THE ROUTINE BUSINESS

A new move in the right direction has been inaugurated by Ald. Wm. Stone. At last night's meeting of the City Council the chairman of the Cemeteries committee brought in the amounts of his various accounts in bulk form. The Mayor remarked that it would be well for all the accounts to be brought up in this way. Heretofore all accounts have been brought up separately and passed or referred, as the case might be. This mode of taking the accounts takes up a great deal of valuable time, and it has sometimes been 9:30 and 10 o'clock before routine matters have been finally closed. It would be a wise move if Ald. Stone's idea were carried out in the other committees. Such is the custom in other cities.

All the members of the Council were present at last night's meeting. The routine was fairly heavy and a goodly number of communications were dealt with.

A request from Angus Wallroff to cut down trees was referred to the Chief of Police.

A communication regarding the bad state of the pavement on King street between Fourth and Forsyth streets was read. The City Engineer recommended that the City take the initiative in having the pavement repaired.

Mayor Marshall explained that as the debentures on that part of the street were not yet up, the city could not very well take the initiative in this matter. The matter was finally left with the Board of Works.

A petition for a granolithic walk on St. George street was referred for verification.

A communication from the Pere Marquette Railway with regard to the planking on Board street where the Railway Company are ready to relay their track was received. The matter was left in the hands of the City Engineer.

A petition for a granolithic pavement on Patterson street was referred to the City Clerk.

A joint report from the Board of Health and the Board of Works recommending the construction of a sewer pipe sewer on Wilson avenue and Park avenue west as a sanitary measure was read. The work was ordered done.

A communication from the Warren Bitulithic Company re several contracts for paving in the city was read.

A letter was read from W. Waddell calling the attention of the Council to the fact that a much better traffic corner could be made at the junction of King and Third streets by the removal of a hydrant, a Bell Telephone pole and an electric light pole. Board of Works with power.

Letter from A. A. McDonald, Queen street, asking permission to trim trees. Chief of Police with power.

A communication from W. H. Carswell, contractor, Edmonton, was read asking the Council to transfer his contract for a concrete floor under the new market shed to G. Connell, who was tendering within a dollar of his own. The contract was ordered transferred.

A communication from the publishers of a periodical recommending the Council to advertise Chatham as an industrial centre and quoting prices for advertising space in its columns was referred to the Industrial committee.

A letter from Dr. J. P. Rutherford complaining of a depression in the pavement opposite his residence which causes a bad puddle in wet weather was referred to the Board of Works.

John Piggott wrote complaining of the bad state of the pavement on King street west. Board of Works. The report of the Property committee, including accounts of Mr. Cucksey for work done at the fire hall and recommending that the account of T. J. Rutley, architect, $62.42, for plans and specifications of the new market and Police Station be paid, was read and adopted. The following accounts were ordered paid: Shea & O'Keefe, $12.25; Shea & O'Keefe, $18.20; Dr. DeCow, $1.00; cemetery pay sheets, $9, $6.99, $4.90, $49.04; McKeough & Trotter, $15.18, $20.02, $101.10, $96.08, $53.55, $98.27; John Oldershaw, $118.15; Board of Works pay sheets, $23.21; Local Improvements, $264.76; W. W. Turner, $4.30; City Treasurer, $8.48, $2.50; T. H. Taylor Co., $7.20; Canadian Express Co., $5c.; A. R. Crow, $7.00. The payment of account for 70c. to G. T. R. approved.

Only $9.00 to New York and return via Lehigh Valley Railroad Friday, June 15th, tickets good for 15 days, and only five dollars from Suspension Bridge, Niagara Falls. For tickets and further particulars call on or write Robert S. Lewis, passenger agent L. V. R., 10 King street east, Toronto, Ont.

COUNCIL TAKES RAILWAY BONDS AS SECURITY FOR CITY'S LOAN

Important Decision Arrived at Last Evening Whereby
The Electric Railway Company Will be Enabled to Extend their Line to the Lake—Financiers Claim Security is Safe

The City Council have decided to make the first loan of $35,000 to the C. W. & L. E., taking as security the company's bonds for $45,000. This decision was arrived at on recommendation from the Finance committee.

Ald. Scullard, Civic Finance Minister, in explaining the reason for making this recommendation, said that it was practically useless to try to get any better security. The trust companies refused to give this kind of security, and it was out of the question to try to secure personal security from any of the shareholders of the road. A mortgage on the road could not be secured, as the whole of the equipment had to be mortgaged to the National Trust Company to get the charter for the railway, which required that it be financed at $20,000 per mile. The committee, Ald. Scullard said, had held a meeting with the officials of the road, and the former had been given to understand that bonds to the amount of $45,000 was all the railway people could and would give. If the loan were not made by the city, it practically meant that the railway would be tied up, and would make no further extension. This would mean that the line would not be extended to the lake, and that the company would merely continue to operate between here and Wallaceburg. It was, therefore, up to the Council to decide as to whether they would give the loan under these conditions or to refuse, and be contented with the present line. For his part he had all along opposed the granting of the loan until the company gave as security bonds from the Trust Company. Ald. Stone, he said, had also opposed the loan on these grounds, but they had both been shown that $45,000 of the company's bonds was all the security they could give, and they had finally decided that it would be best to make it under these conditions. Ald. Scullard said that he had consulted with some of the leading financiers of the city, and they had assured him that the city would be safe in taking such security, as the road was in a flourishing condition financially and showed great promise for the future. On account of this, he was prepared to change his ground, and make the loan under the above named conditions.

Ald. Stone said that his views were practically the same as those expressed by Ald. Scullard, and it was his belief that when the road was extended to the lake it would be a greater success than ever. The city could not possibly lose on this proposition he felt sure. The company could not very well make any other proposition, as if they were to have their bonds issued by a trust company, they would have to deposit half or more of the amount before the company would go their bonds. The Mayor read a letter from solicitor Edwin Bell of the C. W. & L. E., in which that gentleman stated that he had been authorized by the officials to offer their bonds to the amount of $45,000 as security for the first loan of $35,000, on a first mortgage on the road, and their bonds for $20,000 as security for the second loan of $15,000 which is to be granted after the road is completed to the lake. The first part of this proposition was the only portion dealt with by the Council last evening. Ald. Potter said he felt that the city was safe in taking the company's bonds. He for one had every faith in the future of the C. W. & L. E., which already was proving itself to be such a great boon to Chatham. The company had lived up to every condition required by by-law, and he thought they were justly entitled to the loan. He had recently spoken to some of the officials of the road, and he had been assured by them that the line to the lake would be commenced at once; also that the strengthening of the bridge for which the company at present were asking tenders, would be done on with immediately. Ald. Benson, chairman of the Railway committee, thought that the Finance committee had made the only advisable recommendation when they decided that the city should make the loan at once. He was glad this matter was going to be settled. He had been assured that the company would proceed with the extension of the road immediately after the loan had been made. He believed that the extension would be made to the lake before this summer was over. It was moved by Ald. Scullard, seconded by Ald. Stone, that the city accept $45,000 of the company's bonds as security for the first loan of $35,000. This motion carried unanimously, every member of the Council voting for it with the exception of Ald. Austin, who was absent during this part of the meeting, he having another important engagement to attend to.

HE HAD BAD LUCK NEW ELECTRIC RY.

A Game Sport From Bothwell Won at the Races but Lost It Afterwards

A certain red hot sport came to this city last week from Bothwell and spent most of his time while here at the race course at the Driving Park. He was pretty lucky in his investments, and came up town when the races were over with a good roll of greenbacks in his pocket. He made no secret of the fact that he had had a good day's work, and as a result several heard of it and he had the usual number of hangers-on who were quite willing to help him spend his earnings.

The man in question was by no means adverse to treating the boys, and he enjoyed the good time that followed just as much as anyone in the bunch. He imbibed a little liberally, however, and it was quite necessary for two of the bunch to put him to bed.

When the sport woke up in the morning he found to his dismay that he was out in his balance sheet just about $70. Every one of his pockets was searched but the missing money could not be found.

Mr. Sport met Peter Dezella Saturday evening and told that gentleman all about his misfortune. He could remember the men who put him to bed, and the policeman was put on the scent. So far, no arrests have been made.

GOT HIS WHEEL

The police found a wheel on King street the other day and could find no owner for it. They took it to the Police Court and awaited the owner. It was a funny looking wheel. The saddle was pitched away up in the air, and the handle bars were up pretty high too. The policeman could not ride it to the station because his legs were not long enough to reach the pedals when they were down. There was only one man who could have any use for such a wheel, and sure enough Will Coltart came around this morning looking for his wheel.

WORD FROM ALBERTA

John E. McMahon, formerly of country and now of Blackfolds, Alberta, writes: "This has been a mild winter; there was only about seven inches of snow and there were few days a man could not work out in his shirt sleeves. We have had very little rain for some months, just enough to keep the crops moist. The farmers have nearly finished seeding. Blackfolds is a fine little town about 105 miles north of Calgary and 80 miles south of Edmonton. It is only about three years old and has everything a town needs but a bank and a jewelry store. Stock runs out all winter and comes in in the spring in good flesh."

ORDERS FROM A POLICEMAN

Out to the Council

THE HEAD ST. BY-LAW

A wave of genuine reform has hit the Chatham City Council. They are going to make it a point to get through with business each night of meeting as quickly as possible. The Chatham Council has decided that from now on that it shall be a model business body, and that there shall be no more unnecessary discussion or shedding of heated language. Oratory is to be a dead issue and speeches to the gallery will be unhesitatingly frowned upon. Business, and business alone, is to be the first and greatest aim of the Maple City aldermen. The reform is a most commendable one, and it is to be hoped that the members of the honorable body will think twice before breaking their good resolution. Last night's meeting was concluded at 9:30 p. m., which is pretty fair time considering that it was the first night on which the reform was attempted to be put into practice. But the Council can do even better than this, and they should by no means tire of well-doing.

It was moved by Ald. Potter, seconded by Ald. Stone, that the Finance committee be empowered to advertise for the sale of debentures to the amount of $29,000 incurred through the building of the new market.—Carried.

Ald. Edmondson brought up the matter of complaints about the condition of the pavement on King St. West, above the post office. He said that the committee did not feel like making a large expenditure of city funds to improve the street, as he understood that a petition have the street paved was in circulation.

The Mayor, however, thought that the Board of Works should make an endeavor to at least temporarily improve the condition of the thoroughfare. He advised the filling up of the holes with gravel.

Ald. Edmondson replied that the Mayor's recommendation would be acted upon immediately.

POLICE HAVE SUPERVISION.

Ald. Stone, chairman of the Parks committee, had a grievance, which he aired before the other members of the Council last night. It seems that on May 24 the chairman of the Parks committee gave a written permit to a baseball team to play ball on Teanumish Park. The young men were ordered off the park by Officer Tom Groves. They appealed to Ald. Stone, but the officer of the law said that he would stand for no interference in the matter. He told the baseball men, when they complained that he didn't have to take orders from Ald. Stone or anyone else in the matter. Ald. Stone thought it was hardly the proper thing for a policeman to tell the chairman of the Parks committee that he had nothing to do with the matter. What was the use of appointing a chairman if he had to take his orders from the police? He wanted to know what jurisdiction the police had in the matter.

The Mayor thought that Ald. Stone should have spoken to Officer Groves about the matter, and asked him for his authority for his peculiar action.

Ald. Potter said that, as he understood it, permission had to be granted by the Council.

Didn't Seem to Worry

Him In the Least

A talkative and self important young court stenographer went with a detailed judge to one of the feud towns in the Kentucky mountains to do his part in holding a term of court.

It was a small place, far from a railroad, and the inhabitants were all feudists of one clan or another. After a day or two at the little hotel the stenographer said to the hotel keeper, "Where's the barber shop?"

"Ain't no barber shop here," the boniface replied. "We all mostly lets our hair grow."

"But can't I get shaved anywhere?" "Oh, yes, I reckon you kin. Uncle Joe down to the cobbler's shop sometimes shaves folks."

The stenographer went to Uncle Joe's and found the cobbler to be a mild mannered old man with flowing gray whiskers and a pale and beatific blue eye.

Uncle Joe said he could shave him, and he got out a razor and a shaving mug. The stenographer sat down on a chair and leaned back. He waited in some trepidation, but the man was skillful and gave him a good shave.

It was necessary for the young man to talk, so when the barber was on his throat he said, "Good many murders around here, ain't there?"

"Well, sub," the barber said, "we don't call them murders. Howsom-ever, there is some killin's, if that is what you mean."

"Oh, well," said the young man, "I suppose one name's as good as another. When was the last killing?"

"A man was shot out here in the square last week."

"Who shot him?"

The barber brought the razor up on the young man's Adam apple. "I did," he said.—Saturday Evening Post.

They Missed the Treasure.

Burly Tom, the train robber, with his band of trusties behind him, plunged down over the locomotive tank in the black of the night, thrust his horse pistols into the face of the engineer of the midnight express and compelled that individual to bring his train to a halt.

"Now," said Tom after the train had stopped, "you kin cut off dat car load of wid ice an' pull it down de track a piece, where me an' me pals will unload it."

At these words the face of the engineer brightened.

"Aha, you are mistaken!" he exclaimed joyously. "The ice train was sent along in the daylight under heavy guard. There is nothing on this train but packages of money."

Seeing that the treasure he was lying in wait for had slipped through his fingers, the robber turned pale with anger. The air turned a robin's egg blue with his curses as he and his companions leaped from the locomotive.

A Pipe Dream.

I was smoking and dreaming, my darling. Alone by my fire today. When, through the soft smoke clouds I saw you. Smiling at me, far away.

You were smiling so sweetly, my loved one. As I gazed in your dear eyes of blue it seemed that you surely could see me. And I blew a kiss over to you.

Along with the kiss went a smoke ring. And nearer and nearer it rolled. Till at last it slipped over your finger And turned to a circle of gold. —Lippincott's Magazine.

Medical.

A young doctor said to a girl: "Do you know, my dear, I have a heart affection for you?"

"Have you had it long?" she coyly required.

"Oh, yes. I feel I will live troubled life without you," he responded.

"Then you had better asthma," she softly murmured.

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has indigestion, his strength is lost. He has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to digest and assimilate. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associated organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty.

Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is weak the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc.

The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, nervous, feeble or irregular action of the heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses.

Mr. Louis Pare, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time. While everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors called it was a sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I got no better."

My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctors' medicine. She bought me a bottle and I soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my work became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise.

Don't be misled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good."

To gain knowledge of your own body—in sickness and health—send for the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A book of 1008 pages. Send $1 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 50 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Gentle Kidney Cure.

Don't think that Bu-Ju is not effective because it does not "tear things loose." The man who talks must, does least. Kidney remedies that purge—and over-stimulate the kidneys—upset the stomach—are good to do you mighty little good.

Satisfied, Them All.

Aunt Panthea Brooks lived in a little New Hampshire village very many years without quarrelling with any one, and was so thoroughly liked by every one for miles round that her popularity excited the interest of a summer visitor.

"Oh, yes. I feel I will live troubled life without you," he asked, "how is it that you keep on such good terms with every one, while they are all quarrelling among themselves?"

"Well," said Aunt Panthea, "being as you aren't to stay here long I'll tell you. When I go down the street I meet Jason Purdy, and he says, 'Why, Panthea, how well you look!'"

"I'm glad you think so, Jason," I say, smiling at him.

"Next minute up comes Ezzy Dracut."

"Well, now, Panthea," he says, "how poorly you are looking this year."

"My land, Ezzy," I say, "how quick you are to notice those things!"

"So it is with everything. Those who like to think one way, I let 'em think it, and those who like to think the other, I let 'em think it."

Who can deny that Aunt Panthea had discovered a comfortable philosophy of life?—Youth's Companion.

Laconic.

As Napoleon was one day passing in review some of his troops he came in front of an old and faithful officer, who, perhaps from want of brilliancy on the man's part, had never been advanced beyond the grade of captain, though he was well enough known to the emperor.

The emperor was passing at a slow trot. As he came directly in front of the old captain the officer saluted and said loudly, but without any apparent movement of the muscles of his face:

"Fifteen campaigns, private, captain!"

And the emperor, without turning his head or slackening his pace, said: "Colonel, brigadier, baron!"

Then he was gone. There had, indeed, been no time for a word more than had been passed, but these had sufficed for the captain to communicate a long story and a reproachful complaint and for the emperor to set matters right with a military and social promotion.

A Wise Father.

When Sherman Hoar, a lawyer of recognized ability, left the law school and opened an office in Boston, his father, Judge Hoar, was at the height of his legal reputation. The young man's first client was an Irishman, and the case, though only some small matter of a boundary line, was one that required the examination of a number of deeds and records.

Mr. Hoar accordingly told his client to come back in two days for his opinion. The Irishman left the office, evidently very reluctant at the delay. Turning at the door, he asked, "Couldn't ye give me the answer tomorrow, Mister Hoar?"

"No, no," was the reply; "come on Thursday."

The client went as far as the stairs. Then he turned and tiptoed back to the door and put his head inside, with a finger at his lips.

"Whist!" he whispered. "Couldn't ye get to see your father tonight, Mister Hoar?"

Can Animals Blush?

It is hard to tell whether animals blush, for their faces are covered so thickly with fur or hair or feathers that we do not know what may be going on beneath. Were they as bare-faced as man it is more than likely we should see them blush, especially the more bashful sort and those with some sense of shame. It is a fact that the faces of vultures become purple with rage, which may be considered as a kind of blushing. This may be proved any day in the monkey house in the London zoological gardens, where the baboons seem to fly into a passion on the smallest provocation.—London Mail.

For a Chance.

"You don't mean to tell me that you have named your baby 'Ananas'?" "Yessuh," answered Uncle Ben.

"Dat's his name."

"But Ananas was the most untruthful man in history."

"Dat's de reason. We's gwinter put dat boy in politics. We's been namin' children 'George Washington' foh years an' it didn't do good. Now we's gwinter do de other feller."

Origin of Alcohol.

A scientist says that when people were cave dwellers their diet consisted entirely of roots and fruits and that it was not unnatural to suppose that the food was often stored away. In course of time the fruit fermented, the sugar in it was turned into pure alcohol and the cave dwellers drank it and got to like it. This was the beginning of the use of alcohol.

RESULTS OF FAIR IS NOT IMPLICATED

A Partial List of Some of the Returns Made by Ladies of the Assisting Society

The returns from the various booths at the Fair of Nations, which are now being turned in to the Ladies' Assisting Society of the General Hospital, are proving very satisfactory.

Ten of the booths have already reported, and the sums which they will place in the hands of the society are as follows:—

Ireland	$123.36
Switzerland	155.90
Holland	172.00
Turkey	216.64
Germany	132.60
England	166.99
Iceland	76.15
Indians	91.68
Scotland	400.00
United States	686.00

Total as far as estimated, $2,217.58

In addition to the amounts opposite their names the ladies of the United States and Scottish booths guarantee to also furnish a sum sufficient to each furnish a room in the new ward in the hospital.

The small booths have not yet reported, but will do so shortly, probably at the meeting which will be held from 8 a. m. to 12 m., Canada, Italy and Spain.

MR. MCKELLAR'S POSITION

On page two of to-day's issue of The Planet will be found a letter from Mr. P. D. McKellar setting forth his views with regard to making a loan of $75,000 to the Keystone beet sugar factory. Mr. McKellar opposes the proposition, and his letter should make very interesting reading.

GAVE HIM A PURSE

On Sunday last Rev. Fr. O'Neill, the departing divine of Bothwell R. C. church, was presented with an address and a well filled purse by his Bothwell and Wardsville congregations.

The reverend gentleman leaves to-morrow to take up a new post at St. Peter's church, London, and his place at Bothwell will be taken by Rev. Fr. Brennan, now of Corunna.

POLICE COURT

Nelson Parker came up this morning, charged with assault. The information was laid by Tom Williams, who runs a billiard hall. The case was dismissed and Williams was forced to pay the costs.

Mrs. Eobear charged Mrs. Twigg with assault. The case was dismissed, as the Judge thought that both women were to blame.

ACCIDENT ON G.T.R.

Two hand-cars tried to pass one another on the same track on the G. T. R. near Northwood this morning. The experiment had the usual result. One of the machines was thrown from the track, and both were badly battered up. Four of the men on the cars were more or less injured, but fortunately none of them seriously.

Dr. Bray, the railway's physician, was called to the scene and attended to the injured men. He returned this afternoon.

PARK ST. LEAGUE

Monday evening the Park street Epworth League was in charge of the Christian Endeavor department. A large number of Wallaceburg Leaguers who came over on the electric car were present.

Will Shillington acted as chairman and the lesson was read by Miss Ethel Sandison. A very interesting paper on league work was read by Miss Allie Mounter, and the solo, "Art Thou Weary?" was rendered in very acceptable style by Miss Carrie Snell.

MAY HOLD CELEBRATION

A citizen's meeting will be held to-morrow evening in the City Council Chambers, Harrison Hall, at eight o'clock, to discuss the Dominion Day Celebration movement, which has been gotten up by several tradesmen and others who point out that Chatham is far behind many of her contemporaries in this respect.

The idea of observing our National Holiday in a proper, enthusiastic manner is one that commends itself to all loyal Canadians, and there should be a "full house" at the meeting.

FAIR OF NATIONS

A special meeting of the Ladies' Assisting Society was held in the auditorium of the Free Library yesterday afternoon, at which about 50 ladies were present. Mrs. W. E. Rispin presided.

The meeting was called for the purpose of receiving reports on the recent Fair of Nations.

As a number of the convenors have not yet completed their returns, it was decided to postpone the meeting until next week, when all of the returns will be in, and the secretary will be able to present a full statement, showing how much was made through the holding of the Fair.

Colonial Secretary Says British Government Will Take No Action.

London, May 29.—(C. A. P.)—In the House of Commons yesterday Walter Runciman, Parliamentary secretary of the local Government Board, replying to J. J. Mooney, said Lord Strathcona had informed Lord Elgin that he was not implicated either personally or as High Commissioner in the emigration charges, and Lord Elgin did not propose to interfere, or make any representation to Canada on the subject.

Swift MacNeil asked if it was not the case, whether the High Commissioner had a strictly non-political office, and whether Strathcona was one of the principal tariff reformers.

The Speaker said that the question did not arise out of the one on the paper.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, May 29.—At the evening session of the House, Mr. Beauparlant (St. Hyacinthe) introduced a resolution providing that every person who presses hay for trade shall attach to each bale or bundle, a label marked as set forth in the resolution. After discussion, the resolution was simplified by an amendment presented by Mr. Borden and deferred with the bill to the committee on agriculture.

In reply to W. F. Maclean, Mr. Emmerson said the matter of companies' regulation, re. express and others, was under consideration.

Before adjournment, Mr. R. L. Borden gave notice that he would move for a select committee of nine to be appointed for the purpose of inquiring into the management, alienation and disposal of the Crown lands of Canada, etc.

Sir Frederick Borden will propose to the House a resolution declaring it expedient to amend the Militia Act in certain respects.

Happy at Last

Her Husband no longer gets Intoxicated—Samaritan's Remedy Cured Him.

This lady says: "For the first time since I have been married I am happy and content—my husband is cured of his bad habit of drinking. Several months ago you sent me a free sample of your remedy at my request, and without my husband's knowledge I gave it to him in his tea and food. I then got a full treatment and gave it regularly. It is wonderful, and I cannot sufficiently thank you for the blessed change it has brought to my home."

The little two-year-old daughter of Mr. Ross Stringer, who lives on the corner of Princess and Park streets, met with a painful accident last week. The little one was playing about the house when she fell in a pot of boiling starch, receiving a very severe scalding. The injured child was attended to by Dr. J. P. Rutledge, and is now doing nicely.

THE NEW STORE

Berlin News-Record: The new men's furnishings store, opened by Berlin by Thompson & Douglas, the firm that has large stores at Stratford, Guelph and Chatham, threw open the doors to the public on Tuesday evening. The store is bright and inviting. The lighting, both by day and night, is excellent; there is ample room to display goods and the furnishings are right up to now. All the clothing, overalls and working shirts are made by the firm in its factory at Hamilton, and its large buying ability means that all its goods are bought right. Local manager Harry Peters assures the public that the goods will be sold right. They carry everything that a man wears—but shoes.

THE WORST OF A COLD

Is how suddenly it comes. No time to hurry to the drug store, cough de-vote, the lungs are effected with pneumonia or tuberculosis, and it's too late. Keep Catarrhzone on hand—it kills colds instantly. Something magical about the way it cures in nature's way; it heals, soothes and restores permanently. Carry a Catarrhzone inhaler in your pocket, use it occasionally and you'll never catch cold—that's worth remembering.

Obligation has been made to cover a multitude of things which were burdens to life.

Constipation

"This ailment indirectly occasions more suffering, and gives rise to more serious disorders in both sexes, than any other ailment known to medical science."

Mrs. H. J. Chapman, of 1 Surrey Court, Surrey Street, Landport, relates an experience which should convince every one of the perils of constipation and of the unequalled merits of Bileans as a cure.

"For many months I was a terrible sufferer from constipation," she said to a Hampshire Post reporter. "I could not get about to do any work, and my mother, with whom I was then living, did all she could to alleviate my trouble, and helped me in every possible way. I had no appetite, was unable to obtain sleep at nights owing to the terrible pains; and, in fact, was so bad at times that I screamed out in agony."

"Afterwards I became subject to headache and biliousness, and was very weak and depressed. I was also afflicted with piles and endured terrible agony. Different kinds of medicine I tried with the hope of obtaining relief, but I derived no benefit. I began to despair of ever being well again, until my aunt advised me to try Bileans. I obtained a box. After finishing this, I found I was getting better, so I persevered with the medicine. The constipation and piles gradually passed away, and the pains ceased. I obtained my sleep, my appetite returned, and the headache and biliousness vanished. I kept on taking Bileans, and ultimately my cure became permanent. I am perfectly satisfied that my restoration to health is due solely to taking Bileans, which I consider a splendid medicine. I have recommended Bileans to many of my friends."

WHAT BILEANS CURE.

Bileans for Biliousness—the great herbal household medicine—cure headache, constipation, piles, liver trouble, indigestion and all digestive disorders, female ailments, skin eruptions, biliousness, spring debility, sick headache, bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, dizziness, fainting, buzzing noises in the head, feelings of uncomfortable fullness even after a light meal, wind pains, anemia, debility, etc. They improve the general circulation, and are a boon to pale-faced girls and weak women. For all purposes to which a household remedy is put Bileans will be found of excellent service.

Bileans are obtainable from all druggists and stores at 50 cents per box, or direct from the Bilean Co., Colborne St., Toronto, upon receipt of price. Six boxes for $2.50.

Bileans for Biliousness

MRS. CHAPMAN
Whom Bileans Cured

Medical authorities agree that the use of mineral purgative medicines is both harmful and widespread. Bileans, on the other hand, are a medicine of purely vegetable origin, and cure gently by natural means.

Bileans, while curing constipation and its allied troubles— anemia, headache, sallow complexion, piles, etc.—avoid the evil of purging. Bileans also remove the pre disposition towards constipation, which months or years of suffering have set up. They are a medicine of undisputed merit, and may first be tested by free sample box, cut out this coupon and mail it, with full name and address and one cent stamp (to pay return postage) to the Bilean Co., Toronto.

MICHAEL ANGELO.

The Humble Start in Life of the Famous Master.

Two boys were herding swine in Italy. They were evidently discussing some very important subject, for they were earnest at it. A man approached, and the boys separated, each for his own side of the pasture. The man was angry and was shaking his hand at them. The boys said nothing; they drove their swine in and were quiet as a mouse about it. The man had said they should stay out until dark, and the sun had not even set yet. After they had driven the swine to their respective places each crept to his room, took his clothes and tied them in a bundle. This done, they both crept down and ran to the road which led to Rome. One's name was Peter; the other Michael Angelo. Both were poor boys. They tramped and tramped, and the first thing they did when they reached Rome was to go to church. After they had rested and prayed they looked for employment. Peter received employment as the cook's boy in some cardinal's house, but Michael could find nothing to do, so he almost despaired.

He went to his friend Peter, who gave him something to eat and at night secretly let him into his room in the attic to sleep. This went on for a long time, Peter content to let his friend do this and Michael content also. Michael when in church had seen some fine pictures. One which fascinated him was "Christ Ascending to Heaven." Taking bits of charcoal, he went to Peter's room and drew pictures on the white walls. One day the cardinal had occasion to go to the room. Michael had meanwhile secured employment in the cardinal's kitchen. The cardinal, upon seeing all the pictures, was dumfounded with their accuracies. He called Peter and Michael upstairs and asked who had drawn them. Michael confessed he had, but said he thought he could rub them out again. The cardinal explained to him that it was all right so far as the wall was concerned. He took Michael and sent him to a drawing master and gave Peter a better position. And Michael worked hard at his drawings, learned diligently and became the renowned Michael Angelo, one of the greatest painters of his time.

VEGETABLES AS MEDICINE.

Asparagus stimulates the kidneys. Water cress is an excellent blood purifier.

Parsnips possess the same virtues as sarsaparilla.

Carrots are good for those having a tendency to gout.

Celery contains sulphur and helps to ward off rheumatism.

Celery is a nerve tonic; onions also are a tonic for the nerves.

Tomatoes are good for a torpid liver, but should be avoided by gouty people.

Beets are fattening and good for people who want to put on flesh; so are potatoes.

Lettuce has a soothing effect on the nerves and is excellent for sufferers from insomnia.

Splnach has great aperient qualities and is far better than medicine for sufferers from constipation.

Hatching Eggs in the Mouth.

Some curious examples of the egg laying habits of certain frogs are related by naturalists. The female of one species, a species which was recently exhibited at a meeting of the Zoological society, carries the eggs about in her mouth until they are hatched. When the young emerge they are tadpoles, but fully formed, though, of course, diminutive frogs. An American tree frog, again, has a pouch along the whole extent of its back, in which the eggs are carried until hatched. It is the Nototrema marsupiatum of zoologists, the name referring to this curious habit. The case of the Surinam toad is equally curious. In this species the male places the eggs, one by one, in hollows in the loose skin on the back of the female, where they are developed.—London Globe.

Waiting to Be Found.

Lost one evening in a side street off Charing Cross, a small terrier came for the next six days at nightfall to the same spot, waiting to be "found" and scanning eagerly every passerby. The constable on the beat got to know her wistful little face and the bright silver collar she wore quite well, but she was never to be seen by daylight. It was only on the sixth evening, half starved and weak with waiting, that she allowed herself to be captured and taken to the dogs' home at Battersea, where she was eventually claimed by her owner.—St. James' Gazette.

Her Gift.

A Lancashire vicar was asked by the choir to call upon old Betty, who was deaf, but who insisted in joining in the solo of the anthem, and to ask her only to sing in the hymns. He shouted into her ear, "Betty, I've been requested to speak to you about your singing!" At last she caught the word "singing" and replied: "Not to me be the praise, sir. It's a gift!"

Justice.

"Why is Justice represented with a bandage over her brow?" "There is a classical reason for it," said the lawyer, "but to my mind it serves chiefly to impress the frequency with which Justice gets a black eye."

Happy Thought.

Teacher—Mary, make a sentence with "dogma" as subject. Mary (after careful thought)—The dogma has three puppies.

"KING DEAD" SHOCKS LONDON.

Telegram From Paris Which Was Not What It Seemed.

London, May 28.—The real facts about the scare caused by the rumor that King Edward had died suddenly in Paris, have only just leaked out. The actual facts are as follows:

A business man named Joseph King, who is fairly well-known in Paris and London business circles, dropped dead in the French capital from heart failure. His friends at once wired to his agents in London the words "King died suddenly" this afternoon.

The clerk who opened the telegram at once told everyone in the office that the King was dead. The rumor spread in an incredibly short time throughout the business quarters and the next morning there was almost a panic in the newspaper offices and a distinct slump on the Exchange.

These facts were gathered at the earnest request of the King himself.

ALL GOOD THINGS

must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language.

A. H. Sayce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: It is indeed a marvellous work; it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it—not only what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for.

A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it.

LETTERS

SAYS IT IS DANGEROUS.

To the Editor of The Planet:
Dear Sir:—Having read in your paper letters for and against the proposed sugar factory, the most important point is that the security is insufficient, as in case of foreclosure of the first mortgage bonds Chatham would only get its share in proportion to the bonds the city holds. Should the sugar plant be sold under mortgage, would you buy it? Certainly not the other bondholders might buy it for one-eighth of its original cost. Then where is the city's security?
Thanking you for space,
Yours respectfully,
ROBERT MILLNER.

The Sugar Factory to be in the City.

To the Editor:—As there seems to be an impression amongst some of the ratepayers that the By-law carry that there is a possibility that if they purchased a site outside the present limits of the city that we might not be able to annex same to the town, I beg to call their attention to the fact that in the Agreement, Clause 2, the Corporation in having the said lands purchased by it for site annexed to the Corporation.
With this Agreement existing there can be no further difficulty, as the Statute expressly covers cases such as this. For the benefit of your readers will you kindly print the attached copy of the Statute regarding the matter.
I am, yours sincerely,
CHAS. AUSTIN

I. Section 24 of the Consolidated Municipal Act, 1905, as amended by section 1 of the Municipal Amendment Act, 1905, is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

24—(1) In case the Council of any city or town by resolution declare that it is expedient that any portion of an adjacent township should be annexed to the city or town, and in case the majority of the ratepayers in any such portion of such township petition the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to add such portion to such city or town, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by proclamation to take effect upon some day to be named therein, annex to the city or town such portion of the adjacent township upon such terms and conditions as to taxation, assessment, improvements or otherwise as may have been agreed upon, or shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

(2) The terms and conditions contained in such proclamation of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall have the same force and effect and be as binding as if such terms and conditions were embodied in an Act of the Legislature.

(3) The proclamation may, before it takes effect, be amended in any respect by a further proclamation and may at any time when the Council of such city or town, and any other parties interested agree that the said proclamation does not correctly set forth the terms and conditions as to taxation, assessment, improvements or otherwise agreed upon, be amended to carry out such agreements.

MUCH EXCITEMENT ORDERS FROM A POLICEMAN

The Field at Tilbury is Developing Some Wonderful Wells—Oil Men Interested

The oil boom in Tilbury East is at present attracting widespread attention from capitalists and others interested, and great excitement prevails in the vicinity of the section in which the oil strikes have been made. Already seven wells have been successfully shot, and they are all giving most satisfactory results.

Dr. Neil Smith, the dentist, of this city, says that two gushers were shot on Saturday—one on his father's farm at Stewarts, and one on the Marshall farm nearby. The well on the Smith farm gushed between 75 and 100 barrels yesterday.

Rigs for fifteen more wells have been erected in Tilbury East, and it is expected that the boom will grow greater as the summer months advance.

The following oil men who are interested in the Raleigh and Tilbury fields were in the city yesterday: T. R. Folkins, Dr. A. E. Flett, Dr. McFarlane, L. G. York, and Percy Watertown, New York, and Percy Slater of Lexington, J. H. Elliott of Lock of Ridgeway, D. H. Elliott of Comber and George Redmond of Windsor.

MURDERER'S BODY GONE

Mrs. Rosa Joyce Is Dead But Her Father Will Live

VERDICT IS BROUGHT IN

Kingston, May 29.—Mrs. Joyce, one of the Raiton shooting victims, died on Sunday. Cornelius Wood, her father, was brought to the Kingston General Hospital and is resting easily. He will recover.

The coroner's jury resumed its sessions yesterday afternoon at Raiton. They discovered that the body of John Joyce, the murderer, which they left in the leanto, was missing, and that the hand of her father, which they found in the leanto, was not there. A verdict was rendered that Rosa Joyce came to her death by a bullet fired by the hand of her husband, John Joyce, and that the said John Joyce died by a wound deliberately inflicted by his own hands.

Mrs. Joyce's Ante-Mortem. In her ante-mortem deposition to Coroner Mundell, Mrs. Joyce declared that she had left her husband because he had "pounded her" on Thursday. He had done the week before. He came to her father's house early Saturday morning, and she saw him. He had gone to take the gun away. She heard the shooting of her father and ran to the inner room for better safety, but her husband forced the door, and she came out to plead for her life, but he shot her while in the large room. She knew no more as to his actions, because she was unconscious. Her mind returned during her sister-in-law's absence seeking help, and she crawled to the bedroom and up to the bed. She was positive no one was present at the shooting but Ella May Wood, wife of Angus Wood, her brother, besides the children, Willie and Milo.

Business Man Suicides. St. John, N. B., May 29.—Samuel Kingston, a prominent business man, had gone to take the gun away. She knew no more as to his actions, because she was unconscious. Her mind returned during her sister-in-law's absence seeking help, and she crawled to the bedroom and up to the bed. She was positive no one was present at the shooting but Ella May Wood, wife of Angus Wood, her brother, besides the children, Willie and Milo.

granted by the Chief of Police as well as the chairman before any segregation could play on the park. The Clerk referred to the by-law, which states that permission must be received from the Chief of Police first.

Ald Stone, however, failed to see why an alderman should be forced to think the boys were doing any harm to when and how he should grant permits of this kind. He did not permit the boys were doing any harm to the park, and he could see no good reason for Mr. Groves' action in ordering them off the park when they were not breaking the law in any way.

The Mayor referred the matter to the committee to make any investigation they saw fit.

HEAD ST. BY-LAW. Ald Edmondson thought it would be wise to bring the Head St. by-law up for discussion, and either give it its third reading and pass it, or else drop it.

Ald Stone did not think this would be quite fair to the ratepayers on the street, many of whom, he said, had changed their minds since the by-law had first been brought up.

The Mayor replied that the Council must use their own good judgment in these matters. That was what they were elected for, and if they listened to every kick which was ventilated they would never get through with local improvement work till their terms had expired. The matter was, however, laid over for another meeting.

A number of minor local improvements by-laws were read a third time and passed, and the Council adjourned.

HAD A BREAKDOWN

Pere Marquette Express From Sarnia Meets With Unfortunate Mishap

Word was received at the sheds of the Pere Marquette Railway this morning of the breakdown of the Sarnia express, due to arrive in Chatham at 8.55 a.m.

An auxiliary, in charge of W. W. Turtle, left for the scene of the accident near Port Lambton at 9.30. The cause of the breakdown was a broken truck under the engine, which made it impossible for the train to proceed. Nobody was hurt and it is expected that traffic will be restored in a few hours.

In consequence of the breakdown the 9.30 train Chatham to Bleheim and the 10.75 to Chatham from that place were cancelled for the day as the delayed train is the one which should make these connections.

LIVELY RUNAWAY

A Team of Horses Break Away and Create Some Little Excitement

While a buggy was being loaded on a delivery wagon outside of Milner's carriage works yesterday afternoon the team took fright and dashed away in the direction of King street.

The buggy fell off and rolled across the rails to the side of the C. P. R. platform and, lightened at their load, the horses ran at the alarming rate to the corner by the Merrill House. The lines caught on the hub of a front wheel and checked their speed sufficiently to enable some pedestrians to stop traffic at that end of King street at the time and nobody was hurt, although the delivery wagon and the rig were slightly damaged.

His Excellency in his reply had a good deal to say about William Sherring, the Marathon runner, but though he repeatedly asked for him, Sherring, by an oversight, was not invited to any of the functions.

Through Liqueur Lost Life. Belleville, May 29.—Hugh Gribbon, an unmarried farmer residing in Tyendinaga Township, who had been in the city all day, was returning home, driving a horse and wagon, when he was struck by an engine and instantly killed, yesterday.
