SOME GOOD HORSE RACING

When the New Track Was Opened on Dominion

The Edmundston Driving Club, Alderman J. Frank Rice, president, J.
W. Hall, secretary, opened its track for class racing on Saturday Afternoon, July 1. Rain threatened in the afternoon and two races were not finished owing to the rain coming whilst the races were on. Notwithstanding, however, that the weather was not all that could be desired over seven hundred people were present, and the races to be held here this summer will prove to be big social events in the life of the town. It has meant an immense amount of work
to get the track in its present shape
and to build the stables, and as soon as the grandstand is finished it will be one of the best tracks in the province. There were five races scheduled.

The first, Class A 2, four horses were entered, Rosa Reed owned by J. W. Hall; Lena Wanda owned by P.
J. Martin; Kenneth K. owned by George Strain and Silvery Bill owned by P. Martin. This race was finally called off on account of rain after three heats and a tie. Class A 2
Trot, Three horses entered, Tiger
Green owned by J. Nebury; Colonel Kerworthy owned by J. W. Hall; and Edith G. owned by J. Guerette. Two heats were run in this race in which there was a tie and it was called off on account of rain. Class B, Green Pace, three entered, Billie Bill owned by J. P. Rice; Rex owned by Vial Robert; and Junior Ward owned by H. M. Clavette. Junior Ward won two heats of the three heats and Billie Bill
drew second place in all three heats.
Class C, two entries—Woodchuck
King owned by P. Ringette and Alice Homeland owned by T. M. Richards.
Woodchuck King came in first in both heats. Class C, four entries—
Harry Bill, owned by Joseph Andet;
Fred G. owned by T. Gagnon; Black Beauty owned by P. Ringette; and Jeff owned by Joseph. Jeff came in first and Black Beauty second in both heats.

It is safe to say that if the management of the race course keep the races clean and exercise a jurisdiction over the entrants and the visitors, and keeping to the minimum the things which have in some places brought discredit upon horse-racing, then the club and the racing from time to time will be a decided benefit to horse breeders and will be the source of a great deal of enjoyment to the lovers
of the sport of kings.

GRAND FALLS

Quite a number of the High school
boys and girls went to Andover Monday to try the exams.

Rev. J. J. Graham left Monday for St. John to attend the Presbytery there, and then goes to Montreal for forty-two weeks with his family.

Mrs. John Hennigar, Mrs. C. C.
White, Miss Elizabeth McLeod and Miss Marjorie Wiley went to Chipman on Wednesday as delegates to the Convention there on the 5th, 6th
and 7th.

Mrs. S. Smith and little granddaughters went to Fort Fairfield to the celebration on the 4th.

Allen McLaughlin was in Fredericton this week on business.

The McLaren Theatre was packed to the doors on Thursday evening by parents and friends of the High School Graduating Class of '6. Miss Beatrice
M. McLaughlin, Ralph Kirkpatrick, Allen Estey, Walter Warnock, Raymond Burgess and Ross Glenn. There was music by the orchestra, speeches by Rev. J. Graham, Rev. A. J. Patstone
and Dr. Kirkpatrick, A. D. Jones, principal of the school and chairman for the evening, was very highly commented on his three years of hard work here, which resulted in the first graduating class exercises ever held at Grand Falls. The valedictory was delivered by Miss Beatrice M. McCormick. The class prophecy was read by Master Edward Rouleau and caused much laughter as each one of the class's future was pictured. The "Last Will and Testament" of the graduating class to the school, also was very interesting and caused much mirth. Altogether it was a most enjoyable evening, and our town people are all very glad that Mr. Jones has decided to stay another year with us.
Grand Falls will have the same staff
of teachers next term with the exception of Miss Mallette.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson of Fort Fairfield were in town Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kerton were in Fort Fairfield last week.
Mrs. J. P. Kelly was in Van Buren
Sunday.
Everett McCluskey of Limestone
was in town Monday.

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE SHOCK

(Carleton Observer)

At 5.21 on Sunday afternoon there was experienced one of the most severe shocks of earthquakes ever observed here. The quake was particularly noticeable to those who chanced to be upstairs, but even people who were lying on the grass plainly felt the tremor. Locally the most severe demonstration was that the town clock was made to strike, and in the home of A. A. Moore the clock stopped dead. The earthquake was reported at practically the same minute from Campbellton, Chatham, Fredericton, Woodstock, St. Stephen, St. John and throughout Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia. The Dominion Observatory at Halifax recorded not only this shock but one occurring about five o'clock in the morning of the same day. Washington observatory reported the quake as occurring at an estimated distance of 100 miles, which would take in the Maritime provinces.
In fact the shake-up was purely local.
The Observer, from its ignorance of the cause of seismic disturbances, begs to submit as one possibility a theory that the unusually heavy rains have penetrated to the very depths of the earth, and, so to speak, "the fire was in the fire" with the consequent explosion.

BRISTOL BREVITIES

Miss Evelyn McCarthy of New York arrived this week to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Marich.
Daniel Libby of Houlton is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Danks.

S. N. Banks and M. W. Caldwell received the tender to erect the new school-house and will start building operations at once.

Mrs. Raymond Estabrooks and little son are visiting relatives at Deer-
ville.

Miss Esther Jensen of Hartland
spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs.
N. R. Jensen.

Mrs. Harold McDougall spent the past week with her parents at Glas-
ville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Simonson
have sold their dairy farm at Monoton and have returned to Bristol.

Mrs. Anson Boyer and Mrs. A. O.
Phillips spent three days at Marysville last week, acting as delegates to the U. Baptist Convention.

Mrs. McGlew and child of Mars Hill have been visiting her sister Mrs. Anson Boyer.

Miss Mary Miller of Connell was the week-end guest of Mrs. Guy Welch.

Miss Leila Nevors of Hartland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ernest Dyer.

The Primitive Baptist Quarterly
Meetings were held here from Saturday until Monday and a large number of people were here in attendance.

Hartland boys came up Monday evening to play ball with the Bristol
boys, but on account of rain the game was called off.

BRIDGE OPENING

The plans for the opening of the Bridge on the 24th of September are gradually maturing. Martin Thorlaht is enthusiastically every one with plans for the day. The publicity department will have advertising out within a few days. If only we get a fine day and every one co-operates to make the thing a success, Edmundston will have more advertising than it has ever had before.

DOMINION DAY

Dominion Day was not as rainy as it might have been but still there was an air of uncertainty about it that a great many timid people stayed at home instead of picnicking.

The stores closed from two to six and the mill was shut all day. A great many people went away for the week-end, others went on fishing trips, some parties got close to nature by taking their meals out in the woods, and a great many took advantage of the races.

NEWSPAPER MEN LIKED EDMUNDSTON

We have received a number of exchanges commenting very favorably
on the reception given to the newspaper men on their way to Ottawa.
One of the most flattering was that of The Picton Advocate, which says "Immediately on our arrival we were the guests of the Board of Trade to a turkey dinner at the Windsor Hotel, and it was a real dinner. Vizards of the best, perfectly cooked and served.
Long will that meal remain in our memory. After dinner we were taken on a drive around and about the town and then to a reception in the basement of one of the theatres used as a community hall. Here we had speeches galore and a program of music, vocal and instrumental, which would have done credit to a much larger place. The Mayor of the town is the editor of the French newspaper.
Max Cormier is the name and he is a hustler and possessed of sound judgment as a civic ruler as well as being an A1 newspaper man. He has a great partner in Mr. Cormier, a beautiful young woman of delightful manner, who is a skilled musician and member of a most excellent orchestra.
The past year there has been an influx of English into Edmundston so that an English newspaper has been established there. It is owned by Fred. H. Stevens of the Hartland Observer, and is edited by the Rev. John Hardwick, a Presbyterian minister of parts, who is very popular in the town and to whom we took a fancy, because,
perhaps, he smoked his pipe like a veteran. Edmundston is the boom town of the Maritimes. In 1921 its population was 1800, in 1922 it has over 4,500 inhabitants, which is not too bad for the effect east. It has been made by the establishment there of the pulp
mills by the Fraser Companies, Ltd., one of the greatest lumbering concerns of the continent. Edmundston has all the advantages and most of the disadvantages of a boom town.
On the up wave everybody is optimistic, full of pep and vision of greater things.

There is a lot of building going on and well paid employment for all.
Business in stores is brisk, trade in every line is good. As with all rapidly growing towns there is a certain crudeness. The town has hardly taken shape as yet; the houses and even the streets are scattered. There are problems—the streets, the schools, water services, etc. With these the civic rulers are grappling with confidence, but also with due caution and we will be much surprised if within a few years Edmundston will not be a most desirable town residentially
as it already is from a business viewpoint.

(We thank Mr. Fisher for what he has said about our town, but our growth has not been quite as rapid as he says. It should be 1912 instead of 1921, but we are still growing—Editor.)

WERE THEY RUM RUNNERS?

Just after daybreak on Monday a Ford car, driven by two young men, drove rapidly up Main street and in making the turn to the bridge approach, crashed into the wire fence enclosing it. The front wheels of the car went over the edge but the car was held thus by the fence. The drop below was several feet and the wonder is that the car did not somersault, in which case there might have been a serious disaster. It is believed that not the least part of the tragedy would have been the spilling of a cargo of contraband, for those who had the best opportunity to judge declare their belief that the boat was laden with liquor. The car bore a Maine tag, and a few hours later The Observer learned that they had safely arrived in Houlton.

CAVE-IN MIGHT HAVE CAUSED DEATH

(Carleton Observer)

While engaged in making an excavation for the new addition to the United Baptist church one day last week
Clyde Rideout was completely covered by the caving in of earth and was rescued just as his breath was exhausted. He was so deeply buried that he could not move hand or foot.
He was rescued just in time to save his life. It might well have been that no one was near to lend assistance,
in which case this article would have been an obituary.

Coldstream Notes

Hatfield Shaw spent a day last week with his brother, Theo Shaw, in Woodstock.

Mrs. Russell Paget is staying at the home of Rudd Craig for a few days helping to care for her father who is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Edmund Estabrooks and Miss Marion Page left on Monday for a week's visit with their sister, Mrs. Ralph Shaw of Millinocket, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weldon and two boys, of Milo, Me., are spending a few days in this place. Mr. and Mrs. Enock Estabrooks spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Colin Carter of Red Bridge.

The freshest of last week was the worst in these parts since an October in the early eighties having on Thursday afternoon taken the Coldstream bridge and overflowing all the flats. Quite a considerable amount of damage has been done. The men got busy on Saturday and erected a temporary foot bridge and the children are again at school.

HARRY R. CURRIE

The funeral of the late Harry R. Currie of Arlington, Mass., who passed away on June 22, took place on Sunday 25, at the First Baptist church and was largely attended. His pastor, Dr. Henry Sterling Potter, conducted the service and was assisted by Rev. A. A. Rideout of Waltham and Rev. W. J. Rutledge of Whitman.

Dr. Potter spoke of his life and influence in connection with the church where he had served as superintendent of the Bible School, clerk of the society, and secretary of the standing committee and paid a high tribute to his worth and achievements. Rev. Mr. Rideout spoke of his early life and of their friendship which began when they were schoolmates. Rev. Mr. Rutledge offered prayer.

The wealth of floral tributes evidenced the esteem in which he was held. A large number accompanied the remains to Mount Pleasant cemetery where interment was made.

Mr. Currie was a son of the late Judson Currie of Hartland and attended the public schools in the village. He is a graduate of the Fredericton Business College. His first position was with the Woodstock Wrapper Factory. About twenty-three years ago he moved to Boston and during the past fifteen years has resided in Arlington, where he has been employed as a public accountant. He was a member of the Baptist Social Union and of the Canadian Club of Boston. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Bessie Johnston of Woodstock, and one son Douglas, also his mother, Mrs. Currie of Hartland; four sisters, Mrs. P. H. Boyer of Hartland, Mrs. W. W. Estey of Vancouver, Miss Lily of Cambridge and Miss Sadie Currie of Hartland; and one brother, Arthur, of Hartland. The latter two were present at the funeral. Among other Hartland folk present were Miss Georgia Reed and Miss Ella Tompkins. He was held in very best esteem by his large circle of acquaintance and much sympathy is expressed for the family in their sorrow.

Hartland friends of the deceased tender deepest sympathy to the relatives.

Windsor Whisperings

Evangelist F. W. Foster is holding revival services here with great success. In spite of rain, bad roads and every thing the church is pretty well filled every night and much interest shown.

The freshest did considerable damage almost completely demolishing H. A. Smith's mill at Bedraeton. The bridge just below the mill went with the wreckage. The Hamilton Brook bridge went. The people got together next day and replated it. The roads were almost impassable, but were quickly repaired. Robert Faulkner had a large barn raising Friday.

C. P. Wasson is building a machine shed. H. A. Smith is having extensive repairs put on his house.

LEE-SEARLES

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Holy Trinity church on Wednesday afternoon, June 28, when Miss Alice Searles of Sussex became the bride of Joseph Lee, one of the best known farmers of Glassville. It was the first wedding in the pretty little church and the chancel was beautifully decorated with flowers. Although the event was unannounced the church was well filled with interested spectators. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. H. W. Annett the bride entered the church and was given away by Elmhurst Brooks of Foreston, while Miss Thelma Scovell of Beaufort was the bridesmaid. Immediately at the close of the solemn marriage service the newly married couple were met at the chancel steps by Fred H. Stevens, senior church warden, who, following one of the ancient customs of the church, presented them with a family bible which he admonished them to accept as their daily guide throughout their married life. The wedding party repaired immediately to the rectory where refreshments were served after which Mr. and Mrs. Lee left for their home at Glassville. During the past year Mrs. Lee has been the teacher at Beaufort.

Appetite Good,
Gained 20 lbs.
Could Not Feel Better

From a nervous wreck this man was restored to health, strength and happiness.

He tells his own story in this letter.

Mr. Ralph A. Roberts,
Lovers, Sask., writes:

"In 1917 I had lost all appetite, failed 25 pounds in weight, became very nervous and shaky and in fact given up all hope of recovery. For some time I had suffered from constipation, which kept getting worse, until I was fast becoming a total wreck. Doctors and their drugs were sending me to my grave at the age of 39.

"Then I read about people being restored by Dr. Chase's Medicine and after three months' use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills I found that my bowels were restored to normal movement, such day and constipation was no more. I had a good appetite, had gained 20 pounds and could not feel better. I shall always be grateful for these benefits."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box; Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, 25c a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

HARTLAND, N. B., JULY 7, 1922

A LITTLE JOURNEY TO THE HOME OF SUCCESS

The Edmundston Observer has been published now for several months and during that time it has increased in popularity, at least that is what an ever lengthening subscription list shows. A good part of the success of the paper has been due to the fact of its remarkably good print, its clear type, and its mechanical good-lookingness. Most people know that whilst the news of the town and vicinity is gathered in the town itself, and that the editorial work is done here, that the paper is printed and published from the headquarters of the Observer Newspapers Ltd., at Hartland, N. B. Very few people, comparatively speaking, however, know anything about the Hartland office and plant, and the presiding genius of the Observer Newspapers.

The late Elbert Hubbard used to speak about, and publish articles and books using the title of "Little Journeys to the homes of the Great". Now, whilst I would hardly use that title in exactly the same way, I would modify it in this article and call it "A Little Journey to the Home of Success". Let it be understood that the word "success" has several meanings. Success is a qualitative word. To the millionaire too often success is spelled only with the mark of dollars and cents. To others it means social prestige. Still other men think of success as gratified ambitions, leading to honours and titles conferred by mere man. But success in its truest sense means far more than that. A man may be immensely rich, and yet a helpless failure. A man may be ever so learned and receive outward honours thick and fast, and yet be in his own heart a failure in the big things of life. Success is harmonizing the various factors of life, and in battling with the difficulties of life until those difficulties are hammered and welded into the stern metal of character. In a large measure that is what we found, when we found ourselves at the end of the journey, when we went to discover success in its lair.

The president and publisher of the Observer Newspapers Ltd. is Fred H. Stevens, a veteran weekly newspaper man. Hartland is a little village that makes Edmundston look like a metropolis. A few stores, a hotel, good sidewalks, a station of the C. P. R., a good farming country around and—the O'servers office and plant.

The plant, what do we find, a country job printing establishment, with a printer and a half grown boy as helper? With one or two old fashioned presses, where the type is laboriously set by hand and where everything is dirty and grimy, and black with printers' ink? If that is what you expect, you are agreeably disappointed, for here you find an up-to-date printing establishment where the president has his office, and where his secretary, Miss MacMullin, takes charge of the routine things, and where the book-keeper is located, to the very end room where the printing is actually done, and the newspapers sent out to eager readers from St. John to Vancouver, to readers who once used to live in this northern part of New Brunswick. The machinery and presses, not resurrected from the ark, but modern machines costing thousands of dollars. To the layman a description of these machines would be tedious, and I will not try to describe them, suffice to say that one machine fascinates you as you watch it working. A machine with tens of thousands of parts, costing a small fortune, but so mechanically perfect that you are almost persuaded that it is possessed with brains. At this machine the type is set. An operator sits comfortably at the machine, and touches lightly the keys of what looks like a big typewriter. Immediately the key is touched there is a matrix (or mould of character) released which corresponds to letter touched, and soon a line is assembled (about five or six minutes) and after the assembling of each they are sent off through the machine which while another is being assembled the former one is passing from one position to another and in its travels is properly justified at the mould of the machine and at this point the metal is squirted through the mould into the letters cut into the matrices and there hardens immediately and as the machine continues to travel the mould withdraws from the mats, carries its line past a trimming knife which trims along (or line of type) to right height; then on to the trimming knives which trim the line to a thousandth of an inch in accuracy, at which knives the line is ejected between and the line falls on its tray, also at this time the matrices are on their way to the magazine which contains around 1500 in 90 channels all sorted out so that each channel always has its proper letter in it to correspond with the keyboard. All the machinery is run by an engine, everything works along with clock-like regularity, and with uninterrupted celerity. Edmundston has special news, for instance, at eleven o'clock Friday morning: the editor telephones it to Hartland at that hour, and at one o'clock—two hours after—the C. P. R. is speeding on its way with the weekly paper containing the eleven o'clock news of the same day. But no matter how interesting a machine can be the man who owns the machinery is much more interesting and so we will interview Mr. Fred Stevens himself. "Fred" as he is called by ninety per cent of the newspaper men of Canada—was not born with riches, he did not inherit a newspaper, or a printing plant, nor the means to buy them. And the story of the struggle to get them and to publish papers and to put out printing de luxe, is a story of pluck, perseverance and courage unsurpassed anywhere.

Over forty years ago Fred H. Stevens appeared on the scene in Hartland, and that day a new star appeared on the newspaper sky, not that its light was then seen, but nevertheless it appeared. Thirteen years afterward the boy printer bought his first printing press and the real taste for newspaper work manifested itself. A little while after this he was smitten down with a sickness which made him almost helpless for a year or two. But what others would have resigned themselves to, this plucky boy rebelled against and, gradually with faith and perseverance he began to gain his strength and to achieve the impossible. In 1897 he published his first paper and all he gained was experience and the Advertiser died; and after the funeral expenses Stevens had neither money or health and for five long years he battled again to regain his health, or enough health to battle with life and wrest success from an unwilling world. In 1909 he had sufficiently recovered his health—and his courage was never at an ebb, so that he started, once more, a newspaper—"The Carleton Observer." And from that day the paper business has been a success. With a circulation in and around Carleton and Victoria counties, that is a credit to any weekly newspaper in Canada, he sends out a paper that is a credit to any newspaper plant anywhere. He says his success in those counties is due to the fact that he gives the local news, and lets his readers gather world-wide events which do not touch directly the people in his territory, from the daily papers. He is a local news specialist. But his Carleton Observer is not only a mirror for news. Mr. Stevens has decided opinions and expresses them without fear or favour. Does a politician in his domain depart from the straight and narrow path, woe betide him, no matter what his politics, for the dictionary will be searched for, for words scathing enough, and damning enough to pillory him, until the culprit withdraws from public life.

He looks upon the paper as a trust, and he jealously guards the prerogatives of his stewardship. To build up the community, to encourage local industries, to keep down vice, to hinder raw deals, to unmask hypocrisy, these are some of the things that he feels falls into his sphere as a proprietor of newspapers.

Some few months ago the Edmundston paper was started with the writer as editor, and in the correspondence which ensued before the arrangements were consummated, these things were discussed, and in the case of the Edmundston paper, as with the Hartland paper, its publisher stands for an absolutely fair deal.

When speaking with a friend some months ago, the writer asked him about the speech of a certain public speaker, and the answer from the lips of his friend, who was something of a wag, was this "He talked for two hours, but he didn't say anything." Stevens talks freely, and people listen, and he always says something, although he is not a public speaker, but to be a good conversationalist means something these days. Practically self educated, he has a fund of knowledge, which is especially true in the realm of literature, and quotations spring to his lips from the English classics, which shows not only his familiarity with the world of books, but the training of a keen mind.

Barnum once said that the world boasted so many millions of people, mostly fools. Apropos of that, Stevens weighs only 99 pounds, but it is mostly brains. Despite his physical handicap which necessitates the use of crutches, he is essentially a man's man. Last year he crossed the continent with the newspaper men, and was one of the popular men of the party, and this year when the Association went to Ottawa he was one of the sought after men of the press association.

He is the best known figure in Hartland, respected by the townfolks, and loved by the children. He belongs to the Knights of Pythias, is the New Brunswick Director of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association, which position he has held for several consecutive years, and is churchwarden of the Episcopal church. From early in the morning until late at night he is to be found in the Observer Office, directing, guiding, inspiring. He is unmarried. He loves music, and possesses a good voice. He is a good writer, and his stories have appeared in Canadian periodicals again and again—in the past, for now he has no time to write fiction. His sister, who keeps house for him, travels with him and helps him, has the same qualities as he has, but are manifested in making a real home, makes a delightful hostess to his friends and welcomes all who makes a visit to his plant.

Success is a qualitative word. Men with millions are oftentimes failures. Ambition satisfied sometimes makes for discontentment. But for one who in his business has built up an establishment with modern equipment, and an ever increasing clientele and subscription list. Who in his profession is deferred to in the councils of a National Association, who is deemed sane enough and business like enough to be elected again and again to the Directorate of the association which is the largest Press Association of Canada, if not the continent. Who refuses to let his body dominate him—but laughs at what to others would be a cruel fate, but who takes his place with other men, and is listened to by them, with affection and respect, who acknowledges his faults, and is intensely human, this man surely knows the meaning of success.

And as surely my readers will acknowledge that they have taken with me "A Little Journey To the Home of Success." And will say with Kipling—"He's little and he's wise. He's a terror for his size. Ain't yer Fred?" John Hardwick.

TELEPHONE CO'S TO AMALGAMATE

(Carleton Observer)

On Monday afternoon there was a meeting of the shareholders of the Farmers' Telephone Co. to decide upon two proposals. One was the offer of the N. B. Telephone Co. to buy the Farmers' Company outright; the other was for the Farmers' to sell to the N. B. Company their Woodstock and Florenceville exchanges and to purchase the Hartland N. B. exchange. A majority of the shareholders at the meeting favored the latter course. It would be part of the contract that there would be united service with both lines so that all subscribers of either line could have connection with either line. In plain, so far as the public is concerned there would be no duplication of service, but each subscriber would have all the advantages of both systems.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

A lively fishing party left Edmundston on Saturday, consisting of the Misses Lillian Lynott, Helen Stevens, Roberta Hammond and Miss Emily Babin, Miss Burpee, Lloyd Sinclair, and Ralph Murchie. They went to St. Rose and paddled down to Pius Michaud's cottage located on the Quebec boundary. The party arrived home on Sunday. They all tell fish stories, but they left the biggest fish in the water. Some fish stories are very fishy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Frebner motored to Woodstock on Monday. They were accompanied by Miss Lillian Breaner and Alec, the latter going to the hospital there to be operated on for appendicitis. Miss Breaner will remain there until the patient is convalescent. We hope Alec will soon be home again. Its hard luck to spend the school vacation in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stevens went to Woodstock the end of last week accompanied by their three children, the youngest of which is to be operated on. Mr. Stevens brother, Harry, was here over the week-end attending to the business. We hope that the little chap in the hospital will soon be well enough to come home again.

Some person spoke to the editor one day about a "Pious Ford" and on being asked what a pious Ford was, was told that it was a Ford car which found its way to church. The ministers in town wish devoutly that not only the Fords, but some of the other cars would get the pious habit too.

A great many patrons of the Western Union are glad to see Miss Lillian Miller home again after her vacation. For dispatch Miss Miller is almost as fast as the wires over which she sends her messages, and for being obliging she is famous all over Edmundston.

Mrs. Burgoyne's two sons are home from college, and 21st street is livelier than ever. If anyone should have the blues the place to dissipate them is right there. It is a home of cheerfulness and the right kind of pleasure.

Mr. Hanaught is known as the greatest saxophone player in the maritime provinces. If you want to have a good dance and hear some real music come to the Palms Monday night. The best yet. Gents $1; Ladies 25c. All are welcome.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood was baptized on Sunday evening at the residence of Mrs. Sherwood's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Florent Deschene, on Sunday evening by Rev. A slight earthquake shock was felt here about 5.30 Sunday afternoon. Beds were shaken, dishes rattled, etc. This was quite noticeable in the vicinity of the Madawaska Inn, although some other parts of the town appear not to have noticed the shock.

A delicious supper was held at the residence of the Misses Berube, on July 1, by the "Hilltop Tennis Club." Later in the evening the members repaired to the home of the Misses Miller, where the rest of the evening was enjoyed in dancing. Those present were, Stella Barube, Lourdes Berube, Marguerite Moss, Marion Odell, Allie, Lillian and Della Miller, and George Gillies, Eugene Stevenson, Emerson Hewitt, Fred Lachance, Donald Seely and Lee Seely.

Fire broke out early Thursday morning in the home of Honore Oullette, in the Martin Settlement district of the town. The origin of the fire is not known but a defective stove pipe is suspected. The house was partially insured, and was owned by Mr. Oullette. Damage several thousand dollars. The house was of the cottage type.

The Galleryman of the St. John Journal says:

The automobile accident to Mr. Archie Fraser emphasizes the fact that the very best of auto drivers are not immune sometimes from disaster. I do not know of any driver in the Province who has better command of his car and more intelligence in driving than Archie Fraser. He always drives a big, heavy car and, when conditions are right, is a fast driver, but those who have accompanied him on different occasions on his long drives from Edmundston to Fredericton have said that they always felt perfectly safe when he was at the wheel. He was too good a driver not to make fast time on the road. He knew where to get the mileage out of his car and where to slow down. He always anticipated difficulties and prepared for them. Apparently the slime and mud in a July road did not come within his calculations. There are many sharp turns near Swan Creek and Mr. Fraser, no doubt, came to trouble on one of them. We can only express gratification that he was not seriously hurt for he is so valuable to the business life of New Brunswick to meet with any serious mishap.

SENDING ROADS TO GLOUCESTER

(Carleton Observer)

It is only fair that the following correspondence coming from a Woodstock writer, be given prominence and editorial endorsement, with reservations:

Your Centreville correspondent thinks some of our roads should be sent to Gloucester county for repairs. Is it not fair, if we ask Gloucester county to repair our roads, that we should give them the Valley Railway? The estimates for interest and upkeep of the Valley Road are more than double the ordinary road money for the whole province. One would expect the people of the North Shore to grumble a little, but they do not. Your correspondent well knows that the little insinuation he made cannot be backed up with facts and that Carleton county shares as well from the public money as any other county. The matter is quite clear when you remember the state of mind caused by the recent by-election in the Province.

A BUSINESS COUPE OF STEEL

Dodge Brothers offer to the business public of America an entirely new principle in Coupe body construction.

From framework to window mouldings the body is built of steel. It is the first all-steel closed car ever marketed. This design anticipates every possible requirement of commercial travel. It insures unusual quietness—unusual grace—unusual stamina. It has made it possible to give the Coupe that same lustrous baked-on enamel finish for which Dodge Brothers open cars have long been famous.

The upholstery is of genuine leather—leather that will wash and wear. The seat is wide and comfortable. Carrying compartments are accessible and spacious. The car is equipped with a heater, dome light, window levers, windshield cleaner, cord tires, Yale door locks, and every other appointment necessary to the owner's comfort and protection.

Built inside and out to withstand the wear and tear of everyday use, it retains the same lightness and beauty of line which you are accustomed to look for in Dodge Brothers cars.

It is the Business Coupe which business people the world over have been expecting—from Dodge Brothers.

LOWER BRIGHTON

We are almost stranded between Woodstock and Hartland, cannot get to Woodstock by the highway and only with difficulty can we get to Hartland. The heavy rains of a week ago left the roads in such a condition that a person is in danger of his life by passing over them.

In the face of all the difficulties the C. F. R. had the train running past here in a few days. As yet there has been nothing done to the highway. The farmers could not haul a load of any kind to Woodstock or Hartland. Somebody must be taking things easy. Farmers! Get busy.

FRIENDS TELL HER HOW WELL SHE NOW LOOKS

"WHAT TANLAC DID FOR MY WIFE IS NOTHING LESS THAN ASTONISHING," DECLARES HALIFAX CITIZEN.

"My wife suffered for ten years from stomach trouble but Tanlac has completely restored her health," said John Bonsang, 33 John St., Halifax, N. S. Mr. and Mrs. Bonsang have lived in Halifax thirty-five years and are widely known and highly respected.

"Mrs. Bonsang's main trouble was indigestion," he continued. "Her appetite was very poor and she could retain but very little she ate. What she did retain caused gas on her stomach so bad she could hardly breathe. Nearly every day she had dull headaches, was very nervous and would roll and toss for hours at night, getting hardly any sleep. In spite of constantly taking medicine she lost weight and kept getting worse."

"What Tanlac has done for her is astonishing. Her appetite is splendid, she has gained in weight and does her housework easily. Her friends are always speaking of how well she looks. We are both deeply grateful to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Three Musketeers

In no picture ever produced is there so much pep and agility as in "The Three Musketeers." When the critics said that Fairbanks outdid Fairbanks they put it mildly. He did every known trick of the motion picture, producer, and then after all the tricks of the trade were finished he sat down and doped out some more, that are hair-raising to the nth degree.

ARCHIBALD FRASER'S NARROW ESCAPE

Archibald Fraser, President of the Fraser Companies Ltd., had a narrow escape from death on Tuesday when driving his automobile about twenty five miles down the St. John River from Fredericton.

Mr. Fraser was accompanied by Walter Jackson, Manager of the St. John River Log Driving Company. It appears that the car skidded on the greasy road, and completely overturned, and both gentlemen narrowly escaped death. Mr. Jackson had his arm fractured near the wrist and was severely shaken up. Mr. Fraser, although very severely bruised did not have any bones broken. Another car took both gentlemen back to Fredericton, and Mr. Jackson was removed to the hospital, but Mr. Fraser was able to be taken to his home.

The people of Edmundston heard with alarm the news of the accident, and not only the many employees of the Company here, but the townspeople were exceedingly glad to hear the reassuring news that Mr. Fraser was not very seriously injured. The President of Fraser Companies is too valuable a man, not only to Edmundston but to the Province and the Dominion in these days of reconstruction to be laid aside for very long. And we are sure that the readers of the Observer joins with the editor in wishing for him, not only a speedy recovery, but no ill effects from his unfortunate accident.

CENTREVILLE

Owing to irregularities in the train schedules the management of the picture house here was obliged to offer an apology to the patrons for necessary substitution of films. The apology was in no way a necessary one, as "The Way of an Eagle" on Wednesday and "The Poverty of Riches" on Saturday evening were both wonderful films. This week they are presenting Corinne Griffith in "Broadway Bubble" on Wednesday and "Tom Mix in one of his very best on Saturday. On each evening a reel of comedy will also be run off, with button-buster results.

The holiday was observed quietly here on Monday, each going the direction and pulling the stunts that, in their several ways constituted a day of pleasure. Fishing, motoring and picnicking caught the majority of the joy-seekers.

The teachers of the school here left last week for their summer vacation. Harrie Harper, the principal, going to Port Elgin and Miss Nellie Thomas to St. Stephen.

Mrs. B. R. Field and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bonnell in St. John.

Rev. H. R. Bell, F. J. Sloat, A. R. Hawkins and E. L. West spent a couple of days at Marysville last week attending a Baptist convention.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. West and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Currier left on Monday morning for an auto trip through Southern Maine.

Charlie Estabrooks, Barry Sloat and the Misses Hildred DeLong and Eleanor Hawkins spent Thursday at Nickerson's Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilland spent Sunday at Bath.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dickinson of Avondale spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jameson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Kinney of Lakeville were called home over the week-end on account of the illness of the former's mother, Mrs. Harvey Kinney.

R. J. Clark left on Thursday for Hamilton, Ontario, where he will work in the interests of the Dayton Scale Co.

Miss Dorothy Clark returned on Friday to Presque Isle.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Goodspeed are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter, born on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. White were at Woodstock on Saturday.

Notice of school meeting are posted for Monday, July 10, at 10 o'clock.

W. H. Ross, piano tuner of St. John, was in town Monday on business.

T. W. Black and staff of Woodstock will install the officers of Centre Lodge I. O. O. F. on Monday evening, July 10, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Malcolm Brown of Glasville were in town on Monday.

St. Col. L. L. Kennedy are attending the summer camp at Sussex.

S. H. McAuley has charge of a crew of workmen who have started to make much needed improvement on the hill approaching Boundary. This piece of road is only one of many which needs immediate attention.

Miss Amy Tompkins and Mrs. Roy Hunter of East Florenceville were in town on Monday.

W. P. Teddie of Hartland was in Centreville on Monday.

Mrs. Bell of Mars Hill visited her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Hawkins last week.

Many people of the town and country side are finding a great blessing in the cafe and bakeshop operated on Main street by B. Hawkins. A good line of choice home cooking can be had here at all times, and the proprietor is making a specialty of picnic lunches. He is very busy whether you take them out inside or outside. Any town needs such an establishment and the boss seems happy, so we take it that business is good.

Miss Ida Gertley spent the holiday at her father's home in Houlton.

Rev. C. R. Canham will be away from the parish for the next three Sundays. Members of the Church please take note. The next service will be July 30.

EVERYBODY ANXIOUS FOR
"THREE MUSKETEERS"

Sixteen duels, a man holding up a bridge while three riders cross it, the stealing of queen's jewels, a desperate fight with a conscienceless woman for their recovery, the smashing of one of the greatest intrigues of history—these are but a few of the dramatic incidents in Douglas Fairbanks' sixth United Artists picture, "The Three Musketeers," scheduled for a 2 day run at the Star, beginning next Saturday, July 8.

History retold in celluloid! That's what is claimed for this feature by the management of the Star. Based on the marvelous escapades of the dashing D'Artagnan and three of Louis XIII's Musketeers, the photoplay unfolds the history of France in the early Seventeenth century when the monarchy was dominated by the designing and crafty Cardinal Richelieu, a soldier by training, but a statesman and churchman only by virtue of intrigues he devised.

No more vivid and picturesque tale has ever been presented on the screen than this, according to Manager C. T. Johnson. From a photographic standpoint it is work of art, and the costumes and sets are marvelous. It is believed that this photoplay will go down in history as one of the classic productions.

Fairbanks' interpretation of the dashing and impulsive D'Artagnan will present him to his admirers in a new light, and the work of the all-star cast that supports him will insure satisfaction to all photoplay goers.

GOOD WORK OF
VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

(Carleton Observer)

That the Carleton County Vocational school is justifying its existence and the assistance given by the county was well evidenced at the closing exercises held in Woodstock, Tuesday, of last week. There was a large attendance of spectators from many parts of the county and the exercises from the "Drill on the Lawn" by the girl graduates to the closing piece within the walls of the handsome building, reflected the utmost credit on both teachers and students. Particularly worthy of reference were the addresses, salutatory by Aubrey Reid and valedictory by Ruthard B. Avery.

In its way each was a remarkable address, evidencing a high conception of citizenship by the speakers—well reasoned and well delivered speeches. One is led to think that the centre of intellectualism is shifting from the town to the country and that the day is fast approaching when the farmer will instruct the townsman instead of the townsman instructing the farmer.

If these two young men are typical of the coming farmer of Carleton county, it speaks well for the future.

"Class Gifts" by Miss Alice R. Jones and the "Class Prophecy" by Miss Mary M. Sunder were two well considered numbers showing that humor is still the voice of life. Miss Pauline Hay and Miss G. Pearl Mannel with choruses added greatly to the programme with musical excellence. The speech of the evening was by Mr. Fletcher Peacock and he paid a high tribute to the Vocational school, which he claimed was unsurpassed by anything of the kind this side of the Great Lakes.

A number of prizes were given and presented to the students to which the Womens' Institute contributed no small share. Certainly Mr. Maxwell and his associate teachers have reason to be proud of the showing made.

Probably there is not a institution in the county which has more important bearing on its future than the Vocational school, where practical subjects are taught hand in hand with cultural instruction. Through it the young farmer comes to see the mobility of his occupation and to learn that a good farmer and a high intellectual citizen go well and naturally hand in hand.
