THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1905.

FROM ALL OVER
NEW BRUNSWICK

FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, April 25—Before leaving for Upper Canada last evening, R. W. McLellan stated that the costs Agricultural Society No. 34 would have to pay in the Baird & Peters case would be less than $300.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parish church, when Miss Mabel Annie Fisher, who lately came here from England, was united in marriage to Thomas Theodore Boyce, brother of ex-Ald. W. W. Boyce, and formerly of England. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Roberts and those present included only the immediate friends and relatives.

Mayor McNelly had a visit yesterday from Lieut.-Col. Wadmore, commandant of the local military depot, in the course of which Lieut.-Col. Wadmore asked the mayor to see if the Scott Act could not be more strictly enforced. The military man is said to have contended that the soldiers from the depot were sold liquor by local liquor dealers when they were not fit to have anything more to drink. It is not known what action will be taken. Col. Marsh, police magistrate, is reported to have met Lieut.-Col. Wadmore right after he had been making his complaint, and today Col. Marsh said he told Col. Wadmore that the fault was not with the local liquor dealers, but with the military people themselves, who did not keep the laws, and sent their soldiers out on the street in a drunken condition after they had filled up with beer at the sergeants' mess or at the canteen. It is also contended by the police magistrate that there is a great deal of liquor sold on Sunday to citizens at the sergeants' mess.

The annual meeting of the parish church of St. Marys was held last evening. A notice was posted by the vestry clerk announcing that the election of a rector would take place on May 22, and it is altogether likely that Rev. Dr. Duffy, who has been acting as rector for some time, will be elected. Dr. Duffy came here from Chicago and has made hosts of friends.

Samuel McFarlane, who for some years has been superintendent of St. Paul's Presbyterian church Sunday school, is critically ill at his home and there is little or no hopes held out for his recovery. Mr. McFarlane has been ill for some time with typhoid fever and only yesterday was downstairs and about the house. Last evening he was taken suddenly and seriously ill and this afternoon it is not thought that he will recover.

John E. Wilson, Beatrice J. Wilson, Charles Coohan, Edward McLaughlin and W. D. Thompson, of St. John, are applying for incorporation as J. E. Wilson Company, Ltd. Object is to acquire and carry on a mercantile and manufacturing business and also the business of John E. Wilson, St. John. The capital stock is to be $30,000.

The case of W. H. Thorne & Co. vs. S. R. Bustin occupied the attention of the Supreme court this afternoon, and will be continued tomorrow. The attorney general and E. T. C. Knowles are moving for a new trial. Hazen and Harrison, contra. In the Supreme court this morning, W. H. Trueman moved to quash the conviction recently made by the police magistrate of St. John against Colonel Blaine for wrongfully issuing a liquor license. The conviction was made under the 59th section of the Liquor License Act, and Mr. Trueman claimed that the evidence produced before the magistrate was insufficient to support the decision. He cited a number of authorities in support of his contention. The court said that it would grant a rule absolute for certiorari and also a rule nisi to quash with a stay of proceedings, the rule returnable in Trinity term next.

In the King vs. the Dalhousie Town Water Sewerage, Fire, Light and Police ex parte J. C. Barbare—Mr. Hazen, K. C., moved to make absolute the rule to quash the proceedings of the town meeting of Dalhousie, made by Justice McLeod. Rule absolute.

In the King vs. George M. Byron ex parte Owen A. Batsou—Mr. Cockburn, K. C., shows cause against an order nisi granted by McLeod, J., on April 8th, 1905, to quash a conviction made against Batsou for keeping liquor for sale contrary to the C. T. act.

Orderly Room Sergt. Coupe of No. 4 Company, R. C. R., has disposed of his property on Westmoorland street to Fred Harrison, who resides at present on Charlotte street. The purchase price was about $1,800.

Nothing official has been heard today at No. 4 military depot as to how many men are to go to Halifax from here, or when they are going. Orders from Ottawa are expected at any moment and everybody is very much awake at the barracks. There is an unofficial rumor to the effect that the detachment will leave for Halifax on Tuesday of next week.

The military authorities state that the civic authorities cannot definitely and with any truth state a case where a soldier has left the barracks in an intoxicated state. The liquor dealers have formed a compact not to allow any soldier to enter their places of business.

The latest news from the Nashwaak drives is to the effect that they are making very satisfactory progress, and the chances are favorable for the whole cut of 25,000,000 getting out. The logs are practically all out of the brooks, and the drive at the head of the river, over which some anxiety has been felt, is reported to be in safe water. The mild weather of the past few days has brought the river up to a good driving pitch.

Driving operations have commenced on the Miramichi, but very few logs have as yet been brought out of the brooks. The water is low, but as there is yet from one to two feet of snow in the woods at the head of the river, the large operators are hopeful that the drives will be got out.

A GRAVE SCANDAL President Roosevelt once said that his administration would be "as clean as a hound's tooth." Much of his popularity is due to the widespread and well-founded conviction that he is personally a man of absolute honesty.

CANDIDATES AND PUBLIC QUESTIONS Before the last civic election some effort was made to have the candidates place themselves on record on public questions in which the taxpayers were interested...

Mr. Smith, unquestionably, would be surprised and confounded if he knew how many people have not abandoned their belief because of Darwinism or the higher criticism. He mistakes himself for a multitude. He has a characteristic fling at the churches:

THE "CLASSES" "Are there classes in the United States?" the New York Globe asks in a critical review of Mr. Jack London's "War of the Classes"...

AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT In temperance matters they do not do things by halves on Prince Edward Island. The Legislature, convinced that the present brand of prohibition does not prohibit, has amended the act in such a fashion that the most interesting experiment has followed. In some Scotch cities on the Island there has been more than one instance of intemperance since the license system. The legislators now unanimously agree upon...

These conditions continue. The people are beginning to understand how they were brought about and what they mean. Hence the story which the packers wound into the long ear of Mr. Garfield is not regarded as funny by another agent of the government must get at the facts. Probably, too, the president will see that action is taken before the next election, for then the Republican party will be judged largely by its relations with great industrial combinations under whose oppressive methods the people are complaining and whose monopolistic achievements thoughtful men view with increasing thoughts.

As all events the position of the United States with respect to both Venezuela and Santo Domingo has caused much criticism, and in the Santo Domingo matter Mr. Loomis was said to have exceeded his authority and placed Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Hay in an awkward position. His friends said he was made a scapegoat to carry into the wilderness of forgetfulness the errors due to presidential impetuosity. So the case stood when the Herald sent a staff correspondent to Caracas to see what was behind Castro's defiance of the big republic of Monroe. The correspondent's answer is that Castro holds evidence sufficient to convict Mr. Loomis of improper transactions, that Mr. Bowen, the present American minister, knows this, and that European diplomatic representatives at Caracas have been told all about it and have seen the facts, or the charges, to their respective governments. In fact, as the Evening Post says, such scandalous allegations have not been made against an American diplomat for decades, and it must be assumed that the Herald stands ready to make his correspondent's word good in court. If true, the scandal will be accepted as explaining Castro's cocksure attitude when the United States pressed himself to ask him to speak definitely. He says he will enforce the license law to the letter, and is opposed to the tax reform proposed, feeling that it will bear too heavily upon the poor. Continuing, he says: "Thirdly, as to Halifax tramway company matters: Constitutionally I am a believer in the 'sunny smile' rather than in the 'muddled list' or 'big stick', and I would like to have several needed reforms effected by the Tram Company without any compulsion. But it may be considered understood that if elected I intend to see that such reforms are effected. The company's charter gives certain powers to the mayor of the city respecting the operation of its cars, which powers, I understand, have never yet been exercised. I would consider it my duty to see that an equal and efficient tram service would be provided throughout the city and the rights, comfort and convenience of the citizens who use the tram secured to them. These reforms I feel assured will require no force or compulsion to effect them, but in any event it will be my aim to secure them. I am not a corporation candidate nor committed to any monied interests in any way. In this regard, perhaps, I have a freer hand than my opponents. In any event, without any ambition to be or to be regarded as a 'trust-buster', I think that in any conflict between the citizens and any corporation whatever, I may be trusted to know my duty and to perform it. "Fourthly, as to freedom from taxation:

It can scarcely be denied that between the higher criticism on one side and Darwin's discovery on the other materialism is the scientific and philosophic sense, positive or negative, is gaining ground. We are called upon at all events to find a new way for spiritual life, for reliance on the dictates of conscience, for any hopes that we may have cherished of existence beyond the grave, for confidence in a divine order of the universe. We can no longer believe that the miscellany of Hebrew writings, many of them of doubtful authorship and date, some of them plainly mythical, are a divine revelation. Nor is anything to be hoped from an attempt to evade the difficulty by suggesting that Deity, in his dealings with man, had to accommodate himself to the Darwinian belief of evolution. Of the Gospels, criticism has spared only the character and teachings of Jesus, which, on any hypothesis as to His nature, have given birth to the independent. In the authenticity, contemporaneity, harmony of the documents, we can confide no more. We can no longer sincerely accept the evidence for the miracles, the resurrection, or deem it such a proof of a revelation which was to be the light of the world. Moreover, the fallacy of the argument is apparent. The fallacy is a myth, as it is now allowed almost on all hands to be, there is no ground for the incarnation and the incarnation, a doctrine which is itself fatal to the dogmatic and traditional creed of Christendom." "Mr. Smith, unquestionably, would be surprised and confounded if he knew how many people have not abandoned their belief because of Darwinism or the higher criticism. He mistakes himself for a multitude. He has a characteristic fling at the churches: "Dr. Oiler may be right in saying that life, and of such hopes as may reasonably be attached thereto. A new religion independent of tradition may yet be born.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 25—(Special)—The budget speech was delivered by Premier Peters in the local legislature tonight. The greater part of his two hours' speech was occupied with the question of the Island's claims for a share of the Halifax fishery award and the readjustment of subsidies.

A CITY RULED BY SIX MEN

Houston Following Galveston's Example.

The Letter's Commission Government, Instituted After the Great Storm, Reduces Assessment Rate and Debt--Houston Votes to Elect Only Mayor, Comptroller and Four Aldermen--at Large and Vest All Powers in Them--A Phase of the Initiative System Also Adopted.

Houston, Tex., April 25--Interest in the recent charter changes secured by the City of Houston has been revived by many inquiries from both near and remote points having poured in upon the city.

"In reply to your inquiry, I will state that the press despatches which have been directed to the north to the effect that Houston has in a sense abandoned local self-government are wholly untrue."

"On the contrary, Houston has taken a great step forward in the adoption of the initiative and referendum system of government, and it has done so without abandoning in any respect the principle of local self-government."

"The names and post office addresses of every person who signed the petition presented above are now in the hands of the Direct Legislation Club of this city. It is proposed to organize the signatures of this petition, if necessary, so that their influence may be felt at the approaching city election."

"An effort will be made to get every candidate to agree, if elected, to vote in favor of letting the people decide by a referendum election whether the initiative and referendum should be placed in the hands of the city."

"It is not thought that any fair-minded candidate in deference to the sentiment which has already crystallized upon the subject, will decline to make a pledge of this character, whatever may be his individual views on the subject."

"The city will now be divided into six wards, two aldermen being elected from each ward, and the offices of mayor, city treasurer and city health officer will be held by popular election."

"The charter has been passed in accordance with the provisions of the law, and the public sentiment is almost unanimous in favor of the change."

"A partially successful attempt was made to incorporate in the new charter the referendum and initiative system, but the majority of voters went to the trouble of expressing their views on these provisions inserted in the charter of the city of Houston, and they were not included."

"The change in our form of city government was not made because of any special objection to the officers who were in office at the present time, but because the system was necessarily vicious and wrong in principle, and results were being simply impossible."

"Houston, with its rapidly increasing population and unparalleled material prosperity, needs an efficient and business-like city government to quickly become the Chicago of the south-west, and since this requires of our people against war-battered and political officers."

Ignore Warning Against Stock Tropical Investments--Government Showed Them to Be Unsafe--Many Companies Like Ubero Still Offering Stock.

Washington, April 24--A year ago last October the department of agriculture warned the public against putting money into such tropical enterprises as those organized by William D. Owen and F. E. Borges. The warning went forth in the form of a bulletin which had a wide circulation, but persons who were looking for easy money heeded not, and, according to the government's information, Owen and his associates have sold more than a million dollars worth of stock in their several tropical companies since the department put out the word of caution. At the time the warning bulletin was issued by the department of agriculture, the direction of Secretary Wilson sent O. E. Cook, an Indianapolis, promoted by Owen and Borges, was having a large sale. It was one of the concerns the department had in mind, but not the only one, as numerous tropical enterprises were springing up and offering stock for sale. In order that investors in the United States might not be misled, Secretary Wilson sent O. E. Cook, botanist in charge of tropical agriculture, to Mexico and Central America, to make an investigation. The inquiry was directed against the kind of promotion which is being conducted in the United States at that time were making a specialty of promising that great returns would be obtained from investments in growing rubber.

TEN MINERS DROP 750 FEET AND ARE DASHED TO DEATH

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 26--While ten miners were being lowered into the Conyham mine today, the rope broke and the men fell to the bottom, a distance of 750 feet. All the men were instantly killed. The bodies of the men were buried under a mass of wreckage in the shaft, and it will be several hours before they can be recovered. Several hundred men were in the mine at the time of the accident, but they escaped from the shaft through other openings. There was a rush to enter the mine at the time of the accident, and because of the bottom of the mine, and because of the rescue party was at once organized, and they found the bodies of the men in the shaft, but they were not recognized as they entered the shaft.

A rescue party was at once organized, and they found the bodies of the men in the shaft, but they were not recognized as they entered the shaft.

When the Hillman was reached he slowed up. Without any warning, the rope snapped and the carriage containing the ten men dropped like a shot to the bottom. The car had all the safety appliances and its speed should have been checked before it reached the bottom, but as far as can be learned, the catcher did not work.

AMHERST BOARD OF TRADE ANNUAL MEETING

Old Officers Elected--President McKean Quotes Figures Showing Great Progress of the Town.

Amherst, April 26--(Special)--It was a happy thought of the retiring president that the money which they put into the investigation of tropical agricultural prospects was not wasted. Immediately after the publication of the report, the Ubero plantation, which was the subject of the investigation, was being sold by the Ubero plantation.

After reading the minutes of a previous meeting, in which a certain correspondence of the election of officers took place, and the officers of last year were unanimously re-elected as follows: President, John McKean, manager of Nova Scotia; Vice-President, ex-Mayor C. A. Lusk; Secretary, treasurer, A. D. Ross.

The financial statement of the treasurer showed the balance of the board to be in a healthy condition. Among other matters referred to was the starting of a carriage factory in Amherst on a large scale.

President McKean's remarks brought forth the following facts and figures, showing that the existence of the board of trade was justified by the results.

1st--Among the things accomplished during the year through the Board's invitation were: Enlargement of L. C. R. freight shed, completed.

2nd--The year's growth and operation. The estimated amount invested in building operations was $390,000. The assessment increased from $238,691 in 1904 to $2,617,003 in 1905.

The amount of freight paid during the year was $278,806. The amount of capital invested in leading industries is $2,368,979.

The output of leading industries, $3,594,403. Wages paid by leading industries, $177,403.

Number of hands employed, about 1870. The most remarkable feature of the romance was that almost precisely the same thing happened to Miss Orr not long after she was returned to the home of her father.

Miss Alice Orr, had been made acquainted with the "interesting case" by letter, and she was subsequently the day lengthened into weeks and Miss Orr, living at the home of L. F. Cutter, a millionaire on Harvard street, Brookline, read between the lines that her husband was in love.

It was not long before Miss Orr was called to attend Joseph Peel, a middle-aged man living in the western part of the state. He is an Englishman and had traveled extensively.

He was seriously ill and the young nurse had to exercise all her skill and knowledge to restore him to health. When he recovered they became engaged and the girl planned the double wedding which took place tonight.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE OF A ST. JOHN MAN

St. John, N.B., April 27--(Special)--Romance which began in a sick room culminated in a beautiful marriage.

The beginning of the love story of the beautiful Ann Donahue and her husband, Joseph Peel and Miss Annie Orr were quietly married.

Some twenty years ago when an annual breakdown became as fashionable as an annual holiday, the medical world agreed that if the tired body were kept in bed, hypochondriac and managed, a cure was pretty certain.

In many cases where there had been no mental overstrain this was so. In other cases, however, the worried head did not benefit from the enforced quiet and passivity. The whole man was unutterably tired.

Dr. Otto Wetterstrand, of Stockholm, is trying to meet this difficulty by treating such patients by a sleep prolonged over three or four weeks, and the Psycho-Therapeutic Society of London hope to follow his methods when they are introduced.

"The doctor himself," the remarkable results, says a great French physician, "which Wetterstrand had and which considerably extend the limits of suggestive therapy."

The doctor, unlike that produced by hypnotic drugs, it is as invigorating as natural sleep, and lends nature an equal chance of rearing organic and functional disorders.

How the Stomach and Kidneys Depend on the Inside Nerves

Every day medical science becomes more simple and more certain. Simpliciter and certainty go hand in hand. For science has learned that while there are many diseases that are not curable by medicine, many of these are not curable by medicine.

For instance, indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles--diabetes, Bright's disease and other kidney disorders--heart troubles, liver troubles, start--can you even make it feel--irritability, all of these ailments are due to a single cause. Painful, disagreeable and dangerous, though they be, they are not curable by medicine.

Understand first that we have two entirely separate nerve systems. When we walk or talk, or act, we call into play a certain set of nerves--the nerves that govern the muscles, the nerves that govern the heart, the nerves that govern the lungs, the nerves that govern the stomach, the nerves that govern the kidneys, the nerves that govern the bladder, the nerves that govern the rectum, the nerves that govern the uterus, the nerves that govern the prostate, the nerves that govern the testis, the nerves that govern the ovaries, the nerves that govern the lungs, the nerves that govern the heart, the nerves that govern the lungs, the nerves that govern the stomach, the nerves that govern the kidneys, the nerves that govern the bladder, the nerves that govern the rectum, the nerves that govern the uterus, the nerves that govern the prostate, the nerves that govern the testis, the nerves that govern the ovaries.

There is another set of nerves which manages and governs and actuates the heart, the stomach, the kidneys and the bladder and all of the vital functions. You cannot control these nerves. By no supreme effort of mind can you make your heart stop or start--nor can you even make it vary by a single beat a minute. And so with the stomach and the liver and the kidneys and the bladder--they are automatic--they do their duty without your will. They are governed by the inside nerves.

It is on these inside nerves that life and health depend. So long as these nerves perform their proper duties we are well and strong. When they fail, we know it by the inevitable symptoms--stomach, heart, liver, kidney troubles. And these troubles have no other origin, than in these same nerves.

For the stomach, the heart, the liver, the kidneys, have no power of their own, no self-will, they are automatic--they do their duty without your will. They are governed by the inside nerves.

HAPPILY HONOR ST. GEORGE'S DAY

Brilliant Function in Union Club's New Dining Hall

BRIGHT SPEECHES

Local Society's Celebration Largely Attended and Enjoyed—Lieut. Governor Snowball Present—Excellent Menu; Capital Speech and Song.

The banquet in the Union Club has been many and lavish, but the celebration Tuesday commemorating the anniversary of England's patron saint was, by common consent, one of the most elaborate and happy functions in the history of the club.

The memory of the immortal St. George could not well have been more royally honored. The members of the society named after him entered into the spirit of the occasion and there was a feast of reason and flow of soul, indeed.

The banquet was held in the new dining hall that has been added to the old club building, and the tables as arranged under the direction of Edward Wilson, the steward, emphasized the beauty and spaciousness of the apartment.

Places were taken at 8 o'clock. At the right of the president, W. Watson Allen, Lieut. Governor Snowball and at the left B. R. Macaulay, president of St. Andrew's Society.

Dr. Thos. Walker proposed kindred societies, coupled with the names of B. R. Macaulay, president of St. Andrew's Society, and G. V. McInerney, K. C., for the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society.

- Menu: Oysters on Half Shell, SOUP, Mock Turtle, Consomme, FISH, Boiled Rock Cod, Egg Sauce, Chicken Croquettes, Tomato Sauce, Sweetbread Patties with Mushrooms, Sherry, ROAST, Turkey, Ham, Marbled Potatoes, Parsi, Cauliflower, Fruit Salad, Whippled Cream, GAME, Black Duck, Red Currant Jelly, PASTRY, English Plum Pudding, Brandy Sauce, Charlotte Russe, Green Fruit Pudding, Port Wine Jelly, Pineapple Jelly, Filled Bread, Celery, Cheese Balls, Dranges, Grapes, Nuts, Raisins, Confectionery.

When the feast of good things had been done ample justice the chairman proposed the King, which toast was duly honored to the strains of the National Anthem.

The toast list was then interrupted for a few minutes while the guests were photographed.
