It is quite possible that a change Ministry in England, particularly if that change involve the retirement from office of Earl Grey, may induce some alteration in the Imperial Councils, with respect to that they will be applied to general educational purposes, perhaps the establishment of free Common Schools. The spoliation having been perpetrated, it seems to us of very little consequence what is done with the plunder; certain follow an unrighteous act.

One thing, however, is very plain, must be so to the meanest capacity, the flag that brayed a thousand years—long may that this spoliation is the small end of it ever wave. It is a well-known fact, that Cathat this sponation is the small end of the wedge that will, ultimately, rend and good timber." the huge over-grown trunk of the the prelude to the introduction of the "voluntary system," in all its integrity. the year 1851-1832:-There are but three lives between this day and that on which all payments, made by the Imperial Government to religious persons in Canada, will cease. The re-appropriation of the Clergy Reserves by the State, will put an end to all payments for religious purposes from public funds or endowments in this country; the voluntary system will then be entirely carried out, as far as the Addisonian Literary Society, in their Rooms, concerns all Protestant Denominations, and, partially, the Roman Catholic Church, which at present enjoys its share of the Clergy Reserves.

Canadian Protestants of those denominations whose Clergy obtained assistance from the funds produced by the at half-past ten. Reserves, must not forget that, in the House of Assembly, Roman Catholic votes assisted in carrying the Address to the Imperial Government on which the spoliation of the Reserves is to be based: it is a fact which they will do well to temember, for the voluntary system being forced on Protestants, it becomes their duty to free their Roman Catholic brethren from the burden of payments for religious purposes. The tythes, therefore, now legally enforced in Lower Canada on all Roman Catholies, should be the first object of attack—then the wast properties in the hands of Ecclesiastical Corporations, and, lastly, that system by which dying sinners are cajoled or frightened auto enriching the Church at the expense of their lawful and mutual heirs. Money is the source of power, and every one who knows the history of Romanism, cannot but be aware of the Continuous and untiring exertions of the Romish Church to accumulate property in whatever shape it be, and of the bull-dog tenacity with which they stick to their acquisitions. It is from its wealth that it is embled to reinder effectual assistance to the despote on the Continuous and its from its wealth that it is embled to reinder effectual assistance to the despote on the Continuous liberty. In Caunda, the income of two or three of these Ecclesiantical Corporations is larger than the compared with this two and and extract the same and and extract the same Ecclesiastical Corporations, and, lastly, conscientious upholder of the voluntary system can refuse to assist the Lower Canadians in getting rid of the impost of tythes. Let it not be forgotten that the Seminary of Montreal only obtained legal possession of the Seigniory, which is said to produce some £50,000 a-year, by an Ordinance of Lord Sydenham, and that our Parliament has the power, as well as the right, to repeal that Crdinance. This is a question which must be kept continually before the public; at is one on which all Protestants can agree, and one which many enlightened Roman Catholics will support, for while they love their religion, they have no desire to see the Priest-hood, a perfectly irresponsible body, placed in command of almost unlimited pecuniary means, knowing the oppression and corruption that must ensue.

The Pilot has not yet thought proper to publish the names of the "respectable persons" of his party, whom he asserted to have been horribly maltreated by the horrid Tories at the recent the Seminary of Montreal only obtain-

Hervey, however, was one of the gallantest Officers in the service, and displayed his courage eminently at the taking of the Moro Castle, a short time after. THE USE OF FINE WORDS.—When a Commanding Officer sends an order, he cannot do so in sufficiently plain words. A case in point: The late Sir E — N—, when a young man, commanded a frigate forming part of a squadron lying off the French coast. in blockade; the Admiral sent him a verbal order by a Midshipman, "to make a partial frief on one of the French batteries." The Captain pondered a minute or two, and then exclaimed, indignantly, that "He'd be d—d if he'd make any kind of a faint' before a Frenchman;" and immediately running for the nearest battery, received so severe a fire, that he lost two out of three of his mests, and was with difficulty towed out of danger by another vessel.

ONTINUE to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently frommenoud the pub-ention of a valuable Agricultural Work, called THE PARMERS' GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND

By Henry Stremens, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, Ahthor of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c., assisted by John P. Norton, M. A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.
This highly valuable Work will comprise two large royal octave volumes, continuing over-1409 pages, with 180 of 20 aplendid Steel Engravings, still more than 600 Engravings on Wood, in the highest style of the Art, itlustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in user by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying's harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the hook is urique, and will render-it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The Work is being published in Semi-Roussly Numbers, of 45 pages each, exchasive of the Steel Engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or 45 for the ettire Work in Numbers, of which there will be at least 22,

The London Querierly Review, (Conservative.)
The Edinburgh Review, (Wang.)
The Both British Review, (Wang.)
The North British Review, (Liberal.)
The Wastminster Review, (Liberal.)

Blackwood's Edinburgh Mangazins, (Tory.)
Although these Works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literacy character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the sernal Works of Bulver and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns bota in Great Brismin and in the United States. Such works as "The Caniones" and "My New Novel;" (both by Balwer,) "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hund," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issuad by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blacks wood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Seat & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the excitest reading of these fascinating tales.

The Work will be got up in one Large octavo volume, Painten well, upon Good papers, and sound suspensively, and will be delivered to Subscribers at 15s, per copy.

As the expenses incurred in travelling and otherwise, to collect information for the Work, will be necessarily great, the following terms have been decided on to sence of a Work such as the one projected, they are unable to do so, whilst its appearance will at once obviate that difficulty.

It would be almost superfluous to point out the many facilities which such a Work will afford to Merchants in the Cities and Towns, for extending their business connections, and as care will be taken that Copies shall be placed in the Merchants' Exchanges and Reading Rooms of the principal Commercial Cities of Great British and the United States, it will be for them, also, the very bust channel of guidicity which has ever been at fered in Canada. The Work is intended to appear in the Fall of

The Work is intended to appear in the Rell of 1851, or earlier if possible, and as a guarantee that it will be faithfully carried out, it is, perhaps, sufficient to say, that the information will be collected by the Subscriber, personally, in the principal Cities and Toyan, and that it will be principal Cities and Toyan, and that it will be principal distributions of authorising to, or adversarial continues of authorising to.
