MANY MORE BRAVE DEATHS FROM FUNDY SHORES AND INLAND POINTS SHED BLOOD FOR RIGHT

AMERICAN DESTROYERS, TWELVE OF THEM, IN DASH TO THE ATLANTIC

Mystery at First Attached to Movement "Important Developments," Says Rear Admiral; Later News Says Patrol With Double Purpose

New York, Oct. 13.—A dozen destroyers of the United States navy are patrolling the ocean highways to and from North Atlantic ports today, but for what purpose is known only to naval authorities.

It was reported that they went out to maintain the neutrality of American waters, but Rear Admiral Knight, commander of the naval station at Narragansett Bay, is authority for the statement that no official action toward establishing such patrols had been taken.

Efforts to explain the activity of the destroyers ranged from a reported discovery of a foreign submarine base to a rumor that a liner had been driven into Bar Harbor by a German submarine.

BASE IN NEW ENGLAND PORT? Washington, Oct. 13.—Admiral Mayo, commanding the Atlantic fleet, has ordered a survey of the New England coast to investigate reports that belligerent ships established a base there, or that wireless plants were being operated in violation of American neutrality.

NEWPORT, Oct. 13.—A far-flung patrol line of torpedo boat destroyers, charged with the double duty of enforcing neutrality observance and saving souls on shipping off the shores, were put into service from Bar Harbor, Me., today. Official authority for this statement was obtained here this morning.

THE limits of the line of coast surveillance, at present effective were shown today, with the arrival of the destroyer Paulding off Bar Harbor, Maine, and the activity of the destroyer Sterrett in New York harbor.

Efforts to explain the activity of the destroyers ranged from a reported discovery of a foreign submarine base to a rumor that a liner had been driven into Bar Harbor by a German submarine.

GREEK FLEET IS TAKEN OVER

Russian Battleship Guns Ready in Case of Trouble

FRENCH ALSO WATCHING

Scene as Men and Officers Leave Their Vessels—Report of Conspiracy Against the Allies Had Been Discovered

London, Oct. 13.—"Today was a sad day for the Greek fleet, who are insufficiently acquainted with politics, by understanding why they must abandon their ships to a foreign power," says Reuter's Athens correspondent. "It was an equally depressing sight to the Greek naval officers to watch for three hours this afternoon their ships being towed away by allied tugs."

THE allies took every precaution in case of resistance being offered. Russian battleships trained their guns on the cruiser Averoff and the battleships Kilkis and Lemnos, while French torpedo boats were ready for action cruised to and fro.

THE morning ceremony of ordering the crews to pack their personal belongings and quit their ships, of which they were so proud, had been a touching incident. The king sent a message releasing every man who wished to remain with his ship and join the allies. It is said that nobody remained.

THE ship's officers were the last to leave their vessels, taking with them their flags and the king's portrait which adorned every wardroom. Admiral Ipsilanti removed his flag to the Lemnos and shut himself up in the cabin while his flag was being towed to the new anchorage. His aide de camp, Captain the allied warships, remarked as he watched the scene, "What harm could we have done them?"

THERE was conspiracy London, Oct. 13.—According to the Times' Athens correspondent, conspiracy exists in Greece to officer the Greek fleet with anti-Entente sympathizers and to concentrate in Thessaly in the rear of the allied army, troops, guns, stores and material from Athens and elsewhere. The correspondent adds that the precautions taken by the allies through an ultimatum to contract these schemes caused no surprise in Athens.

TO THE Editor of The Times: Sir—On September 23, '16, Lieut.-Col. A. E. G. MacKenzie wrote me appealing for funds for the "Fighting 26th Battalion." I published his letter in the Telegraph and Standard, and have had a very limited answer to this appeal. This is New Brunswick's only battalion at the front, where they have been continuously fighting since September, 1915, for you and yours. On leaving here in 1915 we had a very meagre fund at our disposal. I sincerely hope to be able to forward a substantial amount at an early date to this gallant battalion. Any funds will be gratefully received, and by me acknowledged.

J. L. McAVITY, Lt.-Col. Late O. C. 26th New Brunswick Battalion, Canadian.

QUEEN CHATS WITH ST. JOHN LAD IN HOSPITAL

Speaks Words of Sympathy to Pte. D. L. Irvine and Gives Him Bit of Her

The signal honor of engaging in a personal conversation with Queen Mary has been the good fortune of a St. John boy.

It was while the good queen was on one of her visits of mercy to the King's Canadian Hospital that she spoke feelingly and sympathetically to Pte. D. L. Irvine, son of J. J. Irvine of 28 Celebration street.

Pte. Irvine crossed over as a member of the D. A. C. that went from Fredericton. Last July the soldier suffered shell shock and was removed to ten other hospitals.

THE shell shock affected his entire system and finally developed into rheumatism. At the time the queen was going through the hospital she stopped at the bedside of the soldier, spoke to him encouragingly and presented to him a piece of Scotch heather, which the soldier has sent to his father here.

It was in September that the soldier from this city had the great honor of speaking to the queen.

LOCAL NEWS

BACK TO DUTY AGAIN. Many will be pleased to learn that Sergeant Ernest J. Earle, who went from here with the first contingent and has been very ill for some time in England, has now recovered and left hospital on Sept. 13. He has taken up his soldier duties at Chilton, Eng.

AN EXPLANATION. In connection with the case of two youths and an auto joy ride it should be said that they did not get the car from the Central Garage illegally. It had been in use by the owner, but the acting chauffeur kept it out instead of returning it to the garage.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE. A romance which has led to the law courts instead of to the altar is indicated by the records of the Supreme Court which show that suit has been entered by Rosalie Goguen who claims the sum of $3,000 from John Smith, alleging breach of promise.

DOG SHOW PRIZES. The Times is asked to state that William Gaskin's sporting spaniel was the winner of the cup donated by the United Theatre. The name was not mentioned in the morning list of prize winners. Mrs. A. Gillard, with her dog, "Baby," won the Deforest & Company's prize for the best local cocker puppy, not reported.

TOWN PLANNING COMMISSION. The town planning commission is meeting this afternoon to consult with the expert, Thomas Adams, who has been conducting a field survey in preparation for the formation of a town planning scheme for this city. About the work of the commission so far has been entirely preliminary but now that permission to form a plan has been secured, the real work will commence.

BOSTON TRAVEL. The Eastern S. S. Co.'s steamship North Star, arrived in port this morning from Boston with a passenger list of about 75 and a large cargo. The steamer is expected to sail about 8:30 o'clock this afternoon again for Boston. About the same number of passengers and also a large freight. The two-trip-a-week steamer service commences next week. The sailings will be on Monday and Thursday from Boston and from St. John, one boat leaving with the other arriving.

BURIED TODAY. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McWilliams took place at 8:30 o'clock this morning from her late residence, 98 Brunswick street, to the Cathedral, where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father McLaughlin, with Rev. M. Howland as celebrant. H. L. Cougan as sub-deacon, Bishop LeBlanc pronouncing the final absolution. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Relatives acted as pall-bearers.

WATER WORKS DEPARTMENT. The blow-out of the stop-cock in the twenty-four inch main at noon yesterday occurred at a very fortunate time. At almost any other time of day or night during the preceding days the accident probably would have caused more than one fatality among the men working in the trench. The installation of the Venturi meters has been completed and the other will be put in place before the end of Saturday week. On Sunday the new and larger meter will be installed at the Partington pulp mill.

C. P. R. FREIGHT EMBARGO. Owing to the accumulation of summer freight and the succeeding fall rush the C. P. R. has found it necessary to place an embargo on shipments in less than carload lots for Toronto. The situation is not regarded as serious and it is expected that the restrictions will be removed by the end of the week. Traffic has been unusually heavy this summer and the sudden rush of fall business arrived before the earlier business had been disposed of and this threatened to cause a temporary congestion, which the embargo was designed to prevent.

PATRIOTIC CAUSES

Apple Tea. Tomorrow afternoon from 8:30 to 6 o'clock an apple tea will be conducted in Trinity church school room with the object of securing funds to buy apples for the wounded Canadian soldiers in Oxford hospitals. Subscriptions to this fund will be received and forwarded to Rev. L. R. Sherman.

THE WAR SITUATION
A Canadian brigade has suffered very heavy loss on the western front with out any compensating advantage.

GERMANY'S WAR FINANCE
Germany is able to finance the war by discounting the future and doing business on paper that will never be redeemed at anything like its face value.

From that ground but few returned, says the official report, describing the experience of one battalion. It seems quite clear that a Canadian brigade has been crippled; and there is no evidence to show that enough damage was done to the enemy to justify the sacrifice.

Germany's fifth great war loan has been floated successfully on the endless chain principle. Taking money out of one pocket and putting it into another can go on indefinitely and all the money is kept at home.

Reviewing the whole war situation there is no cause for despondency. The British and French reports of last night show further slight successes on the western front, and the Italians have also made some progress.

Quebec province will give a million dollars to the Patriotic Fund. That is a very handsome contribution.

MR. F. B. CARVELL
The Woodstock Press develops a long article to Mr. F. B. Carvell, in the course of which it says the recent result in Carleton county was a defeat for Mr. Carvell, and that many Liberals rejoice thereat.

The submarine situation is unchanged. It is not to be openly discussed in the German Reichstag, and the probability is that there will not be a resumption of indiscriminate warfare by submarines.

INTEREST KEEPS UP
Around the World, the ten-days' fair being conducted by the City Cornet Band at St. Andrew's rink, continues to attract thousands of people every evening.

Canadian casualties since the war began, up to Oct. 11, were 32,028. One-fourth of this number are dead.

"Faulty Nutrition and Elimination"—these are the cause of the most of the ailments that afflict human beings. Too much indigestible food and lack of power to throw off the poisons that come from indigestion—these lead to a long line of distressing disorders.

Avoid them by eating Shredded Wheat Biscuit—a simple, elemental food that contains all the body-building material in the whole wheat grain, including the bran coat which keeps the intestinal tract healthy and clean. Delicious for any meal in combination with sliced peaches or other fruits.

Tirade on Vanity Of Berlin Women

Attack on Them Because They Dress Well and Laugh Resented by Men in Trenches

Berlin, Oct. 12—A wholly unmerited attention has been paid not only by the Berlin press, but by that of all Germany, to the extraordinary charges of a mediocre literary woman against gay Berlin, published in Count von Reventlow's Deutsche Tages Zeitung.

Some time ago similar tirades on the vanity of Berlin women were resented by their own husbands serving in the trenches, who wrote to the newspapers that they did not wish their women folks to dress like scarerowns when they came home on leave.

SET HIM RIGHT
Jones' opinion of himself as a golfer was very much greater than his skill warranted, says London Answers.

Garden Millin, aged 88, of Washington, N.H., repaired the chimney on his house from staging. The same day Arthur Jacquith, aged 72, of the same place, shingled the roof of his barn.

WILL IT BE THE SAME IN NEW BRUNSWICK?

To the Editor of the Times-Star:
Sir,—I enclose you a clipping from the Montreal Star. You will see that the Montreal firms are reaping a harvest out of prohibition in Ontario. This is what the Montreal firms are planning in New Brunswick and they all laugh at the law as it stands, for they can ship all they wish into New Brunswick, if in fact some of the breweries here are going to ship their goods to Montreal and have them reshipped back here. I heard that one or two of the big liquor dealers are going to move there and ship all their customers in N. B., thus retaining their trade. Also it is understood among some of the liquor dealers that there will be a lot of changes in their favor when the house meets again. These are things that should be looked into.

TEMPERANCE

The article from the Montreal Star is as follows:
"Prohibition has brought about a change in the habits of the people of Ontario, but many are not going 'dry' despite the new measure which came into effect on September 16. It appears that a great number have taken to drinking whisky. Beer drinking has gone out of fashion as it costs too much to pay the express charges on a dozen bottles from Montreal or some other city outside the province of Ontario.

"Every day at the C. I. R. and Grand Trunk depots may be seen huge piles of cases, each containing from a dozen to eighteen bottles of whisky, brandy or other strong liquor. The express companies are working night and day carting it from the warehouses in the city to the stations, and every train that runs out of the depot for Toronto and other large centres has two or even three extra express wagons, each seventy feet in length, filled almost to the roof with cases of liquor.

"They start collecting the stuff from the warehouses early in the morning, and keep at it all day and half the night. The express companies are smiling cheerfully for they are making piles of money and their workmen are earning overtime almost equal to that earned by a munition worker. There is one company which has over a hundred double or single rigs as well as a number of motor trucks, and they cannot cope with the business they have for Ontario points. They have to hire many additional double teams to aid them in their work, and they are working until 12 o'clock in the morning.

"And the warehouse staffs are also working at high pressure, while the office staffs of the different firms from Ontario that have opened up offices in the city are handling heavy mail all day long.

"One dealer estimates that $25,000 worth of liquor is being shipped out of Montreal every day by freight or express, which means about two thousand cases, each containing a dozen bottles. The large wholesale houses in Montreal are also doing an enormous shipping business, many of the Ontario dealers supplying the demands of their private customers through these houses.

"Of the 800 Prussian Guards at Oviliers only 134 were left when the British were done with them.

BOYS' CLUB NOW IS OPEN FOR THE SEASON

The St. St. John Boys' Club was formally opened for the season, last night in their hall in Union street. Over eighty boys were present. Mayor Hayes made a short address. H. O. Bank of the Y. M. C. A. said that he and others of the staff would co-operate in the work of the club and he was confident that provision would be made for the boys to play basket ball and have other advantages of the Y. M. C. A. building. R. E. Armstrong made the presentation to each member of the winning team of the working boys' baseball league of an electric flashlight and each member of the winning team of the junior boys' team with a jackknife. He also made a pleasing address. Rev. J. C. Berrie spoke briefly in a very interesting way, telling the boys some entertaining stories. The following ladies of the playgrounds executive then served the boys with ice cream and cake: Mrs. H. Colby Smith, Mrs. Good, Mrs. Flagler, Mrs. Seaton, Mrs. Doody, and Miss Doody. A. F. Belding presided at the piano and the boys joined in singing. W. B. Tennant had provided a supply of apples and each boy was given one as he went out. A. M. Belding presided. The evening proved a very enjoyable one. The club will henceforth be open for the entertainment of the boys. Any one who has gramophone records will find them a welcome gift at the club.

BRINGS BRITISH SHIP
BACK TO PORT

New York, Oct. 12.—The British steamship City of Madras was overhauled off Ambrose Channel Lightship tonight by the United States torpedo boat destroyer Sterrett, and brought back to Clifton, Staten Island, after it had ignored the war vessel's signal to stop when it left quarantine. The City of Madras, a vessel of 3,048 tons, cleared from this port Monday for Singapore, Manila and Hong Kong, but anchored above quarantine, apparently fearful of a submarine attack if she ventured out to sea.

As the ship passed quarantine tonight on her way out she was signalled by the Sterrett to stop, ignoring the order the steamer raced down the harbor at full speed, and was not overtaken by the Sterrett until she had passed through Ambrose Channel and was abreast the channel lightship. The Sterrett returned up the harbor with its captive, and anchored off Clifton, Staten Island.

New York navy yard officers disclaimed all knowledge of the Sterrett's action tonight, and would venture no opinion as to why the steamer was detained.

It was said at quarantine late tonight that an ointment applied to your child's skin is absorbed through the pores and enters the system just as surely as though it had been swallowed into the stomach? That is why only the very purest ointment should be used.

For purity of ingredients, Zam-Buk is without equal. This has been proved, not only by the thousands of satisfied users, but by chemical analysis. The famous English chemist, W. Lascelles Scott, having made an exhaustive analytical examination of Zam-Buk says: "I have no hesitation in certifying its purity and inestimable value for skin ailments and injuries."

There is nothing can equal Zam-Buk for skin diseases—nothing so soothing and healing, and nothing that allays inflammation and ends pain so quickly. Mothers who have once used Zam-Buk will have no other, and children who have once had Zam-Buk applied, will cry for it again because they know it ends their pain.

As a "first aid" in the home, Zam-Buk is invaluable. Being a strong antiseptic, if applied to a cut, burn or wound of any kind as soon as sustained there is no danger of festering or blood-poisoning.

Mrs. L. Wilson of Sarnia, Ont., says: "I could not do without Zam-Buk for my family. We find it so splendid for burns, sores, etc."

Mrs. J. Knox of Pine Creek, Man., writes: "My little daughter, while teething, was troubled with a rash. Applications of Zam-Buk.

Zam-Buk is composed exclusively of herbal essences and vegetable extracts, with none of the animal fats and poisonous mineral drugs found in ordinary ointments, and can be used with perfect safety on the most delicate skin—even the skin of a baby. TANK TAKES REDOUBT BUT IS DESTROYED

Monster, Caught Straddling Ditch Near Le Sara, Becomes an Artillery Target Craters Veritable Lake; Artillery Fighting and Small German Attacks on the Somme Front, in West (By Philip Gibbs.) With the British armies in the field, Sunday, Oct. 8, (Dispatch to The London Daily Chronicle and New York Times.)—The men who took Le Sara are still holding it, and only short facts of their case come back from them through the mist and across the waterpools. Last night and this morning it rained again in a drizzling way, and all the shell craters are ponds. It would be possible to swim in some of them, those scooped out by the biggest shells and linked up with others. It is not easy to get runners back across country like that. The Germans find it harder and are drowned in many of those pits, because of the British artillery fire pouring "stuff" over them. Yet curiously it is from the Germans one learns most of the frightful drama which went on yesterday evening in Le Sara Village. They are the prisoners, 800 of them, with five officers, who were sent back to safety while the British stayed and fought on. Those from the village belong to the 181st and 32nd regiments of reserve divisions. They had been reinforced, strengthening the garrison, and expecting an attack by some unaccountable means at the exact minute. They are about to follow the long road to be ordered to fight to the last man rather than surrender their trench, which is one of the gates barring the long road to Bapaume. They tried machine guns and trench mortars on the British front trenches, kept their rifles dry by wrapping them in rags, and sent out volunteers and victims to lie in the shell pits waiting high in water to snipe the British as they came over. They knew they had a poor chance really to keep Le Sara, and their best hope lay in the trench and to put up a hard fight. The British guns had already smashed the houses and barns to rubbish heaps, like those of Martinpunch and Coirecette, and the 22nd, 8-inch, and other monster guns were making a worse hell of the place. The men of the German 181st and 32nd regiments of Reserve lay low in the dugouts and tucked their heads down in their new trenches, spraying over the parapets facing up the ground close to the south of Le Sara and on the German left from the edge of Bapaume to the north and the mill-beyond. Their first goal on the right was one of those beasty quadrilateral structures called the Tangle, and after that the road from Martinpunch north eastward, and then followed the Butte de Warencourt, that old high tumulus in which the bones of some prehistoric man lay still and dead. The living ones flung bombs at the tank, fired rifle volleys, tried to stab it from beneath as it struggled across the trench and stayed across it, firing venomously from each flank. After that, something having happened to its internal organs, it committed harakiri, but seems to have been

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD

St. Thomas, Ont., Father Tells How Child Was Restored to Health We have always told the people of St. John that Vinol is a wonderful body builder for ailing children. Here is more proof of the fact. Robert J. Miller, of St. Thomas, Ontario, says: "The measles left my little daughter in a very weakened, run-down condition. She had a very poor appetite and was much below normal weight. On the advice of a friend I gave her Vinol and she has gained rapidly in weight and strength. I consider Vinol a valuable medicine for such conditions." Vinol is especially efficient in building up puny, weak, ailing children, because of the best and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates which it contains, and it is without oil or grease, children love to take it. useful before going up in a blaze of glory. The German prisoners who faced the British in the outskirts of Le Sara and then further back in the scabier road, and in hiding places below ground, say there was grim and bitter fighting there. The soldiers pay tribute to the men who captured them. "They fought us fiercely and beat us. We could not stand up against them." Two attempts have been made by the Germans to regain a footing in the trenches they recently lost in the Thierval area. The first counterattack, delivered last night, failed before the German infantry reached the British line. The second, made at 5 o'clock this morning, enabled small parties to penetrate the British trenches, where they were taken prisoner. Fire in Factory The dryhouse of the Risteen wood-working factory in Fredericton was destroyed by fire, with a loss of about $800 yesterday afternoon.

SHOE PRICES MUCH HIGHER

German System of Allowing Each Citizen Two Pairs of Shoes Has Been Suggested LEATHER SCARCITY LARGELY RESPONSIBLE "If you think the prices of shoes are high, you wait a few months; they aren't a flea bite compared to what they will be then." The man who said this didn't talk just for the sake of hearing himself; he had trade journals and letters from New York wholesalers to bear out the validity of his statements. His parting words to The Telegraph man were: "War or peace, the price of shoes is going up to stay up."

Leather and the component parts of shoes have been soaring since the war began and now comes the announcement that the British government has requisitioned all leather in England. Russia, like England, has felt the scarcity of leather; the deputy town council at Moscow put into effect the German ticket scheme for obtaining shoes. Two shakas a year, each entitling the holder to a pair of shoes, will be given to each resident. —Reprint from "Daily Telegraph" October 11. Grandma Never Took A Music Lesson

YET to hear her play one might think she was an experienced musician. That is because of the "life-like" touch of the Martin-Orme Player Piano. Grandma experiences no difficulty in playing this superb instrument. Everything is so simple and so handy. And you should hear her play the old, old songs of long ago—those she loved when she was a girl. By the look on her face you realize that she feels as though she were "Sweet Sixteen" again. A would help you, too, to lose your cares in a flood of perfect music—such music as the Martin-Orme Player Piano makes possible. This instrument is the only player piano with the "Violotone" construction (a method of producing the finest tone and preserving it for the life of the piano). It is a genuine Martin-Orme piano with the addition of a perfect player mechanism. It has all the beauty, power and range of tone, all the characteristics that have made the name Martin-Orme synonymous with high quality. Mutt and Jeff—Mutt Mutt Have Picked Out a Too Popular Novel

By "Bud" Fisher

"DUTCH" LEONARD
His Three Ambitions; Remarkable Achievements of 24-Year-Old Star

(From the World's Series Issue of the Baseball Magazine.)
No other pitcher in the game is more absolutely unshakable than "Dutch" Leonard, of the Red Sox, when he is feeling right. He may not be the most dependable, but he is certainly the most brilliant performer of the renowned Red Sox pitching staff.
On August 29 Leonard was batted out of the box by the St. Louis Browns. On the thirtieth he shut them out without a hit. The player often forgets the vicissitudes of today in the expected triumphs of tomorrow, but if there is a waffer, more decisive transition from failure to success than to be driven from the box one day and to pitch a no-hit game the next, we have never heard of.

When "Dutch" Leonard entered the major leagues he had three ambitions. He true he scarcely hoped to realize them, but he believed in aiming high. And he did aim high. The greatest pitcher in the world might be proud to claim any one of the trophies which Leonard set himself to attain. Now at the age of twenty-four he has gained them all. His three ambitions are realized, and what he will set himself to win hereafter we can't even guess.
What were these three ambitions? First, to win a world series game. Last fall Grover Alexander entered the service as the greatest pitcher of the year. He humbled the Red Sox in their first encounter. He met them again in the third game, a contest whose importance it would be hard to overestimate. And Leonard had his wish. He won a world's series game, not a fluky contest but against the master pitcher of the year and by as brilliant a piece of twisting skill as has ever been witnessed.

Three hits the Phillies scored, one of them should have been classified as an error by Speaker, and uncertain support marred the first three innings, but as Leonard fairly gripped the game the Phillies had never a chance. The last eighteen men retired in order without the semblance of a hit, and finally the mighty Alexander bowed quite as much to superior pitching as to superior offensive attack and yielded the palm of victory to his invincible opponent. Leonard had his wish, a world's series victory, by as masterly a performance as the game has seen.
Another of Leonard's three secret ambitions was to prove the most effective pitcher of a season. And he did. Incidentally though, he established a record which should stand for years and may never be lowered. In 1914 he allowed but twenty-five earned runs in thirty-five games pitched. Some of these games, of course, were not for a full nine innings, but his grand average for the season was 1.01 earned runs per game.

This is the most nearly perfect average on record. The nearest it has ever been paralleled was by Walter Johnson in 1914 with a grand average of 1.09. There may be pitchers who have in a few contests who could show such effectiveness, but pitchers who have taken part in a representative number of games has ever approached that mark save Johnson only, and he did not equal it.
The third ambition of "Dutch" Leonard was to pitch a no-hit game; and amazing by the rough treatment of the day before he gained that third and last of his ambitions on August 30.
What manner of pitcher is this who can break into a league of stars and annex three such records at the age of twenty-four? Walter Johnson has toiled for years to pitch a no-hit game and so has Alexander, but though they come close to the mark they never could quite reach it. And to go through a season allowing an average of almost exactly one run per game is really almost too good a pitching feat to be true.

Leonard is a dark complexioned, stockily built athlete, some five feet eleven inches in height and weighing 180 pounds. He looks more like a football player than a baseball pitcher, and is indeed an all-round athlete. Twenty-four is young even in baseball. He should have at least ten years ahead, and what may not a pitcher accomplish in ten years who has already done so much at twenty-four?
Stepienack Falls 100 Feet and Dies Phillipsburg, N. J., Oct. 13.—Thomas Quigley, 30 years old, a Philadelphia stevedock, who had been here for two weeks regarding the cross on the top of the Church of St. Philip and James, was instantly killed in a fall of 100 feet to the rocks from the Phillipsburg end of the Lehigh Valley Bridge. It is not known how he came to fall. He leaves his wife and several children in Philadelphia.

CAR PRESENTED TO REV. CHARLES COLLINS
As a gift from the members of his parish and a mark of their appreciation of his thirty-one years of service in St. Rose's church, a 1917 model Overland roadster was presented to Rev. Charles Collins last evening. The car was accompanied by an address, bound in Morocco and filled in gold and crimson. The address is as follows:
Dear Beloved Father:
For many years you have labored in our midst. Your life work has been the care of the parish. The greater portion of your career in the priesthood has been spent with us. You have been our zealous, devoted and thoughtful father. Through your service you have gained the honor and the respect that a grateful people feel for their priest.
We belong to you; you belong to us, and the bond of reverence and love has entwined ever closer with the passing seasons. On this happy occasion we tender you our gift, knowing that it is not at all commensurate with your interest and devotion to our welfare.
Accept it as a title of the gratitude, love and respect of your friends and parishioners.
It is our most earnest prayer that you be spared for many a year to use, your spiritual children, and, as time rolls by, heaven will bless our father.
Signed, on behalf of friends and parishioners:
Committee was composed of Patrick J. McMurray (chairman); Patrick T. Daniel Murphy, treasurer; Arthur W. Carlen, secretary; Charles E. Dalton, Daniel Cronin, John Collins, George Costello, James Garey, Joseph O'Brien, Patrick Melanson and Leonard A. Conlon.

Boston Should Have Made It Four Straight, Says Joe Page

(By Joe Page.)
Boston, Mass., Oct. 12.—The Boston Red Sox are champions of the world. They put the title on ice by beating the Dodgers in the fifth of the world series games. They did exactly the same thing a year ago with the Phillies.
From the Boston end the game was a splendid performance. Early the red hose team showed to great advantage over their rivals from Brooklyn. Shore not only pitched a wonderfully clever game, but held the trolly dodgers without a resemblance of a hit until the fifth inning and then one of the easiest scratch kind made by Myers. In the seventh and ninth they came through with two clear hits by Mowery and Stengel, but they were not productive of runs.
The world series is over, the Carrigan crew deserved to win. It was criminal negligence on their part that they did not win the first game in Brooklyn on Tuesday, for they have showed their superiority in every department of the game. Individually and collectively they outclassed the Brooklyn both in defense and offensive work, and it was never more clearly demonstrated than in the game today when the Reds beat their rivals four to one.
Boston secured their four runs, with a slight exception, by clear, hard and timely batting. On the defensive they showed fully as good class as any previous holders of the title.
Scott, the Red Sox short stop, and Jaavrin showed that they are vastly improved players over a year ago, and together with Gardner, the famous, made the Brooklynites look like a lot of pliers when it came to playing the national game.
In fact Robinson's team on the whole have shown so poorly that the vast majority of those who have witnessed the games of the series wonder how they ever managed to win a National League championship. Boston won because they were by far the best team and well deserve their victory. Moreover it is a popular one, and they are being congratulated by one and all for the game.

Kitchener's Warning—What It Did For Us:—

BEFORE the public had recovered from the surprise occasioned by Lord Kitchener's statement as to the probable duration of the war, British wool buyers were scouring the markets of the world for high-grade raw wool for the English and Scotch Woolen Company.

Any delay on our part at that critical time, would have made it impossible for us to continue tailoring English and Scotch woolen made-to-measure suits at $15. Our instant, decisive action, resulted in the purchase of tons of raw wool to cover our enormous market. This wool has long since been transformed by British looms into substantial, handsome cloths of unusual superiority.

This magnificent supply was secured before prices had a chance to go sky-rocketing. You reap the benefit of this brilliant feat of merchandising in the phenomenally low price we ask. Give us your order today for your Fall

You is a man most credit, Who lives but more to learn. Hither a chap of visage bright, Whose thoughts to laughter turn.

This is a creature passing queer— The dame who loves to weep. That is a spinster, bleak and drear, Who would at Cupid peep.

Some of these would refresh the soul, And some would cry, but lo! All of them have a common goal, And that's—a picture show.

PRESENTATION

About twenty-five friends of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Wood called at their home, Manawagonish road, Fairville, last evening to extend congratulations on a happy event which occurred not long ago. Games were played and a good time enjoyed. Before leaving the host and hostess were made recipients of a handsome brass parlor lamp with the best wishes of the gathering. Refreshments were served and the party broke up about midnight.

NOTHING CAME OF IT

A little more than a week ago an alarm was rung in for the fire department to extinguish a blaze in a motor boat in Market slip. At the time it was said that the fire was started through the carelessness of "someone" who lit a match near the gasoline tank of the boat. It is understood that an investigation has been on foot. The owner of the boat, it is said, did not reach the scene of the fire until some time after it started. There was an attempt made by the police to associate with the case a man who was seen standing on the wharf and who was just about to ring in an alarm. In the police court this morning the matter was apparently to have been threshed out. But there was no positive evidence and the case was dismissed.

USE CANADA'S PORTS; URGES BOARD OF TRADE

Meeting Passes Resolution on Situation Developed Because of Submarine Raid

The use of Canadian ports as a solution of the difficulties arising from the recent submarine raids off the United States coast is urged in a resolution adopted by the council of the Board of Trade this morning. The resolution points out that trade with Canadian ports is protected by the British navy and that any submarine menace which might arise could be dealt with more effectively and without danger of international complications. The routing of all British goods through Canadian ports and the development of the ports to meet the greater demands is urged and the support of all shippers in Canada is requested. The resolution, which was adopted unanimously, is as follows: "Resolved, that the situation that has arisen in consequence of enemy submarine attacks upon peaceful merchant ships sailing out of United States ports, and of the attitude assumed by the United States government towards these enemy attacks, demands that instant action should be taken to secure to a fuller extent the carrying of commerce designed for Great Britain and her allies through the ports of Canada, where it can be assured the protection of the British and allied navy without the danger of international complications arising. And further resolved, that this council urges upon the government of Canada, in co-operation with the home government, the importance of further hastening the development of the open ports of the maritime provinces, so as to care for this commerce in summer and winter, and it also calls upon Canadian shippers to route their shipments wherever possible through Canadian ports, thus assuring them necessary sea protection and at the same time strengthening and upbuilding Canadian ports and railways, towards the development of which vast sums of the public moneys of Canada have always been expended. And further resolved, that the boards of trade of Canada be asked to co-operate in this movement, and that our representatives in parliament be requested to urge the matter upon the attention of the government so as to secure immediate action."

PTE. GIBSON WRITES OF SOMME DRIVE IN WHICH HE TOOK PART

Private H. G. Gibson in a letter to Bruce Erb of the city, tells a little of the recent big drive on the Somme. The letter reads: "I am now in Blighty as a result of being wounded in the big advance on September 15, when the Canadians showed it was a terrible experience standing waiting for the word to go, but we were quite calm and were quite chery. We had about a mile of open country to get to our objective, but we got there, as I was like going through hell's fire, but we did not flinch and were on and on our goal and took all before us, and we also succeeded in taking a village. I just got hit as we got to the village. The shells were bursting all around and a little piece of shrapnel got me on the left leg and my leg got stiff. Then the stretcher bearer got over to a trench and there I dug myself in with my entrenching tool before my leg got stiff. Then the stretcher bearer dressed my wound and I lay there until just before day-break; I then struggled back through the shell fire to a dressing station and got fixed up and was sent from place to place until I am at last back to Bonnie Scotland once again. I am able to limp about, but may be sent to bed at any time. The Somme is some place, and I will not forget it in a hurry. I saw several Baker of my platoon drop."

UNITED BAPTIST INSTITUTE IN SESSION HERE

Session Opened This Morning in Germain Street Church—Paper Read by Rev. M. B. Puryear

The United Baptist Institute opened in the Germain Street Baptist church at 10 a. m. today. The president, Rev. L. H. Crandall, of Bear River, N. S., in the chair. Rev. D. Price of Chipman, offered prayer. About eighty delegates were present at the opening, and the number constantly increased during the session. A period of devotions preceded the regular programme. The president spoke of the importance of the devotional element of the meetings. Prayers were offered by Revs. Messrs. Milton Addison, E. J. Grant and H. D. Worden. An 88 Year Old Delegate.

Among the delegates present was Deacon Charles E. Santori of Berwick, N. S., aged eighty-eight years, who is active in everything doing. Mr. Santori is a regular attendant at the meetings of the convention. He is an enterprising farmer. He has been a member of the Baptist Church in Berwick for sixty-nine years. He is still hale and hearty and bids fair to attend many more meetings of the convention. Rev. Messrs. F. H. Beal, J. H. Jenner, Milton Addison, J. S. McFadden and M. L. Gregg were appointed a nominating committee.

The oldest minister present was Rev. Alfred Chipman, D. D., of Berwick, N. S., who, with his wife, traced the meeting of the institute.

Rev. M. B. Puryear, pastor of the African Baptist Church in Halifax, read a paper on "The Place of the Holy Spirit in this Dispensation." Mr. Puryear said the church was the product of the life and death of Jesus Christ as brought to bear on and in the lives of men. The Holy Spirit was a person. He is the guardian of the church. The Old Testament reveals evidence of the work of the Holy Spirit. He was found also in connection with the life and ministry of Jesus Christ.

This was, however, the era of the Holy Spirit's ministry. The Holy Spirit was on Jesus in his ministry in the synagogue in Nazareth. Jesus becomes intelligent to us as the Holy Spirit revealed and interpreted the historic Jesus to us. Pentecost was not the Natal Day of the Holy Spirit into the church, but his birth day with the church. Pentecost was a present day experience in which the church might vitally share. The church is the body of Christ mystically related to Christ, its head, through the action of the Holy Spirit. When a man accepted Christ by living faith he becomes an organic part of the body of Christ. Jesus did not organize a church. He planned for such an institution. The Holy Spirit carried these plans to fruition. The church was organized by the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The church today was the brightened shadow of the Apostolic Church.

The business meetings of the church, the speaker said, should be conducted in the recognition of the presence and the activity of the Holy Spirit. He was efficient factor in the work of strengthening all Christian workers for effective service. The Holy Scriptures were the product of the Holy Spirit. All Christians were agreed on this. They might differ as to the method of their inspiration. The Holy Spirit was the best interpreter of His own product. The Christian might know the mind and will of God because he had the Spirit to guide him into the truth. They should go to the Bible and to the closet at one and the same time.

Faith was the gift of the Spirit. Such faith would produce works in the believer in harmony with the Spirit of Jesus. That which did not produce such work was worthless. The most natural thing for a man who believed in Jesus Christ was to pray. The Holy Spirit was the effectual factor in prayer. The Holy Spirit in this era was God expressing Himself in the church with the purpose of bringing the church to perfection.

Upon invitation Rev. A. K. deBlois, D. D., was called to the platform and spoke of a summer spent at St. John more than thirty years ago, in the home of Rev. H. Cross, then pastor of the Germain Street church. His most intimate friend was W. C. Cross.

ROBERTSON IS SENT TO HIGHER COURT

Taking of evidence was resumed in the police court this morning in the case of Andrew Robertson, charged with theft, forgery and obtaining money unlawfully. The defence is that the defendant is receiving much credit for the efficient manner in which they handled the case.

J. M. Robinson, banker and broker, said that the defendant called at his place of business and negotiated for the sale of certain stocks, saying he had twenty-six shares with the American Bonding Machine Company. The defendant on another visit endorsed a stock certificate, which was forwarded to New York by the witness. The defendant said he was going to the woods for the winter and he received $0.40 from the witness in anticipation of the selling of the stocks. The stocks were not sold.

Robert T. Duncan, of the English and Scotch Woolen Company, said that he had missed a razor from his store, where the defendant had been and which was later on found in the possession of the accused.

Alexander Ingram told the court that it was his name the defendant had used when he signed the stock certificate. The defendant had been in the English and Scotch Woolen Company's store in Charlotte street, where the witness is employed. Mr. Ingram said that his coat, with a pocket book containing the stock certificate, was hanging in the back shop. It was recognised by the witness. The witness said that the endorsement was forged.

The evidence was concluded with the testimony of Acting-Detective Hopkins and Detective Briggs. The magistrate committed the defendant for trial.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning four persons were fined $8 or two months in jail for drunkenness. Wm. Nixon, given in charge by F. L. Broderick on charges of being drunk, using abusive language on the property of J. Roderick & Son, and for willful destruction to property, was remanded.
