New York, Oct. 22.—A cable from London published here today, says: There was a ripple of excitement in intimate circles of the royal family today when it became known that the New Year will bring with it an addition to the family of King George and Queen Mary. WILL OF J. J. GORDON

His Property Here and in Nova Scotia Goes to Wife and Sisters

In the probate court today the will of John J. Gordon of Goldbrook, mail maker, was proved. He gives his real estate near Berwick, Kings county, N. S., to his trustees to convey it upon his sister Annie, wife of Thomas H. Johnston of Calgary, mail maker; to his sister or Kate, wife of Ezekiel McLeod of St. John, janitor, and to his wife Elizabeth in equal shares. Should his sister Annie die while married, then on her death it will go to his wife and sister Kate in equal shares. The leasehold property in St. John West he directs his trustees to allow his wife to receive such income therefrom until one of his sisters becomes a widow and then to allow his wife and such sister to receive such income until his other sister shall be a widow—then the said leasehold shall be conveyed to the three of them or such of them as shall then be living. If his sister Annie dies while married the leasehold is to be conveyed to his wife and sister Kate. His freehold at Goldbrook he directs his trustees after the expiration of six years from his death to convey to his wife in fee simple—in the meanwhile while his wife has the use of it. The rest of his estate he gives to his wife, and he appoints the Eastern Trust Company trustees. To them probate was issued. The real estate consists of about two thirds of an acre of land at Moospath, near the Three Mile Station, and a property adjoining the value of about $4,000, and also 200 acres of land at Berwick or Aylesford, N. S., the value of which is at present uncertain; personal property, but which is placed at $2,500. Messrs. Baxter and Logan are executors.

Diplomatic Exchanges Over Policy as to Mexico

CONCERN IN WASHINGTON

No Wish For Anything That Would Impede American Plans in Regard to Mexican Problem and Dissatisfaction is Not Concealed

(Canadian Press)

Washington, Oct. 22.—Diplomatic exchanges between U. S. Ambassador Page and the British Foreign office with regard to Great Britain's attitude in Mexico are likely to continue. Indications that Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico, does not hold views in sympathy with the American policy toward the Huerta government have caused concern to the Washington government, and while some officials declared that they are not seeking European support at this time, it was plain that they did not desire that any factors should be injected into the situation at present from the efforts of the United States to deal with the Mexican problem.

VOLTRUONO HERO GUEST OF HONOR

Captain Inch at Trafalgar Day Dinner of Sons of St. George in New York

New York, Oct. 22.—Captain Francis Inch, hero of the Volturmo disaster, was the guest of honor last night at a dinner given him by Nelson Lodge, Sons of St. George, to mark the one hundred and eighth anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar. The banquet hall of the lodge room was decorated with British and American flags, and the guest of the evening was seated, appropriately enough immediately underneath a shield upon the wall, bearing the famous message of the British admiral, signalled to his officers and men just before the beginning of the historic engagement: "England expects that every man this day will do his duty."

TALK OF BREAKING THE C. P. R. UP INTO THREE COMPANIES

London, Oct. 22.—The Financial News says: "Canadian rumor is again busy with a conjecture that the C. P. R. Company will be split into three separate concerns, one of the railways of the company, the second of the lands and natural resources possessed by the company, and the third its steamships and hotels."

YOUR MONEY BACK

What a pleasure it is to do business with merchants who deal the modern way. No "ifs, ands, or buts." Everything open and above board. No pitfalls for the unwary. Did you ever stop to think what a part advertising has played in bringing about this state of things? Advertising is daylight merchandising. It is open and above board selling. The most trustworthy merchants are those who advertise. They start out by frankly telling the public what they have to sell. They keep faith. It is to your profit to patronize the merchants who advertise in the live daily newspapers like The Telegraph and Times. They tell what they have to offer in the way of goods or service. You can weigh the words of the advertisers at your leisure. You can compare their claims. You can go where it best suits your pleasure. You buy at the best advantage when you get your money's worth.

ST. JOHN STILL WAITS

The latest news from Ottawa is to the effect that the minister of railways may take up the Gutelius agreement and consider it and the St. John resolutions some time this week.

Leaders of the Liberal party. In a by-election the government is able to exercise to the fullest extent those fine arts for which the Hon. Robt. Rogers is so well known, and which emphasize the statement of the late Mr. Tarte, that "elections are not won with prayers."

MR. FOSTER AND THE NAVY
In the course of his address last evening Hon. Mr. Foster referred to the importance of the British Empire of keeping the seaways open, and said that Britons throughout the Empire should distribute the burden of providing proper protection.

AST MIDDLESEX
The Tory candidate was elected in East Middlesex yesterday, by a majority of 368. In the general elections, the Tory candidate had a majority of 661. Yesterday's result, therefore, does not show that the Liberals have lost any ground in Middlesex.

Choral Society Disbanded
The St. John Choral Society was discontinued last evening at the annual meeting. E. S. Peacock, musical director, said that the step was greatly regretted, but that lack of interest by the public compelled the move.

England is said to be willing to permit Mrs. Pankhurst to remain in the United States. No doubt this is true.

Is the Intercolonial the people's railway any more, or is it a branch line of the Canadian Pacific?

The Tory majority in East Middlesex was almost cut in half yesterday. Not much comfort in that for Mr. Borden.

The Ottawa Citizen, Conservative, believes that the reduction in the United States tariff should be followed by reductions in the tariff of Canada.

The new United States tariff is a benefit to the Canadian producer, but not to the Canadian consumer. His benefit must come from a downward revision of the Canadian tariff.

"The British Empire as it is today was made possible only by the self-sacrifice and the united efforts of the people of the British Isles," said Hon. Mr. Foster last evening.

The Chatham World says: "Premier Fleming has been inspecting the new St. John bridge work, and has promised to see if something can't be done to hasten it. We wish he would come to Northumberland on a similar mission.

"The Royal Line steamers will not be taken away without a fight," says the Halifax Echo, in large type. "The board of trade arming for the fray," is another announcement in large type.

One of the great characteristics of Nelson, said Mr. Foster last evening, was his willingness to sacrifice himself. If the Borden naval policy is adopted, Canadians will thereby express their willingness to sacrifice somebody else, while they pay the bill.

"Now watch Mr. Pugsley beat it to Ottawa," says the Standard, in that fine phraseology for which it is becoming famous. The last time Mr. Pugsley "beat it" to Ottawa, he was accompanied by twenty or more indignant citizens of St. John, who went there to protest against gross discrimination by the government against the port of St. John.

The Intercolonial Railway has adopted a new set of blank forms such as are used by the C. P. R., and a number of C. P. R. men have been borrowed to go over the line and instruct the I. C. R. agents and clerks in their use.

Berth For Red Cross Line
The Red Cross line of New York and his followers to make a downward revision of tariff, and it becomes more and more the duty of the Liberals to advocate the policy which will relieve the burden of the high cost of living, which is pressing harder and harder upon the people of Canada.

ELOQUENT ADDRESS

BY HON. G. E. FOSTER

Trafalgar Day Celebration Under Auspices of St. George's Society Well Attended

Nelson's glorious victory over the combined fleets of France and Spain at Trafalgar in 1805 was fittingly commemorated last evening by the gathering in the York theatre, under the auspices of the St. George's Society. The chief feature of the evening was the address by Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, on "Trafalgar, and what it means to the British Empire."

Mr. Foster, always an eloquent speaker, was in splendid form, and his speech was a notable one. He briefly but brilliantly painted the picture of Europe as it was at the time of the great naval battle, held up for the admiration of his audience Nelson as the hero who saved Britain from her enemies, and made the British Empire a possibility, traced the effect of the victory upon the material destinies of the Empire, and also its effect upon the spirit of the nation. In eulogizing the hero who had done so much for Greater Britain, he laid emphasis upon the example he set and the duty which his example laid upon those who come after him to share in the work of preserving the empire, urging the obligation of the colonists, whose future was assured by Nelson's victory, to do their share in keeping up the navy which holds the empire together. Mr. Foster was given a hearty reception and some of his more eloquent periods as well as the conclusion of his speech were marked by vigorous applause.

Mrs. Grace Bonner Williams contributed in no small measure to the pleasure of the audience by her vocal solos. She has a beautiful soprano voice of bird like sweetness in the higher notes, and of rich tone in the lower register, and her rendition of a carefully selected programme proved a delightful treat. She was first heard in a group of three songs "Away on the Hills," by Landon Ronald; "Shepherd thy demeanor vary," by Thomas Brown, and "A Roumanian spring," by Amy Horrocks. Later she sang "Night," by Mrs. H. N. Reach; "The Bird in the Wood," by Wm. Thibert, and "To a Messenger," by Frank La Forge. At the conclusion of the programme she sang Donizetti's "O Luce d'quest Anima," in response to an encore given by "The Last Rose of Summer," from Martha. D. Arnold Fox was accompanist. Gerhson S. Mayes, president of St. George's Society, presided and introduced the speaker of the evening. He also sang with great feeling "The Death of Nelson." J. Twining Hart was also heard in a recitation "Admirals All," by Henry Newbolt.

In addition to those who took part in the programme there were on the platform His Honor Lieutenant Governor Wood, His Worship Mayor Frink, B. R. Macaulay, representing St. Andrew's Society, Senator Thorne, Senator Daniel, W. Sturdee, Rev. E. B. Hooper, Col. J. R. Armstrong, E. E. Church, George Ketchum, W. W. Church and H. S. Culver. Amherst, N. S., Oct. 21—The Baptist convention considered today the ministers' annuity funds. The income was $3,848. Aid was given to eighteen ministers and thirty-eight widows. The capital of the fund is $46,988. The income of the relief and aid fund is $2,221. Twenty-eight beneficiaries were aided from this fund. Its capital is $9,706. Rev. W. L. Archibald reported for the committee on pastorate supply and registration. The committee has aided in settling pastors. One minister has surrendered his ordination papers. The committee on standards of ordinations submitted a valuable report advising the establishment of a permanent committee having the supervision of ordinations. This important recommendation called forth warm approval and earnest questioning.

WHEN YOUR APPETITE COMES BACK TO YOU

It is a Sure Sign Your Stomach is Able to Work. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Will Give You a Rousing Appetite

It is the greatest joy in the world to be able to eat what one wants and no misery can compare with that which comes when an appetite fastens upon the system revolts at the very idea of eating, but when the digestive apparatus is restored to its normal condition every quality of mind seems to make a man cheerful.

"That's the Way I Used to Look. What's you think of me now?" Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets mix with the food you eat. The stomach by its peristaltic action churns and moves the food around the stomach walls, the powerful ingredients in these tablets instantly begin digesting the food as they are forced through it and around it. These tablets regulate the strength of gastric juices. If there is too much acid or alkali then Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets reduce or dilute these evil conditions and prevent the irritating and raw stomachs which always come with dyspepsia, indigestion, etc. It is the very essence of pleasure to a stomach sufferer to know that he can digest any meal if he will only take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet after eating. The use of one of these tablets after meals will in a very short time restore your appetite to its normal condition and you will be able to enjoy your food with an old-time relish. Every drug store carries Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Price, 50c.

Eczema Is Only Skin Deep

Proven by D. D. D. A few skin troubles originate in the blood. But very few. Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health and a famous writer on medical subjects, says: "We shall begin to make headway with skin disease when we learn two things: first that skin disease does not come from impure blood; second, that so-called blood purifiers have no such action."

Get busy then and clear up your skin. Stop that itching and burning. Drive out those pimples.

Make up your mind to start now and give yourself a smooth, velvet complexion.

You can do it with the aid of the wonderful D. D. D. Prescription—a cooling, refreshing lotion—not a salve or ointment—it soothes your tender skin, opens the pores, drives out the old impurities and gives you a skin like a baby's, smooth and clear.

All druggists have D. D. D. We sell it on a positive no-pay guarantee. You don't risk a cent. Don't suffer another day. Call at our store today. Ask also about D. D. D. Soap—best for tender skin.

Interesting Evidence At The Police Investigation

Mr. Martin's Story is a Remarkable One - de Forest's as a Base of Supplies - Evidence as to the $5 Bills

Evidence of a startling nature was presented at the session of the police inquiry last evening. When six new witnesses testified. George Martin, a tailor at 18 Dock street, was called. Q-How you ever had trouble with the police of the city? A-Yes. With Ira Perry, McCollum and Campbell. Q-Did you ever accuse Perry of stealing anything from your shop? A-Yes. In 1906. Perry used to loaf around our place a good deal when the sergeant was around. He was loafing there one morning and soon after he went out one of the girls came down from the workroom and asked for some thread. I looked for the package which I had, but found it missing. I then went to search for Perry. I found him at the corner. I accused him of stealing the thread. He at first denied it, but afterwards admitted it. He said he had left it at the Water street lockup and would return it that afternoon at a quarter to 2. He came back at the time he said and returned a package of six spools of besting thread, which I thought to be the package he stole. Q-Did he suggest at the time that he did it as a joke? A-No. Not then. Q-You say you took the package of thread to be the same as was stolen. What led you to believe otherwise? A-Because a person told me that evening that Perry bought a package of thread like mine from a wholesale store. He asked for the kind that George Martin gets. Q-Did you ever have any talk to other policemen about the matter? A-Yes. They approached me and asked about it. They learned of it because my tailor was shooting off his face in Cronin's bar. It happened about the time of the Cronin affair. Q-Were you summoned to give evidence in the investigation of the case? A-I believe my tailor was. Says He Signed Statement. Q-Did you discuss the matter with the chief at all? A-Yes, at City Hall. If I am not mistaken, someone told me to go there, that the chief wanted to see me. However, I met him there. He said "You are just the fellow I wanted to see." Then he took me into the committee room at City Hall and closed the door. "What is this trouble going on between you and Perry?" he asked. "What did he do?" I told the chief that he had stolen a package of thread. "Say, Martin, can't we fix this matter up?" the chief said. I replied that I did not want to get the man in trouble. He said: "Can't we make the matter a joke, and I'll do something for you." I said that I would. He said: "You say that you were playing with Perry's baton and he took the thread from you." He left the room then and returned with John Chesley. The chief sat on the table, Chesley sat at the head, and I sat by the side. Mr. McLellan-You were lucky they didn't put you underneath. What did they want Chesley for? A-To write out an agreement. Q-Did he write anything? A-Yes. Chief Clark dictated to him. I did not say a word. When asked if he could remember what was dictated, Martin said he could not, but he would know it when he heard it read. He identified his signature on a document which Mr. McLellan produced, and which contained the following: "In regard to Ira Perry having been accused of taking thread from my shop, 18 Dock street, I say he did so in a joke. I took his baton as a joke and the whole thing was a joke all through." Q-Did you meet anyone on your way home? A-Yes. I met Perry at the corner. He asked me how I made out. I met him again that night at Breeze's Corner. "I see that you did alright," he said. "I'll do something for you. I'll be down to see you tomorrow." He came down and left me an order for a pair of trousers. Q-Did you tell Chief Clark what to say before Chesley came in? A-The chief and I had that all arranged before he came in. Q-You did not have Perry's baton? A-I don't remember taking it at any time. Q-Did the clerk who told about Perry buying the thread, work in Vassie's? A-Yes. Q-Was his name Gaskin? A-Yes. Q-You say that Perry used to loaf in your shop. Was it uniform on duty? A-Yes. He had his uniform on. He used to sit and talk. Q-Did they ever have other officers loaf there? A-At that time. They used to come in and smoke. Q-Did they drink there? A-I don't know. They could do it without me knowing.

VARICOSE VEINS AND ITCHING PILES

Usually Arise From Same Cause—Relief and Cure Effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment. Nearly everybody knows of Dr. Chase's Ointment as the most effective treatment for piles or hemorrhoids that medical science has been able to compound. So much suffering and misery arises from this ailment that one is not long in telling his friends when he has found an actual cure. This accounts for the enormous sales of Dr. Chase's Ointment. This letter tells of relief from the suffering of varicose veins by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many suffer from this trouble not knowing the comfort to be obtained by the use of this great soothing ointment. Mrs. R. J. Evans, 187 Munro street, Toronto, writes: "We have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for years. I have been troubled with varicose veins, and find it the only thing that gives relief. For every purpose when a soothing, healing ointment is needed there is nothing so good as Dr. Chase's Ointment." 60 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

MATTY'S BIG LEAGUE GOSSIP

Few Fights Between Players in These Days—A Little Meeting in Centerfield—Pugilism Never Helped the Game

(Copyright 1913—by the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) There has been a vast change in the tone of the Big League since I first started. Few fights occur between players either on the same club or rival clubs now. I recall the time when every club house was the scene of several tough battles each season, and "scraps," on the field between the men on rival teams were common. The old "shell-backs" of baseball argued that this improvement has not advanced the game. I believe it has.

They tell a story about Tinker and Egan, the second baseman of the Cincinnati Reds up to this year. While playing field with the Cubs, his fiery temper got him into many arguments which had to be settled according to the Marquis of Queensbury rules with the speed of a fireman. But there used to be some great battles.

A Little Meeting in Centerfield. They tell a story about Tinker and Egan, the second baseman of the Cincinnati Reds up to this year. While playing field with the Cubs, his fiery temper got him into many arguments which had to be settled according to the Marquis of Queensbury rules with the speed of a fireman. But there used to be some great battles.

George hustled around, and got the best he could for the evening, outside the main bout grapples. Saxon threw his second opponent as fast as he had the first. He was matched with Sinar and threw him. He wrestled two men as a preliminary to the Le Marin-Zybzko bout at the Arena last May, and threw both of them.

Today Frank Saxon who has just returned after a wrestling tour through the mining camps of Western Canada, is the undefeated champion of the division, having earned the right to that title by defeating Jack Taylor, at Hillcrest, B.C., on the 18th of this month. In two straight falls, the men wrestling for nearly two hours for the title.

George Kennedy sent one of his long strings of preliminary artists into the ring to face the cop. The man went down as quick as that it looked like a duke. They went to it again, and Saxon had nabbed the second fall inside a minute, and started for his dressing room.

"Cop" Becomes Champion. When Frank Saxon, P. C., peeled off the modest uniform of the Montreal West Constabulary about a year ago and went on the stage of Schaner Park to enhance his salary by the five spot that falls to the lot of the preliminary tyro rasser, about the least thing he had in his mind was the heavy-weight championship of Canada or the championship of anywhere else.

There used to be some good battles on the old Giants when fellows like Donlin, Brennan, Devlin, Dahlin, Gilbert and McGinn were in the box score. They met in center field, and with many of the Cubs looking on, many of them dressed like September Morn, the two players had a battle. Joe's disposition says that Tinker got a very positive decision. Then he straightened up his necktie and hurried along to keep his date.

GOLF

Praise for Ouimet. Henry Leach, an English golf writer, has an article in the latest number of The Sketch received on this side of the water regarding Francis Ouimet, the young Canadian who now is the United States open champion, the writer says of his winning of the championship: "Mr. Ouimet came through two tests of nerve and temperament which have been applied to a golfing man. In playing the last four holes of his fourth round, when most champions expect to have already practically won and made themselves quite comfortable for an easy finish, he was fighting desperately for his life, and later positively to gain a stroke against par in that short time."

"At the 16th he nearly lost one instead, and that would have finished him; at the 17th he kept his end up; and then at the 18th he gained the badly needed stroke; while at the last hole, he got the par figure which made him tie with the others. A more magnificent exhibition under the most trying circumstances could not possibly be contemplated."

"That night both Americans and British said that it was wonderful, superb, and, because it was so much so, it could not happen any more, and Mr. Ouimet would surely be beaten by the two Englishmen on the following morn. But the next day, that dripping wet Saturday of everlasting future memory—he showed just as much nerve and coolness as ever before."

"Some will still say that though this may not be a fluke victory, such a thing could not happen twice. But take it from me, as one who has seen it, it is not a fluke, it is a triumph, and that Mr. Ouimet, young as he is, is a fixed planet in the golfing firmament, and not merely a meteor that has flashed across the sky and gone away into darkness for the rest of time."

WRESTLING "Cop" Becomes Champion. When Frank Saxon, P. C., peeled off the modest uniform of the Montreal West Constabulary about a year ago and went on the stage of Schaner Park to enhance his salary by the five spot that falls to the lot of the preliminary tyro rasser, about the least thing he had in his mind was the heavy-weight championship of Canada or the championship of anywhere else.

How Society Woman Wards Off Wrinkles. "Wrinkles are not strangers to me, but when I acquire such disfigurements I know how to lose them in a hurry. A well-known society matron confided this to me. I had wondered how she, with her strenuous social duties and late hours, could so completely ward off the usual marks of care and dissipation. "I don't wear wrinkles in public, nor those horrid rings beneath the eyes," she continued, "since I've learned what plain, ordinary saxonite will do. When any of these hateful marks appear, I send to the drug store for an ounce of powdered saxonite and a half pint of witch hazel. I mix the two, bathe my face in the solution—and that's the whole secret. I've never tried anything that works so miraculously. My chin is inclined to double; this trouble, too, I keep in check in the same way."—Emily Dean in Town Talk.

Stetson Hat Exhibition

Interesting and Educational Showing Different Stages in Hat-Making One of the Greatest Hat Displays Ever Made.

If you have never been through a hat factory you have no idea how interesting, how much there is to the making of a hat. This wonderful exhibit presents the fourteen operations in making a Soft Hat—and the sixteen operations on a Stiff Hat. It shows how the elegant imported furs look before and after they are treated, picked and how the fur is made into felt. How a hat looks before it is shrunk, and afterwards. How it is blocked and shaped. The whole process from "A to Z."

INTERESTING STETSON FACTS Over 5,400 people are employed at the STETSON factory in Philadelphia, where every part of the hat is made. Over 400,000 pounds of raw silk were converted into ribbon for hat bands and bindings last year. 330,000 sheepskins were made into sweat bands. 850,000 pounds of fur was cut from 11,000,000 skins which were imported direct. Even the paper hat-boxes are made by STETSON—requiring over 620 tons of box-board last year. STETSON has an auditorium seating 6,000, a lunch room and hospital for their employees; also a Savings Bank. STETSON workers are happy workers—they like their work and take pride in the fact that STETSON Hats have won first prize at every World's Fair where these world-famous hats have been exhibited.

Stetson Hats are widely distributed all over the world. Men in every clime—of every tongue—and every station in life, wear Stetsons. Because Stetson makes the hat that is always dependable—that offers the selection wide enough to satisfy every man's tastes. There isn't an authentic style, in color, shape, weight or finish that isn't presented first and best in a Stetson. And you'll find the widest selection, and most expert help in choosing, at our store.

A WORD TO THE COMMISSIONERS AND THE ST. JOHN BOARD OF TRADE

They Must Put Up a Fight or This Port Will Lose—Letters Putting The Case Squarely Concerning the Mail Steamers

To the Editor of The Times:
Sir,—The Standard features a Halifax story this morning to the effect that possibly the Canadian Northern boats "Royal George" and "Royal Edward" would come here this winter, which, if correct, is owing to the fact that they are frozen out of accommodation at Halifax. The C. P. R. certainly owns that port now, having usurped all the best berths over there for their own two and the two Allan boats, leaving all of the other lines to take pot luck.
But is St. John going to be satisfied with any such substitution? We should not be. If the C. N. R. send these two boats to St. John they will be at the mercy of the Canadian Pacific and will have to take just such cargo and passengers as the latter company will give them, and it possibly will hamper and delay them so much that they will not be able to make fast time and thus bear out the present C. P. R. claim that Halifax is the best and quickest mail port. Or does the C. P. R. really claim that, after formerly asserting, and so far as we know, still claiming, that St. John was the proper mail port?
Yours, etc.,
ST. JOHN.
St. John, Oct. 22, '13.

large amount for the donations made to the C. P. R., and now they see fit to withdraw their Express steamers from here after having advertised their sailings broadcast. They thus render our investment on their behalf non-productive, and do a world-wide injury to the port of St. John. After all the efforts made to boom our city during the last few years, which have been so widely commended and have attracted the attention of outside capitalists, are the commissioners to allow this thing to go on without raising a single protest? We say no. It is your duty, gentlemen, to contradict the derogatory statements made by the C. P. R. Let them point out wherein this port is not in a position to handle their business, and do so at once. You must square yourselves with the directors who have placed so much confidence in you.
We also would like to ask the board of trade if they are fighting to the best effect for the city. Only a short time ago the citizens responded nobly to a request for a large amount of money for use by the board of trade.
Let the commissioners and board of trade get together at once, and map out a plan of action. Every city in Canada we of us is doing an injustice in the proposed new agreement. Many more hours will be required to deliver mails and freight to them, under this arrangement to use Halifax as a terminal port. Have all other cities in Canada been made acquainted with these facts? If not, why not? Yours truly,
MERCHANT.

To the Commissioners and Board of Trade of St. John:
Gentlemen,—Will you please inform the citizens of St. John why you are taking such a passive stand in connection with the injustice being done this city by the C. P. R.? We have been taxed a

A LOST BOY
A stray boy who wandered all the way from the North End happened into the L. C. R. depot about noon today. The passengers were just coming off the Montreal train and the little tot was amused watching them. Detective Killen took charge of him and sent him in the direction of his home in charge of a policeman.

ONE ON THE BORROWER
Detective Killen is about tired having people borrowing his fountain pen and this morning he was prepared for the offenders. He was accosted by a frequent borrower, who asked for his pen. "Why certainly," said the sleuth, and handed him a pen from his pocket. Not looking, the gentleman went to write, but was surprised to find, where the pen point should be, his own name.

WALTER VINCENT DID NOT AUTHORIZE IT
There appeared in the Times yesterday an advertisement purporting to be signed by Walter Vincent and warning the public that he would not pay bills contracted by his wife, Walter Vincent appeared at this office this morning and said the notice had been wrongfully inserted by a relative of his and was done without his authority. He said that his wife had not left him, and that the advertisement was an injustice to him and her. Accordingly this notice is made publicly.

THE POST OFFICE

Steel Frame Work Going Up—About 70 Men-New Employed

The erection of the steel framework for the new post office was started on Monday, and there are now three giant columns and three girders in place. The steel web will give the building great stability as the columns weigh five tons and the girders upwards of a ton, and the uprights are fixed to a cast iron base which is set in concrete. The frame parts were made in Amherst, and the material used is the best Pennsylvania steel.

Excavating will be finished within three weeks. Since the work was begun in March, more than 10,000 cubic yards of rock has been blasted out and removed from the site. Carpenters are making good progress on the forms for the foundations, while the stone cutters who are shaping the granite for the side walls of the first story have prepared a large supply of stone in the British street yards.

The first story of the new post office will be finished with granite and the masonry work will be faced with freestone. The work of erecting the steel web will be continued throughout the winter, and a corps of skilled artisans will be brought here next week, from the Rhodes Curry works in Amherst.
