GERMANS PREPARING FOR NEW RETREAT IN WEST

GERMANS ARE PREPARING FOR RETREAT TO THE SECOND LINE; CENTRE IMPERILLED BY FRENCH

Crown Prince's Furious Assaults Made To Pave Way For Further Retirement.

(By Henry Wood, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
(Special Cable to The Advertiser.)

With the French Armies in the Field, August 11.—The Germans are figuring on the possibility of the British and French offensive in Flanders forcing them to retreat to their next defensive line.

A desperate hope of retaking positions that would permit an eventual retreat northward from the Aisne and Champagne regions is what inspired the German crown prince to his violent assaults against the French lines, it appeared today.

Profiting by the temporary lull in the Flanders battle, the crown prince resumed attacks along both the Chemin-des-Dames and the Moronvillers crests.

May Be Cut Off.

Unless the crown prince can drive the French from these two dominating positions before results of the Flanders battle forces a shortening of the German front, the French from both the "Ladies' Road" and Morinvillers will be able to cut off and smash any attempt of the German centre to retreat.

The German attack, which has been growing stronger throughout the week, culminated in Friday morning's terrific assault from Pantheon to Chevrigny. There the same Alpine Chasseures who on July 3 advanced some distance, repulsed the Germans with the heaviest losses.

The German morale is weakening. This was indicated throughout the week by the constant surrender of their attacking troops. The French took prisoners in almost every attack. Capture of assaulting troops has been extremely rare in the past.

ENORMOUS LOSSES.

French Battle Front in France, Friday, Aug. 10 (delayed).—Several furious efforts to oust the French from their observatories on the Chemin-des-Dames, in the Aisne region, were launched by the Germans at dawn today (Friday). They all proved abortive, and resulted in the attackers suffering enormous losses, especially in the vicinity of Pantheon and Chevregny, where the enemy encountered the famous Chasseurs.

Killed or Captured.

A few German shock units succeeded in momentarily obtaining a footing in a French front trench, but their temerity was extremely costly, for none of them got away again, those not killed being captured.

The assault on this portion of the position was of the most violent characted, but the tenacity of the Chasseurs was greater than the determination of the Germans, who were simply mowed down as wave succeeded wave. The French artillery worked with astonishing precision in putting a wall of fire in front of the advancing Germans.

The battalions of the 201st East Prussian Regiment bore the brunt of the attack. They were supported by the 202nd and 203rd Regiments. Severe artillery preparation lasted eight hours.

Officers Stay Behind.

At 4:15 a.m. German infantry, each company preceded by a specially trained shock unit, advanced to the assault with the object of regaining the trench 1,500 yards in length which the same division had lost on July 30. The men had been told that they would not be relieved again until the trench was in German hands. Nearly all the German officers remained behind, the troops being led by sergeants and subleutenants.

The first rush gave the Germans a slight success in occupying the objective partially, but a rapid counter-attack thrust them back, and they left behind them heaps of bodies and 73 prisoners, without exception boys of 18 and 19.

POLICE ROUNDING UP QUEBEC DYNAMITERS

Arrest of Gang Which Blew Up Athelstan's Residence Expected.

Montreal, Aug. 11.—It is more than likely that a couple of arrests may be made within the next few days in connection with the dynamite outrage committed at Lord Athelstan's summer home at Cartierville early Thursday morning. The police are said to have obtained an important clue, as well as valuable information from one who was "on the inside" and who has told of the preparations for the blowing up of the house and the manner in which it was carried out. Some arrests, it is stated on good authority, might be made now, but the men who are at work on the case are anxious to round up the entire gang before any move in that direction is made.

A GRAVE SITUATION

Turbulence in Spain May Prove Hard Blow to Business.

Paris, Aug. 11.—Dispatches concerning the Spanish strike situation are rare and inconclusive. So far as known only the Northern Railroad is affected. There is a probability that the strike may spread to other roads. The split between the men and the company is over questions of discipline and duties, the directors having agreed to consider that of salaries. Even if the struggle should be restricted to this one road, its effect on the troubled political and economic situation cannot but be extremely grave.

RESOLUTIONS OF LIB. CONVENTION TO BE EXPLAINED

Statement of Interpretation To Be Made by Hudson of Manitoba Govt.

A VARIETY OF OPINIONS

Member for Emerson Says Convention Is Committed To Conscription.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Winnipeg, Aug. 11. — Resolutions passed by the Liberal convention are the main topic of discussion around the city. At the Legislative Buildings Hon. A. B. Hudson said that he would make a statement today as to his interpretation of the win-the-war and Laurier resolutions.

A variety of opinions is heard among Liberals. A few think that the convention was not definite enough for conscription and for the elimination of politics in the interests of a national government. The great majority of Liberals, however, take the view that the Borden Government had made a terrible mess of war administration, and that it was now time for a Liberal Government to take hold.

An Extreme View.

One lawyer of prominence declared that although he had three brothers in the army, he did not believe in conscription. He said that he almost felt it was time for Canada to pull out of the war, having done enough.

J. D. Baskerville, M. P. P. for Emerson, Manitoba, declared positively that the "win-the-war" resolution meant that the party was committed to the principle of conscription. "I have two sons at the front," he said. "If I thought I had not gone on record in favor of supporting them by every means in my power, I would feel like a murderer. Surely we are committed to conscription. Make no mistake about it."

As to the choice of Laurier's leadership, Mr. Baskerville declared that after forty-five years of unblemished public service, it would be a dastardly trick to throw down Sir Wilfrid. "He is as loyal to the cause as any man in Canada," he said, "and no matter what he may be reported as adhering to, I'm convinced that if returned to power he will enforce conscription if necessary to do so."

MAN DEAD AT QUEBEC AS RESULT OF A ROW

Quebec, Aug. 11.—As a result of a row near the C. P. R. station last night a man named James O'Neill died at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, this city, early this morning.

A letter was found in his pocket addressed to James O'Neill and dated from Montreal. A carter has been arrested as a witness.

LABOR'S MEMBER OF WAR COUNCIL RESIGNS OFFICE

Arthur Henderson Hands In His Portfolio To British Ministry.

HAS BECOME PACIFIST

Centre of Trouble Over the Coming Stockholm Socialist Conference.

London, Aug. 11.—Arthur Henderson, Labor member of the British war council, has resigned his membership in the cabinet.

Arthur Henderson entered the British war council without portfolio in December, 1916, when Premier Lloyd George formed a ministry in succession to that headed by Herbert Asquith. Up to the time of his appointment to represent labor in the deliberations of the war council he had been minister of pensions.

Centre of Storm.

Mr. Henderson had been the centre of a political storm that has been brewing in England for several weeks. In June last as a member of the British mission to Russia he went to Petrograd, and after conferring with the Russian Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates returned to London and advised the British labor conference, representing a million and a half workers, to send delegates to the International Socialist conference at Stockholm. The labor conference by more than three to one voted in accordance with Henderson's advice, thereby reversing the policy to which the labor party had committed itself at an earlier convention.

Much Feeling Aroused.

Considerable feeling was aroused in England last month when Mr. Henderson went on a mission to Paris with the pacifist, James R. MacDonald, and George J. Wardle, acting chairman of the labor party in the House of Commons, and a number of Russian delegates. The purpose of the journey was to confer with the French Socialists in Paris, and the subsequent international conference at Stockholm. His action aroused great irritation among the members of the British parliament, and this was increased when A. Bonar Law, speaking for the Government, admitted that the trip to Paris had been made without the knowledge of the British Government.

After hearing Mr. Henderson's explanation of his mission, which strongly emphasized his views that the proposed conference at Stockholm should be merely consultative and not in any way binding, and Premier Lloyd George's defence of Mr. Henderson's action, press critics of the labor leader still remained dissatisfied and urged that he would be forced out of the cabinet flew thick and fast.

Mr. Henderson started life as a moulder, and has been a member of parliament since 1903. He has held several official positions in connection with the trade union societies, and was chairman of the labor party in the House of Commons in 1908-1910 and in 1914. He was president of the board of education in 1915-1916, and paymaster-general and labor adviser to the British from October to December, 1916.

Son Killed in Action.

In March of the present year, Mrs. Alice Wheeldon, her daughter, Mrs. Winnifred Mason and the latter's husband, Alfred George Mason, were found guilty of conspiring to murder Mr. Henderson and Premier Lloyd George by means of poison. Mrs. Wheeldon was sentenced to ten years penal servitude, and sentences of seven years and five years, respectively, were imposed on Mason and his wife.

Mr. Henderson's eldest son, Capt. D. Henderson, was killed in action on September 15, 1916.

AUSTRALIAN GOVT. ADDS TO ITS CUSTOMS DUTIES

Melbourne, Australia, Aug. 11.—Additional customs and excise duties were announced by the Australian Government today. The chief increases in the customs are three shillings a gallon on imported spirits and one penny a gallon on excise duty. The excise on beer, it is estimated, will increase the revenue by £609,660.

The Senate has passed a bill making the daylight saving law.

The House of Representatives has passed a bill permitting returning soldiers up to fifty years of age to enter the Commonwealth service.

CANADIAN SHIP SINKS SUBMARINE, THREE SHOTS FINISH THE PIRATE IN BATTLE OFF THE IRISH COAST

Three Shots Wrecked U-Boat, and Crew Showed White Flag, Being Rescued by Patrol Vessel.

A Canadian Port, Aug. 11.—Officers on board a steamer which reached here today tell of an encounter with a submarine on the trip across the Atlantic in which the undersea boat was sunk. The meeting took place near the Irish coast. The lookout man notified the captain that a small sailing vessel was acting suspiciously. It was watched carefully and a submarine was seen to emerge from behind it. The gunner on the steamer had his weapon prepared, and directly the submarine showed itself he fired. He hit the undersea boat with his first shot. A second struck the conning tower and a third turned the submarine over and it began a nose dive. Its crew clambored out and waved white handkerchiefs. The steamer wasted no time in the vicinity, but left the saving of the Germans to a patrolboat that came up.

CUIRASSIERS SUBDUE MUTINOUS RUSSIANS

New Regiment on Way to the Front Fires on Guards.

Petrograd, Friday, Aug. 10.—Delayed.—Portion of a new ukraine regiment, which passed through Kiev today in a train on the way to the front, opened fire on the Cuirassiers, who were guarding the station. The Cuirassiers fired back and a battle began, in which soldiers on both sides were killed or wounded.

When the Ukrainians reached Novgorad-Volynsk an entire regiment of Cuirassiers was sent against the mutinous train and a fresh battle began. On the Cuirassiers bringing up machine guns the mutineers surrendered. Fourteen dead were taken back to Kiev. About fifty men were wounded.

ATTEND CITY CHURCHES. — No divine service will be held at Carling Heights camp on Sunday, but the men will be formed up in denominational parties and marched to the churches of their own denominations.

LIEUT. LITTLE WINS CROSS FOR VALOR

Advertiser Illustrations

LIEUT. BOYD LITTLE.

Word has just been received that Lieut. Boyd Little, son of R. A. Little, formerly of the Collegiate Institute, and now at New Westminster, B. C., has been awarded the Military Cross for conspicuous bravery at the last Wytchaete-Messines battle. Lieut. Little was born in this city and enlisted at Toronto soon after war broke out. He was transferred to an Imperial regiment, and has been in the front line for many months, lately having command of a bombing section. Those who remember him as a baseball player will realize that few could excel him as a bombing officer. He has been commended many times, and his Military Cross award will be pleasing to the thousands of friends of himself and the family in London. No finer young Londoner than Boyd Little ever went forward to do his full duty for the cause.

ISN'T IT STRANGE?

Londoners and residents of other places consider it strange that Food Controller Hanna should ship fish from the Atlantic seaboard, while hundreds of tons of fish are shipped from the district to New York and other American ports.

Equally puzzling is the announcement that at least 30 cars of cattle leave this district for Buffalo on the London division of the Grand Trunk alone. Yet beefless days have been declared.

The American fish trust and the American beef trust do not seem to have either fishless or beefless days.

WINNIPEG FREE PRESS SAYS BARGAIN MADE BETWEEN SOLID WEST AND LIBERAL CHIEF

Declares Laurier Is To Dictate War Policy and Give West Economic Reform.

Winnipeg, Aug. 11.—The Free Press learns on excellent authority that a group of leading Liberals of South Winnipeg, who are dissatisfied with the resolutions adopted by the recent Liberal convention on the war, national government and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, intend to call for an early date a mass meeting of Liberals of the constituency who hold similar powers for the purpose of discussing the situation that has been created.

The Free Press, in an editorial today, says:

"The cleverly disastrous and fatally brilliant tactics that transformed the late Liberal convention into a party catastrophe were intended to make possible a political coup.

Talks of Bargain.

"The west, to be made solid for Laurier by virtue of the excellent economic program adopted by the convention, while Laurier was to secure a solid Quebec on the issue of anti-conscription. Then there was to be a bargain. Quebec was to dictate the war policy of the new government while the west was to be given a considerable instalment of economic reform.

"The political possibilities of this deal have been much discussed for some months past. They were not overlooked at the recent convention.

"The plan is a clever one, but it will fail. The west can get the economical and fiscal reforms necessary to her advancement by honest means.

"Not even for this attractive mess of pottage will the west sell her birthright."

SHEIKS IN SESSION.

Boston, Aug. 11.—Sheiks and tribesmen from sanctorums in Canada and the United States gathered here today for the annual convention of the Oriental Order of Humility and Perfection, to be in session for five days. The order is composed of members of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, and is designed "to strengthen the bond of love and fellowship."

LUNCHES FOR THE MEN.—Lunches were provided by the Overseas Chapter, I.O.D.E., for the Canadian Engineers who left last night, and also for the members of No. 1 Railway Construction Draft who left earlier in the week.

SIX GERMAN NIGHT ASSAULTS HURLED BACK BY BRITISH; FRENCH BREAK UP ATTACKS

GERMANS ADMIT BRITISH GAINS ON JULY NINTH

Report Surrendering Ground To Heavy Attacks In Flanders.

Copenhagen, Aug. 11.—A special dispatch from Flanders to the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin cabled the 9th, describes three heavy British attacks on that day resulting in the forcing and crossing of the Steenbeek River at a point where the railroad from Boesinghe and Langemarck crosses the creek. It says that in consequence of better weather the artillery bombardment flamed up along the whole army front. This and other preparations indicate that a renewal of the general attack is impending as soon as the ground conditions permit the infantry to attack.

In the coast section the British attacked at 2 o'clock in the morning of the 9th after a short drumfire preparation, coming to grips with the Germans at various points, but according to the Vossische Zeitung's version they did not succeed in ejecting the Germans from their positions. Further to the south the British were more successful. Here two hours of drumfire from Herket to Frezenberg was the prelude to violent infantry attacks in the sector between Draaibank and Saint Julien. The chief effort was concentrated south of the Boesinghe and Langemarck Railway, where the British established themselves on the west bank of the Steenbeek.

HENDERSON BLAMED FOR LABOR'S VOTING TO GO TO STOCKHOLM

Delegates Will Not Be Given Passports, Is English Opinion.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Any application for a passport for a delegate to the consultative conference at Stockholm will be refused. The attitude of the United States Government toward the conference is no different from that toward the recent Socialist conference in Stockholm.

State department officials continued to regard as untimely participation in any conference of that character at this time, and if British delegates do go and learn at first-hand the statements of representatives from other countries, they will, of course, be made available for the American Government.

London, Aug. 11.—The anti-Stockholm press comments indignantly on the Labor conference, and ascribes the result almost entirely to Mr. Henderson's personal influence, declares the votes did not represent the Labor opinion of the country, calls for a referendum to prove this, insists on the importance of the non-participation of America and other belligerents, and declares emphatically that the Russian Government itself, apart from the workmen's and soldiers' delegates, has disassociated itself from the Stockholm scheme.

May Never Go.

There is pretty general doubt and in some instances certainty expressed that notwithstanding everything the British delegates will never go to Stockholm. Some are convinced that the Government will refuse passports. Others pin their faith in the obdurate refusal of the Seamen's Union to convey the delegates, while the conviction prevails elsewhere that the Russians have nothing to do with the conference which is merely consultative, and, therefore, the scheme will fall through. The last view is held in some quarters which are entirely friendly to the idea of such a conference as Mr. Henderson proposes. Meantime the whole matter is discussed with astonishing heat and fills much space in the papers.

PILSUDSKI TO BE FREED.

London, Aug. 11.—An Exchange Telegraph Company dispatch from Amsterdam announces that, pursuant to instructions from Berlin and Vienna, Brig.-Gen. Pilsudski of the Polish Legion will be released from detention by the German authorities in Poland. His release is conditional on his going to Switzerland and remaining there until the war ends.

A Copenhagen dispatch, July 25, said that Gen. Pilsudski, organizer and former commander of the Polish Legions, had been arrested by the German authorities while attempting to leave Poland on a false passport.

THE WAR SITUATION

Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig clinched his hold last night on the ground won in Friday's attack on the Flanders front east of Ypres.

The Germans made their inevitable heavy counter-attacks, no less than six of them, during the night, but all without success. Not only did the British maintain their positions, but gained some additional ground on their right wing, near the Ypres-Menin road.

Important Gains.

These new gains are probably important to the success of the British general's plans, for it was in just this sector that the British had failed to make all the progress expected of them. On the remainder of the two-mile front running north to the Ypres-Roulers railway, all the objectives were achieved in yesterday's assault, and have since been held.

Good Night's Work.

The German resistance was especially stubborn on the British right, but the result of the night's fighting, as reflected in the London official account, shows that despite this the British forces were able to forge ahead.

While the British and French have been making another forward thrust in the process of driving a wedge into the German lines in Belgium, the French forces have been heavily engaged on their own soil to the south, near St. Quentin, on the Aisne front, and in the Champagne.

A Brilliant Attack.

In the St. Quentin area, Gen. Petain's troops regained nearly all the section of line which the Germans had penetrated in their sudden thrust of Thursday night. North of the Aisne they carried out a brilliant attack and recaptured and held the whole of an important trench which the Germans had recently taken south of Ailles.

The fighting in the Champagne was of German initiative. An attack, launched over a front of nearly two miles, was broken up by the French, except at one point, to the north of Carnillet, and even there the Germans were afterwards ejected from the elements they had penetrated, with the exception of a stretch of some fifty yards.

MOLDAVIA ATTACKED FROM THREE SIDES

Russians and Rumanians Are Losing Ground At All Points.

London, Aug. 11.—The military critics here are watching the German attack in Rumania with anxious interest. The greater part of Moldavia, the only section of the country remaining in Rumanian hands, is being attacked, as shown in official dispatches, from the north, west and south and the Russians and Rumanians, who until recently conducted a victorious offensive, are now losing ground at all points.

Sinn Feiners Take Another Irish Seat With Big Majority

Independent Nationalist Defeated in Kilkenny By-Election.

London, Aug. 11.—Sinn Feiners today won another parliamentary by-election. This time they captured the seat for Kilkenny made vacant by the death last July of Patrick O'Brien.

William Cosgrave, the Sinn Fein candidate, defeated the Independent Nationalist, ex-Mayor McGuinness, by 380 votes. Cosgrave received 772 votes to McGuinness 392.

TWO FLYING CADETS DEAD BY ACCIDENTS TRAINING AT BORDEN

Cadet Heylar Killed This Morning — Cadet Walker Succumbs to Injuries.

Camp Borden, Aug. 11.—Cadet A. Heylar of the Royal Flying Corps was killed in the wreck of his aeroplane this morning. His home was in Midland. It is not known just how the accident occurred.

The victim of another aeroplane accident has just died in the camp hospital. Cadet Reginald Walker, who was flying with Cadet Smith at aerial gunnery practice, banked his machine too steeply on a turn and crashed to the ground from a height of about 600 feet. Both his legs were broken and pneumonia set in as the result of his injuries. He was the son of Rev. R. E. Walker of Victoria, B. C. His mother, who is now on her way east, will be wired at Winnipeg. Cadet Smith, who was in the rear seat of the machine, escaped with a few minor injuries.

Haig Stops Furious Drives and Gains More Ground—Brilliant French Movement Foils Crown Prince.

London, Aug. 11. — Six German assaults were made on the British positions to the east of Ypres during the night, according to the British official statement issued today. They all broke down after fierce fighting.

Field Marshal Haig reported that the British maintained their positions to the east of Ypres, and gained ground near the Ypres-Menin road.

FRENCH EJECT GERMANS.

Paris, Aug. 11.—North of St. Quentin, French troops during the past night made important progress in the region of Fayet, says the official statement given out today by the French war department. The French ejected the Germans from a large part of the terrain which they had captured on the night of August 9-10.

Germans Hold 50 Feet.

In the Champagne, the Germans launched several attacks over a front of nearly two miles in the region of Carnillet, and at one point succeeded in penetrating the French advanced trenches. In an energetic counter-attack, the French statement says, the Frenchmen regained the lost ground, with the exception of about fifty feet, which the Germans still occupy.

A Brilliant Attack.

On the Aisne front the French carried out a brilliant attack south of Ailles and recaptured an important trench which had been stormed by the Germans. Repulsing several counter-attacks, the French maintained the new positions.

VETERAN BUYER KILLED BY FALL AT HOSPITAL

Richard Galpin Was Believed To Be Too Weak To Walk About.

NO CHANCE TO SAVE HIM

Stumbled Through Window Before Other Patients Could Save Him.

A fall from a second story window at Victoria Hospital Friday morning resulted in the death of Richard Galpin of 1024 Mabel street, an esteemed old resident of the city, a few hours later. He had been in the hospital since June and was thought to be in a weak condition. His physician did not believe him capable of walking. He managed to rise during the night, in spite of his weakness, and to walk around his room. It was while doing this that he stumbled out of the window so suddenly that two other patients in the same room had no time to take action or call help.

No Inquest Necessary.

Coroner MacLaren was called and after viewing the remains and consulting with the crown attorney decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Galpin was the first grain buyer on the local market. He was 87 years old and had resided in the city 61 years.

Here Sixty-One Years.

He came to Canada from Dorsetshire, England, in 1855, and after living for a year in Windsor came to London. Besides his wife he is survived by two sons and five daughters, E. B. and W. H. of this city, Mrs. W. H. Steel, Mount Forest; Mrs. Mary L. Dreaney of London, Miss Edith at home, Miss Catherine of Chicago, and Mrs. D. A. McHardie of Hamilton. Richard Galpin of Brantford, former license commissioner here, and Thomas H. of Bathurst street are nephews. Mr. Galpin was a member of Court Defiance, C. O. F. The funeral will be held from Smith, Son & Clarke's parlors on Sunday afternoon to Woodland Cemetery, the services being conducted by Ven. Archdeacon Richardson.

IRISH PICNIC CROWD ESTIMATED AT 20,000

It is estimated that the Irish picnic attracted about 20,000 people, according to revised figures given out by the committee. The figures of the railways show that 12,000 persons were carried over the lines. St. Thomas sent down over 4,000, while London and intermediate stops furnished the balance. It is figured that fully 5,000 motored and 2,000 drove. There were more than 1,000 motors parked in and around the village.

"The success of the picnic was due in a very large measure to the kindly treatment of the press of London," said a member of the committee. "Printer's ink did the trick."

AMERICAN FLIERS ON WAY TO BORDEN

Another detachment of 205 members of the U. S. 17th Aero Squadron will pass through the city via special Grand Trunk train at 10 o'clock tonight, en route, San Antonio, Texas, to Camp Borden.

The American airmen are being trained at the Canadian camp by skilled birdmen who have seen actual service at the front. The last party of 150 passed through on Saturday last.

RAILWAY DRAFT BEING PREPARED FOR OVERSEAS

Recruits are coming in rapidly at the forestry and construction depot at Carling Heights camp, and although a draft of 50 railway construction men were sent eastward this week, another draft will be ready to leave in another week.

No. 20 Reinforcing Draft, Canadian railway troops, is now almost up to strength, and anyone who joins it now will stand a good chance of going overseas in a week's time. When the work of the medical board in examining, vaccinating and inoculating the men has been completed they will be ready to proceed overseas. This, it is expected, will take about a week.

In the forestry depot there are now about 100 men, and at the rate recruits are being received, it looks as if the additional 75 men required to bring the draft up to full strength will be on hand in a short time.

QUIT WORK FOR 2 OR 3 WEEKS AT A TIME BECAUSE OF TROUBLE

Could Hardly Raise Left Arm at Times, He Says.

OVERCAME HIS TROUBLE

Is On the Job All the Time Since He Began Taking Tanlac, He Declares.

"Honestly, I don't believe I have lost an hour from my work since I began taking Tanlac, and before that I was in such bad shape I had to lay off two or three weeks at a time," recently said J. T. Hawes of 10 McCallie street west, Hamilton, who has been in the employ of the Tuckett Tobacco Company, Limited, for sixteen years.

"I have been suffering from a bad case of rheumatism, and a general rundown condition for the past six months," he explained, "and got so I couldn't keep regular on my job as night watchman. My arms and joints hurt me so I couldn't do a thing, and I could hardly raise my left arm at all, my nerves were all unstrung, and I would shake like a leaf in the wind. I could hardly get any rest when I lay down to sleep and would get up feeling so bad I could hardly drag myself out of bed and go to my work. I was always hungry, but my food did not seem to do me any good, and I fell off so fast I soon lost twenty-five pounds, and was getting to be no good at all.

"After trying several different preparations without getting any relief, I got me a bottle of Tanlac, and soon felt it was straightening me out, for I began to pick up and feel stronger and better than I had in several months. I have gained two pounds on two bottles and I am going to keep on taking it, for I want to get back my lost weight, and I believe Tanlac will give it to me. I don't feel a bit of pain in my arms now, I enjoy my meals, and what I eat seems to do me more good than it has in a long time, my nerves are quiet now and I am back on my job every night, and have no more trouble from my old symptoms. I am feeling so well that I am glad to tell everybody about the relief Tanlac has given me."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, under the direction of a special representative, and by one regular established agency in every town.

MAJOR MURPHY DOING HIS BIT ON A HAY MOWER

Major T. J. Murphy, one of London's leading barristers, has done much for the cause in training officers in the Western University Training Corps. He is not content to be idle on his vacation, however, and in proof of this The Advertiser quotes the following from the Hepworth Progress:

"Major Murphy of London, who has been camping at Sauble Beach, is spending the week on the farm assisting George Eldridge with the haying. He may be seen driving a team of horses hitched to a mower in the fields those warmest days, and he is anxious to keep at this work from early in the morning to late at night. The major is as good a man in the hay field as in military."

THE GENTLY COOING CALF SINGS ITS SONG ALL NIGHT

A resident of Renwick avenue sends in a sad story. He is having a tough time these nights trying to sleep, all because of a serenade rendered by a calf which is tethered on a vacant lot near his home. The said calf is the property of a Waterloo street resident, and the Renwick avenue against-his-will nighthawk will be out for the blood of that person if the calf is not removed at once. He feels strongly on the subject, and with difficulty restrains himself sufficiently to write a letter fit to print. He hints of dark deeds if the calf is not taken away from his neighborhood. His letter reads:

"To a Resident of Waterloo Street."

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Permit me to use a little space in your paper. When a man comes home at night, tired out after a hard day's work, is he not entitled to a peaceful sleep? How can this be done when that young animal tethered on the commons opposite Renwick avenue is going to bellow every hour in the night?

Kindly see that this annoyance is discontinued at once, or I shall be impelled to do more than write to the editor of The 'Tiser about it.

A NORTH END RESIDENT.

MANY PROMINENT OFFICIALS FAVOR CITY DOCTOR FOR CASES OF SEVERE NEED

Dr. H. W. Hill Will Bring the Matter Before the Board of Health at Next Meeting—Superintendent Heard and Coroner McLaren Both Strongly Favor the Idea.

At the meeting of the board of health to be held on August 14, Dr. W. H. Hill, M. O. H., will broach the question of London having a public physician. Neither Dr. Hill nor the board of health have anything to do with this matter, but the M. O. H. has been kept so busy lately attending calls which he has really nothing to do with, that he feels that something should be done on the subject. Dr. Hill has authority to treat only infectious cases. He has no jurisdiction over non-infectious cases. The result is that when he is called to attend a non-infectious case he is in a fix. Under the rules of the board of health he is not permitted to act. But out of humanity's sake he is compelled to attend to the sick or injured.

Can't Have Private Practice.

"It certainly is awkward," said Dr. Hill. "I cannot have a private pactice, and I must not answer calls which are not infectious cases. Therefore I am really helpless in cases of illness where there is no infectious disease. I have been doing my best to aid those who apply to me for help, although it is really out of my ground. For example, the other day I was called to attend a little boy who had blood-poisoning in the foot. It did not come under my jurisdiction, but out of humanity's sake I attended the case. There really should be some doctor to whom such cases could be referred, and I intend to have the matter discussed the next time the board meets."

He pointed out that in an emergency call the other day he experienced difficulty in getting an ambulance, the police ambulance being engaged.

Ambulance for Hospital.

Dr. Hill is of the opinion that Victoria Hospital should have its own ambulance, which with a physician should be ready to attend calls at all times. He said that all big hospitals have an ambulance, and when an accident occurs all that is necessary is to call the hospital and they at once send both ambulance and doctor.

An ambulance suitable for cases of this type could be purchased for about $1,000. In event of a doctor refusing to come out at night, the hospital surgeon and ambulance could answer the call.

Dr. Hill contends that the poor would really receive better attention had the city a physician. Now some doctors are lax in attending them because they fear they will not receive their fee. Also if necessary the city doctor could order the patient to the hospital, where he would receive proper attention which is frequently lacking at home.

Mr. Heard Supports It.

Supt. T. H. Heard of Victoria Hospital, has been of the opinion that there should be a city physician for some years past. He is convinced that it would be cheaper in the end to have a public doctor. Mr. Heard states that some doctors send cases to the hospital which might really be treated at home, simply because they believe that they will not be paid for their services. Mr. Heard believes that this is justifiable, contending that a doctor cannot be expected to provide both his services and medicine to a patient free of charge. Were there a city doctor he would attend to the patient at home, and the city would provide the medicine free of charge, thus the expense of an extra patient at the hospital would be avoided. If necessary the patient, of course, would be taken to the hospital. This system, said Mr. Heard, would prevent cases from reaching the hospital unless it was an actual necessity, and so would probably pay the doctor's salary out of the saving of expenses of unnecessary patients it would effect.

On Call at All Hours.

"This doctor would be at the service of the public at all times, free of charge if the patient could not pay. In case of emergencies, such as witnessed during the past few days when doctors were called but refused to go out, the city physician would be called. I think it would be a fine idea," said Mr. Heard.

Coroner MacLaren is also in favor of a public physician. He has been called to several cases where the doctor's dilatoriness in answering the call sent in for him probably had serious effects.

"I am much in favor of the scheme," said Dr. MacLaren. "I think it would work fine. Everyone would know where to get a doctor the moment an accident occurred, and if the doctor was in he would be certain to answer the call."

EXPRESS DELAYED.

C. P. R. express No. 19, due in London at 11 o'clock, was two hours late last night owing to a derailment at Milton.

TOM CAKE, CAUGHT WITH GOODS, READY TO TAKE MEDICINE

Thomas Cake, a well-known one-legged character, pleaded guilty in police court today to a breach of the Ontario temperance act and was fined $200 and costs or three months in jail.

He was charged under section 41 of the act with having liquor on the street, which has been made an offence by a recent amendment.

"I plead guilty. I just stepped out the door to go down to a neighbor's to give him a drink when a policeman nabbed me," said Cake.

"Do you realize the seriousness of the offence when you plead guilty under this section of the act?" asked the magistrate.

"I certainly do. I know what it means, but they caught me with the goods, so what's the use of trying to dodge," said Cake.

"Well, I'll hear some of the evidence, anyway," said the magistrate.

"That's only a waste of time. I am guilty; what's the use of bothering any more," said the accused.

"All right, then, if you are satisfied," said Magistrate Graydon as he imposed the above penalty.

25 BOYS TRIED FOR STEALING BICYCLES SINCE 1ST OF JUNE

The stealing of bicycles by boys has been carried on to a greater extent this summer than at any similar period in years. No less than 25 youngsters have been brought into juvenile court on the same charge since June 1.

Today, another appeared before the magistrate and pleaded guilty. He was allowed to go on suspended sentence as there was no evidence to show that he had attempted to dispose of the wheel.

Other boys during the summer have been committed to reform schools, where it was shown they had stolen for the purpose of financial gain and had attempted to sell the bicycles.

In every instance the detectives have been successful in recovering the bicycles. They recommend that where possible the owner should lock the wheels to prevent theft.

DROP OF 50 DEGREES IN TWO WEEKS' TIME

The course of the mercury up and down the thermometer tube during the last two weeks has been about as marked as stock fluctuations in a time of financial stress. From a tropical seat of 98½ degrees on July 30th, the temperature descended to 47 at 4 o'clock this morning, a drop of 51½ degrees in less than two weeks.

The above figures were recorded at the South London Observatory, and are the official Government record. The probs are for warmer weather.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS KILL LITTLE ONES

At the first sign of illness during the hot weather give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets, or in a few hours he may be beyond cure. These Tablets will prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to the well child and will promptly cure these troubles if they come on suddenly. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in every home where there are young children. There is no other medicine as good, and the mother has the guarantee of a Government analyst that they are absolutely safe. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

"RESULTS COUNT, CITY GETS THEM," SAYS MR. BRAZIER

Good Concrete With Small Cost, Says Engineer.

CITY FATHERS PLEASED

Contention of Sir Adam Beck That City Is Robbed Is Not Borne Out.

"Results count in paving as well as anything else, and the report shows that London is getting good results, equal to the best, possibly. The concrete may not be mixed exactly according to furmala, and may not be theoretically perfect, but it stood the tests, and demonstrates that the people are getting what they are paying for at a less cost than some other cities are paying for."

That was City Engineer Brazier's statement regarding the report of Professor Marshall, of the School of Practical Science, Toronto, on the concrete laid on Richmond street.

Wants to Save Money.

"My idea was to get as much paving done in London at as cheap a price as possible," continued Mr. Brazier. "If the price was excessive we would get little paving done, and we need better roads here. I can see no reason why we should pay more for pavements and get little, if any, better results. We could mix concrete and add to the expense, but there is little to be gained by it. We might add 5 per cent to the strength at an additional cost of 25 per cent.

Results Count.

"That would cost the citizens a lot of money more, and the results would be practically the same. The report shows that we are getting the results, and that is what counts, after all. The concrete base we are putting down will stand the pressure, make no mistake about it."

The report of Professor Marshall is considered highly satisfactory at the city hall. It does not bear out the contention of Sir Adam Beck that the citizens of Richmond street are getting robbed on account of poor concrete.

YOUNG SOLDIERS SAY THEY STOLE 3 FORDS FOR FUN

John Dixon and Fred Westover Landed at Aylmer.

WOMAN MADE ESCAPE

Local Detectives Land Youthful Joy-Riders by Descriptive Circulars.

"We took the cars just for fun," said John Dixon and Fred Westover, two young soldiers attached to the A. M. C., when they pleaded guilty before Magistrate Graydon today to stealing three Ford motor cars since Sunday noon.

"Your desire for joy-riding has made you commit a crime in the eyes of the law, and I will remand you both to jail for a week for sentence," said the magistrate.

Returned From England.

Both are under 20 years of age. Dixon enlisted with the 142nd Battalion, and was accidentally injured in England upon arrival there, and was returned home later. Upon his recovery he was attached to the local unit of the A. M. C. His parents reside on Adelaide street.

Westover comes from St. Thomas. He was convicted in police court a few weeks ago on a charge of assault, the offence being that he had carried a married woman, against her will, and placed her in a buggy and driven away with her.

The first charge read was that of stealing a car at St. Thomas belonging to Ethan Dougall on Sunday afternoon last; the second one owned by Thomas Shaw, taken on Wednesday afternoon at Queen's Park, and the third Albert Dawe's Ford stolen from the market square just before noon yesterday.

Cars Are Damaged.

All cars have been recovered, but each has been considerably damaged. In each instance they removed the first numeral of the license number in order to destroy identification. The renewal of these licenses will cost each owner $2.

They were arrested yesterday afternoon at Aylmer by the chief of police of that town on information furnished by the local detective department through mailed circulars.

On their arrival there they were accompanied by a young woman, who later disappeared.

POLISH NATIONAL COUNCIL

Petrograd, Aug. 11.—The Polish National Council, which is assembled at Moscow, has indorsed the resolution of the Polish Socialist Congress and the program outlined by the congress for future endeavors with reference to Polish independence after the war, as follows:

To secure from Austria and Germany and all neutral countries sanction for Polish representatives in the peace conference.

To secure the assistance of the Polish chief military commission in accomplishing the withdrawal of Poles from the Russian army.

To appoint committees to explain Poland's reconstruction plans.

To unite all organized forces of Polish society to help free Russia in her struggle with pacifism.

To make an effort to have the Polish question put forward in the peace negotiations.

GURKO'S CASE DROPPED.

Petrograd, Aug. 11.—The case against Gen. Gurko, former commander of the Russian armies on the southwestern front, who recently was arrested on political charges, has been dropped. His offense was committed prior to the enactment of the law giving amnesty for political offences. As yet, however, Gen. Gurko has not been released from prison.

300 READY FOR THE HARVEST FIELDS, BUT MORE STILL REQUIRED

Claim Is Made That Men Are Not Too Anxious To Go.

Necessity of Additional Help For Farms Urged by Labor Bureau.

Arthur W. White, chairman of the organization to supply farm help for the harvest, has submitted the names of 300 citizens who are ready to go out to harvest the crop.

He has still to get 100 men, and he expects that he will secure them at an early date.

Many of them have reported for work, and John Farrell, in charge of the Provincial Labor Bureau here, is sending them out at a lively rate. About 25 went to the farms today.

City Employees Willing.

The city employees have been canvassed, and some of them have expressed their willingness to go. Others are ready, but they want to know where they are to be sent, and what the wages will be. This information will be supplied them shortly.

Mr. White is finding a lack of enthusiasm among the men to tender their services.

"The employers are willing to release the men, but the latter do not enthuse much over the prospect," said Mr. White. "This is not as it should be. We need the men, and we need them badly."

May Stop Threshing.

The question of stopping threshing for a couple of weeks will be taken up with Food Controller Hanna at an early date. In many places wheat threshing is under way. This requires a considerable number of men in every district and the opinion is that they would be better employed now in getting the crop into the barns.

NO. 3 FROM LONDON HAD GREAT SPORTS ON DOMINION DAY

Windsor Reporter at Front Describes Doings.

IN ANCIENT CITADEL

American and British Officers Present—Fred Baker Wins His Ball Game.

With officers from the imperial and colonial forces, and from the United States, which recently reached France, and also with French peasants, as spectators, the field day held by No. 3 Canadian Stationary Hospital in France, in commemoration of the birthday of Canada on July 1, almost assumed the proportions of an event of international importance.

Baseball, and a full program of field sports, provided the entertainment, which is well described in to letter written by Staff-Sergt. M. R. Winters, of the staff of Lieut.-Col. C. H. Reason (officer commanding No. 3 Hospital), and formerly of the editorial staff of the Windsor Record, to Dr. Harry Reason of this city:

Staff-Sergt. Winters writes as follows:

"Picturesque surroundings, cloudless summer weather, and a large gathering of interested spectators, were contributing factors to the great success of a Dominion Day celebration held by the members of No. 3 Canadian Stationary Hospital in France on July 1. Added to these was the knowledge that it was Canada's national holiday, and all members of the unit felt that there was no better way of illustrating the spirit of 'the day we celebrate' than by extending real Canadian hospitality to the large number of patients and guests who assembled to witness the fine program of sports arranged by an energetic sports committee. For a great many of the patients it was a well-remembered anniversary, for it was on the morning of July 1, 1916, that the British infantry left their trenches and swept forward to the attack in the battle of the Somme. Thus, by a happy coincidence, both Canadian and imperial soldiers were able to feel that the day was being fittingly observed, and the celebration was a very hearty one.

An Ancient Citadel.

"Seldom indeed has a scene presented so many striking contrasts as were apparent on the afternoon of the sports. The hospital is very quaintly situated, in what was once an ancient citadel, very grim and imposing in appearance, and doubtless a place of great military strength in its day. The high outer walls of thick masonry are entirely surrounded by a deep and wide moat, long since completely dried up, and this moat is flanked by huge banks designed with the double purpose of retaining the water in the moat, and also forming earthworks for an outer line of defence in case of siege. The whole appearance of the place suggests the grimness of battles long ago, when the walls were lined with archers and spearmen, and men-at-arms clad in heavy mail, striving against the onslaught of an army similarly equipped, endeavoring to find a way to the assault across the moat.

"Imagine, then, the scene when, in the midst of the greatest war the world has ever known, a number of those engaged in its prosecution gather at the same spot for an afternoon's recreation in honor of the birthday of a dominion thousands of miles away. Instead of vigilant defenders of the citadel, the walls are thickly lined with spectators, some soldiers in the ubiquitous khaki, others in hospital blue, nurses in uniform, and officers of every rank. On the opposite bank a similar gathering is clustered, and all are intent on a great struggle which is raging on the dry bed of the moat. But there are no casualties to speak of in this struggle, for the boys of No. 3 Hospital are merely engaged in trying to prove to all that they have a better ball team than No. 2 Canadian Field Ambulance. They did prove it, too, after a hard nine innings, the final score being 8 to 7 in favor of the hospital. The baseball match was easily the feature of the program, and hundreds of the onlookers saw the game for the first time in their lives. 'Fred' Baker of London, a younger brother of 'Wild Bill' Baker of baseball fame, showed them just how a real pitcher 'puts them over the plate.' His curves were too much for the ambulance men, and with the excellent support he received he tucked the game away safely, although a ninth-inning rally by the opposing team nearly upset the dope.

Sergt. Osborne Wins.

"An interesting program of sports was run off, in which both patients and personnel participated. Sergt. Osborne of London brought honor to the unit by carrying off the shot-put and broad jump in splendid style. All the events were keenly contested, and the winners were rewarded with suitable mementoes of the occasion. A tug-of-war between the sergeants and the men of the unit resulted in two exciting pulls, in which the superior 'beef' of the men proved too much for the non-commissioned officers. A divisional band furnished a splendid program of music during the afternoon, and added greatly to the enjoyment of all present. Refreshments were served in a big marquee on the ramparts, and this department was especially well patronized. The reception committee received valuable assistance in this regard from the nursing staff, under Matron E. M. Wilson. Not only did the nurses help in providing a most adequate supply of substantial dainties, not ordinarily included in 'rations,' but they also rendered great assistance in helping to serve the long line of hungry 'Tommies' who filed into the refreshment tent at the conclusion of the sports.

"Lieut.-Col. Reason, the officer commanding, had as his guests a number of imperial and colonial officers from various points in the district, and among the most interesting spectators at the baseball match were several American officers who arrived with the recent contingent in France. It was a happy augury for the future welfare of the British Empire to see the officers and soldiers from nearly every part of it thus mingling together in recreation, as they have done in the sterner business of war in recent days. The popularity of the British troops with our French allies was also attested by the number of French civilians from the neighboring villages who were present at the sports, and who enjoyed the proceedings quite as much as anybody else, even if a trifle mystified by the intricacies of baseball.

A Fine Band Concert.

"The day closed with a splendid concert given by the concert party of a famous British division which chanced to be passing through on that date. The program was a most artistic one, and was very greatly enjoyed by a large number of patients, and the personnel of the hospital and their guests.

"The men of No. 2 Canadian Field Ambulance and others who shared with No. 3 Hospital the enjoyments of the day were unanimous in declaring that they had spent a long-to-be-remembered day, and those who so capably carried out the arrangements for the outing have the satisfaction of knowing that they provided a bright spot in the lives of many to whom war is indeed a grim reality.

"As on previous occasions we were greatly indebted to the British and Canadian Red Cross Societies for their gifts of money and goods for our Dominion Day celebration, which contributed to making it a great success."

HEADQUARTERS IS READY TO APPLY COMPULSION ACT

Central Depot Battalion Is Ready To Receive Those Drafted.

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

Slate Forwarded to Ottawa, and Arrangements Made for Coming of Compulsion.

If conscription should be enforced immediately it would not find the military authorities in this district unprepared, and if the enforcement of the measure resulted in an influx of 4,000 or 5,000 men those responsible for their training would not be caught napping, but, as all good soldiers, they would be found ready and capable to deal with the new conditions.

Form Central Battalion.

Arrangements have been made for the Central Training Depot, under the administration of which the training of practically all troops in camp is at present carried on, to become a Central Training Depot Battalion, and to continue the work of training the men. Each of the overseas companies at present in camp—the 21st, 22nd, 25th, 7th, 32nd, 105th and 1st Hussars—would then be automatically discontinued, and become companies in the new battalion. Other battalions would be formed and ultimately brigaded.

Officers Chosen.

No announcement has been made as yet as to who is to command the new training battalion, but it is understood that the new commanding officer has been chosen, together with his staff, and the slate has been forwarded to Ottawa for approval. As soon as this is granted an announcement will be forthcoming.

New Plan in Any Event.

But whether conscription is applied or not, a new and comprehensive plan by which the Canadian units in Canada, in England and in France, will be joined together and co-ordinated in a way that is bound to be productive of good results, is about to go into effect, and is only awaiting the approval of the slate of officers mentioned above.

According to the new plan of organization the whole Canadian Expeditionary Force will be divided into three sections, the first section, consisting of those units in Canada, which are to be formed into draft-giving depot battalions, the second section composed of those units in England, which will be known as reserve battalions, and those units in France, to be known as fighting or active battalions. The two last-named have been known under the names of reserve and active battalions for some time, but the depot battalions in Canada are just about to be formed.

Three Stages of Progression.

When a man enlists in Western Ontario he will become a member of the depot battalion of the Western Ontario regiment, and will remain a member of that Western Ontario regiment as long as he is in the service. On his arrival in England he will be attached to the Reserve Battalion of the Western Ontario Regiment, and in France he will be a member of the Active Battalion of the Western Ontario Regiment. This is the plan that has been in use in England since the beginning of the war, and a plan that every returned officer and man is heartily in favor of adopting. Just as the Lancashires or the London Scottish Regiments have several battalions both in England and at the front, so there will be several battalions representing each district in Canada, such as the Western Ontario Regiment, the Central Ontario Regiment, the British Columbia Regiment.

Preserves Home Spirit.

The advantagege of the plan ar obvious. The pride of the home people in their own regiments at the front, the esprit de corps among the men in the work of their own regiment, and the additional attractiveness for the men to go overseas and into the fight with their friends from the same district, are among the chief reasons that have led to the adoption of the plan.

The Western Ontario Regiment will consist of the depot battalion here, of the 4th and 25th Reserve Battalions in England. The 4th Reserve Battalion will supply men to the 1st and 18th Battalions in France, while the 25th Reserve Battalion will supply men to the 160th, 161st and the 2nd the 2nd Pioneer Battalions in France. Units from all other sections of Canada will be organized in the same way, and all will have a representative regiment or regiments, which will be composed of three or more battalions, one in Canada, one or more in England, and one or more in France. The Western Ontario Regiment will thus consist of five fighting battalions, two reserve battalions, and one training battalion.

In Effect Overseas.

The plan is already in effect overseas, and the men who have gone over have been going into the battalions mentioned for some time past, and the approval of the slate of officers selected, alone is awaited to put it in operation in Canada.

The following are the regiments which will represent Canada: Western Ontario Regiment, 1st Central Ontario Regiment, 2nd Central Ontario Regiment, Eastern Ontario Regiment, 1st Quebec Regiment, 2nd Quebec Regiment, New Brunswick Regiment, Manitoba Regiment, British Columbia Regiment, Saskatchewan Regiment and Alberta Regiment. The regiments in most cases correspond to the military districts of Canada, but in some cases it has been found advisable to allot two regiments to one district.

ASK FOR OBJECTIONS TO BILL REGULATING PACKAGES FOR FOOD

The department of trade and commerce, in forwarding to the board of trade the proposed amendment to the inspection and sale act, having reference to all containers containing human food or any other commodity sold or offered for sale in Canada, requests the board of trade to file any reasonable objections or changes to the bill as they may deem necessary.

The principal provisions are that all unbroken containers or packages sold or offered for sale in Canada shall be distinctly marked with the name of the manufacturer or dealer, with the net weight of the food or other commodity contained therein, and the month and year of filling same. Members of the board interested are asked to communicate with the secretary regarding the terms of the proposed amendment.

ARRANGEMENT COMPLETE FOR CIVIC CONVENTION

SHORTAGE OF LABOR DELAYS COMPLETING TECHNICAL SCHOOL

Building Cannot Be Opened Before 1918.

MATERIALS ARE SCARCE

Contractors Hard Pressed To Secure Men To Handle Necessary Work.

The Technical School will not be ready for operation until the beginning of 1918.

The work of construction is not proceeding with the speed that was honed for. It is impossible to get the materials, there being a shortage of cars, and also considerable difficulty in getting men to load them. Locally there is a shortage of men, and the contractors are at their wits' end to keep up with their work.

The building itself will be completed possibly in October or early in November, but the equipment, etc., will not be ready until November and December. "We cannot get it ready for the fall term," said Principal H. B. Beal. "There is a shortage of labor and materials, and we simply cannot get ahead as we would like. It certainly will be in operation by the beginning of the year."

LONDON SOLDIER PAYS VISIT TO GARDEN OF EDEN; DOESN'T BLAME ADAM FOR BEATING IT

Sergt.-Major Harry Truss, a soldier of the first contingent, now in the Holy Land, in writing to friends here, passes some very severe strictures on the Garden of Eden. He writes:

"I am quite well, but this is an awful hole, and I could write some very interesting letters about the stunts over here and all our movements, but that will have to wait till I come home. I have been to see the supposed Garden of Eden, but I don't think much of it. I don't blame Adam for getting kicked out of it. He sure had some sense."

GOOD TIDINGS FROM SWISS BRING GREAT JOY TO HOME OF AVIATOR DOUGLAS WELD

Young London Flight-Lieutenant, Listed as Missing, Is Officially Reported Prisoner in Germany—Virtually Given Up, Now Gladness Reigns.

After John Weld, owner of the Farmers' Advocate, had virtually given up hope of ever seeing his son, Flight Lieut. Douglas Weld, again following the report that he had been missing while flying over the German lines, word was received today that transformed the state of terrible anxiety to one of consummate joy in the form of a cablegram stating that Douglas Weld was a prisoner of war at Karlshrue, Germany.

The cablegram was officially brief, and was sent by the Red Cross authorities of Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 11th. It was as follows:

Geneva, Suisse, Aug. 11, 1917.
Weld,
50 Ridout Street, London, Ont.
Lieut. Douglas Weld prisoner, Karlsruhe.

RED CROSS.

Three Weeks of Strain.

Three weeks have passed since the first news of the young officer being a casualty reached the city, three weeks of alternate periods of fear and hope for Mr. and Mrs. Weld, and three weeks of anxiety for the many friends of the young officer.

Scarcely had the cablegram imparted to the dazed mother its joyful tidings when the house of Mr. Weld was literally besieged with telephone calls and messages of congratulation from friends throughout the city.

Never So Happy in Life.

"I wish every mother could have experienced the joy of reading such good news as I have," said Mrs. Weld when seen by The Advertiser today. "I was never so happy in my life as I am now."

Lieut. Weld was transferred to the Flying Corps upon reaching England after having had considerable experience in the infantry. His good work instructing in the aerial service gave him the chance of returning to Canada in the capacity of an instructor, but the young officer appealed to his commanding officer to send him to France in order that he might do something of direct value toward the cause of the Allies.

Reported With Two Others..

His request was granted and after two months of active service he was reported as "missing" along with two other pilots.

It is surmised that Lieut. Weld was forced to land his machine within German lines, because of a fragment of anti-craft shell puncturing his petrol tank, as word received in the city yesterday stated that three of the pilots of the squadron in which the young officer belonged were hit by a shell while in mid-air and were subsequently unheard of until the reception of the cablegram today.

It is not known whether Lieut. Weld is wounded, but as his mother remarked, "the fact that he is alive is the material source of rejoicing."

PIPE FOR SANATORIUM LOWERED INTO RIVER

The 6-inch pipe which will insure for the Byron Sanatorium an adequate water supply from Springbank, was connected with the Springbank pipes today and lowered under the surface of the Thames.

The lowering of the large pipe is considered an engineering feat requiring considerable workmanship, and is the second of its kind that has been constructed in this district.

The foreman of the working gang stated that the work connected with the pipe will be concluded tomorrow, and the sanatorium will not hereafter be dependent on the supply it had previously drawn from.

After having tunnelled both banks of the river in order to connect the pipe with the Springbank tubes, a trestle work foundation was constructed and the big pipe laid ready for lowering.

The pipe measured about 200 feet in length and it was with some difficulty that the structure work was removed to allow it to sink conveniently into the bed constructed to hold the pipe's weight on the bottom of the river.

COMMANDS POSTAL MEN AT THE FRONT

Advertiser Illustrations
LIEUT. T. H. MURRAY.

A copy of the Folkestone Express recently received by L. M. Logan, 292 Central avenue, gives a detailed account of the military sports held by the members of the Canadian Postal Corps on the cricket ground at Folkestone, a few weeks ago.

Lieut. T. H. Murray, 468 Queen's avenue, who went over with the Canadian Postal Unit from here, is mentioned prominently in the article. He is a brother of Sergt. James Murray, D. C. M.

The Express in part says:

"It has been rightly said that two factors contribute more than anything else to the maintenance of the 'always merry and bright' spirit of the Canadian troops—their 'grub' and their mails. In the later they make out all right through the seven-days-a-week activities of the Canadian Postal Corps, a highly efficient bunch operating in the area under the O. C., Lieut. T. H. Murray, of whom not a boy speaks but in terms of esteem, not to say affection. A warm tie of real regard binds the O. C. to his corps, a fact which was completely demonstrated on Friday evening, when in celebration of Dominion Day, they met around the hospitable board, and afterwards enjoyed the varied delights of a "smoker."

"Lieut. Murray, who was cordially received, said how pleased he was to be with them, and how much he had enjoyed the excellent dinner and the no less attractive entertainment. It was, he went on, a great gratification to him to know he had such a body of men behind him—men who, he felt, would follow him to the end in any branch of the service to which he might be attached. Dealing with the postal service, he extended his warmest thanks to the boys of the corps for all they had done."

BRING FISH FROM ATLANTIC, 1,600 MILES AWAY, TO THIS CITY

Five Hundred Pounds of Sea Food Will Come to London.

Mayor Stevenson expects 500 pounds of fish to come to London from the Atlantic seaboard, 1,600 miles away, here next week. Lake Erie is 28 miles from London.

This will be a trial order, and if the patronage justifies it, a larger quantity will be secured for the following week.

The distribution will be under the control of Food Controller Hanna, who will see that London gets its share.

It is probable that stores will be established in each ward, to permit of a proper distribution.

The high cost of living committee will meet on Tuesday evening to discuss this matter, and make the necessary arrangements.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Naomi Gilbert and Cooper Gilbert are visiting at New York, Boston and New England points.

Mr. and Mrs. William Southam, Montreal, are visiting in the city.

WEDDING BELLS

JARVIS—GRAY.

A pretty wedding took place at the bried's parents' home, 133 Langarth street, South London, on Tuesday evening, when Pearl Gray, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gray, was married to Arthur Jarvis. The couple was unattended, the ceremony being performed in the presence only of close friends and relatives by Rev. W. G. Howsen. The home was prettily decorated with a rich profusion of flowers.

The bride was married in a traveling suit of navy blue and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

After a short western trip the young couple will reside in their new home on Cathcart street south.

GET THE NAME OF THIS INJURED MAN

Mike Chfwff, who resides on Ottaway avenue, was rushed to Victoria Hospital late last night with a very badly cut head. When found on the street the blood was streaming from three big cuts in his scalp. As nearly as the police could gather, Chfwff went to a poolroom, from which he had been ordered the previous evening. He alleges that they told him to get out, and smashed him over the head with a bottle.

At Victoria Hospital, at 2 o'clock today, Chfwff's injuries were not regarded as critical. No information has yet been laid at the police station.

THOUSANDS SIGNING PETITIONS TO BRING 1ST CONTINGENT HOME

Bridgeburg Man Writes Congratulatory Letter.

CITES AUSTRALIA'S ACTION

Copies of Petitions Procurable at Richmond Street Book Store.

In a letter to Mrs. H. A. Boomer of this city, Garrett O'Connor of Bridgeburg, who initiated the plan of bringing the members of the 1st Contingent back to Canada for a furlough, and to whose efforts the widespread success of the movement so far is largely due, expresses his pleasure in learning that the people of London are responding so encouragingly in signing the petitions to obtain for the remnant of the 1st Contingent, after three years of continuous service, a respite from duty and a furlough amongst their loved ones for rest and recuperation in Canada.

Follow Australia's Example.

"Our boys can be relieved," writes Mr. O'Connor, "just as easily as Australia's boys were relieved."

It is pointed out that the boys at the front do not ask for themselves, but judging by the number of volunteers within and without the city, who are asking for copies of the petition at the residence of Mrs. Boomer, 393 William street, it is evident that its plea on their behalf is being recognized as simple justice and fair play to those who are so bravely upholding the banner of their country amid the horrors of the war.

Copies of Petition Available.

For the convenience of the members of the I. O. D. E. forms for those who wish to add their names to the list of petitioners for the return of the soldiers who went with the 1st Contingent may be had at Hambly's bookstore, Richmond street.

The petitions at The Advertiser office are also being largely signed, and already about two hundred people have come in to attach their names to the growing list. Other petitions in the city and district are being signed by thousands.

MUSCOVITE DEFENCE AGAINST TEUTONS GREATLY STIFFENED

Attacks On North Rumanian Front Have Been Repulsed.

Petrograd, Aug. 11.—Austro-German attacks yesterday in the region of the villages of Vydra, Voloshkany and Cifestchi, on the northern Rumanian front, were repulsed by the Russians, says the official statement issued today by the Russian war department, and the Teutons were driven across the Putna River.

The Russian war office report announced that the Austro-Germans attacked in dense waves near the village of Zarkov, southwest of Brody, in northeastern Galicia. The battle still is progressing.

In the course of a battle south of the River Pruth, on the frontiers of Rumania and Bukowina, the Russians entered the town of Lukovica and took prisoner 200 officers and men. The Russians also captured 200 Austro-Germans and took three machine guns by wresting a height in that region from the enemy.

BUSINESSMEN ARE READY TO SERVE IN FIELDS WITHOUT REMUNERATION

Fourteen at Tillsonburg Respond to Appeal—Enthusiastic Meeting Held.

TILLSONBURG, Aug. 10.—The winthe-war meeting, held in the council chamber last night at the request of Sir William Hearst, provincial premier, was well attended, and marked with intense patriotism.

Mayor Denton presided, and having large connections with the district farmers, gave an outline of the help needed at once on the farms. He called for volunteers willing to go on fifteen minutes' notice, entirely without pay. The appeal was responded to by fourteeen local businessmen standing up to the call. Chief Patton and Rev. A. Shannon volunteered for a whole week's service.

As many of the local factories shut down on Saturday afternoon many of the employees in the audience volunteered to go out for the half day. A number of businessmen have been pitching hay for the past two weeks.

The following committee was appointed to canvass the town and get into immediate touch with the farmers as to the help required. Mayor Denton (volunteer); Reeve J. Smith, Deputy-Reeve M. C. Dean, Councillor Conn (volunteer); Councillor McGilvery and the following, who have all volunteered: W. A. Sinclair, M.P.P.; A. Rogers, Rev. A. Shannon, W. C. Brown, Rev. T. B. Howard, E. J. Malone, Dr. Reid, I. Truepitt.

An information bureau will be opened at Mayor Denton's office, and Tillsonburg is expected to help to the last man.

LEAMINTON TAXES LOWER THAN OF 1916

Rate Struck for 23 Mills As Against 26 Last Year.

LEAMINGTON, Aug. 10.—At the regular meeting of the town council Mayor Lewis Wigle announced that he had received a telegram from the premier of Ontario requesting that owing to the shortage of farm help the corporation release all the employees possible for that purpose. It was concluded that the corporation had no employees to let go, and the telegram was filed.

Treasurer Selkirk submitted a statement of receipts and expenditures for the current year up to August 4. The treasurer said the town's standing was better than at the same time last year. The balance due the bank was only $9,000 compared with $58,000 last year. He estimated a rate of 23 mills on the dollar against 26 mills last year would be sufficient to meet the year's requirements.

On motion of Messrs. Atkins and Coulson the rate was struck at 23 mills and a bylaw put through providing for the same.

ESSEX COUNTY FARM LABOR PROBLEMS BEING WELL LOOKED AFTER

Every Effort Made to Meet Serious Present Conditions.

ESSEX, Aug. 10.—Efforts are being made to handle the farm help problem in Essex in every way possible. A conference was held in Windsor on Thursday by the directors of the Border Chamber of Commerce, Windsor, and J. W. Noble, agricultural representative of Essex, and as a result it is felt that arrangements will be made to relieve the shortage of men on the farms.

So far as Essex is concerned, the situation is serious enough, but not as acute as was feared. Reports presented by Mr. Noble were rather encouraging.

The July Red Cross box was packed and sent on Wednesday, containing 24 suits pyjamas, 72 bath towels, 12 many-tailed bandages, 72 handkerchiefs, 72 T. bandages, 18 sheets, 12 hot water bag covers, 18 triangular bandages and wash cloths. LEGAL ACTION TO GET PATRIOTIC FUND MONEY

Brantford Will Force Delinquents to Make Good.

BRANTFORD, Aug. 10.—The local branch of the Canadian patriotic fund has found that coaxing is of no avail in the matter of dilinquents, therefore, at a general meeting it was unanimously decided to take legal proceedings against those who have thus far failed to make good their promises. The feeling of the session was that those who have given of their best must be looked after by those who have remained at home.

Brantford millers are awaiting Government action in getting a price on new wheat, which is expected into the market shortly. They are of the opinion that the various speculators are awaiting a chance at the new harvest, and this should not be given them.

ESSEX COUNTY HAS MEN TO SPARE TO REAP CROPS

TORONTO, Aug. 10.—County after county in Ontario today reported to Dr. W. A. Riddell, superintendent of the trades and labor department, that they expected to be able to meet the harvest hand situation through their local organizations.

From Windsor, Essex County, came the information that the border cities would be able to spare 150 men for the harvest fields elsewhere other than those needed in Essex County.

Fifty of the 200 men offered from Cobalt have been sent to Ottawa for distribution from that centre.

A Soft, Clear Skin

THERE is a very good reason why so many women always keep Dr. Chase's Ointment at hand. The reason is apparent if you will but notice the soft, clear skin of the person who uses it.

Unlike pore-clogging powders, Dr. Chase's Ointment promotes the healthful action of the pores of the skin, and while it heals and cures eczema and every form of irritating skin disease, it is also equally effective as a beautifier of the skin.

Rough, red, harsh skin becomes soft and velvety when this soothing, healing ointment is applied at night after a warm bath. Write to us for a free sample box, or buy a large box from your druggist and put this ointment to the test. You will be surprised and delighted at the results obtained.

CAMPAIGN NOW IN FLANDERS HAS MANY PURPOSES MAKING FOR FINAL DEFEAT OF HUNS

Noted Expert Analyzes Operations on Western Front for the Past Three Years and Paints Picture of Future Operations, Which Will Chiefly Involve Britain.

By Frank H. Simonds
Author of "The Great War," "They Shall Not Pass."

[Written for The London Advertiser and the New York Tribune—Copyright 1917—The Tribune Association.]

When one endeavors to review the latest Allied operations, the opening of a new offensive in Flanders, there is an immediate realization of how much history has been made in that narrow triangle between the Lys River, the North Sea and the French frontier. No single sector of the European battlefield has seen so continuous or tremendous fighting, and the past pales before the present.

Going back nearly three years to the early days of October, 1914, it will be recalled that Field Marshal Sir John French took his troops out of the trenches at the Aisne and started them north. His objective was the German right flank south of Lille—still held by the French. His army was transported north to the vicinity of St. Omer and Estaires, then it wheeled to the east and moved toward the German flank.

What followed is history, not even now familiar. The small British army come almost immediately into contact with huge German forces, its own flank was threatened when Antwerp fell and the German conquerors came pounding down along the coast through Ostend to the Yser River.

Almost at once the British offensive became a desperate and almost despairing defensive. To the north the British flank was bent round until it faced north, not east, and in the south the centre was jammed back upon Ypres and one after another all the vantage points were lost, until the Ypres salient assumed the shape it was to bear for nearly three years and the British were threatened with complete annihiliation.

German Wave Stopped.

The first days of November, 1914, saw the end of the storm. French reserves came up, the Prussian Guard made its final unsuccessful effort—the road to Calais was barred, and trench warfare was now the order of things from Switzerland to the North Sea. And while the British regular army, the "Old Contemptibles," was dying at Ypres, the French Fusiliers Marins made their great sacrifice at Dixmude. December 1 saw the first struggle in Flanders ended; an exhausted British army had just managed to hang on—regiments reduced to handfuls, brigades now at the strength of companies.

Five months later the Flanders battlefields woke to new fame. In the latter days of April the Germans launched their first poison gas attack to the westward of Ypres—between this town and Dixmude. The blow fell upon French African troops, and they collapsed, opening the flank of the Canadians just west of Ypres, and for a few hours the German road to Calias was clear.

Canadians Save Calais.

But the French rallied, the Canadians stood and died in an unequal struggle, reserves came and the gap was closed. Thereafter it was necessary to draw the British line back nearer to Ypres; towns now mentioned in the latest battle news were abandoned; the French, driven beyond the Yser Canal, came back and made good this line—the British clung to Ypres, which now disappeared under German shelling. This position was, however, always dangerous, for the Germans, sitting on the hills which surround Ypres like the rim of a bowl, poured their artillery fire into the British below.

And from May 1, 1915, to June 1, 1917, the British took their medicine. The Ypres salient acquired evil fame as the worst position on the western front. One school of British experts urged retreat because of the military weakness of the position—a retreat to the hills behind, to Kemmel and Scharfenberg; another insisted that the moral effect would be too great if the Germans at last entered Ypres. And this view prevailed.

From May, 1915, to June of this year, Ypres ceased to be a point of dispute, although it was never a quiet point. The Germans used the sector to train their artillery; the observation conditions were so favorable. Day and night shells rained down upon Ypres until little was left of its wonderful architectural monuments.

Haig Straightens Line.

But in June of this year the British suddenly struck. Between Ypres and Armentieres the Germans in October, 1914, had driven in a wdge gaining the high ground of the Messines or Wytschaete ridge—the "white sheet" ridge of the "Tommy." From this ridge they swept the two roads leading into Ypres from the west. Literally, the Germans sat on the benches of a stadium and shelled the British in the pit below. This blow abolished the Ypres salient, straightened the British line from Ypres to Armentieres, and not merely "put out" the German eyes, but also gave the British the observation points looking eastward at the Lys and beyond the Lys to Lille.

This quick thrust, it is now clear, was the first step in a grander operation. It was necessary to blind the Germans before the great preparations could be made for a general offensive, and the time from June to August measures the period of intensive preparation for the new offensive.

Why Drive From Ypres?

Why did the British select the Ypres sector for their offensive? It seems to me that they were in part compelled to do this by the Hindenburg retreat of the spring. They left a desert, destitute of communication, from St. Quentin to the vicinity of Arras. The Vimy Ridge offensive broke down the buttress of this new German line—the Hindenburg line—but the "switch lines" behind remained. To continue at this point meant the destruction of many French cities and towns, Douai, Cambrai, and more remotely Valenciennes; it meant the ruin of the great industrial region of France, and it meant fighting over a country thickly studded with villages and towns which lent themselves to defensive preparation.

To strike further north between La Bassee and Lens meant ultimate ruin to Lille, Roubaix and Tourcoing, great industrial towns with a combined population of more than 400,000. It meant destruction to a great and densely populated region of France, and it meant fighting under ground highly advantageous to the Germans.

To strike between the Lys and the sea, on the other hand, meant to fight over an agricultural region with almost no considerable towns. It meant to operate in country relatively flat and offering no such obstacles as the Somme region, with its many hills and deep-cut valleys. It meant also operating in the sector nearest to Great Britain, and therefore nearest to the sea bases, thus reducing the problem of rail transportation in France—no inconsiderable factor.

Staggering Blow to Foe.

The ultimate strategic advantage of success in the Ypres sector is plain. An advance of twenty miles, that is, an advance equal to that made from Roye to the environs of St. Quentin this spring, would compel the Germans to quit all the region between the Lys and the sea, to give up the Belgian seacoast, to abandon their troublesome submarine base at Zeebruggé, and their even more troublesome aeroplane bases behind the coast, whence London has been so frequently raided.

At the end of a campaign like that of the Somme last year the British might hope to occupy a front from Holland southward behind the Lys River. Or they might hope to force the passage of the Lys, having taken Menin and Cambrai, and turn the Germans out of Lille, Tourcoing and Roubaix, without actualy fighting in or about these towns.

To cut the Germans off from the coast would be to achieve the first purpose of Field Marshal Sir John French in October, 1914, a purpose mainly missed because Winston Churchill went to Antwerp, kept the Belgian army in the doomed city too long, and wrecked all the plans of the French general staff and the British field commander thereby.

Campaign to Cripple Huns.

But no one could expect that the new Anglo-French attack would accomplish any of these objectives in its first phase. There were ultimate ends, to be attained, if at all, only after weeks and months of steady pressure and great fighting, to be realized only after a campaign, not an assault.

Meantime, with German reserves failing, German armies outgunned and outnumbered, the British and French could hope to inflict greater losses than they incurred, weaken the German morale, already deteriorating, and finally prevent any transfer of German divisions to the east to take profit from the Russian collapse. And just as the German army before the Marne was concerned not with the capture of cities, not even of Paris, but the destruction of French armies, the British are now mainly occupied not with regaining French or Belgian territory, but with reducing German effectiveness. All else is incidental, as it was for the Germans in the Marne campaign.

Such, in a general way, were and are the objectives of the Anglo-French offensive. The real measure of its success or failure will be the extent to which it inflicts casualties greater than its own upon the Germans. If it does this we shall see this autumn or next spring a new German retreat to shorter lines, or a collapse of German lines due to an attempt to hold too long a line with insufficient numbers. But nothing is less likely than a piercing of the German front this year. It may come, just as the Germans might conceivably have pierced the French lines at Verdun, when they had numbers and superior artillery. But it is even less unlikely to penetrate than was the Verdun thrust, which had an element of surprise totally lacking in the present allied operation.

Progress of New Drive.

Turning now to the actual progress of the first attack, we see that the French, from Dixmude to Bixschoote, forced the crossings of the Yser, took back the ground log in the gas attack and dug themselves in. On the west they were handicapped by the condition of the country, due to the flooding of the Yser Valley at the time of the first fighting in October, 1914. But eastward the ground was more favorable, and they made greater progress, reaching and passing the highway from Lizerne to Dixmude, that was more or less the string to that bow which was their old position.

The British on their part, pushing north and east, reached and in parts passed the ridge which they had held before the gas attack of 1915, taking possession of Pilhem, which gives its name to the ridge, and taking and losing St. Julien, the extreme northern limit of their advance. East and south of Ypres, along the Menin road, famous in the first "Wipers," they took Hooge and made progress from this point down to the environs of Warneton on the Lys, regaining a considerable portion of the ground lost in October and November, 1914, but by no means reaching all the positions held when that battle opened.

Beats Somme Attack.

Compared with the opening attack at the Somme this was a material improvement, for the first and second German lines were everywhere taken, while at the Somme on half the front the German first line held during the July 1 attack, and for many months thereafter, all the way from Gommecourt to Thiepval. Compared with the progress made in the battle of Arras it was disappointing, both as to guns, prisoners and distance, demonstrating that Arras had been a real surprise to the Germans.

But it is well to remember that the method of attack is steadily changing and the lessons of the French failure at the Aisne have not been lost. Here the French sought too much. Mangin expected to reach Laon, and the ground gained was hardly worth the cost in casualties. By limiting and thus increasing the value of artillery assistance the British seem to have gained a mile to a mile and a half of ground on a wide front at relatively low cost.

The small capture of guns and the few prisoners—five thousand, as against eleven thousand on the first day of the battle of Arras—indicate that the Germans had been expecting an attack and had withdrawn their guns and held their front line lightly. The recent terrific German drive at the Aisne, too, was patently intended to prevent the transfer of French soldiers to the Yser front, and as such failed, as it also failed to gain ground.

Supremacy In Air.

German and British reports agree that the artillery duel which preceded the attack was the heaviest in all history, and for a full fortnight London heard the guns. The British and French reports frankly claim a complete supremacy in the air, which would mean that the Germans were obliged to fire in the dark—"into blue," as the phrase is, that is, without the aid of air scouts.

Apparently bad weather materially handicapped the attacking force, as it did in the battle of Arras. It seems also that there was a temporary slowing down after the original attack, but whether this was due to weather or to hope to achieve not in a day, but in a period of months.

Recall again the campaign of 1864 in our own Civil War, read what the Confederate press said after the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, the failure before Petersburg. It will furnish many a parallel with current German bulletins. Recall also that Napoleon, having been defeated in Saxony in 1813, fought next in the Marne country because he had stayed too long in Germany, sacrificing military to political and moral considerations.

We are at the beginning of a campaign that may well have consequences comparable with those of Leipsic or the last Grant campaign. But we are only at the beginning.

KINCARDINE TO SPEND $17,000 FOR REPAIRS OF STORM'S DAMAGE

Northern Town Has Big Bill to Meet—35 8-10 Mills Tax Rate.

KINCARDINE, Aug. 10.—The council at its last meeting struck the tax rate, which is 35 8-10 mills. This sounds high, but when property is only assessed for half its value it makes the taxes light.

The town will have to spend about $17,000 for the repairing of the bridges and damage done by the storm some time ago. A bylaw for this amount will be put to the people, and voted upon.

FARMER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

KINCARDINE, Aug. 10—John Young, aged 75 years, one of the best-known farmers in Bruce Township, died suddenly at his home yesterday. Mr. Young got up and was preparing to go out to mow hay. He complained of feeling unwell after breakfast, and going over to the sofa he fell back and expired.

Mr. Young was a man highly esteemed. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a Conservative. He leaves a widow and grown-up family.

NOMINATIONS MONDAY.

KINCARDINE, Aug. 10.—Nominations for the reeveship will take place on Monday the 13th. The only name mentioned at present is that of W. J. Henry, who has resigned from the water commission to run for reeve. Mr. Henry formerly served the town in the county council.

$300 AT GARDEN PARTY.

KINCARDINE, Aug. 10.—The Centre Bruce garden party at George Brown's on the 5th of Bruce, was a success. Over $300 was realized. This is one of the biggest garden parties in Bruce, and the attendants come from all directions. The grounds are illuminated with old-fashioned stump fires made of pine knots. C. M. Bowman, M.P.P., addressed the gathering.

SCOW RUNS ASHORE.

KINCARDINE, Aug. 10.—The big blow here on Wednesday caused one of the scows belonging to the dredge now working in the harbor to break away from the tug. The result was that the scow went ashore south of the south pier. The tug caught the scow twice, but the line parted each time.

TWO BOYS KILLED BY TRAIN.

WELLAND, Aug. 10.—Percy Elsie, aged 16, driver for S. L. Lambert, and Frank Pollard, aged 10, who was taking a ride with him, were killed this afternoon when a Michigan Central passenger train struck the load of lumber on which they were riding. The accident happened on a level crossing, just east of Welland.

BEAGLE HOUNDS KILLED

EXETER, Aug. 10.—I. R. Carling's two beagle hounds were killed on the G. T. R. track by a freight train. They were very valuable dogs, he being recently offered $100 for one of them.

The knitting contest, which has been going on at Farquhar for some time, closed this week, with the result that Miss Jennie McCullough's side won. The total number of socks turned in were 129, which go to the soldiers at the front. Miss Viola Hunkin's side, being the losers, will put up a supper at the annual meeting.

The death of little Louisa Hannah, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hannah, occurred at Cleveland on Sunday. Mrs. Hannah had only left town a short time and was visiting in Cleveland when the death took place.

NURSE HOME ON VISIT.

KINCARDINE, Aug. 10.—Nursing Sister Lieut. Charlotte E. King is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. King. She arrived home from England with a boatload of wounded soldiers. Miss King is a graduate of London General Hospital, and has been overseas now for about a year.

Take Off Your Coat and Give the Farmer a Hand!

When, three months ago, we called upon Ontario's farmers for mighty efforts to avert the threatened Famine and World-Hunger, they responded splendidly.

Aided by Providential weather, Ontario's Crop is one of the biggest in her history.

The farmer has done his part.

We Town and City men must do our part.

The crop is on the ground — the farmer can't possibly take it off unaided.

To lose a sheaf of it for want of harvest-help would be an unthinkable crime.

We call upon the Men of Ontario to rouse themselves. To co-operate, employee with employer, in this patriotic service. Many employers have agreed to make it financially possible for their employees to do this work, and the Ontario Government will pay railway fare both ways of all men who go.

Help us, so that we may send word to Ontario's Sons in the trenches — that Ontario's Second Line of Defence stands fast, — that here, as well as there, we "Carry On."

W. H. Hearst, Prime Minister of Ontario.

THE SECOND GREAT QUESTION.

THE first great question in Canada, in common with the rest of the world, is the war, and the second great question in Canada is Canada's railway problems.

The Hon. George P. Graham delivered a clear speech on the subject in the House of Commons recently. Three courses were open to the Government in acquiring the Canadian Northern, first, through a receiver; second, expropriation; third, purchase of the common stock. The Government had adopted the third course, purchase of the common stock.

The people of Canada are apt at present to underestimate the tremendous importance of this question. The war has dwarfed all other questions, no matter how great. In ordinary times the proposition to buy out the Canadian Northern would have created great interest, and been the subject of much discussion. It will be followed by the acquisition of the Grand Trunk Pacific. Government control but not Government ownership is the desirable course. The railways will not be as efficient under Government management as under private management. It will cost much more to run them and the service will be less satisfactory. It does not appear that further aid to the Canadian Northern was seriously considered by the Government according to the reply of the finance minister. In reply to Mr. German he said although the net earnings of the Canadian Northern were $2,000,000 more this year than the previous year, all were needed for rolling stock and betterments. They could not meet the interest on their debentures and needed at least $20,000,000 more.

The reply of the finance minister suggests one of the most important questions. For years it has been stated that the Canadian Northern was not well built, while the Grand Trunk Pacific was splendidly built. Large sums will be needed to bring the roadbed and equipment up to the proper standard. The Government did not consider a loan of $20,000,000, but preferred Government ownership. The Government has large obligations already incurred on behalf of the Canadian Northern. How much will the country be called on to pay in any event? How much will be required to finish the road? The country is buying a railway in course of construction. Public ownership is not as desirable as private ownership. Public ownership may cost the country far more than assistance from time to time, to keep the road in operation would do.

The Hon. George P. Graham favored leaving the question to the exchequer court. This would be a good course if the court had the assistance of competent railwaymen and engineers. They have the condition of the road from end to end to consider. What is necessary to complete its construction and equipment? How much would it cost to keep it going as a private enterprise as compared with the cost as a Government owned railway? What are the present obligations of the country and how secured? What will be the ultimate obligations of the country and how are they secured?

There should be a long pause on the brink, before taking such a plunge. It may lead to the railways owning the country, and not the country owning the railways. The Dominion Government, Mr. Graham pointed out, has already guaranteed C. N. R. securities for the sum of $400,000,000, and the various provinces for $107,514,441.79, of which the province of British Columbia shares over $40,000,000.

As the principle, of private ownership with public control, is so much to be preferred to public ownership, the questions should be examined and considered very carefully, whether such help as may be needed from time to time, retaining private management, would not be better for the country, and less expensive, than the proposed purchase. The purchase involves changes and questions that cannot be foreseen. Only time would reveal them.

CAUGHT AGAIN.

ARCHIE McCOIG, M. P., has succeeded in laying bare one more proof that the Borden Government cannot be trusted to treat the people fairly and squarely when the interests of the masses seem to conflict with those of moneyed concerns. He has made Hon. T. W. Crothers confess that George F. Henderson, K.C., who has been appointed chairman of the commission to review the report of W. F. O'Connor, K. C., on cold storage corporations, is the same man who defended the Ottawa Dairy Company this year when it was alleged to be charging extortionate prices, and when W. F. O'Connor was the Government commissioner conducting the probe.

The fact that Mr. Henderson had acted for the dairy company is not of great importance in itself; the prosecuting attorney in one case may be the lawyer for the defence in another without exciting any comment. But in this instance the suspicious circumstance is the unwillingness of the Government to admit Mr. Henderson's connection with the dairy inquiry. Mr. McCoig has been trying to obtain the information for some days, his questions all remaining unanswered. He has pressed the point, but without result, until Wednesday.

There can be no doubt that Mr. Crothers and his cabinet colleagues were aware of the facts, so there was no legitimate reason for the hesitancy in replying. It could only be that they were desirous of hiding the truth from the public for their own purposes. Certainly it can never be said of the Borden Government that it was "bold enough to be honest."

PATRIOTIC GIRLS.

LONDON'S civic holiday was the occasion of a patriotic demonstration which was unique and yet so quietly conducted that little attention was given it, except by those who directly benefitted. It was a demonstration without music or speeches, made up of actions which speak "louder than words."

According to custom nearly all stores in the city closed for the day, and employees were allowed a holiday. The girls who stand behind the counters do not have too many off days in which they may enjoy themselves, and few of those they have are as fine as was Monday. But all were not content to spend the day in amusements at such a critical time. Many decided to give half that day to patriotic work, and early in the morning they arrived at fruit farms in Springbank vicinity and proceeded to pick raspberries until noon. Having done their bit, they then went off for their picnic in the park.

This work was not done for the sake of the money earned; nearly all the girls were amateurs at picking and earned but a few cents. The idea was to help conservation, and the farmers appreciated both the spirit and the deed.

Just as a suggestion, there are a good many farmers near at hand who would appreciate male help on the Wednesday half-holidays during the harvest, and those who spend the rest of the week in shops or factories would find the work just as much of a change as a trip to the lakeside.

CARRYING FISH TO OWEN SOUND.

WHEN the ladies of Owen Sound asked Food Controller Hanna to send his special fish train from the Atlantic coast to the Great Lake city on the shore of Huron, the old paradox of "carrying coals to Newcastle" comes to mind.

Carrying fish to Owen Sound is just like taking fuel to the mines. In the islands within easy reach of Owen Sound are many fishermen who catch the choicest of fish. Now there is not such a distinctive taste to any fish as to make an appeal go up from Owen Sound for cod and halibut when tons of whitefish are swimming within a few miles of the kitchen ranges of the Sound.

But there is some big barrier between the fishermen of the islands and the kitchen ranges of Owen Sound. That barrier is the American fish trust, and it puts the screws on the fishermen "for further orders," so far as price is concerned, and takes good care that little of fine Huron whitefish is sold in the homes of Owen Sound. So that is why the ladies are asking that fish be carried to Owen Sound. Surely Mr. Hanna should be careful about seeming to serve the fish trust. Let us have our share of the fish caught in our home waters, and let a fair price be fixed for fishermen and consumer. Cut out the "American hog" about which our Conservative friends were so voluble in 1911.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Lloyd George's speech has got under the skin of German editors. They grow amusingly abusive when they're angry.

There seems to be no difficulty in getting the delegates to the Irish convention to agree on one point—an adjournment.

Well, going without beef and bacon on Fridays will not trouble some people, who have made this fast a life-long habit.

There is no cause for racial or religious war in Canada. All people should obey the laws, which oppress no race or creed.

The Germans are repulsing many imaginary British attacks. No doubt this tires them out so that they cannot repel real offensives.

Montreal's mayor might show his sincerity by causing the arrest of some of those wild-talking anti-conscriptionists who threaten murder.

When an unarmed British merchantship sinks a submarine, the Empire is interested and could stand more than just the plain announcement of the fact.

A motorist drove from Toronto to Montreal in eleven hours, the distance being 360 miles, and the highest speed attained 55 miles an hour. This was done during the night. Are there no laws against such speeding? No wonder accidents are so frequent.

Russia is again under a czar, but it is a self-made czar. Kerensky is no poor, weak, superstitious noodle, degenerate and ruling by "divine" right. In sovereignty, at any rate, might goes some way to make right. The ruler must first be capable.

Manufacturers, who met in Woodstock to arrange for supplying farmers with help during the harvest, decided that all who volunteered should be paid $3 a day and board by the farmers. This is not too much, but it would be interesting to know if these manufacturers are paying all their own men this wage as a minimum.

HIS LAST MATCH.

By Isabel Frost.

The professor had noticed his fellow travelers but slightly on the trip to the caves from his hotel at Staunton. He was deep in a description of the famous caverns, and making notes of special features he was anxious to see.

Another thing, the professor was not susceptible to feminine influence, however proximitous. He had been a guest at the Mountain View Hotel for five weeks, jaunting hither and yon on his research work, and never had even the suspicion of romance crossed his path; but just as they reached the end of the road leading to the caves he had closed his notebook, placed it in his inner pocket and glanced up to meet the most interesting eyes he had ever seen, gazing at him questioningly.

There were two persons before him—the owner of the eyes and her companion, evidently a relative. The first was about 20, her traveling suit was a dark brown linen, her hat of close brown straw, her waist of pongee and her eyes and hair were brown. Some vagrant lines from Percy's Reliques crossed the professor's mind.

"Oh, nut brown maid, I met thee wandering,
All clad in woodland brown."

Her companion, the professor noted hastily, was somewhere in the uncertain years of spinsterhood; her felt fedora only accentuated her rather sharp profile and reticent manner. She eyed the professor with reflective, postponed judgment, at the same time noting his interest in the "nut brown maid."

At the entrance to the caves the two went ahead, as the professor lingered, lured by the printed descriptions in the guide books for sale at the door. The old man in charge answered all his queries mechanically. The day was warm, and visitors had been numerous. Yes, the caves were so many miles long, only a certain portion had been explored, some were lighted by electricity, and some by guide torches. There was no danger, if you were pretty surefooted, and didn't go wandering off by yourself. The caves were all natural formation, etc.

The professor received his torch and tucked it under his arm, absent-mindedly, quite as if it had been a baton. He ignored the little box of safety matches held out by the man, and made way into the caves jubilantly.

Far in advance rambled Mollie and Miss Annabel. It was Mollie's first trip in vacation time; in fact, it was her first year as a teacher, and now instead of keeping her mind firmly on Miss Annabel's dissertation on stagmalites and stalactytes, she was wondering whether everyone was interested in such things, whether that nice blond boy with the eyeglasses who had sat opposite to them in the stage really and truly enjoyed going through caves on a midsummer day, when all the beauty of the outside world called to them. She remembered seeing him at the hotel near Staunton and on several of their expeditions. Oh, how tired she was of that word, expedition. To travel, one should have a gypsy cart, and no time schedules.

She hardly caught what Miss Annabel was saying when all at once the lights went out and they were in pitch darkness.

"Thank goodness we have our torches," exclaimed Miss Annabel thankfully. "Be careful where you step. The bottomless lake is just beyond us—or was it the pool of the Gnomes? Do you remember, Mollie?"

"I don't remember anything," replied Mollie desperately, "and I haven't any matches. What do you suppose has happened?"

Just then a guide's voice sounded for at the end of the cavern. Something had happened at the power plant. The lights would be turned on at any instant. Everyone was to stay on the exact spot where they were and move at their own peril. Even as he said this there came a splash. Not a loud one, but just as if a stone had been tossed into the lake, and then a voice almost within a few feet of them.

"It's all right," said the professor, "it was my match safe. I was nervous, and it fell from my hands, but I've one last match left. I think we'll have to risk it for our torches."

"Haven't you any paper?" asked Miss Annabel sharply. "We could twist tapers and conserve the light supply in this way."

The professor shuddered. He had only his notebook, filled with precious data for several magazine articles. He struck the match as a last hope, and it caught the pitch-dipped tow on the end of his torch. The flare of light revealed the two on the rocks below him, and the professor improved every moment of the time they waited. He drew imagery of the past. He was Dante, he said, convoyed by Beatrice and one of her blessed companions through the shades. Come to think of it he would rather be Orpheus seeking Eurydice. Miss Annabel sniffed audibly.

"I don't see," she said, "how you can even think flippantly in a place like this. I feel as if I were buried alive."

The lights failed to go up, and guides came through the caverns to lead all tourists out safely. Miss Annabel went ahead, while the professor aided Mollie. At the entrance he held her hand eagerly.

"I think we're stopping at the same hotel," he said. "I am Professor Winthrop, of Hartsdale College, Monticello, Iowa. Might I call?"

Miss Annabel was visibly impressed, and Mollie disappointed. He had not looked one bit like a professor.

In the last weeks of vacation that followed the professor did his best to overcome the stumbling block, but Mollie had been teaching in a government Indian school in South Dakota, and was thoroughly prejudiced against academic training at close range. And yet the professor was so boyish and youthful! As Miss Annabel said, his appearance was so very much against him.

Mollie listened to her objections, never dreaming that the thrill of romance had been weakened even in her armored breast.

"You see," she told the professor, hesitatingly, the night when he asked her to marry him, "I love romance even if I am a school teacher. If you could give up your chair at Monticello. What do you teach?"

"Forestry," replied the professor.

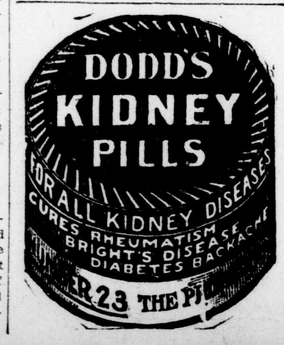

Mollie's eyes sparkled.

"Oh, I love that. If you were only a forest ranger I know I'd say yes."

But the professor persevered, and the morning before they were to have left for the West Miss Annabel tapped at Mollie's door a long while, receiving no answer. She [illegible] note on her cushion that told the whole story.

"Dear Miss Annabel,—I know you will blame me horribly, but I couldn't bear just to teach school for the next twenty years as you have done. Phil and I have eloped. I hope you will have a pleasant trip back home. Lovingly,

"MOLLIE."

Wait a Minute!

By J. H. F.

One of our well-known citizens is getting rather bald, noticeably so, and he is not altogether proud of the fact. However, the other day he took his boy, a bit of a youngster, into the barber shop to get his hair cut. The boy was placed in the chair, and the facetious barber asked, "What kind of a haircut do you want, my boy?" "Just the same as daddy's—wif a hole in the top." Good, that.

These reporters are the versatile cusses. The other day Bailiff Ryan, Toronto, was in the city to take a flock of birds from the county jail to the Burwash Industrial Farm. The chain gang was duly hitched, but the bailiff had no man to lead the procession and prevent the herd from stampeding down the place. The Advertiser reporter (our own Pinkie) was questioned. Would he lead the merry men of sin? Would he? Well, rawther. He was taken out into the open in order to give him room enough to throw out his chest, and started saying, "Come, rascals!" and off he started. The parade to the station had anything beaten in London to a frazzle, or words to that effect. Ceasar, leading his legions, had nothing on our demon side-kick. He resembled Ed Walsh, the former ball player, who could strut without moving. That's our boy. When he got them seated, chains and cuffs, and all that, he waved them a touching farewell from the station. Then, conscious of duty well and nobly done, he marched back to the office. Next thing we know one of these reporter persons will be made a chaperon to homeless ducks. They're the boys. We do not wish to give his name, but he is the regular Beau Brummel of this staff, and a regular killer with the ladies.

Stomach Cramps COLIC

These are very painful, and their attacks are often sudden, and sometimes fatal. The principal seat is in the stomach and bowels, producing severe twisting, cramping pain, and often accompanied by vomiting. If you are troubled in this way, there is only one remedy to cure you, and that one is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has a record of cures extending over 72 years, and we have yet to hear of a case where it has failed to either relieve or cure.

Beware of imitations and substitutes sold by unscrupulous dealers for the sake of greater profits, as these no-name, no-reputation, worthless preparations may prove dangerous to your health.

Mrs. H. Miller, 735 Mark street, Fort William, Ont., writes: "Last summer my husband came home from work, and could hardly straighten up for cramps. The first thing I gave him was a dose of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I hadn't repeated it very long until he was all right again. It is the only remedy I give my children in the summer for cholera or cramps in the stomach. I have never been without it in the house for the last two or three years."

Price 35c. Put up only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FIGHTING FOR HAPPINESS

When you get into a frame of mind that makes life seem one tiresome duty after another, with no pleasure in it; when ill-health seems to take all the joy out of life and you worry over things that are really not worth worrying about, then your nervous system is becoming exhausted, and you are on the way to a general breakdown in health. In this condition your health and happiness is worth fighting for, and good, rich, red blood is what your system needs. It is a hopeless task to try to restore your health while your blood is deficient either in quantity or quality. And remember that no medicine can be of any use to you that does not build up your weak, watery blood.

To build up the blood and strengthen the nerves there is one remedy that has been a household word for more than a generation—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It is the actual mission of these pills to make new, rich, red blood, which strengthens the nerves and tones the entire system. They give you a new appetite, make sleep refreshing, put color in the lips and cheeks, and drive away that unnatural, tired feeling that oppresses so many people. If you want to experience new health and happiness give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

POLICE ARREST ONE OF THE DYNAMITING GANG

Montreal, Aug. 10.—Col. Percy Sherwood, chief of the Dominion police, arrived here this morning with a couple of his officers to probe the dynamite outrage at the summer home of Lord Atholstan, Cartierville, yesterday morning. So far nothing has been discovered except the capture of one of the gang, that would lead in any way to the discovery of the dynamiters.

Several meeting places of recently formed organizations are being closely watched, police officers admit, but so far there are no arrests and none in sight.

NEWS OF HER DEATH SHOCK TO SISTER

The report from Chicago, published in The Advertiser a few days ago, that Miss Helen Lindley had died there, came as a complete surprise to her sister, Mrs. Proshaw, of this city, who had not heard any news of her death.

Inquiries have since been made by The Advertiser, but the reply received from the hospital at which she was supposed to have gone for an operation, was that nothing was known of her whereabouts, but that the officials there did not think that she was dead.

Mrs. Proshaw received a letter from her sister about the end of July stating that she had undergone an operation, and that she was about to have another operation, and in the meantime she asked Mrs. Proshaw not to write to her until she heard from her again. This was the last news she received of her death until the report published in The Advertiser announced her death.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

An Organized Class.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am coming back to you for more help. We have an organized class at our Sunday school between the ages of 13 and 20. Would you please give me some suitable names for it? We are all to have a name for it by next Sunday. Thanking you very much, I remain, FAIRY DELL.

Ans.—What seems a very suitable title is the "Builders' Class." "Friendly Workers," "Hearts Aglow," "Win One," "True Soldiers" and "Harmony" are other suggestions you may not have thought of yourself.

To Wear With Citron.

Dear Miss Grey.—What colors would be nice for a dress that would go with a citron-colored coat? (Light brown hair and light eyes). Will citron be a fashionable shade for this fall?

A LONDONITE.

Ans.—Some shades of dark green should look well, or perhaps a navy with white hairline stripe. Black is good, too, of course, to wear with any of these odd colors. A good idea is to wear your coat when choosing your dress material. By thus comparing shades there is much less chance of disappointment in the end. Yes, I think you can count on a considerable amount of the citron shade being worn.

Chance for "Aid-ites."

Dear Miss Grey,—May I infringe on your valuable time? I have come for help. Will a number of the readers please give their ideas on what work their "Aid" does in connection with the Methodist Church? I have only been elected president recently, and would appreciate any new ideas. Thanking you one and all, I will sign as I am, A NEW PRESIDENT.

Ans.—No infringement at all, I assure you, only I wonder if you would not get more help from some of the church papers devoted to this work? "Aid-ites," you are welcome to come to the rescue of this "New President" with bright suggestions.

A Dear Old Song.

Dear Miss Grey,—It has been some time since I called at the Mail-Box, but I noticed where "Brownie" asks for this dear old song, so thought I would send it in. Now, Miss Grey, if you care to print this song so others could see it, do so, but if not send on to "Brownie" I would like if she would copy it off and return to me, as I have no time now to copy. My address is with Miss Grey.

Also, Miss Grey, I am taking it upon myself to send you a lonely boy's address. He has been at the front since the 18th Battalion went into action. He has neither father nor mother, and few friends to send him good things. The last letter I had he asked me to send him something to smoke. As I don't go to town often I can't send things to him as I would like, so if anyone of the kind Mail-Box friends would care to send him anything it will be gladly received.

A FRIEND OF THE MAIL-BOX.

Ans.—So pleased to know you have not forgotten us entirely! The song is one of the old-fashioned kind I always like to see in print, so watch for it in our verse column. And I can assure you the name of the lonely lad will be given out to several of our kindly ones.

Re the postscript, no box or parcel has reached me recently from you. Sorry if anything has gone astray.

The "Adopted" Brothers.

"Mrs. S. E. B." has received letters once more from her "adopted" soldier lads, the one in the trenches, the other in an English military hospital. From somewhere in France Pte. John writes:

"Dear Mrs. B.,—I received your two most welcome letters, and also the parcel. Was certainly pleased to receive them. The contents of the parcel were in fine shape, and, believe me, I enjoyed them. Makes a fellow think that he is home once more. I am keeping fine and still enjoying life the same as usual. We are having some very hot weather just lately, but I would rather see it a little too warm than too cold. . . . You were asking me when I enlisted. It is about two years or a little over since I enlisted. I was in England six weeks and I have been in France about fourteen months. My brother is still in England and getting along fine. . . . I had a narrow escape the other night. I was nearly blown to pieces with a shell. I was buried, but managed to get out without being hurt. Wish I was in Canada, having a good time. . . . Well, I think I will close for this time. Hoping this will find you in the best of health. Thanks for the parcel. It was sure fine. I remain——."

The message from Pte. Alf ——— mentioned in the above, reads as follows:

"Dear Mrs. B.—Received your welcome letter and felt very sorry you had not had any letters from me, for I have written about every week or so. I am glad you heard from Brother Jack, for we were all getting very anxious over him, because he has not written for some time. I am getting along fine; have my artificial leg again, and you could not believe I had lost my limb. That's how well I walk. I don't expect to have to go under another operation, for I am getting along first rate. I think our good weather is at an end over here now, for it has been raining off and on this week. But we must not complain, for we have had excellent weather in England since April. I told you in my last letter that I got the parcel. Thanks very much for it. I was expecting Jack home on leave, but he has not arrived yet. I think it is a shame to keep our boys over there so long without a chance of seeing their loved ones. I hope this letter will reach you safely if the others don't. I will close now, with my deepest respects to you."

The August Birthstone.

Dear Miss Grey,—Will you please tell me what is my birthstone? Was born in August. Also what is the birthstone for my little sister, born in June, and my girl friends, born in January? Should they be worn on the little finger or the one next to it?

Thanking you in advance, FOXIE.

Ans.—The birthstone for August is sardonyx; for June, agate, and for January, garnet. The style of the ring chosen decides to quite an extent which finger it shall grace, but it's very customary to wear these birthstone rings upon the little finger.

It Was an Error.

"Meadow Lark."—The notice was an error, which I regret. By this time you will have received the several inquirers' names.

RED CROSS AND C. W. C. A. COLUMN

Have you heard the latest fashion in gems for soldiers?

Gem jars!

Don't forget when you are conserving something for yourself and your family, to eat during the winter, to put aside at least one jar for the returned tubercular soldiers at the Byron Sanatarium.

Already there are almost 100 men being cared for there, and when the new building is in running order there will be accommodation for quite 200.

These men are drawn from all over Military District No. 1. So do not feel that you are under no obligation to feed them, just because you do not happen to live in London.

String your gems—Cherries, strawberries, blackberries, raspberries, blueberries, currants and every other fruity treat that you can think of to crown your canning for the boys at Byron.

THE SAILORS ON THE SEA.

A call has come from the Dominion branch of the C.W.C.A. for work for the sailors.

Don't forget the men who keep the submarines away and do not let them get cold feet on their job.

It is proposed that we send 288 socks a month as a starter as well as scarfs and wristlets of the wool that is known as "navy" blue.

Do you want these supplies to be taken from the soldiers, robbing Peter to dress Paul warmly? Never!

Then let us try to do one extra pair a month in addition to what we consider our regular work for the Red Cross and C.W.C.A.

The extra bit may mean the real sacrifice for us—of time or rest, or pleasure, or the pretty little thing we were going to make for a friend.

But—Isn't it worth it?

THE WEEKLY WASH.

Do you ever think of the joy of clean sheets, and remember the wonderful work that our laundries are doing for the Red Cross hospitals in this respect?

All the sheets, towels and pillowslips (and some other things) that go forward from Hyman Hall have to be laundered before they are packed.

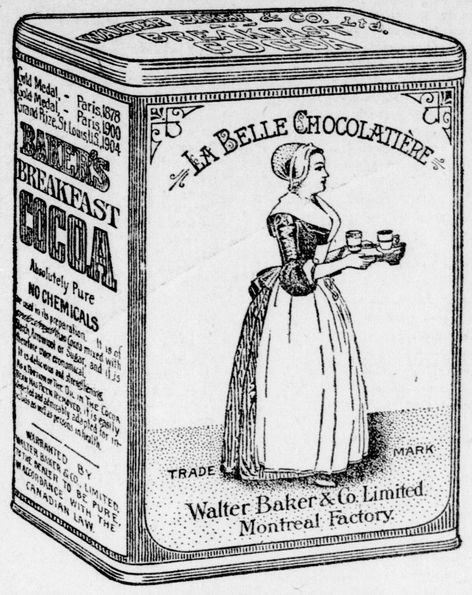

The contributions from the country are, almost without exception, washed and ironed by careful hands before being sent in. But those that are made in town, by the various auxiliaries, etc., are every one washed and pressed, free of charge, by either the Parisian or the Forest City Laundry.

Twenty-eight thousand one hundred and thirty-eight pieces have been washed by the Parisian and 31,705 by the Forest City laundries since August last.

Just calculate that in dollars and cents and see what a splendid contribution they have made to the funds. It is not done as "overtime work" pressed out of the employees, either. But comes as a straight gift from the management themselves.

By an error, the $25 from S. S. No. 4, Gore of Downie Chapter, I.O.D.E., was wrongly credited in the list of contributors to the French Red Cross.

Tested Recipes From The Advertiser Cook-Book

Pickling time is almost here. The following are tested recipes from The Advertiser Cook Book, and will be useful to our readers:

Cucumber Pickles.

Wash cucumbers carefully and put in weak salt water over night. In the morning drain them and put on stove in weak vinegar, half vinegar and half water, to which has been added alum, a piece the size of a small hickory nut to a gallon. Let them heat slowly until scalding hot. Have ready in another kettle good cider vinegar, to which has been added sugar, in the proportion of one cup of sugar to one quart vinegar. Have cans hot and pack the cucumbers in closely, scattering mixed spices through them as desired. When can is full pour over the sweetened sugar, boiling hot, and seal.

Pickled Beets.

Boil until quite soft when cool cut lengthwise to size of small cucumbers, boil equal parts vinegar and sugar with half a tablespoonful ground cloves tied in a cloth, to each gallon; pour boiling water over the beets.

Pickled Onions.

Peel the onions, cook in salt water, till they begin to get tender. Take out of water and drain, pack in cans, take enough hot vinegar to cover them, add sugar and spices to taste.

Pickled Cauliflower.

Break three heads in small clusters, lay in salted water three minutes, then drain, use small onions if liked. Boil one quart cider vinegar and one cup sugar together. Mix Mustard, celery seeds or spices to suit taste. Put in jars, pour over vinegar while hot, seal.

Pickled Cabbage.

Chop cabbage fine, take enough for one-half gallon can, put in tablespoonful of salt, let stand over night, drain and add two tablespoonfuls of mustard seed, one pod of red pepper and horseradish. Mix well, then put in can, press tightly; then pour over cabbage enough vinegar to cover, seal in glass self-sealers.

Chow-Chow.

Take six cucumbers just before they ripen, peel and cut in strips and remove the seed, four white onions, six good-sized heads of cabbage, chop all fine; let them stand in salt water over night. Then pour off the water and add vinegar and spices to suit taste.

Tomato Pickles.

Slice thin one gallon green tomatoes, salt and let stand over night; next morning drain, chop one gallon cabbage, grate one quart horseradish. Put tomatoes on in vinegar, boil until tender, pour over cabbage, let stand till cool, and drain. Mix horseradish, celery, mustard seed and mixed spices; then boil vinegar and sugar and pour over them.

Piccalilli.

One peck green tomatoes, one dozen onions, six red peppers, one-half ounce ginger, one-quarter of an ounce of mace, one tablespoonful of black pepper, one box of mustard, 5 cents' worth of celery seed, one pound of brown sugar; slice onions, tomatoes and peppers, put in a jar with salt, mix well, let stand 24 hours; drain off and boil in vinegar (after adding the spices) until clear.

Mixed Pickles.

One-fourth peck green tomatoes, twelve large pickles, three dozen small pickles, eight large onions, two heads cauliflower, one pint small green beans, one pint salt. Place in jar, let stand over night, rinse in cold water. Take equal parts vinegar and water, put in the ingredients, boil until tender (about ten minutes), drain, put three quarts vinegar, one pound brown sugar, one-half pound mustard seed, 5 cents' worth turmeric, one-fourth pound ground mustard, four tablespoonfuls black pepper, one ounce celery seed. Let come to a boil; put in jar and seal.

Tomato Sweet Pickles.

Slice tomatoes, salt, and let stand over night; then drain well and place in a porcelain kettle and cover with vinegar; let come to boil, then lift out the slices with a fork and place in cans previously heated. Have a syrup ready. Two pints sugar, one of vinegar, with spices to taste; let boil till thick and pour over tomatoes, then seal.

Ripe Tomato Pickles.

For seven pounds of tomatoes make a syrup of one quart of vinegar and four pounds of sugar. Scald, skin and drain the tomatoes. Boil them in the syrup, adding a little stick cinnamon. Must boil a long time, or until quite thick, or they will not keep unless in airtight cans.

Cheese Sandwiches, Oriental.

Select a large pepper and cut a slice from the top; remove the seeds and thick white veins on the inside. Blend a cake of cream cheese with salt, paprika and cream, adding eight stuffed olives, chopped very fine. Mix well and pack the mixture into the pepper. Set on ice for two hours to chill, then cut in thin slices with a very sharp knife. Lay each cut on a slice of bread toasted and buttered with the following mixture: Two tablespoonfuls of butter, ½ teaspoonful of salt, ¼ teaspoonful of paprika, ¼ teaspoonful of mustard. Blend together until creamy and thoroughly mixed. Garnish the sandwiches with finely-shredded slices of cold pickled beet.

City Physicians Explain Why They Prescribe Nuxated Iron

To Make Beautiful, Healthy Women and Strong, Vigorous Men

NOW BEING USED BY OVER THREE MILLION PEOPLE ANNUALLY.

Quickly Transforms the Flabby Flesh, Toneless Tissues, and Pallid Cheeks of Weak, Anaemic, Men and Women Into a Perfect Glow of Health and Beauty—Often Increases the Strength of Delicate, Nervous, Rundown Folks 100 Per cent in Two Weeks' Time.

New York, N. Y.—It is conservatively estimated that over three million people annually in this country alone are taking Nuxated Iron. Such astonishing results have been reported from its use both by doctors and laymen, that a number of physicians in various parts of the country have been asked to explain why they prescribe it so extensively, and why it apparently produces so much better results than were obtained from the old forms of inorganic iron.

Extracts from some of the letters received are given below:

Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York physician and Medical Author, says: "There can be no vigorous iron men without iron. Pallor means anaemia. Anaemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anaemic men and women is pale. The flesh flabby. The muscles lack tone, the brain fags and the memory fails and they often become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks.

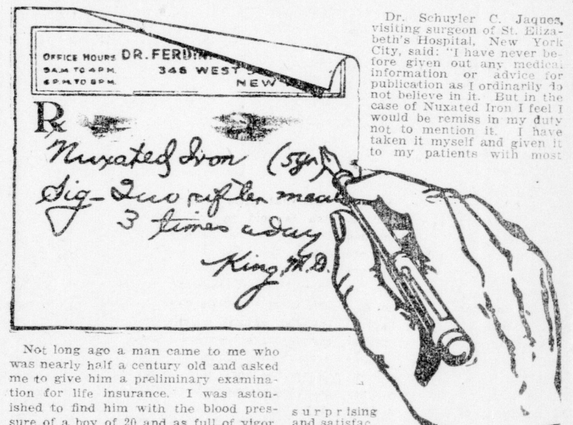

"In the most common foods of America, the starches, sugars, table syrups, candies, polished rice, white bread, soda crackers, biscuits, macaroni, spaghetti, tapioca, sago, farina, degerminated cornmeal, no longer is iron to be found. Refining processes have removed the iron of Mother Earth from these impoverished foods, and silly methods of home cookery, by throwing down the waste-pipe the water in which our vegetables are boiled are responsible for another grave iron loss.

"Therefore, if you wish to preserve your youthful vim and vigor to a ripe old age, you must supply the iron deficiency in your food by using some form of organic iron just as you would use salt when your food has not enough salt.

Dr. A. J. Newman, late police surgeon of the city of Chicago and former house surgeon, Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago, in commenting on Nuxated Iron, says: "It has been my particular duty during the past six years to assist in making Chicago's five thousand blue-coats in good health and perfect fighting trim, so that they would be physically equipped to withstand all manner of storms and the ravages of nature's elements.

"Recently I was prompted through an indorsement of Nuxated Iron by Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques, visiting surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York, to give it a trial. This remedy has proven through my own tests of it to excel any preparation I have ever used for creating red blood, building up the nerves, strengthening the muscles and correcting digestive disorders."

Dr. E. Sauer, a Boston physician who has studied widely both in this country and in great European Medical Institutions, says: "As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only take Nuxated Iron when they feel weak or rundown instead of dosing themselves with habit-forming drugs, stimulants and alcoholic beverages, I am convinced that in this way they could ward off disease, preventing it becoming organic in thousands of cases and thereby the lives of thousands might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, kidney, liver, heart trouble and other dangerous maladies. The real and true cause which started their diseases was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood.

Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of 20 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man; in fact a young man he really was notwithstanding his age. The secret, he said, was taking iron—nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 30 he was in bad health; at 46 he was careworn and nearly all in—now at 50, after taking Nuxated Iron, a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth.

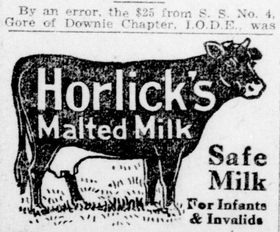

Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly-looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: see how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, rundown people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely rid themselves of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. The iron demanded by Mother Nature for the red coloring matter in the blood of her children is, alas! not that kind of iron. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete and prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray; while many another has gone down in inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron in the blood.

Dr. Schuyler C. Jaques, visiting surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York City, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising and satisfactory results. And those who wish quickly to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most remarkable and wonderfully effective remedy."

Dr. N. H. Hornstine, for ten years in the Department of Public Health and Charities of Philadelphia, said: "After carefully examining the formula of Nuxated Iron I realized that here at last was organic iron—the only kind I could conscientiously recommend, prepared in such a way with other ingredients as to be easily assimilated and calculated to act as a quick revitalizer of the blood and a true strength-builder. Its administration in a number of stubborn cases where other tonics had utterly failed only served to convince me absolutely of the remarkable and unusual power of Nuxated Iron. When I personally took it I found the rapidity with which my energy and endurance increased most surprising. In my opinion, the widespread use of Nuxated Iron is bound to make a nation of stronger men, lovelier women and healthier children."

NOTE: Nuxated Iron, which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians both in Europe and America. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion as well as for nervous, rundown conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in nuxated iron, that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron, and increase their strength 100 per cent or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Standard Drug Company, Limited, and all good druggists.

THE ADVERTISER'S WEEKLY EDITORIALS ON SPORT

THE WORLD'S SERIES will soon be upon us. September and the home stretch of the season's baseball are coming. The teams are now shaping for the final round for the pennant. McGraw is wisely planning to strengthen his pitching staff for the world's series. He needs one righthander at least, and will likely get him with the backing he has. Anderson is not able to stand the gaff and Tesreau cannot round into proper form. Perritt was the only capable right-hander on the team until the other day when McGraw traded Kilduff for Demaree. It must have been hard for him to part with Kilduff to the Cubs, for he is a promising young player, and under Mitcher's training will certainly turn out to be a star man. But Demaree will fill the gap in the pitching string and strengthen the Giants' machine, and with them behind him should do much to boost New York to the top. If McGraw could get Al Mamaux into a Giant's uniform his pitching department would be strong enough to make all kinds of trouble for the White Sox or the Red Sox. McGraw rather is inclined to favor the chances of the White Sox. He is a great admirer of Comiskey and a close friend of Kid Gleason since they were fellow-members of the Orioles. Nevertheless, some believe that McGraw has a suspicion, which he carefully keeps to himself, that the White Sox would be easier to defeat than the Red Sox. The Boston pitchers have more stamina than the Cubs' and so McGraw has determined to have the best kind of box-work himself in case he has to meet Jack Barry next October.

FANS WHO FEAR that there will be no world's series this year may stop troubling their heads about it. President Wilson's recent announcement to the effect that baseball may be continued has dispelled all doubt on this point. Neither should fans be greatly disturbed about the effect of the draft on the teams. The few players drafted will make no great effect on the ultimate result of the series. There are note sixteen major league teams that have a chance to get into the series, but if there were, not one of them would be hit hard enough to affect its chances of drawing the pennant. We venture to predict that when the United States army calls its roll next week, not more than twenty ball players will be in the ranks, unless they have enlisted voluntarily. Twenty ball players less is not going to affect a league. Have no fear, there will certainly be a world's series this year.

GEORGE GIBSON AND HANS WAGNER are two big leaguers who hold the record for "coming back." Declared out of the game long ago, they have returned with such force that youngsters have been rooted out to make room for them. Gibson's comeback was delayed somewhat longer than Wagner's. Hans was playing regularly for the Pirates while George was still keeping the bench warm for the Giants. The need of a catcher to help Raridan, and the unwillingness of McGraw to use Kreuger, a youngster, in important games of the Giants, brought Gibson back into the game. Gibson was released by the Pirates almost a year ago by Callahan. Under the rules of baseball he was entitled to an unconditional release, but McGraw refused to waive and Gibson was sent to New York. He is 37 years of age—old enough to be out of it, as the age of ball players goes. He began to play in 1903 with the Kingston club of the Hudson River League. Later he went to the Easterr, now the International, playing for Buffalo. Next he was with Montreal, where he stayed until Pittsburg purchased him. He was with the Pirates until last summer. In 1909 he caught 150 games for the Pittsburg team.

ABBE BOND WINS AFTER SEVEN HEATS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 10. — Two desperately contested races furnished the best thrills of the entire week on get-away day of the Grand Circuit meeting here. The 2:18 pace, in which Marjorie Kay was a first choice, furnished the sensational work. Not until the end of the seven heats was Abbe Bond declared the winner over Robert Gatewood, the 3-year-old pacer that Ed. Geers gave his maiden race this afternoon. Both these horses were in a $7 field on a ticket worth $77. Robert Gatewood, separately timed in the final heat, paced in 2:04½. The Nell House 2:07 trotting stake for a purse of $3,000 was won by Wilkes Brewer, the original favorite. In the 2:13 pace, Butt Hale won his second race of the week. The last of the first 4-mile was paced in :59½. The first half of the second heat was paced in 1:01¼ in this event. Summaries:

WEAVER BREAKS FINGER IN GAME WITH SENATORS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—"Buck" Weaver, star third-baser of the Chicago Americans, suffered a broken finger in the game here with Washington today, and will probably be out of the game for the next three or four weeks, a critical period in the pennant race.

The accident was in the third inning, when Ainsmith, sliding into third base, spiked Weaver's left hand, as the latter tried to touch him out. The extent of the injury was not determined until tonight, when a surgeon's examination revealed a broken index finger.

EEL DIRECT WINS 2:13 AT DETROIT

Canadian Pacer Makes New Record for Himself at Dexter Park.

DETROIT, Aug. 10.—Eel Direct paced one of the best races of his career when he won the 2:13 stake at Dexter Park this afternoon. While his time at Mount Clemens was faster by the watch, track considered his three miles in 2:10¼ on the Gratiot avenue oval today were the fastest trips he ever has made.

This race was the feature of getaway day card, eight accepting the issue. Eel Direct was the natural choice, and hopes of the fielders rested in the Belgian Xylophone pacer, Cleo B. However, the tune didn't suit Cleo B., for she did not pace as expected, but the time probably would hang her up, no matter what the air.

Eel Direct was right on edge and paraded in front at all times, none of the others threatening. Cleo B. went a long mile and was second in the first trip. She scored down next time, and although off better she did not have whiz enough to overhaul the gray horse. The third was much the same. Flaxy B. went a good race and Baronwood finished strong in the third heat.

Hazel Pointer joined the ranks of double winners, the 2:19 pace being easy for her. She indulged the rest for one heat, then cut loose, and there was nothing to it, for she looked to be up to a mile around 2:12.

A named race completed the card, Maywood winning two heats, and May Greenseal the race. It was sterilized by the judges.

Upwards of 50 of the horses leave here for Saginaw, where there are circuit races next week. Many of the others will lay up at Dexter Park or the fair grounds and await the state fair meeting. Summaries follow:

COBB'S AVERAGE NEAR .400 MARK

Tiger Star Now Hitting .385 —Players' Averages.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Ty Cobb's batting average now is 15 points from the .400 mark, according to averages published today, which include Wednesday's games. Cobb is hitting .385 for 105 games. He has made 155 hits, including 30 doubles, 21 triples and 5 home runs. This slugging had given him the American League lead in total bases, his total being 242. He also is leading the league in runs scored with 80, and is creeping up on Chapman and Roth of Cleveland for stolen base honors. Cobb has pilfered 32 bases, while the Cleveland pair have stolen 34 and 33 respectively. Chapman, with 55, is far in front of other sacrifice hitters. Pipp of New York went into a tie with Veach of Detroit for home-run honors, each having 7. Detroit continued to lead in team batting with .259.

Leading batters who have participated in half of their club's games: Cobb (Detroit) .385, Speaker (Cleveland) .351, Sisler (St. Louis) .342, Veach (Detroit) .311, McInnis (Philadelphia) .306, Felsch (Chicago) .304, Chapman (Cleveland) .295, Rice (Washington) .294, Roth (Cleveland) .294, Rumler (St. Louis) .294, Baker (New York) .293.

National Records.

In the National League, Roush of Cincinnati is hitting .341 and has pulled away from Hornsby of St. Louis, who was pushing him for the lead last week. The St. Louis shortstop, however, increased his lead in total bases; His 109 hits in 95 games have been stretched into 176 bases, because of 19 doubles, 12 triples and 8 home runs. The last item earned him a tie with Cravath of Philadelphia for circuit-drive honors last week, and the number now remains unchanged. Carey of Pittsburg, with a mark of 29, continues to top the base-stealers. The triple tie at 21 for sacrifice-hit honors, held by the Chicago trio—Doyle, Deal and Williams—remained unbroken.

New York has batted itself into a tie with Cincinnati for team batting with .264.

Leading batters who have played in half their club's games: Roush (Cincinnati) .341, Hornsby (St. Louis) .325, Cruise (St. Louis) .318, Kauff (New York) .315, Groh (Cincinnati) .311, Fischer (Pittsburg) .311, Griffith (Cincinnati) .308, Zimmerman (New York) .304, Wilhoit (New York) .299, Neale (Cincinnati) .298.

LAJOIE'S BUNCH WORRY THE BEARS

Hard-Hitting Leafs Cause Anxiety in Newark Camp.

HEARNE AND THOMPSON

One Game Today, Two Games Sunday—Smallwood Pitches Today.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—Whether the Leafs "go over the top" or not will pretty nearly be decided by the time a three-game series which opens today with Newark is ended. To give the Newark fans a double attraction on Sunday no game was played yesterday.

The fact that the Leafs have just turned off five victories in a row, three of which were against Providence, is causing much concern in the Newark camp. Very few Toronto fans realize that Lajoie's men have rapped out something like two hundred and fifty-nine hits in their last 21 games, a record of something like 12.7 hits per contest. In only four of these 21 games did the Leafs fail to run it into double figures in the hit column.

Lajoie is pretty well fortified just now on the defensive, as his pitchers are beginning to show high-class form; and the fact that he has "Bunny" Hearne and "Tommy" Thompson primed for the games at Newark is causing no end of worry in the Jersey town. The recent slump of the Bears can be traced to the fact that in eleven games nine southpaws started against them, and invariably the fork-handers finished in front.

Smallwood is ready for the first fracas today. He has not worked in a week, his last start being a shut-out against Baltimore. Infielder Getz, like Smallwood, has just passed the medical examination for army draft, and received a perfect rating. "Gus" is married, but Smallwood has not claimed exemption from the draft.

SOME FINE BOWLING AT BIG TOURNEY OF THE ELMWOOD CLUB

Twenty-Two Rinks Took Part in Games Last Evening.

There was some crack bowling at the Elmwood Club on Friday evening, 22 rinks taking part in the tourney, and three of them winning four games, with a substantial plus. The high rink was C. B. Hillier's, which finished with a score of won four, plus nineteen. The other rinks winning four games were W. J. Ashplant's, with a score of won four, plus fifteen, and R. Kemp's, which totalled won four, plus eighteen. Only a point separated Mr. Kemp's rink from the winners. The greens were in good shape and the balls rolled well. Had the management of the club postponed the start of the tourney for a short time probably two more rinks at least would have played.

A Mistake of Motorists

"One Tire is about as good as another"

¶ Veterans know this is not true. The road-test has proved it wrong. If you are not riding on DOMINION TIRES, you will realize your mistake with the first set of "NOBBY TREADS" or "CHAIN TREADS" that you put on the car.

¶ "NOBBY TREADS" are the heroes of the highway; as nearly puncture-proof as any tire can be; 100% motoring ease, pleasure and economy. Costing more to begin with, they give a net service in mileage and freedom from tire troubles, that make these "Aristocrats of the Road" the most economical on any car.

¶ One tire isn't as good as another. DOMINION "CHAIN TREADS" are not as good as "NOBBY TREADS"—not as heavy; probably won't give the mileage; but then they don't cost as much. In their price-class, however, there is nothing to touch them for service.

It was announced today that all wholesale fish dealers in Canada shall be required to register at the food controller's office, Ottawa.

SAVING ON MEATS.

TORONTO, Aug. 10.—It is estimated here that 50,000 pounds of bacon and beef per week will be saved in the whole of Canada as the result of Food Controller Hanna's order prohibiting the serving of beef and bacon in restaurants on Tuesdays and Fridays.

INHUMAN TREATMENT OF LIEBKNECHT HAS ALMOST KILLED HIM

Socialist Leader Liberated When Almost Corpse.

LABOR RAISES RUMPUS

Clamor Forces Government to Free Outspoken Man.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Dr. Karl Liebknecht, Socialist leader in the German Reichstag, who was arrested in connection with the May Day demonstrations in Berlin in 1916, was liberated a fortnight ago by the German Government through fear that he might die in prison. He is said to be suffering from tuberculosis, weighing only 84 pounds.

The authenticity of the above seems certain, says the Temps' Geneva correspondent, although the German newspapers, in obedience to orders, have kept silent regarding it.

"The news," says the correspondent, "war brought here by a Hollander who had just arrived from Germany. He says the trades union organizations brought pressure upon the Government for the release of Dr. Liebknecht, who is now in a private hospital, and is not expected to recover, suffering, in addition to the lung malady, from mental depression, the result of inhuman treatment while in prison."

Dr. Liebknecht was tried by court-martial in Berlin for "military treason," and sentenced to four years and one month in prison. A court-martial at Thorn also is said to have sentenced Dr. Liebknecht to four and a half years at hard labor, charging that he had attempted to incite the soldiers of the Thorn garrison to disobedience and rebellion.

GERMANS DESTROYED LENS CITY COMPLETELY

Mayor of Coal City, Released, Tells of Wantonness.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Via Reuter's Ottaw Agency.—Deputy Basil, mayor of Lens, whom the Germans have released from internment, says:

"The Germans will not fail to declare that the British artillery destroyed Lens, but I know that the enemy devastated the town. For example, they blew up the church, the theatre, the Banque de Paris, and new Hotel de Ville. There is nothing they did not carry away."

He tells an interesting story of General Klotz, whose army occupied Lens. "General Klotz had a truly German soul," says the deputy. "When I objected that certain demands of his were opposed to the Hague convention, he replied jeeringly, 'The Hague convention is for us, not for you.'"

KNOWS BERLIN APPROVED ULTIMATUM TO SERBIA

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency—M. Take Jonescu, vice-president of the Rumanian council of ministers, in a letter to the Times, says that during his visit to London in the second half of July, 1914, he saw the German ambassador almost daily, sometimes twice daily, and is in a position to know that the ultimatum to Serbia ws known and approved in Berlin; that Tschirschky participated in drafting it and that Lichnowsky asked Jonescu to telegraph Premier Pasitch of Serbia, advising acceptance of the ultimatum with promises of a modification of its harsh conditions.

Lichnowsky told M. Jonescu on the 27th of July, 1914, that he no longer believed England would abandon her neutrality.

Huron Pioneer Passes the Century Mark

KINCARDINE, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Donald McDonald was 100 years of age on August 7. She lives with her son, Angus McDonald, on Victoria street.

Mrs. McDonald was one of the earliest pioneers of Huron Township, but for years past has lived with her son. She is bright and vivacious at 100 years, and converses of early days with a memory that is exceptionally clear. A host of friends called upon Mrs. McDonald and paid their respects to her on this memorable occasion.

12-Year-Old Hero Saves Durham Girl From Watery Grave

Two Other Girls Who Attempted Rescue Have Close Call.

KINCARDINE, Aug. 10.—Jack Anderson, a lad about 12 years of age, is a real hero. At Inverhuron the other day, Miss Daniels, a trained nurse from Durham, who was in bathing got into a deep hole, and was drowning. Young Anderson without hesitation went to her aid, and caught her by the hair and swam with her toward the dock.

Miss Belle Drummond tried to assist the lad, but got into the hole. Her sister, Jennie, went to her assistance, and in a few moments three girls, unable to swim, were struggling in water 30 feet deep. Jack Anderson succeeded in getting Miss Daniels safely to the dock, and Delbert Splan plunged in and saved the Drummond sisters. It was a narrow call for all three. The affair occurred at a private picnic party.

NEW U. S. COMMISSION WILL PRECLUDE STRIKES

Three Representatives Each for Government, Employers and Labor.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Possibility of important Government contracts being impeded seriously by labor disputes virtually is eliminated by the creation of a special commission, with extraordinary powers to settle industrial troubles. The council of national defence, which recommended the board, will award contracts only to those who will abide by the decisions of the board and require pledges of their employees to do so.

Members of the board will soon be selected. There are to be nine of them, three representing the Government, three employers and three labor.

CARPENTERS' STRIKE OFF.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The threat of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners to tie up all Government work on army and navy cantonments and construction contracts in the district, was withdrawn today when Henry F. Steers, incorporated, one of the contractors for the Government, agreed not to employ non-union labor.

HAMILTONIANS WILL PUT ISSUE UP TO LAURIER

HAMILTON, Aug. 10.—A meeting of the executive of the Hamilton branch of the win-the-war movement tonight decided to ask the central body at Toronto to ask Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in view of the fact that he had stated that he was in the war to the finish, to place a definite limit on the time for the continuation of voluntary enlistment, and to appeal to him to state that if this effort should fail to produce the men the necessary reinforcements, that he would support conscription.

KOMOKA

KOMOKA, Aug. 10.—Pte. C. Westbrooke, recently invalided home from "Somewhere in France," where he has served several months, has expressed his thanks to the people of Komoka and vicinity for their kindness to him since his return home, and for the gold watch and fob presented to him. Pte. Westbrooke is one of the several young men who went from this village to serve King and country.

Mrs. Madge of Windsor is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Lofthouse.

Miss Kathaleen Hord is spending her vacation at her home here.

Miss Lizzie Stewart has returned from a visit to relatives in Leamington.

Rev. Mr. Sawyers of Watford occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, and preached a splendid sermon.

BEANS PICKING UP.

HENSALL, Aug. 10.—The root, fruit and grain crops are all looking most promising in this section. The bean crop, which for a time suffered so much from the rain has, with the fine, warm and dry weather of the past few weeks picked up wonderfully.

Owen Geiger, known locally as "the flax king," has a large force of Indians at work on the large acreage he has in this section and in Blyth, where he has flax interests. In addition to the large number of Indian workers, who arrived from Muncey and other reserves, he expects as many more, so that a large force will be at work in the flax pulling.

WAS WOUNDED BY SHRAPNEL.

INGERSOLL, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Cross, Carnegie street, has received a letter from her son, Corp. John Cross, who was wounded some time ago, and is now in No. 7 General Hospital, France. He states that he was severely wounded in the left shoulder by shrapnel, but is doing nicely. Corp. Cross is a former widely-known hockey player, both in amateur and professional ranks.

PROMOTION ON FIELD.

INGERSOLL, Aug. 10.—An Ingersoll officer, Lieut. T. R. (Reg) Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, has been promoted in the field. He is now officer commanding Y Battery, 2nd Canadian Trench Mortar Brigade. He enlisted with the 71st Battalion, but since that time has been with various units. Before joining the colors he was accountant in the Imperial Bank at Galt.

REWARD RAISED TO $1,000.

TORONTO, Aug. 10.—It was announced this afternoon by the attorney-general's department that the reward for the discovery of the murderers of Carmen Lapello, the Italian taxi-driver, who was found stabbed to death near Mimico, has been increased from $500 to $1,000. So far the provincial, county, and city police are entirely at sea. Several anonymous letters received have stated that if the reward were increased valuable information would be forthcoming.

AIRPLANES DOING WORK ON CANADIAN FRONT IN FRANCE

Open Fire on Germans Behind Lines.

BOMBING RAID AT NIGHT

Efforts of U. S. in Manufacture Viewed Sympathetically.

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, Aug. 10.—(By Stewart Lyon, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press.)—The great efforts that are now being made in Canada and the United States to assure supremacy in the air during the final stages of the war are viewed here at the front with keen and sympathetic interest. Airplanes have become absolutely indispensable for scouting purposes and directing artillery fire, as well as, by means of photography, recording its effect. Without airplane observation, no army henceforth dare take or attempt to carry out plans for offensive warfare.

During the last two weeks of rainy and misty weather, it is not too much to say that the activities of millions of men were greatly hampered and their efforts to get on with the war frustrated by clouds that prevented a few hundred airmen from making their customary flights.

A Fighting Machine.

The airplane is not only a necessity for the intelligence and artillery services, but is being used with ever-increasing results as a fighting machine. Reports from our own front this morning record that airplanes yesterday attacked the enemy's observation balloons, which were directing his gun fire from points well behind his front. One balloon was brought down in flames and three were smoking, as the result of machine gun fire from our airplanes. Another fighting machine flew along the enemy's front line trench at an average height of only 30 feet and engaged the occupants with a machine gun.

Wrecks Hun Phone Line.

At one point it dipped to within six feet of the ground, and on its return to the airdrome some German telephone wire was discovered wound around the machinery of the plane. Another plane pursued and opened fire upon four parties of Germans behind the enemy front and a cyclist dispatch rider. These operations, in addition to the regular program of bombing trains, railway stations and supply depots, many miles behind the German lines, are carried out every night on which the machines can take to the air, indicate the wide range of the airplane's usefulness. In pursuit of a fleeting foe in the open country, aviators with bombs and machine guns would be far more effective than the cavalry has been in any past war.

HOOVER IS APPOINTED FOOD ADMINISTRATOR

Will Eliminate Vicious Speculation Among Other Things.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Mr. Hoover was today appointed food administrator. Immediately after his appointment, Mr. Hoover issued a statement outlining in a general way the purpose of the food administration. Its aims, he said, are threefold—the elimination of vicious speculation, the retention of sufficient supplies at home to guard against shortage, and the stimulation of production in order that the food supply of the Entente Allies shall be insured.

CUT COTTON SPINNING 40 PER CENT IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The cotton control board's plan for the future conduct of the cotton trade has been accepted by the board of trade, because of the present shortage in the supply. I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to 'Fruit-a-tives,' and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take 'Fruit-a-tives,' and you will get well.

Electrical Development Company Has Right to Appeal.

TORONTO, Aug. 10.—Hon. I. B. Lucas, attorney-general, stated today that a cable had been received from the agents of the Provincial Government in England, intimating that the privy council had granted the Electrical Development Company leave to appeal against the decision of the Ontario courts that the company had no right to proceed against the hydro-electric commission in connection with the use of water from the Niagara River. The appeal will probably be heard at the November sitting of the privy council.

REMAINS RECOVERED

Body of Dr. Arthur Bean Found in Burned Home.

CLINTON, Aug. 10.—Word has been received from Consecon, Ontario, where Dr. Arthur Bean met his tragic death in an attempt to save his wife and child, that the remains have been found and will be brought to Clinton, where his mother resides, for burial on Sunday next.

The last reports received concerning his wife was that she was making a brave fight for life, with the chances against her.

The two-year-old baby, it is said, will recover.

Dr. Bean's brother-in-law, Oliver Jervis, and the mother, Mrs. Bean, are returning with the remains on Saturday.

JUDGMENT RESERVED

Blyth Whisky Cace Comes Before Clinton Magistrate.

CLINTON, Aug. 10.—James Burns of Blyth appeared before Police Magistrate Andrews yesterday on the charge of violating the Canada temperance act, and the magistrate reserved judgment one week.

The case was the outcome of a recent visit by County Constables Pelow, Wallis and McMillan, when they visited the home of Burns at Blyth, where they found a quantity of empty bottles and flasks; also eight bottles of G. & W. whisky, which were seized by the officers.

When the officers visited Blyth, Burns was found at the Mason Hotel, although he claims he was not an employee of the hotel.

Chief Eagle Horse has the distinction of being the most marvelous Indian baritone in the world. He is possessed of a voice of wonderful quality, characterized by its elasticity of tone.

Chief Eagle Horse is a full-blooded Sioux Indian. He was educated at Harvard University, and after taking his degree studying singing in New York. He later went to London, Paris and other continental cities, where he studied under the greatest vocal masters of Europe.

Greatest Productions in the Film World To Be Shown Soon at the Patricia Theatre.

A careful perusal of the Patricia Theatre announcement appearing on this page will convince the student of photoplay productions that the greatest features in the world are billed for early presentation at the Patricia Theatre. Glance over the names of the screen's greatest stars and productions appearing in the Patricia advertisement.

Luxurious Limousines Used in the Photoplay, "The Poor Little Rich Girl" at the Patricia Today.

Among the luxurious limousines used in "The Poor Little Rich Girl," starring Mary Pickford, now at the Patricia Theatre, are included two of the immense cars owned by this popular little star. Another machine used in several of the scenes was loaned to "Little Mary" for her picture by her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, who is always with her daughter, both at work and in play. The car in question was given to Mrs. Pickford just after she recovered from her operation, by her famous daughter, and greeted the mother as she left the hospital, shortly after Christmas. Miss Pickford had purchased the new machine three days before her mother left the hospital, and her chief worry during the three days was to continually be sure of the fact that no one rode in the car before her mother.

William Russell In "The Masked Heart" at the Patricia Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Next.

William Russell, the debonnair young actor whose graceful lovemaking and athletic powers have combined to earn for him nation-wide popularity, has an unusually interesting role in "The Masked Heart," a new Mutual-American production in which Mr. Russell is starred.

In his new play Mr. Russell portrays the character of Philip Greycourt, a blase young fellow of the fast social set, whose easy conquests over sophisticated damsels of his class have caused him to regard the game of "hearts" with contempt.

While in this frame of mind he encounters "The Woman in Grey," and in a flash his perspective changes. Instead of being pursued by women he becomes the pursuer of an elusive beauty who keeps him guessing through a long series of adventures.

A Mr. Russell handles this rather difficult role with great skill. He is fascinating as the world weary youth, satiated with fashionable follies, who yearns for something new. There is striking contrast in the sudden metamorphosis of young Greycourt from a somewhat useless member of society into an eager, earnest and useful man under the stimulus of "The Woman in Grey."

Miss Francelia Billington, who supports Mr. Russell, is one of the most fascinating and brilliant of the younger professional galaxy, besides being one of the most beautiful girls on the screen.

"Smiling" Douglas Fairbanks in His First Artcraft Picture, "In Again—Out Again" at the Patricia Theatre August 20, 21, 22.

Undoubtedly the most popular screen star among the male contingent, "Doug" Fairbanks immediately wins the support of anyone who views his work, through sheer personality. The Fairbanks smile is known from coast to coast, and his distribution of good cheer, coupled with his unusual type of comedy, which although widely imitated, can never be duplicated, makes him a distinct figure in the cinema world.

Staged under the direction of John Emerson, who is responsible for many of "Doug's" former successes, "In Again—Out Again" presents just what the screen most needs, something different, a departure from the conventional. Little Anita Loos has written quite a few remarkable vehicles for the smiling comedian, but those who have already viewed her latest effort display no hesitation in declaring it her crowning achievement.

The scenes of the photoplay are located in and about New Jersey, and present a story dealing with the romantic and spectacular career of a young blood who goes through many trials and tribulations to win the girl of his choice, portrayed in the typical Fairbanks style. Strange to say this young man finds it more difficult to keep in jail than out of it, and many surprises are evolved during the course of the story. It is readily felt that this will prove the greatest of all Fairbanks triumphs on the screen. At the Patricia August 20, 21, 22.

AT THE MAJESTIC WEEK OF AUGUST 13

Harold Jarvis, Famous Tenor, Sings "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" Today.

Harold Jarvis, the famous tenor, whose singing has delighted Majestic audiences this week, will appear at all performances next week, except Wednesday evening. He has been called out of the city to keep another engagement that night. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday he sings "Tommy Atkins," from the "Gaiety Girl," and "My Ain Folk," a Scotch song. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday he will sing "Up From Somerset" and an Irish ballad.

"Forbidden Paths," Featuring Great Japanese Actor, at Majestic Today.

It is a well-known fact that the Japanese consider it an honor to die for their country or the mikado, and that hari-kari is common among successful generals and admirals in the service of Japan. Therefore, "Forbidden Paths," a strongly vital story of a Japanese man and an American maid is particularly fitting and in keeping with the true character of the Nipponese, as the Japanese lover sacrifices his own life to bring happiness to that of the woman he loves. "Forbidden Paths" will be shown at the Majestic today.

"Smiling Doug" will be seen at the Patricia Theatre, August 20, 21 and 22 in this latest Artcraft production.

"The Betrayal of Maggie," a Great Keystone Comedy.

An electric fan plays an important part in "The Betrayal of Maggie," the Mack Sennett-Keystone, showing at the Majestic on Monday and Tuesday. It blows important papers into the hands of those who never should have seen them, and once engages in a duel with Louise Fazenda. The fan attacked her from behind, and, while an ungallant thing to do, resulted in a screamingly funny situation.

"The Cook of Canyon Camp," Featuring George Beban.

George Beban's introduction in the Morosco-Paramount production, "The Cook of Canyon Camp," which will be seen at the Majestic on Monday and Tuesday, shows him, as the chef of the lumber company, arising in the cold, grey dawn to prepare breakfast for the men. He is seen shivering and rubbing his unwashed hands. These scenes were taken high in the mountains right after a blizzard. During the showing of the picture in the studio projecting room, someone in the audience remarked "That looks as if it was cold." "Cold is right," replied Mr. Beban. "It took us four minutes to take that scene and it took me four hours to get warm after we were through."

Dorothy Dalton as Cleopatra Reincarnated in "The Dark Road."

Dorothy Dalton will be seen as a selfish woman of the world when she appears in "The Dark Road," a Triangle-Kay Bee play, directed by Charles Miller, under the supervision of Thomas Ince, at the Majestic Theatre Wednesday.

As the modern siren who believes herself a reincarnation of Cleopatra, Miss Dalton contributes a vivid delineation to the screen. Magnificent gowns, indicating the temperament of Cleo Murison, are worn throughout the production.

Ethel Clayton Next Wednesday and Thursday in "The Web of Desire," an Extra Attraction.

When Miss Clayton read the scenario of "The Web of Desire," her new starring vehicle, she remarked: "This is a strong play. I am sure my friends will like to see me in it." Miss Clayton's friends now have the opportunity of seeing her in this production, as the picture has just been released by the World Film Corporation. This latest Brady-Made production will be shown at the Majestic Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. Supporting Miss Clayton is Rockcliffe Fellowes. Dear little Madge Evans is also seen in this picture.

"The Squaw-Man's Son," Starring Wallace Reid and Anita King.

Having scored such a pronounced success in "The Golden Fetter," Wallace Reid, supported by Anita King, will be seen at the Majestic on Friday and Saturday, August 17 and 18, in the Lasky-Paramount production, "The Squaw-Man's Son," a sequel to the popular drama, "The Squaw-Man," by Edwin Milton Royle, and prepared for the screen by Charles Maigne.

Wallace Reid is the most popular of the younger masculine screen stars, and was recently seen in the Lasky-Paramount production, "The Prison Without Walls." As Hal, in "The Squaw-Man's Son," he has a part exactly suited to his personality and ability.

Anita King, also one of the younger of the screen favorites, is seen as an Indian girl, a character similar to the one in which she made her first screen appearance with the Lasky Company.

Majestic Concert Orchestra Overture Next Week "The Calif of Bagdad."

Next week the Majestic concert orchestra, under the able and efficient leadership of Mr. Joseph Tirri, will render that celebrated descriptive overture, "The Calif of Bagdad," by A. Bouldien. The Majestic orchestra, comprising ten of this city's best musicians, has reached such a high state of perfection that their numbers are now regarded as one of the finest musical treats in the city.

Scenes of Irish Picnic To Be Shown at Majestic Monday and Tuesday.

Scenes of the Irish picnic, photographed on Thursday at Port Stanley, will be shown at the Majestic on Monday and Tuesday next. Several thousand feet of film were taken by the Majestic cameraman.

Special Attraction at the Majestic Monday and Tuesday.

Sir Arthur W. Pinero's world-famous drama of fate and overpowering circumstances, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," featuring the celebrated stage artists Sir George Alexander and Hilda Moore, will be seen at the Majestic next Monday and Tuesday. The story is of a woman who sought to live down her past, but found that the future was only the past again—entered by another gate. This is said to be one of the strongest productions made by the Greater Vitagraph.

AT THE UNIQUE

Second Episode of Great Romantic Serial, "The Secret Kingdom," at the Unique.

The second episode of Vitagraph's romantic serial, "The Secret Kingdom," entitled "Royalty at Red Wing," tells how after twenty years Phillip Barr, the original king of Alania, but entirely in ignorance of the fact, having been raised on Red Wing ranch, Arizona, by "Peter Barr," whom he believes to be his father, rescues from the clutches of a frontier bad man, "Julia Simond," who is in reality Princess Julia, only daughter of Simond. Julia has been traveling in the United States incognito.

Forthwith, they fall in love with each other, but Julia leaves to continue her journey on the next train.

Back in Alania but one obstacle prevents Simond's declaring himself king —proof of the death of Prince Phillip.

He learns of the whereabouts of Captain Barreto through an intercepted letter, and dispatches Monsieur and Madam Savatz, secret agents, to the United States to assassinate Phillip.

Savatz and his wife arrive at Red Wing ranch, and pose as cattle buyers from Paris.

Juan, son of the fisherman who helped Captain Barreto and the prince to escape years before, is dispatched to America by Lieut. Barreto, brother of Peter Barr, to warn him that Simond has learned of his whereabouts.

He arrives in time to bare the spies' plot, and in the fight that follows, both Savatz, and Phillip's supposed father, Peter Barr, are killed.

Dying, Peter Barr charges Juan: "Don't let Phillip know yet that he is rightful king of ....."

AT THE STAR

Sixth Episode, "The Neglected Wife," at the Star Today.

Confronted with the necessity of choosing between saving the life of your faithful wife, in whom you have lost interest, and the woman with whom you are in love! That is the question that surges in the mind of Horace Kennedy in the six episode of "The Neglected Wife," Pathe's big serial to be shown at the Star Theatre today.

Fate has brought Margaret Warner, the girl whom Kennedy loves, his wife, Mary, and Norwood, who is becoming deeply interested in Margaret, together on the Kennedy house-boat. Edgar Doyle, Kennedy's bitter enemy, has set fire to the boat while the men are ashore. Norwood and Kennedy return to find the boat in flames.

Margaret, first tempted to save herself, leaving Mary to her fate, on second thought, tries to save the wife who stands between her and the man she loves.

Ninth Episode of "The Mystery of the Double Cross."

"Temperament," says Molly King, Pathe star, who is featured in "The Mystery of the Double Cross" serial, the ninth episode of which is to be at the Star Theatre Wednesday and Thursday next, "has no place in the moving picture studio. Generally, we're so busy that we have no time for foolishness.

"There are many people who have an idea that posing for the pictures is all play and no work."

Baby Marie Osborne in "Sunshine and Gold" at the Star.

Daniel Gilfether, who plays in the Baby Marie Osborne pictures, and who is to be seen with her at the Star Theatre Monday and Tuesday in her latest Pathe Gold Rooster play, "Sunshine and Gold," is always in a grouch. That is, he is a grouch on the screen. He always plays crabbed old men, and as he is one of the best character actors in photoplays, he is always seen to excellent advantage when the charming 5-year-old star succeeds in melting his iron heart. "Sunshine and Gold" is another of the Pathe pictures that make life worth living.

Marguerite Clark has accomplished with great success the scene in which she upsets a milk wagon by running her auto into it. This is for the first time in the adestations of Mary Robert Rhinehart's Sub-Deb stories to be called "Bath Burglar."

Alice Brady's next drama is "Betsy Ross," founded upon the historic event making episode of revolutionary times. It carries a touching love story, and is situated with heroism and adventure. It was written by H. A. DuSouchet, who also wrote the successful stage play, "My Friend From India."

Dorothy Dalton in "The Dark Road," a production de luxe. At the Majestic Wednesday and Thursday next.

RUSSIAN DEBACLE STARTED BY AGENTS OF DEPOSED RULER AND TEUTON SPIES

Russian Officer Explains How the Army Became Demoralized.

Petrograd, Aug. 11.—Causes of the Russian debacle against the Germans and Austrians are set forth in a remarkable report by Col. Kolotkoff to the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Deputies. The responsibility is placed on the activity of ex-policemen, gendarmes and spies of Emperor Nicholas, who, after being deprived of their livelihood, were compulsorily sent to the front.

Started by Spies.

Until the end of June, says Col. Kolotkoff, the soldiers on the west front were in excellent fighting trim. Technically and as regards supplies the army was beyond criticism. There was an admirably completed plan to advance, which would probably have led to the reconquest of Vilna. But the police, gendarmes and spies of the autocracy consciously started an anti-patriotic counter-revolutionary campaign, the first design of which was the dissolution of the army. Large numbers managed to get elected to regimental company committees and started a propaganda against war, inciting soldiers against officers, against the Provisional Government's commissaries, and even incited violence. Later they secretly distilled vodka and on the advance dosed soldiers therewith. Police and gendarmes arrested criminal convicts who were sent to the army, as were deserters, who by their bad examples demoralized the soldiers.

Many German Spies.

The Germans skilfully took advantage of these conditions and flooded the Russian trenches with spies in Russian uniforms, finding this easy because many Russian soldiers at the front do not carry documents of identity. Formerly the reinforcements units arriving at the front were slightly weaker in number than the rolls showed, but now the units were always stronger, owing to the presence in disguise of Germans, who, in the general absence of papers, it was impossible to detect. Many of these Germans spoke Russian so well that they sat at the officers' mess without exciting suspicion. The spies organized fraternization. Soldiers born in the provinces occupied by the enemy were allowed to visit their homes and after a short absence returned to the trenches completely Germanized in sentiment.

The result was that before the attempt to recover Vilna many soldiers refused to participate in the attack. How good was Russia's chance, says Col. Kolotkoff, is proved by the fact that weakened Germans often ran away and the strange spectacle of Russians flying from fleeing Germans was sometimes seen! The Germans first realized the situation, and, having an iron discipline, were able to turn to advantage the Russian collapse.

Financial, Market and Commercial Section

THE LOCAL MARKET

A good late demand for seasonable fruits advanced prices considerably on the market today, notwithstanding an unexpected large supply for the time of the season.

Large purchases of raspberries were responsible for an incline of 2 and 3 cents in both varieties of the fruit, housewives making a last rush before the berry offerings permanently discontinue.

Red raspberries sold readily at 20c per box, some of the better quality selling slightly in advance of the general quotation. Black berries were scarce and the small offerings sold briskly at 20c, and showed indications of jumping slightly before the close of the market.

Black currants were plentiful, but because of the late rush for the fruit prices jumped 3 cents, the general price being 20c per box. Red currants remained virtually unchanged, except in the case of one or two fruit purveyors who boosted their offerings with the general advance of fruit.

Although growers, regarded locally as authorities, stated recently that potatoes would decrease materially in price beginning last week and continuing through the month, prophesies received a rude jolt this morning when the so-called declining spud advanced in value from $1.50 to $1.75 per bushel, with the probabilities of showing further inclines before long.

New celery of the best quality in years made an initial appearance on the market yesterday selling briskly at 50c to 60c per dozen bunches. This vegetable is exceptionally hard and firm this year, and judging from the present demand an ample position on local dining tables is looked for throughout the celery season.

New beets are in, and bringing $2.15 per bushel. This is a comparatively low price for the vegetable, but the demand was equal to the supply the whole morning.

New honey was offered today in 11-pound pails at $1.50 to $1.80 each. The good demand for this bee product will likely keep prices at their present height.

The demand for dairy produce was brisk, and egg and butter values remained unchanged, butter bringing 42c retail and 39c per pound wholesale, while eggs sold at similar prices by the dozen and crate lots respectively.

The inauguration of meatless days will no doubt have a marked effect upon live stock and butcher meat prices, but up to date values are the same, and all varieties of meat, alive and dressed, are unchanged.

Hay advanced substantially today because of the conclusion of the hay cutting. The fodder was in good demand at $8 to $10 per ton, which is a general advance of $1 over yesterday's prices.

Montreal, Aug. 11.—C. P. R. earnings for the week ending August 7 were $2,559,000, decrease of $426 000, compared with the same week last year.

WEEKLY FINANCIAL REVIEW.

New York, Aug. 11.—Indications that various industrial concerns engaged in filling war contracts are in need of financial rehabilitation, and a disappointing crop report, constituted the primary factors of this week's irregular stock market.

These conditions were counterbalanced in part by an easy money market, which showed no disturbance, despite the heavy shifting of loans incident to several large financial operations, and the June report of the interstate commerce commission, which pointed to the almost unprecedented prosperity of the railroads of the country. Transportation shares were stimulated for a time, but developed sudden heaviness later.

A decrease of more than 500,000 tons in the unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation for June, making the third successive decline since May, caused no surprise in the trade circles, the falling off being attributed to uncertainty regarding the attitude of the Washington authorities.

Stocks representing other war commodities moved heavily, but other specialties; particularly the motors, owed their backwardness to trade conditions, such as the reduced Studebaker dividend and the receivership proceedings instituted against an automobile subsidiary company.

Although international bankers professed to see improvement in the Russian situation, remittances to that country experienced another sharp reversal, roubles falling to a new low record. French and Italian exchanges also manifested occasional weakness. There were large additional engagements of gold for Japan, but these were partly offset by a moderate inflow from Canada.

WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 11.—Wall Street, 10:10 a.m.—Steels and motors were under further pressure at the opening of today's market, but rails, metals, tobaccos and other specialties made fractional gains with utilities.

10:30 a.m.—The irregular course of prices at the opening of today's trading indicated the confusion prevailing in speculative quarters. Motors and accessories were again pressed for sale, on adverse trade rumors, and leading steels fell away from large fractions to a point. Some of the equipments and shippings recorded similar reactions. The few strong issues included tobaccos, Utah Copper, United States Rubber and Harvester Corporation.

Close.—Prices rose and fell in an aimless fashion during today's short trading session. Dealings were nominal an dof the customary week-end character. Steels and motors showed a continuance of their recent pressure, while other equipments, coppers, shippings and prominent tobaccos moved to higher levels. General Motors lost 3 points and Maxwell a point. United States Steel and associated stocks hardened later on moderate support, but rails and the usual active specialties were almost entirely neglected. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 200,000 shares.

WHEAT IS HIGHER; OATS SELLING OFF

Winnipeg Market Has Good Demand for All Grades of Former Cereal.

Winnipeg, Aug. 10.—Prices for wheat were higher, and for oats lower, in the cash market today. Demand for wheat of all grades was good, and all offerings, which were not large, were readily taken at the higher quotations. Holders seem reluctant to sell. No. 2 northern today advanced to the fixed maximum of $2.40. There was little business done in oats, and quotations were lower than yesterday. There was some inquiry for barley. Flax was quiet.

October wheat and oats were off considerably in the future market, wheat showing a decline of 4c during the session, compared with yesterday's close. October flax was strong, and bid up to 6c above yesterday. Barley was neglected. Improved crop conditions are said to be responsible for the downward tendency of wheat and oats.

Cash wheat closed at the minimum, $2.40, and other grades at ½c to 2c above yesterday. October wheat closed 4c lower at $2.14. October oats closed 1¼c lower at 63¾c. Flax wound up at $3.36, 6½c off for October, and November 3c, and December 3½c higher. Barley unchanged at $1.16.

Cash grain: Wheat—No. 1 northern, $2.40; No. 2 northern, $2.40; No. 3 northern, $2.37; No. 4, $2.28; No. 5, $2.07; No. 6, $1.82; feed, $1.70.

Oats—No. 2 C. W., 70c; No. 3 C. W., 69c; extra No. 1 feed, 69c; No. 1 feed, 66c; No. 2 feed, 64c.

Barley—No. 3 Canadian western, $1.25; No. 4 Canadian western, $1.21; rejected, $1.13c; feed, $1.13c.

Flax—No. 1 N. W. C., $3.34; No. 2 C. W., $3.28; No. 3 C. W., $3.17.

TORONTO.

Toronto, Aug. 10.—Grain quotations are as follows:

Wheat—Ontario, No. 2 winter, $2.55 @2.60, outside, according to location; No. 1 northern, $2.40; No. 2 northern, $2.40; No. 3 northern, $2.37.

Oats—Canada western, No. 2, 80c.

Montreal, Aug. 10.—The domestic trade in grain today was quieter, but the tone of the market was steady. There was some demand for oats and sales of a few cars were made.

Corn—American No. 2 yellow, $2.35@2.40.

Oats—Canadian Western, No. 2, 83@84c; do., No. 3, 82@83c; extra, No. 1 feed, 81@82c.

Barley—Malting, $1.26.

RUSSIA TO ESTABLISH MONOPOLIES IN HOPE OF RESTORING CREDIT

State Will Control System as Extreme Measure to Develop Resources.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 10.—N. V. Nekrasoff, vice-premier and minister of finance, today made a statement to the press in regard to the financial resources of the country, in which he expressed his opinion that commercial monopolies that the Government proposes to establish would soon bring about a staple condition of credit.

His statement follows:

"The demands of the budget exceed the forecasts as regards the income from direct taxes, which already was at a maximum. The finance ministry proposes to establish a number of state commercial monopolies, therefore, as an extreme measure. It considers that the guaranty of Russia's prosperity lies in the development of public and private industrial and commercial enterprises.

"In our troubled condition allowances must be made. We therefore aim to cooperate with the ministry of commerce and industry to support development of our resources. It is realized that our credit abroad depends on events on the battlefront, but we believe that our trials soon will end, with our financial credit again stable. Incidentally, subscriptions to the liberty loan so far are three and one-half billion rubles."

FIVE-ACRE RESERVOIR FOR P. M. AT BLENHEIM

BLENHEIM, Aug. 10.—It is expected that work will begin next week nere on one of the largest recervoirs in Ontario. Five acres of land have been purchased by the Pere Marquette Railway Company from the farm of A. E. Young, just south of the diamond, for the purpose of converting it into a large water reservoir to supply its large water demand for locomotives on the Erie and Huron, and also Lake Erie division. The location is said to be a desirable one, and the soil of the best. There is now a spring which runs by the property, the water from which is conducted by a drain into a smaller reservoir which the P. M. has had for some time. This was long ago found to be quite inadequate to hold the supply of water necessary.

The contract has been let, and work will begin right away to excavate nearly the entire five acres, and use the earth to make embankments around it. The depth will likely be some eight or ten feet. A large new pumping station and up-to-date equipment will be installed, and a large tank built. The power for running the machinery will likely be hydro.

Life Insurance a Protection and Investment

One cannot figure out how much better he could do by investing, otherwise the annual payments for the insurance, since the policy may become due within the first year. Quite a number are thus paid every year. Even the estates of those who live into ripe old age will get back at least all premiums paid, and generally something for interest—to say nothing of the benefit of years of good protection. Then it must be remembered that many investments turn out badly, and leave grief and disappointment for the promised profit.

Sowing the seed in the springtime so that you may reap a bountiful harvest, is like depositing your first dollar in our savings department. It grows and multiplies rapidly as does the grain, and ere long you have a goodly amount of "golden grain" in your granary—in the form of a savings account.

One dollar deposited opens an account, and we pay 3½% compound interest. Will you start sowing next pay-day, that you may reap and be independent?

MORE CRITICISM OF CONSCRIPTION BILL

Independent Candidate in Waterloo Again Criticizes Measure.

NEW GERMANY, Aug. 10.—Dr. Hett of Kitchener tonight addressed a gathering of several hundred electors on the questions of the day. Conscription was severely criticised, and the opposition to the military service act found many sympathetic hearers, who apparently are not in favor. The party system of government was declared to be not the best.

Eph Ernst, of the Waterloo County board of agriculture, spoke from the farmers' viewpoint, and said the time was ripe for the farmer to send representatives to Ottawa who would look after their interests. He looked upon Dr. Hett, the candidate of the independent party, as one who would look after the interests of the farmers.

Ald. Reid, James Clark and Menno Dahmer also spoke. All the speakers received an attentive hearing.

UNIFORMED MEN TO BE DEBARRED POLITICAL FUN?

New Issue Raised in Parliament by Member From Parry Sound.

GOVT. IS CONSIDERING

Many Soldier-Candidates in Field—Could They Attend Meetings?

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Aug. 10. — Shall uniformed Canadian soldiers be permitted to attend political meetings? The question was raised in Parliament today by Col. James Arthurs, Conservative member for Parry Sound, who raised a regiment, delivered it in France, and came back to attend to his parliamentary duties.

Col. Arthurs read a press dispatch, saying that the British Government had decided strictly to enforce the military edict forbidding soldiers to attend political meetings in uniform or become politically active.

"We have a large number of returned soldiers in uniform," he said, "who have been wounded and will not again be called upon to serve, but who are still in uniform, and under military discipline. I want to ask if the Government is making any provision to enable these men to enjoy their rights as ordinary citizens in this respect."

New Question for Government.

Sir Robert Borden said this was the first time the matter had been brought to the attention of the Government, and promised that it would be taken under consideration.

Hon. George Graham called attention to the fact that in Canada there were soldier candidates in the field.

A bill bringing the rates of the Intercolonial railway under control of the railway commission brought on the head of Hon. Frank Cochrane charges from the Opposition side that he allowed political considerations to interfere with the operation of the Government system of railways.

This was denied by the minister. Little progress was made with the bill.

WESTERN VETERANS DISSATISFIED; ARE CALLING CONVENTION

WINNIPEG, Aug. 10.—The formation of a new party, which will hold its own convention, may be the outcome of the dissatisfaction of the veterans of the west over the Liberal convention.

J. Hilliard Leech, K.C., of the executive board of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association, and chairman of the committee which waited upon the resolutions committee of the Liberal convention on Wednesday morning to urge the formation of a national government, said today that a definite plan of campaign to force a "win-the-war" government would be adopted at a meeting to be held on Tuesday.

BRITISH AND FRENCH STRIKE HARD BLOWS IN FLANDERS BATTLE

Haig Takes Enemy First Line East of Hooge.

FRENCH RECLAIM FARMS

Another Advance Made in the Direction of Ostend-Lille Railroad.

London, Aug. 10.—Both the British and French armies facing the Germans in Flanders have again struck hard blows at their antagonists and been rewarded with further gains in the line of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria. While the fighting has occurred only on isolated sectors, it seems evident that the heavy artillery duels that are in progress all along the front from Nieuport to the Franco-Belgian border, are forerunners of a resumption of the big allied offensive which the rain and the accompanying mud stopped almost at its inception more than a week ago.

Driving eastward from the sector of Ypres in the early dawn today, Field Marshal Haig's men took for their own all the German first line positions east of Hooge, between Preenberg and the Ypres-Menin road, including the village of Westhoek, and held them in their entirety, notwithstanding the usual counter-attacks launched by the Germans under an extremely heavy barrage fire.

To the north near Bixschoote and Langemarck, the French troops have captured several farms held by the Germans, and also have taken a number of machine guns from them.

While these gains are characterized as "slight," they nevertheless are another step forward eastward toward the Ostend-Lille railroad, toward which the British drive from Hooge also is pointed.

French Capture Farms.

The Canadians, lying in their trenches at the doorstep of Lens, and the British forces holding trenches south of, the famous Vimy Ridge, are coming in for intensive shelling from the Germans.

Germans Battered Again.

On the long-neglected front near St. Quentin, the Germans have delivered a surprise attack of considerable proportions, but were unsuccessful in gaining ground anywhere except at several weak points in the centre of the French line. Otherwise the fire of Gen. Petain's men put down the sally, inflicting considerable casualties upon the Germans.

Likewise along the Aisne front the Germans have delivered onslaughts against the French, but here also they met with the same result that has marked the previous attempts of the German crown prince to pierce the French line—defeat. At several points the Germans managed to make their way into isolated trenches, but they met death later in hand-to-hand fighting or were captured.

Further Gains in Afternoon.

The official communication issued tonight by British headquarters announces that the British troops have made further gains on the battlefront east of the Belgian town of Ypres. The communication says that heavy casualties were inflicted on the enemy during fierce fighting for possession of advantageous positions. The text of the statement follows:

"Our attack this morning east of Ypres was delivered on a front of nearly two miles south of the Ypres-Roulers railway. On the right wing of the attack heavy fighting occurred for the high ground astride the Ypres-Menin road. Some progress was made by our troops in this area, and the fighting continues.

Gain Glencorse Wood.

"In the centre and on the left our attack, after overcoming the enemy's resistance, resulted in our gaining the whole of our objectives. In addition to Westhoeke and Westhoeke Ridge, which are now completely in our hands, our troops established themselves in Glencorse wood. In the fierce fighting that occurred heavy casualties were inflicted on the enemy. We took 240 prisoners.

"In addition to the foregoing number of prisoners we captured in successful raids last night each of Monchy-le-Preux 86 of the enemy.

"The enemy raided one of our positions southeast of Gheluvelt and two of our men are missing. Another hostile raiding party was repulsed northeast of Gouzeaucourt.

Great Air Activity.

"There was great activity in the air yesterday, but strong westerly winds and thick clouds made it difficult for our airplanes to engage the enemy's machines. We successfully carried out bombing and artillery observation work during the day.

"In the air fighting five German machines were brought down and others driven down out of control. In addition two German observation balloons were brought down in flames, and four others were driven down badly damaged."

TO AVERT MILITARY DEBACLE.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 10.—The executives of the workmen's and soldiers' and peasants' delegates have decided to convoke a great congress, representing all the Socialist parties, workers and professional organizations. The congress will discuss means to the democracy should adopt to avert a Russian military debacle.

REPEATING PLAY.

HENSALL, Aug. 10.—It has been decided at a meeting of the Ladies' Patriotic Society to repeat on August 17 the drama, "The New Minister," which took so well in the town hall. Many who were unable to attend when it was given here will be glad of this opportunity, while many will be pleased to hear it again.

YOUNG GALT GIRL WON GOLD MEDAL

In the recent midsummer examinations of the Toronto Conservatory of Music the gold medal awarded by the institution for the candidate obtaining the highest standing in the important associateship pianoforte examination (teachers' course) A. T. C. M., was won by Miss A. Grace Elliott of Galt, a pupil of George G. Lethbridge, organist of the First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Elliott's honor was won in competition with associateship candidates, covering all the conservatory's examinations from Quebec to the Pacific coast. The Toronto Star Weekly says: This great honor won by Miss Elliott is important for the fact that seldom, if ever, has the gold medal for this examination been awarded outside the Conservatory of Toronto, reflecting the greatest credit on herself and her teacher, Mr. Lethbridge, from whom Miss Elliott received all her musical training. London people will be interested to know Miss Elliott will be heard in a pupils' recital to be given in September or early in October, many having had the privilege of hearing her in joint recital in First Presbyterian Church with Mr. Lethbridge some time ago.

ACTIVE FALL TRADE IN HARDWARE LINES

Hardware and Metal says: "Price changes in hardware lines during the past week, although important, are not so numerous as they have been in previous weeks. Among important lines which have advanced in price during the week are cross-cut saws, washing machines, rifles, wrought butts. The new discounts are now being quoted on lawn mowers for 1918, in accordance with the advance announced two weeks ago. The iron and steel market is still in a waiting mood. The trade is in a state of uncertainty as to what action the United States Government will take in regulating prices. There are shortages on many lines of hardware. Summer demand is good, and mail orders during the holiday period have been heavy. Wholesalers are now shipping fall goods, and there is every indication of an active fall trade. Reports from western Canada indicate that the wholesale hardware trade is very busy. Linseed oil has shown increased firmness of late. The ingot metal market has been slightly easier during the week.

MAYOR SAYS FISH WILL BE SENT HERE

Mayor Stevenson returned from Toronto last evening and stated to The Advertiser that London will be well supplied with fish. He went to see Hon. W. J. Hanna, but the food controller was in Ottawa. Mayor Stevenson got Sir Adam Beck to take the matter up with Mr. Hanna and says the fish will be forthcoming.

Arrangements for distributing the fish in the various wards will be made by the local committee.

EATS RAW TURNIPS GROWING IN FRANCE AS CHANGE OF DIET

Great-Nephew of Mrs. Boomer Resourceful.

SURE OF WINNING WAR

But Does Not Seem To Find Life With Battery Exciting.

Eating raw turnips as a change of diet is one of the stunts pulled off by the members of a certain battery at the front, and described in a letter received by Mrs. H. A. Boomer of this city from her great nephew, a 19-year-old lad, who is still with a McGill battery in France.

He writes:

"The time lately here has been well spent in silent repose and working on the gun. It reminds one of the times you used to tell us about when you had to walk to school. We walk a mile or more in the slimy mud (some days) three times a day, and some parts of the walk are nothing but shell holes, slip and kerflop.

"Last night we had a pretty rough night; not in action, but due to the weather. It rained hard, and we were firing heavily, so that the rain ran down the sides of our coats and into our puttees, and from there into our bottines. This way we stayed all night, and then I changed, like a good boy, when we came off duty. Buy a today's paper and see if we really did anything or not. There was some noise to our barrage, and as usual it started all at once, just like an alarm clock; after a time it slowly decreased in its intensity. During the small hours of the morning we had some six-months-in-the-hospital action, as I call it. One shot every fifteen minutes, four an hour.

Sure of Winning.

"Life goes on in the same old way. We're winning the war, I'm sure, but it hardly seems any different from being well behind the lines, where one never hears a shot. Some new men came to us the other night and the next morning one of them remarked to me, in response to my good-morning, that there had been quite a row going on that night. I had slept so soundly, as usual, that I never heard a sound or stirred a bit. Bill Hay claims that I talk in my sleep quite a bit, and I now even carry on a conversation with a person. I hope I never feel inclined to walk in my sleep for there is a deep German dugout right opposite to ours, and it would more than surprise me to find myself at the bottom of a flight of 40 steps.

"Don't spend too much time worrying about me, for I am still going strong. War is h——, as they say, but it has not yet got my goat. Some of the Fritzies we see passing back from the line are of the 1919 class, so I am told, so here's to luck. I have not had a letter from home since I wrote dad that queer conglomeration over a week ago, but there will be a Canadian mail in pretty soon. I have not written many letters lately, and I suppose a lot of my correspondents will be wondering what ails me.

Change of Diet.

"Aunt Minnie sent me a dainty parcel with quite an assortment in it, and kindly asked for my criticism, which I gave her. Living in small dugouts gives a chap a chance to have fancy little things on the side, which otherwise would be impossible. Tonight we expect, Bill and I, to have soup from tablets sent by Aunt Minnie, and perhaps something else on the side besides the ordinary 'Mulligan.' On the whole we do not do too badly. I'd like to get more fruit. This afternoon we took to the shell-ridden fields near the gun and discovered some turnips, which we ate raw. Change of diet.

"Well, there isn't much more to say, so I might as well stop. With lots of love. Your affectionate nephew,

"VANCE.

"Reading material is pretty scarce out here, and some magazines would be welcome."

CANNERS DECLARE PACK OF JAM WILL BE SHORT THIS YEAR

The following in regard to foodstuffs appears in the Canadian Grocer:

"Canners advise that there is likely to be a short pack on jams of all kinds, and that prices will probably be higher. A big shortage of strawberry jam is stated to be probable. Sardines and extracts are among the lines in which advances have been recorded. Metal polish is one of the lines to show an easier tendency. Butter is in firm market owing to the higher prices being paid in Great Britain. Manitoba eggs of good quality are in the eastern markets and have caused slightly lower prices during the week. New honey arrived during the week and is reported of good quality. There is a variety of opinion as to whether or not the crop will be as good as last year, the weight of opinion, however, inclines to an equally good crop with last year. In poultry lines live ducks are now coming to the market in good quantities. Chickens are not plentiful, but the quality is reported better.

"Much interest has been connected with the sugar market during the week, one refiner having advanced 45 cents per hundred and three others 25 cents. There is a very firm situation in the primary market due to the eager competition for existing stocks of raw sugars. Stocks of latter are comparatively light to see the trade through until such time as the beet root sugar comes on the market.

"Flour prices held steady during the week. There is an exceptionally good demand for flour from the United States. There is also an active demand for mill feeds of all kinds from the United States, demand being so heavy that some of the Ontario mills have put their prices up in order to keep it within bounds. Business still continues somewhat light, which is natural for this season of the year."

FINE SEND-OFF FOR DRAFT OF ENGINEERS LEAVING FOR QUEBEC

Forty Men in Detachment in Charge of Major Mitchell.

What will probably be the last draft of engineers from the city for some time left last night in a special car attached to the 7:55 C. P. R. train for St. Johns, Quebec, where the men will receive further training at the engineers' training depot there.

They were led to the station by the new headquarters band, which is in the process of organization, and which last night made what might be called its first public appearance. Although the band is not yet completely organized, the members made a most creditable showing, and much good work may be expected of them when they get actually under way.

The 1st Hussars band also accompanied the engineers on their parade through the downtown streets and provided music at the station.

The detachment of forty men was in charge of Major Mitchell of the Service Company, Canadian Engineers, who performed the duties of conducting officer during the trip.

Reduced to Minimum.

Owing to the fact that recruiting for the engineers has been restricted to experienced and skilled mechanics, the number of men who can be accepted is necessarily reduced to a minimum, and it is not likely that there will be sufficient men to send another draft forward for some time at least.

The engineers have always been a most popular unit as far as recruiting is concerned, and have recruited a large number of men, both for the engineers' training depot at St. Johns, Quebec, and the engineers' signal training depot at Ottawa. Last night Sergt.-Major A. W. Hamlin of the Service Company, Canadian Engineers, who has made four unsuccessful attempts to get overseas, remarked, as he led the detachment to the station, that this was the thirty-first draft that he had taken to the depot. In addition, four other drafts were sent away, and also a detachment of engineers which left in the first contingent at the outbreak of war.

Those In Draft.

The following men left last night: Sappers R. M. Adrian, W. J. Batten, R. Bracegirdle, F. J. Burgess, G. J. Cusack, G. D. Clark, T. Caldwell, A. Cohan, D. Doig, L. B. Davies, L. S. Frank, A. Fraser, F. W. Gordier, H. Gardner, J. E. Hughes, E. Henderson, W. H. Hillier, L. D. LaFrance, D. Lees, W. E. Mallory, A. Mauger, F. McBain, G. Martin, F. J. McGinn, S. Mayes, S. Millard, W. A. Milloy, H. Ninnis, L. C. Turner, J. O'Toole, S. Owen, E. Pilkington, W. Parsonson, F. L. Player, R. E. Sievewright, W. W. Stagg, W. J. Shafer, J. Weston and O. D. Imeson.

WESTERN ONTARIO COWS MAKING HIGH RECORDS

Ayrshires of District Show Up Well in Tests.

Since May 21, 1917, 51 Ayrshire cows and heifers have registered in the R. O. P., 24 in the mature, 6 in the 4-year-old, 9 in the 3-year-old and 22 in the 2-year-old class.

Four in the mature class have given over 12,000 pounds or milk, five over 11,000 pounds, and five over 10,000 pounds. Eight cows gave from 450 to 623 pounds of fat, seven gave over 400 pounds, and most of the others from 350 to 400 pounds. In this class Holehouse Flirt of Trout Run, 27033, owned by J. L. Stansell Straffordville, Ont., heads the list with 14,522 pounds of milk and 623 pounds of fat. Jeanneton, 13358, owned by Arthur Legare, Sans Bruit, Que., came second with 14,150 pounds of milk and 575 pounds of fat. Chief's Buttercup of Fernbrook, 35466, owned by Collier Bros., Beachville, Ont., was third with 13,453 pounds of milk and 488 pounds of fat. The highest average per cent of fat in this class was 4.54, and the lowest 3.63, there being only two cows whose average test was below 3.81, the majority being over 4 per cent.

In the 4-year-old class, Grace of Springbrook, 38935, owned by E. Burpee Palmer, Norwich, Ont., made the highest record with 12,940 pounds of milk and 503 pounds of fat. Bonnie Bess, 45331, owned by Samuel C. Blinkly, Waterdown, Ont., gave 10,718 pounds of milk and 405 pounds of fat. The average test of this class varied from 3.77 to 4.5.

Of the nine 3-year olds that qualified a Tanglewyld heifer, "Primrose of Tanglewyld 3rd," 41737, owned by Wooddisse Bros., Moorefield, Ont., led off in butter production with 430 lbs. fat from 10,902 lbs. milk. "Brighten Brae Blossom 4th," 44869, was second, with 11,140 lbs. milk and 394 lbs. fat. She is owned by Harmon McPherson, Orkney, Ont. The lowest average test of the class was 3.54 per cent; the next 3.77, and the highest 4.74.

As usual the 2-year old class was a big one, 22 having qualified. The highest record was 11,631 lbs. milk and 440 lbs. fat made by "Woodsy of Inglewood," 40457, owned by Wilson McPherson & Son, St. Ann's, Ont. Two B. C. heifers qualified, "Lassie 3rd," 40643, with 9,602 lbs. milk and 414 lbs. fat, and "Lady Cinderella," 40646, with 7,730 lbs. milk and 300 lbs. fat. Both are owned by Joseph Thompson, Sardis, B. C. The lowest test in this class was 3.81, the highest 4.4.

The average test for butter fat of Ayshires that register in the R. O. P. scarcely goes below 3.8 and usually considerably over 4. This high test combined with big production, is fast making the Ayrshire a very popular cow.

COUNTY LIKELY TO LOOK AFTER CASE OF MRS. WM. HENRY

The story of Mrs. William Henry, as related in The Advertiser on Thursday, awakened the sympathies of a number of readers. William Henry is serving a four-months' jail sentence for theft, committed while under the influence of liquor. His wife is left without income and without means to care for the baby which is soon to enter the world.

One reader in Chatham wrote: "I saw the story in the paper about this poor woman, and I am willing to care for her until after her trouble if some one will send her to me. I will keep her until fall, or, if necessary, all winter."

This kind offer will likely be made unnecessary, as the case has been brought to the attention of county authorities, and it is probable that arrangements will be made to send the young woman to the hospital. The doctor who was called was unwilling to take the case unless he was sure she was receiving expert attention during her illness, such as she would receive at the hospital or from a trained nurse. She feared that it would be impossible to take either of these courses, but one of them will be followed if the county authorities act.

HARVESTERS, READ THIS!

The best way to the harvest fields of Western Canada is by the Canadian Northern Railway. Special through trains will be operated from Toronto to Winnipeg on excursion dates. The equipment will consist of electric-lighted colonist cars and lunch-counter cars specially designed to cater to the needs of large bodies of men at moderate rates. West of Winnipeg the demand for labor is great along the lines of the Canadian Northern Railway, and the wages are correspondingly high. All particulars from F. B. Eat More Bread
That Your Life May Be Long!

One of the main reasons for so many ills amongst the people of today is poor selection of food. Men and women employed in light work eat too much meat and other heavy foods. Through lack of muscular activity the various organs cannot perform their duties properly when handicapped by such foods, and, as a result, much sickness occurs.

Good Wholesome Bread Should Form the Main Part of Every Meal.

PARNELL'S QUALITY and PURITY BREADS
Are Scientifically Manufactured

Don't Waste Bread
There are hundreds of dainty dishes to be made from stale bread. We have a recipe book we will mail you upon request.

They are made from a formula in use by this firm for nearly forty years. Of course, there have been a few changes in the formula in that time, but they have been only minor. PURITY FLOUR, Fleischman's Yeast, Redpath Sugar, Pure Malt Tonic and Fine Table Salt are the fundamental ingredients in Parnell's Breads. Important, too, is the bakery in which the bread is baked and the conditions under which the bakers work. Parnell's Bakery was completely remodeled a short time ago, under the supervision of experts, with a view of making it absolutely sanitary. Special dressing rooms were provided for the men, and all unnecessary handling of supplies by hand eliminated. The result is:

Bread Containing Maximum Nourishment----Absolutely Pure

If you have never tried PARNELL'S breads—there are over twenty varieties—you should, just to satisfy yourself, order a trial loaf today. You can get it at your grocer's any place in Western Ontario, from our rigs in London and district, or by phoning us.

NURSING SISTERS HAD A BUSY DAY AT THE IRISHMEN'S PICNIC

The members of No. 4 Nursing Division, St. John Ambulance Corps, who went down to Port Stanley to look after emergency cases that might occur during the Irishmen's picnic, had a busy day. The first case brought in was that of a young woman who fell from a buggy and had her ankle badly twisted and her foot injured. A lad named Daver from Norwich, who rolled all the way down the hill from near the Invererie Hotel, was badly hurt, and for a time it was feared was suffering from concussion of the brain. One of the most serious cases was that of a woman from Yarmouth Township, who collapsed from an attack of heart weakness. She was in a semi-conscious condition for some time and the nursing sisters spent many hours looking after her. While attending one of the cases some boys threw a stone, which struck one of the nurses on the wrist. She went about her work, but today is suffering considerable pain from the injury.

CHEAP RATES FOR THE FAIR ASSURED

The Western Fair management are fortunate in securing from the Canadian Passenger Association the assurance of cheap railway rates for the exhibition this year. There will be single fare excursion rates on Tuesday and Thursday of exhibition week, and fare and one-third will prevail from Monday to Friday, return limit Wednesday, September 19. Citizens of London should get busy and have their friends come to the city during the exhibition. This is the jubilee year, being fifty years without a break. Prospects are excellent for a great success this year. The space, both inside the buildings and outside on the grounds, is nearly all allotted, and, with fine weather conditions, success is assured. If space is required, application should be made at once. If a prize-list is needed or any information wanted, write the secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.

UNIQUE MEETING

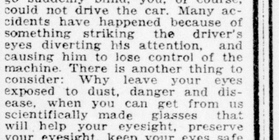

INGERSOLL, Aug. 10.—Two former pupils of the Ingersoll collegiate institute, Lieut. Charles Boulding of Dorchester and Walter Moulton of this town, had a strange meeting in the Atlantic Ocean recently. Lieut. Boulding, severely wounded in his left foot, was on his way home, and was on the transport which went ashore near Halifax. Walter Moulton, who is a wireless operator, and a former defence player of the Ingersoll hockey team, was on the vessel that went to the rescue of the transport. Under the circumstances the conversation which the two former schoolmates had was of the greatest interest.

The safety of yourself and the people who may be in the car with you depends more on your eyes than anything else. If you were to go suddenly blind, you, of course, could not drive the car. Many accidents have happened because of something striking the driver's eyes diverting his attention, and causing him to lose control of the machine. There is another thing to consider: Why leave your eyes exposed to dust, danger and disease, when you can get from us scientifically made glasses that will help your eyesight, preserve your eyesight, keep your eyes safe from danger, and add to the joy of motoring.
