect to hear is of serious operations against the troops now massing or massed at Ostend, and generally in the north of Belgium.

The Talk of an Election

The Borden government have a sufficient excuse for an appeal to the country in the obstructive tactics of the Liberals in the senate. But whether it would be good policy from a national or patriotic standpoint to throw the whole country into the turmoil of a bitter political struggle...

A special despatch in The Sunday World set out a partial list of the hold-ups of government measures in the senate. Including the vote of money for dreadnoughts, the good roads vote, increased representation in the senate, etc.

But more important than all these things at this moment is that we devote our whole attention to keeping our people united in giving every possible aid to the mother country in the life-and-death struggle in which she is now engaged...

There is no going to be decided, nor its course materially influenced, by the resistance or occupation of fortified cities. Its end will come through superiority of men, not necessarily in number, but in quality.

Our contention is that parliament should be in session, devising measures for the support of the mother country, for the defence of Canada, and for any other purpose that the present crisis demands.

But if the Dutch should think that the Germans have a chance of ultimate success, they may think it wise to make friends with the Mammon of unrighteousness and save their bacon...

New York Has Mystery of Antwerp Suidy by Young Nurse.

Canadian Press Despatch. NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The comely young woman who swallowed the bicolor of mercury in the women's dressing-room in the Grand Central Station yesterday evening revealed her identity today in a flower hospital.

The young woman told Detective Matthew D. Kelly that she is Nina Ennis, 24, a trained nurse. Her mother, she said, is Mrs. E. Ryder, who lives in the McLaren Apartments at McLaren and Gilmore streets, Ottawa.

She said she hoped she would die, but the hospital surgeons say they may be able to save her life, as she took such a terrible dose that there was an immediate reaction and prompt remedial measures were taken.

SOUTH AFRICA PRODUCES VAST MINERAL WEALTH

Gold and Diamonds Yield Many Millions of Dollars Yearly.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—Some interesting facts relative to South Africa and its trade, have been brought out by an interim report by the Dominion Royal Commission, which recently visited that country.

South Africa furnishes 80 per cent. of the world's supply of diamonds. From 1908 to 1913, the value of the output of diamonds increased from $47,785,000 to $54,945,000.

The coal deposits are described as enormous, but comparatively undeveloped. In 1913 the total output of 1,800,000 tons, valued at over $11,000,000.

Also gold mining as an organized industry in the Transvaal is less than 20 years old. It has already contributed $2,000,000,000 to the world's stock of gold, and it supplies nearly 40 per cent. of the total annual output of the world.

FIRST NIGHTS AT THE THEATRES

NO DULL MOMENTS IN PRINCESS PLAY

Two Holiday Audiences Laughed Heartily at Musical Comedy Mix-Up.

A HUNDRED CHORISTERS

Help to Swing "The Little Cafe" Into Popularity—Characters Well Taken.

Klaw and Erlanger scored one more success, when a capacity house greeted their comedy, "The Little Cafe," at the Princess Theatre yesterday. Frolic and fun bubbled up and threatened to overflow at many points throughout the performance, and from beginning to end there was not a single moment of dullness.

The bright comedy has more plot than is usually found in productions of this class and the story hinges about Albert Lorifaw, a waiter in the Little Cafe, who falls heir to a million, but forfeit the sum signed in a contract to marry a girl of $500,000 if he failed in his twenty-year contract of service with Philibert.

The efforts of this individual and a scheming friend to wrest the amount from Albert on coming into his fortune, are the main features of the play. John E. Young, as Albert Lorifaw, played the part with a realism and a charm that was a revelation for the various situations.

NATTY SONGS AND DANCES PLEASE LOEW AUDIENCE

This week's bill at Loew's has many attractive features that are bound to please. The songs and dancing throughout the entire bill are really natty. J. K. Emmett is the leading feature in a stirring operetta, "Kastilinka, a Hungarian Song." He is ably assisted by Viola Crane and company, and the act portrays the other side of marriage, which things turn out to be a comedy. Eddie Clark, assisted by Clarissa Rose, at the piano, and "cello, sang some very good character songs, and took well. Cook and Stevens, the colored man and the Chinaman, had a novel monolog, and they sang some good songs. The Orden Quartet produced some very acceptable melody, introducing grand opera airs with good effect. Cecile, Eldred and Carr gave exhibitions of acrobatic dancing and other novelties. Leona has an act full of real good facial studies, and his character representations of famous men show little else but a fine sense of humor. Oliver, in novelty dances, were entertaining.

BLANCHE RING'S ACT FITS HER ABILITIES

In the Sketch "Oh Papa!" She Won Applause at Shea's Yesterday.

Blanche Ring is seen in a capital sketch at Shea's this week. "Oh, Papa" supplies Miss Ring with a character that is splendidly suited to her ability. Her voice was hardly heard to advantage at yesterday's performance, a fact which, however, was attributed to a bad cold. Even at that disadvantage, "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" lost nothing of its charm, and she recalled time after time.

GOOD AUDIENCE HEARD THANKSGIVING CONCERT

A good audience attended the annual Thanksgiving concert at the Massey Hall last night when a program of exceptional excellence was given. Miss Florence Mulholland contributed with several songs, which were rendered in magnificent manner. Miss Mulholland, who has been a former appearance in the city, has a particularly rich contralto voice and a charming personality. Her singing of "Carmela" and "Doo the Burn Davey" were received with considerable applause.

MORE LIKE BASEBALL THAN BURLESQUE CROWD

It was more like the opening day of the baseball season at the Star Theatre yesterday afternoon than Thanksgiving Day. The house was packed, and the crowd cheered and whistled when the plays were shown on the Paragon Board just as heartily as they would on the field. After the game was over, the performance, "Follies of Pleasure," gave the theatre a new lease of life. They presented a two-act burlesque entitled "The Girl From Bonar Raymond," one of the best singing comedienne of the Progressive wheel. Jack McCabe, Irish comedian, as the man with the funny face, makes every body have a funny face while he is before the footlights. "The Son of an Irishman," sung by Jack McCabe and the chorus, took well with the boys in the gallery. Dot Laughton, Tom McKenna and Sam Lewis are seen to good advantage in minor parts.

Canadian Press Despatch. The explosion caused a fire in which the staff of the gas works was trapped. Several tram car passengers and pedestrians were among the victims.

PLAY OF NOWADAYS WELCOMED AGAIN

Curtain Calls Followed Each Act of "Within the Law" Production.

Four or five curtain calls followed each act in the play "Within the Law," presented by Selwyn and Company at the Royal Alexandra yesterday. It was a masterful rendition of a play of today. The moral was emphasized in a wonderful manner. The strength of it was felt more deeply by the way in which it was impressed upon the audience.

MASTERFUL RENDITION

Catherine Tower Did Justice to Leading Role in Police Play.

The story is too well known to need repetition here, but to say that Catherine Tower, as Mary Turner, depicted the character to a degree which could hardly be improved upon is only to give credit where that is due. First, as the convicted murderer she presents her case in a vivid description of the life as told in the story. In yesterday's presentation repeated applause followed a dramatic speech concluding the first act. Later as the story developed she was charming in the situations which arose. Tom J. Evans was impressive as Richard Gilder, and H. J. Terry, as his son, was original, likable and clever.

James Heenan portrayed Inspector Burke in an admirable fashion. William Lambert, in the role of Joe Garson, adapted himself to the character very neatly. Katherine Daly caused many a laugh in her interpretation of Agnes Lynch. So, in each portion the finished story, as Bayard Veiller the writer must have intended it, was given. Excellent support attended the principals throughout.

NEW TRACK RECORDS AT HILLCREST PARK

By the Pacers From London, Ont., Tonoco and Major Kelly—Summary.

The holiday trotting and pacing races under the auspices of the Toronto Driving Club at Hillcrest Park track drew a big crowd, and they all went away well satisfied with the racing. The track was fast, and a couple of track records were hung up. Tonoco, the London pacer, who won the 2:50 pace, went the second heat in 1:04, and Major Kelly another London horse, won the second heat of the 2:14 pace in 2:13. Montavalo, the Orilla stallion, won the heat from the Major by a nose, but swerved badly and took the gray horse with him. The driver lodged a complaint of foul against Powell, and it was allowed. In the 2:50 trot, the Brampton mare, Dame Donnie, has two heats to her credit. She was beaten the second heat thru a bad break, but she won the third handily. Besides the 2:14 pace and the 2:50 trot (unfinished), there will be the 2:50 trot, second division, with seven as good trotters to go for the money as ever scored for the week. STRATEGY

If we can believe the story of the Siege of Troy, it must have been a great deal easier to "put one over" at that time than it is today. The only strategy that counts in our present war against high prices is simply an intensified form of the same persistent energy on the part of managers and staff that has built up this business. We offer you not necessarily the cheapest things, but ALWAYS THE BEST VALUE FOR YOUR MONEY.

If this is the sort of strategy that you appreciate, you'll be very much interested in this pagetful of supreme values for tomorrow.
