FAILURE OF BRITISH RAILWAY STRIKE PREDICTED

BRITISH RAILWAY STRIKE IS DOOMED TO FAILURE, PREDICT IMPORTANT LONDON NEWSPAPERS

Opinions of Press Are Based On Belief That the Strikers Underestimated Government Preparations—Large Portion of Public Opposed To Strike—Food Control in the Hands of a Woman.

SITUATION IMPROVED.

London, Sept. 29.—Improvement in the situation created by the general strike on the British railways was announced in official quarters this morning. The distribution of food was being carried out without friction and volunteer help was being freely offered, it was stated.

The official communication from Downing street read: "The general strike situation is improving. The Government measures are working satisfactorily. Food distribution is proceeding smoothly and offers of voluntary assistance are still pouring in."

London, Sept. 29.—Some of the morning papers today express great confidence that the railway strike is doomed to failure. The Daily Mail is one of these. It justifies its prediction by saying that the strike leaders have greatly underrated the magnitude of the government's preparations to maintain the food supply. It adds that the rank and fire of the railwaymen have not got their hearts in the strike, while another factor of decisive importance is that "the public is dead against the strike."

Londoners are keenly awaiting the decision of the bus and tramway workers today as to whether or not they will go on strike. The Daily Mail quotes an omnibus official as saying it is improbable that the busmen will strike, as the authorities will be able to get as many drivers as they desire from the demobilized men, thousands of whom are skilled drivers and eager to secure jobs.

The food distribution in London during the crisis has been placed under the control of a woman—Miss Eleanor Hopwood—who has long been assistant commissioner in the ministry of food, and was previously secretary to a big commercial firm.

Miss Hopwood takes an optimistic view. She is not worried about the strike, and the public need not worry, in her view, she being confident that the strikers will be defeated.

There were no surface indications early in the day that the Government and the railroadmen were making any effort to get together to settle the strike, nor was there anything to indicate that the strike would immediately spread to the miners or transport workers. The labor leaders say they are unwilling to call out the miners or transport workers unless there is urgent need of their assistance, which the labor men declare is unnecessary at present. The stoppage of transportation, however, is automatically throwing thousands of miners out of work and causing the closing down of pits.

Railway Tieup Complete.

While nearly every railroad in the United Kingdom is making some effort to run trains, the railway tieup as nearly approaches completeness as the most ardent union man could hope. Meanwhile the Government, by inaugurating a system of motor lorry transportation, planned in detail during the war, in case of a German invasion, is supplying the cities with milk and promises to keep a steady stream of food pouring into the large centres. One motor lorry column a mile long brought food into London from the west today.

The London buses and tram cars are still operating, but with the subway shut down their facilities are inadequate to accommodate the crowds.

The London business houses were again under-manned today through the inability of the workers to reach the city.

The only alleviation for the city from the trials of the improvised urban transportation system, was the good weather which prevailed.

NO ATTEMPT MADE BY EITHER SIDE TO RENEW NEGOTIATIONS

London, Sept. 29.—With the third day of the national railroad strike came the test of the ability of the country to combat conditions of upheaval in which determination on the part of railwaymen was met by an equal stubbornness from the Government, while the ordinary public showed a remarkable capacity for dealing with the extraordinary situation.

No attempt to renew negotiations is reported from either side. Meanwhile, with the exception of local and boat trains, the whole railroad service is stalled, but the Government is rallying every motor car and pressing every other means of locomotion into service in order to prevent the business of the country and its food supply from becoming paralyzed.

A message issued in official quarters gives hope that the situation on the railroads is improving, thousands having volunteered to replace the strikers. These are now being trained for service. The food supplies and their distribution were declared to be now guaranteed, although strict rationing was declared necessary in order to maintain the regular supply.

No disorder is recorded anywhere, but the troops and special constables are being held in readiness to guard tracks and bridges if called upon to do so. J. H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, in an interview today said: "I observe with regret that an attempt is being made to turn this fight into a revolution despite all my efforts to limit it to the form of a labor dispute. These efforts to transform its character into a revolutionary movement may succeed. I am not responsible for this. The railroadmen are neither Bolsheviki nor anarchists, but know what they are fighting for, and they are more determined than ever. Let those who are fanning the flame be prepared for the results of their efforts.

"We shall not be beaten. No avenue of settlement will be missed by me. Neither dignity nor pride will prevent me from settling what I know to be a terrible business. I have no fear of the result."

HENRI BOURASSA TO RETIRE AND DEVOTE LIFE TO PRIESTHOOD

One-Time Stormy Petrel of Politics Is Changed Man.

MOURNS WIFE'S DEATH

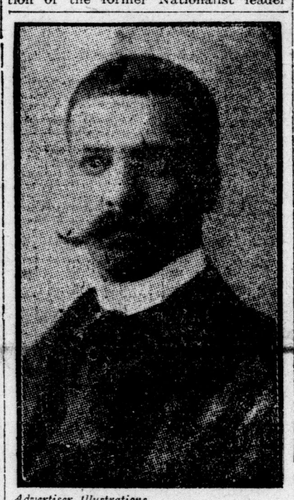

Nationalist Party Is Virtually Dead With Its Leader Out.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Sept. 29.—It would appear from news received here that a once prominent and spectacular figure in Canadian political life has retired definitely to a quieter sphere of life. It is stated that Henri Bourassa, originator of the Nationalist movement, and for many years the stormy petrel of Quebec politics, has taken a year's leave of absence from his paper Le Devoir, and has retired to a monastery in Montreal, there to take a novena with the probable ultimate purpose of entering the priesthood.

Leading Secluded Life.

It has been a matter of general knowledge that the serious illness of Madame Bourassa, diverted the attention of the former Nationalist leader from political affairs, and that since her death recently his life has been that of a recluse. His once raven hair and beard are now almost white, and the once fiery orator has been changed to a quiet and brooding man, who seeks consolation frequently in the sacraments of the church. Mr. Bourassa has frequently before entered retreat, and taken a novena, but today it is said that his purpose is to devote the rest of his life to church affairs. He has several children.

Nationalist Party Dead.

To all intents and purposes the old Nationalist party is a thing of the past. Armand Lavergne, former first lieutenant of the "Master," is now without either a leader or a party. He has, however, intimated his intention of contesting East Quebec in the forthcoming by-election on October 27.

GERMANS ARE ASSISTING BOLSHEVIKI IN CAMPAIGN

Stockholm, Sept. 29.—A Russian general who had made his way out of the country into Finland, reports that Germans are playing an important part in the Bolshevik operations in the region of Petrograd and of Moscow, which cities, he says, are in direct communication with Berlin, according to a dispatch to the Tidingen from Helsingfors. The Bolshevik armies in many sectors are led by German general staff officers, he declared.

The Germans in this Russian's opinion, are working for the re-establishment of a monarchical Russia in sympathy with Germany.

ITALIAN CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES SCENE OF FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT AS RESULT OF FIUME DEBATE

Nitti's Cabinet May Resign As Result of Riotous Incident—Resolution Is Passed by Government Members Demanding That Fiume Be Made an Italian City.

Paris, Sept. 29.—A resolution demanding that Fiume be made an Italian city has been passed by the Italian Chamber of Deputies, according to information received by the Italian delegation here.

FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

Rome, Sept. 29.—Debate in the Chamber of Deputies was interrupted today by a free fight which lasted ten minutes and in which about 100 deputies participated. The opinion is expressed in some quarters that the Cabinet, as a result of the riotous incident, may decide to resign rather than plunge the country into a struggle during the general election. It is asserted the fight in the Chamber of Deputies indicates what would occur in the country. The correct figures for the vote of confidence given the Cabinet was 208 to 148, instead of 208 to 140, as at first reported.

ROME UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

Paris, Sept. 29.—During the session of the Italian Chamber of Deputies in Rome yesterday, a considerable number of troops was concentrated around the centre of the city and on the main streets leading to it. According to the Rome correspondent of Le Journal, the city may be said to be under martial law.

CONSERVATIVES SEE NO CHANCE OF BEATING OUT SIR ADAM BECK

Are Not Likely To Choose a Candidate To Oppose Him.

CHIEFS MEETING FRIDAY

May Try To Get Their Man To Reconsider His Decision.

That Sir Adam Beck, who will run as an independent candidate in an effort to secure a seat at the Legislature through the coming election, cannot be beaten by a straight Conservative at the polls is the opinion of several prominent Conservatives, and it is problematical whether a candidate on the Tory Government ticket to oppose Sir Adam will be named at the meeting of the Conservative Association on Friday evening.

Since the year 1902, Sir Adam Beck has been London's representative in the Legislature. He has not denied the story that he will not be a supporter of the Hearst Government, and he will make a public statement explaining his position one day this week in Toronto.

News Broken Friday.

His stand was first communicated to the executive of the local Conservative camp on his return to the city from Toronto last Friday evening, when consternation was aroused at his pronounced intention of deserting the Tory ranks and traveling a lone trail toward the Provincial Government headquarters.

From an authoritative source The Advertiser has learned that Sir William Hearst was informed of the independent attitude of the head of the hydro-electric power commission nearly two weeks ago.

All In Doubt.

Will the chiefs of the Conservative party, at the executive session on Friday, endeavor to get Sir Adam to reconsider his bold attitude? Will they decide to refrain from the fight and give him a clear field? Or will they indorse a candidate to oppose the hydro leader? These questions cannot be answered at the present time, but developments in the course of a few days will probably provide clues as to the definite Tory plan of action to be mapped out at the end of the week.

Confidence.

According to Ald. E. R. Seabrook, the secretary of the Conservative Association, Sir Adam Beck will be a sure winner, but as to the actions of the executive at the coming meeting, Mr. Seabrook would not venture a guess. He thought it improbable, however, that another candidate would be named by the local Tory ring.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN EXPECTED TO OFFER RESIGNATION SOON

Unionist Caucus Is Expected To Take Place On Wednesday.

PLAN REORGANIZATION

Party Has Room Only For Those Who Can Support Tory Policy.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Sept. 29.—Invitations to the Unionist caucus have not yet been sent out. It had been intended that the gathering would take place tomorrow, but it is now stated that it cannot take place before Wednesday. It is not anticipated in fact that the important questions which will come before the members can be disposed of at one sitting of caucus, but that the deliberations will be something in the nature of a miniature convention, which will adjourn over until next day, and which will probably continue off and on for several days hereafter. At the first meeting Sir Robert Borden will submit his plans for organization and platform. While there will undoubtedly be considerable debate on the general principle of establishing a Union party, it is not anticipated that the details will be discussed to any considerable extent until there have been caucuses of the members of the various provinces. In fact, there may be separate caucuses of Unionist Liberals and Unionist Conservatives. After these sub-caucuses have been held a further general caucus will likely be called to consolidate, if possible, the opinions reached.

Room for Tories Only.

At the present time there is really no "opinion" on the matter. There have been several small gatherings of members. Generally speaking, Liberal Unionists have about arrived at the conclusion that if the policy of the new party is to be one even of moderate protection there will be no place for them in it. On the other hand, Conservatives and Conservative Unionists hold the view of the Montreal Star and the Montreal Gazette, frankly expressed, that if a new party is to be formed, there is no room in it for those who cannot support Conservative policy.

The rumor has been circulated that Sir Robert Borden may offer his resignation at the forthcoming caucus. Next Monday is the eighth anniversary, of the elevation of Sir Robert to the premiership, and there are some who say that he will choose that date for his retirement. While he may, as he has done before, declare his readiness to retire, in best-informed circles, however, it is not believed that he intends doing so until his followers are again established firmly upon a solid platform. If it is possible to do so, he will shortly take a holiday and expects to return with health recuperated.

NAURU ARRANGEMENT PASSES.

Melbourne, Sept. 29.—The federal house of representatives has passed the so-called Nauru arrangement providing that the control of former German islands in the Pacific, south of the equator, shall pass to Australia and New Zealand, and those north of the equator to Japan.

JAMES YEO, G. T. R. INSPECTOR OF TRACKS, SHOT IN HEAD; CAN IDENTIFY ONE OF HIS ASSAILANTS

Youths Had Piled Ties On Track To Derail Train and After Discovery Fired At Yeo—Bullet Removed and Victim of Shooting May Recover.

Shot in the head by a boy, aged about 17 years, and the name of whom Yeo says he knows, and whom he chased, after the boy and a companion had piled railway ties on the Grand Trunk tracks near the Cove Bridge Sunday morning, James Yeo, 8 Wortley road, is in Victoria Hospital in a semi-conscious condition. He is 55 years old, and had been employed by the Grand Trunk as a track inspector.

Yeo was shot in a clump of woods west of the Cove bridge, just outside of the city limits at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning. City police did not learn of the shooting until 10 o'clock last night, when James McKay, 80 Wharncliffe road, came to the police station and told what he knew.

Detectives Start Search.

City detectives immediately commenced a search for the two boys of whom McKay gave a general description. They were running away from the direction of the city when he saw them last.

Detectives tried until midnight last night to communicate with the head of the county police, but could not locate him. Although the shooting took place in the county, city police officials decided in the meantime to take a hand in searching for the two boys, but they had made no headway in tracing them up to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Piled Ties on Track.

According to McKay, two young men, aged 16 or 17, piled four railway ties on the Grand Trunk track west of the Cove bridge, evidently with the intention of wrecking the train due in this city from Sarnia at 12:30 o'clock. Yeo, whom McKay knew, came walking along the tracks soon after the two boys had left, and threw the ties over the embankment. Yeo asked McKay if he knew who had put the ties on the tracks, and McKay pointed toward the clump of woods in which he had seen the two boys disappear.

Yeo entered the woods and a few minutes afterward McKay said there were two shots. He found Yeo lying in the woods with a wound near the temple and another on the top of the scalp. The wounded man was dazed, but not unconscious, and McKay helped him toward the city. Yeo went to the home of Mrs. M. Raines, 13½ Wortley road, where he had boarded, but before he could tell how he was hurt, he became unconscious. He was ordered to the hospital by Dr. J. D. Wilson, who, assisted by Dr. Cameron Wilson, operated this morning, following an X-ray examination last night, and the bullet was removed. It is now merely apiece of flattened lead, having grooved itself against the interior of the skull, lying against the brain. The bullet, which is .22 calibre, entered the head below the mastoid process behind the left ear, pushing up a piece of the skull, which was fractured by the impact.

Bone Removed.

The fragment of the skull about one inch by one-fourth inch was removed with the bullet during the operation. Anti-tetanus serum was administered by the doctors to prevent complications. Yeo, who informed the doctors that he knew one of his assailants, but is now in a delirious condition, stated that the

PRESIDENT WILSON SPENDS BAD NIGHT

Will Be Unable To Receive Viscount Grey For Some Days.

Washington, Sept. 29—President Wilson will not be able to receive Viscount Grey, the British ambassador, who arrived here Saturday, but when his health permits him to see visitors, Viscount Grey probably will be among the first to be received. The president's secretary announced that Mr. Wilson will remain in seclusion at the White House for the present.

President Wilson will not receive King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium at the White House until they return from a tour of the United States, it was learned definitely today at the White House.

President Wilson spent a restless night last night, but is sleeping this morning, Rear Admiral Grayson, his personal physician, announced today.

ORE BOATS ANCHOR IN DETROIT RIVER

Steel Strike Brings About the Congestion of Lake Ports.

Detroit, Sept. 29.—Twenty-two ore carriers, including many of the largest ships on the Great Lakes, were anchored in the Detroit River last night because of the congestion of lower lake ports caused by the closing of the steel mills because of the strike of steel and iron workers. All dockage room at Cleveland, Ashtabula and other Lake Erie ports is reported occupied.

GERMAN DEMOCRATS TO ENTER CABINET

Chancellor Bauer Confirms Report of This Move.

Paris, Sept. 28.—According to a dispatch to the Havas Agency from Berlin, Chancellor Bauer has confirmed the report of the impending entrance of representatives of the German democratic party into the cabinet, now composed solely of Socialist members. In addition to this change the Socialist Dr. David would succeed Dr. Hermann Mueller, as minister of foreign affairs.

HYDRO-AIRPLANE IS BELIEVED LOST IN THE ENGLISH CHANNEL

Havre, Sept. 29.—A British hydro-airplane with three passengers who missed the channel boat on account of the strike in England, became separated from two other machines in a snow squall over the channel last night, and arrived here this morning. The fate of the other machines is unknown.

STEEL CORPORATION WILL MAKE EFFORT TO OPERATE PLANTS WITH FULL STAFFS

Many Strikers Vote to Return to Their Jobs.

NO OUTBREAKS REPORTED

Labor Leaders Organize To Extend Walkout to Other Districts.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 29.—The opening of the second week of the steel workers' strike in the Pittsburg district was marked today by efforts of employers to operate plants full handed and an intensive campaign by a large force of union organizers to extend the walkout to include those men who have remained at work.

While early reports did not indicate to what degree of success either side met, it is known that many workers voted last week to return to the mills today and resume their duties and the employers view the situation with optimism.

From strike headquarters came the statement that with the additional organization brought into the field during the past few days there would be very few desertions and a large number of additions to the strikers' ranks.

Strike leaders watched with interest developments in the walkout of Bethlehem Steel Company employees, which went into effect today. They expected that this strike will tie up all Bethlehem plants.

Meetings of strikers were held in halls throughout Allegheny County yesterday, under supervision of the sheriff. Deputies attended the gatherings, and no outbreaks were reported. The success with which Sunday's meetings were held prompted strike leaders to announce that many such gatherings would be held in the county this week.

NO OUTBREAKS AT BETHLEHEM PLANTS

Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 29.—The Bethlehem plant of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation was very little affected this morning by the strike which has been called from Pittsburg, and there was no semblance of disorder at the entrances to the various plants, when the shifts changed at 6 a.m. and again at 7:30 o'clock.

Officials of the company said that virtually the same number of employees

ORDER RESTORED IN OMAHA BY TROOPS

Mayor in Hospital As Result of Mob's Attempt On Life.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 29.—After a night of mob rule, during which a negro was lynched, an attempt made to hang the mayor of Omaha, Edward P. Smith, the county court house burned, one man shot and killed, and perhaps forty others injured, the city was quiet today under patrol of federal troops from Fort Crook and Fort Omaha.

The mayor is at a hospital and was still unconscious early today as a result of the attempt made by the mob to hang him to a trolley pole, because he advised against the lynching of William Brown, a negro, who was in the county jail charged with attacking a white girl on the outskirts of the city early last week.

Millions In Paper Roubles Seized In German Biplane

Miniature Printing Press Was Part of the Equipment Seized.

Geneva, Sept. 28.—Rumanian troops have seized a big German biplane carrying 300,000,000 paper roubles and a miniature, but complete, printing press at Hotin, Bessarabia, according to the Rumanian bureau at Berne. The biplane which was en route to Moscow, was forced to land at Hotin because of a leak in the gasoline tank. It was manned by four German officers, who are said to have resented their arrest. The roubles were all said to have been new notes.

$7,000 SUMMER HOME AT BAYFIELD BURNS

Bayfield, Sept. 29.—The beautiful $7,000 summer home of Mrs. Stott of Detroit was burned to the ground by fire on Saturday morning. This home had been in the process of erection all summer, and was just ready for moving in the furniture when the fire occurred. It is said that the place was largely covered with insurance. The owner, it is understood, intends to rebuild.

TWO KILLED WHEN GANGSTERS STAGE PISTOL BATTLE IN NEW YORK STREET

Bodies of Victims Are Riddled With Bullets.

ONE IS ARRESTED

Other Two Escape in Motor Car—Seven Safes Are Blown.

New York, Sept. 29.—Two men were killed and one wounded in a revolver battle by gunmen on the east side, and seven safes in one Canal street building were blown open by burglars early yesterday.

An automobile conveyed the gunmen to Catharine and Madison streets about 2 a.m. and three men, revolvers in hand, leaped from it, and ran to the corner, where they opened fire on three others standing there. One of the gangsters was arrested at pistol point by a patrolman arriving on the scene during the shooting. The others escaped in the car. Two of the men attacked were killed instantly, their bodies being riddled with bullets. Other arrests followed in Brooklyn, where the police claim to have tracked the murder car.

In a loft building in Canal street, about the same time as the east side shooting, burglars dynamited seven safes, going through the structure in the most businesslike fashion. The police made one arrest later in the day on "suspicion of burglary."

SAILINGS CANCELLED BECAUSE OF STRIKE

Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—All sailings to ports in Great Britain have been cancelled by the shipping board because of the strike of railway workers there.

PREMIER RECEIVES VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Rome, Sept. 29.—All the members of the Chamber of Deputies with the exception of the official Socialists, voted confidence in Premier Nitti in the vote taken in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. Ten members refrained from casting their ballots.

DUELS ARRANGED AS RESULT OF FIGHT IN ITALIAN PARLIAMENT

Rome, Sept. 28.—The Chamber adjourned tonight until Wednesday, when it will decide whether a vote shall be taken on the question of discussing the peace treaties.

In consequence of the fight in the Chamber several duels were announced between deputies and between deputies and journalists. A prolonged heated discussion preceded the riotous scene. The members of the Parliamentary League insisted upon asking the Government whether it intended to discuss the treaties before adjournment. Premier Nitti answered that he would first have a vote of confidence and then whatever cabinet should be in power would decide what should be done. Thereupon members of the Parliamentary League invaded the ministers' bench, shouting and gesticulating.

PARLIAMENT MAY BE DISSOLVED UNTIL THE ELECTIONS ARE HELD

Rome, Thursday, Sept. 27.—The adjournment taken after the vote of confidence was amidst the greatest excitement, many of the deputies expressing doubt as they dispersed as to whether the Government really intended bringing the matter of the discussion of the treaties up on Wednesday. The belief seemed rather to be that the Chamber would be dissolved for the holding of general elections.

The vicinity of the Chamber was occupied by police, carabineers and troops, while the body was in session, to prevent disorders and groups that gathered to attempt demonstrations for or against the Government were easily dispersed.

SERBIAN FRONTIER IS CLOSED FOR PERIOD OF FIFTEEN DAYS

Rome, Sept. 28.—The Serbian frontier has been ordered closed for a period of 15 days, according to a dispatch to the Tempo from Triest.

BOARD PUTS CHECK ON HIGH PRICES OF ALL HOG PRODUCTS

Order Made Is Effective On October 15.

Toronto, Sept. 29.—The board of commerce today issued the following order following the inquiry into prices charged by packers of and dealers in animal products:

"It is ordered and declared that from and after October 15, 1919, pork and hog products shall be sold by owners and operators of packing houses at prices practically the same as those which prevailed on March 10, 1919, and it is declared that any persons or corporation who sells on and after October 15 any pork or hog products for consumption in Canada at a greater price than those of March 10 shall be deemed to have sold same at a price which is unreasonable and unjust and at excessive profit. It is further ordered and declared that, notwithstanding this order, all sales of pork and products of hogs shall be made after the date of this order and until and after said fifteenth day of October, 1919, at prices which shall in relation to the cost of said goods be reasonable and just and not greater than those at this date prevailing, and always with relation to any descending cost of live hogs from time to time. Without prejudice by any of said owners or operators of packing houses for reconsideration and without prejudice to applications by any other persons for further reductions, and it appearing that excessive retail prices have been charged, that this inquiry do proceed with regard to the same with a view to a like declaration affecting retail dealers.

This order is not to preclude any further action or proceeding by this board or any other authority or person in the premises, and that this order be served as provided by the board of commerce act upon all persons, firms and corporations engaged in the business of packers of pork and pork products in Canada, and in each case shall thereupon bind and affect the persons, firms or corporation so served."

NO DELAY!

ADVERTISER PUZZLE CONTESTANTS WILL KNOW WHERE THEY STAND NOT LATER THAN NOVEMBER 3

On the 3rd of November, unless all signs fail, those who participate in The Advertiser's puzzle contest will be advised as to just where they stand. The promptness with which the result will be announced is characteristic of the order and regularity with which every feature of the contest is being conducted. Those who are ambitious to win portions of the $2,750 prize money may now count the days before they will know whether or not they are in the running. This contest is open to all the present subscribers of The Advertiser. To them the suggestion is made as long as they are all ready subscribing and paying their money, why don't they qualify as possible winners of some of the prize awards? It costs to do so nothing more than they are already paying, and if they should pay a little while in advance, they would have these payments out of the way for the time being, and also be in line to share in the prize awards. To non-subscribers the belief is expressed that this contest offers an opportunity that should not be overlooked to tie-up to a newspaper which is quite overwhelmingly regarded as the best news and advertising medium hereabouts, and which just now invites them to share equally with old subscribers in a chance to win some of the splendid prize awards.

JOHN BARLEYCORN ON TRIAL; DOCTOR GIVES EVIDENCE IN PULPIT

Dr. D. H. Arnott Prosecutes Booze in First Church.

CONGREGATION THE JUDGE

Asked to Convict Liquor on October 20—Says O. T. A. Reclaims Many.

John Barleycorn was on trial at the First Methodist Church on Sunday night, Dr. D. H. Arnott being the chief witness for the prosecution, and the people acting as judge. When the evidence had been heard they were asked to give their decision at the polls.

Dr. Arnott declared that although the prisoner had been very much in evidence in the province he had never been arraigned on any serious charge. Now he was on trial, not for his life, but for his liberty.

Only Police Have Interfered.

To date the police were the only authorities that had been interfering to any large extent with the victims of drink. As well as looking on drinking as a crminal offence, as it had been for some years past, it would be well to consider the question from a mental standpoint. The doctor had dealt with many cases of men who had been under the influence of liquor, and could not shake it. When he attended them he was not thinking that he was fighting them, but John Barleycorn himself, for his very features were super-imposed on the faces of his victims, the doctor said.

It had been said by Dr. Osler that alcohol did not fight tuberculosis, as had been believed, but on the other hand that it aided it. When a man who was not sober was walking from side to side on the street it was not the condition of his legs that was responsible, but the condition of his brain. "Is it any wonder that a man who staggers in his walk will stagger in his moral judgment?" asked the speaker.

O. T. A. Reclaimed Majority.

The Ontario temperance act had reclaimed more men from drink than all other methods which had been used in the province combined, he thought. During his talk he cited many instances of how alcohol had been responsible for the downfall of man.

"On the 20th day of October, say: 'John Barleycorn, stand up! We adjudge you guilty!'" he concluded.

Dr. R. G. Peever, in introducing the doctor, stated that the medical profession had done even more, he thought, than the ministry, to actually wage war on liquor, and in this fight the two enemies of drink were side by side.

FRUITS OF FIELDS GRACE CHURCH FOR HARVEST FESTIVAL

Rev. S. J. Kelly Preaches in Colborne Street Methodist Church.

Amid a profusion of flags, flowers, corn, fruit, vegetables and even bread, in fact, everything that would denote a bountiful harvest, services of the harvest home were held in Colborne Street Methodist Church yesterday.

Special music was supplied by a largely augmented choir, which included a chorus of about twenty small girls and boys. Choruses and a solo were beautifully rendered in the morning. In the evening a cantata, "A Song of Thanksgiving," sung by Mrs. Campbell, Mr. Callard and choir, was executed in a capable manner.

Rev. S. J. Kelly Preaches.

Rev. S. J. Kelly preached at both services, adapting his morning sermon to the occasion, by using the celebration of the Harvest Home as figurative of the harvest of the human soul, when man shall reap as he has sown, whether it be for good or otherwise.

"Great care should be taken in the selection of seed to be sown. Care is taken by the farmer in choosing seed which will grow to only temporal and a material harvest. How much more careful should we be in the choice of those we sow in our lives that are for eternity," he said.

"I wonder at times if everyone is considerate of the kind of seed he is sowing, day by day, in the hearts of children, by his words and actions. Some people are more interested in the care of their cattle than they are of their family. This can be said of many homes.

Two Extremes.

"One can go to both extremes in the sowing. We are apt to be penurious, too conserving of seed, afraid that we might be wasteful of money and labor. There is that, if men keep, will impoverish them, but if he scatters it, sometimes to all appearances wastefully, often will bring back riches. This is a great principle of life. In God's sight no effort you make is forgotten, no seed is wasted, though we may think that it has fallen on barren ground.

"If we don't sow we won't reap. Give the best that is in us, for we won't get results from poor seed. Some people think it makes no difference what quality of potatoes they plant, and select only small ones for seed. This same thing applies to our Christian lives in regard to our efforts and church work. We must give God the best that is in us. Whatever a man sows that shall he also reap, only in greater abundance."

Welcomes Lieut. M. Dickinson.

During the morning service, Mr. Kelly extended a welcome, on behalf of the church, to Lieut. M. Dickinson, who arrived home on Saturday night from a year's service in Egypt with the Royal Air Force.

A Sunday School rally was held in the afternoon, in the form of an open session. The meeting was addressed by W. H. Liddicoatt, and Lieut. Dickinson gave a short talk on Egypt, showing several interesting trophies.

These Big Hotels For London Built Mainly On Paper

Federal Square Not Likely To Be Used for Purpose.

Several new million-dollar hotels have been started in this city within the last few months—on paper.

The latest one, judging from advance notices, is to be built on the federal square, although city officials have no knowledge of the land being sold for that or any other purpose. There is doubt as to what will be done with the square, but as the city owns it, it is at least probable that the citizens will be asked their opinion before it is sold.

So far as can be learned the only ground for the report that a huge, up-to-the-minute-and-beyond hotel is to occupy any site in the city in the near future is the statement of a stock salesman, who remarked that if no one stole his idea, he, after disposing of a stock which was keeping him busy now, would try to arrange with some experienced hotelman from the United States to put up $50,000 for a big hotel here, and then go after the chamber of commerce for more assistance.

It is rumored that recently a hotelman, well-known in London, attended a meeting here to discuss the hotel proposition, and his attitude was: Let the city put up all the money, and we will manage the enterprise.

THREE LONDONERS AMONG PARTY FROM THE BALTIC

Three Londoners, Sergt. C. W. McCausland, Corp. W. P. Martin and Pte. F. Newton, are on their way to the city with a party of men from this district who arrived on the Baltic at Halifax September 27.

The other members of the party are: C.-Q.-M.-S. T. J. Bickard, Woodstock; Sergt. J. T. E. Rowland, Ingersoll; Pte. R. W. Barrett, Stratford; Pte. E. V. Connor, La Salette, Ont.; Corp. J. Williams, Calgary, Alta.; Spr. B. E. Woodrow, Portage, Wis.; Pte. C. P. Bevan, Chicago, Ill.; Pte. W. P. Burke, New York City.

PERMITS HAVE DOUBLED THOSE OF ONE YEAR AGO

Likely to Reach Total of $150,000 for Month.

Building figures for September will probably be over $150,000. Ninety-five permits have been booked to date for a total of $138,225, and it is likely that a large number will be entered Tuesday, the last day of the month. As they stand at present the figures are more than double those of September, 1918, which were only $66,020. August seems likely to hold its place as the outstanding building month of the year with a total of $867,420.

J. H. Nicholls is building a frame and stucco dwelling at 208 Edward street, to cost $2,600. Hyatt Brothers are erecting a 1-story brick dwelling, 118 Windsor avenue, at a cost of $2,800.

NAME GEN. H. A. PANET AS NEW G.O.C. HERE; SERVED IN TWO WARS

Kingston Officer Likely to Succeed Brig.-Gen. Shannon.

When Brigadier-General L. W. Shannon, C.M.G., retires from the position of G. O. C. of Military District No. 1, he probably will be succeeded by Brig.-Gen. Henri Alexandre Panet, C.M.G., D.S.O., of the Royal Canadian Artillery, Kingston. The change is consequent on reorganization of the permanent staff and force, now under way at Ottawa.

Gen. Panet was born at Quebec in 1869, of an old French-Canadian family. Joining the militia at the age of 22 years, he progressed rapidly, as did Gen. Shannon, and three years later he received a commission in the Royal Canadian Artillery. He was promoted to the rank of captain in 1894, and became a major in 1901, when staff adjutant of the Royal Military College in Kingston.

Won D. S. O. in South Africa.

During several years' service on the staff of the third military district, he attained the rank of lieutenant-colonel in 1911, and then became a full colonel in 1915. General Panet has served on the field of battle during the South African and the great wars. In Africa he was a member of the 2nd Battalion, Royal Canadian Rifles, then later transferred to a battery in the Royal Canadian Field Artillery. It was in combating the Boers that he won his distinguished service order, and a mention in dispatches. He also served with distinction in the past great war.

The retirement of Brig.-Gen. Shannon, who has been so popular as the commander of the district since New Year's Day of 1915, comes after a period of over 40 years' service in the Canadian militia and in the permanent force—a period which has ever exemplified the kindly, generous and just character of the retiring officer.

RALLY DAY SERVICE DRAWS CROWDS TO MANY OF CHURCHES

Sunday School Pupils Return After Holidays.

In the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches of the city, yesterday was recognized as rally day for the Sunday schools and consequently, the largest attendance for the whole year was recorded, and not only one minister complimented the Sunday school on its large attendance, but each expressed the wish that such large classes would appear every Sunday.

These Sunday schools carried out a program which had been prepared by members from the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday school boards. The program opened with a hymn known to almost every Sunday school child.

The rally day service is an effort on the part of the Sunday school boards to get the children to return to Sunday school routine after the summer holidays.

In St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church the rally day service was conducted in the morning by Rev. D. C. MacGregor, assisted by W. G. Hofferd, M.A., superintendent of the Sunday school. Mr. MacGregor said that parents left too much of the religious teaching to the Sunday school officers, and it was impossible for the teachers to instruct the children to the full extent in the short time given to the Sunday school. Modern people, he said, were getting away from the old-fashioned family Bible teaching and prayers. At the evening service in this church a special service was given for the young people of the congregation, similar to that held for the smaller children and they were addressed by Rev. D. C. MacGregor. A social hour was held for them in the Sunday school hall following the service, where refreshments were served.

At the First Presbyterian Church, the rally day service was held in place of the regular Sunday school hour, the same form being used as in the other churches. Mrs. John Crawford, industrial secretary of the Y. W. C. A., wife of Rev. John Crawford of this city gave an interesting little talk on religion in the home.

In the First Methodist Sunday School, the rally service was held in the afternoon, and in addition to the stated program Mrs. Ed. Wyatt and Carmen Learn gave some beautiful sacred selections, which were much enjoyed.

The Egerton Street Baptist Church had a record attendance of four hundred, and some of the children of this Sunday school gave an excellent tableau in connection with the rally, the two little Misses Reta and Nadeline North singing "The Rally Day Call." Rev. A. J. Bowen of Chicago delivered the address of the afternoon, taking as his subject, "Central Africa," which was illustrated with some very beautiful slides. Rev. A. C. Bingham, pastor of the church, presented a silver cup to the class of highest merit. The "Invincible class" captured this.

Other churches in the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist denominations carried out the regular rally day program.

RAID ON CLARENCE STREET HOUSE; MANY CHINAMEN IN COURT

One Charged With Having Forbidden Drugs.

An Oriental jury—that is to say, twelve local Chinese citizens—appeared in police court this morning, and the court room resembled a miniature Chinatown for a few minutes.

Lee Sam was the first of the victims called, the laundryman having been garnered in by a police squad which raided a Clarence street store Sunday night. Sam was charged with unlawfully having in his possession drugs other than for scientific or medicinal purposes.

Lee Tont and Charles Lee had their names entered in the big book for smoking opium, while Charles Teum, Lee Mow, Chue Chen, Lee Ling, Lee Fong, John Lowie, Hing Lee, Lee Tong and Charles War were charged with gambling. The police separated the latter two Celestials, so as not to have a Tong war on their hands. Albert Judd appeared for the accused, and, following his request, their cases were adjourned until Wednesday, Charles Chue going bail for the lot, the bargain price set by the court being $400.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED ON ACCOUNT OF MAN'S AGE

Magistrate Warns Convicted Man to Live Straight Life in Future.

Joseph Mead of this city, convicted on two charges of theft, was allowed his freedom on suspended sentence by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon this morning. Mead had been in jail on remand for about three weeks, and has a large family of small children who are now in the hands of the Children's Aid Society at his own request.

"You have two convictions against you," said the court in suspending sentence, "but on account of your age I am going to suspend sentence. It is very unfortunate that you should take your 15-year-old son out to steal with you. It is hard enough to raise a boy when the parents do right, but to encourage him in wrong is inexcusable. It is very important to you that you lead a straight life from now on."

Mead thanked the magistrate profusely for his liberty, and proceeded to kiss many relatives in the court room until a constable chase dthe flock out into the hall.

QUEBEC PHYSICIAN IS DROWNED WHEN CANVAS CANOE STRIKES ROOT

Dr. De La Bruere Meets Death in Lake St. Charles.

Quebec, Sept. 29.—Dr. L. B. de la Broquere de la Bruere of Shawinigan Falls, son of the late Hon. Bouche, de la Bruere, was drowned in Lake St. Charles early on Saturday morning. Dr. de la Bruere arrived at midnight, and, leaving his motor car, embarked in a canvas canoe to paddle across the lake to his summer home. The canoe struck a submerged root and overturned. The body was recovered yesterday afternoon. Dr. de la Bruere is survived by his wife.

DOG TAX DAYS ARE HERE AND PAY, PAY, PAY IS WORD

Officials, Determined to Collect, Are On the Trail.

The citizen who doesn't pay his dog tax within the next few days is going to lead a dog's life. The police will be instructed to dog his footsteps and no matter how doggedly he may attempt to evade them they'll be dogoned if they don't get him.

R. C. Turner, city tax collector, and James Bell, city treasurer, are responsible for inaugurating this little campaign. They have received $3,700 in dog taxes so far this year, but they claim there is at least $500 still owing to them. They intend to get it, and are issuing official notices today that all owners, possessors or harborers of dogs, who have not paid their dog tax for the year 1919, imposed under the provisions of city bylaw No. 5857, are hereby notified that unless such tax is paid by October 15, 1919, they will be prosecuted immediately thereafter for the amount of the tax and the cost of the prosecution.

PROGRAM FOR PRINCE'S RECEPTION IN U. S. IS NOT DEFINITELY KNOWN

Dates Remain Unset Pending Arrival of Viscount Grey.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 29.—Officials of the royal party now here are not in possession of any details as to the program which will be followed when the Prince of Wales makes his official visit to the United States in November.

Pending the arrival of Ambassador Viscount Grey, all arrangements have been held up as to dates, schedules, etc. The date of the prince's departure from Washington to Ottawa has been fixed for November 10. This constitutes the only definite date of the United States tour which can be obtained here. The original program for the return visit of the prince to Ontario and Montreal stands as from Hamilton. The formal reception in Hamilton will be held on the morning of October 18, as first projected. The changed program affects only Winnipeg, where the prince will spend four days, and the postponed visit to the mining districts of Northern Ontario will be fulfilled on October 16, on which day the prince will visit Cobalt and Timmins.

LISTOWEL BOWLING.

RUPTURE KILLS 7,000 ANNUALLY

Seven thousand persons each year are laid away—the burial certificates being marked "Rupture." Why? Because the unfortunate ones had neglected themselves or had been merely taking care of the sign (swelling) of the affliction and paying no attention to the cause. What are you doing? Are you neglecting yourself by wearing a truss appliance, or whatever name you choose to call it? At best, the truss is only a makeshift—a false prop against a collapsing wall—and cannot be expected to act as more than a mere mechanical support. The binding pressure retards blood circulation, thus robbing the weakened muscles of that which they need most—nourishment.

But science has found a way, and every truss sufferer in the land is invited to make a FREE test right in the privacy of their own home. The PLAPAO method is unquestionably the most scientific, logical and successful self-treatment for rupture the world has ever known.

The PLAPAO PAD when adhering closely to the body cannot possibly slip or shift out of place, therefore, cannot chafe or pinch. Soft as velvet—easy to apply—inexpensive. To be used whilst you work and whilst you sleep. No straps, buckles or springs attached.

Learn how to close the hernial opening as nature intended so the rupture CAN'T come down. Send your name today to PLAPAO CO., Block 413, St. Louis, Mo., for FREE trial Plapao and the information necessary.

TRAIN DERAILED, ENGINE TURNED OVER; FIREMAN ALONE INJURED

G. T. R. Accident Friday Had No Fatal Results.

A Grand Trunk work train, with conductor George Burgess of this city in charge, en route to London from the west, jumped the track at Appin, Friday night and tied up the main line to Windsor for several hours. The engine was derailed and turned over, and that no one was killed in the crash is regarded as miraculous, as in addition to the engine four cars left the rails. The fireman had his knee slightly wrenched, but other members of the crew escaped injury.

Auxiliaries from London and Hamilton were called to the scene, and traffic on the line was restored Saturday morning. During the tie-up all trains required to proceed over the London to Windsor branch were routed via Sarnia. The cause of the derailment is unknown to the railway officials.

C. OF C. MEMBERS WILL DISCUSS CIVIC QUESTIONS

New City Hall and Larger Fair Grounds Among Them.

At the membership meeting of the chamber of commerce to be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium on Friday, a general discussion on any civic welfare matters will be held. The city hall and the Western Fair sites questions probably will be aired.

J. C. R. Foster, the vice-president of the new Canadian City Bureau of Toronto, who was campaign manager of the London Chamber of Commerce reorganization and membership drive last year, will be present on Friday evening, and he is expected to put enthusiasm into this year's co-operative effort.

Moving pictures of the American City Bureau summer school at Eagles Mere will be shown. At that school the attendance was about 300 secretaries of commercial organizations in Canada and the United States.

The performance at the Grand Theatre tonight will be their initial bow to Canada.

FACES CHARGE OF SERIOUS ASSAULT

Simon Raison Bailed in Sum of $1,000.

Charged with assault and wounding Ethbert Abel, 2 Base Line, yesterday afternoon at his home, 18 Chester street, Simon Raison appeared in police court this morning for a preliminary hearing and was committed for trial at the December sessions of the county court by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon. Bail of $1,000 was accepted by the court, $500 being furnished in a surety by the accused with two sureties of $250 each furnished by James House and M. F. Evans, neighbors of Raison.

Was Injured.

Abel, the complainant, appeared in court today with his head swathed in bandages as a result of injuries inflicted, it is alleged, by the defendant. Abel swore in the witness box that on Saturday evening his wife complained to him that Raison had insulted her. On Sunday afternoon he visited Raison at his home two blocks away and demanded an explanation. Raison's brother and James House were present at the time, and he informed the court that Raison denied the insult and wished to fight immediately. However, he claimed the accused was under the influence of liquor at the time, and for this reason he wished to leave, but was prevented from doing so by Raison, who, he swore, struck him several times with a long crowbar.

Ran Away.

They clinched and fell to the ground, and the bar was wrested from Raison. Shouting to House to hold the accused, Abel testified that he ran away, but was struck on the head with some object by Raison before he made good his escape. He then visited Dr. Ainley Thompson, who ordered him to Victoria Hospital, where his wounds were dressed, and three stitches made by a house surgeon to close a cut in his head. Returning to his home, he swore that the prisoner met him at Tambling's Corners and threatened him with a knife, after which he journeyed to the police station and swore out information against Raison.

Another Story.

James House, present at the time of the alleged offence, swore that Abel did not offer to leave the Raison premises voluntarily, but persisted in quarreling with accused, who struck at him with a pick-axe, which was produced in court. He did not see Raison actually hit the complainant, but heard a blow, and turning, saw Abel fall. On this evidence Magistrate Graydon sent Raison for trial on the above charge.

J. P. Moore appeared for the prisoner and there was some little dispute regarding the jurisdiction of Magistrate Graydon over the case, as the fracas occurred on or near the city limits. However, the magistrate, after conferring with Crown Attorney McKillop, decided to act as justice of the peace in the case, and heard the evidence, after which Raison was committed. Throwing off the mantle of justice of the peace, the court resumed duties as a magistrate later in accepting bail for Raison's appearance for trial next December.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DEATH OF MISS MacDONALD.

Miss Mary A. MacDonald died in St. Joseph's Hospital on Saturday afternoon, after having been in that institution for the past two years. She has no relatives in this city. The remains were forwarded to Muirkirk on Sunday for interment there today.

DEATH OF MRS. PEVLER.

Mrs. Joseph Pevler, a life-long resident of London, died at her home, 738 York street, on Saturday following a short illness. Mrs. Pevler is survived by her husband, two sons, Joseph and Clarence, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walsh of Petrolea, one brother J. J. Walsh of Schriber, Ont. and three sisters Mrs. W. Lawrence and Mrs. R. Ewing of Denver, Col., and Mrs. M. Ryan of this city.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday morning from the family residence, to St. Mary's Church, where requiem high mass will be sung at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Peter's Cemetery.

DIED IN OTTAWA.

Mrs. Edmund Meredith, widow of Edmund Meredith, the first principal of McGill University, Montreal, died on Sunday at her home in Ottawa. She had been in declining health for some time.

Mrs. Meredith is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Archibald D. McLean of this city, wife of A. D. McLean, manager of the Bank of Commerce; Miss Mary Meredith of Ottawa; Mrs. E. Jarvis of Ottawa, and Mrs. A. J. Reid of Toronto. One son, Lieut.-Col. C. Meredith of Ottawa also survives her.

The late Edmund Meredith was a cousin of Edmund Meredith of this city. The funeral will be held in Toronto on Wednesday morning from St. Luke's Church. Interment will be made in St. James' Cemetery.

ALLEGED ALIENATION OF AFFECTIONS IS FIRST ASSIZE CASE

Court Starts Under Justice Kelly.

With Justice Kelly presiding, the fall assizes opened in the county buildings this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. There is one criminal case on the docket. The first case which goes before the jury is a civil one, that of Scoyne vs Mills.

Frederick Scoyne, of Scottsville, through his solicitors, Meredith & Fisher, has entered suit for $5,000, against Perry Mills, of the same place, for alleged alienation of his wife's affections by defendant. The wife of plaintiff managed his general store in Scottsville, while Scoyne worked at his trade as a painter daily in this city.

He claims that he lived happily with his wife until one year ago, when he alleges defendant visited his home habitually during his absence, and paid attentions to his wife, causing quarrels which broke up the home.

The defendant denies all allegations and the case is in progress this afternoon.

ONE PAYS, BUT TWO GET JAIL SUITES

Little Comedy-Drama in the Police Court.

A little comedy-drama in three acts was staged in the police court this morning, the principal roles being played by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon and three lone drunks.

Act. I.

Magistrate Graydon—"John ——, what have you to say?"

John—"Guilty, your worship."

Magistrate—"What do you want me to do with you?"

John—"I would like to go."

Magistrate—"Would you like to go to jail for more than ten days?"

John—"I assure your worship, that I won't come back again."

"No, you won't," retorted the magistrate, as he made an entry in the big book. "not for ten days anyway."

Act. II.

Magistrate—"What have you to say, William "

William—"Guilty, your honor."

Magistrate—"You were arrested on Sunday. Where did you get your liquor "

William—"Didn't have any liquor; it was Florida water."

Magistrate—"Ten days."

It was sweet William when he had the Florida water.

Act III.

Magistrate—"What have you to say?"

Accused—"Guilty."

Magistrate—"Well, what have you to say, and what do you do for a living?"

Accused—"I have nothing to say; and I am a bricklayer."

Magistrate—"Do you intend to work today?"

Accused—Yes, sir."

Magistrate—"Ten dollars."

The bricklayer, who did not miss any work as it rained today, paid his fine, but John and William ordered their suites prepared at Castle Carter for a ten-day visit.

DRUG COMPANY EXTENDING BRANCH ON TALBOT STREET

Taylor Store Not Large Enough For Growing Business.

Owing to a remarkable growth in both wholesale and retail trade, the Taylor Drug Company has found it necessary to enlarge the store of its market branch on Talbot street. Extensive alterations are being made on the interior, and an addition has been built on the back. The floor space of the store in which the retail business is conducted, will be doubled, while the wholesale warehouse, which occupies the basement of the Hotel Belvedere, as well as the basement of the store, will be greatly extended.

Business will be carried on as usual during the alterations, which are expected to be completed shortly.

boys were dressed in red woolen sweaters, with blue trousers. At the hospital today his condition was reported as good, but in addition to the bullet wound and fractured skull, there is a deep groove on the upper scalp made by another bullet, and a large bruise on the back of his head, caused by a blow.

When interviewd regarding the shooting, Deputy Sheriff Ben Watterworth said to The Advertiser this morning: "I know nothing of the case, excepting what I read in the newspaper. So far as I know none of the county police are working on the case, as the shooting was not reported to them at all."

Hence should an arrest of the culprits be made it will likely be carried out by city detectives under Sergeant of Detectives Thomas Nickle, who is busily engaged running down various clues.

STEEL CORPORATION

reported in the various departments as worked last week except that a number of machinists left with their tools. The latter were said by the company officials to be mostly of the floating order, who had been employed during the war. It could not be learned how many men came from the 7:30 shift. The test is expected to come this afternoon and this evening with the change of shifts. Advices from Harrisburg say every department of the Steelton plant of the Bethlehem Steel Company is operating this morning with but slightly impaired forces.

TROUBLE EXPECTED TODAY IN CHICAGO STEEL DISTRICTS

Chicago, Sept. 29.—A test of strength between steel mills and striking workmen was expected to develop today throughout the Chicago district, following the announcement that an attempt would be made to put in operation a number of plants which were closed by the strike.

Union leaders put out many additional pickets early in the day with instructions to endeavor to prevent the return of men to the mills. Chiefs of police and sheriffs in districts where steel mills are located ordered out reserve officers and placed them at points where they believed clashes might occur between strike sympathizers and men who attempted to return to the mills.

BETHLEHEM PLANT IS COMPLETELY CRIPPLED

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 29.—Steel strike leaders here today gave out the following telegram from David Williams, in charge of the strike at the Bethlehem Steel plant at Bethlehem, Pa.:

"Bethlehem plant completely crippled by strike. Power plant shut down."

DOGS KILL SHEEP.

Kingston, Sept. 29.—Dogs attacked sheep belonging to farmers living around here. Heavy losses resulted. The sheep were driven to the water. Henry Scott had 33 sheep killed and 11 drowned, while 16 are missing.

ARDOR OF MOTORISTS COOLED AS FLUSHER SENDS STREAM OF WATER INTO CAR WHILE THE STARS SMILED

Young Couple Got Too Close—That Is, To Machine—and Wheel of Car Cut Nozzle With Disastrous Results.

Nearly every play that is staged, be it in the movies or otherwise, has as its basis the proverbial triangle, Richmond street, near Central avenue, one night recently, was the stage on which a scene resembling one of Mack-Sennett's comedies, was played. The triangle in this case consisted of a stream of water, a young couple and a runaway auto. The girl certainly was not one of Sennett's bathing beauties because she just hated water. No doubt she could tolerate it at times, but there are many different ways of having it served to one. But to get on with the story.

Star-Gazing.

At midnight, this young couple was driving up Richmond street in a taxi. The stars were beautiful; maybe they were looking at the stars, which is another proverbial custom; then again maybe they were not. At any rate, they tried to pass the street flusher, which only young star-gazing couples would attempt to do. Driving too closely or because the flusher swerved in, the back wheel of their car cut off the nozzle from one of the flushers.

The Result.

Immediately, a high-pressured stream of water shot into the car, drenching them, and filling it. The young man, in his surprise, shoved the brakes on, leaving them to the mercy of the wrathful stream. Needless to say, both made a hurried, if not graceful, exit from the car. The car being an extraordinarily intelligent specimen, resented being left in the deluge, and finding the brakes improperly applied started down the street on its own accord; the grade on Richmond street aiding it materially.

A policeman, the driver of the flusher, some spectators, and the young couple, though impeded by their wet clothing, started in wild pursuit—just as one sees in the movies. The car evidently wishing only to get away from the water stopped some distance down the street. It was somewhat damaged, but was able to proceed on its way when its occupants regained it.

PRISONER AT LAST TAKEN TO ASYLUM

Victor Medland Is Removed From Local Jail.

Victor Medland, the local epileptic, who was confined in the county jail here, was on Saturday removed to the Ontario Hospital on recommendation of Dr. James Wilson, jail physician. Medland, who is in poor health, weak-minded, and a confirmed epileptic, was sentenced by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon recently to serve from three months to two years in the Burwash Reformatory on conviction for forgery. Provincial Bailiff Ryan refused to accept him for Burwash owing to his condition, which since that time has grown considerably worse, and the asylum authorities finally have been persuaded to accept Medland for treatment, although he was refused admission to this institution a short time ago. A history of the case of this unfortunate youth appeared in The Advertiser last week.

ENTERTAINERS GUESTS AT ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEON

Make Hit Among Members—"Y's" New Secretary Introduced.

An impromptu, but well-diversified program, made the Rotary Club luncheon today one of the most successful this season.

Capt. Plunkett, head of the Dumbells concert troupe, playing at the Grand Theatre, was a guest, and introduced two members of his troupe. Their presentation, in costume, of an Italian song made a real hit, and was so enthusiastically received that they still would have been responding to encores if the members of the club could have persuaded them to return.

Traced Development.

Capt. Plunkett briefly traced the development of the concert troupes in France. From the impromptu entertainments in the various centres, a training school was developed behind the lines, and there since the armistice twenty concert troupes had been turned out, containing no less than 68 female impersonators. The Dumbells troupe was one of the most successful, and after it had made a long run in England the members decided that they would like to come to Canada to show the people what kind of entertainment had been provided for the boys at the front.

Necessity of "Y" Work.

Archie McPherson spoke on the necessity of Y. M. C. A. work in the community. This institution, he said, stood for all-round Christian development, combining the methods of the Bible class, prayer meeting, athletic field and gymnasium. Everyone wanted to see this sort of development, and therefore all must get together to carry it out in a business-like and systematic manner. He had heard much criticism of the Y. M. C. A., but this, he said, was bound to arise in an organization represented by so many men. There were bound to be some who did not meet the requirements. One of Christ's disciples had proved false, but no one had ever accused Christ for this man's failure.

Fine Centre.

Edward J. Jenkins, new secretary of the Y. M. C. A., also gave a short address on the necessity of the work. He considered London one of the best centres for Y. M. C. A. work that he had seen because he had found here a good Rotary Club, good schools and good churches. These were evidences of a real community spirit such as the Y. M. C. A. needed behind it. The interest which the Rotary Club was showing in the establishment of a juvenile court was another evidence of this. It aimed to help the boys who got into court. The Y. M. C. A. tried to help them before they got there and was willing to help them afterwards as well.

The speaker said that the Y. M. C. A. would need the help of every man present, and while there were many tasks to do the chief thing it asked of them now was faith. There would be plenty of opportunities for criticism, but he did not want to be judged until he had had at least five years to accomplish the task before him.

PUTTOCK-GRAY NUPTIAL.

A pretty autumn wedding was quietly solemnized last Wednesday morning at St. Paul's Cathedral, when Ida Mary, eldest daughter of William Gray of Blenheim, Ont., was united in marriage to Irvin David Puttock, late of the 34th Battalion, third son of Mrs. J. Puttock of Becher street, this city. The bride wore her traveling suit of navy blue with hat to match, and carried a shower of bouquet of Sunset roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Sidney Gray of Clevenden, Somerset, England, late of the 18th Battalion, and was attended by her sister Ethel, while the groom was supported by his brother, George Puttock. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Puttock left for points east. Upon their return they will reside in the city.

DRANK ALCOHOL AND HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Stomach Pump Saved Life of Woman.

A Simcoe Street woman had a narrow escape from an agonizing death Sunday morning when she drank three ounces of grain alcohol at one dose for a bracer. The liquid overdid its duty, and a local doctor was hurriedly summoned to forestall the grim reaper, which he did with the aid of a stomach pump. The remains of the alcohol in the unfortunate woman's stomach were removed by the doctor, and although she suffered considerably from the effects of the "shot," she is today reported as well on the road to recovery. It will be many moons ere another similar Sabbath morning tonic is sought by the near victim.

UPRIGHTS OF BRIDGE PREVENTED CAR FROM FALLING INTO RIVER

Motoring Party Had Thrilling Experience At Byron.

Only the stout supports of the railway on the hill north of the Byron bridge saved a motor party from a nasty smash recently. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sabine, 46 Ridout street, and Major Lamb were driving up the hill when something went wrong with the car and it began to slip down hill. With increasing momentum it struck the railing which stood between it and the river below, and as the weight of the car happened to strike the upright supports, a tragedy was averted.

With the aid of a few men from the Sanatorium and a chain, the car was pulled back to the road, the accident having done no injury to it or its occupants.

INFANT DROWNS IN CISTERN IN RALEIGH; MAID MAKES FIND

Servant Discovers O'Rourke Baby in Thirteen Inches of Water.

CHATHAM, Sept. 28. — Thomas Joseph, the twelve-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Rourke, was found drowned in thirteen inches of water in a cistern on their farm, concession 7, Raleigh Township, this afternoon. The shocking discovery was made by the hired girl when she went to draw a pail of water.

CAR IS DITCHED AT MUIRKIRK; BOYS HURT

DUART, Sept. 28.—A bad auto accident occurred at Muirkirk late last night. Six Ridgetown collegiate boys were returning from Dutton, where they were representing the collegiate in the field sports, when, owing to defective lights, the driver overlooked the turn just north of the tower, and, crossing the road, plunged headfirst into the ditch. The car turned completely over from the rear, smashing through the fence and imprisoning several of the boys in the wreckage.

The watchman on the tower succeeded in raising the auto sufficiently to release them. Dr. Macpherson was hurriedly summoned by phone, and found a lot of badly bruised and battered boys, requiring many stitches to close their wounds. The auto was a complete wreck.

BALKS AT U. F. O. RECALL PLANK, FOY DROPS OUT

West Kent U. F. O. Candidate Resigns—Another Man to Be Chosen.

CONSERVATIVE CHOICE

Milton Shaw of Merlin Named by Tory Convention to Oppose Brackin, Liberal.

CHATHAM, Sept. 28.—Milton Shaw of Merlin was practically the unanimous choice of the Conservative convention held here in the I. O. O. F. auditorium Saturday. He will seek election on the past record of the Hearst administration in opposition to R. L. Brackin, the standard-bearer of the Liberal party in West Kent.

Warden W. J. Foy has dropped out of the race. His resignation was accepted at a meeting of the U. F. O. executive here Saturday night. The fight will still be three-cornered, according to E. W. Hardy of Kent Bridge, a member of the U. F. O. executive, who informed The Advertiser that the United Farmers would put another man in the race. For this purpose a convention of the United Farmers will be held here Saturday next.

It is understood that Harden Foy could not accept the "recall" plank in the U. F. O. platform, as he said as much when he was nominated. As a result of this objection, it is said, some members of the U. F. O. would not give him their support.

Nominations at the Conservative convention were also extended to G. W. Sulman, M. P. P., who declined, and the Rev. W. J. Spence. The sponsors of the latter intimated that the Chatham minister would accept the nomination if the convention was unanimous.

Milton Shaw of Merlin spoke briefly. He pointed out that he had not a platform to lay before the electors, but would appeal to the electors as a supporter of the Hearst Government.

Never So Prosperous.

The Hon. Finlay Macdiarmid, minister of public works, was the principal speaker, who eulogized for an hour the accomplishments of the Hearst administration. He referred to the report that there is unrest among the farmers.

"Is there any reason for discontent among the farmers?" he asked, "My judgment is that the farming community never experienced a time so prosperous as during the past four years. If a farmer has not improved his position during this period he is a failure."

The minister then made comparisons of prices, and showed how much better off the farmer is today than he was a few years ago. He outlined what the Government had done for the farmers, and showed how agricultural conditions had been improved thereby, mentioning the appointment of district agricultural representatives, and amounts spent to encourage farming.

He asked if there had been any suggestion from the U. F. O. as to how the system could be improved.

Would Not Last Long.

Referring to the alliance of the U. F. O. with labor, the minister said it would not last long, pointing out that labor generally stands for protection and shorter hours, and farmers for free trade and reasonable hours for their help.

The minister replied to the Opposition leader's criticism of the Government House and told the Government attitude on the liquor question.

Officers were elected as follows: President, J. C. Stewart; vice-presidents, Hugh Stonehouse, Wallaceburg, Mrs. George Gray, Mrs. W. C. Crawford; secretary, E. C. Brisco; treasurer, Major P. K. Morley.

UNIONIST POLICY TO BE FORMULATED AT CAUCUS NEXT WEEK

Interest Heightened by Borden's Attendance at Cabinet Council.

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—Sir Robert Borden's attendance at cabinet council on Saturday and the intimation that the cabinet considered matters relating to Government policy has heightened the interest in the Unionist caucus to be held this week previous to the departure of the prime minister from the capital for the rest necessitated by his illness.

There was no official announcement subsequent to the cabinet meeting on Saturday, and it is not regarded as likely that there will be before the caucus, at which it is expected a comprehensive speech will be made by the prime minister. Subsequent to the caucus a statement probably will be issued which will constitute a declaration of policy, or platform, for the Unionist party. In Government circles it is thought that this should be done, in view of the approaching by-elections, the voting in connection with which will take place on October 27.

If the caucus meets on Tuesday, as expected, the prime minister will leave the capital on Wednesday or Thursday, and he is not expected to return until after the close of the session. Present expectations are that the House will not be sitting after the middle of October, and it is quite possible that prorogation will take place before Thanksgiving Day, which falls on Monday, October 13. Saturday, October 11, is quite a favorite guess for the closing of the House.

MAY BE SPLIT IN TORY RANKS, BRANT REPORT

Two Conservative Candidates in North Riding Likely, Says Rumor.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BRANTFORD, Sept. 28.—It was reported today that J. M. Patterson of Paris was likely to be an Independent Conservative candidate in North Brant, in opposition to Franklin Smoke, Conservative; U. C. Kendrick, Liberal, and H. C. Nixon, U. F. O.

A meeting has been called for Monday night to discuss Mr. Patterson's candidature. He was a supporter of Union Government, and stood for John Harold, Liberal-Unionist, against Col. Harry Cockshutt, who came out on a straight Conservative ticket.

DON'T WANT VOTE.

By a vote of 43 to 26, Parkdale ratepayers at a public meeting here Saturday rejected the proposal to have a vote of the ratepayers prior to the proposed annexation of the district by the city. The latter will absorb nearly 2,000 additional population, and the Ontario Railway Board meets here this week to settle the matter.

FACTORIES EXTEND.

Industrial extensions for this year are announced by the Scarfe Varnish Works and the Brantford Oven and Rack Company. The former is building a new factory for paint manufacturing, while the latter is building a $10,000 extension to its present plant.

EFFORT TO GET FARMERS BACK OF LABOR MAN

Sarnia Trades Delegation to Meet U. F. O. at Brigden.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SARNIA, Sept. 28.—To get the farmers of West Lambton to support the labor candidate in the coming election, a delegation from the trades and labor council will Tuesday meet a delegation of farmers at Brigden.

Ben Tillett, the English labor man, has been telegraphed in an effort to get him to address labor men here.

FARMERS PREJUDICED AGAINST LABOR, SAYS N. OXFORD SPEAKER

Hard to Get Farmers to Vote "Labor," Declares W. Oliver.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WOODSTOCK, Sept. 28.—John Scott, the labor-farmer candidate for North Oxford in the coming election, opened his campaign Saturday night. The meeting was fairly well attended and a number of U. F. O. officials from the county were present.

The farmers are expected to support Mr. Scott in the provincial fight in return for the labormen's support of the farmer candidate in the federal election. However, at the meeting Saturday night, W. Oliver, a farmer of North Oxford, stated that he was of the opinion that the farmers were prejudiced against the independent labor party and he believed it would be hard to get the farmers to vote labor unless the labor men got busy and launched a lively educational campaign throughout the riding.

Mr. Scott, the candidate, addressed the meeting and asked for the hearty support of the farmers on the ground that their interests were identical with the I. L. P.

Before the meeting adjourned the farmers present held a conference, with the result that they promised to do all in their power to secure the farmer vote for Mr. Scott.

PLAN KITCHENER THEATRE TO COST $150,000, SEAT 2,000

KITCHENER, Sept. 27.—It was announced here today that local capitalists are behind a proposition to erect a $150,000 theatre in Kitchener with a seating capacity of about 2,000. It is stated that the theatre in all probability will be connected with the Loew interests.

POPULATION 21,052.

The official announcement of Kitchener's population made by the assessment commissioners places the total at 21,052.

CARELESS PEOPLE

Allow Constipation To Poison Them, When Relief Is Simple, Says Food Expert McCann.

"There are many preventable tragedies that originate in a lazy, indolent, sluggish and inactive digestion, the chief symptom of which is constipation," says Alfred W. McCann, in his book, "The Science of Eating," which has already been described by Dr. D. E. S. Coleman, professor of Materia Medica, Flower Hospital, New York, as "the most important contribution of a hundred years to medical literature."

"The commonplace and obstinate character of the disease is perhaps responsible," he says, "for the prevalence of the idea that constipation is a necessary evil rarely capable of permanent cure. As a result of this false and dangerous attitude the people are prone to content themselves with a certain degree of temporary relief too often brought about by the easiest means at their disposal, namely, the use of purgative drugs. To get rid of constipation the intestinal mucosa must be furnished with adequate stimulation so that the body may throw off the self-poisoning toxines which do so much to make life miserable. The simplest, most natural, and at the same time most surprisingly neglected remedy for constipation, a fact determined in a hundred hospital experiments, is bran," he says.

After a visit to Battle Creek recently Mr. McCann made the following statement:

"W. K. Kellogg has evolved a new bran food in Kellogg's Krumbled Cooked Bran, which, prepared in the big Battle Creek kitchens, contains the stimulating, medicinal mineral salts and extractives of the outer coating of whole wheat which have been found so useful in the treatment of constipation. Even youngsters take to it on account of its superior palatability and texture. Two or three tablespoonfuls a day cannot fail in the majority of cases to be followed by really extraordinary results. There is no longer any theory back of bran therapy, the virtues of which are now recognized by the entire medical profession. The housewife no longer needs neglect this most important consideration in looking after the health of her household."

A big package of Kellogg's Krumbled Cooked Bran in the Kellogg "Waxtite" container awaits her at the grocery store.

TORONTO WOMAN HAS RECOVERED

Mrs. Downs Could Hardly Get About the House—Enjoys Work Now.

"Before taking Tanlac I was so weak that I could hardly get about the house, but I thoroughly enjoy my work now," said Mrs. Mary Downs of 1 Currie street, Toronto, Ont.

"Some time ago," she continued, "I had to undergo an operation, and it looked like I would never get over the shock. I lost my appetite, and actually would go for days without eating a thing. I was so weak the least exertion would soon exhaust me. I could hardly get my sleep at night, and would often be subject to fearful nightmares that would shake my nerves so I would tremble like a leaf on waking up.

"I was just in this awful fix when I started on Tanlac, and it wasn't long before I felt it was bracing me up and making me eat. Now my appetite has returned and I relish every bite, my nerves are much stronger, and I rest well at night, and never have those terrible nightmares any more. I am able to do all my housework now without half trying, and never feel tired and worn out like I did before."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

MINIMUM WAGE, 44-HOUR WEEK WILL BE URGED

Labor Congress Asks That Pressure Be Brought to Bear on Govts.

RAISE SCHOOL AGE

Law to Compel Attendance Up to 16 Years Is Asked in Resolution.

HAMILTON, Sept. 28.—The remarkable ability of members of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress to deal speedily with resolutions, controversial and otherwise, received ample demonstration yesterday, when scores were disposed of at the closing sessions of what was probably the most important convention in the history of organized labor in Canada. Well over one hundred resolutions were introduced during the week, and owing to pressure of routine business the majority of these were left over until the last day and the delegates, after five days of strenuous work, seemed only too willing to shout "Question, question," when Fred Bancroft, chairman of the resolutions committee, submitted them for consideration.

Labor executives and officials throughout the Dominion were urged to bring pressure to bear on the Dominion and Provincial Governments to establish a minimum wage and a 44-hour week. The executive council was instructed to prepare a statement regarding the cost of living for submission to the board of commerce, and in this connection the congress went on record in favor of the establishment of co-operative societies.

Against Intervention.

The delegates protested against military intervention in countries which since the war had "changed their social structure" and also expressed themselves in favor of the self-determination of nations. This action was embodied in a resolution substituted for one introduced by George Armstrong of Winnipeg, in which recognition of the soviet form of government as administering affairs in the best interests of the working class, was advocated.

The right of unions to strike was dealt with by the committee, a resolution being carried which pointed out that the logical development of united action in the use of economic power was within the international trades union movement, where ample scope was provided for united action of various trades with common interests and with the strength of the international unions behind them. The right of free speech, free assembly and a free press was demanded.

A number of suggestions regarding the federal housing scheme were laid before the congress by the special committee appointed to deal with the question. These received unanimous indorsation.

Child Welfare.

Following a brief discussion of child welfare and the urgent need of better education for children, the congress adopted a resolution, requesting that it be made compulsory for children to attend school until 16 years of age.

Salaries of officers of the congress for the ensuing year, when considered by the assembly created a lively discussion, which resulted in material increases being granted. President Moore will receive $3,500 a year, while the honorarium granted to Secretary Draper will be increased from $1,000 to $1,500. Material increases were granted to several minor officials, but the most interesting development followed the recommendation that the lady stenographer in the congress office at Ottawa be granted an increase from $100 to $125 per month.

A storm followed. One delegate moved that the amount be raised to $150, while another thought that $200 a month would only be adequate remuneration for the work done.

Argument on the high cost of living followed, and the outcome was that the stenographer will receive $150 a month.

The speed with which the remaining resolutions were dealt with proved the feature of the closing hour of the convention.

The executive council will consider the request of the Halifax Trades and Labor Council that the Dominion Government be urged to grant full restitution to those who lost their homes in the explosion nearly two years ago. The basing of restitution on the present cost of replacement is requested.

Speaking to a resolution requesting that the vacant position on the workmen's compensation board be filled by a member of the organized labor movement who should be independent of political bias, Chairman Fred Bancroft alleged that there were men going round the country trying to get support for that position who were most undesirable, and he thought steps should be taken to have them discredited. The resolution was adopted.

The convention then went on record requesting that representatives of organizing labor serving on Government boards be appointed from the ranks of the labor movement. The congress concurred in motions indorsing the principle of collective bargaining.

Urged Soviet Form.

Practically the last resolution dealt with by the committee was that of George Armstrong, Winnipeg, which urged the congress to go on record as indorsing the soviets as administering affairs in the best interests of the working classes. It also demanded the immediate withdrawal of troops from Russia, and urged the Government to refrain from giving "financial or other aid to reactionary elements attempting to establish monarchical or other bourgeois forms of government."

As a substitute for this the committee recommended that the congress protest against military intervention in countries which after the termination of the war changed the form of their social structure. The members were also asked to express themselves in favor of the self-determination of nations.

Delegates Armstrong spoke briefly on the subject, causing unrestrained laughter when he remarked that he wouldn't ask the members to vote in favor of soviets because they knew nothing about them. He added that he knew very little himself.

The committee's recommendation was concurred in.

MOLDING SHOP OF INGERSOLL PLANT IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

INGERSOLL, Sept. 28.—A severe fire loss occurred Saturday afternoon at the moulding shop of the T. E. Bissell Company, and operations will be interrupted for several weeks. The roof of the cupola and centre section of the moulding shop was entirely destroyed. The loss will probable be in the neighborhood of $2,000, and is covered by insurance.

MANY ENTRIES.

Entries have been pouring in for the Ingersoll Fair, which opens tomorrow. Many have been received from more distant points than ever before, indicating a growing interest. Lively interest centres in the race on Tuesday, which consist of a 2:18 pace or 2:16 trot, purse $200, and 2:35 pace or trot, purse $150. Many fast horses are expected.

SPECIAL SERVICES.

The forty hours' devotion at the Church of the Sacred Heart was brought to a close tonight, the services having been very largely attended. Tonight there was a solemn procession, when the members of the Holy Name Society renewed their pledges, and new members were received. Those who took part in the services were: Rev. Father Doyle, London; Rev. Father Stanley, Woodstock; Rev. Father Quigley, Tillsonburg, and Rev. Father Gnam, parish priest.

FRENCH AVIATOR TO ATTEMPT FLIGHT TO AUSTRALIA OCT. 1

Hopes to Reach Melbourne, Australia, Twenty Days Later.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—(Reuter.)—The French aviator Poulet will depart on his attempted flight to Australia on Oct. 1. He hopes to reach Kurachee, India, on Oct. 9, Calcutta on Oct. 11, Singapore on Oct. 15 and Melbourne on Oct. 20.

In an interview with a Reuter correspondent Poulet stated he had flown 10,000 kilometers since July, getting to know his machine. He spoke appreciatively of the British authorities, who have requested consuls at landing places en route to render every assistance. Poulet has such confidence in his machine he will try to make the entire flight without changing any of the parts. Thirty landing places have been arranged, but Poulet will endeavor not to land more than 20 times. With good luck he hopes to reach Melbourne in 20 days.

CHILDREN EXCEL IN MANY EXHIBITS AT S. DELAWARE FAIR

SOUTH DELAWARE, Sept. 28.—The third annual school fair at school No. 6, Delaware, was a big success, and attracted large crowds. The schools taking part were No. 6, Delaware, and Littlewood school, of which Misses Maude Robertson and Mary McFarlane are the teachers.

After the sports of the day a splendid luncheon was served. Mrs. Harry Prior, Mrs. George Gowanlock, Arch Henderson and George Pearn acted as judges. D. Campbell acted as starter for the different races.

An exciting game of baseball was played between the north and the south, and resulted in a tie. R. J. Robertson acted as umpire. The large booth on the ground did a rushing business.

The concert in the I.O.O.F. hall in the evening was a decided success. Standing-room was at a prominence. The day closed with a dance to the music of the Kineto Orchestra.

NOMINATE MILLS, M.P. AT WATERLOO MEET OF 'LIBERAL-TORIES'

WATERLOO, Sept. 27.—By a unanimous vote the Liberal-Conservative convention here this afternoon nominated the present sitting member in the Ontario Legislature, S. C. H. Mills, M.P.P., to contest the riding at the approaching election. The meeting was a fairly enthusiastic one, but was poorly attended. There were about 75 present.

The meeting was called to order by S. B. Bricker, president of the North Waterloo Liberal-Conservative Association. In the absence of Secretary Ford Kumpf, J. A. Harper of the Mutual Life acted as secretary. Mr. Mills was nominated shortly after the meeting opened. There was no opposition, and Mr. Mills was given the nomination by acclamation. When he arose to address the convention he was greeted with a rousing cheer.

His address was taken up to a large extent with the record of the Ontario Government during the war. He declared there was no criticism that could be fairly made against the Hearst Administration. The Administration was carried on through trying years, and in spite of the war the Government could show an increase of 50 per cent in the revenue of the province.

In concluding his address Mr. Mills read a prepared statement in which he outlined his position in the matter of temperance. He stated that he is prepared to give his support to the amendments of the O. T. A. which will permit the sale of beer of 5.51 per cent of proof spirits in standard hotels, and will also favor the sale of strong liquors through Government agencies, and under strict supervision, when any reputable citizen may secure pure liquor at a reasonable price without a doctor's prescription.

Other speakers were W. G. Weichel, ex-M.P., of Waterloo, and Charles McKerither of Kitchener.

U. F. O. CANDIDATE IS NAMED IN S. LANARK

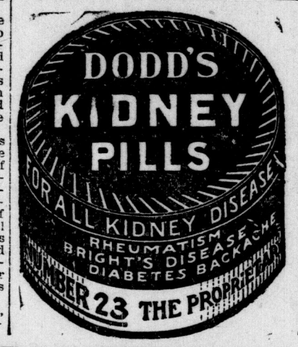

Perth, Sept. 28.—W. L. Johnston, township of Elmsley, was chosen the standard bearer of the United Farmers of South Lanark in the coming provincial elections. Mr. Johnston served four years overseas in the great war.

NEW GROUNDS HELP THEDFORD FALL FAIR

THEDFORD, Sept. 28.—The Thedford fall fair was held on the new enlarged ground and a full half-mile track. The horse-racing was a special feature. In the principal race George Elliott of Parkhill won first money, and Mr. Atmore of Cameron Siding was second.

The gate receipts were slightly better than last year. There were 1,200 entries. The palace was well filled, the display of butter being exceptionally large. As there is a fair crop of fruit in this district there was a fair showing of apples and other fruits. The live stock was well up to former years.

The school children's parade was exceptionally good, headed by Henderson's kiltie band of lads and lassies.

School section No. 12, Bosanquet, won first prize; No. 8 section, second; Thedford school, third, and No. 11, fourth, the other schools being equal. The balance of the prize money was divided equally among them.

The Quality Canning Company of Windsor has just finished its shipment of peaches from this station. They shipped ten cars of peaches, each car containing 15,000 to 16,000 pounds. The peaches were all bought by weight and were of good quality. There were about five cars shipped in baskets to other points, making fifteen cars of peaches from this district.

Celery growers have begun to ship out their crop, and the sample is exceptionally good this year; the acreage is a little larger this year, as some new bog land has been broken up for crop. There is prospect of ten acres or more new land being prepared for next year.

Announcing the Curtiss Aeronola

WHEN a giant organization that built untold numbers of aeroplanes for the Allied Governments, and that built the first aeroplane to cross the Atlantic—the N.C. 4— the Navy Curtiss "Four"—concentrates its skill and craftsmanship upon the design and manufacture of a talking machine, that talking machine must command attention. Well, it does. The is the crowning achievement in talking machine production.

"Prove it." Very well, then. What is your test of a talking machine? What is that subtle quality which distinguishes one voice from another, or marks off the master violinist from the second best?—the ultimate quality which any talking machine must catch or fail in reproducing perfectly?

The answer is—TONE.

So be it, then. The Curtiss Aeronola, by means of an exclusive reproducer, a perfect tone-arm, and a distinctively designed horn, reproduces to a shade, the pure quality of tone as rendered by voice, instrument or blending of both. In addition, a discriminating choice of materials and distinction in cabinet making, presents the Curtiss Aeronola as a thing of beauty, a handsome addition to one's furnishings.

It plays Victor and Columbia Records, and it is so adjusted that without attachments it will also play Edison or Pathe Records.

But, after all, nothing that can be said about the Curtiss Aeronola is half as convincing as hearing it play. Go to your favorite music dealer or furniture store and ask for a demonstration.

Women At Home and Abroad

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS AMONG WOMEN VOTERS.

During the last four years, "conscientious objector" has come to mean something not entirely virtuous, for this was the cloak under which the real coward often sought to hide. The "conscientious objector" drew the scorn of a fighting would about his ears, and it came to be that one would rather be termed anything than this.

Yet today, as the time approaches for taking the referendum, and the responsibility of the vote lies upon everyone's conscience, this same breed of "conscientious objector" is making itself known and this time among the women.

Her excuse is made something like this:

"Why, of course, I want prohibition to continue in the country. There's nothing I want more than that, but you know I have always been taught that a woman's place is in the home. I could never go out to the polls and vote. I consider that most unwomanly."

And if a wide-open bar is the result of the liquor vote, and her own son comes staggering home at night, I suppose she will meekly fold her hands and say "It is the will of God."

YOUNG PEOPLE FORCED OUT INTO THE STREET.

Do you know there is not a place in this city where young men and girls may go together for an evening's entertainment unless it is a dance hall or a theatre? There are hundreds of such in the city, who have no homes, or whose homes are such that they feel either unwelcome or where they are completely monopolized by the elder members of the family.

Can't someone, with a sympathetic understanding of young people, invent some sort of an institution, which will fill the need? Oh, I don't mean a prayer-meeting or any kind of meeting. I mean some place where these young people would feel free to go and be alone if they wished. Young people don't want to go to a big party every night. They don't want to go to a picture show every night. But where can they go, if not there? In the summer there are the parks. But what a poor substitute for a home.

Do you know what I heard the other day. That young couples actually frequent our unsightly old Grand Trunk Station, just because they may kiss each other, without comment, when the trains come in. Don't you think it's time someone did something? Isn't there some way whereby these young people might have the advantage of a cosy grate fire and comfortable chairs, where they might chat (yes, and do their kissing) in private? Why must they be driven out onto the street

FIRST WOMAN DISTRICT ATTORNEY 26 YEARS OLD.

INGERSOLL MISSION CIRCLE.

The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the Baptist Church held its annual meeting at the home of Miss Blanche Wills, and elected the following officers for the coming year: Honorary president, Mrs. (Rev.) Donald MacIntyre; President, Miss Blanche Wills; vice-president, Miss M. Winders; secretary-treasurer, Miss G. Waite; pianist, Miss L. Cornfoot; convener of lookout committee, Miss Eva Tribe; convener of program committee, Miss A. Foster. The next meeting will be held on October 30, at the home of Mrs. MacIntyre.

BAPTIST MISSION CIRCLES MEET AT KINGSVILLE.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent at Kingsville, when about fifty women, representing the Mission Circles of the Western Baptist Association, gathered in the Kingsville Baptist Church to honor their retiring director, Miss Ritchie. The important feature of the program was the presentation to Miss Ritchie of a beautiful wrist watch, suitably engraved, made by Mrs. J. D. McGregor, Wheatley, the present director. In the absence of Mrs. H. V. Cameron of Chatham, Mrs. E. C. Gosnell, association president, read the address of appreciation, in which Miss Ritchie's term of over twenty years of efficient service was spoken of. The remarkable growth of the work under her splendid leadership was especially mentioned. Miss Ritchie made a suitable reply, and words of appreciation were also spoken by representatives of the different circles. Letters from Chatham and Wallaceburg, who were unable to send representatives, were received. A solo was rendered by Mrs. (Rev.) Gosnell, Kingsville, and a duet by Mrs. Everett Olmstead and Miss Edith Hyatt of Wheatley, after which a social hour was spent.

GREEN—LIDSTER.

On Wednesday, September 24, Rev. Canon Gunne united in marriage Rose M. Lidster, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lidster, and Harold W. Green, second son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Green, both of Wallacetown, Mr. and Mrs. Green will leave shortly for Winnipeg, where they will reside.

A quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized at the St. Andrew's Church manse on September 24, when Miss Beatrice Janet Mowat was united in marriage to Ernest A. Wray, both of this city. Rev. D. C. MacGregor performed the ceremony. The bride was smartly dressed in a suit of navy cloth, and carried a pretty shower bouquet. Her sister, Miss E. Mowat, was her only attendant, and Mr. W. J. Wray, brother of the groom, was best man. After a trip to Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Wray will reside at 103 Beaconsfield avenue.

The culmination of a happy little romance of the summer vacation days was the marriage of Miss Lillian Florabelle Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Chambers, Rectory street, to John Lusk of West Edmonton. The marriage was solemnized on September 19 by Elder Stevens of the Latter Day Saints' Church, Strathcona.

The bride, who was a valued member of the staff of the McClary Manufacturing Company, went out West at the beginning of the summer for her vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Lusk will reside in Saskatchewan.

ROHRER—SHEARING.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Shearing, Queen street, on Wednesday, September 24, at high noon, when their eldest daughter, Miss Gertrude Mae, became the bride of Mr. Kenneth Rohrer of Detroit, Mich., formerly of Tillsonburg. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. E. Moore of Uxbridge, who 25 years ago married the bride's parents. The Wedding March was played by Miss Lulu Page of Wallacetown. The bride was given away by her father, and was attired in French taffeta and georgette, and looked pretty standing under an arch of maple leaves and white and pink asters. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. Little Misses Blanche and Mildred Shearing, cousins of the bride, were the flower girls, and presented the wedding ring. After congratulations a wedding breakfast was served in the dining-room. The bride's traveling suit was of navy blue gabardine, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Rohrer left for Hamilton, Toronto and other points. The groom's gift to the bride was a lavalier set with diamonds and pearls, to the pianist a cameo brooch, and to the flower girls gold lockets and chains. The attendants were Mr. Edwin Shearing, brother of the bride, who has just returned from overseas, and Miss Frances Shearing, the bride's sister. After their honeymoon they will reside in Detroit. Guests were present from Detroit, Wallacetown and St. Thomas.

STUART—ALLEN.

One of the prettiest of autumn weddings was that solemnized on Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church, when Miss Jean Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allen, Wellington street, was married to John Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart of Oakville.

The church was a veritable garden of flowers, the decorations being done by the girl friends of the bride. Summer flowers and palms screened every nook and corner.

The bride in her lovely robe of silk net and silver over shimmering satin entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by Mr. G. Lethbridge. A wreath of orange blossoms crowned her head and she carried a lovely shower bouquet of Ophelia and Sweetheart roses. Her sister, Mrs. Arnold Dillon, was her matron of honor, and Miss Florence Stuart, sister of the groom, was her bridesmaid. They were prettily frocked in pink and blue brocaded satin with black picture hats and carried bouquets of pink roses. Little Miss Mary Dillon made a charming flower girl in a little bo-peep frock of silk and carrying a basket of roses.

Mr. Hamilton Stuart, brother of the groom, was best man. The church was filled with a host of girl friends. Miss Allen being one of the most popular young ladies among the younger set.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Following a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Stuart will reside in Ottawa. Out-of-town guests were present from Sarnia, Oakville and Toronto.

Powder Always Shows On a Rough Skin

DO you realize that your skin would look twice as nice if you used a finishing cream every time before you put on face powder?

Just try this simple formula—

"A little CREME ELCAYA rubbed gently into the skin; then if you need color, a very little Elcaya rouge spread carefully over the cheeks before the cream is quite dry; and after that the film of face powder over all."

CREME ELCAYA

is a delightful, non-greasy, disappearing toilet cream that makes the skin like velvet.

Your dealer has ELCAYA and has sold it for years. Ask him.

In jars, at 35c and 75c.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

This Is a Mystery.

Dear Miss Grey,—I read where Rose of Sharon was anticipating a meal with Ura Kidd, and thought I would write and prepare her for the worst. Although she did not give me "potato bug salad," "lady bug soup," and "shoe leather cherry pie," it was nearly as bad. Please don't get peeved, Ura Kidd.

Say, Ura, Ashur Url is anxiously watching for a letter from you. Please, Kidd, have a little more respect for the "gentleman," and don't call him such disrespectful names as you did in the last letter.

It hurts my tender feelings. You are perfectly free to make as many goo-goo eyes as you like at him, since you wish it so much, but please pay attention to my suggestion. IMA GOTE.

Ans.—There's apparently something going on behind our backs, that we wot not of. Ura, have you been calling Ashur Url harsh names? Probably making faces at him, too. I don't know just where Ima comes in, but no doubt she's capable of protecting Ashur. Only, why can't Ashur fight his own battles?

Wants Oval Mat Design.

S. A. E. asks: "Have any of your readers a pattern of crocheted oval dinner mats to exhange for round ones? I shall be so glad to get this pattern? Can any of our crocheters oblige?

An Easter Lily Bulb.

Dear Cynthia Grey,—Here comes another newcomer to the Mail-Box for help. Would you please tell me when to plant an Easter lily bulb, and how to take care of it when it is planted. I have never tried to grow one before.

E. B. H.

Ans.—These directions for the favorable cultivation of an Easter lily bulb have all come from Pagetes who were successful in producing lily-bloom from these bulbs:

Use any good soil—sandy and loamy, about equal parts, with a little hen manure added. Have pot of medium size, six or eight inches across; after potting, set pot in a dish of lukewarm water until soil is well soaked, then put in partial shade until growth starts; keep in bright place (in sun if not too hot), and water with warm water. Should show signs of bloom about November 15, and again in the spring. Has anyone further suggestions to offer?

Not So Crazy.

Dear Miss Grey,—I noticed a few days ago a letter from A Girl of Fourteen, "a lover in trouble" was her name. Really she made me shocked to think of a girl of 15 going with a fellow. I am 15 myself, and have never thought of going with a fellow. I am not so crazy. I say, Pussy Willow, I am friends with you, for I think the same as you about the girls going with fellows so young. I intend to take my mother's advice, too. Dear Miss Grey, do you not think I am right?

Miss Grey, could you print in your wonderful paper the directions for knitting soldier's socks? I knitted over 25 pairs last year for the Red Cross, but have forgotten the way to turn the heel. Lover in Trouble, don't be offended if I have been a bit severe, but I just said what I thought. I will sign myself,

SISTER OF TEN.

Ans.—The directions for knitting socks (for soldiers or anyone else), requires quite a bit of space, so I am asking the Red Cross Society for a copy of the rules, and when I receive it I shall gladly forward to your address. Shall be pleased to have you write at any time.

Old-Fashioned Mittens.

Miss Grey,—Please send me the address of anyone, party or a firm who can supply a description of how to knit double mittens, such as trappers, woodsman or fisherman use in the winter. Knit of heavy wool with two yarns such as grey and red, black and white or purple and red—the old-fashioned kind. Thanking you very much for same. CONSTANT READER.

Ans.—This request for instructions for knitting double mittens is passed along to some of the older readers. Can any of our "grandma's" supply these? I could either print or send them on to the above inquirer.

MAKE 'EM SHORT.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28. — A season's record for brevity was set in the first game of today's double-header between New York and Philadelphia, when in 51 minutes the Giants scored a victory 6 to 1. New York won the second contest also, 7 to 1.

Barnes won his 25th victory, the only National League pitcher to touch that mark. The scores:

First game—		R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	100 000 000—1	5	0
New York	013 002 00x—6	13	1

Meadows and Adams; J. Barnes and Smith.

New York	232 000 00x—7	10	2

Smith and Adams; Hubbel and Gonzales.

GROVER GROOVING.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 28.—Chicago shut out the National League champions in the closing game of the season here today. Alexander pitched brilliantly, only one of the Reds reaching second base, and he was given perfect support. The Cubs scored in the third after two were out, on a pass to Magee, who stole second and came home on Hollocher's single to right. Their second run came in the eighth on a triple by Herzog and a single by Merkle. The score: R.H.E.

OWEN SOUND BOWLERS LIFT CUP AT WIARTON TOURNEY

Patterson-Pacific Cup Added to Collection—Chatsworth Runner-Up for Kent Trophy.

OWEN SOUND, Sept. 27. — Owen Sound bowlers added the Patterson-Pacific cup to their collection yesterday when they brought it from Wiarton, whither it had gone from Walkerton the day before. The rinks and scores were:

Owen Sound		Wiarton
W. J. McLinden		J. E. Sutherby
H. Thompson		R. Nimmo
J. C. Telford		R. W. Sawyer
Jno. Thompson	26	Rev. Thompson	15
J. J. Kelley		J. Hunter
F. C. Wilkinson		Ames
H. R. Moffatt		Dr. Hough
A. E. Batchellar	20	J. Symons	9

Chatsworth bowlers gave Owen Sound a bad scare in a game yesterday for the Kent trophy. They started with a rush, and at the half-way had Owen Sound away down, but the defenders came up, and an extra end had to be played to decide. Chatsworth Tray shot when Skip Wright with his last bowl killed the end, and on the next, Owen Sound counted three, leaving the score 27—24. The players—

Chatsworth—Dr. Giffin, Price, A. A. Merriam, L. D. Merriam, skip.

Owen Sound—W. Wood, L. E. Douglas, A. F. Armstrong, W. H. Wright, skip.

Cameron, Vancouver Cop, Wins All-Round Championship

Crowds or Entries Not Large at Ottawa Meet—M. A. A. A. Wins Team Honors in Easy Fashion.

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—Under ideal weather conditions and with competitors present from many parts of Canada as well as from the United States, the 32nd annual field and track championships of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada took place Saturday afternoon at Lansdowne Park, being held under the auspices of the newly-organized Ottawa Federation of Amateur Athletes. One Canadian record was broken and several approached during the afternoon of the finest track and field sports that has ever been witnessed in the capital.

Carried Off Honors.

John Cameron, a husky police officer from Vancouver, carried off the all-round championship with 13 points, while second honors went to W. R. Kennedy of the Montreal A.A.A., who scored ten points. The team championship was carried off by the M.A.A.A., which had little or no opposition, and the only championship to remain in Ottawa was the half-mile title, which went to Reid Tubman, his only rival in this race being his brother Ray. The championship meeting passed off without a hitch. Competent officials handled the lengthy program of events in good style, and, though there were one or two delays, these proved unavoidable. Less than 2,000 persons attended the games.

Has Suffered.

It was obvious, however, that the five-year suspension of operations has had a great effect, for the entry list was much smaller than in the days before the outbreak of war. Pat Ryan and James O'Brien, both from the Loughlin Lyceum A. A. of New York City, were the only American contestants entered, while the far west sent only John Cameron, the new all-round champion, and Lee Cowan, a promising little colored sprinter. Tom Towns was here from Winnipeg and Montreal sent up a large delegation, but the Toronto team was minus Jack Tressider and other stars, who had been expected, and Hamilton was not represented at all. The results:

Five-mile bicycle race—1, R. Thompson, Ottawa; 2, W. Spence, Ottawa; 3, E. Goold, Ottawa. Time 14:22 2-5.

120-yard hurdles—1, A. Miranda, Montreal Police A.A.A.; 2, W. R. Kennedy, Montreal A.A.A.; 3, A. Rossignol, Hull and Ottawa Police A.A.A. Time 18 3-5 seconds.

Standing broad jump—1, G. J. Chisholm, Montreal A.A.A.; 2, A. Miranda, Montreal Police A.A.A.; 3, W. Halpenny, Montreal A.A.A. Distance, 9 feet 8¼ inches.

Running broad jump—1, W. R. Kennedy, Montreal; 2, W. Langstaff, Waterloo, Ont.; 3, A. Miranda, Montreal. Distance, 21 feet 8¾ inches.

Pole vault—Undecided. W. Halpenny, Montreal, and L. McDonald, Pictou, each vaulted 11 feet 6 inches. Kennedy cleared 11 feet 7 inches, but was disqualified because he had climbed pole.

One-mile relay—1, Montreal A.A.A. (Bariau, Kling, Fitzpatrick and Brebner); 2, Ottawa-New Edinburgh Canoe Club (Ray Tubman, Reid Tubman, Gordon Willis and R. Reynolds). Time 3:48.

56-pound weight throw—1, Pat Ryan, Loughlin Lyceum, New York; 2, John Cameron, Vancouver; 3, Don Cable, Montreal A.A.A. Distance, 35 feet 7 inches.

Throwing the discus—1, Don Cable, Montreal, A. A. A.; 2, John Cameron, Vancouver; 3, Ernest Day, Montreal Police A. A. A.; distance, 125 feet, 7½ inches.

SMALL PROGRAM CLOSES COLUMBUS RACE MEETING

Stokes, Driving for Murphy, Wins 2:11 Trot, With Jesse Y. Causing Surprise.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 27.—Grand Circuit racing for Ohio was closed for the year here this afternoon, when a small trotting events was completed, and in two of the three events very keen competition was shown.

The meeting today was carried on minus Cox, Valentine, Murphy and one or two other leading drivers, whose stables already were on the way to Lexington.

Harry Stokes drove Jesse Y. for Walter Cox and created considerable merriment when he won the 2:11 trot with her and performed something that Cox was unable to do all year—win a race with her.

The 2:18 trot went to Ed H., after losing the first heat to Zomidotte.

The 2:13 trot had Lou Todd as a winner. In this race the judges took down Ervin from behind Black Diamond at the first heat, but Erskine could do no better. Ervin was then permitted to take the mount in the third heat.

The summaries:

2:13 trotting, three heats, purse $1,000:

Lou Todd, br. m., by Dr. Todd (Fleming)	1	1	1
Harvest Tide, blk. m. (McDonald)	2	2	2
Black Diamond, blk. h (Erwin-Erskine)	3	4	3
Bida, b. m. (Stokes)	4	3	4

LAING AND CLEMENT WIN 10-MILE CANOE MARATHON

Montreal, Sept. 28.—Laing and Clement, representing the Grand Trunk Boating Club, won the annual 10-mile marathon of the club, held over the club course on Saturday afternoon. Ten entries were received and out of that number, half a dozen, three from Ottawa and three from Grand Trunks, faced the starter. The course was five times around Price's Island up to Verdun water intake and back, exactly the ten miles. The race was witnessed by over a thousand members and friends of the club.

The finish showed Laing and Clement first, Tressider and Lavalee second; G. Marshall and Coughlin third, and H. Butler and Walker fourth. Time for the ten miles, one hour and thirty-three minutes and fifty seconds.

SOCCER RESULTS.

London, Sept. 28.—Associated Press.—British rugby football results Saturday were as follows:

Bayne and Billings; Coveleskie, Faeth, Morton and O'Neill.

CHAMPS DEFEATED.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—The American League season closed in Chicago today with a 10 to 9 victory for Detroit over the league champions. Both clubs went through the motions of a regular game, but the Chicago players took no chances, using the final game as a workout before meeting Cincinnati for the world's championship.

Eddie Cicotte worked out two innings and then gave way to Recruit Wilkinson. The score: R.H.E.

Detroit	102 400 030—10	13	4
Chicago	201 101 211— 9	19	3

PRIZE COMPETITIONS OF GUN CLUB FINDS BAKER AND GLOVER TIED FOR LEAD

Four Ladies Turned Out at Saturday's Shoot and Hung Up Good Scores.

The Springwood Gun Club held their weekly shoot on Saturday afternoon. There was a splendid attendance and some good scores were made, particularly by the new beginners. The competition for the cut glass prizes is causing great interest amongst the members and the race is very keen, the handicap being used giving all the shooters a good chance for the prizes and keeps up their interest. The event is now half finished and finds two tied for first place, viz., Glover and Baker, with 142 each. Meyers coming next with 141 and Barnard third with 140.

The program on Saturday was four events—two at fifteen birds and two at ten, and the following are the scores:

	1.	2.	3.	4.	T'l.

"Dusted Birds."

Baker is going strong—93 out of the last 100.

Meyers is back at it again and is shooting fine—94 per cent is nice work.

Day let eight get away from him out of 50, which is not his usual work.

Burke says he can't shoot his usual gait till after the 20th. He should worry.

Barnard is keeping up a nice race and will be having a look-in when the prizes are given out.

Coleman cannot pull when he wants to, lets the easy ones get away. Eye and finger don't seem to work together sometimes.

Parker helps out with the scoring. Everybody's glad to see him back again. Hope he will soon be able to shoot again.

The ladies are certainly taking to the game. No less than four out Saturday, and all doing well.

Manhattans Are Now Undisputed City Champions

Take 6—4 Pastime From Postoffice in Good Ball Game at Park.

Manhattans will retain the city championship as the result of the pastime staged at Tecumseh Park on Saturday afternoon between nine of themselves and the postoffice team, champions of the Manufacturers' League, but reminiscent of a ball team called the Orients, which were playing as late as several weeks ago. The score boy made it 6 to 4, and nobody threatened "Jo Jo" Keenan, who umpired the game, so that must have been the right score. A large crowd watched the proceedings throughout the nine innings, and were rewarded by good ball. In the first inning, Armstrong, the second man up for the postoffice, got to second on an error, and to third on a play, and was scored by "Hank" Down. After that lone tally a veil must be drawn over the work of the postoffice on the scoring until the eighth, during which time the Manhattans gathered in five tallies, and Arnott a home run clout in the seventh frame. In the eighth the postoffice looked real threatening, when Hosie drew a pass, took second on Cline's single, and both were scored on Fritchett's two-bagger, but Clarke whiffed the next offerings. Both teams gathered tallies in the last inning.

The line-ups were:

Postoffice—Burgess, 2b; Armstrong, c; Arthurs, ss; Down, p; Southcout, 3b; Hosie, rf; Cline, 1b; Fitchett, cf; Reid, lf.

Manhattans—Doherty, ss; Macfie, 2b; Johnston, 1b; Tozer, cf; C. Jeffries, 2b; B. Jeffries, rf; McCormick, lf; Arnott, lf; Clarke, p.

Umpires—Keenan and Bell.

L E BARRIE WINS THISTLES OPENING EUCHRE TOURNEY

L. E. Barrie won the Thistle Club's opening euchre tournament last Friday night. There were a good number present and a splendid evening's enjoyment followed.

The Thistle Club this year is running a euchre tournament every Friday night, same as usual, until the curling season starts. There will be a season's prize to the player having the highest average score who takes part in at least two-thirds of the euchres held. This will be a beautiful prize worthy of anyone's effort. The weekly prizes will be extra good, and everyone is cordially invited to be present, as a good time is always had.

London's First Rugby Game Is With Sarnia Saturday

Old Rivals' First Opening Clash Will Reveal Local District Prospects—A Practice Game With Woodstock Possibly Wednesday.

With possibilities of a game with Woodstock College on Wednesday afternoon, arrangements for which have not yet been completed, and the first scheduled game here with Sarnia next Saturday, the rugby team will have a busy week, and will put the finishing touches on their work during the next few practices.

Right now the team is in good shape physically, and full of pep and confidence as far as the district is concerned. Right here it may be noted that this district comprises about as hard a district as the O. R. F. U. boasts. Both Sarnia and Petrolea have been connected with football over a long period of years, and have developed some of the best material that ever played the game. A lot of that material is still in evidence in both towns, and also a lot of enthusiasm for the game itself.

In Sarnia, especially the Collegiate, there has been a rich ground for the growth of rugby players, and they always have some coming along. There is little actual dope on the team that either of the two towns are putting into the district this year, but both have enough men on hand who have played other years to insure good hard-fighting aggregations, with a knowledge of all the finer points of the game.

Tonight's practice will include a little bit of everything in the little bag of tricks, and a large turnout of candidates is the expected thing since the last few nights. In fact, it's one of the things that's being done this fall contrary to the forecast of a couple of weeks ago.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD IS ESTABLISHED FOR 5-MILE HARNESS RACE

Imogene Constantine Covers Distance in 12 Minutes 8½ seconds.

Quebec, Sept. 29.—A new world's record for a five-miles harness race was set here yesterday, when Imogene Constantine, owned by F. X. Lachance of Quebec, and driven by Ald. U. Gauvin, covered the distance in 12:08½, reducing the previous record for the distance by 14¾ seconds. The previous record for five miles was 12:23¾, and was set here by Marconi, owned by B. Michaud of Montreal.

Jack Egan's Lothian Snow White and Lothian Rob Roy, in the West Highland Terrier class, took first and second winner and second respectively.

$30,000 ASKED TO SEND CANADIAN TEAM TO OLYMPIC GAMES

C. A. A. U. Delegation Asks Canadian Finance Minister for Grant.

OTTAWA, Sept. 27.—A delegation representing the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union, composed of Messrs. Nelson, Merrick and Johnson, waited on Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, yesterday and put forward a request that the Olympic committee receive a grant from the Canadian Government toward financing Canada's proposed Olympic team. The sum of $30,000 was asked.

Sir Henry Drayton listened carefully to the arguments put forward by the delegation, and promised consideration. As a result of the conference, the members of the Dominion body are quite hopeful that their request will be granted.

THERE IS DANGER IN TENDER GUMS

To preserve healthy teeth the ordinary tooth-paste is futile. You must first care for the gums, on which tooth health depends.

How many people think of this? Yet four out of five people over forty suffer from gum-decay, or Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease).

At first the gums become tender, though actual gum-shrinkage is imperceptible. But in time receding gums will surely loosen your teeth, and then only a dentist can save them. The tender, bleeding gums of Pyorrhea also act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infecting joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.

Forhan's (For the Gums) prevents Pyorrhea, if used in time and used consistently. This means that it prevents gum-shrinkage, gum-tenderness, gum-bleeding. So, automatically, Forhan's prevents tooth loosening.

Brush your teeth with it. It scientifically cleans the teeth—keeps them white and clean.

If gum shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for treatment. 35c and 60c tubes. All druggists.

MRS. SANFORD'S MESSAGE TO WORKING WOMEN

Laurel, Miss. —"Eight years ago I was suffering with pains and weakness caused by a female trouble. I had headaches, chills and fevers, and was unable to do my work part of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me and I took twelve bottles of it, and my health has been good ever since. I am able to run the machine and do dress-making besides my housework. You are at liberty to publish my letter if it will help some poor suffering woman." —Mrs. J. C. SANFORD, 1237 Second Ave., Laurel, Miss.

Thousands of women drag along from day to day in just such a miserable condition as was Mrs. Sanford, or suffering from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, sideache, headache, nervousness, or "the blues."

Such women should profit by Mrs. Sanford's experience and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find relief from their sufferings as she did.

For special suggestions in regard to your ailment write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their long experience is at your service.

BRITISH RAILWAY STRIKE IS DOOMED TO FAILURE, PREDICT LONDON NEWSPAPERS

STRIKERS ARE ADVISED TO CONDUCT "PASSIVE CAMPAIGN"

London, Sept. 29.—Railroads running out of London will attempt to operate trains on skeleton schedules today, according to announcement. It is hoped thus to cope with the strike situation, which brought about an almost total suspension of traffic yesterday in this city, and which has virtually paralyzed all English roads.

Ninety per cent of the railway workers in Scotland are idle, but a few trains were run there on Sunday for the carrying of passengers and perishable goods. Reports state that some trains were operated by union men who were desirous of getting to their homes, and that these men have nearly all joined those who obeyed the first call from the National Union of Railwaymen. Irish roads are not as yet involved in the strike, but the men there have been instructed by union headquarters to hold themselves in readiness to walk out at any moment.

Will Close Coal Mines.

Concern is felt over the possibility of the strike spreading to the miners and transport workers' unions, which are affiliated with the National Union of Railwaymen. James Henry Thomas, leader of the railroad workers, said yesterday he would ask the assistance of the "triple alliance" only in case he "cannot fight the railroad question alone." Robert Smillie, leader of the miners' union, speaking at Glasgow last night said that, because of the fact that the mines and railroads are so closely related, 30 per cent of the coal diggers of the country would be idle in a few days. This would automatically bring about strike conditions without an actual strike order being sent out. Mr. Smillie advised members of the union to be calm and to conduct a "passive campaign."

London is being fed by means of fleets of motor lorries, which bring milk and other foodstuffs to the city. The government has appealed to the people to economize as much as possible in petrol, food and fuel. Miss Eleanor Hopwood has been placed in charge of food distribution in this city.

MOTOR LORRIES SOLVE PROBLEM OF BRINGING IN ALL SUPPLIES

London, Sept. 29.—The postmaster-general announces that foreign and colonial parcels cannot be accepted nor any except for local delivery. He urges the posting of urgent communications only.

It is officially announced that the railway situation is unchanged.

Food distribution arrangements are proceeding smoothly and offers of service are pouring in from all sides. Arrangements are being completed to make immediate use of volunteers.

The ministry of food, describing the arrangements to meet the present emergency, states milk is being conveyed to London from a 100-mile radius. The farmers take the milk to pre-arranged stops where it is collected by a thousand motor lorries, and brought to the Hyde Park clearing station, from where the wholesalers draw their supplies. The motor lorries cover 72,000 square miles daily. A large quantity is placed in cold storage for emergencies. Consumers received at least 50 per cent of their requirements during the week-end. The lorries return to the country to carry foodstuffs, which is transported by horse from the docks to Hyde Park.

Distributed From Docks.

A similar scheme has been worked out for the remainder of England. Irish and Scotch yeast, of which seven hundred tons are used weekly, is brought from the distilleries by admiralty steamers to convenient docks, from which it is redistributed by motor. Fresh meat supplies are assured by the system of walking cattle or road transportation. The ministry has built up the inland stocks in other supplies in order to relieve the roads. The transport ministry have reserves to meet the shortages.

Another Government circular, headed and ending, "Fight for the life of the community," appeals to the civil co-operation in various minor directions, and invites the registration of all qualified to undertake railway work, special constabulary duties, wireless telegraph and motor transport work.

100,000 MINERS IDLE IN SOUTH WALES DUE TO RAILWAY STRIKE

London, Sept. 29.—One hundred thousands miners are idle in the South Wales coalfields as a result of the railroad strike. Many collieries are closing down, and the Swansea harbor trade is paralyzed.

DAILY MAIL SERVICE ESTABLISHED FROM LONDON TO PARIS

Paris, Sept. 29.—Commencing at noon today, a daily mail airplane service will be operated between Paris and London. This will be inaugurated because of the British railroad strike, which has interrupted mails to and from the continent. Airplane mail service has been operated between the two cities three times per week up to the present.

RUMOR OF SPECIAL GRATUITY FOR CURRY STILL CIRCULATING

Stories Put Amount He Is to Receive as High as $250,000.

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—The rumor has been in circulation and still persists in spite of denials that General Sir Arthur Curry, former commander-in-chief and now inspector-general of the Canadian forces, has received or is to receive a special gratuity variously estimated at from $100,000 to $250,000.

Hon. C. J. Doherty, acting prime minister, is authority for the categorical statement that General Curry has never received any special gratuity of any kind whatsoever, and that the question of granting him one is not even under consideration. Such a special appropriation would have to come before parliament, if considered, in any case.

Recognition of Sir Arthur's war service is generally considered to have been made by his appointment to the position of inspector-general at a salary of $12,000 a year.

While it is understood that the question of granting a cash gratuity to General Curry was canvassed in caucus last session, the matter never got beyond that point, so far as is known.

GRAIN YIELD BETTER THAN WAS EXPECTED

ST. MARYS, Sept. 28.—Threshers report greater returns in grain in this district than was expected, and the general outlook is more favorable. Potatoes also are showing up much better than was expected. The recent rains have increased the size of the tubers greatly, and the potato shortage will not be as great as was feared.

Calls Carson Greatest Man in the Empire

TORONTO, Sept. 28.—Declaring that Sir Edward Carson was the greatest man in the British Empire today, Rev. Dr. William Patterson, pastor of Cooke's Presbyterian Church, this afternoon addressed a large gathering in Cooke's Church in celebration of the seventh anniversary of the signing by Ulstermen of the covenant not to permit home rule to come into effect. If home rule were imposed on Ireland, he said, one-fourth of Ireland would be under the other three-fourths, and all under Rome. The cardinals were behind the home rule movement, Dr. Patterson said, because they hated the British Empire and the British flag.

Ulstermen would fight, Dr. Patterson declared. Their ancestors had never bowed their necks to Rome, he added, and neither would they. This sentiment was received with applause.

Hon. W. D. McPherson, provincial secretary, was one of the speakers at the meeting.

Riots Follow An Attempt To Lynch a Negro

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 28.—This city tonight experienced the most serious riots in its history, resulting from the attempt of a mob to lynch a negro charged with an assault a few days ago on a white girl. Early tonight one man had been killed and two others were wounded. A request was made to the war department to send troops.

Following a struggle of nine hours, the prisoner was taken from the sheriff and hanged to an electric light pole.

Sheriff Michael Clark and his deputies held the fort in the top story of the courthouse where is located the jail with a hundred prisoners, until the building became a seething mass of flames, and he was forced to submit.

PRESIDENT WILSON RETURNS FROM HIS INTERRUPTED TOUR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—President Wilson returned to Washington today from his interrupted tour for the peace treaty. He was able to walk through the railway station from his special train to a White House automobile and was taken at once to the White House, where it was said there was little change in his condition.

THE LOCAL MARKET

Potatoes have taken a further decline on the local market. They are quoted this morning at $1.50 to $1.80 per bushel. Toward the close of the market, on Saturday, some sold as low as $1.40.

Two loads of hay were brought in through the rain. Both sold at $26.

Onions have taken a big drop, being sold for $1 per bushel less than one week ago.

Butter is a trifle firmer, selling from 58 to 60 cents.

The fruit dealers are not expecting any more peaches, although a few straggling lots may come in. Grapes are selling mostly at 50 cents.

GRAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Weakness developed in the corn market today as a result of lack of support. Selling was of only a scattered sort, but shorts had covered freely on Saturday, and the customary demand from them was absent today. Declines in foreign exchange rates tended further to depress corn, and so did lower quotations on hogs. Opening prices, which varied from ⅜c off to ⅞c advance, with December at $1 25⅛@1 26, and May at $1 24@1 24⅜, were followed by a material setback all around.

Oats fell with corn. After opening unchanged to ¼c off, including December at 70⅝@71c, the market underdent a decided sag.

Winnipeg, Sept. 29.—Oats opened ⅛c up for October at 81⅞c; December, 78½c; May, 80⅞c.

Barley opened ¼c higher for October at $1 21¼; December unchanged at $1 15.

Flax opened 6½c up for October at $4 21½; November 1½c lower at $4 08½, and 4c down for December at $3 91.

Inspections for the week-end totaled 1,736 cars, of which 1,116 cars were contract grades of wheat.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Opening: Corn—December, $1 26; May, $1 24⅜.

Oats—December, 70⅝c; May, 72⅞c.

MONEY.

London, Sept. 29.—Closing: Money, 3½ per cent.

Discount rates—Short bills, 3 7-16@3½ per cent; three months, 3 9-16@3⅝ per cent.

Bar silver, 62⅛d per ounce.

LIVE STOCK.

Toronto, Sept. 29.—Cattle trade was moderately active at the Union stockyards this morning, prices ruling steady. Sheep and lambs were slightly firmer, calves were unchanged and hogs easier. Receipts, 4,568 cattle, 444 calves, 1,776 hogs and 4,770 sheep. Quotations:

Cattle—Exporters, choice, per cwt, $13@13 75; do, medium, $12@12 50; do, bulls, $10@10 50; butchers, choice, $11 50@12 25; do, medium, $10@10 75; do, common, $8@9; do, cows, choice, $10@11; do, canners, $5@5 50; do, bulls, $8 50@9 50; feeding steers, $10@10 50; stockers, choice, $8@9; do, light, $7@8; milkers, choice, each, $90@145; springers, choice, each, $100@155; calves, $19@20.

Sheep—Ewes, cwt, $8@9 50; bucks and culls, $4 75@8 25; lambs, $12 50@13 50.

Hogs—Fed and watered, cwt, $17 25@17 75; f. o. b., $16 25@16 75.

East Buffalo, N.Y., Sept. 29.—Cattle—Receipts, 3,700; 25c to 50c higher; prime steers, $17@17 25; shipping steers, $16@16 50; butchers, $9 75@15 50; yearlings, $14@16; heifers, $6 50@12 50; cows, $4@11; bulls, $6@10 50; stockers and feeders, $6@10 50; fresh cows and springers strong, $65@170.

Calves—Receipts, 1,400; market steady at $7@23 50.

Hogs—Receipts, 9,600; active; heavy strong, others lower; heavy, $18 25@18 50; mixed and yorkers, $18 50; do, light, $17 75@18 60; pigs, $17 50@18; roughs, $14 50@15; stags, $10@13.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 10,400; lambs 75c lower, $8@16; yearlings, $7@10 50; wethers, $8 50@9; mixed sheep, $7@8 50.

WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 29—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The critical period in the steel strike exerted little adverse effect on industrial shares at the opening of today's stock market, aside from a moderate decline in United States Steel, the general list showing marked strength. Crucible Steel was again the leader, advancing three points to the new high record of 218, from which it soon reacted four points, followed by a partial rally. Bethlehem Steel yielded three points at the opening, but rebounded almost immediately. Shipping, rails, motors, tobaccos and sugars were higher by 1 to 6 points. Profit taking caused the usual irregularity before the end of the first half hour.

Coal Will Cost Double If Men Get Demands

They Are Asking Sixty Per Cent Increase and Six-Hour-Day.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The present cost of coal to the consumer will be doubled if demands formulated by the United Mine Workers are allowed, a statement issued yesterday by the National Coal Association declared. The estimate of the effect of the demands of the miners would add a billion dollars to the cost of coal during the coming year. The demand is for a six-hour day and a 60 per cent increase in wages.

WILL SUBMIT REPLY.

BUFFALO, Sept. 28.—The soft coal operators of the central competitive field will submit at tomorrow morning's session of the joint conference of operators and miners their reply to the demands of the miners for a 60 per cent increase in pay, a six-hour day and a five-day week. After the reply is read it is probable the miners will ask for an adjournment to consider it.

The operators completed the drafting of the document today, but no inkling of its contents was known outside their circle.

IMPOSSIBLE TO GATHER TREATY NEGOTIATORS TO ASSURE DISARMING

PARIS, Sept. 27.—(Havas.)—Premier Clemenceau conferred yesterday with Andre Tardieu and Rene Viviani, according to the Petit Parisien, concerning the resolution introduced in the chamber of deputies by Andre Lefevre, which seeks to bring about new negotiations between the signatories of the treaty with a view to assuring the disarmament of Germany. The conferees recognized the impossibility of hoping to re-gather all the negotiators of the Versailles treaty, and it was pointed out that other means must be taken to arrive at the result desired, the newspaper states.

The Chamber of Deputies committee on the German treaty had asked for the opinion of the government on M. Lefevre's proposition.

Good Service on Long Distance

THE problem of keeping Long Distance Telephone Service at the highest standard and avoiding wasteful delays was never more difficult.

In the past, when more lines were needed, it was a comparatively simple matter to add a circuit to a cross-arm, or new cross-arms to a pole lead. But as poles become loaded, new pole leads must be erected. Important highways are already congested with poles for telephone, telegraph and lighting circuits, and dangerous high-tension wires. New rights-of-way are hard to obtain.

It is only quite recently that experts have discovered how long distance lines in lead cables can be made as efficient voice-carriers as open wires. Now telephone engineers are at work on the problem, from both its scientific and economic side, of long distance lines in underground conduits.

Our programme for this year includes an expenditure of a million dollars for Long Distance line construction. Our aim is that this vital part of our service shall be equal to the most exacting demands of the reconstruction period.

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND
ADELE GARRISON'S NEW PHASE OF REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

Why Madge Was Forced to Delay Her Cake Making.

"Miss Graham, you plees coom now qveeck for dot cake. I got ovens joost right for you, and old vomans she joost turn corner."

Katie's voice outside my door held an imperative note. I had delayed going to the kitchen after my mother-in-law's departure for her usual morning walk with Richard Second, in his perambulator, a triumphal progress through the village which she would not have missed for worlds. There were other fond grandmothers abroad at the same hour, with some of whom she had deigned to scrape an acquaintance. But she defiantly announced at almost every return home that "there was not a child in the village could hold a candle to Richard Second."

The departure of the two, however, always left my room a wreck, for the doting grandmother usually inspected half the baby's wardrobe before she selected the garments she wished put on him. It was the replacing of the little clothes and the setting of my room to rights which had delayed my going to the kitchen as soon as my mother-in-law left the house, the original plan I had made with Katie.

The Secret Cake.

"All right, Katie, I'll be there in one minute," I called cheerily, and made good my promise with a second or two to spare, to Katie's manifest delight.

"See, I got everytings all ready for you." She pointed gleefully to the mixing table, where flour, sugar, butter, flavoring, eggs, tins, mixing bowl, everything to the last spoon was laid out in readiness for my hands.

"I know you vant have everything out of vay ven grandmudder gets back," she said, lowering her voice as if Mother Graham could hear her. "And I hide dot cake for you vere she no find heem. Den ven she gets cold you put dot frosting on, and I hide heem again. Den ven you vant heem, she all ready!"

I kept my face straight with an effort through this weird jumbling of pronouns, thanked Katie warmly, and proceeded to the building of the cake about which I had dreamed so much even in those never-to-be-forgotten-days before the baby was born. Then, I think, in common with most prospective mothers, I lived in anticipation every moment of his life from his first cuddling in my arms to the time when he should be a greybeard with grandchildren.

At last it was finished and deposited safely in the oven. I started to clear up the work table, but Katie stopped me promptly.

"You know how you help me more dan dis?" she demanded, taking the flour sifter from my hand. "I feex dis in vun—vot you call heem, shake of vun cow's tail."

A Stranger Calls.

But I was not destined to know then what she wanted me to do, for even as I murmured "sheep's tail, Katie," in laughing correction of her idiom, the front door bell rang an imperative peal, and Katie, slipping out of her gingham apron and into the white one in which she always answers the door bell, turned to me inquiringly.

"You see anybody?"

"Bring the card to me first," I said resignedly, despairing of ever succeeding in my painstaking effort to teach Katie the proper lore of the door bell. "I will slip up the back stairs, and you can bring the card tray up the front stairs to my room. Don't forget the tray."

"I no forget," she returned earnestly. "But sometimes dey no have card."

"Then ask the person's name and bring me that," I said patiently.

The bell rang again, this time a longer peal, and I felt a swift prejudice against the impatient person on the other side of the front door. As I sped up the back stairs and swiftly rearranged my dress before the mirror in my room I resolved to deny myself to the caller if it were a possible thing to do so.

Accordingly, when Katie hurriedly mounted the sairs and announced breathlessly:

"It's a man who says he no geev hee's name, but he got to see you," I rejoined quickly:

"Go down and tell him that Mrs. Graham is engaged and cannot see anyone whose name is not sent her."

Katie's face reflected her approval.

"I no like hee's looks," she whispered. "He vun great, beeg stiff, und I leave heem stand on doorstep vile I coom oop stairs."

"You did just right, Katie," I said. "Admit no one to the house who refuses to give him name."

She went downstairs again, this time with evident zest in her errand, while I renewed the task of straightening my room.

To my surprise the man did not go away. I heard the parley of voices, although I could not distinguish the words. Then Katie came slowly upstairs again, her face aflame with indignation.

"Dot bunch of sour greens, he say you see heem mighty qveeck ven you see dis," she said, extending a cheap sealed envelope to me.

I tore it open, saw three words in a flourishing chirography as tawdry as the envelope.

"Representing Mr. Stockbridge."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Ladies! Salute Him!

Discovers drug that loosens sore, touchy corns so they lift out

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new ether compound and called it freezone, and little quarter ounce bottles can now be obtained from any drug store for a few cents.

You simply apply several drops of freezone upon a tender corn or painful callous, and instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callous so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers.

No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying freezone or afterwards, and it doesn't even irritate the skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened callouses just shrivel up and lift off so easily. It is wonderful! Seems magical. It works like a charm. Millions of women will hereafter keep a little bottle of the wonderful freezone handy and never let a corn ache twice.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

TUESDAY, SEPT. 30.

The sidereal forces are in powerful operation for this day's progress and prosperity—two of the most powerful planets being under strong lunar transit, and others being strongly aspected mutually. Important events should transpire under these interesting configurations, and there should be satisfactory increase of business and money. New projects and transactions with large corporations should thrive, especially where there is an element of secrecy or silent affiliations. Secret societies and lodges should flourish. In social, affectional and domestic matters conditions are not so auspicious, and may give concern if not be fraught with affliction or disappointment.

Those whose birthday it is may have an active and interesting year with increase of business and money. A child born on this day will be generous and successful, despite being careless, untidy and perhaps quick-temperel.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why Science Says Some Soap "Superstitions" Are Truths

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG,
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University).

DR. HIRSHBERG

Instead of the poet's words, it should be said at present that "soapy runs the water where the dirt is deep." Even from the body's purity, the soul receives a sympathetic aid, so that cleanliness and the free application of soap spells more than health.

Neither cleanliness nor its side-partner, health, come by instinct. Like most good and great things they are matters of knowledge and habit. Even royalty had to cultivate a "taste" for soap and water. It is not only ignorance and sloth that are the tempters to beguile away the paradise of cleanliness and health. An unclean body comes from haste, negligence and bad habits as well as many other things.

Soap seems almost a silly subject for scientific service. Yet it is as much a necessity as bread and water. Deprive a clean, unscathed, hale and full-blooming person of his soap and water and he is as good as sick already.

Civilization means soap. Without the one there is a paucity of the other. Whether it be a plain soap, a floating soap, or even a delicately scented tablet, soap must be at hand for cultured man. When Jeremiah rebuked Israel he scathingly told them that the blackness of iniquity could not be cleansed "though thou wash thee with lye and take thee much soap." Soap in the form of ashes and lye was in use by Pharaoh's daughters and the Egyptians. No doubt Moses, that early medical lawgiver and hygienist, knew the great disinfecting as well as sweetening power of soap.

Ways to Test Soap.

Soap trees were known to the ancient Germans, Romans and the Chinese. Soap trees yield a fatty sap or gum which, mixed with ashes, make soap. The word "sap" is said to have the same origin as "soap."

Other than the myriad of natural tree soaps of the world, lemons are justly famed for their scavenging and washing power. Not only do lemons cleanse the hands, the face and linens, but the juice, like good soaps, kill some of the microbes of human maladies.

There are, of course, soaps and soaps. Some are good, some bad and some indifferent. If, perchance, you have the time and the little strips of paper at hand, any child can ascertain which is the lesser evil.

"Litmus" paper is the name of a cheap material, purchasable for less than a penny song in any drug store. Soap, or soapy water, which changes the color of "litmus" paper, is not a safe or sanitary soap for the human tissues. Castile soap is supposed to be a valuable adjunct to the hygienic housewife, because it does not change the hue of "litmus."

A soap, therefore, is tested by the hue it turns "litmus." If a soap is too alkaline the "litmus" turns blue; if the soap contains too much acid the "litmus" becomes pink.

Acid and alkali soaps irritate the skin. The flesh becomes rough, chapped and split. Crusts, scabs, scales and itching sensations put in an appearance and a face fair to look upon becomes a hissing and a mocking.

Often the mere cessation in the use of such soaps will correct a shiny, red, rash-covered appearance of the skin.

A Germ Killer.

If you examine the hands of a cook, laundryman or anyone who washes dishes, clothes or keeps his unprotected hands much of the time in water where alkali-saturated soaps are used, the flesh will be observed to be glossy, polished, split and at time reddish. Such an individual should lose no time in changing his occupation or buy a "neutral soap."

"Neutral" soaps have been tested and found to contain precisely enough acid to counterbalance the alkali that neither chemical has any action.

Even before germs were discovered to be causes of human ailments and physical delinquencies, soap was found by the Chinese, Babylonians, Egyptians, Israelites and other ancient races to be a "cure" for the seven-year-itch and other evils. Now it is known and easily demonstrated that soap kills many of these parasites.

Answers To Health Questions

COUNTRY. Q—After having poison ivy would it be aput to come back again the same year, and would one be liable to get it again?

A—This is possible, and does happen.

G. E. M., Q—Kindly tell me what to do for insomnia.

A—Insomnia has its foundation in loss of general health, worries, bad habits, need of ventilation and sunlight. Retire early at night, even if you cannot sleep. This restores the normal habit. Take a glassful of hot milk, a few crackers and a hot bath before you retire. A cold pillow and a hot foot bag helps. Take a triple effervescent bromide tablet in a glassful of water also before bedtime. Keep away from drugs.

A. L. A. Q—Can pharyngitis be cured?

A—Yes, by modern throat surgeons.

THE RED STONE.

Tinker Bob was more anxious now than ever to see what the third stone might have to tell. It was strange though to think of being taken so many different places. And how he got there was hard to understand. This time he was going to watch close and see just how he was carried from the Little Old Man's House. He looked at the large grey stone a moment and said aloud: "I'd like to know how I get in and out of the Funny house."

The stone he took from his pocket this time was a red one. He tapped it lightly against the grey one, and at once there stood in front of him the most beautiful creature he had ever seen. It was hard for him to tell very much about it, because it was the first time he had ever seen such a wonderful sight.

He thought at first it was an angel, for he knew angels had wings—at least, he had heard his grandmother say they had. Then came the thought that it might be a Fairy. He had never seen any, but felt very sure there were Fairies somewhere. After a breathless moment of thinking, he spoke: "Who are you?" he asked, a little bit afraid.

"Oh, I came to take you away again," came the reply. "Climb into my basket and we will go quickly."

"You never took me away before," said Tinker Bob.

"Yes, I have taken you away each time. I come whenever you call."

"I didn't know I ever called you."

Tinker found himself climbing into the basket just as this beautiful creature had asked him to do.

Every time you tap the stones together you call me," said the beautiful creature. "And I heard you say aloud you wanted to know how you came in and went out of the Funny House. Now hold tight to the basket, and you will see."

"Where do we go today?" asked Tinker Bob.

"The Red Stone takes us over yonder mountain beside a beautiful stream. By the side of this stream is a story for you," said the Creature.

Sure enough, as he climbed out of the basket by the stream he saw a little baby rabbit whose fur was all tattered and torn.

"What is your name?" asked Tinker Bob.

"My name is Sammy Rabbit."

"But why are you all alone"

"Oh, my mother was killed by the hunter," little Sammy began to cry, "I have lost my brothers and sisters and have no place to go."

Tinker Bob was almost ready to cry himself to think that any hunter would kill a baby rabbit's mother. "I'm glad I found you. Now, don't be afraid, for I will see that no one does you harm." Tinker said, as the little rabbit came close to him, glad to find a friend in the great wide world.

Now, let me tell you something else about salesmen. I have known great salesmen to have various and different kinds of qualities but I have never yet known a great salesman who did not have a good memory. If your memory is defective; if you lack power of concentration, no matter what other qualities you have, you will never succeed as a salesman. Therefore, if you hope to be a salesman, or to improve as a salesman, or to rise in the business world, cultivate your memory, and at the same time, your powers of observation.

Extract From an Article by Saunders Norvell in July 19th Issue of "Advertising & Selling"

THE measure of a salesman or any business man's success is the measure of his all-round mental efficiency—and memory is so important a factor that in many respects it is the key to efficiency.

But what of the key to memory?

Pelmanism holds it.

Pelmanism gives you the key to a good memory. If you have a poor memory Pelmanism develops it; if you already possess a good memory Pelmanism will make it 100 per cent. sure.

And at the same time it will increase your powers of observation, concentration and initiative, enabling you to accomplish more with less effort.

As salesmen have found Pelmanism the key to Success, so have men and women in every other walk of life.

The advice of the expert in the clipping above contains elements calculated to change the whole course of many a man's life—if it is heeded. The Pelman system is a memory course, and it is much more besides. Its scope is wide, yet it can be studied in spare moments; and being conducted by mail it matters not where you live.

LOUISE GLAUM HAS ROLE OF "DARLING OF PARIS" IN "SAHARA"

Beautiful Screen Spectacle Showing at Majestic Today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Majestic Theatre presents today, Tuesday and Wednesday what the management believes to be the most dramatic, soul-stirring drama set in the most lavish, colorful and artistic settings the screen has ever seen. This picture is "Sahara," starring Louise Glaum, C. Gardner Sullivan, the most famous of all photoplay authors, wrote "Sahara," which is a big Hodkinson picture, presented by J. Parker Read, Jun., and supervised by Allan Dwan.

Louise Glaum plays the role of Mignon, the darling of Paris, on whom her American husband, portrayed by Matt Moore, has wasted his fortune. He takes over an engineering job on the Sahara Desert, and Mignon, against her wishes, but lured by the promise of a visit to Cairo, accompanies him, and dwells in a luxurious tent on the burning sands. But six months of the sand and the praying Arabs drive her to such an utterly depraved state of discontent that she leaves her husband and goes to Cairo with Baron Alexis (Edwin Stevens).

Louise Glaum, the famous French actress, appearing at the Majestic today Tuesday and Wednesday, in "Sahara," a magnificent screen production portraying life and beauty in the Orient.

Years later she finds her husband, demented and a victim of drugs, and her child begging in Cairo. He has sworn to kill the woman who wrecked his life. She, with every desire fulfilled except that of happiness, is moved to her first deed of real loving sacrifice—the return of her husband's mind, though it means her death. She does all in her power to cure him, and the day comes when she is recognized. What, then, of the butterfly who found her soul? Of the man who suffered a living death for the love of an unfaithful wife? Of the child who missed a mother's guiding hand when it was most needed? The climax will grip, surprise, and please you.

Simple Home Method Easily Erases Wrinkles

Thousands have reported great success with the famous saxolite wrinkle-removing formula. One ounce of pure powdered saxolite is dissolved in a half-pint of witch hazel and the solution used as a face wash. The effect is almost magical. The deepest wrinkles and crow's feet, as well as the finest lines—whether due to age, illness, weather or worry—are immediately affected. No one need hesitate to try this simple lotion, as it will not harm any skin. Any druggist, of course, can supply the ingredients.

When you have that tired, careworn look and you want to freshen up for the afternoon or evening, bathing the face in the saxolite lotion will produce a wonderful transformation. You will find this more refreshing than an hour's rest.—Advt.

THE "DUMBELLS" IN OVERSEAS REVUE AT THE GRAND TONIGHT

"Biff, Bing, Bang" Appears Tonight, Tomorrow and Twice Wednesday.

"The Dumbells" was the title given to the most famous aggregation of soldier-entertainers in France, bestowed upon them in infancy, because they had their inception with the 3rd Division, and, although they soon broke out of all divisional bonds and became the favorites of the entire C.E.F. and B.E.F., even going as far as a month's run in London, the name, which was derived from the field marking of their division, stuck to them, and under that title they are now appearing in Canada on a coast-to-coast tour. They will appear at the Grand tonight, tomorrow and Wednesday evenings at 8:15 and Wednesday matinee at 2:30 in their original overseas revue entitled "Biff, Bing, Bang."

In addition to their success entertaining the boys immediately behind the lines, for which they hold a record of over 500 performances, they also hold the distinction of being the only company to appear by royal command in Brussels, have given several performances of "Pinafore" there for the benefit of the wounded soldiers and sailors, and in commemoration of which they were presented with a medal and address by King Albert of Belgium.

One outstanding feature which has been a big factor of their success is the fact that they were fighters first, the members of the company having served an average of sixteen months in the trenches. Acting is a side line, or was, with them, but they do it so well that their triumphant tour of Canada promises to break all theatrical records.

Wisely relying upon the axiom that "What's good enough for Tommy is good enough for you," the Dumbells are giving their performance of the most successful musical revue, "Biff, Bing, Bang," on their tour of Canada in exactly the same way they gave it to the boys in the "Y" huts in France, the only difference being probably a little better stage facilities and lighting effects, many performances over there having been given by candle light on a stage built of packing cases.

Tonight will be a military night, over 400 officers and men of the Western Ontario Military Hospital will attend the theatre in a body.

"MY SOLDIER GIRL" AT THE GRAND THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

When the musical spectacle, "My Soldier Girl," is offered at the Grand Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15 and Saturday matinee at 2:30 theatregoers will readily appreciate why this new play was a hit from the opening night. The novel settings are dazzling in their bright hues and electrical effects, for nothing prettier has been carried out in the picture-land of the stage. The first act presents a night of gayety at Colonel Stone's home, Miami, Fla., presenting a fete in honor of "overseas" boys and girls. The entertainment is given by the guests and many novel numbers are presented owing to the fact most of the visitors are artists in the profession. The second act finds Colonel Stone producing manager of a big Follies show on the roof of a New York theatre, many of the guests from Miami having important roles, and the elaborately staged and costumed production is bewildering. The tuneful numbers are many and the wonderful cast and big "pony" ballet are seen in all their merry-making. The seat sale opens tomorrow morning.

WILLIAM FARNUM IN "LONE STAR RANGER" AT THE PATRICIA

Beginning today the noted William Fox star, William Farnum, will be seen at the Patricia Theatre for three days in his latest de luxe production, "The Lone Star Ranger," a dramatization of the stirring novel of the Texas border by Zane Grey. In this play Mr. Farnum is said to give one of his finest portrayals of western character.

The story contains a love theme exquisitely developed. Admirers of Mr. Farnum in this city already know his ability to throw his magnetic personality into an emotional role, and there can be little doubt that a treat is in store for them.

Director J. Gordon Edwards staged this picture.

BECK DECIDES TO RUN AS AN INDEPENDENT

Definitely Announces Intention to Forsake Government.

REFUSES AN INTERVIEW

Will Make Public Statement in Toronto During Coming Week.

The threatened split in the local Conservative camp has come, and Sir Adam Beck will not be a candidate on the Tory Government ticket. Instead he will ride a lone trail in an effort to arrive in a seat at the Legislature through the coming election.

This information was given to The Advertiser last night by a man high in the ranks of the local Conservative executive, whose veracity is unquestionable.

A secret session of the executive of the Conservative Association was pulled off Friday night, when the thunderbolt hit the meeting. The executive was advised that Sir Adam Beck would run as an independent candidate in London, and not as a supporter of the Hearst Government.

The Advertiser attempted to get a statement from Sir Adam, but he refused to discuss the matter. He added that he would make a public statement as to his position within the coming week at Toronto.

It is regarded as more than significant that Sir Adam did not deny the story.

In the meantime the local Tory ring is between two fires. Should it indorse another man to oppose Sir Adam? Should it refrain from the fight and let Sir Adam win? Should it indorse Sir Adam as a sure winner, and let Hearst go hang, trusting to luck for the consequence?

These are the questions that are staring the Conservative powers-that-be in the face, and unpleasant as are the questions, they simply will not down.

It is understood that another powwow of the executive will be staged next Friday night, when strenuous efforts will be made to dig up a solution to the problem, or mayhap to get Sir Adam to reconsider his bold attitude.

WOODMEN DECORATE GRAVES OF MEMBERS AT MOUNT PLEASANT

Unveil Monuments to Nine Members of W. O. W. Who Died in Past Year.

Led by the 7th Battalion Brass Band, local members of the Woodmen of the World marched to Mount Pleasant Cemetery on Sunday afternoon, where decorations and unveiling services were held over the graves of late sovereigns, Consul Commander Sovereign J. Manning opening the ceremonies. Large crowds followed the decorating party throughout the cemetery. Nine graves in all were decorated, and monuments on them were unveiled. The graves visited were those of W. H. Finch, A. W. Brown, Frederick Biggs, W. H. Roughely, J. J. Atkinson, J. Leah, John and Lavina Lewis and F. Forsythe, members of the order who have died during the past year.

Dedication rituals were read by Consul Commander Manning, Adviser Lieutenant Sovereign C. Smith and Sovereigns P. C. Hunter and W. J. Saunders, while Sovereign Jared Vining delivered the oration. During the services, the uniformed Woodmen lined up around the graves in two ranks, with swords and axes, regalia of the order, drawn up as on ceremonial parade. A definite order of service was observed in each case, and the ceremony included selections by the band under Lieut. A. W. Slatter, and hymns which were sung by all present.

Camp honors were paid by the Woodmen at each grave, the service concluding with the National Anthem. Although they marched to the cemetery, the members of the order returned singly, and it was a late hour Sunday afternoon when the unveiling and dedication ceremonies were concluded. The original date of the dedication was set for September 21, but was postponed by the London camps until yesterday owing to inclement weather on the previous date.

FOUGHT RATS TO HALT PLAGUE IN "MESOPOT"

Addressing the Men's Brotherhood of Askin Street Methodist Church on Sunday morning Dr. J. Thornley Bowman gave a most interesting account of his experiences with the British forces operating in Mesopotamia. Starting out from Busra he went through Mesopotamia to Bagdad, and later served in France. His experiences varied from fighting an outbreak of the pneumonic plague to caring for Turkish prisoners' wounds.

The plague broke out in Busra shortly after he arrived there, and on account of the forces concentrated there was a menace to the British effort. Dr. Bowman explained that the plague is spread by rats and so an immediate onset was made on the rat population of Busra. Each morning a small army of rat catchers started out, and they helped rid the city of its plague carriers. The captures enabled the doctors to gauge the extent and virulence of the disease.

Dr. Bowman was not an admirer of the Turks, and not much more an admirer of the Armenians. Turkish atrocities practiced against the Armenians were probably worse than anything that had been made known, he said, the latest effort of their oppressors apparently having been intended to wipe them out as a nation. Dr. Bowman found the Arab tribes in Mesopotamia clean, dignified and honest. Advancing towards them the British found them semi-hostile, but after passing them by in the advance they were always faithful, never making trouble in the rear.

PLAN WAR MEMORIAL TO TORONTO VARSITY HEROES AT MEET HERE

Under the auspices of the Toronto University Alumni, a reunion of former students and graduates of Toronto University, resident in Middlesex County, will be held in the auditorium here next Thursday at 4 p.m. The purpose of the reunion is to discuss a war memorial to perpetuate the memory of Toronto University students and graduates who fell in action, and to found scholarships for Middlesex students attending the university.

INVESTIGATE NEW FAIR SITE AND OLD GROUNDS' EXTENSION

Submit Definite Plan to Relieve Queen's Park Crowding in October.

No definite decision on what plan to submit to the city council for relieving the congestion at the Western Fair grounds will be made until October. The fair board at a meeting Saturday afternoon adopted a resolution, moved by Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore, to have the special new grounds committee consult with City Engineer H. A. Brazier, and prepare estimates of the probable cost of extending the grounds eastward and selecting an entirely new site. The members of the special committee are A. T. Little, George McCormick and W. E. Robinson.

Arthur Little said that he had been informed of a 90-acre site of land, which had never been considered for fair purposes before. This could be puchased for $45,000. He estimated that it would cost one and a quarter million dollars to move to this new site, in addition to money obtained from the salvage of the old site. This would mean an addition of $100,000 to the city's yearly expenditures or an increase of two and a half mills in the tax rate.

Extension to Cost $250,000.

The extension eastward would cost only $250,000 for the land, but would have the drawback of necessitating the removal of a number of homes. At the same time he thought that many of the people would be benefitted by moving from the locality. He claimed that if the committee had the power to put $50 or $100 options on the property many of the owners would have been glad of the chance to sell.

The fair board, composed of twenty-four members, he pointed out, had no right to say this or that plan was the best. They should submit the matter to the citizens for their decision. If both the extension project and the new site were submitted there was a possibility that neither would receive the necessary two-thirds majority. A ballot might be drawn up asking whether the citizens were in favor of the city issuing the necessary debentures for whichever project the majority favored. In consultation with City Clerk Baker they had been advised by that official that he did not think the city could stand an additional $100,000 on its debt, as this amount was one-third of its total remaining borrowing capacity. He thought it was a matter of moving eastward or standing still five years.

Favors New Grounds.

Lieut.-Col. Gartshore, president of the association, has been in favor of new grounds since the problem of more space first arose. He thought the whole matter should be thoroughly investigated, pointing out that while new grounds would be expensive they would also bring a much greater revenue. He had seen the Chatham fair crowded, although a 50-cent admission fee was charged. He thought that London, which had a much better program to offer, might secure additional revenue in this way. Many more attractions would come, and a higher rental could be charged for exhibitors' space.

Another possibility was that a mile race track might be built on the new grounds, instead of a half-mile track. Thousands of dollars of revenue could be obtained from this source, as it could be rented throughout the year. The extension to the eastward, he declared, was a temporary measure at the best.

There was a paid attendance of 118,000 people at this year's exhibition, figures presented by the treasurer, F. G. Jewell, showed. Fifty-eight thousand dollars was taken at the gates, the grandstands concessions and other sources. This was $19,000 in excess of the receipts last year, which were $31,000. This was largely due to the fact that fair week, 1918, was handicapped by rain. The increase over a normal year, 1917, was $9,000.

Special Detective Guards Liquor Car On Trip to London

No Chances Taken With Big Load For Store.

A carload of whiskey consigned to the Ontario Government dispensary here arrived in London, via Grand Trunk, early Saturday morning from an eastern point. A detective accompanied the load of joy fluid to this city, and remained on guard near the car until the precious contents were removed. The consignment was kept a secret for a few hours after arrival, but the secret (not the whiskey) leaked out among railway employees here, and all took a pilgrimage in the direction of the oasis, but could not make any headway with the custodian, who zealously guarded the booze.
