

WHY ARE WE NONCONFORMISTS?

An address delivered at the Baptist Annual meeting, Reading, England, by Rev. T. G. Tarn...

There are few questions which concern us more deeply as a denomination than the attitude of our young people to the distinctive principles which underlie our church life...

We cultivate the simpler forms of worship because we regard them as more conducive to spirituality. We see the danger of formalism lurking in the stately stiffness of a liturgy...

what they called "gathered churches," and so do we. It is the very diadem of our position as Baptists. (Hear, hear.) See how this principle is violated in the established church!

State control as well. That is the price she has to pay for her favored position, she must hand over the reins of government to the secular power. It is an enormous price to pay.

For the week beginning Nov. 15. Topic: The first Christian church—Its prayer meeting. Scripture: Acts 1: 14, 12: 12.

We ought to give special study to the first part of this book just now. It has much to say about the Holy Spirit, and Christ's promise was, "Ye shall receive the Holy Spirit who is promised to you."

(a) By the number in attendance. Apparently all the Christians in the city were present. It is not a common thing to have a prayer meeting for a whole church to turn out to prayer meeting.

(b) By its spirit. "With one accord." You must have all the strings in tune before even a skillful musician can give us the "concert of secret souls."

(c) By the character of its service. Young people sometimes get nervous if the prayer meeting goes beyond the hour. How about the concert? But these people prayed, and then they prayed, and then they prayed. The inference was that this meeting was also marked.

(d) By wonderful results. The spirit came in mighty power upon them, the gospel was proclaimed in power, and one sermon was the means of leading three thousand to embrace Christ.

Christian Endeavor Tept for Nov. 12. "Our love tested by our gifts."—2 Cor. 8: 1-12. Note the circumstances calling forth this passage. The Christians of distant India are in need.

It is giving? Is it large giving? Read 1 Cor. 13. It is mere emotional impulse. Some give when a speaker has moved them, and when the emotions are deeply moved.

The necessary preponderance for such liberality is the consecration of the individual to God. Then gratitude will prompt the gift; then will follow the obedience of the principle. "Freely ye have received, freely give."

Practical—I give, but how? Have I placed myself and what I have upon His altar? Do I use my salary as beneath His eye? What system of giving to others have I adopted? Do you give regularly? Do you give lovingly? Have you experienced "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

BIBLE LESSONS. FOURTH QUARTER. Lesson VIII. Nov. 19. Eph. 4: 20-32. IMITATION OF CHRIST.

"And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."—Eph. 4: 32.

The Epistle to the Ephesians was written in the autumn of A. D. 62, during the latter part of Paul's two years' imprisonment at Rome. It was written at Rome, in Paul's own "hired house," where he was a prisoner under guard.

THE CORAL WORKERS. In the Pacific Ocean there were long ago many empty spaces without any land. This ocean was blue and beautiful, but there was no eye to see it.

So He called for the coral insects, and told them to build these islands in one place, live in another, seven in another, and so on. The little workers were so taken by surprise, that they popped their heads out of their windows and looked at each other in astonishment.

"But we do not know how to shape the islands; they will all be wrong!" cried the Madrepores.

"I will take care of that," said the Master Builder. "only see that each one builds one little cell."

So the corals divided the work among themselves. Some began to build the middle and some the outer edge. Very busily and patiently they wrought. The islands grew higher and higher, until they came to the top of the water.

"Who would have believed we could have done it!" said the little corals, as they saw the result of their efforts.

Mount (Matt. 5: 21, 22, and the third and seventh Beatitudes). 26. Be ye angry, and sin not. Word for word from Pa. 4: 4. Anger, in the good sense, has very nearly the meaning of indignation, "a deep, serious moral reprobation against a grave moral offense."

27. Neither give place to the devil. As to one who would intrude at a half-open door, intent on occupying the house. ANOTHER WRONG (1) when it is excited without sufficient cause; (2) when it is against the "person" rather than the "offense"; (3) when it is attended with the desire of revenge; (4) when there is an unforgetting spirit (Barnes); (5) when it is brooded over, and "nursed to keep its warm"; (6) when it is heaped up and exasperation are prolonged.

28. Let him that stole. Implying that some of them had in former years gained their living by dishonesty, while there was an almost universal vice among the heathen. Steal no more. Cease from your dishonest practices at any cost. The world has not yet outgrown this sin, and it is many a sad occasion.

29. Let no corrupt communication. (1) Taking what does not belong to you; (2) taking advantage of others' ignorance, to defraud them; (3) false returns to the assessor of taxes, by trying to escape them; (4) putting false labels and false measures to goods made and sold; (5) giving too small wages to those we employ; (6) not earning the wages we receive and so we agree; (7) bending down those that keep us warm; (8) when it is the goods we buy; (9) charging exorbitant prices; (10) gambling, raffling at fair, taking shares in lotteries; (11) all business which injures the life and property of others, as selling intoxicating liquors, obscene picture papers, etc., or renting buildings for their use; (12) obtaining the advantages of libraries, churches, papers, without doing our part toward their support, in so far as we are able.

30. And grieve not the Holy Spirit. How touching is this expression—not anger, but grief. The Holy Spirit is grieved over the sins and errors of those who have come to help and purify. He is grieved over a child who wastes his opportunities and blessings. The Holy Spirit is grieved by indulgence in the sins above enumerated. They are repulsive to his nature. He sees the evil effect of them on those who commit them. His work

THE STUNDISTS.

The Christian World has lately concluded a series of eleven articles on the Stundists of Russia, in which is given a quite extended and very interesting account of a people who have suffered much—and still suffer—in the dominions of the Czar, for the faith which they profess.

Among the Stundists, as with Baptists, great stress is laid upon the principle that the Word of God is the one and only source of authority in matters of religion.

Most of them, we are told, carry about with them a copy of it, and in moments of relaxation when the ordinary orthodox peasant seeks the village drink shop, the Stundist retires to some quiet spot to study his "Yevangelike."

In regard to creed and the ordinances the Stundists, we are told, "are evangelical Protestants pure and simple."

Against the sacerdotalism which dominates and debases the religious life of the established church in Russia the Stundists make constant and vehement protest.

The Russian-Greek church provides for many holidays—103 of them during the ecclesiastical year. On these days, which, for the most part, celebrate the birthday of saints and imperial personages, services are held in the churches and work is to be religiously avoided.

ostentatiously drive out his team of oxen to plough on the day consecrated to John the Baptist or Mary Magdalene." In intelligence, industry, morality, religious enlightenment, and indeed in all respects the Stundists appear in marked and favorable contrast with the ordinary Russian peasant.

No class of people in the world probably are more hated by their countrymen than the Stundists in Russia. They are hated by the clergy because they will not acknowledge their priestly assumptions and submit to their authority.

THE AMERICAN BOARD.

The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions is the organization by which the Congregationalists of the United States do their great work in foreign lands.

The case was referred by the Board at Worcester to a committee of fifteen, upon whose recommendation Mr. Noyes was appointed a missionary.

MASKINGOGE.

In the Montreal daily Witness of November 1, an interesting account is given of the opening of the new Baptist chapel at Maskingonge, Que. The history of the Baptist cause in that place is familiar to our readers.

A fine bell, for the steeple of the new chapel, has been presented by the Rev. Dr. Fulton, and the following inscription, in French, will be painted on the belfry, 'Proclaim liberty throughout the land, and to all in the land.'

Annuitiy Fund.

Four hundred dollars needed before January 1st, 1894, for five ministers laid aside by age and sickness; six widows of ministers, struggling in the loneliness of bereavement for the bare necessities of life, and six children of ministers left fatherless.

Shall the Annuitiy Fund be driven by necessity to cut down the amounts now allowed the needy ones? On the first of January each of these enfeebled brethren and needy widows and their children will expect the amount fixed by the denomination for them to get half yearly.

Another question which we intended to discuss, but from want of time had to reserve for some future occasion, was, "Does Christianity produce better servants than Hinduism?"

The wearing of expensive jewelry among our native Christians was another subject discussed. We were greatly pleased to find among our helpers young men who were willing to acknowledge the evil and ready to help us fight it.

The following report of the Young Men's Christian Association will show what that society is doing in the way of systematic study of the Bible, as well as an outline of their evangelistic work.

"During the last fifty years the need has been felt throughout the Christian church for definite work for young men. This need is being filled by the Young Men's Christian Association.

The university prayer meeting is held in the Chapel at 7 o'clock on Wednesday evening of each week. Students from the secondary, academy and university meet here in prayer and conference.

The Y. M. C. A. prayer meeting is held in the Chapel at 9 o'clock every Sunday morning. This is essentially a young men's meeting.

The Bible class work of the association last year was definite, methodical and successful. Eight classes for study were formed early in the winter having an average membership of six.

The foreign missionary work of the association is given over to the Missionary Society and Volunteer Band, both of which societies maintain a separate organization, or "circle" work by the Missionary Society is carried on by

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

Rev. G. Howard was appointed to the chair. After devotional exercises verbal reports of the condition of the churches were given by the delegates. The reports were generally of a hopeful character, especially those from Smithtown and St. Martins. Arrangements were made to hold the next meeting at Beaver Harbor, the date to be left to the discretion of the secretary, with the understanding that an effort will be made to have the meetings commence on a Friday evening and continue over the Lord's Day. Rev. G. Howard was appointed to preach on the first evening; Rev. E. J. Manning on the second; Rev. W. C. Goucher on the third; Rev. C. W. Williams to be his alternate. The evening to be devoted to a uniform missionary meeting. Rev. J. W. Manning and A. E. The outlook is very encouraging. Yesterday two were baptized after the morning service, and last evening four received the hand of fellowship into the church. The Spirit of God is moving in our Young People's meeting, a number are anxious and request our prayers. We are pleased to say that our brother has succeeded in arousing a spirit of enthusiasm in the young, and the church feels extremely grateful to Almighty God that He has sent them a pastor.

Woodstock.—Since we last wrote our pastor, Bro. Baker, has been ordained. All our services are largely attended; in fact our church is too small to accommodate all who desire to come to the preaching service; every Sunday evening for some weeks a number have to go away, no seating room. The outlook is very encouraging. Yesterday two were baptized after the morning service, and last evening four received the hand of fellowship into the church. The Spirit of God is moving in our Young People's meeting, a number are anxious and request our prayers. We are pleased to say that our brother has succeeded in arousing a spirit of enthusiasm in the young, and the church feels extremely grateful to Almighty God that He has sent them a pastor.

GENTLEMAN 218. In the dim and shafted sunlight...

When the clock struck twelve... The man who had looked up in his room so long...

THE PAPA WHO WAS ADOPTED.

In the stateroom of a great ocean steamer a woman lay dying...

Then with a passionate sob in her voice she raised herself on her pillows...

"There is the Children's Home," suggested the pastor. "The little ones are kind of fond of me..."

And at last papa himself took the little clinging arms from his neck...

Far away in a Western city, that was all wrapped in a white stillness of snow...

"I've been thinking, dear. We will find every one of those fatherless children..."

"When shall we start, dear one? Will to-morrow be too soon?"

At a low table Karl was playing with his blocks, building wonderful boats and bridges...

"It is not a baby girl of six months old," he said.

"Never mind," answered the little wife, stoutly. "Instead, it is our boy."

But at a moment later he began to shake the soft fur of the mantle, and to nestle against her as though in his baby heart he had adopted her too...

When at last Karl was dressed in a blue kit and sailor blouse, a reefer jacket and United States navy cap...

Mamma kissed the rose-bud girl, and the rose-bud girl kissed Karl. Then the three went away...

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all medical treatment of catarrh..."

Pot-Pouri for Busy Women.

In a recent weekly we find these lines, devoted to the woman's movement...

It is hardly necessary for us to answer this question by going to any poetie extreme, and saying in effect...

Over the kitchen sink at which she spent many a weary hour, a busy woman pruned these lines, cut from a magazine...

"I've ceased asking God to pity me in this hard place; I'm asking Him now to give me wisdom to see my work, and wit to do it."

"Cut the string that chokes the tightest cord," answered to at least one-half of the question.

"I've broken my back many a time, trying to follow my mother's precept, 'Always iron clothes so they will look well on the clothes horse'..."

"I've secured this pan for an hour, and I'm in despair yet," cried a young girl, in despair.

"And I shall frame a motto and hang it over your sewing machine, and it shall read: 'Thou shalt not steal'..."

"I've doctored and doctored, and my Scotch nurse replied, 'Such a cold as yours has to be kept, with a leadenly roll of the "I" which illustrated the length of time she considered necessary for such a process."

The Story of a New Dress.

"Are you going to have two puffs on your skirt, or only one?" This question Mrs. Baker called out from the sewing-room...

"Well, not more than I have to in order to do it well. It would be hard work to think about clothes all the time, you know..."

"The smoke from the engine," said one wise man, "would kill all the birds, and the sparks would set fire to the fields and houses..."

"If the hair is falling out and turning gray, the glands of the skin need stimulating and color-food, and the best remedy and stimulant is Hall's Hair Renewer."

"It is just like me," she murmured at last. "I am always singing, but I never seem ready to speak a word for Jesus..."

"I've broken my back many a time, trying to follow my mother's precept, 'Always iron clothes so they will look well on the clothes horse'..."

"I've secured this pan for an hour, and I'm in despair yet," cried a young girl, in despair.

An Inventor's Triumph.

Ridicule often makes itself ridiculous in the end. No cause was ever won by having the laugh on its side...

"You must not claim a speed of over fifteen miles an hour," said the counsel of the promoters of the railroad to Stephenson...

Nearly in Despair.

And had decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and proceed what I could in the way...

THE CHILDREN.

There is such a crowd of you, boys, there is thronging in every play if I did not conque you now and you would fill up all the space.

THE HOME.

In one of the large railroads of this country is a comparatively man who is at the head of the department. When he enters a room, the young men, who are green and awkward, who are poor paid work in the very first day of his employment, a man who work in the same room for pay or credit, and gave him the vice: "Young fellow, I've few words in your ear that you do like."

The young man thought, "I'll keep him by me yet a little, while I may," said the poor father.

"This is not a story of a little boy who was adopted, but of a young man who was adopted, ready to give 'advice' to men just beginning to work into business. And here it is, soever they had findeth to do 'thy right.'" — Youth's Companion.

THE PHYSICAL TRAINING.

Boys to-day have great care of their physical training, or even ten years ago. It is the remembrance of those who have not been out of college long, how the mere mention of a game brought down a flood of memories, while the attention followed us back to the game was then an enigma, newspapers added horror to by printing their accounts in a manner calculated to excite the blood of any well-regulated man. Gradually as the sons of parents to view the sport, the prejudice wore away, finds favor in schools from Ontario, and the result of physical beauty and health put us of the last generation. Our sixteen-year-old boys, overwork, outrun, outrun us; give us points on football, and in the end, the sickly pallor peculiar to the our day, knows quite as much ruddy glow of health in.

A Good Good Story.

A Hazlem family, on gold left their house in charge of who was to look after it of the family. They also than a large dog. There chair in the back room, dog frequently took a nap, also found the chair very but as he did not feel like risks, he resorted to strategy, he to the window and me the dog would then jump chair and rush to the window, where the dog would be at a cat, whereupon the dog would quickly take the chair.

One day when the old dog was in the chair, the dog room. Taking in the dog's footpaws on the window, he barked furiously. The old thinking there was some yard, go out of the chair he went to the window to see the yard, where the dog into the chair and kept growling continually when man came near him. The body at all the yard.

Mrs. H. D. West of Cornwallville, N. S. $200 Worth of Other Medicines Failed. But 4 Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured. "It is with pleasure that I tell of the great benefit I derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. For 6 years I have been badly afflicted with Erysipelas breaking out with running sores during hot summer months. I have sometimes not been able to walk for several days. I think the best medicine I tried to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I got one bottle last spring, commenced using it, felt so much better, got two bottles more; took them during the summer, was able to do my household work."

She made the twenty-eight victim of the recent terrible railway disaster. —Under the heading of "More Monks" the Montreal National has very completely article condemning the destruction of more religious orders into Canada. —Lady Abbott has received many messages of condolence on the death of her husband, and among them a cablegram from the Earl and Countess of Derby expressing their sorrow. —Mr. C. H. Mackintosh, of Ottawa, was sworn in on Wednesday afternoon in Montreal as Lieutenant-Governor of the North-west Territories. Lord Aberdeen administered the oath of office. —The Toronto public schools may have to close for a month owing to the appropriation made by the city council being $35,000 less than the sum needed. —Hon. T. L. Dodge, county treasurer of Kings, N. B., and a member of the Legislative Council of Nova Scotia, died on Thursday. The deceased was 70 years of age. —Sir John Thompson, in an interview in Montreal, Thursday, said that the government intended calling Parliament as early as possible, at all events as early as last year. You know, there is a good deal of work ahead. The government is always alive to the necessity of tariff reform, and at the proper juncture will show the people that they have their interests at heart. "When will the general elections be held?" "I think you know all about it yourself. They may come upon us like a thief in the night." —News has just reached us from a reliable source of a very important discovery of iron in the South Mountain, near Victoria, Annapolis Co. The veins are reported at from five to twenty-two feet thick, and the ore as assaying as high as 40 per cent. metallic iron, with less than one-sixth of one per cent. of phosphorus, and not three-tenths per cent. of sulphur, making a No. 1 Bessemer ore which is in great demand. All the assayers who have tested the ore, both in England and the States, agree that it is the best ore from the Dominion of Canada tested by them, and ascertained that a deposit running so high in metallic iron and so free from impurities is bound in the long run to prove of immense value. The samples sent for assay were all from the surface of the veins, and the ore when mixed from the solid bed will undoubtedly run still higher in metallic iron. The valuable deposit of iron is all held under leases by Mr. J. R. Hall, of Middleton.—Halifax Critic. British and Foreign. —The health of the Pope is again exciting much uneasiness. —The opening of Imperial Parliament Thursday attracted little attention. Few members were present, and the debates were virtually empty. —While the Civil Governor of Madrid, accompanied by several members of the cabinet, was returning on Sunday on the principal promenade of Madrid, he was attacked by a gang of men and severely beaten. —Sunday's election for one hundred and forty-seven members of the Swiss National Council resulted in a crushing defeat for the Socialists. Only one of the candidates of that party was elected. —A Russian ukase has been issued ordering the formation of fifteen new reserve brigades, which is equivalent to an immediate increase of the army to a war footing of the addition of one hundred and fifty thousand men. —Several cardinals are favorable to a policy by the Vatican less hostile to the Italian Government than the one now pursued, but the influence of Secretary of State Rampolla has been powerful enough to outweigh his brother cardinals. —The troops under command of Major Forbes and Dr. Jameson, administrator of the British South Africa company, occupied Bulawayo after the general fight, in which the Matabele suffered heavily. The British lost 100 men, the Matabele are flying to the north. —All the Australian colonies display great interest in the visit of Mr. Mackenzie Bowell, and the coming conference with Canada is regarded as being of the greatest importance. It is said in Melbourne that it will be held early next year, and that Great Britain will send a delegate to discuss the Pacific cable project. United States. —Marquette, Mich., had the first snow-storm of the season on Saturday, Oct. 28. The snow was thick, and was driven by a blizzard from the north. —The first snow-storm of the season in Minnesota fell in St. Paul Thursday morning and lasted about an hour, with the thermometer at freezing point. —The vintage of the present season in California will be about eighteen million gallons, or about three million gallons in excess of last year's yield. —The commissioners of the World's Fair will send a memorial to Congress, asking for aid towards the establishment of a national academy of art, science and industry. —The United States House of Representatives, Wednesday, after some discussion, concurred in the Senate amendment to the Repeal bill, and the President signed at half-past four o'clock. —The Viking ship started from Chicago on Wednesday on its journey to St. Paul, Minn., to which city it was presented before the close of the World's Fair. —Five agents of the New York Society for the Prevention of Crime, of which the Rev. Dr. Parkhurst is president, were mobbed on Friday by persons who, it is claimed, are friends of the keepers of disorderly houses. —The two hundred and eleven anniversary of the landing of William Penn was made the occasion on Saturday of commemorative ceremonies on the ground in Philadelphia where the landing took place.

She has three daughters who have died in 27 months, but all died in faith in Christ. —WEBBER.—At East Boston, October 9, Annie M., beloved wife of Lawson C. Webber, aged 30 years. She was a daughter of Jeremiah and Lucy E. Lemis of Pembroke, Hants Co., N. S. Her mind was not for a moment disturbed by fear of death. She felt confident that the blood of Christ had cleansed her heart and that she would be with Him to behold His glory. —COOK.—After only five days of suffering Deacon James Cook, died October 15, at his home, Oakfield, Co. N. B., aged 68 years. Our brother has not enjoyed good health for some years, but was much better during the last summer. He experienced religion and was baptized into the Rickland Baptist Church, by the late Elder Outhouse, during a revival some 40 years since, where his membership remained until the organization of the Wakefield Baptist church, at which time he removed his membership and was appointed one of the elders of the latter church, which office he held until the Master called him up higher. Bro. Cook was a faithful Christian, an affectionate parent and a kind neighbor. He leaves five sons and four daughters, besides a large circle of relatives and friends who have preceded him to glory, to mourn their loss. He was a strong faith in Christ, so that he rejoiced in the prospect and hope of glory. May the God whom he rejected to serve be the portion and comfort of all his loved ones in the prayer of their pastor and sympathizer. —HARDY.—At Smith's Cove, Oct. 16th, Charles A. Hardy, aged 40 years. The deceased was a son of the late Deacon Benjamin Hardy. He leaves a widow, mother, two brothers, four sisters and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Our departed brother professed faith in Christ and was baptized by Rev. J. D. Skinner, June 1876, and united with the second Hillsburgh (Smith's Cove) Baptist church, of which he remained a consistent member till his death. He will be greatly missed, especially in the home circle. Upon his widowed mother the stroke has fallen heavily, and he has been called to part with her husband a little more than a year ago, and now the son upon whom she has leaned for support has been removed by death. May the consolation of the gospel sustain and comfort in this trying hour. His funeral took place on the 18th, and was largely attended. Rev. A. T. Dykeman, pastor of the Digby church, improved the occasion by a very solemn and impressive discourse, from Job 14: 13. —BURNS.—At Springfield, Kings Co., Oct. 22, Margaret, daughter of the late Hugh Burns, aged 65 years. —The chief characteristic of nineteenth century life is rapidity. If you are wise avoid hurry in eating—hurry in anything. If you have been unwise and have dyspepsia, use K. D. C. the King of cures. —"Have used one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and am cured of liver complaint completely." Mrs. J. Pock, Jarvis's Corner, Ont. —Use Skoda's Discovery, the great blood and nerve remedy.

Something About Lesson Helps for '84.

It is now become a recognized fact that the Helps published by the American Baptist Publishing Society are the best for Baptists, and for 1884 it is proposed to make them still better. Think of the circulation for 1883, nearly 34,000,000 copies—an increase of more than a quarter of a million over the circulation of the year before. The Helps will contain, besides the International Lesson Helps to those who use the Senior or the Junior Studies in the inductive series, together with an outline of each lesson, with blackboard illustrations, and help for the "supplemental lesson." "Two Years with Jesus," by Miss Dimock, and hints for the management of the primary class. "The Inductive series" are Junior (for intermediate classes) and Senior (for advanced classes). The first course begins January, 1884, extending one year and a half, will be a chronological life of Christ. Prices: Junior, single copy 6 cts; in clubs of five and upwards 4 cts. per quarter, 10 cts. per year. "Senior" 10 cts.; in clubs of five and upwards 6 cts. per quarter, 24 cts. per year. "Two Years with Jesus," is a pictorial lesson help for primary classes, edited by Miss J. E. Dimock. It will be published quarterly, about size of the Intermediate Quarterly, a distinct lesson from either International or Inductive series. It will be acceptable to those desiring a change. The International Lesson, as found in the Graded, helps Baptist Teacher, Senior, Advance, Intermediate, Primary, Picture Lesson, Bible Lesson Monthly, Superintendent and Bible Lesson Pictures. All are on sale at prices as before, and are right up to the mark with material for student and teacher and soloists. Pollock's Notes for 1884 now on sale. The Golden Texts are to be ready in a few weeks. The question of the best system of study of the Bible in our Sunday-schools is attracting some discussion, and it is natural to look around for the best, and we have no hesitation in stating that the best is to be found in the Helps. They are the best. If, however, any one desires, we can accommodate him with the Blakelee's graded helps. The lessons for 1884 are outlines of Old Testament History in four grades of Helps, viz.: Primary lessons and cards, child's quarterly, Intermediate, and Progressive. Single copies of any grade 40c.; for five or more to one address, 30c. a year. A Teacher's Manual, published monthly, 50c. a copy; five or more, 40c. per year. We hope every superintendent and teacher will send for our order blank, which contains full list and prices of these Lesson Helps, except the Blakelee's—full information with envelope to return your order for 1884. In order to lighten our work up in the cash with your order every time. These are strictly cash, and please don't say, "Remind me to send," or "I'm doing so it takes time to send," through a year's orders. It will simply delay the order, as we shall have to write you to specify what you want. Don't leave your order until 1st of December—send it in as soon as possible, not later, if possible, than 20th November, when you can be sure to have the '84 Helps on time. Again, be sure and sign your name to your letters. Several orders are here now—no name, no place attached. Money order, draft payable to the undersigned, is surest and safest mode. Finally, begin to consider this matter at once, and be first if you can with your order. No delay here, your order goes off by noon mail every day—sure. If any delay in receiving your goods, please remind us by postal within a reasonable time, when we will wake up Philadelphia. GEO. A. McDONALD, Sec.-Treas.
