CLASH OF ARMS ON THE BORDER; ITALY MAY BECOME MATTER OF WAR TODAY

Boundary Fights Reported; One Austrian Taken Prisoner

Cabinet in Session at What May Prove Vital Meeting — Serious Trouble in Trieste, 47 Women Said To Have Been Killed

Rome, May 17.—Clashes between Italian and Austrian troops are reported to be occurring on the frontier. The Austrians attempted to cross the boundary at one point, but were repulsed by the Italians, who took one prisoner.

Rome, May 17.—Developments of the utmost importance are expected today in the affairs of Italy. Premier Scialoja has called the first formal meeting of his cabinet to be held since the passing of the ministerial crisis, which resulted in his remaining in power with a virtual vindication of his foreign policy.

The tension has been intensified by reported clashes between Austrian and Italian frontier guards. The temper of the Italian people has been more highly inflamed by dispatches telling of a "women's revolution" at Trieste.

Official confirmation of the report that the Scialoja cabinet would remain in power was greeted by one of the most remarkable demonstrations of approval ever witnessed in Rome. A crowd estimated at 800,000 gathered in the Popolo Square at the foot of the Pincian Hill, where the slope and summit of which were through with representatives of the most aristocratic families in the capital. Revolution in Trieste.

Rome, May 17.—A revolution has broken out at Trieste, according to a message to the idea Nazionale. A crowd, composed chiefly of women, because most of the men had been called to the colors, invaded the square on which faces the palace of the governor, Baron Friesekin. The women cried "Death to Francis Joseph; down with Austria!" burned an Austrian flag and a portrait of the emperor, and attempted to attack the palace.

The governor ordered gendarmes to charge the crowd, and the women retired, fighting stubbornly. Lamp posts were torn up, and the signs of tobacco shops, which bear the Austrian coat of arms, because their business is a government monopoly, were destroyed.

The idea Nazionale despatch stated that 47 women were killed and more than 800 injured.

RUSSIANS SAY THEY HAVE ROUTED AUSTRIANS

Complete Victory in Southeastern Galicia and Bukovina; 20,000 Captives; French Check Germans Again North of Arras

Petrograd, May 17.—Complete victory for the Russians in southeastern Galicia and Bukovina is announced by the War Office in an official statement today. It states that the Austrians have been routed along the entire Dniester front of 100 miles. The Russians have taken 20,000 prisoners.

Petrograd, May 17.—For ten days there has been severe fighting along the Dniester front, where the Russians have been assailing the Austrians' right wing, after checking its attempts to advance and strike at the lines of communications upon which the Russians depend for sending supplies and reinforcements to the troops who have been withdrawing before the Austro-German assaults in the Carpathians and in Western Galicia.

The Austrians have been driven from their positions along the south bank of the Dniester River, and have been compelled to cross the Pruth. Madonawa, twenty-two miles south of Stanislaw, has been recaptured by the Russians. This is the fifth time it has changed hands.

GERMANS CANNOT ADVANCE

Paris, May 17.—Violent attacks launched by the Germans to win back ground lost to the French on the heights of Lorette have been repulsed. Four counter assaults of the Germans at Notre Dame de Lorette, north of Arras were all checked by the hot fire of the French.

The capture of 154 prisoners and four machine-guns at Hei Sas, in West Flanders, also is announced. The communique shows that had fighting in itself in progress upon the battle field north of Arras, and in the sector of Ypres.

It dropped bombs on various quarters of the city, killing two children and wounding one woman. The Zeppelin sailed away in the direction of the sea.

He has already visited the experimental farm at Fredericton Junction and from St. John will go to Kentville, N. S., and thence to P. E. Island and then to Quebec.

BRITISH BREAK GERMAN LINE; FULL MILE THROUGH IT; ANNOUNCES FIELD MARSHAL SIR JOHN FRENCH

Canadian List Now Has Grown To 4,751 Of This 678 Are Killed and 867 Missing

THE THIRD FROM FAIRVILLE IN CASUALTY LIST

London, May 17.—Field Marshal Sir John French has broken his silence in regard to the movements of the British army northwest of Labassee, with the announcement of an advance of nearly a mile into the German line. This, together with the continuance of the French thrusts both north of Ypres and southwest of Labassee constitutes the outstanding feature of the military situation today.

Military comment here regards the advance as a genuine break of the German line which, if maintained, must mean a retreat for the invaders' forces.

Recapture of the bridge over the Yser canal at St. Eustache by the French, deprives the Germans of their last connection with the west side of waterway. German assaults on the British position at Ypres seem to have spent themselves, at least for the moment, as Field Marshal French reports all has been quiet there for the last forty-eight hours.

Ottawa, May 17.—The honor list now reaches the enormous total of 4,751 and the end of the casualties from the battle of Langemarck is not yet in sight. The total is made up as follows:—

Wounded, 3,206; killed, 678, and missing, 867.

The Canadians saved the day in those fearful four days fighting, but it took a terrible toll. The week end casualty lists contained 634 more names, 131 killed, 251 wounded and 222 missing. Half the missing, or 127, were from the 22nd battalion raised in eastern Ontario. Thirty-three names of missing from the 3rd battalion, which contain Toronto units, were also reported. The patient 74th, which lost its commander, Col. McLaughlin, has reported thirty-five missing.

This total of 4,751 composes the casualties from April 22, the day on which the big battle opened. However, it also contains the lists of the Princess Patricia's in the recent heavy fighting at Ypres and also names of some Canadian artillery men who have been engaged in the terrific artillery duels of the last two weeks.

SIR GEO. E. FOSTER IN CITY

A visitor to the city today was Sir George E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, who arrived on the Montreal train at noon in his private car "Empire." He was met at the depot by Senator W. H. Thorne, whose guest he was during his few hours' stay, for he plans to return to Ottawa this evening. He said he had nothing of interest for publication. He was merely here for a rest, but chiefly to take part in anniversary exercises in Fredericton, where he had spent much of his earlier days. Asked with regard to the prospects of an election this year, Sir George smiled and answered, "I don't know anything about it—I'm merely looking around to observe the feeling."

"What are your own personal feelings on the matter, sir?"

The minister replied, "One is not supposed to have any in these times."

SIXTY-FOUR OF AMERICA'S WAR FLEET THERE

President Wilson Reviews Battle Ships and Other Fighting Craft in Hudson River

New York, May 17.—A mighty armada of battleships, destroyers, submarines and auxiliary craft swung anchor in the Hudson river today grounded for review by President Wilson. The most powerful array of fighting ships ever assembled in an American port, sixty-four in all, the fleet stretched for four miles in a double line, with the top and masthead in honor of the occasion.

Each battleship was in readiness to thunder out the presidential salute. Twenty-one guns, when the navy yacht Mayflower, with the president on board, passed them during the afternoon. Conveyed by the cruiser Baltimore, the Mayflower, bringing the president from Washington, reached the harbor last night and anchored off West 41st street. It was after midnight when she arrived there, and the president and his party, expecting a long stay, had monies, had retired for the night. A squadron of New York policemen and a patrol guard from Secretary of the Navy Daniel's yacht, the Dolphin, remained on guard at the landing throughout the night.

The naval review, preceded in the forenoon by a land parade, was on the program as the chief ceremonial feature of the ten days' visit of the Atlantic fleet to this port. Tomorrow the demonstration will end with the departure of the fleet for a naval war game along the Atlantic coast.

THE WAR NEWS

The war cabinet in Italy has been retained in office and a momentous vote will be held today. In the meantime popular feeling has been further inflamed by news of a riot and the killing of many women by Austrian guards in Trieste.

The United States still awaits the reply of Germany, and in the meantime President Wilson is today reviewing the terms. Germany may be expected to temporize and endeavor to gain time, but the American attitude is expected to be firm and insistent along the lines of the formal note to Germany.

The news from France and Belgium is more satisfactory, as it tells of substantial gains by both the British and French armies. The Allies are also making some progress at the Dardanelles.

The board of health is to be congratulated on its grant for a clean-up campaign, and Chairman Doherty on his generous offer of acres to be used in the work.

The crop reports from the west are very encouraging. This promises to be a year of large production in Canada. The world needs the crop and Canada needs the money.

A dog industriously digging up the bulbs planted in flower beds in Queen Square suggests the desirability of enforcing the dog-law. Why should a dog have more privileges than a child?

Gen. Hughes says Canada will send an unlimited number of men to the front. Why, then, does he not speed up the work of providing equipment for the men already enlisted?

The ranks of the 55th Battalion must be recruited to full strength and it should be done with the least possible delay. The sooner the men are in camp the better the training they will get before going to the front.

Many notable names are in the British casualty list. Whatever else may be said of the British nobility its members know how to fight and die for the honor of their native land.

It is an interesting fact revealed by recent reports that Great Britain has received very much larger quantities of lumber from Norway and Sweden for months past than in the corresponding period last year.

The province of New Brunswick must provide the 26th Battalion with those field kitchens. It merely means a little more of the universal generosity that has responded so nobly to every appeal.

In Maine they have a Health Week, as well as a clean-up campaign in the towns. Read in today's Times what they are doing this week in Bangor and they resolve to help Com. McCallan and the board of health in the clean-up campaign in this city.

The amateur minstrels who have attracted crowded houses to the Opera House for three performances last week, and by that means raised a substantial fund for patriotic purposes, have given further evidence that there is a great deal of historic and musical talent in St. John that only needs development and a vehicle of expression.

Loyalist Day is to be observed tomorrow afternoon by a special patriotic entertainment by the school children in the Imperial Theatre, under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club.

most other cities in which boards of trade or kindred organizations exist. They are recognized as necessary factors in the commercial life of the community, and as such are entitled to and usually receive the fullest measure of sympathy and co-operation from the citizens.

Sir George E. Foster might do worse than give the Hon. Robert Rogers a discourse on patriotism.

The Germans are said to have called our soldiers "Canadian rats." Possibly because they rattled the Prussian Guard.

If Dr. Bernhard Dernberg does not soon quit the soil of the United States he may have a dern-hard time getting away.

Was Covered With Boils. Could Not Get Rid of Them Until She Used BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. When the blood becomes impure the first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of the various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, etc., and the only treatment you can use is some sort of a good blood cleansing remedy which will put the blood into a perfect condition, and thus eliminate all the different poisons from the system which cause these different eruptions to occur. The best blood cleansing remedy on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters. All we ask you to try it and you will be convinced. Thousands have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but praise for its curative powers. Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Plantagenet, Ont., writes: "I am one woman who cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was covered with boils, and could not get rid of them. I was advised by a friend to try B.B.B. which I did, and I can truthfully say that it completely cured me. I have never had a sign of a boil since." See that our name appears on both the label and wrapper as there are many imitations placed on the market which are said to be "just as good." Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. AREA OF LOS ANGELES NOW SECOND ONLY TO THAT OF NEW YORK

Los Angeles, Cal. May 17—The report of J. D. Burke, efficiency director, places Los Angeles as the second city in the United States in point of area. This followed the annexation of San Fernando and Palms territory at a recent election.

The total area of the city now is 279 square miles. New York city, with 286 miles, is the only city with a larger expanse of territory.

The ten cities of the United States having the largest areas are—New York, 286 square miles; Los Angeles, 279; New Orleans, 194; Chicago, 184; Philadelphia, 129; Cincinnati, sixty-six; St. Louis, sixty-one; Washington, D. C., sixty; Kansas City, fifty-eight; Rochester, fifty-seven.

This area includes the water areas, which are sometimes included in statements of territorial area. If these be included New Orleans would have 270 square miles, San Francisco 127, and Seattle ninety-four, which would bring these cities in the list of ten largest. Los Angeles, however, still would remain second in the country.

THIS IS CLEAN-UP WEEK IN BANGOR

Health and Cleanliness the Slogan—East Side Three Days; West Side Also Three

This is clean-up and paint-up week in Bangor, and also will mark the observance, for the first time, of health week in Maine. Health week will be observed simultaneously in Bangor, Lewiston and Portland, the distinguished speakers who have been engaged for addresses being booked for appearances in each of these cities.

Co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce movement for an annual clean-up and paint-up week, the city council voted to authorize Street Commissioner Pracey to give the use of teams of his department for the collection of rubbish. This will be the arrangement.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the streets of the east side.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the streets of the west side.

In connection with getting ready for the collection of rubbish, ashes, etc., for the collection by the city teams, it is emphasized that all rubbish and ashes must be placed in barrels, boxes or other receptacles. With the exception of boughs, used for house-banking, the teams will collect nothing that is placed on the street, and only refuse in receptacles will be taken up.

"Owing to the expected influx of tourists and automobilists during this year," said a member of the chamber of commerce committee "we are especially anxious to make a better record at cleaning up than a year ago when a surprisingly large number of wagonloads of rubbish were casted in the dumps. Not only is clean-up week a big advantage from the viewpoint of improving the city's appearance but the cleaning out of sheds, attics, wards and alleyways means the conferring of practical benefit, as well as what might be called an aesthetic benefit.

"The chamber of commerce committee appreciates very much the co-operation of Mayor Robinson and the city council, in fact, without the assistance of the street department, it would be impossible to have clean-up week as the cost of hiring teams would make it prohibitive."

Health Week Plans.

The programme for health week is as follows:—

Sunday, May 16.
10.30 a. m.—Each pastor will speak on some phase of the Public Health Question.

Monday, May 17.
7.45 p. m.—City Hall, Health and Heredity, Dr. E. K. Sprague, surgeon, Hills Island, N. Y., U. S. Public Health Service.

Tuesday, May 18.
7.45 p. m.—City Hall, The Public Health Nurse, Miss Mary M. G. O'Connell, superintendent of Nurses, Milk and Baby Hygiene Association, Boston.

Wednesday, May 19.
7.45 p. m.—City Hall, The Consumer's Right to Food Protection from Dust and Filth, A. M. G. Soule, Augusta, chief of Bureau of State Inspectors.

Improvement of Milk Supply. Why? Prof. C. A. Jameson, U. of M., Orono.

The opening meeting Monday evening at 7.45 o'clock in City Hall will be presided over by Mayor Robinson, who has taken an active interest in the plans for this new movement in which Maine is the leader in the eastern section of the country.

Letter to Merchants.

The committee has sent out the following letter to Bangor merchants in connection with the campaign:

Dear Sir—You probably have seen that the city council at its meeting Tuesday night voted to co-operate with the chamber of commerce in making the week of May 17 the annual clean-up week. Last year it was the first clean-up week in May but the general impression has been that for Bangor the third week is better than the first.

The chamber of commerce committee is asking the co-operation of all its members to make the week a success—to make possible the obtaining of results that will make for Bangor's improvement in appearance, increase its attractiveness for out-of-town visitors and tourists, and to lessen the fire hazards by cleaning up rubbish, boxes and all forms of refuse.

You can be of material assistance if you will arrange window displays of articles and goods for outdoor or indoor cleaning up and painting. You also can help stir up general interest in the movement by mentioning in your advertising matter "Bangor's annual clean-up and paint-up week." In many cities clean-up week is an exceptionally good business getter.

Thanking you for your co-operation and interest.

Yours very truly,
Clean-Up and Paint-Up Committee.

Announcements regarding the plans for the week will be made in the churches Sunday, and the co-operation of all citizens is urged to make the campaign a success.

Canada In The War

A cable received by C. McN. Steves on Saturday said that his brother, Lieut. Rufus P. Steves was a prisoner with the Germans, but had not been wounded as first stated.

In today's casualty list Frank Leonard, charge of Millstream, Kings county, N. B., is listed as missing. Private Frank S. Inam of Yarmouth, N. S., as sick from gas fumes, and Private Angus M. Roberts, Cape Breton, N. B., killed.

Church parades were held by the 26th Battalion according to the programme given in Saturday's Times.

It is reported in Ottawa that the purchasing of Canadian war supplies will be effected, in the future through the purchasing department of the C. P. R., under the personal direction of Sir Thos. Shaughnessy, who was the founder of the department.

ENRICH THE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla, a Spring Tonic-Medicine, is Necessary.

Everybody is troubled at this season with loss of vitality, failure of appetite, that tired feeling, or with bilious tums, dull headaches, indigestion and other stomach troubles, or with pimples and other eruptions on the face and body. The reason is that the blood is impure and impoverished.

Hood's Sarsaparilla relieves all these ailments. It is the old reliable medicine that has stood the test of forty years,—that makes pure, rich, red blood,—that strengthens every organ and builds up the whole system. It is the all-the-year-round blood purifier and health-giver. Nothing else acts like it, for nothing else is like it. There is no real substitute; so be sure to get Hood's. Ask your druggist for it today, and begin taking it at once.

TALKING OF TYPES

And How Suits are Designed to Fit Every Man

You may possess a piano and yet not be able to play it—and the true piano artist is so rare that we pay dollars to see and hear him.

The artist designer is just as rare in tailoring, and it is only once in a decade that one finds the versatile genius who combines skill and art with the sane instincts of adaptability. "The designer of the new Semi-ready following styles," said John F. Condon, "for he has the versatility of being able to produce styles that are distinctive and different and yet are suited for every city in Canada from Halifax to Vancouver."

Every fortnight new models are created in the Semi-ready styles. From each class pattern imported from England, one can select at least forty different styles from which a suit may be selected.

Not only must the designer be an artist in conception and creation, but he must so study the Semi-ready physique of his customer that he can grade his patterns to fit every particular type of customer that may be put up to him.

The ready-made suits have two types—stout and average. In the Semi-ready designing there are seven types and five variations from each type. The Semi-ready Store at 54 King Street is the only place where the genuine hand-tailored Semi-ready suits at $12 may be seen.

Tomorrow may be too late to set the very piano you want. Better come in today. The two car loads won't last long at the rate they are going. J. Clark & Son, Ltd., 17 Germain Street.

NORDICA JEWELS WORTH QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS

Newark, N. J., May 17—More than $200,000 worth of jewels accumulated by the late Mme. Nordica, opera singer, are included in the appraisal of her estate now in progress here.

Among the ornaments was one valued at $15,000, and there are many whose value runs to $15,000 and $20,000. There are a great number of medals and ins-to that the Germans had thrown several heavy shells into the great fortification of Barchon, some of which did great damage. In speaking of his experience to the Journal this Belgian said through the interpreter:

Killed Without Provocation.

"The Germans came in through the village of Julimont first and they destroyed everything along their path. It was savagery instead of civilization. Men, women and children were maimed as they went along. In Julimont alone I saw fourteen civilians killed without any provocation whatever except that they were Belgians. One of the most heartless and brutal cases happened in reason which I could not learn. It was a Frenchman in a soldier's uniform, a beautiful daughter and some German soldiers wanted her. Her father refused to give her up and the Germans killed him with several bullets. Then they took the girl away to a fate far worse than death."

"That was out the beginning of the awful scenes that followed. I knew that I should be killed unless I could hide away, and so I kept running from place to place. This went on for several weeks and all I had to eat was whatever I could find. Everything was chaos and hell. During the eleven weeks that I was dodging the Germans I managed to get one chicken that had been overlooked by the Germans and that kept me alive several days. At times my hunger seemed more than I could bear, but a man is a piece like that can stand more than he can in times of peace and quiet. Now and then I found a little fruit and that helped to keep me alive."

Prodded With Bayonets.

"They got me at last. When I was captured a German soldier ran his bayonet into my thigh, although I had made no resistance, let me a civilian. For some reason which I could not learn I was sent back to Germany and put into a big wire enclosure along with other prisoners, many of whom were Belgian soldiers. It was a plot of ground enclosed with a high barbed wire fence and there we were guarded by soldiers.

"As good luck would have it, the soldier who guarded the spot where I was captured was an Alsatian and could speak my language. After being in this cage for three days he and I became friendly and I found that he was a Frenchman still in sentiment and had not forgotten 1870 and Sedan. He was anxious to get away from the German army, and then we put our heads together and plotted to escape.

Guard Halted to Escape.

"It was on a dark night when we made the attempt. The guard from Alsace cut the wire near where I was and together we started on the run. Our objective point was Holland, but we both realized that if we were caught we should be shot instantly and without mercy. All night we traveled and when the morning light broke, we hid in some bushes overlooking the day. This we kept up for the next three days and nights and with scarcely anything to eat. My comrade was a soldier deserter, while I was a civilian captive, as the Germans said that I had helped to delay and hinder them. That they intended to shoot me sooner or later I had no doubt. We would walk all night and rest and sleep in some hiding spot through the day.

"It was more than three days that we were tortured in this flight, but at last we crossed the line into Holland and reached the town of Maastricht, where I had some friends. As the Germans had stolen all my money, my friends furnished me with enough to reach the sea-port of F—ing, where I got passage on a steamer for England."

"WOULD STREW LUSITANIAS GLADLY 'NEATH THE WAVES"

New York, May 17—The Sun prints the following from London—

The Daily News translates one of several stanzas published in the Berlin newspaper Der Tag. The verses run:—

The ship goes down with passengers and crew.

Hurray! A thousand German lives 'twill save.

To guard one field-gray hero we would strew

Ten Lusitanias gladly 'neath the wave.

BELGIAN REFUGEE FINDS HOME IN LEWISTON

Tells Thrilling Tale of German Outrages and of His Escape With Friendly Guard

Lewiston, Me., May 17—It is not generally known that Lewiston has become the home of a Belgian who was through the awful siege of Liege and later a prisoner in Germany. For eleven weeks he was in the midst of the awful carnage that marked the beginning of the European war, and no man in these cities has more reason to hold the German militarists in horror and hatred than he.

This man is Joseph Fagard, a citizen of Liege, but whose property and home were destroyed at the capture of that town in last August. He is now with his sister and her husband, Jean Henra, at their home in Middle street, and there for the present he will remain.

At the breaking out of the war Mr. Fagard was working at his trade as a gunmaker in Liege. For several days before the attack on that city it was generally known what was coming and many of the people fled. The first attack was not on Liege proper, but on an outlying village named Julimont. Previ-

HIGH PRICES KILLED

Beware of Cheap Prices

The General says: When we entered the field the price of good roofing was too high. With our big mills, enormous output and modern selling methods we can sell the best roofing at a reasonable price. This has been done to such a great extent that high prices have been killed. Now you get the highest quality at a reasonable price when you buy

Certain-teed Roofing

But there is another great danger. Unknown goods with unknown brands and unknown qualities are being offered at prices that are too cheap for safety. It is a long, long chance you take when you buy these cheap goods. Avoid extremes of cheap prices as well as high prices. Know that the company whose name appears on the goods has the ability to make a good quality roofing at a reasonable price, and that it is guaranteed by them to be the best roofing possible to make; that a company does not sell anything at a higher price, and that the price at which it is offered to you is a reasonable but not a cheap price.

Certain-teed Roofing is guaranteed 5, 10 or 15 years according to whether the thickness is 1, 2 or 3 ply respectively, and remember this guarantee is backed by the largest mill in the roofing and building paper industry in the world.

Rev. H. E. DeWolfe last night tendered his resignation as pastor of the United Baptist church at Hopewell Hill, apparently because some of the congregation had tried to censor his sermons and dictate to him what should be preached.

SAYS HUNGARIANS ARE TIRED OF WAR

Country Full of Wounded Men and Cost of Living Excessive

PEOPLE FEAR EPIDEMIC

They Say When That Time
Comes Fighting Will Stop—
He Found Conditions in Germany Much Better

New York, May 17—Julius Braun, a music teacher, who lives in New York and who has just returned from Europe after a trip on which he started in April, told the story of conditions in Hungary due to the war, as he had observed them, during a visit he made there for the purpose of bringing back to this country his stepson, an eleven-year-old boy who had been at school in Hungary. Mr. Braun is an American citizen of Hungarian extraction.

He said that conditions in Hungary had been entirely misrepresented here by the newspapers printed in foreign languages, just as the actual facts of the war were misrepresented to native Hungarians by the government influenced newspapers of their country. Far from being contented and hopeful, as they are represented here, says Mr. Braun, they are actually thoroughly sick of the war. He makes the picture that he draws blacker by saying that it is feared disease will break out on a wholesale scale as soon as the warm weather arrives and when this happens, he says, he can see no other outcome than that the Hungarians will lose their fighting strength.

"I went from Bendheim, on the frontier of Germany through that country to Vienna, thence to Budapest, then to Zsolna, a very important railroad centre which lies about five and a half miles from the fighting line in the Carpathians," said Mr. Braun. "I made stops by the way so that I can say that I had a good opportunity to see conditions and observe sentiment through Hungary, if not through Germany and Austria."

"The conditions could not very well be worse. The pleasant state of things that is claimed by the foreign papers of the United States does not exist, and the people who read those papers are deceived."

"The Hungarian people are bitterly tired of the war and think of nothing but when it will be over. In the first place every able bodied man has been ordered out. Men as old as 43 years are seen going to the stations to report for duty accompanied by five and six children, and a weeping wife. The people left behind, knowing how they will come back, if at all, are the ones who breed discontent."

Only Wounded Men
"In Budapest you see no men in the streets except those who are wounded. A day on the great railroad station of Zsolna is a sight to make your soul sick. I saw fifty or sixty trainloads of wounded soldiers go through in one day. Scores of men whose heads had been amputated at the knees because they had been frozen in the snows of the Carpathians, were carried from one train to another."

"In Zsolna I saw one of the most depressing sights of my life. They buried the dead in the middle of the night so that the people would not know what was going on. The first night I watched there were eighteen men buried, and I am told by townspeople that the buried averaged from forty to fifty a night. There are 180 barracks in the town. Many Russian prisoners are concentrated here, but the wounded outnumber everything else."

"It is the same in Budapest. Here all the schools, the public buildings, and all available office buildings have been converted into hospitals. To make way for the wounded in the schools the regular sessions have been discontinued, and now the children come together at two o'clock and are gathered in the board rooms, the teachers' rooms, etc., and get what instruction they can be given in about two hours."

"The constant presence of wounded soldiers on the streets has a most depressing effect on the civilians. I have seen people weeping on the streets and I have heard them talking against the war. The food situation also has had a bad effect on the population. Meat has almost doubled in price. Milk is scarce. My own sister has had to go down on her knees to get some for her children."

"In Vienna you had to have your bread ticket which entitled you to seventy grams of bread or fifty grams of flour. I could not get any bread in Vienna at all. The bread ticket rule applied first to Vienna and then was carried to the smaller towns. Budapest has been notified it will come under the rule on May 15. This bread is indigestible and unpalatable."

"There are signs everywhere warning the people not to throw away scraps of bread but to save everything. They are told by these signs not to peel the skins of potatoes, but to eat them also, and similar methods of food economy are everywhere insisted upon."

Reports Misleading
"With these conditions of life facing them and the constantly depressing sight of terribly wounded soldiers, it is no wonder the people are beginning to hate the war. The newspaper reports, supervised by the authorities are constantly striving to keep them encouraged by reports of great victories and the taking of innumerable Russian prisoners. These things have some effect on the ignorant but the thoughtful people see through them."

"In the beginning Hungary was for the war. They were told it could not last more than six months and believed it. When the Germans were so near Paris they thought it was all over. But the reaction has come. They say now it is a war without a purpose. Austro-Hungary will get nothing out of it they say. They think if the war is successful Germany will get something, perhaps, but Hungary nothing."

"And the latest fear is the fear of pestilence. They realize that with the enormous numbers of wounded and sick soldiers about, disease may spread to the entire population. They fear that with the coming of warm weather this will happen and they can not see how it can be avoided. If it does come it will stop the fighting. That will be the last blow."

Mr. Braun said that conditions in Germany as he had seen them, were much better than in Hungary. In Ger-

New Light on Gum
A Lesson from the Races of the World

This Man is First—

In freedom from decay of teeth the brown Maori leads the world.

Violating all the white man's sound advice he never suits his teeth. He eats whatever cools his whim—whatever cool New Zealand yields. Kukupu, Kaka, Weka, Putangitangi all in their turn.

Shark-steak, birds roasted on the spit and wrapped in green leaves to keep their flavor.

Why do the teeth of British school-children show nearly 80 times as much decay as his? We will tell you further on.

The Esquimaux and the Indian

Fat and fish and bird and twenty different kinds of plants. These in the main form the Esquimaux' meals. And he ranks second in having good teeth.

And third comes our own Canadian Indian of the bleak Northwest. He eats a good deal like the Esquimaux.

Other races ranking high in the soundness of their teeth are Fuegians, Fijians, Chinwans of Formosa, Semangs, Jakuns.

But we of Canada—?

Some years ago the British Dental Association examined the teeth of 10,500 English and Scotch school-children—10,500 cousins to the boys and girls of Canada.

86% had some decay of the teeth as against 1 7/10% for the adult Maori and 1 1/10% for the Esquimaux.

Why?—the vital question stares us in the face. Must we eat like the Maori or the Esquimaux to gain more freedom from decay?

True, their foods are much simpler—and their living much closer to Nature. But that does not account for the tremendous difference between 1.2% and 86%.

Leading dental authorities give us the following answer to our problem.

Races having the best teeth chew foods which excite the salivary glands. The Canadian Indian of the Northwest chews food of the sugar-pine. The Maori flavors foods with the juice of the tutuberry—another keen exciter of the salivary flow.

The human saliva is Nature's own mouth-wash—the best conservator of the teeth—best since man began.

This may be news to you, but there is more:—Saliva not only neutralizes the acid which is the worst enemy of your teeth—it wars as well on many of the germs that enter the mouth through air and food. It is one of Dr. Nature's own fine preventive medicines.

Too frequently the diet of civilized man exerts a depressing influence on the salivary glands.

It is here that the use of chewing gum comes into its own with honors. It helps to maintain the mouth and teeth in all their natural health.

It fights against what dentists call "oral (mouth) stagnation." It is a needed friend to modern man.

When YOU Chew Gum

Most of us chew gum for pleasure. But all of us who use it, whatever our motive, are getting benefit from it. Gum is serving us a mighty good turn.

Can your gum be too pure for you?—too clean for your mouth? Assuredly no. And it should be very tasty, too, because it is flavor which coaxes the tooth protecting, mouth cleansing saliva.

It is for these reasons that Sterling Gum is entitled to your welcome.

Sterling Gum is of the cleanest chicle—flavored through and through by the secret Sterling process, with the highest grade peppermint flavoring.

Sterling Gum is produced in spotless kitchens—by spotless machinery—guided by men and girls in spotless garments.

Sterling Gum made and wrapped right here in Canada.

Always free from grit—always delicately smooth in body—Sterling Gum earns a rightful place in every top right hand drawer of every sideboard in Canada. Its flavor is delightful.

*NOTE—The foregoing dental facts are taken from "Prevention of Dental Caries (Decay of the Teeth) and Oral Septis" by H. F. Pickert, M.D., Ch. B., M.D.S., I.D.S.

CLEAN-UP THE CITY.

(Halifax Echo)

Ward Two and Three have been cleaned and a tremendous cleaning it was too. Water street was very heavy, but the big surprises were Edward and Henry streets. Mr. Quigly said there were so many barrels out on Henry street they looked like a board fence. A team was loaned by Fraser Bros, but still others had to be hired. It is Ward Four's turn today and Ward Five comes tomorrow. Take off your coats and roll up your sleeves tonight, citizens of Ward Five, and then you will not be outdone by the South End. Secretary E. J. Kelly says never have there been such heavy collections in Ward One, Two and Three as there were during the past few days.

A little boy came to Secretary Kelly the other day and asked for some seeds. He said he was going to make a garden all by his own work.

"It will be a surprise for father," he said with shining eyes.

like to hear from more boys like this one.

Tulips are now in bloom at Richmond school.

Principal Higgins of that school is doing a great work among the children encouraging them in gardening. A large quantity of seeds has been given to the Richmond school by the Improvement League. Twenty boys turned up last Saturday to straighten up the yard, but it rained. All of the pupils will work at cleaning up today.

The pupils of Quinpool Road School have also joined the procession. They are planting a large number of shade trees.

Ingersoll Cheese is good for children, good for old people, good for everybody. Pure, wholesome, delicious.

When the New York National League ball club was playing in Boston, a local clergyman called at the hotel where the players were one Sunday to congratulate Mathewson on his stand against playing on the Sabbath.

The clerk made a few mysterious inquiries and then said: "Sorry, sir, but Mr. Mathewson is out playing golf."—Everybody's.

WRESTLING

Prokos vs. Allen, Tonight.

Jim Prokos is to meet Charlie Allen in a handicap match in Fredericton tonight.

He has guaranteed to throw him twice in an hour or forfeit $100.

"Strangle" Lewis, a well known western wrestler, is to challenge Prokos.

He weighs 210 pounds, but is willing to meet the crack Greek wrestler in a handicap match.

Exciting Match in Montreal.

Waldok Zbyzsko, the Polish heavy-weight champion, defeated Jim Eason, a husky Scot, in straight falls in Montreal on Friday.

Zbyzsko showed great cleverness and forced the giant Scot-man to travel at a fast clip.

Referee Lepage awarded Zbyzsko the first fall on a foul after thirty-four minutes of wrestling, after several desperate attempts to pin Zbyzsko, Eason became angry and hit him a stiff punch in the stomach.

Zbyzsko earned the second fall after twenty-two minutes with an arm lock and body hold.

Eason tried roughing it up at times and was hissed by the crowd.

The most exciting incident of the evening's programme occurred when Eason stood in the centre of the ring challenging the crowd of fans.

They kept throwing apples and orange peels at him and when Eason finally saw one throw something he jumped over the ropes and down into the crowd.

Those who had thrown things at the big Scot beat a hasty retreat.

Eason was greatly weakened by the severe punishment that Zbyzsko forced upon him.

Zbyzsko secured the toe hold on several occasions while he failed to secure a fall with it, he caused Eason great pain.

Jack Britton and Johnny Griffiths will meet in Cincinnati on May 31.

Battling Levinsky will get back in the game again in New York next Friday night.

Willard is fortunate to have such a popular challenger as Jim Coffey. If the Irishman continues to win all his bouts a Coffey-Willard match late in the summer may prove a far bigger card than the Havana battle proved to be.

The Johnson-Willard fight drew only about 12,000. Coffey and Reich attracted that many to New York, not counting several thousand who could not gain admission.

Figuring on that basis it is not unreasonable to expect that 30,000 persons would turn out to see Coffey and Willard in action at one of the open air arenas this summer.

Even if the price of tickets is not high, Willard's share is likely to equal what Johnson received for defending his title in battles over the long distance and with a referee's decision at stake.

Dr. Duval Was Doing Heroic Work When He Was Wounded

Rumors at Front That He May Get The Distinguished Service Medal—Dr. G. G. Corbet Writes of His Gallant Conduct and His Injury

A letter from Captain (Dr.) G. G. Corbet of this city to his sister-in-law, tells how her husband, Major (Dr.) J. L. Duval of the Medical Corps was injured, under circumstances which showed his heroism and which, according to his friends, should entitle him to the distinguished service medal. The letter follows—

No. 11 Stationary Hospital,
Rouen, France, May 3, 1915.

"With you I can praise the Almighty at Joe's escape from death. Just as soon as I found out where he was I proceeded to get permission to go to him and obtained it."

"Last Sunday evening about 12:15 midnight, as Joe was removing the last patient from the advanced dressing post, a shell exploded about twenty feet from him, fracturing the tibia and fibula of the right leg, leaving a gaping wound. It is what we call a compound comminuted fracture. Also a fragment of the shell went through the muscles of the left thigh, went in at the front and out at the side; so both legs are out of commission. He was operated on and a fragment of shell taken out of the right leg. He is doing well. I spent two days with him and saw the legs and I think I can honestly say he felt better for my visit, and that he is improving."

"He probably will be invalided to England first and perhaps home. It will be six months before he will be real well. In three months he will be about on crutches; probably he may be slightly lame in the right leg."

"It seems several officers had been given the chance to volunteer for this dangerous post; they refused; Joe was asked and he did not like the prospect, but said if they wanted him to go he was ready. So he went with the boys. They were two days under shell fire. When he was wounded two other poor fellows were also. They fell on him, but he managed to drag himself away from underneath and so was put on his own ambulance wagon and brought home. I am awfully glad to know that he received his majority on March 17. There are some rumors that he may get the D. S. medal, but we have to wait. I hope he does."

"His action has helped to cover our little section (St. John) with glory along with the brave, heroic acts of the Canadians, as you have seen in the papers. No other St. John boys are injured."

YOUTHS IN COURT IN $250 STEALING CASE

Another Telling of Buying Quart of Liquor in North End Saloon

In the police court this morning three men arrested on drunken charges were fined $8 or two months in jail.

The preliminary hearing in the case against William Mulcahy and Russell Kierstead on suspicion of stealing $250 from Joseph Welsh, was taken up. Welsh told of leaving his home on Thursday evening with $250 in his pocket. He said he visited several saloons, but could not remember what happened until the following morning when his roll was missing. He notified the police.

Thomas Carey, a youth, testified that on Friday morning while he was loading wood near Miller's mill, Chesley street, one of the defendants, Kierstead, came to him and told him he had $10 which the defendant, Mulcahy, gave to him. He said Kierstead had purchased an imperial quart in a Main street liquor store. At this point Magistrate Hiltchie said it is a state of affairs when a young boy can enter a liquor store and purchase an imperial quart of liquor.

Detective Worrell told of going to Chesley street and placing the two defendants in the hands of special policeman Barrett, he took them to the North End police station. Kierstead said he had received the $10 from Mulcahy, but that he saw him pick up two $10 and Mulcahy had shared with him. Both young prisoners were remanded to jail.
