INSOLVENCY BILL OPPOSED

SENATORS FREELY EXPRESS OPIN-IONS ON THE MEASURE.

The Upper House Discussed the Bill All Afternoon, Few Favoring and Many Holding That There Was No Demand for Such Legislation Except by Wholesale Houses—The Premier's Remarks.

Ottawa, May 29.-The Senate spent the greater part of the afternoon de bating whether the insolvency bill should be given second reading. The bill passed the Senate ast session after protracted consideration, but was late in reaching the Commons. Sir John Thompson, however, gave the House assurances that the measure as amend-ed by the Senate would be re-introduc-ed this session. In moving the secondreading of the bill, this afternoon, Sir. Mackenzie Bowell referred to these facts and said the bill was identically, the same as that of ast session, with the exception that a few incongruities in last year's measure were done away, with. There was no change in the principles of the bill. Senator Scott said he failed to see that there had been any demand for this legislation since last session. The judgment of the Imperial Privy Council declaring that the Ontario Insolvency act was within the purview of the local legislature had given that province a law which differed from the oposed measure only in as much as it had not the provision for the discharging of insolvents and the province of New Brunswick had passed similar legislation. In view of these facts, he saw less necessity for the egislation than there was last session and in addition the machinery for enforcing the local enactments was much less expensive than that required to enforce the proposed law. He was in doubt as to the advisability of seriously considering the bill, unless the Govern-ment intended that it should be passed y both Houses of Parliament at the present session.

Senator McInnis, of Hamilton, was in favor of the bill as it would secure the equitable distribution of the assets of insolvents among creditors and provide for the discharge of insolvents, a provision not at present in any of the

Bro. Hackatt, a colored missionary, spoke forcibly upon the matter.

Women's Editions.

"Women's editions" of newspapers that is editions compiled and edited by women—are becoming quite common, and a perusal of them leads to the conclusion that after the women have had ten or twelve years' experience in newspaper work, they will understand somefew days ago a Western newspaper printed one of these editions, and the foreman, who was only a man, said he wanted three "sticks" to fill the editorial page. The femenine editor un-derstood him thoroughly, at least she said she did, and sat down and turned out the length of three yard sticks of powerfully intellectual opinion by actual measurement. "Yes. I allow myself some light reading, usually each day after dinner. I think the two, perhaps, which have seemed to me the most worthy of reflection during the past year have been Esther Waters' and 'The Year of Jubiles.' Both seemed to me strong and able works, which ought to live when many of their contemporaries are forgotten."

"It is wonderful that you find time to do so much," I said, amazed.

"Perhaps it is because he is so punctual, and expects everybody else to be so," smiled Mrs. Gladstone. He is always ready for everything, and does everything very quickly. For instance, he can dress for dinner, quite fully, in less than five minutes. I cannot myself conceive how he does it, though I am not one to waste much time, or encourage others to waste it, on personal addorment."

The passage of the bylaw on June 1 means that the company, will bring back that, or a similar machine, within thirty days, and incandescent light, will be furnished in Toronto at about one-half its present cost. When we get competition in incandescent lighting, gas will drop proportionately. THE TIDE IS RISING HIGH. During the past few days the tide has set in strongly in favor of the electric lighting bylaw. Individual citizens who are prepared to defeat the other three express their approbation of the electoresident. tric bylaw. The tactics of the Toronto Electric Light Company in taking possession of the meeting of the Ratepay ers' Association on Monday night has done the company incalculable injury. The people know that the company is playing for big stakes, otherwise it would not have resorted to these violent methods. The more anxiety that is being displayed by the company and its sympathizers the more evident does it appear to the citizens at large that this franchise should be assumed by the city. We do not wish to predict either way as to the result of the voting on Saturday, but to-day it looks very much as if the independent citizen was going to carry the day and decide in favor of the

The trial of W. T. Stewart on the charges of municipal corruption was absence of two important witnesses, the Crown's case was closed cooner than apticipated. A long argument then foll wed as to the admirsibility of Stenographer Downey's reports of the boadle investigation, Mr. Lount tice Merchith in the Hendershott éase, excluded this as evidence. His Lordship Jurtice Robertson ruled otherwise, but when Mr. Bowney went into the box Mr. Lount renewed his objections and Mr. Barron withdrew the witness. Mr. Lount then asked that the prison-box Mr. Lount renewed his objections er be discharged, holding that the evidence did not demand any defence, and was not sufficient to go to the jury. Again the ruling of His Lordship was in the Crown's favor, and the defence opened their side of the casp.

Leave was granted Mr. Lount for a reserved casp in the event of conviction. Among the witnesses as to Mr. Stewart's character is Rev. W. F. Wilson, who was pastor of the Woodgreen Methodist Church, of which Mr. Stewart was at one time an official member. (holding that the decision of Chief Jus-

Some extraordinary particulars were given at an inquest held in Birmingham on Tresday on the body of a girl named Rose Forster, whose body was found in a canal near Springhill on Friday last. The deceased suffered from the effects of fever, contracted some years ago, and since her attack had been particularly alarmed by thunderstorms. During the storm of Wednesday last she left home ostensibly to visit an aunt. She did not return, and the affair was reported to the police, who were helped by an aunt of deceased, who related to them a strange dream. She dreamt that while passing the canal near Spring-Hill she rippled the water with her umbrella, and the body of deceased at once floated on the surface. She visited the spot the following morning and, finding the police dragging the canal in another part, suggested that they should transfer operations to the part she had dreamt of. They did so, and immediately recovered the body. Verdict, "Found drowned." The medical evidence showed that death was due to faintness.

On Wednesday evening a bear entered Mr. George Loban's stable, just north of the town, and attempted to carrry off a calf. However, Mr. Loban heard the row and gave his bearship a couple of charges of small shot (he had nothing heavier), which caused him to come to the conclusion that he did not want any heavier), which caused him to come to the conclusion that he did not want any veal at that time. The bear was seen shortly afterwards crossing the bay to-wards Mr. Thorburn's sheep ranch. If he could not get veal, it is very probable he will try to have some mutton. A party of men secured three young bears on Sunday last at Meldrum Bay. The old bear and her cubs were seen crossing the road, and a party went in pursuit, and succeeded in treeing the young ones, but the old bear made her escape after being shot at. The three cubs were doing well at last accounts.

Moose Plentiful. Gore Bay (Manitoulin Guide.) Last Sunday the citizens of Little Current were somewhat surprised to receive a visit from three stalwart moose. When George LaRush arose in the morning and looked out of the window they were quietly feeding in the street in front of his residence. Just as soon as they heard a little noise they walked off towards the red mill, across the channel to the ned mill piling ground, and swam across to LaCloche Island. They were fine mill piling ground, and swam across to LaCloche Island. They were fine moose, being about 2 years old. Evidently the moose are becoming plentiful when they will wander right into town.

Editor World: Certain deacons of two Congregational Churches, that were onchonored by the eloquent and scholarly ministrations of the Revs. George Sand well and John Burton, are at present considerably exercised by the "vagaries" of the esteemed pastor of the Western Church, and propose, I understand, bring ing him before the "Sanhedrin" on a charge of heresy, and all because these very profound Gamaliels, on their hunt for heretics, have come to the conclusion that Mr. Johnston hesitates to consignt to everlasting punishment the 77 Park On a Hunt for Heretics. for heretics, have come to the conclusion that Mr. Johnston hesitates to consign to everlasting punishment the 77 Parkdale sinners, as well as holding with Cannon Farrar in an "eternal hope" for even the worst of these meddlesome panjandrums. And therefore this "heretic" pastor, who preaches perhaps to larger and more intelligent audiences than any other Congregationalist minister in the city, is to be hounded down and out, irrespective of the wishes of his own congregation. But, speaking for myself only, may I venture to advise these feeble imitators of "Pope Leo" to be careful. If I mistake not, the Western Church people are abundantly able to take care of themselves, and so is their pastor. They may make matters exceedingly interesting for busy-bodies in other church's affairs. And, now, gentlemen of Tooley-street, the self-constituted leaders, apparently, of Congregationalism in this fair city, come on with your "council" or hereafter hold your peace and allow your brethren of the Western Church to do their Master's York in peace and amity to all the churches by whatever made they may be called.

Scotch Versus English Law.

Scotch Versus English Law.
Editor World: A large majority of the citizens endorse your views in the Hyams brothers' case; it should not be optional but compulsory in the matter of prisoners testifying for themselves. I think the Scotch law in murder cases is best—a unanimous verdict not being required only a majority. Had the they would have been convicted, as on the first finding of the jury they stood? T to 5, the majority being in favor of conviction. In English law you have either to convict or set free. The Scotch have a verdict of not proven. They are set free, but on sufficient evidence after-

An Unsavory Subject. Editor World: Time was when boys were employed to sweep up the droppings on the few asphalted streets. Now that there are more streets so paved Scott-Street. 246 at there are more streets so paved, he city solons seem to think it waste the city solons seem to think it waste of money to keep them clean. The intersection of Adelaide and Toronto-streets, opposite the Postoffice, and both these streets, are now always in a filthy condition, making it very difficult for ladies to cross either thoroughfare without dirtying their skirts. Moreover, the air is rank and offensive as a cow byre. Who is to blame for this foolish economy?

Kindness and firmness were said to be the dominant features in the government of the Insane Asylum. In this connection a suggestion was made that the Government take steps to prevent Canada from being made the dumping ground of the insane paupers of other lands.

A case which had been before them gave rise to the suggestion that legislation be provided to prevent usury. "We consider that the lending of money at exorbitant rates of interest, such as 48 or 50 per cent, is prejudicial to the interests of the community at large."

The closing clauses of the presentment read thus: "We would also desire to call attention to the fact that this building does not afford facilities for the holding of the General Sessions and the Assises at the same time. And in conclusion we would call attention to the faithy condition of this building.
